RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2007-4657, By Representatives Lantz, Seaquist and Hankins

WHEREAS, "We the People: The Citizen and the Constitution" is a national competition that challenges high school students' knowledge of the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights; and

WHEREAS, The primary goal of "We the People" is to promote civic competence and responsibility among the nation's elementary and secondary students; and

WHEREAS, The "We the People" curriculum fosters attitudes that are necessary for students to participate as effective, responsible citizens; and

WHEREAS, The culminating activity is a simulated congressional hearing in which students demonstrate their knowledge and understanding of constitutional principles by "testifying" before a panel of judges; and

WHEREAS, Since the inception of the "We the People" program in 1987, more than 28 million students and 90 thousand educators have participated in this innovative course of study; and

WHEREAS, More than 1200 high school students and their teachers participate annually in the "We the People" national finals; and

WHEREAS, Teams from each of the nine congressional districts compete in the statewide "We the People" competition to represent Washington state at a national competition in Washington, D.C.; and

WHEREAS, The Gig Harbor High School "We the People" team is comprised of 21 students in an Advanced Placement Government class at Gig Harbor High School; and

WHEREAS, Gig Harbor High School's AP Government students, taught by Ken Brown, competed in the state "We the People" competition in January in Olympia, winning first place; and

WHEREAS, As the state champions, Gig Harbor High School's AP Government students will travel to Washington, D.C., in April 2007, to participate in the national finals against teams from the other 49 states;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives acknowledge the achievements of the 2007 Gig Harbor High School AP Government students in exhibiting exceptional civic literacy and American citizenship; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives support the goals and programs of the "We the People" competition; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Ken Brown, teacher and mentor of the 2007 Gig Harbor High School state champions of the "We the People" competition.

Representative Lantz moved the adoption of the resolution.

Beginning on page 2, line 24 of the amendment, strike all of section 3 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 48.30 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any first party claimant to a policy of insurance who is unreasonably denied a claim for coverage or payment of benefits by an insurer may bring an action in the superior court of this state to recover the actual damages sustained, together with the costs of the action, including reasonable attorneys' fees and litigation costs.

(2) Upon a finding that the insurer has acted unreasonably in denying a claim for coverage, the superior court may increase the total award of actual damages to an amount not to exceed three times the actual damages but only after the first party plaintiff shows by clear and convincing evidence that the acts giving rise to the actual damages occur with such frequency as to indicate a general business practice and these acts are:

(a) Willful, wanton, and malicious; or

(b) In reckless disregard for the rights of the first party claimant.

(3) The superior court may, after a finding of unreasonable denial of a claim for coverage or payment of benefits, award reasonably incurred attorneys' fees and reasonable actual and statutory litigation costs, including expert witness fees, to the first party claimant of an insurance contract who is the prevailing party in such an action.

(4) "First party claimant" means an individual, corporation, association, partnership, or other legal entity asserting a right to payment as a covered person under an insurance policy or insurance contract arising out of the occurrence of the contingency or loss covered by such a policy or contract.

(5) This section shall not be construed to authorize a class action suit against an insurer or any of their employees.

(6) The remedies provided for in this section shall be the exclusive remedies available to any party seeking recovery under this section. No other remedy, common law or statutory, shall be awarded against an insurer with respect to a claim which is subject to this section. The damages recoverable under this section shall include those damages which are a reasonably foreseeable result of a specified violation of this section by the insurer. Violations of unfair practice laws in chapter 48.30 RCW or unfair practice rules in chapter 284-30 WAC are not subject to a cause of action under this section. This section does not preempt any cause of action for those violations under the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW, or at common law. This section shall not be construed to create a common law cause of action."

Representatives Rodne and Ericksen spoke in favor of the adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment.

Representatives Kirby and Simpson spoke against the adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment.
