

Ex officio trustees.

SEC. 4. The Governor, the Secretary of State, and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be ex officio members of the board of trustees of said State Capitol Historical Association, and as such are hereby authorized and empowered to vote upon all questions coming before such board for its action.

Curator to be appointed.

SEC. 5. There shall be appointed by the State Capitol Historical Association, with the consent of the Governor, a person to be designated as curator of the State Capitol Museum, whose duties shall be:

Duties.

Arrange collection.

1. To designate arrangements and locations of the various collections and historical material in the State Capitol Museum;

Charge of museum.

2. To be in charge when the State Capitol Museum is open for citizens and visitors;

Report to legislature.

3. To prepare a biennial report to the state legislature on the progress of development of the State Capitol Museum.

Passed the House February 7, 1941.

Passed the Senate February 26, 1941.

Approved by the Governor March 5, 1941.

CHAPTER 45.

[S. B. 3.]

PORT DISTRICT ELECTIONS.

AN ACT relating to Port Districts, elections therein, the officers thereof, and the term of office, and amending sections 9691-1 and 9691-2 of Remington's Revised Statutes of Washington.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Amendments.

SECTION 1. That section 9691-1 of Remington's Revised Statutes of Washington be amended to read as follows:

Section 9691-1. In every port district the boundaries of which are coextensive with the county in which it is located, all elections for Port Commissioners shall be held at the same time as the general biennial election is held in such county: Provided, That if the petition for organization of such port districts so requests, the first election of commissioners may be held at a special election, which shall be called and held in the manner provided by law for special organization elections for such port districts.

County port district elections.

General biennial election.

First election may be special.

SEC. 2. That section 9691-2 of Remington's Revised Statutes of Washington be amended to read as follows:

Amendments

Section 9691-2. In every such port district the term of office of each Port Commissioner shall be six years and until his successor is elected and qualified, and one Port Commissioner shall be elected at the time of the general biennial election in each even-numbered year for the term of six years from the first day of January following his election: Provided, That in any such district hereafter organized the candidate residing in the first commissioner's district receiving the highest number of votes in the port district at the election organizing the district shall hold office until the expiration of six years after the first day of January following his election if such election is at a general biennial election, and if such election is at a special election he shall hold office until the expiration of six years after the first day of January, following the next succeeding general biennial election; the candidate residing in the second commissioner district receiving the highest number of votes in the port district at such election shall hold office until the expiration of four years from the first day of January following his election if such election is at a general biennial election, and if such election is at a special election he shall hold office until the expiration of

Term of office.

Terms of first commissioners.

four years after the first day of January following the next succeeding general biennial election; and the candidate residing in the third commissioner district receiving the highest number of votes in the port district at such election shall hold office until the expiration of two years after the first day of January following his election if such election is at a general biennial election, and if such election is at a special election he shall hold office until the expiration of two years after the first day of January following the next succeeding general biennial election. In all port districts in first class counties, the boundaries of which are coextensive with the counties in which they are located, there shall be a Port Commissioner elected at the general biennial election held in 1942 from Commissioner's District No. 2 and at the general biennial election in 1944 a commissioner from Commissioner's District No. 1, and at the general biennial election in 1946 a commissioner from Commissioner's District No. 3. Port Commissioners holding office at the time this act takes effect shall continue in office until their successors are elected and qualified. In all port districts in Class A counties, the boundaries of which are coextensive with the counties in which they are located, there shall be a Port Commissioner elected at the general biennial election held in 1942 from Commissioner's District No. 1 and at the general biennial election in 1944 a commissioner from Commissioner's District No. 3, and at the general biennial election in 1946 a commissioner from Commissioner's District No. 2. Port commissioners holding office at the time this act takes effect shall continue in office until their successors are elected and qualified.

Commissioners in first class counties.

Time of election.

Commissioners in Class A counties.

Time of
election.

Passed the Senate February 3, 1941.

Passed the House February 26, 1941.

Approved by the Governor March 5, 1941.