DIKING, DRAINAGE AND SEWERAGE DISTRICT ELECTIONS.

AN ACT relating to diking, drainage, and sewerage improvement districts, the manner of voting therein, and amending section 19, chapter 176, Laws of 1913.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

§ 1945-75,
Pierce's
Code.

SECTION 1. That section 19 of chapter 176, Laws of 1913, the same being section 4424 Remington's Compiled Statutes of Washington be amended to read as follows:

Election.

Section 19. Upon the determination by the board of county commissioners to proceed with the work of construction, said board shall order an election to be held in some place within the district to be designated by the board, and shall appoint an election board to consist of one inspector and two judges, who shall qualify in like manner and receive like compensation as election officers at general elections. Notice of said election shall be given by the clerk of the board of county commissioners by publication once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper to be designated by the board and of general circulation in the district, the last of which publications shall be not less than seven nor more than fourteen days prior to the date of said election, and such notice shall also be posted by the sheriff of the county not less than fourteen days prior to the date of said election, in three of the most public places in the district. That at all elections held within the diking district the polls shall be open from one o'clock [o'clock], P. M. until seven o'clock P. M. All electors of the state owning land in the district shall be entitled to vote at any election held within the district, and each elector owning more than ten (10) acres
