[S. B. 255.]

PROBATION IN FELONY CASES.

AN ACT relating to the granting of probation in certain felony cases; authorizing the imposition of conditions; and amending section 5b, chapter 125, Laws of 1939.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Section 5b, chapter 125, Laws of 1939 Amendment.
(sec. 10249-5b, Rem. Rev. Stat. Supp.), is amended to read as follows:

Section 5b. The Court in granting probation, may suspend the imposing or the execution of the sentence and may direct that such suspension may continue for such period of time, not exceeding the maximum term of sentence, except as hereinafter set forth and upon such terms and conditions as it shall determine. Court may suspend imposing of sentence.

The Court in the order granting probation and as a condition thereof, may in its discretion imprison the defendant in the county jail for a period not exceeding one (1) year or may fine defendant any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) plus the costs of the action, and may in connection with such probation impose both imprisonment in Imprisonment and fines.

Monetary payments.

the county jail and fine and court costs. The Court may also require the defendant to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (1) to comply with any order of the Court for the payment of family support, (2) to make restitution to any person or persons who may have suffered loss or damage by reason of the commission of the crime in question, and (3) to pay such fine as may be imposed and court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, and may require bonds for the faithful observance of any and all conditions imposed in the probation. The Court shall order the probationer to report to the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles or such officer as the Board may designate and as a condition of said probation to follow implicitly the instructions of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles. The Board of Prison Terms and Paroles will promulgate rules and regulations for the conduct of such person during the term of his probation.
