

CHAPTER 38.

[H. B. 6.]

RELATING TO PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS.

AN ACT prohibiting certain persons from teaching in the public schools of this state and providing punishment for the violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Right restricted to citizens.

Permits to aliens.

SECTION 1. No person, who is not a citizen of the United States of America, shall teach or be permitted or qualified to teach in any common school or high school in this state: Provided, however, That the superintendent of public instruction may grant to aliens a permit to teach in the common and high schools of this state; providing such teacher has all the other qualifications required by law, has declared his or her intention of becoming a citizen of the United States of America, and that five years and six months have not expired since such declaration was made. Such permits shall at all times be subject to revocation by and at the discretion of the superintendent of public instruction.

Want of patriotism
ground for debarring
teachers.

SEC. 2. No person, whose certificate or diploma authorizing him or her to teach in the public schools of this state shall have been revoked on account of his or her failure to endeavor to impress on the minds of his or her pupils the principles of patriotism, or to train them up to the true comprehension of the rights, duty and dignity of American Citizenship, shall teach or be permitted or qualified to teach in any public school in this state, and no certificate or diploma shall be issued to such person.

Violations
of act.

SEC. 3. Any person teaching in any school in violation of this act, and any school director knowingly permitting any person to teach in any school in violation of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.
