Blowing the shofart at the Battle of Bunkerville

What we saw here is a major point in the history of this country and God is behind it.

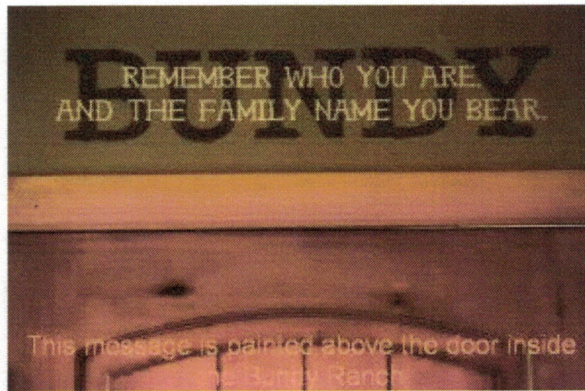

People will look back at [the Battle of Bunkerville] as a point when history began to change.

If this [turning point] was just “meant to happen” at this time, why did it not simply happen to an anti-government man? There are plenty of those around. Why wasn’t it an atheist? Why wasn’t it a man with one or no children? There are lots of those around, too, who are just as committed to liberty, to standing up against tyranny.

(<https://thereaganwing.files.wordpress.com/2014/04/cliven-cap.jpg>)

Why instead did it happen to a biblical man? A man with a large family? A man of God, really. A man whose children are very well educated and were home-schooled?

This is the story we want people to know.

This event was against all odds...that people would travel a thousand miles to stand with this family.

For our Washington team, I have no doubt, God made certain the right people were moving at the right time in the right direction. There is no doubt each person on our team was hand-picked by God to be here.

Talking to people about their trips down here confirms God was behind this.

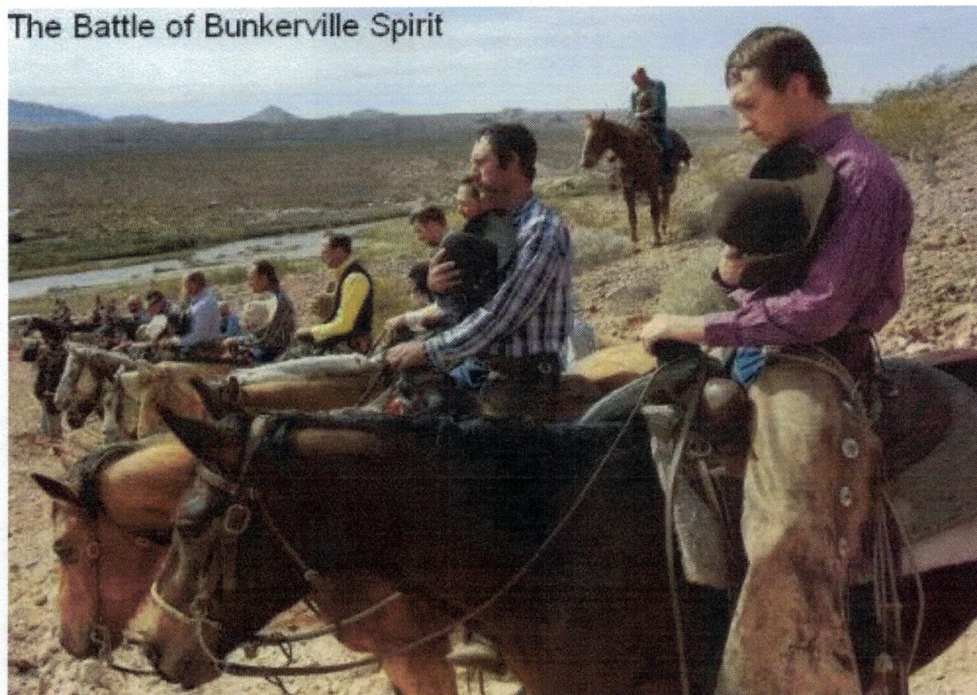

Just to use my own story as an example (and we have heard many like it), I made the decision independently to come down here but I did not have the resources to make the trip, so I did put out a call for people to help if they wanted. (I did not know it, but Josh Jones had made the decision to go but was trying to figure out how to manage it. Scott had also determined to go and was looking for companions.) So when I put out the word I intended to go, almost immediately Scott stepped up with his truck and I did not have to pay for the gas. And people came by with what ended up being JUST ENOUGH to get down here. (Gavin also decided independently to come to Nevada and we met for the first time at the rally site.) Our team, including Matt Shea and Gavin, came together effortlessly, it just seemed to happen without us doing anything in particular to make it happen.

Although I planned to come back Monday, once here I was asked to stay on, but Scott and Josh had to leave by the weekend, leaving me with no way to get back to Washington.

Then, when Maria decided to come down to bring my truck and our travel trailer and I couldn't talk her out of it ... there were necessary expenses before those vehicles could go on the road ... and it took every penny we had to meet them, so she literally left town with no money and just enough gas to get from our place into town and without a word being spoken, people stepped up with JUST ENOUGH for her and Paul to get to Nevada and once there, people (without us saying a word) gave JUST ENOUGH for my trip home (whenever that is).

I am telling you, you can't make this stuff up!

REPORT THIS AD

Really, I took the risk of looking like a fool, for I left on this trip without the resources I needed.

And when we look at the people that showed up to support the Bundys ... God put JUST ENOUGH people on site to get the job done. Why did the BLM decide to, if you will, "back down" yesterday? Why didn't they continue for another week or two? I know from my personal contacts that at least 3000 were on their way from Washington, Idaho, and Montana who did not continue after Saturday's news. Reports are that thousands more were on their way.

(<https://thereaganwing.files.wordpress.com/2014/04/4fe04b7b8310390e510f6a706700f91c.jpg>).

But God didn't need that many to get the job done. He had JUST ENOUGH.

with certain understandings: Rights that govern their lives. Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. (<https://thereaganwing.files.wordpress.com/2009/07/life-and-liberty-line.jpg>)

* "And Joshua said unto all the people [of Israel], ... choose you this day whom ye will serve; ... but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" (Josh. 24:2, 15).

†The shofar, (http://www.hebrew4christians.com/Holidays/Fall_Holidays/Elul/Shofar/shofar.html) a rams horn trumpet, was used as an instrument of spiritual warfare...

"When you go to war in your land against an adversary who is oppressing you, you are to sound an alarm with trumpets; then you will be remembered before the LORD your God and you will be saved from your enemies" (Num. 10:9). Blowing the shofar declares that the LORD God is the King of the universe. It was instrumental in Joshua's victory at the battle of Jericho by God's direct instruction.

 Gideon achieved victory with an army culled to less than one percent (300) of its original size (32,000), at God's explicit instructions. (Judges 7:4-7).

Operation Mutual Defense is now an Active Organization

In April 2014, an organization named Operation Mutual Aid (OMA) let out a call for patriots to come to the Bundy Ranch in Nevada, to protect the rancher's family, livestock, and ranch, from threatened Bureau of Land Management's (BLM) efforts seize the livestock in payment for a perceived obligation.

The structure of OMA was determined to be insufficient for effective response, planning, coordination, and organization of the effort required. This led to a division between the two principals of OMA leadership, and the formation of a new organization, Operation Mutual Defense (OMD), anticipating a more rapid and effective response. Additionally, support functions are incorporated in the structure and function of OMD.

The Advisory Board of Operation Mutual Defense, is announcing the commencement of its organization's website and operation of services to Americans who are in need of assistance, in defense of life, liberty, or property, due to oppressive government overreach that threatens their God given rights.

OMD is a network of volunteers, patriotic citizens, activists and militia, dedicated to furthering a government, by the people, free from oppressive intrusion, overreach and aggression, through training and implementation of established defensive postures, at optimal tactical positions, in relation to the people or property in need.

An additional tier of the OMD organization includes, journalists, logistical and support personnel, and media relations personnel from other patriotic political and activism groups.

OMD observes all local laws, not in violation of the United States and state constitutions, and considers all laws in violation of the United States and state constitutions reasonable cause to coalesce resources to protect and defend citizenry requesting support.

The organization believes in a culture directed by the principles of the Declaration of Independence; to absolve such government of its power, or separate from it to be freed from its oppression. OMD is intended for the defense of the populace from enemies, foreign and domestic. The latter path shall be left to the determination of that populace, and we shall guarantee them the freedom to make that choice, and to assist them, in accordance with man's God-given Liberty, the ideas espoused in the Declaration of Independence, the constitutions of the several States, the Constitution of United States, and the Bill of Rights, so help us God.

OMD encourages visitors to go to the OMD website (<http://www.outpost-of-freedom.com/OMD>) to learn more about its mission and the terms and conditions under which activation occurs. For those interested in following, and perhaps participating, in any OMD event, you may join the OMD mail list from the link on that page.
