

CHAPTER 312.

[S. B. 344.]

COUNTY PRINTING.

AN ACT relating to county printing; and amending section 1, chapter 141, Laws of 1947 and RCW 36.72.050 and 36.72.060.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Section 1, chapter 141, Laws of 1947 (heretofore codified as RCW 36.72.050 and 36.72-.060) is divided and amended as set forth in sections 2 and 3 of this act.

Division and amendment.

SEC. 2. (RCW 36.72.050) The county auditor, at least five weeks, but not more than eight weeks, before the meeting of the board of county commissioners in April of each year, shall advertise for proposals for the public printing, for the term of one year, beginning on the first day of July following, which advertisement shall be inserted for four consecutive weeks in the official newspaper of the county, or if there is no official newspaper, then in some other newspaper published in the county, or in a county adjacent to such county, and having a general circulation therein.

County auditor shall advertise for proposals for the public printing for one year term.

The board of county commissioners shall not be compelled in any event to accept any bid for a greater price than two dollars and forty cents per folio of one hundred words for the first insertion, and one dollar and eighty cents per folio of one hundred words for each subsequent insertion, or its equivalent in number of words.

Limitation on amount of bid.

SEC. 3. (RCW 36.72.060) The county auditor, when calling for bids, shall state how the matter shall be set, what kind of type, and whether solid or leaded.

Enacted without amendment.

Passed the Senate February 25, 1955.

Passed the House March 7, 1955.

Approved by the Governor March 21, 1955.
