[H. B. No. 234.]

SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY BELONGING TO THE STATE.

AN ACT providing for the sale of personal property belonging to the state.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. The secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer are hereby created a board of commissioners, who shall be designated "Public property commissioners," of which board the secretary of state shall be secretary, and he shall keep a record of its proceedings.

SEC. 2. The public property commissioners shall have power to sell and convey any personal property belonging to the state, by and with the advice and consent of the governor, in writing, whenever it shall appear to said commissioners that the state has no further use for such property and that it is for the best interests of the state to sell and dispose of the same.

Manner of sale.

SEC. 3. The public property commissioners must sell and dispose of any such property for cash, but may sell any such property either at private sale or public auction, and upon such notice as to them may seem for the best interests of the state.

SEC. 4. All money realized from the sale of any such personal property shall be paid over to the state treasurer, who shall give to the state auditor his receipt therefor, and the money so received shall go into the general fund of the state.

Approved February 24, 1893.

CHAPTER XXXV.

[H. B. No. 332.]

ALLOWING SECOND APPEALS IN CERTAIN CASES.

AN ACT allowing a second appeal to the supreme court in certain cases where persons have been convicted of felony, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Whenever, heretofore or hereafter, any person shall have been convicted of a felony in this state and shall have appealed to the supreme court from the judgment entered against him, if his appeal shall have been disposed of, and the judgment against him affirmed without a hearing on the merits, and if the denial of a hearing upon the merits shall have been caused by the supreme court striking out or disregarding his bill of exceptions or statement of facts, for want of the lawful, regular or timely settlement or certification thereof, such person shall, upon giving the notice hereinafter provided for, be entitled to a new and second appeal to said supreme court at any time within sixty days
