CHAPTER 56.

[H. B. 45.]

PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX.

AN ACT relating to taxation; providing as to the manner in which personal property shall be listed, or may be required to be listed, for taxation, and return thereof made to the Assessor; and amending section 22, chapter 130, Laws of 1925 Extraordinary Session (section 11126, Remington's Revised Statutes, also Pierce's Perpetual Code 979-73).

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Amendments.

SECTION 1. That section 22, chapter 130, Laws of 1925 Extraordinary Session (section 11126, Remington's Revised Statutes, also Pierce's Perpetual Code 979-73), is hereby amended to read as follows:

Personal property, how listed.

Section 22. Every person required by this act to list property shall make out and deliver to the Assessor, when required, a statement, verified by his oath, of all the personal property in his possession or under his control, and which, by the provisions of this act, he is required to list for taxation, either as owner or holder thereof or as guardian, parent, husband, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, agent or factor; no person shall be required to list for taxation in his statement to the Assessor any share or portion of the capital stock, or of any of the property of any company, association or corporation, which such person may hold in whole or in part, where such company, being required so to do, has listed for assessment and taxation its capital stock and property with the Tax Commission, or as otherwise required by law. The Assessor may require such statement listing personal property to be delivered to him by mail or in such other manner as he may prescribe, providing that he shall first clearly outline to the Board of County Commissioners of his county the procedure he proposes to follow, and shall have obtained from such board its formal approval of such procedure, and such approval when once granted shall remain effective until formally rescinded by such board.

Delivered by mail.

Passed the House February 14, 1945.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1945.

Approved by the Governor March 14, 1945.
