Said bond shall be to the state for the benefit of qualified consignors of agricultural products in this state. All such sureties on a bond, as provided herein, shall be released and discharged from all liability to the state accruing on such bond by giving notice to the principal and the director by certified mail. (2) The bond for a commission merchant or dealer in hay, straw or turf, forage or vegetable seed shall be not less than fifteen thousand dollars ((for a commission merchant or a dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed, hay, or straw)). Such bond for a new commission merchant or dealer in hay, straw or turf, forage or vegetable seed shall be subject to increase at any time during the licensee's first year of operation based on the average of business volume for any three months. Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the bond shall be not less than three thousand dollars for any other dealer.

The bond for a dealer handling agricultural products other than livestock, hay, straw or turf, forage or vegetable seed shall not be less than three thousand dollars. The actual amount of such bond shall be determined by dividing the annual dollar volume of ((that commission merchant's or dealer's)) the licensee's net proceeds or net payments due consignors by fifty-two and increasing that amount to the next multiple of two thousand dollars. However, bonds above twenty-six thousand dollars shall be increased to the next multiple of five thousand dollars.

(5) ((The bond for a commission merchant or dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed or a dealer in hay or straw shall be determined by dividing the annual dollar volume of that commission merchant's or dealer's net proceeds or net payments due consignors by twelve and increasing that amount to the next multiple of five thousand dollars, except that the determination of bond amounts for any portion of dollar volume directly related to proprietary seed bailment contracts shall be computed as provided in subsection (4) of this section. The bond for a new commission merchant or a dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed or dealer in hay or straw is subject to increase at any time during the licensee's first year of operation and shall be based on the monthly average of the volume of purchases of any three months of operation.

In the case of a claim against a limited dealer in hay or straw, default occurs when the licensee fails to make payment upon taking possession of the hay or straw. Upon verifying the consignor's claim either through investigation or, if necessary, an administrative action, the director shall, within ten working days of the filing of the claim, make demand for payment of the claim by the licensee's surety without regard to any other potentially valid claim. Any subsequent claim will likewise result in a demand against the licensee's surety, subject to the availability of any remaining bond proceeds.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 2055 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

Voting yeas: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 48.

Excused: Senator Stratton - 1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 2055, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate resume consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 495 and the pending amendment by Senator Guess on page 1, line 23, deferred earlier today.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, a point of order. In previous times, once we started on a piece of legislation and we go past the hour of five o'clock, it has been ruled that we can continue on that. However, you have not ruled on if a bill was picked up and put down on the calendar and then at some later time after five o'clock if that bill is still legitimately before us. I know last year you ruled on one, but you did not rule on the latter case. I wonder if you would do that?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, speaking to the point of order, I would concur with Senator McDonald and defer to your wisdom but if we were to take all the bills that we deferred as we went along because they were controversial, we'd be here until this time tomorrow or the next day, or maybe even next month and I wouldn't want to see us start picking up deferred bills."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, in making your ruling on 495, I wonder if you would also consider House Bill No. 1484? It was a bill that we started at the beginning of today and was set down this morning. I wonder if in your ruling you would tell us if that bill as well is before us?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "As long as the President can remember, the custom has been that the Senate will consider one bill that it has been working on after the deadline. Customarily, the Senate has worked one bill that was being considered by the body. My reply to your last question, the answer would be, 'No, only one bill.'"

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, how do we pick that bill?"

President Cherberg: "The bill that is being considered by the body."

Senator McDonald: "But House Bill No. 1484 also--"

President Cherberg: "The President does not pick the bills. The Senators pick the bills."

Senator McDonald: "Then we could pick any bill that we so chose?"

President Cherberg: "Yes, one, but not two. Senator Vognild moved that the bill be considered and you can vote it down if you choose."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Vognild, I don't have the cutoff resolution in my hand. Evidently you know it better than I, but if memory serves, sir, there was no exception in there. Cutoff was to be at five o'clock today and it is now 5:12."

Senator Vognild: "Senator Guess, if you're asking me why I made this motion, you do not want the answer in the record."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I'll put it in the record. When the bill was called up, a whole sheet--three pages plus another amendment were put up on a bill, as Senator Talmadge indicated, had been worked here for two solid years. It is obviously a delaying technique when we tried to schedule the bill for close to five o'clock. It's the wisdom of the rule to prevent that kind of delaying technique from being used."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Senator Bottiger, if you will ask the Secretary of the Senate, he will tell you that my amendment was laid there at approximately a quarter of twelve. As we came out of caucus--it was probably earlier than that--I don't remember whether it was time stamped or not, but my amendment was there."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, your reputation is beyond reproach. I'm not suggesting that you didn't put your amendment up early, but in this last day of scheduling in trying to get the business of the Senate completed, it is obvious when someone puts up three pages of amendments--these aren't yours, sir--that's the technique that should not be permitted to delay us."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, what issue is presently before the body at the present time?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The motion by Senator Vognild that the Senate consider Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 495 that was previously being considered."

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I believe the remarks of the members should be directed to that issue, if at all possible, so the orderly business of the Senate can proceed."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Vognild that the Senate resume consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 495.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Vognild carried by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 21; absent, 1; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 21.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Guess, and there being no objection, the amendment was withdrawn.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, if I can find the amendment in all of this, there's one on the bottom of the amendment sheet that is marked No. 8--it's an amendment to the committee amendment. We adopted the committee amendment without considering this amendment. Maybe I'm mistaken, but I don't think we considered this amendment and would like to find out."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Secretary advises that your remarks are correct and that the committee amendment will have to be reconsidered in order to accommodate the situation."

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, this amendment was properly before us and I would request that we could indeed do that."

MOTION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Vognild moved to reconsider the vote by which the Committee on Judiciary amendment on page 1, line 27, was adopted earlier today.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Vognild to reconsider the vote by which the Committee on Judiciary amendment on page 1, line 27, was adopted.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the Senate resumed consideration of the Committee on Judiciary amendment on page 1, line 27, on reconsideration.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Barr, the following amendment to the Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

On page 1 of the Judiciary Committee amendment to page 1, line 27, after "imposed by the United States" insert "but shall not include those lands which lie north of the present reservation which were included in original reservation boundaries created in 1872 and which are referred to as the "Diminished Reservation"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment on page 1, line 27, as amended.

The committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Barr moved that further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 495 be deferred.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Barr that further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 495 be deferred.

The motion by Senator Barr failed and the Senate continued consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 495.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the following amendments, the first group by Senator Barr, and the second group by Senators Barr and Rasmussen be considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 10, after "over" insert "Colville tribal"

On page 2, line 9, after "governor" strike "shall" and insert "may"

On page 2, line 18, after "jurisdiction" insert "and is approved by a majority vote of those elected to the legislature in the next regular session following acceptance by the United States government as described in this section"

On page 2, line 20, after "proceeding" strike "pending before" and insert "which has been filed with"

On page 2, line 21, after "state" insert "or local government"

On page 2, line 21, after "state" strike "immediately"

On page 2, line 24, beginning with "For" strike all language through "proceeding," on line 26

On page 2, line 18, strike all language after "jurisdiction," through "non-Indians" on line 19 and insert "The Colville tribes shall not exercise criminal or civil jurisdiction over non-Indians"

On page 1, line 9, after "authorize" insert "a procedure for"

On page 2, beginning on line 4, strike all material through "non-Indians," on line 19 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Whenever the governor receives resolutions from the business council of the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation and a resolution of the county legislative authorities for both Okanogan and Ferry counties requesting the retrocession by the state of all or any measure of the criminal jurisdiction acquired by the state pursuant to section 5, chapter 36, Laws of 1963 over lands of the Colville Indian reservation, and each county resolution has been approved by the voters of the respective counties after submission at the next succeeding general election following the passage of such resolutions, then and only then, the governor shall, within ninety days of such election, issue a proclamation retroceding to the United States the criminal jurisdiction previously acquired by the state over such reservation. However, the state of Washington shall retain jurisdiction as provided in RCW 37.12.010. The proclamation of retrocession shall not become effective until it is accepted by an officer of the United States government in accordance with 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1323 (82 Stat. 78, 79) and in accordance with procedures established by the United States for acceptance of such retrocession of jurisdiction. The Colville tribes shall not exercise criminal or civil jurisdiction over non-Indians."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, we have revisited this new pioneering effort in parliamentary double-think. We have now for the third time adopted an omnibus amendment package. We do not have the choice now whether we want some amendments or don't want some amendments and you and I--all of us on this floor--Democrat or Republican--are going to be tagged with the amendments--one and all--whether you like them or not. If you can't pick and choose between them, it creates a very difficult problem that we're going to have to deal with, not only parliamentary-wise and process-wise, but politically. For instance, in House Bill No. 32 the other day, the folks out here had adopted an amendment that took out tenure as a bargaining position. Now, I don't know if you all wanted that, but you voted for it and you voted for it in an omnibus package.

"I would like to put the body on notice that we will prepare a written statement to be entered in the record concerning this procedure. It's a very dangerous procedure and I hope all of you who have the twenty-five votes now understand what you're doing in adopting these procedures."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the motion to adopt the amendments by Senators Barr and Rasmussen was withdrawn.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Barr, was it not your intention to take all of these amendments simultaneously? I believe we are fulfilling our end of the agreement. I assume that that's still your understanding?"

Senator Barr: "Yes, Senator Talmadge, I had agreed to take them simultaneously before five o'clock and I thought we did that and we held up our part of the deal and I thought that's what we did and like I stated awhile ago that's fine with me now, so nothing will interrupt our agreement for the rest of this session until next Thursday night."

Senator Talmadge: "Why don't you go ahead and make that motion, Senator?"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Barr, the amendments, the first group by Senator Barr, and the second group by Senators Barr and Rasmussen were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 10, after "over" insert "Colville tribal"

On page 2, line 9, after "governor" strike "shall" and insert "may"

On page 2, line 18, after "jurisdiction" insert "and is approved by a majority vote of those elected to the legislature in the next regular session following acceptance by the United States government as described in this section"

On page 2, line 20, after "proceeding" strike "pending before" and insert "which has been filed with"

On page 2, line 21, after "state" insert "or local government"

On page 2, line 21, after "state" strike "immediately"

On page 2, line 24, beginning with "For" strike all language through "proceeding." on line 26

On page 2, line 18, strike all language after "jurisdiction." through "non-Indians" on line 19 and insert "The Colville tribes shall not exercise criminal or civil jurisdiction over non-Indians"

On page 1, line 9, after "authorize" insert "a procedure for"

On page 2, beginning on line 4, strike all material through "non-Indians." on line 19 and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Whenever the governor receives resolutions from the business council of the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation and a resolution of the county legislative authorities for both Okanogan and Ferry counties requesting the retrocession by the state of all or any measure of the criminal jurisdiction acquired by the state pursuant to section 5, chapter 36, Laws of 1963 over lands of the Colville Indian reservation, and each county resolution has been approved by the voters of the respective counties after submission at the next succeeding general election following the passage of such resolutions, then and only then, the governor shall, within ninety days of such election, issue a proclamation retroceding to the United States the criminal jurisdiction previously acquired by the state over such reservation. However, the state of Washington shall retain jurisdiction as provided in RCW 37.12.010. The proclamation of retrocession shall not become effective until it is accepted by an officer of the United States government in accordance with 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1323 (82 Stat. 78, 79) and in accordance with procedures established by the United States for acceptance of such retrocession of jurisdiction. The Colville tribes shall not exercise criminal or civil jurisdiction over non-Indians."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 495, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Barr, is this bill--are all three of you from the district in accord--Representatives Fuhrman and Bristow?"

Senator Barr: "Senator Moore, throughout the last couple of years, there has been considerable changing on the support and attitude towards this measure, as the information developed in those two counties. The county commissioners a year ago were all opposed and the sheriffs were all opposed and during this last year the county commissioners--the majority of the county commissioners--not all of them do support it--and during this process an evolution of developing the bill, then both Representatives voted for the bill in the House. When some of the people were down here last week lobbying the bill from Okanogan County, they asked one of them why he voted for it and he said, 'He wasn't really supporting it, but he did vote for it,' but officially they are both supporting it, as I do when it gets the way it should."

Senator Moore: "Excuse me, Mr. President, so you are saying that they favor these amendments?"

Senator Barr: "To further answer that question. When I was off the floor just before this came up, I went over and asked them and they both agreed to the amendments--both House members agreed to the amendments."

Senator Moore: "Thank you."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, Senator McManus was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 495, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 495, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 8; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Halsan, Hansen, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rinehart, Saling, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 38.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 7, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3453 with the following amendments:

On page 2, after line 13, insert the following:

"Sec. 6. Section 14, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 1, chapter 146, Laws of 1984 and RCW 60.28.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Contracts for public improvements or work, other than for professional services, by the state, or any county, city, town, district, board, or other public body, herein referred to as "public body", shall provide, and there shall be reserved by the public body from the moneys earned by the contractor on estimates during the progress of the improvement or work, a sum not to exceed five percent, said sum to be retained by the state, county, city, town, district, board, or other public body, as a trust fund for the protection and payment of any person or persons, mechanic, subcontractor or materialman who shall perform any labor upon such contract or the doing of said work, and all persons who shall supply such person or persons or subcontractors with provisions and supplies for the carrying on of such work, and the state with respect to taxes imposed pursuant to Title 82 RCW which may be due from such contractor. Every person performing labor or furnishing supplies toward the completion of said improvement or work shall have a lien upon said moneys so reserved: PROVIDED, That such notice of the lien of such claimant shall be given in the manner and within the time provided in RCW 39.08.030 as now existing and in accordance with any amendments that may hereafter be made thereto: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the board, council, commission, trustees, officer or body acting for the state, county or municipality or other public body: (a) at any time after fifty percent of the original contract work has been completed, if it finds that satisfactory progress is being made, may make any of the partial payments which would otherwise be subsequently made in full; but in no event shall the amount to be retained be reduced to less than five percent of the amount of the moneys earned by the contractor: PROVIDED, That the contractor may request that retainage be reduced to one hundred percent of the value of the work remaining on the project: and (b) thirty days after completion and acceptance of all contract work other than landscaping, may release and pay in full the amounts retained during the performance of the contract (other than continuing retention of five percent of the moneys earned for landscaping) subject to the provisions of RCW 60.28.020.

(2) The moneys reserved under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, at the option of the contractor, shall be:

(a) Retained in a fund by the public body until thirty days following the final acceptance of said improvement or work as completed;

(b) Deposited by the public body in an interest bearing account in a bank, mutual savings bank, or savings and loan association, not subject to withdrawal until after the final acceptance of said improvement or work as completed, or until agreed to by both parties: PROVIDED, That interest on such account shall be paid to the contractor;

(c) Placed in escrow with a bank or trust company by the public body until thirty days following the final acceptance of said improvement or work as completed. When the moneys reserved are to be placed in escrow, the public body shall issue a check representing the sum of the moneys reserved payable to the bank or trust company and the contractor jointly. Such check shall be converted into bonds and securities chosen by the contractor and approved by the public body and such bonds and securities shall be held in escrow. Interest on such bonds and securities shall be paid to the contractor as the said interest accrues.

(3) The contractor or subcontractor may withhold payment of not more than five percent from the moneys earned by any subcontractor or sub-subcontractor or supplier contracted with by the contractor to provide labor, materials, or equipment to the public project. Whenever the contractor or subcontractor reserves funds earned by a subcontractor or sub-subcontractor or supplier, the contractor or subcontractor shall pay interest to the subcontractor or sub-subcontractor or supplier at a rate equal to that received by the contractor or subcontractor from reserved funds.

(4) With the consent of the public body the contractor may submit a bond for all or any portion of the amount of funds retained by the public body in a form acceptable to the public body. Such bond and any proceeds therefrom shall be made subject to all claims and liens and in the same manner and priority as set forth for retained percentages in this chapter. The public body shall release the bonded portion of the retained funds to the contractor within thirty days of accepting the bond from the contractor. Whenever a public body accepts a bond in lieu of retained funds from a contractor, the contractor shall accept like bonds from any subcontractors or suppliers from which the contractor has retained funds. The contractor shall then release the funds retained from the subcontractor or supplier to the subcontractor or supplier within thirty days of accepting the bond from the subcontractor or supplier.

(5) If the public body administering a contract, after a substantial portion of the work has been completed, finds that an unreasonable delay will occur in the completion of the remaining portion of the contract for any reason not the result of a breach thereof, it may, if the contractor agrees, delete from the contract the remaining work and accept as final the improvement at the stage of completion then attained and make payment in proportion to the amount of the work accomplished and in such case any amounts retained and accumulated under this section shall be held for a period of thirty days following such acceptance. In the event that the work shall have been terminated before final completion as provided in this section, the public body may thereafter enter into a new contract with the same contractor to perform the remaining work or improvement for an amount equal to or less than the cost of the remaining work as was provided for in the original contract without advertisement or bid. The provisions of this chapter 60.28 RCW shall be deemed exclusive and shall supersede all provisions and regulations in conflict herewith.

(6) Whenever the department of transportation has contracted for the construction of two or more ferry vessels, thirty days after completion and final acceptance of each ferry vessel, the department may release and pay in full the amounts retained in connection with the construction of such vessel subject to the provisions of RCW 60.28.020: PROVIDED, That the department of transportation may at its discretion condition the release of funds retained in connection with the completed ferry upon the contractor delivering a good and sufficient bond with two or more sureties, or with a surety company, in the amount of the retained funds to be released to the contractor, conditioned that no taxes shall be certified or claims filed for work on such ferry after a period of thirty days following final acceptance of such ferry; and if such taxes are certified or claims filed, recovery may be had on such bond by the department of revenue and the materialmen and laborers filing claims.

(7) ~~((On projects commenced after June 7, 1984, the trust fund established pursuant to subsection (1) of this section may be reserved for the protection of the owner or owners of such public improvements when specifically required by regulations of the farmers home administration for the provision of grant or loan funds administered by that agency)) Contracts on projects funded in whole or in part by Farmers Home Administration and subject to Farmers Home Administration regulations shall not be subject to subsections (1) through (6) of this section.~~

Remember the remaining section consecutively.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "liens;" insert "amending RCW 60.28.010;"

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 5, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3487 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) Capital investments in energy conservation in buildings can produce significant reductions in energy use, reducing the need to import or extract fossil fuels and lowering the cost of operating buildings.

(2) The state of Washington has an obligation to operate state buildings efficiently and to implement all cost-effective energy conservation measures so that citizens are assured that public funds are spent wisely and so that citizens have an example of the savings possible from energy conservation.

(3) The state has completed energy consumption and walk-through surveys of its buildings and other facilities and has established a schedule for technical assistance studies which is the basis for implementing energy conservation measure installations to meet the milestones in RCW 43.19.680. However, there is uncertainty that the milestones will be met.

(4) The potential savings from energy conservation can be more readily realized by explicitly considering conservation measures and procedures in the state's budgeting and long-range planning process.

Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 172, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 1, chapter 313, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.19.680 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon completion of each walk-through survey required by RCW 43.19.675, the director of general administration or the agency responsible for the facility if other than the department of general administration shall implement energy conservation maintenance and operation procedures that may be identified for any state-owned facility. These procedures shall be implemented as soon as possible but not later than twelve months after the walk-through survey.

(2) By December 31, 1981, for the capitol campus the director of general administration, in cooperation with the director of the state energy office, shall prepare and transmit to the governor and the legislature an implementation plan.

(3) By December 31, 1983, for all other state-owned facilities, the director of general administration in cooperation with the director of the state energy office shall prepare and transmit to the governor and the legislature the results of the energy consumption and walk-through surveys and a schedule for the conduct of technical assistance studies. This submission shall contain the energy conservation measures planned for installation during the ensuing biennium. Priority considerations for scheduling technical assistance studies shall include but not be limited to a facility's energy efficiency, responsible agency participation, comparative cost and type of fuels, possibility of outside funding, logistical considerations such as possible need to vacate the facility for installation of energy conservation measures, coordination with other planned facility modifications, and the total cost of a facility modification, including other work which would have to be done as a result of installing energy conservation measures. Energy conservation measure acquisitions and installations shall be scheduled to be twenty-five percent complete by June 30, 1985, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, fifty-five percent complete by June 30, 1989, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, eighty-five percent complete by June 30, 1993, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, and fully complete by June 30, 1995, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later. Each state agency shall implement energy conservation measures with a payback period of twenty-four months or less that have a positive cash flow in the same biennium.

For each biennium until all measures are installed, the director of general administration shall report to the governor and legislature installation progress, measures planned for installation during the ensuing biennium, and changes, if any, to the technical assistance study schedule. This report shall be submitted by December 31, 1984, or at the end of the following year whichever immediately precedes the capital budget adoption, and every two years thereafter until all measures are installed. The office of financial management shall indicate which of the measures in the foregoing report are included in the biennial budget request and the total cost to accomplish those measures which are not included.

(4) The director of general administration shall adopt rules to facilitate private investment in energy conservation measures for state-owned buildings consistent with state law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The office of financial management shall develop policy guidelines for state agencies to use in budgeting for and implementing energy conservation maintenance and operation procedures and energy conservation measures, including those mandated under RCW 43.19.680;

(2) The guidelines shall require that agencies budget for the timely implementation of cost-effective measures and procedures or explain why any measures or procedures should not be funded;

(3) In developing the guidelines the office of financial management shall ensure that to the extent possible the budget process shall allow state agencies implementing energy conservation to retain the resulting cost savings for other purposes, including further energy conservation; and

(4) The office of financial management shall consult with the state energy office and the department of general administration, as necessary, to administer this section properly. The office of financial management shall establish the guidelines by December 31, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The state energy office shall provide the office of financial management with energy consumption data necessary to implement section 3 of this act. Facilities or the agencies responsible for them shall report accurate monthly energy consumption and cost figures for all fuels to the state energy office quarterly, including any changes in total space served or facility operations.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this act are each added to chapter 43.41 RCW.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "agencies;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.19.680; adding new sections to chapter 43.41 RCW; and creating a new section."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 5, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 3021 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 28, after "or" strike "a related family group, shall be considered one defendant" and insert "persons related by a first degree of kinship, may choose to be considered to be one defendant and file one such statement"

On page 2, line 7, after "or" strike "a related family group" and insert "by persons related by a first degree of kinship"

On page 2, after line 8, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The legislature finds that growth of the state's population and economy places increasingly greater demands on available water resources, including this state's ground water supplies. The legislature also finds that chapter 90.44 RCW, popularly known as the Ground Water Code of 1945, protects the public welfare by providing an orderly system of rights to the beneficial use of water based upon the "first in time is first in right" principle of the prior appropriation doctrine. The purpose of sections 4 and 5 of this act is to provide remedies to protect the right of a holder of a senior right to ground water to a safe sustaining yield of water.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 90.44 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The remedies to protect the right of the holder of a senior water right to a safe sustaining yield of water include protection of the availability of water in the well or wells used to exercise that senior water right, without the wells or withdrawal works being significantly modified. That availability is protected against interruption or other interference caused by either: (a) The water works of, or the water withdrawal activities of, a person or persons exercising junior rights to ground water; or (b) any other activities of a person or persons that do not directly involve the exercise of a more senior right to water. Junior rights to ground water are those established subsequently to a senior right under the prior appropriation doctrine upon which this chapter is based.

(2) The holder of a senior water right is entitled to adequate compensation whenever the water works or water withdrawal activities of a person or persons exercising junior rights to ground water cause such an interruption or interference in that availability of water. Adequate compensation for the loss of that availability will be made if the holder of the senior right is provided with:

(a) An amount equivalent to the increased costs reasonably incurred by or reasonably to be incurred by the holder of the senior water right in securing and using water, to the full extent of the senior right, as a result of losing the availability protected by subsection (1) of this section. The full extent of the senior right includes any conditions that applied to the right such as the quantity and quality of the water, the location of use, and time of use;

(b) The delivery of water to the holder of the senior right. To qualify as compensation, the water delivered must be of a quantity equal to and a quality equivalent to that of the senior right. The delivery must also be under such conditions, including but not limited to timing and location, as applied to the senior right without increased costs being incurred by the senior rightholder; or

(c) The payment of just compensation pursuant to the exercise of eminent domain if the holder of the junior rights has been granted the power of eminent domain.

(3) In lieu of the forms of compensation provided by this section, the holder of the senior right to ground water may freely enter contractual agreements establishing other compensation.

(4) In any civil action brought under this section, if the court believes the legal remedies are inadequate or excessively harsh, it may provide such equitable relief as it believes appropriate. The court shall also provide such emergency relief as is appropriate for the protection of ground water rights.

(5) The department of ecology shall not enforce the remedies provided under this section. It is intended that such remedies will be privately enforced by the holders of senior water rights. In considering an application filed after the effective date of this section for a permit under this chapter, the department shall decide the application as if this section were never enacted. However, the department shall place on each permit granted after the effective date of this section a notation conditioning the permit on the holder's compliance with the remedy provisions of this section. Whenever the court finds that a permit holder is unable or unwilling to cure the holder's noncompliance with such provisions, the court shall issue an order revoking the permit and serve a copy of its order on the department. The order shall become effective on the day it is served on the department.

(6) The statutory remedies provided under this section apply only against interruption or interference caused by the exercise of junior water rights for which permits have been issued after the effective date of this section or which have been otherwise perfected after the effective date of this section. These statutory remedies may not be applied against interruption or interference caused by the exercise of water rights existing prior to the effective date of this section. Nothing in this section expands, prohibits, or restricts in any manner whatsoever any powers of the judiciary to devise, provide for, and enforce remedies designed to protect senior water rights existing prior to the effective date of this section from interruption or interference caused by the exercise of junior water rights also existing prior to the effective date of this section.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 263, Laws of 1945 and RCW 90.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

No permit shall be granted for the development or withdrawal of public ground waters beyond the capacity of the underground bed or formation in the given basin, district, or locality to yield such water within a reasonable or feasible pumping lift in case of pumping developments, or within a reasonable or feasible reduction of pressure in the case of artesian developments. ~~((The supervisor of water resources))~~ Except as provided otherwise in section 4 of this 1986 act, the director of ecology shall have the power to determine whether the granting of any ((such)) permit will injure or damage any vested or existing right or rights under prior permits and may in addition to the records of his office, require further evidence, proof, and testimony before granting or denying any such permits.

The granting of a permit by the director does not relieve the recipient of the permit of any liability for injuring or damaging vested or existing rights to water.

In multi-aquifer systems, the director may require, as permit conditions, the casing and sealing of wells or other construction techniques to: (1) Protect the use of the uppermost aquifer or aquifers of the system by persons with senior rights to ground water, or (2) protect the use of waters from the uppermost aquifer or aquifers for future domestic or similar uses, traditionally involving shallower wells, that the director finds to be vital for the support of future development of the overlying land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 90.44 RCW to read as follows:

(1) This section contains remedies designed to protect the holder of a ground water right against activities that cause damage or injury by adversely affecting the quality of the water for the use or uses to which the ground water right pertains. Any holder of a ground water right who sustains any damage or injury, whether to property or person, which is caused by activities that decrease the quality of the water for the use or uses to which the ground water right pertains, shall be entitled to recover full compensation for such damage or injury from the person or persons responsible for or conducting the activities. This subsection shall not affect or impair any other rights or remedies, whether prescribed by statute or case law, to recover compensation or obtain other relief for damage or injury caused by the impairment of water quality.

(2) In the case of saltwater intrusion caused by the overuse of a freshwater aquifer, the department shall preserve the rights of senior appropriators to fresh water by reducing the withdrawals authorized for the holders of junior water rights in a manner consistent with the prior appropriation system of rights.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 90.44 RCW to read as follows:

In any civil action brought under section 4 or 6 of this act, the court may award attorney's fees to the prevailing party. The amount of fees awarded shall be reasonable and shall be fixed by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 90.44 RCW to read as follows:

Any person who provides compensation under section 4 or 6 of this act shall provide notice thereof to the department of ecology. The notice shall be on a form prescribed by the department and shall be sufficient to show the amount and nature of the compensation and any change in the water rights involved.

Sec. 9. Section 14, chapter 233, Laws of 1967 and RCW 90.14.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this chapter "sufficient cause" shall be defined as the nonuse of all or a portion of the water by the owner of a water right for a period of five or more consecutive years where such nonuse occurs as a result of:

((+)) (a) Drought, or other unavailability of water;

((+)) (b) Active service in the armed forces of the United States during military crisis;

((+)) (c) Nonvoluntary service in the armed forces of the United States;

((+)) (d) The operation of legal proceedings;

((+)) (e) Federal laws imposing land or water use restrictions, or acreage limitations, or production quotas;

(f) The use of water delivered as compensation under section 4(2) of this 1986 act so long as the nonused water right is not transferred separately from the land to which it is attached.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, there shall be no relinquishment of any water right:

((+)) (a) If such right is claimed for power development purposes under chapter 90.16 RCW and annual license fees are paid in accordance with chapter 90.16 RCW, or

((+)) (b) If such right is used for a standby or reserve water supply to be used in time of drought or other low flow period so long as withdrawal or diversion facilities are maintained in good operating condition for the use of such reserve or standby water supply, or

((+)) (c) If such right is claimed for a determined future development to take place either within fifteen years of the effective date of this act, or the most recent beneficial use of the water right, whichever date is later, or

((+)) (d) If such right is claimed for municipal water supply purposes under chapter 90.03 RCW, or ((+)) (e) If such waters are not subject to appropriation under the applicable provisions of RCW 90.40.030 as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 10. Section 6, chapter 263, Laws of 1945 and RCW 90.44.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Applications for permits for appropriation of underground water shall be made in the same form and manner provided in RCW 90.03.250 through 90.03.340, as amended, the provisions of which sections, except as provided to the contrary in section 4 of this 1986 act, are hereby extended to govern and to apply to ground water, or ground water right certificates and to all permits that shall be issued pursuant to such applications, and the rights to the withdrawal of ground water acquired thereby shall be governed by RCW 90.03.250 through 90.03.340, inclusive; PROVIDED, That each application to withdraw public ground water by means of a well or wells shall set forth the following additional information: (1) the name and post office address of the applicant; (2) the name and post office address of the owner of the land on which such well or wells or works will be located; (3) the location of the proposed well or wells or other works for the proposed withdrawal; (4) the ground water area, sub-area, or zone from which withdrawal is proposed, provided the supervisor of water resources has designated such area, sub-area, or zone in accord with RCW 90.44.130; (5) the amount of water proposed to be withdrawn, in gallons a minute and in acre feet a year, or millions of gallons a year; (6) the depth and type of construction proposed for the well or wells or other works; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any permit issued pursuant to an application for constructing a well or wells to withdraw public ground water may specify an approved type and manner of construction for the purposes of preventing waste of said public waters and of conserving their head.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 138 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4525 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.10 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature may employ or retain counsel of its own choosing. However, the legislature shall notify the attorney general whenever it makes a decision to use the services of such counsel to represent it or any of its members in a particular judicial or administrative proceeding. With respect to any such proceeding where the legislature has not so notified the attorney general, the attorney general shall represent the legislature until so notified. For purposes of this section, "legislature" means the senate and house of representatives together, either the senate or the house of representatives by itself, or any committee or entity of the legislative branch having the authority to select its own employees. The major purposes of this section are to confirm and implement in statute law the constitutional power of the legislative branch to select its own counsel."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Thompson moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4525.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Thompson, I wanted to be sure that we fully understand precisely what this amendment is doing. Under the lines 23 through 30, where it states that the Legislature means the Senate and House of Representatives together, either the Senate or the House of Representatives by itself, and/or any committee or entity of the legislative branch having the authority to select its own employees. Now, would we be precise in saying that includes the Legislative Transportation Committee, the Legislative Budget Committee and the LEAP Committee only? They were talking about no other legislative committee?"

Senator Thompson: "It is certainly my understanding that only those entities would fit this language at this point in time and I wouldn't anticipate any change nor does anyone else in the Legislature. It precludes the opportunity of any standing committee, special interim committee, ad hoc committee, select committee or other such creation of the Legislature from retaining counsel, because they do not have the authority to hire their own employees."

Senator Zimmerman: "But do you see the possibility that if a strong chairman in the House or strong chairman in the Senate said he wanted to pick his own employees and consequently could be in that position--that he could possibly decide that he wanted to pick his own attorney for his committee and, therefore, get around--"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Zimmerman, all of our chairmen are strong, but they're not strong enough to fit this definition and do not possess the authority to hire their own employees."

Senator Zimmerman: "We wanted to establish that fact and I appreciate your explanation. Fine. Thank you. This is a big step in terms of change of policy and I think we wanted to be sure what we're doing."

Senator Thompson: "Thank you, Senator Zimmerman, and a beneficial one to the Legislature."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Thompson that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4525.

The motion by Senator Thompson carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4525.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4525, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4525, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 18; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Owen, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 30.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 18.

Excused: Senator Stratton - 1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4525, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

(5) This section shall not apply to contracts of life or disability insurance without provision for cancellation prior to the date to which premiums have been paid, to surety bonds required by statute, or to contracts of insurance procured under the provisions of chapter 48.15 RCW.

(2) Any insurer failing to provide the notice required by RCW 48.18.2901(1)(b) shall renew a policy subject to that subsection according to the rates and contract provisions applicable to the expiring policy: PROVIDED, That an insurer may change rates and contract provisions applicable to any such policy after the renewal date if the insurer provides at least twenty days' advance notice of the changes to the named insured or to his or her representative.

(3) Renewal of a policy shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel with respect to grounds for cancellation which existed before the effective date of such renewal, or with respect to cancellation of fire policies under chapter 48.53 RCW.

~~((3))~~ (4) "Renewal" or "to renew" means the issuance and delivery by an insurer of a contract of insurance replacing at the end of the contract period a contract of insurance previously issued and delivered by the same insurer, or the issuance and delivery of a certificate or notice extending the term of a contract beyond its policy period or term: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any contract of insurance with a policy period or term of six months or less whether or not made continuous for successive terms upon the payment of additional premiums shall for the purpose of RCW 48.18.290 and 48.18.293 through 48.18.295 be considered as if written for a policy period or term of six months: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That any policy written for a term longer than one year or any policy with no fixed expiration date, shall, for the purpose of RCW 48.18.290 and 48.18.293 through 48.18.295, be considered as if written for successive policy periods or terms of one year.

Sec. 3, Section 23, chapter 241, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 22, chapter 264, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.18.296 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) Any policy covering garage, automobile sales agency, repair shop, service station, or public parking place operation hazards; and

(3) Contracts of insurance procured under the provisions of chapter 48.15 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this subsection apply throughout this section.

(a) "Disabled employee" means an individual receiving a disability retirement allowance from the public employees' retirement system.

(b) "Health plan" means any contract, policy, fund, trust, or other program established by a county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state that provides for all or a part of hospitalization or medical aid for its employees and their eligible dependents pursuant to RCW 41.04.180.

(c) "Retired employee" means an individual who is a public employee covered under the public employees' retirement system with not less than five years of service at the date of retirement.

(d) "Supplemental plan" means an individual or group health plan designed primarily as a supplement to reimbursements under federal medicare for the hospital, medical, or surgical expenses of persons eligible for medicare by reason of age.

(e) "Person" means a retired or disabled employee.

(2) Any county, municipality, or other political subdivision that provides a health plan for its employees shall permit retired and disabled employees and their eligible dependents to continue participation in such plan subject to the exceptions, limitations, and conditions set forth in this section. However, this section does not apply to:

(a) A county, municipality, or other political subdivision participating in an insurance program administered under chapter 41.05 RCW if retired and disabled employees and their eligible dependents of such participating county, municipality, or other political subdivision are covered under an insurance program administered under chapter 41.05 RCW;

(b) Members of the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system under chapter 41.26 RCW; or

(c) Members of the first class cities' retirement system under chapter 41.28 RCW.

(3) A person who requests continued participation in their employer's health plan may be required to pay for such participation. However, such payment shall not exceed the rate, cost, or premium that is calculated for an active employee under the same plan. If the utilization of health plan benefits by those continuing participation in the health plan causes a greater than ten percent increase in the active employee rate or cost for the plan, then the rate or cost for those continuing participation in the health plan shall be adjusted to cover the costs in excess of the ten percent increase. However, no provision of this subsection shall be deemed to require any employer who is currently paying for all or part of a health plan for their retired and disabled employees and their eligible dependents from discontinuing those payments.

(4) When a person or his or her spouse continuing participation under a health plan becomes eligible for federal medicare, then health plan participation shall be terminated and the person or his or her spouse shall have the option of participating in a supplemental plan provided by the employer. Any payment required of the person or his or her spouse shall be modified to reflect cost differences between the health plan and the supplemental plan.

(5) Payments for continued participation in a former employer's health plan may be assigned to the underwriter of the health plan from public pension benefits or may be paid to the former employer, as determined by the former employer, so that an underwriter of the health plan that is an insurance company, health care service contractor, or health maintenance organization shall not be required to accept individual payments from persons continuing participation in the employer's health plan.

(6) There shall be a one time initial open enrollment period from May 1, 1986, to June 30, 1986. An employer shall not be required to permit a person to participate in the health plan if the person is responsible for a lapse in coverage under the plan. In addition, an employer shall not be required to permit a person to participate in the employer's health plan if the employer offered continued participation in a health plan with substantially similar benefits and at substantially the same price as that plan provided for active employees and the person failed to enroll in that plan at the time the person was retired or disabled.

(7) If a person continuing participation in the former employer's health plan has other medical coverage as a result of that person's employment or that person's spouse's employment, the other medical coverage shall be the primary coverage for purposes of coordination of benefits as provided for in the former employer's health plan.

(8) If an eligible dependent's continued participation in a health plan was permitted because of the person's relationship to a retired or disabled employee of the employer providing the health plan and the retired or disabled employee dies, then that eligible dependent shall be permitted to continue participation in the health plan for a period of not less than six months after the death of the retired or disabled employee.

(9) An employer may offer one or more health plans different from that provided for active employees and designed to meet the needs of persons requesting continued participation in the employer's health plan. These health plans for continued participation shall be provided at a rate, cost, or premium which does not exceed that provided for active employee health plans. An employer, in designing or offering continued participation in a health plan, may utilize terms or conditions necessary to administer such plans to the extent such terms and conditions do not conflict with this section.

(10) If an employer changes the underwriter of a health plan, the replaced underwriter has no further responsibility or obligation to persons who continued participation in a health plan of the replaced underwriter. However, the employer shall permit such persons to participate in any new health plan.

(11) The benefits granted pursuant to this section shall not be considered a matter of contractual right. Should the legislature revoke or change or a county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state change any benefits granted under this section, an affected person shall not be entitled thereafter to receive the benefits as a matter of contractual right.

(12) Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to affect any health plan contained in a collective bargaining agreement in existence as of the effective date of this act. However, any plan contained in future collective bargaining agreements shall conform to the provisions of this section. In addition, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to affect any health plan contract or policy in existence as of the effective date of this act, except any renewal of the contract or policy shall conform to the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Participation in the health plans provided under section 4 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1987, for all self-insured plans and for all plans renewed on or after September 1, 1986. Participation in health plans provided under section 4 of this act which are renewed after the effective date of this act but prior to September 1, 1986, shall take effect on the date the plan is next renewed, but in no case later than January 1, 1988.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 12, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 1, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 48.30.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) No such officer or employee or any person, acting or purporting to act on behalf of such officer or employee shall negotiate, make application for, obtain or procure any of such surety bonds or contracts of insurance, except contracts of insurance for builder's risk or owner's protective liability, which can be obtained or procured by the bidder, contractor or subcontractor.

(3) This section shall not be construed to prevent the exercise by such officer or employee on behalf of the state or such public agency, public authority, or public corporation of its right to approve the form, sufficiency or manner or execution of the surety bonds or contracts of insurance furnished by the insurer selected by the bidder to underwrite such bonds, or contracts of insurance.

(4) Any provisions in any invitation for bids, or in any of the contract documents, in conflict with this section are declared to be contrary to the public policy of this state.

(5) A violation of this section shall be subject to the penalties provided by RCW 48.01.080.

(6) This section shall not apply to the public nonprofit corporation authorized under RCW 67.40.020 nor shall it apply to metropolitan corporations authorized under RCW 35.58.030: PROVIDED, That no self-insurance program established pursuant to chapter 51.14 RCW shall be deemed to affect the employer-employee relationship of the individual participating employees in such program for the purpose of establishing whether an injury to a worker is due to the negligence or wrong of a third person not in the same employ, within the meaning of RCW 51.24.030.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Sections 4 and 5 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Sections 1, 2, and 3 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect May 10, 1986."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 5, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4465 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 9A.16.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

In this chapter, unless a different meaning is plainly required:

(1) "Necessary" means that no reasonably effective alternative to the use of force appeared to exist and that the amount of force used was reasonable to effect the lawful purpose intended.

(2) "Deadly force" means the intentional application of force through the use of firearms or any other means reasonably likely to cause death or serious physical injury.

Sec. 2. Section 9A.16.040, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Homicide or the use of deadly force is justifiable ~~((when committed by a public officer, or person acting under his command and in his aid:))~~ in the following cases:

~~((+))~~ (a) When a public officer is acting in obedience to the judgment of a competent court~~((:))~~; or

~~((2))~~ (b) When ~~((necessary))~~ necessarily used by a peace officer to overcome actual resistance to the execution of the legal process, mandate, or order of a court or officer, or in the discharge of a legal duty.

~~((3))~~ When necessary in retaking an escaped or rescued prisoner who has been committed, arrested for, or convicted of a felony; or in arresting a person who has committed a felony and is fleeing from justice; or in attempting, by lawful ways or means, to apprehend a person for a felony actually committed; or in lawfully suppressing a riot or preserving the peace;)) (c) When necessarily used by a peace officer or person acting under the officer's command and in the officer's aid:

(i) To arrest or apprehend a person who the officer reasonably believes has committed, has attempted to commit, is committing, or is attempting to commit a felony;

(ii) To prevent the escape of a person from a federal or state correctional facility or in retaking a person who escapes from such a facility; or

(iii) To prevent the escape of a person from a county or city jail or holding facility if the person has been arrested for, charged with, or convicted of a felony; or

(iv) To lawfully suppress a riot if the actor or another participant is armed with a deadly weapon.

(2) In considering whether to use deadly force under subsection (1)(c) of this section, to arrest or apprehend any person for the commission of any crime, the peace officer must have probable cause to believe that the suspect, if not apprehended, poses a threat of serious physical harm to the officer or a threat of serious physical harm to others. Among the circumstances which may be considered by peace officers as a "threat of serious physical harm" are the following:

(a) The suspect threatens a peace officer with a weapon or displays a weapon in a manner that could reasonably be construed as threatening; or

(b) There is probable cause to believe that the suspect has committed any crime involving the infliction or threatened infliction of serious physical harm.

Under these circumstances deadly force may also be used if necessary to prevent escape from the officer, where, if feasible, some warning is given.

(3) A public officer or peace officer shall not be held criminally liable for using deadly force without malice and with a good faith belief that such act is justifiable pursuant to this section.

(4) This section shall not be construed as:

(a) Affecting the permissible use of force by a person acting under the authority of RCW 9A.16.020 or 9A.16.050; or

(b) Preventing a law enforcement agency from adopting standards pertaining to its use of deadly force that are more restrictive than this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature recognizes that RCW 9A.16.040 establishes a dual standard with respect to the use of deadly force by peace officers and private citizens, and further recognizes that private citizens' permissible use of deadly force under the authority of RCW 9.01.200, 9A.16.020, or 9A.16.050 is not restricted and remains broader than the limitations imposed on peace officers.*.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4582 with the following amendments:

On page 2, line 7, after "any" strike "individual"

On page 2, line 14, after "made" strike "of" and insert "or",

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4582.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4582, as amended by the House.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Moore, as prime sponsor of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4582 and Chairman of the Financial Institutions Committee through which the bill passed, I was hoping you would answer a couple of questions to determine legislative intent. My questions revolve around Section 3 which provides criminal penalties for any person who submits a claim that falsely represents that the goods or services were medically necessary, in accordance with professionally accepted standards.

"My first question is this, would a health-care provider or a patient be guilty of a violation of this section if in good faith, without intent to defraud either, submitted a claim for goods or services and the claim was subsequently rejected on the basis that the goods or services were not usual and customary?"

Senator Moore: "Senator Pullen, that is absolutely and positively not the intent of this bill."

Senator Pullen: "Suppose a physician were an authority on holistic medicine and in good faith prescribed nutritional therapy for a patient and the claim was subsequently rejected on the basis that nutritional therapy was not covered by the insurance contract. Would that physician be subject to a class B felony?"

Senator Moore: "No, most vehemently. That would not be the intent of the bill. This bill would, however, allow criminal action against any provider who knowingly submits a false claim."

Senator Pullen: "Thank you."

ROLL CALL

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 5, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4590 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purpose of this chapter is to enable political subdivisions to participate with the state in providing maximum opportunities for the investment of surplus public funds consistent with the safety and protection of such funds. The legislature finds and declares that the public interest is found in providing maximum prudent investment of surplus funds, thereby reducing the need for additional taxation. The legislature also recognizes that not all political subdivisions are able to maximize the return on their temporary surplus funds. The legislature therefore provides in this chapter a mechanism whereby political subdivisions may, at their option, utilize the resources of the state treasurer's office to maximize the potential of surplus funds while ensuring the safety of public funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Public funds investment account" or "investment pool" means the aggregate of all funds from political subdivisions that are placed in the custody of the state treasurer for investment and reinvestment.

(2) "Political subdivision" means any county, city, town, municipal corporation, political subdivision, or special purpose taxing district in the state.

(3) "Local government official" means any officer or employee of a political subdivision who has been designated by statute or by local charter, ordinance, or resolution as the officer having the authority to invest the funds of the political subdivision. However, the county treasurer shall be deemed the only local government official for all political subdivisions for which the county treasurer has exclusive statutory authority to invest the funds thereof.

(4) "Funds" means public funds under the control of or in the custody of any local government official by virtue of the official's authority that are not immediately required to meet current demands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is created a trust fund in the state treasury to be known as the public funds investment account. All moneys remitted by local government officials under this chapter shall be deposited in this account. The earnings on any balances in the public funds investment account shall be credited to the public funds investment account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If authorized by local ordinance or resolution, a local government official may place funds into the public funds investment account for investment and reinvestment by the state treasurer in those securities and investments set forth in RCW 43.84.080 and chapter 39.58 RCW. The state treasurer shall invest the funds in such manner as to effectively maximize the yield to the investment pool. In investing and reinvesting moneys in the public funds investment account and in acquiring, retaining, managing, and disposing of investments of the investment pool, there shall be exercised the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which persons of prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of the funds considering the probable income as well as the probable safety of the capital.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The state treasurer's office is authorized to employ such personnel as are necessary to administer the public funds investment account. The bond of the state treasurer as required by law shall be made to include the faithful performance of all functions relating to the investment pool.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The state treasurer shall by rule prescribe the time periods for investments in the investment pool and the procedure for withdrawal of funds from the investment pool. The state treasurer shall promulgate such other rules as are deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the investment pool. The rules shall also provide for the administrative expenses of the investment pool, including repayment of the initial administrative costs financed out of the appropriation included in this act, to be paid from the pool's earnings and for the interest earnings in excess of the expenses to be credited or paid to the political subdivisions participating in the pool. The state treasurer may deduct the amounts necessary to reimburse the treasurer's office for the actual expenses the office incurs and to repay any funds appropriated and expended for the initial administrative costs of the pool. Any credits or payments to political subdivisions shall be calculated and made in a manner which equitably reflects the differing amounts of the political subdivisions' respective deposits in the investment pool fund and the differing periods of time for which the amounts were placed in the investment pool: PROVIDED, That the appropriated start-up costs of the pool must be repaid by June 30, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The state treasurer shall keep a separate account for each political subdivision having funds in the investment pool. Each separate account shall record the individual amounts deposited in the investment pool, the date of withdrawals, and the earnings credited or paid to the political subdivision. The state treasurer shall report monthly the status of the respective account to each local government official having funds in the pool during the previous month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. At the end of each fiscal year, the state treasurer shall submit to the governor, the state auditor, and the legislative budget committee a summary of the activity of the investment pool. The summary shall indicate the quantity of funds deposited; the earnings of the pool; the investments purchased, sold, or exchanged; the administrative expenses of the investment pool; and such other information as the state treasurer deems relevant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The state finance committee shall administer this chapter and adopt appropriate rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Local governments may not invest in repurchase agreements, nor have their money invested in repurchase agreements, unless the local government or its agent takes possession of the securities to be repurchased, or a third party holds the securities in trust for the local government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 36.29 RCW to read as follows:

Upon the request of one or several units of local government that invest their money with the county under the provisions of RCW 36.29.020, the treasurer of that county may combine those units' moneys for the purposes of investment.

Sec. 12. Section 15, chapter 103, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 21, chapter 66, Laws of 1983 and RCW 56.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever there shall have accumulated in any general or special fund of a sewer district moneys, the disbursement of which is not yet due, the board of commissioners may, by resolution, authorize the county treasurer to deposit or invest such moneys in qualified public depositories, or to invest such moneys in (~~direct obligations of the United States government~~) any investment permitted at any time by RCW 36.29.020; PROVIDED, That the county treasurer may refuse to invest any district moneys the disbursement of which will be required during the period of investment to meet outstanding obligations of the district.

Sec. 13. Section 16, chapter 108, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 22, chapter 66, Laws of 1983 and RCW 57.20.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever there shall have accumulated in any general or special fund of a water district moneys, the disbursement of which is not yet due, the board of water commissioners may, by resolution, authorize the county treasurer to deposit or invest such moneys in qualified public depositories, or to invest such moneys in (~~direct obligations of the United States government~~) any investment permitted at any time by RCW 36.29.020; PROVIDED, That the county treasurer may refuse to invest any district moneys the disbursement of which will be required during the period of investment to meet outstanding obligations of the district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is hereby appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, to the state treasurer from the state treasurer's service fund the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to defray the initial administrative costs of the public funds investment account. On or before June 30, 1991, the state treasurer's service fund shall be reimbursed for the amount of such money expended by the state treasurer to defray these initial administrative costs by transferring such money from the public funds investment account to the state treasurer's service fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "government;" insert "amending RCW 56.16.160 and 57.20.160;"

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

The report shall include an analysis of consolidating these services, ways to improve linkages with the public school system, and appropriate recommendations. It shall also include all options considered but not accepted and reasons for rejection, and the legislative and organizational changes necessary for the implementation of the recommendations.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4659.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4659, as amended by the House.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, this is a bill that would prohibit separate property agreements for senior citizens when they're going into nursing homes?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, it would not prohibit separate property agreements, Senator Rasmussen. What it would do, would be to recognize such separate property agreements as to income, only in a limited fashion. In other words, in certain circumstances, depending upon which spouse it was that had the limited income, you would not recognize a separate property agreement as income in certain situations. We are permitting some of those to exist where the greatest hardship is present and that's why the appropriation is 2.7 million dollars to deal with that particular issue."

Senator Rasmussen: "My further question, Senator Talmadge. At what time is it recognized, if you made a separate property agreement? Let's suppose that your wife or you are in the hospital or nursing home or whatever and you had made a separate agreement eight or ten years before. I presume this bill would say it was illegal if you made the agreement just at the point of going into a separate home. Is that--?"

Senator Talmadge: "My understanding, Senator Rasmussen, is that if the separate property agreement were entered into after the effective date of the act, then it would not be recognized if it was not recognized under the bill. If the separate property agreement was something that was in agreement for a period of seven or eight years, that would be valid. The bill would not affect such a previously entered into separate property agreement."

Senator Rasmussen: "Even after the act?"

Senator Talmadge: "Even after the act. If the separate property agreement were dated and entered into prior to the effective date of the act, my understanding is that it would not be subject to the provisions of this bill."

Senator Rasmussen: "Further question. Does it require filing of the separate agreement with the auditor?"

Senator Talmadge: "No. Ordinarily, such agreements, either separate property agreements or community property agreements are not, in fact, filed with the auditor."

Senator Rasmussen: "I was wondering where they were establishing a valid date. There is no requirement for filing, then they could just hold it in there safety deposit or whatever?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Talmadge."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Talmadge, in view of the House amendments which I haven't read--one more time--does this in any way affect the transfer of assets between one spouse and another?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, it will not affect the Deccio amendment as stated in the editorial of the Yakima Herald Republic of March 4, 1986. The Deccio amendment from 1982 is not affected."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4659, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 8; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bottiger, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rinehart, Saling, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Wojahn - 38.

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Cantu, Garrett, Newhouse, Rasmussen, Sellar, Williams, Zimmerman - 8.

Absent: Senator Warnke - 1.

Excused: Senators Lee, Stratton - 2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4659, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4741 and the pending motion by Senator Owen that the Senate do concur in the House amendments, with the exception of Section 3, deferred earlier today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, and there being no objection, the motion to concur in the House amendments with the exception of Section 3 was withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4741 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 5, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4717 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The long-range health and economic and environmental goals for the state of Washington require the protection of the state's surface and underground waters for the health, safety, use, and enjoyment of its people. It is the purpose of this chapter to provide public bodies an additional means by which to provide for financing, development, and operation of water pollution control facilities needed for achievement of state and federal water pollution control requirements for the protection of the state's waters.

It is the intent of the legislature that public bodies be authorized to provide service from water pollution control facilities by means of service agreements with public or private parties as provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Water pollution control facilities" or "facilities" means any facilities, systems, or subsystems owned or operated by a public body, or owned or operated by any person or entity for the purpose of providing service to a public body, for the control, collection, storage, treatment, disposal, or recycling of wastewater, including but not limited to sanitary sewage, storm water, residential wastes, commercial wastes, industrial wastes, and agricultural wastes, that are causing or threatening the degradation of subterranean or surface bodies of water due to concentrations of conventional, nonconventional, or toxic pollutants. Water pollution control facilities do not include dams or water supply systems.

(2) "Public body" means the state of Washington or any agency, county, city or town, political subdivision, municipal corporation, or quasi-municipal corporation.

(3) "Water pollution" means such contamination, or other alteration of the physical, chemical, or biological properties of any surface or subterranean waters of the state, including change in temperature, taste, color, turbidity, or odor of the waters, or such discharge of any liquid, gaseous, solid, radioactive, or other substance into any waters of the state as will or is likely to create a nuisance or render such waters harmful, detrimental, or injurious to the public health, safety, or welfare, or to domestic, commercial, industrial, agricultural, recreational, or other legitimate beneficial uses, or to livestock, wild animals, birds, fish, or other aquatic life.

(4) "Agreement" means any agreement to which a public body and a service provider are parties by which the service provider agrees to deliver service to such public body in connection with its design, financing, construction, ownership, operation, or maintenance of water pollution control facilities in accordance with this chapter.

(5) "Service provider" means any privately owned or publicly owned profit or nonprofit corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, or other person or entity that is legally capable of contracting for and providing service with respect to the design, financing, ownership, construction, operation, or maintenance of water pollution control facilities in accordance with this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) Public bodies may enter into agreements with service providers for the furnishing of service in connection with water pollution control facilities pursuant to the process set forth in section 4 of this act. The agreements may provide that a public body pay a minimum periodic fee in consideration of the service actually available without regard to the amount of service actually used during all or any part of the contractual period. Agreements may be for a term not to exceed forty years or the life of the facility, whichever is longer, and may be renewable.

(2) The source of funds to meet periodic payment obligations assumed by a public body pursuant to an agreement permitted under this section may be paid from taxes, or solely from user fees, charges, or other revenues pledged to the payment of the periodic obligations, or any of these sources.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The legislative authority of a public body may secure services by means of an agreement with a service provider. Such an agreement may obligate a service provider to design, finance, construct, own, operate, or maintain water pollution control facilities by which services are provided to the public body. Service agreements and related agreements under this chapter shall be entered into in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) The legislative authority of the public body shall publish notice that it is seeking to secure certain specified services by means of entering into an agreement with a service provider. The notice shall be published in the official newspaper of the public body, or if there is no official newspaper then in a newspaper in general circulation within the boundaries of the public body, at least once each week for two consecutive weeks. The final notice shall appear not less than sixty days before the date for submission of proposals. The notice shall state (a) the nature of the services needed, (b) the location in the public body's offices where the requirements and standards for construction, operation, or maintenance of projects needed as part of the services are available for inspection, and (c) the final date for the submission of proposals. The legislative authority may undertake a prequalification process by the same procedure set forth in this subsection.

(2) The request for proposals shall (a) indicate the time and place responses are due, (b) include evaluation criteria to be considered in selecting a service provider, (c) specify minimum requirements or other limitations applying to selection, (d) insofar as practicable, set forth terms and provisions to be included in the service agreement, and (e) require the service provider to demonstrate in its proposal that a public body's annual costs will be lower under its proposal than they would be if the public body financed, constructed, owned, operated, and maintained facilities required for service.

(3) The criteria set forth in the request for proposals shall be those determined to be relevant by the legislative authority of the public body, which may include but shall not be limited to: The respondent's prior experience, including design, construction, or operation of other similar facilities; respondent's management capability, schedule availability, and financial resources; cost of the service; nature of facility design proposed by respondents; system reliability; performance standards required for the facilities; compatibility with existing service facilities operated by the public body or other providers of service to the public body; project performance warranties; penalty and other enforcement provisions; environmental protection measures to be used; and allocation of project risks. The legislative authority shall designate persons or entities (a) to assist it in issuing the request for proposals to ensure that proposals will be responsive to its needs, and (b) to assist it in evaluating the proposals received. The designee shall not be a member of the legislative authority.

(4) After proposals under subsections (1) through (3) of this section have been received, the legislative authority's designee shall determine, on the basis of its review of the proposals, whether one or more proposals have been received from respondents which are (a) determined to be qualified to provide the requested services, and (b) responsive to the notice and evaluation criteria, which shall include, but not be limited to, cost of services. These chosen respondents shall be referred to as the selected respondents in this section. The designee shall conduct a bidder's conference to include all these selected respondents to assure a full understanding of the proposals. The bidder's conference shall also allow the designee to make these selected respondents aware of any changes in the request for proposal. Any information related to revisions in the request for proposal shall be made available to all these selected respondents. Any selected respondent shall be accorded a reasonable opportunity for revision of its proposal prior to commencement of the negotiation provided in subsection (5) of this section, for the purpose of obtaining best and final proposals.

(5) After such conference is held, the designee may negotiate with the selected respondent whose proposal it determines to be the most advantageous to the public body, considering the criteria set forth in the request for proposals. If the negotiation is unsuccessful, the legislative authority may authorize the designee to commence negotiations with any other selected respondent. On completion of this process, the designee shall report to the legislative authority on his or her recommendations and the reasons for them.

(6) Any person aggrieved by the legislative authority's approval of a contract may appeal the determination to an appeals board selected by the public body, which shall consist of not less than three persons determined by the legislative authority to be qualified for such purposes. Such board shall promptly hear and determine whether the public body entered into the agreement in accordance with this chapter and other applicable law. The hearing shall be conducted in the same manner as contested a case under chapter 34.04 RCW. The board shall have the power only to affirm or void the agreement.

(7) Notwithstanding the foregoing, where contracting for design services by the public body is done separately from contracting for other services permitted under this chapter, the contracting for design of water pollution control facilities shall be done in accordance with chapter 39.80 RCW.

(8) A service agreement shall include provision for an option by which a public body may acquire at fair market value facilities dedicated to such service.

(9) Before any service agreement is entered into by the public body, it shall be reviewed and approved by the department of ecology to ensure that the purposes of chapter 90.48 RCW are implemented.

(10) Prior to entering into any service agreement under this chapter, the public body must have made written findings, after holding a public hearing on the proposal, that it is in the public interest to enter into the service agreement and that the service agreement is financially sound and advantageous compared to other methods.

(11) Each service agreement shall include project performance bonds or other security by the service provider which in the judgment of the public body is sufficient to secure adequate performance by the service provider.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A public body may sell, lease, or assign public property for fair market value to any service provider as part of a service agreement entered into under the authority of this chapter. The property sold or leased shall be used by the provider, directly or indirectly, in providing services to the public body. Such use may include demolition, modification, or other use of the property as may be necessary to execute the purposes of the service agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A public body that enters into a service agreement pursuant to this chapter, under which a facility is owned wholly or partly by a service provider, shall be eligible for grants or loans to the extent permitted by law or regulation as if the entire portion of the facility dedicated to service to such public body were publicly owned. The grants or loans shall be made to and shall inure to the benefit of the public body and not the service provider. Such grants or loans shall be used by the public body for all or part of its ownership interest in the facility, and/or to defray a part of the payments it makes to the service provider under a service agreement if such uses are permitted under the grant or loan program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 3 through 6 of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional method for the provision of services from and in connection with facilities and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other state laws and by federal laws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The provisions of chapters 39.12, 39.19, and 39.25 RCW shall apply to a service agreement entered into under this act to the same extent as if the facilities dedicated to such service were owned by a public body.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not be construed to apply to agreements or actions by persons or entities which are not undertaken pursuant to this act.

(3) Except for section 13 of this act, this act shall not be construed as a limitation or restriction on the application of Title 39 RCW to public bodies.

(4) Prevailing wages shall be established as the prevailing wage in the largest city of the county in which facilities are built.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This chapter may be cited as the water quality joint development act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 35.23 RCW to read as follows: RCW 35.23.352 does not apply to agreements entered into under authority of chapter 70.-- RCW (sections 1 through 9 of this act) provided there is compliance with the procurement procedure under section 4 of this act.

MOTION

Senator Moore move that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3458.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Moore, if an insurance company is required, as it would under this language, to make a discount on an insurance policy, is there any standard by which you can expect the size of that discount to be available to us today? Can you tell us what a discount minimum would have to be or is likely to be under such language?"

Senator Moore: "Well, we're talking basically about a ten percent discount, but the problem, of course, is somewhat similar to when you hear all these ads about come in and get a forty percent discount on your glasses. You know, forty percent of what?"

Senator Goltz: "Does the same problem that hospitals have in cost shift, will the cost shift then go to other buyers of insurance? Or is this truly a discount, because it will bring down the rates?"

Senator Moore: "Since we have no federal regulation governing insurance companies, you know anything can happen. This will be largely up to the Insurance Commissioner to see to it that it's enforced."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Moore, this House amendment says--'that the persons of fifty-five or older who successfully complete a motor vehicle accident prevention course'--does that mean that they have to take a test or that they just have to be present, or is there any assurance that it's going to make them a better driver?"

Senator Moore: "I think that that probably comes under the general heading of when one passes the driver's test, does that make him or her a better driver? To answer the first part of your question, yes it will be actually required that they pass a test and, hopefully, it will not be as easy as some of the tests that are given to real estate and security salesmen."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Moore, please, would you answer a very pertinent question? In the event that you and I--we're approaching that age when we would qualify--we take the examination and fail the examination--would that mean that our insurance would cost ten percent more?"

Senator Moore: "No. The rates will stay the same. This is just a benefit to those people who may be fortunate enough to reach that golden age."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Moore that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3458.

The motion by Senator Moore carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3458.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3458, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3458, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 14; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Taimadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 32.

At the conclusion of the hearing, the department shall determine whether the penalty should be affirmed, reduced, or not imposed and shall issue a final order setting forth the civil penalty assessed, if any. The order may be appealed to superior court in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. The legislature further finds that the production of incompatible varieties of rapeseed in close geographical proximity adversely affects the purity and marketability of rapeseed, and that it is in the public interest to establish geographical districts and buffer zones wherein the production of rapeseed may be restricted by variety.

For the purpose of rapeseed production in the state of Washington, the director of the department of agriculture shall have the regulatory authority on the production of rapeseed by variety and geographic location until such time as a rapeseed commodity commission is formulated. For the 1985-86 school year, the classified derived base salary for each district shall be the average classified salary specified for each district in LEAP Document 7 divided by the 1984-85 classified increment mix factor for each district calculated according to the formula used by the superintendent of public instruction in the 1984-85 school year. (1) The appropriation is for the governor's emergency fund to be allocated for the carrying out of the critically necessary work of any agency.

(2) $100,000 of this appropriation may be spent for law enforcement and social service problems arising from Expo '86.

Sec. 702. Section 702, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1986 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE GOVERNOR—COMPARABLE WORTH IMPLEMENTATION AND LAWSUIT

General Fund Appropriation $ 26,790,000

Special Fund Salary Increase

Revolving Fund Appropriation $ 19,120,000

Total Appropriation $ 45,910,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $644,500 of the general fund appropriation and $326,250 of the special fund salary increase revolving fund appropriation are provided solely for a salary increase for those job classifications tied to salary survey benchmarks falling 8 ranges or more below the January 1, 1985, actual average comparable worth line as calculated under the formula of $$983.72 + ($3.28 \times \text{points})$ and rounded to the nearest Step G or equivalent step for shortened ranges. However, a job classification shall receive an increase only if its salary range as of January 1, 1985, is also 8 or more ranges less than the salary range of that classification as calculated under the aforementioned formula using the evaluation points of that classification as adopted by the respective personnel board. This adjustment shall take place July 1, 1985, and shall equal $75 a year for all affected classes and employees and shall terminate on March 30, 1986.

(2) $350,000 of the general fund—state appropriation shall be used solely by the office of the governor to hire an independent consultant with expertise in developing and evaluating public employee job classification systems and implementing comparable worth. The consultant shall:

(a) Review the Willis methodology;

(b) Update job class specifications for all job classes with incumbents that have not been reviewed for the past five years;

(c) Develop a new benchmark and indexing structure which reflects the evaluated worth of the job classes; and

(d) Evaluate the job class specifications for the implementation of comparable worth.

(3) The department of personnel and the higher education personnel board shall provide any assistance needed by the consultant to perform the activities in subsection (2) of this section. Both the state personnel board and higher education personnel board must submit joint reports to the legislature on the progress to date in implementing the consultant's recommendations no later than January 1, 1986, and July 1, 1986. On January 1, 1987, both boards shall submit a final report to the legislature.

(4) $150,000 of the general fund—state appropriation and $100,000 of the special fund salary increase revolving fund appropriation shall be used solely for the office of the governor to allocate to agencies that provide technical assistance to the consultant hired under subsection (2) of this section.

(5) $25,545,500 of the general fund appropriation and $$((18,793,750))$ 18,693,750 of the special fund salary increase revolving fund appropriation, along with all moneys currently included in agencies' budgets for payment of the $100 per year comparable worth salary increase pursuant to chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess., are provided for the settlement of all claims of all plaintiffs and class members of American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, et al. v. State of Washington, et al., Cause Nos. C82-4657, 84-3569, and 84-3590 and the implementation of comparable worth pursuant to RCW 28B.16.116 and RCW 41.06.155.

The settlement shall result in complete discharge of all claims of any nature whatsoever of all plaintiffs and class members. It is the intent of the legislature that salary adjustments for affected class members not exceed the adjustment calculated using the average actual comparable worth salary line as applied to the Willis evaluation points of the affected job classification and adopted by the state personnel board and the higher education personnel board: PROVIDED, That on or before the dates on which comparable worth increases become effective, the higher education personnel board shall review the salaries of all job classifications receiving comparable worth increases which are also receiving special pay to determine whether the requirements of WAC 251-09-090 continue to be met and shall make any reductions in special pay necessary to adjust for the increases in base pay resulting from comparable worth adjustments. The governor as the chief executive officer of the state, with the assistance of the attorney general, is authorized to seek a proposed settlement. However, any such settlement is tentative and subject to legislative ratification. $100,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the office of the governor to retain any special consultants or negotiators to work with the attorney general in seeking a settlement of American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, et al. v. State of Washington, et al., within the terms of the appropriation as set out in this subsection. If a tentative settlement is reached within the terms of the appropriation within this subsection, the governor and the attorney general shall jointly present a report on the tentative settlement to the legislature no later than January 1, 1986, for ratification. No funds shall be released before April 1, 1986, or until such time as stipulated final judgment is entered under the terms of the tentative settlement ratified by the legislature, whichever is later. The appropriation provided for settlement in this subsection shall lapse if no proposal is brought before the legislature before January 1, 1986, if the tentative settlement brought before the legislature is not ratified by the legislature during the 1986 legislative session, or if stipulated final judgment is not entered before June 30, 1986.

(6) The department of personnel and the higher education personnel board shall provide monthly reports to the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee regarding the steps each has taken, or proposes to take, to implement the settlement agreement referred to in subsection (5) of this section. The reports will include information on all disputes or potential disputes regarding implementation which have been brought to the attention of the two agencies.

The legislative evaluation and accountability program committee shall report to the legislature regarding the implementation steps taken by, and potential disputes facing, the department of personnel and the higher education personnel board. Such reports shall be provided as often as deemed necessary by the committee, but no later than June 1, 1986, December 1, 1986, and April 1, 1987.

(7) The department of personnel and the higher education personnel board shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1986, with a report identifying those job classifications not covered by the lawsuit that would be entitled to receive adjustments under the average actual comparable worth line. The report shall include recommendations regarding implementation of comparable worth adjustments for these affected job classes.

(8) To facilitate payment of salary increases from special funds, the state treasurer is directed to transfer sufficient income from each special fund to the special fund salary and insurance contribution increase revolving fund hereby created in accordance with schedules provided by the office of financial management.

The priority of payment by the director shall be the order of receipt by the director, but the director shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 19.30 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any person, having a claim for wages pursuant to this act or RCW 49.52.050 et seq. may bring suit upon the surety bond or security deposit filed by the contractor pursuant to RCW 19.30.040, in any court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the claim arose, or in which either the claimant or contractor resides: PROVIDED, That the right of action shall not be included in any suit or action against the farm labor contractor but must be exercised independently after first procuring a judgment, decree or other form of adequate proof of liability established after notice and hearing under RCW 19.30.160. The filing of such an action against the farm labor contractor tolls the three-year statute of limitations referred to in RCW 19.30.170.

(2) The right of action is assignable in the name of the director or any other person, and must be included with an assignment of a wage claim, any other appropriate claim, or of a judgment thereon.

(3) An action upon the bond or security deposit shall be commenced by serving and filing the complaint within three years from the date of expiration or cancellation of the bond, or in the case of a security deposit, within three years of the date of expiration or revocation of the license.

(4) A copy of the complaint in any such action shall be served upon the director at the time of commencement of the action and the director shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Such service shall constitute service on the farm labor contractor and the surety for suit upon the bond and the director shall transmit the complaint or a copy thereof to the contractor at the address listed in his or her application and to the surety within forty-eight hours after it has been received.

(5) The surety upon the bond may, upon notice to the director and the parties, tender to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the action an amount equal to the claims or the amount of the bond less the amount of judgments, if any, previously satisfied therefrom and to the extent of such tender the surety upon the bond shall be exonerated.

(6) If the actions commenced and pending at any one time exceed the amount of the bond then unimpaired, the claims shall be satisfied from the bond in the order that judgment was rendered.

(7) If any final judgment impairs the liability of the surety upon the bond so furnished so that there is not in effect a bond undertaking in the full amount prescribed by the director, the director shall suspend the license of such contractor until the bond liability in the required amount unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims has been furnished. If such bond becomes fully impaired, a new bond must be furnished.

(8) If the farm labor contractor has filed other security with the director in lieu of a surety bond, any person having an unsatisfied final judgment against the contractor for any violation of this chapter may execute upon the security deposit held by the director by serving a certified copy of the unsatisfied final judgment by registered or certified mail upon the director. Upon the receipt of service of such certified copy, the director shall pay or order paid from the deposit, through the registry of the court which rendered judgment, towards the amount of the unsatisfied judgment. The priority of payment by the director shall be the order of receipt by the director, but the director shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of labor and industries for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of forty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of sections 1 through 14 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4724 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

Sections 2 through 8 of this act may be known and cited as the Washington award for excellence in education program act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall establish an annual award program for excellence in education to recognize teachers, principals, school district superintendents, and school boards for their leadership, contributions, and commitment to education. The program shall recognize annually:

(a) Three teachers from each congressional district of the state. One individual must be an elementary level teacher, one must be a junior high or middle school level teacher, and one must be a secondary level teacher;

(b) Three principals from each congressional district of the state. One individual must be an elementary building principal, one must be a junior high or middle school building principal, and one must be a secondary building principal;

(c) One school district superintendent from the state; and

(d) One school district board of directors from the state.

Not more than three teachers and three principals from each congressional district and one superintendent and one school board from the state may be recognized and receive awards in any school year.

(2) The awards for teachers and principals shall include certificates presented by the governor and the superintendent of public instruction at a public ceremony or ceremonies in appropriate locations.

(3) In addition to certificates under subsection (2) of this section, awards for teachers and principals shall include:

(a) A waiver of tuition and fees under section 6 of this act and a stipend not to exceed one thousand dollars to cover costs incurred in taking courses for which the tuition and fees have been waived under this subsection and section 6 of this act. The stipend shall not be considered compensation for the purposes of RCW 28A.58.095; or

(b) Teachers and principals, at their discretion, may elect to forego the waiver of tuition and fees and the stipend under subsection (3) of this section and apply for a grant not to exceed one thousand dollars, which grant shall be awarded under the provisions of section 7 of this act. Within one year of receiving the award for excellence in education, teachers and principals shall notify the superintendent of public instruction in writing of their decision to apply for a grant or to receive the waiver of tuition and fees and the stipend under subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The award for teachers under the Washington award for excellence in education program shall be named the "Christa McAuliffe Award, in honor and memory of Sharon Christa Corrigan McAuliffe." As the first teacher and private citizen selected nationally to voyage into space, Christa McAuliffe exemplified what is exciting and positive about the teaching profession. Her contributions within the scope of the nation's education system helped to show that education can and should be a vital and dynamic experience for all participants.

Christa McAuliffe's chosen profession encompasses learning by discovery and her desire to make new discoveries was reflected by her participation in the nation's space program.

The selection of Christa McAuliffe as the first teacher in space was directly linked to Washington state in that superintendent of public instruction Dr. Frank Brouillet both appointed and served as a member of the national panel which selected Christa McAuliffe.

The tragic loss of the life of Christa McAuliffe on the flight of the space shuttle Challenger on January 28, 1986, will be remembered through the legacy she gave to her family, friends, relatives, students, colleagues, the education profession, and the nation: a model example of striving toward excellence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The awards for the superintendent and school board shall include:

(1) Certificates presented by the governor and the superintendent of public instruction at a public ceremony or ceremonies in appropriate locations;

(2) A grant to the superintendent not to exceed one thousand dollars, which grant shall be awarded under the provisions of section 8 of this act; and

(3) A grant to the school board not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars, which grant shall be awarded under section 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to carry out the purposes of this chapter. These rules shall include establishing the selection criteria for the Washington award for excellence in education program. The superintendent of public instruction is encouraged to consult with teachers, principals, superintendents, and school board members in developing the selection criteria. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 2(1) (a) and (b) of this act, such rules may allow for the selection of individuals whose teaching or administrative duties, or both, may encompass multiple grade level or building assignments, or both.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 28B.15 RCW to read as follows:

Teachers and principals who have received an award for excellence in education under section 2 of this act shall have the tuition and fees waived for one full academic year at any state institution of higher education: PROVIDED, That the waiver shall begin to be used within three years after the award was received.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

Teachers and principals who have received an award for excellence in education under section 2 of this act shall be eligible to apply for an educational grant in lieu of receiving a waiver of tuition and fees and a stipend as provided under section 2(3) of this act. The superintendent of public instruction shall award the grant as long as a written grant application is submitted to the superintendent of public instruction within one year after the award was received. The grant application shall identify the educational purpose toward which the grant shall be used.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

The superintendent and school board who have received an award for excellence in education under section 4 of this act shall be eligible to apply for an educational grant. The superintendent of public instruction shall award the grant as long as a written grant application is submitted to the superintendent of public instruction within one year after the award was received. The grant application shall identify the educational purpose toward which the grant shall be used.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The sum of sixty thousand five hundred dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, from the general fund to the superintendent of public instruction for the purposes of this act.*

"Sec. 1. Section 35.21.300, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 3, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 and RCW 35.21.300 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 205. Section 1, chapter 30, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 5, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to convey electric current, or installing or maintaining equipment to be operated by electric current as it pertains to the electrical industry, without having an unrevoked, unsuspended, and unexpired electrical contractor license, issued by the department in accordance with this chapter. All electrical contractor licenses expire on the thirty-first day of December following the day of their issue. Application for an electrical contractor license shall be made in writing to the department, accompanied by the required fee. The application shall state the name and address of the applicant; in case of firms or partnerships, the names of the individuals composing the firm or partnership; in case of corporations, the names of the managing officials thereof; the location of the place of business of the applicant and the name under which the business is conducted; and whether a general or specialty electrical contractor license is sought and, if the latter, the type of specialty. Electrical contractor specialties include, but are not limited to: Residential, domestic appliances, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, and non-residential maintenance. A general electrical contractor license shall grant to the holder the right to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to carry electric current, and installing or maintaining equipment, or installing or maintaining material to fasten or insulate such wires or equipment to be operated by electric current, in the state of Washington. A specialty electrical contractor license shall grant to the holder a limited right to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to carry electrical current, and installing or maintaining equipment; or installing or maintaining material to fasten or insulate such wires or equipment to be operated by electric current in the state of Washington as expressly allowed by the license.

(2) The application for a contractor license shall be accompanied by a bond in the sum of three thousand dollars with the state of Washington named as obligee in the bond, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by the department. The bond shall at all times be kept in full force and effect, and any cancellation or revocation thereof, or withdrawal of the surety therefrom, suspends the license issued to the principal until a new bond has been filed and approved as provided in this section. Upon approval of a bond, the department shall on the next business day deposit the fee accompanying the application in the electrical license fund and shall file the bond in the office. The department shall upon request furnish to any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity a certified copy of the bond upon the payment of a fee that the department shall set by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the cost of furnishing the certified copy. The bond shall be conditioned that in any installation or maintenance of wires or equipment to convey electrical current, and equipment to be operated by electrical current, the principal will comply with the provisions of this chapter and with any electrical ordinance, building code, or regulation of a city or town adopted pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2) that is in effect at the time of entering into a contract. The bond shall be conditioned further that the principal will pay for all labor, including employee benefits, and material furnished or used upon the work, taxes and contributions to the state of Washington, and all damages that may be sustained by any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity due to a failure of the principal to make the installation or maintenance in accordance with this chapter or any applicable ordinance, building code, or regulation of a city or town adopted pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2). In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the license applicant may file with the department a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the department. If the license applicant has filed a cash deposit, the department shall deposit the funds in a special trust savings account in a commercial bank, mutual savings bank, or savings and loan association and shall pay annually to the depositor the interest derived from the account.

(3) The department shall issue general or specialty electrical contractor licenses to applicants meeting all of the requirements of this chapter. The provisions of this chapter relating to the licensing of any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity including the requirement of a bond with the state of Washington named as obligee therein and the collection of a fee therefor, are exclusive, and no political subdivision of the state of Washington may require or issue any licenses or bonds or charge any fee for the same or a similar purpose. No person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity holding more than one specialty contractor license under this chapter may be required to pay an annual fee for more than one such license or to post more than one three thousand dollar bond, equivalent cash deposit, or other negotiable security.

(4) To obtain a general or specialty electrical contractor license the applicant must designate an individual who currently possesses an administrator's certificate as a general electrical contractor administrator or as a specialty electrical contractor administrator in the specialty for which application has been made. Administrator certificate specialties include but are not limited to: Residential, domestic, appliance, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, and nonresidential maintenance. To obtain an administrator's certificate an individual must pass an examination as set forth in RCW 19.28.123 unless the applicant was a licensed electrical contractor at any time during 1974. Applicants who were electrical contractors licensed by the state of Washington at any time during 1974 are entitled to receive a general electrical contractor administrator's certificate without examination if the applicants apply prior to January 1, 1984. The board (~~of electrical examiners~~) shall certify to the department the names of all persons who are entitled to either a general or specialty electrical contractor administrator's certificate.

Sec. 206. Section 2, chapter 188, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 57, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 19.28.123 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((There is hereby created a board of electrical examiners consisting of nine members to be appointed by the governor.))~~ It shall be the purpose and function of ~~((this))~~ the board to establish in addition to a general electrical contractors' license, such classifications of specialty electrical contractors' licenses as it deems appropriate with regard to individual sections pertaining to state adopted codes in chapter 19.28 RCW. In addition, it shall be the purpose and function of ~~((this))~~ the board to establish and administer written examinations for general electrical contractors' qualifying certificates and the various specialty electrical contractors' qualifying certificates. Examinations shall be designed to reasonably insure that general and specialty electrical contractor's qualifying certificate holders are competent to engage in and supervise the work covered by this statute and their respective licenses. The examinations shall include questions from the following categories to assure proper safety and protection for the general public: (1) Safety, (2) state electrical code, and (3) electrical theory. It shall be the further purpose and function of ~~((this))~~ the board to advise the director as to the need of additional electrical inspectors and compliance officers to be utilized by the director on either a full-time or part-time employment basis. ~~((Meetings of the board shall be held quarterly on the first Monday of February, May, August, and November of each year. Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240, and each member shall also receive travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, which shall be paid out of the electrical license fund, upon vouchers approved by the director of labor and industries.))~~

Sec. 207. Section 4, chapter 188, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.125 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each applicant for an electrical contractor's license, other than an individual, shall designate a supervisory employee or member of the firm to take the required administrator's examination. This person shall be designated as administrator under the license. No person may qualify as administrator for more than one contractor. If the relationship of the administrator with the electrical contractor is terminated, the contractor's license is void within ninety days unless another administrator is qualified by the board (~~of electrical examiners~~). However, if the administrator dies, the contractor's license is void within one hundred eighty days unless another administrator is qualified by the board (~~of electrical examiners~~). A certificate issued under this section is valid for the calendar year of issuance, unless revoked or suspended, and further is nontransferable. The certificate may be renewed without examination by appropriate application unless the certificate has been revoked, suspended, or not renewed within ninety days after the expiration date. If the certificate is not renewed before the expiration date, the individual shall pay twice the usual fee. An individual holding more than one administrator's certificate under this chapter shall not be required to pay annual fees for more than one certificate. A person may take the administrator's test as many times as necessary without limit.

(2) The administrator shall:

(a) Be available during working hours to carry out the duties of an administrator under this section;

(b) Ensure that all electrical work complies with the electrical installation laws and rules of the state;

Sec. 208. Section 8, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 7, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall cause an inspector to inspect all wiring, appliances, devices, and equipment to which this chapter applies. Nothing contained in this chapter may be construed as providing any authority for any subdivision of government to adopt by ordinance any provisions contained or provided for in this chapter except those pertaining to cities and towns pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2). Upon request, electrical inspections will be made by the department within forty-eight hours, excluding holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays. If, upon written request, the electrical inspector fails to make an electrical inspection within twenty-four hours, the serving utility may immediately connect electrical power to the installation if the necessary electrical work permit is displayed. Whenever the installation of any wiring, device, appliance, or equipment is not in accordance with this chapter, or is in such a condition as to be dangerous to life or property, the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity owning, using, or operating it shall be notified by the department and shall within fifteen days, or such further reasonable time as may upon request be granted, make such repairs and changes as are required to remove the danger to life or property and to make it conform to this chapter. The director, through the inspector, is hereby empowered to disconnect or order the discontinuance of electrical service to conductors or equipment that are found to be in a dangerous or unsafe condition and not in accordance with this chapter. Upon making a disconnection the inspector shall attach a notice stating that the conductors have been found dangerous to life or property and are not in accordance with this chapter. It is unlawful for any person to reconnect such defective conductors or equipment without the approval of the department, and until the conductors and equipment have been placed in a safe and secure condition, and in a condition that complies with this chapter. The director, through the electrical inspector, has the right during reasonable hours to enter into and upon any building or premises in the discharge of his or her official duties for the purpose of making any inspection or test of the installation of new construction or altered electrical wiring, electrical devices, equipment, or material contained in or on the buildings or premises. No electrical wiring or equipment subject to this chapter may be concealed until it has been approved by the inspector making the inspection. Persons, firms, partnerships, corporations, or other entities making electrical installations shall obtain inspection and approval from an authorized representative of the department as required by this chapter before requesting the electric utility to connect to the installations. Electric utilities may connect to the installations if approval is clearly indicated by certification of the electrical work permit required to be affixed to each installation or by equivalent means, except that increased or relocated services may be reconnected immediately at the discretion of the utility before approval if an electrical work permit is displayed. The permits shall be furnished upon payment of the fee to the department. The director, subject to the recommendations and approval of the ((advisory)) board, shall set by rule a schedule of license and electrical work permit fees that will cover the costs of administration and enforcement of this chapter. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. No fee may be charged for plug-in mobile homes, recreational vehicles, or portable appliances.

In cases where the interpretation and application of the installation or maintenance standards prescribed in this chapter is in dispute or in doubt, the ((advisory)) board shall, upon application of any interested person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity, determine the methods of installation or maintenance or the materials, devices, appliances, or equipment to be used in the particular case submitted for its decision.

Sec. 210. Section 13, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 10, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.300 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity desiring a decision of the ((advisory)) board pursuant to RCW 19.28.260 shall, in writing, notify the director of such desire and shall accompany the notice with a certified check payable to the department in the sum of two hundred dollars. The notice shall specify the ruling or interpretation desired and the contention of the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity as to the proper interpretation or application on the question on which a decision is desired. If the ((advisory)) board determines that the contention of the applicant for a decision was proper, the two hundred dollars shall be returned to the applicant; otherwise it shall be used in paying the expenses and per diem of the members of the ((advisory)) board in connection with the matter. Any portion of the two hundred dollars not used in paying the per diem and expenses of the board in the case shall be paid into the electrical license fund.

(b) The towed unit of farm equipment or implement of husbandry element of such combination shall be equipped on the rear with two red lamps visible when lighted from a distance of not less than one thousand feet to the rear, and two red reflectors visible to the rear from all distances within six hundred feet to one hundred feet to the rear when directly in front of lawful upper beams of head lamps. One reflector shall be so positioned to indicate, as nearly as practicable, the extreme left projection of the towed unit;

(c) If the towed unit or its load obscures either of the vehicle hazard warning lights on the tractor, the towed unit shall be equipped with vehicle hazard warning lights described in subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The two red lamps and the two red reflectors required in the foregoing subsections of this section on a self-propelled unit of farm equipment or implement of husbandry or combination of farm tractor and towed farm equipment shall be so positioned as to show from the rear as nearly as practicable the extreme width of the vehicle or combination carrying them: PROVIDED, That if all other requirements are met, reflective tape or paint may be used in lieu of reflectors required by subsection (3) of this section.

(5) After January 1, 1970, every farm tractor and every self-propelled unit of farm equipment or implement of husbandry designed for operation at speeds not in excess of twenty-five miles per hour shall at all times be equipped with a slow moving vehicle emblem mounted on the rear except as provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(6) After January 1, 1970, every combination of farm tractor and towed farm equipment or towed implement of husbandry normally operating at speeds not in excess of twenty-five miles per hour shall at all times be equipped with a slow moving vehicle emblem as follows:

(a) Where the towed unit is sufficiently large to obscure the slow moving vehicle emblem on the farm tractor, the towed unit shall be equipped with a slow moving vehicle emblem. In such cases, the towing vehicle need not display the emblem;

(b) Where the slow moving vehicle emblem on the farm tractor unit is not obscured by the towed unit, then either or both may be equipped with the required emblem but it shall be sufficient if either has it.

(7) The emblem required by subsections (5) and (6) of this section shall comply with current standards and specifications as promulgated by the ~~((state commission on equipment))~~ Washington state patrol.

Sec. 709. Section 46.37.185, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 92, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.185 are each amended to read as follows:

Firemen, when approved by the chief of their respective service, shall be authorized to use a green light on the front of their private cars when on emergency duty only. Such green light shall be visible for a distance of two hundred feet under normal atmospheric conditions and shall be of a type and mounting approved by the ~~((commission on equipment))~~ Washington state patrol. The use of the green light shall only be for the purpose of identification and the operator of a vehicle so equipped shall not be entitled to any of the privileges provided in RCW 46.61.035 for the operators of authorized emergency vehicles.

Sec. 710. Section 46.37.190, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 331, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.37.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every authorized emergency vehicle shall, in addition to any other equipment and distinctive marking required by this chapter, be equipped with at least one lamp capable of displaying a red light visible from at least five hundred feet in normal sunlight and a siren capable of giving an audible signal.

(2) Every school bus and private carrier bus shall, in addition to any other equipment and distinctive markings required by this chapter, be equipped with a "stop" signal upon a background not less than fourteen by eighteen inches displaying the word "stop" in letters of distinctly contrasting colors not less than eight inches high, and shall further be equipped with signal lamps mounted as high and as widely spaced laterally as practicable, which shall be capable of displaying to the front two alternately flashing red lights located at the same level and to the rear two alternately flashing red lights located at the same level and these lights shall have sufficient intensity to be visible at five hundred feet in normal sunlight.

(3) Vehicles operated by public agencies whose law enforcement duties include the authority to stop and detain motor vehicles on the public highways of the state may be equipped with a siren and lights of a color and type designated by the ~~((commission on equipment))~~ state patrol for that purpose. The ~~((commission))~~ state patrol may prohibit the use of these sirens and lights on vehicles other than the vehicles described in this subsection.

(4) The lights described in this section shall not be mounted nor used on any vehicle other than a school bus, a private carrier bus, or an authorized emergency or law enforcement vehicle. Optical strobe light devices shall not be installed or used on any vehicle other than an emergency vehicle authorized by the (~~Washington state commission on equipment~~) state patrol or a publicly-owned law enforcement or emergency vehicle. An "optical strobe light device" means a strobe light device which emits an optical signal at a specific frequency to a traffic control light enabling the vehicle in which the strobe light device is used to obtain the right of way at intersections.

(5) The use of the signal equipment described herein shall impose upon drivers of other vehicles the obligation to yield right of way and stop as prescribed in RCW 46.61.210, 46.61.370, and 46.61.350.

Sec. 711, Section 46.37.194, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.37.194 are each amended to read as follows:

The state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol may make rules and regulations relating to authorized emergency vehicles and shall test and approve sirens and emergency vehicle lamps to be used on such vehicles.

Sec. 712, Section 46.37.210, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 18, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(3) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with one or more back-up lamps either separately or in combination with other lamps, but any such back-up lamp or lamps shall not be lighted when the motor vehicle is in forward motion.

(4) Any vehicle may be equipped with one or more side marker lamps, and any such lamp may be flashed in conjunction with turn or vehicular hazard warning signals. Side marker lamps located toward the front of a vehicle shall be amber, and side marker lamps located toward the rear shall be red.

(5) Any vehicle eighty inches or more in over-all width, if not otherwise required by RCW 46.37.090, may be equipped with not more than three identification lamps showing to the front which shall emit an amber light without glare and not more than three identification lamps showing to the rear which shall emit a red light without glare. Such lamps shall be mounted as specified in RCW 46.37.090(~~(6)-(7)~~) (7).

(6) (a) Every motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer, truck tractor, and pole trailer used in the state of Washington may be equipped with an auxiliary lighting system consisting of:

(i) One green light to be activated when the accelerator of the motor vehicle is depressed;

(ii) Not more than two amber lights to be activated when the motor vehicle is moving forward, or standing and idling, but is not under the power of the engine.

(b) Such auxiliary system shall not interfere with the operation of vehicle stop lamps or turn signals, as required by RCW 46.37.070. Such system, however, may operate in conjunction with such stop lamps or turn signals.

(c) Only one color of the system may be illuminated at any one time, and at all times either the green light, or amber light or lights shall be illuminated when the stop lamps of the vehicle are not illuminated.

(d) The green light, and the amber light or lights, when illuminated shall be plainly visible at a distance of one thousand feet to the rear.

(e) Only one such system may be mounted on a motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer, truck tractor, or pole trailer; and such system shall be rear mounted in a horizontal fashion, at a height of not more than seventy-two inches, nor less than twenty inches, as provided by RCW 46.37.050.

(f) On a combination of vehicles, only the lights of the rearmost vehicle need actually be seen and distinguished as provided in subparagraph (d) of this subsection.

(g) Each manufacturer's model of such a system as described in this subsection shall be approved by the (~~commission on equipment~~) state patrol as provided for in RCW 46.37.005 and 46.37.320, before it may be sold or offered for sale in the state of Washington.

Sec. 713, Section 46.37.280, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 24, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.280 are each amended to read as follows:

Such standards and specifications may permit the use of flashing lights for purposes of identification on snow-removal and other highway maintenance and service equipment when in service upon the highways. The standards and specifications for lamps referred to in this section shall correlate with and, so far as possible, conform with those approved by the American association of state highway officials.

(2) It shall be unlawful to operate any snow-removal and other highway maintenance and service equipment on any highway unless the lamps thereon comply with and are lighted when and as required by the standards and specifications adopted as provided in this section.

(1) On and after January 1, 1938, no person shall have for sale, sell or offer for sale for use upon or as a part of the equipment of a motor vehicle, trailer or semitrailer, or use upon any such vehicle any head lamp, auxiliary, or fog lamp, rear lamp, signal lamp or reflector, which reflector is required hereunder, or parts of any of the foregoing which tend to change the original design or performance, unless of a type which has been submitted to the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol and approved by it.

(2) No person shall have for sale, sell or offer for sale for use upon or as a part of the equipment of a motor vehicle, trailer or semitrailer any lamp or device mentioned in this section which has been approved by the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol unless such lamp or device bears thereon the trademark or name under which it is approved so as to be legible when installed.

(3) No person shall use upon any motor vehicle, trailer or semitrailer any lamps mentioned in this section unless said lamps are mounted, adjusted and aimed in accordance with instructions of the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol.

Sec. 717. Section 46.37.320, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 20, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and by section 25, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.320 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The (~~(state commission on equipment)~~) chief of the Washington state patrol is hereby authorized to approve or disapprove any lighting devices and to issue and enforce regulations establishing standards and specifications for the approval of such lighting devices, and their installation, adjustment, and aiming, when in use on motor vehicles. Such regulations shall correlate with and, so far as practicable, conform to the then current standards and specifications of the society of automotive engineers applicable to such equipment and to the headlamp standards established by the United Nations agreement concerning the adoption of approval and reciprocal recognition of approval for motor vehicle equipment and parts done at Geneva on March 20, 1958, as amended and adopted by the Canadian standards association (CSA standard D106.2): PROVIDED, That the sale, installation, and use of any headlamp meeting the standards of either the society of automotive engineers or the United Nations agreement, as amended, shall be lawful in this state.

(2) The state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol shall establish the procedure to be followed when request for approval of any lighting device or other safety equipment, component, or assembly is submitted under this chapter or in regulations issued by the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol. The procedure may provide for submission of such device, component, or assembly to any recognized organization or agency such as, but not limited to, the vehicle equipment safety commission, American national standards institute, society of automotive engineers, and the American association of motor vehicle administrators, as the agent of the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol and for the issuance of an approval certificate by that recognized organization or agency in lieu of submission of the device, component, or assembly to the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol.

(3) The state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol shall maintain and publish lists of all lamps, lighting devices, components, assemblies, or other safety equipment by name and type which have been approved by it.

Sec. 718. Section 46.37.330, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 26, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.330 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol has reason to believe that an approved device does not comply with the requirements of this chapter or regulations issued by the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol, it may, after giving thirty days' previous notice to the person holding the certificate of approval for such device in this state, conduct a hearing upon the question of compliance of said approved device. After said hearing the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol shall determine whether said approved device meets the requirements of this chapter and regulations issued by the (~~((commission))~~) state patrol. If said device does not meet the requirements of this chapter or the (~~((commission's))~~) state patrol's regulations it shall give notice to the one to whom the certificate of approval has been issued of the (~~((commission's))~~) state patrol's intention to suspend or revoke the certificate of approval for such device in this state.

(2) If at the expiration of ninety days after such notice the person holding the certificate of approval for such device has failed to satisfy the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol that said approved device as thereafter to be sold or offered for sale meets the requirements of this chapter or the (~~((commission's))~~) state patrol's regulations, the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol shall suspend or revoke the approval issued therefor and shall require the withdrawal of all such devices from the market and may require that all said devices sold since the notification be replaced with devices that do comply.

(3) When a certificate of approval has been suspended or revoked pursuant to this chapter or regulations by the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol, the device shall not be again approved unless and until it has been submitted for reapproval and it has been demonstrated, in the same manner as in an application for an original approval, that the device fully meets the requirements of this chapter or regulations issued by the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol. The state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol may require that all previously approved items are being effectively recalled and removed from the market as a condition of reapproval.

Sec. 719. Section 24, chapter 154, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 29, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.365 are each amended to read as follows:

(4) No person shall distribute, have for sale, offer for sale, or sell any hydraulic brake fluid unless it complies with the requirements of this section and the standard specifications adopted by the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol. No person shall service any vehicle with brake fluid unless it complies with the requirements of this section and the standards and specifications adopted by the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol.

(5) Subsections (3) and (4) of this section shall not apply to petroleum base fluids in vehicles with brake systems designed to use them.

Sec. 720. Section 46.37.380, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 32, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.380 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every motor vehicle when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with a horn in good working order and capable of emitting sound audible under normal conditions from a distance of not less than two hundred feet, but no horn or other warning device shall emit an unreasonably loud or harsh sound or a whistle. The driver of a motor vehicle shall when reasonably necessary to insure safe operation give audible warning with his horn but shall not otherwise use such horn when upon a highway.

(2) No vehicle shall be equipped with nor shall any person use upon a vehicle any siren, whistle, or bell, except as otherwise permitted in this section.

(3) It is permissible for any vehicle to be equipped with a theft alarm signal device so long as it is so arranged that it cannot be used by the driver as an ordinary warning signal. Such a theft alarm signal device may use a whistle, bell, horn, or other audible signal but shall not use a siren.

(4) Any authorized emergency vehicle may be equipped with a siren, whistle, or bell, capable of emitting sound audible under normal conditions from a distance of not less than five hundred feet and of a type approved by the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol, but such siren shall not be used except when such vehicle is operated in response to an emergency call or in the immediate pursuit of an actual or suspected violator of the law, in which said latter events the driver of such vehicle shall sound said siren when reasonably necessary to warn pedestrians and other drivers of the approach thereof.

Sec. 721. Section 46.37.420, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 50, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.37.420 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) No tire on a vehicle moved on a highway may have on its periphery any block, flange, cleat, or spike or any other protuberance of any material other than rubber which projects beyond the tread of the traction surface of the tire, except that it is permissible to use farm machinery with tires having protuberances that will not injure the highway, and except also that it is permissible to use tire chains or metal studs imbedded within the tire of reasonable proportions and of a type approved by the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~ patrol, upon any vehicle when required for safety because of snow, ice, or other conditions tending to cause a vehicle to skid. It is unlawful to use metal studs imbedded within the tire between April 1st and November 1st. The state department of transportation may, from time to time, determine additional periods in which the use of tires with metal studs imbedded therein is lawful.

(3) The state department of transportation and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may issue special permits authorizing the operation upon a highway of traction engines or tractors having movable tracks with transverse corrugations upon the periphery of the movable tracks or farm tractors or other farm machinery, the operation of which upon a highway would otherwise be prohibited under this section.

(4) Tires with metal studs imbedded therein may be used between November 1st and April 1st upon school buses and fire department vehicles, any law or regulation to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 722. Section 3, chapter 77, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 73, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.425 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall drive or move or cause to be driven or moved any vehicle, the tires of which have contact with the driving surface of the road, subject to registration in this state, upon the public highways of this state unless such vehicle is equipped with tires in safe operating condition in accordance with requirements established by this section or by the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~ patrol.

The state (~~(commission on equipment)~~ patrol) shall promulgate rules and regulations setting forth requirements of safe operating condition of tires capable of being employed by a law enforcement officer by visual inspection of tires mounted on vehicles including visual comparison with simple measuring gauges. These rules shall include effects of tread wear and depth of tread.

A tire shall be considered unsafe if it has:

(1) Any ply or cord exposed either to the naked eye or when cuts or abrasions on the tire are probed; or

(2) Any bump, bulge, or knot, affecting the tire structure; or

(3) Any break repaired with a boot; or

(4) A tread depth of less than 2/32 of an inch measured in any two major tread grooves at three locations equally spaced around the circumference of the tire, or for those tires with tread wear indicators, a tire shall be considered unsafe if it is worn to the point that the tread wear indicators contact the road in any two major tread grooves at three locations equally spaced around the circumference of the tire; or

(5) A legend which indicates the tire is not intended for use on public highways such as, "not for highway use" or "for racing purposes only"; or

(6) Such condition as may be reasonably demonstrated to render it unsafe; or

(7) If not matched in tire size designation, construction, and profile to the other tire and/or tires on the same axle.

No person, firm, or corporation shall sell any vehicle for use on the public highways of this state unless the vehicle is equipped with tires that are in compliance with the provisions of this section. If the tires are found to be in violation of the provisions of this section, the person, firm, or corporation selling the vehicle shall cause such tires to be removed from the vehicle and shall equip the vehicle with tires that are in compliance with the provisions of this section.

It is a traffic infraction for any person to operate a vehicle on the public highways of this state, or to sell a vehicle for use on the public highways of this state, which is equipped with a tire or tires in violation of the provisions of this section or the rules and regulations promulgated by the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~ patrol) hereunder: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if the violation relates to items (1) to (7) inclusive of this section then the condition or defect must be such that it can be detected by a visual inspection of tires mounted on vehicles, including visual comparison with simple measuring gauges.

Sec. 723. Section 46.37.430, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 304, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.37.430 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On and after January 1, 1938, no person shall sell any new motor vehicle as specified herein, nor shall any new motor vehicle as specified herein be registered thereafter unless such vehicle is equipped with safety glazing material of a type approved by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol wherever glazing material is used in doors, windows and windshields. The foregoing provisions shall apply to all passenger-type motor vehicles, including passenger buses and school buses, but in respect to trucks, including truck tractors, the requirements as to safety glazing material shall apply to all glazing material used in doors, windows, and windshields in the drivers' compartments of such vehicles except as provided by subsection (4) of this section.

(2) The term "safety glazing materials" means glazing materials so constructed, treated or combined with other materials as to reduce substantially, in comparison with ordinary sheet glass or plate glass, the likelihood of injury to persons by objects from exterior sources or by these safety glazing materials when they may be cracked or broken.

(3) The state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol shall compile and publish a list of types of glazing material by name approved by it as meeting the requirements of this section and the director of licensing shall not register after January 1, 1938, any motor vehicle which is subject to the provisions of this section unless it is equipped with an approved type of safety glazing material, and he shall thereafter suspend the registration of any motor vehicle so subject to this section which he finds is not so equipped until it is made to conform to the requirements of this section.

(4) No person shall sell or offer for sale, nor shall any person operate a motor vehicle registered in this state which is equipped with any camper manufactured after May 23, 1969, unless such camper is equipped with safety glazing material of a type approved by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol wherever glazing materials are used in outside windows and doors.

(5) No tinting or coloring material that reduces light transmittance to any degree, unless it meets standards for such material adopted by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol, shall be applied to the surface of the safety glazing material in a motor vehicle in any of the following locations:

- (a) Windshields.
- (b) Windows to the immediate right and left of the driver including windwings or.
- (c) Rearmost windows if used for driving visibility by means of an interior rear-view mirror.

The standards adopted by the (~~commission~~) state patrol shall permit a greater degree of light reduction on a vehicle operated by or carrying as a passenger a person who possesses written verification from a licensed physician that the operator or passenger must be protected from exposure to sunlight for physical or medical reasons.

Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit the use of shaded or heat-absorbing safety glazing material in which the shading or heat-absorbing characteristics have been applied at the time of manufacture of the safety glazing material and which meet the standards of the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol for such safety glazing materials.

(6) The standards used for approval of safety glazing materials by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol shall conform as closely as possible to the standards for safety glazing materials for motor vehicles promulgated by the United States of America Standards Institute in effect at the time of manufacture of the safety glazing material.

Sec. 724. Section 46.37.440, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 38, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person shall operate any motor truck, passenger bus, truck tractor, motor home, or travel trailer over eighty inches in overall width upon any highway outside the corporate limits of municipalities at any time unless there shall be carried in such vehicle the following equipment except as provided in subsection (2):

(a) At least three flares or three red electric lanterns or three portable red emergency reflectors, each of which shall be capable of being seen and distinguished at a distance of not less than six hundred feet under normal atmospheric conditions at nighttime.

No flare, fusee, electric lantern, or cloth warning flag shall be used for the purpose of compliance with the requirements of this section unless such equipment is of a type which has been submitted to the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol and approved by it. No portable reflector unit shall be used for the purpose of compliance with the requirements of this section unless it is so designed and constructed as to be capable of reflecting red light clearly visible from all distances within six hundred feet to one hundred feet under normal atmospheric conditions at night when directly in front of lawful upper beams of head lamps, and unless it is of a type which has been submitted to the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol and approved by it:

(b) At least three red-burning fusees unless red electric lanterns or red portable emergency reflectors are carried:

(c) At least two red-cloth flags, not less than twelve inches square, with standards to support such flags.

(2) No person shall operate at the time and under conditions stated in subsection (1) any motor vehicle used for the transportation of explosives, any cargo tank truck used for the transportation of flammable liquids or compressed gases or liquefied gases, or any motor vehicle using compressed gas as a fuel unless there shall be carried in such vehicle three red electric lanterns or three portable red emergency reflectors meeting the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, and there shall not be carried in any said vehicle any flares, fuses, or signal produced by flame.

Sec. 725. Section 46.37.450, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 119, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.37.450 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any motor truck, passenger bus, truck tractor over eighty inches in overall width, trailer, semitrailer, or pole trailer is disabled upon the traveled portion of any highway or the shoulder thereof outside any municipality at any time when lighted lamps are required on vehicles, the driver of such vehicle shall display the following warning devices upon the highway during the time the vehicle is so disabled on the highway except as provided in subsection (2) of this section:

(a) A lighted fusee, a lighted red electric lantern, or a portable red emergency reflector shall be immediately placed at the traffic side of the vehicle in the direction of the nearest approaching traffic.

(b) As soon thereafter as possible but in any event within the burning period of the fusee (fifteen minutes), the driver shall place three liquid-burning flares (pot torches), three lighted red electric lanterns, or three portable red emergency reflectors on the traveled portion of the highway in the following order:

(i) One, approximately one hundred feet from the disabled vehicle in the center of the lane occupied by such vehicle and toward traffic approaching in that lane.

(ii) One, approximately one hundred feet in the opposite direction from the disabled vehicle and in the center of the traffic lane occupied by such vehicle.

(iii) One at the traffic side of the disabled vehicle not less than ten feet rearward or forward thereof in the direction of the nearest approaching traffic. If a lighted red electric lantern or a red portable emergency reflector has been placed at the traffic side of the vehicle in accordance with subdivision (a) of this subsection, it may be used for this purpose.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 7, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4738 with the following amendments:

On page 3, after line 31, insert the following:

Sec. 3. Section 61, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 18, chapter 191, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.40.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Complaints referred to the juvenile court alleging the commission of an offense shall be referred directly to the prosecutor. The prosecutor, upon receipt of a complaint, shall screen the complaint to determine whether:

(a) The alleged facts bring the case within the jurisdiction of the court; and

(b) On a basis of available evidence there is probable cause to believe that the juvenile did commit the offense.

(2) If the identical alleged acts constitute an offense under both the law of this state and an ordinance of any city or county of this state, state law shall govern the prosecutor's screening and charging decision for both filed and diverted cases.

(3) If the requirements of subsections (1) (a) and (b) of this section are met, the prosecutor shall either file an information in juvenile court or divert the case, as set forth in subsections (5), (6), and (7) of this section. If the prosecutor neither files nor diverts the case, he shall maintain a record, for one year, of such decision and the reasons therefor. In lieu of filing an information or diverting an offense a prosecutor may file a motion to modify community supervision where such offense constitutes a violation of community supervision.

(4) An information shall be a plain, concise, and definite written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. It shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney and conform to chapter 10.37 RCW.

(5) Where a case is legally sufficient, the prosecutor shall file an information with the juvenile court if:

(a) An alleged offender is accused of a class A felony, a class B felony, an attempt to commit a class B felony, assault in the third degree, rape in the third degree, or any other offense listed in RCW 13.40.020(1) (b) or (c); or

(b) An alleged offender is accused of a felony and has a criminal history of at least one class A or class B felony, or two class C felonies, or at least two gross misdemeanors, or at least two misdemeanors and one additional misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, or at least one class C felony and one misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor; or

(c) An alleged offender has been referred by a diversion unit for prosecution or desires prosecution instead of diversion; or

(d) An alleged offender is accused of a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor and has previously entered into a total of three diversion agreements for separate offenses, not in the same course of conduct.

(6) Where a case is legally sufficient the prosecutor shall divert the case if the alleged offense is a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor or violation and the alleged offense(s) in combination with the alleged offender's criminal history do not exceed three offenses or violations and do not include any felonies: PROVIDED, That if the alleged offender is charged with a related offense that must or may be filed under subsections (5) and (7) of this section, a case under this subsection may also be filed: PROVIDED FURTHER, That an alleged misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor shall be filed pursuant to subsection (5)(d) of this section.

(7) Where a case is legally sufficient and falls into neither subsection (5) nor (6) of this section, it may be filed or diverted. In deciding whether to file or divert an offense under this section the prosecutor shall be guided only by the length, seriousness, and recency of the alleged offender's criminal history and the circumstances surrounding the commission of the alleged offense.

(8) Whenever a juvenile is placed in custody or, where not placed in custody, referred to a diversionary interview, the parent or legal guardian of the juvenile shall be notified as soon as possible concerning the allegation made against the juvenile and the current status of the juvenile.

(9) The responsibilities of the prosecutor under subsections (1) through (8) of this section may be performed by a juvenile court probation counselor for any complaint referred to the court alleging the commission of an offense which would not be a felony if committed by an adult, if the prosecutor has given sufficient written notice to the juvenile court that the prosecutor will not review such complaints.

Sec. 4. Section 70, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 191, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.40.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the respondent is found to be a serious offender, the court shall commit the offender to the department for the standard range of disposition for the offense.

If the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusion, that disposition within the standard range would effectuate a manifest injustice the court shall impose a disposition outside the standard range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

A disposition outside the standard range shall be determinate and shall be comprised of confinement or community supervision, or a combination thereof. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. A disposition outside the standard range is appealable under RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition within the standard range is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended.

~~(2) Where the respondent is found to be a minor or first offender, the court shall order that the respondent serve a term of community supervision; if the court determines that a disposition of community supervision would effectuate a manifest injustice the court may impose another disposition. A disposition other than a community supervision may be imposed only after the court enters reasons upon which it bases its conclusions that imposition of community supervision would effectuate a manifest injustice. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.~~

~~Any disposition other than community supervision may be appealed as provided in RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition of community supervision may not be appealed under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended);~~

(a) The court shall order that the respondent serve a term of community supervision; and

(b) If the minor or first offender has a criminal history of two or more offenses, the court may impose a term of confinement not to exceed seven days in addition to a term of community supervision. If confinement has been imposed, the court shall state aggravating factors as set forth in RCW 13.40.150.

(c) Only if the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusions, that disposition under (a) or (b) of this subsection would cause a manifest injustice, the court may impose a disposition other than community supervision and/or up to seven days' confinement. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the range shall be determined under RCW 13.40.030(5). The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

A disposition under (c) of this subsection is appealable under RCW 13.40.230. A disposition under (a) or (b) of this subsection is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230.

(3) Where a respondent is found to have committed an offense for which the respondent declined to enter into a diversion agreement, the court shall impose a term of community supervision limited to the conditions allowed in a diversion agreement as provided in RCW 13.40.080(2) as now or hereafter amended.

(4) If a respondent is found to be a middle offender:

(a) The court shall impose a determinate disposition within the standard range(s) for such offense: PROVIDED, That if the standard range includes a term of confinement exceeding thirty days, commitment shall be to the department for the standard range of confinement; or

(b) The court shall impose a determinate disposition of community supervision and/or up to thirty days confinement in which case, if confinement has been imposed, the court shall state either aggravating or mitigating factors as set forth in RCW 13.40.150 as now or hereafter amended.

(c) Only if the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusions, that disposition as provided in subsection (4) (a) or (b) of this section would effectuate a manifest injustice, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

(d) A disposition pursuant to subsection (4)(c) of this section is appealable under RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition pursuant to subsection (4) (a) or (b) of this section is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended.

(5) Whenever a juvenile offender is entitled to credit for time spent in detention prior to a dispositional order, the dispositional order shall specifically state the number of days of credit for time served.

(6) In its dispositional order, the court shall not suspend or defer the imposition or the execution of the disposition.

(7) In no case shall the term of confinement imposed by the court at disposition exceed that to which an adult could be subjected for the same offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The legislature finds that children who are dependent or in conflict with their families and who violate court-ordered placements or other terms of a court order which may detrimentally affect their emotional or physical well-being should face the consequences of their actions. The legislature further finds that use of the power of contempt of court can accomplish this while maintaining the distinction between these children and juveniles who have violated the criminal laws. It is the intent of the legislature to broaden the court's contempt powers and emphasize that contempt is the appropriate tool for punishing violations of court orders.

Sec. 6. Section 14, chapter 298, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.32A.250 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Failure by a party to comply with an order entered under this chapter is punishable as contempt.

(2) Contempt under this section is punishable by a fine of up to one hundred dollars and imprisonment for up to ~~((seven))~~ fourteen days, or both.

(3) A child found in contempt under this section shall be imprisoned only in a secure juvenile detention facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with a county.

(4) The procedure in a contempt proceeding held under this section is governed by RCW 7.20.040 through 7.20.080, as now law or hereafter amended.

(5) A motion for contempt may be made by a parent, a child, juvenile court personnel, or by any public agency, organization, or person having custody of the child under a court order adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 7. Section 1, chapter 257, Laws of 1985 and RCW 13.34.165 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Failure by a party to comply with an order entered under this chapter is punishable as contempt.

(2) Contempt under this section is punishable by confinement for up to ~~((seven))~~ fourteen days.

(3) A child found in contempt under this section shall be confined only in a secure juvenile detention facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with a county.

(4) The procedure in a contempt proceeding under this section is governed by RCW 7.20-.040 through 7.20.080.

(5) A motion for contempt may be made by a parent, juvenile court personnel, or by any public agency, organization, or person having custody of the child under a court order entered pursuant to this chapter.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "juveniles," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending 13.40.200, 13.40.300, 13.40.070, 13.40.160, 13.32A.250 and 13.34.165; creating a new section; and prescribing penalties".

No reduction of the capital stock shall be made to an amount less than is required for capital~~((: nor be valid, nor warrant the cancellation of stock certificates, nor diminish the personal liabilities of the stockholders until such reduction has been approved by the supervisor, nor shall any reduction relieve any stockholder from any liability of the corporation incurred prior thereto))~~ by the supervisor. No amendment shall be made whereby a bank becomes a trust company unless such bank shall first receive permission from the supervisor.

Banks having authorized but unissued stock shall disclose on all statements of condition the amount of authorized stock and the amount of issued and paid in stock, as certified by the supervisor. The supervisor shall certify to each bank having authorized but unissued stock the amount of its issued and paid in capital stock and this amount shall be used in all statements of condition and in computing the capital of the bank for purposes of determining loan or investment limits ~~((and branching powers))~~ until a new certificate is issued by the supervisor. In cases where a bank issues authorized but unissued stock as permitted by this title, a new certificate need not be requested upon each stock issue. However, if the bank so requests and the supervisor approves, a certificate of issued and paid in capital stock shall be issued by the supervisor. A new certificate must be requested at such time as any increase of paid in capital stock represents five percent of the authorized capital stock and at such time as there is no remaining authorized but unissued stock.

Sec. 29. Section 30.08.140, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 3, chapter 248, Laws of 1957 and RCW 30.08.140 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((10))~~ (11) To accept drafts or bills of exchange drawn upon it having not more than six months sight to run, which grow out of transactions involving the importation or exportation of goods; or which grow out of transactions involving the domestic shipment of goods, providing shipping documents conveying or securing title are attached at the time of acceptance; or which are secured at the time of acceptance by a warehouse receipt or other such document conveying or securing title to readily marketable staples. No bank shall accept, either in a foreign or a domestic transaction, for any one person, company, firm or corporation, to an amount equal at any one time in the aggregate to more than ten percent of its paid up and unimpaired capital stock and surplus unless the bank is secured by attached documents or by some other actual security growing out of the same transaction as the acceptance; and no bank shall accept such bills to an amount equal at any time in the aggregate to more than one-half of its paid up and unimpaired capital stock and surplus: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the supervisor, under such general regulations applicable to all banks irrespective of the amount of capital or surplus, as he may prescribe may authorize any bank to accept such bills to an amount not exceeding at any time in the aggregate one hundred percent of its paid up and unimpaired capital stock and surplus: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the aggregate of acceptances growing out of domestic transactions shall in no event exceed fifty percent of such capital stock and surplus.

~~((12))~~ This section is retroactive as of June 10, 1931, and the powers hereby conferred shall inure to the benefit of any bank now holding such certificate, the persons named in the articles of incorporation of said bank and their successors:))

(13) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes.

Sec. 30, Section 30.12.010, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 8, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Every bank and trust company shall be managed by not less than five directors, ~~((excepting that a bank having a capital of fifty thousand dollars or less may have only three directors))~~ who need not be residents of this state. Directors shall be elected by the stockholders and hold office for ~~((one year))~~ such term as is specified in the articles of incorporation, not exceeding three years, and until their successors are elected and have qualified. In the first instance the directors shall be those named in the articles of incorporation and afterwards, those elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders to be held at least once each year on a day to be specified by the bank's or trust company's bylaws ~~((but not later than May 15th of each year)).~~ Shareholders may not cumulate their votes unless the articles of incorporation specifically so provide. If for any cause no election is held at that time, it may be held at an adjourned meeting or at a subsequent meeting called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by the corporation's bylaws. The directors shall meet at least once each month and whenever required by the supervisor. A majority of the then serving board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At all stockholders' meetings, each share shall be entitled to one vote, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. Any stockholder may vote in person or by written proxy. ~~((Every director must own in his own right shares of the capital stock of the bank or trust company of which he is a director the aggregate par value of which shall not be less than four hundred dollars, unless the capital of the bank or trust company shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars, in which case he must own in his own right shares of such capital stock the aggregate par value of which shall not be less than two hundred dollars, or an equivalent interest, as determined by the supervisor of banking, in any company which has control over such bank or trust company within the meaning of section 2 of the federal bank holding company act of 1956, as now or hereafter amended. Any director who ceases to be the owner of the required number of shares of the stock, or who becomes in any other manner disqualified, shall thereby vacate his place.))~~

Immediately upon election, each director shall take, subscribe, swear to, and file with the supervisor an oath that he will, so far as the duty devolves upon him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such corporation and will not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated any provision of law applicable to such corporation ~~((and that he is the beneficial owner in good faith of the number of shares of stock required by this section, and that the same is fully paid, is not hypothecated or in any way pledged as security for any loan or debt))~~. Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled by the board.

Sec. 31. Section 30.12.020, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 9, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

All meetings of the stockholders of any bank or trust company, except organization meetings, and meetings held with the consent of all stockholders, must be held in the ((town or city)) county in which the head office or any branch of the corporation is located. Meetings of the directors of any bank or trust company may be held either within or without this state. Every such corporation shall keep ((a book)) records in which shall be recorded the names and residences of the stockholders thereof, the number of shares held by each, ((when each person became a stockholder)) and also the transfers of stock, showing the time when made, the number of shares and by whom transferred. In all actions, suits and proceedings, said ((book)) records shall be prima facie proof of the facts shown therein. All of the corporate books, including the certificate book, stockholders' ledger and minute book or a copy thereof shall be kept at the corporation's principal place of business ((and not elsewhere)). Any books, record, and minutes may be in written form or any other form capable of being converted to written form within a reasonable time.

~~((Whenever in the opinion of the supervisor the condition of any bank or trust company is such that any transfer of the capital stock of such bank or trust company would be detrimental to the interests of its depositors, the supervisor may, by written order served upon the directors of such bank or trust company, direct that no transfer of stock shall be made until further order of the supervisor.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. A new section is added to chapter 30.12 RCW to read as follows:

Any person who has been a shareholder of record at least six months immediately preceding his or her demand or who is the holder of record of at least five percent of all the outstanding shares of a bank or trust company, upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, has the right to examine, in person, or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time or times, for any proper purpose, the bank or trust company's minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders, its shareholder records, and its existing publicly available records. The person is entitled to make extracts therefrom, except that the person is not entitled to view or make extracts of any portion of minutes that refer or relate to information which is confidential.

Any officer or agent who, or a bank or trust company that, refuses to allow any such shareholder or his or her agent or attorney, to examine and make extracts from its minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders, record of shareholders, or existing publicly available books and records, for any proper purpose, shall be liable to the shareholder for actual damages or other remedy afforded the shareholder by law.

It is a defense to any action for penalties under this section that the person suing therefor has, within two years: (1) Sold or offered for sale any list of shareholders for shares of such bank or trust company or any other bank or trust company; (2) aided or abetted any person in procuring any list of shareholders for any such purpose; (3) improperly used any information secured through any prior examination of existing publicly available books and records, or minutes, or record of shareholders of such bank or trust company or any other bank or trust company; or (4) not acted in good faith or for a proper purpose in making his or her demand.

Nothing in this section impairs the power of any court of competent jurisdiction, upon proof by a shareholder of proper purpose, irrespective of the period of time during which the shareholder has been a shareholder of record, and irrespective of the number of shares held by him or her, to compel the production for examination by the shareholder of the existing publicly available books and records, minutes, and record of shareholders of a bank or trust company.

Upon the written request of any shareholder of a bank or trust company, the bank or trust company shall mail to the shareholder its most recent financial statements showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of its operations. As used in this section, "shareholder" includes the holder of voting trust certificates for shares.

Sec. 33. Section 30.12.030, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~Except as otherwise permitted by the supervisor under specified terms and conditions,~~ the board of directors of each bank and trust company shall direct and require good and sufficient surety company fidelity bonds issued by a company authorized to engage in the insurance business in the state of Washington on all active officers and employees, whether or not they draw salary or compensation, which bonds shall provide for indemnity to such bank or trust company, on account of any losses sustained by it as the result of any dishonest, fraudulent or criminal act or omission committed or omitted by them acting independently or in collusion or combination with any person or persons. Such bonds may be individual, schedule or blanket form, and the premiums therefor shall be paid by the bank or trust company.

(2) The said directors shall also direct and require suitable insurance protection to the bank or trust company against burglary, robbery, theft and other similar insurance hazards to which the bank or trust company may be exposed in the operations of its business on the premises or elsewhere.

The said directors shall be responsible for prescribing at least once in each year the amount or penal sum of such bonds or policies and the sureties or underwriters thereon, after giving due consideration to all known elements and factors constituting such risk or hazard. Such action shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of directors ~~((and thereafter be reported to the supervisor and be subject to his approval))~~.

Sec. 34. Section 30.12.050, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.12.050 are each amended to read as follows:

A director, officer, employee or other agent of any bank shall not purchase, or be interested in the purchase, directly or indirectly, of any of its assets without the previous ~~((written))~~ consent of ~~((the supervisor and of))~~ a majority of ~~((the))~~ disinterested directors of the bank: PROVIDED, That if the fair market value of the asset or assets exceeded ten thousand dollars, not less than ten days' prior notice of the sale shall be given to the supervisor. ((Whoever knowingly does or participates or aids in the doing of any act in violation of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and be punished accordingly, and also shall forfeit to the state double the amount of any loss suffered by the bank or trust company on account of the unlawful purchase, the recovery to be one-half for the use of the bank or trust company and the rest for the use of the state.))

Sec. 35. Section 30.12.110, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.12.110 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Every))~~ No officer, director, agent, employee or stockholder of any bank or trust company ~~((who))~~ shall, directly or indirectly, receive a bonus, commission, compensation, remuneration, gift, speculative interest or gratuity of any kind from any person, firm or corporation other than the bank or as allowed by section 36 of this 1986 act for granting, procuring or endeavoring to procure, for any person, firm or corporation, any loan by or out of the funds of such bank or trust company or the purchase or sale of any securities or property for or on account of such bank or trust company or for granting or procuring permission for any person, firm or corporation to overdraw any account with such bank or trust company((;)). Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a ((felony)) gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. A new section is added to chapter 30.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If a transaction is fair to a corporation at the time it is authorized, approved, or ratified, the fact that a director or an officer had a direct or indirect interest in the transaction is not grounds for either invalidating the transaction or imposing liability on the director or officer.

(2) In any proceeding seeking to invalidate a transaction with the corporation in which a director or an officer had a direct or indirect interest in a transaction with the corporation, the person asserting the validity of the transaction has the burden of proving fairness unless:

(a) The material facts of the transaction and the director's or officer's interest was disclosed or known to the board of directors, or a committee of the board, and the board or committee authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or

(b) The material facts of the transaction and the director's or officer's interest was disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote, and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction.

(3) For purposes of this section, a director or an officer of a corporation has an indirect interest in a transaction with the corporation if:

(a) Another entity in which the director or officer has a material financial interest, or in which such person is a general partner, is a party to the transaction; or

(b) Another entity of which the director or officer is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction, and the transaction is or should be considered by the board of directors of the corporation.

(4) For purposes of subsection (3)(a) of this section, a transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified only if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board of directors or on the committee who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subsection (3)(a) of this section if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in that subsection.

(5) For purposes of subsection (3)(b) of this section, a transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified only if it receives the vote of a majority of shares entitled to be counted under this subsection. All outstanding shares entitled to vote under this title or the articles of incorporation are entitled to be counted under this subsection except shares owned by or voted under the control of a director or an officer who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction. Shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (3)(a) of this section shall not be counted to determine whether shareholders have authorized, approved, or ratified a transaction for purposes of subsection (3)(b) of this section. The vote of the shares owned by or voted under the control of a director or an officer who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction and shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (3)(a) of this section, however, shall be counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this title and for purposes of determining a quorum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. A new section is added to chapter 30.12 RCW to read as follows:

Subject to any restrictions in its articles of incorporation and in accordance with and subject to the provisions of RCW 30.08.088, the board of directors of a bank or trust company may grant options entitling the holders thereof to purchase from the corporation shares of any class of its stock. The instrument evidencing the option shall state the terms upon which, the time within which, and the price at which such shares may be purchased from the corporation upon the exercise of such option. If any such options are granted by contract, or are to be granted pursuant to a plan, to officers or employees of the bank or trust company, then the contract or the plan shall require the approval, within twelve months of its approval by the board of directors, of the holders of a majority of its voting capital stock. Subsequent amendments to any such contract or plan which do not change the price or duration of any option, the maximum number of shares which may be subject to options, or the class of employees eligible for options may be made by the board of directors without further shareholder approval.

Subject to any restrictions in its articles of incorporation, the board of directors of a bank or trust company shall have the authority to enter into any plans or contracts providing for compensation for its officers and employees, including, but not being limited to, incentive bonus contracts, stock purchase or bonus plans and profit sharing plans.

Sec. 38. Section 30.20.060, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 3, chapter 280, Laws of 1961 and RCW 30.20.060 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Any)) A bank or trust company ((which shall conduct a savings account department)) shall repay all deposits to the depositor or his lawful representative when required at such time or times and with such interest as the regulations of the corporation shall prescribe. Such regulations shall be prescribed by the directors of ((any such)) the bank or trust company and may contain provisions with respect to the terms and conditions upon which any ((such savings)) account or deposit will be maintained by said bank or trust company. Such regulations and any amendments thereto shall be posted in a conspicuous place in a room where the ((savings account)) deposit business of ((any such)) the bank or trust company shall be transacted and shall ((be)) remain available to depositors upon request. All such rules and regulations and all amendments thereto from time to time in effect shall be binding upon all depositors. At the option of the bank, a passbook shall be issued to each savings account depositor, or a ((ledger)) record maintained in lieu of a passbook((r-covering such deposits in which shall be entered each deposit by and each payment to such depositor, and no payment or checks against any savings account shall be made unless accompanied by and entered in any passbook issued therefor, except for good cause and assurance satisfactory to the corporation: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in any event, a passbook shall be issued upon request)). A deposit contract may be adopted by the bank or trust company in lieu of or in addition to account rules and regulations and shall be enforceable and amendable in the same manner as provided herein for account rules and regulations or as provided in the deposit contract. A copy of such contract shall be provided to the depositor.~~

A bank having a paid-in capital of not less than one million dollars may, with the approval of the supervisor, establish and operate branches in any foreign country. The supervisor's approval of a branch within this state shall be conditioned on a finding that the resources in the neighborhood of the proposed location and in the surrounding country offer a reasonable promise of adequate support for the proposed branch and that the proposed branch is not being formed for other than the legitimate objects covered by this title. The supervisor's approval of a branch in a foreign country shall be conditioned on a finding that the proposed location offers a reasonable promise of adequate support for the proposed branch, that the proposed branch is not being formed for other than the legitimate objects covered by this title (~~and that the principal purpose for establishing such branch is to aid in financing or facilitating exports and/or imports and the exchange of commodities with any foreign country or the agencies or nationals thereof.~~

The aggregate paid-in capital stock of every bank or trust company operating branches shall at no time be less than the aggregate of the minimum capital required by law for the establishment of an equal number of banks or trust companies in the cities or towns wherein the principal office or place of business of such bank or trust company and its branches are located:

No bank or trust company shall establish or operate any branch, except a branch in a foreign country, in any city or town outside the city or town in which its principal place of business is located in which any bank, trust company or national banking association regularly transacts a banking or trust business, except by taking over or acquiring an existing bank, trust company or national banking association or the branch of any bank, trust company or national banking association operating in such city or town. Sec. 41. Section 2, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.555 are each amended to read as follows:

A reorganization authorized under RCW 30.04.550 shall be carried out in the following manner:

(1) A plan of reorganization specifying the manner in which the reorganization shall be carried out must be approved by a majority of the entire board of directors of the banking corporation. Such dissenter's rights must be exercised by making written demand which shall be delivered to the corporation at any time within thirty days after the date of shareholder approval, accompanied by the surrender of the appropriate stock certificates.

It shall be the responsibility of the owner of the mobile home or the agent to obtain such endorsement from the county treasurer and said decal.

(3) Nothing herein should be construed as prohibiting the issuance of vehicle license plates for a mobile home, but no such plates shall be issued unless the mobile home for which such plates are sought has been listed for property tax purposes in the county in which it is principally located and the appropriate fee for such license has been paid.

Concurrently with the filing of any request for review with the board as provided in this section pertaining to a final order of a local government, the requestor shall file a copy of his request with the department and the attorney general. If it appears to the department or the attorney general that the requestor has valid reasons to seek review, either the department or the attorney general may certify the request within thirty days after its receipt to the shorelines hearings board following which the board shall then, but not otherwise, review the matter covered by the requestor: PROVIDED, That the failure to obtain such certification shall not preclude the requestor from obtaining a review in the superior court under any right to review otherwise available to the requestor. The shorelines hearings board shall initially schedule review proceedings on such requests for review without regard as to whether such requests have or have not been certified or as to whether the period for the department or the attorney general to intervene has or has not expired, unless such review is to begin within thirty days of such scheduling. If at the end of the thirty day period for certification neither the department nor the attorney general has certified a request for review, the hearings board shall remove the request from its review schedule.

(2) The department or the attorney general may obtain review of any final order granting a permit, or granting or denying an application for a permit issued by a local government by filing a written request with the shorelines hearings board and the appropriate local government within thirty days from the date the final order was filed as provided in RCW 90.58.140(6) as now or hereafter amended.

The board shall make a final decision within sixty days following the hearing held thereon.

~~((a) in an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines, the board, after full consideration of the positions of the local government and the department, shall determine the validity of the master program.))~~ If the board determines that said ~~((program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline:

~~((#))~~ (e) Was not adopted in accordance with required procedures;

the board shall enter a final decision declaring the ~~((program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline invalid, remanding the ~~((master program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline to the department with a statement of the reasons in support of the determination, and directing the department to adopt, after a thorough consultation with the affected local government, a new ~~((master program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline. Unless the board makes one or more of the determinations as hereinbefore provided, the board shall find the ~~((master program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline to be valid and enter a final decision to that effect.

~~((b) in an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines of state-wide significance the board shall approve the master program adopted by the department unless a local government shall, by clear and convincing evidence and argument, persuade the board that the master program approved by the department is inconsistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines:~~

~~((c) in an appeal relating to rules, regulations, guidelines, master programs of state-wide significance, and designations, the standard of review provided in RCW 34.04.070 shall apply.))~~

(5) Rules, regulations, ~~((designations, master programs.))~~ and guidelines shall be subject to review in superior court, if authorized pursuant to RCW 34.04.070: PROVIDED, That no review shall be granted by a superior court on petition from a local government unless the local government shall first have obtained review under subsection (4) of this section is filed within three months after the date of final decision by the shorelines hearings board.

(1) The department and each local government shall periodically review any master programs under its jurisdiction and make such adjustments thereto as are necessary. ~~((Each local government shall submit any proposed adjustments, to the department as soon as they are~~ completed. No such adjustment shall become effective until it has been approved by the department.) Any adjustments proposed by a local government to its master program shall be forwarded to the department for review. The department shall approve, reject, or propose modification to the adjustment. If the department either rejects or proposes modification to the master program adjustment, it shall provide substantive written comments as to why the proposal is being rejected or modified.

(2) Any local government aggrieved by the department's decision to approve, reject, or modify a proposed master program or master program adjustment may appeal the department's decision to the shorelines hearings board. In an appeal relating to shorelines, the shorelines hearings board shall review the proposed master program or master program adjustment and, after full consideration of the presentations of the local government and the department, shall determine the validity of the local government's adjustment in light of the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines. In an appeal relating to shorelines of state-wide significance, the board shall uphold the decision by the department unless a local government shall, by clear and convincing evidence and argument, persuade the board that the decision of the department is inconsistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines. Review by the hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW. The aggrieved local government shall have the burden of proof in all such reviews. Whenever possible, the review by the hearings board shall be heard within the county where the land subject to the proposed master program or master program adjustment is primarily located. The department and any local government aggrieved by a final decision of the hearings board may appeal the decision to the superior court of Thurston county.

(3) A master program amendment shall become effective after the approval of the department or after the decision of the shorelines hearings board to uphold the master program or master program adjustment, provided that the board may remand the master program or master program adjustment to the local government or the department for modification prior to the final adoption of the master program or master program adjustment.

Sec. 4. Section 21, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The attorney general or the attorney for the local government shall bring such injunctive, declaratory, or other actions as are necessary to insure that no uses are made of the shorelines of the state in conflict with the provisions and programs of this chapter, and to otherwise enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Any person who shall fail to conform to the terms of a permit issued under this chapter or who shall undertake development on the shorelines of the state without first obtaining any permit required under this chapter shall also be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars for each violation. Each permit violation or each day of continued development without a required permit shall constitute a separate violation.

(3) The penalty provided for in this section shall be imposed by a notice in writing, either by certified mail with return receipt requested or by personal service, to the person incurring the same from the department or local government, describing the violation with reasonable particularity and ordering the act or acts constituting the violation or violations to cease and desist or, in appropriate cases, requiring necessary corrective action to be taken within a specific and reasonable time.

(4) Within thirty days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty may apply in writing to the department for remission or mitigation of such penalty. Upon receipt of the application, the department or local government may remit or mitigate the penalty upon whatever terms the department or local government in its discretion deems proper. Any penalty imposed pursuant to this section by the department shall be subject to review by the shorelines hearings board. Any penalty imposed pursuant to this section by local government shall be subject to review by the local government legislative authority. Any penalty jointly imposed by the department and local government shall be appealed to the shorelines hearings board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 7, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4620 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Advertisement" means any written or printed communication or any communication by means of recorded telephone messages or spoken on radio, television, or similar communication media published in connection with an offer or sale of a franchise.

(2) "Affiliate" means any person, firm, or corporation who controls or is controlled by any motor fuel refiner-supplier, and includes any subsidiary or affiliated corporation in which the motor fuel refiner-supplier or its shareholders, officers, agents, or employees hold or control more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares.

(3) "Community interest" means a continuing financial interest between the motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer in the operation of the franchise business.

(4) "Marketing area" means an area five miles or less in any direction from a motor fuel retailer selling products of any trademark of the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

(5) "Motor fuel" means gasoline or diesel fuel of a type distributed for use in self-propelled motor vehicles and includes gasohol.

(6) "Motor fuel franchise" means any oral or written contract, either expressed or implied, between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer under which the motor fuel retailer is supplied motor fuel for resale to the public under a trademark owned or controlled by the motor fuel refiner-supplier or for sale on commission or for a fee to the public, or any agreements between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer under which the retailer is permitted to occupy premises owned, leased, or controlled by the refiner-supplier for the purpose of engaging in the retail sale of motor fuel under a trademark owned or controlled by the motor fuel refiner-supplier supplied by the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

(7) "Motor fuel refiner-supplier" means any person, firm, or corporation, including any affiliate of the person, firm, or corporation, engaged in the refining of crude oil into petroleum who supplies motor fuel for sale, consignment, or distribution through retail outlets and has an operable refinery capacity of three hundred twenty-five thousand barrels a day or more as reported to the federal department of energy.

(8) "Motor fuel retailer" means a person, firm, or corporation that resells motor fuel entirely at one or more retail motor fuel outlets pursuant to a motor fuel franchise entered into with a refiner-supplier.

(9) "Offer or offer to sell" includes every attempt or offer to dispose of or solicitation of an offer to buy a franchise or an interest in a franchise.

(10) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, partnership, trust, or other entity and in the case of an entity, it shall include any other entity which has a majority interest in such an entity or effectively controls such other entity as well as the individual officers, directors, and other persons in act of control of the activities of each such entity.

(11) "Price" means the net purchase price, after adjustment for commission, brokerage, rebate, discount, services or facilities furnished, or other such adjustment.

(12) "Publish" means publicly to issue or circulate by newspaper, mail, radio, or television or otherwise to disseminate to the public.

(13) "Retail motor fuel outlet" means any location where motor fuel is distributed for purposes other than resale.

(14) "Sale or sell" includes every contract of sale, contract to sell, or disposition of a franchise.

(15) "Trademark" means any trademark, trade name, service mark, or other identifying symbol or name.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. It is unlawful for any motor fuel refiner-supplier to discriminate in price between motor fuel retailers in the same marketing area for purchases of motor fuel of like grade and quality, where the effect of the discrimination may be substantially to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any motor fuel retailer who receives the benefit of the discrimination, or with the customers of either motor fuel retailer. Nothing in this section prevents differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which the fuel is sold to motor fuel retailers. Upon proof being made of discrimination under this section, the burden of rebutting the prima facie case thus made by showing justification is upon the refiner-supplier. A refiner-supplier may show justification by establishing that a differential price was only made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor if the price was also offered to all other motor fuel retailers under any trademark of the refiner-supplier within the same marketing area as the motor fuel retailer receiving the lower price.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, a motor fuel refiner-supplier shall not absolutely prohibit or unreasonably withhold its consent to any sale, assignment, or other transfer of the motor fuel franchise by a motor fuel retailer to a third party without fairly compensating the motor fuel retailer for the fair market value, at the time of expiration of the franchise, of the motor fuel retailer's inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings purchased from the motor fuel refiner-supplier, and good will, exclusive of personalized materials which have no value to the motor fuel refiner-supplier, and inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business. A motor fuel refiner-supplier may offset against amounts owed to a motor fuel retailer under this section any amounts owed by the motor fuel retailer to the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, no motor fuel refiner-supplier may prohibit or prevent the sale, assignment, or other transfer of the motor fuel franchise to a corporation in which the motor fuel retailer has and maintains a controlling interest if the motor fuel retailer offers in writing personally to guarantee the performance of the obligations under the motor fuel franchise.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, the interest of a motor fuel retailer under such an agreement shall be considered personal property and shall devolve on the death of the motor fuel retailer to a designated successor in interest of the retailer, limited to the retailer's spouse, adult child, or adult stepchild or, if no successor in interest is designated, to the retailer's spouse, if any. The designation shall be made, witnessed in writing by at least two persons, and delivered to the motor fuel refiner-supplier during the term of the franchise. The designation may be revised at any time by the motor fuel retailer and shall be substantially in the following form:

"I (motor fuel retailer name) at the service station located at in the City of Washington, designate as my successor in interest under section 4 of this act and as my alternate successor if the originally designated successor is unable or unwilling so to act.
I so specify this day of, 19...."

The motor fuel refiner-supplier shall assist the designated successor in interest temporarily in the day-to-day operation of the service station to insure continued operation of the service station.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, the motor fuel retailer shall be given the right of first refusal to purchase the real estate and/or improvements owned by the refiner-supplier at the franchise location, and at least thirty days' advance notice within which to exercise this right, prior to any sale thereof to any other buyer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, no motor fuel refiner-supplier may:

(1) Require any motor fuel retailer to meet mandatory minimum sales volume requirements for fuel or other products unless the refiner-supplier proves that its price to the motor fuel retailer has been sufficiently low to enable the motor fuel retailer reasonably to meet the mandatory minimum;

(2) Alter, or require the motor fuel retailer to consent to the alteration of, any provision of the motor fuel franchise during its effective term without mutual consent of the motor fuel retailer;

(3) Interfere with any motor fuel retailer's right to assistance of counsel on any matter or to join or be active in any trade association; and

(4) Set or compel, directly or indirectly, the retail price at which the motor fuel retailer sells motor fuel or other products to the public.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. It is unlawful for any person in connection with the offer, sale, or purchase of any motor fuel franchise directly or indirectly:

(1) To sell or offer to sell a motor fuel franchise in this state by means of any written or oral communication which includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made in light of the circumstances under which they were made not misleading.

(2) To employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud.

(3) To engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person..

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Without limiting the other provisions of this chapter, the following specific rights and prohibitions shall govern the relation between the motor fuel refiner-supplier and the motor fuel retailers:

(1) The parties shall deal with each other in good faith.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter and without limiting its general application, it shall be an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition and therefore unlawful and a violation of this chapter for any person to:

(a) Require a motor fuel retailer to purchase or lease goods or services of the motor fuel refiner-supplier or from approved sources of supply unless and to the extent that the motor fuel refiner-supplier satisfies the burden of proving that such restrictive purchasing agreements are reasonably necessary for a lawful purpose justified on business grounds, and do not substantially affect competition: PROVIDED, That this provision shall not apply to the initial inventory of the motor fuel franchise. In determining whether a requirement to purchase or lease goods or services constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition the courts shall be guided by the decisions of the courts of the United States interpreting and applying the anti-trust laws of the United States.

(b) Discriminate between motor fuel retailers in the charges offered or made for royalties, goods, services, equipment, rentals, advertising services, or in any other business dealing, unless and to the extent that the motor fuel refiner-supplier satisfies the burden of proving that any classification or discrimination between motor fuel retailers is reasonable, is based on motor fuel franchises granted at materially different times and such discrimination is reasonably related to such difference in time or on other proper and justifiable distinctions considering the purposes of this chapter, and is not arbitrary.

(c) Sell, rent, or offer to sell to a motor fuel retailer any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price.

(d) Require motor fuel retailer to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver which would relieve any person from liability imposed by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Any person who sells or offers to sell a motor fuel franchise in violation of this chapter shall be liable to the motor fuel retailer or motor fuel refiner-supplier who may sue at law or in equity for damages caused thereby for rescission or other relief as the court may deem appropriate. In the case of a violation of section 8 of this act rescission is not available to the plaintiff if the defendant proves that the plaintiff knew the facts concerning the untruth or omission or that the defendant exercised reasonable care and did not know or if he had exercised reasonable care would not have known of the untruth or omission.

(2) The suit authorized under subsection (1) of this section may be brought to recover the actual damages sustained by the plaintiff: PROVIDED, That the prevailing party may in the discretion of the court recover the costs of said action including a reasonable attorneys' fee.

(3) Any person who becomes liable to make payments under this section may recover contributions as in cases of contracts from any persons who, if sued separately, would have been liable to make the same payment.

(4) A final judgment, order, or decree heretofore or hereafter rendered against a person in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings under the United States anti-trust laws, under the Federal Trade Commission Act, or this chapter shall be regarded as evidence against such persons in any action brought by any party against such person under subsection (1) of this section as to all matters which said judgment or decree would be an estoppel between the parties thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The pendency of any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings against a person brought by the federal or Washington state governments or any of their agencies under the anti-trust laws, the Federal Trade Commission Act, or any federal or state act related to anti-trust laws or to franchising, or under this chapter shall toll the limitation of this action if the action is then instituted within one year after the final judgment or order in such proceedings: PROVIDED, That said limitation of actions shall in any case toll the law so long as there is actual concealment on the part of the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Any motor fuel retailer who is injured in his or her business by the commission of any act prohibited by this chapter, or any motor fuel retailer injured because of his or her refusal to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this chapter may bring a civil action in superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him or her, or both, together with the costs of the suit, including reasonable attorney's fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) The attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful. The prevailing party may in the discretion of the court recover the costs of such action including a reasonable attorneys' fee.

(2) Nothing in this chapter limits the power of the state to punish any person for any conduct which constitutes a crime by statute or at common law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exception or an exemption from definition is upon the person claiming it. Any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring a motor fuel franchise at the time of entering into a motor fuel franchise or other agreement to waive compliance with any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder is void.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. The provisions of this chapter apply to any motor fuel franchise or contract entered into or renewed on or after the effective date of this act between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and a motor fuel retailer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. The Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall wherever applicable herein govern the rights, remedies, and procedures respecting the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. It is the intent of the legislature that this chapter be interpreted consistent with chapter 19.100 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. This chapter shall be liberally construed to effectuate its beneficial purposes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. This chapter shall be known as the "Gasoline Dealer Bill of Rights Act."

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. The Washington state attorney general shall conduct a study to determine whether motor fuel refiner-suppliers are injuring competition from motor fuel retailers, by charging retailers that sell products under their trademark, prices for motor fuel which equal or exceed the prices charged for motor fuel in the same geographic market to retail customers at retail motor fuel outlets operated by company personnel, a subsidiary company, or commissioned or contract agents. The attorney general shall report his findings and recommendations to the legislature by December 1, 1986. Periodic reports shall be submitted to the legislative transportation committee. For the purposes of this study, the attorney general is authorized to use all of the civil investigative demand powers enumerated in RCW 19.86.110, subject to the procedures and requirements specified in RCW 19.86.110: PROVIDED, That disclosure of documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony produced pursuant to a demand, or the contents thereof, to members of the legislature and legislative staff shall not require a court order unless the documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony are identified at the time they are furnished as containing trade secrets. When seeking a court order allowing disclosure of material containing trade secrets, the attorney general shall give reasonable notice of such proceeding to the party furnishing the material.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. To carry out this act, the sum of forty-nine thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the office of attorney general from the motor vehicle fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. Sections 1 through 19 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 24. (1) Sections 20 and 21 are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately.

(2) Sections 1 through 19, 22 and 23 of this act shall take effect June 30, 1986."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

The rules shall provide for distribution to the respective counties on the basis of the number of centennial plates issued to residents in those counties, with minimum amounts established to be distributed to those counties with small populations, regardless of the number of centennial plates issued.

The remaining one-half of the moneys shall be used for funding projects deemed to be of state-wide significance by the centennial commission in accordance with rules adopted by the commission.

This section shall expire on December 31, 1993. Any funds remaining in the centennial commission account on that date shall revert to the general fund.

MOTION

Senator Peterson moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4675.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The motion by Senator Peterson carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4675.

The ~~((director of financial)) risk management office~~ shall adopt rules ~~((and regulations))~~ governing the procedures to be followed in making payment from the tort claims revolving fund~~(:)).~~ The office of financial management shall adopt rules governing the procedures to be followed in reimbursing the tort claims revolving fund and in relieving an agency of its obligation to reimburse the tort claims revolving fund.

If the legislature approves the claim, the department shall pay it from moneys appropriated for that purpose.

(2) If a claim for damages under RCW 77.12.270 has been refused or has not been settled and paid by the commission within one hundred twenty days of the filing of the claim, either the claimant or the commission may serve upon the other personally or by registered mail a notice of intent to arbitrate. The notice shall contain the name of an arbitrator. Within ten days of receiving the notice, the person served shall serve the name of an arbitrator personally or by registered mail upon the other party. The two arbitrators, within seven days of the naming of the second arbitrator, shall select a third arbitrator who shall not be an employee of the department or member of the commission. If the two arbitrators cannot agree upon a third arbitrator, either party may petition the superior court in the county in which the claim arose to select the third arbitrator. Upon receiving the petition, the court shall appoint a third arbitrator. Filing fees or court costs arising from the petition shall be shared equally by the claimant and the department.

(3) The award of the arbitrators is advisory only and shall be filed with the department within ninety days following the naming of the third arbitrator. Payment shall not be made by the commission until the arbitrators have made their advisory award.

Beneficial uses of sludge in landfill reclamation is acceptable utilization and not considered disposal.

The department of ecology shall adopt rules that provide exemptions from this section on a case-by-case basis. Exemptions shall be based on the economic infeasibility of using or disposing of the sludge material other than in a landfill.

The department of ecology, after consulting with representatives from cities, counties, special purpose districts, and operators of septic tank pump-out services, shall adopt rules for the environmentally safe use of municipal sewage sludge and septage in this state.

The department of ecology, after consulting with representatives from the pulp and paper industry and the food processing industry, may adopt rules for the environmentally safe use of appropriate industrial sludges, such as pulp and paper sludges or food processing wastes, used to improve the texture or nutrient content of soils.

The department of ecology, in conjunction with the department of social and health services and the department of agriculture, shall adopt rules establishing labeling and notification requirements for sludge material sold commercially or given away to the public. The department shall specify mandatory wording for labels and notification to warn the public against improper use of the material. The department shall submit a report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by January 1, 1987, on its implementation of this chapter."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4790.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kreidler, are there any prohibitions in this proposal that would keep them from putting heavy metals that are in the sludge in the landfill?"

Senator Kreidler: "Well, most of the heavy metals are going to be certainly still bound up in that sludge, there's no question about it. But at the same time it is just specifying that they should get away from using it as a landfill material but they could still use it as a part of the material that's used to do the surface type work--essentially restoring the soil and so forth on the top of the landfill, but to get away from using it as landfill material."

Senator Rasmussen: "My concern, Senator Kreidler, is all of this that they put on the land will then eventually sometime run down into our streams and into the drainage system and I don't like them doing that with sludge that has heavy metals in it."

Senator Kreidler: "Senator, there are adequate protections built into the bill to make sure that any of those uses where there would be any doubt or question as to how it might contaminate the environment would be taken into account before they would ever be used for any purpose where that might occur."

Senator Rasmussen: "I would hope so. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "I would like to tell Senator Rasmussen that experiments that have been done in the Spokane area using the sludge for fertilizer that the barley that has been produced has not shown excessive levels of heavy metals. There are some increases in the heavy metals in the barley, but not beyond that which is allowed by DOE. I think this is a very good approach and then when we get the negotiations completed on the Cesium 137 capsules we will be able to use it even more than we are now."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Kreidler that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4790.

The motion by Senator Kreidler carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4790.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4790, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent, 1; excused, 2.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 7, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4814 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 9A.16 RCW to read as follows:

It is the policy of this state to protect children from assault and abuse and to encourage parents, teachers, and their authorized agents to use methods of correction and restraint of children that are not dangerous to the children. However, the physical discipline of a child is not unlawful when it is reasonable and moderate and is inflicted by a parent, teacher, or guardian for purposes of restraining or correcting the child. Any use of force on a child by any other person is unlawful unless it is reasonable and moderate and is authorized in advance by the child's parent or guardian for purposes of restraining or correcting the child.

The following actions are presumed unreasonable when used to correct or restrain a child: (1) Throwing, kicking, burning, or cutting a child; (2) striking a child with a closed fist; (3) shaking a child under age three; (4) interfering with a child's breathing; (5) threatening a child with a deadly weapon; or (6) doing any other act that is likely to cause and which does cause bodily harm greater than transient pain or minor temporary marks. The age, size, and condition of the child and the location of the injury shall be considered when determining whether the bodily harm is reasonable or moderate. This list is illustrative of unreasonable actions and is not intended to be exclusive.

Sec. 2. Section 9A.16.020, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 244, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever necessarily used by a public officer in the performance of a legal duty, or a person assisting ~~((him))~~ the officer and acting under ~~((his))~~ the officer's direction;

(2) Whenever necessarily used by a person arresting one who has committed a felony and delivering him or her to a public officer competent to receive him or her into custody;

(4) Whenever reasonably used by a person to detain someone who enters or remains unlawfully in a building or on real property lawfully in the possession of such person, so long as such detention is reasonable in duration and manner to investigate the reason for the detained person's presence on the premises, and so long as the premises in question did not reasonably appear to be intended to be open to members of the public;

(5) ~~((Whenever used in a reasonable and moderate manner by a parent or his authorized agent, a guardian, master, or teacher in the exercise of lawful authority, to restrain or correct his child, ward, apprentice, or scholar;~~

~~((7))~~ ~~((6))~~ Whenever used by any person to prevent a mentally ill, mentally incompetent, or mentally disabled person from committing an act dangerous to ~~((himself or another))~~ any person, or in enforcing necessary restraint for the protection ~~((of his person.))~~ or ~~((his))~~ restoration to health of the person, during such period only as is necessary to obtain legal authority for the restraint or custody of ~~((his))~~ the person.

The prevention of child abuse may be offered as part of the curriculum in the common schools."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "prevention;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 9A.16.020, 28A.04.120, and 28A.05.010; and adding a new section to chapter 9A.16 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4814.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Craswell: "Mr. President, a point of order. I believe this House amendment goes beyond the scope and object of the bill. The bill relates to child abuse education for children and as it passed the Senate it amends the compulsory education curriculum statute. Under the bill schools would be required to provide instruction on child abuse prevention to all grades K thru 12 and there is money appropriated for it.

"The portions of the House striking amendment relating to parental use of force goes well beyond education. The amendment relates to criminal law while the original bill deals only with the educational curriculum. The bill in the amendment adds sections to completely different sections of the RCW. In greater detail, the amendment would add to the section of the criminal code that includes the various defenses that defendants might assert in criminal trials. The amendment sets forth a list of the various uses of force which are presumed to be unreasonable means of correcting or restraining children. Those uses listed would not constitute defenses at trials for assault.

"Since the bill and the proposed amendment deal with such separate and distinct areas of law, it seems clear to me that the child discipline sections of the amendment exceed the scope and object."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4814 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President:

March 5, 1986

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4815 with the following amendment:

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4815.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator McDermott, that matter of the loans not being made for projects in political subdivisions where public surtax on refuse businesses has not been passed on? I can't quite understand what you're saying here. Is this in regard to a situation we've had because of the public works bill last year when we had the error? I just can't remember the explanation."

Senator McDermott: "We passed the public works bill last year with some taxes which we expected to be passed through and some of the garbage haulers have been forced to take it out of their pockets. That was not the intent, either in the House or the Senate Ways and Means Committee or on the floor and an interpretation by some governmental units has been misinterpreted and we want to make it very clear."

Senator Zimmerman: "And this does make it in conformity with some of the other measures that we've passed dealing with the same issue that have been passed through?"

Senator McDermott: "That's correct."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator McDermott that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4815.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4815.

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4897.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, a process server can be a deputy sheriff, police officer or anybody delegated to do that?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "It also can be private firms?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "Now my question is, do these private firms wear a uniform that they can be recognized as a process server or are they somebody that you would think was selling you aluminum ware?"

Senator Talmadge: "They do not wear a uniform, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "How would an innocent victim determine that this was a legal officer?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, this, as I said, provides for a deletion of any crime for assaulting a process server. That is out of this bill. The only thing that this bill does is provide that a person who is legitimately serving process would not themselves be guilty of criminal trespass if they identify themselves and were doing the appropriate things that a process server does."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Talmadge, I assume the effect of the House amendment which deletes making assault on a process server a class C felony does not mean that if you assault a process server that you would necessarily be exempt from charges. It simply means that the potential assault or the alleged assault has to be investigated in the way that any assault on any other person would be investigated."

Senator Talmadge: "That's correct, Senator."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4897.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 4897.

Any fire protection district organized under this title may:

(1) Lease, acquire, own, maintain, operate, and provide fire and emergency medical apparatus and all other necessary or proper facilities, machinery, and equipment for the prevention and suppression of fires, the providing of emergency medical services and the protection of life and property;

(2) Lease, acquire, own, maintain, and operate real property, improvements, and fixtures for housing, repairing, and maintaining the apparatus, facilities, machinery, and equipment described in subsection (1) of this section;

(3) Contract with any governmental entity or private person or entity to consolidate, provide, or cooperate for fire prevention protection, fire suppression, and emergency medical purposes. In so contracting, the district or governmental entity is deemed for all purposes to be acting within its governmental capacity. This contracting authority includes the furnishing of fire prevention, fire suppression, emergency medical services, facilities, and equipment to or by the district, governmental entity, or private person or entity;

(4) Encourage uniformity and coordination of fire protection district operations. The fire commissioners of fire protection districts may form an association to secure information of value in suppressing and preventing fires and other district purposes, to hold and attend meetings, and to promote more economical and efficient operation of the associated fire protection districts. The commissioners of fire protection districts in the association shall adopt articles of association or articles of incorporation for a nonprofit corporation, select a chairman, secretary, and other officers as they may determine, and may employ and discharge agents and employees as the officers deem convenient to carry out the purposes of the association. The expenses of the association may be paid from funds paid into the association by fire protection districts: PROVIDED, That the aggregate contributions made to the association by a district in a calendar year shall not exceed two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation;

(5) Enter into contracts to provide group life insurance for the benefit of the personnel of the fire districts;

(8) Perform acts consistent with this title and not otherwise prohibited by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 52.12 RCW to read as follows:

Fire protection districts in proximity to land protected by a state agency are encouraged to enter into mutually beneficial contracts covering reciprocal response arrangements. In the absence of such a contractual agreement, a fire protection district that takes immediate action on such land outside of its jurisdictional boundaries, if such immediate response could prevent the spread of the fire onto lands protected by the district, shall be reimbursed by the state agency for its reasonable fire suppression costs that are incurred until the responsible agency takes charge, but in no event shall the costs exceed a twenty-four hour period. A fire protection district suppressing a fire on such lands shall as soon as practicable notify the responsible agency. The state agency shall not be responsible to pay such reimbursement if it is not so notified.

Reasonable efforts shall be taken to protect evidence of the fire's origin. The state agency shall not be responsible to pay such reimbursement if reasonable efforts are not taken to protect such evidence.

Requests for reimbursement shall be submitted within thirty days of the complete suppression of the fire. Each of the following acts or practices is (~~hereby declared~~) unlawful:

(1) To cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, broadcasted, televised, or disseminated in any manner whatsoever, any statement or representation with regard to the sale or financing of a vehicle which is false, deceptive, or misleading, including but not limited to the following:

(a) That no down payment is required in connection with the sale of a vehicle when a down payment is in fact required, or that a vehicle may be purchased for a smaller down payment than is actually required;

(b) That a certain percentage of the sale price of a vehicle may be financed when such financing is not offered in a single document evidencing the entire security transaction;

(c) That a certain percentage is the amount of the service charge to be charged for financing, without stating whether this percentage charge is a monthly amount or an amount to be charged per year;

(d) That a new vehicle will be sold for a certain amount above or below cost without computing cost as the exact amount of the factory invoice on the specific vehicle to be sold;

(e) That a vehicle will be sold upon a monthly payment of a certain amount, without including in the statement the number of payments of that same amount which are required to liquidate the unpaid purchase price.

(2) To incorporate within the terms of any purchase and sale agreement any statement or representation with regard to the sale or financing of a vehicle which is false, deceptive, or misleading, including but not limited to terms that include as an added cost to the selling price of a vehicle an amount for licensing or transfer of title of that vehicle which is not actually due to the state, unless such amount has in fact been paid by the dealer prior to such sale.

(3) To set up, promote, or aid in the promotion of a plan by which vehicles are to be sold to a person for a consideration and upon further consideration that the purchaser agrees to secure one or more persons to participate in the plan by respectively making a similar purchase and in turn agreeing to secure one or more persons likewise to join in said plan, each purchaser being given the right to secure money, credits, goods, or something of value, depending upon the number of persons joining the plan.

(4) To commit, allow, or ratify any act of "bushing" which is defined as follows: Taking from a prospective buyer of a vehicle a written order or offer to purchase, or a contract document signed by the buyer, which:

(a) Is subject to the dealer's, or his authorized representative's future acceptance, and the dealer fails or refuses within forty-eight hours, exclusive of Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, and prior to any further negotiations with said buyer, to deliver to the buyer either the dealer's signed acceptance or all copies of the order, offer, or contract document together with any initial payment or security made or given by the buyer, including but not limited to money, check, promissory note, vehicle keys, a trade-in, or certificate of title to a trade-in; or

(b) Permits the dealer to renegotiate a dollar amount specified as trade-in allowance on a vehicle delivered or to be delivered by the buyer as part of the purchase price, for any reason except substantial physical damage or latent mechanical defect occurring before the dealer took possession of the vehicle and which could not have been reasonably discoverable at the time of the taking of the order, offer, or contract; or

(c) Fails to comply with the obligation of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer requiring the furnishing of services or repairs within a reasonable time.

(5) To commit any offense relating to odometers, as such offenses are defined in RCW 46.37.540, 46.37.550, 46.37.560, and 46.37.570. A violation of this subsection is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(6) For any vehicle dealer or vehicle salesman to refuse to furnish, upon request of a prospective purchaser, the name and address of the previous registered owner of any used vehicle offered for sale.

(7) To commit any other offense under RCW 46.37.423, 46.37.424, or 46.37.425.

(8) To commit any offense relating to a dealer's temporary license permit, including but not limited to failure to properly complete each such permit, or the issuance of more than one such permit on any one vehicle.

(9) For a dealer, salesman, or mobile home manufacturer, having taken an instrument or cash "on deposit" from a purchaser prior to the delivery of the bargained-for vehicle, to commingle said "on deposit" funds with assets of the dealer, salesman, or mobile home manufacturer instead of holding said "on deposit" funds as trustee in a separate trust account until the purchaser has taken delivery of the bargained-for vehicle. Failure, immediately upon receipt, to endorse "on deposit" instruments to such a trust account, or to set aside "on deposit" cash for deposit in such trust account, and failure to deposit such instruments or cash in such trust account by the close of banking hours on the day following receipt thereof, shall be evidence of intent to commit this unlawful practice: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a motor vehicle dealer may keep a separate trust account which equals his customary total customer deposits for vehicles for future delivery.

(10) For a dealer or manufacturer to fail to comply with the obligations of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer or manufacturer requiring the furnishing of goods and services or repairs within a reasonable period of time, or to fail to furnish to a purchaser, all parts which attach to the manufactured unit including but not limited to the undercarriage, and all items specified in the terms of a sales agreement signed by the seller and buyer.

(11) Being a manufacturer, other than a motorcycle manufacturer governed by chapter 46.94 RCW, to:

(a) Coerce or attempt to coerce any vehicle dealer to order or accept delivery of any vehicle or vehicles, parts or accessories, or any other commodities which have not been voluntarily ordered by the vehicle dealer: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument are not deemed to constitute coercion;

(b) Cancel or fail to renew the franchise or selling agreement of any vehicle dealer doing business in this state without fairly compensating the dealer at a fair going business value for his capital investment which shall include but not be limited to tools, equipment, and parts inventory possessed by the dealer on the day he is notified of such cancellation or termination and which are still within the dealer's possession on the day the cancellation or termination is effective, if: (i) The capital investment has been entered into with reasonable and prudent business judgment for the purpose of fulfilling the franchise; and (ii) said cancellation or nonrenewal was not done in good faith. Good faith is defined as the duty of each party to any franchise to act in a fair and equitable manner towards each other, so as to guarantee one party freedom from coercion, intimidation, or threats of coercion or intimidation from the other party: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument are not deemed to constitute a lack of good faith.

(c) Encourage, aid, abet, or teach a vehicle dealer to sell vehicles through any false, deceptive, or misleading sales or financing practices including but not limited to those practices declared unlawful in this section;

(d) Coerce or attempt to coerce a vehicle dealer to engage in any practice forbidden in this section by either threats of actual cancellation or failure to renew the dealer's franchise agreement;

(e) Refuse to deliver any vehicle publicly advertised for immediate delivery to any duly licensed vehicle dealer having a franchise or contractual agreement for the retail sale of new and unused vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer within sixty days after such dealer's order has been received in writing unless caused by inability to deliver because of shortage or curtailment of material, labor, transportation, or utility services, or by any labor or production difficulty, or by any cause beyond the reasonable control of the manufacturer;

(f) To provide under the terms of any warranty that a purchaser of any new or unused vehicle that has been sold, distributed for sale, or transferred into this state for resale by the vehicle manufacturer may only make any warranty claim on any item included as an integral part of the vehicle against the manufacturer of that item.

Nothing in this section may be construed to impair the obligations of a contract or to prevent a manufacturer, distributor, representative, or any other person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, from requiring performance of a written contract entered into with any licensee hereunder, nor does the requirement of such performance constitute a violation of any of the provisions of this section if any such contract or the terms thereof requiring performance, have been freely entered into and executed between the contracting parties.

Sec. 19. Section 21, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 19, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who is injured in his business or property by a violation of this chapter, or any person so injured because he refuses to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this chapter, may bring a civil action in the superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him together with the costs of the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Any person recovering judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice against a manufacturer pursuant to RCW ~~((46.70.186(7)(b)))~~ 46.70.180(11)(b) and this section shall, upon full payment of said judgment, or upon the dismissal of such claim, execute a waiver in favor of the judgment debtor or defendant of any claim arising prior to the date of said judgment or dismissal under the Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act, 15 United States Code Sections 1221-1225. Any person having recovered full payment for any judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice under said Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act shall have no cause of action under this section for alleged violation of RCW ~~((46.70.186(7)(b)))~~ 46.70.180(11)(b), with respect to matters arising prior to the date of said judgment.

A civil action brought in the superior court pursuant to the provisions of this section must be filed no later than one year following the alleged violation of this chapter.

Sec. 20. Section 17, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.200 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall revoke or refuse to issue a ~~((motor))~~ vehicle dealer's license for a franchise replacing a canceled or terminated franchise if a civil action pursuant to RCW 46.70.190 is pending and was filed within sixty days following the written notification of the cancellation or nonrenewal of an existing franchise and a certified copy of ~~((said))~~ the complaint alleging the date of said notification is filed with the department within said sixty days by the complaining motor vehicle dealer. The court may, however, in order to maintain adequate and competitive service in the area or upon a showing of good cause by the manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch order the director to issue ~~((said motor))~~ the vehicle dealer's license if the dealer complies with other sections of chapter 46.70 RCW.

Sec. 21. Section 18, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of a complaint pursuant to RCW 46.70.190 by a complaining ~~((motor))~~ vehicle dealer within sixty days following the written notification of the cancellation or nonrenewal of the existing franchise, any canceled or nonrenewed franchise of said complaining dealer shall stay in full force and effect until the complaint has been expeditiously disposed of, unless the court, pursuant to RCW 46.70.200, has ordered the director to issue a ~~((motor))~~ vehicle dealer's license to a new franchisee.

If a new franchise is given by a manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch for the sale of the same make of ~~((motor))~~ vehicle in the same area of responsibility in that covered in ~~((said))~~ the canceled or terminated franchise, ~~((such act shall be))~~ that act is prima facie evidence that the new franchise replaced the canceled or terminated franchise.

Sec. 22. Section 24, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to all franchises and contracts existing between ~~((motor))~~ vehicle dealers and manufacturers or factory branches and to all future franchises and contracts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

Any violation of this chapter is deemed to affect the public interest and constitutes a violation of chapter 19.86 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 8, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 10, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.081; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The department shall develop a specific plan for the full implementation of this act and shall report its findings to the legislative transportation committee by December 15, 1986. The plan shall include an evaluation of the feasibility of basing the annual license fee schedule on volume, rather than on the flat rates established in RCW 46.70.061, and shall consider the establishment of no fewer than five license fee categories.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 27. To carry out this act, the sum of three hundred seventy-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the department of licensing from the motor vehicle fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 28. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately, except section 9 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1986, and section 10 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1987."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Senator Warnke moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4497.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Bottiger, I am concerned about the possibility of requiring dealers to have two bonds if, because of space limitations, they maintain two locations. Is it your understanding that two bonds are required in this situation?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Newhouse, the dealers should not be required to have two bonds in the case that you've illustrated. If it's a sub-agency, the exemption that is provided in this bill should result in only one bond being required where space limitations necessitate two locations. With your agreement, Senator Newhouse, I will make sure that the Department of Licensing receives a copy of this colloquy so that they will understand our instructions in this regard."

Senator Newhouse: "Thank you, Senator."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Warnke that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4497.

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4927 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 51.36 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds and declares it to be in the public interest of the residents of the state of Washington that a proper regulatory and inspection program be instituted in connection with the provision of medical, dental, vocational, and other health services to industrially injured workers pursuant to Title 51 RCW. In order to effectively accomplish such purpose and to assure that the industrially injured worker receives such services as are paid for by the state of Washington, the acceptance by the industrially injured worker of such services, and the request by a provider of services for reimbursement for providing such services, shall authorize the director of the department of labor and industries or the director's authorized representative to inspect and audit all records in connection with the provision of such services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 51.36 RCW to read as follows:

The director of the department of labor and industries or the director's authorized representative shall have the authority to:

(1) Conduct audits and investigations of providers of medical, dental, vocational, and other health services furnished to industrially injured workers pursuant to Title 51 RCW. In the conduct of such audits or investigations, the director or the director's authorized representatives may examine all records, or portions thereof, including patient records, for which services were rendered by a health services provider and reimbursed by the department, notwithstanding the provisions of any other statute which may make or purport to make such records privileged or confidential: PROVIDED, That no original patient records shall be removed from the premises of the health services provider, and that the disclosure of any records or information obtained under authority of this section by the department of labor and industries is prohibited and constitutes a violation of RCW 42.22.040, unless such disclosure is directly connected to the official duties of the department: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the disclosure of patient information as required under this section shall not subject any physician or other health services provider to any liability for breach of any confidential relationships between the provider and the patient: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the director or the director's authorized representative shall destroy all copies of patient medical records in their possession upon completion of the audit, investigation, or proceedings;

(b) "Revised LEAP Document 7" means the computer tabulation of certificated and classified derived base salaries as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on February 27, 1986, at 9:41 hours.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lee: "Mr. President, last evening the request for free conference and so on was on our desks at 5:05 and along with it, of course, the large report. However, it seems that most of the members do not have another page that amends--in other words, an addendum to that report. I was just wondering if that was distributed to the members at the same time?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR McDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President and Senator Lee, on the report of the Free Conference Committee, you will notice the two amendments--New Section 904 and then on page 106--I personally laid this on everyone's desk. The one that I gave you originally was just the amendments. It did not have the Free Conference Report so they didn't get the same thing. You actually had a special piece of paper."

Senator Lee: "Mr. President, then the record will show that it's not only the Conference Report piece with 5:05 on it, but also the material that is labeled S-5101/86, second draft. It constitutes the request for Free Conference. Is that correct?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That is correct."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4762 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 9, 1986

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1722, requiring an air contaminant source operating permit, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. In the interest of the public health and welfare, and in keeping with the objectives of RCW 70.94.011, the legislature declares it to be the public policy of the state to control, reduce, and prevent air pollution caused by woodstove emissions and emissions from other indoor and outdoor air pollution sources. The legislature further declares it to be the public policy of the state to reduce woodstove and other emissions by encouraging the department of ecology to continue efforts to educate the public.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires to the contrary, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of ecology.

(2) "Woodstove" means a solid fuel burning device other than a fireplace, including any fireplace insert, woodstove, wood burning heater, wood stick boiler, coal-fired furnace, coal stove, or similar device burning any solid fuel used for aesthetic, cooking, or space-heating purposes and designed to be installed or used in a private residence or commercial establishment, which has a heat input less than one million btu's per hour.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Before March 31, 1988, the department shall establish by rule consistent with rules adopted by the environmental protection agency:

(1) Emission performance standards for new woodstoves;

(2) A program to determine (a) whether a woodstove complies with the emission performance standards established in subsection (1) of this section, and (b) to approve the sale of stoves that comply;

(3) Application fees to be assessed by the department on wholesalers, retailers, or manufacturers of woodstoves. These fees will be set to reflect the direct and indirect cost of administering the program described in subsection (2) of this section less any general fund or federal grant moneys appropriated to cover the start-up costs of the program, and shall not be assessed for testing previously performed in accordance with federal woodstove emission performance standards;

(4) Procedures for administering the program and for collecting fees for the approval of new woodstoves; and

(5) The form and content of an emission performance and heating efficiency label to be attached to a new woodstove meeting the emission performance standards.

In developing the rules, the department shall review regulations adopted by the federal government or other states and develop regulations compatible with the federal rules, remaining consistent with the purposes of this chapter. Local governments may adopt more stringent emission performance standards than those adopted by the United States environmental protection agency, as long as performance testing procedures are consistent with federal rules.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. By March 1, 1988, the department shall provide the appropriate standing committees of the legislature with a copy of the rules proposed in accordance with section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The department shall establish a program to educate woodstove dealers and the public about:

(1) The effects of woodstove emissions on health and air quality;

(2) How to achieve better woodstove efficiency and emission performance;

(3) Woodstoves that have been approved by the department; and

(4) The benefits of replacing or retrofitting inefficient used woodstoves, as defined in section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The department shall establish an advisory committee to aid and advise the department in the adoption of emission performance standards and establish means to inform the public. The members of the advisory committee shall include, but shall not be limited to, Washington woodstove manufacturers and retailers, and a certified chimney sweep from a recognized state chimney sweep guild.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. On and after January 1, 1989, no person shall advertise to sell, offer to sell, or sell a new woodstove in this state unless:

(1) The woodstove has been approved by the department under the program established under section 3 of this act and the proper application fee has been paid;

(2) An emission performance and heating efficiency label is attached to the woodstove, according to section 3 of this act; and

(3) An extension to January 1, 1990, shall be granted for:

(a) Woodstoves that are part of a retail inventory already existing on or before the official notification of state emission performance standards rules; and

(b) Woodstoves that have been ordered by a retailer from a manufacturer or wholesaler before the official notification of state emission performance standards rules.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. If, on or after January 1, 1989, a person advertises to sell, offers to sell, or sells a new woodstove in this state which does not comply with the conditions in section 7 of this act, such person shall be subject to the penalties and enforcement actions under RCW 70.94.430, 70.94.431, and 70.94.435.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The department shall provide assistance to local governments in developing strategies to reduce woodstove air pollution.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. (1) This chapter does not apply to a used woodstove.

(2) As used in this section, "used woodstove" means a woodstove that has been sold at retail, bargained, exchanged, given away, or has had its ownership transferred from the person who first acquired the woodstove from the manufacturer, the manufacturer's dealer or agency, or a retailer, and so used to have become what is commonly known as second hand within the ordinary meaning of that term.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall be added to chapter 70.94 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. The department of ecology shall establish a study team consisting of representatives of local air authorities, environmental organizations, and business organizations. The department, with the assistance of the study team, shall:

(1) Conduct a comprehensive study on the need for better management systems for controlling air pollution sources and, if determined necessary, methods to improve management;

(2) Thoroughly assess the existing stationary air pollution source regulatory system, its deficiencies, and ways to remedy them;

(3) Define the objectives of an air pollution source operating permit system;

(4) Assess programs in other states using permits or otherwise and compare their progress with the accomplishments achieved in Washington state;

(5) Evaluate the need for an air pollution source operating permit program, including: (a) A comparison with the accomplishments of the existing regulatory system, (b) the sources and emissions included and excluded, (c) government and private resources needed, (d) fees anticipated, (e) schedule for implementation, (f) time involved to establish and maintain the program, (g) its effect on air quality, (h) its impact on sources covered, and (i) its overall cost-effectiveness; and

(6) Identify alternatives to an air pollution source permit program and analyze the advantages and disadvantages of each.

By December 15, 1986, the department of ecology shall report the conclusions of the study to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. (1) No person may smoke in any portion of a state owned or leased building that is occupied by state employees, except as provided in sections 13 through 17 of this act.

(2) Sections 13 through 17 of this act apply to all employees of the executive, judicial, and legislative branches of state government.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. (1) Because the smoking of tobacco or any other weed or plant is a danger to health and is a cause of material annoyance and discomfort to those who are present in confined places, the legislature declares that the purposes of sections 13 through 17 of this act are (a) to protect the public health and welfare by regulating smoking in state agencies and (b) to minimize the toxic effects of smoking in the workplace by requiring state agencies to adopt a policy that will accommodate, insofar as possible, the preferences of nonsmokers and smokers and, if a satisfactory accommodation cannot be reached, to prohibit smoking in the workplace.

(2) Sections 13 through 17 of this act are not intended to create any right to smoke or to impair or alter a state agency's prerogative to prohibit smoking in the workplace. Rather, if a state agency allows employees to smoke in the workplace, then sections 13 through 17 of this act require (a) that the agency make accommodations for the preferences of both nonsmoking and smoking employees, and (b) if a satisfactory accommodation to all affected nonsmoking employees cannot be reached, that the agency prohibit smoking in the workplace.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. Unless the context clearly requires to the contrary, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 13 through 17 of this act:

(1) "Agency" means any agency or commission of the state government.

(2) "Employee" means any person who is employed by any state agency in consideration for direct or indirect monetary wages or profit.

(3) "Workplace" means any enclosed area of a structure or portion thereof intended for occupancy.

(4) "Smoking" or "to smoke" means and includes inhaling, exhaling, burning, or carrying any lighted smoking equipment for tobacco or any other weed or plant.

(5) "Enclosed" means closed-in by a roof and four walls with appropriate openings for ingress and egress and is not intended to mean areas commonly described as public lobbies.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. (1) Each state agency that operates a workplace in this state shall within three months of the effective date of this act adopt, implement, and maintain, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, a written smoking policy that contains, at a minimum, the following provisions and requirements:

(a) Any nonsmoking employee may object to the agency about smoke in the workplace. Using already available means of ventilation or separation or partition of space, the agency shall attempt to reach a reasonable accommodation, insofar as possible, between the preferences of nonsmoking and smoking employees. However, an agency is not required by sections 13 through 17 of this act to make any expenditures or structural changes to accommodate the preferences of nonsmoking or smoking employees.

(b) If an accommodation that is satisfactory to all affected nonsmoking employees cannot be reached in any given workplace, the preferences of nonsmoking employees shall prevail and the agency shall prohibit smoking in that workplace. If the agency prohibits smoking in a workplace, the area in which smoking is prohibited shall be clearly marked with signs.

(2) The smoking policy shall be announced within three weeks of adoption to all employees working in workplaces in the state and posted conspicuously in all workplaces under the agency's jurisdiction.

(3) The director of the department of labor and industries may adopt rules to exempt workplaces from this section if the workplace meets the minimum standards established by the department. The standards shall include a minimum volume of air per occupant, a minimum frequency of air changes in the workplace, and a minimum proximity of smokers to nonsmokers.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. (1) It is unlawful for an agency to discharge or in any manner discriminate against any employee who exercises his or her rights under sections 13 through 17 of this act if the dominant intent of the agency is retaliation against the employee for exercising those rights.

(2) In undertaking the enforcement of sections 13 through 17 of this act, the state is assuming an undertaking only to promote the general welfare. It is not assuming, nor is it imposing on its officers and employees, an obligation for breach of which it is liable in money damages to any person who claims that the breach proximately caused injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 13 through 17 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "air act;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 70.94 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; and creating a new section."

Signed by Senators Kreidler and Talmadge; Representatives Rust, Lux and Allen.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, this bill that we have before us has a series of other bills attached to it, one of which I intend to raise scope and object, or at least—excuse me—a member intends to raise scope and object. Would it be appropriate to do it at the time of request for Free Conference or would we waive it if we did not raise it here?"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "I guess I apologize for not having been here when the question was raised, but is the point of order of scope and object appropriate to raise at this time concerning the Free Conference Committee Report?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President would like a few minutes to study the situation. If there's no objection, I should like to defer making the judgment until a later time."

Senator Goltz: "Thank you, Mr. President. I may be off the floor for awhile, so if I'm not here I would hope that it would be held until I come back to make the motion."

President Cherberg: "Thank you, we'll honor that."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of the Conference Committee Report on Substitute House Bill No. 1722 was deferred.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 9, 1986

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1447, modifying accounting and reporting requirements for public works contracts, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 1, chapter 98, Laws of 1982 and RCW 39.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The term state shall include the state of Washington and all departments, supervisors, commissioners and agencies thereof.

The term municipality shall include every city, county, town, district or other public agency thereof which is authorized by law to require the execution of public work, except drainage districts, diking districts, diking and drainage improvement districts, drainage improvement districts, diking improvement districts, consolidated diking and drainage improvement districts, consolidated drainage improvement districts, consolidated diking improvement districts, irrigation districts or any such other districts as shall from time to time be authorized by law for the reclamation or development of waste or undeveloped lands.

The term public work shall include all work, construction, alteration, repair, or improvement other than ordinary maintenance, executed at the cost of the state or of any municipality, or which is by law a lien or charge on any property therein, but nothing herein shall apply to

~~((Cost of superintendence, engineering, clerical and accounting service shall include all expenditures specially incurred for such service, and shall include a proportionate charge for the time of all salaried officers, engineers, clerks, accountants and employees of the state or municipality while engaged in such work or in keeping or preparing the estimates, accounts and records thereof.))~~

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 4, chapter 98, Laws of 1982 and RCW 39.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the state, or any municipality shall determine that any public work is necessary to be done it shall cause plans ~~(and/or)~~, specifications, or both thereof and an estimate of the cost of such work to be made and filed in the office of the director, supervisor, commissioner, trustee, board or agency having by law the authority to require such work to be done. The plans, specifications, and estimates of cost shall be approved by the director, supervisor, commissioner, trustee, board, or agency and the original draft or a certified copy filed in such office before further action is taken.

If the state, or such municipality shall determine that it is necessary or advisable that such work shall be executed by any means or method other than by contract or by a small works roster process, and it shall appear by such estimate that the probable cost of executing such work will exceed the sum of ~~((twenty-five hundred dollars, or twenty-five thousand dollars if such work is let from a small works roster created pursuant to RCW 39.04.150))~~ fifteen thousand dollars, then the state or such municipality shall at least fifteen days before beginning work cause such estimate, together with a description of the work, to be published at least once in a legal newspaper of general circulation published in or as near as possible to that part of the county in which such work is to be done: PROVIDED, That when any emergency shall require the immediate execution of such public work, upon a finding of the existence of such emergency by the authority having power to direct such public work to be done and duly entered of record, publication of description and estimate may be made within seven days after the commencement of the work.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 and RCW 39.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the state or any municipality shall execute any public work by any means or method other than by contract or small works roster, it shall cause to be kept and preserved a full, true and accurate account and record of the costs of executing such work in accordance with the budgeting, accounting, and reporting system provisions prescribed by law for the state agency or municipality.

~~((Such account and record shall show in accurately tabulated form and under appropriate headings the totals of all classes and kinds of work performed, the total cost and unit cost of each class, together with the costs of executing such work, including, under separate headings, the costs of labor, material, equipment purchased, provisions and supplies, rental of equipment, industrial insurance and medical aid, superintendence, engineering, clerical and accounting service, the reasonable value, including depreciation, of the use of equipment owned by the state or municipality, and all other expenses incurred therein.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 and RCW 39.04.090 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. For purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Refuse collection business" means every person who receives waste for transfer, storage, or disposal including but not limited to all collection services, public or private dumps, transfer stations, and similar operations.

(2) "Person" shall have the meaning given in RCW 82.04.030 or any later, superseding section.

(3) "Waste" means garbage, trash, rubbish, or other material discarded as worthless or not economically viable for further use. The term does not include hazardous or toxic waste nor does it include material collected primarily for recycling or salvage.

(4) "Taxpayer" means that person upon whom the refuse collection tax is imposed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is imposed on each person using the services of a refuse collection business a refuse collection tax equal to three and six-tenths percent of the consideration charged for the services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The person collecting the charges made for using the refuse collection business shall collect the tax imposed in section 6 of this act. If any person charged with collecting the tax fails to bill the taxpayer for the tax, or in the alternative has not notified the taxpayer in writing of the imposition of the tax, or having collected the tax, fails to pay it to the department in the manner prescribed by this chapter, whether such failure is the result of the person's own acts or the result of acts or conditions beyond the person's control, he or she shall, nevertheless, be personally liable to the state for the amount of the tax.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Taxes collected under this chapter shall be held in trust until paid to the state. Taxes so received by the state shall be deposited in the public works assistance account created in RCW 43.155.050. Any person collecting the tax who appropriates or converts the tax collected shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor if the money required to be collected is not available for payment on the date payment is due. If a taxpayer fails to pay the tax imposed by this chapter to the person charged with collection of the tax and the person charged with collection fails to pay the tax to the department, the department may, in its discretion, proceed directly against the taxpayer for collection of the tax.

The tax shall be due from the taxpayer within twenty-five days from the date the taxpayer is billed by the person collecting the tax.

The tax shall be due from the person collecting the tax at the end of the tax period in which the tax is received from the taxpayer. If the taxpayer remits only a portion of the total amount billed for taxes, consideration, and related charges, the amount remitted shall be applied first to payment of the refuse collection tax and this tax shall have priority over all other claims to the amount remitted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The refuse collection tax shall not apply to any agency, division, or branch of the federal government or to services rendered under a contract therewith.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. To prevent pyramiding and multiple taxation of a single transaction, this tax shall not apply to any refuse collection business using the services of another refuse collection business for the transfer, storage, or disposal of the waste collected during the transaction.

To be eligible for this exemption, a person first must be certified by the department of revenue as a refuse collection business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Chapter 82.32 RCW applies to the tax imposed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The department of revenue shall have the power to enforce the tax imposed in this chapter through appropriate rules.

Sec. 14. Section 82.16.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 10, chapter 471, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is levied and there shall be collected from every person a tax for the act or privilege of engaging within this state in any one or more of the businesses herein mentioned. The tax shall be equal to the gross income of the business, multiplied by the rate set out after the business, as follows:

(a) Railroad, express, railroad car, sewerage collection, light and power, and telegraph businesses: Three and six-tenths percent;

(b) Gas distribution business: Three and six-tenths percent;

(c) Urban transportation business: Six-tenths of one percent;

(d) Vessels under sixty-five feet in length, except tugboats, operating upon the waters within the state: Six-tenths of one percent;

(e) Motor transportation and tugboat businesses, and all public service businesses other than ones mentioned above: One and eight-tenths of one percent;

(f) Water distribution (~~and refuse collection~~) business(es): Four and seven-tenths percent.

(2) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the tax payable under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Twenty percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on water distribution businesses (~~(- seventy percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on refuse collection businesses;))~~ and sixty percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on sewerage collection businesses shall be deposited in the public works assistance account created in RCW 43.155.050.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 6 through 13 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 82 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The legislature finds that the regulation, management, and disposal of solid waste through waste reduction, recycling, and the use of resource recovery facilities of the kind described in RCW 35.92.022 and 36.58.040 should be conducted in a manner substantially consistent with the priorities and policies of the Solid Waste Management Act, chapter 70.95 RCW. Nothing contained in sections 17 through 20 of this act shall detract from the powers, duties, and functions given to the utilities and transportation commission in chapter 81.77 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 35.92 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the charter of any city, the legislative authority of a city or town may contract with one or more private vendors for one or more of the design, construction, or operation function of systems and plants for solid waste handling, as defined in RCW 70.95.030 and in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. Contracts shall be for facilities that are in substantial compliance with the solid waste management plans prepared pursuant to chapter 70.95 RCW. Such systems and plants may be owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the city or town, or owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the private vendor.

(2) The legislative authority shall publish notice of its requirements and request submission of qualifications for the design, construction, and operation of solid waste handling systems and plants. The notice shall be published in the official newspaper of the city or town at least once a week for two weeks not less than sixty days before the final date for the submission of qualifications. The notice shall (a) state in summary form, the general scope and nature of the system and plant or work for which the services are required, (b) the name and address of a representative of the city or town who can provide further details, and (c) the final date for the submission of qualifications.

(3) If the legislative authority of the city or town decides to proceed with the construction of a resource recovery facility or one or more of the services to be provided for such a facility, it may designate a representative to evaluate the vendors who submitted qualifications and conduct discussions regarding proposals with one or more vendors. The representative of the legislative authority shall recommend to the legislative authority a vendor, based upon criteria established by the city or town, which shall not be determined solely by price but by all terms of the contract, who is initially determined to be the best qualified to provide one or more of the services required for the proposed project. If two or more vendors submit qualifications, at least two vendors shall be interviewed. One or more vendors may be selected to provide services. The legislative authority or its representative shall attempt to negotiate a contract with the first vendor selected for one or more of the construction, design, or operation portions of the proposed project at a price and on other terms that the legislative authority determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the city or town. Only the legislative authority may approve and sign the contract: PROVIDED, That where a contract for design is entered into separately from other services permitted under this act, procurement shall be in accord with chapter 39.80 RCW. If the legislative authority or its representative is unable to negotiate such a contract with the first vendor selected on terms that it determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the city or town, negotiations with that vendor shall be formally terminated and other vendors may be selected in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. If the legislative authority decides to continue the process of selection, negotiations shall continue in accordance with this section at the sole discretion of the legislative authority until an agreement is reached with one or more vendors, or the process is terminated by the legislative authority. The process may be repeated until an agreement is reached.

(4) Prior to entering into such a contract with a vendor, the legislative authority of the city or town must have made written findings, after holding a public hearing on the proposal, that it is in the public interest to enter into the contract and that the contract is financially sound and advantageous compared to other methods.

(5) Each contract shall include project performance bonds or other security by the vendor which in the judgment of the legislative authority of the city or town is sufficient to secure adequate performance by the vendor.

(6) The provisions of chapters 39.12, 39.19, and 39.25 RCW shall apply to a contract entered into under this section to the same extent as if the systems and plants were owned by a public body.

Sec. 18. Section 35.21.120, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.21.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Every city (~~and~~) or town may by ordinance provide for the establishment of a system of garbage collection and disposal for the entire city or town or for portions thereof, and award contracts for garbage collection and disposal or provide for it under the direction of officials and employees of the city or town. Contracts for solid waste handling may provide that a city or town pay a minimum periodic fee in consideration of the operational availability of a solid waste handling system or plant, without regard to the ownership of the system or plant or the amount of solid waste actually handled during all or any part of the contract period. There shall be included in the contract specific allocation of financial responsibility in cases where the amount of solid waste handled during the contract period falls below the minimum level provided in the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 36.58 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the charter of any county, the legislative authority of a county may contract with one or more private vendors for one or more of the design, construction, or operation function of systems and plants for solid waste handling, as defined in RCW 70.95.030 and in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. Such systems and plants may be owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the county, or owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the private vendor.

(2) The legislative authority shall publish notice of its requirements and request submission of qualifications for the design, construction, and operation of solid waste handling systems and plants. The notice shall be published in the official newspaper of the county at least once a week for two weeks not less than sixty days before the final date for the submission of qualifications. The notice shall state in summary form (a) the general scope and nature of the system and plant or work for which the services are required, (b) the name and address of a representative of the county who can provide further details, and (c) the final date for the submission of qualifications.

(3) If the legislative authority of the county decides to proceed with the construction of a resource recovery facility or one or more of the services to be provided for such a facility, it may designate a representative to evaluate the vendors who submitted qualifications and conduct discussions regarding proposals with one or more vendors. The representative of the legislative authority shall recommend to the legislative authority a vendor, based upon criteria established by the county, which shall not be determined solely by price but by all terms of the contract, who is initially determined to be the best qualified to provide one or more of the services required for the proposed project. If two or more vendors submit qualifications, at least two vendors shall be interviewed. One or more vendors may be interviewed and selected to provide services. The legislative authority or its representative shall attempt to negotiate a contract with the first vendor selected for one or more of the construction, design, or operation portions of the proposed project at a price and on other terms that the legislative authority determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the county. Only the legislative authority may approve and sign the contract: PROVIDED, That where a contract for design is entered into separately from other services permitted under this act, procurement shall be in accord with chapter 39.80 RCW. If the legislative authority or its representative is unable to negotiate such a contract with the first vendor selected on terms that it determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the county, negotiations with that vendor shall be formally terminated and other vendors may be selected in accordance with the procedures set forth above. If the legislative authority decides to continue the process of selection, negotiations shall continue in accordance with this section at the sole discretion of the legislative authority until an agreement is reached with one or more vendors, or the process is terminated by the legislative authority. The process may be repeated until an agreement is reached.

(4) Prior to entering into such a contract with a vendor, the legislative authority of the county must have made written findings, after holding a public hearing on the proposal, that it is in the public interest to enter into the contract and that the contract is financially sound and advantageous compared to other methods.

(5) Each contract shall include project performance bonds or other security by the vendor which in the judgment of the legislative authority of the county is sufficient to secure adequate performance by the vendor.

(6) The provisions of chapters 39.12, 39.19, and 39.25 RCW shall apply to a contract entered into under this section to the same extent as if the systems and plants were owned by a public body.

Sec. 20. Section 2, chapter 58, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 36.58.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authority of each county may by ordinance provide for the establishment of a system of solid waste disposal for all the unincorporated areas of the county or for portions thereof. Each county may designate disposal sites for all solid waste collected in the unincorporated areas pursuant to the provisions of a comprehensive solid waste plan adopted pursuant to chapter 70.95 RCW: PROVIDED, That for any solid waste collected by a private hauler operating pursuant to a certificate granted by the Washington utilities and transportation commission under the provisions of chapter 81.77 RCW and which certificate is for collection in a geographic area lying in more than one county, such designation of disposal sites shall be pursuant to an interlocal agreement between the involved counties.

Such systems may also provide for the processing and conversion of solid wastes into other valuable or useful products with full jurisdiction and authority to construct, lease, purchase, acquire, manage, regulate, maintain, operate, and control such system and plants, and to enter into agreements with public or private parties providing for the construction, purchase, acquisition, lease, maintenance, and operation of systems and plants for the processing and conversion of solid wastes and for the sale of said products. Contracts shall be for facilities that are in substantial compliance with the solid waste management plans prepared pursuant to chapter 70.95 RCW.

The legislative authority of a county may award contracts for solid waste handling, and such contracts may provide that a county pay a minimum periodic fee in consideration of the operational availability of a solid waste handling system or plant, without regard to the ownership of the system or plant or the amount of solid waste actually handled during all or any part of the contractual period. There shall be included in the contract specific allocation of financial responsibility in cases where the amount of solid waste handled during the contract period falls below the minimum level provided in the contract.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the operation of a solid waste collection system by counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 16 through 20 of this act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the state and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes. Sections 16 through 20 of this act shall be deemed to provide an alternative method for the performance of those subjects authorized by these sections and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by the Washington state Constitution, other state laws, and the charter of any city or county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, That Jerry Thomas be deeply and gratefully thanked for his long-time service to the people of this state, and furthermore, that his retirement as assistant secretary of the Department of Social and Health Services be marked with our sincere best wishes for the next chapter of his distinguished career.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUEST

The President introduced Mr. Gerald E. Thomas who was seated with him on the rostrum.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1722 and the pending parliamentary inquiry by Senator Bottiger, deferred earlier today.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In reply to the point of inquiry raised by Senator Bottiger with regard to Substitute House Bill No. 1722, the President believes that Joint Rule 8 applies. That rule provides in pertinent part, 'In case of failure of the conferees to agree on matters directly at issue between the two houses, the committee may in addition consider new proposed items within the scope and object of the title of the bill in conference for purpose of requesting the powers of free conference.'

"This language allowing the conferees to consider 'New proposed items within the scope and object of the title of the bill' leads the President to the conclusion that a point of order questioning whether the proposed Free Conference Report is within the scope and object of the title is properly raised either at the time of requesting the powers of free conference or at the time of the adoption of the Free Conference Report. Failure to raise the point of order at the time of requesting the powers of Free Conference does not preclude the members from raising the point at the time of adoption of the Free Conference Report.

"The President takes this opportunity to remind the members that 'New proposed items' in Free Conference Reports need only fit the scope and object of the title of the bill in Free conference. This is a broader rule than used in proceedings prior to Free Conference."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I take it that means we have no knowledge if the Free Conference Committee might change their minds after we've approved--or it's concerned only in what they tell us in their Free Conference Report they're going to adopt."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Secretary advises that the Free Conference Report will be on the desk twenty-four hours prior and that will give you an opportunity to decide what you wish to do."

Senator Rasmussen: "And at the time that we've come to the final adoption of the bill, we can still raise scope and object?"

President Cherberg: "Yes, sir."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Mr. President."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1722 was deferred.

MOTION

At 11:41 a.m., on motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by President Cherberg.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 136 with the following amendments:

- On page 1, line 8, strike "judicial qualifications" and insert "(~~judicial qualifications~~)"
- On page 1, line 9, after "commission" insert "on judicial conduct"
- On page 1, line 25, strike "judicial qualifications" and insert "(~~judicial qualifications~~)"
- On page 1, line 26, after "commission" insert "on judicial conduct"
- On page 1, after line 29, insert the following paragraphs:

"Whenever the commission receives a complaint against a judge or justice, it shall first conduct proceedings for the purpose of determining whether sufficient reason exists for conducting a hearing or hearings to deal with the accusations. These initial proceedings shall be confidential, unless confidentiality is waived by the judge or justice, but all subsequent hearings conducted by the commission shall be open to members of the public.

Whenever the commission adopts a recommendation that a judge or justice be removed, the judge or justice shall be suspended immediately, with salary, from his or her judicial position until a final determination is made by the supreme court."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Joint Resolution No. 136.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Talmadge, in the second part--'Whenever a commission adopts a recommendation that a judge be removed, the judge will be suspended immediately until a final decision is made by the court.' In that particular part of it, would you explain the procedure as to just why that is a good idea?"

Senator Talmadge: "Well, the concern is, under present law, Senator Zimmerman, a judge that was subject to a recommendation from the commission that he or she be suspended or fully removed from office would technically be entitled to continue in their role as a judge until such time as the Supreme Court actually made the final decision. Actually the work of the commission is as of an entity making recommendations to the Supreme Court which has the final word, so consequently you could have a time period of some duration during which the judge would be sitting and hearing cases even though a recommendation had been made to remove or suspend that judge."

Senator Zimmerman: "I appreciate that. He would still be paid, however, until he is removed--he would still be paid until such a time--"

Senator Talmadge: "That's right because of the presumption of innocence until such time that that judge is found to be subject to removal."

Senator Zimmerman: "That's fine. Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Joint Resolution No. 136.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Joint Resolution No. 136.

*Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 180, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 47.10.791 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon request being made by the transportation commission, the state finance committee shall supervise and provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of the bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.790 in accordance with the provisions of chapter 39.42 RCW. The amount of such bonds issued and sold under the provisions of RCW 47.10.790 through 47.10.798 in any biennium may not exceed the amount of a specific appropriation therefor. Such bonds may be sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary for the orderly progress of the state highway improvements specified in RCW 47.10.790. The bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such time or times, in such amounts, and at such price or prices as the state finance committee shall determine. The state finance committee may obtain insurance, letters of credit, or other credit facility devices with respect to the bonds and may authorize the execution and delivery of agreements, promissory notes, and other obligations for the purpose of insuring the payment or enhancing the marketability of the bonds. Promissory notes or other obligations issued under this section shall not constitute a debt or the contracting of indebtedness under any constitutional or statutory indebtedness limitation if their payment is conditioned upon the failure of the state to pay the principal of or interest on the bonds with respect to which the promissory notes or other obligations relate. The state finance committee may authorize the issuance of short-term obligations in lieu of long-term obligations for the purposes of more favorable interest rates, lower total interest costs, and increased marketability and for the purposes of retiring the bonds during the life of the project for which they were issued.

Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 180, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 47.10.792 are each amended to read as follows:

The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.790 shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund and such proceeds shall be available only for the purposes enumerated in RCW 47.10.790, for the payment of bond anticipation notes, if any, and for the payment of the expense incurred in the drafting, printing, issuance, and sale of such bonds. The costs of obtaining insurance, letters of credit, or other credit enhancement devices with respect to the bonds shall be considered to be expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds.

Sec. 8. Section 1, chapter 360, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1985 and RCW 47.60.560 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to provide funds necessary for vessel acquisition, vessel construction, major and minor vessel improvements, and terminal construction and improvements for the Washington state ferries, there shall be issued and sold upon the request of the department general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of one hundred thirty-five million dollars or such amount thereof as may be required (together with other funds available therefor). If the state of Washington is able to obtain matching funds from the urban mass transportation administration or other federal government agencies for the acquisition of passenger-only vessels capable of operating as an integral part of the Washington state ferries on Puget Sound and the Straits of Juan de Fuca, a sufficient amount of the proceeds of the bonds authorized herein shall be used to pay the state's share of the acquisition cost of the passenger-only vessels. Upon request being made by the department, the state finance committee shall supervise and provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of the bonds in accordance with chapter 39.42 RCW. The bonds may be sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary for the orderly progress in constructing the ferries. The bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such time or times, in such amounts, and at such price or prices as the state finance committee shall determine. The state finance committee may obtain insurance, letters of credit, or other credit facility devices with respect to the bonds and may authorize the execution and delivery of agreements, promissory notes, and other obligations for the purpose of insuring the payment or enhancing the marketability of the bonds. Promissory notes or other obligations issued under this section shall not constitute a debt or the contracting of indebtedness under any constitutional or statutory indebtedness limitation if their payment is conditioned upon the failure of the state to pay the principal of or interest on the bonds with respect to which the promissory notes or other obligations relate. The state finance committee may authorize the issuance of short-term obligations in lieu of long-term obligations for the purposes of more favorable interest rates, lower total interest costs, and increased marketability and for the purposes of retiring the bonds during the life of the project for which they were issued.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1986

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4630 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 100. PREAMBLE. Tort law in this state has generally been developed by the courts on a case-by-case basis. While this process has resulted in some significant changes in the law, including amelioration of the harshness of many common law doctrines, the legislature has periodically intervened in order to bring about needed reforms. The purpose of this chapter is to enact further reforms in order to create a more equitable distribution of the cost and risk of injury and increase the availability and affordability of insurance.

The legislature finds that counties, cities, and other governmental entities are faced with increased exposure to lawsuits and awards and dramatic increases in the cost of insurance coverage. These escalating costs ultimately affect the public through higher taxes, loss of essential services, and loss of the protection provided by adequate insurance. In order to improve the availability and affordability of quality governmental services, comprehensive reform is necessary.

The legislature also finds comparable cost increases in professional liability insurance. Escalating malpractice insurance premiums discourage physicians and other health care providers from initiating or continuing their practice or offering needed services to the public and contribute to the rising costs of consumer health care. Other professionals, such as architects and engineers, face similar difficult choices, financial instability, and unlimited risk in providing services to the public.

The legislature also finds that general liability insurance is becoming unavailable or unaffordable to many businesses, individuals, and nonprofit organizations in amounts sufficient to cover potential losses. High premiums have discouraged socially and economically desirable activities and encourage many to go without adequate insurance coverage.

Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature to reduce costs associated with the tort system, while assuring that adequate and appropriate compensation for persons injured through the fault of others is available.

PART I

ACCELERATED PHYSICIAN-PATIENT PRIVILEGE

Sec. 101. Section 294, page 187, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1982 and RCW 5.60.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A husband shall not be examined for or against his wife, without the consent of the wife, nor a wife for or against her husband without the consent of the husband; nor can either during marriage or afterward, be without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during marriage. But this exception shall not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding against a spouse if the marriage occurred subsequent to the filing of formal charges against the defendant, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by said husband or wife against any child of whom said husband or wife is the parent or guardian, nor to a proceeding under chapter 71.05 RCW: PROVIDED, That the spouse of a person sought to be detained under chapter 71.05 RCW may not be compelled to testify and shall be so informed by the court prior to being called as a witness.

(3) A clergyman or priest shall not, without the consent of a person making the confession, be examined as to any confession made to him in his professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he belongs.

(4) A ((regular)) physician or surgeon or osteopathic physician or surgeon shall not, without the consent of his patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired in attending such patient, which was necessary to enable him to prescribe or act for the patient, ~~((but this exception shall not apply in any judicial proceeding regarding a child's injuries, neglect or sexual abuse, or the cause thereof))~~ except as follows:

(a) In any judicial proceedings regarding a child's injury, neglect, or sexual abuse or the cause thereof; and

(b) Within ninety days of filing an action for personal injuries or wrongful death, the claimant shall elect whether or not to waive the physician-patient privilege. If the claimant does not waive the physician-patient privilege, the claimant may not put his or her mental or physical condition or that of his or her decedent or beneficiaries in issue and may not waive the privilege later in the proceedings. Waiver of the physician-patient privilege for any one physician or condition constitutes a waiver of the privilege as to all physicians or conditions, subject to such limitations as a court may impose pursuant to court rules.

(5) A public officer shall not be examined as a witness as to communications made to him in official confidence, when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

PART II

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

The court shall, upon petition by a named party in any tort action, except those provided for in RCW 7.70.070, determine the reasonableness of that party's attorneys' fees. The court shall take into consideration the following:

(2) The likelihood, if apparent to the client, that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer;

(3) The fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services;

(4) The amount involved and the results obtained;

(8) Whether the fee is fixed or contingent;

(9) Whether the fixed or contingent fee agreement was in writing and whether the client was aware of his or her right to petition the court under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. Section 201 of this act applies to agreements for attorney's fees entered into after the effective date of this section.

PART III
LIMITATION ON NONECONOMIC DAMAGES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) "Economic damages" means objectively verifiable monetary losses, including medical expenses, loss of earnings, burial costs, loss of use of property, cost of replacement or repair, cost of obtaining substitute domestic services, loss of employment, and loss of business or employment opportunities.

(b) "Noneconomic damages" means subjective, nonmonetary losses, including, but not limited to pain, suffering, inconvenience, mental anguish, disability or disfigurement incurred by the injured party, emotional distress, loss of society and companionship, loss of consortium, injury to reputation and humiliation, and destruction of the parent-child relationship.

(c) "Bodily injury" means physical injury, sickness, or disease, including death.

(d) "Average annual wage" means the average annual wage in the state of Washington as determined under RCW 50.04.355.

(2) In no action seeking damages for personal injury or death may a claimant recover a judgment for noneconomic damages exceeding an amount determined by multiplying 0.43 by the average annual wage and by the life expectancy of the person incurring noneconomic damages, as the life expectancy is determined by the life expectancy tables adopted by the insurance commissioner. For purposes of determining the maximum amount allowable for noneconomic damages, a claimant's life expectancy shall not be less than fifteen years. The limitation contained in this subsection applies to all claims for noneconomic damages made by a claimant who incurred bodily injury. Claims for loss of consortium, loss of society and companionship, destruction of the parent-child relationship, and all other derivative claims asserted by persons who did not sustain bodily injury are to be included within the limitation on claims for noneconomic damages arising from the same bodily injury.

(3) If a case is tried to a jury, the jury shall not be informed of the limitation contained in subsection (2) of this section.

PART IV
APPORTIONMENT OF DAMAGES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. A new section is added to chapter 4.22 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In all actions involving fault of more than one entity, the trier of fact shall determine the percentage of the total fault which is attributable to every entity which caused the claimant's damages, including the claimant or person suffering personal injury or incurring property damage, defendants, third-party defendants, entities released by the claimant, entities immune from liability to the claimant and entities with any other individual defense against the claimant. Judgment shall be entered against each defendant except those who have been released by the claimant or are immune from liability to the claimant or have prevailed on any other individual defense against the claimant in an amount which represents that party's proportionate share of the claimant's total damages. The liability of each defendant shall be several only and shall not be joint except:

(a) A party shall be responsible for the fault of another person or for payment of the proportionate share of another party where both were acting in concert or when a person was acting as an agent or servant of the party.

(b) If the trier of fact determines that the claimant or party suffering bodily injury or incurring property damages was not at fault, the defendants against whom judgment is entered shall be jointly and severally liable for the sum of their proportionate shares of the claimant's total damages.

(2) If a defendant is jointly and severally liable under one of the exceptions listed in subsections (1)(a) or (1)(b) of this section, such defendant's rights to contribution against another jointly and severally liable defendant, and the effect of settlement by either such defendant, shall be determined under RCW 4.22.040, 4.22.050, and 4.22.060.

(3)(a) Nothing in this section affects any cause of action relating to hazardous wastes or substances or solid waste disposal sites.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect a cause of action arising from the tortious interference with contracts or business relations.

(c) Nothing in this section shall affect any cause of action arising from the manufacture or marketing of a fungible product in a generic form which contains no clearly identifiable shape, color, or marking.

Sec. 402. Section 11, chapter 27, Laws of 1981 and RCW 4.22.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 401 of this 1986 act, if more than one person is liable to a claimant on an indivisible claim for the same injury, death or harm, the liability of such persons shall be joint and several.

Sec. 403. Section 4, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 218, Laws of 1984 and RCW 51.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the injured worker or beneficiary elects to seek damages from the third person, any recovery made shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The costs and reasonable attorneys' fees shall be paid proportionately by the injured worker or beneficiary and the department and/or self-insurer;

(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the award: PROVIDED, That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent;

(c) The department and/or self-insurer shall be paid the balance of the recovery made, but only to the extent necessary to reimburse the department and/or self-insurer for compensation and benefits paid;

(i) The department and/or self-insurer shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the worker or beneficiary to the extent of the benefits paid or payable under this title: PROVIDED, That the department or self-insurer may require court approval of costs and attorneys' fees or may petition a court for determination of the reasonableness of costs and attorneys' fees.

(ii) The sum representing the department's and/or self-insurer's proportionate share shall not be subject to subsection (1) (d) and (e) of this section.

(d) Any remaining balance shall be paid to the injured worker or beneficiary;

(e) Thereafter no payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of any further compensation and benefits shall equal any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no recovery had been made from a third person;

(f) If the employer or a co-employee are determined under section 401 of this 1986 act to be at fault, (c) and (e) of this subsection do not apply and benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no recovery had been made from a third person.

(2) The recovery made shall be subject to a lien by the department and/or self-insurer for its share under this section.

(3) The department or self-insurer has sole discretion to compromise the amount of its lien. In deciding whether or to what extent to compromise its lien, the department or self-insurer shall consider at least the following:

(a) The likelihood of collection of the award or settlement as may be affected by insurance coverage, solvency, or other factors relating to the third person;

(b) Factual and legal issues of liability as between the injured worker or beneficiary and the third person. Such issues include but are not limited to possible contributory negligence and novel theories of liability; and

(c) Problems of proof faced in obtaining the award or settlement.

(4) In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer's experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation and benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

(5) In an action under this section, the self-insurer may act on behalf and for the benefit of the department to the extent of any compensation and benefits paid or payable from state funds.

(6) It shall be the duty of the person to whom any recovery is paid before distribution under this section to advise the department or self-insurer of the fact and amount of such recovery, the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees associated with the recovery, and to distribute the recovery in compliance with this section.

(7) The distribution of any recovery made by award or settlement of the third party action shall be confirmed by department order, served by registered or certified mail, and shall be subject to chapter 51.52 RCW. In the event the order of distribution becomes final under chapter 51.52 RCW, the director or the director's designee may file with the clerk of any county within the state a warrant in the amount of the sum representing the unpaid lien plus interest accruing from the date the order became final. The clerk of the county in which the warrant is filed shall immediately designate a superior court cause number for such warrant and the clerk shall cause to be entered in the judgment docket under the superior court cause number assigned to the warrant, the name of such worker or beneficiary mentioned in the warrant, the amount of the unpaid lien plus interest accrued and the date when the warrant was filed. The amount of such warrant as docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in all real and personal property of the injured worker or beneficiary against whom the warrant is issued, the same as a judgment in a civil case docketed in the office of such clerk. The sheriff shall then proceed in the same manner and with like effect as prescribed by law with respect to execution or other process issued against rights or property upon judgment in the superior court. Such warrant so docketed shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in favor of the department in the manner provided by law in the case of judgment, wholly or partially unsatisfied. The clerk of the court shall be entitled to a filing fee of five dollars, which shall be added to the amount of the warrant. A copy of such warrant shall be mailed to the injured worker or beneficiary within three days of filing with the clerk.

(8) The director, or the director's designee, may issue to any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, a notice and order to withhold and deliver property of any kind if he or she has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, property which is due, owing, or belonging to any worker or beneficiary upon whom a warrant has been served by the department for payments due to the state fund. The notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff's deputy, or by any authorized representatives of the director. Any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state upon whom service has been made shall answer the notice within twenty days exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice and order to withhold and deliver. In the event there is in the possession of the party named and served with such notice and order, any property which may be subject to the claim of the department, such property shall be delivered forthwith to the director or the director's authorized representative upon demand. If the party served and named in the notice and order fails to answer the notice and order within the time prescribed in this section, the court may, after the time to answer such order has expired, render judgment by default against the party named in the notice for the full amount claimed by the director in the notice together with costs. In the event that a notice to withhold and deliver is served upon an employer and the property found to be subject thereto is wages, the employer may assert in the answer to all exemptions provided for by chapter 7.33 RCW which the wage earner may be entitled.

PART V

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

It is a complete defense to any action for damages for personal injury or wrongful death that the person injured or killed was engaged in the commission of a felony, if the felony was causally related to the injury or death in time, place, or activity. However, nothing in this section shall affect a right of action under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1983.

Sec. 502. Section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1971 as amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.16.350 are each amended to read as follows:

Any civil action for damages for injury occurring as a result of health care which is provided after June 25, 1976 against:

(1) A person licensed by this state to provide health care or related services, including, but not limited to, a physician, osteopathic physician, dentist, nurse, optometrist, podiatrist, chiropractor, physical therapist, psychologist, pharmacist, optician, physician's assistant, osteopathic physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, or physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, including, in the event such person is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

(3) An entity, whether or not incorporated, facility, or institution employing one or more persons described in subsection (1) of this section, including, but not limited to, a hospital, clinic, health maintenance organization, or nursing home; or an officer, director, employee, or agent thereof acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such officer, director, employee, or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

based upon alleged professional negligence shall be commenced within three years of the act or omission alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or one year of the time the patient or his representative discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused by said act or omission, whichever period expires later, except that in no event shall an action be commenced more than eight years after said act or omission; PROVIDED, That the time for commencement of an action is tolled upon proof of fraud, intentional concealment, or the presence of a foreign body not intended to have a therapeutic diagnostic purpose or effect.

For purposes of this section, notwithstanding RCW 4.16.190, the knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian shall be imputed to a person under the age or eighteen years. Any action not commenced in accordance with this section shall be barred. (PROVIDED, That the limitations in this section shall not apply to persons under a legal disability as defined in RCW 4.16.190)).

PART VI

INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENTS

Sec. 601. Section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.115 are each amended to read as follows:

A covenant, promise, agreement or understanding in, or in connection with or collateral to, a contract or agreement relative to the construction, alteration, repair, addition to, subtraction from, improvement to, or maintenance of, any building, highway, road, railroad, excavation, or other structure, project, development, or improvement attached to real estate, including moving and demolition in connection therewith, purporting to indemnify against liability for damages arising out of bodily injury to persons or damage to property;

(1) Caused by or resulting from the sole negligence of the indemnitee, his agents or employees is against public policy and is void and unenforceable;

(2) Caused by or resulting from the concurrent negligence of (a) the indemnitee or the indemnitee's agents or employees, and (b) the indemnitor or the indemnitor's agents or employees, is valid and enforceable only to the extent of the indemnitor's negligence and only if the agreement specifically and expressly provides therefor, and may waive the indemnitor's immunity under industrial insurance, Title 51 RCW, only if the agreement specifically and expressly provides therefor and the waiver was mutually negotiated by the parties. This subsection applies to agreements entered into after the effective date of this 1986 section.

PART VII

BUILDER LIMITATION

Sec. 701. Section 2, chapter 43, Laws of 1955 and RCW 4.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations prescribed in this chapter shall apply to actions brought in the name or for the benefit of any county or other municipality or quasimunicipality of the state, in the same manner as to actions brought by private parties: PROVIDED, That, except as provided in RCW 4.16.310, there shall be no limitation to actions brought in the name or for the benefit of the state, and no claim of right predicated upon the lapse of time shall ever be asserted against the state: AND FURTHER PROVIDED, That no previously existing statute of limitations shall be interposed as a defense to any action brought in the name or for the benefit of the state, although such statute may have run and become fully operative as a defense prior to February 27, 1903, nor shall any cause of action against the state be predicated upon such a statute.

Sec. 702. Section 2, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 and RCW 4.16.310 are each amended to read as follows:

All claims or causes of action as set forth in RCW 4.16.300 shall accrue, and the applicable statute of limitation shall begin to run only during the period within six years after substantial completion of construction, or during the period within six years after the termination of the services enumerated in RCW 4.16.300, whichever is later. The phrase "substantial completion of construction" shall mean the state of completion reached when an improvement upon real property may be used or occupied for its intended use. Any cause of action which has not accrued within six years after such substantial completion of construction, or within six years after such termination of services, whichever is later, shall be barred: PROVIDED, That this limitation shall not be asserted as a defense by any owner, tenant or other person in possession and control of the improvement at the time such cause of action accrues. The limitations prescribed in this section apply to all claims or causes of action as set forth in RCW 4.16.300 brought in the name or for the benefit of the state which are made or commenced after the effective date of this 1986 section.

Sec. 703. Section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 and RCW 4.16.300 are each amended to read as follows:

RCW 4.16.300 through 4.16.320 shall apply to all claims or causes of action of any kind against any person, arising from such person having constructed, altered or repaired any improvement upon real property, or having performed or furnished any design, planning, surveying, architectural or construction or engineering services, or supervision or observation of construction, or administration of construction contracts for any construction, alteration or repair of any improvement upon real property. This section is intended to benefit only those persons referenced herein and shall not apply to claims or causes of action against manufacturers.

PART VIII

PERIODIC PAYMENTS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 801. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In an action based on fault seeking damages for personal injury or property damage in which a verdict or award for future economic damages of at least one hundred thousand dollars is made, the court or arbitrator shall, at the request of a party, enter a judgment which provides for the periodic payment in whole or in part of the future economic damages. With respect to the judgment, the court or arbitrator shall make a specific finding as to the dollar amount of periodic payments intended to compensate the judgment creditor for the future economic damages.

(2) Prior to entry of judgment, the court shall request each party to submit a proposal for periodic payment of future economic damages to compensate the claimant. Proposals shall include provisions for: The name of the recipient or recipients of the payments, the dollar amount of the payments, the interval between payments, the number of payments or the period of time over which the payments shall be made, modification for hardship or unforeseen circumstances, posting of adequate security, and any other factor the court deems relevant under the circumstances. After each party has submitted a proposal, the court shall select the proposal, with any changes the court deems proper, which in the discretion of the court and the interests of justice best provides for the future needs of the claimant and enter judgment accordingly.

(3) If the court enters a judgment for periodic payments and any security required by the judgment is not posted within thirty days, the court shall enter a judgment for the payment of future damages in a lump sum.

(4) If at any time following entry of judgment for periodic payments, a judgment debtor fails for any reason to make a payment in a timely fashion according to the terms of the judgment, the judgment creditor may petition the court for an order requiring payment by the judgment debtor of the outstanding payments in a lump sum. In calculating the amount of the lump sum judgment, the court shall total the remaining periodic payments due and owing to the judgment creditor converted to present value. The court may also require payment of interest on the outstanding judgment.

(5) Upon the death of the judgment creditor, the court which rendered the original judgment may, upon petition of any party in interest, modify the judgment to award and apportion the unpaid future damages. Money damages awarded for loss of future earnings shall not be reduced or payments terminated by reason of the death of the judgment creditor.

(6) Upon satisfaction of a periodic payment judgment, any obligation of the judgment debtor to make further payments shall cease and any security posted pursuant to this section shall revert to the judgment debtor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 802. Section 5, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.56.240 are each repealed.

PART IX MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. A new section is added to chapter 5.40 RCW to read as follows:

A breach of a duty imposed by statute, ordinance, or administrative rule shall not be considered negligence per se, but may be considered by the trier of fact as evidence of negligence; however, any breach of duty as provided by statute, ordinance, or administrative rule relating to electrical fire safety, the use of smoke alarms, or driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, shall be considered negligence per se.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. A new section is added to chapter 5.40 RCW to read as follows:

It is a complete defense to an action for damages for personal injury or wrongful death that the person injured or killed was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug and that such condition contributed more than fifty percent to his or her injuries or death. If the amount of alcohol in a person's blood is shown by chemical analysis of his or her blood, breath, or other bodily substance to have been 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the blood, it is conclusive proof that the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a member of the board of directors or an officer of any nonprofit corporation is not civilly liable for any act or omission in the course and scope of his or her official capacity unless the act or omission constitutes gross negligence.

(2) Nothing in this section shall limit or modify in any manner the duties or liabilities of a director or officer of a corporation to the corporation or the corporation's shareholders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 904. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

A member of the board of directors or a superintendent of any school district is not civilly liable for any act or omission in the course and scope of his or her official capacity unless the act or omission constitutes gross negligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 905. A new section is added to chapter 7.70 RCW to read as follows:

Members of the board of directors or other governing body of a public or private hospital are not individually liable for injuries resulting from health care administered by a health care provider granted privileges to provide health care at the hospital unless the decision to grant the privilege to provide health care at the hospital constitutes gross negligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 906. A new section is added to chapter 48.22 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall by regulation require insurers authorized to write casualty insurance in this state to form a market assistance plan to assist persons and other entities unable to purchase casualty insurance in an adequate amount from either the admitted market or non-admitted market.

For the purpose of this section, a market assistance plan means a voluntary mechanism by insurers writing casualty insurance in this state in either the admitted or nonadmitted market to provide casualty insurance for a class of insurance designated in writing to the plan by the commissioner.

The bylaws and method of operation of any market assistance plan shall be approved by the commissioner prior to its operation.

A market assistance plan shall have a minimum of twenty-five insurers willing to insure risks within the class designated by the commissioner. If twenty-five insurers do not voluntarily agree to participate, the commissioner may require casualty insurers to participate in a market assistance plan as a condition of continuing to do business in this state. The commissioner shall make such a requirement to fulfill the quota of at least twenty-five insurers. The commissioner shall make his or her designation on the basis of the insurer's premium volume of casualty insurance in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 907. A new section is added to chapter 48.19 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall, in reviewing a casualty rate filing, determine in accordance with sound and reliable actuarial principles whether this act requires an insurer to grant its policyholders a credit in such casualty rate filing. Upon determining that data in support of such a credit is actuarially credible, the commissioner shall approve or disapprove such casualty rate filing in accordance therewith. The commissioner shall not approve any casualty rate that is inadequate, excessive, or unfairly discriminatory.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 908. The commissioner shall, as chairman of the tort reform study commission, require the task force to study the effectiveness of joint underwriting authorities throughout the United States to specifically determine:

- (1) The price as it relates to a filed Insurance Services Organization rate;
- (2) The solvency of such mechanisms;
- (3) The effect it has on the admitted market;
- (4) The effect it has on the nonadmitted market;
- (5) The effect or availability on the voluntary market; and
- (6) What effect it has on lines or classes of insurance not designated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 909. The insurance commissioner shall submit a report to the legislature by January 1, 1991, on the effects of this act on insurance rates and the availability of insurance coverage and the impact on the civil justice system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 910. Except as provided in sections 202 and 601 of this act and except for section 904 of this act, this act applies to all actions filed on or after August 1, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 911. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 912. Section 904 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the rules be suspended and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 be returned to second reading and read the second time.

Debate ensued.

Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Talmadge to suspend the rules and return Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 to second reading.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Talmadge to suspend the rules and return Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 to second reading failed by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 29; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bender, Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Halsan, Hansen, McDermott, Moore, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Talmadge, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 19.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Guess, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Saling, Sellar, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 29.

Excused: Senator Stratton - 1.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, a point of information first, if I could. Will the proposed amendment that I offered, had we been able to go back to second reading, be spread upon the journal? If not, I would request that it would be."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Are you referring to the motion or the amendment?"

Senator Talmadge: "The proposed amendment, Mr. President."

President Cherberg: "The Secretary advises that it will not be in the journal."

Senator Talmadge: "I will later submit it for inclusion in the journal, Mr. President."

Senator Newhouse objected to the amendment be included in the journal.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I believe the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 expand the scope and object of Senate Bill No. 4630."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "There has been an objection, therefore, it will be necessary for you to make a motion in order for you to have it printed in the journal."

Senator Talmadge: "I believe, Mr. President, that the objection by Senator Newhouse--does that stand or has it been withdrawn? I won't make a motion, Mr. President."

President Cherberg: "Senator Talmadge has moved that the proposed amendment be included in the journal."

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I'll withdraw that motion."

President Cherberg: "Senator Talmadge has withdrawn the motion."

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I do have the point of order relating to scope and object, however."

President Cherberg: "Senator Talmadge has raised the point of order that the proposed House amendments change the scope and object of the bill."

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Mr. President. To be specific, the original bill as it left the Senate dealt with a number of issues in the tort system and in the civil justice system in the state of Washington. The only provision in the bill, as it left the Senate that related to the issue of insurance was a cap on permitted insurance rate increases in the state of Washington of fifteen percent per annum. That fifteen percent cap was intimately related to the question of whether or not the changes in the tort law and the changes in the civil justice system were enacted.

"The House amendments that come before the Senate include not only changes in the tort system, but include changes in insurance laws. Specifically, there's a proposal made for a market assistance program with a joint underwriting authority provided for in the House amendments.

"Mr. President, this is an act relating to civil actions and civil actions ordinarily in the law connote those actions that can be commenced in court. There's nothing in the proposed title to the bill that would suggest that there would be a market assistance program or anything relating to the issue of insurance unrelated to the issue of civil actions that might be permitted in this bill. For that reason, because of the inclusion of this very major change in the insurance system that has been contained in separate legislation previously, I believe the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 expand the scope and the object of the bill."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 is an omnibus measure limiting exposure in civil actions for tort claims and reducing the amount of potential court awards with the intention of decreasing future insurance premiums.

"The House amendments are also an omnibus measure limiting exposure in civil actions for tort claims and reducing the amount of potential court awards with the intention of decreasing future insurance premiums.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 were ruled in order.

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, as the maker of the motion to concur, I have a very strange posture in this as the sponsor of the bill that I don't particularly like and as the maker of the motion to concur in the House amendments. But I do have to confess that we are now embarking upon something that would undertake to change literally centuries, in some instances, of law that's been developed in Anglo-American jurisdictions across the world, and something that has been developed over decades of very patient change in this state.

"The changes that we make--the reason that we embarked on this odyssey of sorts originally was to deal with the issue of insurance availability and affordability and I stand before the Senate to suggest in complete earnestness that this bill, with the changes contained in it, will have absolutely no impact whatsoever on the issue of insurance availability nor on the issue of insurance affordability. This is simply a facade for change in the tort law without regard to what might occur in the area of insurance.

"We held hearings in the House of Representatives in the whole chamber on the issue of insurance. Senator Moore and Senator Deccio worked very long and hard in the interim on the Joint Select Committee on Insurance Availability and Affordability and we spent ten hours in the Senate Judiciary Committee hearing testimony on this issue. Notwithstanding what I thought was very pertinent testimony given in all three places about being cautious, about not embarking down roads in this area without consideration of the possible ramifications of the changes that were being suggested, here we have before us the coalition proposal, and a rush to some change without consideration of the ultimate consequences of that change.

"I also stand before the Senate as someone who understands, I think, the legal system from many different perspectives, perhaps differently than many others here on the floor. I've been supported in times past by people in the plaintiffs' trial bar. I, myself, do a lot of insurance defense practice. I get a chance to see, I believe, both sides of the equation and I believe that there are changes that are pertinent in the tort system and changes in the civil justice system that should happen, but these changes are not the kind of changes that we should be attempting to deal with.

"What I suggest to the members of the Senate is that this bill guarantees nothing more than years of uncertainty, years of serious problems and an untold numbers of court challenges to very fundamental doctrines in the law. The members out here don't understand and don't believe the consequences of these changes. Let me suggest to you, first of all, something that I believe will happen when this bill is enacted that members really did not intend and that is a substantial attack on the doctrine of employer immunity under the Industrial Insurance Act. People believe, and I think, support the notion that employers should be immune from suit in cases of work-place injuries, in exchange for employees receiving industrial insurance benefits on a no-fault basis. This change will not impact on the ability of plaintiffs to sue their employer, but what it will impact is the opportunity for the people that I usually represent, the other co-defendant, the insured to bring actions for indemnification against employers, because what you're purporting to do is allocate fault to empty chairs in the lawsuit--the employers who are immune, the parties that have been released and others. As a consequence, you will see what happened in the state of Illinois, the state of New York and a number of others, where you open up employer immunity by virtue of what you are doing here to actions for indemnification by other persons.

"Additionally, this bill has substantial difficulties in its definition of alternate market-share liability; the problems associated with generic kinds of products, like pharmaceuticals, perhaps like asbestos and a number of others. This is an invitation for great difficulty in the interpretation of that area of the law.

"This bill contains in it more than one subject, as I've mentioned by virtue of my point of order. It's clear that this will be subject to challenge from the two subject issues when you have an act relating to civil action and contained in it is the rather pale insurance proposal relating to a marketing assistance program.

"And lastly, you have the problems that have been present in a number of other states with any caps on damages being an invasion of the province of the court, any effort in the area of joint and several liability being the same.

"What you do, rather than providing certainty and comprehensive change in the area of tort law on a consensual basis is uncertainty, conflict and court challenge that will result in insurance premiums staying right where they are and all of the people you think you're helping--the long-haul truckers, the day-care operators, the doctors and all the rest--being subject to the problems that they see. Now we need some change in the tort system and changes in the civil justice system. Those were changes that would have been possible in the striking amendment that was going to be offered, but people didn't even get a chance to take a look at it and apparently didn't even want to. Unfortunately, those changes would have had some significant impact. If you'd been able to do mandatory arbitration in more cases, if you'd been able to do offers of settlement and mandatory settlement conferences, you'd have gotten rid of a lot of claims quicker and cheaper, but that's not what we're going to attempt to do here.

"What we did go through in dealing with this bill, was a facade of negotiation. You know, we talked long and hard about the issues and, unfortunately, whenever there was any opportunity to really deal with the problems in the tort system or the civil justice system, the insurance industry sat on them and all those changes have been removed from the Bristow/Ballard amendment that was adopted in the House.

"I have to tell you, I guess, that when we try to deal with something as significant as this issue, when the only justification from a policy standpoint and one of the bodies of the Legislature is that an amendment is appropriate or an amendment is inappropriate or the coalition approves, or the coalition disapproves, and there's no discussion of policy, that's a frustration of this process and a frustration of the need for public debate on an issue as significant as this one and as pervasive as this one as it touches upon the lives of the people perhaps least able to respond.

"The thing that concerns me, I guess, most of all is that all of us are going to go back home to our districts and we're going to declare a great victory. We've changed the tort law. We've changed this area of insurance and it's going to be the second coming. We're going to have done all these great things for the people who have these problems. Unfortunately, what I think you're going to see over the months ahead is nothing more than frustration. You're going to see the challenges. You're going to see the problems that failing to address this difficulty in a consensual way provide. What you're going to see is no change in insurance availability or affordability and more frustration from the people who are supposed to be helped. Those day-care operators will be frustrated. The long-haul truckers will be frustrated. The doctors will be frustrated. The lawyers will be frustrated. That's what you will do by way of legacy in this bill.

"You will see the opposition from the victims groups--the Mothers Against Drunk Drivers, other victims groups, and labor--who have a concern about this. Ultimately, what you guarantee when you deal with an issue as complex as this, in a nonconsensual basis, is some concern down on the second floor, and some concern across the street in the Temple of Justice, when this thing lands over in the Temple of Justice, as we know it will.

"The reason that the 1981 Product Liability and Tort Reform Act sustained or stood up to challenges was that it was consensual change. This is not. This is simply a rapacious effort on the part of the people who are proposing this legislation, without consideration of changes that might make it work, to do whatever they want to do because that's the way they see it and they're not going to admit to any difficulties or differences of opinion on an issue as complex as this.

"Now, I've taken a very long time to tell you that, perhaps, the article that I distributed from The Columbian is correct. The tort reform bill will make a lot of people mad when the impact of it is understood by people across the state. The sad thing is the good intentions, the real strong feelings of people who want to deal with the issue area of torts and civil justice, will be frustrated because this will not do that which you hoped to see done. What you will do is carry back to the people in your home districts nothing more than an empty and hollow promises of fundamental change in their economic situation vis-a-vis insurance companies and you will get nothing for it.

"The last remark I make, members of the Senate, is we have an obligation to one group of people, perhaps more than any other group of people, and that's people least able to come down here and articulate their need or concern about legislation. This is clearly the most comprehensive anti-victim legislation ever passed by the Washington State Legislature. You are telling people who are the victims of wrongful conduct in this state that some people will go free because of that and some people will not be penalized by the financial obligation imposed by the tort system for their wrongful conduct. That's bad public policy and it doesn't meet the needs and concerns of those people least able to respond. I urge you--I implore you--to think about what you're doing in this legislation, to consider the consequences and vote as you will, but remember that a lot of the things that you hope to see in this bill will not happen. A lot of the things that you didn't expect to happen will happen and for some of you, perhaps, when those employers all of a sudden start having to carry insurance for the immunity that no longer exists, you'd better be able to answer their concerns."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. I'm going to dwell on two small items and I'd like to ask you to look at your green sheet on page 2, the second item--Industrial Insurance Actions. You will find it in your green sheet, because apparently nobody knew that this language, that I'm going to discuss, was taken out.

"You will find in your green sheet it says, 'In third party actions where the claimant,'--now I'm going to underscore that--'employer or employee are at fault.' Now, if you go to page 12 on the House amendment, you'll find 'the claimant' isn't in here. 'Claimant' was in every version of what we discussed all the way along the line until the last minute when this draft was prepared and the word 'claimant' was left out. I went to the proponents and I said, 'We sat through all those negotiations, all those discussions and I explained to you the impact of doing away with joint and several on the Industrial Insurance Act if you do not do something about the claims under L&I, and at no time did anybody ever ask me about why I had included claimant because I had explained to them why I had.'

"The truck driver going down the road being involved in a multi-accident--a collision, may sometime also be slightly at fault in that and yet he's covered by L&I under a no-fault system in which the award is greatly reduced to him and, therefore, you have to keep 'claimant' in this if you're going to make it all the way fair.

"Now, I've asked and I ask again, why--or if you even knew--did they take 'claimant' out in the last draft, because what they've done is gutted this section. It's my understanding in that State Patrol officer case that he had an action against General Motors for a mis-design of a gas tank on a car and in which he--at least General Motors claims, was partially at fault. By taking 'claimant' out, you took the state patrolman out.

"Now, I've asked and I ask again, what insurance company lawyer wrote this because only they, Phil Talmadge and I, and maybe Halsan and maybe some of the young lawyers in the House would understand the significance of that, but it got all the way through here without anybody ever bringing it up. It makes a big difference and it's a huge hole on innocent people who will now not be able to accept their L&I claim or they will not be able to bring an action against a product designer or someone like that. I think it's a mistake.

"Now, I've asked to go back and to talk about conference and fix a couple of these things and I'm told, 'We've got the votes, forget it.' I'm going to forget it after I've said my piece. The second thing that I would ask you, why is the amendment that Senator Newhouse and I proposed--I can't say that Irv had his name on it--we proposed it before and I thought we were both proposing it when we drafted it. When I took it to the lobbyists for the contracting association, who are most affected by this--and that is the company that comes into this state from out of state, pays no attention to our safety laws, runs up great big L&I claims for which all of us pay and then leaves. Now under our L&I section, if they stay here they're going to pay an experience rating on those accidents, but they don't stay here, and so they don't care. So, I proposed an amendment that was in the Senate version that said that if you repeatedly violate an instruction from L&I to put safety equipment back on machinery or back in ditches, then you lose your immunity for the workmen that are killed or injured because of your refusal to abide by WISHA or OSHA after you've been warned to do so. Everybody agreed in the Senate that that was a good idea and that we ought to do something to protect those claims that came out. Nobody asked me, you know, 'What do you think? What about this?' Well, I went and asked two of the representatives for the contracting industry and I had Senator Vognild there as a witness. I was told why they told them to take it out. They ran it on their computer and it's cheaper to hurt people than to pay them. I could have told them that. They didn't have to run a computer. Of course, it's cheaper to hurt people under L&I than to pay them, and that's why it's out.

"Now, this bill does nothing in a way of a compromise to fix tort systems except take awards away from people that are hurt. There is no give and take to fix things that are wrong. It's simply, 'I got the votes, why talk about compromise?'

"I do want to compliment the people who worked on this for a few things. They took care of it where I could show them politically they were going to get hurt. The senior citizens complained about that sliding scale when you got to the end of the cap and they did fix that and I compliment them. The old people will at least get a hundred thousand dollars and the senior citizens might not be quite as mad, but the Mothers Against Drunk Driving get nothing. Any of the progress we made at getting at taverns or cocktail loungers for over-serving is gone in this bill. They win. The victims of drunk drivers lose, because there was no effort whatsoever to address that question.

"I get a little emotional about this. I thought very seriously about resigning because this is the worst thing that I have ever seen happen in this Senate."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, transcripts of the remarks by Senator Talmadge and Bottiger will be made available to members of the Senate.

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

"Senator Hayner: Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, the reason we're considering this bill--and we are about to pass it--is because there's a crisis out there. There is a crisis among day-care people; there's a crisis in cities and counties who cannot obtain insurance. There is a crisis on the part of some doctors who are going out of certain disciplines because they cannot get any coverage and their rates are so high that they're simply saying, 'We cannot afford it.'

"We must do something and I think this is the first step. Nobody expects the rates to go down tomorrow--of course not--but we do think that over a period of time there is going to be a change and together with the study that will be made by the Insurance Commissioner's Office, I think we'll see some results. We cannot stand by and do nothing. There are too many things at stake and when you talk about the insurance companies and their rates going up, what you're really talking about is that all the people out there are paying for these costs--all of the people. And why aren't the insurance companies insuring some? And why are they raising the rates? Well, one of the chief reasons is that they no longer can buy reinsurance. Lloyds of London will not come in here and help them reinsure and no insurance company can do it on their own. They don't have that much in assets. They have to have enormous reserves. This is a high capital intensive business.

They are highly regulated, as you know. They are audited every three years and they have to pay for the audit. The companies are not reinsuring. Why? Because they cannot tell what their costs will be in the future and so they have to raise their rates. The companies who do reinsurance are saying, 'We cannot come into this country any longer.' No other country in the world has these kinds of limitations.

"Let's talk a minute about joint and several liability. It's something we should have dealt with a long time ago. This bill says that if a claimant is not negligent he may still get his deep pocket benefits from one of the defendants who may have very little fault, but still he can get the total amount from that individual.

"What is fair about someone being involved in a lawsuit and being only fifty percent liable, fifty percent negligent in the accident that happened and paying the total cost? What is fair about that? Somehow I fail to see that.

"We have seen all kinds of crazy cases in which a felon runs across a skylight and falls into a school and sues and gets a quarter of a million dollars. Those kinds of cases are what has driven the cost up and we have to do something to change our tort system to bring it in line. In those states where they have done a few things, and there hasn't been enough time to tell what the total effect will be, but still they can see some changes and I would certainly hope that we did not take things away from juries. I do not want us to bury the jury system; it is a fine system, but we have to change some of the rules. It is not the juries that are at fault, it is some of our laws that are at fault. They are being given the instructions from the court and they're doing what is precisely according to the judges recommendations and why? Because our laws tell them to do that, so let's hope we don't put everything into arbitration. I certainly do not want to see that happen.

"The policy which we are setting here has been carefully considered and it seems to be the implication here that no lawyers have looked at this. Well, I assure you there are many lawyers who have looked at this for the coalition and for others. They have looked at it very carefully and just because the trial lawyers seem to think that this is a terrible, disastrous thing to do, I think for every trial lawyer there are three or four defense lawyers who are saying, 'This is the best thing you can do to change the situation.' I think if we fail to deal with the problem, we are putting our head in the sand and even though the Governor may not have listed this among his priorities, it certainly is a priority for the people of this state and I urge you to vote for this bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Hayner, at our caucus today we discussed this at length and I asked every caucus member who was present--and I think we were all there--if this bill passed had any member of our caucus been informed by the insurance industry that affordable insurance would be offered to the day-care centers, the doctors, the hospitals, the taverns, the truckers--the list is endless--and the answer was nobody had any assurance that affordable rates would be available or if they would be lowered. Were you given any indication in your caucus that this would lower insurance rates or make insurance affordable?"

Senator Hayner: "I think that we're going to have to see what the results of this are, but I certainly think it is a step in the direction of keeping them from going up and I believe that in the long run, they will settle back because those who are in the business of reinsuring will be back. When that happens and when they can cut off the long tail that we have done in the case of medical doctors here as far as children ailments are concerned and disabilities, then they can cut their rates and I think it will happen."

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWHOUSE

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, if you please, just a word or two for the people who are unable to get insurance or afford it--the counties, the cities and so forth. Joint and several is still in this bill for the plaintiff who is not at fault--full bore. This is not overturning centuries of judicial tradition. In 1973, we lost contributory negligence in this Legislature and this is just bringing it a little bit back toward where it was--a little bit of equalization.

"Remember that even partially at fault, an injured plaintiff can get up to about three hundred and fifty thousand dollars of general damages, all necessary care, lost wages, all those economic damages in addition. I grant that there is no guarantee of lower insurance rates but the medical association--the company--said that with this bill they would expect their rates to go down twenty-eight percent. Some other companies said fifteen to twenty. The contractor situation mentioned by Senator Bottiger is not quite accurate. The contractors are the only group under Labor and Industries that have a uniform rate among industry and they pay their own. They do not assess the other employers of the state.

"I'm speaking for people who have had trouble getting insurance--counties and cities going bare and it's not because we don't regulate companies. We can't regulate Lloyds of London in this state and that's the big source of excess coverage that we tried to pass off to the foreign insurance companies. I think this is the best answer we could come up with. It may not be perfect. It's certainly a trend in the right direction."

Further debate ensued.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 9, 1986

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1754, encouraging employers to hire recipients of unemployment insurance benefits and public assistance, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that the essential purpose of state economic development programs is to encourage the hiring of the unemployed. It is of even greater benefit to the state if those hired were drawing unemployment benefits or public assistance and the benefits terminate when employment is secured. A targeted program that encourages employers to make a good faith effort to hire public assistance recipients and the unemployed will provide benefits to the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) "Department" means the employment security department.

(2) "First source contract" means an agreement by an employer to screen applicants from a pool of qualified individuals, if any, submitted to the employer by the department and to consider hiring from that pool.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall encourage the use of first source contracts with employers looking to locate or expand in the state. The department shall make every effort to guarantee easy access by employers to qualified workers. The commissioner may delegate duties under this chapter to a local organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department may provide specific financial incentives to employers who sign first source agreements if state funds are appropriated or if federal funds are made available for that purpose. The incentives may include but shall not be limited to providing an employer with up to fifty percent of a trainee's wages during the first ten weeks of employment and on-the-job training.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. An employer and a prospective employee to be hired from the pool may agree to a thirty-day training period, at the end of which time the employer shall make a decision whether to hire the individual. The individual may continue to draw unemployment or public assistance, or both during the thirty-day training period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The funds specified in section 4 of this act shall be available during the thirty-day training period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 50 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall expire December 31, 1989.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 2, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. and RCW 82.61.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Applicant" means a person applying for a tax deferral under this chapter.

(2) "Person" has the meaning given in RCW 82.04.030.

(3) "Department" means the department of revenue.

(4) "Eligible investment project" means: (a) Construction of new buildings and the acquisition of related machinery and equipment when the buildings, machinery, and equipment are to be used for either manufacturing or research and development activities, which construction is commenced prior to December 31, ~~((1986))~~ 1988; or (b) acquisition prior to December 31, 1988, of machinery and equipment to be used for either manufacturing or research and development if the machinery and equipment is housed in a new leased structure; PROVIDED, That the lessor/owner of the structure is not eligible for a deferral unless the underlying ownership of the buildings, machinery, and equipment vests exclusively in the same person.

In addition to the requirements of this section, a project must create at least one new full-time qualified employment position for each three hundred thousand dollars of investment on which a deferral is requested.

(5) "Manufacturing" means all activities of a commercial or industrial nature wherein labor or skill is applied, by hand or machinery, to materials so that as a result thereof a new, different, or useful substance or article of tangible personal property is produced for sale or commercial or industrial use and includes the production or fabrication of specially made or custom-made articles.

(6) "Research and development" means the development, refinement, testing, marketing, and commercialization of a product, service, or process before commercial sales have begun.

(7) "Buildings" means only those new structures used for either manufacturing or research and development activities, including plant offices and warehouses or other facilities for the storage of raw materials or finished goods if such facilities are an essential or an integral part of a factory, mill, plant, or laboratory used for manufacturing or research and development purposes. If a building is used partly for manufacturing or research and development and partly for other purposes, the applicable tax deferral shall be determined by apportionment of the costs of construction under rules adopted by the department.

(8) "Machinery and equipment" means all new industrial and research fixtures, equipment, and support facilities that are an integral and necessary part of a manufacturing or research and development operation. "Qualified machinery and equipment" includes computers; software; data processing equipment; laboratory equipment; manufacturing components such as belts, pulleys, shafts, and moving parts; molds, tools, and dies; operating structures; and all equipment used to control or operate the machinery. For purposes of this definition, new machinery and equipment means either new to the taxing jurisdiction of the state or new to the certificate holder. Used machinery and equipment are eligible for deferral if the certificate holder either brings the machinery and equipment into Washington or makes a retail purchase of the machinery and equipment in Washington or elsewhere.

(9) "Qualified employment position" means a permanent full-time employee employed in the eligible investment project during the entire tax year.

(10) "Recipient" means a person receiving a tax deferral under this chapter.

~~((+))~~ (11) "Certificate holder" means an applicant to whom a tax deferral certificate has been issued.

Sec. 10. Section 8, chapter 2, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. and RCW 82.61.040 are each amended to read as follows:

RCW 82.61.020 and 82.61.030 shall expire July 1, ~~((1986))~~ 1988.

Sec. 11. Section 6, chapter 2, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. and RCW 82.61.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The department and the department of trade and economic development shall jointly report to the legislature about the effects of this chapter on new manufacturing and research and development activities in this state. The report shall contain information concerning the number of deferral certificates granted, the amount of sales tax deferred, the number of jobs created and other information useful in measuring such effects. Reports shall be submitted by January 1, 1986, and by January 1, ~~((1987))~~ of each year through 1989.

Sec. 12. Section 2, chapter 232, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.60.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Applicant" means a person applying for a tax deferral under this chapter.

(2) "Department" means the department of revenue.

(3) "Eligible area" means a county in which the average level of unemployment for the three years before the year in which an application is filed under this chapter exceeds the average state unemployment for those years by twenty percent.

(4)(a) "Eligible investment project" means that portion of an investment project which:

(i) Is directly utilized to create at least one new full-time qualified employment position for each ~~((two))~~ three hundred thousand dollars of investment on which a deferral is requested; and

(ii) Either initiates a new operation, or expands or diversifies a current operation by expanding or renovating an existing building with costs in excess of twenty-five percent of the true and fair value of the plant complex prior to improvement; ~~((and))~~ or

(3) If, on the basis of a report under this section or other information, the department finds that a business project has failed to create the specified number of qualified employment positions, the department shall assess interest, but not penalties, on the credited taxes for which a credit has been used for the project. The interest shall be assessed at the rate provided for delinquent excise taxes, shall be assessed retroactively to the date of the tax credit, and shall accrue until the taxes for which a credit has been used are repaid.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1754 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1986

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2021, creating Washington health care project commission, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:

(a) Good health care for indigent persons is of importance to the state;

(b) To ensure the availability of a good level of health care, efforts must be made to encourage cost consciousness on the part of providers and consumers, while maintaining medical assistance recipients within the mainstream of health care delivery;

(c) Managed health care systems have been found to be effective in controlling costs while providing good health care services;

(d) By enrolling medical assistance recipients within managed health care systems, the state's goal is to ensure that medical assistance recipients receive at least the same quality of care they currently receive.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature to develop and implement new strategies that promote the use of managed health care systems for medical assistance recipients by establishing prepaid capitated programs for both in-patient and out-patient services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section, "managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, health insuring organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract health care services covered under RCW 74.09.520 and rendered by licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated case management basis.

(2) No later than July 1, 1991, the department of social and health services shall enter into agreements with managed health care systems to provide health care services to recipients of aid to families with dependent children under the following conditions:

(a) Agreements shall be made within one class A county in the eastern part of the state for at least ten thousand recipients; and one class AA county for at least fifteen thousand recipients in the western part of the state; and one first class county of at least five thousand recipients in the western part of the state;

(b) At least one of the agreements shall include enrollment of all recipients of aid to families with dependent children residing in a defined geographical area;

(c) The department shall, to the extent possible, ensure that recipients have a choice of systems in which to enroll and, if necessary and medically appropriate treatment for a recipient is not available from or through a participating managed health care system, the department shall exempt the recipient from any requirement to receive some or all of their medical services from such a system;

(d) To the extent possible, the department shall ensure that participating managed health care systems do not enroll a disproportionate number of medical assistance recipients within the total numbers of persons served by the managed health care systems;

(e) Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the department shall estimate, on an actuarially sound basis, the expected cost of providing the health care services expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different project areas. In negotiating with managed health care systems the department shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; and financial integrity of the responding system. The department may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

(f) The department shall seek waivers from federal requirements as necessary to implement this chapter;

(g) The department shall, wherever possible, enter into prepaid capitation contracts that include inpatient care. However, if this is not possible or feasible, the department may enter into prepaid capitation contracts that do not include inpatient care;

(h) The department shall define those circumstances under which a managed health care system is responsible for out-of-system services and assure that recipients shall not be charged for such services; and

(i) Nothing in this section prevents the department from entering into similar agreements in additional counties or for other groups of people eligible to receive services under chapter 74.09 RCW.

The department shall seek to obtain a large number of contracts with providers of health services to medicaid recipients. The department shall ensure that publicly supported community health centers and providers in rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the project as managed health care systems are seriously considered as providers in the project.

(3) The department shall work jointly with the state of Oregon and other states in this geographical region in order to develop recommendations to be presented to the appropriate federal agencies and the United States congress for improving health care of the poor, while controlling related costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall report to the legislature not later than January 1, 1987, on progress toward implementation of the requirements of this chapter, but shall not delay implementation on account of this reporting requirement.

The report shall also include an analysis of the possible expansion of the use of managed health care within other medical assistance programs, including making it available to certain recipients of general assistance and supplemental security income.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Washington basic health project" or "project" means the system of enrollment and payment on a prepaid capitated basis for basic health care services, administered by the board through participating managed health care systems, created by this chapter.

(2) "Board" means the Washington basic health project board created under section 6 of this act.

(3) "Managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract basic health care services, as defined by the board and rendered by duly licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated basis to a defined patient population by enrollment in the project and in the managed health care system.

(4) "Enrollee" means an individual, or an individual plus the individual's spouse and/or dependent children, all under the age of sixty-five, who resides in a project area, whose gross family income at the time of enrollment does not exceed twice the federal poverty level as adjusted for family size and determined annually by the federal department of health and human services, who chooses to obtain basic health care coverage from a particular managed health care system in return for periodic payments to the board, and who, at the time of enrollment, does not have access to employer-sponsored health care coverage.

(5) "Subsidy" means the difference between the amount of periodic payment the board makes, from funds appropriated from the basic health project trust account, to a managed health care system on behalf of an enrollee and the amount the board determines to be the enrollee's responsibility under section 10(2) of this act.

(6) "Project area" means one of not more than twelve distinct geographical areas within the state selected by the board as a demonstration site for the Washington basic health project. To the extent possible, the board shall select at least one project area in each congressional district of the state, define project areas coterminously with individual or adjacent cities, counties, or hospital districts, and take into special consideration any formal requests received from local governments or health care providers for selection of particular project areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The basic health project trust account is hereby established in the state treasury. All revenue received under RCW 82.08.020(2) shall be deposited in the basic health project trust account. Disbursements from the account shall be made pursuant to appropriation and upon warrants drawn by the Washington basic health project board. Moneys in the account shall be used exclusively for the purposes of this chapter, including payments to participating managed health care systems on behalf of enrollees in the project and payment of costs of administering the project. The earnings on any surplus balances in the basic health project trust account shall be credited to the account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090. After January 1, 1987, the legislature shall not appropriate for an ensuing fiscal period amounts exceeding ninety percent of the revenues anticipated to accrue to the account during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is created the Washington basic health project board, which shall be a separate and independent board of the state. For efficiencies in operation and consultation, the offices of the board may be colocated with those of the hospital commission. The board shall be composed of five members appointed by the governor. The governor shall select one member to serve as chairman. Not more than one member may have any fiduciary obligation to any health care provider or facility or any material financial interest in the provision of health care services.

Members of the board shall serve for four-year terms. However, of the members initially appointed after the effective date of this act, two shall be appointed to four-year terms, one to a three-year term, one to a two-year term, and one to a one-year term. Appointments shall require senate confirmation. No member of the board may serve for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term and the initial appointments and vacancies shall not require senate confirmation until the legislature next convenes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Meetings of the board shall be held as frequently as its duties require. The board shall keep minutes of its meetings and adopt procedures for the governing of its meetings, minutes, and transactions. Three members of the board constitute a quorum, but a vacancy on the board shall not impair its power to act. No action of the board shall be effective unless three members concur therein. The board may, consistent with the procedural requirements of chapter 42.30 RCW, meet in executive session with representatives of prospective or participating managed health care systems to discuss matters of a proprietary or sensitive nature.

The members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.250 and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The board shall employ a full-time executive director, who shall be the chief administrative officer of the board and shall be subject to its direction. The executive director, medical director, and up to three other employees shall be exempt from the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW.

The board shall employ such other staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibilities and duties of the board, such staff to be subject to the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW. In addition, the board may contract with third parties for services necessary to carry out its activities where this will promote economy, avoid duplication of effort, and make best use of available expertise. Any such contractor or consultant shall be prohibited from releasing, publishing, or otherwise using any information made available to it under its contractual responsibility without specific permission of the board. The board may call upon other agencies of the state to provide available information as necessary to assist the board in meeting its responsibilities under this chapter, which information shall be supplied as promptly as circumstances permit.

The board may create committees from its membership, and may appoint such technical or other advisory committees as it deems necessary. The board shall appoint a standing technical advisory committee that is representative of health care professionals, health care providers, and those directly involved in the purchase, provision, or delivery of health care services, including consumers and those knowledgeable of the ethical issues involved with health care public policy. Individuals appointed to any technical or advisory committee shall serve without compensation for their services as members, but may be reimbursed for their expenses in the same manner as members of the board.

The board may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to health care costs and access to health care.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The board may promulgate and adopt, under chapter 34.04 RCW, rules consistent with this chapter to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The board has the following powers and duties:

(1) To design and from time to time revise a schedule of covered basic health care services, including physician services, inpatient and outpatient hospital services, and other services that may be necessary for basic health care, which enrollees in any participating managed health care system under the Washington basic health project shall be entitled to receive in return for periodic payments to the board. The schedule of services shall emphasize preventive and primary health care, shall include all services necessary for prenatal, postnatal, and well-child care, and shall include a separate schedule of basic health care services for children, eighteen years of age and younger, for those enrollees who choose to secure basic coverage through the project only for their dependent children. In designing and revising the schedule of services, the board shall consider the guidelines for assessing health services under the mandated benefits act of 1984, RCW 48.42.080.

(2) To design and implement a structure of periodic payments due from enrollees. The payment structure shall be based upon enrollee family size and shall include a sliding scale whereby payments vary according to enrollee family income. The structure shall be designed so as to include payment amounts for enrollment of children without requiring enrollment of their parents. In each project area, the board shall not enroll such numbers of enrollees who qualify for subsidies as might reasonably be expected to result in an overexpenditure of appropriations for such purposes in the area. Whenever the board finds that there is danger of such an overexpenditure, the board shall close project enrollment in the area until the board finds the danger no longer exists. Payments to the board by the department of social and health services on behalf of any person eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW, subject to section 18 of this act, shall not be less than the payments the board makes to managed health care systems for coverage of those persons.

(3) To select not more than twelve project areas in the state as sites for the project. In selecting the areas, the board shall take into account the need for geographic, demographic, and economic diversity among project sites, the actual and potential availability of managed health care systems in different parts of the state, levels and rates of unemployment in possible project areas, and the need to assess the financial ability of the project to provide basic health care coverage to a population reasonably representative of the portion of the state's population that lacks basic health care coverage.

(4) To solicit and accept applications from managed health care systems, as defined in this chapter, for inclusion as eligible basic health care providers under the project. The board shall endeavor to assure that covered basic health care services are available through the project from among a selection of participating managed health care systems in at least some project areas. In adopting any rules or procedures applicable to managed health care systems and in its dealings with such systems, the board shall consider and make suitable allowance for the need for health care services and the differences in local availability of health care resources, along with other resources, within and among the project areas.

(5) To receive periodic payments from enrollees, deposit the payments in the basic health project operating account, keep records of enrollee payments and status, and authorize periodic payments to managed health care systems on the basis of the number of enrollees participating in the respective managed health care systems.

(6) To accept applications from individuals residing in project areas, on behalf of themselves and their spouses and dependent children, for enrollment in the Washington basic health project, to establish appropriate minimum-enrollment periods for enrollees as may be necessary, and to determine, upon application and at least annually thereafter, or at the request of any enrollee, eligibility due to current gross family income for sliding scale payments that will be the responsibility of the enrollee. An enrollee who remains current in making periodic sliding-scale payments, as determined by the board under subsection (2) of this section, and whose gross family income has risen above twice the federal poverty level, may continue enrollment unless and until the enrollee's gross family income has remained above two and one-half times the poverty level for twelve consecutive months, by making payment at the maximum rate established in the sliding fee schedule. No subsidy shall be paid with respect to any enrollee whose current gross family income exceeds twice the federal poverty level or, subject to section 18 of this act, who is a recipient of medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW.

(7) To require that prospective enrollees who may be eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW apply for such coverage.

(8) To determine, on a community rating basis, the amount of each periodic per capita or per family payment to a participating managed health care system in return for the provision of covered basic health care services to enrollees in the system. Although the schedule of covered basic health care services will be the same for similar enrollees, the periodic per capita or per family payments to participating managed health care systems may vary among the systems. In negotiating payment levels with participating systems, the board shall consider the characteristics of the populations served by the respective systems, economic circumstances of the project area, and other factors the board finds relevant.

(9) To monitor the provision of covered services to enrollees by participating managed health care systems in order to assure enrollee access to good quality basic health care, to require periodic reports on health care services rendered to enrollees in order to provide adequate information for evaluation, and to inspect the books and records of participating managed health care systems to assure compliance with the purposes of this chapter. In requiring reports from participating managed health care systems, including data on services rendered enrollees, the board shall endeavor to minimize costs, both to the managed health care systems and to the board. The board shall coordinate any such reporting requirements with other state agencies, such as the insurance commissioner and the hospital commission, to minimize duplication of effort.

(10) To initiate, at the option of the board, a matching grant program, in up to three project areas, to demonstrate the potential that better coordination of all local primary health care resources in the provision of necessary care to low-income residents who are unlikely or unable to enroll in the project can be more cost-effective. The board may award grants to local governments that sponsor consortia of health care providers, including at least one hospital in each area. Any grant proposal must meet minimum standards set by the board, including requirements for coordination of care by local providers and for coordination of local funding sources, which may include in-kind charity care provided by hospitals and physicians as well as public or private funds and sliding-scale payments from individuals served. Any grants awarded under this subsection shall be made from funds appropriated for such purpose from the Washington basic health project trust account, may be extended for up to three years, and shall be on the basis of one dollar from the board for every four dollars of local or private funds expended in the demonstration program.

(11) To monitor the access that state residents have to adequate and necessary health care services, determine the extent of any unmet needs for such services or lack of access that may exist from time to time, and make such reports and recommendations to the legislature as it deems appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The benefits available under the project shall be subject to RCW 48.21.200 and shall be excess to the benefits payable under the terms of any insurance policy issued to or on the behalf of an enrollee that provides payments toward medical expenses without a determination of liability for the injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. In each project area, on and after a date set by the board for the area, but in no case before March 31, 1987, enrollees whose payments to the board are current are entitled to receive covered basic health care services as defined by the board from the respective managed health care systems in which they are enrolled. The board shall not at any time maintain enrollment of more than thirty thousand enrollees who are eligible for subsidies. The board shall closely monitor growth patterns so as not to exceed that consistent with the orderly development of the project as a whole and in each project area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Any enrollee whose payments to the board are delinquent or who moves his or her residence out of a project area may be dropped from enrollment status. The board shall make reasonable efforts to notify delinquent enrollees of their removal from the project and shall provide for a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW for any enrollee who contests the board's decision to drop the enrollee from the project. Upon removal of an enrollee from the project, the board shall promptly notify the managed health care system in which the enrollee has been enrolled, and shall not be responsible for payment for health care services provided to the enrollee (including, if applicable, members of the enrollee's family) after the date of notification. A managed health care system may contest the denial of payment for coverage of an enrollee through a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Managed health care systems participating in the project shall do so by contract with the board and shall provide, directly or by contract with other health care providers, covered basic health care services to each enrollee as long as payments from the board on behalf of the enrollee are current. Subject to board approval and with full disclosure to enrollees and prospective enrollees, a managed health care system may impose nominal copayments upon enrollees as an incentive for proper utilization of services. A participating managed health care system may offer, but not require acceptance of, additional health care benefits or services not included in the schedule of covered services under the project, that will be the sole responsibility of the enrollee. Any action by or on behalf of any enrollee based on a claim of professional negligence shall, at the option of the enrollee, be submitted for arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. The board may receive and act upon complaints from enrollees regarding failure to provide covered services or efforts to obtain payment, other than copayments authorized under this section, for covered services directly from enrollees, but nothing in this chapter empowers the board to impose any sanctions under Title 18 RCW or any other professional or facility licensing statute.

The project shall allow, at least annually, an opportunity for enrollees to transfer their enrollments among participating managed health care systems serving their respective project areas. The board shall establish a period of at least twenty days in a given year when this opportunity is afforded enrollees, and in those areas served by more than one participating managed health care systems the board shall endeavor to establish a uniform period for such opportunity.

Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the board shall determine, on an actuarially sound basis, the reasonable cost of providing the schedule of basic health care services, expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different project areas. In negotiating with managed health care systems for participation in the project, the board shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least the following:

(1) The board shall issue a request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; financial integrity of the responding systems; and responsiveness to the unmet health care needs of the local communities or populations that may be served;

(2) The board shall then review responsive proposals and may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

(3) The board may then select one or more systems to provide the covered services within a project area; and

(4) The board may adopt a policy that gives preference, in one or more project areas, to systems substantially supported by public revenues or involving public agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Enrollees of any participating managed health care system may, if offered, execute an agreement on behalf of themselves and/or any dependents enrolled in the project to arbitrate any dispute, controversy, or issue arising out of health care or treatment rendered by or through the managed health care system. The agreement to arbitrate shall provide that its execution is not a prerequisite to enrollment in the project or the provision of any services and shall provide that the enrollee may revoke the agreement within sixty days after execution by notifying the managed health care system in writing.

The agreement shall contain the following provision in at least nine-point boldface type immediately above the space for signature of the parties:

"This agreement to arbitrate is not a prerequisite to enrollment or the provision of any services and may be revoked by the enrollee within sixty days after execution by notification in writing."

Participating managed health care systems that use arbitration agreements shall furnish to the enrollee at the time of enrollment a copy of an information brochure, prepared and approved by the board, which clearly outlines the arbitration process as an alternative dispute resolution process to that of a court and/or jury trial.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. During the life of this project the board shall:

(1) Establish and maintain records on all enrollees that make readily available data on at least the age, sex, family size, place of residence, economic, employment and health status, as well as any utilization of services;

(2) To the extent possible select project areas in those geographic areas where the department of social and health services has existing medical assistance recipients enrolled in managed health care systems;

(3) Give preference, in the selection of project areas and any enrollment procedures, that will ensure that both adequate opportunity for enrollment and the collection of data about enrollees, shall be gathered on those segments of the uninsured population, including but not limited to, the working poor who are uninsured, the recently unemployed uninsured, and the long-term unemployed uninsured; and

(4) Establish liaison and cooperate to the fullest extent with the Washington health care project commission established under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The board shall submit to the 1987 session of the legislature the design plan for a schedule of basic health care services as outlined in section 10 of this act, including appropriate co-payments and/or deductibles, and the schedule of periodic payments that will be the responsibility of any enrollee. For this project to remain in effect it must be approved by the legislature by June 30, 1987, and the level of benefits and periodic payments cannot be changed without legislative approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The department of social and health services shall make periodic payments to the project on behalf of any enrollee who is a recipient of medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW, at the maximum rate established in the sliding fee scale, for the services covered by the project, and no premium may be charged to such an enrollee. With respect to enrollees eligible for medical assistance under RCW 74.09.510, the periodic amount payable to the project shall not be greater than the amount with respect to which full federal financial participation is available under Title XIX of the federal social security act. Any enrollee on whose behalf the department of social and health services makes payments to the project under this section and chapter 74.09 RCW may continue as an enrollee, making periodic payments based on the enrollee's own income as determined under the sliding scale, after eligibility for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW has ended. Nothing in this section affects the right of any person eligible for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW to receive the services offered to other persons under that chapter but not included in the schedule of basic health care services covered by the project. The board and the department of social and health services shall cooperatively adopt procedures to facilitate the transition of project enrollees and payments on their behalf between the project and the programs established under chapter 74.09 RCW.

However, if the unemployment rate of a participating county exceeds by twenty percent or more the state average as determined by the employment security department, the board may increase the level of its contribution to not more than two dollars for each local dollar.

(5) With any community health center or other public or private nonprofit health care provider participating in a managed health care system under the project and demonstrating financial need, to furnish direct financial assistance in meeting the start-up costs of providing covered basic health care services under the project, for a period not exceeding one year after the managed health care system commences coverage of enrollees.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 9, 1986

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred HOUSE BILL NO. 1631, modifying provisions relating to nursing home cost reimbursement, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 36, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 and RCW 74.46.360 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The depreciation base shall be the historical cost of the contractor or lessor, when the assets are leased by the contractor, in acquiring the asset in an arm's-length transaction and preparing it for use, less goodwill, and less accumulated depreciation which has been incurred during periods that the assets have been used in or as a facility by the contractor, such accumulated depreciation to be measured in accordance with subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section and RCW 74.46.350 and 74.46.370. If the department challenges the historical cost of an asset, or if the contractor cannot or will not provide the historical costs, the department will have the department of general administration, through an appraisal procedure, determine the fair market value of the assets at the time of purchase. The depreciation base of the assets will not exceed such fair market value.

(2) The historical cost of donated assets, or of assets received through testate or intestate distribution, shall be the lesser of:

(a) Fair market value at the date of donation or death; or

(b) The historical cost base of the owner last contracting with the department, if any.

(3) Estimated salvage value of acquired, donated, or inherited assets shall be deducted from historical cost where the straight-line or sum-of-the-years' digits method of depreciation is used.

(4) (a) Where depreciable assets are acquired that were used in the medical care program subsequent to January 1, 1980, the depreciation base of the assets will not exceed the net book value which did exist or would have existed had the assets continued in use under the previous contract with the department; except that depreciation shall not be assumed to accumulate during periods when the assets were not in use in or as a facility.

(b) ((Subparagraph (4)) The provisions of (a) of this subsection shall not apply to the most recent arm's-length acquisition if it occurs at least ten years after the ownership of the assets has been previously transferred in an arm's-length transaction nor to the first arm's-length acquisition that occurs after January 1, 1980, for facilities participating in the medical care program prior to January 1, 1980. The new depreciation base for such acquisitions shall not exceed the fair market value of the assets as determined by the department of general administration through an appraisal procedure. A determination by the department of general administration of fair market value shall be final unless the procedure used to make such determination is shown to be arbitrary and capricious. This subsection is inoperative for any transfer of ownership of any asset occurring on or after July 18, 1984, leaving (a) of this subsection to apply alone to such transfers: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall apply to transfers of ownership of assets occurring prior to January 1, 1985, if the costs of such assets have never been reimbursed under medicaid cost reimbursement on an owner-operated basis or as a related-party lease.

(c) Where depreciable assets are acquired from a related organization, the contractor's depreciation base shall not exceed the base the related organization had or would have had under a contract with the department.

(d) Where the depreciable asset is a donation or distribution between related organizations, the base shall be the lesser of (i) fair market value, less salvage value, or (ii) the depreciation base the related organization had or would have had for the asset under a contract with the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislative budget committee shall conduct a study of the changes in the state reimbursement system for nursing homes, RCW 74.46.840, resulting from requirements of the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 1984, (DEFRA) (P.L. 98-369). The study shall include analysis of the effects of these changes on: (1) Nursing home sales since July 18, 1984, the effective date of DEFRA; (2) capital formation for nursing home purchases and sales; and (3) leased nursing homes. The study shall also review adjustments other states may be making as a result of DEFRA. The legislative budget committee shall report the results of this study, including recommendations for any needed legislation, to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives by December 1, 1986.

Sec. 3. Section 41, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 17, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.410 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) Unallowable costs include, but are not limited to, the following:

(g) Costs in excess of limits or in violation of principles set forth in this chapter;

(h) Costs resulting from transactions or the application of accounting methods which circumvent the principles of the cost-related reimbursement system set forth in this chapter;

(j) Bad debts of non-Title XIX recipients. Bad debts of Title XIX recipients are allowable if the debt is related to covered services, it arises from the recipient's required contribution toward the cost of care, the provider can establish that reasonable collection efforts were made, the debt was actually uncollectible when claimed as worthless, and sound business judgment established that there was no likelihood of recovery at any time in the future;

(k) Charity and courtesy allowances;

(l) Cash, assessments, or other contributions, excluding dues, to charitable organizations, professional organizations, trade associations, or political parties, and costs incurred to improve community or public relations;

Sec. 18. Section 4, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 2, chapter 192, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.94A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentencing guidelines commission is established as an agency of state government.

(2) The commission shall, following a public hearing or hearings:

(a) Devise a series of recommended standard sentence ranges for all felony offenses and a system for determining which range of punishment applies to each offender based on the extent and nature of the offender's criminal history, if any;

(b) Devise recommended prosecuting standards in respect to charging of offenses and plea agreements; and

(c) Devise recommended standards to govern whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently.

(3) Each of the commission's recommended standard sentence ranges shall include one or more of the following: Total confinement, partial confinement, community supervision, community service, and a fine.

(4) In devising the standard sentence ranges of total and partial confinement under this section, the commission is subject to the following limitations:

(a) If the maximum term in the range is one year or less, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than one-third of the maximum term in the range, except that if the maximum term in the range is ninety days or less, the minimum term may be less than one-third of the maximum;

(b) If the maximum term in the range is greater than one year, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than seventy-five percent of the maximum term in the range; and

(c) The maximum term of confinement in a range may not exceed the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in RCW 9A.20.020.

(5) In carrying out its duties under subsection (2) of this section, the commission shall give consideration to the existing guidelines adopted by the association of superior court judges and the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys and the experience gained through use of those guidelines. The commission shall emphasize confinement for the violent offender and alternatives to total confinement for the nonviolent offender.

(6) This commission shall conduct a study to determine the capacity of correctional facilities and programs which are or will be available. While the commission need not consider such capacity in arriving at its recommendations, the commission shall project whether the implementation of its recommendations would result in exceeding such capacity. If the commission finds that this result would probably occur, then the commission shall prepare an additional list of standard sentences which shall be consistent with such capacity.

~~(7) (By January 10, 1983, the commission shall recommend its standard sentence ranges and standards to the legislature by providing the recommendations to the chief clerk of the house of representatives and secretary of the senate. If the commission has prepared an additional list of standard sentence ranges, as provided under subsection (6) of this section, then the commission shall include such list along with its recommendations.~~

~~(8) Every two years.)~~ The commission may recommend to the legislature revisions or modifications to the standard sentence ranges and other standards. If implementation of the revisions or modifications would result in exceeding the capacity of correctional facilities, then the commission shall accompany its recommendation with an additional list of standard sentence ranges which are consistent with correction capacity.

~~((9))~~ (8) The commission shall study the existing criminal code and from time to time make recommendations to the legislature for modification.

~~((10))~~ (9) The commission shall exercise its duties under this section in conformity with chapter 34.04 RCW, as now existing or hereafter amended.

Sec. 19. Section 7, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((1) At its regular session convening in 1983, the legislature shall enact laws approving or modifying either the standards recommended by the commission, or the additional list of standard sentence ranges consistent with prison capacity in the event an additional list has been submitted pursuant to RCW 9.94A.040(6). The standards so adopted shall take effect on July 1, 1984.~~

~~(2))~~ Revisions or modifications of standard sentence ranges or other standards, together with any additional list of standard sentence ranges, shall be submitted to the legislature at least every two years ~~((and shall become effective as provided under subsection (1) of this section on July first of the year in which they are submitted)).~~

Sec. 20. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) (~~and~~), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender (~~;- other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.04.020;~~) the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay a fine, (~~make restitution;~~) and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, (~~restitution;~~) a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of (~~any~~) a sex offense other than a violation of (chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.04.020 except) RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions (~~(of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.04.020;~~) for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;

(iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(v) Pay a fine, (~~make restitution;~~) accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or

(vi) Make recompense to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court for determination as to whether the offender shall be transferred to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW ((9A.20.020)).

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 21, Section 19, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 10, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. Except as provided for in subsection (3) of this section, a sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county.

(2) If a county uses a state partial confinement facility for the partial confinement of a person sentenced to confinement for not more than one year, the county shall reimburse the state for the use of the facility as provided for in this subsection. The office of financial management shall set the rate of reimbursement based upon the average per diem cost per offender in the facility. The office of financial management shall determine to what extent, if any, reimbursement shall be reduced or eliminated because of funds provided by the legislature to the department of corrections for the purpose of covering the cost of county use of state partial confinement facilities. The office of financial management shall reestablish reimbursement rates each even-numbered year.

(3) A person who is sentenced for a felony to a term of not more than one year, and who is committed or returned to incarceration in a state facility on another felony conviction, either under the indeterminate sentencing laws, chapter 9.95 RCW, or under this chapter shall serve all terms of confinement, including a sentence of not more than one year, in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

Sec. 22. Section 2, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 16, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the completed crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

(3) The following additional times shall be added to the presumptive sentence if the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon as defined in this chapter and the offender is being sentenced for one of the crimes listed in this subsection. If the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon and the offender is being sentenced for an anticipatory offense under chapter 9A.28 RCW to commit one of the crimes listed in this subsection, the following times shall be added to the presumptive range determined under subsection (2) of this section:

- (a) 24 months ((f)) for Rape 1 (RCW 9A.44.040), Robbery 1 (RCW 9A.56.200), or Kidnapping 1((g)) (RCW 9A.40.020)

Sec. 25. Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 19, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules ~~((are))~~, partially summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330, are as follows:

The offender score is ~~((computed in the following way:))~~ the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (14) of this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (13) of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score, if since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions. Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(3) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

((2)) (4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(6) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(7) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11), (12), or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (9), (10), (11), or (12) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

((3)) (10) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior(s) convictions as in subsection ((5)) (8) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

((4)) (11) If the present conviction is for ~~((Vehicular Homicide, only))~~ a felony traffic offense count ~~((the following crimes as part of the offender score:))~~ two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide ~~(, Vehicular Assault, Felony Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)), Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)), Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), Actual Physical Control (RCW 46.61.504), Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500), Attempting to Elude a Police Officer (RCW 46.61.500))~~; Count two points for each adult or juvenile Vehicular Homicide conviction, one point for each other adult felony traffic or serious traffic conviction, and 1/2 point for each other juvenile felony traffic or serious traffic conviction.

(5) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsections (2), (3), (4), or (8) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction); count one point for each adult, and 1/2 point for each juvenile, prior conviction for each other felony offense or serious traffic offense.

((6)) (12) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count two points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and one point for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (7) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(13) If the present conviction is for escape (Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120; Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060; and Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070), count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.

~~((7))~~ (14) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection ~~((9))~~ (7) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.

~~((8))~~ If the present conviction is for a violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, except for possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)), count two points for each adult prior felony drug conviction (chapter 69.50 RCW, except RCW 69.50.401(d)), and one point for each juvenile drug conviction. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (5) of this section if the current drug conviction is violent, or as in subsection (9) of this section if the current drug conviction is nonviolent.

(9) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (6), (7), or (8) of this section, count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony.

(10) For all offender scores, the fractional totals shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(11) In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score is used.

(12) Class A prior felony convictions are always included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions are not included if the offender has spent ten years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. Class C prior felony convictions and serious traffic convictions as defined in RCW 9.94A.330 are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.

The designation of out-of-state convictions shall be covered by the offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (12) of this section.)

Sec. 26. Section 8, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 20, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see RCW 9.94A.310, (Table 1)). The additional time for deadly weapon findings shall be added to the entire presumptive sentence range. The court may impose any sentence within the range that it deems appropriate. All presumptive sentence ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement.

(2) In determining any sentence, the trial court may ~~((use))~~ rely on no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, ~~((and))~~ or admitted ~~((to or))~~, acknowledged, or proved in a trial or at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the court must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The ~~((real))~~ facts shall be deemed ~~((proven))~~ proved at the ~~((evidentiary))~~ hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. ~~((Real))~~ Facts that establish the elements of ~~((a higher crime:))~~ a more serious crime~~(:)~~ or additional crimes ~~((cannot))~~ may not be used to go outside the presumptive sentence range except upon stipulation or when specifically provided for in RCW 9.94A.390(2) (c) and (d).

Sec. 27. Section 10, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 24, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.390 are each amended to read as follows:

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the sentence is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence~~(:)~~. The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

(1) Mitigating Circumstances

~~((+))~~ (a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

~~((+))~~ (b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

~~((+))~~ (c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

~~((+))~~ (d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

((5)) (e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

((6)) (f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

((7)) (g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances

((1)) (a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

((2)) (b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

((3)) (c) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

((a)) (i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

((b)) (ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

((c)) (iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;

((d)) (iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

((4)) (d) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify ((a)) a current offense as a major VUCSA:

((a)) (i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or

((b)) (ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or

((c)) (iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or

~~((d)) The offender possessed a firearm during the commission of the offense; or~~

((e)) (iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

((f)) (v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or,

((g)) (vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional); or

((h)) (e) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW ~~((9.94A.406))~~ 9.94A.010.

~~(The above considerations are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.)~~

Sec. 28. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 25, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is ~~((convicted of))~~ to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as ((criminal history). All sentences so determined shall be served concurrently. Separate crimes encompassing the same criminal conduct)) if they were prior convictions for the purpose of the offender score: PROVIDED, That if the court enters a finding that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime ((in determining criminal history)), Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently. Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(e) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's ~~((prior convictions as))~~ criminal history in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using ((a criminal history)) an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any ((remaining)) offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run ((consecutively)) concurrently with any felony ((sentences previously) sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court((:)) subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the ((subsequent)) current sentence expressly orders that they be served ((concurrently)) consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, ((this)) that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences.

Sec. 29. Section 12, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 26, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.410 are each amended to read as follows:

For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

In calculating an offender score, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for the completed offense. When these convictions are used as criminal history, score them the same as a completed crime.

Sec. 30. Section 15, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A Prosecuting Attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

- (i) It has not been enforced for many years; and
- (ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and
- (iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and
- (iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimus Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.

(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

(i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;

(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;

(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.

Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification

The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.

STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See table ((13)) below for the crimes within these categories.

 Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge

(1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:

(a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or

(b) Will result in restitution to all victims.

(2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:

(a) Charging a higher degree;

(b) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

(1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;

(2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and

(3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

(1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and

(2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended; or

(3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

- (1) Polygraph testing;
- (2) Hypnosis;
- (3) Electronic surveillance;
- (4) Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

Sec. 31. Section 7, chapter 14, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 244, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person over thirteen years of age is guilty of statutory rape in the first degree when the person engages in sexual intercourse with another person who is less than eleven years old.

Sec. 32. Section 9A.56.080, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 174, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.56.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who, ~~((without lawful authority and))~~ with intent to sell or exchange and to deprive or defraud the lawful owner thereof, wilfully takes, leads, or transports away, conceals, withholds, slaughters, or otherwise appropriates ~~((to his own use))~~ any horse, mule, cow, heifer, bull, steer, swine, or sheep ~~((shall be))~~ is guilty of theft of livestock in the first degree.

(2) A person who commits what would otherwise be theft of livestock in the first degree but without intent to sell or exchange, and for the person's own use only, is guilty of theft of livestock in the second degree.

(3) Theft of livestock in the first degree is a class B felony.

(4) Theft of livestock in the second degree is a class C felony.

Sec. 33. Section 9, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section governs records relating to the commission of juvenile offenses, including records relating to diversions.

(2) The official juvenile court file of any alleged or proven juvenile offender shall be open to public inspection, unless sealed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

(3) All records other than the official juvenile court file are confidential and may be released only as provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010, records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility for supervising the juvenile.

(5) Information not in an official juvenile court file concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the release, to the juvenile or his or her attorney, of law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys' records pertaining to investigation, diversion, and prosecution of juvenile offenses shall be governed by the rules of discovery and other rules of law applicable in adult criminal investigations and prosecutions.

(7) The juvenile court and the prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record-keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders against whom a complaint has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court. The central record-keeping system may be computerized. If a complaint has been referred to a diversion unit, the diversion unit shall promptly report to the juvenile court or the prosecuting attorney when the juvenile has agreed to diversion. An offense shall not be reported as criminal history in any central record-keeping system without notification by the diversion unit of the date on which the offender agreed to diversion.

(8) Upon request of the victim of a crime or the victim's immediate family, the identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.

(9) Subject to the rules of discovery applicable in adult criminal prosecutions, the juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding shall be released upon request to prosecution and defense counsel after a charge has actually been filed. The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system shall be released upon request to the adult corrections system.

(10) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the sealing of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(11) The court shall grant the motion to seal records made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section if it finds that:

(a) Two years have elapsed from the later of: (i) Final discharge of the person from the supervision of any agency charged with supervising juvenile offenders; or (ii) from the entry of a court order relating to the commission of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense;

(b) No proceeding is pending against the moving party seeking the conviction of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense; and

(c) No proceeding is pending seeking the formation of a diversion agreement with that person.

(12) The person making a motion pursuant to subsection (10) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecution and to any person or agency whose files are sought to be sealed.

(13) If the court grants the motion to seal made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section, it shall order sealed the official juvenile court file, the social file, and other records relating to the case as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the subject of the records may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are sealed. Any agency shall reply to any inquiry concerning confidential or sealed records that records are confidential, and no information can be given about the existence or nonexistence of records concerning an individual.

(14) Inspection of the files and records included in the order to seal may thereafter be permitted only by order of the court upon motion made by the person who is the subject of the information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in RCW 13.50.010(8).

(15) Any adjudication of a juvenile offense or a crime subsequent to sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order. Any conviction for any adult felony subsequent to the sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order for the purposes of chapter 9.94A RCW for any juvenile adjudication of guilt for a class A offense.

(16) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person who is the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the destruction of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(17) The court may grant the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) of this section if it finds:

(a) The person making the motion is at least twenty-three years of age;

(b) The person has not subsequently been convicted of a felony;

(c) No proceeding is pending against that person seeking the conviction of a criminal offense; and

(d) The person has never been found guilty of a serious offense.

(18) A person eighteen years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only one referral for diversion may request that the court order the records in that case destroyed. The request shall be granted if the court finds that two years have elapsed since completion of the diversion agreement.

(19) If the court grants the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section, it shall order the official juvenile court file, the social file, and any other records named in the order to be destroyed.

(20) The person making the motion pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any agency whose records are sought to be destroyed.

(21) Any juvenile to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be given written notice of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her disposition hearing or during the diversion process.

(22) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a crime victim or a member of the victim's family from divulging the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender or his or her family when necessary in a civil proceeding.

(23) Any juvenile justice or care agency may, subject to the limitations in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, develop procedures for the routine destruction of records relating to juvenile offenses and diversions.

(a) Records may be routinely destroyed only when the person the subject of the information or complaint has attained twenty-three years of age or older, or is eighteen years of age or older and his or her criminal history consists entirely of one diversion agreement and two years have passed since completion of the agreement.

(b) The court may not routinely destroy the official juvenile court file or recordings or transcripts of any proceedings.

Sec. 34. Section 11, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.94A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Before imposing a sentence upon a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing. The sentencing hearing shall be held within forty court days following conviction. Upon the motion of either party for good cause shown, or on its own motion, the court may extend the time period for conducting the sentencing hearing. The court shall consider the presentence reports, if any, including any victim impact statement and criminal history, and allow arguments from the prosecutor, the defense counsel, the offender, the victim, the survivor of the victim, or a representative of the victim or survivor, and an investigative law enforcement officer as to the sentence to be imposed. If the court is satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has a criminal history, the court shall specify the convictions it has found to exist. All of this information shall be part of the record. Copies of all presentence reports presented to the sentencing court and all written findings of facts and conclusions of law as to sentencing entered by the court shall be sent to the department by the clerk of the court at the conclusion of the sentencing and shall accompany the offender if the offender is committed to the custody of the department. Court clerks shall provide, without charge, certified copies of documents relating to criminal convictions requested by prosecuting attorneys.

page 2, line 18 (strike all language after "jurisdiction") and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same are herewith transmitted.

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 495 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment by Senators Talmadge and Barr be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Sections 1 through 6 of this act may be known and cited as the Colville Indian reservation criminal jurisdiction retrocession act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is the intent of the legislature to authorize a procedure for the retrocession, to the Colville Confederated Tribes of Washington and the United States, of criminal jurisdiction over Indians for acts occurring on tribal lands or allotted lands within the Colville Indian reservation and held in trust by the United States or subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States.

Sections 1 through 6 of this act in no way expand the Colville tribe's criminal or civil jurisdiction, if any, over non-Indians or fee title property. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall have no effect whatsoever on water rights, hunting and fishing rights, the established pattern of civil jurisdiction existing on the lands of the Colville Indian reservation, the established pattern of regulatory jurisdiction existing on the lands of the Colville Indian reservation, taxation, or any other matter not specifically included within the terms of sections 1 through 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply throughout sections 1 through 6 of this act:

(1) "Colville reservation," or "Colville Indian reservation," means all tribal lands or allotted lands lying within the Colville Indian reservation and held in trust by the United States or subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States, but does not include those lands which lie north of the present reservation which were included in original reservation boundaries created in 1872 and which are referred to as the "diminished reservation."

(2) "Indian tribe," "tribe," or "Colville tribes" means the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation.

(3) "Tribal court" means the trial and appellate courts of the Colville tribes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Whenever the governor receives from the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation a resolution expressing their desire for the retrocession by the state of all or any measure of the criminal jurisdiction acquired by the state pursuant to section 5, chapter 36, Laws of 1963 over lands of the Colville Indian reservation, the governor may, within ninety days, issue a proclamation retroceding to the United States the criminal jurisdiction previously acquired by the state over such reservation. However, the state of Washington shall retain jurisdiction as provided in RCW 37.12.010. The proclamation of retrocession shall not become effective until it is accepted by an officer of the United States government in accordance with 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1323 (82 Stat. 78, 79) and in accordance with procedures established by the United States for acceptance of such retrocession of jurisdiction. The Colville tribes shall not exercise criminal or civil jurisdiction over non-Indians.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The confederated tribes of the Colville reservation may express their desire under section 4 of this act only by a resolution approved by a majority vote of the enrolled adult members of the tribes voting at the next general tribal election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. An action or proceeding which has been filed with any court or agency of the state or local government preceding the effective date of retrocession of jurisdiction under sections 1 through 6 of this act shall not abate by reason of the retrocession or determination of jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 37.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Talmadge, what does it do?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, it does what we talked about before, which is retrocession over criminal jurisdictional responsibility on the reservation. It makes clear that the tribe does not have jurisdiction over non-Indians and provides that there will be a vote of the tribal members on the reservation with respect to the issue of retrocession before the Governor can make such a request to the federal government."

Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. It's very rare that this award is ever given in the Senate. It's usually in the House. None of you, since it's rather recent, probably have ever seen it before, but Senator Johnson has been awarded the Pierce County Bull Ring Award for his services in the Senate. Senator, for your information, out on the farm when we have a new bull calf, we put a ring in his nose and then we see how well he follows, how many times we have to jerk him. Pretty soon he just follows and all you have to do is like this. Now, there's a penalty if he doesn't follow right. Senator, you're the first Senator ever to receive this award."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry, does the twenty-four hours start at the time the Senate grants the powers of Free Conference?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The twenty-four hours starts at the time the report is on the desk."

Senator Rasmussen: "If I could pursue this further, Mr. President. Until we have granted the powers of Free Conference, they really can't write Free Conference Reports and that's what my concern is. Though we have a definite time--if we granted the powers of Free Conference, let us say today at 9:45, from then it would be twenty-four hours then before we could act on the bill."

President Cherberg: "The Secretary advises that the report goes on the desk before the powers of Free Conference are granted."

Senator Rasmussen: "Very unusual."

President Cherberg: "That is the interpretation, Senator."

Further debate ensued.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1986

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred HOUSE BILL NO. 1795, requiring additional information in child support orders, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. CIVIL PRACTICE TO GOVERN—DESIGNATION OF PROCEEDINGS—DECREES. (1) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the practice in civil action shall govern all proceedings under this chapter, except that trial by jury is dispensed with.

(2) A proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation or a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage shall be entitled "In re the marriage of and" Such proceeding may be filed in the superior court of the county where the petitioner resides.

(3) In cases where there has been no prior proceeding in this state involving the marital status of the parties or custody or support obligations, a separate custody or support proceeding shall be entitled "In re the (custody) (support) of"

(4) The initial pleading in all proceedings for dissolution of marriage under this chapter shall be denominated a petition. A responsive pleading shall be denominated a response. Other pleadings, and all pleadings in other matters under this chapter shall be denominated as provided in the civil rules for superior court.

(5) In this chapter, "decree" includes "judgment".

(6) A decree of dissolution, of legal separation, or a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage shall not be awarded to one of the parties, but shall provide that it affects the status previously existing between the parties in the manner decreed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. POLICY. Parents have the responsibility to make decisions and perform other parental functions necessary for the care and growth of their minor children. In any proceeding between parents under chapter 26.09 RCW, the best interests of the child shall be the standard by which the court determines whether, and to what extent, the parties' parental responsibilities should be enforced or their authority to care for the child restricted. The state recognizes the fundamental importance of the parent-child relationship to the welfare of the child, and that the relationship between the child and each parent should be fostered unless inappropriate under the provisions of this chapter. It is recognized that the best interests of the child are served by a parenting arrangement that best maintains a child's emotional growth, health and stability, and physical care. It is recognized that the best interest of the child is ordinarily served when the existing pattern of interaction between a parent and child is altered only to the extent necessitated by the changed relationship of the parents or as required to protect the child from physical, mental, or emotional harm.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. PETITION IN PROCEEDING FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE, LEGAL SEPARATION, OR FOR A DECLARATION CONCERNING VALIDITY OF MARRIAGE—CONTENTENTS—PARTIES—CERTIFICATE. (1) A petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or for a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage, shall allege the following:

(a) The last known residence of each party;

(b) The date and place of the marriage;

(c) If the parties are separated the date on which the separation occurred;

(d) The names, ages, and addresses of any child dependent upon either or both spouses and whether the wife is pregnant;

(e) Any arrangements as to the parenting plan for the children and the maintenance of a spouse;

(f) A statement specifying whether there is community or separate property owned by the parties to be disposed of;

(g) The relief sought.

(2) Either or both parties to the marriage may initiate the proceeding.

(3) The petitioner shall complete and file with the petition a certificate under RCW 70.58.200 on the form provided by the department of social and health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE—COURT PROCEEDINGS, FINDINGS—TRANSFER TO FAMILY COURT—LEGAL SEPARATION IN LIEU OF DISSOLUTION. When a party who is a resident of this state or who is a member of the armed forces and is stationed in this state, petitions for a dissolution of marriage, and alleges that the marriage is irretrievably broken and when ninety days have elapsed since the petition was filed and from the date when service of summons was made upon the respondent or the first publication of summons was made, the court shall proceed as follows:

(1) If the other party joins in the petition or does not deny that the marriage is irretrievably broken, the court shall enter a decree of dissolution.

(2) If the other party alleges that the petitioner was induced to file the petition by fraud, or coercion, the court shall make a finding as to that allegation and, if it so finds shall dismiss the petition.

(3) If the other party denies that the marriage is irretrievably broken the court shall consider all relevant factors, including the circumstances that gave rise to the filing of the petition and the prospects for reconciliation and shall:

(a) Make a finding that the marriage is irretrievably broken and enter a decree of dissolution of the marriage; or

(b) At the request of either party or on its own motion, transfer the cause to the family court, refer them to another counseling service of their choice, and request a report back from the counseling service within sixty days, or continue the matter for not more than sixty days for hearing. If the cause is returned from the family court or at the adjourned hearing, the court shall:

(i) Find that the parties have agreed to reconciliation and dismiss the petition; or

(ii) Find that the parties have not been reconciled, and that either party continues to allege that the marriage is irretrievably broken. When such facts are found, the court shall enter a decree of dissolution of the marriage.

(4) If the petitioner requests the court to decree legal separation in lieu of dissolution, the court shall enter the decree in that form unless the other party objects and petitions for a decree of dissolution or declaration of invalidity.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. PETITION TO HAVE MARRIAGE DECLARED INVALID OR JUDICIAL DETERMINATION OF VALIDITY—PROCEDURE—FINDINGS—GROUNDS—LEGITIMACY OF CHILDREN. (1) While both parties to an alleged marriage are living, and at least one party is resident in this state or a member of the armed service and stationed in the state, a petition to have the marriage declared invalid may be sought by:

(a) Either or both parties, or the guardian of an incompetent spouse, for any cause specified in subsection (4) of this section; or

(b) Either or both parties, the legal spouse, or a child of either party when it is alleged that the marriage is bigamous.

(2) If the validity of a marriage is denied or questioned at any time, either or both parties to the marriage may petition the court for a judicial determination of the validity of such marriage.

(3) In a proceeding to declare the invalidity of a marriage, the court shall proceed in the manner and shall have the jurisdiction, including the authority to provide for maintenance, a parenting plan for minor children, and division of the property of the parties, provided by this chapter.

(4) After hearing the evidence concerning the validity of a marriage, if both parties to the alleged marriage are still living, the court:

(a) If it finds the marriage to be valid, shall enter a decree of validity;

(b) If it finds that:

(i) The marriage should not have been contracted because of age of one or both of the parties, lack of required parental or court approval, a prior undissolved marriage of one or both of the parties, reasons of consanguinity, or because a party lacked capacity to consent to the marriage, either because of mental incapacity or because of the influence of alcohol or other incapacitating substances, or because a party was induced to enter into the marriage by force or duress, or by fraud involving the essentials of marriage, and that the parties have not ratified their marriage by voluntarily cohabiting after attaining the age of consent, or after attaining capacity to consent, or after cessation of the force or duress or discovery of the fraud, shall declare the marriage invalid as of the date it was purportedly contracted;

(ii) The marriage should not have been contracted because of any reason other than those above, shall upon motion of a party, order any action which may be appropriate to complete or to correct the record and enter a decree declaring such marriage to be valid for all purposes from the date upon which it was purportedly contracted;

(c) If it finds that a marriage contracted in a jurisdiction other than this state, was void or voidable under the law of the place where the marriage was contracted, and in the absence of proof that such marriage was subsequently validated by the laws of the place of contract or of a subsequent domicile of the parties, shall declare the marriage invalid as of the date of the marriage.

(5) Any child of the parties born or conceived during the existence of a marriage of record is legitimate and remains legitimate notwithstanding the entry of a declaration of invalidity of the marriage.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. DEFINITIONS. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Temporary parenting plan" means a plan for parenting of the child pending final resolution of any action for dissolution of marriage, declaration of invalidity, or legal separation, based on the criteria set forth in section 8 of this act.

(2) "Permanent parenting plan" means a plan for parenting the child, based on the criteria set forth in sections 17 and 18 of this act, to be incorporated in the final order in any action for dissolution of marriage, declaration of invalidity, or legal separation.

(3) "Residential parent" means the parent whose home is designated as the child's residence, based on the criteria set forth in sections 17 and 18 of this act. The residential parent is the child's custodian for any purpose requiring such a designation.

(4) "Child's residence" means the home of the parent designated in the parenting plan as the residential parent, based on the criteria set forth in sections 17 and 18 of this act.

(5) "Parenting functions" means those aspects of the parent-child relationship in which the parent makes decisions and performs functions necessary for the care and growth of the child. Parenting functions include:

(a) Maintaining a loving, stable, consistent, and nurturing relationship with the child;

(b) Attending to the daily needs of the child, such as feeding, clothing, physical care and grooming, supervision, health care, and day care, and engaging in other activities which are appropriate to the developmental level of the child and that are within the social and economic circumstances of the particular family;

(c) Attending to adequate education for the child, including remedial or other education essential to the best interests of the child;

(d) Assisting the child in developing and maintaining appropriate interpersonal relationships; and

(e) Exercising appropriate judgment regarding the child's welfare, consistent with the child's developmental level and the family's social and economic circumstances.

(6) "Primary caregiver" means the parent who has taken primary responsibility for performance of the majority of the parenting functions as defined in subsection (5)(b) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. PROPOSED TEMPORARY PARENTING PLAN. (1) On commencement of a proceeding under this chapter, the petitioner shall file a proposed temporary parenting plan, or the parents jointly, if filing jointly, shall file a proposed temporary plan.

(2) The respondent, if not joining in the petition, shall file a responsive proposed temporary parenting plan no later than twenty days after service of the petitioner's proposed temporary parenting plan. If no responsive plan is filed in accordance with this subsection, the petitioner may move to have the petitioner's proposed temporary parenting plan entered as an order of the court. The parents may enter an agreed temporary parenting plan at any time within thirty-five days after service of the petitioner's proposed temporary parenting plan, unless a continuance is granted by the court upon stipulation of the parents or for necessary administrative convenience of the court.

(3) If the respondent files a responsive proposed temporary parenting plan in accordance with subsection (2) of this section, and no agreed temporary parenting plan is entered within thirty-five days after service of the petitioner's proposed plan, a hearing shall be held on the proposed plans not later than thirty-five days after service of the petitioner's proposed temporary parenting plan, unless a continuance is granted by the court upon stipulation of the parties or for necessary administrative convenience of the court. The motion containing the proposed temporary parenting plan may be supported by relevant evidence and shall be accompanied by an affidavit which shall state at a minimum the following:

(a) The name, address, and length of residence with the person or persons with whom the child has lived for the preceding twelve months;

(b) The parent, if any, who has been the primary caregiver for the child as defined in section 6 of this act;

(c) The parents' work and child-care schedules for the preceding twelve months;

(d) The parents' present current work and child-care schedules;

(e) Any anticipated changes in the parents' present work schedule, child care schedules, or residence which would result in a move outside the jurisdiction of the court while the case is pending; and

(f) Any of the circumstances set forth in section 18 of this act that are likely to pose a serious risk to the child and that warrant limitation on the award to a parent of temporary residence or time with the child pending entry of a permanent parenting plan.

(4) At the hearing, the court shall enter a temporary parenting plan that includes:

(a) A schedule for the child's time with the nonresidential parent where and as appropriate, during which the nonresidential parent may make decisions regarding the child's day-to-day care;

(b) Designation of a temporary residence for the child in accordance with section 8 of this act. The parent whose home is so designated may make all decisions regarding the child's care other than those specified in (a) of this subsection, pending final resolution of the matter;

(c) Provisions for temporary support for the child in accordance with section 19 of this act; and

(d) Restraining orders, if applicable, under section 9(2) of this act.

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3) of this section, a parent may make a motion for an order to show cause and the court may enter a temporary order, including a temporary parenting plan, upon showing of necessity.

(6) A parent may move for amendment of a temporary parenting plan, and the court may order amendment to the temporary parenting plan, if the amendment conforms to the limitations of section 18 of this act and is in the best interest of the child. If the court finds that the moving party brought the motion in bad faith, the court may award attorneys' fees and court costs of the nonmoving party.

(7) If a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity is dismissed, any temporary parenting plan is vacated unless a parent or the child's custodian moves that the proceeding continue as a custody proceeding and the court finds, after a hearing, that the circumstances of the parents and the best interests of the child require that a permanent parenting plan be issued.

(8) If a custody proceeding commenced in the absence of a petition for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity, (section 32(1) of this act) is dismissed, any temporary order is vacated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. CRITERIA IN ISSUANCE OF TEMPORARY PARENTING PLAN. (1) After considering the affidavit required by section 7(3) of this act and other relevant evidence presented, the court shall make a temporary parenting plan that is in the best interest of the child. It is presumed that the child's best interest is served by a temporary parenting plan that best maintains the child's emotional stability in the period pending entry of a final parenting plan. It is further presumed that, absent a showing that any of the limitations in section 18 of this act apply, the child's emotional stability is best fostered by maintaining the pattern of care established over the preceding twelve months.

(2) If one parent has been the primary caregiver during the preceding twelve months, that parent's home shall be designated as the child's temporary residence, unless:

- (a) Any of the limiting factors in section 18 of this act apply;
- (b) The parties have made a voluntary, knowing agreement to the contrary, which the court finds to be in the child's best interest;
- (c) The child's developmental level is sufficiently advanced for the child to decide, and the child desires to reside with the other parent; or
- (d) This designation is not in the best interests of the child.

(3) If neither parent has been the primary caregiver during the preceding twelve months, the court shall designate the child's residence in accordance with the standards set forth in subsection (1) of this section.

(4) In allocating time and activities between the parents with the child, unless limited or precluded by section 18 of this act, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including but not limited to:

- (a) Agreement of the parents;
- (b) The child's established social or educational activities, if any;
- (c) The child's age and developmental level;
- (d) The parents' geographic proximity to one another;
- (e) The child's desires, where the child's developmental level is sufficiently advanced; and
- (f) The child's need for frequent and continuing contact with each of the parents.

Each parent's relationship with his or her child is of fundamental importance to the welfare of the child. The relationship and interaction between a parent and child should be altered only to the extent necessitated by the changed relationship of the parents or as required to protect the best interests of the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. TEMPORARY MAINTENANCE OR CHILD SUPPORT—TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER—PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION—SUPPORT DEBTS, NOTICE. (1) In a proceeding for:

- (a) Dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or a declaration of invalidity; or
- (b) Disposition of property or liabilities, maintenance, or support following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse; either party may move for temporary maintenance or for temporary support of children entitled to support. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested.

(2) As a part of a motion for temporary maintenance or support or by independent motion accompanied by affidavit, either party may request the court to issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, providing relief proper in the circumstances, and restraining or enjoining any person from:

- (a) Transferring, removing, encumbering, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and, if so restrained or enjoined, requiring the person to notify the moving party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures made after the order is issued;

(b) Molesting or disturbing the peace of the other party or of any child and, upon a showing by clear and convincing evidence that the party so restrained or enjoined has used or displayed or threatened to use a deadly weapon as defined in RCW 9A.04.110 in an act of violence or has previously committed acts of domestic violence and is likely to use or display or threaten to use a deadly weapon in an act of domestic violence, requiring the party to surrender any deadly weapon in the party's immediate possession or control or subject to the party's immediate possession or control to the sheriff of the county having jurisdiction of the proceeding or to the restrained or enjoined party's counsel or to any person designated by the court. The court may order temporary surrender of deadly weapons for a period not to exceed thirty days without notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for response has elapsed:

(c) Entering the family home or the home of the other party upon a showing of the necessity therefor;

(d) Removing a child from the jurisdiction of the court.

(3) The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

(4) The court may issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction and an order for temporary maintenance or support in such amounts and on such terms as are just and proper in the circumstances.

(5) Restraining orders issued under this section restraining the person from molesting or disturbing another party or from entering a party's home shall bear the legend: VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER WITH ACTUAL NOTICE OF ITS TERMS IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE UNDER CHAPTER 26.09 RCW AND WILL SUBJECT A VIOLATOR TO ARREST.

(6) The court may order that any temporary restraining order granted under this section be forwarded by the clerk of the court on or before the next judicial day to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the order. Upon receipt of the order, the law enforcement agency shall forthwith enter the order for one year into any computer-based criminal intelligence information system available in this state used by law enforcement agencies to list outstanding warrants. Entry into the law enforcement information system constitutes notice to all law enforcement agencies of the existence of the order. The order is fully enforceable in any county in the state.

(7) A temporary order, temporary restraining order, or preliminary injunction:

(a) Does not prejudice the rights of a party or any child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding;

(b) May be revoked or modified;

(c) Terminates when the final decree is entered or when the petition for dissolution, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity is dismissed;

(d) May be entered in a proceeding for the modification of an existing decree.
