SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4798, by Senators Granlund, Zimmerman, Kreidler and Talmadge

Providing for enforcement of water quality.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thompson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4798 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4798 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Granlund, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 3, after "90.48 RCW." insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department is not required to comply with sections 3, 4, and 5 of this act unless specific funding is provided therefore."

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4798 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Granlund, I notice in the synopsis here, 'The Department of Ecology is to periodically review water quality standards and a report is to be submitted to the Legislature by January.' Are they going to review and change the water quality standards or what do they have in mind?"

Senator Granlund: "They were unable to do so with the fiscal note that's attached because it didn't appropriate the funds to do that. I would assume they could make a report back to us on the unannounced investigations to help do something with water quality."

Senator Rasmussen: "Is it your belief that they will stick with the federal water quality standards as published?"

Senator Granlund: "Yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Granlund, since we have effectively taken out anything except the requirement for them to make a ten percent inspection for those who already have water quality permits and that those be unannounced, I'm just wondering why there's really any need for the bill at all, if we are no longer--and I really can't understand why they thought they needed an additional appropriation for us to require them to put together rules and regulations for these particular kinds of waste discharge permits when the Legislative Budget Committee quite clearly in their analysis of this Department chided them for not having done so when they had specifically been granted additional funds in this biennium budget to make such inspections, as well as the rules and regulations. Why we're suddenly saying now--unless they get an additional appropriation--they don't have to do it. I just think that's a cop-out for us."

Senator Granlund: "I don't think we're saying they don't have to do it. We're hopeful that they will do it, Senator Lee."

Senator Lee: "What you're saying is the Department is not required to comply with those sections, unless specific funding is provided."

Senator Granlund: "You're correct. The part that they can do or have not been doing is the unannounced investigations and until the funding is there it would not be done. Certainly, we would expect the report that LBC has asked for."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4798.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having served prior notice, Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4659 failed to pass the Senate earlier today.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4659 failed to pass the Senate.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4659, on reconsideration.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4659 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall apply community property law under chapter 26.16 RCW for purposes of determining eligibility for medical assistance or the limited casualty program for the medically needy for institutionalized persons and recipients of home and community-based waivers as defined in Title XIX of the federal social security act except that:

(1) An agreement between spouses transferring or assigning rights to future income from one spouse to the other shall be invalid for purposes of determining eligibility for medical assistance or the limited casualty program for the medically needy, but this subsection does not affect agreements between spouses transferring or assigning resources, and income produced by transferred or assigned resources shall continue to be recognized as the separate income of the transferee; and

(2) The department shall not apply community property law where the income or earnings of the nonapplicant spouse exceeds the income or earnings of the applicant spouse.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of social and health services for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of two million seven hundred nine thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Talmadge, I have a letter from Secretary Shinpoch of the Department of Social and Health Services, dated February the 4th, which says that the Department does not intend to impact the transfer of the asset's amendment which permits unlimited transfer of resources between spouses. In your opinion, does this amendment affect the statement made by Senator Shinpoch in any way?"

Senator Talmadge: "I think it's consistent with the statement made by Secretary Shinpoch. It affects only income and not assets."

Senator Deccio: "I guess the next question I have is the difference between transfer of resources as opposed to income."

Senator Talmadge: "The intention, Senator, is to affect only income not tangible assets or resources of the parties. That would be handled consistent with the section that you and I worked on back in 1982."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Talmadge.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 2. after "74.09 RCW;" insert "making an appropriation;"

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4659 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Senator Talmadge, the exchange between you and Senator Deccio attracts my attention. This only deals with income so you could have a lot of wealth, but not much income and transfer that around? Is that correct?"

Senator Talmadge: "That is correct, Senator McDonald. Of course, you should recall that the federal tax code frowns upon such transfers of assets and such transfers of assets do carry some considerable capital gain and income significance, that's why there's some disincentive for people to do that. This permits people to make the kind of separate property agreements and community property agreements that are rather common out there that people utilize. There is some value in doing that but it does not, in effect, provide an incentive for people to do that as a mechanism for qualifying someone for a public assistance, specifically medicaid."

Senator McDonald: "Then the barrier to doing that would be the penalty that you pay in capital gains?"

Senator Talmadge: "That's my belief, yes--among other things."

Senator McDonald: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, it's not quite clear yet. Take that person that has a three hundred dollar income and the other person that has seven hundred dollars, say, combined they've got a thousand dollars, which is a minimum standard of living. What would this do? Would this say that you split the income with the one person who's going into the nursing home or whatever?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I'll let Senator Kreidler respond to that. The idea is to recognize in a limited way the separate property status of the property, the community property status of the property, depending upon whether they're the primary generator of income and the other individual is in a situation of qualifying for assistance.

"Senator Kreidler may respond--"

Senator Rasmussen: "Why I was interested in it, is that the survivor never has enough money to live on. Once it's decided, that money is gone. The person that is in the home dies. The decision still stands and whoever is the survivor, man or woman, there's no inheritance after you've taken it away. No, because many of these pensions are not inheritable."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KREIDLER

Senator Kreidler: "Senator Rasmussen, if the person in the nursing home was the person with the seven hundred dollar income and the person on the outside was the one with three hundred, then community property would apply. You would essentially get five hundred dollars of the income from the person on the outside. If the person on the outside has the seven hundred dollar income and the person in the nursing home had three hundred, then community laws don't apply. The person on the outside keeps the seven hundred.

"That is a marked improvement over the current practice that preceded the Purser case or the one that is being applied after the Purser case. I should say the one after the Purser case essentially protects that position for that--"

Senator Rasmussen: "One other question, please. The Purser v. Rahm went in last fall according to Senator Talmadge. How many cases have been filed? And were they wealthy or poor?"

Senator Kreidler: "Essentially, the people who have come back under the Purser situation were women who ever since medicaid became the law of the land, and essentially what would happen is that person on the outside who was the low income one would have community property applied, so that they would have essentially then been limited effectively to the five hundred dollars by virtue--excuse me, to half of the property that was on the outside. If it were a hundred and fifty, they would come under SSI and qualify that way. They were really penalized. As a result of the Purser case then, they benefited in exactly the way the amendment specifies in the sense that if community laws applied, it would be averaging of their two incomes and fifty percent then of that would be applied."

Senator Rasmussen: "My concern is that women live an average of ten years longer than the men and that's my concern that they'll be left with nothing."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4659.

(2) To the maximum extent practicable, the local hazardous waste plan shall be coordinated with other hazardous materials-related plans and policies in the jurisdiction.

(3) In recognition of the role of the private sector in providing hazardous and moderate-risk waste management facilities and transportation services, and in addition to other public involvement activities that may be required, local governments shall coordinate with those persons involved in providing such facilities and services.

(4) (a) The department shall prepare guidelines for the development of local hazardous waste plans. The guidelines shall be prepared in consultation with local governments and shall be completed by December 31, 1986. The guidelines shall include a list of substances identified as hazardous household substances.

(b) In preparing the guidelines under (a) of this subsection, the department shall review and assess information on pilot projects that have been conducted for moderate-risk waste management. The department shall encourage additional pilot projects as needed to provide information to improve and update the guidelines.

(5) The department shall consult with retailers, trade associations, public interest groups, and appropriate units of local government to encourage the development of voluntary public education programs on the proper handling of hazardous household substances.

(6) Local hazardous waste plans shall be completed and submitted to the department no later than June 30, 1990. Local governments may from time to time amend the local plan.

~~((6))~~ (7) Each local government, or combination of contiguous local governments, shall submit its local hazardous waste plan or amendments thereto to the department. The department shall approve or disapprove local hazardous waste plans or amendments by December 31, 1990, or within ninety days of submission, whichever is later. The department shall approve a local hazardous waste plan if it determines that the plan is consistent with this chapter and the guidelines under subsection (4) of this section. If approval is denied, the department shall submit its objections to the local government within ninety days of submission. However, for plans submitted between January 1, 1990, and June 30, 1990, the department shall have one hundred eighty days to submit its objections. No local government is eligible for grants under RCW 70.105.235 for implementing a local hazardous waste plan unless the plan for that jurisdiction has been approved by the department.

~~((7))~~ (8) Each local government, or combination of contiguous local governments, shall implement the local hazardous waste plan for its jurisdiction by December 31, 1991.

~~((8))~~ (9) The department may waive the specific requirements of this section for any local government if such local government demonstrates to the satisfaction of the department that the objectives of the planning requirements ~~(has have)~~ been met.

Sec. 2. Section 9, chapter 448, Laws of 1985 and RCW 70.105.235 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to legislative appropriations, the department may make and administer grants to local governments for (a) preparing and updating local hazardous waste plans, (b) implementing approved local hazardous waste plans, and (c) designating eligible zones for designated zone facilities as required under this chapter.

(2) Local governments shall match the funds provided by the department for planning or designating zones with an amount not less than twenty-five percent of the estimated cost of the work to be performed. Local governments may meet their share of costs with cash or contributed services. Local governments, or combination of contiguous local governments, conducting pilot projects pursuant to RCW 70.105.220(4) may subtract the cost of those pilot projects conducted for hazardous household substances from their share of the cost. If a pilot project has been conducted for all moderate-risk wastes, only the portion of the cost that applies to hazardous household substances shall be subtracted. The matching funds requirement under this subsection shall be waived for local governments, or combination of contiguous local governments, that complete and submit their local hazardous waste plans under RCW 70.105.220(6) prior to June 30, 1988.

(3) Recipients of grants shall meet such qualifications and follow such procedures in applying for and using grants as may be established by the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 70.105 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature recognizes the need for new, modified, or expanded facilities to treat, incinerate, or otherwise process or dispose of hazardous substances safely. In order to encourage the development of such facilities, the department shall adopt rules as necessary regarding the permitting of such facilities to ensure the most expeditious permit processing possible consistent with the substantive requirements of applicable law. If owners and operators are not the same entity, the operator shall be the permit applicant and responsible for the development of the permit application and all accompanying materials, as long as the owner also signs the application and certifies its ownership of the real property described in the application, and acknowledges its awareness of the contents of the application and receipt of a copy thereof.

On motion of Senator Kreidler, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "uses;" strike "and" and after "70.105.235" insert "; and adding a new section to chapter 70.105 RCW"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kreidler, the rules were suspended. Second Substitute House Bill No. 136, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 136, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 136, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 44.

Absent: Senator McCaslin - 1.

Excused: Senators Fleming, McDonald, Sellar, Stratton - 4.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 136, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 160, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representative P. King)

Authorizing fees for certain preadmission screening processes.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 18, after "which" strike "requires" and insert "authorizes"

Senator Pullen moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 20, after "fees" insert "not to exceed ten dollars per preadmission student"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Gaspard, what are the fees they are charging? Let's get an idea of where we are in this because perhaps Senator Pullen's amendment isn't necessary and maybe the fees are very high. What are they charging in these cases?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Metcalf, in those districts that seem to be doing this, we don't have any indication in committee testimony of what the fees were. We didn't have anybody to testify that they had been exorbitant or they had been burdensome at any case. It's a situation where there's ambiguity in the law and we're trying to straighten it out and have provisos that allow the local school districts to adopt common sense and rules of common reason."

Senator Metcalf: "Thank you, Senator Gaspard, it appears to me that we don't have an idea of what the fees are. I guess I'm going to go with Senator Pullen on the amendment just to put a limit there, since we don't have any idea of what is now being charged."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Gaspard, in the testimony before your committee, how many of these pre-admission tests, on the whole, would they have?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Rasmussen, that would be determined by the local school district and the parents."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I mean in past history. What did they have--a thousand, two thousand or three thousand people who were asking for pre-admission screening?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator, I don't know if I can give you an exact figure. The committee did not look in asking those types of questions to those who testified. I quite frankly don't see that there is any particular bearing on how many students and parents who are asking for pre-admittance. We do know that it takes place and sometimes it is time-consuming for the school districts, but it is also important that they do these types of pre-screening testing and some of them can be rather extensive."

Senator Rasmussen: "You indicated, Senator Gaspard, that maybe this would take money away from basic education and that's why I was wondering just how many people were involved--young children?"

Senator Gaspard: "I don't think it's a great percentage to be alarmed but I know that Senator Pullen always has a concern about basic education money."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Gaspard."
Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, and there being no objection, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 160 was deferred.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Goltz moved that the following resolution be adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1986-157

by Senators Goltz, Benitz and Hayner

WHEREAS, The state of Washington and the province of British Columbia have historically enjoyed excellent relations, with citizens of each jurisdiction partaking of the products, services, and hospitality of the other; and

WHEREAS, This good neighbor relationship is reflected in the participation by the state of Washington in "Expo 86"; and

WHEREAS, Existing barriers to trade have resulted in a significant trade deficit for the United States in relation to Canada; and

WHEREAS, The federal governments of the United States and Canada are currently negotiating toward reduction of these barriers to improve the flow of trade and the quality of life for the citizens of both countries; and

WHEREAS, The British Columbia Liquor Distribution Branch continues to impose a discriminatory mark up on beer and wine imported from the state of Washington for sale in the provincial liquor stores, resulting in products produced in the state of Washington being at a distinct competitive disadvantage and unnecessarily high prices for the citizens of British Columbia; and

WHEREAS, The British Columbia Liquor Distribution Branch has recently acted to change the levy on the casual importation of beer and wine in a way that will result in an enormous increase in costs to citizens of British Columbia who purchase beer and wine in Washington State; and

WHEREAS, A levy which makes a prohibitive increase in the cost of purchasing beer and wine in Washington State by citizens of British Columbia can be viewed as an unfriendly barrier to trade which has the potential for giving rise to retaliatory actions which would be counterproductive to a desirable broadening of economic and cultural interchange between the state of Washington and British Columbia;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington protests the action of the British Columbia Liquor Distribution Branch under which an exorbitant increase is to be made in the casual beer and wine importation levy and requests reconsideration of that action; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution shall be immediately transmitted to the Honorable William Richard Bennett, Premier of the Province of British Columbia, the Provincial Parliament of the Province of British Columbia, and Mr. Robert A. Wallace, General Manager of the British Columbia Liquor Distribution Branch.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Goltz, at the bottom, next to the last paragraph, 'an exorbitant increase is to be made in casual beer and wine importation'--does that mean if you're going up to the Expo and you want to take a little extra booze along with you to keep you going that a levy will be made there at the border patrol station or does this relate to truckloads in commerce? One more question, if I should be coming from California with a gallon of California wine and go through Oregon and Washington without tax and then when I get to British Columbia, would they put a ten dollar a gallon tax on it?"

Senator Goltz: "They would put the levy on the wine regardless of its origin as I understand it. If you bring wine from California all the way through to the border, when it gets to the border you have to comply with their requirements at the border.

"With respect to your first question. The intent here is the casual bringing. That means a few bottles. It does not apply to truckloads. Their government is a completely different part of the law. This is for casual beer and wine importation and the Canadians come down, because they like our products and they bring them back as--I think the word 'casual' is to refer really to private use or personal use of these products."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, another question. I haven't seen the regulation, but they do not allow you to one bottle or the two bottle limit as the other states do?"

Senator Goltz: "As I understand it, they apply a duty to every part of what is brought in under this arrangement."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of Senate Resolution 1986-157.

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the resolution was adopted.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President introduced Dr. Michael Inoue, Vice President of the Kyocera Corporation, a major investor in electronic manufacturing facilities in Clark County, and a guest of Senator Alan Thompson, who were seated on the rostrum.

by Senators Vognild, Bender, Bailey, McManus, Bottiger, Metcalf and Johnson

WHEREAS, The Puget Sound region has long been recognized for its strategic importance to the security of the United States; and

WHEREAS, The members of the Washington State Senate are aware of the United States Navy's decision to select the city of Everett as the site for development of a home port facility for a carrier battle group; and

WHEREAS, This decision shows the Navy's recognition of not only the strategic value of the Everett site for national defense purposes, but also the industrial capacity of the Puget Sound region to service and support such a facility; and

WHEREAS, The development and operation of the home port facility will stimulate economic activity throughout the entire Puget Sound region by generating thousands of new jobs with a payroll that will result in increased consumer purchasing and tax revenues for state and local governments; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of the city of Everett demonstrated their overwhelming support for the Navy's decision to locate a home port facility in Everett through a special advisory vote taken in the 1984 general election; and

WHEREAS, The Navy has already demonstrated a good faith commitment to following through on its decision to develop the Everett home port facility by allocating almost eighteen million dollars for land acquisition as the first phase of facility development; and

WHEREAS, The Washington State Senate has historically taken responsibility for helping to mitigate and manage the impacts of major economic development projects through enhancement of such public sector responsibilities as schools, roads, and the provision of health and human services:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate extends a warm welcome to the United States Navy in its move to establish a home port facility in the city of Everett; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate declares its commitment to fulfilling the Washington State Legislature's historical obligation to help affected local governments in any reasonable and appropriate way to mitigate and manage the impacts of this home port facility development.

Do you know what the arrangement is in each of these school districts for after-hour payment of drivers and what-have-you, when they use buses after the school hours?"

Senator Gaspard: "The allocation system that we have now for transportation does not allow for extra curricular activity transportation, so it has to come out of your local funds--other funds in basic education--if that's what you're concerned about."

Senator Patterson: "Basically, my concern is that transportation now is under the basic education act--the transportation of students."

Senator Gaspard: "To and from school."

Senator Patterson: "Paid for by--I just want to make sure that the school districts understand that this is not going to be picked up in the state appropriation and I wanted to make sure that that does not happen--that it comes out of their local levy money."

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Patterson, to agree with you, we pay basically to and from the school. There may be exceptions for handicapped students, but for extra curricular activities--basic education--through the allocation of transportation funds does not allow for extra curricular activity."

The omnibus biennial operating appropriations act shall include an appropriation for the full amount that will be paid out during the biennium under any postretirement cost-of-living adjustment adopted after the effective date of this act.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 96, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.485 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, ~~((1979))~~ 1986, as a cost-of-living adjustment, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, the retirement allowance of each beneficiary who either is receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.520 or 41.32.550 as of December 31, 1978, or commenced receiving a monthly retirement allowance under this chapter as of a date no later than July 1, 1974, shall be permanently increased by a post-retirement adjustment. This adjustment shall be in lieu of any adjustments provided under RCW 41.32.499(b) as of July 1, 1979, or July 1, 1980, for the affected beneficiaries. Such adjustment shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Retirement allowances to which this subsection and subsection (1) of this section are both applicable shall be determined by first applying subsection (1) and then applying this subsection. The department shall determine the total years of creditable service and the total dollar benefit base accrued as of December 31, 1978, except that this determination shall take into account only those beneficiaries to whom this subsection applies;

(b) The department shall multiply the total benefits determined in (a) of this subsection by six percent and divide the dollar value thus determined by the total service determined in (a) of this subsection. The resultant figure shall then be a post-retirement increase factor which shall be applied as specified in (c) of this subsection;

(c) Each beneficiary to whom this subsection applies shall receive an increase which is the product of the factor determined in (b) of this subsection multiplied by the years of creditable service.

(3) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.540 or 41.32.760 through 41.32.825.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 96, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.198 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, ~~((1979))~~ 1986, as a cost-of-living adjustment, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.40.220(1), 41.44.170(5), or 41.40.610 through 41.40.740.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. There is appropriated five million three hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, from the general fund for the purposes of paying the cost-of-living adjustments provided in sections 2 and 3 of this 1986 act. Of this amount, two million dollars shall be deposited in the teachers' retirement fund and three million three hundred thousand dollars shall be deposited in the public employees' retirement fund.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1986-158

by Senators Zimmerman, Bluechel, Kiskaddon and Bender

WHEREAS, Learning disabilities, including dyslexia, are defined as disorders in one or more of the basic psychological processes involved in understanding or in using language, spoken or written, which may manifest itself in an imperfect ability to listen, think, speak, read, write, spell, or to do mathematical calculations; and

WHEREAS, The number of children suffering from learning disabilities is increasing with estimates of reading failure including ten to twenty percent of the school population. Ten percent of children in middle class homes risk school failure in the first three grades. One child in thirty is affected; and

WHEREAS, During the later school years about ninety percent of a student's studies depend directly upon reading ability. Students who fail to develop highly skilled reading abilities face serious handicaps in their future as productive citizens. They often face lower lifetime earnings, lower social status, and they experience greater difficulty achieving goals commonly associated with happiness and success in our culture; and

WHEREAS, The unrecognized or untreated learning disabilities lead to the tragic failure of children who never reach their full potential; and

WHEREAS, Shari Lyn Rusch has suffered severe learning disabilities including dyslexia, limiting physical conditions, and personal trauma; and

WHEREAS, Due to early identification, strong parental support, and her sheer determination and strong desire to succeed, she has overcome those disabilities, graduating fourth in her high school class, winning the Miss Northshore beauty pageant, and successfully embarking upon a degree program at the University of Washington with a goal of master's degree in clinical psychology; and

WHEREAS, She has successfully completed and published a book, detailing her experiences and philosophies; and

WHEREAS, Despite the predictions of failure by educators and test results indicating low achievement potential, she continues to overcome these predictions and achieve much greater success than expected;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate recognizes and honors the courage and determination displayed by Shari Lyn Rusch and acknowledges that her spirit and dedication serve as a fine example to all young persons, especially the learning disabled; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Shari Lyn Rusch and her family.

Debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Kiskaddon: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. I guess my main concern is that when you do have amendments in the book and they are to be considered and you stop a meeting at one part of the day and you pick it up at another part of the day and then say, 'I will not consider the amendments you still have in the book that dealt with other sections to the bill.' I do not like the practice. I believe in the process of an open committee meeting. It means take the time for the amendments that are there and to say too that we would just not consider any amendments in committee when they were on the desk and in the books in the afternoon and to stop a meeting at one point and say you cannot offer amendments at another point, I don't like it and as a chairman, I will guarantee you--if I'm in that roll--I would not ever do that. That's a real violation for a good committee process."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wojahn: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. One point of clarification on stopping a meeting--and it wasn't stopping a meeting--the time was over. The Transportation Committee was already moving into the committee room. The people who wished to testify before Transportation were coming in. There was no time to consider a ream of amendments that were laid before us and the committee was adjourned.

"As far as what occurred in the evening of the committee meeting, after the Kiskaddon amendment was stripped from the bill, the other amendments that were on the desk related to the amendment that was out of the bill and there were at least two hundred people there to testify on an important bill that we had set special time away to consider. To delay and go into a ream of amendments that didn't fit after the amendment was stripped, would have been taking time away when there were problems before us. We all know that bills are killed through the amendatory process. If you can delay a committee long enough, you can kill any bill before this body and that's exactly what appeared to be happening and I'm not impugning anyone's motives. It's simply that there is a time; everyone knew the cutoff was here. The cutoff is here now and we did the best that we could under very, very distressing situations.

"I have before me a note here--a communication from Senator Stratton, whose husband is gravely ill. She could not come; I called and asked her--offered to pay for a nurse to be with her husband so she could be here, so you could see her. She said, 'I can't. He's too ill. I have to learn to use this equipment and it's dreadfully difficult and I simply cannot handle any more.' So, I did fly to Spokane. Senator Stratton this session--during this session in 1986--received a state award for her work in the area of drug abuse and substance abuse.

"This bill has great public interest. It is a bill that needs to be heard. Amendments can be offered on the floor. The bill will be heard. This is your chance. She wanted on that bill. She wanted to be here. She could not be. She has made one statement that I have before me--'In the last decade, we have begun to fight the drug abuse battle in earnest and that is a tremendous first step. However, we need to continue to combine awareness with action, if we are to successfully overcome the problem of drug abuse in our society.' Now this is the statement from Senator Stratton. I wanted you to hear it. I wanted you to know of her keen interest, and had she been able to be here for one bill in her entire term of office, this would have been the bill she would have wanted to be here for. Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, I would like to ask for a clarification ruling as to whether this bill is properly before us, based on the fact that the signature was gathered in a most unusual way, and if this is something that will be allowed in the Senate?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President has been informed by the Secretary that proper procedure was followed, therefore, the President believes that the measure was properly before the Senate and was properly referred to the Senate Rules Committee."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator McCaslin: "Thank you, Mr. President, one more point. I would ask the President and the Secretary of the Senate if this was done before in the history of the Senate and if it's going to be a standard practice that when a Senator is not here that we can fly around the state and gather their signatures?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Senator McCaslin, you rule on those things one at a time. I think, for your information, when Senator Woody was dying of cancer, we did get his signature a couple of times."

Further debate ensued.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1743, by Representatives Nutley, Vander Stoep, Grimm, Hastings and Rust

Providing for use tax collection.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1743 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Goltz, do they collect the use tax in Canada and if we go up there to visit Expo, we can come back with everything we can get by the border without paying the use tax?"

Senator Goltz: "My understanding is that we do pay use taxes when we buy goods in Canada. I'm not aware of being excused from paying taxes in Canadian stores."

Senator Rasmussen: "I wasn't aware of it and I was going to ask Senator Bauer."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bauer, you go across to Meier and Frank or some place over there--just cross the bridge and buy your new shoes, do they stop you when you come back across the state line and ask you to pay the use tax that you've never paid in Oregon?"

Senator Bauer: "Well, Senator Rasmussen, I just did buy a new pair of shoes a few weeks ago and I hid them in the back of my truck when I came back and they didn't get any tax on it. I should have paid tax."

Senator Rasmussen: "Usually you leave the old ones there and bring the new ones back. You're changing your methods then?"

Senator Bauer: "That's right."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, thank you. It would appear to me that we're giving too big of an advantage to the border. Those people who live close, of course, and there's no toll on the bridge anymore, which could be a use tax. The people in all the border counties can do their shopping and pay no use tax, even with this law. Is that correct?"

Senator Bauer: "If it's mail order catalog, that's different from going over and buying right off of the counter, certainly. The people are supposed to pay the sales tax now when they go across the border and when they come back that is a reasonable requirement, but Senator Rasmussen, as Senator Vognild said, you know we are playing a new expression around here in unlevel fields for our businesses in Southwestern Washington that pay all of the taxes in the state of Washington, pay the B & O, pay all the property taxes and are good citizens and yet their businesses go down the drain, because we allow a big loophole in the law and so they are at a disadvantage to everybody else. You know, if you are for our Washington State businesses and want them to thrive and exist and pay state taxes and pay for schools, then we ought to give them as much protection as we can--just a good old Republican concept. Right?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Goltz, I'm worried about the border crossing. When we came back last summer, it took us about an hour to get across. We almost missed our plane. Now, when the State Department of Revenue sets up a use-tax collection station at the border, can you give an estimate of how long it is going to take us to cross the border next summer?"

Senator Goltz: "About three hours."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Rasmussen, are you going to go to Expo '86?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No."

Senator Guess: "You're going to save that three hours?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I am and I'm going to save my money. They tell me that prices are very high in Canada. It might be fine--the Expo. I know that Senator Goltz has worked very hard on it, but I'm not going."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Williams, I'm always concerned when we allow interception of private communication, such as telephone calls, and I understand the intent behind this bill, but I want to understand the breadth of what we're covering here. For example, we're adding the words, 'emergency medical service' and 'emergency communication center' in the bill and yet I don't see those terms defined anywhere in the bill. Can you give me an example of emergency medical services and emergency communication centers? What kind of emergencies are we talking about here and, for example, would your family doctor be an example of an emergency medical service? Are we taking out flood control, for example, under emergency communications? I just want to understand all the groups or agencies that will now be able to intercept and record the private telephone conversations."

Senator Williams: "I'm not certain that I can, at this particular moment, give you a definition of all of those. I know in the case of emergency medical service, we're basically talking about the emergency section of a hospital, if you call the hospital, or an ambulance service perhaps—I'm not sure about that."

"The people who testified at the committee in support of the bill were basically the Washington Poison Network and the Washington State Medical Association. I don't believe that I can give you a technically correct answer to those terms at this moment."

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 134, by Representatives Jacobsen, Long, Unsoeld, Allen, Todd, Niemi, Appelwick, Tilly, Winsley, Tanner, Lux, May and Belcher

Regulating the use of automatic dialing and announcing devices.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Williams moved that the following amendment by Senators Williams, Saling and Bailey be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the use of automatic dialing and announcing devices for purposes of commercial solicitation: (1) Deprives consumers of the opportunity to immediately question a seller about the veracity of their claims; (2) subjects consumers to unwarranted invasions of their privacy; and (3) encourages inefficient and potentially harmful use of the telephone network. The legislature further finds that it is in the public interest to prohibit the use of automatic dialing and announcing devices for purposes of commercial solicitation.

The legislature finds that information delivery services, which are also known as information-access telephone services and more commonly known as "976" services, are in widespread use in the state. These services operate on a charge-per-call basis and provide revenue for both the service provider and the telecommunications companies. The marketing practices for these toll telephone services have at times been misleading to consumers and at other times specifically directed toward children. The result has been the placement of calls by individuals, particularly by children, uninformed about the charges that might apply. Therefore, the legislature finds that residential telephone users in the state are entitled to reasonable protection from telephone services they have no desire to use due to confusion or misinformation about these services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) As used in sections 1 through 7 of this act:

(a) An automatic dialing device is a device which automatically dials telephone numbers. An automatic announcing device is a device that plays a recorded message once a connection is made. An automatic announcing device includes recorded messages known as information delivery services.

(b) Commercial solicitation means the unsolicited initiation of a telephone conversation for the purpose of encouraging a person to purchase property, goods, or services.

(c) "Information delivery services" means telephone recorded messages, interactive programs, or other information services which are provided for a charge to a caller. These services are usually provided through a "976" telephone number.

(d) "Information providers" means the persons or corporations that provide the information, prerecorded message, or interactive program to the telecommunications company for the information delivery service. The information provider generally receives a portion of the revenue from the calls.

(e) "Interactive program" means a program which allows an information delivery service caller, once connected to the information provider's announcement machine, to use the caller's telephone device to access more specific information.

(f) "Currently equipped" means an existing switch and software that has the current capability of blocking access to information delivery services on an individual customer basis.

(2) No person may use both an automatic dialing and announcing device for purposes of commercial solicitation. This section applies to all commercial solicitation intended to be received by telephone customers within the state.

(3) A violation of this section is a violation of chapter 19.86 RCW. It shall be presumed that damages to the recipient of commercial solicitations made using an automatic dialing and announcing device are five hundred dollars.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Washington utilities and transportation commission from adopting additional rules regulating automatic dialing and announcing devices.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The utilities and transportation commission shall by rule require telecommunications companies to offer each residential telephone subscriber the opportunity to have the subscriber's telephone blocked or deleted from access to all information delivery services. This means that the residential telephone subscriber's telephone would not complete a call to any 976 or information delivery service number. Under this rule, any telecommunications company that makes available information delivery services must also make available to its subscribers the blocking service described in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The utilities and transportation commission shall by rule mandate that information providers who make information available that constitutes lewd matter under RCW 7.48A.010 also provide at their expense for access to their services only through a personal identification number in conjunction with 976.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The telecommunications company shall inform subscribers of the rules adopted under sections 3 and 4 of this act, including the availability of the blocking service, through a bill insert or by publication in the telephone directory.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The costs of complying with the rules adopted under sections 3 and 4 of this act shall be borne by the information providers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The rules under sections 3 through 6 of this act shall take effect on or before December 1, 1986. The commission may also order a phase-in period for the rules if a telecommunications company is not currently equipped to block the services. If a telecommunications company is not so equipped, then the commission shall examine the economic feasibility of installing the blocking system if the newly installed system would be only for the purpose of blocking access to information delivery services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 2 through 7 of this act are each added to chapter 80.36 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1654 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Thompson, a specific example that I have in mind--the Federal Way School District has voted itself a bond issue for its share of state building funds, however, included in that school district's boundaries are many of the homes that are impacted by the Midway Landfill, with people not going to be able to sell their homes and so on, where the assessed valuations indeed may be plummeting. Would this bill, if passed, take care of that situation, so that they could still float the full amount of the bond issue that had previously been issued?"

Senator Thompson: "Yes, it will and your example provides an excellent reason why this measure should be supported. Senator Lee."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Thompson, you are speaking of an inside levy or council-managed bonds. Is there anything to prevent the elected officials from those areas from putting it to a vote of the people? It is my understanding that by going to the people they can go to any bond issue that they want to authorize, but this is allowing inside levies without the vote of the people, if I read it correctly."

Senator Thompson: "That is also how I read it, Senator Rasmussen."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Lee: "Senator Warnke, I notice in our summaries that it mentions that we are granting to the director that he could waive recoupment of this kind of recovery, if that recovery would be against equity and good conscience. Now I know all of us have had problems with some of those kinds of recoveries when there had been no fault on the part of the recipient--and then the subsequent recovery really created a hardship that the worker had no part in creating. I just wondered if you feel that this language will take care of those kinds of situations?"

Senator Warnke: "Senator Lee, thank you. The situation that you bring forward is exactly what the committee had in mind and what the people had in mind when they were putting the bill together to give that discretion in those cases where there would be undue hardship and it was no fault of the injured workman."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 1490.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Warnke, I notice on page 2, in subsection 7(a), which is new material, we speak to self-insurers being allowed to close claims when an injured worker returns to work and medical treatment is concluded. I guess I'm wondering, will the self-insurer decide when medical treatment is concluded or does the injured worker who may require additional help or a few more treatments to stay on the job, does he have anything to say in this matter?"

Senator Warnke: "Thank you, Senator Moore. It is certainly not our intent that the self-insurer be allowed to close such a case as that. I would expect the department, when adopting rules required in this section, to make it clear that the worker and the attending provider of medical treatment agree that treatment is completed before a claim is closed. There is also further protection for the injured worker. On page 3, beginning on line 2, there is a protest procedure that would bring the department back into the case."

Senator Moore: "Very good. I hope that settles the matter."

All judicial positions created by the legislature after ~~((the effective date of this act))~~ July 28, 1985, including the additional judicial positions created by ~~((sections 1 through 3, chapter 357, Laws of 1985))~~ RCW 2.08.061, 2.08.062, and 2.08.064, shall be authorized only for counties that have implemented a mandatory arbitration program for civil claims to the maximum extent permitted by law. This section does not apply to counties of the third class or smaller, or to two- and three-county judicial districts with a population of less than seventy thousand. (1) The county uses a show cause or motion by affidavit calendar, or other procedure by which maintenance or support issues are decided on a summary basis; or

(2) Upon the request of the chief administrative judge of a judicial district, the office of the administrator for the courts determines that a mandatory arbitration program would be more costly and time consuming to the county than the procedure then in use in the county for determining support or maintenance issues.

(2) Any agreement between two or more counties for the operation of a joint family court service may provide that the treasurer of one participating county shall be the custodian of moneys made available for the purposes of the joint services, and that the treasurer may make payments from the moneys upon proper authorization.

(3) Any agreement between two or more counties for the operation of a joint family court service may also provide:

(a) For the joint provision or operation of services and facilities or for the provision or operation of services and facilities by one participating county under contract for the other participating counties;

(b) For appointments of members of the staff of the family court including the supervising counselor;

(c) That, for specified purposes, the members of the staff of the family court including the supervising counselor, but excluding the judges of the family court and other court personnel, shall be considered to be employees of one participating county;

(d) For other matters as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(4) The provisions of this chapter relating to family court services provided by a single county are equally applicable to counties which contract, under this section, to provide joint family court services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 26.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In any proceeding under this chapter, the matter may be set for mediation of the contested issues before or concurrent with the setting of the matter for hearing. The purpose of the mediation proceeding shall be to reduce acrimony which may exist between the parties and to develop an agreement assuring the child's close and continuing contact with both parents after the marriage is dissolved. The mediator shall use his or her best efforts to effect a settlement of the custody or visitation dispute.

(2) Each superior court may make available a mediator. The mediator may be a member of the professional staff of a family court or mental health services agency, or may be any other person or agency designated by the court. In order to provide mediation services, the court is not required to institute a family court.

(3) Mediation proceedings shall be held in private and shall be confidential. The mediator shall not testify as to any aspect of the mediation proceedings.

(4) The mediator shall assess the needs and interests of the child or children involved in the controversy and may interview the child or children if the mediator deems such interview appropriate or necessary.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Talmadge, what did you do about the allocation with respect to the counties and cities? In that first bill we passed, as I remember it, there was a change in the percentage going to the cities and counties and to the state for one year. Is that included in this?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes. That's essentially dealt with. I believe in Section 4 of the amendment, Senator Hayner. There is the surcharge and the moneys go to the Public Safety and Education Account. This was the approach that was taken in the Ways and Means Committee as the alternative to playing around with the split between the various entities. The split of 68-32 that our local clerks are concerned about and everything else remains untouched. This is simply the surcharge to make up for the deficit in the Public Safety and Education Account and I tell the members of the Senate quite candidly, I am going to urge the body to take a look at this account in the interim, so that we don't see this kind of shortfall problem again. We need to look at the mechanism for collecting fees and fines and forfeitures in the court system and we also need to see what programs are funded out of the PSEA to determine if those are appropriate."

Senator Hayner: "I'm sorry, Senator Talmadge, but is this just for one year?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, my understanding is that it is permanent. That's what was decided by the Ways and Means Committee, but I would urge us to take a look at that issue in the interim. This may not be the way we want to do it, but it's the only device available to us in the short term."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Talmadge and Newhouse.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1869, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Thompson, in reading this bill, I couldn't tell whether it's going to be one system of information controlled by this committee for the entire Legislature--everything that is entered into the IBM PCs will be in one system?"

Senator Thompson: "That's essentially correct. Yes."

Senator McDermott: "And so whatever our personal staff puts into a computer will be tied into a central data system?"

Senator Thompson: "Your questions seem to appear to be leaning toward concerns over security, Senator McDermott, and this bill does provide for the maintenance of security and would prevent the disclosure of information which a member might desire not have disclosed."

Senator McDermott: "So, what's put in by the budget chairman in one house will not be available to the budget chairman in the other house?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendment expands the scope and object of the bill. Mr. President, the amendment seeks to set a different speed limit and effects a different speed limit in the state providing that the infraction would not appear in the abstract, and would, therefore, not be available to the State Patrol and accumulating points for license revocation. Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4627 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the policy of the legislature to encourage competition by reducing the government's role in price setting. It is the legislature's intent to leave price setting mainly to the forces of the marketplace. In the field of cigarette sales, the legislature finds that the goal of open competition should be balanced against the public policy disallowing use of cigarette sales as loss leaders. To balance these public policies, it is the intent of the legislature to repeal the unfair cigarette sales below cost act and to declare the use of cigarettes as loss leaders as an unfair practice under the consumer protection act.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 1, chapter 173, Laws of 1984 and RCW 19.91.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(3) "Retailer" means and includes any person who operates a store, stand, booth, concession, or vending machine for the purpose of making sales of cigarettes at retail.

(4) "Cigarettes" means any roll for smoking made wholly or in part of tobacco, irrespective of size or shape and whether or not such tobacco is flavored, adulterated, or mixed with any other ingredient, the wrapper or cover of which is made of paper or any other substance or material except tobacco.

course of trade or in the usual conduct of the wholesaler's business, to a retailer for the purpose of resale.

(7) "Sell at retail", "sale at retail" and "retail sales" mean and include any transfer of title to cigarettes for a valuable consideration, made in the ordinary course of trade or usual conduct of the seller's business, to the purchaser for consumption or use.

The actual cash value of the operating property assessed to a company, as fixed and determined by the state board of equalization, shall be apportioned by the department of revenue to the respective counties and to the taxing districts thereof wherein such property is located in the following manner:

(1) Property of steam, suburban, and interurban railroad companies, telegraph companies and pipe line companies—upon the basis of that proportion of the value of the total operating property within the state which the mileage of track, as classified by the department of revenue (in case of railroads), mileage of wire (in the case of telegraph companies) and mileage of pipe line (in the case of pipe line companies) within each county or taxing district bears to the total mileage thereof within the state, at the end of the calendar year last past. For the purpose of such apportionment the department may classify railroad track.

(2) Property of street railroad companies, motor vehicle transportation companies, telephone companies, electric light and power companies, gas companies, water companies, heating companies and toll bridge companies—upon the basis of relative value of the operating property within each county and taxing district to the value of the total operating property within the state to be determined by such factors as the department of revenue shall deem proper; PROVIDED, That the value of any contracts that are entered into as a result of failure to complete construction or begin operations of a nuclear electricity generating plant, until such time that its operations begin, shall be apportioned to the location of that plant.

(3) Planes or other aircraft of airplane companies and watercraft of steamboat companies—upon the basis of such factor or factors of allocation, to be determined by the department of revenue, as will secure a substantially fair and equitable division between counties and other taxing districts.

All other property of airplane companies and steamboat companies—upon the basis set forth in subdivision (2) hereof.

The basis of apportionment with reference to all public utility companies above prescribed shall not be deemed exclusive and the department of revenue in apportioning values of such companies may also take into consideration such other information, facts, circumstances, or allocation factors as will enable it to make a substantially just and correct valuation of the operating property of such companies within the state and within each county thereof."

Renumber the sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Deccio: "Mr. President, I would like to challenge the scope and object on the amendment by Senators Owen and DeJarnatt. As I understand it, Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1270 is an act relating to local government and is designed to address difficulties facing junior taxing districts. The bill recognizes the taxing capacities for some of the junior districts that have been reduced and allows transfer of funds, agreements between districts and deals with a 106 percent levy.

"The proposed amendment deals with nuclear electricity generating plant construction contracts and apportionment of the value of such contracts when construction is not completed. Mr. President, as such, it has nothing to do with the object of this bill and since it does deal with difficulties in junior taxing districts, I thereby make this challenge."

There being no objection, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1270 was deferred.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kreidler: "Senator Wojahn, if the committee amendment is adopted, as it has been or will be with the passage of this bill, will this in any way interfere with a clinical laboratory's ability to certify health care assistants who withdraw blood and perform other health services in a laboratory?"

Senator Wojahn: "No, Senator Kreidler, RCW 18.135.050 very clearly authorizes the health care facility itself--the facility itself--to certify assistants. This authorization is now provided to federally certified clinical laboratories and this simply places the state law in conformity with federal law."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1495, as amended by the Senate.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1586, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Talmadge, Article 1, Section 7 says, 'Invasion of private affairs in home prohibited. No person shall be disturbed in his private affairs or his home invaded without the authority of the law.' Is this the opening wedge?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, absolutely not. What you have present here is a situation where someone is attempting to serve valid legal papers on a party and the problem has been that that individual, in some instances, has been held to be criminally trespassing in serving the papers. This bill makes it clear that the process server can go up to the door of the residence, knock on the door and serve the papers, but can't go into the residence and can't invade any building that is not open to the general public. In fact, with Senator Bluechel's amendment, if it's a business that the employer has to have his or her permission given to the process server to reach the employee. The person that is serving--a legal, valid process--is something that has been, I think, a tradition for a long period of time in Anglo-American law and there is some desire, I think, from a public policy standpoint to make sure that the people who are subject to legal process get notice, because if we don't do something like this, you're going to have circumstances where the process server will not be getting that information to the individual who will be subject to a lawsuit or subject to some criminal subpoena or something of that sort. I don't see it as a violation of any constitutional standard whatsoever."

Senator Guess: "Senator, I have in my mind a home work-place where the house sits back about three hundred feet from the street. There is a fence and there is a gate. When the man goes to work in the morning, he goes through a turn stile, sort of, and then he proceeds over to the old barn, which is a manufacturing place. Now, at what point is he going to stop? The barn's wide open."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, if that building is not open to the general public, I don't believe, under the terms of this bill, that process server can go there. But I remind you, as Senator Bottiger pointed out, this is a free enterprise bill because the sheriff can certainly serve the papers--and they do all the time. It's the private process server that is doing the serving who would have now the opportunity to serve the papers without being fearful of a charge of criminal trespassing."

"In answer to your question, specifically, the out building, unless it is open to the general public in some sense, would not be susceptible to the provisions of this bill."

Senator Guess: "Thank you, Senator."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1586, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1586, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 5; absent, 1; excused, 2.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that advertising, sales, and business practices of certain travel charter or tour operators have worked financial hardship upon the people of this state; that the travel business has a significant impact upon the economy and well-being of this state and its people; that problems have arisen regarding certain segments of the travel charter or tour operator business; and that the public welfare requires regulation of travel charter or tour operators in order to eliminate unfair advertising, sales and business practices. The legislature further finds it necessary to establish standards that will safeguard the people against financial hardship and to encourage fair dealing and prosperity in the travel business.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) "Travel charter or tour operator" means a person who sells, provides, furnishes, contracts for, arranges, or advertises in this state that he or she can or may arrange, or has arranged air, sea, or land transportation either separately or in conjunction with other services. (2) "Advertise" means to make any representation in conjunction with, or to effect the sale of, travel services and includes communication with other members of the same partnership, corporation, joint venture, association, organization, group or other entity.

(3) "Passenger" is a person who purchases travel arrangements in Washington state and on whose behalf money or other consideration has been given or is to be given to another, including another member of the same partnership, corporation, joint venture, association, organization, group or other entity, for procuring transportation or other travel services.

(4) "Adequate bond" means a bond executed by an authorized surety insurer in an amount not less than fifty thousand dollars or an amount equal to ten percent of the total revenue of the two highest consecutive months for the travel charter or tour operator's business during the prior calendar year, whichever is greater, but in no case, more than five hundred thousand dollars, for the benefit of every person for whom services have not been delivered by the wrongful act of the principal acting in the course and scope of his or her occupation or business or by any official, agent, or employee of the principal acting in the course or scope of his or her employment or agency.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A travel charter or tour operator shall not advertise that air, sea, or land transportation either separately or in conjunction with other services is or may be available unless he or she has, prior to such advertisement, received written confirmation with a carrier for the transportation advertised.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. At or prior to the time of full or partial payment for air, sea, or land transportation or any other services offered by the travel charter or tour operator in conjunction with such transportation, the travel charter or tour operator shall furnish to the person making the payment a written statement conspicuously setting forth the following information:

(1) The name and business address and telephone number of the travel charter or tour operator.

(3) The location and number of the trust account or bond required by this statute.

(4) The name of the carrier with whom the travel charter or tour operator has contracted to provide the transportation, the type of equipment contracted, and the date, time, and place of each departure: PROVIDED, That the information required in this subsection may be provided at the time of final payment.

(5) The conditions, if any, upon which the contract between the travel charter or tour operator and the passenger may be canceled, and the rights and obligations of all parties in the event of such cancellation.

(6) A statement in eight-point boldface type in substantially the following form:

"If transportation or other services are canceled by the travel charter or tour operator, all sums paid to the travel charter or tour operator for services not performed in accordance with the contract between the travel charter or tour operator and the passenger will be refunded within fourteen days after the cancellation by the travel charter or tour operator to the passenger or the party who contracted for the passenger unless mutually acceptable alternative travel arrangements are provided."

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) If the transportation or other services contracted for are canceled the travel charter or tour operator shall return to the passenger within fourteen days after the cancellation all moneys paid for services not performed in accordance with the contract unless mutually acceptable alternative travel arrangements are provided.

(2) Any material misrepresentation with regard to the transportation and other services offered shall be deemed to be a cancellation necessitating the refund required by this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, a travel charter or tour operator shall deposit ninety percent of all sums received for transportation or any other services offered by the travel charter or tour operator in conjunction with such transportation in a trust account in a federally insured financial institution.

(2) The trust account required by this section shall be created and maintained for the benefit of the passengers paying money to the travel charter or tour operator. The travel charter or tour operator shall not in any manner encumber the corpus of the account and shall not withdraw money therefrom except: (a) in an amount equal to partial or full payment for the services contracted for the passengers to the carrier or person providing the other services offered by the travel charter or tour operator; or (b) to make the refunds as required by section 5 of this act or as provided for by written contract between the travel charter and tour operator and passengers. A travel charter and tour operator may withdraw from the account any interest earned and credited to the trust account for the sole benefit of the travel charter and tour operator after all services have been provided as contracted.

(3) A travel charter and tour operator, instead of maintaining a trust account as provided in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, may maintain an adequate bond.

(4) A violation of any provision of this section shall constitute a gross misdemeanor punishable under RCW 9A.20.021(2).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A travel charter or tour operator is not required to comply with section 6 of this act if a written agreement exists between the travel charter or tour operator and a current member of the United States Tour Operators' Association to provide full service in the event the travel charter or tour operator defaults in providing services to passengers, and the travel charter or tour operator states the existence of this agreement in all of its promotional brochures. Any misleading statement is a violation of this section, and shall constitute a gross misdemeanor punishable under RCW 9A.20.021(2).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A violation of sections 3 through 7 of this act shall constitute a violation of RCW 19.86.020.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. This chapter does not apply to the sale of public transportation by a public charter operator who is complying with regulations of the United States department of transportation.

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 4, line 14, beginning with "As" strike all the matter down to and including "office," on line 17, and insert a new paragraph as follows:

"As of January 1, 1988, the terms of all commissioners of park and recreation districts, in existence as of the effective date of this act, shall be reduced by two years to reflect the reduction from six-year terms of office to four-year terms of office. If three terms of office will end as of January 1, 1988, three commissioners shall be elected at the November, 1987 general election for four-year terms of office. If four terms of office will end as of January 1, 1988, all four positions shall be filled at the November, 1987 general election with three commissioner positions having four-year terms, and the fourth commissioner position initially having a two-year term."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Kreidler, your amendment has peaked my curiosity, because nearly all of the special district commissioners--water districts, sewer districts, fire districts have three members of six-year terms and it works out just right, because one of them is up every two years. Could you tell me what the impetus is, why this particular kind of a district suddenly felt that they should have a different kind of procedure?"

Senator Kreidler: "First off, Senator Lee, this is language that came over to us from the House. That is, it was explained before the committee. The impetus is primarily one director--the public service commitment of six years. There are a number of people who would like to serve in that capacity, but feel that four years is long enough--that six years, and that kind of commitment, is too long and if having it at four years you could have more people willing to participate in that process of being willing to be a volunteer to serve on a park board."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Thompson, as chairman of the Governmental Operations Committee that handles the local government issues, is this, and I recall, when serving on that committee, we used to have requests that they wanted a little bit more pay for the meetings in order to get people to serve. Is this the next step--that we're having so few people willing to serve on these local boards that we're now reducing the terms?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Lee, I'm not as familiar as I should be to answer this question authoritatively, but it would appear to me that there's a higher value to be served in uniformity in resolving such questions as this, and I guess I would defer to the judgment of others who dealt with it more directly."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kreidler, have you had this checked for constitutionality? It was always my understanding that we could not reduce the term of elected officials during their term of office. This would indicate that you're going to shorten up an elected official's term by two years."

Senator Kreidler: "First off, Senator, it does not apply for two years from now and, therefore, the constitutional question has been answered, at least from the standpoint of the attorneys that we ran the language past.

"First of all, and I should point out, the amendment before us just deals with the process by which the shortening of terms as specified in the bill would be handled.

The amendment before us just tries to make an adjustment for what is already--to get around that specific question that you're raising as to constitutionality is to develop a process by which that change from six to four would take place. We're just trying to clarify it here in such a way that it's workable, as the language came over from the House."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Kreidler, I think the only metropolitan park district remaining in the state, at this time, is the one in Tacoma/Pierce County and there have been some moves to abolish that. I think there were two Yakima ones at one time, but some years ago they abolished that. We always have a rather lively election for the park district commissioners and it has been six years, of course.

"I'm wondering, did anyone appear from Tacoma, from the Metropolitan Park District there? On this bill, did they express their feelings on a four-year term? It seems like we just had an election last year on this. I need to know because no one has contacted me."

Senator Kreidler: "There were park people present at the hearing when we held it and they've certainly been apprised of this as it is considered a major bill for the park districts working through the Legislature and there were no objections raised at the committee. It was one of those things where they weren't testifying for or against, they were speaking to the rest of the bill and really didn't feel that this was of any major consequence."

Senator Wojahn: "Mr. President, one more question. One of the problems that we have found in Tacoma and I am wondering if the parties wishing this bill won't run into this stumbling block. We have never been able to generate enough funds through the local level ability and, therefore, the city council has had to back up just about everything that the parks have wanted and it has always become a difficult situation. We were able to get a special levy the last election, which was incredibly good and we didn't expect it, but there has never been enough money for maintenance and operation through the amount that they are given under our tax system in the state. Did this come up?"

Senator Kreidler: "No, it did not. This would only allow smaller communities to form park districts and wouldn't affect the funding of any of those districts or communities that currently have park districts."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Kreidler, the bill pertains to metropolitan park districts. There are other types of park districts, if my memory serves me right, and I cannot remember the committee meeting in which this came up, but I have a suspicion that not everybody knows about this. How wide did you disseminate the information as to this change?"

Senator Kreidler: "The standard process is to use our mailing lists for people who have shown an interest in park issues and they are notified of the public hearings and that certainly includes many local park districts individually, but then certainly as they kind of work in concert with people that kind of take state legislature responsibility as a group and they were certainly well apprised of the hearing and certainly of the progress of this bill. At least from the Senate standpoint, I'm looking only at a second guess as to what might have taken place in the House."

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Kreidler, I can't remember. Did this bill pass out of the Senate and die in the House, or has it passed out of the Senate--the amendment in bill form?"

Senator Kreidler: "The amendment was part of the House bill and our amendment here that we're offering is only to clarify how the language that they had in their bill, for reducing from six to four, would work. It appeared to the committee--Senator Cantu raised the question in committee as to its workability of making that reduction from six to four years and this language is addressed to the concern that he raised at that time to clarify how that process of transition from six to four would take place and that's what the amendment seeks to do."

Senator Bluechel: "The bill has passed both bodies--the House bill?"

Senator Kreidler: "The House bill has passed--this is not a concurrence. This is a House bill that has passed the House and passed the Senate committee and is now before us for our consideration."

Senator Bluechel: "Thank you, Senator Kreidler."

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1484 be deferred.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Rasmussen that further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1484 be deferred.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1484 was deferred.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 4470 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 19, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 1, chapter 265, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every legislator and every committee of the legislature shall file with the commission quarterly reports listing the names, addresses, and salaries of all persons employed by the person or committee making the filing for the purpose of aiding in the preparation or enactment of legislation or the performance of legislative duties of such legislator or committee during the preceding quarter. The reports shall be made in the form and the manner prescribed by the commission and shall be filed between the first and tenth days of each calendar quarter: PROVIDED, That the information required by this subsection may be supplied, insofar as it is available, by the chief clerk of the house of representatives or by the secretary of the senate on a form prepared by the commission.

(2) Unless authorized by subsection (3) of this section or otherwise expressly authorized by law, no public funds may be used directly or indirectly for lobbying: PROVIDED, This does not prevent officers or employees of an agency from communicating with a member of the legislature on the request of that member; or communicating to the legislature, through the proper official channels, requests for legislative action or appropriations which are deemed necessary for the efficient conduct of the public business or actually made in the proper performance of their official duties: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this subsection does not apply to the legislative branch.

(3) Any agency, not otherwise expressly authorized by law, may expend public funds for lobbying, but such lobbying activity shall be limited to (a) providing information or communicating on matters pertaining to official agency business to any elected official or officer or employee of any agency or (b) advocating the official position or interests of the agency to any elected official or officer or employee of any agency: PROVIDED, That public funds may not be expended as a direct or indirect gift or campaign contribution to any elected official or officer or employee of any agency. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "gift" means a voluntary transfer of any thing of value without consideration of equal or greater value, but does not include informational material transferred for the sole purpose of informing the recipient about matters pertaining to official agency business: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section does not permit the printing of a state publication which has been otherwise prohibited by law.

(4) No elective official or any employee of his or her office or any person appointed to or employed by any public office or agency may use or authorize the use of any of the facilities of a public office or agency, directly or indirectly, in any effort to support or oppose an initiative to the legislature. "Facilities of a public office or agency" has the same meaning as in RCW 42.17.130. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to the following activities:

(a) Action taken at an open public meeting by members of an elected legislative body to express a collective decision, or to actually vote upon a motion, proposal, resolution, order, or ordinance, or to support or oppose an initiative to the legislature so long as (i) any required notice of the meeting includes the title and number of the initiative to the legislature, and (ii) members of the legislative body or members of the public are afforded an approximately equal opportunity for the expression of an opposing view;

(b) A statement by an elected official in support of or in opposition to any initiative to the legislature at an open press conference or in response to a specific inquiry;

(c) Activities which are part of the normal and regular conduct of the office or agency.

(5) Each state agency, county, city, town, municipal corporation, quasi-municipal corporation, or special purpose district which expends public funds for lobbying shall file with the commission, except as exempted by ~~((subsection (4)))~~ (d) of this ~~((section))~~ subsection, quarterly statements providing the following information for the quarter just completed:

(a) The name of the agency filing the statement;

(b) The name, title, and job description and salary of each elected official, officer, or employee who lobbied, a general description of the nature of the lobbying, and the proportionate amount of time spent on the lobbying;

(c) A listing of expenditures incurred by the agency for lobbying including but not limited to travel, consultant or other special contractual services, and brochures and other publications, the principal purpose of which is to influence legislation;

(d) For purposes of this subsection (~~((4)) of this section~~) the term "lobbying" does not include:

(i) Requests for appropriations by a state agency to the office of financial management pursuant to chapter 43.88 RCW nor requests by the office of financial management to the legislature for appropriations other than its own agency budget requests;

(ii) Recommendations or reports to the legislature in response to a legislative request expressly requesting or directing a specific study, recommendation, or report by an agency on a particular subject;

(iii) Official reports including recommendations submitted to the legislature on an annual or biennial basis by a state agency as required by law;

(iv) Requests, recommendations, or other communication between or within state agencies or between or within local agencies;

(v) Any other lobbying to the extent that it includes:

(A) Telephone conversations or preparation of written correspondence;

(B) In-person lobbying on behalf of an agency of no more than four days or parts thereof during any three-month period by officers or employees of that agency and in-person lobbying by any elected official of such agency on behalf of such agency or in connection with the powers, duties, or compensation of such official: PROVIDED, That the total expenditures of non-public funds made in connection with such lobbying for or on behalf of any one or more members of the legislature or state elected officials or public officers or employees of the state of Washington do not exceed fifteen dollars for any three-month period: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the exemption under this subsection is in addition to the exemption provided in (A) of this subsection;

(C) Preparation or adoption of policy positions.

The statements shall be in the form and the manner prescribed by the commission and shall be filed within one month after the end of the quarter covered by the report.

~~((5))~~ (6) In lieu of reporting under subsection ~~((4))~~ (5) of this section any county, city, town, municipal corporation, quasi municipal corporation, or special purpose district may determine and so notify the public disclosure commission, that elected officials, officers, or employees who on behalf of any such local agency engage in lobbying reportable under subsection ~~((4))~~ (5) of this section shall register and report such reportable lobbying in the same manner as a lobbyist who is required to register and report under RCW 42.17.150 and 42.17.170. Each such local agency shall report as a lobbyist employer pursuant to RCW 42.17.180.

~~((6))~~ (7) The provisions of this section do not relieve any elected official or officer or employee of an agency from complying with other provisions of this chapter, if such elected official, officer, or employee is not otherwise exempted.

~~((7))~~ (8) The purpose of this section is to require each state agency and certain local agencies to report the identities of those persons who lobby on behalf of the agency for compensation, together with certain separately identifiable and measurable expenditures of an agency's funds for that purpose. This section shall be reasonably construed to accomplish that purpose and not to require any agency to report any of its general overhead cost or any other costs which relate only indirectly or incidentally to lobbying or which are equally attributable to or inseparable from nonlobbying activities of the agency.

The public disclosure commission may adopt ~~((regulations))~~ rules clarifying and implementing this legislative interpretation and policy."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 32, by Committee on Commerce and Labor (originally sponsored by Representatives R. King, Fisch, Miller, Wang, Winsley, Allen, Fisher, O'Brien, P. King, Sayan, Basich, McMullen, Lux, Brekke and Rayburn)

Providing collective bargaining for institutions of higher education.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the purpose of this chapter to promote cooperative efforts between employees and the boards of regents or boards of trustees of the institutions of higher education in the state of Washington by prescribing certain rights and obligations of the employees and by establishing orderly procedures governing the relationship between the employees and their employers which procedures are designed to meet the special requirements and needs of public employment in higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The boards of regents and boards of trustees of the state institutions of higher education are authorized to engage in collective bargaining with the exclusive bargaining representatives of their employees, as provided in this chapter: PROVIDED, That nothing in this chapter authorizes collective bargaining over class size. The boards of regents and boards of trustees shall not employ additional staff to engage in or administer collective bargaining agreements unless an employee organization has been properly designated as the exclusive representative under section 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Employee" means any employee of an employer, but shall not include the chief executive or administrative officers of the institution of higher education, confidential employees, casual employees, supervisors, or employees subject to chapter 28B.16 RCW.

(2) "Casual employee" means any individual working in assignments of a limited scope or of a short-term or transitory nature so as to indicate that the individual does not share a community of interest with other employees of the institution or lacks an expectancy of continued employment. Medical residents and graduate students serving in graduate student service appointments are casual employees within the meaning of this section. An individual shall not be considered a casual employee within the meaning of this section solely by virtue of their status as a part-time employee.

(3) "Confidential employee" includes:

(a) Any person who participates directly on behalf of an employer in the formulation of labor relations policy, the preparation for or conduct of collective bargaining, or the administration of collective bargaining agreements, if the role of the person is not merely routine or clerical in nature but calls for the consistent exercise of independent judgment; and

(b) Any person who assists and acts in a confidential capacity to such person.

(4) "Supervisor" includes any individual having authority in the interest of an employer to hire, assign, promote, transfer, lay off, recall, suspend, discipline, or discharge other employees, to adjust employees' grievances, or to recommend effectively such action, if the exercise of the authority is not merely routine or clerical in nature but calls for the consistent exercise of independent judgment. A person is not included solely by reason of his or her membership on a faculty tenure or other governance committee or body. The term "supervisor" includes only those persons who perform a preponderance of the acts of authority specified in this subsection.

(6) "Collective bargaining" and "bargaining" mean the performance of the mutual obligation of the representatives of the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to meet at reasonable times early in the college or university budget-making process to bargain in good faith in an effort to reach agreement with respect to wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment. Service and activity fees as defined in RCW 28B.15.041, that portion of funds specifically designated for research grants, and endowments, fellowships, scholarships, or bequests whether from public or private agencies or donors shall not be a subject for bargaining. Prior law, practice, or interpretation shall be neither restrictive, expansive, nor determinative with respect to the scope of bargaining. A written contract incorporating any agreements reached shall be executed if requested by either party. The obligation to bargain does not compel either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession.

In the event of a dispute between an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative over the matters that are terms and conditions of employment, the commission shall decide which items are mandatory subjects for bargaining.

(6) "Commission" means the public employment relations commission established under RCW 41.58.010.

(7) "Employer" means the board of regents or board of trustees of each institution of higher education and includes any officer, board, commission, council, or other person or body acting on behalf of an employer.

(8) "Employee organization" means any organization, union, association, agency, committee, council, or group of any kind in which employees participate and which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of collective bargaining with employers.

(9) "Exclusive bargaining representative" means any employee organization which has:

(a) Been certified or recognized pursuant to the provisions of this chapter as the representative of the employees in an appropriate collective bargaining unit; or

(b) Prior to the effective date of this act, been certified or recognized under a predecessor statute as the representative of the employees in a bargaining unit which continues to be appropriate under this chapter.

(10) "Institution of higher education" means each of the state universities, regional universities, community college districts, and The Evergreen State College.

(11) "Person" means one or more individuals, labor organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, employers, or legal representatives. In determining whether any person is acting as an agent of another person, so as to make such other person responsible for his or her acts, the question of whether the specific acts performed were actually authorized or subsequently ratified shall not be controlling.

(12) "Unfair labor practice" means any unfair labor practice listed in section 9 of this act.

(13) "Union security provision" means a provision in a collective bargaining agreement under which some or all employees in the bargaining unit may be required, as a condition of continued employment on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of such employment or the effective date of the provision, whichever is later, to become a member of the exclusive bargaining representative or pay an agency fee equal to the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Employees have the right to self-organization, to form, join, or assist employee organizations, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and also have the right to refrain from any or all of these activities except to the extent that employees may be required to make payments to an exclusive bargaining representative or charitable organization under a union security provision authorized in this chapter: PROVIDED, That nothing contained in this chapter shall permit or grant any public employee the right to strike or refuse to perform his or her official duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Upon filing with the employer the voluntary written authorization of a bargaining unit employee under this chapter, the employee organization which is the exclusive bargaining representative of the bargaining unit shall have the right to have deducted from the salary of the bargaining unit employee the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative. Such employee authorization shall not be irrevocable for a period of more than one year. Such dues and fees shall be deducted monthly from the pay of all employees who have given authorization for such deduction, and shall be transmitted by the employer to the employee organization or to the depository designated by the employee organization.

(2) A collective bargaining agreement may include union security provisions, but not a closed shop. The employer shall enforce any union security provision by monthly deductions from the salary of bargaining unit employees affected thereby and shall transmit such funds to the employee organization or to the depository designated by the employee organization.

(3) An employee who is covered by a union security provision and who asserts a right of nonassociation based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member shall pay to a nonreligious charity or other charitable organization an amount of money equivalent to the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative. The charity shall be agreed upon by the employee and the employee organization to which such employee would otherwise pay the dues and fees. The employee shall furnish written proof that such payments have been made. If the employee and the employee organization do not reach agreement on such matter, the commission shall designate the charitable organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In any dispute concerning the unit appropriate for collective bargaining or the allocation of employees or positions to bargaining units, the commission, after hearing, shall determine the dispute, taking into consideration the duties, skills, and working conditions of the employees, the extent of organization among the employees, the community of interest among the employees, the desire of the employees, and the overall management structure of the employer including the interrelationships of divisions within the institution. Unnecessary fragmentation shall be avoided. All employees who are tenured or eligible to seek or be awarded tenure shall be included in the same bargaining unit at each institution of higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The employee organization which has been designated by the majority of the employees in an appropriate bargaining unit as their representative for the purposes of collective bargaining shall be the exclusive bargaining representative of, and shall be required to represent, all the employees within the bargaining unit without regard to membership in that employee organization: PROVIDED, That any employee may at any time present his or her complaints or concerns to the employer and have such complaints or concerns adjusted without intervention of the exclusive bargaining representative, and may request that the exclusive bargaining representative be given an opportunity to be present at that adjustment and to make its views known, and as long as the adjustment is made known to the bargaining representative and is not inconsistent with the terms of a collective bargaining agreement then in effect.

(2) The commission shall resolve any dispute concerning selection of a bargaining representative in accordance with the procedures specified in this section.

(a) No question concerning representation may be raised within one year following a certification or attempted certification.

(b) Where there is a valid collective bargaining agreement in effect, no question concerning representation may be raised except during the period not more than ninety nor less than sixty days prior to the expiration date of the agreement: PROVIDED, That in the event a valid collective bargaining agreement, together with any renewals or extensions thereof, has been or will be in existence for more than three years, then a question concerning representation may be raised not more than ninety nor less than sixty days prior to the third anniversary date or any subsequent anniversary date of the agreement; and if the exclusive bargaining representative is removed as the result of such procedure, the collective bargaining agreement shall be deemed to be terminated as of the date of the certification or the anniversary date following the filing of the petition, whichever is later.

(c) An employee organization seeking certification as exclusive bargaining representative of a bargaining unit of employees, or bargaining unit employees seeking decertification of an exclusive bargaining representative, shall make a confidential showing to the commission of credible evidence demonstrating that at least thirty percent of the employees in the bargaining unit are in support of the petition. The petition shall indicate the name, address, and telephone number of any employee organization known to claim an interest in the bargaining unit.

(d) A petition filed by an employer shall be supported by credible evidence demonstrating the basis on which the employer claims the existence of a question concerning the representation of its employees.

(e) Any employee organization which makes a confidential showing to the commission of credible evidence demonstrating that it has the support of at least ten percent of the employees in the bargaining unit involved shall be entitled to intervene in proceedings under this section and to have its name listed as a choice on the ballot in an election conducted by the commission.

(f) The commission shall determine any question concerning representation by conducting a secret ballot election among the employees in the bargaining unit, except where the commission determines that a serious unfair labor practice has been committed which interfered with the election process and precludes the holding of a fair election, the commission may determine the question concerning representation by conducting a cross-check comparing the employee organization's membership records or bargaining authorization cards against the employment records of the employer.

(g) The representation election ballot shall contain a choice for each employee organization qualifying under (c) or (e) of this subsection, together with a choice for no representation. The representation election shall be determined by the majority of the valid ballots cast. Where there are three or more choices on the ballot and none of the choices receives a majority of the valid ballots cast, a run-off election shall be conducted between the two choices receiving the highest and second highest numbers of votes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The commission shall adopt rules under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as it deems necessary and appropriate to administer this chapter, in conformity with the intent and purpose of this chapter, and consistent with the best standards of labor-management relations.

(2) The rules, precedents, and practices of the national labor relations board, if consistent with this chapter, shall be considered by the commission in its interpretation of this chapter, and before the adoption of any commission rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) It is an unfair labor practice for an employer:

(a) To interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed by this chapter;

(b) To dominate or interfere with the formation or administration of any employee organization or contribute financial or other support to it. An employer may permit employees to confer with it or its representatives or agents during working hours without loss of time or pay;

(c) To encourage or discourage membership in any employee organization by discrimination in regard to hire, tenure of employment, or any term or condition of employment, but nothing in this subsection prevents an employer from requiring, as a condition of continued employment, payment of the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required to an exclusive bargaining representative under section 5 of this act;

(d) To discharge or otherwise discriminate against an employee because the employee has filed charges or given testimony under this chapter;

(e) To refuse to bargain collectively with the exclusive bargaining representative of its employees.

(2) It is an unfair labor practice for an employee organization or its agents:

(a) To restrain or coerce: (i) Employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed in section 4 of this act, but this does not impair the right of an employee organization to prescribe its own rules for the acquisition or retention of membership in the organization; or (ii) an employer in the selection of its representatives for the purposes of collective bargaining or the adjustment of grievances;

(b) To cause or attempt to cause an employer to discriminate against an employee in violation of subsection (1)(c) of this section or to discriminate against an employee with respect to whom membership in such organization has been denied or terminated on some ground other than the failure of the employee to tender the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership;

(c) To refuse to bargain collectively with the employer of employees for whom it is the exclusive bargaining representative.

(3) The expression of any views, argument, or opinion, or the dissemination thereof to the public, whether in written, printed, graphic, or visual form, shall not constitute or be evidence of an unfair labor practice under this chapter, if the expression contains no threat of reprisal or force or promise of benefit.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. (1) The commission may prevent any person from engaging in any unfair labor practice. This power shall not be affected by any other means of adjustment or prevention that has been or may be established by agreement, law, equity, or otherwise.

(2) A complaint charging unfair labor practices shall be filed within six months following the act or event complained of or discovery of such act or event complained of, whichever is later.

(3) The person or persons named as respondent in a complaint charging unfair labor practices shall have the right to file an answer to the complaint and to appear in person or otherwise to give testimony at the place and time set by the commission for hearing.

(4) If the commission determines that any person has engaged in or is engaging in any unfair labor practice, then the commission shall issue and cause to be served upon the person an order requiring the person to cease and desist from the unfair labor practice and to take such affirmative action as will effectuate the purposes and policy of this chapter, including the reinstatement of employees with back pay.

(5) The commission may petition the superior court of the county in which the main office of the employer is located or where the person who has engaged or is engaging in the unfair labor practice resides or transacts business, for the enforcement of its order and for appropriate temporary relief.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. Actions by or on behalf of the commission shall be under chapter 34.04 RCW, or rules adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW. The right of judicial review under chapter 34.04 RCW is applicable to all these actions and rules.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. Collective bargaining agreements, or any provision of collective bargaining agreements, entered into between an employer institution of higher education and an exclusive bargaining representative under this chapter are not subject to chapter 28B.19 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. (1) Whenever a collective bargaining agreement between an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative is concluded after the termination date of the previous collective bargaining agreement between the employer and an employee organization representing the same or a substantially similar bargaining unit, the effective date of the collective bargaining agreement may be the day after the termination date of the previous collective bargaining agreement, and all benefits included in the new collective bargaining agreement, including wage or salary increases, may accrue beginning with the effective date as established by this subsection.

(2) Any collective bargaining agreement may provide for all benefits, including wage and salary increases, to accrue beginning with the effective dates of any individual employee contracts covering employees in the bargaining unit for the same or related period.

(3) Any collective bargaining agreement may provide for the increase of any wages, salaries, and other benefits during the term of such agreement or the term of any individual employee contracts covering employees in the bargaining unit, if the employer receives, by increased appropriation, additional moneys for such purposes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. (1) The commission, through the executive director, may offer its mediation services in any labor dispute involving an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative, upon the request of one or more of the parties to the dispute, when the dispute threatens to cause a substantial disruption to the public welfare.

(2) A person designated as a mediator in a labor dispute under this section shall meet with the representatives of the parties, either jointly or separately, and shall take other steps as he or she deems appropriate to persuade the parties to resolve their differences. A mediator shall not have power of compulsion.

The services of the mediator, including any per diem expenses, shall be provided by the commission without cost to the parties. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative from agreeing to substitute at their own expense some other mediator or mediation procedure.

(3) If an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative are unable to reach an agreement in mediation, either party, by written notice to the other party and to the commission, may request that the matters in dispute be submitted to a fact-finder for recommendations. If the executive director, upon the recommendation of the mediator, finds that the parties remain at an impasse after a reasonable period of negotiations, the executive director shall initiate fact-finding proceedings.

(a) The executive director shall provide the parties with a list of five persons qualified to serve as the neutral fact-finder. The parties shall without delay attempt to agree upon a fact-finder from the list provided by the commission or to agree upon some other person as a fact-finder. Upon the failure of the parties to agree upon a fact-finder within seven days after the issuance of the list, the commission shall, upon the request of either party, appoint a fact-finder. The commission shall not appoint as fact-finder the same person who acted as mediator in the dispute.

(b) The fact-finder shall promptly establish a date, time, and place to meet with the representatives of the parties and shall provide reasonable notice of the meeting to the parties to the dispute. The requirements of chapter 34.04 RCW shall not apply to fact-finding proceedings. The fact-finder shall make inquiries and investigations, hold hearings, and take such other steps as he or she deems appropriate. The fact-finder may issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence.

(c) The fact-finder shall, within thirty days following the conclusion of the hearing, make written findings of fact and written recommendations to the parties as to how their dispute should be resolved. A copy shall be delivered or mailed to each of the parties to the dispute. A copy shall be filed with the commission. The findings and recommendations of the fact-finder are advisory only.

(d) The findings and recommendations of the fact-finder shall be held in confidence among the fact-finder, the employer, the exclusive bargaining representative, and the commission for seven calendar days following their issuance, to permit the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to study the recommendations. No later than seven calendar days following the issuance of the recommendations of the fact-finder, each party shall notify the commission and the other party whether it accepts or rejects, in whole or in part, the recommendations of the fact-finder. If the parties remain in disagreement following the expiration of the seven-day period, the findings and recommendations of the fact-finder may be made public.

(e) The fees and expenses of the fact-finder shall be paid by the parties to the dispute, in equal amounts. All other costs of the proceeding shall be paid by the party incurring those costs. Nothing in this section prohibits an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative from agreeing to substitute, at their own expense, some other impasse procedure or from agreeing to some other allocation of the costs of fact-finding between them.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. An employer and an exclusive bargaining representative who enter into a collective bargaining agreement may include in the agreement procedures for binding arbitration of the disputes arising about the interpretation or application of the agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to annul, modify, or preclude the renewal or continuation of any lawful agreement entered into before the effective date of this act between an employer and an employee organization covering wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment. Where there is a conflict between any collective bargaining agreement and any resolution, rule, policy, or regulation of the employer or its agents, the terms of the collective bargaining agreement shall prevail.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to deny or otherwise abridge any rights, privileges, or benefits granted by law to employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to interfere with the responsibilities and rights of the employer as specified by federal and state law, including the employer's responsibilities to students, the public, and other constituent elements of the institution: PROVIDED, That nothing contained in this chapter shall permit or grant any employer the right to lock out its employees in connection with a labor dispute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. All agreements reached pursuant to this chapter shall contain the following clause: Implementation of any compensation adjustments, including salaries and fringe benefits provided for in this agreement which is funded by general funds of the state of Washington shall be consistent with legislative appropriation and with any subsequent modification thereto.

Sec. 20. Section 4, chapter 296, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.58.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be the duty of the commission, in order to prevent or minimize interruptions growing out of labor disputes, to assist employers and employees to settle such disputes through mediation and fact-finding.

(2) The commission, through the director, may proffer its services in any labor dispute involving a political subdivision, municipal corporation, or ~~((the community college system))~~ institutions of higher education of the state, either upon its own motion or upon the request of one or more of the parties to the dispute, whenever in its judgment such dispute threatens to cause a substantial disruption to the public welfare.

(3) If the director is not able to bring the parties to agreement by mediation within a reasonable time, he shall seek to induce the parties to voluntarily seek other means of settling the dispute without resort to strike or other coercion, including submission to the employees in the bargaining unit of the employer's last offer of settlement for approval or rejection in a secret ballot. The failure or refusal of either party to agree to any procedure suggested by the director shall not be deemed a violation of any duty or obligation imposed by this chapter.

(4) Final adjustment by a method agreed upon by the parties is declared to be the desirable method for settlement of grievance disputes arising over the application or interpretation of an existing collective bargaining agreement. The commission is directed to make its mediation and fact-finding services available in the settlement of such grievance disputes only as a last resort.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendment by Senators McDermott and Patterson to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 25, after line 25, strike the remainder of the amendment and insert the following: NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. PREAMBLE. The legislature finds that higher education is of the utmost importance to the continued social, cultural, and economic well-being of the people of Washington state.

The legislature also finds that salaries for full-time state-funded teaching and research faculty are below faculty salary levels at their peer institutions and that this situation is detrimental to attaining excellence in the education and training of our people.

The legislature recognizes that continued deterioration in faculty salaries will result from the inability to adequately address faculty salary disparities particularly in the retention and recruitment of the most able and meritorious faculty.

The legislature recognizes that efforts to address the problem of competitive faculty salaries will require the commitment of significant state resources for which other important programs will compete.

It is therefore the legislature's intent to reduce faculty salary disparities and achieve more competitive salaries for full-time state-funded teaching and research faculty at Washington state institutions of higher education as funds are available.

The legislature further intends that the salary increases which are provided by this chapter shall be based upon documented disparities in faculty salaries relative to those at peer institutions and be distributed within each institution on the basis of evidence of each faculty member's contribution to the profession, the institution, and the community.

The legislature intends that the salary increases which are provided by this chapter shall not be distributed on an across-the-board basis.

In as much as there is a lack of information concerning the salary disparity between community college faculty and their counterparts in other states, the legislature also intends to establish an objective measure of competitive salaries for community college faculty. The legislature finds it necessary to conduct a national survey of community college faculty salaries which will be the basis for determining competitive salary levels for community colleges in Washington state.

The legislature further finds that in addition to the critical issue of faculty salaries, there is substantial need for additional funding in the areas of student scholarships, student loans, and enhancement of undergraduate education.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 24. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Washington state institutions of higher education" means the University of Washington, Washington State University, Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, Western Washington University, The Evergreen State College, and all community college districts within the jurisdiction of the state board for community college education.

(2) "Research institutions" means the University of Washington and Washington State University.

(3) "Regional institutions" means Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, Western Washington University, and The Evergreen State College.

(4) "Peer institutions" means those institutions most comparable to Washington's public institutions of higher education, including Washington's community college system, as determined by the office of financial management on the basis of similarity in role and mission, undergraduate or graduate education emphasis, research emphasis, program offerings at the doctorate, masters, professional, bachelors, and associate degree levels, and institutional size.

(5) "Peer institution groups" means (a) for the University of Washington: The University of Arizona, the University of California at Berkeley, the University of California at Los Angeles, the University of Illinois, the University of Iowa, the University of Michigan, the University of North Carolina, and the University of Oregon; (b) for Washington State University: The University of California at Davis, the University of California at Santa Barbara, the University of Illinois, Purdue University, Iowa State University, Michigan State University, North Carolina State University, and Oregon State University; and (c) for the regional universities and The Evergreen State College: Northern Arizona University, California State University at Chico, California State University at Hayward, Western Illinois University, Northern Michigan University, Western Carolina University, and Portland State University.

(6) "Faculty salary disparity" means, for each Washington institution of higher education, the extent to which average salaries for its eligible faculty are below the average salaries received by full-time state-funded teaching and research faculty at its designated peer institutions.

(7) "Eligible faculty" means full-time state-funded teaching and research faculty including primary support personnel who are appointed with a faculty title and paid a full-time equivalent salary.

(8) "Merit" means excellence in performance, consistent with the role and mission of each respective institution and its individual colleges, schools, and departments as evidenced by (a) evaluations of teaching effectiveness, (b) contribution to the institution and its students, the profession, and the community, and (c) where applicable, the professional recognition of research and publications.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 25. APPLICATION OF CHAPTER. This chapter applies only to eligible faculty at Washington state institutions of higher education.

This chapter shall not prevent the granting of salary increases, on terms consistent with this chapter, to research faculty supported by moneys other than state funds at Washington institutions of higher education if sufficient moneys exist to support the increases.

This chapter shall not preclude eligible faculty from receiving general salary increases granted by the legislature to state employees through the normal appropriations process, but these general salary increases shall be fully recognized by the office of financial management or the higher education coordinating board, or both, in updating reports of faculty salary disparities at each Washington institution of higher education.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 26. PEER GROUP COMPARISONS. The office of financial management shall annually identify the faculty salary disparities between Washington state's research and regional institutions of higher education and their respective peer institutions. The office of financial management shall report these disparities no later than January 15, 1987, and no later than January 15 of each subsequent year. The office of financial management shall concurrently identify and report the level of appropriation from the higher education improvement account necessary to eliminate the faculty salary disparities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 27. COMMUNITY COLLEGE SURVEY. The office of financial management, in conjunction with the higher education coordinating board, shall conduct, or designate a recognized consulting firm to conduct, a national survey to determine average salaries for full-time instructional faculty at a representative sample of two-year institutions of higher education in other states. The sample shall be constructed to reflect, to the greatest extent possible, the nature and composition of Washington state's community college system, with particular emphasis given to similarity in (1) degree and program offerings; (2) enrollment levels; (3) types of communities served; and (4) degree of reliance on state funding. Based on the findings of this survey, the office of financial management shall prepare a report no later than January 15, 1987, and no later than January 15 of each subsequent year, that identifies the faculty salary disparity for Washington state's community college system. The report shall also identify the level of appropriation necessary to eliminate the community college faculty salary disparity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. DISTRIBUTION PLAN REQUIREMENTS FOR FOUR-YEAR INSTITUTIONS.

Each research and regional institution shall submit to the higher education coordinating board by March 15, 1987, and by March 15 of each subsequent year, a plan to distribute, solely on the basis of merit, the moneys provided under this chapter to their eligible faculty. Each plan shall be consistent with the role and mission of the institution and its colleges and schools, provide for the involvement of faculty in assessing merit, and be specific to each college and school within the institution. Evidence which documents faculty salary disparities by college and school and professorial rank shall be prepared to support and accompany each plan. For The Evergreen State College, the faculty disparities shall be identified to major disciplines or departments and by an appropriate proxy for professorial rank.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. DISTRIBUTION PLAN REQUIREMENTS FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGES.

The state board for community college education shall submit to the higher education coordinating board by March 15, 1987, and by March 15 of each subsequent year, a plan to distribute, solely on the basis of merit, the moneys provided by this chapter to their eligible faculty. The plan shall be consistent with the role and mission of the community college system and each individual community college, provide for faculty involvement in assessing merit, and be specific to each community college. Evidence which documents faculty salary disparities by college and major instructional department shall be prepared to support and accompany the plan.

Each community college district shall submit a plan to the state board for community college education to distribute the moneys provided by this chapter to their eligible faculty on the basis of documented objective merit procedures developed and adopted by each district with the participation of the district's faculty. Each plan shall be consistent with the role and mission of each community college, provide for faculty involvement in assessing merit, and be specific to major instructional departments within each community college. Evidence which documents faculty salary disparities by major instructional department shall be prepared to support and accompany each plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF PLANS. The higher education coordinating board shall review the plans submitted by the state board for community college education and each research and regional institution to certify whether each plan meets the requirements and intent of this chapter. By April 15, 1987, and by April 15 of each subsequent year, the higher education coordinating board shall approve only those plans which meet the requirements of this chapter.

If any institution's distribution plan is not submitted to the higher education coordinating board by March 15 of any year, or if the institution's plan has not been approved by the higher education coordinating board by April 15 of that year, the office of financial management shall retain in the higher education improvement account that portion of the appropriated moneys the institution would have otherwise received from the account. By September 15, 1987, and by September 15 of each subsequent year, each institution and the state board for community college education shall report to the higher education coordinating board on how their respective plan was implemented. The report shall specify the salary adjustments received by the eligible faculty of each school and college and be detailed by department and professorial rank within each school and college.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. REPORTS ON IMPLEMENTATION. By November 15, 1987, and by November 15 of each subsequent year, the higher education coordinating board shall submit to the ways and means committees of the senate and the house of representatives a report that documents the extent to which the faculty salary adjustments at each Washington state institution of higher education are being implemented in conformance with the plans approved by the higher education coordinating board. The report shall specify the salary adjustments received at each institution and shall provide detail on the distribution of these adjustments by the schools and colleges at each institution, including the distributions to major instructional departments by professorial rank.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. HIGHER EDUCATION IMPROVEMENT ACCOUNT. (1) The higher education improvement account is hereby created in the state treasury. The account shall only be used as provided in this chapter.

(2) Moneys in the account shall be subject to legislative appropriation according to the following priorities:

(a) Not less than twenty percent of the moneys in the account shall be used for student scholarships, student loans, and the enhancement of undergraduate education according to the annual plan submitted to the legislature by the board under this chapter.

(b) As much of the moneys in the account as needed that remain after distribution under (a) of this subsection shall be used to fund faculty salaries to bring them as close as funds in the account permit to the average salary of each institution's peer group.

(3) Funding levels attained for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section shall be maintained in succeeding years from the account and not from the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Consideration" means all proceeds received, whether in cash, credits, or property, of any kind or nature, without any deduction therefrom on account of the cost of the property sold, the cost of materials used, labor or services, or other costs, interest, or discount allowed, or any other expense whatsoever, except that deductions are allowed for returned merchandise.

(2) "Department" means the department of revenue.

(3) "Motor vehicle" means all vehicles, engines, machines, or mechanical contrivances which are propelled by internal combustion engines or motors.

(4) "Oil company" means every corporation, association, joint-stock association, partnership, limited partnership, copartnership, natural individual or individuals, and any business conducted by a trustee or trustees wherein evidence of ownership is evidenced by certificate or written instrument, formed for or engaged in the sale or the importation of petroleum products within this state.

(5) "Person" means any oil company subject to tax under this chapter.

(6) "Petroleum products" means any product of the industrial processing of crude oil and its fractionation products manufactured or refined or used for the generation of power used in an internal combustion engine for the generation of power to propel motor vehicles of any kind or character on the public highways. Petroleum products include but are not limited to gasoline, diesel fuel, kerosene, propane, and any other product of crude oil used for such purpose. Petroleum products do not include any product used for residential heating purposes or in the generation of electricity by a public utility or municipality.

(7) "Petroleum revenue" means all consideration derived from the first sale of petroleum products otherwise subject to liquid fuel taxes to wholesale or retail dealers in this state for marketing and distribution or to a direct user. If the consideration derived from the sale to a wholesale dealer includes federal gasoline taxes, the taxes shall not be considered a part of the petroleum revenue. If no consideration is received or if the transaction involves a person owned or controlled by the selling entity or a division within the selling entity and the consideration does not reflect the consideration which would have been received in an arm's length transaction with an unrelated person, then the selling entity shall be deemed to have received from such sale revenue equal to the consideration it would have received in an arm's length transaction with an unrelated person. Receipts from the sale of petroleum products are allocable to this state if the property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser located within this state regardless of the F.O.B. point or other conditions of the sale. The importation of petroleum products into this state upon which this tax has not been imposed or collected shall constitute a sale within this state and the importing purchaser shall be deemed an oil company for the purposes of this chapter. Subsequent exportation of these imported products from the state shall constitute a deduction from taxable revenue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. (1) Every oil company incorporated or organized now or hereafter by or under any law of this state or of any other state or territory or by the United States or any foreign government or dependency, and doing business in this state, shall pay an excise tax of one percent of its petroleum revenues for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchise or of doing business, or of employing capital, or of owning or leasing property in this state in a corporate or organized capacity, or of maintaining an office in this state, or of having employees in this state, for all or any part of any calendar year.

(2) The tax imposed by this chapter is in addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter or any other statute and shall not be permitted as a deduction in calculating any other tax imposed by the state.

(3) The tax imposed by this chapter automatically preempts any like tax or any tax on the privilege of processing or refining any petroleum product taxable under this chapter or any other refined product of crude oil imposed by any political subdivision of this state. This preemption does not extend to any local or personal or real property tax of general application or to any tax imposed by the state.

(4) The department may require purchasers of petroleum products to provide the selling oil company with documentation in such form and under such terms and conditions as the department may prescribe to substantiate any portion of its purchases which are or will be used for a nontaxable purpose.

(5) If at the time of a sale or importation of petroleum products by an oil company it cannot be reasonably determined whether the products will be used for a taxable purpose, it is presumed that the products are being used for a taxable purpose. The department may provide, in such form and under such terms as it may prescribe, a credit against any tax due and payable for any subsequent month upon submission to the department of such proof as it may require that any products presumed taxable were ultimately used for a nontaxable purpose.

(6) Any purchaser of petroleum products for a nontaxable purpose who provides documentation to an oil company pursuant to subsections (4) and (5) of this section and who subsequently sells or uses those products for a taxable purpose shall be deemed an oil company for the purposes of this chapter.

(7) The department may provide, in any case in which the purchaser is unable to provide documentation that petroleum products are used for a nontaxable purpose, for the payment of a credit based on the average wholesale price of petroleum products determined pursuant to rules adopted by the department.

(8) Any purchaser from an oil company subject to tax under this chapter who intentionally provides an oil company with false or fraudulent proof of the ultimate use of petroleum products, which enables that oil company to obtain a credit or exemption to which it is not entitled, or who directly receives a credit for taxes paid, is liable to pay to the department two hundred percent of the credit so obtained, plus interest at the rate of eighteen percent per annum.

(9) Any purchaser or user of petroleum products may, upon application to and approval by the department, elect to be deemed an oil company for the purposes of this chapter and to pay the taxes imposed by this chapter. Any purchaser or user electing to be taxed as an oil company may acquire petroleum products without the imposition of tax upon the supplier of the petroleum products.

(10) The tax imposed by this chapter shall be collected once on any petroleum products sold or used in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. Chapter 82.32 RCW applies to the taxes imposed in this chapter, including RCW 82.32.045 on reports and returns.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. (1) The governor, or the governor's authorized representative, is hereby vested with authority to confer with the governor and the authorized representatives of other states with respect to reciprocal collection between this state and such other states of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(2) The governor, or the governor's representative, is authorized to join with such authorities of other states to conduct joint investigations, exchange information, hold joint hearings, and enter into compacts or interstate agreements with such other states to accomplish uniform reciprocal collection between those states who are parties to any compact or interstate agreement and this state of the tax imposed by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. The department shall administer this chapter and is authorized to make the inquiries, determinations, and assessments of taxes imposed by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. All taxes, interest, and penalties imposed by this chapter shall be deposited in the higher education improvement account.

I think Senator Bottiger has a good motion and I wanted to know if the makers of all the amendments would be able to speak on their amendments in favor of Senator Bottiger's motion?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "You would be entitled to speak under the three minute rule until someone raises the previous question and the previous question carries."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I suggest to Senator Deccio that they have an old rule around here that if you've got the votes you vote and if you don't have the votes you talk. We have always allowed people to present their arguments for the amendments and I would hate to start this procedure at this time, Mr. President. I don't know where you are in the middle of the roll call there, the ayes' were aying and the nays' were naying, but I don't know that anybody counted them."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

There are two additional amendments that have been brought up, one by Senator Barr and one by Senator Patterson that were not there when I made the motion, so we will have to vote on those. Now if more amendments keep coming up, then I would suggest Rule 61 might be of interest."

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1363, by Committee on Transportation (originally sponsored by Representatives Crane, Walk, J. Williams, K. Wilson, Zellinsky, Valle, May, Fisher, Schmidt, Leonard, Haugen, Miller, Walker, Cole, Todd, Long, Holland, Isaacson, Schoon, Betrozoff, Chandler, Patrick, Ebersole, Lux, Rust, Nutley, Brough, Jacobsen, S. Wilson, P. King, Winsley, Belcher, Van Luven and Unsoeld)

Preventing escape of debris from vehicles.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment by Senators Bottiger and Hayner was adopted:

On page 1, line 19, after "thereon" insert "by subsection (3) of the 1986 act"

On motion of Senator Peterson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1363, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Bottiger, when you are defining free board does this mean that the free board is only at the edges of the truck or what about the center? Can the load be piled higher in the center so it's above the level of the sides even though they still have six inches clear on the edges?"

Senator Bottiger: "I'd have to yield to Senator Peterson. I don't sit on that committee. I understand what free board is, but I can't answer your question."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PETERSON

Senator Peterson: "The answer to your question is a load could be higher. The six inches of a free board is maintained so as that load settles it's indicated, at least in the statistics that we received from the State Patrol and the trucking industry, that six inches of free board--if a truck left a gravel pit--even though the gravel is piled higher than the truck--the six inches of free board would be ample to allow for settling and spillage."

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Peterson, that's one of the problems and the key with the issue is, it bounces off the middle of the truck, especially where some of the trucks are piled say six or eight inches above the sides even at the middle point. How is it determined that it will level out, so that it wouldn't come over? That's the real question that I think this whole debate and the whole problem that has been around for a long time."

Senator Peterson: "I don't know what scientific means that's been developed to establish that six inch free board, but it was at least alleged in committee, for the most part, that it would take care of the problem as long as they maintain that much free board."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Bottiger, is it your intent by your amendment that subsection (2) only applies to loads as defined in subsection (3)?"

Senator Bottiger: "That's correct. I think the issue came up of what would this do to say a farm crop. If you would put a canvas over a load of carrots, they would tend to cook and since carrots don't bounce and watermelons don't bounce, the committee kept its consideration to sand, gravel and rock."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bauer: "Senator Bottiger, I understand also in the bill that it requires that all under carriages--wheels, tires and body frames be free of any mud or debris before they enter a paved road. What happens to the farmer who was bringing his semi-truck out of the field away from the farm and there is no water hoses or no ability to wash that under carriage and he's pushing it out of the field with a bulldozer because of the muddy weather? Now, is he going to be fined when he moves that semi out onto the paved road?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, could you refer your question to someone that was even on the committee?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR PETERSON

Senator Peterson: "The bill is not construed to be that tight, Senator Bauer. The same question came up--where the reason that language was--the sand and gravel operations where the trucks are leaving with an excessive amount, but it is not intended to penalize the farmer for leaving the field with mud in between the tires and this type of thing, so it's not to be construed, by testimony before the committee, and it's not to be construed by the Senate, to be that type. We had the State Patrol and the sheriffs and they would work with the committee in determining and the ultimate effect was 'no.'"

Senator Bauer: "So you're saying the intent of the legislation is that they are not going to penalize the farm vehicle for putting mud on the road in coming out of a field?"

Senator Peterson: "They don't intend to issue citations for that type of a violation. That wouldn't be construed--they don't--in other words--we're not asking someone to be there with a fire truck with every load that leaves the operation."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1363, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1363, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 6; absent, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yeas: Senators Bailey, Bender, Bluechel, Boltiger, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJamatt, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 41.

Voting nays: Senators Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Craswell, Metcalf, Newhouse - 6.

Absent: Senator Fleming - 1.

SECOND READING

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 55, by Representatives Peery, Taylor, Ebersole, Cole, Schoon and May

Specifying the time period for levies for renovation and construction of school facilities.

The resolution was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 13, after "support the" strike "renovation or construction" and insert "construction, modernization or remodelling"

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, House Joint Resolution No. 55, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Gaspard, if a school district approves one of these six-year levies for capital purposes and the money begins to come in, is the school district obligated to immediately begin spending the money or may the school district allow the money to accrue for a time prior to spending it on the capital project?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Pullen, I don't know how to answer that question, because I don't think its addressed in either the constitutional amendment before us or in the implementing statute but common sense, I think, will prevail when they go to the voters and ask for a levy proposal and the voters see that that money is not being spent for the purpose it was purported to be spent for. Obviously, they are not going to have the support of the community."

Senator Pullen: "Well, what would happen to the interest on the money if the school district were to allow the funds to accrue? In other words, who gets the interest and is the interest dedicated to the capital project or could the interest be used for other expenditures?"

Senator Gaspard: "I believe, Senator Pullen, that that doesn't address that either, but that will be up to the local school district to make that determination whether they wish to apply it to the capital project or use it for any other purpose the local school district desires it to go to."

EDITOR'S NOTE: (See clarification remarks by Senator Gaspard before House Joint Resolution No. 55 on final passage)

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Gaspard, let's assume that this has passed and the local school district wants to put a six-year levy on and they'll identify it for the specific project. Is it possible for them in the next year to put another six-year levy on? I scanned the bill and I can't see any prohibition against it. The reason I asked that question--the people at the local level frequently will vote as they did this last time--27 million for parks, next year they forget they voted on that and another issue comes up and the following year another one and the bond issues are running for thirty years while the levies are running for six years."

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Rasmussen, in looking at the constitutional amendment and the implementing legislation which is the next bill before us, it doesn't specify or prohibit a school district from doing that, but again using common sense that a school board would ask the public to have a levy before them and to ask the public to have a supportive levy passed, which takes over sixty percent of the voters in that district, it wouldn't be wise or prudent policy for them to come back in a year again and ask for a six-year levy. Those local decisions are best, I think, left to the local people who are elected school board directors in each district."

Further debate ensued.

CLARIFICATION OF REMARKS BY SENATOR GASPARD

Senator Gaspard: "Mr. President, just to clarify the question offered by Senator Pullen on the interest from the capital project. In going beyond what the statute is before us here, but looking at what the statute is currently, that those funds that are raised locally for capital construction projects, that interest has to stay for that capital construction."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, could Senator Gaspard's comments that he just made be entered in the record, because that contradicts the answer to the question I asked previously?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator Pullen."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Joint Resolution No. 55, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Joint Resolution No. 55, as amended by the Senate, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 4; excused, 1.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1726, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Talmadge, again, going back to page 4, the definition of entity, would the Washington State Legislature soliciting private sector contributions for the NCSL convention last summer have to comply with this law?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I think I would suggest to you that an organization that is presently subject to public disclosure or the federal election commission disclosure process, would be immune from the provisions of the bill. If it were a purpose that is not subject to the disclosure provisions of RCW 42.17 or the disclosure provisions in federal law for a political purpose, then I would have to say 'yes' it probably would be."

Senator Goltz: "Would the Washington State Expo '86 Commission, which is also soliciting money from the private sector to complete our effort up in Vancouver, British Columbia, have to register under this law?"

Senator Talmadge: "My answer is for the same reason, probably 'yes,' unless it is covered by RCW 42.17 or the federal election commission process."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1726, as amended by the Senate.

Upon such election, the payment schedule related to such loan shall be recomputed and modified to provide for repayment of the principal amount of the loan plus accrued but unpaid interest and all interest which shall accrue during the period of deferral and thereafter over a term equal to the original term of the loan, commencing as of the date of such deferral.

Funds of the Washington land bank shall not be or constitute public moneys or funds of the state of Washington but shall at all times be kept segregated and set apart from other funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is hereby created the land bank advisory committee to advise the department of general administration in the development of rules and procedures under section 1 of this act which apply to the establishment of the Washington land bank. MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hansen, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "bank;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 30.04.020; adding a new chapter to Title 31 RCW; and creating a new section."

On motion of Senator Hansen, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1899, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Hansen, my question is, I have a clipping here out of the newspaper--'Farm Credit System turns in a whopping $269,000,000.085 loss,' then they go on to say that thirty-seven banks and there are several banks in the state of Washington, but the farm credit system can borrow on the federal treasury, which they are doing. How do you foresee a local state land bank being able to do business when many farmers already owe up to their tractor hubs on the present farm credit? I just don't understand how you can borrow money when you already owe more than you can pay."

Senator Hansen: "You just answered your own question, Senator Rasmussen. You said they borrowed more than they can pay, but they haven't used the equity of their land. Now if they own that land free title, they can borrow up to sixty-five percent of that land's true evaluation to help this cash flow that they're in right now. The thing that has put us in this position is a lot of federal government regulation of chastising other countries when they wanted to get at them for human rights and things like this. We cut the export of our products off. We lost that market through that maneuver. At the present time, we have a strong dollar. At the present time, Canada's dollar is a third less than ours, so we're catching thirty loads of cattle a week coming into the state of Washington to slaughter and they're being paid at our American higher dollar which gives them a third more than the dollar they would have gotten in Canada, so the price of cattle dropped immediately four cents a pound, which caused this catastrophe that was related to here--a cattleman in my area who lost his shirt--and he did lose his shirt. But the farmer that has an equity in his ground--there are a lot of those farms that are a hundred years old that have been in the family--they have a big equity in the farm and their cash flow is miserable right now, because of elements beyond their control. Now this set up will give people who have an equity in their place the ability to borrow on their equity and hold that cash flow so they can operate."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you. Just one brief question. When you take a crop loan, don't they put a lien on the land?"

Senator Hansen: "No. When they take a crop loan, they take a crop loan."

Senator Rasmussen: "Only a lien on the crop?"

Senator Hansen: "On the crop and the equipment."

Senator Rasmussen: "I hope you are successful. I don't know if it will work."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 1899, as amended by the Senate.

The employee so transferring will (a) be on probation for the same period as are new employees of the merger district in the position filled, (b) be eligible for promotion after completion of the probationary period as completed, (c) receive a salary at least equal to that of other new employees of the merger district in the position filled, and (d) in all other matters, such as retirement, vacation, and sick leave, have, all the rights, benefits, and privileges to which he or she would have been entitled to as an employee of the merger district from the beginning of employment with the merging district: PROVIDED, That for purposes of layoffs by the merger fire agency, only the time of service accrued with the merger agency shall apply unless an agreement is reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the merging and merger fire agencies and the merging and merger fire agencies. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "Senator Halsan, I believe I heard you say that a five-year old's breath probably would not do it. At what age would a juvenile or other person's breath--if it's that technical I'm scared to death of it--but at what age would they be able to start it?"

Senator Halsan: "Well, as I mentioned, the device requires what is called alveolar air, which is a deep lung air on a very strong breath. It basically requires an adult to do it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Halsan, if a person could buy a can of fresh breath, which had sort of a lip attachment to it, and you pressed an aerosol trigger could you get that thing to work?"

Senator Halsan: "I believe I've been asked to yield to a question which I would accept--the people that manufacture these devices--there are two companies that do it at the present time with five more coming on line, they would not do it. A balloon wouldn't do it. Compressed air in a can wouldn't do it. It takes a deep lung air breath just like a breathalizer if you've ever blown into one."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Halsan and Talmadge.

The motion by Senator Halsan carried and the amendment was adopted.

Regulating the effective date of solid waste functional standards.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kreidler, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1540 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Kreidler, do the updated minimal functional standards for solid waste referred to in this bill violate any provision of Initiative 62?"

Senator Kreidler: "No, Senator Talmadge, the updated standards were not directly imposed by the Legislature, but by administrative rule by the Department of Ecology. The authority for the rules comes from the Solid Waste Management Act of 1969. It was enacted more than ten years before Initiative 62."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Kreidler, is this only a study bill?"

Senator Kreidler: "Yes, Senator, it is solely a study bill of the minimal functional standards--current practices that are taking place in counties with landfills and then coming back with some recommendations for the Legislature."

Senator Barr: "In describing the bill, you used some pretty big figures and it sounded pretty positive of what it was going to cost local government--in the hundreds of millions of dollars--and I didn't want that to be interpreted as being anything in the record--that this is strictly a study bill."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1540.

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1540 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; excused, 5.

The department of ecology shall establish a comprehensive list of used oil collection facilities in the state. If the department determines that there are an inadequate number of facilities to serve any city or county, the department shall require that city or county to address oil recycling in the local hazardous waste plan required by RCW 70.105.220."

Senator Rinehart moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, after line 19 of the amendment, insert the following:

- (1) Assess their positive and negative impact on oil recycling or disposal practices, including possible effects on landfills;

The department of ecology shall consult with the solid waste advisory committee and report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by January 1, 1987. The report shall include recommendations for legislation."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Kiskaddon: "Mr. President, I think we adopted the striking amendment by Senator Kreidler and this is an amendment to the striking amendment as I understand it, so I don't see how we would be able to handle that at this point."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your point is well taken, Senator Kiskaddon. It will be possible by reconsidering the vote by which the striking amendment was adopted."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Rinehart, having voted on the prevailing side, moved to reconsider the vote by which the striking amendment by the Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment to House Bill No. 1643 was adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rinehart, out where Tub Hansen and I live, a used oil collection container is an oil drum. Do you have some definition of what you're going to study that is a little bit more clearer than this?"

Senator Rinehart: "The intention is not to limit it and certainly not to interfere with any individual business person's consideration. Senator Bottiger, does this have anything to do with your rototiller?"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Rinehart to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by the Parks and Ecology committee to House Bill No. 1643 was adopted.

The motion by Senator Rinehart failed.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "I have a couple questions, Senator Moore, about this fraternal language. Would this allow, for instance, the Elks, the Moose and the Odd Fellows all to get in the same pooling agreement as far as insurance is concerned?"

Senator Moore: "If, on line 10, where it speaks to two or more cooperatives operated as cooperatives under chapter so and so, I think that probably covers it."

Senator Newhouse: "No, I'm looking on line 3 and 4 when you talk about fraternal benefit societies. Would that include college fraternities and sororities? Could they do this under this chapter?"

Senator Moore: "Anything that is listed as a fraternal organization would be included."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Moore.

The motion by Senator Moore carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Moore, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "48.62.040" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and 48.01.050."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Senator Moore, will they have to have the same funds--I search for the words--the funds in order to make sure that they are not going to default on a loss?"

Senator Moore: "They will be under the Insurance Commissioner, subject to all the regulations."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1972, as amended by the Senate.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1986, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2080, by Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance (originally sponsored by Representative Lux)

Authorizing a joint underwriting association to provide insurance for day care providers.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 15, after "services" insert "by requiring the commissioner to assist in the establishment of a market assistance plan for providing liability insurance for day care services or"

On page 1, line 22, after "means" strike all material through "chapter" on line 23 and insert "an involuntary mechanism requiring property casualty insurers doing business in Washington to provide day care insurance to licensees on either an assigned risk basis or through a joint underwriting pool providing limits of at least one hundred thousand dollars underwritten to standards promulgated under chapter 74.15 RCW"

On page 2, after line 2, insert the following:

"(4) Market assistance plan means a voluntary mechanism by insurers writing liability insurance in Washington in either the admitted or nonadmitted market to provide day care insurance to a licensee in a minimum amount of one hundred thousand dollars underwritten to standards promulgated under chapter 74.15 RCW."

On page 2, line 3, after "Sec. 3." strike all material through "chapter." on line 6 and insert "(1) The commissioner shall direct all insurers writing property casualty insurance in Washington in either the admitted market or the nonadmitted market to form and put into operation with the commissioner's assistance and supervision a market assistance plan for day care insurance for licensees underwritten to standards promulgated under chapter 74.15 RCW.

(2) The commissioner may, after hearing and upon finding that day care insurance is not available to a substantial number of licensees, establish an association for day care insurance for licensees in a minimum amount of one hundred thousand dollars."

On page 2, line 17, after "occurrence," strike all material through "losses." on line 22 and insert "The commissioner shall approve rates filed by the association that are not excessive, inadequate, and unfairly discriminatory."

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 2080, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Moore, does this bill put a cap on the price for insurance that could be offered to day care operators?"

Senator Moore: "I think that probably was addressed, at least partially, through Senator Bottiger's amendment. It has to be offered roughly on the same basis as the State Insurance Commission requires under normal circumstances."

Senator Bluechel: "One more question. Will this provide affordable insurance for day care operators or is the price still going to be so high that it can't be purchased by a very small day care operator?"

Senator Moore: "That will be determined, I can tell you and I think we all know, it will be determined by the market place to a very large extent. My guess is that it will raise the cost of insurance and per child it could be several dollars per month--the exact amount I cannot guess."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Bottiger, I really haven't had a chance to look at this amendment that's already passed and we are on final passage--line 22, 'The commissioner may, after hearing upon finding that day care insurance is not available to a substantial number of licensees establish an association for day care insurance.' Are you talking about a JUA, a joint underwriting authority? Is that what you're referring to here?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I have to ask you to tell me which line 22?"

Senator Deccio: "On the amendment--2080, your amendment."

Senator Bottiger: "O.K. If you look just above that in the section right above it where this is a MAPS. First, there's a MAPS and if the MAPS doesn't work, there's a JUA. This is the plan that we talked about in committee."

"The question was raised under the MAPS. They offer a policy that is extremely expensive not in premium but in compliance--the one on one and so that's where we asked it to be rewritten. You will notice on line 19, its got to be underwritten--the standards promulgated under Chapter 74.15--which is the requirement for day care centers."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 2080, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 2080, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent, 2; excused, 3.

(2) A five-day period for cancellation of the contract shall begin to run from the day the facility opens for use of the buyer and the seller begins to provide the agreed upon services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, all moneys paid to the seller by the buyer prior to the opening of the facility shall promptly be deposited by the seller in a trust account, maintained by the seller for the purpose of holding such moneys for the buyer, in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in Washington. The seller shall within seven days of the first deposit notify the office of the attorney general, in writing, of the name, address, and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the seller is entitled to receipt of interest paid on such trust account moneys. The seller shall provide the buyer with a written receipt for the moneys and shall provide written notice of the name and address and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof. If prior to the opening of the facility the status of the seller is transferred to another, any sums in the trust account affected by such transfer shall simultaneously be transferred to an equivalent trust account of the successor, and the successor shall promptly notify the buyer and the office of the attorney general of the transfer and of the name, address, and location of the new depository. The buyer's claim to any moneys paid under this section is prior to that of any creditor of the seller, including a trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, even if such moneys are commingled. After receipt of the notice of cancellation of the agreement or if the seller fails to open the facility and provide the agreed upon services within twelve months of the signing of the contract, the seller shall within ten days give a full refund to the buyer. The moneys on deposit shall revert to the seller on the day the facility opens.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to any sellers who, prior to any reopening sales, have provided a bond guaranteeing performance of all contracts for health and conditioning services sold prior to the opening of the facility. The bond shall be drawn upon a surety in an amount acceptable to the office of the attorney general, running to the state of Washington. An action on the bond may be brought by the office of the attorney general or by any buyer of a contract for health and conditioning services sold prior to the opening of the facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The contract for health and conditioning services shall contain:

(a) The name and address of the health and conditioning facilities operator;

(b) The date the buyer signed the contract;

(c) The current fees to be paid by the buyer and, if such fees are subject to periodic adjustment, such fact shall be disclosed;

(d) The services to be provided under the contract; and

(e) The duration of the contract.

(2) Unless the health and conditioning facilities operator has complied with subsection (1) of this section, the buyer may cancel the contract for health and conditioning services at any time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Contracts for health and conditioning services shall contain clauses which notify buyers of the following rights:

(1) The buyer has the right to cancel the contract at any time prior to midnight of the third calendar day after the date the contract is signed by the buyer. Cancellation under this subsection entitles the buyer to a refund of all moneys paid and relieves the buyer from any future obligations under the contract without penalty.

(2) If by reason of death or total disability the person agreeing to receive services is unable to receive services that have been contracted for, the person or person's estate may cancel the contract.

(a) For total disability, a written confirmation of total disability shall be submitted by the person's treating physician. The health and conditioning facility may require the person to be examined by a physician of their choice if requested within sixty days after a written confirmation is submitted by the treating physician. If the two physicians disagree, they shall choose a third physician to examine the person, each party bearing half the fee. The third physician's opinion shall be binding on all parties. Total disability is a condition incurred after the person signs the contract which precludes the person from physically using the facilities for the remaining term of the contract.

(b) For death, a certified copy of the death certificate shall be sufficient evidence to cancel the contract.

(3) If the health and conditioning facilities are permanently closed and comparable facilities owned and operated by the seller are not made available within a ten-mile radius of the closed facility, the person agreeing to receive health and conditioning services may cancel the contract.

(4) If a contract for health and conditioning services extends for more than one year or requires payment of an initiation or membership fee, the buyer has the right to cancel the contract for any reason upon thirty days' written notice to the seller.

(5) Upon cancellation under subsection (2), (3), or (4) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a refund and relief from future obligations for payments of one-time only initiation and membership fees and monthly use fees as follows:

(a) The buyer is entitled to a refund of the unused portion of any prepaid monthly use fees and relief from future obligations to pay use fees concerning use after the date of cancellation;

(b) If a contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels under subsection (2) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of such fee less a predetermined fee not to exceed one-half of the initial initiation or membership fee;

(c) If the contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels under subsection (3) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of such fee;

(d) If the contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels under subsection (4) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of such fee and relief from future obligations for payment under the contract unless the contract clearly states that the initiation or membership fee is nonrefundable, or states what percentage of the fee is refundable, and the clause is separately signed by the buyer;

(e) To calculate the amount of the refund and relief from future obligations for payment under the contract, the fee shall be apportioned into an equal installment amount by dividing the total fee by the number of months of use contracted for by the buyer. The buyer is entitled to relief from the obligation for payment and a refund of any moneys paid in excess of the number of months of use prior to the date of cancellation multiplied by the equal installment amount; and

(f) All refunds shall be made within thirty days of receipt of the notice of cancellation by the health and conditioning facilities operator. Notice of cancellation shall be provided to the seller by mailing or delivering a signed and dated notice, or sending a telegram which states that the buyer is canceling the contract, or words of similar effect. The seller may require the buyer to return the original copy of the contract, or any membership card, or any other materials which evidence membership in the club.

(6) For any period in which a person is precluded from physically using the facilities due to a temporary total disability, the obligation of that person to pay any monthly use fees will be suspended. For a temporary total disability, a written confirmation shall be submitted by the person's treating physician. The health and conditioning facility may require, if requested within sixty days after a written confirmation is submitted by the treating physician, the person to be examined by a physician of their choice. If the two physicians disagree, they shall choose a third physician to examine the person, each party bearing half the fee. The third physician's opinion shall be binding on all parties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The provisions of this chapter are not exclusive and do not relieve the parties from compliance with all other applicable federal, state, and local laws and rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Any contract for health and conditioning services which does not comply with the applicable provisions of this chapter or in which the buyer waives any provision of this chapter is void and unenforceable as contrary to public policy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. It shall be unlawful to sell or offer for sale any contract for health and conditioning services entered into in reliance upon any false, fraudulent, or misleading information or representations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A seller who has not furnished a bond under section 11 of this act and who receives money from a buyer under a contract for services from health and conditioning facilities sold prior to the opening of the facility and the provision of the agreed upon services and who fails to deposit such moneys in a trust account maintained by the seller for the purpose of holding such funds for the buyer in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in Washington within three business days of receipt excluding Saturday, Sunday and holidays shall be guilty of a class C felony as defined in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A violation of this chapter, for purposes of the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW, constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any contracts for health and conditioning services entered into before the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. Sections 5 through 19 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW."

Debate ensued.

Senator Vognild moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Warnke be adopted:

On page 2 of the amendment, after line 8, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The department of social and health services shall not require a certificate of need for the commencement of obstetrical services by an existing hospital as defined in RCW 70.41.020."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, when is the question of the scope and object of the Warnke amendment in order?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The amendment hasn't been discussed, Senator."
Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, if we adopt the Vognild amendment to the Warnke amendment, there may be a question as to the scope and object of this, would it be out of order at that time?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The point can be raised at that point."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "If we have Senator Vognild's amendment and we only put it on the striking amendment and then do something with the striking amendment that was defeated, then my impression of the rules would say that Senator Vognild's amendment would not be in front of us to add to the original bill. So, I would like to suggest that the process that is appropriate might be to do this amendment to the original bill and then take up the striking amendment at which time it could be added."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1593 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1349, by Committee on Constitution, Elections and Ethics (originally sponsored by Representatives Fisher and P. King)

Altering procedures regarding the administration of elections.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Thompson moved that the following Committee on Governmental Operations amendment be adopted:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 29.01 RCW to read as follows:

"Election board" means a group of election officers serving one precinct or groups of precincts in a polling place.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 107, Laws of 1980 and RCW 29.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No paper ballot precinct (~~shall~~) may contain more than three hundred voters. The county legislative authority may divide, alter, or combine precincts so that, whenever practicable, over-populated precincts shall contain no more than two hundred fifty registered voters in anticipation of future growth.

(2) Precinct boundaries may be altered at any time as long as sufficient time exists prior to a given election for the necessary procedural steps to be honored(~~PROVIDED, HOWEVER,~~

~~That~~). Except as permitted under subsection (5) of this section, no precinct boundaries ((shall)) may be changed during the period starting ((as of) on) the thirtieth day prior to the first day for candidates to file for the primary election and ending with the day of the general election.

(3) Precincts in which voting machines or electronic voting devices are used may contain as many as nine hundred registered voters(~~(-PROVIDED, That)~~), but there shall be at least one voting machine or device for each three hundred registered voters or major fraction thereof when a state primary or general election is held in an even-numbered year.

(4) On petition of twenty-five or more voters resident more than ten miles from any place of election, the county legislative authority shall establish a separate voting precinct therefor.

(5) The county auditor shall temporarily adjust precinct boundaries when a city annexes county territory to the city. The adjustment shall be made as soon as possible after the approval of the annexation. The temporary adjustment shall be limited to the minimum changes necessary to accommodate the addition of the territory to the city and shall remain in effect only until precinct boundary modifications reflecting the annexation are adopted by the county legislative authority.

The county legislative authority may establish by ordinance a limitation on the maximum number of registered voters in each precinct within its jurisdiction. The limitation may be different for precincts based upon the method of voting used for such precincts and the number may be less than the number established by law, but in no case may the number exceed that authorized by law.

The county legislative authority of each county in the state hereafter formed shall, at their first session, divide their respective counties into election precincts with two hundred fifty voters or less and establish the boundaries of the (~~(same))~~ precincts. The county auditor shall thereupon designate the voting place for each such precinct.

Sec. 3. Section 29.04.055, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 5, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.04.055 are each amended to read as follows:

At any election, general or special, or at any primary, the (~~(election authority))~~ county auditor may combine, unite, or divide precincts and may combine or unite election boards for the purpose of holding such election(~~(-PROVIDED, That in the event such election shall be held upon the day of any state primary or state general election held in an even-numbered year this section shall not apply))~~).

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 21, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 29.07.065 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to other information required by this chapter, each applicant for registration shall establish his identity, unless personally known by the registration officer, by producing at least one of the following items:

(1) A social security card containing the applicant's signature. Whenever the social security record is so used, the registration officer shall enter the applicant's social security number upon the appropriate registration forms;

(2) A driver's license which contains the signature and/or a photograph of the applicant;

(3) A valid Washington state identicaid;

Failure to produce such identification ~~except when necessary to establish the applicant's date of birth~~ at the time of registration as set forth in this section shall not deter the act of registration: PROVIDED, That registration officials shall indicate on the registration form by checking either "identification produced" or "identification not produced".

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 29.07 RCW to read as follows:

The county auditor shall have custody of the voter registration records for each county and shall maintain those records in accordance with this section.

(1) The original voter registration form, as established by RCW 29.07.070, shall be filed alphabetically without regard to precinct and shall not be available for public inspection and copying.

(2) An automated file of all registered voters shall be maintained pursuant to RCW 29.07-.220, which shall be the source of the precinct lists of registered voters used at the polls on election day. Lists of registered voters produced from the automated file are public records and are thus available for inspection and copying. Information on any individual voter is exempt from public inspection and copying whenever, in the opinion of the county auditor, the release of such information would result in an unreasonable invasion of personal privacy or interfere with any vital governmental function. If a person is denied public inspection and copying of the automated file, the justification for the denial shall be explained fully in writing.

Sec. 6. Section 29.13.020, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 3, Laws of 1980 and RCW 29.13.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary of state shall promptly notify any county that submits an incomplete or inaccurate voucher for reimbursement under RCW 29.13.047.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, I would like to raise the point of order that the committee amendment expands the scope and object of the bill. Using the honorable chairman of the Governmental Operations Committee's own words, he said that we extracted all these provisions from another bill. That in itself is saying he is expanding the scope and object of this measure. Another item that I would draw your attention to is that the original bill is a relatively small bill consisting of only a limited number of sections. It consists of only eighteen sections. The new bill is a humongous bill in length that adds almost double that. I would also draw the President's attention to title amendments on page 28 and 29 of the bill that extends for many, many lines. Clearly new subjects have been added to this, and therefore, I would contend that it does expand the scope and object of the original bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1349 was deferred.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1593 and the pending striking amendment by Senator Warnke and the amendment by Senator Vognild to the Warnke amendment on page 2, line 8, deferred earlier today.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, and there being no objection, the amendment to the Warnke amendment was withdrawn.

On page 1, line 1, after "facilities;" insert "creating a new section"

Senator Warnke moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Within one hundred eighty days of the effective date of this section, the governing body of every hospital licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW shall set standards and procedures to be applied by the hospital and its medical staff in considering and acting upon applications for staff membership or professional privileges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The governing body of any hospital, except any hospital which employs its medical staff, in considering and acting upon applications for staff membership or professional privileges within the scope of the applicants' respective licenses, shall not discriminate against a qualified person solely on the basis of whether such person is licensed under chapters 18.71, 18.57, or 18.22 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any person may apply to superior court for a preliminary or permanent injunction restraining a violation of section 1 or 2 of this act. This action is an additional remedy not dependent on the adequacy of the remedy at law. Nothing in this chapter shall require a hospital to grant staff membership or professional privileges until a final determination is made upon the merits by the hospital governing body.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 through 3 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The legislature recognizes that there is an increasing interest by the citizens of this state in physical fitness and that in response to such interest a wide variety of health and conditioning services are available. Therefore, the legislature declares that it is a matter of public interest that the citizens of this state be assured of reasonable protection when contracting for health and conditioning services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "Contract for health and conditioning services" means: A contract which provides as one of its primary purposes services or facilities which assist the purchaser to improve physical condition or appearance through physical fitness programs, body building, exercising, reducing weight loss, figure development, or any other similar activity;

(b) "Initiation or membership fee" means a fee paid either in a lump sum or installments on a one-time basis when a person first joins a health and conditioning facility for the privilege of belonging to such facility;

(c) "Use fees" means fees paid on a regular periodic basis for use of a health club. This does not preclude prepayment of use fees at the buyer's option;

(d) "Health club" or "club" means any individual, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity offering contracts for health and conditioning services to the public.

(2) A "contract for health and conditioning services" does not include:

(a) Professional services within the scope of the person's license rendered or furnished by a person licensed under Title 18 RCW;

(b) Instruction at public common schools, public institutions of higher education, private schools approved under RCW 28A.02.201, and private institutions of higher education;

(c) Instruction, training, or assistance relating to diet or control of eating habits not involving physical fitness programs, body building, exercising, figure development, or any other similar activity; or

(d) Recreational or social programs offered by organizations listed in subsection (3) of this section, which either involve no physical exercise or exercise only incidental to the program.

(3) Except for the purposes of sections 7, 12, and 13 of this act, a "contract for health and conditioning services" does not include: (a) Services rendered by bona fide nonprofit organizations which have been granted tax exempt status by the internal revenue service, including, but not limited to, the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association, or other similar organizations, whose functions as health studios are only incidental to their overall functions and purposes; or (b) services rendered by bona fide nonprofit corporations organized under chapter 24.03 RCW which have members and whose members have meaningful voting rights to elect and remove a board of directors which is responsible for the operation of the health club and corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Contracts for health and conditioning services shall be in writing and are subject to this chapter. A copy of the written contract shall be given to the customer when the customer signs the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Contracts for health and conditioning services between the same buyer and the same seller which have overlapping terms are deemed to be one contract for the purpose of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If a contract exceeds three years, the buyer shall sign or initial the provision which establishes the duration of the contract.

Contracts may not be sold, advertised, or measured by the lifetime of the buyer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A contract for health and conditioning services may be sold prior to opening of the facility. Such contract shall provide that:

(1) Agreed upon services will begin within twelve months from the date the contract is signed unless the buyer signs an extension; and

(2) A five-day period for cancellation of the contract shall begin to run from the day the facility opens for use of the buyer and the seller begins to provide the agreed upon services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, all moneys paid to the seller by the buyer prior to the opening of the facility shall promptly be deposited by the seller in a trust account, maintained by the seller for the purpose of holding such moneys for the buyer, in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in Washington. The seller shall within seven days of the first deposit notify the office of the attorney general, in writing, of the name, address, and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the seller is entitled to receipt of interest paid on such trust account moneys. The seller shall provide the buyer with a written receipt for the moneys and shall provide written notice of the name and address and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof. If prior to the opening of the facility the status of the seller is transferred to another, any sums in the trust account affected by such transfer shall simultaneously be transferred to an equivalent trust account of the successor, and the successor shall promptly notify the buyer and the office of the attorney general of the transfer and of the name, address, and location of the new depository. The buyer's claim to any moneys paid under this section is prior to that of any creditor of the seller, including a trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, even if such moneys are commingled. After receipt of the notice of cancellation of the agreement or if the seller fails to open the facility and provide the agreed upon services within twelve months of the signing of the contract, the seller shall within ten days give a full refund to the buyer. The moneys on deposit shall revert to the seller on the day the facility opens.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to any sellers who, prior to any preopening sales, have provided a bond guaranteeing performance of all contracts for health and conditioning services sold prior to the opening of the facility. The bond shall be drawn upon a surety in an amount acceptable to the office of the attorney general, running to the state of Washington. An action on the bond may be brought by the office of the attorney general or by any buyer of a contract for health and conditioning services sold prior to the opening of the facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The contract for health and conditioning services shall contain:

(a) The name and address of the health and conditioning facilities operator;

(b) The date the buyer signed the contract;

(c) The current fees to be paid by the buyer and, if such fees are subject to periodic adjustment, such fact shall be disclosed;

(d) The services to be provided under the contract; and

(e) The duration of the contract.

(2) Unless the health and conditioning facilities operator has complied with subsection (1) of this section, the buyer may cancel the contract for health and conditioning services at any time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Contracts for health and conditioning services shall contain clauses which notify buyers of the following rights:

(1) The buyer has the right to cancel the contract at any time prior to midnight of the third calendar day after the date the contract is signed by the buyer. Cancellation under this subsection entitles the buyer to a refund of all moneys paid and relieves the buyer from any future obligations under the contract without penalty.

(2) If by reason of death or total disability the person agreeing to receive services is unable to receive services that have been contracted for, the person or person's estate may cancel the contract.

(a) For total disability, a written confirmation of total disability shall be submitted by the person's treating physician. The health and conditioning facility may require the person to be examined by a physician of their choice if requested within sixty days after a written confirmation is submitted by the treating physician. If the two physicians disagree, they shall choose a third physician to examine the person, each party bearing half the fee. The third physician's opinion shall be binding on all parties. Total disability is a condition incurred after the person signs the contract which precludes the person from physically using the facilities for the remaining term of the contract.

(b) For death, a certified copy of the death certificate shall be sufficient evidence to cancel the contract.

(3) If the health and conditioning facilities are permanently closed and comparable facilities owned and operated by the seller are not made available within a ten-mile radius of the closed facility, the person agreeing to receive health and conditioning services may cancel the contract.

(4) If a contract for health and conditioning services extends for more than one year or requires payment of an initiation or membership fee, the buyer has the right to cancel the contract for any reason upon thirty days' written notice to the seller.

(5) Upon cancellation under subsection (2), (3), or (4) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a refund and relief from future obligations for payments of one-time only initiation and membership fees and monthly use fees as follows:

(a) The buyer is entitled to a refund of the unused portion of any prepaid monthly use fees and relief from future obligations to pay use fees concerning use after the date of cancellation;

(b) If a contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels under subsection (2) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of such fee less a predetermined fee not to exceed one-half of the initial initiation or membership fee;

(c) If the contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels under subsection (3) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of such fee;

(d) If the contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels under subsection (4) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of such fee and relief from future obligations for payment under the contract unless the contract clearly states that the initiation or membership fee is nonrefundable, or states what percentage of the fee is refundable, and the clause is separately signed by the buyer;

(e) To calculate the amount of the refund and relief from future obligations for payment under the contract, the fee shall be apportioned into an equal installment amount by dividing the total fee by the number of months of use contracted for by the buyer. The buyer is entitled to relief from the obligation for payment and a refund of any moneys paid in excess of the number of months of use prior to the date of cancellation multiplied by the equal installment amount; and

(f) All refunds shall be made within thirty days of receipt of the notice of cancellation by the health and conditioning facilities operator. Notice of cancellation shall be provided to the seller by mailing or delivering a signed and dated notice, or sending a telegram which states that the buyer is canceling the contract, or words of similar effect. The seller may require the buyer to return the original copy of the contract, or any membership card, or any other materials which evidence membership in the club.

(6) For any period in which a person is precluded from physically using the facilities due to a temporary total disability, the obligation of that person to pay any monthly use fees will be suspended. For a temporary total disability, a written confirmation shall be submitted by the person's treating physician. The health and conditioning facility may require, if requested within sixty days after a written confirmation is submitted by the treating physician, the person to be examined by a physician of their choice. If the two physicians disagree, they shall choose a third physician to examine the person, each party bearing half the fee. The third physician's opinion shall be binding on all parties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The provisions of this chapter are not exclusive and do not relieve the parties from compliance with all other applicable federal, state, and local laws and rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Any contract for health and conditioning services which does not comply with the applicable provisions of this chapter or in which the buyer waives any provision of this chapter is void and unenforceable as contrary to public policy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. It shall be unlawful to sell or offer for sale any contract for health and conditioning services entered into in reliance upon any false, fraudulent, or misleading information or representations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A seller who has not furnished a bond under section 11 of this act and who receives money from a buyer under a contract for services from health and conditioning facilities sold prior to the opening of the facility and the provision of the agreed upon services and who fails to deposit such moneys in a trust account maintained by the seller for the purpose of holding such funds for the buyer in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in Washington within three business days of receipt excluding Saturday, Sunday and holidays shall be guilty of a class C felony as defined in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. A violation of this chapter, for purposes of the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW, constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any contracts for health and conditioning services entered into before the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. Sections 5 through 19 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW."

Senator Vognild moved that the following amendment to the Warnke amendment be adopted:

On page 2 of the amendment, after line 8, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The department of social and health services shall not require a certificate of need for the commencement of obstetrical services by an existing hospital as defined in RCW 70.41.020."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President, is it permissible in procedure to raise the issue of scope and object on the original Warnke amendment before the Vognild amendment is adopted? If it is so, I will do so."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "You could raise the point after we consider the Vognild amendment."

Senator Bluechel: "It is out of order before, is that correct? In other words, I'm asking is it proper at this point to raise the point? Then, may I explain in asking you that question? The amendment may or may not have a bearing upon whether the final result is within scope or without a scope."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "I'd like to submit that we should be able to raise the point of order on the Warnke amendment at this point, otherwise additional amendments being submitted may expand the scope and object of the bill and should be raised presently."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "If you want to raise it, go ahead."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President, I would raise the point of order of the Warnke amendment. The basic bill deals with hospitals and hospital care. The Warnke amendment primarily deals with fitness clubs and regulates fitness clubs and I would say that this is not within the original scope of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1593 was deferred.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1393, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, I would raise the point of order on the scope and object of this amendment. In looking at the bill, it talks about the awarding of the prizes for state lottery; it talks about debt--if you have a personal debt, then they can go after the lottery winnings to pay off that debt. Senator Warnke's amendment, as he explained quite eloquently, deals with a new lottery authorizing a new game for a park and I think that goes far beyond the scope and object of the original bill."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1433 was deferred.

Revising the sexual offender treatment program.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the sexual offender treatment programs at western and eastern state hospitals, while not proven to be totally effective, may be of some benefit in positively affecting the behavior of certain sexual offenders. Given the significance of the problems of sexual assault and sexual abuse of children, it is therefore appropriate to review and revise these treatment efforts.

At the same time, concerns regarding the lack of adequate security at the existing programs must be satisfactorily addressed. In an effort to promote public safety, it is the intent of the legislature to transfer the responsibility for felony sexual offenders from the department of social and health services to the department of corrections.

Therefore, on and after July 1, 1987, no person convicted of a felony sexual offense may be committed under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) to the department of social and health services at eastern state hospital or western state hospital. Any person committed before July 1, 1987, to the department of social and health services under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) and still in the custody of the department of social and health services on June 30, 1993, shall be transferred to the custody of the department of corrections. On and after July 1, 1987, any person eligible for evaluation or treatment under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) shall be committed to the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) In cooperation and consultation with the mental health division of the department of social and health services, the department of corrections shall develop a plan for the administration of a sexual offender treatment program. The plan shall include:

- (a) Criteria to determine amenability to treatment;
- (b) A description of the structure and organization of the program and program options, including staffing requirements;
- (c) The treatment methods and the number and characteristics of offenders proposed to be served;
- (d) The selection of the location or locations of the program within the existing institutions operated by the department of corrections, including identification of alternative sites within the existing institutions operated by the department of corrections;
- (e) An analysis of a proposal to permit selected offenders to participate in the program only during the last two or three years of their term of confinement;
- (f) Program security;
- (g) Program costs;

(h) A description of the mechanisms and procedures to be used to collect valid and reliable data on program completion rates, recidivism rates, and escape rates;

(i) A method for tracking offenders who have been released which method can be used to determine the efficacy of the treatment program;

(j) An analysis and description of other treatment models; and

(k) Negotiations with the exclusive bargaining representative of the employees affected to provide preferential consideration for job retention, including but not limited to interagency transfer or promotion during the period of transition.

(2) Any consultation, information, or other services necessary for the development of the plan, shall upon request by the department of corrections be provided to the department of corrections by the department of social and health services, the legislative budget committee, the office of financial management, the administrator for the courts, and the data processing authority and shall be provided without charge to the department of corrections.

(3) The plan shall be submitted to the legislature by January 1, 1987, and shall take effect on July 1, 1987, unless otherwise directed by law.

Sec. 3. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) and (5) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender, other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020, the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay a fine(~~(-make restitution;))~~ and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, (~~(restitution;))~~ a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of any violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020, or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, (~~make restitution;~~) accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced before July 1, 1987, to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services, only if the report indicates that the offender is amenable to the treatment program provided at these facilities. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program. Any offender who has escaped from the treatment program shall be referred back to the sentencing court.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court (~~for determination as to whether~~). The sentencing court shall commit the offender (~~shall be transferred~~) to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in RCW 9A.20.020.

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 4. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 3, chapter ... (SSB 4736), Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) and (5) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender, other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020, the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay a fine and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of any violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020, or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

~~(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced ((before)) on or after July 1, 1987, to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, ((order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services, only if the report indicates that the offender is amenable to the treatment program provided at these facilities. - (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

Nothing in (b) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced prior to July 1, 1987.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required. (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in RCW 9A.20.020.

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department of corrections or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit existing on the effective date of this section or the provisions of any collective bargaining agreement existing on the effective date of this section until such agreement has expired or until any such bargaining unit has been modified by action of the state personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. During the remainder of the 1985-1987 biennium, upon authorization of the office of financial management, the department of social and health services shall reimburse the department of corrections as is necessary for the department of corrections to provide custody to those persons determined not to be amenable to treatment or those persons referred to court by the department of social and health services for failure to comply with the conditions of the program and committed to the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.94A.122 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Section 4 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1987.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. Sections 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, and 7 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment by Senators Talmadge, Halsan and Newhouse to the Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

On page 4 of the Committee Amendment, beginning on line 11, strike all of sections 3 and 4, through "restitution," on page 23, line 6, and insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) (~~and~~), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender, other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020, the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
 - (b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;
 - (c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
 - (d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
 - (e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or
 - (f) Pay a fine (~~((make restitution.))~~) and/or accomplish some community service work.
- (6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, (~~((restitution.))~~) a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of (~~((any))~~) a sex offense other than a violation of (~~((chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except))~~) RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions (~~((of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020.))~~) for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, (~~((make restitution.))~~) accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced before July 1, 1987, to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services, only if the report indicates that the offender is amenable to the treatment program provided at these facilities. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program. Any offender who has escaped from the treatment program shall be referred back to the sentencing court.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court ~~((for determination as to whether))~~. The sentencing court shall commit the offender ((shall be transferred)) to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

(c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense committed after July 1, 1986, to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. The conditions of supervision shall be limited to:

(i) Crime-related provisions;

(ii) A requirement that the offender report to a community corrections officer at regular intervals; and

(iii) A requirement to remain within or without stated geographical boundaries.

The length and conditions of supervision shall be set by the court at the time of sentencing. However, within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of supervision, the length and conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the department of corrections, the offender, or the prosecuting attorney. The period of supervision shall be tolled during any time the offender is in confinement for any reason. In no case may the period of supervision, in combination with the other terms of the offender's sentence, exceed the statutory maximum term for the offender's crime, as set forth in RCW 9A.20.021.

If the offender violates any condition of supervision, the sentencing court, after a hearing conducted in the same manner as provided for in RCW 9.94A.200, may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections. Reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW ((9A.20-020)).

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 4. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 3, chapter ... (ESHB 1598), Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender, other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020, the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
- (d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or
- (f) Pay a fine and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;

(iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or

(vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced ~~((before))~~ on or after July 1, 1987, to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, ~~((order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

Nothing in (b) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced prior to July 1, 1987.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

(c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense committed after July 1, 1986, to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. On motion of Senator Wojahn, the following amendment by Senators Wojahn, Talmadge, Johnson, Granlund and Pullen to the Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

On page 24 of the Committee Amendment, line 13, after "immediately," insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 72.01 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For purposes of this section only, "assault" means an unauthorized touching of an employee by a resident, patient, or juvenile offender resulting in physical injury to the employee.

(2) In recognition of the hazardous nature of employment in state institutions, the legislature hereby provides a supplementary program to reimburse institutional care employees of the departments of social and health services and of veterans affairs for some of their costs attributable to their being the victims of assault by residents, patients, or juvenile offenders. This program shall be limited to the reimbursement provided in this section.

(3) An employee is only entitled to receive the reimbursement provided in this section if the secretary of social and health services or director of veterans affairs, or the secretary's or director's designee, finds that each of the following has occurred:

(a) A resident or patient has assaulted the employee and as a result thereof the employee has sustained demonstrated physical injuries which have required the employee to miss days of work;

(b) The assault cannot be attributable to any extent to the employee's negligence, misconduct, or failure to comply with any rules or conditions of employment; and

(c) The department of labor and industries has approved the employee's workers' compensation application pursuant to chapter 51.32 RCW.

(4) The reimbursement authorized under this section shall be as follows:

(a) The employee's accumulated sick leave days shall not be reduced for the workdays missed;

(b) For each workday missed for which the employee is not eligible to receive compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall receive full pay; and

(5) Reimbursement under this section may not last longer than three hundred sixty-five consecutive days after the date of the injury.

(6) The employee shall not be entitled to the reimbursement provided in subsection (4) of this section for any workday for which the director, secretary or applicable designee, finds that the employee has not diligently pursued his or her compensation remedies under chapter 51.32 RCW.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Committee on Judiciary amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

In line 1 of the title of the bill, after "9.94A.120:" insert "adding a new section to chapter 72.01 RCW:"

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1598, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Talmadge, are the sex offenders in the prisons segregated from the other prisoners or are they all intermixed?"

Senator Talmadge: "My understanding, Senator, is they are presently in the general population of these institutions, although there is nothing in the law that would prevent the Department of Corrections from segregating those individuals in a certain one or more of the institutions that the Department operates."

Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Kiskaddon: "Mr. President and Senators, a point of personal privilege. I have the sense that Senator Rasmussen was misinterpreting what I was saying and to the point where he was putting me in with a group of people that he was saying was not really doing something that worked, but what I want you to be really clear about is that the firmness--locking up and all of that--is part of what is appropriate and has to happen, but the difference when you keep someone locked up, you can still talk with them in a respectful way rather than putting them down--and there were several things that I was talking about. I want everyone to be clear that you don't have to be soft on crime to be able to accomplish what I was saying. You can be real tough and at the same time tough, firm and polite."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Granlund: "Senator Moore, on the amendment, those who complied with the law that was passed in 1983--what's the procedure for those now who did not comply with that law and will that now come under a different regulation relative to now going to cost per foot as opposed to cost of value? What is the process going to be?"

Senator Moore: "The process will be established by the Department of Licensing. They will administer it the same as the other one and those people that complied before will come under the heading of good citizens and those that didn't may have been exempted by the Coast Guard regulation or they may not have."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator McDermott, what is the purpose of the exclusion in Section 2, subsection (1) for vessels operated by a steamboat company as defined by RCW 84.12.200?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Goltz, that language is intended to exclude vessels which have always had their taxes apportioned under the public utility statute. It is not intended to exclude vessels operating in interstate commerce, such as those operating between ports in Puget Sound and Alaska or Hawaii."

Senator Goltz: "One further question, Senator McDermott. Could you tell me what is meant by 'undergoing repair and alteration' as listed in Section 2, subsection (3)(b)?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Goltz, that language is intended to include both scheduled and emergency repairs, alterations, and related activities. For example, a vessel may come into port for inspection and repairs on an annual basis, when the vessel might undergo sandblasting and repainting, inspection and repair of shafts, valves, and pipes, electronic equipment and any other repairs that might be necessary. These activities could take place at a commercial facility or at a private one. A vessel might come into port for a special survey or for emergency repairs. A vessel may be altered to enlarge it or to serve another purpose. A vessel will be considered under repair if it is waiting for a needed part or inspection and not at that time undergoing repair. However, a vessel will not be considered undergoing repair if the vessel is not actually undergoing repair in a reasonable manner and time period."

Further debate ensued.

(17) "Offender" means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Sec. 18. Section 4, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 2, chapter 192, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.94A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentencing guidelines commission is established as an agency of state government.

(2) The commission shall, following a public hearing or hearings:

(a) Devise a series of recommended standard sentence ranges for all felony offenses and a system for determining which range of punishment applies to each offender based on the extent and nature of the offender's criminal history, if any;

(b) Devise recommended prosecuting standards in respect to charging of offenses and plea agreements; and

(c) Devise recommended standards to govern whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently.

(3) Each of the commission's recommended standard sentence ranges shall include one or more of the following: Total confinement, partial confinement, community supervision, community service, and a fine.

(5) In carrying out its duties under subsection (2) of this section, the commission shall give consideration to the existing guidelines adopted by the association of superior court judges and the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys and the experience gained through use of those guidelines. The commission shall emphasize confinement for the violent offender and alternatives to total confinement for the nonviolent offender.

(6) This commission shall conduct a study to determine the capacity of correctional facilities and programs which are or will be available. While the commission need not consider such capacity in arriving at its recommendations, the commission shall project whether the implementation of its recommendations would result in exceeding such capacity. If the commission finds that this result would probably occur, then the commission shall prepare an additional list of standard sentences which shall be consistent with such capacity.

~~(7) (By January 10, 1983, the commission shall recommend its standard sentence ranges and standards to the legislature by providing the recommendations to the chief clerk of the house of representatives and secretary of the senate. If the commission has prepared an additional list of standard sentence ranges, as provided under subsection (6) of this section, then the commission shall include such list along with its recommendations.~~

~~(8) Every two years,))~~ The commission may recommend to the legislature revisions or modifications to the standard sentence ranges and other standards. If implementation of the revisions or modifications would result in exceeding the capacity of correctional facilities, then the commission shall accompany its recommendation with an additional list of standard sentence ranges which are consistent with correction capacity.

~~((9))~~ (8) The commission shall study the existing criminal code and from time to time make recommendations to the legislature for modification.

~~((10))~~ (9) The commission shall exercise its duties under this section in conformity with chapter 34.04 RCW, as now existing or hereafter amended.

~~(2)) Revisions or modifications of standard sentence ranges or other standards, together with any additional list of standard sentence ranges, shall be submitted to the legislature at least every two years ((and shall become effective as provided under subsection (1) of this section on July first of the year in which they are submitted)).~~

Sec. 20. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) ~~((and)), (5), and (7)~~ of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

~~(5) In sentencing a first-time offender (~~—other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020~~)) the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:~~

~~(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;~~

~~(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;~~

~~(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;~~

~~(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;~~

~~(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or~~

~~(f) Pay a fine, ~~((make restitution;))~~ and/or accomplish some community service work.~~

~~(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, ~~((restitution;))~~ a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.~~

~~(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of ~~((any))~~ a sex offense other than a violation of ~~((chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except))~~ RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions ~~((of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020;))~~ for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.~~

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;

(iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(v) Pay a fine, (~~make restitution;~~) accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or

(vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court for determination as to whether the offender shall be transferred to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW ((9A-20-020)).

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 21. Section 19, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 10, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, a sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county.

(2) If a county uses a state partial confinement facility for the partial confinement of a person sentenced to confinement for not more than one year, the county shall reimburse the state for the use of the facility as provided for in this subsection. The office of financial management shall set the rate of reimbursement based upon the average per diem cost per offender in the facility. The office of financial management shall determine to what extent, if any, reimbursement shall be reduced or eliminated because of funds provided by the legislature to the department of corrections for the purpose of covering the cost of county use of state partial confinement facilities. The office of financial management shall reestablish reimbursement rates each even-numbered year.

(3) A person who is sentenced for a felony to a term of not more than one year, and who is committed or returned to incarceration in a state facility on another felony conviction, either under the indeterminate sentencing laws, chapter 9.95 RCW, or under this chapter shall serve all terms of confinement, including a sentence of not more than one year, in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

Sec. 22. Section 2, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 16, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.310 are each amended to read as follows:

NOTE: Numbers in the first horizontal row of each seriousness category represent sentencing midpoints in years(y) and months(m). Numbers in the second and third rows represent presumptive sentencing ranges in months, or in days if so designated. 12+ equals one year and one day.

(2) For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the completed crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

(3) The following additional times shall be added to the presumptive sentence if the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon as defined in this chapter and the offender is being sentenced for one of the crimes listed in this subsection. If the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon and the offender is being sentenced for an anticipatory offense under chapter 9A.28 RCW to commit one of the crimes listed in this subsection, the following times shall be added to the presumptive range determined under subsection (2) of this section:

- (a) 24 months ((f) for Rape 1 (RCW 9A.44.040), Robbery 1 (RCW 9A.56.200), or Kidnapping 1((g)) (RCW 9A.40.020)

Sec. 25, Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 19, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules ((are)), partially summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330, are as follows:

The offender score is ((computed in the following way:)) the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (14) of this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (13) of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score, if since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions. Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(3) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

((2)) (4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(6) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(7) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11), (12), or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (9), (10), (11), or (12) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

((3)) (10) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior(s) convictions as in subsection ((5)) (8) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

((4)) (11) If the present conviction is for (~~Vehicular Homicide, only~~) a felony traffic offense count (~~the following crimes as part of the offender score:~~) two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide(~~Vehicular Assault, Felony Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)), Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)), Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), Actual Physical Control (RCW 46.61.504), Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500), Attempting to Elude a Police Officer (RCW 46.61.500)~~). Count two points for each adult or juvenile Vehicular Homicide conviction, one point for each other adult felony traffic or serious traffic conviction, and 1/2 point for each other juvenile felony traffic or serious traffic conviction.

(5) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsections (2)-(3), (4), or (9) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction); count one point for each adult, and 1/2 point for each juvenile, prior conviction for each other felony offense or serious traffic offense.

~~((6)) (12) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count two points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and one point for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (7) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.~~

~~(13) If the present conviction is for escape (Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120; Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060; and Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070), count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.~~

~~((7)) (14) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection ((9)) (7) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.~~

~~((8) If the present conviction is for a violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, except for possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)), count two points for each adult prior felony drug conviction (chapter 69.50 RCW, except RCW 69.50.401(d)), and one point for each juvenile drug conviction. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (5) of this section if the current drug conviction is violent, or as in subsection (9) of this section if the current drug conviction is nonviolent.~~

~~(9) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (6), (7), or (8) of this section, count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony.~~

~~(10) For all offender scores, the fractional totals shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.~~

~~(11) In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score is used.~~

~~(12) Class A prior felony convictions are always included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions are not included if the offender has spent ten years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. Class C prior felony convictions and serious traffic convictions as defined in RCW 9.94A.330 are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.~~

~~The designation of out-of-state convictions shall be covered by the offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.~~

~~The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (12) of this section.))~~

Sec. 26. Section 8, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 20, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see RCW 9.94A.310, (Table 1)). The additional time for deadly weapon findings shall be added to the entire presumptive sentence range. The court may impose any sentence within the range that it deems appropriate. All presumptive sentence ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement.

(2) In determining any sentence, the trial court may ~~((use))~~ rely on no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, ~~((and))~~ or admitted ~~((to or))~~, acknowledged, or proved in a trial or at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the court must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The ~~((real))~~ facts shall be deemed ((proven)) proved at the ((evidentiary)) hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. ~~((Real))~~ Facts that establish the elements of ((a higher crime)) a more serious crime((:)) or additional crimes ((cannot)) may not be used to go outside the presumptive sentence range except upon stipulation or when specifically provided for in RCW 9.94A.390(2) (c) and (d).

Sec. 27. Section 10, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 24, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.390 are each amended to read as follows:

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the sentence is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence(:). The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

(1) Mitigating Circumstances

((1+)) (a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

((2)) (b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

((3)) (c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

((4)) (d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

((5)) (e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

((6)) (f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

((7)) (g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances

((1+)) (a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

((2)) (b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

((3)) (c) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

((a)) (i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

((b)) (ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

((c)) (iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;

((d)) (iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

((e)) (d) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify ((a)) a current offense as a major VUCSA:

((a)) (i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or

((b)) (ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or

((c)) (iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or

~~((d)) The offender possessed a firearm during the commission of the offense; or~~

((e)) (iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

((f)) (v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

((g)) (vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional); or

((h)) (e) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW ~~(9.94A.400)~~ 9.94A.010.

~~((The above considerations are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.))~~

Sec. 28. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 25, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is ~~((convicted of))~~ to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as ~~((criminal history. All sentences so determined shall be served concurrently. Separate crimes encompassing the same criminal conduct))~~ if they were prior convictions for the purpose of the offender score: PROVIDED, That if the court enters a finding that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime ((in determining criminal history)). Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently. Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(e) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's ~~((prior convictions as))~~ criminal history in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using ~~((a criminal history))~~ an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any ~~((remaining))~~ offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run ~~((consecutively))~~ concurrently with any felony ((sentences previously)) sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court((:)) subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the ((subsequent)) current sentence expressly orders that they be served ((concurrently)) consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, ~~((this))~~ that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences.

Sec. 29. Section 12, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 26, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.410 are each amended to read as follows:

For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

In calculating an offender score, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for the completed offense. When these convictions are used as criminal history, score them the same as a completed crime.

Sec. 30. Section 15, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A Prosecuting Attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

(i) It has not been enforced for many years; and

(ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and

(iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and

(iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimus Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.

(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

(i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;

(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;

(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.

Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification

The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.

STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See table ((t3)) below for the crimes within these categories.

 Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge

(1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:

- (a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or
- (b) Will result in restitution to all victims.

(2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:

- (a) Charging a higher degree;
- (b) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

- (1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;
- (2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and

(3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

(1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and

(2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended; or

(3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

(1) Polygraph testing;

(2) Hypnosis;

(3) Electronic surveillance;

(4) Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

Sec. 31. Section 7, chapter 14, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 244, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person over thirteen years of age is guilty of statutory rape in the first degree when the person engages in sexual intercourse with another person who is less than eleven years old.

(2) Statutory rape in the first degree is a class A felony. No person convicted of statutory rape in the first degree shall be granted a deferred or suspended sentence except ~~((for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility))~~ under RCW 9.94A.120(7).

Sec. 32. Section 9A.56.080, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 174, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.56.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who, ~~((without lawful authority and))~~ with intent to sell or exchange and to deprive or defraud the lawful owner thereof, willfully takes, leads, or transports away, conceals, withholds, slaughters, or otherwise appropriates ((to his own use)) any horse, mule, cow, heifer, bull, steer, swine, or sheep ~~((shall be))~~ is guilty of theft of livestock in the first degree.

(2) A person who commits what would otherwise be theft of livestock in the first degree but without intent to sell or exchange, and for the person's own use only, is guilty of theft of livestock in the second degree.

(3) Theft of livestock in the first degree is a class B felony.

(4) Theft of livestock in the second degree is a class C felony.

Sec. 33. Section 9, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section governs records relating to the commission of juvenile offenses, including records relating to diversions.

(2) The official juvenile court file of any alleged or proven juvenile offender shall be open to public inspection, unless sealed pursuant to subsection (11) of this section.

(3) All records other than the official juvenile court file are confidential and may be released only as provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010, records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility for supervising the juvenile.

(5) Information not in an official juvenile court file concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the release, to the juvenile or his or her attorney, of law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys' records pertaining to investigation, diversion, and prosecution of juvenile offenses shall be governed by the rules of discovery and other rules of law applicable in adult criminal investigations and prosecutions.

(7) The juvenile court and the prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record-keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders against whom a complaint has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court. The central record-keeping system may be computerized. If a complaint has been referred to a diversion unit, the diversion unit shall promptly report to the juvenile court or the prosecuting attorney when the juvenile has agreed to diversion. An offense shall not be reported as criminal history in any central record-keeping system without notification by the diversion unit of the date on which the offender agreed to diversion.

(8) Upon request of the victim of a crime or the victim's immediate family, the identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.

(9) Subject to the rules of discovery applicable in adult criminal prosecutions, the juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding shall be released upon request to prosecution and defense counsel after a charge has actually been filed. The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system shall be released upon request to the adult corrections system.

(10) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the sealing of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(11) The court shall grant the motion to seal records made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section if it finds that:

(a) Two years have elapsed from the later of: (i) Final discharge of the person from the supervision of any agency charged with supervising juvenile offenders; or (ii) from the entry of a court order relating to the commission of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense;

(b) No proceeding is pending against the moving party seeking the conviction of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense; and

(c) No proceeding is pending seeking the formation of a diversion agreement with that person.

(12) The person making a motion pursuant to subsection (10) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecution and to any person or agency whose files are sought to be sealed.

(13) If the court grants the motion to seal made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section, it shall order sealed the official juvenile court file, the social file, and other records relating to the case as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the subject of the records may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are sealed. Any agency shall reply to any inquiry concerning confidential or sealed records that records are confidential, and no information can be given about the existence or nonexistence of records concerning an individual.

(14) Inspection of the files and records included in the order to seal may thereafter be permitted only by order of the court upon motion made by the person who is the subject of the information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in RCW 13.50.010(8).

(15) Any adjudication of a juvenile offense or a crime subsequent to sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order. Any conviction for any adult felony subsequent to the sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order for the purposes of chapter 9.94A RCW for any juvenile adjudication of guilt for a class A offense.

(16) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person who is the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the destruction of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(17) The court may grant the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) of this section if it finds:

(a) The person making the motion is at least twenty-three years of age;

(b) The person has not subsequently been convicted of a felony;

(c) No proceeding is pending against that person seeking the conviction of a criminal offense; and

(d) The person has never been found guilty of a serious offense.

(18) A person eighteen years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only one referral for diversion may request that the court order the records in that case destroyed. The request shall be granted if the court finds that two years have elapsed since completion of the diversion agreement.

(19) If the court grants the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section, it shall order the official juvenile court file, the social file, and any other records named in the order to be destroyed.

(20) The person making the motion pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any agency whose records are sought to be destroyed.

(21) Any juvenile to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be given written notice of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her disposition hearing or during the diversion process.

(22) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a crime victim or a member of the victim's family from divulging the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender or his or her family when necessary in a civil proceeding.

(23) Any juvenile justice or care agency may, subject to the limitations in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, develop procedures for the routine destruction of records relating to juvenile offenses and diversions.

(a) Records may be routinely destroyed only when the person the subject of the information or complaint has attained twenty-three years of age or older, or is eighteen years of age or older and his or her criminal history consists entirely of one diversion agreement and two years have passed since completion of the agreement.

(b) The court may not routinely destroy the official juvenile court file or recordings or transcripts of any proceedings.

Before imposing a sentence upon a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing. The sentencing hearing shall be held within forty court days following conviction. Upon the motion of either party for good cause shown, or on its own motion, the court may extend the time period for conducting the sentencing hearing. The court shall consider the presentence reports, if any, including any victim impact statement and criminal history, and allow arguments from the prosecutor, the defense counsel, the offender, the victim, the survivor of the victim, or a representative of the victim or survivor, and an investigative law enforcement officer as to the sentence to be imposed. If the court is satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has a criminal history, the court shall specify the convictions it has found to exist. All of this information shall be part of the record. Copies of all presentence reports presented to the sentencing court and all written findings of facts and conclusions of law as to sentencing entered by the court shall be sent to the department by the clerk of the court at the conclusion of the sentencing and shall accompany the offender if the offender is committed to the custody of the department. Court clerks shall provide, without charge, certified copies of documents relating to criminal convictions requested by prosecuting attorneys.

The commission shall present its recommendations to the 1987 legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. Sections 17 through 35 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1986."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Senator Talmadge, I like what I see, but I have one question on page 25, starting on line 21, and that is the reciprocity--if we can say between county and state on jail facility costs. I would like an understanding of that section or clarification if I might."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, this is the section that came over to us from the House of Representatives. It was something, as I understand it, that was worked between the local governments and the Department of Corrections. That has been an ongoing sticking point between those two and I believe that this particular subsection (2) on page 25, will answer the problem and hopefully provide for a peace treaty between the local governments and the Department of Corrections as to the reimbursement for local government facilities."

Senator Bailey: "I wonder, and it has been my experience with local government, that our biggest problem is that the state does not meet their commitment--" just the opposite of this language--does not meet their commitment when there is incarceration of state prisoners in county jails and I don't see any reference to that in this Section 2 and I wonder why it is not in there?"

Senator Talmadge: "I believe that that issue, Senator, is in the process of being addressed by the Department of Corrections and the local governments. I would see no reason why this wouldn't form the basis for the same kind of agreement as to the use of local government facilities by the state for state felons, and we can certainly work on that in the next few months. I think that's appropriate and I've had a similar concern just as you've had about the state not living up to its commitment in this area."

Senator Bailey: "Is there any way, Senator Talmadge, that we could have a friendly amendment to incorporate that type of language in that Section 2 and I don't mean to change the direction that you want to take in this, but if there is some reason for a friendly amendment I'd certainly appreciate it."

Senator Talmadge: "I think my preference would be to deal with it at another time rather than in this particular bill with this many faceted issue already."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Talmadge, Halsan and Newhouse.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment was adopted.

(1) The committee may only approve an application providing a loan for a project which the committee finds:

(c) Will be of public benefit and for a public purpose, and that the benefits, including increased or maintained employment, improved standard of living, and the employment of disadvantaged workers, will primarily accrue to residents of the distressed area;

(b) The committee may approve an application which results in a loan or grant of up to seven hundred thousand dollars if the application has been approved by the director.

(5) The committee shall fix the terms and rates pertaining to its loans.

(6) Should there be more demand for loans than funds available for lending, the committee shall provide loans for those projects which will lead to the greatest amount of employment or benefit to a community. In determining the "greatest amount of employment or benefit" the committee shall also consider the employment which would be saved by its loan.

(7) To the extent permitted under federal law the committee shall require applicants to provide for the transfer of all payments of principal and interest on loans to the Washington state development loan fund created under this chapter. Under circumstances where the federal law does not permit the committee to require such transfer, the committee shall give priority to applications where the applicants on their own volition make commitments to provide for the transfer.

On page 2, line 10, after "permitted," insert "On any such roadway, a motor truck shall be driven only in the right-hand lane except under the conditions enumerated in (a) through (d) of this subsection."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Vognild, we discussed this bill quite extensively in committee and the question was raised as to what if I was driving in the left hand lane and I was going 55 miles an hour, would I be subject to a traffic violation and the answer from the State Patrol was, 'no you would not be subject to a violation as long as you weren't exceeding the speed limit.' The question that I have here on limiting trucks to the right hand lane whether we're going to impede or further hamper the flow of traffic?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator Peterson, my answer to that would be 'no, I do not believe that that will happen.' What we're doing here is limiting them to running in the right hand lane. They most certainly may pass a car or each other using the left hand lane under the way this is structured. They can pass. The fact is that they cannot get out in a left hand lane and run there whether they are running at 55 or 65, they can't run there. We're trying to get some safety on the highway."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Vognild and Gaspard.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Peterson, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 507, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

HOUSE BILL NO. 507, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1382 and the pending amendment by Senators Pullen, Halsan, Rasmussen, Craswell, Benitz, Zimmerman, Guess, Owen, Lee, Barr and Metcalf on page 8, line 10, deferred March 5, 1986.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Bottiger, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1382 is a measure which revises the distribution formula for off-road vehicle funds. In addition, the bill proposes to amend the non-highway violation section relating to endangering human life and wildlife.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Pullen and others also amends the same non-highway violation section by stating that there is no violation if the person complies with the terms and conditions of the firearms and dangerous weapons chapter.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senators Pullen, Halsan, Rasmussen, Craswell, Benitz, Zimmerman, Guess, Owen, Lee, Barr and Metcalf was ruled in order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Pullen, Halsan, Rasmussen, Craswell, Benitz, Zimmerman, Guess, Owen, Lee, Barr and Metcalf.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Guess, the thing that has always bothered me about this--whenever this thing surfaced before. What happens when you've got young children in the car or teenagers who borrow the car on a Friday night to go to the game and whatever else they do after the game?"

Senator Guess: "Senator, you put it in the glove compartment and lock the door."

Senator Deccio: "You didn't answer my question. Under this bill you can carry it, so that it doesn't have to be in a locked glove compartment?"

Senator Guess: "No, Senator, you are not reading the English language."

Senator Deccio: "I'm Italian, I'm sorry. Well, maybe Senator Pullen can take a crack at it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PULLEN

Senator Pullen: "Senator Deccio, in answer to your question, the amendment would provide that the person transporting the loaded pistol must comply with the terms and conditions of Chapter 9.41 RCW. Those conditions are very, very strict, in accordance with a bill that passed through here a couple of years ago.

"The strict conditions in RCW 9.41 specify that only a person with a concealed pistol license may possess a loaded pistol in an automobile and if the person with a concealed pistol license leaves the automobile and does not take the pistol with him, then he must conceal it from view and lock it up. Those were the rather strict terms that were put in Chapter 9.41 RCW a few years ago in a bill that got strong support of the Legislature and of Governor Spellman."

Senator Deccio: "Then you can't just put the gun under the seat, you either have to have it on your person or locked in the trunk or in the gin box?"

Senator Pullen: "That's absolutely correct and as I recall you supported the bill that put into law those protections and these same protections would apply to the non-highway vehicle. That's what we're trying to do to make the two laws consistent."

Senator Deccio: "O.K. Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Pullen, Halsan, Rasmussen, Craswell, Benitz, Zimmerman, Guess, Owen, Lee, Barr and Metcalf.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Peterson, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 12, line 24, after "legislative" strike "transportation" and insert "budget"

Senator Pullen moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 13, after line 25, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The legislature recognizes the value of ORV recreation facilities as needed public uses and encourages the use of public transportation and utility rights of way as ORV recreational facilities in such a way so as to maximize recreational opportunities for all citizens pursuant to the provisions and limitations of RCW 64.04.190."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

"PART I

UNIFORM DISCIPLINARY ACT

Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to strengthen and consolidate disciplinary procedures for the licensed health and health-related professions and businesses by providing a uniform disciplinary act with standardized procedures for the enforcement of laws the purpose of which is to assure the public of the adequacy of professional competence and conduct in the healing arts.

It is also the intent of the legislature that all health and health-related professions newly credentialed by the state come under the uniform disciplinary act.

Further, the legislature declares that the addition of public members on all health care boards can give both the state and the public, which it has a statutory responsibility to protect, assurances of accountability and confidence in the various practices of health care.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.020 are each amended to read as follows:

However, the board of chiropractic examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in chapter 18.25 RCW, the board of dental examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in RCW 18.32.040, and the board of medical examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses and registrations provided for in chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW. This chapter also governs any investigation, hearing, or proceeding relating to denial of licensure or issuance of a license conditioned on the applicant's compliance with an order entered pursuant to RCW 18.130.160 by the disciplining authority ~~(-the board of chiropractic examiners, the board of dental examiners, and the board of medical examiners, if adopted pursuant to this chapter by the disciplinary authority).~~

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The disciplining authority may adopt rules requiring any person, including, but not limited to, licensees, corporations, organizations, health care facilities, and ((federal:)) state(:)) or local governmental agencies, to report to the disciplining authority any conviction, determination, or finding that a license holder has committed an act which constitutes unprofessional conduct, or to report information which indicates that the license holder may not be able to practice his or her profession with reasonable skill and safety to consumers as a result of a mental or physical condition. To facilitate meeting the intent of this section, the cooperation of agencies of the federal government is requested by reporting any conviction, determination, or finding that a federal employee or contractor regulated by the disciplinary authorities enumerated in this chapter has committed an act which constituted unprofessional conduct and reporting any information which indicates that a federal employee or contractor regulated by the disciplinary authorities enumerated in this chapter may not be able to practice his or her profession with reasonable skill and safety as a result of a mental or physical condition.

(2) If a person fails to furnish a required report, the disciplining authority may petition the superior court of the county in which the person resides or is found, and the court shall issue to the person an order to furnish the required report. A failure to obey the order shall be punished by the court as civil contempt.

(3) A person is immune from civil liability, whether direct or derivative, for providing information to the disciplining authority pursuant to the rules adopted under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The holder of a license subject to the jurisdiction of this chapter shall report to the disciplining authority any conviction, determination, or finding that the licensee has committed unprofessional conduct or is unable to practice with reasonable skill or safety. Failure to report within thirty days of notice of the conviction, determination, or finding constitutes grounds for disciplinary action.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.080 are each amended to read as follows:

A person, ~~((firm, corporation, or public officer))~~ including but not limited to consumers, licensees, corporations, organizations, health care facilities, and state and local governmental agencies, may submit a written complaint to the disciplining authority charging a license holder or applicant with unprofessional conduct and specifying the grounds therefor. If the disciplining authority determines that the complaint merits investigation, or if the disciplining authority has reason to believe, without a formal complaint, that a license holder or applicant may have engaged in unprofessional conduct, the disciplining authority shall investigate to determine whether there has been unprofessional conduct. A person who files a complaint under this section in good faith is immune from suit in any civil action related to the filing or contents of the complaint.

Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the disciplining authority determines, upon investigation, that there is reason to believe a violation of RCW 18.130.180 has occurred, a statement of charge or charges shall be prepared and served upon the license holder or applicant at the earliest practical time. The statement of charge or charges shall be accompanied by a notice that the license holder or applicant may request a hearing to contest the charge or charges. The license holder or applicant must file a request for hearing with the disciplining authority within twenty days after being served the statement of charges. The failure to request a hearing constitutes a default, whereupon the disciplining authority may enter a decision on the basis of the facts available to it.

(2) If a hearing is requested, the time of the hearing shall be fixed by the disciplining authority as soon as convenient, but the hearing shall not be held earlier than thirty days after service of the charges upon the license holder or applicant. A notice of hearing shall be issued at least twenty days prior to the hearing, specifying the time, date, and place of the hearing. The notice shall also notify the license holder or applicant that a record of the proceeding will be kept, that he or she will have the opportunity to appear personally and to have counsel present, with the right to produce witnesses, who will be subject to cross-examination, and evidence in his or her own behalf, to cross-examine witnesses testifying against him or her, to examine such documentary evidence as may be produced against him or her, to conduct depositions, and to have subpoenas issued by the disciplining authority.

Sec. 7. Section 13, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.130 are each amended to read as follows:

An order pursuant to proceedings authorized by this chapter, after due notice and findings in accordance with this chapter and chapter 34.04 RCW, or an order of summary suspension entered under this chapter, shall take effect immediately upon its being served. The order, if appealed to the court, shall not be stayed pending the appeal unless the disciplining authority or court to which the appeal is taken enters an order staying the order of the disciplining authority, which stay shall provide for terms necessary to protect the public.

Sec. 8. Section 16, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon a finding that a license holder or applicant has committed unprofessional conduct or is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety due to a physical or mental condition, the disciplining authority may issue an order providing for one or any combination of the following:

- (1) Revocation of the license;
- (2) Suspension of the license for a fixed or indefinite term;
- (3) Restriction or limitation ~~((on the license holder's))~~ of the practice;
- (4) ~~((The establishment of a requirement that))~~ Requiring the ((license holder satisfactory complete)) satisfactory completion of a specific program of remedial education or treatment;
- (5) The monitoring of the ~~((license holder's))~~ practice by a supervisor approved by the disciplining authority;

- (6) Censure or reprimand;
- (7) Compliance with conditions of probation for a designated period of time;
- (8) Payment of a fine for each violation of this chapter, not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation. Funds received shall be placed in the health professions account;
- (9) Denial of the license request;
- (10) Corrective action ~~((by the license holder))~~;
- (11) Refund of fees ~~((charged))~~ billed to and collected from the consumer ~~((by the license holder))~~.

Any of the actions under this section may be totally or partly stayed by the disciplining authority. In determining what action is appropriate, the disciplining authority must first consider what sanctions are necessary to protect or compensate the public. Only after such provisions have been made may the disciplining authority consider and include in the order requirements designed to rehabilitate the license holder or applicant. All costs associated with compliance with orders issued under this section are the obligation of the license holder or applicant.

Sec. 9. Section 17, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the disciplining authority believes a license holder or applicant may be unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety to consumers by reason of any mental or physical condition, a statement of charges in the name of the disciplining authority shall be served on the license holder or applicant and notice shall also be issued providing an opportunity for a hearing. The hearing shall be limited to the sole issue of the capacity of the license holder or applicant to practice with reasonable skill and safety. If the disciplining authority determines that the license holder or applicant is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety for one of the reasons stated in this subsection, the disciplining authority shall impose such sanctions under RCW 18.130.160 as is deemed necessary to protect the public.

(2) In enforcing this section, the disciplining authority may require a license holder or applicant to submit to a mental or physical examination by one or more ~~((physicians, a psychological examination by one or more licensed psychologists))~~ licensed or certified health professionals designated by the disciplining authority ~~((; or any combination thereof))~~. The cost of the examinations ordered by the disciplining authority shall be paid out of the health professions account. In addition to any examinations ordered by the disciplining authority, the licensee may submit ~~((psychiatric;))~~ physical ~~((;))~~ or ~~((psychological))~~ mental examination reports from ~~((physicians or psychologists))~~ licensed or certified health professionals of the license holder's or applicant's choosing and expense. Failure of a license holder or applicant to submit to examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension or denial of the license, consequent upon which a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentations of evidence, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the person's control. A determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that a license holder or applicant is mentally incompetent or mentally ill is presumptive evidence of the license holder's or applicant's inability to practice with reasonable skill and safety. An individual affected under this section shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate that the individual can resume competent practice with reasonable skill and safety to the consumer.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2) of this section, an applicant or license holder governed by this chapter, by making application, practicing, or filing a license renewal, is deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental, physical, or psychological examination when directed in writing by the disciplining authority and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility or use of the examining ~~((physician's or psychologist's))~~ health professional's testimony or examination reports by the disciplining authority on the ground that the testimony or reports constitute privileged communications.

Sec. 10. Section 18, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The following conduct, acts, or conditions constitute unprofessional conduct for any license holder or applicant under the jurisdiction of this chapter:

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of the person's profession, whether the act constitutes a crime or not. ~~((The disciplinary authority shall define by rule acts involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of the person's profession.))~~ If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon such a conviction, however, the judgment and sentence is conclusive evidence at the ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the license holder or applicant of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of the person's violation of the statute on which it is based. For the purposes of this section, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for the conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW;

(2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in obtaining a license or in reinstatement thereof;

(3) All advertising which is false, fraudulent, or misleading;

(4) Incompetence, negligence, or ~~((use of any practice or procedure in the practice of the profession which creates an unreasonable risk of physical or mental harm or serious financial loss to the consumer)) malpractice which results in injury to a patient or which creates an unreasonable risk that a patient may be harmed;~~

(5) Suspension, revocation, or restriction of the individual's license to practice the profession by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction, a certified copy of the order, stipulation, or agreement being conclusive evidence of the revocation, suspension, or restriction;

(6) The possession, use, ~~((addition to;))~~ prescription for use, ~~((diversion;))~~ or distribution of controlled substances or legend drugs in any way other than for legitimate or therapeutic purposes, ~~((or))~~ the addition to or diversion of controlled substances or legend drugs, the violation of any drug law, or prescribing ((drugs)) controlled substances for oneself;

(7) Violation of any state or federal statute or administrative rule regulating the profession in question, including any statute or rule defining or establishing standards of patient care or professional conduct or practice;

(8) Failure to cooperate with the disciplining authority by:

(a) Not furnishing any papers or documents;

(b) Not furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in the complaint filed with the disciplining authority; or

(c) Not responding to subpoenas issued by the disciplining authority, whether or not the recipient of the subpoena is the accused in the proceeding;

(9) Failure to comply with an order issued by the disciplining authority or an assurance of discontinuance entered into with the disciplining authority;

(10) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice when a license is required;

(11) ~~((Willful or repeated))~~ Violations of rules established by any health agency ~~((or authority of the state or a political subdivision thereof));~~

(12) Practice beyond the scope of practice as defined by law or rule;

(13) Misrepresentation or fraud in any aspect of the conduct of the business or profession;

(14) Failure to adequately supervise auxiliary staff to the extent that the consumer's health or safety is at risk;

(15) Engaging in a profession involving contact with the public while suffering from a contagious or infectious disease involving serious risk to public health;

(16) Promotion for personal gain of any unnecessary or inefficacious drug, device, treatment, procedure, or service;

(17) Conviction of any gross misdemeanor or felony relating to the practice of the person's profession. For the purposes of this subsection, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW;

(18) The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring, a criminal abortion;

(19) The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure or treat disease by a secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine, or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any health condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the disciplining authority;

(20) The willful betrayal of a practitioner-patient privilege as recognized by law;

(21) Violation of chapter 19.68 RCW;

(22) Interference with an investigation or disciplinary proceeding by willful misrepresentation of facts before the disciplining authority or its authorized representative, or by the use of threats or harassment against any patient or witness to prevent them from providing evidence in a disciplinary proceeding or any other legal action;

(23) Drunkenness or habitual intemperance in the use of alcohol or addiction to alcohol;

(24) ~~((Physical))~~ Abuse of a client or patient or sexual contact with a client or patient.

Sec. 11. Section 19, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall investigate ~~((bona fide))~~ complaints concerning practice by unlicensed individuals of a profession requiring a license. In the investigation of the complaints, the director shall have the same authority as provided the director for the investigation of complaints against license holders. The director shall issue a cease and desist order to a person after notice and hearing and upon a determination that the person has violated this subsection. If the director makes a written finding of fact that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, the director may issue a temporary cease and desist order. The cease and desist order shall not relieve the person so practicing without a license from criminal prosecution therefor, but the remedy of a cease and desist order shall be in addition to any criminal liability.

(2) The attorney general, a county prosecuting attorney, the director, a board, or any individual may in accordance with the laws of this state governing injunctions, maintain an action in the name of this state to enjoin any individual practicing a licensed profession without a license from engaging in such practice until the required license is secured. However, the injunction shall not relieve the person so practicing without a license from criminal prosecution therefor, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to any criminal liability.

(3) Unlicensed practice of a profession under the jurisdiction of a disciplining authority specified in RCW 18.130.040 ((without a license)), unless otherwise exempted by law, constitutes a gross misdemeanor. All fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a court because of a violation of this section shall be remitted to the health professions account.

Sec. 12. Section 20, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.200 are each amended to read as follows:

A person who attempts to obtain or obtains a license by wilful misrepresentation or fraudulent representation is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 13. Section 22, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.210 are each amended to read as follows:

If the disciplining authority determines or has cause to believe that a license holder has committed a crime, the disciplining authority, immediately subsequent to issuing findings of fact and a final order, shall ~~((; in addition to taking the appropriate administrative action, concurrently))~~ notify the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney in the county in which the act took place of the facts known to the disciplining authority.

Sec. 14. Section 24, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.900 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This chapter shall be known and cited as the uniform disciplinary act.

(3) This chapter does not apply to or govern the construction of and disciplinary action for any conduct, acts, or conditions occurring prior to the effective date of this 1986 act. Such conduct, acts, or conditions must be construed and disciplinary action taken according to the provisions of law existing at the time of the occurrence in the same manner as if this chapter had not been enacted.

The injunction shall not relieve the offender from criminal prosecution, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of the offender to criminal prosecution and disciplinary action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Section 3, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.030 are each repealed.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Human Services and Corrections amendment be adopted:

On page 94 of the amendment, after line 20, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 167. The legislature recognizes that there is an increasing interest by the citizens of this state in physical fitness and that in response to such interest a wide variety of health and conditioning services are available. Therefore, the legislature declares that it is a matter of public interest that the citizens of this state be assured of reasonable protection when contracting for health and conditioning services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 168. (1) As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "Contract for health and conditioning services" means: A contract which provides as one of its primary purposes services or facilities which assist the purchaser to improve physical condition or appearance through physical fitness programs, body building, exercising, reducing, weight loss, figure development, or any other similar activity;

(b) "Initiation or membership fee" means a fee paid either in a lump sum or installments on a one-time basis when a person first joins a health and conditioning facility for the privilege of belonging to such facility;

(c) "Use fees" means fees paid on a regular periodic basis for use of a health club. This does not preclude prepayment of use fees at the buyer's option;

(d) "Health club" or "club" means any individual, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity offering contracts for health and conditioning services to the public.

(2) A "contract for health and conditioning services" does not include:

(a) Professional services within the scope of the person's license rendered or furnished by a person licensed under Title 18 RCW;

(b) Instruction at public common schools, public institutions of higher education, private schools approved under RCW 28A.02.201, and private institutions of higher education;

(c) Instruction, training, or assistance relating to diet or control of eating habits not involving physical fitness programs, body building, exercising, figure development, or any other similar activity; or

(d) Recreational or social programs offered by organizations listed in section 168(3) of this act, which either involve no physical exercise or exercise only incidental to the program.

(3) Except for the purposes of sections 3, 8, and 9 of this act, a "contract for health and conditioning services" does not include: (a) Services rendered by bona fide nonprofit organizations which have been granted tax exempt status by the internal revenue service, including, but not limited to, the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association, or other similar organizations, whose functions as health studios are only incidental to their overall functions and purposes; or (b) services rendered by bona fide nonprofit corporations organized under chapter 24.03 RCW which have members and whose members have meaningful voting rights to elect and remove a board of directors which is responsible for the operation of the health club and corporation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 169. Contracts for health and conditioning services shall be in writing and are subject to this chapter. A copy of the written contract shall be given to the customer when the customer signs the contract.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 170. Contracts for health and conditioning services between the same buyer and the same seller which have overlapping terms are deemed to be one contract for the purpose of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 171. If a contract exceeds three years, the buyer shall sign or initial the provision which establishes the duration of the contract.

Contracts may not be sold, advertised, or measured by the lifetime of the buyer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 172. A contract for health and conditioning services may be sold prior to opening of the facility. Such contract shall provide that:

(1) Agreed upon services will begin within twelve months from the date the contract is signed unless the buyer signs an extension; and

(2) A five-day period for cancellation of the contract shall begin to run from the day the facility opens for use of the buyer and the seller begins to provide the agreed upon services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 173. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, all moneys paid to the seller by the buyer prior to the opening of the facility shall promptly be deposited by the seller in a trust account, maintained by the seller for the purpose of holding such moneys for the buyer, in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in Washington. The seller shall within seven days of the first deposit notify the office of the attorney general, in writing, of the name, address, and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the seller is entitled to receipt of interest paid on such trust account moneys. The seller shall provide the buyer with a written receipt for the moneys and shall provide written notice of the name and address and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof. If prior to the opening of the facility the status of the seller is transferred to another, any sums in the trust account affected by such transfer shall simultaneously be transferred to an equivalent trust account of the successor, and the successor shall promptly notify the buyer and the office of the attorney general of the transfer and of the name, address, and location of the new depository. The buyer's claim to any moneys paid under this section is prior to that of any creditor of the seller, including a trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, even if such moneys are commingled. After receipt of the notice of cancellation of the agreement or if the seller fails to open the facility and provide the agreed upon services within twelve months of the signing of the contract, the seller shall within ten days give a full refund to the buyer. The moneys on deposit shall revert to the seller on the day the facility opens.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to any sellers who, prior to any preopening sales, have provided a bond guaranteeing performance of all contracts for health and conditioning services sold prior to the opening of the facility. The bond shall be drawn upon a surety in an amount acceptable to the office of the attorney general, running to the state of Washington. An action on the bond may be brought by the office of the attorney general or by any buyer of a contract for health and conditioning services sold prior to the opening of the facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 174. (1) The contract for health and conditioning services shall contain:

- (a) The name and address of the health and conditioning facilities operator;
- (b) The date the buyer signed the contract;
- (c) The current fees to be paid by the buyer and, if such fees are subject to periodic adjustment, such fact shall be disclosed;
- (d) The services to be provided under the contract; and
- (e) The duration of the contract.

(2) Unless the health and conditioning facilities operator has complied with subsection (1) of this section, the buyer may cancel the contract for health and conditioning services at any time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 175. Contracts for health and conditioning services shall contain clauses which notify buyers of the following rights:

(1) The buyer has the right to cancel the contract at any time prior to midnight of the third calendar day after the date the contract is signed by the buyer. Cancellation under this subsection entitles the buyer to a refund of all moneys paid and relieves the buyer from any future obligations under the contract without penalty.

(2) If by reason of death or total disability the person agreeing to receive services is unable to receive services that have been contracted for, the person or person's estate may cancel the contract.

(a) For total disability, a written confirmation of total disability shall be submitted by the person's treating physician. The health and conditioning facility may require the person to be examined by a physician of their choice if requested within sixty days after a written confirmation is submitted by the treating physician. If the two physicians disagree, they shall choose a third physician to examine the person, each party bearing half the fee. The third physician's opinion shall be binding on all parties. Total disability is a condition incurred after the person signs the contract which precludes the person from physically using the facilities for the remaining term of the contract.

(b) For death, a certified copy of the death certificate shall be sufficient evidence to cancel the contract.

(3) If the health and conditioning facilities are permanently closed and comparable facilities owned and operated by the seller are not made available within a ten-mile radius of the closed facility, the person agreeing to receive health and conditioning services may cancel the contract.

(4) If a contract for health and conditioning services extends for more than one year or requires payment of an initiation or membership fee, the buyer has the right to cancel the contract for any reason upon thirty days' written notice to the seller.

(5) Upon cancellation under subsection (2), (3), or (4) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a refund and relief from future obligations for payments of one-time only initiation and membership fees and monthly use fees as follows:

(a) The buyer is entitled to a refund of the unused portion of any prepaid monthly use fees and relief from future obligations to pay use fees concerning use after the date of cancellation;

(b) If a contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels under subsection (2) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of such fee less a predetermined fee not to exceed one-half of the initial initiation or membership fee;

(c) If the contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels under subsection (3) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of such fee;

(d) If the contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels under subsection (4) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of such fee and relief from future obligations for payment under the contract unless the contract clearly states that the initiation or membership fee is nonrefundable, or states what percentage of the fee is refundable, and the clause is separately signed by the buyer;

(e) To calculate the amount of the refund and relief from future obligations for payment under the contract, the fee shall be apportioned into an equal installment amount by dividing the total fee by the number of months of use contracted for by the buyer. The buyer is entitled to relief from the obligation for payment and a refund of any moneys paid in excess of the number of months of use prior to the date of cancellation multiplied by the equal installment amount; and

(f) All refunds shall be made within thirty days of receipt of the notice of cancellation by the health and conditioning facilities operator. Notice of cancellation shall be provided to the seller by mailing or delivering a signed and dated notice, or sending a telegram which states that the buyer is canceling the contract, or words of similar effect. The seller may require the buyer to return the original copy of the contract, or any membership card, or any other materials which evidence membership in the club.

(6) For any period in which a person is precluded from physically using the facilities due to a temporary total disability, the obligation of that person to pay any monthly use fees will be suspended. For a temporary total disability, a written confirmation shall be submitted by the person's treating physician. The health and conditioning facility may require, if requested within sixty days after a written confirmation is submitted by the treating physician, the person to be examined by a physician of their choice. If the two physicians disagree, they shall choose a third physician to examine the person, each party bearing half the fee. The third physician's opinion shall be binding on all parties.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 176. The provisions of this chapter are not exclusive and do not relieve the parties from compliance with all other applicable federal, state, and local laws and rules.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 177. Any contract for health and conditioning services which does not comply with the applicable provisions of this chapter or in which the buyer waives any provision of this chapter is void and unenforceable as contrary to public policy.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 178. It shall be unlawful to sell or offer for sale any contract for health and conditioning services entered into in reliance upon any false, fraudulent, or misleading information or representations.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 179. A seller who has not furnished a bond under section 173 of this act and who receives money from a buyer under a contract for services from health and conditioning facilities sold prior to the opening of the facility and the provision of the agreed upon services and who fails to deposit such moneys in a trust account maintained by the seller for the purpose of holding such funds for the buyer in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in Washington within three business days of receipt excluding Saturday, Sunday and holidays shall be guilty of a class C felony as defined in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 180. A violation of this chapter, for purposes of the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW, constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 181. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any contracts for health and conditioning services entered into before the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 182. Sections 167 through 181 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cantu: "Senator Warnke, it's hard to remember all of the bill numbers that we deal with around here, but we spent quite a bit of time trying to perfect the bill that was brought about because of the fitness centers and other problems reported to the Attorney General. The bill that we heard in Commerce and Labor had been very carefully drafted to protect the private clubs, the legitimate clubs--the YMCAs had one minor concern. Is this bill essentially that bill with the minor correction to take care of the YMCA and the YWCA concerns?"

Senator Warnke: "Senator Cantu, thank you. Yes, it is identically the same bill including the provisions we worked out for the YMCAs."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator McDermott to the Committee on Human Services amendment.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the amendment to the Committee on Human Services amendment was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Human Services amendment, as amended.

(3) The legislature further finds that the department of social and health services, when considering persons for state positions directly responsible for the care, supervision, or treatment of children or the developmentally disabled or when licensing or authorizing such persons or agencies pursuant to its authority under chapter 74.15 RCW, must consider the information listed in subsection (1) of this section. (3) Unless otherwise agreed to in a collective bargaining agreement or by the business or organization, the applicant shall bear any costs of the applicant's fingerprinting. However, access to conviction records pursuant to this subsection (1)(e) does not limit or restrict the ability of the department to obtain additional information regarding conviction records and pending charges as set forth in RCW 74.15.030(2)(b).

After processing the request, the state patrol shall return the fingerprint card to the person or agency making the request.

(2) The state patrol shall by rule establish fees for disseminating records under this section to recipients identified in subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section. The state patrol shall also by rule establish fees for disseminating records in the custody of the national crime information center. The fees shall cover, as nearly as practicable, the direct and indirect costs to the state

(2) The department of licensing shall notify the state patrol of any disciplinary board final decision that includes specific findings of physical abuse or sexual abuse or exploitation of a child.

(1) Every offender who has been discharged under RCW 9.94A.220 may apply to the sentencing court for a vacation of the offender's record of conviction. If the court finds the offender meets the tests prescribed in subsection (2) of this section, the court may clear the record of conviction by: (a) Permitting the offender to withdraw the offender's plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty; or (b) if the offender has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, by the court setting aside the verdict of guilty; and (c) by the court dismissing the information or indictment against the offender.

For all purposes, including responding to questions on employment applications, an offender whose conviction has been vacated may state that the offender has never been convicted of that crime. Nothing in this section affects or prevents the use of an offender's prior conviction in a later criminal prosecution.

(2) "Person" shall have the meaning given in RCW 82.04.030 or any later, superseding section.

(3) "Waste" means garbage, trash, rubbish, or other material discarded as worthless or not economically viable for further use. The term does not include hazardous or toxic waste nor does it include material collected primarily for recycling or salvage.

(4) "Taxpayer" means that person upon whom the refuse collection tax is imposed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is imposed on each person using the services of a refuse collection business a refuse collection tax equal to three and six-tenths percent of the consideration charged for the services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The person collecting the charges made for using the refuse collection business shall collect the tax imposed in section 6 of this act. If any person charged with collecting the tax fails to bill the taxpayer for the tax or having collected the tax, fails to pay it to the department in the manner prescribed by this chapter, whether such failure is the result of the person's own acts or the result of acts or conditions beyond the person's control, he or she shall, nevertheless, be personally liable to the state for the amount of the tax.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Taxes collected under this chapter shall be held in trust until paid to the state. Taxes so received by the state shall be deposited in the public works assistance account created in RCW 43.155.050. Any person collecting the tax who appropriates or converts the tax collected shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor if the money required to be collected is not available for payment on the date payment is due. If a taxpayer fails to pay the tax imposed by this chapter to the person charged with collection of the tax and the person charged with collection fails to pay the tax to the department, the department may, in its discretion, proceed directly against the taxpayer for collection of the tax.

The tax shall be due from the taxpayer within twenty-five days from the date the taxpayer is billed by the person collecting the tax.

The tax shall be due from the person collecting the tax at the end of the tax period in which the tax is received from the taxpayer. If the taxpayer remits only a portion of the total amount billed for taxes, consideration, and related charges, the amount remitted shall be applied first to payment of the refuse collection tax and this tax shall have priority over all other claims to the amount remitted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The refuse collection tax shall not apply to any agency, division, or branch of the federal government or to services rendered under a contract therewith.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. To prevent pyramiding and multiple taxation of a single transaction, this tax shall not apply to any refuse collection business using the services of another refuse collection business for the transfer, storage, or disposal of the waste collected during the transaction.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator McDermott, Seattle is a far cry from the area I represent--San Juan Islands and Skagit County and rural Whatcom. I have some reservations what that might do or not do to the sanitation problems that we have in the rural areas as opposed to what you have in Seattle and I'm a little bit reluctant to accept this amendment for that reason unless you can enlighten me."

Senator McDermott: "I think, Senator, the whole question of what's going to happen in rural areas is not quite as pressing as it is in the urban areas--Seattle, Spokane, Everett, Pierce County--all are looking at this whole question. Right now, they are still getting by in some of the smaller counties like Whatcom and Skagit and some others with landfills. That's not to say that at some point they may not want to sell their garbage to a facility. Let's say they put one in South Snohomish County, it may soon be better for Skagit County to sell theirs to an incinerator in South Snohomish County than it is to look for a place for a landfill. I don't think this affects most of the small counties. It really is directed at the big counties who will have the resources to build an incinerator. They are very costly."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator McDermott, do you have two amendments here, because this doesn't seem to fit? This says page 2 after line 35 and you must have another amendment."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1447 was deferred.

SECOND READING

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Thompson, does state government include all agencies of state government by the definition in this bill? In other words, what I'm trying to determine is whether or not each of our institutions of higher learning, for example, would be required or be included in this study?"

Senator Thompson: "I believe the answer is affirmative to that question. The bill, I want to stress again, provides for a survey and no further action."

Senator Patterson: "I understand that. I just wanted to make sure that it does include all of the state agencies which are a part of state government in the survey. Is that your interpretation that it would?"

Senator Thompson: "Yes, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Thompson, I haven't read the bill, but could you tell me what the cost in tax dollars will result in the study and at the end of the study?"

Senator Thompson: "No fiscal note was requested on this, Senator Deccio. I suspect that is because it was anticipated that this would not be a major undertaking in terms of man days of effort."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, a point of order. While there may be some superficial similarities between sewage and garbage, it clearly expands the scope and object of this bill which was as the title says 'Relating to public works contracts.' This is a taxation section and, in fact, is in a totally different section of the code. I would urge the chair to find this out of scope and object."

Senator Thompson moved that the following Committee on Governmental Operations amendment be adopted:

On page 3, after line 25, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 1, chapter 359, Laws of 1985 and RCW 42.17.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Campaign treasurers shall prepare and deliver to the commission a special report regarding any contribution which:

(a) Exceeds five hundred dollars;

(b) Is from a single person or entity;

(c) Is received before a primary or general election; and

(d) Is received: (i) After the period covered by the last report required by RCW 42.17.080 and 42.17.090 to be filed before that primary; or (ii) within twenty-one days preceding that general election.

(2) Any political committee making a contribution which exceeds five hundred dollars shall also prepare and deliver to the commission the special report if the contribution is made before a primary or general election and: (a) After the period covered by the last report required by RCW 42.17.080 and 42.17.090 to be filed before that primary; or (b) within twenty-one days preceding that general election.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4), the special report required by this section shall be delivered in written form, including but not limited to mailgram, telegram, or nightletter. The special report required by subsection (1) shall be delivered to the commission within forty-eight hours of the time, or on the first working day after, the contribution is received by the candidate or campaign treasurer. The special report required by subsection (2) of this section and RCW 42.17.175 shall be delivered to the commission, and the candidate or political committee to whom the contribution is made, within twenty-four hours of the time, or on the first working day after, the contribution is made.

(7) The commission shall publish daily a summary of the special reports made under this section and RCW 42.17.175.

(8) It is a violation of this chapter for any person to make, or for any candidate or political committee to accept from any one person, contributions reportable under RCW 42.17.090 in the aggregate exceeding fifty thousand dollars for any campaign for state-wide office or exceeding five thousand dollars for any other campaign subject to the provisions of this chapter within twenty-one days of a general election. This subsection does not apply to contributions made by, or accepted from, a major political party as defined in RCW 29.01.090.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Thompson, doesn't this actually increase the amount that can be contributed to a statewide campaign during the last twenty-one days? As I read the existing language in law, the limit was a five thousand dollars contribution and it appears this amendment increases it to fifty thousand dollars in the last twenty-one days if it is a statewide campaign."

Senator Thompson: "You are right, Senator Pullen."

Senator Pullen: "Would this also apply to an initiative campaign? For example, on the second line of the underlined language on page 3, the underlined language says 'fifty thousand dollars per any campaign for statewide office.' It would appear to me we may be excluding initiative campaigns which can be very, very expensive and our statewide campaigns in themselves by using the word 'office.' I wonder if that was really your intent?"

Senator Thompson: "It is, Senator Pullen, but fifty thousand dollars is a very substantial contribution from any one individual and a reasonable limitation I represent."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment.

The motion by Senator Thompson carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thompson, the following title amendment was adopted: In line 2 of the title, after "42.17.090" and before the semicolon, insert "and 42.17.105"

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1838, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1838, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1838, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 10; absent, 2; excused, 1.

Creating Washington health care project commission.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:

- (a) Good health care for indigent persons is of importance to the state;
- (b) To ensure the availability of a good level of health care, efforts must be made to encourage cost consciousness on the part of providers and consumers, while maintaining medical assistance recipients within the mainstream of health care delivery;
- (c) Managed health care systems have been found to be effective in controlling costs while providing good health care services;
- (d) By enrolling medical assistance recipients within managed health care systems, the state's goal is to ensure that medical assistance recipients receive at least the same quality of care they currently receive.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature to develop and implement new strategies that promote the use of managed health care systems for medical assistance recipients by establishing prepaid capitated programs for both in-patient and out-patient services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section, "managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, health insuring organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract health care services covered under RCW 74.09.520 and rendered by licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated case management basis.

(2) No later than July 1, 1991, the department of social and health services shall enter into agreements with managed health care systems to provide health care services to recipients of aid to families with dependent children under the following conditions:

(a) Agreements shall be made within one class A county in the eastern part of the state for at least ten thousand recipients; and one class AA county for at least fifteen thousand recipients in the western part of the state; and one first class county of at least five thousand recipients in the western part of the state;

(b) At least one of the agreements shall include enrollment of all recipients of aid to families with dependent children residing in a defined geographical area;

(c) The department shall, to the extent possible, ensure that recipients have a choice of systems in which to enroll and, if necessary and medically appropriate treatment for a recipient is not available from or through a participating managed health care system, the department shall exempt the recipient from any requirement to receive some or all of their medical services from such a system;

(d) To the extent possible, the department shall ensure that participating managed health care systems do not enroll a disproportionate number of medical assistance recipients within the total numbers of persons served by the managed health care systems;

(e) Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the department shall estimate, on an actuarially sound basis, the expected cost of providing the health care services expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different project areas. In negotiating with managed health care systems the department shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; and financial integrity of the responding system. The department may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

(f) The department shall seek waivers from federal requirements as necessary to implement this chapter;

(g) The department shall, wherever possible, enter into prepaid capitation contracts that include inpatient care. However, if this is not possible or feasible, the department may enter into prepaid capitation contracts that do not include inpatient care;

(h) The department shall define those circumstances under which a managed health care system is responsible for out-of-system services and assure that recipients shall not be charged for such services; and

(1) Nothing in this section prevents the department from entering into similar agreements in additional counties or for other groups of people eligible to receive services under chapter 74.09 RCW.

The department shall seek to obtain a large number of contracts with providers of health services to medicaid recipients. The department shall ensure that publicly supported community health centers and providers in rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the project as managed health care systems are seriously considered as providers in the project.

(3) The department shall work jointly with the state of Oregon and other states in this geographical region in order to develop recommendations to be presented to the appropriate federal agencies and the United States congress for improving health care of the poor, while controlling related costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall report to the legislature not later than January 1, 1987, on progress toward implementation of the requirements of this chapter, but shall not delay implementation on account of this reporting requirement.

The report shall also include an analysis of the possible expansion of the use of managed health care within other medical assistance programs, including making it available to certain recipients of general assistance and supplemental security income.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars, of which ninety thousand is from the general fund—state and sixty thousand is from the general fund—federal, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the department of social and health services for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, for the purposes identified in sections 2 and 3 of this act."

On motion of Senator Vognil, the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 6, after line 5, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department of social and health services shall not require a certificate of need for the commencement of obstetrical services by an existing hospital as defined in RCW 70.41.020."

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendment by Senators McDermott and Sellar to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 5, after line 30, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Washington basic health project" or "project" means the system of enrollment and payment on a prepaid capitated basis for basic health care services, administered by the board through participating managed health care systems, created by this chapter.

(2) "Board" means the Washington basic health project board created under section 6 of this act.

(3) "Managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract basic health care services, as defined by the board and rendered by duly licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated basis to a defined patient population by enrollment in the project and in the managed health care system.

(4) "Enrollee" means an individual, or an individual plus the individual's spouse and/or dependent children, all under the age of sixty-five, who resides in a project area, whose gross family income at the time of enrollment does not exceed twice the federal poverty level as adjusted for family size and determined annually by the federal department of health and human services, who chooses to obtain basic health care coverage from a particular managed health care system in return for periodic payments to the board, and who, at the time of enrollment, does not have access to employer-sponsored health care coverage.

(5) "Subsidy" means the difference between the amount of periodic payment the board makes, from funds appropriated from the basic health project trust account, to a managed health care system on behalf of an enrollee and the amount the board determines to be the enrollee's responsibility under section 10(2) of this act.

(6) "Project area" means one of not more than twelve distinct geographical areas within the state selected by the board as a demonstration site for the Washington basic health project. To the extent possible, the board shall select at least one project area in each congressional district of the state, define project areas coterminously with individual or adjacent cities, counties, or hospital districts, and take into special consideration any formal requests received from local governments or health care providers for selection of particular project areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The basic health project trust account is hereby established in the state treasury. All revenue received under RCW 82.08.020(2) shall be deposited in the basic health project trust account. Disbursements from the account shall be made pursuant to appropriation and upon warrants drawn by the Washington basic health project board. Moneys in the account shall be used exclusively for the purposes of this chapter, including payments to participating managed health care systems on behalf of enrollees in the project and payment of costs of administering the project. The earnings on any surplus balances in the basic health project trust account shall be credited to the account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090. After January 1, 1987, the legislature shall not appropriate for an ensuing fiscal period amounts exceeding ninety percent of the revenues anticipated to accrue to the account during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is created the Washington basic health project board, which shall be a separate and independent board of the state. For efficiencies in operation and consultation, the offices of the board may be collocated with those of the hospital commission. The board shall be composed of five members appointed by the governor. The governor shall select one member to serve as chairman. Not more than one member may have any fiduciary obligation to any health care provider or facility or any material financial interest in the provision of health care services.

Members of the board shall serve for four-year terms. However, of the members initially appointed after the effective date of this act, two shall be appointed to four-year terms, one to a three-year term, one to a two-year term, and one to a one-year term. Appointments shall require senate confirmation. No member of the board may serve for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term and the initial appointments and vacancies shall not require senate confirmation until the legislature next convenes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Meetings of the board shall be held as frequently as its duties require. The board shall keep minutes of its meetings and adopt procedures for the governing of its meetings, minutes, and transactions. Three members of the board constitute a quorum, but a vacancy on the board shall not impair its power to act. No action of the board shall be effective unless three members concur therein. The board may, consistent with the procedural requirements of chapter 42.30 RCW, meet in executive session with representatives of prospective or participating managed health care systems to discuss matters of a proprietary or sensitive nature.

The members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.250 and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The board shall employ a full-time executive director, who shall be the chief administrative officer of the board and shall be subject to its direction. The executive director, medical director, and up to three other employees shall be exempt from the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW.

The board shall employ such other staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibilities and duties of the board, such staff to be subject to the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW. In addition, the board may contract with third parties for services necessary to carry out its activities where this will promote economy, avoid duplication of effort, and make best use of available expertise. Any such contractor or consultant shall be prohibited from releasing, publishing, or otherwise using any information made available to it under its contractual responsibility without specific permission of the board. The board may call upon other agencies of the state to provide available information as necessary to assist the board in meeting its responsibilities under this chapter, which information shall be supplied as promptly as circumstances permit.

The board may create committees from its membership, and may appoint such technical or other advisory committees as it deems necessary. The board shall appoint a standing technical advisory committee that is representative of health care professionals, health care providers, and those directly involved in the purchase, provision, or delivery of health care services, including consumers and those knowledgeable of the ethical issues involved with health care public policy. Individuals appointed to any technical or advisory committee shall serve without compensation for their services as members, but may be reimbursed for their expenses in the same manner as members of the board.

The board may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to health care costs and access to health care.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The board may promulgate and adopt, under chapter 34.04 RCW, rules consistent with this chapter to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The board has the following powers and duties:

(1) To design and from time to time revise a schedule of covered basic health care services, including physician services, inpatient and outpatient hospital services, and other services that may be necessary for basic health care, which enrollees in any participating managed health care system under the Washington basic health project shall be entitled to receive in return for periodic payments to the board. The schedule of services shall emphasize preventive and primary health care, shall include all services necessary for prenatal, post-natal, and well-child care, and shall include a separate schedule of basic health care services for children, eighteen years of age and younger, for those enrollees who choose to secure basic coverage through the project only for their dependent children. In designing and revising the schedule of services, the board shall consider the guidelines for assessing health services under the mandated benefits act of 1984, RCW 48.42.080.

(2) To design and implement a structure of periodic payments due from enrollees. The payment structure shall be based upon enrollee family size and shall include a sliding scale whereby payments vary according to enrollee family income. The structure shall be designed so as to include payment amounts for enrollment of children without requiring enrollment of their parents. In each project area, the board shall not enroll such numbers of enrollees who qualify for subsidies as might reasonably be expected to result in an overexpenditure of appropriations for such purposes in the area. Whenever the board finds that there is danger of such an overexpenditure, the board shall close project enrollment in the area until the board finds the danger no longer exists. Payments to the board by the department of social and health services on behalf of any person eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW, subject to section 17 of this act, shall not be less than the payments the board makes to managed health care systems for coverage of those persons.

(3) To select not more than twelve project areas in the state as sites for the project. In selecting the areas, the board shall take into account the need for geographic, demographic, and economic diversity among project sites, the actual and potential availability of managed health care systems in different parts of the state, levels and rates of unemployment in possible project areas, and the need to assess the financial ability of the project to provide basic health care coverage to a population reasonably representative of the portion of the state's population that lacks basic health care coverage.

(4) To solicit and accept applications from managed health care systems, as defined in this chapter, for inclusion as eligible basic health care providers under the project. The board shall endeavor to assure that covered basic health care services are available through the project from among a selection of participating managed health care systems in at least some project areas. In adopting any rules or procedures applicable to managed health care systems and in its dealings with such systems, the board shall consider and make suitable allowance for the need for health care services and the differences in local availability of health care resources, along with other resources, within and among the project areas.

(5) To receive periodic payments from enrollees, deposit the payments in the basic health project operating account, keep records of enrollee payments and status, and authorize periodic payments to managed health care systems on the basis of the number of enrollees participating in the respective managed health care systems.

(6) To accept applications from individuals residing in project areas, on behalf of themselves and their spouses and dependent children, for enrollment in the Washington basic health project, to establish appropriate minimum-enrollment periods for enrollees as may be necessary, and to determine, upon application and at least annually thereafter, or at the request of any enrollee, eligibility due to current gross family income for sliding scale payments that will be the responsibility of the enrollee. An enrollee who remains current in making periodic sliding-scale payments, as determined by the board under subsection (2) of this section, and whose gross family income has risen above twice the federal poverty level, may continue enrollment unless and until the enrollee's gross family income has remained above two and one-half times the poverty level for twelve consecutive months, by making payment at the maximum rate established in the sliding fee schedule. No subsidy shall be paid with respect to any enrollee whose current gross family income exceeds twice the federal poverty level or, subject to section 17 of this act, who is a recipient of medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW.

(7) To require that prospective enrollees who may be eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW apply for such coverage.

(8) To determine, on a community rating basis, the amount of each periodic per capita or per family payment to a participating managed health care system in return for the provision of covered basic health care services to enrollees in the system. Although the schedule of covered basic health care services will be the same for similar enrollees, the periodic per capita or per family payments to participating managed health care systems may vary among the systems. In negotiating payment levels with participating systems, the board shall consider the characteristics of the populations served by the respective systems, economic circumstances of the project area, and other factors the board finds relevant.

(9) To monitor the provision of covered services to enrollees by participating managed health care systems in order to assure enrollee access to good quality basic health care, to require periodic reports on health care services rendered to enrollees in order to provide adequate information for evaluation, and to inspect the books and records of participating managed health care systems to assure compliance with the purposes of this chapter. In requiring reports from participating managed health care systems, including data on services rendered enrollees, the board shall endeavor to minimize costs, both to the managed health care systems and to the board. The board shall coordinate any such reporting requirements with other state agencies, such as the insurance commissioner and the hospital commission, to minimize duplication of effort.

(10) To initiate, at the option of the board, a matching grant program, in up to three project areas, to demonstrate the potential that better coordination of all local primary health care resources in the provision of necessary care to low-income residents who are unlikely or unable to enroll in the project can be more cost-effective. The board may award grants to local governments that sponsor consortia of health care providers, including at least one hospital in each area. Any grant proposal must meet minimum standards set by the board, including requirements for coordination of care by local providers and for coordination of local funding sources, which may include in-kind charity care provided by hospitals and physicians as well as public or private funds and sliding-scale payments from individuals served. Any grants awarded under this subsection shall be made from funds appropriated for such purpose from the Washington basic health project trust account, may be extended for up to three years, and shall be on the basis of one dollar from the board for every four dollars of local or private funds expended in the demonstration program.

(11) To monitor the access that state residents have to adequate and necessary health care services, determine the extent of any unmet needs for such services or lack of access that may exist from time to time, and make such reports and recommendations to the legislature as it deems appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The benefits available under the project shall be subject to RCW 48.21.200 and shall be excess to the benefits payable under the terms of any insurance policy issued to or on the behalf of an enrollee that provides payments toward medical expenses without a determination of liability for the injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. In each project area, on and after a date set by the board for the area, but in no case before March 31, 1987, enrollees whose payments to the board are current are entitled to receive covered basic health care services as defined by the board from the respective managed health care systems in which they are enrolled. The board shall not at any time maintain enrollment of more than thirty thousand enrollees who are eligible for subsidies. The board shall closely monitor growth patterns so as not to exceed that consistent with the orderly development of the project as a whole and in each project area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Any enrollee whose payments to the board are delinquent or who moves his or her residence out of a project area may be dropped from enrollment status. The board shall make reasonable efforts to notify delinquent enrollees of their removal from the project and shall provide for a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW for any enrollee who contests the board's decision to drop the enrollee from the project. Upon removal of an enrollee from the project, the board shall promptly notify the managed health care system in which the enrollee has been enrolled, and shall not be responsible for payment for health care services provided to the enrollee (including, if applicable, members of the enrollee's family) after the date of notification. A managed health care system may contest the denial of payment for coverage of an enrollee through a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Managed health care systems participating in the project shall do so by contract with the board and shall provide, directly or by contract with other health care providers, covered basic health care services to each enrollee as long as payments from the board on behalf of the enrollee are current. Subject to board approval and with full disclosure to enrollees and prospective enrollees, a managed health care system may impose nominal copayments upon enrollees as an incentive for proper utilization of services. A participating managed health care system may offer, but not require acceptance of, additional health care benefits or services not included in the schedule of covered services under the project, that will be the sole responsibility of the enrollee. Any action by or on behalf of any enrollee based on a claim of professional negligence shall, at the option of the enrollee, be submitted for arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. The board may receive and act upon complaints from enrollees regarding failure to provide covered services or efforts to obtain payment, other than copayments authorized under this section, for covered services directly from enrollees, but nothing in this chapter empowers the board to impose any sanctions under Title 18 RCW or any other professional or facility licensing statute.

The project shall allow, at least annually, an opportunity for enrollees to transfer their enrollments among participating managed health care systems serving their respective project areas. The board shall establish a period of at least twenty days in a given year when this opportunity is afforded enrollees, and in those areas served by more than one participating managed health care systems the board shall endeavor to establish a uniform period for such opportunity.

Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the board shall determine, on an actuarially sound basis, the reasonable cost of providing the schedule of basic health care services, expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different project areas. In negotiating with managed health care systems for participation in the project, the board shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least the following:

(1) The board shall issue a request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; financial integrity of the responding systems; and responsiveness to the unmet health care needs of the local communities or populations that may be served;

(2) The board shall then review responsive proposals and may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

(3) The board may then select one or more systems to provide the covered services within a project area; and

(4) The board may adopt a policy that gives preference, in one or more project areas, to systems substantially supported by public revenues or involving public agencies.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. Enrollees of any participating managed health care system may, if offered, execute an agreement on behalf of themselves and/or any dependents enrolled in the project to arbitrate any dispute, controversy, or issue arising out of health care or treatment rendered by or through the managed health care system. The agreement to arbitrate shall provide that its execution is not a prerequisite to enrollment in the project or the provision of any services and shall provide that the enrollee may revoke the agreement within sixty days after execution by notifying the managed health care system in writing.

The agreement shall contain the following provision in at least nine-point boldface type immediately above the space for signature of the parties:

"This agreement to arbitrate is not a prerequisite to enrollment or the provision of any services and may be revoked by the enrollee within sixty days after execution by notification in writing."

Participating managed health care systems that use arbitration agreements shall furnish to the enrollee at the time of enrollment a copy of an information brochure, prepared and approved by the board, which clearly outlines the arbitration process as an alternative dispute resolution process to that of a court and/or jury trial.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. The board shall submit to the 1987 session of the legislature the design plan for a schedule of basic health care services as outlined in section 10 of this act, including appropriate co-payments and/or deductibles, and the schedule of periodic payments that will be the responsibility of any enrollee. For this project to remain in effect it must be approved by the legislature by June 30, 1987, and the level of benefits and periodic payments cannot be changed without legislative approval.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. The department of social and health services shall make periodic payments to the project on behalf of any enrollee who is a recipient of medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW, at the maximum rate established in the sliding fee scale, for the services covered by the project, and no premium may be charged to such an enrollee. With respect to enrollees eligible for medical assistance under RCW 74.09.510, the periodic amount payable to the project shall not be greater than the amount with respect to which full federal financial participation is available under Title XIX of the federal social security act. Any enrollee on whose behalf the department of social and health services makes payments to the project under this section and chapter 74.09 RCW may continue as an enrollee, making periodic payments based on the enrollee's own income as determined under the sliding scale, after eligibility for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW has ended. Nothing in this section affects the right of any person eligible for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW to receive the services offered to other persons under that chapter but not included in the schedule of basic health care services covered by the project. The board and the department of social and health services shall cooperatively adopt procedures to facilitate the transition of project enrollees and payments on their behalf between the project and the programs established under chapter 74.09 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. In addition to the powers and duties specified in sections 8 and 10 of this act, the board has the power to enter into contracts for the following functions and services:

(1) With public or private agencies, to assist the board in its duties to design or revise the schedule of covered basic health care services, and/or to monitor or evaluate the performance of participating managed health care systems.

(2) With public or private agencies, to provide technical or professional assistance to health care providers, particularly public or private nonprofit organizations and providers serving rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the project as managed health care systems.

(3) With health care service contractors registered under RCW 48.44.015 and doing business in the state, for marketing and administrative services in connection with participation of managed health care systems, enrollment of enrollees, billing and collection services to the board, and other administrative functions ordinarily performed by health care service contractors, other than insurance. Any activities of a health care service contractor pursuant to a contract with the board under this section shall be exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW.

(4) With any public hospital district established under chapter 70.44 RCW or with any county or city, to administer the project as the board's agent with respect to enrollees residing and managed health care systems serving a project area within the boundaries of the district, county, or city: PROVIDED, That the district, county, or city shares with the board, on a dollar for dollar matching basis, the cost of payments to participating managed health care systems for coverage of enrollees residing within the boundaries of the district, county, or city less the amounts payable by enrollees to the district, county, or city as agent for the board. However, if the unemployment rate of a participating county exceeds by twenty percent or more the state average as determined by the employment security department, the board may increase the level of its contribution to not more than two dollars for each local dollar.

(5) With any community health center or other public or private nonprofit health care provider participating in a managed health care system under the project and demonstrating financial need, to furnish direct financial assistance in meeting the start-up costs of providing covered basic health care services under the project, for a period not exceeding one year after the managed health care system commences coverage of enrollees.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. The activities and operations of the Washington basic health project under this chapter, including those of managed health care systems to the extent of their participation in the project, are exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal all or any part of this chapter at any time and there shall be no vested private right of any kind against such amendment or repeal. All the rights, privileges, or immunities conferred by this chapter or any acts done pursuant thereto shall exist subject to the power of the legislature to amend or repeal this chapter at any time.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 50.20 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall notify in writing any person filing a claim under this chapter who resides in a project area of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health project under chapter 70.____ RCW (sections 4 through 20 of this act), unless the Washington basic health project board has notified the commissioner of a closure of enrollment in the area. The commissioner shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health project enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the board, in each appropriate employment service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health project.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 74.08 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall notify in writing any applicant for public assistance who resides in a project area and is under sixty-five years of age of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health project under chapter 70.____ RCW (sections 4 through 20 of this act), unless the Washington basic health project board has notified the department of a closure of enrollment in the area. The department shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health project enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the board, in each appropriate community service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health project.

Sec. 23. Section 1, chapter 32, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is levied and there shall be collected a tax on each retail sale in this state equal to six and five-tenths percent of the selling price.

(2) An additional tax is imposed, effective January 1, 1987, through June 30, 1992, equal to one-twentieth of one percent. The moneys collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the basic health project trust account of the state treasury.

(3) The tax imposed under this chapter shall apply to successive retail sales of the same property.

~~((3))~~ (4) The rates provided in this section ~~((applies))~~ apply to taxes imposed under chapter 82.12 RCW as provided in RCW 82.12.020.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 24. The Washington basic health project board shall be appointed and commence operations as promptly as practicable after the effective date of this act. Not later than December 1, 1986, the board shall submit to the legislature a progress report including:

(1) The schedule of covered basic health care services adopted under section 10 of this act;

(2) A descriptive listing of managed health care systems expected to participate in the Washington basic health project, along with an identification of prospective project areas;

(3) The approximate amount of funds estimated to be on deposit in the basic health project trust account as of March 31 and June 30, 1987;

(4) An estimate of the number of enrollees whose basic health care coverage under this chapter can be expected to be financed during the 1987-88 and 1988-1989 state fiscal years by combining revenue received under RCW 82.08.020(2) with payments from the enrollees;

(5) A description of the sliding fee schedule for periodic enrollee payments adopted by the board under section 10 of this act;

Not later than January 1, 1988, the board shall submit to the legislature a further progress report, updating its 1986 report, and covering the same items provided for therein, with projections based upon implementation of the project to date. Further, the report shall include a description of the performance of the first managed health care systems included as eligible providers as provided in section 12 of this act. The board shall submit an annual report to the legislature by January 1 of each year thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Sections 4 through 20 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. There is appropriated from the general fund to the basic health project trust account, for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of one million dollars, to carry out the purposes of sections 4 through 30 of this act. Such appropriation shall be repaid to the general fund as soon as practicable, but not later than June 30, 1987, from the revenue accruing to the basic health project trust account under RCW 82.08.020(2).

There is appropriated from the basic health project trust account of the state treasury to the Washington basic health project board, for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of five million dollars, or as much thereof as shall be necessary, not exceeding funds deposited in the account, to carry out the purposes of chapter 70.____ RCW (sections 4 through 20 of this act).

Sec. 29. Section 1, chapter 138, Laws of 1943 as amended by section 1, chapter 209, Laws of 1947 and RCW 7.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Two or more parties may agree in writing to submit to arbitration, in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, any controversy which may be the subject of an action existing between them at the time of the agreement to submit, or they may include in a written agreement a provision to settle by arbitration any controversy thereafter arising between them out of or in relation to such agreement. Any contract providing prepaid health care services may include an agreement to settle by arbitration any controversy thereafter arising between the consumer and a health care provider with respect to personal injury or wrongful death.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any arbitration agreement between employers and employees or between employers and associations of employees, and as to any such agreement the parties thereto may provide for any method and procedure for the settlement of existing or future disputes and controversies, and such procedure shall be valid, enforceable and irrevocable save upon such grounds as exist in law or equity for the revocation of any agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. An impartial and thorough review of past and current practices in dealing with the costs of charity care rendered by health care providers, both institutional and individual, is necessary in view of the increasing use of prospective payment systems by major purchasers of health care. shall initiate such a review that includes recommendations of possible solutions for legislative consideration. Renumber the sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1815, by Committee on Transportation (originally sponsored by Representatives Ebersole, Crane, Walk, Patrick, Lundquist, Prince, Brough, Wang, Hankins, Isaacson, S. Wilson, Taylor, Tilly and Sanders)

Permitting vehicles operated by nursing homes to get disabled parking privileges.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1815 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1815.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1815 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognilid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 47.

Excused: Senators Guess, Stratton - 2.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1815, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021 and the pending amendment by Senators McDermott and Sellar on page 5, line 30, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, deferred earlier today.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, a point of order. One of my most unpleasant tasks, I guess, is that to be kind of a hit man for over here. I guess one of those tasks is to ask if the amendment is within the scope and object of House Bill 2021. In reviewing House Bill 2021, it is looking at management health care systems within the existing programs of health care delivery in the state. It does not have a tax. It does have a commission that would be set up to look into that, although the committee amendment does not have that commission. The bill before us does have a tax. It does have a considerable increase in powers and duties of the commission and it appears to me to be far beyond the scope and object of the original bill."

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021 was deferred.

President Cherberg assumed the chair.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1954, by Representatives J. King, Appelwick and Holland (by request of Governor Gardner)

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 11, chapter 236, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 1, chapter 272, Laws of 1985 and RCW 67.28.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the conditions set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the legislative body of any county or any city, is authorized to levy and collect a special excise tax of not to exceed two percent on the sale or charge made for the furnishing of lodging by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, trailer camp, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property; PROVIDED, That it shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes a rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or to enjoy the same.

(2) Any levy authorized by this section shall be subject to the following:

(a) Any county ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to this chapter shall contain, in addition to all other provisions required to conform to this chapter, a provision allowing a credit against the county tax for the full amount of any city tax imposed pursuant to this chapter upon the same taxable event((:)).

(b) In the event that any county has levied the tax authorized by this section and has, prior to June 26, 1975, either pledged the tax revenues for payment of principal and interest on city revenue or general obligation bonds authorized and issued pursuant to RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160 or has authorized and issued revenue or general obligation bonds pursuant to the provisions of RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160, such county shall be exempt from the provisions of subsection (a), so long as, and to the extent that the tax revenues are pledged for payment of principal and interest on bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160: PROVIDED, That so much of such pledged tax revenues, together with any investment earnings thereon, not immediately necessary for actual payment of principal and interest on such bonds may be used for repayment either of limited tax levy general obligation bonds or of any county fund or account from which a loan was made, the proceeds from the bonds or loan being used to pay for constructing, installing, improving, ~~((maintaining, operating;))~~ and equipping stadium capital improvement projects ~~((to)), and to pay for any engineering, planning, financial, legal and professional services incident to the development of such stadium capital improvement projects, regardless of the date the debt for such capital improvement projects was or may be incurred.~~

As used in this subsection (2)(b), "capital improvement projects" may include, but not be limited to a stadium restaurant facility, restroom facilities, artificial turf system, seating facilities, parking facilities and scoreboard and information system adjacent to or within a county owned stadium, together with equipment, utilities, accessories and appurtenances necessary thereto(~~); and to pay for any engineering, planning, financial, legal and professional services incident to the development and operation of such stadium capital improvement projects~~)). The stadium restaurant authorized by this subsection (2)(b) shall be operated by a private concessionaire under a contract with the county((:)).

(c) No city within a county exempt under subsection (2)(b) of this section may levy the tax authorized by this section so long as said county is so exempt: PROVIDED, That in the event that any city in such county has levied the tax authorized by this section and has, prior to June 26, 1975, authorized and issued revenue or general obligation bonds pursuant to the provisions of RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160, such city may levy the tax so long as and to the extent that the tax revenues are pledged for payment of principal and interest on bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160.

(3) Any levy authorized by this section by a county that has levied the tax authorized by this section and has, prior to June 26, 1975, either pledged the tax revenues for payment of principal and interest on city revenue or general obligation bonds authorized and issued pursuant to RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160 or has authorized and issued revenue or general obligation bonds pursuant to the provisions of RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160 shall be subject to the following:

(a) Taxes collected under this section in any calendar year in excess of five million three hundred thousand dollars shall only be used for art and cultural museums.

(b) No taxes collected under this section may be used for the operation or maintenance of a public stadium that is financed directly or indirectly by bonds to which the tax is pledged. Expenditures for operation or maintenance include all expenditures other than expenditures that directly result in new fixed assets or that directly increase the capacity, life span, or operating economy of existing fixed assets.

(c) No ad valorem property taxes may be used for debt service on bonds issued for a public stadium that is financed by bonds to which the tax is pledged, unless the taxes collected under this section are or are projected to be insufficient to meet debt service requirements on such bonds.

(d) If a substantial part of the operation and management of a public stadium that is financed directly or indirectly by bonds to which the tax is pledged is performed by a non-public entity or if a public stadium is sold that is financed directly or indirectly by bonds to which the tax is pledged, any bonds to which the tax is pledged shall be retired.

(e) The county shall not lease a public stadium that is financed directly or indirectly by bonds to which the tax is pledged to, or authorize the use of the public stadium by, a professional major league sports franchise unless the sports franchise gives the right of first refusal to purchase the sports franchise, upon its sale, to local government. This subsection (3)(e) does not apply to contracts in existence on the effective date of this 1986 section.

If a court of competent jurisdiction declares any provision of this subsection (3) invalid, then that invalid provision shall be null and void and the remainder of this section is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect April 1, 1986."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator DeJarnatt: "Senator McDermott, in all the money you were listing there for various things, is there any money for a good right handed starting pitcher or a good designated hitter?"

Senator McDermott: "We specifically excluded the use of this money for operation and maintenance."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator McDermott, the first question I have is on this million dollars worth of future capital projects. Do we have any language in the bill that ties down the authority that is given to King County with respect to those future capital projects to things like the astro turf or things like that or could it be anything that just kind of happened into the head of the administration of King County, should they engage in future negotiations with some other sports franchise owner?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Talmadge, I worked long and hard trying to find some language to differentiate operating and maintenance from capital expenditure. It says on page 4, line 36, 'expenditures for maintenance include all expenditures other than expenditures that directly result in new fixed assets or that directly increase the capacity, life span or operating economy of existing fixed assets.' We tried to tie it down as tightly as possible to those things that are truly capital."

Senator Talmadge: "The second question is, should this bill come back from the House of Representatives on the concurrence calendar and they should not agree with the striking amendment from the Senate on this issue, what would your disposition be with respect to this bill? I remember one time King County did this to us before. We just kind of want to make certain that we don't see this happen again--where we don't get the full story told to us by the people proposing the legislation."

Senator McDermott: "Well, Senator, I was trained in my profession never to say 'never.' Say, 'hardly, seldom, if ever,' but I can't think of any reason why if the House won't accept these amendments, we ought to pass this bill."

Senator Talmadge: "But if they do come back to the Senate without the amendments on, would it be your disposition as Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee to oppose such a bill without these kinds of restrictions on the ability of King County to dip into the state sales tax revenues?"

Senator McDermott: "I would think it would be something that would make a good interim study, Senator Talmadge."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Perhaps I wasn't paying attention as I should have. It seems to me that Senator McDermott said that this was removing money from the General Fund or would be declining money in the General Fund and Senator Lee said it wasn't. I would like to have this straightened up. I suppose at this time I should ask Senator McDermott to clarify the statement. Is Senator Lee right or not? I'll ask Senator Lee. Senator Lee, would you comment further on Senator McDermott's statement? I would like to know."

Senator Lee: "Senator Metcalf, when we imposed the hotel/motel tax on the various hotels and motels, we said you may take that as a credit against the sales tax and that's what Senator McDermott was talking about, but this does not change that at all."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "I'm still a little confused. Senator McDermott would you have a comment?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Metcalf, it's no wonder you're confused, because I think the people who wrote this--there weren't very many of us here when it was written. It was originally written to give money for debt service to pay off the Kingdome. They set the rate at two percent and said that will do it. It was supposed to raise to 2.6 million dollars that it takes to pay off this facility over the course of the next thirty years or twenty-five years or whatever. Unfortunately or fortunately--depending on how you look at it, the two percent rate has increased the amount of money beyond the 2.6 million dollars for debt service, so its gradually been accumulating more and more money in that fund. By the year 2000 or 2006, there will be almost 268 million dollars in that fund and it would have only taken about 60 million dollars to pay off the Kingdome. There is gradually accumulating in that fund more than 200 million dollars.

"What is happening here, is that the Kingdome is saying, give us access to a little bit more of that 200 million dollars beyond the 2.6 that is necessary to pay off the facility. Now, we could have put an amendment on here and said anything more than debt service comes back into the General Fund. That might be what we will do some of these days when we need a little money, but we are giving money from the sales tax to the county to do this. Not only King County--there are a lot of other counties who are getting the same amount of money, so it is a direct deduct off your sales tax and from that standpoint, it is sales tax money that is going back to the county."

Senator McDermott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator McDermott, I am told that since we passed that bill in the Senate that there is a great deal of concern by the grocers as to how this is going to be implemented and that they simply do not have the equipment right now to do it and that they would like a few months and, possibly, if you could put a delayed effective date on it, they would not object to it, but I understand that there is a big problem there."

Senator McDermott: "Senator Hayner, we have a consultant that we have consulted at some length on this matter and while it does create some problems, we've been assured by the Clerk of the Senate that it is possible to do it even in a very small mom and pop grocery store. I think it can be done--it needs to be done--and I think that we ought to go ahead and do it."

NEW SECTION, Sec. 54. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that fire protection services at the state level are provided by different, independent state agencies. This has resulted in a lack of a comprehensive state-level focus for state fire protection services, funding, and policy. It is the intent of the legislature to consolidate fire protection services into a single state agency and to create a state board with the responsibility of (1) establishing a comprehensive state policy regarding fire protection services and (2) advising the director of community development and the director of fire protection on matters relating to their duties under state law. It is also the intent of the legislature that the fire protection services program created herein will assist local fire protection agencies in program development without encroaching upon their historic autonomy.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 55. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

There is created the state fire protection policy board consisting of ten members appointed by the governor:

(1) Three representatives of fire chiefs. At least one shall be from a fire department east of the Cascade mountains and at least one shall be from a fire department west of the Cascade mountains. One shall be from a fire protection district:

- (4) One representative of counties;
- (5) Two full-time, paid, career fire fighters;
- (6) One volunteer fire fighter; and

The governor, the commissioner of public lands, the insurance commissioner, the chairperson of the commission for vocational education or its successor organization, and the director of fire protection or their designees, shall be nonvoting ex officio members of the board. If an ex officio member of the board elects to send a designee to any or all meetings of the board, then that designee shall be selected from the immediate staff of that ex officio member and may not be a person who otherwise serves as a member of the board.

In making the appointments required under subsections (1) through (7) of this section, the governor shall (a) seek the advice of and consult with organizations involved in fire protection; and (b) ensure that racial minorities, women, and persons with disabilities are represented.

The terms of the appointed members of the board shall be three years and until a successor is appointed and qualified. However, initial board members shall be appointed as follows: Three members to terms of one year, three members to terms of two years, and four members to terms of three years. In the case of a vacancy of a member appointed under subsections (1) through (7) of this section, the governor shall appoint a new representative to fill the unexpired term of the member whose office has become vacant. A vacancy shall occur whenever an appointed member ceases to be employed in the occupation the member was appointed to represent.

The appointed members of the board shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

The board shall select its own chairperson and shall meet at the request of the governor or the chairperson and at least four times per year.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 56. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

Except for matters relating to the statutory duties of the director of community development which are to be carried out through the director of fire protection, the board shall have the responsibility of developing a comprehensive state policy regarding fire protection services. (6) Promote mutual aid and disaster planning for fire services in this state;

(7) Assure the dissemination of information concerning the amount of fire damage including that damage caused by arson, and its causes and prevention;

(8) Submit annually a report to the governor containing a statement of its official acts pursuant to this chapter, and make such studies, reports, and recommendations to the governor and the legislature as are requested;

(9) Adopt a state fire training and education master plan;

(10) Develop and adopt a master plan for the construction, equipping, maintaining, and operation of necessary fire service training and education facilities, but the authority to construct, equip, and maintain such facilities is subject to chapter 43.19 RCW;

(11) Develop and adopt a master plan for the purchase, lease, or other acquisition of real estate necessary to establish and operate fire service training and education facilities in a manner provided by law;

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1825, by Representatives Vekich, Basich, McMullen, Peery and May (by request of Department of Community Development)

Authorizing the use of the local hotel/motel tax to develop strategies to expand tourism.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 23 after "43.165.010" insert ": PROVIDED, That any county, and any city within a county, bordering upon Grays Harbor shall use the proceeds of such taxes solely for construction and maintenance of a movable tall ships tourist attraction in cooperation with a tall ships restoration society, except to the extent that such proceeds are used for payment of principal and interest on debt incurred prior to the effective date of this act"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Owen: "Senator McDermott, there seems to be a difference of opinion back here in the hinterlands of where that money starts from. The way I read the amendment if, in fact, we in Mason County or Jefferson County or Pacific County collect this tax, that it shall be used for that project in Grays Harbor County. Is that correct?"

Senator McDermott: "Your question was if it's collected in Grays Harbor County?"

Senator Owen: "The way I read the amendment that the proceeds that are collected from this tax shall go to the project in Grays Harbor County, if you are a county or city that borders Grays Harbor."

Senator McDermott: "Senator Owen, if you read the language, it is only the county that borders Grays Harbor not Grays Harbor County--Grays Harbor the geographical. We were trying to write a general description rather than say specifically legislation for one area, so we said any county and city within a county bordering upon Grays Harbor, which is essentially Grays Harbor County if you read through all the--I had an attorney draw this up--that's why it looks like this."

Senator Owen: "So it's that tax that is collected in that county?"

Senator McDermott: "That's correct."

Senator Owen: "What I've been told back here and what I'm trying to get a clarification from is that somehow, by this amendment, we would get revenue back from somebody else and I don't see that happening."

Senator McDermott: "It's Grays Harbor County money being used on a Grays Harbor County project."

Senator Owen: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Halsan: "Senator McDermott, I would assume that this hotel/motel tax currently exists in Grays Harbor County. Is the revenue therefrom being used for any particular purpose to your knowledge?"

Senator McDermott: "The bill, when it was originally passed in 1967, was supposed to be for debt service. Now, what we've done since 1967, since a lot of people weren't building anything, was gradually open this up and it is used in the county general operating fund for parks and a variety of other things and that is not what it was intended for in the first place, so this amendment is to say, 'if you want this project, here's the place you ought to put the money' rather than using it for whatever other purposes they decide they want to do."

Senator Halsan: "So in effect what this would do would be to grab all the money that is being used presently for other noble services in Grays Harbor County and put it into this project?"

Senator McDermott: "Except, Senator, for the debt service, because we excluded that. If you look at the amendment, it says on the last line, 'except to the extent that such proceeds are used for payment of principal and interest on debts incurred prior to the effective date of this act.' The city of Ocean Shores is using about six million dollars for--the amount that they get in that area is being used for the debt service. The other places are just using it in the county general fund."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hayner, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator McDermott was adopted:

On line 4 of Senator McDermott's amendment strike "shall" and insert "may"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator McDermott, as amended.

On page 1, line 23, after "RCW 43.165.010" insert ", in the following manner: A special fund shall be set up within the state general fund to be called the historic preservation tourism account. Ten percent of the revenues from the taxes levied pursuant to RCW 67.28.180 in class AA counties shall be transferred by said counties to the historic preservation tourism account in the state general fund. Moneys from this account shall be distributed pursuant to grant by the department of community development to projects in distressed areas promoting tourism through historic preservation or reconstruction of historic structures or vessels."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator DeJarnatt, would you define what RCW 67.28.180 is?"

Senator DeJarnatt: "I believe that's the hotel/motel tax."

Senator Bluechel: "In King County?"

Senator DeJarnatt: "You could be right, yes."

Further debate ensued.

Senator McDermott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator DeJarnatt.

(a) The agency shall attempt to notify all potential claimants. If the absence of records or other circumstances makes it impossible or unreasonable for the agency to ascertain the names and addresses of all the claimants, the agency after exerting due diligence and making reasonable inquiry to secure that information from all reasonable and available sources, may make a demand on a bond on the basis of information in the agency's possession. The agency is not liable or responsible for claims or the handling of claims that may subsequently appear or be discovered.

(b) Thirty days after notification, if a claimant fails, refuses, or neglects to file with the agency a verified claim, the agency shall be relieved of further duty or action under this chapter on behalf of the claimant.

(10) Designate or refer to sales representatives as "counselors," "advisors," or similar terms which have the tendency to mislead or deceive prospective students or the public regarding the authority or qualifications of the sales representatives;

(11) Make or cause to be made any statement or representation in connection with the offering of education if the school or agent knows or reasonably should have known the statement or representation to be false, substantially inaccurate, or misleading; or

(12) Engage in methods of advertising, sales, collection, credit, or other business practices which are false, deceptive, misleading, or unfair, as determined by the agency by rule.

It is a violation of this chapter for a private vocational school to engage in an unfair business practice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) A person claiming loss of tuition or fees as a result of an unfair business practice may file a complaint with the agency. The complaint shall set forth the alleged violation and shall contain information required by the agency. A complaint may also be filed with the agency by an authorized staff member of the agency or by the attorney general.

(2) The agency shall investigate any complaint under this section and may attempt to bring about a settlement. The agency may hold a contested case hearing pursuant to the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, in order to determine whether a violation has occurred. If the agency prevails, the private vocational school shall pay the costs of the administrative hearing.

(3) If, after the hearing, the agency finds that the private vocational school or its agent engaged in or is engaging in any unfair business practice, the agency shall issue and cause to be served upon the violator an order requiring the violator to cease and desist from the act or practice and may impose the penalties under section 13 of this act. If the agency finds that the complainant has suffered loss as a result of the act or practice, the agency may order full or partial restitution for the loss. The complainant is not bound by the agency's determination of restitution and may pursue any other legal remedy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Any private vocational school or agent violating section 6, 9, or 11 of this act or the applicable agency rules is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one hundred dollars for each separate violation. Each day on which a violation occurs constitutes a separate violation. Multiple violations on a single day may be considered separate violations. The fine may be imposed by the agency under section 12 of this act, or in any court of competent jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Any entity or any owner, officer, agent, or employee of such entity who willfully violates section 6 or 9 of this act is guilty of a gross misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Each day on which a violation occurs constitutes a separate violation. The criminal sanctions may be imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction in an action brought by the attorney general of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A private vocational school, whether located in this state or offers, advertises, solicits, or enters into any contracts in this state or with a resident of this state is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state for any cause of action arising from the acts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If any private vocational school discontinues its operation, the chief administrative officer of the school shall file with the agency the original or legible true copies of all educational records required by the agency. If the agency determines that any educational records are in danger of being made unavailable to the agency, the agency may seek a court order to protect and if necessary take possession of the records. The agency shall cause to be maintained a permanent file of educational records coming into its possession.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If a student or prospective student is a resident of this state at the time any contract relating to payment for education or any note, instrument, or other evidence of indebtedness relating thereto is entered into, section 18 of this act shall govern the rights of the parties to the contract or evidence of indebtedness. If a contract or evidence of indebtedness contains any of the following agreements, the contract is voidable at the option of the student or prospective student:

- (1) That the law of another state shall apply;
- (2) That the maker or any person liable on the contract or evidence of indebtedness consents to the jurisdiction of another state;
- (3) That another person is authorized to confess judgment on the contract or evidence of indebtedness; or
- (4) That fixes venue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A note, instrument, or other evidence of indebtedness or contract relating to payment for education is not enforceable in the courts of this state by a private vocational school or holder of the instrument unless the private vocational school was licensed under this chapter at the time the note, instrument, or other evidence of indebtedness or contract was entered into.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of any county in which a private vocational school or agent of the school is found may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction for the enforcement of this chapter. The court may issue an injunction or grant any other appropriate form of relief.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The agency may seek injunctive relief, after giving notice to the affected party, in a court of competent jurisdiction for a violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter. The agency need not allege or prove that the agency has no adequate remedy at law. The right of injunction provided in this section is in addition to any other legal remedy which the agency has and is in addition to any right of criminal prosecution provided by law. The existence of agency action with respect to alleged violations of this chapter and rules adopted under this chapter does not operate as a bar to an action for injunctive relief under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter affects the public interest and is an unfair or deceptive act or practice in violation of RCW 19.86.020 of the consumer protection act. The remedies and sanctions provided by this section shall not preclude application of other remedies and sanctions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The remedies and penalties provided for in this chapter are non-exclusive and cumulative and do not affect any other actions or proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The agency shall, within sixty days after the effective date of this act and annually thereafter, empanel a private vocational school advisory committee. Said committee shall serve as advisors in the implementation of this chapter and for such other liaison purposes as the agency may determine. It shall consist of no less than seven and no more than eleven persons who are practitioners in proprietary education but one of whom is a recent graduate of a proprietary school. Consideration in making appointments shall be given to maintaining a geographic balance among areas of the state and achieving a balanced representation of occupational specialties offered among private vocational schools statewide. The committee shall meet at least quarterly. Members shall serve without pay but be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now or hereafter amended. The committee shall adopt bylaws and elect officers from among its members annually.

Sec. 24. Section 2, chapter 160, Laws of 1917 as amended by section 6, chapter 53, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.50.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person seeking to be examined shall present to the director, at least forty-five days before the commencement of the examination, a written application on a form or forms provided by the director setting forth under affidavit such information as the director may require and proof the candidate has received a high school degree or its equivalent; that the candidate is twenty-one years of age or older; that the candidate has received a certificate or diploma from a midwifery program accredited by the director and (~~registered~~) licensed under chapter (~~20B-05 RCW~~) 28C.— RCW (sections 1 through 23 of this 1986 act), when applicable, or a certificate or diploma in a foreign institution on midwifery of equal requirements conferring the full right to practice midwifery in the country in which it was issued. The diploma must bear the seal of the institution from which the applicant was graduated. Foreign candidates must present with the application a translation of the foreign certificate or diploma made by and under the seal of the consulate of the country in which the certificate or diploma was issued.

(2) The candidate shall meet the following conditions:

(a) Obtaining a minimum period of midwifery training for at least three years including the study of the basic nursing skills that the department shall prescribe by rule. However, if the applicant is a registered nurse under chapter 18.88 RCW, a licensed practical nurse under chapter 18.78 RCW, or has had previous nursing education or practical midwifery experience, the required period of training may be reduced depending upon the extent of the candidate's qualifications as determined under rules adopted by the department. In no case shall the training be reduced to a period of less than two years.

(b) Meeting minimum educational requirements which shall include studying obstetrics; neonatal pediatrics; basic sciences; female reproductive anatomy and physiology; behavioral sciences; childbirth education; community care; obstetrical pharmacology; epidemiology; gynecology; family planning; genetics; embryology; neonatology; the medical and legal aspects of midwifery; nutrition during pregnancy and lactation; breast feeding; nursing skills, including but not limited to injections, administering intravenous fluids, catheterization, and aseptic technique; and such other requirements prescribed by rule.

(c) For a student midwife during training, undertaking the care of not less than fifty women in each of the prenatal, intrapartum, and early postpartum periods, but the same women need not be seen through all three periods. A student midwife may be issued a permit upon the satisfactory completion of the requirements in (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection and the satisfactory completion of the licensure examination required by RCW 18.50.060. The permit permits the student midwife to practice under the supervision of a midwife licensed under this chapter, a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW, or a certified nurse-midwife licensed under the authority of chapter 18.88 RCW. The permit shall expire within one year of issuance and may be extended as provided by rule.

(d) Observing an additional fifty women in the intrapartum period before the candidate qualifies for a license.

The training required under this section shall include training in either hospitals or alternative birth settings or both with particular emphasis on learning the ability to differentiate between low-risk and high-risk pregnancies.

Sec. 25. Section 31, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 8, chapter 414, Laws of 1985 and RCW 42.17.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would (i) be prohibited to such persons by RCW 82.32.330 or (ii) violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under RCW 81.34.070, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(o) Financial disclosures filed by private vocational schools under chapter 28C.— RCW (sections 1 through 23 of this 1986 act).

(2) Except for information described in subsection (1)(c)(i) of this section and confidential income data exempted from public inspection pursuant to RCW 84.40.020, the exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 8, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 1, chapter 303, Laws of 1981 and RCW 88.16.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may pilot any vessel subject to the provisions of this chapter on waters covered by this chapter unless such a person is appointed and licensed to pilot such vessels on said waters under and pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) No person is eligible to be appointed a pilot unless such a person is a citizen of the United States, over the age of twenty-five years and under the age of seventy years and a resident of the state of Washington at the time of appointment, nor unless the pilot applicant holds as a minimum, a United States government license as a master of freight and towing vessels not more than one thousand gross tons (inspected vessel), such license to have been held by the applicant for a period of at least two years prior to taking the Washington state pilotage examination and a first class United States endorsement without restrictions on that license to pilot in the pilotage districts for which the pilot applicant desires to be licensed, nor unless the pilot applicant meets such other qualifications as may be required by the board.

(3) Pilots shall be licensed hereunder for a term of five years from and after the date of the issuance of their respective state licenses. Such licenses shall thereafter be renewed as of course, unless the board shall withhold same for good cause. Each pilot shall pay to the state treasurer an annual license fee established by the board of pilotage commissioners pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, but not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars, to be placed in the state treasury to the credit of the pilotage account. The board may assess partially active or inactive pilots a reduced fee.

(4) Pilot applicants shall be required to pass a written and oral examination administered and graded by the board which shall test such applicants on this chapter, the rules of the board, local harbor ordinances, and such other matters as may be required to compliment the United States examinations and qualifications.

(5) On and after September 21, 1977, the board shall have developed five examinations and grading sheets for the Puget Sound pilotage district, and two for each other pilotage district, for the testing and grading of pilot applicants. The examinations shall be administered to pilot applicants on a random basis and shall be updated as required to reflect changes in law, rules, policies, or procedures. The board may appoint a special independent examination committee or may contract with a firm knowledgeable and experienced in the development of professional tests for development of said examinations. Active licensed state pilots may be consulted for the general development of examinations but shall have no knowledge of the specific questions. The pilot members of the board may participate in the grading of examinations. If the board does appoint a special examination development committee it is authorized to pay the members of said committee the same compensation and travel expenses as received by members of the board. When grading examinations the board shall carefully follow the grading sheet prepared for that examination. The board shall develop a "sample examination" which would tend to indicate to an applicant the general types of questions on pilot examinations, but such sample questions shall not appear on any actual examinations. Any person who wilfully gives advance knowledge of information contained on a pilot examination is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(6) All pilots and applicants are subject to an annual physical examination by a physician chosen by the board. The physician shall examine the applicant's heart, blood pressure, circulatory system, lungs and respiratory system, eyesight, hearing, and such other items as may be prescribed by the board. After consultation with a physician and the United States coast guard, the board shall establish minimum health standards to ensure that pilots licensed by the state are able to perform their duties.

(7) The board shall prescribe, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, a number of familiarization trips, between a minimum number of twenty-five and a maximum of one hundred, which pilot applicants must make in the pilotage district for which they desire to be licensed. Familiarization trips any particular applicant must make are to be based upon the applicant's vessel handling experience.

(8) The board shall prescribe, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, such reporting requirements and review procedures as may be necessary to assure the accuracy and validity of license and service claims, and records of familiarization trips of pilot candidates. Willful misrepresentation of such required information by a pilot candidate shall result in disqualification of the candidate.

Sec. 2. Section 9, chapter 337, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.103 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Pilots, after completion of an assignment or assignments which are seven hours or longer in duration, shall receive a mandatory rest period of seven hours.

(2) A pilot shall refuse a pilotage assignment if ~~((said))~~ the pilot is physically or mentally fatigued or if ~~((said))~~ the pilot has a reasonable belief that the assignment cannot be carried out in a competent and safe manner. Upon refusing an assignment as herein provided a pilot shall submit a written explanation to the board within forty-eight hours. If the board finds that the pilot's written explanation is without merit, or reasonable cause did not exist for the assignment refusal, such pilot may be subject to the provisions of RCW 88.16.100 ~~((as now existing or hereafter amended))~~.

(3) The board shall quarterly review the dispatch records of pilot organizations or pilot's quarterly reports to ensure the provisions of this section are enforced. The board may prescribe rules for rest periods pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is appropriated to the board of pilotage commissioners from the pilotage account of the general fund, for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of twenty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary. This money may be used by the board only to pay costs of investigating vessel incidents or accidents where a state-licensed pilot was involved and legal fees of the board."

On page 3, after line 10, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The legislature finds that the sale of timber from lands administered by the board of natural resources provides revenue to the common school construction account. If the board of natural resources sold the existing 1.6 billion board foot deficit in its timber sales program brought about by (1) defaulted timber sales, and (2) the board's not offering for sale the entire sustainable harvest sales program since July 1, 1980, the common school trust account would receive over sixty million dollars.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the board of natural resources.

(2) "Sustainable harvest level" means the volume of timber offered for harvest from public lands for any period as calculated by the department of natural resources and adopted by the board of natural resources.

(3) "Defaulted" means the volume remaining when a contractor fails to meet the terms of the sales contract at the completion date of the contract or any extension thereof and timber returned to the state under RCW 79.01.1331 through 79.01.1339.

(4) "Deficit" means all timber defaulted or otherwise terminated and returned to the department of natural resources from July 1, 1979, until June 30, 1986, plus any difference between the sustainable harvest level and the actual board sales level during the period from July 1, 1980, through June 30, 1984.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. By June 30, 1993, the board shall offer for sale the entire deficit timber sales volume in addition to the annual sustainable harvest level as adopted by the board of natural resources. After deductions for management costs as provided in RCW 79.64.040, one-half of all moneys received from the sale of the deficit timber volume on lands held in trust for the common schools is declared to be in excess of the amount necessary for the purpose of the common school construction fund and shall be deposited in the permanent common school fund.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Sections 3 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 79 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Sections 3 through 6 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President a point of order. I raise scope and object on this amendment. This is a bill with a title providing a county representative on the Board of Natural Resources. It is now being expanded to instruct the board to cut timber beyond what they have already determined. It is clearly expanding the simple purpose of this bill, which was to add somebody from county government to the Board of Natural Resources. For that reason, I hope the chair will recognize that it expands the scope and object."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1839 was deferred.

President Pro Tempore Goltz assumed the chair.

Nelson, Barnes, Lux, Isaacson, Locke, Sayan, Unsoeld, Long, Sutherland, Brough, Van Luven, Winsley, Gallagher, Nealey, P. King, C. Smith and Taylor)

Regulating telephone solicitation.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Saling moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 19, after "organization" insert ", from a list created by or purchased by such a company or organization."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Saling, you used AAA and I am a member of AAA and it's a very good service, especially if your wife or kids are out on the road. We've never been called by AAA. I've had the AAA representative in my office for other bills and he has never mentioned any objection to this bill. Is that just an example or have they actually complained about this and where do they do telephone solicitation?"

Senator Saling: "Thank you, Senator Bottiger. Yes, I got a letter and many, many phone calls from the Spokane AAA. All of our committee got a letter from the Seattle AAA--which we discussed in committee and we tried to come to some common agreement in committee, but we simply could not figure out a decent amendment that would help. After the bill passed out of committee, the AAA in Spokane talked with our caucus attorney; they talked with the gal--Deborah Senn from the Telecommunications Committee--who is working with Senator Williams on his committee and we tried to do some negotiating over the phone with the Spokane attorney for AAA and they do use that telephone solicitation bit in Spokane. In fact, the letter from Spokane indicated that they would have to lay off twenty employees if this bill passed."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Williams, let's say you're up for election and you've got several people working for you and it is certainly common to make phone calls during a campaign and let's say you make a phone call or one of your helpers makes a phone call and that person says they want to be taken off the list--don't call any more. Yet another one of your workers unbeknownst to you makes a call, are they then subject to the thousand dollar violation if they are reported?"

Senator Williams: "No, Senator Deccio, on page 2, line 8, there's a specific section in there that deletes political organizations from being under the jurisdiction of this law."

Senator Deccio: "So what you're saying is we're going to be exempt even though people are very irritated by political calls during a campaign, but we are going to make an exception to ourselves and subject everyone else that's under the bill?"

Senator Williams: "I suspect that that will be reflected at the polls."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Saling.

The motion by Senator Saling failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Williams, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1678 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McManus: "Senator Williams, what would be the effect of Section 2(5) and Section 2(6) where a company or organization has made a good faith attempt to remove the name and telephone number of the called party, but due to the use of multiple lists it unintentionally makes another call to the party after his or her request to be removed from the company's lists?"

Senator Williams: "Senator McManus, I would expect that the Attorney General should refrain from instituting action against a company which acts in good faith to remove the called party who requests removal from its lists. The company's good faith should be taken into account by the court in any civil action brought under Section 2(6)."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1678.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, I would like to challenge the scope and object of this amendment. I would like to draw your attention to the title amendment. The title of this bill is repealing sunset termination of the Public Disclosure Commission. That is precisely what the bill does. It's a recommendation of the Legislative Budget Committee and the Office of Financial Management and that is all it does. It does not deal with anything that is within the Public Disclosure Act. The amendment which is being proposed by Senators Rinehart, Saling and Talmadge deals with auditing by the Public Disclosure Commission and I think it is clearly out of the scope and object of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of House Bill No. 1647 was deferred.

MOTION FOR DIVISION OF QUESTION BY SENATOR McDONALD

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, I move to divide the question. I would like to speak to that motion. Mr. President, we have done this now once on one bill and this will be the second time. I think the process of adopting amendments in bulk is one that is absolutely counter to the deliberative process that is supposed to be a part of this body. To simply take every amendment--whether it be good or bad or whether you be for it or against it--and vote for it as a group is like an omnibus budget package. That is not what we have done in the past. It is not consistent with the deliberative body that the Senate is supposed to be and whether I am for or against these amendments, I think is a process that we should not get started and we should stop it right now. I hope that we would divide the question as we have in the past by a ruling of the chair that these would come one at a time and hope that you will do so."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "There is no doubt that there will be a division. Senator McDonald, do you wish to vote on each amendment individually?"

Senator McDonald: "That is correct, Mr. President."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President will ask the body to consider your motion first. Would you please restate it?"

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, this is an unusual motion that Senator Fleming has made, so it's an unusual motion to make."

President Cherberg: "Kindly restate your motion."

Senator McDonald: "My motion is to divide each amendment such that we will vote on each amendment one at a time."

Debate ensued.

Senator McDonald demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Senator Fleming, I'm going to vote for this bill and I'm going to vote for it on good faith that the good amendments that have been placed on this bill will stay there. I guess I can't ask for your assurance, but I can ask for your good faith that these amendments will stay and that I can feel good to myself and my caucus that the improvements that have been made in this bill will stay that way and I hope you can support me in that issue."

Senator Fleming: "Senator, you know and I know it is pretty difficult for me to dictate what the other side of the rotunda will do, but I am sure the good amendments will stay."

Further debate ensued.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Rinehart, Saling and Talmadge requires random audits of filings made with the Public Disclosure Commission.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Rinehart, Saling and Talmadge was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the following amendment by Senators Vognild and McDonald be adopted:

On page 1, after line 9, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 9, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 1, chapter 34, Laws of 1984 and by section 14, chapter 125, Laws of 1984 and RCW 42.17.240 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Every elected official and every executive state officer shall after January 1st and before April 15th of each year file with the commission a statement of financial affairs for the preceding calendar year. However, any local elected official whose term of office expires immediately after December 31st shall file the statement required to be filed by this section for the year that ended on that December 31st.

(2) Every candidate shall within two weeks of becoming a candidate file with the commission a statement of financial affairs for the preceding twelve months.

(3) Every person appointed to a vacancy in an elective office or executive state officer position shall within two weeks of being so appointed file with the commission a statement of financial affairs for the preceding twelve months.

(4) A statement of a candidate or appointee filed during the period from January 1st to April 15th shall cover the period from January 1st of the preceding calendar year to the time of candidacy or appointment if the filing of the statement would relieve the individual of a prior obligation to file a statement covering the entire preceding calendar year.

(5) No individual may be required to file more than once in any calendar year.

(6) Each statement of financial affairs filed under this section shall be sworn as to its truth and accuracy.

(7) For the purposes of this section, the term "executive state officer" includes those listed in RCW 43.17.020 and those listed in RCW 42.17.2401.

(8) This section does not apply to incumbents or candidates for a federal office or the office of precinct committeeman.

(9) "Executive state officers" as defined in RCW 42.17.2401 are prohibited from filing as a registered lobbyist for any entity other than to fulfill their responsibilities as an executive state officer."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Saling: "Senator Rinehart, just to clarify the language in this bill, under current law, is a lobbyist's employer required to report all costs associated with the employer's lobbying effort?"

Senator Rinehart: "Senator Saling, the employer must only make a good faith effort to report costs it makes in connection with an attempt to influence legislation or agency rules."

Senator Saling: "Under current law, is a lobbyist's employer required to report non-lobbying related expenses?"

Senator Rinehart: "No."

Senator Saling: "Under current law, is a lobbyist's employer obligated to report personal living and travel expenses which are not related to lobbying and which are unreimbursed?"

Senator Rinehart: "No. The employer reporting statute--RCW 42.117.180--clearly says that only expenditures made for lobbying purposes are reportable."

Senator Saling: "Under current law, is a lobbyist's employer obligated to report expenses incurred by its officers or employees who serve on legislative advisory committees?"

Senator Rinehart: "No."

Senator Saling: "Is a lobbyist's employer required to report all contacts between its employees and the legislature?"

Senator Rinehart: "No, Senator Saling. If a legislator wants technical information to better understand a matter before the Legislature and knows that a particular company which has employed a lobbyist has that expertise, the legislator could solicit that specific information and the employer could provide it without that being considered a lobbying expense. It would be a reportable lobbying expense, however, if the employer and/or the lobbyist initiated the providing of technical information."

Wilson, McMullen, Hankins, Betzoff, Schoon, Jacobsen, Miller, Isaacson and Tilly) (by request of Washington Traffic Safety Commission)

Requiring the use of safety belts and child safety seats in motor vehicles.

The bill was read the second time.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, we raised, as this was read in on the final day, the question of the bill as to whether it was properly before us. We had two sign-up sheets, one which had eight signatures on it and one which had two signatures on it. The concern was that this was a process that now had one single sign-out sheet that did not have sufficient signatures to have this properly before us. That issue was raised before, as we read in finally, and we asked for a ruling and I wonder if you could rule on that?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I would like to offer some more information on the sign-up situation. I sit next to Senator von Reichbauer in Rules and Senator von Reichbauer had the bill in his possession. As I remember, Rules met that day between one and 2:15 p.m. Now a statement was made in Rules the other day that this was a pocket veto. I do not believe that under the conditions of a pocket veto that this was a pocket veto, because I will take an oath on this floor to you that Senator von Reichbauer had the bill in his possession and it had only eight signatures on it. I attest that to you, my good Lieutenant Governor, the Secretary of the Senate notwithstanding.

"Senator von Reichbauer had the opportunity at 2:15 before he turned the bill over to someone else--the sign-up sheet. He had the opportunity to sign that; he did not do it. Now, I don't know where the extra sign-up sheet came. It was said that the clerk or the attorney for the committee prepared it. I don't know the other signature on the sign-up sheet, but I do know that there was no pocket veto and because of the fact that that statement was made impugns the integrity of the chairman of that committee, I want it on the record that there was no pocket veto whatsoever."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PULLEN

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. I don't know anything about the facts of the situation, but I do know that there is a tremendous potential for mischief and abuse if we do set a precedent for allowing two sign-up sheets to be circulated with partial signatures on each sign-up sheet. Sometimes members will affix their signatures to a sign-up sheet partly based on who has signed or how many signatures are left to obtain the majority or required number of signatures and if that cannot be determined by a single sign-up sheet and by inspecting who has signed, there's a tremendous potential for abuse and mischief, so I would urge the Senate to be very, very cautious about setting a precedent that could allow two sign-up sheets with partial signatures on each to be circulated."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PETERSON

Senator Peterson: "Mr. President, whether the bill is properly before us or not, I might be able to clarify some of what happened. When the bill passed out of committee, we had more than a quorum. In fact, most of the members of the committee were there last Thursday night when we heard this bill. The voice passed out clearly--with not an unanimous vote--but with a majority vote--a voice vote. At the end of the committee meeting, six members of the committee had signed the bill, one of which later removed his signature which left five. The bill remained in committee then until, as Senator Guess indicated, or until the afternoon on Friday. By this time, everyone should have had an opportunity--the committee members--to sign the bill and when I left Friday afternoon, as Senator Guess indicated, there were eight signatures on the bill and then subsequent sign-up sheets appeared with the two additional signatures, so that is where it came from--from the committee standpoint."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Guess and others, the President is in possession of two documents. One signed by Senator von Reichbauer and one signed by Senator Brad Owen. The document signed by Senator von Reichbauer says 'I, Senator Peter von Reichbauer, having used all my best efforts to locate and sign the majority committee report for Grossed Substitute House Bill No. 1182 do now authorize the Secretary of the Senate's office to affix my signature to the committee report for Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1182.' A similar document is signed by Senator Owen."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, the fact remains that I sit next to Senator P. von Reichbauer and I have already told you--I swear and attest that he had that sign-up sheet in his hands sitting next to me on my left during the entire Rules Committee meeting.

"Now, it is a matter of record that his signature was not on that and it makes no difference, in my opinion--I don't know exactly how to phrase that--it does make a tremendous amount of difference. We have here the integrity of the Senate at stake and I leave it in your good hands."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President doesn't pretend to be Dick Tracy or anyone else, but will give you the decision. In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator McDonald, regarding Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1182, the President believes that Rules 45 and 62 apply. The President recognizes that two members were unable to sign the original committee report and after exercising their best efforts to sign that report resorted to signing a supplemental report.

"The President believes this may be a technical violation of Rule 45. However, Rule 62 is clear, concise and cogent with regard to the circumstances surrounding Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1182. Rule 62 provides an impertinent part--'No committee chairman shall exercise a pocket veto of any bill.'

"The President believes this may have been the case with Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1182, therefore, the actions by the two imminent members to sign the committee report should be allowed in order to effectuate Rule 62. The President believes that Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1182 is properly before the Senate."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "It is with the utmost of gravity. I've never seen it so successfully done in the twenty-four years I've been here. My integrity is in question. That of Senator Peterson is in question. That of Senator von Reichbauer is in question. Thank you, Mr. President."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I don't have any integrity, so it hasn't been challenged, but I would point out, Mr. President, and you had a little reservation in your voice when you were making your ruling that maybe--but I think it's a very dangerous precedent that we start when we allow people to sign the bill by affidavit. I have never in my life ever heard of that and I think, Mr. President, what we do when we do that is we completely destroy the committee chairmanship of a committee and we've always talked about strengthening the committee and we want the committees, so they can tighten up and we take all the bills that come out of them and put them on the calendar. At this stage where, and I don't care who they are, when you say, 'Well they can come and sign an affidavit' and it's not a form affidavit and they say, 'If I had been there, I would have signed the bill.' In all the committees I've been on, I have never seen when a bill or report was circulated that anyone would refuse them the opportunity to sign up and if they aren't there--it's the same way as when they aren't here on the floor--their vote doesn't count.

"So, I--and I respect the President--and I know he has been torn with his decision, but I don't like to see it tear apart the rules that we've been operating by that everybody understood. I would hope that the President at some time would reconsider this, so this doesn't become a precedent that we follow in the future. There's no use having a committee chairman if I can go up and sign an affidavit and say, 'Well, I'd have voted for it if I'd been there.' Thank you, Mr. President."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Rasmussen, the President is in possession of a copy of the second sign-up sheet signed by Senator Owen and Senator von Reichbauer."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Mr. President. I have never heard of a second sign-up sheet. There is only one sign-up sheet and that's the one that controls when it gets enough signatures on it. I know that you're as torn as I am and nobody likes to challenge the very fair President, but it's destroying the committee system."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, the chair has ruled. You have given a great deal of discretion and lee-way, but I would urge the Senate to return to the business of the state. We have wasted fifteen minutes already."

MOTION

Senator Peterson moved that the following Committee on Transportation amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 46.61 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section, the term "motor vehicle" includes:

After January 1, 1987, a person violating this section shall be issued a notice of traffic infraction under chapter 46.63 RCW. A finding that a person has committed a traffic infraction under this section shall be contained in the driver's abstract but shall not be available to insurance companies or employers.

(6) Failure to comply with the requirements of this section does not constitute negligence, nor may failure to wear a safety belt assembly be admissible as evidence of negligence in any civil action.

(7) Enforcement of this section by law enforcement officers may be accomplished only as a secondary action when a driver of a motor vehicle has been detained for a suspected violation of Title 46 RCW or an equivalent local ordinance or some other offense.

(8) This section does not apply to an operator or passenger who possesses written verification from a licensed physician that the operator or passenger is unable to wear a safety belt for physical or medical reasons.

(9) The commission on equipment may adopt rules exempting operators or occupants of farm vehicles, construction equipment, and vehicles that are required to make frequent stops from the requirement of wearing safety belts.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

A licensed physician shall not be liable for civil damages resulting directly or indirectly from providing, or refusing to provide, a written verification that a person under that physician's care is unable to wear an automotive safety belt.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. This act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification, or rejection, at the next succeeding general election to be held in this state, in accordance with Article II, section 1 of the state Constitution, as amended, and the laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof."

Debate ensued.

On page 2, on line 9, insert the following:

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Granlund, Senator Patterson suggested that there had been one fatality in the last ten years on school buses with no seat belts. Now you spoke to the fact that that was an excellent record. My question is, is that ratio to which you speak comparable to the ratio of the population at large?"

Senator Granlund: "I would say that if we had for the miles traveled and the number of vehicles out there and had a record, the number of passengers hauled were equitable or equivalent to one another, I would say that's a good record--yes--over a ten-year period."

Senator Moore: "That was not precisely my question. I'm asking for a comparison of the overall population--the rest of us who also are not wearing mandatory seat belts--is it comparable? Is it greater or is it less in the school sector than to the public sector?"

Senator Granlund: "I don't have the figure for the public sector, but I would have to assume with just reading the daily paper, it would tell me it's much less."

Senator Moore: "Which is much less?"

Senator Granlund: "The school traffic--"

Senator Moore: "But there is no evidence really--this is a feeling you have?"

Senator Granlund: "It's a study currently by the National Highway Traffic Safety Association, it would tell us that, yes."

Senator Moore: "Has the comparison been made?"

Senator Granlund: "I don't have the figures."

Senator Moore: "Thank you, very much."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Patterson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Talmadge, I had heard that there was an amendment coming along on this bill that might put the mandatory medicare assignment into it and I haven't had a chance to look at it; it just arrived on my desk. Does this have that in it?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, it does not."

Senator Metcalf: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Talmadge, the earlier version, as you say you did not adopt the committee amendment; there were some real concerns in that particular matter. Do you feel that between—you said your negotiations with the various parties, that all those concerns were met in terms of the subpoena power and the peer review on the DSHS section and so on?"

Senator Talmadge: "I believe I can say that's true. Senator Zimmerman, that the hospitals, the group health people, the medical association are supportive and some of the language that was originally recommended to us by the medical disciplinary board itself, remains in the bill. I think it's a very strong bill for medical discipline."

Senator Zimmerman: "Thank you."

Revising provisions relating to health insurance for public employees.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following Committee on Financial Institutions amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this subsection apply throughout this section.

(a) "Disabled employee" means an individual receiving a disability retirement allowance from the public employees' retirement system.

(b) "Health plan" means any contract, policy, fund, trust, or other program established by a county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state that provides for all or a part of hospitalization or medical aid for its employees and their eligible dependents pursuant to RCW 41.04.180.

(c) "Retired employee" means an individual who is a public employee covered under the public employees' retirement system with not less than five years of service at the date of retirement.

(d) "Supplemental plan" means an individual or group health plan designed primarily as a supplement to reimbursements under federal medicare for the hospital, medical, or surgical expenses of persons eligible for medicare by reason of age.

(e) "Person" means a retired or disabled employee.

(2) Any county, municipality, or other political subdivision that provides a health plan for its employees shall permit retired and disabled employees and their eligible dependents to continue participation in such plan subject to the exceptions, limitations, and conditions set forth in this section. However, this section does not apply to:

(a) A county, municipality, or other political subdivision participating in an insurance program administered under chapter 41.05 RCW if retired and disabled employees and their eligible dependents of such participating county, municipality, or other political subdivision are covered under an insurance program administered under chapter 41.05 RCW;

(b) Members of the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system under chapter 41.26 RCW; or

(c) Members of the first class cities' retirement system under chapter 41.28 RCW.

(3) A person who requests continued participation in their employer's health plan may be required to pay for such participation. However, such payment shall not exceed the rate, cost, or premium that is calculated for an active employee under the same plan. If the utilization of health plan benefits by those continuing participation in the health plan causes a greater than ten percent increase in the active employee rate or cost for the plan, then the rate or cost for those continuing participation in the health plan shall be adjusted to cover the costs in excess of the ten percent increase. However, no provision of this subsection shall be deemed to require any employer who is currently paying for all or part of a health plan for their retired and disabled employees and their eligible dependents from discontinuing those payments.

(4) When a person or his or her spouse continuing participation under a health plan becomes eligible for federal medicare, then health plan participation shall be terminated and the person or his or her spouse shall have the option of participating in a supplemental plan provided by the employer. Any payment required of the person or his or her spouse shall be modified to reflect cost differences between the health plan and the supplemental plan.

(5) Payments for continued participation in a former employer's health plan may be assigned to the underwriter of the health plan from public pension benefits or may be paid to the former employer, as determined by the former employer, so that an underwriter of the health plan that is an insurance company, health care service contractor, or health maintenance organization shall not be required to accept individual payments from persons continuing participation in the employer's health plan.

(6) There shall be a one time initial open enrollment period from May 1, 1986, to June 30, 1986. An employer shall not be required to permit a person to participate in the health plan if the person is responsible for a lapse in coverage under the plan. In addition, an employer shall not be required to permit a person to participate in the employer's health plan if the employer offered continued participation in a health plan with substantially similar benefits and at substantially the same price as that plan provided for active employees and the person failed to enroll in that plan at the time the person was retired or disabled.

(7) If a person continuing participation in the former employer's health plan has other medical coverage as a result of that person's employment or that person's spouse's employment, the other medical coverage shall be the primary coverage for purposes of coordination of benefits as provided for in the former employer's health plan.

(8) If an eligible dependent's continued participation in a health plan was permitted because of the person's relationship to a retired or disabled employee of the employer providing the health plan and the retired or disabled employee dies, then that eligible dependent shall be permitted to continue participation in the health plan for a period of not less than six months after the death of the retired or disabled employee.

(9) An employer may offer one or more health plans different from that provided for active employees and designed to meet the needs of persons requesting continued participation in the employer's health plan. These health plans for continued participation shall be provided at a rate, cost, or premium which does not exceed that provided for active employee health plans. An employer, in designing or offering continued participation in a health plan, may utilize terms or conditions necessary to administer such plans to the extent such terms and conditions do not conflict with this section.

(10) If an employer changes the underwriter of a health plan, the replaced underwriter has no further responsibility or obligation to persons who continued participation in a health plan of the replaced underwriter. However, the employer shall permit such persons to participate in any new health plan.

(11) The benefits granted pursuant to this section shall not be considered a matter of contractual right. Should the legislature revoke or change or a county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state change any benefits granted under this section, an affected person shall not be entitled thereafter to receive the benefits as a matter of contractual right.

(12) Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to affect any health plan contained in a collective bargaining agreement in existence as of the effective date of this act. However, any plan contained in future collective bargaining agreements shall conform to the provisions of this section. In addition, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to affect any health plan contract or policy in existence as of the effective date of this act, except any renewal of the contract or policy shall conform to the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Participation in the health plans provided under section 1 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1987, for all self-insured plans and for all plans renewed on or after September 1, 1986. Participation in health plans provided under section 1 of this act which are renewed after the effective date of this act but prior to September 1, 1986, shall take effect on the date the plan is next renewed, but in no case later than January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, a point of order. When this was read in on the last day, there was some problem with the notification given for the final hearing of the bill. We raised the point of order that this was in violation of Rule 45. I wonder if you would rule on that?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator McDonald. In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator McDonald regarding Substitute House Bill No. 1457, the President believes that the Financial Institutions Committee had previously heard Substitute House Bill No. 1457 on February 20, 1986, and followed the proper committee procedures regarding public notice. The President believes that it is a common practice in the Senate to have executive sessions on bills previously heard in committee, therefore, the President believes that Substitute House Bill No. 1457 is properly before the Senate."

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Financial Institutions amendment be adopted:

On page 2, of the amendment, line 31, after "RCW" strike all the material down to and including "RCW" on line 34

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator McDermott to the Committee on Financial Institutions amendment.

The motion by Senator McDermott failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, a point of order. In 1984, we passed a law dealing with the mandated health care coverage that's contained in RCWs 48.42.060 through 080. It says that you will have an impact statement—we're talking about both the social and financial impact of a piece of legislation like this. My understanding is that neither one of these were prepared for this bill and consequently we are in violation of 48.42.060 through 080.

"I wonder if you would rule on that and see if this bill is properly before us?"

REPLY AND RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That's for the members to make, not the Lieutenant Governor."

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, I guess I am saying that we do have RCWs—laws that do cover that—that we have not gone through the proper procedure. Are you saying then, that if we are in violation of that, this is properly before us?"

President Cherberg: "The President only deals in scopes and objects, Senator."

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, I'm not scoping the amendment, I'm talking about the condition of the bill."

President Cherberg: "If you're looking for advice, I advise you to use it as an argument on the floor."

Senator McDonald: "Then you are saying that it isn't properly before us?"

President Cherberg: "I'll have to consult with the Secretary of the Senate."

"The Secretary advises that the proper procedure has been followed in presenting the amendment and that is as far as the Secretary of the Senate and the President can go."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1457 was deferred.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1631, by Representatives Braddock, Tilly, B. Williams and Brække (by request of Department of Social and Health Services)

Modifying provisions relating to nursing home cost reimbursement.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator McDermott moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 36, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 and RCW 74.46.360 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The depreciation base shall be the historical cost of the contractor or lessor, when the assets are leased by the contractor, in acquiring the asset in an arm's-length transaction and preparing it for use, less goodwill, and less accumulated depreciation which has been incurred during periods that the assets have been used in or as a facility by the contractor, such accumulated depreciation to be measured in accordance with subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section and RCW 74.46.350 and 74.46.370. If the department challenges the historical cost of an asset, or if the contractor cannot or will not provide the historical costs, the department will have the department of general administration, through an appraisal procedure, determine the fair market value of the assets at the time of purchase. The depreciation base of the assets will not exceed such fair market value.

(2) The historical cost of donated assets, or of assets received through testate or intestate distribution, shall be the lesser of:

(a) Fair market value at the date of donation or death; or

(b) The historical cost base of the owner last contracting with the department, if any.

(3) Estimated salvage value of acquired, donated, or inherited assets shall be deducted from historical cost where the straight-line or sum-of-the-years' digits method of depreciation is used.

(4) (a) Where depreciable assets are acquired that were used in the medical care program subsequent to January 1, 1980, the depreciation base of the assets will not exceed the net book value which did exist or would have existed had the assets continued in use under the previous contract with the department; except that depreciation shall not be assumed to accumulate during periods when the assets were not in use in or as a facility.

(b) ~~((Subparagraph (4)))~~ The provisions of (a) of this subsection shall not apply to the most recent arm's-length acquisition if it occurs at least ten years after the ownership of the assets has been previously transferred in an arm's-length transaction nor to the first arm's-length acquisition that occurs after January 1, 1980, for facilities participating in the medical care program prior to January 1, 1980. The new depreciation base for such acquisitions shall not exceed the fair market value of the assets as determined by the department of general administration through an appraisal procedure. A determination by the department of general administration of fair market value shall be final unless the procedure used to make such determination is shown to be arbitrary and capricious. This subsection is inoperative for any transfer of ownership of any asset occurring on or after July 18, 1984, leaving (a) of this subsection to apply alone to such transfers: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall apply to transfers of ownership of assets occurring prior to January 1, 1985, if the costs of such assets have never been reimbursed under medicaid cost reimbursement on an owner-operated basis.

(c) Where depreciable assets are acquired from a related organization, the contractor's depreciation base shall not exceed the base the related organization had or would have had under a contract with the department.

(d) Where the depreciable asset is a donation or distribution between related organizations, the base shall be the lesser of (i) fair market value, less salvage value, or (ii) the depreciation base the related organization had or would have had for the asset under a contract with the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislative budget committee shall conduct a study of the changes in the state reimbursement system for nursing homes, RCW 74.46.840, resulting from requirements of the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 1984, (DEFRA) (P.L. 98-369). The study shall include analysis of the effects of these changes on: (1) Nursing home sales since July 18, 1984, the effective date of DEFRA; (2) capital formation for nursing home purchases and sales; and (3) leased nursing homes. The study shall also review adjustments other states may be making as a result of DEFRA. The legislative budget committee shall report the results of this study, including recommendations for any needed legislation, to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives by December 1, 1986."

Senator Goltz moved that the following amendment by Senators Goltz and Bluechel to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 4, after line 27 of the Ways and Means striking amendment, insert the following:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If ownership of a nursing home is conveyed on or before October 1, 1984, pursuant to an agreement entered into after July 1, 1984, the agreement shall be deemed legally enforceable under state law for the purposes of property reimbursement under federal law notwithstanding the absence of a legal description of the property in the agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Goltz and Bluechel to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of House Bill No. 1631 was deferred.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1839 and the pending amendment on page 3, line 10, by Senators Bauer, McManus, Conner, DeJarnatt, Owen, Halsan, Barr, von Reichbauer, Hansen, Metcalf, Garrett, Peterson, Newhouse, Rasmussen, Vognild, Sellar, McCaslin, Cantu, Guess, Bailey, Benitz, Goltz, Granlund, Warnke, Moore and Bottiger, deferred March 6, 1986.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator McDermott, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1839 is a measure expanding from five to six members by adding an elected county official to the Board of Natural Resources.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Bauer, McManus, Conner, DeJarnatt, Owen, Halsan, Barr, von Reichbauer, Hansen, Metcalf, Garrett, Peterson, Newhouse, Rasmussen, Vognild, Sellar, McCaslin, Cantu, Guess, Bailey, Benitz, Goltz, Granlund, Warnke, Moore and Bottiger requires timber from public lands to be sold on a sustainable yield basis.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Bauer and others was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendment by Senators McDermott, Bauer and Barr be adopted:

On page 3, after line 10, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of natural resources.

(2) "Sustainable harvest level" means the volume of timber offered for harvest from public lands for any period as calculated by the department of natural resources and adopted by the board of natural resources.

(3) "Defaulted" means the volume remaining when a contractor fails to meet the terms of the sales contract at the completion date of the contract or any extension thereof and timber returned to the state under RCW 79.01.1331 through 79.01.1339.

(4) "Deficit" means all timber defaulted or otherwise terminated and returned to the department from July 1, 1979, until June 30, 1986, plus any difference between the sustainable harvest level and the actual board sales level during the period from July 1, 1980, through June 30, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In order to take advantage of favorable interest rates enhancing the housing market, the department shall offer for sale, within proper forest management principles, the deficit timber sales volume in addition to the annual sustainable harvest level as adopted by the board of natural resources. After deductions for management costs as provided in RCW 79.64.040, all moneys received from the sale of the deficit timber volume on lands held in trust for the common schools shall be deposited in the common school construction fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections ... and ... of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 79 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections ... and ... of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McDermott, my understanding that there are several of those timber contracts--large ones--Weyerhaeuser--and I don't know how many others that have not settled yet on the timber that they bought. A lot of that money will go into the common school fund. Can you tell us what's happening in that? The price of lumber is going up. The stumpage price is going up; business is starting to boom out there. We should be able to recover that money for the common school fund right now. What's doing?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Rasmussen, I don't have the exact figures, but I do know that they have made settlement with most of the large companies. I think there is only one very, very large company that has not yet settled with the state of Washington. It may turn out that with prices rising, they may decide to take and cut the timber and get the money we need."

Senator Rasmussen: "What company is that?"

Senator McDermott: "It's a very, very, very large timber company."

Senator Rasmussen: "You have no knowledge of the name of it?"

Senator McDermott: "Well, I think it begins with a 'W.'"

Senator Rasmussen: "Oh, thank you."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lee: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendment substantially is beyond the scope and object. It is very similar except for a line or two to the amendment that you have just ruled out of scope and object on this same bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1839 was deferred.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, and there being no objection, the Senate continued consideration of Substitute House Bill 1839 and the pending amendment by Senators McDermott, Bauer and Barr on page 3, line 10, deferred earlier today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, and there being no objection, the amendment was withdrawn.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the following amendment by Senators Gaspard, Lee, von Reichbauer and Bender be adopted:

On page 1, after line 23, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Legislature finds that the practices of the Board of Natural Resources have a major impact on the timber industry of the state of Washington and consequently effect the common school construction fund. Providing for common school plant facilities and modernization of existing common school plant facilities is beneficial to the students of the state of Washington and the economy of our state, in particular the timber industry. The Board of Natural Resources is directed to be cognizant of these benefits in its deliberations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. For the purpose of furnishing funds for state assistance to school districts in providing common school plant facilities and modernization of existing common school plant facilities and to provide for the state administrative costs of such projects, including costs of bond issuance and retirement, salaries, and related costs of officials and employees of the state, costs of credit enhancement agreements, and other expenses incidental to the administration of capital projects, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of thirty million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance these projects and all costs incidental thereto. Bonds authorized in this section may be sold at such price as the state finance committee shall determine. The state finance committee may obtain insurance or letters of credit and may authorize the execution and delivery of agreements, promissory notes, and other obligations for the purpose of insuring the payment or enhancing the marketability of bonds authorized in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized in section 2 of this act shall be deposited in the common school construction fund and shall be used exclusively for the purposes specified in this section and section 2 of this act and for the payment of expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds. These proceeds shall be administered by the state board of education in any fiscal year to provide state assistance for primary and secondary school construction and modernization projects: (1) Which would not receive state assistance under state board allocation rules in effect January 1, 1986, from funds other than the proceeds of these bonds, and (2) for which state assistance is limited to the state matching percentage calculated pursuant to RCW 28A.47.803(2); PROVIDED, That districts which had, prior to September 30, 1985, received preliminary state board approval for state assistance for a project involving new construction in lieu of modernization shall not suffer any change in the priority status of the project nor the amount of assistance for which the district is eligible, in the case that the district modernizes rather than replaces the facility and the following conditions are met:

(a) The school district has calculated the life-cycle cost of modernization; and

(b) The life-cycle cost of modernization is less than or equal to the cost of meeting the same need through new construction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The state general obligation bond retirement fund shall be used for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized in section 2 of this act. The state finance committee may provide that a special account be created in such fund to facilitate payment of principal and interest.

The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months to meet the bond retirement and interest requirements. Not less than thirty days before the date on which any interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the general obligation bond retirement fund, or a special account in that fund, an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee to be due on the payment date.

Bonds issued under section 2 of this act shall state that they are a general obligation of the state of Washington, shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest as the same shall become due.

The owner and holder of each of the bonds or the trustee for the owner and holder of any of the bonds may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require the transfer and payment of funds as directed in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The legislature may provide additional means for raising moneys for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized in section 2 of this act, and section 4 of this act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method for the payment. To this end a joint select committee on school construction is created to study financing of common school capital projects.

(1) The committee shall be composed of the following members:

(a) Three members from each caucus of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. At least one member shall be from the education committee, at least one member shall be from the natural resources committee and at least one member shall be from the ways and means committee;

(b) Three members from each caucus of the senate appointed by the president of the senate. At least one member shall be from the education committee, at least one member shall be from the natural resources committee and at least one member shall be from the ways and means committee;

(c) The committee shall select a chairman from among its members.

(2) The joint select committee shall study and make recommendations to the legislature on the following topics:

(a) The long-term funding capacity of the common school construction fund;

(b) Alternative revenue or financing options for support of common school construction projects;

(c) State priorities for the equitable allocation of available construction funds, including methods for determining eligibility for state assistance and calculating state support; and

(d) Methods for encouraging efficient application of resources made available by the legislature for school construction.

(3) The joint select committee shall submit a report of its findings and final recommendations to the legislature no later than December 15, 1986, and shall expire April 1, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The bonds authorized in section 3 of this act shall be a legal investment for all state funds or funds under state control and for all funds of any other public body.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 3 through 7 of this act are each added to chapter 43.99G RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, I raise the point that the amendment expands the scope and object of the bill. This bill started out as a little bill to add a county official to the Board of Natural Resources. The amendment we have before us puts on thirty million dollars worth of school bonds and requires a sixty percent vote to pass. I can't imagine a bill that could expand it much more than that."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gaspard, and there being no objection, the amendment on page 1, line 23, by Senators Gaspard, Lee, von Reichbauer, and Bender was withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1839 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Reducing compensation for disability by the amount of unemployment benefits.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 686 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Warnke, this bill--apparently if you were getting compensation from unemployment and you are getting compensation from industrial insurance, it prevents you from getting both?"

Senator Warnke: "Getting both at the same time."

Senator Rasmussen: "This doesn't have a limit on what the man was earning before he became disabled and because of his disability? It may have been partial disability. He couldn't handle the same job--like if he was a steel worker and I am wondering--and I presume you worked it out--on either industrial insurance or disability benefits, you don't get the full wages that you need to support your family--you only get partial. Is this going to reduce it further?"

Senator Warnke: "Senator Rasmussen, this will affect about one percent. When the study was done, they went through the records and found that people were drawing unemployment compensation at the same time they were drawing workman's compensation. It wasn't intended to be that way and the bill takes care of the problem."

Senator Rasmussen: "I'm not sure that it does. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWHOUSE

Senator Newhouse: "To directly answer Senator Rasmussen's question, this applies only to total disability, either permanent or temporary, but total and not for partial."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "To add upon that. For one to be totally disabled, one must be disabled from all gainful employment. To get unemployment compensation benefits, you have to be actively seeking employment. If a person were receiving worker's compensation benefits and unemployment compensation, they would possibly be guilty of a crime under the Industrial Insurance Act."

The director shall have the authority to issue a notice of civil infraction if an infraction is committed in his or her presence or, if after investigation, the director has reasonable cause to believe an infraction has been committed. It shall be a misdemeanor for any person to refuse to properly identify himself or herself for the purpose of issuance of a notice of infraction or to refuse to sign the written promise to appear or respond to a notice of infraction. Any person willfully violating a written and signed promise to respond to a notice of infraction shall be guilty of a misdemeanor regardless of the disposition of the notice of infraction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 20.01 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any person who receives a notice of infraction shall respond to such notice as provided in this section within fifteen days of the date of the notice.

(2) Any employee or agent of a licensee under this chapter is fully authorized to accept a notice of infraction on behalf of the licensee. The director shall also furnish a copy of the notice of infraction to the licensee by certified mail within five days of issuance.

(3) If the person determined to have committed the infraction does not contest the determination, that person shall respond by completing the appropriate portion of the notice of infraction and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. A check or money order in the amount of the penalty prescribed for the infraction must be submitted with the response. When a response, which does not contest the determination, is received, an appropriate order shall be entered into the courts record and a record of the response shall be furnished to the director.

(4) If a person determined to have committed the infraction wishes to contest the determination, that person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of the infraction requesting a hearing and submitted either by mail or in person to the court specified in the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and the date of the hearing which shall not be sooner than fifteen days from the date of the notice, except by agreement.

(5) If the person determined to have committed the infraction does not contest the determination, but wishes to explain mitigating circumstances surrounding the infraction, the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of infraction requesting a hearing for that purpose and submitting it either by mail or in person to the court specified in the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place and date of the hearing.

(6) If a person issued a notice of infraction fails to respond to the notice of infraction or fails to appear at the hearing requested pursuant to this section, the court shall enter an appropriate order in assessing the monetary penalty prescribed in the schedule of penalties submitted to the court by the director and shall notify the director of the failure to respond to the notice of infraction or to appear at a requested hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 20.01 RCW to read as follows:

A hearing held for the purpose of contesting the determination that an infraction has been committed shall be held without jury. The court may consider the notice of infraction and any other written report submitted by the director. The person named in the notice may subpoena witnesses and has the right to present evidence and examine witnesses present in court. The burden of proof is upon the state to establish the commission of the infraction by preponderance of evidence.

After consideration of the evidence and argument, the court shall determine whether the infraction was committed. Where it is not established that the infraction was committed, an order dismissing the notice shall be entered in the court's record. When it is established that the infraction was committed, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's record, a copy of which shall be furnished to the director. Appeal from the court's determination or order shall be to the superior court and must be appealed within ten days. The decision of the superior court is subject only to discretionary review pursuant to Rule 2.3 of the rules of appellate procedure.

A hearing held for the purpose of allowing a person to explain mitigating circumstances surrounding the commission of an infraction shall be an informal proceeding. The person named in the notice may not subpoena witnesses. The determination that the infraction has been committed may not be contested at a hearing held for the purpose of explaining circumstances. After the court has heard the explanation of the circumstances surrounding the commission of the infraction, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's record. A copy of the order shall be furnished to the director. There may be no appeal from the court's determination or order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 20.01 RCW to read as follows:

Any person found to have committed a civil infraction under this chapter shall be assessed a monetary penalty. No monetary penalty so assessed may exceed one thousand dollars. The director shall adopt a schedule of monetary penalties for each violation of this chapter classified as a civil infraction and shall submit the schedule to the proper courts. Whenever a monetary penalty is imposed by the court, the penalty is immediately due and payable. The court may, at its discretion, grant an extension of time, not to exceed thirty days, in which the penalty must be paid. Failure to pay any monetary penalties imposed under this chapter shall be punishable as a misdemeanor.
