CHAPTER 127.

[S. B. 462.]

CENTURY 21—COMMEMORATIVE COINS.

AN ACT relating to issuing coins commemorating the Century 21 Exposition; providing for the sale and distribution of proceeds from the sale of such coins; and adding a new section to chapter 215, Laws of 1957 and to chapter 43.31 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

New section.

SECTION 1. There is added to chapter 215, Laws of 1957 and to chapter 43.31 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Century 21 commemorative coins Authorized.

The state of Washington through the department of commerce and economic development with the cooperation and assistance of the world fair commission and the Century 21 Exposition Corporation, in order to advertise, promote and help finance the Century 21 Exposition to be held in Seattle, Washington in 1962, is hereby authorized to have made, manufactured, stamped or engraved, coins commemorating the exposition.

Described

The coin shall be of the approximate size and shape of a dollar, inscribed in an attractive manner, showing the name of the exposition, stating the value and that it may be used for trade for any purpose, and redeemable at face value by the department of commerce and economic development as herein prescribed not later than December 31, 1963.

Use.

These coins are not legal tender but may be used, accepted and exchanged by anyone with the privilege of redemption as set forth in this act.

The department of commerce and economic development shall handle the manufacturing, sale and distribution of the coins, set up a separate account for the proceeds from the sale of these coins and shall be reimbursed for any expenses incurred in the manufacture, distribution, redemption, and accounting of these funds from this account.

Department to administer issuance and sale.

The price of the coin shall be one dollar and after all expenses in connection with the sale of the coins have been paid and the redeemable date has expired, the department of commerce and economic development shall remit any balance in the separate fund to the state treasurer for the credit of the general fund.

Price—Disposition of funds.

Passed the Senate February 24, 1961.

Passed the House March 5, 1961.

Approved by the Governor March 16, 1961.
