MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
VETO MESSAGE ON ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 7902

March 6, 1997

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 7902 entitled:
"AN ACT Relating to lowering business and occupation tax rates;"

This legislation would reduce the business and occupation (B&O) tax rates on services to the pre-1993 level of 1.5 percent. In addition, the B&O tax credit for research and development is made consistent with the B&O tax rates established in this bill. This legislation would reduce General Fund revenues by $193.3 million for the 1997-99 biennium.

I believe Washington's citizens deserve reasonable, fair and sustainable tax reform that does not jeopardize future investments in education and public safety, and that tax reform should also provide for the maintenance of a healthy economy for future generations. I would have preferred to roll back the B&O tax to pre-1993 levels beginning July 1, 1997. However, this bill, in combination with previously proposed property tax legislation, reduces the General Fund-State revenues by more than $400 million in the 1997-99 biennium. The size of the total reduction is not compatible with my proposed budget for state spending, which balances revenues and expenses. Enactment of Senate Bill No. 7902 would require reductions in my proposed enhancements in education, further reductions in human services, or a lower ending fund balance, all of which I do not support.

I am committed to reducing the B&O tax to pre-1993 rates, and have introduced Senate Bill No. 6024 which would do so beginning July 1, 1998. My legislation would reduce revenues by $94.3 million in the 1997-99 biennium, an integral part of my tax reduction and budget plan.

In light of the many other tax-cut proposals suggested by the Legislature and my own priority on education, Senate Bill No. 6024 is the most reasonable way to achieve the B&O tax rollback.

For these reasons I have vetoed Engrossed Senate Bill No. 7902, and urge you to support Senate Bill No. 6024.

Respectfully submitted,
GARY LOCKE, Governor

MOTION

On motion of Senator Johnson, the Veto Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 7902 was held on the desk.

SENATE BILL NO. 5163, by Senators Haugen and Schow

Filing financing statements.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Winsley moved that the following amendments by Senator Kline be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 1, line 13, after "lapse.", strike "At the time of" and insert, "Immediately following a date which is four and one-half years after" On page 1, line 15, after "statement.", insert the following: "Failure to provide this notice does not give rise to a cause of action against the state or its officers or employees." Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senator Kline on page 1, lines 13 and 15, to Senate Bill No. 5163.

The motion by Senator Winsley carried and the amendments by Senator Kline were adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Winsley, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5163 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5163.

EDITOR'S NOTE: See Personal Privilege remarks by Senator Sellar, later in the day, for further remarks on the history of the Senate.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE

Senator Snyder: "Mr. President, I rise to a point--I guess I'll call it historical significance. The 1927 Legislature convened in the old building down town and they spent the first fifty-six days there. On March 7, 1927, which happened to be the fifty-seventh day instead of what we are on--the fifty-fourth, they convened in the building down town at nine o'clock and recessed and marched up the hill and reconvened in a joint session in the Senate. It was raining like hell, but I remember it cleared off and was sunny as we came up the hill.

"I just thought that we should note that they did come up and they had a joint session in the Senate Chambers. The journal is rather vague, except that the Governor spoke and all the members of the Capitol Committee and they had a University of Washington group that sang songs and so forth. I went back in the manuals and in the journals and dug a little thing. There were ninety-seven members in the House. Eighty-eight of them were Republicans, eight were Democrats and there was one Progressive. In the Senate, there were forty Republicans and two Democrats. I don't know which was the minority leader and which one was the caucus chair. It doesn't say that. There were thirty-two farmers in the House and one of them called himself a city farmer. Irv, I don't know what a city farmer is. There were twelve farmers in the Senate. They had fifteen attorneys in the House and nine in the Senate. The first woman elected to the Senate and serving, from Spokane, was a lady by the name of Reba Hurn. She had been elected four years prior to that.

"There were a few names that you might know--some of us who have been around--Irv and myself. There was a twenty-two year old member in the House of Representatives from Rainier, Washington, a fellow by the name of Chester Blesen. Chester lobbied around here for a lot of years for the city of Seattle, after that. The chairman of the Appropriations Committee in the House was a fellow by the name of Goldsworthy. His son later served in the Legislature. Vic Zednick was Secretary of the Senate. Vic was later a member here and he was a member of the House back in about 1911 or 1913. There was a gentleman by the name of John Jones that served from Waterville. I remember John Jones; he was a member over the years--for a lot of years. They called him Jack Rabbit Jones and I remember he told me about when they walked up the hill, they carried their bill books. They must not have had very many bills introduced in those days if they could carry their bill books up the hill.

"I just thought that probably today shouldn't pass without mentioning this. By the way, I mentioned Chester Blesen was twenty-two, yet the youngest member in the Senate, that session, was forty-one and there was only one member over seventy and that was seventy-four. The rest of them were in that forty, fifty, sixty category.

"At 10:00 o'clock, seventy years ago today is when they first met in this building in a joint session in the Senate. Thank you."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Thank you, Senator Snyder. What position did you hold at that time?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR LOVELAND

Senator Loveland: "Thank you, Mr. President. I am a history buff myself and one of the things that I am most concerned about is us losing the information and losing the perspective of what goes on here. Therefore, Mr. President, I would ask that Senator Snyder's remarks be spread across the Journal."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Hearing no objection, so ordered. It is our intent to put Senator Snyder in the archives, as well."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOOD

Senator Wood: "Thank you, Mr. President. I just wanted to add one little piece to what Senator Snyder said about Reba Hurn, the first woman Senator. At the end of her term, the gentlemen in the Senate--the Senators--gave her a diamond pin for keeping her place and acting like a lady."

REMARKS BY SENATOR McCASLIN

Senator McCaslin: "Thank you, Mr. President. Senator Snyder, it was really nice to bring that information to us. You talked about that forty to two ratio and I sat here and drooled--you know, wishful thinking. Really, I am curious about how did that guy get the name Jack Rabbit?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOJAHN

Senator Wojahn: "Thank you, Mr. President. Speaking about Reba Hurn from Spokane--she became a senior member of the Senate and wanted a spot on the Rules Committee, as I remember the history of this. The gentlemen on Rules said, 'You wouldn't like to be on Rules, because we put our feet on the desk and we spit on the floor and in the spittoons and sometimes miss and we smoke cigars. But she insisted on being on it. She was a ranking member, so they reduced the number on the Rules Committee, so there was one less, so she couldn't get on. Then, they made her chairman of drainage, dikes and ditches, but they didn't give her any bills, so that is the story of Reba Hurn, one of our first women in the State Legislature."

MOTION

At 9:21 a.m., on motion of Senator Johnson, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 10:10 a.m. by President Owen.

SECOND READING CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9125, Annette Sandberg, as Chief of the Washington State Patrol, was confirmed.

Senators McCaslin, Hale, Wood, Prentice, Rasmussen, Thibaudeau and Roach spoke to the confirmation of Annette Sandberg as Chief of the Washington State Patrol.

APPOINTMENT OF ANNETTE SANDBERG

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the following vote: Yeas, 47; Nays, 1; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bauer, Benton, Brown, Deccio, Fairley, Finkbeiner, Franklin, Fraser, Goings, Hale, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hochstatter, Horn, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kline, Kohl, Long, Loveland, McAuliffe, McCaslin, McDonald, Morton, Newhouse, Oke, Patterson, Prentice, Rasmussen, Roach, Rossi, Schow, Sellar, Sheldon, Snyder, Spanel, Stevens, Strannigan, Swanson, Swecker, Thibaudeau, Winsley, Wojahn, Wood and Zarelli - 47. Voting nay: Senator West - 1. Excused: Senator Prince - 1.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5033, by Senator Roach

Providing a rebuttable presumption that the possessor of stolen access devices, checks, or drafts has knowledge that they are stolen.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Roach, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5033 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5033 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Roach, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 6, after line 3, insert the following: "Sec. 4. RCW 9A.56.040 and 1995 c 129 s 12 are each amended to read as follows: (1) A person is guilty of theft in the second degree if he or she commits theft of: (a) Property or services which exceed(s) two hundred and fifty dollars in value other than a firearm as defined in RCW 9.41.010, but does not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars in value; or (b) A public record, writing, or instrument kept, filed, or deposited according to law with or in the keeping of any public office or public servant; or (c) An access device; or (d) A motor vehicle, of a value less than one thousand five hundred dollars; or (e) A check or draft. (2) Theft in the second degree is a class C felony." Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

MOTION

Senator Fairley moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 6, beginning on line 4, strike all of section 4 Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Fairley on page 6, beginning on line 4, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5033.

The motion by Senator Fairley failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Roach, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "9A.56.140," strike "and 9A.56.010" and insert "9A.56.010, and 9A.56.040" On motion of Senator Roach, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5033 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Franklin: "Senator Roach, I carry checks with different numbers in my possession all of the time. How would this affect me?"

Senator Roach: "Senator Franklin, presumedly, those checks have your name or the account of something that you would control. So, it would be no problem, at all, for you. We are talking about, for instance, an individual driving a car pulled over for, maybe a traffic infraction, and someone just glances in the back seat and sees a pile of checks which is something that occurs often. If the checks have multiple references, in terms of the bank numbers--obviously, these checks did not belong to the person driving the car and they are not a store keeper on the way to the bank. We need to crack down on this. I am with you. I have, probably five different accounts--my husband and I, myself, my campaign, and so forth and so forth. Many people share that, but those are our accounts. If they have been sold--and those accounts are not yours--it is a very serious offense.

"Remember, there is more money lost in this fashion than with credit cards theft. To mention one more thing, all of law enforcement is supporting this bill. Every law enforcement agency in the state of Washington--the Washington State Association of Prosecuting Attorneys and financial institutions are also supporting this bill."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Roach, you are going beyond answering the question. Members can only speak once."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Loveland: "Senator Roach, did I hear you say that the Prosecutor's Association supported this?"

Senator Roach: "My recollection is 'yes,' and I have down in my notes, the Washington State Association of Prosecuting Attorneys were in favor of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5033.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5033 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; Nays, 10; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bauer, Benton, Deccio, Finkbeiner, Franklin, Fraser, Goings, Hale, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hochstatter, Horn, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kohl, Long, McCaslin, McDonald, Morton, Newhouse, Oke, Patterson, Rasmussen, Roach, Rossi, Schow, Sellar, Sheldon, Snyder, Stevens, Strannigan, Swecker, West, Winsley, Wood and Zarelli - 38. Voting nay: Senators Brown, Fairley, Kline, Loveland, McAuliffe, Prentice, Spanel, Swanson, Thibaudeau and Wojahn - 10. Excused: Senator Prince - 1. ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5033, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Wojahn, all the remarks on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5075 will be spread on the Journal.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5075, by Senators Swecker and Rasmussen

Regulating use activities.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Swecker, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5075 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5075 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

MOTION BY SENATOR SWECKER

Senator Swecker: "I move that the following amendment be adopted:
On page 1, line 16, after "area" strike "of equal size"

REMARKS BY SENATOR SWECKER

Senator Swecker: "Thank you, Mr. President. The underlying bill directs the counties and local jurisdictions to set aside certain lands for aquaculture to occur. One of the criticisms of the bill was that it was too restrictive in terms of the county's options, so I am striking the words 'of equal size; to give the counties a lot more flexibility in how they actually perform this duty, and I urge your support of the amendment."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Swecker on page 1, line 16, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5075.

The motion by Senator Swecker carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION BY SENATOR SPANEL

Senator Spanel: "I move adoption of the following amendment by Senators Spanel and Haugen:

On page 1, line 6, strike everything beginning with "is" through "permits." on page 2, line 5, and insert the following: "is dependent on the use of the water area. Potential locations for aquaculture are relatively restricted due to specific requirements for water quality, temperature, flows, oxygen content, adjacent land uses, wind protection, commercial navigation, and, in marine waters, salinity. Local shoreline master plans should therefore recognize the potential impact of aquaculture on existing uses and natural systems. (2) The legislature further finds that: (a) aquacultural activities and structures should be located in areas where the navigational access of upland owners, recreational boaters and commercial traffic is not significantly restricted. Recognition should be given to the possible detrimental impact aquacultural development might have on the visual access of upland owners and on the general aesthetic quality of the shoreline area; (b) aquacultural development may adversely impact the value of shorefront properties, and the value of such real property may be the principal asset for many Washington residents; (c) as aquaculture technology expands with increasing knowledge and experience, emphasis should be placed on structures which do not significantly interfere with navigation or impair the aesthetic quality of Washington shorelines; and (d) water surface, column, and bedland areas suitable for aquaculture are limited to certain sites. These sites are subject to pressures from competing uses and degradation of water quality. The shoreline program is intended to provide a comprehensive land and water use plan which will reduce these conflicts and provide for appropriate uses. Therefore, a special effort should be made through the shoreline management program to identify and resolve resource use conflicts and resource management issues in regard to use of identified sites."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SPANEL

Senator Spanel: "This amendment is offered to try to make the bill a little bit better, in fact, a lot better. In statute right now, under the shoreline management plan, there are water dependent uses of the shorelines that is a preferred use. Those particular preferred uses are then addressed further in WACs. What this bill does, is put part of the WACs into statute. What this amendment does is put some more of the WACs into statute which would clarify the uses of, some definitions, about aquaculture.

"For any of you who represent shoreline, people living on shoreline properties, counties that have shorelines, shoreline property, this bill should be of much interest to you. And if we are going to pass it, it is essential that this amendment pass, as it will define some potential locations for aquaculture, some different definitions of what counties need to look at when they do their master programs. I ask for your support of this amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SWECKER

Senator Swecker: "Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in opposition to this amendment. Many of the provisions that are contained in this amendment are highly directive toward local master program planning. And again, it's my intent with the legislation, to give the local governments the maximum amount of flexibility. I think it's inappropriate for us to superimpose these kinds of requirements on local government, and I urge you oppose--vote 'no'--on this amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAUGEN

Senator Haugen: "Thank you, Mr. President. Well, I would encourage you to vote for this amendment. I think few people realize that this bill is probably one of the biggest mandates we're going to be putting on local government, but it is truly unfunded. Now, the way the bill is drafted, it says that they must revisit the shoreline management amendments. I asked the Department of Ecology how many times do they amend their shorelines plans. Well, actually, of the two hundred and forty cities and counties in the state that have shoreline management plans, about twenty to twenty-five of them amend them every year. This bill says that if you do that, then you first before you do anything, no matter whether it's to put in a port or anything else, you first must go back and deal with your aquaculture amendment, and make sure that you allow for siting. Well, now, our good friend will say that that is not a problem.

"Well, I want to share with you my file. Here's my file on just Skagit County, alone--Skagit County alone. It is a huge process that Skagit County has to go through. They have to have public hearings, and believe me, they're not pleasant public hearings. They have to adopt these and then they go to the Shoreline Management Board, and then, in fact, Skagit County. After two years, they are now in court. They are now in court. It is a huge impact for a county to go through this process. This bill says, 'Folks, you've got to go through it. Anytime you make any kind of revision to your shoreline plan, you've got to go through this process again.' Now, for many of you who do not represent areas that are surrounded by water, this doesn't mean much to you, but this is a huge mandate. This amendment truly does help local government. It will take the sting out, but it also takes the mandate out. I urge your support."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KLINE

Senator Kline: "Thank you, Mr. President. It's ironic that we often hear from the other side of the aisle that growth management, as it's presently constituted, is primarily directed towards local government. The fact is that the growth management act has historically allowed--historically in the last four to six years--allowed local governments to choose those areas in which they're going to have greater environmental protections and those areas in which they'll allow greater density. To say that this amendment is highly directive of local government is to forget what is being amended out. Let me read, for example, from section 3 of the language which would be amended out under this amendment: 'Each local government shall revise the local master program to comply with this. Any other amendments to the local master program shall be held in abeyance until the master program is revised to comply with this section.' In other words, whatever other local problems you have that you're dealing with in your current local program, forget about it until you deal first with aquaculture.

"I understand that there is some sympathy for the feeling that growth management as it's proceeded on the state level is a little too directive. But that's the evil which this amendment seeks to cure. It's the language of the bill that is so highly directive against local government's flexibility. I certainly urge a 'yes' vote on the amendment. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SPANEL

Senator Spanel: "To close debate on this amendment. It is really important. If you look at that basic bill, Subsection 2 says, 'No master program may prohibit aquaculture uses or structures.' I don't know of any that do. Two of the counties--all three counties that I represent have revised their shoreline master programs. They all allow room for aquaculture. There could be some area that there would be no places allowed, because you have to look at water quality, you have to look at the use of the area, because when we talk about preferred use we are talking about a lot of uses, not just aquaculture. We're talking about recreational boating, we're talking about tug boats. We're talking about the economic and the commerce of this state. And so to say in statute, aquaculture is the preferred use, it's a major change to state law and the Shoreline Management Act. I urge you to support this amendment."

Senator Spanel demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senators Spanel and Haugen on page 1, line 6, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5075.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 23; Nays, 25; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Brown, Fairley, Franklin, Fraser, Goings, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Jacobsen, Kline, Kohl, Loveland, McAuliffe, Patterson, Prentice, Rasmussen, Sheldon, Snyder, Spanel, Swanson, Thibaudeau and Wojahn - 23. Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Benton, Deccio, Finkbeiner, Hale, Hochstatter, Horn, Johnson, Long, McCaslin, McDonald, Morton, Newhouse, Oke, Roach, Rossi, Schow, Sellar, Stevens, Strannigan, Swecker, West, Winsley, Wood and Zarelli - 25. Excused: Senator Prince - 1.

MOTION

Senator Morton: "I move that the rules be suspended and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5075 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT OWEN

President Owen: "Senator Morton has moved that the rules be suspended and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5075 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill be placed on final passage. Hearing no objection, so ordered."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MORTON

Senator Morton: "Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, as we have more and more of our agricultural land impacted because of various problems, we're going to begin to need more and more of aquaculture enhanced. This is a bill that does that. This is a matter worldwide, not just with our own state. We are blessed in our state with a beautiful Puget Sound area that is very scenic, but also very useful. I would encourage, then, your yes vote on this bill as we begin to cultivate the aquaculture industry, and make this state a much more business friendly state. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRASER

Senator Fraser: "Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Senate, I urge a 'no' vote on this bill. This bill is both a special interest bill and an anti local government bill. Why is it special interest? It's special interest because it gives one use, net pens, priority over all other uses in some areas of our waters. It competes with other uses like boating, and other purposes of our beautiful marine waters. The other reason is it's anti local government. Why is it anti local government? Because it takes away the traditional discretion that local jurisdictions have to plan their shorelines under our Shoreline Management Act. This says not only that you can't prohibit net pens, it also says that if you have an effect of not allowing them, you must amend your shoreline management plan to allow them. Not only do you have to amend it, but it goes to the head of the list. Local government has to amend it to allow these before it amends it to allow for anything else. I think that's special interest and anti local government. It eliminates local discretion. I urge a 'no' vote."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SWECKER

Senator Swecker: "Thank you, Mr. President. I rise to speak in favor of the legislation. The legislation is actually very permissive to local government. I think the real issue is that in a number of counties shoreline residents don't want to have net pen facilities sited in front of their property--their homes. I think that's a legitimate concern. In a number of cases, that concern has been taken to the extreme by local government, and they virtually excluded aquaculture from their shoreline master program.

"This bill simply says that if you are going to exclude aquaculture from some areas that you're planning for, then, at least you must indicate where aquaculture is permitted. It doesn't restrict the amount of exclusion that can be made by a county, it doesn't dictate how much area must be designated where aquaculture is permitted. It just says that if there are suitable areas where the county can designate that aquaculture is permitted, that they must do that. The idea that we're requiring local government to amend their master program is a fallacy. In fact, local governments routinely amend their master programs. The legislation says they don't have to take any action at all on this legislation until the next time they would routinely amend their master program, anyway. At that time they simply have to consider this issue and decide where they want to designate that aquaculture is an appropriate use. This is a very small part of the process for amending a master program. It's done all the time by local government, and this won't add a significant burden to that process.

"In the final analysis, it's unfortunate, but salmon aquaculture started at the University of Washington here in the Northwest in the 1960s. Since that time, our industry has simply not been ever able to get a strong foothold in the state because of the permitting process. In other countries, over one third of the salmon produced in the world are produced in salmon net pens, and over half the dollar value of salmon is produced in net pens. It's unfortunate that our state has never had the opportunity to participate significantly in this industry. We feel this is a step, a small step, toward helping resolve that problem. I hope you will support it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR OKE

Senator Oke: "Thank you, Mr. President. I, too, rise in support of this bill. In my district, in Manchester, we have probably the largest, I'm sure it's the largest--salmon net pen farm in the state of Washington, and I've spent a lot of time around that net pen, a number of net pens they have there. They're located in a good spot. They're providing fresh salmon year round. And I know that that's an issue with some of you here, that you would never eat a fish that came out of a net pen, or you don't think that the quality is there. But the world does. I passed out to each of you salmon market information coming from Alaska when I was up there on the Pacific Fisheries Legislative Task Force. I think we really need to take a close look at these figures. Even if you don't care about salmon, or have never consumed a salmon, we need to understand what's happening worldwide.

"The United States, as you look at this chart, is out of the market, and we're losing millions and millions of dollars in jobs because they're going to other countries. Japan requires and wants fresh salmon daily--every day--and their Shushi bars, they say they can consume these net pen salmon without any problem. Other salmon that are the natural native salmon, they have to cook those. So, they're the ones controlling the market. You can see by the chart what's happening.

"Boldt's decision in this state ruined salmon for everybody, I think, and has made the salmon in some people's mind a species that's being distinguished as no longer available. In fact, I'll close with this little comment. In Issaquah, I went to the hatchery and saw some notes from young people that had seen what was going on in this hatchery, and one note in particular said, 'This is the first time I really understood the whole life cycle of the salmon. This is just neat.' And the bottom line, he said, 'I'll never eat one.' And that's not what we want to happen. It's a good product, we want people to consume salmon, and I think this bill would help put Washington back in the game of providing salmon for everybody."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SPANEL

Senator Spanel: "Thank you, Mr. President. It has been stated that it's a simple issue to amend the shoreline master plan or to redo it. In Skagit County it took two to three years and even longer for the process to occur of bringing all the parties together and working out an agreement. The aquaculture issue, salmon net pens, was the major issue. Some of them located in that county already are in shallow water. It is not good water conditions. Some are located in very good water conditions, and that is allowed there. But, there's a lot of issues that are brought in.

“When I came to the Legislature in 1987, this was an issue. It was an issue for the next few years. Basically, it centered around-- we had interim criteria for the siting of salmon net pens. It was never really resolved. There have been people working on it ever since then, but we have not changed the law and put that into law what the permanent criteria should be. Location is a factor. It's not just a simple thing of having fish in the pens, there's an escapement factor. There have been many, with the weather, breaks in the pens and the net pen fish mingle with the wild salmon. There are lots of discussions of whether that is good or bad, and a lot of people do not feel it is good.

“The economic reality, the price is too high right now, and that's one reason there hasn't been a major expansion. But, I think the thing why I'm asking you to vote 'no' on this bill is because, basically, it is a preemption of local government and their shoreline master plans. It's not only a long process, but it also is a process that they have work out with DOE, and DOE is pretty strict, and I would say, fought the counties hard on the aquaculture issue, and made sure that they did have siting in their master programs. This bill is a preemption. It is costly. It costs dollars, a lot of dollars. We're not providing any money. This bill didn't go through the Ways and Means Committee, and so I suggest that you just vote no, and let it continue to be worked out. Actually, this particular issue is in the courts right now, and that's where it should be taken care of, instead of by changing the law.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAUGEN

Senator Haugen: “Thank you, Mr. President. Once again, this is my file on Skagit County, alone. I have a whole file cabinet with a whole drawer on Island County. I wish my good friends on the other side of the aisle were in my office this morning when my two Republican county commissioners from Island County were here--Skagit County were here--who are now being sued. Explain to them why this isn't a mandate, why this isn't a mandate with no funding. I wish you would call up my Republican county commissioners in Island County and tell them why this isn't the mandate.

“This will generate a whole, new round of debate about aquaculture in those counties that are entirely made up of islands. I can assure you, and they amend their shoreline master plans often to put in harbors, and to put in docks, and every time they do that, they have to go through this process. They have to hold public hearings. They have to have lots of information provided for the citizens, and it is a very costly process. Both of those counties have got plans in place. Skagit County's is being challenged in the courts right now. Let's not start the debate all over for a special interest group. I urge you to vote 'no.'”

REMARKS BY SENATOR MORTON

Senator Morton: “Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, since we're repeating somewhat, as the Senator did from the Tenth District, I want to remind you, also, of the hazards that we're facing in agricultural enterprises daily. And the need to emphasize more and more the use of our aquaculture facilities and opportunities in this state, combined with the opportunity to launch into an industry which worldwide we're missing out on, and which we need to address more and more. Plus, the state standards that we have are there on the books to be followed. The counties involved need to obey, of course, and follow those standards as best can be applied in those counties. Yes, it's an added responsibility on those counties, but, yes, it's an added industry and an asset to those counties, as they become involved in this industry to benefit not only the counties, but also to benefit the state of Washington. I encourage your 'yes' vote. Thank you, Mr. President.”

Number one, his initials are J. R. and some people think that is where it came from. She said there is also a story that when he started in politics, in a bet or some type of statement, he said that he would provide a dinner that was indigenous to his district. Somebody asked him what he had in this district and he said, 'jack rabbits.' Also, she stated that her older brother was a page for her father and helped move to this building. Thank you for that bit of history and Irv's follow up.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Franklin: "Senator Horn, I am always very, very leery about what we as public servants do in regards to our officers and our staff, because you never know when we will be brought under closer scrutiny by the media, by those who are always checking on us. What is the potential for abuse of this piece of legislation--to go and do other things? I am very leery about that."

Senator Horn: "Senator Franklin, I think the portion for abuse is very limited. This applies only if you have been invited to respond as a guest editor. You certainly, as an individual, have the right to speak out at any time and you can do that any way you want to do. However, because of some interpretation of a question that might come up, could you use--like--your aide to prepare your speech or help you type it--something like that--because that would be a misuse, perhaps, of office facilities. So, this only allows you to use your support staff to do something that you have the right to do with or without them there. I think that is a very limited situation that comes up. This has been pretty narrowly drafted to protect that situation.”

Senator Franklin: “You mentioned ‘that you would be invited.’ What happens if a media--a newspaper--chooses a certain group to invite, would I, not be one of the chosen few, have the opportunity to write and have that accepted--let’s say equal time?”

Senator Horn: “You have a situation right now that the Governor’s office may speak out on an issue and use his staff to do it and if something came up relative to something that came up in the Senate or House, they could not use their staff to respond. You, as an individual, can speak out however you want to. This merely is the support you need to prepare something. Now, you have that--you know--we have those types of things coming pro and con in the Voter’s Pamphlet. that we ask legislators to prepare that position, we allow them to use the staff to prepare those positions at that time. I think, in general, the newspapers, if they are coming up on a guest editorial are trying to get a balanced position on this, because they have had one side speak out . They would like to hear from the other side.”

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Heavey: “Senator Horn, the gallant gentleman from Mercer Island, this narrow exception only applies for the newspaper? We cannot submit a guest editorial opinion? It is limited--that limited--even if we wrote it ourselves--but we just happened to have our aide type it, we couldn’t submit a guest editorial opinion?”

Senator Horn: “That is correct. You could not submit a guest editorial unless you were invited.”

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5271.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Heavey: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the body. I guess I believe in starting the day with getting the tough things over with. Approximately ten days ago, I caused some concern and some anger and probably even some amusement when I made several motions in an attempt to get to the ninth order of business. This was done during one of our pro forma situations and while I am mischievous by nature and I promise you, I will continue to be so, and I have made it patently clear that I believe the pro forma sessions are patently unconstitutional without a quorum. That said--it was done while many Senators and the President were preparing to go to the other body to honor former legislators who had passed away during the previous year. Because of that, I seriously believe and have been concerned that the timing of the motions was wrong and ill-considered. Personally, I have been greatly concerned that I unduly offended many of you.

"Therefore, I seek some atonement and reconciliation. I offended many of you; I was wrong and it was ill-considered. I sincerely apologize and seek your forgiveness. Thank you for listening and for your consideration."

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has adopted HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4412, and the same is herewith transmitted.

TIMOTHY MARTIN, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Johnson, the Senate advanced to the fifth order of business.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF HOUSE BILL

HCR 4412 by Representative Lisk

Allowing introduction of a joint bill on making welfare work.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Johnson, the rules were suspended and House Concurrent Resolution No. 4412 was advanced to second reading and placed on the second reading calendar.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Johnson the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4412, by Representative Lisk

Allowing introduction of a joint bill on making welfare work.

The concurrent resolution was read the second time.

WHEREAS, The members of the legislature have decided to introduce a bill in the House of Representatives relating to making welfare work; and

WHEREAS, The members desire to have the House bill on making welfare work jointly sponsored in a manner consistent with the provisions of SCR 8401 as adopted by the legislature;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the House of Representatives of the state of Washington, the Senate concurring, That a House bill relating to making welfare work may be introduced as a joint bill, in the manner set forth in SCR 8401, so long as that bill is introduced no later than March 15, 1997.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Snyder: "Senator Johnson, it says, 'Now, therefore, be it resolved, by the House of Representatives of the state of Washington, the Senate concurring, that a House Bill relating to making welfare work may be introduced as a joint bill--.' Do we have joint bills or do we just have jointly sponsored bills--a House Bill that is jointly sponsored? Is the wording just right? Do we need an amendment to clear that up?"

Senator Johnson: "The issue before the body, I believe Senator Snyder, is whether this House Concurrent Resolution is proper as it is placed on the second reading calendar."

Senator Snyder: "Well, that is my question. Before we advance it to third reading, do we need an amendment to clear up that point?"

Senator Johnson: "I am not aware of any such need."

Senator Snyder: "Well, it might be technically incorrect here and I wouldn't want to be delaying things for three or four days if we pass this and then come to find out that there is a problem with it."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Johnson, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 4412 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the concurrent resolution was placed on final passage

Senator Goings: "Senator Heavey, thank you very much for the question. In drafting this legislation, which did have very bipartisan support, and working with members on both sides of the aisle, it was our indication that in order to address this legislation properly, not to invade anyone's personal privacy, and to encompass all RCWs appropriately, we would cover and make sure the inmates rights were sustained in some areas, but the public's right to know, also, when it comes to a death row inmate. Off the top of my head, I cannot give you the specific meaning of those RCWs. #### MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Schow, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5569 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5569 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Fraser moved that the following amendment by Senators Fraser and Heavey be adopted:

On page 1, beginning with "Section 3" on line 8, strike all material through "law." on line 13.

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRASER

Senator Fraser: "Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate. We've had a lot of discussion over the years, and the courts do too, about what is legislative intent. Often, we pass legislation where words are ambiguous, maybe not by intent, but because you can't anticipate all of the circumstances. So, when a court looks at legislative intent, it looks at a lot of things. It looks at the record at the time the bill is passed; it looks at all the evidence at the time the bill was passed.

"One thing the courts generally don't do is look at legislative intent that is expressed twenty-two years later. That's what this bill does, and this is what the amendment does. It deletes language that says twenty-two years, after the fact, what legislative intent is. It is the case that this particular language is the subject of litigation at the present time, with several lawsuits, and I understand it will be heard this fall. But, I don't think the Legislature and the legislative process is the place where we should be taking sides in litigation and trying to tell the court what was legislative intent twenty-two years ago when hardly any of us were here then. This issue came before the Joint Administrative Rules Review Committee about a year and a half ago, and the committee decided not to make a ruling on the substance of intent, because the matter was in litigation.

"So, I urge you to support this amendment and not have the Legislature get involved in taking sides in a lawsuit."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SCHOW

Senator Schow: "Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in opposition to this amendment. The underlying bill that we're going to be voting on is designed to take the confusion out of the federal statute and what we're doing here in the state, and to clarify what this Legislature, in 1975, decided what should be in this bill. We'd just continue that confusion if we were to pass this amendment, and destroy the intent of the underlying bill. I would urge that you turn this amendment down."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HEAVEY

Senator Heavey: "Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate. I don't see how this amendment at all hurts the purpose of the underlying bill. It simply says we're making no statement as to the intent of the Legislature and Governor back in 1977. We don't know what their intent was, but this bill, as written, says we know what their intent was, and so that's all it does. It doesn't change the substantive provisions of the bill, it merely takes out the intent of the 1975 Legislature. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KLINE

Senator Kline: "Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, I would suggest to you that there are some on this floor who were born in the year 1977, and who, therefore, have absolutely no way of knowing what the intent of the Legislature was. I don't mean to be flip, but let's face it, we can't possibly go back twenty-three years to determine what was legislative intent at that time. This is absurd. I suggest a 'yes' vote on the amendment. Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Fraser and Heavey on page 1, beginning with 'Section 3' on line 8, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5569.

The motion by Senator Fraser failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Fraser moved that the following amendments by Senators Fraser and Heavey be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 3, after line 37, insert the following:

"This subsection (3) shall only apply to the hours of employment in excess of the applicable work week specified in subsection (1) of this section where, except for de minimis other duties done at the direction of the employer, the employee is engaged exclusively in sales duties."

On page 6, after line 31, insert the following:

"(8) 'Sales duties' means selling goods or services, duties incidental to or in conjunction with selling, inactivity pending a sales opportunity, or duties performed pending a sales opportunity in reasonable proximity to the employee's customary sales location."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRASER

Senator Fraser: "Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate. As I mentioned on the previous amendment, there is a dispute over what current state law is. That is the purpose of this bill--to, in addition to dealing with the lawsuit, it's to establish what should state policy be for purposes of overtime pay for commissioned salespersons.

"What this bill proposes is that we adopt the federal regulatory policies. Now, what that policy would allow is that any commissioned salesperson who earns more than fifty percent of their salary in a month from commissions, or earns one and a half times the minimum wage, the store could require them to work overtime without paying them overtime. So, what happens? Often, is that these employees are asked to work overtime for work that they cannot earn a commission for.

"What these amendments do, is divide the overtime work into two categories. I think it's really fair. If you do overtime work where you can earn a commission, this amendment says you do not need to be paid overtime. But, if you are working overtime where you cannot possibly earn a commission, such as--say several days setting up a new display, unloading trucks, cleaning the store, doing comparison shopping, those kind of things where you cannot earn a commission, then if you work overtime, you ought to be paid the overtime rate. It's only fair and it's consistent with the way everybody else is paid.

"So, I urge you to support these amendments to be fair to those employees who work in commissioned sales."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SCHOW

Senator Schow: "Thank you, Mr. President. I understand what the good Senator from the Twenty-second District is trying to do, but these amendments--the way they are written--would make it so confusing between employers and employees to know when someone should be paid overtime and when they shouldn't be paid overtime. And again, it just defeats what we're trying to do with the underlying bill, and that is to clarify between employer and employee what each other's roles really are. So, I would ask that you defeat these amendments."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HEAVEY

Senator Heavey: "Thank you, Mr. President, and members of this distinguished body. Without these amendments, it makes this a commission issue--minimum wage issue. Without these amendments, the person who makes commissions can be asked to unload a truck for two hours on overtime and not be paid time and-one-half, which is the fair labor standard. It's the law of the country. Without these amendments, that simply can happen. If you read it, we still could be required to do diminuous tasks unrelated to sales such as sweeping the floors, such as running to get a cup of coffee or cleaning up. But, essentially, they'd have to be eligible to make commissions. It's perfectly logical. Without it, they could be asked to spend three hours unloading a truck which doesn't have anything to do with commissioned sales, at least as to overtime. I urge your support of the amendments."

FURTHER REMARKS BY SENATOR FRASER

Senator Fraser: "Thank you, Mr. President. To close debate, I'd just like to point out to the members that this would apply to anybody who earns seven dollars and thirty-six cents an hour. So, we are talking here, in many cases, about people who are not getting really rich off of commissions. Yes, there are some salespeople on commissions who sell very expensive products and are able to earn an excellent salary, but there are a lot of people who are in sales who sell products where they don't earn a lot in commissions. What you would be doing, if you do not adopt this amendment, is saying people who earn seven dollars and thirty-six cents an hour, if they're required to work overtime where they cannot earn a commission, they won't get paid overtime. And I think these people should be paid overtime, and I urge you to support these amendments."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KLINE

Senator Kline: "Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, the point of these amendments is to avoid the exploitation of labor that is so inherent in the underlying bill. The purpose of this underlying bill which is opposed by the amendment--and let me speak to the amendments then, is to pay people for what they do. If a person is paid on a commission basis and earns a commission basis, there may be some rational reason for exempting that person from overtime. When that person is unloading a truck, something for which there's no commission, and that person is doing the work that would otherwise be done by a paid worker earning no commission, then that person should be paid overtime. It's real simple. This is a bill submitted, I would submit, under the interest of many employers to cheat labor. These amendments would simply vitiate that purpose, and I urge a 'yes' vote on the amendments. Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senators Fraser and Heavey on page 3, after line 37, and page 6, after line 31, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5569.

The motion by Senator Fraser failed and the amendments were not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Schow, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5569 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

REMARKS BY SENATOR SCHOW

Senator Schow: "Thank you, Mr. President. I ask that my remarks be spread upon the Journal.

"The bill before you is necessary to clarify the law governing overtime payments for commissioned employees of retail businesses. This measure brings nothing new to the law, but simply clarifies the law as understood in the industry and by the state from the time of adoption in 1975 to 1992 when a state agency chose to reinterpret the law through a guideline, thus creating severe confusion in the industry and causing substantial loss of income for commissioned employees.

"I have provided for Senators a copy of the 1975 Final Bill Report on the law we are now clarifying. You will note that it states clearly in the highlighted section that, 'where different federal overtime provisions exist for a particular industry, such provisions shall apply to that industry on the state level also.' The language before you simply restates that intent and places the exact language of the federal overtime standard for commission retail employees into the text of state law. Previously, it was included in state law by incorporation.

"This change is necessary to restore a reasonable overtime formula to state commission sales. This is a formula followed by the federal government and modeled in forty-three other states. I ask you to vote for this bill. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRASER

Senator Fraser: "Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate. Speaking against the bill, this bill is not a clarification, it's a choice. And it's a choice that says, a commissioned salesperson who earns seven dollars and thirty-six cents an hour can be required to work overtime in a situation where they cannot possibly earn commissions without getting overtime pay. I don't think that's fair.

"It's also a bill that is intended to send a message to the court on one side of litigation. I think that's an improper purpose for legislation and I urge you to defeat this bill for that reason."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Horn: "Thank you, Mr. President. Will Senator Schow yield to a question? Senator Schow, I wanted to make sure I understood your remarks as you have stated them. Is it true that this bill simply reaffirms the original legislative intent of the 1975 Act establishing overtime standards for commission retail employees?"

Senator Schow: "Senator Horn, as you can see from the Final Bill Report from 1975, the intent of the Legislature in 1975 was to incorporate the federal overtime standard into state law. This was not contested in any form, judicial or administrative, until a state agency chose to reinterpret the law almost seventeen years after the law was passed. Now, the law is in confusion, and we must send a clear and direct message to uphold the original intent of the legislative body."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HORN

Senator Horn: "Thank you very much, Mr. President. Speaking in favor of this bill, I think it's been clearly established that we've had something that's worked for us for seventeen years, and because of interference by one of our state departments, it has brought it into confusion. It's important, I think, that we get back to that original intent. Things have been working very well. We have not had a request from the people, the salesmen themselves, that they need additional protection from state government. Quite the contrary. We've heard comments from them that they want to return to the status quo that they've enjoyed for seventeen years. I urge your support."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KLINE

Senator Kline: "Mr. President, it's been stated several times now that this bill brings nothing new to the field of employment law, that it simply clarifies the previous status quo before, somehow, the law was thrown into a state of confusion. The fact is, this bill brings something very, very old back into our law. It's called the exploitation of working people. I would hope that this body would not voluntarily become the handmaiden of big business in its constant exploitation of people who work for a living.

"We've just, yesterday, told them that they're going to have to pay now for their own uniforms no matter what those uniforms are, and the boss can require them to pay for them, and the boss can require them to wear them. It doesn't matter that they may have just come off of a welfare program and have very little other than the five hundred and forty-six dollars a month they've received. Too bad. They've got to buy three sets of pants and blouses. Now we're going to tell them, that it doesn't matter that they'll be doing non-commission work. It doesn't matter that they'll be doing any kind of work. They just don't have the right to time and a half like everybody else.

"Federal law, I would like to add, does--it does, create a choice. We can go and state employers are required to go with the state or federal statute, whichever is more favorable to the employee. Currently, it's the state law. That state law is about, in effect, to be repealed. I urge a 'no' vote on this bill. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ANDERSON

Senator Anderson: "Thank you, Mr. President. It's regrettable that the members of the body here have not had, each and every one of you, the opportunity to sit through the public hearing on this. In the public hearing on this particular bill, there were employee after employee asking us to clarify the law and get rid of what L& I had done in interpreting the law, because they, as employees, were suffering because of the Labor and Industries interpretation.

"The hearing was made up of people that came forth and had shown how their wages had dropped-- dropped, under the supposedly new interpretation. Those people overwhelmingly asked us to go back to this interpretation because they, as employees, were better off. And so with that information and the request from those particular employees, I would hope that you would vote for this bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Swanson: "Would the distinguished gentleman from the First District yield to a question? Senator Schow, were you a member of this legislative body in 1975?"

Senator Schow: "I don't believe I was."

FURTHER REMARKS BY SENATOR SWANSON

Senator Swanson: "Thank you. I'd like to go ahead and comment if I might. I rise in opposition to this bill. There are two kinds of people in this world. It's very obvious that many of y'all never got out there and worked like I did for three and four dollars a day. Working on commission is tough enough when you're trying to raise a family and feed a couple of young 'Uns. The fair labor standard is very clear, that if you're going to work somebody overtime, then you're going to have to pay them. And for this body here to try to interpret something that was in 1975, you're trying to say what them dudes back there were saying, 'I'm saying that you can't do that.' If it's in litigation now, why mess with it? Let the court decide."

FURTHER REMARKS BY SENATOR SCHOW

Senator Schow: "Thank you, Mr. President. To close debate, just yesterday we had a bill in here that we had to vote on so that department heads--instead of using two pieces of paper, one form for L&I and one for Employment Security, that we would allow the employers to report on just one piece of paper. We had to vote on such a simple little procedure. And yet, we have department heads who interpret laws, like the one that was passed in 1975, and think that we should not stand up to this. I think the Legislature is the body that makes these kind of decisions. In 1975, we made the decision. I think we ought to uphold that. I ask that you support this bill. Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5569.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5569 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; Nays, 16; Absent, 0; Excused, 0.

. SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5351, by Senators Benton, Strannigan, Oke, Anderson, Swecker, Zarelli and Rossi

Exempting small scale mining from the requirement of obtaining a hydraulic permit.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Benton, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5351 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5351 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Benton moved that the following amendment by Senators Benton and Hargrove be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that small scale prospecting and mining is an important part of the heritage of the state. The legislature further finds that small scale prospecting and mining provide economic benefits to the state, and help to meet the national security demand and industrial demand for minerals. The legislature further finds that it is critical that small scale miners and prospectors be allowed access to open public lands in the state. The legislature further finds that mineral prospecting and mining activities can be conducted in a manner that is consistent with fish habitat and fish-life population. Now, therefore, the legislature declares that small scale prospecting and mining must not be unreasonably regulated. The legislature further declares that small scale prospecting and mining must not be unfairly limited or obstructed from access to open public lands. The legislature further declares that all restrictions or regulations of small scale prospecting and mining activities must be based on sound scientific evidence and applicable documentation supporting the need for such restrictions.

Sec. 2. RCW 75.20.100 and 1993 sp.s. c 2 s 30 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event that any person or government agency desires to construct any form of hydraulic project or perform other work that will use, divert, obstruct, or change the natural flow or bed of any of the salt or fresh waters of the state, such person or government agency shall, before commencing construction or work thereon and to ensure the proper protection of fish life, secure the written approval of the department as to the adequacy of the means proposed for the protection of fish life. This approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Except as provided in RCW 75.20.1001 (~~and 75.20.1002~~), the department shall grant or deny approval within forty-five calendar days of the receipt of a complete application and notice of compliance with any applicable requirements of the state environmental policy act, made in the manner prescribed in this section. The applicant may document receipt of application by filing in person or by registered mail. A complete application for approval shall contain general plans for the overall project, complete plans and specifications of the proposed construction or work within the mean higher high water line in salt water or within the ordinary high water line in fresh water, and complete plans and specifications for the proper protection of fish life. The forty-five day requirement shall be suspended if (1) after ten working days of receipt of the application, the applicant remains unavailable or unable to arrange for a timely field evaluation of the proposed project; (2) the site is physically inaccessible for inspection; or (3) the applicant requests delay. Immediately upon determination that the forty-five day period is suspended, the department shall notify the applicant in writing of the reasons for the delay. Approval is valid for a period of up to five years from date of issuance. The permitted must demonstrate substantial progress on construction of that portion of the project relating to the approval within two years of the date of issuance. If the department denies approval, the department shall provide the applicant, in writing, a statement of the specific reasons why and how the proposed project would adversely affect fish life. Protection of fish life shall be the only ground upon which approval may be denied or conditioned. Chapter 34.05 RCW applies to any denial of project approval, conditional approval, or requirements for project modification upon which approval may be contingent. If any person or government agency commences construction on any hydraulic works or projects subject to this section without first having obtained written approval of the department as to the adequacy of the means proposed for the protection of fish life, or if any person or government agency fails to follow or carry out any of the requirements or conditions as are made a part of such approval, the person or director of the agency is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. If any such person or government agency is convicted of violating any of the provisions of this section and continues construction on any such works or projects without fully complying with the provisions hereof, such works or projects are hereby declared a public nuisance and shall be subject to abatement as such.

For the purposes of this section and RCW 75.20.103, "bed" shall mean the land below the ordinary high water lines of state waters. This definition shall not include irrigation ditches, canals, storm water run-off devices, or other artificial watercourses except where they exist in a natural watercourse that has been altered by man.

The phrase "to construct any form of hydraulic project or perform other work" shall not include the act of driving across an established ford. Driving across streams or on wetted stream beds at areas other than established fords requires approval. Work within the ordinary high water line of state waters to construct or repair a ford or crossing requires approval.

In case of an emergency arising from weather or stream flow conditions or other natural conditions, the department, through its authorized representatives, shall issue immediately upon request oral approval for removing any obstructions, repairing existing structures, restoring stream banks, or to protect property threatened by the stream or a change in the stream flow without the necessity of obtaining a written approval prior to commencing work. Conditions of an oral approval shall be reduced to writing within thirty days and complied with as provided for in this section. Oral approval shall be granted immediately upon request, for a stream crossing during an emergency situation.

This section shall not apply to the construction of any form of hydraulic project or other work which diverts water for agricultural irrigation or stock watering purposes authorized under or recognized as being valid by the state's water codes, or when such hydraulic project or other work is associated with streambanks stabilization to protect farm and agricultural land as defined in RCW 84.34.020. These irrigation or stock watering diversion and streambanks stabilization projects shall be governed by RCW 75.20.103.

This section does not apply to small scale prospecting and mining activities, which are governed by section 3 of this act.

MOTION

Senator Loveland moved that the following amendment by Senators McAuliffe, Wojahn, Loveland, Snyder, Spanel, Franklin, Prentice, Sheldon, Fraser and Swanson be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 84.40.030 and 1994 c 124 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

All property shall be valued at one hundred percent of its true and fair value in money and assessed on the same basis unless specifically provided otherwise by law.

Taxable leasehold estates shall be valued at such price as they would bring at a fair, voluntary sale for cash without any deductions for any indebtedness owed including rentals to be paid.

The true and fair value of real property for taxation purposes (including property upon which there is a coal or other mine, or stone or other quarry) shall be based upon the following criteria:

(1) Any sales of the property being appraised or similar properties with respect to sales made within the past five years. The appraisal shall be consistent with the comprehensive land use plan, development regulations under chapter 36.70A RCW, zoning, and any other governmental policies or practices in effect at the time of appraisal that affect the use of property, as well as physical and environmental influences. The appraisal shall also take into account: (a) In the use of sales by real estate contract as similar sales, the extent, if any, to which the stated selling price has been increased by reason of the down payment, interest rate, or other financing terms; and (b) the extent to which the sale of a similar property actually represents the general effective market demand for property of such type, in the geographical area in which such property is located. Sales involving deed releases or similar seller-developer financing arrangements shall not be used as sales of similar property.

(2) In addition to sales as defined in subsection (1), consideration may be given to cost, cost less depreciation, reconstruction cost less depreciation, or capitalization of income that would be derived from prudent use of the property. In the case of property of a complex nature, or being used under terms of a franchise from a public agency, or operating as a public utility, or property not having a record of sale within five years and not having a significant number of sales of similar property in the general area, the provisions of this subsection (2) shall be the dominant factors in valuation. When provisions of this subsection (2) are relied upon for establishing values the property owner shall be advised upon request of the factors used in arriving at such value.

(3) In valuing any tract or parcel of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures thereon shall be determined; also the value of structures thereon, but the valuation shall not exceed the value of the total property as it exists. In valuing agricultural land, growing crops shall be excluded.

(4) In valuing property, intangible personal property shall not be valued separately.

Sec. 2. RCW 84.40.040 and 1988 c 222 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

The assessor shall begin the preliminary work for each assessment not later than the first day of December of each year in all counties in the state. The assessor shall also complete the duties of listing and placing valuations on all property by May 31st of each year, (~~except that the listing and valuation of construction under RCW 36.21.040 through 36.21.080 shall be completed by August 31st of each year.~~) and in the following manner, to wit:

The assessor shall actually determine as nearly as practicable the true and fair value of each tract or lot of land listed for taxation and of each improvement located thereon and shall enter one hundred percent of the value of such land and of the total value of such improvements, together with the total of such one hundred percent valuations, opposite each description of property on the assessment list and tax roll.

The assessor shall make an alphabetical list of the names of all persons in the county liable to assessment of personal property, and require each person to make a correct list and statement of such property according to the standard form prescribed by the department of revenue, which statement and list shall include, if required by the form, the year of acquisition and total original cost of personal property in each category of the prescribed form, and shall be signed and verified under penalty of perjury by the person listing the property: PROVIDED, That the assessor may list and value improvements on publicly owned land in the same manner as real property is listed and valued, including conformance with the revaluation program required under chapter 84.41 RCW. Such list and statement shall be filed on or before the last day of April. The assessor shall on or before the 1st day of January of each year mail a notice to all such persons at their last known address that such statement and list is required, such notice to be accompanied by the form on which the statement or list is to be made: PROVIDED, That the notice mailed by the assessor to each taxpayer each year shall, if practicable, include the statement and list of personal property of the taxpayer for the preceding year. Upon receipt of such statement and list the assessor shall thereupon determine the true and fair value of the property included in such statement and enter one hundred percent of the same on the assessment roll opposite the name of the party assessed; and in making such entry in the assessment list, the assessor shall give the name and post office address of the party listing the property, and if the party resides in a city the assessor shall give the street and number or other brief description of the party's residence or place of business. The assessor may, after giving written notice of the action to the person to be assessed, add to the assessment list any taxable property which should be included in such list.

Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, the assessor shall not require a taxpayer to report intangible personal property." Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Prentice, the following remarks by Senators Snyder and Kline will be included in the Journal.

REMARKS BY SENATOR SNYDER

Senator Snyder: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I stand here rather heavy-hearted tonight. I have supported, since I have been a member of this Legislature, tax break, after tax break, after tax break for business. I have sponsored them. I have worked for them--for the manufacture's tax reduction--for the repairs and maintenance tax reduction--and the list goes on--for the aluminum plants--for the windmills-- but it never seems to be enough. We are definitely uncertain if this is going to shift or not, but it very well could. It's seems like there is a tapeworm that we can't satisfy with enough tax breaks. Not only that, but one of my large corporations in my district found another gimmick where they were able to get their property tax reduced by thirty-six million dollars--the evaluation--and save four hundred thousand dollars that is going to come out of the state treasury, the county coffers, and it is going to shift some to the other taxpayers in the county.

“Nobody can guarantee that this is not going to be a shift. I am really disappointed that some of our good amendments, that we had--sincere amendments--weren't taken seriously and adopted. I don't know where we are going to end up. I understand this won't go into effect until after the '98 elections, so if there is a shift the taxpayers aren't going to know about it until they get their tax bill in '99. So, earnestly, I ask all of you to take a good hard look at this and let's cast a 'no' vote. Let's reconsider it and go back and put some of those, anyone of those amendments on that we suggested. Ones that would make a study or ones that would exempt everything under the sun except franchises and pass that bill, because all we are doing is making sure that there isn't a shift. I plead with you to vote 'no' on this measure. It is a bum one.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR KLINE

Senator Kline: “Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen, first we made recent welfare mothers, who were seeking jobs, buy their own uniforms, so the boss doesn't have to pay for them. The other day we allowed the residents of Medina and Yarrow Point and Hunt's Point, in Mercer Island to use Lake Washington water. There is a pattern here and today we are going to give a nice big tax exemption for big business and bigger business at the expense of small business and home owners. Have you no shame? Must you eternally carry the water for big corporations? Are you well-trained?”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Deccio: “The Senator is impugning the motives of the Republican side of the aisle and I think you ought to tell him to stop it. Thank you.”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: “Senator Kline, please be careful in your remarks as you refer to other members of the body.”

Senator Kline: “Certainly. I don't mean to impugn the motives, but rather the result of the work of those members. I apologize if I misunderstood. Mr. President, the purpose here is simply to show what I believe is a rather clear pattern favoring the very, very wealthy over all the rest of us. At some point, there is a certain danger in this and I hope it does not continue. I urge a 'no' vote on this bill. Thank you.”

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Johnson: “Mr. President, I think the last speaker, in speaking of robber barons, was impugning the persons on this side of the aisle and should be reminded of that.”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: “I would remind the Senators that we have very strict rules on how we address other members of the Senate and I would ask that you please comply with those rules.”

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5286.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion for reconsideration of the amendment by Senator Haugen on page 3, line 33, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5105, which was adopted earlier today.

The motion for reconsideration of the amendment carried.

On page 2, line 10, after "Determine" insert ", with the exception of significant legislative rules adopted under chapter 49.17 RCW,"

The motion by Senator Haugen carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Deccio, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5105 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage
Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Goings, Senator Kline was excused.

MOTION

Senator Snyder moved that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5105 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Franklin: "Senator West, could you give a ballpark figure about what this will cost?"

Senator West: "In the process of writing the budget and looking at this bill, I am not concerned that this will have a fiscal impact that will affect the state of Washington. Senator Deccio was exactly right. In the state of Massachusetts, when they did this similar process, the fiscal impact was negligible. In the city/county of Indianapolis, Mayor Steve Goldsmith, who is one of the examples of what an executive ought to be in this country, did this similar kind of process and again, the fiscal impact is very minimal. So, the Ways and Means Committee, and as the chairman, I am satisfied that this has such a negligible impact that we do not need to examine it and I would encourage a 'no' vote."

Senator Franklin: "May I continue? Thank you, Senator, however, you did not answer my question."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Sheldon demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Snyder to refer Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5105 to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Johnson: "A point of order, Mr. President. I believe the Senator is addressing the motion, which is referral to the Committee on Ways and Means, which is a fiscal issue."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Johnson is correct, Senator Patterson."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion to refer the bill to the Committee on Ways and Means failed by the following vote: Yeas, 22; Nays, 26; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Brown, Fairley, Franklin, Fraser, Goings, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Jacobsen, Kohl, Loveland, McAuliffe, Patterson, Prentice, Rasmussen, Sheldon, Snyder, Spanel, Swanson, Thibaudeau and Wojahn - 22. #### STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

I inadvertently voted 'yes' on Substitute Senate Bill No. 5401, yesterday, March 12, 1997. It was my intention to vote 'no' on this bill. Upon learning of my mistake, later in the day, I asked the President of the Senate to reconsider the bill. My exact request and his response is as follows:

SENATOR DON BENTON, 17th Legislative District

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Benton: "A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Yesterday morning, I inadvertently voted in favor of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5401 (PUD Commissioners pay increases). Yesterday evening, having voted on the prevailing side, I gave notice of reconsideration of final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5401, under Senate Rule 37.

"Prior to my giving notice, and unbeknown to me, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5401 had already been transmitted to the House of Representatives, read in there, and referred to a House committee. Senate Rule 37 permits Senators to give notice of reconsideration on the day of final passage, unless there has been a motion to immediately transmit the measure and the measure is in the possession of the House.

"My question is under the above circumstances, do I still maintain the ability to properly move for reconsideration on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5401?"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Senate Rule 37 states, '1. After the final vote on any measure, before the adjournment of that day's session, any member who voted with the prevailing side may give notice of reconsideration unless a motion to immediately transmit the measure to the house has been decided in the affirmative and the measure is no longer in possession of the senate. Such motion to reconsider shall be in order only under the order of motions of the day, immediately following the day upon which such notice of reconsideration is given, and may be made by any member who voted with the prevailing side.

'2. A motion to reconsider shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn; and when the senate adjourns while a motion to reconsider is pending or before passing the order of motions, the right to move a reconsideration shall continue to the next day of sitting. On and after the tenth day prior to adjournment sine die of any session, as determined pursuant to Article 2, Section 12, or concurrent resolution, or in the event that the measure is subject to a senate rule or resolution or a joint rule or concurrent resolution, which would preclude consideration on the next day of sitting a motion to reconsider shall only be in order on the same day upon which notice of reconsideration is given and may be made at any time that day. Motions to reconsider a vote upon amendments to any pending question may be made and decided at once.'

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senate Rule 37 is as you say. At the same time, there is no requirement that the Senate hold a bill for any period of time. Substitute Senate Bill No. 5401 was moved to the House on a regular order of business and action was taken on it in the House prior to when your notice for reconsideration was given. The Senate cannot then take further action on the bill.

"The President would, therefore, not be able to recognize your motion to reconsider.

"The Secretary has taken steps to see that bills are no longer transmitted to the House until the Senate adjourns for the day in order to preserve a member's right to reconsider a vote."

MOTION

At 7:33 p.m., on motion of Senator Johnson, the Senate adjourned until 8:30 a.m., Friday, March 14, 1997.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Stevens: "I would like to rise to a point of personal privilege. I wanted to thank the kind ladies and gentlemen of this chamber for so graciously working with me, and for the opportunity that you gave me to make my first floor speech. I know that it was somewhat enduring of you to sit and quietly listen and be patient and I truly do appreciate it. Senator McCaslin was right in pointing out that I owe you a little treat for bearing with me. I would like to take this opportunity to share with you, as I have something to bring to you in my due appreciation for what you were having to endure.

"Because I am so proud of the dairy industry in my district, I've decided to introduce you to a wonderful dairy product from the Country Charm Dairy. You all have had the opportunity to see the little gift that came--that is the chocolate milk that came from the Country Charm Dairy. With that, I would like to give you a little bit of background and a little history about this wonderful dairy. Throughout the world, Country Charm has achieved a good reputation as a model farm. Agricultural teams from as far away as Germany, China and New Zealand have come to learn about their farming and management techniques. I'm proud to share with you some of the dairy products in our state. Enjoy them and don't worry about the calories.

"The Graafstras began farming the land more than forty years ago. In the 1970s, they built a milk processing plant to process the milk they produce. In 1977, they added ice cream to their production line. In 1990, Country Charm Dairy expanded to its current size by remodeling the processing plant and adding a new ice cream facility.

"Before you indulge, I'd like to share a little bit about the family in regard to what they exactly have there in the Arlington area. It's located in the green foothills of the North Cascades Mountain Range where it is nearly two hundred acres bordering the south fork of the Stillaguamish River. I would like to point out for Senator McCaslin's benefit that unfortunately I was not able to remove all of the things that he complained about. The little cartons of Country Charm chocolate milk you find on your desks are not lowfat. I apologize again to the kind Senator. They are, however, low in calories and they are non-alcoholic, as per your request, kind gentleman. I would guess that you will just have to splurge on your diets and go ahead and indulge in the few calories that are there. I thank you, Mr. President, and ladies and gentlemen of the chamber for indulging in this opportunity to share with you my district."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Stevens, your speech was so long, my milk soured. I wondered if you had anymore. Mr. President, does Carnation get equal time or is this about it?"

President Owen: "This is it, Senator."

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5762, deferred on third reading earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "In responding to the parliamentary inquiry by Senator McCaslin, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5762 is a measure which authorizes increases in the size of the paraimutuel pools on simulcast races, but does not add statutory authority for new locations or additional forms of gambling.

"Precedents on this issue have clearly stated that bills which add new forms of gambling or authorize added occurrences require a sixty percent vote. However, if the statutory authority is already available and the legislation directs added occurrences within that authority, there is no expansion and only a majority vote is required. This was clearly stated in previous rulings. In this case, RCW 67.16.190 authorizes wagering on in-state and of-state simulcast races without limit on the number of such races.

"Precedents also hold that increases in dollar value alone, such as the price of raffle tickets, do not constitute an expansion or a new form of gambling and do not require a super majority.

"The President, therefore, finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5762 requires a majority (twenty-five votes) for final passage."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Schow: "Senator Heavey, it is my understanding that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5762 does not authorize a new form of gaming, as the President has ruled, or expand an existing form of gaming."

Senator Heavey: "Thank you, Senator. Your understanding is correct. Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5762 allows Washington tracks to sell their races out of state. These sales do not result in any increase in gaming in Washington, but provide increased industry revenue generated from gaming conducted in other states. Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5762 also restricts the quantity of races that a Washington track can import from out-of-state.

"Authorization to export Washington races and to import out-of-state races is already contained in RCW 67.16.190. These activities have already been conducted by some tracks in this state on a limited basis. Our intent with the legislation is to establish conditions under which out-of-state races can be simulcast into race tracks into Washington and require that a portion of the proceeds generated from such activities are used to increase the purse money paid to horses that run at the race tracks in our state. In addition, this legislation seeks to increase fan attendance at live race meets in this state."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5762.

ROLL CALL

This section shall apply only to persons whose water source lies within a watershed in which local basin, regional, or watershed planning was initiated in accordance with chapter 90.54 RCW before January 1, 1997, in part to address unauthorized water uses. It shall not apply in any watershed in which a general adjudication of water rights was pending on or before January 1, 1997. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 90.54 RCW to read as follows: Basin, regional, or watershed plans developed under this chapter may establish means for legally providing water for water uses operating under temporary water rights established by section 1 of this act. The plan may recommend issuance of permanent water rights under conditions and limitations recommended by the plan. The conditions for such issuance may include measures required to mitigate for effects on senior water rights and aquatic resources." Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Spanel failed and the striking amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

On the lake, they tell me, especially on opening day, it is tremendously filled and even fishing with one line, it is just like hordes of people there. What is going to happen if they are allowed to have two lines on this crowded lake?"

Senator Oke: "Thank you for that question, Senator Franklin. I think you are referring to fresh water fishing when our lakes on opening day are just inundated with people that are out to catch the fish that, for the most part, we put into those lakes. This would only apply to salt water--food fish license only applies here. I think your concern is a good concern and that is why we just excluded this to only the food fish areas--salmon and salt water in particular."

On page 4, line 19, after "organizations." strike all material down through "devices." on line 21 Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goings: "Senator Zarelli, just a question, in reading from line twenty-one of the bill, it says, 'Providing information on and distribution of contraception devices.' So, for example, if this bill were to pass and Planned Parenthood--for example--who wanted to actually deliver and also to talk about abstinence programs, because they have distributed information--a flyer--to schools throughout the state that talked about contraception devices, would this bill prohibit them from being part of the grant program--even if they wanted to deliver an abstinence education program?"

Senator Zarelli: "I cannot answer one hundred percent, but I would say that, 'Yes, it would exempt them,' and for a very good reason, I think, and that is you cannot on one hand push a particular ideal and then on the other say that, 'Well, but these are the exemptions from it.' The idea is to try something that we are currently not doing and that is specifically abstinence based. We can't tell kids not to do drugs and then hand them drugs on the other side. So, this kind of goes to that same argument. Thank you very much."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Roach: "Senator McAuliffe, I am actually quite fascinated with your choice of words in your last statement. You said that if these young people are making the wrong choices--the wrong decisions--and you have made a value statement in saying anything other than abstinence is wrong and it is a wrong choice and wrong decision. I was wondering if you would mind if we decided to codify the fact that you believe that it is wrong in terms of the decision or choice to have sex outside of marriage?"

Senator McAuliffe: "I think that is a difficult question to ask that you codify my language on that. I think you kinda took it out of context. What I said was, 'We want to be able to be assured that teenagers are taught abstinence education, that we in this body--and many of us believe that is the appropriate decision for them to make.' But, all children don't make that decision and so if they make the wrong decision--and we believe abstinence is a good thing for our young people--then they need to have education about other means of protecting themselves. Now, if you want to take that out of context and codify it, that would be your decision, but I don't think that is exactly the way I put it--the way you put it."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Sheldon demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

SENATE RESOLUTION 1997-8637

By Senators Heavey, Patterson, Schow, McCaslin and Strannigan

WHEREAS, Our democracy has been enriched by the countless immigrants who have made their way to our shores and added to this nation's tremendous diversity; and

WHEREAS, Irish immigrants transformed our nation's largest cities into dynamic centers of commerce and industry, and their contributions to our smaller cities and towns are evident today in the cultural, economic, and spiritual makeup of the communities; and

WHEREAS, The first St. Patrick's Day parade was conducted with George Washington's troops; and

WHEREAS, Forty percent of the army during the Revolutionary War were Irish-Americans and George Washington exclaimed that the revolution would not have been successful without their efforts; and

WHEREAS, Nine of the people who signed our nation's Declaration of Independence were of Irish origin, and thirteen presidents of the United States proudly claim Irish heritage; and

WHEREAS, Through the years of America's greatest growth -- the building of the Erie Canal in the 1820's, the Transcontinental Railroad in the 1860's, and the first skyscrapers in the 1890's -- Irish-Americans gave their labor; and

WHEREAS, The largest wave of Irish immigrants came in the late 1840's, when the Great Famine ravaging Ireland caused two million people to emigrate, mostly to American soil; and

WHEREAS, Upon arrival, Irish immigrants faced "No Irish Need Apply" signs, but persevered and overcame prejudice; and

WHEREAS, Irish-Americans in communities all across the country celebrate St. Patrick's feast day with parades and the wearing of the green; and

WHEREAS, On St. Patrick's Day, Irishness comes out in everybody;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate hereby honor the rich heritage of the millions of Americans who trace their lineage to Ireland by celebrating St. Patrick's Day.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY SINGERS

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Senate staff members, Patrick Woods, Tony Cook, Hank Burns and Joy Adams, to sing several Irish ballads.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCaslin: "A point of personal privilege. Whenever we have St. Patty's Day, I always think of a little Irishman who worked for me at Kaiser. He came over as an immigrant; he died at ninety-seven. His name was Pete Fratherty--not Flatherty--but Fratherty. He lived in Millwood and after he retired, I would go over and visit him, maybe once a month and he always had a shot of Irish whiskey. He had it in the morning, then he had one at noon and I had to drink it with him.

"Of course, I'm not much of a drinker, but that Irish whiskey pretty well straightens out all of your arteries. Maybe I should have kept at it over the years. It always brings a tear to my eyes, because he was one of the hardest working people I have ever known in my life and he had a withered arm. He was a fireman on the conveyors for me. Whenever we have St. Patty's Day, I always think of him and may God rest his soul. He was a wonderful human being."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Loveland: "Senator Morton, I have been trying to follow through and I notice that we have a hand written change on page 8, after line 29. The question was raised to me and I would like to ask you, is this in the proper section of the bill that would not just eliminate anyone having to do with any kind of revaluation other than those of fifty thousand?"

Senator Morton: "It was Senator Goings who brought this to my attention and that is why we did not move the first amendment. It did have the improper number there of thirty-six and this was drafted, I believe, from the original bill and not from the substitute, so it is my understanding that this is now correct--that it is line 29 as you see in the hand written item and that it does not exclude assessment forever--that it falls in line with excluding only the one year assessment, but requiring assessment every six years. The wording, of course, is in the particular amendment at least once every six years."

Further debate ensued.

On Sunday morning, March 16, Senator Deccio received the Sisters of Providence, Western Province Mother Joseph Medal Award at Providence Hospital Medical Center in Yakima. The award was given for years of community service and for outstanding leadership in sponsoring important health care legislation over the past eighteen years in both the House and the Senate. The ceremony was attended by over two hundred persons. This was the twenty-first award given since the Sisters of Providence were founded a hundred twenty-five years ago. Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following: "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that department of corrections staff and jail staff perform essential public functions that are vital to our communities. The health and safety of these workers is often placed in jeopardy while they perform the responsibilities of their jobs. There is a special need to allay the concerns of employees who are substantially exposed to the bodily fluids of offenders or detainees. Great mental anguish can be avoided by a prompt blood test and immediate disclosure to the exposed employee. Therefore, the legislature intends that the results of any HIV tests conducted on an offender or detainee under RCW 70.24.340, 70.24.360, or 70.24.370 be immediately disclosed to the superintendent or administrator of the department of corrections facility or local jail housing the offender or detainee, and also be immediately disclosed to any member of a jail staff or department of corrections staff who has been substantially exposed to the bodily fluids of an offender or detained person. The legislature finds that the system of universal precautions required under federal and state law in all settings where risk of occupational exposure to communicable diseases exists are an effective way to reduce the risk of communicable disease transmission. The legislature does not intend to discourage the use of universal precautions but to provide supplemental information for corrections and jail staff to utilize as part of their universal precautions with all offenders and detained people. (2) The legislature further finds that, through the efforts of health care professionals and corrections staff, offenders in department of corrections facilities and people detained in local jails are being encouraged to take responsibility for their health by requesting voluntary and anonymous pretest counseling, HIV testing, posttest counseling, and AIDS counseling. The legislature does not intend, through this act, to mandate disclosure of the results of voluntary and anonymous tests. The legislature intends to continue to protect the confidential exchange of medical information related to voluntary and anonymous pretest counseling, HIV testing, posttest counseling, and AIDS counseling as provided by chapter 70.24 RCW. Sec. 2. RCW 70.24.105 and 1994 c 72 s 1 are each amended to read as follows: (1) No person may disclose or be compelled to disclose the identity of any person who has investigated, considered, or requested a test or treatment for a sexually transmitted disease, except as authorized by this chapter. (2) No person may disclose or be compelled to disclose the identity of any person upon whom an HIV antibody test is performed, or the results of such a test, nor may the result of a test for any other sexually transmitted disease when it is positive be disclosed, except as authorized by this chapter. This protection against disclosure of test subject, diagnosis, or treatment also applies to any information relating to diagnosis of or treatment for HIV infection and for any other confirmed sexually transmitted disease. An order authorizing disclosure shall: (i) Limit disclosure to those parts of the patient's record deemed essential to fulfill the objective for which the order was granted; (ii) limit disclosure to those persons whose need for information is the basis for the order; and (iii) include any other appropriate measures to keep disclosure to a minimum for the protection of the patient, the physician-patient relationship, and the treatment services, including but not limited to the written statement set forth in subsection (5) of this section; (g) Persons who, because of their behavioral interaction with the infected individual, have been placed at risk for acquisition of a sexually transmitted disease, as provided in RCW 70.24.022, if the health officer or authorized representative believes that the exposed person was unaware that a risk of disease exposure existed and that the disclosure of the identity of the infected person is necessary; (h) A law enforcement officer, fire fighter, health care provider, health care facility staff person, jail staff person, department of corrections staff person, or other persons as defined by the board in rule pursuant to RCW 70.24.340(4), who has requested a test of a person whose bodily fluids he or she has been substantially exposed to, pursuant to RCW 70.24.340(4), if a state or local public health officer performs the test or the test is conducted under RCW 70.24.340, 70.24.360, or 70.24.370; (i) Claims management personnel employed by or associated with an insurer, health care service contractor, health maintenance organization, self-funded health plan, state-administered health care claims payer, or any other payer of health care claims where such disclosure is to be used solely for the prompt and accurate evaluation and payment of medical or related claims. Information released under this subsection shall be confidential and shall not be released or available to persons who are not involved in handling or determining medical claims payment; ~~((and))~~ (j) A department of social and health services worker, a child placing agency worker, or a guardian ad litem who is responsible for making or reviewing placement or case-planning decisions or recommendations to the court regarding a child, who is less than fourteen years of age, has a sexually transmitted disease, and is in the custody of the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency; this information may also be received by a person responsible for providing residential care for such a child when the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency determines that it is necessary for the provision of child care services; and (k) A department of corrections superintendent or administrator, or a jail administrator regarding tests of offenders and detained persons under subsection (4) of this section. State law prohibits you from making any further disclosure of it without the specific written consent of the person to whom it pertains, or as otherwise permitted by state law. (3) For the purposes of this section, "communicable disease" means an illness caused by an infectious agent that can be transmitted from one person, animal, or object to another person by direct or indirect means including transmission via an intermediate host or vector, food, water, or air. NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department of health and the department of corrections must each adopt rules to implement this act. The department of health and the department of corrections with the cooperation of local jail administrators must also report to the legislature by January 1, 1998, on the following: (1) Changes made in rules and department of corrections and local jail policies and procedures to implement this act; and (2) a summary of the number and circumstances of mandatory test results that were disclosed to department of corrections staff and jail staff under RCW 70.24.105. Sec. 6. RCW 70.24.340 and 1988 c 206 s 703 are each amended to read as follows: (1) Local health departments (~~(authorized under this chapter)~~) shall conduct or cause to be conducted pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling of all persons: (a) Convicted of a sexual offense under chapter 9A.44 RCW; (b) Convicted of prostitution or offenses relating to prostitution under chapter 9A.88 RCW; ~~(c)~~ (c) Convicted of drug offenses under chapter 69.50 RCW if the court determines at the time of conviction that the related drug offense is one associated with the use of hypodermic needles; or (d) Who are offenders or arrested or detained persons and who have subjected a law enforcement officer, fire fighter, health care provider, health care facility staff person, department of corrections staff person, jail staff person, or other category of employee, as determined by the board, to substantial exposure to their bodily fluids. Persons tested under this subsection (1)(d) shall also be tested for hepatitis B. (2) ~~(Such)~~ Testing of persons convicted under subsection (1)(a) through (c) of this section shall be conducted as soon as possible after sentencing and shall be so ordered by the sentencing judge. Testing of persons causing a substantial exposure under subsection (1)(d) of this section shall be conducted as soon as possible, but not later than forty-eight hours after the exposure. Consent of the persons tested under this section is not required. (3) ~~(This section applies)~~ Subsection (1)(a) through (c) of this section applies only to offenses committed after March 23, 1988, and subsection (1)(d) of this section applies only to exposures occurring after the effective date of this act. (4)(a) A law enforcement officer, fire fighter, health care provider, health care facility staff person, any member of a jail staff or department of corrections staff, or other categories of employment determined by the board in rule to be at risk of substantial exposure to HIV, who has experienced a substantial exposure to another person's bodily fluids in the course of his or her employment, may request a state or local public health officer to order pretest counseling, HIV testing, hepatitis B testing, and posttest counseling for the person whose bodily fluids he or she has been exposed to. (b) If the person who is subject to the order is not an offender or arrested or detained person tested under subsection (1) of this section, the person shall be given written notice of the order promptly, personally, and confidentially, stating the grounds and provisions of the order, including the factual basis therefor. If the person who is subject to the order is not an offender or arrested or detained person tested under subsection (1) of this section and refuses to comply, the state or local public health officer may petition the superior court for a hearing. The standard of review for the order is whether substantial exposure occurred and whether that exposure presents a possible risk of transmission of the HIV virus as defined by the board by rule. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the court shall issue the appropriate order. (c) The state or local public health officer shall perform counseling and testing under this subsection if he or she finds that the exposure was substantial (~~(and presents a possible risk)~~) as defined by the board of health by rule. Sec. 7. RCW 70.24.360 and 1988 c 206 s 706 are each amended to read as follows: Jail administrators, ~~(with the approval of)~~ after consultation with and receiving written recommendations from the local public health officer, may order pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling for persons detained in the jail if the ~~(local public health officer)~~ jail administrator determines that actual or threatened behavior presents a possible risk to the staff, general public, or other persons. ~~(Approval of the local public health officer shall be based on RCW 70.24.024(3) and may be contested through RCW 70.24.024(4).)~~ The administrator shall establish, pursuant to RCW 70.48.071, a procedure to document the possible risk (~~(which)~~) that is the basis for the HIV testing. "Possible risk," as used in this section, shall be defined by the jail

Possible risk, as used in the documentation of the behavior, or threat thereof, shall be reviewed with the person (~~to try to assure that the person understands the basis for testing~~). Sec. 8. RCW 70.24.024 and 1988 c 206 s 909 are each amended to read as follows: (1) Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the state and local public health officers or their authorized representatives may examine and counsel or cause to be examined and counseled persons reasonably believed to be infected with or to have been exposed to a sexually transmitted disease. (2) Orders or restrictive measures directed to persons with a sexually transmitted disease shall be used as the last resort when other measures to protect the public health have failed, including reasonable efforts, which shall be documented, to obtain the voluntary cooperation of the person who may be subject to such an order. The orders and measures shall be applied serially with the least intrusive measures used first. The burden of proof shall be on the state or local public health officer to show that specified grounds exist for the issuance of the orders or restrictive measures and that the terms and conditions imposed are no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health. (3) When the state or local public health officer within his or her respective jurisdiction knows or has reason to believe, because of direct medical knowledge or reliable testimony of others in a position to have direct knowledge of a person's behavior, that a person has a sexually transmitted disease and is engaging in specified conduct, as determined by the board by rule based upon generally accepted standards of medical and public health science, that endangers the public health, he or she shall conduct an investigation in accordance with procedures prescribed by the board to evaluate the specific facts alleged, if any, and the reliability and credibility of the person or persons providing such information and, if satisfied that the allegations are true, he or she may issue an order according to the following priority to: (a) Order a person to submit to a medical examination or testing, seek counseling, or obtain medical treatment for curable diseases, or any combination of these, within a period of time determined by the public health officer, not to exceed fourteen days. (b) Order a person to immediately cease and desist from specified conduct (~~which~~) that endangers the health of others by imposing such restrictions upon the person as are necessary to prevent the specified conduct that endangers the health of others only if the public health officer has determined that clear and convincing evidence exists to believe that such person has been ordered to report for counseling as provided in (a) of this subsection and continues to demonstrate behavior (~~which~~) that endangers the health of others. Any restriction shall be in writing, setting forth the name of the person to be restricted and the initial period of time, not to exceed three months, during which the order shall remain effective, the terms of the restrictions, and such other conditions as may be necessary to protect the public health. Restrictions shall be imposed in the least-restrictive manner necessary to protect the public health. (4)(a) Upon the issuance of any order by the state or local public health officer or an authorized representative pursuant to subsection (3) of this section or RCW 70.24.340(4) to a person who is not an offender or arrested or detained person tested under RCW 70.24.340(1), such public health officer shall give written notice promptly, personally, and confidentially to the person who is the subject of the order stating the grounds and provisions of the order, including the factual bases therefor, the evidence relied upon for proof of infection and dangerous behavior, and the likelihood of repetition of such behaviors in the absence of such an order, and notifying the person who is the subject of the order that, if he or she contests the order, he or she may appear at a judicial hearing on the enforceability of the order, to be held in superior court. He or she may have an attorney appear on his or her behalf in the hearing at public expense, if necessary. The hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of receipt of the notice, unless the person subject to the order agrees to comply. If the person contests the order, no invasive medical procedures shall be carried out prior to a hearing being held pursuant to this subsection. If the person does not contest the order within seventy-two hours of receiving it, and the person does not comply with the order within the time period specified for compliance with the order, the state or local public health officer may request a warrant be issued by the superior court to insure appearance at the hearing. The hearing shall be within seventy-two hours of the expiration date of the time specified for compliance with the original order. The burden of proof shall be on the public health officer to show by clear and convincing evidence that the specified grounds exist for the issuance of the order and for the need for compliance and that the terms and conditions imposed therein are no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the court shall issue appropriate orders affirming, modifying, or dismissing the order. (b) If the superior court dismisses the order of the public health officer, the fact that the order was issued shall be expunged from the records of the department or local department of health. (5) Any hearing conducted pursuant to this section shall be closed and confidential unless a public hearing is requested by the person who is the subject of the order, in which case the hearing will be conducted in open court. Unless in open hearing, any transcripts or records relating thereto shall also be confidential and may be sealed by the order of the court. NEW SECTION. (2) All offenders received by the department, those offenders who are remanded from community custody or work training release, and all offenders who return or are received at a department facility from the community or a local jail after being out of the department's custody for ninety days or more shall be tested for tuberculosis within five days of reception or return to the department's custody, followed by a second test with follow-up testing as medically indicated." "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature recognizes the inherent and unalienable right and responsibility of the parents to provide for and ensure the health, education, and general well-being of their children. This chapter is intended to recognize that responsibility and to affirm the right of the parents to decide what their children learn and how they are taught in the common schools. (2) This chapter defines the roles and obligations of school officials, administrators, staff, and teachers, in order to provide for better cooperation between the school district and the parents, to encourage mutual understanding and confidence, to secure a better education for all children enrolled in the public schools of this state, to otherwise assist the parents in the discharge of their parental responsibility to their children, and to assist the school system in the discharge of its responsibility to the parents. (3) This act is not meant to be inclusive of all rights and responsibilities of parents with regard to education, only to address those issues where known conflict exists. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter. (1) "Emergency situation" means a situation where the student may cause physical harm to himself, herself, or to others. (2) "Experimental," "special," or "pilot" class or program means any class or program designed to explore or develop new or unproven teaching methods or techniques or a class or program of limited application to a selected group of students. (3) "Group therapy" and "sensitivity training" mean group processes where the student's intimate and personal feelings, emotions, values, habits, or beliefs are openly exposed to the group or where emotions, feelings, or attitudes are directed by one or more members of the group toward another member of the group, or where roles are assigned to pupils for the purpose of classifying, controlling, or predicting behavior. (4) "Parent" means a biological, adoptive or foster parent, or legal guardian. NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Parents have the right to know what their children are being taught. (1) Each school district board of directors shall adopt policies and inform parents about their rights to inspect students' educational records, test results, any educational or other program of the district, and all instructional or other related materials, including teacher manuals, textbooks, films, tapes, supplementary materials, or computer programs. Each school district board of directors shall adopt policies requiring parents to be notified of their right to excuse their child from any course or unit of study specifically about alcoholic stimulants or controlled substances, human sexuality education, education regarding sexually transmitted diseases including HIV or AIDS education, suicide education, or death education. The notice shall be distributed and returned by parents before these courses or units of study are taught. A form signed by the parent must be in each student's file. (2) A student may not be placed in an experimental, special, or pilot class or program without written consent of a parent. (3) Classes shall be held on school property, except for field trips that are necessarily and reasonably beneficial, that are related to the educational program of the student, that are afforded to all members of the class equally, and that are undertaken with the knowledge and written consent of a parent. (4) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop model forms for school districts to permit parents to excuse their children from programs under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The parents and the child shall have the right to privacy. (1) A student may only be tested for intelligence quotient or proficiency in basic skills and academic subject matter. Any testing or inquiry pertaining to a student's attitudes, habits, or values, the student's parent's attitudes, habits, or values, or other personal information pertaining to the student and the student's family, including personality inventories, value appraisals, psychological inventories, or diagnostic tests may be given only after consultation by school personnel with the parent and with the parent's written permission. Any such tests shall be made available to a parent upon request, and the results of any test or inquiry and any notes, records, or written or taped memoranda regarding the test or inquiry shall be made available to the parents upon request. (2) All records kept on a student must be provided to the parent upon request for the parent's observation, and copies thereof provided to the parent upon request at cost at the expense of the parent. Records may not be maintained on a student that are not relevant to academic achievement, except that records regarding disciplinary action shall be separately maintained. (3) Employees and guests of a school district may not use psychotherapeutic techniques such as group therapy or sensitivity training without prior written permission of the parent. (4) Except in an emergency situation, which may include death of a relative, a school may not use guidance counseling regarding a student's social, emotional, mental, or personal problems without written notification to the parent within three working days of such counseling. Parental notification is not to be construed as continuing beyond the specific subject of discussion during consultation, unless the parent gives written permission to expand the scope of counseling. A school district may allow a student to participate in limited guidance counseling without the prior written consent of the parent if the student expresses fear or distress that leads the counselor to believe there is a possibility that the child is experiencing child abuse or neglect as defined in RCW 26.44.020. NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A parent has the right to be informed of student progress. A parent shall be apprised no less than three times during each school year, in writing, by the teacher or principal, of a student's progress in the basic skills. Such information as standing in the class and standing in relation to national norms shall also be provided to a parent upon request if available. NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) This chapter shall be liberally construed to protect and enforce the rights this chapter creates and reaffirms. (2) This chapter has precedence over any now existing law to the contrary. State board of education rules as well as the rules of the superintendent of public instruction shall be deemed amended by chapter ..., Laws of 1997 (this act). NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 28A RCW. NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goings: "Senator Stevens, I am looking on page 3, line 21 and below Section 4, talking about an emergency situation, which may include death of a relative. It says, 'A school may not use guidance counseling, etc.' We know and we see a lot today that when tragedies occur around our schools, which they do quite often, that counselors are brought in to talk to students about what has occurred. In my understanding in reading this, that would be prohibited, so, basically, if someone on the school campus--my friend on campus--was hurt, they would not be able to bring in counselors to talk to me about that, unless, first, they were able to contact my parents and get their permission to talk to me about the emergency situation that had just occurred."

Senator Stevens: "No, that is not correct. We have cleaned that portion of it up. If you will note, on line 20, it says, 'The training and sensitivity training is mentioned without prior written permission,' and then it goes on to say, 'Except in an emergency situation,' and then it lists the emergency situations on down. So, then, it is not forbidden. Then, you will note down further, it talks about the notification being then given in that instance--after the fact."

Senator Goings: "It refers to, 'which may include the death of a relative,' so if a friend at school was injured somehow, this would not apply to them--that would not be an exception?"

Senator Stevens: "It would be an emergency situation that would include the death of a relative. In other words, if the death of a relative were off campus, naturally, and then that parent or whoever needed to come to the school and the school needed to assist in that, then that would certainly be allowed."

Senator Goings: "So, the death of a classmate would not be covered under this emergency?"

Senator Stevens: "On a one on one basis, the parents would then have to be notified--after the fact--that that had been done."

Senator Goings: "Thank you, Senator. Thank you, Mr. President."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senators Stevens, Long and Hargrove to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5555.

MOTION

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Jacobsen: "A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. There are two striking amendments and I was wondering which one would be the first one.?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "The striking amendment by Senators Finkbeiner and Rossi."

MOTION

Senator Finkbeiner moved that the following amendment by Senators Finkbeiner and Rossi be adopted: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following: "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. FINDINGS AND INTENT. (1) The legislature finds that: (a) The electric utility industry is undergoing fundamental change as a result of federal legislation and regulatory decisions that require utilities to provide other users with nondiscriminatory access to transmission lines. (b) It is in the interest of all Washington consumers to develop a state-wide framework that is compatible with federal developments. The goal of this new structure is to provide competitive electricity service, while maintaining existing reliability, to all of the state's residents and businesses. (c) The state should take the first steps toward providing an orderly transition to more competitive markets for electricity. (2) The legislature intends to: (a) Require electric utilities to separately account for their generation, transmission, and distribution assets and operations; (b) Require that bills for retail electric customers contain new price information; and (c) Require new market entrants that are not existing electric utilities in the state to register with the utilities and transportation commission. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise. (1) "Commission" means the utilities and transportation commission. (2) "Consumer-owned utility" means an electric cooperative formed under chapter 23.86 RCW, an irrigation district formed under chapter 87.03 RCW that sells electricity to retail electric customers, a municipal electric utility formed under Title 35 RCW, a mutual corporation or association formed under chapter 24.06 RCW that sells electricity to retail electric customers, or a public utility district formed under Title 54 RCW. (3) "Control area services" means reactive power, spinning reserves, voltage control and regulation, and other related services necessary to sustain reliable delivery of electricity to a retail electric customer. (4) "Delivery services" means the services needed to deliver electricity to a retail electric customer using the transmission, distribution, and other facilities of an electrical company or consumer-owned utility. (5) "Electrical company" means a company owned by investors that meets the definition of RCW 80.04.010. (6) "Electricity" means electric energy, measured in kilowatt hours, or electric capacity, measured in kilowatts, or both. (7) "Electricity service supplier" means any person or entity that sells electricity to more than one retail electric customer, including but not limited to an electrical company, consumer-owned utility, aggregator, power marketer, broker, or independent power producer. The Bonneville power administration, established pursuant to 16 U.S.C. Sec. 832 et seq., or its successor, is not an electricity service supplier for purposes of this chapter. (8) "Governing body" means the board of directors, the council of a city or town, or the commissioners of an electric cooperative, irrigation district, municipal electric utility, mutual association, or public utility district, respectively, that has the authority to set and approve rates. (9) "Joint operating agency" means an agency organized pursuant to chapter 43.52 RCW. (10) "Retail electric customer" means any person or entity, including but not limited to residential, commercial, and industrial consumer, that purchases electricity for ultimate consumption and not for resale. (11) "Small consumer-owned utility" means any consumer-owned utility with twenty-five thousand or fewer meters in service or that has an average of seven or fewer customers per mile of distribution line. NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. SEPARATE ACCOUNTING REQUIREMENTS. No later than September 1, 1998, every consumer-owned utility and electrical company shall: (1) Separately account for generation, transmission, and distribution assets and operations, according to the costs contributed by each class of customers, to facilitate the accurate assessment of the costs of such functions; and (2) restate its published rates into at least the following rate elements: Electricity; delivery services; and control area services. NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. DISCLOSURE TO CONSUMERS. No later than October 1, 1998, every consumer-owned utility, electrical company, or electricity service supplier shall provide on a regular basis the following information to its retail electric customers: (1) A complete and accurate list of the rates for each service or product set forth in section 3(2) of this act that the customer is purchasing; (2) the rates of state and local electricity taxes, if any, paid by the customer; and (3) other price information necessary to facilitate customer choice, as determined by the commission for electrical companies and electricity service suppliers, pursuant to rules adopted under RCW 80.04.160, or by the governing body of each consumer-owned utility. NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. SMALL UTILITIES. Small consumer-owned utilities are not required to comply with sections 3 and 4 of this act until January 1, 1999. Sec. 6. RCW 80.28.075 and 1988 c 166 s 2 are each amended to read as follows: Upon request by a natural gas company or an electrical company, the commission may approve a tariff that includes banded rates for any (~~nonresidential~~) natural gas or electric service that is subject to effective competition from energy suppliers not regulated by the utilities and transportation commission. "Banded rate" means a rate that has a minimum and maximum rate. Rates may be changed within the rate band upon such notice as the commission may order. NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Captions used in this act are not part of the law. NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 5 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 80 RCW."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Snyder: "A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. If the body adopts the striking amendment by Senators Finkbeiner and Rossi, what will the status of the striking amendment by Senators Brown and Jacobsen be?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Snyder, it would be the ruling of the Chair, that the first striking amendment would be an amendment to the bill. The second striker would be an amendment to the striking amendment and, therefore, you could have an amendment to the amendment and handle the second striker as well."

Senator Snyder: "Your ruling ruled that the striking amendment by Senators Brown and Jacobsen can be offered as an amendment to the amendment?"

President Owen: "That is correct."

Senator Snyder: "I think that is probably what the sponsors of the amendment would like to do then."

President Owen: "Yes, Senator, that would be correct."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator West: "A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. The striking amendment by Senators Brown and Jacobsen is a drafter to the underlying bill and not to the striking amendment by Senators Finkbeiner and Rossi. So, for the amendment by Senators Brown and Jacobsen to be considered as an amendment to the striking amendment by Senators Finkbeiner and Rossi, I believe it would have to be written to the striking amendment."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator West, the issue is we have a striking amendment and then we have another striking amendment that would perfect. Therefore, we are handling it as though it is an amendment to the striking amendment."

MOTION

Senator Brown moved that the following amendment by Senators Brown and Jacobsen to the striking amendment by Senators Finkbeiner and Rossi be adopted:

Beginning on line 7, of the striking amendment, strike all material down through and including "RCW." on page 4, line 6, and insert the following: "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. INTENT. The state of Washington is affected by national, regional, and state-wide changes that are transforming the nature of the electric power industry. These changes have profound implications for Washington's economy and environment. The legislature finds that: (1) The interests of the citizens of Washington will be served by having access to a choice of electric services and energy providers, provided that basic safeguards relating to consumer protection and access are met and investments that preserve the electric system reliability and environmental protection are not undermined. (2) The transition to a competitive retail electricity market requires that investments in conservation, renewable resources, and low-income service be made in a competitively neutral manner and, further, that minimum investment standards for these purposes are necessary and desirable as the industry becomes more competitive. (3) Electricity is an essential service and should be reasonably accessible and affordable to all consumers, regardless of income or geographic location. The unique circumstances and value of small, rural electric systems should be taken into account as industry restructuring moves forward. It is the intent of this act to begin the comprehensive restructuring of the retail sale of energy in the state of Washington. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. The definitions in this section apply throughout this act unless the context clearly requires otherwise. (1) "Commission" means the utilities and transportation commission. (2) "Department" means the department of community, trade, and economic development. (3) "Direct service industrial customer" has the same meaning as the term is defined in section 3(8) of the Pacific Northwest electric power plan and conservation act, P.L. 96-501. (4) "Electric cooperative" means a cooperative or association organized under chapter 23.86 or 24.06 RCW. (5) "Electricity distributor" means an electrical company, electric cooperative, irrigation district, municipal electric utility, public utility district, or public service company engaged in the business of providing distribution services to retail customers.

(6) "Electricity service supplier" means any person or entity that sells electricity to one or more retail customers, including but not limited to electrical companies, electric cooperatives, irrigation districts, municipal electric utilities, public utility districts, aggregators, marketers, brokers, independent power producers, public service companies, or other municipal or state authorities. (7) "Irrigation district" means a district authorized by chapter 87.03 RCW. (8) "Municipal electric utility" means a city or town that owns and operates an electric utility authorized by chapter 35.92 RCW. (9) "Pilot program" means an experimental program, rate, or tariff designed to elicit information concerning the cost-effectiveness, marketing, design, evaluation, or cost structure of the provision of distribution and electricity by electrical distribution companies and electricity service suppliers. (10) "Public utility district" means a district authorized by chapter 54.04 RCW that sells electricity to retail customers. (11) "Retail customer" means any person or entity that purchases electricity for ultimate consumption and not for resale. (12) "Task force" means the task force created in section 3 of this act. NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. TASK FORCE ON ELECTRIC SYSTEM RESTRUCTURING. (1) There is created a task force on electric system restructuring. Sec. 6. PILOT PROGRAMS. In order to obtain information about the likely effects of restructuring the electric industry, the legislature: (1) Encourages pilot programs between retail customers and electrical companies under the commission's rate jurisdiction, particularly programs to facilitate the development of aggregators that can provide competitively priced power for small consumers; (2) Encourages governing bodies of public utility districts, municipal electric utilities, and electric cooperatives to undertake pilot programs with retail electric customers under their rate jurisdiction, particularly programs to facilitate the development of aggregators that can provide competitively priced power for small consumers; (3) Encourages the commission and governing bodies to provide to the task force results of information learned from the pilot programs. NEW SECTION. Senator Sheldon demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senators Brown and Jacobsen beginning on line 7 to the striking amendment by Senators Finkbeiner and Rossi to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6006.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the striking amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 21; Nays, 27; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Brown, Fairley, Franklin, Fraser, Goings, Hargrove, Haugen, Jacobsen, Kline, Kohl, Loveland, McAuliffe, Patterson, Prentice, Sheldon, Snyder, Spanel, Swanson, Thibaudeau and Wojahn - 21. Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Benton, Deccio, Finkbeiner, Hale, Heavey, Hochstatter, Horn, Johnson, Long, McCaslin, McDonald, Morton, Newhouse, Oke, Prince, Roach, Rossi, Schow, Sellar, Stevens, Strannigan, Swecker, West, Winsley, Wood and Zarelli - 27. Excused: Senator Rasmussen - 1. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senators Finkbeiner and Rossi to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6006.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Franklin: "Senator Finkbeiner, were all parties, including public utilities, private--all parties--were they all involved with the drafting of this amendment?"

Senator Finkbeiner: "With this amendment? No, actually this amendment was taken from an original bill that came before the committee. All parties testified on the bill. At the time, there was one group, that was Rural Electric, that had some concerns on it. Their concerns were, specifically, accommodated in this amendment and in the bill that we were considering in the committee. So, while they did not draft it--as all bills are drafted by the Legislature, they did testify on it and there was overwhelming testimony for it.

"At the time, everybody said that this is a good move and so when we stepped back from the comprehensive bill, which underlies this bill, this seemed like a good place to go because there was common agreement in the committee. As far as I know, there is still common agreement, with the exception, perhaps, of some of the unions. Everybody else, as far as I know, is supporting this."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Jacobsen: "Senator Finkbeiner, looking at the striking amendment and looking at Section 1, 2 (c), it says, 'Require new market entrants that are not existing electric utilities in the state to register with the utilities and transportation commission.' What is the purpose of that section?"

Senator Finkbeiner: "As I understand, the purpose of that section is that there are pilot projects, pilot projects which were mentioned in your amendment, Senator Jacobsen, just a moment ago. In those pilot projects, when we have new market entrants coming in, we just want to make sure they are reliable providers of electricity. So, we are asking that they register with the commission and provide that type of information"

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Finkbeiner carried and the striking amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Finkbeiner, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "industry;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 80.28.075; adding a new chapter to Title 80 RCW; and creating a new section." On motion of Senator Finkbeiner, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6006 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6006.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6006 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; Nays, 17; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Brown, Fairley, Franklin, Fraser, Jacobsen, Kline, Kohl, Loveland, McAuliffe, Patterson, Prentice, Sheldon, Snyder, Spanel, Swanson, Thibaudeau and Wojahn - 17. Excused: Senator Rasmussen - 1. ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6006, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.

However, the foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to the following activities: ~~((4))~~ ~~(a)~~ Action taken at an open public meeting by members of an elected legislative body to express a collective decision, or to actually vote upon a motion, proposal, resolution, order, or ordinance, or to support or oppose a ballot proposition so long as ~~((a))~~ ~~(i)~~ any required notice of the meeting includes the title and number of the ballot proposition, and ~~((b))~~ ~~(ii)~~ members of the legislative body or members of the public are afforded an approximately equal opportunity for the expression of an opposing view; ~~((2))~~ ~~(b)~~ A statement by an elected official in support of or in opposition to any ballot proposition at an open press conference or in response to a specific inquiry; ~~((3))~~ ~~(c)~~ Activities which are part of the normal and regular conduct of the office or agency. (2) No association, organization, or entity that derives more than twenty-five percent of its income from dues, assessments, government contracts, or membership fees paid with public funds may provide any financial support or use of its facilities for or against a ballot proposition or candidate for public office. Sec. 2. RCW 36.32.350 and 1991 c 363 s 59 are each amended to read as follows: County legislative authorities may designate the Washington state association of counties as a coordinating agency in the execution of duties imposed by RCW 36.32.335 through 36.32.360 and reimburse the association from county current expense funds in the county legislative authority's budget for the costs of any such services rendered. No reimbursement shall be made for contributions to political committees or for funds used as political contributions. Such reimbursement shall be paid on vouchers submitted to the county auditor and approved by the county legislative authority in the manner provided for the disbursement of other current expense funds and the vouchers shall set forth the nature of the service rendered, supported by affidavit that the service has actually been performed. Sec. 3. RCW 36.47.040 and 1991 c 363 s 71 are each amended to read as follows: Each county which designates the Washington state association of county officials as the agency through which the duties imposed by RCW 36.47.020 may be executed is authorized to reimburse the association from the county current expense fund for the cost of any such services rendered(~~(- PROVIDED, That)~~). However, no reimbursement shall be made to the association for any expenses incurred under RCW 36.47.050 for travel, meals, or lodging of such county officials, or their representatives at such meetings, but such expenses may be paid by such official's respective county as other expenses are paid for county business. Such reimbursement shall be paid only on vouchers submitted to the county auditor and approved by the legislative authority of each county in the manner provided for the disbursement of other current expense funds. Each such voucher shall set forth the nature of the services rendered by the association, supported by affidavit that the services were actually performed. No reimbursement shall be made for contributions to political committees or for funds used as political contributions." Senator Haugen moved that the following amendment to the striking amendment be adopted:

On page 2, after line 2 of the amendment, insert the following: "(3) The records of the association, organization, or entity are made available to the public for inspection and copying under the provisions of this chapter, as if the records were public records and the entity were a local government." Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Haugen on page 2, after line 2, to the striking amendment by Senator Haugen to Senate Bill No. 5460.

The motion by Senator Haugen failed and the amendment to the striking amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Haugen moved that the following amendment to the striking amendment be adopted:

On page 2, after line 2 of the amendment, insert the following: "(3) Meetings of the board of directors, or any committee of the board of directors, are open to the public under the provisions of chapter 42.30 RCW, as if the association, organization, or entity were a public agency and the board of directors were a governing body." Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson asked Senator McCaslin to yield to a question and Senator McCaslin would not yield to a question.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Haugen, doesn't this amendment simply say that if you receive your membership dues or if your membership dues are paid with public funds--funds that come from the public tax dollars--if that is the case, the board of directors meetings--the meetings that these folks have--must be open to the public, the same public that are paying the dues?"

Senator Haugen: "That is absolutely correct."

Senator Patterson: "And that is exactly what this amendment is about, isn't that correct, Senator?"

Senator Haugen: "That is correct."

Senator Patterson: "Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Haugen on page 2, after line 2, to the striking amendment by Senator Haugen to Senate Bill No. 5460.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson asked Senator McCaslin to yield to a question and Senator McCaslin would not yield to a question.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Haugen, doesn't this amendment simply say that if an organization is receiving a portion of its income from the public, that is you and I, who pay taxes with our hard-earned money, if an organization is receiving money from us, that that organization should simply submit to a periodic audit?"

Senator Haugen: "You are absolutely correct. That is exactly what it does and I can't understand why our colleagues on the other side of the aisle wouldn't join us in this good government amendment."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Haugen on page 2, after line 2, to the striking amendment by Senator Haugen to Senate Bill No. 5460.

WITHDRAWAL OF AMENDMENT

Senator Swecker: "Thank you, Mr. President. With your permission I would like to withdraw the amendment No. 218."

MOTION

Senator Swecker moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following: "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that: (1) Minor children often lack the ability to make fully informed choices that take into account both the immediate and long-range consequences of their actions; (2) the medical, physiological, emotional, and psychological consequences of abortion are serious and can be lasting, particularly when the patient is a minor child; (3) the capacity to become pregnant and the capacity for mature judgment, concerning whether to obtain an abortion, are not logically related; (4) parents ordinarily possess information essential to a physician's exercise of his or her best medical judgment concerning the parent's minor child; and (5) a parent who is aware that his or her minor daughter is having an abortion may better ensure that she receives adequate medical attention subsequent to her abortion. The legislature further finds that parental consultation is desirable and in the best interest of the minor child. It is the intent of the legislature to further the legitimate and compelling state interests of protecting minor children against their own immaturity, fostering the family structure and preserving it as a viable social unit, and protecting the rights of parents to rear minor children who are members of their household. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply throughout this chapter. (1) "Minor" means any person under the age of eighteen years. (2) "Emancipated minor" means any minor who is or has been married, or has by court order otherwise been freed from the care, custody, and control of her parents or legal guardian. (3) "Abortion" means the use of any instrument, medicine, drug, or other substance or device with intent to terminate the pregnancy of a female known to be pregnant. (4) "Next friend" means one acting for the benefit of a minor or another person who is unable to look after her own interest. The next friend is not a party to the action, but is an officer of the court who serves without being regularly appointed as a guardian ad litem. NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Except in a medical emergency requiring immediate medical action, no abortion shall be performed upon an unemancipated, pregnant minor unless she has first given her written consent to the abortion and has also notified a parent or her legal guardian. (2) If neither of the parents nor the legal guardian is available within a reasonable time or manner, or cannot be located after a reasonable effort has been made to locate a parent or guardian, or the parties who must be notified pursuant to this section refuse to accept notification of the performance of an abortion, or the minor elects not to notify those to whom notification is required, then the pregnant minor may petition, on her own behalf or by next friend, the superior court of any county of this state for a waiver of the notification requirement of this section under the procedures of section 4 of this act. The physician performing the abortion shall explain to the patient the term "emancipated minor" and shall ask the patient if she is or is not an emancipated minor. The patient shall inform the physician whether she is or is not an emancipated minor. NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The requirements and procedures under this chapter are available and apply to unemancipated, pregnant minors whether or not they are residents of this state. The basic juvenile court act, chapter 13.04 RCW, shall not apply to proceedings or procedures conducted under this chapter. (2) The court shall ensure that the minor or her next friend is given assistance in preparing and filing the petition, and shall ensure that the minor's identity is kept confidential. (3) The minor may participate in proceedings in the court on her own behalf, and the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for her. The court shall advise her that she has a right to court-appointed counsel and shall provide her with counsel upon her request. (4) Court proceedings under this section shall be confidential, shall be conducted in the judge's chambers, and shall be given precedence over other pending matters as is necessary to ensure that the court may reach a decision promptly, but in no case may the court fail to rule within four court days from the time of application, unless extended at the request of the minor. (5) The notification requirement shall be waived if the court finds either: (a) That the minor is sufficiently mature and sufficiently well-informed to make the abortion decision on her own; or (b) That the performance of the abortion would be in the minor's best interest. (6) A court that conducts proceedings under this section shall issue written and specific findings of fact and conclusions of law supporting its decision and shall order that a confidential record of the evidence be maintained. (7) An expedited, confidential appeal shall be available, as the supreme court shall provide by rule, to any minor or guardian ad litem, but in no case may the court of appeals fail to rule within seven court days from the time the notice of appeal has been filed, unless extended at the request of the minor. (8) The supreme court is requested to adopt any rules necessary to ensure that proceedings under this chapter are handled in an expeditious and confidential manner. (9) No fees may be required of any minor who avails herself of the procedures provided by this section. NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The requirements of section 3 of this act shall not apply when, in the best medical judgment of a physician based on the facts of the particular case, a medical emergency exists that so complicates the pregnancy as to require an immediate abortion. NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SWECKER

Senator Swecker: "Speaking to this amendment, I need to speak to the underlying bill, because it is the bill. First, I'd just like to simply state what the bill does do. It provides that before an abortion on a minor child can be performed, at least one of the parents must be notified. It allows for an immediate abortion if, in the opinion of a physician, an emergency exists. And it provides that any minor child or her friend can petition the superior court for relief from this act.

"This bill, this proposed substitute, is dramatically different from the original legislation that was considered in committee. These are the things that have been changed: The bill no longer includes an emergency clause; it changed the provisions of the bill so that it required the notification of only one parent, not both parents; it provides that the proceedings would take place in the judge's chambers to preserve the anonymity of the minor; it changes the provision that a guardian ad litem shall be appointed to the provision that one may be appointed, and that is because in other states, they have found that they don't always need to appoint a guardian ad litem--these cases are so simple; it defines the word 'friend,' and basically, a friend is anyone that the child chooses to act as their advocate. That could be another relative; it could be a minister; it could be a clinic counselor; it could be the nurse in the doctor's office; it could be the doctor; it could be anyone. It's a very broad term, and we're trying to be as inclusive as possible.

"The bill does away with all of the reporting requirements that were originally included for the doctors. And, finally, it eliminates all of the criminal penalties that previously existed in the bill. I think it's really important to understand what the conditions are when the court tries to make the decision whether they should waive the requirement that the parent be notified. The provisions are very simple. You don't have to prove you're in a bad home; you don't have to prove that you've been abused; you don't have to prove that you're being threatened or anything like that. The only thing the judge rules on is whether the child is sufficiently mature and sufficiently well informed to make the decision. The other provision, even if the child isn't sufficiently mature, the judge can rule in favor of the minor child, in this case, if it's simply in the best interest of the child. So, it's not an onerous standard at all; it's a very simple standard. It may even be one that a good child from a good home might want to petition the court just because they don't want to tell their folks, and if the judge says that they are sufficiently mature to make the decision, and it's in their best interest, that satisfies the requirement of the law.

"I think it's also important to note--I'll save my remarks for the final passage, but I urge your support of this amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR THIBAudeau

Senator Thibaudeau: "Thank you, Mr. President. Rising to oppose the amendment. This does a couple of things. It still does them, and that is it puts the doctor in the position of being a law enforcer. He's got to know all the provisions of this bill--he or she I should say, because there are certainly more women these days--got to know all the provisions of this bill, and when he violates the bill, then he breaks the law, so we are criminalizing physicians once again.

"In terms of health care of the adolescent, and everybody wants to know of the health care of their children, nobody has any doubt about that. But, when they don't, when you delay these things, then what happens is, the child's health is jeopardized, either through delaying the process, having to go to court, and most kids really aren't going to--whether it's in chambers or in the regular courtroom--aren't going to be knowledgeable enough to do this. So, they're going to delay, they're going to put it off, their health is jeopardized. Their health is jeopardized, and, once again, it makes it very, very difficult for them, and that's the whole goal of this effort is to make the choice for abortion, not a choice at all. Again, we all want to know about the health care of our children, but this drives them into trying to do it themselves, trying to go to the back alley, and that's the purpose of this. I understand that, and I respect other people's opinions, but I just simply can't vote for this bill, even as amended. Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senator Swecker to Senate Bill No. 5255.

The motion by Senator Swecker carried and the striking amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Swecker, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5255 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

REMARKS BY SENATOR SWECKER

Senator Swecker: "Thank you. You've heard some of the questions that people have about this legislation. What about the doctors? What will the doctor's procedures be in the event this legislation passes? I really think it will change only one thing. The doctors will either talk to the parents when the parents come with the minor child for this procedure, at which time they'll probably have a notice that the parent signed saying they've been notified. Or, they'll send a certified letter to the parent. It's going to be real simple. I'm sure that's exactly what an attorney would advise a doctor. In fact, I've consulted with attorneys on the legislation, and that's exactly what they've told me is that they'll simply send out a certified letter that has a signature when it's received.

"We've also heard the concern that this will complicate the process unnecessarily for the minor child. I would submit to you that, even today, when a child makes a decision to get an abortion, there's always a point of first contact. I believe that is the point at which the child will have adequate opportunity to initiate this relief from the provisions of the act. I think those first contacts are often doctors, their nurses, their family planning clinic counselors. They may be adult relatives; they may be school counselors. In any case, each one of those individuals acting as the friend of the child will then be able to pick up the phone and call the court. And these procedures, when they've been adopted in other states, have been very expeditious. They're a fifteen minute procedure as far as getting the permission. They cost the courts less than $50.00, so it's turned out to be very simple.

"Finally, to close, I want to say that these are the effects of the legislation in other states--a decrease in abortion ranging from thirteen percent in Pennsylvania, to forty percent in Nebraska, a decrease in teen pregnancy ranging from 2.8 percent in Mississippi to seven percent in Pennsylvania, and a decrease in live births to teens ranging from twenty-four percent in Michigan to eleven percent in Nebraska. So, I submit to you that this bill is a very painless way to achieve the end that we all seek, and I urge your support."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FAIRLEY

Senator Fairley: "Thank you, Mr. President. Well, I rise in great opposition to this bill. You know, it's not a perfect world; I really wish it were. Then this bill would help. But, you know, this bill isn't going to make young women trust their parents, and it's not going to make parents care for their kids. I've worked with pregnant teenagers. I know what's out there--rape, incest, abandonment. You know, young women who are pregnant, are often very fearful. They're undergoing a time of great trauma, and very, very often, they're ashamed. This leads them to do things that may harm them. And, as a parent, I want to tell you, you don't want that. You just don't want that. As I say, if it were a perfect world, this might work, but, it isn't. I ask you to vote 'no.'"

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARGROVE

Senator Hargrove: "Thank you, Mr. President. Well, I appreciate the debate on this, and it's being done in a civil manner here, but I would like to say that this really isn't an up or down on the pro life or pro choice issue, because certainly I think there are many pro choice parents that would like to be involved in this decision with their minor child. If you have a twelve or thirteen year old that's going in for a significant medical procedure--by the way which all other medical procedures, you would need the parent's permission to go forward with. Now, we're just saying just notify one of the parents unless, and there's a list of good reasons why you, in fact, almost no reason why you can go to court and get out of this. And, in fact, even somebody from the clinic can go down to the court and say, 'We don't want this child to have to notify their parents for X, Y or Z reason.'

“We've passed legislation across this floor that suggests that if a child is going to participate in mental health treatment, the parents need to be notified. Already in medical procedures, parents have to be notified. What we do is, we have a situation here where this is a significant medical procedure, things don't always go right. Sometimes, it goes wrong. Sometimes somebody that's getting an abortion gets injured, and guess who has to pick up the pieces and deal with that after the fact? The parent does. The people from the clinic aren't there to counsel and nurture, and be able to take care of the child afterwards. The parent is the one that's going to have to deal with those issues. I think this, especially the way it's been amended, is eminently reasonable. All we're trying to do is be able to connect parents to their kids when there is a very significant medical decision to be made. And then, it doesn't require the parent's consent, just that they have a chance to talk to them. It also says, as we've mentioned before, if there's any reservation about doing that, there's a process set up by where they can avoid that.

“I don't see what possible more exceptions you could put in this to make it reasonable. I think we need to realize that many parents may say, 'You know, you don't want to have this unwanted child, you don't want to be a thirteen year old with a child to take care of,' and encourage their child to get an abortion. That's not what I would do, but many parents may do that. And, instead of the child having to worry about what their parent is going to think, they may have support in that decision. But, instead, we're going to put them through this very traumatic decision at a very young age, without the support of their parent. I would urge you to support this bill.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOJAHN

Senator Wojahn: “Speaking against this bill. All parents are not nurturing, and all parents don't care about their kids. Often, these are the kids that get in trouble. They have no one to turn to. Now, we're going to force them into a court situation that they will probably know nothing about. I think that's wrong. I think that we need to understand that all things out there are not as good as you'd like to see it.

“I'm thinking of a case that occurred in our neighborhood not too many years ago where a youngster was impregnated by her father--incest. She did not know what to do. I don't think that this bill would help her in knowing what to do, and I think that it is the wrong approach. Please vote 'no.'”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: “Thank you, Mr. President. Will the gentleman from the twentieth district please yield to a question? Thank you, Senator. I was just curious. Does the underlying bill require the young man--the young man who helped to create the pregnancy--does the underlying bill require him to notify at least one of his parents?”

Senator Swecker: “Thank you for that question. That's an interesting one. Actually, I think you'll find that in many cases, the young man who impregnates the child is not so young after all. The young man may be someone who's over eighteen or even over twenty-one. And, in that case, that person may actually intimidate and threaten that minor to go get an abortion. In this case, because there is some procedure, I think that the rights of that child have a much more likely opportunity to be protected. In fact, in the cases of where a crime has been committed against that child, that that individual may be prosecuted. This is an added safeguard for that minor child. It's not an additional penalty or an additional hurdle.”

Senator Patterson: “So, in other words, Senator, if the young person who is sixteen or seventeen years old who was instrumental in creating a pregnancy happens to be a man, or a young man--a boy--he does not have to notify his parents. Is that correct, Senator?”

Senator Swecker: “As I understand the legislation, I don't think he is trying to receive a medical procedure.”

FURTHER REMARKS BY SENATOR PATTERSON

Senator Patterson: “Thank you, Senator. I'd like to continue on. Ladies and gentlemen, I really don't believe that this bill is about anyone's health or welfare, today. I think if it were, we would let doctors be doctors and legislators be legislators. Doctors don't encourage minors to get abortions. In fact, the American College of Obstetricians encourages their young patients to involve their parents to help them deal with this problem. In the end, though, it is the patient who decides whether that parental involvement would be helpful or not. Remember, it is her life. The entire course of her life is what will be changed.

“We don't require young women who are going to put their children up for adoption to seek their parents permission. I think the bill is hypercritical. I think we should focus on what is really important here. What is really important here is keeping these young women safe. Legislating this type of communication will result in dangerous, back-alley abortions, and it will result in young girls--teenaged girls--running away. We should vote 'no.'”

REMARKS BY SENATOR KOHL

Senator Kohl: “Thank you, Mr. President. I speak in opposition to this bill, and I do say, as a parent of five children. I've struggled with this issue as a parent for many reasons. I would certainly want to be notified if my daughter were pregnant and was seeking an abortion. I would certainly want to be notified if any of my four sons had impregnated a young woman. However, I also realize that there is no way that this bill would create closer, more loving families. If it were to, I would be the loudest 'aye' in this chamber, but it won't. In fact, it could serve to drive troubled families apart and could serve, as the previous speaker indicated, to cause harm, danger for many young women.

“The House heard testimony on a companion bill from a man, a father, who traveled here from another state. He believed that his family was very close, that his daughter was very close to the family. Unfortunately, his daughter became pregnant. She did not notify her parents of wanting to seek an abortion, not because she was afraid of them, or because there was any abuse in the family. In fact, it was a very close, warm family. She did not notify her family, and therefor seek a legal abortion, because she did not want to bring shame to them--which she felt. Instead, she tried a self-induced abortion and she died. That father wept before the House committee and plead with the House committee to not report that bill out of the committee. He knew in the state where he lived, the dangers of the parental notification law. He knew it firsthand, and his daughter is now dead.

"We must consider what happens in those states without parental notification laws in which more than seventy-five percent of minors under the age of sixteen do involve one or both parents. That's what we want to happen, but we can't legislate closeness in families, and we cannot legislate if some young women will feel shame and will not seek to have their parents involved. I urge you to defeat this bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kline: "Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, would the Senator from the twentieth yield to a question? Senator, in this striking amendment that you've presented, is there any exception for a young woman who is the victim of parental incest, or parental abuse, whether it's psychological, sexual, or other physical abuse?"

Senator Swecker: "Yes, there is."

Senator Kline: "And where is that?"

Senator Swecker: "That's the section that provides for relief from the act by a superior court justice."

Senator Kline: "May I continue? Is there any guideline that indicates to the judge that among the criteria he or she is to consult, that the parental abuse, whether it's physical, sexual abuse or psychological abuse, or incest, is a criterion for a decision?"

Senator Swecker: "There's really two ways in law to list those kinds of criteria. One is to give a laundry list of things that would constitute the kind of exclusion that you're asking for. The other way is to make a list of the only things that the judge must consider. In fact, there were only two things listed and one of those is--is it in the minor's best interest? I think, given that provision, in the cases that you cite, that would be exactly the criteria that they would use."

FURTHER REMARKS BY SENATOR KLINE

Senator Kline: "May I continue, Mr. President? Ladies and gentlemen, in 1991, the voters of our state--that's only six years ago--passed Initiative 120. Our constituents, taken collectively, are pro-choice. However, there has been this constant attempt to erode the rights that we decided for ourselves in Initiative 120, and that some years earlier had been found constitutionally mandated in Roe v. Wade. This bill is a manifestation of that constant, nagging erosion of our rights.

"Now it's phrased in a rather benign way. We're simply asked to agree that parents of the girl, not the boy, should be notified and should be required to go to a judge if she seeks an alternative to that notification requirement. Again, as Senator Patterson pointed out, there is no requirement on the boy notifying his parents who are also the grandparents of the soon to be born baby. What this does is simply to create a chilling effect--and I believe this is intended--upon a young woman who's scared and confused.

"Let's face it, the girls who tend to be in this situation, before the age of eighteen, are likely to be not those with the best relationship with their parents. This is a generality and I know there are many exceptions, but it's one we all understand. A girl who is raised in a loving home is less likely, not entirely unlikely, to be pregnant at the age of fifteen, sixteen or seventeen. And it is yet this age that we are asking, we are requiring, that girl to tell her parents, whether or not her parents physical abuse, sexual abuse, psychological abuse or actual incest, is in any way related to her situation. I find that this is a much greater moral sin than the abortion that may result from her choice. I urge a 'no' vote on this bill. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ANDERSON

Senator Anderson: "Thank you, Mr. President. I am going to ask everybody--and the last speaker really talked about pro choice or pro life. Let's step back from those labels for a minute. We're talking about parents and children in this bill. A few years ago as I sat in the desk where Senator Spanel is right now, I got a call on the Senate floor. We were in session and the call came, 'Would you please meet at the hospital because Cory just fell off her horse. We can't treat her, she needs stitches--until we get your authority to do so.' I rushed out of this body to the hospital where they were waiting for me to give the authorization to stitch her chin up. In this state, right now, minors have to have that type of authorization for medical care which Cory did the day that she fell off her horse.

"I'm supporting this bill because--some of you know this--Cory is my miracle baby. If she's going to go through something like this, I want her parents to know. With my miracle baby, I want to know what's happening. Some of you have concerns about parents who are not like me. Parents who don't care about their children and I want to thank Senator Swecker for very carefully putting in the judicial bypass that allows those children without caring parents to have a way of dealing with that without caring parents. Please, on behalf of the caring parents in this state who need to know what their children are doing, pass this bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOINGS

Senator Goings: "Thank you, Mr. President. As most members of the Senate know, I don't have a daughter, but I truly hope and pray that one day I will. And I hope and I pray that my daughter will grow up healthy and she will grow up strong and she will be willing to come to me, God forbid, when she's in trouble. But I know that sometimes life doesn't match our plans and it doesn't match our expectations. I know how some children make mistakes. I know how they're ashamed, and I know how, because of that shame they fear disappointing their parents. Which leads me to a most sincere and honest prayer. That there never be a law in the state of Washington that can force my daughter to put her life in danger just to save me from disappointment. I urge you to vote 'no' on this bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HEAVEY

Senator Heavey: "Thank you. Being a male I hesitate to speak, but I must. Section 3, Subsection 2 says that if neither the parents or the legal guardians are available or cannot be located, or the parties who must be notified refuse to accept notification--which could happen--or that the minor elects not to notify those required, then go to court. Once you're in court in an expeditious manner not to exceed four days, the judge can find that the notification requirement shall not be waived. Here we are again. We're either into an illegal, dangerous abortion or stopping a very difficult choice that this young lady must make.

"This bill doesn't do what you think it might do. It comes down to the judge if the parents refuse through notification, and the judge can say, 'No, I don't waive the notification requirement.' I don't know how many judges there are in this state, I think at least two hundred to five hundred, and a judge can say, 'No.' You can't exercise the freedom of choice. For that and a lot of other reasons, I urge a 'no' vote on this bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR THIBAUDEAU

Senator Thibaudeau: "Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Senate, for those of you who are concerned about what's happening in other states, the number of abortions are declining. Again, this criminalizes doctors, puts them in the role of law enforcement. That's not a role that we should ask of them. The Washington State Medical Association opposes this bill very strongly, and I urge your opposition. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR OKE

Senator Oke: "Thank you, Mr. President. Fellow Senators, it's a difficult issue. I know that everybody has their attention on this. We're not talking and chatting and doing other things. We're talking about life. I really want to thank Senator Swecker and those who put this bill together. I know that there was a lot of love and care that went into this. I really publicly appreciate your effort on this issue. I thank you from the bottom of my heart, and God bless you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BENTON

Senator Benton: "Thank you, Mr. President. There's been a lot of thoughtful debate on both sides of this issue, but I just want to point out one thing. We have--to give you a point of reference, I guess--to try and bring us back to some common sense, here, in terms of passing laws on the citizens of our state. Maybe, this other law is a bad law, too; I don't know. But, let's talk about a point of reference. Currently, in Washington State, it is against the law with or without parental consent or parental notification to have a tattoo if you're under eighteen. Even with parental consent, you can't have one. This law says that we just want to notify the parent before you have an invasive medical procedure which clearly is more life threatening and more long term than having a tattoo is. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HOCHSTATTER

Senator Hochstatter: "Thank you, Mr. President. My fellow colleagues, I do appreciate this great civility that has been expressed in this chamber on this issue. Did we not try to really know each other's heart and each other's mind on this issue? Didn't we really make a very sincere effort to do that? Didn't we listen? I really think we did. I'm proud to stand here among you and see how we've taken this on.

"You know, ignorance is really a poor basis for making law. Ignorance is really a poor basis for making decisions and for building relationships, isn't it? This bill helps us to broaden information and understanding. We, as parents, all know what we want for our children, and that's got to be the very best. I hope and I pray that we can make--dispel ignorance--and help families know what's going on, that they can make their decisions and they can shield their children and love their children and whatever else, but, that we do not interpose ourselves in their sharing of information that may help them reach an intelligent decision. Thank you very much."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5255.

Senator Benton: "A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. In this bill, we have labeled this fee--in fact a fee. We are operating under restrictions of Initiative 601, particularly Section 4, of Initiative 601. Just because we call a fee a fee does not make it so, nor a tax a tax. The question that I have for the President is, can you please clarify for the body, is this, in fact, a tax or is it a fee and will it require the two-thirds majority required under 601 for increasing of taxes? Thank you."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "In ruling upon the parliamentary inquiry by Senator Benton concerning the number of votes necessary to pass Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127, the President notes that RCW 43.135.035 (Section 4 of Initiative 601) requires a two-thirds majority vote for 'any action or combination of actions by the Legislature that raises state revenue or requires revenue-neutral tax shifts.' The President must analyze two issues. First, whether the revenue raised under Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127 is a 'tax' or a 'fee,' and, second is the dedicated fund under Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127 outside the scope of Initiative 601?

“‘Fee’ or ‘tax’--It appears to the President that the word ‘revenue’ in this section means revenue in the form of new taxes or tax increases, not fees. ‘Taxes’ are intended to raise revenue for governmental purposes generally. ‘Fees’ raise revenue, also, but are charged to offset the cost of the specific governmental program facility or service provided in return for the fee. ‘Regulatory fees’ are charged to cover the cost of administering a regulatory program; ‘User fees’ are charged in return for the use of a public service or facility.

“Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127 would impose a charge which in part relates to the cost of processing vehicle sales. That part is clearly a ‘fee.’ The remainder of the charge, however, is transferred to a fund for the provision of trauma care services. The latter portion cannot properly be characterized as either a license fee or a user fee, because it is substantially unrelated to the vehicle sale. Therefore, it is properly characterized as a tax.

“‘Dedicated fund’--RCW 43.35.035 concerns the raising of ‘state revenues.’ Article VIII, Section 1(C)(4) of the State Constitution defines ‘general state revenues’ to exclude ‘moneys to be paid into and received from trust funds including, but not limited to monies received from tax levied for specific purposes.’ The President also notes that under RCW 43.135.025(4) and RCW 43.135.035(4), the state expenditure limit does not include accounts outside of the state general fund. Under these statutes, the emergency medical services and trauma care system and trust account is not included in the state general fund.

“The President finds that the tax collected under Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127 would be placed into an account for the sole and specific purpose of funding trauma care. The President, therefore, rules that the tax is outside of the definition of ‘state revenues’ under RCW 43.35.035.

“For the foregoing reasons, the President rules that the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127 requires a simple a majority vote”

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "The President would like to take this opportunity to clarify the question that was brought up yesterday about consecutive striking amendments, because I suspect we will see that happen again in the future."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "In ruling upon the point of inquiry by Senator Snyder on March 18, 1997, concerning the effect of two striking amendments to a single measure. On Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6006, the President notes that an oral correction to the amendment by Senator Brown made that amendment no longer a striking amendment to the bill, but an amendment to the striking amendment by Senator Finkbeiner. As such, Senator Snyder's inquiry was rendered moot. However, the President deems the issue of sufficient import to require the President to set down guidelines for the future.

"The Senate Rules are silent on the issue. Therefore, the President looks to Reed's Rules to the extent they are applicable, and to Senate procedural precedent to the extent Reed's Rules are not applicable. Reed's Rule 144 (addressing amendments to strike and insert paragraphs) and Reed's Rule 156 (addressing amendments to strike and insert an entire bill) suggest that only one striking amendment can be adopted. Senate precedent has followed this procedure. Also, under Senate precedent, the striking amendment that is first in number will be taken up first. As such, if the first striking amendment is adopted, the body will have chosen, and the second striking amendment will no longer be in order. If the first striking amendment is not adopted, then following Reed's Rule 142, the second striking amendment is properly before the body.

"If there are three striking amendments and the body rejects the first two, then the third is properly before the body and so on until the body has adopted a striking amendment or rejected them all."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Deccio, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5305 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5305 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Hargrove moved that the following amendments by Senators Benton, Hargrove and Fairley be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 12, after line 32, insert the following: "Sec. 4. RCW 9.94A.120 and 1996 c 275 s 2, 1996 c 215 s 5, 1996 c 199 s 1, and 1996 c 93 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows: When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section. (1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (4), (5), (6), and (8) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense. (2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence. (3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence. (4) A persistent offender shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement for life without the possibility of parole or, when authorized by RCW 10.95.030 for the crime of aggravated murder in the first degree, sentenced to death, notwithstanding the maximum sentence under any other law. An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree or assault of a child in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section. In addition, all offenders subject to the provisions of this subsection shall not be eligible for community custody, earned early release time, furlough, home detention, partial confinement, work crew, work release, or any other form of early release as defined under RCW 9.94A.150 (1), (2), (3), (5), (7), or (8), or any other form of authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility while not in the direct custody of a corrections officer or officers during such minimum terms of total confinement except in the case of an offender in need of emergency medical treatment or for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility in the case of an offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree. (5) In sentencing a first-time offender the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following: (a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation; (b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense; (c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training; (d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment; (e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or (f) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030 and/or perform community service work. (6)(a) An offender is eligible for the special drug offender sentencing alternative if: (i) The offender is convicted of the manufacture, delivery, or possession with intent to manufacture or deliver a controlled substance classified in Schedule I or II that is a narcotic drug or a felony that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW or RCW 69.50.407, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes, and the violation does not involve a sentence enhancement under RCW 9.94A.310 (3) or (4); (ii) The offender has no prior convictions for a felony in this state, another state, or the United States; and (iii) The offense involved only a small quantity of the particular controlled substance as determined by the judge upon consideration of such factors as the weight, purity, packaging, sale price, and street value of the controlled substance. (b) If the midpoint of the standard range is greater than one year and the sentencing judge determines that the offender is eligible for this option and that the offender and the community will benefit from the use of the special drug offender sentencing alternative, the judge may waive imposition of a sentence within the standard range and impose a sentence that must include a period of total confinement in a state facility for one-half of the midpoint of the standard range. During incarceration in the state facility, offenders sentenced under this subsection shall undergo a comprehensive substance abuse assessment and receive, within available resources, treatment services appropriate for the offender. The treatment services shall be designed by the division of alcohol and substance abuse of the department of social and health services, in cooperation with the department of corrections. If the midpoint of the standard range is twenty-four months or less, no more than three months of the sentence may be served in a work release status. The court shall also impose one year of concurrent community custody and community supervision that must include appropriate outpatient substance abuse treatment, crime-related prohibitions including a condition not to use illegal controlled substances, and a requirement to submit to urinalysis or other testing to monitor that status. The court may require that the monitoring for controlled substances be conducted by the department or by a treatment alternatives to street crime program or a comparable court or agency-referred program. The offender may be required to pay thirty dollars per month while on community custody to offset the cost of monitoring. In addition, the court shall impose three or more of the following conditions: (i) Devote time to a specific employment or training; (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer before any change in the offender's address or employment; (iii) Report as directed to a community corrections officer; (iv) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations; (v) Perform community service work; (vi) Stay out of areas designated by the sentencing judge. (c) If the offender violates any of the sentence conditions in (b) of this subsection, the department shall impose sanctions administratively, with notice to the prosecuting attorney and the sentencing court. Upon motion of the court or the prosecuting attorney, a violation hearing shall be held by the court. If the court finds that conditions have been willfully violated, the court may impose confinement consisting of up to the remaining one-half of the midpoint of the standard range. All total confinement served during the period of community custody shall be credited to the offender, regardless of whether the total confinement is served as a result of the original sentence, as a result of a sanction imposed by the department, or as a result of a violation found by the court. The term of community supervision shall be tolled by any period of time served in total confinement as a result of a violation found by the court. (d) The department shall determine the rules for calculating the value of a day fine based on the offender's income and reasonable obligations which the offender has for the support of the offender and any dependents. These rules shall be developed in consultation with the administrator for the courts, the office of financial management, and the commission. (7) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or other legal financial obligations. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence. (8)(a)(i) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.050 or a sex offense that is also a serious violent offense and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sex offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment. The report of the examination shall include at a minimum the following: The defendant's version of the facts and the official version of the facts, the defendant's offense history, an assessment of problems in addition to alleged deviant behaviors, the offender's social and employment situation, and other evaluation measures used. The report shall set forth the sources of the evaluator's information. The examiner shall assess and report regarding the defendant's amenability to treatment and relative risk to the community. A proposed treatment plan shall be provided and shall include, at a minimum: (A) Frequency and type of contact between offender and therapist; (B) Specific issues to be addressed in the treatment and description of planned treatment modalities; (C) Monitoring plans, including any requirements regarding living conditions, lifestyle requirements, and monitoring by family members and others; (D) Anticipated length of treatment; and (E) Recommended crime-related prohibitions. The court on its own motion may order, or on a motion by the state shall order, a second examination regarding the offender's amenability to treatment. The evaluator shall be selected by the party making the motion. The defendant shall pay the cost of any second examination ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost. (ii) After receipt of the reports, the court shall consider whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative and consider the victim's opinion whether the offender should receive a treatment disposition under this subsection. If the court determines that this special sex offender sentencing alternative is appropriate, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range. If this sentence is less than eight years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and impose the following conditions of suspension: (A) The court shall place the defendant on community custody for the length of the suspended sentence or three years, whichever is greater, and require the offender to comply with any conditions imposed by the department of corrections under subsection (14) of this section; and (B) The court shall order treatment for any period up to three years in duration. The court in its discretion shall order outpatient sex offender treatment or inpatient sex offender treatment, if available. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment. The offender shall not change sex offender treatment providers or treatment conditions without first notifying the prosecutor, the community corrections officer, and the court, and shall not change providers without court approval after a hearing if the prosecutor or community corrections officer object to the change. In addition, as conditions of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following: (I) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation; (II) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment; (III) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; (IV) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030, perform community service work, or any combination thereof; or (V) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime. (iii) The sex offender therapist shall submit quarterly reports on the defendant's progress in treatment to the court and the parties. The report shall reference the treatment plan and include at a minimum the following: Dates of attendance, defendant's compliance with requirements, treatment activities, the defendant's relative progress in treatment, and any other material as specified by the court at sentencing. (iv) At the time of sentencing, the court shall set a treatment termination hearing for three months prior to the anticipated date for completion of treatment. Prior to the treatment termination hearing, the treatment professional and community corrections officer shall submit written reports to the court and parties regarding the defendant's compliance with treatment and monitoring requirements, and recommendations regarding termination from treatment, including proposed community supervision conditions. Either party may request and the court may order another evaluation regarding the advisability of termination from treatment. The defendant shall pay the cost of any additional evaluation ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost. At the treatment termination hearing the court may: (A) Modify conditions of community custody, and either (B) terminate treatment, or (C) extend treatment for up to the remaining period of community custody. (v) If a violation of conditions occurs during community custody, the department shall either impose sanctions as provided for in RCW 9.94A.205(2)(a) or refer the violation to the court and recommend revocation of the suspended sentence as provided for in (a)(vi) of this subsection. (vi) The court may revoke the suspended sentence at any time during the period of community custody and order execution of the sentence if: (A) The defendant violates the conditions of the suspended sentence, or (B) the court finds that the defendant is failing to make satisfactory progress in treatment. All confinement time served during the period of community custody shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked. (vii) Except as provided in (a) (viii) of this subsection, after July 1, 1991, examinations and treatment ordered pursuant to this subsection shall only be conducted by sex offender treatment providers certified by the department of health pursuant to chapter 18.155 RCW. (viii) A sex offender therapist who examines or treats a sex offender pursuant to this subsection (8) does not have to be certified by the department of health pursuant to chapter 18.155 RCW if the court finds that: (A) The offender has already moved to another state or plans to move to another state for reasons other than circumventing the certification requirements; (B) no certified providers are available for treatment within a reasonable geographical distance of the offender's home; and (C) the evaluation and treatment plan comply with this subsection (8) and the rules adopted by the department of health. For purposes of this subsection, "victim" means any person who has sustained emotional, psychological, physical, or financial injury to person or property as a result of the crime charged. "Victim" also means a parent or guardian of a victim who is a minor child unless the parent or guardian is the perpetrator of the offense. (b) When an offender commits any felony sex offense on or after July 1, 1987, and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, request the department of corrections to evaluate whether the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department. Except for an offender who has been convicted of a violation of RCW 9A.44.040 or 9A.44.050, if the offender completes the treatment program before the expiration of his or her term of confinement, the department of corrections may request the court to convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and to place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following: (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation; (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment; (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment. If the offender violates any of the terms of his or her community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his or her community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections. Nothing in this subsection (8)(b) shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced for a sex offense committed prior to July 1, 1987. This subsection (8)(b) does not apply to any crime committed after July 1, 1990. (c) Offenders convicted and sentenced for a sex offense committed prior to July 1, 1987, may, subject to available funds, request an evaluation by the department of corrections to determine whether they are amenable to treatment. If the offender is determined to be amenable to treatment, the offender may request placement in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department. Placement in such treatment program is subject to available funds. (9)(a) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for an offense categorized as a sex offense or a serious violent offense committed after July 1, 1988, but before July 1, 1990, assault in the second degree, assault of a child in the second degree, any crime against a person where it is determined in accordance with RCW 9.94A.125 that the defendant or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon at the time of commission, or any felony offense under chapter 69.50 or 69.52 RCW not sentenced under subsection (6) of this section, committed on or after July 1, 1988, the court shall in addition to the other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to a one-year term of community placement beginning either upon completion of the term of confinement or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned early release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). When the court sentences an offender under this subsection to the statutory maximum period of confinement then the community placement portion of the sentence shall consist entirely of such community custody to which the offender may become eligible, in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). Any period of community custody actually served shall be credited against the community placement portion of the sentence. (b) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for an offense categorized as a sex offense committed on or after July 1, 1990, but before June 6, 1996, a serious violent offense, vehicular homicide, or vehicular assault, committed on or after July 1, 1990, the court shall in addition to other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to community placement for two years or up to the period of earned early release awarded pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2), whichever is longer. The community placement shall begin either upon completion of the term of confinement or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned early release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). When the court sentences an offender under this subsection to the statutory maximum period of confinement then the community placement portion of the sentence shall consist entirely of the community custody to which the offender may become eligible, in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). Any period of community custody actually served shall be credited against the community placement portion of the sentence. Unless a condition is waived by the court, the terms of community placement for offenders sentenced pursuant to this section shall include the following conditions: (i) The offender shall report to and be available for contact with the assigned community corrections officer as directed; (ii) The offender shall work at department of corrections-approved education, employment, and/or community service; (iii) The offender shall not consume controlled substances except pursuant to lawfully issued prescriptions; (iv) An offender in community custody shall not unlawfully possess controlled substances; (v) The offender shall pay supervision fees as determined by the department of corrections; and (vi) The residence location and living arrangements are subject to the prior approval of the department of corrections during the period of community placement. (c) As a part of any sentence imposed under (a) or (b) of this subsection, the court may also order any of the following special conditions: (i) The offender shall remain within, or outside of, a specified geographical boundary; (ii) The offender shall not have direct or indirect contact with the victim of the crime or a specified class of individuals; (iii) The offender shall participate in crime-related treatment or counseling services; (iv) The offender shall not consume alcohol; (v) The offender shall comply with any crime-related prohibitions; or (vi) For an offender convicted of a felony sex offense against a minor victim after June 6, 1996, the offender shall comply with any terms and conditions of community placement imposed by the department of corrections relating to contact between the sex offender and a minor victim or a child of similar age or circumstance as a previous victim. (d) Prior to transfer to, or during, community placement, any conditions of community placement may be removed or modified so as not to be more restrictive by the sentencing court, upon recommendation of the department of corrections. (10)(a) When a court sentences a person to the custody of the department of corrections for an offense categorized as a sex offense committed on or after June 6, 1996, the court shall, in addition to other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to community custody for three years or up to the period of earned early release awarded pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2), whichever is longer. The community custody shall begin either upon completion of the term of confinement or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned early release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). (b) Unless a condition is waived by the court, the terms of community custody shall be the same as those provided for in subsection (9)(b) of this section and may include those provided for in subsection (9)(c) of this section. As part of any sentence that includes a term of community custody imposed under this subsection, the court shall also require the offender to comply with any conditions imposed by the department of corrections under subsection (14) of this section. (c) At any time prior to the completion of a sex offender's term of community custody, if the court finds that public safety would be enhanced, the court may impose and enforce an order extending any or all of the conditions imposed pursuant to this section for a period up to the maximum allowable sentence for the crime as it is classified in chapter 9A.20 RCW, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community custody. If a violation of a condition extended under this subsection occurs after the expiration of the offender's term of community custody, it shall be deemed a violation of the sentence for the purposes of RCW 9.94A.195 and may be punishable as contempt of court as provided for in RCW 7.21.040. (11) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits. (12) If a sentence imposed includes payment of a legal financial obligation, the sentence shall specify the total amount of the legal financial obligation owed, and shall require the offender to pay a specified monthly sum toward that legal financial obligation. Restitution to victims shall be paid prior to any other payments of monetary obligations. Any legal financial obligation that is imposed by the court may be collected by the department, which shall deliver the amount paid to the county clerk for credit. The offender's compliance with payment of legal financial obligations shall be supervised by the department. All monetary payments ordered shall be paid no later than ten years after the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction or the date the sentence was entered. Independent of the department, the party or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed shall have the authority to utilize any other remedies available to the party or entity to collect the legal financial obligation. Nothing in this section makes the department, the state, or any of its employees, agents, or other persons acting on their behalf liable under any circumstances for the payment of these legal financial obligations. If an order includes restitution as one of the monetary assessments, the county clerk shall make disbursements to victims named in the order. (13) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1) and 9.94A.142(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision or community placement which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW. (14) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, community placement, or legal financial obligation shall be under the supervision of the department of corrections and shall follow explicitly the instructions and conditions of the department of corrections. (a) The instructions shall include, at a minimum, reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment, and paying the supervision fee assessment. (b) For sex offenders sentenced to terms involving community custody for crimes committed on or after June 6, 1996, the department may include, in addition to the instructions in (a) of this subsection, any appropriate conditions of supervision, including but not limited to, prohibiting the offender from having contact with any other specified individuals or specific class of individuals. The conditions authorized under this subsection (14)(b) may be imposed by the department prior to or during a sex offender's community custody term. If a violation of conditions imposed by the court or the department pursuant to subsection (10) of this section occurs during community custody, it shall be deemed a violation of community placement for the purposes of RCW 9.94A.207 and shall authorize the department to transfer an offender to a more restrictive confinement status as provided in RCW 9.94A.205. At any time prior to the completion of a sex offender's term of community custody, the department may recommend to the court that any or all of the conditions imposed by the court or the department pursuant to subsection (10) of this section be continued beyond the expiration of the offender's term of community custody as authorized in subsection (10)(c) of this section. The department may require offenders to pay for special services rendered on or after July 25, 1993, including electronic monitoring, day reporting, and telephone reporting, dependent upon the offender's ability to pay. The department may pay for these services for offenders who are not able to pay. (15) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, or community placement under the supervision of the department of corrections shall not own, use, or possess firearms or ammunition. Offenders who own, use, or are found to be in actual or constructive possession of firearms or ammunition shall be subject to the appropriate violation process and sanctions. "Constructive possession" as used in this subsection means the power and intent to control the firearm or ammunition. "Firearm" as used in this subsection means a weapon or device from which a projectile may be fired by an explosive such as gunpowder. (16) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced. (17) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400 (1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210 (2) through (6). (18) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution. (19) As a part of any sentence, the court may impose and enforce an order that relates directly to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, prohibiting the offender from having any contact with other specified individuals or a specific class of individuals for a period not to exceed the maximum allowable sentence for the crime, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community supervision or community placement. (20) In any sentence of partial confinement, the court may require the defendant to serve the partial confinement in work release, in a program of home detention, on work crew, or in a combined program of work crew and home detention. (21) All court-ordered legal financial obligations collected by the department and remitted to the county clerk shall be credited and paid where restitution is ordered. Restitution shall be paid prior to any other payments of monetary obligations. (22)(a) If the offense is not one for which the conviction results in the offender's being a persistent offender, the court shall, at the time of sentencing, impose as a condition of release such treatment, including the use of medroxyprogesterone acetate together with any other mental health or chemical dependency treatment, as the court finds appropriate to reduce the likelihood of the offender's commission of a subsequent sex offense upon release, for any of the following offenses: (i) Rape in the first degree; (ii) Rape in the second degree; (iii) Rape of a child in the first degree; and (iv) Child molestation in the first degree, if it is the person's second conviction for child molestation in the first degree. (b)(i) At least thirty days before the department sets a release date for an offender who has had a treatment regimen imposed as a condition of release under (a) of this subsection, the offender must be brought back before the court for a hearing, including an examination by medical experts, for the purpose of determining whether to impose the regimen. At the hearing, the offender has the right to all due process rights including counsel, cross-examination, testimony, experts, and the provision of counsel if the offender is indigent, but not the presence of a jury. (ii) At the hearing under (b)(i) of this subsection, the court shall determine, by a preponderance of the evidence, whether a proposed treatment regimen, including treatment with medroxyprogesterone acetate, makes it likely that the regimen will reduce the chance that the offender will commit a sex offense upon release. In making its determination, the court shall consider: (A) Whether the offender has a mental abnormality as defined in RCW 71.09.020; (B) Whether the offender is likely to engage in predatory acts, as defined in RCW 71.09.020, if the regimen is not required; and (C) Whether the regimen is likely to decrease the offender's likelihood to engage in predatory acts, as defined in RCW 71.09.020. (c) If the court decides that the offender and the treatment regimen meet the criteria in (b) of this subsection, the court shall impose the requirement of the treatment regimen as a condition of release and the treatment must begin before the release of the offender. The court may set the treatment regimen period for as long as the court finds it necessary. If the court decides that the criteria are not met, then the court shall suspend the imposition of the treatment regimen, but may reimpose it if, following a hearing, the court finds the offender meets the criteria in (b)(ii) of this subsection. The offender, to the extent private resources are available, shall bear the cost of the treatment regimen. (d) Imposition and successful use of the treatment regimen shall in no way otherwise reduce the time in confinement an offender would otherwise serve. (e) The court may require the offender to return at any time in order for the court to monitor the progress and effect of the treatment regimen. (f) An offender may appeal any determination made under this subsection, but a determination under this subsection is of record and the offender shall continue any treatment regimen imposed under this subsection pending a decision on the appeal. (g) An offender may at any time seek early termination of a treatment regimen imposed under this subsection, but an early termination may not be granted unless, by clear and convincing evidence, the offender proves that the offender no longer has a mental abnormality, as defined in RCW 71.09.020, and that a continued treatment regimen is not necessary to prevent the offender's commission of a predatory act, as defined in RCW 71.09.020. (h) The offender may at any time agree to surgical alternatives to medroxyprogesterone acetate treatment if the offender voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently petitions the court in writing. (i) An offender who unlawfully stops treatment imposed under this subsection is guilty of a class B felony." Renumber the remaining sections and correct any internal references accordingly. On page 16, after line 31, insert the following: "Unlawful termination of sex offender reoffense reduction treatment (RCW 9.94A.120(22))"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Deccio: "A point of order, Mr. President. I reluctantly rise to challenge the scope and object on this amendment. It is a very heavy amendment, which I have not seen before. It was not heard in our committee and I realize what the intent of the preparers are trying to do, but as I understand the title is controlling drugs used to facilitate rape and I don't know whether this would apply and we should be dealing with this issue and I would like to make the challenge to the amendment."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Deccio, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 5305 is a measure which adds certain drugs to the list of controlled substances.

Senator Heavey moved that the following amendments by Senators Heavey and Schow be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

Sec. 606. The secretary of state shall submit this act to the people for adoption and ratification, or rejection, at a special election to be held in this state on June 3, 1997, in accordance with Article II, section 1 of the state Constitution and the laws adopted to facilitate its operation. The special election shall be limited to submission of this act to the people. Additionally, the secretary of state shall submit a choice for the preferred site of the new stadium should this act be adopted. The ballot shall contain two questions. The first question: "Shall certain taxes be raised to fund a professional football stadium?" The second question, if the first is approved: "Shall the location of the new stadium be: (1) The pioneer square district of Seattle; or (2) in a renovated Husky stadium?" The ballot shall be so printed that a voter can express separately by making one cross (X) for each, two preferences, first, as to the voter's preference on approval or rejection of the measure itself, and secondly, as between one location option and the other. If the majority of those voting on the first preference is for rejection of the measure, the measure fails. If a majority voting on the first preference is for approval of the measure, then the measure shall be law and the location shall be the location option receiving a majority of the votes." The rate of the tax shall be ten percent of the sales price. (2) This tax shall be paid by the buyer to the seller and each seller shall collect from the buyer the full amount of the tax payable in respect to each taxable sale, unless the seller is prohibited from collecting the tax from the buyer under the state Constitution or the Constitution or laws of the United States. (3) The tax shall be stated separately from the selling price in any sales invoice or any instrument of sale. Failure to separately state the tax shall create a conclusive presumption that the tax has not been collected. (4) Proceeds of the tax imposed under this section shall be deposited into the stadium and exhibition center account created in section 214 of this act. Sec. 205. RCW 36.100.090 and 1995 1st sp.s. c 14 s 6 are each amended to read as follows: (1) The governing board of a public facilities district may apply for deferral of taxes on the construction of buildings, site preparation, and the acquisition of related machinery and equipment for a new public facility. Chapter 82.32 RCW applies to the administration of this section. (7) As used in this section, "public facility" means a baseball stadium with a retractable roof or canopy and natural turf or a stadium and exhibition center as defined in section 101 of this act." Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly. #### POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Benton: "Senator Heavey, are the taxes that these amendments will impose intended to replace the taxes on all the citizens of the state in terms of the license--the additional sales tax on licensed items and/or the portion of the general fund taxes? Are they intended to replace that? Do these amendments do that, as well?"

Senator Heavey: "Yes."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senators Schow and Heavey on page 9, after line 2; page 19, line 12; and page 37, line 21, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5999.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Thibaudeau: "Senator Deccio, there was a newspaper report that the Legislature could approve new additional funding sources after the public vote. My understanding is that we passed an amendment--as a matter of fact, I offered it--and we all voted for it lidding the amount of state dollars that could be spent. Is that your understanding or is that a problem?"

Senator Deccio: "I understand that that issue is going to be addressed in the House and they will take care of it over there."

Senator Thibaudeau: "But, it was lidded in the Ways and Means?"

Senator Deccio: "Yes."

Senator Thibaudeau: "Thank you, Senator. Thank you, Mr. President."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Johnson, Senate Bill No. 6072 was passed to the Committee on Rules for second reading

MOTION

Senator Johnson moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 3901, which was held on the desk March 28, 1997, be passed to the Committee on Rules.

MOTION

Senator Snyder moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 3901 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. Debated ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Spanel: "Senator West, has House Bill No. 3901 been heard in the Ways and Means Committee?"
Senator West: "The substance of House Bill No. 3901 has been more than addressed in Ways and Means and a rose by any other name is still a rose."
Senator Spanel: "Has this bill been heard in Ways and Means?"
Senator West: "The underlying substance has been heard in Ways and Means; it has been heard in the Senate Health and Long-Term Care Committee; it has been heard in the House. Frankly, this is no different than a conference committee report, except that we will have an opportunity on the floor of the Senate to amend it, which we never get an opportunity to do in a conference committee."
Senator Spanel: "Well, I would say that this is very different from a conference committee report, since there has not been a conference committee report and only one side of this body has been represented. So, I would urge that this bill be sent to the Ways and Means Committee and we turn down the motion to send it to Rules."
Further debate ensued.

WITHDRAWAL OF MOTION

On motion of Senator Johnson, the motion to pass Engrossed House Bill No. 3901 to the Committee on Rules, was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Johnson, the Senate reverted to the first order of business.

Senator Johnson moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 3901, which was held on the desk March 31 and April 4, 1997, be referred to the Committee on Rules.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Snyder: "A point of order, Mr. President. Friday, when this bill came up, Senator Johnson made a motion to put the bill in Rules and I made a motion to refer the bill to Ways and Means and he later withdrew his motion and then we held the bill down. So, I believe that my motion to refer the bill to Ways and Means is still in order and the motion to refer to Ways and Means or to put the bill in the Rules Committee is of equal rank and since mine was made first, I believe mine would be the one that would be in order now."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Newhouse: "Senator Johnson, do you have comments?"

Senator Johnson: "Well, I think when the motion was granted to place the bill at the desk, Mr. President, that superceded prior motions that might have been pending at that time and, therefore, I think the motion that I made is the pending motion."

President Pro Tempore Newhouse: "Senator Snyder, I am going to rule that the motion by Senator Johnson took priority on Friday. Therefore, your motion is no longer before us."

Senator Snyder: "Well, I believe he withdrew his motion. It wasn't held. His motion was withdrawn on a motion by Senator Johnson, himself, and then the bill, 3901 was held until today."

President Pro Tempore Newhouse: "With business intervening and with no rule covering this subject, the members should renew their motions. Senator Johnson has moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 3901 be referred to the Committee on Rules."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Snyder: "Senator Deccio, has Engrossed House Bill No. 3901 had a public hearing in your committee?"
Senator Deccio: "3901 has not, because the bill that came over from the House was a result of the fusing of the Senate Bill and the House Bill. That's the bill that we have been negotiating with the Governor on and that is what we have before us today."

Senator Snyder: "But it hasn't had a public hearing in your committee?"

Senator Deccio: "Senator, both bills have had public hearings, one in the House and three in the Senate and at least two in the House."

Senator Snyder: "But, Engrossed House Bill No. 3901 is different than the ones that have had hearings. Isn't that correct?"

Senator Deccio: "The differences are based on negotiation with the Governor and if I might add, Mr. President, last year I was on four negotiations committees and never was invited to a meeting. At this point, this bill--we are talking about the same kind of a scenario. We are negotiating with the Governor, because we got 'no' votes from the other side of the aisle on the Senate Bill. The House got 'no' votes on the other side of the aisle on the House bill. What purpose would there be in having another hearing? We will consider the same amendments; we are further now with the Governor than we have been with either the Democrats in the House or in the Senate. I don't think that we ought to stop that process."

Senator Snyder: "Senator Deccio, I will have to disagree. I don't remember if there were any Democratic votes for the bill here, but I know the two House members from my district voted for the original bill that came out of the House, so there was some Democratic support and we thought we were pretty close on the bill that went out of here. We had a few questions and we thought if there were improvements made that we could vote for it. Instead of improvements, they have gone the other way. We understand that there are several changes and we can't even get a comparison sheet on what is being negotiated and what went out of here on the original bill. So, I think it needs some public scrutiny and I would certainly urge you to turn down the motion to put it in Rules and then put it in Ways and Means."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Sheldon demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Wood, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1188 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Wood, do these students pay all the costs of going to school or does the state pick up the costs?"

Senator Wood: "Washington State does not pick up the cost."

Senator Wojahn: "The full cost is borne by the state that is sending--the reason that I question this is we are losing our own kids to medical school. They cannot get into the University of Washington Medical School--our own state residents."

Most universities throughout the United States now do not admit foreign students because of that reason. It's seems to me that we are being overly generous, especially if that displaces ten of our kids."

Senator Wood: "Senator Wojahn, it does not displace any of the students who apply and are within the quota for the University of Washington and Washington State. It says here that the participating states reimburse the University of Washington for the cost of the 2. program."

Senator Wojahn: "For the full cost?"

Senator Wood: "Yes."

Senator Wojahn: "Because, according to this, it says to the proportionate costs and that would mean that they do not reimburse totally. That is what I am questioning--where it says, 'proportionate costs,' that would mean a share, but not a total cost."

Senator Wood: "What I have on this piece of paper is that Wyoming will pay the full cost for those students, but I am not looking at the yellow sheet."

Senator Wojahn: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Bill No. 1188.

Eliminating pooling of the resource management cost account and removing reference to agricultural college lands.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Oke, the following Committee on Natural Resources and Parks amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following: "Sec. 1. RCW 79.64.030 and 1993 c 460 s 2 are each amended to read as follows: Funds in the account derived from the gross proceeds of leases, sales, contracts, licenses, permits, easements, and rights of way issued by the department and affecting school lands, university lands, ~~((agricultural college lands,))~~ scientific school lands, normal school lands, capitol building lands, or institutional lands shall be ~~((pooled and))~~ expended by the department solely for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses necessarily incurred in managing and administering ~~((all of the trust lands enumerated in this section))~~ state lands of the same trust. Such funds may be used for similar costs and expenses in managing and administering other lands managed by the department provided that such expenditures that have been or may be made on such other lands shall be repaid to the resource management cost account together with interest at a rate determined by the board of natural resources. An accounting shall be made annually of the accrued expenditures from the ~~((pooled))~~ trust funds in the account. In the event the accounting determines that expenditures have been made from moneys derived from certain trust lands for the benefit of another trust or other lands, such expenditure shall be considered a debt and an encumbrance against the property or trust funds benefited, including property held under chapter 76.12 RCW. The results of the accounting shall be reported to the legislature at the next regular session. The state treasurer is authorized, upon request of the department, to transfer funds between the forest development account and the resource management cost account solely for purpose of repaying loans pursuant to this section. Sec. 2. RCW 79.01.136 and 1979 ex.s. c 109 s 5 are each amended to read as follows: Before any state lands are offered for sale, or lease, or are assigned, the department of natural resources may establish the fair market value of those authorized improvements not owned by the state. In the event that agreement cannot be reached between the state and the lessee on the fair market value, such valuation shall be submitted to a review board of appraisers. The board shall be as follows: One member to be selected by the lessee and his or her expense shall be borne by the lessee; one member selected by the state and his or her expense shall be borne by the state; these members so selected shall mutually select a third member and his or her expenses shall be shared equally by the lessee and the state. The majority decision of this appraisal review board shall be binding on both parties. For this purpose "fair market value" is defined as: The highest price in terms of money which a property will bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions of a fair sale, the buyer and seller, each prudently knowledgeable and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. All damages and wastes committed upon such lands and other obligations due from the lessee shall be deducted from the appraised value of the improvements ~~((=PROVIDED, That))~~. However, the department of natural resources on behalf of the respective trust may purchase at fair market value those improvements if it appears to be in the best interest of the state ((from the RMCA of the general fund)). Payment for the improvements may be made with funds held on behalf of the trust in the resource management cost account established under RCW 79.64.020. Sec. 3. RCW 79.64.010 and 1967 ex.s. c 63 s 1 are each amended to read as follows: Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as hereinafter used in this chapter shall have the following meanings: (1) "Account" means the resource management cost account in the state general fund. (2) "Department" means the department of natural resources. (3) "Board" means the board of natural resources of the department of natural resources. (4) "Rule" means rule as ~~((the same))~~ that term is defined by RCW 34.05.010. (5) The definitions set forth in RCW 79.01.004 shall be applicable. (6) "Agricultural college lands" means all public lands awarded to the state of Washington under section 16 of the Omnibus Enabling Act (25 Stat. 180) and all lands acquired as the result of the sale or exchange of the lands. Sec. 4. RCW 79.64.020 and 1993 c 460 s 1 are each amended to read as follows: A resource management cost account in the state treasury is hereby created to be used solely for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses necessarily incurred by the department in managing and administering public lands, and the making and administering of leases, sales, contracts, licenses, permits, easements, and rights of way on or with respect to such lands as authorized under the provisions of this title. Appropriations from the account to the department shall be expended for no other purposes. The resource management cost account may receive and accept funds that are to be used for such purposes from any source. Funds in the account produced by a trust may be appropriated or transferred by the legislature ~~((for the benefit of all of the trusts from which the funds were derived))~~ only for the benefit of the trust. NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 79.64 RCW to read as follows: No part of the gross proceeds from leases, sales, contracts, licenses, permits, easements, and rights of way on or relating to the agricultural college lands may be used to defray costs or expenses incurred in managing and administering the lands, and all such gross proceeds shall be made available to the beneficiary of the agricultural college lands. Sec. 6. RCW 79.64.040 and 1981 2nd ex.s. c 4 s 3 are each amended to read as follows: The board shall determine the amount deemed necessary in order to achieve the purposes of this chapter and shall provide by rule for the deduction of this amount from the gross proceeds of all leases, sales, contracts, licenses, permits, easements, and rights of way issued by the department and affecting public lands other than the agricultural college lands. Moneys received with respect to such lands as deposits from successful bidders, advance payments, and security under RCW 79.01.132 and 79.01.204 prior to December 1, 1981, which have not been subjected to deduction under this section are not subject to deduction under this section. The deductions authorized under this section shall in no event exceed twenty-five percent of the total sum received by the department in connection with any one transaction pertaining to public lands other than second class tide and shore lands and the beds of navigable waters, and fifty percent of the total gross proceeds received by the department pertaining to second class tide and shore lands and the beds of navigable waters. NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect July 1, 1997." On motion of Senator Oke, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "lands;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 79.64.030, 79.01.136, 79.64.010, 79.64.020, and 79.64.040; adding a new section to chapter 79.64 RCW; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following: "Sec. 1. RCW 43.17.360 and 1996 c 261 s 2 are each amended to read as follows: (1) The department of social and health services and other state agencies may lease real property and improvements thereon to a consortium of three or more counties in order for the counties to construct or otherwise acquire correctional facilities for juveniles or adults. (2) A lease governed by subsection (1) of this section shall not charge more than one dollar per year for the land value and facilities value, during the initial term of the lease, but the lease may include provisions for payment of any reasonable operation and maintenance expenses incurred by the state. The initial term of a lease governed by subsection (1) of this section shall not exceed twenty years, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section. A lease renewed under subsection (1) of this section after the initial term shall charge the fair rental value for the land and ~~((facilities, and may))~~ improvements other than those improvements paid for by a contracting consortium. The renewed lease may also include provisions for payment of any reasonable operation and maintenance expenses incurred by the state. For the purposes of this subsection, fair rental value shall be determined by the commissioner of public lands in consultation with the department and shall not include the value of any improvements paid for by a contracting consortium. (3) The net proceeds generated from any lease entered or renewed under subsection (1) of this section involving land and facilities on the grounds of eastern state hospital shall be used solely for the benefit of eastern state hospital programs for the long-term care needs of patients with mental disorders. These proceeds shall not supplant or replace funding from traditional sources for the normal operations and maintenance or capital budget projects. It is the intent of this subsection to ensure that eastern state hospital receives the full benefit intended by this section, and that such effect will not be diminished by budget adjustments inconsistent with this intent. The initial term of a lease under subsection (1) of this section entered into after January 1, 1996, and involving the grounds of Eastern State hospital, shall not exceed fifty years. This subsection applies retroactively, and the department shall modify any existing leases to comply with the terms of this subsection. No other terms of a lease modified by this subsection may be modified unless both parties agree. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Long, this land is held in trust for the state of Washington, as you well know. Will that trust be violated if this bill passes?"

Senator Long: "There was no testimony to that affect in the committee and the reason that we put on the fifty years as opposed to the twenty is because local government is investing around five million dollars in the project. By giving them this longer lease at a dollar which is what the underlying bill granted, it makes it so they have the opportunity to regain their investment over that life span." Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Morton, how much are the counties paying for the lease of the land, not the buildings, but the lease of the land?"

Senator Morton: "The last report that I saw was one dollar. This was agreed upon for the lease. Now, I don't know if that has changed since the last item that I saw--whether it has been amended or not, but it was for one dollar."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Human Services and Corrections striking amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1433.

The motion by Senator Long carried and the committee striking amendment was adopted.

The uniform procedural rules adopted under this subsection apply to all adjudicative proceedings conducted under this chapter and shall include provisions for ~~((the))~~ establishing time periods for initial assessment, investigation, charging, discovery, settlement, and adjudication of complaints, and shall include enforcement provisions for violations of the specific time periods by the department, the disciplining authority, and the respondent. A licensee must be notified upon receipt of a complaint, except when the notification would impede an effective investigation. At the earliest point of time the licensee must be allowed to submit a written statement about that complaint, which statement must be included in the file. Complaints filed after the effective date of this act are exempt from public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW until the complaint has been initially assessed and determined to warrant an investigation by the disciplining authority. Complaints determined not to warrant an investigation by the disciplining authority are no longer considered complaints, but must remain in the records and tracking system of the department. Information about complaints that did not warrant an investigation, including the existence of the complaint, may be released only upon receipt of a written public disclosure request or pursuant to an interagency agreement as provided in (b) of this subsection. Complaints determined to warrant an investigation after investigation are subject to public disclosure, must include an explanation of the determination to close the complaint, and must remain in the records and tracking system of the department. (2) The uniform procedures for conducting investigations shall provide that prior to taking a written statement: (a) For violation of this chapter, the investigator shall inform such person, in writing of: (i) The nature of the complaint; (ii) that the person may consult with legal counsel at his or her expense prior to making a statement; and (iii) that any statement that the person makes may be used in an adjudicative proceeding conducted under this chapter; and (b) From a witness or potential witness in an investigation under this chapter, the investigator shall inform the person, in writing, that the statement may be released to the licensee, applicant, or unlicensed person under investigation if a statement of charges is issued. (3) Only upon the authorization of a disciplining authority identified in RCW 18.130.040(2)(b), the secretary, or his or her designee, may serve as the presiding officer for any disciplinary proceedings of the disciplining authority authorized under this chapter. Except as provided in RCW 18.130.050(8), the presiding officer shall not vote on or make any final decision. All functions performed by the presiding officer shall be subject to chapter 34.05 RCW. The secretary, in consultation with the disciplining authorities, shall adopt procedures for implementing this subsection. The uniform procedural rules shall address the use of a presiding officer authorized in subsection (3) of this section to determine and issue decisions on all legal issues and motions arising during adjudicative proceedings. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW under the subchapter heading "public records" to read as follows: Complaints filed under chapter 18.130 RCW after the effective date of this act are exempt from disclosure under this chapter to the extent provided in RCW 18.130.095(1). NEW SECTION. #### MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Long, the following Committee on Human Services and Corrections amendment was adopted: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following: "Sec. 1. RCW 49.60.010 and 1995 c 259 s 1 are each amended to read as follows: This chapter shall be known as the "law against discrimination". It is an exercise of the police power of the state for the protection of the public welfare, health, and peace of the people of this state, and in fulfillment of the provisions of the Constitution of this state concerning civil rights. The legislature hereby finds and declares that practices of discrimination against any of its inhabitants because of race, creed, color, national origin, families with children, sex, marital status, age, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide ((dog)) or service ((dog)) animal by a disabled person are a matter of state concern, that such discrimination threatens not only the rights and proper privileges of its inhabitants but menaces the institutions and foundation of a free democratic state. A state agency is herein created with powers with respect to elimination and prevention of discrimination in employment, in credit and insurance transactions, in places of public resort, accommodation, or amusement, and in real property transactions because of race, creed, color, national origin, families with children, sex, marital status, age, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide ((dog)) or service ((dog)) animal by a disabled person; and the commission established hereunder is hereby given general jurisdiction and power for such purposes. Sec. 2. RCW 49.60.030 and 1995 c 135 s 3 are each amended to read as follows: (1) The right to be free from discrimination because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide ((dog)) or service ((dog)) animal by a disabled person is recognized as and declared to be a civil right. This right shall include, but not be limited to: (a) The right to obtain and hold employment without discrimination; (b) The right to the full enjoyment of any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, or privileges of any place of public resort, accommodation, assemblage, or amusement; (c) The right to engage in real estate transactions without discrimination, including discrimination against families with children; (d) The right to engage in credit transactions without discrimination; (e) The right to engage in insurance transactions or transactions with health maintenance organizations without discrimination; PROVIDED, That a practice which is not unlawful under RCW 48.30.300, 48.44.220, or 48.46.370 does not constitute an unfair practice for the purposes of this subparagraph; and (f) The right to engage in commerce free from any discriminatory boycotts or blacklists. Discriminatory boycotts or blacklists for purposes of this section shall be defined as the formation or execution of any express or implied agreement, understanding, policy or contractual arrangement for economic benefit between any persons which is not specifically authorized by the laws of the United States and which is required or imposed, either directly or indirectly, overtly or covertly, by a foreign government or foreign person in order to restrict, condition, prohibit, or interfere with or in order to exclude any person or persons from any business relationship on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, or the use of a trained dog guide ((dog)) or service ((dog)) animal by a disabled person, or national origin or lawful business relationship: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That nothing herein contained shall prohibit the use of boycotts as authorized by law pertaining to labor disputes and unfair labor practices. (2) Any person deeming himself or herself injured by any act in violation of this chapter shall have a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin further violations, or to recover the actual damages sustained by the person, or both, together with the cost of suit including reasonable attorneys' fees or any other appropriate remedy authorized by this chapter or the United States Civil Rights Act of 1964 as amended, or the Federal Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 3601 et seq.). (3) Except for any unfair practice committed by an employer against an employee or a prospective employee, or any unfair practice in a real estate transaction which is the basis for relief specified in the amendments to RCW 49.60.225 contained in chapter 69, Laws of 1993, any unfair practice prohibited by this chapter which is committed in the course of trade or commerce as defined in the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86 RCW, is, for the purpose of applying that chapter, a matter affecting the public interest, is not reasonable in relation to the development and preservation of business, and is an unfair or deceptive act in trade or commerce. Sec. 3. RCW 49.60.040 and 1995 c 259 s 2 are each amended to read as follows: As used in this chapter: (1) "Person" includes one or more individuals, partnerships,

The insurance commissioner, under RCW 48.30.300, and the human rights commission, under chapter 49.60 RCW, shall have concurrent jurisdiction under this section and shall enter into a working agreement as to procedure to be followed in complaints under this section. Sec. 10. RCW 49.60.180 and 1993 c 510 s 12 are each amended to read as follows: It is an unfair practice for any employer: (1) To refuse to hire any person because of age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide ((~~dog~~)) or service ((~~dog~~)) animal by a disabled person, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification: PROVIDED, That the prohibition against discrimination because of such disability shall not apply if the particular disability prevents the proper performance of the particular worker involved. Nothing in this section shall limit the effect of RCW 49.60.176 relating to unfair practices in credit transactions; or (k) To attempt to do any of the unfair practices defined in this section. (2) For the purposes of this chapter discrimination based on the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide ((~~dog~~)) or service ((~~dog~~)) animal by a blind, deaf, or physically disabled person includes: (a) A refusal to permit, at the expense of the disabled person, reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by such person if such modifications may be necessary to afford such person full enjoyment of the dwelling, except that, in the case of a rental, the landlord may, where it is reasonable to do so, condition permission for a modification on the renter agreeing to restore the interior of the dwelling to the condition that existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted; (b) To refuse to make reasonable accommodation in rules, policies, practices, or services when such accommodations may be necessary to afford a person with the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability and/or the use of a trained dog guide ((~~dog~~)) or service ((~~dog~~)) animal by a blind, deaf, or physically disabled person equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling; or (c) To fail to design and construct covered multifamily dwellings and premises in conformance with the federal fair housing amendments act of 1988 (42 U.S.C. Whenever the requirements of applicable laws or regulations differ, the requirements which require greater accessibility for persons with any sensory, mental, or physical disability shall govern. Nothing in (a) or (b) of this subsection shall apply to: (i) A single-family house rented or leased by the owner if the owner does not own or have an interest in the proceeds of the rental or lease of more than three such single-family houses at one time, the rental or lease occurred without the use of a real estate broker or salesperson, as defined in RCW 18.85.010, and the rental or lease occurred without the publication, posting, or mailing of any advertisement, sign, or statement in violation of subsection (1)(g) of this section; or (ii) rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than four families living independently of each other if the owner maintains and occupies one of the rooms or units as his or her residence. (3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, it shall not be an unfair practice or a denial of civil rights for any public or private educational institution to separate the sexes or give preference to or limit use of dormitories, residence halls, or other student housing to persons of one sex or to make distinctions on the basis of marital or families with children status. (4) Except pursuant to subsection (2)(a) of this section, this section shall not be construed to require structural changes, modifications, or additions to make facilities accessible to a disabled person except as otherwise required by law. Nothing in this section affects the rights, responsibilities, and remedies of landlords and tenants pursuant to chapter 59.18 or 59.20 RCW, including the right to post and enforce reasonable rules of conduct and safety for all tenants and their guests, provided that chapters 59.18 and 59.20 RCW are only affected to the extent they are inconsistent with the nondiscrimination requirements of this chapter. (5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, it shall not be an unfair practice for any public establishment providing for accommodations offered for the full enjoyment of transient guests as defined by RCW 9.91.010(1)(c) to make distinctions on the basis of families with children status. Nothing in this section shall limit the effect of RCW 49.60.215 relating to unfair practices in places of public accommodation. (6) Nothing in this chapter prohibiting discrimination based on families with children status applies to housing for older persons as defined by the federal fair housing amendments act of 1988, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 3607(b)(1) through (3). Nothing in this chapter authorizes requirements for housing for older persons different than the requirements in the federal fair housing amendments act of 1988, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 3607(b)(1) through (3). Sec. 15. RCW 49.60.223 and 1993 c 510 s 18 and 1993 c 69 s 6 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows: It is an unfair practice for any person, for profit, to induce or attempt to induce any person to sell or rent any real property by representations regarding the entry or prospective entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons of a particular race, creed, color, sex, national origin, families with children status, or with any sensory, mental, or physical disability and/or the use of a trained dog guide ~~((dog))~~ or service ~~((dog))~~ animal by a blind, deaf, or physically disabled person. Sec. 16. RCW 49.60.224 and 1993 c 69 s 8 are each amended to read as follows: (1) Every provision in a written instrument relating to real property which purports to forbid or restrict the conveyance, encumbrance, occupancy, or lease thereof to individuals of a specified race, creed, color, sex, national origin, families with children status, or with any sensory, mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide ~~((dog))~~ or service ~~((dog))~~ animal by a blind, deaf, or physically disabled person, and every condition, restriction, or prohibition, including a right of entry or possibility of reverter, which directly or indirectly limits the use or occupancy of real property on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, families with children status, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide ~~((dog))~~ or service ~~((dog))~~ animal by a blind, deaf, or physically disabled person is void. (2) It is an unfair practice to insert in a written instrument relating to real property a provision that is void under this section or to honor or attempt to honor such a provision in the chain of title. Sec. 17. RCW 49.60.225 and 1995 c 259 s 4 are each amended to read as follows: (1) When a reasonable cause determination has been made under RCW 49.60.240 that an unfair practice in a real estate transaction has been committed and a finding has been made that the respondent has engaged in any unfair practice under RCW 49.60.250, the administrative law judge shall promptly issue an order for such relief suffered by the aggrieved person as may be appropriate, which may include actual damages as provided by the federal fair housing amendments act of 1988 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 3601 et seq.), and injunctive or other equitable relief. Such order may, to further the public interest, assess a civil penalty against the respondent: (a) In an amount up to ten thousand dollars if the respondent has not been determined to have committed any prior unfair practice in a real estate transaction; (b) In an amount up to twenty-five thousand dollars if the respondent has been determined to have committed one other unfair practice in a real estate transaction during the five-year period ending on the date of the filing of this charge; or (c) In an amount up to fifty thousand dollars if the respondent has been determined to have committed two or more unfair practices in a real estate transaction during the seven-year period ending on the date of the filing of this charge, for loss of the right secured by RCW 49.60.010, 49.60.030, 49.60.040, and 49.60.222 through 49.60.224, as now or hereafter amended, to be free from discrimination in real property transactions because of sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, families with children status, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide ~~((dog))~~ or service ~~((dog))~~ animal by a blind, deaf, or physically disabled person. Enforcement of the order and appeal therefrom by the complainant or respondent may be made as provided in RCW 49.60.260 and 49.60.270. If acts constituting the unfair practice in a real estate transaction that is the object of the charge are determined to have been committed by the same natural person who has been previously determined to have committed acts constituting an unfair practice in a real estate transaction, then the civil penalty of up to fifty thousand dollars may be imposed without regard to the period of time within which any subsequent unfair practice in a real estate transaction occurred. All civil penalties assessed under this section shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund. (2) Such order shall not affect any contract, sale, conveyance, encumbrance, or lease consummated before the issuance of an order that involves a bona fide purchaser, encumbrancer, or tenant who does not have actual notice of the charge filed under this chapter. (3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, persons awarded damages under this section may not receive additional damages pursuant to RCW 49.60.250. Sec. 18. RCW 70.84.020 and 1980 c 109 s 2 are each amended to read as follows: For the purpose of this chapter, the term "dog guide ~~((dog))~~" ~~((shall mean a dog which is in working harness and))~~ means a dog that is trained ~~((or approved by an accredited school engaged in training dogs))~~ for the purpose of guiding blind persons or a dog ~~((which is))~~ trained ~~((or approved by an accredited school engaged in training dogs))~~ for the purpose of assisting hearing impaired persons. Sec. 19. RCW 70.84.021 and 1985 c 90 s 1 are each amended to read as follows: For the purpose of this chapter, "service ~~((dog))~~ animal" means ~~((a dog))~~ an animal that is trained ~~((or approved by an accredited school, or state institution of higher education, engaged in training dogs))~~ for the purposes of assisting or accommodating a ~~((physically))~~ disabled ~~((person related to the))~~ person's sensory, mental, or physical disability. Sec. 20. RCW 70.84.040 and 1985 c 90 s 3 are each amended to read as follows: The driver of a vehicle approaching a totally or partially blind pedestrian who is carrying a cane predominantly white in color (with or without a red tip), a totally or partially blind or hearing impaired pedestrian using a dog guide ~~((dog))~~, or an otherwise physically disabled person using a service ~~((dog))~~ animal shall take all necessary precautions to avoid injury to such pedestrian. Implementing the federal personal responsibility and work opportunity reconciliation act of 1996 (Introduced with Senate sponsors).

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Deccio moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following: NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. LEGISLATIVE INTENT AND FINDINGS. The legislature finds that the federal personal responsibility and work opportunity reconciliation act of 1996 presents both opportunities and challenges for the states as they develop methods of moving families in poverty from welfare to work. The legislature further finds that, although many of the goals of the federal act coincide with Washington state's vision for enabling families to achieve eventual economic self-sufficiency through private, unsubsidized employment, the treatment of legal immigrants under the federal act does not reflect Washington's commitment to those legal immigrants within Washington's borders who have played by the rules, and who live in our communities and participate in the American way of life, providing economic and cultural enrichment to Washington state's population. The legislature finds that at least one-third of public assistance recipients have experience in the work force and sufficient training to enable them to obtain unsubsidized employment. The legislature intends to put a priority on finding jobs, which may include on-the-job training, for this group of public assistance recipients. The legislature intends that state agencies involved in welfare reform shall reorganize to accomplish this priority. The legislature intends that state agencies solicit from businesses information about job opportunities and make the information available to public assistance recipients. The legislature intends that legal immigrants who obey the laws of Washington, and who were granted permission to immigrate by the federal government, should be treated as equitably as possible under the state's enactment and implementation of public assistance programs. The legislature finds that Washington state's goals in implementing the federal act include promoting the American values of work, education, and responsibility, including responsible childbearing and dedication by both parents to protecting, supporting, and bringing up children to become responsible, productive Americans. This has been the goal and the dream of generations of Americans, whether native born or naturalized citizens. The legislature finds that it is necessary, to enable people to leave welfare, to encourage a new alliance of state and local government, business, churches, nonprofit organizations, and individuals to dedicate themselves, within the letter and the spirit of the law, to helping families in poverty overcome barriers, obtain support, direction, and encouragement, and become contributors to the American way of life. The legislature finds that, in pursuance of these goals, it is also necessary to establish policy that recognizes our moral imperative to protect children when their parents or other adults in a child's life are unable or unwilling to do so, and to continue our commitment to the elderly, frail, and vulnerable for whom work is not an option. The legislature reaffirms its commitment to provide medical services to eligible legal immigrants under the children's health program established under RCW 74.09.405. The legislature affirms its commitment to provide the benefits of the maternity care access program under RCW 74.09.800 to documented and undocumented immigrants who qualify. The legislature finds that family structure and relationships are critical to the long-term success and economic self-sufficiency of recipients of temporary assistance for needy families and their children. The department and its employees shall communicate clearly to recipients of temporary assistance for needy families the importance of healthy and safe marriages and family relationships. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. SHORT TITLE. This act may be known and cited as the Washington WorkFirst temporary assistance for needy families act.

(2) The department shall adopt rules implementing this section, and the applicable sections of P.L. 104-193 related to services provided by charitable, religious, or private organizations. NEW SECTION. Sec. 109. A new section is added to chapter 74.12 RCW to read as follows: WRITTEN MATERIAL. All forms, letters, and documents sent to recipients of assistance shall be easy to read and comprehend. Sec. 110. A new section is added to chapter 74.12 RCW to read as follows: FOOD STAMP WORK REQUIREMENTS. Single adults without dependents between eighteen and fifty years of age shall comply with federal food stamp work requirements as a condition of eligibility. The department may exempt any counties or subcounty areas from the federal food stamp work requirements in P.L. 104-193, unless the department receives written evidence of official action by a county or subcounty governing entity, taken after noticed consideration, that indicates that a county or subcounty area chooses not to use an exemption to the federal food stamp work requirements.

II. IMMIGRANT PROTECTION

Sec. 201. RCW 74.09.510 and 1991 sp.s. c 8 s 8 are each amended to read as follows: Medical assistance may be provided in accordance with eligibility requirements established by the department (~~of social and health services~~), as defined in the social security Title XIX state plan for mandatory categorically needy persons and: (1) Individuals who would be eligible for cash assistance except for their institutional status; (2) individuals who are under twenty-one years of age, who would be eligible for (~~aid to families with dependent children~~) temporary assistance for needy families, but do not qualify as dependent children and who are in (a) foster care, (b) subsidized adoption, (c) a nursing facility or an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded, or (d) inpatient psychiatric facilities; (3) the aged, blind, and disabled who: (a) Receive only a state supplement, or (b) would not be eligible for cash assistance if they were not institutionalized; (4) categorically eligible individuals who (~~would be eligible for but choose not to receive cash assistance~~) meet the income and resource requirements of the cash assistance programs; (5) individuals who are enrolled in managed health care systems, who have otherwise lost eligibility for medical assistance, but who have not completed a current six-month enrollment in a managed health care system, and who are eligible for federal financial participation under Title XIX of the social security act; (6) children and pregnant women allowed by federal statute for whom funding is appropriated; (~~and~~) (7) other individuals eligible for medical services under RCW 74.09.035 and 74.09.700 for whom federal financial participation is available under Title XIX of the social security act; and (8) persons allowed by section 1931 of the social security act for whom funding is appropriated. NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. IMMIGRANTS--ELIGIBILITY. It is the intent of the legislature that all legal immigrants who resided in the United States before August 22, 1996, retain eligibility for assistance programs the same as or similar to those from which they lost benefits as a result of P.L. 104-193. The legislature also intends that sponsors' incomes continue to be deemed for these individuals in the same manner it was addressed prior to August 22, 1996. Accordingly, the state shall exercise its option under P.L. 104-193 to continue services to legal immigrants under temporary assistance for needy families, medicaid, and social services block grant programs. Legal immigrants who lose benefits under the supplemental security income program as a result of P.L. 104-193 are immediately eligible to apply for benefits under the state's general assistance-unemployable program. The department shall redetermine income and resource eligibility at least annually, in accordance with existing state policy. It is the policy of the legislature to distinguish between legal immigrants living in the United States prior to August 22, 1996, and those who immigrated on or after the enactment of P.L. 104-193. The postenactment legal immigrants are subject to a five-year benefit exclusion for means-tested public assistance programs and are subject to the sponsor-deeming provisions of section 206 of this act, which shall be strictly construed in favor of benefit denial. NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. INCOME AVERAGING--BENEFIT DETERMINATION. In the case of applicants for temporary assistance for needy families whose principal source of earned income is seasonal employment, the department shall determine eligibility and benefit levels by retrospectively considering the applicant's earned income for the twelve-month period immediately preceding the application for assistance. The earned income shall be prorated on an annual basis, and the prorated amount used for eligibility and benefit determination in the prospective month. Assistance shall be denied until the applicant's prorated prior twelve months of income equals a monthly amount at or below the eligibility level. The intent of the legislature is to ensure that persons with seasonal earned income that, if prorated on an annual basis, would have exceeded the level qualifying them for assistance will be denied assistance until such time as they qualify on a prorated basis. NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. NATURALIZATION FACILITATION. The department shall make an affirmative effort to identify and proactively contact legal immigrants receiving public assistance to facilitate their applications for naturalization. The department shall obtain a complete list of legal immigrants in Washington who are receiving correspondence regarding their eligibility from the social security administration. The department shall inform immigrants regarding how citizenship may be attained. In order to facilitate the citizenship process, the department shall coordinate and contract, to the extent necessary, with existing public and private resources and shall, within available funds, ensure that those immigrants who qualify to apply for naturalization are referred to or otherwise offered classes. The department shall assist eligible immigrants in obtaining appropriate test exemptions, and other exemptions in the naturalization process, to the extent permitted under federal law. The department shall report annually by December 15th to the legislature regarding the progress and barriers of the immigrant naturalization facilitation effort. It is the intent of the legislature that persons receiving naturalization assistance be facilitated in obtaining citizenship within two years of their eligibility to apply. NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. SPONSOR DEEMING. (1) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, qualified aliens and aliens permanently residing under color of law who are recipients of public assistance under this title as of August 22, 1996, shall have their eligibility for assistance redetermined. (2) Qualified aliens who enter the United States of America after August 22, 1996, are ineligible to receive public assistance under this title for a period of five years, except as provided in subsection (6) of this section. Following their period of ineligibility, their eligibility for public assistance shall be determined as provided for in this section. (3) In determining the eligibility and the amount of benefits of a qualified alien or an alien permanently residing under color of law for public assistance under this title, the income and resources of the alien shall be deemed to include the income and resources of any person and his or her spouse who executed an affidavit of support pursuant to section 213A of the federal immigration and naturalization act on behalf of the alien. The deeming provisions of this subsection shall be waived if the sponsor dies or is permanently incapacitated during the period the affidavit of support is valid. (4) As used in this section, "qualified alien" has the meaning provided it in P.L. 104-193. (5)(a) Qualified aliens specified under sections 403, 412, and 552 (e) and (f), subtitle B, Title IV, of P.L. 104-193 and in P.L. 104-208, are exempt from this section. (b) Qualified aliens who served in the armed forces of an allied country, or were employed by an agency of the federal government, during a military conflict between the United States of America and a military adversary are exempt from the provisions of this section. (c) Qualified aliens who are victims of domestic violence and petition for legal status under the federal violence against women act are exempt from the provisions of this section. (d) Until January 1, 1999, a qualified alien whose sponsor dies or is permanently incapacitated is exempt from this section. (6) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to the following state benefits: (a) Assistance described in P.L. 104-193 sections 403(c)(H) through (K), 411(b)(1), 421(b), and P.L. 104-208; (b) Short-term, noncash, in-kind emergency disaster relief; (c) Programs comparable to assistance or benefits under the federal national school lunch act; (d) Programs comparable to assistance or benefits under the federal child nutrition act of 1966; (e) Public health assistance for immunizations with respect to immunizable diseases and for testing and treatment of symptoms of communicable diseases whether or not the symptoms are caused by a communicable disease; (f) Payments for foster care and adoption assistance; (g) Programs, services, or assistance where eligibility is not determined by employees of the department of social and health services; (h) Programs, services, or assistance such as meals from a soup kitchen, crisis counseling and intervention, and short-term shelter, specified by the attorney general, after consultation with appropriate agencies and departments, that: (i) Deliver in-kind services at the community level, including through public or private nonprofit agencies; (ii) Do not condition the provision of assistance, the amount of assistance provided, or the cost of assistance provided on the individual recipient's income or resources; and (iii) Are necessary for the protection of life or safety. NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. A new section is added to chapter 74.04 RCW to read as follows: FOOD ASSISTANCE. (1) The department may establish a food assistance program for persons whose immigrant status meets the eligibility requirements of the federal food stamp program as of August 21, 1996, but who are no longer eligible solely due to their immigrant status under P.L. 104-193. (2) The rules for the state food assistance program shall follow exactly the rules of the federal food stamp program except for the provisions pertaining to immigrant status under P.L. 104-193. (3) The benefit under the state food assistance program shall be established by the legislature in the biennial operating budget. (4) The department may enter into a contract with the United States department of agriculture to use the existing federal food stamp program coupon system for the purposes of administering the state food assistance program. (5) In the event the department is unable to enter into a contract with the United States department of agriculture, the department may issue vouchers to eligible households for the purchase of eligible foods at participating retailers. Sec. 207. RCW 74.09.800 and 1993 c 407 s 10 are each amended to read as follows: The department shall, consistent with the state budget act, develop a maternity care access program designed to ensure healthy birth outcomes as follows: (1) Provide maternity care services to low-income pregnant women and health care services to children in poverty to the maximum extent allowable under the medical assistance program, Title XIX of the federal social security act; (2) Provide maternity care services to low-income women who are not eligible to receive such services under the medical assistance program, Title XIX of the federal social security act; (3) By January 1, 1990, have the following procedures in place to improve access to maternity care services and eligibility determinations for pregnant women applying for maternity care services under the medical assistance program, Title XIX of the federal social security act: (a) Use of a shortened and simplified application form; (b) Outstationing department staff to make eligibility determinations; (c) Establishing local plans at the county and regional level, coordinated by the department; and (d) Conducting an interview for the purpose of determining medical assistance eligibility within five working days of the date of an application by a pregnant woman and making an eligibility determination within fifteen working days of the date of application by a pregnant woman; (4) Establish a maternity care case management system that shall assist at-risk eligible persons with obtaining medical assistance benefits and receiving maternity care services, including transportation and child care services; (5) Within available resources, establish appropriate reimbursement levels for maternity care providers; (6) Implement a broad-based public education program that stresses the importance of obtaining maternity care early during pregnancy; (7) Refer persons eligible for maternity care services under the program established by this section to persons, agencies, or organizations with maternity care service practices that primarily emphasize healthy birth outcomes; (8) Provide

The legislature reaffirms its commitment to provide health care services under this section to eligible immigrants, regardless of documented or undocumented status.

III. WASHINGTON WORKFIRST PROGRAM

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. It is the intent of the legislature that all applicants to the Washington WorkFirst program shall be focused on obtaining paid, unsubsidized employment. The focus of the Washington WorkFirst program shall be work for all recipients. NEW SECTION. Sec. 302. DIVERSION ASSISTANCE. (1) In order to prevent some families from developing dependency on temporary assistance for needy families, the department shall make available to qualifying applicants a diversion program designed to provide brief, emergency assistance for families in crisis whose income and assets would otherwise qualify them for temporary assistance for needy families. (2) Diversion assistance may include cash or vouchers in payment for the following needs: (a) Child care; (b) Housing assistance; (c) Transportation-related expenses; (d) Food; (e) Medical costs for the recipient's immediate family; (f) Employment-related expenses which are necessary to keep or obtain paid unsubsidized employment. (3) Diversion assistance is available once in each twelve-month period for each adult applicant. Recipients of diversion assistance are not included in the temporary assistance for needy families program. (4) Diversion assistance may not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars for each instance. (5) To be eligible for diversion assistance, a family must otherwise be eligible for temporary assistance for needy families. (6) Families ineligible for temporary assistance for needy families or general assistance due to sanction, noncompliance, the lump sum income rule, or any other reason are not eligible for diversion assistance. (7) Families must provide evidence showing that a bona fide need exists according to subsection (2) of this section in order to be eligible for diversion assistance. An adult applicant may receive diversion assistance of any type no more than once per twelve-month period. If the recipient of diversion assistance is placed on the temporary assistance for needy families program within twelve months of receiving diversion assistance, the prorated dollar value of the assistance shall be treated as a loan from the state, and recovered by deduction from the recipient's cash grant. Sec. 303. RCW 74.08.331 and 1992 c 7 s 59 are each amended to read as follows: Any person who by means of a willfully false statement, or representation, or impersonation, or a willful failure to reveal any material fact, condition or circumstance affecting eligibility ~~((of {or}))~~ or need for assistance, including medical care, surplus commodities and food stamps, as required by law, or a willful failure to promptly notify the county office in writing as required by law or any change in status in respect to resources, or income, or need, or family composition, money contribution and other support, from whatever source derived, including unemployment insurance, or any other change in circumstances affecting the person's eligibility or need for assistance, or other fraudulent device, obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain any public assistance to which the person is not entitled or greater public assistance than that to which he or she is justly entitled shall be guilty of grand larceny and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in a state correctional facility for not more than fifteen years. Sec. 304. A new section is added to chapter 28A.630 RCW to read as follows: SCHOOL-TO-WORK TRANSITIONS. (1) The legislature finds that students who do not prepare for postsecondary education, training, and employment are more likely to become dependent on state assistance programs than those who do make such preparation and that long-term employment and earning outcomes for youth can be significantly improved through school-to-work transition efforts, particularly through work-based learning experiences. The legislature intends that every effort be made to involve all youth in preparation for postsecondary education, training, and employment, including out-of-school youth. (2) Washington is engaged in developing school-to-work transitions for all youth, which involves preparation for postsecondary education, training, and employment and requires outreach to out-of-school youth. All school-to-work transition projects in the state, therefore, whether funded by state or federal funds, shall contain an outreach component directed toward school-age youth not currently enrolled in school and demonstrate the involvement of all in-school youth in preparation for postsecondary education or training or employment. At the time a school-to-work grant is made, the superintendent of public instruction shall withhold twenty percent of the grant award and release the funds upon a showing that the project has satisfactorily included outreach to out-of-school youth and progress in involving students not traditionally engaged in preparation for postsecondary education, training, or employment. (3) The office of the superintendent of public instruction shall provide technical assistance to ensure that school districts establish and operate outreach efforts under this section, and to include out-of-school youth in school-to-work efforts within available funds. Sec. 305. RCW 28A.630.876 and 1993 c 335 s 8 are each amended to read as follows: (1) The superintendent of public instruction shall report to the education committees of the legislature and committees of the legislature handling economic development and social welfare issues on the progress of the schools for the school-to-work transitions program by December 15 of each odd-numbered year. Sec. 306. A new section is added to chapter 43.30 RCW to read as follows: JOBS FOR THE ENVIRONMENT PROGRAMS. In any jobs for the environment program designed to train and employ displaced natural resource workers and operated by the department of natural resources, recipients of temporary assistance for needy families from natural resource areas who are engaged in work search activities are eligible for training and employment on the same basis as displaced natural resource workers within available funds. NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT ACCOUNTS. The department shall carry out a program to fund individual development accounts established by recipients eligible for assistance under the temporary assistance for needy families program. (1) An individual development account may be established by or on behalf of a recipient eligible for assistance provided under the temporary assistance for needy families program operated under this title for the purpose of enabling the recipient to accumulate funds for a qualified purpose described in subsection (2) of this section. (5) An individual development account established under this section shall be a trust created or organized in the United States and funded through periodic contributions by the establishing recipient and matched by or through a qualified entity for a qualified purpose as provided in this section. (6) For the purpose of determining eligibility for any assistance provided under this title, all funds in an individual development account under this section shall be disregarded for such purpose with respect to any period during which such individual maintains or makes contributions into such an account. (7) The department shall adopt rules authorizing the use of organizations using microcredit and microenterprise approaches to assisting low-income families to become financially self-sufficient. (8) The department shall adopt rules implementing the use of individual development accounts by recipients of temporary assistance for needy families. (9) For the purposes of this section, "eligible educational institution," "postsecondary educational expenses," "qualified acquisition costs," "qualified business," "qualified business capitalization expenses," "qualified expenditures," "qualified first-time home buyer," "date of acquisition," "qualified plan," and "qualified principal residence" include the meanings provided for them in P.L. 104-193. NEW SECTION. In calculating a household's gross earnings, the department shall disregard the earnings of a minor child who is: (a) A full-time student; or (b) A part-time student carrying at least half the normal school load and working fewer than thirty-five hours per week. Sec. 309. RCW 74.04.005 and 1992 c 165 s 1 and 1992 c 136 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows: For the purposes of this title, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions shall apply: (1) "Public assistance" or "assistance"—Public aid to persons in need thereof for any cause, including services, medical care, assistance grants, disbursing orders, work relief, general assistance and federal-aid assistance. (6)(a) "General assistance"—Aid to persons in need who: (i) Are not eligible to receive federal-aid assistance, other than food stamps and medical assistance; however, an individual who refuses or fails to cooperate in obtaining federal-aid assistance, without good cause, is not eligible for general assistance; (ii) Meet one of the following conditions: (A) Pregnant: PROVIDED, That need is based on the current income and resource requirements of the federal (~~aid to families with dependent children~~) temporary assistance for needy families program(~~—PROVIDED FURTHER, That during any period in which an aid for dependent children employable program is not in operation, only those pregnant women who are categorically eligible for medicaid are eligible for general assistance~~); or (B) Subject to chapter 165, Laws of 1992, incapacitated from gainful employment by reason of bodily or mental infirmity that will likely continue for a minimum of ninety days as determined by the department. (C) Persons who are unemployable due to alcohol or drug addiction are not eligible for general assistance. Persons receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, or becoming eligible for such assistance thereafter, due to an alcohol or drug-related incapacity, shall be referred to appropriate assessment, treatment, shelter, or supplemental security income referral services as authorized under chapter 74.50 RCW. Referrals shall be made at the time of application or at the time of eligibility review. Alcoholic and drug addicted clients who are receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, may remain on general assistance if they otherwise retain their eligibility until they are assessed for services under chapter 74.50 RCW. (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (6)(a)(i), (ii), and (c) of this section, general assistance shall be provided to the following recipients of federal-aid assistance: (i) Recipients of supplemental security income whose need, as defined in this section, is not met by such supplemental security income grant because of separation from a spouse; or (ii) To the extent authorized by the legislature in the biennial appropriations act, to recipients of (~~aid to families with dependent children~~) temporary assistance for needy families whose needs are not being met because of a temporary reduction in monthly income below the entitled benefit payment level caused by loss or reduction of wages or unemployment compensation benefits or some other unforeseen circumstances. The amount of general assistance authorized shall not exceed the difference between the entitled benefit payment level and the amount of income actually received. (c) General assistance shall be provided only to persons who are not members of assistance units receiving federal aid assistance, except as provided in subsection (6)(a)(ii)(A) and (b) of this section, and will accept available services which can reasonably be expected to enable the person to work or reduce the need for assistance unless there is good cause to refuse. (d) Persons found eligible for general assistance based on incapacity from gainful employment may, if otherwise eligible, receive general assistance pending application for federal supplemental security income benefits. Any general assistance that is subsequently duplicated by the person's receipt of supplemental security income for the same period shall be considered a debt due the state and shall by operation of law be subject to recovery through all available legal remedies. (e) The department shall adopt by rule medical criteria for general assistance eligibility to ensure that eligibility decisions are consistent with statutory requirements and are based on clear, objective medical information. (f) The process implementing the medical criteria shall involve consideration of opinions of the treating or consulting physicians or health care professionals regarding incapacity, and any eligibility decision which rejects uncontroverted medical opinion must set forth clear and convincing reasons for doing so. (g) Recipients of general assistance based upon a finding of incapacity from gainful employment who remain otherwise eligible shall not have their benefits terminated absent a clear showing of material improvement in their medical or mental condition or specific error in the prior determination that found the recipient eligible by reason of incapacitation. Recipients of general assistance based upon pregnancy who relinquish their child for adoption, remain otherwise eligible, and are not eligible to receive benefits under the federal ~~((aid to families with dependent children))~~ temporary assistance for needy families program shall not have their benefits terminated until the end of the month in which the period of six weeks following the birth of the recipient's child falls. Recipients of the federal ~~((aid to families with dependent children))~~ temporary assistance for needy families program who lose their eligibility solely because of the birth and relinquishment of the qualifying child may receive general assistance through the end of the month in which the period of six weeks following the birth of the child falls. (7) "Applicant"—Any person who has made a request, or on behalf of whom a request has been made, to any county or local office for assistance. (8) "Recipient"—Any person receiving assistance and in addition those dependents whose needs are included in the recipient's assistance. (9) "Standards of assistance"—The level of income required by an applicant or recipient to maintain a level of living specified by the department. (10) "Resource"—Any asset, tangible or intangible, owned by or available to the applicant at the time of application, which can be applied toward meeting the applicant's need, either directly or by conversion into money or its equivalent: PROVIDED, That an applicant may retain the following described resources and not be ineligible for public assistance because of such resources. (a) A home, which is defined as real property owned and used by an applicant or recipient as a place of residence, together with a reasonable amount of property surrounding and contiguous thereto, which is used by and useful to the applicant. Whenever a recipient shall cease to use such property for residential purposes, either for himself or his dependents, the property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need, and if the recipient or his dependents absent themselves from the home for a period of ninety consecutive days such absence, unless due to hospitalization or health reasons or a natural disaster, shall raise a rebuttable presumption of abandonment: PROVIDED, That if in the opinion of three physicians the recipient will be unable to return to the home during his lifetime, and the home is not occupied by a spouse or dependent children or disabled sons or daughters, such property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need. (b) Household furnishings and personal effects and other personal property having great sentimental value to the applicant or recipient, as limited by the department consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions for federal aid assistance. (c) A motor vehicle, other than a motor home, used and useful having an equity value not to exceed ~~((one))~~ five thousand ~~((five hundred))~~ dollars. (d) A motor vehicle necessary to transport a physically disabled household member. This exclusion is limited to one vehicle per physically disabled person. (e) All other resources, including any excess of values exempted, not to exceed one thousand dollars or other limit as set by the department, to be consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions necessary for federal aid assistance. The department shall also allow recipients of temporary assistance for needy families to exempt savings accounts with combined balances of up to an additional three thousand dollars. ~~((€))~~ (f) Applicants for or recipients of general assistance shall have their eligibility based on resource limitations consistent with the ~~((aid to families with dependent children))~~ temporary assistance for needy families program rules adopted by the department. ~~((€))~~ (g) If an applicant for or recipient of public assistance possesses property and belongings in excess of the ceiling value, such value shall be used in determining the need of the applicant or recipient, except that: (i) The department may exempt resources or income when the income and resources are determined necessary to the applicant's or recipient's restoration to independence, to decrease the need for public assistance, or to aid in rehabilitating the applicant or recipient or a dependent of the applicant or recipient; and (ii) the department may provide grant assistance for a period not to exceed nine months from the date the agreement is signed pursuant to this section to persons who are otherwise ineligible because of excess real property owned by such persons when they are making a good faith effort to dispose of that property: PROVIDED, That: (A) The applicant or recipient signs an agreement to repay the lesser of the amount of aid received or the net proceeds of such sale; (B) If the owner of the excess property ceases to make good faith efforts to sell the property, the entire amount of assistance may become an overpayment and a debt due the state and may be recovered pursuant to RCW 43.20B.630; (C) Applicants and recipients are advised of their right to a fair hearing and afforded the opportunity to challenge a decision that good faith efforts to sell have ceased, prior to assessment of an overpayment under this section; and (D) At the time assistance is authorized, the department files a lien without a sum certain on the specific property. (11) "Income"—(a) All appreciable gains in real or personal property (cash or kind) or other assets, which are received by or become available for use and enjoyment by an applicant or recipient during the month of application or after applying for or receiving public assistance. The department may by rule and regulation exempt income received by an applicant for or recipient of public assistance which can be used by him to decrease his need for public assistance or to aid in rehabilitating him or his dependents, but such exemption shall not, unless otherwise provided in this title, exceed the exemptions of resources granted under this chapter to an applicant for public assistance. In determining the amount of assistance to which an applicant or recipient of ~~((aid to families with dependent children))~~ temporary assistance for needy families is entitled, the department is hereby authorized to disregard as a resource or income the earned income exemptions consistent with federal requirements. The department may permit the above exemption of earnings of a child to be retained by such child to cover the cost of special future identifiable needs even though the total exceeds the exemptions or resources granted to applicants and recipients of public assistance, but consistent with federal requirements. In formulating rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter, the department shall define income and resources and the availability thereof, consistent with federal requirements. All resources and income not specifically exempted, and any income or other economic benefit derived from the use of, or appreciation in value of, exempt resources, shall be considered in determining the need of an applicant or recipient of public assistance. (b) If, under applicable federal requirements, the state has the option of considering property in the form of lump sum compensatory awards or related settlements received by an applicant or recipient as income or as a resource, the department shall consider such property to be a resource. (12) "Need"—The difference between the applicant's or recipient's standards of assistance for himself and the dependent members of his family, as measured by the standards of the department, and value of all nonexempt resources and nonexempt income received by or available to the applicant or recipient and the dependent members of his family. (2) Upon application to the temporary assistance for needy families program, each recipient shall be placed in the job search component. For recipients who have been approved for assistance before the effective date of this section, the job search component shall be completed no later than one hundred eighty days after the effective date of this section. A parent may only receive this exemption for a total of twelve months, which may be consecutive or nonconsecutive; or (3) after June 30, 1999, if the recipient is a parent with a child under three months of age. NEW SECTION. Sec. 315. WORKFIRST--GOALS--CONTRACTS--SERVICE AREAS--PLANS. (1) The legislature finds that moving those eligible for assistance to self-sustaining employment is a goal of the WorkFirst program. It is the intent of WorkFirst to aid a participant's progress to self-sufficiency by allowing flexibility within the state-wide program to reflect community resources, the local characteristics of the labor market, and the composition of the caseload. Program success will be enhanced through effective coordination at regional and local levels, involving employers, labor representatives, educators, community leaders, local governments, and social service providers. (2) The department, through its regional offices, shall collaborate with employers, recipients, frontline workers, educational institutions, labor, private industry councils, the work force training and education coordinating board, community rehabilitation employment programs, employment and training agencies, local governments, the employment security department, and community action agencies to develop work programs that are effective and work in their communities. For planning purposes, the department shall collect and make accessible to regional offices successful work program models from around the United States, including the employment partnership program, apprenticeship programs, microcredit, microenterprise, self-employment, and W-2 Wisconsin works. Work programs shall incorporate local volunteer citizens in their planning and implementation phases to ensure community relevance and success. (3) To reduce administrative costs and to ensure equal state-wide access to services, the department may develop contracts for state-wide welfare-to-work services. These state-wide contracts shall support regional flexibility and ensure that resources follow local labor market opportunities and recipients' needs. (4) The secretary shall establish WorkFirst service areas for purposes of planning WorkFirst programs and for distributing WorkFirst resources. Service areas shall reflect department regions. (5) By July 31st of each odd-numbered year, a plan for the WorkFirst program shall be developed for each region. The plan shall be prepared in consultation with local and regional sources, adapting the state-wide WorkFirst program to achieve maximum effect for the participants and the communities within which they reside. Local consultation shall include to the greatest extent possible input from local and regional planning bodies for social services and work force development. The regional and local administrator shall consult with employers of various sizes, labor representatives, training and education providers, program participants, economic development organizations, community organizations, tribes, and local governments in the preparation of the service area plan. (6) The secretary has final authority in plan approval or modification.
