No rule shall be forwarded by any agency to the code reviser, nor shall the code reviser accept for filing any rule unless the format of such rule is in compliance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Once the rule has been formally adopted by the agency the code reviser need not, except with regard to the bulletin published pursuant to RCW 34.04.050(2), include the items enumerated in subsection (1) of this section in the official code.

(3) Any addition to or deletion from an existing code section not filed by the agency in the style prescribed by subsection (1) of this section shall in all respects be ineffectual, and shall not be shown in subsequent publications or codifications of that section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 34.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In addition to the provisions of RCW 34.04.025(1)(a)(i), every agency shall incorporate the most specific, but in no case omit all, of the following language alternatives when adopting or amending rules:

(a) The most specific reference shall be to a section of law which the rule is implementing, and shall be quoted as follows: "This rule is promulgated pursuant to RCW ..... and is intended to administratively implement that statute."

(b) The next specific reference, and one which shall be used only if paragraph (a) of this subsection is not applicable, shall be to that portion of an act which directs an agency to adopt rules and regulations as necessary to implement the act, and shall be quoted as follows: "This rule is promulgated pursuant to RCW ..... which directs that the (agency) has authority to implement the provisions of (name of act or RCW citation)."

(c) The least specific reference, and one which shall be used only if paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection are not applicable, is one which indicates that the rule is promulgated under the agency's broad rule-making authority—either in the agency enabling legislation or chapter 34.04 RCW, and shall be quoted as follows: "This rule is promulgated under the general rule-making authority of the (agency) as authorized in RCW ....."

(2) The code reviser is directed to develop a format for placing such specific language in each rule, and agencies shall then comply with the code reviser's direction, and shall include the same in the final rule.

(3) During the promulgation hearings process the public may question whether such rule should have a more specific reference, and the agency shall, pursuant to RCW 34.04.025(1)(b), give consideration to such requests.

CHAPTER 23

STATE BOARDS, COMMISSIONS, COUNCILS, AND COMMITTEES—LISTING—COST DATA

AN ACT Relating to state government; adding new sections to chapter 43.88 RCW; and creating new sections.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that members of boards, commissions, councils, and committees in state government make a valuable contribution to the public welfare.

Nevertheless, the legislature also finds that the continued proliferation of both statutory and nonstatutory groups of this nature without effective, periodic review of existing groups can result in wasteful duplication of effort, fragmentation of administrative authority, lack of accountability, plus an excessive and frequently hidden financial burden on the state.

The legislature further finds that effective legislative oversight and review of boards, commissions, councils, and committees is frustrated by a lack of current and reliable information on the status and activities of such groups.

The legislature declares that legislative oversight and overall accountability in state government can be significantly improved by creating in the office of program planning and fiscal management a central clearinghouse for information on boards, commissions, councils, and committees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 43.88 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The director of program planning and fiscal management shall compile, and revise within ninety days after the beginning of each biennium, a current list of all permanent and temporary, statutory and nonstatutory boards, commissions, councils, committees, and other groups of similar nomenclature that are established by the executive, legislative, or judicial branches of state government and whose members are eligible to receive travel expenses for their meetings in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

(2) Such list shall include but not be limited to any such group which:

(a) Functions primarily in an advisory, planning, or coordinating capacity;

(b) Performs advertising, research, promotional, or marketing services for a specific business, industry, or occupation; or

(c) Performs licensing, regulatory, or quasi-judicial functions, adopts rules, or has responsibility for the administration or policy direction of a state agency or program.

(3) Such list shall contain the following information for each board, commission, council, committee, or other group of similar nomenclature:

(a) The legal authorization for the creation of the group;

(b) The number of members on the group, the appointing authority, and the agency to which the group reports;

(c) The number of meetings held during the preceding biennium;

(d) A brief summary of the primary responsibilities of the group;

(e) The total estimated cost of operating the group during the preceding biennium and the estimated cost of the group during the ensuing biennium. Such cost data shall include the estimated administrative expenses of the group as well as the estimated cost to an agency of providing full time equivalent or part time supporting staff to the group; and

(f) The source of funding for the group.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 43.88 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Not later than ninety days after the beginning of each biennium, the director of program planning and fiscal management shall submit the compiled list of boards, commissions, councils, and committees, together with the information on each such group, that is required by section 2 of this act to:

- (1) The speaker of the house and the president of the senate for distribution to the appropriate standing committees; and
- (2) The legislative budget committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 43.88 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In order to facilitate the compilation of data required by section 2 of this act, each agency of the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of state government shall submit to the director of program planning and fiscal management a current list of the permanent and temporary, statutory and nonstatutory boards, commissions, councils, committees, and other groups of similar nomenclature that report to, or are involved in the operation of, the agency and whose members are eligible to receive travel expenses for their meetings in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

(2) Such list shall contain the administrative and cost information for each group that is prescribed in section 2(3) of this act.

(3) The director of program planning and fiscal management shall establish guidelines and a format for agencies to follow in submitting information on boards, commissions, councils, and committees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House February 4, 1977.
 Passed the Senate March 4, 1977.
 Approved by the Governor March 17, 1977.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 12, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 156, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Application for a special fuel dealer's license, special fuel supplier's license or a special fuel user's license, shall be made to the department. The application shall be filed upon a form prepared and furnished by the department and shall contain such information as the department deems necessary.

No special fuel dealer's license or special fuel user's license shall be issued to any person or continued in force unless such person has furnished bond, as defined in RCW 82.38.020, in such form as the department may require, to secure his compliance with this chapter, and the payment of any and all taxes, interest and penalties due and to become due hereunder. The requirement of furnishing a bond shall be waived provided all acquisitions of special fuel by the licensee are on a tax paid or a tax exempt basis.

The total amount of the bond or bonds required of any special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall be equivalent to twice ~~((his))~~ the estimated monthly ~~((license))~~ fuel tax, determined in such manner as the department may deem proper: PROVIDED, That the total amount of the bond or bonds shall never be less than five hundred dollars nor more than fifty thousand dollars: PROVIDED FURTHER, That special fuel dealers or special fuel users whose license is suspended or revoked for cause, shall be required to furnish bond coverage equivalent to three times the estimated monthly fuel tax.

Any person who has filed with the department a bond as a motor vehicle fuel distributor under the terms and conditions provided for in RCW 82.36.060, may extend the terms and conditions of said distributor's bond, by an approved rider or bond form, to include coverage of all liabilities and conditions imposed by this chapter upon the special fuel dealer or to the special fuel user to whom said extension is made applicable. The amount of any new bond that may be required of a dealer or user shall not exceed the maximum amount provided by RCW 82.36.060 for a motor vehicle fuel distributor's license.

Sec. 2. Section 14, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The department may revoke the license of any special fuel dealer, special fuel supplier, or special fuel user for reasonable cause. Before revoking such license the department shall notify the licensee to show cause within ~~((ten))~~ twenty days of the date of the notice why the license should not be revoked: PROVIDED, That at any time prior to and pending such hearing the department may, in the exercise of reasonable discretion, suspend such license.

The department shall cancel any license to act as a special fuel dealer, a special fuel supplier, or a special fuel user immediately upon surrender thereof by the holder.

It shall be presumed that a special fuel dealer's bond is in effect until such time as the department notifies all licensed special fuel suppliers to the contrary by mailing to their current address of record.

Any surety on a bond furnished by a special fuel dealer or special fuel user as provided herein shall be released and discharged from any and all liability to the state accruing on such bond after the expiration of forty-five days from the date which such surety shall have lodged with the department a written request to be released and discharged, but this provision shall not operate to relieve, release, or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue before the expiration of the forty-five day period. The department shall promptly, upon receiving any such request, notify the special fuel dealer or special fuel user who furnished the bond, and unless the special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall, on or before the expiration of the forty-five day period, file a new bond, in accordance with the requirements of this section, or make a deposit in lieu thereof as provided in subsection (12) of RCW 82.38.020, the department forthwith shall cancel the special fuel dealer's or special fuel user's license.

The department may require a special fuel dealer or special fuel user to give a new or additional surety bond or to deposit additional securities of the character specified in subsection (12) of RCW 82.38.020 if, in its opinion, the security of the surety bond therefor filed by such special fuel dealer or special fuel user, or the market value of the properties deposited as security by such special fuel dealer or special fuel user, shall become impaired or inadequate. Upon failure of the special fuel dealer or special fuel user to give such new or additional surety bond or to deposit additional securities within forty-five days after being requested to do so by the department, or after he shall fail or refuse to file reports and remit or pay taxes at the intervals fixed by the department, the department forthwith shall cancel his license.

Sec. 3. Section 18, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 156, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user fails to pay any taxes collected or due the state of Washington by said dealer or user within the time prescribed by RCW 82.38.150, said dealer or user shall pay in addition to such tax a penalty of ten percent of the amount thereof plus interest at the rate of one percent per month, or fraction thereof, from the date such tax was due until paid.

(2) If it be determined by the department that the tax reported by any special fuel dealer or special fuel user is deficient it shall proceed to assess the deficiency on the basis of information available to it and there shall be added to this deficiency a penalty of ten percent of the amount of the deficiency together with interest at the rate of one percent per month, or fraction thereof, from the date the report was due until paid: PROVIDED, That the interest charge on the unpaid excise tax shall be waived when such interest is less than five dollars: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the department may waive the interest on the unpaid excise tax when the interest exceeds five dollars and the department of motor vehicles determines that the cost of processing the collection of the interest exceeds the amount of interest due.

(3) If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user, whether or not he is licensed as such, fails, neglects, or refuses to file a special fuel tax report, the department shall, on the basis of information available to it, determine the tax liability of the special fuel dealer or the special fuel user for the period during which no report was filed, and to the tax as thus determined, the department shall add the penalty and interest provided in subsection (2) of this section. An assessment made by the department pursuant to this subsection or to subsection (2) of this section shall be presumed to be correct, and in any case where the validity of the assessment is drawn in question, the burden shall be on the person who challenges the assessment to establish by a fair preponderance of the evidence that it is erroneous or excessive as the case may be.

(4) If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall establish by a fair preponderance of evidence that his failure to file a report or pay the proper amount of tax within the time prescribed was due to reasonable cause and was not intentional or wilful, the department may waive the penalty prescribed in subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section.

(5) If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user shall file a false or fraudulent report with intent to evade the tax imposed by this chapter, there shall be added to the amount of deficiency determined by the department a penalty equal to twenty-five percent of the deficiency together with interest at one percent per month, or fraction thereof, on such deficiency from the date such tax was due to the date of payment, in addition to the penalty provided in subsection (2) of this section and all other penalties prescribed by law: PROVIDED, That the interest charge on the unpaid excise tax shall be waived when such interest is less than five dollars: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the director may waive the interest on the unpaid excise tax when the interest exceeds five dollars and the department of motor vehicles determines that the cost of processing the collection of the interest exceeds the amount of interest due.

(6) Except in the case of a fraudulent report or of neglect or refusal to make a report, every deficiency shall be assessed under subsection (2) of this section within three years from the twenty-fifth day of the next succeeding calendar month following the monthly period for which the amount is proposed to be determined or within three years after the return is filed, whichever period expires the later.

(7) Any special fuel dealer or special fuel user against whom an assessment is made under the provisions of subsections (2) or (3) of this section may petition for a reassessment thereof within thirty days after service upon the special fuel dealer or special fuel user of notice thereof. If such petition is not filed within such thirty day period, the amount of the assessment becomes final at the expiration thereof.

If a petition for reassessment is filed within the thirty day period, the department shall reconsider the assessment and, if the special fuel dealer or special fuel user has so requested in his petition, shall grant such special fuel dealer or special fuel user an oral hearing and give the special fuel dealer or special fuel user ten days' notice of the time and place thereof. The department may continue the hearing from time to time. The decision of the department upon a petition for reassessment shall become final thirty days after service upon the special fuel dealer or special fuel user of notice thereof.

Every assessment made by the department shall become due and payable at the time it becomes final and if not paid to the department when due and payable, there shall be added thereto a penalty of ten percent of the amount of the tax.

(8) Any notice of assessment required by this section shall be served personally or by mail; if by mail, service shall be made by depositing such notice in the United States mail, postage prepaid addressed to the special fuel dealer or special fuel user at his address as the same appears in the records of the department.

(9) Any licensee who has had their special fuel user, special fuel dealer, special fuel supplier, or combination thereof revoked shall pay a one hundred dollar penalty prior to the issuance of a new license.

Sec. 4. Section 28, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.38.270 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to:

- (1) Refuse, or knowingly and intentionally fail to make and file any statement required by this chapter in the manner or within the time required;

CHAPTER 53
PUBLIC UTILITY DISTRICTS—ELECTIONS

AN ACT Relating to elections; amending section 3, chapter 1, Laws of 1931 and RCW 54.08.010; amending section 4, chapter 1, Laws of 1931 as last amended by section 1, chapter 106, Laws of 1969 and RCW 54.12.010; and amending section 29.21.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 120, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.010.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 3, chapter 1, Laws of 1931 and RCW 54.08.010 are each amended to read as follows:

At any general election held in an even-numbered year the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority of any county in this state may, or on petition of ten percent of the qualified electors of such county, based on the total vote cast in the last general county election, shall, by resolution, submit to the voters of such county the proposition of creating a public utility district which shall be co-extensive with the limits of such county as now or hereafter established. Such petition shall be filed with the county auditor, who shall within fifteen days examine the signatures thereof and certify to the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof, and for such purpose the county auditor shall have access to all registration books in the possession of election officers within such county. If such petition be found to be insufficient, it shall be returned to the persons filing the same, who may amend or add names thereto for ten days, when the same shall be returned to the county auditor, who shall have an additional fifteen days to examine the same and attach his certificate thereto. No person having signed such petition shall be allowed to withdraw his name therefrom after the filing of the same with the county auditor. Whenever such petition shall be certified to as sufficient, the county auditor shall forthwith transmit the same, together with his certificate of sufficiency attached thereto, to the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners, who))~~ legislative authority, which shall thereupon immediately transmit such proposition to the election board of such county, and it shall be the duty of such county election board to submit such proposition to the voters at the next general election. The notice of the election shall state the boundaries of the proposed public utility district and the object of such election, and shall in other respects conform to the requirements of the general laws of the state of Washington, governing the time and manner of holding elections. In submitting the said question to the voters for their approval or rejection, the proposition shall be expressed on said ballot substantially in the following terms:

- Public Utility District No. .... YES
- Public Utility District No. .... NO

Any petition for the formation of a public utility district may describe a less area than the entire county in which the petition is filed, the boundaries of which shall follow the then existing precinct boundaries and not divide any voting precinct; and in the event that such a petition is filed the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority shall fix a date for a hearing on such petition, and shall publish the petition, without the signatures thereto appended, for two weeks prior to the date of the hearing, together with a notice stating the time of the meeting when such petition will be heard. Such publication, and all other publications required by this act, shall be in a newspaper published in the proposed or established public utility district, or, if there be no such newspaper, then in a newspaper published in the county in which such district is situated, and of general circulation in such county. The hearing on such petition may be adjourned from time to time, not exceeding four weeks in all. If upon the final hearing the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority shall find that any lands have been unjustly or improperly included within the proposed public utility district and will not be benefited by inclusion therein, ~~((the said board))~~ it shall change and fix the boundary lines in such manner as it shall deem reasonable and just and conducive to the public welfare and convenience, and make and enter an order establishing and defining the boundary lines of the proposed public utility district: PROVIDED, That no lands shall be included within the boundaries so fixed lying outside the boundaries described in the petition, except upon the written request of the owners of such lands. Thereafter the same procedure shall be followed as prescribed in this ~~((act))~~ chapter for the formation of a public utility district including an entire county, except that the petition and election shall be confined solely to the lesser public utility district.

Section 2. Section 4, chapter 1, Laws of 1931 as last amended by section 1, chapter 106, Laws of 1969 and RCW 54.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Within ten days after such election, the election board of the county shall canvass the returns, and if at such election a majority of the voters voting upon such proposition shall vote in favor of the formation of such district, the election board shall so declare in its canvass of the returns of such election, and such public utility district shall then be and become a municipal corporation of the state of Washington, and the name of such public utility district shall be Public Utility District No. . . . . of . . . . . County. The powers of the public utility district shall be exercised through a commission consisting of three members in districts of the second class, and five members in districts of the first class. When the public utility district is coextensive with the limits of such county, then, at the first election of commissioners and until any change shall have been made in the boundaries of public utility district commissioner districts, one public utility district commissioner shall be chosen from each of the three county commissioner districts of the county in which the public utility district is located. When the public utility district comprises only a portion of the county, with boundaries established in accordance with chapter 54.08 RCW, three public utility district commissioner districts, numbered consecutively, having approximately equal population and boundaries, following ward and precinct lines, as far as practicable, shall be described in the petition for the formation of the public utility district, which shall be subject to appropriate change by the county commissioners if and when they change the boundaries of the proposed public utility district, and one commissioner shall be elected from each of said public utility district commissioner districts. In all districts of the first class an additional commissioner at large shall be chosen from each of the two at large districts. No person shall be eligible to be elected to the office of public utility district commissioner for a particular district commissioner district unless he is a ~~((freeholder within the boundaries of such public utility district, and a qualified))~~ registered voter of the public utility district commissioner district or at large district from which he is elected.

Except as otherwise provided, the term of office of each public utility district commissioner other than the commissioners at large shall be six years, and the term of each commissioner at large shall be four years. Each term shall be computed from the first day of December following the commissioner's election. One commissioner at large and one commissioner from a commissioner district shall be elected at each ~~((biennial))~~ general election held in an even-numbered year for the term of four years and six years respectively. All candidates shall be voted upon by the entire public utility district.

When a public utility district is formed, three public utility district commissioners shall be elected at the same election at which the proposition is submitted to the voters as to whether such public utility district shall be formed. The commissioner residing in commissioner district number one shall hold office for the term of six years; the commissioner residing in commissioner district number two shall hold office for the term of four years; and the commissioner residing in commissioner district number three shall hold office for the term of two years. The commissioners first to be elected as above provided shall hold office from the first day of the month following the commissioners' election. Each term shall be computed from the first day of December following the commissioners' election.

All public utility district commissioners shall hold office until their successors shall have been elected and have qualified. A filing for nomination for public utility district commissioner shall be accompanied by a petition signed by one hundred ~~((qualified electors))~~ registered voters of the public utility district ~~((to be filed in the office of the county auditor not more than sixty days, and not less than forty-six days prior to the day of such election))~~, which shall be certified by the county auditor to contain the required number of registered voters, and shall otherwise be filed in accord with the requirements of RCW 29.21.060. At the time of filing such nominating petition, the person so nominated shall execute and file a declaration of candidacy subject to the provisions of RCW 29.21.060, as now or hereafter amended. The petition and each page of the petition shall state whether the nomination is for a commissioner from a particular commissioner district or for a commissioner at large and shall state the districts; otherwise it shall be void. A vacancy in the office of public utility district commissioner shall occur by death, resignation, removal, conviction of a felony, nonattendance at meetings of the public utility district commission for a period of sixty days unless excused by the public utility district commission, by any statutory disqualification, or by any permanent disability preventing the proper discharge of his duty. In the event of a vacancy in said office, such vacancy shall be filled at the next general election held in an even-numbered year, the vacancy in the interim to be filled by appointment by the remaining commissioners. If more than one vacancy exists at the same time in a district of the second class, or more than two in a district of the first class, a special election shall be called by the county election board upon the request of the remainder, or, that failing, by the county election board, such election to be held not more than forty days after the occurring of such vacancies.

A majority of the persons holding the office of public utility district commissioner at any time shall constitute a quorum of the commission for the transaction of business, and the concurrence of a majority of the persons holding such office at the time shall be necessary and shall be sufficient for the passage of any resolution, but no business shall be transacted, except in usual and ordinary course, unless there are in office at least a majority of the full number of commissioners fixed by law.

The boundaries of the public utility district commissioners' district may be changed only by the public utility district commission, and shall be examined every ten years to determine substantial equality of population, but said boundaries shall not be changed oftener than once in four years, and only when all members of the commission are present. The proposed change of the boundaries of the public utility district commissioners' district must be made by resolution and after public hearing. Notice of the time of a public hearing thereon shall be published for two weeks prior thereto. Upon a referendum petition signed by ten percent of the qualified voters of the public utility district being filed with the county auditor, the board of county commissioners shall submit such proposed change of boundaries to the voters of the public utility district for their approval or rejection. Such petition must be filed within ninety days after the adoption of resolution of the proposed action. The validity of said petition shall be governed by the provisions of chapter 54.08 RCW.

Sec. 3. Section 29.21.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 120, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All cities and towns shall hold primary elections irrespective of type or form of government which shall be nonpartisan and held as provided in RCW 29.13.070, as now or hereafter amended. All districts, except ~~((public utility districts and))~~ those districts which require ownership of property within said districts as a prerequisite to voting, shall hold primary elections which shall be nonpartisan and held as provided in RCW 29.13.070 as now or hereafter amended.

All names of candidates to be voted upon at city, town, and such district primary elections shall be printed upon the official primary ballot alphabetically in groups under the designation of the respective titles of the offices for which they are candidates. The name of the person who receives the greatest number of votes and of the person who receives the next greatest number of votes for each position, shall appear in that order on the city, town, or district general election ballot concerned under the designation for each respective office. In the event there are two or more offices to be filled for the same position, then names of candidates receiving the highest number of votes equal in number to twice the offices to be filled shall appear on the city, town, or district general election ballot so that the voter shall have a choice of two candidates for each position: PROVIDED, That no name of any candidate shall appear on the city, town, or district general election ballot unless said candidate shall receive at least five percent of the total votes cast for that office. The sequence of names of candidates printed on the city, town, or district general election ballot shall be in relation to the number of votes each candidate received at the primary. Names of candidates printed upon the city, town, or district primary and general election ballot need not be rotated.

The purpose of this section is to establish the holding of a primary election, subject to the exemptions as contained in RCW 29.21.015 as now or hereafter amended, as a uniform procedural requirement to the holding of city, town, and district elections and such provisions shall supersede any and all other statutes, whether general or special in nature, having different election requirements.

Passed the Senate March 7, 1977.

Approved by the Governor March 25, 1977.

ENVIRONMENTAL COORDINATION PROCEDURES

AN ACT Relating to the environmental coordination procedures act; amending section 1, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.010; amending section 2, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.020; amending section 4, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.040; amending section 5, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.050; amending section 6, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.060; amending section 8, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.080; amending section 9, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.090; amending section 10, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.100; adding a new section to chapter 90.62 RCW; and creating a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62-.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is the sense of the legislature that the heavy burdens placed upon persons proposing to undertake certain types of projects in this state through requirements to obtain numerous permits and related documents from various state and local agencies are undesirable and should be alleviated. The legislature further finds that present methods for obtaining public views in relation to applications to state and local agencies pertaining to these projects are cumbersome and place undue hardships on members of the public thereby thwarting the public's ability to present such views.

(2) The purposes of this chapter are to:

(a) Provide for an optional procedure to assist those who, in the course of satisfying the requirements of state and local government prior to undertaking a project which contemplates the use of the state's air, land, or water resources, must obtain a number of permits, (~~from the department of ecology and one or more state or local agencies~~) by establishing a mechanism in state government which will coordinate administrative decision-making procedures, and related quasi judicial and judicial review, pertaining to such documents.

(b) Provide to members of the public a better and easier opportunity to present their views comprehensively on proposed uses of natural resource and related environmental matters prior to the making of decisions on such uses by state or local agencies.

(c) Provide to members of the public who desire to carry out the aforementioned projects within the state of Washington a greater degree of certainty in terms of permit requirements of state and local government.

(d) Provide better coordination and understanding between state and local agencies in the administration of the various programs relating to air, water, and land resources.

(e) Establish the opportunity for members of the public to obtain information pertaining to requirements of federal and state law which must be satisfied prior to undertaking a project in the state.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter the following words mean, unless the context clearly dictates otherwise:

(1) "Board" means the pollution control hearings board.

(2) "Department" means the department of ecology.

(3) "Local government" means a county, city or town.

(4) "Permit" means any license, permit, certificate, certification, approval, compliance schedule, or other similar document pertaining to any regulatory or management program related to the protection, conservation, or use of, or interference with, the natural resources of land, air or water in the state, which is required to be obtained from a state agency prior to constructing or operating a project in the state of Washington. Permit shall also mean a substantial development permit under RCW 90.58.140 and any permit, required by a local government for a project, that the local government has chosen to process pursuant to RCW 90.62.100(2) as now or hereafter amended. Nothing in this chapter shall relate to a permit issued by the department of labor and industries or by the utilities and transportation commission; nor to the granting of proprietary interests in publicly owned property such as sales, leases, easements, use permits and licenses.

(5) "Person" means any individual, municipal, public, or private corporation, or other entity however denominated, including a state agency and county.

(6) "Processing" and "processing of applications" mean the entire process to be followed in relation to the making of decisions on an application for a permit and review thereof as provided in RCW 90.62.040 through 90.62.080.

(7) "Project" means any new activity or any expansion of or addition to an existing activity, fixed in location, for which permits are required prior to construction or operation from ((the department of ecology and one or more other state agencies prior to construction or operation, including, but not)) (a) two or more state agencies as defined in subsection (8) of this section, or (b) one or more state agencies and a local government, if the local government is processing permits or requests for variances or rezones pursuant to the procedure established by the provisions of this chapter, as provided by RCW 90.62.100(2) as now or hereafter amended. Such construction or operation may include, but need not be limited to, industrial and commercial operations and developments. For the purpose of part (a) of this subsection, the submission of plans and specifications for a hydraulic project or other work to the departments of fisheries and game pursuant to RCW 75.20.100 shall be considered to be an application for a permit required by one state agency.

(8) "State agency" means any state department, commission, board or other agency of the state however titled. For the limited purposes of this chapter only "state agency" shall also mean (a) any local or regional air pollution control authority established under chapter 70.94 RCW and (b) any local government when said government is acting in its capacity as a decision maker on an application for a permit pursuant to RCW 90.58.140.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person proposing a project may submit a master application to the department requesting the issuance of all permits necessary prior to the construction and operation of the project in the state of Washington. The master application shall be on a form furnished by the department and shall contain precise information as to the location of the project, and shall describe the nature of the project including any discharges of wastes proposed therefrom and any uses of, or interferences with, natural resources contemplated. ~~((No master application shall be accepted for processing by the department of ecology pursuant to this chapter unless it is accompanied by the certification of local government provided for in RCW 90.62.100.))~~

(2) Upon receipt of a properly completed master application, the department shall immediately notify in writing each state agency having a possible interest in the master application arising from requirements pertaining to a permit program under its jurisdiction. The notification from the department shall be accompanied by a copy of the master application together with the date by which the agency shall respond to the notice. Each notified agency shall respond in writing to the department within the specified date, not exceeding fifteen days from receipt, as determined by the department, advising (a)(i) whether the agency does or does not have an interest in the master application, and (a)(ii) if the response to (a)(i) of this subsection is affirmative, the permit program or programs under the agency's jurisdiction to which the project described in the master application is pertinent, and whether, in relation to the master application, a public hearing as provided in RCW 90.62.050 and 90.62.060 would or would not be of value taking into consideration the overall public interest. Each notified state agency which (b)(i) responds within the specified date that it does not have an interest in the master application or (b)(ii) does not respond as required above within the specified date, shall not subsequently require a permit of the applicant for the project described in the master application; provided the bar to requiring a permit subsequently shall not be applicable if the master application provided the notified agency contained false, misleading, or deceptive information, or other information, or lack thereof, which would reasonably lead an agency to misjudge its interest in a master application.

(3) The department shall ~~((submit))~~ send application forms relating to permit programs identified in affirmative responses under subsection (2) of this section to the applicant within five working days of the date specified by the department pursuant to subsection (2) of this section with a direction to complete and return them to the department within a reasonable time as specified by the department.

(4) When such applications, properly completed, have been returned to the department, each of the applications shall be transmitted to the appropriate state agency for the performance of its responsibilities of decision making in accordance with the procedures of this chapter. No such completed applications shall be accepted by the department for transmittal unless they are accompanied by (a) the certification of local government provided for in RCW 90.62.100 as now or hereafter amended, or (b) a statement of the local government indicating that such certification would require rezoning, the granting of a variance or issuance of a conditional use permit and the local government has chosen to utilize the procedures provided by this chapter to process the request for the rezoning or variance or the application for the conditional use permit as provided by RCW 90.62.100(2) as now or hereafter amended.

(5) For the purpose of establishing priority dates upon water right permits and certificates issued pursuant to rulings on applications under chapters 90.03 and 90.44 RCW and processed under this chapter, the priority date shall be the date of submitting the master application to the department or the county office as provided in RCW 90.62.120(2).

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department, within a reasonable time after transmittal under RCW 90.62.040(4), shall cause a notice to be published at the applicant's expense once each week on the same day of the week for ~~((three))~~ two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within each county in which the project is proposed to be constructed or operated. The notice shall describe the nature of the master application including, with reasonable specificity, the project proposed, its location, the various permits applied for, and the ~~((state))~~ agency having jurisdiction over each such permit. Except as provided in RCW 90.62.050(2), the notice shall also state the time and place of the public hearing (to be held not less than ~~((twenty))~~ fifteen days after the date of last publication of the notice). It shall further state that a copy of the master application and a copy of all permit applications for the project are available for public inspection in the office for environmental permit applications of each county in which the project is proposed to be constructed or operated, as well as at the Olympia office and appropriate regional office of the department, together with such other locations as the department may designate.

(2) If the responses received by the department from state agencies under RCW 90.62.040(2) unanimously state the position that a public hearing in relation to a master application would not be of value taking into consideration the overall public interest, and the department, after a careful evaluation, taking into consideration all interests involved, including the opportunities for members of the public to present views, concludes likewise, the provisions of subsection (1) of this section pertaining to the time and place of a public hearing shall not be included in the notice. In place thereof the notice shall state that members of the public may present relevant views and supporting materials in writing to the department in relation to any of the permits applied for within ((thirty)) twenty days after the last date of publication of the notice in a newspaper.

(1) Except as provided in RCW 90.62.050(2), prior to any final decision on any permit applications relating to a project subject to the procedures of this chapter, a public hearing shall be held in the county in which all or a major part of the proposed project is to be constructed or operated, such hearing to be held pursuant to notice made under RCW 90.62.050(1). At any such hearing the applicant may submit any relevant information and material in support of his applications, and members of the public may present relevant views and supporting materials in relation to any or all of the applications being considered.

(2) Each ((state)) agency having an application for a permit before it as described in the notice in RCW 90.62.050(1) shall be represented at the public hearing by its chief administrative officer or his designee. The director of the department, or a hearing officer duly appointed by him, shall chair the hearing; however, the representative of any ((state)) agency (other than the department) within whose jurisdiction a specific application lies shall conduct the portion of the hearing pertaining to submission of information, views, and supporting materials which are relevant to that application. The chairman may, when appropriate, continue a hearing from time to time and place to place. The hearing shall be recorded in any manner suitable for transcription as determined by the department.

(3) No provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW shall apply to the hearing provided for by this section. Said hearing shall be conducted for the purpose of obtaining information for the assistance of ((state)) the agencies but shall not be considered a trial or adversary proceeding.

(4) Upon completion of the public hearing the chairman, after consultation with the ((state)) agency representatives, shall establish the date by which all ((state)) agencies shall forward their final decisions on applications before them to the department: PROVIDED, That this date may be extended by the chairman for reasonable cause. Every final decision shall set forth the basis for the conclusion reached together with a final order denying the application for a permit or granting it, subject to such conditions of approval as the deciding agency may have power to impose.

(5) In situations where a notice is provided pursuant to RCW 90.62.050(2) and no public hearing is conducted, the department shall, after ((thirty)) twenty days after the last notice publication in the newspaper, submit a copy of all views and supporting material received by it to each agency having an application for a permit before it as described in the notice. Concurrently therewith, the department shall notify each ((state)) agency, in writing, of the date by which final decisions on applications shall be forwarded to the department: PROVIDED, That this date may be extended by the department for reasonable cause. Each such final decision shall consist of the same contents as provided for final decisions in RCW 90.62.060(4).

(6) As soon as all final decisions are received by the department from the various participating ((state)) agencies, as provided in RCW 90.62.060(4) and (5), the department shall incorporate them, without modification, into one document and transmit the same to the applicant either personally or by registered mail.

(7) Each ~~((state))~~ agency having jurisdiction to approve or deny an application for a permit shall have continuing power as vested in it prior to enactment of this chapter to make such determinations. Nothing in RCW 90.62.030 through 90.62.060 shall lessen or reduce such powers, and such sections shall modify only the procedures to be followed in the carrying out of such powers.

(8) ~~((A state))~~ An agency may in the performance of its responsibilities of decision making under this chapter, request or receive additional information from an applicant and others prior or subsequent to a public hearing as necessary to the performance thereof.

Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by any final decision of a state agency, as defined in RCW 90.62.020(8) as now or hereafter amended, contained in the document issued by the department pursuant to RCW 90.62.060(6) may obtain review thereof by filing a request, with the board, within thirty days of the transmittal under RCW 90.62.060(6) by the department of ecology of the document, for all final decisions other than a final decision relating to the granting or denial of a substantial development permit pursuant to RCW 90.58.140 in which case the filing of such request shall be with the shorelines hearings board. The board shall review all final decisions other than a final decision on a substantial development permit which shall be reviewed by the shorelines hearings board. In the event a request for review includes a final decision involving a substantial development permit and other permits, there shall be single staged hearing of the permits by the boards. The board shall be authorized to adopt rules and regulations implementing such staged hearings and the filing of requests so as to eliminate all unnecessary duplication. ~~((The scope of review by the boards and the standards of reviews used by the boards for determining the validity of any final decision shall be those contained in RCW 34.04.130.))~~

(2) Any hearing held pursuant to this section by the pollution control hearings board or the shorelines hearings board or by the boards jointly shall be a de novo quasi judicial hearing and shall be conducted pursuant to the procedures provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) The board or boards shall make written findings of fact based upon a preponderance of the evidence and shall prepare written conclusions of law and an order, which order may affirm with or without condition, remand for further proceedings, or reverse the appealed decision in accordance with the findings and conclusions.

(4) Judicial review of decisions of the ~~((actions of))~~ boards shall be controlled by RCW 43.21B.180 through 43.21B.200 except as they relate to decisions pertaining to substantial development permits under RCW 90.58.140 which shall be controlled by RCW 90.58.180.

(5) (a) Any person aggrieved by and desiring to appeal any final decision of a local government contained in the document issued by the department pursuant to RCW 90.62.060(6) as now or hereafter amended shall obtain review thereof in the same manner as would apply had the local government not utilized the procedures provided by this chapter.

(b) The provisions of subsection (5)(a) of this section shall not apply to a decision concerning any permit required by a "state agency" as that term is defined in RCW 90.62.020(8) as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 7. Section 9, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other statutes relating to the processing of application for permits, the procedures, including timing requirements and approval requirements related thereto, set forth in this chapter shall be exclusive in relation to applications for permits filed pursuant to RCW 90.62.040. The procedures of this chapter shall be in lieu of any procedures otherwise provided by statute, existing or hereafter enacted, to be followed by ~~((a state))~~ an agency in ruling upon an application for a permit for a project under this chapter.

(2) The procedures of this chapter are applicable only to projects as defined in RCW 90.62.020(7) and only through the completion of final decisions under RCW 90.62.060 and of review proceedings of RCW 90.62.080 and any ancillary proceedings. This chapter shall have no applicability to any applications for permit renewals, amendments, extensions, or other similar documents, or for replacing permits which are required subsequent to the completion of the decisions and proceedings under RCW 90.62.060 and 90.62.080 and any ancillary proceedings. For purposes of this section "ancillary proceedings" shall mean all proceedings, quasi judicial and judicial, held pursuant to any order of remand or similar order by the board or a court in relation to a final decision of ~~((a state))~~ an agency made hereunder and held in response to the order of remand or similar order.

(3) Fee schedules previously and expressly established or authorized by statute in relation to any application for a permit shall continue to be applicable even though processed under this chapter. The department shall collect such fees and forward them to the appropriate ~~((state))~~ agency.

Sec. 8. Section 10, chapter 185, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.62.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No ~~((master application pertaining to a project filed under RCW 90.62.040 shall be processed under this chapter))~~ completed applications returned to the department of ecology pursuant to RCW 90.62.040(3) as now or as hereafter amended shall be accepted by the department for transmittal pursuant to RCW 90.62.040 as now or hereafter amended unless ~~((it is))~~ they are accompanied by a certification from the pertinent local government that the project is in compliance with all zoning ordinances, and associated comprehensive plans, administered by said local government relating to the location of the project or are accompanied by the statement described in RCW 90.62.040(4)(b) as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED, That if the local government has no such ordinances or plans the certification from local government shall so state and issue. For purposes of this section master programs of chapter 90.58 RCW are not zoning ordinances administered by local government. Local governments are authorized to accept applications for certifications as provided in this section and are directed to rule upon the same expeditiously to insure the purposes of this chapter are accomplished fully. Upon certification, the local government may not change such zoning ordinances so as to affect the proposed project until the procedures of this chapter, including any board or court reviews, are completed. The provisions of the state environmental policy act relating to the preparation of detailed impact statements shall not be applicable to the action approving or denying certifications authorized in this section.

(2) (a) Upon receiving an application for certification for a project pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the local government may, at its discretion, choose to process, pursuant to the procedures provided by this chapter, requests for variances or rezones or applications for conditional use permits or any other permits or any combination thereof that may be required by the local government for the project described on a master application. The procedures established by this chapter shall satisfy the procedural requirements for any requests or applications so processed.

(b) The provisions of subsection (2)(a) of this section shall not apply to any permit required by a "state agency" as that term is defined in RCW 90.62.020(8) as now or hereafter amended.

(3) Nothing in this chapter shall modify in any manner whatsoever the applicability or inapplicability of any land use regulation statutes or local zoning ordinances to lands of any state agency.

~~((3))~~ (4) Approval of an application for certification as provided in this section shall not eliminate any requirements of the Shoreline Management Act of 1971 or any other statutes administered by a local government. A ruling by local government denying an application for certification shall not be appealable under this chapter: PROVIDED, That the denial of an application for certification pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall not preclude the applicant from filing a permit application under any other available statute or procedure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 90.62 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It is anticipated that in processing permits as provided by this chapter the participating agencies may identify modifications to the project described in a master application, and subsequently completed individual applications submitted pursuant to RCW 90.62.040 as now or hereafter amended, which modifications would be necessary to satisfy the permit requirements of all of the participating agencies. The department of ecology shall, by rules and regulations adopted pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, establish guidelines for determining the extent to which such modifications can be approved under the original application without the applicant's having to resubmit a master application. Such guidelines shall require, among other provisions, that an applicant resubmit a master application if the modifications proposed by the participating agencies to the applicant's proposed project would have required one or more of the participating agencies to require the applicant to submit a new application reflecting such modifications if the application for the permit had not been submitted under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 20, chapter 193, Laws of 1957 and RCW 48.30.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every debtor or borrower, when property insurance of any kind is required in connection with the debt or loan, shall have reasonable opportunity and choice in the selection of the agent, broker, and insurer through whom such insurance is to be placed; but only if the insurance is properly provided for the protection of the creditor or lender not later than at commencement of risk as to such property as respects such creditor or lender, and in the case of renewal of insurance, only if the renewal policy, or a proper binder therefor containing a brief description of the coverage bound and the identity of the insurer in which the coverage is bound, is delivered to the the creditor or lender not later than thirty days prior to the renewal date.

A rejection shall not be deemed unreasonable if it is based on reasonable standards, uniformly applied, relating to the extent of coverage required and the financial soundness and the services of an insurer. (d) Use or disclose, without the prior written consent of the borrower, mortgagor, or purchaser taken at a time other than the making of the loan or extension of credit, information relative to a contract of insurance which is required by the credit transaction, for the purpose of replacing such insurance; or mortgagor, borrower, or purchaser has failed to provide required insurance in accordance with the terms of the loan or credit document.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to credit life or credit disability insurance.

Approved by the Governor March 30, 1977, with the exception of section 35 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 30, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval of one section, Senate Bill No. 2133 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to state government reports and publications."

The specific section I have vetoed is New Section 35 at page 40, lines 15 through 25, which requires each state and local agency to purge its mailing lists each year of all persons not responding positively to inquiries on whether they wish to remain on such lists. The scope of this section is unnecessarily broad, and would, for example, require some agencies which mail valuable but unsolicited information to large segments of the population to curtail such activities. In many cases such mailings are required by law. Furthermore, section 35 would severely restrict the ability of our state institutions of higher learning to regularly solicit donations from their alumni or to keep their large constituencies informed of continuing educational opportunities. Even members of the legislature and other state and local elected officials would have to curtail their mailings.

For the reasons stated above, and because I am confident that the legislature will pass appropriate legislation to deal with the problem of unnecessary mailing expenses because of the use of stale mailing lists, I have vetoed section 35 of Senate Bill No. 2133. The remainder of the bill is approved."

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2374]

MOTOR VEHICLES—SIZE, WEIGHT, LOAD—IMPAIRED CLEARANCE SIGNS—
AXLE FACTORS—GROSS WEIGHT LIMIT

AN ACT Relating to motor vehicles; amending section 46.44.020, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 7, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.020; amending section 22, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.041; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 46.44.020, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 7, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.020 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any vehicle unladen or with load to exceed a height of fourteen feet above the level surface upon which the vehicle stands: PROVIDED, That this height limitation shall not apply to authorized emergency vehicles or repair equipment of a public utility engaged in reasonably necessary operation. The provisions of this section shall not relieve the owner or operator of a vehicle or combination of vehicles from the exercise of due care in determining that sufficient vertical clearance is provided upon the public highways where such vehicle or combination of vehicles is being operated; and no liability shall attach to the state or to any county, city, town, or other political subdivision by reason of any damage or injury to persons or property by reason of the existence of any structure over or across any public highway where the vertical clearance above the roadway is fourteen feet or more; or, where such vertical clearance is less than fourteen feet, if impaired clearance signs of a design approved by the Washington state highway commission are erected and maintained on the right side of any such public highway(~~(: In cities and towns at a distance of not less than two hundred feet and not more than three hundred feet; and in rural areas at a distance of not less than three hundred fifty feet and not more than five hundred feet, from each side of such structure))~~ in accordance with the manual of uniform traffic control devices for streets and highways as adopted by the Washington state highway commission pursuant to chapter 47.36 RCW. If any structure over or across any public highway is not owned by the state or by a county, city, town, or other political subdivision, it shall be the duty of the owner thereof when billed therefor to reimburse the Washington state highway commission or the county, city, town, or other political subdivision having jurisdiction over such highway for the actual cost of erecting and maintaining such impaired clearance signs, but no liability shall attach to such owner by reason of any damage or injury to persons or property caused by impaired vertical clearance above the roadway.

Sec. 2. Section 22, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.041 are each amended to read as follows:

No vehicle or combination of vehicles shall operate upon the public highways of this state with a gross load on any single axle in excess of twenty thousand pounds, or upon any group of axles in excess of that set forth in the following table, except that two consecutive sets of tandem axles may carry a gross load of thirty-four thousand pounds each, if the overall distance between the first and last axles of such consecutive sets of tandem axles is thirty-six feet or more.

When inches are involved: Under six inches take lower, six inches or over take higher. (~~When wheelbase of a group of axles is less than the wheelbase required by the above table to attain maximum single axle and tandem axle allowance, no axle shall exceed any axle in such group by more than two thousand five hundred pounds in weight. For this purpose of determining equal axle weight distribution, the front axle of a unit supplying motive power shall not be included in the axle group.~~) The maximum load on any axle in any group of axles shall not exceed 1.2 times the load given in the above table divided by the number of axles in that group, and shall not exceed the single axle or tandem axle allowance as set forth elsewhere. For considering the number of axles in a group, the front axle of a unit supplying motive power need not be included in the axle group.

The maximum axle and gross weights specified in this section are subject to the braking requirements set up for the service brakes upon any motor vehicle or combination of vehicles as provided by law.

It is unlawful to operate upon the public highways any single unit vehicle, supported upon three axles or more with a gross weight including load in excess of forty thousand pounds or any combination of vehicles having a gross weight in excess of eighty thousand pounds without first obtaining an additional tonnage permit as provided for in RCW 46.44.095: PROVIDED, That when a combination of vehicles has purchased license tonnage in excess of seventy-two thousand pounds as provided by RCW 46.16.070, such excess license tonnage may be applied to the power unit subject to limitations of RCW 46.44.042 and this section when such vehicle is operated without a trailer.

It is unlawful to operate any vehicle upon the public highways equipped with two axles spaced less than seven feet apart, unless the two axles are so constructed and mounted in such a manner as to provide oscillation between the two axles and that either one of the two axles will not at any one time carry more than the maximum gross weight allowed for one axle specified in this section.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein, a vehicle or combination of vehicles in operation on January 4, 1975, may operate upon the public highways of this state, including the interstate system within the meaning of section 127 of Title 23, United States Code, with an overall gross weight upon a group of two consecutive sets of dual axles which was lawful in this state under the laws, regulations and procedures in effect in this state on January 4, 1975.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1977.

Passed the House March 7, 1977.

Approved by the Governor March 30, 1977.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 30, 1977.

CHAPTER 1

[Reengrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2620]

EMERGENCY WATER WITHDRAWAL—AUTHORITY—FISCAL SUPPORT—PENALTIES

AN ACT Relating to water; amending section 3, chapter 295, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.83B.210; creating new sections; authorizing the issuance of general obligation bonds and bond anticipation notes; making appropriations; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that it is necessary to provide the department of ecology with emergency powers to authorize withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, and construction of facilities in relation thereto, in order to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during the summer and fall of 1977.

In order to provide needed capital for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities to withdraw and distribute water to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during the summer and fall of 1977, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of eighteen million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this section and sections 13 through 16 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Domestic and irrigation uses of public surface and ground waters shall be given priority in determining "beneficial uses" for the purposes of section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In addition to the powers previously vested in the department of ecology to permit the withdrawal of public surface and ground waters by chapters 90.03 and 90.44 RCW, the department of ecology is authorized to permit withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, for any period ending not later than September 30, 1977, for any beneficial use. The department may issue such emergency permits if, after investigation and after providing appropriate federal, state, and local governmental bodies an opportunity to comment, the following are found:

(1) The waters proposed for withdrawal are to be used in relation to beneficial use involving a previously established activity or purpose; and

(2) The previously established activity or purpose was furnished water through rights applicable to the use of a public water body which are not exercisable due to the lack of water arising from natural drought conditions; and

(3) The proposed withdrawal will not reduce flows or levels below essential minimums necessary (a) to assure the maintenance of fisheries requirements, and

(b) to protect federal and state interests including, among others, power generation, navigation, and existing water rights.

All permits issued hereunder shall contain provisions which allow for termination of authorized withdrawals, in whole or in part, whenever withdrawals will conflict with flows and levels as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In addition to any other powers previously vested in the department of social and health services, the department is authorized to permit withdrawal of public surface and ground waters for municipal and industrial water supply and distribution facilities to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state during the summer and fall of 1977. Such authorization shall be on a temporary basis for any period ending not later than September 30, 1977. The department may issue such emergency permits if, after investigation and after providing appropriate federal, state, and local governmental bodies an opportunity to comment, the following are found:

(1) The waters proposed for withdrawal are to be used in relation to beneficial use involving a previously established activity or purpose; and

(2) The previously established activity or purpose was furnished water through rights applicable to the use of a public water body which are not exercisable due to the lack of water arising from natural drought conditions; and

(3) The proposed withdrawal will not reduce flows or levels below essential minimums necessary (a) to assure the maintenance of fisheries requirements, and (b) to protect federal and state interests including, among others, power generation, navigation, and existing water rights.

All permits issued hereunder shall contain provisions which allow for termination of authorized withdrawals, in whole or in part, whenever withdrawals will conflict with flows and levels as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) As to projects and water withdrawal permits issued or authorized or both under sections 3 and 4 of this 1977 amendatory act, the requirements of chapter 43.21C RCW and all local zoning ordinances, plans, and local building and construction permit ordinances are waived and inapplicable. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, water projects and related withdrawal permits, authorized or issued pursuant to sections 3 or 4 of this 1977 amendatory act shall not be subject to any public notice requirements. Permits issued under sections 3 and 4 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be in lieu of all environmental protection and natural resource regulation permits, certificates, and other approvals and authorization documents required under state statutes including, but not limited to, RCW 90.58.140, 75.20.100, and 86.16.080, as well as all other similar permits required under local ordinances. All state departments or other agencies having jurisdiction over state or other public lands which are required to be used in carrying out projects related to water withdrawal permits, issued pursuant to sections 3 and 4 of this 1977 amendatory act, shall provide short term easements or other appropriate property interests upon the payment of the fair market value: PROVIDED, That this mandate shall not apply to any lands of the state which are reserved for a special purpose or use which cannot properly be carried out if such a property interest were to be conveyed.

(2) Upon request of the department of ecology or the department of social and health services, the department of general administration may waive any public bidding requirements otherwise provided by law, for any project authorized by sections 3 or 4 of this 1977 amendatory act and financed with funds appropriated in this 1977 amendatory act if the department of general administration determines that (a) an emergency condition exists, and (b) if the request for a waiver is not approved the public interest will be significantly affected in a detrimental manner. No obligation to provide a grant for a project authorized under this section shall be incurred after June 30, 1977.

The department may expend funds from the appropriations contained in subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section to make loans or combinations of loans and grants to public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050. The grant portion of a combination loan and grant to a public body for any project shall not exceed fifteen percent of the total amount received by such project under this section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that the health and well-being of the people of this state are of paramount importance.

The legislature further finds that the conduct of members of the dental profession licensed to practice dentistry in this state plays a vital role in preserving the health and well-being of the people of the state.

The legislature further finds that there is no effective means of handling disciplinary proceedings against members of the dental profession licensed in this state when such proceedings are necessary for the protection of the public health.

Therefore, the legislature declares its intention to exercise the police power of the state to protect the public health, to promote the welfare of the state, and to provide a dental disciplinary board to act as a disciplinary body for the members of the dental profession licensed to practice dentistry in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout sections 1, and 3 through 28 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(1) "Board" means the dental disciplinary board created in section 6 of this 1977 amendatory act.

- (2) "License" means a certificate or license to practice dentistry in this state as provided for in this chapter.
- (3) "Member" means member of the dental disciplinary board.
- (4) "Secretary" means the secretary of the dental disciplinary board.
- (5) "Director" means the director of motor vehicles of the state of Washington.
- (6) "To practice dentistry" means to engage in the practice of dentistry as defined in RCW 18.32.020.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The term "unprofessional conduct" as used in sections 3 through 28 of this 1977 amendatory act and in RCW 18.32.230 as now or hereafter amended shall mean any one of the following items or any combination thereof:

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, which act relates to a person's fitness to practice dentistry; and if the act constitutes a crime, conviction thereof in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon conviction, however, the judgment and sentence shall be conclusive evidence at an ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the respondent dentist of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of said respondent dentist's violation of the statute upon which it is based: PROVIDED, That nothing herein shall be construed to affect or alter the provisions of RCW 9.96A.020;

(2) Making any misrepresentation or false promise directly or indirectly to influence, persuade or induce dental patronage, or engaging in any other improper, unprofessional, or dishonorable conduct in the practice of dentistry;

(3) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in the obtaining of a license to practice dentistry or in the reinstatement of such license;

(4) Division of fees or agreeing to split or divide the fees received for dental services with any person for bringing or referring a patient, or for assisting in the care or treatment of a patient, without the knowledge of said patient or the patient's legal representative;

(5) Employing, procuring, inducing, aiding, or abetting a person not licensed or registered as a dentist to engage in the practice of dentistry. The person practiced upon shall not be deemed an accomplice, employer, procurer, inducer, aider, or abettor within the meaning of sections 3 through 28 of this 1977 amendatory act;

(6) Professional connection or association with or lending a dentist's name to another for the illegal practice of dentistry by another, or professional connection or association with any person, firm or corporation holding itself out in any manner contrary to this chapter;

(7) The impersonation of another licensed practitioner;

(8) Suspension or revocation of the dentist's license to practice dentistry by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction;

(9) Gross incompetency in the practice of dentistry;

(10) Gross, wilful and continued overcharging for professional services;

(11) Wilful or repeated violations of lawful rules established by any health officer of the state or any municipal corporation or division thereof;

(12) Habitual intoxication or addiction to the use of controlled substances;

(13) The possession, use, prescription for use, or distribution of controlled substances or legend drugs in any way other than for therapeutic purposes or in violation of law;

(14) Any conduct in violation of this chapter;

(15) Wilful violation of section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act or wilful disregard of a subpoena or notice of the dental disciplinary board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. It shall be the duty and obligation of a dentist against whom a complaint is made and who is being investigated by the dental disciplinary board to cooperate with the board as requested by it by:

(1) Furnishing any papers or documents;

(2) Furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in such complaint;

(3) Appearing before the board at the time and place designated.

Should such dentist fail to cooperate with the board in the manner provided for in this section, such conduct shall be deemed to be unprofessional conduct.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) In the event that a dentist is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill, said dentist's license shall be suspended automatically by the dental disciplinary board upon entry of the court's decree or judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal.

(2) If it appears to the dental disciplinary board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a dentist who has not been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill is unable to practice dentistry with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of controlled substances, chemicals, or any other type of material, or as a result of any mental or physical condition, a complaint in the name of the board shall be served upon such dentist for a hearing on the sole issue of the capacity of the dentist to adequately conduct practice. In enforcing this subsection the board shall, upon probable cause, have authority to compel a dentist to submit to a mental or physical examination by two or more physicians designated by the board and at least one of whom may be chosen by the charged party. Failure of a dentist to submit to such examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension of such dentist's license, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the dentist's control, and as a result of such refusal a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. A dentist affected under this subsection shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity by the board to demonstrate that said dentist can resume the competent practice of dentistry with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

For the purpose of this subsection, every dentist licensed under this chapter who shall accept the privilege to practice dentistry in this state shall by so practicing or by the making and filing of annual registration to practice dentistry in this state, be deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitute a privileged communication.

In any proceeding under this subsection, neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board shall be used against a dentist in any other proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is hereby created the Washington state dental disciplinary board, which shall be composed of five members, each of whom shall be a resident of this state engaged in the active practice of dentistry and who shall have been licensed to practice dentistry in this state for a period of five years or more prior to appointment to the board. Of the five members appointed to the board, two members shall reside and engage in the active practice of dentistry east of the summit of the Cascade range and the other three members shall reside and engage in the active practice of dentistry west of the summit of the Cascade range.

The attorney general shall be counsel to the board and shall represent it in all legal proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Members of the board shall be appointed by the governor from among the holders of licenses to practice dentistry residing in this state and shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. The members of the first board shall serve for the following terms: Two members for two years, two members for four years, and one member for six years. Thereafter members of the board shall be appointed to terms of six years. The position of the members first appointed for the term of four years shall be held in such first term and in successive terms by the members residing east of the Cascade summit. The terms of office of members shall commence on October 1st.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Vacancies in the board shall be filled by the governor and a member appointed to fill a vacancy on the board shall serve for the balance of the unexpired term of the position to which said member was appointed and until the successor is appointed and takes office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Any member of the board may be removed by the governor for neglect of duty, misconduct, or malfeasance or misfeasance in office. Whenever the governor is satisfied that any member of the board has been guilty of neglect of duty, misconduct, or malfeasance or misfeasance in office, the governor shall file with the secretary of state a statement showing the governor's reasons, with the order of removal, and the secretary of state shall forthwith send a certified copy of such order of removal and statement of causes by registered mail to the last known post office address of the member in question.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Members of the board shall be paid thirty-five dollars per day for time spent in performing their duties as members of the board and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03-.060 as now or hereafter amended while engaged in business of the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The board may meet, function, and exercise its powers at any geographical location within the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The board shall elect from its members a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary, who shall serve for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The board shall meet at least once a year or upon the call of the chairman at such times and places as the chairman shall designate. Three members shall constitute a quorum to transact business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Members of the board shall be immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of such board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To adopt, amend and rescind such rules as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 1, and 3 through 28 of this 1977 amendatory act;

(2) To investigate all complaints and charges of unprofessional conduct against any holder of a license and to hold hearings to determine whether or not such charges can be substantiated;

(3) To employ necessary stenographic or clerical help under the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW;

(4) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding;

(5) To take or cause depositions to be taken as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding;

(6) To investigate complaints and charges of malpractice, unsafe conditions and practices, and to analyze equipment, procedures, and training, in such cases, and to direct corrective action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Any person, firm, corporation, or public officer may submit a written complaint to the secretary charging the holder of a license to practice dentistry with unprofessional conduct, specifying the grounds therefor. If the board determines that such complaint merits consideration, or if the board shall have reason to believe, without a formal complaint, that any holder of a license has been guilty of unprofessional conduct, the board may order that a hearing be held.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. When a hearing is ordered by the board, the secretary shall prepare a specification of the charge or charges of unprofessional conduct made against a license holder, a copy of which shall be served upon the accused, together with a notice of the hearing, as provided in section 17 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The time of hearing shall be fixed by the secretary as soon as convenient, but not earlier than thirty days after service of the charges upon the accused. The secretary shall issue a notice of hearing of the charges, which notice shall specify the time and place of hearing and shall notify the accused that he may file with the secretary a written response within twenty days of the date of service. Such notice shall also notify the accused that a stenographic record of the proceeding will be kept, that the accused shall have the opportunity to appear personally and to have counsel present, with the right to produce witnesses and evidence, to cross-examine witnesses testifying against the accused, to examine witnesses testifying for the accused, to examine such documentary evidence as may be produced against the accused, and to have subpoenas issued by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The procedures governing contested cases before agencies under chapter 34.04 RCW shall govern all hearings before the board, insofar as applicable and to the extent such procedures are not inconsistent with the procedures prescribed in sections 3 through 28 of this 1977 amendatory act; and the board shall have, in addition to the powers and duties set forth in sections 3 through 28 of this 1977 amendatory act, all of the powers and duties granted to, or imposed upon, an agency by the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, which shall include, without limitation, all powers relating to the administration of oaths, the receipt of evidence, the issuance and enforcing of subpoenas, and the taking of depositions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Within a reasonable time after holding a hearing under the provisions of sections 3 through 28 of this 1977 amendatory act, the board shall render its decision. If a majority of the members of the board vote in favor of finding the accused guilty of unprofessional conduct as specified in the charges, or any of them, the board shall prepare written findings of fact and may thereafter prepare and file in the office of the director a certificate or order of revocation or suspension of the license to practice, in which case a copy thereof shall be served upon the accused, or the board may reprimand the accused, as it deems most appropriate. If the license holder is found not guilty, or if less than a majority of the members vote for a finding of guilty, the board shall forthwith order a dismissal of the charges and the exoneration of the accused. When a proceeding has been dismissed, either on the merits or otherwise, the board shall relieve the accused from any possible odium that may attach by reason of the charges made against the accused by such public exoneration as is necessary, if requested by the accused to do so.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The filing by the board in the office of the director of a certificate or order of revocation or suspension after due notice, hearing, and findings in accordance with the procedure specified in sections 3 through 28 of this 1977 amendatory act, certifying that any holder of a license has been found guilty of unprofessional conduct by the board, shall constitute a revocation or suspension of the license to practice dentistry in this state in accordance with the terms and conditions imposed by the board and embodied in the certificate or order of revocation or suspension. Such certificate or order of revocation or suspension, if appealed, may be stayed by the board or by the reviewing court upon such terms as are deemed proper.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The certificate or order of revocation or suspension shall contain a brief and concise statement of the ground or grounds upon which the certificate or order is based and the specific terms and conditions of such revocation or suspension, and shall be retained as a permanent record by the director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The director shall not issue any license or any renewal thereof to any person whose license has been revoked or suspended by the board except in conformity with the terms and conditions of the certificate or order of revocation or suspension, or in conformity with any order of reinstatement issued by the board, or in accordance with the final judgment in any proceeding for review instituted under the provisions of sections 3 through 28 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Any person whose license has been revoked or suspended by the board shall have the right to a judicial review of the board's decision. Such review shall be initiated by serving on the secretary a notice of appeal and filing such notice of appeal either in the superior court of Thurston county, or in the superior court of the county in which the appellant resides, within thirty days after the filing of the certificate or order of revocation or suspension in the office of the director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The secretary shall, within twenty days after the service of the notice of appeal, transmit to the clerk of the superior court to which the appeal is taken a transcript of the record before the board, certified under the seal of the board, together with a certified copy of the board's written findings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. The findings of the board, if supported by the preponderance of evidence, shall be final and conclusive. The review in the superior court shall be limited to determining whether the findings of the board are supported by the preponderance of evidence and whether the proceedings of the board were erroneous as a matter of law, or in violation of due process, or so arbitrary or capricious as to amount to an abuse of discretion, or contrary to any constitutional right, power, privilege, or immunity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The procedure governing appeals to the superior court by those provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW relating to contested cases, shall govern in matters of appeal from a decision of the board, insofar as applicable and to the extent such procedure is not inconsistent with the type of appeal provided in sections 3 through 28 of this 1977 amendatory act. The accused may secure a review of any final judgment of the superior court by appeal to the court of appeals or the supreme court as provided in other civil cases.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. If the board finds the holder of any license guilty of unprofessional conduct and fails to file a certificate or order of revocation or suspension in the office of the director within thirty days, the license holder shall have the right to a judicial review of such finding of the board in the same manner and to the same extent as if the certificate or order had been filed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Any person whose license has been suspended or revoked under the provisions of sections 3 through 28 of this 1977 amendatory act may apply to the board for reinstatement at any time and the board may hold hearings on any such petition and may order reinstatement and impose terms and conditions thereof and issue a certificate of reinstatement to the director.

Sec. 29. Section 22, chapter 112, Laws of 1935 and RCW 18.32.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The said director is charged with the duty of enforcing this chapter and it shall be the duty of any prosecuting attorney on the complaint of the director ~~((or))~~, the state board of dental examiners, the dental disciplinary board, or of any member ~~((thereof))~~ of either board to prosecute any violation of this chapter. Upon refusal of a license upon the ground of unprofessional conduct, the applicant may apply for a hearing before the dental disciplinary board. Such hearing shall be governed by the procedure set forth in this chapter and the applicant shall have all the rights accorded to an accused license holder, including the right to appeal from an adverse decision. Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for a certificate of registration, file with the department a surety bond issued by a surety insurer who meets the requirements of chapter 48.28 RCW in a form acceptable to the department running to the state of Washington if a general contractor, in the sum of ~~((two))~~ four thousand dollars; if a specialty contractor, in the sum of ~~((one))~~ two thousand dollars, conditioned that the applicant will pay all persons performing labor, including employee benefits, for the contractor, will pay all taxes and contributions due to the state of Washington, and will pay all persons furnishing labor or material or renting or supplying equipment to the contractor and will pay all amounts that may be adjudged against the contractor by reason of negligent or improper work or breach of contract in the conduct of the contracting business. Any registered contractor with an unimpaired bond in effect on the day immediately preceding the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, is hereby authorized to maintain such bond until the next annual renewal of such bond at which time the terms of this 1977 amendatory act must be complied with: PROVIDED, That a change in the name of a business or a change in the type of business entity shall not impair a bond for the purposes of this section so long as one of the original applicants for such bond maintains partial ownership in the business covered by the bond. Any person having a claim against the contractor for any of the items referred to in this section may bring suit upon such bond in the superior court of the county in which the work is done or of any county in which jurisdiction of the contractor may be had. Action upon such bond or deposit shall be commenced by serving and filing of the complaint within one year from the date of expiration of the certificate of registration in force at the time the claimed labor was performed and benefits accrued, taxes and contributions owing the state of Washington became due, materials and equipment were furnished, or the claimed contract work was completed. Three copies of the complaint shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the department at the time suit is started and the department shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Such service shall constitute service on the registrant and the surety for suit upon the bond and the department shall transmit the complaint or a copy thereof to the registrant at the address listed in his application and to the surety within forty-eight hours after it shall have been received. The surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate amount in excess of the amount named in the bond. In the event that any final judgment shall impair the liability of the surety upon the bond so furnished that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking in the full amount prescribed in this section, the department shall suspend the registration of such contractor until the bond liability in the required amount unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims shall have been furnished. If such bond becomes fully impaired, a new bond must be furnished at the increased rates prescribed by this section as now or hereafter amended.

In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the contractor may file with the department a deposit consisting of cash or other security acceptable to the department.

Any person having an unsatisfied final judgment against the registrant for any items referred to in this section may execute upon the security held by the department by serving a certified copy of the unsatisfied final judgment by registered or certified mail upon the department within one year of the date of entry of such judgment. Upon the receipt of service of such certified copy the department shall pay or order paid from the deposit, through the registry of the superior court which rendered judgment, towards the amount of the unsatisfied judgment. The priority of payment by the department shall be the order of receipt by the department, but the department shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit.

CHAPTER 14

THERMAL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS FOR NEW DWELLINGS

AN ACT Relating to thermal performance standards for new dwellings; amending section 3, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 110, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.27.030; amending section 4, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 19.27.040; adding new sections to chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and to chapter 19.27 RCW; creating new sections; and providing for an expiration date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. APPLICATION AND SCOPE. There shall be in effect in all cities, towns, and counties of the state thermal performance and design standards for new dwellings for which building permits are applied subsequent to ninety days after the effective date of this amendatory act as set forth in this amendatory act.

This amendatory act shall apply to all new dwellings which are equipped with heating and/or cooling systems and for which applications for building permits are made subsequent to ninety days after the effective date of this amendatory act: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, This amendatory act shall not be applicable to single family dwellings not intended for year round occupancy, as the term "dwellings not intended for year round occupancy" is defined by the county legislative authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. PURPOSE. The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to provide a reasonable degree of conservation of critical energy supplies, and that this amendatory act will establish certain necessary maximum allowable heat loss rates and/or minimum thermal performance standards for dwellings to achieve this degree of energy conservation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. DEFINITIONS. For the purpose of this amendatory act, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Dwelling" means any building or any portion thereof which provides complete, independent living facilities which are used, intended, or designed to be built, used, rented, leased, let, or hired out to be occupied or which are occupied for living purposes. "Dwelling" does not include apartment houses over three stories in height, hotels, motels, or lodging houses.

(2) "ASHRAE" means the American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air Conditioning Engineers, Inc.

(3) "BTU" means British Thermal Unit.

(4) "C" value (thermal conductance) means the amount of heat, measured in BTU's, transferred through one square foot of a building material of given thickness in one hour when there is one degree temperature difference between the surfaces of the material.

(5) "R" value (thermal resistance) means the measure from the resistance of a material or building component to the passage of heat. The resistance value "R" of mass type insulations shall be for the material only. "R" values shall be as listed in the current ASHRAE Handbook of Fundamentals, or as tested in accordance with current applicable standards.

(6) "U" value means the total heat flow, measured in BTU's, through one square foot of a building section or assembly, air to air, in one hour per degree F. temperature difference. Mathematically  $U=1 \div R$  (subscript t) in which R (subscript t) equals the sum of the resistance (R) for the individual components of the assembly. "U" values shall be calculated according to ASHRAE methods and shall not consider the effect of occasional framing members such as studs or joists.

(7) "Exterior wall area" means the gross area of wall surfaces of heated spaces which are exposed to outside temperatures, and includes wall areas, window areas, door areas, and areas of foundation walls above the exterior grade.

(8) "Glazing" means all transparent or translucent materials in exterior wall openings. For the purpose of calculating the area of glazed openings, the area of sash shall be included.

(9) "Special glazing" means glazing which has a maximum "U" value of 0.70. Insulating glass with at least one quarter inch air space or approved storm sash will be considered to provide the "U" value required.

(10) "Unheated spaces" means any space exposed to outside temperatures and not provided with a heat supply capable of maintaining a minimum temperature of 50°F. This will include, but not be limited to, ventilated crawl spaces, attics, unheated garages, and unheated basement areas.

(11) "Heating and/or cooling systems" means any device or combination of devices which consume any fuel and/or electricity for the purpose of providing heat to or removing heat from a building to maintain its interior temperature above or below outside temperature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. COMPLIANCE. (1) General. Dwellings covered by this amendatory act shall be so constructed that the total structural heat loss from the building will not exceed the total structural heat loss resulting from compliance with the maximum "U" or "C" values for the component parts as specified in this chapter: PROVIDED, That compliance with these provisions shall be deemed conclusive when certified to by a registered architect or registered mechanical engineer. In lieu of the "U" or "C" value listed, installed insulation with the minimum "R" value (insulation material only) listed for each location shall be deemed to satisfy those requirements.

(2) Compliance Card. Upon completion of the installation of insulation, a card certifying that the insulation has been installed in conformance with the requirements of this 1977 amendatory act shall be completed and signed by the builder or insulation applicator. For this purpose, any certification card which contains all the essential data may be used. The insulation compliance card shall indicate the "R" value of insulation (material only) installed in the ceilings, walls, floors, on the perimeter, and ducts. When loose fill insulation is used the card shall show the square footage and the number and weight of bags installed to obtain the "R" value listed. The card must be posted at a conspicuous location within the building and will indicate the installation date.

TABLE A

Maximum allowed "U" values of ceiling and above grade exterior wall sections. Minimum "R" values shown are for added insulation material only.

Footnotes to Table A:

1. Indicates construction using rigid insulation installed on the roof deck. When adequate space within the roof cavity is available and insulation is on the ceiling, use the values for ceilings.
2. When enclosed rafter spaces are formed by ceilings being applied directly to the underside of the roof rafters, the ceiling rafters must be of sufficient size to provide a minimum of one inch clear vented air space above the insulation.
3. Exterior concrete or masonry foundation walls of heated "unfinished" basements and cellars extending no more than an average of 24 inches above the adjacent finish grade need not be insulated until finished. Insulation installed shall comply with the requirements of this table and apply to above and below grade foundation walls: PROVIDED, That any exterior frame cripple walls enclosing heated spaces shall comply with the insulation requirements of this table.
4. Where there are no occasional framing members such as studs, or when all of the thermal insulation is not penetrated by occasional framing members, the required maximum allowable U-values may be increased by multiplying by a factor of 1.15.
5. Ceilings between two adjacent heated spaces need not be insulated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. THERMAL DESIGN STANDARDS FOR OPENINGS. (1) When more than twenty-five percent of the exterior wall area of buildings constructed east of the Cascade Mountain Ridge and when more than thirty-five percent of the exterior wall area of buildings constructed west of the Cascade Mountain Ridge consists of glazing, at least one-half shall be special glazing. However if the glazing exceeds forty percent of the exterior wall area, at least ninety percent must be special glazing. For this purpose, exterior walls enclosing heated spaces in the entire structure shall be included in calculating the overall percentage of glazing.

(2) Skylights in ceilings and roofs shall have a "U" value not exceeding 0.70 if their total area exceeds two percent of the gross ceiling area. Insulating glass with at least one-quarter inch air space or double-walled plastic bubbles will be considered to provide the "U" value required.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. THERMAL DESIGN STANDARDS FOR FLOOR SECTIONS AND SLABS-ON-GRADE. (1) Floor Sections over Unheated Spaces. Insulation shall be required in floor sections over unheated spaces with a maximum "U" value 0.08 and a minimum insulation "R" value 9: PROVIDED, That insulation shall not be required in floor sections over heated crawl space plenum areas or in vented crawl spaces where the vents are equipped with tightly-fitting operable louvers: PROVIDED, That the perimeter walls are insulated from the interior ground level to the subflooring to provide maximum "U" value of 0.13 minimum insulation "R" value 6. Insulation material shall be attached in a permanent manner. Floors over other heated spaces need not be insulated.

(2) Slab-on-Grade Floors of Heated Spaces. The "R" value of the insulation around the perimeter of the floor shall be not less than that shown in Table B. Insulation shall extend downward from the top of the slab or, alternatively, downward and then horizontally under the slab for the minimum distances specified. Perimeter insulation may be installed on the outside of the foundation wall if it is protected from weather and damage. Insulation shall not be required for any portion of the slab floor that is more than 12 inches below the adjacent exterior grade.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. GENERAL CONSTRUCTION REQUIREMENTS. (1) A minimum ground cover of 4 mil. (0.004 inch) polyethylene or equivalent, lapped one foot at each joint, is required in crawl spaces. A vapor barrier shall be properly installed at exterior frame walls and in ceilings formed when a finish surface is applied directly to the underside of the roof rafters.

(2) Loose Fill. Blown or poured loose fill insulation may be used in attic spaces where the slope of the roof is not less than 2 1/2 feet in 12 feet and there is at least 30 inches of clear distance from the top of the bottom chord of the truss or ceiling joist to the underside of the roof sheathing at the roof ridge. When eave vents are installed, adequate baffling of the vent openings must be provided so as to deflect the incoming air above the surface of the insulation. In lieu of a framing baffle, batt or blanket insulation with an equivalent "R" value for ceilings as specified in Table A may be installed from the outer edge of the exterior wall extending a minimum of two feet inwards.

(3) Air Leakage. All doors, windows, skylights, and openings enclosing a heated space and exposed to the exterior or to unheated spaces shall be weatherstripped, caulked, gasketed, or otherwise treated in accordance with sound building practices.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. DUCT INSULATION. When supply and return air ducts used for heating and/or cooling are located in unheated spaces, they shall be insulated to provide a maximum "C" value of 0.30 at 75°F mean temperature, minimum insulation "R" value 3.5.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. PIPING INSULATION. All steam and steam condensate return piping and all continuously circulating heating hot water piping which is located in unheated spaces shall be insulated to provide a maximum "C" value of 0.30 at 75° mean temperature, minimum insulation "R" value 3.5. Insulation shall not be required where piping passes through framing members.

Sec. 11. Section 3, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 110, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.27.030 are each amended to read as follows:

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2325]

LOCAL GOVERNMENTS—FISCAL IMPACT OF LEGISLATION—FISCAL NOTES

AN ACT Relating to cities, towns, counties, and other units of local government; adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. It is the intent of this chapter to create a uniform and coordinated procedure to determine the fiscal impact of proposed legislation on units of local government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The director of the office of program planning and fiscal management or the director's designee shall, in cooperation with appropriate legislative committees and legislative staff, establish a mechanism for the determination of the fiscal impact of proposed legislation which if enacted into law would directly or indirectly increase or decrease revenues received or expenditures incurred by counties, cities, towns, or any other political subdivisions of the state. The office of program planning and fiscal management shall, when requested by a member of the state legislature, report in writing as to such fiscal impact and said report shall be known as a "fiscal note".

Such fiscal notes shall indicate by fiscal year the total impact on the subdivisions involved for the first two years the legislation would be in effect and also a cumulative six year forecast of the fiscal impact. Where feasible and applicable, the fiscal note also shall indicate the fiscal impact on each individual county or on a representative sampling of cities, towns, or other political subdivisions.

A fiscal note as defined in this section shall be provided only upon request of any member of the state legislature. A legislator also may request that such a fiscal note be revised to reflect the impact of proposed amendments or substitute bills. Fiscal notes shall be completed within seventy-two hours of the request unless a longer time period is allowed by the requesting legislator. In the event a fiscal note has not been completed within seventy-two hours of a request, a daily report shall be prepared for the requesting legislator by the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management which report summarizes the progress in preparing the fiscal note. If the request is referred to the director of the planning and community affairs agency, the daily report shall also include the date and time such referral was made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The director of the office of program planning and fiscal management is hereby empowered to designate the director of the planning and community affairs agency or its statutory successor as the official responsible for the preparation of fiscal notes authorized and required by this chapter. It is the intent of the legislature that when necessary the resources of other state agencies, appropriate legislative staffs, and the various associations of local government may be employed in the development of such fiscal notes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. When a fiscal note is prepared and approved as to form and completeness by the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management, the director shall transmit copies immediately to:

- (1) The requesting legislator;
- (2) With respect to proposed legislation held by the senate, the chairperson of the committee which holds or has acted upon the proposed legislation, the chairperson of the ways and means committee, the chairperson of the local government committee, and the secretary of the senate;
- (3) With respect to proposed legislation held by the house of representatives, the chairperson of the committee which holds or has acted upon the proposed legislation, the chairpersons of the revenue and taxation and appropriations committees, the chairperson of the local government committee, and the chief clerk of the house of representatives; and
- (4) The legislative budget committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The office of program planning and fiscal management and the legislative budget committee may make additional copies of the fiscal note available to members of the legislature and others on request.

At the request of any member of the senate or house of representatives, which ever is considering the proposed legislation, and unless it is prohibited by the rules of the body, copies of the fiscal note or a synopsis thereof shall be placed on the members' desks at the time the proposed legislation takes its place on the second reading calendar.

Whenever proposed legislation accompanied by such a fiscal note is passed by either the senate or the house of representatives, the fiscal note shall be transmitted with the bill to the other house.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent either house of the legislature from acting on any bill or resolution before it as otherwise provided by the state Constitution, by law, and by the rules of the senate and house of representatives, nor shall the lack of any fiscal note as provided in this chapter or any error in the accuracy thereof affect the validity of any measure otherwise duly passed by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate April 29, 1977.

Passed the House April 28, 1977.

Approved by the Governor May 6, 1977 with the exception of section 8 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 6, 1977.

NOTE: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one section, Senate Bill No. 2325 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to cities, towns, counties, and other units of local government; adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

Section 8 of the bill declares an emergency and provides for the act to take effect immediately. Under the Constitution, Article II, Sections 1(b) and 41, the use of an emergency clause does two things. First, it alters the time when a particular piece of legislation becomes effective, thereby eliminating what may be a desirable adjustment period for affected persons. Second, it excepts the legislation from the important referendum right reserved by the people. Because of these effects, the use of the clause should be restricted to those instances where the use is clearly warranted due to the urgency of the situation.

In this case, not only is the use of the clause unwarranted by the urgency of the situation, but the use also eliminates the adjustment period that would be helpful for affected units of local government. For these reasons, I have vetoed this section.

With the exception of section 8, which I have vetoed, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 2325 is approved."

Elections at such meetings shall be by secret ballot, cast by the landowners residing in the section where an election for a board member is being conducted. The nominee receiving the majority of votes cast shall be deemed elected, and if there is only one nomination, said nominee shall be deemed elected unanimously.

Notice of such nomination and election meeting shall be (~~((mailed to all affected landowners thirty days prior to such meeting. Notice shall be))~~) published at least twice in a weekly or daily newspaper of general circulation in said section(~~((PROVIDED, That mailed notice shall not be required if assessments provided for in RCW 17.10.240 as now or hereafter amended are not invoked))~~) with last publication occurring at least ten days prior to the meeting.

(3) Within thirty days after all the members have been appointed, the board shall conduct its first meeting. A majority of the voting members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and shall be necessary for any action taken by the board. The board shall elect from its members a chairman and such other officers as may be necessary.

(4) In case of a vacancy occurring in any elected position on a county noxious weed control board, the county legislative authority of the county in which such board is located shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

IDENTICARDS AND DRIVERS' LICENSES—PROTECTION AGAINST FALSIFICATION
AN ACT Relating to identicards and drivers' licenses; and adding new sections to chapter 46.20 RCW.
 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 46.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislature finds that the falsification of cards and licenses is a serious social problem creating economic hardship and problems which impede the efficient conduct of commerce and government. The legislature is particularly concerned that the increasing use of false drivers' licenses and identicards to purchase liquor, to cash bad checks, and to obtain food stamps and other benefits is causing the loss of liquor licenses, the loss of jobs, the loss of income, and the loss of human life in addition to significant monetary losses in business and government. It is the purpose of section 2 of this act to require an effective means of rendering drivers' licenses and identicards as immune as possible from alteration and counterfeiting in order to promote the public health and safety of the people of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 46.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

On and after January 1, 1978, the department shall implement and use such process or processes in the preparation and issuance of drivers' licenses and identicards that prohibit as nearly as possible the alteration or reproduction of such cards, or the superimposing of other photographs on such cards, without ready detection.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 1, chapter 73, Laws of 1973 and RCW 50.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

"Benefit year" with respect to each individual, means the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week (~~with respect to~~) in which the individual files an application for an initial determination and thereafter the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week (~~with respect to~~) in which the individual next files an application for an initial determination after the expiration of ~~(his)~~ the individual's last preceding benefit year: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the foregoing limitation shall not be deemed to preclude the establishment of a new benefit year under the laws of another state pursuant to any agreement providing for the interstate combining of employment and wages and the interstate payment of benefits nor shall this limitation be deemed to preclude the commissioner from backdating an initial application at the request of the claimant either for the convenience of the department of employment security or for any other reason deemed by the commissioner to be good cause.

An individual's benefit year shall be extended to be fifty-three weeks when at the expiration of fifty-two weeks the establishment of a new benefit year would result in the use of a quarter of wages in the new base year that had been included in the individual's prior base year.

No benefit year will be established unless it is determined that the individual earned wages in (~~"employment" during his base year of not less than the "qualifying annual wage" computed for the calendar year preceding the last June 30th immediately preceding his benefit year and either had "employment" in not less than sixteen weeks of his base year in each of which he earned the "qualifying weekly wage" computed for the second calendar year preceding the calendar year in which each such week ends or had~~) "employment" in not less than six hundred eighty hours of ((his)) the individual's base year: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a benefit year cannot be established if the base year wages include wages earned prior to the establishment of a prior benefit year unless the individual earned wages in "employment" during the last two quarters of the new base year of not less than six times the weekly benefit amount computed for ~~((his))~~ the individual's new benefit year.

~~((As the change contained in the third paragraph of this section relating to the weeks worked qualification would invalidate basic data upon which benefit qualification determinations must be made the satisfaction of the weeks worked requirement will require as to base year weeks ending in the second two quarters of 1972 that the individual will have earned not less than the "qualifying weekly wage" computed for the calendar year 1971. Nothing in this paragraph or in the preceding paragraph shall be deemed to justify or support the redetermination of any monetary determination denying the establishment of a benefit year made prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act.))~~

If the wages of an individual are not based upon a fixed duration of time or if the individual's wages are paid at irregular intervals or in such manner as not to extend regularly over the period of employment, the wages for any week shall be determined in such manner as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe. Such regulation shall, so far as possible, secure results reasonably similar to those which would prevail if the individual were paid his or her wages at regular intervals.

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.355 are each amended to read as follows:

On or before the fifteenth day of June of each year an "average annual wage", an "average weekly wage", ~~((a "qualifying annual wage", a "qualifying weekly wage",))~~ and an "average annual wage for contributions purposes" shall be computed from information for the preceding calendar year including corrections thereof reported within three months after the close of that year by all employers as defined in RCW 50.04.080. The "average annual wage" is the quotient derived by dividing total remuneration reported by all employers by the average number of workers reported for all months and if the result is not a multiple of one dollar, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar. The "average annual wage" thus obtained shall be divided by fifty-two and if the result is not a multiple of one dollar, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar to determine the "average weekly wage". ~~((The "qualifying annual wage" shall be computed by multiplying the "average annual wage" by fifteen percent and if the result is not a multiple of fifty dollars, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of fifty dollars. The "qualifying weekly wage" shall be computed by multiplying the "average weekly wage" by fifteen percent and if the result is not a multiple of one dollar, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar.))~~ The "average annual wage" for contribution purposes is the quotient derived by dividing total remuneration reported by all employers subject to contributions by the average number of workers reported for all months by these same employers and if the result is not a multiple of one dollar, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar.

Sec. 3. Section 46, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 2, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.12.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records, containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection and be subject to being copied by the commissioner or his or her authorized representatives at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commissioner may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports with respect to persons employed by it, which he or she deems necessary for the effective administration of this title. Each employer shall make periodic reports at such intervals as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe, setting forth the remuneration paid for employment to workers in its employ, the names of all such workers, and until April 1, 1978, the number of weeks for which the worker earned the "qualifying weekly wage", and beginning July 1, 1977, the hours worked by each worker and such other information as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe.

In the event the employing unit fails or has failed to report the number of ((weeks)) hours in a reporting period for which a worker ((earned the "qualifying weekly wage")) worked such number will be computed by the commissioner and given the same force and effect as if it had been reported by the employing unit. In computing the number of such ((weeks)) hours worked the total wages for the reporting period, as reported by the employing unit, shall be divided by the dollar amount of the (("qualifying weekly wage")) state's minimum wage in effect for such reporting period and the quotient, disregarding any remainder, shall be credited to the worker: PROVIDED, ((That the total number of weeks credited to the worker for any quarterly period shall not exceed thirteen weeks: PROVIDED, FURTHER;)) That the computation so made will not be subject to appeal by the employing unit.

Sec. 4. Section 73, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 21, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An individual shall be disqualified from benefits beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has left work voluntarily without good cause and thereafter until he or she has obtained work and earned wages of not less than his or her suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks (: PROVIDED, That disqualification under this section shall not extend beyond the tenth calendar week following the week in which such individual left work)).

(2) An individual shall not be considered to have left work voluntarily without good cause when:

(a) He or she has left work to accept a bona fide job offer; or

(b) The separation was because of the illness or disability of the claimant or a member of the claimant's immediate family if the claimant took all reasonable precautions, in accordance with any regulations that the commissioner may prescribe, to protect his or her employment status by having promptly notified the employer of the reason for the absence and by having promptly requested reemployment when again able to assume employment.

(3) In determining whether an individual has left work voluntarily without good cause, the commissioner shall consider the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety, and morals, the individual's physical fitness, the individual's ability to perform the work, and such other work connected factors as the commissioner may deem pertinent, including state and national emergencies. Good cause shall not be established for voluntarily leaving work because of its distance from an individual's residence where the distance was known to the individual at the time he or she accepted the employment, nor because of any other significant work factor which was generally known and present at the time he or she accepted employment unless the related circumstances have so changed as to amount to a substantial involuntary deterioration of the work factor or unless the commissioner determines that other related circumstances would work an unconscionable hardship on the individual were he or she required to continue in the employment.

(4) Subsections (1) and (3) of this section shall not apply to an individual whose marital status or domestic responsibilities cause him or her to leave employment. Such an individual shall not be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits until he or she has requalified, either by obtaining work and earning wages of not less than the suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks or by reporting in person to the department during ten different calendar weeks and certifying on each occasion that he or she is ready, able, and willing to immediately accept any suitable work which may be offered, is actively seeking work pursuant to customary trade practices, and is utilizing such employment counseling and placement services as are available through the department.

Sec. 5. Section 74, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 22, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.060 are each amended to read as follows:

An individual shall be disqualified from benefits beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has been discharged or suspended for misconduct connected with his or her work and thereafter until he or she has obtained work and earned wages of not less than ((his)) the suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks~~((~~PROVIDED, That disqualification under this section shall not extend beyond the tenth calendar week following the week in which such individual was discharged or suspended~~)).~~ An individual who has been discharged because of a felony of which he or she has been convicted or has admitted committing and which is connected with his or her work shall be disqualified from receiving any benefits for which base year credits are earned in any employment prior to the discharge.

Sec. 6. Section 78, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 6, chapter 158, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Suitable work for an individual is employment in an occupation in keeping with the individual's prior work experience, education, or training and if the individual has no prior work experience, special education, or training for employment available in the general area, then employment which the individual would have the physical and mental ability to perform. In determining whether work is suitable for an individual ((or whether an individual has left work voluntarily without good cause)), the commissioner shall also consider the degree of risk involved to ((his)) the individual's health, safety, and morals, ((his)) the individual's physical fitness ((and prior training, his experience and prior earnings, his)), the individual's length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in ((his)) the individual's customary occupation, the distance of the available work from ~~((his))~~ the individual's residence, and such other factors as the commissioner may deem pertinent, including state and national emergencies.

Sec. 7. Section 80, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 5, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this title benefits shall be payable to any eligible individual during ~~((his))~~ the individual's benefit year in a maximum amount equal to the lesser of thirty times the weekly benefit amount (determined hereinafter) or one-third of the individual's base year wages under this title.

(2) An individual's weekly benefit amount shall be an amount equal to one twenty-fifth of ~~((his))~~ the average quarterly wages of the individual's total wages during ~~((that))~~ the two quarters of ((his)) the individual's base year in which such total wages were highest, except that if such computed amount is less than seventeen dollars, the weekly benefit amount shall be deemed to be seventeen dollars. The maximum amount payable weekly shall be determined as of each June 30th to apply to benefit years beginning in the twelve-month period immediately following such June 30th. The maximum amount payable weekly shall be ~~((fifty))~~ fifty-five percent of the "average weekly wage" for the calendar year preceding such June 30th: PROVIDED, That if as of any June 30th the unemployment compensation trust fund balance has improved so that the employer contribution as determined pursuant to RCW 50.24.010 is less than three percent, the maximum amount payable weekly for benefit years beginning with the first full calendar week in July next following shall be sixty percent of the "average weekly wage" for the calendar year preceding such June 30: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any weekly benefit or maximum benefit amount computed herein is not a multiple of one dollar, it shall be adjusted to the nearest multiple of one dollar, except that if the computed amount ends in fifty cents, it shall be adjusted to the next higher multiple of one dollar.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any individual registered at an established school in a course of study providing scholastic instruction of twelve or more hours per week, or the equivalent thereof, shall be disqualified from receiving benefits or waiting period credit for any week during the school year commencing with the first week of scholastic instruction or the week of leaving employment to return to school, whichever is the earlier, and ending with the week immediately before the first full week in which the individual is no longer registered for classes: PROVIDED, That this nonregistration will be for a period of sixty days or longer. The term "school" includes primary schools, secondary schools, and "institutions of higher education" as that phrase is defined in RCW 50.44.030.

This disqualification shall not apply to any individual who:

(1) Is in approved training within the meaning of RCW 50.20.043; or
 (2) Demonstrates to the commissioner by a preponderance of the evidence his or her actual availability for work, and in arriving at this determination the commissioner shall consider the following factors:

(a) Prior work history;

- (b) Scholastic history;
- (c) Past and current labor market attachment; and
- (d) Past and present efforts to seek work.

Sec. 9. Section 89, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 13, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each employer (except employers as described in RCW 50.44.010 who have properly elected to make payments in lieu of contributions and those employers who are required to make payments in lieu of contributions) for each calendar year in which ~~((he))~~ the employer is subject to this title at the rate of two and seven-tenths percent of wages paid each employee, except for such rates as determined for qualified employers according to chapter 50.29 RCW: PROVIDED, That if, as of any June 30th, the amount in the unemployment compensation fund is less than three and one-half percent of total remuneration paid by all employers during the preceding calendar year and reported on or before the March 31st following such year, contributions for the following calendar year for all employers shall be payable at the rate of three percent of wages subject to tax.

The amount of wages subject to tax for each individual as of January 1, 1971, shall be four thousand two hundred dollars. If the amount in the unemployment compensation fund on any June 30th, after January 1, 1971, is less than four and one-half percent of total remuneration paid by all employers during the preceding calendar year and reported on or before the March 31st following such year, the amount of wages subject to tax shall increase on the January 1st next following by six hundred dollars: PROVIDED, That the amount of wages subject to tax in any calendar year shall not exceed ~~((seventy-five))~~ eighty percent of the "average annual wage" for the second preceding calendar year rounded to the next lower multiple of three hundred dollars.

In making computations under this section and RCW 50.29.010, wages paid based on services for employers making payments in lieu of contributions shall not be considered remuneration. Moneys paid from the fund, based on services performed for employers who make payments in lieu of contributions, which have not been reimbursed to the fund as of any June 30 shall be deemed an asset of the unemployment compensation fund, to the extent that such moneys exceed the amount of payments in lieu of contributions which the commissioner has previously determined to be uncollectible: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the amount attributable to employment with the state shall also include interest as provided for in RCW 50.44.020.

Contributions shall become due and be paid by each employer to the treasurer for the unemployment compensation fund in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, and shall not be deducted, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in employment of the employer. Any deduction in violation of the provisions of this section shall be unlawful.

In the payment of any contributions, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Only during the 1978 and 1979 calendar years, contributions payable by employers under the provisions of RCW 50.24.010 shall be payable at the rate of three and three-tenths percent of wages subject to tax, rather than in accordance with the rates therein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Such approval shall be by an election upon petition as hereinafter provided. In submitting the question to the voters for their approval or rejection, the proposition shall be expressed on the ballot in substantially the following terms:

In addition to the signature of the voter, the petition must indicate each

Said petition shall be presented to the county auditor for verification of the validity of the signatures. Within thirty days after receipt of the petition, the county auditor, in conjunction with the city clerks of the incorporated areas in which any signer is registered, shall determine the sufficiency of the petition. If the petition is found insufficient, the person who filed the same shall be notified by mail and he shall have an additional fifteen days from the date of mailing such notice within which to submit additional signatures, and the county auditor shall have an additional thirty days after the submission of such additional signatures to determine the validity of the entire petition. No signature may be withdrawn after the petition has been filed. If the petition, including these additional signatures if any, is found sufficient, the county auditor shall certify such fact to the public utility district and if the commissioners of the public utility district have theretofore certified to the county auditor the eligibility of the district for reclassification as provided in this chapter, the county auditor shall submit to the voters of the district the question of whether the district shall become a ~~((first class))~~ five commissioner district. Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 265, Laws of 1959 and RCW 54.40.060 are each amended to read as follows:

If the reclassification to a ~~((first class))~~ five commissioner district is approved by the voters, the ~~((board of county commissioners))~~ public utility district commission within ten days after the results of said election are certified shall divide the public utility district into two districts of as nearly equal population and area as possible, and shall designate such districts as At Large District A and At Large District B.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 265, Laws of 1959 and RCW 54.40.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Within thirty days after the ~~((county commissioners))~~ public utility district commission shall divide the district into two at large districts, the ~~((commissioners of such public utility district))~~ county legislative authority shall ~~((appoint one commissioner from each at large district, one to serve until the next general biennial election and one to serve until the next succeeding biennial general election. At the time of said appointments, the commissioners shall designate which new appointee shall hold the longer term))~~ call a special election, to be held at the next scheduled special election called pursuant to RCW 29.13.010, or not more than ninety days after such call, at which time the initial commissioners to such at large districts shall be elected, the person receiving the largest number of votes to serve for four years, and the person receiving the next largest number of votes to serve an initial term of two years.

Sec. 8. Section 4, chapter 1, Laws of 1931 as last amended by section 2, chapter 53, Laws of 1977 and RCW 54.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Within ten days after such election, the election board of the county shall canvass the returns, and if at such election a majority of the voters voting upon such proposition shall vote in favor of the formation of such district, the election board shall so declare in its canvass of the returns of such election, and such public utility district shall then be and become a municipal corporation of the state of Washington, and the name of such public utility district shall be Public Utility District No. . . . . of . . . . . County. The powers of the public utility district shall be exercised through a commission consisting of three members in three commissioner districts (~~((of the second class))~~), and five members in five commissioner districts (~~((of the first class))~~). When the public utility district is coextensive with the limits of such county, then, at the first election of commissioners and until any change shall have been made in the boundaries of public utility district commissioner districts, one public utility district commissioner shall be chosen from each of the three county commissioner districts of the county in which the public utility district is located. When the public utility district comprises only a portion of the county, with boundaries established in accordance with chapter 54.08 RCW, three public utility district commissioner districts, numbered consecutively, having approximately equal population and boundaries, following ward and precinct lines, as far as practicable, shall be described in the petition for the formation of the public utility district, which shall be subject to appropriate change by the county commissioners if and when they change the boundaries of the proposed public utility district, and one commissioner shall be elected from each of said public utility district commissioner districts. In all five commissioner districts (~~((of the first class))~~) an additional commissioner at large shall be chosen from each of the two at large districts. No person shall be eligible to be elected to the office of public utility district commissioner for a particular district commissioner district unless he is a registered voter of the public utility district commissioner district or at large district from which he is elected.

Except as otherwise provided, the term of office of each public utility district commissioner other than the commissioners at large shall be six years, and the term of each commissioner at large shall be four years. Each term shall be computed from the first day of December following the commissioner's election. One commissioner at large and one commissioner from a commissioner district shall be elected at each general election held in an even-numbered year for the term of four years and six years respectively. All candidates shall be voted upon by the entire public utility district.

When a public utility district is formed, three public utility district commissioners shall be elected at the same election at which the proposition is submitted to the voters as to whether such public utility district shall be formed. The commissioner residing in commissioner district number one shall hold office for the term of six years; the commissioner residing in commissioner district number two shall hold office for the term of four years; and the commissioner residing in commissioner district number three shall hold office for the term of two years. The commissioners first to be elected as above provided shall hold office from the first day of the month following the commissioners' election. Each term shall be computed from the first day of December following the commissioners' election.

All public utility district commissioners shall hold office until their successors shall have been elected and have qualified. A filing for nomination for public utility district commissioner shall be accompanied by a petition signed by one hundred registered voters of the public utility district, which shall be certified by the county auditor to contain the required number of registered voters, and shall otherwise be filed in accord with the requirements of RCW 29.21.060. At the time of filing such nominating petition, the person so nominated shall execute and file a declaration of candidacy subject to the provisions of RCW 29.21.060, as now or hereafter amended. The petition and each page of the petition shall state whether the nomination is for a commissioner from a particular commissioner district or for a commissioner at large and shall state the districts; otherwise it shall be void. A vacancy in the office of public utility district commissioner shall occur by death, resignation, removal, conviction of a felony, nonattendance at meetings of the public utility district commission for a period of sixty days unless excused by the public utility district commission, by any statutory disqualification, or by any permanent disability preventing the proper discharge of his duty. In the event of a vacancy in said office, such vacancy shall be filled at the next general election held in an even-numbered year, the vacancy in the interim to be filled by appointment by the remaining commissioners. If more than one vacancy exists at the same time in a three commissioner district (~~((of the second class))~~), or more than two in a five commissioner district (~~((of the first class))~~), a special election shall be called by the county election board upon the request of the remainder, or, that failing, by the county election board, such election to be held not more than forty days after the occurring of such vacancies.

A majority of the persons holding the office of public utility district commissioner at any time shall constitute a quorum of the commission for the transaction of business, and the concurrence of a majority of the persons holding such office at the time shall be necessary and shall be sufficient for the passage of any resolution, but no business shall be transacted, except in usual and ordinary course, unless there are in office at least a majority of the full number of commissioners fixed by law.

The boundaries of the public utility district commissioners' district may be changed only by the public utility district commission, and shall be examined every ten years to determine substantial equality of population, but said boundaries shall not be changed oftener than once in four years, and only when all members of the commission are present. The proposed change of the boundaries of the public utility district commissioners' district must be made by resolution and after public hearing. ## PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION—BENEFIT AREAS—FEASIBILITY STUDIES, SUPPORT

AN ACT Relating to public transportation; amending section 13, chapter 270, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.57A.030; amending section 15, chapter 270, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.57A.050; amending section 19, chapter 270, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.57A.090; amending section 20, chapter 270, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.57A.100; amending section 26, chapter 270, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.57A.160; adding a new section to chapter 35.58 RCW; declaring an emergency; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 13, chapter 270, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.57A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Any conference which finds it desirable to establish a public transportation benefit area or change the boundaries of any existing public transportation benefit area shall fix a date for a public hearing thereon, or the legislative bodies of any two or more component cities or the county legislative body by resolution may require the public transportation improvement conference to fix a date for a public hearing thereon. Prior to the convening of the public hearing, the county governing body shall delineate the area of the county proposed to be included within the transportation benefit area, and shall furnish a copy of such delineation to each incorporated city within such area. Each city shall advise the county governing body, on a preliminary basis, of its desire to be included or excluded from the transportation benefit area. The county governing body shall cause the delineations to be revised to reflect the wishes of such incorporated cities. This delineation shall be considered by the conference at the public hearing for inclusion in the public transportation benefit area.

Notice of such hearing shall be published once a week for at least four consecutive weeks in one or more newspapers of general circulation within the area. The notice shall contain a description and map of the boundaries of the proposed public transportation benefit area and shall state the time and place of the hearing and the fact that any changes in the boundaries of the public transportation benefit area will be considered at such time and place. At such hearing or any continuation thereof, any interested person may appear and be heard on all matters relating to the effect of the formation of the proposed public transportation benefit area.

The conference may make such changes in the boundaries of the public transportation benefit area as they shall deem reasonable and proper, but may not delete any portion of the proposed area which will create an island of included or excluded lands, and may not delete a portion of any city. If the conference shall determine that any additional territory should be included in the public transportation benefit area, a second hearing shall be held and notice given in the same manner as for the original hearing. The conference may adjourn the hearing on the formation of a public transportation benefit area from time to time not exceeding thirty days in all.

~~((At the next regular meeting))~~ Following the conclusion of such hearing the conference shall adopt a resolution fixing the boundaries of the proposed public transportation benefit area, declaring that the formation of the proposed public transportation benefit area will be conducive to the welfare and benefit of the persons and property therein.

Within thirty days of the adoption of such conference resolution, the county legislative authority of each county wherein a conference has established proposed boundaries of a public transportation benefit area, may by resolution, upon making a legislative finding that the proposed benefit area includes portions of the county which could not be reasonably expected to benefit from such benefit area or excludes portions of the county which could be reasonably expected to benefit from its creation, disapprove and terminate the establishment of such public transportation benefit area within such county.

Sec. 2. Section 15, chapter 270, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.57A-.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Within sixty days of the establishment of the boundaries of the public transportation benefit area the county commissioners and elected representatives of cities within the area shall provide for the selection of the governing body of such area, the public transportation benefit area authority, which shall consist of elected officials selected by and serving at the pleasure of the governing bodies of component cities within the area and the county commissioners of each county within the area.

Within such sixty day period, the legislative body of any city may by resolution of its legislative body withdraw from participation in the public transportation benefit area. The county legislative authority and each city remaining in the public transportation benefit area may disapprove and prevent the establishment of any governing body of a public transportation benefit area if the composition thereof does not meet its approval.

In no case shall the governing body of a single county public transportation benefit area be greater than nine members and in the case of a multicounty area, fifteen members. Those cities within the transportation benefit area and excluded from direct membership on the authority are hereby authorized to designate a member of the authority who shall be entitled to represent the interests of such city which is excluded from direct membership on the authority. The legislative body of such city shall notify the authority as to the determination of its authorized representative on the authority.

Any member of the authority who is an elected official and whose office is not a full time position (~~shall~~) may receive (~~(forty dollars)~~ payment for subsistence and lodging at the rate prescribed for legislators in RCW 44.04.080 as now existing or hereafter amended for each day attending official meetings of the authority.

Sec. 3. Section 19, chapter 270, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.57A-.090 are each amended to read as follows:

A public transportation benefit area authority shall have the following powers in addition to the general powers granted by this chapter:

(1) To prepare, adopt and carry out a general comprehensive plan for public transportation service which will best serve the residents of the public transportation benefit area and to amend said plan from time to time to meet changed conditions and requirements.

(2) To acquire by purchase, condemnation, gift or grant and to lease, construct, add to, improve, replace, repair, maintain, operate and regulate the use of transportation facilities and properties within or without the public transportation benefit area or the state, including systems of surface, underground or overhead railways, tramways, buses, or any other means of local transportation except taxis, and including escalators, moving sidewalks or other people-moving systems, passenger terminal and parking facilities and properties and such other facilities and properties as may be necessary for passenger and vehicular access to and from such people-moving systems, terminal and parking facilities and properties, together with all lands, rights of way, property, equipment and accessories necessary for such systems and facilities. Public transportation facilities and properties which are owned by any city may be acquired or used by the public transportation benefit area authority only with the consent of the city council of the city owning such facilities. Cities are hereby authorized to convey or lease such facilities to a public transportation benefit area authority or to contract for their joint use on such terms as may be fixed by agreement between the city council of such city and the public transportation benefit area authority, without submitting the matter to the voters of such city.

The facilities and properties of a public transportation benefit area system whose vehicles will operate primarily within the rights of way of public streets, roads or highways, may be acquired, developed and operated without the corridor and design hearings which are required by RCW 35.58.273, as now or hereafter amended, for mass transit facilities operating on a separate right of way.

(3) To fix rates, tolls, fares and charges for the use of such facilities and to establish various routes and classes of service.

In the event any ((public transportation benefit area shall extend its public transportation services to any area of service already offered by any company)) person holding a certificate of public convenience and necessity from the Washington utilities and transportation commission(;) under RCW 81.68.040 ((it shall)) has operated under such certificate for a continuous period of one year prior to the date of certification and is offering service within the public transportation benefit area on the date of the certification by the county canvassing board that a majority of votes cast authorize a tax to be levied and collected by the public transportation benefit area authority, such authority may by purchase or condemnation acquire at the fair market value, from the person holding the existing certificate for providing the services, that portion of the operating authority and equipment representing the services within the area of public operation. The person holding such existing certificate may require the public transportation benefit area authority to initiate such purchase of those assets of such person, existing as of the date of the county canvassing board certification, within sixty days after the date of such certification.

Sec. 4. Section 20, chapter 270, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.57A-.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Except in accordance with an agreement made as provided in this section or in accordance with the provisions of RCW 36.57A.090(3) as now or hereafter amended, upon the effective date on which the public transportation benefit area commences to perform the public transportation service, no person or private corporation shall operate a local public passenger transportation service within the public transportation benefit area with the exception of taxis, buses owned or operated by a school district or private school, and buses owned or operated by any corporation or organization solely for the purposes of the corporation or organization and for the use of which no fee or fare is charged.

An agreement may be entered into between the public transportation benefit area authority and any person or corporation legally operating a local public passenger transportation service wholly within or partly within and partly without the public transportation benefit area and on said effective date under which such person or corporation may continue to operate such service or any part thereof for such time and upon such terms and conditions as provided in such agreement. Such agreement shall provide for a periodic review of the terms and conditions contained therein. Where any such local public passenger transportation service will be required to cease to operate within the public transportation benefit area, the public transportation benefit area authority may agree with the owner of such service to purchase the assets used in providing such service, or if no agreement can be reached, the public transportation benefit area authority shall condemn such assets in the manner and by the same procedure as is or may be provided by law for the condemnation of other properties for cities of the first class, except insofar as such laws may be inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

Wherever a privately owned public carrier operates wholly or partly within a public transportation benefit area, the Washington utilities and transportation commission shall continue to exercise jurisdiction over such operation as provided by law.

Sec. 5. Section 26, chapter 270, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.57A-.160 are each amended to read as follows:

A public transportation benefit area established pursuant to this chapter may be dissolved and its affairs liquidated when so directed by a majority of persons in the benefit area voting on such question. An election placing such question before the voters may be called in the following manner:

- (1) By resolution of the public transportation benefit area authority;
- (2) By resolution of the county legislative body or bodies with the concurrence therein by resolution of the city council of a component city; or
- (3) By petition calling for such election signed by at least ten percent of the qualified voters residing within the area filed with ~~((the))~~ the auditor of the county wherein the largest portion of the public transportation benefit area is located. The auditor shall examine the same and certify to the sufficiency of the signatures thereon: PROVIDED, That to be validated, signatures must have been collected within a ninety day period as designated by the petition sponsors.

~~((With dissolution of the benefit area, any outstanding obligations and bonded indebtedness of the public transportation benefit area shall be satisfied or allocated by mutual agreement to the county or counties and component cities of the public transportation benefit area.))~~ Any dissolution of a public transportation benefit area authority shall be carried out in accordance with the procedures in chapter 53.48 RCW. Any remaining deficit of the authority determined pursuant to RCW

53.48.080 shall be paid from the moneys collected from the tax source under which the authority operated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 35.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The payment shall precede any advanced financial support payment to develop a plan pursuant to RCW 36.57A.150;

(2) The amount of such payment shall be commensurate with the number of residents in and the size of the land area of such municipality and shall not exceed thirty-five thousand dollars; and

(3) Repayment of an advanced financial support payment shall be made to the public transportation account in the general fund, or, if such account does not exist, to the general fund by the municipality within two years after the date such advanced payment was received. The study shall be completed within one year after the date such advanced payment was received. The study and its recommendations shall then be presented to the legislative authority of the municipality. Within six months of its receipt of the study and its recommendations, the legislative authority shall pass a resolution adopting or rejecting all or part of the study. A copy of the resolution shall be transmitted to the state agency administering this section. Such repayment shall be waived within two years of the date such advanced payment was received if the legislative authority or the voters in such municipality do not elect to levy and collect taxes to support public transportation in their area. Such repayment shall not be waived in the event any of the provisions of this subsection are not followed.

The state transportation commission, or, if such does not exist, the planning and community affairs agency shall provide technical assistance in the preparation of feasibility studies, and shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this section.

In the event that any final judgment shall impair the liability of the surety upon bond so furnished or the amount of the deposit so that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking or deposit in the full amount prescribed in this section, the director shall suspend the license of such employment agency until the bond undertaking or deposit in the required amount, unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims, shall have been furnished.

(4) In the event of a final judgment being entered against the deposit or security referred to in subsection (2) of this section, the director shall, upon receipt of a certified copy of the final judgment, order said judgment to be paid from the amount of the deposit or security.

Sec. 7. Section 17, chapter 228, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 19.31.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If an applicant accepts employment by agreement with an employer and thereafter never reports for work, the gross fee charged to the applicant shall not exceed: (a) Ten percent of what the first month's gross salary or wages would be, if known; or (b) ten percent of the first month's drawing account. If the employment was to have been on a commission basis without any drawing account, then no fee may be charged in the event that the applicant never reports for work.

(2) If an applicant accepts employment on a commission basis without any drawing account, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall be a percentage of ((his)) commissions actually earned.

(3) If an applicant accepts employment and if within ~~((ninety))~~ sixty days of his reporting for work the employment is terminated ~~((without his fault))~~, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall not exceed ~~((ten))~~ twenty percent of the gross salary, wages or commission received by him.

(5) Any applicant requesting a refund of a fee paid to an employment agency in accordance with the terms of the approved fee schedule of the employment agency pursuant to this section shall file with the employment agency a form requesting such refund on which shall be set forth information reasonably needed and requested by the employment agency, including but not limited to the following: Circumstances under which employment was terminated, dates of employment, and gross earnings of the applicant.

[Senate Bill No. 2295]

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES ACT—JUDICIAL REVIEW—JOINDER—CROSS-PETITION

AN ACT Relating to judicial review of administrative agencies; and amending section 13, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 6, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.130.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 13, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 6, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by a final decision in a contested case, whether such decision is affirmative or negative in form, is entitled to judicial review thereof only under the provisions of this 1967 amendatory act, and such person may not use any other procedure to obtain judicial review of a final decision, even though another procedure is provided elsewhere by a special statute or a statute of general application. Where the agency's rules provide a procedure for rehearing or reconsideration, and that procedure has been invoked, the agency decision shall not be final until the agency shall have acted thereon.

(2) Proceedings for review under this chapter shall be instituted by filing a petition in the superior court, at the petitioner's option, for (a) Thurston county, (b) the county of the petitioner's residence or principal place of business, or (c) in any county where the property owned by the petitioner and affected by the contested decision is located. ~~((A))~~ The petition(s) shall be served and filed within thirty days after the service of the final decision of the agency. Copies of the petition shall be served upon the agency and all ~~((other))~~ parties of record. If a timely petition is filed any party of record not filing or joining in the first petition who wants relief from the decision must join in the petition or serve and file a cross-petition within twenty days after service of the first petition or thirty days after service of the final decision of the agency, whichever period of time is longer. The court, in its discretion, may permit other interested persons to intervene.

(3) The filing of the petition shall not stay enforcement of the agency decision. Where other statutes provide for stay or supersedeas of an agency decision, it may be stayed by the agency or the reviewing court only as provided therein; otherwise the agency may do so, or the reviewing court may order a stay upon such terms as it deems proper.

(4) Within thirty days after service of the petition, or within such further time as the court may allow, the agency shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review; but, by stipulation of all parties to the review proceeding, the record may be shortened. Any party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional costs. The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record when deemed desirable.

Cake walks as commonly known and fish ponds as commonly known shall be treated as amusement games for all purposes under this chapter.

The legislature hereby authorizes the wagering on the outcome of the roll of dice or the flipping of or matching of coins on the premises of an establishment engaged in the business of selling food or beverages for consumption on the premises to determine which of the participants will pay for certain items of food or beverages served or sold by such establishment and therein consumed. Such establishments are hereby authorized to possess dice and dice cups on their premises, but only for use in such limited wagering. Persons engaged in such limited form of wagering shall not be subject to the criminal or civil penalties otherwise provided for in this chapter: PROVIDED, That minors shall be barred from engaging in the wagering activities allowed by this 1977 amendatory act.

(2) "Bingo" means a game in which prizes are awarded on the basis of designated numbers or symbols on a card conforming to numbers or symbols selected at random and in which no cards are sold except at the time and place of said game, when said game is conducted by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization which does not conduct or allow its premises to be used for conducting bingo on more than three occasions per week and which does not conduct bingo in any location which is used for conducting bingo on more than three occasions per week, or if an agricultural fair authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, which does not conduct bingo on more than twelve consecutive days in any calendar year, and except in the case of any agricultural fair as authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, no person other than a bona fide member or an employee of said organization takes any part in the management or operation of said game, and no person who takes any part in the management or operation of said game takes any part in the management or operation of any game conducted by any other organization or any other branch of the same organization and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting said game.

(3) "Bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization" means: (a) any organization duly existing under the provisions of chapters 24.12, 24.20, or 24.28 RCW, any agricultural fair authorized under the provisions of chapters 15.76 or 36.37 RCW, or any nonprofit corporation duly existing under the provisions of chapter 24.03 RCW for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, civic, patriotic, political, social, fraternal, athletic or agricultural purposes only, or any nonprofit organization, whether incorporated or otherwise, when found by the commission to be organized and operating for one or more of the aforesaid purposes only, all of which in the opinion of the commission have been organized and are operated primarily for purposes other than the operation of gambling activities authorized under this chapter; or (b) any corporation which has been incorporated under Title 36 U.S.C. and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of the armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same. The fact that contributions to an organization do not qualify for charitable contribution deduction purposes or that the organization is not otherwise exempt from payment of federal income taxes pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, shall constitute prima facie evidence that the organization is not a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this section.

Gambling does not include fishing derbies as defined by this chapter, parimutuel betting as authorized by chapter 67.16 RCW, bona fide business transactions valid under the law of contracts, including, but not limited to, contracts for the purchase or sale at a future date of securities or commodities, and agreements to compensate for loss caused by the happening of chance, including, but not limited to, contracts of indemnity or guarantee and life, health or accident insurance. device: PROVIDED FURTHER, That owning, possessing, buying, selling, renting, leasing, financing, holding a security interest in, storing, repairing and transporting such pinball machines or similar mechanical amusement devices shall not be deemed engaging in professional gambling for the purposes of this chapter and shall not be a violation of this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any fee for the purchase or rental of any such pinball machines or similar amusement devices shall have no relation to the use to which such machines are put but be based only upon the market value of any such machine, regardless of the location of or type of premises where used, and any fee for the storing, repairing and transporting thereof shall have no relation to the use to which such machines are put, but be commensurate with the cost of labor and other expenses incurred in any such storing, repairing and transporting.

(10) "Gambling information" means any wager made in the course of and any information intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition information as to wagers, betting odds and changes in betting odds shall be presumed to be intended for use in professional gambling: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall not apply to newspapers of general circulation or commercial radio and television stations licensed by the federal communications commission.

(11) "Gambling premises" means any building, room, enclosure, vehicle, vessel or other place used or intended to be used for professional gambling. (a) Listening to or watching a television or radio program or subscribing to a cable television service;

(b) Filling out and returning a coupon or entry blank or facsimile which is received through the mail or published in a bona fide newspaper or magazine, or in a program sold in conjunction with and at a regularly scheduled sporting event, or the purchase of such a newspaper, magazine or program;

Broadcast programming, including advertising and promotion, that complies with said federal statutes and regulations is hereby authorized.

A natural person who gambles at a social game of chance on equal terms with the other participants therein does not otherwise render material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation thereof by performing, without fee or remuneration, acts directed toward the arrangement or facilitation of the game, such as inviting persons to play, permitting the use of premises therefor, and supplying cards or other equipment used therein. A person who engages in "bookmaking" as defined in this section is not a "player".

(15) A person is engaged in "professional gambling" when:

(c) He engages in bookmaking; or

(7) The state highway commission shall have the right to utilize all storm sewers on such highways without cost; and if new storm sewer facilities are necessary in construction of new streets by the state highway commission, the cost of such facilities shall be borne by the state and/or city as may be mutually agreed upon between the state highway commission and the governing body of the city or town;

(8) Cities and towns shall have exclusive right to grant franchises, not in conflict with state laws, over, beneath and upon such streets but the state highway commission shall be authorized to enforce in an action brought in the name of the state any condition of any franchise which a city or town shall have granted on such street: PROVIDED, That no franchise for transportation of passengers in motor vehicles shall be granted on such streets without the approval of the state highway commission but the state highway commission shall not refuse to approve such franchise unless another street conveniently located and of strength of construction to sustain travel of such vehicles is accessible;

(9) Every franchise or permit granted any person by a city or town for use of any portion of such street by a public utility shall require the grantee or permittee to restore, repair and replace to its original condition any portion of the street damaged or injured by it;

(10) The city or town shall have the right to issue overload or overwidth permits for vehicles to operate on such streets or roads subject to regulations printed and distributed to the cities and towns by the state highway commission;

(11) Cities and towns shall regulate and enforce all traffic and parking restrictions on such streets, but all regulations adopted by a city or town relating to speed, parking, and traffic control devices on such streets not identical to state law relating thereto shall be subject to the approval of the state highway commission before becoming effective. All regulations pertaining to speed, parking, and traffic control devices relating to such streets heretofore adopted by a city or town not identical with state laws shall become null and void unless approved by the state highway commission heretofore or within one year after March 21, 1963;

(12) The state highway commission shall erect, control and maintain at state expense all route markers, and directional signs, except street signs, on such streets;

(13) The state highway commission shall install, operate, maintain and control at state expense all traffic control signals, signs and traffic control devices for the purpose of regulating both pedestrian and motor vehicular traffic on, entering upon, or leaving state highways in cities and towns having a population of fifteen thousand or less according to the latest determination of population by the state census board: PROVIDED, That such cities and towns may submit to the state highway commission a plan for traffic control signals, signs and traffic control devices desired by them, indicating the location, nature of installation, or type thereof, or a proposed amendment to such an existing plan or installation, and the state highway commission shall consult with the cities or towns concerning the same prior to installing such signals, signs, or devices. Cities and towns having a population in excess of fifteen thousand according to the latest determination of population by the state census board shall install, maintain, operate and control such signals, signs and devices at their own expense, subject to approval of the state highway commission for the installation and type only. For the purpose of this subdivision striping, lane marking and channelization are considered traffic control devices;

(14) All revenue from parking meters placed on such streets shall belong to the city or town;

(15) Rights of way for such streets shall be acquired by either the city or town or by the state as shall be mutually agreed upon. Costs of acquiring rights of way may be at the sole expense of the state or at the expense of the city or town or at the expense of the state and the city or town as may be mutually agreed upon. Title to all such rights of way ~~((so acquired shall vest in the city or town. PROVIDED, That))~~ acquired by a city or town shall immediately vest in the city or town. Title to all rights of way acquired by the state shall remain in the state until actually used for construction or other street purpose. Upon completion of such construction, the rights of way actually used for street purposes shall be conveyed to the city or town by deed executed by the director of highways and duly acknowledged. No vacation, sale, or rental of any unused portion of any such street shall be made by the city or town without the approval of the state highway commission; and all revenue derived from sale, vacation, or rental of such rights of way shall be shared by the city or town and the state in the same proportion as the purchase costs were shared;

(16) If any city or town shall fail to perform any of its obligations as set forth in this section or in any cooperative agreement entered into with the state highway commission for the maintenance of a city or town street forming part of the route of a state highway, the state highway commission may notify the mayor of such town to perform such necessary maintenance within thirty days. If the city or town within such thirty days shall fail to perform such maintenance or fail to authorize the state highway commission to perform such maintenance as provided by RCW 47.24.050, the state highway commission may perform such maintenance, the cost of which is to be deducted from any sums in the motor vehicle fund credited or to be credited to such city or town.

Sec. 8. Section 47.52.090, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 11, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 and RCW 47.52.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The highway authorities of the state, counties, incorporated cities and towns, and municipal corporations owning or operating an urban public transportation system are authorized to enter into agreements with each other, or with the federal government, respecting the financing, planning, establishment, improvement, construction, maintenance, use, regulation, or vacation of limited access facilities in their respective jurisdictions to facilitate the purposes of this chapter. Any such agreement may provide for the exclusive or nonexclusive use of a portion of such facility by street cars, trains or other vehicles forming a part of an urban public transportation system and for the erection, construction and maintenance thereon of structures and facilities of such a system including facilities for the receipt and discharge of passengers: PROVIDED, That within incorporated cities and towns the title to ~~((such))~~ every state limited access ((facility, after purchase and construction by the state alone,)) highway shall vest in the state, and, notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the Washington state highway commission shall exercise full jurisdiction, responsibility, and control to, and over, such ((facilities)) highway from the time it is declared to be operational as a limited access facility by the state highway commission: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That:

(1) Cities and towns shall regulate all traffic restrictions on such facilities except as provided in RCW 46.61.430 and all regulations adopted shall be subject to approval of the state highway commission before becoming effective. Nothing herein shall preclude the state patrol, any county, or city or town from enforcing any traffic regulations and restrictions prescribed by state law, county resolution, or municipal ordinance.

(2) The city or town or franchise holder shall at its own expense maintain its underground facilities beneath the surface across the highway and shall have the right to construct such additional facilities underground or beneath the surface of the facility or necessary overcrossings of power lines and other utilities as may be necessary insofar as such facilities do not interfere with the use of the right of way for limited access highway purposes, and the city or town shall have the right to maintain any municipal utility and the right to open the surface of such highway, and the construction, maintenance until permanent repair is made, and permanent repair of such facilities shall be done in a time and manner authorized by permit to be issued by the state highway commission or its authorized representative, except to meet emergency conditions for which no permit will be required, but any damage occasioned thereby shall promptly be repaired by the city or town itself, or at its direction. Where a city or town is required to relocate overhead facilities within the corporate limits of a city or town as a result of the construction of a limited access facility, the cost of such relocation shall be paid by the state.

(3) Cities and towns shall have the right to grant utility franchises crossing the facility underground and beneath its surface insofar as such franchises are not inconsistent with the use of the right of way for limited access facility purposes: PROVIDED, That such franchises are not in conflict with state laws: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state highway commission shall be authorized to enforce, in an action brought in the name of the state, any condition of any franchise which a city or town shall have granted: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That no franchise for transportation of passengers in motor vehicles shall be granted on such highways without the approval of the state highway commission, except cities and towns shall not be required to obtain a franchise for the operation of municipal vehicles or vehicles operating under franchises from the city or town operating within the corporate limits of a city or town and within a radius not to exceed eight miles outside of such corporate limits for public transportation on such facilities, but such vehicles may not stop on the limited access portion of such facility to receive or to discharge passengers unless appropriate special lanes or deceleration, stopping and acceleration space is provided for such vehicles.

Every franchise or permit granted any person by a city or town for use of any portion of a limited access facility shall require the grantee or permittee to restore, permanently repair and replace to its original condition any portion of the highway damaged or injured by it. Except to meet emergency conditions, the construction and permanent repair of any limited access facility by the grantee of a franchise shall be in a time and manner authorized by permit to be issued by the state highway commission, or its authorized representative.

(4) The state highway commission shall have the right to utilize all storm sewers which are adequate and available for the additional quantity of run-off proposed to be passed through such storm sewers.

(5) The construction and maintenance of city streets over and under crossings and surface intersections of the limited access facility shall be in accordance with the governing policy entered into between the state highway commission and the association of Washington cities on June 21, 1956, or as such policy may be amended by agreement between the Washington state highway commission and the association of Washington cities.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. It is the purpose of the legislature in enacting this 1977 amendatory act to provide for a comprehensive revision of out-dated and offensive language, procedures and assumptions that have previously been used to identify and categorize mentally, physically, and sensory handicapped citizens. It is legislative intent that language references such as idiots, imbeciles, feeble-minded or defective persons be deleted and replaced with more appropriate references to reflect current statute law more recently enacted by the federal government and this legislature. It is legislative belief that use of the undefined term "insanity" be avoided in preference to the use of a process for defining incompetency or disability as fully set forth in chapter 11.88 RCW; that language that has allowed or implied a presumption of incompetency or disability on the basis of an apparent condition or appearance be deleted in favor of a reference to necessary due process allowing a judicial determination of the existence or lack of existence of such incompetency or disability.

Sec. 2. Section 11, page 364, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 74, chapter 292, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 4.16.190 are each amended to read as follows:

If a person entitled to bring an action mentioned in this chapter, except for a penalty or forfeiture, or against a sheriff or other officer, for an escape, be at the time the cause of action accrued either under the age of eighteen years, or ((insame)) incompetent or disabled to such a degree that he or she cannot understand the nature of the proceedings, such incompetency or disability as determined according to chapter 11.88 RCW, or imprisoned on a criminal charge, or in execution under the sentence of a court for a term less than his natural life, the time of such disability shall not be a part of the time limited for the commencement of action.

Sec. 3. Section 290, page 186, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, chapter 84, Laws of 1927 and RCW 5.60.030 are each amended to read as follows:

No person offered as a witness shall be excluded from giving evidence by reason of his or her interest in the event of the action, as a party thereto or otherwise, but such interest may be shown to affect his or her credibility: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in an action or proceeding where the adverse party sues or defends as executor, administrator or legal representative of any deceased person, or as deriving right or title by, through or from any deceased person, or as the guardian or ~~((conservator))~~ limited guardian of the estate or person of any ((insane)) incompetent or disabled person, or of any minor under the age of fourteen years, then a party in interest or to the record, shall not be admitted to testify in his or her own behalf as to any transaction had by him or her with, or any statement made to him or her, or in his or her presence, by any such deceased ((or insane)), incompetent or disabled person, or by any such minor under the age of fourteen years: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this exclusion shall not apply to parties of record who sue or defend in a representative or fiduciary capacity, and have no other or further interest in the action.

Sec. 4. Section 26, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.300 are each amended to read as follows:

In case of a homestead, if either the husband or wife shall be or become ((hopelessly insane)) incompetent or disabled to such a degree that he or she is unable to assist in the management of his or her interest in the marital property, upon application of the husband or wife not ((insane)) so incompetent or disabled to the superior court of the county in which the homestead is situated, and upon due proof of such ((insanity)) incompetency or disability in the severity required above, the court may make an order permitting the husband or wife ((not insane)) applying to the court to sell and convey or mortgage such homestead.

Sec. 5. Section 27, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.310 are each amended to read as follows:

Notice of the application for such order shall be given by publication of the same in a newspaper published in the county in which such homestead is situated, if there be a newspaper published therein, once each week for three successive weeks prior to the hearing of such application, and a copy of such notice shall be served upon the alleged incompetent husband or wife personally, and upon the nearest ((mate)) relative of such ((insane)) incompetent or disabled husband or wife other than the applicant, resident in this state, at least three weeks prior to such application being heard, and in case there be no such ((mate)) relative known to the applicant, a copy of such notice shall be served upon the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such homestead is situated; and it is hereby made the duty of such prosecuting attorney, upon being served with a copy of such notice, to appear in court and see that such application is made in good faith, and that the proceedings thereon are fairly conducted.

Sec. 6. Section 28, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.320 are each amended to read as follows:

Thirty days before the hearing of any application under the provisions of this chapter, the applicant shall present and file in the court in which such application is to be heard a petition for the order mentioned, subscribed and sworn to by the applicant, setting forth the name and age of the ~~((insane))~~ alleged incompetent or disabled husband or wife; a description of the premises constituting the homestead; the value of the same; the county in which it is situated; ~~((and))~~ such facts ~~((in addition to that of the insanity of the husband or wife))~~ necessary to show that the nonpetitioning husband or wife is incompetent or disabled to the degree required under section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act; and such additional facts relating to the circumstances and necessities of the applicant and his or her family as he or she may rely upon in support of the petition.

(1) In the case of a person eighteen years of age or over, the application shall be voluntarily made by the person;

(2) In the case of a person thirteen years of age or under, the application may be voluntarily made by his parents, or by the parent, ~~((conservator))~~ limited guardian as authorized, guardian, or other person entitled to his custody. When such person is more than thirteen years of age, such application must be accompanied by the written consent, knowingly and voluntarily given, of the minor. All such voluntary applications to a public agency shall be reviewed by the county mental health professionals, who shall submit a written report and evaluation with recommendations to the superintendent of such facility to which such application is made stating whether treatment is necessary and proper on a voluntary basis and evaluating the reasons for voluntary commitment. Such person's condition and status shall be reviewed by the professional person in charge of the facility or his designee at least once each one hundred eighty days. A person under eighteen years of age received into a public facility as a voluntary patient shall not be retained after he reaches eighteen years of age, but such person, upon reaching eighteen years of age, may apply for admission into a public or private facility as a voluntary patient.

(3) No minor over thirteen years of age shall be involuntarily committed to a state or private facility for care and treatment as mentally disordered, or for observation as to the existence of mental disorder, except in accordance with the following requirements:

(a) The facility must be certified by the department of social and health services to provide evaluation and treatment to persons under eighteen years of age suffering from mental disorders: PROVIDED, That a physically separate and separately operated portion of a state hospital may be designated as an evaluation and treatment facility: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a facility which is part of, or a part of, or operated by, the department of social and health services or any federal agency will not require certification.

(b) A petition shall be filed with the juvenile court by the person's parent, parents, ((conservator)) limited guardian as authorized, guardian, or by the juvenile court itself. The petition shall set forth the reasons why commitment is necessary and what alternative courses of treatment have been explored. The juvenile court shall then conduct a hearing, at which the person under eighteen years of age shall be represented by an attorney, to determine whether commitment is clearly in the best interests of the person sought to be committed, and that no less restrictive alternative exists: PROVIDED, That, if in the opinion of the designated county mental health professional a minor presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm to himself or others, he may be temporarily detained for up to seventy-two hours by a licensed facility pending petition to the juvenile court for further commitment.

(c) If the juvenile court determines that commitment is clearly necessary, it will issue an order approving such petition. If the juvenile court determines that a less restrictive alternative is desirable, it may order that alternatives be followed.

(d) If a person under the age of eighteen years is committed to a state or private facility pursuant to this section, the juvenile court recommending commitment shall require a report from the facility every one hundred eighty days that sets forth such facts as the juvenile court may require. Upon receipt of the report, the juvenile court shall undertake a review of the status of such person to determine whether or not it is still clearly in the best interests of the patient that he remain in the facility. If the juvenile court determines that further commitment is not clearly in the best interests of the patient, it shall order release upon such conditions as it deems necessary.

(e) Every person under the age of eighteen shall have all the rights provided for persons eighteen years of age or over under this chapter as now or hereafter amended except those rights specifically modified by this section: PROVIDED, That the juvenile court rather than the superior court shall be responsible for any proceedings. A voluntarily admitted minor over thirteen years of age shall have the right to release on the next judicial day from the date of request unless a petition is filed in juvenile court by the professional person in charge of the facility or his designee on the grounds that the juvenile is dangerous to himself or others or that it would be in the best interests of the juvenile that he remain in the facility. Furthermore, should the patient and his parent, parents, ((conservator)) limited guardian as authorized, or guardian both request his release, he shall be immediately released unless the professional person in charge of the facility objects immediately in writing to the juvenile court on the grounds that the person is dangerous to himself or others and that it would not be in the patient's best interests to be released. Should this occur, the juvenile court shall hold a hearing on the issue within five judicial days and determine whether the person should be released.

(f) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the professional person in charge of the facility in which the person is being treated from releasing him at any time when, in the opinion of said professional person, further commitment would no longer be in the best interests of the patient.

Whenever a person is released by the professional person in charge of a facility under this section, said person shall, in writing, notify the juvenile court which committed the person for treatment.

(4) In the case of a person eighteen years of age or over for whom a (~~conservator~~) limited guardian or guardian of the person has been appointed, such application shall be made by said (~~conservator~~) limited guardian or guardian, when so authorized by proper court order in the (~~conservatorship~~) limited guardianship or guardianship proceedings.

In all cases where the owner or person claiming an interest in such real or other property is a nonresident of this state, or where the residence of such owner or person is unknown, and an affidavit of one or more of the commissioners of said district shall be filed that such owner or person is a nonresident of this state, or that after diligent inquiry his residence is unknown or cannot be ascertained by such deponent, service may be made by publication thereof in a newspaper published in the county where such lands are situated, once a week for three successive weeks; and in case no newspaper is published in such county, then such publication may be had in a newspaper published in the county nearest to the county in which lies the land sought to be appropriated, or which it is claimed will be benefited by said improvement. Such publication shall be deemed service upon each nonresident person or persons whose residence is unknown. Such summons may be served by any competent person eighteen years of age or over. Due proof of service of such summons by affidavit or publication shall be filed with the clerk of such court before the court shall proceed to hear the matter. NEW SECTION. Sec. 76. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the Senate May 4, 1977.

Passed the House May 16, 1977.

Approved by the Governor May 24, 1977, with the exception of sections 17, 18, 19 and 20 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 24, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to several sections, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2872 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to social and health services."

In making much needed revisions in the law to eliminate language offensive to certain of our citizens, the legislature has inadvertently made substantial changes in the law relating to marriage by repealing, in sections 17, 18, 19 and 20 of this bill, the basic prohibitions to be set forth by affidavit of persons desiring to marry. These alterations go far beyond the intent of this bill and should be given close attention by the legislature at some future date.

For the foregoing reasons, I have determined to veto sections 17, 18, 19, and 20. With the exception of those sections, I have approved the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2872."

CHAPTER 83

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2069]
YOUTH SERVICE CORPS ACT OF 1977

AN ACT Relating to Washington state's youth service corps and the program for youth services; providing an expiration date; and adding a new chapter to Title 50 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) A high percentage of the young men and women of the state are left idle by unemployment and denied the opportunities for career exploration and development that should accompany entry into the labor force.

(2) The talent and energy of Washington's young people are a significant resource for the enhancement of human and community services and the conservation and development of natural resources in our state of Washington.

(3) Existing programs do not adequately meet the needs of such young people for meaningful work and self-development.

(4) The program for youth service of the department of employment security offers an alternative to unemployment to its young people which challenges their abilities and commitment while extending the services of local governmental and private agencies and organizations in meeting social and environmental needs.

Now, therefore, the legislature finds it necessary and in the public interest to hereby establish the program for youth service as a permanent activity of the department of employment security and to hereby provide for its operation through this youth service corps act of 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) There is hereby created and established the youth service corps within the employment security department which shall include the program for youth service. The commissioner shall assign thereto such supervisory and clerical personnel as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) The commissioner of the employment security department is hereby authorized to establish the program for youth service in which the services of full time enrollees from fourteen to twenty-four years of age, inclusive, will be mobilized to serve the needs of citizens and to resolve environmental problems through contracts with state and local governmental units and private nonprofit agencies. Such contracts shall include a component of regular performance evaluation leading to a work experience credential for the enrollee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The commissioner is authorized to select and enroll in the program for youth service, any person who is over fourteen years of age or who has not yet reached his or her twenty-fifth birthday, who is a resident of the state of Washington, and who is not for medical, legal, or psychological reasons incapable of a full year of service. The commissioner may prescribe such additional standards and procedures for selection of enrollees as may be necessary and in conformance with the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Placements in the program for youth service shall include those assignments which provide for dealing with social and environmental problems, and conservation and development of our natural resources.

The commissioner is authorized to establish standards for the development of placements for program for youth service enrollees with state and local units of government and private nonprofit agencies and organizations, and to assign enrollees to such placements in accordance with those standards.

A subsistence living allowance and comprehensive medical insurance shall be paid by the commissioner in accordance with the standards and limitations of the funding appropriation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A "program for youth service enrollee" is defined as a person who has completed enrollment forms and entered into a program for youth service contract as approved by the director of the program for youth service and who has entered service and is receiving a subsistence living allowance from the employment security department. Prior to placement of the program for youth service enrollee, the commissioner shall secure a written agreement from the state or local government unit, or private nonprofit agency and the enrollee which specifies in detail the purpose, objectives, and activities to be performed by the enrollee. It shall include assurances that the conditions of this chapter are met as well as an agreement that neither party will request nor receive compensation of any form other than the minimal living allowance, listed benefits, and actual expenses incurred by the enrollee in line with his or her assignment. All parties shall agree that they will not discriminate in the providing of any of its services on the basis of race, creed, ethnic origin, sex, age, or political affiliation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If the employment security department finds that there is an opportunity for the placement of youth in a training program that will, in the opinion of the director, assist in the development of skills and talents as set forth in section 1 of this act, then the director is hereby authorized to enter into any contract with any employer in the state that offers such training program or opportunities. Contracts entered into with employers other than local governmental and private nonprofit agencies shall not be exempted from the minimum wage laws of this state, but the director shall be empowered to reimburse the employer an amount not to exceed the amount that would have been paid under section 5 of this act. The director shall only be authorized to make said payments for a maximum period of one year.

The director shall report back to the legislature by January 15, 1978, the number of contracts entered into and the number of youth employed under this section and under section 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Program for youth service enrollees shall be eligible for the benefits under Title 51 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, relating to industrial insurance.

The employment security department shall be deemed the employer and pay all premiums, including the worker's share. The employment security department will give notice of coverage under industrial insurance of all of its program for youth service enrollees to the director of the department of labor and industries prior to the occurrence of the injury or contraction of an occupational disease by any program for youth service enrollees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The assignment of program for youth service enrollees shall not result in the displacement of currently employed workers, including partial displacement such as a reduction in hours of non-overtime work, wages, or other employment benefits.

State and local governments and private nonprofit agencies that participate in the program may not terminate, lay off, or reduce the working hours of any employee for the purpose of utilizing an enrollee with funds available under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The provisions of chapter 49.46 RCW, the state Minimum Wage Act, shall not apply to any program for youth service enrollee serving under a youth service contract approved pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In addition to any other power, duty, or function prescribed by law or regulation, the employment security department, through the youth service corps, shall be authorized to accept federal funds and grants and implement federal programs relating to youth services or employment programs, and is further authorized to enter into agreements respecting such funds or grants.

If any part of this chapter shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, such conflicting part of this chapter is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this chapter; the rules and regulations under this chapter shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The provisions of this chapter shall expire on December 31, 1981.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 50 RCW.

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2437]

INTERSTATE COMPACT FOR SCHOOL BUS SAFETY

AN ACT Relating to motor vehicles; enacting the interstate compact for school bus safety; adding a new chapter to Title 46 RCW; and making an appropriation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The "Interstate Compact for School Bus Safety" is hereby enacted into law and entered into with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

INTERSTATE COMPACT FOR SCHOOL BUS SAFETY
ARTICLE I
FINDINGS AND PURPOSES

(a) The party states find that:

(1) School transportation is an integral part of our education systems. The increasing volume of traffic on streets and highways, with larger numbers of school children being transported each year, presents a serious problem in safety that requires regulation and control.

(2) During recent years the various states have each developed their own rules, regulations and standards which govern the operation of school buses in the individual states, thus creating vast differences in construction standards and operational procedures.

(3) Standardization by means of interstate cooperation, exchange of information, and the promulgation of uniform practices among the states can do much to mitigate present hazards and at the same time generate cost reductions and improved service.

(b) The purposes of this compact are to:

(1) Promote uniformity in regulation of and standards for school bus equipment.

(2) Secure uniformity of law and administrative practices in school bus vehicle regulation and related safety standards, incorporating desirable equipment changes in the interest of greater school bus safety.

(3) Establish a means whereby the states party to this compact shall jointly agree on certain school bus minimum standards and procedures including, without limitation by the enumeration, the following:

(i) Items which affect the motorist, such as use of lights, signs, and signaling devices that control traffic;

(ii) Procedural activities of school bus drivers in controlling traffic; and in the loading and unloading of buses;

(iii) Construction and other specifications which can lead to lower initial costs and the interchangeability of school buses among states;

(iv) A framework within which the party states may develop uniform driver training programs; and

(v) Development of accurate and uniform accident statistical reporting among the party states.

(4) Encourage and utilize research which will facilitate achievement of the foregoing purposes, with due regard for the findings set forth in subsection (a) of this Article.

(5) It is recognized that there are inherent differences in transportation needs in each of the party states. It shall not be the purpose of this compact to abridge, impair or adversely affect the jurisdiction or authority of the individual states to regulate and control their own school transportation systems.

(6) Investigate the safety and economic advantage of children being transported.

ARTICLE II DEFINITIONS

(a) "State" means a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any other special commonwealth as may be established by the Government of the United States.

(b) "School bus" shall have the same meaning as provided in RCW 46.04.521.

(c) "Equipment" means the equipment required for school buses under chapter 46.37 RCW.

ARTICLE III THE COMMISSION

(a) There is hereby created an agency of the party states to be known as the "Western States School Bus Safety Commission" (hereinafter called the Commission). The Commission shall consist of not less than one nor more than three commissioners from each State, each of whom shall be a citizen of the State from which he is appointed, and not less than one or nor more than three commissioners representing the United States Government. The commissioners from each State shall be chosen in the manner and for the terms provided by the laws of the States from which they shall be appointed, provided that at least one member shall be appointed from the State agency which has primary responsibility for pupil transportation in that State. Any commissioner may be removed or suspended from office as provided by the law of the State from which he shall be appointed. The commissioners representing the United States shall be appointed by the President of the United States, or in such other manner as may be provided by Congress. The commissioners shall serve without compensation, but shall be paid their actual expenses incurred in and incidental to the performance of their duties; but nothing herein shall prevent the appointment of an officer or employee of any State or of the United States Government.

(b) Each state delegation shall be entitled to one vote, and the presence of commissioners from a majority of the party states shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Commission. A majority vote of the quorum will be required to adopt any measure before the Commission. The commissioners representing the United States Government shall act in an advisory capacity and shall not have voting powers.

(c) The Commission shall have a seal.

(d) The Commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, a vice chairman, and a treasurer. The Commission shall appoint an Executive Director who shall serve at its pleasure and who shall also act as Secretary, and who, together with the Treasurer, shall be bonded in such amounts as the Commission may require.

(e) The Executive Director, with the approval of the Commission, shall appoint and remove or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the Commission's functions irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any of the party states.

(f) The Commission may establish and maintain, independently or in conjunction with any one or more of the party states, a suitable retirement system for its full-time employees. The Commission may establish and maintain or participate in such additional programs of employee benefits as may be appropriate.

(g) The Commission may borrow, accept, or contract for the services of personnel from any state or the United States or any subdivision or agency thereof, from any interstate agency, or from any institution, person, firm or corporation.

(h) The Commission may establish and maintain such facilities as may be necessary for the transacting of its business. The Commission may acquire, hold, and convey real and personal property and any interest therein.

(i) The Commission shall adopt bylaws, rules, and regulations for the conduct of its business, and shall have the power to amend and rescind these bylaws, rules, and regulations. The Commission shall publish its bylaws, rules, and regulations in convenient form and shall file a copy thereof and shall also file a copy of any amendment thereto, with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

(j) The Commission annually shall make to the governor and the legislature of each party state, a report covering the activities of the Commission for the preceding year, and embodying such recommendations as may have been adopted by the Commission. The Commission may issue such additional reports as it may deem desirable.

ARTICLE IV FUNCTIONS AND ACTIVITIES

(a) The Commission shall have power to perform the following functions and activities that relate to school bus transportation:

(1) Recommend and encourage research, testing and training activities to the extent the Commission finds necessary.

(2) Contract for research, testing and training activities on behalf of the Commission itself or for one or more governmental agencies if they provide special funding for that purpose.

(3) Engage directly in such activities to the extent approved by the Commission.

(4) Recommend to the party states of needed changes in law or policy with emphasis on uniformity of laws and administrative rules, regulations or codes which would promote effective governmental action or coordination of school bus construction, equipment, safety programs, and school bus driver training.

(5) The Commission shall send prompt notice of its action in issuing any rule, regulation or code pursuant to this article to the appropriate agency of each party state and such notice shall contain the complete text of the rule, regulation or code.

(6) Each party state, recognizing that to carry out the intent of this compact, obligates itself to adopt in identical terms, all rules, regulations and specifications which are standardized through due process to the States.

(b) The Commission may establish such advisory and technical committees as may be necessary, membership on which may include public officials and private citizens. The Commission may also cooperate with other governmental agencies and interstate organizations and with organizations representing the private sector.

ARTICLE V
FINANCE

(a) Moneys necessary to finance the Commission in carrying out its duties shall be provided through appropriations from the states party to this compact, said payments to be in direct proportion to the number of school buses registered in the respective party states. The initial rate of payment shall be figured at $0.50 per bus, provided that no state shall contribute less than $500.00 per annum. The annual contribution of each state above the minimum shall be figured to the nearest one hundred dollars. Subsequent budgets shall be determined by the Commission, and the cost thereof allocated in the same proportion as the initial budget.

(b) The Commission may accept for any of its purposes under this compact any and all donations, and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials, and services (conditional and otherwise) from any state or the United States or any subdivision or agency thereof, or interstate agency, or from any institution, person, firm, or corporation, and may receive, utilize and dispose of the same.

ARTICLE VI
ENTRY INTO FORCE AND WITHDRAWAL

(a) This compact shall enter into immediate force and effect as to any state when enacted by it into law, and such state shall thereafter be a party thereto with any and all states joining therein.

(b) It is the purpose of this compact to provide the necessary legal basis for implementation and adoption by each party state of the standardized rules, regulations and specifications as adopted by the Commission. Consistent with the laws of each party state, there shall be a "compact administrator" who, acting jointly with like officials of other party states, shall promulgate necessary rules, regulations and specifications within that state to carry out the actions and directives of the Commission.

(c) Any state party to this compact may, by legislative act after one year's notice to the Commission, withdraw from the compact. The compact may also be terminated at any time by the unanimous agreement of the several party states. Withdrawal shall not relieve a state from its obligations hereunder prior to the effective withdrawal date.

(d) If any state shall at any time default in the performance of any of its obligations assumed herein or with respect to any obligation imposed upon said state as authorized by and in compliance with the terms and provisions of this compact, all rights, privileges and benefits of such defaulting state and its members on the Commission shall be suspended after the date of such default. Such suspension shall in no manner release such defaulting state from any accrued obligation or otherwise affect this compact or the rights, duties, privileges or obligations of the remaining states thereunder.

ARTICLE VII
SEVERABILITY

(a) The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be unconstitutional or the applicability thereof to any state, agency, person or circumstances is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any other state, agency, person or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. It is the legislative intent that the provisions of this compact be reasonably and liberally construed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington state commissioners to the western states school bus safety commission shall be the director of highways, the superintendent of public instruction and the chief of the Washington state patrol or their respective designees. Annually the Washington commissioners shall elect a chairman from their own membership who shall serve for one year commencing July 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section .32.05, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.36.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every society transacting business under this chapter shall provide for the payment of death benefits, and may provide for the payment of benefits in case of temporary or permanent physical disability, either as the result of disease, accident or old age: PROVIDED, That the period of life at which the payment of benefits for disability on account of old age shall commence, shall not be under seventy years, and may provide for monuments or tombstones to the memory of the deceased members and for the payment of funeral benefits. Such society shall have the power to give a member, when permanently disabled or on attaining the age of seventy, all or such portion of the face value of his certificates as the laws of the society may provide: PROVIDED, That nothing in this chapter contained shall be so construed as to prevent the issuing of benefit certificates for a term of years less than the whole of life which are payable upon the death or disability of the member occurring within the terms for which the benefit certificates may be issued. Such society shall, upon written application of the members, have the power to accept a part of the periodical contributions in cash, and charge the remainder, not exceeding one-half of the periodical contributions, against the certificate with interest payable or compounded annually at a rate not lower than four percent per annum: PROVIDED, That this privilege shall not be granted except to societies which have readjusted or may hereafter readjust their rates of contribution and to contracts affected by such readjustment.

(2) Any society which shall show by the annual valuation hereinafter provided for that it is accumulating and maintaining the reserve necessary to enable it to do so, under a table of mortality not lower than the American Experience Table and four percent interest, or under tables of mortality and interest assumptions as are authorized for use by domestic life insurers, may grant to its members, extended and paid-up protection or such withdrawal equities as its constitution and laws may provide: PROVIDED, That such grants shall in no case exceed in value the portion of the reserve to the credit of such members to whom they are made.

(3) Power and authority is hereby given to a society to divide its membership into separate classes, each class having a separate form of contract of similar or general plan and character in its purpose, and that the assets or mortuary collections made from the members of each class respectively shall be carried and maintained separate for such class, and that the required reserve accumulation of such class, if the contract therefor provides for such fund, shall be set apart and held specifically and separately for the use and benefit of such particular class, and shall not thereafter be mingled with the assets or mortuary collections of any other class of the society.

Sec. 2. Section .32.09, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.36.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any society may create, maintain, invest, disburse, and apply an emergency, surplus or other similar fund in accordance with its law. Unless otherwise provided in the contract, such funds shall be held, invested, and disbursed for the use and benefit of the society, and no member or beneficiary shall have or acquire individual rights therein or become entitled to any apportionment or the surrender of any part thereof, except as provided in RCW 48.36.050. The funds from which benefits shall be paid and the funds from which the expenses of the society shall be defrayed, shall be derived from periodical or other payments by the members of the society and accretions of said funds: PROVIDED, That no society, domestic or foreign, shall hereafter be incorporated or admitted to transact business in this state, which does not provide for stated periodical contributions sufficient to provide for meeting the mortuary obligations contracted, when valued upon the basis of the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality as adopted by the National Fraternal Congress, August 23, 1899, or any higher standard with interest assumption not more than four percent per annum, or under tables of mortality and interest assumptions as are authorized for use by domestic life insurers, nor write or accept members for temporary or permanent disability benefits except upon tables based upon reliable experience, with an interest assumption not higher than four percent per annum or tables and interest assumptions as are authorized for use by domestic life insurers.

(2) Deferred payments or installments of claims shall be considered as fixed liabilities on the happening of the contingency upon which such payments or installments are thereafter to be paid. Such liability shall be the present value of such future payments or installments upon the rate of interest and mortality assumed by the society for valuation, and every society shall maintain a fund sufficient to meet such liability regardless of proposed future collections to meet any such liabilities.

Sec. 3. Section .32.12, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.36.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Seven or more persons, citizens of the United States, and a majority of whom are citizens of this state, who desire to form a fraternal benefit society, as defined by this chapter, may make and sign, giving their addresses, and acknowledge before some officer competent to take acknowledgment of deeds, articles of incorporation, in which shall be stated:

First.—The proposed corporate name of the society, which shall not so closely resemble the name of any society or insurance company already transacting business in this state as to mislead the public or to lead to confusion.

Second.—The purpose for which it is formed, which shall not include more liberal powers than are granted in this chapter: PROVIDED, That any lawful social, intellectual, educational, charitable, benevolent, moral, or religious advantages may be set forth among the purposes of the society, and the mode in which its corporate powers are to be exercised.

Third.—The names, residences, and official titles of all the officers, trustees, directors, or other persons who are to have and exercise the general control and management of the affairs and funds of the society for the first year or until the ensuing election at which all such officers shall be elected by the supreme legislative or governing body, which election shall be held not later than one year from the date of issuance of the permanent certificate. Such articles of incorporation and duly certified copies of the constitution and laws, rules and regulations, and copies of all proposed forms of benefit certificates, applications therefor and circulars to be issued by such society, and a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with sureties approved by the commissioner, conditioned upon the return of the advanced payments, as provided in this section, to applicants, if the organization is not completed within one year, shall be filed with the commissioner, who may require such further information as he deems necessary, and if the purposes of the society conform to the requirements of this chapter, and all provisions of law have been complied with, the commissioner shall so certify and retain and record, or file, the articles of incorporation, and furnish the incorporators a preliminary certificate authorizing said society to solicit members as hereinafter provided.

Upon receipt of said certificate from the commissioner, said society may solicit members for the purpose of completing its organization and shall collect from each applicant the amount of not less than one regular monthly payment, in accordance with its table of rates as provided by its constitution and laws, and shall issue to each such applicant, a receipt for the amount so collected. But no such society shall incur any liability other than for such advanced payments, nor issue any benefit certificate, nor pay or allow, or offer or promise to pay or allow, to any person any death or disability benefit until actual bona fide applications for death benefit certificates have been secured upon at least five hundred lives for at least one thousand dollars each, and all such applicants for death benefits shall have been regularly examined by legally qualified practicing physicians, and certificates of such examinations have been duly filed and approved by the chief medical examiner of such society, nor until there shall be established ten subordinate lodges or branches into which said five hundred applicants have been initiated, nor until there has been submitted to the commissioner, under oath of the president and secretary, or corresponding officers of such society, a list of such applicants, giving their names, addresses, date examined, date approved, date initiated, name and number of the subordinate branch of which each applicant is a member, amount of benefits to be granted, rate of stated periodical contributions which shall be sufficient to provide for meeting the mortuary obligation contracted, when valued for death benefits upon the basis of the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality, as adopted by the National Fraternal Congress, August 23, 1899, or any higher standard at the option of the society, or any standard authorized for use by domestic life insurers, and for disability benefits by tables based upon reliable experience and for combined death and permanent total disability benefits by tables based upon reliable experience, with an interest assumption not higher than four percent per annum, or tables and interest assumptions as are authorized for use by domestic life insurers, nor until it shall be shown to the commissioner by the sworn statement of the treasurer, or corresponding officer of such society, that at least five hundred applicants have each paid in cash at least one regular monthly payment as herein provided per one thousand dollars of indemnity to be effected, which payments in the aggregate shall amount to at least twenty-five hundred dollars, all of which shall be credited to the mortuary or disability fund on account of such applicants, and no part of which may be used for expenses.

Said advanced payments shall, during the period of organization, be held in trust, and, if the organization is not completed within one year as hereinafter provided, returned to said applicants.

The commissioner may make such examination and require such further information as he deems advisable, and upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that the society has complied with all the provisions of law, he shall issue to such society a certificate to that effect. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of such society at the date of such certificate. The commissioner shall cause a record of such certificate to be made and a certified copy of such record may be given in evidence with like effect as the original certificate.

No preliminary certificate granted under the provisions of this section shall be valid after one year from its date, or after such further period, not exceeding one year, as may be authorized by the commissioner, upon cause shown, unless the five hundred applicants herein required have been secured and the organization has been completed as herein provided, and the articles of incorporation and all proceedings thereunder shall become null and void in one year from the date of said preliminary certificate, or at the expiration of said extended period, unless such society shall have completed its organization and commenced business as herein provided. When any domestic society shall have discontinued business for the period of one year, or has less than four hundred members, its charter shall become null and void.

Every society shall have the power to make a constitution and bylaws for the government of the society, the admission of its members, the management of its affairs, and the fixing and readjusting of the rates of contribution of its members from time to time; and it shall have the power to change, alter, add to or amend such constitution and bylaws and shall have such other powers as are necessary and incidental to carrying into effect the objects and purposes of the society.

Sec. 4. Section .32.23, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 1, chapter 79, Laws of 1973 and RCW 48.36.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Every society transacting business in this state shall annually, on or before the fifteenth day of March, file with the commissioner in such form as he may require, a statement under oath of its president and secretary, or corresponding officers, of its condition and standing on the thirty-first day of December next preceding, and of its transactions for one year ending on that date, and also shall furnish such other information as the commissioner may deem necessary to a proper exhibit of its business and plan of working. The commissioner may at other times require any further statement he may deem necessary to be made relating to such society.

In addition to the annual report herein required, each society shall annually report to the commissioner in valuation of its certificates in force on the thirty-first day of December last preceding excluding those issued within the year for which the report is filed, in cases where the contributions for the first year in whole or in part are used for current mortality and expenses: PROVIDED, That the first report of valuation shall be made as of December 31, 1931. Such report of valuation shall show, as contingent liabilities, the present midyear value of the promised benefits provided in the constitution and laws of such society under certificates then subject to valuation; and as contingent assets, the present midyear value of the future net contributions provided in the constitution and laws as the same are in practice actually collected. At the option of any society in lieu of the above, the valuation may show the net value of the certificates subject to valuation hereinbefore provided, and said net value, when computed in case of monthly contributions, may be the mean of the terminal values for the end of the preceding and of the current insurance years. Such valuation shall be certified by a competent accountant or actuary, or, at the request and expense of the society, verified by the actuary of the department of insurance of the home state of the society, and shall be filed with the commissioner within ninety days after the submission of the last preceding annual report. The legal minimum standard of valuation shall be according to tables of reliable experience and in such case a separation of the funds shall not be required.

The minimum standard of valuation for all certificates shall be either such tables and interest assumptions as are authorized for use by domestic life insurers or for all certificates issued on or after June 7, 1973 shall be four percent interest and the following tables:

(a) For certificates of life insurance, American men ultimate table of mortality, with Bowerman's or Davis' extension thereof, the commissioners 1941 standard industrial mortality table, the commissioners 1961 standard industrial mortality table, the commissioners 1941 standard ordinary mortality table, or the commissioners 1958 standard ordinary mortality table using an age not more than three years younger than the actual age of the insured for female risks;

(c) For disability benefits issued in connection with life benefit certificate, Hunter's disability table or class III disability table (1926), modified to conform to the contractual waiting period, or the tables of period 2 disablement rates and the 1930 to 1950 termination rates of the 1952 disability study of the society of actuaries with due regard to the type of benefit, any tables of which for active lives shall be combined with a mortality table permitted for calculating the reserves on life insurance certificates;

(d) For accidental death benefits issued in connection with life benefit certificate, the intercompany double indemnity mortality table or the 1959 accidental death benefits table combined with a mortality table permitted for calculating the reserves for life insurance certificates; and

Each day of such operation out of compliance with section 3(1) of this act shall constitute a separate offense. Upon conviction, violators shall be fined an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney or the attorney general, as appropriate to secure injunctions of continuing violations of any provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted hereunder: PROVIDED, That, except in the case of fraud, deceit, or gross negligence under section 11 of this act, no revocation, citation or charge shall be made under sections 11 and 13 of this act until a proper written notice of violation is received and a reasonable opportunity for correction has been given.

If any owner of forest land neglects or fails to provide adequate fire protection therefor as required by RCW 76.04.350, the department shall provide such protection therefor, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 76.04.520, at a cost to the owner of not to exceed eighteen cents an acre per year on lands west of the summit of the Cascade mountains and fourteen cents an acre per year on lands east of the summit of the Cascade mountains.

Such cost must be justified by a showing of budgets on demand of twenty-five owners of forest land in the county concerned at public hearing. Any amounts paid or contracted to be paid by the supervisor of the department of natural resources for this purpose from any funds at his disposal shall be a lien upon the property patrolled and protected, and unless reimbursed by the owner within ten days after October 1st of the year in which they were incurred, on which date the supervisor of the department of natural resources shall be prepared to make statement thereof upon request to any forest owner whose own protection has not been previously approved by him as adequate, shall be reported by the supervisor of the department of natural resources to the assessor of the county in which the property is situated who shall extend the amounts upon the tax rolls covering the property, or the county assessor may upon authorization from the supervisor of the department of natural resources levy the forest patrol assessment against the amounts of unimproved land as shown in each ownership on the county assessor's records and the assessor may then segregate on his records to provide that the improved land and improvements thereon carry the millage levy designed to support the rural fire protection districts as provided for in chapter 52.04 RCW.

The amounts assessed shall be collected at the time, in the same manner, by the same procedure, and with the same penalties attached that the next general state and county taxes on the same property are collected, except that errors in assessments may be corrected at any time by the supervisor of the department of natural resources certifying them to the treasurer of the county in which the land involved is situated. Upon the collection of such assessments the county treasurer shall transmit them to the supervisor of the department of natural resources to be applied against expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this section.

The supervisor of the department of natural resources shall include in the assessment a sum not to exceed one-half of one cent per acre, to cover the necessary and reasonable cost of office and clerical work incurred in the enforcement of these provisions. He may also expend any sums collected from owners of forest lands or received from any other source for necessary office and clerical expense in connection with the enforcement of RCW 76.04.370.

When land against which ~~((fire))~~ forest patrol assessments are outstanding is acquired for delinquent taxes and sold at public auction, the state shall have a prior lien on the proceeds of sale over and above the amount necessary to satisfy the county's delinquent tax judgment, and the county treasurer in case the proceeds of sale exceed the amount of the delinquent tax judgment shall forthwith remit to the supervisor of the department of natural resources the amount of the outstanding patrol assessments.

All public bodies owning or administering forest lands shall pay the forest patrol assessments provided in this section and the special forest fire suppression account assessments under RCW 76.04.515. The forest patrol assessments and special forest fire suppression account assessments shall be payable by public bodies from any available funds within thirty days following receipt of the written notice from the department which is given after October 1st of the year in which the protection was provided. Unpaid assessments shall not be a lien against the publicly owned land but shall constitute a debt by the public body to the department and shall be subject to interest charges in the same amount as other unpaid forest patrol assessments.

A public body, having failed to previously pay forest patrol assessments required of it by this section, which fails to suppress a fire on or originating from forest lands owned or administered by it shall be liable for the costs of suppression incurred by the department or its agent and shall not be entitled to reimbursement of any costs incurred by the public body in the suppression activities.

The supervisor of the department of natural resources shall furnish ~~((a good and sufficient))~~ the surety company bond ~~((running to the state, in a sum as great as the probable amount of money annually coming into his hands under the provisions of this chapter))~~ under RCW 43.30.170(6), conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and for a faithful accounting for all sums received and expended thereunder, which bond shall be approved by the attorney general.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 58, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 1, chapter 207, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 76.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The department or agency incurring such expense shall have a lien for the same against any property of said person, firm, or corporation liable as above provided by filing a claim of lien naming said person, firm, or corporation describing the property against which the lien is claimed, specifying the amount expended on the lands on which the fire fighting took place and the period during which the expenses were incurred, and signed by the claimant with post office address. No claim of lien shall be valid unless filed with the county auditor of the county in which the property sought to be charged is located within a period of ninety days after the expenses of the claimant were incurred. [Substitute House Bill No. 267]

HIGHWAYS—ACQUISITION OF PUBLIC LANDS FOR HIGHWAY ETC., PURPOSES

AN ACT Relating to public lands; amending section 47.56.100, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.100; adding new sections to chapter 47.12 RCW; repealing section 47.12.020 chapter 13, Laws of 1961, section 1, chapter 156, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.020; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 47.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in sections 2 and 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, whenever it is necessary to secure any lands or interests in lands for any highway purpose mentioned in RCW 47.12.010, or for the construction of any toll facility or ferry terminal or docking facility, the title to which is in the state of Washington and under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources, the department of highways may acquire jurisdiction over such lands or interests in lands, or acquire rights to remove materials from such lands in the manner set forth in this section.

(2) At any time after the final adoption of a right of way plan or other plan requiring the acquisition of lands or interests in lands for any purpose as authorized in subsection (1) of this section, the department of highways may file with the department of natural resources a notice setting forth its intent to acquire jurisdiction of the lands or interests in lands under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources required for right of way or other highway purposes related to the construction or improvement of such state highway, toll facility, or ferry terminal or docking facility.

(3) The department of highways at the time of filing its notice of intent as provided in subsection (2) of this section shall file therewith a written statement showing the total amount of just compensation to be paid for the property in the event of settlement. Such offer shall be based upon the department of highways approved appraisal of the fair market value of the property to be acquired. In no event may such offer of settlement be referred to or used during any arbitration proceeding or trial conducted for the purpose of determining the amount of just compensation.

(4) Just compensation and/or fair market value for the purposes of this section shall be determined in accordance with applicable federal and state constitutional, statutory, and case law relating to the condemnation of private and public property for public purposes.

(5) In the event the department of natural resources does not accept the offer of the department of highways, the department of highways may nonetheless pay to the department of natural resources the amount of its offer and obtain immediate possession and use of the property pending the determination of just compensation in the manner hereinafter provided.

(6) If the amount of just compensation is not agreed to, either the department of natural resources or the department of highways may request in writing the appointment of an arbitrator for the purpose of determining the amount of compensation to be paid by the department of highways for the acquisition of jurisdiction over such lands or interests in lands or rights therein. In such event the department of natural resources and the department of highways may jointly agree on an arbitrator to determine such compensation and his determination shall be final and conclusive upon both departments. The costs of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the parties. If the department of natural resources and the department of highways are unable to agree on the selection of an arbitrator within thirty days after a request therefor is made, either the department of highways or the department of natural resources may file a petition with the superior court for Thurston county for the purpose of determining the amount of just compensation to be paid.

The matter shall be tried by the court pursuant to the procedures set forth in RCW 8.04.080.

(7) Whenever the department of highways shall have acquired immediate possession and use of property by payment of the amount of its offer to the department of natural resources, and the arbitration award or judgment of the court for such acquisition exceeds the payment for immediate possession and use, the department of highways shall forthwith pay the amount of such excess to the department of natural resources with interest thereon from the date it obtained immediate possession. In the event the arbitration or court award is less than the amount previously paid by the department of highways for immediate possession and use, the department of natural resources shall forthwith pay the amount of the difference to the department of highways.

(8) Upon the payment of just compensation, as agreed to by the department of highways and the department of natural resources, or as determined by arbitration or by judgment of the court, and other costs or fees as provided by statute, the department of natural resources shall cause to be executed and delivered to the department of highways an instrument transferring jurisdiction over such lands or interests in lands, or rights to remove material from such lands, to the department of highways.

(9) Except as provided in section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, whenever the department of highways shall cease to use any lands or interests in lands acquired in the manner set forth in this section for the purposes mentioned herein, the department of natural resources may reacquire jurisdiction over such lands or interests in land by paying the fair market value thereof to the department of highways. In the event the two departments are unable to agree on the fair market value of such lands or interests in lands, such market value shall be determined and the interests therein shall be transferred in accordance with the provisions and procedures set forth in subsections (4) through (8) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 47.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The department of highways may acquire an easement for highway or toll facilities right of way or for ferry terminal or docking facilities, including the right to make necessary fills, on, over, or across the beds of navigable waters which are under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources, in accordance with the provisions of section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act, except that no charge shall be made to the department of highways for such an easement.

(2) The department of highways may obtain an easement for highway or toll facilities purposes or for ferry terminal or docking facilities on, over, or across harbor areas in accordance with the provisions of section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act but only when such areas are approved by the harbor line commission as a public place for public landings, wharves, or other public conveniences of commerce or navigation. No charge shall be made to the department of highways for such an easement.

(3) Upon the selection by the department of highways of an easement for highway or toll facilities right of way or for ferry terminal or docking facilities, as authorized in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the department of natural resources shall cause to be executed and delivered to the department of highways an instrument transferring such easement. Whenever the state shall no longer require such easement for highway or toll facilities right of way or for ferry terminal or docking facilities, the easement shall automatically terminate and the department of highways shall, upon request, cause to be executed an instrument relinquishing to the department of natural resources all of its interest in such lands.

(4) The department of highways, pursuant to the procedures set forth in section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act, may remove sand and gravel and borrow materials and stone from the beds of navigable waters under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources which lie below the line of ordinary high water upon the payment of fair market value per cubic yard for such materials to be determined in the manner set forth in section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(5) The department of highways may acquire full jurisdiction over lands under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources including the beds of navigable waters which are required for the relocation of the operating tracks of any railroad which will be displaced by the acquisition of such railroad property for state highway purposes. The department of highways may exchange lands so acquired in consideration or partial consideration for the land or property rights needed for highway purposes and may cause to be executed a conveyance of such lands in the manner prescribed in RCW 47.12.150. In such event the department of highways shall pay to the department of natural resources, as just compensation for such acquisition, the fair market value of such property, including the beds of any navigable waters, to be determined in accordance with procedures set forth in section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 47.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of highways shall not acquire jurisdiction of any lands or interest in lands under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources for any of the purposes set forth in RCW 47.12.150, 47.12.160, 47.12.180, 47.12.250, and 47.12.270.

Sec. 4. Section 47.56.100, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The right of way is hereby given, dedicated and set apart upon which to locate, construct and maintain bridges or approaches thereto or other highway crossings, and transportation facilities thereof or thereto, through, over or across any ~~((of the lands which are now or may be the property of this))~~ state~~((,-including))~~ highways, and through, over or across the streets, alleys, lanes and roads within any city, county, or other political subdivision of the state. If any property belonging to any city, county or other political subdivision of the state is required to be taken for the construction of any such bridge or approach thereto or should any such property be injured or damaged by such construction, such compensation therefor as may be proper or necessary and as shall be agreed upon may be paid by the Washington toll bridge authority to the particular county, city, or other political subdivision of the state owning such property, or condemnation proceedings may be brought for the determination of such compensation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 47.12.020, chapter 13, Laws of 1961, section 1, chapter 156, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.020 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 106

[Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2104]

FISHING VESSELS—LICENSES AND PERMITS—LIMITATIONS

AN ACT Relating to fishing; amending section 2, chapter 184, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.455; amending section 12, chapter 184, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. (uncodified); adding a new chapter to Title 75 RCW; creating new sections; repealing section 10, chapter 184, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.485; providing expiration dates; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that the wise management and economic health of the state's salmon fishery are of continued importance to the people of the state and to the economy of the state as a whole. The legislature finds that charter boats licensed by the state for use by the state's charter boat fishing industry have increased in quantity. The legislature finds that limitations on the number of licensed charter boats will tend to improve the management of the charter boat fishery and the economic health of the charter boat industry. The state therefore must use its authority to regulate the number of licensed boats in use by the state's charter boat industry in a manner provided in this chapter so that management and economic health of the salmon fishery may be improved.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For the purposes of sections 1 through 6 of this act, the term "charter boat" shall refer only to those charter boats from which salmon are taken. On and after the effective date of this act, the department shall initiate a moratorium on the issuance of charter boat licenses by issuing such licenses only to those boats whose owners can prove by means of good and sufficient documentary evidence that the boat was licensed pursuant to RCW 75.28.095 between January 1, 1974, and January 1, 1977. No charter boat shall be entitled to more than one charter boat license.

Such boats shall be entitled to receive and renew the charter boat license for each year during the period from the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act through December 31, 1980. A charter boat license for which no application is made to the department or which is not renewed in any year automatically expires and shall not be renewed further.

Nothing herein shall be construed to be contrary to the provisions of Title 75 RCW or any rule promulgated thereunder. All such charter boat licenses shall be transferable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In addition to the charter boat licenses issued pursuant to section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, the department shall issue a charter boat license to any charter boat which was under construction or purchased in good faith between April 16, 1976, and the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. On and after the effective date of this act, the department, in cooperation with representatives of the charter boat industry, shall continually evaluate the provisions of sections 1, 2, and 3 of this 1977 amendatory act and recommend to the legislature prior to January 1, 1980, a phase II approach to regulate gear entry into this state's charter boat fishery.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The director shall appoint a three member advisory board of review to hear cases as provided in section 6 of this 1977 amendatory act. The members of such review board shall be nominated by the charter boat fishing industry, shall serve without pay, and shall serve at the discretion of the director of the department of fisheries. The members of such review board shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. The director may promulgate rules concerning the operation of such review boards in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the department made pursuant to the terms of this chapter may voluntarily request that a board of review be impaneled to hear such person's case.

The board of review may make such other recommendations and determinations as are consistent with the terms of this chapter.

Hearings before review boards shall be informal, the rules of evidence shall not be applicable to the proceedings, and the records shall be kept thereof as provided by chapter 34.04 RCW. After the presentation of a case each review board shall inform the director and the initiating party in writing concerning whether or not the review board recommends that the charter boat license be issued and the reason for such recommendation. Upon receipt of the review board's findings the director may order such relief as the director deems appropriate under the circumstances.

Nothing in this section shall be construed: (1) To impair an aggrieved person's right to proceed under chapter 34.04 RCW; or (2) to impose any liability on members of a review board for their action pursuant to this section.

Sec. 7. Section 2, chapter 184, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.455 are each amended to read as follows:

On and after May 6, 1974, the department of fisheries of the state of Washington shall initiate a program to limit the number of commercial salmon vessels for each type of fishing gear and area by issuing licenses and vessel delivery permits to fish for salmon only to those vessels holding such licenses or permits in any year between January 1, 1970 and May 6, 1974: PROVIDED, That only those vessels which held commercial gear fishing licenses or vessel delivery permits valid for salmon during such period and can prove by means of a valid fish receiving document that salmon were caught and landed during such period shall be entitled to a valid commercial fishing license or vessel delivery permit to fish for or possess salmon for the same type of gear and area for each year of a period extending from January 1, 1975 through December 31, ~~((1977))~~ 1980: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall be construed to be contrary to the provisions of Title 75 RCW or any regulation promulgated thereunder. All such licenses or vessel delivery permits shall be transferable : PROVIDED, That in order to qualify for licenses in calendar years 1979 and 1980, a vessel must prove by means of a valid fish receiving document that food fish were caught and landed by such vessel in this state or in another state during the previous calendar year, or during the last calendar year in which the vessel was legally eligible for licenses if the vessel's licenses were suspended or revoked during the calendar year or years previous to the year for which the licenses are being sought.

Sec. 8. Section 12, chapter 184, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

~~((The provisions of sections 1 through 9 of this act shall expire on December 31, 1977, and shall be null and void and without any further force and effect on such date without any further action by the legislature.))~~ The provisions of RCW 75.28.450, 75.28.455 as now or hereafter amended, RCW 75.28.460, 75.28.465, 75.28.470, 75.28.475, and 75.28.480 shall automatically expire on December 31, 1980, unless such expiration date be removed or extended by subsequent action of the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 184, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.485 are each hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The provisions of sections 1 through 6 of this 1977 amendatory act shall expire on December 31, 1980, and shall be null and void and without any further force and effect on such date without any further action by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 6 of this 1977 amendatory act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 75 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 109

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2200]

DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES—PROPERTY TRANSACTIONS— RESOURCE MANAGEMENT LAND BANK

AN ACT Relating to public lands; and adding a new chapter to Title 79 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that from time to time it may be desirable for the department of natural resources to sell state lands which have low potential for natural resource management or low income-generating potential or which, because of geographic location or other factors, are inefficient for the department to manage. However, it is also important to acquire lands to replace those sold so that the publicly owned land base will not be depleted. The purpose of this chapter is to provide a means to facilitate such sales and purchases.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The department of natural resources, with the approval of the board of natural resources, is authorized to purchase property at fair market value to be held in a resource management land bank, which is hereby created within the department. Property so purchased shall be property which would be desirable for addition to the public lands of the state because of the natural resource production potential of the property. The total acreage held in the resource management land bank shall not exceed one thousand acres.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department of natural resources, with the approval of the board of natural resources, is authorized to:

(1) Exchange property held in the resource management land bank for any other public lands of equal value administered by the department of natural resources, including any lands held in trust.

(2) Exchange property held in the resource management land bank for property of equal or greater value which is owned publicly or privately, and which has greater natural resource production potential or which could be more easily managed by the department, however, no power of eminent domain is hereby granted to the department; and

(3) Sell property held in the resource management land bank in the manner provided by law for the sale of state lands without any requirement of platting and to use the proceeds to acquire property for the land bank which has greater natural resource production potential or which would be more easily managed by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. All employees of the secretary of state, who exclusively or principally perform functions relating to the Uniform Commercial Code, and all funds relative to their functions, shall be transferred to the department of motor vehicles of the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act.

Sec. 6. Section 9-302, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 114, Laws of 1967 and RCW 62A.9-302 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A financing statement must be filed to perfect all security interests except the following:

(a) a security interest in collateral in possession of the secured party under RCW 62A.9-305;

(b) a security interest temporarily perfected in instruments or documents without delivery under RCW 62A.9-304 or in proceeds for a ten day period under RCW 62A.9-306;

(c) a purchase money security interest in farm equipment having a purchase price not in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars; but filing is required for a fixture under RCW 62A.9-313 or for a motor vehicle required to be licensed;

(d) a purchase money security interest in consumer goods; but filing is required for a fixture under RCW 62A.9-313 or for a motor vehicle required to be licensed;

(e) an assignment of accounts or contract rights which does not alone or in conjunction with other assignments to the same assignee transfer a significant part of the outstanding accounts or contract rights of the assignor;

(f) a security interest of a collecting bank (RCW 62A.4-208) or arising under the Article on Sales (RCW 62A.9-113) or covered in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) If a secured party assigns a perfected security interest, no filing under this Article is required in order to continue the perfected status of the security interest against creditors of and transferees from the original debtor.

(3) The filing provisions of this Article do not apply to a security interest in property subject to a statute

(a) of the United States which provides for a national registration or filing of all security interests in such property; or

(b) of this state which provides for central filing of, or which requires indication on a certificate of title of, such security interests in such property.

(4) A security interest in property covered by a statute described in subsection (3) can be perfected only by registration or filing under that statute or by indication of the security interest on a certificate of title or a duplicate thereof by a public official.

(5) Part 4 of this Article does not apply to a security interest in property of any description created by a deed of trust or mortgage made by any corporation primarily engaged in the railroad or street railway business, the furnishing of telephone or telegraph service, the transmission of oil, gas or petroleum products by pipe line, or the production, transmission or distribution of electricity, steam, gas or water, but such security interest may be perfected under this Article by filing such deed of trust or mortgage (~~in the office of the secretary of state~~) with the department of motor vehicles. When so filed, such instrument shall remain effective until terminated, without the need for filing a continuation statement. Assignments and releases of such instruments may also be filed (~~in the office of the secretary of~~ state)) with the department of motor vehicles. The ~~((secretary of state))~~ director of motor vehicles shall be a filing officer for the foregoing purposes, and the uniform fee for filing, indexing, and furnishing filing data pursuant to this subsection shall be five dollars.

Sec. 7. Section 9-401, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 62A.9-401 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest is as follows:

(a) when the collateral is equipment used in farming operations, or farm products, or accounts, contract rights or general intangibles arising from or relating to the sale of farm products by a farmer, or consumer goods, then in the office of the auditor in the county of the debtor's residence or if the debtor is not a resident of this state then in the office of the auditor in the county where the goods are kept, and in addition when the collateral is crops in the office of the auditor in the county where the land on which the crops are growing or to be grown is located;

(b) when the collateral is goods which at the time the security interest attaches are or are to become fixtures, then in the office where a mortgage on the real estate concerned would be filed or recorded;

(c) in all other cases, ~~((in the office of the secretary of state))~~ with the department of motor vehicles.

(2) A filing which is made in good faith in an improper place or not in all of the places required by this section is nevertheless effective with regard to any collateral as to which the filing complied with the requirements of this Article and is also effective with regard to collateral covered by the financing statement against any person who has knowledge of the contents of such financing statement.

(3) A filing which is made in the proper place in this state continues effective even though the debtor's residence or place of business or the location of the collateral or its use, whichever controlled the original filing, is thereafter changed.

(4) If collateral is brought into this state from another jurisdiction, the rules stated in RCW 62A.9-103 determine whether filing is necessary in this state.

Sec. 8. Section 9-403, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 114, Laws of 1967 and RCW 62A.9-403 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Presentation for filing of a financing statement and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the statement by the filing officer constitutes filing under this Article.

(2) A filed financing statement which states a maturity date of the obligation secured of five years or less is effective until such maturity date and thereafter for a period of sixty days. Any other filed financing statement is effective for a period of five years from the date of filing. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of such sixty day period after a stated maturity date or on the expiration of such five year period, as the case may be, unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse. Upon such lapse the security interest becomes unperfected. A filed financing statement which states that the obligation secured is payable on demand is effective for five years from the date of filing.

(3) A continuation statement may be filed by the secured party (i) within six months before and sixty days after a stated maturity date of five years or less, and

(ii) otherwise within six months prior to the expiration of the five year period specified in subsection (2). Any such continuation statement must be signed by the secured party, identify the original statement by file number and state that the original statement is still effective. Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original statement is continued for five years after the last date to which the filing was effective whereupon it lapses in the same manner as provided in subsection (2) unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original statement. Unless a statute on disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing officer may remove a lapsed statement from the files and destroy it.

(4) A filing officer shall mark each statement with a consecutive file number and with the date and hour of filing and shall hold the statement for public inspection. In addition the filing officer shall index the statements according to the name of the debtor and shall note in the index the file number and the address of the debtor given in the statement.

(5) The uniform fee for filing, indexing, and furnishing filing data for an original or a continuation statement on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the ~~((secretary of state))~~ department of motor vehicles shall be three dollars, but if the form of the statement does not conform to the standards prescribed by the ~~((secretary of state))~~ department the uniform fee shall be five dollars.

Sec. 9. Section 9-404, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 114, Laws of 1967 and RCW 62A.9-404 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party must on written demand by the debtor send the debtor a statement that he no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. A termination statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must include or be accompanied by the assignment or a statement by the secured party of record that he has assigned the security interest to the signer of the termination statement. The uniform fee for filing and indexing such an assignment or statement thereof on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the ~~((secretary of state))~~ department of motor vehicles shall be one dollar, but if the form of the statement does not conform to the standards prescribed by the ~~((secretary of state))~~ department the uniform fee shall be two dollars. If the affected secured party fails to send such a termination statement within ten days after proper demand therefor he shall be liable to the debtor for one hundred dollars, and in addition for any loss caused to the debtor by such failure.

(2) On presentation to the filing officer of such a termination statement he must note it in the index. The filing officer shall remove from the files, mark "terminated" and send or deliver to the secured party the financing statement and any continuation statement, statement of assignment or statement of release pertaining thereto.

(3) There shall be no fee for filing and indexing a termination statement including sending or delivering the financing statement.

Sec. 10. Section 9-405, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 114, Laws of 1967 and RCW 62A.9-405 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A financing statement may disclose an assignment of a security interest in the collateral described in the statement by indication in the statement of the name and address of the assignee or by an assignment itself or a copy thereof on the face or back of the statement. Either the original secured party or the assignee may sign this statement as the secured party. On presentation to the filing officer of such a financing statement, the filing officer shall mark, hold, and index the same as provided in RCW 62A.9-403(4), and shall note the assignment on the index of the financing statement. The uniform fee for filing, indexing, and furnishing filing data for a financing statement so indicating an assignment on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the ~~((secretary of state))~~ department of motor vehicles shall be three dollars, but if the form of the financing statement does not conform to the standards prescribed by the ~~((secretary of state))~~ department the uniform fee shall be five dollars.

(2) A secured party may assign of record all or a part of his rights under a financing statement by the filing of a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and setting forth the name of the secured party of record and the debtor, the file number and the date of filing of the financing statement and the name and address of the assignee and containing a description of the collateral assigned. A copy of the assignment is sufficient as a separate statement if it complies with the preceding sentence. On presentation to the filing officer of such a separate statement, the filing officer shall mark such separate statement with the date and hour of the filing. He shall note the assignment on the index of the financing statement. The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data about such a separate statement of assignment on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the ~~((secretary of state))~~ department shall be one dollar, but if the form of the financing statement does not conform to the standards prescribed by the ~~((secretary of state))~~ department the uniform fee shall be two dollars.

(3) After the disclosure or filing of an assignment under this section, the assignee is the secured party of record.

Sec. 11. Section 9-406, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 114, Laws of 1967 and RCW 62A.9-406 are each amended to read as follows:

A secured party of record may by his signed statement release all or a part of any collateral described in a filed financing statement. The statement of release is sufficient if it contains a description of the collateral being released, the name and address of the debtor, the name and address of the secured party, and the file number of the financing statement. Upon presentation of such a statement to the filing officer he shall mark the statement with the hour and date of filing and shall note the same upon the margin of the index of the filing of the financing statement. The uniform fee for filing and noting such a statement of release on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the ~~((secretary of state))~~ department of motor vehicles shall be one dollar, but if the form of the statement does not conform to the standards prescribed by the (~~secretary of state~~) department the uniform fee shall be two dollars.

Sec. 12. Section 12, chapter 114, Laws of 1967 and RCW 62A.9-409 are each amended to read as follows:

In relation to Article 62A.9 RCW:

(1) The (~~secretary of state~~) department of motor vehicles may by rule prescribe standard filing forms and uniform procedures for filing with, and obtaining information from, filing officers.

(2) Unless a filing officer has filed with the secretary of state on or before June 1, 1967, his certificate that financing statements, as defined in RCW 62A.9-402, will not be accepted by him for filing on and after June 12, 1967, such filing officer shall accept such financing statements for filing on and after June 12, 1967. Financing statements so filed shall be received, marked, indexed, and filed as provided in chapter 157, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session. The filing fees for filing such statements shall be as provided in chapter 157, Laws of 1965 extraordinary session, as amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1977.

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2619]

IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—LOCAL IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS—BONDS

AN ACT Relating to irrigation; amending section 15, page 679, Laws of 1889–90 as last amended by section 95, chapter 56, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 87.03.200; amending section 12, chapter 162, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 2, chapter 70, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 87.03.490; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 15, page 679, Laws of 1889–90 as last amended by section 95, chapter 56, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 87.03.200 are each amended to read as follows:

At such election shall be submitted to the electors of said district possessing the qualifications prescribed by law the question of whether or not the bonds of said district in the amount and of the maturities determined by the board of directors shall be issued. Bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be serial bonds payable in legal currency of the United States in such series and amounts as shall be determined and declared by the board of directors in the resolution calling the election: PROVIDED, That the first series shall mature not later than ten years and the last series not later than forty years from the date thereof: PROVIDED FURTHER, That bonds, authorized by a special election held in the district under the provisions of a former statute, which has subsequent to said authorization been amended, but not issued prior to the amendment of said former statute, may be issued in the form provided in said former statute, and any such bonds heretofore or hereafter so issued and sold are hereby confirmed and validated.

Notice of such bond election must be given by publication of such notice in some newspaper published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, once a week for at least two weeks (three times). Such notices must specify the time of holding the election, and the amount and maturities of bonds proposed to be issued; and said election must be held and the results thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions of law governing the election of the district officers: PROVIDED, That no informality in conducting such election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such election the ballots shall contain the words "Bonds Yes" and "Bonds No," or words equivalent thereto. If a majority of the votes cast are cast "Bonds Yes," the board of directors shall thereupon have authority to cause bonds in said amount and maturities to be issued. If the majority of the votes cast at any bond election are "Bonds No," the result of such election shall be so declared and entered of record; but if contract is made or is to be made with the United States as in RCW 87.03-.140 provided, and bonds are not to be deposited with the United States in connection with such contract, the question submitted at such special election shall be whether contract shall be entered into with the United States. The notice of election shall state under the terms of what act or acts of congress contract is proposed to be made, and the maximum amount of money payable to the United States for construction purposes exclusive of penalties and interest. The ballots for such election shall contain the words "Contract with the United States Yes" and "Contract with the United States No," or words equivalent thereto. And whenever thereafter said board, in its judgment, deems it for the best interest of the district that the question of issuance of bonds for said amount, or any amount, or the question of entering into a contract with the United States, shall be submitted to said electors, it shall so declare, by resolution recorded in its minutes, and may thereupon submit such question to said electors in the same manner and with like effect as at such previous election. All bonds issued under this act shall bear interest at such rate or rates as the board of directors may determine, payable semiannually on the first day of January and of July of each year. The principal and interest shall be payable at the office of the county treasurer of the county in which the office of the board of directors is situated, or if the board of directors shall so determine at the fiscal agency of the state of Washington in New York City, said place of payment to be designated in the bond. The bonds may be in such denominations as the board of directors may in its discretion determine, except that bonds other than bond number one of any issue shall be in a denomination that is a multiple of one hundred dollars. Said bonds shall be ~~((each of the denomination of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, shall be))~~ negotiable in form, signed by the president and secretary, and the seal of the district shall be affixed thereto. The county treasurer shall register said bonds before the issuance thereof in a book kept for that purpose, and shall certify on each thereof under his seal that it has been so registered ~~((, and that the signatures thereon are the genuine signatures of the president and secretary respectively and that the seal attached is the seal of the district))~~. The printed, engraved, or lithographed facsimile signatures of the president and secretary of the district's board of directors and the county treasurer shall be sufficient signatures on the bonds or coupons: PROVIDED, That such facsimile signatures on the bonds may be used only after the filing, by the officer whose facsimile signature is to be used, with the secretary of state of his manual signature certified by him under oath, whereupon that officer's facsimile signature has the same legal effect as his manual signature: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That either the president of the board of directors' or the secretary's signature on the bonds shall be manually subscribed: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That whenever such facsimile reproduction of the signature of any officer is used in place of the manual signature of such officer, the district's board of directors shall specify in a written order or requisition to the printer, engraver, or lithographer the number of bonds or coupons upon which such facsimile signature is to be printed, engraved, or lithographed and the manner of numbering the bonds or coupons upon which such signature shall be placed. Within ninety days after the completion of the printing, engraving, or lithographing of such bonds or coupons, the plate or plates used for the purpose of affixing the facsimile signature shall be destroyed, and it shall be the duty of the district's board of directors, within ninety days after receipt of the completed bonds or coupons, to ascertain that such plate or plates have been destroyed. Every printer, engraver, or lithographer who, with the intent to defraud, prints, engraves, or lithographs a facsimile signature upon any bond or coupon without written order of the district's board of directors, or fails to destroy such plate or plates containing the facsimile signature upon direction of such issuing authority, shall be guilty of felony.

Whenever the electors shall vote to authorize the issuance of bonds of the district such authorization shall nullify and cancel all unsold bonds previously authorized, and if the question is submitted to and carried by the electors at the bond election, any bond issue may be exchanged in whole or in part, at par, for any or all of a valid outstanding bond issue of the district when mutually agreeable to the owner or owners thereof and the district, and the amount of said last bond issue in excess, if any, of that required for exchange purposes, may be sold as in the case of an original issue. The bonds of any issue authorized to be exchanged in whole or in part for outstanding bonds shall state on their face the amount of such issue so exchanged, and shall contain a certificate of the treasurer of the district as to the amount of the bonds exchanged, and that said outstanding bonds have been surrendered and canceled: PROVIDED FURTHER, That where bonds have been authorized and unsold, the board of directors may submit to the qualified voters of the district the question of canceling said previous authorization, which question shall be submitted upon the same notice and under the same regulations as govern the submission of the original question of authorizing a bond issue. At such election the ballots shall contain the words "Cancellation Yes," and "Cancellation No," or words equivalent thereto. If at such election a majority of the votes shall be "Cancellation Yes," the said issue shall be thereby canceled and no bonds may be issued thereunder. If the majority of said ballots shall be "Cancellation No," said original authorization shall continue in force with like effect as though said cancellation election had not been held: PROVIDED, That bonds deposited with the United States in payment or in pledge may call for the payment of such interest at such rate or rates, may be of such denominations, and call for the repayment of the principal at such times as may be agreed upon between the board and the secretary of the interior.

Each issue shall be numbered consecutively as issued, and the bonds of each issue shall be numbered consecutively and bear date at the time of their issue. Coupons for the interest shall be attached to each bond, signed by the president of the board and the secretary. The signatures of the president and secretary may, however, appear by ((~~lithographic~~)) printed, engraved or lithographed facsimile. Said bonds shall express upon their face that they were issued by authority of this act, stating its title and date of approval, and shall also state the number of issue of which such bonds are a part. The secretary shall keep a record of bonds sold, their number, the date of sale, the price received and the name of the purchaser. In case the money received by the sale of all bonds issued be insufficient for the completion of plans of the canals and works adopted, and additional bonds be not voted, or a contract calling for additional payment to the United States be not authorized and made, as the case may be, it shall be the duty of the board of directors to provide for the completion of said plans by levy of assessments therefor. It shall be lawful for any irrigation districts which have heretofore issued and sold bonds under the law then in force, to issue in place thereof an amount of bonds not in excess of such previous issue, and to sell the same, or any part thereof, as hereinafter provided, or exchange the same, or any part thereof, with the holders of such previously issued bonds which may be outstanding, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the board of directors of the district and the holders of such outstanding bonds: PROVIDED, That the question of such reissue of bonds shall have been previously voted upon favorably by the legally qualified electors of such district, in the same manner as required for the issue of original bonds, and the said board shall not exchange any such bonds for a less amount in par value of the bonds received; all of such old issue in place of which new bonds are issued shall be destroyed whenever lawfully in possession of said board. Bonds issued under the provisions of this section may, when so authorized by the electors, include a sum sufficient to pay the interest thereon for a period not exceeding the first four years. Whenever an issue of bonds shall have been authorized pursuant to law, and any of the earlier series shall have been sold, and the later series, or a portion thereof, remain unsold, the directors may sell such later series pursuant to law, or such portion thereof as shall be necessary to pay the earlier series, or said directors may exchange said later series for the earlier series at not less than the par value thereof, said sale or exchange to be made not more than six months before the maturity of said earlier series and upon said exchange being made the maturing bonds shall be disposed of as hereinbefore provided in the case of bonds authorized to be exchanged in whole or in part for outstanding bonds.

Sec. 2. Section 12, chapter 162, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 2, chapter 70, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 87.03.490 are each amended to read as follows:

If decision shall be rendered in favor of the improvement, the board shall enter an order establishing the boundaries of the said improvement district and shall adopt plans for the proposed improvement and determine the number of annual installments not exceeding fifty in which the cost of said improvement shall be paid. The cost of said improvement shall be provided for by the issuance of local improvement district coupon bonds of the district from time to time, therefor, either directly for the payment of the labor and material or for the securing of funds for such purpose, or by the irrigation district entering into a contract with the United States or the state of Washington, or both, to repay the cost of said improvement. Said bonds shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed eight percent per annum, payable semiannually, evidenced by coupons, and shall state upon their face that they are issued as bonds of the irrigation district; that all lands within said local improvement district shall be primarily liable to assessment for the principal and interest of said bonds and that said bonds are also a general obligation of the said district. (~~No bonds shall be issued in denomination exceeding one thousand dollars~~) The bonds may be in such denominations as the board of directors may in its discretion determine, except that bonds other than bond number one of any issue shall be in a denomination that is a multiple of one hundred dollars, and no bond shall be sold for less than par. Any contract entered into for said local improvement by the district with the United States or the state of Washington, or both although all the lands within said local improvement district shall be primarily liable to assessment for the principal and interest thereon, shall be a general obligation of the irrigation district.

No election shall be necessary to authorize the issuance of such local improvement bonds or the entering into of such a contract. Such bonds, when issued, shall be signed by the president and secretary of the irrigation district with the seal of said district affixed and shall be registered by the treasurer of the irrigation district with his seal affixed. The printed, engraved, or lithographed facsimile signatures of the president and secretary of the district's board of directors shall be sufficient signatures on the bonds or coupons: PROVIDED, That such facsimile signatures on the bonds may be used only after the filing, by the officer whose facsimile signature is to be used, with the secretary of state of his manual signature certified by him under oath, whereupon that officer's facsimile signature has the same legal effect as his manual signature: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That either the president of the board of directors' or the secretary's signature on the bonds shall be manually subscribed: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That whenever such facsimile reproduction of the signature of any officer is used in place of the manual signature of such officer, the district's board of directors shall specify in a written order or requisition to the printer, engraver, or lithographer the number of bonds or coupons upon which such facsimile signature is to be printed, engraved, or lithographed and the manner of numbering the bonds or coupons upon which such signature shall be placed. Within ninety days after the completion of the printing, engraving, or lithographing of such bonds or coupons, the plate or plates used for the purpose of affixing the facsimile signature shall be destroyed, and it shall be the duty of the district's board of directors, within ninety days after receipt of the completed bonds or coupons, to ascertain that such plate or plates have been destroyed. Every printer, engraver, or lithographer who, with the intent to defraud, prints, engraves, or lithographs a facsimile signature upon any bond or coupon without written order of the district's board of directors, or fails to destroy such plate or plates containing the facsimile signature upon direction of such issuing authority, shall be guilty of felony.

The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited with the treasurer of the district, who shall place them in a special fund designated "Construction fund of local improvement district number ____."

Whenever such improvement district has been organized, the boundaries thereof may be enlarged to include other lands which can be served or will be benefited by the proposed improvement upon petition of the owners thereof and the consent of the United States or the state of Washington, or both, in the event the irrigation district has contracted with the United States or the state of Washington, or both, to repay the cost of the improvement: PROVIDED, That at such time the lands so included shall pay their equitable proportion upon the basis of benefits of the improvement theretofore made by the said local improvement district and shall be liable for the indebtedness of the said local improvement district in the same proportion and same manner and subject to assessment as if said lands had been incorporated in said improvement district at the beginning of its organization.

(f) To provide under the terms of any warranty that a purchaser of any new or unused vehicle that has been sold, distributed for sale, or transferred into this state for resale by the vehicle manufacturer that any warranty claim on any item included as an integral part of the vehicle may only be made against the manufacturer of that item.

(8) Nothing in this section shall be construed to impair the obligations of a contract or to prevent a manufacturer, distributor, representative or any other person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, from requiring performance of a written contract entered into with any licensee hereunder, nor shall the requirement of such performance constitute a violation of any of the provisions of this section: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, Any such contract, or the terms thereof, requiring performance, shall have been theretofore freely entered into and executed between the contracting parties.

[Senate Bill No. 2444]

ALCOHOLISM TREATMENT—INVOLUNTARY COMMITMENT—PETITION—VENUE

AN ACT Relating to involuntary commitment of alcoholics; and amending section 14, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 175, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 70.96A.140.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 14, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 175, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 70.96A.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the person in charge of a treatment facility, or his designee, receives information alleging that a person is incapacitated as a result of alcoholism, the person in charge, or his designee, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the information, may file a petition for commitment of such person with the superior court or district court. The petition shall allege that the person is an alcoholic who is incapacitated by alcohol, or that the person has twice before in the preceding twelve months been admitted for the voluntary treatment for alcoholism pursuant to RCW 70.96A.110 and is in need of a more sustained treatment program, or that the person is an alcoholic who has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm on another and is likely to inflict physical harm on another unless committed. A refusal to undergo treatment does not constitute evidence of lack of judgment as to the need for treatment. The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of a licensed physician who has examined the person within two days before submission of the petition, unless the person whose commitment is sought has refused to submit to a medical examination, in which case the fact of refusal shall be alleged in the petition. The certificate shall set forth the physician's findings in support of the allegations of the petition. A physician employed by the petitioning facility or the department is not eligible to be the certifying physician.

(2) Upon filing the petition, the court shall fix a date for a hearing no less than five and no more than ten days after the date the petition was filed unless the person petitioned against is presently being detained by the facility, pursuant to RCW 70.96A.120, as now or hereafter amended, in which case the hearing shall be held within forty-eight hours of the filing of the petition: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the above specified forty-eight hours shall be computed by including Saturdays but excluding Sundays and holidays: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought, or upon motion of petitioner with written permission of the person whose commitment is sought, or his counsel and, upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of the hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment facility on the person whose commitment is sought, his next of kin, a parent or his legal guardian if he is a minor, and any other person the court believes advisable. A copy of the petition and certificate shall be delivered to each person notified.

(3) At the hearing the court shall hear all relevant testimony, including, if possible, the testimony of at least one licensed physician who has examined the person whose commitment is sought. The person shall be present unless the court believes that his presence is likely to be injurious to him; in this event the court may deem it appropriate to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent him throughout the proceeding. If deemed advisable, the court may examine the person out of courtroom. If the person has refused to be examined by a licensed physician, he shall be given an opportunity to be examined by a court appointed licensed physician. If he refuses and there is sufficient evidence to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, or if the court believes that more medical evidence is necessary, the court may make a temporary order committing him to the department for a period of not more than five days for purposes of a diagnostic examination.

(4) If after hearing all relevant evidence, including the results of any diagnostic examination, the court finds that grounds for involuntary commitment have been established by clear, cogent, and convincing proof, it shall make an order of commitment to an approved treatment facility. It shall not order commitment of a person unless it determines that an approved treatment facility is able to provide adequate and appropriate treatment for him and the treatment is likely to be beneficial.

(5) A person committed under this section shall remain in the facility for treatment for a period of thirty days unless sooner discharged. At the end of the thirty day period, he shall be discharged automatically unless the facility, before expiration of the period, files a petition for his recommitment upon the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for a further period of ninety days unless sooner discharged. If a person has been committed because he is an alcoholic likely to inflict physical harm on another, the facility shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists.

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 2638]

ON-SITE SEWAGE DISPOSAL—ALTERNATIVE METHODS

AN ACT Relating to on-site sewage disposal systems; and creating a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that over one million, two hundred thousand persons in the state are not served by sanitary sewers and that they must rely on septic tank systems. The failure of large numbers of such systems has resulted in significant health hazards, loss of property values, and water quality degradation. The legislature further finds that failure of such systems could be reduced by utilization of nonwater-carried sewage disposal systems, or other alternative methods of effluent disposal, as a correctional measure. Waste water volume diminution and disposal of most of the high bacterial waste through composting or other alternative methods of effluent disposal would result in restorative improvement or correction of existing substandard systems.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, the terms defined in this section shall have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

(1) "Nonwater-carried sewage disposal devices" means any device that stores and treats nonwater-carried human urine and feces.

(2) "Alternative methods of effluent disposal" means systems approved by the department of social and health services, including at least, mound systems, alternating drain fields, anaerobic filters, evapotranspiration systems, and aerobic systems.

(3) "Failure" means: (a) Effluent has been discharged on the surface of the ground prior to approved treatment; or (b) effluent has percolated to the surface of the ground; or (c) effluent has contaminated or threatens to contaminate a ground water supply.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Local boards of health shall identify failing septic tank drainfield systems in the normal manner and will use reasonable effort to determine new failures. Discretionary judgment will be made in implementing corrections by specifying nonwater-carried sewage disposal devices or other alternative methods of treatment and effluent disposal as a measure of ameliorating existing substandard conditions. Local regulations shall be consistent with the intent and purposes stated herein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. With the advice of the secretary of the department of social and health services, local boards of health are hereby authorized to waive applicable sections of local plumbing and/or building codes that might prohibit the use of an alternative method for correcting a failure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 2 through 4 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

SIDEWALK RAMPS

AN ACT Relating to sidewalks; amending section 1, chapter 83, Laws of 1973 and RCW 35.68.075; adding a new section to chapter 35.68 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 83, Laws of 1973 and RCW 35.68.075 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The standard for construction of curbs on (~~((each side of))~~) any county, city, or town street, or any connecting street or town road for which curbs and sidewalks have been prescribed by the governing body of the county, town, or city having jurisdiction thereover, shall be not less than two ramps per lineal block on or near the crosswalks at intersections. Such ramps shall be at least thirty-six inches wide and so constructed as to allow reasonable access to the crosswalk for physically handicapped persons, without uniquely endangering blind persons.

(2) Standards set for curb ramping under subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to any curb existing upon enactment of this section but shall apply to all new curb construction and to all replacement curbs constructed at any point in a block which gives reasonable access to a crosswalk.

(3) Upon the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, every ramp thereafter constructed under subsection (1) of this section, which serves one end of a crosswalk, shall be matched by another ramp at the other end of the crosswalk. However, no ramp shall be required at the other end of the crosswalk if there is no curb nor sidewalk at the other end of the crosswalk. Nor shall any matching ramp constructed pursuant to this subsection require a subsequent matching ramp.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 35.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

By January 1, 1978, the department of general administration shall, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, adopt several suggested model design, construction, or location standards to aid counties, cities, and towns in constructing curb ramps to allow reasonable access to the crosswalk for physically handicapped persons without uniquely endangering blind persons. The department of general administration shall consult with handicapped persons, blind persons, counties, cities, and the building code advisory council in adopting the suggested standards. In addition, the department of general administration shall, within thirty days of the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act and pursuant to RCW 34.04.030, adopt a suggested design or construction standard for curb ramps which may be used by counties, cities, or towns to comply with section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act in the interval between the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act and the adoption of further suggested model standards.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

*Sec. 3. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the House May 4, 1977.

Passed the Senate May 23, 1977.

Approved by the Governor June 1, 1977, with the exception of section 3 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 1, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one section, Substitute House Bill No. 821 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to sidewalks; amending section 1, chapter 83, Laws of 1973 and RCW 35.68.075; adding a new section to chapter 35.68 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

Section 3 of the bill declares an emergency and provides for the act to take effect immediately. Under the Constitution, Article II, Sections 1(b) and 41, the use of an emergency clause should be restricted to those instances where the use is clearly warranted due to the urgency of the situation.

In this case, not only is the use of the clause unwarranted by the urgency of the situation, but the use also eliminates the adjustment period that would be helpful for affected units of local government. For these reasons, I have vetoed this section.

With the exception of section 3, which I have vetoed, the remainder of Substitute House Bill No. 821 is approved."

Section 1. Section 11, chapter 284, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.65.090 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motor vehicle in this state while the order of revocation remains in effect. Any person found to be an habitual offender under the provisions of this chapter who is thereafter convicted of operating a motor vehicle in this state while the order of the court prohibiting such operation is in effect shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor, the punishment for which shall be confinement in the county jail for not more than one year.

For the purpose of enforcing this section, in any case in which the accused is charged with driving a motor vehicle while his license, permit, or privilege to drive is suspended or revoked or is charged with driving without a license, the court before hearing such charge shall determine whether such person has been adjudged an habitual offender and by reason of such judgment is barred from operating a motor vehicle on the highways of this state. If the court determines the accused has been so adjudged (~~it shall transfer the case to the court of record making such determination~~), the court shall have jurisdiction for trial of the charge.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

PUBLIC WATER SYSTEM COORDINATION ACT OF 1977

AN ACT Relating to public water system coordination; and adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature hereby finds that an adequate supply of potable water for domestic, commercial, and industrial use is vital to the health and well-being of the people of the state. Readily available water for use in public water systems is limited and should be developed and used efficiently with a minimum of loss or waste.

In order to maximize efficient and effective development of the state's public water supply systems, the department of social and health services shall assist water purveyors by providing a procedure to coordinate the planning of the public water supply systems.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The purposes of this chapter are:

- (1) To provide for the establishment of critical water supply service areas related to water utility planning and development;
- (2) To provide for the development of minimum planning and design standards for critical water supply service areas to insure that water systems developed in these areas are consistent with regional needs;
- (3) To assist in the orderly and efficient administration of state financial assistance programs for public water systems; and
- (4) To assist public water systems to meet reasonable standards of quality, quantity and pressure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following terms when used in this chapter shall be defined as follows:

(1) "Coordinated water system plan" means a plan for public water systems within a critical water supply service area which identifies the present and future needs of the systems and sets forth means for meeting those needs in the most efficient manner possible. Such a plan shall include provisions for subsequently updating the plan. In areas where more than one water system exists, a coordinated plan may consist of either: (a) A new plan developed for the area following its designation as a critical water supply service area; or (b) a compilation of compatible water system plans existing at the time of such designation and containing such supplementary provisions as are necessary to satisfy the requirements of this chapter. Any such coordinated plan must include provisions regarding: Future service area designations; assessment of the feasibility of shared source, transmission, and storage facilities; emergency inter-ties; design standards; and other concerns related to the construction and operation of the water system facilities.

(2) "Critical water supply service area" means a geographical area which is characterized by a proliferation of small, inadequate water systems, or by water supply problems which threaten the present or future water quality or reliability of service in such a manner that efficient and orderly development may best be achieved through coordinated planning by the water utilities in the area.

(3) "Public water system" means any system providing water intended for, or used for, human consumption or other domestic uses. It includes, but is not limited to, the source, treatment for purifying purposes only, storage, transmission, pumping, and distribution facilities where water is furnished to any community, or number of individuals, or is made available to the public for human consumption or domestic use, but excluding water systems serving one single family residence. However, systems existing on the effective date of this act which are owner operated and serve less than ten single family residences or which serve only one industrial plant shall be excluded from this definition and the provisions of this chapter.

(4) "Purveyor" means any agency or subdivision of the state or any municipal corporation, firm, company, mutual or cooperative association, institution, partnership, or person or any other entity, that owns or operates for wholesale or retail service a public water system. It also means the authorized agents of any such entities.

(5) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services or the secretary's authorized representative.

(6) "Service area" means a specific geographical area serviced or for which service is planned by a purveyor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The secretary and the appropriate local planning agencies and purveyors, shall study geographical areas where water supply problems related to uncoordinated planning, inadequate water quality or unreliable service appear to exist. If the results of the study indicate that such water supply problems do exist, the secretary or the county legislative authority shall designate the area involved as being a critical water supply service area, consult with the appropriate local planning agencies and purveyors, and appoint a committee of not less than three representatives therefrom solely for the purpose of establishing the proposed external boundaries of the critical water supply service area. The committee shall include a representative from each purveyor serving more than fifty customers, the county legislative authority, county planning agency, and health agencies. Such proposed boundaries shall be established within six months of the appointment of the committee.

During the six month period following the establishment of the proposed external boundaries of the critical water supply services areas, the county legislative authority shall conduct public hearings on the proposed boundaries and shall modify or ratify the proposed boundaries in accordance with the findings of the public hearings. The boundaries shall reflect the existing land usage, and permitted densities in county plans, ordinances, and/or growth policies. If the proposed boundaries are not modified during the six month period, the proposed boundaries shall be automatically ratified and be the critical water supply service area.

After establishment of the external boundaries of the critical water supply service area, no new public water systems may be approved within the boundary area unless an existing water purveyor is unable to provide water service.

(2) At the time a critical water supply service area is established, the external boundaries for such area shall not include any fractional part of a purveyor's existing contiguous service area.

(3) The external boundaries of the critical water supply service area may be amended in accordance with procedures prescribed in subsection (1) of this section for the establishment of the critical water supply service areas when such amendment is necessary to accomplish the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Each purveyor within the boundaries of a critical water supply service area shall develop a water system plan for the purveyor's future service area if such a plan has not already been developed: PROVIDED, That nonmunicipally owned public water systems are exempt from the planning requirements of this act, except for the establishment of service area boundaries if they: (a) were in existence as of the effective date of this act; and (b) have no plans for water service beyond their existing service area, and (c) meet minimum quality and pressure design criteria established by the state board of health: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the county legislative authority permits a change in development that will increase the demand for water service of such a system beyond the existing system's ability to provide minimum water service, the purveyor shall develop a water system plan in accordance with this section. The establishment of future service area boundaries shall be in accordance with section 7 of this act.

(2) After the boundaries of a critical water supply service area have been established pursuant to section 4 of this act, the committee established in section 4 of this act shall participate in the development of a coordinated water system plan for the designated area. Such a plan shall incorporate all water system plans developed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. The plan shall provide for maximum integration and coordination of public water system facilities consistent with the protection and enhancement of the public health and well-being.

(3) Those portions of a critical water supply service area not yet served by a public water system shall have a coordinated water system plan developed by existing purveyors based upon permitted densities in county plans, ordinances, and/or growth policies for a minimum of five years beyond the date of establishment of the boundaries of the critical water supply service area.

(4) To insure that the plan incorporates the proper designs to protect public health, the secretary shall adopt regulations pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW concerning the scope and content of coordinated water system plans, and shall ensure, as minimum requirements, that such plans:

(a) Are reviewed by the appropriate local governmental agency to insure that the plan is not inconsistent with the land use plans, shoreline master programs, and/or developmental policies of the general purpose local government or governments whose jurisdiction the water system plan affects.

(b) Recognize all water resource plans, water quality plans, and water pollution control plans which have been adopted by units of local, regional, and state government.

(c) Incorporate the fire protection standards developed pursuant to section 8 of this act.

(d) Identify the future service area boundaries of the public water system or systems included in the plan within the critical water supply service area.

(e) Identify feasible emergency inter-ties between adjacent purveyors.

(5) If a "water general plan" for a critical water supply service area or portion thereof has been prepared pursuant to chapter 36.94 RCW and such a plan meets the requirements of subsections (1) and (4) of this section, such a plan shall constitute the coordinated water system plan for the applicable geographical area.

(6) Prior to the submission of a coordinated water system plan to the secretary for approval of the design of the proposed facilities pursuant to section 6 of this act, the plan shall be reviewed for consistency with subsection (4) of this section by the legislative authorities of the counties in which the critical water supply service area is located. If within sixty days of receipt of the plan, the legislative authorities find any segment of a proposed service area of a purveyor's plan or any segment of the coordinated water system plan to be inconsistent with any current land use plans, shoreline master programs, and/or developmental policies of the general purpose local government or governments whose jurisdiction the water system plan affects, the secretary shall not approve that portion of the plan until the inconsistency is resolved between the local government and the purveyor. If no comments have been received from the legislative authorities within sixty days of receipt of the plan, the secretary may consider the plan for approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) A coordinated water system plan shall be submitted to the secretary for design approval within two years of the establishment of the boundaries of a critical water supply service area.

(2) The secretary shall not approve those portions of a coordinated water system plan which fail to meet the requirements for future service area boundaries as set forth in section 7 of this act.

(3) Following the approval of a coordinated water system plan by the secretary:

(a) All purveyors constructing or proposing to construct public water system facilities within the area covered by the plan shall comply with the plan.

(b) No other purveyor shall establish a public water system within the area covered by the plan, unless the secretary determines that existing purveyors are unable to provide the service. If such a determination is made, the secretary may require the new public water system to be constructed in accordance with the construction standards and specifications embodied in the coordinated water system plan approved for the area.

(4) The secretary may deny proposals to establish or to expand any public water system within a critical water supply service area for which there is not an approved coordinated water system plan at any time after two years of the establishment of the critical water supply service area: PROVIDED, That service connections shall not be considered expansions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The service area boundaries of public water systems within the critical water supply service area shall be determined by written agreement among the purveyors and with the approval of the appropriate legislative authority. Failure of the legislative authority to file with the secretary objections to the proposed service area boundaries within sixty days of receipt of the proposed boundary agreement may be construed as approval of the agreement.

(2) If no service area boundary agreement has been established within a reasonable period of time, or if the legislative authority has filed with the secretary objections in writing as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the secretary shall hold a public hearing thereon. The secretary shall provide notice of the hearing by certified mail to each purveyor providing service in the critical water supply service area, to each county legislative authority having jurisdiction in the area and to the public. The secretary shall provide public notice pursuant to the provisions of chapter 65.16 RCW. Such notice shall be given at least twenty days prior to the hearing. The hearing may be continued from time to time and, at the termination thereof, the secretary may restrict the expansion of service of any purveyor within the area if the secretary finds such restriction is necessary to provide the greatest protection of the public health and well-being.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The secretary shall adopt performance standards relating to fire protection to be incorporated into the design and construction of public water systems. The standards shall be consistent with recognized national standards. The secretary shall adopt regulations pertaining to the application and enforcement of the standards: PROVIDED, That the regulations shall require the application of the standards for new and expanding systems only. The standards shall apply in critical water supply service areas unless the approved coordinated plan provides for nonfire flow systems.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The assumption of jurisdiction or control of any public water system or systems by a city, town, or code city, shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 35.13A RCW, and the provisions of this act shall be superseded by the provisions of chapter 35.13A RCW regarding such an assumption of jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Nothing in this chapter shall apply to water which is bottled or otherwise packaged in a container for human consumption or domestic use, or to the treatment, storage and transportation facilities used in the processing of the bottled water or the distribution of the bottles or containers of water.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to alter in any way the existing authority of purveyors and municipal corporations to establish, administer and apply water rates and rate provisions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Public Water System Coordination Act of 1977".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this chapter, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter to Title 70 RCW.

All harvesting permits shall expire at the end of the calendar year in which issued, or sooner, at the discretion of the permittor. ((The)) A properly completed harvesting permit form shall ((specify)) include:

- (1) The date of its execution and expiration((-));
- (2) The name ((and)), address, telephone number, if any, and signature of the permittor((-));
- (3) The name ((and)), address, telephone number, if any, and signature of the permittee((-));
- (4) The type of specialized forest products to be harvested or transported((-));
- (5) The approximate amount or volume of specialized forest products to be harvested or transported((-));
- (6) The legal description of the property from which the specialized forest products are to be harvested or transported, including the name of the county;
- (7) A description by local landmarks of where the harvesting is to occur, or from where the specialized forest products are to be transported;
- (8) Any other condition or limitation which the permittor may specify.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 47, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 76.48.060 are each amended to read as follows:

A harvesting permit ((from the owner, his agent or representative or the lessee of the land concerned)) validated by the county sheriff shall be obtained by ((the permittee)) any person prior to ((cutting, destroying, mutilating, prying, picking, peeling, breaking, or removing)) harvesting from any lands, including his own, more than five Christmas trees, more than five ornamental trees or shrubs, more than five pounds of cut or picked evergreen foliage ((or huckleberry, more than five split)), any cedar products, cedar salvage, processed cedar products, or more than five pounds of Cascara bark ((growing upon any land, including his own)). Harvesting permit forms shall be provided by the department of natural resources, and shall be made available through the office of the county sheriff to permittees or permittors in reasonable quantities. A harvesting permit form shall be completed, in triplicate, for each land ownership on which a permittee harvests specialized forest products((-, the original to be retained by)). A properly completed harvesting permit form shall be mailed or presented for validation to the sheriff of the county in which the specialized forest products are to be harvested. Before a permit form is validated by the sheriff or the sheriff's representative, sufficient personal identification may be required to reasonably identify the person mailing or presenting the permit form and the sheriff may conduct such other investigations as deemed necessary to determine the validity of the information alleged on the form. When the sheriff or sheriff's representative is reasonably satisfied as to the truth of such information, the form shall be validated with the sheriff's validation stamp provided by the department of natural resources. Upon validation, the form shall become the harvesting permit authorizing the harvesting, possession and/or transportation of specialized forest products. One copy of the permit shall be given or mailed to the permittee, ~~((the duplicate to))~~ one copy shall be ~~((retained by))~~ given or mailed to the permittor, and the ~~((triplicate to))~~ original permit form shall be filed ~~((by the permittee))~~ in the office of the county sheriff in whose county the land is situated: PROVIDED, That in the event a single land ownership is situated in two or more counties, a harvesting permit shall be completed as to the land situated in each such county. While engaged in harvesting of specialized forest products, permittees or their agents must have in their possession a true copy of the harvesting permit.

Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 47, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 76.48.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) Except while on federal lands, it shall be unlawful for any person (a) to possess and/or (b) to transport within the state of Washington any cedar products except processed cedar products, or any cedar salvage without having in his possession a harvesting permit or a true copy thereof evidencing his title to or authority to have possession of the materials being so possessed or so transported.

Sec. 7. Section 11, chapter 47, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 76.48.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of ~~((RCW 76.48.070, 76.48.080, and 76.48.090))~~ this chapter shall not apply to:

(1) ~~((The transportation of))~~ Nursery grown products.

(2) ~~((The transportation of))~~ Logs, poles, pilings, or other major forest products from which substantially all of the limbs and branches have been removed when harvested (a) under an approved forest practices application or notification, or (b) under a contract or permit issued by an agency of the United States government.

(3) The activities of a landowner, his agent, or representative, or of a lessee of land in carrying on noncommercial property management, maintenance, or improvements on or in connection with ~~((his land))~~ the land of such landowner or lessee.

Sec. 8. Section 12, chapter 47, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 76.48.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any law enforcement officer (~~(believes)~~) has probable cause to believe that a person is harvesting~~((, cutting, destroying, mutilating, prying, picking, peeling, breaking, removing,))~~ or is in possession of or transporting specialized forest products in violation of the provisions of this chapter, he may, at the time of making an arrest, seize and take possession of any such specialized forest products found. The law enforcement officer shall provide reasonable protection for the specialized forest products involved during the period of litigation or he shall ~~((set))~~ dispose of such specialized forest products at the discretion or order of the court before which the arrested person is ordered to appear.

Upon any disposition of the case by the court, the court shall make a reasonable effort to return the ~~((net))~~ specialized forest products to their rightful owner or pay the proceeds of any sale of specialized forest products ~~((sold))~~ less any reasonable expenses of such sale to the rightful owner. If for any reason, the proceeds of such sale cannot be disposed of to the rightful owner, such proceeds, less the reasonable expenses of the sale, shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in which the specialized forest products are sold. The county treasurer shall deposit the same in the county general fund. The return of the specialized forest products or the payment of the proceeds of any sale of products seized~~((;))~~ to the owner shall not preclude the court from imposing any fine or penalty upon the violator for the violation of the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 9. Section 13, chapter 47, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 76.48.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of forgery, and shall be punished as a class C felony providing for imprisonment in a state correctional institution for a maximum term fixed by the court of not more than five years or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by both such imprisonment and fine.

Sec. 10. Section 14, chapter 47, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 76.48.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who violates any provision of this chapter, other than the provisions contained in RCW 76.48.120, as now or hereafter amended, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not ~~((less than twenty-five dollars nor))~~ more than ~~((two hundred and fifty))~~ one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed ~~((ninety days))~~ one year or by both such fine and imprisonment.

FORK LIFTS—LICENSES—BRAKES

AN ACT Relating to fork lifts; amending section 46.16.010, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 17, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.010; and amending section 46.37.340, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 49, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.340.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 46.16.010, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 17, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for a person to operate any vehicle over and along a public highway of this state without first having obtained and having in full force and effect a current and proper vehicle license and display vehicle license number plates therefor as by this chapter provided: PROVIDED, That these provisions shall not apply to farm vehicle as defined in RCW 46.04.181 if operated within a radius of fifteen miles of the farm where principally used or garaged, farm tractors and farm implements including trailers designed as cook or bunk houses used exclusively for animal herding temporarily operating or drawn upon the public highways, and trailers used exclusively to transport farm implements from one farm to another during the daylight hours or at night when such equipment has lights that comply with the law: PROVIDED FURTHER, That these provisions shall not apply to spray or fertilizer applicator rigs designed and used exclusively for spraying or fertilization in the conduct of agricultural operations and not primarily for the purpose of transportation, and nurse rigs or equipment auxiliary to the use of and designed or modified for the fueling, repairing or loading of spray and fertilizer applicator rigs and not used, designed or modified primarily for the purpose of transportation: PROVIDED FURTHER, That these provisions shall not apply to fork lifts operated during daylight hours on public highways adjacent to and within five hundred feet of the warehouses which they serve: PROVIDED FURTHER, That these provisions shall not apply to equipment defined as follows:

"Special highway construction equipment" is any vehicle which is designed and used primarily for grading of highways, paving of highways, earth moving, and other construction work on highways and which is not designed or used primarily for the transportation of persons or property on a public highway and which is only incidentally operated or moved over the highway. It includes, but is not limited to, road construction and maintenance machinery so designed and used such as portable air compressors, air drills, asphalt spreaders, bituminous mixers, bucket loaders, track laying tractors, ditchers, leveling graders, finishing machines, motor graders, paving mixers, road rollers, scarifiers, earth moving scrapers and carryalls, lighting plants, welders, pumps, power shovels and draglines, self-propelled and tractor-drawn earth moving equipment and machinery, including dump trucks and tractor-dump trailer combinations which either (1) are in excess of the legal width or (2) which, because of their length, height or unladen weight, may not be moved on a public highway without the permit specified in RCW 46.44.090 and which are not operated laden except within the boundaries of the project limits as defined by the contract, and other similar types of construction equipment, or (3) which are driven or moved upon a public highway only for the purpose of crossing such highway from one property to another, provided such movement does not exceed five hundred feet and the vehicle is equipped with wheels or pads which will not damage the roadway surface.

Exclusions:

"Special highway construction equipment" does not include any of the following:

Dump trucks originally designed to comply with the legal size and weight provisions of this code notwithstanding any subsequent modification which would require a permit, as specified in RCW 46.44.090, to operate such vehicles on a public highway, including trailers, truck-mounted transit mixers, cranes and shovels, or other vehicles designed for the transportation of persons or property to which machinery has been attached.

Sec. 2. Section 46.37.340, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 49, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.340 are each amended to read as follows:

Every motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer and pole trailer, and any combination of such vehicle operating upon a highway within this state shall be equipped with brakes in compliance with the requirements of this chapter.

(1) Service brakes—adequacy. Every such vehicle and combination of vehicles, except special mobile equipment as defined in RCW 46.04.552, shall be equipped with service brakes complying with the performance requirements of RCW 46.37.351 and adequate to control the movement of and to stop and hold such vehicle under all conditions of loading, and on any grade incident to its operation.

(2) Parking brakes—adequacy. Every such vehicle and combination of vehicles, except motorcycles and motor-driven cycles, shall be equipped with parking brakes adequate to hold the vehicle on any grade on which it is operated, under all conditions of loading, on a surface free from snow, ice, or loose material. The parking brakes shall be capable of being applied in conformance with the foregoing requirements by the driver's muscular effort or by spring action or by equivalent means. Their operation may be assisted by the service brakes or other source of power provided that failure of the service brake actuation system or other power assisting mechanism will not prevent the parking brakes from being applied in conformance with the foregoing requirements. The parking brakes shall be so designed that when once applied they shall remain applied with the required effectiveness despite exhaustion of any source of energy or leakage of any kind. The same brake drums, brake shoes and lining assemblies, brake shoe anchors and mechanical brake shoe actuation mechanism normally associated with the wheel brake assemblies may be used for both the service brakes and the parking brakes. If the means of applying the parking brakes and the service brakes are connected in any way, they shall be so constructed that failure of any one part shall not leave the vehicle without operative brakes.

(3) Brakes on all wheels. Every vehicle shall be equipped with brakes acting on all wheels except:

(a) Trailers, semitrailers, or pole trailers of a gross weight not exceeding three thousand pounds, provided that:

(i) The total weight on and including the wheels of the trailer or trailers shall not exceed forty percent of the gross weight of the towing vehicle when connected to the trailer or trailers, and

(ii) The combination of vehicles consisting of the towing vehicle and its total towed load, is capable of complying with the performance requirements of RCW 46.37.351.

(b) Trailers, semitrailers, or pole trailers manufactured and assembled prior to July 1, 1965 shall not be required to be equipped with brakes when the total weight on and including the wheels of the trailer or trailers does not exceed two thousand pounds.

(c) Any vehicle being towed in driveaway or towaway operations, provided the combination of vehicles is capable of complying with the performance requirements of RCW 46.37.351.

(d) Trucks and truck-tractors having three or more axles need not have brakes on the front wheels, except that when such vehicles are equipped with at least two steerable axles, the wheels of one steerable axle need not have brakes. However, such trucks and truck-tractors must be capable of complying with the performance requirements of RCW 46.37.351.

(e) Special mobile equipment as defined in RCW 46.04.552.

(f) The wheel of a sidecar attached to a motorcycle or to a motor-driven cycle, or the front wheel of a motor-driven cycle need not be equipped with brakes, provided that such motorcycle or motor-driven cycle is capable of complying with the performance requirements of RCW 46.37.351.

(g) For a forklift manufactured after January 1, 1970, and being towed, wheels need not have brakes except for those on the rearmost axle so long as such brakes, together with the brakes on the towing vehicle, shall be adequate to stop the combination within the stopping distance requirements of RCW 46.37.351.

(4) Automatic trailer brake application upon breakaway. Every trailer, semitrailer, and pole trailer equipped with air or vacuum actuated brakes and every trailer, semitrailer, and pole trailer with a gross weight in excess of three thousand pounds, manufactured or assembled after January 1, 1964, shall be equipped with brakes acting on all wheels and of such character as to be applied automatically and promptly, and remain applied for at least fifteen minutes, upon breakaway from the towing vehicle.

(5) Tractor brakes protected. Every motor vehicle manufactured or assembled after January 1, 1964, and used to tow a trailer, semitrailer or pole trailer equipped with brakes, shall be equipped with means for providing that in case of breakaway of the towed vehicle, the towing vehicle will be capable of being stopped by the use of its service brakes.

(6) Trailer air reservoirs safeguarded. Air brake systems installed on trailers manufactured or assembled after January 1, 1964, shall be so designed that the supply reservoir used to provide air for the brakes shall be safeguarded against backflow of air from the reservoir through the supply line.

(7) Two means of emergency brake operation.

(a) Air brakes. After January 1, 1964, every towing vehicle, when used to tow another vehicle equipped with air controlled brakes, in other than driveaway or towaway operations, shall be equipped with two means for emergency application of the trailer brakes. One of these means shall apply the brakes automatically in the event of a reduction of the towing vehicle air supply to a fixed pressure which shall be not lower than twenty pounds per square inch nor higher than forty-five pounds per square inch. The other means shall be a manually controlled device for applying and releasing the brakes, readily operable by a person seated in the driving seat, and its emergency position or method of operation shall be clearly indicated. In no instance may the manual means be so arranged as to permit its use to prevent operation of the automatic means. The automatic and the manual means required by this section may be, but are not required to be, separate.

(b) Vacuum brakes. After January 1, 1964, every towing vehicle used to tow other vehicles equipped with vacuum brakes, in operations other than driveaway or towaway operations, shall have, in addition to the single control device required by subsection (8) of this section, a second control device which can be used to operate the brakes on towed vehicles in emergencies. The second control shall be independent of brake air, hydraulic and other pressure, and independent of other controls, unless the braking system be so arranged that failure of the pressure upon which the second control depends will cause the towed vehicle brakes to be applied automatically. The second control is not required to provide modulated braking.

(8) Single control to operate all brakes. After January 1, 1964, every motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer and pole trailer, and every combination of such vehicles, except motorcycles and motor-driven cycles, equipped with brakes shall have the braking system so arranged that one control device can be used to operate all service brakes. This requirement does not prohibit vehicles from being equipped with an additional control device to be used to operate brakes on the towed vehicles. This regulation does not apply to driveaway or towaway operations unless the brakes on the individual vehicles are designed to be operated by a single control in the towing vehicle.

(9) Reservoir capacity and check valve.

(a) Air brakes. Every bus, truck or truck-tractor with air operated brakes shall be equipped with at least one reservoir sufficient to insure that, when fully charged to the maximum pressure as regulated by the air compressor governor cut-out setting, a full service brake application may be made without lowering such reservoir pressure by more than twenty percent. Each reservoir shall be provided with means for readily draining accumulated oil or water.

(b) Vacuum brakes. After January 1, 1964, every truck with three or more axles equipped with vacuum assist type brakes and every truck-tractor and truck used for towing a vehicle equipped with vacuum brakes shall be equipped with a reserve capacity or a vacuum reservoir sufficient to insure that, with the reserve capacity or reservoir fully charged and with the engine stopped, a full service brake application may be made without depleting the vacuum supply by more than forty percent.

(c) Reservoir safeguarded. All motor vehicles, trailers, semitrailers and pole trailers, when equipped with air or vacuum reservoirs or reserve capacity as required by this section, shall have such reservoirs or reserve capacity so safeguarded by a check valve or equivalent device that in the event of failure or leakage in its connection to the source of compressed air or vacuum, the stored air or vacuum shall not be depleted by the leak or failure.

(10) Warning devices.

(a) Air brakes. Every bus, truck or truck-tractor using compressed air for the operation of its own brakes or the brakes on any towed vehicle, shall be provided with a warning signal, other than a pressure gauge, readily audible or visible to the driver, which will operate at any time the air reservoir pressure of the vehicle is below fifty percent of the air compressor governor cut-out pressure. In addition, each such vehicle shall be equipped with a pressure gauge visible to the driver, which indicates in pounds per square inch the pressure available for braking.

(b) Vacuum brakes. After January 1, 1964, every truck-tractor and truck used for towing a vehicle equipped with vacuum operated brakes and every truck with three or more axles using vacuum in the operation of its brakes, except those in driveaway or towaway operations, shall be equipped with a warning signal, other than a gauge indicating vacuum, readily audible or visible to the driver, which will operate at any time the vacuum in the vehicle's supply reservoir or reserve capacity is less than eight inches of mercury.

(c) Combination of warning devices. When a vehicle required to be equipped with a warning device is equipped with both air and vacuum power for the operation of its own brakes or the brakes on a towed vehicle, the warning devices may be, but are not required to be, combined into a single device which will serve both purposes. A gauge or gauges indicating pressure or vacuum shall not be deemed to be an adequate means of satisfying this requirement.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 2, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 1, chapter 212, Laws of 1959 and RCW 31.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall engage in the business of making secured or unsecured loans of money, credit, goods, or things in action in the amount or of the value of ~~((one))~~ two thousand five hundred dollars or less and charge, contract for, or receive a greater rate of interest, discount, or consideration therefor than the lender would be permitted by law to charge if he were not a licensee hereunder except as authorized by this chapter and without first obtaining a license from the supervisor.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 2, chapter 212, Laws of 1959 and RCW 31.08.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Application for such license shall be in writing, under oath, and in the form, if any, prescribed by the supervisor, and shall contain the name and the address (both of the residence and place of business) of the applicant, and if the applicant is a copartnership or association, of every member thereof, and if a corporation, of each officer and director thereof; also the county and municipality with street and number, if any, where the business is to be conducted and such further relevant information as the supervisor may require. Such applicant at the time of making such application shall pay to the supervisor the sum of ~~((one hundred))~~ two hundred and fifty dollars as a fee for investigating the application and the additional sum of ~~((fifty))~~ one hundred dollars as an annual license fee for a period terminating on the last day of the current calendar year ~~((:PROVIDED, That if the application is filed after June 30th in any year such additional sum shall be only twenty-five dollars))~~.

Every applicant shall also prove, in form satisfactory to the supervisor, that he or it has available for the operation of such business at the location specified in the application, liquid assets of at least ~~((ten))~~ fifty thousand dollars.

At the time of filing of the application, the applicant shall also file with the supervisor a bond to be approved by the supervisor in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, executed by the applicant as obligor and by a surety company authorized to do a surety business in this state as surety, whose liability as such surety shall not exceed the said sum in the aggregate. Such bond shall run to the state of Washington as obligee for the use and benefit of the state and of any person or persons who may have cause of action against the obligor of said bond under the provisions of this chapter. Such bond shall be conditioned that said obligor as licensee hereunder will faithfully conform to and abide by the provisions of this chapter and of all general rules and regulations lawfully made by the supervisor hereunder and will pay to the state and any such person or persons any and all moneys that may become due and owing to the state from such obligor under and by virtue of the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 and RCW 31.08.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of such application and the payment of such fees and the approval of such bond the supervisor shall investigate the facts and if he shall find that the financial responsibility, experience, character, and general fitness of the applicant, and of the members thereof if the applicant be a copartnership or association, and of the officers and directors thereof if the applicant be a corporation, are such as to command the confidence of the community and to warrant belief that the business will be operated honestly, fairly, and efficiently within the purposes of this chapter, and that allowing such applicant to engage in business, will promote the convenience and advantage of the community in which the business of the applicant is to be conducted, and that the applicant has available for the operation of such business at the specified location liquid assets of at least ~~((ten))~~ fifty thousand dollars, (the foregoing facts being conditions precedent to the issuance of a license under this chapter), he shall thereupon issue and deliver a license to the applicant to make loans in accordance with the provisions of this chapter at the location specified in the said application, which license shall remain in full force and effect until it is surrendered by the licensee or revoked or suspended as hereinafter provided; if the supervisor shall not so find he shall not issue such license and he shall notify the applicant of the denial and return to the applicant the bond and sum paid by the applicant as a license fee, retaining the ~~((fifty))~~ two hundred and fifty dollars investigation fee to cover the costs of investigating the application. The supervisor shall approve or deny every application for license hereunder within sixty days from the filing thereof with the said fees and the said approved bond.

If the application is denied, the supervisor shall within twenty days thereafter file with the division of banking of the department of ~~((finance, budget and business))~~ general administration his order of denial together with his findings with respect thereto and the reasons supporting the order, and forthwith serve upon the applicant a copy thereof, from which order the applicant may ~~((appeal as provided in RCW 31.08.260))~~ request a hearing and appeal pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 and RCW 31.08.070 are each amended to read as follows:

If the supervisor shall find at any time that the bond is insecure, depleted, exhausted, or otherwise doubtful, an additional bond of the character specified in RCW 31.08.030, to be approved by him, in the sum of not more than one thousand dollars, shall be filed by the licensee within ten days after written demand upon the licensee by the supervisor.

Every licensee shall maintain at all times assets of at least ~~((ten))~~ fifty thousand dollars for each licensed place of business either in liquid form available for the operation of or actually used in the conduct of such business at the location specified in the license.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 and RCW 31.08.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Not more than one place of business shall be maintained under the same license, but the supervisor may issue more than one license to the same licensee upon compliance with all the provisions of this chapter governing an original issuance of a license, for each such new license.

Whenever a licensee shall wish to change his place of business to a street address other than that designated in his license he shall give written notice thereof to the supervisor ~~((who))~~ and shall pay to the supervisor an investigation fee of one hundred dollars. Upon receipt of such notice and fee the supervisor shall investigate the facts, and, if he shall find that allowing such licensee to engage in business in such new location will promote the convenience and advantage of the community in which the licensee desires to conduct his business, he shall attach to the license in writing his approval of the change and the date thereof, which shall be authority for the operation of such business under such license at such new location. If the supervisor shall not so find he shall deny the licensee permission so to change the location of his place of business, in the manner specified and subject to the provisions contained in the last paragraph of RCW 31.08.050.

Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 and RCW 31.08.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Every licensee shall, for each license held by him, on or before the twentieth day of each December, pay to the supervisor the sum of ~~((fifty))~~ one hundred dollars as an annual license fee and shall at the same time file with the supervisor a bond to be approved by the supervisor in the same amount and of the same character as required by RCW 31.08.030.

Sec. 7. Section 12, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 4, chapter 212, Laws of 1959 and RCW 31.08.150 are each amended to read as follows:

No licensee or other person shall advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, broadcast, or televise or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, broadcast, or televised in any manner whatsoever any false, misleading, or deceptive statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms, or conditions for the lending of money, credit, goods, or things in action in the amount or of the value of ~~((one))~~ two thousand five hundred dollars or less. The supervisor may order any licensee to desist from any conduct which he shall find to be a violation of the foregoing provisions.

The supervisor may require that rates of charge, if stated by a licensee, be stated fully and clearly in such manner as he may deem necessary to prevent misunderstanding thereof by prospective borrowers.

No licensee shall conduct the business of making loans under this chapter within any office, room, or place of business in which any other business is solicited or transacted, or in association or conjunction therewith, if the supervisor shall find, after five days' written notice and after a hearing that the solicitation or transaction of such other business conceals evasion of this chapter by the licensee or is of such nature that such solicitation or transaction would facilitate evasion of this chapter or of the general rules and regulations lawfully made hereunder, and shall order such licensee in writing to desist from such conduct.

No licensee shall conduct, or advertise such business or make any loan provided for by this chapter under any other name or at any other place of business than that named in a license issued under this chapter.

No licensee shall take any confession of judgment or any power of attorney to confess judgment. No licensee shall take any note, promise to pay, or other obligation signed by the borrower that does not accurately disclose the actual amount of the loan, the time for which it is made, and the agreed rate of charge, nor any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after the proceeds of the loan are delivered. When charges are precomputed, as permitted by subsection (3) of RCW 31.08.160, the note shall disclose the amount of the precomputed charge.

Sec. 8. Section 13, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 5, chapter 212, Laws of 1959 and RCW 31.08.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every licensee hereunder may lend any sum of money not to exceed ~~((one))~~ two thousand five hundred dollars in amount and may charge, contract for, and receive thereon charges at a rate not exceeding ~~((three))~~ two and one-half percent per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance of any loan not in excess of ~~((three))~~ five hundred dollars, one and one-half percent per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance of any loan in excess of ~~((three))~~ five hundred dollars and not in excess of ~~((five hundred))~~ one thousand dollars, and one percent per month on any remainder of such unpaid principal balance(~~(- PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in lieu of said charges a licensee may charge one dollar per month, or fraction thereof, when said charges computed at the said rate amount to less than one dollar. AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That such charge of one dollar shall not be collected on more than one loan nor more than once from any one borrower during any period of one month))~~).

(2) Charges on loans made under this chapter shall not be paid, deducted, discounted, or received in advance, or compounded, but the rate of charge authorized by this section may be precomputed as provided in subsection (3) of this section. Charges on loans made under this chapter, ~~((excepting the minimum charge of one dollar provided in this section and excepting))~~ except as permitted by subsection (3) hereof, (a) shall be computed and paid only as a percentage per month of the unpaid principal balance or portions thereof, and (b) shall be so expressed in every obligation signed by the borrower. For the purpose of this section a month shall be that period of time from any date in a month to the corresponding date in the next month and if there is no such corresponding date then to the last day of the next month; and a day shall be considered one-thirtieth of a month when computation is made for a fraction of a month.

(3) When the loan contract requires repayment in substantially equal and consecutive monthly installments of principal and charges combined, the charges may be precomputed at the monthly rate on scheduled unpaid principal balances according to the terms of the contract and added to the principal of the loan. Every payment may be applied to the combined total of principal and precomputed charge until the contract is fully paid. The acceptance or payment of charges on loans made under the provisions of this subsection shall not be deemed to constitute payment, deduction, or receipt thereof in advance nor compounding under subsection (2) above. Such precomputed charge shall be subject to the following adjustments:

(a) The portion of the precomputed charge applicable to any particular monthly installment period shall bear the same ratio to the total precomputed charge, excluding any adjustment made under paragraph (f) of this subsection, as the balance scheduled to be outstanding during that monthly period bears to the sum of all monthly balances scheduled originally by the contract of loan.

(b) If the loan contract is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, refinancing, or otherwise before the final installment date, the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to the full installment periods following the installment date nearest the date of such prepayment shall be rebated. In computing any required rebate, any prepayment made on or before the fifteenth day following an installment date shall be deemed to have been made on the installment date preceding such prepayment. If prepayment in full occurs before the first installment date an additional rebate of one-thirtieth of the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to a first installment period of one month shall be made for each day from the date of such prepayment to the first scheduled installment date. If judgment is obtained before the final installment date, the contract balance shall be reduced by the rebate of precomputed charge which would be required for prepayment in full as of the date judgment is obtained.

(c) If the payment date of all wholly unpaid installments on which no default charge has been collected is deferred one or more full months and the contract so provides, the licensee may charge and collect a deferment charge. Such deferment charge shall not exceed the portion of the precomputed charge applicable under the original contract of loan to the first month of the deferment period multiplied by the number of months in said period. The deferment period is the month or months in which no scheduled payment has been made or in which no payment is to be required by reason of the deferment. In computing any default charge, or required rebate, the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to each deferred balance and installment period following the deferment period and prior to the deferred maturity shall remain the same as that applicable to such balances and periods under the original contract of loan. Such charge may be collected at the time of deferment or at any time thereafter. If a loan is prepaid in full during a deferment period, the borrower shall receive, in addition to the rebate required under paragraph (b) of this subsection, a rebate of that portion of the deferment charge applicable to any unexpired months of the deferment period.

(d) If the payment in full of any scheduled installment is in default more than seven days and the contract so provides, the licensee may charge and collect a default charge not exceeding an amount equal to the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to the final installment period. Said charge may not be collected more than once for the same default and may be collected when such default occurs or any time thereafter. If such default charge is deducted from any payment received after default occurs and such deduction results in the default of a subsequent installment, no charge may be made for the resulting default.

(e) If two or more full installments are in default for one full month or more at any installment date and if the contract so provides, the licensee may reduce the contract balance by the rebate which would be required for prepayment in full on such installment date. Thereafter, charges may be received at the agreed rate computed on actual unpaid balances of the contract for the time outstanding until the contract is fully paid. Charges so collected shall be in lieu of any deferment or default charges which otherwise would accrue on the contract after such installment date.

(f) A licensee and borrower may agree that the first installment due date may be not more than fifteen days more than one month and the amount of such installment may be increased by one-thirtieth of the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to a first installment of one month for each extra day.

(4) No licensee shall induce or permit any borrower to split up or divide any loan, nor induce or permit any person, nor any husband or wife jointly or severally, to become obligated, directly or contingently or both, under more than one contract of loan at the same time, for the purpose or with the result of obtaining a higher rate of charge than would otherwise be permitted by this section. If part or all of the consideration for a loan contract is the unpaid principal balance of a prior loan with the same licensee, then the principal amount payable under such loan contract shall not include any unpaid charges on the prior loan, except charges which have accrued within sixty days before the making of such loan contract and may include the balance of a precomputed contract which remains after giving the rebate required by subsection (3) hereof.

(5) No licensee shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any charges or fees except charges authorized by this chapter and the lawful fees, if any, actually and necessarily paid out by the licensee to any public officer for the transferring of title or for filing, recording, or releasing in any public office, any instrument securing the loan, which fees may be collected when the loan is made, or at any time thereafter. A bona fide error in the calculation of charges or in the recording of such charges in any statement or receipt delivered to the borrower or in the licensee's records shall not be deemed to be a violation of this chapter if the licensee corrects the error.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 212, Laws of 1959 and RCW 31.08.173 are each amended to read as follows:

No contract made by a licensee under this chapter shall provide for a final maturity more than (~~twenty-five~~) forty-eight and one-half months from the date of making such contract.

Sec. 10. Section 15, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 7, chapter 212, Laws of 1959 and RCW 31.08.180 are each amended to read as follows:

No licensee shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any interest, discount, or consideration greater than the lender would be permitted by law to charge if he were not a licensee hereunder upon the loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action, or upon the loan, use, or sale of credit, of the amount or value of more than (~~one~~) two thousand five hundred dollars, exclusive of charges permitted by RCW 31.08.160.

Sec. 11. Section 16, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 8, chapter 212, Laws of 1959 and RCW 31.08.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The payment of (~~one~~) two thousand five hundred dollars or less in money, credit, goods, or things in action, as consideration for any sale or assignment of, or order for, the payment of wages, salary, commissions, or other compensation for services, whether earned or to be earned, shall for the purpose of regulation under this chapter be deemed a loan secured by such assignment, and the amount by which such assigned compensation retained by the assignee at the completion of the transaction exceeds the total amount of such consideration actually paid by the assignee to the assignor shall for the purpose of regulation under this chapter be deemed interest or charges upon such loan. Such transaction shall be governed by and subject to the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 12. Section 17, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 1, chapter 180, Laws of 1967 and RCW 31.08.200 are each amended to read as follows:

No person except as authorized by this chapter shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any interest, discount, or consideration greater than the lender would be permitted by law to charge if he were not a licensee hereunder upon the loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action, or upon the loan, use, or sale of credit of the amount or value of ~~((one))~~ two thousand five hundred dollars or less.

The foregoing prohibition shall apply to any person who by any device, subterfuge, or pretense whatsoever shall charge, contract for, or receive greater interest, consideration, or charges than is authorized by this chapter for any such loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action or for any such loan, use, or sale of credit.

Interest rates for small loans as described in RCW 31.08.160 are hereby declared to be the maximum rates permissible under the public policy of the state of Washington. With respect to any loan of the amount or value of ~~((one))~~ two thousand five hundred dollars or less for which a greater rate of interest, consideration, or charges than is permitted by RCW 31.08.160 has been charged, contracted for, or received, the lender or his successor in interest shall not be entitled to collect or receive in this state: (1) any principal, interest, consideration or charges whatsoever if any part of the loan transaction occurred in this state; or (2) any interest, consideration or charges in excess of that stated in RCW 31.08.160 if no part of the loan transaction occurred in this state.

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislature hereby recognizes the following imperative needs within the state: To create a state-wide transportation development plan which identifies present status and sets goals for the future; to coordinate transportation modes; to promote and protect land use programs required in local, state and federal law; to coordinate transportation with the economic development of the state; to supply a broad framework in which regional, metropolitan, and local transportation needs can be related; to facilitate the supply of federal and state aid to those areas which will most benefit the state as a whole; to provide for public involvement in the transportation planning and development process; to administer programs within the jurisdiction of this title relating to the safety of the state's transportation systems; and to coordinate and implement national transportation policy with the state transportation planning program.

The legislature finds and declares that placing all elements of transportation in a single department is fully consistent with and shall in no way impair the use of moneys in the motor vehicle fund exclusively for highway purposes.

Through this chapter, a unified department of transportation is created. To the jurisdiction of this department will be transferred the present powers, duties, and functions of the department of highways, the highway commission, the toll bridge authority, the aeronautics commission, and the canal commission, and the transportation related powers, duties, and functions of the planning and community affairs agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As used in this title unless the context indicates otherwise:

- (1) "Department" means the department of transportation created in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act;
- (2) "Commission" means the transportation commission created in section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act;
- (3) "Secretary" means the secretary of transportation as provided for in section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

the department, except those powers, duties, and functions which are expressly directed elsewhere in this or in any other act of the 1977 legislature.

(3) The urban arterial board and the board of pilotage commissioners are transferred to the jurisdiction of the department for their staff support and administration: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall be construed as transferring any policy making powers of the urban arterial board or the board of pilotage commissioners to the transportation commission or the department of transportation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to Title 47 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The executive head of the department of transportation shall be the secretary of transportation, who shall be appointed by the transportation commission, and shall be paid a salary to be fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040. No more than two members of the commission shall reside in the same county. Commissioners shall not be removed from office by the governor before the expiration of their terms unless for a disqualifying change of residence or for cause based upon a determination of incapacity, incompetence, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office by the superior court of the state of Washington in and for Thurston county upon petition and show cause proceedings duly brought therefor in said court and directed to the commissioner in question. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, no special permit shall be issued for movement on any state highway or route of a state highway within the limits of any city or town where the gross weight, including load, exceeds the following limits:

(a) Twenty-two thousand pounds on a single axle or on dual axles with a wheelbase between the first and second axles of less than three feet six inches;

(b) Forty-three thousand pounds on dual axles having a wheelbase between the first and second axles of not less than three feet six inches but less than seven feet;

(c) On any group of axles or in the case of a vehicle employing two single axles with a wheel base between the first and last axle of not less than seven feet but less than ten feet, a weight in pounds determined by multiplying six thousand five hundred times the distance in feet between the center of the first axle and the center of the last axle of the group;

(d) On any group of axles with a wheel base between the first and last axle of not less than ten feet but less than thirty feet, a weight in pounds determined by multiplying two thousand two hundred times the sum of twenty and the distance in feet between the center of the first axle and the center of the last axle of the group;

(e) On any group of axles with a wheel base between the first and last axle of thirty feet or greater, a weight in pounds determined by multiplying one thousand six hundred times the sum of forty and the distance in feet between the center of the first axle and the center of the last axle of the group.

(2) The total weight of a vehicle or combination of vehicles allowable by special permit under subsection (1) of this section shall be governed by the lesser of the weights obtained by using the total number of axles as a group or any combination of axles as a group.

reasonable for economic or operational considerations to transport such excess weights by rail or water for any substantial distance of the total mileage applied for.

(5) Application shall be made in writing on special forms provided by the (~~highway commission~~) department of transportation and shall be submitted at least thirty-six hours in advance of the proposed movement. An application for a special permit for a gross weight of any combination of vehicles exceeding two hundred thousand pounds shall be submitted in writing to the (~~highway commission~~) department of transportation at least thirty days in advance of the proposed movement.

Sec. 32. Section 46.44.092, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 15, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.092 are each amended to read as follows:

width of load does not exceed sixteen feet: PROVIDED, That the minimum and maximum speed of such movements, prescribed routes of such movements, the times of such movements, limitation upon frequency of trips (which limitation shall be not less than one per week), and conditions to assure safety of traffic may be prescribed by the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation or local authority issuing such special permit.

The applicant for any special permit shall specifically describe the vehicle or vehicles and load to be operated or moved and the particular state highways for which permit to operate is requested and whether such permit is requested for a single trip or for continuous operation.

Sec. 33. Section 46.44.095, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 17, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.095 are each amended to read as follows:

Until December 31, 1976, a combination of vehicles lawfully licensed to a total gross weight of seventy-two thousand pounds, and a three or more axle single unit vehicle lawfully licensed to a total gross weight of forty thousand pounds, and on January 1, 1977, and thereafter, when a combination of vehicles has been lawfully licensed to a total gross weight of eighty thousand pounds and when a three or more axle single unit vehicle has been lawfully licensed to a total gross weight of forty thousand pounds pursuant to provisions of RCW 46.44.041, a permit for additional gross weight may be issued by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation upon the payment of thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents per year for each one thousand pounds or fraction thereof of such additional gross weight: PROVIDED, That the tire limits specified in RCW 46.44.042 shall apply, and the gross weight on any single axle shall not exceed twenty thousand pounds, and the gross load on any group of axles shall not exceed the limits set forth in RCW 46.44.041: PROVIDED FURTHER, That an additional two thousand pounds may be purchased for an amount not to exceed thirty dollars per thousand for the rear axle of a two-axle garbage truck. Such additional weight shall not be valid or permitted on any part of the federal interstate highway system where the maximum single axle load shall not exceed twenty thousand pounds.

The annual additional tonnage permits provided for in this section shall be issued ~~((under such rules and regulations and))~~ upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the ~~((state highway))~~ department pursuant to general rules adopted by the transportation commission. Such permits shall entitle the permittee to carry such additional load in such an amount and upon such highways or sections of highways as may be determined by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation to be capable of withstanding such increased gross load without undue injury to the highway: PROVIDED, That the permits shall not be valid on any highway where the use of such permits would deprive this state of federal funds for highway purposes.

The annual additional tonnage permits provided for in this section shall commence on the first of January of each year. The permits may be purchased at any time, and if they are purchased for less than a full year, the fee shall be one-twelfth of the full fee multiplied by the number of months, including any fraction thereof, covered by the permit. When the department issues a duplicate permit to replace a lost or destroyed permit and where the department transfers a permit from one vehicle to another a fee of five dollars shall be charged for each such duplicate issued or each such transfer. The ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation shall issue such permits on a temporary basis for periods not less than five days at one dollar per day for each two thousands pounds or fraction thereof.

The fees levied in RCW 46.44.0941 and this section shall not apply to any vehicles owned and operated by the state of Washington, any county within the state or any city or town or metropolitan municipal corporation within the state, or by the federal government.

In the case of fleets prorating license fees under the provisions of chapter 46.85 RCW the fees provided for in this section shall be computed by the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation by applying the proportion of the Washington mileage of the fleet in question to the total mileage of the fleet as reported pursuant to chapter 46.85 RCW to the fees that would be required to purchase the additional weight allowance for all eligible vehicles or combinations of vehicles for which the extra weight allowance is requested.

The ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation shall prorate the fees provided in this section only if the name of the operator or owner is submitted on official listings of authorized fleet operators furnished by the department of motor vehicles. Listings furnished shall also include the percentage of mileage operated in Washington which shall be the same percentage as determined by the department of motor vehicles, for purposes of prorating license fees.

Sec. 34. Section 2, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 103, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.405 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation shall determine upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that any maximum speed hereinbefore set forth is greater than is reasonable or safe with respect to a state highway under the conditions found to exist at any intersection or upon any other part of the state highway system or at state ferry terminals, or that a general reduction of any maximum speed hereinbefore set forth would aid in the conservation of energy resources, ~~((said commission))~~ the secretary may determine and declare a reasonable and safe lower maximum limit or a lower maximum limit which will reasonably conserve energy resources, for any state highway, the entire state highway system, or any portion thereof, which shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected. The ~~((commission))~~ secretary may also fix and regulate the speed of vehicles on any state highway within the maximum speed limit allowed by this chapter for special occasions including, but not limited to, local parades and other special events. Any such maximum speed limit may be declared to be effective at all times or at such times as are indicated upon the said signs; and differing limits may be established for different times of day, different types of vehicles, varying weather conditions, and other factors bearing on safe speeds, which shall be effective (a) when posted upon appropriate fixed or variable signs or (b) if a maximum limit is established for auto stages which is lower than the limit for automobiles, the auto stage speed limit shall become effective thirty days after written notice thereof is mailed in the manner provided in subsection (4) of RCW 46.61.410, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 35. Section 3, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 2, chapter 103, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.410 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to subsection (2) below the (~~(state highway commission)~~) secretary may increase the maximum speed limit on any highway or portion thereof to not more than seventy miles per hour in accordance with the design speed thereof (taking into account all safety elements included therein), or whenever (~~said commission~~) the secretary determines upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that such greater speed is reasonable and safe under the circumstances existing on such part of the highway. The greater maximum limit so determined shall be effective, when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected, or if a maximum limit is established for auto stages which is lower than the limit for automobiles, the auto stage speed limit shall become effective thirty days after written notice thereof is mailed in the manner provided in subsection (4) of this section.

Such maximum speed limit may be declared to be effective at all times or at such times as are indicated upon said signs or in the case of auto stages, as indicated in said written notice; and differing limits may be established for different times of day, different types of vehicles, varying weather conditions, and other factors bearing on safe speeds, which shall be effective when posted upon appropriate fixed or variable signs or if a maximum limit is established for auto stages which is lower than the limit for automobiles, the auto stage speed limit shall become effective thirty days after written notice thereof is mailed in the manner provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(2) The maximum speed limit for vehicles over ten thousand pounds gross weight and vehicles in combination except auto stages shall not exceed sixty miles per hour and may be established at a lower limit by the (~~state highway commission~~) secretary as provided in RCW 46.61.405, as now or hereafter amended.

(3) The word "trucks" used by the (~~state highway commission~~) department on signs giving notice of maximum speed limits shall mean vehicles over ten thousand pounds gross weight and all vehicles in combination except auto stages.

(4) Whenever the (~~state highway commission~~) secretary shall establish maximum speed limits for auto stages lower than the maximum limits for automobiles, the secretary (~~of the state highway commission~~) shall (~~mail~~) cause to be mailed notice thereof to each auto transportation company holding a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued by the Washington utilities and transportation commission. The notice shall be mailed to the chief place of business within the state of Washington of each auto transportation company or if none then its chief place of business without the state of Washington.

Sec. 36. Section 4, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 3, chapter 103, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.415 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever local authorities in their respective jurisdictions determine on the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that the maximum speed permitted under (~~this act~~) RCW 46.61.400 or 46.61.440 is greater or less than is reasonable and safe under the conditions found to exist upon a highway or part of a highway, the local authority may determine and declare a reasonable and safe maximum limit thereon which

- (a) Decreases the limit at intersections; or
- (b) Increases the limit but not to more than sixty miles per hour; or
- (c) Decreases the limit but not to less than twenty miles per hour.

(2) Local authorities in their respective jurisdictions shall determine by an engineering and traffic investigation the proper maximum speed for all arterial streets and shall declare a reasonable and safe maximum limit thereon which may be greater or less than the maximum speed permitted under RCW 46.61.400(2) but shall not exceed sixty miles per hour.

(3) The (~~state highway commission~~) secretary of transportation is authorized to establish speed limits on county roads and city and town streets as shall be necessary to conform with any federal requirements which are a prescribed condition for the allocation of federal funds to the state.

(4) Any altered limit established as hereinbefore authorized shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected. Such maximum speed limit may be declared to be effective at all times or at such times as are indicated upon such signs; and differing limits may be established for different times of day, different types of vehicles, varying weather conditions, and other factors bearing on safe speeds, which shall be effective when posted upon appropriate fixed or variable signs.

(5) Any alteration of maximum limits on state highways within incorporated cities or towns by local authorities shall not be effective until such alteration has been approved by the (~~state highway commission~~) secretary of transportation.

Sec. 37. Section 6, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 135, Laws of 1969 and RCW 46.61.425 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person shall drive a motor vehicle at such a slow speed as to impede the normal and reasonable movement of traffic except when reduced speed is necessary for safe operation or in compliance with law: PROVIDED, That a person following a vehicle driving at less than the legal maximum speed and desiring to pass such vehicle may exceed the speed limit, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.120 on highways having only one lane of traffic in each direction, at only such a speed and for only such a distance as is necessary to complete the pass with a reasonable margin of safety.

(2) Whenever the (~~state highway commission~~) secretary of transportation or local authorities within their respective jurisdictions determine on the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that slow speeds on any part of a highway unreasonably impede the normal movement of traffic, the (~~commission~~) secretary or such local authority may determine and declare a minimum speed limit thereat which shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected. No person shall drive a vehicle slower than such minimum speed limit except when necessary for safe operation or in compliance with law.

Sec. 38. Section 46.48.041, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 103, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.430 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary or inconsistent herewith, the (~~Washington state highway commission~~) secretary of transportation shall have the power and the duty to fix and regulate the speed of vehicles within the maximum speed limit allowed by law for state highways, designated as limited access facilities, regardless of whether a portion of said highway is within the corporate limits of a city or town. No governing body or authority of such city or town or other political subdivision may have the power to pass or enforce any ordinance, rule, or regulation requiring a different rate of speed, and all such ordinances, rules, and regulations contrary to or inconsistent therewith now in force are void and of no effect.

Sec. 39. Section 46.48.080, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.61.450 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a vehicle or any combination of vehicles over any bridge or other elevated structure or through any tunnel or underpass constituting a part of any public highway at a rate of speed or with a gross weight or of a size which is greater at any time than the maximum speed or maximum weight or size which can be maintained or carried with safety over any such bridge or structure or through any such tunnel or underpass when such bridge, structure, tunnel, or underpass is sign posted as hereinafter provided. The ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation, if it be a bridge, structure, tunnel, or underpass upon a state highway, or the governing body or authorities of any county, city, or town, if it be upon roads or streets under their jurisdiction, may restrict the speed which may be maintained or the gross weight or size which may be operated upon or over any such bridge or elevated structure or through any such tunnel or underpass with safety thereto. The ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary or the governing body or authorities of any county, city, or town having jurisdiction shall determine and declare the maximum speed or maximum gross weight or size which such bridge, elevated structure, tunnel, or underpass can withstand or accommodate and shall cause suitable signs stating such maximum speed or maximum gross weight, or size, or either, to be erected and maintained on the right hand side of such highway, road, or street and at a distance of not less than one hundred feet from each end of such bridge, structure, tunnel, or underpass and on the approach thereto: PROVIDED, That in the event that any such bridge, elevated structure, tunnel, or underpass is upon a city street designated by the ~~((state highway))~~ transportation commission as forming a part of the route of any state highway through any such incorporated city or town the determination of any maximum speed or maximum gross weight or size which such bridge, elevated structure, tunnel, or underpass can withstand or accommodate shall not be enforceable at any speed, weight, or size less than the maximum allowed by law, unless with the approval in writing of the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary. Upon the trial of any person charged with a violation of this section, proof of either violation of maximum speed or maximum weight, or size, or either, and the distance and location of such signs as are required, shall constitute conclusive evidence of the maximum speed or maximum weight, or size, or either, which can be maintained or carried with safety over such bridge or elevated structure or through such tunnel or underpass.

Sec. 40. Section 66, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 35, chapter 62, Laws of 1975 and RCW 46.61.570 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except when necessary to avoid conflict with other traffic, or in compliance with law or the directions of a police officer or official traffic control device, no person shall:

(a) Stop, stand, or park a vehicle:

(i) On the roadway side of any vehicle stopped or parked at the edge or curb of a street;

(ii) On a sidewalk or street planting strip;

(iii) Within an intersection;

(iv) On a crosswalk;

(v) Between a safety zone and the adjacent curb or within thirty feet of points on the curb immediately opposite the ends of a safety zone, unless official signs or markings indicate a different no-parking area opposite the ends of a safety zone;

(vi) Alongside or opposite any street excavation or obstruction when stopping, standing, or parking would obstruct traffic;

(vii) Upon any bridge or other elevated structure upon a highway or within a highway tunnel;

(viii) On any railroad tracks;

(ix) In the area between roadways of a divided highway including crossovers; or

(x) At any place where official signs prohibit stopping.

(b) Stand or park a vehicle, whether occupied or not, except momentarily to pick up or discharge a passenger or passengers:

(i) In front of a public or private driveway or within five feet of the end of the curb radius leading thereto;

(ii) Within fifteen feet of a fire hydrant;

(iii) Within twenty feet of a crosswalk;

(iv) Within thirty feet upon the approach to any flashing signal, stop sign, yield sign, or traffic control signal located at the side of a roadway;

(v) Within twenty feet of the driveway entrance to any fire station and on the side of a street opposite the entrance to any fire station within seventy-five feet of said entrance when properly signposted; or

(vi) At any place where official signs prohibit standing.

(c) Park a vehicle, whether occupied or not, except temporarily for the purpose of and while actually engaged in loading or unloading property or passengers:

(i) Within fifty feet of the nearest rail of a railroad crossing; or

(ii) At any place where official signs prohibit parking.

(2) Parking or standing shall be permitted in the manner provided by law at all other places except a time limit may be imposed or parking restricted at other places but such limitation and restriction shall be by city ordinance or county resolution or order of the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation upon highways under their respective jurisdictions.

(3) No person shall move a vehicle not lawfully under his or her control into any such prohibited area or away from a curb such a distance as is unlawful.

(4) It shall be unlawful for any person to reserve or attempt to reserve any portion of a highway for the purpose of stopping, standing, or parking to the exclusion of any other like person, nor shall any person be granted such right.

Sec. 41. Section 67, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 36, chapter 62, Laws of 1975 and RCW 46.61.575 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, every vehicle stopped or parked upon a two-way roadway shall be so stopped or parked with the right-hand wheels parallel to and within twelve inches of the right-hand curb or as close as practicable to the right edge of the right-hand shoulder.

(2) Except when otherwise provided by local ordinance, every vehicle stopped or parked upon a one-way roadway shall be so stopped or parked parallel to the curb or edge of the roadway, in the direction of authorized traffic movement, with its right-hand wheels within twelve inches of the right-hand curb or as close as practicable to the right edge of the right-hand shoulder, or with its left-hand wheels within twelve inches of the left-hand curb or as close as practicable to the left edge of the left-hand shoulder.

(3) Local authorities may by ordinance or resolution permit angle parking on any roadway, except that angle parking shall not be permitted on any federal-aid or state highway unless the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation has determined by ~~((resolution or))~~ order that the roadway is of sufficient width to permit angle parking without interfering with the free movement of traffic.

(4) The ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary with respect to highways under ~~((its))~~ his or her jurisdiction may place official traffic control devices prohibiting, limiting, or restricting the stopping, standing, or parking of vehicles on any highway where ~~((in its opinion, as evidenced by resolution or))~~ the secretary has determined by order, such stopping, standing, or parking is dangerous to those using the highway or where the stopping, standing, or parking of vehicles would unduly interfere with the free movement of traffic thereon. No person shall stop, stand, or park any vehicle in violation of the restrictions indicated by such devices.

Sec. 42. Section 46.68.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 100, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.68.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds to be paid to the counties of the state shall be subject to deduction and distribution as follows:

(1) One and one-half percent of such sums shall be deducted monthly as such sums accrue and set aside for the use of the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department of transportation and the county road administration board for the supervision of work and expenditures of such counties on the county roads thereof, including the supervision and administration of federal-aid programs for which the ~~((highway))~~ transportation commission has responsibility: PROVIDED, That any moneys so retained and not expended shall be credited in the succeeding biennium to the counties in proportion to deductions herein made;

(2) All sums required to be repaid to counties composed entirely of islands shall be deducted;

(3) The balance remaining to the credit of counties after such deductions shall be paid to the several counties monthly, as such funds accrue, upon the basis of the following formula:

(a) Ten percent of such sum shall be divided equally among the several counties.

(b) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the sum of the total number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in unincorporated areas and seven percent of the number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in incorporated areas within each county bears to the total of such sums for all counties. The number of registered vehicles so used shall be as certified by the director of the department of motor vehicles for the year next preceding the date of calculation of the allocation amounts. The director of the department shall first supply such information not later than the fifteenth day of February, 1956, and on the fifteenth of February each two years thereafter.

(c) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the product of the county's trunk highway mileage and its prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile as provided in subsection (e) is to the sum of such products for all counties. County trunk highways are defined as county roads regularly used by school buses and/or rural free delivery mail carriers of the United States post office department, but not foot carriers. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by school buses shall be based solely upon information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction who shall on October 1, 1955, and on October 1st of each odd-numbered year thereafter furnish the ~~((state highway))~~ transportation commission with a map of each county upon which is indicated the county roads used by school buses at the close of the preceding school year, together with a detailed statement showing the total number of miles of county highway over which school buses operated in each county during such year. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by rural mail carriers on routes serviced by vehicles during the year shall be based solely upon information supplied by the United States postal department as of January 1st of the even-numbered years.

(d) Thirty percent of such sum shall be paid to each of the several counties in the direct proportion that the product of the trunk highway mileage of the county and its "money need factor" as defined in subsection (f) is to the total of such products for all counties.

(e) Every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation, the ~~((highway))~~ transportation commission and the legislative transportation committee shall reexamine or cause to be reexamined all the factors on which the estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties have been based and shall make such adjustments as may be necessary. The following formula shall be used: One twenty-fifth of the estimated total county road replacement cost, plus the total annual maintenance cost, divided by the total miles of county road in such county, and multiplied by the result obtained from dividing the total miles of county road in said county by the total trunk road mileage in said county. For the purpose of allocating funds from the motor vehicle fund, a county road shall be defined as one established as such by resolution or order of establishment of the ~~((board of))~~ county ((commissioners)) legislative authority. ~~((The first allocation of funds shall be based on the following prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties as follows:~~

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile in this subsection shall be adjusted every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation by the highway commission on the basis of changes in the trunk and total county road mileage based on information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction, the United States postal department, and the annual reports of the county road departments:))

(f) The "money need factor" for each of the several counties shall be the difference between the prorated estimated annual costs as ((listed above)) provided for in subsection (e) of this subsection and the sum of the following three amounts divided by the county trunk highway mileage:

(1) The equivalent of a two dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax levy on the valuation, as equalized by the state department of revenue for state purposes, of all taxable property in the county road districts;

(2) One-fourth the sum of all funds received by the county from the federal forest reserve fund during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as certified by the state treasurer; and

(3) One-half the sum of motor vehicle license fees and motor vehicle fuel tax refunded to the county during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as provided in RCW 46.68.080. These shall be as supplied to the ~~((highway))~~ transportation commission by the state treasurer for that purpose. The department of revenue and the state treasurer shall supply the information herein requested on or before January 1, 1956, and on said date each two years thereafter.

The following formula shall be used for the purpose of obtaining the "money need factor" of the several counties: The prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile multiplied by the trunk miles will equal the total need of the individual county. The total need minus the sum of the three resources set forth in subsection (f) shall equal the net need. The net need of the individual county divided by the total net needs for all counties shall equal the "money need factor" for that county.

(g) The ~~((state-highway))~~ transportation commission shall adjust the allocations of the several counties on March 1st of every even-numbered year based solely upon the sources of information hereinbefore required: PROVIDED, That the total allocation factor composed of the sum of the four factors defined in subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) shall be held to a level not more than five percent above or five percent below the total allocation factor in use during the previous two year period.

(h) The ~~((highway))~~ transportation commission and the legislative transportation committee shall relog or cause to be relogged the total road mileages upon which the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile are based and shall recalculate such costs on the basis of such relogging and shall report their findings and recommendations to the legislature at its next regular session.

(i) The ~~((highway))~~ transportation commission and the legislative transportation committee shall study and report their findings and recommendations to the legislature concerning the following problems as they affect the allocation of "motor vehicle fund" funds to counties:

(1) Comparative costs per trunk mile based on federal aid contracts versus those herein advocated((-);

(2) Average costs per trunk mile((-);

(3) The advisability of using either "trunk mileage" or "county road" mileage exclusively as the criterion instead of both as in this plan adopted((-);

(4) Reassessment of bridge costs based on current information and relogging of bridges((-);

(5) The items in the list of resources used in determining the "need factor"((-);

(6) The development of a uniform accounting system for counties with regard to road and bridge construction and maintenance costs((-);

(7) A redefinition of rural and urban vehicles which better reflects the use of said vehicles on county roads.

Sec. 43. Section 2, chapter 173, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 39, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~state highway commission~~) department of transportation is hereby directed to conduct periodic analyses of the entire state highway system, and based thereon, to subdivide and classify according to their function and importance all designated state highways and those added from time to time other than the national system of interstate and defense highways and periodically review and revise the classifications, into the following additional four functional classes:

(1) The "principal state highway system" which shall comprise not to exceed twenty percent of the total state highway mileage other than the interstate system((-));

(2) The "major state highway system" which shall comprise not to exceed thirty-five percent of the total state highway mileage other than the interstate system((-);

(3) The "collector state highway system" which shall comprise not to exceed thirty-five percent of the total state highway mileage other than the interstate system((-);

(4) The "other state highway system".

In making such functional classification the (~~highway commission~~) department shall be governed by reasonable (~~rules and regulations~~) policies adopted by the commission, and give consideration to the following criteria:

(a) Urban population centers within and without the state stratified and ranked according to size;

(b) Important traffic generating economic activities, including but not limited to recreation, agriculture, government, business, and industry;

(c) Feasibility of route, including availability of alternate routes within and without the state;

(d) Directness of travel and distance between points of economic importance;

(e) Length of trips;

(f) Character and volume of traffic;

(g) Preferential consideration for multiple service;

(h) Reasonable spacing depending upon population density; and

(i) System continuity, except for the "other" system.

Sec. 44. Section 3, chapter 173, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 143, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~state highway commission~~) department of transportation shall adopt and periodically revise in accordance with policies established by the transportation commission and after consultation with the legislative transportation committee and senate and house transportation (~~and utilities~~) committees a long range plan for highway improvements, specifying highway planning objectives for each of the highway categories, "A", "B", and "C", defined in this section, based upon needs for the ensuing fourteen year advance planning period, and within the framework of revenue estimates for such period. The plan shall be based upon the improvement needs for state highways as determined by the (~~highway commission~~) department from time to time.

With such reasonable deviations as may be required to effectively utilize the available funds and to adjust to unanticipated delays in programmed projects, the ~~((highway commission))~~ department shall allocate the estimated available funds among the following described categories of highway improvements, so as to carry out the ~~((commission's))~~ department's highway planning objectives within a four-teen year advance planning period:

(1) Category A shall consist of those improvements necessary to sustain the structural, safety, and operational integrity of the existing state highway system (other than improvements to the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations).

(2) Category B shall consist of improvements for the continued development of the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations.

(3) Category C shall consist of the development of major transportation improvements (other than improvements to the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations) including designated but unconstructed highways which are vital to the state-wide transportation network.

Sec. 45. Section 7, chapter 173, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 7, chapter 12, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state highway))~~ transportation commission, with the assistance of the department, shall ~~((prepare))~~ approve and present to the governor and to the legislature ~~((at the time of))~~ prior to its convening, a recommended budget for the ensuing biennium. The biennial budget shall include details of proposed expenditures, performance and public service criteria for construction, maintenance, and planning activities in consonance with the six-year comprehensive program and financial plan adopted under provisions of RCW 47.05.040.

Sec. 46. Section 47.12.010, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 108, Laws of 1967 and RCW 47.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever it is necessary to secure any lands or interests in land for a right of way for any state highway, or for the drainage thereof or construction of a protection therefor or so as to afford unobstructed vision therefor toward any railroad crossing or another public highway crossing or any point of danger to public travel or to provide a visual or sound buffer between highways and adjacent properties or for the purpose of acquiring sand pits, gravel pits, borrow pits, stone quarries, or any other land for the extraction of materials for construction or maintenance or both, or for any site for the erection upon and use as a maintenance camp, of any state highway, or any site for other necessary structures or for structures for the health and accommodation of persons traveling or stopping upon the state highways of this state, or any site for the construction and maintenance of structures and facilities adjacent to, under, upon, within, or above the right of way of any state highway for exclusive or nonexclusive use by an urban public transportation system, or for any other highway purpose, together with right of way to reach such property and gain access thereto, the ~~((highway commission))~~ department of transportation is authorized to acquire such lands or interests in land in behalf of the state by gift, purchase, or condemnation. In case of condemnation to secure such lands or interests in land, the action shall be brought in the name of the state of Washington in the manner provided for the acquiring of property for the public uses of the state, and in such action the selection of the lands or interests in land by the ~~((highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation shall, in the absence of bad faith, arbitrary, capricious, or fraudulent action, be conclusive upon the court and judge before which the action is brought that said lands or interests in land are necessary for public use for the purposes sought. The cost and expense of such lands or interests in land may be paid as a part of the cost of the state highway for which such right of way, drainage, unobstructed vision, sand pits, gravel pits, borrow pits, stone quarries, maintenance camp sites, and structure sites or other lands are acquired.

Sec. 47. Section 47.12.060, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.060 are each amended to read as follows:

When a state highway is relocated and the old route is abandoned, and the new route crosses land owned by a person who owns land abutting on the old route, the ~~((Washington state highway commission))~~ department may agree with the owner to convey to ~~((him))~~ that person title to the old route or a part thereof as all or part consideration for ~~((his))~~ such land to be taken for the new route.

Whenever the state has abandoned any highway rights of way, pit sites, or stock pile sites or owns land not needed for highway purposes, the ~~((Washington state highway commission))~~ department may sell same to abutting owners for the fair market value or exchange with any person as a consideration or part consideration for lands or property rights needed by the state, or may sell same by public auction whenever it is deemed in the public interest to do so.

The ~~((Washington state highway commission shall certify the agreement to the governor with a description of the property to be conveyed, and the governor may execute and the secretary of state shall attest))~~ secretary of transportation shall execute the deed, which shall be duly acknowledged, and deliver it to the grantee.

Sec. 48. Section 47.12.070, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.070 are each amended to read as follows:

If the ~~((Washington state highway commission))~~ department deems that any land is no longer required for state highway purposes and that it is in the public interest so to do, ~~((said highway commission))~~ the department may negotiate for the sale of the land to a city or county of the state. ~~((The state highway commission shall certify the agreement for the sale to the director of highways, with a description of the land and the terms of the sale, and the director of highways))~~ If a sale is agreed to, the secretary of transportation shall execute the deed, which shall be duly acknowledged, and deliver it to the grantee.

Any moneys received pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund.

Sec. 49. Section 47.12.080, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever in the construction, reconstruction, location, or improvement of any state highway it may become necessary to transfer and convey to the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, to any municipal subdivision of this state, or to any public utility company, any unused state highway right of way or real property, and in the judgment of the ~~((highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation and the attorney general, such transfer and conveyance is consistent with public interest, the ~~((highway commission))~~ secretary may enter into agreements accordingly. Whenever the ~~((highway commission))~~ secretary shall make any such agreement for any such transfer or conveyance, and ~~((together with))~~ the attorney general concurs therein, ~~((certifies to the director of highways that such agreement has been made setting forth in such certification a description of the lands or premises involved, the director of highways))~~ the secretary shall execute and deliver unto the United States government, or its agencies or instrumentalities, unto any municipal subdivision of this state, or unto any public utility company, a deed of conveyance, easement, or other instrument, duly acknowledged, as shall be necessary to fulfill the terms of the aforesaid agreement. All moneys paid to the state of Washington under any of the provisions hereof shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund.

Sec. 50. Section 47.12.120, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 91, Laws of 1969 and RCW 47.12.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((highway commission))~~ department is authorized, subject to the provisions and requirements of zoning ordinances of political subdivisions of government, to rent or lease any lands, improvements, or air space above or below any lands, including those used or to be used for both limited access and conventional highways which are held for highway purposes but are not presently needed, upon such terms and conditions as the ~~((highway commission))~~ department may determine.

Sec. 51. Section 47.12.130, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the ~~((state))~~ department ~~((of highways))~~ shall have title to any parcel of land acquired for highway purposes which the ~~((state highway commission))~~ secretary of transportation shall determine is not necessary for highway purposes, the ~~((commission))~~ secretary of transportation is authorized to ~~((cause))~~ deed such land ~~((to be deeded))~~ to the owner of land abutting upon such parcel in consideration, or partial consideration, for other lands owned by such property owner which the ~~((highway commission))~~ department deems to be necessary for highway purposes. ~~((The director of highways shall execute the conveyances, which shall be duly acknowledged, necessary to carry out such exchange.))~~

Sec. 52. Section 47.12.140, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.12.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the ~~((state highway))~~ department shall have acquired any lands for highway purposes, except state granted lands, upon which are located any structures, timber, or other thing of value attached to the land, which the ~~((state highway commission))~~ department shall deem it best to sever from the land and sell as personal property, the same may be sold by the department ~~((of highways))~~ at public auction after due notice thereof shall have been given in accordance with general regulations (~~((prescribed))~~) adopted by the (~~((state highway commission))~~) secretary. The (~~((state highway commission))~~) department may set minimum prices that will be accepted for any item offered for sale at public auction as herein provided and may prescribe terms or conditions of sale and, in the event that any item shall be offered for sale at such auction and for which no satisfactory bids shall be received or for which the amount bid shall be less than the minimum set by the (~~((commission))~~) department, it shall be lawful for the (~~((commission))~~) department to sell such item at private sale for the best price which it deems obtainable but at not less than the highest price bid at the public auction. The proceeds of all sales under this section shall be placed in the motor vehicle fund.

Sec. 53. Section 47.12.150, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the (~~((highway commission))~~) department shall need for highway purposes land or property rights belonging to the United States government or any municipality or political subdivision of the state, or which shall be a part of the right of way of any public utility having authority to exercise powers of eminent domain, when the acquisition of such property by the state will result in the displacement of any existing right of way or facility, the (~~((state highway commission))~~) department is authorized to acquire by condemnation or otherwise such lands and property rights as shall be needed to relocate such right of way or facilities so displaced and to exchange lands or property rights so acquired in consideration or partial consideration for the land or property rights needed for highway purposes. The (~~((director of highways, at the request of the state highway commission,))~~) secretary of transportation shall execute each conveyance, which shall be duly acknowledged, necessary to accomplish such exchange.

Passed the Senate May 23, 1977.

Passed the House May 20, 1977.

Approved by the Governor June 2, 1977, with the exception of section 81 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 2, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2924 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to transportation; creating a department of transportation and prescribing its general structure, personnel, powers, duties, and functions; transferring to the jurisdiction of the department of transportation and/or the secretary of transportation certain powers, duties and functions of the department of highways, the highway commission, the toll bridge authority, the aeronautics commission, the planning and community affairs agency, and the canal commission; transferring to the jurisdiction of the secretary of transportation certain powers, duties, and functions of certain state officials, boards, and commissions; providing the procedure for the aforesaid transfers; saving certain rights; abolishing certain state agencies and offices;"

Section 81 of the bill declares an emergency and provides for the act to take effect July 1, 1977. Under the Constitution, Article II, Sections 1(b) and 41, the use of an emergency clause should be restricted to those instances where the use is clearly warranted due to the urgency of the situation.

This bill creates a new state agency with great responsibilities. Many provisions of the bill must be carefully studied and will require implementation. In addition, the selection of commissioners and consolidation of other agencies within the department of transportation will necessitate some time. For these reasons I see no need for the emergency clause and thus have respectfully vetoed the same. With the exception of section 81 which I have vetoed, the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2924 is approved."

For the purposes of this section, "veteran" means any person who has one or more years of active military service in any branch of the armed forces of the United States or who has less than one year's service and is discharged with a disability incurred in the line of duty or is discharged at the convenience of the government and who, upon termination of such service has received an honorable discharge, a discharge for physical reasons with an honorable record, or a release from active military service with evidence of service other than that for which an undesirable, bad conduct, or dishonorable discharge shall be given: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the widow of a veteran shall be entitled to the benefits of this section regardless of the veteran's length of active military service: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for the purposes of this section "veteran" shall not include any person who has voluntarily retired with twenty or more years of active military service and whose military retirement pay is in excess of five hundred dollars per month.

Sec. 2. Section 16, chapter 1, Laws of 1961 and RCW 41.06.160 are each amended to read as follows:

In ~~((adopting or revising))~~ preparing classification and salary schedules as set forth in RCW 41.06.150 as now or hereafter amended the ~~((board))~~ department of personnel shall give full consideration to prevailing rates in other public employment and in private employment in this state ~~((and))~~. For this purpose the department shall ~~((have made periodic wage))~~ undertake salary and fringe benefit surveys to be planned and conducted on a joint basis with the higher education personnel board, with one such survey to be conducted each year prior to the convening of each regular session of the state legislature(;;). The results of ~~((such wage))~~ each salary and fringe benefit survey ~~((to))~~ shall be forwarded with a recommended state salary schedule to the governor and ~~((state budget))~~ director of the office of program planning and fiscal management for their use in preparing budgets to be submitted to the succeeding legislature. A copy of the data and supporting documentation shall be furnished by the department of personnel to the standing committees for appropriations of the senate and house of representatives.

The department shall furnish the following supplementary data in support of its recommended salary schedule:

(1) A total dollar figure which reflects the recommended increase or decrease in state salaries as a direct result of the specific salary and fringe benefit survey that has been conducted and which is categorized to indicate what portion of the increase or decrease is represented by salary survey data and what portion is represented by fringe benefit survey data;

(2) An additional total dollar figure which reflects the impact of recommended increases or decreases to state salaries based on other factors rather than directly on prevailing rate data obtained through the survey process and which is categorized to indicate the sources of the requests for deviation from prevailing rates and the reasons for the changes;

(3) A list of class codes and titles indicating recommended monthly salary ranges for all state classes under the control of the department of personnel with:

(a) Those salary ranges which do not substantially conform to the prevailing rates developed from the salary and fringe benefit survey distinctly marked and an explanation of the reason for the deviation included; and

(b) Those department of personnel classes which are substantially the same as classes being used by the higher education personnel board clearly marked to show the commonality of the classes between the two jurisdictions;

(4) A supplemental salary schedule which indicates the additional salary to be paid state employees for hazardous duties or other considerations requiring extra compensation under specific circumstances. Additional compensation for these circumstances shall not be included in the basic salary schedule but shall be maintained as a separate pay schedule for purposes of full disclosure and visibility; and

(5) A supplemental salary schedule which indicates those cases where the board determines that prevailing rates do not provide similar salaries for positions that require or impose similar responsibilities, judgment, knowledge, skills, and working conditions. This supplementary salary schedule shall contain proposed salary adjustments necessary to eliminate any such dissimilarities in compensation. Additional compensation needed to eliminate such salary dissimilarities shall not be included in the basic salary schedule but shall be maintained as a separate salary schedule for purposes of full disclosure and visibility.

It is the intention of the legislature that requests for funds to support recommendations for salary deviations from the prevailing rate survey data shall be kept to a minimum, and that the requests be fully documented when forwarded by the department of personnel. Further, it is the intention of the legislature that the department of personnel and the higher education personnel board jointly determine job classes which are substantially common to both jurisdictions and that basic salaries for these job classes shall be equal based on salary and fringe benefit survey findings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 41.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In the conduct of salary and fringe benefit surveys under RCW 41.06.160 as now or hereafter amended, it is the intention of the legislature that the surveys be undertaken in a manner consistent with statistically accurate sampling techniques. For this purpose, a comprehensive salary and fringe benefit survey plan shall be submitted to the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management, employee organizations, the standing committees for appropriations of the senate and house of representatives, and to the legislative budget committee six months before the beginning of each periodic survey required before regular legislative sessions. This comprehensive plan shall include but not be limited to the following:

(a) A complete explanation of the technical, statistical process to be used in the salary and fringe benefit survey including the percentage of accuracy expected from the planned statistical sample chosen for the survey and a definition of the term "prevailing rates" which is to be used in the planned survey;

(b) A comprehensive salary and fringe benefit survey model based on scientific statistical principles which:

(i) Encompasses the interrelationships among the various elements of the survey sample including sources of salary and fringe benefit data by organization type, size, and regional location;

(ii) Is representative of private and public employment in this state;

(iii) Ensures that, wherever practical, data from smaller, private firms are included and proportionally weighted in the survey sample; and

(iv) Indicates the methodology to be used in application of survey data to job classes used by state government;

(c) A prediction of the increase or decrease in total funding requirements expected to result from the pending salary and fringe benefit survey based on consumer price index information and other available trend data pertaining to Washington state salaries and fringe benefits.

(2) Every comprehensive survey plan shall fully consider fringe benefits as an element of compensation in addition to basic salary data. The plans prepared under this section shall be developed jointly by the department of personnel in conjunction with the higher education personnel board established under chapter 28B.16 RCW. All comprehensive salary and fringe benefit survey plans shall be submitted on a joint signature basis by the department of personnel and the higher education personnel board. The legislative budget committee shall review and evaluate all survey plans before final implementation.

(3) Interim or special surveys conducted under RCW 41.06.160 as now or hereafter amended shall conform when possible to the statistical techniques and principles developed for regular periodic surveys under this section.

(4) The term "fringe benefits" as used in this section and in conjunction with salary surveys shall include but not be limited to compensation for:

- (a) Leave time, including vacation, holiday, civil, and personal leave;
- (b) Employer retirement contributions;
- (c) Health and insurance payments, including life, accident, and health insurance, workmen's compensation, and sick leave; and
- (d) Stock options, bonuses, and purchase discounts where appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 41.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Salary surveys shall be conducted according to the following criteria in addition to any other provisions under this chapter:

(1) Adjustments of state salaries to prevailing rates in Washington state private industries and other governmental units shall be determined by comparisons of weighted averages of salaries, including weighted averages of salaries from out-of-state sources when necessary to obtain statistically valid salary surveys; and

(2) Determination of state salary changes from prevailing rate data collected in salary surveys shall be based on occupational group averages containing related job classes where appropriate rather than on comparisons of survey data to individual state job classes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 41.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of personnel shall undertake salary and fringe benefit surveys for officers of the Washington state patrol, with one survey to be conducted each year prior to the convening of each regular session of the state legislature. The results of each such survey shall be forwarded, after review and concurrence by the chief of the Washington state patrol, to the governor and director of the office of program planning and fiscal management for their use in preparing budgets to be submitted to the succeeding legislature. A copy of the data and supporting documentation shall be furnished by the department of personnel to the legislative budget committee and the standing committees for appropriations of the senate and house of representatives. The office of program planning and fiscal management shall analyze the survey results and conduct investigations which may be necessary to arbitrate differences between interested parties regarding the accuracy of collected survey data and the use of such data for salary adjustment.

Surveys conducted by the department of personnel for the Washington state patrol shall be undertaken in a manner consistent with statistically accurate sampling techniques, including comparisons of weighted averages of salaries. This service performed by the department of personnel shall be on a reimbursable basis in accordance with the provisions of RCW 41.06.080 as now existing or hereafter amended.

A comprehensive salary and fringe benefits survey plan shall be submitted jointly by the department of personnel and the Washington state patrol to the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management, the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on appropriations of the house of representatives and to the legislative budget committee six months before the beginning of each periodic survey. The legislative budget committee shall review and evaluate the survey plan before final implementation.

After consultation with state agency heads, employee organizations, and other interested parties, the state personnel director shall develop standardized employee performance evaluation procedures and forms which shall be used by state agencies for the appraisal of employee job performance at least annually. These procedures shall include means whereby individual agencies may supplement the standardized evaluation process with special performance factors peculiar to specific organizational needs. Performance evaluation procedures shall place primary emphasis on recording how well the employee has contributed to efficiency, effectiveness, and economy in fulfilling state agency and job objectives. A standardized performance evaluation procedure shall be instituted not later than July 1, 1978, for all employees.

(c) A prediction of the increase or decrease in total funding requirements expected to result from the pending salary and fringe benefit survey based on consumer price index information and other available trend data pertaining to Washington state salaries and fringe benefits.

(2) Every comprehensive survey plan shall fully consider fringe benefits as an element of compensation in addition to basic salary data. The plans prepared under this section shall be developed jointly by the higher education personnel board in conjunction with the department of personnel established under chapter 41.06 RCW. All comprehensive salary and fringe benefit survey plans shall be submitted on a joint signature basis by the higher education personnel board and the department of personnel. The legislative budget committee shall review and evaluate all survey plans before final implementation.

(3) Interim or special surveys conducted under RCW 28B.16.110 as now or hereafter amended shall conform when possible to the statistical techniques and principles developed for regular periodic surveys under this section.

(4) The term "fringe benefits" as used in this section and in conjunction with salary surveys shall include but not be limited to compensation for:

(a) Leave time, including vacation, holiday, civil, and personal leave;

(b) Employer retirement contributions;

(c) Health and insurance payments, including life, accident, and health insurance, workmen's compensation, and sick leave; and

(d) Stock options, bonuses, and purchase discounts where appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 36, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Salary surveys shall be conducted according to the following criteria in addition to any other provisions under this chapter:

(1) Adjustments of state salaries to prevailing rates in Washington state private industries and other governmental units shall be determined by comparisons of weighted averages of salaries, including weighted averages of salaries from out-of-state sources when necessary to obtain statistically valid salary surveys; and

(2) Determination of state salary changes from prevailing rate data collected in salary surveys shall be based on occupational group averages containing related job classes where appropriate rather than on comparisons of survey data to individual state job classes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 36, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After consultation with institution heads, employee organizations, and other interested parties, the board shall develop standardized employee performance evaluation procedures and forms which shall be used by institutions of higher learning for the appraisal of employee job performance at least annually. These procedures shall include means whereby individual institutions may supplement the standardized evaluation process with special performance factors peculiar to specific organizational needs. A standardized performance evaluation procedure shall be instituted not later than July 1, 1978, for all employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

*Sec. 15. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the Senate May 26, 1977.

Passed the House May 20, 1977.

Approved by the Governor June 3, 1977, with the exception of section 15 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 3, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section Substitute Senate Bill No. 2383 entitled:

"An Act Relating to public employment; providing salary surveys; providing for local administration and management by institutions of higher education and related boards; mandating the higher education personnel board to adopt rules for training programs and regular increment pay increases."

Section 15 of the bill declares an emergency and provides for the act to take effect immediately. Under the Constitution, Article II, Sections 1(b) and 41, the use of an emergency clause does two things. First, it alters the time when a particular piece of legislation becomes effective, thereby eliminating what may be a desirable adjustment period for affected persons. Second, it excepts the legislation from the important referendum right reserved by the people. Because of these effects, the use of the clause should be restricted to those instances where the use is clearly warranted due to the urgency of the situation.

With the exception of Section 15, which I have vetoed, the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2383 is approved."

[Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 2426]

EMPLOYMENT SECURITY RECORDS—PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

AN ACT Relating to employment security records; adding a new chapter to Title 50 RCW to be designated as chapter 50.13 RCW; repealing section 50, chapter 35, Laws of 1945, section 3, chapter 215, Laws of 1951, section 1, chapter 255, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 50.12.110; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. This chapter is intended to reconcile the free access to public records granted by the open government act and the discovery rights of judicial and administrative systems with the historical confidentiality of certain records of the department of employment security and the individual's right of privacy as acknowledged by the open government act.

The legislature recognizes that records and information held by the department of employment security could be misused. Therefore, this chapter defines a right of privacy and confidentiality as regards individual and employing unit records maintained by the department of employment security. The legislature further recognizes that there are situations where this right of privacy and confidentiality is outweighed by other considerations. Therefore, this chapter also defines certain exceptions to the right of privacy and confidentiality.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Any information or records concerning an individual or employing unit obtained by the department of employment security pursuant to the administration of this title or other programs for which the department has responsibility shall be private and confidential, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. This chapter does not create a rule of evidence. The information or records may be released by the department of employment security when the release is required by the federal government in connection with a program being administered by the department for the federal government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The commissioner of the department of employment security shall have the authority to adopt, amend, or rescind rules interpreting and implementing the provisions of this chapter. In particular, these rules shall specify the procedure to be followed to obtain information or records to which the public has access under this chapter or chapter 42.17 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. An individual shall have access to all records and information concerning that individual held by the department of employment security, unless the information is exempt from disclosure under RCW 42.17.310. An employing unit shall have access to its own records and to any records and information relating to a benefit claim by an individual if the employing unit is either the individual's last employer or is the individual's base year employer. An employing unit shall have access to general summaries of benefit claims by individuals whose benefits are chargeable to the employing unit's experience rating or reimbursement account.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Any interested party, as defined by rule, in a proceeding before the appeal tribunal or commissioner shall have access to any information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter if the information or records are material to the issues in that proceeding.

(2) No decisions by the commissioner or the appeals tribunal shall be deemed private and confidential under this chapter unless the decisions are based on information obtained in a closed hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Governmental agencies, including law enforcement agencies, prosecuting agencies, and the executive branch, whether state, local, or federal shall have access to information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter if the information or records are needed by the agency for official purposes and:

(a) The agency submits an application in writing to the employment security department for the records or information containing a statement of the official purposes for which the information or records are needed and specific identification of the records or information sought from the department; and

(b) The director, commissioner, chief executive, or other official of the agency has verified the need for the specific information in writing either on the application or on a separate document; and

(c) The agency requesting access has served a copy of the application for records or information on the individual or employing unit whose records or information are sought and has provided the department with proof of service. Service shall be made in a manner which conforms to the civil rules for superior court. The requesting agency shall include with the copy of the application a statement to the effect that the individual or employing unit may contact the public records officer of the employment security department to state any objections to the release of the records or information. The employment security department shall not act upon the application of the requesting agency until at least five days after service on the concerned individual or employing unit. The employment security department shall consider any objections raised by the concerned individual or employing unit in deciding whether the requesting agency needs the information or records for official purposes.

(2) The requirements of subsections (1) and (7) of this section shall not apply to the state legislative branch. The state legislature shall have access to information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter, if the legislature or a legislative committee finds that the information or records are necessary and for official purposes. If the employment security department does not make information or records available as provided in this subsection, the legislature may exercise its authority granted by chapter 44.16 RCW.

(3) In cases of emergency the governmental agency requesting access shall not be required to formally comply with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section at the time of the request if the procedures required by subsection (1) of this section are complied with by the requesting agency following the receipt of any records or information deemed private and confidential under this chapter. An emergency is defined as a situation in which irreparable harm or damage could occur if records or information are not released immediately.

(4) The requirements of subsection (1)(c) of this section shall not apply to governmental agencies where the procedures would frustrate the investigation of possible violations of criminal laws.

(5) Governmental agencies may have access to certain records or information, strictly limited to such items as names, addresses, social security numbers, and general information about benefit entitlement, for comparison purposes with records or information possessed by the requesting agency to detect improper or fraudulent claims. In those cases the governmental agency shall not be required to comply with subsection (1)(c) of this section, but the remainder of that section must be satisfied.

(6) Disclosure to governmental agencies of information or records obtained by the employment security department from the federal government shall be governed by any applicable federal law or any agreement between the federal government and the employment security department where so required by federal law. When federal law does not apply to the records or information state law shall control.

(7) The disclosure of any records or information by a governmental agency which has obtained the records or information under this section is prohibited unless the disclosure is directly connected to the official purpose for which the records or information were obtained.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter shall be available to parties to judicial or formal administrative proceedings only upon a finding by the presiding officer that the need for the information or records in the proceeding outweighs any reasons for the privacy and confidentiality of the information or records. Information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter shall not be available in discovery proceedings unless the court in which the action has been filed has made the finding specified above. A judicial or administrative subpoena directed to the employment security department must contain this finding. A subpoena for records or information held by the department may be directed to and served upon any employee of the department, but the department may specify by rule which employee shall produce the records or information in compliance with the subpoena.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The employment security department shall have the right to disclose information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter to any private person or organization when such disclosure is necessary to permit private contracting parties to assist in the operation and management of the department in instances where certain departmental functions may be delegated to private parties to increase the department's efficiency or quality of service to the public. The private persons or organizations shall use the information or records solely for the purpose for which the information was disclosed and shall be bound by the same rules of privacy and confidentiality as employment security department employees. Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting or restricting the effect of RCW 42.17.260(5). The misuse or unauthorized release of records or information deemed private and confidential under this chapter by any private person or organization to which access is permitted by this section shall subject the person or organization to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars. Suit to enforce this section shall be brought by the attorney general and the amount of any penalties collected shall be paid into the employment security department administrative contingency fund. The attorney general may recover reasonable attorneys' fees for any action brought to enforce this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Where the employment security department contracts to provide services to other governmental or private organizations, the department may disclose to those organizations information or records deemed private and confidential which have been acquired in the performance of the department's obligations under the contracts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the disclosure of information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter if all details identifying an individual or employing unit are deleted or the individual or employing unit consents to the disclosure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Any ambiguities in this chapter shall be construed in a manner consistent with federal laws applying to the employment security department. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof is held invalid by a final decision of any court or declared by the secretary of the department of labor of the United States to be inconsistent with federal laws upon which funding of the employment security department is contingent, the invalid or inconsistent provision shall be ineffective only to the extent necessary to insure compliance with the court decision or federal determination and the remainder of the chapter shall be given full effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Section 50, chapter 35, Laws of 1945, section 3, chapter 215, Laws of 1951, section 1, chapter 255, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 50.12.110 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 50 RCW and shall be designated as chapter 50.13 RCW.

CHAPTER 155

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2113]

INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION—NONIMMIGRANT ALIENS—TUITION AND FEES

AN ACT Relating to institutions of higher education; creating new sections; and adding new sections to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The state's public institutions of higher education shall grant resident status for the purpose of tuition and fee payment, including operating fees and services and activities fees, to any nonimmigrant alien entering the United States under and in pursuance of the provisions of a treaty of commerce and navigation between the United States and the foreign state of which he or she is a national, more specifically as referred to under the visa classification defined in Title 8, Section 1101(a)(15)(E)(i) under the Immigration and Nationality Act as in the Code of the United States of America, and to the spouse and children of any such alien.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The rights as provided for in section 1 of this act shall be restricted to the non-immigrant aliens and dependents thereof who are nationals of countries which grant the same right to residents of the state of Washington who attend in such countries institutions of higher education which are comparable to state public institutions of higher education in the state of Washington.

*Sec. 2. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature recognizes that in extending resident tuition and fee rates at institutions of higher education to such nonimmigrant aliens and their families who are in this state to carry on business, as provided for in section 1 of this act, simple justice is being extended to such families who live in this state and pay federal, state and local taxes, contribute to the social and cultural activities within their neighborhoods, and contribute most substantially to the economic welfare of this state; thus these families should be accorded in some small measure rights coincident to that of their neighbors within their community.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the Senate May 27, 1977.

Passed the House May 26, 1977.

Approved by the Governor June 6, 1977, with the exception of section 2 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 6, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one section, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2113 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to institutions of Higher Education; creating new sections; and adding new sections to Chapter 223, Laws of 1969 Extraordinary Session, and to chapter 28B.15 RCW."

Section 2 of the bill restricts the resident tuition and fee classification to nonimmigrant aliens and dependents who are nationals of countries having comparable public institutions of higher education and extending the same resident tuition and fee policy to residents of the State of Washington who attend institutions of higher education in such countries. This would effectively require institutions in the State of Washington to first determine comparability and then ascertain by surveying Washington State citizens or institutions in affected foreign countries the tuition and fee rates charged to our citizens. This poses numerous measurement problems in determining comparability of foreign educational systems with our state educational system and unnecessarily increases the administrative workload associated with the enrolling and granting of residency status to the affected nonimmigrant alien.

Section 2 of the bill is also considered to be inconsistent with legislative intent as stipulated in Section 3. The main reason for extending residency status to this select group of nonimmigrant aliens and dependents is because they are viable members of the community, pay taxes, and contribute to the economic, social and cultural welfare of this state. It seems inappropriate and inconsistent to link that level of state contribution and involvement in community affairs to the higher educational system and tuition and fee policies of that person's country.

With the exception of Section 2, which I have vetoed, the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2113 is approved."

- (3) Violated any lawful order, rule, or regulation of the director; the director may issue an order requiring the person to cease and desist from the unlawful practice and to take such affirmative action as in the judgment of the director will carry out the purposes of this chapter.

If the director makes a finding of fact in writing that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, the director may issue a temporary cease and desist order. Prior to issuing the temporary cease and desist order, the director, whenever possible by telephone or otherwise, shall give notice of the proposal to issue a temporary cease and desist order to the person. Every temporary cease and desist order shall include in its terms a provision that upon request a hearing will be held to determine whether or not the order becomes permanent.

If it appears that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an act or practice constituting a violation of a provision of this chapter, or a rule or order under this chapter, the director, with or without prior administrative proceedings, may bring an action in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule, regulation, or order under this chapter. Upon proper showing, injunctive relief or temporary restraining orders shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed. The director shall not be required to post a bond in any court proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director may:

(1) Make necessary public or private investigations within or outside of this state to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate this chapter or any rule, regulation, or order under this chapter, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter or in the prescribing of rules and forms under this chapter; or

(2) Require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the director determines, as to all facts and circumstances concerning the matter to be investigated.

For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the director or any officer designated by him may administer oaths or affirmations, and upon his own motion or upon request of any party, may subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any matter which is relevant to the investigation, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge or relevant facts, or any other matter reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of material evidence.

Upon failure to obey a subpoena or to answer questions propounded by the investigating officer and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, the director may apply to the superior court for an order compelling compliance.

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all proceedings under this chapter shall be in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person desiring to be an escrow officer shall meet the requirements of RCW 18.44.220 as provided in this chapter. The applicant shall make application endorsed by a certificated escrow agent to the director on a form to be prescribed and furnished by the director. Such application must be received by the director within one year of passing the escrow officer examination. With this application the applicant shall:

(1) Pay a license fee as set forth in this chapter; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person desiring to be an escrow officer must include with the application a license fee of fifty dollars. Every escrow officer license issued under the provisions of this chapter expires on the date one year from the date of issue which date will henceforth be the renewal date. An annual license renewal fee in the same amount must be paid on or before each renewal date: PROVIDED, That licenses issued or renewed prior to the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act shall use the existing renewal date as the date of issue. If the application for a renewal license is not received by the director on or before the renewal date such license is expired. The license may be reinstated at any time prior to the next succeeding renewal date following its expiration upon the payment to the director of the annual renewal fee then in default. Acceptance by the director of an application for renewal after the renewal date shall not be a waiver of the delinquency. Licenses not renewed within one year of the renewal date then in default shall be cancelled. A new license may be obtained by satisfying the procedures and qualifications for initial licensing, including where applicable successful completion of examinations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The license of an escrow officer shall be retained and displayed at all times by the certificated escrow agent, and when the officer ceases to represent the agent, the license shall cease to be in force. Notice of such termination shall be given by the next regular business day by the escrow agent to the director and such notice shall be accompanied by and include the surrender of the escrow officer's license. Failure to notify the director of such termination after demand by the affected escrow officer shall work a forfeiture of the escrow agent's certificate of registration.

The director may hold the escrow officer's license inactive for a period not exceeding three consecutive years upon application of the escrow officer: PROVIDED, That the escrow officer shall pay the annual renewal fee. Such license may be activated upon application of a certificated escrow agent on a form provided by the director, endorsement by an escrow officer, and the payment of a ten dollar fee. The director shall thereupon issue a new license for the unexpired term if such escrow officer is otherwise entitled thereto. An escrow officer's first license shall not be issued inactive.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director may issue rules and regulations to govern the activities of certificated escrow agents and escrow officers. The director shall enforce all laws, rules, and regulations relative to the registration of escrow agents and licensing of escrow officers. The director may hold hearings and suspend or revoke the registration or licenses of violators and may deny, suspend, or revoke the authority of an escrow officer to act as the designated escrow officer of a person who commits violations of this chapter or of the rules and regulations.

Except as specifically provided in this chapter, the rules adopted and the hearings conducted shall be in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An escrow agent shall not operate an escrow business in a location other than the location set forth on the agent's certificate of registration issued by the director. The escrow agent may apply to the director for authority to establish one or more branch offices under the same name as the main office.

Any person desiring to operate a branch escrow office shall make application on a form provided by the director and pay a fee as set forth in this chapter. Such application shall identify the natural person designated as the escrow officer to supervise the agent's escrow activity at the escrow agent branch office.

No escrow agent branch office certificate of registration shall be issued until the applicant has satisfied the director that the escrow activity of said branch meets all financial responsibility requirements governing the conduct of escrow activity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Upon the filing of the application for an escrow agent branch office and satisfying the requirements of this chapter, the director shall issue and deliver to the applicant a certificate of registration to engage in the business of an escrow agent at the branch location set forth on the certificate.

- (2) The name under which the applicant will do business;
- (3) The address at which the applicant will do business;
- (4) The expiration date of the license or registration; and
- (5) In the case of a corporation, partnership, or branch office, the name of the natural person who is designated to act as the escrow officer on behalf thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The four escrow commission members shall each receive fifty dollars per day for each day engaged in official business of the commission, plus travel expenses as provided for state officials and employees in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, when called into session by the director or when otherwise engaged in the business of the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director shall, within thirty days after the written request of the escrow commission, hold a public hearing to determine whether the fidelity bond and/or the errors and omissions policy specified in RCW 18.44.050 as now or hereafter amended is reasonably available to a substantial number of certificated escrow agents. If the director determines and the insurance commissioner concurs that such bond and/or policy is not reasonably available, the director shall waive the requirements for such bond and/or policy for a fixed period of time not to exceed ninety days after the next regular session of the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. There is added to chapter 18.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After a written determination by the director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, that the fidelity bond and/or the errors and omissions policy required under RCW 18.44.050 as now or hereafter amended is cost-prohibitive, or after a determination as provided in section 30 of this 1977 amendatory act that such bond or policy is not reasonably available, upon the request of an association comprised of certificated escrow agents, the director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, may authorize such association to organize a mutual corporation pursuant to chapter 24.06 RCW, exempt from the provisions of Title 48 RCW, for the purpose of insuring or self-insuring against claims arising out of escrow transactions, if, in the director's judgment, there is a substantial likelihood that the corporation will operate for the benefit of the public and if the corporation shall have established rules, procedures, and reserves which satisfy the director that it will operate in a financially responsible manner which provides a substantial probability that it shall be able to pay any claims made against the corporation, up to the limits of financial responsibility as provided in RCW 18.44.050, as now or hereafter amended. The director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, may limit the authority of the corporation to the insuring or self-insuring of claims which would be within the coverage specified in RCW 18.44.050. The director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, may revoke the authority of the corporation to transact insurance or self-insurance if he determines, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, that the corporation is not acting in a financially responsible manner or for the benefit of the public. Any corporation established pursuant to this section shall cease to exist, except for the payment of incurred claims, ninety days after the next regular session of the legislature unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. Section 10, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 163, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.230 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

*Sec. 34. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the Senate May 27, 1977.

Passed the House May 19, 1977.

Approved by the Governor June 6, 1977, with the exception of section 34 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 6, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section Substitute Senate Bill No. 2197 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to escrow"

Section 34 of the bill declares an emergency and provides for the act to take effect on June 15, 1977. Under the Constitution, Article II, Sections 1(b) and 41, the use of an emergency clause does two things. First, it alters the time when a particular piece of legislation becomes effective, thereby eliminating what may be a desirable adjustment period for affected persons. Second, it excepts the legislation from the important referendum right reserved by the people. Because of these effects, the use of the clause should be restricted to those instances where the use is clearly warranted due to the urgency of the situation.

With the exception of Section 34, which I have vetoed, the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2197 is approved."

Funds in the account derived from the gross proceeds of leases, sales, contracts, licenses, permits, easements, and rights of way issued by the department and affecting school lands, university lands, agricultural college lands, scientific school lands, normal school lands, capitol building lands, or institutional lands shall be expended by the department solely for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses necessarily incurred in managing and administering public lands of the same trust: PROVIDED, That such funds may be used for similar costs and expenses in managing and administering other lands managed by the department: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such expenditures that have been or may be made on such other lands shall be repaid to the resource management cost account together with interest at the rate provided for in RCW 79.01.216.

CHAPTER 161

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3002]

SCENIC RIVER SYSTEM

AN ACT Relating to scenic rivers; and adding a new chapter to Title 79 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature hereby finds that many rivers of this state, with their immediate environs, possess outstanding natural, scenic, historic, ecological, and recreational values of present and future benefit to the public. The legislature further finds that the policy of permitting the construction of dams and other impoundment facilities at appropriate sections of the rivers of this state needs to be complemented by a policy that would protect and preserve the natural character of such rivers and fulfill other conservation purposes. It is hereby declared to be the policy of this state that certain selected rivers of the state which, with their immediate environs, possess the aforementioned characteristics, shall be preserved in as natural a condition as practical and that overuse of such rivers, which tends to downgrade their natural condition, shall be discouraged.

The purpose of this chapter is to establish a program for managing publicly owned land on rivers included in the state's scenic river system, to indicate the river segments to be initially included in that system, to prescribe a procedure for adding additional components to the system, and to protect the rights of private property owners.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The following terms when used in this chapter shall be defined as follows unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Department" means state parks and recreation commission.

(2) "Committee of participating agencies" or "committee" means a committee composed of the executive head, or such executive's designee, of each of the state departments of ecology, fisheries, game, natural resources, and highways, the state parks and recreation commission, the interagency committee for outdoor recreation, the Washington state association of counties, and the association of Washington cities.

When a specific river or river segment of the state's scenic river system is being considered by the committee, a representative of each participating local government associated with that river or river segment shall serve as a member of the committee.

(3) "Participating local government" means the legislative authority of any city or county, a portion of whose territorial jurisdiction is bounded by or includes a river or river segment of the state's scenic river system.

(4) "River" means a flowing body of water or a section, segment, or portion thereof.

(5) "River area" means a river and the land area in its immediate environs as established by the participating agencies not exceeding a width of one-quarter mile landward from the streamway on either side of the river.

(6) "Scenic easement" means the negotiated right to control the use of land, including the air space above such land, for the purpose of protecting the scenic view throughout the visual corridor.

(7) "Streamway" means that stream-dependent corridor of single or multiple, wet or dry, channel or channels within which the usual seasonal or stormwater runoff peaks are contained, and within which environment the flora, fauna, soil, and topography is dependent on or influenced by the height and velocity of the fluctuating river currents.

(8) "System" means all the rivers and river areas in the state designated by the legislature for inclusion as scenic rivers but does not include tributaries of a designated river unless specifically included by the legislature. The inclusion of a river in the system does not mean that other rivers or tributaries in a drainage basin shall be required to be part of the management program developed for the system unless such rivers and tributaries within the drainage basin are specifically designated for inclusion by the legislature.

(9) "Visual corridor" means that area which can be seen in a normal summer month by a person of normal vision walking either bank of a river included in the system. Such corridor shall not exceed the river area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The department shall develop and adopt management policies for publicly owned or leased land on the rivers designated by the legislature as being a part of the state's scenic river system and within the associated river areas. The department may adopt regulations identifying river classifications which reflect the characteristics common to various segments of scenic rivers and may adopt management policies consistent with local government's shoreline management master plans appropriate for each such river classification. All such policies shall be subject to review by the committee of participating agencies. Once such a policy has been approved by a majority vote of the committee members, it shall be adopted by the department in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. Any variance with such a policy by any public agency shall be authorized only by the approval of the committee of participating agencies by majority vote, and shall be made only to alleviate unusual hardships unique to a given segment of the system.

(2) Any policies developed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall include management plans for protecting ecological, economic, recreational, aesthetic, botanical, scenic, geological, hydrological, fish and wildlife, historical, cultural, archaeological, and scientific features of the rivers designated as being in the system. Such policies shall also include management plans to encourage any non-profit group, organization, association, person, or corporation to develop and adopt programs for the purpose of increasing fish propagation.

(3) The committee of participating agencies shall, by two-thirds majority vote, identify on a river by river basis any publicly owned or leased lands which could be included in a river area of the system but which are developed in a manner unsuitable for land to be managed as part of the system. The department shall exclude lands so identified from the provisions of any management policies implementing the provisions of this act.

(4) The committee of participating agencies, by majority vote, shall determine the boundaries which shall define the river area associated with any included river. With respect to the rivers named in section 8 of this act, the committee shall make such determination, and those determinations authorized by subsection (3) of this section, within one year of the effective date of this act.

(5) Before making a decision regarding the river area to be included in the system, a variance in policy, or the excluding of land from the provisions of the management policies, the committee shall hold hearings in accord with chapter 34.04 RCW, with at least one public hearing to be held in the general locale of the river under consideration. The department shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the area which includes the river or rivers to be considered, a description, including a map showing such river or rivers, of the material to be considered at the public hearing. Such notice shall appear at least twice in the time period between two and four weeks prior to the public hearing.

(6) Meetings of the committee shall be called by the department or by written petition signed by five or more of the committee members. The chairman of the parks and recreation commission or the chairman's designee shall serve as the chairman of any meetings of the committee held to implement the provisions of this act.

The committee shall seek and receive comments from the public regarding potential additions to the system, shall initiate studies, and may, through the department, submit to any session of the legislature proposals for additions to the state scenic river system. These proposals shall be accompanied by a detailed report on the factors which, in the committee's judgment, make an area a worthy addition to the system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The management program for the system shall be administered by the department. The department shall have the responsibility for coordinating the development of the program between affected state agencies and participating local governments, and shall develop and adopt rules and regulations, in accord with chapter 34.04 RCW, for each portion of the system, which shall implement the management policies. In developing rules and regulations for a specific river in the system, the department shall hold at least one public hearing in the general locale of the river under consideration. The department shall cause a brief summary of the proposed rules and regulations to be published twice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area which includes the river to be considered in the period of time between two and four weeks prior to the public hearing. In addition to the foregoing required publication, the department shall also provide notice of the hearings, rules, regulations, and decisions of the department to radio and television stations and major local newspapers in the areas which include the river to be considered.

(2) In addition to any other powers granted to carry out the intent of this chapter, the department is authorized, subject to approval by majority vote of the members of the committee, to: (a) Purchase, within the river area, real property in fee or any lesser right or interest in real property including, but not limited to scenic easements and future development rights, visual corridors, wildlife habitats, unique ecological areas, historical sites, camping and picnic areas, boat launching sites, and/or easements abutting the river for the purpose of preserving or enhancing the river or facilitating the use of the river by the public for fishing, boating and other water related activities; and (b) purchase, outside of a river area, public access to the river area.

The right of eminent domain shall not be utilized in any purchase made pursuant to this section.

(3) The department is further authorized to: (a) Acquire by gift, devise, grant, or dedication the fee, an option to purchase, a right of first refusal or any other lesser right or interest in real property and upon acquisition such real property shall be held and managed within the scenic river system; and (b) accept grants, contributions, or funds from any agency, public or private, or individual for the purposes of this chapter.

(4) The department is hereby vested with the power to obtain injunctions and other appropriate relief against violations of any provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted under this section or agreements made under the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) All state government agencies and local governments are hereby directed to pursue policies with regard to their respective activities, functions, powers, and duties which are designed to conserve and enhance the conditions of rivers which have been included in the system, in accordance with the management policies and the rules and regulations adopted by the department for such rivers. Local agencies are directed to pursue such policies with respect to all lands in the river area owned or leased by such local agencies. Nothing in this chapter shall authorize the modification of a shoreline management plan adopted by a local government and approved by the state pursuant to chapter 90.58 RCW without the approval of the department of ecology and local government. The policies adopted pursuant to this chapter shall be integrated, as fully as possible, with those of the shoreline management act of 1971.

(2) Nothing in this chapter shall grant to the committee of participating agencies or the department the power to restrict the use of private land without either the specific written consent of the owner thereof or the acquisition of rights in real property authorized by section 4 of this act.

(3) Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the department of natural resources from exercising its full responsibilities and obligations for the management of state trust lands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Rivers of a scenic nature are eligible for inclusion in the system. Ideally, a scenic river:

- (1) Is free-flowing without diversions that hinder recreational use;
- (2) Has a streamway that is relatively unmodified by riprapping and other stream bank protection;
- (3) Has water of sufficient quality and quantity to be deemed worthy of protection;
- (4) Has a relatively natural setting and adequate open space;

(5) Requires some coordinated plan of management in order to enhance and preserve the river area; and

(6) Has some lands along its length already in public ownership, or the possibility for purchase or dedication of public access and/or scenic easements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Nothing contained in this act shall affect the authority of the department of fisheries and the department of game to construct facilities or make improvements to facilitate the passage or propagation of fish nor shall anything in this act be construed to interfere with the powers, duties, and authority of the department of fisheries or the department of game to regulate, manage, conserve, and provide for the harvest of fish or wildlife within any area designated as being in the state's scenic river system: PROVIDED, That no hunting shall be permitted in any state park.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The following rivers of the state of Washington are hereby designated as being in the scenic river system of the state of Washington:

(1) The Skykomish river from the junction of the north and south forks of the Skykomish river:

(a) Downstream approximately fourteen miles to its junction with the Sultan river;

(b) Upstream approximately twenty miles on the south fork to the junction of the Tye and Foss rivers;

(c) Upstream approximately eleven miles on the north fork to its junction with Bear creek;

(2) The Beckler river from its junction with the south fork of the Skykomish river upstream approximately eight miles to its junction with Rapid river; and

(3) The Tye river from its junction with the south fork of the Skykomish river upstream approximately fourteen miles to Tye Lake.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude a section or segment of the state's scenic rivers included in the system from becoming a part of the national wild and scenic river system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. No funds shall be expended from the game fund to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. All funds for the implementation of this act as now or hereafter amended shall come from the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person of legal entity or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or legal entities or circumstances, shall not be affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 79 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Section 1. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 48.40.080, a funeral establishment licensed pursuant to chapter 18.39 RCW may enter into prearrangement funeral service contracts, subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter:

(a) "Prearrangement funeral service contract" means any contract, other than a contract entered into by an insurance company, under which, for a specified consideration paid in advance in a lump sum or by installments, a funeral establishment promises, upon the death of a beneficiary named or implied in the contract, to furnish funeral merchandise or services.

(b) "Funeral merchandise or services" shall mean those services normally performed and merchandise normally provided by funeral establishments including the sale of burial supplies and equipment, but excluding the sale by a cemetery of lands or interests therein, services incidental thereto, markers, memorials, monuments, equipment, crypts, niches, or vaults.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Any funeral establishment selling by prearrangement funeral service contract any funeral merchandise or services shall establish and maintain one or more prearrangement funeral service trust funds for the benefit of the beneficiary of the prearrangement funeral service contract.

(2) Fifteen percent of the cash purchase price of each prearrangement funeral service contract, excluding sales tax, may be retained by the funeral establishment. Deposits to the prearrangement funeral service trust fund shall be made not later than the twentieth day of the month following the receipt of each payment made on the last eighty-five percent of each prearrangement funeral service contract, excluding sales tax.

(3) All prearrangement funeral service trust funds shall be deposited in a qualified public depository. (b) If the funeral establishment files a verified statement with the depository that the prearrangement funeral merchandise and services covered by the contract have been canceled in accordance with its terms.

(6) Any purchaser or beneficiary who has procured a prearrangement funeral service contract shall have the right to demand a refund of the entire amount paid on the contract, together with all interest, dividends, increases, or accretions to the funds.

(7) Prearrangement funeral service contracts shall automatically terminate if the funeral establishment goes out of business, becomes insolvent or bankrupt, makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or for any other reason is unable to fulfill the obligations under the contract. In such event, and upon demand by the purchaser or beneficiary of the prearrangement funeral service contract, the depository of the prearrangement funeral service contract funds shall refund to the purchaser or beneficiary all funds deposited under the said contract, unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) Prearrangement funeral service trust funds shall not be used, directly or indirectly, for the benefit of the funeral establishment or any director, officer, agent, or employee of the funeral establishment including, but not limited to, any encumbrance, pledge, or other use of prearrangement funeral service trust funds as collateral or other security.

(9) Every prearrangement funeral service contract shall contain language which informs the purchaser of the prearrangement funeral service trust fund and the amount to be deposited in the trust fund, which may not be less than eighty-five percent of the cash purchase price of the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. No funeral establishment shall enter into prearrangement funeral service contracts in this state unless the funeral establishment has obtained a certificate of registration issued by the commissioner and such certificate is then in force.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. To qualify for and hold a certificate of registration a funeral establishment must:

(1) Be licensed pursuant to chapter 18.39 RCW; and

(2) Fully comply with and qualify according to the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The commissioner may refuse to renew or may revoke or suspend a funeral establishment's certificate of registration, if the funeral establishment:

- (1) Fails to comply with any provisions of this chapter or any proper order or regulation of the commissioner;
- (2) Is found by the commissioner to be in such condition that further execution of prearrangement contracts could be hazardous to purchasers or beneficiaries and the people of this state;
- (3) Refuses to be examined, or refuses to submit to examination or to produce its accounts, records and files for examination by the commissioner when required; or
- (4) Is found by the commissioner after investigation or receipt of reliable information to be managed by persons who are incompetent or untrustworthy or so lacking in managerial experience as to make the proposed or continued operation hazardous to purchasers, beneficiaries, or to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. To apply for an original certificate of registration, a funeral establishment must:

- (1) File with the commissioner its request showing:
  - (a) Its name, location, and organization date;
  - (b) The kinds of funeral business it proposes to transact;
  - (c) A statement of its financial condition, management, and affairs on a form satisfactory to or furnished by the commissioner; and
  - (d) Such other documents, stipulations, or information as the commissioner may reasonably require to evidence compliance with the provisions of this chapter.
- (2) Deposit with the commissioner the fees required by this chapter to be paid for filing the accompanying documents, and for the certificate of registration, if granted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. All certificates of registration issued pursuant to this chapter shall continue in force until suspended, revoked, or renewed. A certificate shall be subject to renewal annually on the first day of July upon application by the funeral establishment and payment of the required fees.

The commissioner shall collect in advance the following fees:

- (1) Certificate of registration:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The commissioner shall give a funeral establishment notice of his intention to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the establishment's certificate of registration not less than ten days before the order of suspension, revocation or refusal is to become effective.

No funeral establishment whose certificate of registration has been suspended, revoked, or refused shall subsequently be authorized to enter into prearrangement contracts unless the grounds for such suspension, revocation, or refusal in the opinion of the commissioner no longer exist and the funeral establishment is otherwise fully qualified.

Upon the suspension, revocation or refusal of a funeral establishment's certificate of registration, the commissioner shall give written notice of such action to the director of the department of motor vehicles.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) Each authorized funeral establishment shall annually, before the first day of March, file with the commissioner a true and accurate statement of its financial condition, transactions, and affairs for the preceding calendar year. The statement shall be on such forms and shall contain such information as required by this chapter and by the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner shall suspend or revoke the certificate of registration of any funeral establishment which fails to file its annual statement when due or after any extension of time which the commissioner has, for good cause, granted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. No prearrangement funeral contract forms shall be used without the prior approval of the commissioner.

The commissioner shall disapprove any such contract form, or withdraw prior approval when such form:

- (1) Violates or does not comply with this chapter;
- (2) Contains or incorporates by reference any inconsistent, ambiguous or misleading clauses, or exceptions and conditions which unreasonably or deceptively affect the merchandise or service purported to be provided in the general coverage of the contract;
- (3) Has any title, heading, or other part of its provisions which is misleading; or
- (4) Is being solicited by deceptive advertising.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The commissioner shall have the authority expressly conferred upon him by or reasonably implied from the provisions of this chapter.

(2) The commissioner may:

(a) Make reasonable rules and regulations for effectuating any provision of this chapter in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW;

(b) Conduct investigations to determine whether any person has violated any provision of this chapter; and

(c) Conduct examinations, investigations, and hearings, in addition to those specifically provided for, useful and proper for the efficient administration of any provision of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Any person who shall violate or fail to comply with, or aid or abet any person in the violation of, or failure to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor pursuant to chapter 9A.20 RCW. Any such violation shall constitute an unfair practice under chapters 19.86 and 48.30 RCW and conviction thereunder shall be grounds for license revocation under chapter 18.39 RCW. Retail installment transactions under this chapter shall be governed by chapter 63.14 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 12 are each added to chapter 48.40 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 47.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The Washington state toll bridge authority shall, no later than January 1, 1980, negotiate a contract with any shipbuilding firm, which has prequalified under section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, for the construction of one or more ferry vessels for the Washington state ferries. Whenever the toll bridge authority begins such negotiations, it shall proceed in the manner provided by this section.

(2) Whenever the Washington state toll bridge authority decides to procure one or more ferry vessels for the Washington state ferries by negotiated contract pursuant to this section, it shall determine the number of vessels to be constructed, the money available for these purposes, any performance criteria or requirements which the boat, as constructed, must meet, and any other information or requirements related to the procurement which the toll bridge authority deems pertinent.

(3) Whenever the toll bridge authority decides to negotiate a contract for the design and/or construction of one or more ferry vessels, it shall publish a notice of its intent to negotiate such a contract once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in one trade paper and one other paper, both of general circulation in the state. In addition, the authority shall mail said notice to any firm known to the authority which has expressed an interest in constructing ferries for the Washington state ferry system within the previous 10 years. The notice shall contain, but not be limited to, the following information:

(a) The number of ferry vessels to be built, their vehicular and passenger capacity, and the proposed delivery date for each vessel;

(b) A short summary of the requirements for prequalification contained in section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, including a statement explaining that prequalification is a prerequisite to consideration by the toll bridge authority of any ferry vessel proposal;

(c) An address and telephone number which may be used to obtain the application forms for prequalification and the request for proposal.

(4) The authority shall send to any firm which shall request it a request for proposal outlining the design and construction requirements for the ferry vessels. The request for proposal shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(a) Solicitation of a proposal which provides complete design specifications and details sufficient for the construction of ferry vessels which meet or exceed performance criteria specified by the authority;

(b) The number of vessels to be contracted for;

(c) The proposed delivery date for each vessel, the port on Puget Sound where delivery will be taken, and the location where acceptance trials will be held;

(d) The maximum funds which can be expended for procurement and an explanation that no proposal will be considered which quotes a price greater than that amount;

(e) The amount of the contractor's bond;

(f) A copy of any contract plans and specifications for ferry vessels possessed by the department of highways which the authority determines might be useful to firms in preparing proposals;

(g) The date by which proposals for ferry vessel design and construction must be received by the authority in order to be considered;

(h) A requirement that all designs submitted shall conform to the American bureau of shipping and the United States coast guard standards for the design of passenger vessels;

(i) A statement that any proposal submitted shall constitute an offer and shall remain open until ninety days after the deadline for submitting proposals, unless the firm submitting it shall withdraw it by formal written notice received by the toll bridge authority prior to the authority's selection of the firm submitting the most advantageous proposal, together with an explanation of the requirement that all proposals submitted be accompanied by a deposit in the amount of five percent of the proposed cost; and

(j) A copy of chapter 47.60 RCW.

(5) The authority shall evaluate all timely proposals received from prequalified firms for compliance with the requirements specified in the request for proposal, and, in addition, shall estimate the operation and maintenance costs of each firm's vessel design by applying appropriate criteria developed by the authority for this purpose.

(6) Upon concluding its evaluation, the toll bridge authority shall:

(a) Select the firm presenting the proposal most advantageous to the state, taking into consideration the requirements stated in the request for proposal and the in-state preference provided in section 8 of this 1977 amendatory act, and rank the remaining firms in order of preference, judging them by the same standards; or

(b) Reject all proposals as not in compliance with the requirements contained in the request for proposals.

The authority shall immediately notify those firms, which were not selected as the firm presenting the most advantageous proposal, of the authority's decision. The authority's decision shall be conclusive unless appeal therefrom shall be taken by an aggrieved firm to the superior court of Thurston county within five days after receiving notice of the authority's final decision. The appeal shall be heard summarily within ten days after the same is taken and on five days notice thereof to the toll bridge authority. The court shall hear any such appeal on the administrative record which was before the authority. The court may affirm the decision of the authority or it may reverse the decision if it determines the action of the authority is arbitrary or capricious.

(7) Upon selecting that firm which has presented the most advantageous proposal and ranking the remaining firms in order of preference, the authority shall:

(a) Negotiate a contract with the firm presenting the most advantageous proposal; or

(b) In the event that a final agreement cannot be negotiated with the firm presenting the most advantageous proposal which is satisfactory to the authority, the authority may then negotiate with the firm ranked next highest in order of preference. Should it be necessary, the authority may repeat this procedure and negotiate with each firm in order of rank until the list of firms has been exhausted.

(8) In negotiating such a contract for the design and/or construction of ferry vessels, the authority may, subject to the provisions of RCW 39.25.020, authorize the use of foreign made materials and components in the construction of ferries in order to minimize costs.

(9) Proposals submitted by firms pursuant to this section shall constitute an offer and shall remain open for ninety days. When submitted, each proposal shall be accompanied by a deposit in cash, certificated check, cashier's check, or surety bond in the amount equal to five percent of the amount of the proposed contract price and no proposal shall be considered unless the deposit is enclosed therewith. If the authority awards a contract to a firm pursuant to the procedure set forth in this section and the firm fails to enter into the contract and furnish a satisfactory bond as required by section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act within twenty days, exclusive of the day of the award, his deposit shall be forfeited to the state and be deposited by the state treasurer to the credit of the Puget Sound capital construction account. Upon the execution of a ferry construction contract all proposal deposits shall be returned.

(10) The authority may delegate any of the powers or duties conferred upon it by this section to the department of highways, and the department shall assume or perform those powers or duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 47.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The Washington state toll bridge authority shall require any firm desiring to contract for the construction of one or more ferry vessels for the Washington state ferries to prequalify for such work in the manner prescribed herein. The authority shall supply to such person, firm, or corporation a standard form of questionnaire and financial statement applicable to shipbuilders, including a complete statement of the financial ability and experience of such firm in shipbuilding. Such questionnaire shall be sworn to before a notary public. The authority shall certify as prequalified for the construction of ferry vessels only those firms which have all of the following requirements:

(1) Adequate financial resources or the ability to secure such resources;

- (2) The necessary experience, organization, and technical qualifications to construct ferry vessels;
- (3) The ability to comply with the required performance schedule taking into consideration all of the firm's existing business commitments;
- (4) A satisfactory record of performance, integrity, judgment, and skills; and
- (5) Be otherwise qualified and eligible to construct ferry vessels under applicable laws and regulations.

A refusal by the authority to certify a firm as prequalified to construct ferry vessels for the Washington state ferries shall be conclusive unless appeal therefrom to the superior court of Thurston county be taken within five days after receiving notice thereof, which appeal shall be heard summarily within ten days after the appeal is taken and on five days' notice thereof to the authority. The court shall hear any such appeal on the administrative record which was before the authority. The court may affirm the decision of the authority or it may reverse the decision if it determines the action of the authority is arbitrary or capricious. A firm may re-apply for certification after one year has elapsed from the date certification was denied.

Neither the Washington state toll bridge authority nor the department of highways shall accept any bid, or consider any proposal for a negotiated ferry vessel construction contract, from a firm which has not prequalified pursuant to this section.

The Washington state toll bridge authority may delegate to the department of highways any of the powers or duties conferred upon the authority by this section, and the department shall assume or perform those powers or duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 39.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The contractor's bond required by chapter 39.08 RCW in connection with any negotiated contract for the construction of one or more ferry vessels for the Washington state ferries shall be in an amount to be specified by the Washington state toll bridge authority in the request for proposal provided for in section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act. In no event shall the bond be for more than twenty-five percent of the total contract price of two or more ferry vessels nor more than fifty percent of the total contract price for a single vessel. In determining and fixing the amount of such bond the authority may take into account the financial resources required of all firms which prequalify to construct ferry vessels for the Washington state ferries, the number of vessels which may be constructed, and the time period in which the vessels are to be constructed.

The Washington state toll bridge authority may delegate to the department of highways any of the powers or duties conferred upon the authority by this section, and the department shall assume or perform those powers or duties.

CHAPTER 167

MOTOR VEHICLES—REMOVAL FROM HIGHWAY—TOWING OPERATORS

AN ACT Relating to motor vehicles; amending section 65, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.565; adding new sections to chapter 46.61 RCW; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 46.61 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The business of operating tow trucks for the public in the transportation of disabled or damaged motor vehicles and vehicles incapable of self-propulsion due to mechanical defects or incapacity, by towing or hauling upon the highways of this state, is declared to be a business affecting the public interest. The large volume of motor vehicle traffic, vehicle accidents, congestion, and the need to keep the highways clear requires rapid and efficient service by adequately equipped and capably operated tow trucks. The fact that those persons now operating these businesses are not effectively regulated under existing law makes it necessary that more complete regulation is instituted and administered to make the highways safer for the use of the general public and to assure that adequate, economical, and efficient service, at reasonable charges without unjust discrimination, undue preferences or advantages, and unfair or destructive competitive practices, prevails in the public interest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 46.61 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Commission" means the state commission on equipment as defined in RCW 46.37.005;

(2) "Person" means an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, or their lessees, trustees, or receivers;

(3) "Highway" means the entire width between the boundary lines of every way publicly maintained when any part thereof is open to the use of the public for purposes of vehicular travel;

(4) "Towing operator" means every person who engages in the towing of vehicles and motor vehicles on a highway by means of equipment affixed to a specially constructed tow truck complying with the equipment specifications and standards promulgated by the commission; and

(5) "Tow truck" means a specially constructed and equipped motor vehicle for towing vehicles and not otherwise used in transporting goods for compensation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 46.61 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate as a towing operator on a highway of this state contrary to the provisions of this chapter or the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

Sec. 4. Section 65, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.565 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any police officer finds a vehicle standing upon a highway in violation of any of the provisions of RCW 46.61.560, such officer is hereby authorized to ~~((move))~~ provide for the removal of such vehicle(;;) to a place of safety or require the driver or other person in charge of the vehicle to move the same, to a position off the main-traveled part of such highway. For the purpose of this section, a place of safety may include the business location of a towing service.

(2) Whenever any police officer finds a vehicle unattended upon any ~~((bridge or causeway or in any tunnel))~~ highway where such vehicle constitutes an obstruction to traffic or jeopardizes public safety, such officer is hereby authorized to provide for the removal of such vehicle to ~~((the nearest garage or other))~~ a place of safety.

~~(3) ((The charge for removal of a vehicle as authorized in subsections (1) and (2) above shall be fixed by the governmental agency having traffic law enforcement jurisdiction over the portion of highway where such vehicle was found. Such governmental agency may perform the removal service directly or through a private firm. A private firm providing such removal services shall post the authorized charges therefor prominently at its place of business. The costs incurred in the removal of such a vehicle shall be paid by the vehicle's owner and shall be a lien upon the vehicle until paid))~~ Whenever a police officer finds an unattended vehicle at the scene of an accident or when the driver of any vehicle involved in an accident is physically or mentally incapable, or too intoxicated, to decide upon steps to be taken to protect his or her property, the officer may provide for the removal of the vehicle to a place of safety.

(4) Whenever the driver of a vehicle is arrested and taken into custody by a police officer, and the driver, because of intoxication or otherwise, is mentally incapable of deciding upon steps to be taken to safeguard his or her property, a police officer may provide for the removal of the vehicle to a place of safety.

(5) Nothing in this section shall derogate from the powers of police officers under the common law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 46.61 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The Washington state patrol, under its authority to remove vehicles from the highway, may remove the vehicles directly, through towing operators appointed by the commission and called on a rotational or other basis, through contracts with towing operators, or by a combination of these methods. When removal is to be accomplished through a towing operator on a noncontractual basis, the commission may appoint any towing operator for this purpose upon the application of the operator. Each appointment shall be contingent upon the submission of an application to the commission and the making of subsequent reports in such form and frequency and compliance with such standards of equipment, performance, pricing, and practices as may be required by rule of the commission.

An appointment may be rescinded by the commission at the request of the Washington state patrol upon evidence that the appointed towing operator is not complying with the laws or rules relating to the removal and storage of vehicles from the highway. The costs of removal and storage of vehicles under this section shall be paid by the owner or driver of the vehicle and shall be a lien upon the vehicle until paid.

Rules promulgated under this section shall be binding only upon those towing operators appointed by the commission for the purpose of performing towing services at the request of the Washington state patrol. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the commission made under this section may appeal the decision under chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House April 29, 1977.

Passed the Senate May 26, 1977.
