"Mr. President, members of the Senate, Your Honor to be:

"I am speaking for the younger members of our caucus with very mixed emotions because, Senator and Judge, our loss is the gain of the state and we are going to miss your counsel in our caucus. I might say for the other side of the aisle that this man has held the caucus on this side of the aisle together on more than one occasion and we are not looking forward to your leaving, Senator. I hope that for some time to come that you will be available to counsel us when the going gets really rough here, and we are particularly happy that your wish has been fulfilled in reaching the position that you have attained. We will always be glad that we had the opportunity to know and work with you and we will miss you very sorely. My congratulations."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"As one who has served with Marshall Neill ever since he has been in the legislature, in both the House of Representatives and the Senate, I think that the Governor made a wise choice. As one who has sometimes made suggestions about the practice of the Court, I think Senator Neill, who will now be Judge Neill, will take the message back and we might see some changes in the Supreme Court; and certainly I think, as one who has sometimes voted against salary increases, now that Marshall Neill is going to be a judge, he is going to earn every penny he receives and will be an excellent addition to the Court.

"I would hope that his leaving the Conference Committee will not delay the closing of this session, and, he might be able to give a little judicious counsel quietly on the side to the new members of the Conference Committee and speed up the process.

"Congratulations, Marshall!"

Senator Freise:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate, Marshall Neill:

"Marshall, you and I came to the Senate together in 1957. I know you had previous House experience, yet you are a cow county lawyer and I am a cow county lawyer, and you are a cow county Senator and I am a cow county Senator, and with the help of several other cow county Senators and also some cow county Senators who are also cow county lawyers, we have worked together for the state of Washington as well as our territory. I know this has been one of your heartfelt dreams that you would be on the Supreme Court some day and you are certainly to be congratulated. You have earned every bit of it and I want to concur in everything that has been said heretofore."

Senator Henry:

"Number one, perhaps now that we have Marshall on the Supreme Court, Slim might vote for a salary increase;

"Number two, maybe the good Justices will permit Senator Greive to finish his arguments before the court;

"Number three, I intend to campaign for Marshall Neill; and,

"Number four, it couldn't happen to a nicer guy!"

Senator Talley:

"Fellow Senators, Judge Neill:

"You now have all of the river counties: Senator Henry, Senator Foley and Senator Talley. We'll be glad to campaign for you."

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

I have known Marshall since he came to the House to help out on the appropriations committee back in 1947. It has been a distinct pleasure to work with him through the years. I like to double check my judgment every now and then and you see me whirl around and talk to the Senator sitting in back of me. We have shared numerous conferences and worked hard together. I'm really going to miss you."

Senator Donohue:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate and Your Honor to Be:

"Marshall is a friend and neighbor with whom I have served very closely over the years. I wish to express what I am quite sure are the feelings of Eastern Washington on this appointment made by the Governor. I think it is an outstanding appointment, and I am sure that the people in your district and my district will be very happy when they hear the news. Congratulations to you, Marshall."

Senator Hanna:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"I want to join with the other members of this Senate in submitting my accolade to Justice Neill on his appointment to the Supreme Court bench. Many of you have spoken about the characteristics and fine attributes of Senator Neill. I would like to advise the members of the Senate though they already know, I am sure, that he has a very lovely wife and fine family who have stood by him through the thick and thin of the political arena, and that political arena can be thick and it can be thin.

"I am reminded when I was first elected to the House of Representatives in 1955, there was a difference, as you know, politically of fifty members of the Democratic Party and forty-nine members of the Republican Party. I sat in the back seat as close to the water fountain as our good friend Senator Marquardt, and I was immediately struck in the first few days of the legislative session in 1955 with the personality of Senator, then Representative Marshall Neill.

"I want to congratulate you and the Governor on this appointment, Marshall. I know that you will do an excellent job. I would like to close however by saying my political commitment to you comes with some reservation. I feel the hot breath of Gummy Johnson down the back of my neck. I will be happy to support you, Marshall, if you in turn will support me!"

Senator Morgan:

"Mr. President, gentlemen of the Senate and Senator Marshall Neill, soon to be Judge:

"I have very few words to say except that my position here is a little different from most people. I am a member of the distaff, so to speak, and I think the greatest compliment perhaps one can give to another is that Senator Marshall Neill does give one dignity.

"There have been times when I have come on this floor and wondered why I was here. It is a little, rough, you know, as a woman to serve but always Senator Neill, whether it was on the Legislative Budget Committee or coming on the floor of the Senate or sitting at luncheon, his quiet dignity, that of a gentleman, the dignity he bestows on others, would prevail. I would like to add that I am happy he is from the Palouse Country."

Senator Kupka:

"Mr. President and Lady and Gentlemen of the Senate:

"I was a little late this morning and I am sorry but I wasn't here when the announcement was made. I was just looking at the legislative manual and we both started in the House of Representatives eighteen years ago this session. While I am not a lawyer, and I am sure I won't have any cases before your court other than perhaps somebody may be representing me as a defendant possibly, but I certainly want to congratulate you. I am going to state at this time you are going to leave a real void on that side of the aisle. There are others that can fulfill your position, but you did it so well, and it has been such a great pleasure to be an associate of yours through these eighteen years. I certainly want to congratulate you."

Senator Lewis:

"Mr. President, Senator Neill, members of the Senate:

"I, too, would like to offer my sincere congratulations to you for a well deserved honor and I would like to officially welcome you to Thurston county, you and your lovely wife, Marion. Thurston county is going to be very privileged and glad to welcome both of you here, and we will recognize the difficulties that there will be for you in leaving your home of long standing in Pullman. I would just like to extend all the courtesies and the friendliness of the people in Olympia and Thurston county to you and your wife."

Senator Bailey:

"Mr. President:

"I wasn't going to say anything because I am not very good at this, but it seems to me like we have heard this case, and its the first case and there's only one side to it and maybe we should proceed to listen to the Judge, himself."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Senate Resolution.

The motion by Senator Ryder was carried and the resolution was adopted.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President:

"Senator Neill, members of the Senate:

"I hope not to appear irreligious but I should like to remark that this is indeed a Good Friday, and I would like to join the members of the Senate in wishing you and your beautiful wife, Marion, and your lovely family congratulations and every good wish in the years to come.

"Now, members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, it is with the greatest pride and pleasure that I present to you the Honorable Marshall A. Neill."

Senator Neill:

"Governor John, my colleagues and my friends:

"I think it must be obvious to you that I stand here this morning with rather deep mixed emotions. I have worked with you and others for twenty years in the legislative branch of government. I have enjoyed every minute of it or, of course, I wouldn't have stayed. People have asked me many, many times why would you fool around with politics, and I have always given the same answer from the bottom of my heart: It's the people you meet, the friends you make.

"It hasn't been easy for me to come to a decision to leave this much of my life's work, but on the other hand, the time comes when I think everybody has to do what deep in their hearts they have always wanted to do. I can't remember the time when I didn't really want some day to be on the Bench.

"I am one of those fortunate individuals who in my lifetime have had something I have always wanted and not drifted. As a small boy I wanted to be a lawyer, and through thick and thin I finally made it. When I became a lawyer, I wanted to be a judge. It's taken thirty years, and they have been thirty good years. If I could be personal for a moment perhaps you could understand the mixed emotions of this occasion. My grandfather was an Irish immigrant. He came to this country uneducated and read law in Indiana and in the Dakota Territories. He came out to the Territory of Washington and established a law office in 1887, which I have had the fortune to continue. It isn't easy to turn your back on that and still you have to do what you have to do.

"When Governor Evans paid me the honor of offering to me the chance to do that which I have always wanted, I think you can understand, my friends, that I had to say 'yes.'

"Now unfortunately for you, of course, our work is not quite done here and I know that Senator Durkan needs me badly on that Conference Committee, so I do not intend to leave here until I have helped Senator Durkan get our job done. But my friends and colleagues, from the bottom of my heart, for your expressions today, thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gissberg:

"Mr. President, would Senator Neill yield to a question:

"Senator, I have been calling you 'Judge' for many years on the floor of the Senate, and I have called you 'Judge' this session, too, not because of the fact I thought you had been appointed judge, but simply because in my mind you have always been a judge. Before I ask you the question, I want to say to those present who are not privileged to attend the executive sessions and meetings of committees, that there is no man that serves in the legislature as far as I personally am concerned that I rely more upon for good judgment than Senator Neill. When questions arise in committees and debate becomes hot and thick politically, I know that Senator Neill can calm the waters immediately simply by making a pronouncement of his judgment.

"Aside from that, Senator Neill, the Minority Whip has suggested that you might in some future day after you have assumed the judgeship come back and give them some political guidance and I would like you, if you would to state and inquire of you whether maybe there are some judicial ethics involved in that position that would preclude you from giving any political guidance and advice to the Minority Caucus? I know that you have always been so kind to the Majority Caucus and you have taken positions which are nonpolitical, even when they were political, and I assume that you will be able to straighten out the Minority Whip on the question of judicial ethics and Marshall Neill will no longer be in politics, I assume."

Senator Neill:

"Mr. President, Senator:

"The last part of your remarks at least are well taken, and I would not deign of course, once I have made the decision to leave these halls, to come back and try to tell anybody how to run their business. I will have troubles enough of my own."

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President:

"I would remind Senator Gissberg there will be no more brush cutting in these halls with Senator Neill. I notice all of the lawyers ready to start brush cutting. I quit today."

The committee of honor came forward and escorted Senator Neill from the rostrum.

The Secretary read:

GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 24, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Member, Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, subject to your confirmation:

The Honorable Gordon Sandison, appointed August 4, 1965, for a term ending June 9, 1969, succeeding himself.

Sincerely yours,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Gordon Sandison to the position of member of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"Senator Sandison has served for some years on this particular commission, both as an appointee of Governor Rosellini and as an appointee of Governor Evans. It is a tribute to the fact that he has been known politically, that he has been effective, that he is slated this coming year to be president of that particular organization. It is also interesting to note that he will be the first non-college president ever to head the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education so it seems to me that we have certainly reason to be proud of the impact of Senator Sandison upon this group of individuals that they have honored him and it seems to me we should have a unanimous approval of his appointment."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF GORDON SANDISON

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Gordon Sandison to the position of member of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 8.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lenhart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—41.

Absent or not voting: Senators Gissberg, Guess, Mardesich, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Redmon, Sandison, Stender—8.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of Gordon Sandison to the position of member of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, was confirmed.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of the Free Conference Committee report on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 548 and the motion by Senator Sandison that the committee report be adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield:

"Mr. President, would Senator McCormack yield to a question:

"Senator, you remember I discussed with you some time ago the relationship of the coordinating council on vocational education with this new bill and I believe that those suggestions I made were not followed, which may be all right. I have received another letter this morning. I have it in my hand. It is from the Pierce county labor council, so I don't owe them anything, but they raised this same point. My question to you is does this bill properly safeguard, in your opinion, the vocational training setup in this state?"

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President:

"I think the answer to Senator Canfield's question is yes, definitely. Senator Canfield's original suggestion with respect to appointing a council was a different method of organizing the council. The letter from the Pierce County labor council this morning is in opposition to the existence of the council. Their position is that there should not be a separate council at all, so they were two separate questions, but the council is made up under this bill of three members from the state board of education, three from the community college board and three appointed by the Governor, two of whom, to match the federal law, must have familiarity with the needs of the state of Washington with respect to labor and management in so far as vocational and occupational rehabilitation is concerned. Therefore, the vocational and technical programs in the state are in a far better condition under this new bill with these special provisions in it than they are at the present where they are under the guidance of the state board of education where no such requirements exist."

Debate ensued.

Senators Guess, Connor and McCormack demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The motion by Senator Sandison was carried and the report of the Free Conference Committee was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 548 as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pritchard:

"Mr. President, would Senator Andersen yield to a question:

"Senator Andersen, you made a very impassioned plea some weeks ago and a very moving speech about the problems in your community and the Bellevue Community College.

"Are you satisfied with this bill as it now is written and does it take care of your problems?"

Senator Andersen:

"No, I am not satisfied with it, Senator Pritchard, but I am going to vote for it on the principle that it is the best bill that we are going to be able to get through the Senate this session. I am very apprehensive in doing so. I am fearful that it may very well lose us the community college for example in the district which I represent, Bellevue. But I recognize some things are possible and some things are not possible and we have gone to the ultimate in possibilities here on the Senate floor. If you could vote, 'maybe,' I would certainly vote that way on this bill. This is a bill that I think you have to vote for on the basis that it is the best you can get and you have to put a little hope in the future, that we are going to be able to correct some of the problems and inequalities and inappropriate things in it. I don't think the interests of the people will let us vote against this bill. We are in a position where we have to have districting in order to maintain the community college system and continue to build on a state-wide basis as we always do."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 548 as amended by the Free Conference Committee and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 7; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—40.

Those voting nay were: Senators Freise, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Rasmussen, Talley—7.

Absent or not voting: Senators Morgan, Neill—2.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 548 as amended by the Free Conference Committee having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

On motion of Senator McCormack, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 548 as amended by the Free Conference Committee was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hallauer, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

It was moved by Senator Hanna that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 309 and the motion for reconsideration be made a special order of business for Monday, March 27, 1967, immediately following lunch.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the rules be suspended and that the Senate do immediately consider Senate Bill No. 49 together with the Governor's partial veto message thereon.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 8, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith Senate Bill No. 49 entitled:

"An Act establishing the oceanographic commission of Washington; authorizing the formation of the Oceanographic Institute of Washington; prescribing powers, duties and functions; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date."

This bill establishes the Oceanographic Commission of Washington to encourage and promote maximum utilization of our oceanographic assets. In my State of the State Message, I stated "to assure the proper public management of our new and exciting frontier in oceanography, I will enthusiastically support the establishment of the Washington State Oceanographic Commission." I commend the legislature for its enactment of Senate Bill No. 49 and believe that the Commission which it has established will play a vital role in the future of the State of Washington.

In Section 2, the bill provides that members of the Commission shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for necessary travel and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as commission members "on the same basis as provided by law for state officials and employees under RCW 44.04.120." The statute cited in the bill does not refer to travel and other expenses incurred by state officials or employees, but rather, refers to expenses incurred by members of the legislature while serving on interim committees. State officials and employees are reimbursed for travel and other expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and .060 at the rate of $.08 a mile and $15.00 a day while inside the state and $25.00 a day while outside the state. I believe the legislature intended that those who are serving on a temporary basis while permanently engaged in other employment be reimbursed at the higher rate provided by RCW 44.04.120 of $25.00 a day and $10 a mile.

To allow the language to remain as it exists in this bill would invite challenge by the Auditor of payment of proper expenses of members of the Commission. In order to avoid any question with regard to this matter, I have vetoed the words "by law for state officials and employees" from Section 2. The remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL, J. EVANS,
Governor.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Secretary of the Senate was instructed to return Senate Bill No. 49 and the Governor's partial veto message to the Secretary of State.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Senate Bill No. 122, by Senators Dore, Kupka, Keefe, Washington, Rasmussen, Knoblauch, and Hallauer (by Facilities and Operations Committee request):

Regulating legislative lobbying.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 122 and the amendment by Senators Dore and Gissberg as amended.

It was moved by Senator Williams that the following amendment to the amendment be adopted:

On page 2, section 6, subsection (b), after "In addition" strike "he shall be liable for compensatory and punitive" and insert ", any person who makes a materially false statement under the provisions of section 2 shall be liable for"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, would Senator Gissberg yield:

"Senator Gissberg, it seems like I recall a couple of sessions ago we had quite a debate about punitive damages, in relation to this act. What difference would it be if some individual outside of the legislature who wasn't a lobbyist would make a statement about a legislator. Could they collect punitive damages?"

Senator Gissberg:

"No."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President:

"Why then would it be necessary to have punitive damages where for instance a member of the P-T.A. might come down and would be listed as a lobbyist and make a statement: 'I don't know, I don't like Senator Gissberg. I think he's influenced by somebody else.' This is a point I find difficult to envision in my mind why a lobbyist should be treated any different from any other person concerning punitive damages."

Senator Gissberg:

"In the first place, the facts that you have given, Senator Rasmussen, the P-T.A. coming down and making a statement—I do not believe that should be punitive damages, nor do I believe it should be punitive damages in the case of any oral statement, even by a lobbyist. I do not believe there should be punitive damages against a legislator then nor do I believe there should be punitive damages in any other case, although I supported the punitive damages concept when it passed the halls some time ago and then the press, as you recall, set up quite an effective lobby and got the legislature to reverse itself during the special legislative session that ensued. But the amendment that I would like to see adopted would only provide for punitive damages in the limited case where the lobbyist filed a statement, a written statement, a misstatement, a fraudulent statement and on that statement he said, 'I loaned X number of dollars to Senator Rasmussen, or promised to pay him X number of dollars.' That's the only situation that I want to catch for punitive damages. Not any oral statement, no other statements that are made anywhere, no other written statements, only in that particular category where he filed with the Secretary of State under the terms of this bill a statement to the effect that he gave you so much money or promised to give you so much money or loaned you so much money. In that instance I think the lobbyist should be faced with punitive damages and I think that concept is a good concept, Senator, because it would preclude anyone making a false statement for political purposes which could very easily happen."

Debate ensued.

The motion was lost and the amendment by Senator Williams was not adopted.

The amendment by Senators Dore and Gissberg as amended by Senators Mardesich and Uhlman was adopted.

On motion of Senator Dore, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woodall, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122 was made a special order of business for Monday, March 27, 1967, immediately following consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 309.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Office of the President of the Senate,
Olympia, March 24, 1967.

To the Members of the Washington State Senate.

Lady and Gentlemen:

The President would like to take this opportunity to wish each of you and your families a most pleasant and happy Easter.

It is hoped that in these last hours of Holy Week, as the joyous feast of Easter approaches, you will all be able to enjoy the comfort and warmth of being with your loved ones.

Sincerely,
John A. Cherberg,
President of the Senate.

MOTION

At 12:20 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 12:00 noon, Monday, March 27, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

EIGHTEENTH DAY

NOON SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Monday, March 27, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at noon by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Freise and Gissberg.

On motion of Senator Hallauer, Senator Gissberg was excused.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Freise was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Gregory Klump, Color Bearer, and Colleen Convis, presented the Colors.

Reverend James J. McGreal, pastor of St. Michael's Parish of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Slow me down, O God. Ease the pounding of my heart by quieting my mind. Steady my hurried pace. Give me calmness amidst the confusion of my day. Guide my actions steadfastly according to your will.

"Teach me the art of taking minute vacations, of slowing down to chat with a friend, to think things out before acting.

"Remind me each day of the fable of the hare and the tortoise, that I may know that there is more to life than speed. Let me look upward toward the branches of the towering oak and remember that I grew great and strong because I grew slowly. This I ask through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of the Springorama Royalty from Buckley and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators McCutcheon, Kupka, Knoblauch, Faulk and Rasmussen to escort the three Springorama Princesses to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

With leave of the Senate, business was suspended to permit the Princesses to address the Senate.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILLS

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 23, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Substitute Senate Bill No. 206 with the following amendments:

In line 1 of the title after "adding" and before "to chapter" strike "a new section" and insert "new sections"

In line 2 of the title after "RCW" and before the period insert "; and adding a new section to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.30 RCW; and prescribing penalties"

On page 1, section 1 line 9, after "insurances" and before the period insert ", pursuant to the procedures set forth in RCW 48.18.120 (1)"

In Section 1, beginning on line 12, strike the remainder of the section and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Where an agent or other representative of an insurer receipts premium money at the time that agent or representative purports to bind coverage, the receipt shall state: (a) that it is a binder, (b) a brief description of the coverage bound, and (c) the identity of the insurer in which the coverage is bound. This section does not apply as to life and disability insurances."

Add a new section following section 2 that was added by the amendment by the Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) No officer or employee of this state, or of any public agency, public authority or public corporation except a public corporation or public authority created pursuant to agreement or compact with another state, and no person acting or purporting to act on behalf of such officer or employee, or public agency or public authority or public corporation, shall with respect to any public building or construction contract which is about to be, or which has been competitively bid, require the bidder to make application to, or to furnish financial data to or to obtain or procure, any of the surety bonds or contracts of insurance specified in connection with such contract, or specified by any law, general, special or local, from a particular insurer or agent or broker.

(2) No such officer or employee or any person, acting or purporting to act on behalf of such officer or employee shall negotiate, make application for, obtain or procure any of such surety bonds or contracts of insurance, except contracts of insurance for builder's risk or owner's protective liability, which can be obtained or procured by the bidder, contractor or subcontractor.

(3) This section shall not be construed to prevent the exercise by such officer or employee on behalf of the state or such public agency, public authority, or public corporation of its right to approve the form, sufficiency or manner or execution of the surety bonds or contracts of insurance furnished by the insurer selected by the bidder to underwrite such bonds, or contracts of insurance.

(4) Any provisions in any invitation for bids, or in any of the contract documents, in conflict with this section are declared to be contrary to the public policy of this state.

(5) A violation of this section shall be subject to the penalties provided by RCW 48.01.080.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

Malcolm McBeath, Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 206.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Sentor Uhlman:

"Mr. President, point of parliamentary inquiry:

When House Bill No. 77 originally passed in the regular session, it was referred to the Judiciary Committee in the Senate and was amended by the Senate Judiciary Committee. My question of parliamentary inquiry is this: When it comes back over the second time, what is the status of the Senate Judiciary Committee amendments from the regular session? Are they part of this bill or will we have to get the bill back into the Judiciary Committee and re-amend it in order to place the same amendments on the bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President is advised that the Senate Judiciary Committee amendments have not been acted upon by either the House or the Senate, Senator Uhlman. The measure will go to the Senate Committee on Rules and Joint Rules and the committee amendments will be riding the bill in just the same position as they were in the regular session."

Senator Uhlman:

"I wanted this point of clarification. The Senate Judiciary Committee amendments of the regular session will again be on the bill when it comes out on second reading, just as they were in the same exact position as they were in the regular session?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The Senate Judiciary Committee amendments were never acted upon in the regular session, but the amendments will be before the body when it comes out on second reading, Senator."

SECOND READING OF BILLS

House Bill No. 4, by Representatives Copeland, Bottiger and Avey (by Legislative Council request):

Providing for excise tax on aircraft fuel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Durkan that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, NEW SECTION. Section 1., beginning on line 19 of the printed bill, after the word "aircraft" strike the semicolon and the remainder of the bill and insert a period and the following sections:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All moneys collected by the director or the department from the use tax on sales of motor vehicle fuel used as aircraft fuel by the manufacturer of aircraft for research, development and testing purposes shall be transmitted to the state treasurer. Upon receipt and proceeds thereof of such moneys the state treasurer shall make disposition thereof by crediting the state general fund.

"Sec. 3. Section 82.12.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 19, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply:

(1) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property brought into the state by a nonresident thereof for his use or enjoyment while temporarily within the state unless such property is used in conducting a nontransitory business activity within the state; or in respect to the use by a nonresident of this state of a motor vehicle which is registered or licensed under the laws of the state of his residence and is not used in this state more than three months, and which is not required to be registered or licensed under the laws of this state; or in respect to the use of household goods, personal effects and private automobiles by a bona fide resident of this state, if such articles were acquired and used by such person in another state while a bona fide resident thereof and such acquisition and use occurred more than thirty days prior to the time he entered this state;

(2) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property purchased at retail or acquired by lease, gift or bailment if the sale thereof to, or the use thereof by, the present user or his bailor or donor has already been subjected to the tax under chapter 82.08 or 82.12 and such tax has been paid by the present user or by his bailor or donor; or in respect to the use of property acquired by bailment and such tax has once been paid based on reasonable rental as determined by RCW 82.12.060 measured by the value of the article at time of first use multiplied by the tax rate imposed by chapter 82.08 or 82.12 as of the time of first use; or in respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property acquired by bailment, if the property was acquired by a previous bailee from the same bailor for use in the same general activity and such original bailment was prior to June 9, 1961;

(3) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property the sale of which is specifically taxable under chapter 82.16;

(4) In respect to the use of any airplane, locomotive, railroad car, or watercraft used primarily in conducting interstate or foreign commerce by transporting therein or therewith property and persons for hire or used primarily in commercial deep sea fishing operations outside the territorial waters of the state, and in respect to use of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of any such airplane, locomotive, railroad car, or watercraft, and in respect to the use by the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission of any motor vehicle or trailer used in substantial part in the normal and ordinary course of the user's business for transporting therein persons or property for hire across the boundaries of this state if the first use of which within this state is actual use in conducting interstate or foreign commerce; and in respect to the use of any motor vehicle or trailer while being operated under the authority of a one-transit permit issued by the director of licenses pursuant to RCW 46.16.100 and moving upon the highways from the point of delivery in this state to a point outside this state; and in respect to the use of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of any motor vehicle or trailer used by the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission authorizing transportation by motor vehicle across the boundaries of this state;

(5) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property which the state is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution of the state or under the Constitution or laws of the United States;

(6) In respect to the use of [motor vehicle fuel used in aircraft by the manufacturer thereof for research, development, and testing purposes and] motor vehicle fuel taxable under chapter 82.36: Provided, That the use of such fuel upon which a refund of the motor vehicle fuel tax is obtained shall not be exempt, and the director of licenses shall deduct from the amount of such tax to be refunded the amount of tax due under this chapter and remit the same each month to the tax commission;

(7) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property included within the transfer of the title to the entire operating property of a publicly or privately owned public utility, or of a complete operating integral section thereof, by the state or a political subdivision thereof in conducting any business defined in subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), or (11) of RCW 82.16.010;

(8) In respect to the use of tangible personal property, (including household goods) which have been used in conducting a farm activity, if such property was purchased from a farmer at an auction sale held or conducted by an auctioneer upon a farm and not otherwise;

(9) In respect to the use of tangible personal property by corporations which have been incorporated under any act of the Congress of the United States and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of the armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, flood, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same;

(10) In respect to the use of purebred livestock for breeding purposes where said animals are registered in a nationally recognized breed association; sales of cattle and milk cows used on the farm;

(11) In respect to the use of poultry in the production for sale of poultry or poultry products;

(12) In respect to the use of fuel by the extractor or manufacturer thereof when used directly in the operation of the particular extractive operation or manufacturing plant which produced or manufactured the same;

(13) In respect to the use of motor vehicles, equipped with dual controls, which are loaned to and used exclusively by a school in connection with its driver training program: Provided, That this exemption and the term "school" shall apply only to (a) the

University of Washington, Washington State University and the state colleges or (b) any public, private or parochial school accredited by either the state board of education or by the University of Washington (the state accrediting station) or (c) any public vocational school meeting the standards, courses and requirements established and prescribed or approved by the state board for vocational education;

(14) In respect to the use by a bailee of any article of tangible personal property which is entirely consumed in the course of research, development, experimental and testing activities conducted by the user, provided the acquisition or use of such articles by the bailor was not subject to the taxes imposed by chapter 82.08 or chapter 82.12.

(15) In respect to the use by residents of this state of motor vehicles and trailers acquired and used while such persons are members of the armed services and are stationed outside this state pursuant to military orders, but this exemption shall not apply to members of the armed services called to active duty for training purposes for periods of less than six months and shall not apply to the use of motor vehicles or trailers acquired less than thirty days prior to the discharge or release from active duty of any person from the armed services.

(16) In respect to the use of semen in the artificial insemination of livestock;

(17) In respect to the use of form lumber by any person engaged in the constructing, repairing, decorating or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon or above real property of or for consumers: Provided, That such lumber is used or to be used first by such person for the molding of concrete in a single such contract, project or job and is thereafter incorporated into the product of that same contract, project or job as an ingredient or component thereof;

(18) In respect to the use of any sand, gravel, or rock to the extent of the cost of or charges made for labor and services performed in respect to the mining, sorting, crushing, screening, washing, hauling, and stockpiling such sand, gravel, or rock, when such sand, gravel, or rock is taken from a pit or quarry which is owned by or leased to a county or a city, and such sand, gravel, or rock is (1) either stockpiled in said pit or quarry for placement or is placed on the street, road, place, or highway of the county or city by the county or city itself, or (2) sold by the county or city to a county, or a city at actual cost for placement on a publicly owned street, road, place, or highway. The exemption provided for in this subsection shall not apply to the use of such material to the extent of the cost of or charge made for such labor and services, if the material is used for other than public road purposes or is sold otherwise than as provided for in this subsection."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Henry:

"Mr. President:

"Having read the amendment and checked the bill, I now raise the point of order that this does enlarge the scope and object of the bill, for the reason that House Bill No. 4 refers to a gasoline gallonage tax for private pilots. The amendment proposed by Senator Durkan deals with an exemption on excise tax and if you will check the amendment you will find that it deals with gravel and gravel pits. It deals with certain types of lumber and it most certainly does enlarge the scope and object of the bill."

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President:

"Speaking to the point of order, the section which Senator Henry refers to does include many other things, but the purpose of the section is to bring within the purview of House Bill No. 4 the necessary revenue which heretofore has been exempt and I think it is really important in determining whether or not it is within the scope and object of the bill to examine the definitions as to director and things such as that. You will find that throughout the amendment we discuss the very things which are discussed in the substantive context of House Bill No. 4, itself, so I would think that an examination of this would satisfy the President that it is well within the scope and object of the bill and that the amendment, itself, is permissible."

The President:

"Senator Henry has presented the point of order that the amendment proposed by Senator Durkan enlarges the scope and object of House Bill No. 4. The President believes that in the interest of time, perhaps the members of the Senate would hold this particular matter in abeyance until the lunch hour."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, House Bill No. 4 and the point of order were made a special order of business immediately following the two special orders of business scheduled for the afternoon session.

House Bill No. 3, by Representatives Copeland, Bottiger and Avey (by Legislative Council request):

Changing aircraft excise and registration laws.

On motion of Senator Guess, House Bill No. 3 was ordered to retain its place on the second reading calendar immediately following consideration of House Bill No. 4.

Senate Bill No. 219, by Senators Peterson (Lowell), Ryder and Dore (by State Capitol Committee request):

Amending boundaries of the east capitol site.

On motion of Senator Lewis, Senate Bill No. 219 was ordered to retain its place on the second reading calendar immediately following consideration of House Bill No. 3.

THIRD READING OF BILLS

Senate Bill No. 291, by Senators Donohue, McMillan and Mardesich:

Making agricultural marketing act applicable to state agencies and governmental units.

On motion of Senator Donohue the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Senate Bill No. 291 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Excused: Senator Gissberg—1.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 20, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed,

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 23, by Committee on Commerce, Manufacturing and Licenses:

Regulating proprietary schools.

On motion of Senator Woodall the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Substitute Senate Bill No. 23 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 23 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 0; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—48.

Excused: Senator Gissberg—1.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 23, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Senate Bill No. 9, by Senators Gissberg and Woodall (by Legislative Council request):

Regulating public charitable trusts.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Woodall, Senate Bill No. 9 was made a special order of business for tomorrow immediately preceding the second reading calendar.

At 12:00 noon, on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 2:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:00 p.m.

Senators Hanna, Henry and Durkan demanded a Call of the Senate.

A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senator Gissberg, who was excused.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, and having by separate motion made the matter a special order of business for this time, Senator Hanna moved that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 309 passed the Senate.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kupka:

"Mr. President, would Senator Hanna yield to a question:

"In case the county commissioners can't agree on anyone and become 'deadlocked,' what happens then?"

Senator Hanna:

"I am assuming that if the county commissioners can't agree, the matter would remain in limbo. The changes proposed here would simply allow the P.U.D. commissioners to act within sixty days and if they did not act, the county commissioners could appoint. If they did not agree, I would assume the position would remain vacant until the next election."

Debate ensued.

Senator Hanna demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Hallauer, Cooney, Ridder, Knoblauch, Herrmann, Donohue, Henry, Rasmussen and Sandison.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the motion to reconsider and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 22; nays, 26; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Chytil, Connor, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Morgan, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington—22.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Cooney, Faulk, Freise, Greive, Guess, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Lennart, Lewis, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Stender, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—26.

Excused: Senator Gissberg—1.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 122 on second reading.

Senate Bill No. 122, by Senators Dore, Kupka, Keefe, Washington, Rasmussen, Knoblauch and Hallauer (by Facilities and Operations Committee request):

Regulating legislative lobbying.

The Senate resumed consideration of the amendment proposed by Senators Dore and Gissberg as amended.

On motion of Senator Dore, the following amendment by Senator Atwood to the amendment by Senators Dore and Gissberg was adopted:

On page 2, section 6, subsection (b), line 52 of the amendment by Senators Dore and Gissberg, after "thereby" insert ", including, notwithstanding section 1, subsection (3) of this act, members and members-elect of either house of the state legislature"

It was moved by Senator Washington that the following amendment to the amendment be adopted:

Strike all of Sec. 5 in the amendment by Senators Dore and Gissberg and insert: "NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. It shall be unlawful to employ or otherwise engage the services of any person to accomplish any of the purposes for which registration is by this act required, for a compensation the payment of which is dependent in any manner upon the passage or defeat or executive approval or veto of any legislation, or upon any other contingency in connection with legislation."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Lennart that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122 be referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President, point of inquiry:

"Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator, don't you agree that your amendment does the very thing that Senator Atwood pointed out, that anyone appearing before a committee which would then become an item of appropriation in the budget—that you have outlawed that by your amendment, have you not?"

Senator Washington:

"What you have done by the previous amendment, however—"

Senator Woodall:

"Pardon me, Senator Washington. Is it not true what Senator Atwood said? Just tell me?"

Senator Washington:

"I would question whether that is true."

Senator Woodall:

"In other words, you don't know?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Dore:

"Mr. President, point of order:

"I wonder whether or not we have run this same course before. The other day this same motion was made and I wonder if it is now in order at this stage of the proceedings."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"Business has ensued, Senator Dore. The President believes Senator Lennart's motion is in order."

Debate ensued.

Senator Dore demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Hanna, Hallauer, Herrmann, Rasmussen, Sandison, Henry, McCutcheon, McCormack and Mardesich.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Lennart was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 20; nays, 28; absent or not voting, 0; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Faulk, Freise, Guess, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Stender, Twigg, Uhlman, Williams, Woodall—20.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore Durkan, Foley, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Washington—28.

Excused: Senator Gissberg—1.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Hallauer that the amendment by Senator Washington to the amendment by Senators Dore and Gissberg be laid upon the table.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

It was moved by Senator Atwood that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, section 5, line 40, of the amendment by Senators Dore and Gissberg, after "legislation" insert " : Provided, That this section shall not apply to those agreements made between attorney and client in connection with claims against the state of Washington"

Debate ensued

The motion was carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Dore and Gissberg as amended.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman:

"Mr. President, would Senator Dore yield to a question:

"Senator Dore, I have just been informed by my friendly banker that according to national banking rules whenever a check is paid and it winds up N.S.F., that according to national banking rules, it is then a loan to whoever has the bad check, the N.S.F. check. Now if this bill passes, as I would read the bill, it would be impossible for any member of the legislature to bank in any bank governed by federal rules because that would be a loan then if you or your wife or members of your family ever had an N.S.F. check. This would then be a loan by that bank to you. Isn't this a serious defect that perhaps should be remedied by an amendment to this bill?"

Senator Dore:

"Mr. President:

"I think, Senator, you are overly concerned. I think I would get a new banker. But getting back to the language of the amendment, itself, this language in reviewing the various statutes is in about twenty-two state statutes—"

Senator Uhlman:

"Senator Dore, that wasn't my question. I didn't ask how many states—"

Senator Dore:

"I am answering one question and one comment at a time."

Senator Uhlman:

"I don't care how many states have this wording."

Senator Dore:

"In my opinion there is nothing to be concerned about in your question. This would not be a loan. This is just a defect of not having sufficient money in the bank. I think your banker is overly concerned. This pertains to lobbyists. Your banker is not a lobbyist."

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Woodall that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122 hold its place at the beginning of the second reading calendar for tomorrow.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the Secretary was instructed to provide the members of the Senate with copies of the amendment as amended.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 4 on second reading and the amendment proposed by Senator Durkan.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President, ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Henry relating to House Bill No. 4:

"House Bill No. 4 requires the dealer or retail seller to collect an additional tax on aircraft fuel. The amendment proposed by Senator Durkan removes exemptions from the use tax imposed by RCW 82.12.020 and thus places the tax provided for by that chapter on fuel used by aircraft manufacturers in aircraft used for research development and testing purposes.

"The President believes that the amendment proposed by Senator Durkan does enlarge the scope and object of the bill; therefore, the point of order raised by Senator Henry is well taken."

On motion of Senator Henry, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 4 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 4 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 21; absent or not voting, 0; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Rasmussen, Ryder, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—27.

Those voting nay were: Senators Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Guess, Herr, Herrmann, Lennart, Lewis, Mardesich, Marquardt, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ridder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Williams—21.

Excused: Senator Gissberg—1.

House Bill No. 4, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Henry that House Bill No. 4 be immediately transmitted to the House.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Senator Durkan, having voted on the prevailing side, served notice that he would on the next working day move that the Senate reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 4 passed the Senate.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall:

"Point of order, Mr. President:

"The motion having been made by Senator Henry, the only purpose for which Senator Durkan could be recognized would be to speak on the motion. He did not rise to speak on the motion but made a different motion. The motion by Senator Henry tending to bring the two bodies together, takes precedence and priority over the notice of reconsideration by Senator Durkan which would tend to delay the matter and keep the two bodies apart."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President, ruling upon the point presented by Senator Woodall:

"The motion to reconsider has precedence over every other motion except a motion to adjourn. Notice of reconsideration is received from Senator Durkan."

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, again speaking to the point of order, the motion was not to reconsider. The notice was merely given."

Senator Henry:

"Mr. President, having voted on the prevailing side, I do now move that we immediately reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 4 passed this body."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"That motion will require a suspension of the rules, Senator Henry."

Senator Henry:

"It's after the fiftieth day. Would you like me to take over the gavel for a few minutes?"

The President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 4:00 p.m.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

At 4:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Tuesday, March 28, 1967.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

NINETEENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,

Olympia, Wash., Tuesday, March 28, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:30 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senator Greive.

On motion of Senator Keefe, Senator Greive was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Terry Mitchell, Color Bearer, and Betty Kupka, presented the Colors.

Reverend James J. McGreal, pastor of St. Michael's Parish of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"We pray Thee, O God of might, wisdom, and justice, through whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgment decreed, assist with Thy holy spirit of counsel and fortitude the Governor of this State, that his administration may be conducted in righteousness, and be eminently useful to Thy people over whom he presides; by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion; by a faithful execution of the laws in justice and mercy and by restraining vice and immorality.

"Let the light of Thy divine wisdom direct the deliberations of this legislative body, and shine forth in all the proceedings and laws framed for our rule and government, so that they may tend to the preservation of peace, the promotion of national happiness, the increase of industry, sobriety, and useful knowledge and may perpetuate to us the blessings of equal liberty, through Christ Our Lord. Amen."

On motion of Senator Bailey, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

Olympia, Wash., March 27, 1967.

Mr. President:

The Speaker has signed: Substitute House Bill No. 548, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 27, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has granted the request of the Senate for a conference on Engrossed House Bill No. 269 and the Senate amendments thereto and the Speaker has appointed as members of the Conference Committee thereon: Representatives Leland, Whetzel, Sprague.

Malcolm McBeath, Chief Clerk.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 23, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 303 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Gissberg, the Senate refused to recede from the Senate amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 303 and asked the House for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as Senate members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 303, Senators Gissberg, Lewis and Knoblauch.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 27, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has concurred in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 360, with the exception to the amendment to subsection (5) of new section 4 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the Senate refused to recede from its position on Engrossed House Bill No. 360 and asked the House for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as Senate members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 360, Senators Durkan, Atwood and Foley.

On motion of Senator Gissberg, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

The Secretary read:

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 23, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has concurred in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 304, except the following amendment:

On page 6, beginning on line 9, strike all of section 11 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively, and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and said bill, together with the Senate amendments thereto, are herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

It was moved by Senator Neill that the Senate do recede from its amendment on page 6, beginning on line 9, which strikes all of section 11, and pass the bill without that amendment.

Debate ensued.

Senator Knoblauch demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Kupka, Washington, Bailey, Henry, Connor, Ridder, McMillan, Mardesich, Rasmussen and Talley.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Neill was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 12; nays, 33; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Donohue, Faulk, Guess, Marquardt, Neill, Pritchard, Ridder, Ryder, Twigg, Williams—12.

Those voting nay were: Senators Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Dore, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Redmon, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—33.

Absent or not voting: Senators Cooney, Durkan, McCutcheon—3.

Excused: Senator Greive—1.

It was moved by Senator Gissberg that the Senate refuse to recede from its position on Substitute House Bill No. 304, and ask the House for a conference thereon.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Morgan:

"Mr. President, I would like to speak upon a point of personal privilege.

"I would like to state that I perhaps have taken more of a beating over this particular bill than any other probably in my entire legislative life, and I want to make it absolutely crystal clear, as former Senator Ed Riley would say, that I am in favor of these mental health community type facilities. I am for assistance for retarded children and these local facilities. I have always voted for veterans' bills and helped create many of these facilities in my area. However, this has been a very controversial subject and this old law extends back into the 1880's, on the soldiers' and sailors' fund, and I wish I had a little bit of magic and could just say, now we'll create this same amount of money here. As Senator Pritchard stated to me, this is what we are here for. This is where we make these decisions. It isn't quite this easy, Senator. This isn't just black and white. There's a gray area here and I have asked the veterans' organizations for indigent funds for families who suffer in our area, and certainly our county commissioners come to me and show me they are spending this residue, and when Dr. Northrup comes to me from a tuberculosis group and states that they need this money, the residue, then I believe him, so these are five of my pets, so to speak, and I have wished I was other than Chairman of the Committee on Public Institutions at times when the mail poured in from over the state. I want this in the record and I hope that the conference committee can come up with some answers. I certainly do. Thank you very much."

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 304, Senators Knoblauch, Redmon and Talley.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"I believe the conferees you appointed all voted on the same side, on this particular matter, did they not?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"On this particular measure, there were no dissenting votes, Senator."

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"I was speaking of the vote to concur. That was the issue, whether or not we concurred or receded from the particular amendment. It would appear to me that one of the conferees should be voting on Senator Neill's side."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President:

"Speaking to the point of order, I believe the rule provides for the final passage of the bill, rather than on amendments, when the committee is appointed."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"Senator Woodall, Rule 5 of the Joint Rules states that the presiding officer of each house shall appoint on such conference committee three members selected so as to represent in each case the attitude of the majority and minority upon the subject of the legislation referred to the conference committee. It has long been a custom to base the conference committee appointments on the final passage of the bill. However, the President believes that you do have some basis for your position."

Senator Woodall:

"The question is, it is the point of difference between the two bodies. The point of difference between the two bodies is whether we do or do not concur with a given amendment. That's the point of difference between the two bodies. The point of difference is not the final passage. They are going to confer on this particular amendment and there are two views on it. One view was expressed by Senator Neill's motion and one view was expressed by Senator Gissberg's motion. It would appear to me that one person voting with Senator Neill should be on this committee, otherwise you have three who believe that we should not concur and you have no one representing the other viewpoint."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender:

"Mr. President, I'd like to ask Senator Woodall a question in connection with his explanation. This question as I understand it did not require a roll call vote. In the event it had been a voice vote, what would have been the issue at that point?"

Senator Woodall:

"In that instance again the President would ascertain from the discussion or from a standing vote or had a division been requested, so that the two points of views are represented at the conference. That's what the conference is for. You don't send over three conferees who all voted on the same side. They would have nothing to confer about. They are three of a mind to begin with."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President:

"If we were following Senator Woodall's reasoning, that you would appoint a conference committee on amendments, you could have a half dozen conference committees because people vote different ways on different amendments and it has always been a tradition that they be appointed according to final passage of the bill. This is where you have a record of those who voted for the bill and those who voted against it. I think Senator Woodall is being facetious in his reasoning here that we would appoint conference committees according to the vote on amendments. I never heard of anything like that in all my life."

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"Of course the mere fact that Senator Rasmussen never heard of it doesn't prove anything, mean anything or add anything. What we are talking about is what the purpose of the conference committee is and that is to resolve the differences between the two bodies, and from time immemorial, the conferees are picked to represent the viewpoints of the differences. Now what is the difference? Do we concur in the House amendment or don't we. That's the point of the difference, so that it would appear to me that one should appoint one representative of Senator Neill's viewpoint. Otherwise you have three of one mind."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"To make everyone happy, and with all due apologies, the President would like to revise the conferees and appoint Senator Ridder, a yea vote, along with Senator Knoblauch and Senator Redmon."

MOTIONS

Senator Gissberg:

"Then, Mr. President, I move that the conferees as last appointed be confirmed."

The motion was carried and the conference committee appointments as last announced were confirmed.

At 12:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Gissberg, the Senate recessed until 2:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:00 p.m.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate, Andrew C. Bahrnsen, Governor of Youth Legislature, and Jon Parker, Legal Assistant to the Youth Legislature, and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Bailey, Chytil, Atwood and Talley to escort the members of the Youth Legislature to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF BILLS

The following were introduced, read first time by title and acted upon as indicated:

Senate Bill No. 634, by Senators Neill and Greive:

An Act relating to state and local government; transferring certain powers and duties of the state census board to the planning and community affairs agency; abolishing the state census board; amending section 1, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.30.010; amending section 35.13.260, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.13.260; adding a new section to chapter 74, Laws of 1967 (Substitute House Bill No. 78); and declaring an effective date.

Referred to Committee on State Government.

Senate Bill No. 635, by Senator Talley:

An Act relating to the conveyance of certain lands in Wahkiakum county to Fritz Gilbertsen.

Referred to Committee on Natural Resources, Parks, Fisheries and Game Fish.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 9.

On motion of Senator Woodall, Senate Bill No. 9 was made a special order of business immediately following the luncheon recess tomorrow.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Senate Bill No. 122, by Senators Dore, Kupka, Keefe, Washington, Rasmussen, Knoblauch and Hallauer (by Facilities and Operations Committee request):

Regulating legislative lobbying.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 122 and the amendment proposed by Senators Dore and Gissberg, as amended.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment by Senator Atwood to the amendment was adopted:

Strike the first 10 lines of NEW SECTION. Sec. 2 and the words "under oath" on line 11 of the mimeographed amendment and substitute therefore the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Any person who shall be engaged for pay or for any consideration for the purpose of attempting to influence the passage or defeat of any legislation by the Legislature of the state of Washington or the approval or veto of any legislation by the Governor of the state of Washington shall register with the president of the Senate and the speaker of the House before doing anything in furtherance of such object and shall give to such officers in writing and under oath."

On motion of Senator Dore, the amendment as amended was adopted.

On motion of Senator Dore, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted):

"Mr. President, would Senator Dore yield to a question:

"Senator, I just wanted to ask you, is there to be a change in Senate Rule 71? Will this change Senate Rule 71? I was wondering if we could have a list of the lobbyists. Now I saw a little activity of a lobbyist—I don't know if it was actually a lobbyist but one time he was very active and even wig-wagging you might say down to somebody on the floor. How do you find out if it is a lobbyist without making inquiry of the President?"

Senator Dore:

"There is no way you could find out until you went in the President's office and asked the secretary for a list of lobbyists. They are required to register under Senate Rule 71 and I think Senate Rule 71 would be in accordance with this statute. Of course where there is a conflict the statute would govern over the rule."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 5.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—44.

Those voting nay were: Senators Guess, Lennart, McCutcheon, Stender, Twigg—5.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Dore, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

It was moved by Senator Durkan that the Senate do now consider Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639.

The motion was carried.

On motion of Senator Neill, the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 3:10 p.m.

Senators Gissberg, Kupka and Bailey demanded a Call of the Senate.

A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639, by Committee on Revenue and Taxation:

Establishing a single rate net income tax.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Ryder that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639 be made a special order of business immediately following the adoption of the Free Conference Committee reports on Engrossed House Bill No. 207 and Engrossed House Bill No. 208.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield to a question:

"Senator Durkan, you are a member of the Conference Committee which is supposed to be ironing out the differences in the budget. Have you already predetermined that there shall be no reduction in the budget that the Senate passed?"

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President:

"It is my position, representing the majority party that all of the reductions that could be made were made in the Senate."

Senator Woodall:

"Then have you also predetermined that it is a balanced budget and needs no new taxes?"

Senator Durkan:

"That's my position at the present time and I have so told the Senate."

Senator Woodall:

"Then you need no new taxes. Why do you want to take up a tax bill at this time?"

Senator Durkan:

"Thank you for asking that question, Senator."

Senator Woodall:

"It's a good one."

Senator Durkan:

"It has been reflected in several press conferences of the Chief Executive of this state that we perhaps were not giving him a fair hearing upon his tax proposals and that they were resting quietly up in the Senate Ways and Means Committee, and if I remember correctly, he said he thought the graveyard was no longer the Senate Rules Committee, but the Senate Ways and Means Committee, so I have done my best to bring out the executive request bills of which this is supposed to be his most important. I think it is only fair that this should be brought to the floor of the Senate so that every one of us should have an opportunity to express our opinion on it."

Senator Woodall:

"I am touched by this most recent display of fairness. Did any member of the Republican Party representing the leadership of the party request that this be brought out today at this time?"

Senator Durkan:

"My reply to your question, Senator, is that I discussed the question of whether or not it was necessary to hold a full meeting of the Ways and Means Committee. I discussed it with the minority caucus chairman and the minority leader was present and they told me they felt it was not necessary to hold a Ways and Means Committee meeting and they would help circulate the bill, which the minority leader did."

Senator Woodall:

"Senator Durkan, I don't believe you have answered my question. Did anyone representing the Republican Party or Governor ask that this measure be brought out and put on today's calendar?"

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President:

"I have been asked indirectly several times that all executive request bills be brought to the floor of the Senate and I would presume this would be treated the same way."

Senator Woodall:

"Senator Durkan, when you as a lawyer question your witnesses in the practice of law, I hope you get more responsive answers than I have been getting from you."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Kupka that the motion by Senator Ryder be laid upon the table.

Senator Ryder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Chytil, Peterson (Ted), Williams, Guess, Canfield, Bailey, Durkan, Kupka and Mardesich.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion was carried and the motion by Senator Ryder was laid upon the table by the following vote: yeas, 29; nays, 20.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington—29.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Faulk, Freise, Guess, Lennart, Lewis, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Stender, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—20.

It was moved by Senator Durkan that the rules be suspended and that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

Senator Ryder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Chytil, Peterson (Ted), Williams, Guess, Canfield, Stender, Metcalf, Neill and Redmon.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion to suspend the rules was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 20.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington—29.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Faulk, Freise, Guess, Lennart, Lewis, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Stender, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—20.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639 was passed to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules for third reading.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate, a matter of personal privilege:

"I would like to report to the Senate that this is a bill that this side of the aisle is in favor of and at the proper time would like to vote for. The reason we are opposing it today and at this time in the deliberations of this body is that it is not timely, that the bill should not be before us at this time because all of the facts supporting this package are not available to us at this time. As we move along in the deliberations of the Senate, the time will come when this bill should be properly before us and should be timely and at that time we will support it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gissberg:

"Mr. President, will Senator Ryder yield to a question:

"Senator Ryder, is the timeliness factor depending upon how many votes you have to raise the sales tax to 4.5 percent? Would that be the right time?"

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, Senator Gissberg and members of the Senate:

"I think we made it crystal clear as to what our reason was for calling this bill coming to the floor untimely at the moment, is the fact that the conference committee on the budget has not come to an agreement and has not made a report. The matter of the number of votes which we might or might not have to increase the tax or implement House Joint Resolution No. 29 has nothing to do with the action today."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Dore, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side and having given notice, Senator Durkan moved that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which En-grossed House Bill No. 4 passed the Senate.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield:

"I may very well vote with you. I would like to ask two questions in all sincerity. The first is would your approach raise as much money as the present bill?"

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President:

"The direct answer is, no, it would not raise as much."

Senator Greive:

"How much less?"

Senator Durkan:

"It would be considerably less, somewhere in the area of about $200,000, but if I could answer, it would be that by taking away the exemption on the use tax for the fuel which is used in the airplane manufacturing and experimental. We would then have approximately between $50,000 and $80,000. The fifty to eighty thousand dollars would be used to hire enforcement officers in the Department of Motor Vehicles. Their own brochure which they published points out that there is a half million dollars which is collectible in the state of Washington if they had the enforcement officers to collect it."

Senator Greive:

"I don't pretend to be an expert on this particular subject, but the way it has been explained to me, there are a great number of people who have registered aircraft beyond the state borders of the state of Washington, and that all we are doing is cheating ourselves out of the revenue in that they will register in these other states. Would you tell us what you intend to do on the other bill, because I think a lot of us feel our vote would pretty much depend upon the entire package."

Senator Durkan:

"The answer is, one, the defect in my approach, if any, is that perhaps we won't get as many of the aircraft as we ordinarily would under the direct taxation of fuel tax because some of the aircraft are going to be registered out of the state under a fictitious corporate name and so on. We understand that and there isn't very much we can do about it, but the approach we would use is by shortening the days from ninety to thirty days, which is House Bill No. 3, we would then have the opportunity to come in with these enforcement provisions of House Bill No. 3, and with the additional revenue, we would be able to then exercise the enforcement and hopefully gain that half million dollars which would adequately finance the Department of Motor Vehicles. But I can't assure you that we can get all of the aircraft that are flying in and out of the state of Washington. All I can say is that it is our best judgment that with more enforcement officers, we will be able to collect more of the revenue."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, Senator McCormack was excused.

Senator Durkan demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Mardesich, Herrmann, Greive, Rasmussen, Stender, Henry, Guess and Peterson (Lowell).

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion for reconsideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 4 was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 29; absent or not voting, 0; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Chytil, Cooney, Durkan, Guess, Herr, Lennart, Lewis, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ridder, Stender, Twigg—19.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCutcheon, Neill, Rasmussen, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—29.

Excused: Senator McCormack—1.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

House Bill No. 3, by Representatives Copeland, Bottiger and Avey (by Legislative Council request):

Changing aircraft excise and registration laws.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Guess that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, line 16, strike section 3 from the printed bill and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Greive, the amendment was laid upon the table.

On motion of Senator Henry, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 3 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

There being no objections, the Senate reverted to the second order of business.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 27, 1967.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Claims and Auditing, to whom was referred Senate Bill No. 122, have inspected same, and find it correctly engrossed.

Martin J. Durkan, Chairman.

We concur in this report: Fred H. Dore, Frank W. Foley.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

At 4:25 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, March 29, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTIETH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Wednesday, March 29, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Kupka, McCormack and Mardesich.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senators Kupka, McCormack and Mardesich were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Frank Pritchard, Color Bearer, and Sandy Ross, presented the Colors.

Reverend James J. McGreal, pastor of St. Michael's Parish of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"O God, make me an instrument of peace. Where hate dwells, may I bring forgiveness; where discord reigns, may I bring concord; where error prevails, may I proclaim the truth; where there is doubt, may I awaken faith; where there is despair, may I offer hope; where there is sorrow, may I bring joy.

"Lord, let me not seek to be consoled by others, but let me bring consolation to others; let me not strive to be understood, but seek to understand others; let me not yearn to be loved, rather let me love others.

"For to give is to receive; to forget oneself is to find oneself. By forgiving others, we ourselves are forgiven. Through selfless striving, we are drawn toward eternal happiness with you. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 29, 1967.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Claims and Auditing, to whom was referred Senate Bill No. 193,

Senate Bill No. 286,

Substitute Senate Bill No. 584,

Senate Joint Memorial No. 21, have inspected same, and find them correctly enrolled.

....., Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Frank Atwood, R. R. Bob Greive, Marshall A. Neill.

GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 28, 1967.

James R. Ellis, to the position of member of the board of regents of the University of Washington, appointed by the Governor June 8, 1965, for the term ending March 8, 1971, succeeding Mrs. A. Scott Bullitt (reported by Committee on Higher Education and Libraries):

MAJORITY recommends that said appointment be confirmed.

Gordon Sandison, Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Frank Atwood, Damon R. Canfield, Frank W. Foley, Sam C. Guess, Harry B. Lewis, Marshall A. Neill, John N. Ryder, Wes C. Uhlman.

It was moved by Senator Sandison that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of James R. Ellis to the position of member of the board of regents of the University of Washington, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"It is a great deal of pleasure for me to second the nomination for the approval of the name of Mr. Ellis as a member of the board of regents of the University of Washington. Mr. Ellis has been very active in civic and governmental affairs in the state, particularly in King county, and he is the author of many very fine pieces of legislation which have been passed by this body. The development of many ideas for the resolving of problems in local government have been the result of his work. I think we are all familiar with his work and the many, many hours that he has put in as a dedicated citizen to assist in solving the problems of local government. Mr. Ellis, I am sure, would make a very fine member of the board of regents at the University. I think he deserves the support of all of us. I urge you to vote for his approval."

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President, I, too, would like to add my word of praise to Jim Ellis' appointment. I have known him for many years. I have known him as one of the finest attorneys in the state. I have known him as a dedicated worker. He was the original author of the metro system which is one of the greatest improvements in this area. Indeed it is one of the things that people in other states look to the Washington area as an outstanding achievement, something of which we are very proud. Metro has managed to clean up most of the sewerage problem in Seattle and the King county area. He has participated in many, many ventures, most of a non-paid nature, on behalf of the citizens of the state of Washington, either in an official or unofficial capacity. I think he is a wonderful public servant. I think this is a fine appointment and I am very happy to join with Senator Ryder in singing the praises of Jim Ellis."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF JAMES R. ELLIS

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of James R. Ellis to the position of member of the board of regents of the University of Washington, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 7; excused, 3.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lennart, McCutcheon, McMillan, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—39.

Absent or not voting: Senators Canfield, Guess, Lewis, Marquardt, Morgan, Rasmussen, Talley—7.

Excused: Senators Kupka, McCormack, Mardesich—3.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of James R. Ellis was confirmed.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 28, 1967.

George V. Powell, to the position of member of the board of regents of the University of Washington, appointed by the Governor June 8, 1965, for the term ending March 8, 1971, succeeding Herbert S. Little (reported by Committee on Higher Education and Libraries):

MAJORITY recommends that said appointment be confirmed.

Gordon Sandison, Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Frank Atwood, Damon R. Canfield, Fred H. Dore, Frank W. Foley, Sam C. Guess, Harry B. Lewis, August P. Mardesich, Marshall A. Neill, John N. Ryder, Wes C. Uhlman.

On motion of Senator Gissberg, Senator Durkan was excused.

It was moved by Senator Sandison that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of George V. Powell to the position of member of the board of regents of the University of Washington, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Sandison:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"Mr. Powell is a former member of the legislature. He is a member of the Uniform Law Commission representing the state of Washington and has served on the executive board of regents. He is very well known throughout the state and has already performed as a Regent for over one year."

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President:

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to join with Senator Sandison in asking for the confirmation of George V. Powell as a member of the board of regents of the University of Washington. He has been very well known to me for a long period of years. He is one of the finest representatives in the legal profession in the state and has done a tremendous job for the people of the state in various capacities serving on various boards and civic endeavors.

"As Senator Sandison said, he was a member of the House for several terms and did a yeoman's job there. He became an expert in the tax field, in which he is still very active in an advisory, consultant capacity. I think that Mr. Powell has been a wonderful member of the board of regent at the University and that he will continue to do a fine job. I urge his confirmation."

Senator Dore:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"I would like to join with Senator Ryder and Senator Sandison in recommending the appointment of George V. Powell as a member of the board of regents. I replaced him in the legislature in which he had served some eight years. All of the people in the area thought very highly of George and he served as a Uniform Law Commissioner. I think he was one of the outstanding commissioners and rose to the executive committee of that particular organization. He is a progressive-thinking, hard working person and will be a real asset as he already has been as a member of the board of regents."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF GEORGE V. POWELL

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of George V. Powell to the position of member of the board of regents of the University of Washington, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 4.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of George V. Powell was confirmed.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 28, 1967.

Harold A. Romberg, to the position of member of the board of regents of Washington State University, appointed by the Governor March 9, 1967, for the term ending March 9, 1973, succeeding Dr. Milton W. Durham (reported by Committee on Higher Education and Libraries):

Recommends that said appointment be confirmed.

Gordon Sandison, Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Frank Atwood, Damon R. Canfield, Fred H. Dore, Frank W. Foley, William A. Gissberg, Sam C. Guess, Wilbur G. Hallauer, Harry B. Lewis, August P. Mardesich, Mike McCormack, Marshall A. Neill, John N. Ryder, Wes C. Uhlman.

It was moved by Senator Sandison that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Harold A. Romberg to the position of member of the board of regents of Washington State University, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Neill:

"Mr. President:

"It has been my pleasure to have known Mr. Romberg from Spokane for a number of years. I don't know him too well personally, but I know he has been very active in the business community. He is an insurance agent in Spokane and I am certain Mr. Romberg's addition to the board of regents is going to prove to be an asset to that institution."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF HAROLD A. ROMBERG

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Harold A. Romberg to the position of member of the board of regents of Washington State University, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 7; excused, 4.

It was moved by Senator Sandison that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Robert F. Brachtenbach to the position of member of the board of trustees of Eastern Washington State College, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Redmon:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"Bob Brachtenbach is from Yakima county and practices law in Selah. He has been in the legislature as a representative. Right now he is busy with his law business. He represents a good clientele of people that he does business for in that area and I think it will be a real advantage to have him on the board of trustees at Eastern Washington State College. I thoroughly recommend him."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF ROBERT F. BRACHTENBACH

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Robert F. Brachtenbach to the position of member of the board of trustees of Eastern Washington State College, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 4.

It was moved by Senator Sandison that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Burton A. Kingsbury to the position of member of the board of trustees of Western Washington State College, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I cannot recommend Burton Kingsbury too highly for your approval. He is a reappointee to this board and instrumental in bringing Western Washington State College to its present position of eminence in the field of higher education in this state. Burton Kingsbury is an outstanding attorney, a former member of the Board of Governors, of the Washington State Bar. His major extra-curricular activity and interest is in higher education and he has served on Western Washington State College Board for some six years. This is a reappointment, following four years in which he was not on the board. I urge your support for Burton Kingsbury."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF BURTON A. KINGSBURY

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Burton A. Kingsbury to the position of member of the board of trustees of Western Washington State College, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 6; excused, 2.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Senate Bill No. 219, by Senators Peterson (Lowell), Ryder and Dore (by State Capitol Committee request):

Amending boundaries of the east capitol site.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Bill No. 213:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 27, 1967.

Amending boundaries of the east capitol site (reported by Committee on Natural Resources, Parks, Fisheries and Game Fish):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, insert new section 1 to read as follows:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1913, as last amended by section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1937, and RCW 79.16.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The rents hereinafter to be paid under existing or future leases of harbor areas [and also of], tidelands, shorelands and beds of navigable waters belonging to the state of Washington, the proceeds of which are not otherwise directed to a particular fund or account, shall be [hereafter disposed of as follows:

In cases where the leased harbor area or tideland is situated within the territorial limits of a port district already created or to be hereafter created under the laws of the state of Washington, seventy-five percent of the rents received for such cases shall be paid by the state treasurer to the county treasurer of the county wherein such port district is situated for the use of such port district and go into a special fund to be expended only for harbor or waterfront improvement purposes and the remaining twenty-five percent shall be paid into the general fund of the state treasury; except that in cases where the port district itself shall have constructed or shall own structures or improvements situate upon leased harbor areas, or tidelands, the entire rentals of such improved area or tideland shall go to such port district. In all other cases seventy-five percent of the rents shall be paid by the state treasurer into the county treasury of the county in which the leased harbor areas or tidelands are situated, the same to go into a special fund known as the "harbor improvement fund", and to be disbursed only for harbor or harbor improvement purposes; and the remaining twenty-five percent shall be paid into the general fund of the state treasury. In cases where any leased harbor area or tideland is situated within the limits of any incorporated city or town and is not embraced within the area of any port district, the county commissioners of the county shall allocate the funds received from the lease thereof to the municipal authorities of such city or town, to be expended by said authorities for harbor or waterfront purposes. The state treasurer being hereby authorized and directed to make such payments to the respective county treasurers for the use of such port districts or counties, as the case may be, on the first days of July and January of each year, of all moneys in his hands on such dates payable under the terms of this section to such port district and counties respectively] deposited in the capitol purchase and development account of the general fund and shall only be subject to appropriation for purchasing, improving, and managing the east capitol site."

Renumber old section 1 as section 2.

On page 1, line 1, following the words "Relating to" strike "the state capitol" and insert "public lands"

On page 2, following old section 1 (renumbered section 2), add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. All moneys received by the state from the sale of tidelands, and shorelands, and from the sale of valuable materials from tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters and harbor areas [lying within the incorporated limits of any city or town], the proceeds of which are not otherwise directed to a particular fund or account, shall be deposited in the capitol purchase and development account of the general fund, the creation of which is hereby authorized. This account shall only be subject to appropriation for purchasing, improving, and managing the east capitol site."

Renumber old Sec. 2 as Sec. 4.

On page 1, line 2, following "site;" insert "providing for the disposition of funds received from sales and leases of harbor areas, tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters and valuable materials therefrom; amending section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1913, as last amended by section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1937, and RCW 79.16.180; amending section 9, chapter 167, Laws of 1961 and RCW 79.24.580;"

Lowell Peterson, Chairman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the committee amendment to page 1, section 1, adding a new section, was laid upon the table.

MOTIONS

It was moved by Senator Talley that Senate Bill No. 219 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

Senator Talley demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Peterson (Ted), Greive, Uhlman, Herr, Dore, Morgan, Ridder, Cooney, Henry and Twigg.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion by Senator Talley was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 14; nays, 32; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Connor, Greive, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Lennart, Morgan, Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman—14.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Knoblauch, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ryder, Stender, Twigg, Washington, Williams, Woodall—32.

Absent or not voting: Senator Durkan—1.

Excused: Senators Kupka, McCormack—2.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Senate Bill No. 219 was ordered to retain its place on second reading immediately following consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 656.

THIRD READING OF BILLS

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 280, by Senators Henry, Kupka, Knoblauch and Neill (by Departmental request):

Licensing motor vehicle dealers and salesmen.

On motion of Senator Henry, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 280 was returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

On motion of Senator Henry, the following amendments by Senators Henry and Williams were adopted:

On page 14, section 17, line 3, strike all the language in lines 3 to 12 inclusive and insert the following:

"The director shall revoke or refuse to issue a motor vehicle dealer's license for a franchise replacing a cancelled or terminated franchise if a civil action pursuant to section 21 is pending and was filed within 60 days following the written notification of the cancellation or nonrenewal of an existing franchise and a certified copy of said complaint alleging the date of said notification is filed with the department within said 60 days by the complaining motor vehicle dealer. The court may, however, in order to maintain adequate and competitive service in the area or upon a showing of good cause by the manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch order the director to issue said motor vehicle dealer's license if the dealer complies with other sections of chapter 46.70 RCW."

On page 15, section 18, line 3, strike all the language in lines 3 to 8 inclusive and insert the following:

"Upon the filing of a complaint pursuant to section 21 by a complaining motor vehicle dealer within 60 days following the written notification of the cancellation or nonrenewal of the existing franchise, any cancelled or nonrenewed franchise of said complaining dealer shall stay in full force and effect until the complaint has been expeditiously disposed of, unless the court, pursuant to section 17 of this amendatory act, has ordered the director to issue a motor vehicle dealer's license to a new franchisee."

On page 16, section 21, line 30, strike all the language in lines 30 to 33 inclusive, on page 16, and in lines 1 to 5 inclusive on page 17, and insert the following:

"Any person who is injured in his business or property by a violation of this amendatory act, or any person so injured because he refuses to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this amendatory act, may bring a civil action in the superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him together with the costs of the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Any person recovering judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice against a manufacturer, distributor or factory representative or branch pursuant to section 16 (5) (b) and 21 of this amendatory act shall, upon full payment of said judgment, or upon the dismissal of such claim, execute a waiver in favor of the judgment debtor or defendant of any claim arising prior to the date of said judgment or dismissal under the Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act, 15 United States Code Sections 1221-1225. Any person having recovered full payment for any judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice under said Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act shall have no cause of action under this section for alleged violation of Section 16 (5) (b) of this amendatory act, with respect to matters arising prior to the date of said judgment.

A civil action brought in the superior court pursuant to the provisions of section 21 of this amendatory act must be filed no later than one year following the alleged violation of this amendatory act."

On page 17, section 22, line 14, after "section" and before "of" strike "23" and insert "21"

On motion of Senator Henry, the rules were suspended, Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 280 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 280 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Knoblauch, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—41.

Those voting nay were: Senators Gissberg, Guess, Keefe, Twigg—4.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Mardesich—2.

Excused: Senators Kupka, McCormack—2.

Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 280, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

On motion of Senator Henry, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 280 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

Reengrossed Substitute House Bill No. 403, by Committee on State Government and Legislative Procedures:

Providing for payment of moving expenses of state deputies and other employees.

On motion of Senator Lewis the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Reengrossed Substitute House Bill No. 403 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lennart:

"Mr. President, would Senator Lewis yield to a question:

"Is there any limit on how much money we can spend on this type of expense? What safeguard is there, Senator, in this area?"

Senator Lewis:

"Senator, this area is adequately protected. In the first place, as far as bringing new people in, it restricts it only to those in the top positions that would be required in state government. It is not liberally construed to include all employees, but only in those areas where we are in severe competition with private industry and other states which have these devices. In our own particular location out here in the western part of the country, many times it is impossible to hire somebody from New York or Chicago or Louisiana because they cannot afford to move out here without this type of legislation. It will of course be tied to appropriations by the legislature, so I think that is a safeguard."

Senator Lennart:

"One more question, will it include all interim committees that we have now or will have in the future?"

Senator Lewis:

"No, sir, this does not have anything to do with interim committees. This is only state personnel."

Senator Canfield:

"Will Senator Lewis yield to another question:

"Did I understand you to say it applied only to certain select employees? As I read the bill, it applies on page 1, line 22, to any state office, commission or department paying the moving expenses of new employees."

Senator Lewis:

"Senator Canfield, Senator Lennart was talking about travel expenses. You are talking about moving expenses. You are correct in your reading, but Senator Lennart's question applied to travel expenses for prospective employees."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey:

"Would Senator Lewis yield to another question, Mr. President:

"Under this bill then how much is the new rate for state employees that are away from home on per diem?"

Senator Lewis:

"There is no new rate of per diem, Senator. This is only travel."

Senator Bailey:

"Solely travel?"

Senator Lewis:

"Solely travel where the employee is required to travel by the state, sometimes for a week or two weeks at a time and in most cases employees are forced to go to a bank to borrow money before they go. Otherwise they are carrying this expense over a long period of time. There is no change in the rate other than in the optional area of mileage where it is only optional that they change from eight to ten cents but this is controlled by our appropriations. This is an advance on expense accounts so that they can get an advance ahead of time before they leave."

Debate ensued.

Those voting nay were: Senators Greive, Peterson (Lowell), Sandison, Williams—4.

Absent or not voting: Senators Cooney, Durkan, Keefe, Pritchard—4.

Excused: Senators Kupka, McCormack—2.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 31, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 79, by Committee on Agriculture and Horticulture:

Regulating the dairy industry and prices therein.

It was moved by Senator Hanna that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 79 be referred to the Committee on Agriculture and Horticulture.

Debate ensued.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Connor, Henry, Talley, Sandison, Guess, Marquardt, Uhlman, Ridder and Knoblauch.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion was carried and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 79 was referred to the Committee on Agriculture and Horticulture by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 2.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—44.

Excused: Senators Kupka, McCormack—2.

MOTION

At 12:25 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

The President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 1:55 p.m.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Senate Bill No. 622, by Senators Herrmann, Neill and Durkan:

Authorizing supervisor of banking to fix reserve requirements within prescribed limits.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Hallauer, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 2 add a new section after section 1 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 30.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any funds of any agricultural commodity commission may be invested in savings or time deposits in banks, trust companies and mutual savings banks which are doing business in this state, up to the amount of insurance afforded such accounts by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. This section shall apply to all funds which may be lawfully so invested, which in the judgment of any agricultural commodity commission are not required for immediate expenditure. The authority granted by this section is not exclusive and shall be construed to be cumulative and in addition to other authority provided by law for the investment of such funds."

In line 1 of the title after "companies" and before "; and amending" insert "and mutual savings banks; adding a new section to chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 30.04 RCW"

Wes C. Uhlman, Chairman,
, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: James A. Andersen, R. Frank Atwood, Frank W. Foley, Herbert H. Freise, Mike McCormack, Marshall A. Neill, Robert W. Twigg, Walter B. Williams, Perry B. Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 1 following section 1 of the engrossed bill add eight new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Sections 2 through 8 of this act are enacted in order to protect the residents of this state from debts bearing burdensome interest rates; and in order to better effect the policy of this state to use this state's policies and courts to govern the affairs of our residents and the state; and in recognition of the duty to protect our citizens from oppression generally.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 80, Laws of 1899 and to chapter 19.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever a loan or forbearance is made outside Washington state to a person then residing in this state the usury laws found in chapter 19.52 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, shall be applicable in all courts of this state to the same extent such usury laws would be applicable if the loan or forbearance was made in this state.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 80, Laws of 1899 and RCW 19.52.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any rate of interest not exceeding twelve percent per annum agreed to in writing by the parties to the contract shall be legal, and no person shall directly or indirectly take or receive in money, goods, or things in action, or in any other way, in a greater interest, sum or value for the loan or forbearance of any money, goods or things in action than twelve percent per annum: Provided, That in any loan of money in which the funds advanced do not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, a setup charge may be charged and collected by the lender, and such setup charge shall not be considered interest hereunder: Provided Further, That such setup charge does not exceed four percent of the amount of funds advanced, or fifteen dollars, whichever is the lesser, except that on loans of under one hundred dollars a minimum not exceeding four dollars may be so charged.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 80, Laws of 1899 and RCW 19.52.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a greater rate of interest than is [hereinbefore] allowed by statute shall be contracted for or received or reserved, the contract shall be usurious, but shall not, therefore, be void [; but]. If any action on such contract proof be made that greater rate of interest has been directly or indirectly contracted for or taken or reserved, the [plaintiff] creditor shall only [recover] be entitled to the principal, less the amount of interest accruing thereon at the rate contracted for [, and the defendant shall recover costs]; and if interest shall have been paid, [judgment shall be for] the creditor shall only be entitled to the principal less twice the amount of the interest paid, and less the amount of all accrued and unpaid interest; and the debtor shall be entitled to costs and reasonable attorneys' fees plus the amount by which the amount he has paid under the contract exceeds the amount to which the creditor is entitled: Provided, That the debtor may not commence an action on the contract to apply the provisions of this section if a loan or forbearance is made to a corporation engaged in a trade or business for the purposes of carrying on said trade or business unless there is also, in connection with such loan or forbearance, the creation of liability on the part of a natural person or his property for an amount in excess of the principal plus interest allowed pursuant to RCW 19.52.020. The reduction in principal shall be applied to diminish pro rata each future installment of principal payable under the terms of the contract.

(2) The acts and dealings of an agent in loaning money shall bind the principal, and in all cases where there is [illegal] usurious interest contracted for by the transaction of any agent the principal shall be held thereby to the same extent as though he had acted in person. And where the same person acts as agent of the borrower and lender, he shall be deemed the agent of the lender for the purposes of this act. If the agent of both the borrower and lender, or of the lender only, transacts a usurious loan for a commission or fee, such agent shall be liable to his principal for the amount of the commission or fee received or reserved by the agent, and liable to the lender for the loss suffered by the lender as a result of the application of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 80, Laws of 1899 and to chapter 19.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The debtor, if a natural person, or the creditor may bring an action for declaratory judgment to establish whether a loan or forbearance contract is or was usurious, and such an action shall be considered an action on the contract for the purposes of applying the provisions of section 5 of this 1967 amendatory act. Such an action shall be brought against the current creditor or debtor on the contract or, if the loan or debt has been fully repaid, by the debtor against the creditor to whom the debtor was last indebted on the contract. No such an action shall be commenced after six months following the date the final payment becomes due, whether by acceleration or otherwise, nor after six months following the date the principal is fully paid, whichever first occurs. If the debtor commences such an action and fails to establish usury, and if the court finds the action was frivolously commenced, the defendant or defendants may, in the court's discretion, recover reasonable attorney's fees from the debtor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 80, Laws of 1899 and to chapter 19.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Entering into or transacting a usurious contract is hereby declared to be an unfair act or practice in the conduct of commerce for the purpose of the application of the consumer protection act found in chapter 19.86 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this chapter is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of the chapter and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The provisions of this 1967 amendatory act shall not apply to transactions entered into prior to the effective date hereof.

In line 3 of the title, after "RCW" insert "; amending section 2, chapter 80, Laws of 1899 and RCW 19.52.020; amending section 7, chapter 80, Laws of 1899 and RCW 19.52.030; adding new sections to chapter 80, Laws of 1899 and to chapter 19.52 RCW; and prescribing penalties"

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 413 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams—44.

Voting nay was: Senator Woodall—1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, Hallauer, Herr—3.

Excused: Senator McCormack—1.

Engrossed House Bill No. 413, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Senate Bill No. 464, by Senators McCormack, Uhlman and Woodall:

Increasing liability of parents for their minor children's malicious or willful torts.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Freise, the following amendments by Senators Freise and Uhlman were adopted:

On page 1 after section 1 add the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A covenant, promise, agreement or understanding in, or in connection with or collateral to, a contract or agreement relative to the construction, alteration, repair, addition to, subtraction from, improvement to, or maintenance of, any building, highway, road, railroad, excavation, or other structure, project, development, or improvement attached to real estate, including moving and demolition in connection therewith, purporting to indemnify against liability for damages arising out of bodily injury to persons or damage to property caused by or resulting from the sole negligence of the indemnitee, his agents or employees is against public policy and is void and unenforceable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to the Code of 1881 and to Title 4 RCW, a new chapter to read as set forth in sections 4 through 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Whenever the removal of such action to superior court is required in order to acquire jurisdiction over a third party defendant, who is or may be liable to the defendant for all or part of the judgment and resides outside the county wherein the action was commenced, any civil action which could have been brought in superior court may, if commenced in justice court, be removed by the defendant or defendants to the superior court for the county where such action is pending if the court determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a third party may be liable to the plaintiff and issues an order so stating.

Whenever a separate or independent claim or cause of action which would be removable if sued upon alone, is joined with one or more otherwise nonremovable claims or causes of action, the entire case may be removed and the superior court may determine all issues therein, or, in its discretion, may remand all matters not otherwise within its original jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A defendant or defendants desiring to remove any civil action from a justice court as authorized by section 4 of this act shall file in the superior court in the county where such action is pending, a verified petition containing a short and plain statement of the facts which entitle him or them to removal together with a copy of all process, pleadings and orders served upon him or them in such action.

(2) The petition for removal of a civil action or proceeding shall be filed within twenty days after the receipt by the defendant, through service or otherwise, of a copy of the initial pleading setting forth the claim for relief upon which such action or proceeding is based.

If the case stated by the initial pleading is not removable, a petition for removal may be filed within twenty days after receipt by the defendant, through service or otherwise, of a copy of an amended pleading, motion, order or other paper, including the defendant's answer, from which it may first be ascertained that the case is or has become removable.

(3) Promptly after the filing of such petition the defendant or defendants shall give written notice thereof to all adverse parties and shall file a copy of the petition with the justice court, which shall effect the removal and the justice court shall proceed no further unless and until the case is remanded.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In any case removed from justice court under the provisions of this act, the superior court may issue all necessary orders and process to bring before it all proper parties whether served by process issued by the justice court or otherwise.

If at any time before final judgment it appears that the case was removed improvidently and without jurisdiction, the superior court shall remand the case, and may order the payment of just costs. A certified copy of the order of remand shall be mailed by the clerk of the superior court to the justice court. The justice court may thereupon proceed with such case.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Whenever any action is removed from a justice court to a superior court under the provisions of this act, any attachment or sequestration of the property of the defendant in such action in the justice court shall remain in the custody of the sheriff to answer the final judgment or decree in the same manner as would have been held to answer had the cause been brought in the superior court originally."

Beginning in line 1 of the title after "Relating to" strike all of the matter down to and including "children" in line 2 and insert "civil actions and procedure; adding new sections to Title 4 RCW"

On motion of Senator Uhlman, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 464 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 464 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—43.

Those voting nay were: Senators Rasmussen, Uhlman—2.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Herr, Washington—3.

Excused: Senator McCormack—1.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 464, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I voted no on Senate Bill No. 464 so that I may be eligible for appointment to a Conference Committee if one is necessary. I favor the bill; I am one of the sponsors.

(Signed) Senator Wes C. Uhlman

Engrossed House Bill No. 492, by Representatives Berentson, Veroske and Sawyer:

Authorizing commission on harbor line to change, relocate or reestablish harbor lines on Fidalgo Bay.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, section 1, line 17, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The commission on harbor lines is hereby authorized and directed to relocate that portion of the inner harbor line established June 30, 1927, by the filing in the office of the commissioner of public lands of the "Maps of Seattle Tide Lands, Extension No. 1" between the angle point in the inner harbor line at the most easterly corner of Lot 22, Block 431-A, Seattle Tide Lands, Extension No. 1, (vicinity of Harbor Avenue Southwest and West Florida Street), as shown on sheet 57 of said maps and the south line of Lot 9, Block 482, Seattle Tide Lands, Extension No. 1 (Lincoln Park), as shown on sheet 72 of said maps, by establishing said inner harbor line coincident with the existing line of ordinary high tide between said limits.

Said relocation shall in no way effect any license or building permit pertaining to the area involved hereinabove and which was issued by the City of Seattle prior to June, 1966, or any renewal of such license or permit granted prior to the time this act takes effect."

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the amendment by Senator Greive was adopted.

It was moved by Senator Talley that the following amendment be adopted:

Add a new section following section 1 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Upon the payment to the state of Washington of a reasonable sum therefor, which sum shall be deposited to the state general fund when received by the treasurer of the state of Washington, the commissioner of public lands, for the department of natural resources, is authorized and directed to certify to the governor and secretary of state that such payment has been made on the following described real property in Wahkiakum county, Washington: 'All the accrued tidelands adjacent to that tract of land containing approximately 39.75 acres lying between lands deeded to Lars O. Pederson by deed recorded in book L, page 5, records of Wahkiakum county, Washington and lands deeded to William Vog, by deed recorded in book K, pages 429 and 430, records of Wahkiakum county, Washington, said property being a portion of the Northwest quarter of the Northeast quarter of Government lot 4 in section 25, Township 8 North, Range 6 West of the Willamette Meridian. Said tidelands beginning west some 299.64 feet from section line 25, then south 150 feet more or less to low water, thence west 730 feet more or less, thence north 450 feet more or less to the bank of the Columbia river, thence east some 730 feet more or less to the point of beginning;' and the governor is hereby authorized and directed forthwith to execute and the secretary of state authorized and directed forthwith to attest a deed conveying such lands to Fritz Gilbertsen."

In line 1 of the title after "lines" and before the semicolon insert ", including tidelands adjacent thereto"

Debate ensued.

With leave of the Senate, the amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 492 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 492 as amended by the Senate and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Uhlman, Washington—40.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Guess, Marquardt, Neill, Woodall—5.

Absent or not voting: Senators Herr, Twigg, Williams—3.

Excused: Senator McCormack—1.

Engrossed House Bill No. 492 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Greive that the Senate immediately consider Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639 on third reading.

The motion was carried.

THIRD READING OF BILLS

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639, by Committee on Revenue and Taxation:

Establishing a single rate net income tax.

It was moved by Senator Ryder that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639 on third reading be made a special order of business immediately following adoption of the reports of Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bills No. 207 and 208.

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Gissberg that the motion by Senator Ryder be laid upon the table.

Senators Gissberg, Durkan and Sandison demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senator McCormack who was excused.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

Senator Ryder demanded a roll call on the motion by Senator Gissberg to table the motion by Senator Ryder and the demand was sustained by Senators Woodall, Atwood, Neill, Chytil, Williams, Canfield, Peterson (Ted), Faulk, Rasmussen and Marquardt.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Gissberg was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 20; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington—28.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Faulk, Freise, Guess, Lennart, Lewis, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Stender, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—20.

Excused: Senator McCormack—1.

On motion of Senator Durkan the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey:

"Mr. President, would Senator Ryder yield to a question:

"Senator Ryder, I have a booklet here which says, 'Why the people of the state of Washington should choose tax reform,' and it has the signature of the Governor on the front and it has more or less of a state seal on the front. On the back it has: 'Prepared by the Governor of the state of Washington.'

"Can you tell me if the Governor spent state money for circularizing this sort of petition to promote his program?"

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President:

"I have no idea where the finances came from to pay for that pamphlet; however, I would stake my reputation on the fact that the money did not come from state funds and it was a perfectly legal expenditure for the Governor."

Senator Bailey:

"Senator Ryder, wouldn't it be proper to note on this pamphlet who paid for this? Isn't this a state law that you must tell who and what committee paid for these things?"

Senator Ryder:

"I think, Senator, that the state law provides that there must be some signature on political propoganda, if you would call this political propoganda. The signature is there."

Senator Bailey:

"Senator Ryder, then this is the work of Governor Evans with anonymous contributions, you might say?"

Senator Ryder:

"Senator Bailey, as I stated previously, I have no idea how the printing of the pamphlet was financed, and I don't think that that is a case in point at the moment at all. As I said, I would be very sure, however, that it was financed in a perfectly legal manner."

Senator Bailey:

"Mr. President:

"Senator Ryder did say a signature was there and the only signature is that of Governor Evans and the point I am making is that you hear so much talk about state tax reform and this is only one part of it, that citizens aren't for state tax reform if we are going to be forced to pass an unlimited budget with hidden money in it coming out for items and we don't even know what we are fighting. We see things like this being published and it looks like an official state document. Senator Ryder, could you report back to the Senate in a day or so and tell us who paid for this?"

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President:

"In answer to Senator Bailey's question, I think perhaps he has a good point and perhaps we should get the answer to that and a complete explanation and I would suggest that perhaps we hold this bill since this is part of the package. We should hold this bill until we get the answer and have it fully discussed on the floor, then, since this particular part of politics is coming into it."

Debate ensued.

Senator Pritchard:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I don't think there is any secret about who paid for the pamphlet. The Washington Education Association paid for that. They supported the Governor's position and many times before and time and time again in past history, some group has taken a statement the Governor has made and sent it around the state. That's not using public or state funds."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, would Senator Ryder yield to a question:

"Senator Ryder, would you look at section 17 of the bill, please?"

Senator Ryder:

"What is your question, Senator Rasmussen?"

Senator Rasmussen:

"My question is, and it isn't quite clear, every person who has been domiciled in this state not less than 182 days during the taxable year—now my question is if I come into the state in the last six months, would I be entitled to a refund though I had been required to pay an income tax under the proposal that is standing out in the wings?"

Senator Ryder:

"Apparently that's true that a person, to be eligible for refund on the income tax must live here at least six months. You could not come in the last month or two and get the refund, Senator, on the basis of your income. You could not come into the state the last few months and claim a full year's income."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, Senator Ryder:

"Could you explain that? How do you get this refund? You're speaking of a refund of the sales tax?"

Senator Ryder:

"This is correct. Now this bill of course was brought out, Senator Rasmussen, by the majority party and I assumed that they and Senator Durkan were prepared to discuss it fully and to answer all of the detailed questions that anyone might have, and so I would defer to the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee who undoubtedly has all of the answers which you would like to have at this moment."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Keefe, Greive and Rasmussen demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639 and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 1; nays, 47; excused, 1.

Voting yea was: Senator Mardesich—1.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—47.

Excused: Senator McCormack—1.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639 having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Ryder served notice that he would on the next working day move that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639 failed to pass.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Lennart, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

It was moved by Senator Lennart that the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bills No. 207 and 208 be instructed to report back within five days or be discharged.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the motion be laid upon the table.

Senator Lennart demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Ryder, Peterson (Ted), Guess, Pritchard, Metcalf, Chytil, Redmon and Atwood.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Greive to lay the motion by Senator Lennart upon the table was carried by the following vote: Yeas: 27; nays, 21; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCutcheon, McMillan, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington—27.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Faulk, Freise, Guess, Lennart, Lewis, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Stender, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—21.

Excused: Senator McCormack—1.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, point of personal privilege:

"All of the Republicans voted against a bill which is a part of our program and the program of our Governor and part of the program of the majority party in the House, which feel at the present time is a pretty good bill. I would like to read a statement with the permission of the Senate, which will be signed by all of the Republican members and will be inserted in the Journal."

EXPLANATION OF VOTES

The following Explanation of Votes was read by Senator Ryder:

Our vote against House Bill No. 639 is a protest against the time of the consideration of the bill rather than against the bill itself. It is the position of the Republican Senators that before passing major new revenue measures the level of spending agreed upon in House Bills No. 207 and 208, the omnibus and capital budget bills, must first be determined. These bills are still in Free Conference. Therefore, no report on their fiscal impact is available at this time. Such determination must be made and presented to the body for consideration since it is completely irresponsible to adopt legislation to meet undetermined budgets. Specifically, House Bill No. 639 is designed to implement House Joint Resolution No. 29 (the Governor's "Tax Reform" package) which has not yet been acted upon by either chamber. Clearly, the proper time to consider House Bill No. 639 and similar bills is following the presentation of the state's budgetary needs.

(Signed) Senators John N. Ryder, Joe Chytil, Herbert H. Freise, R. Frank Atwood, Damon R. Canfield, Harry B. Lewis, John H. Stender, Richard Marquardt, Robert W. Twigg, Laurence J. Faulk, Jack Metcalf, Fred G. Redmon, Joel Pritchard, Sam C. Guess, Walter B. Williams, Ted Peterson, James A. Andersen, Ernest W. Lennart, Marshall A. Neill.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President, point of personal privilege:

"Since Senator Ryder rose to a point of personal privilege, I would just like to reply briefly that in effect the Republican Party has stated today that they are for an increase in the sales tax and at the proper time are willing to vote for it, but the proper time is only when they decide when the bill should be brought to the floor and not before. The bill was before you today. You had an opportunity to discuss it on second reading. You had an opportunity to present amendments and incidentally I have a letter from your Governor in which he requested me to expedite all matters in my committee in regards to executive request bills, of which this is one, and incidentally, Senator, this is not the only bill that was circulated but I might add it is one of seven bills that were circulated of which five were executive request bills and three were done to accommodate your Governor and you, so let there not be any misunderstanding as to the position of the chairman of the Senate Ways and Means Committee or the majority party. You have also had an opportunity to be heard in that committee and any member of that committee who feels otherwise can come forward and state so now. I have never held it down and you have had an opportunity to be heard. You could have called your bill up. I came to both you and the caucus chairman of your party and asked you if you did not want it circulated before we had a Ways and Means Committee meeting, and you said it was all right, that it was not necessary to have a Ways and Means Committee meeting. That's why it was done. Let there be no misunderstanding on anybody's part as to why this was done. It was brought out on the floor after consulting with you and after receiving letters from your Governor asking that his executive bills come up. Now the fact is that one came out that he didn't particularly like, I am sorry to say we cannot accommodate him on everything."

Senator Mardesich:

"Mr. President:

"I would just like to point out for the record that I voted aye on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 639 simply so that the Governor won't lose heart, so that if he felt willing to negotiate, I would be willing to go down and I think he and I could sit down and work something out so that both sides would accept it and I will be willing to do that."

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Senate Bill No. 193,
Senate Bill No. 286,
Substitute Senate Bill No. 584.

On motion of Senator Ryder, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Ryder, Senator Neill was excused.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate returned to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed House Bill No. 451, by Representatives Bottiger, Mahaffey and Jueling:

Providing safe walk-ways for school pupils.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 451 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

- (21) "Annuity" means payments derived from contributions made by a member as provided herein.
- (22) "Retirement allowance" means the pension plus annuity.

(23) "Fiscal year" means any year commencing with January 1st and ending with December 31st next following.

(24) "Miscellaneous personnel" means officers and employees other than those in the uniformed police or fire service: Provided, Those members of the fire department who are ineligible to the benefits of a firemen's pension system established by or pursuant to any other state law, are also included in the miscellaneous personnel.

(25) "Uniformed personnel" means any employee who is a policeman in service or who is subject to call to active service or duty as such.

(26) "Effective date" when used with regard to employees means the date on which any individual or group of employees became members of any retirement system and when used with regard to any city or town shall mean the date on which it became a participant.

(27) "Actuarial equivalent" means a benefit of equal value when computed at regular interest upon the basis of such mortality tables as shall be adopted by the board of trustees.

(28) "Persons having an insurable interest in his life" means and includes only such persons who, because of relationship from ties of blood or marriage, have reason to expect some benefit from the continuation of the life of the member.

(29) "Additional contributions" means contributions made pursuant to subsection (6) of RCW 41.44.130.

(30) "Accumulated additional contributions" means the sum of all "additional contributions" made by a member standing to the credit of the individual account, together with regular interest thereon.

(31) "Part time employees" means those employees who, although regularly and continuously employed, do not regularly perform their duties the full number of hours required of other regular employees, including but not confined to such employees as police judges, city attorneys and other officers and employees who are also engaged in outside employment or occupations.

(32) "Excess interest income" means that interest income earned and received from investments in excess of the interest income on investments required to meet actuarial funding requirements.

Sec. 7, Section 7, chapter 71, Laws of 1947 and RCW 41.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of trustees shall consist of seven members, one of whom shall be the state insurance commissioner, ex officio; three elective city officials [and three city employees] eligible to the benefits of the system who shall be appointed by the governor from a list of six city officials [and six city employees] submitted by the executive committee of the association of Washington cities as the official representative of cities and towns in the state [after considering recommendations of city employees as to employee members]. Original terms of office of the appointees [in the two groups] shall be one, two and three years as designated by the governor; thereafter terms shall be for three years duration. Appointments to fill vacancies other than those caused by expiration of a term, shall be for the unexpired term. Appointees shall serve until successors have been appointed and qualified.

In addition to these four members, there shall be three city employees who shall be elected by a secret ballot vote of the city employees who are members of the system. The method and details of such election shall be determined by the board of trustees. The first such election shall be held in June of 1968. The original terms of office for the elected city employee members shall be one, two and three years as designated by the board of trustees, and such terms shall begin July 1, 1968; thereafter terms shall be for three years' duration. In the case of vacancies of elected city employee positions the board of trustees shall appoint city employees to serve for the unexpired terms. Such appointees shall serve until successors have been elected.

(2) The board shall annually, dating from the first officially recorded meeting, elect a chairman and secretary. Four members shall constitute a quorum.

(3) Each member of the board shall take an oath of office that he will diligently and honestly administer the affairs of the board, and that he will not knowingly violate or wilfully permit to be violated any of the provisions of this chapter."

Renumber section 6 as "Sec. 8."

It was moved by Senator Freise that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 10 after section 5 add the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 39, Laws of 1909 and to chapter 41.20 RCW, a new section to read as follows:

Each member of the police department of cities of the first class who shall have retired prior to June 9, 1961, shall be entitled to the pensions and benefits of RCW 41.20.050, 41.20.060, and 41.20.080.

Sec. 7. Section 2, chapter 78, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 1, chapter 140, Laws of 1961, and RCW 41.20.085 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any member of the police department of any such city shall die, or shall have heretofore died, or whenever any such member who has been heretofore retired or who is hereafter retired for length of service or a disability, shall have died, or shall die, leaving a surviving spouse or child or children under the age of eighteen years, upon satisfactory proof of such facts made to it, the board shall order and direct that a pension equal to one-third of the amount of salary at any time hereafter attached to the position held by such member in the police department at the time of his death or retirement, not to exceed one-third of the salary of captain, shall be paid to the surviving spouse during the surviving spouse's life, and in addition, to the child or children, until they are eighteen years of age, as follows: For one child, one-eighth of the salary on which such pension is based; for two children, a total of one-seventh of said salary; and for three or more children, a total of one-sixth of said salary: Provided, If such spouse or child or children marry, the persons so marrying shall receive no further pension from the fund. In case there is no surviving spouse, or if the surviving spouse shall die, the child or children shall be entitled to the spouse's share in addition to the share specified herein until they reach eighteen years of age. No spouse shall be entitled to any payments on the death of a retired officer unless he has been married to such officer for a period of at least five years prior to the date of his retirement.

As of July 1, 1961, a surviving spouse not otherwise covered by the provisions of section 2, chapter 78, Laws of 1959, shall be entitled to a pension of one hundred fifty dollars per month [Provided, That such pension shall be reduced by the amount of any pension such surviving spouse may be receiving under social security or any other pension grant].

'Surviving spouse' as used in this section means surviving female spouse.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The effective date for commencement of payment under sections 6 and 7 of this act shall be July 1, 1967."

Renumber remaining section consecutively.

MOTION

At 5:15 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Thursday, March 30, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTY-FIRST DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Thursday, March 30, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Guess, Hanna and Mardesich.

On motion of Senator Keefe, Senators Hanna and Mardesich were excused.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Guess was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Lonny Charleson, Color Bearer, and Jill Rutherford, presented the Colors.

Reverend Charles Howard Perry, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Psalm 8: O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth! Who hast set Thy glory above the heavens. Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings hast Thou ordained strength because of Thine enemies, that Thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

"When I consider Thy heavens, the work of Thy fingers, the moon and stars, which Thou hast ordained; what is man, that Thou art mindful of him? And the son of man, that Thou visitest Him? For Thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned Him with Glory and Honor. Thou madest Him to have dominion over the works of Thy hands; Thou hast put all things under his feet: All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field; the fowl of the air and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

"O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth! O God, Our Heavenly Father, grant that we may so honor Your Name that we are always mindful of Your presence in all that we do. Help us to so deal with things temporal and material that we not lose sight of things eternal and spiritual but are given perspective, understanding and patience by them through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield to a question:

"Senator Durkan, I have a question and I will have to spell it out a bit. I am aware of a problem in some nursing homes, and certainly I am not speaking about the majority. I have an amendment which I believe will solve the problem. However, I don't want to jeopardize the bill by putting on an amendment which may not be necessary and I would like to explain it and see if you think it is necessary.

"Some nursing homes have in the past made charges on the clothing and incidental allowance for things which were part of the normal care of the patient. We now have a carefully written contract with nursing homes as to what work or care shall be provided. Since that time some patients have been charged exorbitantly for items under clothing and incidental allowance by some nursing home operations. Again, I don't want to indict a large number, but I do want to see protection given to some older people that cannot protect themselves.

"I understand a proviso will go into the budget bill and I am going to read it and ask you if you feel that this will solve the situation and protect the clothing and incidental allowance of the patients, and this is the proviso that I understand will go into the other bill, that all of the vendors shall be required to furnish additional documented evidence of the cost of providing care, services or supplies in the form, to the extent and at such time as the Department of Public Assistance determines necessary for evaluating, justifying and establishing rates and/or fees.

"Do you feel that this proviso solves the problem that I am trying to correct on this particular bill without my amendment?"

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President:

"We think with the proviso in the bill stating the nursing home operators have to justify all their costs, that will eliminate the one thing which is objectionable to you and the rest of the members of the Senate so I would think that your amendment is not necessary on this bill. It is my intention and I think it is the intention of the rest of the conference committee members that there will be a proviso included in the omnibus bill which will require cost supporting data from the nursing homes."

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 702 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 702 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 3.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—43.

Absent or not voting: Senators Hallauer, Lennart, Morgan—3.

Excused: Senators Guess, Hanna, Mardesich—3.

House Bill No. 702 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Substitute House Bill No. 403,
House Bill No. 413,
House Bill No. 451,
House Bill No. 490.

MOTION

At 12:25 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Friday, March 31, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Friday, March 31, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senator Hanna.

On motion of Senator Keefe, Senator Hanna was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Lonny Charleson, Color Bearer, and Sandy Ross, presented the Colors.

Reverend William L. Shilley, pastor of St. Mary's Parish of Kelso, offered prayer as follows:

"We ask your blessing, loving Father, on this special session of the legislature and beg that this blessing continue as long as the people act so as to deserve good men representing them in a government operating under God's grace. Bless us, Lord, with an appreciation of our nation, the enjoyment of social conditions, and responsible freedom. To these representatives of ours, give courage never to be swayed by the blandishments of lobbies or the thunders of the galleries.

"Teach them anew that they must represent you, your power, your justice, and your love, to the people of this state because all authority, all power, all love came from You. Guided by a true and honest concern, let these representatives of the people and especially those from the southwest, make it their task to be the voice of those who cannot speak—the poor, the mentally ill and the retarded, the minority races, creeds and nationalities.

"Father of us all, help these men to be fair and just; continue Your blessing on this nation so that their acts may always be consistent with the ends of Your Providence. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of Page Groton, National Director of Shipbuilding Unit of Boilermakers' Union Washington, D.C. and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Stender, Connor and Peterson (Ted) to escort Mr. Groton to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

With leave of the Senate, the rules were suspended to permit Mr. Groton to address the Senate.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 25

By Senators Woodall and Redmon:

Whereas, Small loan companies, industrial loan companies, and other types of lending institutions are authorized to lend money in this state at rates of interest in excess of those allowed state banks and lenders in general; and

Whereas, There are varying methods of stating the interest charged for loans and forebearances, depending on the type of lending institution and type of loan, which varying methods sometimes tend to confuse a potential borrower trying to compare rates of interest; and

Whereas, There is no statutory definition of "interest" or "forebearance" which is easily applicable to all types of credit transactions involving the use of these concepts; and

Whereas, The laws of the states vary regarding the regulation of finance charges in credit transactions; and

Whereas, The National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws is now engaged in drafting a proposed Uniform Consumer Credit Code;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the legislative council be requested to study the laws of Washington and other states relating to finance charges in credit transactions and to keep advised of the work being done toward the proposed Uniform Consumer Credit Code; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the results of the study and recommendations be reported to the next regular session of the legislature.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the resolution was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1967 EX - 26

By Senators Mardesich, Faulk and Sandison:

Whereas, The building of a second structure across Puget Sound is a project of such magnitude, with such an economic impact on the future growth of the entire western half of the state; and

Whereas, Studies of proposed cross-Sound bridge routes in the past have been limited to the southern portion of Puget Sound only because of population factors in the then belief that such population growth would emanate from that direction; and

Whereas, In the wake of an industrial expansion in Snohomish County which likewise will affect the economy and future growth of the state; and

Whereas, An in depth navigational feasibility study has never been authorized; and

Whereas, A link across the southern portion of Puget Sound already exists in the Tacoma Narrows bridge, while a link between the rapidly growing Snohomish and north King county areas and the untapped recreational reservoir of the Olympic peninsula and the ocean beaches is only partially completed with construction of the Hood Canal bridge;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That in light of these factors which have become evident since previous cross-Sound bridge studies were made which did not include Routes III and IV, or a President Point-Richmond Beach location that a study by the Joint Interim Committee on Highways be directed of the engineering, navigational and financial feasibility of such routes to determine if this better meets the future needs of the people of the Puget Sound area.

Senate Joint Memorial No. 11, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77, by Committee on Judiciary:

Providing for allowance of fees and costs in connection with eminent domain proceedings.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77 was ordered to retain its place on the second reading calendar for this afternoon immediately prior to consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 802.

On motion of Senator Freise, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 197 on second reading.

Engrossed House Bill No. 197, by Representatives Saling, Smythe, Taylor and Hoggins:

Deleting provision against use of dairy product substitutes in educational institutions.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Rasmussen that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 19, following section 1, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 15.32.370, chapter 11, Laws of 1961, section 1, chapter 73, Laws of 1965, and RCW 15.32.370 are each hereby repealed."

Renumber the following section.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield:

"Mr. President, would Senator Rasmussen yield:

"Senator Rasmussen, I understand your amendment is in the nature of a repealer which repeals the statute compelling the use of materials, is this correct?"

Senator Rasmussen:

"That is correct, Senator Canfield."

Debate ensued.

Senator Talley:

"Mr. President, would Senator Rasmussen yield:

"Senator Rasmussen, if you will notice, there is a House amendment that says they can only use oleomargarine when surplus butter is not available. Now, how would your amendment go with this House amendment?"

Senator Rasmussen:

"Senator Talley, my amendment would still have the same provisions though it isn't spelled out in words. Certainly when the institutions receive surplus butter, they are not going to buy oleomargarine on the open market. At the present time they are forced to buy butter on the open market because there is no surplus available for these institutions at present and we are forcing these people to eat butter, even though it is not particularly healthy for the aged people in the institutions. What my amendment would do would then leave it up to the director of institutions to buy whatever product they desired to buy on today's market at whatever price they could buy it and certainly if surplus butter were to become available again, I am sure that the Department of Institutions would take advantage of it. I have never seen them refuse it."

Senator Talley:

"Then if this law goes into effect and we have a surplus of butter accumulating in the state and the government would have no requirement to purchase or do anything with it, then we have a dairy that is in need of help and I don't know whether we are again cutting the heart out of it or not."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Senator Talley, I don't think that this law has any particular effect on cutting up the dairy industry or providing more business for them. Certainly the institutions will be buying and they do buy almost entirely within the state when they can. This has been a practice of the director of institutions as long as I have known."

Debate ensued.

Senator McCutcheon:

"Mr. President, may I ask Senator Bailey a question:

"Who is going to decide whether there is a surplus of butter?"

Senator Bailey:

"Senator McCutcheon, you are talking about a surplus on the market. Senators Talley and Rasmussen are talking about surplus commodities that are made available to the school districts and institutions. Now if there is a surplus of butter in that field, they can go to the surplus store and get the butter. If there is no surplus there is nothing they can get. Then they would have a right to buy oleomargarine on the open market. Otherwise, they would have to buy butter on the open market. This has nothing to do with market surplus. This is up to the department of agriculture of the United States whether or not there is a surplus in the surplus food store that is available for use."

Further debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the amendment by Senator Rasmussen was adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On line 4 of the title, before "and" insert "repealing section 15.32.370, chapter 11, Laws of 1961, section 1, chapter 73, Laws of 1965 and RCW 15.32.370;"

On motion of Senator Freise, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 197 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Morgan:

"Mr. President, I'd like to have my remarks inserted in the journal.

"I have had brought to my attention as chairman of the Committee on Public Institutions by no less than a doctor's wife in Bremerton. Women all over the state who are very concerned about pure lard, fortified, that's being used as a butter substitute, and I just hope that you will keep your eye on this. I have been in a lot of different institutions and have watched the various food lines go through and along with their cornbread and maybe a little bottom fish and maybe a slice of tomato and tea or coffee, they have their butter—two little pats of butter—and you want to make mighty sure you are not going to be giving them lard. I hope that you will remember this and I'm having it inserted into the record because I have had many complaints about this by many people who are watching this now. On the market we have this low grade butter substitute, whatever you want to call it, oleomargarine or anything, and it's lard."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 197 as amended by the Senate and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 5; excused, 1.

MOTION

At 12:45 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 3:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 3:00 p.m.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senators Redmon and Stender were excused.

On motion of Senator Dore, Senator Connor was excused.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Guess, Engrossed House Bill No. 941 which was a special order of business on second reading for 3:00 p.m., was made a special order of business for 3:00 p.m., Monday, April 3, 1967.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the Committee on Labor and Social Security was relieved of further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 936.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Substitute House Bill No. 936 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77, by Committee on Judiciary:

Providing for allowance of fees and costs in connection with eminent domain proceedings.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77 was ordered to retain its place on second reading immediately following consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 802.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 802, by Committee on State Government and Legislative Procedures:

Providing for election of legislative district chairmen.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Ridder that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, section 1, line 19, strike "only" and on line 20 before the period, insert "or by the county chairman if two-thirds of the county central committee concur in the removal"

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Knoblauch, Senator Durkan was excused.

On motion of Senator Greive, the amendment by Senator Ridder was laid upon the table.

It was moved by Senator Uhlman that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, following section 3, add a section to read as follows:

The state committee of each major political party shall consist of one committeeman and one committeewoman from each county [elected by the county committee at its organization meeting. It], and one committeeman and one committeewoman from each senatorial district, to be elected by the county committee, and by the precinct committeemen and committeewomen of the senatorial district, respectively, at the organization meeting of the county committee: Provided, That in the event the boundaries of a senatorial district extend beyond the borders of one county, the state central committee shall set the time and place of an election meeting for that senatorial district which shall precede the organization meetings of the counties involved. The state committee shall have a chairman and vice chairman who must be of opposite sexes."

Debate ensued.

The motion was lost and the amendment was not adopted.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, following section 2, on line 27, add two new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to RCW 29.42 a new section to read as follows:

Each major political party shall establish separate committees for each legislative district, a majority of the precincts of which are within a Class AA county, which shall consist of the precinct committeemen of such district and such committees shall organize on the third Saturday in December after each state general election in the same manner as the state central committee organizes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to RCW 29.42 a new section to read as follows:

Nominations for the filling of vacancies in legislative office shall be limited to those three individuals elected by the legislative district organization."

Renumber the remaining section of the bill.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted:

On motion of Senator Greive, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, section 2, line 19, after "district" strike "chairman" and insert "organization"

It was moved by Senator Uhlman that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, section 1, line 14, after "district" strike remainder of line 14 and line 15 through the word "county"

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Keefe, the amendment was laid upon the table.

On motion of Senator Greive, the following amendments to the title were adopted:

In line 2 of the title, after "chairman" insert "and of nominees to fill vacancies in legislative office"

In line 4 of the title, after "adding" and before "to" strike "a new section" and insert "new sections"

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 802 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder:

"Mr. President, would Senator Greive yield to a question:

"Senator Greive, I would like to know what controls you now have over the district. If you now have any, I would like to know about them."

Senator Greive:

"The problem which all of us had in King county—and it depends on whether you were a Democrat or Republican, but speaking from the Democrats' point of view, the chairman is in a position to appoint personal friends who may not even live in precincts that are Democratic and suddenly the chairman has a majority at any given time and calls people in and is constantly—at least in my case—stirring up dissension and trouble. I have never been a district officer. I have never been a candidate for district officer, and I haven't that intimate a connection, except as precinct committeeman. I do go to meetings and do participate. But at least in my district it seems to me the county chairman is constantly causing dissension and friction and problems. As far as the Republicans, I understand that's a different problem. They make a direct appointment, so the precinct committeemen have very little say. In my case I don't file in all the precincts. The chairman can appoint people to out-vote us from other precincts. In the Republican case I just don't have anything to say."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman:

"Mr. President, would Senator Pritchard yield to a question:

"In the days before Mr. Rogstad came to power in King county, how many people attended the district meetings?"

Senator Pritchard:

"Before Mr. Rogstad came into office, we had district meetings. After he came, we didn't have district meetings."

Senator Uhlman:

"Senator Pritchard, you are not being responsive. How many people attended meetings and made decisions?"

Senator Pritchard:

"Are you talking about club meetings or district meetings?"

Senator Uhlman:

"I'm not talking about club meetings. This bill deals with precinct committee meetings."

Senator Pritchard:

"Well, if you're talking about meetings on county reorganization, we might have over 150 people."

Senator Uhlman:

"There are 150 committeemen in your district?"

Senator Pritchard:

"You mean how many people were precinct committeemen or —"

Senator Uhlman:

"How many of them attended? That's my question."

Senator Pritchard:

"When we were electing people as county and state officers, we had almost total attendance."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 802 as amended by the Senate and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 10; absent or not voting, 5; excused, 5.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Pritchard, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—29.

Those voting nay were: Senators Chytil, Dore, Gissberg, Mardesich, Metcalf, Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Uhlman, Washington—10.

Absent or not voting: Senators Henry, Herr, McCormack, Marquardt, Peterson (Ted)—5.

Excused: Senators Connor, Durkan, Hanna, Redmon, Stender—5.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 802 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Hallauer served notice that he would on the next working day move that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 802 as amended by the Senate passed the Senate.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77, by Committee on Judiciary:

Providing for allowance of fees and costs in connection with eminent domain proceedings.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77 was ordered to retain its place at the beginning of the second reading calendar for tomorrow.

House Bill No. 675, by Representatives Brouillet and Clarke (George):
Regulating school books.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Freise, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 675 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey:

"Mr. President, I have a question to ask of Senator Freise:

"It has been called to my attention that one of the repealers in this bill repealed the free text book provision of our law as far as free text books are concerned. Now does this repealer mean the school district is going to embark on a policy other than that and change its policy?"

Senator Freise:

"Well, Senator Bailey, Elmer Stanley prepared this resume. It says:

"The Problem: The Textbook Commission law is obsolete, impractical and not suited to modern needs and practices. It has not been changed in any significant way since 1909.

"Remedy: House Bill No. 675 recodifies the laws relating to text book selection, putting them in one chapter and in sensible sequence.

"It eliminates conflicts and archaic provisions.

"Extends the chapter to cover the selection and adoption of all instructional materials (not just textbooks).

"Makes clear each school board's responsibility to establish policy regarding the selection of instructional materials.

"Involves the professional staff in developing recommendations for adoption.

"Permits experimentation.

"Fixes responsibility for final adoption with the school board, thus helping to protect staff from unreasonable pressures from extremists.

"Establishes a structure of procedures which will result in the selection of instructional materials stemming from curriculum needs.

"HB 675 has been developed with the cooperation of the "Office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, including: Dr. Chester Babcock, Assistant State Superintendent in charge of Curriculum, and Gerald Carlstrom, Research Division.

"Washington State School Directors' Association.

"Washington Education Association, John Porter, Assistant Superintendent, Edmonds, Dr. Ray Broadhead, WEA Staff.

"The bill is also supported by the Washington Federation of Teachers. We know of no opposition."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess:

"Mr. President, would Senator Freise yield to a question:

"Senator Freise, on page 3 subsection 9, of the bill, it states prior to the repealer and stricken material, that one of the powers of the school board was that they could exclude from the schools and school libraries all books, transcripts, papers and other publications of an immoral or pernicious tendency. Now is this to mean that they no longer have that power if this material is stricken from the bill?"

Senator Freise:

"I'm sure, Senator Guess, that the school boards do have that power and it doesn't have to be spelled out and they certainly are in charge of the type of books that can be used and can be shelved in the various libraries, and I would say that this was nothing that would have to be spelled out. They automatically have it and the mere fact that they are elected as school board directors gives them the authority to do just that."

Senator Guess:

"It has been in the law all of these years and it has been a good tool. Can you imagine why now they want to repeal that at this time?"

Senator Freise:

"Senator Guess, every time they recodify laws and bring them up-to-date, they take out that legislation that is no longer needed and is just superfluous and I don't think it is necessary to have this in the bill. They have that authority."

Senator Guess:

"You state then that the school boards do have that authority?"

Senator Freise:

"They do have authority to keep out obscene or immoral literature, yes."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 675 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 5; excused, 5.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—39.

Absent or not voting: Senators Lennart, Morgan, Pritchard—3.

Excused: Senators Connor, Hanna, Redmon, Stender—4.

Substitute House Bill No. 146, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

THIRD READING OF BILLS

Senate Bill No. 519, by Senators Woodall, Cooney and Greive:

Stipulating damages which may be awarded to parent in actions for injury or death of child.

On motion of Senator Woodall the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Senate Bill No. 519 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 519 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 4.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ryder, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—38.

Those voting nay were: Senators Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison—3.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, Lennart, Morgan, Williams—4.

Excused: Senators Connor, Hanna, Redmon, Stender—4.

Senate Bill No. 519, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Senate Bill No. 362, by Senators Cooney, McCutcheon and Stender:

Granting certain police pension benefits.

On motion of Senator Freise the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Senate Bill No. 362 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 362 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 4.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams—38.

Those voting nay were: Senators Atwood, Guess, Ryder, Woodall—4.

Absent or not voting: Senators Lennart, Neill, Pritchard—3.

Excused: Senators Connor, Hanna, Redmon, Stender—4.

Senate Bill No. 362, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Senate Bill No. 457, by Senators Hallauer and Henry:

Authorizing use of federally guaranteed obligations or security for deposits of public funds.

On motion of Senator Hallauer the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Senate Bill No. 457 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 457 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 4.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—41.

Absent or not voting: Senators Atwood, Canfield, McMillan, Pritchard—4.

Excused: Senators Connor, Hanna, Redmon, Stender—4.

House Bill No. 86, by Representative Hawley (by Departmental request): Amending inspection fees for imported oyster seed.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), House Bill No. 86 was returned to second reading.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the Senate reconsidered the vote by which the committee amendments by the Senate Committee on Natural Resources were adopted.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the committee amendments by the Committee on Natural Resources were not adopted.

It was moved by Senator Lennart that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 14, following section 1, add 11 new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Section 2. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to take, fish for, or possess, for personal use, any salmon, or to land within the state any salmon taken in off-shore waters, without first having obtained and having in his possession a personal use salmon license as provided in this act: Provided, That nothing in this section shall prevent a person under the age of sixteen years from fishing for salmon for personal use at any time when it is otherwise lawful to fish for salmon:

Provided Further, That any person over the age of seventy years of age or any blind person shall be issued, upon making an affidavit to such effect, a license to fish for salmon for personal use at any time when it is otherwise lawful to fish for salmon. The director may authorize license dealers to issue such licenses to persons over seventy years of age and to blind persons free of charge and to make a charge to all other persons which shall not exceed twenty-five cents, which sum shall be retained by him for his services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All personal use salmon licenses issued under this act shall be issued by or under authority of the director, who may deputize any reputable citizen to issue such license and collect the fees therefor.

All persons so deputized by the director shall, on or before the thirty-first day of December of each year, pay to the director all fees collected and make and furnish all reports required by the director. The director may make all necessary rules and regulations regarding the issuance of licenses, the collection and payment of fees collected, the making and furnishing of reports connected therewith and the bonding of license dealers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every application for a license shall be in writing on forms furnished by the director for that purpose and signed by the applicant and shall contain information concerning the sex, physical description, age and place of residence of the applicant and any other information required by rule or regulation of the director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The fee for a personal use salmon license shall be two dollars per annum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Personal use salmon licenses shall not be transferable. Any person fishing for or having salmon in his possession that are taken for personal use from waters of this state or off-shore waters shall upon demand of any fisheries patrol officer, fisheries inspector, deputy fisheries inspector, game protector, sheriff, constable, marshal or police officer within his respective jurisdiction, exhibit his license and write his name for the purpose of comparison with the signature on the license, and failure to exhibit the license and to write his name upon demand shall be prima facie evidence that such person has no license or is not the person named in the license in his possession.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All moneys received from the issuance of personal use salmon licenses shall be paid by the director into a food fisheries revenue account within the general fund which is hereby created. The moneys shall be used exclusively by the department for the propagation and preservation of salmon and shall be diverted to no other purpose and shall be in addition to the determined current level of operations and capital outlay of the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any violations of this act or rules and regulations of the director adopted pursuant to the provisions of this act shall constitute a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished for each offense by a fine not less than ten dollars or more than one-hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not exceeding ninety days in the county jail or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person who falsifies any information required on the license or required by rule or regulation of the director made pursuant to this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In concurrent waters of the Columbia River where the river forms the boundary between the state of Washington and the state of Oregon and in coastal territorial waters of the state of Washington from the Oregon-Washington boundary to a point five nautical miles north, an Oregon angling license which is comparable and similar to the license provided for in this section shall be recognized as valid by this state only if such license is valid within the jurisdiction of the issuing state and if the state of Oregon recognizes as valid a comparable and similar license in Oregon coastal territorial waters from the Oregon-Washington boundary to a point five nautical miles south.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that Oregon licenses are valid for the taking of salmon when angling in concurrent waters of the Columbia River from the Washington shore.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Upon payment of a fee of fifty cents and the filing of an affidavit that a personal use salmon license has been lost or destroyed, the director of fisheries or his authorized representative shall issue a duplicate license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The provisions of sections 2 through 11 of this act shall become effective on January 1, 1968."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Peterson (Lowell):

"Mr. President, point of order:

"I believe this amendment enlarges the scope and object of the measure. I see no relationship between shellfish and salmon licenses."

Senator Lennart:

"Mr. President:

"It is in the same chapter, if you please."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kupka, House Bill No. 86 was ordered to retain its place on the second reading calendar for tomorrow.

Senate Bill No. 563, by Senators Keefe, Connor and Greive:

Setting minimum on certain firemen's pensions.

MOTION

At 4:40 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Saturday, April 1, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Washington, Saturday, April 1, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Gissberg, Hanna, Herr and Redmon.

On motion of Senator Keefe, Senators Gissberg, Hanna, and Herr were excused.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Redmon was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Andy Ridder, Color Bearer, and Janet Ridder, presented the Colors.

Reverend Charles H. Perry, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Almighty God, help us to see beyond the small and cluttered areas of our lives to the orderliness of Your Universe. Temper our admiration for ourselves and our human achievements with a true devotion to You and a humility of heart and mind that keep us aware of ourselves as Your children.

"As the potter molds the product by a turn of the wheel, a flick of the wrist, help us to be aware of your presence with us to cleanse our hearts, turn our minds, refresh our spirits. By remembering we are sons, O God our Father, grant that we shall never be tempted to make false Gods and to worship spiritless idols.

"In the midst of the mundane, the tiresome, the small minutiae of human involvements give us a vision of Your majesty and recall to us the depth of Your love for Your whole creation. May we love that which You love, serve that which You create, worship that which refreshes the soul and brings peace to the hearts and lives of men and women.

"We pray for all the people of this State and especially for these who are their chosen instruments. Save us, O God, from the pettiness of small minds and the wearisome partisanship that separates men and women from the lofty ideals and ambitions of public service. You know our needs, our Father, direct us into Your paths where understanding, brotherhood and justice are the bywords of the good life. Grant us joy in all that we do as we find ways to offer each day's work to You and as we seek the brightness of Your light which turns our darkness into radiance and our confusion into order.

"Great art Thou, O God, and worthy of our praise. Glory be to Thee, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Hallauer moved that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 802 passed the Senate.

Debate ensued.

Senator Uhlman demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Washington, Bailey, Greive, Mardesich, Connor, Dore, Hallauer, Ridder, and Peterson (Lowell).

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Hallauer to reconsider was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 15; nays, 27; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 4.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Connor, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Guess, Hallauer, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, Uhlman, Washington—15.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Freise, Greive, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—27.

Absent or not voting: Senators Henry, Marquardt, Metcalf—3.

Excused: Senators Gissberg, Hanna, Herr, Redmon—4.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 27

By Senators Henry, Lewis and Uhlman:

Whereas, The state civil service law applies to the nonacademic employees of all the state institutions of higher learning as well as other state employees; and

Whereas, Each institution of higher learning administers its own civil service system under rules adopted and enforced by a personnel committee consisting of three of its regents or trustees; and

Whereas, A previous subcommittee of the legislative council held inquiries into the operation of the state civil service as administered by the state personnel board and the highway personnel board; and

Whereas, The administering of the civil service program at the state institutions of higher learning has not been the subject of legislative inquiry since the passage of the State Civil Service Initiative in 1960;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the legislative council is requested to conduct a study of the operation of the state civil service at the various state institutions of higher learning and report its findings to the forty-first legislature. Such report shall be made on or before December 1, 1968.

On motion of Senator Henry, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 28

By Senator Guess:

Whereas, The construction of the John Day dam on the Columbia River has caused the citizens of the town of Roosevelt to relocate their town; and

Whereas, The relocated town of Roosevelt has been unable to incorporate and thus provide for an adequate sewerage system; and

Whereas, The thirty-eighth session of the state legislature passed legislation whereby Public Utility District No. 1 in Klickitat County was enabled to aid the town of Roosevelt in building an adequate sewerage system to eliminate potential danger to public health; and

Whereas, An indebtedness in the sum of $31,000.00 remains to be repaid; and

Whereas, Senate Bill No. 446 has been introduced in the Congress for the relief of Public Utility District No. 1 acting in behalf of the citizens of Roosevelt, Washington;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, that United States Senators Henry M. Jackson and Warren G. Magnuson and United States Congresswoman Catherine May are hereby requested to take such action as they may deem appropriate in support of the passage of United States Senate Bill No. 446.

And Be It Further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate shall cause a copy of this resolution to be sent to United States Senators Henry M. Jackson and Warren G. Magnuson and to Congresswoman Catherine May.

On motion of Senator Henry, the resolution was adopted.

Establishing a scenic and recreational highway system.

On motion of Senator Washington, Substitute Senate Bill No. 424 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 424, the substitute bill placed on second reading and read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 11, strike all of subsection (1) and renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 424 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess:

"Mr. President, would Senator Washington yield to a question:

"Senator Washington, I notice there are several things that have to do with the bill that are normally not covered in highway construction. In section 5, subsection 1, it states that the planning and design for highways falling within the scenic and recreational highways system may include or shall not be limited to provisions of the following: Hiking, bicycling and bridle paths, and so forth. Now will this construction of these facilities or the providing of these facilities come from highway gas tax dollars?"

Senator Washington:

"No, they will not. Section 3 provides specifically that the highway fund will be paid for by direct appropriations through the Parks and Recreation Commission."

Senator Guess:

"Senator Washington, there has been a long standing policy of the legislature and the highway department that on those roads where the highway department has built parallel freeways, the old road has gone back to the county. What does the bill provide in the case of the Yakima Canyon, can you tell me?"

Senator Washington:

"The bill provides nothing in that regard. I think this is a step that we would have to take in the future to determine what will be the status of one of these scenic highways if it goes off the system. This bill does not provide any way for handling that particular problem.

Senator Guess:

"In your preliminary remarks, you made some remark about whether or not the bill was tied to any action on billboards. Will you make that statement again to me?"

Senator Washington:

"Yes, this bill has no connection whatsoever with the control of billboards. That was specifically taken out of the act, as you recall, in the substitute bill."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 424 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Henry, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart,

Substitute House Bill No. 532, by Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance:

Providing a procedure to effect cancellation of a motor vehicle insurance policy.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Substitute House Bill No. 532:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 7, 1967.

Providing a procedure to effect cancellation of a motor vehicle insurance policy (reported by Committee on Banks, Financial Institutions and Insurance):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 7 after the period after the numeral "1" strike the remainder of the bill and insert the following:

"There is added to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) No contract of insurance predicated upon the use of a private passenger automobile, or the renewal thereof, shall be terminated by cancellation or refusal to renew by the insurer until at least fifteen days after mailing written notice of termination by certified mail with return receipt to the named insured at the latest address filed with the insurer by or on behalf of the named insured. Time of the effective date and hour of termination stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period.

(2) In addition, no such contract of insurance which has been in effect sixty days may be terminated by cancellation by the insurer unless:

(a) The named insured fails to discharge when due any of his obligations in connection with the payment of premium for the policy or any installment thereof;

(b) The insured violates any of the terms and conditions of the policy not in conflict with the provisions of this subsection;

(c) The named insured or any other operator who customarily operates an automobile insured under the policy:

(i) Has had his driver's license suspended or revoked during the policy period, or

(ii) Has experienced and is likely to experience epilepsy or heart attacks, and such individual cannot produce a certificate from a physician testifying to his unqualified ability to operate a motor vehicle, or

(iii) Is convicted of or forfeits bail during the policy period, for:

(A) Any felony, or

(B) Criminal negligence resulting in death, homicide or assault, arising out of the operation of a motor vehicle, or

(C) Operating a motor vehicle while in an intoxicated condition or while under the influence of drugs, or

(D) Leaving the scene of an accident without stopping to report, or

(E) Theft of a motor vehicle, or

(F) A third violation, for any one operator, within a period of eighteen months, of any moving traffic offense.

After the aforesaid sixty-day period, a notice of cancellation from the insurer to the insured shall give the statutory reason for which such cancellation is made.

(3) No contract of insurance subject to the provisions of subsection (1) above which has been in effect for sixty days shall be terminated by refusal to renew by the insurer unless:

(a) The insurer gives the named insured notice in writing as provided for in subsection (1) above that:

(i) It proposes to terminate or refuses to renew the insurance contract upon such date; and

(ii) Upon receipt of a written request from the named insured, it will forthwith mail to the named insured a written explanation of its actual reason or reasons for terminating or refusing to renew; and

(iii) The named insured, within five days after receipt of such notice, may at his option, request the insurer to furnish such written explanation; and

(b) If the named insured exercises his option, the insurer shall forthwith, but in any event prior to the proposed termination or refusal to renew, mail to the named insured by certified mail with return receipt a written explanation giving the actual reason or reasons for its refusal to renew the contract.

(4) Any notice or written explanation given pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be privileged and shall not constitute grounds for any cause of action against the insurer or its representative or any firm, person or corporation who in good faith furnishes to the insurer the information upon which the reasons are based.

(5) The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(a) Contracts of insurance issued under the assigned risk plan; and

(b) Contracts of insurance providing principally other general casualty coverages in addition to vehicle insurance; and

(c) Contracts of insurance insuring more than four motor vehicles.

(6) (a) Any contract of insurance which specifies either no definite policy period or a policy period of six months or less shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered to have successive policy periods ending each six months following its original date of issue.

(b) Each contract of insurance subject to the provisions of subsection (1) must contain each particular ground for cancellation of the contract of insurance by the insurer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Nothing in section 1 of this act shall be construed to prevent the cancellation or nonrenewal of any such insurance where:

(a) Such cancellation or nonrenewal is ordered by the commissioner under a statutory delinquency proceeding commenced under the provisions of chapter 48.31 RCW, or

(b) Permission for such cancellation or nonrenewal has been given by the commissioner on a showing that the continuation of such coverage can reasonably be expected to create or continue a condition in the company hazardous to its policyholder, or to its creditors, or to its members, subscribers, or stockholders, or to the public."

In line 4 of the title after "and to chapter" strike "48.18" and insert "48.22".

The Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 86 on second reading and the amendment proposed by Senator Lennart.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President, ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Lowell Peterson, finds that the proposed amendment by Senator Lennart does enlarge the scope and object of the bill.

"House Bill No. 86 provides that the inspectors' base salary not be included in determining the fees for inspection of imported oyster seed.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Lennart prohibits salmon fishing without a license and prescribed exceptions and licensing laws. Furthermore, the amendment makes violations of licensing provisions a crime and prescribes penalties. The amendment also provides that certain Oregon licenses are valid in described areas under some circumstances.

"The point of order raised by Senator Peterson is therefore well taken."

On motion of Senator Ryder, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 86 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 29

By Senators Hanna, Talley and Lennart:

Whereas, The Senate recognizes the need for some form of stabilization in the milk production and marketing industries in order to avoid the serious disturbances which have reached national proportions in this field in the midwest; and

Whereas, The Senate recognizes the need for some form of stabilization in the milk production and marketing in the state of Washington to eradicate those practices which have had the effect of destroying the milk industry to the detriment of the consumer;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the legislative council be requested to make a study into the areas of milk production and marketing, and the destructive practices therein; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the legislative council be requested to prepare suitable legislation to correct the problems and present such legislation to the forty-first Legislature for its consideration.

It was moved by Senator Hanna that the resolution be adopted.

On motion of Senator Williams, the motion was amended and the words, "and the destructive practices therein", on line 11 of the resolution were stricken.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Hanna was carried and the resolution as amended by Senator Williams was adopted.

On page 9, section 9, line 15, after "broadcasting" and before the semicolon insert ", excluding network, national and regional advertising computed as a standard deduction based on the national average thereof as annually reported by the Federal Communications Commission, or in lieu thereof by itemization by the individual broadcasting station, and excluding that portion of revenue represented by the out of state audience computed as a ratio to the station's total audience as measured by the 100 micro-volt signal strength and delivery by wire, if any"

On page 14, line 15, after "of" strike "agricultural" and after "commodities" insert "from points of origin in the state"

On page 14, beginning on line 17, after "thereto," strike "from points of origin in the state, and thereafter" and insert "[from points of origin in the state, and thereafter] from which such commodities are" and after "forwarded" in line 18 insert "directly", and after "by" on line 18 strike "water carrier" and insert "[water carrier] vessel"

On page 14, after section 15, add the following:

"Sec. 16. Section 82.32.060, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 27, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.32.060 are each amended to read as follows:

If, upon application by a taxpayer for a refund or for an audit of his records, or upon an examination of the returns or records of any taxpayer, it is determined by the tax commission that within the two years immediately preceding the receipt [of] by the commission of the application by the taxpayer for a refund or for an audit, or, in the absence of such an application, within the two years immediately preceding the commencement by the commission of such examination, a tax has been paid in excess of that properly due, the excess amount paid within such period of two years shall be credited to the taxpayer's account or shall be refunded to the taxpayer, at his option. In the case of an examination of the returns or records of the taxpayer, no refund of or credit for tax payments made within the two-year period preceding the commencement of the examination shall be allowed other than as disclosed by such examination, unless such payments have also been made within two years immediately preceding an application for a refund of or credit for such payments. Except as to the utilization by the taxpayer of the credits in computing tax authorized by RCW 82.04.435, which credits must be claimed within two years of payment of the taxes giving rise to such credits, no refund or credit shall be allowed with respect to any payments made to the commission more than two years before the date of such application or examination. Where a refund or credit may not be made because of the lapse of said two year period, the amount of the refund or credit which would otherwise be allowable for the portion of the statutory assessment period preceding the two year period may be offset against the amount of any tax deficiency which may be determined by the commission for such statutory assessment period. [Notwithstanding the foregoing, no refund or credit shall be granted with respect to taxes paid prior to May 1, 1950, but where a refund or credit may not be made because the tax was paid prior to May 1, 1950, the amount of the refund or credit which would otherwise be allowable for the portion of the statutory assessment period preceding May 1, 1950, may be offset against the amount of any tax deficiency which may be determined by the commission for such preceding period.] Where refund or credit is applied for with respect to a payment made pursuant to an assessment, the part of the payment in excess of that properly due shall be determined solely by reference to the assessment itself, and not by reference to other payments made within the assessment period."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 17, following section 18, add the following:

"Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961, and to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All property, whether real or personal, owned in fee or by contract purchase by any nonprofit corporation or association the primary purpose of which is providing education and recreation for the general public and the conservation of natural resources for such education and recreation shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation if the following conditions are met:

(1) Such property shall be used solely for the purpose of providing recreation or education for the general public, and not for the pecuniary benefit of any person or company, as defined in RCW 82.04.030; and

(2) Such property shall be subject to an option for the purchase thereof by the state or any of its subdivisions at a price not exceeding the sum of the original purchase cost to such nonprofit corporation or association plus interest from the date of acquisition by such corporation or association at a rate of six percent per annum compounded annually to the date of the exercise of the option.

Sec. 20. Section 84.36.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.36.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All property belonging exclusively to the United States, the state, any county or municipal corporation shall be exempt from taxation. All property belonging exclusively to a foreign national government shall be exempt from taxation if such property is used exclusively as an office or residence for a consul or other official representative of such foreign national government, and if the consul or other official representative is a citizen of such foreign nation.

Add a new section 19 to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect June 1, 1967."

On page 2, line 3 of the title, after "RCW 82.16.050;" insert "amending section 82.32.060, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 27, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.32.060;"

On page 2, line 8 of the title, after ".330;" insert "amending section 84.36.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.36.010;"

On page 2, line 12 of the title, strike the word "and"

On page 2, line 13 of the title, before the period after "RCW 82.16.026" insert "adding a new section to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 84.36 RCW; adding an effective date and declaring an emergency"

Martin J. Durkan, Chairman.

We concur in this report: James A. Andersen, R. Frank Atwood, Damon R. Canfield, Joe Chytil, John L. Cooney, Frank W. Foley, Sam C. Guess, Gordon Herr, Ernest W. Lennart, Harry B. Lewis, Mike McCormack, David E. McMillan, Marshall A. Neill, John N. Ryder, Walter B. Williams, Perry B. Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the committee amendment to page 3 was adopted.

It was moved by Senator McCormack that the committee amendment to page 9, section 9, line 15, be adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hallauer:

"Mr. President, would Senator McCormack yield to a question:

"In regard to the competitive advertising media, the public press of the state, does the interstate commerce aspect of this have the same significance or does the press pay a business and occupation tax on that part of the advertising that goes outside of the state?"

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President:

"To my knowledge, the press has made no request to have any exclusion of any portion of its advertising that goes outside of the state. I believe that's because the heavy majority of it is inside the state."

Senator Hallauer:

"Then, Senator McCormack, if this amendment is adopted, what you are telling us is that this would be discriminatory in that the press would not have this type of exemption but radio and television would have this type of exemption."

Senator McCormack:

"Senator, this is special legislation which attempts to correct inequities that already exist. In the past, broadcasting companies haven't been taxed at all and newspapers have. This is an attempt to bring both under the business and occupation tax blanket at the same rate. It's quite obvious with radio and television that sometimes a great deal of it does go outside the state. Now the broadcasting industry has come forward with a request that this portion of their business be excluded. I think if the press requested that portion of their business be excluded and could show that that portion goes outside the state the same as the broadcasting companies have done, it would be excluded."

Senator Hallauer:

"Then if I understand your response correctly, you say it would result in a discrimination against the press in contrast to radio and television?"

Senator McCormack:

"No, I did not suggest that."

Senator Hallauer:

"However, you did say there would be an exemption for radio and television on out of state business but not for the press, and this is the same thing."

Senator McCormack:

"I also said, Senator Hallauer, if the press came in and requested these exemptions, I am sure it would be considered."

Senator Hallauer:

"But they do not have such an exemption at the present time?"

Senator McCormack:

"No, and the reason they don't, Senator, is because that percentage of business that they do out of the state is so small, they haven't bothered to request it."

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

MOTION

At 4:50 p.m. on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 4, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTY-SIXTH DAYMORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Tuesday, April 4, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages George Thieme, Color Bearer, and Heidi Johnson, presented the Colors.

Reverend Arthur I. Anderson, pastor of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Our Father God, in the solemn stillness of this moment of allegiance to the flags of our country and of our commonwealth, we do again lift up our hearts unto Thee whence cometh our help.

"Make us aware of Thy presence. May we see what Thou art showing us, and know what Thou art telling us, and take what Thou art giving us, and do what Thou art bidding us.

"Make us to know the good work that Thou wouldst have us do this day, and then fill us with zeal to finish it. May we so hallow Thy Name that Thy kingdom come and Thy will be done, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 30

By Senators Hanna, Durkan, Hallauer, Washington, Foley, McCormack, Talley, Canfield and Chytil:

Whereas, The Committee on Public Works of the United States Senate adopted on September 9, 1963, a resolution requesting the board of engineers for rivers and harbors to review the report of the chief of engineers on the Columbia River and tributaries, published as House Document No. 403, 76th Congress, 2nd session; and

Whereas, The above mentioned resolution requests the corps of engineers to determine whether the extension of navigation from the pool of McNary Dam through Rock Island Dam on the Columbia River, Washington is feasible; and

Whereas, The proposed extension of navigation on the upper Columbia River above McNary pool is essential to the economic and industrial growth and prosperity of the immediate area affected and to the Pacific Northwest in general, and to the full and comprehensive development of our water resources; and

Whereas, This extension would have great benefit in providing a comprehensive system of transportation where all forms of transport are available to the shipping public for the movement of its commodities;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate of the Washington State Legislature, that it support extension of navigation on the upper Columbia River as an important link in providing the state with full and complete transportation service; and

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent by the Secretary of the Senate to the Honorable Lyndon B. Johnson, President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and each member of Congress from the state of Washington.

On motion of Senator Hanna, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 31

By Senator Rasmussen:

Whereas, The Constitution of the state of Washington specifically charges the Legislature with the responsibility for making laws, and delegates to the executive department the authority for administering them; and

Whereas, The doctrine of separation of powers is the keystone of Constitutional government; and

Whereas, The right of the Governor to approve or disapprove laws passed by the Legislature cannot properly be construed as a power to delay and obstruct the orderly course of legislative enactment, nor as a right to defeat and destroy opposition to his own legislative proposals—by the public and private pressure of his official position; and

Whereas, The Governor has made it impossible for the Legislature to complete its tasks within a reasonable Constitutional period of time because of his intransigence and insistence that the Legislature accept what it considers to be unfair and unsound tax proposals, not in the public interest—proposals which failed almost three weeks ago to receive a Constitutional majority in the House of Representatives, which is under the control of the Governor's own party members; and

Whereas, The Constitution limits legislative sessions to 60 days and provides for special sessions only on "extraordinary occasions"; and

Whereas, The cost of the present extra session is mounting, causing understandable public impatience and disapproval, while legislators with crops to sow, businesses to operate, lawsuits to try and pupils to teach are being handcuffed by executive pressures and torn by personal needs and responsibilities to the extent there are even rumors of a few who may abandon principle because of these personal considerations;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved: That the Governor is urged to cease his war of political attrition against the Legislature on tax and budgetary matters; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Governor is urged to allow his legislative proposals to run their Constitutional course, being voted either "up" or "down" without his exerting further pressure in an attempt to dictate legislative action.

It was moved by Senator Rasmussen that the resolution be adopted.

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Durkan that the resolution be made a special order of business on the first order of business for tomorrow.

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Durkan was carried and the resolution was made a special order of business for April 5, 1967.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lennart:

"Mr. President, personal privilege: —"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, point of order. I just would like to know what personal privilege Senator Lennart has. I don't believe the resolution was directed to Senator Lennart."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lennart:

"Will the Senator listen? Would you deny me the privilege?"

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"I am coming to what I want to say—that is a few observations of the Governor. I trust that I am a careful observer of human nature under various circumstances and should not attempt to err too much. I have known five governors intimately and served a long time under and with three of them. All of them until Evans' arrival on the scene were aware that a sweeping reconstruction of the state's tax code was a major challenge, the current phase of political distraction, economic and social dishevelment puts to state leadership. Yet no one until Evans' arrival recognized, or had courage enough to properly discharge this fundamental responsibility.

"It must seem strangely out of place to many of the older generations that a giant, like state government should be entrusted to one so young. Only a man of deep mold, conscious of his own strength would be courageous enough to do what Evans is doing. Among all the governors in Washington State history he stands alone without a parallel. Many Republicans and Democrats alike thought he would only be a nominal head of the administration. How erroneous was their opinion. He is pilot and commander of it.

"If you look at the man his eyes give one an indelible impression of a great intellect. So does every inch of his height. Height in character, height in courage, height in purpose. Among the many notable men of our state today, he is the tallest of them all. He is the one and only man in our state who towers above the problems facing the state. He is close to the people and they believe in him and will believe in him more so in the future. My observations just made are an outgrowth of my own experience and understanding of government.

"I well know the limits that history places on man's achievements. But there are indelible marks already that Evans' Blueprint of Progress will be seen as part of a chapter in a much grander era. The record of twentieth century thought in its struggle to measure up to the enormous and fast changing realities of life.

"Senator Rasmussen's resolution is ill-advised and should be defeated."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, speaking on a point of personal privilege, if you would review the resolution, Senator Lennart, you would find that there is no condemnation of Governor Evans. I served in the House with Governor Evans as a House member and I found him very able and capable. I am merely suggesting—and I have only suggested—that quite possibly Governor Evans may be getting some bad advice from some people and it would be better if he would let the Legislature settle its differences rather than hold us here so long that people get frustrated and get ready to snap at each other. I think we should sit here compatibly with good humor and not get snappish and I am sure we could do that if the Governor would withdraw his pressure. This was all, Senator Lennart—nothing personal against the Governor but I do think his advice is bad."

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, April 3, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to advise that Governor Evans has approved the following Senate Bills, entitled:

Senate Bill No. 529:

Providing for accidental death and dismemberment insurance for state employees and officials on nonscheduled aircraft flights in course of employment.

Senate Bill No. 545:

Authorizing issuance of highway construction bonds and establishing reserve funds for certain purposes.

Very truly yours,

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 3, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Senate Bill No. 219, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 3, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Engrossed House Bill No. 202, House Joint Memorial No. 12, and the same are herewith transmitted.

Malcolm McBeath, Chief Clerk.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 3, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 532 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the Senate refuse to recede from its amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 532 and ask the House for a conference thereon.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender:

"Mr. President, would Senator Herrmann yield:

"Senator, I noticed in the amendments that were attached, along with your amendments to this bill, my amendment that I put on about three or four times during the course of these bills on insurance was sent over as a Senate amendment by the Committee on Banks and Banking. How did that come about?"

Senator Herrmann:

"Your guess is as good as mine. You sent it to the rostrum, but that's the way it was printed."

Senator Stender:

"That was a Senator Stender amendment?"

Senator Herrmann:

"That's right. Perhaps that's what Senator Ryder is always talking about. What is it? Legerdemain? Maybe it's another one of these rabbits that gets pulled out of a hat around here. I don't know why it was done, but I don't see that it has any particular bearing."

Senator Stender:

"Well, the first time I proposed it, you raised a point of order on it and this happens to be my amendment. I thought it was a good amendment and now that everyone else thinks it's good, I'd like to keep my identity on it."

Senator Herrmann:

"Very good, Senator. I have no objection. Perhaps there is some way you can place it in the record. I have no objection."

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as Senate members of the Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 532, Senators Herrmann, Freise and Connor.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Senate Bill No. 219.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF BILL

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Resolution 1967 EX-26 by Senators Mardesich, Faulk and Sandison.

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 26

By Senators Mardesich, Faulk and Sandison:

Whereas, The building of a second structure across Puget Sound is a project of such magnitude, with such an economic impact on the future growth of the entire western half of the state; and

Whereas, Studies of proposed cross-Sound bridge routes in the past have been limited to the southern portion of Puget Sound only because of population factors in the then belief that such population growth would emanate from that direction; and

Whereas, In the wake of an industrial expansion in Snohomish County which likewise will affect the economy and future growth of the state; and

Whereas, An in depth navigational feasibility study has never been authorized; and

Whereas, A link across the southern portion of Puget Sound already exists in the Tacoma Narrows bridge, while a link between the rapidly growing Snohomish and north King county areas and the untapped recreational reservoir of the Olympic peninsula and the ocean beaches is only partially completed with construction of the Hood Canal bridge;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That in light of these factors which have become evident since previous cross-Sound bridge studies were made which did not include Routes III and IV or a President Point-Richmond Beach Location, that a study by the Joint Interim Committee on Highways be directed of the engineering, navigational and financial feasibility of such routes to determine if this better meets the future needs of the people of the Puget Sound area.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the resolution.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the resolution was adopted.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Engrossed House Bill No. 791:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 21, 1967.

Providing special licensing and fees for limited non-profit horse racing meets (re-ported by Committee on State Government):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 16, of the printed bill being page 1, line 14 of the engrossed bill, after "commission" and before the period insert "; and any race meet licensed pursuant to this subsection shall retain a sum not in excess of thirteen percent of the pari-mutuel handle".

On page 1, beginning on line 23 of the printed bill, being line 20 of the engrossed bill, add 11 sections to the bill to be known as sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 as follows:

"Sec. 2. Sec. 1, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 as last amended by section 1, chapter 236, Laws of 1949 and RCW 67.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context otherwise requires, words and phrases as used herein shall mean:

"Commission" shall mean the Washington Horse Racing Commission, hereinafter created. "Person" shall mean and include individuals, firms, corporations and associa-tions. "Race meet" shall mean and include any exhibition of thoroughbred [or], standard bred [and], harness, quarter horse racing or greyhound racing as provided in sections 3 through 12 of this Act where the parimutuel system is used.

Singular shall include the plural, and the plural shall include the singular; and words importing one gender shall be regarded as including all other genders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Each city of over one hundred and fifty thousand population may grant not more than one franchise for conducting greyhound racing meets. A franchise once granted shall continue in effect so long as the holder thereof shall comply with all applicable laws of this state and the licensing municipality relating to greyhound racing, or until the right thereunder shall terminate by operation of law making greyhound racing unlawful, or forfeiture of the franchise by the holder thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Any person desiring to conduct greyhound racing in any city authorized to grant a franchise shall file his application with such city's licensing authority under such rules and regulations as it may prescribe not inconsistent herewith: Provided, That all greyhound racing shall be on consecutive days between the hours of 7:30 p.m. and midnight and shall be limited to one sixty-day meeting annually or two thirty-day meetings annually.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Any franchise holder conducting a greyhound racing meet may provide a place in the race meeting enclosure for the conducting and supervision of the parimutuel system of wagering and the same shall be lawful, other statutes of the state notwithstanding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Each franchise holder under the provisions of this act shall withhold and retain for its own use and benefit ten percent of all moneys wagered. In addition to any license fees levied hereunder, the franchise holder shall withhold and pay to the licensing city five percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet as a privilege tax.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Breaks or breakage shall be computed as the amount of odd cents remaining in each parimutuel pool after redistributions are made in a sum equal to the next lowest multiple of ten cents and shall be paid to the licensing city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The tax provided in this act for a race meet licensed hereunder shall be in lieu of all other licenses, privilege taxes, or charges by the state, county or licensing municipality for the privilege of conducting a race meet.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Every greyhound race meet held in this state contrary to the provisions of this act is declared to be a public nuisance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and subdivisions, and shall take effect immediately."

In line 2 of the title of the printed bill being line 2 of the engrossed bill after "bred", strike the balance of the title and insert ", standard bred, harness, quarter horse racing or greyhound racing meets in certain cities; adding a new section to chapter 55, Laws of 1933 and to chapter 67.16 RCW; amending section 1, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 as last amended by section 1, chapter 236, Laws of 1949 and RCW 67.16.010 and adding 10 new sections thereto."

Al Henry, Chairman.

We concur in this report: H. B. (Jerry) Hanna, Harry B. Lewis, Fred G. Redmon, Wes C. Uhlman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Henry that the committee amendments be adopted.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President, speaking upon a point of personal privilege:

"I just want to observe, Mr. President, that I had intended to attempt to amend Engrossed Senate Bill No. 118 and had an amendment prepared which would have provided for compulsory liability insurance, and I refrained from doing so on the advice of several members of the legislature and members of the Senate, including the sponsors of the bill. I do want to say that I am quite sincere on this particular point. I want to commend Senator Woodall for this bill and in the near future I think we should have compulsory liability insurance. I intend to make this point with the Committee on Insurance so that it will be an issue before the next session of the legislature."

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 507, by Senator Cooney:

Prohibiting certain wire-tapping and eavesdropping.

On motion of Senator Cooney the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 507 was placed on final passage.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Greive that the Senate immediately consider Engrossed House Bill No. 72.

The motion was carried.

Engrossed House Bill No. 72, by Representatives Copeland, Garrett and Flanagan (by Legislative Council request):

Authorizing development and acquisition of outdoor recreation areas by department of natural resources.

On motion of Senator Hallauer, the rules were suspended and Engrossed House Bill No. 72 was returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

On motion of Senator Hallauer, the Senate voted to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senators Hallauer, Andersen, Gissberg and Hanna was adopted.

On motion of Senator Hallauer, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

In the Senate amendment to Engrossed House Bill No. 72 by Senators Hallauer, Andersen, Gissberg and Hanna, strike all of section 2 and substitute the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 43.30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The budget director is authorized and directed from time to time to transfer or order the transfer to the park and parkways account of the general fund, from the fund in which they were deposited, the rentals paid under RCW 79.08.102 through 79.08.106 for the use of public lands for park purposes: Provided, That no moneys derived from the sale, lease, rental or other disposal of lands granted in trust to the state by the Washington state enabling act which are (1) then currently pledged to the support of bonded indebtedness or (2) which are not authorized or which are prohibited to be so pledged, shall be deposited in such account: And Provided Further, That no transfer shall be made or ordered which is prohibited by the Constitution or beyond the power of the state.

The budget director may adopt rules and regulations governing the procedures to be followed in transferring or ordering the transfer of moneys to the park and parkways account."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment as amended.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Neill:

"Mr. President, would Senator Hallauer yield to a question:

"Senator Hallauer, I tried to follow the reading, and it seemed to me that you excepted only the lands. What about the timber and stone as intended in the constitution?"

Senator Hallauer:

"This has only regard to the rentals paid under such use of these public lands for park purposes and it has no effect whatsoever on anything except park rentals. This is what we were putting into a revolving fund."

Senator Neill:

"This does not apply to any sales of timber or stone?"

Senator Hallauer:

"No."

On motion of Senator Hallauer, the amendment by Senators Hallauer, Andersen, Gissberg and Hanna, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Hallauer, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 72 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive the Senate took up consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 374 on third reading.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 374, by Senators Rasmussen, Greive and Cooney:

Amending the unemployment compensation act.

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 374 was returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

It was moved by Senator Rasmussen that the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Greive be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Section 3, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

"Base year" means the last calendar year preceding the first day of the benefit year, until July 2, 1967 when they term "base year" with respect to each individual shall mean the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of the individual's benefit year.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 1, chapter 214, Laws of 1949 and RCW 50.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

"Benefit year" means the period beginning with the first full calendar week in July and ending the following calendar year with the last calendar week beginning in June, until July 2, 1967, when the term "benefit year" with respect to each individual means the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the week in which the individual files an application for an initial determination as provided in RCW 50.20.140, and thereafter, the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the week in which the individual next files an application for an initial determination after the termination of his last preceding benefit year: Provided, That a benefit year is not established unless the determination shows the applicant to have met the wage and employment conditions fixed by law as the minimum for the receipt of benefits: Provided Further, That the benefit year shall be deemed to be fifty-three weeks when at the expiration of fifty-two weeks the establishment of a new benefit year would result in the use of a quarter in the new base year that had been included in a prior base year.

Sec. 3. Section 33, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 2, chapter 8, Laws of 1953 extraordinary session and RCW 50.04.320 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of payment of contributions, "wages" means the [first three thousand dollars of] remuneration paid by one employer during any calendar year to an individual in its employment under this title or the unemployment compensation law of any other state in the amount specified in RCW 50.24.010 as amended by this amendatory act of 1967. [After December 31, 1950.] If an employer (hereinafter referred to as a successor employer) during any calendar year acquires substantially all the operating assets of another employer (hereinafter referred to as a predecessor employer) or assets used in a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor employer, and immediately after the acquisition employs in his trade or business an individual who immediately prior to the acquisition was employed in the trade or business of such predecessor employer, then, for the purposes of determining [whether the successor employer has paid remuneration equal to three thousand dollars] the amount of remuneration paid by the successor employer to such individual during such calendar year which is subject to contributions, any remuneration paid to such individual by such predecessor during such calendar year and prior to such acquisition shall be considered as having been paid by such successor employer.

For the purpose of payment of benefits, "wages" means the remuneration payable by one or more employers to an individual for employment under this title during one calendar year.

"Remuneration" means all compensation paid for personal services, including commissions and bonuses and the cash value of all compensation paid in any medium other than cash. The reasonable cash value of compensation paid in any medium other than cash and the reasonable value of gratuities shall be estimated and determined in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

On or before the fifteenth day of June of each year an 'average annual wage' and an 'average weekly wage' shall be computed for the preceding calendar year from information for the preceding calendar year reported, by all employers, as defined in RCW 50.04.080 on employers' contribution reports (including corrections thereof) filed within three months after the close of that year. The 'average annual wage' is the quotient derived by dividing total remuneration reported by all employers by the average of the number of workers reported for all months. The average annual wage thus obtained shall be divided by fifty-two to determine the 'average weekly wage.'

Sec. 5. Section 68, chapter 35, Laws of 1945, as last amended by section 3, chapter 266, Laws of 1959 and RCW 50.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive waiting period credits or benefits with respect to any week only if the commissioner finds that

(1) he has registered for work at, and thereafter has continued to report at, an employment office in accordance with such regulation as the commissioner may prescribe, except that the commissioner may by regulation waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this subdivision as to individuals attached to regular jobs and as to such other types of cases or situations with respect to which he finds that the compliance with such requirements would be oppressive, or would be inconsistent with the purposes of this title;

(2) he has filed an application for an initial determination and made a claim for waiting period credit or for benefits in accordance with the provisions of this title;

(3) he is able to work, and is available for work in any trade, occupation, profession, or business for which he is reasonably fitted. To be available for work an individual must be ready, able, and willing, immediately to accept any suitable work which may be offered to him and must be actively seeking work pursuant to customary trade practices and through other methods when so directed by the commissioner or his agents;

(4) he has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week; and

(5) [he has within the base year been paid wages of not less than the minimum amount now or hereafter fixed by law as the minimum amount to be earned in order to allow the individual to receive unemployment benefits] he has within his base year earned wages of not less than eleven hundred dollars.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1955 and RCW 50.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

A [pregnant] woman [shall be presumed to be unable to work and unavailable for work if she left her most recent work voluntarily] who leaves work voluntarily because of pregnancy shall be ineligible for benefits during the period of her pregnancy:

Provided, However, That in any event a pregnant woman shall be ineligible to receive benefits for any calendar week during the period beginning with the [tenth] seventeenth calendar week [before] immediately preceding the expected date of confinement, as determined by a doctor, and extending through the [fourth] sixth calendar week immediately following the week in which childbirth occurs.

Sec. 7. Section 80, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 2, chapter 321, Laws of 1959 and RCW 50.20.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the other provisions of this title benefits shall be payable to any eligible individual during [the] his benefit year in a maximum amount equal to the lesser of thirty times the weekly benefit amount (determined hereinafter) or one-third of the individual's base year wages under this title. An individual's weekly benefit amount shall be [in a minimum] an amount [of seventeen dollars for the first one hundred twenty-five dollars or portion thereof in excess of seven hundred ninety-nine dollars and ninety-nine cents of base year wages, increasing one dollar for each one hundred twenty-five dollars or portion thereof of said individual's base year wages earned thereafter, with a maximum amount payable weekly of not more than forty-two dollars] equal to one twenty-fifth (1/25) of his total wages during that quarter of his base year in which such total wages were highest, except that if such computed amount is less than seventeen dollars, the weekly benefit amount shall be deemed to be seventeen dollars. The maximum amount payable weekly shall be determined as of each June 30th to apply to benefit years beginning in the twelve-month period immediately following such June 30th. The maximum amount payable weekly shall be fifty-five percent of the 'average weekly wage' for the calendar year preceding such June 30th: Provided, That if any [maximum] weekly benefit or maximum benefit amount computed herein is not a multiple of one dollar, it shall be adjusted to the nearest multiple of one dollar, except that if the computed amount ends in fifty cents, it shall be [carried] adjusted to the next higher multiple of one dollar.

This section shall become effective with benefit years beginning after June 30, 1967.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An individual who has received the maximum sum allowable in his benefit year may, if otherwise eligible, draw 'extended benefits' during an 'extension period.'

An 'extension period' means a period commencing with the fourth calendar week immediately following any thirteen-week period during which the average rate of insured unemployment is equal to one hundred fifteen percent or more of the average of the rates of insured unemployment for the corresponding thirteen-week periods of the two preceding years and ending with the fourth week immediately following any thirteen-week period during which such rate was less than one hundred fifteen percent of the average of the rates of insured unemployment for the corresponding thirteen-week periods of the two preceding years; except, that, no extension period shall be less than thirteen weeks in length, and, that no extension period shall commence at any time an extension period is already in effect.

Insured unemployment for any week as used for this computation means the number of weeks of unemployment claimed in Washington for that week, excluding weeks of unemployment claimed in connection with unemployment compensation programs which are exclusively federal and excluding any weeks claimed by an individual following the week in which benefits based on his original entitlement were exhausted.

Insured employment means the average number of workers reported by employers for each month for a twelve-month period.

For purposes of this subsection the rate of insured unemployment for any week is the ratio obtained by dividing insured unemployment for that week by insured employment for the twelve-month period ending six months immediately prior to the calendar quarter in which the week began.

The rate of insured unemployment shall be computed for each calendar week. After each thirteen consecutive weeks the insured unemployment rates for the thirteen weeks shall be averaged and the average shall be compared with the average of the rates of insured unemployment for the corresponding thirteen-week periods of the two preceding years. The commissioner shall by regulation prescribe how corresponding weeks are to be determined. Computations involving division shall be carried to four decimal places, and the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded.

'Extended benefits' are additional benefits payable at the weekly rate applicable for the individual during the benefit year for which he has received the maximum sum allowable. Extended benefits for an individual cannot exceed whichever is the lesser of thirteen times his weekly benefit amount or one-half his previous entitlement, and the combined total of his regular unemployment compensation plus his extended benefits cannot exceed thirty-nine times his weekly amount. Extended benefits are payable to an individual only during his established benefit year.

If a federal enactment provides for reimbursing the state for certain benefits for weeks of extended unemployment, the extended benefits shall be made in the regular manner, and the reimbursements shall be credited to the unemployment compensation fund.

Sec. 9. Section 89, chapter 35, Laws of 1945, as last amended by section 18, chapter 214, Laws of 1949 and RCW 50.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each employer for each calendar year in which he is subject to this title at the rate of two and seven-tenths percent of wages paid each employee. The amount of such wages subject to tax shall be determined as follows:

For the calendar year 1967, the first three thousand dollars, and each calendar year thereafter, the first three thousand three hundred dollars:

Provided, However, That, if the Federal Unemployment Tax Act is amended so that the federal tax applies to an amount greater than the maximum taxable amount so determined, then such higher amount shall apply for the purpose of payment of contributions by an employer under this title, starting with the same period to which such federal amendment first applies.

If, however, as of June 30, 1968, or any June 30th thereafter the amount of money in the unemployment compensation fund, after subtracting any outstanding experience rating credits for the credit year ending on such June 30th, is less than four percent of total remuneration paid by all employers during the preceding calendar year and reported on or before the March 31st following such year, contributions for the following calendar year shall be payable at the rate of three percent.

Contributions shall become due and be paid by each employer to the treasurer for the unemployment compensation fund in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, and shall not be deducted, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in employment of the employer. Any deduction in violation of the provisions of this section shall be unlawful.

In the payment of any contributions, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

Sec. 10. Section 12, chapter 286, Laws of 1955 and RCW 50.28.030 are each amended to read as follows:

'Surplus' means the lesser of (1) that amount by which the moneys in the unemployment compensation fund as of the effective date, after subtracting the amount of credits previously established under this title and outstanding as valid on such date, exceed [four times the amount of contributions paid on the payrolls reported] four and one-half percent of total remuneration paid by all employers during the preceding calendar year and reported on or before the cut-off date for [the preceding calendar] that year, or (2) an amount equal to forty percent of the contributions [so] paid on the payrolls reported by all employers on or before the cut-off date for the preceding calendar year. For the purpose of computation of 'surplus', credits established prior to the credit year in which the effective date occurs shall not be considered outstanding as valid on such date. No portion of the surplus shall be credited to any employer unless the amount of the surplus is at least [ten percent of the amount of the contributions paid on the payrolls reported] fifteen one-hundredths of one percent of remuneration paid by all employers during the preceding calendar year and reported on or before the cut-off date for the preceding calendar year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An individual who is unemployed and eligible to receive Old Age Insurance benefits under Title II of the Federal Social Security Act is presumed to have withdrawn from the labor force and shall be ineligible for unemployment compensation benefits unless and until it is demonstrated to the commissioner's satisfaction that such individual has not voluntarily withdrawn from the labor force. In making such determination the commissioner shall consider, among other things, the circumstances under which the individual left his employment, subsequent reemployment or other evidence of bona fide labor force attachment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This 1967 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately: Provided,

That sections 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, and 11 shall take effect July 2, 1967, and section 7 shall take effect as provided therein."

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

In paragraph three of new section 8, line 4 of the paragraph, strike "fifteen" and insert "twenty"

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the amendment as amended was adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On line 13 of the title, after "adding" and before "to" strike "a new section" and insert "new sections"

On line 17 of the title strike "and declaring effective dates" and insert "and declaring an emergency"

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 374 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 374 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 15.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—34.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Donohue, Faulk, Freise, Guess, Lennart, Lewis, Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Stender, Twigg, Williams—15.

Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 374, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

EXPLANATION OF VOTES

The undersigned voted against Senate Bill No. 374 as amended on April 4, 1967 for the following reasons:

We strongly support the concept of increasing the maximum unemployment compensation benefits and of granting extended benefits. However, even now our unemployment compensation system in this state is one of the most costly in the country. Senate Bill No. 374 as amended would increase this cost by nearly twenty percent making it by far the most expensive system in any state.

Again, we support these increased benefits but the only responsible way to do this is to combine increase with the revision and improvement of our archaic system so that the cost of the increase benefits do not cause an excessive and unnecessary burden on our state.

This problem is presently in a Conference Committee. This is the proper place to resolve this.

(Signed) Senators Joel Pritchard, R. Frank Atwood, Walter B. Williams, Harry B. Lewis, Herbert H. Freise, John N. Ryder, Ernest W. Lennart, James A. Andersen, Fred G. Redmon, Robert W. Twigg, Damon R. Canfield, Laurence J. Faulk.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bailey:

"Mr. President, point of personal privilege:

"Mr. President, I would like to serve notice that I would like to enter remarks in the record because while I think this is a move in the right direction to raise the upper limits of the people drawing unemployment compensation, it is also a move in the wrong direction for the majority of the needs of the people in the lower bracket income groups and I differ radically with organized labor in the state on this but I do see the need for raising the upper income people from the $42.00; therefore, I have gone along with this but very reluctantly."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gissberg:

"Mr. President, would Senator Bailey yield to a question:

"Do I understand you are giving notice that you will be filing a protest in the record that others of us will be able to join?"

Senator Bailey:

"I'd be glad to have you join with me."

PROTEST

The Rasmussen amendment to Senate Bill No. 374 is objectionable because of the changes in minimum annual earnings necessary to qualify for unemployment compensation. Section 5 of the bill would change the present qualification amount of $800 to $1,100.

The history of unemployment compensation in the United States should be reviewed in consideration of this proposal. With the enactment of the Wagner-Peyser Act in 1937 the federal government established the principle that states should largely set the rules regarding unemployment compensation and that the first such payments would be made in January of 1939. The state of Washington then adopted regulations setting no minimum for qualification for unemployment compensation benefits. As time has gone on, minimums were established and have gradually risen until the $800 sum was fixed in 1955. This has had the effect of disqualifying from benefits those people who are at the lowest end of the economic scale. This action has been taken at the instance of organized labor in the state, and thus we have a situation wherein organized middle class and upper middle class labor have been discriminating against the lower scale of people engaged in labor in the state. This is a violation of the principle of social justice.

The net effect of the proposed amendment by Senator Rasmussen is to take away $2.6 million per year from the lowest paid labor in the state and to earmark it in the unemployment compensation fund for the benefit of the higher paid labor of the state. This takes from the needy for the benefit of those with the greatest organized political power.

Those discriminated against most severely by this amendment are those engaged in agricultural labor on a seasonal basis since this is not covered by unemployment compensation. Many such people work seasonally in covered employment and their earnings are marginal as to qualifying for unemployment benefits. The proposed amendment will disqualify many of these people and make it much more difficult for them to live with the seasonality of their occupations. Many similar vocations are to be found in the state.

We, the undersigned, object to this amendment because it violates the primary concept of unemployment compensation as a welfare measure designed to help those who are in the greatest need. The amendment offered by Senator Rasmussen is a violation of this concept.

(Signed) Senators Robert C. Bailey, Wilbur G. Hallauer, William A. Gissberg, Lowell Peterson, H. B. Hanna, David E. McMillan, Martin J. Durkan.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Senate Resolution 1967 EX-31 which was made a special order of business for today was made a special order of business for tomorrow under the first order of business.

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 32

By Senator Durkan:

Whereas, Nonprofit corporations and associations are organized pursuant to laws which give them certain advantages over other business organizations; and

Whereas, The intent of such laws is that nonprofit corporations and associations should not engage in retailing and wholesaling activities with the general public in competition with business organizations which do not enjoy the same advantages and must make profits in order to exist; and

Whereas, Certain nonprofit corporations and associations are reported to be engaged in competitive retailing and wholesaling activities with the general public and commercial enterprises;

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the legislative council is requested to conduct a study of the extent to which nonprofit corporations and associations engage in retailing and wholesaling with the general public in competition with other business organizations; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the legislative council shall report its findings and recommendations pertaining thereto to the forty-first regular session of the legislature.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the resolution was adopted.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 5, following section 5, line 20, add three new sections as follows:

The director, or his duly authorized agents, may make such examinations of the records, stocks, facilities, and equipment of distributors, producers, brokers, and service stations, and such other investigations as he may deem necessary in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. If such examinations or investigations disclose that any reports of distributors of motor vehicle fuel theretofore filed with the director pursuant to the requirements of this chapter have shown incorrectly the gallonage of motor vehicle fuel distributed or the tax accruing thereon, the director may make such changes in subsequent reports and payments of such distributors as he may deem necessary to correct the errors disclosed.

Every such distributor or such other person not maintaining records in this state so that an audit of such records may be made by the director or his duly authorized representative shall be required to make the necessary records available to the director at his request and at his designated office within this state; or, in lieu thereof, [shall agree to pay as reimbursement to the director or his duly appointed representative subsistence and travel allowance at the rates prescribed by statute of this state to] the director or his duly authorized representative shall proceed to any out-of-state office at which the records are prepared and maintained to make such examination.

Sec. 7. Section 16, chapter 22, Laws of 1963 extraordinary session, and RCW 82.37.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The director or his duly authorized representative may examine, during the usual business hours of the day, the books, records, papers, and equipment of any motor carrier and investigate the disposition which any such carrier or other person makes of fuel to determine whether the tax imposed by this act has been paid.

Every such motor vehicle fuel importer for use not maintaining records in this state so that an audit of such records may be made by the director or his duly authorized representative shall be required to make the necessary records available to the director at his request and at his designated office within this state; or, in lieu thereof, [shall agree to pay as reimbursement to the director or his duly appointed representative subsistence and travel allowance at the rates prescribed by statute of this state to] the director or his duly authorized representative shall proceed to any out-of-state office at which the records are prepared and maintained to make such examination.

Sec. 8. Section 82.40.250, chapter 15, Laws of 1961, as amended by sec. 5, chapter 33, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 82.40.250 are each amended to read as follows:

Every user and every person selling, distributing, storing, transporting, or otherwise handling fuel shall maintain and keep for a period of not less than three years such records, receipts, invoices, and other pertinent papers as the director may require.

Every person required to remit the tax on fuel delivered into noncommercial passenger vehicles shall be subject to the same penalties imposed upon users. The director shall pursue against such persons the same procedure and remedies for audit, adjustment, collection, and enforcement of this chapter as is provided with respect to users.

The director may examine during normal business hours the books, papers, records, and equipment of any user or of any person selling, distributing, storing, transporting, or otherwise handling fuel and investigate the character of the disposition which any such user or such other person makes of fuel in order to determine whether all taxes due hereunder are being properly reported and paid.

Every such user or such other person not maintaining records in this state so that an audit of such records may be made by the director or his duly authorized representative shall be required to make the necessary records available to the director at his request and at his designated office within this state; or, in lieu thereof, [shall agree to pay as reimbursement to the director or his duly appointed representative subsistence and travel allowance at the rates prescribed by statute of this state to] the director or his duly authorized representative shall proceed to any out-of-state office at which the records are prepared and maintained to make such examination.

The director is charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter and may prescribe, adopt, and enforce rules and regulations relating to the administration and enforcement hereof. State patrolmen shall aid the director in the enforcement of this chapter, and, for this purpose, are declared to be peace officers, and given police power and authority throughout the state to arrest on sight any person known to have committed a violation of the provisions of this chapter."

Renumber remaining section consecutively.

In line 7 of the title, after "82.32.340;" insert "amending section 82.36.180, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 6, chapter 79, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.36.180; amending section 16, chapter 22, Laws of 1963 extraordinary session and RCW 82.37.160; amending section 82.40.250, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 33, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.40.250;"

Senate Bill No. 468, by Senator Durkan:

Exempting totally disabled who is retired from certain property taxes.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Bill No. 468:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 15, 1967.

Exempting totally disabled who is retired from certain property taxes (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 19, after "shall" and before "have" insert "at the time of filing"

On page 2, section 1, beginning on line 8, after "year" strike "immediately preceding the year" and insert "[immediately preceding the year]"

On page 2, section 1, line 15, after "annually" insert "and filed between February 15 and April 30 of the year in which the taxes are payable"

On page 2, section 1, line 16, after "prescribed" strike "by the Washington State Association of County Assessors" and insert "[by the Washington State Association of County Assessors] and furnished by the tax commission"

Martin J. Durkan, Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Frank Atwood, Damon R. Canfield, John L. Cooney, Frank W. Foley, Gordon Herr, Ernest W. Lennart, Harry B. Lewis, August P. Mardesich, Mike McCormack, Frances Haddon Morgan, A. L. Rasmussen, Robert C. Ridder, John N. Ryder, Gordon Sandison, Perry B. Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, section 1, line 11, after "signed" and before "either" insert "by the head of the household, by his attorney in fact or, in the event the property is under mortgage or purchase contract requiring accumulation of reserves out of which the holder of the mortgage or contract is required to pay real estate taxes, by such holder,"

It was moved by Senator McCormack that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, section 1, line 22, add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The county treasurer when remitting to the state treasurer for property taxes collected under the state levy provided under RCW 84.52.050 shall for the month ending April 30 of each year deduct from the remittances to the state treasurer the total dollar amount of property tax exemptions granted within the county through April 30 under the provisions of RCW 84.36.126. The dollar amount deducted from the transmittal to the state treasurer shall be distributed by the county treasurer by transfer to the funds of the various taxing units of the county in the same amount as the exemptions claimed from the tax reduced their share of property tax collections."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield to a question:

"If this bill passes, I presume this will then mean that the Conference Committee will have to find six million dollars somewhere?"

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President:

"If the bill passes with the amendment, that is correct, but if the bill passes without the amendment, the Tax Commission has told me that the amendments we have on—and there is an additional amendment that will go on—that there would be very little impact as far as revenue loss. But if the amendment is adopted, the Conference Committee will be looking at four or five million dollars more."

Debate ensued.

The motion was lost on a rising vote and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, section 1, line 2, strike all of subsection (6) and insert "[(6) The head of the household and spouse shall be retired from all gainful employment for at least one year prior to application for such exemption and shall not be actively engaged in any type of business;]" Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 468 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley:

"Senator Durkan, are you aware that the Department of Public Assistance is requiring people who own their homes to file for the first fifty dollars exemption on real property and are taking it out of their grant?"

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President:

"We have inquired of the Department of Public Assistance on this basis. It isn't a question of whether they are requiring them or not. It's a question of whether under the federal standards that this could be considered a resource, and Senator, it probably wouldn't be a resource or considered as a resource in the future, and they are trying to clarify this and you are correct—they have had them file and have considered it a resource, but it would appear — and this is without a definite answer — that the Department of Public Assistance is trying to get this done so that it will not be considered a resource as far as their grant is concerned."

Senator Talley:

"The Department is working on this now?"

Senator Durkan:

"That's correct."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield:

"Do you have a memorial in the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules that is related to this subject asking Congress to make some changes?"

Senator Durkan:

"I think there is a memorial in that committee. We passed it out of Ways and Means Committee and it hasn't come on the floor, so I would suspect that it is there."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 468 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 0.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—46.

Voting nay was: Senator McCormack—1.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 468 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

"I supported Senate Bill No. 468, but voted 'No' so that I might serve on a Conference Committee concerning the amendment which I submitted, and which failed, should such a committee come into existence.

(Signed) Senator Mike McCormack.

House Bill No. 860, by Representatives Swayze, Lux and Kopet (by Secretary of State request):

Describing and depicting the seal of the state of Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Freise, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 1, after section 1 add the following:

"Sec. 2: Section 1, chapter 174, Laws of 1923 as amended by section 1, chapter 85, Laws of 1925 extraordinary session, and RCW 1.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

[That] The official flag of the state of Washington shall be of dark green silk or bunting and shall bear in its center a reproduction of the seal of the state of Washington embroidered, printed, painted or stamped thereon. The edges of the flag may, or may not, be fringed. If a fringe is used the same shall be of gold or yellow color of the same shade as the seal. The dimensions of the flag may vary.

The secretary of state is authorized to provide the state flag to units of the armed forces, without charge therefor, as in his discretion he deems entitled thereto. The secretary of state is further authorized to sell the state flag to any citizen at a price to be determined by the secretary of state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is appropriated from the general fund to the secretary of state, the sum of ten thousand dollars or as much thereof as may be necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Strike all of NEW SECTION. Sec. 3 in Senator Freise's amendment and renumber Sec. 4 as Sec. 3.

In line 1 of the title after "state seal" strike the semicolon and the remainder of the title and insert "and state flag; amending section 1, chapter 174, Laws of 1923 as amended by section 1, chapter 85, Laws of 1925 extraordinary session and RCW 1.20.010; adding a new section to title 1 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Freise, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 860 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Washington, House Bill No. 860 was ordered to retain its place on the third reading calendar for tomorrow.

THIRD READING OF BILLS

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77, by Committee on Judiciary:

Providing for allowance of fees and costs in connection with eminent domain proceedings.

It was moved by Senator Talley that the rules be suspended and that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77 be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

Debate ensued.

The motion was lost on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Woodall the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77 as amended by the Senate was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President, would Senator Greive yield:

"As I understand it, in workmen's compensation cases there is a set fee which is granted and you don't get a reasonable fee from the court when you represent an injured workman, is that correct?"

Senator Greive:

"That's an error. You get a reasonable fee to be set by the judge. In other words, what you do up to the appeal, you are compensated for by a percentage of the workman's award. We tried to pass a bill this time to take care of that. After that, if you are dissatisfied, as you would be if you are appealing to the court, the court sets the fee over and above that which you receive."

Senator Uhlman:

"Mr. President, would Senator Greive yield to another question:

"Senator Greive, isn't it a fact that this bill, the amendment and the whole principle of the bill is predicated on the fact that the only time you get attorneys' fees is if you achieve a verdict in excess of the amount that is offered by the condemnor or the Highway Department? You don't get a dime attorneys' fees unless you receive a verdict larger than the original offer?"

Senator Greive:

"That is exactly right and it is exactly the same principle used under workmen's compensation, also, ever since I have practiced law."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77 as amended by the Senate and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 8; absent or not voting, 3.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Stender, Twigg, Uhlman, Woodall—38.

Those voting nay were: Senators Canfield, Faulk, McCormack, Mardesich, Redmon, Sandison, Talley, Washington—8.

Absent or not voting: Senators Henry, Neill, Williams—3.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77 as amended by the Senate having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 3:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Thursday, April 6, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Thursday, April 6, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Gregory Klump, Color Bearer, and Debbie Crase, presented the Colors.

Reverend Walter A. MacArthur, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Dost Thou ever get tired of hearing our prayers, O God? We say so much and yet pursue so slowly the very paths we ask to be made clear and distinct.

"Here we are again, on the threshold of a new day yet entangled in a morass of doubt, duplicity, defiance and despair.

"Grant us the wisdom and grace to recognize the difference between stubbornness and stewardship; between selfishness and service; between scheme and scruple; between the simple and the significant.

"Pull us, right now, in this opening moment of thoughtfulness and prayer, toward the higher and holier concept and decision.

"Bless Thou the work of our hands, the deliberations of our hearts and minds this day. May the results of these labors be pleasing in Thy sight and satisfying to the welfare of our state. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Senate Resolution 1967 EX-31 which was made a special order of business for today on the first order of business, was made a special order of business under the first order of business for Saturday, April 8, 1967.

It was moved by Senator Talley that Senate Bill No. 638 on the second reading calendar for today be made a special order of business immediately following the noon recess.

Debate ensued.

With leave of the Senate, Senator Talley was permitted to withdraw the motion.

On motion of Senator Talley, Senate Bill No. 638 was made a special order of business for 12:00 noon.

It was moved by Senator Hallauer that Engrossed House Bill No. 60 retain its place on the second reading calendar for tomorrow.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Senator McCormack that the Senate immediately consider the veto message of the Governor on Substitute House Bill No. 548.

The motion was carried.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

April 3, 1967.

To The Honorable, The House of Representatives of the State of Washington.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to one item, Substitute House Bill No. 548, entitled:

"An Act relating to education and establishing community college districts."

This legislation is among the most significant enacted by the Fortieth Legislature. It provides for a statewide system of community colleges organized into twenty-two community college districts.

The bill contemplates that vocational-technical institutes will become a part of the community college system; however, section 77 of the bill grants to common school districts in counties of the second, first, A and AA class the option of maintaining any existing vocational-technical institute independent of the community college system, if the institute were operated independently of a community college on January 1, 1967.

According to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the vocational-technical institutes which would be affected by this provision of the bill are located in the Bellingham, Clover Park, Lake Washington, Olympia, Renton, Tacoma and Walla Walla school districts. The Olympia and Walla Walla institutes are located in third class counties; thus these school districts would not have the option afforded by section 77 to the other five school districts operating independent vocational-technical institutes. This may be of little consequence in Walla Walla where the school district plans to operate its institute as a part of the Walla Walla Community College; thus Olympia school district may be the only district denied the option to maintain an independent vocational-technical institute.

Irrespective of the choice which may be made by these local districts, I believe it should be a choice equally available to all districts maintaining independent vocational-technical institutes. Therefore, I have vetoed that portion of section 77 which limits this choice to districts "located in any county of the second, first, A or AA class."

The remainder of Substitute House Bill No. 548 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President, point of personal privilege:

"I would like to have the members of the Senate know that the Governor, in vetoing this particular line had discussed the matter with the members of the conference committee and did so with our understanding and agreement. The fact is that this particular line would have eliminated the option only for Thurston County; that is, only the Olympia vocational-technical school. Having clarified that particular matter with the Superintendent of Public Instruction, we were willing to accede to the request of the Olympia people and the veto of the Governor. However, I would like the record to show that the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Supervisor of Community Colleges and Adult Education have both stated in letters exactly which school districts in the state do operate vocational-technical institutes. So that there will be no question as to which ones will be eligible for separate operations, I would like the record to show that these are Bellingham, Clover Park, Lake Washington, Renton, Tacoma and now Olympia. I would like to have copies of these letters inserted into the record.

"Thank you."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President, point of order:

"I don't know of any precedent that we insert in the journal letters from outside people. This journal is going to be the biggest that we ever have had in history if we start doing that. I think the rule says that a member may issue a 250 word personal protest, but to have letters from outside people, I certainly want to raise the point of order that that is absolutely improper under our rules."

Senator McCormack:

"I shall be pleased to restate the contents of these letters in my own words, and keep my remarks within 200 words."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gissberg:

"Mr. President, will Senator McCormack yield to a question:

"Senator McCormack, as I understood the veto message, it strikes certain language of the bill which would have eliminated certain counties?"

Senator McCormack:

"That is correct, Senator."

Senator Gissberg:

"Now what is the number of the electronic voting bill? Engrossed House Bill No. 516? Now, Senator McCormack, for the record, Engrossed House Bill No. 516 had in it a provision making the bill applicable to counties of the second class, only, is that true?"

Senator McCormack:

"That is correct."

Senator Gissberg:

"And it was the intent of the House and of the Senate to actually limit it for that purpose to those counties in order that a trial period could be had before making it applicable to all of the counties of the state?"

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President and Senator Gissberg:

"I can only speak for what I understand the intention of the House was, and my understanding in the case of Engrossed House Bill No. 516 is that the application was limited to second class counties so the electronic voting system could be operated as a demonstration for the rest of the state."

Senator Gissberg:

"Mr. President:

"I am out of order in speaking now, but I feel that this is so important, however, this whole general subject, that I want to broach it again with the permission of the Senate. I don't mean to be critical of the Governor in any way but I am concerned about the use of the veto power by the executive in matters of this type when the legislature has made a particular piece of legislation applicable only to a certain class of cities or certain class of counties. The legislature has so spoken and has necessarily intended this legislation to be applicable only under the circumstances. Then the Chief Executive vetoes that part from it and thereby makes the legislation applicable to the entire state, that is, to all classes of counties or all classes of cities.

"Now I do believe that this type of a veto should be challenged by someone at some time to go before the supreme court and find out just exactly once and for all how far the veto power extends. As I say, I am not being critical of the Governor in this instance at all, but I do believe the hiatus here in the law at this point should be resolved in favor of the legislature and against the use of Governor's veto power in those instances because we know the supreme court has given partial veto or item veto, so called, and has ruled that item veto is not necessarily restricted to items in the appropriations bill. But I know that Senator Neill and I have over the years been concerned about this as to how far it goes, as to whether or not the Chief Executive should enjoy the legislative power that he does when he uses the veto in a certain way, and I have inserted into the record the conversation that I have just had with Senator McCormack on the electronic voting bill which was passed for that very reason. I am hopeful that the Governor will not exercise his veto in that way, to strike the second class counties because if he does I am sure that there will be a lawsuit that will ensue to determine whether or not he does have that broad legislative power, and that was the reason for the colloquy between us, so that we could get into the question of the intent of the legislature."

Senator McCutcheon:

"Mr. President, would Senator Gissberg yield to a question:

"Would you give a little legal advice? That's what I'm searching for here. You have made quite a study of this veto and did you listen to the Governor's veto message on this particular measure? It's a partial veto and as I understood it, it widens the scope and takes in Thurston county and allows all the school boards, including Thurston county to exercise the option of whether or not they shall operate their own vocational schools. Now would you care to comment if that's true or not?"

Senator Gissberg:

"I cannot answer specifically as to this bill, Senator McCutcheon, but that is the context of what was indicated by Senator McCormack. If it does and if it thereby goes outside the intent of the legislature, then I think the use of the veto power in that instance is unlawful."

At the request of Senator McCutcheon, the veto message was re-read.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lewis:

"Mr. President, members of the senate and Senator McCutcheon:

"I think I can clarify this a bit and I will just go over it briefly. The conference committee on Substitute House Bill No. 548 made a determination that vocational-technical institutes should have the option of entering into the community college program under certain periods of time and certain restrictions. When the bill was printed, it became immediately apparent that inadvertently, in my opinion, the Olympia district was the only district that did not have that choice, that all of the other vocational-technical institutes had the choice or the option.

"This was a peculiar problem for a very simple reason: One, it was in my view discriminatory and I think it was unintentionally so by the conference committee. Second, it put the Olympia district, in addition to being placed in a discriminatory position, in a difficult position whereby Clover Park, just a few minutes drive away would or could offer a course under the common school program at a cost of ten dollars, where under the terms of Substitute House Bill No. 548, if Olympia were not permitted to remain with the common schools, would be forced to charge fifty dollars for the same course. This was one of the issues at stake.

"But it was obviously apparent in discussing this with Senator McCormack, that he recognized this and he indicated to me it was not specifically the intent to isolate Olympia by itself for this purpose, but what the conference committee was trying to do was for as many vocational and technical institutes to be included in the community college program at their option as possible. For this reason, I requested the Governor to veto this line out and we discussed this at great length with Senator McCormack and I think he was in agreement that the governor did the proper thing. He was not attempting to legislate. He was attempting to correct what I regard as error. However, Senator McCormack felt that there may be other vocational-technical institutes around the state of which we were not aware and which may attempt to stay with the common school program and this, I believe, is Senator McCormack's reason for wanting to enter a statement in the journal, and I wholeheartedly agree with him.

"I hope that this discussion has perhaps clarified somewhat the reason for the veto and I would be glad to try and answer any questions in that regard. I would say that I do concur with Senator Gissberg's idea. I think that the separation of the three portions of our government are paramount and we should attempt to keep them separate."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Freise:

"Mr. President:

"I would like to raise the point of order:

"Senator McCormack stated that he would like to or gave notice that he was going to enter a protest in the record. I would like to call to the President's attention Rule 26 which states that any Senator or Senators may protest against the action of the Senate upon any question and have such protest entered upon the journal provided that such protest does not exceed 200 words, and the Senator protesting shall file his protest with the Secretary of the Senate within forty-eight hours following the action he is protesting. Now the act of the Governor in his veto is not an action of the Senate on any question, and I believe that this is completely out of order. I think Senator Woodall hit the nail right on the head when he said if you are going to protest the action of all of the vetoes or signing or not signing of any bills by the Governor, — we get letters of all kinds and every Senator has reason to believe that certain bills should not be signed that are signed, or should be vetoed that are signed, our journal could be as big as an unabridged dictionary and I would like to have the President rule as to whether Senator McCormack's protest explaining the matter in connection with the Governor's veto is proper to have entered in the journal."

Senator Henry:

"Mr. President:

"It's my understanding, listening to this conversation, that there was no protest intended. Senator McCormack agrees with the Governor. The thing is, and it has been a matter of courtesy as far back as I can remember in some twenty-six years that I have been a member, if somebody wishes to enter a statement in the record, they have had the privilege of doing so. He is not protesting anything. He is agreeing that the Governor should veto it and he is going to quote from the letter of Mr. Louis Bruno, Superintendent of Public Instruction saying why it should have been vetoed. I see nothing wrong with that."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"With the permission of Senator Freise and that of the other members, the President will rule upon your point of order after sufficient deliberation. The President will rule, with the consent of the body, on your point after deliberation, possibly tomorrow."

Senator Freise:

"Mr. President:

"I might point out that Senator McCormack did speak on personal privilege and this is already in the journal. I don't see any necessity for an additional letter of protest. It has been adequately explained. I am sure Senator Lewis' statements are in the journal, so I see no reason at all for an additional protest and further, under Rule 26, I don't think it is permissible."

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President:

"I move that Substitute House Bill No. 548 and the Governor's veto thereon be transmitted to the Secretary of State."

The President:

"The measure is still in the possession of the House, Senator. All we have is the copy of the message from the Governor.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the second order of business.

The Secretary read:

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 5, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Engrossed Senate Bill No. 630 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 1 of the title of the printed and engrossed bill, after "AN ACT" strike the remainder of the title and insert: "Creating an advisory board on legislative ethics as a committee of the legislative council; prescribing powers, duties and functions; providing procedures in relation thereto; providing reimbursement for expenses; and adding new sections to chapter 36, Laws of 1947 and chapter 44.24 RCW."

On page 1, line 5 of the printed and engrossed bill, after "NEW SECTION. Section 1." strike the remainder of the bill and insert:

"Under our present system of state government, our legislature is made up of citizen members from all walks of life who pursue many different livelihoods in addition to their legislative duties, and therefore both necessarily and properly have individual interests as well as their paramount interest in the welfare of the state.

Such diversity inevitably leads to conflicts of interest in varying degrees and of almost infinite variety, and the public and the members of the legislature alike would welcome the establishment of guidelines in these matters.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As a permanent committee of the legislative council, there shall be appointed an advisory board on legislative ethics consisting of eight members. Each caucus of the House of Representatives and each caucus of the State Senate shall appoint two members, at least one of which shall not be an active member of the legislature. The terms of the initial board members shall commence with their appointments by the respective party caucuses to be effective upon adjournment of the first extraordinary session of the fortieth legislature and shall continue through the forty-first regular legislative session and any immediately succeeding extraordinary session. Thereafter board members shall be appointed in like manner for the approximate two-year period from the end of one biennial regular and any immediately succeeding extraordinary session to the end of the next such session or sessions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Vacancies on the board shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments. If a vacancy should occur while the legislature is not in session such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the appropriate legislative caucus chairman.

The board shall hold its first meeting at the call of the chairman of the legislative council at which meeting it shall select its chairman who shall be a legislative member, and shall meet thereafter at the call of the chairman, and at such meetings a majority of the board shall constitute a quorum.

Members of the board shall be entitled to the same allowances as authorized for members of the legislative council under RCW 44.04.120, to be paid from any appropriation available therefor on vouchers approved in the manner provided by law for members of the legislative council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Each non-legislative member appointed by the respective caucuses shall within thirty days after his appointment sign and file an affidavit with the executive secretary of the legislative council that during his term of office he will not engage in any legislative activity designed to defeat or enhance the passage of any legislative bill or measure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The board shall have the following powers, duties and functions:

(1) To prepare for the submittal by the legislative council to the legislature a code of ethics for legislators which shall follow the following principles: In private transactions, or activities involving an economic benefit to himself, and in the exercise of official responsibility, a legislator should avoid (a) action which destroys his independence of judgment, (b) involves undue influence upon any state agency, court, or governmental subdivision, or (c) constitutes an abuse of his official position or a violation of his trust: Such code, when enacted, to become effective as standards of conduct for legislators.

(2) To recommend other legislation and other action relating to legislative ethics.

(3) Upon the request of any legislator, or whenever in the board's judgment the public interest requires, to render advisory opinions to the legislative council with regard to questions concerning legislative ethics or conduct, or other issues involving legislative ethics. Such advisory opinions, with such deletions and changes as may be necessary to protect the identity of the persons seeking them, shall be published by the legislative council periodically.

(4) Whenever in the board's judgment the public interest requires, to request of the legislative council the authority to investigate possible unethical conduct by one or more legislators. Any such investigation shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) When the conduct of a particular legislator is under investigation, and the board is authorized to hold a hearing thereon, such legislator shall receive at least thirty days written notice from the board of the matters under investigation, and shall be entitled to present evidence, cross-examine witnesses and be represented by counsel. Such legislator shall not be required to disclose privileged information.

(b) Because hearings conducted by the board may, in some cases, involve alleged misconduct by particular legislators, the board may, in its discretion, hold hearings in closed session. However, any legislator who has received a notice of hearings under the terms of subparagraph (a) above, may advise the board that he elects that such hearing be public or be private and the board shall be bound by the election. All proceedings of the advisory board, including notices of hearings, shall be confidential (except in the case of public hearings) unless divulgence is requested in writing by the legislator or legislators involved, except as hereinafter provided in subsection (e).

(c) The board may designate a subcommittee of the board to conduct authorized hearings. Any member of the board as authorized by the legislative council may administer oaths or affirmations, examine witnesses, receive evidence, and issue subpoenas for the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence relating to any matter under examination by the board or involved in any hearing. In case of disobedience to a subpoena, the board may request the chairman of the legislative council to invoke the aid of any superior court of the state.

(d) No finding of unethical conduct on the part of any legislator shall be made unless concurred in and signed by at least five members of the board.

(e) All testimony, documents, records, data, statements or information received by the board in the course of any investigation shall be held private and confidential (except in the course of a public hearing), unless and until the board shall make a finding of unethical conduct and shall determine that there is good cause for divulging all or part thereof.

(f) Whenever the board finds that a legislator has engaged in unethical conduct, the board shall report its findings to the legislative council.

(5) To provide a program of education, assistance, and information to legislators with regard to legislative ethics.

(6) To make such rules for its own functioning and to exercise such powers as may be appropriate within the scope of this act for the discharge of the responsibilities of the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Upon the filing by the board of any report recommending the enactment of legislation or of any findings relating to the unethical conduct of a legislator, the legislative council shall review such report or findings, prepare its own findings and conclusions and shall submit the board's report or findings and its own findings and conclusions to the next legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The legislative council shall supply necessary staff services to the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Any expenses of the board members shall be reimbursed as provided in 44.24.060 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The foregoing sections shall be added as additional sections to chapter 36, Laws of 1947 and chapter 44.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Dore, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 630 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 6, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

It was moved by Senator Uhlman that the Senate refuse to recede from its amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77 and asked the House for a conference thereon.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as Senate members of the conference committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77, Senators Uhlman, Woodall and Mardesich.

On motion of Senator Ryder, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION

The following was introduced, read first time and acted upon as indicated:

Senate Joint Resolution No. 32, by Senators McMillan, Guess, Gissberg, Herrmann, Canfield, Lennart, Talley, Freise, Woodall, Chytil, Twigg, Keefe, Donohue and Redmon:

Proposing a constitutional amendment to limit taxation to twenty-five percent of assessed valuation.

On motion of Senator McMillan, the rules were suspended to permit additional names as sponsors to Senate Joint Memorial No. 32.

It was moved by Senator McMillan that Senate Joint Memorial No. 32 be advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, would Senator McMillan yield to a question:
"Is this a constitutional amendment?"

Senator McMillan:

"Yes."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall:

"Point of order, Mr. President:
"A motion to suspend the rules is not debatable."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The point of order presented by Senator Woodall is well taken. The President will permit Senator McMillan to make a brief explanation."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator McMillan to suspend the rules was lost on a rising vote.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 32 was referred to the Committee on Constitution, Elections and Legislative Processes.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator McCormack that the Committee on Constitution, Elections and Legislative Processes be relieved of further consideration of Senate Joint Resolution No. 32.

Debate ensued.

The motion was lost on a rising vote.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate proceeded to consider Senate Bill No. 638 on second reading.

Senate Bill No. 638, by Senators Lewis and Hallauer:

Amending public lands statutes and providing for financing the east capitol site.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Talley that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 4, section 2, line 10, after "respectively" and before the period insert: "Provided, That each year, when the current annual debt service requirements for the bonds authorized by section 4 of this act have been provided for, the formula for distribution to port districts shall be reestablished as provided in section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1913, as last amended by section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1937".

Debate ensued.

The motion was lost and the amendment by Senator Talley was not adopted.

It was moved by Senator Hallauer that the rules be suspended and that Senate Bill No. 638 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill placed on final passage.

Senator Talley demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Henry, Stender, Williams, Washington, Kupka, Knoblauch, Greive and Morgan.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the motion to suspend the rules and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 21; absent or not voting, 3;

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Chytil, Dore, Faulk, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Knoblauch, Lewis, McCormack, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ryder, Stender, Twigg, Williams—25.

Those voting nay were: Senators Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Foley, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Kupka, Lennart, McCutcheon, McMillan, Morgan, Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—21.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bailey, Canfield, Durkan—3.

Senate Bill No. 638 was passed to third reading.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF RESOLUTION

The following was introduced, read first time by title and acted upon as indicated:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21, by Senators Williams and Talley:

Directing legislative council to make a study of regional planning agencies and governmental conferences.

On motion of Senator Williams, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Williams, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, the resolution placed on final passage and adopted.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

THIRD READING OF BILLS

House Bill No. 860, by Representatives Swayze, Lux, and Kopet (by Secretary of State request):

Describing and depicting the seal of the state of Washington.

On motion of Senator Henry the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and House Bill No. 860 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 860 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—46.

Those voting nay were: Senators Uhlman, Washington—2.

Absent or not voting: Senator Talley—1.

House Bill No. 860 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 471, by Senators Greive, Cooney and Williams: Authorizing municipalities to sell or lease certain property for free public parking facilities.

On motion of Senator Greive the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 471 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, would Senator Greive yield to a question:

"How does the city acquire title to this property? Do they condemn under urban renewal?"

Senator Greive:

"No, this is only where there is an existing city facility already owned by the city."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Would this property that they have leased then be tax free?"

Senator Greive:

"Yes, I think that's the big disadvantage if there is one in this bill. It would be tax free, except you understand they are providing free public parking, so they are not getting any income from it whatsoever. They are going to have to pay the city but the city is going to have to pay the price for it."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 471 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 16.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—33.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Dore, Gissberg, Hallauer, Keefe, Lennart, McCormack, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Rasmussen, Sandison, Stender, Twigg—16.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 471 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 94, by Senators Mardesich, Peterson (Ted) and Rasmussen:

Requiring state licenses for plumbers.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Ted) the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 94 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 94 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 15; absent or not voting, 6.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Connor, Cooney, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Greive, Hanna, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, Washington, Williams—28.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Donohue, Hallauer, Henry, Lennart, Lewis, McMillan, Redmon, Ryder, Sandison, Twigg, Woodall—15.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Gissberg, Guess, Pritchard, Stender, Uhlman—6.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 94 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 12:45 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 1:45 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:45 p.m.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President:

"Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen:

"Present today in the Senate chamber is a refined lady of great charm and grace. The President should like to request of Senators Ryder, Woodall, Knoblauch and Keefe that you please act as a committee of honor to escort our beloved visitor, Mrs. Ernest W. Lennart, to the rostrum."

The committee of honor escorted Mrs. Ernest W. Lennart to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

The President:

"Present also in the Senate chamber, members of the Senate, is a beloved and honored member of the Washington State Senate, the Honorable Ernest W. Lennart. Would the following distinguished Senators please act as a committee of honor to escort Senator Lennart to the rostrum: Senators Bailey, Greive, Neill and Atwood."

The committee of honor escorted Senator Ernest W. Lennart to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

The President:

"Senator and Mrs. Lennart, esteemed members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen: "This is one of the finest occasions, I am sure, that we will all have the privilege of enjoying. Senator Lennart, the membership of this Senate holds you in the highest regard and at the peak of their esteem and affection. Certain members have spearheaded this particular occasion which is designed to accord you in some measure the honor that you deserve and the gratitude and affection of the members of the Senate and the President for having had the opportunity and privilege of serving with you and also in some measure to express our greatest and deepest appreciation to you for the many years of service that you have contributed to the people of your district and to the people of the state of Washington, and, indeed, we might say the universe.

"The President believes that there is a resolution that we should read in full and adopt at this time."

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION

By President Cherberg, Senators Keefe, Bailey, Henry, Herr, Peterson (Lowell), Donohue, Lewis, Redmon, Marquardt, Dore, Washington, Atwood, McCormack, Rasmussen, Gissberg, Ryder, Freise, Durkan, Ridder, Herrmann, Cooney, Metcalf, Stender, Andersen, Kupka, Morgan, Faulk, Greive, Canfield, McMillan, McCutcheon, Sandison, Knoblauch, Hallauer, Woodall, Chytil, Mardesich, Neill, Talley, Pritchard, Williams, Foley, Connor, Guess, Peterson (Ted), Twigg, Uhlman, Hanna, Secretary of the Senate Ward Bowden and Sergeant at Arms Charlie Johnson.

Whereas, Our esteemed colleague, The HONORABLE ERNEST W. (Ernie) LENNART having attained the young age of 72 years, has announced his intention of retiring from the Senate; and

Whereas, Although Senator Lennart was born in Lulea, Sweden, he has amply and effectively served his adopted state by a long and distinguished career in the Legislature of the state of Washington; and

Whereas, Senator Lennart has ably served his adopted country by serving in the Armed Forces during the first world war, serving in France in 1917-1919; and

Whereas, Senator Lennart has served the people of the state of Washington well during three terms in the House of Representatives, serving in the regular session of 1941, the regular session of 1943, the extraordinary session of 1944, the regular session of 1951, the first extraordinary session of 1951 and the second extraordinary session of 1951; and

Whereas, Senator Lennart has served the people of the state of Washington ably during his terms in the Senate, serving in the 1953 regular session, the 1955 extraordinary session, the 1957 regular session, the 1959 regular session, the 1959 extraordinary session, the 1961 regular session, the 1961 extraordinary session, the 1963 regular session, the 1963 extraordinary session, the 1965 regular session, the 1965 extraordinary session, the 1967 regular session, and the 1967 extraordinary session; and

Whereas, Senator Lennart has served the Republican Party ably and well by serving as County Chairman for many years; and

Whereas, Senator Lennart and his wife Edith have reared five children; and

Whereas, Senator Lennart has demonstrated his public spirit by being a member and participating in the activities of the Grange, the Farm Bureau, The Veterans of Foreign Wars, The American Legion, The Masons, and the Mystic Shrine; and

Whereas, Senator Lennart has demonstrated through his well-known speeches his affection of his adopted country; and

Whereas, Senator Lennart is loved and admired by all the members of this body;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That Senator Lennart carry with him always our affection and esteem for a fellow Senator of whom this body is extremely proud.

It was moved by Senator Atwood that the resolution be adopted.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate:

"We are here today to pay homage and honor to Senator Ernie Lennart and although this is a small way of showing our affection for him, I think we all know that he will be with us for two years until he finishes out his term, but Senator Ernie being a young member from your district and junior Senator from Whatcom county, I want to pay particular homage to you for the service that you have given our state and our particular county. The people of the state of Washington and the citizens of Whatcom county in particular have been most fortunate in having a person of your stature and your capability representing us in Olympia.

I might add for you Senators that this man is very unusual. He is a concert violinist. He is an artist of note, an authority on Lincoln, which we all know, and he is a scholar of first rate. He is also a father of five children, all of whom are serving their communities in various capacities and I think the people of the state of Washington can be proud of you, Senator Ernie. I know that you are going to be around Olympia next session looking us over and telling us what we should do or shouldn't do. We are looking forward to your visiting us.

"I want to say for those of us on this side of the aisle it has been an extreme pleasure and I am very proud to say that I have served with Senator Ernie Lennart."

Senator Neill:

"Mr. President:

"Speaking in support of the resolution, Ernie, it has been my good pleasure to have served with you through most of my own legislative career, and it has always impressed me that you, born in a foreign land and having adopted our country, could put so many of us to shame with your knowledge of our American history and our American heritage. But I have learned over the years in working with you why this is true, and to my colleagues in the Senate, you know that I speak also for you, when I say that I don't think I have ever known a man that is as well read, as profound, as deep a man as Senator Lennart. I don't know whether the Senate journal will ever be the same again when it cannot contain the remarks that Ernie gives on every Lincoln's Day observance. It has been to the credit of the Senate that these remarks over the years have been preserved for posterity that you have given to us on those occasions.

"Ernie, for myself I just want to say to you that your friendship has enriched my life. I thank you and may you have many years of good health and activity ahead of you as you leave us."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, speaking in support of the resolution for Senator Lennart, I would like to say that from this side of the aisle, having known Senator and Mrs. Lennart for many years, I have admired his work on the floor, and Mrs. Lennart's work in the gallery. I know that much of the good, sage advice that Senator Lennart has given to us on the floor has come from the analysis that Mrs. Lennart has been able to give him from the gallery. I also consider it a distinct pleasure to say that Senator Lennart, in my estimation, is a statesman. Many times I have seen him rise above party and say: 'This is good for the people of the state,' and when we get into partisan politics and we get to arguing, much as I hate to get into partisan politics, it's good that we have a statesman present in the chamber to smooth things out and this is what Senator Lennart has done through the years I have observed his work in the Senate and I heartily concur in the resolution."

Senator Henry:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"These first three seats in the front row are not going to seem quite the same. In fact, after watching KING-TV last night, it looks like Senator Woodall is going to be the only man left.

"However, I do want to say in 1941 now Senator Lennart, then Representative Lennart, Representative Woodall and Representative Henry from three remote sections of the state served together in the House of Representatives. It has often been said that a statesman is a dead politician. That was a definition given by Walter Winchell at one time, but I want to say in Ernie's case that isn't true. He has been elevated to the position of perhaps elder statesman, but he will never be a dead politician as long as he is able to walk and talk."

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"It has been stated by Senator Henry we were here with then Representative McCutcheon in 1941 when Representative Lennart came and, had John McCutcheon not erred from the path, I wouldn't be able to say that I have served with him longer than anyone on this side of the aisle. Somewhere along the way, John lost his way and is not on the Republican side. In any event, that was back in the rather hectic days and I well recall Senator Lennart's first speech, where he praised Ed. Riley. We hadn't been here very long and as a matter of fact that's about all we understood of his first speech was all of a sudden he would tell us Ed. Riley was doing a good job. We had to read most of the rest of his speech in the journal the next day. But through the years we have come to understand him a little better and certainly I can add nothing to the splendid tributes that have been paid, only to say that I agree."

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I can speak as one who knew Ernie and Mrs. Lennart as neighbors. Perhaps, as you Senator Atwood, back in maybe 1953 or '55. My wife and our children occupied the lower apartment in one of the homes on Water Street and Senator and Mrs. Lennart occupied the upper apartment. Certainly they were wonderful neighbors, and somehow as neighbors you get a little different approach on a person than just serving with them on the Senate floor and again over that period of time there hasn't been too many more in the Senate who had the real pleasure of serving with Ernie. I was here when he came in 1953, I think Senator Greive and Senator Keefe and I believe Senator Knoblauch came at the same time. Well, we have had a little more exposure perhaps to the wisdom, the compassion, the statesmanship that Senator Lennart has sometimes expressed. Many of us here are thinking what we can say maybe a little different about Ernie — I'm sure there isn't anything we can say different because he gives us all pretty much the same impression and any of us who rise to speak I am sure can't avoid using the word, 'statesman.' We just can't avoid using it if we are going to pay a tribute to him, and that of course is a rare quality that we need not only here in the state of Washington but in the country as a whole.

"But Ernie and Edith, we are going to miss you as old neighbors and certainly as a colleague here on the Senate floor."

Senator McCutcheon:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"I never think of Ernie Lennart as being born in Sweden. That doesn't bother me at all. I never think of him as ever having been born. He's sort of eternal. He's a real American. You don't have to look for his background. You look for the character and soul of a man. We're all proud of him of course and if everybody had his way in the Senate, we would never let him leave this afternoon. It would probably be an Ernie Lennart Day afternoon.

"I would say for Senator Woodall I came to the House in 1941 with Senator Lennart. We were both Republicans, and I remember him making a speech and saying that goodwill was a delicate flower. It's been malled around here a little bit sometimes lately, but I thought to myself, that doesn't sound like what I expected to hear. Then I learned that he had been graduated from the Sorbonne in Paris. This is a world citizen, not just an American citizen or citizen of the state of Washington, and we are all put on this earth to get along with each other. We have to do that. Now, Senator, just an aside, — Senator Woodall has said that I erred from the path. I erred three successive terms. But we are still back in Olympia. We are all put here and we all love Senator Lennart. He's never going to depart from our thoughts. I was hoping that he would come back but all I can say from the bottom of my heart, Ernie, and for you, Edith, is that we wish you well. God bless you and God Speed."

Senator Herrmann:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"I have had the pleasure of serving with Senator Lennart for the past two years and I want to say one thing I greatly admire is that he is a man of moral substance and character. We have a man that has truly built his house on rock, and the winds and the rains of the legislature have done nothing to change him. He's as solid as the oak tree all the way through, and Senator Lennart, and Mrs. Lennart, I offer my congratulations."

Senator McMillan:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"I want to say just a word about the good Senator Lennart, whom I have known since 1941. I don't know if the Senator remembers me or not. I was chairman of the Agriculture Committee that session and we had some work to do setting up a conservation system in the state of Washington, and Senator, — then Representative Lennart at that time, was much interested and I remember him very well. We met two or three times regarding this legislation. Other than that, I'll say this, that Senator Lennart has been to me an inspiration in the Senate. I'm not saying it to be repetitious but I really mean it. I hope he considers me the same way I consider him, which is one of my best friends here. I have enjoyed him very much and his philosophy of government, his philosophy of the tax situation. The problems that we face are so fundamentally sound that I am afraid we are going to very much miss the influence and sound and sage counsel of Senator Lennart in the years to come."

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I want to add my voice to the praises that are being sung to Ernie and to Mrs. Lennart, too. When I first came to the legislature in the House in 1953, I brought my daughter down with me who served as a page. I was looking around for a suitable place for her to stay. It was rather difficult. Mrs. Lennart came forward and said, 'Let her live with us,' and so she did. She spent the entire session living with the Lennarts and their family, and my daughter tells me to this day that she learned more about state government during dinner table conversations at the Lennart home, than she ever learned anywhere else, and she still holds these two people in a high spot in her heart.

"I was made vice chairman of the Revenue and Taxation Committee in the House that session and Senator Lennart was chairman of the Revenue and Taxation in the Senate. I knew very little about taxation then. I don't know very much more now. But I used to come over and talk with Senator Lennart to try to get some idea of what it was all about, and he taught me much of the philosophy of taxation and revenue and he took me under his wing on many occasions to try and educate me to the difficult job.

"But Ernie, I made some progress, I think, and in my observations of you through the years that we have served together, it has always been along the line that you have taken under your wing the newer members of the legislature and tried to guide them in the areas of state government and tried to put them on a sound and true basis; and, Ernie, through all of the years I have never heard you say a mean thing. I have never heard you take a purely political stand on anything. There has never been any question anywhere of your sincerity and of your integrity as a servant of the people of the state of Washington, and it's going to be a great loss to this legislature when you leave."

Senator Peterson (Ted):

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"I just couldn't sit here and not get up and say something to Senator Lennart and his wonderful lady who has been with him all these years. I think I have touched as many bases as anyone here. When I went to Sweden I saw the town of Lulea and pictured it years ago when the Senator left and Lulea is next to the furthestmost town. Kiruna is the next one way up and that's where I first saw a Laplandish woman. This is where the airport is. I served in the upper cell back here with Senator Raugust, and as I stated before, his wisdom, the things he had to impart, I'll never forget them, and I was between Senator Lennart and a newspaperman when I first came down and he asked me how I was getting along. I said I was not sure. He said, 'Just remember this: The state's hundred years old and you're not going to change it in one session!'"

"Senator Lennart, I want to say your counsel and good advice and things you have imparted to me and the things that you know have helped the state in innumerable ways—and I can't begin to recite and relate the things and the good things that you have done for the state of Washington."

The motion was carried and the resolution was adopted.

The President invited Senators Knoblauch and Atwood to the rostrum.

PRESENTATION OF PLAQUE

Senator Knoblauch:

"Mr. President, Senator and Mrs. Lennart, members of the Senate:

"Represented today on this platform is a team long distinguished in Washington state history, a couple who have been with us for many, many years and who have done so much for our state. There is no real monument that has been built for Senator Lennart, but his monument really should be the many fine schools that he has assisted in building, the new buildings in our state institutions, his work on behalf of the retarded children, and so many phases of state government. These are the monuments to Senator Lennart.

"Senator, a few weeks ago when we read in the papers that you had announced to a school group that you planned to retire, the members of the Senate decided that something had to be done, something special in your honor, and it seemed as though Senator Atwood and I got together on a part of the project and decided that you should have something that you could keep in your home to always remind you of the many fine and outstanding years of service to our state.

"Now speaking for myself, you and I have always had a very close friendship. I don't know whether it's because you raise potatoes and I raise rhubarb or whether the fact is that you were born in Sweden and so was my mother, but the fact remains that all the other members of the Senate and I have a very affectionate feeling towards you and I would assume of course that goes for the lobbyists and for everyone who has come in contact with you for these many years. It is wonderful, Senator Lennart, to leave with the knowledge of the respect and the love and affection that you have with all the members of the Washington State Senate, and so I would like to present to you on behalf of the Senate, our Lieutenant Governor and our Secretary of the Senate and Sergeant at Arms, this very beautiful gift. I'm going to ask first to have you unwrap it. Then I'm going to ask Senator Atwood if he would please read the inscription."

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate, this is the inscription:

"Ernest W. Lennart. In admiration of your eloquence and ability, and in recognition of the twenty-two years of your dedicated, unselfish and meritorious service to the citizens of the state of Washington, we who have served with you extend to you every good wish for continued success in the future. Well done, thou good and faithful Servant. Washington State Senate, in Extraordinary Session, Fortieth Legislature, March, 1967."

Senator Lennart:

"Mr. President, my beloved wife who nursed me back to health when I came back from France — and I was ungrateful, I rewarded her with five children, — the efficient Ward and his staff, members of the Senate:

"This overwhelms me. Senator Knoblauch, whom I call Reuben, I should hope what you said about raising a monument would not be inscribed in marble or stone but graven upon the hearts of men.

"There is something touching and yet at the same time beautiful when such a parting gesture as this comes about. It is as though you were saying, well you are not altogether an unworthy laborer in the vineyard you have toiled through many and a great variety of experiences and you have had many judges. To those among us who seek the best in life to quote Browning for which the first was made, that is, age, which we all seek to attain and a few of us have reached we should not complain as some do about it. To quote Marshall Neill that the sands of time will run out I will hope I should have left some footprints on the sands of time. The other regretful part is to be away from active duty performed when one was in his prime of years, to be away from decisions, authority and judgment. This last part to be away from judgment is somewhat regretful for judgment often improves upon age but there is a time for all seasons in life.

"Tremendous changes have transpired in every aspect of human life since first I entered these legislative halls. A tremendous liberation of the human mind out of the bondage of the past and a new manifestation of a new consciousness among people everywhere.

"The challenge of space alone has forced attention on galaxies lighting the fields of infinity; by probing the core of a galaxy or plumb the heart of an atom, will man find the mystery of his soul? And more, will he learn to live with himself and his brother?

"These are questions which we and other human beings of the Twentieth Century must ask and answer. The perils of knowledge without moral restraints are upon us. It may not be a question whether we live or perish; but it is right now a question of how we shall live.

"As I personally like younger people in whom something of the old appears so I like an elderly person in whom is something young. But there is a time for all seasons in life. For the young — life and play, for other seasons of life, maturity and judgment.

"This Hall is filled with hallowed memories and has witnessed many a memorable occasion. The day begins with the salutation of the flag which is the symbol of the greatness of America. Which for me having served and seen all the gruesomeness of war means so much. Someone spoke about me being an adopted citizen but I fixed my eyes on the flag and I would say to you fix your eyes on the flag which represents the greatness of America until you fall in love with her and when you have become impressed with the spectacle of her greatness reflect that America became great because men knew their duty and had the courage to do it. I know that each and everyone in here will make them your example.

"Now coming down to more personal matter. I am not at all disposed to regret leaving these halls since I have attempted to do what I think is right. It has been for me, as for you, a temporary assignment in the sojourning through life. Then too, why should there be regret over anything that has given one so much pleasure?

"I want to commend each and everyone of you, speak frankly in everybody's presence and in doing this I should like, too, if you allow me, briefly dwell upon attributes and qualities of which this Senate is so richly endowed. It is a far-seeing group, engaged in statecraft, in the building of a better commonwealth. In persuading persons and talents with their interests and labor to give the best that each can give. This Senate commands a combination of qualities and contrasts at once singular and striking. I have seen it as you have, simple and natural, reconciling contenting parties. I have seen it deeply moved by the sadness of a departing friend. Humor, which is a balance wheel and a reminder that if one can laugh at his own misdoings — a proof of sanity — occasionally gives one a lift.

"Then again I have observed its deep reverence during the morning prayer and then turn defiant and fierce before the end of day. It is a body patient and gentle — of calm spirit and sensitive tempers and it is an august body with a lingering golden thread of duty and love of country woven through its fabric.

"It has been written by the Jewish people that upon the repeal of the decree of Ahasuerus the son of the mighty King Dairus who had decreed the Jews to destruction that in every province in every city whithersoever the King's commandment of the repeal came they had joy and gladness a feast day and a good day. The people saying unto themselves the Lord hath done great things for us whereof we are glad. May the remembrances of this memorable repeal be preserved and handed down to future generations and in every province, in every city, in every family so as to never to be forgotten.

"If I were to write a last will and testament of faith, creed and commitment, the sum and substance of what I have come to hold as important, after a lifetime of inquiry into our way of life, it would be that the priceless heritage of the Constitution — our heritage of faith, which has been entrusted to us for a brief time to our keeping, shall be handed down, like unto the Jewish people to coming generations — never to be forgotten. As one of America's adopted sons — these richest of all blessings I would bequeath to my children.

"Many of you might have experienced, as I have, being lost in the snowy wilderness. We made tracks in the snow. How real they seemed. How much they expressed. They told which way we were going, whether we were hurrying or sauntering, what we had on our feet, and they might easily tell if we bore a burden, if we were man, woman or child. They were real. Spring arrived. The snow still exists in the form of water or vapor, and the feet that imprinted them upon the snow may still exist, but the tracks that meant so much, where are they now? The track was simply a record, like any other impression. Are we ourselves anything more than the tracks of the eternal in the dust of earth?

"And, so to you, Mr. President, whom I may fondly call John, and to each one of you Senators and the staff, as you in building a better state have reached the meridian of height, so mine, in the fullness of time is coming into a rare sunset. And as I have many times, from my summer home in the San Juans, watched with delight beyond all words, the long, deep purple lines of clouds, edged with intolerable radiance, passing into orange, yellow, pale green and reflected below in warmth deep purple shadows and green lights upon the sea, and then the dying of it all away. And, then I have remembered these lines from Shakespeare, and often quoted as they are, the poet would have interpreted the sunset and the sunset what the poet meant; man's work and the shortness of his years by the exclamation: We are such stuff as dreams are made of; and our little life is rounded with a sleep.

"Now at the close of the venture, I must ask. Have I been a faithful guardian of duties imposed upon me? Then, I resign them to you, undiminished, unimpaired. Welcome, then, my retiring years. After enjoying for so great a number of years, in my private and public life, what I believe seldom is a lot of others, I now extend my hand to the future, and take without reluctance and hesitation that which is the lot of all. With gratitude in my heart and with God's blessings, I bid you an affectionate farewell."

MOTION

At 2:50 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Friday, April 7, 1967.

John A Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Washington, Friday, April 7, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Herr and Woodall.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Woodall was excused.

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 6, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed Engrossed Senate Bill No. 255 with the following amendments: Strike all the matter following the enacting clause and substitute the following:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 7, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 82.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

"Sale at retail" or "retail sale" means every sale of tangible personal property (including articles produced, fabricated, or imprinted) to all persons irrespective of the nature of their business and including, among others, without limiting the scope hereof, persons who install, repair, clean, alter, improve, construct, or decorate real or personal property of or for consumers other than a sale to a person who (a) purchases for the purpose of resale as tangible personal property in the regular course of business without intervening use by such person, or (b) installs, repairs, cleans, alters, imprints, improves, constructs, or decorates real or personal property of or for consumers, if such tangible personal property becomes an ingredient or component of such real or personal property without intervening use by such person, or (c) purchases for the purpose of consuming the property purchased in producing for sale a new article of tangible personal property or substance, of which such property becomes an ingredient or component or is a chemical used in processing, when the primary purpose of such chemical is to create a chemical reaction directly through contact with an ingredient of a new article being produced for sale. The term shall include every sale of tangible personal property which is used or consumed or to be used or consumed in the performance of any activity classified as a "sale at retail" or "retail sale" even though such property is resold or utilized as provided in (a), (b), or (c) above following such use. The term also means every sale of tangible personal property to persons engaged in any business which is taxable under RCW 82.04.280, subsection (2), and 82.04.290.

The term "sale at retail" or "retail sale" shall include the sale of or charge made for tangible personal property consumed and/or for labor and services rendered in respect to the following: (a) The installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, imprinting, or improving of tangible personal property of or for consumers, including charges made for the mere use of facilities in respect thereto, but excluding charges made for the use of coin operated laundry or dry cleaning facilities, when such facilities are situated in an apartment house, hotel, motel, rooming house, trailer camp or tourist camp for the exclusive use of the tenants thereof, [but] and excluding services rendered in respect to live animals, birds and insects; (b) the constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon, or above real property of or for consumers, including the installing or attaching of any article of tangible personal property therein or thereto, whether or not such personal property becomes a part of the realty by virtue of installation, and shall also include the sale of services or charges made for the clearing of land and the moving of earth excepting the mere levelling of land used in commercial farming or agriculture; (c) the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the cleaning, fumigating, razing or moving of existing buildings or structures, but shall not include the charge made for janitorial services; (d) the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to automobile towing and similar automotive transportation services, but not in respect to those required to report and pay taxes under chapter 82.16; (e) the sale of and charge made for the furnishing of lodging and all other services by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, trailer camp, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property, and it shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes a rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or enjoy the same; (f) the sale of or charge made for tangible personal property, labor and services to persons taxable under (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) above when such sales or charges are for property, labor and services which are used or consumed in whole or in part by such persons in the performance of any activity defined as a "sale at retail" or "retail sale" even though such property, labor and services may be resold after such use or consumption. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to modify the first paragraph of this section and nothing contained in the first paragraph of this section shall be construed to modify this paragraph.

The term "sale at retail" or "retail sale" shall include the sale of or charge made for personal business or professional services, including amounts designated as interest, rents, fees, admission, and other service emoluments however designated, received by persons engaging in the following business activities: (a) amusement and recreation businesses including but not limited to golf, pool, billiards, skating, bowling, ski lifts and tows and others; (b) abstract, title insurance and escrow businesses; (c) credit bureau businesses; (d) automobile parking and storage garage businesses.

The term shall also include the renting or leasing of tangible personal property to consumers.

The term shall not include the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the building, repairing, or improving of any publicly owned street, place, road, highway, bridge, or trestle which is used or to be used primarily for foot or vehicular traffic, nor shall it include sales of feed, seed, fertilizer, and spray materials to persons for the purpose of producing for sale any agricultural product whatsoever, including milk, eggs, wool, fur, meat, honey, or other substances obtained from animals, birds, or insects, nor shall it include sales of chemical sprays or washes to persons for the purpose of post-harvest treatment of fruit for the prevention of scald, fungus, mold, or decay.

Sec. 2. Section 82.04.240, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.04.240 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person except persons taxable under subsections (2) [(3), (4), or (5)] through (6) of RCW 82.04.260 engaging within this state in business as a manufacturer; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products, including byproducts, manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-quarter of one percent.

The measure of the tax is the value of the products, including byproducts, so manufactured regardless of the place of sale or the fact that deliveries may be made to points outside the state.

Sec. 3. Section 82.04.260, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 6, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.04.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of buying wheat, oats, dry peas, corn, and barley, but not including any manufactured or processed products thereof, and selling the same at wholesale; the tax imposed shall be equal to the gross proceeds derived from such sales multiplied by the rate of one one-hundredth of one percent.

(2) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing wheat into flour; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the flour manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-eighth of one percent.

(3) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of splitting or processing dried peas; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the peas split or processed, multiplied by the rate of one-quarter of one percent.

(4) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing seafood products which remain in a raw, raw frozen, or raw salted state at the completion of the manufacturing by that person; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-eighth of one percent.

[(4)] (5) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing by canning, preserving, freezing or dehydrating fresh fruits and vegetables; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products canned, preserved, frozen or dehydrated multiplied by the rate of three-tenths of one percent.

[(5)] (6) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing aluminum pig, ingot, billet, plate, sheet (flat or coiled), rod, bar, wire, cable or extrusions; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products manufactured multiplied by the rate of four-tenths of one percent.

[(6)] (7) Upon every nonprofit corporation and nonprofit association engaging within this state in research and development, as to such corporations and associations, the amount of tax with respect to such activities shall be equal to the gross income derived from such activities multiplied by the rate of forty-four one-hundredths of one percent.

(8) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of slaughtering, breaking and/or processing perishable meat products and/or selling the same at wholesale, as to such persons the tax imposed shall be equal to the gross proceeds derived from such sales multiplied by the rate of one-quarter of one percent.

Sec. 4. Section 82.04.410, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.04.410 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to amounts derived by persons engaged in [operating chick hatcheries from] the production and sale of [chicks and] hatching eggs or poultry for use in the production for sale of poultry or poultry products.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In computing the tax imposed by this chapter, municipal sewerage utilities and other public corporations imposing and collecting fees or charges for sewer service may deduct from the measure of the tax, amounts paid to another municipal corporation or governmental agency for sewerage interception, treatment or disposal.

Sec. 6. Section 82.08.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1967 and RCW 82.08.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The tax hereby levied shall not apply to the following sales:

(1) Casual and isolated sales of property or service, unless made by a person who is engaged in a business activity taxable under chapters 82.04, 82.16 or 82.28: Provided, That the exemption provided by this paragraph shall not be construed as providing any exemption from the tax imposed by chapter 82.12;

(2) Sales made by persons in the course of business activities with respect to which tax liability is specifically imposed under chapter 82.16, when the gross proceeds from such sales must be included in the measure of the tax imposed under said chapter;

(3) The distribution and newsstand sale of newspapers;

(4) Sales which the state is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution of this state or the Constitution or laws of the United States;

(5) Sales of motor vehicle fuel used in aircraft by the manufacturer thereof for research, development, and testing purposes and sales of motor vehicle fuel taxable under chapter 82.36: Provided, That the use of any such fuel upon which a refund of the motor vehicle fuel tax has been obtained shall be subject to the tax imposed by chapter 82.12;

(6) Sales (including transfers of title through decree of appropriation) heretofore or hereafter made of the entire operating property of a publicly or privately owned public utility, or of a complete operating integral section thereof, to the state or a political subdivision thereof for use in conducting any business defined in subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10) or (11) of RCW 82.16.010;

(7) Auction sales made by or through auctioneers of tangible personal property (including household goods) which have been used in conducting a farm activity, when the seller thereof is a farmer and the sale is held or conducted upon a farm and not otherwise;

(8) Sales to corporations which have been incorporated under any act of the congress of the United States and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same;

(9) Sales of purebred livestock for breeding purposes where the animals are registered in a nationally recognized breed association; sales of cattle and milk cows used on the farm;

(10) Sales of tangible personal property (other than the type referred to in subdivision (11) hereof) for use by the purchaser in connection with the business of operating as a private or common carrier by air, rail, or water in interstate or foreign commerce: Provided, That any actual use of such property in this state shall, at the time of such actual use, be subject to the tax imposed by chapter 82.12;

(11) Sales of airplanes, locomotives, railroad cars, or watercraft for use in conducting interstate or foreign commerce by transporting therein or therewith property and persons for hire or for use in conducting commercial deep-sea fishing operations outside the territorial waters of the state; also sales of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of such airplanes, locomotives, railroad cars, or watercraft, and of motor vehicles or trailers used by the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission authorizing transportation by motor vehicle across the boundaries of this state, in the course of constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving the same; also sales of or charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to such constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving;

(12) Sales of motor vehicles and trailers to be used for the purpose of transporting therein persons or property for hire in interstate or foreign commerce: Provided, That the purchaser must be the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission and that the vehicles will first move upon the highways of this state from the point of delivery in this state to a point outside of this state under the authority of a one-transit permit issued by the director of licenses pursuant to the provisions of RCW 46.16.100;

(13) Sales of motor vehicles and trailers to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state, even though delivery be made within this state, but only when (a) the vehicles or trailers will be taken from the point of delivery in this state directly to a point outside this state under the authority of a one-transit permit issued by the director of licenses pursuant to the provisions of RCW 46.16.100, or (b) said motor vehicles and trailers will be registered and licensed immediately under the laws of the state of the purchaser's residence, will not be used in this state more than three months, and will not be required to be registered and licensed under the laws of this state;

(14) Sales to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of any machinery or other article of personal property belonging to such nonresident, in the course of installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving the same and also sales of or charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to any installing, repairing, cleaning, altering or improving, of personal property of or for a nonresident, but this subsection (14) shall apply only when the seller agrees to, and does, deliver the property to the purchaser at a point outside this state, or delivers the property to a common or bona fide private carrier consigned to the purchaser at a point outside this state;

(15) Sales to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state of watercraft requiring coast guard registration or registration by the state of principal use according to the Federal Boating Act of 1958, even though delivery be made within this state, but only when (a) the watercraft will not be used within this state for more than forty-five days and (b) an appropriate exemption certificate supported by identification ascertaining residence as provided by the tax commission and signed by the purchaser or his agent establishing the fact that the purchaser is a nonresident and that the watercraft is for use outside of this state, one copy to be filed with the tax commission with the regular report and a duplicate to be retained by the dealer.

(16) Sales of poultry for use in the production for sale of poultry or poultry products.

(17) Sales to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state of machinery and implements for use in conducting a farming activity, when such machinery and implements will be transported immediately outside the state. As proof of exemption, an affidavit or certification in such form as the tax commission shall require shall be made for each such sale, to be retained as a business record of the seller.

(18) Sales for use in states, territories and possessions of the United States which are not contiguous to any other state, but only when, as a necessary incident to the contract of sale, the seller delivers the subject matter of the sale to the purchaser or his designated agent at the usual receiving terminal of the carrier selected to transport the goods, under such circumstances that it is reasonably certain that the goods will be transported directly to a destination in such noncontiguous states, territories and possessions.

(19) Sales to municipal corporations, the state, and all political subdivisions thereof of tangible personal property consumed and/or of labor and services rendered in respect to contracts for watershed protection and/or flood prevention. This exemption shall be limited to that portion of the selling price which is reimbursed by the United States government according to the provisions of the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act, Public Laws 566, as amended;

(20) Sales of semen for use in the artificial insemination of livestock;

(21) Sales to nonresidents of this state of tangible personal property for use outside this state when the purchaser has applied for and received from the tax commission a permit certifying (1) that he is a bona fide resident of a state or possession or Province of Canada other than the state of Washington, (2) that such state, possession, or Province of Canada does not impose a retail sales tax or use tax of three percent or more or, if imposing such a tax, permits Washington residents exemption from otherwise taxable sales by reason of their residence, and (3) that he does agree, when requested, to grant the tax commission access to such records and other forms of verification at his place of residence to assure that such purchases are not first used substantially in the state of Washington.

Any person claiming exemption from retail sales tax under the provisions of this subsection must display a nonresident permit as herein provided, and any vendor making a sale to a nonresident without collecting the tax must examine such permit, identify the purchaser as the person to whom the nonresident permit was issued, and maintain records which shall show the permit number attributable to each nontaxable sale.

Permits shall be personal and nontransferable, shall be renewable annually, and shall be issued by the tax commission upon payment of a fee of one dollar. The commission may in its discretion designate independent agents for the issuance of permits, according to such standards and qualifications as the commission may prescribe. Such agents shall pay over and account to the commission for all permit fees collected, after deducting as a collection fee the sum of fifty cents for each permit issued.

Any person making fraudulent statements in order to secure a permit shall be guilty of perjury. Any person making tax exempt purchases by displaying a permit not his own, or a counterfeit permit, with intent to violate the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, in addition, may be subject to a penalty not to exceed the amount of the tax due on such purchases. Any vendor who makes sales without collecting the tax to a person who does not hold a valid permit, and any vendor who fails to maintain records of permit numbers as provided in this section shall be personally liable for the amount of tax due.

(22) Sales of form lumber to any person engaged in the constructing, repairing, decorating or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon or above real property of or for consumers: Provided, That such lumber is used or to be used first by such person for the molding of concrete in a single such contract, project or job and is thereafter incorporated into the product of that same contract, project or job as an ingredient or component thereof.

(23) Sales of, cost of, or charges made for labor and services performed in respect to the mining, sorting, crushing, screening, washing, hauling, and stockpiling of sand, gravel and rock when such sand, gravel, or rock is taken from a pit or quarry which is owned by or leased to a county or a city, and such sand, gravel, or rock is (1) either stockpiled in said pit or quarry for placement or is placed on the street, road, place, or highway of the county or city by the county or city itself, or (2) sold by the county or city to a county, or a city at actual cost for placement on a publicly owned street, road, place, or highway. The exemption provided for in this subsection shall not apply to sales of, cost of, or charges made for such labor and services, if the sand, gravel, or rock is used for other than public road purposes or is sold otherwise than as provided for in this subsection.

(24) Charges made for the use of coin operated laundry or dry cleaning facilities when such facilities are situated in an apartment house, hotel, motel, rooming house, trailer camp or tourist camp for the exclusive use of the tenants thereof.

(26) Sales of pollen.

Sec. 7. Section 82.12.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 19, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply:

(1) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property brought into the state by a nonresident thereof for his use or enjoyment while temporarily within the state unless such property is used in conducting a nontransitory business activity within the state; or in respect to the use by a nonresident of this state of a motor vehicle which is registered or licensed under the laws of the state of his residence and is not used in this state more than three months, and which is not required to be registered or licensed under the laws of this state; or in respect to the use of household goods, personal effects and private automobiles by a bona fide resident of this state, if such articles were acquired and used by such person in another state while a bona fide resident thereof and such acquisition and use occurred more than thirty days prior to the time he entered this state;

(2) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property purchased at retail or acquired by lease, gift or bailment if the sale thereof to, or the use thereof by, the present user or his bailor or donor has already been subjected to the tax under chapter 82.08 or 82.12 and such tax has been paid by the present user or by his bailor or donor; or in respect to the use of property acquired by bailment and such tax has once been paid based on reasonable rental as determined by RCW 82.12.060 measured by the value of the article at time of first use multiplied by the tax rate imposed by chapter 82.08 or 82.12 as of the time of first use; or in respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property acquired by bailment, if the property was acquired by a previous bailee from the same bailor for use in the same general activity and such original bailment was prior to June 9, 1961;

(3) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property the sale of which is specifically taxable under chapter 82.16;

(4) In respect to the use of any airplane, locomotive, railroad car, or watercraft used primarily in conducting interstate or foreign commerce by transporting therein or therewith property and persons for hire or used primarily in commercial deep-sea fishing operations outside the territorial waters of the state, and in respect to use of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of any such airplane, locomotive, railroad car, or watercraft, and in respect to the use by the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission of any motor vehicle or trailer used in substantial part in the normal and ordinary course of the user's business for transporting therein persons or property for hire across the boundaries of this state if the first use of which within this state is actual use in conducting interstate or foreign commerce; and in respect to the use of any motor vehicle or trailer while being operated under the authority of a one-transit permit issued by the director of licenses pursuant to RCW 46.16.100 and moving upon the highways from the point of delivery in this state to a point outside this state; and in respect to the use of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of any motor vehicle or trailer used by the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission authorizing transportation by motor vehicle across the boundaries of this state;

(5) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property which the state is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution of the state or under the Constitution or laws of the United States;

(6) In respect to the use of motor vehicle fuel used in aircraft by the manufacturer thereof for research, development, and testing purposes and motor vehicle fuel taxable under chapter 82.36: Provided, That the use of such fuel upon which a refund of the motor vehicle fuel tax is obtained shall not be exempt, and the director of licenses shall deduct from the amount of such tax to be refunded the amount of tax due under this chapter and remit the same each month to the tax commission:

(7) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property included within the transfer of the title to the entire operating property of a publicly or privately owned public utility, or of a complete operating integral section thereof, by the state or a political subdivision thereof in conducting any business defined in subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), or (11) of RCW 82.16.010;

(8) In respect to the use of tangible personal property (including household goods) which have been used in conducting a farm activity, if such property was purchased from a farmer at an auction sale held or conducted by an auctioneer upon a farm and not otherwise;

(9) In respect to the use of tangible personal property by corporations which have been incorporated under any act of the congress of the United States and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of the armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, flood, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same;

(10) In respect to the use of purebred livestock for breeding purposes where said animals are registered in a nationally recognized breed association; sales of cattle and milk cows used on the farm;

(11) In respect to the use of poultry in the production for sale of poultry or poultry products;

(12) In respect to the use of fuel by the extractor or manufacturer thereof when used directly in the operation of the particular extractive operation or manufacturing plant which produced or manufactured the same;

(13) In respect to the use of motor vehicles, equipped with dual controls, which are loaned to and used exclusively by a school in connection with its driver training program: Provided, That this exemption and the term "school" shall apply only to (a) the University of Washington, Washington State University and the state colleges or (b) any public, private or parochial school accredited by either the state board of education or by the University of Washington (the state accrediting station) or (c) any public vocational school meeting the standards, courses and requirements established and prescribed or approved by the state board for vocational education;

(14) In respect to the use by a bailee of any article of tangible personal property which is entirely consumed in the course of research, development, experimental and testing activities conducted by the user, provided the acquisition or use of such articles by the bailor was not subject to the taxes imposed by chapter 82.08 or chapter 82.12.

(15) In respect to the use by residents of this state of motor vehicles and trailers acquired and used while such persons are members of the armed services and are stationed outside this state pursuant to military orders, but this exemption shall not apply to members of the armed services called to active duty for training purposes for periods of less than six months and shall not apply to the use of motor vehicles or trailers acquired less than thirty days prior to the discharge or release from active duty of any person from the armed services.

(16) In respect to the use of semen in the artificial insemination of livestock;

(17) In respect to the use of form lumber by any person engaged in the constructing, repairing, decorating or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon or above real property of or for consumers: Provided, That such lumber is used or to be used first by such person for the molding of concrete in a single such contract, project or job and is thereafter incorporated into the product of that same contract, project or job as an ingredient or component thereof.

(18) In respect to the use of any sand, gravel, or rock to the extent of the cost of or charges made for labor and services performed in respect to the mining, sorting, crushing, screening, washing, hauling, and stockpiling such sand, gravel, or rock, when such sand, gravel, or rock is taken from a pit or quarry which is owned by or leased to a county or a city, and such sand, gravel, or rock is (1) either stockpiled in said pit or quarry for placement or is placed on the street, road, place, or highway of the county or city by the county or city itself, or (2) sold by the county or city to a county, or a city at actual cost for placement on a publicly owned street, road, place, or highway. The exemption provided for in this subsection shall not apply to the use of such material to the extent of the cost of or charge made for such labor and services, if the material is used for other than public road purposes or is sold otherwise than as provided for in this subsection.

(19) In respect to the use of wearing apparel only as a sample for display for the purpose of effecting sales of goods represented by such sample.

(20) In respect to the use of pollen.

Sec. 8. Section 82.32.090, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 141, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.32.090 are each amended to read as follows:

If payment of any tax due is not received by the tax commission by the [twenty-fifth] last day of the month in which the tax becomes due, there shall be assessed a penalty of two percent of the amount of the tax; and if the tax is not received [within forty days of the due date] by the last day of the month next succeeding the month in which the due date falls, there shall be assessed a total penalty of ten percent of the amount of the tax; and if the tax is not received [within seventy days of the due date] by the last day of the second month next succeeding the month in which the due date falls, there shall be assessed a total penalty of twenty percent of the amount of the tax. No penalty so added shall be less than two dollars.

If payment of any tax is received within the first ten days of the month next succeeding the month in which the due date falls, the amount of such payment shall be credited to, and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during, the fiscal year in which such due date falls.

If a warrant be issued by the tax commission for the collection of taxes, increases, and penalties, there shall be added thereto a penalty of five percent of the amount of the tax, but not less than five dollars.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the aggregate of penalties imposed under this chapter for failure to file a return, late payment of any tax, increase, or penalty, or issuance of a warrant shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the tax due, or seven dollars, whichever is greater.

Sec. 9. Section 83.44.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 83.44.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All taxes imposed by the inheritance tax provisions of this title shall take effect and accrue upon the death of the decedent or donor. If such tax is not paid within fifteen months from the accruing thereof, interest shall be charged and collected at the rate of [six] eight percent per year computed from the expiration of such fifteen month period unless the amount of tax cannot be determined because of litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction or arbitration under the provisions of chapter 83.14 which involves, either directly or indirectly, the amount of tax payable, in which case interest shall not be charged during the time necessarily consumed by such litigation or arbitration: Provided, That in no case shall interest be tolled for a period of more than three years from the expiration of the fifteen months after date of death. The minimum tax due in any event shall be paid within fifteen months from the accruing thereof. In all cases where a bond shall be given under the provisions of RCW 83.16.020 interest shall be charged at the rate of six percent per year from and after a period of sixty days from the time that the person or persons owning the beneficial interest come into the possession of same until the payment thereof.

[The tax commission may, in its discretion, waive the payment of interest required to be assessed under the inheritance tax provisions of this title.]

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This 1967 amendatory act shall not apply to taxes accruing before July 1, 1967.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1967."

In line 1 of the title after "taxation;" strike the remainder of the title through and including the period on page 2, line 14, and insert: "amending section 1, chapter 7, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.04.050; amending section 82.04.240, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.04.240; amending section 82.04.260, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 6, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.04.260; amending section 82.04.410, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.04.410; adding a new section to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.04 RCW; amending section 82.08.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1967 and RCW 82.08.030; and amending section 82.12.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 19, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.12.030; amending section 82.32.090, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 141, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.32.090; amending section 83.44.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 83.44.010; and declaring an emergency and prescribing an effective date." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 255 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

The Secretary read:

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 6, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Engrossed Senate Bill No. 165 with the following amendments:

On page 8 of the printed and engrossed bill add a section following section 11 as added by Senate amendment as follows:

"Sec. 12 Section 7, page 210, Laws of 1888 as last amended by section 7, chapter 144, Laws of 1945 and RCW 73.08.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of county commissioners of the several counties in this state shall levy, in addition to the taxes now levied by law, a tax not less than one-twentieth of one mill, and not greater than one and one-fifth mills, upon the taxable property of their respective counties, to be levied and collected as now prescribed by law for the assessment and collection of taxes, for the purpose of creating a fund for the relief of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the Civil War, in the war of Mexico or in any of the Indian wars, or the Spanish-American war or the Philippine insurrection [, soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the United States army, navy, or marine corps between April 6, 1917, and the date upon which peace is finally concluded with the German government and its allies, or soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States] or any person who served in any branch of the armed forces of the United States during the first World War, the second World War, the Korean conflict or the Viet Nam conflict or in any other foreign war, insurrection or expedition, which service shall be governed by the issuance of a campaign badge or ribbon by the government of the United States of America, [or any members of the armed forces of the United States in the existing war between the United States and Germany and her allies or the existing war between the United States and Japan and her allies,] and the indigent wives, husbands, widows, widowers and minor children of such indigent or deceased [soldiers, sailors and marines] members of the armed forces, to be disbursed for such relief by such board of county commissioners: Provided, That in any county which has or which may in the future have an unexpended balance from such levy, over and above the amount required for the above purposes, the board of county commissioners may budget and reappropriate such excess for the purposes of providing funds for the coordination of community mental retardation services or to provide community mental retardation or mental health services."

On page 8 of the printed and engrossed bill, add two new sections following section 12 added by Representatives Whetzel and Lewis as follows:

"Sec. 13. Section 1, page 208, Laws of 1888 as last amended by section 1, chapter 180, Laws of 1947 and RCW 73.08.010 are each amended to read as follows:

[For the relief of indigent and suffering Union soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the Civil War, in the war of Mexico or in any of the Indian wars in the United States, the Spanish American war and Philippine insurrection, soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the United States army, navy, or marine corps between April 6, 1917, and the date upon which peace is finally concluded with the German government and its allies, or soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in any other foreign war, insurrection, or expedition, which service shall be governed by the issuance of a campaign badge by the government of the United States of America, or for any members of the armed forces of the United States in the existing war between the United States and Japan and her allies, or the existing war between the United States and Germany and her allies, and their families or the families of those deceased, who need assistance in any city, town or precinct in this state, the board of commissioners of the county in which said city, town or precinct is situated shall provide such sum or sums of money as may be necessary, to be drawn upon by the commander and quartermaster, or commander and adjutant of any post, camp or chapter of any national organization of veterans now, or which may hereafter be, chartered by an act of congress in said city or town upon recommendation of the relief committee of said post, camp or chapter: Provided, Said soldier, sailor or marine, or the families of those deceased are and have been residents of the state for at least twelve months, and the orders of said commander and quartermaster, or commander and adjutant shall be the proper voucher for the expenditure of said sum or sums of money.]

The board of county commissioners of each county shall provide such sum or sums of money as may be necessary within the respective counties for the relief of indigent and suffering soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the armed forces of the United States in the Civil War, the war with Mexico, any of the Indian wars in the United States or its territories, the Spanish-American war, the Philippine insurrection, and soldiers, sailors, marines, coast guardsmen or members of the air force or flying corps who served the United States during World War I, World War II, the Korean conflict, the Viet Nam conflict, or in any other foreign war, insurrection, expedition or campaign for which a campaign badge or ribbon shall have been awarded, and their indigent spouses and minor children or the surviving indigent spouse and minor children of those deceased who need assistance.

This money may be drawn upon by the commander and quartermaster or commander and adjutant or their authorized delegate, of any post, camp, or chapter of any national organization of veterans which is now or hereafter may be, chartered by an act of congress, in such city, town or precinct upon recommendation of the relief committee of said post, camp or chapter; Provided, That the recipient has been a resident of the state of Washington for at least twelve months. The orders of the commander and quartermaster or commander and adjutant or their authorized delegate, shall be a proper voucher for the expenditure of such money.

Sec. 14, Section 5, page 209, Laws of 1888 as last amended by section 5, chapter 180, Laws of 1947 and RCW 73.08.060 are each amended to read as follows:

County commissioners are hereby prohibited from sending [indigent Union, Spanish American war soldiers, sailors and marines, soldiers, sailors and marines who have served the United States in the United States army, navy, or marine corps between April 6, 1917, and the date upon which peace is finally concluded with the German government and its allies, or soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States in any other foreign war, insurrection or expedition, which service shall be governed by the issuance of a campaign badge by the government of the United States of America, or any members of the armed forces of the United States in the existing war between the United States and Germany and her allies or the existing war between the United States and Japan and her allies (or their families or the families of the deceased), of the classes of persons mentioned in RCW 73.08.010,] soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the armed forces of the United States in the Civil War, the war with Mexico, any of the Indian wars in the United States or its territories, the Spanish-American war, the Philippine insurrection, and soldiers, sailors, marines, coast guardsmen or members of the air force or flying corps who served the United States during World War I, World War II, The Korean conflict, the Viet Nam conflict, or in any other foreign war, insurrection, expedition, or campaign for which a campaign badge or ribbon shall have been awarded, and their indigent spouses and minor children or the surviving indigent spouse and minor children of those deceased who need assistance, to any almshouse (or orphan asylum) without the concurrence and consent of the commander and relief committee of the post, camp or chapter of any national organization of veterans now, or which may hereafter be, chartered by an act of congress as provided in RCW 73.08.010 and 73.08.030. Indigent veterans shall, whenever practicable, be provided for and relieved at their homes in such city, town or precinct in which they shall have a residence, in the manner provided in RCW 73.08.010 and 73.08.030. Indigent or disabled veterans of the classes specified in RCW 73.08.010, who are not insane and have no families or friends with whom they may be domiciled, may be sent to any soldiers' home."

In line 1 of the title after "preferences" and before the comma, strike everything down to "veteran" on line 2

In line 10 of the title of the printed bill, being line 9 of the engrossed bill, after the semicolon following "RCW 72.36.080" insert "amending section 7, chapter 210, Laws of 1888 as last amended by section 7, chapter 144, Laws of 1945 and RCW 73.08.080;"

Following the Senate amendment to the title by Senator Neill, being in line 16 of the title of the engrossed bill, after the semicolon following "RCW 28.77.080" and before "and adding" insert "amending section 1, page 208, Laws of 1888 as last amended by section 1, chapter 180, Laws of 1947 and RCW 73.08.010; amending section 5, page 209, Laws of 1888 as last amended by section 5, chapter 180, Laws of 1947 and RCW 73.08.060;"; and the same is herewith transmitted.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 8, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Engrossed House Bill No. 930 and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Synder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 7, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House adheres to its position on the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 165 and said bill together with the House amendments are herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

MOTIONS

It was moved by Senator Woodall that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 165.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Greive, the motion by Senator Woodall was made a special order of business on the proper order of business for Monday, April 10, 1967.

FIRST READING OF HOUSE BILL

The following was read first time by title and acted upon as indicated:

Engrossed House Bill No. 930, by Representatives Bagnariol and Barden:

An Act relating to industrial insurance; and amending section 51.24.010, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 7, chapter 274, Laws of 1961, and RCW 51.24.010.

On motion of Senator Freise, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 930 was advanced to second reading and read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Freise, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 930 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman:

"Mr. President, would Senator Rasmussen yield to a question:

"Senator Rasmussen, in looking at this it appears that this would remove the workman's third party cause of action in all instances where there is rental equipment used on the job, is that correct?"

Senator Rasmussen:

"Rental equipment where they are covered by industrial insurance, yes."

Senator Uhlman:

"What is the rationale behind limiting it to rental equipment?"

Senator Rasmussen:

"Let me give this illustration: If I am a general contractor and I have enough business so that I own my cranes or I lease cranes and operate them myself, all of my employees will be covered under the industrial insurance act and would be limited to third party suits. Now a large number of contractors do not own enough of this large equipment, but the particular agency that is handling them rents them, brings them in for a day or two or whatever time they desire to use them for a particular phase of the job, but the owner of the equipment covers his employees under the industrial insurance act. They are working all on the same job. One party that gets injured is no different from other people working for the same contractor. There are no third party suits allowed, and it is just extending it only to those cases where they are all covered under the industrial insurance act."

Senator Uhlman:

"But isn't it a fact under the existing law the individual worker who is injured, has an option? You are taking this option away from him when rental equipment is being used. Is that the purpose or design here?"

Senator Rasmussen:

"This is correct."

Senator Uhlman:

"Well, the question is basically why? I don't see the rationale. Why shouldn't he still have the option to bring a third party suit or sue under the contract?"

Senator Rasmussen:

"Well, I think that the whole intent of the industrial insurance act is where an employer covers his employees under the act, it is both a protection to the employee and the employer. Now the very fact that he has other equipment on the grounds still does not say that the act isn't in effect. This is a protection for which they cover the employees. It has been approved by labor and approved by the department of labor and industries. I am not involved in the contracting business, but I think it does seem if the employer covers the employees under the act, he should have the protection of the act. This is what we have been pointing out for years and years. We want the insurance act for the protection of the employees and when all of the employers cover their employees, they should have some protection, too."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore:

"Mr. President, would Senator Guess yield to a question:

"Senator Guess, what if there is a defect in the crane? Say that there is some internal defect in the tensile strength of the crane and the crane collapses on the man. Under this amendment, you would have no option to sue the crane company, would you?"

Senator Guess:

"I'd like to defer to Senator Freise."

Senator Freise:

"Senator, your lessor would be liable for leasing a defective crane. That isn't the situation here at all. This is where a lessor leases a crane and the crane operator to a contractor. The contractor covers the employee who is running this crane, and the contractor and the employee should be covered by the industrial insurance. That's what we have all said. If the crane operator who went along with the crane was negligent, he would not be covered under the act and we are trying to cover him under the act for the protection of the employee as well as the employer. Labor is one hundred percent for this. They asked that this be introduced."

Senator Dore:

"May I ask another question:

"In the situation where the crane is rented by the lessor to a particular job and assume there is something wrong with the crane. It has a defect in the tensile strength and it collapses on a workman. At the present time, the workman now has an option to sue that lessor. Now under this act, are you eliminating that option for the employee to sue?"

Senator Freise:

"This is not eliminating the suit against the lessor if the lessor is negligent in furnishing a defective crane."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, Engrossed House Bill No. 930 was ordered to retain its place on the third reading calendar for Monday, April 10, 1967.

On motion of Senator Freise, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 518 was referred to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules.

At 11:25 a.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until Monday, April 10, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

THIRTY-SECOND DAY

NOON SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Monday, April 10, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at noon by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Freise and Neill.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senators Freise and Neill were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Rex Strickland, Color Bearer, and Jenny Parker, presented the Colors.

Reverend Walter A. MacArthur, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Today, Eternal God, we come to Thee in this opening moment of prayer seeking for light enough to walk by. Circumstances of our time are dismaying, resources of our souls are inadequate, unless Thou dost replenish them. Come then, right now, and enter into our lives this day. Make them Thine.

"We turn to Thee from the perplexities and uncertainties which daily beset us. Often we lose the way of certitude and self-control. Redeem us from frustration and fear. Save us from repetition of old errors and the restoration of old evils.

"Teach us so to wait upon Thee for power and guidance that we may renew our strength, may mount up with wings as eagles, may run and not be weary, may walk and not faint. We pray in the Redeemer's name. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 12:45 p.m.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1967 EX - 33

By Senators Uhlman and Lennart:

Whereas, The rapidly growing size and complexity of state government has made it increasingly possible for the ordinary citizen to suffer at official hands inequity, injustice or discrimination, for which there is no easily available remedy presently provided; and

Whereas, Other governments have solved this problem by establishing the office of ombudsman, to which an individual allegedly the victim of official wrong or mistake can turn for redress; and

Whereas, The problem for which the office of ombudsman is conceived as a solution will inevitably grow more pressing during the biennium, as our government continues its inevitable expansion; and

Whereas, It will consequently be even more important to give it consideration in 1969 than it is at present;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the Legislative Council be directed to study the plan for establishment of the office of ombudsman embodied in Senate Bill No. 29, with a view to the preparation of legislation to carry this plan into effect.

Be It Further Resolved, That the Legislative Council be directed to report the results of its study together with recommendations and such drafts of legislation as it may deem appropriate to the forty-first session of the Legislature.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 34

By Senators Rasmussen and Ridder:

Whereas, The decision by Trucking Employers, Incorporated, an organization representing the trucking industry management, to stage a lock-out has crippled the nation's transportation economy; and

Whereas, Such a lock-out represents the biggest trucking shutdown in American history; and

Whereas, Not only are 1,500 of the nation's trucking firms closed down, but also affected are the operations of thousands of smaller carriers that operate as feeder lines between the big firms; and

Whereas, The lock-out came while negotiations between labor and management were still in progress; and

Whereas, Talks have not been broken off by the Teamsters union and the union pledged that it would never call a nationwide strike; and

Whereas, Management, therefore, is the sole blame for the present lock-out and crippling of the entire nation's economy;

Now, Therefore Be It Resolved That, The Senate condemn Trucking Industry Employers, Incorporated, for shutting down the nation's trucking industry, in an uncalled for action taken while union officials were still bargaining in good faith;

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to President Lyndon B. Johnson, Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz and the members of the Washington State congressional delegation.

It was moved by Senator Rasmussen that the resolution be adopted.

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the resolution be made a special order of business under the first order of business for tomorrow.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Andersen:

"Mr. President:

"Would a motion to refer this resolution to Senator Rasmussen's committee on Labor and Social Security take precedence over the motion by Senator Greive? If so, I would like to make a motion to that effect to determine the facts."

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President:

"Under Senate Rule 21, you will see the motions are of the same quality and same status, therefore my motion, since it was made first, would have to be voted up or down before we could go to yours."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President believes Senator Greive's remarks are well taken in that your motion and Senator Greive's motion are of equal rank and the President should put Senator Greive's motion first."

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Andersen:

"Mr. President, further point of parliamentary inquiry:

"If Senator Greive's motion should succeed if, it were continued to a day certain, that is, tomorrow, would it then be the case that my motion to refer the resolution to Senator Rasmussen's committee would be in order, or would it not be in order until tomorrow if this motion were voted on affirmatively by the body?"

Senator Greive:

"I think in Senate Rule 16 you will find we can only debate that which is before us. It would be in order tomorrow."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President believes that is correct."

The motion by Senator Greive was carried and further consideration of the resolution was deferred until the first order of business tomorrow.

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 35

By Senator Pritchard:

Whereas, The government of the United States of America has declared that a substantial portion of Fort Lawton, located in the city of Seattle, soon will be declared to be surplus and will be made available by sale or otherwise to some private or public agency through the General Services Administration; and

Whereas, This piece of property is one of the last large tracts of land that possesses an unlimited potential for park, recreational and educational activities; and

Whereas, The buildings on this federal reservation have a high utility for educational and other purposes; and

Whereas, Seattle and the entire Puget Sound country is undergoing a tremendous population growth and the needs of this area are increasing in direct proportion to this growth;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate of the state of Washington that the city of Seattle, the county of King and the other counties experiencing this unprecedented growth, together with the state of Washington join hands in making every effort possible to retain this property for public use.

On motion of Senator Pritchard, the resolution was adopted.

The Secretary read:

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 8, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Senate Bill No. 9 with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 2, line 19, after "fiduciary" and before the period insert "; (e) Nonprofit charitable foundations known as community foundations incorporated under the laws of the state of Washington and empowered to receive and administer funds in trust contributed for the support of multiple community charitable purposes, when such foundations: (i) are tax-exempt under federal law; (ii) are administered, in part, to foster continuity of support for local charities in accordance with changing community needs, thereby reducing the necessity of application of the trust doctrine of cy pres; (iii) are administered by a governing body of a public or representative nature, consisting of at least ten persons; (iv) control or administer trust assets with a total value in excess of two million dollars; (v) make available to the public an annual report of their sources of funds, the uses of their funds, and other information representative of their operations: Provided, That a copy of such report is forwarded to the attorney general."

On page 2, add a new section following section 2 to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A nonprofit foundation incorporated for charitable purposes, contributions to which are currently allowed as charitable deductions under the United States income tax laws, shall be exempt from all notice and filing under the provisions of this act upon filing with the attorney general a copy of the declaration of its tax-exempt status from the United States and, annually a copy of its United States tax return of an exempt corporation."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 6, section 11, line 6, after the period following "applies" strike all of the material down to and including the period following "proceeding" on line 9, and insert "He shall be notified of all judicial proceedings involving or affecting the charitable trust or its administration in which, at common law, he is a necessary or proper party as representative of the public beneficiaries."

On page 6, strike all of section 13, and renumber the remaining sections consecutively, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Gissberg, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 9.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 930 was ordered to retain its place on the third reading calendar for tomorrow.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 7, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House refuses to recede from its amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 630 and asks the Senate for a conference thereon, and the Speaker has appointed as the House conferees on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 630 and the House amendments thereto: Representatives Swayze, Day, Cunningham.

Malcolm McBeath, Chief Clerk.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the request of the House for a conference on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 630 be granted and that the President appoint a Conference Committee thereon.

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as Senate members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 630, Senators Andersen, Dore and Gissberg.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

MOTION

At 3:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 11, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

THIRTY-THIRD DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Tuesday, April 11, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Herr and Keefe.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senators Herr and Keefe were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Rex Strickland, Color Bearer, and Jenny Parker, presented the Colors.

Reverend Walter A. MacArthur, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Before we turn this day, to the perplexing affairs of state Great God, we would bring our hearts to the white light of Thy scrutiny. We would open to Thee the secret places of our lives. Cleanse the thoughts of our minds and hearts by the inspiration of Thy Holy Spirit. Confront us with our short-sightedness, our short-comings. Excite us with the possibilities of their transformation by the renewing of our minds. Rise in us like a living well of water, Empower us with hidden springs of deep resources not our own, but Thine.

"Direct our steps, guard us from error, save us from false judgments, deliver us from evil and make us faithful servants of the constituency and of thee. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of the following resolution by Senator Rasmussen, and the motion that the resolution be adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 34

By Senator Rasmussen and Ridder:

Whereas, The decision by Trucking Employers, Incorporated, an organization representing the trucking industry management, to stage a lock-out has crippled the nation's transportation economy; and

Whereas, Such a lock-out represents the biggest trucking shutdown in American history; and

Whereas, Not only are 1,500 of the nation's trucking firms closed down, but also affected are the operations of thousands of smaller carriers that operate as feeder lines between the big firms; and

Whereas, The lock-out came while negotiations between labor and management were still in progress; and

Whereas, Talks have not been broken off by the Teamsters union and the union pledged that it would never call a nationwide strike; and

Whereas, Management, therefore, is the sole blame for the present lock-out and crippling of the entire nation's economy;

Now, Therefore Be It Resolved, That the Senate condemn Trucking Industry Employers, Incorporated, for shutting down the nation's trucking industry, in an uncalled for action taken while union officials were still bargaining in good faith; and

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to President Lyndon B. Johnson, Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz and the members of the Washington State congressional delegation.

MOTIONS

It was moved by Senator Williams that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Labor and Social Security.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, further consideration of Senate Resolution No. 31 which had been made a special order of business for the first order of business today was deferred until the first order of business tomorrow.

The Secretary read:

CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 27, 1967.

Thor C. Tollefson, to the position of director of the State Department of Fisheries, appointed by the Governor May 1, 1965, for the term ending at the Governor's pleasure, succeeding George C. Starlund (reported by Committee on Natural Resources, Parks, Fisheries and Game Fish):

MAJORITY recommends that said appointment be confirmed.

Lowell Peterson, Chairman.

We concur in this report: Robert C. Bailey, Damon R. Canfield, John L. Cooney, Wilbur G. Hallauer, Al Henry, Gordon Herr, Ernest W. Lennart, Harry B. Lewis, Jack Metcalf, Ted G. Peterson, A. L. Rasmussen, Fred G. Redmon, Gordon Sandison, John H. Stender, Don L. Talley.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Thor C. Tollefson to the position of director of the State Department of Fisheries, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I think you all know — at least by name and most of you personally — Thor Tollefson. He has served some twenty years in Congress as a representative of Pierce and Kitsap counties. Thor did a great deal of work in the fisheries area when he was in Congress as a member of the fisheries committee. He served the people of his district and the people of the state of Washington in an exemplary manner and always conducted himself with the highest integrity and sincerity in his job. I think that we are all very proud of the accomplishments of Thor in his service to the people of the state of Washington, and I think we can be equally proud of his administration of the fisheries department in the state of Washington. He has a tremendous background and brings to that job the administrative ability as well as the depth of knowledge of the subject which he is handling in the department. I certainly urge your favorable vote on his confirmation."

Senator Peterson (Ted):

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"It is a pleasure to second the confirmation of Thor Tollefson. We on the interim committee on fisheries in the last two years have had the experience of working with him. We know that he is knowledgeable and the suggestions he has made have been such that we feel fisheries is on the upgrade all through the state of Washington, with stream clearance and conservation and rehabilitation, and so I am very happy to suggest that the appointment of Thor Tollefson be confirmed."

Senator Kupka:

"Mr. President:

"I want to concur in the remarks of Senator Ryder and Senator Ted Peterson. Thor Tollefson, being a native son of Pierce county, I feel that although he is a Republican and I am a Democrat, he did a good job in Congress but I think a Democrat would have done better, I do want to say a kindly word for Thor Tollefson. He is sort of a major in fisheries and we feel we can benefit from his knowledge and activity on the national level. I want to give my blessings to Thor Tollefson."

Senator Stender:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"I would like to add just one word to the endorsement of Thor Tollefson. I can say with a great deal of pride first of all that Thor Tollefson is a member of the Boilermakers' Union and worked in the shipbuilding industry in Tacoma and then of course over the years he went into law and politics and went into the job in Washington D.C. where he did a wonderful job for a good many years in supporting the industries that are so important to us here on the Pacific Coast, particularly the Northwest. He was also a member of the Shipbuilding and Maritime Committee and did a wonderful job helping develop the shipbuilding industry on the Pacific Coast and in the country generally. I think it's one of the things that the gentleman that spoke before the Senate a few days ago was concerned about, that we have slipped back so tremendously since Thor has left Washington and I have noticed it and I think many people who were close to this industry have noticed this. I know that Thor continues to do a real good job in the interest of the public and the state of Washington and I am happy to have had an opportunity to vote for his confirmation."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF THOR TOLLEFSON

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Thor Tollefson to the position of director of the Department of Fisheries was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—45.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, Durkan, Hallauer, 3.

Excused: Senator Keefe—1.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of Thor Tollefson to the position of director of the Department of Fisheries was confirmed.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, April 7, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Member, State Liquor Control Board, subject to your confirmation:

Leroy Hittle, appointed April 7, 1967, for a term ending January 15, 1973, replacing Robert L. Hagist.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 7, 1967.

Leroy Hittle, to the position of member of the State Liquor Control Board, appointed by the Governor April 7, 1967, for the term ending January 15, 1973, succeeding Robert L. Hagist (reported by Committee on Liquor Control):

Recommends that said appointment be confirmed.

Frank Connor, Chairman.

We concur in this report: James A. Andersen, Fred H. Dore, Al Henry, George Kupka, Robert W. Twigg, Perry B. Woodall.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Leroy Hittle to the position of member of the State Liquor Control Board, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President:

"It is with considerable pleasure that I rise as the first of several people to recommend to this body that we confirm unanimously the appointment of Leroy Hittle. I think all of us have had the opportunity over the past years — in my case it's twenty years and for other members it is for varying lengths of time — to have observed Mr. Hittle in action.

"You know they say there are some people who can read your hand and determine from the lines in your palm what type of personal life you lead and so forth. There are other people called phrenologists who claim to be able to look at your skull and do the same thing and then there are neurologists that say they can find out a great deal about you from tracings of your heart and brain. I never had the utmost confidence in the other forms but when we have had the opportunity over the years to have seen Mr. Hittle's chronicling of the events of this body and we have observed the same events that he has, I think all of us can unanimously agree that whatever you can say about Mr. Hittle, he has been fair. Indeed he is the only person I know in my personal experience—I don't know whether he leans toward the Democrat or Republican philosophy. I've known him well. I've gone to dinner with him many times. We have been friends not only during the sessions, but between sessions. He has been to my home. I have been to his, and I am a good personal friend of his and I have yet to know or be able to determine in my own mind that he is either Republican or Democrat.

"It's rather significant that the same position was offered to him by Governor Rosellini. I don't know how many of you realize that. He was offered a position on the liquor control board, offered exactly the same term that he is now filling out. He could have had the appointment and he turned it down at that time for personal reasons. It seems Mr. Hittle had not yet completed his retirement and he felt it would be unwise. Now he is free to accept it without losing the seniority he has built up over the years. But it's interesting to note that we have here a man who has been offered the same position by both sides of the aisle, which I think testifies eloquently to the fact he is truly non-partisan. It has always been my feeling that there is no such a person as a non-partisan, but if there is, he is one. I presume now he will have to take a side. That's something that goes with the particular political position and we will just have to see. I can say this: He does have the respect, the utmost respect of virtually every member of the body.

"He has shown also that he is a bit of a general when it comes to putting bills through, when it came to the four-year college. I think all of us realize although he didn't overtly become involved in the particular merits, that behind the scenes the entire session he wrote the reports and conducted a great deal of the surveys and did much of the work which eventually led to the location of the four-year college here.

"He has the high regard of those who know him. When you look and survey the man, I think that the Governor has picked an excellent appointment. I would like to say one other thing that happened about a month ago to Mr. Hittle and myself that I think best portrays his attitude and the type of man he is in his unassuming way. My wife and I were with Leroy and a young lady at the Cliff House for dinner and a boy who parked cars recognized Leroy and said, 'Don't you work for U.P.I., (United Press International)?' Well, now to most of us, if someone said we were a House member when we were a Senator, or said we were a Democrat when we were Republican or Catholic and we were Protestant, we would immediately spring to correct him. Mr. Hittle just didn't do it that way. I thought that the way that he handled the matter was beautiful. He leaned back a bit and talked to the young man about newspaper work. I don't think until he was ready to leave that he finally gently corrected the young man, and Leroy said, 'Well, actually the other is a fine newspaper service. It happens I don't work for them.' I thought it was wonderful the way he handled what could have been a very embarrassing situation to this young man who aspired to a journalistic career. I think it's also significant that in spite of the great rivalry between the two newspaper services, one of his strongest supporters and closest friends is the chief of staff of the other newspaper service.

"I think all these things put together lead me to believe one thing: I think everybody in this body and everybody who knows Leroy Hittle will agree on one term: It couldn't happen to a nicer guy."

Senator Henry:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to second the remarks by Senator Greive and also to say that if there is ever a man who could write a newspaper column with an adding machine, it's Leroy Hittle. I recall the days when Senator Woodall used to be so frustrated when asking questions of a certain chairman of the appropriations committee and was getting folded in with verbosity shall we say, the man that we are talking about here this morning came up with the facts very clearly because there was nothing that goes into those budgets that Leroy Hittle couldn't bring out.

"Let me tell you something else as a matter of diplomacy, and he is going to need all he can get in this new position. One of the questions I asked him when he was interviewed the other day was that at present it was presumed there has to be two Republicans and one Democrat on the liquor control board, and that you will be assuming the position as a Republican. He corrected me and the law is correct as he quoted it: 'There shall not be more than two members of any political party on the board.' It doesn't say there can't be one Democrat, one Republican and one non-partisan. For that reason, I think that you are still going to have trouble finding out what his political affiliations are.

"I might go a little further and say he was also offered positions in state government under Governor Walgren and Governor Langlie, as well as Governor Rosellini and Governor Evans, and I think the Governor has made an excellent choice. Leroy has a rough road ahead because it is a very sensitive position, and I am sure he can handle the job."

Senator Lewis:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I, too, would like to wholeheartedly endorse the appointment by Governor Evans of Leroy Hittle. I would like to speak to you gentlemen on the floor of the Senate about Mr. Hittle's attitudes in the community of Olympia and Thurston county generally. He has long been an active member of our community, has taken an active and a responsible part in many of the issues that face Thurston county and Olympia, as you are well aware. He worked hard and diligently during the interim using his vast knowledge in support of the new four-year college. I would also like to remind you of his vast knowledge of state government through twenty years' experience in diagnosing and working with the legislature on various matters that come before it. I think that this knowledge and experience and background will benefit the state of Washington greatly in the highly sensitive position which he will be taking on the liquor control board.

"He is known throughout Thurston county for his fairness, for his objectiveness and for his respect of personal views of people and for people themselves. He has the respect of the community and he has the respect of the members of the legislature and I urge you to unanimously support him in this appointment."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I, too, wish to join in the words of praise for Leroy Hittle, having known him for some twenty years. I consider him an excellent choice. I also think that the Governor was very smart. I don't know how he achieved his aims over some of the other governors that have wanted Leroy Hittle to work for them, but he did. The people of the state will benefit. I might say also that where the liquor control board gained, the new four-year college probably lost a president or at least a head of the newspaper division in the college, so there is a loss to the four-year college, but a gain to the liquor control board. I urge you to confirm his appointment."

Senator McCutcheon:

"Mr. President:

"I, too, want to join the very numerous speeches around here and okay all of them. It just occurred to me that as I came in the foyer, this word, 'liquor,' seems to loosen the tongues. That is why we hear so much oratory. But we all know Leroy Hittle. Most of us have known him for twenty years. He is a man you judge not by what he says but what he does and his conduct speaks for itself. I think this is a grand appointment."

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"As one of those upon whom it fell the lot to make a decision as to whether or not to sign a do pass report on his predecessor or not, I merely want to advise the Senate of the complete spirit of unity that existed in Chairman Connor's liquor control committee when this particular name was considered. There was never at any time any feeling in anyone's mind what the answer should be. Some even felt perhaps it was not necessary to even have the meeting and ask what questions we did. As Senator Henry has said, all of his answers were excellent and pleasing to the entire committee. I certainly believe that in the time ahead we will find that the liquor control board will gain one thing that it has been perhaps lacking through the years and that is the matter of public relations. Some people have made statements that could have been thought out more carefully. Certainly the presence of this man, Leroy Hittle, on the liquor control board will probably do more in a public relations way to establish this board in the public mind and improve its image than any other person could have added to it. It is hoped that we will now enter into an era where there will be no inter-board bickering, where these three people can work as a team and where legislative interim committees will have nothing to inquire into."

Senator Kupka:

"Mr. President and lady and gentlemen of the Senate:

"Without making it sound like we are talking about a departed friend, I too want to give my blessings to Leroy Hittle. I was a member of the committee on liquor control meeting that made the other decision not to confirm, and at this meeting to confirm Leroy Hittle. I, too, through observations throughout the years I have been here, have always had a high regard for him. I wasn't aware he was a candidate for this particular position, but I have every confidence in the world he is going to do a grand job, and I certainly endorse his confirmation."

Senator Bailey:

"Mr. President:

"Speaking from the standpoint of a person having been connected with newspapers, I would like to comment that ordinarily these people are noted for imbibing and in this case it's going to be interesting to see how a newspaper man feels on the regulation and use of it. I do think Leroy will do an excellent job. I hate to see him leave the bureau but I am looking forward to working with him at various times on the liquor control board and I think every member of the Senate feels the same way."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF LEROY HITTLE

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Leroy Hittle to the position of member of the State Liquor Control Board, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 2.

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 10, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 442 with the following amendments:

In line 4 of the title of the printed bill, being line 3 of the reengrossed bill, after the semicolon following "directors" insert "establishing limitations on school district board membership;"

In line 8 of the title of the printed bill, being in line 7 of the reengrossed bill, after the semicolon following "chapter 28.19 RCW" insert "amending section 25, Laws of 1886 as last amended by section 16, chapter 139, Laws of 1965 and RCW 28.20.010; amending section 5, chapter 218, Laws of 1955 and RCW 28.04.040;"

On page 3, section 3, line 11 of the printed and reengrossed bill, following "intermediate district" insert a new paragraph as follows:

"No member of a board of directors of a local school district shall continue to serve in that capacity after having been elected to an intermediate district board: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply to any intermediate district board members during their present term of office."

On page 3 of the printed and reengrossed bill, add two new sections following section 4 to read as follows:

"Sec. 5. Section 25, page 11, Laws of 1886 as last amended by section 16, chapter 139, Laws of 1965, and RCW 28.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

In each county, not within an intermediate district, there shall be a county board of education, which shall consist of five members elected by the voters of the county, one from each of five county board-member districts, such districts to be determined by the county committee on school district organization. Such county board-member districts shall be arranged on a basis of equal population and so that not more than one member of the county board shall come from any one school district: Provided, That in counties having less than five school districts, then the county board-member districts shall be arranged so as to give, as far as practicable, representation, according to equal population: Provided Further, That the county committee, at any time that such committee deems it advisable, shall change the boundaries of county board-member districts so as to provide as far as practicable equal representation according to population of such board-member districts.

In any county having a joint school district with another county, all of the territory within such joint district and lying within both counties shall be included within a board-member district of the county within which the administrative office of such joint district is located, and the electors residing therein shall be eligible to vote for and hold membership on the county board of education of such county.

Filing of candidacy for the county board shall be with the county superintendent not more than sixty days nor less than forty-five days prior to the election, and he shall certify the names to the officials conducting the elections in all districts.

Election of board members shall be held at the time of the regular election of school district directors. Such election shall be called and notice thereof given by the county superintendent in the manner provided by law for giving notice of the election of school district directors and such election shall be conducted by the official in each school district who conducts the election of school district directors and in conjunction with the election of school district directors. The term of office for each board member shall be four years and until his successor is duly elected and qualified. No member of a board of directors of a local school district shall continue to serve in that capacity after having been elected to a county board: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply to any county board members during their present term of office.

The term of every county board member shall begin on the twentieth day following his election and each county board shall be organized at the first meeting held after a newly elected member takes office. In the event of a vacancy in the board from any cause, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment of a person from the same board-member district by the board of county commissioners. The appointed board member shall serve until the next regular election, at which time there shall be elected a member to fill the unexpired term of the member of the board whose position has been vacated.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 218, Laws of 1955 and RCW 28.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Candidates for membership on the state board of education shall file declarations of candidacy with the superintendent of public instruction on forms prepared by the superintendent. Declarations of candidacy may be filed by person or by mail not earlier than the first day of September, nor later than the sixteenth day of September. The superintendent of public instruction may not accept any declaration of candidacy that is not on file in his office or is not postmarked before the seventeenth day of September. No person employed in any school, college, university, or other educational institution or any county school superintendent's office or in the office of superintendent of public instruction shall be eligible for membership on the state board of education and each member elected must be a resident of the congressional district from which he was elected. No member of a board of directors of a local school district shall continue to serve in that capacity after having been elected to the state board: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply to any state board members during their present term of office."

Renumber the remaining section accordingly., and the same is herewith transmitted.
Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 442.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 442, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 0.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—46.

Those voting nay were: Senator Lewis—1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Lennart, Pritchard—2.

Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 442, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Senate Bill No. 643, by Senators Kupka, Durkan and Stender:

An Act relating to claims in certain distraint and insolvency proceedings. Referred to Committee on Commerce, Manufacturing and Licenses.

FIRST READING OF HOUSE BILL

The following was read first time by title and acted upon as indicated:

House Bill No. 681, by Representatives Bagnariol, Gladder and Merrill:

An Act relating to insurance; prohibiting sale of profit sharing, charter, or founders life insurance policies; regulating the sale of coupon life insurance policies; prescribing the powers and duties of the insurance commissioner in relation thereto; and adding a new chapter to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to Title 48 RCW.

Referred to Committee on Banks, Financial Institutions and Insurance.

The Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The Senate resumed consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 165 and Senator Woodall's motion that the Senate concur in the House amendments.

It was moved by Senator Woodall that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 165.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey:

"Mr. President, would Senator Woodall yield to a question:

"Do I understand that a representative of the American Legion has approved this approach of using the excess in the Soldiers' and Sailors' indigent fund for the mental retardation?"

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"He has stated — and in fact I asked him to check with the Department Commander to verify it — that as long as the veterans get first preference in this fund and it is merely the surplus that goes to mental retardation, he feels it will not impair the veterans' program."

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Knoblauch that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 165 be made a special order of business for tomorrow, on the fifth order of business.

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield:

"Mr. President:

"I'd like to ask Senator Ryder to yield to a question.

"I'm not quite sure just what this wording means in this amendment which we are discussing. May the county use the existing surplus or does this permit them to use the anticipated or estimated future surplus for the retardation work? It's one thing that they can take an existing surplus which might exist for twelve months, but in the wording of this amendment it says, 'which may in the future—' that they are authorized to commit for the future. I'd like to have that explained because I'm not just sure what that means."

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"It is my understanding of the amendment, Senator Canfield, that the mental retardation program could use only that amount which was actually surplus; that the veterans' groups first use the amount that is necessary to take care of the problem for which it was originally designed. Then if there is any money left over it may go to the mentally retarded schools but only if the money is left and only that money which is left over. I don't think there could be any commitment in the future for any amount of money because they would not know what the surplus would be."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Knoblauch was carried and the matter was made a special order of business under the fifth order of business for tomorrow.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Senate No. 579, by Senators Washington, Knoblauch and Pritchard:
Regulating junkyards located along certain public highways.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Bill No. 579:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 20, 1967.

Regulating junkyards located along certain public highways (reported by Committee on Highways):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 3, section 4, line 8, after "such highway" strike the remainder of the sentence, down to the period on line 10.

On page 3, section 4, line 18, after "Provided," strike all of the remainder of the section and insert the following: "That if it be construed that in order to obtain effective control of the establishment and maintenance of outdoor junkyards as prescribed in section 136, Title 23, United States Code that compensation be paid upon the removal of any junk, then compensation shall be paid and the junk removed as may be required in order to obtain such effective control. If compensation is required to be paid under the above proviso, the commission is authorized to pay such compensation and to acquire by purchase, gift or condemnation such property interests, both personal and real, as may be required to carry out the purposes of this act. This provision is not intended to alter the laws of the state of Washington relating to compensation in eminent domain."

Nat Washington, Chairman,
Al Henry, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: Robert C. Bailey, Dewey C. Donohue, Larry Faulk, Sam C. Guess, Wilbur G. Hallauer, Reuben A. Knoblauch, August P. Mardesich, Richard G. (Dick) Marquardt, Ted G. Peterson, Joel M. Pritchard, Fred G. Redmon, Robert C. Ridder, Walter B. Williams.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Washington that the committee amendments be adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender:

"Mr. President, would Senator Washington yield to a question:

"Senator Washington, it seems to me that in the regular session we had a bill that dealt with junkyards. Is this a similar bill? We passed one here—I think I recall—and as a matter of fact I think Senator Knoblauch was involved with that bill. Is this a different bill to cover a different area?"

Senator Washington:

"This is a different bill which relates to bringing the laws of the state of Washington into compliance with the federal beautification act of 1965. It is required that the states pass legislation which is in accordance with the federal act in order not to be in danger of losing federal matching funds. Of course the federal government puts up seventy-five percent of the cost of carrying out the provisions of this particular act."

Senator Stender:

"Another question: In the other bill we referred to a moment ago there was some concern on my part with regard to a particular wrecking yard along the highway that was there long before the interstate system was built. As I read this bill — in the other bill the proposal was not to interfere with the existing operation, but to screen that particular yard. Senate Bill No. 579 provides that there is to be a removal."

Senator Washington:

"The federal law provides that if there is to be a removal there has to be just compensation. We are complying with the federal law in this particular case. It does provide for compensation and there is a federal appropriation to carry it out."

The motion was carried and the committee amendments were adopted.

It was moved by Senator Herrmann that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 5 following section 8, add nine new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 46.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person who wilfully abandons any motor vehicle within the limits of any highway or upon property other than his own without the consent of the owner thereof for a period of longer than twenty-four hours shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than ten days or both: Provided, That a vehicle shall not be considered to be abandoned if a motorist is unable to remove his motor vehicle from such property and so notifies law enforcement officials and requests assistance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 46.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The abandonment of any vehicle as provided for in section 9 of this 1967 amendatory act shall constitute a prima facie presumption that the last registered owner of record is responsible for such abandonment of the vehicle and for costs of removing the same.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 46.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The Washington state patrol shall enter into contracts for the purpose of removing abandoned motor vehicles from public highways or other places under its jurisdictions and storing such vehicles. Such contracts shall limit the amounts which may be charged for towing and storage services and may be with individual tow truck operators or with combinations of tow truck operators. The Washington state patrol shall cancel such contracts if tow truck operators fail to comply with administrative regulations relative to the handling and disposing of motor vehicles that may be promulgated by the department of motor vehicles as being reasonably necessary to facilitate the disposition of abandoned motor vehicles while safeguarding the interests of the motor vehicle owning public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 46.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director of the department of motor vehicles may appoint any tow truck operator under contract to the Washington state patrol or to city or county officials for the purpose of removing and storing abandoned motor vehicles as his agent for the purpose of disposing of certain abandoned motor vehicles. Each such appointment shall be contingent upon the posting of a bond in the face amount of three thousand dollars to ensure compliance with RCW 46.52.110 and to compensate the owner of any vehicle that has been unlawfully sold as a result of the negligence or misconduct of the tow truck operator.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 46.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any tow truck operator under contract to city or county officials who fails to comply with administrative regulations relative to the handling and disposing of motor vehicles that may be promulgated by the department of motor vehicles shall be ineligible to be appointed as the agent of the director of the department of motor vehicles for the purpose of disposing of certain abandoned motor vehicles. Any such existing appointment shall be canceled and the Washington state patrol shall not refer vehicles to such operator.

Sec. 14. Section 46.52.110, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 23, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 46.52.110 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the sheriff of every county, the chief of police or chief police officer of every incorporated city and town of this state, constables and members of the Washington state patrol to report immediately to the chief of the Washington state patrol all motor vehicles reported to them as stolen or recovered, upon forms to be provided by the chief of the Washington state patrol.

In the event that any motor vehicle reported as stolen has been recovered, the person so reporting the same as stolen shall be guilty of a misdemeanor unless he shall report the recovery thereof to the sheriff, chief of police, or other chief police officer to whom such motor vehicle was reported as stolen or to the chief of the Washington state patrol.

Upon receipt of such information the chief of the Washington state patrol shall [file] record the same in a "stolen vehicle index." He shall also [file] record any reports of vehicles stolen in other states and reported to him as such. It shall be the duty of the chief of the Washington state patrol to keep a [file] record of all vehicles reported to him as recovered.

The chief of the Washington state patrol shall publish at least once a [month] week a list of all vehicles reported as stolen and not reported as having been recovered and all abandoned vehicles and forward a copy of such list to every sheriff in this state, the chief of police or chief police officer of every incorporated city and town with a population in excess of three thousand inhabitants, the director of the department of motor vehicles, and each member of the Washington state patrol and the cognizant state officer of each state in the United States.

[Such information shall be provided by the chief of the Washington state patrol for the use of the director of licenses as will permit the director of licenses to] The director of the department of motor vehicles shall check the motor or serial number set forth in any application for certificate of ownership or certificate of license registration against such "stolen vehicle index" and no such certificates shall be issued upon any vehicle recorded as stolen and the director of [licenses] the department of motor vehicles shall immediately inform the chief of the Washington state patrol of any application upon any such vehicle.

It shall be the duty of the sheriff of every county, the chief of police or chief police officer of each incorporated city and town, members of the Washington state patrol and constables to report to the chief of the Washington state patrol and the director of the department of motor vehicles all vehicles found abandoned on a public highway or at any other place and the same shall be taken into the custody of the [sheriff of the county wherein found abandoned] tow truck operator under contract to the Washington state patrol for the area in which the vehicle is found abandoned or to the tow truck operator under contract to officials of the city or county wherein the vehicle is found abandoned, and stored and the same shall, for the purposes of listing the same, be considered as a recovered vehicle.

Personal notice that such vehicle has been found abandoned shall be forwarded by the director of the department of motor vehicles to the registered and legal owners of such vehicle if any record of registered or legal owner thereof exists in this state. In the event there appears to be a registered or legal ownership thereof in another state the [sheriff] director of the department of motor vehicles shall send notice thereof to the official having cognizance of issuing legal or registered ownerships in such other state. If, at the expiration of twenty days from the date of mailing such notices by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested, the vehicle remains unclaimed and has not been reported as a stolen vehicle, the director of the department of motor vehicles may, subject to the following requirements, authorize the disposition of the vehicle.

If such vehicle is less than ten model years old, then the same may be sold at public auction by the county sheriff either at the site of the vehicle or at such place on county property as the board of county commissioners may direct upon notice published in one issue of a paper of general circulation in the county in which such vehicle has been found abandoned, such publication to describe the vehicle and set forth the place, date and time at which such vehicle shall be put up for public auction, which date shall be not sooner than three days following the date of such publication. Any surplus accruing at said sale after deducting [the] allowable costs of placing the vehicle in custody as provided for in the tow truck operator's contract with city or county officials or with the state patrol, advertising and selling the same, shall be held for the owner a period of ten days and if not claimed by the expiration thereof shall be certified one-half to the county treasurer of such county to be placed in the county current expense fund and one-half to the state treasurer to be credited to the highway safety fund.

If no bids are received at said sale the sheriff shall deliver the vehicle to the garage operators who may be entitled to reimbursement for towing and storing the vehicle. In this event such garage operators may dispose of all or any part of the vehicle as they may determine.

If such vehicle is of a model year ten or more years prior to the calendar year in which such vehicle is stored with the contract tow truck operator, the director of the department of motor vehicles may appoint the tow truck operator under contract according to the provisions of section 11 or 12 as his agent for the purpose of selling such vehicle. Such contract tow truck operator may sell the vehicle at public auction upon notice published in one issue of a paper of general circulation in the county in which such vehicle has been found abandoned, such publication to describe the vehicle and set forth the place, date and time at which such vehicle shall be put up for public auction, which date shall be not sooner than three days following the date of such publication.

The director of the department of motor vehicles shall confer with the chief of the Washington state patrol and shall promulgate such additional administrative regulations as are reasonably necessary to facilitate the disposition of abandoned motor vehicles by contract tow truck operators while safeguarding the interests of the motor vehicle owning public.

Any surplus accruing at said sale after deducting allowable costs of placing the vehicle in custody as provided for in the tow truck operator's contract with city or county officials or with the state patrol, advertising and selling the same, shall be forwarded to the sheriff of the county along with a copy of the receipt establishing the sale price of the vehicle and held for the owner a period of ten days and if not claimed by the expiration thereof shall be certified one-half to the county treasurer of such county to be placed in the county current expense fund and one-half to the state treasurer to be credited to the highway safety fund.

If no bids are received at said auction, the contract tow truck operator shall certify that fact to the director of the department of motor vehicles. Thereafter, the director may issue an appropriate bill of sale to the tow truck operator authorizing the disposition of all or any part of the vehicle as said operator may determine.

Any vehicle left in a garage for storage more than fifteen days where the same has not been left by the registered owner under a contract of storage and has not during such period been removed by the person leaving the same shall be an abandoned vehicle and [shall be delivered to the sheriff of the county with notice of such fact] the contract tow truck operator or garage operator shall give notice of such fact to the director of the department of motor vehicles. Any garage keeper failing to report such fact to the [sheriff and tender delivery to him of such vehicle] director of the department of motor vehicles at the end of fifteen days shall thereby forfeit any claims for the storage of such vehicle. All such vehicles considered abandoned by being left in a garage shall be disposed of in accordance with the procedure prescribed above for abandoned vehicles.

Except for the forfeiture of claim for storage as set forth herein for failure to report vehicle left in excess of fifteen days, nothing in this section shall be construed to impair any lien for storage accruing to a garage keeper under other [law] laws of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 46.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If the sum of money received from the sale or disposition of an abandoned vehicle is insufficient to pay allowable costs of placing the vehicle in custody, advertising and selling the same, the contract tow truck operator or the sheriff of the county may bring a civil action against the last registered owner of record for the balance of disposal costs incurred.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 9 through 14 of this 1967 amendatory act shall take effect on September 1, 1967.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. 'This chapter', as used in sections 1 through 8 of this 1967 amendatory act shall mean and include only such sections 1 through 8 hereof but 'this chapter' as used in section 9 of the printed bill, renumbered section 18 hereof, shall mean and include sections 1 through 16 hereof."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President, point of order:

"I object to the amendment on the ground that it extends the scope and object of the bill, in opposition to our Senate Rules, and in opposition to the provisions of the state constitution.

"Speaking on the point of order, the bill itself is a bill which relates only to the control of junkyards. It is designed to bring the laws of the state of Washington into conformance with the federal requirements solely in this area, while the bill which Senator Herrmann is attempting to attach is Senate Bill No. 443 and this relates to the abandonment of motor vehicles and sets up a very comprehensive plan for the sale of the vehicles and relates specifically to chapter 46.52 R.C.W. This particular chapter is one which could very easily be litigated, and I believe would bring the whole act which is very important, Senate Bill No. 579, into court and with the very strong possibility of being declared unconstitutional in having two subjects and failing to follow the provisions of the state constitution."

Senator Herrmann:

"Mr. President, I think that the bill is germane and it is within the scope. You are dealing here with highways. You are not dealing with junkyards, period, as far as the beautification program, and if we are concerned so much about junkyards, and most of these automobiles are junkers that are left out on the highways, and if this bill concerns itself with junkers that are already in the yards that are close to the highways, certainly it's germane to have regulations in the same act pertaining to vehicles that have been abandoned. They are also a traffic hazard and also a problem for those who are forced to take them into possession and to remove them. There are many factors that enter into it, it's true, but in this bill you are dealing with automobiles on the highway or on the side of the highway and I think it is definitely within the scope and object of the bill."

Senator Guess:

"Mr. President:

"I would like to support Senator Herrmann in his offering as an amendment the contents of Senate Bill No. 443. It is a bill that has been worked out through the interim and it contains a great deal of very useful information and very useful procedures for getting the junkers off of the highways. We have had a great deal of trouble in trying to maintain provisions for calling tow trucks and trying to remove these old cars off the highways and dispose of them. This is one piece of legislation that didn't have a chance to be completed. It's a good bill and has a great deal of merit, so I would urge that we approve the amendment."

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President:

"I agree with Senator Guess that Senate Bill No. 443 may be — with a few amendments — a bill that does have a great deal of merit, but that doesn't mean that it doesn't extend the scope and object of this bill and doesn't violate the provisions of the state constitution that there be a single subject within a bill. Again pointing out this is a very complicated procedure as to the selection of wrecking agencies to tow abandoned cars off the highway and the wrecking of vehicles. It sets up a complete method for selling the vehicle and again it's an attempt to add to a relatively simple bill which is designed for one purpose which is to bring wrecking yards themselves as a beautification measure within the purview of the federal act—it's a very narrow bill to start with and of course the amendments would likewise have to be exceedingly narrow. This is a very broad bill being attempted to be added and it could be brought into court and I feel very strongly that the supreme court would hold that this is two titles and we would then find ourselves not in compliance with the federal requirements under the beautification act."

Senator Williams:

"Mr. President, I think it should be emphasized that both the bill and the amendment deal with the same problem, that is the problem of abandoned cars and what to do about them. Junkyards are essentially abandoned car yards and the amendment deals with the problem of abandoned cars so it is an abandoned car bill and an abandoned car amendment. I think they are properly together."

The President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President, ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Washington, finds that the amendment proposed by Senator Herrmann does enlarge the scope and object of the bill.

Senate Bill No. 579 is a measure relating to junkyards, which specifies certain areas not to be used for junkyards and provides many enforcement provisions to insure that our highways are not made less attractive by junkyard locations. The amendment proposed by Senator Herrmann pertains to abandoned motor vehicles and provides for disposition thereof. The point of order raised by Senator Washington is therefore well taken.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 579 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 579 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—47.

Absent or not voting: Senator McCutcheon—1.

Excused: Senator Durkan—1.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 579 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Engrossed House Bill No. 930, by Representatives Bagnariol and Barden.

Designating status of workmen employed on equipment time rented by another employer for industrial insurance recovery purposes.

On motion of Senator Greive, Engrossed House Bill No. 930 was ordered to retain its place on the second reading calendar for tomorrow.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

The Secretary read:

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 6, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 374 with the following amendments:

Beginning on page 1 strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 3, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

"Base year", [means the last calendar year preceding the first day of the benefit year] with respect to each individual, shall mean the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of the individual's benefit year.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 1, chapter 214, Laws of 1949 and RCW 50.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

"Benefit year", [means the period beginning with the first full calendar week in July and ending the following calendar year with the last calendar week beginning in June] with respect to each individual, means the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week with respect to which the individual files an application for an initial determination and thereafter, the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week with respect to which the individual next files an application for an initial determination after the termination of his last preceding benefit year: Provided, However, That a benefit year is not established unless the determination shows the applicant to have met the wage and employment conditions fixed by law as the minimum for the receipt of benefits: Provided, Further, That an individual's benefit year shall be extended to fifty-three weeks when at the expiration of fifty-two weeks the establishment of a new benefit year would result in the use of a quarter of wages in the new base year that had been included in the individual's prior base year.

Sec. 3. Section 33, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 2, chapter 8, Laws of 1953 first extraordinary session and RCW 50.04.320 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of payment of contributions, "wages" means the first three thousand three hundred dollars of remuneration paid by one employer during any calendar year to an individual in its employment under this title or the unemployment compensation law of any other state. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, if the federal unemployment tax act is amended so that the federal unemployment tax applies to an amount greater than the first three thousand three hundred dollars of remuneration paid by an employer or his predecessor to an individual during a calendar year, then such higher amount shall likewise apply for the purpose of payment of contributions by an employer or his predecessor under this title, starting with the same period to which such federal amendment first applies. [After December 31, 1950.] If an employer (hereinafter referred to as a successor employer) during any calendar year acquires substantially all the operating assets of another employer (hereinafter referred to as a predecessor employer) or assets used in a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor employer, and immediately after the acquisition employs in his trade or business an individual who immediately prior to the acquisition was employed in the trade or business of such predecessor employer, then, for the purposes of determining whether the successor employer has paid remuneration equal to three thousand three hundred dollars to such individual during such calendar year, any remuneration paid to such individual by such predecessor during such calendar year and prior to such acquisition shall be considered as having been paid by such successor employer.

For the purpose of payment of benefits, "wages" means the remuneration payable by one or more employers to an individual for employment under this title during [one calendar] his base year.

"Remuneration" means all compensation paid for personal services, including commissions and bonuses and the cash value of all compensation paid in any medium other than cash. The reasonable cash value of compensation paid in any medium other than cash and the reasonable value of gratuities shall be estimated and determined in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 4. Section 68, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 3, chapter 266, Laws of 1959 and RCW 50.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive waiting period credits or benefits with respect to any week only if the commissioner finds that

(1) he has registered for work at, and thereafter has continued to report at, an employment office in accordance with such regulation as the commissioner may prescribe, except that the commissioner may by regulation waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this subdivision as to individuals attached to regular jobs and as to such other types of cases or situations with respect to which he finds that the compliance with such requirements would be oppressive, or would be inconsistent with the purposes of this title;

(2) he has filed an application for an initial determination and made a claim for waiting period credit or for benefits in accordance with the provisions of this title;

(3) he is able to work, and is available for work in any trade, occupation, profession, or business for which he is reasonably fitted. To be available for work an individual must be ready, able, and willing, immediately to accept any suitable work which may be offered to him and must be actively seeking work pursuant to customary trade practices and through other methods when so directed by the commissioner or his agents;

(4) he has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week; [and]

(5) he has within [the] his base year [been paid] earned wages of not less than [the minimum amount now or hereafter fixed by law as the minimum amount to be earned in order to allow the individual to receive unemployment benefits] eight hundred dollars. If the base year wages of the individual's current benefit year, for any benefit year beginning after June 30, 1967, include wages earned prior to the establishment of a prior benefit year, the individual shall not be eligible for benefits unless he earned wages in the last six months of his base year equal to at least eight times his current weekly benefit amount or eight times the weekly benefit amount to which he would otherwise be entitled; and

(6) he has for any benefit year beginning after June 30, 1967, had base year employment (or been on compensable leave) in not less than twenty calendar weeks in each of which he earned wages of at least twenty dollars or has had six hundred hours of employment during his base year: Provided, That for benefit years beginning prior to July 1, 1968, any unemployed individual who earned wages of twelve hundred dollars or more in his base year shall be deemed to have met the eligibility requirements of this subsection.

If the wages of an individual are not based upon a fixed duration of time or if the individual's wages are paid at irregular intervals or in such manner as not to extend regularly over the period of employment, the wages for any week shall be determined in such manner as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe. Such regulation shall, so far as possible, secure results reasonably similar to those which would prevail if the individual were paid his wages at regular intervals.

Sec. 5. Section 80, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 2, chapter 321, Laws of 1959 and RCW 50.20.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this title benefits shall be payable to any eligible individual during [the] his benefit year in a maximum amount equal to the lesser of thirty times the weekly benefit amount (determined hereinafter) or one-third of the individual's base year wages under this title: Provided, That for benefit years beginning after March 31, 1968, an otherwise eligible individual shall not be entitled to be paid benefits in any calendar quarter in an amount greater than the total amount of wages under this title earned in the highest of the two corresponding calendar quarters included within the period of the first eight of the last nine completed calendar quarters immediately preceding his current benefit year: Provided Further, That this limitation shall not be effective if the individual earned no wages or reduced wages in either of such two corresponding calendar quarters because of illness or disability or because his first wages in covered employment were earned subsequent to the last of such two corresponding calendar quarters.

(2) An individual's weekly benefit amount shall be [in a minimum] an amount [of seventeen dollars for the first one hundred twenty-five dollars or portion thereof in excess of seven hundred ninety-nine dollars and ninety-nine cents of base year wages, increasing one dollar for each one hundred twenty-five dollars or portion thereof of said individual's base year wages earned thereafter, with a maximum amount payable weekly of not more than forty-two dollars] equal to one twenty-fifth (1/25) of the average of his total wages during the two quarters of his base year in which such total wages were highest, except that if such computed amount is less than seventeen dollars, the weekly benefit amount shall be deemed to be seventeen dollars. The maximum amount payable weekly shall be determined as of each June 30th to apply to benefit years beginning in the twelve-month period immediately following such June 30th. The maximum amount payable weekly shall be fifty percent of the "average weekly wage" for the calendar year preceding such June 30th: Provided, That if any [maximum] weekly benefit or maximum benefit amount computed herein is not a multiple of one dollar, it shall be adjusted to the nearest multiple of one dollar, except that if the computed amount ends in fifty cents, it shall be [carried] adjusted to the next higher multiple of one dollar.

This section shall become effective with benefit years beginning after June 30, 1967.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

On or before the fifteenth day of June of each year an "average annual wage" and an "average weekly wage" shall be computed for the preceding calendar year from information for the preceding calendar year reported by all employers as defined in RCW 50.04.080 on employers' contribution reports (including corrections thereof) filed within three months after the close of that year. The "average annual wage" is the quotient derived by dividing total remuneration reported by all employers by the average number of workers reported for all months. The average annual wage thus obtained shall be divided by fifty-two to determine the "average weekly wage".

Sec. 7. Section 83, chapter 35, Laws of 1945, as amended by section 5, chapter 215, Laws of 1951 and RCW 50.20.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The applicant for initial determination, his most recent employing unit as stated by the applicant, and any other interested party which the commissioner by regulation prescribes, shall, if not previously notified within the same continuous period of unemployment, be given notice promptly in writing that an application for initial determination has been filed and such notice shall contain the reasons given by the applicant for his last separation from work. If, during the benefit year, the applicant becomes unemployed after having accepted subsequent work, and files a claim for waiting period credit or benefits, a similar notice shall be given promptly to his then most recent employing unit as stated by him, or to any other interested party which the commissioner by regulation prescribes.

Each base year employer shall be promptly notified of the filing of any application for initial determination which may result in a charge to his account.

Within a reasonable time after the date of rate determination, each employer shall be notified of the total amount of benefits charged to his account during the twelve-month period immediately preceding the date of rate determination and, upon request, the amount of such charges with respect to each individual receiving unemployment benefits charged to his account.

Within a reasonable time after the date of rate determination, each employer shall be notified of his rate of contribution as determined for the succeeding rate year.

Any employer dissatisfied with the benefit charges made to his account or with his determined rate may file a request for review and redetermination with the commissioner within thirty days of the mailing of the notice to the employer, showing the reason for such request. Should such request for review and redetermination be denied, the employer may, within ten days of the mailing of such notice of denial, file with the appeal tribunal a petition for hearing which shall be heard in the same manner as a petition for denial of refund. The appellate procedure prescribed by this title for further appeal shall apply to all denials of review and redetermination under this section.

This section shall become effective with benefit years beginning after June 30, 1967.

Sec. 8. Section 89, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 18, chapter 214, Laws of 1949 and RCW 50.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each employer for each calendar year in which he is subject to this title at the rate of two and seven-tenths percent of wages paid, except as provided in sections 9 through 17 of this 1967 amendatory act.

Contributions shall become due and be paid by each employer to the treasurer for the unemployment compensation fund in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, and shall not be deducted, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in employment of the employer. Any deduction in violation of the provisions of this section shall be unlawful.

In the payment of any contributions, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to Title 50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As used in this title:

(1) "Taxable payroll" means all remuneration paid by an employer or employers on which contributions are payable.

(2) "Rate year" means the calendar year next succeeding the date of rate determination.

(3) "Date of rate determination" means July 1st of any year.

(4)(a) "Eligible employer" means any employer whose account could have been charged with benefits throughout the thirty-six consecutive calendar month period immediately preceding the date of rate determination or could have been charged had the benefit charging provisions been in effect, except that no employer shall be deemed an eligible employer unless all contributions required under this title from him or his predecessors for periods prior to the date of rate determination have been paid prior to September 1st immediately following the date of rate determination, except that,

(b) any employer who has not been subject to the act for a period of time sufficient to be classified as an eligible employer under the provision of part (a) of this definition but whose account could have been charged with benefits throughout at least the twelve consecutive month period immediately preceding the date of rate determination shall be classified as an eligible employer, except that no employer shall be deemed an eligible employer unless all contributions required under this title from him or his predecessors for periods prior to the date of rate determination have been paid prior to September 1st immediately following the date of rate determination.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to Title 50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An experience rating account shall be established and maintained for each employer based on existing records of the Employment Security Department and shall be effective beginning with July 1, 1964. Benefits paid to any eligible individual subsequent to June 30, 1964, shall be charged to the experience rating accounts of each of his employers during his base year in the same proportion that the wages paid by each employer to the individual during the base year bear to the wages paid by all employers to that individual during that year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to Title 50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For the purpose of prorating benefit charges for periods of unemployment prior to July 2, 1967, "wages" shall be construed to mean the wages reported by employers on the existing wage reports submitted for use in benefit computations. For the purpose of prorating benefit charges for periods of unemployment subsequent to July 1, 1967,

"wages" shall mean "wages" as defined for the purpose of payment of benefits in RCW 50.04.320.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to Title 50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For the rate year 1968 and each rate year thereafter (1) a benefit ratio shall be computed for each eligible employer. The computation of benefit ratios shall be extended to six decimal places and the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded. The benefit ratio for an employer shall be the quotient obtained by dividing the total benefits charged to his account during the thirty-six consecutive month period immediately preceding the date of rate determination by his taxable payroll for the same thirty-six month period as reported not later than August 31st immediately following the date of rate determination, except that (2) the benefit ratio for any eligible employer whose account has not been chargeable for a period of thirty-six months immediately prior to the date of rate determination shall be the quotient obtained by dividing total benefits charged to his account, prior to the date of rate determination, by his taxable payroll as set forth as follows: the taxable payroll shall be that reported by August 31st immediately following the date of rate determination, for the period beginning with the first day of the second calendar quarter following the calendar quarter in which he becomes liable, and through the end of the quarter immediately preceding the date of rate determination.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to Title 50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) An array shall be prepared of all eligible employers in order by benefit ratios. The array shall start with the employer having the lowest benefit ratio and progress through the employer having the highest benefit ratio. The array shall show for each employer (a) his benefit ratio, (b) his taxable payroll for the four calendar quarters ending with June 30th immediately preceding the computation date and reported by the following August 31st, and (c) a cumulative total consisting of the sum of his taxable payroll as identified above and such taxable payrolls of all other employers preceding him on the list.

(2) All arrayed employers starting with those having the lowest benefit ratio, shall be grouped in accordance with the cumulative taxable payroll percentage limits for the tax schedule in effect. Fractions of a cent shall be dropped in computing taxable payroll limits. If this grouping results in the taxable payroll of an employer falling in two groups, such employer and any other employer or employers with the same benefit ratio shall be assigned the lower of the two applicable rates.

(3) If, subsequent to the assignment of rates of contribution for any rate year, the benefit ratio of an employer is recomputed and changed, such employer shall be placed in that position in the array which he would have occupied had his corrected benefit ratio been shown in the array, but such altered position in the array shall not affect the position of any other employer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to Title 50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Effective with the rate year 1968 and each rate year thereafter contribution rates for eligible employers shall be those scheduled in Table 1. The column of the schedule effective for a particular rate year is determined by the fund balance ratio, except that for rate year 1968 column B shall be effective.

The fund balance ratio for any rate year is the percentage ratio of the balance in the unemployment compensation fund as of June 30th immediately preceding the date of rate determination for that rate year to total remuneration paid by all employers for the calendar year preceding the date of rate determination and reported by the following March 31st. The ratios which apply to each column are as follows:

Fund Balance Ratios	Column
5.2% or more	A
4.8% but less than 5.2%	B
4.4% but less than 4.8%	C
4.0% but less than 4.4%	D
3.5% but less than 4.0%	E

If at any date of rate determination the amount of money in the unemployment compensation fund is less than three and one-half percent of total remuneration paid by all employers during the preceding calendar year and reported on or before the March 31st following such year, contributions for the following rate year for all employers shall be payable at the rate of three percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to Title 50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When an employer or prospective employer has acquired all or substantially all of the operating assets of an employer, or has acquired an operating department, section, division, or any substantial portion of the business or assets of any employer, which is clearly segregable and identifiable, for experience rating purposes, the payroll record and benefit charges of the transferring employer shall be divided between the transferring and acquiring employers in proportion to the payroll for the four preceding completed calendar quarters attributable to the operating assets retained and conveyed. The successor employer shall be liable for contributions on the acquired business from the date the transfer occurred. The separate account of a predecessor or that part thereof which is transferred shall become the separate account or part of separate account as the case may be of the successor employer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to Title 50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Effective January 1, 1968, predecessor and successor employer contribution rates shall be computed in the following manner:

(1) If the successor is an employer at the time of the transfer, his contribution rate shall remain unchanged for the remainder of the rate year in which the transfer occurs.

(2) The contribution rate on any payroll retained by a predecessor employer shall remain unchanged for the remainder of the rate year in which the transfer occurs.

(3) If the successor is not an employer at the time of the transfer and acquires the business of one employer or the businesses of two or more employers with the same rate, he shall pay contributions for the remainder of the rate year in which the transfer occurs, at the rate assigned to the predecessor employer or employers.

(4) If the successor is not an employer at the time of the transfer and simultaneously acquires the businesses of two or more employers with different rates or contributions, his rate from the date the transfer occurred until the end of the rate year in which such transfer occurred, shall be a recomputed rate based on the combined experience of his predecessors as of the last day of the completed calendar quarter immediately preceding the quarter in which the transfer occurs.

(5) In all cases, from and after January 1st following the transfer, the successor's rate of contribution for each rate year shall be based on his experience with payrolls and benefits combined with the experience of his predecessor or predecessors, as of the regular date of rate determination for that rate year.

(6) In all cases, from and after January 1st following the transfer, the predecessor's rate of contribution for each rate year shall be based on his experience with payrolls and benefits, as of the regular date of rate determination for that rate year, excluding therefrom such experience as was credited to the successor under section 15 of this 1967 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to Title 50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Experience rating credits issued for the credit year beginning July 1, 1967, may be applied only against contributions which are payable on wages paid prior to January 1, 1968.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An individual who has received the maximum amount allowable in his benefit year may, if otherwise eligible, draw "extended benefits" in those weeks in his benefit year which begin in an "extended benefit period" and, if his benefit year ends within such extended benefit period, in the next thirteen or fewer weeks which begin in such "extended benefit period": Provided, That the individual shall not draw such "extended benefits" in any week during which he could establish entitlement to regular unemployment benefits under any state or federal law.

An "extended benefit period" means a period commencing with the third calendar week immediately following any thirteen-week period during which the average rate of insured unemployment is equal to or greater than one hundred twenty percent of the average of the rates of insured unemployment for the corresponding thirteen-week periods in each of the two preceding calendar years and ending with the third week immediately following any thirteen-week period during which such rate was less than one hundred twenty percent of the average rate of insured unemployment for the corresponding thirteen-week periods in each of the two preceding years; except, that no extended benefit period shall be less than thirteen weeks in length, and, that no new extended benefit period shall commence at any time an extended benefit period is already in effect.

Insured unemployment for any week as used for this computation means the number of weeks of unemployment claimed in Washington for that week, excluding weeks of unemployment claimed in connection with unemployment compensation programs which are exclusively federal and excluding any weeks claimed by an individual following the week in which benefits based on his original entitlement were exhausted.

Insured employment means the average monthly employment reported by employers for a twelve-month period.

For purposes of this subsection the rate of insured unemployment for any week is the ratio obtained by dividing insured unemployment for that week by insured employment for the twelve-month period ending six months immediately prior to the calendar quarter in which the week began.

Rates of insured unemployment shall be computed for each calendar week. After each week the insured unemployment rates for the thirteen consecutive weeks ending with that week shall be averaged and the average shall be compared with the average of the rates of insured unemployment for the corresponding thirteen-week periods of the two preceding years. The commissioner shall by regulation prescribe how corresponding weeks are to be determined. Computations involving division shall be carried to four decimal places.

"Extended benefits" are additional benefits payable at the weekly rate applicable for the individual during the benefit year for which he has received the maximum sum allowable. Extended benefits for an individual cannot exceed whichever is the lesser of thirteen times his weekly benefit amount or one-half his previous entitlement, and the combined total of his regular unemployment compensation plus his extended benefits cannot exceed thirty-nine times his weekly amount.

If a federal enactment provides for reimbursing the state for certain benefits for weeks of extended unemployment, the extended benefits shall be made in the regular manner, and the reimbursements shall be credited to the unemployment compensation fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any payments which an individual has claimed, is receiving or has received under any government or private retirement or pension plan to which a base year employer of the individual has contributed on behalf of the individual shall be deemed compensation paid for personal services for the purpose of determining eligibility for and the amount of weekly benefits, but such payments shall not be considered wages subject to contribution under this title nor shall such payments be considered in determining base year earnings of the individual: Provided, That any amounts which have been deducted from the weekly benefit amount by reason of the provisions of this section shall not be available for future benefits. Provided, Further, That no payments received on account of temporary or permanent disability rather than on account of age or length of service shall be considered compensation paid for personal services.

This section shall become effective with benefit years beginning after June 30, 1967.

Sec. 20. Section 73, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 8, chapter 8, Laws of 1953 first extraordinary session and RCW 50.20.050 are each amended to read as follows:

[An individual shall be disqualified for benefits for the calendar week in which he has left work voluntarily without good cause and for the five calendar weeks which immediately follow such week.]

An individual who has left his most recent work voluntarily without good cause shall be disqualified for benefits for the calendar week in which he left work and for the eight calendar weeks which immediately follow such week. Good cause may only be shown to exist when it is connected with or related to his employment: Provided, That leaving work voluntarily shall not be considered to be without good cause if, after making reasonable efforts to preserve his employment he left his last work because of his illness, injury, or disability.

Sec. 21. Section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1955 and RCW 50.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

A [pregnant] woman [shall be presumed to be unable to work and unavailable for work if she left her most recent work voluntarily] who leaves work voluntarily because of pregnancy shall be ineligible for benefits during the period of her pregnancy: Provided, However, That in any event a pregnant woman shall be ineligible to receive benefits for any calendar week during the period beginning with the [tenth] seventeenth calendar week [before] immediately preceding the expected date of confinement, as determined by a doctor, and extending through the [fourth] sixth calendar week immediately following the week in which childbirth occurs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Sections 10, 11, 12, 15 and 16, chapter 286, Laws of 1955 and RCW 50.28.010 through 50.28.030, 50.28.050 and 50.28.060, and section 3, chapter 235, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 13, chapter 286, Laws of 1955 and RCW 50.28.040 are each hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately: Provided, That sections 1, 2, 4, and 9 through 18, and 20, 21, and 22 of this amendatory act shall not take effect until July 2, 1967, and sections 3 and 8 of this amendatory act shall not take effect until January 1, 1968."

On line 1 of the title strike everything after the word "security" and insert the following:

"amending section 3, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.04.020; amending section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 1, chapter 214, Laws of 1949 and RCW 50.04.030; amending section 33, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 2, chapter 8, Laws of 1953 first extraordinary session and RCW 50.04.320; amending section 68, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 3, chapter 266, Laws of 1959 and RCW 50.20.010; amending section 73, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 8, chapter 8, Laws of 1953 first extraordinary session and RCW 50.20.050; amending section 3, chapter 283, Laws of 1955 and RCW 50.20.030; amending section 80, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 2, chapter 321, Laws of 1959 and RCW 50.20.120; amending section 83, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 5, chapter 215, Laws of 1951 and RCW 50.20.150; amending section 89, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 18, chapter 214, Laws of 1949 and RCW 50.24.010; adding three new sections to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.20 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to Title 50 RCW; repealing sections 10, 11, 12, 15 and 16, chapter 286, Laws of 1955 and RCW 50.28.010 through 50.28.030, 50.28.050 and 50.28.060; repealing section 3, chapter 235, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 13, chapter 286, Laws of 1955 and RCW 50.28.040; and declaring an emergency."

Amend the amendment by Representatives Adams, Juelling and Morrison as follows: On page 7, section 7, line 22 of the printed amendment, after "this section." insert the following paragraph:

"If the commissioner finds that an employer or any agent of an employer has wilfully submitted false information or wilfully failed to report a material fact concerning a claimant's employment or separation from employment, the commissioner shall charge benefits to the employer's experience rating account in an amount equal to ten times the weekly benefit amount of such claimant.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

Malcolm McBeath, Chief Clerk.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 374, and request of the House a conference thereon.

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Williams that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 374.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the positive motion by Senator Williams that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 374.

Senators Rasmussen, Greive and Tally demanded a Call of the Senate.

A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Greive, Sandison, Cooney, Knoblauch, Peterson (Lowell) Bailey, Uhlman, and Stender.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion by Senator Williams was lost and the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 374 by the following vote: Yeas, 14; nays, 35.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Faulk, Freise, Guess, Lewis, Metcalf, Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—14.

Those voting nay were: Senators Bailey, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Uhlman, Washington—35.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Greive moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 374.

On motion of Senator Greive, further consideration of the motion was deferred and made a special order of business under the fifth order of business for tomorrow.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Senate Bill No. 480, by Senators Andersen, Gissberg and Neill.

Providing for certain changes in the administrative procedure act.

On motion of Senator Andersen, Senate Bill No. 480 was ordered to retain its place on the second reading calendar for tomorrow.

Engrossed House Bill No. 202, by Representatives Cunningham, Lux, Clocksin and Hill (by Executive request):

Granting administrative powers to the state arts commission and authorizing employment of an executive secretary and other assistants.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Bailey that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, section 2, line 12, which is line 13 of the printed bill, after "the" strike "governor" and insert "Senate"

On line 12 which is line 14 of the printed bill, after "as" strike "he" and insert "the governor"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, would Senator Bailey yield to a question:
"Did I hear you say, 'Director'?"

Senator Bailey:

" 'Secretary,' if you wish, but that would be the same thing."

Senator Rasmussen:

"The question in my mind is whether or not we are setting up a new state department with a director and staff? It would take a broader bill than this one, wouldn't it?"

Senator Bailey:

"Senator, I'm not setting up anything. It's in the bill and I'm trying to change the bill so it looks a little better."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Well, I don't know — Senator Bailey just doesn't seem to have the answer to my question. Does anybody have the answer? Could somebody on the floor answer the question whether or not we are setting up a new state department?"

Senator Neill:

"It's my understanding that this is amending the existing statutes relating to the Washington State Arts Commission which is already in existence. This permits them to employ an executive secretary. The commission already is in existence and operating."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, would Senator Bailey yield to a question:

"I notice the bill allows the commission to appoint the executive secretary. The original bill says that the appointment shall be subject to the confirmation by the Governor, but you are striking that by amendment and making the confirmation by the Senate. Now generally speaking the Senate confirms appointments by the Governor. I don't know of any place where a commission hiring an executive secretary or any other staff department head is confirmed by the Senate. I think this is a departure, is it not, from any precedent that we might have in the state?"

Senator Bailey:

"Senator Ryder, yes, this is a departure, but I submit this is also a departure from the customary thing that a commission established by the governor and confirmed by the Senate has to have their membership's decision as to an executive secretary confirmed by the Governor. This is a departure the other way and if you want to strike that part of it, I'd be willing to withdraw my amendment. I see no reason why the governor should control the executive secretary, and tell the commission who they can and can't hire. This what I'm trying to stop."

Debate ensued.

With leave of the Senate, Senator Bailey was permitted to withdraw the amendment.

It was moved by Senator Bailey that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, section 2, line 13 of the printed bill, being line 12 of the engrossed bill, strike "Subject to confirmation by the governor and at such salary as he may fix therefor the" and insert "The"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf:

"Mr. President, would Senator Bailey yield:

"Senator Bailey, does this amendment assume that state funds will be used to pay the salaries of these people involved?"

Senator Bailey:

"Mr. President:

"Senator Metcalf, I presume everything we vote into effect here in the way of salaries comes out of state funds and Senator Rasmussen is right, there are some federal funds involved, too, and I can't tell you the proportion, but they are there."

Senator Metcalf:

"Would Senator Bailey yield to another question:

"There is no appropriation here. Is there an appropriation elsewhere in the budget for this?"

Senator Bailey:

"Yes."

Senator Metcalf:

"Then we are talking about state money—"

Senator Bailey:

"That's what I'm trying to safeguard is the budget."

Senator Metcalf:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield to a question:

"Senator Durkan, how much money are we talking about in this bill? What is the appropriation? Of course I realize this is tentative because it's in conference, and maybe this is not a matter upon which there has been debate, but maybe it's already decided and I would like to know—"

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President, the Senate version which was passed struck everything except $5,000 which was a reduction from the House version of about $65,000. It's still in conference and the conferees have not arrived at any final settlement as yet."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Greive, McCormack and Ryder demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The motion was carried and the amendment by Senator Bailey was adopted.

MOTION

At 3:10 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Wednesday, April 12, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Wednesday, April 12, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senator Stender.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Stender was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Carl Seltice, Color Bearer, and Heidi Johnson, presented the Colors.

Reverend Walter A. MacArthur, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Almighty God, unto Whom all hearts are open, all desires known and from Whom no secrets are hid, bowing reverently before Thee in this hushed moment, we would discard every mask of disguise or pretense which, too often, we wear before the face of man.

"In Thee only, do we find light for life's meaning, wisdom for life's questions, strength for its duties, courage for its unknown ways.

"Deliver us then from political policies which are symptoms of spiritual disease. We have bodies, and we have minds, but we ARE souls, devine in dimension, created of Thee particularly for these particular times.

"Grant us the assurance and the persuasion that in the midst of a clamorous world, in quietness and in confidence is our strength, our joy, our peace. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of former State Senator Frank Jackson and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Talley and Chytil to escort the former Senator to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

The President appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Ryder and McMillan to escort Senator Ernest W. Lennart to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

With leave of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Senator Jackson to present a bowl to Senator Lennart commemorating his retirement from the Senate and to permit both Senators to address the Senate.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

On motion of Senator Greive, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 374 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

The Secretary read:

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of the House message and amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 165, and the motion by Senator Woodall that the Senate do concur in the House amendments.

Debate ensued.

With leave of the Senate, Senator Woodall was permitted to withdraw his motion to concur.

It was moved by Senator Knoblauch that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 165 and ask the House for a conference thereon.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President, would Senator Knoblauch yield to a question:

"I had occasion to talk to Mr. Clemenson who is a very dear friend of mine, in fact he lives across the street from me, and I got the impression that the way the amendment is written, the only thing that was involved was surplus funds and is within the discretion of the county commissioners. The American Legion was willing to accept this."

Senator Knoblauch:

"I am glad you asked that question. Since this came up yesterday, Senator Greive, I have made contact with the veterans' organizations at home and I called a gentleman from Tacoma who is adjutant of one of the large veterans' organizations in Tacoma. He is also in charge of the Pierce county veterans' advisory council composed of every veterans' group in Pierce county, and they had taken the position this last Tuesday night strongly in opposition to taking any of these funds away from the soldiers' and sailors' indigent fund. I have also since yesterday called our Pierce county commissioners and they have the same opinion. I would like some of those members on the other side of the aisle to express their opinions, but we did get together over the last twenty-four hours and we do feel we should have a conference on this."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Greive, the motion was made a special order of business under the first order of business for tomorrow.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 12, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 630, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference, and the report of the Conference Committee is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Olympia, Wash., April 11, 1967.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred Engrossed Senate Bill No. 630 creating a board of ethics in each house of the legislature have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and request the powers of Free Conference.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed House Bill No. 930, by Representatives Bagnariol and Barden: Designating status of workmen employed on equipment time rented by another employer for industrial insurance recovery purposes.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Engrossed House Bill No. 930 was ordered to retain its place on the second reading calendar for this afternoon.

Senate Bill No. 480, by Senators Andersen, Gissberg and Neill:

Providing for certain changes in the administrative procedure act.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Bill No. 480:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 4, 1967.

Providing for certain changes in the administrative procedure act (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and substitute the following:

"Section 1. Section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1959, as last amended by section 7, chapter 237, Laws of 1967, and RCW 34.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to the state militia, or the board of prison terms and paroles. The provisions of RCW 34.03.090 through 34.04.130 shall not apply to the board of industrial insurance appeals or the [state tax commission] board of tax appeals unless an election is made pursuant to sections [18 or 19 of this 1967 amendatory act] 43 or 48 of chapter.....(House Bill No. 576), Laws of 1967 extraordinary session. All other agencies, whether or not formerly specifically excluded from the provisions of all or any part of the administrative procedure act, shall be subject to the entire act."

Add a new section following section 1 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Sections 21 and 22, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 are each repealed."

Strike all of the title and substitute the following:

"An Act relating to administrative procedure; amending section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1959, as last amended by section 7, chapter 237, Laws of 1967, and RCW 34.04.150; and repealing sections 21 and 22, chapter 237, Laws of 1967."

Wes C. Uhlman, Chairman,

....., Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Frank Atwood, Martin J. Durkan, Frank W. Foley, Herbert H. Freise, R. R. Bob Greive, H. B. (Jerry) Hanna, Robert W. Twigg, Walter B. Williams, Perry B. Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Uhlman that the committee amendments to the bill be adopted.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, the following amendment to the committee amendments was adopted:

In line 9 of the committee amendment, after "chapter" strike ".....(House Bill No. 576)" and insert "26"

On motion of Senator Freise, the following amendment to the committee amendments was adopted:

In line 5 of the committee amendment, after "of RCW" strike "34.03.090" and insert "34.04.090"

The motion by Senator Uhlman was carried and the committee amendments to the bill, as amended, were adopted.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Neill, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 480 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 480 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 2.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lenhart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—44.

Absent or not voting: Senators Connor, McCormack, Rasmussen—3.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Stender—2.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 480 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Engrossed House Bill No. 202, by Representatives Cunningham, Lux, Clocksin and Hill (by Executive request):

Granting administrative powers to the state arts commission and authorizing employment of an executive secretary and other assistants.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Bailey that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 14 of the printed bill, being line 13 of the engrossed bill, after "employ" strike "an" and insert "a full time", and on line 15 of the printed bill, which is line 14 of the engrossed bill, after "tary" strike the remainder of the sentence and insert " , who shall receive no other salary and shall not be otherwise gainfully employed."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, would Senator Bailey yield to a question:

"I notice your amendment says, 'no other salary.' Do you mean by that no other state salary, or no other salary? Did you mean no other salary from the state?"

Senator Bailey:

"That was my intention, if you wanted to add that word."

Senator Ryder:

"An individual may want to work in a flower shop at night or sweep out one of these museums or something."

Senator Bailey:

"I would have no objection if you wanted to add that wording, but I think 'gainfully employed,' if he is going to work and he is getting paid well by the state, he should quit this moonlighting and an artist like that shouldn't demean himself, Senator. I think this would be good legislation. I really intended it to keep other agencies from moving in on the art commission budget and to keep the art commission from moving in on other agencies."

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the amendment by Senator Bailey was adopted.

It was moved by Senator Gissberg that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, section 1, line 8, after "within" strike "or without"

Debate ensued.

With leave of the Senate, Senator Gissberg was permitted to withdraw the amendment.

It was moved by Senator Gissberg that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 9 of the printed bill, being line 8 of the engrossed bill, after "humanities" insert "in the state of Washington"

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

It was moved by Senator Woodall that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 19, which is line 20 of the printed bill, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 43.46 RCW a new section to read as follows: There is hereby added to the Washington State Arts Commission two additional members, one to be appointed by the President of the Senate and one to be appointed by the Speaker of the House, each to be appointed for a term of three years."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talley, Engrossed House Bill No. 202 was ordered to retain its place at the end of the second reading calendar for today.

At 12:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Senate Bill No. 442,
Senate Bill No. 641,
House Bill No. 72,
Substitute House Bill No. 304.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed House Bill No. 133, by Representatives Newschwander, Sawyer and McDougall:

Authorizing water districts to lease out real or personal property.

On motion of Senator Woodall, Engrossed House Bill No. 133 was ordered to retain its place on second reading immediately following consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 365.

Engrossed House Bill No. 365, by Representatives Bledsoe, Flanagan and Brouillet:

Providing method for change of school district's name.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 365 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 365 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Marde-sich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Washington, Williams, Woodall—47.

Absent or not voting: Senator Uhlman—1.

Excused: Senator Stender—1.

Engrossed House Bill No. 365 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President, I would like to speak on a point of personal privilege, and perhaps stretching the point a bit:

"The impetus for this very good piece of legislation that many other districts can use started with the Lower Crab Creek school district. I think there is a very important geographical factor to bear in mind, that Crab Creek starts just a short way east of Spokane, goes on down through the Columbia Basin into Moses Lake and then emerges from Moses Lake as Lower Crab Creek. I think it must be over 150 miles and it is probably the longest creek in the United States. At least I make that claim here and now, just as a little additional side light. You have worked with the name Crab Creek, so keep that in mind."

Engrossed House Bill No. 133, by Representatives Newschwander, Sawyer and McDougall:

Authorizing water districts to lease out real or personal property.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Talley, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 2, following new section 2 added by the House amendment by the Committee on Local Government, being page 2, line 22, of the engrossed bill, add a new section as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 111, Laws of 1963 and RCW 57.08.065 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the powers now given water districts by law, they shall also have power to establish, maintain and operate a mutual water and sewer system or a separate sewer system within their water district area in the same manner as provided by law for the doing thereof in connection with water supply systems.

In addition thereto, a water district constructing, maintaining and operating a sanitary sewer system may exercise all the powers permitted to a sewer district under RCW Title 56, including, but not limited to, the right to compel connections to the district's system, liens for delinquent sewer connection charges or sewer service charges, and all other powers presently exercised by or which may be hereafter granted to such sewer districts: Provided, That no water district shall proceed to exercise the powers herein granted to establish, maintain, construct and operate any sewer system without first obtaining written approval and certification of necessity so to do from the state of Washington pollution control commission and department of health. Any comprehensive plan for a system of sewers or addition thereto or betterment thereof shall be approved by the same county and state officials as are required to approve such plans adopted by a sewer district."

In line 2 of the title of the printed and engrossed bills, after "property;" and before "and" insert "amending section 1, chapter 111, Laws of 1963 and RCW 57.08.065;"

On motion of Senator Talley, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 133 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 133 as amended by the Senate and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knob-lauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Marde-sich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Wash-ington, Williams, Woodall—47.

Absent or not voting: Senator Morgan—1.

Excused: Senator Stender—1.

Engrossed House Bill No. 133 as amended by the Senate having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Senate Bill No. 554, by Senators Washington, Dore, Faulk, Knoblauch, Ridder, Connor and Uhlman:

Establishing a state mass transit authority.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Bill No. 554:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 11, 1967.

Establishing a state mass transit authority (reported by Committee on Highways):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 4, line 13, after "(1)" strike the remainder of the subsection and insert "To study and investigate the possibilities of joint use of facilities for highway and mass transit purposes;"

On page 2, section 4, beginning on line 33, strike all of subsection (9) and renum-ber the remaining subsections consecutively.

Nat Washington, Chairman,
Al Henry, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: Dewey C. Donohue, Larry Faulk, Herbert H. Freise, Wil-bur G. Hallauer, Reuben A. Knoblauch, Ernest W. Lennart, Richard G. (Dick) Mar-quardt, Frances Haddon Morgan, Ted G. Peterson, Joel M. Pritchard, Fred G. Redmon, Walter B. Williams.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McMillan:

"Mr. President, I'd like to ask Senator Washington a question:

"Senator Washington, it's my understanding that originally in the Governor's re-quest the state highway commission would be abolished in favor of the new body. I'm not sure just what the name of the new body would be, but I notice you are setting up a mass transit authority in this bill of yours and I'm wondering if there would be any conflict between this authority and the state highway commission at any time or is there any point that this authority might at some future time take over the duties, prerogatives and general substance of the state highway commission?"

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President:

"It's my opinion that under this bill it definitely could not take over the duties and prerogatives of the highway commission. At the present time the budget submitted by the Governor includes $175,000 to be allocated to the mass transportation division of the department of transportation. It would be planned that if this act passes, the money from the general fund would then be transferred to the mass transit authority. However, I do believe that there needs to be coordinated planning for this reason: You have two members of the state highway commission serving on this particular author-ity so that you do get across ideas, and you do get cooperation. In addition, so that the highway committee will be apprised at all times of the developments in the field of mass transportation, the director of highways serves on this particular board. In serv-ing, he would of course be subject to the chairman of the mass transit authority and also would be working with the director of mass transit authority who would be the executive officer of the new transit authority. Now if at a future time the legislature might decide to give the mass transit authority a larger power, that is something we can't guarantee but certainly under this particular bill, I feel that it goes straight to the problem to be solved without giving any more power than necessary."

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Morgan:

"Mr. President, will Senator Washington yield, and I'd like my remarks in the journal.

"Senator Washington, is this strictly planning, or could the mass transit authority bring about say fencing in my district's naval base or bridges without due course in the legislature and could this happen if this is amended in such a fashion in the House and it goes into conference? Could we suddenly find ourselves with this huge bonding plan—forty years—or would we have no recourse? Could that happen to us under this bill?"

Senator Washington:

"Senator Morgan, under this bill, I would say none of the possible fears that you have expressed could come about through the enactment of this bill setting up a mass transit authority. The subject matter I think is completely alien to the fears that you have. As you know there are very great powers in the powers of free conference. They are so great it is possible you can send almost any bill to a free conference and not recognize what comes out again, but this still must be voted on on the floor of the Senate and I would anticipate if there are changes made in the House, they would be in the nature of moving somewhat along the line of the Governor's proposed department of transportation. I think perhaps it would be watered down greatly from the bill as it is presently drafted but I just can't see any of the fears that you raise being in this bill."

Senator Morgan:

"Senator Washington, the mass transit authority could not enact laws so to speak — they could not change our transportation system without action of the legislature?"

Senator Washington:

"The legislature has yet to give this authority the power that the toll bridge authority had for instance to issue bonds in its own name. It would be anticipated that any bonds that would be issued and any financing at the present time for mass transit would for instance be by a local agency, the city of Seattle or some Seattle-Tacoma-Everett transit authority. It would not be issued by the state, but the state will assist in planning and attempting in the best way possible to make joint use of highway facilities and possible rapid transit facilities."

Senator Morgan:

"Would there be any chance, Senator, if the Governor's bill is incorporated into this bill, that that could happen to us?"

Senator Washington:

"I would say that bill in itself does not grant the powers of financing even to the division of mass transit as envisioned in the Governor's bill. That grants no powers of floating bonds or financing."

Senator Morgan:

"Then there is no chance of the Hoods Canal Bridge or the ferry system being further placed into bondage if I vote for this bill?"

Senator Washington:

"That, I can assure you, Senator Morgan, would not be the effect of your vote."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 554 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 7; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Herr, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams—38.

Those voting nay were: Senators Freise, Hallauer, McMillan, Mardesich, Morgan, Redmon, Woodall—7.

Absent or not voting: Senators Canfield, Henry, Herrmann—3.

Excused: Senator Stender—1.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 554 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Morgan:

"Mr. President, point of personal privilege:

"I wish to explain my vote, no. I would like to be on a conference if the House changes the context of this bill very much."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 12, 1967.

Mr. President:

mussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—46.

Voting nay was: Senator Dore—1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Henry—1.

Excused: Senator Stender—1.

House Bill No. 975 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed House Bill No. 202, by Representatives Cunningham, Lux, Clocksin and Hill (by Executive request):

Granting administrative powers to the state arts commission and authorizing employment of an executive secretary and other assistants.

On motion of Senator Woodall, Engrossed House Bill No. 202 was ordered to retain its place on the second reading calendar for tomorrow.

Engrossed House Bill No. 930, by Representatives Bagnariol and Barden: Designating status of workmen employed on equipment time rented by another employer for industrial insurance recovery purposes.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Engrossed House Bill No. 930 was ordered to retain its place on the second reading calendar for tomorrow.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 12, 1967.

Mr. President:

The Speaker has signed: House Bill No. 975, and the same is herewith transmitted.
Malcolm McBeath, Chief Clerk.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: House Bill No. 975.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

THIRD READING OF BILLS

Senate Bill No. 638, by Senators Lewis and Hallauer:

Amending public lands statutes and providing for financing the east capitol site.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the rules be suspended and that Senate Bill No. 638 be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended to permit debate on the motion.

Debate ensued.

The motion was lost on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Lewis, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Senate Bill No. 638 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Morgan:

"Mr. President, would Senator Lewis yield?

"Senator Lewis, is this the same bill which figures you presented to me when I inquired about them recently? Does Kitsap county port lost $1500, in this bill?"

Senator Lewis:

"Yes, that's correct, Senator."

Senator Morgan:

"Well, do all of the counties lose?"

Senator Lewis:

"No, all the counties do not lose."

Senator Morgan:

"Why does Kitsap county lose? We're losing everything we got this session, but why do we have to lose this, too?"

Senator Lewis:

"Senator, under the terms of the bill, there has been a reversion of money to the ports over the years. In agreement with Dick Ford, the executive secretary of the ports, we originally, I should say, had requested through the capitol committee—Governor Cherberg, Bert Cole and Governor Evans — it was their suggestion that we utilize these funds for the purposes outlined in the bill.

"In discussion with Dick Ford, he suggested that he would be amenable if we reduced this in half so this is what we have done. Yes, it is true that there is a modest amount of money — we're talking about $1500 approximately in Kitsap county — that will be going for this purpose and Kitsap will be losing it; however, if you will recall, we have been very generous with the ports throughout this session. This money has never been specifically earmarked in my opinion, and I would think that this would be one area that you might be agreeable for this purpose in view of the discussions we have had."

Senator Morgan:

"I'm not agreeable with this because we have a port we have to worry about. What does King county lose in this, Senator Lewis?"

Senator Lewis:

"King county loses $38,000."

Senator Morgan:

"And Clallam? Nothing."

Senator Lewis:

"I dont have those figures."

Senator Morgan:

"I have the figures on Clark county, it is $1275. What does Cowlitz county lose?"

Senator Lewis:

"Mr. Talley's port loses $600."

Senator Morgan:

"And Grays Harbor county?"

Senator Lewis:

"$5,388. I think I am right on that."

Senator Morgan:

"I just don't understand this at all. Maybe it's just because I lack the brain matter but I can understand very clearly that Kitsap county is losing $1500, and that's crystal clear to me and I'm certainly against this bill. Thank you, Senator Lewis. Will Senator Talley yield?

"Senator Talley, are you for this bill?"

Senator Talley:

"Absolutely not."

Senator Morgan:

"Why not?"

Senator Talley:

"Because it's taking away something we have had for revenue, taking away all of the revenues that may be developed in the future for the port expansions. I think it's a robbery, just a plain steal any way you look at it."

Senator Morgan:

"Well, are you pretty well versed, Senator Talley, as far as ports go?"

Senator Talley:

"As far as I can find out, Senator Morgan, there seems to be three ports that have compromised this so-called bill: the port of Seattle, the port of Tacoma and the port of Bellingham. All the rest of the ports as far as I can find — and I may be mistaken, but I checked the biggest share of them — are violently opposed to this bill."

Senator Morgan:

"Senator Talley, can you tell me what this will actually do to my county?"

Senator Talley:

"It takes the revenue that they are getting now and any revenue that they may develop in the future and it will have to go the way this bill is drafted until the bonds are recovered."

Senator Morgan:

"Do you believe that I should vote for this bill?"

Senator Talley:

"I don't think you can and represent your district."

Senator Morgan:

"Mr. President, I demand a Call of the Senate."

Senator Lewis:

"Mr. President:

"I wonder if I might be excused to get my revolver, hat and mask?"

Senator Ryder:

"Point of order, Mr. President:

"Senator Morgan demanded a Call of the Senate after having spoken. It is completely out of order."

Senator Durkan:

"Point of order, Mr. President:

"As I understand it, a demand for a Call of the Senate can be made at any time."

MOTIONS

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President:

"I move we adjourn until 11:00 a.m., tomorrow."

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Thursday, April 13, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Thursday, April 13, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senator Stender.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Stender was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Carl Seltice, Color Bearer, and Heidi Johnson, presented the Colors.

Doctor Henry S. Rahn, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Eternal God, glory belongeth to Thee, majesty is Thine and greatness past our finding out. Thy mind has conceived this universe; Thy hands have wrought it; Thy Son has redeemed it.

"Speak to us through the greatness of this universe in which Thou hast housed us. Let nature work her reverent awe upon us. Speak to us through beauty. Bring harmony and order into our lives. Reorient our lives around the treasures of the spirit.

"Speak to us through worthy purpose. Rescue us from cynicism and unbelief. Help us to work with a sense of wonder. Grant us the joy of creative activity and accomplishment. Through Christ our Lord. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Guess:

"Mr. President, I'd like to speak on a point of personal privilege:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate, I find on my desk this morning an editorial of the Bremerton Sun which quotes a letter from a man by the name of George F. Harless, chairman of the residential care committee, Olympic Center, Bremerton. This letter has two incorrect statements in it that I would like to inform the body about. It says that Senator Guess is a well known architectural engineer, and this is a misstatement that I wish to correct. I am a civil engineer and not an architectural engineer. Therefore, I would not like to give the impression that I was an architect. I hold them in the very greatest of esteem but I don't want to pose under false colors.

"The other statement is that I made a visit to the Olympic Center and made the remark, after visiting the Center, that the building was suited for the programs that had been envisioned. I did not go to Bremerton to determine whether or not the buildings were suitable for the programs but to see whether or not the building was a rehabilitable building. It so happened that in the course of my appointment in the Corps of Engineers after World War II and during the Korean War, that I had the opportunity of rehabilitating and remodeling and rebuilding approximately $75 million worth of buildings, and it was during that time that I gained a tremendous amount of experience which I thought would be of some value to the state if I made a visit to the building. I did make this visit and the building has been rehabilitated to the point that it has a new roof on it. It has a very adequate, very beautifully designed and executed sprinkler system in it. There still remains much to be done. But I wanted these two statements corrected so that there was no misunderstanding or misinformation abroad on the subject."

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President:

"I might add if I may to Senator Guess' remarks about the accuracy of this letter. In the first paragraph, Mr. Harless quotes the Governor as saying that the only thing that holds up the budget bill is the question of the Olympic Center. Now certainly I'm sure that the Governor never said this and I'm certain that each member of the Senate would agree that this is not the only thing that is holding up the budget."

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 165, the House amendments thereto and the motion by Senator Knoblauch.

On motion of Senator Knoblauch, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 165 and asked the House for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as Senate members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 165, Senators Knoblauch, Redmon and Kupka.

On motion of Senator Chytil, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX- 36

By Senators Hallauer and Uhlman:

Whereas, Washington is a young state, and Seattle a youthful city; and

Whereas, Traditionally youth has been unafraid of the new and challenging; and

Whereas, The Seattle city government has lately authorized a raid on a University District bookstore and directed its closing; the Seattle city council has invoked an old city ordinance to prevent a "light show" in connection with a dance; the Seattle police have interfered with numerous admittedly unorthodox young citizens for no apparent reason except that they failed to adopt the dress, behavior and haircut patterns favored by the more mature element of society; and

Whereas, The Seattle city council has failed to make the reasons for such actions "crystal clear"; and

Whereas, Seattle authorities have readily permitted speakers of the radical right to use civic facilities, but have denied the same privilege to speakers of the radical left; and

Whereas, The King County prosecutor has been vitally concerned to force the University of Washington to join him in inflicting punishment upon a few students for the admittedly indiscreet use of some words he obviously never heard—or failed to fairly catch—while a member of that hallowed institution's football team; and

Whereas, The activities that motivated these reprisals grow out of a widespread dissatisfaction and unrest among many of our youth which we, as adults, should endeavor to understand rather than blindly attempt to stamp out; and

Whereas, Though political leaders may disapprove of the conduct that prompts such acts of governmental harrassment, it has never been the American way to discipline others simply because they are nonconformists; and

Whereas, Petty official actions such as these seem evidence not of a dynamic and youthful spirit but of civic arthritis;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, that the Seattle city council and King County prosecutor be encouraged to practice more tolerance in the administration of their high offices, to ignore inconsequentials, and to devote their considerable energies to the solution of the many real and serious problems besetting their rapidly growing constituencies; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Secretary of State shall transmit copies of this resolution to the office of the King County prosecutor and to the Seattle city council.

It was moved by Senator Hallauer that the resolution be adopted.

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Williams that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Cities, Towns and Counties.

It was moved by Senator Talley that the motion by Senator Williams be laid upon the table.

The motion by Senator Talley was lost on a rising vote.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Williams.

The motion was carried and the resolution was referred to the Committee on Cities, Towns and Counties.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talley, the Senate Committee on Cities, Towns and Counties was relieved of further consideration of Senate Resolution EX - 36.

On motion of Senator Talley, Senate Resolution EX - 36 was referred to the Committee on Institutions.

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 37

By Senators Peterson (Ted), Mardesich and Uhlman:

Whereas, The area of the North Cascades mountains constitutes, in the words of Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, "a priceless, yet intangible national treasure", for which even the term "America's Alps" is an inadequate description; and

Whereas, The United States Department of Agriculture and the United States Department of the Interior have agreed to recommend that a portion of this irreplaceable wilderness be set aside as the proposed North Cascades National Park; and

Whereas, Despite the plea of Secretary Freeman, the Kennecott Copper Corporation of New York has reaffirmed its intention to begin work on an open pit mine north of Glacier Peak, in the heart of this mountain parkland; and

Whereas, The Kennecott Corporation proposes to utilize not only property it presently owns for the mine, but property it does not own, for the purpose of establishing a power right-of-way and a fifteen mile access road into the area; and

Whereas, Not only will this unspoiled territory be defaced by the mine itself, but by the access road, the power right-of-way, and the unsightly mine dumps which are a necessary consequence of open pit mining; and

Whereas, The entire operation will cause the permanent destruction of much of this unparalleled region, with its unrivalled scenic grandeur and its limitless potential as a recreation area of the future;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Senate of the state of Washington hereby respectfully request the Washington members of the Congress of the United States to take whatever action may be necessary to cause the Kennecott Copper Corporation to cease and desist from its projected plan to begin open pit operations on the proposed site; and

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forthwith transmitted by the secretary of the Senate to each member of the Washington State congressional delegation.

It was moved by Senator Peterson (Ted) that the resolution be adopted.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Hallauer that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Natural Resources.

Debate ensued.

Senator Peterson (Ted) demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Williams, Faulk, McCormack, Pritchard, Uhlman, Greive, Connor, and Washington.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion was carried and the resolution was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 13; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Dore, Faulk, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg—31.

Those voting nay were: Senators Atwood, Donohue, Freise, McCormack, Mardesich, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—13.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Foley, McCutcheon, Morgan—4.

Excused: Senator Stender—1.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 38

By Senators McCormack, Uhlman, Twigg, Williams, Atwood, Andersen, Hanna, Herrmann, Dore:

Whereas, The basic criminal code of this state, Title 9 RCW has not been revised since 1909; and

Whereas, There is much obsolete material in the criminal code, and several ambiguous sections which may not truly represent the intent of the people of this state; and

Whereas, Society's views concerning crime and punishment have in many respects undergone material changes since the time these laws were written; and

Whereas, These changes have recently been recognized in other states which have acted to revise their laws on this subject; and

Whereas, It is desirable that the criminal law of the state of Washington be recodified and modernized;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the Legislative Council, drawing upon such professional and lay assistance as it may deem appropriate, be directed to recodify and modernize the criminal code of the state of Washington as set forth in Title 9 RCW, and to report its recommendations thereon to the forty-first session of the Legislature.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the resolution was adopted.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 23.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 23, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 6; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—42.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bailey, Guess, Hallauer, Lennart, Morgan, Talley—6.

Excused: Senator Stender—1.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 23, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gissberg, Senators Durkan, Dore and Neill were excused.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF BILL

The following was introduced, read first time by title and acted upon as indicated:

Senate Bill No. 645, by Senators Greive, Durkan, Gissberg and Bailey:

An Act relating to communications and data processing; providing for the acquisition, maintenance, coordination and utilization of data processing and communications equipment, services and systems by state and local governments; prohibiting abuses concerning communications; adding new sections to chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and to Title 43 RCW; and making an appropriation.

Referred to Committee on State Government.

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended to permit additional names as sponsors to Senate Bill No. 645.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed House Bill No. 202, by Representatives Cunningham, Lux, Clocksin and Hill (by Executive request):

Granting administrative powers to the state arts commission and authorizing employment of an executive secretary and other assistants.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 202 on second reading and the amendment proposed by Senator Woodall.

With leave of the Senate, Senator Woodall was permitted to withdraw the amendment.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, following section 2, add two new sections as follows:

There is hereby established a Washington state arts commission. The commission shall be composed of twenty-one members seventeen of whom shall be appointed by the governor, two of whom shall be members of the Senate appointed by the President of the Senate and two of whom shall be members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House. Not more than one member appointed by the President of the Senate shall be from the major political party and not more than one member appointed by the Speaker of the House shall be from the major political party. Members [shall be] appointed by the Governor shall represent [representing] the various categories of the arts including architecture, painting, sculpture, music, landscape architecture, crafts, literature, graphic arts, theatre arts and dance. The governor shall consider nominations for membership from architectural, art, music, literary and other cultural organizations. Members shall be selected where practicable from the various geographical areas of the state.

Sec. 4. Section 43.46.030, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.46.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Initial appointments shall be seven members for one year terms, seven members for two year terms and seven members for three year terms. Subsequent appointments shall be made by the various appointing authorities upon expiration of a term in the position for which they have authority to make such an appointment and shall be for three year terms except appointments for vacancies which shall be for unexpired terms."

It was moved by Senator Metcalf that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, section 2, line 19, after "compensation", strike the period and add "Provided, That no general fund money shall be appropriated for the purposes of this act."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Kupka, the amendment was laid upon the table.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Ted), the following amendment by Senators Woodall and Mardesich was adopted:

On page 1, line 3 of the title of the printed bill, being line 2 of the engrossed bill, after "RCW" and before the period insert "; amending section 43.46.020, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.46.020; and amending section 43.46.030, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.46.030"

On motion of Senator Peterson (Ted), the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 202, as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 202 as amended by the Senate and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 4.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Washington, Williams, Woodall—40.

Those voting nay were: Senators Guess, McMillan, Uhlman—3.

Absent or not voting: Senators Henry, Morgan—2.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan, Neill, Stender—4.

Engrossed House Bill No. 202 as amended by the Senate having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Rasmussen served notice that he would, on the next working day, move that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 202 as amended by the Senate passed the Senate.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I heartily favor and spoke in favor of Engrossed House Bill No. 202. I voted nay solely for the purpose of serving on a Conference Committee on this measure.

(Signed) Senator Wes C. Uhlman.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Ryder, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

It was moved by Senator Ryder that the Committee on Commerce, Manufacturing and Licenses be relieved of further consideration of Reengrossed House Bill No. 99.

Debate ensued.

With leave of the Senate, Senator Ryder was permitted to withdraw his motion.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of former State Senator Dale Nordquist and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Chytil, Lennart, Bailey and Talley to escort the former Senator to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

With leave of the Senate, business was suspended to permit former Senator Nordquist to address the Senate.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed House Bill No. 930, by Representatives Bagnariol and Barden:

Designating status of workmen employed on equipment time rented by another employer for industrial insurance recovery purposes.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Uhlman that the following amendment by Senators Uhlman and Greive be adopted:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 23 after "shall" strike all the material down to and including "premiums;" on line 27 and insert "be immune from suit under this section but such immunity shall not apply to the benefit of their regular employer:"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President, would Senator Uhlman yield to a question:

"Do I understand from your amendment that any servant would be immune from a third party action regardless of the degree of supervision under which he was working, and whether he was under the supervision of the lessor or the lessee of the equipment?"

Senator Uhlman:

"That is correct. If he was working under the supervision of the lessee, however, he would be immune anyway. There can be no third party action if he is working for his own employer. You can't sue your own employer. This is the very basis of the Workmen's Compensation Act."

Senator Gissberg:

"Mr. President, would Senator Uhlman yield?"

"I'm confused on this whole matter and I would be most grateful if you would indicate the law as it now is, what the bill would do if it were adopted as it is written, and, third, what change your amendment makes not only to the law as it is but to the bill as written. I'd be most appreciative if you could go into some fundamental concept on these matters."

Senator Uhlman:

"Very briefly, Senator Gissberg: A. "The law now is that the individual has the option to sue the third party if there has been negligence by another employee on the job. In this instance we are talking about the rentor.

"B. The bill would take away the third party cause of action and he would only be able to take under the act and not sue at law.

"C. My amendment simply removes the right of the individual injured to sue the individual who is operating the rental equipment. He can, however, sue the employer, the owner of the rental equipment."

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, I wanted to ask Senator Guess a question, but I don't see him. Would Senator Sandison yield? I need some insurance information.

"This crane operator—not the operator but the owner would be required to carry insurance for liability in his travel over the road until he got on the job site, is this correct?"

Senator Sandison:

"Not necessarily, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Under the financial responsibility act?"

Senator Sandison:

"You could say the financial responsibility act has a requirement with a licensed vehicle, yes, to that extent he probably would carry insurance."

Senator Rasmussen:

"You can sit down now. I see Senator Guess is back on the floor. Thank you.

"Senator Guess, would you yield to a question:

"Senator Guess, I'd like to inquire—and we're speaking now of cranes—do these people that lease equipment, any type of equipment, carry company liability insurance for the time that they are off the job site and getting on to the job site?"

Senator Guess:

"Yes, they do, sir. I know one that carries $500,000 and another that carries a million."

Senator Rasmussen:

"All right, if we exempt the employee from liability for a suit, the employer would have insurance covering this then in most instances or in all instances?"

Senator Guess:

"The problem that you are trying to resolve this around, though, is not the one we are concerned with on the floor. The real thing that bothers us is after the crane gets to the job. We are not worried about the actions of the employee or the crane when it is going to and from the job, Senator Rasmussen, because then he is covered under normal channels and this is the person that might be injured by the crane or the actions of the employee who is not covered under industrial insurance. The only problem we are talking about here is whether or not the crane and employee are under the direction of the prime contractor who has rented the equipment."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Quite right. That is what I was trying to arrive at, that the liability insurance that he is carrying on this particular piece of equipment does not stop when he gets on the job site?"

Senator Guess:

"No, it does not but it makes it awfully expensive to be placed in double jeopardy all the time, Senator Rasmussen, and to have to be covered under the two classes of insurance. You see the contractor's man is already covered by industrial insurance. Then if he has to carry liability insurance to protect himself again from the actions of the crane man, then this is just a double cost."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Quite right. That's why the Uhlman-Greive amendment takes the employee-servant out and leaves the master in."

Senator Guess:

"You don't have a master-servant relationship here, Senator Rasmussen. You have a rented piece of equipment and the master-servant relationship does not exist. If you go back to the bill the way it was written and without the amendment, this would put the crane and the operator under the direction of the prime contractor. Then you could have the master-servant relationship."

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried on a rising vote and the amendment was adopted.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, section 1, after section 1, being page 2, line 25 of the printed bill, add the following new sections:

After all evidence has been presented at hearings conducted by a hearing examiner, who shall be an active member of the Washington state bar association, the hearing examiner shall prepare a proposed or recommended decision and order which shall be in writing and shall contain findings and conclusions as to each contested issue of fact and law, as well as the order based thereon. The hearing examiner shall file the original of the proposed decision and order, signed by him, with the board, and copies thereof shall be mailed by the board to each party to the appeal and to his attorney of record. Within twenty days, or such further period as the board may allow on written application of a party filed within said twenty days, from the date of communication of the proposed decision and order to the parties or their attorneys of record, any party may file with the board a written [statement of exceptions to] petition for review of the same. Such [statement of exceptions] petition for review shall set forth in detail the grounds therefor and the party or parties filing the same shall be deemed to have waived all objections or irregularities not specifically set forth therein.

In the event no [statement of exceptions] petition for review is filed as provided herein by any party, the proposed decision and order of the hearing examiner shall be adopted by the board and become the decision and order of the board, and no appeal may be taken therefrom to the courts.

Sec. 3. Section 51.52.106, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 165, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 51.52.106 are each amended to read as follows:

After the filing of a [statement or statements of exceptions] petition or petitions for review as provided for in [RCW 51.52.104] section 17 of this 1967 amendatory act, the proposed decision and order of the hearing examiner, the petition or petitions for review and, in its discretion, the record or any part thereof, may be considered by the board and on agreement of at least two of the regular members thereof, the board may thereupon deny the petition or petitions. In such event all parties shall forthwith be notified in writing of said denial, and the hearing examiner's proposed decision and order shall thereupon be deemed to be the final decision and order of the board. In the event of a review, the [record before the board] proposed decision and order, the petition or petitions for review and the record or any part thereof deemed necessary shall be considered by a panel of at least two of the members of the board, on which not more than one industry and one labor member serve. The chairman may be a member of any panel. The decision and order of any such panel shall be the decision and order of the board. Every final decision and order rendered by the board shall be in writing and shall contain findings and conclusions as to each contested issue of fact and law, as well as the board's order based thereon. A copy of the decisions and order, including the findings and conclusions, shall be mailed to each party to the appeal and to his attorney of record within one hundred and twenty days from the date of expiration of the period for filing petitions for review. In the event that no such decision and order is mailed within said one hundred and twenty days, the hearing examiner's proposed decision and order shall be deemed to be the final decision and order of the board.

Sec. 4. Section 51.52.110, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.52.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Within thirty days after the final decision and order of the board upon such appeal has been communicated to such workman, beneficiary, employer or other person, or within thirty days after the appeal is deemed denied as herein provided, or within thirty days after the proposed decision and order of the hearing examiner is deemed to be the final decision and order of the board as herein provided, such workman, beneficiary, employer or other person aggrieved by the decision and order of the board may appeal to the superior court.

In cases involving injured workmen such appeal shall be to the superior court of the county of residence of the workman or beneficiary, as shown by the department's records, the superior court for Thurston county, or to the superior court of the county wherein the injury occurred. In all other cases the appeal shall be to the superior court of Thurston county. Such appeal shall be perfected by filing with the clerk of the court a notice of appeal and by serving a copy thereof by mail, or personally, on the director and on the board. The department shall, within twenty days after the receipt of such notice of appeal, serve and file its notice of appearance and such appeal shall thereupon be deemed at issue. The board shall serve upon the appealing party, the director and any other party appearing at the board's proceeding, and file with the clerk of the court before trial, a certified copy of the board's official record which shall include the notice of appeal and other pleadings, testimony and exhibits, and the board's decision and order, which shall become the record in such case. No bond shall be required on appeals to the superior court or on appeals to the supreme court, except that an appeal by the employer from a decision and order of the board under RCW 51.48.070, shall be ineffectual unless, within five days following the service of notice thereof, a bond, with surety satisfactory to the court, shall be filed, conditioned to perform the judgment of the court. Except in the case last named an appeal shall not be a stay: Provided, However, That whenever the board has made any decision and order reversing an order of the supervisor of industrial insurance on questions of law or mandatory administrative actions of the director, the department shall have the right of appeal to the superior court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 2 through 4 of this 1967 amendatory act shall take effect on July 1, 1967. The review procedure provided in sections 17 through 19 of this 1967 amendatory act shall apply to all appeals as provided for in chapter 51.52 RCW, but as to those appeals pending before the board on July 1, 1967, with respect to which there has been a proposed decision and order issued on which exceptions have been filed, the time for mailing a final decision and order shall be extended to one hundred and twenty days from July 1, 1967."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Freise:

"Mr. President, I raise the point of order that this particular amendment is beyond the scope and object of this bill."

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President:

"I do not think that it does. This particular bill deals with industrial insurance. It deals with the status of workmen, employees, equipment and time. It deals with industrial insurance recoveries. What this particular amendment deals with is another bill, granted, that we passed through this particular session of the legislature during the regular session, a labor measure which would have provided that where there were attorneys' fees that their payment would have come out of a special fund created out of the accident fund and medical aid fund, so that the way it is now the fee is set usually at thirty percent so the person who is injured has thirty percent less money, and as I have previously pointed out on another amendment, we are in a position here where you don't have a great deal of money."

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President, speaking to the point of order:

"This particular bill which we have been talking about all week deals only for the main part with a change in the substantive law in regards to rented equipment and leased equipment, and it formerly made them fellow servants and this particular amendment being offered by Senator Greive is way outside the scope of the bill that has been before us all this week."

The President:

"Members of the Senate:

"This appears to be quite a complicated point and the President would suggest that the Senate proceed in order and hold this matter in abeyance until possibly tomorrow."

Senator Freise:

"I have no objection."

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President:

"I just would appreciate if you are going to decide this tomorrow, I hadn't had an opportunity—until he raised the point, to get a look at the bill but I call attention to the formal title: 'An Act relating to industrial insurance and amending sections—' and the sections involved are the very sections we are dealing with in this amendment. It seems to me that is a broad title and there shouldn't be any particular problem in this case.

"Now going back to speaking to the particular amendment, this particular attorneys' fee schedule was something—"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall:

"Point of order, Mr. President:

"Did I understand you to say that this bill is to be put over until tomorrow?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President had not struck the gavel as yet. It seems to be the consensus of the Senate that it should be put over until tomorrow's calendar."

Senator Greive:

"We won't be able to go ahead with the other amendments? You mean to put the whole thing over? We have additional amendments on the desk."

The President:

"The President had reference only to the point as presented by Senator Freise. The President sees no objection to continuing with the other amendments."

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Woodall that Engrossed House Bill No. 930 retain its place at the beginning of the second reading calendar for tomorrow.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Senate Bill No. 280,
Senate Bill No. 386.

THIRD READING OF BILLS

Senate Bill No. 638, by Senators Lewis and Hallauer:

Amending public lands statutes and providing for financing the east capitol site.

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended and Senate Bill No. 638 was returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

On motion of Senator Greive, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, section 2, line 24, after "district" and before the period insert: "Provided, That whenever the port district shall hereafter construct improvements on such leased harbor areas or tideland the rental attributable to such improvements shall go to the port district."

On motion of Senator Talley, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, section 2, line 10, after "respectively" and before the period insert: "Provided, That each year, when the current annual debt service requirements for the bonds authorized by section 4 of this act have been provided for, the formula for distribution to port districts shall be re-established as provided in section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1913, as last amended by section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1937"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted):

"Mr. President, would Senator Greive yield to a question:

"Senator Greive, now as I understand it, on west waterway where the port is developed, and they were running into costs and decided to put in a trade center or dock, they would still have to pay that same money to the Capital Improvement Fund that they had received from this income—they will still have to continue paying even though they have another type of installation that they might be using for their own use and not getting any rental for it?"

Senator Greive:

"That's right. In other words even though they might have completely demolished the development during the life of the bonds and even though they may have built a facility much larger and were using it exclusively for their own use, they would have to continue to pay whatever amount they were paying."

Senator Peterson (Ted):

"They would still have to be paying this penalty?"

Senator Greive:

"Yes."

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 638 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 638 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 15; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 4.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Herrmann, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Marquardt, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ryder, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—28.

Absent or not voting: Senators Metcalf, Pritchard—2.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan, Neill, Stender—4.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 638 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Atwood, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 638 was immediately transmitted to the House.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Metcalf was excused.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 298, by Committee on Commerce, Manufacturing and Licenses:

Making appointments to horse racing commission to be with consent of Senate.

On motion of Senator Hallauer the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Substitute Senate Bill No. 298 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 298 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 5.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—40.

Absent or not voting: Senators Gissberg, Lennart, McCutcheon, Pritchard—4.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan, Metcalf, Neill, Stender—5.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 298 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 3:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Friday, April 14, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Friday, April 14, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Al Henry.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senator Metcalf.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Metcalf was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Gregory Klump, Color Bearer, and Debbie Crase, presented the Colors.

Reverend Charles H. Perry, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"O God, our Father, the source of all wisdom, the giver of beauty and the author of life help us this day to be aware of your love and to seek your truth. By the power of faith dwelling in the hearts of men guide the nations of the world into the ways of justice and peace.

"We humbly pray for the members of this Senate that they, in their calling to serve the people of this State, will be faithful and responsible in their duties, loyal to the high office which is theirs and unselfish in their efforts to create legislation which shall further the growth and human development of all people. To You, O God, we commend them and their work that all that is done here may serve the ends of justice, mercy and freedom, bringing wholeness and worth to our society and to the individuals within it.

"In the tedium of the day by day task let us not forget the dignity of men and women and the restlessness of your spirit within us. Help us not to be satisfied with little tasks while the difficult issues of life are ignored and those things which free men to serve one another and You are left undone. Create in us, O God, a will to work and a will to serve — not for our own sakes alone, but for the sake of the people of this State.

"Glorious art Thou, our God, and worthy of our devotion, our praise and our thanksgiving, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 39

By Senators Woodall, McCormack, Redmon and Canfield:

Whereas, Construction of the Satus Dam has been under study since 1920; and

Whereas, Reports on this important irrigation, flood control, water supply, recreation and fisheries enhancement project have been made as recently as 1964 by the U.S. Bureau of Indian Affairs; and

Whereas, New federal water resources project standards relating to recreational benefits from such projects open up new means of providing for these functions; and

Whereas, The Department of the Interior and the Bureau of Indian Affairs have placed a low priority on this development, which is important if full development of our water resources on the Yakima River system is to be obtained; and

Whereas, The Satus Dam would provide irrigation for some 14,000 acres of lands now dry, would store 64,600 acre-feet of water and greatly augment low flows for fish and wildlife enhancement and recreational purposes; and

Whereas, This project has widespread community support and its construction is urged by local soil and water conservation districts, farmers, sportsmen, valley chambers of commerce and the Yakima Tribal Council;

Now, Therefore Be It Resolved, That the Secretary of the Interior immediately complete a comprehensive re-evaluation of the irrigation, flood control, fish and wildlife enhancement, low flow augmentation and recreational benefits of the project and place it before the Congress for authorization at the earliest possible date;

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to President Lyndon B. Johnson, the President of the United States Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives; Senators Warren G. Magnuson and Henry M. Jackson, Congresswoman Catherine May and the other members of the Washington Congressional delegation.

On motion of Senator Canfield, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 40

By Senators Woodall, Twigg, Greive and Uhlman:

Whereas, There is a great need for extra judicial manpower in the state of Washington; and

Whereas, There are a great number of judges who have retired and who will retire from judicial service, who are experienced and competent members of the bench, and;

Whereas, There is a great backlog of cases which could be reduced if there were judges to hear them; and

Whereas, The legislature is continually faced every session with the prospect of creating new judgeships at an increasing rate; and

Whereas, Judges who are retired are able to draw out retirement pay while competing with attorneys with no similar financial resources;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, that the legislative council be required to continue its investigation of the possibility of using retired judges to sit as judges pro tem in superior courts as well as the supreme court; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the legislative council report back to the legislature prior to the forty-first session its recommendations toward the accomplishment of these goals.

It was moved by Senator Woodall that the resolution be adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McMillan:

"Mr. President, would Senator Woodall yield to a question:

"Senator, do you know from actual knowledge or do you feel that superior court judges in the more sparsely settled areas are used to the maximum in filling vacancies in some of these more populated areas such as King, Pierce and Spokane counties? I would just like to add that I know our superior court judge spends a good deal of time in Seattle but I feel there is time that he could still have available. I think throughout some eastern Washington areas particularly that possibly our judges are not being used to the fullest extent."

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"The extent that this judge works depends in part upon the individual judge. Now some of your judges are very willing and they take very seriously their obligation to fill the gap because they are superior court judges of the state of Washington first and secondly in and for the county in which they reside. One local example when Judge Ott was a superior court judge he gloried in the opportunity to appear at other courts throughout the state. Possibly he had in mind running for a higher job which he subsequently got, but the fact is he was most willing to go all over the state and some judges are. Now I know one judge just south of me in Senator Henry's district who very willingly accepts appointments in other areas. But we have had a judge or two who would set one case deliberately in the middle of the week and then he would announce to the world that he was busy that week. But most of them I believe are sincere in their desire to go to other areas and fill in. But we do have the rising population and the situation is this: You have a judge now that quits at say age fifty and we pay him half pay for doing absolutely nothing, the rest of his life. He could then go out and practice law. The idea is to try to make it a little like the federal system, once you choose the judicial life you have chosen that high branch and when you go into retired status, you should hold yourself available to work at least half time. Now by increasing the retirement pension slightly, we would gain half use of a man that we are not using at all. It's a bargain to the taxpayer and I think we should further study this for the next two years and come back with recommendations along these lines."

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 41

By Senator Freise:

Whereas, The publicity releases of the Democrat leadership indicate that agreement has been reached on the budget, determining the amount of money needed to fund it, clearing the way to providing that sum by necessary legislation, and eliminating the last serious obstacle to early adjournment;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved That the legislature meet in daily session, until adjournment; or in the alternative, if the senate should recess for the weekend, that the senate discontinue allowance of per diem commencing April 15, 1967.

It was moved by Senator Freise that the resolution be adopted.

Debate ensued.

QUESTION OF CONSIDERATION

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President:

"I raise the question of consideration on this particular matter."

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Senator Greive has raised the question of consideration."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall:

"Point of information, Mr. President:

"Had Senator Freise been recognized for the purpose of commencing debate?"

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Yes."

Senator Woodall:

"Prior to the time that Senator Greive attempted to raise the question of consideration?"

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Yes."

Senator Woodall:

"Then I submit that under the rules that once a Senator is recognized to commence debate, the question of consideration cannot thereafter be raised."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Senator Woodall's point is well taken."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Bailey:

"Mr. President, would the record show if Senator Freise was absent or excused or present on Monday?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"The records would show that, Senator."

Senator Freise:

"Mr. President, I'll answer the question. I was not here on Monday. I believe I was excused, but at the same time, there was nothing to do here. Why should you be here when there was a complete exercise in futility."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the resolution was laid upon the table. The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 14, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 532, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Olympia, Wash., April 14, 1967.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred Substitute House Bill No. 532, providing a procedure to effect cancellation of a motor vehicle insurance policy, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that Substitute House Bill No. 532 be amended to read as follows:

Beginning on page 1, line 1, strike all the material down to and including "public." on page 4, line 14 and substitute the following:

An Act relating to insurance; amending section .12.19, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.12.190; amending section .13.02, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.13.020; amending section .13.14, chapter 79, Laws of 1947, as amended by section 3, chapter 303, Laws of 1955 and RCW 48.13.140; amending section .13.16, chapter 79, Laws of 1947, as amended by section 17, chapter 190, Laws of 1949 and RCW 48.13.160; amending section .13.17, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.13.170; adding new sections to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.18 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.22 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.24 RCW; adding a new chapter to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to Title 48 RCW; and providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted By The Legislature of The State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) No contract of insurance predicated upon the use of a private passenger automobile, or the renewal thereof, shall be terminated by cancellation or refusal to renew by the insurer until at least fifteen days after mailing written notice of termination by certified mail with return receipt to the named insured at the latest address filed with the insurer by or on behalf of the named insured. Time of the effective date and hour of termination stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period.

(2) In addition, no such contract of insurance which has been in effect sixty days may be terminated by cancellation by the insurer unless:

(a) The named insured fails to discharge when due any of his obligations in connection with the payment of premium for the policy or any installment thereof; or

(b) The insurance was obtained through fraudulent misrepresentation; or

(c) The named insured violates any of the terms and conditions of the policy not in conflict with the provisions of this subsection; or

(d) The named insured or any other operator, who customarily operates an automobile insured under the policy;

(i) Has had his driver's license suspended or revoked during the policy period, or

(ii) Has experienced and is likely to experience epilepsy or heart attacks, and such individual cannot produce a certificate from a physician testifying to his unqualified ability to operate a motor vehicle, or

(iii) Is or has been convicted of or forfeits bail, during the thirty-six months immediately preceding the effective date of the policy or during the policy period, for:

(A) Any felony, or

(B) Criminal negligence resulting in death, homicide or assault, arising out of the operation of a motor vehicle, or

(C) Operating a motor vehicle while in an intoxicated condition or while under the influence of drugs, or

(D) Leaving the scene of an accident without stopping to report, or

(E) Theft of a motor vehicle, or

(F) A third violation for any one operator within a period of eighteen months of any moving traffic offense.

After the aforesaid sixty-day period, a notice of cancellation from the insurer to the insured shall give the statutory reason for which such cancellation is made.

(3) No contract of insurance subject to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section which has been in effect for sixty days shall be terminated by refusal to renew by the insurer unless:

(a) The insurer gives the named insured notice in writing as provided for in subsection (1) of this section, that:

(i) It proposes to terminate or refuse to renew the insurance contract upon such date; and

(ii) Upon receipt of a written request from the named insured, it will forthwith mail to the named insured a written explanation of its actual reason or reasons for terminating or refusing to renew; and

(iii) The named insured, within five days after receipt of such notice, may at his option, request the insurer to furnish such written explanation; and

(b) If the named insured exercises his option, the insurer shall forthwith, but, in any event, prior to the proposed termination or failure to renew, mail to the named insured by certified mail with return receipt a written explanation giving the actual reason or reasons for its refusal to renew the contract.

(4) Any notice or written explanation given pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be privileged and shall not constitute grounds for any cause of action against the insurer or its representative or any firm, person or corporation who in good faith furnishes to the insurer the information upon which the reasons are based.

(5) The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(a) Contracts of insurance issued under the assigned risk plan; and

(b) Contracts of insurance providing principally general casualty insurance in addition to vehicle insurance; and

(c) Contracts of insurance insuring more than four motor vehicles; and

(d) Any cancellation or refusal to renew for failure of the named insured to pay a premium when due.

(6) (a) Any contract of insurance which specifies either no definite policy period or a policy period of six months or less shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered to have successive policy periods ending each six months following its original date of issue.

(b) Each contract of insurance subject to this enactment must set forth the substance of subsection (2), which may be in form of an attached endorsement.

(c) The provisions of the above section shall take effect on July 1, 1968.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Nothing in section 1 of this act shall be construed to prevent the cancellation or nonrenewal of any such insurance where:

(1) Such cancellation or nonrenewal is ordered by the commissioner under a statutory delinquency proceeding commenced under the provisions of chapter 48.31 RCW, or

(2) Permission for such cancellation or nonrenewal has been given by the commissioner on a showing that the continuation of such coverage can reasonably be expected to create a condition in the company hazardous to its policyholder, or to its creditors, or to its members, subscribers, or stockholders, or to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The term "uninsured motor vehicles" with reference to coverage offered under any insurance policy regulated under this chapter shall, subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, be deemed to include an insured motor vehicle where the liability insurer thereof is unable to make payment with respect to the legal liability of its insured within the limits specified therein because of insolvency.

(2) An insurer's insolvency protection shall be applicable only to accidents occurring during a policy period in which its insured's uninsured motorist coverage is in effect where the liability insurer of the tort-feasor becomes insolvent within three years after such an accident. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any insurer from affording insolvency protection under terms and conditions more favorable to its insureds than is provided hereunder.

(3) In the event of payment to an insured under the coverage required by this chapter and subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, the insurer making such payment shall, to the extent thereof, be entitled to the proceeds of any settlement or judgment resulting from the exercise of any rights of recovery of such insured against any person or organization legally responsible for the bodily injury for which such payment is made, including the proceeds recoverable from the assets of the insolvent insurer. Whenever an insurer shall make payment under the coverage required by this section and which payment is occasioned by an insolvency, such insurer's right of recovery or reimbursement shall not include any rights against the insured of said insolvent insurer, but such paying insurer shall have the right to proceed directly against the insolvent insurer or its receiver, and in pursuance of such right such paying insurer shall possess any rights which the insured of the insolvent company might otherwise have had, if the insured of the insolvent insurer had personally made the payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to Title 48 RCW a new chapter as set forth in sections 5 through 9 of this amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. As used in sections 5 through 9 of this amendatory act:

(1) "Profit-sharing policy" means:

(a) A life insurance policy which by its terms expressly provides that the policyholder will participate in the distribution of earnings or surplus other than earnings or surplus attributable, by reasonable and nondiscriminatory standards, to the participating policies of the company and allocated to the policyholder on reasonable and nondiscriminatory standards; or

(b) A life insurance policy the provisions of which, through sales material or oral presentations, are interpreted by the company to prospective policyholders as entitling the policyholder to the benefits described in subsection (a) of this section.

(2) "Charter policy" or "founders policy" means:

(a) A life insurance policy which by its terms expressly provides that the policyholder will receive some preferential or discriminatory advantage or benefit not available to persons who purchase insurance from the company at future dates or under other circumstances; or

(b) A life insurance policy the provisions of which, through sales material or oral presentations, are interpreted by the company to prospective policyholders as entitling the policyholder to the benefits described in subsection (a) of this section.

(3) "Coupon policy" means a life insurance policy which provides a series of pure endowments maturing periodically in amounts not exceeding the gross annual policy premiums. The term "pure endowment" or "endowment" is used in its accepted actuarial sense, meaning a benefit becoming payable at a specific future date if the insured person is then living.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. No profit-sharing, charter, or founders policy shall be issued or delivered in this state after September 1, 1967.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. No coupon policy shall be issued or delivered in this state until the form of the same has been filed with and approved by the commissioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Coupon policies issued or delivered in this state shall be subject to the following provisions:

(1) No detachable coupons or certificates or passbooks may be used. No other device may be used which tends to emphasize the periodic endowment benefits or which tends to create the impression that the endowments represent interest earnings or anything other than benefits which have been purchased by part of the policyholder's premium payments.

(2) Each endowment benefit must have a fixed maturity date and payment of the endowment benefit shall not be contingent upon the payment of any premium becoming due on or after such maturity date.

(3) The endowment benefits must be expressed in dollar amounts rather than as percentages of other quantities or in other ways, both in the policy itself and in the sale thereof.

(4) A separate premium for the periodic endowment benefits must be shown in the policy adjacent to the rest of the policy premium information and must be given the same emphasis in the policy and in the sale thereof as that given the rest of the policy premium information. This premium shall be calculated with mortality, interest and expense factors which are consistent with those for the basic policy premium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The commissioner may revoke all certificates of authority and licenses granted to any insurance company, its officers or agents violating any provision of sections 5 through 9 of this amendatory act.

Sec. 10. Section .12.19, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.12.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Real property acquired pursuant to a mortgage loan or a contract for a deed, in the absence of a recent appraisal deemed by the commissioner to be reliable, shall not be valued at an amount greater than the unpaid principal of the defaulted loan or contract at the date of such acquisition, together with any taxes and expenses paid or incurred in connection with such acquisition, and the cost of improvements thereafter made by the insurer and any amounts thereafter paid by the insurer on assessments levied for improvements in connection with the property.

(2) Other real property held by an insurer shall not be valued at any amount in excess of fair value, less reasonable depreciation based on the estimated life of the improvements.

(3) Personal property acquired pursuant to chattel mortgages made under RCW 48.13.150 shall not be valued at an amount greater than the unpaid balance of principal on the defaulted loan at date of acquisition together with taxes and expenses incurred in connection with such acquisition, or the fair value of such property, whichever amount is the lesser.

Sec. 11. Section .13.02, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.13.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No security or other investment shall be eligible for purchase or acquisition under this chapter unless it is interest bearing or interest accruing or dividend or income paying, is not then in default in any respect, and the insurer is entitled to receive for its exclusive account and benefit, the interest or income accruing thereon; except, [that it may acquire real property for occupancy by the insurer for home and branch office purposes].

(a) that an insurer may acquire real property as provided in RCW 48.13.160, and

(b) that this section shall not prevent participation by an insurer in a mortgage loan if the insurer holds a senior participation in such mortgage or deed of trust giving it substantially the rights of a first mortgagee as to its interest in that loan.

(2) No security shall be eligible for purchase at a price above its market value.

(3) No provision of this chapter shall prohibit the acquisition by an insurer of other or additional securities or property if received as a dividend or as a lawful distribution of assets, or if acquired pursuant to a lawful and bona fide agreement of bulk reinsurance or consolidation. Any investments so acquired through bulk reinsurance or consolidation, which are not otherwise eligible under this chapter, shall be disposed of pursuant to RCW 48.13.290 if personal property or securities, or pursuant to RCW 48.13.170 if real property.

Sec. 12. Section .13.14, chapter 79, Laws of 1947, as amended by section 3, chapter 303, Laws of 1955 and RCW 48.13.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The fair value of property shall be determined by appraisal by a competent appraiser at the time of the acquisition of real property or of the making or acquiring of a mortgage loan or investing in a contract for the deed thereon; except, that as to bonds or notes secured by mortgage or trust deed guaranteed or insured by the Federal Housing Administration, or guaranteed or insured as to principal in full or in part by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, or guaranteed or insured by the Farmers Home Administration, the valuation made by such administration or administrator shall be deemed to have been made by a competent appraiser for the purposes of this subsection.

(2) Buildings and other improvements located on [the] mortgaged premises shall be kept insured for the benefit of the mortgagee against loss or damage from fire in an amount not less than the unpaid balance of the obligation, or the insurable value of the property, whichever is the lesser.

(3) An insurer shall not make or acquire a loan or loans upon the security of any one parcel of real property in aggregate amount in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars or more than the amount permissible under RCW 48.13.030, whichever is the greater.

Sec. 13. Section .13.16, chapter 79, Laws of 1947, as amended by section 17, chapter 190, Laws of 1949 and RCW 48.13.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An insurer may own and invest or have invested in its home office and branch office buildings any of its funds in aggregate amount not to exceed ten percent of its assets unless approved by the commissioner, or if a mutual or reciprocal insurer not to exceed ten percent of its assets nor such amount as would reduce its surplus, exclusive of such investment, below fifty thousand dollars unless approved by the commissioner.

(2) An insurer may own real property acquired in satisfaction or on account of loans, mortgages, liens, judgments, or other debts previously owing to the insurer in the course of its business [,and].

(3) An insurer may invest or have invested in aggregate amount not exceeding three percent of its assets in the following [other] real property, and in the repair, alteration, furnishing, or improvement thereof [, as follows only]:

(a) [Other] Real property requisite for its accommodation in the convenient transaction of its business if approved by the commissioner.

(b) Real property acquired by gift or devise.

(c) Real property acquired in exchange for real property owned by it. If necessary in order to consummate such an exchange, the insurer may put up cash in amount not to exceed twenty percent of the fair value of its real property to be so exchanged, in addition to such property.

(d) Real property acquired through a lawful merger or consolidation with it of another insurer and not required for the purposes specified in subsection (1) and in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section.

(e) Upon approval of the commissioner, in real property and equipment incident to real property, requisite or desirable for the protection or enhancement of the value of other real property owned by the insurer.

(4) A domestic life insurer with assets of at least twenty-five million dollars and at least ten million dollars in capital and surplus, may, in addition to the real property included in subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section, own such real property other than property to be used primarily for agricultural, horticultural, ranch, mining, recreational, amusement, or club purposes, as may be acquired as an investment for the production of income, or as may be acquired to be improved or developed for such investment purpose pursuant to an existing program therefore, subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) The cost of each parcel of real property so acquired under this subsection (4), including the estimated cost to the insurer of the improvement or development thereof, when added to the book value of all other real property, together with the admitted value of all common stock, then held by it, shall not exceed twenty percent of its admitted assets as of the thirty-first day of December next preceding; and

(b) The cost of each parcel of real property so acquired, including the estimated cost to the insurer of the improvement or development thereof, shall not exceed as of the thirty-first day of December next preceding, one percent of its admitted assets.

(c) Indirect or proportionate interests in real estate held by a domestic life insurer through any subsidiary shall be included in proportion to such insurer's interest in the subsidiary in applying the limits provided in subsection (4).

Sec. 14. Section .13.17, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.13.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Real property acquired by an insurer pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection [(2)] (3) of RCW 48.13.160 shall be disposed of within five years after it has ceased being necessary for the use of the insurer in the transaction of its business. Real property acquired by an insurer pursuant to [such] loans, mortgages, liens, judgments, or other debts, or pursuant to paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (e), of subsection [(2)] (3) of RCW 48.13.160 shall be disposed of within five years after date of acquisition. The time for any such disposal may be extended by the commissioner for a definite additional period or periods upon application and proof that forced sale of the property, otherwise necessary, would be against the best interests of the insurer.

(2) Any such real property held by the insurer without the commissioner's consent beyond the time permitted for its disposal shall not be carried or allowed as an asset.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and to chapter 48.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a state or federally regulated financial institution, which financial institution shall be deemed the policyholder. The purpose of the policy shall be to insure the depositors or depositor members of the financial institution for the benefit of persons other than the financial institution or its officers. The issuance of the policy shall be subject to the following requirements:

(1) The persons eligible for insurance under the policy shall be the depositors or deposit members of such financial institution, except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, or any class or classes thereof determined by conditions of age.

(2) The policy must cover at least one hundred persons at the date of issue.

(3) The amount of insurance under the policy shall not exceed the amount of the deposit account of the insured person or five thousand dollars whichever is less.

(4) Financial institutions referred to herein must be authorized to do business in the state of Washington and have their depositors' or members' deposit accounts insured against loss to the amount of at least fifteen thousand dollars by a corporate agency of the federal government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons and circumstances is not affected., and that Substitute House Bill No. 532 be passed, as amended.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 282 and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Substitute Senate Bill No. 23,
Senate Bill No. 480.

FIRST READING OF HOUSE BILL AND RESOLUTIONS

The following were read first time by title and acted upon as indicated:

Engrossed House Bill No. 64, by Representatives Copeland, Taylor and Moon (by Legislative Council request):

An Act relating to state government; creating an advisory committee on state laboratory facilities; prescribing powers, duties and functions; and making an appropriation.

Referred to Committee on State Government.

Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 15, by Representative Copeland:

Proposing amendment of Constitution by subject matter rather than by section.

Referred to Committee on Constitution, Elections and Legislative Processes.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 41, by Representatives Cunningham, Mahaffey and Smith:

Directing the public pension commission to study the effects of granting pensions to surviving spouses of public officers and employees.

Referred to Committee on State Government.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 42, by Representatives Lewis, Moon, Berentson and Garrett:

Calling for a legislative council study of water management.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 42 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

It was moved by Senator Hallauer that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, lines 2 and 3, strike "management especially as they relate" and insert "problems relating"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess:

"Mr. President, would Senator Hallauer yield to a question:

"Senator Hallauer, there is only one bill that I can remember that did not get through the legislature this session and that was Senate Bill No. 140 which has to do with soil and water conservation districts and I am wondering if this measure that is before us possibly should be amended to include the soil and water conservation districts and to provide for some means of controlling or some means of solving the problem of entire watersheds. Do you think that this bill would permit us to use this as an avenue to solve the problems of entire watersheds?"

Senator Hallauer:

"Mr. President:

"My interpretation of the resolution is such that I would feel that the legislative council could go into this field of activity. I would like to point out to Senator Guess that the bill which did not get passed was not Senate Bill No. 140. That actually was not a committee recommendation. It was one that the committee certainly worked on and you and I as individual members of the committee did a lot of polishing, but the actual bill which misfired was House Bill No. 222."

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 42 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, the resolution placed on final passage and adopted.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed House Bill No. 930, by Representatives Bagnariol and Barden:

Designating status of workmen employed on equipment time rented by another employer for industrial insurance recovery purposes.

On motion of Senator Greive, Engrossed House Bill No. 930 was ordered to retain its place on the second reading calendar for this afternoon.

MOTION

At 12:00 noon, on motion of Senator Greive, the President Pro Tempore declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 12:55 p.m.

MOTION

At 12:55 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 2:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:00 p.m.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senators Neill and Redmon were excused.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of the report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 532.

It was moved by Senator Herrmann that the report of the Free Conference Committee be adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman:

"Mr. President, would Senator Herrmann yield to a question:

"Senator Herrmann, on page 3, line 27, subsection (b), can you tell me what that means?"

Senator Herrmann:

"Could you read the provision?"

Senator Uhlman:

"It is subsection (5), the provisions of this section shall not apply to (a) and then (b) is:

"Contracts of insurance providing principally general casualty insurance in addition to vehicle insurance."

"I don't understand what you are talking about."

Senator Herrmann:

"The provisions of this bill and the provisions that are set forth as I understand it, Senator, are limited to the coverage of automobile insurance. We are not attempting to regulate the entire field of casualty insurance. The automobile insurance that you have that covers your automobile and covers you while you are driving it is a phase of casualty insurance. However, home-owner policies and many other multiple risk policies that cover industries and many other activities would not be changed by the provisions of this law and I believe that this provision limits the restrictions and the regulations pertaining to cancellations and notices and so forth to the field of automobile insurance, rather than having it apply to the big, broad, general field of liability."

Senator Uhlman:

"Mr. President, would Senator Herrmann yield to one more question:

"Senator Herrmann, on page 4, line 17 through 22, I don't understand the situation that would be covered:

"Permission for such cancellation or nonrenewal has been given by the commissioner on a showing that the continuation of such coverage can reasonably be expected to create a condition in the company hazardous to its policyholder, or to its creditors, or to its members, subscribers, or stockholders, or to the public."

"What are you covering by that?"

Senator Herrmann:

"I think that it gives the commissioner control in situations where companies may be in a situation that they could become financially embarrassed and under circumstances of that kind, that there has to be an immediate take over, or if cancellations are affected, there would be other procedure for proper protection because there would be other legal procedures that would give notice that the company has become insolvent or is abusing the laws to the extent necessary for the commissioner to intervene. Also in that particular field, Senator, we have in another bill enforced the powers of the commissioner to take over and we have given him immediate access to this remedy so that it wouldn't be necessary, we hope, to go through years of litigation as we had in this one particular company where it was years before the commissioner could actually come in and take over. But this provision would not hamstring the commissioner's office if for some reason they had to take over as a matter of law, but notice would always have to be given."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gissberg:

"Mr. President, would Senator Herrmann yield:

"I have two questions, Senator Herrmann, the first of which is what was your thinking in making the cancellation provision, the notice provisions inapplicable to assigned risk plans; and, secondly, would you explain what the provisions of section 15 do? Section 15 is the last page of the bill."

Senator Herrmann:

"We exempted the assigned risk plan. As you know, Senator, the term is set up by law and how long they can be covered by law and once that certificate is filed, it has to remain for a time certain, and there is no cancellation under the assigned risk except as prescribed by other statutes, and by the law. When you are in the assigned risk class, you no longer have this free right of bargaining. It's set up through regulations of its own and it is a very tight situation as far as the statute is concerned.

"Now section 15 would provide a means for the savings and loans to provide insurance for their depositors. It would be similar to the provisions that are now enjoyed by the credit unions. As you know—if you have a deposit in a certain amount in the state credit unions then they are allowed to give group insurance coverage to the depositors. That has been increased during this session and it would give the savings and loans the same provision as the credit unions in this field."

Senator Gissberg:

"Do you mean that a savings and loan association at its annual meeting or a mutual savings bank at its annual meeting, of course very few people usually attend savings and loan association annual meetings but as you know, proxies are sent out to all depositors and usually the proxies aren't filled out anyway, but would this then allow those groups that appear or the officers of the company to purchase group life policies for the benefit of all of the depositors without the specific concurrence of each of the depositors?"

Senator Herrmann:

"Whatever way that they conduct business at the present time. I think it could be done in whatever way the governing body of the savings and loan is allowed to conduct business. They may provide group insurance up to the amount of the deposit, not to exceed $5,000. Now as I say the credit unions have been operating I believe up to $2,000. They were increased to $3,000 and it would permit the savings and loans to have a similar provision. I don't have the number of this bill, but it was another bill that was introduced too late to be moved through. There are about three or four bills incorporated in this report, and there is a bill in the book—I don't have the number—that was introduced to this effect."

Senator Gissberg:

"I don't understand the purpose of this. There may be some valid reason that escapes me. I don't know. But I do not understand the purpose of insuring against the death of a depositor in a financial institution. Now who is the beneficiary? Let's say I have $5,000 on deposit in your savings and loan association and the board of trustees of the savings and loan association provides coverage to me to insure against my death up to the amount of my deposit which is in the association. Then who is the beneficiary of the $5,000 upon my death?"

Senator Herrmann:

"In your instance, I would say your wife, and your family. The credit unions for example and I am very familiar with this situation—will afford life insurance for the amount of your deposit up to a given amount and that's just an added benefit for your savings or your investment in the credit union, and they have operated this way for several years with a $2,000 limit and I think they increased it to $3,000 this year. This would permit the savings and loan association to add another benefit to your deposit. In other words, if you had $5,000 on deposit with a savings and loan, you would have also $5,000 group insurance, and then in the event of your death, your wife would have $5,000 plus the $5,000 in insurance."

Senator Gissberg:

"Then apparently this could require me as a depositor in the savings and loan association to be a participant in an insurance program insuring my life for the amount of deposit whether or not I want to be covered by the additional insurance, and it would result in a diminution of the amount of the dividends that would otherwise accrue to my account? I believe that would be a fair statement of what this law would do."

Senator Herrmann:

"I think it would probably be an additional cost, Senator, but I don't think that the interest rate would particularly depreciate as a result of this."

Senator Gissberg:

"Of course somebody has to pay the premium on the group life policy and the premium would necessarily come from the earnings of the savings and loan association. Of course the net earnings of the savings and loan association are distributable to the depositors and usually to the extent that you diminish the net earnings, of course you diminish the premiums or dividends payable to the depositors. Then my last question as to the beneficiary—I see nothing in here which spells out who the beneficiary would be and I refer you to line 9, for an explanation if you are able to do so, Senator Herrmann, where it says, reading in context with line 7, 'The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a state or federally regulated financial institution, which financial institution shall be deemed the policyholder.'"

"I suppose that's standard language?"

Senator Herrmann:

"That's right. In a group policy, they would be the policyholder of the group policy."

Senator Gissberg:

"Where does it say who the beneficiary would be?"

Senator Herrmann:

"It says under that: 'The persons eligible for the insurance under the policy shall be the depositors or deposit members—' and so on. Now I would say this is not a bill that I have sponsored. This is not one that I have particularly promoted. It is a bill that was requested. It has had considerable discussion and we have found no objection to it. I will say this: In my discussions on this matter and with the other five members of the conference committee approving it, we have had considerable contact from the savings and loan people and Representative O'Dell was on the committee. I think he had had a bill in the House also and we have had the benefit of discussion of this bill. There was a representative of the savings and loans, a Mr. Williams—you probably are familiar with him, an attorney from Seattle—that was very much interested in this, and he presented it in a manner that it looked from the surface at least as though it would be an added benefit to the depositors in the savings and loan. As I say, I'm not familiar with the laws in other states pertaining to the savings and loans. I do know that under the statutes that the state credit unions and other credit unions have had a practice of insuring and giving group life insurance and it was an added benefit to their depositors for the amount of the deposit up to $2,000 and now they have had that increased, I think, to $3,000 and it has been a very good incentive for investment, and I would think that this would be an added benefit. The only interest that I would have in the bill would be as my deposit in the savings and loan—if this is adopted by my particular bank or savings and loan—would be the added benefit of so much group insurance and I think it would be to the benefit of the depositors. You see, you get the advantage, there is no medical required under this group. Anyone who comes in and deposits money gets a rate or the company gets a rate on the depositor that would be much lower than any rate they could receive and many people who are absolutely uninsurable could get life protection under this plan, and as I see it, it would be an advantage to the public, to the person who wants to save a little money and at the same time get the benefit of life protection that he probably wouldn't have otherwise. I don't see any objection to it. I'll put it that way. But I still haven't sponsored this bill or particularly tried to promote its passage."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Sandison, the report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 532 was ordered to retain its place on the proper order of business for Monday, April 17, 1967.

It was moved by Senator Rasmussen that the rules be suspended and that the Senate return to the first order of business.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side and having previously given notice of intent, Senator Rasmussen moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 202 passed the Senate.

It was moved by Senator McMillan that further consideration of the matter be deferred until the proper order of business on Monday, April 17, 1967. Debate ensued.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President wishes to point out that in his opinion, inasmuch as the Senate has not voted to reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 202 was passed, that it will take a suspension of the rules to consider this matter on Monday."

It was moved by Senator McMillan that the rules be suspended and that the matter retain its place under the proper order of business on Monday, April 17, 1967.

The motion was lost on a rising vote.

Senators Woodall, Uhlman and Peterson (Ted) demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The motion for reconsideration was lost on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, House Bill No. 202 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed House Bill No. 930, by Representatives Bagnariol and Barden: Designating status of workmen employed on equipment time rented by another employer for industrial insurance recovery purposes.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 930 on second reading and the amendment proposed by Senator Greive.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

The President ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Freise finds that the proposed amendment by Senator Greive does increase the scope and object of the bill. Engrossed House Bill No. 930 defines the status of the operator and crewmen of time-rented equipment within the meaning of the Industrial Insurance Laws and provides that the subrogation rights of the state shall be in proportionate extent of any third party recovery in cases involving third-party actions of injured workman.

The amendment proposed by Senator Greive pertains to procedures in the processing and trial of Industrial Insurance claims.

The point of order raised by Senator Freise is therefor well taken, and the amendment as proposed by Senator Greive is out of order.

On motion of Senator Keefe, Senators Dore, Durkan and Neill were excused.

On motion of Senator Freise, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 930 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 930 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 6.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—38.

Those voting nay were: Senators Gissberg, Uhlman, Washington—3.

Absent or not voting: Senators McCutcheon, Pritchard—2.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan, Hanna, Metcalf, Neill, Redmon—6.

Engrossed House Bill No. 930 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

THIRD READING OF BILLS

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 306, by Senators Durkan, Hallauer and Atwood:

Providing for the disposition of certain fees and receipts of the horseracing commission.

On motion of Senator Hallauer the rules were suspended and Senate Bill No. 306 was returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

It was moved by Senator Atwood that the following amendment by Senator Neill be adopted:

On page 2, section 2, line 23 of the engrossed bill, after "commission" insert " ; notwithstanding any other provision of law any race meet licensed pursuant to this section may take up to and including fourteen percent of the gross receipts of any pari-mutuel handle"

On motion of Senator Woodall, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 306 was ordered to retain its place at the beginning of the next second reading calendar.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 469, by Senator Mardesich:

Authorizing parks and recreation commission to acquire part of Everett jetty.

On motion of Senator Mardesich the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 469 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 469 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 5; excused, 6.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—38.

Absent or not voting: Senators Foley, Guess, McCutcheon, Morgan, Pritchard—5.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan, Hanna, Metcalf, Neill, Redmon—6.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 469 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 523, by Senators Herrmann, Connor and Woodall (by Joint Interim Committee on Insurance request)

Providing for grounds of cancellation to be in insurance policies and providing for notice in case of cancellation of refusal to accept risk.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 523 was ordered to retain its place at the end of the third reading calendar for today.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 412, by Senators Greive, Dore and Ryder:

Regulating sale of kosher products and prescribing penalties.

On motion of Senator Greive the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 412 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 412 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 5; excused, 6.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Williams, Woodall—38.

Absent or not voting: Senators Donohue, Guess, McCutcheon, Pritchard, Washington—5.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan, Hanna, Metcalf, Neill, Redmon—6.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 412 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Senate Bill No. 473, by Senator Gissberg:

Increasing hospital district finance authority.

On motion of Senator Gissberg the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Senate Bill No. 473 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 473 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 6; excused, 6.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Williams, Woodall—37.

Absent or not voting: Senators Connor, Guess, McCormack, Pritchard, Ridder, Washington—6.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan, Hanna, Metcalf, Neill, Redmon—6.

Senate Bill No. 473 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 523, by Senators Herrmann, Connor and Woodall (by Joint Interim Committee on Insurance request):

Providing for grounds of cancellation to be in insurance policies and providing for notice in case of cancellation of refusal to accept risk.

On motion of Senator Greive, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 523 was referred to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 12, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House adheres to its position on the House amendments to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 374 and said bill together with the House amendments are herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the Senate ask the House to recede from its position on Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 374.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Woodall:

"Point of parliamentary procedure, Mr. President:

"I believe that we asked them, did we not, to recede and their reply to us was that they are adhering? It seems to me there must be a different motion than merely to ask them once again to recede."

Senator Greive:

"May I call attention to Reed's Rule 251? I think there is a full explanation there and my motion is correct."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President is of the opinion that Senator Greive's motion is in order and Senator Greive has moved that the Senate once again refuse to concur in the House amendments to Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 374 and request the House to recede therefrom. Are there any remarks?"

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE
HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 13, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed Engrossed Senate Bill No. 462 with the following amendments:

In line 1 of the title of the engrossed bill, after the comma, strike "adding a new section to chapter 79.16 RCW;" being the Senate amendment by the Committee on Natural Resources, Parks, Fisheries and Game Fish

Beginning on line 1 of the title of the printed and engrossed bill, after the comma following "lands" strike "and amending section 1, chapter 387, Laws of 1955 and RCW 79.16.175"

On page 1 of the printed and engrossed bill, strike all of section 1 and renumber "NEW SECTION. Sec. 2." to read "NEW SECTION. Section 1."

Strike the Senate amendment by the Committee on Natural Resources, Parks, Fisheries and Game Fish on page 4 of the printed and engrossed bill, adding a new section, and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislative interim committee on fisheries shall study the following described tidelands for the purpose of determining the most feasible and desirable disposition of such property, and shall report its conclusions to the forty-first session of the legislature:

(Cattle Point) The tidelands of the second class, owned by the state of Washington, situate in front of, adjacent to, or abutting upon lot 1, section 6, lots 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, section 7, lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, section 8 and lot 1, section 5, all in township 34 north, range 2 west, W. M., with a frontage of 463.88 lineal chains, more or less; excepting, however, any tidelands of the second class in front of said lot 10, section 7, conveyed through deed issued June 1, 1912 under application No. 6906, records of department of public lands.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

It was moved by Senator Gissberg that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 462.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, would Senator Gissberg yield to a question:

"Senator Gissberg, there was some concern that they would build a large dock as I recall hearing it talked about and a large number of boats would be accorded or tied up to the dock and it would pollute the water. Is that apprehension justified?"

Senator Gissberg:

"Mr. President:

"One, the department of natural resources is the one that would execute the lease. This bill would in no way, ipso facto, authorize the construction of any dock. It simply released this land for that purpose. I am not aware that the department of fisheries is in any way opposed to this bill or for the land being used for that purpose; however, that would be one of the things to investigate. Senator Peterson (Ted) had this matter before his committee for the last two sessions as a matter of fact, and if there were to be this problem, I am sure they would work it out so there wouldn't be any damage."

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the second order of business.

The Secretary read:

MOTION

At 3:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Saturday, April 15, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Saturday, April 15, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Gissberg, Hanna, Herr, Redmon and Ryder.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senators Gissberg, Hanna and Herr were excused.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senators Redmon and Ryder were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Dave Giovine, Color Bearer, and Debbie Parks, presented the Colors.

Reverend Charles H. Perry, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Psalm 15: Lord Who shall dwell in Thy tabernacle or who shall rest upon Thy holy hill? Even he that leadeth an incorrupt life and doeth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart. He that hath used no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil to his neighbour, and hath not slandered his neighbour. He that setteth not by himself, but is lonely in his own eyes, and maketh much of them that fear the Lord. He that sweareth unto his neighbour, and disappointeth him not, though it were to his own hindrance. He that hath not given his money upon usury, nor taken reward against the innocent. Who so doeth these things shall never fall.

"The Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1967 EX - 42

By Senator Durkan:

Whereas, The department of natural resources provides forest fire protection on approximately ten million acres of private forest lands and two million acres of state-owned forest lands; and

Whereas, The objectives of the program are to safeguard life and property, to keep annual burned acreage to a minimum, and to protect state-owned forest lands; and

Whereas, The justification of forest fire prevention, detection, and suppression costs involve values which are protected from fire as well as the value destroyed; and

Whereas, Presently the largest share of the cost of protecting both public and private forest lands from the ravages of fire is borne by the state through the budget of the department of natural resources; and

Whereas, Private owners of forest lands benefit in like proportion and measure from the forest fire protection activities of the department of natural resources; and

Whereas, Additional funds may be required to provide adequate forest fire protection to both public and private forest lands;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, that the legislative budget committee shall undertake a study and examine the distribution of the costs of forest fire protection among the public and private forest lands owners to determine a distribution ratio connected with the benefit received, and shall further determine the amount of additional revenue, if any, which would be forthcoming from such a distribution of costs, and the advantages and disadvantages of such a distribution of cost system; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the legislative budget committee shall submit its findings and conclusions to the legislature prior to the convening of its forty-first session, together with any recommended legislation it deems appropriate.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 43

By Senators Greive and Woodall:

Whereas, The legislative council developed proposed legislation which was submitted in the 1967 regular session as House Bill No. 14, which would compensate innocent victims of crimes of violence, which bill did not pass the Legislature; and

Whereas, A number of other states have passed or are studying the need for legislation which will compensate innocent victims of crimes for injuries sustained through no fault of their own; and

Whereas, The criminal who is injured in the course of his crime receives at the expense of the state, food, shelter and medical attention, while his innocent victim receives no such state assistance and yet may be left destitute as a result of the crime; and

Whereas, There are reports periodically of persons injured at the hands of criminals who have left custody without authorization, such as reported in the Seattle P. I. on April 14, 1967, regarding a kidnap by a mental patient on unauthorized leave from Western State Hospital; and

Whereas, Society has undertaken an obligation to protect citizens from persons recognized as being dangerous to others;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the legislative council be requested to continue its study relating to the compensation of victims of crimes and to report back its recommendations to the Legislature prior to the forty-first session.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the resolution was adopted.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 23:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 14, 1967.

Pertaining to interim committee on education study of school district organization (reported by Committee on Education):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass.

Robert C. Ridder, Chairman.

We concur in this report: James A. Andersen, Al Henry, Reuben A. Knoblauch, David E. McMillan, Ted G. Peterson, John H. Stender, Nat Washington.

Passed to Committee on Rules and Joint Rules for second reading.

Excused: Senators Gissberg, Hanna, Herr, Redmon, Ryder—5.

House Joint Memorial No. 18 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hallauer:

"Mr. President, point of personal privilege:

"A couple of days ago we had a little resolution here which had to do with civic arthritis. It received some little interest and probably more than it deserved. In the course of that, we had some discussion of hippies and beatniks and other types. I regret Senator McMillan and Senator Pritchard had to be off the floor for a moment. I hadn't noticed their absence. As a result of this little bit of publicity, last evening I had a telephone call from one of the young gentlemen who had been referred to in these hallowed halls, a gentleman who as someone mentioned is a fringie. Others mentioned him in a different context and there even seemed to be some thinking perhaps he was even subversive in terms of his attendance at the University of Washington. Anyway this is the young gentleman with some extra hair on his face who was riding a unicycle whose picture was carried in the University paper and in the course of the conversation with me, he made this offer. He would come over to my place from Seattle on Sunday and would teach any of us to ride a unicycle. I herewith relay this offer. If any of you gentlemen will also fly on a unicycle, I also will attempt to do so. Here is a dare for Senator Pritchard and Senator McMillan and even such a square as I and any of the rest of you gentlemen who might feel adventuresome."

House Concurrent Resolution No. 45, by Representatives Morrison, Cunningham, Mahaffey and Smith:

Directing a study of school bus safety.

Referred to Committee on Education.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the rules were suspended and the Committee on Education was relieved of further consideration of House Concurrent Resolution No. 45.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 45 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Canfield, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 45 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, the resolution placed on final passage and adopted.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 306, by Senators Durkan, Hallauer and Atwood:

Providing for the disposition of certain fees and receipts of the horse racing commission.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 306 and the amendment proposed by Senator Neill.

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Hallauer, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, following line 10, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Any person who wilfully administers tranquilizers or other drugs to any horse, mule, donkey, or other animal used for riding, in order to cause such animal to appear falsely docile or gentle, whether such action is undertaken to promote a sale of the animal or for any deceitful purpose, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and guilty of a gross misdemeanor for any second and subsequent violation: Provided Further, That this section shall not apply to a licensed veterinarian who has been misled or deceived as to the purpose for which any such drug is to be administered."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

It was moved by Senator Rasmussen that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, line 13, add a new section following section 1 to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 55, Laws of 1933 and to chapter 67.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The licensee of a race meet which has a total handle of two hundred thousand dollars or more shall pay to the Commission on the excess of such handle of two hundred thousand dollars the break deducted in all calculations arriving at pay-off prices, i.e., the odd cents over any multiple of five cents of winning per dollar wagered."

Renumber subsequent sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Keefe that the amendment be laid upon the table.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Neill, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

In line 2 of the title of the engrossed bill, after "receipts" strike all the material down to and including "date" on line 5 and insert "received by the Washington Horse Racing Commission; authorizing the licensing of certain meets upon certain conditions and payment of prescribed fees and pari-mutuel percentages; defining terms; amending section 9, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 as last amended by section 7, chapter 148, Laws of 1965 and RCW 67.16.100; amending section 1, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 as last amended by section 1, chapter 236, Laws of 1949 and RCW 67.16.010; adding new sections to chapter 67.16 RCW; and declaring an effective date."

The President called the Senate to order at 12:10 p.m.

At 12:10 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until noon, Monday, April 17, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

THIRTY-NINTH DAY

NOON SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Monday, April 17, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at noon by President Pro Tempore Henry. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Carl Seltice, Color Bearer, and Joni Elway, presented the Colors.

Reverend Albert Louis LaPierre, pastor of St. Michael's Parish of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"May Yahwe, God of Israel, at this point in our deliberations grant us the leadership of Moses, the wisdom of Solomon, the patience of Job, and as he did for his chosen people, allow us soon to return home. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1967 - EX 44

By Senators Atwood and Freise:

Whereas, There are now one hundred twenty-four separate funds or accounts in the state treasury and over two hundred additional funds held by state officials outside the state treasury; and

Whereas, This proliferation of funds results in a decrease of effective legislative review of agency operations, an unnecessary increase in administrative expense for accounting and budgeting, and confusion in public understanding;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, that the Legislative Budget Committee, in cooperation with the Central Budget Agency, the State Auditor, the State Treasurer, and other affected offices, shall conduct a complete study of the fund structure of the state of Washington with a view to its simplification, the improvement of legislative and public understanding thereof, and the reduction of administrative expense; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Legislative Budget Committee shall submit its report, together with draft legislation revising the fund structure of the state, to the forty-first legislature.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the resolution was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of the motion by Senator Talley that the Senate Committee on Ways and Means be relieved of further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 547 and the subsequent motion by Senator Hallauer that the motion by Senator Talley be laid upon the table.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talley:

"Mr. President:

"Would a motion that this matter hold its place on the calendar for tomorrow be in order?"

Senator Hallauer:

"Mr. President:

"My motion to table is of a higher rank than the motion to delay and I think it should be recognized. A demand for a roll call was sustained and I think there should be a roll call on the motion at this time."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"The point of order by Senator Hallauer is well taken. The motion to table is a higher ranking motion and takes precedence over the motion to commit or a motion to postpone to a day certain.

"The question now is the motion by Senator Hallauer to table the motion by Senator Talley. The demand for the roll call has been sustained. The Secretary will call the roll on the motion to table Senator Talley's motion to withdraw the bill from the Ways and Means Committee. A vote, 'aye,' will be to table Senator Talley's motion. A vote, 'nay,' will be to leave Senator Talley's motion before the body."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion to table was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 11; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—37.

Those voting nay were: Senators Connor, Dore, Greive, Henry, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, Metcalf, Ridder, Talley—11.

Absent or not voting: Senator Morgan—1.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1967 EX - 45

By Senators Guess and Keefe:

Whereas, A national association of accountants has conducted a year long study into the necessity and desirability of requiring a baccalaureate degree as a condition precedent to becoming a certified public accountant; and

Whereas, The results of this study will not be available until after this session has adjourned sine die; and

Whereas, Certain legislation introduced during this session of the Legislature would seek to require a baccalaureate degree for all certified public accountants; and

Whereas, This session of the legislature has created a multi-million dollar system of community colleges which will not be granting baccalaureate degrees;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the Temporary Higher Education Committee; or if there be none, then the Legislative Council, is hereby requested to evaluate the results of the study made by the national association of certified public accountants, and determine whether or not it is necessary or desirable to require a baccalaureate degree as a condition precedent to certification as a certified public accountant; and

Be It Further Resolved, That it is requested that the results of the study be submitted to the members of the forty-first legislature no later than November 15, 1968.

It was moved by Senator Guess that the resolution be adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender:

"Mr. President, would one of the sponsors yield to a question:

"Senator Guess, what is the difference between a licensed public accountant and a certified public accountant?"

Senator Guess:

"Did you say what is the difference?"

Senator Stender:

"Yes."

Senator Guess:

"Well, as I understand, we did away with licensed public accountants. We grandfathered some of them in but we are not now getting any licensed public accountants."

Further debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the resolution was adopted.

The Secretary read:

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Herrmann was carried and the report of the Free Conference Committee was adopted.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 532 as amended by the Free Conference Committee and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—45.

Those voting nay were: Senators Neill, Ryder, Sandison—3.

Absent or not voting: Senator Connor—1.

Substitute House Bill No. 532 as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President Pro Tempore called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

MOTION

At 1:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 2:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President Pro Tempore called the Senate to order at 2:30 p.m.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 46

By Senator Freise:

Whereas, The Washington Education Association has selected and announced its Teacher-of-the-Year Award; and

Whereas, Mary Esther Lassa of Walla Walla is Washington State's Teacher of the Year; and

Whereas, Mary Esther Lassa has exhibited tremendous understanding, patience, skill and devotion in her task of educating retarded children; and

Whereas, The accomplishments of Mary Esther Lassa reflect honor and credit to the Walla Walla community and to the Walla Walla Education Association and to the state of Washington; and

Whereas, Mary Esther Lassa will represent the state of Washington as a nominee for national honors; and

Whereas, The members of the Senate and citizens of the state of Washington are proud of the accomplishments of Mary Esther Lassa and wish to pay tribute to her;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Senate of the state of Washington does hereby commend Mary Esther Lassa for her outstanding accomplishments in her chosen profession and extend to her its heartiest congratulations and best wishes for success in receiving national recognition of these accomplishments; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is directed to forward copies of this resolution to Mary Esther Lassa, the Washington Education Association and the Walla Walla Education Association.

On motion of Senator Freise, the resolution was adopted.

MOTION

At 3:50 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 18, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

FORTIETH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Tuesday, April 18, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Henry.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Robert Lisk, Color Bearer, and Heidi Johnson, presented the Colors.

Reverend Albert Louis LaPierre, pastor of the St. Michael's Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Lord Jesus Christ, the necessity of much social legislation is due to a breakdown in kind service and the ability to talk things out within the home. Help each of us here to examine our own attitude toward the person to whom we are married so that first we will change ourselves, before attempting to change others. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 18, 1967.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Claims and Auditing, to whom was referred Senate Bill No. 642 have inspected same, and find it correctly engrossed.

Martin J. Durkan, Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Frank Atwood, R. R. Bob Greive.

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 18, 1967.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Claims and Auditing, to whom was referred Senate Bill No. 31, Senate Bill No. 55, Senate Bill No. 642, have inspected same, and find them correctly enrolled.

Martin J. Durkan, Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Frank Atwood, R. R. Bob Greive.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Knoblauch:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"Many times during the session we have passed a resolution complimenting someone in our district or in our state that has made an achievement. Last Saturday an honor came to a very fine friend of mine from Pierce county who throughout many years has been extremely fair to the members of both parties on coverage from Olympia and on other political news. I know he is going to be embarrassed, but last Saturday night Jack Pyle from the Tacoma News Tribune was chosen by the Washington Press Association the man with the top news reporting in the entire state. He was given the highest award at this awards banquet in Seattle and so I would like to compliment Jack for a job well done and for an honor well deserved. It is quite an honor to be chosen the best in the state of Washington. Mr. President, I would like you to have Jack Pyle stand now and be recognized for the fine award that he just received."

Reengrossed House Bill No. 439:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 11, 1967.

Changing fees for examination, registration and renewal of licenses for public accountants (reported by Committee on Commerce, Manufacturing and Licenses):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass as amended.

George W. Kupka, Chairman.

We concur in this report: Frank Connor, Reuben A. Knoblauch, Richard G. (Dick) Marquardt, Ted G. Peterson.

Passed to Committee on Rules and Joint Rules for second reading.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Guess that Engrossed House Bill No. 439 be referred to the Committee on Higher Education and Libraries.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Gissberg:

"Mr. President:

"I raise the question as to whether or not it takes a suspension of the rules and make parliamentary inquiry to the President. I believe under the rules you will find that when a bill has been reported out of a standing committee it shall be referred to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules and to do otherwise would require a suspension of the rules."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"In reply to your parliamentary inquiry, Senator Gissberg, the gavel had rapped. The bill is now in the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules and has passed to second reading. Under Senate Rules 46 and 47, the President in ruling upon the point of order, believes it takes only a simple majority to take a bill away from a standing committee."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"Did I understand correctly that Senator Guess is moving to take a bill from the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"That is the motion, Senator Woodall."

With leave of the Senate, Senator Guess was permitted to withdraw the motion.

The Secretary read:

Senate Bill No. 55,
Senate Bill No. 642.

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 18, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 472 with the following amendments:

On page 2 of the printed and engrossed bill, following section 2, add two new sections to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 23, chapter 255, Laws of 1927 as last amended by section 4, chapter 257, Laws of 1959 and RCW 79.01.092 are each amended to read as follows:

When in the judgment of the [commissioner of public lands] department of natural resources, a sufficient number of applications for the appraisal and sale, or the lease, for any lawful purpose, excepting mining of valuable minerals or coal, or extraction of petroleum or gas, of state lands, have been received, the [commissioner] department shall cause each tract of land so applied for to be inspected by one or more state land inspectors as to its character, topography, agricultural and grazing qualities, timber, coal, mineral, stone, gravel or other valuable material, the distance from any city or town, railroad, river, irrigation canal, ditch or other waterway, and a full report thereof to be made to the [commissioner] department, together with the inspector's judgment as to the present and prospective value, or rental value, as the case may be. In case of an application to purchase land granted to the state for educational purposes, the [commissioner] department shall submit said report together with all other information in the records of the office of the [commissioner of public lands] department of natural resources concerning the land applied for, to the board of natural resources, which board shall fix the value per acre of each lot, block, subdivision or tract proposed to be sold in one parcel, which value shall be not less than ten dollars per acre. In case of applications to purchase state lands, other than lands granted to the state for educational purposes and capitol building lands, the [commissioner of public lands] department shall appraise and fix the value thereof. In case of applications for the lease of state lands, for any lawful purposes other than that of mining for valuable minerals or coal, or extraction of petroleum or gas, the [commissioner of public lands] department shall fix the rental value thereof, and shall fix the limit of the value of the improvements that may be placed upon said land by any lessee of the state, and may, in case the land is leased, at any time during the life of the lease, extend the limit of value of the improvements that may be placed upon the land covered by the lease, if he deems it advisable and for the best interest of the state, by written order which shall be filed with the lease in the [office of the commissioner] department of natural resources, and a copy mailed to the lessee at his last known post office address, and upon the expiration of such lease the [commissioner of public lands] department, shall not appraise said improvements in an amount exceeding the limit so fixed by the [commissioner of public lands] department: Provided, That the board of natural resources, in considering the management of individual tracts of state lands, shall include in their consideration of the financial benefits that may accrue to the particular beneficiary of such trust land any increased financial benefits that the beneficiary may receive from direct and indirect state and local taxes, including improvement in values resulting from private development and the local taxation benefits therefrom, if the property were to be sold into private ownership.

Sec. 4. Section 25, chapter 255, Laws of 1927 as amended by section 6, chapter 257, Laws of 1959 and RCW 79.01.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The [commissioner of public lands] department of natural resources shall cause all unplatted state lands, within the limits of any incorporated city or town, or within two miles of the boundary thereof, where the valuation of such lands is found by appraisement to exceed one hundred dollars per acre, to be platted into lots and blocks, of not more than five acres in a block, before the same are offered for sale, and not more than one block shall be offered for sale in one parcel. The [commissioner of public lands] department of natural resources may designate or describe any such plat by name, or numeral, or as an addition to such city or town, and upon the filing of any such plat, it shall be sufficient to describe the lands, or any portion thereof, embraced in such plat, according to the designation prescribed by the [commissioner of public lands] department of natural resources. Such plats shall be made in duplicate, and when properly authenticated by the [commissioner of public lands] department of natural resources, one copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the [commissioner] department and one copy in the office of the county auditor in which the lands are situated, and said auditor shall receive and file such plats without compensation or fees and make record thereof in the same manner as required by law for the filing and recording of other plats in his office.

In selling lands subject to the provisions of Article 16, section 4, of the state Constitution, the department of natural resources will be permitted to sell the land within the required land subdivision without being required to complete the construction of streets, utilities, and such similar things as may be required by any local government entity in the instance of the platting of private or other property within their area of jurisdiction: Provided, That no construction will be permitted on lands so sold until the purchaser or purchasers collectively comply with all of the normal requirements for platting."

Add a new section following section 4 which was added by the Committee on Natural Resources and amended by Representative Flanagan to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 255, Laws of 1927 and to chapter 79.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The purpose of this section is to provide revenues to the state and its various taxing districts through the sale of public lands which are currently used primarily for grazing and similar low priority purposes, by enabling their development as irrigated agricultural lands.

(2) All applications for the purchase of lands of the foregoing character, when accompanied by a proposed plan of development of the lands for a higher priority use, shall be individually reviewed by the board of natural resources. The board shall thereupon determine whether the sale of the lands is in the public interest and upon an affirmative finding shall offer such lands for sale under the applicable provisions of this chapter: Provided, That any such parcel of land shall be sold to the highest bidder but only at a bid equal to or higher than the last appraised valuation thereof as established by appraisers for the department for any such parcel of land: Provided Further, That any lands lying within United States reclamation areas, the sale price of which is limited or otherwise regulated pursuant to federal reclamation laws or regulations thereunder, need not be offered for sale so long as such limitations or regulations are applicable thereto.

(3) The department of natural resources shall make appropriate regulations defining properties of such irrigated agricultural potential and shall take into account the economic benefits to the locality in classifying such properties for sale."

In the last line of the title of the printed and reengrossed bill after "RCW 79.01.096" and before the period insert "; and adding a new section to chapter 255, Laws of 1927 and to chapter 79.01 RCW", and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

It was moved by Senator Gissberg that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 472.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley:

"Mr. President, would Senator Gissberg yield:

"Senator Gissberg, I was sponsor of a bill that did not pass which granted a fifty-five year lease to a man in my area. Would this be covered by this amendment?"

Senator Gissberg:

"Senator Talley:

"Although this does not specifically describe the land mentioned in your bill, it would authorize the commissioner of public lands to enter into a lease for a period of fifty-five years for commercial purposes."

Senator Talley:

"It is subject to review?"

Senator Gissberg:

"It does not mandate him to do so as your bill did, but this provides him with discretionary power to enter into a lease for that length of time."

The motion was carried.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 472, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—48.

Absent or not voting: Senator McCormack—1.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 472, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Provided, However, That every motor truck shall be licensed for not less than one hundred fifty percent of its empty weight unless such an amount would be in excess of the legal limits prescribed for such a vehicle in RCW 46.44.040 in which event the vehicle shall be licensed for the maximum gross load specified for such a vehicle.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The maximum gross weight in the case of any motor truck or truck tractor shall be the scale weight of the motor truck or truck tractor, plus the scale weight of any trailer, semitrailer or pole trailer to be towed thereby, to which shall be added the maximum load to be carried thereon or towed thereby as set by the licensee in his application or otherwise.

The maximum gross weight in the case of any auto stage and for hire vehicle, except taxicabs, with seating capacity over six, shall be the scale weight of each auto stage and for hire vehicle plus an average load factor of fifty percent of the seating capacity computed at one hundred and fifty pounds per seat.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to other fees for the licensing of vehicles, there shall be paid and collected annually, for each auto stage and for hire vehicle, except taxicabs, with a seating capacity of six or less the sum of fifteen dollars.

Sec. 59. Section 46.16.040, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Application for original vehicle license shall be made on form furnished for the purpose by the director of licenses. Such application shall be made by the owner of the vehicle or his duly authorized agent over the signature of such owner or agent, and he shall certify that the statements therein are true to the best of his knowledge. The application must show:

- (1) Name and address of the owner of the vehicle;
- (2) Trade name of the vehicle, model, year, type of body, the motor number or identification number thereof if such vehicle be a motor vehicle, or the serial number thereof if such vehicle be a trailer;
- (3) The power to be used—whether electric, steam, gas or other power;
- (4) The purpose for which said vehicle is to be used and the nature of the license required;
- (5) The maximum gross license for such vehicle which in case of for hire vehicles and auto stages shall be the maximum adult seating capacity thereof, exclusive of the operator, and in cases of motor trucks, truck tractors, trailers and semitrailers shall be the unladen weight of such vehicle to which shall be added the maximum gross load to be carried thereon or towed thereby, as the case may be, as set by the applicant, which maximum gross license shall in no event be less than the unladen weight thereof or more than the legal limit for such vehicle as allowed by law;
- (6) The weight of such vehicle, if it be a motor truck or trailer, which shall be the shipping weight thereof as given by the manufacturer thereof unless another weight is shown by weight slip verified by a certified weighmaster, which slip shall be attached to the original application;
- (7) Such other information as shall be required upon such application by the director of licenses.

Sec. 60. Section 46.16.125, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.16.125 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the fees required by RCW 46.16.[120] 070, operators of auto stages with seating capacity over six shall pay quarterly, at the time they file gross earning returns with the public service commission, the sum of fifteen cents for each one hundred vehicle miles operated by each auto stage over the public highways of this state: Provided, That in the case of each auto stage propelled by steam, electricity, natural gas, diesel oil, butane or propane, the payment required hereunder shall be twenty cents per one hundred miles of such operation. The commission shall transmit all such sums so collected to the state treasurer, who shall deposit the same in the motor vehicle fund. Any person failing to make any payment required by this section shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred percent of the payment due hereunder, in addition to any penalty provided for failure to submit a quarterly report. Any penalties so collected shall be credited to the public service revolving fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. Section 46.16.072, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 33, chapter 21, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 46.16.072; section 46.16.074, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1965 and RCW 46.16.075; section 46.16.110, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.16.110; and section 46.16.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 14, chapter 7, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 46.16.120 are each repealed.

On page 28 of the printed and engrossed bills, strike all of section 57, renumbered "Sec. 63", and add a new section as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 62. This 1967 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and sections 1 through 55 and section 56, renumbered "Sec. 62", shall take effect on the first day of the month following the approval of this act by the governor; sections 56 through 61 shall take effect on July 1, 1967 with respect to fees paid on or after July 1, 1967. Fees paid pursuant to RCW 46.16.070, 46.16.072, 46.16.075 or 46.16.120 prior to July 1, 1967 shall not be affected by this act.

On page 28, beginning on line 13 of the printed and engrossed bills after section 57 add a new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. All funds heretofore accumulated and undistributed to any city and town by reason of the matching requirements of the 1961 amendatory provisions in RCW 82.36.020 and 82.40.290 shall be immediately disbursed and released for use in accordance with the 1967 amendatory provisions of RCW 82.36.020 and 82.40.290.

This section is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately."

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 18, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed:

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 338 with the following amendments:

In line 8 of the title of the printed and engrossed bill, after "RCW 21.24.070;" insert "adding twelve new sections to chapter 21.24 RCW;"

On page 12 of the printed and engrossed bill, following section 7, add twelve new sections to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) An "adult" is a person who has attained the age of twenty-one years.

(2) A "bank" is a bank, trust company, savings and loan association, national banking association, or mutual savings bank.

(3) A "broker" is a person lawfully engaged in the business of effecting transactions in real property for the account of others who is licensed to do business under the laws of this state. The term includes a bank which effects or participates in effecting such transactions.

(4) "Court" means the superior courts of the state of Washington.

(5) "The custodial property" includes:

(a) All real property interests and all rents, royalties and income therefrom under the supervision of the same custodian for the same minor as a consequence of a gift or gifts made to the minor in a manner prescribed in this chapter.

(b) The income from the custodial property; and

(c) The proceeds, immediate and remote, from the sale, exchange, conversion, investment, reinvestment or other disposition of such money and income.

(6) A "Custodian" is a person so designated in a manner prescribed in this chapter.

(7) A "guardian" of a minor includes the general guardian, guardian or curator of his property, estate or person.

(8) An "issuer" is a person who places or authorizes the placing of his name on real property interest other than as a transfer agent, to evidence that it represents an interest in his property or to evidence his duty or undertaking to perform an obligation evidenced by the real property interest, or who becomes responsible for or in place of any such person.

(9) A "legal representative" of a person is his executor or the administrator, general guardian, guardian, conservator or curator of his property or estate.

(10) A "member" of a "minor's family" means any of the minor's parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, uncles and aunts, whether of the whole blood or the half blood, or by or through legal adoption.

(11) A "minor" is a person who has not attained the age of twenty-one years.

(12) A "real property interest" includes any note, mortgage, contract to purchase or to sell real property, option to purchase or to sell real property, deed evidencing any title to or interest in real property, or, in general, any interest or instrument commonly recognized as evidencing or purporting to evidence an interest in real property, however minimal. The term does not include a "security" within the definition of RCW 21.24.010(12) as now or hereafter amended.

(13) A "transfer agent" is a person who acts as authenticating trustee, transfer agent or real estate broker or salesman as defined in RCW 18.85.010 as now or hereafter amended.

(14) A "trust company" is a bank authorized to exercise trust powers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) An adult person may, during his lifetime, make a gift of a real property interest to a person who is a minor on the date of the gift if the subject of the gift is a real property interest which constitutes a recordable interest or charge in or against real property in the records of the county auditor, by registering it in the name of the donor, another adult person or a trust company, followed, in substance, by the words: "As custodian for (name of minor) under the 1967 Washington gifts of realty to minors act".

(2) Any gift made in a manner prescribed in subsection (1) of this section may be made to only one minor and only one person may be the custodian.

(3) A donor who makes a gift to a minor in the manner prescribed in subsection (1) of this section shall promptly do all things within his power to put the subject of the gift in the possession and control of the custodian.

(4) The donor may not under this chapter make gifts of custodial property when, added to gifts permitted under chapter 21.24 RCW as now or hereafter amended, such property (a) exceeds three thousand dollars in aggregate value to any one minor in any one year, or (b) exceeds thirty thousand dollars in aggregate value to any one minor. Value shall be computed on the basis of the actual value of each unit of property on the date the gift became effective.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) A gift made in a manner prescribed in this chapter is irrevocable and conveys to the minor indefeasibly vested legal title to the real property interest given, but no guardian of the minor has any right, power, duty or authority with respect to the custodial property except as provided in this chapter.

(2) By making a gift in a manner prescribed in this chapter, the donor incorporates in his gift all the provisions of this chapter and grants to the custodian, and to any issuer, transfer agent, bank, broker or third person dealing with a person designated as custodian, the respective powers, rights and immunities provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The custodian shall collect, hold, manage, invest and reinvest the custodial property and all rents, royalties and income received therefrom for the best interest of the minor and according to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) The custodian may expend for the benefit of a minor, or pay over to the minor if he is eighteen years old or more for expenditure by him, such monthly amounts as may be reasonably necessary for the minor's actual living expenses including maintenance, schooling and medical or dental expense, with or without court order, with or without regard to the duty of himself or of any other person to support the minor or his ability to do so, and with or without regard to any other income or property of the minor which may be applicable or available for any such purpose.

(3) The court, on the petition of a parent or guardian of the minor or of the minor, if he has attained the age of fourteen years, may order the custodian to pay over to the minor for expenditure by him or to expend so much of or all the custodial property as is necessary for the minor's support, maintenance or education.

(4) To the extent that the custodial property is not so expended, the custodian shall deliver or pay it over to the minor on his attaining the age of twenty-one years, or, if the minor dies before attaining the age of twenty-one years, he shall thereupon deliver or pay it over to the estate of the minor.

(5) The custodian, notwithstanding statutes restricting investments by fiduciaries, shall invest and reinvest the custodial property as would a prudent man of discretion and intelligence who is seeking a reasonable income and the preservation of his capital, except that he may, in his discretion and without liability to the minor or his estate, purchase or retain a real property interest given to the minor in a manner prescribed in this chapter.

(6) The custodian may grant, sell, convey, lease, demise, exchange, convert or otherwise dispose of custodial property as would a prudent man of discretion and intelligence. He may consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the sale, lease, pledge or mortgage of any property by or to any broker, agent, or trust company, and to any other action by any broker, agent, or trust company. He may execute and deliver any and all instruments in writing which he deems advisable to carry out any of his powers as custodian.

(7) The custodian shall record each real property interest which is custodial property in the name of the custodian, followed, in substance, by the words: "As custodian for (name of minor) under the 1967 Washington gifts of realty to minors act". The custodian shall hold all money received in rents, royalties and other income from the custodial property in an account with a bank in the name of the custodian, followed, in substance, by the words: "As custodian for (name of minor) under the 1967 Washington gifts of realty to minors act". The custodian shall keep all other custodial property separate and distinct from his own property in a manner to identify it clearly as custodial property; and shall further, except as provided in section 9 of this chapter, maintain all property and funds held pursuant to this chapter segregated from securities and money held under chapter 21.24 RCW.

(8) The custodian shall keep records of all transactions with respect to the custodial property and make them available for inspection at reasonable intervals by a parent or legal representative of the minor or by the minor, if he has attained the age of fourteen years.

(9) A custodian has, with respect to the custodial property, in addition to the rights and powers provided in this chapter, all the rights and powers which a guardian has with respect to property not held as custodial property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) A custodian is entitled to reimbursement from the custodial property for his reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

(2) A custodian may act without compensation for his services.

(3) Unless he is a donor, a custodian may receive from the custodial property reasonable compensation for his services determined by one of the following standards in the order stated:

(a) A direction by the donor when the gift is made;

(b) An order of the court.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a custodian shall not be required to give a bond for the performance of his duties.

(5) A custodian not compensated for his services is not liable for losses to the custodial property unless they result from his bad faith, intentional wrongdoing or gross negligence or from his failure to maintain the standard of prudence in investing the custodial property provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Although this section does not exempt from liability any third persons who would otherwise be liable for honoring a forged signature, no transfer agent, bank, broker or other person acting on the instructions of or otherwise dealing with any person purporting to act as a donor or in the capacity of a custodian is responsible for determining whether the person designated by the purported donor or purporting to act as a custodian has been duly designated or whether any purchase, sale, incumbrance, or transfer to or by or any other act of any person purporting to act in the capacity of custodian is in accordance with or authorized by this chapter, or is obliged to inquire into the validity or propriety under this chapter of any instrument of instructions executed or given by a person purporting to act as a donor or in the capacity of a custodian, or is bound to see to the application by any person purporting to act in the capacity of a custodian of any money or other property paid or delivered to him.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Only an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor or a trust company is eligible to become a successor custodian. A successor custodian has all the rights, powers, duties and immunities of a custodian designated in a manner prescribed by this chapter.

(2) A custodian, other than the donor, may resign and designate his successor by:

(a) Executing an instrument of resignation designating the successor custodian; and

(b) Causing each real property interest which is custodial property to be registered and recorded in the name of the successor custodian followed, in substance, by the words: "As custodian for (name of minor) under the 1967 Washington gifts of realty to minors act"; and

(c) Delivering to the successor custodian a duly acknowledged instrument of resignation, each real property interest recorded in the name of the successor custodian and all other custodial property, together with any additional instruments required for the transfer thereof.

(3) A custodian, whether or not a donor, may petition the court for permission to resign and for the designation of a successor custodian.

(4) If the person designated as custodian is not eligible, renounces or dies before the minor attains the age of twenty-one years, the guardian of the estate of the minor shall be successor custodian. If the minor has no guardian of his estate, a donor, his legal representative, the legal representative of the custodian, an adult member of the minor's family, or the minor, if he has attained the age of fourteen years, may petition the court for the designation of a successor custodian.

(5) A donor, the legal representative of a donor, an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor or the minor, if he has attained the age of fourteen years, may petition the court that, for cause shown in the petition, the custodian be removed and a successor custodian be designated or, in the alternative, that the custodian be required to give bond for the performance of his duties.

(6) Upon the filing of a petition as provided in this section, the court shall grant an order, directed to the persons and returnable on such notice as the court may require, to show cause why the relief prayed for in the petition should not be granted and, in due course, grant such relief as the court finds to be in the best interests of the minor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) The minor, if he has attained the age of fourteen years, or the legal representative of the minor, an adult member of the minor's family, or a donor or his legal representative may petition the court for an accounting by the custodian or his legal representative.

(2) The court, in a proceeding under this chapter or otherwise, may require or permit the custodian or his legal representative to account and, if the custodian is removed, shall so require and order delivery of all custodial property to the successor custodian and the execution of all instruments required for the transfer thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A custodian may, at any time, transfer the proceeds of any rental, royalty or other income, or the corpus or any part thereof, held in money or in liquid form, under the provisions of this chapter, into an account qualifying under chapter 21.24 RCW, to the extent that such transfer constitutes a prudent transaction within the application and rules of chapter 21.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) This chapter shall not be construed as providing an exclusive method for making gifts to minors.

(2) This chapter shall not repeal, amend, or modify the provisions of chapter 21.24 RCW, but shall be held to be an additional, concurrent, or alternative method of providing for gifts to minors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. This chapter may be cited as the "1967 Washington gifts of realty to minors act".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. If any provision of this chapter, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provisions to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Renumber the remaining section accordingly., and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Freise, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 338.

Senators Washington, Talley and Ryder demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman:

"Mr. President, point of parliamentary inquiry:

"It is my understanding that the first vote was to suspend the rules, is that correct?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"And to immediately reconsider."

Senator Uhlman:

"The two were combined?"

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Yes."

Senator Uhlman:

"You can't combine them, Mr. President. That's in contravention of the rules."

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"I did, Senator Uhlman, in the absence of a demand that the question be divided."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 595 as amended by the Senate.

RECONSIDERATION

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 595 as amended by the Senate and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 21.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Dore, Faulk, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Herr, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Stender, Uhlman, Washington, Williams—28.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDNT

The President Pro Tempore signed: Senate Bill No. 194,
Senate Bill No. 282,
Senate Bill No. 318,
Senate Bill No. 519,
Senate Joint Resolution No. 24.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Keefe, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Washington, Engrossed House Bill No. 595 as amended by the Senate was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 24 on second reading.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 24, by Senators Bailey and Neill:
Prescribing a cut-off date for consideration of bills.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"Point of parliamentary inquiry: Some four years ago the question was raised as to whether or not confirmations came within the purview of the wording and matters relating to the interim. At that time the President ruled that confirmations came within the purview of that wording. Would that still be the ruling of the President at this point to your knowledge?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"My shotgun opinion would say yes, Senator."

Senator Woodall:

"In other words, if you were in the Chair, you would so rule?"

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"This relates to the particular resolution we are considering?"

Senator Woodall:

"Yes."

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Yes."

Senator Woodall:

"In other words, if we have some confirmations that have not been acted upon, I would not want to foreclose their being acted upon and unless it comes within the purview of matters pertaining to interim, I would like to prepare an amendment to insert confirmations."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hallauer:

"Point of order on the inquiry, Mr. President:

"It would seem to me that since this would be a matter solely before the Senate, that it would be outside of the bounds of any concurrent resolution."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"My parliamentarian says you both have a good point."

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Greive that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 24 be made a special order of business for 2:30 p.m.

Debate ensued.

With leave of the Senate, Senator Greive was permitted to withdraw the motion.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"If we have a ruling on my parliamentary inquiry, I do not feel that any amendment would be necessary."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Drawing solely upon my memory of many past sessions, the president would make a ruling that this resolution would not effect confirmations of gubernatorial appointments coming before this body."

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"President Cherberg so ruled I think four years ago on a similar matter. You would so rule if you were in the Chair?"

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"While I probably will not be presiding when the matter does come up, if I am, I will rule the same way."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bailey, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 24 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, the resolution placed on final passage and adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Ryder, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 24 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the Senate advance to the seventh order of business and consider only the Senate bills on the second reading calendar in the order in which they appeared on the calendar, deferring consideration of the House bills contained thereon.

The motion was carried.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 132, by Senators Twigg, Hanna and Atwood:

Amending service of process on non-resident motorists.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, would Senator Twigg yield:

"Senator Twigg, yesterday you felt there was some constitutional question on this bill. Has that been resolved overnight?"

Senator Twigg:

"No constitutional questions are resolved overnight, Senator. However, I have studied the matter and I feel I can present it properly to the parties in the House who had questions earlier and secure their approval."

On motion of Senator Twigg, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 132 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 132 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 8.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, McCutcheon, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—41.

Absent or not voting: Senators Atwood, Freise, Gissberg, Hallauer, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich—8.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 132, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Senate Bill No. 643, by Senators Kupka, Durkan and Stender:

Preferring labor claims over claims of state agency when distraint or insolvency proceedings.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Kupka, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 643 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 643 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 3.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—46.

Absent or not voting: Senators Hallauer, Lewis, McCutcheon—3.

Senate Bill No. 643, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Senate Bill No. 325, by Senators Uhlman, Andersen and Dore:

Prescribing changes to the probate law and procedure.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Bill No. 325:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 12, 1967.

Prescribing changes to the probate law and procedure (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2 following the period on line 20 insert two new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 11.40 RCW a new section to be designated as RCW 11.40.011, to read as follows:

The time limitation for serving and filing of claims shall not accrue to the benefit of any liability or casualty insurer as to claims against the deceased and/or the marital community of which the deceased was a member and such claims may be:

(1) Served on the personal representative, or the attorney for the estate at any time during the normal applicable period under statute establishing periods of limitation of actions within which actions must be commenced; or

(2) If the personal representative shall have been discharged, then the claimant as a creditor may cause a new personal representative to be appointed and the estate to be reopened in which case service may be had upon the new personal representative or his attorney of record.

Claims may be served and filed as herein provided, notwithstanding the conclusion of any probate proceedings: Provided, That the amount of recovery under such claims shall not exceed the amount of applicable insurance coverages and proceeds: And Provided Further, That such claims so served and filed shall not constitute a cloud or lien upon the title to the assets of the estate under probate nor delay or prevent the conclusion of probate proceedings or the transfer or distribution of assets of the estate subject to such probate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Section 8, chapter 168, Laws of 1967 is hereby repealed."

Renumber the remaining section.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Knoblauch, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 620 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President, would Senator Knoblauch yield:

"Senator, on page 2 of the bill it states that this bonus will be paid between a certain period commencing August 25, 1964, and ending on the date of an armistice involving the United States Forces battling in Viet Nam. Now my question is specifically this: If there is no armistice, assuming that there is no armistice—and I am not sure whether that term has a legal connotation or not—whether we could go on paying bonuses for an indefinite period, say five or ten years, or in the event that this breaks out into an all out conflagration, is it your intent that we pay a bonus in that event?"

Senator Knoblauch:

"I see no cutoff date as far as to the bill is concerned, and I would assume that the bonus would be paid until the war ended. If we had to, we could enact any other legislation of course in future sessions."

Debate ensued.

Senator Woodall:

"Senator Knoblauch, I notice you said you would gladly pay your part of the tax to do this. Reading the act, I note it is only on cigarettes. It does not include cigars."

Senator Knoblauch:

"Senator Woodall, I have no objections if you want to put that in the bill. It is my understanding in the past that there was some technical problem that this could not be done, but I have no objections."

Senator Guess:

"Mr. President, would Senator Knoblauch yield:

"Under the terms of this bill, when will the first veteran start drawing the benefit?"

Senator Knoblauch:

"Bonus payments will begin on July 1st following the twenty million dollar bond issue election. This would be on July 1, 1969 but could be a year earlier if the legislature declared the 1967 fall election a general election."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 620 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—42.

Those voting nay were: Senators Atwood, Faulk, Pritchard, Twigg, Williams—5.

Absent or not voting: Senators Lewis, McCormack—2.

Senate Bill No. 620, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Washington, Thursday, April 20, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Al Henry.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Gregory Klump, Color Bearer, and Camisa Carlson, presented the Colors.

Doctor Henry S. Rahn, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Eternal God, whose wisdom is infinite, whose love is abiding, whose truth is enduring, beyond whose ken we cannot drift.

"As we come to share in the work of this new day let Thy light shine on us. Making plain some answers to our questions, giving assurance for our doubts, strength for our tasks, and judgment that is fair and just.

"For this we pray in our Master's Name. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed House Bill No. 222, by Representatives Garrett, Barden and Grant:

Authorizing contributions by the state to its political subdivisions for flood control projects.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 2, following section 5 of the printed and engrossed bill, add three new sections as follows:

"Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 153, Laws of 1961 and RCW 86.15.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The board may appoint a county-wide advisory committee, which shall consist of not more than fifteen members. [and] The board also may appoint an advisory committee for any zone or combination of two or more zones which committees shall consist of not more than five members. Members of [the] an advisory committee [or committees] shall serve without pay [but may receive their reasonable expense] and shall serve at the pleasure of the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 153, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 86.15 RCW, a new section to read as follows:

The board may provide by resolution for revenues by fixing rates and charges for the furnishing of service to those served or receiving benefits from a flood control improvement: Provided, That the service charge shall be uniform for the same class of benefits or service. In classifying services furnished or benefits received the board may in its discretion consider the character and use of land and its water runoff characteristics and any other matters which present a reasonable difference as a ground for distinction. Service charges shall be applicable to a zone or participating zones. The disposition of all revenue from service charges shall be in accordance with RCW 86.15.130.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 153, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 86.15 RCW, a new section to read as follows:

The board may authorize the issuance of revenue bonds to finance any flood control improvement. Such bonds may be issued by the board in the same manner as prescribed in RCW 36.67.510 through 36.67.570 pertaining to counties. Such bonds shall be issued on behalf of the zone of participating zones when the improvement has by the resolution, provided in RCW 86.15.110, been found to be of benefit to a zone or participating zones.

Each revenue bond shall state on its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming such fund and the resolution creating the fund.

Revenue bond principal, interest, and all other related necessary expenses shall be payable only out of the appropriate special fund.

A zone or participating zones shall have a lien for delinquent service charges, including interest thereon, against the premises benefited by a flood control improvement, which lien shall be superior to all other liens and encumbrances except general taxes and local and special assessments. Such lien shall be effective and shall be enforced and foreclosed in the same manner as provided for sewerage liens of cities and towns by RCW 35.67.200 through 35.67.290."

On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "projects" and before the period insert: "; authorizing the appointment of a county-wide advisory committee; amending section 7, chapter 153, Laws of 1961 and RCW 86.15.070; authorizing the fixing and disposition of rates and charges for services; authorizing financing by issuance of revenue bonds; and adding new sections to chapter 86.15 RCW"

On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 222 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President, point of parliamentary inquiry:

"Is it necessary for us to resolve ourselves into a Committee of the Whole in order to consider House Bill No. 686."

Senator Gissberg:

"It is necessary, Mr. President. It calls for an appropriation."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gissberg, the rules were suspended and the Senate proceeded to the consideration of House Bill No. 686 without resolving itself into a Committee of the Whole.

House Bill No. 686, by Representatives Gorton, Hoggins and Murray (by Executive request):

Authorizing a referendum on outdoor recreational bond issue.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

House Bill No. 686:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 17, 1967.

Recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 2, line 3, after "sum of" and before "million" strike "fifty" and insert "thirty"

On page 3, section 7, line 15, after "state" and before the period insert "and distributed to the state agencies on the same ratio as Referendum Bill No. 11 funds are allocated by the 1967 legislature"

Martin J. Durkan, Chairman.

We concur in this report: James A. Andersen, R. Frank Atwood, Robert C. Bailey, Damon R. Canfield, Joe Chytil, John L. Cooney, Dewey C. Donohue, Fred H. Dore, Frank W. Foley, William A. Gissberg, R. R. Bob Greive, Sam C. Guess, Wilbur G. Hallauer, Gordon Herr, Ernest W. Lennart, Harry B. Lewis, August P. Mardesich, Mike McCormack, David E. McMillan, Frances Haddon Morgan, Marshall A. Neill, A. L. Rasmussen, Robert C. Ridder, John N. Ryder, Gordon Sandison, Wesley C. Uhlman, Walter B. Williams, Perry B. Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator Durkan that the committee amendment on page 2, section 2, line 3 be adopted.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman:

"Point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President:

"Senator Pritchard and I have an amendment on the desk which would strike this amendment. Should that not be properly considered at this time?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Senator Uhlman, the motion on the committee amendment is before the body. The proper procedure would be for the body to either vote for or against this particular amendment. Your recourse then, if you are not satisfied, would be to ask for reconsideration of the vote by which the amendment carried."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Morgan:

"Mr. President, would Senator Pritchard yield:

"Senator Pritchard, since you are planning to vacate the ports in Bremerton, we'll have an empty waterfront area—because of your bridges and so forth. Would you help us make that into a park?"

Senator Pritchard:

"Well, Senator Morgan, I can't imagine us ever taking away the port of Bremerton as long as they have such a lovely and effective legislator as you are on guard down here. But if that should ever take place, I'm sure we couldn't have a prettier place in the state than Bremerton. We could look at the large boats and warships and I'd even bring the picnic lunch and we could picnic together."

Senator Morgan:

"Senator Pritchard, flattery will get you nowhere! How do you think the port of Winslow would look as a park?"

Senator Pritchard:

"I imagine any of the ports would look good as a park, but I'm sure you or I don't think your district is in jeopardy. I don't think your naval base is in jeopardy and I think this bill can stand on its own and we don't have to get into other questions."

Senator Morgan:

"Thank you, Mr. Pritchard. That is in the record."

Senator Uhlman demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Pritchard, Bailey, Greive, Morgan, Connor, Ridder, Kupka and Durkan.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion was carried and the committee amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 14; absent or not voting—1.

Amending the meat inspection law.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Hallauer, the following amendment by Senators Hallauer, McMillan and Woodall was adopted:

On page 4, following section 4, add a section as follows:

"Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 107, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 2, chapter 182, Laws of 1961 and RCW 16.65.030 are each amended to read as follows:

On and after the effective date of this chapter no person shall operate a public livestock market without first having obtained a license from the director. Application for such license or renewal thereof shall be in writing on forms prescribed by the director, and shall include the following:

(1) A legal description of the property upon which the public livestock market shall be located.

(2) A complete description and blueprints or plans of the public livestock market physical plant, yards, pens and all facilities the applicant proposes to use in the operation of such public livestock market.

(3) A detailed statement showing all the assets and liabilities of the applicant.

(4) The schedule of rates and charges the applicant proposes to impose on the owners of livestock for services rendered in the operation of such livestock market.

(5) The weekly or monthly sales day or days on which the applicant proposes to operate his public livestock market sales.

(6) Projected source and quantity of livestock, by county, anticipated to be handled.

(7) Projected income and expense statements for the first year's operation.

(8) Facts upon which are based the conclusion that the trade area and the livestock industry will benefit because of the proposed market.

(9) Such other information as the director may reasonably require.

In determining whether or not an original application for a license shall be granted or denied the director shall give reasonable consideration to:

(1) Benefits to the livestock industry to be derived from the establishment and operation of the public livestock market proposed in the application.

(2) The present market services elsewhere available to the trade area proposed to be served.

Such application shall be accompanied by a license fee of one hundred dollars. Any applicant operating more than one public livestock market shall make a separate application for a license to operate each such public livestock market, and each such application shall be accompanied by a license fee of one hundred dollars. Upon the approval of the application by the director and compliance with the provisions of this chapter, the applicant shall be issued a license or renewal thereof. Any license issued under the provisions of this chapter shall only be valid at location and for the sales day or days for which the license was issued."

On motion of Senator Donohue, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, following the amendment by Senators Hallauer, McMillan and Woodall adding a new section 5, add the following:

"Sec. 6. Section 29, chapter 54, Laws of 1959 and RCW 16.57.290 are each amended to read as follows:

All unbranded cattle [horses, mules and burros] and those bearing brands not recorded , in the current edition of this state's brand book, which are not accompanied by a certificate of permit, and those bearing brands recorded, in the current edition of this state's brand book, which are not accompanied by a certificate of permit signed by the owner of the brand when presented for inspection, are hereby declared estrays, unless other satisfactory proof of ownership is presented showing the person presenting them to the lawfully in possession. Such estrays shall be sold by the director of his representative who shall give the purchasers a bill of sale therefor."

On motion of Senator Hallauer, the following amendment to the title by Senators Hallauer, McMillan and Woodall was adopted:

In line 3 of the title after the semicolon and before "and" insert "amending section 3, chapter 107, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 2, chapter 182, Laws of 1961 and RCW 16.65.030;"

On motion of Senator Donohue, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 4, after "RCW" and before the period insert "; and adding a new section to chapter 54, Laws of 1959 and chapter 16.57 RCW"

On motion of Senator Hallauer, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 67 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gissberg:

"Mr. President, I would like to ask a question generally:

"From what I can gather inferentially from reading this bill, apparently there is a committee now which recommends the purchases, and the director of general administration then makes such purchases or types of purchases as determined by this committee. As I understand, the bill adds the word, 'advisory'. Now to make this committee only advisory the director can then proceed independently of the committee. I don't know whether what I just said is a fact and it really goes in the form of a question as to whether that is so and, if so, why it is felt necessary to take the power away from this committee on purchasing. I can see a great advantage to having a committee recommending and limiting the types of materials that would be purchased on specifications and otherwise by the department of purchasing and under the director of general administration, to make this advisory only. I don't quite understand the rationale of it and I would like some explanation if somebody knows about it."

Senator Neill:

"Mr. President:

"I will attempt to respond. The bill does make a change whereby the state purchasing committee does become advisory. I have not worked on this matter, but I have had some experience with the problems when agencies are located away from the state capitol and are required to do all of their purchasing through someone in the state capitol who doesn't particularly understand or know the local needs. I know that particular aspect of it. This committee still makes recommendations as to practices, procedures, recommendations and so forth, but I must admit what happens in the state capitol I don't know very much about. As it works throughout the state, to have somebody sitting in Olympia and actually making mandatory decisions on the purchasing of equipment out in the field has caused a little bit of difficulty."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder:

"Mr. President, would Senator Neill yield to another question:

"I notice here in the very last section it includes supplies and equipment handled or rented through central stores, and the payment of salaries, wages and other costs incidental to the acquisition, operation and maintenance of the central stores, and other activities connected therewith, which shall include state telephone, data processing and utilities services.

"Now to what extent does this work in with data processing?"

Senator Neill:

"I can respond to that. There is no change in the district situation whatsoever. This just clarifies the areas in which rules and regulations are set. This does not give them any authority. We went into that rather thoroughly in the Rules Committee to make certain this wasn't involved at all."

On motion of Senator Freise, Engrossed House Bill No. 517 was made a special order of business following the special order of business scheduled for immediately after lunch.

Substitute House Bill No. 572, by Committee on Natural Resources:

Transferring management of certain tidelands to parks and recreation commission.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 572 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. When used in this act:

(1) "Public utility" means any privately owned public utility company engaged in rendering electric service to the public for hire, any public utility district engaged in rendering electric service to residential customers, and any city or town having the authority to engage in the electric business.

(2) "Cooperative" means any cooperative having authority to engage in the electric business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature hereby declares that the duplication of the electric lines and service of public utilities and cooperatives is uneconomic, discourages investment in permanent underground facilities and is unattractive and thus is contrary to the public interest and further declares that it is, accordingly, in the public interest for public utilities and cooperatives to enter into agreements for the purpose of avoiding such duplication: Provided, However, That such agreements shall not increase the rates to the consumers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In aid of the foregoing declaration of policy, any public utility and any cooperative is hereby authorized to enter into agreements with any one or more other public utility or one or more other cooperative for the designation of the boundaries of adjoining service areas which each such public utility or each such cooperative shall observe, for the establishment of procedures for orderly extension of service in adjoining areas not currently served by any such public utility or any such cooperative and for the acquisition or disposal by purchase or sale by any such public utility or any such cooperative of duplicating utility facilities, which agreements shall be for a reasonable period of time not in excess of fifteen years: Provided, That the participation in such agreement of any public utility which is an electrical company under RCW 80.04.010, excepting cities and towns, shall first be approved by the Washington utilities and transportation commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Nothing herein shall be construed to classify a cooperative having authority to engage in the electric business as a public utility or to include cooperatives under the authority of the Washington utilities and transportation commission."

August P. Mardesich, Chairman.

We concur in this report: John L. Cooney, William A. Gissberg, Sam C. Guess, Karl Herrmann, James E. Keefe, Harry B. Lewis, John T. McCutcheon.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Engrossed House Bill No. 496 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

The President Pro Tempore declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President Pro Tempore called the Senate to order at 2:30 p.m.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Greive that the Senate immediately consider Senate Bill No. 475.

The motion was carried.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Senate Bill No. 475, by Senators Keefe, Gissberg, Sandison, Dore, Peterson (Lowell), Faulk, Uhlman and Henry:

Providing for financial assistance to students attending post-secondary schools.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Bill No. 475:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., February 27, 1967.

Providing for financial assistance to students attending post-secondary schools (reported by Committee on Higher Education and Libraries):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendment:

On page 3, section 5, line 26, strike the language following the words "scholarship of" to and including the word and punctuation "need," on line 28, and insert "two hundred dollars".

Gordon Sandison, Chairman.

We concur in this report: Fred H. Dore, Frank Foley, William A. Gissberg, Harry B. Lewis, August P. Mardesich, Mike McCormack, John N. Ryder, Wes C. Uhlman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Sandison, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Dore, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 4, section 5, line 9, after "award of" strike all the matter down to and including "eight" on line 10, and insert "two"

On page 4, section 5, line 26, after "scholarship of" strike all the matter down to and including "eight" on line 27 and insert "two"

It was moved by Senator Dore that the following amendment by Senators Dore and Greive be adopted:

On page 5, following section 6, line 16, add a new section 7 to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is appropriated to the Washington state student financial aid commission from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1969 the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars to carry out the purposes of this act."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 3:00 p.m.

Senators Greive, Cooney and Keefe demanded a Call of the Senate.

A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment proposed by Senators Dore and Greive.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President, would Senator Dore yield to a question:

"Senator Dore, it's rather unusual, is it not, to have an appropriation made from the floor without going through the Ways and Means Committee?"

Senator Dore:

"I'd say it's unusual yes, Senator."

Senator Woodall:

"Yes. If we go along with this unusual procedure today, will it in your opinion hasten the adjournment of the legislature?"

Senator Dore:

"Senator, if you're asking about the action of the body, it depends somewhat upon the adoption of the proposition in the bill. If it goes in the bill, then I think I shall be guided by whatever action the body takes. If it doesn't, or if it does then we'd have to wait and see whether or not it passes the House and determine whether or not an appropriation is to be put in the main budget bill. Does that answer the question?"

Senator Woodall:

"Not totally. I have a couple more questions, Senator. I notice in an evening tribunal here, the Tacoma News Tribune: 'Dore Stands Pat but Won't Delay Budget.'

It's kind of hard to reconcile all of that, but we know our writers don't write the headlines. But it does say in here, and I want to find out if this is correct—it says three of the people had agreed to sign to discharge the committee. 'Dore, of course, will not sign to get rid of himself.'

"Is that true?"

Senator Dore:

"I think the record is, Senator, three were willing to sign to discharge the committee and three were not so it was kind of a mixed consensus, fifty-fifty."

Senator Woodall:

"It further says that you stated that—'Dore contends there is still time for the budget to go through.'

"Is it correct that five of the members there on the conference committee were willing to sign out one version of the budget bill and you and you alone were insisting that the budget bill could not come out unless it contained this particular item we are talking about, is that correct?"

Senator Dore:

"Yes, Senator, my position is that this scholarship issue is such an important piece of legislation that I—"

Senator Woodall:

"I didn't want a discussion."

Senator Dore:

"Excuse me. I thought you asked the question—"

Senator Woodall:

"I just wanted an answer to the question, not the reasons."

Senator Dore:

"Well, I want to give you the answer, if you might afford me the opportunity and the courtesy. I'd like to give you an answer."

Senator Woodall:

"An answer. Yes. Fine. Not a speech."

Senator Dore:

"My answer to your question is that I thought it important that a scholarship provision be included in the budget bill. I thought it was that important and, as long as the tax bill had not been consummated and there were various public statements by members of the tax committee that it was premature to bring out the budget, I felt fully justified in standing firm and insisting on the inclusion of this scholarship bill, which has been somewhat justified by the Rules Committee in bringing the matter before us today."

Senator Woodall:

"One more question: Then do I take it if this measure passes this afternoon and we go along with this change of procedure by putting an appropriation on a bill, making a direct appropriation on the floor instead of sending it through Ways and Means in the usual way, will you sign the budget bill as it is now agreed to by five of you and let us proceed?"

Senator Dore:

"Yes, Senator, I will."

Senator Woodall:

"All right. Will you sign, if this bill passes this afternoon, this house, this Senate, with that appropriation in it, will you this evening sign the conference committee report on the budget which is now agreed to by five members?"

Senator Dore:

"Well, Senator, I don't know what action the House will take on the bill. I'll sign. I'll be guided by the determination of this body and act accordingly and I will sign the budget. As to the exact timing I think that will depend somewhat upon the members of the conference committee and when a meeting is called and so on, but I certainly won't any longer insist on holding my position with reference to the scholarship bill."

Senator Woodall:

"Just so there is no mistake, again, Senator if this measure passes the Senate this afternoon with this measure in it, will you, if the other members of the conference committee bring the budget to you, will you then sign this day?"

Senator Dore:

"Yes, Senator, but the quarrel is over timing. That's up to the members of the budget conference committee. You are not one of them."

Senator Woodall:

"That's correct. But I am one of the fellow sufferers who has been kept waiting around here. All right, if the Senator says, 'If you go for it, he'll sign within the day,' that's fine."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gissberg:

"Point of order, Mr. President:

"My point of order is that Senator Andersen is using words on this Senate floor which impugn the motives of another Senator and are just entirely out of order and the President should so rule and have the Senator who is out of order take his seat in accordance with the rules."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Senator Gissberg's point is well taken, Senator Andersen."

Senator Hallauer:

"Mr. President, speaking on the point of order, I would say that I agree entirely with Senator Andersen and his remarks as to what has transpired here in this body. I feel precisely as he does, so he is not exactly alone."

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"That makes you both out of order, Senator Hallauer."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Andersen:

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President:

"Have we reached the point where a member of the Senate of the state of Washington is precluded from expressing his views directly and appropriately on a measure before this body affecting the people of the state of Washington?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"I think the rules provide, Senator, that impugning the motives of other Senators is one thing not allowed on the floor of the Senate, and I think the word, 'blackmail,' is a rather strong word."

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President, what is before the Senate at this time?"

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"The Greive-Dore amendment."

Senator Greive:

"I move we proceed in order."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Andersen:

"Mr. President, point of parliamentary inquiry:

"Mr. President, am I being cut off and being denied the right to express publicly in the Senate what has transpired here and what is transpiring on the floor of the Senate before not only the Senate but all of the people of the state?"

Senator Herrmann:

"Mr. President:

"I think there has been entirely too much involving personalities expressed, not only on this occasion, but on many occasions, and injecting personal remarks and attacking the motives and reasons of certain individuals here on the floor. I refer to Senate Rule 16 and I think the remarks here are getting pretty far out of line."

Senator Kupka:

"Mr. President and lady and gentlemen of the Senate:

"Speaking to the subject at hand and—"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Andersen:

"Mr. President, point of order:

"I made a parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President, quite expressly and I would like to have a ruling on it."

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"I already ruled on it, Senator. Under Senate Rule 16, you are out of order."

Senator Andersen:

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Morgan:

"Mr. President, I would like to ask Senator Dore to yield:

"Senator Dore, these funds for schools, are these for both public and private colleges?"

Senator Dore:

"They are to neither. These go to the recipient who may go to any school of his choice, be it public or private."

Senator Morgan:

"But some of them might be in public colleges and private, both?"

Senator Dore:

"Yes, the testimony before the committee is that approximately eighty percent of the recipients would pursue their education at public schools and some twenty percent at private schools, so by that ratio, of the request for $250,000, only approximately $50,000 would be used by students going to private schools, while some $200,000 would be used by those that were going to attain their education at public schools."

Senators Talley, Greive and Dore demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators McCutcheon, Stender, Faulk, Bailey, Herr, Ridder, Dore and Connor.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion was carried and the amendment by Senators Greive and Dore was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 13.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—36.

Those voting nay were: Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Freise, Guess, Hal-lauer, Lennart, Metcalf, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Stender, Twigg—13.

It was moved by Senator Talley that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, line 27, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Fifty percent of the student awards shall go to recipients residing in areas beyond a seventy mile radius of a four year college located in the state of Washington."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President, would Senator Talley yield to a question:

"Senator Talley, would you have any objection to adopting an amendment to the amendment making it around fifty miles? When you put it at seventy, I'm just wondering—you pretty much limit it as to people who could ever be recipients because seventy miles from Bellingham and seventy miles from Seattle over toward the mountains and seventy miles from Ellensburg and so forth—I think the number of people it would really benefit would really be the barefoot boys. It seems to me if you would get it down to around fifty miles it might be a little more realistic."

Senator Talley:

"I appreciate your remarks but I don't think that there are any other areas that aren't within a seventy mile radius. We're about the only area left in the state that is not served by a four year college or even within driving distance."

Senator Woodall:

"Well, then you're saying in view of that remark that fifty percent of this money must go in one specific area alone? Now I hesitate to think that Senator Talley's area is that far behind that we have to spend half of it just in his area."

Senator Talley:

"Our area is that far behind. We don't have a four year college now and we don't see any hope in the immediate future. I think the purpose of this bill is to take care of students that have excessive expenses and things like that. I think it's a fair amendment, Senator Woodall."

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator McCutcheon, the amendment by Senator Talley was laid upon the table.

On motion of Senator Dore, the following amendment to title was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "schools;" insert "making an appropriation;"

On motion of Senator Dore, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 475 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Senators Keefe, Sandison and McCutcheon demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained on a rising vote.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 475 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 15.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—34.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Freise, Guess, Hallauer, Lennart, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Stender, Talley, Twigg—15.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 475 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PROTEST

The methods resorted to in order to pass Senate Bill No. 475 were a discredit to the Senate as well as to the many fine people and organizations outside of the Legislature who sincerely wanted this legislation.

One of the six members of the Budget Conference Committee of this Legislature publically served notice on the Senate that he would not sign the Free Conference Committee report unless and until the Senate passed a particular bill that he wanted. This bill was Senate Bill No. 475 and that is how it passed.

The precedent established by the passage of this bill is that any time a member is entrusted by the Senate to be a budget conferee, he is thereby empowered, if he desires, to impose his absolute will on the 48 other members of the Senate and the three million people of this State whom they represent.

No matter how worthwhile the objective may appear, the precedent is equally bad because such precedent, once established, can as easily justify an evil or corrupt purpose as a good purpose.

Accordingly, I voted against this bill as a protest against the methods used to pass it. Such procedures constitute subversion of the legislative process.

(Signed) James A. Andersen,
State Senator.

We concur in Senator Andersen's protest: Senators R. Frank Atwood, Sam C. Guess, Jack Metcalf, Fred G. Redmon, Wilbur G. Hallauer.

PROTEST

April 28, 1967.

In answer to Senators' protest signed in reference to Senate Bill No. 475:

I, at no time, served notice in the Washington State Senate that I would not sign the Budget Free Conference Report unless the Senate would pass Senate Bill No. 475. I had always said publicly, and privately, that I would be guided in signing or not signing the Budget Conference Report on the wishes of the Democratic Caucus. In the morning caucus, the day Senate Bill No. 475 was passed, I asked the Democratic Caucus for instructions whether I should continue to hold out for inclusion of the scholarship amendment in the Budget Bill. Instead, a member other than myself, made a motion to respectfully instruct the Senate Rules Committee to pass Senate Bill No. 475 on the calendar for further action. On a roll call vote in the caucus, the motion carried 25-4.

On the floor, Senate Bill No. 475 passed by a margin of 34 members voting for it, and 15 members voting against it. Over two-thirds of the State Senate members of both parties support this important measure. Senate Bill No. 475 had been reported out of the Senate Higher Education Committee with the recommendation of "Do Pass" some six weeks before. Senate Bill No. 475 had been asked for in the Rules Committee on eleven separate occasions but it had been held in the Rules Committee by a reported margin of 8-9. I signed the Budget Bill last Friday, April 21st. Eight days have now elapsed and still the Budget Bill has not been reported back to the Senate. This completely refutes those complaining that I was holding up the session by not signing the Conference Report. Agreement on taxes is the main reason that we are stalled and cannot adjourn. I will continue to use every legitimate legislative process in order to secure the passage of worthwhile legislation, such as, scholarship grants to needy students.

The charge that I enforced my will on 48 other members of the Senate, although flattering, is absolutely false. I, at every stage in the proceedings in my effort to incorporate a scholarship provision in the Budget Act, had the active and strong support of at least 25 Senators, a clear majority of the body.

(Signed) Fred H. Dore,
Washington State Senator.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Greive, Senator Greive was excused.

House Bill No. 9, by Representatives O'Brien and Copeland (by Legislative Council request):

Providing for emoluments for appointees to the office of legislator.

The Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 9 on second reading and the amendment proposed by Senator Lennart.

Debate ensued.

Senator Bailey demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Williams, Faulk, Rasmussen, Washington, Hanna, Kupka, Connor and Donohue.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion was lost and the amendment by Senator Lennart was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 13; nays, 33; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Atwood, Hallauer, Hanna, Kupka, Lennart, McCormack, McCutcheon, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Ted), Twigg, Washington, Woodall—13.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Guess, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis, McMillan, Mardesich, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Uhlman, Williams—33.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, Ryder—2.

Excused: Senator Greive—1.

It was moved by Senator Stender that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, line 8, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 8, Laws of 1967 extraordinary session (page 12 of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 548) is amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a community college board of trustees for each community college district as set forth in this act. Each community college board of trustees shall be composed of five trustees, who shall be appointed by the governor from a list of nominees submitted by the nominating committee in accordance with section 11 of this act.

The initial appointees to the board of trustees shall draw lots at the first meeting thereof to determine their respective initial terms. One trustee shall serve for one year, one for two years, one for three years, one for four years, and one for five years.

Thereafter, until July 1, 1969, the successors of the trustees initially appointed shall be appointed by the governor to serve for a term of five years except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term shall be appointed only for the remainder of the term.

Every trustee shall be a resident and qualified elector of his community college district. No trustee may serve as a member of the board of directors of any school district, or as an elected officer or member of the legislative authority of any municipal corporation.

Each board of trustees shall organize itself by electing a chairman from its members. The board shall adopt a seal and may adopt such bylaws, rules and regulations as it deems necessary for its own government. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner as prescribed in its bylaws, rules, or regulations. The district president, or if there be none, the president of the community college, shall serve as, or may designate another person to serve as, the secretary of the board, who shall not be deemed to be a member of the board.

No member shall receive any salary for his services, but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred by him in the performance of his duties in the sum of twenty-five dollars per diem for each day actually spent in attending to his duties as a member of the board of trustees, and mileage at the rate of ten cents per mile.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hallauer:

"Mr. President, point of order:

"I will raise the question of this amendment widening the scope and object of the bill. It seems to me we have to begin with allowing payment of legislators appointed during interim periods. This is a new concept that I believe most of us agree with heartily. It's a correction that is needed. This has something to do with amending the bill to include community college expenses. It is completely out of order at this time."

Senator Stender:

"Mr. President, I have discussed this with our caucus lawyer and I recognize that, and that's why I spoke, Senator Hallauer. He indicated to me—and I think he is conversant with the procedures—that if there is no question of germaneness as far as codifying this one passage, that there is no problem. If you want to kill it, of course I realize the Chair would have to rule because it has a title amendment. I recognize that very frankly. But I think this was an oversight and in all fairness, since we are at the end of our session, that the germaneness question shouldn't be raised because I think there is an injustice here to about 110 people serving in organizing or reorganizing our community college instruction."

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"Of course, Senator Stender, you've got one thing in your favor: It doesn't cost $250,000. But I don't think—and we have just looked at the law—and this would be a new precedent in that no one receives per diem, even the present trustees of colleges or board of regents. What they do receive are their mileage and necessary expenses while attending meetings, so I would be opposed to it on this matter, and I realize, Mr. President, that I am speaking on a point of order, but I do think that we would be stepping into an area that has not been covered before in regards to the same problems and that's the trustees and board of regents, so I would be opposed to this at this time."

Senator Stender:

"Well, I talked to Senator Sandison and Senator McCormack and they feel that there was an oversight somewhere and that's the reason I mentioned it. If you want to kill it, this is the way to do it, of course."

Senator Hallauer:

"Mr. President:

"I did serve on the legislative council subcommittee on Higher Education during the past biennium and I recall no discussion there of this particular matter. If I thought there was indeed a true oversight here I wouldn't mind too much going along, but I don't believe this is the case and per diem is a new precedent here and so I would want to insist on my point of order."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"The President, ruling on the point of order, under Senate Rule 62, believes that the point raised by Senator Hallauer is well taken, that the amendment does change the scope and object of the bill."

On motion of Senator Atwood, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 9 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 9 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 8; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Rider, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—37.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Freise, Redmon—3.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bailey, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Herrmann, Lennart, Mardesich, Pritchard—8.

Excused: Senator Greive—1.

MOTION

At 5:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Gissberg, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Friday, April 21, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

FORTY-THIRD DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Friday, April 21, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Al Henry.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Andersen, Canfield, Durkan, Freise, Guess, Keefe, Kupka, Lennart, McCormack, Mardesich, Metcalf, Peterson (Ted), Redmon, Sandison, Washington and Williams.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Redmon was excused.

On motion of Senator Greive, Senators Hallauer and Herr were excused. Senators Greive, Bailey and McCutcheon demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senators Hallauer, Herr and Redmon, who were excused.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Gregory Klump, Color Bearer, and Jenny Parker, presented the Colors.

Reverend T. Eugene Turner, pastor of the First Christian Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Our Divine Father, in the midst of the tedium of each day's labor, help us to find some sense of meaning and satisfaction. When progress comes slowly, help us to control both our spirit and our speech.

"Fulfil now the deepest needs of mind, body, and spirit of the members of this Senate, that they may be equal to the demands which the hours of this day will make upon them.

"In the Name and spirit of Jesus Christ, Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The President Pro Tempore declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President Pro Tempore called the Senate to order at 12:20 p.m.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 47

By Senators Bailey, Faulk and Guess:

Whereas, The State Civil Service Law, chapter 41.06 RCW, was approved by a vote of the people of the state of Washington in 1960 by Initiative Measure 207 and enacted into law by the 1961 Legislature for the purpose of establishing for the state a system of personnel administration based on merit principles and scientific methods; and

Whereas, The State Civil Service Law provided for the establishment of a highway personnel board and a highway personnel director as a separate new agency, and independent of the Department of Personnel, to administer the provisions of the State Civil Service Law for the State Highway Commission and the Department of Highways; and

Whereas, The establishment of a separate Civil Service agency to carry out the provisions of the State Civil Service Law for the employees of the Department of Highways provided an excellent arrangement for solving problems inherent in recruitment and administration of the large numbers of technical and engineering employees required by the Department of Highways, and enhanced the potential for attaining a high degree of morale, job satisfaction and organizational efficiency among the employees of the department; and

Whereas, The said law directed a study be made prior to January 1, 1963 to determine the feasibility of integrating completely the personnel systems of the Department of Highways with the State Department of Personnel, such study to be presented in writing with recommendations to the 1963 State Legislature; and

Whereas, The study prepared in compliance with the law recommended that the personnel systems not be integrated at that time but that the feasibility of integrating the personnel systems be reviewed again in three to five years from the date of the study; and

Whereas, A management study of the organization, administration and management procedures of the Department of Highways conducted in 1964 recommended major changes in the operation of the Civil Service board in its administration of personnel matters to facilitate improvements in the internal personnel management functions of the Department of Highways; and

Whereas, The report of a study by the Council for Reorganization of Washington State Government carried out in 1965 recommended elimination of the Highway Personnel Board and the office of the Director of Highway Personnel as a part of the reorganization of the Department of Highways; and

Whereas, Efficient administration of the Civil Service Law in its application to the employees of the Department of Highways is a vital element in the efficient operation of the Department of Highways and is essential to the effective management and expenditure of large amounts of public funds;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, that the Joint Committee on Highways be instructed to investigate, or cause to be investigated, the effectiveness of the Highway Personnel Board and its staff in application of the provisions of the State Civil Service Law on behalf of the employees of the Department of Highways; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Highways submit recommendations to the 1969 Legislature on changes which should be made in the operation of the Highway Personnel Board if continued, or for abolishment of the Board; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate will transmit a copy of this resolution to the chairman of the Joint Committee on Highways.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 48

By Senators Rasmussen, Bailey and Durkan:

Whereas, The 1935 Social Security Act with subsequent amendments has always been considered a major guarantee against poverty and want; and

Whereas, Changing conditions make modernization of the Old Age, Survivors' and Disability Insurance Act imperative, through both extension of coverage and increased insurance and retirement benefits; and

Whereas, Disability provisions under the Act are very restrictive; and

Whereas, These restrictions are particularly onerous to residents of Washington State, who are injured in industrial accidents and are judged to be permanently and totally disabled and receive under state law a fixed monthly amount of compensation; and

Whereas, The present law requires that O.A.S.I. payments to recipients of categorical public assistance must be considered as "resources," and thereby may reduce the money grants or other benefits to which such persons are otherwise entitled;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Senate of the state of Washington hereby petitions the Congress to enact legislation authorizing a disability "freeze," even though the recipient is not granted a disability pension under the Social Security Act; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Old Age, Survivors' and Disability Act be amended by the Congress to allow recipients of public assistance grants or other benefits accruing under categorical public assistance programs to retain any O.A.S.I. payments without a concomitant decrease in money grants or other benefits under the categorical programs.

Be It Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be immediately transmitted to President Lyndon B. Johnson; the President of the United States Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives; the Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, and to each member of the Congress from Washington State.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 Ex - 49

By Senators Talley, Peterson (Ted) and Bailey:

Whereas, the importance and nutritional value of fish and shellfish in the world (F.P.C.) and the American diet are becoming increasingly more important as a protein resource; and

Whereas, our federal agencies involved have found on three occasions since 1953-54 that our domestic trawl fish industry was being hurt or injured by importations, and yet executive administrative action has not been forthcoming to provide this needed protection; and

Whereas, the United States domestic fishery production has decreased and diminished consistently since 1954 to the point of having dropped in world production from second place to fifth place (1964) with Norway overtaking the United States in 1966; and

Whereas, the domestic fishing industry, having been severely criticized for not having upgraded itself, has found so doing impossible as long as any and all foreign nations can so conveniently ship fishery products into the United States; and

Whereas, the United States production of these species in 1966 was only 19.2 percent of the total United States supply and that from imports was 80.8 percent (U.S.D.I. Bureau of Commercial Fisheries Annual Summary, "Packages Fishery Products — 1966", C.F.S. No. 4343); and

Whereas, foreign fishing on our coasts and importations are one and the same problem, and are destroying the domestic trawl industry; and

Whereas, the processing plants of Washington are limiting the landings of trawled seafoods due to the heavy and steadily increasing imports of similar species;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Senate respectfully requests the Washington delegation to the Congress of the United States to take appropriate action to ensure and provide a sound and healthy domestic trawl fishery through tariff or quota protection on such imported products.

Be It Further Resolved, that the Secretary of the Senate forward a copy of this resolution to each member of the Washington delegation to the Congress of the United States.

On motion of Senator Talley, the resolution was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

At 12:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 19, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House stands on its previous position and refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 133 and asks the Senate for a conference thereon, and the Speaker has appointed as the House conferees on Engrossed House Bill No. 133:

Representatives Chapin, Garrett, Lewis, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate granted the request of the House for a conference on Engrossed House Bill No. 133.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President Pro Tempore appointed as Senate members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 133, Senators Talley, Knoblauch and Canfield.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

The Secretary read:

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Olympia, Wash., April 20, 1967.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77 providing for allowance of fees and costs in connection with eminent domain proceedings, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 77 be amended to read as follows:

An Act relating to eminent domain; providing for allowance of costs and fees in connection therewith; amending section 2, chapter 125, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 8.25.020; amending section 4, chapter 125, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 8.25.040; and adding new sections to chapter 125, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and to chapter 8.25 RCW.

Be It Enacted By The Legislature of The State Of Washington:

Section 1. Section 2, chapter 125, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 8.25.020 are each amended to read as follows:

[In order to pay a part of the owner's costs of evaluating an offer of just compensation, any person or organization whose real property or interest therein is acquired by eminent domain or by consent under threat thereof, is entitled to receive from the agency or person acquiring such property or interest therein as a part of his just compensation the sum of one hundred dollars] There shall be paid by the condemnor in respect of each parcel of real property acquired by eminent domain or by consent under threat thereof, in addition to the fair market value of the property, a sum equal to the various expenditures actually and reasonably incurred by those with an interest or interests in said parcel in the process of evaluating the condemnor's offer to buy the same, but not to exceed a total of two hundred dollars. In the case of multiple interests in a parcel, the division of such sum shall be determined by the court or by agreement of the parties.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 125, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 8.25.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person or organization whose real property or interest therein is acquired by eminent domain, or by consent under threat thereof, is entitled to be reimbursed by the agency or person acquiring such property or interest therein, as provided in this chapter, for the reasonable costs which he actually and necessarily incurred as a result of the acquisition in moving his personal property from the real property acquired, such costs to include dismantling, removing, packing, loading, transporting, unpacking and temporary storage not to exceed sixty days, but not a devaluation of such personal property incurred in or caused by such moving: [Provided, That in no event shall the amount of reimbursement exceed the sum of two hundred dollars for removal of personal property in the case of an individual or a family, or the sum of three thousand dollars for removal of personal property in the case of a business concern (including the operation of a farm) or a nonprofit organization, or the sum of the two when both such removals are required:] Provided, That [in the case of a business concern or a nonprofit organization] the amount of reimbursement for transportation shall not exceed the cost of moving [fifty] one hundred miles from the point from which such [business] person or organization is displaced. In no event shall the amount of reimbursement exceed the sum of five hundred dollars for removal of personal property in the case of an individual or a family, or sum of ten thousand dollars for removal of personal property in the case of a business concern (including the operation of a farm) or a nonprofit organization, or the sum of the two when both such removals are required.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 125, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and to chapter 8.25 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If a trial is held for the fixing of the amount of compensation to be awarded to the owner or party having an interest in the property being condemned and if the condemnee has offered to stipulate to an order of immediate possession of the property being condemned, the court may award the condemnee reasonable attorney's fees and reasonable expert witness fees actually incurred in the event of any of the following:

(1) If condemnor fails to make any written offer in settlement to condemnee at least thirty court days prior to commencement of said trial; or

(2) If the judgment awarded as a result of the trial exceeds by ten percent or more the highest written offer in settlement submitted to those condemnees appearing in the action by condemnor at least thirty days prior to commencement of said trial; or

(3) If, in the opinion of the trial court, condemnor has shown bad faith in its dealings with condemnee relative to the property condemned.

In no event may any offer in settlement be referred to or used during the trial for any purpose in determining the amount of compensation to be paid for the property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 125, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and to chapter 8.25 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of chapter 125, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and chapter 8.25 RCW, as amended and added to by this 1967 amendatory act, shall apply to all proceedings regulated by chapters 8.04, 8.08, 8.12, 8.16, 8.20 and 8.24 RCW as fully as though they were set forth in each of such chapters.

The Secretary read:

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
 Olympia, Wash., April 18, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Engrossed Senate Bill No. 131 with the following amendments:

On page 1 of the printed and engrossed bill, after section 1 add a new section as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 126, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 1, chapter 244, Laws of 1957 and RCW 2.32.180 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be and is the duty of each and every superior court judge in counties or judicial districts in the state of Washington having a population of over thirty-five thousand inhabitants to appoint, or said judge may, in any county or judicial district having a population of over twenty-five thousand and less than thirty-five thousand, appoint a stenographic reporter to be attached to the court holden by him who shall have had at least three years' experience as a skilled, practical reporter, or who upon examination shall be able to report and transcribe accurately one hundred and seventy-five words per minute of the judge's charge or two hundred words per minute of testimony each for five consecutive minutes; said test of proficiency, in event of inability to meet qualifications as to length of time of experience, to be given by an examining committee composed of one judge of the superior court and two official reporters of the superior court of the state of Washington, appointed by the president judge of the superior court judges association of the state of Washington. The initial judicial appointee shall serve for a period of six years; the two initial reporter appointees shall serve for a period of four years and two years, respectively, from September 1, 1957; thereafter on expiration of the first terms of service, each newly appointed member of said examining committee to serve for a period of six years. In the event of death or inability of a member to serve, the president judge shall appoint a reporter or judge, as the case may be, to serve for the balance of the unexpired term of the member whose inability to serve caused such vacancy. The examining committee shall grant certificates to qualified applicants. Administrative and procedural rules and regulations shall be promulgated by said examining committee, subject to approval by the said president judge.

The stenographic reporter upon appointment shall thereupon become an officer of the court and shall be designated and known as the official reporter for the court or judicial district for which he is appointed: Provided, That except for that county or judicial district wherein the seat of state government shall be located, in no event shall there be appointed more official reporters in any one county or judicial district than there are superior court judges in such county or judicial district; the appointments in each class AA county shall be made by the majority vote of the judges in said county acting en banc; the appointments in class A counties and counties of the first class may be made by each individual judge therein or by the judges in said county acting en banc. Each official reporter so appointed shall hold office during the term of office of the judge or judges appointing him, but may be removed for incompetency, misconduct or neglect of duty, and before entering upon the discharge of his duties shall take an oath to perform faithfully the duties of his office, and file a bond in the sum of two thousand dollars for the faithful discharge of his duties. Such reporter in each court is hereby declared to be a necessary part of the judicial system of the state of Washington."

On page 1 of the printed and engrossed bill, after section 2, added by House amendment, add a section to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 124, Laws of 1909 as amended by section 1, chapter 42, Laws of 1961 and RCW 2.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There may be appointed in each county or judicial district, by the judges of the superior court having jurisdiction therein, a court commissioner for said county or judicial district. Such commissioner shall be a citizen of the United States and an elector of the county or judicial district in which he may be appointed, and shall hold his office during the pleasure of the judges appointing him."

On page 1 of the printed and engrossed bill, after section 3, added by House amendment, add four sections to read as follows:

"Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 125, Laws of 1951, as last amended by section 1, chapter 48, Laws of 1963, and RCW 2.08.061 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be in the county of King [twenty-one] twenty-three judges of the superior court; in the county of Spokane seven judges of the superior court; in the county of Pierce [seven] nine judges of the superior court.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 125, Laws of 1951, as amended by section 2, chapter 48, Laws of 1963 and RCW 2.08.062 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be in the county of Chelan one judge of the superior court; in the county of Clark three judges of the superior court; in the county of Grays Harbor two judges of the superior court; in the county of Kitsap [two] three judges of the superior court; in the county of Kittitas one judge of the superior court; in the county of Lewis one judge of the superior court.

Sec. 6. Section 6, chapter 125, Laws of 1951, as last amended by section 1, chapter 35, Laws of 1963, and RCW 2.08.064 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be in the counties of Benton and Franklin jointly, two judges of the superior court; in the counties of Clallam and Jefferson jointly, one judge of the superior court; in the county of Snohomish [four] six judges of the superior court; in the counties of Asotin, Columbia and Garfield jointly, one judge of the superior court; in the county of Cowlitz, two judges of the superior court; in the counties of Klickitat and Skamania jointly, one judge of the superior court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and section 6 shall take effect immediately."

In line 1 of the title of the printed and engrossed bill, after "Relating to the" strike the remainder of the title and insert "courts and to the administration of the courts; prescribing a salary of the administrator for the courts; providing for court reporters; providing for the appointment of court commissioners and referees; providing for additional judges of various superior courts; amending section 3, chapter 125, Laws of 1951, as last amended by section 1, chapter 48, Laws of 1963, and RCW 2.08.061; amending section 4, chapter 125, Laws of 1951, as amended by section 2, chapter 48, Laws of 1963 and RCW 2.08.062; amending section 6, chapter 125, Laws of 1951, as last amended by section 1, chapter 35, Laws of 1963, and RCW 2.08.064; amending section 1, chapter 124, Laws of 1909 as amended by section 1, chapter 42, Laws of 1961 and RCW 2.24.010; amending section 1, chapter 126, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 1, chapter 244, Laws of 1957 and RCW 2.32.180; amending section 1, chapter 259, Laws of 1957 and RCW 2.56.010; and declaring an emergency.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen:

"Point of order, Mr. President:

"Under Senate Rule 62, I believe that the amendments to this bill enlarge the scope and object."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Atwood:

"Parliamentary inquiry. I believe Senator Rasmussen invoked Rule 62, and under that rule I believe if the Chair's ruling is favorable on it, then it still will go back to the Judiciary Committee, I presume?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"That is precisely my problem at the moment, Senator. As I recall originally Senate Bill No. 131 went to State Government, but as it is now amended, I don't quite recognize it."

MOTION

Senaor Freise:

"Mr. President:

"I move that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments."

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Senator Freise, the President hasn't ruled as yet on Senator Rasmussen's point of order."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, speaking to the point of order:

"The bill was in the Committee on State Government. It related to the administration of the state courts. The bill as amended with the amendments relates to the creation of new judgeships and it is very true it was in one committee and now it relates to another committee and I would suggest that possibly it should go to the Judiciary Committee with the amendments that the House has attached to the bill enlarges its scope and object.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"The President, ruling upon the point of order as raised by Senator Rasmussen, under Rule 62, the rule states:

"A Senate bill, passed by the House with amendment or amendments which shall change the scope and object of the bill, upon being received in the Senate, shall be referred to appropriate committee and shall take the same course as for original bills."

"The President, ruling upon the point of order, is of the opinion that the House amendments do enlarge the scope and object of the bill and the bill is, therefore, referred to the Judiciary Committee."

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Senate Bill No. 5,
Senate Bill No. 254,
Senate Bill No. 325,
Substitute Senate Bill No. 424,
Senate Bill No. 466.

The Secretary read:

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 20, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed Substitute Senate Bill No. 360 with the following amendments:

Beginning on line 18 of the printed bill strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The purpose of this act is to establish for county employees in certain counties a system of personnel administration based on merit principles and scientific methods governing the appointment, promotion, transfer, layoff, recruitment, retention, classification and pay plan, removal, discipline and welfare of such county employees, and other incidents of county employment. All appointments and promotions to positions, and retention therein, shall be made on the basis of policies as hereinafter specified.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the words used herein shall have the following meaning:

(1) "Commission" means the civil service commission herein created and "commissioner" means any one of the three members of such commission;

(2) "Director of personnel" means the executive officer selected to supervise and carry out the commission's administrative activities under the provisions of this act and the rules and regulations promulgated by the commission;

(3) "Appointing power" means the elective or appointive county officer who is invested by law with the power and authority to select, appoint or employ any deputy, deputies or other necessary employees subject to civil service;

(4) "Appointment" includes all means of selecting, appointing or employing any person to any office, place, position or employment subject to civil service;

(5) "County" means class AA counties of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is created in each such county a civil service commission which shall be composed of three persons. The commission members shall be appointed by the board of county commissioners within thirty days after July 1st, 1967. No person shall be appointed to the commission who is not a citizen of the United States, a resident of the county for at least two years immediately preceding his appointment, and an elector of the county wherein he resides. Not more than two commissioners shall be adherents of the same political party. No member, after appointment, shall hold any salaried public office or engage in county employment, other than his commission duties. The county commissioners shall determine the compensation to be allowed members of the commission for each day, or major part thereof, actually devoted to the business of the commission, not to exceed fifty dollars per day.

The term of office of the commissioners shall be six years, beginning July 1st, of the odd numbered years, except that the first three members of the commission shall be appointed for different terms, as follows: One to serve for a period of two years; one to serve for a period of four years; and one to serve for a period of six years. Any member of the commission may be removed from office for incompetency, dereliction of duty, malfeasance in office, or other good cause: Provided, That no member of the commission shall be removed until charges have been preferred, in writing, due notice being given thereof and a full hearing had before a board composed of the chairman of the board of county commissioners, the prosecuting attorney, and the county auditor. Any vacancy in the commission shall be filled by the county commissioners for the unexpired term. Two members of the commission shall constitute a quorum to transact business, and the votes of any two members shall be sufficient for the decision of all matters and the transaction of all business to be decided or transacted by the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Immediately after appointment, the commission, upon call of the chairman of the board of county commissioners and notice of the time and place thereof, shall organize by electing one of its members chairman, and shall hold regular public meetings at least once a month thereafter, unless there is no pending business requiring action by the commission, and may hold such additional meetings as may be required for the proper discharge of its duties. All members shall be notified of the meeting within twenty-four hours prior to its convening.

The commission may hold hearings, such hearings to be called by either the chairman or by a majority of members of the board. An official notice of the calling of the hearing shall be filed by the director of personnel with the records of the commission, and all commission members shall be notified of the hearings by the director of personnel within twenty-four hours prior to its convening.

A written record shall be kept by the commission of all its actions. No release of material or statement of findings shall be made except with the approval of a majority of the commission. In the conduct of hearings or investigations, a member of the commission or the director of personnel may administer oaths.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There shall be appointed by the commission within sixty days after its appointment a director of personnel, appointed on the basis of his experience in and demonstrated knowledge of modern personnel administration, who shall be the administrative head of the commission. He shall be responsible for directing the personnel program of the county in accordance with the provisions of this act, rules and regulations of the commission, and county ordinances implementing the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The commission shall have the power and it shall be required to:

(1) Advise the county commissioners and other county administrative officials on all matters relating to civil service and personnel administration with respect to county service.

(2) Investigate and pass upon the claim of any person whose name appears on an eligibility list, that he has been deprived of a position to which he is entitled under the provisions of this act and any ordinances or rules and regulations of the commission implementing the same, in which case the decision of the commission shall be binding on the appointing power: Provided, That such person shall not be entitled to any claim for salary from the county for the period prior to the date of filing such claim.

(3) Hear appeals from any action suspending for more than thirty days, reducing in rank of pay, or discharging any employee in classified service, and further, to hear appeals on any and all other controversies or matters arising out of or in connection with civil service and personnel rules as promulgated by the commission. The findings and decisions of the commission shall be reduced to writing and shall be final and binding upon all parties concerned.

(4) Establish a merit system of employment with respect to county service. The commission shall make and promulgate all civil service and personnel rules, and amendments thereto, necessary to carry out and enforce the purposes of this act, and shall file all such proposed rules and amendments thereto with the county commissioners who shall consider the same. Within thirty-one days after the filing thereof, the county commissioners shall by ordinance adopt such proposed rules or amendments thereto: Provided, That the county commissioners by unanimous vote may change, alter, amend, add to, reject or repeal any such proposed civil service or personnel rules or amendments thereto. In the event the county commissioners shall fail to act upon any such rules or amendments thereto within the thirty days time limit hereinabove in this subsection provided for, then and in that event the county auditor, as clerk of the board of county commissioners, shall immediately cause to be published such rules or amendments thereto in an official newspaper as provided for in chapter 65.16 RCW and such rules or amendments thereto shall some ten days thereafter become effective for all purposes the same as if adopted by ordinance of the county commissioners and published as such an adopted ordinance. Such rules shall provide for:

(a) The classification of all positions in the classified service.

(b) Open, free and competitive examinations to test the relative fitness of applicants for such positions, and for reasonable publication and public advertisement of all examinations.

(c) Creation of eligibility lists upon which shall be entered the names of successful candidates in the order of their standing on the examination and for the certification of those on the appropriate list to department heads for appointment to fill vacancies and for the manner in which appointments shall be made from such list: Provided, That there shall be certified to the appointing power when a vacant position is to be filled, the names of three persons highest on the list of eligibles for the class, if such there be.

(d) The period of time in which eligibility lists shall continue in effect.

(e) Promotion based upon competitive examination and records of efficiency, conduct, and seniority.

(f) A period of probation of twelve months, both on original and promotional appointments, before the appointment is made permanent, during which time, in the case of an original appointment, the probationer may be discharged, or in the case of a promotion, returned to a position of equal salary and status of his former classification.

(g) Rejection of candidates or eligibles who fail to comply with reasonable requirements in regard to age, residence, sex, and physical condition or of infamous and disgraceful conduct, crimes, or who have attempted any deception or fraud in connection with an examination.

(h) Temporary employment without examination in cases of emergency and pending appointment from an eligibility list, but no such temporary employment shall continue after the establishment of an eligibility list for the position held.

(i) Transfer from one position to a similar position in the same class and grade, for reinstatement within two years of persons who without fault or delinquency on their part are separated from the service or reduced in class or grade, and for the reinstatement in a position of their former classification of employees promoted to and later demoted from appointive positions in the unclassified service.

(j) Discipline of employees by suspension, demotion, discharge, or other actions not inconsistent with provisions of this act: Provided, That no employee in the classified service, shall be suspended for more than thirty days, demoted or discharged, except for cause: Provided Further, That no employee in the classified service shall be suspended for more than thirty days in any one twelve month period.

(k) Certification to the county treasurer of the names and classifications of all persons legally employed in the county service, without which certification the county treasurer shall not authorize the issuance of salary warrants.

(1) Right of appeal by any employee to the commission from any action suspending for more than thirty days, reducing in rank or pay, or discharging any employee in the classified service, and from any and all other matters arising out of or in connection with civil service and personnel rules.

(5) In addition to the foregoing powers and duties the commission shall carry on a continuing conscientious program of employment recruitment, including open continuous and periodic examinations as needed, to avail themselves of the best possible manpower available within the confines of the county's budgetary limitations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. County civil service as provided for in this act shall be divided into classified and unclassified services. The unclassified service shall consist of: (1) Officials elected by the people and persons appointed to fill vacancies in such elective offices; (2) members of boards and commissions; (3) administrative officers appointed by the board of county commissioners or any other elective county official, or by boards or commissions as provided by law or by county ordinance; (4) heads of any department or division of a county office: Provided, That those designated department or division heads shall be approved by the commission for purpose of exempt status; (5) confidential secretaries to (a) any elected official; (b) any board or commission as provided for in subsection (2) hereof; (c) any administrative officer as provided in subsection (3) hereof; or (d) heads of any department or division of a county office as provided in subsection (4) hereof; (5) professional personnel in the office of the county prosecutor; (6) appointive administrative officials, physicians, surgeons, dentists, interns, student nurses, and inmate employees employed by the county hospital, tuberculosis sanitarium, and health department of the county; (7) court commissioners, court reporters, bailiffs, and judges' private secretaries in the office of the superior courts of the county; (8) one chief probation officer and one chief deputy probation officer in the juvenile court department of the office of the superior courts of the county; (9) court commissioners, chief clerks and chief deputy clerks in the office of the justice courts of the county; (10) persons employed in a professional or scientific capacity to conduct a special inquiry, investigation or examination; (11) part time or temporary employees, as defined by the commission; (12) election precinct officials; (13) all officials and other persons serving the county without compensation; and (14) all county employees covered by civil service provided under any other act.

The classified service shall comprise all positions not specifically included in the unclassified service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. All appointments and promotions to positions in the classified civil service shall be made solely on merit, efficiency and fitness, which shall be ascertained by open competitive examination and impartial investigation. No person in the classified civil service shall be reinstated or transferred, suspended or discharged from any such place, position or employment contrary to the provisions of this act. Any person having civil service status under the provisions of this act may take a temporary appointment in an unclassified position with the right to return to his regular position, or to a like position, at the conclusion of such temporary appointment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. For the benefit of the public service and to prevent delay, injury or interruption therein by reason of the enactment hereof, every person holding a position which is deemed classified by section 7 of this act for a continuous period of twelve months immediately prior to January 1, 1968 is eligible for permanent appointment under civil service to the office, place, position or employment which such person then held, without examination or other act on his part, and without probation; and every such person is automatically adopted and inducted permanently into civil service into the office, place, position or employment which he then held as completely and effectually to all intents and purposes as if such person had been permanently appointed thereto under civil service after examination and investigation. All other persons holding positions deemed classified for less than said period of twelve months shall be subject to the same open, competitive examination and other qualifying requirements applicable to other applicants for the same position, and such persons may not continue in such positions for a period of more than twelve months after the creation of the civil service system unless appointed from the three highest persons on the list of eligible persons in accordance with the provisions of this act: Provided, That persons holding positions for six months or longer, but less than twelve months shall be considered on probation until such time that they have completed twelve months of service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The tenure of every person holding an office, place, position or employment under the provisions of this act shall continue only during good behavior; and any such person may be removed or discharged, suspended without pay, demoted, or reduced in rank or deprived of vacation privileges or other special privileges for any of the following reasons:

- (1) Incompetency, inefficiency or inattention to or dereliction of duty;
- (2) Dishonesty, intemperance, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public or a fellow employee, or any other act of omission or commission tending to injure the public service; or any other willful violation of the provisions of this act or the rules and regulations to be adopted hereunder;
- (3) Mental or physical unfitness for the position which the employee holds;
- (4) Dishonest conduct or conduct prejudicial to the county;
- (5) Drunkenness or use of intoxicating liquors, narcotics or any other habit-forming drug, liquid or preparation to such extent that the use thereof interferes with the efficiency or mental or physical fitness of the employee, or which precludes the employee from properly performing the functions and duties of his position under civil service;
- (6) Conviction of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;
- (7) Any other act or failure to act which, in the judgment of the commission, is sufficient to show the offender to be an unsuitable and unfit person to be employed in the public service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. No person in the classified civil service who has been permanently appointed or inducted into civil service under the provisions of this act shall be removed, suspended or demoted except for cause, and only upon written showing of cause by the appointing power. A written statement of such showing of cause in general terms, shall be served upon the accused and a duplicate filed with the commission.

Any person so removed, suspended for over fifteen days or demoted may, within ten days from the date of his removal, suspension or demotion, file with the commission a written demand for an investigation, whereupon the commission shall conduct such investigation. The investigation shall be confined to a determination of the question of whether the removal, suspension or demotion was made in good faith for cause. After such investigation the commission may affirm the removal or, if it finds that the removal, suspension or demotion was not made in good faith for cause, shall order the immediate reinstatement or reemployment of such person in the office, place, position or employment from which he was removed, suspended or demoted, which reinstatement shall if the commission so provides, be retroactive and entitle such person to pay or compensation from the time of removal, suspension or demotion. The commission, upon such investigation, in lieu of affirming a removal, may modify the order by directing a suspension without pay, for a stated period, and subsequent restoration to duty, or demotion in classification, grade or pay. The findings of the commission shall be certified, in writing, to the appointing power and shall be forthwith enforced by such officer. Nothing in this act shall limit the power of an officer to suspend for cause, without pay, a subordinate for a period not exceeding thirty days, upon filing with the commission a written statement of such action.

All investigations made by the commission pursuant to this section shall be by public hearing, unless waived by the accused, after reasonable notice to the accused of the time and place thereof, at which hearing the accused shall be afforded an opportunity of appearing in person and by counsel, and presenting his defense. If the order of removal, suspension or demotion is concurred in by the commission, or a majority thereof, the accused may appeal therefrom to the superior court of the county wherein he is employed. Such appeal shall be taken by serving on the commission, within thirty days after the entry of its order, a written notice of appeal, stating the ground therefor, and demanding that a certified transcript of the record, and all papers on file in the office of the commission affecting or relating to its order, be filed by the commission with the court. The commission shall, within thirty days after the filing of such notice, make, certify and file such transcript with the court.

The court shall thereupon proceed to hear and determine the appeal in a summary manner. Such hearing shall be confined to the determination of whether the order of removal, suspension or demotion made by the commission was or was not made in good faith for cause, and no appeal shall be taken except upon such ground or grounds. The decision of the superior court may be appealed to the supreme court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Whenever a position in the classified service becomes vacant, the appointing power, if it desires to fill the vacancy, shall requisition the commission for the names and addresses of three persons eligible for appointment thereto. The commission shall certify the names of three persons highest on the list of eligible persons for the class to which the vacant position has been allocated, who are willing to accept employment. If more than one vacancy is to be filled, one additional name shall be certified for each additional vacancy. The appointing power shall forthwith consider each person, in order of their standing on the list, and may appoint one person to each vacant position.

To enable the appointing power to exercise a choice in the filling of positions, no appointment, employment or promotion in any position in the classified service shall be deemed complete until after the expiration of a period of twelve months' probationary service, as may be provided in the rules of the commission, during which the appointing power may terminate the employment of the person certified to him if, during the performance test thus afforded, upon observation or consideration of the performance of duty, the appointing power deems him unfit or unsatisfactory for service. Thereupon a successor shall be appointed in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. All offices, places positions and employments coming within the provisions of this act shall be filled by the appointing power, and nothing herein contained shall infringe upon such authority as an appointing power may have to fix the salaries and compensation of employees employed hereunder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. All classified employees of the county shall have the right to form, join and assist any employee association, organization or union without any restraint from management, or to refrain from such activity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. No treasurer, auditor, commissioner or other officer or employee of the county shall approve the payment of, or be in any manner concerned in paying, auditing or approving any salary, wage or other compensation for services to any person subject to the jurisdiction and scope of this act unless a payroll, estimate or account for such salary, wage or compensation, containing the names of the persons to be paid, the amount to be paid to each such person, the services on account of which same is paid and any other information which, in the judgment of the commission should be furnished on such payroll, bears the certificate of the commission or of its personnel director or other duly authorized agent, that the persons named therein have been appointed or employed in compliance with the terms of this act and the rules of the commission, and that the payroll, estimate or account is, insofar as known to the commission, a true and accurate statement. The commission shall refuse to certify the pay of any public officer or employee whom it finds to be illegally or improperly appointed, and may further refuse to certify the pay of any public officer or employee who wilfully, or through culpable negligence, violates or fails to comply with the provisions of this act or with the rules of the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The commission shall begin and conduct all civil suits which may be necessary for the proper enforcement of this act and the rules of the commission. The commission shall be represented in such suits by the prosecuting attorney of the county, or the commission may elect to retain private counsel.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The right of any person to an appointment or promotion to any position shall not be withheld because of race, color, creed, national origin, political affiliation or belief, nor shall any person be dismissed, demoted or reduced in grade for such reason.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. No classified employee of the county shall take any part in campaigns involving the election of any county official further than to cast his vote and to express privately his opinions thereon.

No classified employee shall, nor shall he be required to, participate in or contribute to the political campaign of any political party or candidate for elective office or to contribute to any office or department fund: Provided, That such classified employees shall have the right to vote and to express their opinions privately on political subjects and candidates and participate fully in campaigns relating to constitutional amendments, referendums, initiatives, and issues of similar character, and for nonpartisan offices. No classified employee shall, nor shall he be required to, during his hours of employment, participate in any political activity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. All officers and employees of the county shall aid in all proper ways in carrying out the provisions of this act and such rules and regulations as may, from time to time, be prescribed by the commission, and afford the commission, its members and employees, all reasonable facilities and assistance in the inspection of books, papers, documents and accounts in any way applying to any and all offices, places, positions and employments subject to civil service; and also shall produce such books, papers, documents and accounts, and attend and testify whenever required so to do by the commission or any commissioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Any person who wilfully violates any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not longer than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any part of this act shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a condition precedent to the allocation of federal funds to the county, such conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected; and such findings or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act in its application to the agencies concerned. The commission shall make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to meet federal requirements which are a condition precedent to the receipt of federal funds by the county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Upon the adoption by the people of any class AA county of a charter after the effective date of this act, which charter provides therein for a civil service system for employees of said county, such charter shall as to such county, supersede the provisions of this 1967 act and this 1967 act shall not be deemed applicable to any such class AA county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1967."

Beginning on line 1 of the title after "AN ACT" strike the remainder of the title and insert the following:

"Relating to counties and civil service status for county employees in certain counties; excepting certain employees therefrom; creating a civil service commission to administer the act; setting forth the powers and duties of the commission; providing the basis for and methods of appointments and promotions; providing for tenure under civil service; listing grounds for dismissal, suspension, demotion or reduction in rank; defining procedure for dismissal, suspension or demotion; providing for appointing power to fill vacancies and fix compensation; permitting formation of employee associations or unions; providing for payroll certification by the commission; providing for the institution of civil suits; prohibiting certain acts; prohibiting certain participation in political activities; requiring cooperation of county officers and employees; providing penalties; and declaring an emergency and providing an effective date.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 20, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed Senate Bill No. 261 with the following amendments:

Following section 1 add the following new sections to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Any city with a population over 300,000 may sell, lease or convey any real property located in an area zoned to permit the operation of retail business, when such property is no longer needed for the use or purposes of such city, to any private corporation or association established to develop and maintain free public parking facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Before any such city may sell, lease or convey any real property located in an area zoned to permit the operation of retail business, it shall post in a conspicuous place on such property and publish in the official newspaper for the county in which such property is located for fifteen days prior to such sale, lease or conveyance a notice giving the legal description of such property and disclosing an intention to sell, lease or convey such property; and it shall offer in its notice, and shall give, the first right of purchase or lease to any private corporation or association (1) established to develop and maintain free public parking facilities and (2) which agrees to dedicate such property for free public parking. In the event such real property shall no longer be used for free public parking as provided in this act title to such real property shall revert back to such city. The first right of purchase granted herein shall expire and be of no effect unless exercised before January 1, 1969.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A sale, lease or conveyance to such corporation or association may be made for such consideration and on such terms and conditions, including but not limited to a covenant that at least one hundred percent of such property be made available to the public for free parking, as the municipality deems appropriate: Provided, That the price charged such corporation or association shall not be in excess of the fair market value of such property for parking purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The provisions of section 3 shall not apply to any sale, lease or conveyance to the federal government or to any agency thereof, or to the state or any agency, county, city, town or other political subdivision of this state."

Following section 5 added by Representative Ceccarelli as amended by Representatives Whetzel and Lewis add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 6. Section 35.86.070, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.86.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Such cities and/or their lessees shall pay to the county treasurer [and to the state treasurer moneys in lieu of real property taxes] an excise tax for the privilege of operating a city-owned parking facility equal to the amounts which would be paid upon real property [condemned pursuant to this chapter] devoted to the purpose of off-street parking were it in private ownership. This section shall only apply to parking facilities acquired under this act."

Following section 6 added by Representative Wolf, add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 7. Section 1, chapter 82, Laws of 1931, as amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1933, and RCW 87.03.135 are each amended to read as follows:

Any irrigation district shall have power to sell or lease any real estate or personal property owned by such district, whenever the board of directors shall, by unanimous vote, determine that such property is not necessary or needed for the use of the district. No sale or lease of such property shall be made until notice thereof shall be given by publication at least twenty days before the date of said sale or lease of said property in some newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property or part thereof is located, if there be one, and if there be none, then in some newspaper of general circulation published in an adjoining county, said publication to be made at least once a week during three consecutive weeks before the day fixed for the making of such sale or lease, and shall contain notice of intention of the board of directors to make such sale or lease and state the time and place at which proposals for such sale or lease will be considered and at which the sale or lease will be made: Provided, That the provisions of this section relating to publication of notice shall not apply when the value of the property to be sold or leased is less than five hundred dollars. Any such property so sold or leased shall be sold or leased to the highest and best bidder. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the sale of lands acquired by an irrigation district through its purchase of said lands for the nonpayment of its irrigation assessments."

In line one of the title, after "sale of" and before "county" strike "of" and insert "or" and after "county property" and before the semicolon insert "and irrigation district property; levying an excise tax on city-owned parking facilities; amending section 35.86.070, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.86.070;" and in line 2 of the title after "RCW 36.34.020" and before the period insert "; and amending section 1, chapter 82, Laws of 1961, as amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1933, and RCW 87.03.135", and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 261 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

The Secretary read:

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 20, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Senate Bill No. 447 with the following amendments:

In line 2 of the title, after "RCW 41.16.040" and before the period insert: "and section 3, chapter 82, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 3, chapter 5, Laws of 1959, and RCW 41.16.090"

On page 3, add a new section following section 1 to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 82, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 3, chapter 5, Laws of 1959, and RCW 41.16.090 are each amended to read as follows:

[No monthly pension or benefit shall be paid in excess of one hundred fifty dollars: Provided, That] All pensioners receiving a pension under the provisions of this chapter as provided for in section 12, chapter 91, Laws of 1947 and RCW 41.16.230, shall [have their pensions increased in the amount of twenty-five dollars per month, beginning at the time this 1957 law becomes effective; but no pensioners will be entitled to receive more than one hundred and fifty dollars per month] from and after the effective date of this 1967 amendatory act receive a minimum pension of one hundred fifty dollars per month.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the Senate refuse to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 447 and ask the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President:

"I raise the point of order on the amendments which have been attached by the House to Senate Bill No. 447. I believe these amendments do enlarge the scope and object of the bill. The bill was originally a bill to liberalize to some extent the investment of pension funds and the House has added an increase in the benefits in addition to the investment of the funds, and I believe that it does enlarge the scope and object of the bill."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall:

"Point of order, Mr. President:

"I would agree with Senator Ryder, if we were moving at this time to concur. The motion before the body is that we do not concur and that the bill go back to the House so the matter which the good Senator questions is not before us. If the motion would have been to concur, then his point would have been well taken."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Your point is well taken, Senator Woodall. The motion before the Senate is the motion by Senator Greive that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments and ask the House to recede therefrom."

The motion was carried.

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 20, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed Senate Bill No. 643 with the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 6, after "wages" strike the remainder of the section and insert: "not to exceed six hundred dollars to each claimant which have been earned within three months before the date of the distraint or commencement of the proceeding shall be paramount and superior to any claim preferred or presented by an agency of the state: Provided, That this section shall not apply to any compensation payable to an employer or to an officer, director, or stockholder of a corporate employer.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Kupka, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 643.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 643, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 6; excused, 2.

It was moved by Senator Uhlman that the rules be suspended, that Engrossed House Joint Memorial No. 17 be advanced to second reading and placed on the second reading calendar.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gissberg:

"Point of order Mr. President:

"A motion for a suspension of the rules is not debatable and Senator Uhlman, the maker of the motion, has explained what it is, in accordance with the rules. He can make a short explanation and that has been done. It is not open to debate and I urge you to vote this motion down."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pritchard:

"Point of order, Mr. President:

"Senator Gissberg has made an appeal for a vote and I request the same privilege."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"You already have and in more words than he used, Senator."

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Greive that the rules be suspended to permit debate on the motion.

The motion was lost.

Senator McCormack demanded a roll call on the motion by Senator Uhlman and the demand was sustained by Senators McCutcheon, Greive, Uhlman, Morgan, Williams, Pritchard, Metcalf and Washington.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion to suspend the rules was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 24; absent, or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Connor, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Greive, Herr, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCormack, Mardesich, Marquardt, Morgan, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Stender, Uhlman, Washington, Williams—21.

Those voting nay were: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Freise, Gissberg, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Keefe, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Woodall—24.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Herrmann—2.

Excused: Senators Hallauer, Redmon—2.

MOTION

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President:

"I move that this repealer, Engrossed House Joint Memorial No. 17, be referred to the Committee on Constitution, Elections and Legislative Processes with instructions that the bill be reported back to the floor of the Senate by noon, Monday, April 24, with the recommendation either that it do pass or that it do not pass."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall:

"Point of order, Mr. President:

"You can move to refer to a committee to study, but to tell a committee that they must by a certain day report it out, whether a quorum does or does not show up, is a compound motion and I would first like to have it separated and we will vote on the part of whether it goes to a certain committee. I insist the rest of that particular motion should be voted down."

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President:

"I believe there are provisions in the rules that you may refer a bill to committee with instructions. I don't think our rules are specific as to what those instructions are, and certainly this being a deliberative and legislative body, the committees are subject to our jurisdiction and we can request our committees to function in any way we choose. Now if the members of this body don't see fit to offer those instructions, you can vote the motion down, but it is a motion which can be properly made, one which can be carried out, and one which can be debated fully as to the merits of the proposal. I do want to keep the floor in order to state the reasons for my motion. I don't want to give up the floor."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Senator Washington says he wants to keep the floor, Senator Greive. For what purpose do you rise?"

Senator Greive:

"Rule 120, Reeds."

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"Speaking to the point of order, you can send a bill to committee and you can send some instructions. He is attempting in his motion to state that the committee must report one way or another. Now you can't bind a committee as to what kind of report it is going to put on the bill once it becomes the property of that committee. I submit that part of his motion is out of order. You can instruct the committee to hold hearings, but to tell a standing committee what the standing committee is to find is purely improper."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"You will concede, Senator, that he has a right under the rules to make a motion to commit with instructions to report back on a day certain?"

Senator Woodall:

"Yes."

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President:

"I would amend the motion to also include a report without recommendation."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Senator Washington, the President is of the opinion that a motion to commit with instructions to report back on a day certain is sufficient. There are only three things they can do: Either do pass, do not pass or without recommendation."

Senator Washington:

"With that explanation, I'll accept your ruling."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Kupka:

"Is it possible to divide the question into two parts so we can vote on referral and vote as to what a committee is going to do with it?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Not at this time."

Debate ensued.

Senators Atwood, Gissberg and Chytil demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained on a rising vote.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President, I rise to take advantage of the rule which allows the maker of a motion to close debate."

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Would you quote the rule to me, Senator?"

Senator Washington:

"Well, the custom which has been long standing."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"I don't have the number for the custom either, Senator. The President is of the opinion that without a suspension of the rules, Senator, that the demand for the previous question has been sustained."

Senator McCormack demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Dore, Connor, Ridder, Greive, McCutcheon, Uhlman, Washington and Williams.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion to refer Engrossed House Joint Memorial No. 17 with instructions was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 18; nays, 26; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 2.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Connor, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Greive, Knoblauch, McCormack, Mardesich, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Stender, Uhlman, Washington, Williams—18.

Those voting nay were: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Freise, Gissberg, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Keefe, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Woodall—26.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Herr, Herrmann—3.

Excused: Senators Hallauer, Redmon—2.

Engrossed House Joint Memorial No. 17 was referred to the Committee on Constitution, Elections and Legislative Processes.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Greive served notice that he would at the appropriate time on the next working day move that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 447.

MOTIONS

It was moved by Senator Woodall that the Senate Committee on Highways be instructed to report out by noon, Monday, April 24, Substitute House Bill No. 722.

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the motion by Senator Woodall be laid upon the table.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Senator Woodall, the President is of the opinion that the motion was made under the wrong order of business and therefore not acceptable."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President:

"Speaking as a matter of personal privilege, I would hope that Senator Woodall might make that motion under the proper order of business. I would be very glad to see the precedent set and be very happy to have the Highway Committee be the committee which does establish the precedent and follow the instructions given by the Senate. I think it would be a worthwhile motion to make and I do hope, Senator Woodall, that you do make such a motion at the proper time. I would join you and would hope that the Highway Committee would follow suit in establishing such a precedent."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President, point of personal privilege:

"I would like to comment on the motion just made to cut off debate in context with the general philosophy that we are operating under Senatorial courtesy. A number of us have different ways of approaching the business of debate on the floor. Some of us jump to our feet the instant a question is raised while others of us take our time and wait our turn. I don't presume that I had anything particularly profound to offer to this Senate in debate, but in the context of Senatorial courtesy, when someone in debate refers to me by name as being in abject fear and then another one stands up and moves to cut off debate while I am trying to get the floor, I think we might extend more courtesy and generosity."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Commenting upon your point of personal privilege, Senate Rule 30 provides— and this is for the edification of all of the Senators here on the matter of so-called lack of courtesy—

"The previous question shall not be put unless demanded by three Senators whose names shall be entered upon the journal, and it shall then be put in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" When sustained by a majority of Senators present, it shall preclude all debate and the roll shall be immediately called on the question or questions pending before the Senate, and all incidental question or questions of order arising after the motion is made shall be decided whether on appeal or otherwise without debate."

"Now there have been a number of cases where the maker of the motion, in his wisdom, saw fit to withdraw the motion. The maker of this motion did not. I don't think it is an aspersion either upon the presiding officer or the maker of the motion."

NOTICE OF INTENT TO FILE PROTEST

Senator Andersen:

"Mr. President:

"I'd like to give notice that I am going to file a protest of the vote under Rule 26 of the Senate rules concerning the various activities involved in the passage yesterday of Senate Bill No. 475."

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"Notice received, Senator."

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Senate Bill No. 643.

The Senate resumed consideration of bills on first reading.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 32, by Representatives Smythe, Brouillet, Marsh, McGavick, Barden, Kink, Lux, Hoggins, Murray, Kiskaddon, Goldsworthy, King, Holman, Veroske, Jastad, Walgren, McCaffree, Ceccarelli and Lynch:

Referred to Committee on Natural Resources, Parks, Fisheries and Game Fish.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 49, by Representatives Hoggins, Kiskaddon and Bledsoe:

Complimenting Miss Shannon Walker as Washington's 1967 state junior miss.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woodall, Senators Ryder, Neill and Atwood were excused.

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 49 was advanced to second reading and read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 49 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, the resolution placed on final passage and adopted.

MOTION

At 3:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Saturday, April 22, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

FORTY-FOURTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Saturday, April 22, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Metcalf and Twigg.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Metcalf was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Bob Lisk, Color Bearer, and Debbie Parks, presented the Colors.

Reverend T. Eugene Turner, pastor of the First Christian Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Our Divine Father, for the gift of this day we thank Thee. Let us not shirk from the challenges and decisions which we will be asked to make in the hours before us.

"Endue us richly with insight, patience, and intelligent goodwill that we may stand before Thee at eventide as those who have labored well and with whom thou canst be pleased. In the Name and spirit of Jesus Christ. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1967 EX - 50

By Senators Gissberg, Mardesich and Metcalf:

Whereas, Fifty years ago on January 8, 1917, Joseph H. Smith, young attorney of the city of Everett, came to Olympia to be sworn as a duly elected senator of the thirty-eighth senatorial district; and

Whereas, Senator Smith while serving as chairman of the Senate Committee on Appropriations quickly recognized the imperative need for a brief, entirely impersonal and completely honest digest of all bills introduced each day; and

Whereas, Senator Smith then and there made a resolve to correct this very clear deficiency in the law-making process by dedicating his legal talents to the daily preparation of this legislative digest; and

Whereas, For thirty-two consecutive years at every regular and extraordinary session the legislative digest prepared by Attorney Smith, and through the courtesy of his employer, the Association of Washington Industries, was made available to all legislators daily without one cent of cost to the state treasury;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By unanimous vote of the Senate that Joseph H. Smith be and is herewith affectionately and appreciatively designated.

"SPECIAL FRIEND OF THE LEGISLATURE"

And Be It Further Resolved, That this resolution be prepared on parchment with the official seal of the state of Washington affixed, and at a time of most convenience to the Honorable Joseph H. Smith, legislators of Snohomish county as well as all other legislators who may wish to attend, it shall be formally presented to this SPECIAL FRIEND of the Legislature.

On motion of Senator Gissberg, the resolution was adopted.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of Leroy Hittle, Chief of the Associated Press Olympia Bureau, and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Henry and Chytil, and press members John Lemon and Jack Pyle to escort Mr. Hittle to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

The President appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Bailey, Greive, Peterson (Ted), and Ryder, and members of the press Donald Dickson and Adele Ferguson to escort the Honorable Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate, to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

With leave of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Mr. Hittle, on behalf of the members of the Fourth Estate, to present a signed photograph to Mr. Bowden in appreciation for his liaison with the press.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Atwood that consideration of Senate Bill No. 309 be deferred until the proper order of business on Monday, April 24, 1967. The motion was carried.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, and having given prior notice, Senator Greive moved that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 447.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 447.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, I again raise the point of order which I raised yesterday that the House amendment does enlarge the scope and object of the bill. Senate Bill No. 447 originally was a bill, as it left for the House, applying to the investment of the pension trust funds and enlarging those investment opportunities. In the House they have added to it the amendment which was described a moment ago by Senator Greive which goes into the benefits of the system, and I submit to you, Mr. President, that this does enlarge the scope and object of the bill and that it is not proper that it should be considered as an amendment thereto."

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President:

"I should like to point out in the best way that I can in reading the title of Senate Bill No. 447, it says, 'An act relating to firemen of cities and towns; and amending section 4, chapter 91, laws of 1947 and RCW 41.16.040,' which I contend is directly in point."

Senator Talley:

"Mr. President:

"I think Senator Greive is right. This is the same fund that they are investing and I think they are all connected as far as I can see. It comes out of the same section and it's the same funds and everything together."

Senator Greive:

"Another thought occurs to me and I think it deserves to be said prior to the time you have an opportunity to rule. If we are to restrict it when we have the proper chapter and we have the proper RCW and we have the same fund, and we say that we couldn't raise the particular compensation to retired firemen, it would seem to me there would be nothing that could ever be amended on this floor. I urge the President not to rule in this restrictive way because I feel confident it would come back and haunt us at a later date."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President, ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Ryder:

"The President, in reviewing Senate Bill No. 447 feels that the title and the language of the measure are sufficiently broad to permit the addition of the House amendment; therefore, the President believes that the point of order presented by Senator Ryder is not well taken."

Senators Greive, Connor and Cooney demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The motion by Senator Greive was carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 447.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 447, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 9; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—39.

Absent or not voting: Senators Atwood, Chytil, Durkan, Guess, Morgan, Neill, Redmon, Stender, Twigg—9.

Excused: Senator Metcalf—1.

Senate Bill No. 447, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Twigg was excused.

The Secretary read:

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
 Olympia, Wash., April 19, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122 with the following amendments:

Strike all matter after the enacting clause and insert:

“NEW SECTION. Section 1. When used in this act:

(1) The term “contribution” includes a gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money or anything of value and includes a contract, promise or agreement, whether or not legally enforceable, to make a contribution, given with the intent of influencing the passage or defeat of any pending or proposed legislation;

(2) The term "expenditure" includes a payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money or anything of value, and includes a contract, promise or agreement, whether or not legally enforceable, to make an expenditure;

(3) The term "person" includes an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, and any other organization or group of persons. The term does not include a member or member-elect of either house of the state legislature;

(4) The term "legislation" means bills, resolutions, amendments, nominations, and other matters pending or proposed in either house of the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Any person who shall be engaged for pay or for any consideration for the purpose of attempting to influence the passage or defeat of any legislation by the legislature of the state of Washington or the approval or veto of any legislation by the governor of the state of Washington shall register with the president of the senate and the speaker of the house before doing anything in furtherance of such object and shall give to such officers in writing and under oath a statement showing:

(a) Name and business address;

(b) Name and address of the person or persons by whom he is employed and in whose interest he appears or works and by whom he is compensated;

(c) The duration of such employment;

(d) Whether he is paid on a permanent basis with a lobbying assignment as a partial, temporary or incidental part of his duties, or whether his compensated employment is solely for lobbying purposes;

(e) A written authorization from each person by whom he is so employed;

(f) The general area or areas of his legislative interest.

(2) In addition, any person as described in subsection (1) above shall similarly file not later than sixty days after the adjournment of each regular and extraordinary session of the legislature a statement of all contributions and expenditures made, incurred, or expended for the purposes described in this section exclusive of personal living and travel expenses: Provided, However, That when an extraordinary session follows immediately after a regular session such statement shall be filed not later than sixty days after the adjournment of the extraordinary session.

(3) Each statement required by this section shall be made on forms agreed upon by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house, a duplicate copy of which shall be filed with and preserved by the secretary of state for a period of three years as a public record open to public inspection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The following activities shall not be deemed to require compliance with section 2 of this act:

(1) The activities or appearance of a person promoting or opposing the passage of any legislation or its approval or veto by the governor, in his own behalf and not as a representative, agent or employee of another person;

(2) Providing professional services in the drafting of legislative measures or in advising clients and rendering opinions as to the construction and effect of proposed or pending legislation, or in communication with members of the legislature or the governor in connection therewith;

(3) Appearing or testifying before a committee of the legislature in support of or in opposition to any legislation;

(4) Giving testimony at committee hearings upon the request of the legislature or a committee or a member thereof;

(5) Giving testimony or contracting legislators by government employees as a part of their official duties; or

(6) News or feature reporting activities by working members of the press, radio, or television.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. No agreement to accomplish any purpose set forth in section 2 of this act shall be enforceable and no action shall be brought thereon where payment of all or any part of the compensation under said agreement depends in any manner upon the passage or defeat or executive approval or veto of any legislation, or upon any other contingency in connection with legislation: Provided, That this section shall not apply to those agreements made between attorney and client in connection with claims against the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Any person who (a) files any document provided for in this act that contains any materially false statement or material omission or (b) wilfully fails to comply with any material requirement of this act shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than twelve months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and shall be prohibited, for a period of ten years from the date of such conviction, from being registered as a lobbyist in either the senate or the house of representatives; and in addition thereto, shall be liable for damage caused by such violation to person or persons adversely affected thereby including members and members-elect of the Washington state legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The attorney general shall enforce the provisions of this act and shall prosecute, or may delegate to the appropriate prosecuting attorney the prosecution of all violations of this act: Provided, That this section shall not preclude actions for the recovery of damages.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

It was moved by Senator Dore that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122.

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Woodall that the matter retain its place on the proper order of business for Monday, April 24, 1967.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Senate Joint Resolution No. 3, by Senator Uhlman:

Amending Constitution to change voting requirements as to excess levies.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Joint Resolution No. 3 on second reading.

It was moved by Senator McCormack that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike all the matter after "as follows:" on page 1, line 8, and insert:

"Article VII, section 2. (1) Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed [forty mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, which assessed valuation shall be fifty per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money] ten dollars per one thousand dollars of the current true value of such property: Provided, However, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. The legislature shall have the power, by appropriate legislation, to provide for the enforcement of the provisions of this article by state or local agencies or both. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district, other than school district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district [, at which election the number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election];

(b) By any school district when specifically authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on a proposition to levy additional taxes for not in excess of two years for operations submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date from which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district. No district shall submit to the electors upon the authority of this subsection a proposition to authorize additional levies for current operations or capital outlays for any year for which such electors have previously approved a levy for the same purpose under the authority of this subsection. A district may, however, at any time submit to the electors a proposition to substitute for a prior authorization under this subsection a new authorization for the same purpose, provided (i) that the amount authorized by the substituted authorization will be adequate to fulfill all contractual obligations of the district incurred by reason of the prior authorization, and (ii) that the substitute proposition shall by its terms supersede the prior authorization and by its terms shall not become effective until the first tax levy year following the date of the election at which such substitute proposition was authorized and then be in lieu of any tax levy authorized by the superseded authorization."

(c) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district [, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election]: Provided, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, And Provided Further, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, Section 6, of this Constitution;

(d) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on [December 6, 1934] The date this amendment to this section becomes effective; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort.

(2) The legislature is authorized to impose, and may grant to municipal corporations the authority to impose, graduated or nongraduated taxes upon the net income of every person and corporation and may provide for such deductions and exemptions from such taxes and the computation thereof as it may deem just and proper: Provided, That such tax shall be computed on taxable income as defined and determined by the laws of the United States and as to personal income shall be fixed at not less than two percent nor more than six percent of taxable income and as to corporate income shall be fixed at not less than two percent nor more than eight percent of taxable income: Provided, That during the time there is imposed a graduated or nongraduated state net income tax on individuals no tax shall be levied on retail sales in this state on food and food items sold for human consumption off the premises where sold and on sales of prescription drugs: And Provided Further, That during the time there is imposed a graduated or nongraduated state net income tax on both individuals and corporations, no tax measured on gross income shall be imposed by the state on the privilege of doing business in the state unless (1) both the rates and services of the business are regulated by the state, or (2) the business is conducted by a municipal corporation, or (3) the business is conducted by a nonprofit corporation or association, whether mutual, cooperative or otherwise. Income is not property within the meaning of this Constitution and a tax imposed upon or measured by income, from whatever source derived, shall not be deemed an ad valorem tax.

The legislature may coordinate the administration and collection of state income taxes with the income tax laws and procedures of the United States, and may delegate to such state administrators as it may designate the authority to prescribe the means of coordination of state and United States tax laws and methods for the allocation of income for taxing purposes. The legislature may adopt by reference any federal statutes relating to the determination of taxable income, as existing at time of adoption and as amended from time to time.

Be It Further Resolved, That subsections (1) and (2) of the foregoing constitutional amendment shall each be construed as a separate amendment within the meaning of Article XXIII, section 1 (Amendment 37) of this Constitution. In the event that any part of subsection (2) of the foregoing constitutional amendment is held to be a separate amendment separate from any other part of subsection (2), subsection (2) of this senate joint resolution shall be void in its entirety and shall be of no further force and effect.

And Be It Further Resolved, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lennart:

"Mr. President, would Senator McCormack yield to a question:

"Would the Senator accept an amendment of five instead of six percent?"

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President and Senator Lennart:

"At the present time I would be reluctant to accept that amendment. I would not close the door to negotiation, but I would not at this time—considering that I have been working with many, many members of the legislature on this particular figure, presume that I could on my own stand here at this time and accept this amendment. I would say that in view of the fact, Senator, that you suggested seven percent on the floor here several weeks ago and we had about a fifty-fifty split on that point in the Senate, we suggested that six percent was a legitimate compromise between our positions. I would hesitate at this time to say, 'Yes, I will accept an amendment,' but I would not close the door to future discussion."

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, point of parliamentary inquiry:

"Would the President rule that if the amendment by Senator McCormack is adopted, that it would strike amendments two, three and four which were adopted on February 2?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President believes, Senator Ryder, that if Senator McCormack's amendment is adopted, that it would strike the two amendments adopted on February 2, but not necessarily the one on February 1."

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, there were three amendments on February 2."

The President:

"The Senator is correct. There are three amendments. Senator McCormack's amendment would strike those three amendments, Senator Ryder."

Senator Ryder:

"Without a reconsideration of the vote by which they were passed?"

The President:

"The President is of that opinion, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey:

"Mr. President, point of inquiry:

"The one amendment which I offered at that time was on the twenty-five percent limit and that was reconsidered by the Senate at one time and re-adopted by the Senate. I doubt very much whether that could be taken off. However, I think that part of it, is reincorporated in Senator McCormack's amendment."

Senator McCormack:

"The same material is incorporated in the amendment, yes."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"That is incorporated in the amendment, Senator Bailey."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senators Durkan, Hallauer, Hanna, Keefe, and Kupka were excused.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senators Peterson (Ted), Pritchard and Williams were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Robert Lisk, Color Bearer, and Heidi Johnson, presented the Colors.

Reverend T. Eugene Turner, pastor of the First Christian Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Our Divine Father, refreshed by the many experiences of this day—corporate worship, the beauty of nature, personal relaxation, family fellowship, disciplined study—we come now to face again, with renewed vigor, the problems which must be resolved before this legislative session can be terminated.

"Thou dost know the tensions that exist. Thou dost know the patience that is quickly strained. Thou dost know the tendencies we all have to be oblivious to our private weaknesses and our partial perspectives. Help us all to transcend our weaknesses and to be wise in the exercise of our strengths.

"We thank Thee for the disciplined work of the members of this Senate, and the willing sacrifices of time and job and family life which they make in order to serve their State. Guide them, as in the remaining days they seek to solve the problems and pains of taxation in as pleasant a manner as possible. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 7:45 p.m.

GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS
MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 10, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the position of Member, State Board of Pharmacy, subject to your confirmation:

Sanford Thal, appointed January 21, 1967, for a term ending January 21, 1971, succeeding Clarence Olberg.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

It was moved by Senator Atwood that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Sanford Thal to the position of member of the State Board of Pharmacy, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"Sanford Thal is a Bellingham man and a recognized leader in the field of pharmacy in the Pharmaceutical Association. He is past president of the Whatcom County Pharmaceutical Association, a member of the State Pharmaceutical Association and he has served three years on their board of managers. What makes this appointment a little unusual is that he is the first appointment of a non-owner to this board. Although he is a manager, he does not own the store. He has an impressive list of credentials in regard to his qualifications for the Board of Pharmacy. For example, he is a consulting pharmacist to both hospitals, a consulting pharmacist to the Whatcom county infirmary. He is a guest lecturer at Western Washington State College and he has been an instructor in pharmacology at both of the hospitals in the school of nursing. He is a drug consultant to the police department and the county sheriff's office and he runs the poison control center in Whatcom county. He has long been active in this field and I would recommend to you your support and confirmation."

Senator Lennart:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"He is a highly honored man and I couldn't think of a better appointment in this field to which he has been appointed."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF SANFORD THAL

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Sanford Thal to the position of member of the State Board of Pharmacy was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 8.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Knoblauch, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—39.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, McCutcheon—2.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Hallauer, Hanna, Keefe, Kupka, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Williams—8.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of Sanford Thal to the position of member of the State Board of Pharmacy was confirmed.

The Secretary read:

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 10, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.
Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Member, State Parks and Recreation Commission, subject to your confirmation:

Eleanor Berger, appointed January 10, 1967, for a term ending December 31, 1972, succeeding herself.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

It was moved by Senator Atwood that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Eleanor Berger to the position of member of the State Parks and Recreation Commission, be now confirmed.

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF ELEANOR BERGER

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Eleanor Berger to the position of member of the State Parks and Recreation Commission, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 5; excused, 8.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Knoblauch, Lennart, Lewis, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Woodall—36.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, McCormack, McCutcheon, Morgan, Washington—5.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Hallauer, Hanna, Keefe, Kupka, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Williams—8.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of Eleanor Berger to the position of member of the State Parks and Recreation Commission, was confirmed.

The Secretary read:

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 10, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.
Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Chairman, Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, subject to your confirmation:

F. Bruce Johnson, appointed November 16, 1965, for a term ending April 15, 1970, succeeding H. J. Lawrence.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

It was moved by Senator Atwood that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of F. Bruce Johnson to the position of chairman of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Freise:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"Bruce Johnson has worked in juvenile and probation work for a good number of years. He has been acting as chairman of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles for the last two years. I know that the men on the staff of the penitentiary in Walla Walla who work with him feel that he is an excellent choice. I know that he cooperated both with the control workers and with the institutions and I think that we couldn't have done better."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF F. BRUCE JOHNSON

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of F. Bruce Johnson to the position of chairman of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 8.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, McCutcheon, Talley—3.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Hallauer, Hanna, Keefe, Kupka, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Williams—8.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of F. Bruce Johnson to the position of chairman of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, was confirmed.

The Secretary read:

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 10, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.
Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Member, Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, subject to your confirmation:

Ross Peterson, appointed May 1, 1966, for a term ending April 15, 1971, succeeding Russell S. Gideon.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

It was moved by Senator Atwood that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Ross Peterson to the position of member of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lewis:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"Mr. Peterson is an extremely well-qualified man and has been doing an excellent job for the state of Washington in this position on the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles. He is a dedicated, hardworking man. He is well thought of in professional circles. I know him personally and know him to be a good man and I urge you to support this nomination."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF ROSS PETERSON

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Ross Peterson to the position of member of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 5; excused, 8.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Herr, Herrmann, Knoblauch, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—36.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Hallauer, Hanna, Keefe, Kupka, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Williams—8.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of Ross Peterson to the position of member of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, was confirmed.

The Secretary read:

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 10, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Director, Department of Commerce and Economic Development, subject to your confirmation:

Daniel B. Ward, appointed January 1, 1966, for the term ending at the Governor's pleasure, succeeding Robert E. Rose.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

It was moved by Senator Atwood that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Daniel B. Ward to the position of director of the Department of Commerce and Economic Development, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Andersen:

"Mr. President, Mrs. Morgan and gentlemen:

"It is my privilege to speak on behalf of one of my former constituents, now one of Senator Lennart's constituents at Mercer Island who has been doing a fine job as director of the department of Commerce and Economic Development for some time. I have known Dan and his charming wife, Marylin, and their youngsters for some time and have known of his reputation in banking circles in the city of Seattle. He did a good job as a banker. He is doing a fine job in the department and I urge the Senate to confirm his appointment. I think Senator Guess has something to say about his fishing abilities."

Senator Guess:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"I would like to also speak on behalf of Dan Ward. He first came over to Spokane to help us in securing some industrial plants moving into the city. He has done an outstanding job in my opinion, and one thing I would like to say about his wife—she has been on advisory committees working for the good of state government and she became so concerned in public assistance that she took a job in Olympia but Marylin is a better fisherman than her husband and a real avid steelhead fisherman with many large catches to her credit. Back to Dan, Dan has done, to my way of thinking, an outstanding job. He has had a real short budget in the last biennium. I hope we can give him a better budget next session, and I believe that he will continue to be an outstanding credit to the state of Washington as he has been."

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President:

"I would like to add a bipartisan flavor to the words for Mr. Ward. I have been chairman of the legislative council on commerce for some number of years and have had an opportunity to work with several people who have held this particular office, and I have been very much impressed by Mr. Ward. I think he is doing a very fine job and he is a dedicated public servant and I am very happy to join Senator Andersen and Senator Guess in requesting you to support Mr. Ward's confirmation."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF DANIEL B. WARD

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Daniel B. Ward to the position of director of the Department of Commerce and Economic Development, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 8.

Absent or not voting: Senators McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesich—3.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Hallauer, Hanna, Keefe, Kupka, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Williams—8.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of Daniel B. Ward to the position of director of the Department of Commerce and Economic Development, was confirmed.

The Secretary read:

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 10, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Member, Washington State Aeronautics Commission, subject to your confirmation:

John C. Long, appointed January 31, 1966, for a term ending December 31, 1969, succeeding DeWitt C. Rowland.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

It was moved by Senator Henry that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of John C. Long to the position of member of the Washington State Aeronautics Commission, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Henry:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"We have had the appointment before the State Government Committee. We had many phone calls from people interested in aviation. We had a very fine resume as to his background and the confirmation came out of my committee unanimously."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF JOHN C. LONG

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of John C. Long to the position of member of the Washington State Aeronautics Commission, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 8.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Knoblauch, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Neill, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—40.

Absent or not voting: Senator McCutcheon—1.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Hallauer, Hanna, Keefe, Kupka, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Williams—8.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of John C. Long to the position of member of the Washington State Aeronautics Commission, was confirmed.

 Referred to Committee on Constitution, Elections and Legislative Processes.

MOTION

At 8:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Monday, April 24, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

FORTY-SIXTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
 Olympia, Wash., Monday, April 24, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senator Hallauer.

On motion of Senator Hanna, Senator Hallauer was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Carl Seltice, Color Bearer, and Jenny Parker, presented the Colors.

Reverend Charles Loyer, pastor of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Almighty God and Father, as the legislators move within hailing distance of adjournment, guide them in their remaining decisions. Help them to wind up this biennium with legislation which will be adequate and even prophetic. In serving the needs of our burgeoning population, give them a sense of serving Thee. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Olympia, Wash., April 24, 1967.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 360 providing for civil service status for county employees in certain counties, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and request the powers of Free Conference.

Senate Members:

Frank Connor
Robert C. Ridder
John N. Ryder

House Members:

Homer Humiston
Robert A. Perry
Joseph L. McGavick

On motion of Senator Bailey, the Conference Committee report was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

The President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 11:25 a.m.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

House Concurrent Resolution No. 50, by Representatives O'Brien and Clark (Newman):

Endorsing American Heritage program.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman:

"Mr. President, before this resolution passes to third reading, I should like to ask one of our school teachers a question with the thought of possible amendment. Senator Metcalf, would you yield:

"Senator Metcalf, the first part of this resolution provides that the balance of this year be officially declared American Heritage Appreciation Year. Now the second part causes me a little concern. I am wondering if in your opinion this would be a desirable thing to have as a directive to the State Board of Education. It reads as follows:

"Be it resolved that the State Board of Education be directed to make a study of the desirability of instituting a course of study in American Heritage as part of the curriculum of the schools in the state of Washington."

"Is it your opinion that this would be a desirable thing in either this area or in the area, say, of doing away with music or any other area where this legislature is getting involved in the curriculum?"

Senator Metcalf:

"Mr. President:

"It is my belief and I think it is supported by a great many people that we should not legislate what is put into the school curriculum. Now as I understand this, the resolution does direct a study and I don't know that it does give any implementation to the study after it has been made. I have no objection to a study of the desirability to do this, but if we were to legislate here and to be actually putting this into the school curriculum, I think that is something that should be under the discretion of the local school board."

On motion of Senator Peterson (Ted), the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 50 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey:

"Mr. President, this may be a question asked by Senator Uhlman but there was so much confusion that I couldn't hear what he was asking:

"Senator Metcalf, do you mean you want the legislature to determine the curriculum to be taught in the public schools or will this be a recommendation?"

Senator Metcalf:

"It is my opinion, Mr. President, and Senator Bailey, that no one should legislate the curriculum in the local schools except the local school boards. Now as I heard this resolution read, I am very much in favor of it. What it does is to direct the board to make such a study and report the findings of their study back to the legislative interim committee. Any action that interim committee would take in order to put this program into the high schools of the state of Washington, would take a law through this legislature or a subsequent legislature at a subsequent time to enact, so I see no harm in this resolution. I think it is a good resolution."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President, would Senator Metcalf yield:

"Senator Metcalf, in your mind, can this program of American heritage be included as part of the study of American history and government and part of Washington state history and government? Can it be bound up in these courses and curriculum?"

Senator Metcalf:

"It's my opinion and at the present time I teach history and I expect to be teaching history—I don't know if I am ever going to get back to teaching history the way things are going here—but my feeling is that it is being taught in the context of American history and I certainly think it should be and for this reason I see no harm whatsoever in this resolution. I think it's good to stress it. We should stress it and I think the point is made in the resolution relative to crime and delinquency and this is a counteracting force. I think that teaching American heritage teaches dedication to these principles and that crime and delinquency can be prevented or at least curbed by this means."

Senator McCormack:

"Senator Metcalf, I don't believe I have an answer to my question. What I asked was: Do you believe this American heritage theme that you are referring to in this resolution can be included as part of the curriculum and bound up in the teaching of American history and government and Washington State history and government that we now teach in the schools?"

Senator Metcalf:

"Yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, would Senator Ridder yield to a question:

"Senator Ridder, we have a school teacher on this side and since you are a representative of the schools on the other side, I wonder if you agree with the stand that is being taken by Senator Metcalf?"

Senator Ridder:

"Mr. President:

"I personally believe it should end with the, 'Be It Further Resolved,' on page 1. When it gets to the superintendent of public instruction, he has all the right in the world to place this in the curriculum, but to come back and have him give the recommendations to this committee so that the committee may take appropriate action, I think you are giving to the committee a right that the committee doesn't have. I think personally it could end with just coming to the superintendent of public instruction and allowing him to institute whatever curriculum changes are necessary, and I think that would be sufficient."

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Ridder that the rules be suspended and that House Concurrent Resolution No. 50 be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

The motion was lost on a rising vote.

Debate ensued.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 50 was adopted.

Engrossed House Bill No. 934, by Representatives McCaffree, Backstrom, Gorton and Lewis:

Implementing law putting additional limitations on regular property tax revenue.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Engrossed House Bill No. 934:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 21, 1967.

Implementing law putting additional limitations on regular property tax revenue (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, line 30 strike the words "in the year the taxes are payable" and insert "[in the year the taxes are payable]"

On page 2, line 31, after "program of" and before "appraisal" insert "assessments,"

On page 4, line 32, after "authorized" and before "by" strike "or levied"

On page 5, after section 6 insert the following:

Any assessor who deems it necessary to enable him to complete the listing and the valuation of the property of his county within the time prescribed by law, (1) may appoint one or more well qualified [citizens of his county] persons to act as his assistants or deputies; and each such assistant or deputy so appointed shall, under the direction of the assessor, after taking the required oath, perform all the duties enjoined upon, vested in or imposed upon assessors, and (2) may contract with any persons, firms or corporations, [regardless of their residence,] who are expert appraisers, to assist in the valuation of property.

To assist each assessor in obtaining adequate and well qualified assistants or deputies, the state department of personnel, after consultation with the Washington state association of county assessors and the department of revenue, shall establish by July 1, 1967, and shall thereafter maintain, a classification and salary plan for those employees of an assessor who act as appraisers. The plan shall establish the salary range and employment qualifications for each position encompassed by it, and shall, to the fullest extent practicable, conform to the classification plan, salary schedules and employment qualifications for state employees performing similar appraisal functions.

If an assessor intends to put such plan into effect in his county, he shall inform the department of revenue and the board of county commissioners of this intent in writing. The department of revenue and the board may thereupon each designate a representative, and such representative or representatives as may be designated by the department of revenue or the board, or both, shall form with the assessor a committee. The committee so formed shall, by majority vote, determine the required number of certified appraiser positions necessary to enable the county assessor to carry out the requirements relating to revaluation of property in chapter 84.41 RCW. The determination of the committee shall be certified to the board of county commissioners. The committee provided for herein may be formed only once in a period of four calendar years.

After such determination, the assessor may provide, in each of his four next succeeding annual budget estimates, for as many positions as are established in such determination. Each board of county commissioners to which such a budget estimate is submitted shall allow sufficient funds for such positions. An employee may be appointed to a position covered by the plan only if the employee meets the employment qualifications established by the plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to Title 84 RCW a new section to read as follows:

To carry out the constitutional and statutory mandate that all property shall be assessed at fifty percent of its true and fair value in money, the department of revenue, in exercise of its duty to supervise and control the county assessors and the boards of equalization in the administration of the tax laws to the end that equalization and uniformity is secured throughout the state, shall by appropriate order or orders require all county assessors and county boards of equalization to assess the property within their respective counties at the fifty percent ratio. To compensate for the increase in tax burden which is likely to result from the effectuation of such order or orders or from any other occurrence or action which would result in the adoption of the fifty percent ratio, it is the intention of the legislature by the adoption of this 1967 amendatory act, to place an additional limitation on all levies the authorization for which is not dependent upon a vote of the electors within the taxing district.

Sec. 9. Section 84.40.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

All property shall be assessed fifty percent of its full true and fair value in money. In determining the full true and fair value of real or personal property, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation; nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which the said property would sell [at auction, or] at a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in the town or district; but he shall value each article or description of property by itself, and at such price as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money at the time such assessment is made. [The true cash value of property shall be that value at which the property would be taken in payment of a just debt from a solvent debtor.] Full true and fair value shall mean the amount of money which a purchaser willing, but not obliged, to buy would pay a seller willing, but not obliged, to sell, considering all uses to which the property is adapted and might reasonably be applied. In assessing any tract or lot of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of improvements, shall be determined; also, the value of all improvements and structures thereon and the aggregate value of the property, including all structures and other improvements, excluding the value of crops growing on cultivated lands. In valuing any real property on which there is a coal or other mine, or stone or other quarry, the land shall be valued at such price as such land would sell at a fair, voluntary sale for cash; any improvements thereon shall be separately valued and assessed as hereinabove provided; and any personal property connected therewith shall be listed, valued and assessed separately as other personal property is assessed under general law. Taxable lease-hold estates shall be valued at such price as they would bring at a fair, voluntary sale for cash.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 84.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

On or before June 15 of each year, the assessor shall give notice of the amount of any change in the full true and fair value of real property for the tract or lot of land and any improvements thereon.

The notice also shall contain a statement of the true and fair value on which the assessment of the property is based, and a brief statement of the procedure for appeal to the board of equalization and the time, date, and place of the meetings of the board.

The notice shall be mailed by the assessor to the taxpayer and a copy thereof shall be sent by the assessor to the legal owner of the property, if such is different from the taxpayer and the name and address are known to the assessor.

A legal owner may submit his or its name and address to the assessor, indicating therewith the property owned by the legal owner and requesting that a copy of the notice be mailed to the legal owner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to Title 84 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to any other limitation provided by law, the levies by or for the state and taxing districts for property tax purposes shall be limited to rates of millage on the dollar of assessed valuation as follows:

- (1) By or for the state..... 2.0 mills;
- (2) By or for cities or towns, including firemen's pension fund revenue... 8.0 mills;

- (3) (a) By or for counties for general county purposes
 - (i) Class AA, class A, and counties of the first, second, and third classes 4.0 mills;
 - (ii) counties of the fourth and ninth classes..... 4.5 mills;
 - (iii) all other classes of counties..... 5.5 mills;
- (b) By or for counties for road district purposes..... 5.0 mills;
- Provided, That taxes in the aggregate in all except counties of the fourth and ninth classes for general county purposes and road district purposes shall not exceed..... 9.0 mills;*
- and in fourth and ninth class counties for such purposes shall not exceed 9.5 mills;
- (4) By or for agricultural pest control districts..... 2.5 mills;
- (5) By or for cemetery districts..... .25 mills;
- (6) By or for ferry districts..... 2.5 mills;
- (7) (a) By or for fire protection districts..... 1.0 mills;
- (b) By or for fire protection districts (unclaimed or released millage). 1.0 mills;
- (8) By or for public hospital districts..... 1.5 mills;
- (9) By or for county rural library districts..... 1.0 mills;
- (10) By or for intercounty library districts..... 1.0 mills;
- (11) By or for metropolitan park districts..... 1.5 mills;
- (12) By or for water districts maintaining fire departments..... 1.0 mills;
- (13) By or for water distribution districts..... 5.0 mills;
- (14) By or for flood control districts (1937 Act)..... 1.0 mills.

Within and subject to any priorities otherwise provided by law, millages enumerated in subsections (1) through (14) of this section shall not in the aggregate exceed fourteen mills per dollar of assessed valuation. When any assessor shall find that the aggregate rate of levy by the state and taxing districts specified in this section on any real or personal property will result in the aggregate limitation fixed therefor by this section being exceeded, he shall recompute and establish a consolidated levy in the following manner:

(A) He shall include for extension on the tax rolls the full rates of levy certified to him for state, county, county road district, and city purposes in amounts not exceeding the limitations established by this section for such taxing districts: Provided, That in counties of the fourth and ninth class, the last one-half mill may be utilized by junior taxing districts and if so utilized shall be prorated as provided in subdivision (B) of this section.

(B) He shall include for extension on the tax rolls the rates percent of the tax levies certified to him by all other taxing districts imposing taxes on such property, other than port districts, public utility districts and school districts, reduced by him in such uniform percentages as will bring the consolidated tax levy on such property within the aggregate limitation provided for by this section.

This section shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes as authorized by RCW 84.52.052 and 84.52.056 and shall not apply to taxes imposed by any excess millage levy under the provisions of Article VII, section 2 of the Constitution of the state of Washington and chapter 84.52 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to Title 84 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In addition to any other limitation provided by law, the levy by or for a school district for property tax purposes shall be limited to a millage rate which will produce revenue equal to that amount of revenue which would be produced by a levy of seven mills upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the school district, adjusted to fifty percent of the true and fair value thereof as determined by the department of revenue's indicated county ratio. For purposes of facilitating compliance with this subsection, the county assessor shall forward to the state department of revenue, on or before the first day of August next following the July meeting of the county board of equalization, an abstract containing the total assessed value of locally assessed real and personal property within each school district, or part thereof, within the county, as equalized by the July meeting of the county board of equalization. The department of revenue shall, on or before September 1st of each year, certify to each school district its determination of the assessed value of all taxable property within the district adjusted to fifty percent of the true and fair value thereof as determined by the department of revenue's indicated county ratio.

(2) Subject to the limitation of subsection (3), additional levies by or for a school district for maintenance and operations only, in excess of those permitted by subsection (1) may be made when specifically authorized for one, two, three, or four successive years by a majority of the electors thereof voting on the proposition submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the first proposed levy is to be made, either at a regular school district election or a general state election. Such election shall be held in the manner provided by law for holding general elections at such time as may be fixed by the board of directors of the school district by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections. No district shall submit to the electors upon the authority of this subsection a proposition to authorize additional levies under this subsection to be made for any year for which such electors have previously authorized a levy under the authority of this subsection. A school district may, however, in any year submit to the electors a proposition to substitute for a prior authorization under this subsection a new authorization effective with respect to taxes to be levied thereafter.

(3) The aggregate amount of levies allowable under subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be limited to a rate of fourteen mills upon the dollar of assessed valuation of all taxable property within the district, as determined by the state department of revenue for state assessed property and by the appropriate local officials for locally assessed property.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or any other provision of law, county commissioners, in making levies for a school district, shall act in a ministerial capacity only.

(5) This section shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes as authorized by RCW 84.52.052 and 84.52.056 and shall not apply to taxes imposed by any excess millage levy under the provisions of Article VII, section 2 of the Constitution of the state of Washington and chapter 84.52 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to Title 84 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any levy authorized by law which is not specifically limited by sections 11 and 12 of this 1967 amendatory act, and the authorization for which is not dependent upon a vote of the electors within the taxing district is hereby limited by the provisions of this section 13 to a maximum rate of millage per dollar of assessed valuation which is equal to one-half of the maximum rate authorized in and by the statute or statutes prescribing the levy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to Title 84 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The limitations provided for in sections 11, 12 and 13 of this 1967 amendatory act are additional to and cumulative with any other limitations prescribed by law. The provisions of sections 11, 12 and 13 of this 1967 amendatory act constitute limitations only and shall not be construed as authorizing any additional tax or increased rate of levy than is otherwise provided for by law, nor as changing or impairing priorities among taxing districts or otherwise affecting any other provision of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. This 1967 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and sections 1 through 7 of this 1967 amendatory act shall take effect immediately; and sections 8 through 14 of this 1967 amendatory act shall take effect on January 1, 1968: Provided, That an election may be held in a school district in the calendar year 1967 pursuant to subsection (2) of section 12 of this 1967 amendatory act to authorize excess levies as permitted therein, to be added to the levies to be made in 1968 for collection in 1969.

Sections 1 through 6 of this 1967 amendatory act shall expire on January 1, 1968."

On line 3 of the title after "84.54.050;" insert "; amending section 84.40.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.030; amending section 36.21.011, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.21.011; adding a new section to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 84.40 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to Title 84 RCW"

On line 5 of the title after "RCW" and before the period, insert "; declaring an emergency and prescribing effective dates"

Martin J. Durkan, Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Frank Atwood, Frank W. Foley, William A. Gissberg, R. R. Bob Greive, Wilbur G. Hallauer, Harry B. Lewis, August P. Mardesich, Mike McCormack, Marshall A. Neill, A. L. Rasmussen, Robert C. Ridder, John N. Ryder, Wes C. Uhlman, Walter B. Williams.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

It was moved by Senator McCormack that the committee amendments to the body of the bill be adopted.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On line 23, page 1 of the Senate mimeographed amendment to page 5 of the printed and engrossed bills inserting "Sec. 7", after "sors" and before "and the" insert "the Washington state association of county commissioners"

It was moved by Senator Canfield that the following amendment to the committee amendment be adopted:

On page 2, line 4 of the Senate mimeographed amendment by Committee on Ways and Means to page 5 of the printed and engrossed bills inserting "Sec. 7" strike "majority" and insert "unanimous"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield:

"Mr. President, would Senator McCormack yield:

"Senator McCormack, I listened to your remarks just concluded and I take no issue with the need for improved assessment practices. My amendment simply asks that the decision be unanimous and not emasculate the authority of the county commissioners. Now my question to you is this: You are well acquainted with the county commissioners of Benton county, are you not? Are they in favor of this amendment?"

Senator McCormack:

"I have only discussed this matter generally with the county commissioners of Benton county and to answer your question directly, the total amendment which was just placed on the bill had their acceptance but I did not specifically discuss with them your amendment."

Senator Canfield:

"They did approve your amendment as written?"

Senator McCormack:

"They approved the amendment I just added. They have not discussed your amendment with me or its implications, no."

Senator Canfield:

"I wanted to point out I have a wire from one of the commissioners this morning taking violent opposition to this bill."

Senator McCormack:

"In response to this, I recognize that this is clearly a contest of authority and prerogative between the commissioners and the assessors, but if we give the assessors the assignment to do the job, somehow we have to give them the tools to do the job."

Further debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the amendment by Senator Canfield to the committee amendment was adopted.

It was moved by Senator Rasmussen that the following amendment to the committee amendment be adopted:

On page 1 of the committee amendment, strike all of section 7.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCutcheon:

"Mr. President, would Senator McCormack yield to a question:

"I'm reading on page 3 from the yellow sheet: 'All property shall be assessed at fifty percent of its full true value,' and then you define the true value as being the full and true and fair value shall mean the amount of money which a purchaser willing and able to buy will pay to a seller willing and able to sell without being forced to sell. In other words, an arm's length transaction, and if I understand your amendment correctly, the first thing you do is to give the assessor not only the tools, but the mandate in this to bring all property up to fifty percent of its true and fair value immediately and upon that you base your lid. In other words, the constitution already says that, does it not, and the purpose of this whole bill is to get around a fear that the court may enforce the constitution, is that correct?"

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President:

"In answer to the question, I don't know if it's relevant to the Rasmussen amendment or not, but in answer to the question, the purpose of this bill is to provide a mechanism now to protect against a court order or a court decision which will force the county assessors to fifty percent of its full true value by putting on this lid. The intent of the bill is to put a lid on by reducing the mill. The idea is that this will serve as a lid unless and until we have a constitutional amendment to reduce assessed valuation on property."

Senator McCutcheon:

"But you're forcing the assessed value up to fifty percent by this bill, are you not?"

Senator McCormack:

"Yes, that's correct, and cutting the millage in half."

Senator McCutcheon:

"Temporarily cutting it in half, but you are forcing it up to fifty percent of the true and fair value of sellers willing to sell and buyers willing to buy."

Senator McCormack:

"Consistent with the constitution, yes."

Senator McCutcheon:

"Yes, and then it will stay there and the millage will slip after a while."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield:

"Mr. President, would Senator Rasmussen yield:

"With the adoption of this amendment suggested a few moments ago to make this decision a unanimous decision, in other words, that the county commissioners must concur, would that not remove your objection to Section 7?"

Senator Rasmussen:

"Senator Canfield, does that require all of the county commissioners to concur?"

Senator Canfield:

"Senator, if you will read here, it gives a committee made up of a representative of the state tax commission—that's one—a representative of the assessors—two—and then the third member would be the county commissioner, so you have a committee balanced among the three and the decision to carry out these practices would have to be unanimous according to my amendment which was carried by this body."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Yes, this would make it much more palatable."

The motion was lost and the amendment was not adopted.

It was moved by Senator Williams that the following amendment to the committee amendment be adopted:

On page 2 following section 7 of the Senate committee amendments strike section 8 and everything thereafter through page 5 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 174, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and to chapter 84.54 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Chapter 84.54 RCW as amended by this 1967 amendatory act shall not apply to any school district except during any year in which the average assessed valuation of all taxable property in the county in which the school district is located shall be equal to or in excess of twenty-five percent of the full true and fair value of such property determined by the department of revenue's indicated county ratio.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 174, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and to chapter 84.54 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No election held pursuant to RCW 84.54.050 as amended in section 5 of this 1967 amendatory act, whether the election is held before or after the effective date of this 1967 amendatory act, shall be valid to authorize a regular property tax levy which would produce more revenue than would be produced by a levy of the number of mills available to the taxing district under statutes other than chapter 84.54 RCW as amended in this 1967 amendatory act multiplied by an assessed valuation equal to twenty-five percent of full true and fair value of the taxable property in the taxing district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Gissberg, the amendment by Senator Williams was laid upon the table.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendments to the committee amendment were adopted:

On page 4 of the Senate mimeographed amendment, Sec. 10, in the second paragraph, line 2, after "notice" strike "of the amount"

In the third paragraph in Sec. 10, line 1, after "notice" strike "also"

On page 9 of the Senate mimeographed amendment by Committee on Ways and Means, following section 14, insert "NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. It is not the intent of this act that increases in assessed valuation directly resulting from enforcement of the provisions of section 8 shall affect the amount of bond indebtedness or excess levies to be used as criteria in determining the eligibility of a school district for allotments of state matching funds for school building construction."

Renumber the remaining section.

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 7 of the Senate mimeographed amendment by Committee on Ways and Means, section 12, subsection (2), on lines 5 and 6 of the subsection, after "for" and before "successive" strike "one, two, three or four" and insert "either one year or two"

It was moved by Senator Washington that the following amendment to the committee amendment be adopted:

On page 7 of the Senate mimeographed amendment by Committee on Ways and Means, section 12, subsection (2) of the amendment, on line 6 of the subsection after "majority of" and before "the electors" insert "at least three-fifths of"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman:

"Mr. President, would Senator Washington yield to a question:

"Just to be clear in the record, you have checked with the school people and I assume by that you mean with the W.E.A. and other representatives of the school forces and they are agreeable to this?"

Senator Washington:

"Let's say this: When Senate Bill No. 623 which you, Senator McCormack, Senator Greive, Senator Durkan, myself and I believe Senator Ridder all sponsored—they agreed to the bill as it was then written and felt that this was a strong step forward. They didn't feel that in this bill you had to take the whole bit or eat the whole cake. Here was a chance to make two very definite steps forward in two areas not quite as controversial as the sixty percent limitation and they did favor the bill in that form. Now it's been simplified by Senator McCormack. He's done some excellent work in putting it together, so I think it's understandable to everyone. But the answer is, they did agree to the bill in its prior form."

Senator Uhlman:

"I don't think I quite got an answer. In your earlier comments you stated you had checked with the school people and they were generally in agreement with the amendment proposed at this time, is that right?"

Senator Washington:

"Yes, that they were in agreement with the bill as originally proposed. I have not checked with them on this specific amendment."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President, would Senator Ridder yield:

"Do I understand that this amendment by Senator Washington which you say was in bill form, does away with the forty percent requirement and it gave the possibility of levying for two years, but turned out to be that they needed three-fifths or sixty percent of the vote, is that right?"

Senator Ridder:

"As you understand, the constitutional requirements for an excess levy demands that you have the sixty percent vote of the forty percent voting in the last general election. This is the constitutional provision for excess levies. This is in the statute and does not exceed the constitutional limits; therefore, you can place any limit you want to on it. There are no limits really in the statute, just a majority vote is sufficient to pass this levy because it really is not an excess levy measure in constitutional form. Therefore, all it would take is a majority of those voting. Now what we are doing here is inserting the sixty percent and putting the sixty percent limitation upon it. There is no forty percent limitation because you are not over the constitutional forty mills and fifty percent. There is no limit as to how long you can run it and we have put it at four years in this bill so the sixty percent is the only limitation that would be put upon the statutory excess levy vote."

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

It was moved by Senator Guess that the following amendment to the committee amendment be adopted:

On page 5, line 4, strike the period after "section" and insert: "Provided, That the total number of persons voting at any such election must constitute not less than forty percent of the voters in said taxing district who voted at the last preceding general election."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the amendment by Senator Guess to the committee amendment was laid upon the table.

The committee amendments to the bill, as amended, were adopted.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the committee amendments to the title were adopted.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 934 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 934 as amended by the Senate and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 19; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Connor, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Metcalf, Morgan, Pritchard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Washington—26.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Donohue, Freise, Guess, Herrmann, Lennart, McMillan, Marquardt, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Redmon, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—19.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, Uhlman—2.

Excused: Senator Hallauer—1.

Engrossed House Bill No. 934 as amended by the Senate having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 12:55 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 2:15 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:15 p.m.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator McCutcheon served notice that he would on the next working day move that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 934 passed the Senate.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Certificate No. 10392

State of Washington, Department of State.

I, A. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State of the State of Washington and custodian of its seal, hereby certify that according to the records on file in my office, the attached is a true and correct copy of the resignation of Marshall A. Neill as State Senator representing the 9th Senatorial Legislative District of the State of Washington.

I further certify that said resignation is to be effective as of 12:01 P.M., Monday, April 24, 1967. In witness whereof I have signed and have affixed the seal of the State of Washington to this certificate at Olympia, the State Capitol, April 24, 1967.

(Seal of the State of Washington)

A. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State.

Washington State Senate
March 28, 1967.

The Honorable Daniel J. Evans
Governor, State of Washington
Olympia, Washington 98501

Your Excellency:

I am honored that you have tendered to me an appointment as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington and I have determined to accept such appointment. Accordingly, I herewith tender to you and do hereby resign as State Senator representing the 9th Senatorial Legislative District of the State of Washington.

My resignation shall be effective at 12:01 o'clock p.m. on the 24th day of April, 1967.

Although the new 9th Legislative Senatorial District comprises the Counties of Whitman, Lincoln and Adams, my present term as Senator is from the old 9th Senatorial District which comprised only the County of Whitman. Accordingly, it is my understanding through a ruling from the Attorney General of the State of Washington, that it is incumbent upon the Board of County Commissioners of Whitman County to select my successor from among the three nominees heretofore submitted to the said Board of County Commissioners by the Republican Central Committee of Whitman County.

It has been my honor and privilege to have served the people of Whitman County—and currently the people of Whitman, Lincoln and Adams Counties—in legislative halls continuously since 1949, as a member of the House of Representatives from 1949 through 1956 and as a member of the Senate from 1957 to the current time. It has not been an easy decision for me to terminate this service which I have thoroughly enjoyed and which the people of my County have so generously supported for several terms. However, as a practicing lawyer and one who has a deep and abiding faith in the principles of law and order and of the importance of the Judiciary in our American Governmental system, I am accepting this new challenge as a member of the highest court of our state. By copy of this letter I am advising the Board of Whitman County Commissioners, Secretary of State Kramer, Republican County Chairman Prince and Senate Secretary Bowden of my resignation.

Respectfully yours,
(Signed) Marshall A. Neill
State Senator
Ninth District

cc: Board of Whitman County Commissioners
Secretary of State
Secretary of Senate
Whitman County Republican Chairman

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Gissberg, Woodall, Twigg and Cooney to escort Justice Matthew W. Hill to the rostrum.

The Secretary read:

Certificate No. 10393
State of Washington, Department of State.

I, A. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State of the State of Washington and custodian of its seal, hereby certify that according to the records on file in my office, the attached is a true and correct copy of the appointment of Elmer C. Huntley to the position of State Senator, 9th Senatorial Legislative District, by the Board of County Commissioners of Whitman County, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Marshall A. Neill from said position. In witness whereof I have signed and have affixed the seal of the State of Washington to this certificate at Olympia, the State Capitol, April 24, 1967.

In the Matter of the Resignation } of } ORDER AND RESOLUTION
Marshall A. Neill, State Senator }

Whereas, Marshall A. Neill, State Senator from the 9th District, has submitted his resignation to the Governor of the State of Washington, and said resignation has been accepted; and

Whereas, a vacancy now exists in the office of Senator from the 9th District,

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved By The Board Of County Commissioners Of Whitman County:

1. That Marshall A. Neill, Senator from the 9th District has resigned as such and his resignation has been accepted.
2. That Marshall A. Neill is a member of the Republican Party.
3. That the County Central Committee of the Republican Party, for Whitman County have nominated three persons to hold the office of State Senator.
4. That Elmer C. Huntley is one of the three persons so nominated.
5. That Elmer C. Huntley is a member of the Republican Party and is a bonafide resident of the same legislative district as Marshall A. Neill.
6. That Elmer C. Huntley be, and he is hereby, appointed by the Whitman County Board of County Commissioners to fill the vacancy occurring as the result of the resignation of Marshall A. Neill, to hold office until the next General Election, as provided by law.

Dated this 24th day of April, 1967.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Neill, Washington, Henry and Atwood to escort the Honorable Elmer C. Huntley to the rostrum.

The Honorable Matthew W. Hill, Justice of the Supreme Court, administered the oath of office to newly appointed Senator Elmer C. Huntley.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President:

"Members of the Senate, lady and gentlemen:
"It is with great pride I present to you Judge Neill."

Justice Marshall A. Neill:

"Former colleagues and I trust still friends:

"It is a pleasure for me to at least in this part of the ceremony to present to you your new colleague and a former colleague of many of us in the House of Representatives who has now come to the House of Lords. I know you are going to enjoy working with Elmer. He is an old hand in this business of state government and you will find him a very, very hard working, conscientious Senator and as long as I had to leave these halls, I couldn't have left things in better hands than Senator Huntley's. May I present him to you now."

Senator Huntley:

"Mr. President:

"Thank you. Judge Hill, I deem it an honor to have received the oath of office from you. Our acquaintanceship and friendship goes back some thirty-two years and it is a great honor for me.

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I am humble and deem it an honor to be able to have been selected to serve in this august body. I don't have any intention of trying to fill the shoes of Senator Neill because that isn't possible, but I shall do the best I can and I am sure that is all that a person can ask.

"Thank you."

Senator Henry:

"Mr. President:

"These two speakers in the last few minutes have referred to this as an August body. I wonder if that has something to do with the date of adjournment."

Senator Andersen:

"Mr. President:

"Speaking on behalf of myself and the other freshmen Senators back here in the rear of the chamber, I would like to pay particular welcome to Senator Elmer Huntley and to be the first to address him as such. It was my genuine pleasure to serve with Senator Huntley for many years in the House of Representatives and I echo Judge Neill's remarks that he is going to make an excellent statesman here in the legislature. But you also have the heartfelt welcome of the seven of us back here because now we can at least have seniority over someone."

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"On behalf of the Republican caucus, I want to welcome you, Senator Huntley, to our ranks and we know that from the experience that you have had in state government, as well as in the House of Representatives and other areas, that you are going to bring to our caucus a great deal of experience and wisdom and that your advice will be something that we can abide by on many occasions when we are discussing some of the real tricky problems which face us in that caucus room. I am sure some of the decisions that will come out of caucus because of the fact that Senator Huntley will be there, might serve to plague those a little bit more on the other side of the aisle."

Senator Knoblauch:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I want to assure Senator Neill that as a member of the kitchen committee, he has just lost his opportunity to come down and eat with the Senators. As Senator Ryder spoke for the Republicans to welcome you to our midst, on behalf of the Democrats and in a very friendly fashion may I say to you, Senator Neill, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye."

The President:

"Senator Huntley, the members of the Senate join with the President in offering our sincere congratulations and best wishes to you, but by virtue of the authority vested in me as President and through the good graces and wisdom of the Committee on Committees, I must advise you that now the honeymoon is over.

"The President should like to appoint Senator Huntley to the Senate Committee on Banks, Financial Institutions and Insurance, the Senate Committee on Higher Education and Libraries, the Senate Committee on Highways, the Senate Committee on Ways and Means, the Subcommittee on Appropriations."

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the appointments of Senator Huntley to the foregoing committees were confirmed.

The committee of honor came forward and escorted Justice Matthew Hill to his chambers.

The committee of honor came forward and escorted Senator Huntley to his seat in the Senate Chamber.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President appointed a special committee of honor consisting of Senators Greive, Pritchard and Freise to escort Justice Marshall A. Neill to his new chambers in the Temple of Justice.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

House Bill No. 513, by Representatives Newschwander, Kirk and Merrill (by Departmental Request):

Relating to charges for patients at state hospitals.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

House Bill No. 513:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 24, 1967.

Relating to charges for patients at state hospitals (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 3, line 10, after "parents" strike "or children" and insert "[or children] of a minor person until the person attains the age of 21 years"

On page 3, section 4, line 2, after "estates," strike all of the matter down through "estates" on line 3 and insert "until such person has attained the age of 21 years,"

Martin J. Durkan, Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Frank Atwood, Damon R. Canfield, Joe Chytil, Dewey C. Donohue, William A. Gissberg, Sam C. Guess, Ernest W. Lennart, Harry B. Lewis, David E. McMillan, Frances Haddon Morgan, Marshall A. Neill, A. L. Rasmussen, John N. Ryder, Walter B. Williams.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Ryder, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 513 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 513 as amended by the Senate and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Twigg, Washington, Williams, Woodall—44.

Voting nay was: Senator Uhlman—1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Herrmann, Talley—3.

Excused: Senator Hallauer—1.

House Bill No. 513 as amended by the Senate having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Ryder, House Bill No. 513 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

On motion of Senator Greive, the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 4:00 p.m.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 24.

SECOND READING OF RESOLUTION

Senate Joint Resolution No. 3, by Senator Uhlman:

Amending Constitution to change voting requirements as to excess levies.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, Senate Joint Resolution No. 3 was referred to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules.

At 4:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 25, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,

Olympia, Wash., Tuesday, April 25, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Gregory Klump, Color Bearer, and Jenny Parker, presented the Colors.

Reverend Charles Loyer, pastor of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Eternal God and Father, we thank Thee that after weeks of fishing in fiscal waters the legislators have finally gotten their collective hook into something promising. Guide them in the touchy business of boating it. Temper their competitive spirits lest at this late hour they lose all because of someone laying about with the gaff. Help them bring to a successful conclusion the long weeks of trolling back and forth before the critical eyes of the spectators. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, and having given previous notice, Senator McCutcheon moved that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 934 passed the Senate.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore:

"Mr. President, would Senator McCormack yield to a question:

"Senator McCormack, I have some assessment ratios for King county and I was just wondering about the mechanics of them. I notice the assessment ratio for real estate in King county is 20.8% and the ratio for personal property is 33.3%. Now as I understand under this lid bill, the 33.3% would go down to 20.8%?"

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President and Senator Dore:

"First of all it is my understanding that the assessments in King county have been lowered on personal property to 25%. Under this bill the lid on property tax for all taxing authorities would be—except for school districts—the county assessor's 25%, so it would be wherever the county assessor's was, up to 25%."

Senator Dore:

"So in answer to my question, this 20.8% which is the existing assessed ratio in King county on real estate will then increase under the lid proposal to 25%?"

Senator McCormack:

"Not automatically, no."

Senator Dore:

"Over what period of time?"

Senator McCormack:

"It would be raised according to the assessor raising it."

Senator Dore:

"But the average assessment we presently have of 23% is both real and personal property at the present time, so then if this passed, automatically that average assessment would drop down to somewhere around 20% or 21% in King county?"

Senator McCormack:

"I would not say that the actions of the assessor in lowering the personal property tax, which he has already done, will lower the average. After that time, under this bill, the lid will be whatever the assessor's rate is, up to 25%."

Senator Dore:

"Now last year in King county we had $400 million raised by personal property assessment on inventories. Now this would drop down from 33% to 25%, or approximately one-fourth and that would then be reduced proportionately to $300 million under the mechanics of the bill?"

Senator McCormack:

"Not under the mechanics of the bill, Senator. Under what the assessor has already done."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McMillan:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield to a question:

"Senator Durkan, do you think that in the event that this bill goes to conference committee that it would be possible to retain the 25% of true and fair value and work out a bill under which we would have a 25% of true and fair value as a lid on this bill until such time as the constitutional amendment could be acted upon?"

Senator Durkan:

"Yes, I would hope so."

Further debate ensued.

Senator McCutcheon demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Henry, Talley, Woodall, Redmon, Rasmussen, Greive, Washington, Durkan and Kupka.

Senators Keefe, Washington and McCutcheon demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber,

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion for reconsideration was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 9; nays, 40.

Those voting yea were: Senators Cooney, Dore, Greive, Keefe, Kupka, McCutcheon, McMillan, Morgan, Woodall—9.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Donohue, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Huntley, Knoblauch, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams—40.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McCormack, Engrossed House Bill No. 934 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

On motion of Senator Keefe, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

The Secretary read:

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Senate Bill No. 596:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 24, 1967.

Authorizing counties to establish public corporations with certain powers relating to taxes (reported by Committee on Cities, Towns and Counties):

MAJORITY recommends that Substitute Senate Bill No. 596 be substituted therefor and that the substitute bill do pass.

Gordon Herr, Chairman.

We concur in this report: Joe Chytil, Frank Connor, Dewey C. Donohue, Fred H. Dore, Al Henry, Ted G. Peterson, Don L. Talley.

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Gissberg that Senate Bill No. 596 and Substitute Senate Bill No. 596 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President, would Senator Talley yield to a question:

"Senator Talley, I am on the Committee on Cities, Towns and Counties and I wasn't aware that we had another bill in that committee. Was this bill circulated to the members?"

Senator Talley:

"Yes, it was."

Senator Atwood:

"Is this a rewrite of old Senate Bill No. 547?"

Senator Talley:

"Yes."

Debate ensued.

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield:

"I think Senator Talley has an emergency situation in his area and I don't think he really objects so much to this going to the Committee on Ways and Means but the question is how fast could it be acted upon?"

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President:

"Like any other bill, I always try to accommodate the members of the Senate, like I accommodated you on your bill, and I will try to accommodate Senator Talley within the good graces of my committee and I am sure that he is aware of that. He had a hearing on his bill last time, immediately, and I would like to have a chance to examine the bill and then I will hold a hearing on it. I have no objections to that and I told this to Senator Talley."

The motion was carried and Senate Bill No. 596 and Substitute Senate Bill No. 596 were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence within the bar of the Senate of Kenneth Leroy, Washington State Champion of the Optimist International Oration Contest, and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Ridder, Connor and Faulk to escort Kenneth Leroy to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

With leave of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Kenneth Leroy to address the Senate.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 713:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 24, 1967.

Making appropriations for operations and capital improvements of highway commission and toll bridge authority (reported by Committee on Highways):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass as amended.

Nat Washington, Chairman.
Al Henry, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: Robert C. Bailey, Dewey C. Donohue, Larry Faulk, Herbert H. Freise, Sam C. Guess, Wilbur G. Hallauer, Karl Herrmann, Reuben A. Knoblauch, Frances Haddon Morgan, Ted G. Peterson, Robert C. Ridder, John H. Stender, Don L. Talley.

Passed to committee on Rules and Joint Rules for second reading.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 24, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 207, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 24, 1967.

Mr. President:

The Speaker has signed: Senate Bill No. 447, and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 25, and the same are herewith transmitted.

Malcolm McBeath, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Henry, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, April 22, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to a certain item, Senate Bill No. 280 entitled:

"An Act relating to the sale of motor vehicles and licensing dealers and salesmen."

This bill makes significant changes in the law relating to licensing of motor vehicle dealers, provides for the licensing of salesmen of motor vehicles, and declares certain practices to be unlawful.

The Director of Motor Vehicles is charged with the enforcement of the act, and is given the power to deny, suspend or revoke a salesman's or dealer's license. The bill grants to the director the power to conduct investigations, hold hearings, and issue subpoenas to compel attendance of witnesses.

The grant of subpoena power is not uncommon in statutes regulating business and professions, and is desirable in this bill in order to permit the director to investigate unfair practices in sales of motor vehicles.

However, subsection (2) of Section 15 of the bill contains provisions which are not normally found in statutes regulating and licensing business and professions. It provides that a witness compelled to testify or produce documents at any proceeding instituted by the director may not refuse to testify on the ground that his testimony or other evidence might tend to incriminate him. However, if the witness claims his constitutional privilege against self-incrimination, he may not be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he is compelled to testify or produce evidence during the course of the proceeding.

In this type of proceeding, I object to denying a witness his constitutional privilege against self-incrimination. I am convinced that the Director of Motor Vehicles will be able to obtain sufficient information to determine whether to grant, deny or revoke the license of a motor vehicle dealer or salesman without requiring a witness to incriminate himself. Moreover, I feel that the director of a state agency, which is not charged with the responsibility of conducting criminal prosecutions, normally, should not have the power to grant immunity from prosecution for a crime. This could be the result of the director's action in compelling testimony under this subsection.

For the foregoing reasons, I have vetoed Subsection (2) of Section 15. The remainder of Senate Bill No. 280 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

On motion of Senator Henry, Senate Bill No. 280 together with the Governor's veto message, was ordered transmitted to the Secretary of State.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the fifth order of business.

MOTION

The Senate resumed consideration of the motion by Senator Dore that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122.

Debate ensued.

Senator Dore demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Ridder, Connor, Greive, Cooney, Donohue, Morgan, Rasmussen and Uhlman.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion by Senator Dore to concur was lost by the following vote: yeas, 16; nays, 31; absent or not voting, 2.

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
 Olympia, Wash., April 20, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Engrossed Senate Bill No. 554 with the following amendments:

Beginning on page 1, line 6 of the printed and engrossed bill, strike the remainder of the act and insert the following:

"STATE TRANSPORTATION DEPARTMENT AND STATE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION—CREATED—POWERS AND DUTIES—DIRECTOR OF TRANSPORTATION—POWERS AND DUTIES

Section 1. Section 47.01.010, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The administration of highways, [affairs] mass transportation facilities, water facilities, including the state ferry system, and the airways within the state, has become [a matter] of major public importance, involving vast sums of money, the development of commerce and resources, the employment of great numbers of persons, the promotion of recreation and the welfare of every citizen of the state. It demands the highest order of business and technical administration accompanied by continuity of sound long-range [highway] policies, freedom from political interference and changes of personnel, and an organization attracting the services of qualified talented administrators and meriting the confidence of the people.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is hereby established a department of state government to be known as the department of transportation which shall consist of the state transportation commission, the state transportation director and such other officers and employees as the state transportation commission shall determine or as otherwise provided by law. The department of transportation shall be organized into divisions, including the division of highway transportation, the division of mass transportation, the division of water transportation and the division of air transportation, and such other divisions as the state transportation commission shall by rule or regulation hereafter establish. Each division shall be administered by an assistant director of the department acting upon the advice and with the consent of the state transportation director. The director of transportation, acting under the state transportation commission's orders and guided by the policies laid down by the commission, shall be the chief executive officer of the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department of transportation shall have such powers and carry out such duties as directed by the state transportation commission and as otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 4. Section 43.17.010, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 12, chapter 242, Laws of 1967, and RCW 43.17.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be departments of the state government which shall be known as (1) the department of public assistance, (2) the department of institutions, (3) the department of health, (4) the department of water resources, (5) the department of labor and industries, (6) the department of agriculture, (7) the department of fisheries, (8) the department of game, (9) the department of [highways] transportation, (10) the department of motor vehicles, (11) the department of general administration and (12) the department of commerce and economic development, which shall be charged with the execution, enforcement, and administration of such laws, and invested with such powers and required to perform such duties, as the legislature may provide.

Sec. 5. Section 43.17.020, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 13, chapter 242, Laws of 1967, and RCW 43.17.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a chief executive officer of each department to be known as: (1) The director of public assistance, (2) the director of institutions, (3) the director of health, (4) the director of water resources, (5) the director of labor and industries, (6) the director of agriculture, (7) the director of fisheries, (8) the director of game, (9) the director of [highways] transportation, (10) the director of motor vehicles, (11) the director of general administration and (12) the director of commerce and economic development.

Such officers, except the director of [highways] transportation, shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, and hold office at the pleasure of the governor. If a vacancy occurs while the senate is not in session, the governor shall make a temporary appointment until the next meeting of the senate, when he shall present to that body his nomination for the office. The director of [highways] transportation shall be appointed by the state [highway] transportation commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Assistant directors of the department of transportation, as provided for in section 2 of this 1967 amendatory act, shall be appointed by the director of transportation with the consent of the transportation commission, and shall hold office at the pleasure of the director. Such assistant directors shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 47.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

There is hereby created a state transportation commission consisting of seven members. The initial membership shall consist of the present five members of the state highway commission, each of whom shall serve until such time as their terms would have expired on the highway commission, and two members to be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, and who shall serve for a term of six years, commencing July 1, 1967. Upon expiration of the above terms, members shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate for a six year term of office; members shall be residents of this state and otherwise qualified as in this chapter provided. In the case of a vacancy, for whatsoever reason, the governor will appoint, but such appointment shall be only for the remainder of the unexpired term in which the vacancy has occurred.

Sec. 8, Section 47.01.030, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 47.01.030 are each amended to read as follows:

[No two] Members of said state [highway] transportation commission shall [at the time of appointment or thereafter during their respective terms of office be residents of the same congressional district, and] be appointed at large from throughout the state but not more than [three] four members of said state [highway] transportation commission shall reside at the time of appointment or thereafter in one part of the state divided north and south by the summit of the Cascade mountains. Not more than [three] four members of said state [highway] transportation commission shall at the time of appointment or thereafter during their respective terms of office be members of the same major political party. No elective state official or state officer or state employee shall be a member of said commission. No state [highway] transportation commissioner shall be removed from office by the governor before the expiration of his term unless for a disqualifying change of residence or for cause based upon a determination of incapacity, incompetence, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office by the superior court of the state of Washington in and for Thurston county upon petition and show cause proceedings duly brought therefor in said court and directed to the commissioner in question.

Sec. 9. Section 47.01.040, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 31, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 47.01.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the state [highway] transportation commission shall receive forty dollars per diem for each day actually spent in the performance of his duties and his actual necessary traveling and other expenses in going to, attending and returning from meetings of the commission, and his actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the discharge of such duties as may be requested of him by a majority vote of the commission, but in no event shall a commissioner be paid per diem in any one year in excess of one hundred twenty days, except the chairman of the commission who may be paid per diem for not more than one hundred fifty days.

Sec. 10. Section 47.01.050, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The state [highway] transportation commission is hereby vested with all powers, authority, functions and duties vested in or required to be performed by the director of highways, [or] the state highway commission or the state department of highways as of July 1, [1951] 1967. Full and complete jurisdiction and authority over the administration of state highways and all matters connected therewith or related thereto is hereby granted the said state [highway] transportation commission except only insofar as the same may have been heretofore or may be hereafter specifically granted to the governor, the director or department of [licenses] motor vehicles, the [public service] utilities and transportation commission, the state commission on equipment, the Washington state patrol or its chief, [the Washington toll bridge authority] or the governing bodies of cities and towns.

Sec. 11. Section 47.01.060, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.060 are each amended to read as follows:

On and after July 1, [1951] 1967, the state [highway] transportation commission shall take over, assume and exercise all of the powers, authority and functions and perform all of the duties then vested in or required to be performed by the [director of highways] state highway commission and the department of highways, the Washington toll bridge authority, and the Washington state aeronautics commission. Thereafter the state [highway] transportation commission shall assume and exercise full and complete jurisdiction and authority over the administration of the state highways and all matters connected therewith or related thereto as hereinabove set forth in RCW 47.01.050. The state transportation commission shall likewise assume jurisdiction and authority over the administration of urban-area mass transportation facilities, water transportation facilities, including the state ferry system, and air transportation within the state, encouraging the establishment of airports and air navigation facilities: Provided, That such jurisdiction and authority shall not infringe upon rights of powers heretofore or hereafter granted the governor, the director of motor vehicles, the utilities and transportation commission, port districts or the governing bodies of counties, cities or towns. The state [highway] transportation commission shall establish such rules and regulations as may be deemed wise and lay down policies of procedure and generally supervise and control the operation of said functions within the terms of this section, this title, Title 14 RCW, and pursuant to the laws of this state, and the said commission is hereby clothed with all necessary powers to carry out the terms thereof.

Sec. 12. Section 47.01.070, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In all situations wherein [the director of highways] any member of the state highway commission, the Washington toll bridge authority of the Washington state aeronautics commission or any one of their designees was on July 1, [1951] 1967 designated as a member of any board, commission, committee, or authority, the state [highway] transportation commission shall hereafter determine who shall serve as such member.

Sec. 13. Section 47.01.080, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The first [appointed] members of the state [highway] transportation commission shall meet in the offices of the [department of highways] former state highway commission at the state capitol and organize as a state [highway] transportation commission during the first week in July, [1951] 1967, or as soon thereafter as possible. At the first annual meeting and at each annual meeting thereafter the commission shall elect a secretary who may be, but need not be, a member of said commission, and the commission shall elect a chairman from its own membership who shall hold office for one year. Election as chairman shall not interfere with the member's right to vote on all matters before the commission. The commission shall meet at such other times as it deems advisable, but at least once every thirty days, and shall from time to time adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this title for its own government, and to regulate and discharge its duties, and to exercise its powers under [this title] the law of this state.

Sec. 14. Section 47.01.090, Chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall act collectively in harmony with recorded resolutions or motions adopted by a majority of the commission at regular or special meetings, notice of which meetings shall be given to all members pursuant to the rules of said commission, or the Administrative Procedures Act (chapter 34.04 RCW) when applicable.

[Three] Four members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, but no resolution, motion, or other decision of the commission shall be adopted or passed without the favorable vote of at least [three] four members. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Administrative Procedures Act (chapter 34.04 RCW) shall be applicable to commission action.

Sec. 15. Section 47.01.100, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The state [highway] transportation commission shall select and appoint the director of [highways] transportation who after appointment shall be an ex officio member of the commission without a vote. [He] The director shall be the chief executive officer of the commission responsible only to it, and shall carry into effect the commission's order and shall be guided by policies laid down by it in the administration of the department of transportation. As the executive head, he shall direct all activities and supervise the work of the staff of the department.

Sec. 16. Section 47.01.110, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The assistant director [of highways] who is the administrator for the division of highway transportation shall be fully competent as a highway engineer and as an executive. He shall be a registered professional engineer and shall be a graduate in engineering of an accredited university or college or have in lieu thereof experience as a civil engineer in responsible charge of work equivalent to such education, and in addition shall have had experience in highway or road construction for a period of not less than five years. He need not be a resident of the state at the time of his appointment.

The assistant directors who are appointed administrators of the division of mass transportation, the division of water transportation and the division of air transportation shall each have had managerial or professional experience or expertise in some phase of his respective field. None need be a resident of the state of Washington at the time of his appointment.

Sec. 17. Section 47.01.120, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of [highways] transportation shall hold office indefinitely but may be dismissed by the commission at any time for incompetence, neglect of duty, malfeasance in office or failure to carry out the commission's policies. Before a motion for dismissal shall be acted upon by the state [highways] transportation commission, the director of [highways] transportation shall be granted a hearing on formal written charges before the full commission.

Sec. 18. Section 47.01.130, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 10, chapter 307, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The salary of the director of [highways] transportation shall be as fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040.

Sec. 19. Section 47.01.140, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The state [highway] transportation commission shall prepare a report of its activities to be submitted to each biennial session of the legislature. The report shall be printed and copies thereof submitted to the senate and house of representatives on or before the opening day of the legislative session and shall show the sum of money expended by or under its direction during the fiscal biennium or portion thereof during which the commission has functioned, and shall show data and information as will show a strict accounting of all sums expended by or under its direction.

Sec. 20. Section 47.01.160, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 29, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 47.01.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The state [highway] transportation commission shall have the power and it shall be its duty:

(1) To conduct, control and supervise the state department of [highways] transportation, and to designate and establish such department of [highway] transportation district or branch offices as may be necessary and convenient, and, subject to the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, to appoint and employ and to determine the powers and duties together with the salaries and other expenses of such engineering, clerical, mechanical, and any and all other assistants as may be necessary or convenient in the exercise of the powers and in the discharge of its duties as the state [highway] transportation commission.

(2) To keep at the office of the commission in the [highway] transportation building at the state capitol a record of all proceedings and orders pertaining to the matters under its direction; [and] to keep copies of all maps, plans and specifications prepared by it, and to prepare and submit to the governor thirty days before each regular session of the legislature of the state of Washington a report of work constructed or under construction and to make recommendations as to needed state highways and improvements of the state highway system, together with estimated cost thereof; to make such other reports and recommendations to the governor or legislature as required by law.

(3) To acquire property as authorized by law and to construct and maintain thereon any buildings or structures necessary and convenient for the exercise of the powers and the discharge of the duties of the commission and to construct and maintain any buildings or structures and appurtenances and facilities necessary or convenient to the health and safety and for the accommodation of persons traveling upon the state's highways, the state's waterways, and the state's airways, including toll facilities, and the state ferry system.

(4) Subject to the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, to employ such qualified engineers who shall be registered professional engineers under the laws of the state of Washington, assistants and such other services and to provide such superintendents of construction, repair or maintenance work on any state [highways] project as may be necessary to accomplish the completion hereof, and the expense so incurred together with the cost of any right of way necessary therefor, or land incidental thereto, shall be charged against the funds appropriated for the construction, repair or maintenance of said state [highways] project.

(5) To exercise all the powers and perform all the duties necessary, convenient, or incidental to the laying out, locating, relocating, surveying, constructing, altering, repairing, improving, and maintaining of any state highway, and of any bridges, culverts and embankments necessary or important therefor or for the protection or preservation thereof, and channel changes therefor and to examine and allow or disallow bills for any work done or materials furnished and to certify all claims allowed to the state auditor.

(6) To publish biennially and before the end of each even numbered year a report of the commission with such cumulative information as may be deemed important and such recommendations as may be deemed desirable for the future operation of the commission.

(7) To collect and compile and to publish, if it is deemed advisable, statistics relative to public highways throughout the state; to collect such information in regard thereto as is deemed expedient; to investigate and determine upon various methods of highway construction adaptable to different sections of the state; to investigate and determine the best methods of construction and maintenance of highways, roads and bridges; to gather and compile such other information relating thereto as shall be deemed appropriate, and to employ highway funds for the purpose of constructing test roads within the state of Washington and conducting investigations and research thereof in the state of Washington or elsewhere; to conduct on any highways, roads, or streets of this state, physical traffic or other nature of inventory or survey considered of value in determining highway, road or street uses and needs.

(8) To exercise all the powers, functions and duties heretofore vested in the Washington toll bridge authority and any member, officer or employee thereof.

(9) To exercise all the powers, functions and duties heretofore vested in the state highway commission division of toll facilities relating to the acquisition, operation, design, construction, improvement, maintenance and repair of all toll bridges and other toll facilities, including the Washington state ferries.

(10) To exercise all the powers, functions and duties heretofore vested in the Washington state aeronautics commission or any member, officer or employee thereof.

(11) To exercise all powers, duties and functions on behalf of the state in all things pertaining to the development and establishment of area-wide urban mass transportation systems, including entering into agreements as may from time to time be necessary or desirable to secure grants, moneys or other aid from whatsoever source in the expediting of any such system. Such duties shall include:

(a) To study and investigate the possibilities of joint use of facilities for highway and mass transit purposes.

(b) To provide assistance to local governments in organizing regional or local transit authorities in order that mass transit facilities may be provided on a regional or local basis in response to the demands of the people.

(c) To explore alternative sources of funds and means of financing mass transit facilities.

(d) To conduct a public information program designed to bring to public attention the challenges, problems and opportunities offered by the mass transit approach to the movement of people.

(e) To assist regional and other state authorities in their relations with the federal government in relation to funds which may be available for planning and/or construction of mass transportation facilities.

(f) To report to the governor and the legislature prior to each regular session of the legislature developments in the field of mass transit and recommendations designed to facilitate the development of mass transit facilities in the state. Such report shall be printed and distributed to each member of the legislature, on or before opening day of such legislative sessions.

(g) To conduct a continuing review of the boundary limits of present and proposed mass transportation facilities to ensure that the area covered reasonably coincides with mass transportation demands of the people.

(12) To develop, maintain, and from time to time revise, a comprehensive master plan for transportation development, including those aspects of transportation dealt with by each division of the department.

(13) To exercise all powers and to perform all duties by any law granted to or imposed upon the state highway board, the state highway commission, the state department of highways, the state highway committee, the director of public works by and through the division of highways, the supervisor of highways, and the state highway engineer.

(14) To exercise all other powers and perform all other duties now or hereafter provided by law.

Sec. 21. Section 47.01.190, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall appoint, with the approval of the governor, a qualified assistant to be designated as "[assistant director] coordinator of [highways] transportation for state aid" whose duties shall consist of the administration of the program of state aid in the matter of county roads and city streets, and such other duties as the commission shall determine.

Sec. 22. Section 47.01.210, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.210 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be lawful for the Washington state [highway] transportation commission to contract without advertising or bid, or performance bond, with any public utility, whether publicly or privately operated, or with any municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state, for the performance of any work or the furnishing of any service of a type ordinarily performed or furnished by such utility, or by such municipal corporation or political subdivision, whenever, in the opinion of said commission, the interest of the public will be best served.

Sec. 23. Section 47.01.220, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.220 are each amended to read as follows:

The state [highway] transportation commission shall report to the legislature through the joint fact-finding committee on highways, streets and bridges on the highway needs of the state in light of [the] new federal highway policy, taking into consideration the needs of the existing state highway system and such extensions thereto as may be warranted by the expending economy of the state.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL BOARD ABOLISHED—TRANSFER OF DUTIES TO THE DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is added to chapter 41.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The highway department personnel board established and existing under the provisions of RCW 41.06.060 (section 6, chapter 1, Laws of 1961), is abolished, and the terms of office of its members are terminated as of July 1, 1967. The department of personnel as created by RCW 41.06.110 shall thereafter perform all powers and duties of said board. Supplies, equipment and records in the possession of or under the control of said highway department personnel board shall be transferred by it to the department of personnel prior to July 1, 1967.

The transfer of powers, duties and functions as provided for herein shall not affect the validity of any act performed by the highway department personnel board or any officer or employee thereof prior to such transfer. All matters relating to functions transferred which at the time of transfer have not been completed may be undertaken and completed by the department of personnel which is authorized, empowered and directed to promulgate orders, rules and regulations to accomplish this purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Except as provided in section 24 of this 1967 amendatory act, employees currently serving in the classes of positions heretofore established by the highway department personnel board shall automatically retain such permanent or probationary status in such positions, upon the transfer of powers and duties from the highway department personnel board to the state personnel board.

Sec. 26. Section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.06.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the words used in this chapter have the meaning given in this section.

(1) "Institutions of higher learning" are the University of Washington, Washington State University, Central Washington State College, Eastern Washington State College, and Western Washington State College;

(2) "Agency" means an office, department, board, commission, or other separate unit or division, however designated, of the state government and all personnel thereof; it includes any unit of state government established by law, the executive officer or members of which are either elected or appointed, upon which the statutes confer powers and impose duties in connection with operations of either a governmental or proprietary nature;

(3) "Board" means the state personnel board established under the provisions of RCW 41.06.110 [,] and the personnel committee established under RCW 41.06.050 [and the personnel board established under RCW 41.06.060], except that this definition does not apply to the words "board" or "boards" when used in RCW 41.06.070;

(4) "Classified service" means all positions in the state service subject to the provisions of this chapter;

(5) "Competitive service" means all positions in the classified service for which a competitive examination is required as a condition precedent to appointment;

(6) "Noncompetitive service" means all positions in the classified service for which a competitive examination is not required;

(7) "Department" means an agency of government that has as its governing officer a person, or combination of persons such as a commission, board or council, by law empowered to operate the agency responsible either to (1) no other public officer or (2) the governor.

Sec. 27. Section 8, chapter 1, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.06.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter, the department of personnel may make its services available on request, on a reimbursable basis, to:

- (1) Either the legislative or the judicial branch of the state government;
- (2) Any county, city, town or other municipal subdivision of the state; and
- (3) The institutions of higher learning [,
- (4) The department of highways].

AERONAUTICS COMMISSION POWERS AND DUTIES
TRANSFERRED TO THE STATE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

Sec. 28. Section 1, chapter 165, Laws of 1947 and RCW 14.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise: (1) "Aeronautics" means the science and art of flight and including but not limited to transportation by aircraft; the operation, construction, repair, or maintenance of aircraft, aircraft power plants and accessories, including the repair, packing, and maintenance of parachutes; the design, establishment, construction, extension, operation, improvement, repair, or maintenance of airports or air navigation facilities; and instruction in flying or ground subjects pertaining thereto.

(2) "Aircraft" means any contrivance now known, or hereafter invented, used or designed for navigation of or flight in the air.

(3) "Airport" means any area of land or water which is used, or intended for use, for the landing and take-off of aircraft, and any appurtenant areas which are used, or intended for use, for airport buildings or other airport facilities or right-of-way, together with all airport buildings and facilities located thereon.

(4) "Commission" means the state [aeronautics] transportation commission.

(5) "Director" means the assistant director of [aeronautics] the division of air transportation of the department of transportation of this state, or such other person or persons as he feels qualified to carry out his duties and exercise his powers hereunder.

(6) "State" or "this state" means the state of Washington.

(7) "Air navigation facility" means any facility, other than one owned or operated by the United States, used in, available for use in, or designed for use in aid of air navigation, including any structures, mechanisms, lights, beacons, markers, communicating systems, or other instrumentalities or devices used or useful as an aid, or constituting an advantage or convenience, to the safe taking-off, navigation, and landing of aircraft, or the safe and efficient operation or maintenance of an airport, and any combination of any or all of such facilities.

(8) "Operation of aircraft" or "operate aircraft" means the use, navigation or piloting of aircraft in the airspace over this state or upon any airport within this state.

(9) "Airman" means any individual who engages, as the person in command, or as pilot, mechanic, or member of the crew in the navigation of aircraft while under way, and any individual who is directly in charge of the inspection, maintenance, overhauling, or repair of aircraft engines, propellers, or appliances, and any individual who serves in the capacity of aircraft dispatcher or air-traffic control tower operator; but does not include any individual employed outside the United States, or any individual employed by a manufacturer of aircraft, aircraft engines, propellers, or appliances to perform duties as inspector or mechanic in connection therewith, or any individual performing inspection or mechanical duties in connection with aircraft owned or operated by him.

(10) "Aeronautics instructor" means any individual who for hire or reward engages in giving instruction or offering to give instruction in flying or ground subjects pertaining to aeronautics, but excludes any instructor in a public school, university or institution of higher learning duly accredited and approved for carrying on collegiate work, who instructs in flying or ground subjects pertaining to aeronautics, while in the performance of his duties at such school, university or institution.

(11) "Air school" means any person who advertises, represents or holds out as giving or offering to give instruction in flying or ground subjects pertaining to aeronautics whether for or without hire or reward; but excludes any public school, university or institution of higher learning duly accredited and approved for carrying on collegiate work.

(12) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, joint stock association, or body politics; and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, or other similar representative thereof.

(13) "Municipal" means pertaining to a municipality, and "municipality" shall mean any county, city, town, authority, district or other political subdivision or public corporation of this state.

(14) "Airport hazard" means any structure, object of natural growth, or use of land, which obstructs the airspace required for the flight of aircraft in landing or taking off at an airport or is otherwise hazardous to such landing or taking off.

(15) "State airway" means a route in the navigable airspace over and above the lands or waters of this state, designated by the commission as a route suitable for air navigation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. There is added to chapter 14.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Wherever in this chapter or in Title 14 RCW "Washington state aeronautics commission", "the state aeronautics commission", "the aeronautics commission of the state", "the aeronautics commission" or "the commission" is used, it shall mean the state transportation commission as created in section 6 of this 1967 amendatory act. Wherever in this chapter or in Title 14 RCW "state director of aeronautics", "director of aeronautics" or "director" is used, it shall mean the assistant director of air transportation of the department of transportation as provided for in section 2 of this 1967 amendatory act:

Provided, That the assistant director of air transportation may appoint such other person or persons as he feels qualified to carry out his duties and exercise his powers thereunder.

TRANSFER OF WASHINGTON TOLL BRIDGE AUTHORITY DUTIES RELATING TO STATE TOLL BRIDGES, TUNNELS AND FERRIES TO THE STATE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

Sec. 30. Section 47.56.030, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 8, chapter 278, Laws of 1961, and RCW 47.56.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The state [highway] transportation commission shall have full charge of the construction of all toll bridges and other toll facilities including the Washington state ferries [that may be authorized by the Washington toll bridge authority, and], the operation and maintenance thereof and the determination of and collection of tolls and charges thereon, and shall directly perform all duties and exercise all powers relating to the financing, refinancing and fiscal management of the state ferry system's bonded indebtedness in the manner provided by law. The commission shall have full charge of design of all toll facilities. The commission shall proceed with the construction of such toll bridges and other facilities and the approaches thereto by contract in the manner of state highway construction immediately upon there being made available funds for such work and shall prosecute such work to completion as rapidly as practicable.

Sec. 31. Section 47.56.040, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission is empowered, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, to provide for the establishing and constructing of toll bridges upon any public highways of this state together with approaches thereto wherever the same is considered necessary or advantageous and practicable for crossing any stream, body of water, gulch, navigable water, swamp or other topographical formation whether the same is within this state or constitutes a boundary between this state and an adjoining state or country. The necessity or advantage and practicability of any such toll bridge shall be determined by the [Washington toll bridge authority] commission and the feasibility of financing any toll bridge in the manner provided by this chapter shall be a primary consideration and determined according to the best judgment of the [Washington toll bridge authority] commission. For the purpose of obtaining information for the consideration of the [authority] commission upon the construction of any toll bridge or any other matters pertaining thereto it shall be the duty of any cognizant officer or employee of the state upon the request of the [authority] commission to make reasonable examination, investigation, survey or reconnaissance for the determination of material facts pertaining thereto and report the same to the [authority] commission. The cost of any such examination, investigation, survey or reconnaissance shall be borne by the department or office conducting the same from the funds provided for such department or office for its usual functions.

Sec. 32. Section 47.56.042, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.042 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission is hereby authorized to enter into agreements with any county of this state and/or with an adjoining state or county thereof for the purpose of implementing an investigation of the feasibility of any toll bridge project for the bridging of a river forming a portion of the boundary of this state, and such adjoining state. The [authority] commission may use funds from its revolving fund to carry out the purposes of this section. Such agreements may provide that in the event any such project is determined to be feasible and adopted, any advancement of funds by any state or county may be reimbursed out of any proceeds derived from the sale of bonds or out of tolls and revenues to be derived from such project.

Sec. 33. Section 47.56.050, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission, whenever it is considered necessary or advantageous and practicable, is empowered to provide for the acquisition by purchase of, and to acquire by purchase, (a) any bridge or bridges or ferries which connect with or may be connected with the public highways of this state, and (b) together with approaches thereto.

(2) In connection with the acquisition by purchase of any bridge or bridges or ferries pursuant to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the [Washington toll bridge authority, the state highway] state transportation commission, the state treasurer, the state auditor, any city, county or other political subdivision of this state, and all said officers—

(a) are empowered and required to do all acts and things as in this chapter provided for the establishing and constructing of toll bridges and operating, financing and maintaining such bridges insofar as such powers and requirements are applicable to the purchase of any bridge or bridges or ferries and their operation, financing and maintenance; and

(b) in purchasing, operating, financing and maintaining any bridge or bridges or ferries acquired or to be acquired by purchase pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall act in the same manner and under the same procedures as are provided in this chapter for the establishing, constructing, operating, financing and maintaining of toll bridges insofar as such manner and procedure are applicable to the purchase of any bridge or bridges or ferries and their operation, financing and maintenance.

(3) Without limiting the generality of the provisions contained in subsections (1) and (2) hereof, the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission is empowered (a) to cause surveys to be made for the purpose of investigating the propriety of acquiring by purchase any such bridge or bridges or ferries and the right of way necessary or proper for said bridge or bridges or ferries, and other facilities necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter; (b) to issue, sell and redeem bonds and to deposit and pay out the proceeds of said bonds for the financing thereof; (c) to collect, deposit, and expend tolls therefrom; (d) to secure and remit financial and other assistance in the purchase thereof; and (e) to carry insurance thereon.

(4) The provisions of RCW 47.56.220 shall apply when any such bridge or bridges or ferries are acquired by purchase pursuant to this section.

Sec. 34. Section 47.56.060, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission, the officials thereof and all state officials are empowered to do such acts and make such agreements not inconsistent with law as may be necessary or desirable in connection with the duties and powers conferred upon them respectively by law regarding the construction, maintenance, operation and insurance of such toll bridges or the safeguarding of the funds and revenues required for such construction and the payment of the indebtedness incurred therefor. The [Washington toll bridge authority and the highway] state transportation commission shall keep full, complete and separate accounts of each toll bridge and annually shall prepare balance sheet and income and profit and loss statements showing the financial condition of each such toll bridge, which statement shall be open to the inspection of holders of bonds issued by said [authority] commission at all reasonable times.

Sec. 35. Section 47.56.070, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The [authority] state transportation commission may provide for the establishment, construction, and operation of toll tunnels, toll roads and other facilities necessary for their construction and connection with public highways of the state. It may cause surveys to be made to determine the propriety of their establishment, construction, and operation, and may acquire rights of way and other facilities necessary to carry out the provisions hereof; and may issue, sell, and redeem bonds, and deposit and expend them; secure and remit financial and other assistance in the construction thereof; carry insurance thereon; and handle any other matters pertaining thereto, all of which shall be conducted in the same manner and under the same procedure as provided for the establishing, constructing, operating, and maintaining of toll bridges by the [authority] commission, insofar as reasonably consistent and applicable. No toll facility, toll bridge, toll road or toll tunnel, shall be combined with any other toll facility for the purpose of financing unless such facilities form a continuous project, to the end that each such facility or project be self-liquidating and self-sustaining [: Provided, That no toll road shall be constructed, obligations for the construction thereof entered into, or right of way acquired without prior approval of the location, plans and specifications by the Washington state highway commission].

Sec. 36. Section 47.56.075, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.075 are each amended to read as follows:

The [authority] commission shall approve for construction only such toll roads as the legislature shall specifically authorize or such toll facilities as shall be specifically sponsored by a city, town or county.

Sec. 37. Section 47.56.080, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever in the judgment of the [highway] state transportation commission it is considered in the best interest of the public highways of the state that any new toll bridge or bridges be constructed upon any public highway and across any stream, body of water, gulch, navigable water, swamp or other topographical formation and operated by the state the [highway] commission shall [submit its recommendation to that effect to the Washington toll bridge authority together with preliminary estimates of the cost of such construction and an estimate of the amount necessary to be raised for such purpose by the issuance of revenue bonds, and a statement of the probable amount of money, property, materials or labor to be contributed from other sources in aid of any such construction. If the Washington toll bridge authority concurs in the recommendation of the highway commission or on its own motion determines to construct any toll bridge or toll bridges, the Washington toll bridge authority shall] adopt a resolution declaring that public interest and necessity require the construction of such toll bridge or bridges and authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds for the purpose of obtaining funds in an amount not in excess of that estimated to be required for such construction. The issuance of bonds as provided in this chapter for the construction of more than one toll bridge may at the discretion of the [Washington toll bridge authority] commission be included in the same authority and issue of bonds.

Sec. 38. Section 47.56.090, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.090 are each amended to read as follows:

[Whenever the Washington toll bridge authority shall authorize and direct the highway commission to construct a toll bridge] The [highway] state transportation commission is empowered to secure right of way [therefor] for toll bridges and for approaches thereto by gift or purchase, or by condemnation in the manner provided by law for the taking of private property for public highway purposes.

Sec. 39. Section 47.56.100, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The right of way is hereby given, dedicated and set apart upon which to locate, construct and maintain bridges or approaches thereto or other highway crossings, and transportation facilities thereof or thereto, through, over or across any of the lands which are now or may be the property of this state, including highways, and through, over or across the streets, alleys, lanes and roads within any city, county, or other political subdivision of the state. If any property belonging to any city, county or other political subdivision of the state is required to be taken for the construction of any such bridge or approach thereto or should any such property be injured or damaged by such construction, such compensation therefor as may be proper or necessary and as shall be agreed upon may be paid by the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission to the particular county, city, or other political subdivision of the state owning such property, or condemnation proceedings may be brought for the determination of such compensation.

Sec. 40. Section 47.56.110, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Before the [highway] state transportation commission shall proceed with any action to secure right of way or with construction of any toll bridge under the provisions of this chapter the [Washington toll bridge authority] commission shall have first passed a resolution that public interest and necessity require the acquisition of right of way for and the construction of such toll bridge. Such resolution shall be conclusive evidence (1) of the public necessity of such construction [;] , (2) that such property is necessary therefor, and [,] (3) that such proposed construction is planned or located in a manner which will be most compatible with the greatest public good and the least private injury. When it becomes necessary for the [highway] commission to condemn any real estate to be used in connection with any such bridge, the attorney general of the state shall represent the [highway] commission. In eminent domain proceedings to acquire property for any of the purposes of this chapter, any toll bridge, real property, personal property, franchises, rights, easements or other property or privileges appurtenant thereto appropriated or dedicated to a public use or purpose by any person, firm, private, public or municipal corporation, county, city, town, district or any political subdivision of the state, may be condemned and taken, and the acquisition and use thereof as herein provided for the same public use or purpose to which such property has been so appropriated or dedicated, or for any other public use or purpose, shall be deemed a superior and permanent right and necessity, and a more necessary use and purpose than the public use or purpose to which such property has already been appropriated or dedicated. It shall not be necessary in any eminent domain proceedings hereunder to plead or prove any acts or proceedings preliminary or prior to the adoption of the resolution hereinbefore referred to describing the property sought to be taken and directing such proceedings.

Sec. 41. Section 47.56.120, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.120 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event that the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission should determine that any toll bridge should be constructed, [under its authority it shall authorize and direct the highway commission to construct such toll bridge. In the event the highway commission is authorized and directed to construct such toll bridge] all cost thereof including right of way, survey and engineering shall be paid out of any funds available for payment of the cost of such toll bridge under this chapter.

Sec. 42. Section 47.56.130, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission is hereby empowered to issue bonds for the construction of any toll bridge or toll bridges authorized under the provisions of this chapter. Any and all bonds issued for the construction of any toll bridge or toll bridges under the authority of the [Washington toll bridge authority,] commission shall be issued in the name of the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission and shall constitute obligations only of said [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission and shall be identified as toll bridge bonds and shall contain a recital on the face thereof that the payment or redemption of said bonds and the payment of the interest thereon is secured by a direct and exclusive charge and lien upon the tolls and other revenues of any nature whatever received from the operation of the particular toll bridge or bridges for the construction of which the bonds are issued and that neither the payment of the principal or any part thereof nor of the interest thereon or any part thereof constitutes a debt, liability or obligation of the state of Washington. The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission is empowered to receive and accept funds from the state of Washington or the federal government upon a cooperative or other basis for the construction of any toll bridge authorized under this chapter and is empowered to enter into such agreements with the state of Washington or the federal government as may be required for the securing of such funds.

Sec. 43. Section 47.56.140, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 45, chapter 3, Laws of 1963 extraordinary session, and RCW 47.56.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The revenue bonds may be issued and sold by the [authority] commission from time to time and in such amounts as it deems necessary to provide sufficient funds for the construction of the bridge, and to pay interest on outstanding bonds issued for its construction during the period of actual construction and for six months after completion thereof.

The [authority] commission shall determine the form, conditions, and denominations of the bonds, and the maturity dates which the bonds to be sold shall bear and the interest rate thereon, which shall not exceed six percent per year. All bonds of the same issue need not bear the same interest rate. Principal and interest of the bonds shall be payable at such place as determined by the [authority] commission, and may contain provisions for registration as to principal or interest, or both. They shall be in coupon form with interest payable at such times as determined by the [authority] commission, and shall mature at such times and in such amounts as the [authority] commission prescribes. The [authority] commission may provide for the retirement of the bonds at any time prior to maturity, and in such manner and upon payment of such premiums as it may determine in the resolution providing for the issuance of the bonds. All such bonds shall be signed by the state auditor and countersigned by the governor and any interest coupons appertaining thereto shall bear the signature of the state auditor. The countersignature of the governor on such bonds and the signature of the state auditor on such coupons may be their printed or lithographed facsimile signatures. Successive issues of such bonds within the limits of the original authorization shall have equal preference with respect to the redemption thereof and the payment of interest thereon. The [authority] commission may fix different maturity dates, serially or otherwise, for successive issues under any one original authorization. The bonds shall be negotiable instruments under the law merchant. All bonds issued and sold hereunder shall be sold on sealed bids to the highest and best bidder after such advertising for bids as the [authority] commission deems proper. The [authority] commission may reject any and all bids and may thereafter sell the bonds at private sale under such terms and conditions as it deems most advantageous to its own interests; but not at a price below that of the best bid which was rejected. The [authority] commission may contract loans and borrow money through the sale of bonds of the same character as those herein authorized, from the United States or any agency thereof, upon such conditions and terms as may be agreed to and the bonds shall be subject to all the provisions of this chapter, except the requirement that they be first offered at public sale.

Temporary or interim bonds, certificates, or receipts, of any denomination, and with or without coupons attached, signed by the state auditor, may be issued and delivered until bonds are executed and available for delivery.

Sec. 44. Section 47.56.150, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The proceeds from the sale of all bonds authorized under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid to the state treasurer for the credit of the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission and be deposited as demand deposits forthwith in such depository or depositories as may be authorized by law to receive deposits of state funds to the credit of a fund to be designated as the construction fund of the particular toll bridge or toll bridges for which such bonds were issued and sold, which fund shall not be a state fund and shall at all times be kept segregated and set apart from all other funds and in trust for the purposes herein set out. Such proceeds shall be paid out or disbursed solely for the construction of such toll bridge or toll bridges, the acquisition of the necessary lands and easements therefor and the payment of interest on such bonds during the period of actual construction and for a period of six months thereafter, only as the need therefor shall arise and the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission may agree with the purchaser of said bonds upon any conditions or limitations restricting the disbursement of such funds that may be deemed advisable, for the purpose of assuring the proper application of such funds. All moneys in such fund and not required to meet current construction costs of the toll bridge or toll bridges for which such bonds were issued and sold, and all funds constituting surplus revenues which are not immediately needed for the particular object or purpose to which they must be applied or are pledged shall be invested in bonds and obligations of the nature eligible for investment of surplus state moneys: Provided, That the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission may provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds that the investment of such moneys shall be made only in particular bonds and obligations within the classifications eligible for such investment and such provisions shall thereupon be binding upon the said [authority] commission and all officials having anything to do with such investment. Any surplus which may exist in said construction fund shall be applied to the retirement of bonds issued for the construction of such toll bridge or toll bridges by purchase or call and in the event such bonds cannot be purchased at a price satisfactory to the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission and are not by their terms callable prior to maturity such surplus shall be paid into the fund applicable to the payment of principal and interest of said bonds and shall be used for that purpose. The proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds may provide limitations and conditions upon the time and manner of applying such surplus to the purchase and call of outstanding bonds and the terms upon which they shall be purchased or called and such limitations and conditions shall be followed and observed in the application and use of such surplus. All bonds so retired by purchase or call shall be immediately canceled.

Sec. 45. Section 47.56.160, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.160 are each amended to read as follows:

All tolls or other revenues received from the operation of any toll bridge or toll bridges constructed with the proceeds of bonds issued and sold hereunder shall be paid over by the [highway] state transportation commission to the state treasurer who shall deposit the same forthwith as demand deposits in such depository or depositories as may be authorized by law to receive deposits of state funds to the credit of a special trust fund to be designated as the toll revenue fund of the particular toll bridge or toll bridges producing such tolls or revenue, which fund shall be a trust fund and shall at all times be kept segregated and set apart from all other funds.

Sec. 46. Section 47.56.170, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.170 are each amended to read as follows:

From the money so deposited in each separate construction fund as hereinabove provided, the state treasurer shall transfer to the place or places of payment named in said bonds such sums as may be required to pay the interest as it becomes due on all bonds sold and outstanding for the construction of such particular toll bridge or toll bridges during the period of actual construction and during the period of six months immediately thereafter. The state treasurer shall thereafter transfer from each separate toll revenue fund to the place or places of payment named in said bonds such sums as may be required to pay the interest on such bonds and redeem the principal thereof as such interest payments and bond redemption become due for all bonds issued and sold for the construction of the particular toll bridge or toll bridges producing the tolls or revenues so deposited in said toll revenue fund. All funds so transferred for the payment of principal or interest on bonds issued for any particular toll bridge shall be segregated and applied solely for the payment of said principal or interest. The proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds may provide for the setting up of a reserve fund or funds out of the tolls and other revenues not needed for the payment of principal and interest, as the same currently matures and for the preservation and continuance of such fund in a manner to be provided therein, and such proceedings may also require the immediate application of all surplus moneys in such toll revenue fund to the retirement of such bonds prior to maturity, by call or purchase, in such manner and upon such terms and the payment of such premiums as may be deemed advisable in the judgment of said [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission.

The moneys remaining in each separate toll revenue fund after providing the amount required for interest and redemption of bonds as hereinabove provided, shall be held and applied as provided in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds. In the event the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds do not require surplus revenues to be held or applied in any particular manner, they shall be allocated and used for such other purposes incidental to the construction, operation and maintenance of such toll bridge or bridges as the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission may determine.

Sec. 47. Section 47.56.180, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Warrants for payments to be made on account of such bonds shall be duly drawn by the state auditor on vouchers approved by the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission.

Moneys required to meet the costs of construction and all expenses and costs incidental to the construction of any particular toll bridge or toll bridges or to meet the costs of operating, maintaining and repairing the same, shall be paid from the proper fund therefor by the state auditor upon voucher submitted by the [highway] commission [approved by the Washington toll bridge authority].

All interest received or earned on money deposited in each and every fund herein provided for shall be credited to and become a part of the particular fund upon which said interest accrues.

Sec. 48. Section 47.56.190, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission may provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds or may otherwise agree with the purchasers of bonds regarding the deposit of all moneys constituting the construction fund and the toll revenue fund and provide for the deposit of such money at such times and with such depositories or paying agents and upon the furnishing of such security as may meet with the approval of the purchasers of such bonds: Provided, That the depositories and security so provided for or agreed upon shall be qualified and eligible in accordance with the requirements of law.

Sec. 49. Section 47.56.200, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding anything contained in this chapter the proceeds received from the sale of bonds and the tolls or other revenues received from the operation of any toll bridge or toll bridges may be used to defray any expenses incurred by the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission in connection with and incidental to the issuance and sale of bonds for the construction of such toll bridge or toll bridges including expenses for the preparation of surveys and estimates and the making of inspections and examinations as may be required by the purchasers of such bonds: Provided, That the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such bonds may contain appropriate provisions governing the use and application of said bond proceeds and toll or other revenues for the purposes herein specified.

Sec. 50. Section 47.56.210, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.210 are each amended to read as follows:

While any bonds issued by said [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission remain outstanding, the powers, duties or existence of the said [Washington toll bridge authority or of the highway] commission or of any other official or agency of the state shall not be diminished or impaired in any manner that will affect adversely the interests and rights of the holders of such bonds. The holder of any bond may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require and compel the performance of any of the duties imposed upon any state department, official or employee or imposed upon the [authority] commission or its officers, agents and employees in connection with the construction, maintenance, operation and insurance of any bridge and in connection with the collection, deposit, investment, application and disbursement of all tolls and other revenues derived from the operation and use of any bridge and in connection with the deposit, investment and disbursement of the proceeds received from the sale of bonds: Provided, That the enumeration of such rights and remedies herein shall not be deemed to exclude the exercise or prosecution of any other rights or remedies by the holders of such bonds.

Sec. 51. Section 47.56.220, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.220 are each amended to read as follows:

As long as any of the bonds issued hereunder for the construction of any toll bridge are outstanding and unpaid, there shall not be erected, constructed or maintained any other bridge or other crossing over, under, through or across the waters over which such toll bridge is located or constructed, connecting or joining directly or indirectly the lands or extensions thereof or abutments thereon on both sides of the waters spanned or crossed by such toll bridge within a distance of ten miles from either side of such toll bridge excepting bridges or other highway crossings actually in existence and being maintained, or for which there was outstanding an existing and lawfully issued franchise, at the time of the location of such toll bridge and prior to the time of the authorization of such revenue bonds, and no ferry or other similar means of crossing the said waters within the said distance and connecting or plying directly or indirectly between the lands or extensions thereof or abutments thereon on both sides of the waters spanned or crossed by such bridge shall be maintained or operated or permitted or allowed: Provided, That ferries and other similar means of crossing actually in existence and being maintained and operated, or for which there was outstanding an existing and lawfully issued franchise, at the time of the location of such bridge and prior to the time of the authorization of such revenue bonds, may continue and be permitted to be operated and maintained under such existing rights and franchises, or any lawful renewal or extension thereof. The provisions of this section shall be binding upon the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission, the state of Washington and all of its departments, agencies or instrumentalities as well as any and all private, political, municipal and public corporations and subdivisions, including cities, counties, and other political subdivisions and the prohibitions of this section shall restrict and limit the powers of the legislature of the state of Washington in respect to the matters herein mentioned as long as any of such bonds are outstanding and unpaid and shall be deemed to constitute a contract to that effect for the benefit of the holders of all such bonds.

Sec. 52. Section 47.56.230, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.230 are each amended to read as follows:

When any such toll bridge or bridges authorized hereunder is being built [by] the [highway] state transportation commission [the Washington toll bridge authority] may carry or cause to be carried such an amount of insurance or indemnity bond or bonds as protection against loss or damage as the [Washington toll bridge authority] commission may deem proper. The [Washington toll bridge authority] commission is hereby further empowered to carry such an amount of insurance to cover any accident or destruction in part or in whole to any toll bridge or toll bridges until all bonds sold for the construction of such toll bridge or toll bridges and interest accrued thereon have been fully redeemed and paid. All moneys collected on any indemnity bond or insurance policy as the result of any damage or injury to any such toll bridge or toll bridges shall be used for the purpose of repairing or rebuilding of any such toll bridge or toll bridges as long as there are revenue bonds against any such structure outstanding and unredeemed. The [Washington toll bridge authority] commission is also empowered to carry insurance or indemnity bonds insuring against the loss of tolls or other revenues to be derived from any such toll bridge or bridges by reason of any interruption in the use of such toll bridge or toll bridges from any cause whatever, and the proceeds of such insurance or indemnity bonds shall be paid into the fund into which the tolls and other revenues of the bridge thus insured are required to be paid and shall be applied to the same purposes and in the same manner as other moneys in the said fund. Such insurance or indemnity bonds may be in an amount equal to the probable tolls and other revenues to be received from the operation of such toll bridge or toll bridges during any period of time that may be determined upon by the [Washington toll bridge authority] commission and fixed in its discretion, and be paid for out of the toll revenue fund as may be specified in said proceedings. The [Washington toll bridge authority] commission may provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds for the carrying of insurance as authorized by this chapter, and the purchase and carrying of insurance as authorized by this chapter, and the purchase and carrying of such insurance shall thereupon be obligatory upon the said [authority] commission and be paid for out of toll revenue fund as may be specified in said proceedings.

Sec. 53. Section 47.56.240, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.240 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission is hereby empowered to fix the rates of toll and other charges for all toll bridges built under the terms of this chapter. Toll charges so fixed may be changed from time to time as conditions may warrant. The said [authority] commission in establishing toll charges shall give due consideration to the cost of operating and maintaining such toll bridge or toll bridges including the cost of insurance and to the amount required annually to meet the redemption of bonds and interest payments thereon. The tolls and charges shall be at all times fixed at rates to yield annual revenue equal to annual operating and maintenance expenses including insurance costs and all redemption payments and interest charges of the bonds issued for any particular toll bridge or toll bridges as the same become due and the bond redemption and interest payments shall constitute a first direct and exclusive charge and lien on all such tolls and other revenues and interest thereon and sinking funds created therefrom received from the use and operation of said toll bridge or toll bridges and such tolls and revenues together with the interests earned thereon shall constitute a trust fund for the security and payment of such bonds and shall not be used or pledged for any other purpose as long as such bonds or any of them are outstanding and unpaid.

Sec. 54. Section 47.56.245, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 53, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 47.56.245 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter the [authority] commission shall retain toll charges on all existing and future facilities until all costs of investigation, financing, acquisition of property, and construction advanced from the motor vehicle fund, and obligations incurred under RCW 47.56.250 and chapter 16, Laws of 1945 have been fully paid. With respect to every facility completed after March 19, 1953, costs of maintenance, management and operation shall be paid periodically out of the revenues of the facility in which such costs were incurred.

Sec. 55. Section 1, chapter 258, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.247 are each amended to read as follows:

The [toll bridge authority] commission may issue permits for the passage of vehicles on any or all of its toll bridges, toll tunnels, toll roads or for the Washington state ferry system on a credit basis upon such terms and conditions as the authority shall deem proper.

Sec. 56. Section 2, chapter 258, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.248 are each amended to read as follows:

The [authority] commission may require the holder of such a permit to furnish to and maintain in force with the [authority] commission a cash deposit or a corporate surety bond: Provided, That the [authority] commission may require the holder of such permit to increase the amount of cash bond, or to furnish an additional surety bond, or may reduce the amount of the cash bond or surety bond required, as the amount of charges incurred and regularity of payment warrant, or may revoke any permit granted for failure of the holder to comply with any of its terms.

Sec. 57. Section 47.56.250, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.250 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a proposed toll bridge, toll road, toll tunnel or any other toll facility of any sort is to be constructed, any city, county or other political subdivision located in relation to such facility so as to benefit directly or indirectly thereby, may, either jointly or separately, at the request of the [Washington state highway commission or the authority] state transportation commission advance or contribute money, or bonds, rights of way, labor, materials, and other property toward the expense of building the toll facility, and for preliminary surveys and the preparation of plans and estimates of cost therefor and other preliminary expenses. Any such city, county or other political subdivision may, either jointly or separately, at the request of the commission [or the authority] advance or contribute money or bonds for the purpose of guaranteeing the payment of interest or principal on the bonds issued by the [authority] commission to finance the toll facility. Appropriations for such purposes may be made from any funds available, including county road funds received from or credited by the state, or funds obtained by excess tax levies made pursuant to law or the issuance of general obligation bonds for this purpose. General obligation bonds issued by a city, county, or political subdivision may with the consent of the [state highway] commission [or the authority] be placed with the [Washington toll bridge authority] commission to be sold by the [authority] commission to provide funds for such purpose. Money, or bonds or property so advanced or contributed may be immediately transferred or delivered to the [authority] commission to be used for the purpose for which contribution was made. The [authority] commission may enter into an agreement with a city, county, or other political subdivision to repay any money, or bonds or the value of a right of way, labor, materials, or other property so advanced or contributed. The [authority] commission may make such repayment to a city, county or other political subdivision and reimburse the state for any expenditures made by it in connection with the toll facility out of tolls and other revenues for the use of the toll facility.

Sec. 58. Section 1, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.252 are each amended to read as follows:

If the [toll bridge authority] state transportation commission deems that any land, including improvements thereon, is no longer required for toll bridge, toll tunnel, toll road or Washington state ferry system purposes and that it is in the public interest, the [authority] commission may negotiate for the sale of such land to the state or to any city, county, port district, or other political subdivision or municipal corporation of the state. The [authority] commission shall certify the agreement for the sale to the governor, with a description of the land and the terms of the sale and the governor may execute and the secretary of state shall attest the deed and deliver it to the grantee.

Sec. 59. Section 2, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.253 are each amended to read as follows:

If the [authority] commission deems it in the public interest and not inconsistent with the use and operation of the toll facility involved, the [authority] commission may on application therefor issue a permit, lease or license to the state, or to any city, county, port district, or other political subdivision or municipal corporation of the state to use any portion of the property of any toll bridge, toll road, toll tunnel, or Washington state ferry system upon such terms and conditions as the [authority] commission may prescribe.

Sec. 60. Section 3, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.254 are each amended to read as follows:

If the [authority] commission is of the opinion that any land, including improvements thereon, is no longer required for toll bridge, toll tunnel, toll road or Washington state ferry system purposes, the [authority] commission shall offer it for sale upon notice and bids in the manner that contracts are let [by the state highway commission] for the disposition of land no longer required for highway purposes under chapter 47.12 RCW.

Sec. 61. Section 4, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.255 are each amended to read as follows:

The [authority] commission may reject all such bids if the highest bid does not equal the reasonable fair market value of the real property, plus the value of the improvements thereon, computed on the basis of the reproduction value less depreciation. The [authority] commission may accept the highest and best bid, and certify the agreement for the sale to the governor, with a description of the land and the terms of the sale and the governor may execute and the secretary of state shall attest the deed and deliver it to the grantee.

Sec. 62. Section 5, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 12, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 and RCW 47.56.256 are each amended to read as follows:

If the [Washington] state [highway] transportation commission deems it not inconsistent with the use and operation of any facility [of the toll bridge authority], the commission may grant franchises to persons, associations, private or municipal corporations, the United States government or any agency thereof, to use any portion of the property of any toll bridge, toll road, toll tunnel or the Washington state ferry system, including approaches thereto, for the construction and maintenance of water pipes, flume, gas pipes, telephone, telegraph and electric light and power lines and conduits, trams or railways, any structures or facilities which are part of an urban public transportation system owned or operated by a municipal corporation, agency or department of the state of Washington other than the state [highway] transportation commission, and any other such facilities in the manner of granting franchises on state highways.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. There is added to chapter 47.56 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise whenever "the department of highways" or "the department" is used in this chapter or Title 47 RCW it shall mean the department of transportation created in section 2 of this 1967 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 64. There is added to chapter 47.56 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever "the Washington toll bridge authority" or "the authority" is used in this chapter or Title 47 RCW it shall mean the state transportation commission created in section 6 of this amendatory act.

TRANSFER OF WASHINGTON TOLL BRIDGE AUTHORITY DUTIES RELATING TO THE PUGET SOUND FERRY AND TOLL BRIDGE SYSTEM TO THE STATE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

Sec. 65. Section 47.60.010, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission hereinafter referred to as the [authority] commission is hereby authorized to acquire by lease, charter, contract, purchase, condemnation or construction, and partly by any or all of such means, and to thereafter operate, improve and extend, a system of ferries on and crossing Puget Sound and any of its tributary waters and connections thereof and connecting with the public streets and highways in the state, such system of ferries to include such boats, vessels, wharves, docks, approaches, landings, franchises, licenses, and appurtenances, as shall be determined by the [authority] commission to be necessary or desirable for efficient operation of the ferry system and best serve the public. The [authority] commission may in like manner acquire by purchase, condemnation or construction and include in such ferry system such toll bridges, approaches and connecting roadways as may be deemed by the [authority] commission advantageous in channeling traffic to points served by the ferry system. In addition to the powers of acquisition herein granted the [authority] commission is hereby empowered to enter into any contracts, agreements or leases with any person, firm or corporation and to thereby provide, on such terms and conditions as it shall determine, for the operation of any ferry or ferries or system thereof, whether acquired by the [authority] commission or not.

Sec. 66. Section 47.60.015, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.015 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission is hereby authorized to operate its ferry system under the name: "Washington State Ferries."

Sec. 67. Section 47.60.020, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of carrying out any or all of the powers herein granted the [authority] commission shall have the power of eminent domain for the acquisition of either real or personal property, used or useful for such Puget Sound ferry system. Condemnation pursuant to this chapter shall be the procedure set out in chapter 8.04 RCW: Provided, That the [authority] commission may institute condemnation proceedings in the superior court of any county or other court of competent jurisdiction in which any of the property sought to be condemned is located or in which the owner of any thereof does business, and the court in any such action shall have jurisdiction to condemn property wherever located within the state: Provided Further, That it shall not be necessary to allege or prove any offer to purchase or inability to agree with the owners thereof for the purchase of any such property in said proceedings. It is the intention of this section to permit the consolidation in one action of all condemnation proceedings necessary to acquire a ferry system, and every type of property incident thereto, irrespective of its location within the state or diversity of ownership. Upon the filing of a petition for condemnation as provided in this section the court may issue an order restraining the removal from the jurisdiction of the state of any personal property sought to be acquired by the proceeding during the pendency thereof. The court shall further have the power to issue such orders or process as shall be necessary to place the [authority] commission into possession of any property condemned.

Sec. 68. Section 47.60.030, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.030 are each amended to read as follows:

In any case where the [authority] commission shall take over any property or properties which are under lease, contract or concession, or where the [authority] commission has heretofore entered into any contract or negotiation or received any bid for any of the purposes set forth in this chapter, the [authority] commission is hereby authorized to continue in effect and carry out any such contract, lease or concession or complete any such negotiation or accept any such bid or any modification of any of them which shall appear advantageous to the [authority] commission without regard to any limitations or directions as to the manner thereof contained in this chapter: Provided, That this section shall not be construed as requiring the [authority] commission so to act, but this section shall be permissive only and then only in respect to contracts, leases, concessions, negotiations or bids existing, entered into or received prior to April 1, 1949.

Sec. 69. Section 47.60.040, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.040 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of obtaining information for the consideration of the [authority] commission upon the acquisition of any ferries or ferry facilities or the construction of any toll bridge under this chapter, it shall be the duty of the [highway commission] state transportation department, upon request of the [authority] commission, to make any examination, investigation, survey or reconnaissance for the determination of material facts pertaining thereto and report the same to the [authority] commission.

The cost of any such examination, investigation, survey or reconnaissance and all preliminary expenses leading up to and resulting in the issuance of any revenue bonds including, but not being limited to expenses in making surveys and appraisals and the drafting, printing, issuance and sale of bonds under this chapter shall be borne by the [highway] commission out of the motor vehicle fund. All such costs and expenses as well as any thereof heretofore incurred shall be reimbursed to said motor vehicle fund out of any proceeds derived from the sale of bonds or out of tolls and revenues to be derived by the [authority] commission through its operations hereunder.

Sec. 70. Section 23, chapter 3, Laws of 1963 extraordinary session and RCW 47.60.045 are each amended to read as follows:

The [state highway] commission, in cooperation with the joint committee on highways, is authorized and directed to prepare a comprehensive long range plan for cross sound transportation concerning the proper location of bridges and ferry routes, together with necessary connecting roads and ferry terminals for the facilities of transportation across Puget Sound. The commission shall utilize all current and prior surveys and reports heretofore made concerning cross sound transportation.

[There is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the state highway commission for the biennium ending June 30th, 1965, the sum of fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.]

Sec. 71. Section 47.60.050, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Any facility which the [authority] commission acquires or is authorized to acquire under the provisions of this chapter may be rehabilitated, rebuilt, enlarged or improved, and the cost thereof may be paid from the revenues of the system or through the issuance of bonds as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 72. Section 47.60.060, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.060 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of paying the cost of acquiring by lease, charter, contract, purchase, condemnation or construction all or any part of such Puget Sound ferry system, including toll bridges, approaches and roadways incidental thereto, and for rehabilitating, rebuilding, enlarging or improving all or any part of said system, the [authority] commission is hereby authorized by resolution to issue its revenue bonds which shall constitute obligations only of the [authority] commission and shall be payable solely and only from all or such part of the revenues from the operation of the system as may be provided in and by such resolution.

Each such revenue bond shall contain a recital that payment or redemption of the bond and payment of the interest thereon is secured by a direct charge and lien upon the tolls and revenues pledged for that purpose and that such bond does not constitute an indebtedness of the state of Washington.

The [authority] commission is hereby empowered to include in any resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds such covenants, stipulations and conditions as may be deemed necessary with respect to the continued use and application of the income and revenues from the undertaking.

Such revenue bonds may bear such date or dates, may mature at such time or times as the [authority] commission shall determine, may bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding five percent per annum, may be in such denomination or denominations, may be in such form, either coupon or registered, may carry such registration and conversion privileges, may be made subject to such terms of redemption with or without premium, and may contain such other terms and covenants not inconsistent with this chapter as may be provided in such resolution. Notwithstanding the form or tenor thereof, and in the absence of an express recital on the face thereof that the bond is nonnegotiable each such revenue bond shall at all times be and shall be treated as a negotiable instrument for all purposes. All such bonds shall be signed by the [member of the authority who is] state auditor and countersigned by the governor and any interest coupons appertaining thereto shall bear the signature of the state auditor: Provided, That the countersignature of the governor on such bonds and the signature of the state auditor on such coupons may be their printed or lithographed facsimile signatures.

Pending the issuance of definitive bonds, temporary or interim bonds, certificates, or receipts of any denomination and with or without coupons attached may be issued as may be provided by said resolution.

Sec. 73. Section 47.60.070, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Any resolution of the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission providing for the issuance of revenue bonds shall provide for setting aside the necessary amounts for the reasonable and proper operation, maintenance, and repair expenses, and shall fix and determine the amounts to be set apart and applied to the payment of the interest on and retirement of the revenue bonds, and the amounts to be set apart and paid into any special funds for renewals, replacements, rebuilding, enlarging, or improving the system. Each such resolution made hereafter shall provide for proceeds of the sale of revenue bonds to be placed in the "[authority] commission revolving fund," as established by RCW 47.60.180 as follows: Three-fourths of one percent on the first five million dollars or part thereof; five-eighths of one percent on the amount over five million dollars to and including ten million dollars; one-half of one percent on the amount over ten million dollars to and including twenty-five million dollars; three-eighths of one percent on the amount over twenty-five million dollars to and including fifty million dollars; one-quarter of one percent on the amount over fifty million dollars to and including seventy-five million dollars; and one-eighth of one percent on all amounts over seventy-five million dollars: Provided, That no such payments shall be made to the [authority] commission revolving fund from proceeds derived from the sale of bonds for the construction, maintenance, and operation of facilities between the state of Washington and any other state, territory, or province, where such other state, territory, or province, or any political subdivision thereof, joins with the state of Washington in the construction or operation of such facility: Provided Further, That no such payments shall be made into the [authority] commission revolving fund from the proceeds of bonds sold for the purpose of refunding outstanding revenue bonds of the [Washington toll bridge authority] commission.

Sec. 74. Section 47.60.080, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.080 are each amended to read as follows:

In determining the amount of bonds required to be issued there may be included any expenses incurred by the [authority] commission in connection with an incidental to the issuance and sale of bonds and for the preparation of surveys and estimates and making inspections and examinations, interest during the estimated construction period, and for six months thereafter, and a reasonable amount for working capital and prepaid insurance.

Sec. 75. Section 47.60.090, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.090 are each amended to read as follows:

All bonds issued under or by authority of this chapter shall be sold to the highest and best bidder after such advertising for bids as the [authority] commission may deem proper: Provided, That the [authority] commission may reject any and all bids so submitted and thereafter sell such bonds so advertised under such terms and conditions as the [authority] commission may deem most advantageous to its own interests. The purchase price of all bonds issued hereunder shall be paid to the state treasurer consistent with the provisions of the resolution pursuant to which such bonds have been issued or to the trustee designated in the bond resolution and held as a separate trust fund to be disbursed on the orders of the [authority] commission.

Sec. 76. Section 47.60.100, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, bonds issued by the [authority] commission shall be legal investments by the state finance committee of any state moneys in its hands, except permanent school funds and motor vehicle funds.

Sec. 77. Section 47.60.110, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The holder of any bond or the trustee for any bonds designated by resolution may be mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require and compel performance of any duties imposed upon any state department, official or employee, including any duties imposed upon or undertaken by the [authority] commission or its officers, agents and employees in connection with the construction, maintenance and operation of the ferry system and in connection with the collection, deposit, investment, application and disbursement of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenue and income derived from the operation of the system.

Sec. 78. Section 47.60.113, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.113 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission is hereby authorized to refund, at the maturity thereof, or before the maturity thereof if they are subject to call prior to maturity or if all of the holders thereof consent thereto, upon such terms and conditions as it shall deem best, any or all of its revenue bonds now or hereafter outstanding, issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing or reconstructing any toll bridge, toll road, toll tunnel, ferry system, or any other toll facility of any sort, or issued for the purpose of refunding such bonds, which revenue bonds are payable out of all or part of the revenues of such toll facility. Refunding bonds may be issued hereunder in a sufficient amount to provide additional funds for acquiring, constructing, reconstructing, rehabilitating, rebuilding, enlarging or improving any toll bridge, toll road, toll tunnel, ferry system, or any other toll facility of any sort, and to pay all refunding costs and expenses and to provide adequate reserves for said toll facility and for any such refunding bonds. Various issues and series of such outstanding bonds, including refunding bonds, may be combined and refunded by a single issue of refunding bonds. Such refunding bonds shall bear interest at such rates and mature at such times, without limitation by the interest rates or maturity of the bonds being refunded, and shall contain such other covenants and conditions as the [Washington toll bridge authority] commission shall determine by resolution.

Sec. 79. Section 47.60.114, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.114 are each amended to read as follows:

Any refunding bonds authorized herein shall constitute obligations of the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission only and not of the state of Washington. They shall be payable solely out of all or such part of the revenues derived from the operation of the toll bridge, toll road, toll tunnel, ferry system, or any other toll facility, as shall be provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds.

Sec. 80. Section 47.60.115, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.115 are each amended to read as follows:

The bonds herein authorized shall, in the discretion of the [Washington toll bridge authority] commission, be exchanged at the best possible price for the bonds being refunded or any such bonds not exchanged shall be sold in the manner provided in RCW 47.60.090. The bonds herein authorized shall be issued in accordance with, and shall be subject to, the provisions of RCW 47.60.050, 47.60.060, 47.60.070, 47.60.080, 47.60.100, 47.60.110 and 47.60.120.

Sec. 81. Section 47.60.120, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.120 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event the [authority] commission acquires or constructs, maintains and operates any ferry crossings upon or toll bridges over Puget Sound or any of its tributary or connecting waters there shall not be constructed, operated or maintained any other ferry crossing upon or bridge over any such waters within ten miles of any such crossing or bridge operated or maintained by the [authority] commission excepting such bridges or ferry crossing in existence, and being operated and maintained under a lawfully issued franchise at the time of the location of the ferry crossing or construction of the toll bridge by the [authority] commission. The [authority] commission shall not maintain and operate any ferry crossing or toll bridge over Puget Sound or any of its tributary or connecting waters which would infringe upon any franchise lawfully issued by the state and in existence and being exercised at the time of the location of the ferry crossing or toll bridge by the [authority] commission, without first acquiring the rights granted to such franchise holder under said franchise.

While any revenue bonds issued by the [authority] commission under the provisions of this chapter are outstanding no additional bonds shall be issued for the purposes of acquiring, constructing, operating or maintaining any ferries or toll bridges within the aforesaid ten mile distance by the [authority] commission unless the revenues of any such additional ferries or toll bridges are pledged to the bonds then outstanding to the extent provided by the resolution authorizing the issue of such outstanding bonds. The provisions of this section shall be binding upon the state, and all of its departments, agencies and instrumentalities, as well as any and all private, political, municipal and public corporations and subdivisions, including cities, towns, counties and other political subdivisions, and the prohibitions of this section shall restrict and limit the powers of the legislature of the state in respect to the matters herein mentioned so long as any of such bonds are outstanding and unpaid and shall be deemed to constitute a contract to that effect for the benefit of the holders of all such bonds.

Sec. 82. Section 47.60.122, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.122 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of paying the cost of acquiring, constructing or reconstructing ferries or ferry terminal facilities, and all costs which may be incurred in connection therewith, the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission is hereby authorized to issue interim revenue warrants, which shall constitute obligations only of the [authority] commission, and which shall not be obligations of the state of Washington. Such warrants shall be payable solely out of part or all of the revenues derived from the operation of the Puget Sound ferry system as shall be provided in the resolution authorizing their issuance, and shall be drawn upon, and the principal thereof and interest thereon shall be payable out of, such fund or funds as shall be created in and provided by such resolution. Such warrants may be interest bearing coupon warrants with a fixed maturity date, or may be interest bearing registered warrants payable in order of their issuance whenever there is sufficient money in the fund upon which they were drawn to redeem any of the same.

Sec. 83. Section 47.60.124, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.124 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event it is deemed advisable or found necessary to redeem any or all of such warrants, the [authority] commission is authorized to issue its revenue refunding bonds for such purpose. Said bonds shall constitute obligations only of the [authority] commission, and shall not be obligations of the state of Washington. Such refunding bonds shall be payable solely out of part or all of the revenues derived from the operation of the Puget Sound ferry system as shall be provided in the resolution authorizing their issuance.

Sec. 84. Section 47.60.126, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.126 are each amended to read as follows:

All provisions of chapter 47.60 RCW pertaining and applicable to the revenue bonds of the [authority] commission authorized therein are made applicable to the warrants and revenue refunding bonds authorized herein except insofar as otherwise provided by RCW 47.60.122 through 47.60.126.

Sec. 85. Section 47.60.130, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Such ferry system, including any toll bridges, approaches, and roadways incidental thereto, may be financed and operated in combination or separately as one or more units as the [authority] commission may determine, and such ferry system together with any toll bridge hereafter constructed by the [authority] commission upon or across the waters of Puget Sound or Hood Canal, or any part of either, replacing one or more presently operated ferry routes, is declared to be a continuous project within the meaning of RCW 47.56.070. The [authority] commission is empowered to rent, lease, or charter any property acquired under this chapter. Whenever the [authority] commission shall determine that any land, including improvements thereon is no longer needed for the purposes of the ferry system, it may offer the same for sale upon notice and bids in the manner of letting contracts for state highway improvements. The [authority] commission may reject all such bids if the highest bid does not equal the reasonable fair market value of the real property plus the value of the improvements thereon, computed on the basis of the reproduction value, less depreciation. It may accept the highest and best bid and request the attorney general to prepare the necessary instrument of conveyance which shall be executed by the governor. The proceeds of all such sales shall be paid into the separate trust fund of the state treasury established pursuant to RCW 47.60.150.

Sec. 86. Section 47.60.140, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 58, chapter 170, Laws of 1965, and RCW 47.60.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The [authority] commission is empowered to operate such ferry system, including all operations, whether intrastate or international, upon any route or routes, and toll bridges as a revenue producing and self-liquidating undertaking. The [highway] commission shall have full charge of the construction, rehabilitation, rebuilding, enlarging, improving, operation and maintenance of the ferry system, including toll bridges, approaches and roadways incidental thereto [that may be authorized by the authority], and including the collection of tolls and other charges for the services and facilities of the undertaking. [: Provided, That] The [authority] commission shall have the exclusive right to enter into leases and contracts for use and occupancy by other parties of the concessions and space located on the ferries, wharves, docks, approaches and landings, but no such leases or contracts shall be entered into for more than five years, nor without public advertisement for bids as may be prescribed by the [authority] commission: Provided [Further], That the Colman Dock facilities may be leased for a period not to exceed ten years: Provided Further, That the [authority] commission may accept and continue leases and contracts for a period of ten years without advertisement or bid, if such leases or contracts were in effect or entered into at the time of the purchase of the Puget Sound ferry system, and any leases or contracts so made are hereby validated.

Sec. 87. Section 47.60.150, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The schedule of charges for the services and facilities of the system shall be fixed and revised from time to time by the [authority] commission so that the tolls and revenues collected will yield annual revenue and income sufficient, after allowance for all operating, maintenance and repair expenses to pay the interest and principal and sinking fund charges for all outstanding revenue bonds, and to create and maintain a fund for ordinary renewals and replacements: Provided, That if provision is made by any resolution for the issuance of revenue bonds for the creation and maintenance of a special fund for rehabilitating, rebuilding, enlarging or improving all or any part of the ferry system then such schedule of tolls and rates of charges shall be fixed and revised so that the revenue and income will also be sufficient to comply with such provision.

All income and revenues as collected shall be paid to the state treasurer for the account of the [authority] commission as a separate trust fund and to be segregated and disbursed upon order of the [authority] commission: Provided, That the fund so segregated and set apart for the payment of the revenue bonds may be remitted to and held by a designated trustee in such manner and with such collateral as may be provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of said bonds.

Sec. 88. Section 47.60.160, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.160 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event it be ascertained that any expense to the motor vehicle fund has been incurred in any manner under this chapter through the [authority], the highway commission, or otherwise, all such expenses shall be promptly reimbursed to the motor vehicle fund out of tolls and revenues derived by the [authority] commission through any or all of its operations hereunder.

Sec. 89. Section 47.60.170, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in RCW 47.60.150 shall forbid the establishment by the [authority] commission of a Washington state ferries revolving fund of not to exceed three hundred thousand dollars from the proceeds of any bonds sold under the provisions of this chapter. Such fund may be deposited by the [authority] commission in such banks or financial institutions as it may select throughout the state. The provisions of RCW 43.01.050 shall not be applicable to such fund or any deposits therein made by the [authority] commission under the provisions of this section. The [authority] commission may deposit thereafter therein all moneys received under the provisions of this chapter. All expenses whatsoever arising in the operations of the Puget Sound ferry system shall be paid from such fund if established by check or voucher in such manner as may be prescribed by the [authority] commission.

All moneys received by the [authority] commission or any employee under the foregoing sections of this chapter, except an amount of petty cash for each day's needs as fixed by the regulation of the [authority] commission, shall be each day and as often during such day as advisable, deposited in the nearest authorized depository selected by the [authority] commission under the terms of this section.

Whenever the fund shall exceed three hundred thousand dollars, the [authority] commission shall forthwith transmit such excess to the state treasurer for deposit in the trust fund established by RCW 47.60.150.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 90. There is added to chapter 47.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:

From and after July 1, 1967 the authority revolving fund as created in RCW 47.60.180 shall be known and designated as the commission revolving fund.

Sec. 91. Section 47.60.180, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.180 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established a permanent fund in the state treasury to be known as the "[authority] commission revolving fund," which fund shall be available to the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission in lieu of any allocation from any other appropriation from the motor vehicle fund. Said [authority] commission shall use said fund firstly to pay its investigation, management, maintenance and operation costs, unless otherwise provided for; secondly to reimburse for past and future advances from the motor vehicle fund, at such times and in such amounts as the [authority] commission shall in its discretion deem feasible. The projects to be investigated must propose facilities to be financed by revenue bonds of the [authority] commission to be repaid by tolls or charges.

Sec. 92. Section 47.60.190, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any sums expended under the provisions of RCW 47.60.180 as to each projected facility which shall be adopted and constructed by the [authority] commission shall be repaid from the revenues of such facility after it becomes operative to the [authority] commission revolving fund. The [authority] commission shall take into account any such expense in setting up any schedule of tolls or charges for such project. The [authority] commission shall make and order an orderly schedule of payments for the recovery of such expenses from any constructed facility within a reasonable time, which schedule shall be so made that it will not interfere with the other necessary expenses to be recovered by tolls or charges but shall operate with such other expense charges. Any sums so recovered shall be paid into the state treasury and by the treasurer deposited in the [authority] commission revolving fund.

Sec. 93. Section 47.60.200, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.200, are each amended to read as follows:

Any consent to liability given under the provisions of this chapter shall create liability of the [authority] commission only and shall not create any general liability of the state.

Sec. 94. Section 47.60.210, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The state consents to suits against the [authority] commission by seamen for injuries occurring upon vessels of the [authority] commission in accordance with the provisions of section 688, title 46, of the United States code. The venue of such actions may be in the superior court for Thurston county or the county where the injury occurred.

Sec. 95. Section 47.60.220, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.220 are each amended to read as follows:

The [authority] commission shall have all the obligations, duties and rights of a common carrier of persons and property in its operation of ferries, terminals or other facilities used in its ferry operations, including the right to participate in joint rates and through routes, agreements, and divisions of through and joint rates with railroads and other common carriers and the right to make any filings with the interstate commerce commission, the United States maritime commission or any other state or federal regulatory or governmental body and to comply with the lawful rules and regulations or requirements of any such body, and shall be subject to laws relating to carrier's liability for loss or damage to property transported, and for personal injury or death of persons transported.

Sec. 96. Section 47.60.230, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.230 are each amended to read as follows:

In case of property loss or damage, personal injuries or death resulting from the operation of any ferry or terminal by the [authority] commission, any person or the personal representative of any person shall, subject to and to the extent hereinafter provided, have a right of action against the [authority] commission for such damage, loss, injury or death.

Sec. 97. Section 47.60.240, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.240 are each amended to read as follows:

The right of action extended by this chapter shall be applicable to loss or damage of property and/or personal injury or death, resulting from the operation of ferries or terminals by the [authority] commission to persons other than shippers or passengers, but any recovery of damages in such cases shall not exceed an amount equal to the limitations of the insurance carried by the [authority] commission to insure it against loss for such liability.

Sec. 98. Section 47.60.250, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 164, Laws of 1967 and RCW 47.60.250 are each amended to read as follows:

As a condition to a recovery thereon, a verified claim against the [authority] commission growing out of such damages, loss, injuries or death must first be presented to the [authority] commission and filed with its secretary within one hundred twenty days after the time when such claim accrued. If the claimant shall be incapacitated from verifying and filing his claim within said one hundred twenty days, or if the claimant be a minor, then the claim may be verified and presented on behalf of said claimant by his relative, attorney or agent. Each such claim must accurately locate and describe the event or defect that caused the damage, loss, injury or death, reasonably describe the damage, loss or injury, and state the time when the same occurred, give the claimant's residence for six months last past and contain the items of damages claimed. No action shall be maintained against the authority upon such claim until the same has been presented to, and filed with, the authority and sixty days have elapsed after such presentation and filing, nor more than three years after such claim accrued.

With respect to the content of such claims this section shall be liberally construed so that substantial compliance will be deemed satisfactory.

Sec. 99. Section 47.60.260, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The [authority] commission may upon such terms and conditions as it may impose and under such rules and regulations as it may adopt, pay claims arising under its operation of ferries or terminals or compromise or settle such claims. No claim shall be paid by the [authority] commission or any settlement or compromise hereof be made except from its operating revenues derived from its operation of ferries or terminals or from the proceeds of insurance recoveries.

Sec. 100. Section 47.60.270, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.270 are each amended to read as follows:

Actions for the recovery of damages under RCW 47.60.220 through 47.60.260 may be brought in Thurston county or in the county in which the aggrieved person resides. No execution upon a judgment of attachment shall be levied against the property of the [authority] commission, nor does the state consent to any maritime lien against vessels of the [authority] commission, but the [authority] commission may be required by order of court to pay any judgment.

Sec. 101. Section 47.60.280, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.280 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission is hereby authorized and directed to establish and operate a ferry service from a suitable point on Lummi Island in Whatcom county to a suitable point on Orcas Island in San Juan county by the most feasible route if and when Whatcom county constructs a bridge from Gooseberry Point on the mainland to Lummi Island. The actual operation of such ferry service shall not begin until Whatcom county has completed the construction of such bridge.

Sec. 102. Section 47.60.290, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.290 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission is hereby authorized and directed to review tariffs and charges as applicable to the operation of the Washington state ferries for the purpose of establishing a more fair and equitable tariff to be charged passengers, vehicles, and commodities on the routes of the Washington state ferries.

Sec. 103. Section 47.60.300, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.300 are each amended to read as follows:

The review is to include but shall not be limited to tariffs for automobiles, passengers, trucks, commutation rates, and volume discounts. The review shall give proper consideration to time of travel, distance of travel, operating costs, maintenance and repair expenses, and the resultant effect any change in tariff might have on the debt service requirements of the [authority] commission as specifically provided in existing financing programs. The review shall also include the allocation of vessels to particular runs, the scheduling of particular runs, the adequacy and arrangements of docks and dock facilities, and any other subject deemed by the [authority] commission to be properly within the scope of the review. The [authority] commission is further authorized and directed to make a like review within every three year period.

Sec. 104. Section 47.60.310, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.310 are each amended to read as follows:

The [authority] commission is further directed to conduct such review by soliciting and obtaining expressions from local community groups in order to be properly informed as to problems being experienced within the area served by the Washington state ferries. In order that local representation may be established, the [authority] commission is hereby directed to advise the board of county commissioners of each county wherein a terminal of the Washington state ferries is located prior to the time that the review is to be commenced, and each board of county commissioners is hereby directed to appoint a committee to consist of no more than five members to serve as an advisory committee to the [authority] commission or its designated representative in such review. The committees to be appointed by the boards of county commissioners shall serve without fee or compensation. It is not the intent of RCW 47.60.290 through 47.60.320 that any powers or duties now prescribed and delegated to the [authority] commission shall be assumed by any other board or committee.

Sec. 105. Section 47.60.320, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.60.320 are each amended to read as follows:

No change in tariff shall be considered by the [authority] commission unless said [authority] commission shall first have obtained the approval of the consulting engineer appointed by the [authority] commission to serve for the account of the Washington state ferries. Further, no change in tariff shall be considered by the [authority] commission that can be construed as contrary to the provisions of the governing bond resolutions then presently outstanding between the [authority] commission and the holders of bonds which have theretofore been sold by the [authority] commission in the connection with financing related to the Washington state ferries.

Sec. 106. Section 18, chapter 7, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 47.60.350 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created in the motor vehicle fund the Puget Sound reserve account to the credit of which shall be deposited all moneys directed by law to be deposited therein. All moneys hereafter deposited in said account shall be used by the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission only for the purposes hereinafter set forth.

Sec. 107. Section 19, chapter 7, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 47.60.360 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the total balance in the Puget Sound reserve account shall exceed one million dollars, a sum equal to such excess of one million dollars shall be transferred from the Puget Sound reserve account and shall be expended by the [state highway] commission pursuant to proper appropriation or reappropriation for state [highways for other state highway commission] highway purposes.

Sec. 108. Section 20, chapter 7, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 47.60.370 are each amended to read as follows:

The Puget Sound reserve account shall be used by the [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission for the following purposes:

The [authority] commission may pledge any moneys in the Puget Sound reserve account or to be deposited in said account to guarantee the payment of principal or interest on (1) bonds issued to refund the outstanding 1955 Washington state ferry system refunding bonds and the 1957 ferry and Hood Canal bridge revenue bonds, or (2) subsequent parity bonds issued to pay costs of improving the Washington state ferry system or constructing additional transportation facilities for the crossing of any part of Puget Sound other than bridging between the east side of Puget Sound to the Kitsap Peninsula, Vashon Island or Bainbridge Island: Provided, That the [authority] commission shall not pledge any moneys in the Puget Sound reserve account to guarantee interest or principal on such parity bonds without further express authorization by legislative act.

The [authority] commission may further pledge moneys in the Puget Sound reserve account to meet any sinking fund requirements or reserves established by the [authority] commission with respect to any new bond issues provided for in this section.

To the extent of any pledge herein authorized, the [authority] commission shall use the first moneys available in the Puget Sound reserve account to meet such obligations as they arise.

Sec. 109. Section 21, chapter 7, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 47.60.380 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 47.60.360 the treasurer shall never transfer any moneys from the Puget Sound reserve account for use by the [state highway] commission for state highway purposes so long as there is due and unpaid any obligations for payment of principal, interest, sinking funds or reserves as required by any pledge of the Puget Sound reserve account. Whenever the [authority] commission shall have pledged any moneys in said account for the purposes authorized in RCW 47.60.370, the state agrees to continue to deposit in the Puget Sound reserve account the motor vehicle fuel taxes and use fuel taxes as provided in RCW 82.36.020 and 82.40.290, and further agrees that so long as there exists any outstanding obligations pursuant to such pledge, to continue to impose such taxes.

Sec. 110. Section 22, chapter 7, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 47.60.390 are each amended to read as follows:

Any funds in the Puget Sound reserve account of the motor vehicle fund which are not required by the [authority] commission for payment of principal or interest on any bond issues or for any of the other purposes authorized in RCW 47.60.370, may be invested by the [authority], subject to the approval of the highway] commission [,] in bonds and obligations of the nature eligible for the investment of current state funds as provided in RCW 43.84.080.

Sec. 111. Section 1, chapter 9, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 47.60.400 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission is authorized to issue revenue bonds to refund all or any part of the Washington toll bridge authority's outstanding 1955 Washington state ferry system refunding revenue bonds and 1957 ferry and Hood Canal bridge revenue bonds, and may issue additional revenue bonds in parity therewith to pay costs of improving the Washington state ferry system or constructing or improving transportation facilities for the crossing of Puget Sound and any of its tributary waters and connections thereof other than bridging from the east side of Puget Sound to the Kitsap Peninsula, Vashon Island or Bainbridge Island: Provided, That the [toll bridge authority] commission shall not issue any such additional revenue bonds without further express authorization by the legislature. With respect to the issuing of such bonds and the payment of principal and interest thereon, the payment into reserves, sinking funds, and the ferry improvement fund established in connection therewith, and the fixing and revision of charges for services and facilities of the system, and in managing all its fiscal operations, the [authority] commission shall have all the powers and shall follow the same procedures established for it under existing laws, except as otherwise provided herein.

Sec. 112. Section 2, chapter 9, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 47.60.410 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event refunding bonds are issued as provided in RCW 47.60.400, the [authority] commission is hereby directed to establish a fund to be called the "ferry improvement fund" to be used to pay all or any part of the cost of constructing, purchasing, reconstructing, replacing, extending, bettering, developing or otherwise improving any part of the Washington state ferry system.

Into this fund the [authority] commission shall place each year such sums as it finds needed for the aforesaid and available from the revenues of the ferry system and Hood Canal bridge after payment of costs of maintenance and operation, bond interest, bond reserve funds, and payments upon principal required during the year by bond resolutions: Provided, That not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars in any year shall be placed in such fund and the amount accumulated in the fund shall not at any time exceed three million dollars.

Sec. 113. Section 3, chapter 9, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 47.60.420 are each amended to read as follows:

To the extent that all revenues from Washington state ferry system, and the Hood Canal bridge available therefor are insufficient to provide for the payment of principal and interest on the bonds authorized and issued pursuant to RCW 47.60.400 through 47.60.470 and for sinking fund requirements established with respect thereto and for payment into such reserves as the [authority] commission shall have established with respect to the securing of such bonds and for payment into the ferry improvement fund, there is hereby imposed a first and prior charge against the Puget Sound reserve account of the motor vehicle fund created by RCW 47.60.350 through 47.60.390 and, to the extent required, against all revenues hereafter derived from the one-quarter cent of motor vehicle fuel tax and one-quarter cent of use fuel tax required by law to be deposited in the Puget Sound reserve account.

To the extent that the revenues from the Washington state ferry system and the Hood Canal bridge available therefor are insufficient to meet required payments of principal and interest on bonds, sinking fund requirements and payments into reserves and the payments into the ferry improvement fund provided in RCW 47.60.410, the [authority] commission shall use moneys in the Puget Sound reserve account for such purpose. Any moneys from the Puget Sound reserve account used by the [authority] commission to pay such obligations shall be repaid by the [authority] commission to the motor vehicle fund from tolls of the Washington state ferry system and the Hood Canal bridge and tolls shall be continued for any required additional length of time necessary for this purpose.

Sec. 114. Section 5, chapter 9, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session as amended by section 42, chapter 3, Laws of 1963 extraordinary session and RCW 47.60.440 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington state ferry system shall be efficiently managed, operated and maintained as a revenue-producing undertaking. The [authority] commission shall maintain and revise from time to time as necessary a schedule of tolls and charges on said ferry system and Hood Canal bridge that will produce net revenue available for debt service, in each fiscal year, in an amount at least equal to minimum annual debt service requirements as hereinafter provided. Minimum annual debt service requirements as used in this section shall include required payments of principal and interest, sinking fund requirements and payments into reserves on all outstanding revenue bonds authorized by RCW 47.60.400 through 47.60.470 and all other outstanding parity bonds hereafter issued in connection with the said ferry system and Hood Canal bridge and any other facility hereafter constructed by the [authority] commission to facilitate the crossing of Puget Sound, but shall not include payments into the ferry improvement fund.

The provisions of law relating to the revision of tolls and charges to meet minimum annual debt service requirements from net revenues as required by this section shall be binding upon the [authority] commission but shall not be deemed to constitute a contract to that effect for the benefit of the holders of such bonds.

Sec. 115. Section 6, chapter 9, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 47.60.450 are each amended to read as follows:

If the net revenue together with all moneys in the Puget Sound reserve account available for debt service in any fiscal year fail to meet minimum annual debt service for the year, as defined in RCW 47.60.440, the tolls and charges shall be promptly revised to produce such coverage: Provided, That in such case revision of tolls and charges shall be determined by the [authority] commission after considering supporting data and recommendations therefor which shall be furnished by a nationally recognized traffic engineering firm retained by the [authority] commission in the manner provided in the bond proceedings.

Tolls and charges shall not be increased in any case when in the opinion of such engineering firm the increase would so reduce traffic that no net gain in revenue would result. The provisions of this section shall be deemed a covenant for the benefit of the holders of such bonds.

Sec. 116. Section 9, chapter 9, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 47.60.470 are each amended to read as follows:

The [Washington toll bridge authority] state transportation commission shall periodically report to the joint fact-finding committee on highways, streets and bridges its plans and progress relating to the financing and refinancing of the Washington state ferries and Hood Canal bridge, including the issuance of bonds authorized by RCW 47.60.400 through 47.60.470, to the end that the committee may be informed of plans which may affect its recommendations to the legislature.

STATE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION REPRESENTATION ON MARINE EMPLOYEE COMMISSION IN LIEU OF PRIOR
WASHINGTON TOLL BRIDGE AUTHORITY REPRESENTATION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 117. There is added to chapter 47.64 RCW a new section to read as follows:

From and after July 1, 1967, "Washington toll bridge authority", "toll bridge authority" or "authority" when used in this chapter shall mean the state transportation commission as created in section 6 of this 1967 amendatory act.

TRANSFER PROVISIONS, CONSTRUCTION, SAVINGS AND REPEAL

NEW SECTION. Sec. 118. Prior to July 1, 1967, the director of aeronautics and the state aeronautics commission, the director of highways and the state highway commission, the assistant director of toll facilities and the division of toll facilities of the state highway commission and the Washington toll bridge authority shall deliver to the state transportation commission and the department of transportation all books, documents, records, papers, files, or other writings, all cabinets, furniture, office equipment, and other tangible property, and all funds in their custody or under their control used or held by them. Neither the abolition of the state aeronautics commission, the state highway commission, the division of toll facilities of the state highway commission and the Washington toll bridge authority, nor the transfer of powers and duties as provided in this 1967 amendatory act to the state transportation commission shall affect the validity of any acts performed by such agencies or any officer or employee thereof before July 1, 1967. All matters relating to functions transferred under the provisions of this 1967 amendatory act from the above named state agencies to the state transportation commission which at the time of transfer have not been completed may be undertaken and completed by the state transportation commission, which is authorized, empowered, and directed to promulgate any and all orders, rules, and regulations necessary to accomplish this purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 119. Any appropriations heretofore made to the state highway commission and the department of highways and to the Washington toll bridge authority, abolished by this 1967 amendatory act, shall be transferred to and made available to the state transportation commission.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any funds, including unexpended balances within any accounts, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment or any other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred under this 1967 amendatory act, the director of the budget shall make a determination thereon and certify the same to the properly interested state agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 120. While any bonds, whether definitive, temporary or interim, or warrants, certificates or receipts of any denomination and with or without coupons attached heretofore issued by the state aeronautics commission, the Washington toll bridge authority, or the state highway commission remain outstanding, the powers and duties relating thereto of said agencies or any official or employee thereof by this 1967 amendatory act transferred to the state transportation commission or any powers and duties of any other state official or state agency with respect to such bonds, warrants, certificates or receipts shall not be diminished or impaired in any manner that will adversely affect the interests and rights of the holders of such bonds, warrants, certificates or receipts. The holder of any such bond, warrant, certificate or receipt may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require and compel the performance by the state transportation commission, or other appropriate state official or agency of any of the duties heretofore imposed upon any state department, official or employee under the terms of any such prior bond, warrant, certificate or receipt agreement or sale: Provided, That the enumeration of such right and remedies herein shall not be deemed to exclude the exercise or prosecution of any other rights or remedies by the holders of such bonds, warrants, certificates or receipts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 121. Nothing in this 1967 amendatory act shall be construed to affect any existing rights acquired under the sections amended or repealed herein except as to the governmental agencies referred to and their officials and employees, nor as affecting any actions, activities or proceedings validated thereunder, nor as affecting any civil or criminal proceedings instituted thereunder, nor any rule, regulation, resolution or order promulgated thereunder nor any administrative action taken thereunder; and neither the abolishment of any agency, nor any transfer of powers, duties and functions as provided herein, shall affect the validity of any act performed by such agency or any officer thereof prior to July 1, 1967.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 122. (1) All employees of the department of highways, the aeronautics commission and the toll bridge authority subject to the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, shall upon July 1, 1967, be transferred to the department of transportation.

(2) All such employees transferred to the department of transportation as provided in this section shall continue to be governed by the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, without any loss of rights granted by said law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 123. Title 47 RCW presently titled "Public Highways" shall upon the implementation of this 1967 amendatory act be known and referred to as "Public Highways and Transportation".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 124. Subheadings as used in this 1967 amendatory act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 125. The following acts or parts of acts and RCW sections are hereby repealed:

- (1) Section 3, chapter 165, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 1, chapter 68, Laws of 1967 and RCW 14.04.030;
- (2) Section 4, chapter 165, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 1, chapter 289, Laws of 1961 and RCW 14.04.040;
- (3) Section 5, chapter 165, Laws of 1947 and RCW 14.04.050;
- (4) Section 6, chapter 165, Laws of 1947 and RCW 14.04.060;
- (5) Section 47.01.020, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.020;
- (6) Section 6, chapter 1, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.06.060;
- (7) Section 9, chapter 1, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.06.090;
- (8) Section 47.56.020, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 278, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.020;
- (9) Section 2, chapter 278, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.021;
- (10) Section 4, chapter 278, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 32, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 47.56.023;
- (11) Section 5, chapter 278, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.025;
- (12) Section 6, chapter 278, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.027;
- (13) Section 7, chapter 278, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.029;

(14) Section 9, chapter 278, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.032;

(15) Section 10, chapter 278, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 30, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 47.56.034;

(16) Section 47.56.077, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.077.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 126. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately. All powers, rights, duties and obligations transferred under the provisions of this 1967 amendatory act shall be exercised on and after July 1, 1967; the state aeronautics commission, the Washington toll bridge authority, the division of toll facilities in the state highway commission, and the state highway commission, the highway department personnel board, and every other state agency, board or commission or state employee or official position abolished under the provisions of this act shall be deemed abolished as of midnight, June 30, 1967; nothing in this 1967 amendatory act shall prevent the governor from making such appointments as provided for in this 1967 amendatory act effective July 1, 1967, prior to July 1, 1967, which appointments pending the concurrence of the members of the senate as otherwise provided for in this 1967 amendatory act, shall be lawful for the purposes of this 1967 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 127. If any provision of this 1967 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Beginning in line 1 of the title of the printed and engrossed bill after the semicolon strike the remainder of the title and insert the following:

"creating a department of transportation and prescribing its powers and duties; creating a state transportation commission and prescribing its powers and duties; abolishing the state aeronautics commission and transferring its powers and duties; abolishing the Washington toll bridge authority and transferring its powers and duties; abolishing the division of toll facilities in the state highway commission and the state highway commission, and transferring their powers and duties; abolishing the highway department personnel board and transferring its powers and duties; providing for state transportation commission representation in lieu of Washington toll bridge authority representation on the marine employee commission; abolishing certain state employee and official positions and transferring their powers and duties; providing for the transfer of certain employees, funds, appropriations, books, documents, records, papers, files, or other writings, cabinets, furniture, office equipment and other tangible property; providing for the promulgation of certain orders, rules and regulations; renaming Title 47 RCW "Public Highways and Transportation"; amending sections 47.01.010, 47.01.050, 47.01.060, 47.01.070, 47.01.080, 47.01.090, 47.01.100, 47.01.110, 47.01.120, 47.01.140, 47.01.190, 47.01.210 and 47.01.220, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.01.010, 47.01.050, 47.01.060, 47.01.070, 47.01.080, 47.01.090, 47.01.100, 47.01.110, 47.01.120, 47.01.140, 47.01.190, 47.01.210 and 47.01.220; amending section 47.01.030, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 47.01.030; amending section 47.01.040, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 31, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 47.01.040; amending section 47.01.130, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 10, chapter 307, Laws of 1961, and RCW 47.01.130; amending section 47.01.160, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 29, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 47.01.160; amending section 43.17.010, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 12, chapter 242, Laws of 1967, and RCW 43.17.110; amending section 43.17.020, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 13, chapter 242, Laws of 1967 and RCW 43.17.020; adding new sections to chapter 47.01 RCW; amending sections 2 and 8, chapter 1, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.06.020 and 41.06.080; adding new sections to chapter 41.06 RCW; amending section 1, chapter 165, Laws of 1947 and RCW 14.04.020; adding a new section to chapter 14.04 RCW; amending sections 47.56.040, 47.56.042, 47.56.050, 47.56.060, 47.56.070, 47.56.075, 47.56.080, 47.56.090, 47.56.100, 47.56.110, 47.56.120, 47.56.130, 47.56.150, 47.56.160, 47.56.170, 47.56.180, 47.56.190, 47.56.200, 47.56.210, 47.56.220, 47.56.230, 47.56.240 and 47.56.250, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.040, 47.56.042, 47.56.050, 47.56.060, 47.56.070, 47.56.075, 47.56.080, 47.56.090, 47.56.100, 47.56.110, 47.56.120, 47.56.130, 47.56.150, 47.56.160, 47.56.170, 47.56.180, 47.56.190, 47.56.200, 47.56.210, 47.56.220, 47.56.230, 47.56.240 and 47.56.250; amending sections 1 and 2, chapter 258, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.247 and 47.56.248; amending sections 1 through 4, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.252 through 47.56.255; amending section 5, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 12, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 and RCW 47.56.256; amending section

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

It was moved by Senator Washington that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 554 and ask the House for a conference thereon.

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Mardesich that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 554.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendments by the House enlarge the scope and object of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 554 under Rule 62 which provides:

"A Senate bill, passed by the House with amendment or amendments which shall change the scope and object of the bill, upon being received in the Senate, shall be referred to appropriate committee and shall take the same course as for original bills."

"I think there is no question but what the scope and object has been enlarged. This was a bill to set up a mass transit authority which did carry with it the transfer of the powers of the toll bridge authority to the highway commission. Now added to it in the House is a provision to set up a complete transportation department, the appointing of the directors and going into a great deal of detail as to their powers. Incidentally, if this matter could go to conference, I think the details could be worked out and we could end up with a transit authority or with a department as generally requested by the Governor with some modifications of the bill as it is now before us."

Senator Mardesich:

"Mr. President:

"I move that the rules be suspended and that the bill be considered directly now without going to committee."

Senator Washington demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators McMillan, Morgan, Rasmussen, Uhlman, Talley, Ridder, Guess and Stender.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Mardesich to suspend the rules and immediately consider Engrossed Senate Bill No. 554 as amended by the House, was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 19; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Cooney, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Twigg, Uhlman, Williams, Woodall—29.

Those voting nay were: Senators Bailey, Chytil, Connor, Donohue, Dore, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCutcheon, Morgan, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, Washington—19.

Excused: Senator Redmon—1.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"Having failed to receive the two-thirds majority, the motion is lost. Are there any further remarks on the point as raised by Senator Washington?"

"The President, ruling upon the point of order as presented by Senator Washington:

"Engrossed Senate Bill No. 554 provides for a mass transit authority to coordinate highway and mass transportation planning, to conduct studies concerning mass transportation and highway problems and assist local government in these same areas.

"The amendment proposed by the House creates a new department of transportation and prescribes its powers and duties. This proposed amendment abolishes not only the Washington toll bridge authority but also the state aeronautics commission, the division of toll facilities and the highway commission. The amendment further abolishes the highway department personnel board and transfers many duties performed by the various entities which are abolished. Under the provisions of the amendment, certain state positions would be abolished and the duties of employees would be changed.

"Therefore the President rules that the amendment does enlarge the scope and object of the bill. The point of order raised by Senator Washington is well taken."

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Mardesich that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 554 be referred to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President:

"I raise the point of order that it would be improper to circumvent the standing committee and send it directly to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules."

Senator Mardesich:

"Mr. President, as I understand the rule, it merely requires it to go to a committee for some study. I have a lot of respect for the members of the Rules Committee, their deliberative action and the character of the individuals on that committee, and I am sure that they can take due consideration of all of the changes that Senator Washington is concerned about that this bill makes in state government. I simply feel that the Committee on Rules will give it the consideration necessary."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President:

"Speaking to the point of order, and in opposition to the motion that the bill go to the Rules Committee, I think Senator Mardesich would give the Rules Committee more power than they have ever presumed to have. The Rules Committee could not amend a bill and cannot make any changes in it. They can suggest that possibly some amendments might be needed but they actually do not have the power to make any change in the bill, themselves, so it should probably go to the appropriate committee."

Senator Washington:

"I think the wording of our rules is very clear, Mr. President:

"It shall be referred to the appropriate committee and shall take the same course as for original bills. Now certainly the rules do not provide that a bill, when introduced, goes immediately to the Rules Committee. Our rules clearly provide that they will be sent to an appropriate standing committee. Certainly this would take a suspension of the rules in order to accomplish what Senator Mardesich wishes to bring about."

Senator Gissberg:

"Mr. President:

"I disagree with the point of order. The Rules Committee is certainly a standing committee and if this body by majority vote wishes to say it is an appropriate committee—and I use the word, 'appropriate,' taken in context of the rules—it is perfectly in order that that be done, Mr. President. This Senate can at any time determine what committee is the appropriate committee. That is the intention of the motion Senator Mardesich by his motion indicated that he believes the Rules Committee is the appropriate standing committee. Certainly it is a standing committee."

Senator Ryder:

"Mr. President:

"In answer to Senator Rasmussen's objection, no committee can amend a bill. They can suggest amendments which are adopted on the floor of the Senate. They can't amend it any more than the Rules Committee can amend the bill, and the Rules Committee does many times by agreement in the committee bring bills to the floor with suggested amendments just as any other standing committee does, and then it is up to the consideration of the Senate itself as to whether or not these amendments are to be adopted. I think at this point in the session that the proper committee for this bill is the Rules Committee."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"Are there further remarks on the point of order presented by Senator Washington:

"The President, ruling upon the point of order as presented by Senator Washington:

"The President believes that the remarks by Senator Gissberg are essentially correct, that the motion by Senator Mardesich is in order; therefore, the point as presented by Senator Washington is not well taken. The question before the Senate: It has been moved by Senator Mardesich that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 554, as amended by the House, be referred to the Senate Committee on Rules and Joint Rules."

Senator Washington demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators McMillan, Greive, Morgan, Talley, Guess, Donohue, Connor and Dore.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion to refer the bill to the Senate Committee on Rules and Joint Rules was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 21; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Cooney, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Twigg, Uhlman, Williams, Woodall—27.

Those voting nay were: Senators Bailey, Chytil, Connor, Donohue, Dore, Freise, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCutcheon, McMillan, Morgan, Rasmussen, Ridder, Talley, Washington—21.

Excused: Senator Redmon—1.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President, point of parliamentary inquiry:

"If a particular measure enlarges the scope and object of a bill and thus is in violation of the constitutional provisions of the state of Washington, how does putting it through any committee make any changes?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall:

"Point of order, Mr. President:

"There is nothing before the body."

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President, I pose this as a parliamentary inquiry, seeking your advice. The reason I didn't raise the point earlier was because I thought there was no point but I would like to put this inquiry to the Chair to be answered at your leisure."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The Senator has proposed a unique and interesting question. The President will have to study that one and try to come up with an appropriate answer."

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Woodall that the Senate dispense with the Call of the Senate.

Senator Washington demanded a roll call but the demand was not sustained.

With leave of the Senate, Senator Woodall was permitted to withdraw the motion.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 722, by Committee on Transportation: Providing for highways, bridges and toll facilities.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The state highway commission is authorized and directed to conduct preliminary surveys, including traffic studies, necessary to determine the financial feasibility of a toll bridge to cross the Columbia River at Puget Island. The proposed toll bridge is to be considered as a replacement to the existing ferry operation between Puget Island in Wahkiakum county, operating to the state of Oregon in the vicinity of Westport, Oregon. The highway commission shall, in cooperation with the county commissioners of Wahkiakum county, utilize all traffic data and statistics available from the Puget Island ferry operation. Upon completion of such studies the highway commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the Washington toll bridge authority and the joint committee on highways. The joint committee on highways shall submit copies of the report to the 1969 Legislature."

On page 36 of the printed and engrossed bills following section 60 strike all of section 61 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively, and renumber all internal section references accordingly.

On page 39, section 65, beginning on line 7 of the printed and engrossed bills, strike all of subsections (4) and (5) and renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

On page 40, section 65, line 23 of the printed and engrossed bills following subsection (15), being renumbered subsection (13), add a new subsection to read as follows:

"(14) A comprehensive study relating to the organizational structure of a department of transportation. The study shall consider the proper role of the state in planning, constructing, operating and coordinating highway, mass transit, water and air transportation facilities. The study shall analyze transportation functions now performed by the various state agencies and shall develop a recommendation for the combination of all proper state transportation functions within a department of transportation."

On page 40, section 65, following subsection (14) add a new subsection to read as follows:

"(15) A study of the feasibility of the exchange between states of audit information relating to the proper payment of fuel taxes and other motor vehicle taxes by interstate motor carriers for the purpose of reducing duplicate audits by the several states."

On page 41, section 67, line 12 of the printed bill, being line 11 of the engrossed bill, after "dollars" insert a period and strike the remainder of the section.

On page 41 beginning on line 15 of the printed bill, being line 14 of the engrossed bill strike all of section 68, and renumber the remaining sections consecutively and renumber all internal section references accordingly.

On page 42 following section 72, being renumbered section 70 of the engrossed bill add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 71. Section 82.36.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter. . . (House Bill No. 595), Laws of 1967 extraordinary session and RCW 82.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Every distributor shall pay, in addition to any other taxes provided by law, an excise tax to the director of nine cents for each gallon of motor vehicle fuel sold, distributed, or used by him in the state as well as on each gallon upon which he has assumed liability for payment of the tax under the provisions of RCW 82.36.100: Provided, That under such regulations as the director may prescribe sales or distribution of motor vehicle fuel may be made by one licensed distributor to another licensed distributor free of the tax. In the computation of the tax, one-quarter of one percent of the net gallonage otherwise taxable shall be deducted by the distributor before computing the tax due, on account of the losses sustained through handling. The tax herein imposed shall be collected and paid to the state but once in respect to any motor vehicle fuel. An invoice shall be rendered by a distributor to a purchaser for each distribution of motor vehicle fuel.

The proceeds of the nine cents excise tax collected on the net gallonage after the deduction provided for herein shall be distributed as follows:

(1) Seven [and one-quarter] cents shall be distributed between the state, cities, and counties under the provisions of RCW 46.68.090 and 46.68.100, as amended in section 8 of this 1967 amendatory act.

(2) Five-eighths of one cent shall be distributed to the state and expended pursuant to section 9 of this 1967 amendatory act.

(3) Five-eighths of one cent shall be paid into the motor vehicle fund and credited to the urban arterial trust account created by section 14 of this 1967 amendatory act.

(4) One-quarter cent shall be paid into the motor vehicle fund and credited to the Puget Sound reserve account created by RCW 47.60.350.

(5) One-half cent shall be distributed to the cities and towns directly and allocated between them as provided by RCW 46.68.110, subject to the provisions of RCW 35.76.050: Provided, That the funds allocated to a city or town which are attributable to such one-half cent of the additional tax imposed by this 1961 amendatory act shall be used exclusively for the construction, improvement and repair of arterial highways as that term is defined in RCW 46.04.030, or for the payment of any municipal indebtedness which may be incurred after June 12, 1963 in the construction, improvement and repair of arterial highways as that term is defined in RCW 46.04.030. All such sums shall first be subject to proper deductions for refunds and costs of collection as provided in RCW 46.68.090."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 42 of the printed and engrossed bills following new section 71 add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. There is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the joint committee on highways for the biennium ending June 30, 1969, the sum of ten thousand dollars to be disbursed to the Western Council of State Governments pursuant to resolution of said committee for research and administrative services relating to the proper implementation of the several federal highway programs. This appropriation shall not be available until two or more other states have each authorized expenditures of equivalent or greater sums for the purposes mentioned herein."

On page 42 of the printed and engrossed bills, following section 72 of the engrossed bill, add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 73. Section 81.80.060, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 40, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 81.80.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person who engages for compensation to perform a combination of services which includes transportation of property of others upon the public highways shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the commission as to such transportation and shall not engage upon the same without first having obtained a common carrier or contract carrier permit to do so. Every person engaging in such a combination of services shall advise the commission what portion of the consideration is intended to cover the transportation service and if the agreement covering the combination of services is in writing, the rate and charge for such transportation shall be set forth therein. The rates or charges for the transportation services included in such combination of services shall be subject to control and regulation by the commission in the same manner that the rates of common and contract carriers are now controlled and regulated. Any person engaged in extracting [,] and/or processing and , in connection therewith, hauling materials exclusively for the maintenance, construction or improvement of a public highway shall not be deemed to be performing a combination of services."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 42 of the printed and engrossed bills following new section 73 add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. Whenever a study report prepared by the Washington state highway commission for the joint committee on highways is made available to the committee or its members, the report shall upon request be made available to any member of the Washington state legislature."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

(House Bill No. 595) Laws of 1967 extraordinary session and RCW 82.36.020;"

Nat Washington, Chairman,

....., Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: Robert C. Bailey, Dewey C. Donohue, Larry Faulk, Herbert H. Freise, Sam C. Guess, August P. Mardesich, Richard G. (Dick) Marquardt, Frances Haddon Morgan, Joel M. Pritchard, Fred G. Redmon, Robert C. Ridder, Gordon Sandison, John H. Stender, Don L. Talley, Walter B. Williams.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Washington, the committee amendments to pages 4, 5, 6, 12, 13 and 15 of the bill were adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Andersen:

"Mr. President, would Senator Washington yield:

"We are sailing through this pretty rapidly and so I thought it would expedite things to ask you the question: Do any of these amendments to which you refer delete the study of the fourth Lake Washington bridge?"

Senator Washington:

"None of these amendments do. There is one, however, which provides that they will also study the possibility of a tube, rather than a bridge."

Senator Andersen:

"Senator Washington, it expands the scope of the study, then, rather than deleting the study?"

Senator Washington:

"There are no committee amendments which delete the study."

It was moved by Senator Washington that the committee amendment to page 36 of the bill be adopted.

Debate ensued.

Senators Herrmann, Talley and Henry demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Senator Washington demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Herrmann, Rasmussen, Henry, Pritchard, Metcalf, Connor, Dore and Hanna.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion by Senator Washington was lost and the committee amendment to page 36 was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 25; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Hallauer, Knoblauch, McCormack, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Uhlman, Washington, Williams—23.

Those voting nay were: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Stender, Talley, Twigg, Woodall—25.

Excused: Senator Redmon—1.

The President called upon President Pro Tempore Al Henry to preside.

On motion of Senator Washington, the committee amendments to pages 39, 40, 41, and 42 were adopted.

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 42 of the printed and engrossed bills following new section 74 add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 75. Section 46.68.100, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 8, chapter . . . (House Bill No. 595), Laws of 1967 extraordinary session and RCW 46.68.100 are each amended to read as follows:

From the net tax amount in the motor vehicle fund there shall be paid sums as follows:

(1) To the cities and towns of the state sums equal to ten and four-tenths percent of the net tax amount to be paid monthly as the same accrues;

(2) To the counties of the state sums equal to [thirty-one and four-tenths] thirty-two and five-tenths percent of the net tax amount to be paid monthly as the same accrues;

(3) To the state to be expended as provided by RCW 46.68.130, sums equal to [fifty-eight and six-tenths] fifty-seven and one-tenth percent of the net tax amount to be paid monthly as the same accrues.

Nothing in this section or in RCW 46.68.090 or 46.68.130 shall be construed so as to violate any terms or conditions contained in any highway construction bond issues now or hereafter authorized by statute and whose payment is by such statute pledged to be paid from any excise taxes on motor vehicle funds.

On page 41, beginning on line 27 of the printed bill, being line 25 of the engrossed bill, strike all of section 69, renumbered section 67, and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On motion of Senator Marquardt, the following amendment by Senators Marquardt and Ridder was adopted:

On page 42 of the printed bill following section 72 added by House amendment add a section as follows:

"Sec. 73. Section 46.16.320, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 21, chapter 32, Laws of 1967 and RCW 46.16.320 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person having a valid official amateur radio operator's license issued for a term of five years by the federal communications commission, is entitled to apply to the director for, and upon satisfactory showing, to receive, in lieu of the regular motor vehicle license plates similar plates bearing the official amateur radio call letters of the applicant assigned by the federal communications commission instead of numbers, and every person who desires a license plate containing his initials or any other combination of letters or numbers, that is consistent with the existing format of 3 letters and 3 numbers as prescribed by the director of motor vehicles may apply to the director for such license plates, and if the director is satisfied that such license plates as requested would be reasonable and proper and would not be a duplication of any other valid license plates, may receive in lieu of regular motor vehicle license plates similar plates bearing the letters or numbers, or combination thereof requested. No combination shall be issued with fewer than 6 letters and numbers. All sequences of letters and numbers must be approved by a committee of five members appointed to serve at the pleasure of the director to be known as the license plate advisory committee.

Original applicants shall be issued temporary license plates which will serve until such a time as the "personalized plates" can be manufactured by the Washington State Prison Industries, and processed by the Department of Motor Vehicles. The temporary license plates shall be surrendered to the Department at the time the "personalized plates" are issued. Any previously issued license plates assigned to the vehicle involved must be surrendered to the Department at the time of issuance of the "personalized plates".

Each time that "personalized plates" are transferred from one vehicle to another, by the owner, a special transfer fee of $5.00 shall be collected by the Department from that owner. Such special fee shall be deposited in the Motor Vehicle Fund.

In addition to the annual license fee collected under chapter 46.16 and chapter 82.44, there shall be collected from each applicant for such special license plates an additional license fee of [five] thirty dollars upon the issue of a state plate but shall not apply on those years that a yearly tab is issued. Application for renewal of the amateur radio operator's call license plate must be made by January 10th of each renewal year and all such applications shall be accompanied by a notarized statement of facts included on the amateur's valid FCC license.

Twenty-five dollars from each original application fee for "personalized plates" shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the mass transit trust account which is hereby created in the general fund, for appropriation by the legislature to political subdivisions for the study or construction of rapid transit facilities in accordance with comprehensive rapid transit plans approved by the Highway Commission, to be applied directly to such purpose or to be pledged to pay or secure the payment of principal of and interest on such bonds or other obligations as may be issued in furtherance of such purpose."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

It was moved by Senator Keefe that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 7, section 5, line 13 of the printed and engrossed bills, insert a new section 6 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The highway commission shall not construct nor authorize the construction of concrete barriers or dividers to separate the northbound traffic from the southbound traffic on Division Street, P.S.H. 3 (S.R. 2, 195, and 395), between Boone Avenue and Houston Avenue, in the city of Spokane."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

Senator Washington demanded a roll call but the demand was not sustained.

The motion was carried on a rising vote and the amendment by Senator Keefe was adopted.

It was moved by Senator Durkan that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 34, section 57, line 4, after "county," strike all material down to and including "dollar" on line 9.

Debate ensued.

Senators Sandison, Talley and Williams demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Senator Kupka demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Stender, McCutcheon, Peterson (Ted), Huntley, Pritchard, Greive, Rasmussen, Durkan and Dore.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion was lost and the amendment by Senator Durkan was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 29; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bailey, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Hallauer, Hanna, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Kupka, Mardesich, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Stender, Talley—19.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Faulk, Greive, Guess, Henry, Huntley, Knoblauch, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—29.

Excused: Senator Redmon—1.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator McCutcheon moved that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senator Durkan failed to be adopted.

Debate ensued.

Senators Gissberg, Hanna and Kupka demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Senator Washington demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Peterson (Ted), Guess, Faulk, Metcalf, Pritchard, Rasmussen, Greive and Connor.

ROLL CALL

Excused: Senator Redmon—1.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Lennart moved that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senator Keefe was adopted.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive:

“Mr. President:

“I refer to Senate Rule 31 which says the amendment must be reconsidered immediately, and there has been intervening business. It could hardly be reconsidered at this time.”

Senator Williams:

“Point of order, Mr. President:

“I believe it says it may be made at once. It doesn't say it must be made at once.”

Senator Greive:

"We have no right to reconsider other than that provided in the rules, so it would seem to me that it is permissive. In other words, it lets you reconsider, otherwise we wouldn't have any right at all."

Senator Gissberg:

"If precedent means anything, there have been prior sessions of the legislature when I raised the same point of order and the President has ruled against me and there is an excerpt of the President's ruling which the Secretary has in his book if he wants to go in and get it out of his rule book. Maybe that's where he has gone, but nonetheless, the President has ruled in the past when I raised the same point of order that Senator Greive has raised that my point of order was not well taken and maybe the Secretary can get that old ruling out. I saw it in his rule book the other day. I disagreed with the ruling, but nevertheless it is a precedent."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry:

"The President, ruling upon the point of order, rules that the point of order as presented by Senator Greive is not well taken. We are still on the same order of business. The motion by Senator Lennart that we immediately reconsider the vote, is in order."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, Substitute House Bill No. 722 and the motion by Senator Lennart were ordered to retain their place on the second reading calendar for tomorrow.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

At 5:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Wednesday, April 26, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Wednesday, April 26, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senator Redmon.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Redmon was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Carl Seltice, Color Bearer, and Jan Holbrook, presented the Colors.

Doctor Henry S. Rahn, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Eternal God, from whom come all good things in man and in nature, we would sensitively open our thoughts to Thee.

"Thou hast so made us that the glory of our lives is not in things below us that we master, but in the Divine above us that master us. We are elevated by our admirations, we are enriched by our reverences.

"We would see our life not as a drifting raft but as a ship with a course, a compass and a captain. Pilot our lives, give direction to our efforts, inspire our hopes toward worthy and noble goals.

"As bodies and minds become fatigued in continuous effort, keep us from being weary in well doing. Through Christ our Lord. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

Senators Greive, Bailey and McCutcheon demanded a Call of the Senate.

A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senator Redmon, who was excused.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1967 EX - 51

By Senators Peterson (Lowell), Mardesich, Sandison, Metcalf, Ridder, Foley, Rasmussen and Talley:

Whereas, The salmon resources in the waters of our state are vital to our economy; and

Whereas, A study of programs and practices in furtherance of preservation, propagation, and increased yields as to this vital resource is needed;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, that the legislative interim committee on fisheries, if established, and if not the legislative council through its appropriate subcommittee is hereby requested to engage in a study of the salmon resources of this state including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) The present status of stream development programs and whether additional personnel are necessary to improve streams that are natural spawning grounds for salmon;

(2) Examination of salmon hatchery programs and the extent to which the capacities of existing hatcheries are being utilized;

(3) Whether specific types of gear being used in commercial and sport salmon fishing and the manner of their operation is detrimental to salmon conservation practices;

(4) Whether moneys budgeted for salmon preservation and propagation are being utilized in accordance with intended use;

(5) Investigation of the utility of fish farming and the effectiveness of existing fish farms;

(6) Examination of British Columbia and Oregon methods and procedures of rearing salmon with particular emphasis on a comparison of hatchery expenditures, administrative expenditures, and the total fisheries budget;

(7) Examination of the fisheries patrol to discover whether additional personnel would be advantageous to the protection of salmon;

(8) Examination of the research programs now in progress and their benefit in future fisheries programs;

(9) Examination of areas where both federal and state funds can be utilized in a participating manner in regard to state department of fisheries programs;

(10) Determination of what percentage of the budgeted moneys allocated to the state department of fisheries is used for administration;

(11) Whether there is a duplication or overlapping of efforts of departments or divisions of departments of state government in the area of salmon preservation and propagation;

(12) Whether the department of fisheries would be administered more advantageously under a state fisheries commission; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the legislative interim committee on fisheries, if established, and if not the legislative council file a report thereon and its recommendations with the forty-first session of the Washington State Legislature; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the secretary of the senate shall prepare and submit a copy of this senate resolution to the chairman of the legislative interim committee on fisheries or to the executive secretary of the legislative council, as may be appropriate.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the resolution was adopted.

Mr. President:

The Speaker has signed: House Bill No. 513, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 25, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has granted the request of the Senate for a conference on Engrossed House Bill No. 934 and the Senate amendments thereto and the Speaker has appointed as members of the Conference Committee thereon, Representatives Gorton, McCaffree, Sawyer.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: House Bill No. 513.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

The Secretary read:

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 25, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Engrossed Senate Bill No. 468 with the following amendments:

In line 1 of the title of the printed and engrossed bill, after the semicolon, strike the remainder of the title and insert: "providing a limited exemption from the property tax for certain senior citizens; adding new sections to chapter 84.36 RCW; repealing section 2, chapter 168, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 84.36.126; and providing penalties."

Strike all material following the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A person shall be exempt from any legal obligation to pay the first fifty dollars of real property taxes due and payable in any one year if the following conditions are met:

(1) The property taxes must have been imposed upon a residence which has been regularly occupied by the person claiming the exemption during the five calendar years preceding the year for which the exemption is claimed; or the property taxes must have been imposed upon a residence which has been regularly occupied by the person claiming the exemption during the preceding calendar year and the person claiming the exemption must also have been a resident of the state of Washington for the last ten calendar years preceding the year for which the exemption is claimed.

(2) The person claiming the exemption must have owned, at the time of filing, in fee, by contract purchase, or by deed of trust, the residence on which the property taxes have been imposed. For purposes of this subsection, a residence owned by a marital community shall be deemed to be owned by each spouse.

(3) If the person claiming the exemption is a male, he must have been sixty-five years of age or older on February 15th of the year in which the exemption is claimed, or must have been, at the time of filing, totally disabled and as such retired under a public or private retirement plan.

(4) If the person claiming the exemption is a female, she must have been sixty-two years of age or older on February 15th of the year in which the exemption is claimed.

(5) No person who, during the preceding calendar year, has regularly occupied the residence on which the taxes have been imposed shall have received during the preceding calendar year any earnings of the type and amount which would cause any deduction from social security benefits for a recipient of such benefits pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 403: Provided, However, That this subsection shall not apply with respect to an occupant who is related to the person claiming the exemption and who is either a student under the age of twenty-five who is pursuing a full course of studies or who is making payments as a sharing of the expenses of maintaining the residence not in excess of one hundred dollars per month.

(6) The combined income, from all sources whatsoever, of the person claiming the exemption and his or her spouse shall not have been in excess of three thousand dollars for the preceding calendar year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows: For purposes of section 1 of this act:

(1) The term 'residence' shall mean a single family dwelling, including the lot on which the dwelling stands.

(2) The term 'preceding calendar year' shall mean the calendar year preceding the year in which the property taxes for which the exemption is claimed are due and payable.

All claims for exemption shall be made and signed by the person entitled to the exemption, by his or her attorney in fact, or, in the event the residence of such person is under mortgage or purchase contract requiring accumulation of reserves out of which the holder of the mortgage or contract is required to pay real estate taxes, by such holder, either before a notary public or the county assessor or his deputy in the county where the real property is located. Any person signing a false claim shall be subject to perjury.

Claims for exemption shall be made annually and filed between February 15 and April 30 of the year in which the taxes are payable and solely upon forms as prescribed and furnished by the department of revenue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 168, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 84.36.126 are each hereby repealed." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 468.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 468, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington—45.

Absent or not voting: Senators Morgan, Williams, Woodall—3.

Excused: Senator Redmon—1.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 468, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 24, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has concurred in the Senate amendment to page 3, section 7, line 15 to House Bill No. 686, but refuses to concur in the following Senate amendment:

On page 2, section 2, line 3, after "sum of" and before "million" strike "fifty" and insert "thirty" and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and said bill, together with the Senate amendments thereto, are herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the Senate refused to recede from its position on House Bill No. 686 and asked the House for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as Senate members of the Conference Committee on House Bill No. 686, Senators Durkan, Atwood and Ridder.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 722, by Committee on Transportation: Providing for highways, bridges and toll facilities.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 722 on second reading and the motion by Senator Lennart that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senator Keefe was adopted.

Senators Washington, Guess and McCormack demanded a Call of the Senate.

A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senator Redmon who was excused.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Lennart that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senator Keefe was adopted.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

RECONSIDERATION

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Keefe.

On motion of Senator Washington, the amendment by Senator Keefe was laid upon the table.

It was moved by Senator McCutcheon that the following amendment by Senators McCutcheon, Kupka, Rasmussen and Knoblauch be adopted:

On page 12, line 24, strike "La Grande" and insert "Elbe"

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Guess, further consideration of the amendment was deferred until after consideration of all of the proposed amendments to the bill.

It was moved by Senator Kupka that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 33, beginning on line 33, strike all of new section 57 down to and including line 12 on page 34. Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President:

"I raise the point of order that an amendment which accomplished the very same thing was discussed and voted down yesterday."

Senator Kupka:

"Speaking to the point of order, Mr. President, the amendments are different and I will read both of them at this time."

The amendment previously proposed by Senator Durkan and the amendment by Senator Kupka were read again by the Secretary.

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President, I would like to point out that only extraneous language would have been left which would have had no meaning whatsoever if the Durkan amendment had been adopted to Section 57. For all intents and purposes, we disposed of this problem, although the amendment by Senator Kupka appears to be worded differently. I think in a sense it's in the same manner and philosophy as the amendment proposed by Senator Durkan."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President, ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Washington:

"The President is of the opinion that Senator Kupka's amendment does involve a different approach to perhaps the same problem. Therefore, the President rules that the amendment is in order and the point of order presented by Senator Washington is not well taken."

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

At 12:40 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 2:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:30 p.m.

Senators Keefe, Connor and Guess demanded a Call of the Senate.

A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senator Redmon who was excused.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the third order of business.

The Secretary read:

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred Engrossed House Bill No. 387, creating commission to determine feasibility of state participation in World Exposition of 1970., have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that Engrossed House Bill No. 387 be amended to read as follows:

Strike the Senate amendments by the Committee on Commerce, Manufacturing and Licenses and Senator Kupka.

On page 1, section 2, line 16 of the engrossed bill, being line 18 of the printed bill, after "of" and before "members" strike "seven" and insert "nine"

On page 1, section 2, line 22 of the printed bill, being line 20 of the engrossed bill, after "commission," strike all the material down to and including "representatives," on line 26 of the printed bill, being line 23 of the engrossed bill, and insert: "two senators (being one from the senate majority and one from the senate minority) by the president of the senate, who shall also be a member, and two representatives (being one from the house majority and one from the house minority) by the speaker of the house of representatives, who shall also be a member,"

On page 2 of the engrossed bill, following section 3, add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The expenses of the commission incurred under this act shall be paid by the director of commerce and economic development as a proper charge to the state trade fair fund. This amount is not to exceed the sum of forty thousand dollars or as much thereof as may be necessary for the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1969."

In line 3 of the title of the engrossed bill, after "duties" and before the period insert "; and providing for the payment of certain expenses of the commission" and that Engrossed House Bill No. 387 be passed, as amended.

Senate Members:

Martin J. Durkan
Perry B. Woodall
A. L. Rasmussen

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 309 and the motion by Senator Woodall that the Senate do concur in the House amendments thereon.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hanna:

"Mr. President, I raise the point of order at this time that under Rule 62 of the Senate rules, I believe that the amendment as now attached to this bill by the House, and referring specifically to the House amendment which was presented in the House by Representatives Copeland and Day, that the text of that amendment, Mr. President, enlarged the scope and object of this bill and for that reason this bill ought to be referred to the appropriate committee for further action. I would like to speak on the point of order.

"Mr. President, I don't think any of us at this point have any illusions as to what has transpired and what is before the Senate under this special order of business. I have here a copy of Senate Bill No. 309 and I am a prime sponsor of this bill, Mr. President, along with Senator Talley, Senator Foley and Senator Chytil. It was introduced first in the Senate on January 31. I frankly was proud to have been a sponsor of this bill and to have given birth to this child, and my co-sponsors and I sent the youngster on its way. It passed into the appropriate committee, Mr. President and members of the Senate, the Senate Committee on Public Utilities, where it was reviewed by members of the Public Utilities Committee and where it was reared to an additional status. It then passed in the regular order of business into the Senate Committee on Rules and Joint Rules, where it received additional consideration of the seventeen members of the Rules Committee.

"I point out that at neither of these junctures did this bill gain any attention by way of amendments or changes. The bill, in its original purport, was, as Senator Gallagher used to refer to bills, 'a simple little bill,' and indeed it was. It had as its purpose only to allow public utility district commissioners to fix the boundaries of public utility districts.

"But the child, after it passed from the Rules Committee, reached the floor of the Senate and then fell into wayward hands, and it was here that the youngster became delinquent, for it was here that floor amendments were offered which changed the purport of this bill and the amendment that I address myself to was the fact that the bill was then amended to allow county commissioners to make the replacement of vacancies on public utility district boards. I objected at that time to the purport of that amendment because I felt that nonpartisan municipal corporations should keep their nonpartisan nature and this made it political. I objected strenuously at that time. I objected again when the bill came back from the House with additional amendments on it. I attempted to change it so that the public utility district commissioners would have at least an opportunity to replace vacancies. We failed in this in the Senate.

"But nevertheless the bill went on to the House and there it went through various and appropriate committees and the education of the youngster was neglected for quite some length of time. As a matter of fact, at that juncture, being the father of the child, I could care less whether I ever saw him again. But there were other forces who felt apparently that the youngster ought to come back to my doorstep and that of the other sponsors of the bill, and so, lo and behold, in the closing days of this now rather lengthy session, we find ourselves confronted with one of the most vital issues that has ever faced the public power program in the state of Washington, and I refer simply and distinctly to now existing House amendment—the Copeland-Day amendment—which in fact has now brought to this Senate a well publicized and the well argued issue of the so-called right to vote situation.

"In addressing myself particularly to the content of the amendment and to the point of order which we are now discussing, it would seem to me that there is no question under the Senate Rules and under Senate Rule 62, that indeed this simple child is now transformed into somewhat of an entirely different sort of being. I think it's contrary to the rules. I think that it does indeed drastically enlarge the scope and object of this bill, and I think in view of that, Mr. President, that this bill ought to be referred to the appropriate committee, and that in my mind would be the Public Utilities Committee where it was first nurtured. For those reasons certainly the appropriate ruling of the Chair in this regard would be to rule that this has enlarged, as I say quite dramatically and quite essentially the single, sole purpose of Senate Bill No. 309 as it was conceived. Therefore, Mr. President, I would respectfully submit to you that the proper ruling of the Chair would be to refer this bill with the amendments to the Senate Public Utilities Committee."

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President, speaking to the point of order:

"About three days ago in this body there was returned Senate Bill No. 447 of which I was an author and one of the, 'fathers of the act.' This act related to the investments of firemen's pension funds and it merely provided that these funds could be invested in some mutual funds in addition to the areas where they had heretofore been authorized to be invested.

"Coming back from the House and attached to my bill was an amendment which provided that there should be paid a minimum pension of $150 per month. Now there was nothing in the act which left here on how much pension anyone got, but because it had a broad title which said, 'An act relating to firemen in cities and counties,' although the act, itself, had no reference to the amount of pension anyone received, the President ruled that the title was sufficiently broad when the question was raised and that the amendment setting forth minimum pensions quite properly could adhere.

"No quarrel or appeal was taken with that ruling. Now, today, we have a problem in front of us where we have a bill which says, 'An act relating to public utility districts.' That's the title of the bill. Now, the other act said, 'An act relating to firemen,' and we put on a firemen's pension minimum. This time it says, 'An act relating to public utility districts,' and we are now putting on an amendment which says that prior to taking over a private utility by a public utility district, a vote shall be had thereon. I submit to your judgment that the amendment in the firemen's case where we added to a pension fund investment bill a minimum pension for firemen is in the same category as the matter now before us, that you ruled under the broad title, 'An act relating to firemen,' that we could add a minimum pension and I submit to you that the broad title, 'An act relating to public utility districts,' makes proper an amendment which says that the people do have a right to vote prior to the time that the public utility district exercises its powers of condemnation."

Senator Lewis:

"Mr. President:

"I, too, would like to comment and join with Senator Woodall, respectfully, concerning Senate Bill No. 447 which the President ruled on a few days ago. Senate Bill No. 447 had to do with the subject matter of enlargement of investments of the firemen's pension fund. The specific subject matter of the bill had to do with enlargement of investments, and the subject matter of the amendment which the President ruled was germane and did not enlarge the scope and object of the bill had to do with increasing firemen's pensions, so we have a bill, the subject matter of which enlarges investments and the amendment, the subject matter of which increases firemen's pensions.

"Now the bill we have before us by comparison, the subject matter deals with elections and the amendment also deals directly with the subject of elections and so it would be my opinion, Mr. President, that the subject matter of the bill and the amendment in this case are even more closely related than the subject matter of the bill and the subject matter of the amendment in Senate Bill No. 447, and I would respectfully urge you to rule that the amendment is germane."

Senator Talley:

"Mr. President:

"Senate Bill No. 447 had to do with the investment of firemen's pension funds. Now these are firemen's pension funds out of which come the firemen's pensions, and when you set the minimum of what the pension should be, I think it is very germane. That's very different from the P.U.D. bill. There's no comparison in my mind at all."

Senator Hanna:

"Mr. President:

"Again, addressing myself to the point of order, I think you've got the wrong horse, gentlemen. I might agree, Mr. President, speaking on the point of order, if in fact this amendment amended that portion of the public utility districts basic law which had to do with the right of the public utility districts to condemn. The purport of this amendment relates to condemnation proceedings and it might perhaps then be within the scope and object. But if you closely read Senate Bill No. 309, Mr. President, and I am sure you have, I find nothing in Senate Bill No. 309 which would lend itself to the scope and object of this purported amendment. This particular amendment, I think, is clearly beyond the scope and object of the bill and therefore, I again would respectfully submit to the President that the proper place for this bill with this amendment is in the Public Utilities Committee."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President, ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Hanna:

"Engrossed Senate Bill No. 309 pertains to the filling of vacancies on Board of Public Utility District Commissioners and the fixing of boundaries of public utility districts. The House amendment pertains to the procedure which a public utility district must follow in certain condemnation proceedings. The point of order is well taken as the House amendment does increase the scope and object of the bill."

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Woodall that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 309 and the House amendments thereto be referred to the Senate Committee on Rules and Joint Rules.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, point of parliamentary inquiry:

"If a bill is referred to a committee because the issue or point was raised that the amendment enlarged the scope and object of the bill and the Constitution provides that it can not contain more than one subject, and the President has ruled that the scope and object is increased, then if that bill should go to committee—and let us take the Rules Committee—and should again come out of that committee because of pressure in the Rules Committee, would not the scope and object be directly before us again?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lewis:

"Point of order, Mr. President:

"Rule 62 says that the bill shall be referred to the appropriate committee and yesterday when Senator Mardesich made the same motion, the Senate made the determination that the Rules Committee was the appropriate committee. It is my opinion, Mr. President, respectfully, that this point of order raised by Senator Rasmussen should be settled today by the Senate as it was settled yesterday by the Senate on Senator Mardesich's motion."

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, I wasn't raising a point of order. I had a parliamentary inquiry because of the action the other day, and I have no quarrel with whatever the Senate desires to do or where it desires to send the bill. But the very fact that they have sent it to a committee and it comes out again in the same form, that was my question—would not the scope and object of the bill be before us again?"

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"This inquiry is not timely made. It would only be timely when the bill was before the Senate to be acted upon. That is the only time that would become an issue. I don't see any necessity for an indicated ruling at this point or at this juncture."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"Senator Rasmussen and members of the Senate:

"The President believes the remarks made by Senator Woodall are essentially correct, in that the inquiry is not timely. The President believes that in the event the measure is acted upon or studied by the Senate Rules Committee and that committee takes action, at that time the President will try to answer your inquiry."

MOTION

Senator Hallauer:

"Mr. President:

"I move that the motion by Senator Woodall be amended so that the measure be referred to the Committee on Public Utilities."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Henry:

"Mr. President:

"Under Rule 62, in the final paragraph, it says—'shall be referred—' it doesn't say, 'may be,—it says, 'shall be referred to the appropriate committee and take the same course of action as for original bills.' If that be the ruling, then I would respectfully suggest that nobody on the floor of this Senate has ever seen an original bill introduced and referred directly to the Rules Committee. The Rules Committee, quoting on page 276, 'The Committee on Rules and Joint Rules shall have charge of the daily second and third reading calendar of the Senate and shall direct the Secretary of the Senate the order in which the bills shall be considered by the Senate.'

"I respectfully submit that the President has no choice except under Rule 62 to refer this bill to the Committee on Public Utilities and under Rule 62, it would require a suspension of the rules or a two-thirds majority to move it into the Rules Committee."

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"I didn't hear Senator Henry raise that point yesterday on the motion by Senator Mardesich to refer a bill directly to the Rules Committee. The President ruled yesterday that such a motion was in order. Now it can't be in order yesterday and out of order today and the motion yesterday went straight to the Rules Committee, and the President ruled—and I think correctly—that in the absence of a floor motion, it would then go to such committee as you would assign it, but you ruled correctly that anyone from the floor can move that it go to any particular committee and the floor motion was made yesterday and was deemed a proper motion."

Senator Henry:

"I would suggest to Senator Woodall this particular point was not raised yesterday. I don't remember whether I was on the floor or not, but certainly my interest in the bill yesterday was not as profound as my interest today."

Senator Woodall:

"Again, for Senator Henry's information, the point was argued yesterday on the floor and the President ruled."

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President:

"I would like to respectfully point out to the President that the precise point as raised by Senator Henry was presented to the President and the President has now had another rule called to his attention which would certainly require you to review—much as happens in court cases when the Supreme Court sometimes arrives at a decision, and when another decision is called to its attention, it has to construe the problem before it in the light of the precise point presented to it, and Senator Henry has presented a different point of order than the one you ruled on yesterday."

Senator Lewis:

"Mr. President:

"It appears to me that the purpose of our rules in the four sessions that I have been in the legislature—the purpose of the rules and the object of the rules is to enable those of us in the legislature to act upon the issues as expeditiously and properly as we are able. Now historically in the latter days of the session, we have used various devices to expedite the efficiency of the legislature and I think that that is what we are trying to do now.

"Now Senator Hanna used an analogy about, 'his child,' which was lost in the House, I would like to remind all of us that this issue has been very much alive, very much before us during every session that I have been here. This is not a newly pregnant child. This is a love affair that has been going on for many, many years."

Senator Mardesich:

"Mr. President:

"I would like to point out on this point of order that has been raised that there is some distinction between this and an ordinary bill, newly introduced. This is in the form of an amendment from the House, as was the issue yesterday, and certainly no committee could amend that bill. The only action open here is that of concurrence or non-concurrence and the committee report that does come out will have to be worded with the recommendation either that we do concur or do not concur, and so it is not similar to the case of a newly introduced bill, and since it is quite different, I think that the questions are somewhat different here and I merely point that out as a fact which has to be recognized."

MOTION

It was moved by Senator Guess that the motion by Senator Hallauer to amend the motion by Senator Woodall be laid upon the table.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Henry:

"Mr. President:

"I would still like to renew my point of order that Rule 62 says—and it doesn't equivocate—it doesn't say, 'may,' it says, 'shall take the same course as for original bills.'

"Now whether it's for amendments or white, red or blue, it still has to take the same course as original bills. Therefore, it should be referred to that committee and if it is to be removed from that committee, to rescind Rule 62 would take a two-thirds majority."

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President:

"I would point out to Senator Henry that when a bill is read in on second reading, prior to the time the bill is referred to a given committee, a simple majority vote can send it to any committee the body wants. If you wait until it gets referred to some committee, then you have to discharge the committee and that does take a two-thirds majority, but prior to the President referring a given bill to a given committee, the floor is in a position to send any bill to any particular committee and such a motion would be in order."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"The President, ruling upon the point presented by Senator Henry:

"The President rules that when measures are before the Senate for referral, that the Senate often will take action to refer a measure to a certain committee that may be contrary to the one the President had in mind. The President believes that the motion by Senator Woodall is in order. In the interests of orderly procedure, the President feels that placing the positive motion first would be the most orderly. The amendment proposed by Senator Hallauer perhaps could be in order. If the President holds that the motion is in order, then the President feels obliged to place Senator Guess's motion to table your motion to amend, Senator Hallauer."

MOTION

Senator Guess:

"Mr. President:

"I again move that the proposed amendment to the motion by Senator Hallauer be laid upon the table."

Senator Hanna demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Cooney, Dore, Rasmussen, Henry, Talley, McCormack, Williams, Metcalf and Andersen.

The President:

"The demand for the roll call has been sustained. The question before the Senate is the motion that the amendment to the motion by Senator Woodall proposed by Senator Hallauer be laid upon the table. A vote 'aye' in essence will mean that the bill will be referred to the Senate Committee on Rules and Joint Rules. A vote 'no' will mean that the bill will ultimately be referred to the Senate Committee on Public Utilities."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Henry:

"Mr. President, point of order:

"That may be the ultimate result, but I would respectfully submit that if Senator Hallauer's motion is tabled, then we have before this body the motion by Senator Woodall. It isn't an automatic referral."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"That's true. Senator Henry's explanation is much more concise."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion by Senator Guess to lay the proposed amendment by Senator Hallauer to the motion by Senator Woodall on the table was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 23.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Cooney, Faulk, Freise, Greive, Guess, Herr, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Lennart, Lewis, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Stender, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—26.

Those voting nay were: Senators Bailey, Chytil, Connor, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Gissberg, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesch, Morgan, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington—23.

Senators Woodall, Herrmann and Ryder demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Woodall that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 309 and the House amendments thereto be referred to the Senate Committee on Rules and Joint Rules.

Senator Hanna demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Hallauer, Dore, Washington, Morgan, Rasmussen, Peterson (Ted), Guess, Andersen, Redmon and Atwood.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion was carried and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 309 was referred to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 23.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Cooney, Faulk, Freise, Greive, Guess, Herr, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Lennart, Lewis, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Stender, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—26.

Those voting nay were: Senators Bailey, Chytil, Connor, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Gissberg, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Knoblauch, Kupka, McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Morgan, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington—23.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Senate Bill No. 468.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 722, by Committee on Transportation: Providing for highways, bridges and toll facilities.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 722 on second reading and the amendment proposed by Senator Kupka.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Pritchard, the amendment by Senator Kupka was laid upon the table.

On motion of Senator Washington, the Senate resumed consideration of the amendment proposed by Senator McCutcheon.

With leave of the Senate, Senator McCutcheon was permitted to withdraw the amendment.

It was moved by Senator McCutcheon that the following amendment by Senators McCutcheon, Rasmussen, Knoblauch and Kupka be adopted:

On page 5, section 1, following line 23, insert a new subsection (14) to read as follows:

"(14) Secondary State Highway No. 5N from Eatonville, southeasterly to a junction with Primary State Highway No. 5 in the vicinity of Elbe."

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

It was moved by Senator Rasmussen that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 29, section 50, line 18, after "more than" strike "four" and insert "one".

On line 19, after "examination" insert a period and strike the remainder of the section.

On line 22, add chapter....., Laws of 1967.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the amendment was laid upon the table.

It was moved by Senator McCormack that the following amendment by Senators McCormack, Canfield and Freise be adopted:

On page 13, line 6, following section 19, add a new section:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 13, Laws of 1961, and to chapter 47.20 RCW, a new section to read as follows:

Secondary state highway No. 11-1 is established as a branch of primary state highway No. 11 as follows:

Secondary state highway No. 11-1: Beginning at a junction with primary state highway No. 11, northeast of the Pasco airport and thence northwesterly to an extension of the Horn Rapids county road, and thence to a junction with the intersection of secondary state highway No. 3-R and the Horn Rapids county road."

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Bailey that the amendment be laid upon the table.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Kupka:

"Mr. President, I wish to ask Senator McCormack a question:

"What will this project eventually cost the highway department once it is put into effect?"

Senator McCormack:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"Of course I can't answer that question exactly. The study indicated the possibility of four million dollars. I always thought that was too low. I think the figure would be closer to about six million dollars."

Senator Bailey:

"Mr. President, I'd like to ask Senator McCormack another question:

"Did you vote for the gas tax increase?"

Senator McCormack:

"No, Senator, I did not."

Senator Morgan:

"Mr. President, would Senator McCormack yield, please:

"Is this to be a toll bridge?"

Senator McCormack:

"There is no bridge at all involved, no construction involved at all, Senator Morgan. This is simply adding this designation to it. In the future there would be but how it would be done or when would have to be decided."

Senator Morgan:

"What would be the total expenditure, then?"

Senator McCormack:

"I don't know. The reports dealt in terms of about four million dollars, but as I just said, I believe that figure is too low. I think six million would be a closer figure."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, Senator Freise was excused.

Senator McCormack demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Hallauer, Kupka, Hanna, Ridder, Greive, Rasmussen, Mardesich and Henry.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion was carried and the amendment was laid upon the table by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 18; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Foley, Guess, Hallauer, Henry, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe,

On motion of Senator McCormack, the following amendment by Senators McCormack, Canfield and Freise was adopted:

On page 5, section 1 of the engrossed bill, following the Senate Highway Committee amendment adding a new subsection (15), add a new subsection as follows: "(16) A highway beginning at a junction with primary state highway No. 11, N.E. of the Pasco Airport and thence northwesterly to an extension of the Horn Rapids County Road, and thence to a junction with the intersection of secondary state highway No. 3-R and the Horn Rapids County Road."

It was moved by Senator Stender that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 42, beginning on line 25, add new sections to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. The purpose of this act is to transfer to the Washington state highway commission the powers, duties, and functions of the Washington toll bridge authority relating to the Washington state ferry system and make said ferry system an integral part of the highway system of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 73. For the purpose of this act:

- (1) "Department" means the department of highways;
- (2) "Director" means the director of highways;
- (3) "Commission" means the state highway commission;
- (4) "Toll bridge authority" means the Washington toll bridge authority;
- (5) "Ferry system" and "state ferries" means the Washington state ferry system including any ferry owned wholly or in part by the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. The Commission shall exercise all the powers, duties and functions now vested in the toll bridge authority relating in any way to the acquiring, creating, operating, extending, designing, constructing, repairing, and financing of Washington state ferries and toll facility aid districts as set forth in chapters 47.56, 47.57 and 47.60 RCW, whether said ferries shall be operated on fresh water or the waters of Puget Sound. All such powers, duties, and functions of the toll bridge authority are hereby transferred to the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 75. The powers, duties, and functions of the toll bridge authority devolved upon the commission shall be performed by the commission's division of toll facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 76. All bonds issued and outstanding pursuant to bonding authority given the toll bridge authority either alone or in conjunction with any other municipality, county, or agency of the state shall be assumed and paid, together with interest thereon, by the commission from the state highway fund. All future bonding necessary to finance the capital acquisitions of the ferry system shall be issued by the commission pursuant to the powers devolved by this act from the toll bridge authority. All other expenses including maintenance, will hereafter also be assumed and paid by the commission from the state highway fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 77. From and after the effective date of this act, the tolls on all Washington state ferries will be established at a level sufficient only to defray the cost of operating the ferry system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. Any appropriations made to the toll bridge authority respecting the ferry system shall be transferred to and made available to the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. The transfer of powers, duties and functions, as provided in this act, shall not affect the validity of any act performed by the toll bridge authority or any officer or employee thereof prior to the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 80. Upon the effective date of this act, the executive director of the toll bridge authority shall deliver to the department all books, documents, records, papers, files, or other writings; all cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property and all funds in its custody or under its control, used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions so transferred, along with all pending business: Provided, That if the books, documents, records, papers, files and other writings pertaining to the functions transferred by this act to the commission are considered by the executive director of the toll bridge authority to be essential to the performance of duties retained by the authority, the executive director may deliver to the commission certified copies of such books, documents, records, papers, files and other writings."

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Bailey that the amendment by Senator Stender be laid upon the table.

Senator Stender demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Faulk, McCutcheon, Greive, Morgan, Connor, Chytil, Ridder, McCormack, and McMillan.

Debate ensued.

The motion was lost on a rising vote and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendment by Senators Woodall and Uhlman was adopted:

On page 29, section 51, line 28, following section 51 add three new sections as follows:

"Section 52, Section 43, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 46.20.342 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who drives a motor vehicle on any public highway of this state at a time when his privilege so to do is suspended or revoked or when his policy of insurance or bond, when required under this chapter, shall have been canceled or terminated, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor [and] . Upon the first conviction therefor, he shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ten days nor more than six months, five days of which may not be suspended. Upon the second such conviction therefor, he shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ninety days nor more than one year, ninety days of which shall not be suspended. Upon the third such conviction therefor, he shall be punished by imprisonment for one year, no part of which shall be suspended. [and] There may also be imposed in [addition thereto] connection with each such conviction a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

(2) The department upon receiving a record of the conviction of any person under this section upon a charge of driving a vehicle while the license of such person is under suspension shall extend the period of such suspension for an additional like period and if the conviction was upon a charge of driving while a license was revoked the department shall not issue a new license for an additional period of one year from and after the date such person would otherwise have been entitled to apply for a new license.

Sec. 53. Section 1, chapter 24, Laws of 1905, as last amended by section 1, chapter 227, Laws of 1957, and RCW 9.92.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any person shall be convicted of any crime except murder, burglary in the first degree, arson in the first degree, robbery, carnal knowledge of a female child under the age of ten years, or rape, except as provided in section 1 of this 1967 amendatory act, the court may in its discretion, at the time of imposing sentence upon such person, direct that such sentence be stayed and suspended until otherwise ordered by such court, and that the sentenced person be placed under the charge of a parole or peace officer during the term of such suspension, upon such terms as the court may determine: Provided, That as a condition to suspension of sentence, the court may require the convicted person to make such monetary payments, on such terms as the court deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (1) to comply with any order of the court for the payment of family support, (2) to make restitution to any person or persons who may have suffered loss or damage by reason of the commission of the crime in question, and (3) to pay any fine imposed and not suspended and the court or other costs incurred in the prosecution of the case, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required. In no case shall a sentence be suspended under the provisions of this section unless the prisoner if sentenced to confinement in a penal institution be placed under the charge of a parole officer, who is a duly appointed and acting officer of the institution to which the person is sentenced.

Sec. 54. Section 4, chapter 227, Laws of 1957 and RCW 9.95.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The court in granting probation, may, except as provided in section 1 of this 1967 amendatory act, suspend the imposing or the execution of the sentence and may direct that such suspension may continue for such period of time, not exceeding the maximum term of sentence, except as hereinafter set forth and upon such terms and conditions as it shall determine.

The court in the order granting probation and as a condition thereof, may in its discretion imprison the defendant in the county jail for a period not exceeding one year or may fine defendant any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars plus the costs of the action, and may in connection with such probation impose both imprisonment in the county jail and fine and court costs. The court may also require the defendant to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (1) to comply with any order of the court for the payment of family support, (2) to make restitution to any person or persons who may have suffered loss or damage by reason of the commission of the crime in question, and (3) to pay such fine as may be imposed and court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, and may require bonds for the faithful observance of any and all conditions imposed in the probation. The court shall order the probationer to report to the board of prison terms and paroles or such officer as the board may designate and as a condition of said probation to follow implicitly the instructions of the board of prison terms and paroles. The board of prison terms and paroles will promulgate rules and regulations for the conduct of such person during the term of his probation."

Renumber remaining sections consecutively.

On motion of Senator Woodall, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 16, section 30, line 3, after "amended" add the following ": Provided. That this section shall not apply to disabled vehicles"

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

FORTY-NINTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Thursday, April 27, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Cooney, Freise and McCormack.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senators Cooney and McCormack were excused.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Freise was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Robert Lisk, Color Bearer, and Debbie Parks, presented the Colors.

Reverend Walter A. MacArthur, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"God of all grace, Whose dwelling place is light without the shadow of our earthborn clouds, we, who at our best, see as through a glass darkly, come seeking the radiance of Thy presence.

"As we bow at our altar of daily renewal, may a holy hush within our spirits whisper words of courage, fortitude and fidelity.

"Prosper us this day in our work. When, in these closing days of this significant session, we have done faithfully the work given our hands to do, even though some may misjudge our aim, in quietness and in confidence, may we leave the result to Thy unerring judgment. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1967 EX - 52

By Senator Gissberg:

Whereas, The solicitation and use of contributions from the public for real and purported charitable purposes is a multi-million dollar activity in the state of Washington and a matter of broad public concern; and

Whereas, Some charitable foundations through policies of nondisclosure and through high administrative salaries and costs are tending to lessen public confidence in charitable causes; and

Whereas, A growing number of false and borderline solicitations for alleged charitable purposes are reported to exist in this state and throughout the nation; and

Whereas, A number of states have enacted laws regulating such solicitations in some manner, and the absence of such legislation in the state of Washington may become an increasing hazard; and

Whereas, The practical and legal aspects of this matter are complex and confusing,
Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the legislative council is directed to conduct an interim study on this subject, to consider the provisions of Senate Bill 560 and House Bill 443 and such other measures as may have been introduced relating to this subject and report its recommendations to the forty-first legislature.

On motion of Senator Gissberg, the resolution was adopted.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, April 26, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to advise that Governor Evans has approved the following Senate Bills, entitled:

Senate Bill No. 519:

Stipulating damages which may be awarded to parent in actions for injury or death of child.

Senate Bill No. 282:

Limiting amount of credit life insurance under a group policy.

Senate Bill No. 194:

Raising minimum wage.

Very truly yours,

Raymond W. Haman,

Legal Counsel to the Governor.

GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 10, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Member, State Parks and Recreation Commission, subject to your confirmation:

Wilfred Woods, appointed December 31, 1966, for a term ending December 31, 1972, succeeding James Hovis.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS,

Governor.

It was moved by Senator Hanna that the rules be suspended and the appointment of Wilfred Woods to the position of member of the State Parks and Recreation Commission, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hanna:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to be able to speak on behalf of the appointment of Wilfred Woods as a member of the State Parks and Recreation Commission. Wilfred Woods, as you know, is the publisher of the Wenatchee Daily World which is now and has been a daily paper published in Wenatchee and has for many, many years in the past history supported recreation programs and the betterment of the state of Washington and the progress of the state of Washington. He comes from a very rich tradition of people who are interested in matters of this kind. His father, Rufus Woods, former publisher of the Wenatchee Daily World, was one of the leading exponents in the building of the Grand Coulee Dam, and Wilfred has followed in that same tradition. He has shown extreme interest in matters of water resources and, as I say, in matters of community affairs. Many of you served in the House of Representatives with his aunt, former State Representative Eva Anderson, who still is extremely active politically and who follows with interest the affairs of the state and the legislature.

"I am extremely happy and proud to ask the Senate today to confirm the appointment of Wilfred Woods to this position."

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I want to just confirm the statements of Senator Hanna. Wilfred has a real knowledge of the recreational potentials and problems that need to be solved not only in the Chelan and Cascade area but as far as the Columbia Basin is concerned, and his appointment was uniformly greeted with approval. I heartily endorse Senator Hanna's statements and believe that you will vote for his confirmation."

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I would like to concur in the remarks of Senator Hanna and Senator Washington. Wilfred Woods is one of the real staunch supporters of outdoor recreation in our state and I urge everyone to confirm him."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF WILFRED WOODS

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Wilfred Woods to the position of member of the State Parks and Recreation Commission, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 3.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Donohue, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—42.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, Peterson (Lowell), Ridder, Williams—4.

Excused Senators Cooney, Freise, McCormack—3.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of Wilfred Woods to the position of member of the State Parks and Recreation Commission was confirmed.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 26, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has granted the request of the Senate for a conference on House Bill No. 686 and the Senate amendment thereto and the Speaker has appointed as members of the Conference Committee thereon, Representatives Brouillet, Gladder, Murray, Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 26, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House adopted the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 133 and has passed the bill with the Senate amendments.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 26, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 202, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Olympia, Wash., April 27, 1967.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred Engrossed House Bill No. 202:

Granting administrative powers to the state arts commission and authorizing employment of an executive secretary and other assistants, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the attached bill be substituted therefor and that it do pass.

An Act relating to the Washington state arts commission; amending section 43.46.020, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.46.020; amending section 43.46.030, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.46.030; and adding new sections to chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 43.46 RCW.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 43.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The commission may develop, promote and administer any activity, project, or program within or without this state which is related to the growth and development of the arts and humanities in the state of Washington and may cooperate with any person or public or private agency to this end.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 43.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The commission may select and employ a full time executive secretary, who shall receive no other salary and shall not be otherwise gainfully employed. Subject to the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, the commission may also employ such clerical and other assistants as may be reasonably required to carry out its functions and shall fix their compensation.

Sec. 3. Section 43.46.020, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.46.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established a Washington state arts commission. The commission shall be composed of twenty-one members appointed by the governor. Two members shall be members of the legislature, one to be appointed from the senate and one to be appointed from the house of representatives. The legislative members so appointed shall be from opposite major political parties. The remaining members shall be appointed representing the various categories of the arts including architecture, painting, sculpture, music, landscape architecture, crafts, literature, graphic arts, theatre arts and dance. The governor shall consider nominations for membership from architectural, art, music, literary and other cultural organizations. Members shall be selected where practicable from the various geographical areas of the state.

Sec. 4. Section 43.46.030, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.46.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Initial appointments shall be seven members for one year terms, seven members for two year terms and seven members for three year terms. The office of a legislative member shall become vacant whenever he ceases to be a member of the senate or house of representatives from which he was appointed. Subsequent appointments shall be for three year terms except appointments for vacancies which shall be for unexpired terms.

Senate Members:

Wes C. Uhlman
Robert W. Twigg
August P. Mardesich

House Members:

Jonathan Whetzel
David G. Sprague
Donald H. Brazier, Jr.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the report of the Free Conference Committee was ordered printed and placed upon the members desks.

On motion of Senator Durkan, further consideration of the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 202 was deferred until copies of the report could be printed and distributed to the Senate.

The Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILLS AND RESOLUTION

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 713, by Committee on Transportation:

Making appropriations for operations and capital improvements of highway commission and toll bridge authority.

On motion of Senator Washington, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 713 was ordered to retain its place at the end of the second reading calendar for today.

Engrossed House Bill No. 8, by Representatives O'Brien, Copeland and Gorton (by Legislative Council request):

Providing for committees of the legislative council, revising expense and voucher procedure, and authorizing special committee members.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Engrossed House Bill No. 8 was ordered to retain its place on second reading immediately following consideration of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 15.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 15, by Senators Sandison, Ryder, McCormack, Hallauer and Lewis:

Providing for continuation of the temporary advisory council on public higher education.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 15 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 27, 1967.

Mr. President:

The Speaker has signed: Senate Bill No. 468, and the same is herewith transmitted.
Malcolm McBeath, Chief Clerk.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 27, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 387 and has passed the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee.
Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate resumed consideration of the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 202.

It was moved by Senator Uhlman that the report of the Free Conference Committee be adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield:

"Mr. President, would Senator Uhlman yield to a question:
"Senator Uhlman, what is the approximate cost of this bill as now amended?"

Senator Uhlman:

"There is no appropriation in this bill at all, Senator. The appropriation has already been agreed to and built into the budget bill and has now been signed I believe by all six conferees, so that will not have an impact as far as this bill is concerned."

Senator Canfield:

"Is the amount $5,000 a biennium?"

Senator Uhlman:

"It has been $5,000 in the past but this year the arts commission prevailed upon the Governor and the budget committee to increase the appropriation so they can do a more meaningful job, but that really has nothing to do at all with this particular bill."

Senator Canfield:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield to a question:
"Senator Durkan, what is the financial impact of this bill as you understand it at the present time?"

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:
"We took the Governor's figures as he recommended them to us."

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the report of the Free Conference Committee was adopted.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 202 as amended by the Free Conference Committee and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 6; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—42.

Absent or not voting were: Senators Hallauer, Herr, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Sandison—6.

Excused: Senator Freise—1.

Engrossed House Bill No. 202 as amended by the Free Conference Committee having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Washington, Huntley, Bailey and Ryder to escort Senator James E. Keefe to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President:

"Esteemed members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen:

"It is a rare privilege for the President to have the opportunity to present to you at this time a descendant of his old friend, President George Washington. At this time the President should like to present to you, Senator Nat Washington, chairman of the Senate committee on highways."

Senator Washington:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"We are commemorating for the first time the removal of a contract by the legislature after it has once been entered into. Of course, it is unconstitutional to ever interfere with the performance of a contract, yet our esteemed Senator from Spokane has achieved that earth-shattering feat in his motion and amendment to take out the concrete barriers on Division Avenue in Spokane. Of course they had already been laid and were a part of the contract duly and legally entered into. We felt that this earth-shattering performance on the part of Senator Keefe did have behind it a real parliamentary move. It showed his persuasive ability before the Senate in getting this august body to accept such an earth-shaking precedent, doing what they did. Only by great effort the following day when the facts and figures were finally presented were we able to overcome the silver tongued oratory on the part of our great champion from Spokane. At this time in showing our appreciation to him we have a portion of that great concrete barrier that may achieve a fame comparable to that of the Wall of China. We are giving him this concrete block at this time and it is something I know that he will always cherish for the rest of his life."

Senator Keefe:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"I'm overwhelmed and I know I will take this back home with me where the people will probably erect a monument to me on Division Avenue. I hope the Lord takes a liking to you, but not too soon.

"Thank you."

Senator Washington:

"I might add that it was with much quaking that the highway department heard of the action taken by the Senate that they thought surely this was going to be signed by the Governor and they actually started to remove the concrete, so we had this flown over to give to you today."

The committee of honor came forward and escorted Senator Keefe from the rostrum.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 27, 1967.

Mr. President:

The Speaker has signed: House Bill No. 133, and the same is herewith transmitted.
Malcolm McBeath, Chief Clerk.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 25, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 630, and has passed the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and said report together with the bill are herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Olympia, Wash., April 23, 1967.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred Engrossed Senate Bill No. 630, Creating a board of ethics in each house of the legislature, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the attached bill be substituted therefor and that it do pass.

An Act creating boards of legislative ethics; prescribing powers, duties and functions; providing procedures in relation thereto; and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Definition of terms:

(1) "Legislator" means a current member of the senate or house of representatives of the state of Washington. The term shall include an appointee to either house.

(2) "Board" or "board of ethics" means the senate board of legislative ethics or the house board of legislative ethics, created by this act, or the joint board, whichever is appropriate.

(3) "Unethical conduct" means any conduct which constitutes a violation of chapter 42.21 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, or of any other constitutional provision, statute, rule or joint rule prescribing standards of conduct or a code of ethics for legislators.

(4) "Legislative employee" means any person employed by either house on a temporary or permanent basis as well as any employee of a permanent or interim legislative committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is created within each house of the legislature a board of legislative ethics composed of eight members. Prior to the close of the present session of the legislature the respective chairmen of the majority and minority senate caucuses shall each appoint two senators from their own caucus and in addition thereto shall each appoint two persons who are not active members of the legislature to serve as lay members of the senate board, and the eight members so selected shall constitute the senate board of ethics; and the respective chairmen of the majority and minority caucuses in the house of representatives shall each appoint two members from their own caucus and in addition thereto shall each appoint two persons who are not active members of the legislature to serve as lay members of the house board, and the eight members so selected shall constitute the house board of ethics. All such appointments of legislative and lay members shall be subject to the consent of the caucus wherein the appointment is made. The terms of legislative members shall be until they are no longer a member of the legislature or until their successors are appointed, whichever is sooner, and the terms of lay members shall be until their successors are appointed; and no member shall be removed during his term except for cause. Successors to legislative and lay members shall be appointed on the day on which the next succeeding regular session of the legislature shall adjourn Sine Die: Provided, That if prior to such adjournment Sine Die, the governor shall have proclaimed an extraordinary session of the legislature, the appointments shall not be made until the day on which such extraordinary session shall adjourn Sine Die. Legislative and lay members shall both be eligible for reappointment. Vacancies in the position of legislative or lay members shall be filled by the same appointing power and in the same manner as for the member vacating. The members of each board shall elect as chairman a legislator member thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of the respective boards of ethics created by this act shall be strictly limited to the consideration of the conduct of the members of its own house and the conduct of employees of its own house.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Each lay member appointed by the respective caucus chairmen shall within thirty days after his appointment sign and file an affidavit with the secretary of the senate or the chief clerk of the house of representatives, whichever is appropriate, that during his term of office he will not engage in any legislative activity designed to defeat or enhance the passage of any legislative bill or measure. Upon the failure of a lay member to sign and file an affidavit as required by this section, the chairman of the board to which he was appointed shall declare his seat vacant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The boards may meet as frequently as they deem necessary, whether or not the legislature is in session. For attendance at meetings during the interim or in attending to other business of his board during the interim, each legislative member shall be entitled to the allowances provided for in RCW 44.04.120, and each lay member shall be entitled to twenty-five dollars per diem and a travel allowance of ten cents per mile from funds appropriated for that purpose.

All expenses incurred by a board or any member thereof shall be paid upon voucher forms as provided by the budget director and signed by the chairman of the board or his designee: Provided, That vouchers for the expenses of the joint board shall be signed by the chairman of the legislative council and attested by the chairman of the joint board.

A majority of a board shall constitute a quorum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The boards jointly shall:

(1) Prepare for the adoption by the forty-first legislature a code of ethics to govern the conduct of the members and employees thereof, and may from time to time present to the legislature amendments or revisions to the code. The code of ethics shall follow the following principles: In private transactions, or activities involving an economic benefit to himself, and in the exercise of official responsibility, a legislator should avoid (a) action which destroys his independence of judgment as a legislator, (b) involves undue influence upon any state agency, court, or governmental subdivision, or (c) constitutes an abuse of his official position or a violation of his trust.

The code, and each revision or amendment thereto, shall be prepared in the form of joint rules of the senate and the house of representatives and shall be submitted in the form of a concurrent resolution at the commencement of the forty-first session of the legislature, and any revision or amendment thereto shall be submitted at the next session of the legislature following its preparation. Such code, or revision or amendment thereof, when adopted, shall become effective as standards of conduct for the members and employees of the legislature.

For the purpose of complying with the provisions of this section, the joint board shall select a chairman who may be either a legislator member or a lay member, a vice chairman and a secretary; and meetings of the joint board shall be called by the chairman when deemed necessary for the performance of the duties of the joint board.

The code submitted to the legislature for adoption shall be approved by a majority of the members of the joint board.

(2) To recommend other legislation and other action relating to legislative ethics.

(3) Investigate possible unethical conduct of employees of legislative interim committees in the same manner as hereafter specified for employees of one house.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Each board shall have the following powers, duties and functions:

(1) Upon the request of any member of its own house or whenever in a board's judgment the public interest requires, to render advisory opinions with regard to questions arising under the code of legislative ethics or statutes governing legislative ethics or conduct, or other issues involving legislative ethics. Such advisory opinions, with such deletions and changes as shall be necessary to protect the identity of the persons involved or seeking them, shall be published by the board periodically.

(2) Whenever in a board's judgment the public interest requires, to investigate possible unethical conduct by one or more members of its own house or by a legislative employee of its own house as to violations of the code of legislative ethics or statutes governing legislative ethics. Any such investigation shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) When the conduct of a particular legislator or legislative employee is under investigation, and a board decides to hold a hearing thereon, such legislator or legislative employee shall receive at least thirty days' written notice of the matters under investigation, and shall be entitled to present evidence, cross-examine witnesses and be represented by counsel.

(b) Because hearings conducted by a board may, in some cases, involve alleged misconduct by particular legislators or legislative employees, the board shall hold hearings in closed session and the fact that hearings are being held or are to be held shall also be regarded as confidential information. However, any legislator or legislative employee who has received a notice of hearing under the terms of subparagraph (a) above, may advise the board that he elects that such hearing be public and the board shall be bound by the election if such election was made in writing and formally presented to the chairman of the board not less than seven days prior to the date set for the hearing.

(c) A board may designate a subcommittee of the board to conduct hearings. The board, or if designated thereby, any member or subcommittee of the board, may issue subpoenas for the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence relating to any matter under examination by the board or involved in any hearing, administer oaths or affirmations, examine witnesses and receive evidence. In case of disobedience to a subpoena, the board may invoke the aid of any superior court of the state. Such court may, in case of refusal to obey a subpoena issued to such person, issue an order requiring such person to appear before the board, or to produce documentary evidence, or to give evidence, and any failure to obey such order may be punished by that court as contempt. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, every public official, state agency, and local governmental unit shall furnish to the board any documents, records, data, statements or information which the board designates as being necessary for the exercise of its functions, powers or duties.

(d) Members of a board shall disqualify themselves in any case involving a legislator or legislative employee whom they cannot judge impartially. No finding of unethical conduct on the part of any legislator shall be valid unless signed by at least two-thirds of the members of the board who have not disqualified themselves.

(e) All testimony, documents, records, data, statements or information received by a board in the course of any investigation shall be held private and confidential except in the course of a public hearing. If the board shall make a finding of unethical conduct, it shall transmit its findings and recommendations as provided in subsection (f) of this section.

(f) Whenever a board finds that a legislator or legislative employee has engaged in unethical conduct, the board shall report its findings and recommendations directly to the rules committee of its own house, or to such other officer or committee as may be provided in the rules of such house, for such action as may be appropriate. The report shall include a recommendation as to whether the findings should remain confidential or become a matter of public record. A copy of the report shall be sent, by registered mail, to the legislator or legislative employee under investigation. The board shall notify the appropriate law enforcement agency directly if the board makes a finding that it has reasonable grounds to believe that a criminal violation of chapter 42.21 RCW or chapter 9.18 RCW has occurred.

(3) To provide a continuing program of education, assistance, and information to legislators with regard to legislative ethics.

(4) To make such rules for its own functioning and exercise such powers as may be appropriate for the discharge of the responsibilities of the board not in conflict with this act or the joint rules of the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The legislative council shall provide necessary staff services to the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Nothing contained in this act shall prevent the discharge of any legislative employee without recourse to the provisions hereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Senate Members:

Fred H. Dore
James Andersen
William A. Gissberg

House Members:

Thomas A. Swayze
William S. Day
Norwood Cunningham

It was moved by Senator Dore that the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 630 be adopted.

Debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McMillan:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I wish to take this opportunity to congratulate Senator Dore on his interest and his unflagging zeal which he has displayed not only at this session but the 1965 session as well to bring an ethics bill before the Senate. Now we have read in the newspapers throughout this session that people were disturbed about the ethics of the Senate. I read there was a group of young people around Seattle that felt if we didn't do something, they were going to. They were going to present to the citizens of this state that we were lax and that we were not anxious to have a standard of ethics, that we wanted to deal in an underhanded way with the people of the state, that we wanted to come to Olympia and make money personally. Now I think this is an excellent effort on the part of Senator Dore. The other day we had the amendment presented by the Senator from Yakima regarding punitive damages that would be sustained or inflicted on lobbyists who exceeded the standards of propriety and bribed legislators and submitted false expense accounts to the detriment of Senators or Representatives that had not been beneficiaries of these expenses that they listed for their employers. I voted for that amendment and I didn't do it in a manner to discredit Senator Dore because I thought it was a good amendment. I don't think any of the activities of Senator Dore in regard to this bill or any other bill have been prompted by any other thought or action but that of good ethical standards, and I wish to so state that is my position."

The motion was carried and the report of the Free Conference Committee was adopted.

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred Engrossed House Bill No. 934, implementing law putting additional limitations on regular property tax revenue, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the attached substitute bill do pass.

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; amending sections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, chapter 174, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 84.54.010, 84.54.020, 84.54.030, 84.54.040 and 84.54.050; amending section 36.21.011, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.21.011; adding a new section to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 84.40 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 174, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and to chapter 84.54 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 174, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 84.54.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) The term "regular property tax levy" shall mean the [revenues from] total dollar amount of all property tax levies on property in the taxing district, excluding excess levies levied under the provisions of Article VII, section 2 of the Constitution of the state of Washington and chapter 84.52 RCW, excluding levies for bond debt retirement, and excluding levies pursuant to RCW 53.36.100;

(2) [The term "regular property tax revenue" shall mean the total dollar amount received by the taxing district from its regular property tax levy;

[(3)] The term "revalue" or "revalued" shall mean such changes as are made on the county assessor's valuation of the property because of changes pertaining to the particular property including, but not limited to, construction improvements, other changes in value, and similar changes made as to the property or properties in the immediate area;

[(4)] (3) The term "taxing district" shall mean any taxing district as defined in RCW 84.04.120 except the state of Washington.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 174, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 84.54.020 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the other limitations provided by law, a taxing district's regular property tax [revenue shall be limited so that the taxing district's total amount of regular property tax revenues from taxes levied] levy in any year [and] for taxes payable in the following year shall not exceed the [sum] total of the following:

(1) The. [total dollar amount of] regular property tax [revenues] levy in that taxing district [from taxes levied] in the preceding year [and] for taxes payable in the current year [including in the case of a school district the revenues derived by the state from any property tax for the support of common schools levied upon property located within such school district];

(2) A [An additional] dollar amount calculated by multiplying the net increase or decrease of assessed value in that taxing district resulting from the appraisal and valuation of property improved, constructed, or revalued, and resulting from the addition of property in areas annexed, during the period from March 2 of the preceding year to March 1 of the current year such assessed value to be at the same assessment rate as utilized in the preceding year by the [property tax levy] maximum millage rate of that taxing district authorized by law for taxes levied the preceding year [.] ;

(3) An additional dollar amount calculated by multiplying the excess of the maximum millage as authorized by this 1967 amendatory act for such taxing district (plus in the case of cities and towns the additional millage required to be levied pursuant to RCW 41.16.060) over the millage for the regular property tax levy of that taxing district for taxes levied the preceding year by the total assessed valuation of the property as of March 1 of the preceding year;

(4) And an additional dollar amount, in the case of a county, representing the increased and additional costs to be expended by the county assessor [in the year the taxes are payable] to enable the county assessor of that county to carry out any program of assessments, appraisal and valuation of property within the county required by the Constitution or laws of the state.

Unless the maximum regular property tax levy is otherwise altered as authorized by RCW 84.54.050 as amended in section 5 of this 1967 amendatory act, the maximum millage rate shall be determined by dividing the total [authorized] dollar amount authorized by this section by the assessed valuation.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 174, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 84.54.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The maximum [millage rate] regular property tax levy for (a) taxing districts created by or resulting from incorporations, and (b) existing taxing districts whose levies are subject to the forty mill limit set forth in RCW 84.52.050 and which either in 1964 levied less than the maximum millage authorized by law, or made no levy for the previous year shall for the first tax year for which a levy is made, after the adoption of this 1967 amendatory act [be computed in the following manner:

For taxing districts created by incorporations, the maximum millage rate authorized pursuant to this chapter shall equal the total dollar amount of assessed valuation multiplied by a millage rate to be determined by multiplying the maximum millage rate authorized by RCW 84.52.050 for such taxing district (plus in the case of cities and towns the additional millage required to be levied pursuant to RCW 41.16.060) [times] by the quotient of the maximum millage rate for general county purposes of the county in which [the new] such taxing district is located determined as provided in RCW 84.54.020 as amended in section 2 of this 1967 amendatory act, divided by the maximum millage rate authorized by RCW 84.52.050 for general county purposes: Provided, That in the event the taxing district is located in more than one county, then the maximum millage rate of the county affected having the highest maximum millage rate under this chapter, shall be used to determine this quotient.

For the purposes of this [sub] section all millage rates and authorized levies used for making these computations shall be for the same tax year.

In succeeding tax years the maximum regular property tax [revenue] levy shall be limited to that which is authorized by RCW 84.54.020 as amended in section 2 of this 1967 amendatory act or which may be authorized by RCW 84.54.050 as amended in section 5 of this 1967 amendatory act.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 174, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 84.54.040 are each amended to read as follows:

[In the event of] The maximum regular property tax levy for taxing districts created by or resulting from merger or consolidation [, the merged or consolidated taxing district's regular property tax revenue] shall for the first tax year be determined by combining the regular property tax [revenue and any increases of assessed value of] levies for the previous year for the component taxing districts, and applying to such combined [values] levies the computations prescribed by RCW 84.54.020 as amended in section 2 of this 1967 amendatory act: Provided, That for the purposes of determining the additional dollar amount of increases in assessed value required by RCW 84.54.020(2) as amended in section 2 of this 1967 amendatory act, in the event that the actual millage rates levied in the previous year in the component taxing districts are not equal, then the highest actual millage rate levied by a component taxing district shall be used.

In succeeding tax years the maximum regular property tax [revenue] levy shall be limited to that which is authorized by RCW 84.54.020 as amended by section 2 of this 1967 amendatory act, unless otherwise altered as authorized by RCW 84.54.050 as amended by section 5 of this 1967 amendatory act.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 174, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 84.54.050 are each amended to read as follows:

[Notwithstanding] The limitations set forth in RCW 84.54.020, 84.54.030, and 84.54.040 as each are amended in this 1967 amendatory act [, the regular property tax revenues of a district may be increased,] shall not prevent a regular property tax levy in excess of the amount a taxing district is permitted to levy thereby, subject to the limitations of the provisions of Article VII, section 2, of the Constitution of the state of Washington and RCW 84.52.050, when authorized by a proposition approved by a majority of the voters of the taxing district voting on the proposition at a general election held within the taxing district, or at a special election of the taxing district held at the time of a state general election, or at the time of a general election of a city or town in which said taxing district is wholly included. [The proposition so voted on shall also state the estimated millage rate proposed. Thereafter the new amount fixed at such election shall be used to compute the maximum amount permitted as such taxing district's regular property tax revenue as provided in RCW 84.54.020 unless such increase is limited for a specified number of years or such amount is subsequently increased or decreased pursuant to this section.] The maximum amount permitted as a taxing district's regular property tax levy as provided in RCW 84.54.020 as amended in section 2 of this 1967 amendatory act shall be increased to the extent that the regular property tax levy fixed at such election is utilized by the taxing district in the fixing of an actual millage rate. Thereafter the maximum regular property tax levy shall be computed as provided in this chapter based upon such increased maximum.

NEW SECTION. Sec 6. There is added to chapter 174, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and to chapter 84.54 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any proposition to be voted upon increasing the regular property tax revenue shall set forth on the ballot in terms of dollars the amount of the last levied regular property tax revenue and the proposed increased amount of same together with an estimate of the millage that will be required to produce the increased dollar amount. Except for those elections where the proposition and ballot submitted to the voters complied with these requirements, no election to authorize an increase in the regular property tax levy held prior to the effective date of this 1967 amendatory act shall be taken to permit a levy in 1968 in excess of that permitted by subsections (1), (2) and (4) of section 2 of this 1967 amendatory act.

Any assessor who deems it necessary to enable him to complete the listing and the valuation of the property of his county within the time prescribed by law, (1) may appoint one or more well qualified [citizens of his county] persons to act as his assistants or deputies; and each such assistant or deputy so appointed shall, under the direction of the assessor, after taking the required oath, perform all the duties enjoined upon, vested in or imposed upon assessors, and (2) may contract with any persons, firms or corporations, [regardless of their residence,] who are expert appraisers, to assist in the valuation of property.

To assist each assessor in obtaining adequate and well qualified assistants or deputies, the state department of personnel, after consultation with the Washington state association of county assessors, the Washington state association of county commissioners and the department of revenue, shall establish by July 1, 1967, and shall thereafter maintain, a classification and salary plan for those employees of an assessor who act as appraisers. The plan shall recommend the salary range and employment qualifications for each position encompassed by it, and shall, to the fullest extent practicable, conform to the classification plan, salary schedules and employment qualifications for state employees performing similar appraisal functions.

If an assessor intends to put such plan into effect in his county, he shall inform the department of revenue and the board of county commissioners of this intent in writing. The department of revenue and the board may thereupon each designate a representative, and such representative or representatives as may be designated by the department of revenue or the board, or both, shall form with the assessor a committee. The committee so formed may, by unanimous vote only, determine the required number of certified appraiser positions and their salaries necessary to enable the county assessor to carry out the requirements relating to revaluation of property in chapter 84.41 RCW. The determination of the committee shall be certified to the board of county commissioners. The committee provided for herein may be formed only once in a period of four calendar years.

After such determination, the assessor may provide, in each of his four next succeeding annual budget estimates, for as many positions as are established in such determination. Each board of county commissioners to which such a budget estimate is submitted shall allow sufficient funds for such positions. An employee may be appointed to a position covered by the plan only if the employee meets the employment qualifications established by the plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 174, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and to chapter 84.54 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Chapter 84.54 RCW as amended by this 1967 amendatory act shall not apply to any school district: Provided, However, That no school district may make a regular property tax levy in excess of an amount that would be produced by a levy of fourteen mills multiplied by an assessed valuation equal to twenty-five percent of the true and fair value of the taxable property in such school district, as determined by the department of revenue's indicated county ratio.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 174, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and to chapter 84.54 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No election held pursuant to RCW 84.54.050 as amended in section 5 of this 1967 amendatory act, whether the election is held before or after the effective date of this 1967 amendatory act, shall be valid to authorize a regular property tax levy which would produce more revenue than would be produced by a levy of the number of mills available to the taxing district under statutes other than chapter 84.54 RCW as amended in this 1967 amendatory act multiplied by an assessed valuation equal to twenty-five percent of the true and fair value of the taxable property in the taxing district as determined by the department of revenue's indicated county ratio.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 84.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

On or before June 15 of each year the assessor shall give notice of any change in the true and fair value of real property for the tract or lot of land and any improvements thereon.

The notice shall contain a statement of the true and fair value on which the assessment of the property is based, and a brief statement of the procedure for appeal to the board of equalization and the time, date, and place of the meetings of the board.

The notice shall be mailed by the assessor to the taxpayer and a copy thereof shall be sent by the assessor to the legal owner of the property, if such is different from the taxpayer and the name and address are known to the assessor.

A legal owner may submit his or its name and address to the assessor, indicating therewith the property owned by the legal owner and requesting that a copy of the notice be mailed to the legal owner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 934 was adopted.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 934 as amended by the Free Conference Committee and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—44.

Those voting nay were: Senators Greive, Lennart, McCutcheon—3.

Absent or not voting were: Senators Hallauer, Kupka—2.

Engrossed House Bill No. 934 as amended by the Free Conference Committee having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

On motion of Senator Gissberg, Engrossed House Bill No. 934 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

There being no objection, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF RESOLUTION

The following was introduced, read first time by title and acted upon as indicated:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26, by Senators Washington, Dore, Stender, Morgan, Ridder, Williams, Uhlman and Pritchard:

Authorizing joint committee on highways to study mass transportation and use of hovercraft.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended to permit additional names as sponsors to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the resolution placed on final passage.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess:

"Mr. President, would Senator Washington yield to a question:

"Can you tell me, Senator Washington, where the highway department is going to get the money to make these studies?"

Senator Washington:

"The studies will be made with the use of motor vehicle funds through the joint committee on highways on the general theory, which of course can be subject to a court test, that there is a division. The studies will be particularly in the field of mass transportation where many of these facilities are also utilized by the Highway Department. I think in order for the Highway Department to properly plan, it also has to know something about the related fields of mass transportation. Now we get to another question as to whether or not motor vehicle funds can be used in the construction of mass transportation. I think there is a decided difference, that this is a different question from whether or not you can use motor vehicle funds to study this problem because it is so closely intertwined. It's like Shakespeare's Shylock, whether you can separate the blood from the flesh. I don't think you can. For this reason, I think a study using motor vehicle funds for mass transit or for the use of hovercraft is in order."

Senator Guess:

"Senator Washington, I would like to read a section from the Constitution and at the conclusion of the reading of the first paragraph of this section from the Constitution, I would like to ask a question. Senator Washington, Article II, Section 40 of the 18th Amendment reads as follows: 'All fees collected by the state of Washington as license fees for motor vehicles and all excise taxes collected by the state of Washington on the sale, distribution or use of motor vehicle fuel and all other state revenue intended to be used for highway purposes shall be paid into the state treasury and placed in a special fund to be used exclusively for highway purposes.'

"Now, Senator Washington, the use of these funds which have been going into the treasury for the exclusive use of highway purposes, by your resolution will be diverted from the purpose intended by the Constitution. Are you fully aware of the language of the Constitution?"

Senator Washington:

"Yes, I am fully aware of the language of the Constitution and I believe as I pointed out that there is a difference in studying this subject which is so closely intertwined with highway activity. To properly plan for highways, you have to thoroughly know and understand the possibilities of mass transportation in order to avoid duplication and in order to find out where you can feasibly duplicate or use the same facilities for highway transportation and mass transportation, and thereby save money for the highway fund. I want to make it clear that at this stage I feel that there is a real distinction between the use of funds for studies as we have proposed in this resolution and the use of the funds for the actual construction. I recognize your point of view and I recognize the point that the court is probably going to have to undertake this. They are going to have to make a decision and this resolution may be the vehicle for a very much needed court test. For that reason I would urge the passage of the resolution and perhaps sometime some highway user may bring it into court and get the matter determined once and for all."

Debate ensued.

Senator McCutcheon:

"Mr. President, would Senator Washington yield:

"Senator Washington, could this be used as a vehicle by the committee studying it to get a declaratory judgment out of the supreme court as to whether or not what Senator Guess has said is true?"

Senator Washington:

"I think it could possibly be the purpose of a declaratory judgment, although I don't believe a declaratory judgment will be necessary. I think the highway users will challenge it very shortly, probably as soon as the legislative committee authorizes a voucher to be paid or if we start into a contract. If we start entering into a contract with possibly the University of Washington, at that point someone would attempt to enjoin the committee from taking action and thereby we will get a court test and I think the only way to get a court test is to pass the resolution."

Further debate ensued.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Washington, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

The Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

The Secretary read:

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE RESOLUTION

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 27, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 23 with the following amendment:

On page 1, beginning with "Article VII" strike all the matter, including all the amendments, down to and including the period after "state" on page 3 and insert the following:

"Article VII, section 2. Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed forty mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, which assessed valuation shall be fifty per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money: Provided, However, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than [twelve] twenty-four months prior to the date [on which] for making the proposed levy or levies [is to be made] and not oftener than twice in [such] any twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: Provided, However, That no taxing district shall submit to the electors thereof a proposition to authorize the levy of additional tax upon the authority of this subsection (a) to be made in any year for which the electors previously have authorized the levy of additional tax under the authority of this subsection (a) unless the proposed authorization is submitted to the electors by a proposition to substitute for the prior authorization under this subsection (a) a new authorization the amount of which will be adequate to fulfill all contractual obligations of the taxing district incurred by reason of the prior authorization, and unless the substitute proposition shall by its terms supersede the prior authorization and then be in lieu of any additional tax authorized by but not yet levied upon authority of the superseded authorization;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: Provided, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, And Provided Further, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, Section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort.

And Be It Further Resolved, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney Snyder, Asst. Chief Clerk.

It was moved by Senator Gissberg that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Joint Resolution No. 23.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President, would Senator Uhlman yield to a question:

"Senator Uhlman, as this comes back from the House to us, is the sixty percent requirement for the special levies in Senate Joint Resolution No. 23?"

Senator Uhlman:

"Senator Atwood, as it comes back to us with the amendment by the House, it is a very simple thing. It only extends the period of time that the voters may permit a special levy to be levied to two years and nothing else. That's all there is in the bill now, plus the anti-pyramiding provision that Senator Gissberg has mentioned. There is no mention of the sixty percent and no mention of the forty percent. It's two years, and two years only. That's the bill."

Senator Atwood:

"Would Senator Uhlman further yield:

"Senator Uhlman, then in your opinion in order to vote a two years' levy, the sixty percent requirement will pertain to that?"

Senator Uhlman:

"There is absolutely no change in the Constitution as it now exists in the sixty percent requirement or in the forty percent requirement."

Further debate ensued.

Senator McCutcheon:

"Mr. President, would Senator Uhlman yield:

"Senator Uhlman, as this bill came out of the Committee on Constitution and Elections, it provided for sixty percent or majority vote only, did it not?"

Senator Uhlman:

"Senate Joint Resolution No. 23, when it first came out, was probably the best compromise that we have had in the general area of the forty and sixty percent, as it originally was introduced and as it came out of your committee. As it was passed by the Senate, it provided that in all general elections, in general elections only, a majority of the voters would be able to pass a special levy and it did nothing other than that. It didn't change it to two years which is the proposal before us. There was nothing on the forty percent. However, I would add one thing further, in answer to Senator Ridder. I certainly concur with him that we should be doing more here. Unfortunately in these halls we often times have to take a lot less than we like and perhaps the two years is the best we are going to get this session. I don't think the Senate has to bow its head in shame at all because we have passed two measures, Senate Joint Resolution No. 23, which is now back to us amended, and Senate Joint Resolution No. 20, Senator Ridder's proposal to limit the forty percent requirement. The House in its wisdom or lack thereof did not see fit to accept the proposal so we have done our best and I think we have now before us a compromise. We have a quarter of a loaf—not even half a loaf. But it is certainly better than nothing at all and I certainly urge everyone to vote for it."

Senator Stender:

"Mr. President, would Senator Uhlman yield:

"Under the present procedure of voting special levies, I understand that they get two opportunities. If one fails, they get another try. Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 23 approach, do they get to have two opportunities or do they get four if they fail?"

Senator Uhlman:

"Well, they would still be entitled to try twice in a year."

Senator Stender:

"Twice in each year?"

Senator Uhlman:

"Yes, but there is no pyramiding at all. If a special levy is passed in the first year, the second special levy must include the first and so you can't pyramid one on top of the other."

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Joint Resolution No. 23.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 23, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—48.

Absent or not voting: Senator Hallauer—1.

Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 23, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

SECOND READING OF BILL

Engrossed House Bill No. 8, by Representatives O'Brien, Copeland and Gorton (by Legislative Council request):

Providing for committees of the legislative council, revising expense and voucher procedure, and authorizing special committee members.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Greive, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, section 5, line 25 of the printed bill, being line 24 of the engrossed bill, after "appoint" and before "additional" insert "not more than twelve"

On motion of Senator Bailey, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 5, after the end of section 5 add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 6. Section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1947, as amended by section 1, chapter 148, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 44.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a 'state legislative council' hereinafter referred to as the council, which shall consist of [thirteen] fifteen senators and [fourteen] sixteen representatives from the legislature of the state of Washington, including the president pro tem of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives, said council to be appointed by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives at least ten days before the close of the 1947 session of the legislature, and at least ten days before the close of each regular session thereafter. The president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives shall prepare their lists of appointees so that the whole membership of the council shall include at least one individual from each United States congressional district within the state and so that the minority political party in each house shall have [six] seven members on the council. The said lists of appointees shall be subject to confirmation as to the senate members by the senate and as to the house members by the house of representatives. In the event of a failure to appoint council members within the time above stated, or in the event of a refusal by either senate or house of representatives to confirm appointments on the council, then the members on the council from either house in which there is a failure to appoint or confirm shall be elected forthwith by the members of such house."

On page 1, line 9 of the title, after "RCW 44.24.070" and before the period, insert "and amending section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1947, as amended by section 1, chapter 148, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 44.24.010"

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 8 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lennart:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield to a question:

"Senator Durkan, what good would it be to pass this bill if the next one fails?"

Senator Durkan:

"Senator, you have to start somewhere. We are assuming that the next one is not going to fail and we feel that this measure has to be voted on first. It's the distribution bill, and if the next bill doesn't pass, it won't make much difference if this one did or did not pass, Senator."

Debate ensued.

The President called upon President Pro Tempore Al Henry to preside.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senator Pritchard.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Carl Seltice, Color Bearer, and Jenny Parker, presented the Colors.

Reverend Albert LaPierre, pastor of St. Michael's Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Let us pray for every man who at this moment is being deprived of his rights due to injustice—particularly in our own nation and state. May God also make each of us more aware of the absolute sacredness of human life. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 53

By Senators Talley, Peterson (Ted), Kupka, Lennart, Redmon, Atwood, McMillan, McCutcheon, Gissberg and Greive:

Whereas, The year 1967 commemorates the one hundredth anniversary of the Confederation of Canada, whereby the several provinces were drawn together into a single great nation; and

Whereas, This Centennial is being celebrated at the spectacular World's Fair, Expo 67, at Montreal, as well as at separate events in each of the provinces and particularly in British Columbia, our northerly provincial neighbor; and

Whereas, The prolonged era of good will between the United States and Canada began in 1814 with the Treaty of Ghent, by the terms of which a peaceful compromise on the location of the international boundary between the two countries was reached; and

Whereas, Since that year, the United States and Canada have enjoyed a century and a half of peaceful coexistence, during which there has never been a serious conflict between the two countries; and

Whereas, The Peace Arch erected at Blaine and the many similar monuments and international gardens along the several thousand miles of unfortified border dividing the two countries symbolize and attest to the many decades of friendly cooperation between them; and

Whereas, Relations between the State of Washington and the Province of British Columbia, which share a portion of the long international frontier, have always been particularly close and cordial;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the congratulations and best wishes of the people of the State of Washington be conveyed to the people of Canada, and most particularly to our neighbors in the Province of British Columbia, on the occasion of this, their Centennial year;

And Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of State to the Honorable W. A. C. Bennett, Premier of British Columbia, Parliament Building, Victoria, British Columbia, Canada.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Ted), the resolution was adopted.

HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 27, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Senate Bill No. 649 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "to the" and before "administrator" insert "courts; providing for the"

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "salary" and before the semicolon, insert "providing for court reporters for the superior courts; amending section 1, chapter 126, Laws of 1913, as last amended by section 1, chapter 244, Laws of 1957, and RCW 2.32.180"

On page 1, line 3 of the title after "appropriation" and before the period insert "and declaring an emergency"

On page 1, section 2, line 19, after "of this" and before the period, strike "this act" and insert "section 1 of this act"

On page 1, after section 2, add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 126, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 1, chapter 244, Laws of 1957 and RCW 2.32.180 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be and is the duty of each and every superior court judge in counties or judicial districts in the state of Washington having a population of over thirty-five thousand inhabitants to appoint, or said judge may, in any county or judicial district having a population of over twenty-five thousand and less than thirty-five thousand, appoint a stenographic reporter to be attached to the court holden by him who shall have had at least three years' experience as a skilled, practical reporter, or who upon examination shall be able to report and transcribe accurately one hundred and seventy-five words per minute of the judge's charge or two hundred words per minute of testimony each for five consecutive minutes; said test of proficiency, in event of inability to meet qualifications as to length of time of experience, to be given by an examining committee composed of one judge of the superior court and two official reporters of the superior court of the state of Washington, appointed by the president judge of the superior court judges association of the state of Washington. The initial judicial appointee shall serve for a period of six years; the two initial reporter appointees shall serve for a period of four years and two years, respectively, from September 1, 1957; thereafter upon expiration of the first terms of service, each newly appointed member of said examining committee to serve for a period of six years. In the event of death or inability of a member to serve, the president judge shall appoint a reporter or judge, as the case may be, to serve for the balance of the unexpired term of the member whose inability to serve caused such vacancy. The examining committee shall grant certificates to qualified applicants. Administrative and procedural rules and regulations shall be promulgated by said examining committee, subject to approval by the said president judge.

The stenographic reporter upon appointment shall thereupon become an officer of the court and shall be designated and known as the official reporter for the court or judicial district for which he is appointed: Provided, That except for that county or judicial district wherein the seat of state government shall be located, in no event shall there be appointed more official reporters in any one county or judicial district than there are superior court judges in such county or judicial district; the appointments in each class AA county shall be made by the majority vote of the judges in said county acting en banc; the appointments in class A counties, [and] counties of the first class and that county or judicial district wherein the seat of state government shall be located may be made by each individual judge therein or by the judges in said county acting en banc. Each official reporter so appointed shall hold office during the term of office of the judge or judges appointing him, but may be removed for incompetency, misconduct or neglect of duty, and before entering upon the discharge of his duties shall take an oath to perform faithfully the duties of his office, and file a bond in the sum of two thousand dollars for the faithful discharge of his duties. Such reporter in each court is hereby declared to be a necessary part of the judicial system of the state of Washington."

On page 1, following section 3, add two new sections to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The code reviser, after consultation with the administrator for the courts, shall add to Title 21 RCW a new chapter to consist of sections 8 through 18 of chapter . . . , Laws of 1967 Extraordinary Session (Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 338); and the term "this chapter" when used in such sections shall be deemed to refer to the new chapter of Title 21 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1967.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf:

"Point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President:

"I have an amendment striking the emergency clause. Is this amendment in order at this time?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"It would be necessary, Senator, to reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment was passed for your proposed amendment to be in order."

Senator Metcalf:

"Further point of inquiry:

"It would not be in order for me to move to suspend the rules and adopt this amendment?"

The President:

"The President believes that would be in order, Senator Metcalf."

Senator Metcalf:

"Then I so move, Mr. President, to suspend the rules."

The President:

"Senator Metcalf has moved that the rules be suspended and that he be permitted to introduce his amendment to the committee amendment."

The motion to suspend the rules was carried.

It was moved by Senator Metcalf that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 3, section 12, of the Senate committee amendment, strike section 12.

Debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Henry that the amendment by Senator Metcalf to the committee amendment be laid upon the table.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried on a rising vote and the amendment was adopted.

It was moved by Senator Keefe that the following amendment be adopted:

Add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Section 13, chapter 55, Laws of 1933, and RCW 67.16.012 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the Washington horse racing commission, to consist of three commissioners, who shall be citizens, residents, and qualified electors of the state of Washington, and one of whom shall be a breeder of thoroughbred and/or standard bred horses and he shall be of at least one year's standing. The first member of said commission shall be appointed by the governor within thirty days after March 3, 1933, one for a term to expire on the Thursday following the second Monday in January of 1935, one for a term to expire on the Thursday following the second Monday in January of 1937, and one for a term to expire on the Thursday following the second Monday in January of 1939, upon which expiration of the term of any member, the governor shall appoint a successor, with the consent of the senate, for a term of six years. Each member shall hold office until his successor is appointed and qualified. Vacancies in the office of commissioner shall be filled by appointment to be made by the governor, with the consent of the senate, for the remainder of the unexpired term in which the vacancy has occurred. Any commissioner may be removed at any time at the pleasure of the governor. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each commissioner shall enter into a surety company bond, to be approved by the governor and attorney general, payable to the state of Washington, in performance of his duties and the correct accounting any payment of all sums received and coming within his control under this chapter, and in addition thereto each commissioner shall take and subscribe to an oath of office of the same form as that prescribed by law for elective state officers. Each member of the commission shall receive an annual salary of twelve hundred dollars, payable monthly."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Henry:

"Mr. President, would Senator Keefe yield:

"Senator Keefe, if we adopt your amendment, will you vote for the bill?"

Senator Keefe:

"No comment."

Further debate ensued.

It was moved by Senator Henry that the amendment be laid upon the table.

The motion was lost on a rising vote.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Keefe.

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Henry, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 791 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Henry, the rules were suspended and Engrossed House Bill No. 791 was returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment to the title.

On motion of Senator Keefe, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On line 3 of the title after "RCW" insert "amending section 2, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 and RCW 67.16.012."

On motion of Senator Metcalf the rules were suspended and the following amendment to the title was adopted:

Strike the amendment by Senator Neill, to the committee amendment to the title.

On motion of Senator Henry, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 791 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 791 as amended by the Senate and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 13; nays 35; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Connor, Donohue, Dore, Gissberg, Hallauer, Henry, Kupka, Stender, Twigg, Woodall—13.

Those voting nay were: Senators Canfield, Chytil, Cooney, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Herr, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Redmon, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Williams—35.

Reengrossed House Bill No. 946, by Representatives Anderson, Bledsoe, Day, Holman, Smythe, Marsh, O'Dell, Zimmerman, Brazier, Lewis and Chatalas:

Providing certain tax credits and exemptions for pollution control facilities.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Reengrossed House Bill No. 946:

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 20, 1967.

Providing certain tax credits and exemptions for pollution control facilities (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommends that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1 (1), line 23 of the reengrossed bill, after "for" insert "a municipal corporation or for"

On page 4, section 5 (1), line 2 of the reengrossed bill, after "certificate" and before the colon insert "and shall entitle such holder to credit for the amount of all taxes under chapter 82.08 RCW and chapter 82.12 RCW paid prior to the effective date of the certificate but after July 1, 1962"

On page 5, section 6, line 15 of the reengrossed bill, after "credit" insert "or other federal tax credit"

On page 7, following section 12, add two new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 216, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 90.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, or fails to perform any duty imposed by this chapter, or violates an order or other determination of the commission or the director made pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, including the conditions of a waste discharge permit issued pursuant to RCW 90.48.160, and in the course thereof causes the death of, or injury to, fish, animals, vegetation or other resources of the state, or otherwise causes a reduction in the quality of the state's waters below the standards set by the commission, thereby damaging the same, shall be liable to pay the state damages in an amount equal to the sum of money necessary to restock such waters, replenish such resources, and otherwise restore the stream, lake or other water source to its condition prior to the injury, as such condition is determined by the commission. Such damages shall be recoverable in an action brought by the attorney general on behalf of the people of the state of Washington in the superior court of the county in which such damages occurred: Provided, That if damages occurred in more than one county the attorney general may bring action in any of the counties where the damages occurred. Any money so recovered by the attorney general shall be transferred to either the state game fund for the department of fisheries to use for food fish or shellfish management purposes and propagation, or to any other agency of the state having jurisdiction over the resource damaged and for which said moneys were recovered, as appropriate: Provided, That the agency receiving such money shall utilize not less than one-half of said money on activities or projects within the county where the action was brought by the attorney general.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 216, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 90.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every person who:

(1) Violates the terms or conditions of a waste discharge permit issued pursuant to RCW 90.48.160, or

(2) Conducts a commercial or industrial operation without a waste discharge permit as required by RCW 90.48.160, or

(3) Violates the provisions of RCW 90.48.030, shall incur, in addition to any other penalty as provided by law, a penalty in the amount of one hundred dollars a day for every such violation. Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct violation. Every act of commission or omission which procures, aids or abets in the violation shall be considered a violation under the provisions of this section and subject to the penalty herein provided for. The penalty herein provided for shall become due and payable when the person incurring the same receives a notice in writing from the director of the commission describing such violation with reasonable particularity and advising such person that the penalty is due. The director may, upon written application therefor, received within fifteen days, and when deemed in the best interest to carry out the purposes of this chapter, remit or mitigate any penalty provided for in this section or discontinue any prosecution to recover the same upon such terms as he in his discretion shall deem proper, and shall have authority to ascertain the facts upon all such applications in such manner and under such regulations as he may deem proper. If the amount of such penalty is not paid to the commission within fifteen days after receipt of notice imposing the same, or application for remission or mitigation has not been made within fifteen days after the violator has received notice of the disposition of such application, the attorney general, upon the request of the director, shall bring an action in the name of the state of Washington in the superior court of Thurston county or of any other county in which such violator may do business, to recover such penalty. In all such actions the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as an ordinary civil action except as otherwise in this chapter provided. All penalties recovered under this section shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund."

Amend the title, page 1, line 1, after "to" strike the remainder of the title and insert:

"air and water pollution control; providing certain tax credits and exemptions for air and water pollution control facilities; providing certain damages for injury to or for destruction or reduction in quality of the state's natural resources; defining crimes and prescribing penalties; and adding new sections to chapter 216, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 90.48 RCW."

Martin J. Durkan, Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Frank Atwood, Damon R. Canfield, Joe Chytil, Dewey C. Donohue, William A. Gissberg, R. R. Bob Greive, Sam C. Guess, Gordon Herr, Harry B. Lewis, David E. McMillan, Marshall A. Neill, John N. Ryder, Gordon Sandison, Walter B. Williams.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the committee amendments to page 1 were adopted.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the committee amendment to page 4 was laid upon the table.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the committee amendment to page 5 was adopted.

It was moved by Senator Durkan that the committee amendment to page 7 be adopted.

It was moved by Senator Durkan that the following amendment to the committee amendment to page 7 be adopted:

In Sec. 13 of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, after "general" at the end of the paragraph, add "No action shall be authorized under this section against any person operating in compliance with the conditions of a waste discharge permit issued pursuant to RCW 90.48.160."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield:

"Senator Durkan, as I understand it, this is to provide for the attorney general to bring an action against a person to make it cumulative day by day if the violation continues. But it's my understanding also that these people would be operating under a waste permit and as I understood your last amendment it would say if they were operating under a waste permit, that he would not proceed against them?"

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President:

"What I say is that it may be that these persons have a waste permit and they are complying with it and it could be that within that waste permit there may be a period of time when they are coming into conditions that amount to pollution and if they are complying with a permit as issued by the pollution control board, then they are not subject to punitive measures. Any time they go beyond that permit and the control board comes in and then states that they are in violation of their permit, then the two punitive sections take over."

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried and the amendment by Senator Durkan to the amendment was adopted.

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

On motion of Senator Greive, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, section 6 (1), line 26, after "facility" and before the period insert "":
Provided, That the cost of an existing pollution control facility shall be the depreciated value thereof at the time of application filed pursuant to this section"

On motion of Senator Greive, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Greive, the following amendment to the title by Senator Durkan was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "facilities" and before the period insert: "":
authorizing the levying of money penalties by the water pollution control commission; and providing for recovery of moneys for damages to resources of the state"

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 946 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 28, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on Senate Bill No. 261, and has passed the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and said report together with the bill are herewith transmitted.

Malcolm McBeath, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Olympia, Wash., April 28, 1967.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred Senate Bill No. 261, amending requirements for publication by county of notice of intention to sell property, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the attached bill be substituted therefor and that it do pass.

An Act relating to local government; providing rules and procedures for the sale or disposition of certain county, city, irrigation district or other political subdivision properties; levying an excise tax on city-owned parking facilities; providing for certain city, town and county planning procedures; empowering counties to construct, maintain, improve, operate and control certain recreational facilities and make reasonable regulations and charges for the use thereof; authorizing the issuance and sale of bonds for construction and development of public parks in conjunction with off-street parking space and facilities by cities and towns; regulating purchases, leases or contracts for public works by counties; establishing a county purchasing department; prescribing their powers, duties and functions; creating a county equipment and revolving fund; amending section 35.41.010, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.41.010; amending section 35.63.100, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.63.100; amending section 35.86.010, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.86.010; amending section 35.86.020, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.86.020; amending section 35.86.070, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.86.070; amending section 36.32.240, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.32.240; amending section 36.32.250, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 97, Laws of 1967 and RCW 36.32.250; amending section 36.34.020, chapter 4 Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.34.020; amending section 1, chapter 82, Laws of 1931, as amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1933 and RCW 87.03.135; adding new sections to chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and to chapter 36.32 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 4. Laws of 1963 and to chapter 36.68 RCW.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 36.34.020, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.34.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the board of county commissioners desires to dispose of any county property except:

- (1) When selling to a governmental agency;
- (2) When personal property to be disposed of is to be traded in upon the purchase of a like article;
- (3) When the value of the property to be sold is less than [two] five hundred dollars;
- (4) When the board by a resolution setting forth the facts has declared an emergency to exist; it shall publish notice of its intention so to do once each week during two successive weeks in three different legal newspapers published in the county, or if there are less than three in as many legal newspapers as are published in the county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Any municipality may sell, lease or convey any real property located in an area zoned to permit the operation of retail business, when such property is no longer needed for the use or purposes of the municipality, to any private corporation or association established to develop and maintain free public parking facilities. "Municipality" as used in sections 2 through 5 of this 1967 amendatory act, means any city with a population over three hundred thousand and any municipal corporation or other political subdivision located within the boundaries of such city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Before any municipality may sell, lease or convey any real property located in an area zoned to permit the operation of retail business, it shall post in a conspicuous place on such property and publish in the official newspaper for the county in which such property is located for fifteen days prior to such sale, lease or conveyance a notice giving the legal description of such property and disclosing an intention to sell, lease or convey such property; and it shall offer in its notice, and shall give, the first right of purchase or lease of the whole or any part of such property to any private corporation or association (1) established to develop and maintain free public parking facilities and (2) which agrees to dedicate such property for free public parking.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A sale, lease or conveyance to such corporation or association may be made for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as the municipality deems appropriate: Provided, That the price charged such corporation or association shall not be in excess of the fair market value of such property: Provided Further, That all deeds, leases and other instruments of conveyance shall incorporate a reversion to the municipality of the property or property interest so deeded, leased or conveyed, in the event that such property should no longer be used as a free public parking facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The provisions of section 3 of this 1967 amendatory act shall not apply to any sale, lease or conveyance to the federal government or to any agency thereof, or to the state or any agency, county, city, town or other political subdivision of this state.

Sec. 6. Section 35.86.070, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.86.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Such cities and/or their lessees shall pay to the county treasurer [and to the state treasurer moneys in lieu of real property taxes] an annual excise tax for the privilege of operating a city owned parking facility equal to the amounts which would be paid upon real property [condemned pursuant to this chapter] devoted to the purpose of off-street parking were it in private ownership. This section shall only apply to parking facilities acquired under this chapter.

Sec. 7. Section 1, chapter 82, Laws of 1931 as amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1933 and RCW 87.03.135 are each amended to read as follows:

Any irrigation district shall have power to sell or lease any real estate or personal property owned by such district, whenever the board of directors shall, by unanimous vote, determine that such property is not necessary or needed for the use of the district. No sale or lease of such property shall be made until notice thereof shall be given by publication at least twenty days before the date of said sale or lease of said property in some newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property or part thereof is located, if there be one, and if there be none, then in some newspaper of general circulation published in an adjoining county, said publication to be made at least once a week during three consecutive weeks before the day fixed for the making of such sale or lease, and shall contain notice of intention of the board of directors to make such sale or lease and state the time and place at which proposals for such sale or lease will be considered and in which the sale or lease will be made: Provided, That, the provisions of this section relating to publication of notice shall not apply when the value of the property to be sold or leased is less than five hundred dollars. Any such property so sold or leased shall be sold or leased to the highest and best bidder. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the sale of lands acquired by an irrigation district through its purchase of said lands for the nonpayment of its irrigation assessments.

The commission may recommend to its council or board the plan prepared by it as a whole, or may recommend parts of the plan by successive recommendations; the parts corresponding with geographic or political sections, division or subdivisions of the municipality, or with functional subdivisions of the subject matter of the plan, or in the case of counties, with suburban settlement or arterial highway area. It may also prepare and recommend any amendment or extension thereof or addition thereto.

Before the recommendation of the initial plan to the municipality the commission shall hold at least one public hearing thereon, giving notice of the time and place by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality and in the official gazette, if any, of the municipality. [A copy of the ordinance or resolution adopting or embodying such plan or any part thereof or any amendment thereto, duly certified as a true copy by the clerk of the municipality, shall be filed with the county auditor. A like certified copy of any map or plat referred to or adopted by the ordinance or resolution shall likewise be filed with the county auditor. The auditor shall record the ordinance or resolution and keep on file the map or plat.]

The council may adopt by resolution or ordinance and the board may adopt by resolution the plan recommended to it by the commission, or any part of the plan, as the comprehensive plan.

A true copy of the resolution of the board adopting or embodying such plan or any part thereof or any amendment thereto shall be certified by the clerk of the board and filed with the county auditor. A like certified copy of any map or plat referred to or adopted by the county resolution shall likewise be filed with the county auditor. The auditor shall record the resolution and keep on file the map or plat.

The original resolution or ordinance of the council adopting or embodying such plan or any part thereof or any amendment thereto shall be certified by the clerk of the city and filed by him. The original of any map or plat referred to or adopted by the resolution or ordinance of the council shall likewise be certified by the clerk of the city and filed by him. The clerk shall keep on file the resolution or ordinance and map or plat.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. All amendments to a comprehensive plan shall be adopted, certified, and recorded or filed in the same manner as authorized in section 8 of this 1967 amendatory act for an initial comprehensive plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Any city comprehensive plan and all amendments thereto which have been filed or recorded with the county auditor prior to the effective date of this 1967 amendatory act shall be valid and need not be refiled with the clerk of the city to remain valid and in full force and effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and to chapter 36.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any county, acting through its board of county commissioners, is empowered to build, construct, care for, control, supervise, improve, operate and maintain parks, playgrounds, gymnasiums, swimming pools, field houses, bathing beaches, stadiums, golf courses, automobile race tracks and drag strips, coliseums for the display of spectator sports, public campgrounds, boat ramps and launching sites, public hunting and fishing areas, arboretums, bicycle and bridle paths, and other recreational facilities, and to that end may make, promulgate and enforce such rules and regulations regarding the use thereof, and make such charges for the use thereof, as may be deemed by said board to be reasonable.

Sec. 12. Section 35.41.010, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.41.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative body of any city or town, for the purpose of providing funds for defraying all or a portion of the costs of planning, purchase, leasing, condemnation, or other acquisition, construction, reconstruction, development, improvement, extension, repair, maintenance, or operation of any municipally owned public land, building, facility, or utility, for which the municipality now has or hereafter is granted authority to acquire, condemn, develop, repair, maintain, or operate, for which the city receives revenue or for which such municipality charges a fee, may authorize, by ordinance, the creation of a special fund or funds into which the city or town shall be obligated to set aside and pay:

- (1) A fixed proportion of the gross revenues of the facility or utility, or
- (2) A fixed amount out of, and not to exceed, a fixed proportion of the gross revenues thereof, or
- (3) A fixed amount without regard to any fixed proportion of such revenues, or
- (4) An amount sufficient to meet principal and interest requirements and to accumulate any reserves and additional funds that may be required.

The legislative body may also authorize the creation of a special fund or funds to defray all or part of the costs of planning, purchase, condemnation, or other acquisition, construction, improvement, maintenance or operation of any public park in, upon or above property used or to be used as municipally owned off-street parking space and facilities, whether or not revenues are received or fees charged in the course of public use of such park. Part or all of the otherwise unpledged revenues, fees or charges arising from municipal ownership, operation, lease or license of any off-street parking space and facilities, or arising from municipal license of any on-street parking space, shall be set aside and paid into such special fund or funds in accordance with this section.

Sec. 13. Section 35.86.010, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.86.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Cities of the first, second, and third classes are authorized to provide off-street parking space and facilities for motor vehicles, and the use of real property for such purpose is declared to be a public use. Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 35.86.040 such cities shall call for competitive bids for the operation of any off-street parking space and facilities for motor vehicles in or beneath a public park by any private person, firm or corporation, upon such reasonable notice, bidder qualifications and bid conditions as the city shall determine. In the case of off-street parking space in, upon or beneath a public park the term "facilities" as used hereafter in this chapter may include public parks thereon.

Sec. 14. Section 35.86.020, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.86.020 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to provide for off-street parking space and/or facilities, such cities are authorized, in addition to their powers for financing public improvements, to finance their acquisition and construction through the issuance and sale of revenue [.] bonds or general [fund] obligation [and on street parking revenue] bonds or both. Any bonds issued by such cities pursuant to this section shall be issued in the manner and within the limitations prescribed by the Constitution and the laws of this state.

In addition local improvement districts may be created and their financing procedures used for this purpose in accordance with the provisions of Title 35 as now or hereafter amended.

Such cities may authorize and finance the economic and physical surveys and plans, and construction, for off-street parking, and the maintenance and management of such off-street parking spaces and facilities either within their general budget or by issuing revenue bonds or general [fund] obligation bonds [and on street parking revenue bonds] or both.

General obligation bonds issued hereunder may additionally be made payable from any otherwise unpledged revenue, fees or charges which may be derived from the ownership, operation, lease or license of off-street parking space or facilities or which may be derived from the license of on-street parking space.

Sec. 15. Section 36.32.240, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.32.240 are each amended to read as follows:

In any county the board of county commissioners may by resolution establish a county purchasing department and thereafter such department shall contract on a competitive basis for all public works and purchase or lease on a competitive basis all supplies, materials, and equipment, for all departments of the county, exclusive of the county hospital, pursuant to the provisions hereof and under such rules as the board shall by resolution adopt, except for such contracts and purchases as shall be made pursuant to RCW 36.77.060, 36.77.070 and 36.82.130: Provided, That in all class AA or class A counties or in any county of the first class it shall be mandatory that a purchasing department be established.

Sec. 16. Section 36.32.250, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 97, Laws of 1967, and RCW 36.32.250 are each amended to read as follows:

No contract, lease or purchase shall be entered into by the board of county commissioners or by any elected or appointed officer of such county until after bids have been submitted to the board of county commissioners upon specifications therefor. Such specifications shall be in writing and shall be filed with the clerk of the board for public inspection, and an advertisement thereof stating the date after which bids will not be received, the character of the work to be done, or material, equipment, or service to be purchased, and that specifications therefor may be seen at the office of the clerk of the board, shall be published in the county official newspaper. Such advertisement shall be published at least once in each week for two consecutive weeks prior to the last date upon which bids will be received and as many additional publications as shall be determined by the board. The bids shall be in writing, shall be filed with the clerk, shall be opened and read in public at a meeting of the board on the date named therefor in said advertisement, and after being opened, shall be filed for public inspection. No bid shall be considered for public work unless it is accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a surety bond, postal money order, cash, cashier's check, or certified check in an amount equal to five percent of the amount of the bid proposed. The contract for the public work, lease or purchase shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder; taking into consideration the quality of the articles or equipment to be purchased or leased. Any or all bids may be rejected for good cause. The board shall require from the successful bidder for such public work a contractor's bond in the amount and with the conditions imposed by law. Should the bidder to whom the contract is awarded fail to enter into the contract and furnish the contractor's bond as required within ten days after notice of the award, exclusive of the day of notice, the amount of the bid deposit shall be forfeited to the county and the contract awarded to the next lowest and best bidder. The bid deposit of all unsuccessful bidders shall be returned after the contract is awarded and the required contractor's bond given by the successful bidder is accepted by the board. In the letting of any contract, lease or purchase involving less than one thousand dollars advertisement and competitive bidding may be dispensed with on order of the board of county commissioners. Notice of intention to let contracts, enter into lease agreements or to make purchases involving amounts exceeding five hundred dollars and less than one thousand dollars, shall be posted by the board of county commissioners on a bulletin board in its office not less than three days prior to making such purchase, lease or contract. Wherever possible, supplies shall be purchased in quantities for a period of at least three months, and not to exceed one year. Supplies generally used throughout the various departments shall be standardized insofar as possible, and may be purchased and stored for general use by all of the various departments which shall be charged for the supplies when withdrawn from the purchasing department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and to chapter 36.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The board of county commissioners may elect to adopt the provisions of sections 18, 19 and 20 of this 1967 amendatory act and may, by resolution, designate the kinds of equipment subject thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and to chapter 36.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In accordance with the provisions of section 17 of this 1967 amendatory act, in every county in which there is now or is hereafter established a county purchasing department, there is created a county fund to be known as the "county equipment and rental revolving fund". On the effective date of this 1967 amendatory act, the county treasurer of such counties shall transfer to said fund all sums remaining in the county current expense fund budgeted for the purchase or lease of capital outlay equipment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and to chapter 36.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In accordance with the provisions of section 17 of this 1967 amendatory act, after the effective date of this 1967 amendatory act, no warrants shall be issued for the purchase or lease of capital outlay equipment unless they have been authorized by the county purchasing agent: Provided, That sums allocated to existing contracts for the purchase or lease of such equipment shall be authorized by the purchasing agent upon the written request of the officer or employee who has executed such contract: Provided, Further, That no option for purchase or extension of time in such existing contracts may be exercised unless approved by the purchasing agent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. In accordance with the provisions of section 17 of this 1967 amendatory act, the county purchasing agent, subject to the supervision of the board of county commissioners shall establish charges to be paid by county officers and county departments for the use of such equipment. The charge shall be sufficient to amortize the cost of purchasing, maintaining or leasing such equipment, which amounts shall be credited as income to the county equipment and revolving fund and charged on a monthly basis against the account of the officer or agent using such equipment. Moneys derived from the charges for such equipment shall be disbursed from the county equipment and revolving fund by the county treasurer by warrants drawn by the county auditor on vouchers duly authorized by the purchasing agent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this 1967 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected.

At 9:50 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Saturday, April 29, 1967.

John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate.

Ward Bowden, Secretary of the Senate.

FIFTY-FIRST DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Saturday, April 29, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senator Ridder.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senator Ridder was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Robert Lisk, Color Bearer, and Janet Holbrook, presented the Colors.

Senator Nat Washington offered prayer.

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 54

By Senators Ridder, Uhlman and Metcalf:

Whereas, The present pattern of school district organization has contributed to financing problems for schools; and

Whereas, To help resolve these problems, it is essential that consideration be given to available resources and tax base of school districts;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, that the Interim Committee on Education be directed to study the problems of school district organization in this state; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the results of this study and any recommendations pursuant thereto be presented to the next regular session of the legislature for its consideration.

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 55

By Senators Metcalf, Redmon and Mardesich:

Whereas, The members of the school safety patrol throughout the state are quietly and tirelessly working day in and day out, fair weather and foul, with constant alertness for the care and protection of the lives and welfare of school children and preschool children; and

Whereas, The members of the school safety patrol throughout the state serve on a volunteer basis and receive little recognition or thanks for their tireless service and dedication except in rare cases; and

Whereas, Gregg Holmes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Holmes, 1620 Locust Way, Alderwood Manor, and a member of the school safety patrol for Cypress Elementary School, Alderwood is about to receive national recognition for an act of heroism above and beyond the dedication usually demonstrated by members of that fine body; and

Whereas, Gregg Holmes, twelve years of age and a sixth grade student, saw the peril when two year old Tracy Miller stepped into the path of a school bus as it was turning a corner, and rescued the child from the peril; and

Whereas, Gregg Holmes will be in Washington, D. C. May 10th, 1967 to receive the National American Automobile Association National School Patrol Life Saving Medal to be presented by Alan F. Boyd, Secretary of Transportation as one of nine members in the nation so selected, and the first boy in Washington State so selected since the inception of the AAA in 1904;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate that all members of the school safety patrol be given a heartfelt thanks for the job that they are doing in preserving the lives of school and preschool children; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a special commendation be given to Gregg Holmes for his special act of bravery in saving the life of the little child; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to Gregg Holmes, to his parents, and to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for distribution to all the school safety patrols in the state of Washington.

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 56

By Senators Sandison, Freise, Knoblauch and Talley:

Whereas, During the fortieth session of the legislature, Hazel L. Matheny has served as chef de cuisine in the Senate dining room; and

Whereas, Hazel L. Matheny has performed these duties in a magnificent manner, ministering to the gustatory needs of the members of the Senate with exquisite success; and

Whereas, Her success in preparing the most delectable dishes from the fare offered has turned the ordinary eating habits of the senators into such a state of perfection that they are all now qualified gourmands; and

Whereas, It is fitting that the Senate show its gratitude for such successful culinary perfection;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate that Hazel L. Matheny be commended for her excellent and meritorious service in the Senate dining room; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be suitably inscribed and presented to Hazel L. Matheny forthwith, with the solicitation and kindest feelings of the members of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Kupka, the resolution was adopted.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Sandison, Knoblauch and Freise to escort the Senate cafeteria waitresses to the rostrum.

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 57

By Senators Sandison, Freise, Knoblauch and Talley:

Whereas, During the fortieth session of the legislature, Lillian A. Anderson and Ruby Milliron have faithfully served on the staff of the Senate dining room; and

Whereas, In spite of sessions of the Senate, early and late, Lillian A. Anderson and Ruby Milliron have served with the utmost of cheerfulness and efficiency; and

Whereas, It is fitting that the Senate show its gratitude for this outstanding and faithful service;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate that Lillian A. Anderson and Ruby Milliron be commended and that they accept this token of appreciation for their untiring devotion and service in the Senate dining room; and

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be suitably inscribed and presented to Lillian A. Anderson and Ruby Milliron forthwith with the solicitation and kindest feelings of the members of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Kupka, the resolution was adopted.

The Secretary read:

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., April 28, 1967.

Mr. President:

The House has passed: Engrossed Senate Bill No. 532 with the following amendments:

Beginning on line 1 of the title, strike all the title and insert the following:

"An Act Relating to state government and the support thereof; authorizing the issuance and sale of state general obligation bonds to provide for needful land acquisition and buildings for the department of general administration, institutions of higher education and the department of institutions; providing ways and means to pay said bonds; making appropriations; and providing for submission of this act to a vote of the people."

Strike everything after the enacting clause in both the printed and engrossed bills and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. For the purpose of providing needed capital improvements for the department of general administration, the institutions of higher education and the department of institutions, the state finance committee is authorized to issue, at any time prior to January 1, 1972, general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of sixty-three million fifty-nine thousand dollars or so much thereof as shall be required to finance the capital projects set forth in section 6 of this act, to be paid and discharged within twenty years of the date of issuance.

The state finance committee is authorized to prescribe the form of such bonds, and the time of sale of all or any portion or portions of such bonds, and the conditions of sale and issuance thereof: Provided, That none of the bonds herein authorized shall be sold for less than the par value thereof nor shall they bear interest at a rate in excess of six percent per annum.

The bonds shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest when due. The committee may provide that the bonds, or any of them, may be called prior to the due date thereof under such terms and conditions as it may determine. The state finance committee may authorize the use of facsimile signatures in the issuance of the bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized herein, together with all grants, donations, transferred funds and all other moneys which the state finance committee may direct the state treasurer to deposit therein shall be deposited in the state building and higher education construction account created in the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The state building and higher education bond redemption fund is created in the state treasury, which fund shall be exclusively devoted to the payment of interest on and retirement of the bonds authorized by this act. The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months to meet bond retirement and interest requirements, and on July 1st of each year the state treasurer shall deposit such amount in the state building and higher education bond redemption fund from moneys transmitted to the state treasurer by the tax commission and certified by the tax commission to be sales tax collections; and such amount certified by the state finance committee to the state treasurer shall be a prior charge against all retail sales tax revenues of the state of Washington, except that portion thereof which has been heretofore pledged for the payment of bond principal and interest.

The owner and holder of each of the bonds or the trustee for any of the bonds may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require and compel the transfer and payment of funds as directed herein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature may provide additional means for raising moneys for the payment of the interest and principal of the bonds authorized herein and this act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method for such payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The bonds herein authorized shall be a legal investment for all state funds or for funds under state control and all funds of municipal corporations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The following sums, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are appropriated from the state building and higher education construction account: Provided, That the legislature may reappropriate the unexpended balance from any project for other projects within the scope of section 1 of this act.

The Secretary read:

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Olympia, Wash., April 29, 1967.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred Engrossed House Bill No. 269, establishing traffic safety commission, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the attached substitute bill be passed.

An Act Relating to state government; establishing the Washington traffic safety commission; providing for succession of powers and duties of the Washington state safety council to the Washington state traffic safety commission; providing for administration of the driver education program; providing for the transfer of certain books, records, accounts, files and personal property; prescribing powers, duties and functions of certain state officers and agencies; enabling the state to secure the benefits of the federal Highway Safety Act of 1966; amending section 8, chapter 39, Laws of 1963 and

RCW 46.81.070; adding a new chapter to chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and to Title 43; repealing sections 43.60.010 through 43.60.220, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.60.010 through 43.60.220; providing for the termination of certain sections hereof; and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The purpose of this act is to establish a new agency of state government to be known as the Washington traffic safety commission. The functions and purpose of this commission shall be to find solutions to the problems that have been created as a result of the tremendous increase of motor vehicles on our highways and the attendant traffic death and accident tolls; to plan and supervise programs for the prevention of accidents on streets and highways including but not limited to educational campaigns designed to reduce traffic accidents in cooperation with all official and unofficial organizations interested in traffic safety; to coordinate the activities at the state and local level in the development of state-wide and local traffic safety programs; to promote a uniform enforcement of traffic safety laws and establish standards for investigation and reporting of traffic accidents; to promote and improve driver education; and to authorize the governor to perform all functions required to be performed by him under the federal Highway Safety Act of 1966 (Public Law 89-564; 80 Stat 731).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The governor shall be responsible for the administration of the traffic safety program of the state and shall be the official of the state having ultimate responsibility for dealing with the federal government with respect to all programs and activities of the state and local governments pursuant to the Highway Safety Act of 1966 (Public Law 89-564; 80 Stat 731). The governor is authorized and empowered to accept and disburse federal grants or other funds or donations from any source for the purpose of improving traffic safety programs in the state of Washington, and is hereby empowered to contract and to do all other things necessary in behalf of this state to secure the full benefits available to this state under the federal Highway Safety Act of 1966 (Public Law 89-564; 80 Stat 731) and in so doing, to cooperate with federal and state agencies, agencies private and public, interested organizations, and with individuals, to effectuate the purposes of that enactment, and any and all subsequent amendments thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The governor shall be assisted in his duties and responsibilities by the Washington state traffic safety commission. The Washington traffic safety commission shall be comprised of the governor as chairman, the superintendent of public instruction, the director of motor vehicles, the director of highways, the chief of the state patrol, a representative of the association of Washington cities to be appointed by the governor, a member of the association of county commissioners to be appointed by the governor, the county road administration engineer and a representative of the judiciary to be appointed by the governor. Appointments to any vacancies among appointee members shall be as in the case of original appointment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In addition to other responsibilities set forth in this act the commission shall:

(1) Advise and confer with the governing authority of any political subdivision of the state deemed eligible under the federal Highway Safety Act of 1966 (Public Law 89-564; 80 Stat 731) for participation in the aims and programs and purposes of that act;

(2) Advise and confer with all agencies of state government whose programs and activities are within the scope of said Highway Safety Act including those agencies that are not subject to direct supervision, administration and control by the governor under existing laws;

(3) Succeed to and be vested with all powers, duties and jurisdictions previously vested in the Washington state safety council;

(4) Require all counties and municipalities to prepare a comprehensive traffic safety plan consistent with the standards established by rule and regulation by the commission and the federal Highway Safety Act of 1966 (Public Law 89-564; 80 Stat 731);

(5) Carry out such other responsibilities as may be consistent with this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 39, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.81.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each school district offering a course in driver education shall, in such manner as the superintendent of public instruction may direct, keep accurate records of the cost thereof. Subject to RCW 46.81.060 each school district shall be reimbursed from the driver education account [in an amount not to exceed thirty dollars for each pupil who is instructed in the course in accordance with the regulations set forth by the superintendent]: Provided, That [beginning June 30, 1964 and on June 30 of each year thereafter] the state superintendent shall determine the approximate per pupil cost of driver education and [may increase to more than thirty dollars the amount of reimbursement to the school district but in no instance shall the amount of reimbursement exceed more than] may reimburse up to seventy-five percent of the estimated per pupil cost of driver education. Per pupil cost of driver education shall include the per pupil cost of vehicles used exclusively in driver education programs and simulators used in such programs amortized by school districts over a [twenty-four] sixty-month period.

A simulator is any automobile driver training device approved by the superintendent of public instruction to be used for purposes of driver education instruction under simulated driving conditions.

(2) The directors of any school district or combination of school districts shall establish a driver education fee, which fee when imposed shall be required to be paid by any duly enrolled student in such school district prior to the enrollment in a driver education course. Driver education fees collected by a school district shall be deposited with the county treasurer to the credit of such school district, to be used to pay costs of the driver education course.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The commission shall meet at least quarterly and shall have such special meetings as may be required. Members of the commission shall receive no additional compensation for their services except that which shall be allowed as actual and necessary expenses as limited by chapter 43.03 RCW in the performance of their official duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The governor as chairman of the commission shall appoint a person to be director of the Washington traffic safety commission which director shall be paid such salary as shall be deemed reasonable and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The director shall be secretary of the commission and shall be responsible for carrying into effect the commission's orders and rules and regulations promulgated by the commission. The director shall also be authorized to employ such staff as is necessary pursuant to the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW. The commission shall adopt such rules and regulations as shall be necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The governor as chairman of said commission shall have the authority to appoint advisory committees as he may deem advisable to aid, advise and assist the commission in carrying out the purposes of this act. All actions and decisions, however, shall be made by the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The commission shall delegate all non-traffic safety responsibilities previously under the jurisdiction of the Washington state safety council to such other state agencies as the commission shall determine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. All terms of the members of the executive board and members of the advisory committee of the Washington state safety council shall be terminated upon the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. On the effective date of this act, all records, books, accounts, equipment, funds and all other personal property now or hereafter held for the use of the Washington state safety council in performing their functions and duties as set forth in chapter 43.60 RCW shall be transferred to the possession and control of the Washington traffic safety commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. All employees of the Washington state safety council who are employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties and functions transferred by this act to the Washington state traffic safety commission shall, upon the effective date of this act, be transferred to the Washington state traffic safety commission. All such employees so transferred shall continue to be governed by the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, without any loss of rights granted by said law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The Washington state traffic safety commission shall submit a report outlining programs planned and steps taken toward improving traffic safety to the joint committee on highways by July 1, 1968.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 43.60.010 through 43.60.220, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.60.010 through 43.60.220 are each hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 1 through 4 and 6 through 13 of this act shall expire on July 1, 1969.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately.

On motion of Senator Washington, the report of the Free Conference Committee was adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman:

"Senator Washington, could you tell me what the general effect of Section 5 is and what the fiscal impact of Section 5 would be in taking out the maximum of thirty dollars?"

Senator Washington:

"This is an area where there has been no statistics set up. There were a few districts that charged an increase. Well, what we have done—we have increased the amount of money that will go into the fund by the increase in the amount that come from the drivers' licenses and it was felt that the amount that would come in would fully take care of it."

Senator Uhlman:

"Do you have any figures at all as to what the cost impact would be?"

Senator Washington:

"Frankly, I don't have that figure."

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Senate Bill No. 261.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR
CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 10, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Member, State Parks and Recreation Commission, subject to your confirmation:

Ralph Mackey, appointed December 31, 1966, for a term ending December 31, 1972, succeeding Howard Martin.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

It was moved by Senator Atwood that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Ralph Mackey to the position of member of the State Parks and Recreation Commission, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Metcalf:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"I first met Ralph Mackey seven years ago when I was scheduled to go to the National Boy Scout Jamboree and was unable to do so, Ralph filled in for me and went as a counsellor. He is a good personal friend of mine. He is a member of the Mountain Rescue Unit and has been for years in the Snohomish county area, and has participated in many of the searches and rescues that have taken place there. As a member of the Mountaineers' Club and as a mountaineer, I have to tell you about Ralph because he and another group climbed the highest mountain in North America, among others. They climbed Mt. McKinley and then that wasn't good enough. There's a higher mountain in South America, and Ralph and his group went to South America. You should hear the story of some of the problems they had there. Their gear was on the wrong ship and they had to use some improvised equipment that they borrowed. But they climbed the highest peak in South America which is the highest in the Western Hemisphere. Ralph is very interested in this kind of thing. This is his whole life. As a member of the Parks and Recreation Commission, he will do an outstanding job and I urge you to support the appointment."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF RALPH MACKEY

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Ralph Mackey to the position of member of the State Parks and Recreation Commission, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 9; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—39.

Absent or not voting: Senators Bailey, Durkan, Herrmann, McCutcheon, McMillan, Morgan, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Williams—9.

Excused: Senator Ridder—1.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of Ralph Mackey to the position of member of the State Parks and Recreation Commission was confirmed.

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 10, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Member, State Personnel Board, subject to your confirmation:

Chester W. Ramage, appointed February 8, 1967, for a term ending January 4, 1973, succeeding himself.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Chester W. Ramage to the position of member of the State Personnel Board, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Greive:

"Mr. President:

"Senator Metcalf explained how he knew Ralph Mackey. Well, it will be interesting I'm sure to all of the Republicans that I first knew Chet Ramage when he was active, as I was, in the first campaign of Al Rosellini for Governor. He had a four piece band and went from one end of the state to the other. He is a member of the musicians' union. He played tunes on the back of a flat bed truck and was active in those days politically for a man who later became Governor. He was subsequently appointed to the personnel board by Governor Rosellini. He served with distinction, being the labor member, and apparently his services were satisfactory from the standpoint of the incoming Governor and so he has been reappointed by Governor Evans. He serves as the labor member on the State Personnel Board which all of us know, while it may not be great in pay, being merely an extra board, it has considerable power with reference to the people who are hired and the standards which are set for our state employees. I think that his talent is recognized, obviously, by both sides of the aisle. He is certainly not a non-partisan, but it seems in this particular instance he almost has been a bipartisan and he has found support from his recognized ability. I think that this is an excellent appointment of a man who has served long as the secretary of the King county central labor council and has distinguished himself in the field of labor. I think this is an excellent appointment and I'm delighted that the Governor of the state of Washington, Dan Evans, has seen the light and reappointed him."

Senator Kupka:

"Mr. President:

"It's always nice to have musicians around. We lost our best musician when we retired Vic Meyers. I had nothing to do with that of course. I voted for him. We have always had somebody around who understood music and music problems in the state of Washington and I am sure now that Chester Ramage is on the job that if we have any music problems, we can always call on him."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF CHESTER W. RAMAGE

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Chester W. Ramage to the position of member of the Washington State Personnel Board, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 8; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Redmon, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—39.

Voting nay was: Senator Hallauer—1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Herrmann, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Morgan, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Talley—8.

Excused: Senator Ridder—1.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of Chester W. Ramage to the position of member of the State Personnel Board, was confirmed.

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 10, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Member, State Personnel Board, subject to your confirmation:

Robert H. Putman, appointed February 8, 1967, for a term ending January 4, 1973, succeeding John T. Conlin.

Sincerely,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

It was moved by Senator Atwood that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Robert H. Putman to the position of member of the State Personnel Board, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"Mr. Putman, I notice, comes from Senator Gissberg's country and he has long been active in personnel management. He is the present personnel manager of the West Coast Telephone Company in Everett. He is a graduate of Oregon State University and holds a B.S. degree in industrial administration. He is a member of the Seattle chapter of the Northwest Personnel Management Association. He is a veteran and he is a past president of the United Health Foundation and an active member in many other civic organizations in Snohomish county. He is eminently qualified for this position and I urge your support in confirming him."

Senator Gissberg:

"Mr. President:

"Anybody from the strawberry country in Marysville has to be good."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF ROBERT H. PUTMAN

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Robert H. Putman to the position of member of the State Personnel Board, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 11; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Huntley, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, McMillan, Marquardt, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Redmon, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Woodall—37.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Morgan, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Talley—11.

Excused: Senator Ridder—1.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of Robert H. Putman to the position of member of the State Personnel Board, was confirmed.

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, April 15, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.
Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Member, State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, subject to your confirmation:

Ronald N. Hatten, appointed April 15, 1967, for a term ending April 15, 1972, succeeding George F. Parks.

Sincerely yours,
DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 21, 1967.

Ronald N. Hatten, to the position of member of the State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, appointed April 15, 1967, for the term ending April 5, 1972, succeeding George F. Parks (reported by Committee on Public Institutions):

Recommends that said appointment be confirmed.

Frances Haddon Morgan, Chairman.

We concur in this report: Damon R. Canfield, Larry Faulk, Herbert H. Freise, James E. Keefe, Reuben A. Knoblauch, George Kupka, Jack Metcalf, Lowell Peterson, Fred G. Redmon, Robert C. Ridder, Gordon Sandison.

It was moved by Senator Atwood that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Ronald H. Hatten to the position of member of the State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Peterson (Lowell):

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I have personally known Mr. Hatten for a number of years. He has been the director of the probation services in Skagit county for over ten years. He has an outstanding record in our county in juvenile and probation services and as an indication of the esteem in which he is held in our area, with your permission I would like to read a paragraph from a letter written by Superior Court Judge Charles Stafford:

"I can say without qualification that Mr. Hatten has developed one of the best juvenile departments and juvenile detention programs in the state, regardless of size. He has been a definite leader in the professional field.

"He has an unusual ability to interview and evaluate people as well as to make a critical analysis of files concerning them. He is realistic in his approach to human problems as well as his expectation of human capabilities in the field of rehabilitation. As a result, the local juvenile court program has been successful, not only statistically but in the regard of the community as a whole."

"I urge you to confirm Mr. Hatten to this position."

Senator Kupka:

"Mr. President and lady and gentlemen of the Senate:

"Mr. Hatten was at the seminar held by juvenile judges at Port Angeles last year and I was very much impressed with his interest in parole work and his background up in Skagit county. Everyone at the seminar spoke very highly of him. I didn't recall him by name when there was some question about his nomination until I met him and then I realized just exactly who he was. I am sure that he is going to contribute a great deal to the efficiency of the parole board. The judges who work with him in juvenile work all like him. I'm sure he knows what it's all about and will do an outstanding job."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF RONALD N. HATTEN

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Ronald N. Hatten to the position of member of the State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 9; excused, 1.

FIFTY-SECOND DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., Sunday, April 30, 1967.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Herr, Ridder and Woodall.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senator Ridder was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Carl Seltice, Color Bearer, and Jenny Parker, presented the Colors.

Doctor Henry S. Rahn, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Thy Name in all the earth. Before the mountains were brought forth or ever Thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting Thou art God.

"We lift our hearts in humble gratitude to Thee for this another day in which to live and serve, and for Thy gracious presence during the days past.

"As we look over these past days, we lay our achievements before Thee, with thanksgiving for Thy help.

"We lay our failures before Thee with a prayer of forgiveness for every word spoken in haste, for any attitude expressed in unkindness.

"We lay our hopes and longings before Thee for a world that shall be free, for a world that shall be free from want and for a world that shall be free from hostility.

"We lay our unfinished tasks before Thee with a prayer for guidance and strength through Christ our Lord. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 58

By Senators Greive and Gissberg:

Whereas, It is highly desirable that the electorate of the state of Washington be well informed when voting on candidates and issues; and

Whereas, It is increasingly common for large corporations or business firms to sponsor candidacies of employees or officers or other individuals, to grant employees or officers leave for campaigning, while continuing to pay them wages or salaries, and to influence ballot issues; and

Whereas, It is clearly in the public interest to be advised of such relationships so as to permit evaluation by the voters;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the legislative council be and hereby is requested to study such activities, to consider the drafting of a disclosure or other type of statute to regulate such activities and a memorial to Congress in connection with the relation of federal tax laws to such financial expenditures.

Be It Further Resolved, That the legislative council report to the forty-first regular session of the Legislature its findings and recommendations.

Be It Further Resolved, That the secretary of the senate transmit a copy of this Senate resolution to the executive secretary of the legislative council.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the resolution be adopted.

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Lewis, Senate Resolution 1967 EX - 58 was made a special order of business immediately following the noon recess.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Olympia, Wash., April 29, 1967.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122, regulating legislative lobbying, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the attached bill be substituted therefor and that it do pass.

An Act relating to legislative lobbying; providing for the registration and regulation of lobbyists; and providing penalties.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. When used in this act:

(1) The term "contribution" includes a gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money or anything of value and includes a contract, promise or agreement, whether or not legally enforceable, to make a contribution, given with the intent of influencing the passage or defeat of any pending or proposed legislation;

(2) The term "expenditure" includes a payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money or anything of value, and includes a contract, promise or agreement, whether or not legally enforceable, to make an expenditure.

(3) The term "person" includes an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, and any other organization or group of persons. The term does not include a member or member-elect of either house of the state legislature;

(4) The term "legislation" means bills, resolutions, amendments, nominations, and other matters pending or proposed in either house of the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Any person who shall be engaged for pay or for any consideration for the purpose of attempting to influence the passage or defeat of any legislation by the legislature of the state of Washington or the approval or veto of any legislation by the governor of the state of Washington shall register with the president of the senate and the speaker of the house before doing anything in furtherance of such object and shall give to such officers in writing and under oath a statement showing:

(a) Name and business address;

(b) Name and address of the person or persons by whom he is employed and in whose interest he appears or works and by whom he is compensated;

(c) The duration of such employment;

(d) Whether he is paid on a permanent basis with a lobbying assignment as a partial, temporary or incidental part of his duties, or whether his compensated employment is solely for lobbying purposes;

(e) A written authorization from each person by whom he is so employed;

(f) The general area or areas of his legislative interest.

(2) In addition, any person as described in subsection (1) above shall similarly file not later than sixty days after the adjournment of each regular and extraordinary session of the legislature a statement which shall contain the total of all contributions and expenditures made, incurred, or expended for the purposes described in this section exclusive of personal living and travel expenses: Provided, However, That when an extraordinary session follows immediately after a regular session such statement shall be filed not later than sixty days after the adjournment of the extraordinary session.

(3) Each statement required by this section shall be made on forms agreed upon by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house, a duplicate copy of which shall be filed with and preserved by the secretary of state for a period of three years as a public record open to public inspection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The following activities shall not be deemed to require compliance with section 2 of this act:

(1) The activities or appearance of a person promoting or opposing the passage of any legislation or its approval or veto by the governor, in his own behalf and not as a representative, agent or employee of another person;

(2) Providing professional services in the drafting of legislative measures or in advising clients and rendering opinions as to the construction and effect of proposed or pending legislation, or in communicating with members of the legislature or the governor in connection therewith;

(3) Appearing or testifying before a committee of the legislature in support of or in opposition to any legislation;

(4) Giving testimony at committee hearings upon the request of the legislature or a committee or a member thereof;

(5) Giving testimony or contacting legislators by government employees as a part of their official duties; or

(6) News or feature reporting activities by working members of the press, radio, or television.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. No agreement to accomplish any purpose set forth in section 2 of this act shall be enforceable and no action shall be brought thereon where payment of all or any part of the compensation under said agreement depends in any manner upon the passage or defeat or executive approval or veto of any legislation, or upon any other contingency in connection with legislation: Provided, That this section shall not apply to those agreements made between attorney and client in connection with claims against the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Any person who:

(a) Fails to file a statement required by section 2 of this act;

(b) Fails to comply with any other provision of this act; or

(c) Files a statement required by this act containing false information;

Shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than twelve months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) Any person who wilfully files a false statement with knowledge of its falsity shall be guilty of a felony.

Any person convicted of a violation of this act shall be prohibited for a period of ten years from the date of such conviction from being registered as a lobbyist in either the senate or the house of representatives; and in addition thereto, shall be liable for damage caused by such violation to any person or persons adversely affected thereby including members and members-elect of the Washington state legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The attorney general shall enforce the provisions of this act and shall prosecute, or may delegate to the appropriate prosecuting attorney the prosecution of all violations of this act: Provided, That this section shall not preclude actions for the recovery of damages.

Senate Members:

Fred H. Dore
Perry B. Woodall
Dewey C. Donohue

House Members:

Norwood Cunningham
Thomas A. Swayze, Jr.
R. Ted Bottiger

On motion of Senator Dore, the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 122 was adopted.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 3, chapter 19, Laws of 1951 second extraordinary session as amended by section 1, chapter 208, Laws of 1959 and RCW 28.45.035 are each amended to read as follows:

The [board of county commissioners] state department of revenue shall provide by [ordinance] rule for the determination of the selling price in the case of leases with option to purchase, and shall further provide that the tax shall not be payable, where inequity will otherwise result, until and unless the option is exercised and accepted. [In counties in which mining property is located the board of county commissioners shall provide by ordinance that] A conditional sale of mining property in which the buyer has the right to terminate the contract at any time, and a lease and option to buy mining property in which the lessee-buyer has the right to terminate the lease and option at any time, shall be taxable at the time of execution only on the consideration received by the seller or lessor for execution of such contract, but the [ordinance] rule shall further provide that the tax due on any additional consideration paid by the buyer and received by the seller shall be paid to the county treasurer (1) at the time of termination, or (2) at the time that all of the consideration due to the seller has been paid and the transaction is completed except for the delivery of the deed to the buyer, or (3) at the time when the buyer unequivocally exercises an option to purchase the property, whichever of the three events occurs first.

The term "mining property" means property containing or believed to contain metallic minerals and sold or leased under terms which require the purchaser or lessor to conduct exploration or mining work thereon and for no other use. The term "metallic minerals" does not include clays, coal, sand and gravel, peat, gypsite, or stone, including limestone.

The [board] state department of revenue shall further provide by [ordinance] rule for cases where the selling price is not separately stated or is not ascertainable at the time of sale, for the payment of the tax at a time when the selling price is ascertained, in which case suitable security may be required for payment of the tax, and may further provide for the determination of the selling price by an appraisal by the county assessor, based on the full and true market value, which appraisal shall be prima facie evidence of the selling price of the real property.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1951 first extraordinary session as last amended by section 2, chapter 171, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 28.45.040 are each amended to read as follows:

[Whenever the boards of directors of more than a majority of the school districts in any county shall adopt resolutions declaring that a need exists for additional funds for the support of the schools, such resolution to be adopted after a public hearing after reasonable notice in each of the respective districts, and shall file the same with the board of county commissioners prior to the first day of May of any year,] It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of each county to pay to each school district [during the ensuing year] a sum equal to seventeen cents per day for each weighted student enrolled, based upon a full school year of one hundred eighty days. The year during which the payments herein required are to be made shall be from the first day of May to the last day of April, inclusive: Provided, That in the event a county [, for a period of twelve months prior to the first day of May of any year,] levies a tax of not less than one percent on the sales of real estate in the county as permitted and provided for in this chapter and assigns the entire proceeds of one percent or so much as necessary to make the above payment to the county school fund for distribution to the various school districts, there shall be no further liability upon the county for this purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 28.45 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The [tax commission] department of revenue is authorized and directed to prescribe minimum standards for uniformity in reporting, application, and collection of the real estate excise tax imposed by this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 7, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, and RCW 82.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

"Sale at retail" or "retail sale" means every sale of tangible personal property (including articles produced, fabricated, or imprinted) to all persons irrespective of the nature of their business and including, among others, without limiting the scope hereof, persons who install, repair, clean, alter, improve, construct, or decorate real or personal property of or for consumers other than a sale to a person who (a) purchases for the purpose of resale as tangible personal property in the regular course of business without intervening use by such person, or (b) installs, repairs, cleans, alters, imprints, improves, constructs, or decorates real or personal property of or for consumers, if such tangible personal property becomes an ingredient or component of such real or personal property without intervening use by such person, or (c) purchases for the purpose of consuming the property purchased in producing for sale a new article of tangible personal property or substance, of which such property becomes an ingredient or component or is a chemical used in processing, when the primary purpose of such chemical is to create a chemical reaction directly through contact with an ingredient of a new article being produced for sale. The term shall include every sale of tangible personal property which is used or consumed or to be used or consumed in the performance of any activity classified as a "sale at retail" or "retail sale" even though such property is resold or utilized as provided in (a), (b), or (c) above following such use. The term also means every sale of tangible personal property to persons engaged in any business which is taxable under RCW 82.04.280, subsection (2), and 82.04.290.

The term "sale at retail" or "retail sale" shall include the sale of or charge made for tangible personal property consumed and/or for labor and services rendered in respect to the following: (a) The installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, imprinting, or improving of tangible personal property of or for consumers, including charges made for the mere use of facilities in respect thereto, but excluding charges made for the use of coin operated laundry facilities when such facilities are situated in an apartment house, hotel, motel, rooming house, trailer camp or tourist camp for the exclusive use of the tenants thereof, and excluding services rendered in respect to live animals, birds and insects; (b) the constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon, or above real property of or for consumers, including the installing or attaching of any article of tangible personal property therein or thereto, whether or not such personal property becomes a part of the realty by virtue of installation, and shall also include the sale of services or charges made for the clearing of land and the moving of earth excepting the mere leveling of land used in commercial farming or agriculture; (c) the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the cleaning, fumigating, razing or moving of existing buildings or structures, but shall not include the charge made for janitorial services; (d) the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to automobile towing and similar automotive transportation services, but not in respect to those required to report and pay taxes under chapter 82.16; (e) the sale of and charge made for the furnishing of lodging and all other services by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, trailer camp, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property, and it shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes a rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or enjoy the same; (f) the sale of or charge made for tangible personal property, labor and services to persons taxable under (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) above when such sales or charges are for property, labor and services which are used or consumed in whole or in part by such persons in the performance of any activity defined as a "sale at retail" or "retail sale" even though such property, labor and services may be resold after such use or consumption. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to modify the first paragraph of this section and nothing contained in the first paragraph of this section shall be construed to modify this paragraph.

The term "sale at retail" or "retail sale" shall include the sale of or charge made for personal business or professional services, including amounts designated as interest, rents, fees, admission, and other service emoluments however designated, received by persons engaging in the following business activities: (a) amusement and recreation businesses including but not limited to golf, pool, billiards, skating, bowling, ski lifts and tows and others; (b) abstract, title insurance and escrow businesses; (c) credit bureau businesses; (d) automobile parking and storage garage businesses.

The term shall also include the renting or leasing of tangible personal property to consumers.

The term shall not include the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the building, repairing, or improving of any publicly owned street, place, road, highway, bridge, or trestle which is used or to be used primarily for foot or vehicular traffic, nor shall it include sales of feed, seed, fertilizer, and spray materials to persons for the purpose of producing for sale any agricultural product whatsoever, including milk, eggs, wool, fur, meat, honey, or other substances obtained from animals, birds, or insects but only when such production and subsequent sale are exempt from tax under RCW 82.04.330, nor shall it include sales of chemical sprays or washes to persons for the purpose of post-harvest treatment of fruit for the prevention of scald, fungus, mold, or decay.

Sec. 5. Section 82.04.130, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.04.130 are each amended to read as follows:

"Commercial or industrial use" means the following uses of products, including byproducts, by the extractor or manufacturer thereof:

- (1) Any use as a consumer; and
- (2) The manufacturing of articles, substances or commodities [from extracted products, including byproducts].

Sec. 6. Section 82.04.190, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.04.190 are each amended to read as follows:

"Consumer" means the following:

- (1) Any person who purchases, acquires, owns, holds, or uses any article of tangible personal property irrespective of the nature of his business and including, among others, without limiting the scope hereof, persons who install, repair, clean, alter, improve, construct, or decorate real or personal property of or for consumers other than for the purpose (a) of resale as tangible personal property in the regular course of business or (b) of incorporating such property as an ingredient or component of real or personal property when installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, imprinting, improving, constructing, or decorating such real or personal property of or for consumers or (c) of consuming such property in producing for sale a new article of tangible personal property or a new substance, of which such property becomes an ingredient or component or as a chemical used in processing, when the primary purpose of such chemical is to create a chemical reaction directly through contact with an ingredient of a new article being produced for sale;

- (2) Any person engaged in any business activity taxable under RCW 82.04.290;

- (3) Any person engaged in the business of contracting for the building, repairing or improving of any publicly owned street, place, road, highway, bridge or trestle which is used or to be used primarily for foot or vehicular traffic as defined in RCW 82.04.280, in respect [, however, only] to tangible personal property [used or consumed in such business.] when such person incorporates such property as an ingredient or component of such publicly owned street, place, road, highway, bridge or trestle by installing, placing or spreading the property in or upon the right of way of such street, place, road, highway, bridge or trestle;

- (4) Any person who is an owner, lessee or has the right of possession to or an easement in real or personal property which is being constructed, repaired, improved, cleaned, imprinted, or otherwise altered by a person engaged in business, excluding only the United States, the state, and its political subdivisions in respect to labor and services rendered to their real property which is used or held for public road purposes. Nothing contained in this or any other subsection of this definition shall be construed to modify any other definition of "consumer".

Sec. 7. Section 82.04.230, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.04.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person engaging within this state in business as an extractor; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products, including byproducts, extracted for sale or for commercial or industrial use, multiplied by the rate of [one-quarter] forty-four one-hundredths of one percent;

The measure of the tax is the value of the products, including byproducts, so extracted, regardless of the place of sale or the fact that deliveries may be made to points outside the state.

Sec. 8. Section 82.04.240, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.04.240 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person except persons taxable under subsections (2), (3), (4), [or] (5), (6), or (8) of RCW 82.04.260 engaging within this state in business as a manufacturer; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products, including byproducts, manufactured, multiplied by the rate of [one-quarter] forty-four one-hundredths of one percent.

The measure of the tax is the value of the products, including byproducts, so manufactured regardless of the place of sale or the fact that deliveries may be made to points outside the state.

Sec. 9. Section 82.04.250, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.04.250 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of making sales at retail, as to such persons, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of the business, multiplied by the rate of [one-quarter] forty-four one-hundredths of one percent.

Sec. 10. Section 82.04.260, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 6, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.04.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of buying wheat, oats, dry peas, corn, and barley, but not including any manufactured or processed products thereof, and selling the same at wholesale; the tax imposed shall be equal to the gross proceeds derived from such sales multiplied by the rate of one one-hundredth of one percent.

(2) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing wheat into flour; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the flour manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-eighth of one percent.

(3) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of splitting or processing dried peas; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the peas split or processed, multiplied by the rate of one-quarter of one percent.

(4) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing seafood products which remain in a raw, raw frozen, or raw salted state at the completion of the manufacturing by that person; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-eighth of one percent.

[(4)] (5) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing by canning, preserving, freezing or dehydrating fresh fruits and vegetables; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products canned, preserved, frozen or dehydrated multiplied by the rate of three-tenths of one percent.

[(5)] (6) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing aluminum pig, ingot, billet, plate, sheet (flat or coiled), rod, bar, wire, cable or extrusions; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products manufactured multiplied by the rate of four-tenths of one percent.

[(6)] (7) Upon every nonprofit corporation and nonprofit association engaging within this state in research and development, as to such corporations and associations, the amount of tax with respect to such activities shall be equal to the gross income derived from such activities multiplied by the rate of forty-four one-hundredths of one percent.

(8) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of slaughtering, breaking and/or processing perishable meat products and/or selling the same at wholesale; as to such persons the tax imposed shall be equal to the gross proceeds derived from such sales multiplied by the rate of thirty-three one-hundredths of one percent.

Sec. 11. Section 82.04.270, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.04.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon every person except persons taxable under subsection (1) of RCW 82.04.260 engaging within this state in the business of making sales at wholesale; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of such business multiplied by the rate of [one-quarter] forty-four one-hundredths of one percent.

(2) The tax imposed by this section is levied and shall be collected from every person engaged in the business of distributing in this state articles of tangible personal property, owned by them from their own warehouse or other central location in this state to two or more of their own retail stores or outlets, where no change of title or ownership occurs, the intent hereof being to impose a tax equal to the wholesaler's tax upon persons performing functions essentially comparable to those of a wholesaler, but not actually making sales: Provided, That the tax designated in this section may not be assessed twice to the same person for the same article. The amount of the tax as to such persons shall be computed by multiplying [one-quarter] forty-four one-hundredths of one percent of the value of the article so distributed as of the time of such distribution: Provided, That persons engaged in the activities described in this subsection shall not be liable for the tax imposed if by proper invoice it can be shown that they have purchased such property from a wholesaler who has paid a business and occupation tax to the state upon the same articles. This proviso shall not apply to purchases from manufacturers as defined in RCW 82.04.110. The [tax commission] department of revenue shall prescribe uniform and equitable rules for the purpose of ascertaining such value, which value shall correspond as nearly as possible to the gross proceeds from sales at wholesale in this state of similar articles of like quality and character, and in similar quantities by other taxpayers: Provided Further, That delivery trucks or vans will not under the purposes of this section be considered to be retail stores or outlets.

Sec. 12. Section 82.04.275, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.04.275 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of wholesale sales of manufacturer's stock of cigarettes warehoused in this state by the manufacturer and sold by him at wholesale in this state; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of such business multiplied by the rate of [one-tenth] one hundred seventy-six one-thousandths of one percent.

Persons and activities taxed under this section shall not be liable for the wholesaling tax under the provisions of RCW 82.04.270.

Sec. 13. Section 82.04.280, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 168, Laws of 1963 and RCW 82.04.280 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of: (1) Printing, and of publishing newspapers, periodicals or magazines; (2) building, repairing or improving any publicly owned street, place, road, highway, bridge, or trestle which is used or to be used, primarily for foot or vehicular traffic including any readjustment, reconstruction or relocation of the facilities of any public, private or cooperatively owned utility or railroad in the course of such building, repairing or improving, the cost of which readjustment, reconstruction, or relocation, is the responsibility of the public authority whose street, place, road, highway, bridge or trestle is being built, repaired or improved; (3) extracting for hire or processing for hire; (4) operating a cold storage warehouse, but not including the rental of cold storage lockers; (5) representing and performing services for fire or casualty insurance companies as an independent resident managing general agent licensed under the provisions of RCW 48.05.310; (6) radio and television broadcasting, excluding network, national and regional advertising computed as a standard deduction based on the national average thereof as annually reported by the Federal Communications Commission, or in lieu thereof by itemization by the individual broadcasting station, and excluding that portion of revenue represented by the out-of-state audience computed as a ratio to the station's total audience as measured by the 100 micro-volt signal strength and delivery by wire, if any; as to such persons, the amount of tax on such business shall be equal to the gross income of the business multiplied by the rate of [one-quarter] forty-four one-hundredths of one percent.

Sec. 14. Section 82.04.290, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 28, Laws of 1963 extraordinary session and RCW 82.04.290 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person engaging within this state in any business activity other than or in addition to those enumerated in RCW 82.04.230, 82.04.240, 82.04.250, 82.04.260, 82.04.270, 82.04.275 and 82.04.280; as to such persons the amount of tax on account of such activities shall be equal to the gross income of the business multiplied by the rate of one percent. This section includes, among others, and without limiting the scope hereof (whether or not title to materials used in the performance of such business passes to another by accession, confusion or other than by outright sale), persons engaged in the business of rendering any type of service which does not constitute a "sale at retail" or a "sale at wholesale." The value of advertising, demonstration, and promotional supplies and materials furnished to an agent by his principal or supplier to be used for informational, educational and promotional purposes shall not be considered a part of the agent's remuneration or commission and shall not be subject to taxation under this section. [The additional tax imposed in RCW 82.04.296 shall not apply to persons or activities taxable under this section.]

Sec. 15. Section 82.04.410, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.04.410 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to amounts derived by persons engaged in [operating chick hatcheries from] the production and sale of [chicks and] hatching eggs or poultry for use in the production for sale of poultry or poultry products.

Sec. 16. Section 82.04.440, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 12, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.04.440 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person engaged in activities which are within the purview of the provisions of two or more of sections RCW 82.04.230 to 82.04.290, inclusive, shall be taxable under each paragraph applicable to the activities engaged in: Provided, That persons taxable under RCW 82.04.250 or 82.04.270 shall not be taxable under RCW 82.04.230, 82.04.240 or subsection (2), (3), (4), [or] (5), (6), or (8) of RCW 82.04.260 with respect to extracting or manufacturing of the products so sold, and that persons taxable under RCW 82.04.240 or RCW 82.04.260 subsection (4) shall not be taxable under RCW 82.04.230 with respect to extracting the ingredients of the products so manufactured.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In computing the tax imposed by this chapter, municipal sewerage utilities and other public corporations imposing and collecting fees or charges for sewer service may deduct from the measure of the tax, amounts paid to another municipal corporation or governmental agency for sewerage interception, treatment or disposal.

Sec. 18. Section 82.08.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 244, Laws of 1963 and RCW 82.08.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Selling price" means the consideration, whether money, credits, rights, or other property, expressed in the terms of money paid or delivered by a buyer to a seller, all without any deduction on account of the cost of tangible property sold, the cost of materials used, labor costs, interest, discount, delivery costs, taxes, or any other expenses whatsoever paid or accrued and without any deduction on account of losses; but shall not include the amount of cash discount actually taken by a buyer; and shall be subject to modification to the extent modification is provided for in RCW 82.08.080 [;].

When tangible personal property is rented or leased under circumstances that the consideration paid does not represent a reasonable rental for the use of the articles so rented or leased, the "selling price" shall be determined as nearly as possible according to the value of such use at the places of use of similar products of like quality and character under such rules as the department of revenue may prescribe;

(2) "Seller" means every person making sales at retail or retail sales to a buyer or consumer, whether as agent, broker, or principal;

(3) "Buyer" and "consumer" include, without limiting the scope hereof, every individual, receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, trust, estate, firm, copartnership, joint venture, club, company, joint stock company, business trust, corporation, association, society, or any group of individuals acting as a unit, whether mutual, cooperative, fraternal, nonprofit, or otherwise, municipal corporation, quasi municipal corporation, and also the state, its departments and institutions and all political subdivisions thereof, irrespective of the nature of the activities engaged in or functions performed, and also the United States or any instrumentality thereof;

(4) The meaning attributed in chapter 82.04 to the terms "tax year," "taxable year," "person," "company," "sale," "sale at retail," "retail sale," "sale at wholesale," "wholesale," "business," "engaging in business," "cash discount," "successor," "consumer," "in this state" and "within this state" shall apply equally to the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 19. Section 82.08.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 13, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is levied and there shall be collected a tax on each retail sale in this state equal to [three and one-third] four and one-half percent of the selling price [; Provided, That from June 1, 1965 the tax imposed by this section shall be equal to four and two-tenths percent of the selling price]. The tax imposed under this chapter shall apply to successive retail sales of the same property and to the retail sale of intoxicating liquor by the Washington state liquor stores.

Sec. 20. Section 82.08.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1967 and RCW 82.08.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The tax hereby levied shall not apply to the following sales:

(1) Casual and isolated sales of property or service, unless made by a person who is engaged in a business activity taxable under chapters 82.04, 82.16 or 82.28; Provided, That the exemption provided by this paragraph shall not be construed as providing any exemption from the tax imposed by chapter 82.12;

(2) Sales made by persons in the course of business activities with respect to which tax liability is specifically imposed under chapter 82.16, when the gross proceeds from such sales must be included in the measure of the tax imposed under said chapter;

(3) The distribution and newsstand sale of newspapers;

(4) Sales which the state is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution of this state or the Constitution or laws of the United States;

(5) Sales of motor vehicle fuel used in aircraft by the manufacturer thereof for research, development, and testing purposes and sales of motor vehicle fuel taxable under chapter 82.36; Provided, That the use of any such fuel upon which a refund of the motor vehicle fuel tax has been obtained shall be subject to the tax imposed by chapter 82.12;

(6) Sales (including transfers of title through decree of appropriation) heretofore or hereafter made of the entire operating property of a publicly or privately owned public utility, or of a complete operating integral section thereof, to the state or a political subdivision thereof for use in conducting any business defined in subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10) or (11) of RCW 82.16.010;

(7) Auction sales made by or through auctioneers of tangible personal property (including household goods) which have been used in conducting a farm activity, when the seller thereof is a farmer and the sale is held or conducted upon a farm and not otherwise;

(8) Sales to corporations which have been incorporated under any act of the congress of the United States and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same;

(9) Sales of purebred livestock for breeding purposes where the animals are registered in a nationally recognized breed association; sales of cattle and milk cows used on the farm;

(10) Sales of tangible personal property (other than the type referred to in subdivision (11) hereof) for use by the purchaser in connection with the business of operating as a private or common carrier by air, rail, or water in interstate or foreign commerce; Provided, That any actual use of such property in this state shall, at the time of such actual use, be subject to the tax imposed by chapter 82.12;

(11) Sales of airplanes, locomotives, railroad cars, or watercraft for use in conducting interstate or foreign commerce by transporting therein or therewith property and persons for hire or for use in conducting commercial deep sea fishing operations outside the territorial waters of the state; also sales of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of such airplanes, locomotives, railroad cars, or watercraft, and of motor vehicles or trailers used by the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission authorizing transportation by motor vehicle across the boundaries of this state, in the course of constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving the same; also sales of or charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to such constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving;

(12) Sales of motor vehicles and trailers to be used for the purpose of transporting therein persons or property for hire in interstate or foreign commerce: Provided, That the purchaser must be the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission and that the vehicles will first move upon the highways of this state from the point of delivery in this state to a point outside of this state under the authority of a one-transit permit issued by the director of [licenses] motor vehicles pursuant to the provisions of RCW 46.16.100;

(13) Sales of motor vehicles and trailers to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state, even though delivery be made within this state, but only when (a) the vehicles or trailers will be taken from the point of delivery in this state directly to a point outside this state under the authority of a one-transit permit issued by the director of [licenses] motor vehicles pursuant to the provisions of RCW 46.16.100, or (b) said motor vehicles and trailers will be registered and licensed immediately under the laws of the state of the purchaser's residence, will not be used in this state more than three months, and will not be required to be registered and licensed under the laws of this state;

(14) Sales to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of any machinery or other article of personal property belonging to such nonresident, in the course of installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving the same and also sales of or charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to any installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving, of personal property of or for a nonresident, but this subsection (14) shall apply only when the seller agrees to, and does, deliver the property to the purchaser at a point outside this state, or delivers the property to a common or bona fide private carrier consigned to the purchaser at a point outside this state;

(15) Sales to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state of watercraft requiring coast guard registration or registration by the state of principal use according to the Federal Boating Act of 1958, even though delivery be made within this state, but only when (a) the watercraft will not be used within this state for more than forty-five days and (b) an appropriate exemption certificate supported by identification ascertaining residence as provided by the [tax commission] department of revenue and signed by the purchaser or his agent establishing the fact that the purchaser is a nonresident and that the watercraft is for use outside of this state, one copy to be filed with the [tax commission] department of revenue with the regular report and a duplicate to be retained by the dealer.

(16) Sales of poultry for use in the production for sale of poultry or poultry products.

(17) Sales to nonresidents of this state for use outside of this state of machinery and implements for use in conducting a farming activity, when such machinery and implements will be transported immediately outside the state. As proof of exemption, an affidavit or certification in such form as the [tax commission] department of revenue shall require shall be made for each such sale, to be retained as a business record of the seller.

(18) Sales for use in states, territories and possessions of the United States which are not contiguous to any other state, but only when, as a necessary incident to the contract of sale, the seller delivers the subject matter of the sale to the purchaser or his designated agent at the usual receiving terminal of the carrier selected to transport the goods, under such circumstances that it is reasonably certain that the goods will be transported directly to a destination in such noncontiguous states, territories and possessions.

(19) Sales to municipal corporations, the state, and all political subdivisions thereof of tangible personal property consumed and/or of labor and services rendered in respect to contracts for watershed protection and/or flood prevention. This exemption shall be limited to that portion of the selling price which is reimbursed by the United States government according to the provisions of the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act, Public Laws 566, as amended;

(20) Sales of semen for use in the artificial insemination of livestock;

(21) Sales to nonresidents of this state of tangible personal property for use outside this state when the purchaser has applied for and received from the [tax commission] department of revenue a permit certifying (1) that he is a bona fide resident of a state or possession or Province of Canada other than the state of Washington, (2) that such state, possession, or Province of Canada does not impose a retail sales tax or use tax of three percent or more or, if imposing such a tax, permits Washington residents exemption from otherwise taxable sales by reason of their residence, and (3) that he does agree, when requested, to grant the [tax commission] department of revenue access to such records and other forms of verification at his place of residence to assure that such purchases are not first used substantially in the state of Washington.

Any person claiming exemption from retail sales tax under the provisions of this subsection must display a nonresident permit as herein provided, and any vendor making a sale to a nonresident without collecting the tax must examine such permit, identify the purchaser as the person to whom the nonresident permit was issued, and maintain records which shall show the permit number attributable to each nontaxable sale.

Permits shall be personal and nontransferable, shall be renewable annually, and shall be issued by the [tax commission] department of revenue upon payment of a fee of one dollar. The [commission] department may in its discretion designate independent agents for the issuance of permits, according to such standards and qualifications as the [commission] department may prescribe. Such agents shall pay over and account to the [commission] department for all permit fees collected, after deducting as a collection fee the sum of fifty cents for each permit issued.

Any person making fraudulent statements in order to secure a permit shall be guilty of perjury. Any person making tax exempt purchases by displaying a permit not his own, or a counterfeit permit, with intent to violate the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, in addition, may be subject to a penalty not to exceed the amount of the tax due on such purchases. Any vendor who makes sales without collecting the tax to a person who does not hold a valid permit, and any vendor who fails to maintain records of permit numbers as provided in this section shall be personally liable for the amount of tax due.

(22) Sales of form lumber to any person engaged in the constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon or above real property of or for consumers: Provided, That such lumber is used or to be used first by such person for the molding of concrete in a single such contract, project or job and is thereafter incorporated into the product of that same contract, project or job as an ingredient or component thereof.

(23) Sales of, cost of, or charges made for labor and services performed in respect to the mining, sorting, crushing, screening, washing, hauling, and stockpiling of sand, gravel and rock when such sand, gravel, or rock is taken from a pit or quarry which is owned by or leased to a county or a city, and such sand, gravel, or rock is (1) either stockpiled in said pit or quarry for placement or is placed on the street, road, place, or highway of the county or city by the county or city itself, or (2) sold by the county or city to a county, or a city at actual cost for placement on a publicly owned street, road, place, or highway. The exemption provided for in this subsection shall not apply to sales of, cost of, or charges made for such labor and services, if the sand, gravel, or rock is used for other than public road purposes or is sold otherwise than as provided for in this subsection.

(25) Sales of pollen.

Sec. 21. Section 82.12.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 17, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Value of the article used" shall mean the consideration, whether money, credit, rights, or other property, expressed in terms of money, paid or given or contracted to be paid or given by the purchaser to the seller for the article of tangible personal property, the use of which is taxable under this chapter. The term includes, in addition to the consideration paid or given or contracted to be paid or given, the amount of any tariff or duty paid with respect to the importation of the article used. In case the article used is acquired by lease or by gift or is extracted, produced, or manufactured by the person using the same or is sold under conditions wherein the purchase price does not represent the true value thereof, the value of the article used shall be determined as nearly as possible according to the retail selling price at place of use of similar products of like quality and character under such rules and regulations as the [tax commission] department of revenue may prescribe.

In case the articles used are acquired by bailment, the value of the use of the articles so used shall be in an amount representing a reasonable rental for the use of the articles so bailed, determined as nearly as possible according to the value of such use at the places of use of similar products of like quality and character under such rules and regulations as the [tax commission] department of revenue may prescribe [;

In the case of articles manufactured or produced by the user and used in the manufacture or production of products sold or to be sold to the department of defense of the United States, the value of the articles used shall be determined according to the value of the ingredients of such articles].

(2) "Use," "used," "using," or "put to use" shall have their ordinary meaning, and shall mean the first act within this state by which the taxpayer takes or assumes dominion or control over the article of tangible personal property (as a consumer), and include installation, storage, withdrawal from storage, or any other act preparatory to subsequent actual use or consumption within this state;

(3) "Taxpayer" and "purchaser" include all persons included within the meaning of the word "buyer" and the word "consumer" as defined in chapters 82.04 and 82.08;

(4) "Retailer" means every person engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property at retail and every person required to collect from purchasers the tax imposed under this chapter;

(5) The meaning ascribed to words and phrases in chapters 82.04 and 82.08, insofar as applicable, shall have full force and effect with respect to taxes imposed under the provisions of this chapter. "Consumer," in addition to the meaning ascribed to it in chapters 82.04 and 82.08 insofar as applicable, shall also mean any person who distributes or displays, or causes to be distributed or displayed, any article of tangible personal property, except newspapers, the primary purpose of which is to promote the sale of products or services.

Sec. 22. Section 82.12.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 18, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby levied and there shall be collected from every person in this state a tax or excise for the privilege of using within this state as a consumer any article of tangible personal property purchased at retail, or acquired by lease, gift, repossession, or bailment, or extracted or produced or manufactured by the person so using the same. This tax will not apply with respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property purchased, extracted, produced or manufactured outside this state until the transportation of such article has finally ended or until such article has become commingled with the general mass of property in this state. This tax shall apply to the use of every article of tangible personal property, including property acquired at a casual or isolated sale, and including byproducts used by the manufacturer thereof, except as hereinafter provided, irrespective of whether the article or similar articles are manufactured or are available for purchase within this state. Except as provided in subdivision (2) of RCW 82.12.030, payment by one purchaser or user of tangible personal property of the tax imposed by chapter 82.08 or 82.12 shall not have the effect of exempting any other purchaser or user of the same property from the taxes imposed by such chapters. The tax shall be levied and collected in an amount equal to the value of the article used by the taxpayer multiplied by the rate of four and [two-tenths] one-half percent.

Sec. 23. Section 82.12.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 19, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply:

(1) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property brought into the state by a nonresident thereof for his use or enjoyment while temporarily within the state unless such property is used in conducting a nontransitory business activity within the state; or in respect to the use by a nonresident of this state of a motor vehicle which is registered or licensed under the laws of the state of his residence and is not used in this state more than three months, and which is not required to be registered or licensed under the laws of this state; or in respect to the use of household goods, personal effects and private automobiles by a bona fide resident of this state, if such articles were acquired and used by such person in another state while a bona fide resident thereof and such acquisition and use occurred more than thirty days prior to the time he entered this state;

(2) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property purchased at retail or acquired by lease, gift or bailment if the sale thereof to, or the use thereof by, the present user or his bailor or donor has already been subjected to the tax under chapter 82.08 or 82.12 and such tax has been paid by the present user or by his bailor or donor; or in respect to the use of property acquired by bailment and such tax has once been paid based on reasonable rental as determined by RCW 82.12.060 measured by the value of the article at time of first use multiplied by the tax rate imposed by chapter 82.08 or 82.12 as of the time of first use; or in respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property acquired by bailment, if the property was acquired by a previous bailee from the same bailor for use in the same general activity and such original bailment was prior to June 9, 1961;

(3) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property the sale of which is specifically taxable under chapter 82.16;

(4) In respect to the use of any airplane, locomotive, railroad car, or watercraft used primarily in conducting interstate or foreign commerce by transporting therein or therewith property and persons for hire or used primarily in commercial deep sea fishing operations outside the territorial waters of the state, and in respect to use of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of any such airplane, locomotive, railroad car, or watercraft, and in respect to the use by the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission of any motor vehicle or trailer used in substantial part in the normal and ordinary course of the user's business for transporting therein persons or property for hire across the boundaries of this state if the first use of which within this state is actual use in conducting interstate or foreign commerce; and in respect to the use of any motor vehicle or trailer while being operated under the authority of a one-transit permit issued by the director of [licenses] motor vehicles pursuant to RCW 46.16.100 and moving upon the highways from the point of delivery in this state to a point outside this state; and in respect to the use of tangible personal property which becomes a component part of any motor vehicle or trailer used by the holder of a carrier permit issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission authorizing transportation by motor vehicle across the boundaries of this state;

(5) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property which the state is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution of the state or under the Constitution or laws of the United States;

(6) In respect to the use of motor vehicle fuel used in aircraft by the manufacturer thereof for research, development, and testing purposes and motor vehicle fuel taxable under chapter 82.36: Provided, That the use of such fuel upon which a refund of the motor vehicle fuel tax is obtained shall not be exempt, and the director of [licenses] motor vehicles shall deduct from the amount of such tax to be refunded the amount of tax due under this chapter and remit the same each month to the [tax commission] department of revenue;

(7) In respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property included within the transfer of the title to the entire operating property of a publicly or privately owned public utility, or of a complete operating integral section thereof, by the state or a political subdivision thereof in conducting any business defined in subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), or (11) of RCW 82.16.010;

(8) In respect to the use of tangible personal property (including household goods) which have been used in conducting a farm activity, if such property was purchased from a farmer at an auction sale held or conducted by an auctioneer upon a farm and not otherwise;

(9) In respect to the use of tangible personal property by corporations which have been incorporated under any act of the congress of the United States and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of the armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, flood, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same;

(10) In respect to the use of purebred livestock for breeding purposes where said animals are registered in a nationally recognized breed association; sales of cattle and milk cows used on the farm;

(11) In respect to the use of poultry in the production for sale of poultry or poultry products;

(12) In respect to the use of fuel by the extractor or manufacturer thereof when used directly in the operation of the particular extractive operation or manufacturing plant which produced or manufactured the same;

(13) In respect to the use of motor vehicles, equipped with dual controls, which are loaned to and used exclusively by a school in connection with its driver training program: Provided, That this exemption and the term "school" shall apply only to (a) the University of Washington, Washington State University [and], the state colleges and the state community colleges or (b) any public, private or parochial school accredited by either the state board of education or by the University of Washington (the state accrediting station) or (c) any public vocational school meeting the standards, courses and requirements established and prescribed or approved [by the state board for vocational education] in accordance with the Community College Act of 1967 (chapter 8, Laws of 1967 first extraordinary session);

(14) In respect to the use by a bailee of any article of tangible personal property which is entirely consumed in the course of research, development, experimental and testing activities conducted by the user, provided the acquisition or use of such articles by the bailor was not subject to the taxes imposed by chapter 82.08 or chapter 82.12.

(15) In respect to the use by residents of this state of motor vehicles and trailers acquired and used while such persons are members of the armed services and are stationed outside this state pursuant to military orders, but this exemption shall not apply to members of the armed services called to active duty for training purposes for periods of less than six months and shall not apply to the use of motor vehicles or trailers acquired less than thirty days prior to the discharge or release from active duty of any person from the armed services.

(16) In respect to the use of semen in the artificial insemination of livestock;

(17) In respect to the use of form lumber by any person engaged in the constructing, repairing, decorating or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon or above real property of or for consumers: Provided, That such lumber is used or to be used first by such person for the molding of concrete in a single such contract, project or job and is thereafter incorporated into the product of that same contract, project or job as an ingredient or component thereof.

(18) In respect to the use of any sand, gravel, or rock to the extent of the cost of or charges made for labor and services performed in respect to the mining, sorting, crushing, screening, washing, hauling, and stockpiling such sand, gravel, or rock, when such sand, gravel, or rock is taken from a pit or quarry which is owned by or leased to a county or a city, and such sand, gravel, or rock is (1) either stockpiled in said pit or quarry for placement or is placed on the street, road, place, or highway of the county or city by the county or city itself, or (2) sold by the county or city to a county, or a city at actual cost for placement on a publicly owned street, road, place, or highway. The exemption provided for in this subsection shall not apply to the use of such material to the extent of the cost of or charge made for such labor and services, if the material is used for other than public road purposes or is sold otherwise than as provided for in this subsection.

(19) In respect to the use of wearing apparel only as a sample for display for the purpose of effecting sales of goods represented by such sample.

(20) In respect to the use of pollen.

Sec. 24. Section 82.16.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 21, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is levied and there shall be collected from every person a tax for the act or privilege of engaging within this state in any one or more of the businesses herein mentioned. The tax shall be equal to the gross income of the business, multiplied by the rate set out after the business, as follows:

(1) Railroad, express, railroad car, water distribution, light and power, telephone and telegraph businesses: Three and six-tenths percent [: Provided, That a common carrier railroad operating as a plant facility to the extent of eighty percent or more of its business shall pay a tax of one-fourth of one percent on such eighty percent or more of its business and three percent on all other business);

(2) Gas distribution business: Two and four-tenths percent;

(3) Urban transportation business : [One-half] Six-tenths of one percent;

(4) Vessels under sixty-five feet in length, except tugboats, operating upon the waters within the state: [One-half] Six-tenths of one percent;

(5) Motor transportation and tugboat businesses and all public service businesses other than ones mentioned above: One and [one-half] eight-tenths of one percent.

Sec. 25. Section 82.16.050, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 22, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

In computing tax there may be deducted from the gross income the following items:

(1) Amounts derived by municipally owned or operated public service businesses, directly from taxes levied for the support or maintenance thereof: Provided, That this section shall not be construed to exempt service charges which are spread on the property tax rolls and collected as taxes;

(2) Amounts derived from the sale of commodities to persons in the same public service business as the seller, for resale as such within this state. This deduction is allowed only with respect to water distribution, light and power, gas distribution or other public service businesses which furnish water, electrical energy, gas or any other commodity in the performance of public service businesses;

(3) Amounts actually paid by a taxpayer to another person taxable under this chapter as the latter's portion of the consideration due for services furnished jointly by both, if the total amount has been credited to and appears in the gross income reported for tax by the former;

(4) The amount of cash discount actually taken by the purchaser or customer;

(5) The amount of credit losses actually sustained by taxpayers whose regular books of accounts are kept upon an accrual basis;

(6) Amounts derived from business which the state is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution of this state or the Constitution or laws of the United States;

(7) Amounts derived from the distribution of water through an irrigation system, for irrigation purposes;

(8) Amounts derived from the transportation of commodities from points of origin in this state to final destination outside this state, or from points of origin outside this state to final destination in this state, with respect to which the carrier grants to the shipper the privilege of stopping the shipment in transit at some point in this state for the purpose of storing, manufacturing, milling, or other processing, and thereafter forwards the same commodity, or its equivalent, in the same or converted form, under a through freight rate from point of origin to final destination; and amounts derived from the transportation of commodities from points of origin in the state to an export elevator, wharf, dock or ship side on tidewater or navigable tributaries thereto [, from points of origin in the state, and thereafter] from which such commodities are forwarded, without intervening transportation, by [water carrier] vessel, in their original form, to interstate or foreign destinations: Provided, That no deduction will be allowed when the point of origin and the point of delivery to such an export elevator, wharf, dock, or ship side are located within the corporate limits of the same city or town;

(9) Amounts derived from the production, sale, or transfer of electrical energy for resale or consumption outside the state if the production or generation of such energy is subject to tax under the manufacturing classification of chapter 82.04 RCW: Provided, That the exemption set forth in RCW 82.04.310 shall not be applicable to the generation or production of the electrical energy so produced, sold, or transferred: And Provided Further, That no credit has been claimed as an offset to taxes imposed under RCW 82.04.240.

Sec. 26. Section 82.32.090, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 141, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.32.090 are each amended to read as follows:

If payment of any tax due is not received by the [tax commission] department of revenue by the [twenty-fifth] last day of the month in which the tax becomes due, there shall be assessed a penalty of two percent of the amount of the tax; and if the tax is not received [within forty days of the due date] by the last day of the month next succeeding the month in which the due date falls, there shall be assessed a total penalty of ten percent of the amount of the tax; and if the tax is not received [within seventy days of the due date] by the last day of the second month next succeeding the month in which the due date falls, there shall be assessed a total penalty of twenty percent of the amount of the tax. No penalty so added shall be less than two dollars.

If payment of any tax is received within the first ten days of the month next succeeding the month in which the due date falls, the amount of such payment shall be credited to, and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during, the fiscal year in which such due date falls.

If a warrant be issued by the [tax commission] department of revenue for the collection of taxes, increases, and penalties, there shall be added thereto a penalty of five percent of the amount of the tax, but not less than five dollars.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the aggregate of penalties imposed under this chapter for failure to file a return, late payment of any tax, increase, or penalty, or issuance of a warrant shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the tax due, or seven dollars, whichever is greater.

Sec. 27. Section 82.48.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 9, Laws of 1967 first extraordinary session and RCW 82.48.020 are each amended to read as follows:

An annual excise tax is hereby imposed for the privilege of using any aircraft in the state. A current certificate of air worthiness with a current inspection date from the appropriate federal agency and/or the purchase of aviation fuel shall constitute the necessary evidence of aircraft [used] use or intended use. The tax shall be collected for each calendar year by the director of the department of motor vehicles, and must be paid during the month of January. No additional tax shall be imposed under this chapter upon any aircraft upon the transfer of ownership thereof, if the tax imposed by this chapter with respect to such aircraft has already been paid for the year in which transfer of ownership occurs. A penalty of five dollars shall be levied against all aircraft not timely registered: Provided, That the excise tax herein provided for shall not be imposed or collected, for the year 1968 only, with regard to any aircraft on which an excise tax for the calendar year 1967 is paid prior to July 1, 1967, in accordance with section 82.48.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961, and to chapter 82.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For the purposes of this section, "mobile home" means only that type of house trailer more than thirty-two feet in length designed as facility for human habitation and capable of being moved upon the public streets and highways.

Owners of mobile homes who meet the qualifications prescribed by this section shall be exempt from the rate of tax imposed by RCW 82.50.030 and shall in lieu thereof pay a tax at the rate and measure of one percent of the fair market value of the mobile home, as determined in the manner provided in this chapter:

(1) The person claiming the exemption must have regularly occupied the mobile home during the five calendar years preceding the year for which the exemption is claimed; or he or she must have regularly occupied the mobile home during the preceding calendar year and must also have been a resident of the state of Washington for the last ten calendar years preceding the year for which the exemption is claimed.

(2) If the person claiming the exemption is a male, he must have been sixty-five years of age or older on February 15th of the year in which the exemption is claimed, or must have been, at the time of filing, totally disabled and as such retired under a public or private retirement plan.

(3) If the person claiming the exemption is a female, she must have been sixty-two years of age or older on February 15th of the year in which the exemption is claimed.

(4) No person who, during the preceding calendar year, has regularly occupied the mobile home on which the taxes have been imposed shall have received during the preceding calendar year any earnings of the type and amount which would cause any deduction from social security benefits for a recipient of such benefits pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 403: Provided, However, That this subsection shall not apply with respect to an occupant who is related to the person claiming the exemption and who is either a student under the age of twenty-five who is pursuing a full course of studies or who is making payments as a sharing of the expenses of maintaining the mobile home, not in excess of one hundred dollars per month.

(5) The combined income, from all sources whatsoever, of the person claiming the exemption and his or her spouse shall not have been in excess of three thousand dollars for the preceding calendar year.

(6) All claims for exemption shall be made and signed by the person entitled to the exemption or by his or her attorney-in-fact, either before a notary public or the county auditor or his deputy in the county where the excise taxes provided by this chapter are paid; and any person signing a false claim hereunder does so under penalty of perjury;

(7) Claims for exemption shall be made annually between January 1st and March 31st and solely upon forms prescribed by the department of motor vehicles; and

(8) No person entitled to a claim of exemption for taxes on real property under the provisions of RCW 84.36.126 shall have a second claim of exemption by reason of this section.

As used in this section, the term "preceding calendar year" shall mean the calendar year preceding the year in which the taxes for which the exemption is claimed are due and payable.

Sec. 29. Section 83.44.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 83.44.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All taxes imposed by the inheritance tax provisions of this title shall take effect and accrue upon the death of the decedent or donor. If such tax is not paid within fifteen months from the accruing thereof, interest shall be charged and collected at the rate of [six] eight percent per year computed from the expiration of such fifteen month period unless the amount of tax cannot be determined because of litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction or arbitration under the provisions of chapter 83.14 which involves, either directly or indirectly, the amount of tax payable, in which case interest shall not be charged during the time necessarily consumed by such litigation or arbitration: Provided, That in no case shall interest be tolled for a period of more than three years from the expiration of the fifteen months after date of death. The minimum tax due in any event shall be paid within fifteen months from the accruing thereof. In all cases where a bond shall be given under the provisions of RCW 83.16.020 interest shall be charged at the rate of six percent per year from and after a period of sixty days from the time that the person or persons owning the beneficial interest come into the possession of same until the payment thereof.

[The tax commission may, in its discretion, waive the payment of interest required to be assessed under the inheritance tax provisions of this title.]

Sec. 30. Section 84.08.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.08.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The [tax commission] department of revenue shall examine and test the work of county assessors at any time, and have and possess all rights and powers of such assessors for the examination of persons, and property, and for the discovery of property subject to taxation, and if it shall ascertain that any taxable property is omitted from the assessment list, or not assessed or valued according to law, it shall bring the same to the attention of the assessor of the proper county in writing, and if such assessor shall neglect or refuse to comply with the request of the [tax commission] department of revenue to place such property on the assessment list, or to correct such incorrect assessment or valuation the [tax commission] department of revenue shall have the power to prepare a supplement to such assessment list, which supplement shall include all property required by the [tax commission] department of revenue to be placed on the assessment list and all corrections required to be made. Such supplement shall be filed with the assessor's assessment list and shall thereafter constitute an integral part thereof to the exclusion of all portions of the original assessment list inconsistent therewith, and shall be submitted therewith to the county board of equalization. As part of the examining and testing of the work of county assessors to be accomplished pursuant to this section, the department of revenue shall audit at least five percent of all personal property accounts listed in any county each calendar year.

All property belonging exclusively to the United States, the state, any county or municipal corporation shall be exempt from taxation. All property belonging exclusively to a foreign national government shall be exempt from taxation if such property is used exclusively as an office or residence for a consul or other official representative of such foreign national government, and if the consul or other official representative is a citizen of such foreign nation.

Sec. 32. Section 84.36.150, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.36.150 are each amended to read as follows:

[The county assessor shall list and assess] All such grains and flour, fruit and fruit products, vegetables and vegetable products, and fish and fish products shall be listed and assessed as of January 1st of each year, without regard to any average inventory; but the assessor shall cancel any such assessment in whole or in proportionate part upon receipt of sufficient documentary proof that the property so assessed was actually shipped to points outside the state on or before April 30th of such year: Provided, That no such cancellation shall be made unless such proof be furnished to the county assessor before June 1st of such year: Provided Further, That any such assessment of grain shall also be subject to cancellation as provided in this section if sufficient documentary proof be so furnished that the grain so assessed was milled into flour and such flour was actually shipped to points outside the state on or before April 30th of such year.

Sec. 33. Section 3, chapter 168, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 13, chapter 28, Laws of 1963 extraordinary session and RCW 84.36.171 are each amended to read as follows:

Goods, wares, raw furs and merchandise manufactured or produced in any of the states, territories, or possessions of the United States or foreign countries and brought into this state for the purpose of transportation or sale through and to points without the state, and identified at the time the affidavit is filed as property ultimately destined for out-of-state shipment, while being so transported, or while held in storage in a public or private warehouse awaiting such transportation, shall be considered and held to be property in transit and nontaxable if actually shipped to points outside the state. [The county assessor shall list and assess] All such goods, wares and merchandise shall be listed and assessed as of January 1st of each year, without regard to any average inventory, but the assessor shall cancel any such assessment in whole or in proportionate part upon receipt of the affidavit of exemption as set forth in RCW 84.36.172. A sale of or transfer of title to any such property, while being so transported or held in storage, shall not operate to defeat the intent or purpose of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All finished plywood, hardboard and particle board panels shipped from without this state to any processing plant within this state, where the panels are moving under a through freight rate to final destination outside this state and the carrier grants the shipper the privilege of stopping the shipment in transit for the purpose of storing, milling, manufacturing or other processing, while such panels are in the process of being treated or shaped into flat component parts to be incorporated into finished products outside this state and for thirty days after completion of such processing or treatment shall be considered and held to be property in transit and nontaxable.

Sec. 35. Section 84.40.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.020 are each amended to read as follows:

All real property in this state subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed every year, with reference to its value on the first day of January of the year in which it is assessed. All personal property in this state subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed every year, with reference to its value and ownership on the first day of January of the year in which it is assessed: Provided, That if the stock of goods, wares, merchandise or material, whether in a raw or finished state or in process of manufacture, owned or held by any taxpayer on January 1 of any year does not fairly represent the average stock carried by such taxpayer, [the county assessor shall list and assess] such stock shall be listed and assessed upon the basis of the monthly average of stock owned or held by such taxpayer during the preceding calendar year or during such portion thereof as the taxpayer was engaged in business.

Sec. 36. Section 84.40.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The assessor shall begin the preliminary work for each assessment not later than the first day of December of each year in all counties in the state. He shall also complete the duties of listing and placing valuations on all property by May 31st of each year, and in the following manner, to wit:

He shall actually determine as nearly as practicable the true and fair value of each tract or lot of land listed for taxation and of each improvement located thereon and shall enter fifty percent of the value of such land and of the total value of such improvements, together with the total of such fifty percent valuations, opposite each description of property on his assessment list and tax roll.

He shall make an alphabetical list of the names of all persons in his county liable to assessment of personal property, and require each person to make a correct list and statement of such property according to the [prescribed] standard form prescribed by the department of revenue, which statement and list shall include, if required by the form, the year of acquisition and total original cost of personal property in each category of the prescribed form, and shall be [subscribed and sworn to] signed and verified under penalty of perjury by the person listing the property [, and]. Such list and statement shall be filed on or before the last day of March, but the assessor, upon written request filed on or before such date and for good cause shown therein, shall allow a reasonable extension of time for filing. The assessor shall on or before the 1st day of January of each year mail a notice to all such persons at their last known address that such statement and list is required, such notice to be accompanied by the form on which the statement or list is to be made: Provided, That for the years 1968 and 1969 a second notice shall be mailed on or before the 15th day of March: Provided Further, That the notice mailed by the assessor to each taxpayer each year shall, if practicable, include the statement and list of personal property of the taxpayer for the preceding year. Upon receipt of such statement and list the assessor shall thereupon determine the true and fair value of the property included in such statement and enter fifty percent of the same in the assessment books opposite the name of the party assessed; and in making such entry in his assessment list, he shall give the name and post office address of the party listing the property, and if the party resides in a city the assessor shall give the street and number or other brief description of his residence or place of business. The assessor may, after giving written notice of his action to the person to be assessed, add to the assessment list any taxable property which, in his judgment, should be included in such list.

Sec. 37. Section 84.40.060, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.060 are each amended to read as follows:

[The assessor shall call at the office, place of doing business or residence of each person required by this title to list property, and list his name, and shall require such person to make a correct statement of his taxable property, in accordance with the provisions of this title; and every person so required shall enter a true and correct statement of such property in the form prescribed, which statement shall be signed and verified by the oath of the person listing the property, and shall deliver to the assessor, who shall thereupon] Upon receipt of the verified statement of personal property, the assessor shall assess the value of such property and enter fifty percent of the same in his books: Provided, If any property is listed or assessed on or after the 31st day of May, the same shall be legal and binding as if listed and assessed before that time: Provided, Further, That [if from any reason the assessor shall fail to visit any such person, firm or corporation, the said failure shall not impair or invalidate such assessment] any statement of taxable property which is not signed by the person listing the property and which is not verified under penalty of perjury shall not be accepted by the assessor nor shall it be considered in any way to constitute compliance, or an attempt at compliance, with the listing requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 38. Section 84.40.130, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If any person or corporation shall [give a false or fraudulent list, schedule or statement required by this chapter, or shall] fail or refuse to deliver to the assessor, [when called on for that purpose] on or before the date specified in section 36 of this 1967 act, a list of the taxable personal property which he is required to list under this chapter, [he or it shall be liable to a penalty of not less than ten dollars nor more than two thousand dollars, to be recovered in any proper form of action in the name of the state of Washington on the complaint of any person, such fine, when collected, to be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the current expense fund] unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to wilful neglect, there shall be added to the amount of tax assessed against him or it on account of such personal property five percent of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not more than one month, with an additional five percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues not exceeding twenty-five percent in the aggregate. Such penalty shall be collected in the same manner as the tax to which it is added.

(2) If any person or corporation shall wilfully give a false or fraudulent list, schedule or statement required by this chapter, or shall, with intent to defraud, fail or refuse to deliver any list, schedule or statement required by this chapter, such person or corporation shall be liable for the additional tax property due or, in the case of wilful failure or refusal to deliver such list, schedule or statement, the total tax properly due; and in addition such person or corporation shall be liable for a penalty of one hundred percent of such additional tax or total tax as the case may be. Such penalty shall be in lieu of the penalty provided for in subsection (1) of this section. A person or corporation giving a false list, schedule or statement shall not be subject to this penalty if it is shown that the misrepresentations contained therein are entirely attributable to reasonable cause. The taxes and penalties provided for in this subsection shall be recovered in an action in the name of the state of Washington on the complaint of the county assessor or the board of county commissioners, and shall, when collected, be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the current expense fund. The provisions of this subsection shall be additional and supplementary to any other provisions of law relating to recovery of property taxes.

Sec. 39. Section 84.40.190, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person required by this title to list property shall make out and deliver to the assessor, [when required] either in person or by mail, a statement, verified [by his oath] under penalty of perjury, of all the personal property in his possession or under his control, and which, by the provisions of this title, he is required to list for taxation, either as owner or holder thereof [or as guardian, parent, husband, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, agent or factor;]. Each list, schedule or statement required by this chapter shall be signed by the individual if the person required to make the same is an individual; by the president, vice-president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, chief accounting officer or any other officer duly authorized to so act if the person required to make the same is a corporation; by a responsible and duly authorized member or officer having knowledge of its affairs, if the person required to make the same is a partnership or other unincorporated organization; or by the fiduciary, if the person required to make the same is a trust or estate. The list schedule, or statement may be made and signed for the person required to make the same by an agent who is duly authorized to do so by a power of attorney filed with and approved by the assessor. When any list, schedule, or statement is made and signed by such agent, the principal required to make out and deliver the same shall be responsible for the contents and the filing thereof and shall be liable for the penalties imposed pursuant to section 38 of this 1967 amendatory act. No person shall be required to list for taxation in his statement to the assessor any share or portion of the capital stock, or of any of the property of any company, association or corporation, which such person may hold in whole or in part, where such company, being required so to do, has listed for assessment and taxation its capital stock and property with the [tax commission] department of revenue, or as otherwise required by law. [The assessor may require such statement listing personal property to be delivered to him by mail or in such other manner as he may prescribe, providing that he shall first clearly outline to the board of county commissioners of his county the procedure he proposes to follow, and shall have obtained from such board its formal approval of such procedure, and such approval when once granted shall remain effective until formally rescinded by such board.]

Sec. 40. Section 6, chapter 24, Laws of 1961 extraordinary session and RCW 84.40.340 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of verifying any list, statement, or schedule required to be furnished to the assessor by any taxpayer, any assessor or his trained and qualified deputy at any reasonable time may visit, investigate and examine any personal property, and for this purpose the records, accounts and inventories also shall be subject to any such visitation, investigation and examination which shall aid in determining the amount and valuation of such property. Such powers and duties may be performed at any office of the taxpayer in this state, and the taxpayer shall furnish or make available all such information pertaining to property in this state to the assessor although the records may be maintained at any office outside this state.

Any information or facts obtained pursuant to this section shall be used only for the purpose of determining the assessed valuation of the taxpayer's property and except in a court action pertaining to penalties imposed pursuant to section 38 of this 1967 amendatory act, or to the assessment or valuation for tax purposes of the property to which such information and facts relate, shall not be disclosed without the permission of the taxpayer to any person other than public officers or employees whose duties relate to valuation of property for tax purposes, and any violation of this secrecy provision shall constitute a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 84.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every individual, corporation, association, partnership, trust, or estate shall list all personal property in his or its ownership, possession, or control which is subject to taxation pursuant to the provisions of this title. Such listing shall be made and delivered in accordance with the provisions of this 1967 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 84.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any list, schedule or statement required by this chapter shall contain a written declaration that any person signing the same and knowing the same to be false shall be subject to the penalties of perjury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961, and to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All property, whether real or personal, owned in fee or by contract purchase by any nonprofit corporation or association the primary purpose of which is providing education and recreation for the general public and the conservation of natural resources for such education and recreation shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation if the following conditions are met:

(1) Such property shall be used solely for the purpose of providing recreation or education for the general public, and not for the pecuniary benefit of any person or company, as defined in RCW 82.04.030; and

(2) Such property shall be subject to an option, accepted in writing by the state, a city or a county, for the purchase thereof by the state, a city or a county, at a price not exceeding the lesser of the following amounts: (a) the sum of the original purchase cost to such nonprofit corporation or association plus interest from the date of acquisition by such corporation or association at the rate of six percent per annum compounded annually to the date of the exercise of the option; or (b) the appraised value of the property at the time of the granting of the option, as determined by the department of revenue.

Sec. 44. Section 82.50.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.50.010 are each amended to read as follows:

["House trailer"] "Mobile home" means all trailers of the type designed [to be used upon the public streets and highways which are capable of being used] as facilities for human habitation and which are capable of being moved upon the public streets and highways and which are [ten] more than thirty-two feet [or more] in length [and six feet or more in height from floor to ceiling], except as hereinafter specifically excluded.

"Travel trailer" means all trailers of the type designed to be used upon the public streets and highways which are capable of being used as facilities for human habitation and which are thirty-two feet or less in length and eight feet or less in width, except as may be hereinafter specifically excluded.

"Commission" means the [tax commission] department of revenue of the state.

"Director" means the director of [licenses] motor vehicles of the state.

Sec. 45. Section 82.50.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.50.020 are each amended to read as follows:

An annual excise tax is imposed on the owner of any [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer for the privilege of using such [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer in this state. The tax shall be collected for each calendar year by the department of motor vehicles or the county auditor of the county in which the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer is located at the time payment is made and shall be due on and after January 1st or on the date the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer is first purchased or brought into this state, and paid on or before March 31st of each calendar year or thirty days after the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer is first purchased or brought into this state, whichever is later. No additional tax shall be imposed under this chapter upon any [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer upon the transfer of ownership thereof, if the tax imposed by this chapter with respect to such [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer has already been paid for the calendar year or fractional part thereof in which such transfer occurs.

Sec. 46. Section 82.50.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 29, chapter 173, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.50.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The rate and measure of tax imposed by this chapter for each calendar year shall be one and one-half percent of the fair market value of the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer, as determined in the manner provided in this chapter: Provided, That the calendar year shall be divided into twelve parts corresponding to the months of the calendar year and the excise tax upon a [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer used for the first time in this state after the last day of any month shall only be levied for the remaining months of the calendar year including the month in which the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer is first used: Provided Further, That the minimum amount of tax payable shall be two dollars.

A [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer shall be deemed used for the first time in this state when such vehicle was not previously licensed by this state for the year immediately preceding the year in which application for license is made.

Sec. 47. Section 82.50.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.50.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The classification and schedule prepared under RCW 82.44.040 for [trailers] mobile homes or travel trailers used as facilities for human habitation shall be the schedule used by the county auditors and the director for determining the amount of tax due hereunder.

Sec. 48. Section 82.50.050, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The tax hereunder for any [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer not classified as provided in RCW 82.44.040 shall be determined as provided in RCW 82.44.050 for [trailers] mobile homes or travel trailers used as facilities for human habitation.

Sec. 49. Section 82.50.070, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.50.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The county auditor or the department of motor vehicles upon payment of the tax hereunder shall issue a receipt which shall include such information as may be required by the director, including the name of the taxpayer, [and] a description of the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer, and in the case of a mobile home its location at the time of payment of the tax which receipt shall be printed by the department of [licenses] motor vehicles in such form as it deems proper and furnished by the department to the various county auditors of the state. The county auditor shall keep a record of the excise taxes paid hereunder during the calendar year under the name of owners of [house trailers] mobile home or travel trailer, listed alphabetically.

In addition thereto the county auditor or the director shall issue a license plate and register the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer as if they were "house trailers" under the provisions of chapter 46.16 and shall collect the additional fees therein provided.

Sec. 50. Section 82.50.101, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.50.101 are each amended to read as follows:

The director or his authorized representative shall have power to enter at reasonable times all [trailer] mobile home parks and other areas where [house trailers] mobile home or travel trailers are parked for the purpose of determining whether or not the tax herein prescribed has been paid. The records required to be kept under RCW 19.48.020 shall be open to inspection by the director or his representative.

Sec. 51. Section 82.50.105, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 92, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.50.105 are each amended to read as follows:

On or before the fifteenth day of February of each calendar year, the director shall cause to be mailed to the owners of [house trailers] mobile homes or travel trailers, of record, notice of the amount of tax payable during the calendar year. Said notice shall contain a legal description of the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer, prominent notice of penalties, due dates, and such other information as may be required by the director. If payment is not made within thirty days of the issuance of said notice, the director may forward a notification of delinquency to the county sheriff of the county wherein the [trailer] mobile home or travel trailer is located, requesting distraint of said [trailer] mobile home or travel trailer.

Sec. 52. Section 82.50.110, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 92, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session and RCW 82.50.110 are each amended to read as follows:

If any excise tax due hereunder is not paid when due and payable, the unpaid tax shall bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum from the time such tax is due and payable.

The tax hereunder shall be a specific lien on the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer from and after the date it first becomes due hereunder, and shall include all charges authorized by this chapter, which lien shall have priority to and be fully paid and satisfied before any recognition, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer may become charged or liable, after July 1, 1957, and no sale or transfer of any [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer shall in any way affect the lien for such excise tax upon the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer.

Sec. 53. Section 82.50.120, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 9, chapter 199, Laws of 1963 and RCW 82.50.120 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any owner or other person to remove a [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer from the real property on which it is situated after the tax hereunder shall become due and payable without payment of the excise tax hereunder or under RCW 82.44.020.

Sec. 54. Section 82.50.130, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.50.130 are each amended to read as follows:

When notified by the director that the excise tax is delinquent on any [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer, the sheriff shall personally serve the owner in the manner provided for service of summons in civil actions or post thereon in a conspicuous place, a notice of delinquency, supplied by the director, which shall contain a description of the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer, the amount of excise tax due, together with accrued interest, the penalty, and the sheriff shall add thereto his fee for service or posting of the notice, which shall be the same as for the service of summons in a civil action, with fees for mileage based on the number of miles from the county seat of the county to the location of the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer, and the name of the owner or reputed owner, if such is known. Thereafter, the sheriff may without further demand or notice, distrain the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer for the payment of tax, together with the penalty and accrued interest, and the costs and fees.

If he shall determine that it is reasonably impracticable to take manual possession of the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer, it shall be deemed to have been distrained and taken into possession when the sheriff posts thereon in a conspicuous place, a notice in writing reciting that he has distrained such [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer, describing it and giving the name of the owner or reputed owner, if such is known, the amount of the tax due, together with the penalty, accrued interest, costs and fees, and the time when and the place where the sale, as hereinafter provided, shall be made.

The director shall forward by registered or certified mail a copy of the notice of delinquency herein provided to the legal owner recorded with the director pursuant to chapter 46.12.

Sec. 55. Section 82.50.140, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.50.140 are each amended to read as follows:

If the tax is not paid forthwith after distraint, the sheriff shall advertise the sale of the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer by posting written notices in three public places in the county in which the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer is located, one of which shall be at the county court house of such county, and by posting a written notice on the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer in a conspicuous place, if he has not taken manual possession of it. Such notices shall state the time when and the place where the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer will be sold. He shall tax the same fees for making the distraint and sale of the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer for the payment of taxes as are allowed him by law for making levy and sale of property on execution, traveling fees to be computed from the county seat of the county to the place of making distraint. If the taxes for which the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer is distrained, together with the penalty, accrued interest, and costs and fees accruing thereon, are not paid before the date appointed for such sale, which shall be not less than ten days after the distraint and taking of such [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer and posting of the notices, the sheriff shall proceed to sell the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer at public auction. After deducting the costs and fees, he shall pay to the county auditor the amount to pay the taxes, the penalty and accrued interest to the date of sale, if there is sufficient to do so, and, if there is any overplus of money arising from the sale, he shall pay such overplus to the owner of the [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer so sold or to his legal representative, who shall be deemed to be the county treasurer in the event the owner or other legal representative cannot be determined or found.

Sec. 56. Section 82.50.180, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.50.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The following [house trailers] mobile homes or travel trailers are specifically exempted from the operation of this chapter:

(1) Any unoccupied [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer when it is part of an inventory of [house trailers] mobile homes or travel trailers held for sale by a manufacturer or dealer in the course of his business.

(2) A [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer owned by any government or political subdivision thereof.

(3) A [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer owned by a nonresident and currently licensed in another state, unless such [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer shall remain in this state for a period of ninety days or more during the calendar year.

(4) [House trailers] Mobile homes or travel trailers eligible to be used under a set of dealer's license plates, and taxed under RCW 82.44.030 while so eligible.

(5) A [house trailer] mobile home which has substantially lost its identity as a [vehicle] mobile unit by virtue of being permanently fixed in location upon [the] land owned by the owner of the mobile home and placed [by] on a permanent foundation, subsequent to the removal of the hitch, wheels and axles of said unit, [attached structures] and with fixed pipe connections with sewer, water or other utilities.

Following the permanent placement of said mobile home as provided herein, and upon the request of the owner, made to the county assessor, the assessor shall confirm compliance with the conditions of this subsection and if the unit so qualifies, the unit will be entered on the real property tax rolls of the involved county, and said unit shall be exempted from the provisions of this chapter from and after the date it is assessed as a part of the real property.

Sec. 57. Section 82.50.190, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.50.190 are each amended to read as follows:

[The first tax to be collected under this chapter shall be for the last half of the calendar year 1955.] No [house trailer] mobile home or travel trailer with respect to which the excise tax imposed by this chapter is payable shall be listed and assessed for ad valorem taxation [in the year 1955 or any succeeding year, so long as this chapter remains in effect, and any such assessment heretofore made in 1955 is directed to be canceled: Provided, That for any house trailer upon which an assessment for ad valorem tax was not made in the year 1954 and paid in 1955, and any house trailer purchased or brought into the state in 1955, the tax hereunder shall be paid for the last half of the year 1955].

Sec. 58. Section 82.50.200, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.50.200 are each amended to read as follows:

[House trailers] Mobile homes or travel trailers taxed and licensed under the provisions of this chapter shall be entitled to the use of the public streets and highways subject to the provisions of the motor vehicle laws of this state except as herein otherwise provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever this chapter refers to chapters 46.12, 46.16, or 82.44 RCW, with references to "house trailers", the term "house trailer" as used in those chapters shall be construed to include and embrace "mobile home and travel trailer" as used in this amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. The state superintendent of public instruction shall distribute to each school district in the state quarterly on or before the twenty-fifth day of February, May, August and November of each year, commencing with May, 1968, an amount equal to fifty percent of that portion of the mobile home excise taxes transferred to the general fund from the school equalization fund, which are due on or after January 1, 1968 under chapter 82.50 RCW, as amended in this 1967 amendatory act, for mobile homes located in the school district on the date the excise tax was paid.

The director of motor vehicles shall certify to the superintendent of public instruction the amount of mobile home excise taxes due to each school district under this section.

No portion of the funds distributed to school districts under this section shall be considered as available revenues of the school district in computing state equalization support under RCW 28.41.130.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. There is added to chapter 11, Laws of 1951 first extraordinary session and to chapter 28.45 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Where single family residential property is being transferred as the entire or part consideration for the purchase of other single family residential property and a licensed real estate broker or one of the parties to the transaction accepts transfer of said property, a credit for the amount of the tax paid at the time of the transfer to the broker or party shall be allowed toward the amount of the tax due upon a subsequent transfer of the property by the broker or party if said transfer is made within nine months of the transfer to the broker or party: Provided, That if the tax which would be due on the subsequent transfer from the broker or party is greater than the tax paid for the prior transfer to said broker or party the difference shall be paid, but if the tax initially paid is greater than the amount of the tax which would be due on the subsequent transfer no refund shall be allowed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 62. The following acts or parts of acts are hereby repealed:

- (1) Section 82.04.295, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.04.295;
- (2) Section 82.04.296, chapter 15, Laws of 1961, section 2, chapter 293, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.04.296;
- (3) Section 82.16.025, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.16.025;
- (4) Section 82.16.026, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.16.026;
- (5) Section 84.40.050, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.050;
- (6) Section 84.40.140, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.140;
- (7) Section 84.40.180, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.180; and
- (8) Section 84.40.260, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.260.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. Nothing in this 1967 amendatory act shall be construed to affect any existing rights acquired or any existing liabilities incurred under the sections amended or repealed herein, nor as affecting any civil or criminal proceedings instituted thereunder, nor any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, nor any administrative action taken thereunder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 64. If any phrase, clause, subsection or section of this act shall be declared unconstitutional or invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, it shall be conclusively presumed that the legislature would have enacted this act without the phrase, clause, subsection or section so held unconstitutional or invalid and the remainder of the act shall not be affected as a result of said part being held unconstitutional or invalid.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 65. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1967.

Senate Members:

Mike McCormack
John N. Ryder
August P. Mardesich

House Members:

Mary Ellen McCaffree
Slade Gorton
Leonard A. Sawyer

It was moved by Senator Ryder that the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 255 be adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 12:40 p.m.

MOTION

At 12:40 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 1:45 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:45 p.m.

The President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 2:30 p.m.

Senators Greive, Stender and Connor demanded a Call of the Senate.
A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senator Ridder who was excused.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Henry:

"Mr. President, speaking on personal privilege:

"I would like to thank Lieutenant Governor Cherberg, Sergeant at Arms Charlie Johnson and the members of the Senate for the lovely flowers sent to my wife during her recent illness."

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM TRUDY ROBINSON, SUPERVISOR OF PAGES

Thank you for the beautiful flowers. They certainly brought brightness to a sick, sore, unhappy hospital room.

I enjoyed being part of the Fortieth Legislature and above all, meeting so many wonderful, thoughtful people.

Sincerely,

Trudy.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Ryder that the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 255, be adopted.

The motion was carried.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lennart:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate, I should like to speak upon a point of personal privilege.

"We have before us Free Conference Committee reports, one on the budget and one on taxes. I should like to think that what I say should be recorded in the Journal and I should like to have you know that I am not speaking against any person or anybody. I am speaking about a condition. Hardly a single bill that goes to Conference is solved. As soon as it lands there out comes a request for a grant of Free Conference. It is as though everybody is groping for power or lack the ability to some extent to compromise. But I want to express the sense which so many outside of the legislature are expressing about the propriety and constitutionality perhaps of a Conference Committee arrogating into itself the powers which in my opinion the legislature has not granted them and which in essence are legislative prerogatives, but which in its abuse, and I use this word advisedly, seems to be growing from session to session.

"By tacit consent of the legislature we have a super government of six members. The 49 members of the Senate and the 99 members of the House are not legislating in matters of greatest importance to the state. The original power of the legislature is ceded to a committee.

"Before leaving this Chamber I call it my duty to examine the reasoning used by select committees to, in some instances, force enactment of obnoxious measures upon the entire legislature by the expedient method of take it or leave it. Surely the scope and object of bills are changed. Such powers as are being used by the committee I can find no place specifically granted. When we say and use the expediency of this method to get out of here we cannot be serious when we say we must get home to our own work. Legislation comes first and above all other considerations. There are only two things to choose from. We should have pay enough so each and everyone here can stay and do the job or stay home and take care of your farms or law practices and let others who have the time come down here.

"If the positive checks and rules which are encompassed in our joint rules are not proving sufficient guard, a guard against an inordinate appetite of a super governmental committee, we better before another session do some serious thinking in the matter.

"We may feel alarmed when we see a committee asserting powers by their own construction of rules for expediency. We may feel alarmed when a committee insists that an expedience may circumvent a principle. We may feel alarmed when a committee has acted upon principles affecting every citizen of the state, that they have in essence passed a law based upon the abandonment of powers delegated to the entire legislature.

"I ask you before another session, will we have courage enough to revise our own conduct, to acknowledge our own errors, get to work on rules defining very clearly what Free Conference powers means, put the legislature back to work legislating, properly circumscribe the power of Free Conference Committees."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCutcheon:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I would like to concur with the remarks of Senator Lennart."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 255 as amended by the Free Conference Committee and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 32; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Faulk, Gissberg, Hallauer, Huntley, Knoblauch, Lewis, Mardesich, Metcalf, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Stender, Williams—16.

Those voting nay were: Senators Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Freise, Greive, Guess, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Kupka, Lennart, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Marquardt, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Redmon, Ryder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—32.

Excused: Senator Ridder—1.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 255 as amended by the Free Conference Committee having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Ryder moved that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 255 as amended by the Free Conference Committee failed to pass the Senate.

The motion was carried.

On motion of Senator Ryder, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 255 as amended by the Free Conference Committee on final passage was ordered to retain its place on the third reading calendar for this afternoon.

----------------------------	--------------

Provided, That this section shall have no force and effect and shall become null and void unless the constitutional amendment proposed in Senate Joint Resolution No. 17 shall be approved and ratified by the electors at a general election held in November, 1967.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. For the purpose of providing funds for the payment of the cost of planning the capital improvements and capital projects of certain state institutions of higher education included in chapter, Laws of 1967, extraordinary session, (Senate Bill No. 532) pending the availability of funds therein appropriated for such purposes from the state building and higher education construction account or the availability of such funds from the state building authority, there is hereby appropriated to each of such institutions of higher education of the state of Washington the following designated amounts, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to accomplish such purpose:

For Washington State University, from the Washington State University Building Account, the sum of $364,000; for the University of Washington, from the University of Washington Building Account, the sum of $141,668; for Eastern Washington State College, from the Eastern Washington State College Capital Projects Account, the sum of $100,300; for Central Washington State College, from the Central Washington State College Capital Projects Account, the sum of $101,590; for Western Washington State College, from the Western Washington State College Capital Projects Account, the sum of $99,997.

Any expenditures from the above appropriations are to be considered as loans from the Washington State University Building Account, the University of Washington Building Account, the Eastern Washington State College Capital Projects Account, the Central Washington State College Capital Projects Account, and the Western Washington State College Capital Projects Account, respectively, and each of said accounts shall be reimbursed for such expenditures as follows:

(1) If the constitutional amendment specifically authorizing the establishment of a state building authority (SJR 17) pursuant to chapter 162, Laws of 1967 is approved and ratified by the electors at an election held in November, 1967, such reimbursements shall be made from any funds of the state building authority which may be available for such purpose;

(2) If the constitutional amendment specifically authorizing the establishment of a state building authority (SJR 17) pursuant to chapter 162, Laws of 1967, is not approved and ratified by the electors at an election held in November, 1967, or if the funds of the state building authority are not for any reason available for such purposes, then such reimbursements to such accounts shall be made from the state building and higher education construction account at such time as funds become available in such account for the appropriations made under said chapter, Laws of 1967 extraordinary session (Senate Bill No. 532).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The words "capital improvements" or "capital projects" used herein shall mean acquisition of sites, easements, rights of way or improvements thereon or appurtenances thereto, construction and initial equipment, reconstruction, demolition or major alteration of new or presently owned capital assets.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Before a capital project shall begin or an obligation incurred or contract entered into, the Budget Director, with the approval of the Governor, shall first allot funds therefor or so much as may be necessary from the appropriations made herein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Additional Federal or other receipts and gifts and grants in excess of those estimated in the budget may be allotted by the Governor for capital projects included in the Capital Budget. In addition, the Governor may receive and allot any Federal funds made available for capital outlay at any one of the five institutions of higher education: Provided, That if any of the projects contained in this act qualify for such Federal funds, the amount of state funds not required are hereby appropriated to projects in the 1969-1971 capital program for that institution to be designated by the Governor on the basis of priority in the program and funds available on the advice of the governing board of the institution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. To effectively carry out the provisions of this act, the Governor may assign responsibility for planning, engineering and construction and other related activities to any appropriate agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Reappropriations shall be limited to the unexpended balances remaining at June 30, 1967, in the current appropriation for each project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The Governor, through the Budget Director may authorize the transfer of funds appropriated for a capital project which are in excess of the amount required for the completion of such project, to other capital projects in this act for which there are insufficient appropriations: Provided, That no such transfer shall be used to expand the capacity of any facility beyond that anticipated by the appropriation; Provided Further, That although such transfers may be made between institutions of the department of institutions they shall not be made between different departments, commissions, or institutions of higher learning.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Any capital improvement or capital project for construction, repair, or maintenance authorized by this act, unless constructed pursuant to the provisions of chapter 39.04 RCW, shall be done by contract after public notice and competitive bid: Provided, That this section shall not apply to the acquisition of sites, easements, or rights of way; nor to contracts for architectural or engineering services; nor to emergency repairs nor to any improvement or project costing less than twenty-five hundred dollars, nor to portions of projects involving inmate labor at a state institution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, for the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT
MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March, 10, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment to the Position of Director, Department of Institutions, subject to your confirmation:

Dr. William R. Conte, appointed September 15, 1966, for the term ending at the Governor's pleasure, succeeding Garrett Heyns.

Sincerely,
DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

It was moved by Senator Atwood that the rules be suspended and that the appointment of Dr. William R. Conte to the position of director of the Department of Institutions, be now confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Freise:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I take great pride in speaking on behalf of the confirmation of Dr. Conte. Dr. Conte is a graduate of the University of Wichita with an A.B. degree. He graduated from Vanderbilt University School of Medicine where he received his M.D. degree. He went to Pennsylvania Hospital on a rotating internship. He was in the military service. He was at the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Wichita, Kansas, where he was Associate Chief of the Psychiatric Service. He was a resident in psychiatry at Colorado State Hospital, Pueblo, Colorado, and a president in psychiatry at the University of Colorado, School of Medicine, Department of Psychiatry from 1949 to 1951. His training experience consisted of a rotation through the Colorado Psychopathic Hospital, Division of Psychosomatic Medicine, and the Mental Hygiene Clinic of the University of Colorado.

"We are indeed fortunate to have him take over the mental health program for the state of Washington since the retirement of Dr. Garrett Heyns. He is a very worthy successor. I have worked very closely with him during this session of the legislature. He is a man of great understanding of the state's mental problems, institutional problems, parole, probation and penology, and I think we could not have had a better choice for this position as successor to Dr. Heyns than Dr. Conte."

Senator Kupka:

"Mr. President and lady and gentlemen of the Senate:

"I want to concur in the remarks of Senator Freise on behalf of Dr. Conte. I have had many occasions to work very closely with him as chairman of the interim committee on state institutions and youth development. We have sat in meetings many times together. I want to say that he really wasn't hired to be a director of institutions. He was hired to maintain the job of looking after the mental division of the institutions and since Dr. Heyns' retirement, he has condescended to take on the rest of this work which means that he is a willing worker and has a knowledge of just exactly how to handle this overall institutional program. I'm sure that he would be very difficult to replace if you had to look for another person with the background that he has, as Senator Freise has indicated. I'm sure that we can see many advances in the development of mental retardation and the mental program. I urge your support of this confirmation."

Senator Hallauer:

"Mr. President, members of the Senate:

"I am sure that all of you realize that there has been a problem associated with the approval by the Senate of Dr. Conte and I think most of you are quite aware of what the problem has been. I am on my feet to speak on this particular point at the request of one of the Senators in the body who has taken some exception to Dr. Conte's appointment to this position. I would request at this time, Mr. President, that my remarks at this point be included in the record and this is at the request of one of the Senators.

"It seems that I was sort of mutually appointed as an intermediary between a member of the Senate and Dr. Conte in working out some of the difficulties in relation to the Olympic Center problem in Kitsap county and finally a compromise was reached whereby that institution which was acquired just two years ago is to be used in the coming biennium under the terms of the appropriation contained in the budget bill for this particular item, the general fund appropriation, provided that at least twenty-five beds be used for the temporary diagnostic care of mentally retarded, beginning no later than July 1st, 1968.

"The problem that was had here between Dr. Conte and the member of the Senate was simply to make sure that that institution was going to be used in some degree in the coming biennium, and the appropriation language that I just read to you was deemed not quite sufficient by one of the Senators, and so Dr. Conte in further explanation of his position about the Olympic Center has written a letter to myself and Senator Morgan as follows:

"This institution will be used for the following three purposes in the coming biennium:

"One to provide temporary residential care and opportunity for close observation of individuals receiving extensive diagnostic services;

"Two, to provide a supervised and sheltered setting for mentally retarded persons during periods of family crisis when those normally responsible for their care are temporarily unable to do so;

"Three, to provide such a program of short-term care as will allow non-retarded family members a brief respite, probably not to exceed two weeks in any one year, from the burden of full-time responsibility for severely handicapped individuals."

"There was a problem in regard to the generality of language being so loose that it might have provided an escape hatch so nothing would have been done at the Olympic Center in the coming two years, and I am speaking to the record to explain my understanding of the letter from Dr. Conte and that it is his intent that the Olympic Center be used for those three purposes. That is my understanding of the agreement, and I have talked personally to Dr. Conte. I know this is unusual to approach the problem in this way but I think it does resolve this problem so that we can go on with this appointment. I think Dr. Conte is an excellent choice for this position. I regret having to make these prefatory remarks because I would have preferred not to. I think he should have been approved on his merits."

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I'm going to vote for this confirmation. I hope that this doctor will be a little more cooperative with us than his predecessor. As you know we had an abandoned security building right near Eastern State Hospital. In the opinion of many members of the legislature on the committee, it could well have been used for a women's prison and women who owe a debt to society could have been at Medical Lake and they could have done something about paying their debt to society like working with some of these people. His predecessor took a very adamant viewpoint. Under no instance was he going to allow this to be done, and it wasn't. So we then turned it over to the monkeys and this session we voted four million dollars to build a women's prison. Now there is some hesitancy on the part of the good doctor about having members of the legislature having anything to say about location. They want legislators as advisors but non-voters, which simply means that you use the legislators as a sort of shield to say, 'Well, there were people on the committee as advisors and non-voters.' I compliment Senator Kupka for sticking to his guns and putting members of the legislature on this committee. If we are going to assume the responsibility for voting on these things, then if it turns out to be a monstrosity and we have a structure that costs some two, three, four million dollars that you abandon, at least some of us have something to say about where this money is spent. I think the legislature ought to take an interest in this and see how this money is spent.

"One philosophy of the last administration that I personally quarreled with was on the particular subject of confining dangerous people. In my opinion they have gone overboard with the philosophy that no one can be under lock and key. We had a man from Yakima county who had shot eight different policemen. He didn't kill any of them, but he put four in the hospital and they found him running around loose on the theory that he was fully rehabilitated. One day a bus drove up and he had saved some money and he bought himself a bus ticket to Yakima. So it's my hope that this new regime will show an improvement in those two areas in which I think the old regime has been very poor; namely, failure to cooperate with the legislative branch and failure to keep under lock and key truly dangerous individuals. I could go on and enumerate how people have escaped and people have been released as cured and ended up killing people. It happened down in Senator Freise's area—one of these cured people. I think that there must be a realization—and I don't care how many courses in psychology you take,—if you turn out someone who is a killer, then you have made an error. It's my hope that this doctor tightens up those two particular practices."

The motion by Senator Atwood to confirm the appointment of Dr. Conte was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF DR. WILLIAM R. CONTE

The Secretary called the roll and the appointment of Dr. William R. Conte to the position of director of the Department of Institutions, was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Hallauer, Hanna, Henry, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Woodall—44.

Absent or not voting: Senators Herr, Lennart, Rasmussen, Williams—4.

Excused: Senator Ridder—1.

Having received the approval of the Senate, the appointment of Dr. William R. Conte to the position of director of the Department of Institutions, was confirmed.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate resumed consideration of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 58

By Senators Greive and Gissberg:

Whereas, It is highly desirable that the electorate of the state of Washington be well informed when voting on candidates and issues; and

Whereas, It is increasingly common for large corporations or business firms to sponsor candidacies of employees or officers or other individuals, to grant employees or officers leave for campaigning, while continuing to pay them wages or salaries, and to influence ballot issues; and

Whereas, It is clearly in the public interest to be advised of such relationships so as to permit evaluation by the voters;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the legislative council be and hereby is requested to study such activities, to consider the drafting of a disclosure or other type of statute to regulate such activities and a memorial to Congress in connection with the relation of federal tax laws to such financial expenditures.

Be It Further Resolved, That the legislative council report to the forty-first regular session of the legislature its findings and recommendations.

Be It Further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this Senate resolution to the executive secretary of the legislative council.

It was moved by Senator Greive that the resolution be adopted.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the following amendment by Senator Lewis to the resolution by Senators Greive and Gissberg, was adopted:

On page 1, strike all of the material on lines four through eight and insert the following:

Whereas, It is increasingly common for large corporations or business firms, law firms, labor unions, teacher organizations, public bodies and officials, farm organizations, associations, and various organizations to sponsor candidacies of employees or officers or other persons, and to grant employees or officers leave for campaigning, while continuing to pay them wages or salaries for expenditures; and"

The resolution as amended was adopted.

The Secretary read:

VETO MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, April 28, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to one item, Senate Bill No. 638, entitled:

"An Act relating to public lands; providing for the vacation of waterways; providing for the acquisition, improvement, development and financing of the east capitol site; and providing for the disposition of certain public funds;"

This bill authorizes the State Capitol Committee to provide for the acquisition, development and improvement of lands, improvements and facilities within the East Capitol Site in the City of Olympia. The bill also provides the means for financing a portion of this project from an increased allocation to the State of rentals from harbor areas and tidelands.

The rentals allocated to the State are to be added to the capitol purchase and development account of the State general fund. From this account the legislature has appropriated up to four million dollars to accomplish the purposes of the bill. These funds may be used directly to pay the cost of land acquisition and other expenses of the project, or the State Capitol Committee may issue bonds and use the proceeds of harbor area and tideland rentals and other funds in the capitol purchase and development account to pay the principal and interest on the bonds.

Section 2 of the bill amends existing law relating to the allocation of harbor area and tideland rentals. It increases the allocation to the State and decreases the allocation to port districts. Looking forward to the time when the State would not require this increased allocation of rentals to pay the current installments of principal and interest on bonds, the legislature has added a proviso to section 2 as follows:

"Provided, That each year, when the current annual debt service requirements for the bonds authorized by section 4 of this act have been provided for, the formula for distribution to port districts shall be re-established as provided in section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1913, as last amended by section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1937."

I do not object to the principle that the increased allocation of rentals to the State should be returned to the port districts when it is no longer required to finance the acquisition and development of property in the East Capitol Site; however, the language of the proviso is too restrictive. The increased revenues from rentals can be used only to pay debt service on bonds, otherwise they revert to the port districts. They are not available to the State to pay costs of the project without issuing bonds. And, if bonds are issued it may not be possible to accumulate funds in addition to current debt service to provide bondholders with customary guarantees that future debt service requirements will be met.

It is doubtful that the legislature expected the proviso to result in a reduction of the State's share of these rentals during the next two years. Thus, the 1969 legislature will have the opportunity to review this provision prior to the time that any surplus funds would have been available in the capitol purchase and development account.

For the foregoing reasons, I have vetoed a certain item in section 2. The remainder of Senate Bill No. 638 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

It was moved by Senator Greive that Senate Bill No. 638 together with the veto message of the Governor be transmitted to the Secretary of State.

Debate ensued.

The motion was carried.

PROTEST

April 29, 1967.

A statement concerning Senate Bill No. 638 and the veto of the following section by the Governor:

"Provided, That each year, when the current annual debt service requirements for the bonds authorized by section 4 of this act have been provided for, the formula for distribution to port districts shall be re-established as provided in section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1913, as last amended by section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1937."

Senate Bill No. 638 veto and the veto of the funds revision in Senate Bill No. 638 represents a material breach of agreement. This measure was drawn and agreed to by the parties on the basis of a balanced compromise. The veto removes one of the factors in the compromise. At this late date in the session a measure of this type can not be given more than a passing notice. I want the record to show that a strong protest is registered to this veto. The governor's veto in this case represents something more than executive prerogative because the Governor as Chairman of the State Capitol Committee was at least indirectly a party to the compromise agreement which resulted in Senate Bill No. 638. His veto casts a shadow upon the legislative process which requires good faith in resolving contested issues.

I am encouraged that the Governor's message suggests corrective legislation at the next session. I would hope that Senator Lewis and other sponsors of the measure would cooperate in such legislation at the 1969 session.

Sincerely,

(Signed) Don L. Talley, Senator.

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, April 28, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to a certain item, Senate Bill No. 325 entitled:

"An Act relating to probate law and procedure."

This bill makes various changes in the probate law of the state. I have no objection to these changes; however, I have vetoed section 1 of the bill because the amendment to RCW 11.20.050 set forth in section 1 was contained in House Bill No. 138 passed by the legislature during the regular session.

The remainder of Senate Bill No. 325 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senate Bill No. 325 together with the veto message of the Governor thereon were ordered transmitted to the Secretary of State.

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, April 22, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington,
Lady and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to one item, Senate Bill 386, entitled:

"An Act relating to state institutions of higher learning."

This bill clarifies certain language with regard to the authority of boards of regents and trustees of the universities and colleges of the state. Section 3 of the bill contains a standard emergency clause. I have followed the practice of vetoing emergency clauses on bills submitted to me when no genuine emergency existed.

An emergency clause defeats the right of the people to reject a bill by referendum, and, therefore, should be sparingly used by the legislature. Representatives of the institutions at whose request the bill was introduced and those who prepared the legislation have been informed and agree that the clarification contained in the law will not be needed prior to the normal effective date of the act.

Therefore, I have vetoed Section 3. The remainder of Senate Bill 386 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

On motion of Senator Greive, Senate Bill No. 386 together with the veto message of the Governor thereon were ordered transmitted to the Secretary of State.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Department of the State, Office of the Secretary,
Olympia, Wash., March 23, 1967.

The Honorable, The President of The Senate, The Legislature of the State of Washington, Olympia, Washington.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith pursuant to Section 12, Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Washington, for the consideration of the State Senate, the following bills passed by the State Senate and the House of Representatives at the Regular Legislative Session of 1967, and partially vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto messages attached thereto. They are Enrolled Senate Bills Nos. 45, 46, 320, and 328.

Respectfully,

A. Ludlow Kramer,
Secretary of State.

STATE OF WASHINGTON
DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Certificate No. 10374.

I, A. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State of the State of Washington and custodian of its seal, hereby certify that according to the records on file in my office, the attached is a true and correct copy of Enrolled Senate Bill No. 46, as passed by the State Senate and the House of Representatives at the Regular Session of the 1967 Legislature, and partially vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto.

I further certify that said Enrolled Senate Bill No. 46, with the exception of the item which was vetoed, is now identified as Chapter 238, Laws of 1967.

In witness whereof I have signed and have affixed the seal of the State of Washington to this certificate at Olympia, the State Capitol, March 23, 1967.

A. Ludlow Kramer,
Secretary of State.

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 21, 1967.

*To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.
(Through the Secretary of State).*

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the legislature without my approval as to one item, Substitute Senate Bill No. 46, entitled: "An Act relating to air pollution."

This is the Washington Clean Air Act. In my State of the State message, I urged enactment of this legislation in stating that "no single manifestation of our prosperity, no single realization of our growth exacts such a cruel price as the pollution of our air and water. In city after city, and now in state after state, growth and success have blotted out the works of man and the genius of nature." After careful review of this legislation, I believe Substitute Senate Bill 46, introduced at the request of the Legislative Council modified in the legislative process and approved by the Governor, represents an excellent vehicle with which to begin the effort to protect the clean air of the Pacific Northwest. I congratulate both the Legislative Council for its work over the last biennium, and the Legislature for its action in enacting the Washington Clean Air Act.

I have vetoed an item in Section 44 which could be interpreted as making ineffective the provisions dealing with appointment of members of the Air Pollution Control Board until after the terms of the present members expire. The legislature has designated an entirely new appointment procedure commensurate with the new responsibilities contained in Substitute Senate Bill 46. While it is not my intention to markedly alter the makeup of the Board, I believe the new procedure for selection of members should become effective at the same time as the remainder of the act.

I have therefore vetoed the final paragraph in Section 44, and approved the remainder of the bill.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

On motion of Senator Greive, Senate Bill No. 46, together with the veto message of the Governor thereon, was ordered transmitted to the Secretary of State.

I, A. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State of the State of Washington and custodian of its seal, hereby certify that according to the records on file in my office, the attached is a true and correct copy of Enrolled Senate Bill No. 328, as passed by the State Senate and the House of Representatives at the Regular Session of the 1967 Legislature, and partially vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto.

I further certify that said Enrolled Senate Bill No. 328, with the exception of the item which was vetoed, is now identified as Chapter 241, Laws of 1967.

In witness whereof I have signed and have affixed the seal of the State of Washington to this certificate at Olympia, the State Capitol, March 23, 1967.

A. Ludlow Kramer,
Secretary of State.

[The Seal of the State of Washington—1889]

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 21, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.
(Through the Secretary of State).

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one item, Senate Bill No. 328 entitled:

"An Act relating to municipal courts; authorizing changes of venue;"

This bill provides a much needed third department of the municipal court in Seattle. The two municipal judges now handle entirely different types of cases. One is in charge of the criminal department, and the other is in charge of traffic offenses and supervises the traffic violations bureau. The workload of both departments of this court is so heavy that its proper administration has been a matter of concern to many lawyers and judges, as well as to members of the legislature.

I believe that the legislature is properly concerned that the average citizen normally has his first, and perhaps his only, contact with our judicial system when he is charged with a traffic offense. These offenses are not to be treated lightly, for traffic violations are a principal cause of our mounting traffic death toll. In addition, the initial contact with the traffic court will to a large extent influence the citizen's respect for the law, which is one of the cornerstones of an orderly society.

In this bill the legislature has attempted to improve the administration of the traffic court by rotating the three judges so that each of them will handle traffic cases two-thirds of the time and criminal cases one-third of the time. The bill also provides for a change of venue of cases from one department of the court to the other.

I have no objection to the change of venue provisions; but based upon extensive discussions which members of my staff have had with judges and attorneys familiar with the operation of the municipal court, I believe the rotation plan might seriously disrupt the operations of the criminal department of the court and particularly its probation work.

Therefore, I have vetoed the portion of section 2 which provides:

"The municipal judges elected as hereinafter provided shall preside over the departments on a rotating basis with each judge to preside over each department for four months during each year. The scheduling of such rotation and the other details thereof shall be decided at the meetings of the judges as hereinafter provided for."

Despite my veto of the above provision, I believe that the motives of legislature in seeking to improve the operations of the municipal court are commendable, and that efforts to improve the court should continue. I recommend that the Judicial Council, which will now include additional legislators and a member of the Magistrates Association, make an intensive study of the municipal court system during the next two years. If further legislation is necessary to improve its operation, the Judicial Council should submit its recommendations to the 1969 Legislature.

Except for the item which I have vetoed, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 328 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

On motion of Senator Greive, Senate Bill No. 328, together with the veto message of the Governor thereon, was transmitted to the Secretary of State.

I, A. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State of the State of Washington and custodian of its seal, hereby certify that according to the records on file in my office, the attached is a true and correct copy of Enrolled Senate Bill No. 320, as passed by the State Senate and the House of Representatives at the Regular Session of the 1967 Legislature, and partially vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto.

I further certify that said Enrolled Senate Bill No. 320, with the exception of the items which were vetoed, is now identified as Chapter 240, Laws of 1967.

In witness whereof I have signed and have affixed the seal of the State of Washington to this certificate at Olympia, the State Capitol, March 23, 1967.

*To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.
(Through the Secretary of State).*

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the legislature, without my approval as to certain items, Senate Bill No. 320 entitled:

“An Act relating to agriculture; amending generally the agricultural laws of state.”

This bill embodies a substantial number of amendments to state laws relating to agriculture, and was introduced at the request of the state department of agriculture. I have no objections to the provisions of this bill, but for technical reasons I believe two sections should be vetoed.

I have vetoed section 31 because this section embodies the same amendment to RCW 15.50.020 which is also contained in House Bill 142 passed by the legislature and heretofore approved by me.

I have also vetoed section 36; because a number of words in the existing law not intended to be deleted from this section were inadvertently omitted when this bill was prepared. The omission of these words greatly changes the meaning of the section, and would cause the law to be amended in a manner not intended by the legislature. The director of agriculture agrees that it would be preferable to leave the law unchanged rather than to allow this section to become law in its present form.

With the exception of section 31 and section 36, which I have vetoed, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 320 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

On motion of Senator Greive, Senate Bill No. 320 together with the veto message of the Governor thereon was ordered transmitted to the Secretary of State.

I further certify that said Enrolled Senate Bill No. 45, with the exception of the items which were vetoed, is now identified as Chapter 239, Laws of 1967.

[The Seal of the State of Washington—1889]

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 21, 1967.

To The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington.
(Through the Secretary of State).

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the legislature, without my approval as to three items, Senate Bill 45, entitled:

"An Act relating to state and local governments; providing for interlocal governmental cooperation on a state, local government, and federal basis; and providing an effective date."

This legislature has faced with responsibility the problems of rapid urbanization in the state. Utilizing the excellent work of the Legislative Council as a basis, the legislature has met the challenge which I gave in my State of the State Message "to assure that in Washington the cure is at least better than the illness and that as a government we can establish a design for urban living which will permit a maximum of individual freedom within the framework of responsible common action." I called at that time for "legislation which will both allow and encourage cooperative action between different classes of cities and between cities and counties, where the collective requirement exceeds the individual capacity." Senate Bill 45 does exactly that, and the legislature should be commended for its unanimous enactment.

The language of Section 13 was added by amendment on January 25, 1967. At that time, it was impossible to know that House Bill 78, establishing an office of community affairs division or the office of community affairs would also successively be enacted. Therefore, the language in three places in Section 13 provides that information be furnished either to the local affairs division or the office of community affairs. Senate Bill 45 will become law on July 1, 1967. On that same date, the local affairs division will no longer be in existence, its duties having been transferred to the office of community affairs. To avoid any confusion and ambiguity in the law, I believe all reference to the local affairs division should be deleted. I have therefore vetoed the reference to this division in the three places it appears in Section 13.

With the exception of these items, which I have vetoed, the remainder of the bill is approved.

Very truly yours,
DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

On motion of Senator Greive, Senate Bill No. 45, together with the veto message of the Governor thereon, was ordered transmitted to the Secretary of State.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 59

By Senators Durkan, Twigg and Cooney:

Whereas, Many of our cities are faced with growing incidents of juvenile delinquency and crime; and

Whereas, A proper coordinated study throughout our various cities is needed to provide a solution and plan for coping with these problems; and

Whereas, Many cities are unable to engage in such studies due to a lack of personnel and facilities; and

Whereas, The interim municipal committee is the duly authorized legislative agency to study the problems of our cities and towns;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the interim municipal committee is authorized and directed to conduct and coordinate a study of the problems of juvenile delinquency and crime in the various cities of the state where these problems have shown a marked increase; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the interim municipal committee shall report its findings together with its recommendations relating thereto to the forty-first session of the legislature.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the resolution was adopted.

RECONSIDERATION

On motion of Senator Ryder, the Senate reconsidered the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 255 as amended by the Free Conference Committee, failed to pass the senate.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 255 as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 22; excused, 1.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Dore, Faulk, Gissberg, Guess, Hallauer, Huntley, Knoblauch, Lennart, Lewis, McCormack, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Redmon, Ryder, Stender, Uhlman, Washington, Williams—26.

Those voting nay were: Senators Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Durkan, Foley, Freise, Greive, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Keefe, Kupka, McCutcheon, McMillan, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Woodall—22.

Excused: Senator Ridder—1.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 255 as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Senate Bill No. 255.

PROTEST

We, the undersigned Democratic members of the State Senate, while voting to raise the state sales tax from 4.2% to 4.5%, adhere to our position that a tax increase is unnecessary in a time of huge state surplus. It is also our opinion that the administration has underestimated revenue and by this tax increase will create still another surplus at the end of this biennium.

We protest the adamant position of the Governor in which he makes it clear that without a tax increase or crippling budget slash, this session cannot be brought to a close.

Confident that our position will be confirmed, we have voted for this tax, under protest, in order to bring the 1967 extraordinary session to a conclusion.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Senators:

Robert C. Bailey
 Wilbur G. Hallauer
 William A. Gissberg
 Reuben A. Knoblauch

Fred H. Dore
 Mike McCormack
 Frances Haddon Morgan
 Wes Uhlman
 August P. Mardesich

PROTEST

In addition to the above statement which I have signed with other members of the Democratic Party who voted against increasing the sales tax to 4.5%, I wish to state that my only reason for voting for this measure was that as a member of the Conference Committee I was obligated to vote for the recommendation which I signed. However, I signed the recommendation only because the Democratic Caucus chose not to make a party issue of increasing the sales tax and I was left with no alternative but to cooperate and bring this session to a close.

(Signed) Senator Mike McCormack.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Greive, Senator Sandison was excused.

On motion of Senator Hanna, Senator Hallauer was excused.

Senators Greive, Ryder and McMillan demanded a Call of the Senate.

A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate all members being present except Senators Hallauer, Ridder and Sandison, who were excused.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

The Secretary read:

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Olympia, Wash., April 20, 1967.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred Engrossed House Bill No. 208, adopting budget and making appropriations for fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1969, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the attached substitute bill do pass.

AN ACT Adopting the budget; making appropriations for the operation of state agencies for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1967, and ending June 30, 1969; making supplemental appropriations; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. That a budget is hereby adopted and subject to the provisions hereinafter set forth the several amounts hereinafter specified, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to accomplish the purposes designated, are hereby appropriated and authorized to be disbursed for salaries, wages and other expenses of the agencies and officers of the state and for other specified purposes for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1967, and ending June 30, 1969, out of the several funds of the state hereinafter named.

TRANSFER

General Fund Appropriation to General Fund—Tort Claims Account (Fosbre v. State of Washington, Supreme Court No. 38555).....$ 157,443.30

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund the sum of $25,000,000 for distribution to counties, cities, and towns, as follows: Provided, That population data employed in such distribution shall be determined by the State Planning and Community Affairs Agency:

(1) The state treasurer shall distribute to the counties in four equal quarterly payments on the last day of September, December, March, and June of the fiscal year 1967-68 the sum of $1,000,000 in accordance with the following formula: to each county according to the proportion which its population bears to the total population of all counties in the state.

(2) The state treasurer shall distribute to the counties in four quarterly payments on the last day of September, December, March, and June of fiscal year 1968-69 so much of the sum of $2,000,000 as shall be sufficient to meet the requirements of the following factors: Provided, That any sum remaining from such $2,000,000 shall be added to the sum available for distribution provided in subsection (3) of this section:

(a) The state treasurer shall determine the amount which would be distributed to each county if distributed in the proportion which its population bears to the total population of all counties in the state;

(b) The department of revenue shall certify to the state treasurer each county whose assessed valuation on taxable property is not less than twenty-three percent of true and fair value as determined by the then current indicated ratio of the department of revenue;

(c) The state treasurer shall distribute funds under this subsection (2) in accordance with the determination of paragraph (a) only to those counties certified as provided in paragraph (b).

(3) The state treasurer shall distribute to the cities and towns in four equal quarterly payments on the last day of September, December, March, and June of fiscal year 1967-68 the sum of $11,000,000, and in four equal quarterly payments on the last day of September, December, March, and June of fiscal year 1968-69 the sum of $11,000,000 plus any sum remaining from the amount authorized to be distributed to counties under subsection (2) of this section, in accordance with the following factors:

(a) One-fourth to all cities and towns;

(b) One-fourth to cities of 20,000 or more population;

(c) One-fourth to cities and towns maintaining police departments of five or more full time equivalent positions for fully paid persons engaged in police work, exclusive of any clerical positions;

(d) One-fourth to cities and towns maintaining fire departments of five or more full time equivalent positions for fully paid persons engaged in fire fighting, exclusive of any clerical personnel.

Each city or town shall share in the amount distributed under each factor in the proportion which its population bears to the total population of all cities and/or towns receiving funds under that factor. The state treasurer shall determine eligibility as to police and fire departments by reference to the approved and adopted municipal budgets which shall be submitted to him at such time and in such manner as he may prescribe.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) There is appropriated to the state treasurer from the general fund the sum of $4,180,000, to be distributed to the King County Board of Commissioners in the manner provided herein for the continuing operation of King County Hospital as a teaching resource for the University of Washington: Provided, That no portion of such appropriation may be expended except pursuant to the terms of a management contract entered into between the Board of Trustees of King County Hospital and the Board of Regents of the University of Washington with respect to the said hospital, approved by the King County Board of Commissioners and the state budget director, and providing, among other things, as follows: That major hospital institutional policies, title to all real and personal properties, and ultimate fiscal and program controls are to remain vested in the Board of Trustees of King County Hospital, subject to the terms of such contract; that the Board of Regents of the University of Washington shall be responsible for providing for the rendering of all medical services in the hospital; that overall management of the hospital shall be under the direction of the Board of Regents of the University of Washington through a hospital administrator who will be appointed by the Board of Regents subject to approval of the Board of Trustees of the hospital; that all non-medical personnel except senior administrative staff shall be employees of King County Hospital; and that the management controls to be delegated by contract to the Board of Regents of the University of Washington and executed through the Hospital Administrator shall include:

1. The preparation and execution of an overall operating budget including estimated revenues and expenditures;
2. The provision of budgetary controls over operational expenditures;
3. The provision of cost finding, cost accounting, and management information systems and procedures;
4. The provision of procedures and controls for patient accounting, billing, and collections; and
5. The appointment, promotion, termination, transfer, and training of all hospital personnel.

The budget director shall notify the state treasurer of the execution and approval of such contract and thereafter the appropriation hereby made to the state treasurer shall be distributed to the Board of King County Commissioners in eight equal installments, commencing on the 1st day of July, 1967, and on the 1st day of each succeeding quarter of each year of the biennium thereafter; and Provided further, That the Board of Regents of the University of Washington shall, on or before January 1, 1969, submit to the Legislature of the State of Washington a report of the operations of King County Hospital under the provisions of this section, which report shall include the recommendations of the Regents for the management and financing of King County Hospital during the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1971, and future biennia.

(2) Income received by all county hospitals from patients after July 1, 1967, for services rendered prior to that date shall be considered as available to the county hospitals for the current 1967-69 cost of the operation of the hospitals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund the sum of $10,000,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary for allocation to state agencies, departments and institutions to meet any catastrophe, disaster or unforeseen or unanticipated condition or circumstance or abnormal change of condition or circumstance affecting the functions of the state agency, department or institution: Provided, That no expenditure shall be made herefrom except such as shall be certified by the Governor as meeting the requirements hereof and has been approved by a sixty percent majority each of the Legislative Budget Committee and the Legislative Council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The word "agency" used herein shall mean and include every state government office, officer, each institution, whether educational, correctional, or other, and every department, division, board and commission, except as otherwise provided in this act.

The phrase "agencies headed by elective officials" used herein shall mean those executive offices or departments of the state which are directly supervised, administered, or controlled by the Governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of public lands, or insurance commissioner, but it shall not include those boards, commissions, or committees on which one or more of the above-named elected officials serve.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In order to carry out the provisions of these appropriations and the state budget, the budget director, with the approval of the governor, may:

(1) Allot all or any portion of the funds herein appropriated, or included in the state budget, to the various agencies by such periods as he shall determine and may place any funds not so allotted in reserve available for subsequent allotment: Provided, That the budget director shall not alter allotment requests filed with him, nor shall he place in reserve any funds, for the following: Agencies headed by elective officials; University of Washington; Washington State University; Central Washington State College; Eastern Washington State College; Western Washington State College; Washington State Apple Advertising Commission; Washington State Fruit Commission; Washington Dairy Products Commission or any agricultural commodity commission created under the provisions of chapter 15.66 RCW; the legislative branch of state government including the legislative council, the legislative budget committee, the statute law committee, and any legislative interim committee; or the judicial branch of state government: Provided, however, That the aggregate of allotments for any agency shall not exceed the total of applicable appropriations and local funds available to the agency concerned. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee to incur obligations in excess of approved allotments or to incur a deficiency and any obligation so made shall be deemed invalid. Nothing in this section or in chapter 328, Laws of 1959, shall prevent revision of any allotment when necessary to prevent the making of expenditures under appropriations in this act in excess of available revenues.

(2) Issue rules and regulations to establish uniform standards and business practices throughout the state service, including regulation of travel by officers and employees and the conditions under which per diem shall be paid, so as to improve efficiency and conserve funds.

(3) Prescribe procedures and forms to carry out the above.

(4) Allot funds from appropriations in this act in advance of July 1, 1967; for the sole purpose of authorizing agencies to order goods, supplies or services for delivery after July 1, 1967: Provided, That no expenditures may be made from the appropriations contained in section 1 until after July 1, 1967.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Except as otherwise provided in this act, any receipts from federal or other sources or from gifts or grants in excess of those estimated in the budget may be received and allotted by the governor but in the event that receipts shall be less than those estimated in the budget from any source the appropriation shall be limited to the amount actually received and allotments made as provided in section 4. Whenever possible, the receipt of federal or other funds which are not anticipated by the governor's budget or the legislature shall be used to support regular programs instead of using appropriated funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Agencies are authorized to make refunds of erroneous or excessive payments and in the case of other refunds, which may be provided by law, without express appropriation therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Whenever allocations are made from the governor's emergency appropriation to an agency which is financed by other than general fund moneys, the budget director may direct the repayment of such allocated amount to the general fund from any balance in the fund or funds which finance such agency. No appropriation shall be necessary to effect such repayment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. In addition to the amounts appropriated in this act for revenue for distribution and bond retirement and interest, there is also appropriated such further amounts as may be required or available for these purposes under any statutory formula or under any proper bond covenant made in accordance with law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Amounts received by an agency as reimbursements pursuant to RCW 43.09.210 shall be considered as returned loans of materials supplied or services rendered. Such amounts may be expended as a part of the original appropriation of the fund to which it belongs, without further or additional appropriation, subject to conditions and procedures prescribed by the budget director which shall provide for determination of full costs, disclosure of such reimbursements in the governor's budget, maximum interagency usage of data processing equipment and services and such restrictions as will promote more economical operations of state government without incurring continuing costs beyond those reimbursed. Such services may include, but shall not be limited to, a messenger service and data processing service bureau in the Department of General Administration and further centralized payroll and vendor payment processing in the Central Budget Agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Senate Members:

Martin J. Durkan
Fred H. Dore
Arlie U. DeJarnatt

House Members:

Robert F. Goldsworthy
Gerald L. Saling
Marshall A. Neill

It was moved by Senator Durkan that the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 208 be adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall:

"Mr. President, would Senator Dore yield?"

The President:

"Would Senator Dore yield to a question?"

Senator Dore:

"No."

Senator Woodall:

"Would Senator Durkan yield to a question?"

The President:

"Would Senator Durkan yield?"

Senator Durkan:

"Yes, I'll yield, Mr. President."

Senator Woodall:

"Senator Durkan, you were not the chairman of the Small Claims Committee. I would prefer to address my remarks to him. I notice in 1963, when I was a member of the Small Claims Committee, we had up for our consideration whether or not to pay back to a Mrs. Foster, widow of Harry Ellsworth Foster, certain moneys that had been paid into the judges' retirement, which by law she was not entitled to have, but after considerable hearings, the committee decided as a compromise matter to give that lady the sum of $2,977.98, reading now from the Session Laws of 1963, which I understood to be a compromise with this lady. I now find that this time we are giving the same lady $1,488.99. Now it would seem to me that when you compromise a matter once, that should be it. I further understand that this matter was not approved by the claims committee, but that we do, nevertheless, have it pop up in this particular small claims, and I would like to know why and on what theory, once a claim is given in full settlement in 1963, we come back in 1967 with an additional sum of money?"

Senator Durkan:

"Mr. President, in reply, after the small claims committee had met, and they also met on this, Senator, there were other claims that were brought into the conference committee and a policy decision was made to include the claims bill within the major appropriation bill, whether that's right or wrong. But in answer to your question, she came back in and asked for it because, as you say, she asked for further redress beyond what she got in the last session of the legislature. Whether it was a wise decision on the part of the members of the committee or not, we did award her this claim. Now it isn't without precedent. There are those who have come in from time to time when they haven't received the full amount in preceding sessions and have asked for it in the next session.

"Now I was one of the members who reviewed this claim and agreed to this amount. I was on the conference committee."

Senator Woodall:

"One further question: I notice also an allowance of some $25,000 to a Mr. Buralli for some loss of business. It is further my information that this particular claim was taken up by the small claims committee, turned down, and that it suddenly pops into this appropriation bill, is that correct?"

Senator Durkan:

"That's correct. Mr. Buralli did come and present his brief to the small claims committee along with the supporting data and it was included in the conference report and it was agreed to by all six members; and, incidentally, Senator, I was one of them who believed that the gentleman should have received more than he did. I think that there was a serious damage done to his business; and, the issue was raised by Senator Uhlman—and he is probably correct on it—that this is not a proper element of damages as he sees the law.

"As I understand the small claims committee and as I understand this portion of the law, that sometimes this is exactly what it is for—where the law has either by the statute of limitations expired, or where they cannot get redress from any other source than the legislature which is sovereign, this is the reason why this was included."

Senator Woodall:

"Senator Durkan, you now recall when we used to have a supplemental budget and then you could attack item by item. This new policy of throwing it all into one, of course, makes it so a person must take all or none, and lends some merit to the charges of Senator Lennart when he says that it makes a six man super legislature. You can have your small claims committee meet, they can hear testimony, they can turn it down, and then it automatically gets put back in by a conference committee which was supposed to be conferring on the differences between the two bodies, not conferring on an item that the small claims committee turned down."

Senator Durkan:

"Senator, in answer to your question, I would be the first to agree, and I also agree with Senator Lennart, that the small claims should be a separate bill and that the supplemental should be separate and in the next session, whoever should have the Committee on Ways and Means, I hope that is what they will do. Both the Republicans and Democrats agreed that this was the way to do it this time, and this was the result. It isn't everything that all of us would like to have seen, but it's the best we could do."

Senator Woodall:

"Will you yield as to some other questions on the budget generally?"

Senator Durkan:

"Yes, I shall."

Senator Woodall:

"How much is this budget up on welfare over the last one that we had two years ago?"

Senator Durkan:

"In the previous biennium, we appropriated approximately $257 million for public welfare and in this biennium it will be somewhere in the neighborhood of $320 million. This is the amount that was requested in the Governor's budget. It's approximately $6.2 million more than the Governor requested, and that's made up of two items. One is the day care for children from the ages of one through six, in which the Governor requested that foster parents be paid $50.00 a month, and the Senate version put that up to $59.00 a month and the other large item which is reflected in the budget is a $3 million additional appropriation for nursing homes to bring them up to current costs."

Senator Woodall:

"General Assistance is up over two and a half million, is that correct?"

Senator Durkan:

"Yes."

Senator Woodall:

"And that's state money only?"

Senator Durkan:

"Yes."

Senator Woodall:

"Is the present war economy such that the load of general assistance is greater, that more people are on general assistance than were before we got into the war?"

Senator Durkan:

"In answer to your question, Senator Woodall, in the state of Washington, the total people which are serviced by the public assistance department are approximately 140,000 and that has fluctuated from a low of 130,000 for the last six years to a high of 140,000 and that includes children. There are presently about 120,000 adult welfare recipients."

Senator Woodall:

"So the two programs, general assistance and aid to dependent children, state money only, represents an increase of some $18 million over the last biennium?"

Senator Durkan:

"The A.D.C. employables, yes, that's correct."

Senator Woodall:

"A.D.C. employables?"

Senator Durkan:

"That's one of the categories where the families have adult parents who have drifted away from the home and who are not now available to be employed to support their children."

Senator Woodall:

"One more question:

"The general fund portion of the budget according to the figures I have received from Mr. Clabaugh of the Legislative Budget Committee represents an increase over the last biennium of 45%. Do you agree with that figure?"

Senator Durkan:

"In the public assistance?"

Senator Woodall:

"No, in all general fund money."

Senator Durkan:

"In all general fund moneys, it's a little better than that, but that's close. It's about 47.2%."

Senator Woodall:

"47.2% that we are spending more than we did in the last biennium?"

Senator Durkan:

"Yes."

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield to another question?"

"Senator Durkan, as we were passing the arts commission bill I asked you about the financial impact of that bill, specifically, and you said it was around $5,000. I see now on page twenty-two of the budget that the state money shall not exceed $71,840. I commented at the time that I thought if the state was going into the field of subsidizing the arts, I would like to ask you what is the problem. Now what was the cause of this?"

Senator Durkan:

"Senator Metcalf, I didn't say $5,000. I said that the Senate version which I had offered struck everything except $5,000. The amount that you see in this now is what the Governor requested, and the Republican conferees held to that and that is what we gave them."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield?"

Senator Durkan:

"Senator Durkan, I notice in the budget this time we have the horse racing commission appropriation. I was wondering, did the central budget agency present a budget to you in the conference committee on this item?"

Senator Durkan:

"The amount that is in the budget was given to me by Jim Ryan from Central Budget Agency and this is the amount that is appropriated. We have an attorney general's opinion that the horse racing commission is under the budget and accounting act and they cannot expend any more funds than have been appropriated in this bill."

Senator Atwood:

"Senator Durkan, on page eighteen of this budget document you have written in a mandate regarding teachers' salaries. For the record so that there will be no misunderstanding when we get home, these raises that are mandated more or less do include the increments, is that right, or what is the explanation?"

Senator Durkan:

"Including increments, yes."

Senator Atwood:

"Finally, on the $22 million for the cities, we asked you this question when the Senate version was passed here and so that there will be no misunderstanding by the police and firemen of the cities that that money is for general fund use and is not an earmarked situation, so there is no misunderstanding—some of the people are saying one-fourth of all the money that the cities get must go to the police and fire departments."

Senator Durkan:

"The $4 million is merely for distribution, not for destination."

Debate ensued.

Senator Canfield:

"Mr. President, would Senator Dore yield to a question?"

"Senator Dore, Senator Woodall asked a question and I wanted to be sure I heard it correctly. What is the increase in the general fund in this proposed budget over the current biennium—general fund money only, in percentages please?"

Senator Dore:

"The total general fund money in the present budget is $1,681,658,000 and the general fund money two years ago was $1,193,774,000 or a difference of $487,000,000 more than two years ago or an increase of some 35% in general fund money."

The motion was carried and the report of the Free Conference Committee was adopted.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 208 as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 6; excused, 2.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Chytil, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Faulk, Foley, Freise, Gissberg, Greive, Hanna, Henry, Herr, Herrmann, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Kupka, Lewis, McCormack, McCutcheon, McMillan, Mardesich, Marquardt, Metcalf, Morgan, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Rasmussen, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Uhlman, Washington, Williams—41.

Those voting nay were: Senators Guess, Lennart, Redmon, Talley, Twigg, Woodall—6.

Excused: Senators Hallauer, Ridder—2.

Engrossed House Bill No. 208 as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Woodall, the rules were suspended to permit members to mail a protest regarding Engrossed House Bill No. 208 to the Secretary of the Senate for incorporation in the record.

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

At 7:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 8:30 p.m.

EVENING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 8:30 p.m.

The President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 10:00 p.m.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 60

By Senator Kupka:

Whereas, The University of Washington owns a substantial amount of valuable real estate in King County; and

Whereas, This real estate has large commercial value and is leased to various individuals and corporations; and

Whereas, These real estate holdings are commonly referred to as the Metropolitan Tract in the King County area; and

Whereas, The income from these properties has a substantial effect on the economical problems within the field of higher education in the state of Washington; and

Whereas, It is the duty of the legislature and in particular the interim committee on higher education, to maintain a constant and diligent vigilance over all matters which affect higher education;

Now, Therefore Be It Resolved, That the interim committee on higher education be and it is hereby directed to make a complete study of the Metropolitan Tract and its management during the coming biennium; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the interim committee on higher education be and it is hereby directed to file with the secretary of the senate, prior to the convening of the forty-first session of the Washington State Legislature, a report of its findings and recommendations pertaining to the Metropolitan Tract.

On motion of Senator Kupka, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 61

By Senators Greive and Atwood:

Whereas, During the regular and extraordinary sessions of the Fortieth Legislature, the members of the Senate have been furnished, without cost to them or to the state of Washington, and without comment for or against any bill or resolution, a digest and analysis of all bills and resolutions introduced in the Senate and House of Representatives; and

Whereas, The legislative digest has been of great service to the members of the Senate;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Senate does hereby express its gratitude and appreciation to the Association of Washington Industries for this service in the interest of good government; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be entered upon the Journal and a copy suitably enrolled be sent to C. David Gordon, executive vice president, and each of the officers of the Association of Washington Industries, and to the editor of the legislative digest, the Honorable C. Lee Coulter.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 62

By Senators Atwood and Herrmann:

Whereas, During the regular and extraordinary sessions of the Fortieth Legislature, the Washington State Research Council has prepared and delivered a daily service consisting of status reports of all Senate and House bills; and

Whereas, Such status reports have provided information not otherwise easily obtainable; and

Whereas, Such service was of great benefit to members of both Houses and to others interested in following the course of bills in the Legislature; and

Whereas, The members of the Senate are unanimous in their desire to express their appreciation to the Washington State Research Council;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Senate commend the Washington State Research Council for its service and express its gratitude and appreciation for it; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the Washington State Research Council.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 63

By Senators Greive, Atwood and Herrmann:

Whereas, We, the members of the Senate, have had present with us as co-laborers during the Fortieth Legislature and the extraordinary session thereof not only the members of the House of Representatives but also representatives of the press, radio and television; and

Whereas, The visiting newspaper correspondents of the various public journals of the state and representatives of the various television channels and radio stations have, by their frequent courtesies, their close attention to business, and their careful account of the proceedings, worked, as we have striven to do, for the best interests of the people of the state of Washington, always with a kindly fellow feeling and with loyalty to the papers, the television channels, and radio stations they represent; and

Whereas, The Allied Daily Newspapers of Washington, during said sessions, has supplied each Senator with daily complimentary copies of two Washington dailies of the Senator's choice;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Senate extends its thanks for these courtesies and good will, its praise for good work well done, and the hope that in the Forty-first Legislature all may meet again and renew old friendships.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 64

By Senators Bailey, Ryder and Greive:

Whereas, Lieutenant Governor John A. Cherberg has presided over the Senate at the regular and extraordinary sessions of the fortieth legislature of the state of Washington with his usual fairness and impartiality; and

Whereas, He has firmly established himself in these and the five previous sessions over which he has presided, as an able parliamentarian and presiding officer; and

Whereas, He has worked closely with members of the Senate irrespective of their party affiliation to the end that legislation in the public good has been enacted; and

Whereas, His presiding over the Senate in a judicious manner has added stature and decorum to the proceedings of this body; and

Whereas, As chairman of the committee on rules and joint rules he has accepted the responsibility seriously, labored diligently for long hours under oftentimes difficult circumstances to the end that the work of the committee be successful and effective; and

Whereas, His outstanding qualities of leadership have upon many occasions brought divergent groups together with results which have proved to be in the best interest of all the people of the state of Washington and contributed much to the smooth operation of the legislature;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Senate extend its thanks, appreciation and praise to Lieutenant Governor John A. Cherberg for good work well done; and Be It Further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate suitably enroll a copy of this resolution and transmit the same to Lieutenant Governor John A. Cherberg; and Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be entered in the Senate Journal.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the resolution was adopted.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President:

"Lady and gentlemen of the Senate:

"I greatly appreciate your very kind remarks. To a certain degree, I believe that you have been over generous and I want to call special attention to the statements made by Senator Gissberg to the effect as to my qualifications or any person's qualifications that he have a strong back and a weak mind. It has been a real pleasure for me to serve during this particular session. I have thoroughly enjoyed every member of the Senate and I have a great deal of respect and admiration and affection for the members of the Senate.

"I would like to pay particular tribute to my friend, Senator Lennart, and express my deep regret that you have chosen to retire, Senator. You have been one of the great experiences of my life and I certainly appreciate having had the opportunity to be with you for the past ten-plus years. I am sure that the members of the Senate will join with me in wishing you every good fortune henceforth and that you will be around to visit us for many, many sessions to come.

"I would like to say, too, gentlemen, that Senator Lennart has agreed if we ever adjourn Sine Die that he will give us the distinction and honor of striking the gavel to denote Sine Die for the extraordinary session following the Fortieth Session.

"I would like to have Mary Lou Bammert and Mary Kay Krinbring and John Crowley come to the Senate Chamber. You all know John who has been with me for a number of sessions and I want you to know how much I admire and truly appreciate the good work he has done. Mary Kay and Mary Lou I am sure you all agree have all been more than cooperative and they share with me the same genuine affection and admiration for you people.

"I'm being a little lippy here tonight, but I want, too, to congratulate Ward Bowden on the grand job that he does and to express my gratefulness and deep appreciation to him for his wise counsel and for the wonderful manner in which he helps the President.

"Verne Sawyer, I think is the—I don't 'think it,' I know that he is the grandest reading clerk and Verne goes far beyond that, however. On many, many occasions he straightens the President out on points that sometimes they slip by the President. I would like to express my appreciation to Verne for the wonderful things that he has done and the many services he performs for us and of which we are most of the time unaware; and,

"Don Wilson, the same thing can be said for Don. Don is a grand guy and does yesman's work and I am sure that Ward will back up every word I say.

"Our very attractive minute clerk, Pat Martin, is almost infallible. I don't think that we ever have had occasion to correct anything that Pat has ever reported for us. She is a true value.

"Our very lovely docket clerk is also a person of infallible performance. Rose Kneeland has done a wonderful job for us.

"I am sure, too, that all of us would like to express our appreciation to our Sergeant at Arms, Charlie Johnson, and his very fine staff—Brig Young, Joe Shabaz and Charles Gerold whom I am sure all of the members of the Republican caucus will agree is the perfect person for that job, and to all of the gals and all the guys in the work room and in the Senate garage, my words of appreciation are sincere and heartfelt."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Knoblauch:

"Mr. President, you stole my thoughts a bit ago about Senator Lennart. I am so pleased that you are going to have him rap the gavel for the last time. If I could be here—but I don't expect to be—I would like to suggest that when the Senate adjourns tonight, that it adjourn sine die in favor of our beloved Senator Lennart and that the journal so show that the Senate adjourned sine die in his honor."

Senator Atwood:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I am not really losing Ernie because he is my neighbor. He is my senior senator and always will be. I would also like to join in all of the remarks to express my appreciation to the staff for their most kind and courteous attitude toward the minority. They have served us and the Senate as a whole in an exemplary manner and have done an outstanding job, and on behalf of the minority, I would like to express our appreciation to you: Ward, Don, Verne, Pat and Rose."

Senator Pritchard:

"Mr. President:

"I would like to suggest if it is in order that the gavel that is used to sine die be given to Senator Lennart to keep as a keepsake."

The President:

"Senator Pritchard, the President has always had a great deal of respect and admiration for your intelligence, but never have I known before that you were clairvoyant. The President believes that your suggestion is a remarkably good one and will see to it."

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION

1967 EX - 65

By Senators Bailey and Ryder:

Whereas, The First Extraordinary Session of the Fortieth Legislature is drawing to a close; and

Whereas, It is necessary to provide for the completion of the work of the Senate after its adjournment;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is hereby authorized and directed to complete the work of said Extraordinary Session, to reply to and give necessary attention to correspondence and other details arising therefrom; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be, and he hereby is, authorized to retain such employees as he may deem necessary and that said employees and the Secretary of the Senate be allowed such per diem rate of pay therefor as the President of the Senate or the President Pro Tempore and the Secretary of the Senate shall determine; and

Be It Further Resolved, That all bills incurred up to and including this date, covering Senate expenditures made, or obligations incurred, which are payable out of the funds appropriated for the payment of expenses, except legislative printing, of the Legislature of the state of Washington, and which are presented for payment after adjournment of the First Extraordinary Session of the Fortieth Legislature, before payment is authorized must bear the approval of the President or the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and the Secretary of the Senate; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to make out and execute with the President, or the President Pro Tempore, the necessary vouchers upon which warrants for the foregoing expenses and expenditures shall be drawn from funds provided therefore for legislative expenses; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be, and hereby is, authorized and directed to have a copy of the Senate Journal of the First Extraordinary Session of the Fortieth Legislature, together with a suitable index therefor, prepared by the State Printer; and

Be It Further Resolved, That after the close of the Session the Secretary of the Senate, and the President, or the President Pro Tempore of the Senate be, and they hereby are, authorized and directed to prepare and execute the necessary vouchers, upon which warrants shall be drawn for the final payment of all expenses incurred after the adjournment of this First Extraordinary Session of the Fortieth Legislature in closing the business of such session.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the resolution was adopted.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed: Senate Bill No. 369,
Senate Bill No. 645.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 68

By Senator Washington:

Whereas, The states of Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington and Wyoming together make up the Western Conference of the Council of State Governments; and

Whereas, Each member state contributes to the support of the Western Conference; and

Whereas, The Council and its Western Conference play an important role in coordinating the relationship among its member states and between them and the federal government; and

Whereas, In order for the fifty states to meet the challenge of the expanding role of the federal government, it is necessary that the states coordinate their efforts to meet growing needs of various kinds themselves rather than abdicating to the federal government; and

Whereas, The federal government is now expanding its activities more significantly in the highway safety field, and it is in this field where interstate coordination is most urgently needed if states are to continue to maintain a significant role; and

Whereas, It is desirable to expand the functions of the Council of State Governments and its four regional conferences, including the Western Conference, to provide necessary interstate coordination; and

Whereas, Such an expanded role will require additional personnel and facilities and the expenditure of a greater sum of money than has hitherto been available to the Western Conference; and

Whereas, The Legislature of the state of Washington has made an appropriation to the joint committee on highways for the biennium ending June 30, 1969, for distribution to the Western Council of State Governments, pursuant to the resolution of said committee, for research and administrative services relating to the proper implementation of the several federal highway programs, contingent on two or more other states authorizing expenditures of equal or greater sums for the same purpose;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the Governors of the several member states of the Western Conference of the Council of State Governments, and the Legislatures of such member states, are respectfully requested to provide additional funds for the use of the Western Council, as the Legislature of the state of Washington has done.

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the Governors of the states of Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, and Wyoming, and to the presiding officers of both legislative houses in each of those states.

On motion of Senator Washington, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION
1967 EX - 69

By Senators Connor, Greive, Ryder and Peterson (Ted):

Whereas, The leisure time of our citizens is on the increase; and

Whereas, More and more people of the state of Washington are participating in recreational activities of city-, county-, and state-operated programs; and

Whereas, Such recreational programs significantly affect the lives of the children participating in such programs; and

Whereas, It is necessary that the participants be assured of professionally competent leadership in such programs; and

Whereas, The health, safety and welfare of the participants are directly affected by the leadership of such programs; and

Whereas, It would be desirable to establish some method of assuring such professionally competent leadership;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, That the Legislative Council be requested to make a study into the feasibility of requiring certification of all leadership personnel at city-, county-, and state-supported recreation facilities.

Be It Further Resolved, That the Legislative Council be requested to prepare suitable legislation for introduction at the next regular session of the Legislature.

On motion of Senator Greive, the resolution was adopted.

The President called upon Senator Lennart to preside.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lennart:

"Mr. President and members of the Senate:

"I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the many wonderful thoughts you have given me here so many times. It gladdens me a great deal that I could have in some way imparted myself in your existence here. I was thinking very briefly about a poem which I have said before and which you know well because it is quite pertinent:

ABOU BEN ADHEM

Abou Ben Adhem (may his tribe increase!)
Awoke one night from a deep dream of peace,
And saw, within the moonlight in his room,
Making it rich, and like a lily in bloom,
An angel writing in a book of gold:—
Exceeding peace had made Ben Adhem bold,

And to the Presence in the room he said,
 "What writest thou?"—The vision raised its head,
 And with a look made of all sweet accord,
 Answered, "The names of those who love the Lord."
 "And is mine one?" said Abou. "Nay, not so,"
 Replied the Angel. Abou spoke more low,
 But cheerly still; and said, "I pray thee, then,
 Write me as one that loves his fellow-men."
 The angel wrote, and vanished. The next night
 It came again with a great wakening light,
 And showed the names whom love of God had blessed,
 And lo! Ben Adhem's name led all the rest.

Leigh Hunt (1784-1859)

"This evening I was talking to Pat down here and I reminded her about one of the most beautiful books that I know, the Book of Daniel. Now this is a very beautiful book about a great statesman who would rather be in a lion's den with God, than out of it without God, and it recited that one day the angel Gabriel came down from the presence of God to tell him that he was greatly beloved. 'Oh, man, greatly beloved.' But what is so impressive about this book, in the closing of it, it says: 'They that be wise shall shine like a firmament and they who bring men into righteousness are stars in Heaven forever.'

"I would say to you in parting, having shared all these many wonderful years, I am so deeply grateful. I feel there is much sincerity in it and I am sure there is. I would ask you when you come up our way, I have a large, sprawling home with many lean-tos and a lot of beautiful things and if you all came we would have a salmon bake and it would be like the, 'Fatted Calf.' Believe me, we'd make merry.

"As I understand, I get the gavel now. I don't know if this was a trick by Joel Pritchard. He is quite tricky and I wonder if he coerced the President, John, as I fondly call him, to say yes about this gavel, but I want to say that tangible as it is, the gift without the giver is bare. I know I will share that gift with you, John. So to all of you again, thank you for so tremendous much. I would be devoid of all sense of gratitude and have no understanding if I didn't say that."

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The Senate members of the special committee composed of Senators Sandison, Ryder and Kupka appointed to notify the Governor that the legislature was about to adjourn Sine Die appeared before the bar of the Senate and reported that the committee had so notified the Governor and that the Governor was willing that the legislature adjourn Sine Die.

The report was received and the committee was discharged.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The Senate members of the special committee composed of Senators Bailey, Atwood and Greive appointed to notify the House that the Senate was ready to adjourn Sine Die reported that the House had been notified.

The report was received and the committee was discharged.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Knoblauch, the Senate journal of the fifty-second day of the Fortieth Legislature, First Extraordinary Session, was ordered approved.

At 11:48 p.m., on motion of Senator Knoblauch and in special honor of Senator Ernest W. Lennart, the Senate of the Fortieth Legislature, First Extraordinary Session, adjourned Sine Die.

APPENDIX

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGES ON SENATE BILLS PARTIALLY VETOED

March 21, 1967.

To the Honorable,
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the legislature, without my approval as to three items, Senate Bill No. 45, entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to state and local governments; providing for interlocal governmental cooperation on a state, local government, and federal basis; and providing an effective date.”

This legislature has faced with responsibility the problems of rapid urbanization in the state. Utilizing the excellent work of the Legislative Council as a basis, the legislature has met the challenge which I gave in my State of the State Message “to assure that in Washington the cure is at least better than the illness and that as a government we can establish a design for urban living which will permit a maximum of individual freedom within the framework of responsible common action.” I called at that time for “legislation which will both allow and encourage cooperative action between different classes of cities and between cities and counties, where the collective requirement exceeds the individual capacity.” Senate Bill 45 does exactly that, and the legislature should be commended for its unanimous enactment.

The language of Section 13 was added by amendment on January 25, 1967. At that time, it was impossible to know that House Bill 78, establishing an office of community affairs, would also successively be enacted. Therefore, the language in three places in Section 13 provides that information be furnished either to the local affairs division or the office of community affairs. Senate Bill 45 will become law on July 1, 1967. On that same date, the local affairs division will no longer be in existence, its duties having been transferred to the office of community affairs. To avoid any confusion and ambiguity in the law, I believe all reference to the local affairs division should be deleted. I have therefore vetoed the reference to this division in the three places it appears in Section 13.

With the exception of these items, which I have vetoed, the remainder of the bill is approved.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

March 21, 1967.

To the Honorable,
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the legislature without my approval as to one item, Substitute Senate Bill No. 46, entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to air pollution.”

This is the Washington Clean Air Act. In my State of the State Message, I urged enactment of this legislation in stating that “no single manifestation of our prosperity, no single realization of our growth exacts such a cruel price as the pollution of our air and water. In city after city, and now in state after state, growth and success have blotted out the works of man and the genius of nature.” After careful review of this legislation, I believe Substitute Senate Bill 46, introduced at the request of the Legislative Council modified in the legislative process and approved by the Governor, represents an excellent vehicle with which to begin the effort to protect the clean air of the Pacific Northwest. I congratulate both the Legislature Council for its work over the last biennium, and the Legislature for its action in enacting the Washington Clean Air Act.

I have vetoed an item in Section 44 which could be interpreted as making ineffective the provisions dealing with appointment of members of the Air Pollution Control Board until after the terms of the present members expire. The legislature has designated an entirely new appointment procedure commensurate with the new responsibilities contained in Substitute Senate Bill 46. While it is not my intention to markedly alter the makeup of the Board, I believe the new procedure for selection of members should become effective at the same time as the remainder of the act.

I have therefore vetoed the final paragraph in Section 44, and approved the remainder of the bill.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) DANIEL J. EVANS,

Governor.

March 8, 1967.

To the Honorable,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith Senate Bill No. 49, entitled:

“AN ACT Establishing the oceanographic commission of Washington; authorizing the formation of the Oceanographic Institute of Washington; prescribing powers, duties and functions; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date.”

This bill establishes the Oceanographic Commission of Washington to encourage and promote maximum utilization of our oceanographic assets. In my State of the State Message, I stated “to assure the proper public management of our new and exciting frontier in oceanography, I will enthusiastically support the establishment of the Washington State Oceanographic Commission.” I commend the Legislature for its enactment of Senate Bill No. 49 and believe that the Commission which it has established will play a vital role in the future of the State of Washington.

In Section 2, the bill provides that members of the Commission shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for necessary travel and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as commission members “on the same basis as provided by law for state officials and employees under RCW 44.04.120." The statute cited in the bill does not refer to travel and other expenses incurred by state officials or employees, but rather, refers to expenses incurred by members of the legislature while serving on interim committees. State officials and employees are reimbursed for travel and other expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and .060 at the rate of $.08 a mile and $15.00 a day while inside the state and $25.00 a day while outside the state. I believe the legislature intended that those who are serving on a temporary basis while permanently engaged in other employment be reimbursed at the higher rate provided by RCW 44.04.120 of $25.00 a day and $.10 a mile.

To allow the language to remain as it exists in this bill would invite challenge by the Auditor of payment of proper expenses of members of the Commission. In order to avoid any question with regard to this matter, I have vetoed the words "by law for state officials and employees" from Section 2. The remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

May 11, 1967.

To the Honorable,
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the legislature, without my approval as to one item, Senate Bill No. 255, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to revenue and taxation."

This bill makes a number of changes in laws relating to revenue and taxation. Section 21 of the bill changes the definition of "value of the article used" in determining the amount of use tax payable under Chapter 82.12 Revised Code of Washington. The amendment contained in Section 21 would delete from the definition the following provision:

"In the case of articles manufactured or produced by the user and used in the manufacture or production of products sold or to be sold to the department of defense of the United States, the value of the articles used shall be determined according to the value of the ingredients of such articles."

The 1965 legislature adopted the above quoted provision in order to bring Washington's use tax law somewhat into conformity with the laws of other states with respect to contractors who produce special tooling in the course of manufacturing a product for the Department of Defense. Under the 1965 act, the use tax is based upon the value of the materials which were utilized to manufacture this special tooling, but would not apply to the balance of the value added by the contractor in those instances where the contract is performed for the Department of Defense.

If Washington were to change its law as proposed in Section 21, the additional use tax applicable to special tooling would add to the Department of Defense cost of awarding contracts to bidders based in the State of Washington. I see no reason to change the law in a manner which places Washington bidders at a competitive disadvantage with bidders in other states, where use tax laws determine the value of special tooling on at least as favorable a basis as under existing Washington law.

The additional revenues to the State of Washington which would result from a change in the law are relatively minor, and would become less significant if Washington bidders are unsuccessful in obtaining Defense Department business. Of much greater importance would be the effect upon the state's economy and its revenues from other taxes which would result from an increase in contracts awarded by the Defense Department to taxpayers in this state.

For the foregoing reasons, I have vetoed Section 21. The remainder of Senate Bill No. 255 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) DANIEL J. EVANS,

Governor.

April 22, 1967.

To the Honorable,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to a certain item, Senate Bill No. 280, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the sale of motor vehicles and licensing dealers and salesmen."

This bill makes significant changes in the law relating to licensing of motor vehicle dealers, provides for the licensing of salesmen of motor vehicles, and declares certain practices to be unlawful.

The Director of Motor Vehicles is charged with the enforcement of the act, and is given the power to deny, suspend or revoke a salesman's or dealer's license. The bill grants to the director the power to conduct investigations, hold hearings, and issue subpoenas to compel attendance of witnesses.

The grant of subpoena power is not uncommon in statutes regulating business and professions, and is desirable in this bill in order to permit the director to investigate unfair practices in sales of motor vehicles.

However, subsection (2) of Section 15 of the bill contains provisions which are not normally found in statutes regulating and licensing business and professions. It provides that a witness compelled to testify or produce documents at any proceeding instituted by the director may not refuse to testify on the ground that his testimony or other evidence might tend to incriminate him. However, if the witness claims his constitutional privilege against self-incrimination, he may not be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he is compelled to testify or produce evidence during the course of the proceeding.

In this type of proceeding, I object to denying a witness his constitutional privilege against self-incrimination. I am convinced that the Director of Motor Vehicles will be able to obtain sufficient information to determine whether to grant, deny or revoke the license of a motor vehicle dealer or salesman without requiring a witness to incriminate himself. Moreover, I feel that the director of a state agency, which is not charged with the responsibility of conducting criminal prosecutions, normally, should not have the power to grant immunity from prosecution for a crime. This could be the result of the director's action in compelling testimony under this subsection.

For the foregoing reasons, I have vetoed Subsection (2) of Section 15. The remainder of Senate Bill No. 280 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

March 21, 1967.

To the Honorable,
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the legislature, without my approval as to certain items, Senate Bill No. 320, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to agriculture; amending generally the agricultural laws of state."

This bill embodies a substantial number of amendments to state laws relating to agriculture, and was introduced at the request of the state department of agriculture. I have no objections to the provisions of this bill, but for technical reasons I believe two sections should be vetoed.

I have vetoed Section 31 because this section embodies the same amendment to RCW 15.50.020 which is also contained in House Bill 142 passed by the legislature and heretofore approved by me.

I have also vetoed Section 36; because a number of words in the existing law not intended to be deleted from this section were inadvertently omitted when this bill was prepared. The omission of these words greatly changes the meaning of the section, and would cause the law to be amended in a manner not intended by the legislature. The director of agriculture agrees that it would be preferable to leave the law unchanged rather than to allow this section to become law in its present form.

With the exception of Section 31 and Section 36, which I have vetoed, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 320 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

April 28, 1967.

To the Honorable,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to a certain item, Senate Bill No. 325, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to probate law and procedure."

This bill makes various changes in the probate law of the state. I have no objection to these changes; however, I have vetoed Section 1 of the bill because the amendment to RCW 11.20.050 set forth in Section 1 was contained in House Bill No. 138 passed by the legislature during the regular session. The remainder of Senate Bill No. 325 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

March 21, 1967.

To the Honorable,
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one item, Senate Bill No. 328, entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to municipal courts; authorizing changes of venue;”

This bill provides a much needed third department of the municipal court in Seattle. The two municipal judges now handle entirely different types of cases. One is in charge of the criminal department, and the other is in charge of traffic offenses and supervises the traffic violations bureau. The workload of both departments of this court is so heavy that its proper administration has been a matter of concern to many lawyers and judges, as well as to members of the legislature.

I believe that the legislature is properly concerned that the average citizen normally has his first, and perhaps his only, contact with our judicial system when he is charged with a traffic offense. These offenses are not to be treated lightly, for traffic violations are a principal cause of our mounting traffic death toll. In addition, the initial contact with the traffic court will to a large extent influence the citizen's respect for the law, which is one of the cornerstones of an orderly society.

In this bill the legislature has attempted to improve the administration of the traffic court by rotating the three judges so that each of them will handle traffic cases two-thirds of the time and criminal cases one-third of the time. The bill also provides for a change of venue of cases from one department of the court to the other.

I have no objection to the change of venue provisions; but based upon extensive discussions which members of my staff have had with judges and attorneys familiar with the operation of the municipal court, I believe the rotation plan might seriously disrupt the operations of the criminal department of the court and particularly its probation work.

Therefore, I have vetoed the portion of section 2 which provides:

“The municipal judges elected as hereinafter provided shall preside over the departments on a rotating basis with each judge to preside over each department for four months during each year. The scheduling of such rotation and the other details thereof shall be decided at the meetings of the judges as herein-after provided for.”

Despite my veto of the above provision, I believe that the motives of legislature in seeking to improve the operations of the municipal court are commendable, and that efforts to improve the court should continue. I recommend that the Judicial Council, which will now include additional legislators and a member of the Magistrates Association, make an intensive study of the municipal court system during the next two years. If further legislation is necessary to improve its operation, the Judicial Council should submit its recommendations to the 1969 Legislature.

Except for the item which I have vetoed, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 328 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

April 22, 1967

To the Honorable,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to one item, Senate Bill 386, entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to state institutions of higher learning.”

This bill clarifies certain language with regard to the authority of boards of regents and trustees of the universities and colleges of the state. Section 3 of the bill contains a standard emergency clause. I have followed the practice of vetoing emergency clauses on bills submitted to me when no genuine emergency existed.

An emergency clause defeats the right of the people to reject a bill by referendum, and, therefore, should be sparingly used by the legislature. Representatives of the institutions at whose request the bill was introduced and those who prepared the legislation have been informed and agree that the clarification contained in the law will not be needed prior to the normal effective date of the act.

Therefore, I have vetoed Section 3. The remainder of Senate Bill 386 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

May 10, 1967.

To the Honorable,
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the legislature, without my approval as to one section, Senate Bill No. 532, entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to state government and the support thereof and authorizing the issuance and sale of state general obligation bonds to provide for needful land acquisition and buildings.”

This bill submits to the voters of the State of Washington for their approval or rejection a proposed state general obligation bond issue of $63,059,000 to provide necessary new facilities at certain state institutions, the state library, the three state colleges and the two state universities. The bill also would provide the funds for first phase construction at the fourth state college authorized by the 1967 legislature. I approve of this bond issue and trust that the voters of the state will ratify it at the election to be held in November, 1968.

However, Section 9 of the bill is unnecessary, and may prove confusing to the voters if it remains in the measure when it is submitted at the 1968 general election. Section 9 provides conditionally that the bond issue be reduced to $12,607,595, by eliminating from the bill all funds for institutions of higher education. The condition specified is the ratification of a constitutional amendment proposed in Senate Joint Resolution No. 17 at an election to be held in November, 1967. This proposed constitutional amendment would eliminate the need for many statewide bond issues by authorizing a State Building Authority to lease buildings to state agencies and finance the construction or acquisition cost through the sale of revenue bonds. If the State Building Authority were activated later this year, it would finance construction of needed higher education facilities, including the new four-year college, approximately a year sooner than will be possible under Senate Bill No. 532.

Section 9 is meaningless, because no state general election will be held in November, 1967.

A bill authorizing annual state elections was introduced during the 1967 legislative session at my request. It was passed by the House of Representatives, but failed to emerge from the Senate Rules Committee. It is unfortunate that the people will not have the benefit of annual state elections in order to vote promptly on vital issues facing the state, such as proposed constitutional amendments, matters relating to a constitutional convention and other measures referred to the people. Since this is not possible, I believe Senate Bill No. 532 will be less confusing to the voters if references to a proposed 1967 general election are eliminated.

Therefore, I have vetoed Section 9. The remainder of Senate Bill No. 532 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) DANIEL J. EVANS,

Governor.

May 11, 1967.

To the Honorable,
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the Senate at the next session of the legislature, without my approval as to certain items, Senate Bill No. 630, entitled:

"AN ACT Creating boards of legislative ethics."

This bill deals with legislative ethics and provides for separate boards of ethics in the House and Senate to pass upon alleged unethical practices by members of the legislature and legislative employees. Each board of ethics will consist of four legislators and four non-legislators. The joint boards are charged with the responsibility of developing a comprehensive code of ethics for submission to the next session of the legislature.

I am in great sympathy with the object of this bill; however, there are three items of the bill which I have vetoed in an effort to strengthen its provisions.

Section 2 requires that the chairman of each board of ethics shall be a legislator. The chairmen of the party caucuses in the House and Senate will choose the non-legislative members of the boards. Presumably these will be citizens whose stature might well qualify them to be considered for the position of chairman. If a majority of a board of ethics wishes to choose a non-legislator as chairman, I believe the law should not prohibit that choice. Therefore, I have vetoed the sentence in Section 2 which states:

“The members of each board shall elect as chairman a legislator member thereof.”

Section 7 provides that after an investigation and a hearing in regard to allegedly unethical conduct:

“No finding of unethical conduct on the part of any legislator shall be valid unless signed by at least two-thirds of the members of the board who have not disqualified themselves.”

Apparently, a finding of unethical conduct on the part of a legislative employee would require a concurrence of at least a majority of the eight member board of ethics. I see no reason for discriminating either in favor of or against any person under investigation because he is or is not a member of the legislature. So that all persons whose conduct is under scrutiny by a board of ethics will be treated equally, I have vetoed the sentence quoted above.

Section 7 also provides that the findings and recommendations of a board of ethics regarding unethical conduct of a legislator or a legislative employee shall be sent directly to the Rules Committee of the house in question or to such other officer or committee as may be provided by the applicable rules of the House or Senate. I believe that each house of the 1969 Legislature should adopt specific rules regarding the handling of reports from the newly created boards of ethics; however, in the event of substantial disagreement in either house, the most likely result would be that no rule would be adopted on this subject. In such a situation, the provisions of Section 7 would place these reports in the hands of the Rules Committee. However, I believe that in the absence of a specific rule to the contrary adopted by the 1969 Legislature, these reports should be made to the whole membership of the house in question. For this reason, I have vetoed in Section 7, the words, “the rules committee of” which appear on page 6, line 5 of the bill.

The effectiveness of this bill will depend in large measures upon the “Code of Ethics” which is adopted during the interim by the joint boards of ethics. These boards should be given every possible opportunity to develop a meaningful and workable code of legislative ethics. All citizens interested in this subject should cooperate with the joint boards in this endeavor, for drafting a code for part-time public servants such as legislators and legislative employees will be much more difficult than drafting a code for full-time public officials.

With the exception of the items in Section 2 and Section 7 discussed above, which I have vetoed, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 630 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) DANIEL J. EVANS,

Governor.

April 28, 1967.

To the Honorable,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Lady and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to one item, Senate Bill No. 638, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to public lands; providing for the vacation of waterways; providing for the acquisition, improvement, development and financing of the east capitol site; and providing for the disposition of certain public funds;"

This bill authorizes the State Capitol Committee to provide for the acquisition, development and improvement of lands, improvements and facilities within the East Capitol Site in the City of Olympia. The bill also provides the means of financing a portion of this project from an increased allocation to the State of rentals from harbor areas and tidelands.

The rentals allocated to the State are to be added to the capitol purchase and development account of the State general fund. From this account the legislature has appropriated up to four million dollars to accomplish the purposes of the bill. These funds may be used directly to pay the cost of land acquisition and other expenses of the project, or the State Capitol Committee may issue bonds and use the proceeds of harbor area and tideland rentals and other funds in the capitol purchase and development account to pay the principal and interest on the bonds.

Section 2 of the bill amends existing law relating to the allocation of harbor area and tideland rentals. It increases the allocation to the State and decreases the allocation to port districts. Looking forward to the time when the State would not require this increased allocation of rentals to pay the current installments of principal and interest on bonds, the legislature has added a proviso to section 2 as follows:

"PROVIDED, That each year, when the current annual debt service requirements for the bonds authorized by section 4 of this act have been provided for, the formula for distribution to port districts shall be re-established as provided in section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1913, as last amended by section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1937."

I do not object to the principle that the increased allocation of rentals to the State should be returned to the port districts when it is no longer required to finance the acquisition and development of property in the East Capitol Site; however, the language of the proviso is too restrictive. The increased revenues from rentals can be used only to pay debt service on bonds, otherwise they revert to the port districts. They are not available to the State to pay costs of the project without issuing bonds. And, if bonds are issued it may not be possible to accumulate funds in addition to current debt service to provide bondholders with customary guarantees that future debt service requirements will be met.

It is doubtful that the legislature expected the proviso to result in a reduction of the State's share of these rentals during the next two years. Thus, the 1969 legislature will have the opportunity to review this provision prior to the time that any surplus funds would have been available in the capitol purchase and development account.

For the foregoing reasons, I have vetoed a certain item in section 2. The remainder of Senate Bill No. 638 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.
