The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and RCW 84.52.043 shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes by school districts, when authorized so to do by the electors of such school district in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended, at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the levy is made or, in the case of a proposition authorizing levies for support of a school district for a two year period, at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the first annual levy is made: PROVIDED, That once additional tax levies have been authorized for the support of a school district for a two year period, no further additional tax levies for the support of the district for that period may be authorized.

A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the board of school directors, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote "yes" and those opposed thereto to vote "no".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 15, Laws of 1961, and to chapter 84.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district for maintenance and operation support under the provisions of section 3 of this amendatory act shall be as follows:

(1) For excess levies in 1977 for collection in 1978:

To the extent that any district receives funds through the state apportionment formula in excess of the amount anticipated by such a district when it established its excess levy for collection in 1978 and when such excess can be utilized to relieve special levy burdens, then such a district should place a first priority on reducing its special levy.

(2) For excess levies in 1977 for collection in 1979; for excess levies in 1978 for collection in 1979 and thereafter, the sum of:

(a) That amount equal to ten percent of each school district's prior year basic education allocation converted to one hundred percent of formula; plus

(b) That amount equal to each school district's prior year basic education allocation converted to one hundred percent of formula minus each school district's basic education allocation for such school year.

(3) Excess levies authorized under this 1977 amendatory act or under RCW 84.52.052 shall not be used to increase the average compensation for certificated or classified personnel in any school district: PROVIDED, That those school districts which receive state funds budgeted for a four percent increase in average compensation for certificated or classified personnel respectively shall be allowed to increase such certificated or classified compensation by an amount equal to the percentage increase in the prior year's United States Consumer Price Index minus the state funded four percent, or by an additional two percent, whichever is less: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any school district whose average compensation for certificated or classified personnel respectively is below statewide average compensation level for certificated or classified personnel during the preceding school year, may collect and expend property taxes authorized by this 1977 amendatory act, or under RCW 84.52.052, for the purpose of increasing such district average compensation for certificated or classified personnel up to but not to exceed the statewide average compensation for certificated or classified personnel for the preceding school year: PROVIDED FURTHER, That those contracts which have been negotiated prior to the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act by those school districts for such school year shall not be abrogated by this 1977 amendatory act.

"Compensation" for the purposes of this 1977 amendatory act shall mean one hundred and seven percent of each school district's respective average salary for certificated personnel, and one hundred and fourteen percent of each school district's respective average salary for classified personnel.

Certificated personnel shall include those persons employed by a school district in a teaching, instructional, administrative or supervisory capacity and who hold positions as certificated personnel as defined under RCW 28A.01.130, as now or hereafter amended, and every school district superintendent, and any person hired in any manner to fill a position designated as, or which is in fact, that of deputy superintendent or assistant superintendent. Classified personnel shall include those persons employed by a school district other than certificated personnel as defined in this section in a capacity for which certification is not required.

For the purpose of subsection (2) of this section, the superintendent of public instruction may grant local school districts authority to exceed the levy limitations imposed by said subsection: PROVIDED, That said limitations can only be exceeded by an amount that will insure local school districts the ability to raise a total excess levy dollar amount per annual average full time equivalent student which when combined with the basic education allocation is equal to but does not exceed one hundred and four percent of the previous school year's comparable dollars per annual average full time equivalent student.

The superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules and regulations and inform school districts of the pertinent data necessary to carry out the provisions of this 1977 amendatory act.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 2, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 87, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.020 are each amended to read as follows:

- (1) "Amusement game" means a game played for entertainment in which:
  - (a) The contestant actively participates;
  - (b) The outcome depends in a material degree upon the skill of the contestant;
  - (c) Only merchandise prizes are awarded;
  - (d) The outcome is not in the control of the operator;
  - (e) The wagers are placed, the winners are determined, and a distribution of prizes or property is made in the presence of all persons placing wagers at such game; and
  - (f) Said game is conducted or operated by any agricultural fair, person, association, or organization in such manner and at such locations as may be authorized by rules and regulations adopted by the commission pursuant to this chapter as now or hereafter amended.

Cake walks as commonly known and fish ponds as commonly known shall be treated as amusement games for all purposes under this chapter.

- (2) "Bingo" means a game in which prizes are awarded on the basis of designated numbers or symbols on a card conforming to numbers or symbols selected at random and in which no cards are sold except at the time and place of said game, when said game is conducted by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization which does not conduct or allow its premises to be used for conducting bingo on more than three occasions per week and which does not conduct bingo in any location which is used for conducting bingo on more than three occasions per week, or if an agricultural fair authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, which does not conduct bingo on more than twelve consecutive days in any calendar year, and except in the case of any agricultural fair as authorized under chapters 15.76 and 36.37 RCW, no person other than a bona fide member or an employee of said organization takes any part in the management or operation of said game, and no person who takes any part in the management or operation of said game takes any part in the management or operation of any game conducted by any other organization or any other branch of the same organization, unless approved by the commission, and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting said game.

(3) "Bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization" means: (a) any organization duly existing under the provisions of chapters 24.12, 24.20, or 24.28 RCW, any agricultural fair authorized under the provisions of chapters 15.76 or 36.37 RCW, or any nonprofit corporation duly existing under the provisions of chapter 24.03 RCW for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, civic, patriotic, political, social, fraternal, athletic or agricultural purposes only, or any nonprofit organization, whether incorporated or otherwise, when found by the commission to be organized and operating for one or more of the aforesaid purposes only, all of which in the opinion of the commission have been organized and are operated primarily for purposes other than the operation of gambling activities authorized under this chapter; or (b) any corporation which has been incorporated under Title 36 U.S.C. and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of the armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same. The fact that contributions to an organization do not qualify for charitable contribution deduction purposes or that the organization is not otherwise exempt from payment of federal income taxes pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, shall constitute prima facie evidence that the organization is not a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this section.

Any person, association or organization which pays its employees, including members, compensation other than is reasonable therefor under the local prevailing wage scale shall be deemed paying compensation based in part or whole upon receipts relating to gambling activities authorized under this chapter and shall not be a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this chapter.

(4) "Bookmaking" means accepting bets as a business, rather than in a casual or personal fashion, upon the outcome of future contingent events.

(5) "Commercial stimulant". An activity is operated as a commercial stimulant, for the purposes of this chapter, only when it is an incidental activity operated in connection with, and incidental to, an established business, with the primary purpose of increasing the volume of sales of food or drink for consumption on that business premises. The commission may by rule establish guidelines and criteria for applying this definition to its applicants and licensees for gambling activities authorized by this chapter as commercial stimulants.

(6) "Commission" means the Washington state gambling commission created in RCW 9.46.040.

~~((6))~~ (7) "Contest of chance" means any contest, game, gaming scheme, or gaming device in which the outcome depends in a material degree upon an element of chance, notwithstanding that skill of the contestants may also be a factor therein.

~~((7))~~ (8) "Fishing derby" means a fishing contest, with or without the payment or giving of an entry fee or other consideration by some or all of the contestants wherein prizes are awarded for the species, size, weight, or quality of fish caught in a bona fide fishing or recreational event.

~~((8))~~ (9) "Gambling". A person engages in gambling if he stakes or risks something of value upon the outcome of a contest of chance or a future contingent event not under his control or influence, upon an agreement or understanding that he or someone else will receive something of value in the event of a certain outcome. Gambling does not include fishing derbies as defined by this chapter, pari-mutuel betting as authorized by chapter 67.16 RCW, bona fide business transactions valid under the law of contracts, including, but not limited to, contracts for the purchase or sale at a future date of securities or commodities, and agreements to compensate for loss caused by the happening of chance, including, but not limited to, contracts of indemnity or guarantee and life, health or accident insurance. In addition, a contest of chance which is specifically excluded from the definition of lottery under subsection ~~((13))~~ (14) of this section shall not constitute gambling.

~~((9))~~ (10) "Gambling device" means: (a) Any device or mechanism the operation of which a right to money, credits, deposits or other things of value may be created, in return for a consideration, as the result of the operation of an element of chance; (b) any device or mechanism which, when operated for a consideration, does not return the same value or thing of value for the same consideration upon each operation thereof; (c) any device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation designed primarily for use in connection with professional gambling; and (d) any subassembly or essential part designed or intended for use in connection with any such device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation. But in the application of this definition, a pinball machine or similar mechanical amusement device which confers only an immediate and unrecorded right of replay on players thereof, which does not contain any mechanism which varies the chance of winning free games or the number of free games which may be won or a mechanism or a chute for dispensing coins or a facsimile thereof, and which prohibits multiple winnings depending upon the number of coins inserted and requires the playing of five balls individually upon the insertion of a nickel or dime, as the case may be, to complete any one operation thereof, shall not be deemed a gambling device: PROVIDED FURTHER, That owning, possessing, buying, selling, renting, leasing, financing, holding a security interest in, storing, repairing and transporting such pinball machines or similar mechanical amusement devices shall not be deemed engaging in professional gambling for the purposes of this chapter and shall not be a violation of this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any fee for the purchase or rental of any such pinball machines or similar amusement devices shall have no relation to the use to which such machines are put but be based only upon the market value of any such machine, regardless of the location of or type of premises where used, and any fee for the storing, repairing and transporting thereof shall have no relation to the use to which such machines are put, but be commensurate with the cost of labor and other expenses incurred in any such storing, repairing and transporting.

~~((+0))~~ (11) "Gambling information" means any wager made in the course of and any information intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition information as to wagers, betting odds and changes in betting odds shall be presumed to be intended for use in professional gambling: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall not apply to newspapers of general circulation or commercial radio and television stations licensed by the federal communications commission.

~~((+1))~~ (12) "Gambling premises" means any building, room, enclosure, vehicle, vessel or other place used or intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition, any place where a gambling device is found, shall be presumed to be intended to be used for professional gambling.

~~((+2))~~ (13) "Gambling record" means any record, receipt, ticket, certificate, token, slip or notation given, made, used or intended to be used in connection with professional gambling.

~~((+3))~~ (14) "Lottery" means a scheme for the distribution of money or property by chance, among persons who have paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for the chance.

For the purpose of this chapter, the following activities do not constitute "valuable consideration" as an element of a lottery:

(a) Listening to or watching a television or radio program or subscribing to a cable television service;

(b) Filling out and returning a coupon or entry blank or facsimile which is received through the mail or published in a bona fide newspaper or magazine, or in a program sold in conjunction with and at a regularly scheduled sporting event, or the purchase of such a newspaper, magazine or program;

(c) Sending a coupon or entry blank by United States mail to a designated address in connection with a promotion conducted in this state;

(d) Visitation to any business establishment to obtain a coupon, or entry blank;

(e) Mere registration without purchase of goods or services;

(f) Expenditure of time, thought, attention and energy in perusing promotional material;

(g) Placing or answering a telephone call in a prescribed manner or otherwise making a prescribed response or answer;

(h) Furnishing the container of any product as packaged by the manufacturer, or a particular portion thereof but only if furnishing a plain piece of paper or card with the name of the manufacturer or product handwritten on it is acceptable in lieu thereof: PROVIDED, That where any drawing is held by or on behalf of in-state retail outlets in connection with business promotions authorized under subsections (d) and (e) hereof, no such in-state retail outlet may conduct more than one such drawing during each calendar year and the period of the drawing and its promotion shall not extend for more than seven consecutive days: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the sponsoring organization has more than one outlet in the state such drawings must be held in all such outlets at the same time except that a sponsoring organization with more than one outlet may conduct a separate drawing in connection with the initial opening of any such outlet; or

(i) The payment of an admission fee to gain admission to any agricultural fair authorized under chapters 15.76 or 36.37 RCW where (i) the scheme is conducted for promotional or advertising purposes, not including the promotion or advertisement of the scheme itself; and (ii) the person or organization conducting the scheme receives no portion of the admission fee either directly or indirectly and receives no other money for conducting the scheme either directly or indirectly, other than what might be received indirectly as a result of the success of the promotional or advertising aspect of the scheme.

For purposes of this chapter, radio and television broadcasting is hereby declared to be preempted by applicable federal statutes and the rules applicable thereto by the federal communications commission. Broadcast programming, including advertising and promotion, that complies with said federal statutes and regulations is hereby authorized.

(15) "Member". As used in this chapter, member means a member of an organization eligible to be licensed by the commission under this chapter, or a member of an organization which is an auxiliary of such an eligible organization, or a member of an organization of which the eligible organization is an auxiliary, or a member of an organization which is affiliated with the eligible organization by being with it auxiliary to another organization.

No person shall be a member of any organization if that person's primary purpose for membership is to become, or continue to be, a participant in, or an operator or manager of, any gambling activity or activities.

~~((+4))~~ (16) "Player" means a natural person who engages, on equal terms with the other participants, and solely as a contestant or bettor, in any form of gambling in which no person may receive or become entitled to receive any profit therefrom other than personal gambling winnings, and without otherwise rendering any material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation of a particular gambling activity. A natural person who gambles at a social game of chance on equal terms with the other participants therein does not otherwise render material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation thereof by performing, without fee or remuneration, acts directed toward the arrangement or facilitation of the game, such as inviting persons to play, permitting the use of premises therefor, and supplying cards or other equipment used therein. A person who engages in "book-making" as defined in this section is not a "player".

~~((+5))~~ (17) A person is engaged in "professional gambling" when:

(a) Acting other than as a player or in the manner set forth in RCW 9.46.030 as now or hereafter amended, he knowingly engages in conduct which materially aids any other form of gambling activity; or

(b) Acting other than as a player, or in the manner set forth in RCW 9.46.030 as now or hereafter amended, he knowingly accepts or receives money or other property pursuant to an agreement or understanding with any person whereby he participates or is to participate in the proceeds of gambling activity;

(c) He engages in bookmaking; or

(d) He conducts a lottery as defined in subsection ~~((+3))~~ (14) of this section.

If a person having substantial proprietary or other authoritative control over any premises shall permit said premises to be used with the person's knowledge for the purpose of conducting gambling activity other than gambling activities as set forth in RCW 9.46.030 as now or hereafter amended, and acting other than as a player, and said person permits such to occur or continue or makes no effort to prevent its occurrence or continuation, he shall be considered as being engaged in professional gambling: PROVIDED, That the proprietor of a bowling establishment who awards prizes obtained from player contributions, to players successfully knocking down pins upon the contingency of identifiable pins being placed in a specified position or combination of positions, as designated by the posted rules of the bowling establishment, where the proprietor does not participate in the proceeds of the "prize fund" shall not be construed to be engaging in "professional gambling" within the meaning of this chapter: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the books and records of the games shall be open to public inspection.

~~((+6))~~ (18) "Punch boards" and "pull-tabs" shall be given their usual and ordinary meaning as of July 16, 1973, except that such definition may be revised by the commission pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter.

~~((+7))~~ (19) "Raffle" means a game in which tickets bearing an individual number are sold for not more than one dollar each and in which a prize or prizes are awarded on the basis of a drawing from said tickets by the person or persons conducting the game, when said game is conducted by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization, no person other than a bona fide member of said organization takes any part in the management or operation of said game, and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting said game.

- (a) There are two or more participants and each of them are players; and
- (b) A player's success at winning money or other thing of value by overcoming chance is in the long run largely determined by the skill of the player; and
- (c) No organization, corporation or person collects or obtains or charges any percentage of or collects or obtains any portion of the money or thing of value wagered or won by any of the players: PROVIDED, That this item (c) shall not preclude a player from collecting or obtaining his winnings; and
- (d) No organization or corporation, or person collects or obtains any money or thing of value from, or charges or imposes any fee upon, any person which either enables him to play or results in or from his playing: PROVIDED, That this item (d) shall not apply to the membership fee in any bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization or to an admission fee allowed by the commission pursuant to RCW 9.46.070; and

(e) The type of card game is one specifically approved by the commission pursuant to RCW 9.46.070; and

(f) The extent of wagers, money or other thing of value which may be wagered or contributed by any player does not exceed the amount or value specified by the commission pursuant to RCW 9.46.070.

~~((19))~~ (21) "Thing of value" means any money or property, any token, object or article exchangeable for money or property, or any form of credit or promise, directly or indirectly, contemplating transfer of money or property or of any interest therein, or involving extension of a service, entertainment or a privilege of playing at a game or scheme without charge.

(23) "Fund raising event" means a fund raising event conducted during any three consecutive days and not more than once in any calendar year or a fund raising event conducted not more than twice each calendar year for not more than one calendar day by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization as defined in subsection (3) of this section other than any agricultural fair referred to thereunder, upon authorization therefor by the commission, which the legislature hereby authorizes to issue a license therefor, with or without fee, permitting the following activities, or any of them, during such event: Bingo, amusement games, contests of chance, lotteries and raffles: PROVIDED, That (a) gross wagers and bets received by the organization less the amount of money paid by the organization as winnings and for the purchase cost of prizes given as winnings do not exceed five thousand dollars during the total calendar days of such fund raising event in the calendar year; (b) such activities shall not include any mechanical gambling or lottery device activated by the insertion of a coin or by the insertion of any object purchased by any person taking a chance by gambling in respect to the device; (c) only bona fide members of the organization who are not paid for such service shall participate in the management or operation of the activities, and all income therefrom, after deducting the cost of prizes and other expenses, shall be devoted solely to the lawful purposes of the organization; and (d) such organization shall notify the appropriate local law enforcement agency of the time and place where such activities shall be conducted. The commission shall require an annual information report setting forth in detail the expenses incurred and the revenue received relative to the activities permitted.

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 75.18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The long range economic development goals for the state of Washington shall include the restoration of salmon runs to provide an increased supply of this valuable renewable resource for the benefit of commercial and recreational users and the economic well-being of the state. For the purpose of providing funds for the planning, acquisition, construction, improvement, and operation of salmon enhancement facilities within the state it is the intent of the legislature that the revenues received from fees from the issuance of vessel delivery permits, charter boat licenses, trolling gear licenses, gill net gear licenses, purse seine gear licenses, reef net gear licenses, anadromous salmon angling licenses and all moneys received from all privilege fees and fish sales taxes collected on fresh or frozen salmon or parts thereof be utilized to fund such costs.

The salmon enhancement program funded by commercial and recreational fishing fees and taxes shall be for the express benefit of all persons whose fishing activities fall under the management authority of the Washington department of fisheries and who actively participate in the funding of the enhancement costs through the fees and taxes set forth in chapters 75.28 and 75.32 RCW or through other adequate funding methods.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 75.18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The department shall not acquire, construct, or substantially improve any salmon enhancement facility unless the requirements of this section are met.

(a) The productivity of any salmon propagation facility is very dependent on water quantity and quality. Since there is a limited number of water sources which meet the critical needs of a facility it is imperative that these sources are acquired. Therefore, site acquisitions and preliminary design shall be considered by the department as generally having priority over project development.

(b) Prior to expending any moneys for the construction and development of any particular salmon propagation facility, except for site acquisition and preliminary design, the department shall, with the advice of the advisory council created in subsection (2) of this section, give consideration to the following factors with respect to that facility:

- (i) The department's management authority over propagated salmon;
- (ii) The level of expected Canadian interception on the propagated salmon and whether this would be acceptable;
- (iii) Whether an acceptable agreement has been reached on the status of treaty Indian salmon harvest; and
- (iv) Whether there can be a maximum harvest of propagated salmon with a tolerable impact on other salmonid stocks, both natural and artificial, and on their environment. The department shall consult on this matter with the department of game.

(2) To aid and advise the department in the performance of its functions as specified by this section with regard to the salmon enhancement program, a salmon advisory council is hereby created. The advisory council shall consist of ten members appointed by the governor; the director of the department of fisheries, who shall be chairman; the director of the department of game, or the director's designee; one member of the senate to be appointed by the president of the senate; and one member of the house of representatives to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. Of the members appointed by the governor, two shall represent troll fishermen; two shall represent gill net fishermen, of which one shall be from the Puget Sound area and one from the southwest Washington area; one shall represent purse seine fishermen; one shall represent owners of charter boats; two shall represent sportsmen; and two shall represent fish processors, of which one shall represent fresh or frozen fish processors and one shall represent canneries.

The advisory council shall be convened by the director prior to the decision to expend any funds for construction and development of any salmon propagation facility. The council shall advise the director with regard to the considerations listed in subsection (1)(b) of this section and any other factors the council deems relevant with respect to the proposed facility.

Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments. Except for the director of the department of game and legislative members, members shall receive reimbursement through the department of fisheries for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

The director of the department of game, or the director's designee, shall receive reimbursement through the department of game for travel expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. The legislative members shall be deemed engaged in legislative business while in attendance upon the business of the council and shall be limited to such allowances therefor as otherwise provided in RCW 44.04.120 as now existing or hereafter amended.

Sec. 3. Section 75.18.080, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 1, chapter 283, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 75.18.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The fee for said permit shall be ~~((one))~~ two hundred dollars for the vessel and operator ~~((and ten dollars for each member of the crew thereof))~~, such permit to be effective during the calendar year in which issued: PROVIDED, That persons operating fishing vessels licensed under RCW 75.28.085 may apply the delivery permit fee of ten dollars against the fees outlined hereinabove except those holding a valid troll license are exempt from said fees: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if it appears to the director of fisheries, after investigation, that the operation of such vessel under such permit tends to result in the impairment, depletion, or destruction of the salmon resource and supply of this state and in bringing into this state salmon products prohibited by law, in that event, the director under such regulations and terms as he may prescribe, may revoke said permit to use and operate such boat in the waters of this state, and in the event of the revocation of such

The legislature finds that energy in various forms is increasingly subject to possible shortages and supply disruptions, to the point that there may be foreseen an emergency situation, and that without the ability to institute appropriate emergency measures to ~~((reduce and/or allocate the usage))~~ regulate the production, distribution, and use of energy ~~((through a program of mandatory usage curtailment and/or allocation))~~, a severe impact on the public health, safety, and general welfare of our state's citizens may occur. It is the intent of this chapter to:

- (1) Establish necessary ~~((energy))~~ emergency powers for the governor and define the ~~((conditions))~~ situations under which such powers are to be exercised;
- (2) Provide penalties for violations of this chapter.

It is further the intent of the legislature that in developing proposed orders under the powers granted in RCW 43.21G.040 as now or hereafter amended the governor may utilize, on a temporary or ad hoc basis, the knowledge and expertise of persons experienced in the technical aspects of energy supply, distribution, or use. Such utilization shall be in addition to support received by the governor from the state energy office under RCW 43.21F.050 and 43.21F.070 and from other state agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House June 13, 1977.

Passed the Senate June 11, 1977.

Approved by the Governor June 30, 1977, with the exception of section 10 which was vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 30, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section Substitute House Bill No. 928 entitled:

"AN Act Relating to energy."

A careful review of Substitute House Bill No. 928, dealing with emergency energy powers, reveals that Section 10 makes many unsubstantive changes in Section 43.06.010 and RCW 43.06.010. The legislature has passed and I have already signed Substitute House Bill No. 564, the Washington Sunset Law which made similar unsubstantive changes but which added to existing laws certain required executive powers concerned with sunset legislation.

To allow Section 10 of this bill to become law would be duplication of earlier legislation and, in fact, might very well effect a portion of the sunset bill which I deem of prime importance within the executive powers of the Governor. For this reason, I have vetoed Section 10 of this bill.

With the exception of section 10, which I have vetoed, the remainder of Substitute House Bill No. 928 is approved."

AN ACT Relating to a change in the name of the department of motor vehicles; amending section 2, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 and RCW 46.01.020; amending section 17, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 and RCW 46.01.170; amending section 1, chapter ... (HB 174), Laws of 1977 and RCW 43.17-.010; amending section 2, chapter ... (HB 174), Laws of 1977 and RCW 43.17.020; adding new sections to chapter 46.01 RCW; repealing section 1, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 and RCW 46.01-.010; repealing section 6, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 and RCW 46.01.060; repealing section 8, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 and RCW 46.01.080; repealing section 12, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 and RCW 46.01.120; repealing section 22, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 and RCW 46.01.200; and providing an effective date.

The legislature finds that the department of motor vehicles administers laws relating to the licensing and regulation of professions, businesses, securities, gambling, and other activities in addition to administering laws relating to the licensing and regulation of vehicles and vehicle operators, dealers, and manufacturers. The present title of the department does not properly indicate its responsibility and creates confusion in the mind of the public. The laws administered by the department have the common denominator of licensing and regulation and are directed toward protecting and enhancing the well-being of the residents of the state. It is the purpose of this 1977 amendatory act to change the name of the department of motor vehicles to the department of licensing in order to accurately reflect the responsibilities and functions of the department.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 and RCW 46.01.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A department of the government of this state to be known as the "department of ((motor vehicles)) licensing" is hereby created.

(2) The department shall succeed to and is hereby vested with all powers, duties and jurisdiction relating to motor vehicles now vested in the director of licenses.

(3) All powers, functions, and duties vested by law in the director of motor vehicles or in the department of motor vehicles on or before June 30, 1977, shall be considered powers, functions, and duties of the director of licensing or the department of licensing, respectively, and all rules of the director of motor vehicles on or before June 30, 1977, shall be considered rules of the director of licensing.

(4) Any references in the Revised Code of Washington to the director of motor vehicles or the department of motor vehicles shall be considered to be references to the director of licensing or to the department of licensing, respectively.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 46.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All records, books, accounts, equipment, funds, appropriations, and all other property, real, personal, and mixed, held by the department of motor vehicles on June 30, 1977, shall be held by the department of licensing.

Sec. 4. Section 17, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 and RCW 46.01.170 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall have an official seal with the words "Department of ~~((Motor Vehicles))~~ Licensing of Washington" engraved thereon.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter ... (HB 174), Laws of 1977 and RCW 43.17.010 are each amended to read as follows.

There shall be departments of the state government which shall be known as (1) the department of social and health services, (2) the department of ecology, (3) the department of labor and industries, (4) the department of agriculture, (5) the department of fisheries, (6) the department of game, (7) the department of highways, (8) the department of ~~((motor vehicles))~~ licensing, (9) the department of general administration, (10) the department of commerce and economic development, (11) the department of veterans affairs, (12) the department of revenue, and (13) the department of retirement systems, which shall be charged with the execution, enforcement, and administration of such laws, and invested with such powers and required to perform such duties, as the legislature may provide.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter ... (HB 174), Laws of 1977 and RCW 43.17.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a chief executive officer of each department to be known as: (1) The secretary of social and health services, (2) the director of ecology, (3) the director of labor and industries, (4) the director of agriculture, (5) the director of fisheries, (6) the director of game, (7) the director of highways, (8) the director of ~~((motor vehicles))~~ licensing, (9) the director of general administration, (10) the director of commerce and economic development, (11) the director of veterans affairs, (12) the director of revenue, and (13) the director of retirement systems.

Such officers, except the director of highways and the director of game, shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, and hold office at the pleasure of the governor. If a vacancy occurs while the senate is not in session, the governor shall make a temporary appointment until the next meeting of the senate, when he shall present to that body his nomination for the office. (9) The commission, after hearing, by order approved and ratified by a majority of the membership of the commission, may suspend or modify any of the reporting requirements hereunder in a particular case if it finds that literal application of this chapter works a manifestly unreasonable hardship and if it also finds that such suspension or modification will not frustrate the purposes of the chapter. The commission shall find that a manifestly unreasonable hardship exists if reporting the name of an entity required to be reported under RCW 42.17.240(1)(g)(ii) would be likely to adversely affect the competitive position of any entity in which the person filing the report or any member of his immediate family holds any office, directorship, general partnership interest, or an ownership interest of ten percent or more. Any ((such)) suspension or modification shall be only to the extent necessary to substantially relieve the hardship. The commission shall act to suspend or modify any reporting requirements only if it determines that facts exist that are clear and convincing proof of the findings required hereunder. The commission shall report the results of such study together with recommended legislative action to the next session of the legislature))~~ any vessel inbound to or outbound from Canadian ports is exempt from the provisions of this section, if said vessel actually employs a pilot licensed by the Pacific pilotage authority (the pilot licensing authority for the Western district of Canada), and if it is communicating with the vessel traffic system and has appropriate navigational charts, and if said vessel uses only those waters east of the international boundary line which are west of a line which begins at the southwestern edge of Point Roberts then to Alden Point (Patos Island), then to Skipjack Island light, then to Turn Point (Stuart Island), then to Kelleet Bluff (Henry Island), then to Lime Kiln (San Juan Island) then to the intersection of one hundred twenty-three degrees seven minutes west longitude and forty-eight degrees twenty-five minutes north latitude then to the international boundary. The board shall correspond with the Pacific pilotage authority from time to time to ensure the provisions of this section are enforced. If any exempted vessel does not comply with these provisions it shall be deemed to be in violation of this section and subject to the penalties provided in RCW 88.16.150 as now or hereafter amended and liable to pilotage fees as determined by the board. The board shall investigate any accident on the waters covered by this chapter involving a Canadian pilot and shall include the results in its annual report.

(3) Pilots shall be licensed hereunder for a term of five years from and after the date of the issuance of their respective state licenses. (5) On and after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, the board shall have developed five examinations and grading sheets for the testing and grading of pilot applicants. The five examinations shall be administered to pilot applicants on a random basis and shall be updated as required to reflect changes in law, rules, policies, or procedures. The board may appoint a special independent examination committee or may contract with a firm knowledgeable and experienced in the development of professional tests for development of said examinations. Active licensed state pilots may be consulted for the general development of examinations but shall have no knowledge of the specific questions. The pilot members of the board may participate in the grading of examinations. If the board does appoint a special examination development committee it is authorized to pay the members of said committee the same per diem costs and travel expenses as received by members of the board. When grading examinations the board shall carefully follow the grading sheet prepared for that examination. The board shall develop a "sample examination" which would tend to indicate to an applicant the general types of questions on pilot examinations, but such sample questions shall not appear on any actual examinations. After consultation with a physician and the United States coast guard, the board shall establish minimum health standards to ensure that pilots licensed by the state are able to perform their duties.

(7) The board shall prescribe, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, a number of familiarization trips, between a minimum number of twenty-five and a maximum of one hundred, which pilot applicants must make in the pilotage district for which they desire to be licensed. Familiarization trips any particular applicant must make are to be based upon the applicant's vessel handling experience.

Sec. 8. Section 10, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 41, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.150 are each amended to read as follows:

In any case where the offense was committed upon a ship, boat or vessel, and there is doubt as to the proper county, the same may be prosecuted in any county through any part of which the ship, boat or vessel passed, during the trip upon which the offense was committed. All fines collected for any violation of this chapter or any rule or regulation of the board shall within thirty days be paid by the official collecting the same to the state treasurer and shall be credited to the pilotage account: PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

Upon refusing an assignment as herein provided a pilot shall submit a written explanation to the board. If the board finds that the pilot's written explanation is without merit, or reasonable cause did not exist for the assignment refusal, such pilot may be subject to the provisions of RCW 88.16.100 as now existing or hereafter amended.

(3) The board shall quarterly review the dispatch records of pilot organizations or pilot's quarterly reports to ensure the provisions of this section are enforced. The board may prescribe rules for rest periods pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) If the master of a vessel which employs a Washington licensed pilot cannot certify that the vessel complies with subsection (1) of this section and the rules of the board adopted pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the master shall certify that:

(a) The vessel will comply with subsection (1) of this section before the time the vessel is scheduled to leave the waters of Washington state; and

(b) The coast guard captain of the port was notified of the noncomplying items when they were determined; and

(c) The coast guard captain of the port has authorized the vessel to proceed under such conditions as prescribed by the coast guard pursuant to its authority under federal statutes and regulations.

(4) After the board has prescribed the form required under subsection (1) of this section, no Washington licensed pilot shall offer pilotage services to any vessel on which the master has failed to make a certification required by this section. *Sec. 19. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the Senate June 17, 1977.

Passed the House June 17, 1977.

Approved by the Governor June 30, 1977, with the exception of section 19 which was vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 30, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section, Senate Bill No. 2042 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to pilotage;"

Senate Bill No. 2042 is a most desired piece of legislation making significant improvements in the area of marine pilotage. A part of its provisions, however, relates to the formation of a pilotage commission and grants rule making authority. In view of the fact that the pilotage commission is to be consolidated with the new state department of transportation, whose secretary will be the chairman of the commission, both acts of the Legislature should become effective at the same time. The department of transportation becomes effective on September 21, 1977; thus, I am vetoing Section 19 of Senate Bill No. 2042, the emergency clause, so that these two important measures become law at the same time.

With the exception of section 19 which I have vetoed, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 2042 is approved."

The appropriations contained in subsections (6) through (41) of this section shall be subject to the following conditions and limitations:

The productivity of any salmon propagation facility is very dependent on water quantity and quality. Since there is a limited number of water sources which meet the critical needs of a facility it is imperative that these sources are acquired. Therefore, site acquisitions and preliminary design shall be considered by the department as generally having priority over project development in the allocation of funds;

Prior to expending any moneys for the construction and development of any particular salmon propagation facility, except for site acquisition and preliminary design, the department shall give consideration to the following factors with respect to that facility:

The department's management authority over propagated salmon;

The level of expected Canadian interception on the propagated salmon and whether this would be acceptable;

Whether an acceptable agreement has been reached on the status of treaty Indian salmon harvest; and

Whether there can be a maximum harvest of propagated salmon with a tolerable impact on other salmonoid stocks, both natural and artificial, and on their environment. The department shall consult on this matter with the department of game;

To aid and advise the department in the performance of its functions as specified herein with regard to the salmon enhancement program, a salmon advisory council shall be created. The advisory council shall consist of ten members appointed by the governor; the director of the department of fisheries, who shall be chairman; the director of the department of game; one member of the senate to be appointed by the president of the senate; and one member of the house of representatives to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. Of the appointive members two shall represent troll fishermen; two shall represent gillnet fishermen, of which one shall be from the Puget Sound area and one from the southwest Washington area; one shall represent purse seine fishermen; one shall represent owners of charter boats; two shall represent sportsmen; and two shall represent fish processors, of which one shall represent fresh or frozen fish processors and one shall represent canneries.

The advisory council shall be convened by the director prior to the decision to expend any funds for construction and development of any salmon propagation facility listed in subsections (6) through (41) of this section. The council shall advise the director with regard to the considerations listed herein and any other factors the council deems relevant with respect to the proposed facility.

Terms of the appointive members shall not exceed two years and shall continue until their successors are appointed. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments. Members shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

The director of the department of game, or his designee, shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of his duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. The legislative members or their designees, shall be deemed engaged in legislative business while in attendance upon the business of the council and shall be limited to such allowances therefor as otherwise provided in RCW 44.04.120 as now existing or hereafter amended.

Not more than the following amounts as listed in subsections (6) through (41) of this section shall be expended for the site acquisition, preliminary design, construction and development of such hereinabove described projects, which are ranked after site acquisition and exploration, survey, and design in order of their estimated benefit/cost ratio, with the project having the highest benefit/cost ratio being listed first.

No such transfer shall be used to expand the capacity of any facility beyond that intended by the legislature in making the appropriation. Passed the House June 21, 1977.

Approved by the Governor June 30, 1977, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 30, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one item Substitute Senate Bill No. 3110 entitled:

"AN ACT Adopting the capital budget; making appropriations and authorizing expenditures for capital improvements; authorizing certain projects; prescribing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

In Section 7, beginning with line 19 through line 37, page 12, I have vetoed all of subsection (13). The initial concept of mini-prisons to implement the present maximum security facilities of our prison system was proposed by the previous administration. Although I recognize the extreme and immediate need for the improvement in our prisons, we have and will continue to take steps to alleviate the situation using present facilities. The mini-prison approach needs additional study, principally as to its high cost factor in relation to inmate capacity. I believe it would be to the best interests of the state at this time to delay the initiation of additional new facilities until other alternatives have been exercised and additional studies conducted.

For the above reasons, I have vetoed subsection (13) of Section 7, as described above. The remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3110 is hereby approved."

The office of program planning and fiscal management is hereby requested to cooperate fully with the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee in the areas of appropriation schedules, allotments, and estimated expenditure schedules as such items relate to the monitoring and evaluation by the LEAP data processing system of funds appropriated in this act. It is the intent of the legislature to cooperate with the governor in the implementation of RCW 43.88.070 which provides in part: "Appropriations shall be deemed maximum authorizations to incur expenditures... to ensure that expenditure rates are such that program objectives are realized within these maximums".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 160A. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 82, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. the house of representatives, the senate, and the permanent statutory committees shall pay expenses quarterly to the department of general administration facilities and services revolving fund for services rendered by the department for operations, maintenance, and supplies relating to buildings, structures, and facilities utilized by the legislature for the biennium beginning July 1, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 161. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the employers' contribution rate for the Public Employees' Retirement System shall be established based upon a long term interest earning assumption of seven percent for the investment of system funds. No appropriation contained in this act shall be used to make contributions at a rate higher than that required by this section. It is intended that this adjustment shall reduce state general fund expenditures by eight million five hundred thousand dollars for the 1977-79 biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 162. The word "agency" used herein means and includes every state government office, officer, each institution, whether educational, correctional, or other, and every department, division, board, and commission, except as otherwise provided in this act.

The phrase "agencies headed by elective officials" used herein shall mean those executive offices or departments of the state which are directly supervised, administered, or controlled by the governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of public lands, or insurance commissioner, but it shall not include those boards, commissions, or committees on which one or more of the above mentioned officials serve.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 163. In order to carry out the provisions of these appropriations and the state budget, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management with the approval of the governor, may:

It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee to incur obligations in excess of approved appropriations or to incur a deficiency and any obligations so made shall be deemed invalid. Nothing in this section or in chapter 328, Laws of 1959, shall prevent revisions of any allotment when necessary to prevent the making of expenditures under appropriations in this act in excess of available revenues.

(2) Issue rules to establish uniform standards and business practices throughout the state service, including regulation of travel by officers and employees and the conditions under which per diem shall be paid, so as to improve efficiency and conserve funds.

(3) Prescribe procedures and forms to carry out the above.

(4) Allot funds from appropriations in this act in advance of July 1, 1977, for the sole purpose of authorizing agencies to order goods, supplies, or services for delivery after July 1, 1977: PROVIDED, That no expenditures may be made from the appropriations contained in this act, except as otherwise provided, until after July 1, 1977.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 164. Unless prohibited by federal law the receipt of federal or other funds which are not anticipated in the appropriation bill enacted by the legislature shall be used to support regular programs instead of using funds appropriated from state taxes or similar revenue sources. Any state funds replaced by federal or other receipts shall be placed in reserve to the credit of the appropriate state fund or account, and shall not be expended, unless authorized by the legislature.

*Sec. 164. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 165. In the event that receipts shall be less than those estimated in the budget from any source, expenditures shall be limited to the amount received and allotments made as provided in section 163 of this act. Receipts for purposes of this section shall include amounts realized within one calendar month following the close of a fiscal period and applicable to expenditures of that period. The amount of such payment shall be credited to and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 165A. State funds appropriated for the specific purpose of matching federal funds and which are not required wholly or in part to qualify for such federal funds shall be placed in reserve and shall revert to the fund from which appropriated at the end of the respective fiscal year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 166. Any programs which are supported in whole or in part by federal funds shall not receive any additional state funds for the programs in the event that federal funds are reduced or eliminated for the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 166A. If a scheduled program or project funded by the appropriations contained in this act has not been fully implemented during any quarter of the respective fiscal year, then the office of program planning and fiscal management shall withhold the equivalent amount of the appropriation and full time equivalent staff years from such program or project and shall place the same in reserve.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 167. Agencies are authorized to make refunds of erroneous or excessive payments and in the case of other refunds, which may be provided by law, without express appropriation therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 168. Whenever allocations are made from the governor's emergency appropriation to an agency which is financed by other than general fund moneys, the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management shall direct the repayment of such allocated amount to the general fund from any balance in the fund or funds which finance such agency. No appropriation shall be necessary to effect such repayment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 169. In addition to the amounts appropriated in this act for revenue for distribution, bond retirement and interest, and interest on registered warrants, there is also appropriated such further amounts as may be required or available for these purposes under any statutory formula or under any proper bond covenant made in accordance with law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 170. Amounts received by an agency as reimbursements pursuant to RCW 39.34.130 shall be considered as returned loans of materials supplied or services rendered. Such amounts may be expended as a part of the original appropriation of the fund to which it belongs, without further or additional appropriation, subject to conditions and procedures prescribed by the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management which shall provide for determination of full costs, disclosure of such reimbursements in the governor's budget, maximum interagency usage of data processing equipment and services, and such restrictions as will promote more economical operations of state government without incurring continuing costs beyond those reimbursed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 171. In accordance with the provisions of this section the office of program planning and fiscal management shall use the allotment process during the 1977-79 biennium to control the funding of the formula portion of the instruction and departmental research program of all the four year institutions of higher education and the community colleges. For the purpose of the controls outlined in this section, deviations in the formula entitlements for faculty staffing shall be the controlling factor for the four year institutions of higher education while full time equivalent student enrollment will be the controlling factor for the community college system. For the purpose of this section, the "contract level" is defined as the level upon which the budget is based, and the "base level" is defined as the formula entitlement level corresponding to the prior year's actual enrollment level. Controls shall be applied to each four year institution separately and to the community college education system as a total entity. "Growth funding" is defined as that portion of the state general fund appropriation by which the contract level exceeds the base level. Growth funds may be allotted at the option of the school or system. Unearned growth funds will be reverted to the state general fund prior to the end of the fiscal year in which such growth fails to materialize.

Contract enrollments for the second year of the biennium will be renegotiated in the event the first year's actual enrollment falls below the base level of the first year. Contract enrollments for the second year of the biennium shall not be renegotiated in the event that the first year's actual enrollments exceeds the contract level established for the first year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 171A. It is the expressed intention of the legislature that agency operational activity shall be regularly monitored by the office of program planning and fiscal management, under their statutory authority relating to the allotment control function, in order to limit fluctuations in the respective fiscal year spending patterns which tend to inflate the expenditures in the second fiscal year of the biennium. Particular control emphasis shall be placed on those instances in which the full time equivalent staff years authorization is deliberately delayed in order to increase the agency's full time equivalent staff years as substantiation for the second fiscal year or the ensuing biennial request. Unanticipated receipts, which are authorized by the governor and expended by any state agency, shall be allotted, monitored, controlled, and reported separately at the end of the respective fiscal year and at the end of the biennium to the governor and the house appropriations committee and the senate ways and means committee. Such report shall identify the full time equivalent staff years and the program and/or activity for which such funds were expended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 172. To obtain maximum interagency use of aircraft, the Aeronautics Commission in accordance with chapter 39.34 RCW is hereby authorized to lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire suitable aircraft which shall be utilized for the purposes of the Aeronautics Commission and also by other state agencies which have a need for an aircraft to carry out agency assigned responsibilities: PROVIDED, That the Aeronautics Commission is further authorized to enter into contractual agreements with other state agencies in order to acquire aircraft, establish rental rates for aircraft under their control, provide pilot services, aircraft maintenance, and make such other provisions as necessary to provide aircraft and related services for multi-agency use: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to achieve economy in the use of the appropriations contained within this act no state agency may purchase or otherwise acquire an aircraft or enter into a flying service or aircraft rental contract without first seeking such service from the Aeronautics Commission and without prior approval of the director of the office of program planning and fiscal management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 173. If any part of this act shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, such conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act; the rules and regulations under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 174. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 175. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate June 21, 1977.

Passed the House June 21, 1977.

Approved by the Governor June 30, 1977, with the exception of certain items and sections which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 30, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to certain sections and items Substitute Senate Bill No. 3109 entitled:

"AN ACT Adopting the budget; making appropriations and authorizing expenditures for the operations of state agencies for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1977, and ending June 30, 1979; making other appropriations; designating effective dates for certain appropriations; and declaring an emergency."

The specific items and sections which I have vetoed are as follows:

1. For the Department of Personnel

On page 11, section 25, line 22, I have vetoed the Data Processing Revolving Fund appropriation in the amount of $2,930,000. A full explanation of the rationale for vetoing this appropriation is set forth in the veto message for Section 27 which follows.

On page 12, Section 27, lines 10 and 11, and subsections (2) through (5), are vetoed.

Appropriation of the Data Processing Revolving fund results in appropriating the same funds twice. This requires maintaining duplicate accounting records, creates unnecessary paper work, and contradicts the function of a revolving fund. Real improvement in fiscal control will not be achieved through this change.

Second, this change to appropriated status does not coincide with the current Data Processing Authority and Service Center organizational lines of responsibility and authority.

Without statutory change or revised functional lines of responsibility there is confusion as to who has the final decision-making authority.

Finally, the wording in subsection (5) is unclear as to what is intended by an integrated management and budget plan for Service Centers #1 and #3. If the intent is to integrate Services Centers #1 and #3 then there is a contradiction in the direction of Washington State Data Processing.

Because of the reasons cited above, and the apparent need for further study, the Data Processing Revolving Fund should remain as it currently exists.

2. For the Finance Committee

In section 28, on page 13, I have vetoed subsection (1) which gives the Finance Committee "full responsibility for the investment management of the state trust and retirement funds."

This change in responsibility for investment management is in direct conflict with House Bill No. 619 which I recently signed. House Bill No. 619 provides the Department of Retirement Systems and the Finance Committee with joint investment authority subject to approval by the retirement boards.

Second, the proviso language does not describe a "condition or limitation" on the Finance Committee's appropriation as was intended, but rather, constitutes a major shift in responsibility from one executive agency to another.

3. For the Planning and Community Affairs Agency

On page 42, Section 64, I have vetoed subsection (2) appropriating federal Law Enforcement Assistant Administration (LEAA) funds to specific agency projects. Although I agree that the criminal justice projects identified in this section are worthwhile, this legislative appropriation contradicts projects selected through the federally mandated planning process. Violation of the state plan would result in the loss of $18 million of federal funds.

4. For the State Energy Office

On page 45, Section 72, I have vetoed: "The appropriation contained in this section shall be subject to the following condition or limitation: Not more than $500,000 of this appropriation shall be used as matching funds for energy-related studies as determined by the House and Senate Energy and Utilities Committees."

The Legislature apparently contemplated providing an additional $500,000 to the Energy Office for energy related studies. However, the final amount appropriated to the Energy Office does not include the additional $500,000. Therefore, since the funds referenced in this proviso are not included in the final appropriation, I am vetoing this item. I will direct the Energy Office to work closely with the House and Senate Energy and Utilities Committees on all energy related studies during the next biennium.

5. For the Department of Agriculture

On page 54, Section 86, I have vetoed subsection (2): "$150,000 of the general fund appropriation—state shall be expended within the seed branch division for the purpose of maintaining seed certification activities."

I am vetoing this subsection because I believe establishing a precedent of using general funds to support a dedicated fund activity is inappropriate. I will direct the Department of Agriculture to evaluate, identify and recommend a solution to the seed certification funding problem.

6. For K-12 Program

On page 56, Section 94, I have vetoed subsection (2) which provides that "no funds shall be expended for purposes of advancing the development of occupational skill centers not operated in conjunction with a community college or vocational technical institute. Operations of skill centers in existence or those which have had their capital funds approved on the effective date of this act may be continued."

I support the notion that surplus space should be used whenever possible. The construction of unnecessary, duplicative facilities is wasteful and should be discouraged. I also support the notion that vocational education is a keystone to a vital and prosperous populace. Subsection (2) precludes contiguous districts from joining to provide for improved vocational programs regardless of their proximity to existing facilities. This requirement can lead to one of two things, costly and inefficient programs operated by individual districts or limited and low quality vocational education programs.

On page 56, Section 94, I have vetoed subsection (4) which directs "the State Board of Education to restore all educational service district boundaries as they existed prior to September 1, 1976."

RCW 28.21.020 [RCW 28A.21.020] clearly grants discretionary authority to the State Board to revise Educational Service District boundaries. The legal Board action of December 3, 1976, and resulting administrative implementation of a system of 9 ESDs, is expected to result in increased economy and efficiency in educational management. I firmly believe that this and similar actions must be encouraged and supported. This appropriate action, if overturned at this time, can only result in unnecessary duplication and increased cost of educational management.

7. For Community College Education

On page 72, Section 110, I have vetoed subsection (3) which directs that "Olympia Technical Community College shall not become a comprehensive community college and shall offer only those courses essential to vocational education."

Subsection (3) amends 28B.52.030 RCW which gives the academic employee organization within its community college district the right to negotiate with the board of trustees of the community college district on policies relating to curriculum. This attempt to modify existing statutes and in effect create substantive law through an appropriation act is inappropriate.

In Section 110 I have vetoed subsection (5) which requires that "the average full-time faculty classroom contact hours for the community college system shall be at least 19 hours per week."

Subsection (5) amends 28B.52.030 RCW which gives the academic employee organization within its community college district the right to negotiate with the Board of Trustees of the community college district on policies relating to hiring and assignment practices. This attempt to modify existing statutes and, in effect, create substantive law through an appropriation act is inappropriate.

On pages 72 and 73, I have vetoed Section 110A which provides that "The State Board for Community College Education and the Boards of Trustees for community college districts thirteen and fourteen may waive the payment of non-resident fees by residents of Clatsop, Columbia, Washington, Multnomah, and Hood River Counties, Oregon, for the duration of the 1977-79 biennium, contingent upon evidence that similar waivers are made for residents of Cowlitz, Clark, Pacific or Wahkiakum Counties, Washington, to attend any of the following Oregon institutions: Clatsop, Portland, or Mount Hood Community Colleges, or Portland State University."

Section 110A amends Chapter 28B.15 RCW (College and University Fees). This modification of existing statutes through an appropriation act is inappropriate.

8. For Higher Education

On page 76, Section 117 for the institutions of higher education, I have vetoed subsection (5) requiring "The average full-time faculty direct classroom contact hours shall be at least 12 hours per week for the two universities and 14 hours per week for the four state colleges."

Introducing substantive legislation in an appropriation act is an inappropriate method for formulating new or modifying existing state policies. This subsection is substantive because it stipulates new personnel duties and responsibilities for a certain group of higher educational employees.

9. Operating Appropriations Bill

I have vetoed section 164 on page 95 which reads as follows: "Unless prohibited by federal law the receipt of federal or other funds which are not anticipated in the appropriation bill enacted by the Legislature shall be used to support regular programs instead of using funds appropriated from state taxes or similar revenue sources." This section further provides that any state funds replaced by such federal or other receipts shall be placed in reserve and shall not be expended unless authorized by the Legislature.

The use of non-restricted, unanticipated federal funds as an offset against state General Fund appropriations is common practice and one which I endorse. The assumption that all unanticipated non-federal receipts are unrestricted and can be used for any purpose is erroneous. To require that increases in certain forms of revenue, such as patient fees, be available to an institution only if an equivalent amount of state General Fund money is placed in reserve, is not reasonable. This requirement effectively limits the capability of an agency to accommodate unanticipated increases in workload and associated revenue. In addition, this proposed restriction inhibits institutions from taking advantage of various non-federal grants that were not anticipated in the budget development process and thus tends to eliminate benefits that might otherwise accrue to the state.

With the exception of the foregoing sections and items which I have vetoed for the reasons stated, the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3109 is approved."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. (1) As used in this chapter, unless the context thereof shall clearly indicate to the contrary:

Educational clinic means any private school operated on a profit or nonprofit basis which does the following:

(a) Is devoted to the teaching of basic academic skills, including specific attention to improvement of student motivation for achieving, and employment orientation.

(2) For purposes of this chapter, basic academic skills shall include the study of mathematics, speech, language, reading and composition, science, history, literature and political science or civics; it shall not include courses of a vocational training nature and shall not include courses deemed nonessential to the accrediting of the common schools or the approval of private schools under RCW 28A.04.120.

(3) The state board of education shall certify an education clinic only upon application and (1) determination that such school comes within the definition thereof as set forth in subsection (1) above and (2) demonstration on the basis of actual educational performance of such applicants' students which shows after consideration of their students' backgrounds, educational gains that are a direct result of the applicants' educational program. Such certification may be withdrawn if the board finds that a clinic fails to provide adequate instruction in basic academic skills. No educational clinic certified by the state board of education pursuant to this section shall be deemed a common school under RCW 28A.01.060 or a private school for the purposes of RCW 28A.02.201 through 28A.02.250, or proprietary school under chapter 18.82 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Only eligible common school dropouts shall be enrolled in a certified educational clinic for reimbursement by the superintendent of public instruction as provided in section 4 of this 1977 act. No person shall be considered an eligible common school dropout who (1) has completed high school, (2) has passed his eighteenth birthday, or (3) until three months has passed after he or she has dropped out of any common school, unless such clinic has been requested to admit such person by written communication of the board of directors or the superintendent of that common school or unless such person is unable to attend a particular common school because of disciplinary reasons, including suspension and/or expulsion therefrom.

(c) No clinic shall make any charge to any student, or his parent, guardian or custodian, for whom a fee is being received under the provisions of this section.

(2) Payments shall be made from available funds first to those clinic(s) which have in the judgment of the superintendent demonstrated superior performance based upon consideration of students' educational gains taking into account such students' backgrounds, and upon consideration of cost effectiveness. In considering the cost effectiveness of nonprofit clinics the superintendent shall take into account not only payments made under this section but also factors such as tax exemptions, direct and indirect subsidies or any other cost to taxpayers at any level of government which result from such nonprofit status.

(3) To be eligible for such payment, every such clinic, without prior notice, shall permit a review of its accounting records by personnel of the state auditor during normal business hours.

(4) If total funds for this purpose approach depletion, the superintendent shall notify the clinics of the date after which further funds for reimbursement of the clinics' services will be exhausted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. In accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act, the state board of education with respect to the matter of certification, and the superintendent of public instruction with respect to all other matters, shall have the power and duty to make the necessary rules and regulations to carry out the purpose and intent of this chapter.

Criteria as promulgated by the state board of education or superintendent of public instruction for determining if any educational clinic is providing adequate instruction in basic academic skills or demonstrating superior performance in student educational gains for funding under section 4 of this 1977 act shall be subject to review by four members of the legislature, one from each caucus of each house, including the chairpersons of the respective education committees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this 1977 act are added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to Title 28A RCW as a new chapter thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. For the purpose of providing needed capital improvements consisting of the acquisition, construction, remodeling, furnishing and equipping of state buildings and facilities for Washington State University, the state finance committee is hereby authorized to issue from time to time general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the aggregate principal amount of four million four hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as shall be required to finance the capital projects relating to Washington State University as determined by the legislature in its capital appropriation act from time to time, to be paid and discharged in not more than thirty years of the date of issuance.

Each such bond and bond anticipation note shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal thereof and interest thereon when due.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Except for that portion of the proceeds required to pay bond anticipation notes pursuant to section 2 of this act, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds and/or bond anticipation notes authorized by this act, and any interest earned on such proceeds, together with all grants, donations, transferred funds, and all other moneys which the state finance committee or the board of regents of Washington State University may direct the state treasurer to deposit therein, shall be deposited in the Washington State University construction account of the general fund hereby created in the state treasury.

Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which any such interest or principal and interest payment is due, the board of regents of Washington State University shall cause the amount so computed to be paid out of such building account to the state treasurer, for deposit into the general fund of the state treasury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The bonds authorized by this act shall constitute a legal investment for all state funds or for funds under state control and all funds of municipal corporations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The bonds authorized by this act shall be issued only after an officer of Washington State University, designated by the Washington State University board of regents, has certified, based upon his estimates of future tuition income and other factors, that an adequate balance will be maintained in the Washington State University building account to enable the board of regents to meet the requirements of section 7 of this act during the life of the bonds to be issued.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. No provision of this act shall be deemed to repeal, override, or limit any provision of RCW 28B.15.310 or 28B.30.700 through 28B.30.780, nor any provision or covenant of the proceedings of the board of regents of Washington State University heretofore or hereafter taken in the issuance of its revenue bonds secured by a pledge of its general tuition fees and/or other revenues pursuant to such statutes. The obligation of the board of regents of Washington State University to make the transfers provided for in section 7 of this act shall be subject and subordinate to the lien and charge of such revenue bonds, and any revenue bonds hereafter issued, on such general tuition fees and/or other revenues pledged to secure such bonds, and on the moneys in the Washington State University building account and the Washington State University bond retirement fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28B RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 7, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 33, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and by section 7, chapter 123, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.291 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon every person engaging within this state in business as a harvester of timber; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the stumpage value of timber harvested for sale or for commercial or industrial use multiplied by the appropriate rate as follows:

(a) For timber harvested between October 1, 1972 and September 30, 1973 inclusive, the rate shall be one and three-tenths percent;

(b) For timber harvested between October 1, 1973 and September 30, 1974 inclusive, the rate shall be two and nine-tenths percent and between October 1, 1974 and December 31, 1978, inclusive, six and one-half percent.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Harvester" means every person who from his own privately owned land or from the privately owned land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services fells, cuts or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use. It does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester.

(b) "Timber" means forest trees, standing or down on privately owned land, and except as provided in RCW 84.33.170 includes Christmas trees.

(c) "Stumpage value of timber" means the appropriate stumpage value shown on tables to be prepared by the department of revenue pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(d) Timber shall be considered harvested at the time when in the ordinary course of business the quantity thereof by species is first definitely determined. The amount harvested shall be determined by the Scribner Decimal C Scale or other prevalent measuring practice adjusted to arrive at substantially equivalent measurements, as approved by the department of revenue.

(3) The department of revenue shall designate areas containing timber having similar growing, harvesting and marketing conditions to be used as units for the preparation and application of stumpage values. Each year on or before December 31 for use the following January through June 30, and on or before June 30 for use the following July through December 31, the department shall prepare tables of stumpage values of each species or subclassification of timber within such units, which values shall be the amount that each such species or subclassification would sell for at a voluntary sale made in the ordinary course of business for purposes of immediate harvest. Such stumpage values, expressed in terms of a dollar amount per thousand board feet or other unit measure, shall be determined from (a) gross proceeds from sales on the stump of similar timber of like quality and character at similar locations, and in similar quantities, or from (b) gross proceeds from sales of logs adjusted to reflect only the portion of such proceeds attributable to value on the stump immediately prior to harvest, or from a combination of (a) and (b), and shall be determined in a manner which makes reasonable and adequate allowances for age, size, quality, costs of removal, accessibility to point of conversion, market conditions and all other relevant factors. Upon application from any person who plans to harvest damaged timber, the stumpage values for which have been materially reduced from the values shown in the applicable tables due to damage resulting from fire, blow down, ice storm, flood or other sudden unforeseen cause, the department shall revise such tables for any area in which such timber is located and shall specify any additional accounting or other requirements to be complied with in reporting and paying such tax. The preliminary area designations and stumpage value tables and any revisions thereof shall be subject to review by the ways and means committees of the house and senate prior to finalization. Tables of stumpage values shall be signed by the director or his designee and authenticated by the official seal of the department. A copy thereof shall be mailed to anyone who has submitted to the department a written request therefor.

(4) On or before the sixtieth day after the date of final adoption of any stumpage value tables, any harvester may appeal to the board of tax appeals for a revision of stumpage values for an area determined pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(5) There are hereby created in the state treasury a state timber tax account A and a state timber tax ~~((account-B))~~ reserve account in the state general fund and any interest earned on the investment of cash balances shall be deposited in these accounts. The revenues from the tax imposed by subsection (1) of this section shall be deposited in state timber tax account A and state timber tax ~~((account-B))~~ reserve account as follows:

The revenues from such surtax shall be deposited in ((~~a separate account designated~~)) the state timber tax reserve account((, which is hereby created in the state general fund and any interest earned on the investment of these cash balances shall be deposited in this account)). Such surtax shall be reimposed for one year upon timber harvested in any calendar year following any fourth quarter during which transfers from such reserve account pursuant to subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.080 reduce the balance in such account to less than five hundred thousand dollars, but in no event shall such surtax be imposed in any year after 1980.

(7) The tax imposed under this section shall be computed with respect to timber harvested each calendar quarter and shall be due and payable in quarterly installments and remittance therefor shall be made on or before the last day of the month next succeeding the end of the quarterly period in which the tax accrued. The taxpayer on or before such date shall make out a return, upon such forms and setting forth such information as the department of revenue may require, showing the amount of the tax for which he is liable for the preceding quarterly period, and shall sign and transmit the same to the department of revenue, together with a remittance for such amount.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 51.04.010, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The common law system governing the remedy of ~~((workmen))~~ workers against employers for injuries received in employment is inconsistent with modern industrial conditions. In practice it proves to be economically unwise and unfair. Its administration has produced the result that little of the cost of the employer has reached the ~~((workman))~~ worker and that little only at large expense to the public. The remedy of the ~~((workman))~~ worker has been uncertain, slow and inadequate. Injuries in such works, formerly occasional, have become frequent and inevitable. The welfare of the state depends upon its industries, and even more upon the welfare of its wage worker. The state of Washington, therefore, exercising herein its police and sovereign power, declares that all phases of the premises are withdrawn from private controversy, and sure and certain relief for ~~((workmen))~~ workers, injured in their work, and their families and dependents is hereby provided regardless of questions of fault and to the exclusion of every other remedy, proceeding or compensation, except as otherwise provided in this title; and to that end all civil actions and civil causes of action for such personal injuries and all jurisdiction of the courts of the state over such causes are hereby abolished, except as in this title provided.

Sec. 2. Section 51.04.030, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 74, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall, through the division of industrial insurance, supervise the providing of prompt and efficient care and treatment to ~~((workmen))~~ workers injured in during the course of their employment at the least cost consistent with promptness and efficiency, without discrimination or favoritism, and with as great uniformity as the various and diverse surrounding circumstances and locations of industries will permit and to that end shall, from time to time, establish and promulgate and supervise the administration of printed forms, rules, regulations, and practices for the furnishing of such care and treatment.

The director shall make and, from time to time, change as may be, and promulgate a fee bill of the maximum charges to be made by any physician, surgeon, hospital, druggist, or other agency or person rendering services to injured ~~((workmen))~~ workers. No service covered under this title shall be charged or paid at a rate or rates exceeding those specified in such fee bill, and no contract providing for greater fees shall be valid as to the excess.

The director or self-insurer, as the case may be, shall make a record of the commencement of every disability and the termination thereof and, when bills are rendered for the care and treatment of injured ~~((workmen))~~ workers, shall approve and pay those which conform to the promulgated rules, regulations, and practices of the director and may reject any bill or item thereof incurred in violation of the principles laid down in this section or the rules and regulations promulgated under it.

Sec. 3. Section 51.04.060, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

No employer or ~~((workman))~~ worker shall exempt himself or herself from the burden or waive the benefits of this title by any contract, agreement, rule or regulation, and any such contract, agreement, rule or regulation shall be pro tanto void.

Sec. 4. Section 51.04.070, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

A minor working at an age legally permitted under the laws of this state shall be deemed sui juris for the purpose of this title, and no other person shall have any cause of action or right to compensation for an injury to such minor ~~((workman))~~ worker, except as expressly provided in this title, but in the event of a lump sum payment becoming due under this title to such minor ~~((workman))~~ worker, the management of the sum shall be within the probate jurisdiction of the courts the same as other property of minors and, in the event it is necessary to procure the appointment of a guardian to receive the money to which any minor ~~((workman))~~ worker is entitled under the provisions of this title, the director may allow from the accident fund toward the expenses of such guardianship, not to exceed the sum of fifty dollars in any one case: PROVIDED, That in case any such minor is awarded a lump sum payment of not more than seven hundred fifty dollars, the director may make payment direct to such minor without the necessity of the appointment of a guardian.

Sec. 5. Section 51.04.090, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.04.090 are each amended to read as follows:

If any employer shall be adjudicated to be outside the lawful scope of this title, the title shall not apply to him or ~~((his workman))~~ her or his or her worker, or if any ~~((workman))~~ worker shall be adjudicated to be outside the lawful scope of this title because of remoteness of his or her work from the hazard of his or her employer's work, any such adjudication shall not impair the validity of this title in other respects, and in every such case an accounting in accordance with the justice of the case shall be had of moneys received. If the provisions for the creation of the accident fund, or the provisions of this title making the compensation to the ~~((workman))~~ worker provided in it exclusive of any other remedy on the part of the ~~((workman))~~ worker shall be held invalid the entire title shall be thereby invalidated. In other respects an adjudication of invalidity of any part of this title shall not affect the validity of the title as a whole or any other part thereof.

Sec. 6. Section 51.04.100, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:

If the provisions of this title relative to compensation for injuries to or death of ~~((workmen))~~ workers become invalid because of any adjudication, or be repealed, the period intervening between the occurrence of an injury or death, not previously compensated for under this title by lump payment or completed monthly payments, and such repeal or the rendition of the final adjudication of invalidity shall not be computed as a part of the time limited by law for the commencement of any action relating to such injury or death: PROVIDED, That such action be commenced within one year after such repeal or adjudication; but in any such action any sum paid out of the accident fund to the ((workman)) worker on account of injury, to whom the action is prosecuted, shall be taken into account or disposed of as follows: If the defendant employer shall have paid without delinquency into the accident fund the payment provided by this title, such sums shall be credited upon the recovery as payment thereon, otherwise the sum shall not be so credited but shall be deducted from the sum collected and be paid into the said fund from which they had been previously disbursed.

Sec. 7. Section 67, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 150, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 51.04.110 are each amended to read as follows:

This committee shall conduct a continuing study of any aspects of ((workmen's)) workers' compensation as the committee shall determine require their consideration. The committee shall report its findings to the department or the board of industrial insurance appeals for such action as deemed appropriate. The members of the committee shall be appointed for a term of three years commencing on July 1, 1971 and the terms of the members representing the ((workmen)) workers and employers shall be staggered so that the director shall designate one member from each such group initially appointed whose term shall expire on June 30, 1972 and one member from each such group whose term shall expire on June 30, 1973. The members shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. The committee may hire such experts, if any, as it shall require to discharge its duties, and may utilize such personnel and facilities of the department and board of industrial insurance appeals as it shall need without charge. All expenses of this committee shall be paid by the department.

The ((workmen's)) workers' compensation advisory committee created by this section shall conduct a study of the advisability and necessity of deposits by self-insurers into the reserve fund to guarantee the payments of pensions established pursuant to this title, and shall report its findings and recommendations on this study to the department, and the department shall transmit said findings and recommendations to the next regular session of the legislature.

Sec. 8. Section 3, chapter 107, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.08.013 are each amended to read as follows:

"Acting in the course of employment" means the ((workman)) worker acting at his or her employer's direction or in the furtherance of his or her employer's business which shall include time spent going to and from work on the jobsite, as defined in RCW 51.32.015 and 51.36.040, insofar as such time is immediate to the actual time that the ((workman)) worker is engaged in the work process in areas controlled by his or her employer, except parking areas, and it is not necessary that at the time an injury is sustained by a ((workman)) worker he or she be doing the work on which his or her compensation is based or that the event be within the time limits on which industrial insurance or medical aid premiums or assessments are paid.

"Beneficiary" means a husband, wife, child, or dependent of a ((~~workman~~)) worker in whom shall vest a right to receive payment under this title: PROVIDED, That a husband or wife of an injured ((~~workman~~)) worker, living separate and apart in a state of abandonment, regardless of the party responsible therefor, for more than one year at the time of the injury or subsequently, shall not be a beneficiary. A spouse who has lived separate and apart from the other spouse for the period of two years and who has not, during that time, received, or attempted by process of law to collect, funds for maintenance, shall be deemed living in a state of abandonment.

The contractor and any subcontractor shall be subject to the provisions of this title, and the state for its general fund, the county, municipal corporation, or other taxing district shall be entitled to collect from the contractor the full amount payable to the accident fund and the contractor, in turn, shall be entitled to collect from the subcontractor his or her proportionate amount of the payment.

The provisions of this title shall not apply to a master or member of a crew of any vessel, or to employers and ~~((workmen))~~ workers for whom a right or obligation exists under the maritime laws for personal injuries or death of such ~~((workmen))~~ workers.

If an accurate segregation of payrolls of ~~((workmen))~~ workers for whom such a right or obligation exists under the maritime laws cannot be made by the employer, the director is hereby authorized and directed to fix from time to time a basis for the approximate segregation of the payrolls of employees to cover the part of their work for which no right or obligation exists under the maritime laws for injuries or death occurring in such work, and the employer, if not a self-insurer, shall pay premiums on that basis for the time such ~~((workmen))~~ workers are engaged in their work.

Where two or more employers are simultaneously engaged in a common enterprise at one and the same site or place in maritime occupations under circumstances in which no right or obligation exists under the maritime laws for personal injuries or death of such ~~((workmen))~~ workers, such site or place shall be deemed for the purposes of this title to be the common plant of such employers.

In the event payments are made under this title prior to the final determination under the maritime laws, such benefits shall be repaid if recovery is subsequently made under the maritime laws.

Any ~~((workman))~~ worker in the employ of such applicant shall be entitled at any time within five days after the posting of said notice by his or her employer, or within five days after he or she has been employed by an employer who has elected to become subject to this title as herein provided, to give a written notice to such employer and to the department of his or her election not to become subject to this title. At the expiration of the time fixed by the notice of the employer, the employer and such of his ~~((workmen))~~ or her workers as shall not have given such written notice of their election to the contrary shall be subject to all the provisions of this title and entitled to all of the benefits thereof: PROVIDED, That those who have heretofore complied with the foregoing conditions and are carried and considered by the department as within the purview of this title shall be deemed and considered as having fully complied with its terms and shall be continued by the department as entitled to all of the benefits and subject to all of the liabilities without other or further action. Any employer who has complied with this section may withdraw his or her acceptance of liability under this title by filing written notice with the director of the withdrawal of his or her acceptance. Such withdrawal shall become effective thirty days after the filing of such notice or on the date of the termination of the security for payment of compensation, whichever last occurs. The employer shall, at least thirty days before the effective date of the withdrawal, post reasonable notice of such withdrawal where the affected (~~(workman or workmen)~~) worker or workers work and shall otherwise notify personally the affected workmen. Withdrawal of acceptance of this title shall not affect the liability of the department or self-insurer for compensation for any injury occurring during the period of acceptance.

Sec. 23. Section 82, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.12.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a (~~(workman)~~) worker, while working outside the territorial limits of this state, suffers an injury on account of which he or she, or his or her beneficiaries, would have been entitled to compensation under this title had such injury occurred within this state, such (~~(workman)~~) worker, or his or her beneficiaries, shall be entitled to compensation under this title: PROVIDED, That if at the time of such injury:

(a) His or her employment is principally localized in this state; or

(b) He or she is working under a contract of hire made in this state for employment not principally localized in any state; or

(d) He or she is working under a contract of hire made in this state for employment outside the United States and Canada.

(2) The payment or award of compensation under the (~~(workmen's)~~) workers' compensation law of another state, territory, province, or foreign nation to a (~~(workman or his)~~) worker or his or her beneficiaries otherwise entitled on account of such injury to compensation under this title shall not be a bar to a claim for compensation under this title: PROVIDED, That claim under this title is timely filed. If compensation is paid or awarded under this title, the total amount of compensation paid or awarded the (~~(workman)~~) worker or beneficiary under such other (~~(workmen's)~~) workers' compensation law shall be credited against the compensation due the (~~(workman)~~) worker or beneficiary under this title.

(3) If a (~~(workman)~~) worker or beneficiary is entitled to compensation under this title by reason of an injury sustained in this state while in the employ of an employer who is domiciled in another state and who has neither opened an account with the department nor qualified as a self-insurer under this title, such an employer or his or her insurance carrier shall file with the director a certificate issued by the agency which administers the (~~(workmen's)~~) workers' compensation law in the state of the employer's domicile, certifying that such employer has secured the payment of compensation under the (~~(workmen's)~~) workers' compensation law of such other state and that with respect to said injury such ((~~workman~~)) worker or beneficiary is entitled to the benefits provided under such law. In such event:

(a) The filing of such certificate shall constitute appointment by the employer or his or her insurance carrier of the director as its agent for acceptance of the service of process in any proceeding brought by any claimant to enforce rights under this title;

(b) The director shall send to such employer or his or her insurance carrier, by registered or certified mail to the address shown on such certificate, a true copy of any notice of claim or other process served on the director by the claimant in any proceeding brought to enforce rights under this title;

(c) (i) If such employer is a self-insurer under the ((~~workmen's~~)) workers' compensation law of such other state, such employer shall, upon submission of evidence or security, satisfactory to the director, of his or her ability to meet his or her liability to such claimant under this title, be deemed to be a qualified self-insurer under this title;

(ii) If such employer's liability under the ((~~workmen's~~)) workers' compensation law of such other state is insured, such employer's carrier, as to such claimant only, shall be deemed to be subject to this title: PROVIDED, That unless its contract with said employer requires it to pay an amount equivalent to the compensation benefits provided by this title, the insurer's liability for compensation shall not exceed its liability under the ((~~workmen's~~)) workers' compensation law of such other state;

(d) If the total amount for which such employer's insurer is liable under (c)(ii) above is less than the total of the compensation to which such claimant is entitled under this title, the director may require the employer to file security satisfactory to the director to secure the payment of compensation under this title; and

(e) If such employer has neither qualified as a self-insurer nor secured insurance coverage under the ((~~workmen's~~)) workers' compensation law of another state, such claimant shall be paid compensation by the department;

(f) Any such employer shall have the same rights and obligations as other employers subject to this title and where he or she has not provided coverage or sufficient coverage to secure the compensation provided by this title to such claimant, the director may impose a penalty payable to the department of a sum not to exceed fifty percent of the cost to the department of any deficiency between the compensation provided by this title and that afforded such claimant by such employer or his or her insurance carrier if any.

(4) As used in this section:

(a) A person's employment is principally localized in this or another state when (i) his or her employer has a place of business in this or such other state and he or she regularly works at or from such place of business, or (ii) if clause (i) foregoing is not applicable, he or she is domiciled in and spends a substantial part of his or her working time in the service of his or her employer in this or such other state;

(b) "~~(Workmen's)~~ Workers' compensation law" includes "occupational disease law" for the purposes of this section.

(5) A ((~~workman~~)) worker whose duties require him or her to travel regularly in the service of his or her employer in this and one or more other states may agree in writing with his or her employer that his or her employment is principally localized in this or another state, and, unless such other state refuses jurisdiction, such agreement shall govern as to any injury occurring after the effective date of the agreement.

(6) The director shall be authorized to enter into agreements with the appropriate agencies of other states and provinces of Canada which administer their ~~((workmen's))~~ workers' compensation law with respect to conflicts of jurisdiction and the assumption of jurisdiction in cases where the contract of employment arises in one state or province and the injury occurs in another, and when any such agreement has been executed and promulgated as a regulation of the department under chapter 34.04 RCW, it shall bind all employers and ~~((workmen))~~ workers subject to this title and the jurisdiction of this title shall be governed by this regulation.

(b) If there is one child of the deceased ((workman)) worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-two percent of the wages of the deceased ((workman)) worker but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars. (c) If there are two children of the deceased ((workman)) worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-four percent of the wages of the deceased ((workman)) worker but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars. (d) If there are three children of the deceased ((workman)) worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-six percent of the wages of the deceased ((workman)) worker but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars. (e) If there are four children of the deceased ((workman)) worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-eight percent of the wages of the deceased ((workman)) worker but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars. (f) If there are five or more children of the deceased ((workman)) worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, seventy percent of the wages of the deceased ((workman)) worker but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars. (g) Where the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased ((workman)) worker or where after the death of the ((workman)) worker legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children. The amount of such payments shall be five percent of the wages of the deceased ((workman)) worker for each such child but such payments shall not exceed twenty-five percent. Such payments on account of such child or children shall be subtracted from the amount to which such surviving spouse would have been entitled had such surviving spouse had legal custody of all of the children and the surviving spouse shall receive the remainder after such payments on account of such child or children have been subtracted. Such payments on account of a child or children not in the legal custody of such surviving spouse shall be apportioned equally among such children.

Payments to the surviving spouse of the deceased ((workman)) worker shall cease at the end of the month in which remarriage occurs: PROVIDED, That the monthly payment made to the child or children of the deceased ((workman)) worker shall from the month following such remarriage be a sum equal to five percent of the wages of the deceased ((workman)) worker for one child and a sum equal to five percent for each additional child up to a maximum of five such children. Payments to such child or children shall be apportioned equally among such children. Such sum shall be in place of any payments theretofore made for the benefit of or on account of any such child or children. In no event shall the monthly payments provided in subsection (2) of this section exceed seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under RCW 51.08.018.

In addition to the monthly payments above provided for, a surviving spouse or child or children of such ((workman)) worker if there is no surviving spouse, or dependent parent or parents, if there is no surviving spouse or child or children of any such deceased ((workman)) worker shall be forthwith paid the sum of eight hundred dollars, any such children, or parents to share and share alike in said sum.

Upon remarriage of a surviving spouse the monthly payments for the child or children shall continue as provided in this section, but the monthly payments to such surviving spouse shall cease at the end of the month during which remarriage occurs, and, after September 8, 1975, an otherwise eligible surviving spouse of a ((workman)) worker who died at any time prior to or after September 8, 1975, shall have an option of:

(i) He or she shall receive, once and for all, a lump sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension, whichever is the lesser: PROVIDED, That if the injury occurred prior to July 1, 1971, the remarriage benefit lump sum available shall be as provided in the remarriage benefit schedules then in effect.

(ii) If a surviving spouse does not choose the option specified in subsection (2)(i) of this section, to accept the lump sum payment, the remarriage of the surviving spouse of a ((workman)) worker shall not bar him or her from exercising the option granted in subsection (2)(i) of this section during the life of the remarriage and shall not prevent subsequent monthly payments to him or to her if the remarriage has been terminated by death or has been dissolved or annulled by valid court decree provided he or she has not previously accepted the lump sum payment provided in this section: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if the surviving spouse during the remarriage should die without having previously received the lump sum payment provided herein his or her estate shall be entitled to receive the sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension whichever is the lesser: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of this 1976 amendatory act the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund.

The effective date of an award of payments to a surviving spouse based upon termination of a remarriage by death, annulment, or dissolution shall be the date of the death, or the date the judicial decree of annulment or dissolution becomes final and when application for the payments has been received.

(3) If there is a child or children and no surviving spouse of the deceased ((workman)) worker or the surviving spouse is not eligible for benefits under this title, a sum equal to thirty-five percent of the wages of the deceased ((workman)) worker shall be paid monthly for one child and a sum equivalent to fifteen percent of such wage shall be paid monthly for each additional child, the total of such sum to be divided among such children, share and share alike: PROVIDED, That benefits under this subsection or subsection (4) shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased ((workman)) worker at the time of his or her death or seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, whichever is the lesser of the two sums.

(4) In the event a surviving spouse receiving monthly payments dies, the child or children of the deceased ((workman)) worker shall receive the same payment as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) If the ((workman)) worker leaves no surviving spouse or child, but leaves a dependent or dependents, a monthly payment shall be made to each dependent equal to fifty percent of the average monthly support actually received by such dependent from the ((workman)) worker during the twelve months next preceding the occurrence of the injury, but the total payment to all dependents in any case shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased ((workman)) worker at the time of the death or seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, whichever is the lesser of the two sums. If any dependent is under the age of eighteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payment to such dependent shall cease when such dependent reaches the age of eighteen years except such payments shall continue until the dependent reaches age twenty-three while permanently enrolled at a full time course in an accredited school. The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

(6) If the injured ((workman)) worker dies during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a surviving spouse, or child, or children, the surviving spouse or child or children shall receive benefits as if death resulted from the injury as provided in subsections (2) through (4) of this section. Upon remarriage or death of such surviving spouse the payments to such child or children shall be made as provided in subsection (2) of this section when the surviving spouse of a deceased ((workman)) worker remarries.

Sec. 43. Section 46, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.055 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) One purpose of this title is to restore the injured ((workman)) worker as near as possible to the condition of self-support as an able-bodied ((workman)) worker. Benefits for permanent disability shall be determined under the director's supervision only after the injured ((workman's)) worker's condition becomes fixed.

(2) All determinations of permanent disabilities shall be made by the department. Either the ((workman)) worker, employer, or self-insurer may make a request or such inquiry may be initiated by the director on his or her own motion. All medical reports and other pertinent information in the possession of or under the control of the employer or self-insurer shall be forwarded to the director with such requests.

(3) A request for determination of permanent disability shall be examined by the department and an order shall issue in accordance with RCW 51.52.050.

(4) The department may require that the ((workman)) worker present himself or herself for a special medical examination by a physician, or physicians, selected by the department, and the department may require that the ((workman)) worker present himself or herself for a personal interview. In such event the costs of such examination or interview, including payment of any reasonable travel expenses, shall be paid by the department or self-insurer as the case may be.

(5) The director may establish a medical bureau within the department to perform medical examinations under this section. Physicians hired or retained for this purpose shall be grounded in industrial medicine and in the assessment of industrial physical impairment. Self-insurers shall bear a proportionate share of the cost of such medical bureau in a manner to be determined by the department.

(6) Where dispute arises from the handling of any claims prior to the condition of the injured ((workman)) worker becoming fixed, the ((workman)) worker, employer, or self-insurer may request the department to resolve the dispute or the director may initiate an inquiry on his or her own motion. In such cases the department shall proceed as provided in this section and an order shall issue in accordance with RCW 51.52.050.

Sec. 44. Section 51.32.060, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 9, chapter 224, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.060 are each amended to read as follows:

When the supervisor of industrial insurance shall determine that permanent total disability results from the injury, the ((~~workman~~)) worker shall receive monthly during the period of such disability:

(13) For any period of time where both husband and wife are entitled to compensation as temporarily or totally disabled ((~~workmen~~)) workers, only that spouse having the higher wages of the two shall be entitled to claim their child or children for compensation purposes.

(14) In case of permanent total disability, if the character of the injury is such as to render the ((~~workman~~)) worker so physically helpless as to require the hiring of the services of an attendant, the department shall make monthly payments to such attendant for such services as long as such requirement continues, but such payments shall not obtain or be operative while the ((~~workman~~)) worker is receiving care under or pursuant to the provisions of chapters 51.36 and 51.40 RCW.

(15) Should any further accident result in the permanent total disability of an injured ((~~workman~~)) worker, he or she shall receive the pension to which he or she

(2) Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured ((~~workman~~)) worker as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.

(3) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the ((workman)) worker, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent.

(4) Whenever an employer requests that a ((workman)) worker who is entitled to temporary total disability under this chapter be certified by a physician as able to perform available work other than his or her usual work, the employer shall furnish to the physician, with a copy to the ((workman)) worker, a statement describing the available work in terms that will enable the physician to relate the physical activities of the job to the ((workman's)) worker's disability. The physician shall then determine whether the ((workman)) worker is physically able to perform the work described. If the ((workman)) worker is released by his or her physician for said work, and the work thereafter comes to an end before the ((workman's)) worker's recovery is sufficient in the judgment of his or her physician to permit him or her to return to his or her usual job, or to perform other available work, the ((workman's)) worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed. Should the available work described, once undertaken by the ((workman)) worker, impede his or her recovery to the extent that in the judgment of his or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the ((workman's)) worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the ((workman)) worker ceases such work.

Once the ((workman)) worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection, he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the ((workman's)) worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the ((workman's)) worker's physician.

In the event of any dispute as to the ((workman's)) worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

(5) No ((workman)) worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury.

(6) Should a ((workman)) worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured ((workman)) worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages.

(7) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018.

Sec. 48. Section 12, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 23, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.095 are each amended to read as follows:

One of the primary purposes of this title is the restoration of the injured ((workman)) worker to gainful employment. To this end, the department shall utilize the services of individuals whose experience, training, and interests in vocational rehabilitation and retraining qualify them to lend expert assistance to the supervisor of industrial insurance in such programs of vocational rehabilitation or retraining as may be reasonable to qualify the ((workman)) worker for employment consistent with his or her physical and mental status. Where, after evaluation and recommendation by such individuals and prior to final evaluation of the ((workman's)) worker's permanent disability and in the sole opinion of the supervisor, vocational rehabilitation or retraining is both necessary and likely to restore the injured ((workman)) worker to a form of gainful employment, the supervisor may, in his or her sole discretion, continue the temporary total disability compensation under RCW 51.32.090 while the ((workman)) worker is actively and successfully undergoing a formal program of vocational rehabilitation or retraining: PROVIDED, That such compensation may not be authorized for a period of more than fifty-two weeks: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such period may, in the sole discretion of the supervisor after his or her review, be extended for an additional fifty-two weeks or portion thereof by written order of the supervisor.

In cases where the ((workman)) worker is required to reside away from his or her customary residence, the reasonable cost of board and lodging shall also be paid. Said costs shall be chargeable to the employer's cost experience or shall be paid by the self-insurer for ((workmen)) workers to whom he or she is liable for compensation and benefits under the provisions of this title.

Sec. 49. Section 51.32.100, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 44, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.100 are each amended to read as follows:

If it is determined that an injured ((workman)) worker had, at the time of his or her injury, a preexisting disease and that such disease delays or prevents complete recovery from such injury, it shall be ascertained, as nearly as possible, the period over which the injury would have caused disability were it not for the diseased condition and the extent of permanent partial disability which the injury would have caused were it not for the disease, and compensation shall be awarded only therefor.

Sec. 50. Section 51.32.110, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 13, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Any ((workman)) worker entitled to receive compensation or claiming compensation under this title shall, if requested by the department or self-insurer, submit himself or herself for medical examination, at a time and from time to time, at a place reasonably convenient for the ((workman)) worker and as may be provided by the rules of the department. If the ((workman)) worker refuses to submit to medical examination, or obstructs the same, or, if any injured ((workman)) worker shall persist in unsanitary or injurious practices which tend to imperil or retard his or her recovery, or shall refuse to submit to such medical or surgical treatment as is reasonably essential to his or her recovery, the department or the self-insurer upon approval by the department, with notice to the ((workman)) worker may reduce or suspend the compensation of such ((workman)) worker so long as such refusal or practice continues. If the ((workman)) worker necessarily incurs traveling expenses in attending for examination pursuant to the request of the department, such traveling expenses shall be repaid to him or her out of the accident fund upon proper voucher and audit.

If the medical examination required by this section causes the ((workman)) worker to be absent from his or her work without pay he or she shall be paid for such time lost in accordance with the schedule of payments provided in RCW 51.32.090 as amended.

Sec. 51. Section 51.32.120, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.32.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Should a further accident occur to a ((workman)) worker who has been previously the recipient of a lump sum payment under this title, his or her future compensation shall be adjusted according to the other provisions of this chapter and with regard to the combined effect of his or her injuries and his or her past receipt of money under this title.

Sec. 52. Section 51.32.135, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 98, chapter 154, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.135 are each amended to read as follows:

In pension cases when a ((workman)) worker or beneficiary closes his or her claim by full conversion to a lump sum or in any other manner as provided in RCW 51.32.130 and 51.32.150, such action shall be conclusive and effective to bar any subsequent application or claim relative thereto by the ((workman)) worker or any beneficiary which would otherwise exist had such person not elected to close the claim: PROVIDED, The director may require the spouse of such ((workman)) worker to consent in writing as a prerequisite to conversion and/or the closing of such claim.

Sec. 53. Section 51.32.180, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 49, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Every ((workman)) worker who suffers disability from an occupational disease in the course of employment under the mandatory or elective adoption provisions of this title, or his or her family and dependents in case of death of the ((workman)) worker from such disease or infection, shall receive the same compensation benefits and medical, surgical and hospital care and treatment as would be paid and provided for a ((workman)) worker injured or killed in employment under this title: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this section and RCW 51.16.040 shall not apply where the last exposure to the hazards of the disease or infection occurred prior to January 1, 1937.

Sec. 54. Section 47, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 25, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the self-insurer denies a claim for compensation, written notice of such denial, clearly informing the claimant of the reasons therefor and that the director will rule on the matter shall be mailed or given to the claimant and the director within seven days after the self-insurer has notice of the claim.

(2) Until such time as the department has entered an order in a disputed case acceptance of compensation by the claimant shall not be considered a binding determination of his or her rights under this title. Likewise the payment of compensation shall not be considered a binding determination of the obligations of the self-insurer as to future compensation payments.

(3) Upon making the first payment of income benefits, and upon stopping or changing of such benefits except where a determination of the permanent disability has been made as elsewhere provided in this title, the self-insurer shall immediately notify the director in accordance with a form to be prescribed by the director that the payment of income benefits has begun or has been stopped or changed. Where temporary disability compensation is payable, the first payment thereof shall be made within fourteen days after notice of claim and shall continue at regular semimonthly or biweekly intervals.

(4) If, after the payment of compensation without an award, the self-insurer elects to controvert the right to compensation, the payment of compensation shall not be considered a binding determination of the obligations of the self-insurer as to future compensation payments. The acceptance of compensation by the ((~~workman~~)) worker or his or her beneficiaries shall not be considered a binding determination of their rights under this title.

(5) The director (a) may, upon his or her own initiative at any time in a case in which payments are being made without an award, and (b) shall, upon receipt of information from any person claiming to be entitled to compensation, from the self-insurer, or otherwise that the right to compensation is controverted, or that payment of compensation has been opposed, stopped or changed, whether or not claim has been filed, promptly make such inquiry as circumstances require, cause such medical examinations to be made, hold such hearings, require the submission of further information, make such orders, decisions or awards, and take such further action as he or she considers will properly determine the matter and protect the rights of all parties.

(6) The director, upon his or her own initiative, may make such inquiry as circumstances require or is necessary to protect the rights of all the parties and he or she may enact rules and regulations providing for procedures to ensure fair and prompt handling by self-insurers of the claims of ((~~workmen~~)) workers and beneficiaries.

Sec. 55. Section 26, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Claims of injured ((~~workmen~~)) workers of employers who have secured the payment of compensation by insuring with the department shall be promptly acted upon by the department. Where temporary disability compensation is payable, the first payment thereof shall be mailed within fourteen days after receipt of the claim at the department's offices in Olympia and shall continue at regular semimonthly intervals. The payment of this or any other benefits under this title, prior to the entry of an order by the department in accordance with RCW 51.52.050 as now or hereafter amended, shall be not considered a binding determination of the obligations of the department under this title. The acceptance of compensation by the ((~~workman~~)) worker or his or her beneficiaries prior to such order shall likewise not be considered a binding determination of their rights under this title.

Sec. 56. Section 51.36.010, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 234, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.36.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the occurrence of any injury to a ((workman)) worker entitled to compensation under the provisions of this title, he or she shall receive proper and necessary medical and surgical services at the hands of a physician of his or her own choice, if conveniently located, and proper and necessary hospital care and services during the period of his or her disability from such injury, but the same shall be limited in point of duration as follows:

In the case of permanent partial disability, not to extend beyond the date when compensation shall be awarded him or her, except when the ((workman)) worker returned to work before permanent partial disability award is made, in such case not to extend beyond the time when monthly allowances to him or her shall cease; in case of temporary disability not to extend beyond the time when monthly allowances to him or her shall cease: PROVIDED, That after any injured ((workman)) worker has returned to his or her work his or her medical and surgical treatment may be continued if, and so long as, such continuation is deemed necessary by the supervisor of industrial insurance to be necessary to his or her more complete recovery; in case of a permanent total disability not to extend beyond the date on which a lump sum settlement is made with him or her or he or she is placed upon the permanent pension roll: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the supervisor of industrial insurance, solely in his or her discretion, may authorize continued medical and surgical treatment for conditions previously accepted by the department when such medical and surgical treatment is deemed necessary by the supervisor of industrial insurance to protect such ((workman's)) worker's life or provide for the administration of medical and therapeutic measures including payment of prescription medications, but not including those controlled substances currently scheduled by the state board of pharmacy as Schedule I, II, III, or IV substances under chapter 69.50 RCW, which are necessary to alleviate continuing pain which results from the industrial injury. In order to authorize such continued treatment the written order of the supervisor of industrial insurance issued in advance of the continuation shall be necessary.

Sec. 57. Section 51.36.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 14, chapter 224, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

When the injury to any ((workman)) worker is so serious as to require his or her being taken from the place of injury to a place of treatment, his or her employer shall, at the expense of the medical aid fund, or self-insurer, as the case may be, furnish transportation to the nearest place of proper treatment.

Every ((workman)) worker whose injury results in the loss of one or more limbs or eyes shall be provided with proper artificial substitutes and every ((workman)) worker, who suffers an injury to an eye producing an error of refraction, shall be once provided proper and properly equipped lenses to correct such error of refraction and his or her disability rating shall be based upon the loss of sight before correction. Every ((workman)) worker, whose accident results in damage to or destruction of an artificial limb, eye, or tooth, shall have same repaired or replaced. Every ((workman)) worker whose hearing aid or eyeglasses or lenses are damaged, destroyed, or lost as a result of an industrial accident shall have the same restored or replaced. The department or self-insurer shall be liable only for the cost of restoring damaged hearing aids or eyeglasses to their condition at the time of the accident. All mechanical appliances necessary in the treatment of an injured ((workman)) worker, such as braces, belts, casts, and crutches, shall be provided and all mechanical appliances required as permanent equipment after treatment has been completed shall continue to be provided or replaced without regard to the date of injury or date treatment was completed, notwithstanding any other provision of law. A ((workman)) worker, whose injury is of such short duration as to bring him or her within the time limit provisions of RCW 51.32.090, shall nevertheless receive during the omitted period medical, surgical, and hospital care and service and transportation under the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 58. Section 51.36.030, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.36.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Every employer, who employs less than fifty ((workmen)) workers, shall keep at his or her plant a first aid kit equipped as required by the department with materials for first aid to his or her injured ((workmen)) workers. Every employer who employs within a radius of one-half mile of any plant or establishment fifty or more ((workmen)) workers, shall keep one first aid station equipped as required by the department with materials for first aid to his or her injured ((workmen)) workers, and shall cooperate with the department in training one or more employees in first aid to the injured. The maintenance of such first aid kits and stations shall be deemed to be a part of any educational standards established under Title 49 RCW.

Sec. 59. Section 2, chapter 107, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.36.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The benefits of Title 51 RCW shall be provided to each ((workman)) worker receiving an injury, as defined therein, during the course of his or her employment and also during his or her lunch period as established by the employer while on the jobsite. The jobsite shall consist of the premises as are occupied, used or contracted for by the employer for the business of work process in which the employer is then engaged: PROVIDED, That if a ((workman)) worker by reason of his or her employment leaves such jobsite under the direction, control or request of the employer and if such ((workman)) worker is injured during his or her lunch period while so away from the jobsite, the ((workman)) worker shall receive the benefits as provided herein: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the employer need not consider the lunch period in ((workman)) worker hours for the purpose of reporting to the department unless the ((workman)) worker is actually paid for such period of time.

Sec. 60. Section 54, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.36.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the director or the self-insurer deems it necessary in order to resolve any medical issue, a ((workman)) worker shall submit to examination by a physician or physicians selected by the director, with the rendition of a report to the person ordering the examination. The director, in his or her discretion, may charge the cost of such examination or examinations to the self-insurer or to the medical aid fund as the case may be. The cost of said examination shall include payment to the ((workman)) worker of reasonable expenses connected therewith.

Sec. 61. Section 51.40.010, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.40.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any contract made in violation of this title shall be invalid, except that any employer engaged in extrahazardous work may, with the consent of a majority of his ((workmen)) or her workers, enter into written contracts with physicians, surgeons and owners of hospitals operating the same, or with hospital associations, for medical, surgical and hospital care to ((workmen)) workers injured in such employment, by, and under the control and administration of, and at the direct expense of the employer and his ((workmen)) or her workers. Such a contract shall be known as a "medical aid contract" and shall not be assignable or transferable by operation of law or otherwise except with the consent of the supervisor of industrial insurance endorsed thereon.

Sec. 62. Section 51.40.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 80, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 51.40.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Before any medical aid contract shall go into effect it shall be submitted to the supervisor of industrial insurance and may be disapproved by him or her when found not to provide for such care of injured ((workmen)) workers as is contemplated by the provisions of RCW 51.04.030 and, if a contract so submitted is with the owners of a hospital operating the same, or with a hospital association, the supervisor of industrial insurance shall have power to disapprove the same if in his or her judgment the ownership or management of such hospital or hospital association is not such as to produce satisfactory service. Any such contract with physician, surgeon, or owner and operator of a hospital, or with a hospital association, so disapproved shall not be valid. If approved the contract shall be in effect for any period of time specified therein, not exceeding three years from the date of approval: PROVIDED, That the director, through the division of industrial insurance, may, before approving any such contract, require the giving by any physician, surgeon, hospital or hospital association, of a bond in such sum and in such form, as the director may determine, conditioned that the obligor will faithfully perform such contract. Every such contract to be valid must provide the injured ((workman)) worker the same services and a standard of service equal to that provided by the department for noncontract cases: PROVIDED, That the contract shall provide for the payment of fees to licensed practitioners of the healing arts ((that)) who are not members of the medical contracting group but who render services to a contract-covered employee. Such fees shall not exceed the agreed fee schedule of the medical contracting group and said fees shall be subject to the proration of payments on the same basis as the medical aid contracting group and any such practitioner participating in the agreement of any contract-covered employee shall agree to render similar services in the event of a catastrophe and to accept a proration of payments on the same basis as the medical contracting group. Every such contract to be valid must provide that the expenses incident to it shall be borne one-half by the employer and one-half by the employees, and that it shall be administered by the two interests jointly and equally.

No contract entered into prior to the time chapter 36, Laws of 1965 goes into effect shall be invalidated during its term by anything contained in the amendatory provisions of said chapter 36, Laws of 1965.

Sec. 63. Section 51.40.030, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

So long as a medical aid contract is in effect the subject matter of the contract shall, except as in this chapter otherwise specified, be outside of, and not affected by the provisions relating to the assessment and payment of medical aid premiums, but the provisions relating to artificial substitutes and lenses and the basis of compensation when lenses are supplied, and to transportation of injured (~~(workmen)~~) workers and to educational standards of safety shall apply.

Sec. 64. Section 51.40.040, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 29, chapter 106, Laws of 1973 and RCW 51.40.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The employer shall pay monthly into the medical aid fund ten percent of the amount he or she would have been required to pay in that month if such contract had not been made, and of that ten percent he or she shall collect one-half from his or her said (~~(workmen)~~) workers by proper deduction from the daily wage of each and, in addition thereto, every classification and subclassification of industries whose employer and employees are under medical aid contract, shall pay into the surplus fund hereby created a further sum to be determined by the director, through the division of industrial insurance, not exceeding ten percent of the amount that would have been required to be paid into the medical aid fund if such contract had not been made and the employer shall collect such sum from the party agreeing to furnish such medical aid and hospital service. The surplus fund shall be used by the director only for the purpose of furnishing medical aid to (~~(workmen)~~) workers included in the contract provided for in this section, where the necessity therefor arises after the expiration or cancellation of such medical aid contract, in those instances where the medical aid contractor has become deceased, insolvent, dissolved or, in the opinion of the director, otherwise incapable of rendering the required medical aid to the injured (~~(workmen)~~) workers. The amount at which such surplus fund shall be maintained in each classification and subclassification shall be determined by the director, through the division of industrial insurance, based upon the estimated costs of such future medical treatment required to be furnished after the expiration or cancellation of the medical aid contract, except as in this chapter provided. When adequate reserves for such purpose have been accumulated to the credit of any classification and subclassification the levy therefor may be suspended in the discretion of the director. Disbursements from said surplus fund shall be made by warrants drawn against the same by the department upon certificate thereof, or requisition therefor through the division of industrial insurance. Payment into the surplus fund shall not relieve the party agreeing to furnish such medical aid and hospital service from his or her obligation so to do at any time during or after the expiration of his or her medical aid contract except as in this section provided: PROVIDED, That if, upon the expiration of any medical aid contract, the medical aid contractor does not renew it and forthwith and thereafter ceases the performance of all medical aid contracts as in this chapter provided, he or she shall be relieved from all liability to furnish future medical aid to the injured ~~((workman))~~ worker arising after the expiration of such contract or contracts, if he or she has paid all levies theretofore made during the existence of such contract or contracts into the surplus fund.

Sec. 65. Section 51.40.050, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.40.050 are each amended to read as follows:

During the operation of any contract the supervisor of industrial insurance, on his or her own motion, or any interested person, may file a complaint alleging that the service and care actually rendered thereunder are not up to the standard provided in RCW 51.04.030 and, upon a hearing had upon notice to the employer and ~~((workmen))~~ workers interested thereunder, the supervisor of industrial insurance may make an order that the contract shall terminate unless the defect or deficiency complained of is remedied to his or her satisfaction within a period to be fixed in such order, or he or she may at such hearing sustain the complaint and make an order that the contract shall terminate forthwith.

Notice to the ~~((workmen))~~ workers may be effected by service upon one of them designated by a majority of the ~~((workmen))~~ workers, in writing in duplicate, one copy to be posted for local convenience and the other filed with the supervisor of industrial insurance. In default of any such designation, service upon any one ~~((workman))~~ worker other than the one instituting a complaint shall be service upon all. During an appeal the contract shall remain in force and operation, but the costs of the appeal shall be paid out of the medical aid fund only in case the decision of the supervisor of industrial insurance is reversed.

Sec. 66. Section 51.40.060, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.40.060 are each amended to read as follows:

If, during the operation of any medical aid contract, any injured ~~((workman))~~ worker shall not receive medical or surgical treatment with reasonable promptness upon the occurrence of his or her injury, or at any time during his or her treatment, the supervisor of industrial insurance may provide such treatment during the emergency at the expense of his or her employer, who may charge such expense against such contract, and such emergency treatment shall continue until supplanted by like treatment under such contract, notwithstanding the pendency of an appeal from such action. The cost of such emergency treatment shall not exceed the rate specified in the department's fee bill. The acceptance of employment by any ~~((workman))~~ worker shall be and be held to be an acceptance of any existing contract made under this chapter to which his or her employer is a party.

Sec. 67. Section 51.40.070, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.40.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall have power to enact rules prescribing whether and under what conditions an injured ~~((workman))~~ worker, who has been receiving treatment under medical aid contract at a place other than his or her place of permanent abode and who shall be or have become ambulatory or who, being discharged, shall require further treatment, may be transferred to the care of a surgeon at his or her place of residence, and providing for the compensation of such surgeon at the expense of the doctor, hospital or hospital association holding such contract.

Sec. 68. Section 51.44.110, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 30, chapter 106, Laws of 1973 and RCW 51.44.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Disbursement out of the several funds shall be made only upon warrants drawn by the department. The state treasurer shall pay every warrant out of the fund upon which it is drawn. If, at any time, there shall not be sufficient money in the fund on which any such warrant is drawn wherewith to pay the same, the employer on account of whose ((~~workman~~)) worker it was that the warrant was drawn shall pay the same, and he or she shall be credited upon his or her next following contribution to such fund the amount so paid with interest thereon at the legal rate from the date of such payment to the date such next following contribution became payable and, if the amount of the credit shall exceed the amount of the contribution, he or she shall have a warrant upon the same fund for the excess and, if any such warrant shall not be so paid, it shall remain, nevertheless, payable out of the fund.

Sec. 69. Section 51.48.010, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 61, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.48.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Every employer shall be liable for the penalties described in this title and shall also be liable if an injury or occupational disease has been sustained by a ((~~workman~~)) worker prior to the time he or she has secured the payment of such compensation to a penalty in a sum equal to fifty percent of the cost for such injury or occupational disease, for the benefit of the medical aid fund.

Sec. 70. Section 51.48.050, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.48.050 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any employer to directly or indirectly demand or collect from any of his ((~~workmen~~)) or her workers any sum of money whatsoever for or on account of medical, surgical, hospital, or other treatment or transportation of injured ((~~workmen~~)) workers, other than as specified in RCW 51.16.140 and 51.40.040, and any employer who directly or indirectly violates the foregoing provisions of this section shall be liable to the state for the benefit of the medical aid fund in ten times the amount so demanded or collected, and such employer and every officer, agent, or servant of such employer knowingly participating therein shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 71. Section 51.48.060, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 20, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.48.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Any physician who fails, neglects or refuses to file a report with the director, as required by this title, within five days of the date of treatment, showing the condition of the injured ((~~workman~~)) worker at the time of treatment, a description of the treatment given, and an estimate of the probable duration of the injury, or who fails or refuses to render all necessary assistance to the injured ((~~workman~~)) worker, as required by this title, shall be subject to a civil penalty of one hundred dollars.

Sec. 72. Section 51.48.070, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.48.070 are each amended to read as follows:

If any ((workman)) worker is injured because of the absence of any safeguard or protection required to be provided or maintained by, or pursuant to, any statute or ordinance, or any departmental regulation under any statute, or is, at the time of the injury, of less than the maximum age prescribed by law for the employment of a minor in the occupation in which he or she is engaged when injured the employer shall, within ten days after the demand therefor by the department, pay into the accident fund in addition to all other payments required by law:

(1) In case the consequent payment to the ((workman)) worker out of the accident fund is a lump sum, a sum equal to fifty percent of that amount.

(2) In case the consequent payment to the ((workman)) worker is payable in monthly payments, a sum equal to fifty percent of the lump value of such monthly payment, estimated in accordance with the rule stated in RCW 51.32.130.

The foregoing provisions shall not apply to the employer if the absence of such guard or protection is due to the removal thereof by the injured ((workman)) worker himself or herself or with his or her knowledge by any of his or her fellow ((workmen)) workers, unless such removal is by order or direction of the employer or superintendent or foreman of the employer, or anyone placed by the employer in control or direction of such ((workman)) worker. If the removal of such guard or protection is by the ((workman)) worker himself or herself or with his or her consent by any of his or her fellow ((workmen)) workers, unless by order or direction of the employer or the superintendent or foreman of the employer, or anyone placed by the employer in control or direction of such ((workman)) worker, the schedule of compensation provided in chapter 51.32 RCW shall be reduced ten percent for the individual case of such ((workman)) worker.

Sec. 73. Section 1, chapter 78, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.48.105 are each amended to read as follows:

The penalties provided under this title for failure to apply for coverage for employees as required by the provisions of Title 51 RCW, the ((workmen's)) worker's compensation law, shall not be applicable prior to March 1, 1972, as to any employer whose work first became subject to this title on or after January 1, 1972.

The second member shall be a representative of the majority of ((workmen)) workers engaged in employment under this title and selected from a list of not less than three names submitted to the governor by an organization, state-wide in scope, which through its affiliates embraces a cross section and a majority of the organized labor of the state. The third member shall be a representative of employers under this title, and appointed from a list of at least three names submitted to the governor by a recognized state-wide organization of employers, representing a majority of employers. The initial terms of office of the members of the board shall be

Each member of the board shall be eligible for reappointment and shall hold office until his or her successor is appointed and qualified. In the event of a vacancy the governor is authorized to appoint a successor to fill the unexpired term of his or her predecessor. All appointments to the board shall be made in conformity with the foregoing plan. Whenever the workload of the board and its orderly and expeditious disposition shall necessitate, the governor may appoint two additional pro-tem members in addition to the regular members. Such appointments shall be for a definite period of time, and shall be made from lists submitted respectively by labor and industry as in the case of regular members. One pro-tem member shall be a representative of labor and one shall be a representative of industry. Members shall devote their entire time to the duties of the board and shall receive for their services a salary as fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040 which shall be in addition to travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. Whenever the department has made any order, decision, or award, it shall promptly serve the ((workman)) worker, beneficiary, employer, or other person affected thereby, with a copy thereof by mail, which shall be addressed to such person at his or her last known address as shown by the records of the department. The copy, in case the same is a final order, decision, or award, shall bear on the same side of the same page on which is found the amount of the award, a statement, set in black faced type of at least ten point body or size, that such final order, decision, or award must be appealed to the board, Olympia, within sixty days, or the same shall become final.

Whenever the department has taken any action or made any decision relating to any phase of the administration of this title the ((workman)) worker, beneficiary, employer, or other person aggrieved thereby may appeal to the board and said appellant shall have the burden of proceeding with the evidence to establish a prima facie case for the relief sought in such appeal. Any such person aggrieved by the decision and order of the board may thereafter appeal to the superior court, as prescribed in this chapter.

Sec. 76. Section 51.52.060, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 58, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Any ((workman)) worker, beneficiary, employer, or other person aggrieved by an order, decision, or award of the department must, before he or she appeals to the courts, file with the board and the director, by mail or personally, within sixty days from the day on which such copy of such order, decision, or award was communicated to such person, a notice of appeal to the board. Within ten days of the date on which an appeal has been granted by the board, the board shall notify the other interested parties thereto of the receipt thereof and shall forward a copy of said notice of appeal to such other interested parties. Within twenty days of the receipt of such notice of the board, the ((workman)) worker or the employer may file with the board a cross-appeal from the order of the department from which the original appeal was taken: PROVIDED, That nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to change, alter or modify the practice or procedure of the department for the payment of awards pending appeal: AND PROVIDED, That failure to file notice of appeal with both the board and the department shall not be ground for denying the appeal if the notice of appeal is filed with either the board or the department: AND PROVIDED, That, if within the time limited for filing a notice of appeal to the board from an order, decision, or award of the department, the department shall direct the submission of further evidence or the investigation of any further fact, the time for filing such notice of appeal shall not commence to run until such person shall have been advised in writing of the final decision of the department in the matter: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That in the event the department shall direct the submission of further evidence or the investigation of any further fact, as above provided, the department shall render a final order, decision, or award within ninety days from the date such further submission of evidence or investigation of further fact is ordered which time period may be extended by the department for good cause stated in writing to all interested parties for an additional ninety days: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the department, either within the time limited for appeal, or within thirty days after receiving a notice of appeal, may modify, reverse or change any order, decision, or award, or may hold any such order, decision, or award in abeyance for a period of ninety days which time period may be extended by the department for good cause stated in writing to all interested parties for an additional ninety days pending further investigation in light of the allegations of the notice of appeal, and the board shall thereupon deny the appeal, without prejudice to the appellant's right to appeal from any subsequent determinative order issued by the department.

Sec. 77. Section 51.52.070, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 18, chapter 224, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The notice of appeal to the board shall set forth in full detail the grounds upon which the person appealing considers such order, decision, or award is unjust or unlawful, and shall include every issue to be considered by the board, and it must contain a detailed statement of facts upon which such ((workman)) worker, beneficiary, employer, or other person relies in support thereof. The ((workman)) worker, beneficiary, employer, or other person shall be deemed to have waived all objections or irregularities concerning the matter on which such appeal is taken other than those specifically set forth in such notice of appeal or appearing in the records of the department. The department shall promptly transmit its original record, or a legible copy thereof produced by mechanical, photographic, or electronic means, in such matter to the board.

Sec. 78. Section 51.52.095, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 148, Laws of 1963 and RCW 51.52.095 are each amended to read as follows:

The board, upon request of the ((workman)) worker, beneficiary, or employer, or upon its own motion, may direct all parties interested in an appeal, together with their attorneys, if any, to appear before it, a member of the board, or an authorized hearing examiner, for a conference for the purpose of determining the feasibility of settlement, the simplification of issues of law and fact, the necessity of amendments to the notice of appeal or other pleadings, the possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof, the limitation of the number of expert witnesses, and such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the appeal. Such conference may be held prior to the hearing, or it may be held during the hearing, at the discretion of the board member or hearing examiner conducting the same, in which case the hearing will be recessed for such conference. Following the conference, the board member or hearing examiner conducting the same, shall state on the record the results of such conference, and the parties present or their representatives shall state their concurrence on the record. Such agreement as stated on the record shall control the subsequent course of the proceedings, unless modified at a subsequent hearing to prevent manifest injustice. If agreement concerning final disposition of the appeal is reached by the parties present at the conference, or by the employer and ((workman)) worker or beneficiary, the board may enter a final decision and order in accordance therewith, providing the board finds such agreement is in conformity with the law and the facts.

Sec. 79. Section 51.52.100, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 148, Laws of 1963 and RCW 51.52.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Hearings shall be held in the county of the residence of the ((workman)) worker or beneficiary, or in the county where the injury occurred, at a place designated by the board. Such hearing shall be de novo and summary, but no witness' testimony shall be received unless he or she shall first have been sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth in the matter being heard, or unless his or her testimony shall have been taken by deposition according to the statutes and rules relating to superior courts of this state. The department shall be entitled to appear in all proceedings before the board and introduce testimony in support of its order. The board shall cause all oral testimony to be stenographically reported and thereafter transcribed, and when transcribed, the same, with all depositions, shall be filed in, and remain a part of, the record on the appeal. Such hearings on appeal to the board may be conducted by one or more of its members, or a duly authorized hearing examiner, and depositions may be taken by a person duly commissioned for the purpose by the board.

Members of the board, its duly authorized hearing examiners, and all persons duly commissioned by it for the purpose of taking depositions, shall have power to administer oaths; to preserve and enforce order during such hearings; to issue subpoenas for, and to compel the attendance and testimony of, witnesses, or the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence, or the taking of depositions before any designated individual competent to administer oaths, and it shall be their duty so to do to examine witnesses; and to do all things conformable to law which may be necessary to enable them, or any of them, effectively to discharge the duties of his or her office.

If any person in proceedings before the board disobeys or resists any lawful order or process, or misbehaves during a hearing or so near the place thereof as to obstruct the same, or neglects to produce, after having been ordered so to do, any pertinent book, paper or document, or refuses to appear after having been subpoenaed, or upon appearing refuses to take oath as a witness, or after having the oath refuses to be examined according to law, the board or any member or duly authorized hearing examiner may certify the facts to the superior court having jurisdiction in the place in which said board or member or hearing examiner is sitting; the court shall thereupon, in a summary manner, hear the evidence as to the acts complained of, and, if the evidence so warrants, punish such person in the same manner and to the same extent as for a contempt committed before the court, or commit such person upon the same conditions as if the doing of the forbidden act had occurred with reference to the proceedings, or in the presence, of the court.

Sec. 80. Section 1, chapter 40, Laws of 1973 and RCW 51.52.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Within thirty days after a decision of the board to deny the petition or petitions for review upon such appeal has been communicated to such ((workman)) worker, beneficiary, employer or other person, or within thirty days after the final decision and order of the board upon such appeal has been communicated to such ((workman)) worker, beneficiary, employer or other person, or within thirty days after the appeal is deemed denied as herein provided, such ((workman)) worker, beneficiary, employer or other person aggrieved by the decision and order of the board may appeal to the superior court.

In cases involving injured ((workmen)) workers such appeal shall be to the superior court of the county of residence of the ((workman)) worker or beneficiary, as shown by the department's records, or to the superior court of the county wherein the injury occurred or where neither the county of residence nor the county wherein the injury occurred are in the state of Washington then the appeal may be directed to the superior court for Thurston county. In all other cases the appeal shall be to the superior court of Thurston county. Such appeal shall be perfected by filing with the clerk of the court a notice of appeal and by serving a copy thereof by mail, or personally, on the director and on the board. If the case is one involving a self-insurer, a copy of the notice of appeal shall also be served by mail, or personally, on such self-insurer. The department shall, in all cases not involving a self-insurer, within twenty days after the receipt of such notice of appeal, serve and file its notice of appearance and such appeal shall thereupon be deemed at issue. If the case is one involving a self-insurer, such self-insurer shall, within twenty days after receipt of such notice of appeal, serve and file its notice of appearance and such appeal shall thereupon be deemed to be at issue. In such cases the department may appear and take part in any proceedings. The board shall serve upon the appealing party, the director, the self-insurer if the case involves a self-insurer, and any other party appearing at the board's proceeding, and file with the clerk of the court before trial, a certified copy of the board's official record which shall include the notice of appeal and other pleadings, testimony and exhibits, and the board's decision and order, which shall become the record in such case. No bond shall be required on appeals to the superior court or on appeals to the supreme court or the court of appeals, except that an appeal by the employer from a decision and order of the board under RCW 51.48.070, shall be ineffectual unless, within five days following the service of notice thereof, a bond, with surety satisfactory to the court, shall be filed, conditioned to perform the judgment of the court. Except in the case last named an appeal shall not be a stay: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That whenever the board has made any decision and order reversing an order of the supervisor of industrial insurance on questions of law or mandatory administrative actions of the director, the department shall have the right of appeal to the superior court.

Sec. 81. Section 51.52.120, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 63, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful for an attorney engaged in the representation of any ((~~workman~~)) worker or beneficiary to charge for services in the department any fee in excess of a reasonable fee, of not more than thirty percent of the increase in the award secured by the attorney's services. Such reasonable fee shall be fixed by the director for services performed by an attorney for such ((~~workman~~)) worker or beneficiary, prior to the notice of appeal to the board if written application therefor is made by the attorney, ((~~workman~~)) worker or beneficiary.

(2) If, on appeal to the board, the order, decision or award of the department is reversed or modified and additional relief is granted to a ((~~workman~~)) worker or beneficiary, or in cases where a party other than the ((~~workman~~)) worker or beneficiary is the appealing party and the ((~~workman's~~)) worker's or beneficiary's right to relief is sustained by the board, the board shall fix a reasonable fee for the services of his or her attorney in proceedings before the board if written application therefor is made by the attorney, ((~~workman~~)) worker or beneficiary. In fixing the amount of such attorney's fee, the board shall take into consideration the fee allowed, if any, by the director, for services before the department, and the board may review the fee fixed by said director. Any attorney's fee set by the department or the board may be reviewed by the superior court upon application of such attorney. Where the board, pursuant to this section, fixes the attorney's fee, it shall be unlawful for an attorney to charge or receive any fee for services before the board in excess of that fee fixed by the board. Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 82. Section 51.52.130, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.52.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If, on appeal to the court from the decision and order of the board, said decision and order is reversed or modified and additional relief is granted to a ((~~workman~~)) worker or beneficiary, or in cases where a party other than the ((~~workman~~)) worker or beneficiary is the appealing party and the ((~~workman's~~)) worker's or beneficiary's right to relief is sustained by the court, a reasonable fee for the services of the ((~~workman's~~)) worker's or beneficiary's attorney shall be fixed by the court. In fixing the fee the court shall take into consideration the fee or fees, if any, fixed by the director and the board for such attorney's services before the department and the board. If the court finds that the fee fixed by the director or by the board is inadequate for services performed before the department or board, or if the director or the board has fixed no fee for such services, then the court shall fix a fee for the attorney's services before the department, or the board, as the case may be, in addition to the fee fixed for the services in the court. If the decision and order of the board is reversed or modified and if the accident fund is affected by the litigation then the attorney's fee fixed by the court for services before the court only, and the fees of medical and other witnesses and the costs shall be payable out of the administrative fund of the department.

Passed the House March 11, 1977.

Passed the Senate June 11, 1977.

Approved by the Governor July 1, 1977, with the exception of section 30 which was vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State July 1, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section House Bill No. 49 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to industrial insurance;"

Section 30 of the bill purports to amend RCW 51.24.010 to change "workman" to "worker". Because Senate Bill No. 2154, codified in Chapter 85, Laws of 1977, 1st Extraordinary Session, approved by me on May 26, 1977, repealed that section of the RCW and made other substantive changes in the law dealing with the same subject and using the term "worker", section 30 is therefore unnecessary.

With the exception of section 30 which I have vetoed, the remainder of House Bill No. 49 is approved."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature recognizes the responsibility of the state to insure that the citizens of the state are offered the benefit of quality pharmaceutical products at competitive prices. Advances in the drug industry resulting from research and the elimination of counterfeiting of prescription drugs should benefit the users of the drugs. Pharmacy must continue to operate with accountability and effectiveness. The legislature hereby declares it to be the policy of the state that its citizens receive safe and therapeutically effective drug products at the most reasonable cost consistent with high drug quality standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this act, the following words shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Brand name" means the proprietary or trade name selected by the manufacturer and placed upon a drug, its container, label, or wrapping at the time of packaging;

(2) "Generic name" means the official title of a drug or drug ingredients published in the latest edition of a nationally recognized pharmacopoeia or formulary;

Under the line at the right side shall be clearly printed the words "DISPENSE AS WRITTEN". Under the line at the left side shall be clearly printed the words "SUBSTITUTION PERMITTED". The practitioner shall communicate the instructions to the pharmacist by signing the appropriate line. No prescription shall be valid without the signature of the practitioner on one of these lines.

If an oral prescription is involved, the practitioner or the practitioner's agent shall instruct the pharmacist as to whether or not a therapeutically equivalent generic drug may be substituted in its place. The pharmacist shall note the instructions on the file copy of the prescription.

The pharmacist shall note the manufacturer of the drug dispensed on the file copy of a written or oral prescription.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A pharmacist may not substitute a product under the provisions of this section unless the manufacturer has shown that the drug has been manufactured with the following minimum good manufacturing standards and practices:

(1) Maintain quality control standards equal to those of the Food and Drug Administration;

(2) Comply with regulations promulgated by the Food and Drug Administration;

(3) Mark products with identification code or monogram;

(4) Label products with expiration date;

(5) Provide reasonable services to accept return goods that have reached their expiration date;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A practitioner who authorizes a prescribed drug shall not be liable for any side effects or adverse reactions caused by the manner or method by which a substituted drug product is selected or dispensed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Every pharmacy shall post a sign in a location at the prescription counter that is readily visible to patrons stating, "Under Washington law, an equivalent but less expensive drug may in some cases be substituted for the drug prescribed by your doctor. Such substitution, however, may only be made with the consent of your doctor. Please consult your pharmacist or physician for more information." The printing shall be in block letters no less than one inch in height.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. It shall be unlawful for any employer to coerce, within the meaning of RCW 9A.36.070, any pharmacist to dispense a generic drug or to substitute a generic drug for another drug. A violation of this section shall be punishable as a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The state board of pharmacy may adopt any necessary rules under chapter 34.04 RCW for the implementation, continuation, or enforcement of this act, including, but not limited to, a list of non-therapeutically equivalent drugs which, when adopted, shall be provided to all registered pharmacists in the state and shall be updated as necessary.

(1) Any vehicle may be equipped with lamps for the purpose of warning other operators of other vehicles of the presence of a vehicular traffic hazard requiring the exercise of unusual care in approaching, overtaking, or passing.

(2) After June 1, 1978, every motorhome, bus, truck, truck tractor, trailer, semitrailer, or pole trailer eighty inches or more in overall width or thirty feet or more in overall length shall be equipped with lamps meeting the requirements of this section.

(3) Vehicular hazard warning signal lamps used to display such warning to the front shall be mounted at the same level and as widely spaced laterally as practicable, and shall display simultaneously flashing amber light: PROVIDED, That on any vehicle manufactured prior to January 1, 1969, the lamps showing to the front may display simultaneously flashing white or amber lights, or any shade of color between white and amber. The lamps used to display such warning to the rear shall be mounted at the same level and as widely spaced laterally as practicable, and shall show simultaneously flashing amber or red lights, or any shade of color between amber and red. These warning lights shall be visible from a distance of not less than five hundred feet in normal sunlight.

Sec. 20. Section 46.37.220, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.37.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as hereinafter provided, the head lamps or the auxiliary driving lamp or the auxiliary passing lamp or combination thereof on motor vehicles (~~((other than motorcycles or motor-driven cycles))~~) shall be so arranged that the driver may select at will between distributions of light projected to different elevations, and such lamps may be so arranged that such selection can be made automatically subject to the following limitations:

(1) There shall be an uppermost distribution of light, or composite beam, so aimed and of such intensity as to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of ~~((three))~~ four hundred fifty feet ahead for all conditions of loading((-));

(2) There shall be a lowermost distribution of light, or composite beam, so aimed and of sufficient intensity to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of one hundred fifty feet ahead; and on a straight level road under any conditions of loading none of the high intensity portion of the beam shall be directed to strike the eyes of an approaching driver((-));

(3) Every new motor vehicle(~~(, other than a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle,))~~) registered in this state after January 1, 1948, which has multiple-beam road-lighting equipment shall be equipped with a beam indicator, which shall be lighted whenever the uppermost distribution of light from the head lamps is in use, and shall not otherwise be lighted. Said indicator shall be so designed and located that when lighted it will be readily visible without glare to the driver of the vehicle so equipped.

Sec. 21. Section 46.37.240, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 18, chapter 154, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.37.240 are each amended to read as follows:

Head lamp systems which provide only a single distribution of light shall be permitted on all farm tractors regardless of date of manufacture, and on all other motor vehicles manufactured and sold prior to one year after March 18, 1955, in lieu of multiple-beam road-lighting equipment herein specified if the single distribution of light complies with the following requirements and limitations:

(1) The head lamps shall be so aimed that when the vehicle is not loaded none of the high intensity portion of the light shall at a distance of twenty-five feet ahead project higher than a level of five inches below the level of the center of the lamp from which it comes, and in no case higher than forty-two inches above the level on which the vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five feet ahead((-));

(2) The intensity shall be sufficient to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of at least two hundred feet.

Sec. 22. Section 46.37.260, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.37.260 are each amended to read as follows:

Any motor vehicle may be operated under the conditions specified in RCW 46.37.020 when equipped with two lighted lamps upon the front thereof capable of revealing persons and objects (~~(seventy-five)~~) one hundred feet ahead in lieu of lamps required in RCW 46.37.220 or 46.37.240: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That at no time shall it be operated at a speed in excess of twenty miles per hour.

Sec. 23. Section 46.37.270, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.37.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) At all times specified in RCW 46.37.020, at least two lighted lamps shall be displayed, one on each side at the front of every motor vehicle (~~((other than a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle))~~), except when such vehicle is parked subject to the regulations governing lights on parked vehicles.

(2) Whenever a motor vehicle equipped with head lamps as herein required is also equipped with any auxiliary lamps or a spot lamp or any other lamp on the front thereof projecting a beam of intensity greater than three hundred candlepower, not more than a total of (~~(four)~~) two of any such additional lamps on the front of a vehicle shall be lighted at any one time when upon a highway.

Sec. 24. Section 46.37.280, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 19, chapter 154, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.37.280 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) During the times specified in RCW 46.37.020, any lighted lamp or illuminating device upon a motor vehicle, other than head lamps, spot lamps, auxiliary lamps, flashing turn signals, emergency vehicle warning lamps, warning lamps authorized by the state commission on equipment and school bus warning lamps, which projects a beam of light of an intensity greater than three hundred candlepower shall be so directed that no part of the high intensity portion of the beam will strike the level of the roadway on which the vehicle stands at a distance of more than seventy-five feet from the vehicle.

(2) Except as required in RCW 46.37.190 no person shall drive or move any vehicle or equipment upon any highway with any lamp or device thereon displaying a red light visible from directly in front of the center thereof.

(3) Flashing lights are prohibited except as required in RCW 46.37.190, 46.37.200, 46.37.210, section 19 of this 1977 amendatory act, and 46.37.300, and warning lamps authorized by the state commission on equipment.

Sec. 25. Section 46.37.320, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.37.320 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state commission on equipment is hereby authorized to approve or disapprove any lighting device (~~(s and to issue and enforce regulations establishing standards and specifications for the approval of such lighting devices, their installation, adjustment and aiming, and adjustment when in use on motor vehicles. Such regulations shall correlate with and, so far as practicable, conform to the then current standards and specifications of the society of automotive engineers applicable to such equipment.~~

(2) ~~The state commission on equipment is hereby required to approve or disapprove any lighting device, of a type on which approval is specifically required in this chapter, within a reasonable time after such device has been submitted.~~

~~(3) The state commission on equipment is further authorized to set up the procedure which shall be followed when any device is submitted for approval.~~

~~(4) The state commission on equipment upon approving any such lamp or device shall issue to the applicant a certificate of approval together with any instructions determined by it.) or other safety equipment, component, or assembly of a type for which approval is required in this chapter or in regulations issued by the state commission on equipment within a reasonable time after such approval has been requested.~~

(2) The state commission on equipment shall establish the procedure to be followed when request for approval of any lighting device or other safety equipment, component, or assembly is submitted under this chapter or in regulations issued by the state commission on equipment. The procedure may provide for submission of such device, component, or assembly to any recognized organization or agency such as, but not limited to, the vehicle equipment safety commission, American national standards institute, society of automotive engineers, and the American association of motor vehicle administrators, as the agent of the state commission on equipment and for the issuance of an approval certificate by that recognized organization or agency in lieu of submission of the device, component, or assembly to the state commission on equipment.

~~((5))~~ (3) The state commission on equipment shall maintain and publish lists of all lamps (and), lighting devices, components, assemblies, or other safety equipment by name and type which have been approved by it.

Sec. 26. Section 46.37.330, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.37.330 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the state commission on equipment has reason to believe that an approved device ((as being sold commercially)) does not comply with the requirements of this chapter or regulations issued by the state commission on equipment, it may, after giving thirty days' previous notice to the person holding the certificate of approval for such device in this state, conduct a hearing upon the question of compliance of said approved device. After said hearing the state commission on equipment shall determine whether said approved device meets the requirements of this chapter and regulations issued by the commission. If said device does not meet the requirements of this chapter or the commission's regulations it shall give notice to the ((person holding)) one to whom the certificate of approval has been issued of the commission's intention to suspend or revoke the certificate of approval for such device in this state.

(2) If at the expiration of ninety days after such notice the person holding the certificate of approval for such device has failed to satisfy the state commission on equipment that said approved device as thereafter to be sold or offered for sale meets the requirements of this chapter or the commission's regulations, the state commission on equipment shall suspend or revoke the approval issued therefor ((until or unless such device is resubmitted to and retested by an authorized testing agency and is found to meet the requirements of this chapter,)) and shall require the withdrawal of all such devices from the market and may require that all said devices sold since the notification ((following the hearing)) be replaced with devices that do comply ((with the requirements of this chapter. The state commission on equipment may at the time of the retest purchase in the open market and submit to the testing agency one or more sets of such approved devices, and if such device upon such retest fails to meet the requirements of this chapter, the state commission on equipment may refuse to renew the certificate of approval of such device)).

(3) When a certificate of approval has been suspended or revoked pursuant to this chapter or regulations by the state commission on equipment, the device shall not be again approved unless and until it has been submitted for reapproval and it has been demonstrated, in the same manner as in an application for an original approval, that the device fully meets the requirements of this chapter or regulations issued by the state commission on equipment. The state commission on equipment may require that all previously approved items are being effectively recalled and removed from the market as a condition of reapproval.

Sec. 27. Section 46.37.340, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 49, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.340 are each amended to read as follows:

Every motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer, and pole trailer, and any combination of such vehicle operating upon a highway within this state shall be equipped with brakes in compliance with the requirements of this chapter.

(1) Service brakes—adequacy. Every such vehicle and combination of vehicles, except special mobile equipment as defined in RCW 46.04.552, shall be equipped with service brakes complying with the performance requirements of RCW 46.37.351 and adequate to control the movement of and to stop and hold such vehicle under all conditions of loading, and on any grade incident to its operation.

(2) Parking brakes—adequacy. Every such vehicle and combination of vehicles(~~(, except motorcycles and motor-driven cycles,)~~) shall be equipped with parking brakes adequate to hold the vehicle on any grade on which it is operated, under all conditions of loading, on a surface free from snow, ice, or loose material. The parking brakes shall be capable of being applied in conformance with the foregoing requirements by the driver's muscular effort or by spring action or by equivalent means. Their operation may be assisted by the service brakes or other source of power provided that failure of the service brake actuation system or other power assisting mechanism will not prevent the parking brakes from being applied in conformance with the foregoing requirements. The parking brakes shall be so designed that when once applied they shall remain applied with the required effectiveness despite exhaustion of any source of energy or leakage of any kind. The same brake drums, brake shoes and lining assemblies, brake shoe anchors, and mechanical brake shoe actuation mechanism normally associated with the wheel brake assemblies may be used for both the service brakes and the parking brakes. If the means of applying the parking brakes and the service brakes are connected in any way, they shall be so constructed that failure of any one part shall not leave the vehicle without operative brakes.

(3) Brakes on all wheels. Every vehicle shall be equipped with brakes acting on all wheels except:

(a) Trailers, semitrailers, or pole trailers of a gross weight not exceeding three thousand pounds, provided that:

(i) The total weight on and including the wheels of the trailer or trailers shall not exceed forty percent of the gross weight of the towing vehicle when connected to the trailer or trailers((-)); and

(ii) The combination of vehicles consisting of the towing vehicle and its total towed load, is capable of complying with the performance requirements of RCW 46.37.351((-));

(b) Trailers, semitrailers, or pole trailers manufactured and assembled prior to July 1, 1965, shall not be required to be equipped with brakes when the total weight on and including the wheels of the trailer or trailers does not exceed two thousand pounds((-));

(c) Any vehicle being towed in driveaway or towaway operations, provided the combination of vehicles is capable of complying with the performance requirements of RCW 46.37.351((-));

(d) Trucks and truck(=) tractors having three or more axles need not have brakes on the front wheels, except that when such vehicles are equipped with at least two steerable axles, the wheels of one steerable axle need not have brakes. However, such trucks and truck(=) tractors must be capable of complying with the performance requirements of RCW 46.37.351((-));

(e) Special mobile equipment as defined in RCW 46.04.552((-)) and all vehicles designed primarily for off-highway use with braking systems which work within the power train rather than directly at each wheel;

(f) (The wheel of a sidecar attached to a motorcycle or to a motor-driven cycle, or the front wheel of a motor-driven cycle need not be equipped with brakes, provided that such motorcycle or motor-driven cycle is capable of complying with the performance requirements of RCW 46.37.351)) Vehicles manufactured prior to January 1, 1930, may have brakes operating on only two wheels.

(4) Automatic trailer brake application upon breakaway. Every trailer, semitrailer, and pole trailer equipped with air or vacuum actuated brakes and every trailer, semitrailer, and pole trailer with a gross weight in excess of three thousand pounds, manufactured or assembled after January 1, 1964, shall be equipped with brakes acting on all wheels and of such character as to be applied automatically and promptly, and remain applied for at least fifteen minutes, upon breakaway from the towing vehicle.

(5) Tractor brakes protected. Every motor vehicle manufactured or assembled after January 1, 1964, and used to tow a trailer, semitrailer, or pole trailer equipped with brakes, shall be equipped with means for providing that in case of breakaway of the towed vehicle, the towing vehicle will be capable of being stopped by the use of its service brakes.

(6) Trailer air reservoirs safeguarded. Air brake systems installed on trailers manufactured or assembled after January 1, 1964, shall be so designed that the supply reservoir used to provide air for the brakes shall be safeguarded against backflow of air from the reservoir through the supply line.

(7) Two means of emergency brake operation.

(a) Air brakes. After January 1, 1964, every towing vehicle, when used to tow another vehicle equipped with air controlled brakes, in other than driveaway or towaway operations, shall be equipped with two means for emergency application of the trailer brakes. One of these means shall apply the brakes automatically in the event of a reduction of the towing vehicle air supply to a fixed pressure which shall be not lower than twenty pounds per square inch nor higher than forty-five pounds per square inch. The other means shall be a manually controlled device for applying and releasing the brakes, readily operable by a person seated in the driving seat, and its emergency position or method of operation shall be clearly indicated. In no instance may the manual means be so arranged as to permit its use to prevent operation of the automatic means. The automatic and the manual means required by this section may be, but are not required to be, separate.

(b) Vacuum brakes. After January 1, 1964, every towing vehicle used to tow other vehicles equipped with vacuum brakes, in operations other than driveaway or towaway operations, shall have, in addition to the single control device required by subsection (8) of this section, a second control device which can be used to operate the brakes on towed vehicles in emergencies. The second control shall be independent of brake air, hydraulic, and other pressure, and independent of other controls, unless the braking system be so arranged that failure of the pressure upon which the second control depends will cause the towed vehicle brakes to be applied automatically. The second control is not required to provide modulated braking.

(8) Single control to operate all brakes. After January 1, 1964, every motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer, and pole trailer, and every combination of such vehicles, (~~except motorcycles and motor-driven cycles,~~) equipped with brakes shall have the braking system so arranged that one control device can be used to operate all service brakes. This requirement does not prohibit vehicles from being equipped with an additional control device to be used to operate brakes on the towed vehicles. This regulation does not apply to driveaway or towaway operations unless the brakes on the individual vehicles are designed to be operated by a single control in the towing vehicle.

(9) Reservoir capacity and check valve.

(a) Air brakes. Every bus, truck, or truck(=)tractor with air operated brakes shall be equipped with at least one reservoir sufficient to insure that, when fully charged to the maximum pressure as regulated by the air compressor governor cut-out setting, a full service brake application may be made without lowering such reservoir pressure by more than twenty percent. Each reservoir shall be provided with means for readily draining accumulated oil or water.

(b) Vacuum brakes. After January 1, 1964, every truck with three or more axles equipped with vacuum assist type brakes and every truck(=)tractor and truck used for towing a vehicle equipped with vacuum brakes shall be equipped with a reserve capacity or a vacuum reservoir sufficient to insure that, with the reserve capacity or reservoir fully charged and with the engine stopped, a full service brake application may be made without depleting the vacuum supply by more than forty percent.

(c) Reservoir safeguarded. All motor vehicles, trailers, semitrailers, and pole trailers, when equipped with air or vacuum reservoirs or reserve capacity as required by this section, shall have such reservoirs or reserve capacity so safeguarded by a check valve or equivalent device that in the event of failure or leakage in its connection to the source of compressed air or vacuum, the stored air or vacuum shall not be depleted by the leak or failure.

(10) Warning devices.

(a) Air brakes. Every bus, truck, or truck(=) tractor using compressed air for the operation of its own brakes or the brakes on any towed vehicle, shall be provided with a warning signal, other than a pressure gauge, readily audible or visible to the driver, which will operate at any time the air reservoir pressure of the vehicle is below fifty percent of the air compressor governor cut-out pressure. In addition, each such vehicle shall be equipped with a pressure gauge visible to the driver, which indicates in pounds per square inch the pressure available for braking.

(b) Vacuum brakes. After January 1, 1964, every truck(=) tractor and truck used for towing a vehicle equipped with vacuum operated brakes and every truck with three or more axles using vacuum in the operation of its brakes, except those in driveaway or towaway operations, shall be equipped with a warning signal, other than a gauge indicating vacuum, readily audible or visible to the driver, which will operate at any time the vacuum in the vehicle's supply reservoir or reserve capacity is less than eight inches of mercury.

(c) Combination of warning devices. When a vehicle required to be equipped with a warning device is equipped with both air and vacuum power for the operation of its own brakes or the brakes on a towed vehicle, the warning devices may be, but are not required to be, combined into a single device which will serve both purposes. A gauge or gauges indicating pressure or vacuum shall not be deemed to be an adequate means of satisfying this requirement.

Sec. 28. Section 46.37.360, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.37.360 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All brakes shall be maintained in good working order and shall be so adjusted as to operate as equally as practicable with respect to the front and back wheels and to wheels on opposite sides of the vehicle.

(2) All passenger cars manufactured on or after January 1, 1968, and other types of vehicles manufactured on or after September 1, 1975, shall be equipped with brake system failure indicator lamps which shall be maintained in good working order. The brake system shall demonstrate good working order and integrity by the application of a force of one hundred twenty-five pounds to the brake pedal for ten seconds without the occurrence of any of the following:

(i) Illumination of the brake system failure indicator lamp;

(ii) A decrease of more than eighty percent of service brake pedal height as measured from its free position to the floorboard or any other object which restricts service brake pedal travel;

(iii) Failure of any hydraulic line or other part.

(3) Brake hoses shall not be mounted so as to contact the vehicle body or chassis. In addition, brake hoses shall not be cracked, chafed, flattened, abraded, or visibly leaking. Protection devices such as "rub rings" shall not be considered part of the hose or tubing.

(4) Disc and drum condition. If the drum is embossed with a maximum safe diameter dimension or the rotor is embossed with a minimum safety thickness dimension, the drum or disc shall be within the appropriate specifications. These dimensions will be found on motor vehicles manufactured since January 1, 1971, and may be found on vehicles manufactured for several years prior to that time. If the drums and discs are not embossed, the drums and discs shall be within the manufacturer's specifications.

(5) Friction materials. On each brake the thickness of the lining or pad shall not be less than one thirty-second of an inch over the rivet heads, or the brake shoe on bonded linings or pads. Brake linings and pads shall not have cracks or breaks that extend to rivet holes except minor cracks that do not impair attachment. Drum brake linings shall be securely attached to brake shoes. Disc brake pads shall be securely attached to shoe plates.

(6) Backing plates and caliper assemblies shall not be deformed or cracked. System parts shall not be broken, misaligned, missing, binding, or show evidence of severe wear. Automatic adjusters and other parts shall be assembled and installed correctly.

Sec. 29. Section 24, chapter 154, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.37.365 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The term "hydraulic brake fluid" as used in this section shall mean the liquid medium through which force is transmitted to the brakes in the hydraulic brake system of a vehicle.

(2) Hydraulic brake fluid shall be distributed and serviced with due regard for the safety of the occupants of the vehicle and the public.

(3) The state commission on equipment shall, in compliance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act, which govern the adoption of rules, adopt and enforce regulations for the administration of this section and shall adopt and publish standards and specifications for hydraulic brake fluid which shall correlate with, and so far as practicable conform to, the then current standards and specifications of the society of automotive engineers applicable to such fluid.

(4) No person shall distribute, have for sale, offer for sale, or sell any hydraulic brake fluid unless it complies with the requirements of this section and the standard specifications adopted by the state commission on equipment. No person shall service any vehicle with brake fluid unless it complies with the requirements of this section and the standards and specifications adopted by the state commission on equipment.

(5) Subsections (3) and (4) of this section shall not apply to petroleum base fluids in vehicles with brake systems designed to use them.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. There is added to chapter 46.37 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) No vehicle shall be equipped with wheel nuts, hub caps, or wheel discs extending outside the body of the vehicle when viewed from directly above which:

- (a) Incorporate winged projections; or
- (b) Constitute a hazard to pedestrians and cyclists.

For the purposes of this section, a wheel nut is defined as an exposed nut which is mounted at the center or hub of a wheel, and is not one of the ordinary hexagonal nuts which secure a wheel to an axle and are normally covered by a hub cap or wheel disc.

(2) Tire rims and wheel discs shall have no visible cracks, elongated bolt holes, or indications of repair by welding. In addition, the lateral and radial runout of each rim bead area shall not exceed one-eighth of an inch of total indicated runout.

(3) King pins or ball joints shall not be worn to the extent that front wheels tip in or out more than one-quarter of an inch at the lower edge of the tire.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. There is added to chapter 46.37 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Construction of steering control system. The steering control system shall be constructed and maintained so that no components or attachments, including horn activating mechanism and trim hardware, can catch the driver's clothing or jewelry during normal driving maneuvers.

(2) Maintenance of steering control system. System play, lash, or free play in the steering system shall not exceed the values tabulated herein.

Steering wheel diameter (inches)	Lash (inches)
16 or less . . . . .	2
18 . . . . .	2-1/4
20 . . . . .	2-1/2
22 . . . . .	2-3/4

(3) Linkage play. Free play in the steering linkage shall not exceed one-quarter of an inch.

(4) Other components of the steering system such as the power steering belt, tie rods, or idler arms or Pitman arms shall not be broken, worn out, or show signs of breakage.

(5) Suspension condition. Ball joint seals shall not be cut or cracked. Structural parts shall not be bent or damaged. Stabilizer bars shall be connected. Springs shall not be broken, or extended by spacers. Shock absorber mountings, shackles, and U-bolts shall be securely attached. Rubber bushings shall not be cracked, or extruded out or missing from suspension joints. Radius rods shall not be missing or damaged.

(6) Shock absorber system. Shock absorbers shall not be loose from mountings, leak, or be inoperative.

(7) Alignment. Toe-in and toe-out measurements shall not be greater than one and one-half times the value listed in the vehicle manufacturer's service specification for alignment setting.

Sec. 32. Section 46.37.380, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.37.380 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every motor vehicle when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with a horn in good working order and capable of emitting sound audible under normal conditions from a distance of not less than two hundred feet, but no horn or other warning device shall emit an unreasonably loud or harsh sound or a whistle. The driver of a motor vehicle shall when reasonably necessary to insure safe operation give audible warning with his horn but shall not otherwise use such horn when upon a highway.

(2) No vehicle shall be equipped with nor shall any person use upon a vehicle any siren, whistle, or bell, except as otherwise permitted in this section.

(3) It is permissible (~~((but not required that))~~) for any (~~((commercial))~~) vehicle to be equipped with a theft alarm signal device (~~((which))~~) so long as it is so arranged that it cannot be used by the driver as an ordinary warning signal. Such a theft alarm signal device may use a whistle, bell, horn, or other audible signal but shall not use a siren.

(4) Any authorized emergency vehicle may be equipped with a siren, whistle, or bell, capable of emitting sound audible under normal conditions from a distance of not less than five hundred feet and of a type approved by the state commission on equipment, but such siren shall not be used except when such vehicle is operated in response to an emergency call or in the immediate pursuit of an actual or suspected violator of the law, in which said latter events the driver of such vehicle shall sound said siren when reasonably necessary to warn pedestrians and other drivers of the approach thereof.

Sec. 33. Section 46.37.390, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 135, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.390 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every motor vehicle shall at all times be equipped with a muffler in good working order and in constant operation to prevent excessive or unusual noise, and no person shall use a muffler cut-out, bypass, or similar device upon a motor vehicle on a highway.

(2) (a) No motor vehicle first sold and registered as a new motor vehicle on or after January 1, 1971, shall discharge into the atmosphere at elevations of less than three thousand feet any air contaminant for a period of more than ten seconds which is:

(i) As dark as or darker than the shade designated as No. 1 on the Ringelmann chart, as published by the United States bureau of mines; or

(ii) Of such opacity as to obscure an observer's view to a degree equal to or greater than does smoke described in subsection (a)(i) above.

(b) No motor vehicle first sold and registered prior to January 1, 1971, shall discharge into the atmosphere at elevations of less than three thousand feet any air contaminant for a period of more than ten seconds which is:

(i) As dark as or darker than the shade designated as No. 2 on the Ringelmann chart, as published by the United States bureau of mines; or

(ii) Of such opacity as to obscure an observer's view to a degree equal to or greater than does smoke described in subsection (b)(i) above.

(c) For the purposes of this subsection the following definitions shall apply:

(i) "Opacity" means the degree to which an emission reduces the transmission of light and obscures the view of an object in the background;

(ii) "Ringelmann chart" means the Ringelmann smoke chart with instructions for use as published by the United States bureau of mines in May 1967 and as thereafter amended, information circular 7718.

(3) No person shall modify the exhaust system of a ((~~motorcycle~~)) motor vehicle in a manner which will amplify or increase the noise emitted by the engine of such vehicle above that emitted by the muffler originally installed on the vehicle, and it shall be unlawful for any person to operate a ((~~motorcycle~~)) motor vehicle not equipped as required by this subsection, or which has been amplified as prohibited by this subsection.

Sec. 34. Section 46.37.400, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 25, chapter 154, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.37.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every motor vehicle shall be equipped with a mirror ((so located as)) mounted on the left side of the vehicle and so located to reflect to the driver a view of the highway for a distance of at least two hundred feet to the rear of such vehicle.

(2) Every motor vehicle shall be equipped with an additional mirror mounted either inside the vehicle approximately in the center or outside the vehicle on the right side and so located as to reflect to the driver a view of the highway for a distance of at least two hundred feet to the rear of such vehicle.

(3) All mirrors required by this section shall be maintained in good condition.

Sec. 35. Section 46.37.410, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.37.410 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All motor vehicles operated on the public highways of this state shall be equipped with a front windshield manufactured of safety glazing materials for use in motor vehicles in accordance with RCW 46.37.430, except, however, on such vehicles not so equipped or where windshields are not in use, the operators of such vehicles shall wear glasses, goggles, or face shields pursuant to RCW 46.37.530(1)(b).

The abstract herein provided to ~~((the))~~ an insurance company shall have excluded therefrom any information pertaining to any occupational driver's license when the same is issued to any person employed by another or self-employed as a motor vehicle driver who during the five years preceding the request has been issued such a license by reason of a conviction of a motor vehicle offense outside the scope of his principal employment, and who has during such period been principally employed as a motor vehicle driver deriving the major portion of his income therefrom. The abstract provided to the insurance company shall also exclude any information pertaining to law enforcement officers or fire fighters as defined in RCW 41.26.030, or any member of the Washington state patrol, while driving official vehicles in the performance of occupational duty during an emergency situation if the chief of the officer's or fire fighter's department certifies on the accident report that the actions of the officer or fire fighter were reasonable under the circumstances as they existed at the time of the accident.

The director shall collect for each such abstract the sum of one dollar fifty cents which shall be deposited in the highway safety fund.

Any insurance company or its agent receiving such certified abstract shall use it exclusively for its own underwriting purposes and shall not divulge any of the information therein contained to a third party: PROVIDED, That no policy of insurance shall be canceled on the basis of such information unless the policyholder was determined to be at fault: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no insurance company or its agent for underwriting purposes relating to the operation of commercial motor vehicles shall use any information contained in the abstract relative to any person's operation of motor vehicles while not engaged in such employment.

Any employer or prospective employer receiving such certified abstract shall use it exclusively for his own purpose to determine whether the licensee should be permitted to operate a commercial vehicle or school bus upon the public highways of this state and shall not divulge any information therein contained to a third party.

Any violation of this section shall be a gross misdemeanor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 14, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 51, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No development shall be undertaken on the shorelines of the state except those which are consistent with the policy of this chapter and, after adoption or approval, as appropriate, the applicable guidelines, regulations or master program.

(2) No substantial development shall be undertaken on shorelines of the state without first obtaining a permit from the government entity having administrative jurisdiction under this chapter.

A permit shall be granted:

(a) From June 1, 1971 until such time as an applicable master program has become effective, only when the development proposed is consistent with: (i) The policy of RCW 90.58.020; and (ii) after their adoption, the guidelines and regulations of the department; and (iii) so far as can be ascertained, the master program being developed for the area;

(b) After adoption or approval, as appropriate, by the department of an applicable master program, only when the development proposed is consistent with the applicable master program and the provisions of chapter 90.58 RCW.

(3) Local government shall establish a program, consistent with rules adopted by the department, for the administration and enforcement of the permit system provided in this section. The administration of the system so established shall be performed exclusively by local government.

(4) Local government shall require notification of the public of all applications for permits governed by any permit system established pursuant to subsection (3) of this section by ensuring that:

(a) A notice of such an application is published at least once a week on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks in a legal newspaper of general circulation within the area in which the development is proposed; and

(b) Additional notice of such an application is given by at least one of the following methods:

(i) Mailing of the notice to the latest recorded real property owners as shown by the records of the county assessor within at least three hundred feet of the boundary of the property upon which the substantial development is proposed;

(ii) Posting of the notice in a conspicuous manner on the property upon which the project is to be constructed; or

(iii) Any other manner deemed appropriate by local authorities to accomplish the objectives of reasonable notice to adjacent landowners and the public.

Such notices shall include a statement that any person desiring to submit written comments concerning an application, or desiring to receive a copy of the final order concerning an application as expeditiously as possible after the issuance of the order, may submit such comments or such requests for orders to the local government within thirty days of the last date the notice is to be published pursuant to subsection (a) of this subsection. Local government shall forward, in a timely manner following the issuance of an order, a copy of the order to each person who submits a request for such order.

If a hearing is to be held on an application, notices of such a hearing shall include a statement that any person may submit oral or written comments on an application at such hearing.

(5) Such system shall include provisions to assure that construction pursuant to a permit will not begin or be authorized until thirty days from the date the final order was filed as provided in subsection (6) of this section; or until all review proceedings are terminated if such proceedings were initiated within thirty days from the date of filing as defined in subsection (6) of this section except as follows:

(a) In the case of any permit issued to the state of Washington, department of highways, for the construction and modification of the SR 90 (I-90) bridges across Lake Washington, such construction may begin after thirty days from the date of filing;

(b) If a permit is granted by the local government and (i) the granting of the permit is appealed to the shorelines hearings board within thirty days of the date of filing, (ii) the hearings board approves the granting of the permit by the local government or approves a portion of the substantial development for which the local government issued the permit, and (iii) an appeal for judicial review of the hearings board decision is filed pursuant to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, the permittee may request, within ten days of the filing of the appeal with the court, a hearing before the court to determine whether construction may begin pursuant to the permit approved by the hearings board or to a revised permit issued pursuant to the order of the hearings board. If, at the conclusion of the hearing, the court finds that construction pursuant to such a permit would not involve a significant, irreversible damaging of the environment, the court may allow the permittee to begin such construction pursuant to the approved or revised permit as the court deems appropriate. The court may require the permittee to post bonds, in the name of the local government that issued the permit, sufficient to remove the substantial development or to restore the environment if the permit is ultimately disapproved by the courts, or to alter the substantial development if such alteration is ultimately ordered by the courts: PROVIDED, That construction pursuant to a permit revised at the direction of the hearings board may begin only on that portion of the substantial development for which the local government had originally issued the permit and construction pursuant to such a revised permit on other portions of the substantial development may not begin until after all review proceedings are terminated. In such a hearing before the court, the burden of proving whether such construction may involve significant irreversible damage to the environment and demonstrating whether such construction would or would not be appropriate shall be on the appellant;

(c) If a permit is granted by the local government and the granting of the permit is appealed directly to the superior court for judicial review pursuant to the proviso in RCW 90.58.180(1) as now or hereafter amended, the permittee may request the court to remand the appeal to the shorelines hearings board, in which case the appeal shall be so remanded and construction pursuant to such a permit shall be governed by the provisions of subsection (b) of this subsection or may otherwise begin after review proceedings before the hearings board are terminated if judicial review is not thereafter requested pursuant to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW;

If a permittee begins construction pursuant to subsections (a), (b) or (c) of this subsection, such construction shall begin at the permittee's own risk. If, as a result of judicial review, the courts order the removal of any portion of the construction or the restoration of any portion of the environment involved or require the alteration of any portion of a substantial development constructed pursuant to a permit, the permittee shall be barred from recovering damages or costs involved in adhering to such requirements from the local government that granted the permit, the hearings board, or any appellant or intervener.

(6) Any ruling on an application for a permit under authority of this section, whether it be an approval or a denial, shall, concurrently with the transmittal of the ruling to the applicant, be filed with the department and the attorney general. With regard to a permit other than a permit governed by subsection (12) of this section, "date of filing" as used herein shall mean the date of actual receipt by the department. With regard to a permit for a variance or a conditional use, "date of filing" shall mean the date a decision of the department rendered on the permit pursuant to subsection (12) of this section is transmitted by the department to the local government. The department shall notify in writing the local government and the applicant of the date of filing.

(7) Applicants for permits under this section shall have the burden of proving that a proposed substantial development is consistent with the criteria which must be met before a permit is granted. In any review of the granting or denial of an application for a permit as provided in RCW 90.58.180 (1) and (2) as now or hereafter amended, the person requesting the review shall have the burden of proof.

(8) Any permit may, after a hearing with adequate notice to the permittee and the public, be rescinded by the issuing authority upon the finding that a permittee has not complied with conditions of a permit. In the event the department is of the opinion that such noncompliance exists, the department shall provide written notice to the local government and the permittee. If the department is of the opinion that such noncompliance continues to exist thirty days after the date of the notice, and the local government has taken no action to rescind the permit, the department may petition the hearings board for a rescission of such permit upon written notice of such petition to the local government and the permittee: PROVIDED, That the request by the department is made to the hearings board within fifteen days of the termination of the thirty day notice to the local government.

(9) The holder of a certification from the governor pursuant to chapter 80.50 RCW shall not be required to obtain a permit under this section.

(10) No permit shall be required for any development on shorelines of the state included within a preliminary or final plat approved by the applicable state agency or local government prior to April 1, 1971, if:

(a) The final plat was approved after April 13, 1961, or the preliminary plat was approved after April 30, 1969; ~~((or))~~ and

(b) ~~((i) Sales of lots to purchasers with reference to the plat, or substantial development incident to platting or required by the plat, occurred prior to April 1, 1971, and~~

~~(ii) The development to be made without a permit meets all requirements of the applicable state agency or local government, other than requirements imposed pursuant to this chapter, and~~

~~(iii) The development does not involve construction of buildings, or involves construction on wetlands of buildings to serve only as community social or recreational facilities for the use of owners of platted lots and the buildings do not exceed a height of thirty-five feet above average grade level, and~~

~~(iv))~~ The development is completed within two years after the effective date of this chapter.

(11) The applicable state agency or local government is authorized to approve a final plat with respect to shorelines of the state included within a preliminary plat approved after April 30, 1969, and prior to April 1, 1971: PROVIDED, That any substantial development within the platted shorelines of the state is authorized by a permit granted pursuant to this section, or does not require a permit as provided in subsection (10) of this section, or does not require a permit because of substantial development occurred prior to June 1, 1971.

(12) Any permit for a variance or a conditional use by local government under approved master programs must be submitted to the department for its approval or disapproval.

~~((Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the state shall guarantee to school districts an amount of money from state and local funds, not less than ninety-five percent of the average amount per enrolled student, excluding special levies, which any such district realized from state and local funds during the preceding three school years.))~~ If a school district's basic education program fails to meet the basic education requirements enumerated in sections 3 through 5 of this 1977 amendatory act, the state board of education shall require the superintendent of public instruction to withhold state funds in whole or in part for the basic education allocation until program compliance is assured: PROVIDED, That for the school years 1978 through 1981 the state board of education may waive this requirement in the event of levy failure: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state board of education may waive this requirement in the event of substantial lack of classroom space.

Sec. 5. Section 14, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41.140 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((To determine a "weighted student enrolled," as that term is used in this chapter a schedule shall be established by the superintendent of public instruction which shall provide appropriate recognition of the following costs among the various types of students and districts of the state, with the equalization of educational opportunity being the primary objective:~~

- ~~(1) Costs attributable to staff experience and professional preparation; and~~
~~(2) Costs to state and local funds attributable to the operation of approved educational programs arising as a result of a concentration of culturally disadvantaged students, or as a result of a high degree of transient enrollment;~~
~~(3) Costs resulting from the operation of small school plants within districts: PROVIDED, That such plants are judged by the state board of education as remote and necessary;~~
~~(4) Costs differentials attributable to the operation of approved elementary and secondary programs;~~
~~(5) Costs which must be incurred to operate an approved vocational program;~~
~~(6) Costs resulting from the attendance of students who:~~

~~(b) Reside in any home or institution devoted to providing a home for dependent or otherwise referred or entrusted children: PROVIDED, Such home or institution is exempt from taxation under the laws of the state of Washington; or~~
~~(c) Constitute at least three percent of the student enrollment within the district and who reside within the servicing district on property of either the state, its political subdivisions, or any municipal corporation.~~

~~The weighting schedule when established shall be renewed biennially by the state superintendent and shall be subject to approval, rejection or amendment by the legislature. The schedule shall be submitted for approval as a part of the state superintendent's biennial state budget. In the event the legislature rejects the weighting schedule presented, without adopting a new schedule, the schedule established for the previous biennium shall remain in effect. The enrollment of any district, before weighting, shall be the average number of full time students and part time students as provided in RCW 28A.41.145 enrolled on the first school day of each month.))~~

The basic education allocation for each annual average full time equivalent student shall be determined in accordance with the following procedures:

The governor shall and the superintendent of public instruction may recommend to the legislature a formula based on a ratio of students to staff for the distribution of a basic education allocation for each annual average full time equivalent student enrolled in a common school. The distribution formula shall have the primary objective of equalizing educational opportunities and shall provide appropriate recognition of the following costs among the various districts within the state:

- (1) Certificated staff and their related costs;
- (2) Classified staff and their related costs;
- (3) Nonsalary costs; and
- (4) Extraordinary costs of remote and necessary schools and small high schools.

This formula for distribution of basic education funds shall be reviewed biennially by the superintendent and governor. The recommended formula shall be subject to approval, amendment or rejection by the legislature. Commencing with the 1980-81 school year, the formula adopted by the legislature shall reflect a ratio of not less than fifty certificated personnel to one thousand annual average full time equivalent students and one classified person to three certificated personnel. In the event the legislature rejects the distribution formula recommended by the governor, without adopting a new distribution formula, the distribution formula for the previous biennium shall remain in effect: PROVIDED, That the distribution formula developed pursuant to this section shall be for state apportionment and equalization purposes only and shall not be construed as mandating specific operational functions of local school districts other than those program requirements identified in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act. The enrollment of any district shall be the annual average number of full time equivalent students and part time students as provided in RCW 28A.41.145, as now or hereafter amended, enrolled on the first school day of each month. The definition of full time equivalent student shall be determined by rules and regulations of the superintendent of public instruction: PROVIDED, That the definition shall be included as part of the superintendent's biennial budget request: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That any revision of the present definition shall not take effect until approved by the house appropriations committee and the senate ways and means committee: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the office of program planning and fiscal management shall make a monthly review of the superintendent's reported full time equivalent students in the common schools in conjunction with RCW 43.62.050.

Certificated staff shall include those persons employed by a school district in a teaching, instructional, administrative or supervisory capacity and who hold positions as certificated employees as defined under RCW 28A.01.130, as now or hereafter amended, and every school district superintendent, and any person hired in any manner to fill a position designated as, or which is in fact, that of deputy superintendent or assistant superintendent: PROVIDED, That in exceptional cases, people of unusual competence but without certification may teach students so long as a certificated person exercises general supervision: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the hiring of such noncertificated people shall not occur during a labor dispute and such noncertificated people shall not be hired to replace certificated employees during a labor dispute: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the hiring of such noncertificated persons shall be subject to disapproval by the superintendent of public instruction. Annual written statements shall be submitted to the office of the superintendent of public instruction reporting and explaining such circumstances. Annual average full time equivalent certificated classroom teacher's direct classroom contact hours shall be at least twenty-five hours per week. Classroom contact hours shall be exclusive of time required to be spent for preparation, conferences, or any other nonclassroom instruction duties. Classified staff shall include those persons employed by a school district other than certificated staff as defined in this section in a capacity for which certification is not required.

Sec. 6. Section 28A.41.160, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 80, Laws of 1977 and RCW 28A.41.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Reimbursement for transportation costs shall be in addition to ~~((state assistance based upon weighted enrollment))~~ the basic education allocation. Transportation costs shall be reimbursed as follows:

(2) Costs of acquisition of approved transportation equipment shall be ~~((limited))~~ reimbursed up to ~~((ninety))~~ one hundred percent of the cost to be reimbursed over the anticipated life of the vehicle, as determined by the state superintendent: PROVIDED, That commencing with the 1980-81 school year, reimbursement shall be at one hundred percent or as close thereto as reasonably possible: PROVIDED FURTHER, That reimbursements for the acquisition of approved transportation equipment received by school districts shall be held within the general fund exclusively for the future ~~((purpose))~~ purchase of approved transportation equipment and for major transportation equipment repairs consistent with rules and regulations authorized and promulgated under RCW 28A.41.170 and chapter 28A.65 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.41 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to those state funds provided to school districts for basic education, the legislature shall appropriate funds for pupil transportation, in accordance with RCW 28A.41.160, and for programs for handicapped students, in accordance with chapter 28A.13 RCW. The legislature may appropriate funds to be distributed to school districts for population factors such as urban costs, enrollment fluctuations and for special programs, including but not limited to, vocational-technical institutes, compensatory programs, bilingual education, urban, rural, racial and disadvantaged programs, programs for gifted students, and other special programs.

CHAPTER 360

[Substitute House Bill No. 980]

WASHINGTON STATE FERRIES—CAPITAL PROJECTS FINANCING

AN ACT Relating to marine transportation; authorizing the sale of general obligation bonds and the use of the proceeds for the acquisition of new ferry vessels; amending section 2, chapter 85, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 47.60.505; adding new sections to chapter 47.60 RCW; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. In order to provide funds necessary for vessel acquisition, vessel construction, major and minor vessel improvements, and terminal construction and improvements for the Washington state ferries, there shall be issued and sold upon the request of the Washington toll bridge authority general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of one hundred thirty-five million dollars or such amount thereof as may be required (together with other funds available therefor). In the event the state of Washington is able to obtain matching funds from the urban mass transportation administration or other federal government agencies for the acquisition of four high speed passenger only vessels capable of operating as an integral part of the Washington state ferries on Puget Sound and the Straits of Juan de Fuca, a sufficient amount of the proceeds of said bonds authorized herein shall be utilized to pay the state's share of the acquisition cost of such high speed passenger only vessels. The high speed passenger only vessels shall be of existing design currently manufactured in the United States, shall have a normal cruising speed in excess of 40 knots, and shall have a passenger capacity of 250 to 350 passengers. Upon request being made by the Washington toll bridge authority, the state finance committee shall supervise and provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of said bonds in accordance with the provisions of chapter 39.42 RCW. Such bonds may be sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary for the orderly progress in constructing the ferries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds shall be deposited in the Puget Sound capital construction account of the motor vehicle fund and such proceeds shall be available only for the purposes enumerated in section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act, for the payment of bond anticipation notes, if any, and for the payment of the expense incurred in the drafting, printing, issuance, and sale of such bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Bonds issued under the provisions of section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act shall distinctly state that they are a general obligation of the state of Washington, shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay such principal and interest as the same shall become due. The principal of and interest on such bonds shall be first payable in the manner provided in sections 1 through 9 of this 1977 amendatory act from the proceeds of the state excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels imposed by chapters 82.36, 82.37, and 82.38 RCW. Proceeds of such excise taxes are hereby pledged to the payment of any bonds and the interest thereon issued under the provisions of sections 1 through 9 of this 1977 amendatory act and the legislature hereby agrees to continue to impose the same excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels in amounts sufficient to pay, when due, the principal and interest on all bonds issued under the provisions of sections 1 through 9 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Any funds required to repay the bonds authorized by section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act or the interest thereon when due shall be taken from that portion of the motor vehicle fund which results from the imposition of excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels and which is distributed to the state for expenditure pursuant to RCW 46.68.130 and shall never constitute a charge against any allocations of such funds to counties, cities, and towns unless and until the amount of the motor vehicle fund arising from the excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels and available for state highway purposes proves insufficient to meet the requirements for bond retirement or interest on any such bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. At least one year prior to the date any interest is due and payable on such bonds or before the maturity date of such bonds, the state finance committee shall estimate, subject to the provisions of section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act, the percentage of the receipts in money of the motor vehicle fund resulting from collection of excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels, for each month of the year which shall be required to meet interest or bond payments when due and shall notify the treasurer of such estimated requirement. The state treasurer shall thereafter from time to time each month as such funds are paid into the motor vehicle fund, transfer such percentage of the monthly receipts from excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels of the motor vehicle fund to the ferry bond retirement fund hereby created in the state treasury, which funds shall be available solely for payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds when due. If in any month it shall appear that the estimated percentage of moneys so made is insufficient to meet the requirements for payment of the principal thereof or interest thereon, the treasurer shall notify the state finance committee forthwith and such committee shall adjust its estimates so that all requirements for the interest on and principal of all bonds issued shall be fully met at all times.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Whenever the percentage of the motor vehicle fund arising from excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels payable into the bond retirement fund shall prove more than is required for the payment of interest on bonds when due, or current retirement of bonds, any excess may, in the discretion of the state finance committee and with the concurrence of the Washington toll bridge authority, be available for the prior redemption of any bonds or remain available in the fund to reduce requirements upon the fuel excise tax portion of the motor vehicle fund at the next interest or bond payment period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Whenever, pursuant to section 5 of this 1977 amendatory act, the state treasurer shall transfer funds from the motor vehicle fund to the ferry bond retirement fund, the state treasurer shall at the same time reimburse the motor vehicle fund in an identical amount from the Puget Sound capital construction account. After each transfer by the treasurer of funds from the motor vehicle fund to the bond retirement fund, the obligation to reimburse the motor vehicle fund as required herein shall constitute a first and prior charge against the funds within and accruing to the Puget Sound capital construction account, including the proceeds of the additional two-tenths of one percent excise tax imposed by RCW 82.44.020, as amended by chapter — (Substitute Senate Bill No. 2522), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess. All funds reimbursed to the motor vehicle fund as provided herein shall be distributed to the state for expenditure pursuant to RCW 46.68.130.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The bonds authorized in sections 1 through 9 of this 1977 amendatory act shall constitute a legal investment for all state funds or for funds under state control and all funds of municipal corporations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Bonds issued under authority of sections 1 through 9 of this 1977 amendatory act and any subsequent general obligation bonds of the state of Washington which may be authorized and which pledge motor vehicle and special fuel excise taxes for the payment of principal and interest thereon shall be an equal charge against the revenues from such motor vehicle and special fuel excise taxes.

Sec. 10. Section 2, chapter 85, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 47.60.505 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created in the motor vehicle fund the Puget Sound capital construction account. NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is hereby appropriated from the Puget Sound capital construction account of the motor vehicle fund to the Washington toll bridge authority for the biennium ending June 30, 1979, the sum of ten million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act: PROVIDED, That the money available for expenditure under this appropriation shall not exceed the amount of money derived from the sale of bonds as provided for herein and deposited to the credit of the Puget Sound capital construction account of the motor vehicle fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 9 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be added to chapter 47.60 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 7. The secretary of state shall design a unified voter registration form, compatible with existing records, which will permit the applicant to conveniently prepare, on a single card, an original registration, an initiative signature card as required by section 14 of this 1977 amendatory act, and a cancellation of any prior registration in this state. The applicant shall enter the required information, other than his or her signature, no more than one time. The form shall also contain instructions on its use, a notification of filing deadlines specified by section 16 of this 1977 amendatory act, a warning to the applicant of the penalty for knowingly supplying false information, and space for the county auditor to enter the voter's precinct identification, taxing district identification, and registration number. The reverse side of the form shall be printed to permit mailing to the county auditor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Registration forms necessary to carry out the registration of voters as provided by this chapter shall be furnished by the secretary of state without cost to the respective counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The original voter registration records for all precincts within each county shall be filed alphabetically without regard to precincts in the office of the county auditor and shall not be open to public inspection. The information from such records, with the exception of date of birth, shall be available for public inspection and copying as provided in RCW 29.04.100 and 29.04.110.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Each county auditor shall maintain a computer file on magnetic tape or disk, punched cards, or other form of data storage containing the records of all registered voters within the county. Where it is necessary or advisable, the auditor may provide for the maintenance of such files by private contract or through interlocal agreement as provided by chapter 39.34 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. The computer file shall include, but not be limited to, each voter's name, residence address, sex, date of registration, applicable taxing district and precinct codes, and the last five consecutive dates on which the individual has voted: PROVIDED, That if the voter has not voted at least five times since establishing his or her current registration record, only the available dates shall be included. The county auditor shall subsequently record each consecutive date upon which the individual votes and retain at least the last five such consecutive dates. The computer file of voter registration records shall be arranged so that individual precinct lists of registered voters may be prepared containing only the names, and other information required by this section, listed alphabetically by the surnames of the voters in that precinct.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is established in the state general fund an account, entitled the voter registration assistance account, to be used to compensate county auditors in counties with fewer than twelve thousand registered voters at the time of the most recent state general election, for unrecoverable costs incident to the maintenance of voter registration records on electronic data processing systems. The secretary of state shall administer the voter registration assistance account and authorize the payments therefrom under such rules as he may prescribe. County auditors in counties entitled to this compensation shall be paid annually an amount equal to thirty cents for each registered voter in that county at the time of the most recent state general election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The expense of voter registration and the maintenance of voter registration records shall be apportioned between the county and the cities and towns within that county according to the number of voters registered in all rural areas of the county and in each city and town, respectively, at the time of the last state general election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The county auditor shall be responsible for the distribution of voter registration forms by which a person may register to vote and cancel any previous registration in the state. Registrations submitted on such voter registration forms need not be subscribed to by the county auditor or a deputized registrar. The county auditor shall keep an adequate supply of voter registration forms in his or her office at all times for political parties and others interested in assisting in voter registration, and he or she shall make every effort to make these forms generally available to the public through government offices, businesses, labor union offices, schools, and any other locations necessary to extend registration opportunities to all areas of the county. After the initial distribution of voter registration forms to a given location, it shall be the duty of a representative designated at that location by that office, business, union, school, firm, or other establishment to notify the county auditor of the need for additional supplies of voter registration forms.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. An applicant for registration shall record on the registration form the following items concerning his or her qualifications as a voter of this state, and of the county, city, town, and precinct in which he or she applies for registration:

(1) The address of his or her last former registration as a voter in this state, if applicable;

(2) His or her full name;

(3) His or her sex;

(4) His or her date of birth;

(5) His or her place of residence for voting purposes, giving the street and number, or post office box and physical description sufficient to determine location; and

(6) His or her daytime telephone number, if any. After completing this information concerning his or her qualifications, the applicant shall sign a statement in the following form: "I, the undersigned, hereby declare that the facts set forth relating to my qualifications as a voter are true. I further declare that I am a citizen of the United States, that I am not presently denied my civil rights as a result of being convicted of an infamous crime, that I will have lived in this state, county, and precinct thirty days immediately preceding the next election at which I offer to vote, and that I will be at least eighteen years of age at the time of voting."

The applicant shall also sign his or her name upon a separate portion of the voter registration card, to be designated as an initiative signature card, which also contains spaces for his or her surname, followed by his or her given name or names, the name of the county and city or town, with post office or street address, the date on which the individual registered, and the name or number of the precinct in which the voter is registered.

The voter registration form shall provide, in a conspicuous place, the following warning: "Any person who knowingly supplies false information on this voter registration form or who knowingly makes a false declaration as to his or her qualifications for registration shall be guilty of a class C felony."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Upon receipt of a completed voter registration form, the county auditor shall immediately examine the form to see that the applicant for registration is not currently registered in that county and shall record on the form the precinct identification, taxing district identification, and other information required by law. Except as provided in section 16 of this 1977 amendatory act, the county auditor, within thirty days of receipt of a voter registration form, shall send to the applicant by first class mail a voter registration card identifying his or her current precinct and containing such other information as may be prescribed by the secretary of state. If the voter registration form is incomplete or incorrect the county auditor, within fifteen days of receipt of such form, shall so notify the applicant, and if necessary, send him or her a new voter registration form. The post office shall be instructed not to forward this form or any voter registration card to any other address and to return to the county auditor all undelivered forms and voter registration cards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. To be included among the records of a given precinct for any primary or election, the applicant's voter registration form must be received not later than thirty days prior to that primary or election. An applicant for voter registration whose otherwise complete and correct application is received less than thirty days prior to a primary or election shall be notified by the county auditor that he or she is not eligible to vote in such primary or election at a regular precinct polling place, explaining that he or she may vote an absentee ballot for said primary or election under section 19 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. At least thirty-five days prior to each primary or election, the county auditor shall give notice that, in order to be eligible to vote in that election at a regular precinct polling place, an original voter registration form or a request for transfer must be received not later than thirty days prior to that primary or election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Any qualified elector temporarily residing outside of the county of his or her permanent residence but within the state of Washington, may submit a registration form to the auditor of the county in which he or she is temporarily residing in the manner provided in this chapter. The county auditor receiving the voter registration forms as provided in section 15 of this 1977 amendatory act shall transmit the forms to the county auditor of the county where the applicant permanently resides. A voter registration form received from another county shall be processed immediately by the county auditor of the place of permanent residence of the applicant in the manner provided in sections 15 and 16 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Any otherwise qualified elector whose otherwise complete and correct application for voter registration is received by the county auditor less than thirty days prior to a primary or election, general or special, may apply prior to the day of any such primary or election in person to the office of the county auditor of the county of his or her residence for a special absentee ballot for such election or primary. The auditor shall register the individual in the manner provided in this chapter, but the registration shall not be effective until thirty days after its execution. The auditor, after the twenty-first day before the election in which the individual intends to vote, shall issue the individual an absentee ballot for any election which occurs before the effectiveness of the individual's registration. This absentee ballot shall be of the same form and shall be processed and canvassed in the same manner as other absentee ballots under chapter 29.36 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. On the first Monday of each calendar month the county auditor shall transmit all initiative signature cards which have been received in his or her office during the prior month to the secretary of state for filing in his office. Each lot must be accompanied by the certificate of the county auditor that the cards so transmitted are the original cards, and that the voters are registered in the precincts and from the addresses shown thereon.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The initiative signature cards shall be kept on file in the office of the secretary of state in such manner as will be most convenient for, and for the sole purpose of, checking initiative and referendum petitions. They shall not be open to public inspection or be used for any other purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Prior to each primary or election, the county auditor shall prepare a precinct list of registered voters for each precinct in which that primary or election is to be conducted and a certificate as to the authenticity of those records. He or she shall deliver the precinct list of registered voters and the certificate to the inspector or one of the judges of the appropriate precinct at the proper polling place as provided by RCW 29.48.030, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The precinct list of registered voters for each precinct, delivered to the precinct election officers for use on the day of a primary or an election held in that precinct, shall be returned by them to the county auditor upon the closing of the polling place or at the completion of the count of the votes cast in that precinct at the primary or election. The lists shall be retained by the county auditor for a period of at least one year following the election. These records shall be open to public inspection under such rules as the county auditor may prescribe.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The secretary of state, as chief election officer, shall adopt rules not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter to:

- (1) Provide the specifications, including style, form, color, quality, and dimensions of the cards, records, forms, lists, and other supplies to be used in recording and maintaining voter registration records;
- (2) Establish standards and procedures for the maintenance of voter registration records on electronic data processing systems and the use of voter registration information in the conduct of elections; and

He or she shall provide planning, coordination, training, and other assistance to county auditors to facilitate the maintenance of voter registration records on electronic data processing systems and the use of voter registration in the conduct of elections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. There is added to chapter 29.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

At the direction of the county auditor, a representative of each major political party shall together stop at each designated polling place and pick up the sealed containers containing the voted ballot cards for delivery to the counting center. There may be as many as two such stops at each polling place, but the first stop may not be made prior to 2:00 p.m. and the second stop may not be made until after the polls have been closed to voting.

The procedure for transporting voted ballot cards from the respective polling places to the counting center or to predesignated collection stations shall include, but not be limited to, the following measures:

(1) On the day of the primary or election in precincts where ballots are cast on voting devices, two precinct election officials, one representing each major political party, shall place all voted ballots in noncombustible, water resistant ballot containers, furnished by the county auditor and properly identified with his mailing address, and seal the containers with prenumbered seals. The precinct election officials of each major political party or representative of each major political party designated by the county auditor to deliver such ballots shall transport the sealed ballot containers to the counting center or to a predesignated collection station in an enclosed vehicle, making certain that all doors and windows thereof other than those windows necessary for adequate ventilation are closed and locked.

(2) At the counting center or the collection stations where the sealed ballot containers are delivered by the designated representatives of the major political parties, the county auditor or his designated representative shall receive the sealed ballot containers with the voted ballot cards enclosed, record the time and date together with each precinct and seal number, and complete signed receipts indicating the time, date, and precinct and seal number of each ballot container received, and give a copy of such receipt to the representatives delivering the ballot containers as such containers are received.

(3) If the ballot containers are delivered to the collection station instead of being delivered directly to the counting center, the county auditor or his designated representative shall transfer such election containers to the counting center in an enclosed vehicle, making certain that all doors and windows thereof other than those windows necessary for adequate ventilation are closed and locked. All ballots being so transferred shall be accompanied by two appointed officials, who shall not be of the same political party, and a representative of the county auditor, who may be one of the appointed officials.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 73. There is added to chapter 29.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

At least three days prior to the day of the primary or general election, all programming for the vote tallying system to be used at that primary or general election shall be tested by the secretary of state or his designee to ascertain that the equipment will correctly count the vote cast for all candidates and on all measures appearing on the ballot at that primary or general election. The tests shall be conducted by processing a preaudited group of ballots prepared by the office of secretary of state, so punched or marked as to record a predetermined number of ballot votes for each candidate and for and against each measure. For each office for which there are two or more candidates and for each issue, the group of test ballots shall include one or more ballots which have votes in excess of the number allowed by law, in order to verify the ability of the vote tallying system to reject such votes. The test shall be designed to verify the capability of the vote tallying system to perform all of the functions that can reasonably be expected to occur during conduct of that particular primary or election, including but not limited to verification of the content of the ballot format for each precinct or polling place, verification of rotation in the program, and verification of major error identification routines in the program of the vote tallying system. If any error is detected, the cause thereof shall be ascertained and corrected, and an errorless count shall be made before the programming is approved and certified.

Such tests shall be observed by at least two observers, who shall not be of the same political party, designated by the county chairmen of the respective county central committees, and shall be open to candidates, the press, and the public. The secretary of state, the county auditor, and the political party observers shall certify that the test has been properly conducted. Copies of such certification shall be retained by the secretary of state and the county auditor. All programming materials and test ballots shall be securely locked in a noncombustible, water resistant container, and sealed until the day of the primary or general election. This test shall be repeated immediately before the start of the official count of ballots in the same manner as set forth above.

The political party observers, upon mutual agreement, may request a precinct, to be selected at random, at the point of check-in, and manually take a total count of ballots and/or a total count for any one office, return that precinct to the counting center, and request a detailed printout. This may be done as many as three times during the official count so that the accuracy of the proceedings can be again verified by the count of the preaudited group of ballots.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. There is added to chapter 29.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The ballot cards picked up during the polling hours may subsequently be counted before the polls have closed: PROVIDED, That all such election returns must be held in secrecy in the same manner as the count of paper ballots during polling hours as provided by RCW 29.54.030. Any person revealing any election returns to unauthorized persons prior to the close of the polls shall be subject to the same penalties as provided by RCW 29.54.035.

Upon breaking the seals and opening the containers, all voted ballot cards shall be checked for partially removed chads, whereupon any such partially removed chads shall be entirely removed from the ballot cards. If it is found that any ballot is damaged or defective so that it cannot properly be counted by the vote tallying system, a true duplicate copy shall be made of the damaged ballot in the presence of witnesses and substituted for the damaged ballot. All such damaged ballots shall be kept by the county auditor until sixty days after the primary or election concerned.

The returns printed by the vote tallying system, to which has been added the count of questioned ballots, challenged ballots, write-in votes, and absentee votes, shall constitute the official returns of the primary or election in that county.

Sec. 75. Section 32, chapter 109, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 29.34.170 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary of state, upon promulgating the rules and regulations necessary for carrying out the purpose of this ((1967 amendatory act)) chapter, shall publish manuals containing the applicable rules and regulations and statutes for the guidance of the county auditor relating to the printing of ballot cards and preparation of the vote tallying systems, for the guidance of precinct election officers serving ballot card precincts, and for the guidance of election officers and operators of tabulating equipment at counting centers.

There shall be no charge for such manuals, and the number to be printed and the distribution thereof shall be determined by the secretary of state.

In addition, if other elections, including special or general, are also being held on the same day and it can be determined that the absentee voter is qualified to vote at such elections, such additional absentee ballots shall be automatically issued to the end that, whenever possible, each absentee voter receives the ballots for all elections he would have received if he had been able to vote in person.

The election officer, or his duly authorized representative, shall include the following additional items when issuing an absentee ballot:

- (1) Instructions for voting.
- (2) A size #9 envelope, capable of being sealed and free of any identification marks, for the purpose of containing the voted absentee ballot.

The provisions of this chapter shall neither apply to votes cast by absentee ballot and counted by the canvassing authority, nor to votes cast on voting machines printing election returns: PROVIDED, That this chapter shall apply to votes cast by absentee and counted by the canvassing authority if specific request for such recount is made at the time the application is filed and the additional deposit is made as provided in RCW 29.64.020.

Sec. 99. Section 29.64.020, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.64.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Each application for recount shall separately list each precinct as to which a recount of the votes therein is requested, and the person filing an application shall at the same time deposit with the canvassing board the sum of (~~(five)~~) ten dollars in cash or by certified check for each precinct so listed in such application as security for the payment of charges for the making of the recount therein applied for, which charges shall be fixed by the canvassing board as provided in RCW 29.64.060. In the event the application for a recount applies to a special or regular district election then the deposit to be made with the canvassing board shall be (~~(five)~~) ten dollars in cash or by certified check for each precinct completely or partially within said district. If at said special or regular district election paper ballots were used and the precincts were combined and the election results of the individual precincts impossible to determine, then the deposit shall be a sum of money equal to the total number of ballots cast at such district election multiplied by the factor of (~~(two)~~) five cents; and if a specific request is made for the recount of absentee ballots, then an additional deposit shall be made in a sum of money equal to the total number of such absentee ballots to be counted multiplied by the factor of (~~(two)~~) five cents.

If at said special or regular district election voting machines were used and the precincts were combined and the election results of the individual precincts impossible to determine, then the deposit shall be (~~(five)~~) ten dollars for each voting machine used.

If ballot cards and a vote tally system were used at any precinct as to which a recount is requested, the amount of the deposit required shall depend on whether a manual recount of ballot cards or a recount by the vote tally system is requested. If a manual recount of the ballot cards is requested, the deposit shall be the same as for paper ballots. If a recount by the vote tally system is requested, the deposit shall be five cents for each ballot card.

Upon the filing of an application, the canvassing board shall promptly fix the time when and the place at which the recount will be made, which time shall be not later than five days after the day upon which such application is filed. The (~~(clerk of the board)~~) county auditor shall mail notice of the time and place so fixed to the applicant. If the application requests a recount of votes cast for a nomination or a candidacy for election, the ((clerk)) auditor shall also mail such notice to each person for whom votes were cast for such nomination or election. Such notice shall be mailed by registered mail not later than two days before the date fixed for the commencement of the recount. Each person entitled to receive such notice may attend and witness the recount and may be accompanied by counsel.

In the case of a recount of votes cast upon a question or proposition, a second group of five or more registered voters, who voted upon such question or proposition other than those voters requesting the recount, may file with the canvassing board a written statement to that effect, may designate therein one of their number as chairman of such group and an attorney as their legal counsel, and may request that the persons so designated be permitted to attend and witness the recount. Thereupon the persons so designated may attend and witness the recount.

Sec. 100. Section 29.64.060, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.64.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The charges for making a recount of votes of precincts listed in an application for recount filed with the board of elections shall be fixed by the board and shall include all expenses incurred by such board because of such application other than the regular operating expenses which the board would have incurred if the application had not been filed.

The total amount of charges so fixed divided by the number of precincts listed in such application, the votes of which were recounted, shall be the charge per precinct for the recount of the votes of the precincts listed in such application, the votes of which were recounted: PROVIDED, That the charges per precinct so fixed shall not be more than ~~((five dollars for each precinct concerned or in the event of a recount of a regular or special district election whereat all ballots were requested to be recounted irrespective of precincts, the maximum charge shall not exceed two cents per ballot))~~ the actual cost.

Such charge shall be deducted by the board from the money deposited with the board by the applicant for the recount at the time of filing his application, and the balance of the money so deposited shall be returned to such applicant unless the costs of the recount were higher than the deposit, in which case the applicant shall be required to pay the difference: PROVIDED, That no such charges shall be deducted by the board from the money deposited for a recount of votes cast for a nomination or for an election to an office or position in any precinct, if upon the completion of a recount the applicant is declared nominated or elected, or if upon completion of a recount concerning a question or proposition, the result of such election is declared to be opposite to the original declaration of the result of such election. All moneys deposited with the board by an applicant not returned to him shall be paid by such board into the general fund of the political subdivision concerned.

Sec. 101. Section 29.65.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.65.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For malconduct on the part of any member of any precinct election board involved therein;

(2) Because the person whose right is being contested was not at the time he was declared elected eligible to that office;

(3) Because the person whose right is being contested was previous to the election convicted of a felony by a court of competent jurisdiction, his conviction not having been reversed nor his civil rights restored after the conviction;

(4) Because the person whose right is being contested gave a bribe or reward to a voter or to an inspector(;) or judge ((or clerk)) of election for the purpose of procuring his election, or offered to do so;

(5) On account of illegal votes.

All election contests shall proceed under RCW 29.04.030, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 102. Section 29.65.020, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.65.020 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((To commence an election contest, the contestant must file with the clerk of the superior court of his residence a verified written statement of contest within ten days after the person whose right is being contested has been declared elected, setting forth))~~ An affidavit of an elector with respect to RCW 29.04.030(6) must be filed with the appropriate court no later than ten days following the issuance of a certificate of election and shall set forth specifically:

(1) The name of the contestant and that he is a registered voter in the county, district or precinct, as the case may be, in which the office is to be exercised;

(2) The name of the person whose right is being contested;

(3) The office;

(4) The particular causes of the contest.

No statement of contest shall be dismissed for want of form if the particular causes of contest are alleged with sufficient certainty ~~((to advise the defendant of the particular proceedings or cause for which such election is contested))~~. The person charged with the error or omission shall be given the opportunity to call any witness, including the candidate to whom he has issued or intends to issue the certificate of election.

Sec. 103. Section 29.65.040, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.65.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon such ~~((statement))~~ affidavit being filed, it shall be the duty of the clerk to inform the judge of the ~~((superior))~~ appropriate court, who may give notice, and order a session of the court to be held at the usual place of holding said court, on some day to be named by him, not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of such notice, to hear and determine such contested election: PROVIDED, That if no session be called for the purpose, such contest shall be determined at the first regular session of court after such statement is filed.

The clerk of the court shall also at the time issue a citation for the person ~~((whose right to the office is contested))~~ charged with the error or omission, to appear at the time and place specified in the notice, which citation shall be delivered to the sheriff ~~((or constable,))~~ and be served upon the party in person; or if he cannot be found, by leaving a copy thereof at the house where he last resided.

Sec. 104. Section 29.65.055, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.65.055 are each amended to read as follows:

If the proceedings are dismissed for insufficiency, want of prosecution, or the election is by the court confirmed, judgment shall be rendered against the party contesting such election for costs, in favor of the party (~~((whose election was contested))~~) charged with error or omission.

If such election is annulled and set aside, judgment for costs shall be rendered against the party (~~((whose election was contested;))~~) charged with the error or omission and in favor of the party ((contesting)) alleging the same.

Sec. 105. Section 29.79.200, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 107, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 29.79.200 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary of state may use any statistical sampling techniques for this canvass which have been (~~((approved by the state canvassing board established by RCW 29.62.100))~~) adopted by rule as provided by chapter 34.04 RCW: PROVIDED, That no petition will be rejected on the basis of any statistical method employed: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no petition will be accepted on the basis of any statistical method employed if such method indicates that the petition contains less than one hundred ten percent of the requisite number of signatures of legal voters. If the secretary of state finds the same name signed to more than one petition he shall reject the name as often as it appears. If the petition is found to be sufficient, the secretary of state shall transmit a certified copy of the proposed measure to the legislature at the opening of its session together with a certificate of the facts relating to the filing of the petition and the canvass thereof.

Sec. 106. Section 29.80.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 4, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.80.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As soon as possible prior to each state general election at which federal or state officials are to be elected, the secretary of state shall publish and mail to each individual place of residence of the state a candidates' pamphlet containing photographs and campaign statements of eligible nominees who desire to participate therein and in even-numbered years containing a description of the office of precinct committeeman and its duties, in order that voters will understand that such office is a state office and will be found on the ballot of the forthcoming general election: PROVIDED, That in odd-numbered years no candidates' pamphlet shall be published, unless an election is to be held to fill a vacancy in one or more of the following state-wide elective offices: United States senator, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of public lands, insurance commissioner, and justice of the supreme court.

No signature shall be rejected if the officer conducting the canvass is reasonably certain that the signature on the petition is the same as the signature of a registered voter of that jurisdiction. The omission to fill any blanks shall not prevent the certification of any name if sufficient information is given to enable one by a comparison of signatures to identify the voter. He shall then proceed to canvass and count the names of certified legal voters on such petitions. If he finds that the same person has signed more than one petition, he shall reject all signatures of such person from the count.

Sec. 108. Section 29.82.100, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 205, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.82.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The votes on a recall election shall be counted, canvassed, and the results certified in the manner provided by law for counting, canvassing, and certifying the results of an election for the office from which the officer is being recalled: PROVIDED, That if the officer whose recall is demanded is the officer to whom, under the law, returns of elections are made, such returns shall be made to the officer with whom the charge is filed, and who called the special election; and in case of an election for the recall of a state officer, the county canvassing boards of the various counties shall canvass and return the result of such election to the officer calling such special election. If a majority of all votes cast at the recall election is for the recall of the officer charged, he shall thereupon be recalled and discharged from his office, and the office shall thereupon become and be vacant.

Sec. 110. Section 29.85.200, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.85.200 are each amended to read as follows:

An inactive license may be placed in an active status upon completion of an application as provided by the director and upon compliance with this chapter and the rules adopted pursuant thereto.

(3) The provisions of this chapter relating to the denial, suspension, and revocation of a license shall be applicable to an inactive license as well as an active license, except that when proceedings to suspend or revoke an inactive license have been initiated, the license shall remain inactive until the proceedings have been completed.

The legislature finds that the present and predicted growth in energy demands in the state of Washington requires the development of a procedure for the selection and utilization of sites for energy facilities and the identification of a state position with respect to each proposed site. The legislature recognizes that the selection of sites will have a significant impact upon the welfare of the population, the location and growth of industry and the use of the natural resources of the state.

It is the policy of the state of Washington to recognize the pressing need for increased energy facilities, and to ensure through available and reasonable methods, that the location and operation of such facilities will produce minimal adverse effects on the environment((= ecology)) of the land and its wildlife, and ((the ecology)) of state waters and their aquatic life.

It is the intent to seek courses of action that will balance the increasing demands for energy facility location and operation in conjunction with the broad interests of the public. Such action will be based on these premises:

(1) To assure Washington state citizens that, where applicable, operational safeguards are at least as stringent as the criteria established by the federal government and are technically sufficient for their welfare and protection.

(2) To preserve and protect the quality of the environment; to enhance the public's opportunity to enjoy the esthetic and recreational benefits of the air, water and land resources; to promote air cleanliness; and to pursue beneficial changes in the environment.

(3) To provide abundant energy at reasonable cost.

(4) To require compliance with local land use plans and zoning ordinances with respect to energy facility sites.

It is the intent of this chapter to expedite the certification of sites for energy facilities subject to this chapter, to minimize duplication of effort in conducting studies of and preparing environmental impact statements relating to such sites, to authorize and encourage cooperation between the council and counties, other governmental agencies, and municipal or public corporations in connection with such sites, and to provide for a single detailed statement in accordance with RCW 43.21C.030(2)(c) where any proposed energy facilities are subject to certification pursuant to chapter 80.50 RCW, and to further the development of facilities to meet pressing needs.

The state general fund shall be credited with all receipts from applicants paid to the state pursuant to chapter 80.50 RCW. Such funds shall be used only by the council for the purposes set forth in chapter 80.50 RCW. All expenditures shall be authorized by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 80.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The council shall receive all applications for energy facility site certification. The following fees or charges for application processing or certification monitoring shall be paid by the applicant or certificate holder:

(a) A fee of twenty-five thousand dollars for each proposed site, to be applied toward the cost of the independent consultant study authorized in this subsection, shall accompany the application and shall be a condition precedent to any further consideration or action on the application by the council. The council shall commission its own independent consultant study to measure the consequences of the proposed energy facility on the environment for each site application. The council shall direct the consultant to study any matter which it deems essential to an adequate appraisal of the site. The full cost of the study shall be paid by the applicant: PROVIDED, That said costs exceeding a total of the twenty-five thousand dollars paid pursuant to subsection (1)(a) of this section shall be payable subject to the applicant giving prior approval to such excess amount.

(b) Each applicant shall, in addition to the costs of the independent consultant provided by subsection (1)(a) of this section, pay such reasonable costs as are actually and necessarily incurred by the council in processing the application. Such costs shall include, but are not limited to, costs of a hearing examiner, a court reporter, additional staff salaries, wages and employee benefits, goods and services, travel expenses within the state and miscellaneous expenses, as arise directly from processing such application.

Each applicant shall, at the time of application submission, deposit twenty thousand dollars, or such lesser amount as may be specified by council rule, to cover costs provided for by subsection (1)(b) of this section. Reasonable and necessary costs of the council directly attributable to application processing shall be charged against such deposit.

The council shall submit to each applicant a statement of such expenditures actually made during the preceding calendar quarter which shall be in sufficient detail to explain such expenditures. The applicant shall pay the state treasurer the amount of such statement to restore the total amount on deposit to the originally established level: PROVIDED, That such applicant may, at the request of the council, increase the amount of funds on deposit to cover anticipated expenses during peak periods of application processing. Any funds remaining unexpended at the conclusion of application processing shall be refunded to the applicant, or at the applicant's option, credited against required deposits of certificate holders.

(c) Each certificate holder shall pay such reasonable costs as are actually and necessarily incurred by the council for inspection and determination of compliance by the certificate holder with the terms of the certification relative to monitoring the effects of construction and operation of the facility.

Each certificate holder, within thirty days of execution of the site certification agreement, shall deposit twenty thousand dollars, or such other amount as may be specified by council rule, to cover costs provided for by subsection (1)(c) of this section. Reasonable and necessary costs of the council directly attributable to inspection and determination of compliance by the certificate holder with the terms of the certification relative to monitoring the effects of construction and operation of the facility shall be charged against such deposit.

The council shall submit to each certificate holder a statement of such expenditures actually made during the preceding calendar quarter which shall be in sufficient detail to explain such expenditures. The certificate holder shall pay the state treasurer the amount of such statement to restore the total amount on deposit to the originally established level: PROVIDED, That if the actual, reasonable, and necessary expenditures for inspection and determination of compliance in the preceding calendar quarter have exceeded the amount of funds on deposit, such excess costs shall be paid by the certificate holder.

(2) If an applicant or certificate holder fails to provide the initial deposit, or if subsequently required payments are not received within thirty days following receipt of the statement from the council, the council may (a) in the case of the applicant, suspend processing of the application until payment is received; or (b) in the case of a certificate holder, suspend the certification.

(3) All payments required of the applicant or certificate holder under this section are to be made to the state treasurer who shall make payments as instructed by the council from the funds submitted. All such funds shall be subject to state auditing procedures. Any unexpended portions thereof shall be returned to the applicant or certificate holder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 80.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any person required to file an application for certification of an energy facility pursuant to this chapter may apply to the council for an expedited processing of such an application. The application for expedited processing shall be submitted to the council in such form and manner and accompanied by such information as may be prescribed by council rule. The council may grant an applicant expedited processing of an application for certification upon finding that:

(a) The environmental impact of the proposed energy facility;

(b) The area potentially affected;

(c) The cost and magnitude of the proposed energy facility; and

(d) The degree to which the proposed energy facility represents a change in use of the proposed site are not significant enough to warrant a full review of the application for certification under the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Upon granting an applicant expedited processing of an application for certification, the council shall not be required to:

(a) Commission an independent study, notwithstanding the provisions of section 16 of this 1977 amendatory act; nor

(b) Hold a contested case hearing under chapter 34.04 RCW on the application.

(3) The council shall adopt rules governing the expedited processing of an application for certification pursuant to this section.

There is appropriated to the energy facility site evaluation council from the general fund the sum of one hundred sixteen thousand three hundred seventeen dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the biennium ending June 30, 1979, to carry out the provisions of sections 3(2) and 17 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(2) Section 7, chapter 45, Laws of 1970 ex. sess., section 35, chapter 108, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 80.50.070; and

(3) Section 1, chapter 110, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., section 39, chapter 108, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 80.50.170.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate June 17, 1977.

Passed the House June 14, 1977.

Approved by the Governor July 15, 1977, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State July 15, 1977.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to certain sections, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2910 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to energy facility sites;"

This bill makes a number of changes to Chapter 80.50 RCW relative to the Energy Facility Site Evaluation Council. Section 1 amends existing legislative intent, as set out in Section 80.50.010 RCW, to require the Council to comply with local land use plans and zoning ordinances, in balancing the broad interests of the public with the increasing demands for energy facility location and operation.

Section 7 amends Section 80.50.090 RCW, relating to public hearings. The amendatory language is basically non-substantive except for the provision that prohibits the Council from recommending site certification if the local legislative authority decides not to change the provisions of its land use plan or zoning ordinance with which the application is inconsistent.

Section 9 amends existing preemption language in Section 80.50.110 RCW to specifically preclude the state from preempting local land use plans and zoning ordinances.

The original Senate Bill No. 2910, an Executive Request bill, contained provisions that required the applicant to "...exhaust all reasonable, available methods and remedies to reach agreement with the city and/or county governments before the state [would] consider preemptive action". The purpose of that language was to codify the Council's operating policy established during the Satsop hearings, which policy encouraged the applicant and local governmental authorities to deal with each other at arm's length. I strongly endorse this policy because I believe state government should become involved in these issues, only when there are overriding state concerns that are being handled unreasonably at the local governmental level. The provisions of the three sections mentioned above would shift the balance of power too far in favor of local government, contrary to the established policy.

In keeping with my concern for local determination, I intend to request the Council to adopt and promulgate regulations similar to the language in Senate Bill No. 2910 as originally introduced to ensure that the applicant makes a good faith effort to work with local governmental authorities to resolve disputes. In addition, I will request the Council to develop guidelines for determining when the interests of the state are such as to require preemptive action.

With the exception of Sections 1, 7 and 9 which I have vetoed for the above reasons, the remainder of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2910."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 67.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

meet: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall apply to race meets which are nonprofit in nature, or of six days or less or which have a total annual handle of less than two hundred thousand dollars: PROVIDED, That the additional one percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet and the amount retained by the commission as specified in RCW 67.16.100 shall be deposited daily in a time deposit by the commission and the interest derived therefrom shall be distributed annually on an equal basis to those county legislative authorities that operate fairs, authorized by chapter 36.37 RCW, and race courses at which independent race meets are held which are nonprofit in nature and are of six days or less: PROVIDED, That such county legislative authorities have approved and are operating a program of use for said race course for year-round equine training and quartering: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That said distributed funds shall be used for the purpose of maintaining and upgrading the respective racing courses and equine quartering areas of said nonprofit meets. The commission shall not permit the licensees to take into consideration the benefits derived from this section in establishing purses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.
