

(ii) With his consent, he is named as the child's father on the child's birth certificate, or

(iii) He is obligated to support the child under a written voluntary promise or by court order;

(d) While the child is under the age of majority, he receives the child into his home and openly holds out the child as his child; ((or))

(e) He acknowledges his paternity of the child pursuant to RCW 70-.58.080 or in a writing filed with the state office of vital statistics, which shall promptly inform the mother of the filing of the acknowledgment, if she does not dispute the acknowledgment within a reasonable time after being informed thereof, in a writing filed with the registrar of vital statistics. In order to enforce rights of residential time, custody, and visitation, a man presumed to be the father as a result of filing a written acknowledgment must seek appropriate judicial orders under this title; or

(f) The United States immigration and naturalization service made or accepted a determination that he was the father of the child at the time of the child's entry into the United States and he had the opportunity at the time of the child's entry into the United States to admit or deny the paternal relationship.

(2) A presumption under this section may be rebutted in an appropriate action only by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence. If two or more presumptions arise which conflict with each other, the presumption which on the facts is founded on the weightier considerations of policy and logic controls. The presumption is rebutted by a court decree establishing paternity of the child by another man.

CHAPTER 176

[Substitute House Bill No. 2861]

MANUFACTURED HOUSING REGULATION

AN ACT Relating to state agency responsibilities for the regulation of manufactured housing; adding a new section to chapter 43.22 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.63A RCW; adding a new section to chapter 46.12 RCW; and creating a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.22 RCW to read as follows:

Beginning on July 1, 1991, the department of community development shall be responsible for performing all the consumer complaint and related functions of the state administrative agency that are required for purposes of complying with the regulations established by the federal department of housing and urban development for manufactured housing, including the preparation and submission of the state administrative plan.

The department of community development may enter into state or local interagency agreements to coordinate site inspection activities with record monitoring and complaint handling. The interagency agreement may also provide for the reimbursement for cost of work that an agency performs. The department may include other related areas in any interagency agreements which are necessary for the efficient provision of services.

The department of labor and industries shall transfer all records, files, books, and documents necessary for the department of community development to assume these new functions.

The directors of the department of community development and the department of labor and industries shall immediately take such steps as are necessary to ensure that this act is implemented on its effective date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

Beginning on July 1, 1991, the department of community development shall be responsible for performing all the consumer complaint and related functions of the state administrative agency that are required for purposes of complying with the regulations established by the federal department of housing and urban development for manufactured housing, including the preparation and submission of the state administrative plan.

The department of community development may enter into state or local interagency agreements to coordinate site inspection activities with record monitoring and complaint handling. The interagency agreement may also provide for the reimbursement for cost of work that an agency performs. The department may include other related areas in any interagency agreements which are necessary for the efficient provision of services.

The department of labor and industries shall transfer all records, files, books, and documents necessary for the department of community development to assume these new functions.

The directors of the department of community development and the department of labor and industries shall immediately take such steps as are necessary to ensure that this act is implemented on its effective date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 46.12 RCW to read as follows:

The department of licensing shall transfer all titling functions pertaining to mobile homes to the housing division of the department of community development by July 1, 1991. The department of licensing shall transfer all books, records, files, and documents pertaining to mobile home titling to the department of community development. The directors of the departments may immediately take such steps as are necessary to ensure that this act is implemented on its effective date.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of licensing, the department of labor and industries, and the department of community development shall report to the house of representatives housing committee and the senate economic development and labor committee by July 1, 1990, on the progress being made to transfer functions to the department of community development as required by this act. The report shall be prepared in consultation with local governments. The report shall include a review of the advantages and disadvantages of transferring other mobile home-related functions to the department of community development and make recommendations based on this review regarding such transfer. The report's review shall include the inspection functions performed by the department of labor and industries, inspections pertaining to woodstove and fireplace installation and alterations, and training of local inspectors.

Sec. 4 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the House March 3, 1990.

Passed the Senate March 1, 1990.

Approved by the Governor March 26, 1990, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 26, 1990.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 4, Substitute House Bill No. 2861 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to state agency responsibilities for the regulation of manufactured housing."

The bill consolidates certain administrative responsibilities related to manufactured housing from other state agencies into the Department of Community Development. Section 4 of the bill requires a related report to the Legislature by July 1, 1990.

Although I fully support the merits of the report required by section 4, the July 1, 1990, reporting date provides insufficient opportunity to develop the necessary and relevant information.

For this reason, I have vetoed section 4 of this bill.

I will direct the Department of Licensing, the Department of Labor and Industries and the Department of Community Development to provide a report to the Legislature as envisioned in section 4 of this bill by October 15, 1990.

With the exception of section 4, Substitute House Bill No. 2861 is approved."
