EXPLANATION OF VOTE

House Bill No. 271 is one of the most worthwhile measures to come before this legislature. It will spell out the right of certain persons such as news boys in our Public Assistance programs to keep the money they earn and have it exempt from deduction from their grants or that of their parents. This bill changes the word "earnings" to "income" to conform with federal law. It also provides that the department may take advantage of any federal legislation enacted at a time when the Washington legislature is not in session.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Smith on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Smith:

"My point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker, is that the reason why this procedure is taking place is because we are working today on a consent calendar and bills are being set over from one day to the other if any members wish to do so. There are some of us who would have liked to have a crack at a civil rights bill to see if we can get the House to go on the housing measure. We felt we would like to have a crack at it, but since we can't that is the reason this procedure is taking place. I wanted to let the House know what the situation was and that we can't do anything else about it."

The Speaker:

"The Rules Committee, in setting up the consent calendar, agreed that if there were objections by anybody in the House to the bills placed thereon, we would take the bill back to the Rules Committee. There will be a Rules Committee meeting this evening and it may be on the calendar tomorrow."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Beck yield to question on this?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Beck, do you yield to question?"

Mr. Beck:

"I do."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Beck, this thing is moving so fast I haven't had a chance to read this measure. Is it permissive or mandatory as far as the department is concerned, and is there any money involved?"

Mr. Beck:

"This is only permissive legislation authorizing the director of institutions to negotiate with the Harrison Hospital board for the acquisition. There will be some money that will be involved. Both the outgoing and incoming governors have requested this legislation, and Governor Evans will make a recommendation to you at a later date. This is only to authorize negotiations."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Is there money in this bill?"

Mr. Beck:

"There is no appropriation in this bill, no."

Debate ensued, Representative Adams speaking against passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Will Mr. Uhlman yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Uhlman?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes, although I have not seen the bill, these things have moved too fast. That is why I asked the question I did."

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Dr. Adams' remarks disturbed me and I looked at the bill. Section 2 says the department of institutions is authorized to acquire this property and it specifies the manner in which it may be acquired, including purchase. Would not your interpretation be that there is no limitation as to dollar amount; in other words, we are giving the department of institutions a blank check as to the amount that could be spent?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Well, it would appear that there is no amount listed here in the bill. I would imagine, however, that that amount would certainly be controlled by the amount of money we appropriate in the appropriations committee. If we don't appropriate any money, they can't buy the property. If we appropriate $500,000 as suggested, maybe that is about all we can pay for."

MOTION

Mr. Sawyer moved that House Bill No. 288 be rereferred to Committee on Rules and Order.

The motion was lost on a rising vote.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Adams on a point of inquiry.

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, it was my impression that if there was any objection to any bill on this calendar, the bill would go back to Rules."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The calendar was set up on a consent basis, and if there was any objection by any member, the bills were to go back to Rules. However, this bill has already been advanced to third reading and there was no objection at the time it was advanced. I would say that now, unless the majority of the body wishes to send it back to Rules, it would be placed before the House at this time."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Witherbee on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, I think today we are making real history in connection with this consent calendar. I urge this body to send this bill back to Rules because basically I think this is something that should have been done long ago, and I think we should abide by the rules."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Perry on a point of order.

Mr. Perry:

"I believe the Speaker has ruled on the point raised by Mr. Witherbee."

The Speaker:

"There is nothing before me at the present time."

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be House Bill No. 288 on final passage.

Mr. King (Richard "Dick"):

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Beck yield to question?"

Mr. Beck:

"Yes."

Mr. King:

"Mr. Beck, it is my understanding that this hospital is not in very good shape. I get this from some relatives of mine in your county. They are very much opposed to this. They are worried about the possibility of fire and they have a strong feeling that if we are going to spend state funds to build an institution of this kind, we should start out and do a good job from the start. I am sure there is some answer to this and I would like to know what it is."

Mr. Beck:

"Thank you very kindly. I am happy to answer your questions. This is a typical comment from anyone who wants to kill the bill. This is a very good hospital. It was built by the government and the materials that were used were exceptionally good. Nothing but first-class materials were ever used. Dr. Adams, you said it was an old hospital. It was brand new, opened in 1942. As to your question about the fire hazard, Mr. King, there are seven great, big wings, seven wards which extend out from a hall about twenty feet wide which connects them all together. This is a very good hospital for the purpose we wish to use it. It is not a very good building for a new, modern medical hospital, but it is a wonderful building for the purpose for which it is intended, and everyone who has looked at this approves of it."

MOTION

Mr. Sheridan moved that the House defer further consideration of House Bill No. 288, and that the bill be ordered held for the next third reading calendar considered by the House.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Angevine on a point of order.

Mr. Angevine:

"Mr. Speaker, does this in effect put the bill over until tomorrow?"

The Speaker:

"It will put the bill on the next third reading calendar that comes out."

Mr. Angevine:

"Hasn't the Speaker said we are not meeting tonight?"

The Speaker:

"The Speaker has said we will not meet this evening."

Mr. Angevine:

"Then this motion will have the same effect as the one we have already voted down."

The Speaker:

"No, the motion you voted down was to refer the bill back to Rules, after which the Rules Committee would have it in their custody and would determine what they wanted to do with it. The motion is in order."

Debate ensued, Representatives Sheridan and Burtch speaking in favor of the motion, and Representatives Andersen (James A.), Sawyer, and Smith speaking against it.

Mr. Beck demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Mr. Sheridan announced that with the consent of the House, he would withdraw his motion.

Mr. Clark objected.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Clark, Epton, Copeland, and Beck speaking in favor of the motion.

The motion was carried, and House Bill No. 288 was ordered placed on the next third reading calendar.

JOINT SESSION

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival of the Senate at the bar of the House.

The Speaker invited the Senators to seats within the House, and the President of the Senate to a seat on the rostrum beside the Speaker.

The Speaker turned the gavel over to Lieutenant Governor John A. Cherberg.

The President of the Senate called the Joint Session to order.

The Secretary of the Senate called the roll of the Senate and all members were present.

The Clerk of the House called the roll of the House and all members were present.

The President of the Senate announced that the purpose of the joint session was to present United States Senator Warren G. Magnuson and to receive an address from him.

The President appointed the following committee to escort Senator Magnuson from the State Reception Room to the rostrum: Senators Gallagher, Keefe, and Redmon, and Representatives O'Brien, O'Donnell, and Chatalas.

The committee retired.

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival of the Honorable Warren G. Magnuson and Mrs. Magnuson at the bar of the House, and the President of the Senate instructed the committee to escort them to seats on the rostrum.

The President of the Senate:

"Members of the Senate and House, ladies and gentlemen, it is certainly a very welcome responsibility that the President has this morning in presenting two very charming and respected visitors. It is appropriate that at this time we first present the lovely and gracious Mrs. Warren G. Magnuson. (Applause.)

"Ladies and gentlemen and members of the Washington state legislature, it was sometime during the mid-twenties that our respected visitor chose to ride the rods from the Middle West to the great Northwest and became a student at the University of Washington, where he successfully worked his way through that school and also served with considerable distinction as quarterback on the University of Washington Husky football team. There are many members that recall that Senator Magnuson was a member of this particular body at one time and occupied the seat presently held by the Honorable John L. O'Brien, representing the 37th District. His accomplishments are widely known to all, but to mention a few, it is safe to say that without the endeavors and the influence of our senator we would not have the Bonneville Power Administration or the Hanford atomic plant. Senator Magnuson is also responsible for the $9 million federal appropriation for the 1962 Seattle World's Fair—and incidentally, I could amend that remark to make that around $12.5. He was also a primary sponsor and great help to the Boeing Plant in Seattle, the Puget Sound Naval Shipyards and Sand Point Naval Air Station. Incidentally, the senator himself is a member of the United States Navy, holding the rank of lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve. Foremost in the minds of all of us was the evening in Seattle when our late beloved John Fitzgerald Kennedy, in presenting Senator Magnuson, remarked, 'What is his business? Oh, nothing important. Just the Grand Coulee Dam.' From this tremendous accomplishment, the entire Pacific Northwest has prospered.

"Now, it is Senator Magnuson's theory that if you have the votes you do not need the speech, and if you need the speech you do not have the votes. As a veteran campaigner of a dozen elections, the senator has always managed to have the votes. Those of us who have known the respected senator for many years know that because of his dedicated efforts in behalf of the citizens of the state of Washington, he will always have the votes.

"Ladies and gentlemen, it is with pleasure and pride that I present United States Senator Warren G. Magnuson." (Applause.)

Senator Magnuson:

"Members of the House and Senate, ladies and gentlemen, of course I would be derelict to what I feel if I did not say that I consider this a great honor to be here with you today and to have the opportunity to talk with you. I have been back here since I was a member on other occasions but never under such auspicious circumstances. I deeply appreciate your invitation.

"I bring you greetings from the entire Washington delegation in the congress of the United States. Many of them would of course have liked to have been here today too, but they are busy, as you are, and felt that they must stay back there and do the job that they were sent to do by the electorate.

"It is good, as I say, to talk with you. I do remember back thirty-two years ago when I sat down there in one of these seats as a young, concerned legislator. I remember it so vividly because it was a time in this state of depression. It was a time of unemployment, bank failures, problems and wants, and, yes, even rights, and I remember how concerned I was and some days how helpless I felt in my job to meet the needs of the time. People had demanded many things, and rightly so, and sometimes as a legislator it was difficult for me to evaluate what we could do in the legislative field to take care of those serious problems. We did take care of them to the best of our ability. And I suspect that thirty-two years later you folks here are faced also with the problems of the times—they don't change—and should I be fortunate enough to come back here thirty-two years hence, those members of the legislature will be faced with the same trying problems. I know that you can only do so much, but I do know that the concern of the legislators for the problems of the times is great and their contribution is great. And I must sadly say that these problems don't seem to change. They are ever present, and particularly ever present in a growing country and a growing state with many of the things that we are attempting to do to make this state and this country a better place in which to live.

"But we prevailed thirty-two years ago and you will prevail now and those who sit in this body here and across the hall will prevail thirty-two years from now too, and I think as an American it is a glorious feeling to know that legislative bodies such as yours exist. I know that you have your critics. I know that the going is sometimes tough and I suppose you feel the same sense of frustration occasionally that I felt at that time. I have been a legislator ever since. I have never lost that. I don't think you folks ever will either. But your worst critics would be the first to complain if we should change in any material way the legislative processes of what we call a democracy. They would be the first to shout the loudest. If there is a bulwark of democracy, if there is a bulwark that has kept America along the road of having the greatest government in the world, it is because legislative bodies exist and they exist in the fashion in which you meet here today, under the same rules, the same procedures. Oh, I know that people want to spout off at you. They want to criticize. They want to gossip. They want to air their views, and sometimes I suspect that you wonder if it is worth it. Sometimes you probably think that they think they own you body and soul. But they don't think that way. And I want to hasten to suggest to you that without you democracy wouldn't succeed and without them it wouldn't either. Sometimes people seem to think that this is a way in which they want to exercise their duties of citizenship, and this is true too. Some days I know that you feel you are kind of muddling along, but in the long run history will record what you do here for the state. In the long run, the legislative processes as we know them have been labeled by all historians as good—good for the people.

"So I join with you as a sort of fellow soldier. I have been in legislative bodies, as I said, most of my adult life and our problems in the congress are just the same as yours here. The results are the same. The growing needs of the people are the same, but probably there is more of a partnership now than there was thirty-two years ago when I first came down here, and I want to talk a little bit, if I may encroach upon your busy time, about that partnership, what it means to the state, what it means to you, what it means to the country, and what it means to the future of Americans.

"We share, of course, common problems, but the most difficult problem we face today is that of fiscal policy, of government spending and taxation. It is just as difficult to talk about the federal budget as it is to have an intelligent, unheated discussion of the state budget. There is a peculiar language in its terms and all of the money is not necessarily in the same pot where you can actually control it, any more than we can control the total federal budget. There are fixed charges that must be met, bi-partisan programs over which no one argues and which everyone supports; there are trust funds over which little or no legislative control can be exercised. The federal administration budget runs today $100 billion, but members of congress have control actually of about twenty-two percent of it, because the bulk is for the federal responsibility—defense, veterans' administration, and interest on a debt which is primarily a war debt. And although increases in the federal budget are significant, the real growth of government spending has taken place at the level of some ninety thousand state and local units of government. In the past three years we have seen the high cost item, the defense item, level off a little, but the needs of the local communities, the states, the cities, the counties, of course increase, and last year the total revenue allotted to state and local government was about fifteen percent, and this doesn't include many programs in research. But we have common problems. The highway program: in twelve years, you will have spent in this state $567 million under the federal highway program. It is actually a state program. It isn't federal; we are merely tax collectors for you. Last year $57 million was taken out of the state; $71 million was put back in, or a plus of $14 million, in the fields of education, in the field of impact areas, in the field of social security, fisheries, all of these things in which we have common problems, and these are just some of the specifics of the federal-state fiscal program. Federal spending has leveled out in our greatest and most important cost area, defense and payment for past wars, and if we can maintain the relative peace of today and our economy remains on the high plains, then federal revenues will continue to rise faster than our actual federal needs, so additional revenue will be available for general government needs, for investment in human resources, in development and conservation of our natural resources, and the making of our nation a better place to live. This could be true on the federal level because our federal tax structure is geared to produce more as the gross national product rises.

"Now, what is the pattern of your state and local government where you have many of these pressing needs, much more pressing and much more timely than even some of the federal needs? They grow faster and the cost of current programs races far ahead of your revenue gains, and your committees in the legislature, and your county and local budget officials know these problems better than anyone else. Your urbanization, the increased cost of services in metropolitan areas, increasing percentages of both young and old people, and tremendous increases and demands in education, public institutions for the mentally ill, the retarded, the juvenile criminal, assistance in the needs of the crippled and the blind, and all of these problems which of course are not new, seem to loom larger in any state legislative body. And we share these problems. We can't ignore or forget them.

"What is the answer? You have some answers already. You have taken care at the state level of many of these problems in the field of education, the field of better pay for teachers, in the field of social security, in the field of natural resources. But they still remain the same. They are still here in a growing community. And so I say we have got to start to decide together what we are going to do with increased revenue and new potential at the federal level. And here is what we must decide: do we increase or expand tax cuts with no regard to the ultimate utilization of financial resources? Do we increase and expand federal grants-in-aid to state and local government? Do we in some way free federal revenue sources so that state and local governments can pick up the slack? Or do we make some form of outright gift or rebate to the state with no strings? These are the alternatives and it is here that we are going to face in the future our common problems. Grants-in-aid should be of course without control or strings, and there is no one at the federal level but would enjoy the release of any semblance of control in the aid or in these common programs to the local level.

"So I suggest to you that we do have these common problems. They are going to persist in the field of natural resources and education and many of the things that are going to plague you here until you finally recess, and if I had any suggestion to make to the legislature, I would suggest and I would greatly appreciate—I speak for all members of congress who represent this great state—one of your interim committees' delving into this business, not only to study the entire scope of federal-state-local fiscal relationship but to establish itself as a legislative oversight committee inquiring into the current problems in which there is federal participation and to tell us through yourselves and through the people where these programs are faltering, where they are good, where there is needed more cooperation, where maybe there is needed more grants or less grants, and where in some cases a program may be cut out entirely. I think that is the only way that legislative bodies can face the future, because the common problems grow greater, the situation in many of these things sometimes reaches a place where there are no state boundaries, and I think that we need a lot of advice and a lot of counsel from the local bodies themselves as to how federal programs are working, if they are working at all. We expect that advice; it will be helpful to us; it will be helpful to the future of this state and will be helpful to the welfare of these entire United States.

"Thank you so much for listening." (Applause.)

Following Senator Magnuson's address there was a question and answer period during which he answered questions propounded by members of the legislature.

The President of the Senate:

"Senator and Mrs. Magnuson, it has been a real honor and a delightful pleasure to have you with us today. We have been most impressed by your importance but even more by your friendliness, your sincerity and your generous spirit of cooperation. Your remarks have been most informative and inspirational. We certainly want to extend to you our warmest, deepest appreciation for coming to spend the afternoon with us."

The President of the Senate instructed the special committee to escort Senator and Mrs. Magnuson from the rostrum to the reception room.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

House Bill No. 43, by Representatives Litchman, Witherbee, and Bottiger: Requiring certain adults to agree to be jointly and severally liable with certain minors who apply for a driver's license.

The House resumed consideration of House Bill No. 43 on second reading, the committee amendments and an amendment by Mr. Litchman having been adopted previously. (See page 578 for amendments.)

On motion of Mr. Clark, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 16, after "the father" strike all of the material down to and including "guardian" on line 19, and insert ", mother, relative, friend or guardian, who has custody of such minor"

Mrs. Hurley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, add a new section following section 4 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If for a period of one year commencing upon the date of receipt of such assumption of liability statement by the director of licenses such minor has not been convicted of a moving violation in the operation of a motor vehicle as shown on the records of the department of licenses, such minor or the person signing the assumption of liability statement may make application to the liability insurance carrier of such minor for reduction of insurance premium rates. Upon receipt of such application accompanied by a verified statement from the director of licenses that such minor has not been convicted of a moving violation during such period, the amount of the insurance premium rates charged for coverage of such minor in excess of the amount charged for the coverage of a person of the age of twenty-six years of the same sex and having substantially the same driving record, risk exposure, or other rating factors shall be reduced to not less than fifty percent of such excess amount, effective upon the date of receipt of such application and verified statement: Provided, That the reduction in premium rates as provided for in this section shall remain in effect until and unless (1) such minor is thereafter convicted of a moving violation in the operation of a motor vehicle, or (2) the statement of assumption of liability is withdrawn or cancelled for any reason, including but not limited to the death of the person making such statement. The director of licenses shall immediately notify the insurance carrier for such minor of any conviction as provided for in subsection (1) or the withdrawal or cancellation of an assumption of liability statement as provided for in subsection (2). Upon the occurrence of any one of the foregoing events as set forth in subsection (1) or (2), the insured shall thereupon be liable for the full amount of the insurance premiums, computed from the date of the occurrence of such event, which would have been payable if this section had not been enacted. If the insurer has not received payment of the full insurance premium within thirty days after giving notice to the insured of liability for payment, the insurer may at its option cause such insurance contract to lapse for nonpayment of premium."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Litchman on a point of order.

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, I raise a point of order relative to the amendment that Mrs. Hurley is attempting to tack onto this bill. This bill pertains to motor vehicles and regulations thereof, and licensing of operators. It has nothing to do with insurance rates. It seems to me that if this amendment were adopted, it would be scalping the whole bill and that we are discussing more than one title and more than one bill. I don't think the amendment is relevant to this particular title."

The Speaker:

"Mrs. Hurley, have you a statement to make concerning the point of order Mr. Litchman has raised?"

Mrs. Hurley:

"Mr. Speaker, I have an amendment to the title which will make the title conform to the contents of the amendment. I think that it is in order that we should consider the amendment and then consider the amendment to the title."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The matter of amending the title is not the essential question here. It is a question of whether the amendment is germane to the subject matter of the bill. I will rule that the amendment is out of order for two reasons. One is that the bill would, if so amended, contain more than one subject matter. The other is that I do not feel the amendment is germane to the subject, even though you may try to amend the title."

House Bill No. 43 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

House Bill No. 148, by Representatives Conner and Johnston (Elmer E.): Amending lease procedures for public lands.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mr. Burtch, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 148 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Johnston (Elmer E.) speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Avey:

"Mr. Speaker, could I ask Mr. Johnston a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Johnston, do you yield to question?"

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.):

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Avey:

"Does this have anything to do with the Battelle Report?"

Mr. Johnston:

"I don't believe I know. Maybe Dr. Moon could answer that."

Mr. Moon:

"No. This has to do strictly with the leasing of public lands, not the cutting of timber."

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 148, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 92; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Clark, Conner, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Elder, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, Jueling, Kalich, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lux, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pierre, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Savage, Sawyer, Sheridan, Slagle, Smith, Swayze, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Wang, Warnke, Whetzel, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—92.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Avey, Braun, Klein—3.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Chatalas, Copeland, Huntley, McDougall—4.

House Bill No. 148, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The Speaker declared the House to be at ease.

The Speaker called the House to order.

House Bill No. 364, by Representatives Brouillet, Goldsworthy, Johnson (Doris), Radcliffe, Saling, Cunningham, Braun, King (Richard "Dick"), Mahaffey, and Sheridan:

Changing generally state teachers' retirement system law.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 1, 1965.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Education and Libraries, to whom was referred House Bill No. 364, changing generally state teachers' retirement system law, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 11, add a new section 8 following section 7 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively:

"Sec. 8. Section 31, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 12, chapter 274, Laws of 1955, and RCW 41.32.310 are each amended to read as follows:

"Any member desiring to establish credit for services previously rendered, must present proof and make the necessary payments before June 30, [1957] 1970; or, if not employed on the effective date of this act, before June 30th of the [second] fifth school year after entry into public school employment in this state. Payments covering all types of membership service credit may be made in a lump sum when due, or in annual installments, with three percent interest. The first annual installment of at least twenty percent of the amount due must be paid before the date specified above, and the final payment before June 30th of the fourth school year following that in which the first payment was made: PROVIDED, That a member who had the opportunity under this section prior to July 1, 1965 to establish credit for services previously rendered and failed to do so shall be permitted to establish such credit only for previous public school service rendered in the state of Washington."

In line 15 of the title after "RCW 41.32.523;" and before "and providing" insert "amending section 31, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 12, chapter 274, Laws of 1955, and RCW 41.32.310;"

MARK LITCHMAN, Chairman,
DORIS JOHNSON, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: Eric O. Anderson, Robert F. Brachtenbach, Eric D. Braun, Frank B. Brouillet, Norwood Cunningham, Arlie U. DeJarnatt, S. E. (Sid) Flanagan, Robert F. Goldsworthy, Hugh "Bud" Kalich, Mrs. Douglas (Gladys) Kirk, Mary Stuart Lux, Audley F. Mahaffey, W. O. E. "Bill" Radcliffe, Gerald L. Saling, Ben F. Taplin, Georgette Valle.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Litchman moved adoption of the committee amendment on page 11.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Litchman yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Litchman, would you yield to question?"

Mr. Litchman:

"I will yield, yes."

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Litchman, I am concerned about the intent of this amendment, which I haven't studied very closely. If a teacher had an opportunity to join the retirement system but for some reason did not do so, would this amendment permit him to pick up that membership?"

Mr. Litchman:

"Yes, it would, providing he were to pay into the fund to keep it current. It essentially does the same thing that is provided for state employees and for those of us in the legislature. In other words, if we are under the system and fail to take advantage of it, we can at a later date, if we so decide, come back in by making the back payments plus three percent interest."

Mr. Canfield:

"In this underlined portion, what was your thinking about elimination of out of state credit?"

Mr. Litchman:

"Perhaps Mr. Brouillet or Mr. Saling or one of the other members of the subcommittee which prepared this amendment can speak on that better than I can."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Brouillet or Mr. Saling, do you care to yield to that question?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"The proviso is that only credits from the Washington state retirement system shall be used. If they have them from some other state, that is unfortunate, but we didn't want to open it too wide and let people move from other states and apply their credits towards the teachers' retirement system in the state of Washington."

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Brouillet, this would put them on a par with the current members—no benefit and no payment?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"That is correct."

The motion was carried, and the committee amendment was adopted.

Mr. Savage moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 1, beginning on line 22, after "fiscal year" strike all of the material down to and including "member]" on line 25 and insert ", except that any part of salaries and wages in excess of ten thousand dollars per annum shall be excluded in determining the earnable compensation of a member"

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Litchman on a point of order.

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, I raise a point of order relative to the amendment. If you look at the bill, you will see that the purpose of this bill is only to strike this provision that Mr. Savage's amendment would put back into the act, and obviously if this amendment were adopted, it would defeat the bill. If Mr. Savage wishes to kill the bill, let him vote against it, but this amendment is the bill itself."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. Savage's amendment is just reinstating the present language in the law. It is my ruling that he is entitled to do this. It is up to the body of the House to rule whether they want to adopt his amendment or not."

Debate ensued, Representative Savage speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"I wish to announce that as it is now past the fiftieth day, I am going to limit speakers to three minutes."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Brouillet, Morphis, and Saling speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative King (Chet) speaking for its adoption.

Mr. Klein moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On line 3 of the amendment by Mr. Savage to House Bill No. 364, after "in excess of" and before "thousand" strike "ten" and insert "twelve"

Debate ensued, Representatives Klein and Savage speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment to the amendment, and Representative Radcliffe speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Brouillet demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Brouillet demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Klein to the amendment by Mr. Savage to House Bill No. 364, and the motion was lost, and the amendment to the amendment not adopted, by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 63; absent or not voting, 6.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Andersen (James A.), Angevine, Avey, Backstrom, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Burtch, Canfield, Clark, Dootson, Elder, Goldsworthy, Grant, Hurley, Jastad, Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, King (Richard "Dick"), Klein, McCormick, Moon, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Dell, Pierre, Rogers, Savage, Swayze, Wang—30.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ahlquist, Anderson (Eric O.), Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Braun, Brouillet, Chatalas, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garrett, Gorton, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Johnson (Doris), Juelling, Kalich, King (Chet), Kink, Kirk, Kull, Leland, Lux, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, McCaffree, Moos, Morphis, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Saling, Sawyer, Sheridan, Slagle, Smith, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Warnke, Whetzel, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—63.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Conner, Copeland, Huntley, Litchman, May, McDougall—6.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be adoption of the amendment by Mr. Savage to House Bill No. 364.

Mr. Savage demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll, and the motion was lost, and the amendment not adopted, by the following vote: Yeas, 15; nays, 79; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Avey, Backstrom, Burtch, Clark,

Dootson, Elder, Grant, Hurley, King (Chet), Klein, Moon, Rogers, Savage, Swayze, Wang—15.

In intended to vote "No" on House Bill No. 514, but inadvertently pushed the wrong button. I did not notice my mistake until too late to change my vote.

ERIC O. ANDERSON,
21st District.

Substitute House Bill No. 104, by Committee on Higher Education:

Providing for administration of community colleges on a district basis.

The substitute bill was read the second time by sections.

Mrs. Lux moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 6, line 32, after "Title 28 RCW," and before "and the" insert "such rights shall be in addition to and not impose any restrictions or limitations on existing powers of any school district to issue bonds or levy taxes"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mrs. Lux yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mrs. Lux, will you yield to question?"

Mrs. Lux:

"Yes."

Mr. Eldridge:

"I think this is probably a good amendment, but I have one question. Basically, all you are doing is tying down the segregation of power responsibility of the two boards after the transition period? Is this correct?"

Mrs. Lux:

"Yes, reserving unto the original school district their bonding capacity so that we won't be setting up a situation in which we will be having arguments between the trustees of the community college district and the school directors in the eight through twelve districts as to who is using the ten percent bonding capacity."

At the request of Mr. Klein, the reading clerk reread the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mrs. Lux yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mrs. Lux, will you yield to question?"

Mrs. Lux:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mrs. Lux, would your amendment limit the junior college board from selling bonds or levying?"

Mrs. Lux:

"I believe that is already authorized in the bill. I just wanted to point out what the bill was doing and that I am sure it wasn't the intent to limit the existing school districts in issuing their bonds and levying."

Debate ensued, Representatives Lux, Angevine, and Brouillet speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Witherbee and King (Richard "Dick") speaking against its adoption.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Mr. Radcliffe moved that Substitute House Bill No. 104 be rereferred to Committee on Rules and Order.

Debate ensued, Representatives Radcliffe and Rogers speaking in favor of the motion, and Representatives Witherbee, Morphis, and Angevine speaking against it.

Mr. Day demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to rerefer Substitute House Bill No. 104 to Committee on Rules and Order, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 68; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Beck, Bozarth, Braun, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Haussler, Hawley, Humiston, Hurley, Jastad, Jueling, Kalich, King (Chet), Lux, Mahaffey, Newschwander, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Sawyer, Swayze, Warnke, Whetzel, Wolf—26.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Backstrom, Copeland, Huntley, McDougall, Perry—5.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representative Brouillet speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to have Mr. Eldridge yield to question."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Eldridge, will you yield?"

Mr. Eldridge:

"Yes."

Mr. Andersen:

"Representative Eldridge, you have been on the interim education committee for many years and have been active in the area affected by this bill. I would ask you if you would be so kind as to explain exactly what will be the final authority and financial impact of House Bill No. 104 as you conceive it, and its intent."

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Andersen in answer to your question, and ladies and gentlemen of the House, the revised junior college financing authority that was passed by this legislature two years ago made direct state appropriations available for salaries, wages, and operations of our community colleges. Except for student fees, which may be used in this area, the state burden, so far as matching money is concerned, is for plant facilities. Now, will this create another taxing district? Yes, but it will not be competing for additional funds; it will be competing for the same funds. It is not a demand for new taxes; it is just a shift. Instead of the local school district asking for a bond issue, it will broaden the base and the entire community college district will present its levies and bond requirements. This won't result in additional competition for these funds because at the present time competition for all funds among all kinds of local educational requirements is in existence. All this does is shift the burden to a broader base. It will give the community college district a broader base to work from, a larger taxing district. In effect, it will relieve from the now sponsoring school districts the burden of presenting levies and bond issues for capital construction. They will participate, of course, but on an equal basis with the other districts of the newly created community college districts."

Debate ensued, Representative Radcliffe speaking against passage of the bill, and Representatives Pierre, Canfield, Angevine, Morphis, and Bledsoe speaking in favor of its passage.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Bledsoe:

"Mr. Speaker, may I pose a question to Mrs. Lux? Will the lady yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will the lady from Thurston yield to question?"

Mrs. Lux:

"Yes."

Mr. Bledsoe:

"Mrs. Lux, you proposed an amendment in which we joined to clean up this measure, making it more favorable to you. Now I find you speaking in opposition to the measure."

Mrs. Lux:

"Yes, sir. I find the measure a little different now but still confused and in need of more study. My amendment protects the kindergarten through twelfth grade program, which I am sure we all intended to protect. I still think there is a great deal of confusion as to what the bonding capacity is, and I feel that if we pass this bill we will be creating in these new school districts junior taxing districts with a bonding capacity of their own. That is why I would vote against this measure. I don't want to do anything that would stymie the development of these new community colleges we need now."

Mr. Sawyer demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 104, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 68; nays, 25; absent or not voting, 6.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Avey, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Brachtenbach, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Conner, Cunningham, Elder, Eldridge, Flanagan, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Harris, Hood, Humiston, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Klein, Kull, Lynch, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, O'Brien, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Pierre, Pritchard, Rogers, Savage, Slagle, Smith, Swayze, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Wang, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—68.

Olympia, Wash., February 18, 1965.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Parks, Capitol Buildings, and Grounds, to whom was referred House Bill No. 226, providing for open space lands in urban areas, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 2, line 8, after "county," and before "city" insert "port district, metropolitan park district, park and recreation district,"

On page 5, section 9, line 28, after "section" strike "2" and insert "3"

Beginning on page 5, strike all of sections 10 through 16 and renumber section 17 "Sec. 10."

Beginning on page 7, strike all of section 18.

CHARLES R. SAVAGE, Chairman.

We concur in this report: William C. Klein, Robert R. Kull, Alfred E. Leland, Mary Stuart Lux, Joel Pritchard, Alan Thompson.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mr. Savage, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Whetzel, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, section 4, line 4, strike all of line 4 and insert "grant or exchange"

Mr. Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 4, line 11, after the period following "located" insert a new sentence as follows: "In acquisition or designation of open space land the state or its agencies shall not be limited to an urban area and the conformity with comprehensive planning required herein shall be for a plan for the state as a whole."

Debate ensued, Representative Whetzel speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Wolf speaking against its adoption.

The motion was carried on a rising vote, and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Whetzel, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, section 6, beginning on line 32, strike all of section 6 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

House Bill No. 226 was ordered engrossed.

Mr. O'Brien moved that the rules be suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 226 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

Mr. Wolf demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to advance Engrossed House Bill No. 226 to third reading and final passage, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 69; nays, 27; absent or not voting, 3.

Humiston, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, Kalich, King (Chet), Klein, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lux, Lynch, Marsh, Marzano, McCaffree, Moon, Newhouse, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Savage, Sawyer, Sheridan, Slagle, Smith, Swayze, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Warnke, Whetzel, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—69.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Huntley, King (Richard "Dick"), May—3.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be Engrossed House Bill No. 226 on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives O'Brien, Pierre, and Savage speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. O'Brien yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. O'Brien, do you yield to question?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. O'Brien, who determines the boundaries of an urban area?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Whetzel can possibly answer that more definitively than I can."

Mr. Whetzel:

"Mr. Eldridge, the definition in the bill is one which is contained in the open spaces provision of the housing act of 1961 and goes beyond the actual political boundaries of a city. In the Puget Sound area, we have a cooperative agency, the Puget Sound Governmental Conference, consisting of the four counties and the principal city in each county. This conference has been undertaking the last several years an open space study of this entire region and they have now completed their plans at a cost of about a quarter of a million dollars. They have put out summaries of reports and recommendations, and one of the things that is contained in all these recommendations is that there should be more cooperative understanding between the cities and counties to preserve open space outside the actual physical boundaries of the city, and that is the definition that is in the bill."

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Whetzel, what political authority does this group have? Are they legally constituted groups that say what the boundaries of urban areas shall be? How can they make this determination? What legal authority do they have? It seems to me we have county planning commissions set up that have the legal authority to do this sort of thing and now we are broadening the base of this type of activity, as you indicate, to give authority to some group that actually has no legal authority to do this sort of thing. Do they recommend to the county planning commissions of the areas affected or what is the procedure?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"Well, I will give you an example which might explain the situation. King county recently acquired a large tract of undeveloped acreage at the north end of Lake Sammamish. This was purchased by the county with county funds in part. Part of the funds were from the 1961 open space provision of the housing act. The county qualified for those funds because of the Puget Sound Governmental Conference open space study which was considered by the agency as a comprehensive plan being carried out for the urban area as a whole. That plan came about because the city of Seattle, the state, and other people in that voluntary conference contributed funds to bring this about."

Further debate ensued, Representative Eldridge speaking against passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Will Mr. Whetzel yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Whetzel?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Whetzel, this is actually a two-part question. First, did I understand you to say that according to the study you showed they have already made a plan for King county or the west slope of the Cascade area?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"The plan is in the process of being made. They prepared their summary and recommendations for adoption by the governmental conference. That has not yet been completed."

Mr. Witherbee:

"One further question. Supposing that someone had some acreage now that is basically undeveloped, say one hundred acres, and that acreage was in this planned open space area. Supposing the person wanted to develop it into houses and lots and they made application to the local planning authority for a plat for development in this area. If we pass this bill, would the authority be authorized to deny this before the comprehensive plan went into effect?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"No, and if the plan went into effect there would have to be some further action and there would have to be a purchase or some dealing with the property owner under this act before anything could be done."

Mr. Witherbee:

"I want to be sure before I vote for this bill, because basically I think it is a good one, that the owner of property could not be denied such planning under the present planning ordinances in urban areas on the basis that some day this property might go into open spaces."

Mr. Whetzel:

"I can assure you this bill will not do that."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mrs. Hurley:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Whetzel submit to another question, please?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"Yes."

Mrs. Hurley:

"I notice on page 5, Mr. Whetzel, that any public body may appropriate funds and levy taxes and assessments. Would these taxes and assessments be placed on real property?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"This is not intended to grant any power to levy new or additional taxes. It is merely clarification that if the public body were to take tax money that has been levied and use it for the purposes in this act, it would be a proper purpose. There is no intention here to set up any new taxes in any way."

Mrs. Hurley:

"One further question. At the bottom of page 4, this public body is given the authority to demolish and dispose of certain structures. To demolish these structures would necessarily take them off the tax rolls. Then wouldn't it be necessary to increase the property taxes on those existing buildings in order to raise the proper amount of funds for the city or county, Mr. Whetzel?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"The powers under section 7 are simply powers to manage property. If the property is acquired by a public body, they would then have the power to remove any structures on there, such as exists now if a city acquired a park site and there was a building on there that they wanted to remove because it wasn't suitable for park purposes."

Further debate ensued, Representative Wolf speaking against passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Wang:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Whetzel yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Whetzel?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"Yes."

Mr. Wang:

"Mr. Whetzel, in section 5, subsection 2, it states that a public body can convey or lease any real property. Now, doesn't that more or less put the public body in the land development business?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"That is not the intention of the act. If a public body acquired land in fee interest and wanted to lease it, they could do so. For example, if there was property that it was thought would be worthwhile to accept as open space land, say on a stream bank, rather than have the public body maintain that with the expense of keeping the grounds up as they might in a park, they would be allowed to lease this out, perhaps to a farmer to use for grazing or some purpose like that. That is the intention of this section."

Further debate ensued, Representative Wang speaking against passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Berentson:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Whetzel yield to another question?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"Yes."

Mr. Berentson:

"Without the power of eminent domain, do you feel this bill really would insure the orderly development of open space areas?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"I think the bill is a desirable bill even without the power of eminent domain. Those of us who sponsored it and many other people would like to have kept that power in, but I think it can be useful even without that."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Hawley:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Whetzel yield to question?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"This seems to be my day."

Mr. Hawley:

"Mr. Whetzel, the port has very broad powers now. Why were the ports added to this bill?"

Mr. Whetzel:

"This was at the request of the port districts, I think the Seattle port district. They were mostly concerned about the Seattle-Tacoma airport. They are engaged in a great many lawsuits from adjoining property owners who claim their air rights have been invaded by the jets flying over. They don't have the power, they feel, to go out and negotiate and purchase what is called an aviation easement, which is the right to have airplanes fly over your property making sound and other disturbances. If they are included in this bill, they feel they would have power to go out and negotiate and perhaps acquire some of these rights before people force them into lawsuits at increased expense to the airport."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Valle and O'Brien speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. Grant demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 226, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 76; nays, 22; absent or not voting, 1.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., February 26, 1965.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Licenses, to whom was referred House Bill No. 256, regulating hair dressing and beauty culture establishments and the operators and employees thereof, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mrs. Hurley, the committee amendment on page 2 was adopted.

Mrs. Hurley moved that the committee amendment on page 9 be not adopted.

Debate ensued, Representative Hurley speaking in favor of not adopting the committee amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, I would just like to ask Mrs. Hurley a question?"

The Speaker:

"Do you yield to question, Mrs. Hurley?"

Mrs. Hurley:

"I will."

Mr. Smith:

"Mrs. Hurley, are you moving to adopt this amendment and insert iron curling or not adopt it, which will strike it out?"

Mrs. Hurley:

"We are moving not to adopt the amendment, which would delete iron curling from cosmetology practice. It would place it in the same position it is now in the bill. It is stricken. Mr. Bottiger, could you explain this a little more clearly?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"Mr. Speaker, I think the question is whether we intend to delete from the practice of cosmetology the practice of iron curling. The answer is that if Mrs. Hurley's motion is adopted, yes, this will no longer be a required practice."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Bottiger, Adams, and Day speaking in favor of the motion not to adopt the committee amendment, and Representatives Smith and O'Donnell speaking against the motion.

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.) demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

On page 12, section 17, line 24, beginning on line 24, strike all of the material down to and including the period after "school" on line 28.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Goldsworthy:

"Mr. Speaker, I am submitting this amendment partially to ask a question. In the case of a neighbor who might come in to do another woman's hair in exchange for a dozen eggs or something of that nature, would this section which I am suggesting be stricken restrict these people from doing this work in their homes?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Representative Day, do you care to answer the question?"

Mr. Day:

"No, it wouldn't. The only thing it does is stop the practice of hair dressing unless a shop has been established in the home. In other words, if a person had a shop established in his home, he certainly could practice hair dressing. We are talking about money now, not the wife setting the daughter's hair."

Mr. Goldsworthy:

"How about a friend setting the wife's and daughter's hair and maybe charging a couple of bucks?"

Mr. Day:

"This will stop that."

Debate ensued, Representatives Goldsworthy and Slagle speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Day, Hurley, Bottiger, Adams, and Kalich speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moon:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mrs. Hurley would yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Will Mrs. Hurley yield to question?"

Mrs. Hurley:

"Yes, I certainly will."

Mr. Moon:

"I wonder, if this bill should be enacted into law, will it regulate unlicensed cosmetologists?"

Mrs. Hurley:

"Well, it would require cosmetologists to have a license in order to practice cosmetology."

Mr. Moon:

"A while ago it was remarked that unlicensed cosmetologists were not affected. Could this type of person go out and set her neighbor's hair without restrictions?"

Mrs. Hurley:

"Well, she certainly couldn't set up a shop and she certainly couldn't go out and demand pay regularly for work done in this way, because she would be restricted from doing this. This is the reason for the act."

MOTION

Mr. Smith moved that House Bill No. 256 be indefinitely postponed.

Debate ensued, Representative Smith speaking in favor of the motion, and Representatives Bottiger, Adams, Goldsworthy, Day, and Andersen (James A.) speaking against it.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Smith withdrew his motion.

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) declared the question before the House to be the adoption of Mr. Goldsworthy's amendment to House Bill No. 256.

On page 12, section 7, line 24, after "No" and before "person" insert "licensed"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Day:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Bottiger yield to question?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"Yes."

Mr. Day:

"Mr. Bottiger, rather than insert in line 24 'No licensed person' would it be better to strike the word 'person' and insert the word 'operator'?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"This would be all right."

Further debate ensued, Representative Adams speaking in opposition to adoption of the amendment.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Harris withdrew his amendment.

MOTION

Mr. Burtch moved that the House defer further consideration of House Bill No. 256, and that the bill be ordered placed at the foot of today's second reading calendar.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.) on a point of order.

Mr. Johnston:

"Mr. Speaker, which calendar are we referring to?"

The Speaker:

"We are at the present time working on a special order of business, which is the second reading calendar from yesterday. We have in addition a second reading calendar for today. Mr. Burtch's motion is to place the bill at the foot of today's second reading calendar."

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.) moved to amend the motion by Mr. Burtch to read that the House defer further consideration of House Bill No. 256, and that the bill be ordered placed at the end of the second reading calendar for the special order of business, to follow consideration of House Bill No. 360.

The amendment by Mr. Johnston to the motion by Mr. Burtch was carried on a rising vote.

The motion as amended was carried.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Witherbee, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House do now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 226 passed the House.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Copeland on a point of order.

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, do not the House rules provide that in the event we are past the fiftieth day, the motion to reconsider must be given immediately upon final passage of the bill?"

The Speaker:

"What rule are you referring to?"

Mr. Copeland:

"Rule 43, I believe, Mr. Speaker."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"If you will read Rule 43, Mr. Copeland, you will see the motion is in order. The rule is that after the fiftieth day, reconsideration can be had only on the day the vote to be reconsidered was taken."

Debate ensued, Representative Witherbee speaking in favor of the motion to reconsider, and Representatives Klein, Gorton, and Savage speaking against the motion.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Litchman on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, Mr. Witherbee has given notice of reconsideration at this time. Is it not true he can make his motion at any time this working day?"

The Speaker:

"He didn't give notice; he made a motion to reconsider. This is the question before the House at this time."

Mr. Litchman:

"If he were to withdraw his motion, could he not make this motion at any time during this working day?"

The Speaker:

"That is correct, as long as the bill is still before the House."

Mr. Litchman:

"May I ask if we will have an evening session?"

The Speaker:

"We will have an evening session."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Witherbee on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, if I withdraw my motion and then serve notice I am going to make a motion to reconsider later, would this keep the bill from being transmitted to the Senate?"

The Speaker:

"It would unless there is a motion to immediately transmit all bills passed by the House to the Senate. However, if you did give notice, I would think that the House would be aware of your intention."

Mr. Witherbee announced that with the consent of the House he would withdraw his motion for reconsideration.

Mr. Uhlman objected.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Witherbee that the House do now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 226 passed the House.

Mr. Klein demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Wolf demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House do now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 226 passed the House, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 52; absent or not voting, 6.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ahlquist, Avey, Berentson, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Day, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Grant, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Hurley, Juelling, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Litchman, Mahaffey, Marsh, Mast, May, McDougall, Moon, Morphis, Newschwander, Olsen, Sawyer, Sheridan, Slagle, Taylor, Wang, Warnke, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—41.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Chatalas, Clark, Dootson, Huntley, Smith, Taplin—6.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 2, 1965.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Ways and Means, Subcommittee on Appropriations, to whom was referred House Bill No. 203, raising per diem for state officials and employees, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendment:

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Representatives Burtch and Brachtenbach:

WHEREAS, There has been an increasing partnership of the federal government and the states in fiscal matters whereby federal funds have been utilized to assist state programs in highways, education, welfare, and other fields; and

WHEREAS, The states have had a difficult time producing sufficient revenue to totally handle their own programs without this federal aid; and

WHEREAS, With insufficient coordination between the states and the federal government such programs might tend to be less efficient and economical as possible; and

WHEREAS, The Senior Senator from the State of Washington in his appearance before a joint session of this legislature on March 6, 1965, has asked for a committee to give advice to Congress as to where the partnership between the state and federal government on fiscal problems may be deteriorating; and

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives welcomes the opportunity to be of advice and assistance to Congress and the Legislative Council is an appropriate agency through its subcommittees to do so;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives request the Legislative Council to conduct a study of the federal-state fiscal programs to attempt to establish a better partnership relationship, and to counsel with Congress on the best methods to return federal tax moneys to the states, and further the Legislative Council should establish liaison with the Congress of the United States and the federal administration to implement the purpose of this resolution, and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Legislative Council be requested and authorized to implement and to put into effect such part of the recommendations as would be feasible and proper without legislative action; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Legislative Council report back to the 40th session of the legislature as to its accomplishments and its recommendations.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Mast on a point of order.

Mr. Mast:

"Mr. Speaker, how long are we allowed to speak on a bill here? I thought there was a three-minute rule. I notice we have been going over and over it. I was wondering if someone was keeping track. There are a lot of good bills which I would like to see us move on, but if we are going to talk and talk and talk, we will never get through."

The Speaker:

"I think the comments of Mr. Mast are very good. I think members of the House should limit themselves to three minutes."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Perry yield to question?"

Mr. Perry:

"Yes, I would."

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Perry, there have been speeches made on the packaging and the expense of this procedure in regard to labeling. Was there any testimony along this line in your committee or did it deal only with the health hazard? Would you please enlighten us?"

Mr. Perry:

"The testimony as presented by the lobbyist from the tobacco industry was that they were against this primarily because of the cost of labeling and the impracticability of this. I have an amendment on the desk which, if we defeat Mr. Witherbee's motion, will take care of the cost involved to the marginal people."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Wolf and Pierre speaking against the motion, and Representative Uhlman speaking for the motion.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, would one of the sponsors yield to question, please?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Perry, would you yield to question?"

Mr. Perry:

"Yes."

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Perry, I wonder if the sponsors considered the possibility of instructing the Washington state tax commission to put on each and every package of cigarettes sold within the state of Washington, in addition to the Washington state tax stamp, in large, bold print the words 'Caution, cigarette smoking may be hazardous to your health and cause cancer'. Have you given this consideration?"

Mr. Perry:

"No, I haven't, simply because it was my full intent that the tobacco industry, which spends hundreds of millions of dollars in lobbying and advertising, should be able to spend a few pennies for our children's health."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Copeland, Day, and Elder speaking in opposition to the motion, and Representatives Chatalas and Ahlquist speaking for it.

Mr. Burtch demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The costs and expenses incurred by the manufacturer, importer or any other person by reason of this act and in compliance herewith shall not be added to the purchase price of the ultimate purchaser: Provided, That the resulting costs and expenses of this act shall be deducted as a credit from the taxes that may be due or become due the state of Washington on the sales to the consumer or retail purchaser and shall be paid or refunded to the person or persons who expended funds caused by or resulting from this act or the application thereof. This act shall become effective on January 1, 1966."

Renumber the remaining section to read "Sec. 8."

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Klein on a point of inquiry.

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, I have a point of constitutional inquiry. I would like to have your ruling on the effect of this upon the bonds that are being serviced by the tax. This proposal, as I understand it, is to take the cost of this from what would otherwise be the taxes and give them a credit on it, and I strongly suggest that this may be contrary to the bonds that we have of people who have loaned us this money that is being serviced out of the cigarette money. I submit it is an unconstitutional thing that Mr. Clark has suggested."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Speaker will make the ruling on Mr. Klein's point which is the same ruling that the Attorney General has made a number of times, that anything this body considers I will consider to be constitutional unless it is proved otherwise."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Burtch on a point of order.

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe this amendment would be contrary to the other amendment that we have adopted. He would reject the fact that the company would have to pay the costs through this amendment."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"I would rule on your point of order, Mr. Burtch, that it would not be in conflict in that they still would have to pay, but they would be receiving credit someplace else."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Bottiger:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Smith yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Smith, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Smith:

"Yes."

Mr. Bottiger:

"Mr. Smith, it is difficult for us to vote on one of a series of amendments. As I take it, you are striking the definition of the hearing board?"

Mr. Smith:

"I will try to explain that to you. What they have is a committee appointed by the director of licenses, which is not nearly so expensive as this new board they would create that would be appointed by the governor to put politics into the hair dressing business. The new board they are putting in would get $35.00 a day plus expenses, which would amount to $50.00 or $60.00 a day. It is an unnecessary expense and an unnecessary board appointed by the governor when there is somebody already performing this particular task which is going to be done for less than half the money."

Debate ensued, Representatives Bottiger, Day, and Adams speaking against adoption of the amendment.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Smith moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, section 12, line 14, after "(6)" strike the remainder of the subsection and insert "Iron curling or waving;" and renumber the remaining subsections accordingly.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Did you vote on the prevailing side, Mr. Smith?"

Mr. Smith:

"I guess I didn't. It was not a recorded vote."

The Speaker:

"I asked which way you voted."

Mr. Smith:

"I did not vote for it."

The Speaker:

"Your motion for reconsideration would in that case be out of order, Mr. Smith."

Mr. Moon:

"You have mentioned, Mr. Cunningham, that these buses are costing more and more per seat capacity the longer they get. I am wondering who it is that authorizes the purchase of these buses?"

Mr. Cunningham:

"Well, of course, eventually they are authorized by the school board on someone's recommendation, but I think that within the realm of safety you just have to put some sort of limit on what you would allow any one driver to have responsibility for, and many times the school boards aren't too conversant with these particular problems, because they are not associated too closely with them."

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Bledsoe moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 6, after "owners of" and before "land" insert "agricultural and range"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Bledsoe yield to question?"

Mr. Bledsoe:

"I would."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Bledsoe, would you have serious objections to referring this to the Judiciary Committee? This has extensive changes in the law of liability in the state of Washington. It is extremely broad. There are some good provisions; section 3, I think, is a very valid section. When the state does take over, I would think the state should assume the liability. But the rest of the act, I think, has extreme changes of law in this area and it certainly should be looked at, perhaps by the Judiciary Committee."

Mr. Bledsoe:

"Your point is well taken, the problem being the press of time. An amendment I expect to propose will strike the entire section 3 and this amendment will limit it to agricultural and range lands and for the purpose of hunting and fishing only. In other words, we wouldn't get into these recreational areas which have broad scope. I would say that would be the same thing as perhaps the individual with a swimming pool in his back yard being relieved of responsibility. It is not the intent of this measure that he should be."

Debate ensued, Representative Moos speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Further debate ensued, Representative Canfield speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Avey and Thompson speaking against its adoption.

The motion was carried on a rising vote, and the amendment was adopted.

"(4) Operators of charter boats operating on waters within or bordering this state."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Avey yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will Mr. Avey yield to question?"

Mr. Avey:

"I will, yes."

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Avey, before this bill is advanced, I would appreciate your explanation of why we need it. We have about ten pages here on charter buses, which evidently aren't regulated at the present time. What is the pressing need for this whole system of regulations in this area?"

Mr. Avey:

"This regulates charter buses and makes them adhere to safety regulations in the maintenance of their equipment. Now, the charter bus people asked to be regulated to protect themselves. They had to increase their liability from $10,000 to $200,000, which is more in line with the protection they needed, and they asked for this bill."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Representative Pritchard would yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Representative Pritchard, will you yield to question from Mr. Uhlman?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"I'll try. I may have to give you my attorney, Mr. Gorton, if it is very technical."

The Speaker:

"Between the two of them, they yield."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Pritchard, I am not exactly certain what the change would be here. As I understand it, it is not your desire that the commission would be able to refuse a franchise on a proper showing of inability or refusal to adequately service the area. Why is it that you desire to take this right of refusal from the public service commission?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"I will ask my attorney to answer that."

Mr. Gorton:

"That is not the intent of the amendment. Many of these franchises that are granted before a city is incorporated are not exclusive in nature and the particular language which is sought to be stricken here changes it to an exclusive franchise by not letting the city give any other franchise during the original period of the franchise or for five years, whichever is longer. Taking it out leaves up to the city the decision of whether or not it wants to give a competing franchise."

Further debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative Gorton speaking for its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Would Mr. Uhlman yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Mr. Uhlman, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes, I will yield."

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Gorton has said this has nothing to do with the public service commission, but is not the principle the same in this case?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"This was the intent of my comments. It would seem to me the general principle involved is one of public use and necessity, and it would appear we would have to give the city council the same rights that we have given the public service commission in this area, and this, Representative Gorton, is under the general principle and overall philosophy of home rule, and if the city in its wisdom does go through all the applicants and there is not enough business for two or more competing outfits, the same principle that the public service commission has applied should be in effect and that is the principle of public use and necessity."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Pierre:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Pritchard a question, if I may."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Will you yield?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"I will try."

Mr. Pierre:

"You and my good friend, Mr. Gorton, are on this committee. Didn't you study and go over this thing in your committee?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Yes, and I refused to sign the bill out, Mr. Pierre, if you will check."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Leland:

"Mr. Speaker, I am going to ask Representative Pritchard or Gorton to yield to a question."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Representative Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Leland:

"Let us say that in the field of transportation, bus service, an area is annexed to an existing city. Within the area that is annexed, let us say, there exists a private transportation system. Under this bill, would it be possible for the city to install or grant a competitive franchise within that area?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Under this bill it would not, even if there had been competition in the area previously. The franchise by the city for this period would have to be noncompetitive, and if, for example, the city of Seattle annexed an area to the north of it, it would not be permitted to extend city transit buses into this area during this five-year period. This is the point of the amendment. If the amendment is adopted, then the judgment of whether there should be competition would be up to the city council."

Mr. Leland:

"What if the franchise in the newly annexed area had been granted by the public service commission and then it came into the city? Then, is the decision up to the city, and the public service commission entirely out of it?"

Mr. Gorton:

"That is a good question. Presumably the original franchise could have been granted by the public service commission, because it is an agency of the state of Washington, and if the public service commission has nothing to do with this particular kind of service within a city, then the jurisdiction to grant the license in the future, except for this five-year period for which it has to be continued, would be that of the city as it now is."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Wolf:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Moon yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Dr. Moon, do you yield to question?"

Mr. Moon:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Wolf:

"Mr. Moon, I am confused. Mr. Kalich has quoted a meeting in Thurston county where the producers were asked about this. He quoted them as being in favor of the bill without the referendum. I have word the other way. Is this something that the producers who pay the bill want or just the dairy commission?"

Mr. Moon:

"This is something that the dairymen in my area, anyway, are very anxious for. This is enabling legislation which should be passed so the dairy commission, if they see fit, can raise these additional funds; and you must remember that the primary producers among the dairymen can influence these dairy commissioners the same way the voters influence the vote down here. I don't think it is at all necessary that we have a referendum in this case, any more than I would say that every measure that comes before this legislature should be submitted to a referendum. I think there is an occasional time when things that we have passed here should be referred to the people, but in this thing I don't think it is necessary because the dairymen certainly do have a direct influence on the dairy commission."

Further debate ensued, Representative Berentson speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Burtch demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Newhouse made closing remarks in favor of adoption of his amendment to section 1, line 17 of House Bill No. 382.

"The referendum for approval of any increase in assessment or part thereof provided for in this act shall be by secret mail ballot furnished to all producers paying assessments to the commission. The commission shall furnish ballots to producers at least ten days in advance of the day it has set for concluding the referendum and counting the ballots. Any interested producer may be present at such time the commission counts said ballots.

"Any proposed increase in assessments by the commission subsequent to a decrease in assessments as provided for in RCW 15.44.130 (2) shall be subject to a referendum and approval by producers as herein provided."

Debate ensued, Representative Newhouse and Moon speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

"Will Mr. Newhouse yield?"

Mr. Newhouse:

"I would be happy to."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Newhouse, what effect will this have on the price per quart of milk?"

Mr. Newhouse:

"Let's put it another way. We have a few cows. For each cow, it will cost $1.00 per cow per year. The price per quart of milk would be rather infinitesimal."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Sheridan?"

Mr. Sheridan:

"Yes."

Mr. Clark:

"Mr. Sheridan, as one of the sponsors of this bill, what is the possible financial impact of this bill on the state?"

Mr. Sheridan:

"Mr. Speaker, perhaps I can just answer the question and make a few brief remarks I had intended to make. This is simply enabling legislation which permits the state of Washington to take advantage of any federal legislation along this line. There is absolutely no unfavorable impact upon the state of Washington as far as cost is concerned. It does not increase our own appropriations but it would permit us to take advantage of federal money on a ratio of about ten dollars of federal money to every dollar from the state. This is a chance to do something for the young people of the state."

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 430, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 92; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 6.

Mr. Brachtenbach moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 2, line 13, following section 2 add a new section as follows: "NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any security issued by any association now or hereafter qualifying or organized under this act shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and chapter 21.20 RCW."

Debate ensued, Representative Brachtenbach speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Brachtenbach yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will Mr. Brachtenbach yield?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Brachtenbach, is there a general offering at the present time available to these co-ops?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"I think in most cases, not, or in all cases, not. They are generally dealing with all the individuals in a particular industry. What will happen is that they will enter into a contract with the particular members to market their produce and completely incidental to that they will issue these various papers, which under the present law come under the security act."

Further debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking against adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Pierre:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Brachtenbach yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Brachtenbach?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes."

Mr. Pierre:

"If we revoke these people from the state securities act, does this have a federal relationship?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"I believe not. The purpose of this act is to bring it into conformity with the federal act, which has no such requirement. They are exempt under S.E.C. regulations now."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to be assured by my legal firm here, Brachtenbach and Gorton, that this amendment is in total conformity with the balance of the act and germane thereto."

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"It is my impression it is. I asked another lawyer—not Mr. Gorton—perhaps I should have asked him—and it was our consensus that it was in conformity with the earlier part of the act relating to stock."

Further debate ensued, Representative Pritchard speaking against adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Flanagan:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Representative Brachtenbach to yield to another question."

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes."

Mr. Flanagan:

"Some of these co-ops, if I recall, sell issues of preferred stock. Were you thinking about that, too, in this?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"I presume it would be covered, because it would be a security within the meaning of the exemptions I am primarily aiming at. I think there is an important distinction here. These co-ops are not out selling paper to the public; they are only dealing with their own members, people who are a part of their own organization."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Brachtenbach would yield to question?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Brachtenbach, I am concerned about the so-called inactive members, which I am of several co-ops. I feel that I more or less rely on certain state laws, and the security commission is one, to make sure everything is done in order. I think this is something we as legislators have to be concerned with."

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"This is the reason this amendment is on this bill rather than being a broad exemption for all co-ops, because there are co-ops that have broad dealings with the public; but in this case, it would be limited only to agricultural co-ops who would necessarily be dealing with their own people. If you read the earlier language, you will see this would be limited to the membership of that agricultural co-op and they are normally very active members in participation very directly in the management of that co-op."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Brachtenbach yield to another question?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes."

Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Brachtenbach, has there been any particular difficulty with the securities department in having any of these issues or any of these securities approved? Have they been rejected, and for what reason?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"To my knowledge, they have not been rejected. The problem is simply one of rather extensive bookkeeping. In fact, that department has been quite cooperative, but, for example, they require a quarterly report. That quarterly report may be fifteen pages long and requires a great deal of extra work and expense on behalf of these co-ops and really with little meaning and no end result. In other words, the public is not involved; it is only the members, and you are really doing useless acts. The department has not been uncooperative in any sense."

MOTION

Mr. Burtch moved that the House defer further consideration of House Bill No. 454, and that the bill be ordered placed at the end of today's second reading calendar.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

"Mr. Moos, would this affect the equestrian riding down the highway?"

Mr. Moos:

"When this came up, I couldn't help remembering, Representative Day, about four terms ago that you and I took four hours of this body's time moving horses from one side to the other and another four hours to get the amendments back off. Now, we had a great deal of support from the riders, but when I got home, I found the horses were kicking about it. I think you have a worthwhile amendment to discuss, Representative Klein, but a poor one to pass."

Further debate ensued, Representative Harris speaking against adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Harris:

"Mr. Klein, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes, Mr. Harris."

Mr. Harris:

"I can see where your amendment has real thought behind it. The thing that concerns me is that I have always felt that the rights of a bicycle rider were about the same on a highway as those of the driver of a car. Now, when we move the bicycle rider to the other side of the highway, we put him in a whole new category of legal considerations, it seems to me, and I don't know just what his rights would be on left turns and right turns and all the rest of it. I am just wondering if you aren't kicking out the window whatever established case law we have as to bicycle riders?"

Mr. Klein:

"If you will look at some of the other language here, I think you will find that the bicycle rider by this new language is actually being put in a different position than what you have described relative to rights. That is, he has a duty to be looking more for the vehicle than the vehicle has for him. That is why I particularly commend this amendment to you as being a good one."

Mr. Brouillet demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

House Bill No. 234 was ordered engrossed.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Whetzel:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Burtch yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Do you yield to question, Mr. Burtch?"

Mr. Burtch:

"Yes."

Mr. Whetzel:

"Mr. Burtch, the language of section 27 which establishes the right of way rule at an unmarked intersection differs in some respects from RCW 46.60.150 which is repealed in this bill. The existing law has been construed in many cases. You were chairman of the subcommittee of the Highways Committee which held hearings on this bill. Is it intended by this change in wording to change either the existing law or its construction?"

Mr. Burtch:

"This question was specifically discussed at the subcommittee meeting. There is definitely no intent to change the law or construction of laws contained in RCW 46.60.150 as construed by the courts. The change in language was made to conform some terms in section 27 to other language in the bill so the section will be more easily understood by the public and law enforcement officials."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Klein yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Klein?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes."

Mr. Smith:

"Now, under this amendment, you mention that a young person could misrepresent his age. Would this preclude the vendor from requiring some sort of identification as proof of age or will this let him take the person's word and go free?"

Mr. Klein:

"It does not. He still has the necessity of proof that there has been a misrepresentation as to age. It must be recognized that it is possible for a youngster to have altered identification of some kind as to age. You must give the seller the opportunity of proving that, but the burden of proof would still be upon him."

Mr. Smith:

"Could a vendor say to a young person, 'If you want to say you are 18, I will sell a car to you and not worry about it'? I was wondering if he could get away with a thing like that?"

Mr. Klein:

"It could be tightened down a little more in line with your suggestion. If the bill were moved down a little further on the calendar, I will see if we can prepare an amendment to the amendment."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Angevine on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Angevine:

"Has the Speaker not ruled that at 3:00 o'clock today, we will no longer consider House bills?"

The Speaker:

"The Speaker didn't rule. We passed a concurrent resolution that so stated. After 3:00 o'clock the House will consider no more House bills during the regular session."

Mr. Angevine:

"Do we not have a continuation of yesterday's calendar which starts at 12:00 o'clock?"

The Speaker:

"That was the motion the body passed."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Sawyer, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Sawyer:

"Yes, sir."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"As you well know, these are coming at all of us a little on the fast side. If there is a limit of time for the inheritor of such a trucking outfit as you describe, how long a time is that?"

Mr. Sawyer:

"In answer to your question, this went to the legal subcommittee and they attempted to work out some sort of time provision, but because some estates go on for years, especially the larger ones, we didn't know what time to put on this, so we turned this discretion over to the public service commission. If they come in with something that isn't workable, we will have to spell it out, but they are the people who are working with this continually, so we thought they would be the better body to set up some sort of rules and regulations as to how long this temporary permit could continue."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"This could be variable?"

Mr. Sawyer:

"It could be."

Debate ensued, Representative Kalich speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Amend the amendment by the Committee on Judiciary to section 2, line 13, of the printed bill, being the last line of the mimeographed amendment, after "his age" insert "substantiated by what is ordinarily considered creditable written proof of age"

Debate ensued, Representatives Klein, Smith, and Marzano speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment to the amendment.

The motion was carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

The committee amendment to section 1, line 13 was adopted as amended.

Mr. Clark moved adoption of the following amendment:

In section 1, line 5, after "eighteen" and before "to be" insert "unless in effect the minor is emancipated:"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Clark yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Do you yield to question, Mr. Clark?"

Mr. Clark:

"Yes."

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Clark, would this encourage youngsters to leave home?"

Mr. Clark:

"No. You have already left home if you are emancipated. Sometimes you are attending college or you have a job which requires a vehicle. I speak from experience. So you go out and buy one. You don't have any parents around from whom to get consent. You have your own funds; you have earned them. I think these youngsters should have that privilege."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Dootson:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Clark kindly yield to question?"

Mr. Clark:

"I would be delighted to."

Mr. Dootson:

"Mr. Clark, I can very easily visualize a situation where a boy sixteen or seventeen years old is left by the death of his mother and father and there is an automobile in the family. The bill as it is now without your amendment puts them in a very difficult position as to who will have the ownership of the car. I am speaking of where a person dies intestate. I think your amendment would perhaps clarify the situation, would it not?"

Mr. Clark:

"I believe it would and that is one of the purposes of the amendment."

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

House Bill No. 354 was ordered engrossed.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 354 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The Speaker:

"Mr. Klein, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes."

Mr. Avey:

"Does this include Hondas, scooters, motorcycles, and anything else of that nature?"

Mr. Klein:

"It is a motor vehicle."

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

During the last few days of this regular session many bills passed without adequate discussion or amendment, many with no discussion at all. Under these circumstances it is impossible to form a proper judgment on important and far-reaching legislation. My "no" vote in some instances was for this reason.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms color guard.

Prayer was offered by the Reverend Henry S. Rahn of the First Baptist Church of Olympia.

The reading clerk proceeded to read the journal of the proceedings of the previous day. On motion of Mr. Grant, further reading was dispensed with and the journal was ordered to stand approved.

The Speaker observed in the south gallery Troop 654 of the Girl Scouts from Columbia River School in Vancouver, and asked them to stand and be recognized.

The Speaker observed in the north gallery Troop 164 of the Cub Scouts from the 32nd District in Seattle, and asked them to stand and be recognized.

The Speaker observed in the south gallery fifty-one members of the junior high department of the Mt. Zion Baptist Sunday School in Seattle, and asked them to stand and be recognized.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Smith on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, because of the fact that we are going to have a short session this morning, there are a couple of things I want to bring to the attention of the members of the House. I will take just a short while to do so. All of us who have looked in the newspapers the last couple of days have noticed how down in Alabama the police were using methods that were not necessarily very good to keep people from having the right to vote. Now, I know most of us sat and looked at that and said, 'Well, that is all right. This is not good, but those poor, ignorant people in Alabama don't know any better.' However, I would remind the members of the House that in Alabama and Mississippi the question is the right to vote and equal justice, but here in the state of Washington, it is the right for housing and job opportunities. I would remind, particularly, our Rules Committee that we have a duty to perform in seeing that the House has an opportunity to vote on the housing measure during the special session, and I would warn them that during the special session, I shall conduct a 'no-holds-barred' campaign to jog the members of the House Rules Committee, so that our state may be one of those states that really believes in justice and equality."

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker observed in the north gallery sixty students from the eighth grade in the Lucille Umbarger school in Burlington, and asked them to stand and be recognized.

The Speaker observed in the north gallery Admiral and Mrs. Bledsoe, parents of Representative Bledsoe, and asked them to stand and be recognized.

The Speaker observed within the bar of the House former State Representative James A. Blodgett of Spokane county and appointed Representatives May and Hurley to conduct him to a seat on the rostrum beside the speaker.

The Speaker requested that the pages of the House gather before the bar of the House and instructed Representatives O'Brien and Copeland to present to them, with the thanks of the House for their fine services, wrist-watches donated by Senator David C. Cowen of Spokane.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Leland:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative O'Donnell yield to question, please?"

Miss O'Donnell:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Leland:

"Representative O'Donnell, the concern I have here goes to the argument just presented by Mr. Bottiger. In the case of the state, we have it within our political power to levy and to raise whatever moneys may be necessary to meet whatever obligations we incur, because we have that authority. Now, at the local level, unfortunately, being children of the legislature, they are severely restricted. The question I would like to pose to you, Representative O'Donnell is this. Let us for argument's sake say that we employ these processes, as pointed out, of collective bargaining and we arrive at a wage settlement and the city ratifies it, but the financial impact is so much, say $100,000 or $150,000, depending on the city's size, that it is many thousands of dollars over the revenues provided by that city. In the light of the prerogatives or powers we have given to the local governments to govern themselves in raising money, how are they going to meet this financial responsibility?"

Miss O'Donnell:

"In answer to your question, Mr. Leland, if I were negotiating a collective bargaining agreement on behalf of my city and signed such an agreement that would put the city into an extremely serious financial problem, I'd say the city had negotiated a very poor collective bargaining agreement on behalf of the municipality. This is part of the reason why we are having collective bargaining, so they can sit down and determine wages, hours, working conditions and all other aspects of the problem."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Leland and Gorton speaking in behalf of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Savage speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Burtch demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

"Yes."

Mr. Bledsoe:

"In your remarks where you indicate that as set forth in section 7 possibly the state personnel board would draw guidelines, we have specifically in this act not mentioned any levels at which negotiations are to be set. Would you then think that the state personnel board would go beyond the obvious intent of the legislature to start striking some level at which this should be put?"

Miss O'Donnell:

"No. The second and third lines point out that besides the state personnel board being involved in adopting those regulations, the other appropriate officers and governing bodies of the political subdivisions would do the same thing on the local level. This is being kept to the local level where local problems are best known and where local people can negotiate problems together. The state personnel board would not be setting regulations or guidelines for anything that didn't have to do with the state."

"Thank you, sir. If these amendments that you speak of were adopted, Mr. Angevine, would those be objectionable to the law enforcement groups who have asked for this particular bill as it is written?"

Mr. Angevine:

"I have talked, I suppose, to almost all of the representatives of the law enforcement groups, including all the groups before our committee last night. They have all said they have absolutely no objection to the amendment. Their only concern was whether it would cause the bill to be defeated simply because of delaying tactics. Therefore, I spoke to the prime sponsor of the bill in the Senate and he was of the opinion the Senate would immediately concur. I am of the impression, though I cannot speak authoritatively, that there is no objection as far as the law enforcement groups are concerned."

Mr. Angevine:

"Originally, I do not know who advocated these amendments. However, we did have our first hearing about three or four weeks ago and there were two people, apparently who testified. Our clerk last night said one was a representative of the ACLU and he also said another one was a representative of one of the law enforcement agencies. You can correct me if I am wrong. I believe that is what the clerk said."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Clark:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Angevine?"

Mr. Angevine:

"Yes, sir."

Mr. Clark:

"How many professors of criminal law are there in the two law schools? Is there more than one professor? You designate it by the title of professor."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Brachtenbach yield to a couple of questions?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes."

Mr. Smith:

"My first question, Mr. Brachtenbach, is: Will this voluminous bill affect the right of survivorship passed by initiative some time ago?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"No, it would not."

Mr. Smith:

"I take it, Mr. Brachtenbach, you are quite conversant with everything in this voluminous bill?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"I think that is presuming too much, but the probate code in general I am quite familiar with, and this has been studied for a period of time by the bar association committee. I don't know the reason you are asking the question, Mr. Smith, but it makes no great and radical changes with respect to the rights of people, for example, to use community property agreements, with which you are familiar, or to use joint tenancy. It does not bear on those subjects."

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The hour of 9:30 p. m. having arrived, the Speaker declared the question before the House to be the special order of business, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6 on second reading.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6, by Senators Petrich, Neill, and Gissberg:
Establishing a code of probate law and procedure.

The House resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6, an amendment by Mr. Clark having been adopted previously.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be consideration of the amendment by Mr. Brachtenbach beginning on page 45, line 19 of the printed and engrossed bills. (See page 846 for amendment.)

Mr. Goldsworthy demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Kull:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Brachtenbach yield to question?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes."

Mr. Kull:

"Is there any question about fair appraisalment or assessment when you have the one appraiser?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"I think not, Representative Kull. Several situations could develop. If there is a federal estate tax return involved, in a larger estate, this is automatically covered. In other words, the federal return would prevail. There is a provision in the existing code that provides that any party who is interested in the estate may challenge the inventory or appraisalment at any stage of the proceedings. So really this one appraiser makes an advisory appraisal until such time as anyone might challenge it."

Mr. Kull:

"Why did you cut it from three to one? Is there any special reason?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Well, one of the principal reasons is that you can thereby eliminate the cost of two-thirds of those appraisers, if they get paid. Many times they do not. If they are the kind of appraiser who does not get paid, such as a friend of the family, they really don't appraise anything. In my experience as a practical lawyer, I have found you are spinning your wheels and wasting time with those other two appraisers. If there is any question about the estate, any interested person has the right to bring in his own appraisers and present the matter to the court."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Bottiger:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Brachtenbach would yield to another question?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes."

Mr. Bottiger:

"Mr. Brachtenbach, in a small estate—at least it is the practice in Pierce county—the court will waive the appointment of the court appraiser and the tax commission will waive the appointment of their appraiser, the court usually conditioning this on the fact that the third appraiser not be compensated. Would this bill prohibit that practice on small estates?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"This one appraiser would receive compensation only as set by the court. It would be a minimum of $10.00 and would not exceed what you presently have to pay one out of the three, but I don't think it would eliminate the practice that just says you only pay him a minimum of ten dollars and a maximum of one-tenth of one percent, excluding all bank accounts and so on, which is no different from the present law. You are actually going to save the estate a great deal of money."

Debate ensued, Representative Bottiger speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Brachtenbach yield to question?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes."

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Brachtenbach, isn't it true that at the present time, there is a minimum paid of five dollars to each of the appraisers under the statutes or a total of fifteen dollars, and that this bill would simply provide for just one appraiser at ten dollars?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"That is correct. It would be a minimum of ten dollars and a maximum of one-tenth of one percent."

Mr. Klein:

"Is it true that we passed out this same general type of bill from the judiciary committee many weeks ago with, as I recall, unanimous or almost unanimous approval, although there was the important distinction of compensation of the appraiser, the other bill providing that it would be whatever the court sets instead of a maximum of one-tenth of one percent, excluding all of the securities and cash and other things you don't actually appraise?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"This has a marked difference in that respect."

Mr. Klein:

"Isn't it true then that in a difficult matter and if you had a conscientious appraiser who might incur considerably more expense than the one-tenth of one percent, you would have a manifestly unfair cap upon the amount they can be paid and you might, in effect, be greatly hampered in the administration of your inheritance tax laws?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"I think not. If the appraiser incurs expenses, this could be compensated for. The bill merely limits his compensation for his time and effort. Furthermore, if the inheritance tax division has any quarrel with the appraisal, they have a right to come in as a party and present additional testimony."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Brouillet on a point of order.

Mr. Brouillet:

"Mr. Speaker, this is an interesting dialogue, but I don't think it is within the purview of the House."

The Speaker:

"I think the point is well taken. If you have some remarks to make on the subject, Mr. Klein, you may make them, but I would remind you we are under the three-minute rule. You may continue with your remarks."

Further debate ensued, Representative Klein completing his remarks and Representative Litchman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Burtch demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Witherbee on a point of order.

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, House Rule 36 states that no motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under the color of amendment. I submit this is similar to House Bill No. 4."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Since Senate Bill No. 6 encompasses the whole broad scope of the probate field, I feel the amendment is in order."

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Brachtenbach beginning on page 45 of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6, and the motion was carried and the amendment adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 88; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 6.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Copeland, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Elder, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Juelling, Kalich, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Klein, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lux, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marsh, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pierre, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Savage, Slagle, Swayze, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Valle, Wang, Warnke, Whetzel, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—88.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Gallagher, Marzano, Sawyer, Taplin, Witherbee—5.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Conner, Hurley, Jolly, Sheridan, Smith, Uhlman—6.

On motion of Mr. Brachtenbach, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 99, section 11.88.140, line 30 of the printed and engrossed bills, strike lines 30 and 31 and insert

"(a) Upon the attainment of full and legal age, as defined in RCW 11.92.010, of any person defined as an incompetent pursuant to RCW 11.88.010 solely by reason of youth, RCW 26.28.020 to the contrary notwithstanding."

Mr. Brachtenbach moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 113, section 11.99.010, line 25 of the printed bill, being line 23 of the engrossed bill after the amended date "July, 1967" and before the period insert: "; except that sections 11.44.055, 11.44.065, 11.44.070 and 11.44.080 shall take effect on July 1, 1965, and the repeal of the following acts or parts of acts as listed in section 11.99.015 shall also take effect on July 1, 1965, to wit: In subsection (10), section 1444,

Code of 1881; in subsection (47), section 95, chapter 156, Laws of 1917; in subsection (48), section 1, chapter 23, Laws of 1919; in subsection (64), section 1, chapter 112, Laws of 1929, in subsection (66), section 123, chapter 180, Laws of 1935; in subsection (71), section 8, chapter 202, Laws of 1939; and in subsection (111), section 83.16.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Brachtenbach some questions. Mr. Brachtenbach, you may recall the inheritance tax was passed in the Republican year of 1909 by these appraisers. I know there is no reference to the Code of 1881. Did we uniformly provide for appraisers at that time? Are you prepared to say that?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"No, I have a fourth amendment which specifically repeals that part of the inheritance tax code. It is a different chapter of RCW. This one takes care of the current law within the probate code. I have another amendment to take care of the current situation within the inheritance tax code."

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Brachtenbach, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 113, section 11.99.010, line 26 of the printed bill before "procedures" strike "The" and insert "Except as above provided the" being line 23 of the engrossed bill before "pro-"

Mr. Brachtenbach moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 117, section 11.99.015, line 22 of the printed and engrossed bills, following subsection "(110)" add a new subsection as follows:

"(111) Section 83.16.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961"

Mr. Uhlman moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6 be referred to the House Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Andersen (James A.) demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking in favor of the motion, and Representative Moos speaking in opposition of the motion.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Burtch on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, I might point out that the governor of the state is the one who is going to appoint fee appraisers. If anybody is going to benefit, it is going to be Mr. Moos."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Smith on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Smith:

"My point of personal privilege is that Mr. Moos has impugned my motives. I am sure they are pure. I have never yet been a state appraiser. I am not concerned about that. I am concerned about the subject matter of this bill."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Uhlman on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I think it is imperative that I answer Mr. Moos on behalf of myself and those others of us who would like to set this thing over. I intend to support Mr. Brachtenbach's amendment regarding appraisers. It is my opinion, and I have long held it, that the present appraisal system is a bad thing for the people. I have never gone on the appraisal roll in the state here, although I have had the opportunity to do so, and I never will. I don't think that is the real issue. The real issue is that we have a document that is extremely long and I would like to know how many people in this body have actually read all the way through it. Maybe Representative Brachtenbach has. I don't think anybody else has out of the ninety-nine. I don't think it is right to sit here and legislate this in an evening. As I say, I fully intend to support this amendment to the bill and if it is brought to a vote and put up here on the roll call, I will vote in favor of it. If it is placed on final passage, I will be more than happy to vote for that. This is not the issue."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Uhlman withdrew his motion.

The motion was carried.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The hour of 11:00 a. m. having arrived, the Speaker declared the question before the House to be the special order of business, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6 on second reading.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6, by Senators Petrich, Neill, and Gissberg:

Establishing a code of probate law and procedure.

The House resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6, having adopted an amendment by Mr. Clark and four amendments by Mr. Brachtenbach previously. (See pages 857-860 for amendments.)

The Speaker announced the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Brachtenbach that the House adopt the following amendment:

On page 117, section 11.99.015, line 22 of the printed and engrossed bills, following subsection "(110)" add a new subsection as follows:

"(111) Section 83.16.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961"

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Uhlman moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 17, section 11.12.090, beginning on line 27 of the printed and engrossed bills strike all of Sec. 11.12.090 through line 9, page 18, and insert:

"11.12.090 Intestacy as to Pretermitted Children. If any person make his last will and die leaving a child or children or descendants of such child or children not named or provided for in such will, although born after the making of such will or the death of the testator, every such testator, as to such child or children not named or provided for, shall be deemed to die intestate, and such child or children or their descendants shall be entitled to such proportion of the estate of the testator, real and personal, as if he had died intestate, and the same shall be assigned to them, and all the other heirs, devisees and legatees shall refund their proportional part."

Debate ensued, Representatives Uhlman and Brachtenbach speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Brachtenbach or someone familiar with this bill might yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Brachtenbach, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes."

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Brachtenbach, can you tell us why this particular provision was left out?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Well, it wasn't left out. They changed the provision relating to these children and what Representative Uhlman has done is to strike the new proposed language and insert the existing law. They covered the subject, but in a manner which I think was not proper."

Mr. Litchman:

"Then there is no change relative to pretermitted heirs in the state of Washington?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"If you adopt this amendment, it will be exactly as it is now."

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Smith, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 23, section 11.16.081, line 11 of the printed and engrossed bills after "(c)" strike "By ordinary mail, or by" and insert "By"

Mr. Smith moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 75, section 11.76.040, line 24, after "of" and before "publication" strike "the" and insert "first"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Litchman:

"I wonder if Mr. Smith will yield to question?"

Mr. Smith:

"Yes, providing I can call upon counsel in case it is too complicated."

Mr. Litchman:

"You can rely on Mr. Brachtenbach. We have argued about this, Mr. Smith, relative to prenotices which we are trying to reduce to one, as most of the county clerks feel one notice is sufficient. Just why do you want to go back to the old law providing for two unnecessary notices?"

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Litchman, actually the language in here already provides for twenty days, and there is time within the twenty days for two publications without there being any unnecessary time loss, plus it increases the probability that those who might be interested might see it. They might miss it the first time. I would have preferred three, but in consideration with representatives of the bar association, I came down to two, because that wouldn't change anything."

Debate ensued, Representative Smith speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Litchman and Clark speaking against its adoption.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Burtch, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6 as amended by the House was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The Speaker:

"Mr. Clark, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Clark:

"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:

"I notice on the first page of this bill it says that every justice of the peace is required by law to be a licensed attorney. We had a JP statute last session or the session before in which we had a grandfather's clause which allowed JP's not attorneys to be elected. Does this strike that provision of law?"

Mr. Clark:

"You did not read quite carefully enough. It says 'Every justice of the peace required by law to be a licensed attorney.' It still does not require every justice of the peace to be an attorney."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mrs. Epton:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask one of the attorneys a question also. Mr. Clark, will you yield to another question?"

Mr. Clark:

"I would be glad to."

Mrs. Epton:

"On page 1, line 13, it says, 'in which the sum claimed is less than $1,000.' Does that mean if it were $1,000 it couldn't be taken care of? That doesn't conform to the one we just passed."

Mr. Clark:

"If the calendar weren't as crowded, an amendment might be appropriate, but as it is, if it is one cent less than $1,000 they can use the justice court."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Moos on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of personal privilege. I guess that is the only way I can bring the body's attention to the action on a bill just passed, in case anyone wants to change their mind or have a reconsideration. I think we are going kind of fast and have passed something which has disturbed many people throughout the country. I am alluding to Senate Bill No. 158 and if it is the will of the body that this is a good bill, then we won't do anything, but I would like to point out one serious thing which comes to my mind as a former school director and that is that by statute we have on our books today that every school director has to belong to the association—everyone. Now, this is a little bit different from other associations or other elected officials throughout the state. Now, this may be good and fine for school directors, but how broad—how broad, Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of this House, should state law go in using the police powers of the state in creating associations that are used with the specific purpose of putting in programs whether they be good or bad? Now this might be the will of this body and maybe of the Senate and maybe of the people of this state. I think, personally, it is poor legislation and we started several years ago down the road in the area of using the police powers of the state in creating an association for the specific purpose of doing what this association is meant to do. I think that is wrong. If it is right, ladies and gentlemen, if it is right for the association to have their collection of dues through the power of the state, possibly it is right for other associations, even maybe the Washington Education Association or others in other fields. I thought I would bring this to your attention, because during the last part of a session, ladies and gentlemen, sometimes we do make mistakes and the people of this state depend on us to be alert and to try to stop as many as possible. Now, I voted on the wrong side of this. Maybe I was completely wrong but I did feel it was my duty to bring this to your attention for any consideration that might be your will."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Day, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House do now reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 158 passed the House.

The motion was carried.

RECONSIDERATION

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be Senate Bill No. 158 on final passage.

MOTION

Mr. Moos moved that the House defer further consideration of Senate Bill No. 158 and that the bill be ordered placed at the end of today's second reading calendar.

Debate ensued, Representatives Moos and Litchman speaking in favor of the motion.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Andersen (James A.) on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Andersen:

"Mr. Speaker, isn't the effect of this motion to put the bill again on the second reading calendar? It is still on third reading."

The Speaker:

"It is on third reading, that is right, but a vote of the House can place it anywhere you want it."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Canfield on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, is it the motion to reconsider that is going to be put down to the end of the calendar?"

The Speaker:

"The motion to reconsider passed the House and the bill is before us now. If we move it on the calendar, it would still be on third reading and final passage."

The motion was carried.

Mr. Grant:

"I don't know. You would have to discuss that with the supervisor of elections."

Mr. Uhlman:

"In other words, we are repealing something here and we don't know what we are repealing?"

Mr. Grant:

"Do you want to move this down to the end of the calendar and discuss this?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Rogers, as chairman of the subcommittee, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Yes."

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Rogers, this bill gives the cities and towns permission to operate dock facilities; it indicates that they may construct, operate and maintain any boat harbor or marina, dock or other public improvement for the purpose of commerce, recreation or navigation. It seems to me that this might well infringe on the responsibility of a port commission in these particular areas. Wouldn't this be a duplication of effort if a city as a city could go into the commercial end of this sort of activity?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Speaker and Mr. Eldridge, I am going to defer to Mr. Warnke, who has supported this legislation before the committee."

Mr. Warnke:

"The intent of this bill is certainly not that it should be in conflict with any other commercial subdivision, particularly the port commission. This bill was aimed at the city of Des Moines, which is in our district, and it would allow us to build a marina there. It would not be in conflict with the port districts for the simple reason that it would help stimulate commerce in the area if the city were to build the facilities and lease them to private enterprise. We would not be in conflict with any other subdivision."

Debate ensued, Representative Eldridge speaking in opposition to the passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Warnke yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Warnke?"

Mr. Warnke:

"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Warnke, would this be enabling legislation in connection with the bill now pending before congress to allow a marina to be built at Des Moines?"

Mr. Warnke:

"Yes, it is."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Leland, Smith, and Cunningham speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative Clark speaking against its passage.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Copeland on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, in the event this bill is referred back to second reading, under what provisions could it be returned to third reading? Would it require a suspension of the rules to advance it to third reading?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Under the normal procedure of this House, a bill will be referred to the Rules Committee after it has been considered on second reading. The rules would have to be suspended to advance it to third reading."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Copeland on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Copeland:

"It is within the body's prerogative to remove a bill from committee upon a majority vote, is it not? No rule specifies there must be a two-thirds vote?"

The Speaker:

"I think this has been the rule for some time back, that the House can take a bill from a committee. It hasn't been done."

Mr. Copeland:

"By the same token, this bill could be referred out later on a calendar tonight?"

The Speaker:

"That would depend on what the action of the House is."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Burtch on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, supposing we did have a motion to bring the bill back from Rules, it wouldn't get on the calendar until tomorrow? Isn't that correct?"

The Speaker:

"The Rules Committee might meet this evening. It is possible it would be brought back."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Clark on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Clark:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to amend the motion that the bill go back to second reading to read that it will do so on the condition that after completing the amendments, it will be returned to third reading immediately."

The Speaker:

"That would be impossible. You have a motion before the House on which the previous question has been demanded. I believe our only course of action now is to vote upon that motion."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Moos on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, it is not the intent of the friends of this motion nor the friends of the amendment to prohibit this from going to third reading."

The Speaker:

"Is this a point of personal privilege, Mr. Moos?"

Mr. Moos:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. After we go to second reading, all political skill will be—"

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Burtch on a point of order.

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, the previous question has been demanded. We don't want to hear any more speeches."

The Speaker:

"The previous question has been demanded. The Speaker will start the electric roll call machine."

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the rules be suspended and that Senate Bill No. 158 be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 52; absent or not voting, 5.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the final passage of Senate Bill No. 158 on reconsideration.

Mr. Grant demanded the previous question.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Eldridge on a point of order.

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Speaker, I think we passed this bill once."

The Speaker:

"You voted to reconsider. Since you have voted to reconsider, the question before you is the final passage of Senate Bill No. 158."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Moos on a point of order.

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, I think we should ask for remarks rather than have the first one ask for the previous question. After all, this has been somewhat controversial. I think possibly we have not perfected this bill."

The Speaker:

"The previous question has been demanded. If the House so wishes, they can vote down the demand for previous question."

The demand for previous question was not sustained.

Debate ensued, Representatives Moos, Flanagan, and Brachtenbach speaking against passage of the bill, and Representatives Rogers, Klein, Brouillet, and Conner speaking in favor of its passage.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Litchman on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am developing a kind of an inferiority complex. I don't believe there is one educational bill yet that has passed without a great deal of turmoil and controversy. I would appreciate it very much if we could pass the next bill that comes before us relative to education without too much debate, because I feel that my heart is not long for this world, believe me; and I have had many years trial experience in court, but this business of being on the floor defending education bills is mighty difficult."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. O'Brien, the House recessed until 4:00 p. m.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION

The Speaker called the House to order at 4:00 p. m.

The Clerk called the roll, and all members were present except Representatives Hurley and Taplin, who were excused.

Debate ensued, Representatives Uhlman, O'Brien, Burtch, and Smith speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Canfield, Pritchard, Bledsoe and Mahaffey speaking against its passage.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Morphis:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Uhlman yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Uhlman?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes, I will yield."

Mr. Morphis:

"Mr. Uhlman, how many months' pay will our school districts in Spokane receive the first year of the biennium and how many months for the second year of the biennium?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"I'm sorry; I don't have that data available on my desk. It is available in the Ways and Means room and I would be happy to go over it with you after the session, if you desire to get the exact figures."

Mr. Morphis:

"I was not referring to amounts. Will they get ten-twelfths the first year or twelve-twelfths the first year?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"They would get ten-twelfths and then the two months would be referred into the next biennium. This is the principal of the whole thing. This is why you would have additional moneys available for spending, and this is the key and crux of the measure."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Morphis and Copeland speaking against passage of the bill.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Valle and Kalich speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 29, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 59; nays, 38; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Bledsoe, Brachtenbach, Canfield, Clark, Copeland, Cunningham, Dootson, Eldridge, Flanagan, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Johnston (Elmer E.), Jueling, Kirk, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McDougall, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Dell, Pritchard, Swayze, Wang, Whetzel, Wolf—38.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Hurley, Taplin—2.

Senate Bill No. 29, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

I voted "No" on Senate Bill No. 29 because I thought it should be considered as a total part of the budget and that we should also consider cutting the state's deficit when planning the budget.

NORWOOD CUNNINGHAM,
30th District.

We, the undersigned members of the House of Representatives, voted against Senate Bill No. 29 for the following reasons:

The underlying purpose of this bill is to commit the state to a distribution in July and August of 1967 which the school districts of the state can anticipate in their planning for the 1966-67 school year, thus enabling them to carry out an improved educational program in the biennium ahead. This aspect of this bill has been anticipated in Senate Bill No. 374, the Omnibus Appropriation Bill, which projects $42,308,216 as the "carry-over" amount.

Considered alone, however, this deferral of $42.3 million is not fiscally sound. As Governor Evans pointed out in his Fiscal Message, using this device entirely as a budget-balancing device is "tantamount to setting the fuse to a $42 million bomb that will explode in the Legislature's face" at the 1967 session.

We should face up to the cost of supporting the needed increase in the level of educational services at this session, at least to the extent recommended by Governor Evans of $20 million for deficit reduction. Until we see this deficit reduction in sight, we cannot support Senate Bill No. 29.

Moreover, Senate Bill No. 374 anticipated that the twenty-four payments to support school districts in 1965-67 would begin with September, 1965, rather than with July, 1965, as provided in Senate Bill No. 29. This aspect of Senate Bill No. 29 would serve to nullify, or at least to confuse the purpose of improving the educational program by projecting distributions after June 30, 1967, to pay part of the 1966-67 school year costs.

As written, Senate Bill No. 29 would mandate a distribution of between $30 and $35 million of General Fund tax money during July and August of this year, a period when no distribution would ordinarily be made, a period for which school districts have already planned on the basis of no state aid. The effect of this aspect of the bill would be simply to transfer to school district treasuries this amount of money, in advance of actual need, to draw interest for their benefit at a corresponding increased cost to the hard-pressed General Fund.

The effective date of the act should be September 1, 1965.

In summary, Senate Bill No. 29, if properly drawn, would be part of the total plan supporting the General Fund budget for 1965-67. It is a sound part of that plan only when included with an appropriation act and revenue measure that taken together result in a balanced budget accompanied by a $20 million reduction in the deficit. We believe that all of these items must be considered together, at which time we will support a properly drafted measure to extend school aid payments to a year-around basis.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Clark, Flanagan, Goldsworthy, Swayze, Whetzel—7.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Copeland, Day, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Taplin—6.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 224, by Senator Knoblauch:

Requiring fencing by auto wrecking yards.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 224 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Gallagher speaking against passage of the bill, and Representative Day speaking for its passage.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, would Dr. Day yield to question?"

Mr. Day:

"Absolutely."

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Day, you will notice there is an amendment on line 16 of page 1, after 'good repair' to add 'A living hedge of sufficient density to prevent a view of the confined area may be substituted for such a wall or fence. Any dead or dying portion of such hedge shall be replaced.' This kind of looks like you are putting the wrecking people in the landscaping business, wouldn't you say?"

Mr. Day:

"No, it just gives this opportunity to substitute a fence which has to be painted and maintained with a living hedge, which in some areas of the state would maintain itself very well. For example, on the west side up at North Bend, we had no problems with hedges or ivy or any of that type of material which would grow on a cyclone fence. This is in line with President Lyndon Johnson's program for beautification of highways, Mr. Smith."

Further debate ensued, Representative Conner speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Day yield to question?"

Mr. Day:

"Reluctantly."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Thank you, Representative Day. The thing I am concerned about in this, Representative Day, is that we are now entering into a phase of legislation here in this body, after having given a purview of this type of regulation to county planning commissions, of telling them what to do, and most county planning commissions, especially in metropolitan areas, have already taken care of this. Don't you think we are kind of going beyond what we originally intended in setting up planning commissions?"

Mr. Day:

"I don't think that is what the bill does, Representative Witherbee. What I think it does is make a law which will provide uniformity all over the state, because we don't have these wrecking yards just in local areas; we have them in all the counties of the state of Washington."

Further debate ensued, Representative Sawyer speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 224, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 87; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 7.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Klein yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Klein, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes."

Mr. Smith:

"You spoke in generalities about weeding out some problems. I would like to have you enlarge more on what those problems were and what this bill will do. I was aware some problems existed and I want to see if it really corrects the one I am thinking of."

Mr. Klein:

"I can't imagine what the particular one is that you are thinking about, Mr. Smith. If you will check the Revised Code of Washington, you will find it carries in small print two acts passed in 1961, and there is really quite a question as to which of the acts prevails over the other. This combines both of the acts together and we think it has retained the best of them. We think it is a good law and passed it out unanimously from the Judiciary Committees of the House and Senate."

Debate ensued, Representative Rogers speaking for passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mrs. Valle:

"Mr. Speaker, I am trying to find out what is the population of third class cities. Can someone answer this for me? Then, I should like some information on this bill. I have information which says that Senate Bill No. 173 provides that mayors shall only vote in case of a tie in third class towns. I can't see any reason why he should be restricted."

Mr. O'Dell:

"Mr. Speaker, members of the House, in answer to Mrs. Valle's questions, third class cities have a population range from 1500 to 10,000 and the reason for this chapter being amended here is to give the mayor a right to vote in the case of a tie. The mayor is strictly an executive or administrative officer and has been for years. The legislative body and the council only have a vote. There have been instances where we have seven members on a council and one resigns and in the replacement of the councilman by appointment by the council, there is no way to break the tie. This is one of the reasons for asking that the mayor be given the right to break a tie."

Further debate ensued, Representative Garrett speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if someone could answer a question for me? I note there are two different sections of the law we are amending. Is this two different classes of cities?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Yes, this gives the right to mayors of third and also fourth class cities. There are two different classes."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Clark:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the chairman of the cities committee another simple question, if I may, if he will yield. I wonder if you have explored the possibility of nonmembers of the council voting, whether the janitor or anyone else, as well as the mayor, wouldn't have as much authority to vote as a member of the council? Isn't this an illegal bill in all respects?"

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Avey on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Avey:

"Mr. Speaker, as mayor of Kettle Falls, I would like to say he is the janitor, too."

Mr. Rogers:

"I think, Mr. Speaker, that Mayor Avey has answered the question."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mrs. Valle:

"Mr. Speaker, my information says that the mayor shall vote only in the case of a tie in the votes of the councilmen of a third class city or town. Now, he can vote in the case of an appointment. I would like to know whether he cannot vote otherwise. This is what I am asking. He cannot vote on any issue?"

Mr. Braun:

"Mr. Speaker, as an old-time mayor of a fourth class city, I would point out that third and fourth class cities have seven councilmen. You know, in small towns you are pretty close to the town and to the heat, and oftentimes we have controversial issues that some councilman doesn't have the intestinal fortitude to face and he disappears. Then there are three for and three against. In order to settle it, we are giving the mayor a right to vote. It is that simple. The mayor is only the figurehead and has no voting right, but this law gives him the right to vote in a case of a tie."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Rogers yield to question?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Yes."

Mr. Eldridge:

"I don't believe that the question has been answered. I think it is probably a valid one. I think Mr. Braun has just brought another issue in. As I understand it, the mayor can only vote in the case of a tie on the replacement of councilmen who have resigned, not on general issues. Is that correct?"

Mr. Rogers:

"I will defer to the gentleman from the third class town, Mr. O'Dell."

Mr. O'Dell:

"The statute reads that the mayor shall have a vote only in case of a tie of the votes of the councilmen. That gives him the right to break the tie on any issue."

Further debate ensued, Representative Garrett speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. King (Richard "Dick") demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 173, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 89; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 7.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Clark:

"I wonder if Mr. Bergh would yield to question? Is this consistent or does it conflict in any way with the new corporate act that this House passed?"

Mr. Bergh:

"I wouldn't be able to answer that question. One of the attorneys might want to. Mr. Klein, do you want to answer that?"

Mr. Klein:

"I couldn't answer your question categorically, Mr. Clark, without looking it up. I doubt very, very much that it would be in conflict, and as far as that is concerned, this House has passed the corporate bill but the Senate has not and it doesn't look as if it is going to."

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 335 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 91; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 8.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The hour of 9:30 p. m. having arrived, the Speaker declared the question before the House to be the special order of business, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 126 on second reading.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 126, by Senators Petrich, Gallagher, Dore, and Moriarty, Jr.:

Increasing salaries of justices of the peace.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 9, 1965.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred Engrossed Senate Bill No. 126, providing increases in salaries and changing the method of paying salaries of judges of courts of limited jurisdiction, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

Amend the Senate amendment by Senator Woodall adding a new section 2, as follows: In line 7 of the mimeographed amendment, page 1, being line 26 of the engrossed bill, before "thousand" strike "ten" and insert "thirteen"

Amend the Senate amendment by Senator Rasmussen to lines 11 and 12 of the printed bill, line 5 of the amendment, page 1, being line 16 of the engrossed bill after "shall be" strike "twelve thousand five hundred" and insert "thirteen thousand"

WILLIAM C. KLEIN, Chairman.

We concur in this report: James A. Andersen, Robert F. Brachtenbach, Jack L. Burtch, Hayes Elder, Gary Grant, Elmer E. Johnston, Mark Litchman, Daniel G. Marsh, Robert W. O'Dell, Wesley C. Uhlman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Gorton on a point of order.

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, I have an amendment that covers the same section and actually strikes the first committee amendment. It might be it should properly come before the committee amendment."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Under the regular procedure, Mr. Gorton, the committee amendments should come first and be disposed of. I think when the committee amendment is disposed of, I will permit you to move your amendment."

Mr. Klein moved adoption of the committee amendment to the Senate amendment by Senator Woodall.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. McCormick:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Klein yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Klein?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes."

Mr. McCormick:

"Does this mean, then, that the judges in Spokane and Pierce counties will still be approximately $2,000 a year under King county?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes. That is correct."

Debate ensued, Representative Klein speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Clark:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Klein a question, if he would yield."

Mr. Klein:

"Yes, Mr. Clark."

Mr. Clark:

"Isn't it correct that in addition to the salary that they will get under this law that they also occupy the bench in another capacity as municipal judge and get another salary?"

Mr. Klein:

"No, not in addition to this thirteen thousand dollars. Furthermore, as a practical matter in our own county, there are justices of the peace that act in both capacities with a salary now of $10,000, and I suspect that he may have a little private income which may bring that up close to $13,000, a kind of office type practice. This bill takes away the right to practice, so it isn't any attempt to upgrade the justices of the peace in their court work."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Chatalas:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to have Mr. Klein clarify a point."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Klein?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes."

Mr. Chatalas:

"Mr. Klein, Mr. McCormick asked you how much more the King county people would get than those in Spokane. What is the difference at the present time?"

Mr. Klein:

"At the present time I don't think there is any difference. It is $11,400 I think, in King county and I think it is the same in all three of them."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. McCormick:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Klein yield to another question?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes."

Mr. McCormick:

"Mr. Klein, did the committee actually feel this was fair, this discrimination?"

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. McCormick, in an attempt to be candid and honest with you, right after I moved the amendment I pointed out that a number of us felt that in all fairness they all ought to be receiving the same when there is a substantial sized community and a full-time justice of the peace and lawyers providing services of that nature. You may have more of them in Seattle, for example, than you have in Tacoma or Spokane or Vancouver, but I dare say they are all spending about the same amount of time on the bench. I happen to think that ours in Vancouver is spending even more. Personally, I don't think it is fair, but it was the consensus of the committee that this was a compromise measure and the best that can be done under the circumstances, so I urge its adoption."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mrs. Swayze:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Klein yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Klein?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes."

Mrs. Swayze:

"Mr. Klein, is it correct then that the justice in a city of 30,000 will get the same as the justice in a city of 150,000?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes, this can well happen. As a matter of fact, you have a peculiar situation existing near your city of Tacoma where a King county judge under the act will be receiving $15,000 and Judge Stone and others there would only be receiving an amount which, under our proposal would be $2,000 less, but as the Senate sent it over to us, it was $1500 less than that."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Gallagher:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Klein yield to question?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes."

Mr. Gallagher:

"Mr. Klein, would the raising to a thousand dollars on suits increase the load on the JP's?"

Mr. Klein:

"Undoubtedly it should increase the load."

Mr. Gallagher:

"Don't you think the counties of Pierce and Spokane should have $15,000 for the JP's?"

Mr. Klein:

"I stated this. This is my personal opinion; I think it would be better, but also recognizing the practicalities of life and as chairman of the committee, I recognize that a compromise has been made and, to be realistic, this is what we could get through."

The motion was lost, and the committee amendment to the Senate amendment by Senator Woodall was not adopted.

Mr. Klein moved adoption of the committee amendment to the Senate amendment by Senator Rasmussen.

Debate ensued, Representative Bottiger speaking against adoption of the committee amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Jueling:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Bottiger yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Bottiger?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"I would be glad to."

Mr. Jueling:

"Isn't it true, Representative Bottiger, that the case loads of these JP's in Tacoma is probably as great as those of the JP's in the AA counties?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"I would say so. The number of the justices of the peace is based on the residents of the county. We have three and I think there are fifteen in King county. I may be in error on that, but there are quite a few more in King county. Our justices of the peace have a heavy case load."

The motion was lost, and the committee amendment to the Senate amendment by Senator Rasmussen was not adopted.

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.) moved adoption of the following amendment:

Amend the amendment by Senator Woodall, on line 17 adding a new section, beginning on line 3 of the mimeographed amendment, strike "[twenty] thirty" and insert "twenty" and on line 13 of the mimeographed amendment after "population of" strike "[twenty] thirty" and insert "twenty"

Debate ensued, Representatives Johnston and Klein speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

The motion was carried on a rising vote, and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:

Strike the Senate amendment by Senator Rasmussen, beginning on line 11 and insert the original language of the printed bill.

Debate ensued, Representatives Bottiger and McCormick speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Bottiger yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Bottiger?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Is this the amendment by Senator Rasmussen you are striking?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"Apparently he proposed the amendment, yes."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Bottiger answer another question?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"I would be glad to try to."

Mr. Andersen:

"Mr. Bottiger, I ask this question in all sincerity. We have here in the House a number of Pierce county legislators who are trying apparently to increase the JP salary in Pierce county to $15,000, which sounds quite reasonable to me. Do you have any idea why Senator Rasmussen, your Democratic senator from Pierce county should have reduced it?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"I have no idea."

The motion was carried, and the amendment by Mr. Bottiger was adopted.

Mr. Gorton moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 12 of the printed bill, after "shall be" and before the colon, strike "fifteen thousand dollars" and insert "two-thirds of the salary of a superior court judge or eleven thousand five hundred dollars, whichever is greater"

Debate ensued, Representative Gorton speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Klein speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Klein yield to question?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes."

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Klein, assuming that the superior court judge bill doesn't pass, then do you think the justices of the peace should receive the same remuneration as the superior court judges?"

Mr. Klein:

"No, I am not suggesting that. Mr. Gorton's proposal is that they receive two-thirds of what the superior court judges would. I am suggesting that this is an awfully 'iffy' proposition and that we had better handle this in the manner as the bill originally was worked out. Then we can move in the direction of Mr. Gorton's amendment. If we take care of the other salaries, this is something to be reconsidered at that time."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Sawyer and Andersen (James A.) speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Angevine demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was carried, and the amendment by Mr. Gorton was adopted.

Mr. Burtch moved that the rules be suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 126 as amended by the House be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be Engrossed Senate Bill No. 126 as amended by the House on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Clark, Litchman, and Klein speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative Avey speaking against its passage.

Mr. Sheridan demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 274 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Jolly speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Dootson:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to have this clarified for me by some attorney or Mr. Jolly in regard to the constitutionality of this act. These bonds will be the obligation of the state of Washington, and in the Constitution of the State of Washington, we find in section 3 in regard to special indebtedness that any such indebtedness must be voted on by the electorate or by the people. We also find there must be a limit of twenty years, and in this act I find that the bonds shall be payable in a period not exceeding twenty-five years."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Bledsoe.

Mr. Bledsoe:

"We are talking here about revenue bonds and pledging the gas tax fund. This is the approach that has been used in years past in this particular area and I am sure that were constitutionality at question, the bonds would never be subscribed by the bonding companies that wrote the issues in the past."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Sawyer.

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Speaker, I was going to bring up the same point that Mr. Bledsoe did. It is my understanding these are outside the provisions Mr. Dootson talked to, but as a practical matter I am not worried because these bonds, before they are sold, have to go up before bonding attorneys and if there are any difficulties or problems, I can assure you they won't be sold."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Dootson yield to question, please?"

Mr. Dootson:

"Yes."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Dootson, what effect would House Joint Resolution No. 29, the one on bonding limitations, have on a measure such as this?"

Mr. Dootson:

"Yes, thank you, Mr. Uhlman. House Joint Resolution No. 29 would make it possible to issue these limited obligation bonds without a vote of the people, and if it were passed, then I think this would be constitutional, except for the fact that it does have the twenty-five year limitation."

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker:

"This wasn't a roll call vote, Mr. Kink."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Day on a point of order.

Mr. Day:

"Your ruling, Mr. Speaker, then, is that on a division all members do not have to vote?"

The Speaker:

"No, that does not mean they do not all have to vote."

Mr. Day:

"Did you announce the result?"

The Speaker:

"I said the motion was carried. They had a two-thirds majority standing."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Chatalas on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Chatalas:

"Mr. Speaker, what are we voting on?"

The Speaker:

"You are voting on the adoption of the committee amendment, which Mr. Uhlman moved for adoption."

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I would remind the proponents of this measure that the less you violate—"

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. O'Brien on a point of order.

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, he is making a speech. The previous question has been demanded. He is abusing personal privilege."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Smith on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, I don't believe that what I have to say is abusing personal privilege. I am not going to speak on the measure. I am speaking on the practice of choking off democratic debate. When it comes to a vital thing, I think maybe we should think a little bit before we choke off debate."

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Uhlman to adopt the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 167.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Speaker rules that in this particular case the amendment by Mr. Marzano can not be considered until after the amendment by Mr. Sheridan has been disposed of. Parliamentary rules provide that the larger amount must be considered before an amendment calling for a lower amount. Therefore, Mr. Sheridan's amendment will be considered first. If it is adopted, the amendment by Mr. Marzano will be out of order."

The House proceeded to consider adoption of the amendment by Mr. Sheridan on page 2, section 4, line 31 of the printed bill.

Mr. Grant demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Uhlman on a point of order.

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, there are amendments on the desk. Is it in order to suspend the rules at this time and cut off any further amendments to this measure?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"If two-thirds of the body wishes to suspend the rules at any time, it can do so. If they move to do so at this time, it would take all the amendments off the desk and move the bill as it is to final passage.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Uhlman on a point of order.

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, is this debatable?"

The Speaker:

"I have ruled earlier that it is. You may speak, Mr. Uhlman."

Debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking against the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Brachtenbach on a point of order.

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Mr. Speaker, he is discussing a proposed amendment rather than the propriety of advancing this bill to third reading."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, if I may speak on the point of order: I am not speaking on the amendment. I am speaking on the propriety of suspending the rules and cutting off any further amendments to this bill. I think this is highly improper. There are meritorious amendments on the desk which will improve the bill so that we can pass out something we can be proud of and won't go home to our people hanging our heads in shame."

The Speaker:

"I think as long as you keep your remarks to the suspension of rules, they will be in order."

Further debate ensued, Representative Uhlman continuing his remarks.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Taylor on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Taylor:

"Mr. Speaker, would it be in order to request the House to hold this bill for the end of the second reading calendar?"

The Speaker:

"We have a motion pending before the House at this time which has been placed first, so therefore any motion of equal rank would be out of order."

Mr. Witherbee yielded his time to Mr. Uhlman.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Rogers on a point of order.

Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Speaker, a suspension of the rules is customarily not debatable. Now, the courtesy of the House has been extended to Mr. Uhlman to speak on the suspension of the rules, which is not debatable, and it certainly does not open up unlimited debate. Mr. Uhlman has had the opportunity to present his point of view and I think that is enough."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Rogers, I have ruled in favor of many members in this House when they wished to speak in this area. Therefore I am ruling the same way now, that they can discuss this suspension of the rules at this time. I would hope we would be able to get through this matter so we could vote before we run out of time, however. I will make one further ruling; I will not recognize any yielding of time during the short time we have left."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Bergh on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Bergh:

"Mr. Speaker, would it be in order for me to ask Representative Uhlman to yield to question relating to his amendment?"

The Speaker:

"No, because we are only speaking now on the suspension of the rules."

Mr. Bergh:

"You ruled, Mr. Speaker, that his remarks related to the motion before us."

The Speaker:

"I ruled he could talk on the suspension of the rules, and his remarks were based upon considering what was left on the table before proposing a suspension of the rules."

Further debate ensued, Representative Andersen (James A.) speaking in favor of the motion to suspend the rules and advance the bill.

Mr. Angevine demanded the previous question.

Mr. Pritchard demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker recognized Mr. King (Richard "Dick") on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. King:

"Mr. Speaker, if this measure does not receive the necessary two-thirds to suspend the rules and advance it to third reading, will it be automatically sent back to Rules or will it be back to second reading?"

The Speaker:

"It will be back to second reading for consideration of further amendments."

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the demand by Mr. Angevine for the previous question.

The Clerk called the roll, and the demand was sustained by the following vote: Yeas, 88; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 6.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Angevine, Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Copeland, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Elder, Eldridge, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, Juelling, Kalich, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lux, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Savage, Sawyer, Sheridan, Slagle, Swayze, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Wang, Whetzel, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—88.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Conner, Klein, Pierre, Smith, Valle—5.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Anderson (Eric O.), Epton, Hurley, Perry, Taplin, Warnke—6.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Angevine that the rules be suspended and that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 167 as amended by the House be advanced to third reading and final passage.

The Clerk proceeded to call the roll.

MOTION

Mr. Andersen (James A.) moved that the rules be suspended and that the clock be declared stopped until consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 167 had been concluded.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"A roll call is in progress. I can't interrupt the roll call to accept the motion."

The Clerk concluded the roll call on the motion to suspend the rules and advance Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 167 to third reading and final passage, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 81; nays, 12; absent or not voting, 6.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Moos on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, the other day at 3:00 o'clock we were in the process of considering a bill and it was ruled we could go beyond that particular time. I think it would be entirely proper within this House at this time to put this proposition to a vote and allow the vote rather than have the time element and time delay defeat it. We have the precedent of a few days ago at 3:00 o'clock."

The Speaker:

"If I recall, at the 3:00 o'clock cutoff, I said my watch said 3:01. Mr. Copeland said his watch had 3:03, and at that time I stopped all debate and we did not continue consideration of bills at that time."

MOTION

Mr. Sawyer moved that the House dispense with further business under the call of the House.

APPEAL FROM RULING BY THE SPEAKER

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, on Mr. Moos's point of parliamentary inquiry, I appeal the ruling of the Speaker."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Moos made a parliamentary inquiry and I answered his point. He did not make a demand for a ruling concerning this particular measure. I do not feel that there was a ruling at that time concerning any issue."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Andersen (James A.), on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Andersen:

"Mr. Speaker, my point of parliamentary inquiry is this. Your ruling has in effect knocked this issue of subsidizing public transportation, Senate Bill No. 167, off the House floor and out of contention, and since this ruling has in effect destroyed Senate Bill No. 167, we want to appeal the ruling of the House on this particular parliamentary point. It is a substantive ruling. It is a point that we believe we have the right to debate, a point that we believe we have the right to let the House decide."

The Speaker:

"Your point, then, Mr. Andersen, is whether or not we should stop at 12:00 o'clock? Is that your point of parliamentary inquiry? State what your point of parliamentary inquiry is, Mr. Andersen."

Mr. Andersen:

"I will yield to my leader, Mr. Copeland."

The Speaker:

"If you have a point of parliamentary inquiry, I would like to have you state your point."

Mr. Andersen:

"Mr. Speaker, my point of parliamentary inquiry is this. Mr. Moos has stated that by the previous ruling of this House, this matter was not concluded as of 12:00 o'clock. The Speaker has ruled it was concluded as of 12:00 o'clock. I am endeavoring to appeal the ruling of the Chair that this matter has been concluded. I am under the impression that the matter was not concluded as of 12:00 o'clock because of prior rulings of the Speaker and because of the circumstances of this case which result in the killing of the bill as of 12:00 o'clock through no fault of the persons that are supporting this bill."

The Speaker:

"I think Mr. Moos inquired as to my ruling at 3:00 o'clock on the day we stopped considering House bills. I answered him as to my recollection of what took place, and in checking with the reporter, I think she will verify that is what did take place. As I understand Mr. Moos's question, he did not ask me for a ruling as to what my decision would be in this particular case, so I don't think you have anything to appeal from."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Copeland on a point of order.

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, my point of order is only this. You made reference to the fact that I did call a point of order at 3:00 o'clock. No one has called a point of order to call your attention at this time to the time of day. We have not debated this particular question to a point of finality. It is also my understanding that Lieutenant Governor Cherberg has issued an opinion on the Senate side that any matter under discussion would be allowed to be completed to finality even though we have passed the hour specified in the joint concurrent resolution, and I think it would be wise for this body to allow the measure to be completed, as it would obviously be carried on in the Senate. So I only appeal to you from the standpoint of these facts: No. 1, nobody has called the time, and No. 2, this apparently is the custom which is occurring in the Senate. I think we should be obliging enough to let this go on to completion."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Burtch on a point of order.

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, I bring to the Speaker's attention that it is now twelve minutes after twelve."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Sawyer on a point of order.

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Speaker, I wish somebody would speak on my motion."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Pritchard on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Pritchard:

"Mr. Speaker, I am not an attorney and I won't go into the legal aspects of this thing, but since everyone wants to settle this matter, why can't we proceed with the consent of the House and vote? That is the intelligent, grown-up thing to do instead of playing games. I ask for the consent of the House that this action take place."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. O'Brien on a point of order.

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, you are bound by the Senate Concurrent Resolution on this matter. You have gone beyond your 12:00 o'clock limit and all action has to stop. There is nothing, actually, before us except Mr. Sawyer's motion to dispense with the call of the House."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Brachtenbach on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Mr. Speaker, would the Speaker please rule as to whether or not the House can complete action on matters pending at the cutoff time of 12:00 o'clock?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. Brachtenbach, I will rule that the Senate Concurrent Resolution which set the time limitation for consideration of Senate Bills at 12:00 o'clock would bind the House and we would not be able to consider any other Senate Bills at this time. If the Senate and the House decide tomorrow that they want to permit further consideration, another concurrent resolution could be passed by both Houses. We have one more day."

MOTION

Mr. Rogers moved that the House consent to continue consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 167 to a final conclusion.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Your motion is out of order."

APPEAL FROM RULING BY THE SPEAKER

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, the Speaker has now ruled on this question proposed by Mr. Brachtenbach and this specific ruling I appeal."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Sawyer on a point of order.

Mr. Sawyer:

"This matter cannot come before the House yet. We have a motion before us to dispense with the call of the House. This is the matter before us. There is no way they can bring up this other matter under this motion."

The Speaker:

"The question now before the House is the motion to dispense with further business under the call of the House."

Mr. Clark demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to dispense with further business under the call of the House, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 51; nays, 42; absent or not voting, 6.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Bergh, Bottiger, Bozarth, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Chatalas, Conner, Day, DeJarnatt, Elder, Gallagher, Garrett, Grant, Haussler, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, Kalich, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Klein, Kull, Litchman, Lux, Marsh, Marzano, May, Moon, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Pierre, Radcliffe, Savage, Sawyer, Sheridan, Slagle, Smith, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—51.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Angevine, Berentson, Bledsoe, Brachtenbach, Canfield, Clark, Copeland, Cunningham, Dootson, Eldridge, Flanagan, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Jueling, Kirk, Leland, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Dell, Pritchard, Rogers, Saling, Swayze, Wang, Whetzel, Wolf—42.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. O'Brien, the House adjourned until 10:30 a. m., Thursday, March 11, 1965.

MOTION

Mr. Klein moved that the House adopt the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 126.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, I have a question to ask Representative Johnston."

The Speaker:

"Would you yield, Mr. Johnston?"

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.):

"I will, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Johnston, is it not true that it is the intent of the Free Conference Committee that in view of the provisions of Article 2, Section 25 of the Constitution, none of these salary increases could take effect until the new terms of office, and that it likewise is the intent of the Conference Committee that the status of those covered under the section is not changed until they would enter upon a new term of office, that while they will not receive a salary increase, they will at the same time be able to continue as presently to engage in the practice of law?"

Mr. Johnston:

"That is right, Mr. Speaker. The status of these justices of the peace will remain the same until their salary changes. In other words, we are not making any attempt to change the duties unless the salary changes, in fact when it is legal and proper under the law."

The motion was carried, and the report of the Free Conference Committee was adopted.

The Speaker instructed the special committee to escort the guests from the House Chamber.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Smith:

"Now that we are through with this fine occasion, I feel it appropriate for me to say a few words seriously to the members of the House and, particularly, the members of the Rules Committee. I don't believe it is necessary for me to call attention to this august body what is happening in the southern part of these United States and Alabama. All informed citizens are well aware of what is taking place. I'd like to call to the attention of the members of the House and the Rules Committee that in the extraordinary session of 1961, I rose and made a motion to suspend the rules and asked the House at that time to take a vote on a civil rights housing bill that was pending before us. In my comments on that motion, I stressed the fact that the demonstrations which were taking place in the South had not reached our northern areas. I urged us to take action prior to that time in an effort to keep these from becoming a part of our northern way of life. Of course my motion failed; and a year later, and since that time, we have had demonstration, after demonstration, after demonstration.

"When I read the newspapers of what is taking place in Selma, I am almost in tears. I think of the time when Hitler was persecuting the Jews in Germany. This is not the kind of image our country needs. I'm sure most of you will agree with me. So I now urge our Rules Committee to place before this House for a vote House Bill No. 200 which is languishing in Rules Committee for action. I don't believe that it is the function of this august committee to prevent this House from taking action, whether it be affirmative or negative. I believe, because of the seriousness of the situation, it is necessary that the state of Washington take some positive action now to show that it does not believe in the things that are going on and assure the rest of the country of its stand in the field of human rights. I think that we ought to take this step as a testimonial to those who have given their lives. We should take action of testimony that they have not died in vain, and that we in the state of Washington will lead our people not to a path of violence, but into a path of brotherhood for all men.

"Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.):

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Johnston:

"I do not speak for any members of the Rules Committee or any other committee; I speak for myself and I want to say to my dear brother, Sam Smith, that we fully appreciate the problem that confronts his race in this country. I want to say this, Sam, that in one battle in the Civil War in one afternoon, twenty-seven thousand white men died with muskets and swords to free the colored people from the bonds of slavery. Now, Sam, in all your life don't you ever forget the fact that we all have the same sympathetic feeling toward other races. We have been a little careless over the years, we white people, and we are ashamed of that. But, Sam, we will have to take our time. It takes culture, education, love of God. We have to come to a realization of what our position is under God. Certain legislation tends to enflame people—tends to create animosities. I'm thinking about Berkeley. I can't understand why they had to have a big riot; it seems to me it was getting out of hand. Freedom takes responsibility. I think that our great union has been disgraced over the world, to think it had a riot down there. I think that is a situation we should try to avoid in open housing.

"My point is this, Mr. Speaker, I think that we are going to be able to solve our racial problems in the state of Washington in a peaceable, friendly, intelligent, humanitarian manner. I am impressed with what Mr. Brachtenbach told me about his county in Yakima valley. They have many minority races there. They don't have any problems; they have worked it out by getting together and talking it over, because they all have rights. Going through my files here, when we had a hearing on this bill a couple of years ago, we found in Seattle there were a lot of areas where colored people could buy homes in expensive areas. So I am wondering whether we are not going to stir up a hornets' nest where there isn't any sense to it. I'd like to see us go along, be patient and kind, and see if we can't solve this problem. You have a problem I admit, but I don't think it is one where we can disturb the peace. Mr. Speaker, I think the whole community, our whole nation, is too emotionally disturbed; I think we have made too much ado of these things; I think we should be patient and get along and not let this get out of hand. I don't know what House Bill No. 200 is, but I know it was amended in Judiciary Committee. We had the bill in there for two weeks to get it perfected. Then it came into Rules and I don't know what shape it is in, but I merely wanted to express to you my opinion."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Smith.

Mr. Smith:

"I promise not to belabor the subject, but I'd like to call further attention to the House that this is just the beginning of our problems. I'd like to call attention to the fact that the governor of the state, being a Republican, has seen fit to mention open housing as the first item listed in his call for a special session. That would mean support from across the aisle; and Democrats have had that philosophy for years and years so there is absolutely no reason why the House can't act. I say 'act' because lack of action is causing trouble. I don't think the state of Washington should wait until we hear the hew and cry in the streets. I think we should act now when we can act calmly and in good judgment."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Savage:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Savage:

"I have no issue with any members of the House, but I do take issue with the governor on his proclamation where it is stated 'the 1965 Session of the Washington State Legislature, during the regular period of sixty days prescribed for the Session, failed to enact appropriation and revenue measures,' and where he took no notice of the problem of redistricting forced upon us by the court which occupied us for forty-seven days.

"I think a lot of people thought we were not doing anything but working on redistricting and didn't realize that behind the scenes we were doing a lot of work on other bills, otherwise we would not have been able to pass sixty or seventy bills a day after redistricting was over. I think it is beneath the dignity of the governor to not recognize this problem and start the proclamation in the manner in which he did. I think it would have been more in the dignity of the governor's office if he had pointed out we had been working on redistricting during much of that session. I believe this would give a better image to the state and the legislature. I don't think the governor is going to enhance himself with the legislature by making this kind of remark about the legislature."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Moos:

"I think it is necessary to reply to Representative Savage and point out that I am sure he didn't take time to look in any of the preceding journals to examine how a special session is called. If he had taken the time, he would have noted there is precedent set. I don't think it is in keeping with partisan harmony for him to attempt to find some area of partisanship in calling a special session."

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

FIRST READING OF SENATE BILL

The following was introduced, read first time by title and acted upon as indicated:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 14, by Senators Bailey, Greive, Neill, and Moriarty, Jr.:

Adopting joint rules and reintroducing regular session measures as measures before the extraordinary session.

On motion of Mr. O'Brien, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 14 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Mr. O'Brien, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 14 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative O'Brien speaking in favor of adoption of the resolution.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Copeland:

"Would Mr. O'Brien yield to a question?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes, I would."

Mr. Copeland:

"Will a bill that has been amended in the Senate and returned to the House be in House Rules on third reading without the Senate amendments?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"It appears that your statement would be correct, that the Senate amendments would not have any effect on a House bill. It would start anew in the House of Representatives without the Senate amendments."

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 14, and the resolution was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 86; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 11.

Providing for administration of community colleges on a district basis.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Burtch, the rules were suspended, and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 104 was returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

SECOND READING OF BILL

Mr. Brouillet moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The purpose of a community college shall be:

- "(1) lower division academic courses;
- "(2) vocational-technical training; and
- "(3) community service.

"Recognizing the need for additional community colleges at this time as well as the improvement of existing community colleges, there shall be created to manage the affairs of each community college, whether presently existing or hereafter to be established, a community college district.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The superintendent of public instruction is directed to prepare and submit to the fortieth session of the legislature, a legislative proposal to accomplish the purposes of section 1 of this act.

"Such proposal shall be accompanied by a comprehensive report and plan for the implementation thereof, which shall contain recommendations including, but not limited to, the following:

"(1) Proposed boundary lines for community college districts for all existing and planned community colleges;

"(2) Proposed methods of financing and support, including both maintenance and operations, and capital outlay;

"(3) Enrollment predictions;

"(4) Academic standards, course content, curriculum, and extracurricular activities;

"(5) The scope, necessity and advisability of expansion of vocational-technical training in community colleges;

"(6) Alternate administrative organizational patterns in metropolitan areas.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. All school directors, district and county superintendents, and community college administrators, are directed upon the request of the superintendent of public instruction to assist him in carrying out the duties imposed by section 2 hereof. Such officers are also directed to take in their own districts, such preparatory steps during the 1965-1967 interim as will assist the implementation of section 1 of this act and such plan as may be adopted by the legislature pursuant to section 2 hereof.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In formulating the proposals required by this act, the superintendent of public instruction shall consult and cooperate with such legislative interim committees as may be concerned with education or higher education.

"Sec. 5. Section 10, chapter 2, Laws of 1963, extraordinary session, and RCW 28.84.215, are each amended to read as follows:

"During the period from July 1, 1965 until July 1, 1967 the president of [the] each community college [shall] may be held directly responsible to the board of directors [as determined by the directors of each school board] of his school district. Thereafter he shall be held directly responsible to the board of trustees of his community college district except in those districts where community college service areas and common school district boundaries coincide."

Debate ensued, Representative Brouillet speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Litchman:

"I wonder if Mr. Brouillet will yield to a question?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Brouillet, in reading the amendment, and the underlined portion thereof, it is my understanding that since the service area for the Seattle school district is Seattle, and the school district lines are coincidental with the Seattle school district community college proposal, this act would not apply to Seattle junior college."

Mr. Brouillet:

"It is our understanding that this language would allow Seattle to have the same college board as the Seattle schools."

Mr. Litchman:

"Would you also state your opinion as to the effect on Shoreline Community College? Was it the intention of the drafters to include Shoreline Community College in this particular bill or exempt them as Seattle?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"Well, neither. It is a service area and could have the same board. However, if Shoreline desired to take in Edmonds or some other area, obviously it couldn't have the same board. Shoreline Community College does not presently extend beyond the lines of the Shoreline school district, so there would be no problem. But you must remember the study here; two years from now the superintendent of public instruction is to make recommendations to the state legislature. If they wanted to take in more, they would have to have a separate board of directors."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Litchman, Kink, and Clark speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Savage:

"I wonder if Mr. Brouillet would submit to another question?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Savage:

"Under this amendment, as it relates to the bill and other school laws, could a district cross a county boundary? I am hoping this would be permissible, but I wondered if other laws would be affected."

Mr. Brouillet:

"Well there is nothing in the junior college law that prohibits junior colleges from crossing counties. As to other laws, they aren't now affected, I'm sure. At the next session of the legislature this is one of the things that should be looked into. We have left some things fairly loose because we want all the people to get together during the next interim to discuss this, for ratification at the next session of the proposals they might have."

Further debate ensued, Representative King (Richard "Dick") speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

The bill was ordered reengrossed.

On motion of Mr. Burtch, the rules were suspended, Reengrossed Substitute House Bill No. 104 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Eldridge speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Reengrossed Substitute House Bill No. 104 and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 87; nays, 7; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Brachtenbach, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Conner, Copeland, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt, Elder, Eldridge, Flanagan, Gallagher, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, Jueling Kalich, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Klein, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pierre, Pritchard, Rogers, Saling, Savage, Sawyer, Sheridan, Smith, Swayze, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Wang, Warnke, Whetzel, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—87.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Bozarth, Braun, Dootson, Hausler, Lux, Radcliffe, Slagle—7.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Ahlquist, Epton, Garrett, Hurley, May—5.

Reengrossed Substitute House Bill No. 104, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I find it necessary to oppose this measure because I do not believe that it is in the best interest of the people of our state who are anxious to see additional community colleges established. Granted, it serves the interests of areas that have already established colleges.

This measure says that there "shall be created to manage the affairs of each community college, whether presently existing or hereafter to be established, a community college district."

The Citizens' Advisory Committee to the Legislative Interim Committee on Education recommended "that the organization and administration of community colleges continue for the present to be the responsibility of a single school district."

The Advisory Committee took this position and I opposed the bill because the methods of financing such community college districts have not been worked out. Provisions are made in another bill, House Bill No. 640, consistent with recommendations of the Legislative Interim Committee on Education, to call for a long range study of the post-high school program within the state of Washington. Such a study would allow an opportunity to work out plans for relationships between existing educational institutions, administration and financing of community college districts and attend to the many objections that have been raised to Substitute House Bill No. 104. Such planning could also be accomplished through the Legislative Interim Committee on Education or the Legislative Council.

MARY STUART LUX,
22nd District.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

It was my intention to vote for Engrossed House Bill No. 137; however, due to failure of the mechanism, it was not possible to record my vote.

JOHN L. O'BRIEN,
33rd District.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Savage served notice that, having voted on the prevailing side, he would on the next working day move for reconsideration of the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 364 had passed the House.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Brouillet, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House do now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 364 had passed the House.

Debate ensued, Representative Brouillet speaking in favor of the motion, and Representative Savage speaking against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"I am wondering how Mr. Brouillet can amend a motion that wasn't made. It was my understanding that Mr. Savage merely gave notice of reconsideration."

The Speaker:

"He did not say he was amending it. He made a motion. If a majority of the House wants to reconsider the bill at this time, they can vote to do so."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Conner, Clark, and Brouillet speaking in favor of the motion, and Representatives Smith and Savage speaking against it.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moos:

"Would Representative Savage yield to a question?"

Mr. Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Savage?"

Mr. Savage:

"Yes, I would."

Mr. Moos:

"You brought up a comparison between these two pension systems that we have worked on the last few days. Did you vote for or against the legislative pension?"

Mr. Savage:

"I voted for the legislative pension, and I did it because I am going to have to make a sizable contribution to it, so I feel it is only based on fairness. What I'm concerned about in the other one is that the low income people are not getting a raise. I don't want to take the money away from the low-paid people and give it to the higher-paid ones."

Mr. Cunningham demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Brouillet to immediately reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 364 had passed the House.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Copeland:

"If the House decides to reconsider, then the bill will be before us again on final passage, and it would preclude the possibility of anybody announcing the day's notice for reconsideration. Is that correct?"

The Speaker:

"That is correct."

The motion to reconsider was lost.

MOTION

Mr. Copeland moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 364 be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Smith:

"Wouldn't Mr. Savage's notice of reconsideration preclude a motion such as Mr. Copeland just made?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"According to Rule 43, a motion to reconsider can only be decided once. Being decided in the negative, the motion for reconsideration could not again be made. The motion lost and the bill could be immediately transmitted."

The motion by Mr. Copeland to transmit Engrossed House Bill No. 364 to the Senate immediately was carried.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Smith:

"Ladies and gentlemen of the House. I shall not worry you long, and I shall not speak in a frivolous manner, nor shall it be inflammatory. I shall try to appeal to your sense of reasoning and your sense of fairness. But before I go into that, I'd like to make this statement, and that is: I do honestly believe that the lack of honest debate is a mistake. Maybe it's because of the great controversy on redistricting, but I'd rather think it's because the bills are being thrown at us so fast. The main thing I wish to address myself to is about confidence in our state government and in our legislature. Particularly because a government like ours is built upon mutual trust and confidence of all segments of the citizenship. Now most of you across the aisle, and many of you on this side, will remember that during the past sessions we have had great debates on the question of civil rights, human rights, including housing. Also most of you will remember that we received many long and sometimes voluminous letters. I recall having received as many as two hundred letters a day when we were involved in some of these great debates. Now on House Bill No. 200 we have not received nearly as much mail from the public on this subject as to their position. There are a couple of reasons for it, and I believe I ought to share it with the House.

"The first reason that we have received so little attention on this is because those who really believed in true and equal justice do not believe that this particular measure goes far enough, and I am one of those.

"The second reason is, and it is a big one, is because the people this would concern, the people who would be helped most by this, have no confidence that this legislature will act properly on any matter pertaining to human rights and housing. And I must admit I am also one of those. Now I am in that number even though I feel that I am obligated to do everything I can to try to get this particular session of the legislature to act now while it is not too late. Many of our civil rights leaders have also not taken an open position, and this is why: They do not support it, because they believe it is not good enough. They do not wish to embarrass me because I am one of the sponsors. They told me that no matter what kind of a compromise we tried to work out, that the House would not act. I believed them, but I wanted to give the House a chance to act. As proof of my position, may I quote, with permission of the House, a letter I wrote to the chairman of the State Board Against Discrimination shortly after the housing hearing we had in February. I quote:

"You know, Ken, as well as I do that this bill is not what I believe in and does not cover all of the fields I believe should be covered. However, over the years, I have been obstinate and immovable from the position that either we should have the whole hog or nothing until I decided this time to see how it feels to go along with the gang.

"But I want to make it clear that I have no misgivings that the future passage of House Bill No. 200 is any easier or any nearer than stronger bills which we have championed from the bottom of our hearts.

"Frankly, I would like to prove that no matter which step you take toward fair housing, whether it be a half step or a whole step, you will meet the same old snake-like enemies who will fight just as hard every inch of the way."

"Now ladies and gentlemen, you can see why I have been pleading with the House to act. First, because I think it is right for them to act. Second, because I wanted them to prove that, given a chance, they would act. The President of our great Country, a true southerner, born and reared and indoctrinated in the ways of the south, has just called on all Americans to give his every effort to justice and equality to all citizens; and may I call upon this House, may I call upon this legislature, to heed that call in this cause.

"Thank you."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Humiston:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Uhlman yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Will Mr. Uhlman yield to question?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes."

Mr. Humiston:

"When we wrote our charter in 1952 for the city of Tacoma, this budget-making procedure was put by charter in the hands of the city manager. What would be the situation if the charter were to be changed in the city of Seattle? Which would prevail, the charter or this law?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"At the present time, it is my understanding it is in the power of the local city officials to change. (I could be mistaken—I see Mr. Gorton shaking his head up and down and sideways. I'm not sure what that means.) But the situation is that the city of Seattle is the only city in the state which does not have this right to change its budgetary initiation procedure through the mayor, and at the present time every other city in the state does follow the procedure outlined in House Bill No. 9. The intent is simply that Seattle carry on the same budgetary procedure the other cities have."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Gallagher:

"Would Mr. Uhlman yield to another question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Will Mr. Uhlman yield?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes, I hope with a high degree of accuracy."

Mr. Gallagher:

"Will this change the charter of the city of Seattle?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes, it will make mandatory the initiation of the budget in the mayor's office in the city of Seattle."

Mr. Gallagher:

"Do you think this is right, that the legislature should change the charter of the city of Seattle?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes, because at the present time the legislature has told the city that they must perform their budgetary functions in a proper manner, that is for the budget to be initiated in the mayor's office. I think it would be correct for us to change it at this time. The point you are about to raise I suspect is in relation to Senate Bill No. 167 which is not before us."

House Bill No. 272, by Representatives O'Donnell, Chatalas, and Bergh (by departmental request):

Debate ensued, Representatives Hurley, Adams, Epton, Clark, and Johnston (Elmer E.) speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Chatalas and Uhlman speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Kull:

"Mr. Speaker, will the lady from Spokane yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mrs. Hurley?"

Mrs. Hurley:

"Surely."

Mr. Kull:

"Mrs. Hurley, it seems to me that if you require the department to consult with all agencies involved, you would be binding them to consult with each and every single child care operation in the state. Now, this could be very impractical and hamstringing the department. It seems to me this would make the department totally the servant of the agencies instead of it being the licensing body."

Mrs. Hurley:

"This wouldn't be true at all, Mr. Kull. Most of these child care agencies have one representative from each one of the areas, and only that one representative would have to come to a meeting because he knows what the agencies in that area would want. It would be a question of inviting them, and then you can't compel people if they don't want to come. They do this in many other areas where the public assistance department is in charge."

Mr. Angevine demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Chatalas demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mrs. Hurley, and the motion was carried and the amendment adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 68; nays, 27; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Angevine, Backstrom, Berentson, Bergh, Bottiger, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Burtch, Canfield, Clark, Cunningham, Day, Dootson, Elder, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Goldsworthy, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Hurley, Jastad, Johnston (Elmer E.), Jueling, Kalich, King (Chet), Kink, Kirk, Klein, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Rogers, Saling, Sheridan, Swayze, Taylor, Traylor, Wang, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—68.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Anderson (Eric O.), Avey, Beck, Broulett, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Gallagher, Garrett, Gorton, Grant, Haussler, King (Richard "Dick"), Lux, O'Brien, Pierre, Radcliffe, Savage, Sawyer, Slagle, Smith, Taplin, Thompson, Uhlman, Valle, Warnke, Whetzel—27.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Bledsoe, Copeland, Johnson (Doris), Jolly—4.

Mrs. Epton moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 11, section 9, line 2, following the period after "Code)" add "An agency shall have the right of appeal from an adverse decision to the superior court of the county in which the agency operates, such appeal to be heard as a trial de novo."

Debate ensued, Representatives Epton and Adams speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Bottiger speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mrs. Hurley:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Representative Brachtenbach would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Brachtenbach?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes."

Mrs. Hurley:

"In your opinion, Representative Brachtenbach, would this amendment cause the bill to become unconstitutional?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"I have to confess to not having reviewed the case to which Mr. Bottiger referred. My impression is that this body of the legislature can impose upon the courts whatever degree of judicial action it determines is proper, and certainly this would be within the area of what we have done in many cases. We would not be making the superior court make administrative decisions; we would be giving a special right of review. Subject to being overruled by the specific language of the court decision, my opinion would be that it would not be unconstitutional."

Further debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative Epton speaking for its adoption.

Mr. Mast demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained. The motion was lost on a rising vote, and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTIONS

Mr. Andersen (James A.) moved that Substitute House Bill No. 272 be indefinitely postponed.

Debate ensued, Representative Andersen speaking in favor of the motion, and Representatives Uhlman and Adams speaking in opposition to it.

Mr. Litchman moved that the House defer further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 272 and that it be ordered held for tomorrow's second reading calendar.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"That motion is of equal rank with Mr. Andersen's. Unless he should withdraw his motion, I would be unable to put that motion before the House."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Andersen withdrew his motion to indefinitely postpone Substitute House Bill No. 272.

The motion by Mr. Litchman to defer further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 272 until tomorrow's second reading calendar was carried.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Sawyer, the House recessed until 2:00 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Speaker called the House to order at 2:00 p. m.

The Clerk called the roll, and all members were present except Representatives Copeland and Day. Representative Copeland was excused.

Mr. Perry demanded a call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representative Copeland.

On motion of Mr. Burtch, the absent member was excused and the House proceeded with business under the call of the House.

House Bill No. 235, by Representatives O'Donnell, Klein, and O'Brien (by departmental request):

Changing board against discrimination to human rights commission.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mr. Smith, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 7, section 7, line 7 after "receive" strike "twenty" and insert "twenty-five"

Mr. Adams moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 16, section 24, line 7, strike the entire section and insert in lieu thereof:

"Sec. 24. Section 22, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.270 are each amended to read as follows:

"Any [respondent or complainant] person, including the commission, aggrieved by a final order of a hearing tribunal may obtain a [review] trial de novo, including a trial by jury upon demand, of such order in the superior court for the county where the unfair practice is alleged to have occurred or in the county wherein such person resides or transacts business by filing with the clerk of the court, within two weeks from the date of receipt of such order, a written petition in duplicate praying that such order be modified or set aside. The clerk shall thereupon mail the duplicate copy to the [board] commission. The [board] commission shall then cause to be filed in the court a certified transcript of the entire record in the proceedings, including the pleadings, testimony, findings and order. Upon such filing the court shall proceed in the same manner as in the case of a petition by the [board] commission and shall have the same exclusive jurisdiction to grant to any party such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and suitable, and in like manner to make and enter a decree enforcing or modifying and enforcing as so modified or setting aside, in whole or in part, the order sought to be reviewed.

"Unless otherwise directed by the court, commencement of review proceedings under this section shall operate as a stay of any order."

Debate ensued, Representative Adams speaking for adoption of the amendment, and Representatives O'Donnell and Litchman speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.):

"Mr. Speaker, may I ask Mr. Litchman a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Litchman?"

Mr. Litchman:

"Yes."

Mr. Johnston:

"Mr. Litchman, is it true that under the administrative procedures act the appellant is entitled to trial de novo by jury?"

Mr. Litchman:

"Under the administrative procedures act, Mr. Johnston, he is given a right of appeal like any other complainant from the board decision, whether it is the liquor board or any other board. To the best of my knowledge, there is no trial by jury and no need for a jury trial, the only question before the court being a determination of whether there has been an abuse of discretion by the board."

Further debate ensued, Representative Johnston speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Litchman yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Litchman?"

Mr. Litchman:

"Yes, I will yield."

Mr. Adams:

"Am I correct that now under the administrative procedures act when an appeal is taken, the trial is conducted somewhat like this: One attorney sits up in the witness chair and the other attorney takes the abstract from the hearing before the board and reads it in somewhat of a monotone while the attorney in the chair takes the part of the witness. This is true whether it is before the judge or there is a jury. Isn't that correct—that is the way it is handled?"

Mr. Litchman:

"Well, I wouldn't say that is exactly correct. Of course, the record is read in and the court has an opportunity to read over the transcript presented by the tribunal. If there is a jury, it is correct that one lawyer would, in effect, read the testimony given at the board to the court and jury. But I might say, in complete answer to your question, Dr. Adams, that if there is any irregularity specified by the respondent on appeal before the superior court, he may bring in additional evidence. In this way, it would be treated as a trial de novo under the administrative procedures law."

Further debate ensued, Representative Adams speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Bottiger and O'Donnell speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, would Dr. Adams yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Dr. Adams?"

Mr. Adams:

"If it isn't too legally technical, I will."

Mr. Burtch:

"Dr. Adams, my recollection of your amendment is that you have provided for trial de novo, that is, live testimony in the trial, but I also recollect that you required a certified copy of the findings of the commission to go to the court. Now, this seems inconsistent. I am not sure what you are trying to do."

Mr. Adams:

"The part you are referring to is, I think, in the old law. This trial de novo applies to the commission as well as the aggrieved person. They can both go up. I think what you are referring to is just quoting from the old law."

Mr. Chatalas demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Klein and O'Donnell speaking against adoption of the amendment by Mr. Adams to House Bill No. 235, and Representative Clark speaking for its adoption.

Mr. Brachtenbach moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Mr. Adams:

On line 14 of the amendment by Mr. Adams, after the first word "commission." strike all of the material down to and including "such filing the" on line 17 and insert "The"

Debate ensued, Representatives Brachtenbach and Burtch speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment to the amendment, and Representative Litchman speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, will Miss O'Donnell yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Miss O'Donnell?"

Miss O'Donnell:

"Mr. O'Brien, I am not an attorney, but I will try."

Mr. O'Brien:

"This is a very practical question. Have there been many bad decisions by the board over the past number of years that this board has been in existence? Have they made some bad decisions where human rights of people have been hurt by their judgments?"

Miss O'Donnell:

"To my knowledge, there have been only two appeals to either the superior court or the supreme court of the state of Washington in the last two years. Usually the board operates on the basis of negotiation. A negotiated settlement is reached between the complainant and the person complained against on a practical basis. To my mind, and for many of us who have voted in the past sessions to keep the administrative procedures act strong, to vote for either the amendment or the amendment to the amendment would be, in effect, to weaken the administrative procedures act, which we know was opposed by many state agencies in the last two sessions."

The motion was carried on a rising vote, and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Adams as amended.

Mr. King (Richard "Dick") demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Backstrom on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Backstrom:

"Mr. Speaker, will you explain to us just what we are doing here? We have adopted the amendment to the amendment. Now we are voting on the amendment. If we vote against that, does that take the amendment to the amendment with it?"

The Speaker:

"It does."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.) on a point of order.

Mr. Johnston:

"Mr. Speaker, would you explain what we are voting on?"

The Speaker:

"I will first have the Clerk read the amendment as amended. Then I will state the question."

The reading clerk read the amendment to House Bill No. 235 by Mr. Adams as amended by Mr. Brachtenbach.

The Speaker:

"A vote 'aye' will be to adopt the amendment as amended; a vote 'no' will be to reject it."

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Adams as amended by Mr. Brachtenbach, and the amendment as amended was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 50; nays, 48; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Avey, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Brachtenbach, Braun, Burtch, Canfield, Clark, Cunningham, Day, Dootson, Elder, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston (Elmer E.), Juelling, King (Chet), Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Dell, Saling, Sawyer, Swayze, Wang, Wolf—50.

Mr. Leland moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, section 6, beginning on line 33, strike the balance of section 6 and insert "Any member of the commission shall hold office at the pleasure of the governor."

Debate ensued, Representative Leland speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Miss O'Donnell on a point of order.

Miss O'Donnell:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Leland is speaking on his amendment?"

Mr. Leland:

"I very definitely am. I am explaining why I believe this sensitive position should be filled and held at the pleasure of the governor."

The Speaker:

"You may continue, Mr. Leland."

Further debate ensued, Representative Leland concluding his remarks, and Representatives O'Brien, O'Donnell, and Smith speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Burtch demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representative Klein speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Sawyer demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Those absent or not voting were: Representative Copeland—1.

The Speaker called upon Mr. Garrett to preside.

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.) moved adoption of the following amendment to House Bill No. 235:

On page 17, section 25, beginning on line 1, strike all of section 25 and renumber the following sections consecutively.

House Bill No. 200, by Representatives Smith, Marzano, Sheridan, Gorton, Pritchard, O'Donnell, Chatalas, and Hood (by executive request):

Forbidding discrimination in housing and real property.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 4, 1965.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred House Bill No. 200, forbidding discrimination in housing and real property, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 13, strike all of the matter down to and including "debt.]" on page 4, line 31, and insert

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 49.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:"

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 5, section 6, being renumbered section 4, line 28, after "accept" and before "any listing" strike "or retain"

On page 5, beginning on line 32, strike all of sections 7 and 8, being renumbered sections 5 and 6

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Beginning on line 3 of the title, strike everything in the title after "discrimination in" and insert "the sale of real property; adding new sections to chapter 49.60 RCW."

WILLIAM C. KLEIN, Chairman,
R. TED BOTTIGER, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: Jack L. Burtch, Jack Dootson, Hayes Elder, Slade Gorton, Gary Grant, Mark Litchman, Daniel G. Marsh, Leonard A. Sawyer, Robert M. Schaefer, Wesley C. Uhlman, Jonathan Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mr. Klein, the committee amendments to page 1 and to page 5, section 6, were adopted.

Mr. Klein moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 5, striking sections 7 and 8, being renumbered sections 5 and 6.

Mr. Adams:

"I have a question to ask of Mr. Klein. If section 8 is removed, section 8 being a provision for the repeal of RCW 49.60.217, does that mean that that would be back in the statutes?"

Mr. Klein:

"No, it does not, because section 18 of the bill you have just passed repeals RCW 49.60.217. You could, if you wished, offer an amendment to the amendment to make clear that that is repealed."

On motion of Mr. Brachtenbach, the question was divided as follows:

On page 5, beginning on line 32, strike all of section 7, being renumbered section 5. Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 6, beginning on line 4, strike all of section 8, being renumbered section 6. Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be adoption of the following amendment by Committee on Judiciary:

On page 5, beginning on line 32, strike all of section 7, being renumbered section 5. Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Klein yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Klein?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Klein, I am somewhat confused about this section. It reads:

"It shall be an unfair practice for any person to assist, induce, incite or coerce another person to commit an act or engage in a practice that violates this amendatory act."

"I would like to know if this means that if someone decided they wanted to do something to cause me to violate this act, they wouldn't be liable?"

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Witherbee, I believe Mr. Smith may be able to answer that question better than I can."

Mr. Smith:

"The reason this was struck is because in RCW 49.60.220 there is already a provision in the discrimination law which covers this. It reads:

"It is an unfair practice for any person to aid, abet, encourage, or incite the commission of any unfair practice, or to attempt to obstruct or prevent any other person from complying with the provisions of this chapter or any order issued thereunder."

"The section being struck is totally unnecessary in this bill."

The committee amendment striking section 7, being renumbered section 5 of House Bill No. 200 was adopted.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the adoption of the following amendment by Committee on Judiciary:

On page 6, beginning on line 4, strike all of section 8, being renumbered section 6. Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On motion of Mr. Klein, the committee amendment striking section 8, being renumbered section 6, was not adopted.

Mr. Wang moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, section 6, being renumbered section 4, line 28, after "for sale" insert ", or for any agent to render services in connection with the sale of real property,"

Debate ensued, Representative Wang speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Sheridan:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Wang yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Wang, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Wang:

"Yes, Representative Sheridan."

Mr. Sheridan:

"Representative Wang, would your interpretation of the word 'agent' which is contained in your amendment include, for example, attorneys?"

Mr. Wang:

"Yes, I think so. They sell property occasionally, though I don't think they should."

Further debate ensued, Representative Smith speaking against adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Wang:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Smith yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Smith?"

Mr. Smith:

"Yes."

Mr. Wang:

"You just said we have a fine governor and should go along with the governor. Does that mean you will change your mind and go along with the governor from now on?"

Mr. Smith:

"When he brings up a proposition that is as good as this one, yes."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman from Kitsap, Mr. Wang, yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Wang?"

Mr. Wang:

"Yes, Mr. Klein."

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Wang, if we adopt your amendment or another one to do substantially the same thing in what might be a little better place in the bill, would you then be willing to support and vote for the bill?"

Mr. Wang:

"No, Mr. Klein. I don't like the discrimination in this bill. You people who are proponents of this bill claim you don't wish to discriminate against anyone, but in my opinion, this is the worst form of discrimination."

Mr. Klein:

"But assuming we adopt an amendment of the type you are proposing, would you then be willing to vote for the bill?"

Mr. Wang:

"Mr. Klein, if all of the amendments that we have sent up were to be adopted, I would seriously reconsider the possibility of voting for the bill."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Witherbee and Leland speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment by Mr. Wang, and Representatives O'Donnell and Sheridan speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Kull:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Wang yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Wang, would you yield to question?"

Mr. Wang:

"Yes."

Mr. Kull:

"It seems to me your language is far too broad when you say 'any agent to render services'. Couldn't that be extended to include almost anything, such as maintenance work?"

Mr. Wang:

"I believe it only extends to the sale of real estate. That is my intent, as far as I understand it."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Wang will yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Wang, will you yield?"

Mr. Wang:

"Yes."

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Wang, a number of people have raised the question, and I have too, of why you added these words after 'sale' rather than after 'real estate broker'. Now, as Mr. Kull has indicated, you are apparently attempting to broaden this to an extent far beyond what is acceptable to me, at least. Is there any reason why you wouldn't support another amendment to add 'agent' in the proper place?"

Mr. Wang:

"I don't think so, Mr. Litchman. I feel that anyone in the handling of real estate or an agent acting for anyone, or an agent acting for the owners in the sale or transfer of real estate or having any connection therewith, should be included in this bill. I don't think it should be just real estate brokers and salesmen."

Further debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Klein moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Mr. Wang:

Strike all of the amendment by Mr. Wang on page 5, section 6, being renumbered section 4, and substitute in lieu thereof:

On page 5, section 4, being renumbered section 2, line 6, after "salesman" and before "to" insert "or attorney at law, in connection with any property not owned by himself,"

Debate ensued, Representatives Klein and Gorton speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment to the amendment, and Representative Wang speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Leland:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Representative Klein would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Klein, will you yield?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes, Mr. Leland."

Mr. Leland:

"Representative Klein, under this act as it is presently written or the amendment by Mr. Wang or the one as proposed by yourself, would a salesman holding a license or a broker be subject to the provisions of this if he were selling his own property as a salesman or broker?"

Mr. Klein:

"As to a person's own property—that is precisely the purpose of my amendment—he would be able to discriminate just as in the case of an individual selling his own property. In the absence of the amendment, it is at least arguable that he would be violating the act if he were to discriminate in respect to his own property. It might be an unfair practice. That is why I think this amendment should be adopted, so he would not be guilty of unfair practice."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Leland:

"Would Mr. Smith yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Smith, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Smith:

"Yes."

Mr. Leland:

"Mr. Smith, you rose and opposed the amendment by Mr. Wang. You have heard the discussion on his amendment and on Mr. Klein's proposed amendment, and Mr. Klein just said that in the absence of adoption of either amendment, a licensed real estate salesman or broker would be subject to unfair practice charges if he sold his own property to whomever he might choose. Is this your intention when you oppose the amendment?"

Mr. Smith:

"Actually Mr. Klein didn't say he would be guilty of unfair practices. If he did, I think he would be in error. When selling his own property, he would not be acting as a salesman or broker as far as this bill is concerned. He would be an individual and they are not covered. You could have an argument about it, but it would be just an argument; there wouldn't be any basis for it. If they want to adopt the amendment, it is all right. I don't oppose it if you want to make it clear a salesman could sell his own property."

Further debate ensued, Representative Leland speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment to the amendment, and Representative Wang speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Sawyer demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was carried on a rising vote, and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The amendment as amended was adopted.

Mr. Morphis moved adoption of the following amendment to House Bill No. 200:

On page 6, following the old section 7, being renumbered section 5, which was struck by a Committee on Judiciary amendment, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 49.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"Whenever a complaint shall be made alleging discrimination in housing and real property, all complaints shall be reviewed and approved for reasonable cause by the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the discrimination is alleged to have taken place prior to the exercise of any investigative or conciliation powers of the board. All such complaints shall be subject to review by the superior court in the same manner as all legal actions, and the normal rules of evidence shall apply to all investigations of said complaints for hearings thereon."

Remember the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued, Representative Morphis speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Sawyer demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Adams moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, following the old section 7, being renumbered section 5, which was struck by a Committee on Judiciary amendment, add a new section as follows:

"Sec. 5. Section 22, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.270 are each amended to read as follows:

"Any [respondent or complainant] person, including the board, aggrieved by a final order of a hearing tribunal may obtain a [review] trial de novo, including a trial by jury upon demand, of such order in the superior court for the county where the unfair practice is alleged to have occurred or in the county wherein such person resides or transacts business by filing with the clerk of the court, within two weeks from the date of receipt of such order, a written petition in duplicate praying that such order be modified or set aside. The clerk shall thereupon mail the duplicate copy to the board. [The board shall then cause to be filed in the court a certified transcript of the entire record in the proceedings, including the pleadings, testimony and order. Upon such filing] The court shall proceed in the same manner as in the case of a petition by the board and shall have the same exclusive jurisdiction to grant to any party such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and suitable, and in like manner to have and enter a decree enforcing or modifying and enforcing as so modified or setting aside, in whole or in part, the order sought to be reviewed.

"Unless otherwise directed by the court, commencement of review proceedings under this section shall operate as a stay of any order."

Remember the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued, Representative Adams speaking in favor of adoption of the bill.

Mr. Sawyer demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Leland demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Juelsing moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, section 9, being renumbered section 7, line 9, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. No public or private body shall have the right or power to control or regulate the use of private property or any building thereon, of any citizen in the state of Washington except as otherwise now provided by law."

Debate ensued, Representative Juelsing speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Burtch speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Sawyer demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Klein, the committee amendment to the title was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Klein, the following amendment to the title was adopted.

Beginning on line 3 of the title after "discrimination in" strike the balance of the title and insert "the sale of real property; adding new sections to chapter 49.60 RCW; amending section 22, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.270; and repealing section 15, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.217."

House Bill No. 200 was ordered engrossed.

Mr. Burtch moved that the rules be suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 200 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

Having been made a special order of business at the top of today's second reading calendar, the Speaker declared the question before the House to be further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 272 on second reading.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Andersen (James A.), the House deferred further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 272 on second reading and the bill was made a special order of business for 4:00 p. m. this afternoon.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker observed in the south gallery the seventh and eighth grade classes from Dieringer School in the 25th District with their principal, Jack Adams, and asked them to stand and be recognized.

One of the students was Carla Sawyer, Representative Sawyer's daughter.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Warnke on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Warnke:

"I don't know whether Representative Sawyer or the students from Dieringer would appreciate this or not, but I was once a student at Dieringer myself, and I am most happy to see you here."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Day:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Warnke yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Warnke?"

Mr. Warnke:

"Yes."

Mr. Day:

"Did you graduate from the school, Mr. Warnke?"

Mr. Warnke:

"No, I didn't graduate from that one."

House Bill No 444, by Representatives King (Richard "Dick"), Brouillet, and Saling:

Requiring transfers of teachers' seniority and leave benefits.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. King (Richard "Dick") moved the adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Brouillet, Saling and himself:

On page 4, line 31, following section 1, add a new section 2 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There shall be established in the office of the superintendent of public instruction an accumulated sick leave fund. Each school district shall contribute to the fund according to a plan established by the superintendent of public instruction based upon the sick leave experience of the previous school year. All school districts shall be reimbursed from this fund for payments made for sick leave."

Re number the old section 2 to read "Sec. 3."

Debate ensued, Representative King (Richard "Dick") speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

House Bill No. 444 was ordered engrossed.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 444 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative King (Richard "Dick") speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative King yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. King?"

Mr. King (Richard "Dick"):

"Certainly."

Mr. Eldridge:

"Prior to the adoption of your new section 2, how was it proposed to handle the funds? Would this be done by the individual districts, prior to the establishment of the fund under the direction of the state superintendent?"

Mr. King:

"I would imagine it would have to be handled by individual districts if it were going to be done, but actually this wouldn't go into effect as it is amended until the superintendent has the state program."

Mr. Eldridge:

"I know that you have included community colleges. What would be the status of a community college instructor if he were to move from a community college into, for instance, one of the five four-year colleges?"

Mr. King:

"This would not affect that kind of transfer at all. He would move out of the common school system."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. King yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. King?"

Mr. King (Richard "Dick"):

"Certainly."

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"My question is this: Under sick leave presently this is a financial impact on a district because they have to hire a substitute when the sick leave is taken. Would the district be reimbursed for that substitute teacher under your amendment?"

Mr. King:

"This amendment doesn't change existing law in that respect, so consequently I think they would operate the same way they did in the past."

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"This bill concerns me in that respect since sick leave is a substantial factor in most school districts."

Further debate ensued, Representative Mahaffey speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 444, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 88; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 8.

Debate ensued, Representatives Day, Gorton, and Smith speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Humiston:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to address a question to anyone who is qualified to answer. On page 2, line 7, appears the term 'actuarial soundness of the fund.' To me, without definition, this means anything from not having enough money to pay this year's pension, all the way up to a fund which is completely funded, and I wonder if this is clear. I am all in favor of pension funds and funds that are financially sound, but I'd like to know if it is known what this means."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, I think I can answer the question, but I will be subject to correction. I think it means, Dr. Humiston, fully funded. Unless it is fully funded, the entire one mill must be levied for the purposes of the fund. Only if it is fully funded may portions of the one mill be diverted to other activities."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Would the director of agriculture, Mr. Moos, yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Moos?"

Mr. Moos:

"The who?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Director Moos, up in my area, all we do is open the back door or the front door and bring in the milk, and we just drink it. Whenever we get all the farms together, I start worrying about the people in my district, whether or not they are going to have another increase in the price of milk, and I wonder what effect this will have. I notice you are increasing the assessment one cent per hundred-weight on all milk. You are my agricultural consultant here in the House, and I would like to have some advice as to what effect this will have on the price of milk."

Mr. Moos:

"In checking the remuneration received in the last couple of months, I think you can afford an increase of one-cent per hundred pounds of milk. I'm sure it's well worth the cost."

Mr. Uhlman:

"My question is not on my behalf. There are a lot of little people in my district who do not get the exorbitant pay of $40.00 a day, and I am concerned about them. There is some rumor this is another milk marketing act."

Mr. Moos:

"I wouldn't suggest that at all, Mr. Uhlman. It is not a milk marketing act. This is good legislation. It is attempting to get good products for the people who buy them. The commission in the past has been able to support research programs that have given the people a very wholesome, abundant product. I think this is a self-help bill that is paid by the industry."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Canfield, Moon, and Newhouse speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative Conner speaking against it.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Reengrossed House Bill No. 382.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

For the duration of this extraordinary session of the legislature, it is my firm conviction that subsistence payments for the members of the legislature and the president of the Senate should be reduced from $40.00 to $25.00 per day. For that reason I am casting a negative vote for the appropriation bill.

FRANK J. WARNKE,
30th District.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Reason for my vote on Senate Bill No. 538:

Having voted before against all pay increases, I had intended to vote against Senate Bill No. 538 which continued the $40.00 per diem for the extraordinary session.

However, I had been called out on a phone call when the bill was read and did not know the bill continued the $40.00 per diem. When I found out that one section of the bill provided for the per diem it was too late to change my vote.

AUDLEY F. MAHAFFEY,
46th District.

On motion of Mr. O'Brien, Senate Bill No. 538 was ordered transmitted immediately to the Senate.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 16, by Committee on Rules and Joint Rules.

Establishing a time limitation for the consideration of bills.

On motion of Mr. O'Brien, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 16 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

Mr. Sawyer demanded a call of the House and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Bozarth, Copeland, Jolly, and Perry.

On motion of Mr. O'Brien, the absent members were excused, and the House proceeded with business under the call of the House.

Mr. O'Brien moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On line 2, after "on" and before "day" strike "Friday, the nineteenth" and insert

"Monday, the twenty-second" and on line 5, after "on" and before "day" strike "Tuesday, the twenty-third" and insert "Thursday, the twenty-fifth" and on line 8, after "on" and before "day" on line 9, strike "Tuesday, the twenty-third" and insert "Thursday the twenty-fifth" and on line 11, strike "congressional"

Debate ensued, Representative O'Brien speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. O'Brien yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. O'Brien?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. Andersen:

"Did my ears serve me correctly? Did you strike the word 'congressional' by this amendment and leave us to consider for the balance of the special session redistricting, period, including all redistricting?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"I wouldn't say all redistricting."

Mr. Andersen:

"That is what it says."

Mr. O'Brien:

"It just struck 'congressional.'"

MOTION

Mr. Brachtenbach moved that the question be divided and the matter of striking 'congressional' be separated from the remainder of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien:

"It appears to me that the amendment as set forth covers the areas, and it is not necessary to divide the question. The resolution itself contains limitations and also spells out the type of legislation that shall be considered. On that basis I believe the amendment is germane in its entirety."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Your point is well taken, Mr. O'Brien, and it is so ruled."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Burtch:

"I might point out by striking 'congressional' we can consider House Joint Resolution No. 25, which is automatic redistricting."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion to divide Mr. O'Brien's amendment to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 16, the dates to be in one amendment, and the striking of the word 'congressional' to be in another amendment.

The motion was lost on a rising vote.

Further debate ensued, Representative Andersen (James A.) speaking against the amendment, and Representative O'Brien speaking in favor of it.

Mr. McCormick demanded an oral roll call, and the demand was sustained. Further debate ensued, Representative Burtch speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. O'Brien yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. O'Brien?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. O'Brien, if I interpreted your remarks correctly, it is your intention that we would consider amending the redistricting bill which we passed during the regular session and make changes in it. Is that correct?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"We haven't completely decided, Dr. Adams, what we are going to do with the redistricting bill, but I can assure you that the county officials in my county are very concerned about it. It is creating quite a problem for them because they have lines going down the middle of the street, through the middle of houses, and so forth; so we are giving consideration to remedial legislation."

Mr. Adams:

"You can answer the question 'yes' or 'no.' Was it your statement that we consider or amend the redistricting bill which we just passed?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Further debate ensued, Representatives King (Richard "Dick"), Avey, O'Brien, and Smith speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Adams speaking against it.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Litchman:

"In answer to Dr. Adams, I would just like to state for the record, that there are many major school bills, Dr. Adams, that are still in Rules Committee, and I, as one among many, would like to see some of these passed. I gave Mr. Pritchard and other members of Rules a list just a few minutes ago of priority bills pertaining to the apportionment formula, pertaining to nonhigh districts, pertaining to some fifteen or twenty noncontroversial bills which in my opinion should be passed. I have seen some of the recommendations of labor that have not yet passed, and my personal concern, of course, is to pass badly needed legislation which we can't get to within the next few days. I would also like to state to you, Dr. Adams, that I have no intention to spend any time at all on redistricting but, nevertheless, I feel we should have time to consider all noncontroversial bills."

"Mr. Speaker, members of the House of Representatives of the State of Washington, all of you friendly Sons of St. Patrick, and Sons of Norway, and members of the Knute Rockne Club:

"I bear greetings from the government and people of Ireland to this wonderful state of the Pacific Coast with which we have many similarities in Ireland. I see you call yourselves the Evergreen State. We are the Emerald Island. You claim from time to time that your weather is sublime. You have mostly sunny days in Seattle, and all you have is a little moisture. We call it an occasional 'soft' day in Ireland.

"Dublin shares much with Olympia, particularly in the fact that your principal product is not dissimilar to ours.

"Ireland also is giving a little employment to some of the citizens of Seattle at the Boeing plant. I saw our new '707' aircraft which is going to be delivered shortly, the second one to our Irish Airlines fleet for transatlantic operations. I think we have been buying Boeings as far back as 1958, and we like them very much. We named them after our Saints, including St. Patrick. The one out there is St. Bridgette. We also take a great many of your Washington apples.

"In return we would like you to take our Irish tweeds (my wife is wearing a Donegal tweed today) and now and then try our excellent Irish beverage.

"So it is a great pleasure to come here today. I won't detain you longer. I understand you are having some serious matters to deal with. I can assure you that when my official visit is over, I will be coming back and traveling to Washington state for a vacation.

"May the blessings of St. Patrick be on you all."

The Speaker:

"Speaking on behalf of all the members of the House, it has certainly been a great honor to have Mr. and Mrs. Whelan with us today and we extend our very best wishes to the people of Ireland."

"For the purpose of this chapter, unless otherwise clearly indicated by the context, the terms used shall have the following meanings:

"(4) 'Agency' is defined as any person, firm, association or corporation, or any private institution, but not including foster homes, which receives for control, care, placement, or maintenance, minor children, and not including in the case of an individual, children related to such persons or under guardianship, but shall include within its scope the following:

"(a) A children's institution is defined as an establishment which is maintained and operated for the group care of children or which may accept custody and responsibility as required for the welfare of children under care. It shall not apply to any boarding school which is essentially and primarily engaged in educational work characterized by having education as its only function, operating on a definite school year schedule, following a stated academic curriculum, accepting only school-age children, and not accepting custody of children; nor to any nonprofit institution which is operated under adequate local control by an established board of laymen or by a church organization.

"(b) A child-placing agency is defined as an agency, society, association, institution or person not related by blood to the child placed, which places or supervises children in family homes or special institutions or arranges temporary or continued care for children or places a child or children for adoption.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Uhlman on a point of order.

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, is it not in order for the friends of the main measure itself to attempt to perfect it before an amendment such as this is offered which strikes, literally, the whole bill? I was just checking rapidly in Reed's Rules, section 144."

The Speaker:

"We have taken the amendments in order. It was my understanding the first amendment was Mr. Andersen's amendment."

Mr. Uhlman:

"My point is this: His amendment is obviously a very adverse amendment since it emasculates the bill. Is it not in order for the friends of the main bill to perfect it before the enemies get started and completely delete the bill?"

The Speaker:

"Which amendment are the friends of the bill advocating that has not been considered?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Well Representative Burtch has a good one, and it would be a deciding factor on whether Mr. Andersen would take drastic surgery. I call your attention to Reed's Rules, section 144, in the last part of the paragraph, 'Whenever a motion to strike out a paragraph and insert another is made, the friends of each paragraph have a right to amend so as to make it acceptable, beginning with the paragraph proposed to be stricken out.'"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Speaker rules that if the friends of the bill had had their amendment on the desk at the same time the amendment was offered by Mr. Andersen, the friends' amendment would be considered first. However, since the amendment by Mr. Andersen was on the desk and under consideration at the time the amendment by Mr. Burtch was presented, the amendment by Mr. Andersen would have to be defeated first and then the friends' amendment could be considered."

On motion of Mr. Bottiger, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

On page 1, section 1, subsection (4) (a), line 27, of the amendment, after "school" insert "approved by the superintendent of public instruction"

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Mr. Andersen as amended.

Debate ensued, Representatives Humiston and Chatalas speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Grant demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. King (Richard "Dick"):

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Andersen yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Andersen?"

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Indeed."

Mr. King:

"By asking for a valid tax exemption certificate issued by the internal revenue division, are you not in fact allowing a branch of the federal government to tell the state of Washington where it can license and where it can't? And if you agree with that, my next question is, would this be consistent with your own political philosophy or your party's philosophy?"

Mr. Andersen:

"I think that one thing has been notably clear here, that if there was any bill that did not involve partisan issues, this is perhaps the bill so far as this session is concerned. So far as the other aspect is concerned, I would remind you this is merely a means of determining in a simple fashion what a religious organization is, or a lay organization which should be exempt. The purpose is not to add additional exemptions; it is to narrow down the existing exemptions; that is the effect, if appropriately read."

Mr. Mahaffey demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Do I have the privilege of closing debate?"

The Speaker:

"Yes, I have ruled previously that the mover of an amendment could close debate."

The Clerk called the roll and the motion was carried and the amendment as amended was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 44; absent or not voting, 7.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Bledsoe, Brachtenbach, Canfield, Clark, Conner, Cunningham, Day, Dootson, Elder, Epton, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Grant, Hood, Huntley, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Juelling, King (Chet), Kink, Leland, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moon, Moos, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Sawyer, Swayze, Taylor, Wang, Warnke, Witherbee, Wolf—48.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Angevine, Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bottiger, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Chatalas, DeJarnatt, Eldridge, Gorton, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Humiston, Jastad, Kalich, King (Richard "Dick"), Kirk, Kull, Litchman, Lux, Lynch, Mahaffey, Morphis, Pierre, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Saling, Savage, Sheridan, Slagle, Smith, Taplin, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Whetzel, Mr. Speaker—44.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Bozarth, Copeland, Hurley, Jolly, Klein, Perry, Rogers—7.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Litchman on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Litchman:

"I don't know if it's apropos, but I'd like to point out that I think it is a shame that we here in the legislature have to be confronted with a mechanical problem once again. With the original votes, the amendment to the bill would have been defeated. Because of a mechanical failure and some time to deliberate, wisely or unwisely, the vote changed. This has happened previously. I was afraid it would happen again, and it did. And it will happen in the future. I just hope, frankly, that something can be done to take care of this thing right now, or eliminate the electrical voting machine until it is taken care of, and perhaps suggest that oral roll call votes be taken. It is extremely important to the people that we vote once. This happened a couple of years ago and a bill was defeated where it had passed originally."

The Speaker:

"It is the right of any member to ask for an oral roll call whenever he so desires."

On motion of Mr. Andersen (James A.), the following amendment to the title was adopted:

In line 2 of the title, after "RCW 74.14.010;" strike the balance of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 26, Laws of 1959 and to chapter 74.14 RCW; and providing penalties."

Substitute House Bill No. 272 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

During the thirty-ninth session and up to this date during the extraordinary session I have voted on every bill and every amendment, the only exception being from 4:00 p.m. to midnight on March 11th, during which period I was excused by the Speaker.

On electrical voting on intermittent occasions, due to malfunction of equipment, my vote did not register.

FRED R. MAST,
35th District.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Department of State, Office of the Secretary,
Olympia, Wash., March 19, 1965.

*To the Honorable, The Speaker of the House of Representatives,
The Legislature of the State of Washington, Olympia, Washington.*

SIR:

I have the honor to transmit herewith pursuant to Section 12, Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Washington, for the consideration of the House of Representatives, Enrolled House Bill No. 189 which has been vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto.

Respectfully,
A. LUDLOW KRAMER,
Secretary of State.
/s/ Stanley W. Worswick,
Assistant Secretary of State.

State of Washington, Office of the Governor,
Olympia, March 18, 1965.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington.
(Through the Secretary of State)

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval, House Bill No. 189 entitled:

"An Act relating to the Washington state dairy products commission; providing for the election of commission members; amending section 15.44.020, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.44.020; amending section 15.44.025, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.44.025; amending section 15.44.030, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.44.030; amending section 15.44.032, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.44.032; adding new sections to chapter 15.44 RCW; repealing section 15.44.034, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.44.034, and section 15.44.036, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.44.036; and declaring an emergency."

The bill provides that in 1966 and subsequent years, members of the Washington state dairy products commission will be elected by the producers of dairy products. Members currently are appointed by the Governor.

Section 4 of the bill sets forth the expiration dates of the terms of the members first elected under this amendatory act, when it is apparent that these dates were intended to be commencement dates for these terms. If the bill were approved in its present form, each group of newly elected members would hold office for less than one month. The vacancies thus created would be filled by appointment of the remaining members of the commission, who could thwart the will of the dairy products producers, if they wished.

Unfortunately, the defect in section 4 does not lend itself to correction by partial veto; therefore, I have vetoed the entire bill. This defect has been called to the attention of the sponsors of this legislation; and it is my understanding that a corrected measure will be submitted to the legislature during the extraordinary session.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL J. EVANS, Governor.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Burtch, Engrossed House Bill No. 189, together with the governor's veto message, was referred to the Committee on Rules and Order. (See Journal Appendix for Governor's veto messages.)

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Rogers?"

Mr. Rogers:

"I may have to bring my attorney here, but I'll be glad to."

Mr. Clark:

"Would you have an objection to changing the wording in the new section just added to 'either garbage or refuse' so that the average person reading would understand it a little better than 'garbage and/or refuse'?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Clark, this is a legal matter, prepared by Mr. Hayes, the assistant attorney general who is attached to the department of utilities; and I'm not certain, not being an attorney myself, what the legal effect of this would be. They have taken considerable care with this language in the committee, and in the preparation, and I have correspondence and documents he has presented to us in connection with this, so I would be rather reluctant to make a change in this technical language. However, if it's important to you, we could hold it over for a period of time and check with him."

Mr. Clark:

"It is not important to me, but I have always tried in drawing instruments to use common expressions rather than legal ones."

Debate ensued, Representative Smith speaking in favor of adoption of the committee amendment.

The motion was carried and the committee amendment on page 3, adding a new section 5 was adopted.

"If, upon application by a taxpayer for a refund or for an audit of his records, or upon an examination of the returns or records of any taxpayer, it is determined by the tax commission that within the two years immediately preceding the receipt of the commission of the application by the taxpayer for a refund or for an audit, or, in the absence of such an application, within the two years immediately preceding the commencement by the commission of such examination, a tax has been paid in excess of that properly due, the excess amount paid within such period of two years shall be credited to the taxpayer's account or shall be refunded to the taxpayer, at his option. Except as to the credits in computing tax authorized by section 1 of this 1965 amendatory act, no refund or credit shall be allowed with respect to any payments made to the commission more than two years before the date of such application or examination. Where a refund or credit may not be made because of the lapse of said two year period, the amount of the refund or credit which would otherwise be allowable for the portion of the statutory assessment period preceding the two year period may be offset against the amount of any tax deficiency which may be determined by the commission for such statutory assessment period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no refund or credit shall be granted with respect to taxes paid prior to May 1, 1950, but where a refund or credit may not be made because the tax was paid prior to May 1, 1950, the amount of the refund or credit which would otherwise be allowable for the portion of the statutory assessment period preceding May 1, 1950, may be offset against the amount of any tax deficiency which may be determined by the commission for such preceding period.

"Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations there shall be refunded or credited to taxpayers engaged in the performance of United States government contracts or subcontracts the amount of any tax paid, measured by that portion of the amounts received from the United States, which taxpayer is required by contract or applicable federal statute to refund or credit to the United States, if claim for such refund is filed by the taxpayer with the tax commission within one year of the date that the amount of the refund or credit due to the United States is finally determined and filed within four years of the date on which the tax was paid: Provided, That no interest shall be allowed on such refund.

"Any such refunds shall be made by means of vouchers approved by the tax commission and by the issuance of state warrants drawn upon and payable from such funds as the legislature may provide.

"Any judgment for which a recovery is granted by any court of competent jurisdiction, not appealed from, for tax, penalties, and interest which were paid by the taxpayer, and costs, in a suit by any taxpayer shall be paid in like manner, upon the filing with the tax commission of a certified copy of the order or judgment of the court. Except as to the credits in computing tax authorized by section 1 of this 1965 amendatory act, interest at the rate of three percent per annum shall be allowed by the tax commission and by any court on the amount of any refund or recovery allowed to a taxpayer for taxes, penalties, or interest paid by him after May 1, 1949, and interest at the same rate shall be allowed on any judgment recovered by a taxpayer for taxes, penalties, or interest paid after such date."

"Sec. 2. Section 35.43.180, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.43.180 are each amended to read as follows:

"The jurisdiction of the legislative authority of a city or town to proceed with any local improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested by a protest filed with the city or town council within thirty days from the date of passage of the ordinance ordering the improvement, signed by the owners of the property within the proposed local improvement district subject to sixty percent or more of the total cost of the improvement, including costs borne by the city or town, and including federally-owned or other nonassessable property as shown and determined by the preliminary estimates and assessment roll of the proposed improvement district or, if all or part of the local improvement district lies outside of the city or town, such jurisdiction shall be divested by a protest filed in the same manner and signed by the owners of property which is within the proposed local improvement district but outside the boundaries of the city or town and which is subject to sixty percent or more of that part of the total cost of the improvement allocable to property within the proposed local improvement district but outside the boundaries of the city or town, including federally-owned or other nonassessable property: Provided, That such restraint by protest shall not apply to any local improvement by sanitary sewers where the health officer of any city or town shall file with the legislative authority thereof a report showing the necessity for such improvement and such legislative body finds and recites in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the improvement that such improvement is necessary for the protection of the public health and safety and such ordinance or resolution is passed by unanimous vote of all members present."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Representative Epton, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House do now reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Mr. Smith to House Bill No. 361 was not adopted.

The motion was lost.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Moos on a point of parliamentary procedure.

Mr. Moos:

"The vote for reconsideration brought a point to mind. I believe Representative Burch moved that all bills that had passed be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

If we follow this right to the letter, it would preclude anyone the opportunity for reconsideration of vote. Possibly you should make a ruling now before you get in a close vote where some member wanted reconsideration."

The Speaker:

"When we move to transmit the bills to the Senate, the motion would be open to discussion at that time. I think it is good to bring it to the attention of the House that this could take place, however."

Mr. Moos:

"Maybe I overestimate the speed that we transmit these bills."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Mr. Adams:

"Doesn't the motion apply to those bills we have passed, not the ones we are going to pass?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Moos's point, I believe, is that on close votes, if a particular member wanted to reconsider a vote at a particular time, if the bill had been transmitted to the Senate, he would not have the right to reconsider because the bill would not be in the possession of the House."

Mr. Adams:

"One of the motions that we will use in order to stop reconsideration is the motion that the bill be immediately transmitted to the Senate. Now has that already been done for all future bills we will have this afternoon?"

The Speaker:

"No, the motion that Mr. Burtch made was to transmit to the Senate immediately all bills which were passed by the House up to that time, not bills passed later this afternoon."

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 361 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Valle speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 361, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 92; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 6.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Pritchard:

"I wonder if I could ask Representative Conner, as one of the sponsors, what is the attitude of the State Health Department on this bill, and what are their plans for carrying it out? I think our concern here is one of what can be done effectively by it."

Mr. Conner:

"This bill was drawn in conjunction with, and with the approval of, the state health department, Dr. Bucove, and Dr. Bassett. It would be carried out through the crippled children's service program. They feel that the sum of $100,000 would adequately take care of a pilot study. We are not asking for any funds, however, at this particular time. We would like to have this bill passed and sent to the Senate so that the Ways and Means Committee could see that the funds will be placed in the budget for this particular program."

Further debate ensued, Representative Adams speaking against passage of the bill.

Mr. Burtch demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 449, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 81; nays, 8; absent or not voting, 10.

On page 1, section 1, line 7, after "of any" and before "county" strike "class AA"

Debate ensued, Representative Olsen speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Clark:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Olsen yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Will you yield, Mr. Olsen?"

Mr. Olsen:

"Yes."

Mr. Clark:

"Mr. Olsen, do they need this legislation? Cannot the county commissioners confer with each other, and the city officials as well, without the state passing through the legislature this kind of an act?"

Mr. Olsen:

"Mr. Clark, the governmental conference we have had between the four counties and the four cities has been very successful. It is their desire to continue this in other parts of the state, and the counties also want to continue it. That is the reason for the bill."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, may I ask Mr. Olsen a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Mr. Olsen, will you yield to a question from Mr. Canfield?"

Mr. Olsen:

"Yes."

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Olsen, if this amendment should be adopted striking 'class AA', you would need the next few words stricken also, or it would read 'any county and any counties contiguous thereto.' I think your intent is to make it available to any county, so I think you would need a correction of wording."

Mr. Olsen:

"Well, I checked that with the bill drafters, and they said 'any county and any counties contiguous thereto.'"

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Olsen, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, section 3, line 1, after "agency" and before "for" insert "including neighboring states or their political subdivisions"

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Olsen moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, after section 4, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Any city, town, or county may establish a youth agency to investigate, advise and act on, within the powers of that municipality, problems relating to the youth of that community, including employment, educational, economic and recreational opportunities, juvenile delinquency and dependency, and other youth problems and activities as that municipality may determine. Any city, town, or county may contract with any other city, town, or county to jointly establish such a youth agency."

Debate ensued, Representatives Olsen, Sheridan, and Clark speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Eldridge speaking against it.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Sheridan:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Clark yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Clark?"

Mr. Clark:

"Yes."

Mr. Sheridan:

"I am glad you think this is such a good bill. All the attorneys in the areas involved seem to feel they do need this in order to carry out the program. Would you have any objection?"

Mr. Clark:

"Of course they understand human nature too, perhaps, and want the bill so they will have the privilege of pushing people a bit, but it is much more effective in these troubled areas particularly, if people act on a voluntary basis, on a block or community level, a group of people who want the rest of the society to approve."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Johnston (Elmer E.) and Perry speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Grant demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Anderson (Eric O.) demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mr. DeJarnatt, the committee amendments were adopted.

House Bill No. 448 was ordered engrossed.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 448 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Conner speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Grant:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. O'Brien would yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. O'Brien, will you yield?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. Grant:

"Mr. O'Brien, you are an expert on records, and I was wondering, do you see any necessity for this particular piece of legislation that requires all these records to be kept in a state department? I think (correct me if I'm wrong) that these records are now kept in the county offices. Is this, in your opinion, a vital piece of legislation?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Well, Mr. Grant, I believe this bill has a great deal of merit. Mr. Conner has explained it in detail and at some length. It just streamlines the handling of vital statistics. Anything you do along this line is good government, and I think it improves the procedure and provides for a fee. I think it's all right. As a matter of fact, I'd like to have you give it your wholehearted support."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Conner yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Conner?"

Mr. Conner:

"Yes."

Mr. Smith:

"I didn't get your comments on what real need there was for this legislation, or who was asking for a measure like this to be placed into law."

Mr. Conner:

"Mr. Smith, I have had requests written to me personally, and perhaps other legislators in rural areas have also, in which some serviceman in North Carolina, Virginia, or some other state back east has written back wondering what county he got married in, or if his wife got a divorce in that county. In Port Angeles and Port Townsend, this is a problem. If we had a central registry, it would eliminate a lot of the problems we are having at the present time. Veterans' organizations are vitally interested in this for servicemen who are not sure which county they were married in, or where a death in the family occurred, etc., so this would simplify the registry. We already have a department set up for this so there would be very little additional work."

Further debate ensued, Representative Marzano speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 448, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 77; nays, 11; absent or not voting, 11.

Providing for rules concerning equipment in trailer coaches.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Grant, Substitute House Bill No. 411 was substituted for House Bill No. 411, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 411 was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mr. Perry, the following amendment was adopted:

"Will you yield to question, Miss O'Donnell?"

Miss O'Donnell:

"Yes."

Mr. Canfield:

"I am in favor of this bill, so don't misunderstand, but do your remarks apply to such things as light bulbs and mirrors?"

Miss O'Donnell:

"No, this applies only to outside glass windows and door windows."

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Klein moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 3, line 15, strike "or camping vehicle"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Klein:

"I think it would be well if a couple of questions a number of us have might be cleared up by the proponents of the bill. What we are concerned with is—we note the bill originally referred to mobile homes, the substitute bill refers to mobile homes and travel trailers, then back in new section 3 we find the new phrase 'camping vehicle.' I wonder if one of the sponsors would enlighten us what is meant by these several different terms?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Witherbee, would you care to answer Mr. Klein's question?"

Mr. Witherbee:

"I think what you are concerned about is a camping vehicle that you yourself would make at home. This isn't what we are talking about. We are talking about campers on pickup trucks."

Mr. Klein:

"That answers my question in part. I think my amendment is self-explanatory and I will leave it to the discretion of the House. I don't think we need to legislate down to every little vehicle we have."

Debate ensued, Representative O'Donnell speaking in opposition to the amendment.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Perry moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 7, line 4, after "prescribed" strike "by this state, he may so provide" and insert "in section one of this act, he shall approve"

Debate ensued, Representatives Perry and Canfield speaking in favor of the amendment.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

Substitute House Bill No. 411 was ordered engrossed.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 411 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Grant and Canfield speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Harris:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Grant or Mr. Perry yield to a question? If this bill is so good, why didn't you include boats, thermos bottles, etc., in with the trucks?"

The Speaker:

"Would you care to answer the question, Mr. Grant?"

Mr. Grant:

"I would be glad to reply. I think your question, Mr. Harris, is somewhat facetious. Certainly the departments of labor and industries in other states have found it most desirable to provide certain standards as far as heating and wiring, etc., in travel trailers and mobile homes. To go into the area of thermos bottles certainly is not a serious question. As far as boats are concerned, I don't know, but perhaps at the next session of the legislature you might want to make such a recommendation in bill form."

Further debate ensued, Representative Harris speaking against passage of the bill, and Representative Perry speaking in favor of its passage.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 411, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 88; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 7.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Game and Game Fish, to whom was referred House Bill No. 206, imposing in lieu tax on state game lands and eliminating partial payments of hunting fines and forfeitures to counties, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 4, section 4, line 14, after "benefit of" strike "public schools, public roads, or for"

JACK L. BURTCH, Chairman,
W. S. "BILL" TRAYLOR, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: C. W. "Red" Beck, Stewart Bledsoe, Horace W. Bozarth, Richard "Dick" King, Alfred E. Leland, Fred R. Mast, Donald W. Moos, George P. Sheridan.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

The Speaker called on Mr. Garrett to preside.

On motion of Mr. Moos, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Moos, the following amendment was adopted:

Strike all of section 1 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On motion of Mr. Moos, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, following section 2 add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 36, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 77.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The board of county commissioners of each county may elect, upon written notice given to the director prior to January 1st of any year, to obtain for the following year an amount in lieu of real estate taxes on game lands equal to that which would be paid on similar parcels of real estate situated in the county. Upon such election the total of all fines and bail forfeitures received by the county during the following year under RCW 77.12.170 shall be transmitted to the director. The election shall continue until the game department is notified differently prior to January 1st of any year."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. King (Chet):

"Will Mr. Moos answer a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Will you answer a question from Mr. King?"

Mr. Moos:

"Certainly."

Mr. King:

"The only thing I am concerned about is what about a county that doesn't have state game lands. Do they have to forget any fines, or percentage of fines collected?"

Mr. Moos:

"I believe not, Representative King, and if that is the case, I will find out, and before it is processed in the Senate I will give an answer. I believe we had legislators from counties that would have that particular problem at our meeting, and I think it would have been brought to light, but if there is a problem on that, I will make sure you have the information."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Perhaps Mr. Wolf could answer Mr. King's question."

Mr. Wolf:

"Mr. Speaker, the purpose of the entire amendment is to make the act elective so the county commissioners can say, 'We would rather have the game funds,' or they can say, 'We have lands over a hundred acres; we better have taxes in lieu of the game fines.' In the case of King county, I am sure they will elect to keep the fines because they don't have any property over one hundred acres."

Debate ensued, Representative Sheridan speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. King (Richard "Dick"):

"I wonder if Mr. Moos or Mr. Wolf would respond to a question. The general question that I have (I recall in committee I posed the question to the game department) is what effect would this bill have on their financial situation? The answer in committee was with the two things occurring, the fines coming back to the game department and the loss of taxes, would balance each other out. Now you are amending the bill in such a way to leave it up to the counties, and it seems to me there would be a drain of funds, resulting in a decrease of operating funds of the Game Department. Would this occur, and if so, would it have a serious effect on the operation of the department?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Mr. Wolf, will you answer Mr. King's question?"

Mr. Wolf:

"The effect of the committee amendment was to take a few of the game lands out of this act, and when they took out the fish hatchery, game farm, and tide lands, they got a little more money, and we are taking it back."

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Moos, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

In line 4 of the title, after "lands;" and before "amending" on line 5, strike "amending section 77.12.170, chapter 36, Laws of 1955 and RCW 77.12.170;"

On motion of Mr. Moos, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

In line 7 of the title, after "chapter" and before the comma, strike "77.12" and insert "36"

House Bill No. 206 was ordered engrossed.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 206 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Beck speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Kull:

"Will Representative Beck yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Mr. Beck, will you yield?"

Mr. Beck:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Kull:

"Does this bill initiate any kind of a new policy? Is there any loss of funds to the game department over this?"

Mr. Beck:

"Not substantially. At the present time whenever a person is picked up by a game warden for violating a game law, he pays a fine. Fifty percent of these fines have been going to the counties, into the counties' general funds for the purpose of processing the enforcement of the law and to the courts, and it paid for jail terms in case a jail sentence was handed out. It has been so long since they have had anyone in jail for this that it has been a windfall to the county. Some of the counties which receive substantial amounts of money in fines don't even have any game lands in their counties. Others have large holdings of game lands, but there are very few fines in those counties. This bill has been the result of an extremely careful study for many years, and in the interest of keeping good relations with the county officials and with sportsmen's groups, the game department has requested this bill. They are the ones who initiated it and there are very little funds involved."

"Representative Gorton, would you yield?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Pritchard:

"Representative Gorton, did you or did the governor ever favor this bill, this proposition?"

Mr. Gorton:

"I have never discussed this proposition with the governor, Representative Pritchard, and so I couldn't speak for him on that. He has never indicated that he favored this particular proposal to me. So far as my own attitude is concerned, Mr. Klein introduced a similar bill two years ago when I was chairman of the committee and I felt it had some merit, but certainly I did not endorse it. I also suggested to him earlier in the session some changes that would improve this bill. I did not receive the courtesy of a reply from him. I suggested some amendments to the Committee on Ways and Means, directed at the most dangerous parts of the act, that the commission will make recommendations, which I think will hurt its chances. The Committee on Ways and Means adopted them and then changed their minds at a later meeting. I was informed about ten minutes ago of that fact by Mr. DeJarnatt. The answer of course is no, I did not favor this bill in the past. I think there is some merit in some circumstances to collect this particular kind of information. I don't think we need to do it with one hundred thousand dollars. I think the provision in this bill which calls for the recommendation of a specific constitution by this commission is designed, not deliberately designed, but at least it will have the direct effect of adversely affecting a successful call of a constitutional convention."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Pritchard and Hurley speaking against passage of the bill, and Representative Burtch speaking in favor of it.

MOTION

Mr. Morphis moved that further consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 7 be deferred, and the bill be placed on the third reading calendar immediately following House Joint Resolution No. 12.

38th District.

House Bill No. 342, by Representatives Sawyer, May, and Perry:

"Mrs. Hurley?"

Mrs. Hurley:

"No."

The Speaker:

"No, she doesn't yield."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Perry yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you answer a question, Mr. Perry?"

Mr. Perry:

"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Perry, I'm sorry I didn't look at this act until now. Isn't this narrowing the field down a lot when you have to be an electrical engineer to be a contractor?"

Mr. Perry:

"No, the additional amendment said that you may also be an electrical engineer. The actual criteria is four years being in the trade. There isn't any exclusion. I see what you meant—the way the act read it said 'possess an electrical engineer's degree;' but previous to this it also says 'evidence of five years' practical experience in the electrical industry,' which is no problem in the trade."

Further debate ensued, Representative Dootson speaking against passage of the bill .

"At any election or primary, any voter may write in on the ballot [or paste thereto] the name of any person for whom he desires to vote for any office and such vote shall be counted the same as if the name had been printed on the ballot and marked by the voter: PROVIDED, That when voting machines are used, no write-in vote for any candidate for a partisan office at either a state primary election or state general election shall be valid unless a political party affiliation is also written by the voter after the candidate's name. The same procedure must be followed when paper ballots are used for partisan offices at a state primary election. For such write-in voting, it shall not be necessary for a voter to write the full name of the political party concerned. Any abbreviation including the first letter of the political party name shall be acceptable as long as the precinct election officers can determine to their satisfaction the person voted for and the political party intended.

"[Provided, That no] Any person who is nominated at any primary election as a write-in candidate for any public office but who has not previously paid the regular filing fee shall not have his name printed on the official ballot for the general election unless, within [ten] five days after the official canvass of the primary vote, he executes a declaration of candidacy and pays the same fee required by law to be paid by candidates for filing [a declaration of candidacy] for the office for which he has been nominated.

"Sec. 15. Section 29.51.100, chapter, Laws of 1965 (Senate Bill No. 5) and RCW 29.51.100 are each amended to read as follows:

"On receipt of his ballot in an election the elector shall forthwith and without leaving the polling place retire alone to one of the places, booths, or apartments provided to prepare his ballot. Each elector shall prepare his ballot by marking a cross 'X' after the name of every person or candidate for whom he wishes to vote.

"In case of a ballot containing a constitutional amendment or other question to be submitted to the vote of the people the voter shall mark a cross 'X' after the question, for or against the amendment or proposition, as the case may be. Any elector may write in the blank spaces [, or paste over any other name,] the name of any person for whom he may wish to vote: PROVIDED, That where a partisan office is concerned, the voter must not only write in the name of the candidate but also the party affiliation of such person pursuant to the provisions of RCW 29.51.170 as now or hereafter amended.

"Before leaving the booth or compartment the elector shall fold his ballot in such a manner that the number of the ballot shall appear on the outside thereof, without displaying the marks on the face thereof, and deliver it to the inspector of election.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter, Laws of 1965 (Senate Bill No. 5) and to chapter 29.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"Votes cast by stickers or printed label shall not be valid for any purpose and shall be rejected: Provided, That such action shall not jeopardize the remaining portion of the voter's ballot."

On motion of Mr. Grant, the following amendments by Mr. Conner to the title were adopted:

In line 1 of the title, after "sections" insert "29.13.080,"

In line 4 of the title, after "RCW" insert "29.13.080,"

On motion of Mr. Grant, the following amendments by Representatives McCaffree and Lynch to the title were adopted:

In line 2 of title, after "29.45.060," insert "29.51.100, 29.51.170,"

House Bill No. 377 was ordered engrossed.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 377 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Grant speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

The Speaker resumed the chair.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Clark:

"Would the Speaker ask the Clerk to reread the underlined portion of the Lynch-McCaffree amendment. This amendment was not distributed, and I think every member should know what he is voting on."

The Clerk read the underlined portion of the amendment by Representatives McCaffree and Lynch.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Savage:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if the chairman of the committee would yield to a question?"

Mr. Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Grant?"

Mr. Grant:

"Yes."

Mr. Savage:

"I know on page 3, line 5, that it is going to be necessary for the county chairman of the central committee to submit a list of their election people sixty days ahead instead of fifteen days. It seems to me this is going to be a difficult thing to do, and I wonder why it's necessary to have such a long time. It's hard enough to get the list completed fifteen days prior to the election, let alone sixty days. Why such a long time?"

Mr. Grant:

"We have in the past had at least sixty days, and it has been changed to fifteen days, but this has proved to be inadequate. This bill also provides that the county chairman has authority to substitute names recommended by the precinct committeemen if in his judgment the persons are not qualified to serve, so I think that might help alleviate difficulties that might arise."

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 377, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 92; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 6.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Angevine, Backstrom, Beck, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Conner, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Elder, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, Juelling, Kalich, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lux, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pierre, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Sawyer, Sheridan, Smith, Swayze, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Wang, Warnke, Whetzel, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—92.

Those voting nay were: Representative Savage—1.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Anderson (Eric O.), Avey, Berentson, Copeland, Klein, Slagle—6.

House Bill No. 378, by Representatives Grant, Gorton, and Elder:
Appointing members of political parties as deputy voter registrars.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 2, 1965.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Constitution, Elections, and Reapportionment, to whom was referred House Bill No. 378, appointing members of political parties as deputy voter registrars, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 21, after "made" and before the period, insert "from among citizens of the city to be charged"

GARY GRANT, Chairman,
HAYES ELDER, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Ted Bottiger, Frank B. Brouillet, Arlie U. DeJarnatt, Slade Gorton, William J. S. May, Mary Ellen McCaffree, Bob McDougall, Donald W. Moos, Charles E. Newschwander, W. O. E. "Bill" Radcliffe, Wesley C. Uhlman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mr. Grant, the committee amendment was adopted.

Mr. Brachtenbach moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 1, beginning on line 7, after "section" strike "and their duly authorized representatives"

Debate ensued, Representatives Brachtenbach and Gorton speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Grant speaking against it.

On request of Mr. Moon, the Speaker asked the Clerk to reread the amendment.

Mr. Grant stated that he withdrew his objections to the amendment.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Taplin and Valle speaking in opposition to the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Brachtenbach would yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Brachtenbach?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Brachtenbach, would you explain what the purpose of this bill is so far as the newly appointed registrars are concerned?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"I am not a sponsor of the bill, but I would gather that the purpose would be to allow each major political party to nominate registration officers in each legislative district. Now I have no actual quarrel with this, and Representative Taplin has a good point that there are many people such as people in rest homes who should be allowed greater freedom of registration. My purpose for the amendment is that as I would read the bill, if I were appointed as a registration officer, I could appoint a thousand people in my district to go around and register anybody they wanted. If we could be certain there would be proper designation of those people, and if we had some control over it, fine; but I do object to the idea that a single registration officer duly appointed can then go out and appoint unlimited numbers of people, with resulting confusion in voting records and everything else."

Further debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative Elder speaking in favor of it.

MOTION

Mr. Litchman moved that the House defer further consideration of House Bill No. 278 on second reading, and the bill be made a special order of business at 5:45 p. m. today.

The motion was lost on a rising vote.

Mr. Smith demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Mr. Brachtenbach.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

Mrs. Hurley moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 1, line 9, after "ner," strike "including contracting prospective voters at their residence and place of employment, and further,"

Debate ensued, Representatives Hurley and Dootson speaking in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Grant and Smith speaking against it.

Mr. Kalich demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Uhlman moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, following section 2, add a new section as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 29.07.160, chapter, Laws of 1965 (Senate Bill No. 5) and RCW 29.07.160 are each amended to read as follows:

"The registration files of all precincts shall be closed against original registration or transfer for thirty days immediately preceding every election and primary to be held in such precincts, respectively [, but they shall remain open for an additional fifteen days for transfers of registration from one precinct within a city or town to another precinct in the same city or town and for transfers of registration from one rural precinct to another rural precinct in the same county].

"The county auditor shall give notice of the closing of said files for original registration and transfer by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county at least five days before such closing."

Debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking in favor of the amendment, and Representative Savage speaking against it.

Mr. Burtch demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained. The motion was lost on a rising vote, and the amendment was not adopted.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, without a change in the rules, is it possible for the limitation of time in debate by the Speaker?"

The Speaker:

"Under our present rules, there is a limitation of three minutes after the fiftieth day. We could construe that it is after the fiftieth day, even though we are in special session. There are no rules governing this for the special session; however, I would hope that we could limit speeches to three minutes."

House Bill No. 378 was ordered engrossed.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 378 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Removing requirement that school district boundaries be co-extensive with city boundaries.

With the consent of the House the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and House Bill No. 132 was placed on final passage.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Bottiger:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Gorton or Mr. Dootson yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Dootson do you want to yield to a question?"

Mr. Dootson:

"I presume it's on the bill."

Mr. Bottiger:

"The point I make by way of a question is, in House Bill No. 104 we had a provision allowing school district boundaries which were coexistent with junior college districts to be considered separate school districts. Now we are apparently removing the requirement. Is there any conflict?"

Mr. Dootson:

"I hadn't thought of it before, I have to think just a moment. What this bill does is to relieve a situation, and I think the same would apply to junior college districts, that is, at the present time if you incorporate a new town or new community, the schools in that community cannot lie within two separate school districts; therefore, when a new town is formed, the children will be uprooted from one district to another, because you cannot have two school districts within the same town. That has occurred in a few instances, especially up in Snohomish County where the new town of Brier was formed. Because of the formation of this town, there were about one hundred students who would have to leave the Northshore District and go to Edmonds. Northshore is not overcrowded, but Edmonds is. So this worked a hardship."

Debate ensued, Representative Gorton speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 132, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 91; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 7.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Brouillet, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Conner, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Elder, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Gallagher, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Johnson (Elmer E.), Jolly, Jueling, Kalich, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Klein, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lux, Lynch, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moon, Moos, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pierre, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Savage, Sawyer, Sheridan, Slagle, Smith, Swayze, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Wang, Warnke, Whetzel, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—91.

Those voting nay were: Representative Morphis—1.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Berentson, Braun, Burtch, Copeland, Garrett, Huntley, Mahaffey—7.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Hawley:

"I wonder if Representative Lux would yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Would you yield to a question, Mrs. Lux?"

Mrs. Lux:

"Yes."

Mr. Hawley:

"What would be the general purpose of the bill in connection with community colleges?"

Mrs. Lux:

"It is not my understanding that this would affect community colleges, but rather the other institutions of higher education, and that this commission would be empowered to set up a priority list for the distribution of federal funds for the project within the state."

Mr. Hawley:

"A little further, if you will, if they set up the distribution of funds, does this mean they would have some control over the funds, or is it an advisory group, or what exactly is it?"

Mrs. Lux:

"I am certain they would have some control in the extent to which they develop the priority list. Would the chairman of the Higher Education Committee care to answer?"

Mr. Kink:

"I will try to answer Mr. Hawley's question. This would be only in an advisory capacity, and would have no control over the funds, Mr. Hawley."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Newhouse:

"Would Mr. Uhlman yield to a question?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes, I will yield, but I haven't been following the debate."

Mr. Newhouse:

"This seems to involve some expenditure. Shouldn't this have gone through your committee? There is no appropriation mentioned, but it says help could be employed, expenses incurred, etc."

Mr. Uhlman:

"I suspect there is no line item appropriation because of the action taken by the House earlier that this would be taken up at a later date if there were."

Further debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking in favor of the bill.

Mr. Clark demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker:

"I think that the members of the House are well aware of the traditions of the House; the Speaker will not make any comment other than that."

Provides for open space lands in urban areas.

Mr. Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 3, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the 'Open Space Land Act of 1965.'

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The following terms whenever used or referred to in this act shall have the following meanings unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context:

"(1) 'Public body' means the state, county, city, town, or metropolitan park district.

"(2) 'Urban area' means any area which is urban in character, including surrounding areas which form an economic and socially related region, taking into consideration such factors as present and future population trends and patterns of urban growth, location of transportation facilities and systems, and distribution of industrial, commercial, residential, governmental, institutional and other activities.

"(3) 'Open space land' means any land which is provided or preserved for (a) park or recreational purposes, viewpoint or green belt purposes, (b) the conservation of land or other natural resources, or (c) historic, scenic, or view purposes.

"(4) 'Comprehensive planning' means planning for development of an urban area and shall include (a) preparation, as a guide for long range development, of general physical plans with respect to facilities, including transportation facilities, together with long-range fiscal plans for such development; (b) programming and financing plans for capital improvements; (c) coordination of all related plans and planned activities at both the intragovernmental and intergovernmental levels; and (d) preparation of regulatory and administrative measures in support of the foregoing.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature finds that the rapid growth and spread of urban development are creating critical problems of service and finance for the state and local governments; that the present and future rapid population growth in urban areas is creating severe problems of urban sprawl; that the provision and preservation of permanent open space land are necessary to help curb urban sprawl, to prevent the spread of urban blight and deterioration, to encourage and assist more economic and desirable urban development, to help provide or preserve necessary park, recreational, historic and scenic areas, and to conserve land and other natural resources; that the acquisition of interests and rights in real property by public bodies to provide or preserve permanent open space land is essential to the solution of these problems, the accomplishment of these purposes, and the health, welfare, comfort, and convenience of the citizens of the state; and that the exercise of authority to acquire interests and rights in real property to provide or preserve permanent open space land and the expenditure of public funds for these purposes would be for a public purpose.

Pursuant to these findings, the legislature states that the purposes of this act are to authorize and enable public bodies to provide and preserve permanent open space land in urban areas in order to assist in the solution of the problems and the attainment of the objectives stated in its findings. The legislature also declares that it is the continuing policy and responsibility of the state that state park, highway, recreation, conservation and other land programs be carried out in such fashion as to assist in guiding the growth of the urban areas, preserving park and recreation sites, and providing buffers of open land between developed portions of cities and metropolitan areas.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. To carry out the purposes of this act, any public body may acquire, by purchase, gift, devise, bequest, grant or exchange, title to or any interests or rights in real property which will provide means for the preservation or provision of permanent open space land. Any acquisition of real property for permanent open space land shall conform to comprehensive planning being actively carried on for the area in which the property is located.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The powers granted herein to the state shall be exercised by the parks and recreation commission, game commission or highway commission in accordance with the state-wide outdoor recreation and open space plan without limitation to an urban area.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. No open space land, the title to, or interest or right in which has been acquired under this act shall be converted or diverted from open space land use unless the conversion or diversion is determined by the public body to be (a) in accordance with the program of comprehensive planning for the urban area in effect at the time of conversion or diversion and (b) other real property of at least equal fair market value and of, as nearly as feasible, equivalent usefulness and location for use as permanent open space land shall be substituted within a reasonable period not exceeding one year for any real property converted or diverted from open space land use.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A public body shall have all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes and provisions of this act, including the power:

"(1) To borrow funds and make expenditures necessary to carry out the purposes of this act;

"(2) To advance or accept advances of public funds:

"(3) To apply for and accept and utilize grants and any other assistance from the United States or the state and any other public or private sources, to give such security as may be required and to enter into and carry out contracts or agreements in connection with such assistance, and to include in any contract for assistance from the United States or the state such conditions imposed pursuant to federal or state laws as the public body may deem reasonable and appropriate and which are not inconsistent with the purposes of this act:

"(4) To make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers under this act;

"(5) In connection with the real property acquired or designated for the purposes of this act, to provide or to arrange or contract for the provision, construction, maintenance, operation, or repair by any person or agency, public or private, of services, privileges, works, streets, roads, public utilities or other facilities or structures that may be necessary to the provision, preservation, maintenance and management of the property as open space land;

"(6) To insure or provide for the insurance of any real or personal property or operations of the public body against any risks or hazards, and to pay premiums on the insurance;

"(7) To exercise any or all of its functions and powers under this act jointly or cooperatively with one or more other public bodies, and to enter into agreements for joint or cooperative action.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Where an interest in real property less than the fee is held by a public body for the purposes of this act, assessments made on the property for taxation shall reflect only the true and fair market value of the interest in the property held by persons other than the public body.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The Legislative Council is hereby authorized and directed to undertake a study of the methods by which public bodies engaged in comprehensive planning may best provide means for the preservation of permanent open space land, including, but not limited to consideration of:

"(1) Methods for equitable and fair exchanges between various units of government, and between such units and private landowners of lands suitable for preserving urban open spaces;

"(2) Methods for acquisition or designation of interests and rights in real property, less than the entire fee interest in said property; and

"(3) Methods for providing incentives to various landowners for the preservation of privately owned lands as open spaces. The Legislative Council shall study and recommend procedures for the determination of methods of valuation and tax assessment on those lands preserved for permanent open spaces, where the public body acquires less than the entire fee interest in said property. The results of the study and the recommendations be presented to the fortieth session of the legislature for its consideration.

"The section you are talking about is on page 12 of the substitute bill and applies only to cars, such as cars from the south or east or from Canada, which do not belong to the Pacific Northwest railroad lines, such as the Northern Pacific. These cars come down from Canada or from the east hauling freight and then are returned by another railroad hauling freight, and while they are being used by the company that does not own them, they are under lease to the railroad that carries them back."

"No, it is in the same area. This was passed upon by the timber people and by Weyerhaeuser, who were particularly concerned, and they are satisfied with it."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to address a question to Mr. Gorton."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes."

Mr. Canfield:

"I think in every sales contract I have seen there is a provision that says in the fine print if a real estate agent brings me a valid contract, if he brings me a willing buyer who meets the specifications, I must accept that deal or, at any rate, pay his commission. Would you care to comment on that?"

Mr. Gorton:

"That is a standard form of contract, Mr. Canfield, and if you had signed a listing agreement for your home at, say, twenty-five thousand dollars, and if a Negro made an offer through the real estate broker of twenty-five thousand dollars and met every other requirement in the listing agreement, if you turned it down, then the real estate broker would have, technically, earned his commission. This, as most real estate brokers know, very rarely happens. The offer is usually somewhat lower than the listing. But under those circumstances, if a real estate broker wishes to enforce it, your discrimination could cost you a commission. With the attitude that the real estate brokers have shown toward this legislation, I think that the chances that any one of them would try to enforce the commission provision is exceedingly remote."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Pritchard and Smith speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Morphis, Bergh, and Adams speaking against its passage.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained on a rising vote.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 200, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 72; nays, 22; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Backstrom, Beck, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Bozarth, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Chatalas, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Elder, Epton, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garrett, Gorton, Grant, Haussler, Hood, Humiston, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Jolly, Kalich, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Klein, Kull, Litchman, Lux, Lynch, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moon, Moos, Newhouse, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Savage, Sawyer, Sheridan, Smith, Swayze, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Warnke, Whetzel, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—72.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Avey, Berentson, Bergh, Brachtenbach, Clark, Eldridge, Goldsworthy, Harris, Hawley, Huntley, Hurley, Johnson, Johnston (Elmer E.), Jueling, Leland, Morris, O'Dell, Pierre, Wang, Wolf—22.

It has been mentioned that House Bill No. 200 is an emotional bill. This may be true, but it is more than that. It is a real blow against the livelihood of every real estate broker and salesman in the state of Washington. In addition, this bill is another strike against the freedoms our forefathers gave us as our heritage.

The proponents for this measure claim it will help minority races to secure adequate housing. This is not true, as there are hundreds of houses now available. There are over four hundred houses in Seattle now, and in nearly every city of our state on which the Federal Housing Administration has foreclosed the mortgages. The friends of this bill claim they are opposed to discrimination, and so am I. This bill is the worst form of discrimination against a small group of people who are in the real estate profession. Our stock in trade is listings. This measure would actually stop the brokers or salesmen from securing listings, unless they could pressure the owners into selling to anyone who might qualify. If an owner said he would not sell to an atheist, we could not accept the listing as we would be discriminating.

The proponents claim this bill does not affect the citizen wanting to sell his home. This is wrong! It does affect him. An owner does not have the choice to employ an agent to represent him, or advise him, and still instruct the agent to whom he could sell the owner's property. I am not, as most of us are not, opposed to civil rights; but I think the right to home ownership, and the disposition of property is a human right, the same as free speech. I voted for civil rights legislation in 1953, and again in 1957. However, in my opinion, House Bill No. 200 is a very discriminatory measure.

ARNOLD S. WANG,
23rd District.

During the four sessions that I have been privileged to represent the people of my district in the legislature, I have repeatedly voted for, and otherwise supported, measures to give full and equal civil rights to all citizens of this state regardless of their race, religion, color, or creed.

Today, however, I voted against House Bill No. 200, a civil rights bill. I state herein for the written record the reasons for my negative vote.

I agree with the basic proposition in this bill that a realtor should not himself or through his employees discriminate against another citizen any more than any other person engaged in other businesses dealing with the public.

I also agree with the other basic premise of this bill to the effect that a property owner should not be required to sell his home or other property to anyone that he may not wish to sell to. I believe that it is the present judgment of most people in this state, repeatedly demonstrated, that a person who owns a home or other property should be entitled to sell it when and to whom he sees fit.

The committee in the House of Representatives which considered this bill is one of which I am a member. This committee discovered during its consideration of this bill what most of us considered to be a flaw in the bill as written. That flaw is that while a person does not have to sell his home to a person he does not want to sell to, it will cost him about 6 percent of the value of his home (or whatever the sales commission agreed to in the sales contract may be) to exercise this right. The reason for this is that when a realtor, in response to a listing of the property, brings a willing buyer to the owner the realtor has earned his commission and is entitled to it even if the owner refuses to go through with the deal. Thus, on a $10,000 home, it will probably cost the owner $600.00 to exercise his "right" not to sell to someone he doesn't want to sell to. On a $20,000.00 home it would probably cost the owner $1,200.00 to exercise this so called "right." Thus, in fact, the "right" that the bill apparently gives to the home owner is, in reality, illusory and is no real right at all.

Once this flaw in the bill became apparent in the committee during its consideration of House Bill No. 200, the committee rewrote House Bill No. 200, and voted it out of the committee after making a substitute bill out of it. This substitute bill voted by the committee provided that: (1) realtors were forbidden to discriminate because of race, color, religion, or creed as in the original bill; (2) the individual property owner was not required to sell his home to anyone he did not want to sell to, as was also contained in the original bill; and added (3) that the property owner was permitted to designate in writing to the realtor, who is his agent, to whom his property was to be sold or not sold; and also added (4) that it would be illegal for the realtor, either directly or indirectly, to attempt to influence the owner in any way as to what limitations or restrictions the owner might wish to place on the sale of his property. This system has been used in some areas and it is revealing as to how few home owners really want to discriminate in the sale of their homes. Most people just want to sell their home and "could care less" as to the color, race, creed, or religion of the person to whom the property is sold so long as it is sold.

The substitute bill containing the above changes was voted out by the overwhelming majority of the committee, it being my belief and the expressed belief of the majority of the committee, that such a change would carry out the stated intent of the bill as originally drafted, and what is more important would insure the passage of the bill through this legislature. Unfortunately, partisan politics reared its ugly head and the chairman of the committee, who is a member of the majority party, refused to let the bill out of his committee. The chairman improperly kept the substitute bill bottled up in his committee for several weeks after it had been voted out, and until such time as he could persuade a majority of the members of the committee to change their minds and not vote the bill out in its original form. The reason expressed for this unique procedure was that House Bill No. 200 was an executive request bill of Governor Dan Evans and that the bill with this apparent flaw in it should go out as is so that if it became law, and some trouble arose from the administration of it, "the monkey would be on the governor's back." This is a poor way to deal with a basically good and well-motivated bill and negates entirely the basic legislative principal that it is the task of a legislative committee to polish up, correct, and, if necessary, to revise all bills that come before it. This, after all, is the purpose of the entire legislative committee system.

In my judgment, passage of House Bill No. 200 by the House of Representatives in its uncorrected form makes it very unlikely that it will ever pass the Senate, since it is well known that the Senate Rules Committee is notoriously conservative on civil rights legislation.

I feel that if House Bill No. 200 has been corrected it would have been easy to pass and would have been a big stride forward. Many others also feel this way. For my own part, I would rather have half a loaf than none at all in the civil rights field at this session of the legislature. I suspect that this is the basic difference on civil rights between myself and some of my brethren of the opposite political faith. They now have a two-fold victory. They can continue to beat their fists on their chests and on the political platforms around the state and bellow about their great fight for civil rights and how they should be reelected to continue their fight. Also, my political opponents can now cite my vote on House Bill No. 200 as a vote against civil rights. This is exactly the "good politics" kind of attitude that has prevailed on this issue in the legislature in recent years and which has resulted in few, if any, substantial advancements being made in the civil rights field in recent legislative sessions.

JAMES A. ANDERSEN,
48th District.

On motion of Mr. Jueling, the resolution was adopted.

MOTION

Mr. Brachtenbach moved that the Water Resources and Pollution Control Committee be discharged of House Bill No. 427, and that it be placed before the House tonight on second reading.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Burtch on a point of order.

Mr. Burtch:

"Does this require a suspension of the rules?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Under Rule 60 in our new manuals, you will note that the last proviso states that by a majority vote of the members elected, the House may require a committee to report a bill back to the House at any time."

Mr. Burtch demanded a call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll, and all members were present except Representatives Copeland and Dootson.

On motion of Mr. Burtch, the absent members were excused, and the House proceeded with business under the call of the House.

MOTION

Mr. Burtch moved that Mr. Brachtenbach's motion be laid on the table.

Mr. Grant demanded an oral roll call, and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Is not debate permitted on this motion?"

The Speaker:

"No, not on the motion to lay on the table."

Mr. Andersen:

"Is it not in order to have one speaker on behalf of the motion to lay on the table?"

The Speaker:

"I have ruled consistently that a motion to lay on the table is not debatable."

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to table the motion by Mr. Brachtenbach, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 59; nays, 38; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Bergh, Bottiger, Bozarth, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Chatalas, Conner, Day, DeJarnatt, Elder, Epton, Gallagher, Garrett, Grant, Haussler, Hawley, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Jolly, Kalich, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Klein, Kull, Litchman, Lux, Marsh, Marzano, May, McCormick, Moon, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pierre, Radcliffe, Rogers, Savage, Sawyer, Sheridan, Slagle, Smith, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Warnke, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—59.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Copeland, Dootson—2.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. O'Brien, the House dispensed with further business under the call of the House.

On motion of Mr. Sawyer, the House recessed until 8:45 p. m.

SECOND EVENING SESSION

The Speaker called the House to order at 8:45 p. m.

The Clerk called the roll, and all members were present except Representatives Copeland and Dootson, who were excused.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

House Bill No. 292, by Representatives Bottiger and Marzano:
Regulating contractors.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 8, 1965.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Licenses, to whom was referred House Bill No. 292, regulating contractors, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. Sections 4 and 5, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 and RCW 18.27.040 and 18.27.050 are each repealed."

In line 1 of the title, strike everything after the semi-colon following "contractors" and insert "and repealing sections 4 and 5, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 and RCW 18.27.040 and 18.27.050."

MRS. JOSEPH E. HURLEY, Chairman.

We concur in this report: Stewart Bledsoe, William "Bill" Chatalas, William S. Day, Homer Humiston, W. L. "Bill" McCormick, Richard W. Morphis, Ann T. O'Donnell, C. G. Witherbee.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Adams on a point of order.

Mr. Adams:

"Is it in order for these people to attempt to improve this bill before you consider the amendments that were drawn in committee? I would think that committee amendments should supersede amendments that come from the floor, regardless of whether or not they attempt to improve the bill."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Under Reed's Rules, the advocates of a bill will have the right to improve it before you have the right to strike. At the time the amendment to improve is considered, the committee members may state they intend to strike that section. It is the ruling of the Speaker, that you have the right to improve a bill first."

Mr. Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 15, after "herein." insert "A 'general contractor' is a contractor whose business operations require the use of more than two unrelated building trades or crafts whose work the contractor shall superintend or do in whole or in part. The terms 'general contractor' and 'builder' are synonymous. A 'specialty contractor' is a contractor whose operations as such do not fall within the foregoing definition of 'general contractor'."

The Speaker called on Mr. Garrett to preside.

Debate ensued, Representative Bottiger speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) recognized Mr. Adams on a point of order.

Mr. Adams:

"Before we go around on the amendment, may I bring this point of order. May I refer you to Reed's Rule 84 which pertains to committee amendments. It says: 'The amendments proposed by the committee, which are usually explained by the report, are first to be voted on, because they are the first proposed to the assembly, and are in fact offered by the assembly itself, which clothed the committee with power to examine the question.' Therefore, I still feel that the question of the proponents trying to improve it is not in order until we have passed on the committee amendments."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Dr. Adams, I would refer you to Reed's Rule 144, page 89, down just a little below the middle of the page. It says: 'The modification is that where a motion is made to strike out a paragraph the friends of the paragraph have a right to perfect it by amendment before the motion to strike out is put.' That would mean by committee or otherwise."

Mr. Adams:

"It would seem that would be in order where they were all floor amendments, but here you are putting a floor amendment before a committee amendment, and the committee amendment is in a sense an amendment offered by the body, according to Rule 84. I think your ruling would be entirely in order if all these were floor amendments you were ruling on, but you are in a sense putting a floor amendment as superseding a committee amendment."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"I would like to refer you to Rule 83 of our own House Rules on page 377 of the manual which states: 'When a bill is before the house on second reading, amendments adopted by committees and recommended to the house shall be acted upon by the house in the same manner as amendments that may be offered from the floor.'"

Mr. Day moved the House consider the committee amendments before the floor amendments.

Mr. Adams:

"I would call to your attention that the rule you refer to said floor amendments shall be considered in the same manner, but not necessarily in the same order as committee amendments."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"I believe the Speaker ruled on that just before, Dr. Adams."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion to consider the committee amendments to House Bill No. 292 before the floor amendments.

Debate ensued, Representatives Day, Adams, Hurley, Leland, and Newhouse speaking in favor of the motion, and Representative Bottiger speaking against it.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) recognized Mr. Burtch on a point of order.

Mr. Burtch:

"I feel the motion is actually a motion to suspend the rules, because Reed's Rules clearly say the friends have a right to perfect before you vote on striking. Of course, the committee amendment, in effect, strikes the entire bill and repeals the law presently in effect. If the committee amendment does not pass, in other words, if we do not adopt the committee amendment, then you would be unable to even offer any amendments to the bill, because you would, in effect, have accepted the entire bill. Reed's Rule 138 says: 'In like manner if a motion to strike out a paragraph be lost, the paragraph cannot be amended. Hence all motions to amend a paragraph should be put before the motion to strike out is put.' That is the danger we are facing here with Mr. Day's motion. We would, in effect, be suspending the rules and it would require a two-thirds vote."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"The Speaker is going to rule on Mr. Burtch's point of order that the majority of this body will have a right to decide whether they want to consider the committee amendments first or the floor amendments first, but I do want to point out that if the committee amendment is adopted, as I understand it, you would be striking the whole bill, so you would not have a right to consider the floor amendments, but it will only require a majority vote."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Day on a point of order.

Mr. Day:

"Did I understand you right, this strikes the whole bill?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"It is striking the whole section."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Adams on a point of order.

Mr. Adams:

"The committee amendment does strike the entire bill."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"I meant it strikes the section that Mr. Bottiger wants to amend."

Mr. Adams:

"What the committee amendment does is strike the entire bill, and then the bill becomes a repealer of two sections of the old law."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"What I want to make clear is that if the committee amendment is adopted, they would have no opportunity to consider floor amendments."

Further debate ensued, Representative Day speaking in favor of the motion to consider the committee amendments first.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) recognized Mr. Canfield on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Canfield:

"Have we not at many times, Mr. Speaker, had bills in committee and had the committee produce substitute bills or committee bills, and have not those been brought to the floor for consideration and substituted for the original bill, and have not the substitute bills been considered before the floor amendments? I refer you to our House Rule No. 79, page 335."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"A majority of the House can substitute a bill, but that is always by vote of the House."

Mr. Canfield:

"My point is, it is an amendatory action and it takes precedence over floor amendments."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"But it takes a vote of the House to do that."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) recognized Mrs. Hurley on a point of order.

Mrs. Hurley:

"My point of order is that I believe Mr. Canfield is trying to point out that this should not be a subject for the vote of the House, but it should be an automatic traditional action of this House that the committee amendment be considered first, and it should not have to be put to the vote of this House, whether we feel the tradition that we have followed for so many, many years is right or not, it seems to me that by putting it to a vote of whether we would do what we are supposed to do brings up the fact that at any time we can deny the members of this House their customary right, and they can make it mandatory for us to vote on that right."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"We have an unusual situation here. The Speaker ruled that you consider the floor amendments first, and then he vacated the chair and I took over after he made the ruling. Now you have a motion before you to consider the committee amendments before the floor amendments. This has been debated, and will now be voted on."

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

The Clerk read the committee amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) recognized Mr. Burtch on a point of order.

Mr. Burtch:

"If the committee amendment is not adopted, the way I read Reed's Rule 138, then you would not be able to offer amendments to the bill."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"That is correct, Mr. Burtch."

Mrs. Hurley moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Mr. Adams moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

In line 3 of the committee amendment after "18.27.050: and before "are" insert "and section 8, chapter 77, Laws of 1963, and RCW 18.27.080"

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) recognized Mr. Bottiger on a point of order.

Mr. Bottiger:

"Referring to Article II, section 38, of the Washington State Constitution, 'Limitation on Amendments' it states: 'No amendment to any bill shall be allowed which shall change the scope and object of the bill. I challenge the committee amendment and Dr. Adams' amendment.'"

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) recognized Mr. Brachtenbach on a point of order.

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Quoting Reed's Rule 161, it says the question of constitutionality is not for the presiding officer to decide. It is a matter of argument only."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"The Speaker has already ruled this session that we will not rule on the constitutionality of matters; we will rule only where it is material or germane, but not on constitutionality."

Debate ensued, Representative Adams speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment.

MOTION

Mr. Witherbee moved that House Bill No. 292 be rereferred to the Committee on Rules and Order.

Debate ensued, Representative Witherbee speaking in favor of the motion.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"If this motion passes, does the bill go back into Rules on second reading or does it advance?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"It would still be on second reading."

Further debate ensued, Representative Moos speaking against the motion. The Speaker resumed the Chair.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Backstrom, Clark, and May speaking in favor of the motion, and Representatives Johnston (Elmer E.) and Hurley speaking against it.

Mr. Grant demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Adams demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to rerefer House Bill No. 292 to the Committee on Rules and Order, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 62; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Andersen (James A.), Angevine, Backstrom, Beck, Chatalas, Clark, Conner, DeJarnatt, Elder, Gallagher, Grant, Klein, Leland, Lux, Marsh, Mast, May, Moon, Morphis, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Pierre, Savage, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Whetzel, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—32.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Avey, Berentson, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Cunningham, Day, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, Jueling, Kalich, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Kull, Litchman, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marzano, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moos, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Dell, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Sawyer, Sheridan, Slagle, Smith, Swayze, Taplin, Valle, Wang, Warnke—62.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Anderson (Eric O.), Bergh, Copeland, Dootson, Perry—5.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Mr. Adams to the committee amendment.

Debate ensued, Representative Bottiger speaking against adoption of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Jolly on a point of inquiry.

Mr. Jolly:

"Did I understand the ruling to be that if this committee amendment is voted down, we can't amend the bill after it's back on the floor?"

The Speaker:

"We are considering now the amendment to the amendment. So you would have to either adopt the amendment to the amendment or not adopt it, then you would consider the original amendment. I would then rule on the original amendment."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Smith yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Smith?"

Mr. Smith:

"Yes."

Mr. Adams:

"Would you like me to read you the short section which this refers to in the law?"

Mr. Smith:

"Yes."

Mr. Adams:

"This is RCW 18.27.080—Registration prerequisite to suit: 'No person engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of a contractor may bring or maintain any action in any court of this state for the collection of compensation for the performance of any work or for breach of any contract for which registration is required under this chapter without alleging and proving that he was a duly registered contractor at the time he contracted for the performance of such work or entered into such contract.' Does that answer your question?"

Mr. Smith:

"I'd like to ask you this, what would your amendment do to this section?"

Mr. Adams:

"My amendment would strike this so the man could sue even though he hadn't paid the fee."

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Mr. Adams to the committee amendment. The motion was lost and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 51; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Avey, Berentson, Bledsoe, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Burtch, Canfield, Clark, Cunningham, Eldridge, Flanagan, Goldsworthy, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston (Elmer E.), Juelling, Kink, Kirk, Lynch, Mahaffey, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Dell, Olsen, Pritchard, Rogers, Saling, Slagle, Smith, Swayze, Wang—44.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Backstrom, Beck, Bergh, Bottiger, Brouillet, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Elder, Epton, Gallagher, Garrett, Gorton, Grant, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Jolly, Kalich, King (Richard "Dick"), Klein, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lux, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, May, Moon, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Perry, Pierre, Radcliffe, Savage, Sawyer, Sheridan, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Warnke, Whetzel, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—51.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Copeland, Day, Dootson, King (Chet)—4.

Mr. Morphis moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

Amend the amendment by the Committee on Licenses by inserting a new section 1, as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. Section 4, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 and RCW 18.27.040 is hereby repealed."

Debate ensued, Representative Morphis speaking in favor of the amendment and Representative Bottiger speaking against it.

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Bottiger yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Bottiger?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"Yes."

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Bottiger, do you have an amendment on the desk doing what you say it would do, or is it embodied in the bill?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"In the bill, I have changed the scope of the bond by substituting the language of the electrical contracting statute; in other words the bonds stand for breaches of building codes as opposed to any building code, and on page 3 of our act, if you will notice in House Bill No. 189 I have substituted claims arising out of violations of this act."

Mr. Adams:

"I think what we have to know at this time is whether he has an amendment to this amendment to do that. In other words, we are not talking about the original bill now, we are talking about the committee amendments. With the consent of the House, we could substitute my amendment."

Mr. Bottiger:

"We couldn't do that Dr. Adams, because my amendment reduces the amount of bond from $2,000 down to $500.00, but the key language is on page 2, line 18 of my bill which says 'failure to comply with the provisions of this act or the building code of any political subdivision of this state.' This is the language that caused all the problems."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mrs. Hurley on a point of order.

Mrs. Hurley:

"Mr. Speaker, is it proper to strike a committee amendment, to strike the entire committee amendment by just a floor amendment?"

The Speaker:

"It can be done by a vote of the House, if the House so desires."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Morphis withdrew his amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Hood:

"Would Mr. Bottiger yield to a question?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"I'd be glad to."

Mr. Hood:

"Under the old bill, what were the quick liquid requirements of the bonding companies in your experience in the last two years?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"There was testimony at the action in Spokane that someone who had never engaged in business and who had never had a bond before, that one bonding company required net assets of $35,000, and net quick assets of $15,000. I believe this is much too high."

Mr. Hood:

"Under your new proposal, and with the $500 bond, how much in quick liquid assets do you think the bonding companies should ask?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"Since the bonding companies would only be liable for a gross aggregate amount of $500.00, using the formula they used in Spokane which, frankly, I had some doubts about, I would guess it would probably run about $5,000. I would point out in my bill the contractor could put up negotiable securities, life insurance policies, or savings accounts of $500.00."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Would Mr. Bottiger yield?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"Yes."

Mr. Adams:

"Assuming this small contractor scraped together, in addition to what he would need to start in business, the $500.00 for security, how long would it have to be left in order to cover any potential liability?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"You are referring to the fact that in House Bill No. 189, you weren't able to tell? Under my bill, it would be for two years after he ceased doing business that the bond would stand. His liability would stand for the statute of limitations, but his bond or cash deposits would stand for two years."

Mr. Adams:

"He would get the $500.00 back in two years?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"Yes sir."

MOTION

Mr. Olsen moved the House defer further consideration of House Bill No. 292 on second reading and the bill be made a special order of business for 11:30 p. m. tonight.

MOTION

Mr. Clark moved to amend Mr. Olsen's motion by making House Bill No. 292 a special order of business at 5:00 p. m. tomorrow.

The Speaker:

"It would have to be at 4:59 p. m. tomorrow because at 5:00 p. m. we will be unable to consider any further House bills."

Debate ensued, Representative Adams speaking against the motion to defer consideration of House Bill No. 292.

Mr. Grant demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Smith on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Smith:

"Are we voting on Mr. Olsen's motion or Mr. Clark's?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Clark's motion would be out of order. We could not consider a house bill at 5:00 p. m. because of the concurrent resolution we passed."

Mr. Clark:

"I amend my motion to defer consideration until 4:00 p. m. tomorrow."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Clark, you cannot make that motion after the previous question is demanded."

Mr. Andersen (James A.) demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Anderson (Eric O.):

"Mr. Speaker, would you state the motion again?"

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Olsen to defer further consideration of House Bill No. 292 and it be made a special order of business at 11:30 p. m. tonight.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to defer consideration of House Bill No. 292, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 61; absent or not voting, 7.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Backstrom, Bottiger, Chatalas, Elder, Garrett, Grant, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Jolly, King (Richard "Dick"), Klein, Kull, Litchman, Lux, Marsh, Marzano, May, Moon, O'Donnell, Olsen, Pierre, Savage, Smith, Taplin, Thompson, Uhlman, Valle, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—31.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Avey, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Clark, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Gallagher, Goldsworthy, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston (Elmer E.), Juelling, King (Chet), Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Dell, Perry, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Sawyer, Sheridan, Slagle, Swayze, Taylor, Traylor, Wang, Warnke, Whetzel, Wolf—61.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Braun, Conner, Copeland, Dootson, Gorton, Kalich, O'Brien—7.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker:

"I might inform the House this evening that the working day does not stop at 12:00 midnight. We could consider bills until 1:00, 2:00, or 3:00 and still be in the same working day if the House desires."

Mr. Morphis moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend the amendment by the Committee on Licenses inserting a new section 1, after "Section 1." strike "Sections 4 and 5, chapter 77, Laws of 1963" and after "RCW 18.27.040" strike "and 18.27.050" and insert "Section 4, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 and RCW 18.27.040"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Morphis's amendment strikes the committee amendment. Would it be possible if Mr. Morphis's amendment passes, which has the effect, I understand, of taking out the bonding provision only, the bonding and insurance sections of the present law, would it then be in order to put in a corrective amendment correcting the title. In other words, I want to be sure that the title is correct."

The Speaker:

"The committee amendment to the title would be considered after reading the title. Title amendments have to be considered after the amendments to the body of the bill."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Burtch on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, if we adopt Mr. Morphis's amendment, would that then prevent us from adopting an amendment which would repeal section 5 of chapter 77, Laws of 1963?"

The Speaker:

"No."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Kull on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Kull:

"Mr. Speaker, point of parliamentary inquiry, did you rule previously that if we vote for the committee amendments, that floor amendments could not then be considered?"

The Speaker:

"To the same section, yes."

Mr. Kull:

"And that would hold, then, to this amendment too?"

The Speaker:

"That is right. If a motion to strike out a paragraph is lost, the paragraph cannot be amended according to Reed's Rule 138. Before we took up consideration of this bill I informed the House of the ruling I was making."

Mr. Bottiger demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued, Representative Adams speaking in favor of the amendment.

Mr. O'Brien demanded a call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll, and all members were present except Representatives Copeland and Dootson.

On motion of Mr. O'Brien, the absent members were excused, and the House proceeded with business under the call of the House.

Mr. Juelsing moved the House dispense with further business under the call of the House.

The motion was lost.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Mr. Morphis, and asked the Clerk to reread the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Andersen on a point of inquiry.

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, since this matter has become rather complex, is not the effect of voting for Mr. Morphis's amendment simply putting the liability insurance provision back in the law of the state. In other words, we are voting to require liability insurance on the part of the contractors in the state. Is this not the effect?"

The Speaker:

"Yes, it puts it back in, whereas the committee amendment would repeal it.

Debate ensued, Representatives Andersen (James A.), Hawley, and Bottiger speaking in favor of the amendment.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Morphis to the committee amendment to House Bill No. 292. The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 93; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 2.

The Speaker:

"The title cannot be amended until we consider all amendments to the body of the bill."

Mr. Andersen:

"No precinct shall contain more than three hundred voters. If at any election three hundred or more votes are cast at any voting place, the inspector shall report that fact to the city council, if it is a precinct lying within a first class city or to the board of county commissioners if it is any other precinct. [Between the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November and December 31st of the same year.] The city council of the first class city or the board of county commissioners, as the case may be, shall divide, alter, or combine precincts so that, whenever practicable, such over populated precincts shall contain no more than [into two or more precincts with] two hundred fifty registered voters [or less in each precinct] in anticipation of future growth.

"Precinct boundaries may be altered at any time as long as sufficient time exists prior to a given election for the necessary procedural steps to be honored: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no precinct boundaries shall be changed during the period starting as of the ninetieth day prior to the first day for candidates to file for a state primary election and ending with the day of the state general election.

"Whenever a precinct contains less than sixty registered voters and the county auditor has jurisdiction of the election, such voters shall vote by absentee ballot in the manner as set forth in chapter 29.36 RCW, if in the judgment of the county auditor such practice best serves the public interest.

"On petition of ten or more voters resident more than ten miles from any place of election, the board of county commissioners shall establish a separate voting precinct therefor.

"The board of county commissioners of each county in the state hereafter formed shall, at their first session, divide their respective counties into election precincts with two hundred fifty voters or less and establish the boundaries of the same; the county auditor shall thereupon designate the voting place for each such precinct."

In line 1 of the title after the semicolon and before "amending" insert "amending section 29.04.040, chapter, Laws of 1965 (Senate Bill No. 5) and RCW 29.04.040;"

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Grant on a point of order.

Mr. Grant:

"I would like to cite House Rule 36 which states: 'No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment; and no bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto or incorporating therein any other bill or resolution pending before the house.' The amendment by Mr. Cunningham is the same language as in House Bill No. 453, and would be out of order."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Your point is well taken, Mr. Grant. I rule the amendment out of order."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Cunningham:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. This is not the exact same bill. There was a change in it."

The Speaker:

"What is the change?"

Mr. Cunningham:

"It changes '30 days' to '90 days.' This is a substantial change."

The Speaker:

"It is in substance and context the same, so I would have to rule it out of order."

"Will you yield, Mr. Uhlman?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes."

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Uhlman, would you tell us who you plan to run against?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"I do not plan to run against anybody, but I do think there is an element of fair play involved here, and I think that is important even in a legislative race. Answering Representative Newschwander as well, if we campaign for a certain length of time, we can't say this cuts down the campaign time. We are going to be running the same number of weeks and the same length of time; but what it really does is to sound the death knell for the faint glimmer of hope some of us have that we might someday have a candidates' pamphlet. Some of us have been seriously working on this and, frankly, it was in the realm of possibility. We were going to consider seriously an appropriation which would cover this. I had discussed this with the present Secretary of State, and it had his concurrence, but now it is dead. We won't have a campaign pamphlet if this passes."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Gorton and Kalich speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Smith and Garrett speaking against it.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

I am opposed to discharging a committee of a bill unless there is proof that the chairman is wilfully burying a bill. I support the content of House Bill No. 107, but I still believe in following democratic procedure as established many years ago. I believe the motion to discharge the committee of a bill is out of order.

Limiting liability of landowners on land made available for public recreation.

With the consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed House Bill No. 321 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Moos and Savage speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

The Speaker recognized Mr. Clark.

Mr. Clark:

"I would like to ask Representative Bledsoe to explain the impact of this bill on his operations and others who have open spaces."

Mr. Bledsoe:

"Mr. Speaker, Mr. Clark, the problem with making lands available to sportsmen in the state for the specific purposes which we have designated in this measure is the apprehension the landowner has toward the liability to these guests coming on the land. We have attempted to allay these fears, in some measure, the landowner has by, in effect, bringing into law most of the current court interpretations in this area. We have drawn a narrow beam in not going into the field of general recreation, and by not relieving him of his obvious liability. For instance, he cannot operate a known trap on his property. If we are going to expand and grow in this state, one of the largest assets we have is recreation. One of the largest areas of recreation is privately owned land, such as the land I operate and make my living on. I am quite sure my point of view is paralleled by other landowners as to whether we shall or shall not make these lands available. With the availability of these lands, I promise you this field of recreation, hunting and fishing, which is of great importance in the state, not only for the pleasant living of the people already here, but also to entice other people to come and live with us, will certainly be accelerated and brought in better focus. I trust, Representative Clark, my remarks clarified the situation."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Moos yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Moos?"

Mr. Moos:

"Certainly."

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Moos, I notice in new section 3, it says, 'Subject to the provisions of section 6 of this act, an owner of land owes no duty of care to keep the premises safe for entry or use by others for hunting and fishing purposes, or to give any warning of a dangerous condition, use, structure, or activity on such premises to persons entering for such purposes.' Does that mean that if I was hunting or fishing on your property with your permission, and I walked across a little bridge that you have on your property and fell down and broke my neck, I couldn't sue?"

Mr. Moos:

"It is possible I would have liability; but the things we are trying to eliminate are putting up on each barbwire on each fence signs saying, 'This might scratch you'; or 'This bull might not be tame'; or 'This gopher hole might cause you to break an ankle.' Now this little bridge you mentioned, we'll cross it when we get there, and I can't give you a legal answer on that."

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Moos, I can assure you this is not a funny matter. To invite people over to a person's property when there are dangerous traps, shall we say, and not to give them a warning of the trap, would be a serious thing. I notice in section 6 that, 'Nothing in this act limits or expands in any way liability which otherwise exists for injury, death, or loss: (1) Resulting from the wilful or wanton act or omission of the owner.' It seems like loose legislation to me."

Mr. Moos:

"Possibly, Representative Smith, in section 6 the interpretation would be that the people suing might take into consideration that it would be a wilful or wanton act or omission of an owner, for instance, if a road is going blindly along, and doesn't have a sign, and it goes off a precipice. Then I believe your landowner would be responsible. But this wasn't meant to affect those cases. It was intended so that in the case of opening up land, we would try to eliminate that one restriction and fear of liability."

Further debate ensued, Representative Burtch speaking against passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Burtch yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Burtch?"

Mr. Burtch:

"Yes."

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"In reading through the bill, I didn't see anything that made any distinction as to youngsters who might be invited on the land. Is that your impression of the bill, that even if the landowner allowed very small youngsters to come in and fish, he would still not be responsible if they were injured by machinery?"

Mr. Burtch:

"I am concerned about that particular question. I am not sure what the bill does in that regard."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Pritchard and Beck speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Brachtenbach would yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Brachtenbach?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Over in Walla Walla, each and every bird season we have literally hundreds of people coming to the area to hunt birds. On my ranch there is a huge barn, as well as an old-fashioned tower house. They always like to climb up the stairs in the tower house and view the countryside. Each and every time in the past I have said, 'O.K., you are on your own.' Will this bill give me greater protection to allow people to enjoy hunting and view the scenery than I have now?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes, I think it would. I think in line with the danger of it, as I might envision your tower house, it might have a ladder-like arrangement and you might know the steps are so dangerous that someone could fall and break a leg. Even though you knew that, you could remain silent and, in all likelihood, you would not have any liability for it."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Canfield and Kull speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. Sawyer demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 321, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 82; nays, 13; absent or not voting, 4.

Mr. Garrett:

"The question I want to ask is, if the youngster is in the National Guard and is federalized for a short period of time, and at this time would be eligible to own an automobile, what would be the status of the car he bought after he came off active duty? Would he have to dispose of it?"

Mr. Litchman:

"That is a rather interesting question, Mr. Garrett. Very frankly, I don't think we could interfere with his right to buy an automobile or interfere with his contract, so in my opinion he wouldn't have to sell the car."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Clark:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Savage yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Savage?"

Mr. Savage:

"Yes."

Mr. Clark:

"On page 3, subsection (5) reads that the commission may construct, maintain, and/or operate any navigation canal, or navigation canal systems deemed feasible by the commission. How will they finance the state's contribution, and what will it amount to?"

Mr. Savage:

"If this commission is successful, as we hope it will be, since this is navigable waters, we think there is a good chance the Army Engineers could do the job completely. The state is not going to throw away any money it doesn't have to, I'm sure of that."

Further debate ensued, Representative Burtch speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Dootson:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Burtch answer a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to Mr. Dootson, Mr. Burtch?"

Mr. Burtch:

"I'll try."

Mr. Dootson:

"I would like you to inform the House, Mr. Burtch, how much this would cost the federal government, of which we are also citizens, and how much effect it would have on your southern part of the state? In other words, I think that we are asking the federal government to subsidize you people down in that section for your benefit. How much would it cost the federal government to do that, and, in return, how much would you benefit from it?"

Mr. Burtch:

"I don't benefit from it. The people of the state do. It will cost approximately half a billion dollars for this canal project, but the economic benefits will so far surpass this that by the time the project is finished, and the benefits realized, half a billion dollars won't seem like very much money."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Leland and Jolly speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Newhouse:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Burtch yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Burtch?"

Mr. Burtch:

"Yes."

Mr. Newhouse:

"Not in opposition, but don't I recall that we passed through this House sometime ago a bill that would authorize certain port districts to band together to be a sponsoring group; therefore, the state would not necessarily have to be the sponsoring group?"

Mr. Burtch:

"We passed a bill that would allow port districts an additional two mill special levy for canal construction or dredging purposes and to also provide fill for canals to develop their own industrial lands. The greater sponsoring groups we can get, the more interest congress will show, and the more chance we have to obtain adequate funds to continue the very necessary engineering study. This is one reason the ports have all shown an interest in this canal, but the essential sponsoring group will be the canal commission."

Mr. Newhouse:

"Didn't we authorize a group to be the sponsoring group?"

Mr. Burtch:

"No, we authorized them to have a two mill levy and they could join in as one of the sponsoring groups."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Flanagan:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Leland to yield to a question."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Leland?"

Mr. Leland:

"Yes."

Mr. Flanagan:

"Mr. Leland, when a truck goes up and down the highway, he has to pay gas taxes and license fees. When a railroad train runs up and down, he has to build his own railroad track and pay taxes. If these things are economically feasible, why can't they be financed with revenue bonds which would be paid for by the boats that go up and down these waterways if they are of economic benefit?"

Mr. Leland:

"In response to Representative Flanagan's question, I think this is entirely possible. I think this is one of the bits of information that this commission would develop, because they would develop the financial feasibility. Of course, as part of the feasibility, in addition to the exact costs of construction and the exact methods by which it would be administered, there could very well be a toll schedule. I think most people are aware that you pay a toll to use the Panama Canal, which is a material benefit to shipping. And I have not heard the sponsors or anybody else rule out the various means of financing or administration to make this pay its way as economic development. I am simply saying that this is the type of opportunity that we shouldn't run from, but rather one which we should cooperate with to assure us another adjunct to state economy. I think as far as the toll fees for the use of the canal, this is something that would come out of the feasibility study."

Mr. Flanagan:

"I just want to say we have been talking entirely about subsidizing these ventures with general fund money. I believe there should be developed a method of financing where the users would pay at least a substantial part of it. There would be more public acceptance to the program then."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Burtch a question if I may."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Burtch?"

Mr. Burtch:

"Yes."

Mr. Canfield:

"I wonder if you would discuss at a little more length, the provision on page 3, line 13, where the commission is given the authority and right to construct, maintain, and/or operate the canal."

Mr. Burtch:

"Well, naturally, they are given that authority, but without any money they won't be able to do much. The whole project is going to depend on whether the federal government will come in and give us the necessary money. I would like to point out that this project doesn't necessarily mean that they are going to have a canal all the way from the Columbia River to Puget Sound. There are lots of things that can be done—lots of problems that haven't been solved, and this commission will study them. I don't think the commission itself will under any probability take the job of constructing it. However, it may be that the federal government would like to have the commission take this authority, and then they would have to give the money directly to them, but I don't think it will happen. I think it will be a project of the Army Engineers."

Mr. Canfield:

"I understand the cost might be up to a half billion dollars, but I wouldn't like to obligate the state without some kind of protection."

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Canfield, I don't think this bill obligates the state at all. We have to make an appropriation, and there is nothing in here that obligates that. We can turn them down completely."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Clark:

"Mr. Speaker will Mr. Burtch yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Burtch?"

Mr. Burtch:

"Yes."

Mr. Clark:

"Relative to your answer to Mr. Canfield, you will notice in the section following subsection (5) on page 3 that they may condemn property, and then it says they may expend monies from any public or private source, so aren't we giving them authority in this bill to spend money, issue drafts against, and charges against the state treasury for acquisition of property, as well as digging and building the canal?"

Mr. Burtch:

"Well, of course, if you are going to interpret the bill that way, but as far as I am concerned, by no stretch of the imagination would any court say the state would be obligated without making a specific appropriation. I can't conceive of any court coming to that conclusion with the language in this bill."

Further debate ensued, Representative Kalich speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. Bottiger demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 13, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 82; nays, 12; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bottiger, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Chatalas, Conner, Copeland, Day, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Elder, Eldridge, Epton, Gallagher, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Grant, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, Kalich, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Klein, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lux, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marsh, Marzano, May, McCormick, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Savage, Sawyer, Sheridan, Smith, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Wang, Warnke, Whetzel, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—82.

Engrossed House Bill No. 13, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Our vote against House Bill No. 13 does not indicate opposition to the development of a canal system in our state. Such a system may well be a boon to its growth.

However, we do not believe that the commission contemplated by this bill should be granted the power to take private property against the owner's will. The power of condemnation is neither necessary nor desirable for a commission charged with the duty of conducting a study of the feasibility and desirability of a canal system. If and when construction of a canal by the commission is actually approved, the power to condemn property may well be appropriate. Until such time, the power is not only unnecessary, but is readily subject to abuse.

In addition, the bill does not provide a date upon which the commission shall terminate. If, as a result of the commission's study, the canal is found to be not feasible or desirable, the commission should not continue in existence. Establishing a termination date now will place the burden upon those interested in its activities to renew its authority if that be desirable.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mrs. Epton a question if I might."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mrs. Epton?"

Mrs. Epton:

"Yes."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"It seems to me that during the years we have quite often discussed the contracting requirements between the state of Washington and neighboring states in order to utilize facilities on a concomitant basis for a reduction in costs. What is happening to that proposal?"

Mrs. Epton:

"Mr. Ahlquist, this was discussed over a period of two years in the Legislative Council. We had numerous meetings. We met with a similar committee in Salem, Oregon. They were thinking of building an institution for women, and the thought was that we could enter into some agreement so we could send our female prisoners down there and pay for their care, but there were constitutional conflicts. In the meantime Oregon has gone ahead and built a women's prison. It is actually too small for their own needs already, and overall it just didn't work out. We couldn't come to any conclusive decisions to make any arrangements to do this jointly, so we felt we would all have to go our separate ways and provide for our own institutions for our prisoner women. Now this place over at Eastern State Hospital, the maximum security building, is not suitable for various reasons, but more than any other reason, the cost—the operational cost there—would be much greater than it would be with the Shelton institution."

Mr. Marzano demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

"Will you yield, Mr. Clark?"

Mr. Clark:

"Yes."

Mr. Moon:

"On these photostatic reproductions, is there any method or any way that is required that these be certified as accurate reproductions of the original document, or is this just a reproduction?"

Mr. Clark:

"It has to be a complete reproduction including signatures with all the handwriting on it, so it is the same as the original in all respects."

Mr. Moon:

"Will it be necessary under this act to have a small space, or a seal of certification applied so that there is no possibility of forgery or anything of that nature?"

Mr. Clark:

"There is no possibility because every document before being submitted has to be amplified and testified to under oath by a witness in order to identify it or else you don't get it in evidence at all."

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Clark yield to a question?"

"Surely."

Mr. Burtch:

"Does this bill require the person that is the holder of the secured note to bring the original into the court, so that it would be before the court and allow them to compare the photostatic copy?"

Mr. Clark:

"No, but to give you one illustration, in King county a court commissioner, who hears all these ex parte cases, has been instructed not to admit any of these photostatic copies. He has no discretion since he is an employee of the courts. There has been quite a bit of confusion in King county, and that is why we want to make it more definite."

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Clark, what I want to know is under your legislation could the court enter judgment on a secured note without ever having seen the original?"

Mr. Clark:

"Yes, and has been done for the last dozen years since we passed the 1953 act."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moon:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mrs. Hurley would yield to a question."

The Speaker:

"Will you answer a question, Mrs. Hurley?"

Mrs. Hurley:

"I'll try, Dr. Moon."

Mr. Moon:

"On going over this bill, I notice in section 1, page 1, that this act allows any out-of-state trained barber with only an eighth grade education, or its equivalent, to be entitled to qualify for a barbering license; yet in section 6 of this bill you set up a requirement for in-state persons to have a high school diploma or its equivalent. I wonder why the discrimination between a resident of this state and someone who has had his training out of the state."

Mrs. Hurley:

"I will yield to Mr. Bottiger."

Mr. Bottiger:

"Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, if I could answer Mr. Moon's question: On page 1, line 19, is the graduation from eighth grade or its equivalent provision, which is the reciprocity section from other states. On page 7, section 6, line 27, it states 'holding a diploma showing graduation from an eighth grade grammar school or has an equivalent education as determined by the director' for in-state barbering, so they appear to me to be the same. I believe Mr. Moon was looking at the original bill, not the substitute bill."

Debate ensued, Representative Huntley speaking against passage of the bill, and Representative Conner speaking in favor of it.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, I'd like one of the sponsors to answer a question about the bill, and that is, is this designed to help the local barber or just to help the local barber union?"

The Speaker:

"Will you answer Mr. Smith, Mr. Bottiger?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"The bill is not designed to help either the local barber or the local barbers' union. It is primarily designed to cure some defects in the state licensing statute. I will show you a few instances. For example on page 4, line 15, we took out a tax loophole whereby some master barbers or shop owners were setting up barbershops within their barber-shops, where they could evade the unemployment compensation claims. We took out a problem that we had in enforcement, where a permittee would get a permit and disappear in one case for ten years and then show up with an old permit and, technically, was still entitled to practice barbering. Another section requires a teacher in a barber school to be tested for his ability to instruct in the practice of barbering. To give you an example of why we felt this was needed, down in Vancouver there was a school where there was no curriculum. They were simply using free labor to turn a profit with very little instruction and a terrible success rate in state examinations. There may be some barbers who object to upgrading the fee schedule, and there may be some schools that object to having their instructors take examinations before they hire them, but I wouldn't say it is anybody's bill. It is a compromise all the way down the line."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Conner yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Conner, would you yield?"

Mr. Conner:

"Yes."

Mr. Moos:

"You mentioned in your earlier remarks the number of locals that are supporting this particular legislation. It is my understanding that roughly twelve percent of the barbers in this state belong to barber unions. Is that small percent correct?"

Mr. Conner:

"I understand it is about thirty percent that belong to unions. However, as Representative Bottiger stated, this bill is a compromise. Barbers who belong are agreeable to this. Others are agreeable because they feel it will upgrade their standards."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Will Representative Bottiger answer a question?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"I will if I can."

Mr. Adams:

"Does this treat the union barber any different than the nonunion barber?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"Not one iota."

Mr. Adams:

"Do the funds raised by this bill have anything to do with the barber shop inspection?"

Mr. Bottiger:

"This fund pays for the barber shop inspection. At the present time Mr. Carter indicated they are approximately $28,000 short a biennium, and by raising the fees we eliminate the deficit."

Further debate ensued, Representative Avey speaking against passage of the bill.

The hour of 4:00 p. m. having arrived, the Speaker declared the question before the House to be the special order of business, House Bill No. 12, on second reading.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

House Bill No. 12, by Representatives Brouillet, Lux, DeJarnatt, Beck, Bottiger, Marzano, Savage, Uhlman, Chatalas, and Kalich (by executive request of Governor Rosellini):

Providing for the report of campaign expenditures and contributions.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 17, 1965.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Constitution, Elections, and Reapportionment, to whom was referred House Bill No. 12, providing for the report of campaign expenditures and contributions, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 4, section 4, following subsection (4) add a new subsection as follows:

"(5) No candidate shall solicit or accept contributions prior to six months before the date to file for the office for which he is or will be a candidate."

On page 8, section 9, line 6, strike the period following "serving" and insert " : Provided, That this subsection shall not be applicable to radio or television stations that are regulated as to sponsor identification requirements of the Federal Communications Commission pursuant to the Federal Communications Act, as amended."

GARY GRANT, Chairman,
HAYES ELDER, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: R. Ted Bottiger, Frank B. Brouillet, Jack L. Burtch, Arlie U. DeJarnatt, Jack Dootson, Slade Gorton, Edward F. Harris, Doris Johnson, William J. S. May, Mary Ellen McCaffree, Bob McDougall, Donald W. Moos, Charles E. Newschwander, W. O. E. "Bill" Radcliffe, Wesley C. Uhlman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Grant moved the adoption of the committee amendment to page four.

Debate ensued, Representatives Grant and Uhlman speaking in favor of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Uhlman yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Uhlman?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes."

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Uhlman, would this amendment affect those twenty-five, fifty, or one hundred dollar a plate dinners that are held sometime in advance of campaigns?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"I suspect it would. Yes, I think that is part of what the bill is designed to do."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Whetzel:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Uhlman yield?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Uhlman?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes, I do yield."

Mr. Whetzel:

"What about a candidate who after his campaign has a campaign deficit and wants to undertake to take care of that deficit? As I read this, it would appear that that might not be possible under this amendment. In other words, Mr. Smith brought up the point about a preelection, fund-raising dinner. I am thinking of these dinners that take place after campaigns. We have had some in January and February by both parties. We have them all the time. Would they be excluded?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"You will note this doesn't have anything to do with political parties doing it. That is what I am in favor of doing. I suspect this amendment (it says 'candidates' only), regarding the postelection dinners, might very well cover them, since this would preclude contributions for six months prior to the date of filing. It would depend on how it would be construed, and I suspect it might be construed either way. In either event, I think the intent of the amendment is a good one, to limit the collecting of campaign funds to the length of the campaign, not long before and long after, and you might have fewer of the 'get-well' or 'get-better' activities we have now."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Uhlman yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Uhlman?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Taking this amendment and applying it to section 9 of the act on page 7, could this be construed so that if your local newspaper wanted you as a candidate and wrote an editorial favoring you, would this be considered a contribution?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"There are two totally different things here. Subsection 5 is a direct prohibition.

It simply says 'No candidate shall solicit or accept contributions.' There is no mention of the identification of the source. It is simply a prohibition, that is all.'

Further debate ensued, Representative Kull speaking against adoption of the amendment.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Grant, the committee amendment to page eight was adopted.

Mr. Litchman moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 6, after "primary" strike the balance of the section and insert "and general election."

Debate ensued, Representatives Litchman and Smith speaking in favor of the amendment, and Representative Gorton speaking against it.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Litchman moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 2, line 22, strike "five" and insert "one"

Debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Brouillet speaking against it.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Litchman moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 4, line 31, after "value," add "including news space or news time or compensated labor"

Debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Gorton speaking against it.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Litchman moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 4, line 8, strike "one hundred" and insert "twenty-five"

The motion was lost on a rising vote, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Litchman moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 4, line 13, strike "one hundred" and insert "twenty-five"

Debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Brouillet speaking against it.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Litchman moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 1, line 10, after "him." strike the balance of the section.

Debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Further debate ensued, Representative Gorton speaking against adoption of the amendment.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Litchman moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, section 4, line 13, strike "escheat to the state" and insert "be distributed to the recipient's own political party and reported in accordance with this act"

Debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Gorton speaking against it.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Goldsworthy could tell us what is the base pay of a major general in the United States Army?"

Mr. Goldsworthy:

Mr. Goldsworthy:

"It was set at around $13,500, if I remember correctly."

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The hour of 4:45 p. m. having arrived, the Speaker declared the question before the House to be the special order of business, House Bill No. 12 on second reading.

House Bill No. 12, by Representatives Brouillet, Lux, DeJarnatt, Beck, Bottiger, Marzano, Savage, Uhlman, Chatalas, and Kalich (by executive request of Governor Rosellini):

Providing for the report of campaign expenditures and contributions.

The House resumed consideration of the following amendment by Mr. Litchman: (See pp. 1271-1273 for committee amendment and amendment by Representative Litchman adopted previously.)

On page 4, section 4, line 13, strike "escheat to the state" and insert "be distributed to the recipient's own political party and reported in accordance with this act"

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Grant moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, section 4, line 11, after "treasurer" insert "in excess of twenty-five dollars"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Brouillet:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Grant yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Grant?"

Mr. Grant:

"Yes."

Mr. Brouillet:

"Would this allow an individual to contribute various twenty-five dollar anonymous grants to anybody he chose?"

Mr. Grant:

"I don't know that that would be allowed, Mr. Brouillet. It is possible though, as I read it. Of course that is not the intent of the amendment."

Debate ensued, Representative Brouillet speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative Clark speaking in favor of it.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Grant moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, section 6, line 1 after "restrictions." insert "The provisions of this section shall apply only to those candidates for state-wide office."

Debate ensued, Representatives Grant and Bottiger speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Gorton speaking against it.

The Speaker called on Mr. Garrett to preside.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Leland:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Grant would yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Mr. Grant, would you yield to a question by Mr. Leland?"

Mr. Grant:

"Yes."

Mr. Leland:

"I listened with interest to your amendment, and I must say I was impressed with the arguments you made. I would like to pose a hypothetical question and see what your interpretation would be under this act. Now, I have never campaigned this way, but I understand that others have. Let's say for example—we are speaking of legislative races—let's say you or I decided we would do it all ourselves, literally, as an individual or family, and that we would buy the material for our signs and make them ourselves; and let's say that as perhaps has happened in the past, we had our own mimeograph machine and we might mimeograph our campaign literature, address it and mail it all within our own family unit. Under this provision what limit—what mode of operation would we be limited to if we did it all as I described?"

Mr. Grant:

"You would be limited just as is stated here. When you decided to use that mimeograph machine, or say you go out and purchase one, you have to prepare a voucher, you have to appoint yourself a campaign treasurer and you have to prepare a voucher. Let's go over the section. I want you to think about this as far as your own candidacies are concerned. It says 'Except as provided in subsection (3), no funds shall be withdrawn from or paid by a campaign depository from any campaign fund account except upon the presentation of the written authorization from a campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer, accompanied by (a) the certificate of the person claiming the payment, stating that the amount claimed, which shall not exceed the amount of funds on deposit for payment, is justly due and owing to him, that the authorization truly states all the purposes for which the indebtedness was incurred, and that no person other than himself is interested, directly or indirectly, in the payment of the claim; and (b) an order for payment, signed by the campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer who signed the original authorization, and stating the amount to be paid. (3) Funds may be withdrawn from or paid by a campaign depository from a campaign fund account without a certificate of the claimant, for anticipated travel expenses about to be incurred.' So that allows you to do your traveling without making a voucher, in the event you travel in your campaign which all of us do, and just go on and read the entire section and apply it to your own campaign. I think it is too restrictive, and I would certainly be willing to accept an amendment that would make this apply to candidates for city council, mayoralty, and counties, possibly county commissioners in some of the first class counties, and possibly congressional candidates. I think the point Mr. Gorton raised earlier was a valid point. As far as applying these provisions, it is just too restrictive. Certainly there are many provisions that aren't restrictive enough, but this is too restrictive. I would urge your support of my amendment, and then perhaps we can perfect it further."

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Whetzel and Brouillet speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative Day speaking in favor of it.

Mr. Brachtenbach demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representative Canfield speaking against adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Clark:

"Mr. Speaker, may I ask Mr. Grant a question? Would he yield?"

The Speaker:

"Will you answer a question, Mr. Grant?"

Mr. Grant:

"I'll yield."

Mr. Clark:

"In my recent campaign for this office, I didn't have a campaign chairman, I didn't have a treasurer, I didn't have a deputy or anybody else. How does this bill apply to anybody regarding the depository of funds? I just paid my expenses out of my checking account. Do you mean to say I would have to have a separate checking account and report it?"

Mr. Grant:

"As I read it, you would have to set up a separate checking account for the purpose of expending campaign funds. You can appoint yourself as your own treasurer, but I feel the reporting method is too restrictive."

Mr. Grant continued his remarks in support of the amendment.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Pritchard and Smith speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Litchman moved the adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On page 6, section 6, line 5, after "authorization" insert " : Provided, however, That this section shall not apply to any expenditure under two thousand dollars"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"I am ruling this amendment to the amendment out of order. It would not be applicable, but it could be considered as a separate amendment."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, I have a question of Mr. Gorton or Mr. Grant. I think they have both spent time working on this. I regret I haven't been as familiar with this as I would like to be, but would a person be afoul of the provisions of House Bill No. 12 or House Bill No. 107, as it appears to me, if he made up his mind to file and run for office a moment or two before the close of filing on the last day, and ran down to the court house and paid his $12.00? Wouldn't he be afoul of both of these laws?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Technically speaking, Mr. Klein is right, but since you can designate yourself as the treasurer . . ."

Mr. Klein:

"At least one of the bills says that has to be done at least before the date of the public announcement of candidacy; so you would have to, at the same moment, be declaring all these things."

Mr. Gorton:

"That is correct."

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Mr. Grant, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 9; nays, 80; absent or not voting, 10.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Avey, Bottiger, Clark, Grant, Marzano, Pierre, Savage, Sheridan, Warnke—9.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Brachtenbach, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Chatalas, Conner, Copeland, Cunningham, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Elder, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hawley, Humiston, Huntley, Hurley, Jastad, Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, Jueling, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Klein, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lux, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marsh, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Perry, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Sawyer, Slagle, Smith, Swayze, Taplin, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Wang, Whetzel, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—80.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Bozarth, Braun, Day, Haussler, Hood, Johnson (Doris), Kalich, May, Olsen, Taylor—10.

Mr. Litchman moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, section 6, line 5, after "authorization" insert " : Provided, however, That this section shall not apply to any expenditure under one thousand dollars"

Debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Gorton speaking against it.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. O'Brien moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, line 31, after "act" and before the period insert " : Provided further, That no person campaigning for any elective office in the state of Washington can expend for campaign purposes any more than the office provides as compensation during the term of the office"

Debate ensued, Representative O'Brien speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. McDougall:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. O'Brien yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. O'Brien?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. McDougall:

"Mr. O'Brien, if I interpreted Mr. Litchman's amendment which we adopted correctly, it included all elected offices. Under your particular amendment, how would you handle, for example, a person who was running for the office of public utility district commissioner or port district commissioner where there was no compensation for that office, in the event he wanted to put on some sort of campaign?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Well, actually, in those offices that they run on the basis of public service, if they have all the talents and qualifications necessary, they are going to get some free publicity. Television and newspapers now give free publicity to persons running for public office. Particularly some of the offices you are talking about where they are actually involved in large expenditures of money. If you have the ability, and want to run for an office where there is no compensation, I don't think there should be a large expenditure of money to get you elected to that office."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. O'Brien yield?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. O'Brien, will you yield to another question?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. Gorton:

"Not only can a candidate for port commissioner or similar office spend no money, but no one can spend any money on his behalf. Is that correct?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"That might be true, but why should they make large expenditures of money if the office doesn't pay anything?"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. O'Brien yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. O'Brien?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. O'Brien, if you are sincere in this, I think you have an interesting idea, and I would be interested in exactly how you would implement it. You gave a suggestion of what they did in England, but I would be sincerely interested in the mechanics of the thing you described."

Mr. O'Brien:

"If they violated the sections of the act, the act calls for a misdemeanor; their office is declared void if they don't abide by the provisions of the act."

Mr. Canfield:

"How would you carry on the campaign under the plan you describe?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"It wouldn't be very hard. If you have a budget of $128,000 for governor, this is all you can expend. You have to account for it under this act, and so you would be limited to $128,000 to run for governor of the state of Washington. You would have to budget your income to take care of the type of expenses you felt were necessary. It would just mean that you would have to watch how your money is expended and not get involved in running credit and getting over your head in debt with the hope some central committee will bail you out. The attorney general, for instance, under this amendment, could expend around $80,000, and this is a substantial amount of money."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Slagle:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. O'Brien yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. O'Brien?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes, sir."

Mr. Slagle:

"I see Mr. Avey, as mayor of Kettle Falls, gets paid what he is worth—$3.00 a month. How would he be affected?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"He probably gets reelected without campaigning and just pays his filing fee I am sure."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Leland:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. O'Brien a question, too. Let's say we are talking about the legislature again. The pay raise provides for $3,600 a year, and you are talking about budgeting the candidate's actual expenses. How would you control effort, or how would you assess a value or price on something that was done on behalf of the candidate? What I have in mind is this: the candidate might be a member or friend of a large union, or a large association of some kind that has an expansive membership. How would you assess a value and control the expenditure on this candidate's behalf if the union or association circulated a letter in support of this candidate? How would you control that, and how would you assess the value? It would certainly have the value of several hundreds of dollars, but it might be done on your behalf without consulting you or without your knowledge in any way."

Mr. O'Brien:

"In most instances, the candidates are consulted. I don't think this unknown work done for a candidate exists. If somebody is going to do something to help materially, in most instances they would consult the candidate because the material has to be cleared, and here you would have to put an evaluation on it. As far as legislators are concerned, the bill coming over from the Senate increasing the salary to $3,600 would be very realistic under this."

Mr. Leland:

"I think it would be true if it were increased; but then I want to ask you, some districts are very compact. They are served by one or two daily newspapers or one or two weeklies. On the other hand, there are others spread out hundreds of miles and may have ten or twelve weekly newspapers. This is the thing that has always bothered me on trying to put a ceiling on a campaign, regardless of the office, how do you handle it when you have two districts so terribly dissimilar?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"It is a problem of course, but when anyone puts an ad in a paper the candidate is made aware of the support and contribution, whatever it might be."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Adams and Bledsoe speaking against the amendment.

Mrs. Lux moved the adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

After "office" insert "Provided however, That for nonsalaried positions the expenditures shall not exceed one thousand dollars"

Debate ensued, Representatives Lux and O'Brien speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. Burtch demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was carried, and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Grant demanded an electric roll call on the adoption of the amendment as amended, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Burtch demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment as amended, and it was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 94; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Conner, Copeland, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt,

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Olsen, Taylor—2.

House Bill No. 12 was ordered engrossed.

Mr. Brouillet moved that the rules be suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 12 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

Mr. Burtch demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained. Debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking against the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Burtch on a point of order.

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, I think you ruled previously that there is no debate on a motion to suspend the rules."

The Speaker:

"No, I have never ruled that way."

Mr. Litchman continued his remarks in opposition to the motion to suspend the rules and advance House Bill No. 12 to third reading.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Huntley:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Litchman who made the motion to advance this bill? It didn't come from this side of the aisle."

Mr. Brouillet:

"I made the motion. I take full responsibility for it. After having read all of Mr. Litchman's amendments, I don't think they do anything for the bill. I think we are belaboring the point. We will be here all night picking out commas and semicolons. I urge you to support my motion."

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to advance Engrossed House Bill No. 12 to third reading and final passage, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 90; nays, 9; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Conner, Copeland, Cunningham, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Elder, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Hurley, Jastad, Jolly, Juelling, Kalich, King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Klein, Kull, Leland, Lux, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Savage, Sawyer, Sheridan, Slagle, Swayze, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Wang, Warnke, Whetzel, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—90.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Day, Grant, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), King (Chet), Litchman, Pierre, Smith—9.

Debate ensued, Representative Witherbee speaking against the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Litchman yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Litchman, would you yield?"

Mr. Litchman:

"Yes."

Mr. Adams:

"Would you briefly point out to me two areas in this bill where you think there are errors that would make it unconstitutional?"

Mr. Litchman:

"First of all, as far as I am concerned, the first provision of this bill as amended applies to the primary and general elections of all public officials in the state of Washington. As I interpret the amendment on page 7, the reports are to be made fifteen days after the primary election, and yet we have a bill that pertains to the primary and general election. This certainly is amiguous. In new section 8, on line 16, the campaign depository's statement is made within fifteen days after the primary, yet this bill applies to primary and general elections. And I believe, Doctor, in answer to your question here, that there is one other provision that should be corrected to conform to the first amendment. I don't have my amendments before me, unfortunately, but certainly this bill is far from being perfected. I would like to say this in defense, I am voting for the bill to send it in to conference. It is a bad bill in its present form, but can be cleaned up, so we should all vote for it hoping that the conference committee can clean up the ambiguities."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Savage, Gorton, and Brouillet speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative King (Chet) speaking against it.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Gorton yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Gorton?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes."

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"To put Mr. Litchman's mind at ease, looking at page 7 in several places there is reference to the primary or other elections. This is not limited, of course, to the primary. Would it not be your construction that the word 'election' would take care of the general as well as the primary?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, it would. The same phrase is used throughout the entire election code in the same fashion."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Hawley:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Brouillet yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Brouillet?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"Yes."

Mr. Hawley:

"Getting into the intricate part of this bill, there is one part that disturbs me considerably. I think most of us save our signs and material from the last election. How do you value this?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"Well, it seems to me it would be valued when you purchased it. At the next election you have it on hand. You could depreciate it out each year if you liked."

Further debate ensued, Representative Andersen (James A.) speaking.

The Speaker:

"Mr. Andersen, are you speaking on this particular bill?"

Mr. Andersen continued his remarks.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Burtch on a point of order.

Mr. Burtch:

"He is not talking on the merits of the bill."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Andersen, I will insist that you speak on the merits of the bill."

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"If I may, this is in answer to the debate carried on on the other side of the aisle. I am responding to the same points."

The Speaker:

"I think Mr. Gorton started the discussion on your side. Since we are straying far afield, I am calling you to order to speak on the merits of the bill. I think someone had a right to reply to Mr. Gorton's remarks. It is done, and I think we should keep the remarks on the merits of the bill. That is what I am asking you to do at this time."

Mr. Andersen (James A.) completed his remarks.

The Speaker recognized Mr. O'Brien, who spoke in support of the bill.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"As a Republican member of the Rules Committee, to use the priceless remarks of Representative Litchman: 'My motives have been impugned.' I would simply state on my point of personal privilege that there are six of us on the seventeen member Rules Committee. Six members of my party, and it takes nine votes to get a bill out so how can six stop anything. If there is a way, I would like Mr. O'Brien to tell me."

Mr. O'Brien:

"You know there was a way."

Further debate ensued, Representative Moos speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. Burtch demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 12, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 91; nays, 8; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bottiger, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Chatalas, Clark, Copeland, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Elder, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Humiston, Huntley, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, Juelling, Kalich, King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Klein, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lux, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pierre, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Savage, Sawyer, Sheridan, Slagle, Swayze, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Wang, Warnke, Whetzel, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—91.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Canfield, Conner, Grant, Hurley, King (Chet), McDougall, Smith, Witherbee—8.

Engrossed House Bill No. 12, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I am voting for this ambiguous bill only to send it to conference. The idea of this bill is excellent. It is far from being perfected. Unfortunately too many persons are exempted under the provisions of this bill.

MARK LITCHMAN,
45th District.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolution by Representatives Haussler and Backstrom:

WHEREAS, The boundaries of Washington's thirty-nine counties were in large part established before and during the early years of statehood; and

WHEREAS, The style, form and organizational structure of county government in Washington was likewise established before and during the early years of statehood, with much of the basic structure being the subject of Article 11 of the Washington State Constitution and amendments thereto; and

WHEREAS, Modern population trends, regional patterns of development, urban growth, economic change, transportation developments, communications technology, new and increased service demands, adequacy of tax base, governmental efficiency, and other factors have created questions concerning the reasonable location of county boundaries and the continued existence of certain counties; and

WHEREAS, Such factors have created questions concerning the present organizational structure of county government and changes which might be accomplished to enhance the ability of county government to exercise its governmental responsibilities; and

WHEREAS, Such factors have created questions concerning the role that county government should play in providing public services and facilities to logically and reasonably meet the pressing demands created by vast urban growth and development;

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives, that the Legislative Council is authorized and directed to undertake a study of the questions presented herein.

Resolution by Representatives Leland, Haussler, Garrett, and Warnke:

WHEREAS, The urban areas of this state are undergoing an extremely rapid period of growth; and

WHEREAS, Numerous incorporations and annexations in urban areas have resulted in duplication and overlapping of the responsibilities of providing municipal services by cities and towns, fire districts, water districts, and sewer districts; and

WHEREAS, This duplication and overlapping of responsibility has resulted in divided authority and has seriously impeded proper planning, zoning, and administration of the entire field of municipal services; and

WHEREAS, This duplication and overlapping of responsibilities and authority has led to a duplication of billing, engineering, maintenance, and other administrative services and has resulted in greatly increased costs to the homeowners of a given service area; and

WHEREAS, No city or town can truly govern or guide its own destiny or fulfill its legal responsibilities when crucial decisions are decided by persons residing outside its boundaries; and

WHEREAS, House Bill No. 644 of the 1965 regular session of the legislature sought to resolve this problem; and

WHEREAS, A two-year growth period in some mushrooming areas can have as much impact as a ten or fifteen-year growth period in normal growth areas; and

WHEREAS, Testimony on said House Bill No. 644 given by conflicting interests has resulted in confusion and distortion of the true facts and intention of the legislature;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives, That the legislative council is hereby directed to study the entire area of duplication and overlapping of authority and responsibility for providing municipal services which occurs as a result of incorporations and annexations in urban areas, and to report its findings to the fortieth session of the legislature together with specific statutory recommendations for consolidation and realignment of authority and responsibility for planning, zoning, and the providing of municipal services so that the citizen will receive maximum value at a minimum of cost.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Miss O'Donnell:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Dr. Newschwander will yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Will you yield, Dr. Newschwander?"

Mr. Newschwander:

"Yes."

Miss O'Donnell:

"Dr. Newschwander, after the last session of the youth legislature which was held here in our chambers, there was some criticism of the fact that certain committees were not holding hearings and that certain people were not allowed to appear before the youth legislature committees. I worked on the committee for the youth legislature and I wonder if you can tell us if these committees will hold hearings, and if all lobbyists or individuals representing the interested groups will be allowed to appear before them?"

Mr. Newschwander:

"It would be my guess that they are following in the footsteps of their elders down here."

Further debate ensued, Representative Clark speaking in favor of adoption of House Concurrent Resolution No. 23.

Providing inheritance tax exemptions for firemen's pensions.

Debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative Humiston speaking against it.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Dootson:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like Mr. Uhlman to clear up a matter for me. I think that whenever we repeal a particular tax, we should inform the House of the financial impact. In this case I think it should be fairly small."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Mr. Uhlman, can you give Mr. Dootson this information?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"I believe, Mr. Speaker, I can. I have been in contact with the Inheritance Tax Division of the Tax Commission and they say the financial impact is virtually nil."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Representative Uhlman is giving you the right information on that. I think you will find at the time the appraisal of the estate is made they determine the cash value as of then. It doesn't necessarily mean you are going to pay on the future interest, etc. You are paying on the cash value at the moment.

Mr. Uhlman:

"You are paying on the cash value as extended over your life expectancy, and then they depreciate out the earning value over the period of time, but you do pay for your entire life expectancy at that time. If you die the next day you would still have had to pay the entire amount."

Further debate ensued, Representative Adams speaking against passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Humiston:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Uhlman yield to another question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Mr. Uhlman, will you yield?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"I yield."

Mr. Humiston:

"We have a pension system in the organization where I am employed, and at the end of the time, when someone has fulfilled his time and has a pension which they can take out on a joint survivorship basis, would this not be taxed by the method you describe and would it not apply under Title 41, pensions for public employees? Would there be a difference in the way the tax is assessed between public and private employees?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes, there would be, and there would be quite a significant difference between what a public employee would receive and what an employee of your organization would receive. I suspect that is a factor taken into account in this legislation. Your employment is private and is treated differently. This is the intent of this particular bill."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Mr. Speaker, could Mr. Uhlman yield? I think a couple of questions can decide this very clearly."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Will you yield, Mr. Uhlman?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"The state employee passes away. Then there is a pension available to his wife or beneficiary?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes, there is."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"All right then, by eliminating this tax, there is no tax paid on the estimated amount that might be the principal sum according to her life expectancy?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"That is the intent."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"If she passes away, can she leave on to her heirs or beneficiaries any part of this pension?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"No."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Then in that case she is paying an actuarial guess on what might have been her principal; she might lose that the next day."

Mr. Uhlman:

"You are precisley correct, and as the new director of the department of conservation, I think you have stated it much more clearly than any of the lawyers here have been able to do."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Traylor on a point of personal privilege.

Mr. Traylor:

"Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. The smoked salmon you found on your desks before noon is in appreciation of your courtesy in passing my bill, House Joint Memorial No. 15. I might say I caught the king salmon. The packing was done by Mr. Fred Hegg. It was a campaign donation and I want to check with the sponsors of the bill that was before us yesterday to see if I have to show it as a campaign contribution. Also, Mr. Smith, this is not dog fish salmon. It is king salmon, which we possess in abundance at Port Angeles. If anyone would care to come to Port Angeles after the session, I will be very glad to show them how to catch these big salmon."

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

Having been made a special order of business at the foot of today's calendar, the Speaker declared the question before the House to be further consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 6 on second reading.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 6, by Committee on Constitution, Elections and Legislative Processes:

Eliminating election when only one candidate files for any single position of superior court judge in class AA, class A or first class counties.

The House resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 6, having adopted an amendment by Mr. Grant previously. (See page 1298 for amendment.)

Mr. Gorton moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 16 of the printed bill being line 14 of the engrossed bill after "candidate" and before the Senate Amendment by Senator Gallagher, insert a period and a new sentence: "If, after any contested primary for superior court judge in any county, only one candidate is entitled to have his name printed on the general election ballot for any single position, no election shall be held as to such position, and a certificate of election shall be issued to such candidate"

Debate ensued, Representative Gorton speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Savage and Klein speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Day:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Gorton yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to a question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes."

Mr. Day:

"Mr. Gorton, wouldn't this preclude a sticker candidate from running?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Not at all. If you note on your copy of the bill, the Gallagher amendment provides that this doesn't happen in any case in which a sticker candidate announces he is going to run a campaign."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Moos and Gorton speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Savage:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Gorton yield for a further interrogation?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Gorton?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes."

Mr. Savage:

"Mr. Gorton, as the bill started out, I know that this provision would apply to a county of half a million or more. Then we amended it to include class AA and A counties down to any county of 100,000 or more. If this were a good provision for superior court judges in counties over 100,000, why wouldn't it be proper for all superior court judges?"

Mr. Gorton:

"I think Mr. Savage's question is an excellent one. The original was proposed in the Senate because the problem in King county, where there are twenty-one superior court judges, is so great that by 1968 there will not be enough spaces on a voting machine. When it was in the Senate, the Senators from Spokane and Yakima thought it was so good they changed it to class AA and A. Here it was decided in Elections Committee that it would be a bad thing to put in the State Constitution this reference to 'AA and A' and 'First class' which is not constitutional, and also might change the classifications of counties. If we say 'over 100,000' we cover the same counties. Personally, I think it would be good in all counties in the state, but obviously there is not a ballot problem in a county where there is only one judge."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Grant and Gorton speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment by Mr. Gorton, and Representative Klein speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Gorton would tell us whether there is any reason why you couldn't put the truly uncontested ones at the end of the voting machine rather than in the earlier portion you referred to."

The Speaker:

"Will you answer his question, Mr. Gorton?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Well, Mr. Speaker, if Mr. Klein had been interested in that, I suppose he could have introduced a proper Joint Resolution to do it."

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Gorton.

The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Grant, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 6, as amended by the House, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Grant speaking in favor of adoption of the resolution, and Representative Klein speaking against its adoption.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 6, as amended by the House, and the resolution passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 91; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Angevine, Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bledsoe, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Conner, Copeland, Cunningham, Day, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Elder, Eldridge, Epton, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Humiston, Huntley, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson (Doris), Johnston (Elmer E.), Jolly, Juelling, King (Chet), King (Richard "Dick"), Kink, Kirk, Kull, Leland, Litchman, Lux, Lynch, Mahaffey, Marsh, Marzano, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Newhouse, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Dell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pierre, Pritchard, Radcliffe, Rogers, Saling, Savage, Sawyer, Smith, Swayze, Taplin, Taylor, Thompson, Traylor, Uhlman, Valle, Wang, Warnke, Whetzel, Witherbee, Wolf, Mr. Speaker—91.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Avey, Bottiger, Klein, Slagle—4.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Burtch, Hood, Kalich, Sheridan—4.

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Representatives McCormick and O'Brien:

WHEREAS, Society and our lives are greatly enriched by being blessed with persons of dedication to fellow man and the public good. When such a person passes, we who survive feel a great sense of loss. The legislature has been informed of the passing of Mrs. A. Lars (Rose Wetherell) Nelson. She was a graduate of Willamette University, cum laude, a high school teacher, an active member of her church, a thirty year silver star member of the grange, and served on principal committees of the national grange. Her membership in many organizations dedicated to the public good and her devotion to her husband and family caused her to be elected Washington Mother of the Year in 1960 in recognition of her accomplishments and ability. Further recognition was accorded her in 1963 when she was selected and honored as one of the distinguished graduates of Willamette University.

Death closes the chapter on a most fruitful and beneficial life. Everyone she met became a friend. She loved her family and was intensely loyal and dedicated to the highest Christian principles. She was happiest when she was working with and for and on behalf of people. No task was too small nor too big for her to attempt. She loved rural America and Washington, its mountains, hills and valleys. She sought understanding of agricultural people and their needs and their dignity. She delighted in the affairs of youth, Junior Grangers, and the improvement of their environment and their development. She was loyal to and proud of her community, her state and her Country. She was a great American mother and citizen.

Her services to her fellow citizens and to her family during her lifetime will be a continuing example to us all. We desire to express our sense of loss;

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives, That the House of Representatives expresses its regret and sense of loss at the passing of Rose Wetherell Nelson and extends its sympathy to the members of her family; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk to her husband, A. Lars Nelson, to her son, Lars Wetherell Nelson, and to her daughter Karen Rosemary Bolshazy.

Mr. O'Brien moved the adoption of the resolution.

Representatives O'Brien, Huntley, Swayze, Moos, Savage, Bozarth, and Canfield spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

With the consent of the House, it reverted to the third order of business for the purpose of receiving reports of standing committees.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

"Would Representative Rogers yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Mr. Rogers, will you yield to a question by Mr. Uhlman?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Yes, I'll yield."

Mr. Uhlman:

"What reason did the sponsors give for moving this bill down?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Well, they are preparing a rather elaborate digest of the bill for me so I can make some remarks on final passage, and it is in preparation now."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Uhlman, Smith, and Clark speaking against the motion, and Representative Sawyer speaking in favor of it. The motion was lost on a rising vote.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Uhlman moved the adoption of the following amendment by Representative Gorton and Representative Uhlman:

Nothing herein shall prevent the proper officers or employees of the city from making expenditures of moneys received from the sale of general obligation or revenue bonds for the purposes for which they were issued pursuant to state law, irrespective of whether or not an item therefor has been included in the city's annual budget. Transfers between the general classes and expenditures from funds received in excess of estimated revenues shall be permitted when authorized by a resolution duly adopted by the majority vote of all members of the council: PROVIDED, That the council shall at all times have the power by ordinance with the vote of one more than the majority of all members thereof, to revoke, recall, or decrease the whole or any part of any unexpended item as above provided, and shall further in said ordinance find that it is to the best interest of the city that such revocation, recall, or decrease of any unexpended item listed in the budget appropriation be made. Transfers between items within any class in the budget may be made by the budget officer subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the council: PROVIDED, That no salary shall be increased above the amount provided therefor in the budget. authorize, or contract [for in any one month] for any expenditure or demand against any budget appropriation which, taken with all other expenditures, indebtedness, or liability made [or incurred during the month] against the appropriation, exceeds the quarterly allotments established by the budget officer. If at the end of any quarter there are any unexpended appropriations under a quarterly allotment, such expenditures may be made and included as a part of the next quarterly allotment subject to the regulations established by the budget officer. [one-twelfth of the amount of the appropriation for the fiscal year, except that for any sudden or unforeseen demand, accident, or seasonal expense or for any expenditure the nature of which necessitates lump sum appropriations and payments or for the purchase of any material or supplies procurable to better advantage in larger quantities, the council or its finance committee may suspend the one-twelfth restriction to the extent of but not to exceed] Quarterly allotments are for the purpose of regulating encumbrances or expenditures of appropriations for each board, department, officer or employee. The manner in which necessary modifications may be made in allotments so established shall be prescribed by the budget officer. Such modifications shall not permit exceeding the unexpended allowance in the budget for such item or items for the current fiscal year.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Section 35.32.180, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.32.180 are each hereby repealed.

"Sec. 12. Section 35.32.210, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.32.210, are each amended to read as follows:

"Every person shall be charged with notice of the financial condition of the city with the limitations imposed upon expenditures by the budget and claims against it.

"If any officer or employee charged with the duty of preparing a budget estimate for any department fails to file it at the time or in the manner prescribed, the [council] mayor may cause to be deducted from his salary ten dollars for every day of such failure after the tenth of July not exceeding a total of fifty dollars for any one person in any one year. The deductions shall be made from the delinquent's next salary warrant by the auditor upon notice from the [city council] mayor of the length of the delay.

"Every person violating any of the provisions of this chapter, in addition to any other liability or penalty provided therefore, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

Renumber the old section 3 to read "Sec. 13."

Debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"For what purpose do you rise, Mr. Rogers?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Will Mr. Uhlman yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Uhlman?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes."

Mr. Rogers:

"I don't know just where this amendment is supposed to fit in Senate Bill No. 63. Is this, Mr. Uhlman, House Bill No. 9 that we have here as the amendment?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"It is quite similar to House Bill No. 9 which was pending before the House."

Mr. Rogers:

"Are you striking everything after the enacting clause?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"No, we are not. I would like to speak on the amendment if I may and tell you what this does.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Rogers:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. I would like to have the Chair determine, if this amendment is germane to the bill that we have before us, Senate Bill No. 63, which authorizes cities and towns to combine their garbage and refuse disposal systems with water and sewage systems. Is this subject matter germane to that title?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"The Speaker will rule on that for you, Mr. Rogers. If you will look carefully at the bill, it is an act relating to municipal corporations, and so is Mr. Uhlman's amendment. The amendment relates to municipal corporations. The Speaker rules it is germane."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) recognized Mr. Sawyer on a point of order.

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Speaker, in other words, as long as an amendment is within the scope of the title, it doesn't have to be germane to the rest of the subject of the bill? There is nothing in here germane to Senate Bill No. 63 other than it refers to municipal corporations."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"The ruling of the Speaker is that the amendment is germane."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) recognized Mr. Grant on a point of order.

Mr. Grant:

"Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill No. 63 relates to municipal corporations, it is true, and that is plural. The amendment that is proposed by Mr. Uhlman relates only to a specific municipal corporation—the city of Seattle."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"The Speaker rules that the amendment is germane, Mr. Grant."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) recognized Mr. Uhlman on a point of order.

Mr. Uhlman:

"I might add for the clarification of Representative Grant that my amendment does apply to all municipal corporations over three hundred thousand population in the state."

Mr. Uhlman concluded his remarks in support of the amendment.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Gorton and Smith speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Speaker, rising again to a point of order in regard to the ruling, I would like to refer you to Rule 82 in which it says: 'A substitute or amendment must relate to the same subject as the original bill under consideration.' Further, if we go to Reed's Rule No. 160, it is spelled out even more clearly, so I think just because we are referring to the same title (municipalities) we still have to have the same subject matter."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) recognized Mr. Perry on a point of order.

Mr. Perry:

"My point of order is that the Speaker has already ruled on this, so the proper motion that Mr. Sawyer has to make now is to challenge the ruling of the Chair."

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"In Reed's Rules, No. 160, there is a sentence which says: 'It is impossible to lay down any precise rule upon this subject, and much depends on the good sense of the presiding officer.' . . ." (Applause)

"And further, in Rule 161: 'An amendment may be inconsistent . . . but that is for the assembly to decide, and not for the presiding officer. For him to pass upon such a question would be very embarrassing to the assembly, and still more so to him. So, also, the question of constitutionality is not for him to decide.' So Mr. Perry's point is well taken. If the House is dissatisfied with the ruling of the Speaker, then you would have to challenge it."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) recognized Mr. Rogers on a point of order.

Mr. Rogers:

"I wish to raise the point of order that no bill shall contain more than one subject. Now this is a constitutional provision, and I am sorry to say that I have not familiarized myself enough with the House rules to know if that constitutional directive is written into our rules—I find there are two or three constitutional prohibitions not written in our rules, and I am going to recommend to the Rules Committee that they write them in at a future time. I know they are contained in the Senate Rules of which I am more familiar. Obviously, the purpose of not including more than one subject matter is that it deprives the members of the opportunity to vote 'no'. Here we have before us a bill relating to the combining of garbage departments with water departments, and perhaps I am going to vote 'yes' on that bill. But we also have another bill relating to the budgetary procedures of the city of Seattle. If you can explain to me how I can vote 'no' on one and 'yes' on the other, I will sit down. I think the business of two subject matters in a bill is a very dangerous precedent to set forth in this House. I might point out to the members of this House that at one time they combined the revenue and appropriations acts in the same bill, and this exact point of order was made in the Senate and the Supreme court upheld it. Now the Speaker in his able judgment on this matter of rules certainly should look carefully at this precedent of combining two subject matters in one bill. It is unconstitutional, and it will leave the legislation in both cases open to attack."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"The Speaker would like to state to the points that you raised that the subject matter is municipal corporations. Before you at the moment is the subject matter of the amendment. By adopting the amendment, if they are two subject matters, they will both be in the bill. If you vote the amendment down, then the bill will be as it is, but this, as another section or amendment to the bill, is germane. Are there additional remarks?"

Further debate ensued, Representative Sawyer speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative Clark speaking in favor of it.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

Mr. Uhlman moved the adoption of the following amendment by Mr. Gorton and Mr. Uhlman to the title:

On line 4 of the title, after "RCW 35.87.340," and before "and" insert "amending section 35.32.010, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.32.010; amending section 35.32.030, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.32.030; amending section 35.32.050, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.32.050; amending section 35.32.060, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.32.060; amending section 35.32.070, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.32.070; amending section 32.32.080, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.32.080; amending section 35.32.140, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.32.140; amending section 35.32.150, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.32.150; amending section 35.32.210, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.32.210; repealing section 35.32.180, chapter 7, Laws of 1965, and RCW 35.32.180; prescribing penalties;"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Uhlman yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Mr. Uhlman, would you answer Mr. Rogers' question?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes."

Mr. Rogers:

"Is this the title of House Bill No. 9 that has been added to the other title?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"No, Representative Rogers, it is the amendatory matter on page 4 of the mimeographed material that was put on your desk there."

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Uhlman moved that the rules be suspended, Senate Bill No. 63 as amended by the House be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

Debate ensued, Representative Olsen speaking against passage of the bill, and Representative Uhlman speaking in favor of its passage.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 63 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 79; nays, 17; absent or not voting, 3.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 324 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Rogers speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding) observed within the bar of the House the Mason County Forest Festival Queen and her court, and appointed Representatives Conner, Savage, and Traylor to escort them to the rostrum.

Mr. Savage introduced the Queen, Miss Patsy Bixenmann, who presented her court and extended an invitation to the members to attend the Forest Festival.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 78, by Senators Herrmann, Cooney, and Gallagher:

Providing the number of voters necessary for an election to authorize an excess levy for fire protection districts.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 19, 1965.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Constitution, Elections, and Reapportionment, to whom was referred Engrossed Senate Bill No. 78, providing the number of voters necessary for an election to authorize an excess levy for fire protection districts, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendment:

On page 2, section 1, beginning on line 28 of the printed bill, being line 27 of the engrossed bill, after "election of" strike all of the matter down to and including "taxing district" on line 30 of the printed bill, being line 29 of the engrossed bill and insert "[any school district] such districts or of any city or town must constitute not less than forty percent of the voters in [said] such taxing [district] districts"

GARY GRANT, Chairman,
HAYES ELDER, Vice Chairman.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Grant moved the adoption of the committee amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. King (Richard "Dick"):

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Grant yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Mr. Grant, will you yield to a question from Mr. King?"

Mr. Grant:

"I may have to defer to my friendly chiropractor, but I'll try."

Mr. King:

"The language of your amendment states that it would be forty percent of the voters in the taxing district. Now the change in the bill later on says the total must constitute not less than forty percent of the voters of the fire protection district who voted at the last preceding fire protection district general election. It seems to me these are different concepts. In one instance you have forty percent of the registered voters (I believe that is the intent of the House amendment), and in the other instance forty percent of those who voted last time."

Mr. Day:

"I believe I can answer that question. In one instance it refers to the off-year election, and in the other to the general election. In one instance we would have to have forty percent of the voters at the regular general elections, and in the odd-year election, we would have forty percent of the voters for fire commissioner, so it is proper. I urge the adoption of the amendment."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moos:

"Would Representative Day yield to another question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Garrett presiding):

"Representative Day, will you yield to a question from Representative Moos?"

Mr. Day:

"I'll try."

Mr. Moos:

"Is there anything unique about the fire district? Why don't we also give cemetery districts, hospital districts, and others the same advantages?"

Mr. Day:

"Well we have a peculiar situation in a couple of fire districts in the state of Washington that are in unincorporated areas. One of these happens to be in Spokane valley, and it is a full-time, fully paid fire department, operating outside of a municipality.

Consequently, they have to depend on special levy elections. We just had one last Tuesday, at which we had to have eight thousand votes cast to validate the election—forty percent of those voting at the last general election. We got six thousand four hundred votes cast, and they were five to one favoring our special levy. We are going to have to run another election, and what we are trying to do is get it based on a previous fire commissioner election.”

Mr. Moos:

“Representative Day, I knew about your fire district because I am an honorary chief of it, but I was worried more about these other districts and why they weren't included.”

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 78 as amended by the House was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Day speaking in favor of passage of the bill.
