STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

My vote for House Bill No. 1000 was in error. I intended to vote "No."

AVERY GARRETT, 11th District.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 895, by Committee on State Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Hankins, Martinis, James, McCormick, Patrick, Prince, Chamberlain, Isaacson, Johnson, Garrett, Garson and Hastings):

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 914, by Committee on Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs (originally sponsored by Representatives Lundquist, Van Dyken, James and Fiske):

Clarifying procedures for reviewing shoreline permits.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Lundquist and Van Dyken spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Martinis, Brekke and Thompson spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lundquist yielded to question by Mr. Dawson.

Mr. Dawson: "Representative Lundquist, there is some concern that state agencies receive some sort of notification of substantial shoreline hearings. Can you tell me and the body, in your bill as presented, are there any provisions for the state agencies to notify in the event of a substantial permit requirement?"

Mr. Lundquist: "Yes, Representative Dawson, there is a requirement of this bill that the state agencies, the Department of Fisheries, the Department of Game, Social and Health Services and those other agencies affected by a substantial development would, under this bill, receive notification. I might point out that under the present law this is not required. I might also point out that under the bill that we're proposing here today, there is an increased amount of notice by approximately one week. This has also been worked out with the Department of Fisheries and they understand. I think if you really want to understand this bill, you have to understand what happens now. In response to Representative Thompson's concerns, this bill does not contain any requirements of the local jurisdictions."

Ms. Valle spoke against passage of the bill.

Mr. Nelson (G) demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 914, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 51; nays, 41; not voting, 6.

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 941 was returned to second reading for purpose of amendment.

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), further consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 941 was deferred.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1069, by Committee on Human Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Leonard, Bond, Patrick, Brown, McGinnis, Stratton, Johnson, McCormick, Owen, Addison, Barrett, Schmidt, Scott, Nickell, Chamberlain, Rosbach and Padden):

Making autopsies mandatory in certain cases.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Ms. Leonard spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Leonard yielded to question by Mr. Kreidler.

Mr. Kreidler: "Representative Leonard, with discussion of several members when this bill came out, there were a couple of questions that relate to the same thing you were asked. I'm concerned about it. It would appear that perhaps there is going to be a considerably increased number of walkouts, presuming that the county coroners would perhaps feel that they were going to be susceptible to lawsuits, and so forth, if they didn't do it when there was any reasonable doubt, and if they did do it in quite a few more cases, it would appear that there would be considerable more cost involved. There would be a number of autopsies performed and because of that, there would be a fiscal impact and Initiative 62 would come into play. Can you respond to that? Is there going to be any increase in the number of autopsies performed because of this bill? What is the cost to local government?"

Ms. Leonard: "Representative Kreidler, actually an autopsy, I understand, costs $250. There is a bill to require that the coroners be dismissed, and we go to medical examiners which I have information would cost $200,000. I believe the $250 cost for these cases where there is cause to believe that a person has met death by unlawful means should, under any circumstances, be investigated. I just don't believe that unlawful deaths should go undetected. I do believe that $250 is not a great deal of extra money to pay for the actual facts."

Representatives Kreidler and Nickell spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives Vander Stoep and Leonard spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1069, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 67; nays, 26; not voting, 5.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Barnes, Barrett, Bender, Berleen, Bickham, Bond, Brown, Cantu, Chamberlain, Cole, Dawson, Dickie, Eberle, Ellis, Erak, Fancher, Flanagan, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Garson, Granlund, Greengo, Grimm, Hankins, Hastings, Houchen, Isaacson, James, Johnson, Leonard, Lewis, Lundquist, Martinis, Maxie, McCormick, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson G. A., O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Pruitt, Rinehart, Rosbach, Sanders, Schmidt, Scott, Smith, Sommers, Sprague, Stratton, Struthers, Taylor, Thompson, Tupper, Valle, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Wang, Warnke, Williams, Wilson, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Armstrong, Barr, Brekke, Burns, Clayton, Ehlers, Eng, Heck, Hine, Kaiser, King J., King R., Kreidler, Lux, Nelson D., Nickell, Nisbet, North, Owen, Prince, Rust, Sherman, Teutsch, Walk, Winsley.

Not voting: Representatives Becker, Chandler, Fiske, Salatino, Tilly.

Substitute House Bill No. 1069, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

be a standard recommended for Representatives in their daily activities both in and outside of the Legislature; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk to each Rotary club in this state.

Mr. Tilly moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives Tilly and Kreidler spoke in favor of it.

House Resolution No. 82-122 was adopted.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Prince, having served notice on the previous working day, moved that the House now reconsider the vote by which SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 895 failed to pass the House.

Ms. Houchen spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Ehlers spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Ehlers yielded to question by Mr. Barrett.

Mr. Barrett: "Representative Ehlers, you are apparently reading into this bill something I can't find. Could you please point out to me where it prohibits items less than 8-1/2X11?"

Mr. Ehlers: "On page 1, lines 15 through 18, it reads: 'Therefore, it is the purpose of this 1982 act that the state eliminate usage of legal size media and adopt the usage of letter-size media for all state forms, documents, reports or other papers.' While it only eliminates legal size by the fact that the rest of the construction of that sentence says it will adopt letter size media for all state forms, documents, reports or other papers, would imply to me, at least, that there would only be one standard form for all items in the state."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Ehlers yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Ehlers, in your debate earlier on why you were not voting for reconsideration, you made a statement that paperwork is not the cause of the high cost, that labor cost was really the big cost. Is that true?"

Mr. Ehlers: "What I said was that paper cost is the cost actually of paper, not paperwork. When you look at the cost of any kind of printing, my experience has been when we buy from print shops, the cost is set up on the cost of materials and not the paper. At least that's what I've been led to understand when I talked to printers where I have had my items printed. Labor costs, at least on billings I've received are substantially more."

Mr. Hastings: "You said the labor costs were the big costs and not the cost of the paper, is that correct?"

Mr. Ehlers: "That's true."

Ms. Rust spoke against the motion to reconsider the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Ehlers yielded to question by Mr. Nisbet.

Mr. Nisbet: "Representative Ehlers, you've made quite a case about our schedules appearing on legal size paper. Are you familiar with the Senate schedule and do you know what size it is printed on?"

Mr. Ehlers: "Other than the fact it's a violation to talk about the other body, I really don't know or care what they do, frankly. I'm just concerned about our operation, Representative Nisbet, and primarily, I'm concerned about this particular bill which is setting into law something which I think is not very flexible."

Ms. Houchen spoke again in favor of the motion, and Ms. Granlund spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House reconsider the vote by which Substitute House Bill No. 895 failed to pass the House, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 58; nays, 38; not voting, 2.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 8 after "Section 1." strike everything through line 16 and insert "Washington's citizens have long placed a high value on a system of education that contributes to individual development, to the health of communities, and to the quality of life in the state as a whole. While many excellent programs exist, there is need to build public confidence in the ability of the education system to amply educate students. The legislature has evidence of a lack of coordination between education institutions, a weak response to the progressive academic and vocational needs of students, an unclear statement as to roles and missions, an inconsistency between programs, duplications of effort, and inefficient uses of public dollars. The possibilities for improving this structure require comprehensive examination."

"(6) An emphasis on the education of children in kindergarten through second grade, with particular reference to new information and research on the effectiveness of early childhood education;"

Remember the remaining subsections.

On page 3, line 27 before "The committee's" insert "The committee's first responsibilities shall be to identify priority areas and to prepare to address them in a phased-in manner. Furthermore, as areas are addressed, the committee shall seek out and highlight programs that are working and shall also rely upon testimony and reports from those who have studied or who now are studying education in Washington."

On page 4, beginning on line 3 strike everything through line 5 and insert "The committee shall establish advisory committees and task forces, as it may deem necessary, to assist it in the fulfillment of its duties and to ensure that the products reflect a broad consensus and earn a sizable constituency."

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 31, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 13, chapter 314, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following shall be exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to such taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(2) The exemptions of this section shall be inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption shall be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records, exempt under the provisions of this section, may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records, is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld."

Mr. Kreidler moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Kreidler and Van Dyken:

On page 9, line 22 after "activities" insert ": PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not apply unless the event is held in the local community of the chapter or local unit"

Mr. Kreidler spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Monohon spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kreidler yielded to question by Mr. Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong: "For the purpose of establishing legislative intent, what do you mean by 'the local community'?"

Mr. Kreidler: "I'm glad you asked that question, Representative Armstrong. Certainly it would be my intent that we would be only talking about something that's within an easy commute distance from the area that represents the local community—let's say thirty miles or something like that. It would be within a reasonable area of the sponsoring organization. It wouldn't wind up having a focal point that, by virtue of the regulations right now, the law can act as a full-blown casino and run casino operations every single weekend. That's what we're trying to get at. We're trying to say that, certainly, some organizations aren't going to have a specific hall right there in their community, but it's certainly within a reasonable commute distance for them—something like a few miles would be able to satisfy that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kreidler yielded to question by Mr. Tupper.

Mr. Tupper: "My concern here is that a local unit of a club or organization—let's say out in the Ocean shores area—would be able to contract, in essence, all around the state with its other local units and be able to put on a continual series of fund raisers, day in and day out, week in and week out, month in and month out, but that local organization that would be doing the fund raising all over the state, and would, in fact, be in a position to constitute almost a permanent gambling activity. Would this bill, if the amendment is attached, permit that?"

Mr. Kreidler: "My answer would be 'no.' It would help limit the potential for that. It would help to prevent that from happening. It's happening right now, but it would happen on a potentially grander scale if this new language is not limited by imposing my amendment. As it stands right now, a particular focal point can have functions there every single weekend of the month, year in and year out, and by allowing this amendment you can make sure that as they do that now—and I'm certainly opposed to that as it is now—if they continue that, they are now going to be able to draw in larger organizations and areas, so they really can make it a full-blown casino operation on weekends at such focal points."

Mr. Van Dyken spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Struthers again opposed it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kreidler yielded to question by Mr. Barrett.

Mr. Barrett: "Representative Kreidler, as I read your amendment, you have ignored the fact that there are two chapters and two local units referred to in the bill. The bill says that any local chapter or unit may request or cooperate with the services of any other chapter or unit under the same parent group. Your amendment says that the event must be held in the chapter or unit's own community. My question first is: Is the intent of your amendment to so thoroughly cloud the preceding sentence that it would be impossible for anyone to interpret which group is meant, or is the intent of the amendment to make it so it's impossible because each group could only operate in its own local jurisdiction, to make it impossible for any unit to cooperate with another unit even though they were members of the same parent organization?"

Mr. Kreidler: "I have another amendment that will hopefully address that concern you are raising here. My amendment here addresses only this subsection of the bill, and what I'm basically saying with this is that often times a local chapter or unit doesn't have somebody who is particularly good as a blackjack dealer, but they can get some real pros out of their whole area chapter who can participate then in an Ocean Shores, or some other focal point, operation. You really get some real pros in there as your casino night operators that you can't get out of the local chapter. That's not why we devised this bill in the first place, and it's certainly very much of a broadening, so I'm essentially trying to get at that type of participation of the larger organizations."

Representatives Barrett and Struthers spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Greengo spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Representatives Kreidler and Van Dyken to page 9, line 22 of Substitute House Bill No. 1102, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 52; not voting, 5.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Barnes, Becker, Berleen, Brekke, Burns, Chamberlain, Chandler, Clayton, Cole, Ehlers, Eng, Flanagan, Garrett, Garson, Granlund, Greengo, Hine, James, Kreidler, Lundquist, Martinis, McDonald, Nelson D., North, Patrick, Pruitt, Rust, Salatino, Sanders, Sherman, Sommers, Sprague, Taylor, Thompson, Tilly, Tupper, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Wang, Williams.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Armstrong, Barr, Barrett, Bender, Bickham, Bond, Brown, Cantu, Dawson, Dickie, Fancher, Fiske, Gallagher, Galloway, Grimm, Hankins, Hastings, Heck, Houchen, Isaacson, Johnson, Kaiser, King J., King R., Leonard, Lewis, Lux, Maxie, McCormick, McGinnis, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson G. A., Nickell, Nisbet, O'Brien, Owen, Padden, Prince, Rinehart, Rosbach, Schmidt, Scott, Smith, Stratton, Struthers, Teutsch, Valle, Walk, Warnke, Wilson.

Not voting: Representatives Eberle, Ellis, Erak, Winsley, and Mr. Speaker.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 7, chapter 359, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41.162 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to those state funds provided to school districts for basic education, the legislature shall appropriate funds for pupil transportation, in accordance with ((~~RCW 28A.41.160~~)) this chapter, and for programs for handicapped students, in accordance with chapter 28A.13 RCW. The legislature may appropriate funds to be distributed to school districts for population factors such as urban costs, enrollment fluctuations and for special programs, including but not limited to, vocational-technical institutes, compensatory programs, bilingual education, urban, rural, racial and disadvantaged programs, programs for gifted students, and other special programs.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.520 are each amended to read as follows:

Each district's annual student transportation allocation shall be based on differential rates determined by the superintendent of public instruction in the following manner:

(1) The superintendent shall annually calculate a standard student mile allocation rate for each district. 'Standard student mile allocation rate,' as used in this ~~((section))~~ chapter, means the per mile allocation rate for transporting an eligible student. The standard student mile allocation rate may consist of no more than ~~((five))~~ eight differential rates state-wide, as determined by the superintendent ~~((and shall include but not be limited to such factors as climate and terrain; nonpassenger miles; and the costs of insurance, district or contracted employee salaries, and benefits, maintenance, fuel, supplies, and materials)).~~ Such rates shall recognize, to the extent possible, cost differentials that are not under the direct control of the district. The standard student mile allocation rate shall be used to determine the transportation allocation for those services provided for in RCW 28A.41.505(1).

(2) The superintendent shall annually calculate a standard unit mile rate for each district. 'Standard unit mile rate,' as used in this section, means the cost of operating an approved transportation vehicle for one mile. The standard unit mile rate may consist of no more than ~~((five))~~ eight differential rates state-wide, as determined by the superintendent, and shall be based on the factors used in subsection (1) of this section. The standard unit mile rate shall be used to determine the transportation allocation for those services provided for in RCW 28A.41.505(2) and (3). For purposes of allocating funds for RCW 28A.41.505(2), the superintendent shall use the average number of miles reported by the district for the two school years, excluding field trips.

(3) Prior to June 1st of each year the superintendent shall submit to the office of financial management, and the committees on education and ways and means of the senate and house of representatives a report outlining the methodology and rationale used in determining the student mile and unit mile rates to be used the following year.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.525 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent shall determine the preliminary, estimated student transportation allocation for each district and notify districts of their preliminary student transportation allocation by June 15. ~~((The superintendent shall include not less than twenty-five percent of the estimated student transportation allocation in the following September apportionment payment to school districts.))~~ By the following October 15th, every district shall notify the superintendent of any changes in the data utilized in calculating the preliminary student transportation allocation. The superintendent shall then make necessary corrections and shall notify districts of their final student transportation allocation before the following December 1st ~~((and shall make the balance of the student transportation allocation in approximately equal parts as a part of the December, February, and April apportionment payments to school districts)).~~ If the number of eligible students in a school district changes ten percent or more from the final October 15 number, and the change is maintained for a period of twenty consecutive school days or more, the district may submit revised eligible student data to the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent shall, to the extent funds are available, recalculate the district's allocation for the transportation of pupils to and from school.

The superintendent shall make the student transportation allocation in accordance with the apportionment payment schedule in RCW 28A.48.010, as now or hereafter amended. For the 1982-83 school year, no school district shall receive a reduction or increase in funds of over three percent of what it received the previous year as adjusted to its proportional share of funds appropriated by the legislature for 1982-83 transportation services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The superintendent of public instruction shall submit a report to the legislature which shall:

(1) Identify the factors that will be used to recognize cost differentials between districts, and the data elements that will be used to measure the factors that contribute to these cost differentials;

(2) Collect the appropriate financial and workload data necessary to measure cost differentials between districts;

(3) Describe and analyze the differential rates associated with the standard student mile allocation under the eligibility formula along with an analysis of each school district's eligibility for a differential rate. The rationale for choosing specific rates and the procedures used in evaluating district requests for differential rates shall also be included;

(4) Compare and analyze the difference in costs of changing the 'eligible student' definition in RCW 28A.41.510 to include only those students whose residence or assigned route stop is more than one and one-half miles from the student's school, while still excepting handicapped students;

(5) Compare the distribution of transportation operating funds to each local school district under the interim methodology approved for the 1982-83 school year and the methodology requiring use of eligible student for 1983-84; and

(6) Present options for a continued phase-in of the eligible student allocation formula, with a description of the fiscal impact on school districts.

The report shall be submitted to the senate and house committees on education no later than December 15, 1982.

All data collected by the superintendent and requested by the committees on ways and means or education of the house or senate pertaining to the funding of pupil transportation shall be delivered to the legislative evaluation and accountability program (LEAP) as soon as possible in a machine readable form acceptable to the LEAP committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 13, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 (uncodified) is hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 2 and 3 of this amendatory act shall take effect September 1, 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On line 1 of the title after "transportation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert the following "amending section 7, chapter 359, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41.162; amending section 4, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.520; amending section 5, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.525; creating new sections; repealing section 13, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 (uncodified); and providing an effective date."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The state fire marshal may designate certain classes of occupancy within a geographic area or may designate geographic areas as having an abnormally high incidence of arson. This designation shall not be a valid reason for cancellation, refusal to issue or renew, modification, or increasing the premium for any fire insurance policy.

(2) A fire insurance policy may not be issued to insure any property within a class of occupancy within a geographic area or within a geographic area designated by the state fire marshal as having an abnormally high incidence of arson until the applicant has submitted an anti-arson application and the insurer or the insurer's representative has inspected the property. The application shall be prescribed by the state fire marshal and shall contain but not be limited to the following:

(a) The name and address of the prospective insured and any mortgagees or other parties having an ownership interest in the property to be insured;

(b) The amount of insurance requested and the method of valuation used to establish the amount of insurance;

SENATE BILL NO. 4557, Prime Sponsor: Senator Deccio, modifying the landlords' rights and responsibilities when a tenancy is abandoned. Reported by Committee on Ethics, Law and Justice.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. SHORT TITLE. Sections 1 through 14 of this act shall be known as the 'self-service storage facility landlord-tenant act'.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Self-service storage facility' means any real property designed and used for the purpose of renting or leasing individual storage space to tenants who are to have access to such for the purpose of storing and removing personal property, or any use permitted by the rental agreement. No tenant shall use a self-service storage facility for residential purposes. If a landlord issues a warehouse receipt, bill of lading, or other document of title for the personal property stored, the provisions of this chapter do not apply. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to imply that prior to the effective date of this act, the definition of self-service storage facilities differed from the definition given in this subsection.

(2) 'Landlord' means the landlord, operator, lessor, or sublessor of a self-service storage facility, his agent, or any other person authorized by him to manage the facility, or to receive rent from a tenant under a rental agreement.

(3) 'Tenant' means a person, his sublessee, successor, or assign, entitled to the use of the storage space at a self-service storage facility under a rental agreement, to the exclusion of others.

(4) 'Rental agreement' means any agreement or lease, written or oral, that establishes or modifies the terms, conditions, rules, or any other provisions concerning the use and occupancy of real property in a self-service storage facility.

(5) 'Personal property' means movable property not affixed to land, and includes, but is not limited to, goods, merchandise, and household items.

(6) 'Last known address' means that address provided by the tenant in the latest rental agreement, or the address provided by the tenant in a subsequent written notice of a change of address.

(7) 'Abandoned' as it relates to personal property of a tenant in a self-service storage facility means the tenant has defaulted in rent and by words or actions reasonably indicates the intention not to continue tenancy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. NOTICE OF APPARENT ABANDONMENT. (1) If the tenant defaults in rent and the landlord in good faith believes that the tenant has abandoned the tenancy and the personal property stored within the self-service storage facility, but does not know so for certain, the landlord may terminate the tenancy and declare the tenant's personal property abandoned if the following occurs subsequent to default:

(a) The landlord sends by first class and certified mail, return receipt requested, a notice of intent to declare the abandonment of the tenancy and the personal property to the last known address of the tenant. The landlord shall also send notice to any other addresses known to the landlord where the tenant might reasonably be expected to receive the notice; and

(b) No reply is received within thirty days of the mailing of the notice. This notice shall state that if no reply is received within thirty days that the landlord shall determine the tenancy and the personal property abandoned and subject to sale.

(2) This section is intended to provide landlords with assurance that a determination of abandonment is proper in the circumstances, and is not intended to be exclusive.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. TAKING POSSESSION. Upon abandonment, the landlord may immediately enter and take possession of any property of the tenant found on the premises and may remove the same to and store the same in a reasonably secure place.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. DISCOVERY OF SECURED CREDITORS. Upon taking possession, the landlord shall submit an information request under RCW 62A.9-407 to the department of licensing. Any secured creditors of the tenant discovered as a result of this information request shall receive notice as provided in section 7(1)(d) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. NOTICE TO TENANT. (1) A notice must be mailed by the landlord by first class and certified mail, return receipt requested, within three days after taking possession of the tenant's property to the last known address of the tenant.

(2) The notice shall state:

(a) The tenant's name;

(b) That the landlord is holding in safe storage property of the tenant;

(c) A description of the property;

(d) The location of the property;

(e) The name and address of the landlord;

(f) That if the tenant does not reclaim the tenant's property within sixty days after the specified date of default in rent, or thirty days after the date the notice required in subsection (1) of this section is sent, whichever is later, the landlord intends to sell the personal property stored and apply the proceeds as specified in section 10 of this act; and

(g) The conditions on which any person could reclaim the property, as specified in section 8 of this act, with the amounts set out where applicable as much as is reasonably practical.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. SALE OF TENANT'S PROPERTY. (1) The landlord may sell or otherwise dispose of any or all of the property taken possession of and stored by the tenant after the latest of the following:

(a) Sixty days after mailing of the notice under section 3 of this act;

(b) Thirty days after mailing of the notice prescribed in section 6 of this act;

(c) After reasonable efforts to locate the absent tenants;

(d) Ten days' notice to secured creditors of the tenant discovered through the information request submitted under section 5 of this act. This notice shall contain the same information as the notice to the tenant set forth in section 6(2) of this act.

(2) The property may be sold in its condition 'as is' or following any commercially reasonable preparation for sale. Disposition of the property may be by public or private proceedings and may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms, but every aspect of the disposition including the method, manner, time, place, and terms must be commercially reasonable. Reasonable notification of the time and place of any public sale or of the time of which any private sale or other intended disposition is to be made shall be sent by the landlord to the tenant and secured creditors identified in (1)(d) of this section. The landlord may buy at any public sale. If the property is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, no notice of time and place of sale is required and the landlord may buy such property, as well as any other property which is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations.

(3) The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method, or in a different place, from that selected by the landlord is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the landlord sells the property in conformity with reasonable commercial practices among dealers in the type of property sold, he has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. The principles stated in the two preceding sentences with respect to sales also apply as may be appropriate to other types of disposition.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. REDEMPTION. (1) At any time before the landlord has disposed of property or entered into contract for its disposition under this chapter, the tenant, unless otherwise agreed in writing, may redeem the property by tendering to the landlord fulfillment of all obligations owed by the tenant to the landlord as set out in section 12 of this act which have accrued up to the date of redemption.

(2) At any time before the landlord has disposed of property or entered into a contract for disposition under this chapter, any person who has a security interest in the property may, unless otherwise agreed in writing, redeem the property by tendering to the landlord:

(a) Any unpaid rent or charges specified in the rental agreement accrued up to the date of redemption: PROVIDED, That the amount of rent required to be tendered by the secured creditor shall not exceed two months' rent due; and

(b) The reasonable costs of taking possession, moving, storing, safeguarding, preparing the property for sale, the costs of arranging the sale, and selling the tenant's property plus reasonable attorney's fees and legal expenses incurred taking such actions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. EFFECT OF SALE. (1) When property is disposed of by a landlord under this chapter, the disposition transfers to a purchaser for value all of the tenant's rights therein and discharges any security interest in or lien upon the property. The purchaser takes free of any such rights and interests even if the landlord fails to comply with the requirements of this chapter or of any judicial proceedings (a) in the case of a public sale, if the purchaser has no knowledge of any defects in the sale and if he does not buy in collusion with the landlord, other bidders, or the person conducting the sale; or (b) in any other case, if the purchaser acts in good faith as defined in RCW 62A.1-201(19).

(2) The director of licensing shall promulgate rules under chapter 34.04 RCW for the application for and the reissuance of the certificate of title showing ownership of any property sold or otherwise disposed of under the provisions of this chapter which property is required by Title 46 RCW to have a certificate of title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS FROM SALE. (1) Any proceeds from the sale may be applied in the following order:

- (a) To any reasonable costs of storing, moving, safeguarding, and selling the property;
- (b) To any secured creditors of the tenant discoverable by an information request under RCW 62A.9-407 sent to the department of licensing;
- (c) To any other moneys due the landlord as specified in section 11 of this act.

(2) Any excess proceeds from the sale of the property shall be paid to the state treasurer subject to a claim by the tenant within one year of sale.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. REMEDIES FOR NONCOMPLIANCE. If it is established that the landlord is not proceeding in accordance with the provisions of sections 3 through 10 of this act, disposition may be ordered or restrained on appropriate terms and conditions. If the disposition has occurred in violation of this chapter, the tenant or any person entitled to notice has a right to recover from the landlord any loss caused by a failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter, including but not limited to legal costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. TENANT'S LIABILITY TO LANDLORD UPON ABANDONMENT. If a tenant abandons a tenancy the landlord shall make reasonable efforts to mitigate the damages resulting from the abandonment, and after such reasonable efforts are made, is entitled to the following from the tenant:

- (1) The reasonable costs of taking possession of, moving, storing, safeguarding, preparing the property for sale, and the costs of arranging the sale, plus reasonable attorney's fees and legal expenses incurred in taking such actions if not otherwise reimbursed by the provisions of section 10 of this act;
- (2) Any unpaid rent or charges specified in the rental agreement; and
- (3) Any damages to the landlord's property caused by the tenant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. LIEN GRANTED. The landlord has a lien upon all personal property located at a self-service storage facility for unpaid rent or charges specified in the rental agreement, and for expenses reasonably incurred in its sale or other disposition under this chapter: PROVIDED, That the landlord's lien for rent shall not exceed two months' rent due. The lien provided for in this section is superior to any other lien or security interest. Foreclosure shall be by the sale provisions of sections 3 through 10 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. REMEDIES NOT EXCLUSIVE. The remedies specified in sections 3 through 12 of this act are not exclusive and the parties retain the rights to all other actions or remedies. If a landlord sells a tenant's personal property as permitted by this chapter and the proceeds from the sale of those goods are insufficient to pay the landlord all that the tenant owes to the landlord, the tenant shall remain liable for the remainder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. DECLARATION OF PURPOSE. The purpose of sections 1 through 14 of this act is to clarify the manner and circumstances in which self-service storage facility landlords may take possession of and sell the personal property of persons renting space at such facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Nothing in sections 1 through 14 of this act shall be construed to imply that self-service storage facilities subject to the operation of sections 1 through 14 of this act are or are not engaged in the business of warehousing or that the rental of storage space as defined herein does or does not constitute the rental of real property, or that the rent from which, as defined herein, does or does not constitute income from the rental of real property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 1 through 14 and 18 of this act constitute a new chapter to be added to Title 59 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Section captions as used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

Sec. 19. Section 31, chapter 207, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 59.18.310 are each amended to read as follows:

If the tenant defaults in the payment of rent and reasonably indicates by words or actions his intention not to resume tenancy, he shall be liable for the following for such abandonment: PROVIDED, That upon learning of such abandonment of the premises the landlord shall make a reasonable effort to mitigate the damages resulting from such abandonment:

(1) When the tenancy is month-to-month, the tenant shall be liable for the rent for the thirty days following either the date the landlord learns of the abandonment, or the date the next regular rental payment would have become due, whichever first occurs.

(2) When the tenancy is for a term greater than month-to-month, the tenant shall be liable for the lesser of the following:

(a) The entire rent due for the remainder of the term; or

(b) All rent accrued during the period reasonably necessary to rerent the premises at a fair rental, plus the difference between such fair rental and the rent agreed to in the prior agreement, plus actual costs incurred by the landlord in rerenting the premises together with statutory court costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

In the event of such abandonment of tenancy and an accompanying default in the payment of rent by the tenant, the landlord may immediately enter and take possession of any property of the tenant found on the premises and may store the same in ((a)) any reasonably secure place. A notice containing the name and address of landlord and the place where the property is stored must be mailed promptly by the landlord to the last known address of the tenant. After sixty days from the date of default in rent, and after prior notice of such sale is mailed to the last known address of the tenant, the landlord may sell such property and may apply any income derived therefrom against moneys due the landlord, including drayage and storage. After deducting the actual costs of transfer, storage, and sale of such property, any excess income derived from the sale of such property shall be held by the landlord for the benefit of the tenant for a period of one year from the date of sale, and if no claim is made or action commenced by the tenant for the recovery thereof prior to the expiration of that period of time, the balance shall be the property of the landlord. If the landlord reasonably determines that any of the property, other than memorabilia, official papers, documents, correspondence, or photographs, is of such little value that the cost of storage and sale probably exceeds the amount realizable from sale, the landlord may list such property on a notice to be mailed to the tenant's last known address indicating that such property may be destroyed or otherwise disposed of not less than fifteen days after the mailing.

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "tenants;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 31, chapter 207, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 59.18.310; adding a new chapter to Title 59 RCW; and creating new sections."

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4559, Prime Sponsor: Senator Lee, modifying the state forms management program. Reported by Committee on State Government.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. This act may be known and cited as the forms reduction act of 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds that the functioning of state government, business, and individual activities is becoming increasingly more cumbersome as the number, length, and complexity of forms increase and that the forms burden imposed by the state can be a hindrance to the citizens of the state and can add to the costs of products and services. Eliminating unnecessary forms will simplify paperwork, increase efficiency, effect productivity improvements, and reduce costs related to the amount of time individuals and businesses are required to take to complete various forms and to the procurement, printing, storage, use, and distribution of forms.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 4 through 7 of this act.

(1) 'State agency' means any executive branch office, department, board, commission, or other separate unit or division, however designated. The term includes any unit of state government established by law of which the executive officer or each member is either elected or appointed, and upon which the statutes confer powers and impose duties in connection with operations of either a governmental or proprietary nature. It also includes every state-supported institution of higher education.

(2) 'Form' means a printed document providing entry space for variable information.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) By July 30, 1983, and by July 30 of each even-numbered year thereafter, each state agency shall report the following information to the office of financial management for the previous fiscal year ending on June 30:

(a) The estimated total number of hours required to fill out each form; and

(b) The estimated number of people filling out each form.

(2) The product of the numbers provided under (a) of subsection (1) of this section multiplied by the numbers provided under (b) of subsection (1) of this section constitutes the form burden for each form.

(3) The sum of all the products in subsection (2) of this section for each agency constitutes the agency's form burden for that fiscal year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) For the fiscal year ending on June 30, 1984, each agency shall satisfy the director that it has reduced by fifteen percent its form burden that it had for the fiscal year ending on June 30, 1983. The director of financial management may specifically waive this requirement for an agency if necessary for the efficient and effective administration of the agency and the carrying out of its duties.

(2) An agency's form burden established under subsection (1) of this section for the fiscal year ending on June 30, 1984, shall not be increased except with the specific authorization of the director after a finding by the director that the increase is necessary for the efficient and effective administration of the agency and the carrying out of its duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The director shall adopt rules governing the reports required under section 4 of this act. The director shall review each report to determine whether it is an accurate estimate of the agency's form burden. By November 1, 1983, and by November 1 of each even-numbered year thereafter, the director shall provide a report to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate showing the agencies, if any, which have not complied with sections 2 through 5 of this act and shall report each agency's form burden and the total state-wide form burden.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The director of financial management shall place one-half of one percent of all funds appropriated to an agency in reserve if the agency does not comply with section 5(1) of this act. The director shall hold such funds in reserve until the agency complies or the appropriation expires.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 2 through 8 of this act shall expire on June 30, 1985, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 2 through 8 of this act are each added to chapter 43.41 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "management;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 43.41 RCW; creating a new section; and providing an expiration date."

For purposes of this section, "federal law" includes federal statutes and federal rules and regulations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 34.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) By November 1, 1982, and each year thereafter, each agency shall provide the office of financial management with a document containing: (a) A list citing the rules identified pursuant to section 3 of this act and the actions, if any, taken by the agency head to change or eliminate the rules; and (b) a list of those rules which cannot be changed or eliminated without conflicting with the statutes authorizing, or dealing with, the rules and a list of such statutes.

The legislature finds that the present and predicted growth in energy demands in the state of Washington requires the development of a procedure for the selection and utilization of sites for energy facilities and the identification of a state position with respect to each proposed site. The legislature recognizes that the selection of sites will have a significant impact upon the welfare of the population, the location and growth of industry and the use of the natural resources of the state.

It is the policy of the state of Washington to recognize the ((pressing)) need for ((increased)) adequate energy facilities, and to ensure through available and reasonable methods, that the location and operation of such facilities will produce minimal adverse effects on the environment, ecology of the land and its wildlife, and the ecology of state waters and their aquatic life.

It is the intent to seek courses of action that will balance ((the increasing demands for)) energy facility location and operation ((in conjunction)) with the broad interests of the public. Such action will be based on these premises:

(1) To assure Washington state citizens that, where applicable, operational safeguards are at least as stringent as the criteria established by the federal government and are technically sufficient for their welfare and protection.

(2) To preserve and protect the quality of the environment; to enhance the public's opportunity to enjoy the esthetic and recreational benefits of the air, water and land resources; to promote air cleanliness; and to pursue beneficial changes in the environment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Tilly yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (D).

Mr. Nelson (D): "Representative Tilly, as one who voted against this measure last year, I have to admit that I've been rethinking my position. The reason for my rethinking is that we are now seeing budget deficits that are not in the $40 or $50 billion category, but $100 billion plus category, and it appears those deficits, instead of coming down during this administration, will probably go up. This is in spite of massive cuts, not only in social programs, but all programs, almost across the board. It's being pushed, of course, by increases in one program, the defense program of this country. President Reagan, your President, rated the budget deficit and the need for a balanced budget with economic recovery in this country when he campaigned for election, and he indicated that high interest rates and high inflation rates could be reduced, could be mitigated by balancing the budget. In fact, it seemed that was the key part of his economic program. I guess I'm puzzled then, why the administration has apparently reversed itself, and I believe it was Mr. Regan, the Treasury Secretary, who announced not too long ago that the budget deficit and balancing the budget were not crucial any longer and were not linked to economic recovery. I'm wondering whether you agree with your president's position as enunciated by the Treasury Secretary, and whether, indeed, this particular memorial will achieve the result that we all would like to see, and that is an economic recovery that really does reduce inflation and reduce interest rates?"

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Nelson, I support very strongly what President Reagan is attempting to do. I believe he has inherited a real mess, just like Governor Spellman did. I think for too long Americans have been used to the good life. I believe America is suffering right now from not being competitive in the world market. Look at what's happening in many of our major industries—we're pricing ourselves out. I believe the program the President has embarked on is to try to lick inflation. I think that was one of his main themes. You think of some progress there, but we all knew when we went into this that it was not going to be done easily. What we're expecting is an instant miracle; we want a quick fix. We'd like to have it solved within the next ten or fifteen minutes. Americans are very impatient and we're going to have to learn to be resourceful. I feel that the President's program, at this point, is perhaps overly ambitious. I think when you try to balance the budget, cut taxes and increase the defense budget all in one time, it is trying to do too much. I think if he just attempted to do one of those, then we wouldn't have the deficit that's being projected for this year."

Representatives Padden, Bond, McGinnis and Dickie spoke in favor of the memorial, and Representatives Becker and King (J) spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings yielded to question by Mr. Lux.

Mr. Lux: "Representative Hastings, when was the last time the United States had a balanced budget?"

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Lux, I just simply can't answer that right off the top of my head. I'd have to do some research. I think it was probably before we embarked on all of those big spending programs with the idea that government can solve all of our problems. I can't give you the specific date of that."

Representatives Lux, Heck, Grimm and Scott spoke against the memorial, and Representatives Williams, Owen and Salatino spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Nelson (G) demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Tilly closed debate, speaking again in favor of the memorial.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Isaacson: "Mr. Speaker, I would like a ruling on this amendment. I believe it is the subject of another bill still pending before the House, and I also believe it is beyond the scope and object of the bill."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Isaacson, House Rule 14(D) states, that '...no bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto or incorporating therein any other bill or resolution pending before the House.' The Speaker has examined the amendment and has examined the bill suggested as being incorporated, and finds very little similarity in the language between House Bill 1222, and the amendment, although the subject matter may be the same. Secondly, if I could draw your attention to Reed's Rule 112: 'Both these objections to present action must be presented before consideration has been entered upon. After debate has begun or other action has been taken it is too late.' The Speaker, therefore, will rule that the debate had begun, consideration had begun due to the fact that Representative Erak had already made the opening remarks in favor of the amendment, and therefore, your objection is not timely."

Representatives Isaacson, Lundquist and Kreidler spoke against the amendment, and Representatives James, Scott and Nelson (G) spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Erak spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Isaacson again opposed it.

March 3, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The President has signed:

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3743,
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4437,

and the same are herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker announced he was signing:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 751,
 HOUSE BILL NO. 832,
 HOUSE BILL NO. 844,
 HOUSE BILL NO. 1013,
 SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1041,
 HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 14,
 SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3743,
 SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4437.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 996, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Ellis, Ehlers, Eberle, Johnson, Hastings and James):

Allowing exemption from attendance at public schools upon basis of religious or personal beliefs of person having custody of child.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Ellis spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Ellis yielded to question by Ms. Cole.

Ms. Cole: "On page 2, line 34 would you define what a 'personal belief' is?"

Mr. Ellis: "I'll attempt to do so. I will have to relate to the background of religious beliefs to do so. The background in the area of conscientious objectors who did not have to sign up for service if they had a religious belief—that used to be a belief in God, but the cases have come along now to say that all you have to have is a sincere belief—a conviction sincerely held. So the personal belief here would be that either along religious lines or a personal belief like some of the home teachers have who aren't certificated teachers, that they can do a better job at home, and they are willing to undertake the duties to do so. It would have to be clear; it would have to be a personal belief sincerely held."

Ms. Cole: "There are some churches that really believe in segregation and that is a personal belief. Would that apply in this area?"

Mr. Ellis: "Certainly, it would apply. With what's going on in Congress and the Supreme Court case that's pending right now, those schools would not be entitled to a tax exemption, but there's no question in this country that if they want to have a school and teach racial segregation they can do so, but they are not going to get any tax exemption. By the way, I've got to say in passing, the American Civil Liberty Union supports this bill and the amendment."

Ms. Cole: "On page 3, line 12, what do you mean or how do you interpret it when it says, 'home or other school?'"

Mr. Ellis: "It's my understanding that that is to cover both the home situation, which is very clear, or a church school or a private school that doesn't meet the approval process. Apart from this bill, any group of students called together, either in church or wherever it might be, also would have to comply with fire and safety standards, and all of the zoning codes."

Ms. Cole: "Would there be any kind of qualifications required in terms of the person who is teaching the children in these other schools?"

Mr. Ellis: "There is no requirement in this statute—this is the compulsory attendance statute—on qualification of personnel, but duties that the parent undertakes here is to have the basic course of education, which is the same basic course as in approved schools, to teach regular hours, to have regular testing and the other provisions. Let me tell you once again, and I am answering your question directly, I know the WEA is very interested in certificated teachers. Our Supreme Court, on February 4 issued the opinion, and in the course of that opinion, a plurality of the judges—four of the judges—said, this is a quote, and I am summarizing it for brevity—they stated it was true the state does not have to put up with totally unqualified teachers in any of the contexts of teaching, but neither can the state require that teachers have the same qualifications as public school teachers. They quoted the Vermont case and there are three cases saying that. So, if the WEA wants a certificated process for these schools, they can implement that. They came out with one section, poorly written, and attempted to hang it onto this bill. I'll help them draft a right one, but they have to do it separately. New Mexico had an accreditation process for private schools and qualification of teachers in private schools; they ran it for about two years and cut it off entirely because it was too much burden on the state to administer. You cannot impose that kind of participation on these teachers."

Representatives Cole, Galloway and Valle spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives Padden, Sprague and Van Dyken spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Ellis yielded to question by Mr. Erak.

Mr. Erak: "Under the definition of private school, if somebody wishes to teach their children or have them taught in their home, how is this defined? Do they have to basically go through and put in the exits and the crash bars on the exit doors, and this kind of thing, to qualify for private school?"

Mr. Ellis: "Representative Erak, my understanding is that if they would go beyond their own child and invite other students in, then they will have to comply with fire and safety standards, yes. That's what the case is about that came out February 4. They tried to lay the regular fire and safety regulations onto the private schools and the Supreme Court said you can't do that. You can have fire and safety regulations, but address the matter reasonably. It was found absolutely safe for 250 people on Sunday under a fire inspection at a certain church, and one week later they said it wasn't safe for 35 students on Monday. The Supreme Court said you can't do that to them."

Mr. Erak spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Ellis closed debate, speaking again in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 996, and the bill failed to pass the House by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 59; not voting, 2.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 454 with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 8 strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The purpose of rehabilitation in workers' compensation is to return the injured worker to suitable gainful employment as soon as possible. The policy of the state is to provide early notification and referral of qualified injured workers to vocational rehabilitation services, development of comprehensive rehabilitation plans, and independent review and evaluation of service delivery. This policy shall be implemented with the express intent of assisting the qualified injured worker while avoiding expensive litigation and unnecessary time lost from work.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For purposes of this chapter, a 'qualified injured worker' means an employee who because of the effects of work-related injury or disease, whether or not combined with the effects of a prior industrial injury or disability:

(1) Is permanently precluded or likely to be precluded from engaging in the usual occupation or position in which the worker was engaged at the time of injury; and

(2) Can reasonably be expected to benefit from rehabilitation services which would significantly reduce or eliminate the decrease in the worker's employability.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is created an office of rehabilitation review within the industrial insurance division of the department of labor and industries. The office shall:

(1) Establish specific definitions, eligibility criteria, and timetables and procedures for the provision of vocational rehabilitation services;

(2) Mediate disputes;

(3) Review and approve or disapprove vocational rehabilitation plans; and

(4) Establish procedures for registration of rehabilitation counselors employed by the state, public, or private agencies and establish criteria and procedures for removal of registered rehabilitation counselors from the list for failure to comply with this chapter or the rules and regulations established by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of labor and industries shall have the authority to make, amend, and rescind in the manner prescribed by chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to carry out this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The vocational rehabilitation plan may include modification of the worker's occupation at the time of injury, provisions for alternative work with the same employer, modification of the worker's previous employment with a new employer, direct job placement assistance, on-the-job training, or short-term retraining subject to limitation by RCW 51.32.095. The plan shall define the responsibilities of the worker, employer, and other parties in implementing the plan.

(2) The following order of priorities is preferred in determining suitable gainful employment and developing vocational rehabilitation plans:

(a) Return to the previous job with the same employer;

(b) Modification of the previous job with the same employer including transitional return to work;

- (c) A new job with the same employer in keeping with any limitations or restrictions;
- (d) Modification of the previous job with a new employer;
- (e) A new job with a new employer or self-employment based upon transferable skills;
- (f) A new job with a new employer or self-employment involving on-the-job training;
- (g) Short-term retraining and job placement.

Prior to any modification of the order of these priorities, the plan shall first be submitted in writing to the office of rehabilitation review for authorization. In the cases involving return to the previous job with the same employer, modification of the previous job with the same employer, or a new job with the same employer, self-insurers shall submit a written, summary report to the office of vocational rehabilitation review but shall not be required to submit a complete, documented vocational rehabilitation plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) If a determination of ineligibility is unacceptable to a worker or employer, or if a vocational rehabilitation plan is unacceptable to a worker or employer, the worker or employer may petition the supervisor of industrial insurance to review the decision. The supervisor, or the supervisor's designee, shall render a final decision within thirty days of receipt of the petition for review.

(2) The worker or employer may appeal a final decision of the supervisor, or the supervisor's designee, to the board of industrial insurance appeals for an expedited appeal which shall be heard as provided in this section. Board review of such decisions shall be limited to matters of law. A final decision rendered within thirty days of the closing of the hearing proceeding, and the procedures relating to recommended decisions and orders, and petitions for review of same, as contained in RCW 51.52.104 and 51.52.106, shall not be applicable to appeals filed under this section. Further appeals taken from the final decision of the board shall be governed by the provisions relating to judicial review of administrative decisions contained in RCW 34.04.130 and 34.04.140 as now existing or hereafter amended. The department shall have the same right of review of the board's decision as does any other aggrieved party.

(3) For purposes of this section, 'expedited appeal' means an appeal filed with the board within fifteen working days after receipt of notice of the decision from the office of rehabilitation review. An expedited appeal shall be heard within thirty calendar days following receipt of (a) the notice of appeal from an aggrieved party, or (b) a legible copy of the records of the office of rehabilitation review, whichever is later. The hearing held under this section shall be recorded and shall be confined to review of the records of the office of rehabilitation review. However, in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure not revealed by the records, testimony concerning such irregularities may be received by the board. The board shall in addition have authority, upon request by the worker or the employer, to hear oral argument and receive written information concerning the matter in dispute.

(4) The board of industrial insurance appeals shall have the authority to make, amend, and rescind in a manner prescribed by chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to carry out this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. On or before January 1st of each year, the office of financial management shall submit to the legislature a rehabilitation performance audit of the activities of the office of rehabilitation review, the industrial insurance division, self-insurers, and private rehabilitation agencies. The performance audit shall include a statistical summary of all rehabilitation cases, a cost-benefit analysis of vocational rehabilitation plans, return-to-work data, and a comparison of public and private vocational rehabilitation services. The office of financial management may contract with a private firm to conduct the performance audit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Qualified injured workers shall participate in the approved vocational rehabilitation plan. For each week that a qualified injured worker does not participate without a showing of good cause, benefits shall be reduced by one-half on the order of the supervisor. Implementation of the plan shall begin as soon as the qualified injured worker is capable of participation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A qualified injured worker shall be entitled to continuation of temporary total disability benefits as defined in RCW 51.32.090:

- (1) During rehabilitation; and

(2) During the pendency of any petition for review to the supervisor or appeal to the board of industrial insurance appeals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, nothing in this chapter may be construed to annul or modify any lawful employment agreement entered into before the effective date of this act between an employer and an organization of workers. If a conflict exists between an employment agreement and any resolution, rule, policy, or regulation adopted under this chapter, the terms of the employment agreement shall prevail only if the employment agreement was entered into before the effective date of this act.

Sec. 11. Section 10, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 and RCW 51.32.095 are each amended to read as follows:

One of the primary purposes of this title is the restoration of the injured worker to gainful employment. To this end, the department shall utilize the services of individuals and organizations, public or private, whose experience, training, and interests in vocational rehabilitation and retraining qualify them to lend expert assistance to the supervisor of industrial insurance in such programs of vocational rehabilitation ((or)), retraining, and job placement as may be reasonable to qualify the worker for employment consistent with his or her physical and mental status. Where, after evaluation and recommendation by such individuals or organizations and prior to final evaluation of the worker's permanent disability and in the sole opinion of the supervisor or supervisor's designee, whether or not medical treatment has been concluded, vocational rehabilitation or retraining with job placement is both necessary and likely to restore the injured worker to a form of gainful employment, including self-employment, the supervisor or supervisor's designee may, in his or her sole discretion, pay or, if the employer is a self-insurer, direct the self-insurer to pay the cost of books, tuition, fees, supplies, equipment, ~~(and)~~ transportation, child or dependent care, and other necessary expenses for any such worker in an amount not to exceed ~~((one))~~ three thousand ((five-hundred)) dollars in any ~~((calendar-year))~~ fifty-two week period, and continue the temporary total disability compensation under RCW 51.32.090 while the worker is actively and successfully undergoing a formal program of vocational rehabilitation or retraining with job placement. Such expenses may include training fees for on-the-job training and the cost of furnishing tools and other equipment necessary for self-employment or reemployment: PROVIDED, That such compensation or payment of ((such vocational rehabilitation or)) retraining with job placement expenses may not be authorized for a period of more than fifty-two weeks: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such period may, in the sole discretion of the supervisor after his or her review, be extended for an additional fifty-two weeks or portion thereof by written order of the supervisor.

In cases where the worker is required to reside away from his or her customary residence, the reasonable cost of board and lodging shall also be paid. Said costs shall be chargeable to the employer's cost experience or shall be paid by the self-insurer as the case may be.

Sec. 12. Section 51.36.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 57, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the injury to any worker is so serious as to require his or her being taken from the place of injury to a place of treatment, his or her employer shall, at the expense of the medical aid fund, or self-insurer, as the case may be, furnish transportation to the nearest place of proper treatment.

(2) Every worker whose injury results in the loss of one or more limbs or eyes shall be provided with proper artificial substitutes and every worker, who suffers an injury to an eye producing an error of refraction, shall be once provided proper and properly equipped lenses to correct such error of refraction and his or her disability rating shall be based upon the loss of sight before correction.

(3) Every worker(;) whose accident results in damage to or destruction of an artificial limb, eye, or tooth, shall have same repaired or replaced.

(4) Every worker whose hearing aid or eyeglasses or lenses are damaged, destroyed, or lost as a result of an industrial accident shall have the same restored or replaced. The department or self-insurer shall be liable only for the cost of restoring damaged hearing aids or eyeglasses to their condition at the time of the accident.

(5) All mechanical appliances necessary in the treatment of an injured worker, such as braces, belts, casts, and crutches, shall be provided and all mechanical appliances required as permanent equipment after treatment has been completed shall continue to be provided or replaced without regard to the date of injury or date treatment was completed, notwithstanding any other provision of law.

(6) A worker, whose injury is of such short duration as to bring him or her within the time limit provisions of RCW 51.32.090, shall nevertheless receive during the omitted period medical, surgical, and hospital care and service and transportation under the provisions of this chapter.

(7) Whenever in the sole discretion of the supervisor it is reasonable and necessary to provide residence modifications necessary to meet the needs and requirements of the worker who has sustained catastrophic injury, the department or self-insurer may be ordered to pay an amount not to exceed the state's average annual wage for one year as determined under RCW 50.04.355, as now existing or hereafter amended, toward the cost of such modifications or construction. Such payment shall only be made for the construction or modification of a residence in which the injured worker resides. Only one residence of any worker may be modified or constructed under this subsection, although the supervisor may order more than one payment for any one home, up to the maximum amount permitted by this section.

(8) Whenever in the sole discretion of the supervisor it is reasonable and necessary to modify a motor vehicle owned by a worker who has become an amputee or becomes paralyzed because of an industrial injury, the supervisor may order up to fifty percent of the state's average annual wage for one year, as determined under RCW 50.04.355, as now existing or hereafter amended, to be paid by the department or self-insurer toward the costs thereof.

(9) The benefits provided by subsections (7) and (8) of this section are available to any otherwise eligible worker regardless of the date of industrial injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 51.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Modification of the injured worker's previous job is recognized as a desirable method of returning the injured worker to suitable gainful employment. In order to assist employers in meeting the costs of job modification, and to encourage employers to modify jobs to accommodate retaining or hiring workers with disabilities resulting from work-related injury, the supervisor in his or her discretion may pay job modification costs in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars per worker per job modification. This payment is intended to be a cooperative participation with the employer and funds shall be taken from the appropriate account within the second injury fund.

Sec. 14. Section 51.44.040, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 21, chapter 323, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.44.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There shall be in the office of the state treasurer, a fund to be known and designated as the 'second injury fund', which shall be used only for the purpose of defraying charges against it as provided in RCW 51.16.120 and section 13 of this 1982 act, as now or hereafter amended. Said fund shall be administered by the director. The state treasurer shall be the custodian of the second injury fund and shall be authorized to disburse moneys from it only upon written order of the director.

(2) Payments to the second injury fund from the accident fund shall be made pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the director.

(3) Assessments for the second injury fund shall be imposed on self-insurers pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the director to ensure that self-insurers shall pay to such fund in the proportion that the payments made from such fund on account of claims made against self-insurers bears to the total sum of payments from such fund.

Sec. 15. Section 51.12.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 128, Laws of 1981 and RCW 51.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(g) If the surviving spouse during the remarriage should die without having previously received the lump sum payment provided ((herein)) in (2)(f)(i) of this section, his or her estate shall be entitled to receive the sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension whichever is the lesser((-PROVIDED FURTHER, That if it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of this 1976 amendatory act the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund)).

(h) The effective date of ((an award)) resumption of payments under (2)(f)(ii) of this section to a surviving spouse based upon termination of a remarriage by death, annulment, or dissolution shall be the date of the death((:)) or the date the judicial decree of annulment or dissolution becomes final and when application for the payments has been received.

(i) If it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of the amendments in chapter 45, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess., the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund.

If any dependent is under the age of eighteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payment to such dependent shall cease when such dependent reaches the age of eighteen years except such payments shall continue until the dependent reaches age twenty-three while permanently enrolled at a full time course in an accredited school. The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

(6) If the injured worker dies during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a surviving spouse, or child, or children, the surviving spouse or child or children shall receive benefits as if death resulted from the injury as provided in subsections (2) through (4) of this section. Upon remarriage or death of such surviving spouse the payments to such child or children shall be made as provided in subsection (2) of this section when the surviving spouse of a deceased worker remarries.

However, such reduction shall not apply when the combined compensation provided pursuant to chapter 51.32 RCW and the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act is less than the total benefits to which the federal reduction would apply, pursuant to 42 USC 424a. Where any person described in this section refuses to authorize the release of information concerning the amount of benefits payable under said federal act the department's estimate of said amount shall be deemed to be correct unless and until the actual amount is established and no adjustment shall be made for any period of time covered by any such refusal.

(2) Any reduction under subsection (1) of this section shall be effective the month following the month in which the department or self-insurer is notified by the federal social security administration that the person is receiving disability benefits under the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act: PROVIDED, That in the event of an overpayment of benefits the department or self-insurer may not recover

(2) If, on appeal to the board, the order, decision, or award of the department is reversed or modified and additional relief is granted to a worker or beneficiary, or in cases where a party other than the worker or beneficiary is the appealing party and the worker's or beneficiary's right to relief is sustained by the board, the board shall fix a reasonable fee for the services of his or her attorney in proceedings before the board if written application therefor is made by the attorney, worker, or beneficiary. In fixing the amount of such attorney's fee, the board shall take into consideration the fee allowed, if any, by the director, for services before the department, and the board may review the fee fixed by said director. Any attorney's fee set by the department or the board may be reviewed by the superior court upon application of such attorney, worker, or beneficiary. The department or self-insured employer, as the case may be, shall be served a copy of the application and shall be entitled to appear and take part in the proceedings. In fixing the fee the court shall take into consideration the fee or fees, if any, fixed by the director and the board for such attorney's services before the department and the board. If the court finds that the fee fixed by the director or by the board is inadequate for services performed before the department or board, or if the director or the board has fixed no fee for such services, then the court shall fix a fee for the attorney's services before the department, or the board, as the case may be, in addition to the fee fixed for the services in the court. If the decision and order of the board is reversed or modified and if the accident fund is affected by the litigation then the attorney's fee fixed by the court for services before the court only, and the fees of medical and other witnesses and the costs shall be payable out of the administrative fund of the department.

In the case of self-insured employers, if the decision and order of the board is reversed or modified resulting in additional benefits by the litigation that would be paid from the accident fund if the employer were not self-insured, then the attorney fees fixed by the court for services before the court, only, and the fees of medical and other witnesses and the costs shall be payable directly by the self-insured employer.

Members of the committee shall serve without compensation of any sort.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The commission shall cease to exist at midnight, July 1, 1983. Upon the abolition of the commission on July 1, 1983, all powers, duties, and functions of the commission shall be transferred to the department of ecology.

On page 2, beginning on line 24 with "The" strike the remainder of the bill, and insert the following:

((The legislature declares that the interest of all of the people shall be paramount in the management of shorelines of state-wide significance. The department, in adopting guidelines for shorelines of state-wide significance, and local government, in developing master programs for shorelines of state-wide significance, shall give preference to uses in the following order of preference which:

(1) Recognize and protect the state-wide interest over local interest;

(2) Preserve the natural character of the shoreline;

(3) Result in long term over short term benefit;

(4) Protect the resources and ecology of the shoreline;

(5) Increase public access to publicly owned areas of the shorelines;

(6) Increase recreational opportunities for the public in the shoreline;

(7) Provide for any other element as defined in RCW 90.58-100 deemed appropriate or necessary.

In the implementation of this policy the public's opportunity to enjoy the physical and aesthetic qualities of natural shorelines of the state shall be preserved to the greatest extent feasible consistent with the overall best interest of the state and the people generally. To this end uses shall be preferred which are consistent with control of pollution and prevention of damage to the natural environment, or are unique to or dependent upon use of the state's shoreline. Alterations of the natural condition of the shorelines of the state, in those limited instances when authorized, shall be given priority for single family residences, ports, shoreline recreational uses including but not limited to parks, marinas, piers, and other improvements facilitating ~~public access to shorelines of the state, industrial and commercial developments which are particularly dependent on their location on or use of the shorelines of the state and other development that will provide an opportunity for substantial numbers of the people to enjoy the shorelines of the state.~~

~~Permitted uses in the shorelines of the state shall be designed and conducted in a manner to minimize, insofar as practical, any resultant damage to the ecology and environment of the shoreline area and any interference with the public's use of the water.)~~

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the department made within one year prior to the effective date of this act, that rejected, conditionally approved, or approved proposed adjustments to a local government master program may seek review by the shorelines hearings board of such decision by filing a request for the same with the board if a request for review is filed within thirty days after the effective date of this act. The review by the shorelines hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW. The shorelines hearings board shall consider if the proposed adjustment is consistent with the policies of chapter 90.58 RCW and the promotion of the economic vitality of the state. A proposed adjustment may only be rejected if the shorelines hearings board finds that it is not consistent with such policies.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any adjustment to its master program made after the effective date of this act, by a local government shall become effective ninety days after its adoption without approval by the department, except when an appeal is filed as hereinafter provided. An adjustment may only be adopted by the local government if, prior to its adoption, a public hearing was held on the proposal. At least three weeks prior to this hearing the local government proposing to adjust its master program shall provide written notification of the proposal to the department. The department, as the primary agency responsible for the administration of this chapter, shall both notify other affected state agencies of the proposal and provide advice and counsel to the local government proposing the adjustments. After a local government adopts an adjustment to its master program, it shall immediately send a copy of its adjustment to the department. The department shall send copies of the adjustment to any state agency which may have an interest in the adjustment.

During this ninety-day period any state agency or any aggrieved person may appeal such adjustment to the shorelines hearings board as not being consistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020. Review by the hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW, except that an appeal to the superior court from a final decision of the hearings board shall only be made to the superior court of the county within whose boundaries the land subject to the proposed adjustment if primarily located, and venue for any such action shall lie in that county. The review by the hearings board shall be heard within the county where the land subject to the proposed adjustment is primarily located. The board, after full consideration of the presentations of the local government and the aggrieved party or agency, shall make a balanced determination of the validity of the local government's ordinance in light of the policies and standards for implementation set forth in the act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the shorelines hearings board under sections 2 or 3 of this act may seek judicial review thereof by filing a petition in the superior court of the county within whose boundaries the land subjected to the proposed adjustments is located.

Sec. 5. Section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 2, chapter 64, Laws of 1981 and RCW 34.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to the state militia, or the board of prison terms and paroles, or any institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.19.020. The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 shall not apply to the board of industrial insurance appeals or the board of tax appeals unless an election is made pursuant to RCW 82.03.140 or 82.03.190. To the extent they are inconsistent with RCW 80.50.140, the provisions of RCW 34.04.130, 34.04.133, and 34.04.140 shall not apply to review of decisions made under RCW 80.50.100. To the extent they are inconsistent with sections 2, 3, and 4 of this 1982 act; (1) RCW 34.04.090, 34.04.100, and 34.04.105 do not apply to the review by the shorelines hearings board of proposed adjustments to a local government master program; and (2) RCW 34.04.130 does not apply to the superior court where review of a final decision by the shorelines hearings board on proposed adjustments to a local government master program may be sought. All other agencies, whether or not formerly specifically excluded from the provisions of all or any part of the administrative procedure act, shall be subject to the entire act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Section 19, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.190 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Thinking about the situation with the Washington Public Power Supply System for a moment—if WPPSS decided to make a procurement in excess of $500,000—if this amendment passes and all and all of the participants in WPPSS used this amendment as a way to withdraw from WPPSS, where then would you see the bonded indebtedness relative to WPPSS going?"

Mr. James: "The purpose of this amendment is to make it difficult as you have indicated. Certainly, in regard to the management of WPPSS—and I do have a great deal of respect for the existing management of WPPSS, and I've given them a great deal of support in a good many ways and will continue to do so—this does create a method whereby we can focus on the responsibility of that management and the discharge of duties to the participants, and this certainly gives the participants a hammer."

Mr. Vander Stoep: "Could I ask the question again, Representative James? If the Washington Public Power Supply System decided to make a procurement in excess of $500,000, if this amendment passes and all of the entities making up WPPSS decided to use this amendment as a way to withdraw from WPPSS, where then would the bonded indebtedness fall, in your opinion?"

Mr. James: "I would rather defer to legal counsel on that rather than give you my opinion on it; however, I think that potentiality is extremely remote."

Representatives Vander Stoep and Wang spoke against the amendment, and it was not adopted.

Substitute House Bill No. 1053 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1039, by Representatives Eberle and Sanders:

Removing authority of state liquor stores to sell beer and wine.

The bill was read the second time. On motion of Mr. Williams, Substitute House Bill No. 1039 was substituted for House Bill No. 1039, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 1039 was read the second time.

Mr. Struthers moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Struthers, Sommers, Amen, Kreidler, McCormick, Flanagan and Fancher:

On page 1, beginning on line 8 strike all of sections 1 and 2 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct all internal references accordingly.

On page 2, line 15 after "public." insert:

"The legislative budget committee study shall be submitted to the legislature no later than January 15, 1983."

On page 2, beginning on line 22 strike all of section 5.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Sanders: "Mr. Speaker, this, in effect, is 180° from the intent of the bill, and Reed's Rules of Order say that is out of order."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. AMEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Amen presiding): "This does not turn the intent around, so the amendment is in order."

Mr. Struthers spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Eberle spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eberle yielded to question by Ms. Brekke.

Ms. Brekke: "Representative Eberle, you are talking about gaining money, and aside from the warehouse thing which you mentioned afterwards, how would the Liquor Control Board gain money by removing wine and beer?"

Mr. Eberle: "Representative Brekke, you have hit upon the crux of the matter as a matter of fact. What happens is that beer and wine, which make up only about eighteen percent of the sales of the liquor store, use up about thirty percent of the shelf space. It turns out the Liquor Board only stocks about three or four or, maybe, five hundred varieties of liquor, and that includes many different size bottles, when there are about sixteen hundred varieties available. There are a number of quite expensive liquors, and such, that they do not stock. An analysis by a competent retail expert has shown that if they would stock the other varieties, they would undoubtedly sell some of them. If they sold the higher priced varieties, the average sale price would increase and when the average sale price increases, even for the same number of ounces sold, you get more profit. When you distribute more profit among local, county and state government, everybody has more money."

Representatives Brekke and Sommers spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives McGinnis, Owen and Thompson spoke against them.

Mr. Struthers spoke again in favor of the amendments.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question and the demand was not sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eberle yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "Representative Eberle, I understood Representative Owen to say that the stores have to buy the wine and beer from a wholesaler, but the liquor stores can buy direct from the winery or the brewery. Is that true?"

Mr. Eberle: "Under certain circumstances, based on the Des Moines Convention, that is basically correct. It is not precisely correct, but in practical effect, it is correct."

Mr. Flanagan: "Why is that?"

Mr. Eberle: "That's because, Representative Flanagan, the states in the United States that do have the liquor monopoly met in Des Moines, and they made an agreement that they would not buy any liquor or wine from a wholesaler that did not sell to everyone at the same low price, so that between all the states that buy on a monopoly basis, the state of Washington then may start out any certain quarter and order at a particular price, and if they discover within that same quarter that another state is buying the same brand and variety at a lower price, then they can demand the lower price. The private sector can't do that. So the net effect is that the state of Washington gets to buy things at a lower price based on the monopoly state laws than at which the private retailers get to buy."

Mr. Flanagan spoke in favor of the amendments.

If the court does not release the child to his or her parent, guardian, or legal custodian, the court shall order continued shelter care or order placement with another suitable person, and the court shall set forth its reasons for the order.

(7) An order releasing the child on any conditions specified in this section may at any time be amended, with notice and hearing thereon, so as to return the child to shelter care for failure of the parties to conform to the conditions originally imposed.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4831 as amended by the House, by Senators Jones, Bottiger, Vognil, Bauer, Quigg and Sellar:

Designating shorelines of state-wide economic significance.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Van Dyken, Brekke, Patrick and Dawson spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives Barrett, Eberle and King (R) spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Sanders yielded to question by Mr. Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong: "Representative Sanders, is it your belief that the state Legislature, by enacting this bill, is in the land use planning business?"

Mr. Sanders: "Yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Becker yielded to question by Mr. Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong: "Representative Becker, a rezone or a spot zone is an action whereby a small area is singled out of a larger area for special treatment for the private benefit of one company. Is the shoreline identified in your home area in this bill a small area singled out of a larger area?"

Ms. Becker: "Representative Armstrong, it is a stretch of shoreline of about a mile and a half. About four miles on either side of this particular shoreline is land that is zoned conservancy. Except for three piers in an entire nine-mile stretch, which were put in before the shoreline act was passed, there is no fill on the entire nine-mile stretch of shoreline. I think the answer to your question is yes."

Mr. Armstrong: "Will other landowners within the rezoned shoreline area benefit from the rezone?"

Ms. Becker: "Representative Armstrong, in this particular stretch of shoreline that is identified in the bill, there are only two other companies that own land along that particular shoreline. Interestingly enough, the two oil companies that were mentioned earlier are not among them. The two companies are Intalco and Puget Power, and neither of them have any announced plans to do anything with this new kind of zoning. The fact is that the shoreline is not identified by any particular boundaries. It is just a very small mile and a half stretch of shoreline, and the effect of the bill would be that, whereas people in this shoreline could dredge and fill to build oil drilling rigs, their next door neighbors on either side of them would not be able to do that."

Mr. Armstrong: "Would we be considering this bill if it were not for CBI, and the jobs they are promising?"

Ms. Becker: "Representative Armstrong, I think the only justification being held out here for this change in zoning is the promise of jobs. Even though there is a rule that says you must have changed conditions in order to justify a change in zoning, there are no changed conditions here. The company in question was well aware of the zoning that existed before they pursued this project and no conditions have changed."

Mr. Armstrong spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. King (R): "I make this point in terms of the concept of 'Group Privilege.' Normally, legislative intent can sometimes be read into the record by a series of questions and answers between members, but that is usually done between the proponents of the measure. I simply want to point out, and I think I'm doing so on behalf of a majority of the members in this body at the moment, that we've just heard a series of questions that occurred between people who oppose the measure before us and which would, in no sense, represent legislative intent."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Mr. Barrett.

Mr. Barrett: "Representative Isaacson, I'm intrigued by the subject matter that has been brought up within the last few minutes. As Chairman of the Local Government Committee of the House of Representatives, do you feel this bill creates spot zoning by this Legislature?"

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Barrett, I don't see in any way how this can be construed as spot zoning. Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4831 is not spot zoning. I would like to refer to the words of Representative Van Dyken, quoting from Smith versus Skagit County last night: 'Spot zoning has come to mean arbitrary and unreasonable action by which a small area is singled out of a larger area or district and specially zoned for use classification totally different from an inconsistent list of classifications of the surrounding lands and not in accordance with a comprehensive plan.' In this case, the court was talking about a rezone by the Skagit County commissioners, not an action of the legislature, which designated a 470 acre tract in the middle of 5,500 acres on Guemas Island from resident-recreational to heavy industrial for an aluminum plant. Let's look a little more closely at what Representative Van Dyken told us. It is not the fact that a smaller area is differentiated from a larger one that makes spot zoning; it is the fact that the action must be arbitrary and capricious. The designation must be totally different and inconsistent with the classifications of the surrounding lands. This is what classifies an action as spot zoning."

"Engrossed Senate Bill 4831 represents a totally different set of facts and circumstances. Cherry Point is Whatcom County's heavy industrial zoned area. The dike we're talking about is situated between the aluminum plant and an oil refinery as has been discussed, each with a landfill and a long pier. Nearby is another oil refinery, probably owned by railroad, power companies and other oil companies. For as long as they have been planning and zoning Whatcom County, this has been the heavy industrial area. It was the act of the Legislature in 1971 that led to a conservancy area being established in an industrial site of state and regional economic significance. Cherry Point has all the factors for attracting large industries: Transcontinental railways, wholesale power, available land, all rezoned for heavy industry, abundant water supply, a nearby interstate freeway, available natural gas, and most importantly, a sheltered deep water area characterized by a nonmarshy natural cut. The work force is skilled and productive, and the climate is mild. There are vocational community colleges and higher education facilities available for training entry level personnel—"

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Rinehart: "Mr. Speaker, I believe the Representative is reading material without permission of the body."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Rinehart, the rule states that you may not read papers without consent of the House, and that has been generally construed to mean a text that you might read into the record, such as might happen with a congressional record or something. The members may use their own notes to reference. Representative Isaacson, if you can just refer to your notes without reading verbatim it would be appreciated."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Warnke: "Mr. Speaker, the gentlemen is now giving a speech and not answering the question that had been directed to him."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The remarks that I was understanding, Representative Warnke, were in relation to the question of whether it constituted spot zoning and, as I understood the remarks, he was responding as to why it doesn't consist of spot zoning in relation to Representative Van Dyken's reference last evening as to what does constitute spot zoning."

Mr. Isaacson: "I would like to continue my answer. Schools and colleges are available for personnel to train them for higher skills, and right now, Whatcom County has over thirteen percent unemployed. In summary, the designation is not a spot zone because these shorelines are designated as shorelines of economic significance. This definition is consistent with the surrounding land, the adjacent areas. This benefits the greater good of the community, as we have discussed, and besides that, it just makes good sense."

Representatives Ellis, Valle and Hine spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives Brown and Garson spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lundquist yielded to question by Mr. Garson.

Mr. Garson: "Representative Lundquist, do you know of any landfills that are now in this area that we've been discussing this evening?"

Mr. Lundquist: "Yes, Representative Garson, there are substantial landfills in that particular area right now. I've been by them in my gillnet boat and I've looked at them. They are there because Whatcom County had zoned that portion of their county for industrial development, providing an industrial development that would have water access. That was the point of the landfills that are there. If you would like to know the size of them, I can certainly give you better than a visual inspection. This is testimony that was given in the hearing in Whatcom County: There is a landfill near the Lummi Indian agriculture project, 700 acres of marine environment, 17,000 feet long, 25 acres of intertidal marine habitat, 700 acres and 7,000 feet of conservancy shorelines was involved in this. The developments that are there, the pier that we are talking about is a mobile dock which is on the end of a 500x300 foot landfill. There is an Intalco dock, which is on the end of an 800x250 foot landfill. The Sandy Point Marina which required 55 acres, and one million yards of intertidal and shore area. There are others, but I think that establishes the fact that there are some landfills in that area now."

Mr. Garson continued his remarks in favor of the bill.

Mr. Amen demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Mr. Hastings demanded an oral roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Warnke, Cole, Nisbet and Becker spoke against the bill, and Representatives Fancher and Bender spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4831 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 50; nays, 46; not voting, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Amen, Barnes, Barr, Barrett, Bender, Bickham, Bond, Brown, Cantu, Chamberlain, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Eberle, Ehlers, Fancher, Fiske, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garson, Hankins, Hastings, Houchen, Isaacson, James, King J., King R., Leonard, Lundquist, McCormick, Mitchell, Nelson G. A., Nickell, O'Brien, Owen, Prince, Rosbach, Sanders, Schmidt, Scott, Smith, Sprague, Stratton, Struthers, Thompson, Tilly, Williams, Wilson, Winsley, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Armstrong, Becker, Berleen, Brekke, Burns, Cole, Dawson, Ellis, Eng, Erak, Galloway, Garrett, Granlund, Greengo, Grimm, Heck, Hine, Johnson, Kaiser, Kreidler, Lux, Martinis, Maxie, McDonald, Monohon, Nelson D., Nisbet, North, Padden, Patrick, Pruitt, Rinehart, Rust, Salatino, Sherman, Sommers, Taylor, Teutsch, Tupper, Valle, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Walk, Wang, Warnke.

Not voting: Representatives Lewis, McGinnis.

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 as amended by section 1, chapter 177, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 39.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The term state shall include the state of Washington and all departments, supervisors, commissioners and agencies thereof.

The term municipality shall include every city, county, town, district or other public agency thereof which is authorized by law to require the execution of public work, except drainage districts, diking districts, diking and drainage improvement districts, drainage improvement districts, diking improvement districts, consolidated diking and drainage improvement districts, consolidated drainage improvement districts, consolidated diking improvement districts, irrigation districts or any such other districts as shall from time to time be authorized by law for the reclamation or development of waste or undeveloped lands.

The term public work shall include all work, construction, alteration, repair, or improvement other than ordinary maintenance, executed at the cost of the state or of any municipality, or which is by law a lien or charge on any property therein, but nothing herein shall apply to the construction, alteration, repair, or improvement of any municipal street railway system. All public works, including maintenance when performed by contract shall comply with the provisions of RCW 39.12.020.

The term contract shall mean a contract in writing for the execution of public work for a fixed or determinable amount duly awarded after advertisement and competitive bid. However, a contract which is awarded from a small works roster under the authority of section 2 of this 1982 act need not be advertised.

Cost of superintendence, engineering, clerical and accounting service shall include all expenditures specially incurred for such service, and shall include a proportionate charge for the time of all salaried officers, engineers, clerks, accountants and employees of the state or municipality while engaged in such work or in keeping or preparing the estimates, accounts and records thereof.

(1) As used in this section, 'agency' means the department of general administration, the department of fisheries, the department of game, and the state parks and recreation commission.

(2) In addition to any other power or authority that an agency may have, each agency, alone or in concert, may establish a small works roster consisting of all qualified contractors who have requested to be included on the roster.

(3) The small works roster may make distinctions between contractors based on the geographic areas served and the nature of the work the contractor is qualified to perform. At least once every year, the agency shall advertise in a newspaper of general circulation the existence of the small works roster and shall add to the roster those contractors who request to be included on the roster.

(4) Construction, repair, or alteration projects estimated to cost less than twenty-five thousand dollars are exempt from the requirement that the contracts be awarded after advertisement and competitive bid as defined by RCW 39.04.010. In lieu of advertisement and competitive bid, the agency shall solicit at least five quotations, confirmed in writing, from the contractors on the small works roster and shall award the work to the party with the lowest quotation or reject all quotations. If the agency is unable to solicit quotations from five qualified contractors on the small works roster for a particular project, then the project shall be advertised and competitively bid. The agency shall solicit quotations randomly from contractors on the small works roster in a manner which will equitably distribute the opportunity for these contracts among contractors on the roster: PROVIDED, That whenever possible, the agency shall invite at least one proposal from a minority contractor who shall otherwise qualify to perform such work. Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and available by telephone request.

(5) The breaking down of any public work or improvement into units or accomplishing any public work or improvement by phases for the purpose of avoiding the minimum dollar amount for bidding is contrary to public policy and is prohibited.

(6) The director of general administration shall adopt by rule a procedure to prequalify contractors for inclusion on the small works roster. Each agency shall follow the procedure adopted by the director of general administration. No agency shall be required to make available for public inspection or copying under chapter 42.17 RCW financial information required to be provided by the prequalification procedure.

(7) An agency may adopt by rule procedures to implement this section which shall not be inconsistent with the procedures adopted by the director of the department of general administration pursuant to subsection (6) of this section.

- (4) The governor is the sole official organ of communication between the government of this state and the government of any other state or territory, or of the United States;
- (5) Whenever any suit or legal proceeding is pending against this state, or which may affect the title of this state to any property, or which may result in any claim against the state, the governor may direct the attorney general to appear on behalf of the state, and report the same to the governor, or to any grand jury designated by the governor, or to the legislature when next in session; established or may later become established and that may seriously endanger the agricultural or horticultural industries, or which seriously threaten life, health, or economic well-being of the state of Washington. Such measures, after thorough evaluation of all other alternatives, may include the aerial application of pesticides.

For the purposes of this section, each person on the list shall be known, for the duration of the person's services under the program, as 'an emergency measures worker.'

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Addison yielded to question by Mr. Padden.

Mr. Padden: "Representative Addison, I read in the bill report that the fiscal impact on this bill is the same as House Bill 1169 and that fiscal impact would be significant, both in terms of additional costs and potential savings, and would affect most state agencies. However, there is no way to reasonably estimate the impact without extensive research. I'm wondering if you could give us any idea of the varied factors that might be involved so we can have some rough idea of what the fiscal impact really might be on this bill?"

Mr. Addison: "We're talking about reducing the amount of paperwork by fifteen percent, so if the amount of paperwork handled by an individual bureaucrat is on the average reduced by fifteen percent, it's reasonable to believe that we would be seeing a rather dramatic cost savings to state government. While you can't estimate exactly how much the paperwork costs state government, we can say that by reducing it, we would save money. Probably more important is the savings to those business people and those individuals out there who shell out the paperwork. We all know the information collected by state government is rather horrendous and what this attempts to do is ask the agencies to prioritize that information they have been collecting but not using, to try and cut out some of those unneeded types of information they do collect."

A health care facility (or any part thereof) or medical equipment with respect to which a certificate of need was issued under this subsection may not be sold or leased and a controlling interest in such facility or equipment or in a lease of such facility or equipment may not be acquired unless the department issues a certificate of need approving the sale, acquisition, or lease.

The conditions shall directly relate to the project being reviewed. The conditions may be released if it can be substantiated that the conditions are no longer valid and the release of such conditions would be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(6) Criteria adopted for review in accordance with subsection (2) of this section may vary according to the purpose for which the particular review is being conducted or the type of health service reviewed.

(7) Any applicant denied a certificate of need or whose certificate of need has been suspended or revoked shall be afforded an opportunity for administrative review in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW and a hearing shall be held within one hundred twenty days of a request therefor. If the applicant is a hospital licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW, any substantial evidence, justification, or other information developed subsequent to the decision of the secretary may be introduced at the hearing.

Mr. Williams: "The legislature in the past twenty years has attempted to address the problems. I was not a member of the legislature twenty years ago, but if you would like the legislative history, I could read it to you. Unfortunately, from the original legislation which created the joint operating agency, we set up a Washington State Power Commission which was a creature of the state which had the oversight responsibilities for WPPSS. At that time there was no WPPSS, there was just JOA. The succeeding legislatures finally omitted the check and balance in the system. Coincidentally, the year that was omitted, WPPSS was formed."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 6, chapter 192, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.380 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who submits satisfactory proof to the director that he or she has lost both of his or her lower extremities, or has lost the normal or full use thereof, or is so severely disabled as to be unable to move without the aid of crutches or a wheelchair, or has lost both hands, or who suffers from lung disease to such an extent that forced expiratory respiratory volume, when measured by spirometry, is less than one liter per second, shall be entitled to receive both a special card to be left in a vehicle in a conspicuous place (bearing) and, for one motor vehicle only, a special decal to be affixed to the vehicle in a conspicuous place designated by the director. In lieu of the decal and regular motor vehicle license plates, the disabled person is entitled to receive a special license plate. The special card, decal, and special license plates shall bear distinguishing marks, letters, or numerals indicating that the vehicle is being used to transport such a disabled person. ((Such a disabled person shall also be entitled to receive for one motor vehicle only, a special decal to be affixed to the vehicle in a conspicuous place designated by the director, bearing distinguishing marks, letters, or numerals indicating that the vehicle is owned by or primarily used for such a disabled person. The disabled person is also entitled to receive, in lieu of the decal and regular motor vehicle license plates, special license plates bearing distinguishing marks, letters, or numerals indicating that the vehicle is owned by such a disabled person.)) Vehicles displaying the special license plate, card, or decal shall be entitled to use parking places otherwise reserved for physically disabled persons ((pursuant to chapter 70-92 RCW, or authority implemental thereof)). Whenever the disabled person transfers or assigns his or her interest in the vehicle, the special decals or license plates shall be removed from the motor vehicle. Such person shall immediately surrender the decal to the director together with a notice of the transfer of interest in such vehicle. If another vehicle is acquired by, or for the primary use of, the disabled person, a new decal shall be issued by the director. Application for renewal, except for the permanently disabled who shall be issued a permanent card, must be made by January 10th of each renewal year together with satisfactory proof of the right to continued use of such special card and decal. If another vehicle is acquired by the disabled person and special plates are used, they shall be attached to the vehicle, and the director shall be immediately notified of the transfer of plates. If another vehicle is not acquired by the disabled person, the removed plates shall be immediately forwarded to the director to be reissued later upon payment of the regular registration fee.

The special license plates shall be renewed in the same manner and at the time required for the renewal of regular motor vehicle license plates under this chapter. No special license plate may be issued to a person who is temporarily disabled. A person who is permanently disabled under this section shall be issued a permanent card. A person who is temporarily disabled under this section shall be issued a temporary card which shall be renewed, at such times as the director may require, by satisfactory proof of the right to continued use of the card.

No additional fees shall be charged for the issuance of the special card and decal, and, at the time the vehicle is originally licensed in this state or the license is up for renewal, no additional fee may be charged for the issuance of the special license plates except the regular motor vehicle registration fee and any other fees and taxes required to be paid upon initial registration or renewal of a motor vehicle. On July 1, 1980, any disabled person who is entitled to receive a special license plate under this section and who has valid Washington state license plates for his or her motor vehicle shall be entitled to receive special license plates upon payment of the fee prescribed in RCW 46.16.270 and surrender of the existing plates.

The director shall promulgate such rules and regulations as he or she deems necessary to carry into effect this section.

Any unauthorized use of the special card, the decal, or the special license plate is a traffic infraction.

This section shall have no application to those zones or areas in which the stopping, parking, or standing of all vehicles is prohibited or which are reserved for special types of vehicles. Debts due the state pursuant to the provisions of this section, may be recovered by the state by deduction from the subsequent assistance payments to such persons, lien and foreclosure, order to withhold and deliver, or may be recovered by a civil action instituted by the attorney general.

Sec. 17. Section 1, chapter 102, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.04.530 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any provisions in Title 51 RCW to the contrary, by accepting public assistance from the department of social and health services, the recipient thereof shall be deemed to have subrogated said department to the recipient's right to recover net time loss compensation due to such recipient and his or her dependents pursuant to the provisions of Title 51 RCW of up to eighty percent of the extent of such assistance or compensation, whichever is less, furnished to the recipient and his or her dependents for or during the period for which time loss compensation is payable: PROVIDED, That ((where public assistance has been furnished to one or more persons to whom such a recipient owes a duty of support, whether such duty has been expressed by an order of court or otherwise, the department's right to recover any time loss compensation shall be limited to that part of such compensation allocated to such persons by RCW 51.32.090: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That)) the amount to be repaid to the department of social and health services shall bear its proportionate share of attorney's fees and costs, if any, incurred by the injured workman or his dependents. The department of social and health services may assert and enforce a lien and notice to withhold and deliver as hereinafter provided to secure reimbursement of any public assistance paid for or during the period and for the purposes expressed in this section: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no claim for payment under chapter 73.34 RCW shall be subject to garnishment, attachment, levy, or execution.

Sec. 18. Section 1, chapter 163, Laws of 1981 and RCW 74.04.700 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who owes a debt to the state for an overpayment of public assistance ((obtained as a result of a willfully false statement, or representation, or impersonation, or other fraudulent device, or willful failure to reveal resources or income)) and/or food stamps shall be notified of that debt by either personal service or certified mail, return receipt requested. Personal service, return of the requested receipt, or refusal by the debtor of such notice is proof of notice to the debtor of the debt owed. Service of the notice shall be in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action. The notice shall include a statement of the debt owed; a statement that the property of the debtor will be subject to collection action after the debtor terminates from public assistance and/or food stamps; a statement that the property will be subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver; and a statement that the net proceeds will be applied to the satisfaction of the overpayment debt. Action to collect the debt by lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver, is lawful after ninety days from the debtor's termination from public assistance and/or food stamps or the receipt of the notice of debt, whichever is later. This does not preclude the department from recovering ((fraudulent)) overpayments by deduction from subsequent assistance payments, not exceeding ((ten percent of each subsequent assistance payment)) deductions as authorized under federal law with regard to financial assistance programs: PROVIDED, That subject to federal legal requirement, deductions shall not exceed five percent of the grant payment standard if the overpayment resulted from error on the part of the department or error on the part of the recipient without willful or knowing intent of the recipient in obtaining or retaining the overpayment.

(2) Any debtor who alleges defenses to the debt or disputes the stated amount of the debt has the right to request in writing a hearing pursuant to RCW 74.08.070. If no such request is made, the debt will be subject to collection action as authorized under this chapter. If a timely request is made, the execution of collection action on the debt shall be stayed pending the decision of the hearing or termination of the debtor from public assistance and/or food stamps, whichever occurs later. The right to an appeal shall be governed by RCW 74.08.070, 74.08.080, and the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 74.09 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department is authorized to establish copayment, deductible, or coinsurance requirements for recipients of any medical programs defined in RCW 74.09.010 but shall not establish copayment, deductible or coinsurance requirements for legend drugs as defined in RCW 69.41.210, unless required by federal law.

Sec. 20. Section 5, chapter 322, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the department of social and health services receives an application for public assistance on behalf of a child ((and it shall appear to the satisfaction of the department that said child has been abandoned by its parents or that the child and one parent have been abandoned by the other parent or that the parent or other person who has a responsibility for the care, support, or maintenance of such child has failed or neglected to give proper care or support to such child)), the department shall take appropriate action under the provisions of this chapter, ((the abandonment or nonsupport statutes)) chapter 74.20A RCW, or other appropriate statutes of this state to ((insure that such parent or other person responsible shall pay for the care, support, or maintenance of said dependent child)) establish or enforce support obligations against the parent or other persons owing a duty to pay support moneys.

The department shall collect data from cases of support under RCW 74.20.270 where there is no court-ordered support obligation. Such data shall include: Income characteristics of those obligated to pay support, obligation established, and resulting payments. The department shall report its findings to the appropriate legislative committees by January 1, 1983. The department shall reconsider its administrative standards under RCW 74.20.270 in light of relevant data and shall, to the extent feasible without substantial impact on aid to families with dependent children, bring those standards into conformity with payment standards based on actual experience.

(2) The secretary may accept applications for support enforcement services on behalf of persons who are not recipients of public assistance and may take action as he deems appropriate to establish or enforce support obligations against the parent or other persons owing a duty to pay moneys. Applications accepted under this section may be conditioned upon the payment of a fee as required through regulation issued by the secretary. Action may be taken under the provisions of chapter 74.20 RCW, the abandonment or non-support statutes, or other appropriate statutes of this state, including but not limited to remedies established in chapter 74.20A RCW, to establish and enforce said support obligations. The secretary may establish by regulation, such reasonable standards as he deems necessary to limit applications for support enforcement services. Said standards shall take into account the income, property, or other resources already available to support said person for whom a support obligation exists.

(3) The secretary may charge a fee to compensate the department for services rendered in establishment of or enforcement of support obligations. This fee shall be agreed on in writing with the custodian or guardian of the person for whom a support obligation is owed, or that person if no custodian or guardian exists and shall be limited to not more than ten percent of any support money collected as a result of action taken by the secretary. The secretary shall by regulation establish reasonable fees for support enforcement services and said schedule of fees shall be made available to all applicants for support enforcement services. The secretary may, on showing of necessity, waive or defer any such fee.

(4) The secretary may impose a fee on the individual who owes a child support or spousal support obligation with respect to all such child and spousal support obligations for which collection is made on behalf of persons who are not recipients of public assistance.

Fees, due and owing, may be collected as delinquent support moneys utilizing any of the remedies in chapter 74.20 RCW, chapter 74.20A RCW, chapter 26.21 RCW, or any other remedy at law or equity available to the department or any agencies with whom it has a cooperative or contractual arrangement to establish, enforce, or collect support moneys or support obligations.

(5) The secretary may waive the fee, or any portion thereof, as a part of a compromise of disputed claims or may grant partial or total charge off of said fee if the secretary finds there are no available, practical, or lawful means by which said fee may be collected or to facilitate payment of the amount of delinquent support moneys owed.

Sec. 21. Section 9, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a support lien or order to withhold and deliver is served upon any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state asserting a support debt against earnings and there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state, any such earnings, RCW 7.33.280 shall not apply, but fifty percent of the disposable earnings shall be exempt and may be disbursed to the debtor whether such earnings are paid, or to be paid weekly, monthly, or at other intervals and whether there be due the debtor earnings for one week or for a longer period. The lien or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state to withhold the nonexempt portion of earnings at each succeeding earnings disbursement interval until the entire amount of the support debt stated in the lien or order to withhold and deliver has been withheld. As used in this chapter, the term 'earnings' means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making such payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligation, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title (56- or) 74 RCW. Earnings shall specifically include all gain derived from capital, from labor, or from both combined, not including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital assets. The term 'disposable earnings' means that part of the earnings of any individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Section 1, chapter 91, Laws of 1965 ex. sess., section 307, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 74.04.305 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A joint select committee on financial responsibility for residential and non-residential services shall be created. Such committee shall study the equity and fairness among the various services provided to clients and families of similar needs and the fees charged to clients and families of similar needs. The committee shall determine whether there is justification for differences in responsibilities of parents for residential services provided to children, and further determine whether fees for residential services are in excess of or less than what parents of similar income would likely expend for a child at home.

The study shall further examine methods for instituting a common, uniform and consistent approach to charging fees for residential and nonresidential services provided by the department which includes but is not limited to the following considerations:

- (1) The ability of parents to pay for services;
- (2) Financial considerations for encouraging parental contact with institutionalized children; and
- (3) Appropriate offsets to any liabilities to be imposed on parents.

In addition, the study committee shall take the following into consideration when developing its recommendations:

- (1) Methods to maximize support from third party payors, including the military where appropriate;
- (2) The need to minimize disruption to the current service level because of diminished general state revenues;
- (3) The financial responsibility programs utilized by other states for similar services; and

(4) The need to ensure that the financial obligations of the parent do not discourage the participation in necessary residential and nonresidential services.

The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate shall appoint the joint select committee composed of six members of the house of representatives and six members of the senate, three members of the majority caucus and three members of the minority caucus each. A report of the findings of this study shall be submitted to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate no later than January 1, 1983, along with recommendations for legislative action."

(8) An 'additional benefit period' means a period within an extended benefit period which:

(a) Begins with the third week after a week for which:

(i) The governor determines that adverse economic conditions and high unemployment among the state's workers necessitate payment of additional benefits; and

(ii) The commissioner determines that, for the fifty-two consecutive weeks ending with such week, the rate of insured unemployment as calculated under (d) of this subsection equals or exceeds six and one-half percent: PROVIDED, That six percent shall apply if the fifty-two week rate of insured unemployment has been less than four and one-half percent at any time within the preceding one hundred four weeks.

(b) Ends with the third week after a week for which the commissioner determines that, for the fifty-two consecutive weeks ending with such week, the rate of insured unemployment as calculated under (d) of this subsection is less than six and one-half percent: PROVIDED, That six percent shall apply if the additional benefit period began because of the proviso in (a)(ii) of this subsection, the fifty-two week rate of insured unemployment has not exceeded six and one-half percent during the additional benefit period, and the additional benefit period has been in effect for fewer than thirty-six weeks.

(ii) By reason of the seasonal provisions of another state law, he or she is not entitled to regular benefits with respect to such week of unemployment (although he or she may be entitled to regular benefits with respect to future weeks of unemployment in the next season, as the case may be, in his or her current benefit year), and he or she is otherwise an exhaustee within the meaning of this section with respect to his or her right to regular benefits under such state law seasonal provisions during the season or off season in which that week of unemployment occurs; or

(iii) Having established a benefit year, no regular benefits are payable to him or her during such year because his or her wage credits were canceled or his or her right to regular benefits was totally reduced as the result of the application of a disqualification; or

(c) His or her benefit year having ended prior to such week, he or she has insufficient wages or employment, or both, on the basis of which he or she could establish in any state a new benefit year that would include such week, or having established a new benefit year that includes such week, he or she is precluded from receiving regular benefits by reason of the provision in RCW 50.04.030 which meets the requirement of section 3304(a)(7) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, or the similar provision in any other state law; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 50.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Prior to rendering his decision, the commissioner may order the taking of additional evidence by an appeal tribunal to be made a part of the record in the case. Upon the basis of evidence submitted to the appeal tribunal and such additional evidence as the commissioner may order to be taken, the commissioner shall render his decision in writing affirming, modifying, or setting aside the decision of the appeal tribunal (and). Alternatively, the commissioner may order further proceedings to be held before the appeal tribunal, upon completion of which the appeal tribunal shall issue a decision in writing affirming, modifying, or setting aside its previous decision. The new decision may be appealed under RCW 50.32.070. The commissioner shall mail his decision to the interested parties at their last known addresses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 50.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The commissioner may designate certain commissioner's decisions as precedents. These precedents shall govern the decisions of the appeal tribunal unless modified by subsequent precedents designated by the commissioner or by published decisions of the Washington appellate courts. The commissioner's decisions designated as precedents shall be published and made available to the public by the department.

Sec. 9. Section 183, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.40.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any assignment, pledge, or encumbrance of any right to benefits which are or may become due or payable under this title shall be void. Such rights to benefits shall be exempt from levy, execution, attachment, or any other remedy whatsoever provided for the collection of debts, except as provided in section 10 of this 1982 act. Benefits received by any individual, so long as they are not commingled with other funds of the recipient, shall be exempt from any remedy whatsoever for collection of all debts except debts incurred for necessities furnished such individual or his spouse or dependents during the time when such individual was unemployed. Any waiver of any exemption provided for in this section shall be void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 50.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) An individual filing a new claim for unemployment compensation shall, at the time of filing the claim, disclose whether or not the individual owes child support obligations as defined under subsection (7) of this section. If the individual discloses that he or she owes child support obligations and is determined to be eligible for unemployment compensation, the commissioner shall notify the state or local child support enforcement agency enforcing those obligations that the individual has been determined to be eligible for unemployment compensation.

(2) The commissioner shall deduct and withhold from any unemployment compensation payable to an individual who owes child support obligations as defined under subsection (7) of this section:

(a) The amount specified by the individual to the commissioner to be deducted and withheld under this subsection, if neither (b) nor (c) of this subsection is applicable;

(b) The amount (if any) determined pursuant to an agreement submitted to the commissioner under section 454(20)(B)(i) of the Social Security Act by the state or local child support enforcement agency, unless (c) of this subsection is applicable; or

(c) Any amount otherwise required to be so deducted and withheld from such unemployment compensation pursuant to legal process, as that term is defined in section 462(e) of the Social Security Act, properly served upon the commissioner.

(3) Any amount deducted and withheld under subsection (2) of this section shall be paid by the commissioner to the appropriate state or local child support enforcement agency.

(4) Any amount deducted and withheld under subsection (2) of this section shall be treated for all purposes as if it were paid to the individual as unemployment compensation and paid by that individual to the state or local child support enforcement agency in satisfaction of the individual's child support obligations.

(5) For the purposes of this section, 'unemployment compensation' means any compensation payable under this chapter including amounts payable by the commissioner under an agreement under any federal law providing for compensation, assistance, or allowances with respect to unemployment.

(6) This section applies only if appropriate arrangements have been made for reimbursement by the state or local child support enforcement agency for the administrative costs incurred by the commissioner under this section which are attributable to child support obligations being enforced by the state or local child support enforcement agency.

(7) 'Child support obligations' as used in this section means only those obligations which are being enforced pursuant to a plan described in section 454 of the Social Security Act which has been approved by the Secretary of Health and Human Services under part D of Title IV of the Social Security Act.

(8) 'State or local child support enforcement agency' as used in this section means any agency of this state or a political subdivision thereof operating pursuant to a plan described in subsection (7) of this section.

Sec. 11. Section 9, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a support lien or order to withhold and deliver is served upon any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state asserting a support debt against earnings and there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state, any such earnings, RCW 7.33.280 shall not apply, but fifty percent of the disposable earnings shall be exempt and may be disbursed to the debtor whether such earnings are paid, or to be paid weekly, monthly, or at other intervals and whether there be due the debtor earnings for one week or for a longer period. The lien or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state to withhold the nonexempt portion of earnings at each succeeding earnings disbursement interval until the entire amount of the support debt stated in the lien or order to withhold and deliver has been withheld. As used in this chapter, the term 'earnings' means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making such payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligation, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title 50 RCW, except as provided in RCW 50.40.020 and section 10 of this 1982 act, or Title 74 RCW. Earnings shall specifically include all gain derived from capital, from labor, or from both combined, not including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital assets. The term 'disposable earnings' means that part of the earnings of any individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 50.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(3) The person, firm, or corporation maintains a separate set of books or records that reflect all items of income and expenses of the business; and

(4) The work which the person, firm, or corporation has contracted to perform is:

(a) The work of a contractor as defined in RCW 18.27.010; or

(b) The work of installing wires or equipment to convey electric current or installing apparatus to be operated by such current as it pertains to the electrical industry as described in chapter 19.28 RCW.

Sec. 13. Section 11, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:

'Employment', subject only to the other provisions of this title, means personal service, of whatever nature, unlimited by the relationship of master and servant as known to the common law or any other legal relationship, including service in interstate commerce, performed for wages or under any contract calling for the performance of personal services, written or oral, express or implied.

Except as provided by section 12 of this 1982 act, personal services performed for an employing unit by one or more contractors or subcontractors acting individually or as a partnership, which do not meet the provisions of RCW 50.04.140, shall be considered employment of the employing unit: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such contractor or subcontractor shall be an employer under the provisions of this title in respect to personal services performed by individuals for such contractor or subcontractor.

Sec. 14. Section 101, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 11, chapter 190, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 50.24.130 are each amended to read as follows:

No employing unit which contracts with or has under it any contractor or subcontractor who is an employer under the provisions of this title shall make any payment or advance to, or secure any credit for, such contractor or subcontractor on account of any contract or contracts to which said employing unit is a party unless such contractor or subcontractor has paid contributions, due or to become due for wages paid or to be paid by such contractor or subcontractor for personal services performed pursuant to such contract or subcontract, or has furnished a good and sufficient bond acceptable to the commissioner for payment of contributions, interest, and penalties. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render said employing unit directly liable for such contributions, interest, and penalties and the commissioner shall have all of the remedies of collection against said employing unit under the provisions of this title as though the services in question were performed directly for said employing unit.

For the purposes of this section, a contractor registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW shall not be responsible for any contributions for the work of any subcontractor if:

(1) The subcontractor is currently engaging in a business which is registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW;

Alcoholism shall not constitute a defense to disqualification from benefits due to misconduct.

(2) An individual who has been discharged because of a felony or a gross misdemeanor of which he or she has been convicted, or has admitted committing to a competent authority, and which is connected with his or her work shall be disqualified from receiving any benefits for which base year credits are earned in any employment prior to the discharge. Such disqualification begins with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has been discharged, and all benefits paid during the period the individual was disqualified shall be recoverable, notwithstanding RCW 50.20.190, 50.24.020, or any other provision of this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 50.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Additional benefits are payable to eligible persons who are 'exhaustees' with respect to extended benefits. The term 'exhaustee' is deemed to have the same meaning with respect to extended benefits as with respect to regular benefits.

(2) Additional benefit amounts shall be calculated pursuant to RCW 50.22.050(1) and (2).

(1) The use of the shop facilities by the individual performing the services is contingent upon compensation to the shop owner; and

(2) The individual performing the services receives no compensation or other consideration from the owner for the services performed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act in its application to the agencies concerned. (a) The inefficient, excessive or improper use of, or unnecessary dissipation of, reservoir energy, and the locating, spacing, drilling, equipping, operating or producing of any oil or gas well in a manner which results, or tends to result in reducing the quantity of oil or gas to be recovered from any pool in this state under operations conducted in accordance with good oil field engineering practices;

(b) The inefficient above ground storage of oil, and the locating, spacing, drilling, equipping, operating or producing of any oil or gas well in a manner causing, or tending to cause, unnecessary or excessive surface loss or destruction of oil or gas;

(v) The storage, processing, and treatment of natural gas and oil produced within this state;

(vi) Reclamation and clean-up of all well sites and any areas directly affected by the drilling, production, operation, and plugging of oil and gas wells.

(c) The committee may limit and prorate oil and gas produced in this state and may restrict future production of oil and gas from any pool in such amounts as will offset and compensate for any production determined by the committee to be in excess of or in violation of 'oil allowable' or 'gas allowable' as defined herein.

(d) The committee may classify wells as oil or gas wells for purposes material to the interpretation or enforcement of this chapter.

(e) The committee and the department may regulate oil and gas exploration and drilling activities so as to prevent or remedy unreasonable or excessive waste or surface destruction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to the powers and authority, either express or implied, granted to the Washington oil and gas conservation committee by virtue of the statutes of the state of Washington, the committee may, in prescribing its rules of order or procedure in connection with hearings or other proceedings before the committee, provide for the appointment of one or more examiners to conduct a hearing or hearings with respect to any matter properly coming before the committee and to make reports and recommendations to the committee with respect thereto. Any member of the committee, or its staff or any other person designated by the committee, or the supervisor when this power is so delegated, may serve as an examiner. The committee may also provide for additional compensation to be paid to a member of the committee or any other person designated by the committee for services performed as an examiner. The committee shall promulgate rules and regulations with regard to hearings to be conducted before examiners.

Sec. 7. Section 14, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.120 are each amended to read as follows:

DRILLING PERMIT REQUIRED. Any person desiring or proposing to drill any well in search of oil or gas, before commencing the drilling of any such well, shall ~~((notify))~~ apply to the committee upon such form as the committee may prescribe, and shall pay to the state treasurer a fee of ~~((one hundred))~~ two thousand dollars for each such ~~((permit))~~ application. The drilling of any well is prohibited until ~~((such notice))~~ a permit is given and such fee has been paid as herein provided. The committee shall have the authority to prescribe that the said form indicate the exact location of such well, the name and address of the owner, operator, contractor, driller, and any other person responsible for the conduct of drilling operations, the proposed depth of the well, the elevation of the well above sea level, and such other relevant and reasonable information as the committee may deem necessary or convenient to effectuate the purposes of this chapter. The committee may issue a permit if it finds that the proposed drilling will be consistent with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations and orders adopted under this chapter and is not detrimental to the public interest. The committee may impose such conditions and restrictions as it deems necessary to protect the public interest and to ensure compliance with the chapter and the rules and regulations and orders adopted by the committee. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as authorizing the committee to issue a permit to drill on lands underlaid by the minerals of a nonconsenting owner in a pooled development, unless the person seeking the permit has a legal right to drill on such lands.

Sec. 8. Section 22, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.200 are each amended to read as follows:

DEVELOPMENT UNITS AUTHORIZED. When necessary to prevent waste, to avoid the drilling of unnecessary wells, or to protect correlative rights, the committee, upon its own motion or upon application of any interested persons, shall establish ~~((well-spacing areas. Well-spacing areas))~~ development units covering any pool. Development units when established shall be of uniform size and shape for the entire pool, except that when found to be necessary for any of the purposes above-mentioned, the committee is authorized to divide any pool into zones and establish ~~((well-spacing areas))~~ development units for each zone, which ~~((areas))~~ units may differ in size and shape from those established in any other zone.

Sec. 9. Section 23, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The size and the shape of ~~((well-spacing areas))~~ development units are to be such as will result in the efficient and economical development of the pool as a whole, and the size shall not be smaller than the maximum area that can be efficiently and economically drained by one well ~~((nor greater than forty acres for oil or one hundred sixty acres for gas only))~~. If sufficient data is not available to determine the area that can be efficiently and economically drained by one well, the committee may establish temporary units to ensure the orderly development of the pool pending availability of the necessary data.

(2) The committee may establish development units of different sizes or shapes for different parts of a pool or may grant exceptions to the size or shape of any development unit or units. Where development units of different sizes or shapes exist in a pool, the committee shall, if necessary, make such adjustment of the allowable production from the well or wells drilled thereon so that each operator in each development unit will have a reasonable opportunity to produce or receive his just and equitable share of the production.

Sec. 10. Section 24, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.220 are each amended to read as follows:

LOCATION OF WELL. An order establishing ((well-spacing areas)) development units for a pool shall specify the size and shape of each area and the location of the permitted well thereon in accordance with a reasonable uniform spacing plan. Upon application and after hearing, if the committee finds that a well drilled at the prescribed location would not produce in paying quantities, or that surface conditions would substantially add to the burden or hazard of drilling such well, or for other good cause shown, the committee is authorized to enter an order permitting the well to be drilled at a location other than that prescribed by such ((spacing)) development order; however, the committee shall include in the order suitable provisions to prevent the production from the ((well-spacing area)) drilling unit of more than its just and equitable share of the oil and gas in the pool.

Sec. 11. Section 25, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.230 are each amended to read as follows:

ORDER MUST COVER ENTIRE POOL—MODIFICATIONS. An order establishing ((well-spacing areas)) development units for a pool shall cover all lands determined or believed to be underlain by such pool, and may be modified by the committee from time to time to include additional areas determined to be underlain by such pool. When the committee determines that it is necessary for the prevention of waste, or to avoid the drilling of unnecessary wells, or to protect correlative rights, an order establishing ((well-spacing areas)) development units in a pool may be modified by the committee to increase the size of ((well-spacing areas)) development units in the pool or any zone thereof, or to permit the drilling of additional wells on a reasonably uniform plan in the pool, or any zone thereof.

Sec. 12. Section 26, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.240 are each amended to read as follows:

POOLING. When two or more separately owned tracts are embraced within a ((well-spacing area)) development unit, or when there are separately owned interests in all or a part of the ((well-spacing area)) development unit, then the owners and lessees thereof may ((combine)) pool their interests for the development and operation of the ((well-spacing area)) development unit. In the absence of this voluntary ((combination)) pooling, the committee, upon the application of any interested person, shall enter an order ((combining)) pooling all interests, including royalty interests, overriding royalty interests, and production payments, in the ((well-spacing area)) development unit for the development and operation thereof. Each such ((combining)) pooling order shall be made after notice and hearing((-and)). The applicant(s) shall have the burden of proving that all reasonable efforts have been made to obtain the consent of others owners. The order shall be upon terms and conditions that are just and reasonable((-and that afford to the owner of each tract or interest in the well-spacing area the opportunity to recover or receive, without unnecessary expense or penalty, his just and equitable share)), and shall provide that production and costs associated with such a pooled unit shall be allocated among the owners in the same proportion each owner's acreage in the unit bears to the total acreage in the unit, or in any other manner approved by the committee. Operations incident to the drilling of a well upon any portion of a ((well-spacing area)) development unit covered by a ((combining)) pooling order shall be deemed, for all purposes, the conduct of such operations upon each separately owned tract in the ((well-spacing area)) development unit by the several owners thereof. That portion of the production allocated to each tract included in a ((well-spacing area)) development unit covered by a ((combining)) pooling order shall, when produced, be deemed for all purposes, including the payment of royalty, overriding royalty, or production payments, to have been produced from such tract by a well drilled thereon.

Sec. 13. Section 27, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.250 are each amended to read as follows:

POOLED INTEREST IN DEVELOPMENT UNITS—ALLOCATION OF COSTS. (1) Each such ((combining)) pooling order shall make provision for the drilling and operation of a well on the ((well-spacing area)) development unit, and for the payment of the reasonable actual cost thereof by the owners of interests in the ((well-spacing area)) development unit, plus a reasonable charge for supervision and storage facilities. In the event of any dispute as to such costs the committee shall determine the proper costs. ((If one or more of the owners shall drill and operate, or pay the expenses of drilling and operating the well for the benefit of others, then, the owner or owners so drilling or operating shall have a lien on the share of production from the well-spacing area accruing to the interest of each of the other owners for the payment of his proportionate share of such expenses. Such lien shall be only against the said share of production, and not against any interest, estate, equity or title of any of the said other owners. All the oil and gas subject to the lien shall be marketed and sold and the proceeds applied in payment of the expenses secured by such lien.))

(2) As to each owner who fails or refuses to agree to bear his proportionate share of the costs of the drilling and operation of the well, the order shall provide for reimbursement of the person or persons paying for the drilling and operation of the well of the nonconsenting owner's share of the costs out of, and only out of, production from the unit representing his interest, excluding royalty or other interests not obligated to pay any part of the cost thereof. The committee may provide that the consenting owners shall own and be entitled to receive all production from the well, after payment of royalty as provided in the lease, if any, applicable to each tract or interest, and obligations payable out of production, until the consenting owners have been paid the amount due under the terms of the pooling order or order settling any dispute. The order shall determine the interest of each owner in the unit and shall provide that each consenting owner shall be entitled to receive, subject to royalty or similar obligations, the share of the production of the well applicable to his interest in the unit, and, unless he has agreed otherwise, his proportionate part of the nonconsenting owner's share of the production until costs are recovered as provided in this subsection; and that each nonconsenting owner shall be entitled to receive, subject to royalty or similar obligations, the share of production from the well applicable to his interest in the unit after the consenting owners have recovered from the nonconsenting owner's share of production the following:

(a) In respect to every such well one hundred percent of the nonconsenting owner's share of the cost of surface equipment beyond the wellhead connections (including, but not limited to, stock tanks, separators, treaters, pumping equipment, and piping), plus one hundred percent of the nonconsenting owner's share of the cost of operation of the well commencing with first production and continuing until the consenting owners have recovered these costs, it being intended that the nonconsenting owner's share of these costs and equipment will be that interest which would have been chargeable to the nonconsenting owner had he initially agreed to pay his share of the costs of the well from the beginning of the operation; and

(b) As to a well which is within a proven field as determined by the committee one hundred and fifty percent, and as to a well which is drilled to a different pool or in an area not proven for production two hundred percent, of that portion of the costs and expenses of staking the location, wellsite preparation, rights of way, rigging-up, drilling, reworking, deepening or plugging back, testing, and completing, after deducting any cash contributions received by the consenting owners, and also either one hundred and fifty percent or two hundred percent, whichever is appropriate under this subsection, of that portion of the cost of equipment in the well, up to and including the wellhead connections.

(3) The operator of a well under a pooling order in which there are nonconsenting owners shall furnish the nonconsenting owners with monthly statements of all costs incurred, together with the quantity of oil or gas produced, and the amount of proceeds realized from the sale of this production during the preceding month. If and when the consenting owners recover from a nonconsenting owner's relinquished interest the amounts provided for in subsection (2) of this section, the relinquished interest of the nonconsenting owner shall automatically revert to him; and the nonconsenting owner shall own the same interest in the well and the production from it and be liable for the further costs of the operation as if he had participated in the initial drilling and operation. A nonconsenting owner of a tract in a drilling unit which is not subject to any lease or other contract for the development thereof for oil and gas shall be deemed to have a basic landowners' royalty of one-eighth, or twelve and one-half percent, of the production allocated to the tract, unless a higher royalty has been established in the pool, then the nonconsenting owner of a nonleased tract shall receive the highest royalty. This is a presumed royalty which shall exist during the time that costs and expenses are being recovered pursuant to subsection (2) of this section only. The intent of this section is to assure that the owner of a nonleased tract receive a royalty free of all costs at all times. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, such owners shall at all times retain his entire ownership of his property, including his right to execute an oil and gas lease on any terms he desires to negotiate, and be entitled to all production subject to subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

UNITIZATION OF OIL AND GAS FIELDS. (1) The committee may upon the application of any interested party, or upon its own motion, hold a hearing to consider the need for the operation as a unit of one or more pools or parts of them in a field.

(2) The committee shall make an order providing for the unit operation of a pool or part of it, if the committee finds that:

(a) This operation will increase the ultimate recovery of oil and/or gas, or will prevent waste, or will protect correlative rights, or will prevent the drilling of unnecessary wells; and

(b) The value of the estimated additional recovery of oil and/or gas exceeds the estimated additional cost incident to conducting these operations.

(3) The order shall be upon terms and conditions that are fair and reasonable and shall prescribe a plan for unit operations that shall include:

(a) A description of the pool or pools or parts thereof to be so operated, termed the unitized area;

(b) A statement of the nature of the operations contemplated;

(c) An allocation of production and costs to the separately owned tracts in the unitized area. The allocation shall be in accord with the agreement, if any, of the interested parties. If there is no such agreement, production shall be allocated in a manner calculated to ensure that each separately owned tract or combination of tracts receives its just and equitable share of production. Costs shall be allocated on a fair and reasonable basis;

(d) A provision, if necessary, permitting any owner who was involuntarily unitized to pay his share of costs out of his share of production, plus a risk and interest penalty not to exceed fifty percent of that owner's share of the costs;

(e) A provision for the supervision and conduct of the unit operations, in respect to which each owner shall have a vote with a value corresponding to the percentage of the costs of unit operations chargeable against its interest;

(f) The time when the unit operations shall commence and the manner in which and the circumstances under which the unit operations shall terminate; and

(g) Such additional provisions are found to be appropriate for carrying out the unit operations and for the protection of correlative rights.

(4) No order of the committee providing for unit operations may become effective until the plan for unit operations approved by the committee has been approved in writing by those persons who, under the committee's order, will be required to pay at least seventy-five percent of the costs of unit operations, and also by those persons who own at least sixty-five percent of the production or proceeds thereof that will be credited to interests which are free of costs, such as royalties, overriding royalties, and production payments, and the committee has made a finding, either in the order providing for unit operations or in a supplemental order, that the plan for unit operations has been so approved. If the plan for unit operations has not been so approved at the time the order providing for unit operations is made, the committee shall upon application and notice hold such supplemental hearings as may be required to determine if and when the plan for unit operations has been so approved. If the persons owning required percentages of interest in the unitized area do not approve the plan for unit operations within a period of six months from the date on which the order providing for unit operations is made, or within such additional period or periods of time as the committee prescribes, the order will become unenforceable and shall be vacated by the committee.

(5) An order providing for unit operations may be amended by an order made by the committee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as an original order providing for unit operations, but (a) if such an amendment affects only the rights and interests of the owners, the approval of the amendment by those persons who own interests that are free of costs is not required, and (b) no such amending order may change the percentage for the allocation of oil and gas as established for any separately owned tract or combination of tracts by the original order, except with the consent of all persons owning oil and gas rights in the tract, or may change the percentage for the allocation of cost as established for any separately owned tract or combination of tracts by the original order, except with the consent of all persons owning an interest in the tract or combination of tracts.

(6) The committee, by order, may provide for the unit operation of a reservoir or reservoirs or parts thereof that include a unitized area established by a previous order of the committee. The order, in providing for the allocation of unit production, shall first treat the unitized area previously established as a single tract and the portion of the new unit production allocated thereto shall then be allocated among the separately owned tracts included in the previously established unit area in the same proportions as those specified in the previous order.

(7) After the date designated by the committee the unit plan shall be effective, oil and gas leases within the unit area, or other contracts pertaining to the development thereof, shall be changed to meet the provisions and requirements of the unit plan, but otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. Operations carried on under and in accordance with the unit plan shall be regarded and considered as fulfillment of and compliance with all of the provisions, covenants, and conditions, expressed or implied, of the several oil and gas leases upon lands within the unit area, or other contracts pertaining to the development thereof, insofar as the leases, or other contracts, may relate to the pool or field subject to the unit plan. The amount of production apportioned and allocated, pursuant to the unit plan, to each separately owned tract within the unit area, and only that amount, regardless of the location of the well within the unit area from which it may be produced, and regardless of whether it be more or less than the amount of production from the well, if any, on each separately owned tract, shall for all intents, uses, and purposes be regarded as production from the separately owned tract, and lessees shall not be obligated to pay royalties or make other payments, required by the oil and gas leases or other contracts affecting each such separately owned tract, on production in excess of that amount apportioned and allocated to the separately owned tract pursuant to the unit plan.

(8) The portion of the unit production allocated to any tract, and the proceeds from its sale, shall be the property and income of the several persons to whom, or to whose credit, the same are allocated or payable under the order providing for unit operations.

(9) No division order or other contract relating to the sale, purchase, or production from a separately owned tract or combination of tracts may be terminated by the order providing for unit operations but shall remain in force and shall apply to oil and gas allocated to the tract until terminated by amended division order or contract in accordance with the provisions of the order.

(10) Except to the extent that parties affected so agree, no order providing for unit operations may be construed to result in a transfer of all or any part of the title of any person to the oil and gas rights in any tract in the unit area. All property, whether real or personal, that may be acquired in the conduct of unit operations hereunder shall be acquired for the account of the owners within the unit area, and shall be the property of such owners in the proportion that the expenses of unit operations are charged.

(11) After the date designated by the order of the committee that a unit plan shall become effective, the operation of any well in the unit area defined in the order by persons other than the unit operator or under the unit operator's authority, or except in the manner and to the extent provided in such unit plan, shall be unlawful and is hereby prohibited.

(12) A certified copy of any order of the committee entered under this section is entitled to be recorded in the auditor's office in the county or counties wherein all or any portion of the unit area is located and, if recorded, shall constitute notice thereof to all persons.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

RATABLE TAKES REQUIRED—OIL. Each person now or hereafter purchasing or taking for transportation oil from any owner or producer shall purchase or take ratably without discrimination in favor of any owner or operator over any other owner or producer in the same pool offering to sell his oil produced therefrom to such person. If any such person purchasing or taking for transportation oil does not have need for all such oil lawfully produced within a pool, or if for any reason it is unable to purchase all of such oil, then it shall purchase from each operator in a pool ratably, taking and purchasing the same quantity of oil from each well to the extent that each well is capable of producing its ratable portion without waste, but nothing in this section may be construed to require more than one pipeline connection for each producing well. If any such purchaser or person taking oil for transportation is likewise an operator or owner, he is hereby prohibited from discriminating in favor of his own production, or production in which he may be interested, and his own production shall be treated as that of any other operator or owner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

RATABLE TAKES REQUIRED—GAS. Each person now or hereafter purchasing or taking for transportation gas produced from gas wells or from oil wells from any owner or operator shall purchase or take ratably without discrimination in favor of any owner or operator, over any other owner or operator in a pool. Such person shall not discriminate in the quantities purchased, the basis of measurement, or the gas transportation facilities afforded for gas of like quantity, quality, and pressure available from such wells. For the purpose of this section and section 15 of this act, reasonable differences in quantity taken or facilities afforded shall not constitute unreasonable discrimination if the differences bear a fair relationship to differences in quality, quantity, or pressure of the gas available or the acreage attributable to the well, market requirements, or to the relative lengths of time during which such gas will be available to the purchaser. If any such purchaser or person taking gas for transportation is likewise an operator or owner, he is hereby prohibited from discriminating in favor of his own production or production in which he may be interested, and his own production shall be treated as that of any other operator or owner producing from gas wells in the same pool.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The committee may administer and enforce the provisions of sections 15 and 16 of this act in the same manner and in accordance with the same procedures provided for in this chapter for the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations and orders of the committee.

Sec. 18. Section 50, chapter 148, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.470 are each amended to read as follows:

OBJECTIONS TO RULE, REGULATION, ORDER—HEARING REQUIRED—MODIFICATION. Any person adversely affected by any (~~rule, regulation or~~) order of the committee may, within thirty days from the effective date of such (~~rule, regulation or~~) order, apply for a hearing with respect to any matter determined therein (~~the application shall be granted or denied by the committee within fifteen days from the date the same shall be filed, and if the hearing is not granted within fifteen days it shall be taken as denied. If a hearing is granted, the matter shall be set for hearing by the committee within thirty days after the same is submitted~~). No cause for action arising out of any (~~rule, regulation or~~) order of the committee shall accrue in any court to any (~~party~~) person unless such (~~party~~) person makes application for a hearing as herein provided. Such application shall set forth specifically the ground on which the applicant considers such (~~rule, regulation or~~) order to be unlawful or unreasonable. No party shall, in any court, urge or rely upon any ground not set forth in said application. (~~A rule, regulation, or~~) An order made in conformity to a decision resulting from a hearing which abrogates (~~it~~), changes or modifies the original (~~rule, regulation or~~) order, shall have the same force and effect as an original. Such hearing shall constitute a 'contested case' under the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW and shall be conducted in accordance with such provisions.

Sec. 19. Section 51, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.480 are each amended to read as follows:

APPEAL FROM ORDER—RIGHTS OF COMMITTEE. In proceedings for review of (~~a rule, regulation or~~) an order or decision of the committee, the committee shall be a party to the proceedings and shall have all rights and privileges granted by this chapter to any other party to such proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any operation or activity that is in violation of any applicable laws, rules and regulations, orders, or permit conditions shall be subject to suspension by order of the committee. The order may suspend the operations authorized in the permit in whole or in part. The order may only be issued after the committee has first notified the operator or owner of the violations and the operator or owner has failed to comply with the directions contained in the notification within ten days of service of the notice: PROVIDED, That the committee may issue the suspension order immediately without notice if the violations are or may cause substantial harm to adjacent property, persons, or public resources or has or may result in the pollution of waters in violation of any state or federal law, rule, or regulation. Any suspension shall remain in effect until the violations are corrected or other directives are complied with unless declared invalid by the committee after hearing or an appeal. The suspension order and notification, where applicable, shall specify the violations and the actions required to be undertaken to be in compliance with such laws, rules and regulations, orders, or permit conditions. The order and notification may also require remedial actions to be undertaken to restore, prevent, or correct activities or conditions which have resulted from the violations. The order and notification may be directed at the operator or owner or both.

(2) The suspension order shall constitute a final and binding order unless the owner or operator to whom the order is directed requests a hearing before the committee within fifteen days after service of the order. Such a request shall not in itself stay or suspend the order and the operator and owner shall comply with the order immediately upon service. The committee or its chairman shall have the authority to stay or suspend in whole or in part the suspension order pending a hearing if so requested. The hearing shall constitute a contested case hearing under the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and to chapter 78.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

ILLEGAL OIL, GAS, AND PRODUCT. (1) The sale, purchase, acquisition, transportation, refining, processing, or handling of illegal oil, gas, or product is prohibited. However, no penalty by way of fine may be imposed upon a person who sells, purchases, acquires, transports, refines, processes, or handles illegal oil, gas, or product unless (a) the person knows, or is put on notice of, facts indicating that illegal oil, illegal gas, or illegal product is involved, or (b) the person fails to obtain a certificate of clearance with respect to the oil, gas, or product if prescribed by rule or order of the committee, or fails to follow any other method prescribed by an order of the committee for the identification of the oil, gas, or product.

(2) Illegal oil, illegal gas, and illegal product are declared to be contraband and are subject to seizure and sale as provided in this section. Seizure and sale shall be in addition to all other remedies and penalties provided in this chapter for violations relating to illegal oil, illegal gas, or illegal product. Whenever the committee believes that any oil, gas, or product is illegal, the committee acting through the attorney general, shall bring a civil action in rem in the superior court of the county where the oil, gas, or product is found, to seize and sell the same, or the committee may include such an action in rem in any suit brought for an injunction or penalty involving illegal oil, illegal gas, or illegal product. Any person claiming an interest in oil, gas, or product affected by any such action in rem shall have the right to intervene as an interested party.

(3) Actions for the seizure and sale of illegal oil, illegal gas, or illegal product shall be strictly in rem and shall proceed in the name of the state as plaintiff against the oil, gas, or product as defendant. No bond or similar undertaking may be required of the plaintiff. Upon the filing of the petition for seizure and sale, the clerk of the court shall issue a summons, with a copy of the petition attached thereto, directed to the sheriff of the county or to such other officer or person that the court may designate, for service upon all persons having or claiming any interest in the oil, gas, or product described in the petition, which summons shall command these persons to appear and answer within twenty days after the issuance and service of the summons. These persons need not be named or otherwise identified in the summons, and the summons shall be served by posting a copy of the summons, with a copy of the petition attached, on any public bulletin board or at the courthouse of a county where the oil, gas, or product involved is located, and by posting another copy at or near the place where the oil, gas, or product is located. The posting shall constitute notice of the action to all persons having or claiming any interest in the oil, gas, or product described in the petition. In addition, if the court, on a properly verified petition, or affidavit or affidavits, or oral testimony, finds that grounds for seizure and for sale exist, the court shall issue an immediate order of seizure, describing the oil, gas, or product to be seized, and directing the sheriff of the county to take the oil, gas, or product into his actual or constructive custody and to hold the same subject to further orders of the court. The court, in the order of seizure, may direct the sheriff to deliver the oil, gas, or product seized by him under the order to a court-appointed agent. The agent shall give bond in an amount and with such surety as the court may direct, conditioned upon his compliance with the orders of the court concerning the custody and disposition of the oil, gas, or product.

(4) Any person having an interest in oil, gas, or product described in order of seizure and contesting the right of the state to seize and sell the oil, gas, or product may obtain its release prior to sale upon furnishing to the sheriff a bond approved by the court. The bond shall be in an amount equal to one hundred fifty percent of the market value of the oil, gas, or product to be released and shall be conditioned upon either redelivery to the sheriff of the released commodity or payment to the sheriff of its market value, if and when ordered by the court, and upon full compliance with all other further orders of the court.

(5) If the court, after a hearing upon a petition for the seizure and sale of oil, gas, or product, finds that the oil, gas, or product is contraband, the court shall order its sale by the sheriff in the same manner and upon the same notice of sale as provided by law for the sale of personal property on execution of judgment entered in a civil action, except that the court may order that the oil, gas, or product be sold in specified lots or portions and at specified intervals. Upon sale, title to the oil, gas, or product sold shall vest in the purchaser free of all claims, and it shall be legal oil, legal gas, or legal product in the hands of the purchaser.

(6) All proceeds, less costs of suit and expenses of sale, which are derived from the sale of illegal oil, illegal gas, or illegal product, and all amounts paid as penalties provided for by this chapter, shall be paid into the state treasury for the use of the committee in defraying its expenses in the same manner as other funds provided by law for the use of the committee.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. TITLE. This chapter may be cited as the oil and gas severance and conservation act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. LEGISLATIVE DECLARATION AND PURPOSE. (1) This chapter establishes an excise tax on the severance of oil and gas within this state, a conservation excise tax on the severance of oil and gas within this state to provide funds for the administration of the state oil and gas conservation laws, and procedures for the efficient administration and collection of both taxes.

(2) The legislature recognizes that when nonrenewable natural resources such as oil and gas are removed from the earth or waters within the state of Washington, the development and production of these resources contribute to the economy of the state, but nonetheless create expenses of diverse nature to the state and local governments. The legislature therefore seeks to compensate for these additional costs of government through the adoption of this chapter which provides a severance tax on the privilege of removing nonrenewable resources at appropriate rates of taxation.

(3) The legislature recognizes further that it is appropriate to levy a charge on the severance of oil and gas within the state to support the administration of the state oil and gas conservation laws, which are intended to avoid waste and promote the maximum economic recovery from these vital resources. Therefore, the legislature hereby adopts a separate oil and gas conservation tax for this purpose.

(4) The legislature intends that the revenues derived from the severance tax be used by the state for public purposes, including the meeting of those public needs occasioned by the oil and gas activity being taxed. The legislature further intends that a portion of these revenues go to local governments to help compensate for the cost of nonrenewable resource development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 22 through 33 of this act:

(1) 'Department' means the department of revenue;

(2) 'Oil' means crude oil, condensate, distillate or other oil, or other liquid hydrocarbon extracted from the earth or waters in this state, regardless of gravity;

(3) 'Gas' means natural gas and casinghead gas, or other gaseous hydrocarbon taken from the earth or waters in this state, regardless of whether produced from a gas well or from a well also producing oil or other liquid hydrocarbons;

(4) 'Value' means the market value at the time and point of production, as established by the actual price received for products, or as otherwise provided in this chapter;

(5) 'Interest owner' means a person owning an entire or fractional interest of whatever kind or nature in the products at the time of severance, or who has a right to a monetary payment which is determined by the value of such products which individually or in any combination represent one hundred percent of the interests in oil and gas produced;

(6) 'Purchaser' means a person who is the first purchaser of a product from the producer at or after severance;

(7) 'Product' or 'products' means oil or gas, individually or any combination thereof;

(8) 'Severance' means the taking from the earth or waters in this state of any product in any manner;

(9) 'Person' means any individual, receiver, administrator, executor, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, trust, estate, firm, copartnership, corporation, joint venture club, company, joint stock company, business trust, municipal corporation or other public entity, or any other group or combination acting as a unit;

(10) 'Production' means those acts taken to sever, contain, save, and measure any product and shall include any acts otherwise necessary to bring it to merchantable condition or pipeline quality in any manner, except that production shall not include those acts which constitute the operation of a gas distribution business within the meaning of RCW 82.16.010(8), as now existing or hereafter amended; and

(11) 'Producer' means any person who produces or extracts in any manner any oil or gas by taking it from the earth or waters of this state, whether produced or extracted by that person or some other person on his behalf, by lease, contract, or otherwise.

(12) 'Point of production' means:

(a) For oil, the point where it is first metered or measured (by automatic custody transfer meter, tank gauge, or other approved method) in a condition of pipeline quality on the premises of the lease or property from which it is recovered; however, if the oil is not of pipeline quality when it is removed from the premises of the lease or property from which it is recovered or if the oil recovered from a lease or property is not metered or measured (by automatic custody transfer meter, tank gauge, or other approved method) on the premises of the lease or property from which it is recovered, then the point of production is the off premises location where the oil is first metered or measured (by automatic custody transfer meter, tank gauge, or other approved method) in a condition of pipeline quality;

(b) For gas recovered from or in association with oil, the value of the gas at the point where it is first accurately metered or measured after separation from the oil;

(c) For gas not recovered from or in association with oil, the point where it is first accurately metered or measured on or near the premises of the lease or property from which the gas is recovered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. IMPOSITION OF SEVERANCE TAX. (1) There is imposed, and the department of revenue shall collect, in addition to any other tax, an excise tax upon the severance of oil and gas from all lands or waters in this state, including all publicly owned lands or waters, and Indian, Indian tribe, and Indian lands or waters to the extent authorized or permitted by law; less the value of any part thereof, the ownership or right to which is exempt from taxation under section 28 of this act.

(2) The rate of the tax imposed is seven percent of the value of the oil and gas at the time and point of production.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. IMPOSITION OF CONSERVATION TAX. (1) There is imposed, and the department of revenue shall collect, in addition to any other tax, a conservation tax upon the severance of oil and gas from all lands or waters in this state, including all publicly owned lands or waters, and Indian, Indian tribe, and Indian lands or waters to the extent authorized or permitted by law; less the value of any part thereof, the ownership or right to which is exempt from taxation under section 28 of this act. The revenues derived from this tax shall be used for the administration of the oil and gas conservation laws of this state.

(2) The tax imposed under this section shall be one-fourth of one percent of the value of the oil and gas at the time and point of production.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. IMPOSITION, PAYMENT, AND COLLECTION OF TAX. (1) The taxes imposed by this chapter on the severance of oil and gas shall be the primary liability of the producer. Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section such taxes shall be paid by the producer or the purchaser purchasing such oil or gas from the producer. The producer or purchaser shall deduct and withhold the ratable share of such tax from payments made to other interest owners in proportion to such interest, or by the purchaser to the producer, and remit the same to the department: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the failure of the purchaser to pay such tax shall not relieve the producer from the payment of the same if the purchaser does not account for and pay the tax to the department. The department shall have a first and paramount lien on all oil and gas produced in this state in the possession of the producer or the purchaser to secure the payment of the taxes imposed by this chapter including any interest and penalties thereon. It shall be the duty of every person producing oil and gas in the state to determine that the tax has been or will be paid by the persons liable therefor. If the purchaser has failed to pay to the department the tax imposed by this chapter, the department may proceed directly against the purchaser's bond or other asset for collection of the tax. In the event the bond and other assets fail to satisfy the tax obligation, the department may proceed directly against the producers in proportion to the ratable interest for collection of the balance of the tax due; and all other provisions of chapter 82.32 RCW including those relative to interest and penalties shall apply.

(2) If oil or gas on which the severance and conservation taxes are due is not sold at the time of production but is retained by the producer, the producer shall pay to the department the taxes due with respect to such oil or gas not sold, and shall deduct or withhold the ratable share of the tax from payments made to other interest owners in proportion to such interest.

(3) If oil or gas is sold, retained, or used under circumstances in which the sale price or the value reported to the department does not represent the market value then prevailing for oil or gas of like kind, character, quality, or comparable source from which the product is produced, the department may require the taxes to be paid upon the basis of the prevailing price then being paid at the time and point of production of other oil or gas of the same kind, character, quality, and comparable source.

(4) The taxes imposed by this chapter shall be borne ratably by all interest owners, including royalty interests, and producers and purchasers are authorized to withhold from any payment due any interest owners the proportionate tax due: PROVIDED, That such withholding may not be required by producers and purchasers with respect to contracts or other agreements entered into prior to the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. EXEMPTIONS. The following interests are exempt from the taxes imposed under this chapter:

(1) The interest of this state and any political subdivisions of this state in any oil or gas or in the proceeds thereof;

(2) The interest of the United States in any oil or gas or in the proceeds thereof;

(3) Any interest in oil or gas used in producing or drilling operations for repressuring or recycling purposes; and

(4) Any interest in oil or gas reinjected for storage, provided that any subsequent removal thereof from storage for sale, use, or other retention shall constitute a severance within the meaning of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. APPLICABILITY OF GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS—DEPARTMENTAL RULES, BOND. (1) All of chapter 82.32 RCW, except RCW 82.32.040 and except as otherwise provided in sections 30 and 33 of this act, applies to the tax imposed by this chapter, in addition to any other provisions of law for the payment and enforcement of the tax imposed by this chapter. The department of revenue shall by rule provide for the effective administration of this chapter by rules which shall include, but not be limited to, the determination of the time and point of production and a determination of methods of metering and measuring the production of oil and gas reasonably required for such administration.

(2) The department may require a sufficient bond from every person required to make or file a return or report or to pay tax under this chapter. The bond shall run to the state and shall be conditioned upon the making and filing of reports or returns as required by law, upon compliance with the rules of the department, and for the prompt payment, by the principal on the bond, of all taxes due the state under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. FILING OF STATEMENTS. (1) Payment of the taxes imposed by this chapter shall be due forty-five days after the end of the month in which the oil and gas is severed along with reports and forms for submission under oath as the department shall prescribe, providing:

(a) A full description of the property by lease name, control number, subdivision of quarter section, section, township, and range, or other legal description by metes and bounds, from which the oil or gas was produced;

(b) The name of the producer;

(c) The gross amount of oil or gas purchased;

(d) The total value of the oil or gas at the price paid for it, if purchased at the time of production; and

(e) The prevailing market price of oil or gas sold at the time of production.

(2) A purchaser may furnish a verified copy of the regular settlement sheet in use by the purchaser instead of the statement required by subsection (1) of this section if the settlement sheet contains the information required therein.

(3) Every person who has produced oil or gas shall file with the department a sworn statement on forms prescribed by the department, giving the following:

(a) A full description of the property by lease name, control number, subdivision of quarter section, section, township, and range, or other legal description by metes and bounds, from which the oil or gas was produced;

(b) The gross amount of oil or gas produced and saved;

(c) The name of the producer and the price received for the oil or gas;

(d) The name of each purchaser of oil or gas from the producer during the quarter; and

(e) Any other information the department requires, including but not limited to leases and contracts entered into by producers, purchasers, and other interest owners.

(4) Taxes derived from all taxable leases may be reported on one report or return by each taxpayer. This single report or return shall contain separate schedules for oil and for gas. Such report shall contain the necessary information for each separate lease and well.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. COLLECTION AND DEPOSIT OF REVENUE FROM THE SEVERANCE TAX—SHARING OF REVENUE FROM THE SEVERANCE TAX WITH LOCAL GOVERNMENTS. (1) The department of revenue shall deposit ninety percent of the money collected by it under section 25 of this act in the general fund.

(2) The local government severance taxation account is hereby established in the general fund into which ten percent of the severance taxes collected under section 25 of this act shall be deposited. Moneys in this account shall be used solely for making distributions to those local governments in which oil and gas production activity occurs, after appropriation by statute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. DISPOSITION OF CONSERVATION TAX. (1) There is hereby created in the general fund the oil and gas conservation revolving account into which the money collected under section 26 of this act shall be deposited.

(2) Money in the account shall be used exclusively for the administration of the oil and gas conservation laws of the state. The oil and gas conservation committee or its successor may use moneys in the fund for such purposes as appropriated by the legislature. At the end of each biennium, the state treasurer shall transfer any balance in the oil and gas conservation revolving account to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. LIEN FOR TAX. In addition to the lien given in section 27 of this act, a tax imposed by this chapter (including any penalties and interest thereon) is a first and paramount lien against the purchaser's and producer's real and personal property. The provisions of this chapter making the purchaser liable to pay the tax do not release the producer from liability to pay the tax, if the tax is not paid.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. There is added to chapter 84.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The following property is exempt from taxation:

Interests in oil or gas reserves and leases on the rights to develop and operate upon or within any lands and waters of this state for oil and gas and the property rights attached to or inherent therein: PROVIDED, That this section does not in any way exempt machinery, appliances, pipelines, tanks, vehicles, and other equipment used in the development or operation of said leases or rights, or used in the transportation of oil or gas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. Sections 22 through 33 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 82 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 12, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.070;
- (2) Section 13, chapter 146, Laws of 1951 and RCW 78.52.100;

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 47, by Representatives Dawson, Ehlers, Johnson, Grimm, Nelson (G), Walk, Salatino, Kaiser, Granlund, Wang, Nisbet, Gallagher, Brown, Winsley, Leonard and Van Dyken:

Congratulating NORAD.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the rules were suspended, and House Concurrent Resolution No. 47 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), further consideration of House Concurrent Resolution No. 47 was deferred, and the resolution was ordered placed at the bottom of today's second reading calendar.

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4824 was rereferred from Committee on Ways and Means to Committee on Appropriations - General Government.

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the House advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

Mr. Heck moved that the Rules Committee be relieved of ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4661 and the bill be placed on the second reading calendar.

Mr. Heck spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Nelson (G) spoke against it.

Mr. Brown demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

Ms. Monohon spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Hastings spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Nelson (G), yielded to question by Mr. Thompson.

Mr. Thompson: "Representative Nelson, I'm interested in clarification of your remarks. Are we to be encouraged to believe that at 1 o'clock a motion will be made to place this bill before us today?"

Mr. Nelson (G): "I merely indicated, Representative Thompson, that there is a Rules Committee meeting at 1:00 p.m. Each measure looked at there is studied as to its merits; we take into consideration what is on the calendar, what bills need to be passed in order to improve the economy of this state, and there's no way that anyone in any position can guarantee that a bill is going to make it out of the Rules Committee."

Representatives Thompson, Erak and Ehlers spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives Barr and Nelson (G) spoke against it.

Representatives Heck and Monohon spoke again in favor of the motion.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to relieve the Rules Committee of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4461, and placed it on the second reading calendar, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 52; not voting, 2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3898, by Senators Rasmussen and Jones (by Utilities and Transportation Commission request):

Changing the name of the utilities and transportation commission to the public service commission.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Ellis moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Ellis, Eberle, Warnke and Thompson:

On page 64, line 7 after "commission" insert "and the costs incurred by the office of attorney general to employ such technical assistants or hire consultants as may be necessary to represent the people of the state of Washington pursuant to RCW 80.01.100"

On page 64, after line 8 insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 65. There is appropriated to the office of the attorney general for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, the sum of two hundred forty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, from the public service revolving fund to carry out the purposes of RCW 80.01.080."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Bond: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like to challenge the scope and object of this amendment. It seems to me this is a simple name-change bill, and I think it should be construed narrowly in that regard."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Bond, the Speaker has examined the title of Engrossed Senate bill No. 3898 and finds that it is an act relating to state government. The amendment by Representative Ellis and others seeks to amend various sections of the bill in accordance with the sections that are in the bill. The bill, however, is a single object bill, and the object seems to be simply changing the name of the Utilities and Transportation Commission to the Washington Public Service Commission. It would appear to the Speaker that a substantive amendment to a technical correction bill is well beyond the object of the bill. I would go on to say further that if we would start making substantive amendments to technical correction bills, it would preclude in the future the making of technical bills, of any legislature being willing to take up that kind of technical correction bill for fear of it becoming more than originally intended."

MOTION

Ms. Becker moved that the Rules Committee be relieved of HOUSE BILL NO. 1091.

Ms. Becker spoke in favor of the motion.

Mr. Hastings moved that the motion by Ms. Becker be tabled.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to table the motion to relieve the Rules Committee of House Bill No. 1091, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 57; nays, 39; not voting, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Amen, Barnes, Barr, Barrett, Berleen, Bickham, Bond, Cantu, Chamberlain, Chandler, Clayton, Dawson, Dickie, Eberle, Ehlers, Fancher, Fiske, Flanagan, Garson, Grengo, Hankins, Hastings, Houchen, Isaacson, James, Johnson, Kaiser, Leonard, Lewis, Lundquist, McCormick, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Nickell, Nisbet, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Rosbach, Sanders, Schmidt, Sherman, Smith, Sprague, Struthers, Taylor, Teutsch, Tilly, Tupper, Van Dyken, Vander Stoop, Williams, Wilson, Winsley, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Armstrong, Becker, Bender, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Cole, Ellis, Erak, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Granlund, Grimm, Heck, Hine, King J., King R., Kreidler, Lux, Martinis, Maxie, Monohon, Nelson D., North, O'Brien, Owen, Pruitt, Rinehart, Rust, Salatino, Scott, Sommers, Stratton, Thompson, Valle, Walk, Wang, Warnke.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Nelson (D): "Mr. Speaker, on the basis of the ruling on the first amendment, I would ask you to rule this beyond the scope and object also."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Nelson, on the basis of the previous ruling, your point of order is well taken. The amendment is out of order.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3898 was passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4728, by Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance (originally sponsored by Senators Sellar and Wojahn):

On motion of Mr. Isaacson, the committee amendments were adopted.

Mr. Patrick moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Patrick and Garrett:

On page 7, line 11 after the period insert "This section shall not apply to bonds having a total value exceeding fifteen million dollars."

Representatives Patrick, Isaacson and Garrett spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Ms. Hine spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4728 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Amen, Armstrong, Barnes, Barr, Barrett, Becker, Bender, Berleen, Bickham, Bond, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Cantu, Chamberlain, Chandler, Clayton, Cole, Dawson, Dickie, Eberle, Ehlers, Ellis, Erak, Fancher, Fiske, Flanagan, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Garson, Granlund, Greengo, Grimm, Hankins, Hastings, Heck, Hine, Houchen, Isaacson, James, Johnson, Kaiser, King J., King R., Kreidler, Leonard, Lewis, Lundquist, Lux, Martinis, Maxie, McCormick, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson D., Nelson G. A., Nickell, Nisbet, North, O'Brien, Owen, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Pruitt, Rinehart, Rosbach, Rust, Salatino, Sanders, Schmidt, Scott, Sherman, Smith, Sommers, Sprague, Stratton, Struthers, Taylor, Teutsch, Thompson, Tilly, Tupper, Valle, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Walk, Wang, Warnke, Williams, Wilson, Winsley, and Mr. Speaker.

Not voting: Representative Eng.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4728 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4425, by Senators Wojahn, Haley, Gaspard and Bottiger:

Revising the requirement for certain port district elections on the issue of increasing the number of commissioners to five.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. O'Brien moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives O'Brien, Sommers, Nelson (G), Isaacson and Nelson (D):

On page 1, after line 23 insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The commissions in port districts with a population of five hundred thousand or more shall join together in a study for the express purpose to promote and encourage a stable, more efficient and more economical system of port operations, and shall report the results of the study to the 1983 regular session of the legislature."

Mr. Tilly moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On line 2 of the amendment after "more" strike "shall" and insert "may"

Representatives Tilly and Isaacson spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Ms. Sommers spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Ms. Hine.

Ms. Hine: "Representative Isaacson, this is only for ports which have populations of over 500,000. Do the ports you refer to come in this category?"

Mr. Isaacson: "Thank you, Representative Hine, that's one of the problems. We do not have that population basis to argue in their behalf. I'm afraid, by a political maneuver here, business can be taken away from those ports, and they would be left literally high and dry."

Representatives Hine and O'Brien spoke against the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Tilly spoke again in favor of it.

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representative O'Brien and others as amended.

Representatives O'Brien and Nelson (D) spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Salatino, Martinis and Kaiser spoke against it.

Ms. Sommers moved adoption of the following verbal amendment to the amendment:

On line 1 of the amendment after "in" and before "port" insert "Puget Sound" and after "districts" strike "with a population of five hundred thousand or more"

Representatives Sommers and Martinis spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Ehlers spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Sommers yielded to question by Mr. Nisbet.

Mr. Nisbet: "Representative Sommers, in your use of the words 'Puget Sound' in this amendment to the amendment, what do you consider to be part of Puget Sound? Which ports would that include?"

Ms. Sommers: "It was my intent, Representative Nisbet, that it would include any of the ports. It was my intent to include Clark County as well. I think we would be far better off to include all of the ports in Puget Sound and along the Western Washington shoreline. We're just saying to 'study it.' That's all we're saying, and I certainly meant to include the ports in your area."

Mr. Nisbet spoke against the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

The Speaker again stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representative O'Brien and others as amended.

Mr. O'Brien spoke again in favor of the amendment as amended, and it was not adopted.

Mr. Lundquist moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 1, line 16 strike "thereafter, the same" and insert "(~~thereafter, the same~~), such a"
On page 1, line 17 after "commissioners" insert "of any port district"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Salatino: "Mr. Speaker, in relation to Rule 14, there is a bill in committee right now, I believe in Local Government Committee, that deals exactly with this particular subject matter."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Salatino, the rule states: 'No bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by adding thereto or incorporating therein any other bill or resolution pending before the house.' I would doubt seriously that there is a bill pending before the house that just says 'such a' or 'of any port district.' I would think your point of order is not well taken."

Mr. Salatino: "It's my understanding that Representative Lundquist has a bill in committee dealing with this subject."

The Speaker: "The subject is not the bill. House Rule 14 D says you cannot amend a bill; it has nothing to do with subject matter."

Representatives Lundquist, Struthers and Fiske spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Isaacson, Martinis and Hine spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Lundquist to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4425, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 55; not voting, 3.

Voting yea: Representatives Amen, Armstrong, Barnes, Barr, Bond, Brekke, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Eberle, Ellis, Fancher, Fiske, Flanagan, Garrett, Greengo, Hankins, Hastings, Houchen, James, Lundquist, Maxie, McDonald, Mitchell, Nelson D., Nelson G. A., Nisbet, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Rosbach, Smith, Struthers, Taylor, Teutsch, Tilly, Van Dyken, Wilson, and Mr. Speaker.

Not voting: Representative Eng.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4425, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Ms. Sommers: "Mr. Speaker, is it your intention to reconvene the House at 1:30?"

The Speaker: "Yes."

Ms. Sommers: "Mr. Speaker, I have just been advised by the Chairman of Ways and Means that the so-called 'Gang of Eight' meets at 1:30. I really think that it is improper and unfair to expect those who represent the budget and revenue work, those members who are the members on the fiscal committee, to be expected to meet off the floor during the time that the House is in session and conducting important business. I ask you to allow us to meet at a time that does not conflict with normal floor business. We have a responsibility to be here; we have a responsibility to our constituents; we have a responsibility to the taxpayers, and I'm asking you again to allow us to meet when it is not in conflict with our responsibilities to be here on this floor."

The Speaker: "Representative Sommers, my understanding is that the bipartisan committee was established by the four caucuses, and it's up to that so-called 'Gang of Eight,' as you've called them, to find the time mutually agreeable to meet."

The Speaker declared the House to be recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

On page 1, line 26 after "financing." insert "In the event a list of registered and legal owners of motor vehicles is used for any purpose other than that authorized in subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section, the manufacturer, governmental agency, financial institution or their authorized agents or contractors responsible for the unauthorized disclosure or use will be denied further access to such information by the department of licensing."

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Wilson spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. Van Dyken spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Van Dyken, I see in sections 8 and 9 that copies of it be directed to the Director of the Department of Ecology. Could you explain the purpose of that?"

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Isaacson, my directions to the staff in drafting this were to bring the election laws for flood control districts into conformity with the existing election laws for other such districts. I presume the purpose of that language is to notify the Department of Ecology of the results of the election so the department knows who to contact with correspondence regarding the district."

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Van Dyken, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

In line 8 of the title before the period insert "; amending section 63, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 as amended by section 4, chapter 26, Laws of 1965 and RCW 86.09.187; amending section 111, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.331; amending section 120, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.358; amending section 121, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.361; amending section 123, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.367; amending section 124, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.370; amending section 62, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.184"

Mr. Patrick spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Patrick yielded to question by Mr. Erak.

Mr. Erak: "Representative Patrick, exactly what do you mean by saying it gives some powers to the tenant and not to the landlord? What kind of powers are we talking about here?"

Mr. Patrick: "Representative Erak, the landlords will have to retain certain property, and if the previous amendment flies, then that property will not have to be retained; the landlord can get rid of it in any manner he sees fit."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Armstrong yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Armstrong, your arguments for the measure, I understand with one exception and that is that recognizing that these materials are to be stored for sixty days requires a storage fee be established. In the landlord-tenant, act there is no provision for retaining advance deposits from the tenant and it must be returned within fourteen days. Does this law permit that extension of time?"

Mr. Armstrong: "No, this law does not provide for extending the fourteen days to sixty days, the amount of time the landlord has to return the money, but the law also does not require that the money be returned within fourteen days. The only requirement in the landlord-tenant act is that the landlord notify the tenant within fourteen days how much money he or she is retaining for what purpose, so there is no need for such an amendment."

Mr. Isaacson spoke against the amendment to the amendment, and it was not adopted.

Mr. Armstrong moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Patrick and Armstrong to the committee amendment:

On page 14, line 16 after "memorabilia," insert "clothes."

Representatives Armstrong and Patrick spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Isaacson spoke against it.

Mr. Armstrong spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Armstrong yielded to question by Mr. Scott.

Mr. Scott: "Representative Armstrong, I'm a little bit confused here. Why would the landlord go in and repossess these clothes out of somebody's apartment?"

Mr. Armstrong: "Just to clear it for the next tenant, but what the landlord could do is put the same items in the basement and wait sixty days and comply with the act and with the needs of the tenant."

Mr. Scott spoke against the amendment to the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Ms. Houchen.

Ms. Houchen: "Representative Isaacson, I would like to give you an example of what could happen in my district. I have the Oak Harbor Naval Air Station, as you are aware, and if a fellow went out on a cruise on active duty for the Navy—I believe they go for about seven months at a time—and had a residence in an apartment in Oak Harbor, and perhaps while he was gone, his wife decided to leave him; what will he find when he gets home?"

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Houchen, that's a question that defines the extreme of a concern. Again, I think most landlords are honest, and I think in a case like that a landlord must make up his mind and must use good judgment. I think, if you will look at it in that light, he would save the material and store it. Unless he is notified that the place has been abandoned, he doesn't have authority to enter unless he posts a notice on the door, and having so posted a notice and not getting any response, and having it witnessed, then he must take action because he is not getting any return on that investment. In those instances, I think it would behoove him, of course, to store the material, because he would be subject to suit by the person who returned and found his material gone. There is recourse under existing law for him to recover and reclaim losses as a consequence of improper action."

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Patrick moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Patrick and Armstrong to the committee amendment:

On page 14, line 27 after "mailing," insert "If the landlord violates the provisions of this section he shall be liable for twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant."

Representatives Patrick, Padden and Becker spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Sanders and Wang spoke against it.

Mr. Vander Stoep moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 6 of the House committee amendment following section 4 add a new section to read as follows:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The intent of this section is to establish a pilot program that will permit selected school districts to operate on a flexible school year basis. The objective of this pilot program will be to determine if cost savings, constant or improved achievement, and positive support from students, staff, parents, and the community will result from adopting a school year based on a four-day work week.

Notwithstanding the requirement of a school term of at least one hundred eighty days in RCW 28A.58.180, 28A.01.025, 28A.41.130, 28A.41.170, 28A.58.075, 28A.58.754 or 28A.59.180, or in any other provision of law, any school district chosen to participate in the flexible school year pilot program pursuant to this section shall be required to maintain a minimum school term of at least a total number of hours equal to the minimum program hour offering required for each grade level under RCW 28A.58.754. Funding shall not be reduced to any school district due to participation in this program.

Any school district may apply to the superintendent of public instruction for participation in the flexible school year project. At least one public hearing must be held prior to the application. Application must be submitted no later than May 1 of each year prior to the 1982-83 and 1983-84 school year on forms provided by the superintendent of public instruction and shall include an assurance by the school district that the following conditions will be met:

- (1) The school year will be based on a four-day week;
- (2) Participation will be for a minimum of one complete school year;
- (3) participation for two school years, although not required, will be a goal of the district;
- (4) Additional fiscal data as required by the superintendent of public instruction will be reported;
- (5) A district survey of students, parents, staff, and the community will be conducted and reported as required by the superintendent of public instruction.

The superintendent of public instruction shall:

- (a) Prepare and distribute project applications;
- (b) Select up to ten school districts that apply for the project; every effort shall be made to select a cross section of districts based on enrollment, geographical size and location;
- (c) Collect such fiscal information necessary to evaluate the cost impact of a flexible school year;
- (d) Prepare, distribute to districts, and collect the results of a survey of students, district staff, parents, and the community at the end of each school year;
- (e) Submit a project report to the education and ways and means committees of the house of representatives and senate by October 1, 1983 and October 1, 1984.

The program shall be effective for the 1982-83 and 1983-84 school years.

The superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education may adopt new or amended rules as necessary to carry out this pilot project.

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

The Speaker: "Representative Ehlers, the Speaker will take the matter into consideration overnight and rule on it tomorrow."

March 7, 1982

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4663, Prime Sponsor: Committee on Natural Resources, modifying the state timber sales program. Reported by Committee on Ways and Means.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Section 1. (1) The legislature finds as follows:

(a) A competitive, financially healthy forest products industry is important to the economic well-being of the state and the trust beneficiaries of the state forest lands administered by the department of natural resources. The forest products industry provides employment, tax revenues, and a long-term, continuous source of income for the state educational system and other trust beneficiaries. A reduction in the number of timber companies would increase unemployment, decrease tax revenues, and reduce competition and the levels of short-term and long-term income for the trust beneficiaries.

(b) The forest products industry is currently suffering an economic downturn. Current economic conditions will hinder certain purchasers from meeting timber contract obligations to the state and may lead to business failures.

(c) The United States forest service and the state of Oregon have provided certain relief to some timber sales purchasers. Action by this state is necessary to maintain a competitive timber sales program and to insure a regular and timely harvest of timber from state lands.

(d) The interests of the state and the trust beneficiaries will be best served by modifying current state law as it applies to the state's timber sales program.

(e) The measures provided for in this act balance the needs of the trust beneficiaries for short-term revenue and cash flow with the long-term need for a competitive forest products industry which will provide a sustained income to the trusts in the future.

(2) The legislature further finds that the department of natural resources should have authority to take certain steps to:

- (a) Help retain the values of existing sales of timber;
- (b) Promote harvesting and the production of income to the state;
- (c) Stimulate employment in the forest products industry; and
- (d) Assist the forest products industry to assure future diversity and competitiveness.

(3) The legislature further finds that the board of natural resources, as the designated trust land manager, is the appropriate body to establish annual sales levels of timber from state trust lands, and that a significant volume of short-term sales offered over the course of the next two years will aid in efforts to generate sufficient trust income and help meet the goals outlined in subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Sections 3 through 9 of this act shall be known as the forest products industry recovery act of 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 3 through 9 of this act.

(1) 'Commissioner' means the commissioner of public lands.

(2) 'Department' means the department of natural resources.

(3) 'Timber sale contract' means a contract for the purchase of state timber from the department which has a minimum appraisal value over twenty thousand dollars and has been purchased at public auction by voice or sealed bid.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 79.01.132, the department, upon application by the purchaser of an existing state timber sale contract entered into between January 1, 1978, and January 1, 1980, is authorized to extend such contract without charge one day for every day the purchaser engages in or has agreed to engage in the removal of timber purchased by that purchaser under a timber sale contract: PROVIDED, That no more than sixty percent of the timber sales sold in calendar years 1982 and 1983 shall be designated by the department as sales on which a purchaser may earn extension time credits. Such extension shall be in accordance with and computed on the basis of rules adopted by the department, including specifying the minimum volume required to be removed on a daily basis to earn an extension time credit. The department's authority to grant the extensions under this section expires on December 31, 1983. The extension days earned as provided in this section may only be utilized to extend a state timber sale without charge up to and including December 31, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department of natural resources is authorized for existing sales of timber purchased at auction between January 1, 1978, and January 1, 1980, which sales had a minimum appraised price of more than twenty thousand dollars, to enter into agreements with a purchaser authorizing the credit of the extension fee to the purchase of timber if the extension fee is paid prior to the expiration date of the existing contract or an extension thereof. The credit shall be applied to the final payment for the removal, processing, or cutting of timber or other forest products conveyed. The department of natural resources may enter into agreements under this section upon application by a purchaser of a qualifying sale in accordance with rules adopted by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall only apply to defaults by purchasers of any state timber sale contract entered into between January 1, 1978, and January 1, 1980:

(a) If the default is after the effective date of this act; and

(b) If the department receives notification from the purchaser in writing prior to July 15, 1982; and

(c) Limited to a total number of sales having a cumulative volume remaining under contract of not more than fifteen million board feet of timber. Such volume of each sale shall be determined by utilizing the original cruise estimates.

(2) Any purchaser defaulting on a contract under subsection (1) of this section shall not be refunded any cash moneys paid to the department or any other moneys expended as a result of the contract, including, but not limited to, cash deposits, extension fees, bond deposits, or interest charges. That purchaser shall also be charged a fee of twenty-five hundred dollars for the administrative costs of reselling the timber.

(3) The purchaser shall receive a credit from the department for the value of any road work completed. The value of the road work shall be the value of the percentage of road work completed based on the original appraisal for the entire road work on the sale as determined by the department of natural resources. Additional credits shall not be allowed on the defaulted contract and additional damages, fees, or penalties shall not be assessed by the department against the purchaser.

(4) The credit for road work completed shall be used, at the choice of the purchaser of state timber, as an off-setting dollar amount of up to one-half of the price of stumpage being purchased, or as an off-setting dollar amount of up to one-half of any cash security deposits required on a contract for the purchase of state timber, or as an off-setting dollar amount of up to one-half for any extension fee due on a contract for the purchase of state timber.

(5) Defaults by a purchaser on sales not falling within the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall be governed by the applicable provisions of state law, rules, and timber sale contracts in existence prior to the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The commissioner shall adopt rules as necessary for the administration of sections 2 through 9 of this act. However, the failure to adopt such rules shall not prevent the immediate implementation of sections 2 through 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The interest rate on extensions granted after the effective date of this act on existing state timber sale contracts purchased prior to December 31, 1980, shall not exceed thirteen percent per year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 2 through 9 of this act do not apply to any sales of timber damaged by the eruption of Mount St. Helens.

Sec. 10. Section 33, chapter 255, Laws of 1927 as last amended by section 1, chapter 52, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 79.01.132 are each amended to read as follows:

When any timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel, or other valuable material on state lands is sold separate from the land, it may be sold as a lump sum sale or as a scale sale: PROVIDED, That upon the request of the purchaser, any lump sum sale over five thousand dollars appraised value shall be on the installment plan. Lump sum sales under five thousand dollars appraised value shall be paid for in cash. The initial deposits required in RCW 79.01.204, not to exceed twenty-five percent of the actual or projected purchase price, but in the case of lump sum sales over five thousand dollars not less than five thousand dollars, shall be made on the day of the sale. The purchaser shall notify the department of natural resources before any timber is cut and before removal or processing of any valuable materials on the sale area, at which time the department of natural resources may require, in the amount determined by the department, advance payment for the removal, processing, and/or cutting of timber or other valuable materials, or payment bonds or assignments of savings accounts acceptable to the department as adequate security. The amount of such advance payments and/or security shall at all times equal or exceed the value of timber cut and other valuable materials processed or removed until paid for. The initial deposit shall be maintained until all contract obligations of the purchaser are satisfied: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That all or a portion of said initial deposit may be applied as the final payment for said materials in the event the department of natural resources determines that adequate security exists for the performance or fulfillment of any remaining obligations of the purchaser under the sale contract.

In all cases where timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel, or other valuable material is sold separate from the land, the same shall revert to the state if not removed from the land within the period specified in the sale contract. Said specified period shall not exceed five years from the date of the purchase thereof: PROVIDED, That the specified periods in the sale contract for stone, sand, fill material, or building stone shall not exceed twenty years: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in all cases where, in the judgment of the department of natural resources, the purchaser is acting in good faith and endeavoring to remove such materials, the department of natural resources may extend the time for the removal thereof for any period not exceeding twenty years from the date of purchase for the stone, sand, fill material or building stone or for a total of ten years beyond the normal termination date specified in the original sale contract for all other material, upon payment to the state of a sum to be fixed by the department of natural resources, based on the estimated loss of income per acre to the state resulting from the granting of the extension but in no event less than fifty dollars per extension, plus interest on the unpaid portion of the contract. The interest rate shall be fixed, from time to time, by rule adopted by the board of natural resources and shall not be less than six percent per annum. The applicable rate of interest as fixed at the date of sale and the maximum extension payment shall be set forth in the contract. The method for calculating the unpaid portion of the contract upon which such interest shall be paid by the purchaser shall be set forth in the contract. The department of natural resources shall pay into the state treasury all sums received for such extension and the same shall be credited to the fund to which was credited the original purchase price of the material so sold: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any sale of timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel, sand, fill material, or building stone of an appraised value of five hundred dollars or less may be sold directly to the applicant for cash at full appraised value without notice or advertising.

The provisions of this section apply unless otherwise provided by statute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 2 through 9 of this act shall expire December 31, 1984. Such expiration shall not, however, modify or terminate any rights created by this act prior to its expiration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 2 through 9 of this act are each added to chapter 79.01 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 79.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) When timber situated on state lands is sold separately from the land, the sale contract shall include provisions for adjustments in the sale price to reflect changes in the market index subsequent to the time of sale. The price to be paid by a purchaser for timber removed during a calendar quarter shall equal the sum of the contract bid price and the market index change amount for that quarter.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) 'Market index' means a composite index established by the department of natural resources. Each index shall consist of either the current market prices of various species and grades of logs harvested in this state, or the current market price of wood products made from logs harvested in this state. The department shall establish as many distinct indexes as it finds necessary to accurately reflect changes in market prices of various species and grades of logs or wood products made from logs.

(b) 'Market index change amount' means an amount calculated by:

(i) Subtracting the market index for the calendar quarter during which the timber was sold from the market index for the calendar quarter in which the timber was removed; and

(ii) Dividing the remainder calculated under (b)(i) of this subsection by two.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 2 through 9 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately. Section 13 of this act shall take effect April 1, 1983.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. An advisory committee on timber contract price indexing is hereby created. The committee shall have eleven members. The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint two representatives, one from each party, to be members of the committee. The president of the senate shall appoint two senators, one from each party, to be members of the committee. The commissioner of public lands shall appoint seven members of the committee representing the department of natural resources, the timber products industry, the beneficiaries of the trusts, and the public. The committee shall study section 13 of this act and make recommendations to the department of natural resources regarding the implementation of the section. The department of natural resources shall provide such assistance as may be required by the committee. The department shall report its proposed rules for timber contract price indexing to the legislature prior to January 15, 1983.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.*

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 143, Prime Sponsor: Committee on Local Government, providing the means for the payment of indebtedness on public improvements. Reported by Committee on Revenue.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike the entire resolution and insert the following:

BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article VII of the state Constitution by adding a new section to read as follows:

Article VII, section Notwithstanding any provision of this Constitution, the legislature may by general law authorize the legislative authority of any county, city, or town to create boundaries in urban areas, within its jurisdiction, containing only that real property which is determined will be increased in true and fair value by reason of specified public improvements to redevelop deteriorated areas within those boundaries, and may provide that all or a portion of the ad valorem taxes levied within those boundaries against increases in the true and fair value of such real property may be used to pay for the specified public improvements or to pay public obligations incurred to fund the specified public improvements. Public obligations incurred for these public improvements and payable solely from revenues from these public improvements and such ad valorem taxes levied against the increases in real property value shall not constitute general indebtedness.

For the purposes of this section, 'ad valorem taxes' means:

(1) Ad valorem taxes subject to the aggregate limitation on tax levies by the state and all taxing districts in section 2 of this Article; and

(2) Ad valorem taxes levied by port districts and public utility districts, except for ad valorem taxes levied specifically for the purpose of making required payments of principal and interest on general indebtedness.

Nothing in this section authorizes the provision of public improvements which counties, cities, and towns may not otherwise provide.

Nothing in this section authorizes a county, city, or town to exercise powers of eminent domain contrary to the provisions of Article I, section 16.

Nothing in this section authorizes a county, city, or town to pledge all or part of its full faith and credit or any other tax revenues without complying with the laws relating to the incurring of general indebtedness, including Article VIII, section 1 and Article VIII, section 6, or to aggregate tax levies in excess of the limitation on levies in section 2 of this Article: PROVIDED, That no bonds that constitute general indebtedness and which use the funding mechanism contained in this section shall be issued to fund all or a portion of such specified public improvements without the assent of a majority of the voters of the county, city, or town issuing the bonds voting at an election to be held for that purpose.

After the initial adoption of a law by the legislature authorizing the use of ad valorem taxes levied against increases in the true and fair value of real property to finance specified public improvements, no amendment to such act which expands the nature of the areas within which ad valorem taxes levied against increases in the true and fair value of real property may be used to finance specified public improvements, or adds to the purposes and types of public improvements that may be financed with such revenues, or reduces the requirements which must be met if public obligations are incurred to fund the specified public improvements, shall be valid unless the amendment is enacted by a favorable vote of three-fifths of the members elected to each house of the legislature and is subject to referendum petition.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."

Signed by Representatives Greengo, Chairman; Flanagan, Vice Chairman; Rinehart, Ranking Minority Member; Addison, Bickham, Bond, Brown, Galloway, Granlund, Hastings, Rust, Sanders.

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4786, by Committee on Social and Health Services (originally sponsored by Senators Lee, Hayner, Deccio, Scott and Wojahn):

Modifying the community mental health services act.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Appropriations - Human Services recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 54th Day, March 5, 1982.)

Mr. Nisbet moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Mr. Nisbet, the following amendment by Representatives Nisbet and Becker to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 11, beginning with "The" on line 17 strike the material down to and including "services" on line 22 and insert "The county authority may, in the absence of a licensed service provider entity, become a licensed service provided entity pursuant to minimum standards required for licensing by the department for the purpose of providing services not available from licensed service providers;

(3) Operate as a licensed service provider if it deems that doing so is more efficient and cost effective than contracting for services. When doing so, the county authority shall comply with rules promulgated by the secretary that shall provide measurements to determine when a county provided service is more efficient and cost effective. Whenever a county authority chooses to operate as a licensed service provider, the secretary shall act as the county authority for that service."

On motion of Mr. Nisbet, the following amendment by Representatives Nisbet and Becker to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 18, line 27 strike "this chapter" and insert "chapter 71.24 RCW"

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Nisbet, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Nisbet and Lewis spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Nisbet yielded to question by Ms. Becker.

Ms. Becker: "Representative Nisbet, this bill contains the definition of 'acutely mentally ill,' and in order not to leave any questions about just what we're focusing on, I wonder if you could give us the benefit of your remarks and your understanding about our intent in amending this definition in the House Appropriations - Human Services Committee?"

Mr. Nisbet: "Thank you, Representative Becker. Our intent with this entire bill is to focus the state's available resources on those conditions and people in the greatest need of mental health care. The definition of acutely mentally ill speaks to a condition, not a person, and limits the condition to a short-term, severe crisis episode of a mental disorder or grave disability, or a condition presenting a likelihood of serious harm. It is our intent to make the availabilities to respond to and stabilize these conditions a priority for the community mental health system. It is not our intent to reopen the black hole of community mental health with the definition of acute mentally ill by authorizing endless hours of service at endless cost in an attempt to completely rehabilitate any person who has been in the condition of mentally ill at any time in his or her life. The key to this definition is the phrase 'short-term severe crisis episode.' It is our intent to allow the Department of Social and Health Services to establish administrative codes that will define this phrase operationally."

Ms. Becker: "Representative Nisbet, section 4 of this bill sets very clear priorities for service for 'the acutely mentally ill, the chronically mentally ill and the seriously disturbed.' Could you please tell us how members of the legislature, now and in the future, will be able to know the degree to which those priorities are being adhered to by the mental health system?"

Mr. Nisbet: "Section 4 of this bill directs the department to develop evaluation standards which will inform in information on the amount of service given to each priority mentioned and listed under this act. The same section directs DSHS to tell us the formula they will use in distributing funds we appropriate for community mental health to each of the priority groups. That formula is required to be based on the needs assessment done by the counties which focused on the acutely mentally ill, the chronically mentally ill and the seriously disturbed—the same priorities."

Representatives Becker, Williams and Wang spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4786 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Amen, Armstrong, Barnes, Barr, Barrett, Becker, Bender, Berleen, Bickham, Bond, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Cantu, Chamberlain, Chandler, Clayton, Cole, Dawson, Dickie, Eberle, Ehlers, Ellis, Eng, Erak, Fancher, Fiske, Flanagan, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Garson, Granlund, Greengo, Grimm, Hankins, Hastings, Heck, Hine, Houchen, Isaacson, James, Johnson, Kaiser, King J., King R., Kreidler, Leonard, Lewis, Lundquist, Lux, Martinis, Maxie, McCormick, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson D., Nelson G. A., Nickell, Nisbet, North, O'Brien, Owen, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Pruitt, Rinehart, Rosbach, Rust, Salatino, Sanders, Schmidt, Scott, Sherman, Smith, Sommers, Sprague, Stratton, Struthers, Taylor, Teutsch, Thompson, Tilly, Tupper, Valle, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Walk, Wang, Warnke, Williams, Wilson, and Mr. Speaker.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4786 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4366, by Senators Rasmussen and Craswell:

Modifying penalties for unlawful issuance of checks or drafts.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Barr moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, after line 27 insert:

"(6) For purposes of this section, any of the following shall be considered prima facie evidence of intent to defraud:

(a) Proof that, at the time of issuance, the person did not have an account with the drawee; or

(b) Proof that, when presentment was made within a reasonable time, the person did not have sufficient funds or credit with the bank or depository and the person did not make payment of money in the amount of the check or draft or otherwise arrange a settlement agreed upon by the holder of the check within twenty days after receiving written notice of dishonor or failure to make payment."

Mr. Barr spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Armstrong spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Armstrong yielded to question by Mr. Nickell.

Mr. Nickell: "Representative Armstrong, this is not quite clear about who initiates the settlement between the maker of the check and the person who has accepted it. Who has to initiate that agreement, the maker or the person who is holding the check?"

Mr. Armstrong: "I would suggest the maker had better initiate the settlement, had better be in town, know that his account was overdrawn, know that it was NSF and had gotten the mail. Those are all problems. I don't know whether everybody is always going to be there to get the mail that announces that the check was NSF. My real impression is that the prosecutor is going to initiate this settlement. My understanding of the Bremerton system is that someone in the police department is going to be calling people who have NSF checks and ask them if they want to be arrested."

Mr. Nickell: "In other words, you do feel that the holder of the check would have to appeal to the prosecuting attorney with this, and then he would contact the maker of the check?"

Mr. Armstrong: "Yes."

Ms. Schmidt spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Barr spoke again in favor of it.

The amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Padden and James spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4366 was deferred, and it was ordered placed on the bottom of today's third reading calendar.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4733, by Senator Hayner:

Modifying certain methods of handling juvenile offenders.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Institutions recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 56th Day, March 7, 1982.)

On motion of Ms. Houchen, the committee amendments to page 3 were adopted.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Van Dyken, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House immediately reconsider the vote by which the committee amendments to page 3 were adopted.

The motion was carried.

Ms. Houchen moved adoption of the committee amendments to page 3, line 5; page 3, line 33 and page 3, line 26.

Mr. Van Dyken spoke in favor of the committee amendments, and Mr. Struthers spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Ms. Hine.

Ms. Hine: "Representative Van Dyken, if a child commits an offense that child may go through the normal juvenile court process rather than through the diversion, I believe. What is the cost of going through? Is there an automatic fee if they choose to go through the normal court procedure?"

Mr. Van Dyken: "To my recollection, Representative Hine, court fees can be imposed based on the ability to pay. There is no requirement, to my knowledge."

Representatives Hine, Owen, Becker, Scott, Erak and Nelson (D) spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representative Houchen spoke against them.

Representatives Struthers and Houchen spoke again in opposition to the committee amendments.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Modifying provisions relating to pistols.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Nelson (G) moved adoption of the following amendment by Representative Salatino: On page 1, after line 25 insert new sections to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 9.41 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for anyone knowingly to carry onto public or private elementary or secondary school premises: (a) Any firearm, or (b) any dangerous weapon as defined in RCW 9.41.250, or (c) any device, commonly known as 'nun-chu-ka sticks,' consisting of two or more lengths of wood, metal, plastic, or similar substance connected with wire, rope, or other means, or (d) any device, commonly known as 'throwing stars,' which are multipointed, metal objects designed to embed upon impact from any aspect.

(2) Any person violating subsection (1) of this section is guilty of a class C felony.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to:

(a) Any person who by virtue of the person's office or public employment is vested by law with a duty to preserve public safety, maintain public order, or to make arrests for offenses, while in the performance of the duty;

(b) Any person engaged in military activities, sponsored by the federal or state governments while engaged in official duties; or

(c) Any person who has obtained prior written permission from the appropriate public school principal or equivalent private school official to carry the firearm, dangerous weapon, or other device under subsection (1) of this section onto school premises for a legitimate educational objective.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, I would like a ruling on the scope and object of this amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Padden, your point is not well taken. After debate has begun it is too late to raise a point of order."

Mr. Eberle spoke against the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Armstrong yielded to question by Mr. King (R).

Mr. King (R): "Representative Armstrong, the language in this amendment uses the term 'knowingly.' Would the fact pattern that was just presented to us of someone returning from hunting and having an unloaded rifle in the pickup, because it's illegal to have a loaded rifle, be guilty of a felony under this law, in your opinion?"

Mr. Armstrong: "I hesitate to answer because I haven't studied the issue fully, but it appears to me that 'knowingly' carrying onto public property is the only definition. If he knows he has that hunting weapon, that's 'knowingly'."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Patrick yielded to question by Mr. Erak.

Mr. Erak: "Representative Patrick, you are an experienced police officer and from the comments made by Representative Eberle, I would presume that the officer, if he did see a circumstance such as Representative Eberle described, would he use what we call 'common sense' in this particular matter, or would he automatically place somebody under arrest for a situation like that?"

Mr. Patrick: "Well, Representative Erak, I should point out that the police officer has to follow the law. If the law says it is illegal to carry that firearm on the school premises, then that's the law and it is a felony and the police officer would have to make an arrest. Let me take it one step further. I was a friend of this bill in the Ethics, Law and Justice Committee. I thought it was a good bill at that time and I voted in favor of its passage out of the committee. I didn't realize until after we had passed it out that there is one great big imperfection and that's the fact that the bill doesn't address the citizen who has a concealed weapon permit. Because of that, this is not a perfected amendment, and I would urge you to vote 'no' on the amendment."

Representatives Patrick and Nickell spoke against the amendment.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4470 was deferred.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order at 2:30 p.m. by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representative Salatino, who was excused.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The question before the House is a point of order raised by Representative Armstrong challenging the scope and object of the committee amendment by Committee on Ethics, Law and Justice to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3112. The original text of ESB 3112 extends the litigation-related costs that may be recovered by the prevailing party in a civil action. Section 1 of the committee amendment follows this same course by allowing the prevailing party in a civil action to bring a claim or counterclaim for damages and reasonable attorney fees where the original action was malicious. Therefore, both the original Senate bill and section 1 of the committee amendment have the object of extending the recourse available to the prevailing party in a civil action. Section 2 of the committee amendment involves the original text of ESB 3112. Section 3 of the committee amendment deals with clarifying the procedures for filing satisfactions of judgments, which is one of the post-litigation procedures related to civil actions. The original text of ESB 3112 also involves clarifying the post-litigation procedures relating to civil actions. The Speaker will rule that the House committee amendment which strikes the Senate bill is within scope and object. Your point is not well taken."

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the committee amendment.

Mr. Bickham moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Bickham and Scott to the committee amendment:

On page 2, line 30 after "fees" insert "not to exceed two dollars"

Mr. Bickham spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment, and Mr. Ellis spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bickham yielded to question by Mr. Wang.

Mr. Wang: "Representative Bickham, is it your intent to limit it to $2 per notarized item, or is it your intent to limit it to $2 total?"

Mr. Bickham: "That's $2 per document, Representative Wang."

The amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4418, by Committee on Social and Health Services (originally sponsored by Senator Deccio):

Enacting the social and health services financial responsibility act.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Appropriations – Human Services recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 56th Day, March 7, 1982)

Mr. Nisbet moved adoption of the committee amendments.

Mr. Padden moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Padden and Taylor to the committee amendment:

Mr. Padden spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Nisbet spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Padden yielded to question by Mr. Dawson.

Mr. Dawson: "Representative Padden, an HMO is not considered an insurance company. I would presume that the premiums would not be considered insurance premiums. Could you clarify whether or not this particular provision would exempt public facilities owned by HMO's?"

Mr. Padden: "Representative Dawson, no, this would not. It is only for hospitals and as I indicated earlier, hospitals which charge no fees to users, present no billings, either directly or indirectly to users and would only involve basically charitable institutions."

Mr. Taylor spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Nisbet yielded to question by Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell: "Representative Nisbet, what would be the fiscal impact if we were to eliminate the fees from the Shriner hospitals?"

Mr. Nisbet: "Quite frankly, I don't know what they would be. I believe it's one or two hundred dollars."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Padden yielded to question by Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell: "Representative Padden, would the Orthopedic Hospital be included under this amendment?"

Mr. Padden: "No, it would be my opinion that the Orthopedic Hospital would not be included because they do accept insurance moneys and as indicated in the amendment, that would exclude them, so they would not be covered."

Representatives Becker and Mitchell spoke against the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Padden spoke again in favor of it.

Mr. Nisbet again opposed the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Taylor spoke again in favor of it.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the committee amendment.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. there is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The intent of this section is to enhance the effectiveness of educational service districts by establishing a pilot program which will permit selected school districts in conjunction with their educational service district to operate on a flexible school year basis.

In addition to determining whether or not a flexible school year aids educational service districts in the accomplishment of their goals it shall be the objective of this pilot program to determine if cost savings, constant or improved achievement, and positive support from students, staff, parents, and the community will result from adopting a school year based on a four-day work week.

Notwithstanding the requirement of a school term of at least one hundred eighty days in RCW 28A.58.180, 28A.01.025, 28A.41.130, 28A.41.170, 28A.58.075, 28A.58.754 or 28A.59.180, or in other provision of law, any school district chosen to participate in the flexible school year pilot program pursuant to this section shall be required to maintain a minimum school term of at least a total number of hours equal to the minimum program hour offering required for each grade level under RCW 28A.58.754. Funding shall not be reduced to any school district due to participation in this program.

Any school district may apply to the superintendent of public instruction for participation in the flexible school year project through its educational service district. At least one public hearing must be held by the school district prior to application. Application must be submitted no later than May 1 of each year prior to the 1982-83 and 1983-84 school year on forms provided by the superintendent of public instruction to educational service districts and shall include an assurance by the school district that the following conditions will be met:

- (1) The school will work closely with its educational service district to insure the maximum benefit of the program is obtained by this schedule change;
- (2) The school year will be based on a four-day week;
- (3) Participation will be for a minimum of one complete school year;
- (4) Participation for two school years, although not required, will be a goal of the district;
- (5) Additional fiscal data as required by the superintendent of public instruction or educational service district will be reported;
- (6) A district survey of students, parents, staff, and the community will be conducted and reported as required by the superintendent of public instruction or educational service district.

The superintendent of public instruction shall:

- (a) Prepare and distribute project applications to educational service districts;
- (b) Select up to ten school districts that have an educational service district that apply for the project; every effort shall be made to select a cross section of districts based on enrollment, geographical size, historic use of educational service districts and location;
- (c) Collect such fiscal information necessary to evaluate the cost impact of a flexible school year;
- (d) Prepare, distribute to districts, and collect the results of a survey of students, district staff, parents, and the community at the end of each school year;
- (e) Submit a project report which shall include an analysis of the impact on educational service districts to the education and ways and means committees of the house of representatives and senate by October 1,

1983 and October 1, 1984. The superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education may adopt new or amended rules as necessary to carry out this pilot project."

In addition to the procedure provided in RCW 28A.57.415 for returning to the system of school directors running at large, upon receipt of written notice from any school district superintendent of a school district theretofore divided into directors' districts, that such school district board of directors by majority vote requests a return to the system of directors running at large within the district, an educational service district superintendent, after formation of the question to be submitted to the voters, shall give notice thereof to the county auditor who shall call and hold a special election of the voters of the entire school district to approve or reject such proposal, such election to be called, conducted and the returns canvassed as in regular school district elections.

If approval of a majority of those registered voters voting in the election is acquired, at the expiration of terms of the incumbent directors of such school district their successors shall be elected at large.

Nothing in this section is applicable to any school district either (1) of the first class having within its boundaries a city with a population of four hundred thousand people or more in class AA counties, or (2) formed through the consolidation of two or more preexisting school districts.

Sec. 7. Section 9, chapter 15, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.57.415 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the procedure provided in section 6 of this amendatory act for returning to the system of school directors running at large, upon receipt of a written petition ((by an educational service district superintendent)) signed by at least twenty percent of the registered voters of a school district theretofore divided into directors' districts ((after a majority vote thereon in accordance with RCW 28A.57.050(4)), as now or hereafter amended)), which petition shall request a return to the system of directors running at large within the district, ((the)) an educational service district superintendent, after formation of the question to be submitted to the voters, shall give notice thereof to the county auditor who shall call and hold a special election of the voters of the entire school district to approve or reject such proposal, such election to be called, conducted and the returns canvassed as in regular school district elections.

Alternatively, upon receipt of a written petition signed by at least twenty percent of the registered voters in a school district, other than a school district either (1) of the first class having within its boundaries a city with a population of four hundred thousand people or more in class AA counties or (2) formed through the consolidation of two or more pre-existing school districts, which petition requests the district to be divided into directors' districts, an educational service district superintendent shall give notice thereof to the county auditor who shall submit the proposal to voters at the next regular school district election. If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition shall be affirmative, the county committee shall proceed to divide the district into directors' districts. ((Such director districts, if approved, shall not become effective until the next regular school election when a new five member board of directors shall be elected, one from each of five director districts from among the residents of the respective director district by the electors of the entire district, two for a term of two years and three for a term of four years, unless such district elects its directors for six years, in which case, one for a term of two years, two for a term of four years, and two for a term of six years.))

Any director district with more than one member residing within its boundaries shall be represented by the member whose term expires last. If there are two or more members whose terms will expire simultaneously and later than any other member or members residing within the director district, the chairman of the school district board of directors shall determine which member shall represent the director district. At the expiration of the term of each school board member, the electors of the director district represented by the member shall select a resident to represent the director district on the school board."

"Section 1. Section 69.50.505, chapter 308, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 48, Laws of 1981 and by section 32, chapter 67, Laws of 1981 and RCW 69.50.505 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(a) The following are subject to seizure and forfeiture:

(1) All controlled substances which have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed, or acquired in violation of this chapter;

(2) All raw materials, products, and equipment of any kind which are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting any controlled substance in violation of this chapter;

(3) All property which is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in paragraphs (1) or (2);

(4) All conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles, or vessels, which are used, or intended for use, to transport, or in any manner to facilitate the transportation, for the purpose of sale or receipt of property described in paragraphs (1) or (2), but:

(iii) A conveyance is not subject to forfeiture for a violation of RCW 69.50.401((c))(d); (and);

(iv) A forfeiture of a conveyance encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission; and

(v) When the owner of a conveyance has been arrested under this chapter the conveyance may not be subject to forfeiture unless it is seized or process is issued for its seizure within ten days of the owner's arrest;

(5) All books, records, and research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes, and data which are used, or intended for use, in violation of this chapter;

(6) All drug paraphernalia; and

(7) All moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, or other intangible property of value furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in exchange for a controlled substance in violation of this chapter, all proceeds traceable to such an exchange, and all moneys, negotiable instruments, and securities used or intended to be used to facilitate any violation of this chapter: PROVIDED, That no property may be forfeited under this paragraph, to the extent of the interest of an owner, by reason of any act or omission which that owner establishes was committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent.

(b) Property subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any board inspector or law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure without process may be made if:

(1) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant;

(2) The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this chapter;

The law enforcement agency under whose authority the seizure was made shall cause notice to be served within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the property seized and the person in charge thereof and any person having any known right or interest therein, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized property. The notice may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by certified mail with return receipt requested. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the fifteen day period following the seizure.

(d) If no person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure, the item seized shall be deemed forfeited.

(e) If any person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure, the person or persons shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW, except that any person asserting a claim or right may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction if the aggregate value of the article or articles involved is more than five hundred dollars. A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be under Title 34 RCW. In a court hearing between two or more claimants to the article or articles involved, the prevailing party shall be entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorney's fees. The burden of producing evidence shall be upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section. The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the article or articles to the claimant upon a determination by the administrative law judge or court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section.

(f) When property is forfeited under this chapter the board or seizing law enforcement agency may:

(1) Retain it for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state release such property to such agency for the exclusive use of enforcing the provisions of this chapter;

(2) Sell that which is not required to be destroyed by law and which is not harmful to the public. The proceeds and all moneys forfeited under this title shall be used for payment of all proper expenses of the investigation leading to the seizure, including any money delivered to the subject of the investigation by the law enforcement agency, and of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, actual costs of the prosecuting or city attorney, and court costs. Fifty percent of the money remaining after payment of such expenses shall be deposited in the criminal justice training account established under RCW 43.101.210 which shall be appropriated by law to the Washington state criminal justice training commission and fifty percent shall be deposited in the general fund of the state, county, and/or city of the seizing law enforcement agency;

(3) Request the appropriate sheriff or director of public safety to take custody of the property and remove it for disposition in accordance with law; or

(4) Forward it to the Bureau for disposition.

(g) Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V that are possessed, transferred, sold, or offered for sale in violation of this chapter are contraband and shall be seized and summarily forfeited to the state. Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V, which are seized or come into the possession of the board, the owners of which are unknown, are contraband and shall be summarily forfeited to the board.

(h) Species of plants from which controlled substances in Schedules I and II may be derived which have been planted or cultivated in violation of this chapter, or of which the owners or cultivators are unknown, or which are wild growths, may be seized and summarily forfeited to the board.

(i) The failure, upon demand by a board inspector or law enforcement officer, of the person in occupancy or in control of land or premises upon which the species of plants are growing or being stored to produce an appropriate registration or proof that he is the holder thereof constitutes authority for the seizure and forfeiture of the plants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds that imitation controlled substances are being manufactured to imitate the appearance of the dosage units of controlled substances for sale to school age youths and others to facilitate the fraudulent sale of controlled substances. The legislature further finds that manufacturers are endeavoring to profit from the manufacture of these imitation controlled substances while avoiding liability by accurately labeling the containers or packaging which contain these imitation controlled substances. The close similarity of appearance between dosage units of imitation controlled substances and controlled substances is indicative of a deliberate and wilful attempt to profit by deception without regard to the tragic human consequences. The use of imitation controlled substances is responsible for a growing number of injuries and deaths, and the legislature hereby declares that this chapter is necessary for the protection and preservation of the public health and safety.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Controlled substance' means a substance as that term is defined in chapter 69.50 RCW.

(2) 'Distribute' means the actual or constructive transfer (or attempted transfer) or delivery or dispensing to another of an imitation controlled substance.

(3) 'Imitation controlled substance' means a substance that is not a controlled substance, but which by appearance or representation would lead a reasonable person to believe that the substance is a controlled substance. Appearance includes, but is not limited to, color, shape, size, and markings of the dosage unit. Representation includes, but is not limited to, representations or factors of the following nature:

(a) Statements made by an owner or by anyone else in control of the substance concerning the nature of the substance, or its use or effect;

(b) Statements made to the recipient that the substance may be resold for inordinate profit; or

(c) Whether the substance is packaged in a manner normally used for illicit controlled substances.

(4) 'Manufacture' means the production, preparation, compounding, processing, encapsulating, packaging or repackaging, or labeling or relabeling of an imitation controlled substance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) It is unlawful for any person to manufacture, distribute, or possess with intent to distribute, an imitation controlled substance. Any person who violates this subsection shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a class C felony.

(2) Any person eighteen years of age or over who violates subsection (1) of this section by distributing an imitation controlled substance to a person under eighteen years of age is guilty of a class B felony.

(3) It is unlawful for any person to cause to be placed in any newspaper, magazine, handbill, or other publication, or to post or distribute in any public place, any advertisement or solicitation offering for sale imitation controlled substances. Any person who violates this subsection is guilty of a class C felony.

(4) No civil or criminal liability shall be imposed by virtue of this chapter on any person registered under the Uniform Controlled Substances Act pursuant to RCW 69.50.301 or 69.50.303 who manufactures, distributes, or possesses an imitation controlled substance for use as a placebo or other use by a registered practitioner, as defined in RCW 69.50.101(t), in the course of professional practice or research.

(5) This chapter shall not apply to offenses defined and punishable under the provisions of RCW 69.50.401(c).

(6) No prosecution under this chapter shall be dismissed solely by reason of the fact that the dosage units were contained in a bottle or other container with a label accurately describing the ingredients of the imitation controlled substance dosage units. The good faith of the defendant shall be an issue of fact for the trier of fact.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Imitation controlled substances shall be subject to seizure, forfeiture, and disposition in the same manner as are controlled substances under RCW 69.50.505.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The attorney general is authorized to apply for injunctive action against a manufacturer or distributor of imitation controlled substances in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Any manufacturer of controlled substances licensed or registered in a state requiring such licensure or registration, may bring injunctive or other action against a manufacturer or distributor of imitation controlled substances in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 2 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 69 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1982."

In line 1 of the title, after "substances;" strike the remainder of the title, and insert "reenacting and amending section 69.50.505, chapter 308, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 48,

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 40 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 5 beginning with "Section" strike all of the material down to and including "requires." on page 6, line 32 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) During the period between the effective date of this 1982 act, and January 1, 1986, the reporting provisions of this chapter are suspended as they pertain to candidates, elected officials, and agencies in jurisdictions with less than one thousand registered voters as of the date of the most recent general election in the jurisdiction. The suspension also applies to political committees formed to support or oppose ballot propositions in such jurisdictions, and to persons making independent expenditures in support of or opposition to such ballot propositions.

(2) The suspension shall not apply in any jurisdiction from which a 'petition for disclosure' containing the valid signatures of five percent of the number of registered voters, as of the date of the most recent general election in the jurisdiction, is filed with the commission. The commission shall by rule prescribe the form of the petition. After the signatures are gathered, the petition shall be presented to the auditor or elections officer of the county, or counties, in which the jurisdiction is located. The auditor or elections officer shall verify the signatures and certify to the commission that the petition contains no less than the required number of valid signatures. The commission, upon receipt of a valid petition, shall order every incumbent elected official and candidate in the jurisdiction to file the required statement and reports within thirty days of the date of the order.

(3) The suspension shall not apply in any jurisdiction which by ordinance, resolution, or other official action has petitioned the commission to void the suspension with respect to elected officials and candidates of the jurisdiction. A copy of the action shall be sent to the commission. If the commission finds the petition to be a valid action of the appropriate governing body or authority, the commission shall issue an order voiding the suspension for that jurisdiction. The commission, upon approval of the action, shall order every incumbent elected official and candidate in the jurisdiction to file the required statement and reports within thirty days of the date of the order.

(4) Any person exempted from reporting by the suspension under this section may at his or her option file the statement and reports.

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 6, Laws of 1947 and RCW 68.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of county commissioners shall have full authority to hear and determine the petition, and if it finds that the formation of the district will be conducive to the public welfare and convenience, it shall by resolution so declare, otherwise it shall deny the petition. If the board finds in favor of the formation of the district, it shall designate the name and number of the district, fix the boundaries thereof, and cause an election to be held therein for the purpose of determining whether or not the district shall be organized under the provisions of this chapter, and for the purpose of electing its first cemetery district commissioners. The board shall, prior to calling the said election, name three registered resident electors who are property owners or are purchasing property under contract within the boundaries of the district as candidates for election as cemetery district commissioners. These electors are exempt from the requirements of chapter 42.17 RCW.

Sec. 3. Section 14, chapter 6, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 40, chapter 126, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 68.16.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The affairs of the district shall be managed by a board of cemetery district commissioners composed of three qualified electors of the district. Members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall receive expenses necessarily incurred in attending meetings of the board or when otherwise engaged in district business. The board shall fix the compensation to be paid the secretary and other employees of the district. The first three cemetery district commissioners shall serve only until the first day in January following the next general election, provided such election occurs thirty or more days after the formation of the district, and until their successors have been elected and qualified and have assumed office in accordance with RCW 29.04.170. At the next general district election, as provided in RCW 29.13.020, provided it occurs thirty or more days after the formation of the district, three members of the board of cemetery commissioners shall be chosen. They and all subsequently elected cemetery commissioners shall have the same qualifications as required of the first three cemetery commissioners and are exempt from the requirements of chapter 42.17 RCW. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall serve for a term of six years beginning on the first day in January following; the candidate receiving the next higher number of votes shall serve for a term of four years from said date; and the candidate receiving the next higher number of votes shall serve for a term of two years from said date. Upon the expiration of their respective terms, all cemetery commissioners shall be elected for terms of six years to begin on the first day in January next succeeding the day of election and shall serve until their successors have been elected and qualified and assume office in accordance with RCW 29.04.170. Elections shall be called, noticed, conducted and canvassed by the same officials as provided for general county elections. The polling places for a cemetery district election shall be those of the county voting precincts which include any of the territory within the cemetery district, and may be located outside the boundaries of the district, and no such election shall be held irregular or void on that account.

This section applies to all counties.

(1) Joint city-county housing authorities are hereby authorized when the legislative authority of the county and the legislative authority of any city or cities within the county have authorized such joint city-county housing authorities by ordinance.

(2) ((The ordinance enacted by the legislative authorities creating the joint housing authority shall prescribe the number of commissioners, the method for their appointment and length of their terms, the election of officers, and the method for removal of commissioners)) When the legislative authorities adopt an ordinance as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the mayor, or mayors, involved and the county legislative authority shall appoint five persons as commissioners of the joint city-county housing authority created. The commissioners who are first appointed shall be designated to serve for terms of one, two, three, four, and five years, respectively, from the date of their appointment, but thereafter commissioners shall be appointed for a term of office of five years, except that all vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term: PROVIDED, That in the event existing city and/or county housing authorities are merged into the newly created joint city-county housing authority, the existing members of the respective boards of commissioners shall be appointed as members of the board of commissioners of the newly created city-county housing authority, except that where the aggregate number of existing commissioners exceeds five, those five commissioners having the greatest length of service shall serve as commissioners of the joint city-county housing authority.

(3) No commissioner of an authority may be an officer or employee of the city or county for which the authority is created. Commissioners shall hold office until a successor has been appointed and has qualified, unless sooner removed according to this chapter. A certificate of the appointment or reappointment of any Commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services for the authority, in any capacity, but are entitled to the necessary expenses, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of their duties.

(4) The powers of each authority shall be vested in the commissioners thereof in office from time to time. Three commissioners shall constitute a quorum of the authority for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes. Action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of a majority of the commissioners present, unless in any case the bylaws of the authority shall require a larger number. The mayor or mayors involved and the county legislative authority shall designate which of the commissioners appointed shall be the first chairman and he shall serve in the capacity of chairman until the expiration of his term of office as commissioner. When the office of the chairman of the authority thereafter becomes vacant, the authority shall select a chairman from among its commissioners. An authority shall select from among its commissioners a vice chairman, and it may employ a secretary (who shall be executive director), technical experts, and such other officers, agents, and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require, and shall determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation. For such legal services as it may require, an authority may call upon the chief law officer of the city or the county or may employ its own counsel and legal staff. An authority may delegate to one or more of its agents or employees such powers or duties as it may deem proper.

(5) The ordinances enacted by the legislative authorities creating the joint housing authority shall prescribe the allocation of all costs of the joint housing authority (~~and any other matters necessary for the operation of the joint housing authority~~).

~~((5))~~ (7) The provisions of RCW 35.82.040 (~~and 35.82.060~~) as now or hereafter amended shall not apply to a joint city-county housing authority created pursuant to this section.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 7, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 419 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Section 1. Section 7, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 200, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.070 are each amended to read as follows:

After the completion of a logging operation, satisfactory reforestation as defined by the rules and regulations promulgated by the board shall be completed within three years: PROVIDED, That a longer period may be authorized if seed or seedlings are not available: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a period of up to five years may be allowed where a natural regeneration plan is approved by the department. Upon the completion of a reforestation operation a report on such operation shall be filed with the department of natural resources. Within twelve months of receipt of such a report the department shall inspect the reforestation operation, and shall determine either that the reforestation operation has been properly completed or that further reforestation and inspection is necessary.

Satisfactory reforestation is the obligation of the owner of the land as defined by forest practices regulations, except the owner of perpetual rights to cut timber owned separately from the land is responsible for satisfactory reforestation. The reforestation obligation shall become the obligation of a new owner if the land or perpetual timber rights are sold or otherwise transferred.

Prior to the sale or transfer of land or perpetual timber rights subject to a reforestation obligation, the seller shall notify the buyer of the existence and nature of the obligation and the buyer shall sign a notice of reforestation obligation indicating the buyer's knowledge thereof. The notice shall be on a form prepared by the department and shall be sent to the department by the seller at the time of sale or transfer of the land or perpetual timber rights. If the seller fails to notify the buyer about the reforestation obligation, the seller shall pay the buyer's costs related to reforestation, including all legal costs which include reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by the buyer in enforcing the reforestation obligation against the seller. Failure by the seller to send the required notice to the department at the time of sale shall be prima facie evidence, in an action by the buyer against the seller for costs related to reforestation, that the seller did not notify the buyer of the reforestation obligation prior to sale.

The forest practices regulations may provide alternatives to or limitations on the applicability of reforestation requirements with respect to forest lands being converted in whole or in part to another use which is compatible with timber growing. The forest practices regulations may identify classifications and/or areas of forest land that have the likelihood of future conversion to urban development within a ten year period. The reforestation requirements may be modified or eliminated on such lands: PROVIDED, That such identification and/or such conversion to urban development must be consistent with any local or regional land use plans or ordinances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 1982.

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "reforestation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 7, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 200, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.070; and providing an effective date." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Upon receipt of any petition proposing an initiative to the people or an initiative to the legislature, and prior to giving a serial number thereto, the secretary of state shall submit a copy thereof to the office of the code reviser and give notice to the petitioner of such transmittal. Upon receipt of the measure, the assistant code reviser to whom it has been assigned may confer with the petitioner and shall within ((ten)) seven working days from receipt thereof review the proposal for matters of form and style, and such matters of substantive import as may be agreeable to the petitioner, and shall recommend to the petitioner such revision or alteration of the measure as may be deemed necessary and appropriate. The recommendations of the reviser's office shall be advisory only, and the petitioner may accept or reject them in whole or in part. The code reviser shall issue a certificate of review certifying that he has reviewed the measure for form and style and that the recommendations thereon, if any, have been communicated to the petitioner, and such certificate shall issue whether or not the petitioner accepts such recommendations. Within fifteen working days after notification of submittal of the petition to the reviser's office, the petitioner, if he desires to proceed with his sponsorship, shall file the measure together with the certificate of review with the secretary of state for assignment of serial number and the secretary of state shall thereupon submit to the reviser's office a certified copy of the measure filed. Upon submitting the proposal to the secretary of state for assignment of a serial number the secretary of state shall refuse to make such assignment unless the proposal is accompanied by a certificate of review.

The secretary of state shall give a serial number to each initiative or referendum measure, using a separate series for initiatives to the legislature, initiatives to the people, and referendum measures, and forthwith transmit one copy of the measure proposed bearing its serial number to the attorney general. When practicable, the question posed by the ballot title shall be written in such a way that an affirmative answer to such question and an affirmative vote on the measure would result in a change in then current law, and a negative answer to the question and a negative vote on the measure would result in no change to then current law."

The summary shall appear on all petitions directly following the ballot title.

Sec. 7. Section 29.79.080, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 118, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 29.79.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Section 1. Section 2, chapter 67, Laws of 1981 and RCW 34.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(2) 'Administrative law judge' means any person appointed by the chief administrative law judge to conduct or preside over hearings as provided in this chapter.

(3) 'Hearing' means a 'contested case' within the meaning of RCW 34.04.010(3) conducted by a state agency.

(4) 'State agency' means any state board, commission, department, or officer authorized by law to make rules or to adjudicate contested cases, except those in the legislative or judicial branches, the pollution control hearings board, the shorelines hearings board, the forest practices appeals board, the environmental hearings office, the board of industrial insurance appeals, the state personnel board, the higher education personnel board, the public employment relations commission, personnel appeals board, and the board of tax appeals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 67, Laws of 1981 and RCW 34.12.060 are each amended to read as follows:

When an administrative law judge presides at a hearing under this chapter and a majority of the officials of the agency who are to render the final decision have not heard substantially all of the oral testimony and read all exhibits submitted by any party, it shall be the duty of such judge, or in the event of his unavailability or incapacity, of another judge appointed by the chief administrative law judge, to issue ~~((a proposal))~~ an initial decision or proposal for decision including findings of fact and conclusions of law in accordance with RCW 34.04.110.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 46.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director may appoint a designee, or designees, to preside over hearings in contested cases which may result in the denial, restriction, suspension, or revocation of a driver's license or driving privilege, or in the imposition of requirements to be met prior to issuance or reissuance of a driver's license, under Title 46 RCW. The director may delegate to any such designees the authority to render the final decision of the department in such cases. Chapter 34.12 RCW shall not apply to such cases.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Section 36, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 28, chapter 67, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.20.329 are each amended to read as follows:

Any decision by the department suspending or revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as herein provided or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court: PROVIDED, That this stay shall be effective only so long as there is no conviction of a moving violation or a finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction which is a moving violation during pendency of hearing and appeal: PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the department from seeking an order setting aside the stay during the pendency of such appeal in those cases where the action of the department is based upon physical or mental incapacity, or a failure to successfully complete an examination required by this chapter.

A formal hearing shall be conducted by the director or by ~~((an administrative law judge or hearing board appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW. Such administrative law judge or hearing board may be authorized by the director to make final determinations regarding the issuance, denial, or suspension, or revocation of a license))~~ a person or persons appointed by the director from among the employees of the department.

The members of such authority shall preside, or may ~~((request the appointment of an administrative law judge under chapter 34.12 RCW))~~ designate some suitable person to preside as examiner. The authority shall introduce by competent evidence a summary of the proposal for the establishment of a limited access facility and any evidence that supports the adoption of the plan as being in the public interest. At the conclusion of such evidence, any person entitled to notice who has entered a written appearance shall be deemed a party to this hearing for purposes of this chapter and may thereafter introduce, either in person or by counsel, evidence and statements or counterproposals bearing upon the reasonableness of the proposal.

Any such evidence and statements or counterproposals shall receive reasonable consideration by the authority before any proposal is adopted. Such evidence must be material to the issue before the authority and shall be presented in an orderly manner.

A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be under Title 34 RCW. In a court hearing between two or more claimants to the article or articles involved, the prevailing party shall be entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorney's fees. The burden of producing evidence shall be upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) of this section. The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the article or articles to the claimant upon a determination by the administrative law judge or court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of items specified in subsection (a)(4) of this section.

(1) Retain it for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state release such property to such agency for the exclusive use of enforcing the provisions of this chapter;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Section 5, chapter 141, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 239, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.33.670 are each amended to read as follows:

In all cases where a determination is made that the estate of a mentally or physically deficient person who resides at a state residential school is able to pay all or any portion of the monthly charges, a notice and finding of financial responsibility shall be personally served on the guardian of the resident's estate, or if no guardian has been appointed then to his spouse or parents or other person acting in a representative capacity and having property in his possession belonging to a resident of a state residential school and the superintendent of the state residential school. The notice shall set forth the amount the department has determined that such estate is able to pay per month, not to exceed the monthly charge as fixed in accordance with RCW 72.33.660, and the responsibility for payment to the department of social and health services shall commence thirty days after personal service of such notice and finding of responsibility. An appeal from the determination of responsibility may be made to the secretary by the guardian of the resident's estate, or if no guardian has been appointed then by his spouse, parent or parents or other person acting in a representative capacity and having property in his possession belonging to a resident of a state residential school, within such thirty day period upon written notice of appeal being served upon the secretary by registered or certified mail. If no appeal is taken, the notice and finding of responsibility shall become final. If an appeal is taken, the execution of notice and finding of responsibility shall be stayed pending the decision of such appeal. Appeals may be heard in any county seat most convenient to the appellant. The hearing of appeals may be presided over by ((a hearing examiner)) an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW and the proceedings shall be recorded either manually or by a mechanical device. Any such appeal shall be a 'contested case' as defined in RCW 34.04.010, and practice and procedure shall be governed by the provisions of RCW 72.33.650 through 72.33.700, the rules and regulations of the department of social and health services, and the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 25, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.055 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary may, in the absence of a superior court order, serve on the responsible parent or parents a notice and finding of financial responsibility requiring a responsible parent or parents to appear and show cause in a hearing held by the department why the finding of responsibility and/or the amount thereof is incorrect, should not be finally ordered, but should be rescinded or modified. This notice and finding shall relate to the support debt accrued and/or accruing under this chapter and/or RCW 26.16.205, including periodic payments to be made in the future for such period of time as the child or children of said responsible parent or parents are in need. Said hearing shall be held pursuant to RCW 74.20A.055, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules and regulations of the department, which shall provide for a fair hearing.

(2) The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall be served in the same manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or may be served on the responsible parent by certified mail, return receipt requested. The receipt shall be prima facie evidence of service. The notice shall be served upon the debtor within sixty days from the date the state assumes responsibility for the support of the dependent child or children on whose behalf support is sought. If the notice is not served within sixty days from such date, the department shall lose the right to reimbursement of payments made after the sixty-day period and before the date of notification: PROVIDED, That if the department exercises reasonable efforts to locate the debtor and is unable to do so the entire sixty-day period is tolled until such time as the debtor can be located. Any responsible parent who objects to all or any part of the notice and finding shall have the right for not more than twenty days from the date of service to request in writing a hearing, which request shall be served upon the department by registered or certified mail or personally. If no such request is made, the notice and finding of responsibility shall become final and the debt created therein shall be subject to collection action as authorized under this chapter. If a timely request is made, the execution of notice and finding of responsibility shall be stayed pending the decision on such hearing. If no timely written request for a hearing has previously been made, the responsible parent may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee at any time for a hearing as provided for in this section upon a showing of good cause for the failure to make a timely request for hearing. The filing of the petition for a hearing after the twenty-day period shall not affect any collection action previously taken under this chapter. The granting of a request for the hearing shall operate as a stay on any future collection action, pending the final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee on the hearing. Moneys withheld as a result of collection action in effect at the time of the granting of the request for the hearing shall be delivered to the department and shall be held in trust by the department pending the final order of the secretary or during the pendency of any appeal to the courts made under chapter 34.04 RCW. The department may petition the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge to set temporary current and future support to be paid beginning with the month in which the petition for an untimely hearing is granted. The ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge shall order payment of temporary current and future support if appropriate in an amount determined pursuant to the scale of suggested minimum contributions adopted under RCW 74.20.270. In the event the responsible parent does not make payment of the temporary current and future support as ordered by the hearing examiner, the department may take collection action pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW during the pendency of the hearing or thereafter to collect any amounts owing under the order. Temporary current and future support paid, or collected, during the pendency of the hearing or appeal shall be disbursed to the custodial parent or as otherwise appropriate when received by the department. If the final decision of the department, or of the courts on appeal, is that the department has collected from the responsible parent other than temporary current or future support, an amount greater than such parent's past support debt, the department shall promptly refund any such excess amount to such parent.

(3) Hearings may be held in the county of residence or other place convenient to the responsible parent. Any such hearing shall be a 'contested case' as defined in RCW 34.04.010. The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall set forth the amount the department has determined the responsible parent owes, the support debt accrued and/or accruing, and periodic payments to be made in the future for such period of time as the child or children of the responsible parent are in need, all computable on the basis of the need alleged. The notice and finding shall also include a statement of the name of the recipient or custodian and the name of the child or children for whom need is alleged; and/or a statement of the amount of periodic future support payments as to which financial responsibility is alleged.

(4) The notice and finding shall include a statement that the responsible parent may object to all or any part of the notice and finding, and request a hearing to show cause why said responsible parent should not be determined to be liable for any or all of the debt, past and future.

The notice and finding shall include a statement that, if the responsible parent fails in timely fashion to request a hearing, the support debt and payments stated in the notice and finding, including periodic support payments in the future, shall be assessed and determined and ordered by the department and that this debt shall be subject to collection action; a statement that the property of the debtor, without further advance notice or hearing, will be subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver to satisfy the debt.

(5) If a hearing is requested, it shall be promptly scheduled, in no more than thirty days. The hearing, including a hearing on prospective modification, shall be conducted by ((a duly qualified hearing examiner appointed for that purpose)) an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW.

After hearing has been presented at hearings conducted by the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge, the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge shall enter an initial decision and order which shall be in writing and shall contain findings and conclusions as to each contested issue of fact and law, as well as the order based thereon. The ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge shall file the original of the initial decision and order, signed by the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge, with the secretary or the secretary's designee. Copies of the initial decision and order shall be mailed by the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge to the department and to the appellant by certified mail to the last known address of each party. Within thirty days of filing, either the appellant or the department may file with the secretary or the secretary's designee a written petition for review of the initial decision and order. The petition for review shall set forth in detail the basis for the requested review and shall be mailed by the petitioning party to the other party by certified or registered mail to the last known address of the party.

The petition shall be based on any of the following causes materially affecting the substantial rights of the petitioner:

(a) Irregularity in the proceedings of the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge or adverse party, or any order of the ((hearing examiner)) administrative law judge, or abuse of discretion, by which the moving party was prevented from having a fair hearing;

(b) Misconduct of the prevailing party;

(c) Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;

(d) Newly discovered evidence, material for the party making the application, which the party could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the hearing;

(e) That there is no evidence or reasonable inference from the evidence to justify the decision, or that it is contrary to law;

(f) Error in mathematical computation;

(g) Error in law occurring at the hearing and objected to at the time by the party making the application;

(h) That the moving party is unable to perform according to the terms of the order without further clarification;

(i) That substantial justice has not been done;

(j) Fraud or misstatement of facts by any witness, which materially affects the debt;

(k) Clerical mistakes in the decision arising from oversight or omission; or

(l) That the decision and order entered because the responsible parent failed to appear at the hearing should be vacated and the matter be remanded for a hearing upon showing of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

In the event no petition for review is made as provided in this subsection by any party, the initial decision and order of the (~~hearing examiner~~) administrative law judge is final as of the date of filing and becomes the decision and order of the secretary. No appeal may be taken therefrom to the courts and the debt created is subject to collection action as authorized by this chapter.

After the receipt of a petition for review, the secretary or the secretary's designee shall consider the initial decision and order, the petition or petitions for review, the record or any part thereof, and such additional evidence and argument as the secretary or the secretary's designee may in his or her discretion allow. The secretary or the secretary's designee may remand the proceedings to the (~~hearing examiner~~) administrative law judge for additional evidence or argument. The secretary or the secretary's designee may deny review of the initial decision and order and thereupon deny the petition or petitions at which time the initial decision and order shall be final as of the date of the denial and all parties shall forthwith be notified, in writing, of the denial, by certified mail to the last known address of the parties. Unless the petition is denied, the secretary or the secretary's designee shall review the initial decision and order and shall make the final decision and order of the department. The final decision and order shall be in writing and shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law as to each contested issue of fact and law. A copy of the decision and order, including the findings and conclusions, shall be mailed to each party to the appeal by certified mail to the last known address of the party. The decision and order shall authorize collection action, as appropriate, under this chapter.

(6) The (~~hearing examiner~~) administrative law judge in his or her initial decision, or the secretary or the secretary's designee in review of the initial decision, shall determine the past liability and responsibility, if any, of the alleged responsible parent and shall also determine the amount of periodic payments to be made in the future, which amount is not limited by the amount of any public assistance payment made to or for the benefit of the child. In making these determinations, the (~~hearing examiner~~) administrative law judge, and the secretary or the secretary's designee, shall include in his or her considerations:

- (a) All earnings and income resources of the responsible parent, including real and personal property;
- (b) The earnings potential of the responsible parent;
- (c) The reasonable necessities of the responsible parent;
- (d) The ability of the responsible parent to borrow;
- (e) The needs of the child for whom the support is sought;
- (f) The amount of assistance which would be paid to the child under the full standard of need of the state's public assistance plan;
- (g) The existence of other dependents; and

(h) That the child, for whom support is sought, benefits from the income and resources of the responsible parent on an equitable basis in comparison with any other minor children of the responsible parent.

If the responsible parent fails to appear at the hearing, upon a showing of valid service, the (~~hearing examiner~~) administrative law judge shall enter an initial decision and order declaring the support debt and payment provisions stated in the notice and finding of financial responsibility to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within thirty days of entry of said decision and order, the responsible parent may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee to vacate said decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

(7) The final decision entered pursuant to this section shall be entered as a decision and order and shall limit the support debt to the amounts stated in said decision: PROVIDED, That said decision establishing liability and/or future periodic support payments shall be superseded upon entry of a superior court order for support to the extent the superior court order is inconsistent with the hearing order or decision: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the absence of a superior court order, either the responsible parent or the department may petition the secretary or his designee for issuance of an order to appear and show cause based on a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances, to require the other party to appear and show cause why the decision previously entered should not be prospectively modified. Said order to appear and show cause together with a copy of the petition and affidavit upon which the order is based shall be served in the manner of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested, on the other party by the petitioning party. A hearing shall be set not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of service, unless extended for good cause shown. Prospective modification may be ordered, but only upon a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances. The decision and order for prospective modification entered by the (~~hearing examiner~~) administrative law judge shall be an initial decision subject to review by the secretary or the secretary's designee as provided for in this section.

(8) The (~~hearing examiner~~) administrative law judge, in making the initial decision and the secretary or the secretary's designee in the final decision determining liability and/or future periodic support payments, shall consider the standards promulgated pursuant to RCW 74.20.270 and any standards for determination of support payments used by the superior court of the county of residence of the responsible parent.

(9) Debts determined pursuant to this section, accrued and not paid, are subject to collection action under this chapter without further necessity of action by the (~~hearing examiner~~) administrative law judge, or the secretary or secretary's designee.

(10) 'Need' as used in this section shall mean the necessary costs of food, clothing, shelter, and medical attendance for the support of a dependent child or children. The amount determined by reference to the schedule of suggested minimum contributions adopted under RCW 74.20.270, based on the earnings, resources, and property of the alleged responsible parent, shall be a rebuttable presumption of the alleged responsible parent's ability to pay and the need of the family: PROVIDED, That such responsible parent shall be presumed to have no ability to pay child support under this chapter from any income received from aid to families with dependent children, supplemental security income, or continuing general assistance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The administrative hearings revolving fund is hereby created in the state treasury for the purpose of centralized funding, accounting, and distribution of the actual costs of the services provided to agencies of the state government by the office of administrative hearings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The amounts to be disbursed from the administrative hearings revolving fund from time to time shall be transferred thereto by the state treasurer from funds appropriated to any and all agencies for administrative hearings expenses on a quarterly basis. Agencies operating in whole or in part from nonappropriated funds shall pay into the administrative hearings revolving fund such funds as will fully reimburse funds appropriated to the office of administrative hearings for any services provided activities financed by nonappropriated funds. The funds from the employment security department for the administrative hearings services provided by the office of administrative hearings shall not exceed that portion of the resources provided to the employment security department by the department of labor, employment and training administration, for such administrative hearings services. To satisfy department of labor funding requirements, the office of administrative hearings shall meet or exceed timeliness standards under federal regulations in the conduct of employment security department appeals.

The director of financial management shall allot all such funds to the office of administrative hearings for the operation of the office, pursuant to appropriation, in the same manner as appropriated funds are allocated to other agencies under chapter 43.88 RCW.

Disbursements from the administrative hearings revolving fund shall be pursuant to vouchers executed by the chief administrative law judge or his designee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The chief administrative law judge shall keep such records as are necessary to facilitate proper allocation of costs to funds and agencies served and the director of financial management shall prescribe appropriate accounting procedures to accurately allocate costs to funds and agencies served. Billings shall be adjusted in line with actual costs incurred at intervals not to exceed six months.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. In cases where there are unanticipated demands for services of the office of administrative hearings or where there are insufficient funds on hand or available for payment through the administrative hearings revolving fund or in other cases of necessity, the chief administrative law judge may request payment for services directly from agencies for whom the services are performed to the extent that revenues or other funds are available. Upon approval by the director of financial management, the agency shall make the requested payment. The payment may be made on either an advance or reimbursable basis as approved by the director of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. RCW 34.12.040 shall not apply to transportation tariff docket hearings conducted by the Washington utilities and transportation commission. The Washington utilities and transportation commission may, however, on its own motion, refer any transportation docket item to an administrative law judge where it is determined that the transportation tariff item in question may have an overall economic impact on transportation costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 9 through 13 of this act are added to chapter 34.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 8, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1011 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Application of the appearance of fairness doctrine to local land use decisions shall be limited to the quasi-judicial actions of local decision-making bodies as defined in this section. Quasi-judicial actions of local decision-making bodies are those actions of the legislative body, planning commission, hearing examiner, zoning adjuster, board of adjustment, or boards which determine the legal rights, duties, or privileges of specific parties in a hearing or other contested case proceeding. Quasi-judicial actions do not include the legislative actions adopting, amending, or revising comprehensive, community, or neighborhood plans or other land use planning documents or the adoption of area-wide zoning ordinances or the adoption of a zoning amendment that is of area-wide significance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. No member of a local decision-making body may be disqualified by the appearance of fairness doctrine for conducting the business of his or her office with any constituent on any matter other than a quasi-judicial action then pending before the local legislative body.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. No legislative action taken by a local legislative body, its members, or local executive officials shall be invalidated by an application of the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Prior to declaring as a candidate for public office or while campaigning for public office as defined by RCW 42.17.020(5) and (25) no public discussion or expression of an opinion by a person subsequently elected to a public office, on any pending or proposed quasi-judicial actions, shall be a violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A candidate for public office who complies with all provisions of applicable public disclosure and ethics laws shall not be limited from accepting campaign contributions to finance the campaign, including outstanding debts; nor shall it be a violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine to accept such campaign contributions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. During the pendency of any quasi-judicial proceeding, no member of a decision-making body may engage in ex parte communications with opponents or proponents with respect to the proposal which is the subject of the proceeding. This prohibition does not preclude a member of a decision-making body from seeking in a public hearing specific information or data from such parties relative to the decision if both the request and the results are a part of the record. Nor does such prohibition preclude correspondence between a citizen and his or her elected official if any such correspondence is made a part of the record when it pertains to the subject matter of a quasi-judicial proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Participation by a member of a decision-making body in earlier proceedings that result in an advisory recommendation to a decision-making body shall not disqualify that person from participating in any subsequent quasi-judicial proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Anyone seeking to rely on the appearance of fairness doctrine to disqualify a member of a decision-making body from participating in a decision must raise the challenge as soon as the basis for disqualification is made known to the individual. Where the basis is known or should reasonably have been known prior to the issuance of a decision and is not raised, it may not be relied on to invalidate the decision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. In the event of a challenge to a member or members of a decision-making body which would cause a lack of a quorum or would result in a failure to obtain a majority vote as required by law, any such challenged member(s) shall be permitted to fully participate in the proceeding and vote as though the challenge had not occurred, if the member or members publicly disclose the basis for disqualification prior to rendering a decision. Such participation shall not subject the decision to a challenge by reason of violation of the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Nothing in this chapter prohibits the restriction or elimination of the appearance of fairness doctrine by the appellate courts. Nothing in this chapter may be construed to expand the appearance of fairness doctrine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Nothing in this chapter prohibits challenges to local land use decisions where actual violations of an individual's right to a fair hearing can be demonstrated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 42 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.*

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 9.41 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for anyone knowingly to carry onto public or private elementary or secondary school premises: (a) Any firearm, or (b) any dangerous weapon as defined in RCW 9.41.250, or (c) any device commonly known as 'nun-chu-ka sticks,' consisting of two or more lengths of wood, metal, plastic, or similar substance connected with wire, rope, or other means, or (d) any device, commonly known as 'throwing stars,' which are multipointed, metal objects designed to embed upon impact from any aspect.

(2) Any person violating subsection (1) of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to:

(a) Any person who by virtue of the person's office or public employment is vested by law with a duty to preserve public safety, maintain public order, or to make arrests for offenses, while in the performance of the duty;

(b) Any person engaged in military activities, sponsored by the federal or state governments while engaged in official duties; or

(f) Any person who possesses nun-chu-ka sticks, throwing stars, or other dangerous weapons to be used in martial arts classes conducted on the school premises.

(4) The perimeter of the premises of the school shall be posted at reasonable intervals to alert the public as to the existence of the prohibitions of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like a ruling as to scope and object of this amendment. I believe it's beyond the scope of the bill."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Padden, the Speaker has examined the title of the bill and finds it to be an act relating to firearms. Both the bill and the amendment are amending RCW 9.41. The amendment seeks to add a new section to chapter 9.41. The original bill is dealing with possession of firearms and carrying pistols. The amendment is dealing with firearms and other dangerous weapons; however, since the amendment does deal with firearms, as well as the bill, I would rule that your point of order is not well taken."

Representatives Salatino and Eberle spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Salatino, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 3 of the title strike "and defining crimes" and insert "adding a new section to chapter 9.41 RCW; defining crimes; and prescribing penalties"

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Sanders yielded to question by Mr. Chandler.

Mr. Chandler: "Representative Sanders, the last speaker said that some of these charities may not even be able to function if this fee stays in place. My understanding is that the department can set the fees to cover the cost of the licensing, and that's what is actually intended. Is that also your understanding? At what level would the fee be set?"

Mr. Sanders: "That's correct, Representative Chandler. The entire objective of the Department of Licensing fee-setting accounting system is to make revenue fees equal expenditures, and right now it would be necessary to charge each charity approximately $68.00 so that the revenue would be equal to expenditures."

Mr. Chandler spoke against the amendment, and Representatives Taylor and Nelson (D) spoke in favor of it.

A division was called.

(b) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (d), such vehicles are subject to seizure by and forfeiture to the law enforcement agency which made the arrest which resulted in the conviction.

(c) No vehicle is subject to forfeiture under this section if the owner of the vehicle did not knowingly consent to the violation.

(d) A forfeiture of a vehicle encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party did not knowingly consent to the violation.

(e) A vehicle subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure without process may be made if the seizure is incident to an arrest for a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504.

(f) In the event of seizure pursuant to subsection (e) proceedings for forfeiture shall be deemed commenced by the seizure. The law enforcement agency under whose authority the seizure was made shall cause notice to be served within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the vehicle seized and the person in charge thereof and any person having any known right of interest therein, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized vehicle. The notice may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by certified mail with return receipt requested. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the fifteen day period following the seizure.

(g) If no person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of the vehicle within forty-five days of the seizure, the vehicle seized shall be deemed forfeited.

(h) If any person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of the vehicle within forty-five days of the seizure, the person or persons shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or the chief law enforcement officer's designee, or an administrative law judge if required by chapter 34.12 RCW, except that any person asserting a claim or right may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction if the value of the vehicle involved is more than five hundred dollars. A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be under chapter 34.04 RCW. In a court hearing between two or more claimants to the vehicle involved, the prevailing party shall be entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorney's fees. The burden of producing evidence shall be upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of the vehicle. The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the vehicle to the claimant upon a determination by the hearing officer or court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession.

(4) If there is a change in the registered owner of the vehicle, the department shall forward such information regarding the change to the local charging jurisdiction and release any hold on the renewal of the vehicle license resulting from standing, stopping, and parking violations incurred while the certificate of license registration was in a prior registered owner's name.

(5) The department shall send to all registered owners of vehicles who have been reported to have outstanding standing, stopping, and parking violations, at the time of renewal, a statement listing the dates and jurisdictions in which the violations occurred as well as the amounts of unpaid fines and the surcharge to be collected. (j) A statement, which the person shall sign, that the person promises to respond to the notice of infraction in one of the ways provided in this chapter;

(2) If the person determined to have committed the infraction does not contest the determination the person shall respond by completing the appropriate portion of the notice of infraction and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. A check or money order in the amount of the penalty prescribed for the infraction must be submitted with the response. When a response which does not contest the determination is received, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's records, and a record of the response and order shall be furnished to the department in accordance with RCW 46.20.270.

(3) If the person determined to have committed the infraction wishes to contest the determination the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of infraction requesting a hearing and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing, and that date shall not be sooner than seven days from the date of the notice, except by agreement.

The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing.

Such a lessor shall, upon the request of the municipality issuing the notice of infraction, supply the municipality with the name and driver's license number of the person leasing the vehicle at the time of the infraction.

Sec. 4. Section 13, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 and RCW 46.63.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person found to have committed a traffic infraction shall be assessed a monetary penalty. No penalty may exceed two hundred and fifty dollars for each offense unless authorized by this chapter or title.

(2) The supreme court may prescribe by rule a schedule of monetary penalties for designated traffic infractions.

(3) ~~There shall be a penalty of twenty-five dollars for failure to respond to a notice of traffic infraction except where the infraction relates to ((overtime)) parking as defined by local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution or failure to pay a monetary penalty imposed pursuant to this chapter. ((Such locally set)) Any monetary penalty imposed under this subsection is not subject to the statutory assessments applicable to traffic offenses, including but not limited to the assessments required by RCW 46.81.030 ((and)), 43.101.210 ((and related court rules)), 2.56.100, 3.62.080, and 13.40.260.~~

(4) Monetary penalties provided for in chapter 46.70 RCW which are civil in nature and penalties which may be assessed for violations of chapter 46.44 RCW relating to size, weight, and load of motor vehicles are not subject to the limitation on the amount of monetary penalties which may be imposed pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Whenever a monetary penalty is imposed by a court under this chapter it is immediately payable. If the person is unable to pay at that time the court may, in its discretion, grant an extension of the period in which the penalty may be paid. If the penalty is not paid on or before the time established for payment the court shall notify the department of the failure to pay the penalty and the department may not renew the person's driver's license, or after July 1, 1984, in the case of a standing, stopping, or parking violation, the vehicle license, until the penalty has been paid and the penalty provided in subsection (3) of this section has been paid.

(6) There shall be levied and paid into the general fund of the state treasury, a five-dollar fee in addition to the monetary penalty imposed for a traffic infraction other than a parking, standing, stopping, or pedestrian infraction. The five-dollar fee shall not be suspended by the court.

Sec. 5. Section 46.20.270, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 58, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any person is convicted of any offense for which this title makes mandatory the suspension or revocation of the driver's license of such person by the department, the privilege of the person to operate a vehicle is suspended until the department takes the action required by this chapter, and the court in which such conviction is had shall forthwith secure the immediate forfeiture of the driver's license of such convicted person and immediately forward such driver's license to the department, and on failure of such convicted person to deliver such driver's license the judge shall cause such person to be confined for the period of such suspension or revocation or until such driver's license is delivered to such judge: PROVIDED, That if the convicted person testifies that he or she does not and at the time of the offense did not have a current and valid vehicle driver's license, the judge shall cause such person to be charged with the operation

(2) Every court having jurisdiction over offenses committed under this chapter, or any other act of this state or municipal ordinance adopted by a local authority regulating the operation of motor vehicles on highways, or any federal authority having jurisdiction over offenses substantially the same as those set forth in Title 46 RCW which occur on federal installations within this state, shall forward to the department within ten days of a forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure the defendant's appearance in court, a payment of a fine or penalty, a plea of guilty or a finding of guilt, or a finding that any person has committed a traffic infraction an abstract of the court record in the form prescribed by rule of the supreme court, showing the conviction of any person or the finding that any person has committed a traffic infraction in said court for a violation of any said laws other than regulations governing standing, stopping, parking, and pedestrian offenses.

Representatives Ellis and Armstrong spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Patrick and James spoke against it.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1103, by Representatives Struthers, McCormick, Nisbet, Galloway, Lewis, Monohon, Gallagher and King (J):

Providing for a state lottery.

The bill was read the second time. On motion of Mr. Sanders, Second Substitute House Bill No. 1103 was substituted for House Bill No. 1103, and the second substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Second Substitute House Bill No. 1103 was read the second time.

Mr. Ellis moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 35 strike "forty-five percent of the gross income from such lottery," and insert "twenty-five percent of the gross income from such lottery, (ii) the payment of all expenses for free public circuses or carnivals held periodically in areas determined by the commission to have relatively high poverty or unemployment, which shall not be less than ten percent of the gross income from such lottery, (iii) the payment of costs for the purchase and distribution of bread by nonprofit organizations for feeding the poor or unemployed, which shall not be less than ten percent of the gross income from such lottery," Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, I would like a ruling on scope and object. I don't believe the act refers to anything with circuses."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Padden, in examining the amendment, it is still dealing with a state lottery, but is simply earmarking the funds to be used for a specific purpose. In one of the earlier bills there had been an earmarking of a special purpose for the use of the funds, which is no longer in the second substitute bill, but it would appear to the Speaker that would still be within the scope and object of the bill. Your point is not well taken."

Mr. Ellis spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Lewis spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Ellis yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (D):

Mr. Nelson (D): "We've had a lot of job programs proposed in this session, and I wonder, Representative Ellis, is this a new Republican proposal for jobs? Also, to take care of the unemployment problem, I'm wondering if the carnivals will substitute for unemployment compensation benefits?"

Mr. Ellis: "Representative Nelson, this obviously will not produce jobs except for carnival workers in the circus, so it could help on the unemployment."

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Lux moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, beginning on line 9, after "act," strike all material down to and including "fund;" on line 13 and insert "(iv) transfer to the state general fund, for the exclusive use of the common schools, of at least thirty percent of the total revenues; and (v) transfer to the state general fund of at least five percent of the total revenues, for appropriation exclusively for (A) nonprofit organizations distributing food to the needy, and (B) medical assistance and medical care services under the limited casualty program under RCW 74.09.700;"

Mr. Lux spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Patrick and Cole spoke against it.

Mr. Lux spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Greengo and Monohon spoke against it.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The amendment was not adopted.

The clerk read the following amendment by Representative Lux:

On page 11, beginning on line 32 after "fund" strike all material down to and including "schools;" on line 36 and insert "exclusively for the purposes enumerated in section 3(1)(k)(iv) and (v) of this act;"

With the consent of the House, Mr. Lux withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Struthers moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 14, line 10 after "ratification" insert "by not less than sixty percent affirmative vote of the electors voting thereon"

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Greengo: "Mr. Speaker, I thought I read somewhere in the Constitution that it already required sixty percent for lotteries and this amendment would not be necessary?"

The Speaker: "Article II, section 24, states, 'Lotteries shall be prohibited except as specifically authorized by the affirmative vote of sixty percent of the members of each house of the legislature or notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, by referendum or initiative approved by sixty percent of the vote of the electorate voting thereon."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Ellis: "Mr. Speaker, I want to follow up on that. Am I to understand that without this amendment, it takes sixty percent vote of the legislature to put it out there?"

The Speaker: "Yes, Representative Ellis, that is correct. With this amendment it would require a sixty percent vote of the people of the state, and a fifty percent vote of the legislature."

Representatives Struthers and Monohon spoke in favor of the bill, and Representatives Ellis and Kreidler spoke against it.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo: "Since all lottery bills require sixty percent vote of the legislature to pass, can we adopt an amendment by a majority vote which would then allow us to do away with the sixty percent majority?"

The Speaker: "Representative Greengo, I just read you the article from the Constitution that says a lottery can be passed either by a sixty percent of the legislature or by a sixty percent vote of the people of the state."

Mr. Struthers spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Struthers yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Struthers, was this language in the proposition that the people voted on in 1974?"

Mr. Struthers: "Representative Tilly, I cannot tell you that, but I do have copy of the language that went on back in 1974 between two senators that makes this very plain. I'm sure one of the caucus attorneys would make that information available to you."

Mr. Tilly spoke against the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Struthers to page 14 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 1103, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 57; nays, 41; not voting, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Armstrong, Barr, Barrett, Bender, Berleen, Bickham, Bond, Brown, Chamberlain, Dawson, Dickie, Eberle, Erak, Fancher, Flanagan, Galloway, Garson, Grimm, Hankins, Heck, Hine, Houchen, Isaacson, King J., King R., Leonard, Lewis, Lux, Martinis, McCormick, McGinnis, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson D., Nelson G. A., Nickell, Nisbet, Owen, Padden, Rosbach, Salatino, Schmidt, Smith, Sommers, Sprague, Stratton, Struthers, Taylor, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Walk, Warnke, Wilson, Winsley, and Mr. Speaker.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representatives Brown, Gallagher and Owen:

On page 14, beginning on line 9 strike all of section 35.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Brown withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Pruitt moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 11, line 27 after "shares" insert "tickets shall be flavored with chocolate and mint and wrapped in sanitized wrappers"

Mr. Pruitt spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Prince and Taylor spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Pruitt to page 11 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 1103, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 10; nays, 87; not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Bond, Clayton, Eng, Garrett, Kreidler, Lux, Martinis, North, Pruitt, Scott.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Amen, Armstrong, Barnes, Barr, Barrett, Becker, Bender, Berleen, Bickham, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Cantu, Chamberlain, Chandler, Cole, Dawson, Dickie, Eberle, Ehlers, Ellis, Erak, Fiske, Flanagan, Gallagher, Galloway, Garson, Granlund, Greengo, Grimm, Hankins, Hastings, Heck, Hine, Houchen, Isaacson, James, Johnson, Kaiser, King J., King R., Leonard, Lewis, Lundquist, Maxie, McCormick, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson D., Nelson G. Not voting: Representative Fancher.

The bill was ordered engrossed.

Mr. Hastings moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

A division was called on the motion.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to suspend the rules and place Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1103 on final passage, and the motion received the necessary two-thirds majority by the following vote: Yeas, 69; nays, 27; not voting, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Armstrong, Barr, Barrett, Bender, Berleen, Bickham, Brown, Cantu, Chamberlain, Dawson, Dickie, Eberle, Ehlers, Erak, Fancher, Fiske, Flanagan, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Garson, Grimm, Hankins, Hastings, Heck, Hine, Houchen, Isaacson, James, Johnson, Kaiser, King J., King R., Leonard, Lewis, Lundquist, Lux, Martinis, McCormick, McGinnis, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson D., Nelson G. A., Nickell, Nisbet, North, O'Brien, Owen, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Rosbach, Salatino, Schmidt, Sherman, Smith, Sprague, Stratton, Struthers, Taylor, Teutsch, Tilly, Valle, Walk, Warnke, Wilson, Winsley, and Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Nelson (G) demanded the previous question and a division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the demand for the previous question in the debate on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1103, and the demand failed to receive the required two-thirds majority, by the following vote: Yeas, 59; nays, 37; not voting, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Amen, Armstrong, Barr, Barrett, Berleen, Bickham, Cantu, Chamberlain, Clayton, Dawson, Dickie, Eberle, Eng, Fancher, Fiske, Flanagan, Gallagher, Galloway, Garson, Hankins, Hastings, Hine, Houchen, Isaacson, Johnson, Kaiser, King J., Leonard, Lewis, Lux, McCormick, McGinnis, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson G. Not voting: Representatives Addison, James.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kreidler yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Kreidler, I was interested in some of the remarks you made on the amendment by Representative Struthers, and my question is based on Amendment 56 of our state Constitution that was approved by the voters on November 7, 1972. Do you believe the measure before us, Second Substitute House Bill 1103, can be passed by the House by a simple constitutional majority of only fifty votes?"

Mr. Kreidler: "No, I do not, Representative Tilly. I think if you read the language of our state Constitution in Amendment 56, it very clearly states that it takes a sixty percent affirmative vote of both bodies of the legislature or—and then it refers to notwithstanding the other forms of referendum and initiative—that it then takes sixty percent of the votes of the people of the state of Washington. So very clearly, it will take a sixty percent vote of this body and of the Senate and of the people of the state of Washington in order to become law."

Mr. Tilly spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Nelson (G): "Mr. Speaker, how many votes will be necessary to validate and pass Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1103?"

Mr. McGinnis: "Mr. Speaker, I'd like to challenge this amendment on the basis of scope and object, and the RCW's referred to in the title are expanded by the intent of the amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Reed's Rule 112 – Time for making objections, says '...objections to present action must be presented before consideration has been entered upon. After debate has begun or other action has been taken, it is too late.' The Speaker has been trying to consistently rule that once the opening remarks and opening speeches have been made, it is too late and not a timely objection. Therefore, Representative McGinnis, I would rule your point of order is not well taken."

The committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Hastings, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4663, by Committee on Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Senator Gallagher):

Modifying the state timber sales program.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Ways and Means recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 57th Day, March 8, 1982.)

Mr. Chandler moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Chamberlain: "Mr. Speaker, my responsibility with a company that employs me includes the planning of extensions for state sales. I've applied for, and the company has received, an extension that will be affected by this bill. This causes a concern of conflict of interest. I would like a ruling from the Speaker as to the propriety of my voting on this bill."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Chamberlain, I would call your attention to Rule 1 of the Joint Rules—Conflict of Interest, which reads: 'A legislator has a personal interest which is in conflict with the proper discharge of legislative duties if the legislator has reason to believe or expect that a direct monetary gain or a direct monetary loss will be derived by reason of the legislator's official activity. However, a legislator that does not have a personal interest which is in conflict with the proper discharge of legislative duties if no benefit or detriment accrues to the legislator as a member of a business, profession, occupation, or group, to a greater extent than to any other member of such business, profession, occupation, or group.' The question you have posed to me would indicate that you do not have a greater interest than anyone else in that group, and I would therefore say that in the Speaker's opinion, you do not have a conflict of interest."

Mr. Lundquist moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 3, following line 27 insert a new subsection to read as follows:

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. McDonald: "These amendments we are going to deal with have a fiscal impact, and I don't think the body can properly evaluate them if they don't have the fiscal notes in front of them."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative McDonald, in order to have a point of order, you must have a rule that requires a fiscal note on the various amendments. There is no such rule so you can have no point of order."

Mr. Lundquist spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lundquist yielded to question by Mr. Padden.

Mr. Padden: "Representative Lundquist, since we don't have a fiscal note in front of us, I wonder if you would indicate whether there's any fiscal impact of this amendment at all?"

Mr. Lundquist: "It's my understanding that there is no fiscal impact to this state as a result of this amendment."

The amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

Ms. Rosbach spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. McDonald spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rosbach yielded to question by Mr. Taylor.

Ms. Rosbach: "No, Representative Taylor, not one."

Representatives Taylor and Sommers spoke against the amendments, and Representatives Scott, Garson, Becker, Nisbet, Chandler, Martinis, Williams, Fiske and King (J) spoke in favor of them.

"(6) All timber covered by contracts made between January 1, 1978 and January 1, 1980 and defaulted pursuant to this section must be resold, harvested and processed in the United States within two years of the date of default, and resale contracts will so provide. Where timber formerly covered by a defaulted contract is resold the new contract may not be extended; if resold timber is not harvested and processed within two years the contract will be terminated, the defaulting buyer will be liable for loss of income to the state related to timber remaining unharvested, and payments made on the contract will be forfeited. The amount forfeited will be the percentage of total payment equal to the percentage of timber covered by the contract that remains unprocessed at the end of the two year period. 'Processed' means (1) sawed into lumber; (2) pulp and pulp products broken down to a condition of separation of wood fibers; (3) veneer or plywood; (4) poles, posts or pilings, cut and treated with preservative, intended for use as such and not intended to be processed further; (5) rendered into chips; or (6) rendered into shakes or shingles conforming to the uniform building code as in effect in this state. Any timber harvested but not processed at the end of the two year period remains the property of the owner at that time (the buyer of harvested timber paid for; the state of harvested timber not paid for)."

Mr. King (R) spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Owen, Nisbet and Rosbach spoke against it.

Mr. King (R) spoke again in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis yielded to question by Mr. Lundquist.

Mr. Lundquist: "Representative Martinis, you've been involved in this issue for a number of years. What would you have to say about the constitutionality of this amendment as it relates to domestic processing?"

Mr. Martinis: "Representative Lundquist, the domestic processing issue, while I was chairman of the House Natural Resources Committee, was before the committee, and at that time the Honorable Slade Gorton was Attorney General, and I asked for an opinion from the Attorney General's office on the constitutionality of limiting state timber to only domestic processing rather than going to the export market. That opinion, at that time, in essence said it was unconstitutional. Last year, after the Alaska case on the domestic processing and on the question again of The Honorable Ken Eikenberry, now Attorney General of the State of Washington, and it was a much clearer opinion at that time—there is very definitely a constitutional question on requiring domestic processing only of state timber. The Alaska case was very clear, concise, very parallel to the bills that were before the House Natural Resources Committee. The Alaska case went to the U.S. District Court in Alaska and it was clearly ruled unconstitutional."

Mr. Lundquist spoke against the amendment.

Mr. Struthers demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative King (R) to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4663, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 53; not voting, 4.

Mr. McDonald moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, beginning on line 9 strike all material down to and including "act." on page 6, line 39 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. McDonald spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Mr. McDonald.

Mr. McDonald: "Representative Greengo, are there instances in case law that are roughly equivalent that would have something similar to a default portion, and what are they, and what was the outcome?"

Mr. Greengo: "Yes, Representative McDonald, there was a case in 1975 of Tacoma versus O'Brien, in which, due to the increase in the price of oil, firms bidding on road construction contracts were attempting to get out of their contracts, and the Washington State Legislature passed a law saying that if the prices of asphalt had risen by more than twenty percent, the state could elect either to let the firm out of its contract entirely or absorb eighty percent of the increase in the costs. This was thrown out of court based on the fact that it was an unconstitutional giving of the state's money."

Mr. Chandler spoke against the amendment to the committee amendment, and Mr. Williams spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Greengo yielded to question by Mr. Padden.

Mr. Padden: "Representative Greengo, apparently we are in the state's worst fiscal crisis since the Great Depression. I'm wondering what effect allowing default might have on the state's bond rating and our credit rating?"

Mr. Greengo: "Well, Representative Padden, all I know is what I've heard the bankers who have come in to talk to our various caucuses tell us—both the Seattle bankers and the ones from New York, and in addition, in September, I was back to a debt management conference. The message I got was that any action the state takes will be viewed in entirety, and if we're defaulting on moneys that could be coming in, or at least a portion of them that could be coming into the general fund, it certainly can't be a positive effect."

Mr. Padden spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Taylor and Garson spoke against it.

Mr. Hastings demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Lundquist moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Lundquist, Rosbach, Martinis, Owen, Chandler and Scott to the committee amendment:

On page 6, following line 39 insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If a timber sale contract otherwise eligible for extension or default under sections 3 through 6 of this act is in default, it may be extended by paying the extension fee at the rate provided under the contract of sale from the date of the expiration of the contract, or from the date of the last extension, to the date of application for extension or default under sections 3 through 6 of this act."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and make any internal references accordingly.

Mr. Lundquist spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. McDonald spoke against it.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4663 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4824, by Committee on Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Senators Gallagher, Zimmerman and Peterson):

Providing separate chapters of laws of aquatic lands.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 53rd Day, March 4, 1982.)

Committee on Appropriations - General Government recommendation: Majority, do pass with the amendments recommended by Committee on Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs with the exception of the amendment to page 100 and as further amended by Committee on Appropriations - General Government. (For amendment, see Journal, 57th Day, March 8, 1982.)

On motion of Mr. Williams, the committee amendments were adopted.

Mr. Martinis moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Martinis and Wilson:

On page 108 after line 18 add sections as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 186. Except as provided in section 185 of this act, this act shall take effect July 1, 1983.*

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 178. There is added to chapter 79.01 RCW a new section to read as follows: When state aquatic lands and harbor areas are used or leased for a dock to be used for personal recreational use by the upland owner, no rent or fee of any nature shall be charged."

Mr. Dawson spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Greengo spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Dawson yielded to question by Mr. Thompson.

Mr. Thompson: "Representative Dawson, you referred to the current practice of the department with regard to these leases and rentals. Is that practice established in the statutes or in the administrative code?"

Mr. Dawson: "Representative Thompson, I'm unsure as to the last part; however, the information I have is that the Department of Natural Resources, in this last year, attempted to establish lease fees or rental fees for private docks. They took that particular measure to the Legislative Review Committee for their approval, so I assume that we did not have statutory authority or lacked authority to do so. They were turned down, I understand, by the Legislative Review Committee."

Mr. Thompson spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Martinis spoke in favor of it.

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Ms. Rosbach, the committee amendments to the title were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Martinis, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 7, the last line of the title, insert "; declaring an emergency; providing an effective date;"

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 11, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4559, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 10, 1982

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4603, Prime Sponsor: Committee on Ways and Means, providing the means for the payment of public indebtedness on public improvements. Reported by Committee on Revenue.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. SHORT TITLE. This chapter may be known and cited as the Community Redevelopment Financing Act of 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DECLARATION. It is declared to be the public policy of the state of Washington to promote and facilitate the orderly development and economic stability of its urban areas. The provision of adequate government services and the creation of employment opportunities for the citizens within urban areas depends upon the economic growth and the strength of their tax base. The construction of necessary public improvements in accordance with local community planning will encourage investment in job-producing private development and will expand the public tax base.

It is the purpose of this chapter to allocate a portion of regular property taxes for limited periods of time to assist in the financing of public improvements which are needed to encourage private development of urban areas; to prevent or arrest the decay of urban areas due to the inability of existing financing methods to provide needed public improvements; to encourage local taxing districts to cooperate in the allocation of future tax revenues arising in urban areas in order to facilitate the long-term growth of their common tax base; and to encourage private investment within urban areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter the following terms have the following meanings unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context:

(1) 'Apportionment district' means the geographic area, within an urban area, from which regular property taxes are to be apportioned to finance a public improvement contained therein.

(2) 'Assessed value of real property' means the valuation of real property as placed on the last completed assessment roll of the county.

(3) 'City' means any city or town.

(4) 'Ordinance' means any appropriate method of taking a legislative action by a county or city, whether known as a statute, resolution, ordinance, or otherwise.

(5) 'Public improvement' means an undertaking to provide public facilities in an urban area which the sponsor has authority to provide.

(6) 'Public improvement costs' means the costs of design, planning, acquisition, site preparation, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, and installation of the public improvement; costs of relocation, maintenance, and operation of property pending construction of the public improvement; costs of utilities relocated as a result of the public improvement; costs of financing, including interest during construction, legal and other professional services, taxes, and insurance; costs incurred by the assessor to revalue real property for the purpose of determining the tax allocation base value that are in excess of costs incurred by the assessor in accordance with his revaluation plan under chapter 84.41 RCW, and the costs of apportioning the taxes and complying with this chapter and other applicable law; and administrative costs reasonably necessary and related to these costs. These costs may include costs incurred prior to the adoption of the public improvement ordinance, but subsequent to the effective date of this act.

(7) 'Public improvement ordinance' means the ordinance passed under section 5(4) of this act.

(8) 'Regular property taxes' means regular property taxes as now or hereafter defined in RCW 84.04-.140, except regular property taxes levied by port districts or public utility districts specifically for the purpose of making required payments of principal and interest on general indebtedness.

(9) 'Sponsor' means any county or city initiating and undertaking a public improvement.

(10) 'Tax allocation base value of real property' means the true and fair value of real property within an apportionment district for the year in which the apportionment district was established.

(11) 'Tax allocation bonds' means any bonds, notes, or other obligations issued by a sponsor pursuant to section 10 of this act.

(12) 'Tax allocation revenues' means those tax revenues allocated to a sponsor under section 8(1)(b) of this act.

(13) 'Taxing districts' means any governmental entity which levies or has levied for it regular property taxes upon real property located within a proposed or approved apportionment district.

(14) 'Value of taxable property' means value of taxable property as defined in RCW 39.36.015.

(15) 'Urban area' means an area in a city or located outside of a city that is characterized by intensive use of the land for the location of structures and receiving such urban services as sewers, water, and other public utilities and services normally associated with urbanized areas. Not more than twenty-five percent of the area within the urban area proposed apportionment district may be vacant land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. AUTHORITY—LIMITATIONS. (1) Only public improvements which are determined by the legislative authority of the sponsor to meet the following criteria are eligible to be financed under this chapter:

(a) The public improvement is located within an urban area;

(b) The public improvement will encourage private development within the apportionment district;

(c) The public improvement will increase the fair market value of the real property located within the apportionment district;

(d) The private development which is anticipated to occur within the apportionment district as a result of the public improvement is consistent with an existing comprehensive land use plan and approved growth policies of the jurisdiction within which it is located;

(e) A public improvement located within a city has been approved by the legislative authority of such city; and

(f) A public improvement located within an urban area in an unincorporated area has been approved by the legislative authority of the county within whose boundaries the area lies.

(2) Apportionment of regular property tax revenues to finance the public improvements is subject to the following limitations:

(a) No apportionment of regular property tax revenues may take place within a previously established apportionment district where regular property taxes are still apportioned to finance public improvements without the concurrence of the sponsor which established the district;

(b) No apportionment district may be established which includes any geographic area included within a previously established apportionment district which has outstanding bonds payable in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues;

(c) The total amount of outstanding bonds payable in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues arising from property located within a city shall not exceed two percent of the value of taxable property within the city, and the total amount of outstanding bonds payable in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues arising from property located within the unincorporated areas of a county shall not exceed two percent of the value of taxable property within the entire unincorporated area of the county; and

(d) No taxes other than regular property taxes may be apportioned under this chapter.

(3) Public improvements may be undertaken and coordinated with other programs or efforts undertaken by the sponsor or others and may be funded in whole or in part from sources other than those provided by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. PROCEDURE FOR ADOPTION OF PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT. Public improvements funded by tax allocation revenues may only be located within an urban area. In order to secure an allocation of regular property taxes to finance a public improvement, a sponsor shall:

(1) Propose by ordinance a plan for the public improvement which includes a description of the contemplated public improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the boundaries of the apportionment district, the estimated period during which tax revenue apportionment is contemplated, and the ways in which the sponsor plans to use tax allocation revenues to finance the public improvement, and which sets at least three public hearings thereon before the legislative authority of the sponsor or a committee thereof: PROVIDED, That public hearings for the public improvement that is undertaken in combination or coordination by two or more sponsors may be held jointly; and public hearings, held before the legislative authority or a committee of a majority thereof may be combined with public hearings held for other purposes;

(2) At least fifteen days in advance of the hearing:

(a) Deliver notice of the hearing to all taxing districts, the county treasurer, and the county assessor, which notice includes a map or drawing showing the location of the contemplated public improvement and the boundaries of the proposed apportionment district, a brief description of the public improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the anticipated increase in property values within the apportionment district, the location of the sponsor's principal business office where it will maintain information concerning the public improvement for public inspection, and the date and place of hearing; and

(b) Post notice in at least six public places located in the proposed apportionment district and publish notice in a legal newspaper of general circulation within the sponsor's jurisdiction briefly describing the public improvement, the proposed apportionment, the boundaries of the proposed apportionment district, the location where additional information concerning the public improvement may be inspected, and the date and place of hearing;

(3) At the time and place fixed for the hearing under subsection (1) of this section, and at such times to which the hearing may be adjourned, receive and consider all statements and materials as may be submitted, and objections and letters filed before or within ten days thereafter;

(4) Within one hundred twenty days after completion of the public hearings, pass an ordinance establishing the apportionment district and authorizing the proposed public improvement, including any modifications which in the sponsor's opinion the hearings indicated should be made, which includes the boundaries of the apportionment district, a description of the public improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the portion of the estimated cost thereof to be reimbursed from tax allocation revenues, the estimated time during which regular property taxes are to be apportioned, the date upon which apportionment of the regular property taxes will commence, and a finding that the public improvement meets the conditions of section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. NOTICE OF PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT. Within fifteen days after enactment of the public improvement ordinance, the sponsor shall publish notice in a legal newspaper circulated within the designated apportionment district summarizing the final public improvement, including a brief description of the public improvement, the boundaries of the apportionment district, and the location where the public improvement ordinance and any other information concerning the public improvement may be inspected.

Within fifteen days after enactment of the public improvement ordinance, the sponsor shall deliver a certified copy thereof to each taxing district, the county treasurer, and the county assessor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. DISAGREEMENTS BETWEEN TAXING DISTRICTS. (1) Any taxing district that objects to the apportionment district, the duration of the apportionment, the manner of apportionment, or the propriety of cost items established by the public improvement ordinance of the sponsor may, within thirty days after receipt of the ordinance, petition for review thereof by the state board of tax appeals. The state board of tax appeals shall meet within a reasonable time, hear all the evidence presented by the parties on matters in dispute, and determine the issues upon the evidence as may be presented to it at the hearing. The board may approve or deny the public improvement ordinance as enacted or may grant approval conditioned upon modification of the ordinance by the sponsor. The decision by the state board of tax appeals shall be final and conclusive but shall not preclude modification or discontinuation of the public improvement.

(2) If the sponsor modifies the public improvement ordinance as directed by the board, the public improvement ordinance shall be effective without further hearings or findings and shall not be subject to any further appeal. If the sponsor modifies the public improvement ordinance in a manner other than as directed by the board, the public improvement ordinance shall be subject to the procedures established pursuant to sections 5 and 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. APPORTIONMENT OF TAXES. (1) Upon the date established in the public improvement ordinance, but not sooner than the first day of the calendar year following the passage of the ordinance, the regular property taxes levied upon the assessed value of real property within the apportionment district shall be divided as follows:

(a) That portion of the regular property taxes produced by the rate of tax levied each year by or for each of the taxing districts upon the tax allocation base value of real property, or upon the assessed value of real property in each year, whichever is smaller, shall be allocated to and paid to the respective taxing districts; and

(b) That portion of the regular property taxes levied each year by or for each of the taxing districts upon the assessed value of real property within an apportionment district which is in excess of the tax allocation base value of real property shall be allocated and paid to the sponsor, or the sponsor's designated agent, until all public improvement costs to be paid from the tax allocation revenues have been paid, except that the sponsor may agree to receive less than the full amount of such portion as long as bond debt service, reserve, and other bond covenant requirements are satisfied, in which case the balance of the taxes shall be allocated to the respective taxing districts as the sponsor and the taxing districts may agree.

(2) The county assessor shall revalue the real property within the apportionment district for the purpose of determining the tax allocation base value for the apportionment district and shall certify to the sponsor the tax allocation base value as soon as practicable after the assessor receives notice of the public improvement ordinance and shall certify to the sponsor the total assessed value of real property within thirty days after the property values for each succeeding year have been established, except that the assessed value of state-assessed real property within the apportionment district shall be certified as soon as the values are provided to the assessor by the department of revenue. Nothing in this section authorizes revaluations of real property by the assessor for property taxation that are not made in accordance with the assessor's revaluation plan under chapter 84.41 RCW.

(3) The date upon which the apportionment district was established shall be considered the date upon which the public improvement ordinance was enacted by the sponsor.

(4) The apportionment of regular property taxes under this section shall cease when tax allocation revenues are no longer necessary or obligated to pay public improvement costs or to pay principal of and interest on bonds issued to finance public improvement costs and payable in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues. At the time of termination of the apportionment, any excess money and any earnings thereon held by the sponsor shall be returned to the county treasurer and distributed to the taxing districts which were subject to the allocation in proportion to their regular property tax levies due for the year in which the funds are returned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. APPLICATION OF TAX ALLOCATION REVENUES. Tax allocation revenues may be applied as follows:

- (1) To pay public improvement costs;
- (2) To pay principal of and interest on, and to fund any necessary reserves for, tax allocation bonds;
- (3) To pay into bond funds established to pay the principal of and interest on general obligation bonds issued pursuant to law to finance public facilities that are specified in the public improvement ordinance and constructed following the establishment of and within the apportionment district; or
- (4) To pay any combination of the foregoing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. TAX ALLOCATION BONDS. (1) A sponsor may issue such tax allocation bonds as it may deem appropriate for the financing of public improvement costs and a reasonable bond reserve and for the refunding of any outstanding tax allocation bonds.

- (2) The principal and interest of tax allocation bonds may be made payable from:
 - (a) Tax allocation revenues;
 - (b) Project revenues which may include (i) nontax income, revenues, fees, and rents from the public improvement financed with the proceeds of the bonds, or portions thereof, and (ii) contributions, grants, and nontax money available to the sponsor for payment of costs of the public improvement or the debt service of the bonds issued therefor;
 - (c) Any combination of the foregoing.
- (3) Tax allocation bonds shall not be the general obligation of or guaranteed by all or any part of the full faith and credit of the sponsor or any other state or local government, or any tax revenues other than tax allocation revenues, and shall not be considered a debt of the sponsor or other state or local government for general indebtedness limitation purposes.

(4) The terms and conditions of tax allocation bonds may include provisions for the following matters, among others:

- (a) The date of issuance, maturity date or dates, denominations, form, series, negotiability, registration, rank or priority, place of payment, interest rate or rates which may be fixed or may vary over the life of the tax allocation bonds, bond reserve, coverage, and such other terms related to repayment of the tax allocation bonds;
 - (b) The application of tax allocation bond proceeds; the use, sale, or disposition of property acquired; consideration or rents and fees to be charged in the sale or lease of property acquired; consideration or rents and fees to be charged in the sale or lease of property within a public improvement; the application of rents, fees, and revenues within a public improvement; the maintenance, insurance, and replacement of property within a public improvement; other encumbrances, if any, upon all or part of property within a public improvement, then existing or thereafter acquired; and the type of debts that may be incurred;
 - (c) The creation of special funds; the money to be so applied; and the use and disposition of the money;
 - (d) The securing of the tax allocation bonds by a pledge of property and property rights, by assignment of income generated by the public improvement, or by pledging such additional specifically described resources other than tax revenues as are available to the sponsor;
 - (e) The terms and conditions for redemption;
 - (f) The replacement of lost and destroyed bond instruments;
 - (g) Procedures for amendment of the terms and conditions of the tax allocation bonds;
 - (h) The powers of a trustee to enforce covenants and take other actions in event of default; the rights, liabilities, powers, and duties arising upon the breach of any covenant, condition, or obligation; and
 - (i) When consistent with the terms of this chapter, such other terms, conditions, and provisions which may make the tax allocation bonds more marketable and further the purposes of this chapter.
- (5) Tax allocation bonds may be issued and sold in such manner as the legislative authority of the sponsor shall determine.
- (6) The sponsor may also issue or incur obligations in anticipation of the receipt of tax allocation bond proceeds or other money available to pay public improvement costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 84.55 RCW a new section to read as follows:

ADJUSTMENT TO TAX LIMITATION. Pursuant to chapter 39... RCW (sections 1 through 10 and 12 through 15 of this act), any increase in the assessed value of real property within an apportionment district resulting from new construction, improvements to property, or any increase in the assessed value of state-assessed property shall not be included in the increase in assessed value resulting from new construction, improvements, or any increase in the assessed value of state-assessed property for purposes of calculating any limitations upon regular property taxes under this chapter until the termination of apportionment as set forth in section 8(4) of this act, as now or hereafter amended, except to the extent a taxing district actually will receive the taxes levied upon this value. Tax allocation revenues, as defined in section 3 of this act, as now or hereafter amended, shall not be deemed to be 'regular property taxes' for purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. LEGAL INVESTMENTS. Tax allocation bonds authorized in this chapter shall be legal investments for any of the funds of the state and of municipal corporations, for trustees, and for other fiduciaries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. NOTICE TO STATE. Whenever notice is required to be given to the state, notice shall be given to the director of revenue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. CONCLUSIVE PRESUMPTION OF VALIDITY. No direct or collateral attack on any public improvement, public improvement ordinance, or apportionment district purported to be authorized or created in conformance with applicable legal requirements, including the requirements of this chapter, may be commenced more than thirty days after publication of notice as required by section 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. SUPPLEMENTAL NATURE OF CHAPTER. This chapter supplements and neither restricts nor limits any powers which the state or any municipal corporation might otherwise have under any laws of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. CAPTIONS NOT PART OF LAW. As used in this act, captions constitute no part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 1 through 10 and 12 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 39 RCW."

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

SECOND READING

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 42, by Representatives Rosbach, Martinis, Nisbet, Owen, Lundquist, North, Chamberlain, Stratton, Vander Stoep, Mitchell, Dawson, Erak, Barr and Garson:

Requesting modification of state timber sales procedures.

The resolution was read the second time.

On motion of Ms. Rosbach, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 27 after "sales" insert "volume"

Ms. Rinehart moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 1, line 16 after "trusts;" insert "and

WHEREAS, It is in the interests of the human communities and natural resource base of the state that an assured supply of timber from state-owned lands be available over time; and

WHEREAS, RCW 79.68.040 directs the department of natural resources to manage state-owned forest lands on a sustained yield basis; and

WHEREAS, No area of the state should incur a prolonged cessation or curtailment of harvest from state timber lands;"

On page 2, after line 5 insert:

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That in carrying out the state timber sale program, the department of natural resources shall apply the sustained yield concept as defined in RCW 79.68.030 to each department administrative area."

Ms. Rinehart spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Rosbach and Chamberlain spoke against them.

Ms. Rinehart spoke again in favor of the amendments, and Ms. Rosbach again opposed them.

Representatives Barr and Martinis spoke against the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rinehart yielded to question by Ms. Cole.

Ms. Cole: "Representative Rinehart, would you define what 'sustained yield' is?"

Ms. Rinehart: "Yes, Representative Cole, the word-for-word definition out of the statute, rather than being an outmoded concept, is current law and this is simply what it says: 'Sustained yield is management of the forests to provide harvesting on a continuing basis without major prolonged curtailment or cessation of harvest.'"

The amendment was not adopted.

Ms. Rinehart moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 20 after "than" strike "seven hundred and fifty million board feet of timber per year" and insert "eighty percent of the yearly allowable cut"

Ms. Rinehart spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Lundquist spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representatives McDonald, Padden and Taylor:

On page 1, line 21 after the comma strike "plus" and insert "including"

With the consent of the House, Mr. McDonald withdrew the amendment.

The resolution was ordered engrossed. On motion of Ms. Fancher, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Representatives Rosbach and Owen spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Hastings demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Barr spoke in favor of the resolution.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rosbach yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (D).

Mr. Nelson (D): "Representative Rosbach, I notice on the bill report that the department did not testify. Could you tell me what their opinion is on this resolution? Will they honor the resolution?"

Ms. Rosbach: "The department did testify. I read a transcript from the Senate hearing on it. They agreed to the provisions in the concurrent resolution during the hearing."

Mr. Nelson (D): "How does this cutting program differ from the plan they had previously?"

Ms. Rosbach: "They have said they were going to harvest 759 million board feet annually, and that has not been their past performance. They had harvested 758, 734, 829, 744—and so on, but then in 1978, they sold 413 million board feet and in 1981, 436; 1980, 893. They've not had a sustained yield basis. This is legislative intent, and we did not put it in the bill because we want to give them some latitude. It is legislative intent that they will offer for sale what their sustained yield basis has been."

Mr. Nelson (D): "In looking at the final resolve, it says that any timber sales offered during the calendar years of 1982 and 1983 should be appraised at the then current market prices for manufacturing timber into lumber products. It doesn't really say that we're going to receive the current price. I'm not sure what that resolve really says. Could you explain it to me?"

Ms. Rosbach: "The present policy is that the appraised value is based on manufactured lumber, plywood, shakes and shingles on the domestic market. That is the present policy. We've put that in the resolution even though it is present policy because we do not want it to be based on the export market. If it were based on the export market, the price would be so high that none would sell probably. This is present policy."

Mr. Nelson (D): "I guess I'm wondering what it means in terms of the sales and the prices the state receives. Maybe you can explain what kind of price the state will receive? Will it receive the depressed prices that are in the lumber products market right now?"

Ms. Rosbach: "We will receive a good market price—a price in which people can afford to build and manufacture and produce and put the people back to work. If it is a low price—say the appraised value is $175 and it doesn't come up to that price—they don't have to offer it for sale."

Representatives Nelson (D) and Sommers spoke against the resolution, and Representatives Martinis, Barr, Flanagan and Rosbach spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of Engrossed House Concurrent Resolution No. 42, and the resolution was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 74; nays, 22; not voting, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Amen, Barnes, Barr, Barrett, Bender, Berleen, Bickham, Bond, Brown, Cantu, Chamberlain, Chandler, Clayton, Dawson, Dickie, Eberle, Ehlers, Ellis, Erak, Fancher, Fiske, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garson, Granlund, Greengo, Grimm, Hankins, Hastings, Heck, Hine, Houchen, Isaacson, James, Johnson, Kaiser, King J., King R., Leonard, Lewis, Lundquist, Martinis, McCormick, McGinnis, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson G. Requesting actions be filed in the Supreme Court against unsound monetary policies.

The resolution was read the second time.

On page 1, line 27 after "cause" insert ", at the discretion of the attorney general,"

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That in the event either or both of these actions are lost, then the Senate, from the funds that have been or shall be appropriated for Senate operations, (1) shall reimburse the office of attorney general for the entire cost of the lost action or actions and (2) shall pay any court costs and damages charged against the state in such lost action or actions: PROVIDED, That no supplementary appropriation or other budgetary consideration may be made to offset the entire cost of such reimbursement and/or payment from being borne exclusively by the Senate and not directly or indirectly by state taxpayers through increased appropriations to the Senate"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, could we have a ruling on the scope and object of these amendments?"

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. AMEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Amen presiding): "Representative Padden, the first amendment is within the scope and object, and the second one relates directly to the lawsuit which is requested by the resolution, so the Speaker would rule it is within the scope and object."

Representatives Dawson and Nisbet spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Eberle, Addison, Patrick, Salatino and Bond spoke against them.

Mr. Brown demanded an electric roll call vote on the amendments, and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eberle yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "If this joint resolution passes, what would be the result? What would it accomplish?"

Mr. Eberle: "Representative Flanagan, I think what we have done is to express the intent of the legislature. I don't think there would be any suit filed until further action was taken by the legislature, but this clearly expresses the intent of the legislature. I think, for our part, the important thing to remember is that it sends a clear message to the Federal Reserve."

Mr. Flanagan: "I still don't see where you said what it accomplishes. You said sending a message to the Federal Reserve with some vague intent, but I don't know what the intent is. Could you answer that?"

Mr. Eberle: "The intent is two-fold. Number one: The question of constitutionality of the Congress delegating the authority to create money to private organizations or a private commission run by a major U.S. Bank; and number two: To ask for an audit of that organization which has never been performed since 1913."

Representatives Flanagan and Dawson spoke against the resolution, and Representatives Hastings and Addison spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Williams yielded to question by Mr. Barrett.

Mr. Barrett: "Representative Williams, I have a little concern. I've heard people say, and I read, that it is the intent of our filing this document that a suit will be filed. I heard Representative Eberle's answer to a question a minute ago that this has no impact on any suit being filed. And now if I may, may I ask you, as another person who has studied this, will or will we not be mandating a suit by the state of Washington if this is passed?"

Mr. Williams: "That would be the decision of the Attorney General. I would sincerely hope that we would, but it would be his decision."

Representatives Nisbet, Grimm and Barnes spoke against the resolution, and Representatives Walk, Heck, Patrick and Lux spoke in favor of it.

Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 127 was adopted.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

Extending the state treasurer's authority to invest treasury surplus.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Struthers moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 2, line 17 after "investment board" insert "and that prior to paying and delivering state funds the state treasurer will require that the bank, mutual savings bank or savings and loan association deliver to the public deposit protection commission securities enumerated in RCW 39.58.050 having a market value of not less than one hundred and ten percent of the maturity value of the certificate of deposit as a pledge of collateral to guarantee repayment of the public funds thus deposited outside the state of Washington by the state treasurer"

On page 2, line 20 after "investment board" insert "and that prior to paying and delivering state funds the state treasurer shall require that the issuing corporation shall deliver to the public deposit protection commission securities enumerated in RCW 39.58.050 having a market value of not less than one hundred and ten percent of the maturity value of any such note or other commercial paper as a pledge of collateral to guarantee repayment of the public funds thus invested by the state treasurer"

Mr. Struthers spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Struthers yielded to question by Ms. Sommers.

Ms. Sommers: "Representative Struthers, in your remarks you were speaking to the policy of not investing outside the state, but the amendment doesn't speak to that issue. It simply states that if our Treasurer, the guardian of our state taxpayer money, made a decision to purchase one of these securities, he would have to put up a guarantee of one hundred and ten percent of maturity value. What effect would that have on investments and the liquid position of our state funds?"

Mr. Struthers: "Representative Sommers, if you were to pass this amendment there would not be the ability, for those people who would offer the thirty-one day notes, to fulfill what this would require—the one hundred ten percent. Therefore, this is a very substantial striking amendment to the bill."

Ms. Sommers spoke against the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Struthers yielded to question by Mr. Chandler.

Mr. Chandler: "Representative Struthers, after you read this into your dictaphone and had it typed, did you run it by the commercial bankers to make sure it was all right?"

Mr. Struthers: "Yes, I believe this is the one I did happen to run by one of the bankers that I passed in the hall."

Mr. O'Brien spoke against the amendment, and Representatives Heck and Kreidler spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Struthers to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4507, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 62; not voting, 3.

On page 1, line 24 after subsection (c) insert:

"(d) Assaults a person sixty years of age or older; or

(e) Assaults a handicapped person. As used in this section 'handicapped person' means a person who is disabled because of the loss of or permanent loss of use of a hand or foot or because of blindness or the permanent impairment of vision in both eyes to such a degree as to constitute blindness as defined in RCW 74.16.030(1)."

Representatives Tilly and Sanders spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Ellis and Patrick spoke against them.

Mr. Tilly spoke again in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Nelson (D) spoke against them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Tilly yielded to question by Mr. Heck.

Mr. Heck: "Representative Tilly, as I read this proposed amendment, especially in subsection (e), the definition of handicapped appears to be extremely narrow, including only those who have a permanent loss of a hand or foot or are blind. You indicated that other states have proceeded on this course, and I am wondering if this is picked up from model legislation or if any other states have actually adopted this exact language?"

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Heck, it's almost word for word with what Colorado has adopted. I could show it to you or read it to you, whatever you would like."

Mr. Heck spoke against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Nelson (G) demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Tilly to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4483, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 64; not voting, 3.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Armstrong, Becker, Bond, Brown, Dickie, Eberle, Fiske, Gallagher, Garrett, Grimm, Isaacson, James, Kaiser, Lewis, Maxie, McDonald, Nelson G. A., North, O'Brien, Owen, Salatino, Sanders, Sherman, Sprague, Stratton, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Walk.

Mr. Nelson (G): "Mr. Speaker, I would raise a point of order on scope and object of this amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. HASTINGS PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Hastings presiding): "Representative Nelson, the bill title is an act dealing with assault. The amendment has something to do with handguns. The amendment has nothing to do with assault or transients; therefore, your point is well taken and the amendment is out of order."

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Patrick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the department made within one year prior to the effective date of this act, that rejected, conditionally approved, or approved proposed adjustments to a local government master program may seek review by the shorelines hearings board of such decision by filing a request for the same with the board if a request for review is filed within thirty days after the effective date of this act. The review by the shorelines hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW. The shorelines hearings board shall consider if the proposed adjustment is consistent with the policies of chapter 90.58 RCW in accordance with that chapter as now or hereafter amended, and shall specifically include the contemplation of maintaining and promoting the economic vitality of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any adjustment to its master program made after the effective date of this act, by a local government shall become effective sixty days after its adoption without approval by the department, except when an appeal is filed as hereinafter provided. An adjustment may only be adopted by the local government if, prior to its adoption, a public hearing was held on the proposal. At least three weeks prior to this hearing the local government proposing to adjust its master program shall provide written notification of the proposal to the department. The department, as the primary state agency responsible for the administration of this chapter, shall both notify other affected state agencies of the proposal and provide advice and counsel to the local government proposing the adjustments. After a local government adopts an adjustment to its master program, it shall immediately send a copy of its adjustment to the department. The department shall send copies of the adjustment to any state agency which may have an interest in the adjustment.

During this sixty-day period any state agency or any aggrieved person may appeal such adjustment to the shorelines hearings board as not being consistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020. Review by the hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW, except that an appeal to the superior court from a final decision of the hearings board shall only be made to the superior court of the county within whose boundaries the land subject to the proposed adjustment is primarily located, and venue for any such action shall lie in that county. The review by the hearings board shall be heard within the county where the land subject to the proposed adjustment is primarily located. The board, after full consideration of the presentations of the local government and the aggrieved party or agency, shall make a balanced determination of the validity of the local government's ordinance in light of the policies and standards for implementation set forth in the act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the shorelines hearings board under sections 3 or 4 of this act may, within thirty days of that decision, seek judicial review thereof by filing a petition in the superior court of the county within whose boundaries the land subject to the proposed adjustments is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 90.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If the hearing required to be held by a local government seeking to adjust its master program is conducted as a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW and a record is made of that hearing, the shorelines hearings board shall be confined to a review of that record. In any other circumstance, the shorelines hearings board may conduct a de novo hearing on the local government adjustment and may conduct the hearing as a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 7. Section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 2, chapter 64, Laws of 1981 and RCW 34.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to the state militia, or the board of prison terms and paroles, or any institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.19.020. The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 shall not apply to the board of industrial insurance appeals or the board of tax appeals unless an election is made pursuant to RCW 82.03.140 or 82.03.190. The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 and the provisions of RCW 34.04.170 shall not apply to the denial, suspension, or revocation of a driver's license by the department of licensing. To the extent they are inconsistent with RCW 80.50.140, the provisions of RCW 34.04.130, 34.04.133, and 34.04.140 shall not apply to review of decisions made under RCW 80.50.100. To the extent they are inconsistent with sections 3, 4, and 5 of this 1982 act: (1) RCW 34.04.090, 34.04.100, and 34.04.105 do not apply to the review by the shorelines hearings board of proposed adjustments to a local government master program; and (2) RCW 34.04.130 does not apply to the superior court where review of a final decision by the shorelines hearings board on proposed adjustments to a local government master program may be sought. All other agencies, whether or not formerly specifically excluded from the provisions of all or any part of the administrative procedure act, shall be subject to the entire act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 19, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.190 are each repealed. This section shall take effect only if section 11, chapter ... (ESB 4831), Laws of 1982 fails to become law. If that section does become law, this section shall be of no force or effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Mr. Van Dyken spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Ms. Houchen.

Ms. Houchen: "Representative Van Dyken, on the first page of your amendment, on line 27 it says, '...filed within thirty days after the effective date of this act.' Doesn't that narrow it down? It seems to me it's no indication of what you just explained."

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Houchen, section 3 is the grandfather provision that I referred to, whereby a county that was denied by the Department of Ecology would be able to appeal within thirty days after this bill passes and becomes law. They would be able to decide then whether or not they want to appeal the DOE denial to the Shoreline Hearings Board."

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 10, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1006 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. As used in this chapter, the terms in this section shall have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Agency' means the state of Washington, any of its political subdivisions, including any city, town, or county, and any other public body exercising regulatory authority or control over the use of real property in the state.

(2) 'Permit' means any governmental approval required by law before an owner of a property interest may improve, sell, transfer, or otherwise put real property to use.

(3) 'Property interest' means any interest or right in real property in the state.

(4) 'Damages' means reasonable expenses and losses, other than speculative losses or profits, incurred between the time a cause of action arises and the time a holder of an interest in real property is granted relief as provided in section 2 of this act. Damages must be caused by an act, necessarily incurred, and actually suffered, realized, or expended, but are not based upon diminution in value of or damage to real property, or litigation expenses.

(5) 'Regulation' means any ordinance, resolution, or other rule or regulation adopted pursuant to the authority provided by state law, which imposes or alters restrictions, limitations, or conditions on the use of real property.

(6) 'Act' means a final decision by an agency which places requirements, limitations, or conditions upon the use of real property in excess of those allowed by applicable regulations in effect on the date an application for a permit is filed. 'Act' also means the failure of an agency to act within time limits established by law in response to a property owner's application for a permit: PROVIDED, That there is no 'act' within the meaning of this section when the owner of a property interest agrees in writing to extensions of time, or to the conditions or limitations imposed upon an application for a permit. 'Act' shall not include lawful decisions of an agency which are designed to prevent a condition which would constitute a threat to the health, safety, welfare, or morals of residents in the area.

In any action brought pursuant to this act, a defense is available to a political subdivision of this state that its act was mandated by a change in statute or state rule or regulation and that such a change became effective subsequent to the filing of an application for a permit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Owners of a property interest who have filed an application for a permit have an action for damages to obtain relief from acts of an agency which are arbitrary, capricious, unlawful, or exceed lawful authority, or relief from a failure to act within time limits established by law: PROVIDED, That the action is unlawful or in excess of lawful authority only if the final decision of the agency was made with knowledge of its unlawfulness or that it was in excess of lawful authority, or it should reasonably have been known to have been unlawful or in excess of lawful authority.

(2) The prevailing party in an action brought pursuant to this act may be entitled to reasonable costs and attorney's fees.

(3) No cause of action is created for relief from unintentional procedural or ministerial errors of an agency.

(4) Invalidation of any regulation in effect prior to the date an application for a permit is filed with the agency shall not constitute a cause of action under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any action to assert claims under the provisions of this chapter shall be commenced only within thirty days after all administrative remedies have been exhausted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The remedies provided by this chapter are in addition to any other remedies provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 4 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 64 RCW.

Strike all of the title and insert: "AN ACT Relating to property rights; and adding a new chapter to Title 64 RCW."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

RESOLUTIONS

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 82-156, by Representative Nelson, G:

BE IT RESOLVED, That a committee of three members be appointed by the Speaker to notify the Senate that the House is ready to adjourn sine die.

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the resolution was adopted.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

In accordance with the terms of House Resolution NO. 82-156, the Speaker appointed Representatives Gallagher, Hankins and Fiske to notify the Senate that the House was ready to adjourn sine die.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 82-155, by Representatives Hastings, Heck, Ehlers, Nelson (G), Addison, Amen, Armstrong, Barnes, Barr, Barrett, Becker, Bender, Berleen, Bickham, Bond, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Cantu, Chamberlain, Chandler, Clayton, Cole, Dawson, Dickie, Eberle, Ellis, Eng, Erak, Fancher, Fiske, Flanagan, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Garson, Granlund, Greengo, Grimm, Hankins, Hine, Houchen, Isaacson, James, Johnson, Kaiser, King (J), King, (R), Kreidler, Leonard, Lewis, Lundquist, Lux, Martinis, Maxie, McCormick, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson, (D), Nickell, Nisbet, North, Owen, Padden, Patrick, Polk, Prince, Pruitt, Rinehart, Rosbach, Rust, Salatino, Sanders, Schmidt, Scott, Sherman, Smith, Sommers, Sprague, Stratton, Struthers, Taylor, Teutsch, Thompson, Tilly, Tupper, Valle, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Walk, Wang, Warnke, Williams, Wilson and Winsley:

WHEREAS, There is one member of this House who has undoubtedly — due to his length of service and attentive nature — accumulated a substantial wealth of knowledge about this operation; and

WHEREAS, That knowledge probably surpasses the combined information contained in the heads of all of the other ninety-seven members of the 1982 edition of this body; and

WHEREAS, This member has served on all major legislative committees; as minority and majority leader; not to mention four terms as Speaker of the House; and

WHEREAS, It is recognized throughout these halls that there is probably no other man in the history of our great state who has ever possessed such extensive familiarity with the process of state government and parliamentary procedures; and

WHEREAS, This member has devoted a significant portion of his life to the finer things in life — like art and literature — not necessarily in that order; and

WHEREAS, After almost forty-two years as a member of this hallowed institution, this legislator has yet to place his knowledge on any sort of document available to the general public;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That John L. O'Brien, Democratic State Representative from the 35th — or is it 37th District — of King County be compelled through this document to sit down with pen and paper during the interim and begin writing a book about his experiences in this legislature; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That when this book is written the names be changed to protect the innocent; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That Representative O'Brien be required to immediately respond to this demand on the floor of the House after this resolution is approved — assuming it is; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be hand delivered by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Representative O'Brien and mailed to all the members of his rather large family, so that they may also apply some pressure on him to get started on what is bound to be as good as Profiles In Courage or One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest.

Mr. Hastings moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives Hastings and Nelson (G) spoke in favor of the resolution.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. O'Brien yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (G).

Mr. Nelson (G): "Representative O'Brien, as indicated by Representative Hastings, he's looking forward to your bringing forth to this body some memoirs and some items you could share with everyone in this state regarding your experiences in this legislative assembly. We're wondering if you have any idea what the cost is going to be to put that all together? It might turn out that we can, perhaps, help with some appropriation—not promising, mind you—but I'm wondering if you have any idea what it will cost to put that 'rogue's volume' together?"

Mr. O'Brien: "Of course, this is all a great surprise. I have had great experiences, as I think all of us have. To be a member of this body and to be exposed to so many fine people on both sides of the aisle who come from every walk of life, all parts of our state, and the experiences and the knowledge gained by this sort of relationship is just invaluable. It makes it all worthwhile. Sometimes we get a little bit frustrated in our efforts, and we think the operation could go a little bit better and more efficiently, but ever since I've been here, we've had problems. We've had problems like this in the last days of every session.

"Getting back to your point about the costs. There's a multitude of things that have happened to me, I can assure you, in these legislative chambers—great experiences—great experiences outside these chambers, too, and some very outstanding investigations that I've been involved with over a period of time. It would be hard for me, right now, to enumerate all of them, but I've been involved in the World's Fair investigation in Seattle, John Cherberg's firing investigation up at the University of Washington, the investigation on the Port of Seattle. Of course, I was involved with the coalition that happened to me right here on the floor of the House—another great experience. The murals have been another great experience.

"Of course, in some of the earlier days I had experiences, too, like some of you people who come down here for the first time. I know what it means to come here and have the medals. The first time I came to the Legislature, I know I was very close to the Speaker of the House, and he told me the first sixty days I was going to be a king, I was going to have a medal, that everybody was just going to honor me and after the sixty days, the medals come off. We do have that kind of experience, of course, in being here in a world all of our own with the relationships that we have with each other and it's great. I think I've learned this much about it: You have to respect each and everyone's different attitudes and viewpoints. Maybe they don't coincide with yours, but when that roll call is going against you, and you see that thing popping up there red, you might as well ride with it because there's nothing you can do and maybe the next time you're going to be on the positive side.

"Anyway, I certainly appreciate this Resolution and I know Representative Hastings has talked to me about this book and putting something together. I have a great interest in the history of Washington and the now-retired Hugh Bone, who is a great historian and has a great interest in government and political science, has talked to me on the thought that some part of this should be in the record.

"I suppose one great thing that happened was the four-day filibuster in 1961 that I was involved with here. It was the longest filibuster in the history of the state. We prevailed after Avery Garrett was here and a few more, and that was also a great moment and occasion. Let me try to do it. Maybe I can get a writer out of somewhere. Many of my papers are out at the University of Washington. They asked for my records some time ago. It would be interesting, there's no question about it. I just ran into some papers the other day about some of the things that have occurred. All I can tell you is that I've had all of the honors any legislator could have, being President of the National Conference of State Legislative Leaders, like Gary Nelson talked about, and meeting so many fine people from throughout the United States. It has been a great experience and having to come here to our state on three different occasions, I was chairman of the committee that handled conventions for legislators.

"Anyway, you're a great group; leaders in your own communities and you have the conviction of power to do the things that, I think in your opinions, are right, and I know I relish the experience. I don't think any legislator could have any better experiences than I've had with people like yourselves. Even tonight I was talking about apples being shipped through the Port of Seattle, and we're talking about digging for oil. I just point this out—the great multitude of things that have happened here and the great variety of issues and topics that make it so tremendously interesting.

"I want to thank all of you from the bottom of my heart for this Resolution, and I will try to do something about the many things that have happened and the experiences I've had here in the Legislature. Thank you very much."

Representative Ehlers spoke in favor of the resolution.

House Resolution No. 82-155 was adopted.

SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker announced he was signing:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 778,
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 922.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Ehlers: "Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of inquiry. I have in front of me the Governor's Proclamation delivered to us this evening. In his proclamation, the Governor lists those subject areas to be considered by the legislature and states this extraordinary session shall not last longer than ten days. My point of inquiry is: May the Governor limit this House to subject and/or time?"

SPEAKER'S REPLY

The Speaker: "Representative Ehlers, Article II, Section 12 of our State Constitution as amended by the 68th amendment, provides that special legislative sessions may be convened for a period not more than thirty consecutive days by proclamation of the Governor. It also provides that the resolution concerning the legislature shall specify a purpose or purposes for the convening of the special session and notes that the specification of purpose by the Governor shall be considered by the Legislature but shall not be mandatory.

"In answer to your point of parliamentary inquiry, therefore, the Speaker would rule that, in accordance with the State Constitution, the Governor may not limit the subject matter that this body may consider during a special session and may not restrict the Legislature's time to act to less than the thirty days given to us by the Constitution."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the House reverted to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 11, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The President has signed:

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 48,

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), reading of the Journal of the Sixtieth Day of the 1982 Regular Session was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the House of Representatives of the 1982 Regular Session of the Forty-seventh Legislature adjourned sine die.

WILLIAM M. POLK, Speaker

VITO T. CHIECHI, Chief Clerk

1982 FIRST SPECIAL SESSION

NOON SESSION

House Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Friday, March 12, 1982.

The House was called to order at 12:00 noon by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Lundquist and Padden, who were excused.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Terri Stevens and Jenny Howard. Prayer was offered by The Reverend Lester Olson, Gloria Dei Lutheran Church of Olympia.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

The Washington State Legislature has all but concluded the 1982 Regular Session without resolving the major issues critical to our state. It is therefore necessary for me to convene the Legislature in extraordinary session for the purpose of addressing only the following:

- The state budget;
- State and local revenues;
- Unemployment insurance;
- New state correctional facilities;
- The Washington Public Power Supply System;
- Ferry-labor relations;
- Bills in dispute.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John Spellman, Governor of the state of Washington, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Article II, Section 12 (Amendment 68), and Article III, Section 7 of the State Constitution, do hereby convene the Washington State Legislature in extraordinary (special) session for a period not to exceed ten days in the Capitol at Olympia at 12:00 noon on March 12, 1982.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 11th day of March, A.D. nineteen hundred and eighty-two.

(Washington State Seal)

JOHN SPELLMAN, Governor.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Ehlers: "Mr. Speaker, in his proclamation, the Governor lists those subject areas to be considered by the Legislature and states that the extraordinary session shall not last longer than ten days. My point of inquiry is: May the Governor limit this House to subject and/or time?"

The Speaker: "Representative Ehlers, Article II, Section 12 of our State Constitution as amended by the 68th Amendment, provides that special legislative sessions may be convened for a period of time not more than thirty consecutive days by a proclamation of the Governor. It also provides that the resolution concerning the legislature shall specify purpose or purposes for the convening of the special session and notes that specification of purpose shall be considered by the legislature, but shall not be mandatory. In answer to your point of parliamentary inquiry, the Speaker would rule that in accordance with the State Constitution, the Governor may not limit the subject matter this body may consider and may not restrict the legislature's time to act to less than thirty days given to us by the Constitution."

The Speaker advanced the House to the eighth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 12, 1982

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted:

ENGROSSED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 150,

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

ENGROSSED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 150, by Senators Hayner, Jones, Bottiger and Fleming:

Specifying subjects to be considered in 1982 First Special Session.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Nelson (G), the rules were suspended, and Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 150 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

Mr. Ehlers moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Ehlers, Heck, Grimm and King (J):

On page 1, line 5 after "issues;" insert "jobs and employment enhancement issues;"

Representatives Ehlers and Heck spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Nelson (G) spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Ehlers yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Ehlers, Representative Nelson said that the idea behind this amendment is certainly laudable because we know that if we get people working, then the revenues will be coming in. You said that there is no specific bill, as did Representative Heck, but Representative Heck said there were several others besides Senate Bill 4661 that Representative Nelson spoke about. Could you tell me the other bills you are thinking about that we could consider?"

Mr. Ehlers: "Senate Bill 4761, which is a tax incentive; high unemployment areas, which is one of your package, I believe; House Bill 906, community revitalization board and HJR 21, community redevelopment bonds, which are also in your package—those are some of the examples and there may be additional ones. Those are the kinds of things we're talking about that we think are important. Some of them may fit under the fiscal definition, but some of our people aren't sure that they do, Representative Hastings, and we want to make sure that we don't preclude consideration of those important bills."

Mr. Hastings spoke against the amendment, and Mr. Ehlers spoke again in favor of it.

Mr. Brown demanded an electric roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Ehlers and others to Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 150, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 53; not voting, 1.
