AN ACT Relating to the centennial partnership corporation; creating new sections; providing an expiration date; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This act shall be known as the centennial partnership act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) Destination tourism attractions which attract visitors from other states will increase state tax revenues and provide direct and indirect civic and economic benefits to the state.

(2) People of other states have a strong interest in the historical, technical, and economic heritage of the state of Washington.

(3) A destination tourism attraction based on our Washington heritage, including but not limited to the agriculture, maritime, logging, or aviation heritage, advertises the inventiveness and productivity of the citizens and provides education and incentive to the state's youth.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The purpose of this act is to provide for a study of the feasibility of creating one or more destination tourism attractions based on the Washington heritage. This study is to be conducted in cooperation with various nonprofit corporations interested in the creation of such an attraction as a means of celebrating and sharing the state's unique heritage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 10 of this act, there is created a public corporation of temporary duration to be known as the centennial partnership corporation. The corporation shall be governed by a board of directors composed of the following nine persons: The director of the department of commerce and economic development or the director's representative; the state historic preservation officer; four persons appointed by the governor who are members of the nonprofit corporations which meet the qualifications of section 7 of this act; two persons appointed by the governor from the hotel, motel, or restaurant businesses; and one person representing the governor and appointed by the governor.

(2) The corporation shall cease to exist on July 1, 1985.

(3) It shall enter into such contracts as are appropriate for conducting the study and issuing the report required under this section.

(4) It shall carry out its powers and duties in cooperation with the nonprofit corporations who meet the qualifications of section 7 of this act and who have made donations under that section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The centennial partnership corporation may include within its recommendations to the legislature proposed contracts relating to the acquisition of land or construction of facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A nonprofit corporation shall not be considered qualified under this act unless it:

Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the centennial partnership corporation. No appropriation is required for disbursements.

(2) All moneys donated to the state under section 7 of this act shall be deposited by the governor in the centennial partnership fund.

(3) There is hereby appropriated from the general fund to the centennial partnership fund the sum of fifteen thousand dollars. No part of this appropriation may be spent until such time as a matching amount of fifteen thousand dollars, received as donations under section 7 of this act, is deposited into the fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The governor shall make available to the centennial partnership corporation such staff and administrative support as the governor considers appropriate for the corporation to carry out its functions in an orderly and appropriate manner. In order to implement this section, the governor may rely on the employees of any agency headed by an officer or employee who serves at the pleasure of the governor.
