

If both the challenger and the challenged voter file affidavits instead of appearing in person, an evaluation of the affidavits by the county auditor constitutes a hearing for the purposes of this section.

The county auditor shall hold a hearing at which time both parties ~~((shall))~~ may present their facts and arguments. After reviewing the facts and arguments, including any evidence submitted by either side, the county auditor shall rule as to the validity or invalidity of the ~~((challenge))~~ challenged registration. His or her ruling is final subject only to a petition for judicial review by the superior court under chapter 34.04 RCW. If ~~((the challenger))~~ either party, or both parties, fail((s)) to appear at the meeting or fail((s)) to file an affidavit, the ~~((registration in question may remain in full effect as determined by the county auditor. If the challenged voter fails to appear at the meeting or fails to file an affidavit, then the registration shall be canceled and the voter so notified))~~ county auditor shall determine the status of the registration based on his or her evaluation of the available facts.
