FIRST DAY

NOON SESSION

House Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Monday, January 8, 1979.

The Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives of the Forty-fifth Legislature, Dean R. Foster, called the House to order at 12:00 noon.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Cathy Neisenauer and Mark Evans. Prayer was offered by Reverend William F. LeRoux, S.J. Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, Seattle University, and Pastor Don Taylor of Our Saviors' Lutheran Church, Everett.

Father LeRoux: "Gracious Heavenly Father, prosper now, we pray, these servants sent by the citizens of the state to carry out the responsibilities assigned them. Grant them wisdom, grant them strength. Guide them by Your Holy Spirit and prosper what they do here for the good of all. Should they grow tired or disillusioned help them to have confidence that He who made five loaves and two fishes adequate to feed five thousand can also multiply their labors. Help them to know that despite unreasonable demands by some, those who sent them here are both patient and understanding and they neither expect miracles nor the achievement of impossible goals, but they do expect faithfulness and integrity. Set before them as an example, O Lord, Him who summoned His disciples and told them, 'Whoever would be great among you must first know your servant...' and Himself became our servant for Christ's sake, that through Him we should have the forgiveness of sin and everlasting life. In His Name we pray. Amen."

Pastor Taylor: "Gracious Everloving Father, on this opening day of the House of Representatives we ask You to bless all the members of this distinguished body. Inspire these men and women to represent the good part of the electorate. Help them to judge and decide for the common good of the people of the State of Washington. May the unfortunate, the poor, the different franchise, our senior citizens, the mentally infirm, the school-age children and the young men and women of our state be uppermost in the minds of our legislators as they decide to vote budget and appropriation. Help all our elected officials to recognize their grave responsibilities to the people of our state. May integrity, honesty and concern be the guiding principles of their conduct. Finally, O Mighty Father, watch over and protect all the members of this august body, inspire them to put aside petty differences and help them to act always for the good of all the citizens of our State, the Evergreen State. Amen."

The Chief Clerk appointed Representatives Newhouse and Smith (R) to escort Chief Justice Robert F. Utter of the Washington State Supreme Court to the rostrum.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 79-1 by Representatives Bagnariol and Berentson:

CHIEF CLERK TO CALL TO ORDER

RULE 1. Custom, so prevalent and so ancient as to have the force of law, has made it the duty of the chief clerk of the previous assembly to call the session to order and to conduct the proceedings generally until a speaker is chosen.

The secretary of state furnishes to the clerk a certified statement of the names of the members elect, which is read by the clerk. The roll is called and the oath of office is administered to the members by a justice of the supreme court. The members rise and are sworn. After adoption of temporary rules, the assembly then proceeds to the election of its officers.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER, CHIEF CLERK AND SERGEANT AT ARMS

RULE 2. The house shall elect the following officers at the commencement of each regular session: Its presiding officer, inability of the speaker, a chief clerk of the house, and a sergeant at arms. An assistant chief clerk may be elected on any legislative day. Such officers shall hold office during all sessions until the convening of the succeeding regular session: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any of these offices may be declared vacant by the vote of a constitutional majority of the house, the members voting viva voce and their vote entered on the journal. If any office is declared vacant the house shall fill such vacant office as hereinafter provided.

In all elections by the house a Constitutional majority shall be required, the members shall vote viva voce and their vote shall be entered on the journal.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF SPEAKER

RULE 3. The speaker shall take the chair every day precisely at the hour to which the house shall have adjourned on the preceding day, shall call the members to order immediately, and on the appearance of a majority of the members shall proceed with the order of business prescribed by Rule 42.

The speaker shall possess the powers and perform the duties herein prescribed, viz.:

(a) The speaker shall preserve order and decorum and may speak to points of order in preference to the other members.

(c) The speaker shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting.

Committee members will be selected by each party's caucus. The majority party caucus will select all committee chairmen/chairwomen.

Members of the Rules Committee will be selected in the same manner and same ratio as provided above, and the speaker will serve as chairman of the Rules Committee.

Interim committee memberships will be elected by the respective caucuses, unless otherwise provided by law, on a basis of statutory and geographical representation; otherwise, the same ratio between the parties will prevail in the caucus election of interim committee members.

Patronage will be divided proportionately by the party caucuses, following as closely as possible the ratio between the parties.

(g) In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the house chamber and legislative areas, the speaker shall have the power to order the same to be cleared.

(h) The speaker shall designate the persons who shall act as reporters for the public press.

(i) The speaker shall announce the business before the house in the order in which it is to be acted upon.

If the decision be in favor of the member called to order, the member shall be at liberty to proceed; if otherwise, and the case shall require it, the member shall be liable to the censure of the house.

WITHDRAWAL OF MOTION, BILL, ETC.

RULE 52. After a motion is stated by the speaker, or a bill, memorial, resolution, petition or remonstrance is read by the clerk, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the house, but may be withdrawn by consent of the house at any time before decision or amendment.

The results of the motion are as follows: If determined in the negative, the consideration goes on as if the motion had never been made; if decided in the affirmative, the presiding officer, without debate, proceeds to put the question.

If an adjournment is had after the previous question is ordered, the motion or proposition on which the previous question was ordered shall be put to the house immediately following the approval of the journal on the next working day, thus making the main question privileged over all other business, whether new or unfinished.

The motion to suspend further proceedings under the call or to excuse absent members shall not be adopted unless a majority of all members elected to the house vote in favor thereof.

CALL OF HOUSE RAISED WHEN ABSENTEES RETURN

RULE 76. The veto message of the governor accompanying any bill passed by the legislature, together with the bill vetoed, shall be read in the house. It shall then be in order to proceed to the reconsideration of the bill, refer it, lay it on the table, or postpone its consideration to a day certain.

The merits of the bill may be debated before the vote is taken, but the vote on a vetoed bill cannot be reconsidered.

In case of a bill containing several sections or items, one or more of which has been objected to by the governor, each section or item so objected to shall be voted upon separately by the house.

Action by the house upon all vetoed bills shall be endorsed upon the bill and certified by the speaker.

MOTION

Mr. Bagnariol moved adoption of House Floor Resolution No. 79-1.

Representatives Bagnariol and Berentson spoke in favor of the resolution, and it was adopted.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER

The Chief Clerk declared nominations for Speaker of the House to be in order.

Mr. King: "Those of us who are meeting today survived what was in many instances a bitter election campaign that resulted in equal membership in Democratic and Republican caucuses. In reacting to this unprecedented situation there are some who have predicted that we will not be successful in our attempts to put aside differences and accomplish the task of making policy for our state. But we are committed to making it work. After long hours of negotiation we who are in Olympia today in the House of Representatives are already organized. This is somewhat remarkable compared to the experience of other states with similar situations where problems of organization have gone unresolved well into their respective legislative sessions. The man we have selected to be the Democratic Speaker under our carefully negotiated organizational agreement is initially qualified to work with members of both parties with the accomplishment of our important responsibilities. He possesses a background in both labor and management; has a reputation of being fair and intelligent in all of his dealings. He knows that in the eyes of the people we are not Republicans or Democrats, we are first and foremost Americans and citizens of the State of Washington. He has demonstrated his statesmanship throughout his tenure as a State Representative and as Speaker of the House of Representatives. His leadership capabilities have been more in evidence during the long and arduous process of negotiating organizational decisions leading up to this opening day of the session. I am pleased to place in nomination the name of John Bagnariol for the office of Democratic Speaker."

Mr. Polk: "It is indeed my distinct honor and privilege to stand here today and place in nomination the honorable Duane Berentson of the 40th Legislative District. Duane has brought to this House unique personal qualities and brings us some unique experiences in his background.

Certainly much has been said and much more is going to be said about the circumstances we find ourselves in today with this tied situation, and it only makes good sense in that kind of a situation to turn to people with experience and real quality background in this legislature. Duane has been here sixteen years, which he assures me is most of his adult life. When you read the committees he has served on, it's a litany of all the committees virtually in the legislature. He has served as Chairman; he's served as assistant floor leader; he's served as our minority leader—as some of you on the other side have been painfully aware of during the past two years. Duane knows the legislature. He's been dedicated, well-schooled and knowledgeable. I can think of no one in this legislature who has more skill as a legislator, who is more knowledgeable or is a finer individual. Personally there is no one here for whom I have more respect. Therefore I am pleased to commit to you for your vote the honorable Duane Berentson for Speaker of the House."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll for election of Speaker of the House and Representative Bagnariol was elected Democratic Speaker and Representative Berentson was elected Republican Speaker by the following vote:

Those voting for Mr. Bagnariol were: Representatives Adams, Bagnariol, Bauer, Becker, Bender, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Charnley, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eng, Erak, Erickson, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Granlund, Grimm, Gruger, Heck, Hughes, Hurley, Jovanovich, Keller, King, Knowles, Kreidler, Lux, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, Monohon, Nelson (D), North, O'Brien, Owen, Pruitt, Salatino, Scott, Sherman, Smith (R), Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Vrooman, Walk, Warnke.

Those voting for Mr. Berentson were: Representatives Addison, Amen, Barnes, Barr, Berentson, Blair, Bond, Chandler, Clayton, Craswell, Dawson, Deccio, Dunlap, Eberle, Fancher, Flanagan, Fuller, Greengo, Haley, Hastings, Houchen, Isaacson, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Nelson (G.A.), Newhouse, Nisbet, Oliver, Patterson, Polk, Rohrbach, Rosbach, Sanders, Schmitt, Smith (C), Sprague, Struthers, Taller, Taylor, Teutsch, Tilly, Tupper, Van Dyken, Whiteside, Williams, Wilson, Winsley, Zimmerman.

The Chief Clerk appointed Representatives Bauer, King, Polk and Patterson to escort Representatives Bagnariol and Berentson to the rostrum. Chief Justice Utter administered the oath of office to the Speakers.

Speaker Bagnariol: "I would like at this time to introduce my family up in the gallery. My children, mother—the whole ball of wax up there. A few years ago when I was elected Speaker I had more people in the gallery, but thank God some of the kids have gone to work. My mother didn't realize there were Republicans until this tie situation occurred.

"We have a tedious session before us. We've pledged cooperation with each other and I'm sure that we can be statesmen all of us and do our jobs. We have some very important issues to face this year, and as you are all aware, each of those issues are going to be compromised, discussed—a lot of dialogue to finally come to what will be the best decisions for this state. I pledge you all my cooperation and support. I want to welcome you, each and every one of you—even the forty-nine Republicans who did not vote for me. Thank you."

Speaker Berentson: "I would like to introduce some members of my family. My very patient wife, Joanne; my daughter, Karen; my mother, Martha; and my father, Mariam Berentson. He's the fellow who taught me how to drive.

"Fellow members of the Forty-sixth Legislature, we are today entering into yet another phase of the ongoing process of self-government. That process involves all of the citizens of the State of Washington. Although the circumstances under which we will be operating are truly unique, we think the challenge we face today is truly no different than the challenge that has faced many men and women who have served here in this body over the past ninety years. That challenge is really to insure the success of representative government of the state and those of us who serve in the House of Representatives, I think, should be mindful now that we are representing, along with the Senate, better than three and a half million people in this state. Our political philosophies may differ, our approaches to solving problems may be diverse, but I think we all share in common the responsibility to serve the people we represent both diligently and selflessly.

"We come here for the most part to write law and policy and we are also writing history incidentally. We hope to achieve perfection, but I think it is our responsibility to consciously try to do our best and less than that is just not acceptable. We can be certain that history will record our failures as well as our successes and perhaps even more so with the unique situation in which we find ourselves. I think we all know that the situation we face is going to be a frustrating one—it's a very slow and arduous task that we face and sometimes we wonder if it will really work at all. Somehow it does work and I find that the political process over the years I have served can bring out not only the worst in us on occasion, but the very best in us also.

"During these past few weeks of the transition period, Speaker Bagnariol and I and some of our leadership team have spent a lot of time together. We have learned to disagree quite pleasantly with each other and I'm sure that will continue in the future. Perhaps even more important than that is the fact that we have also learned to respect each other. I'd like to leave you with just one thought: If we are to work together we must respect each other and particularly if the work we do here is to gain the respect of our fellow citizens."

Speaker Bagnariol: "I would like to point out just a few similarities—we purposely wore suits that were very close to being the same; we both wear the same kind of glasses. Duane and I are both salesmen; we both drive reddish-brown Lincolns—his is a little faster than mine. We're going to work well together."

Speaker Berentson assumed the Chair.

ELECTION OF CHIEF CLERK

Speaker Berentson declared nominations for Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives were now in order.

Mr. Thompson: "It's a great pleasure for me to place in nomination for the office of Co-Chief Clerk, our friend, Dean Foster. When Dean was first elected as Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives in 1973 he was the youngest Chief Clerk in the United States, by the end of this biennium he may be the oldest. Dean has grown up in this House of Representatives to the extent you would say any of us are grown up around here. He began as a bill clerk in the Senate in 1959 even before he was out of high school in Carnation. Following high school in Carnation he went to the University of Washington, Western Washington and got a degree in political science at the University of Washington. He went into the Army Air Force for five years and obtained the rank of Captain in Air Force Intelligence. I would like to emphasize that—we can use all the intelligence we can get around here right now. Dean came from the military back to his life here in the legislature and was serving in the Chief Clerk's office in a minor role during that last period in the minority. Since 1973 he has served in a very distinguished fashion as Chief Clerk of the Washington State House of Representatives and has gained a national reputation as well as the respect and affection of us all. Dean will be a very important ingredient in the success of the work that lies ahead for us. He brings a true concern for the success of this institution that I know we all share as well as a great deal of patience, efficiency and at times even agility. It is a great pleasure for me to urge that you elect Dean R. Foster as Co-Chief Clerk."

Mr. Patterson: "It's my pleasure to place in nomination the name of Vito T. Chiechi for the position of Co-Chief Clerk for the Washington House of Representatives. Mr. Chiechi brings to this body great knowledge of the legislative process having served as executive assistant to the Speaker of this House a few years ago. He's been in and around the government for over twenty years. He has gained a keen insight into Washington government and the legislative process. Along with his knowledge of the legislative process, his management skills are well known on both sides of this aisle. The job of Chief Clerk is difficult at best, but it will take someone of Vito's experience, talent and tenacity to take up the delicate challenge of being Co-Chief Clerk for us. I am confident that Vito's background will enable him to serve this legislature well and probably more important, the citizens of the State of Washington will be well-served by Mr. Chiechi's election as Co-Chief Clerk. It is indeed a pleasure for me to present his name to you."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. King, the nominations for Chief Clerk were closed.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll for the office of Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives and Dean R. Foster and Vito T. Chiechi were elected Co-Chief Clerks by the following vote:

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

January 8, 1979

THE HONORABLE,
THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON

Mr. Speaker:

We are herewith respectfully transmitting two Initiatives to the Legislature, the sponsors of which have filed supporting signatures with my office on or before the Constitutional and statutory deadline of December 29, 1978. The measures and their official ballot titles as prepared by the Attorney General are as follows:

No. 61: Shall a system requiring a minimum five cent refund on sales of beer, malt and carbonated beverage containers be established?

No. 62: Shall state tax revenues be limited so that increases do not exceed the growth rate of total state personal income?

My statutory duty is now to cause the signatures supporting these initiatives to be compared against the signatures of registered voters on file in my office to determine whether or not the respective sponsors have submitted the necessary minimum number of valid and unduplicated signatures for certification.

The sponsors of these two initiatives have filed a sufficient number of signatures to permit the application of the statistical sampling technique and for this reason I anticipate that the status of both measures will be determined on or before January 19, 1979. Upon completion of the canvassing of both initiatives, an official report will be given simultaneously to both branches of the Legislature.

Respectfully,
BRUCE K. CHAPMAN,
Secretary of State.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. King, all bills, memorials and resolutions listed on today's agenda under the fourth order of business were passed to the committees designated with the exception of House Bill No. 202, House Bill No. 204, House Bill No. 238 and House Joint Memorial No. 3.

On motion of Mr. King, House Bill No. 204 was referred to the Committee on Institutions.

FIRST READING

HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 3, by Representatives Oliver, Hastings, Isaacson, Clayton, Struthers, Bauer, May and Smith (C): Requesting passage of federal price support legislation for sugar beets.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. King, the rules were suspended and House Joint Memorial No. 3 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Mr. King, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and House Joint Memorial No. 3 was placed on final passage.

Representatives Oliver and Bauer spoke in favor of passage of the memorial.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Oliver yielded to question by Mr. Ehlers.

Mr. Ehlers: "Is there any advantage in this memorial to Congress as far as fiscal impact on the consumer for this price support?"

Mr. Oliver: "The actual area with regard to impact on the consumer—we're roughly looking at two cents a pound. With regard to the impact to consumers, it's minimal. Now in terms of the import restrictions, many times the importers are asked to pay the import tax to bring the product into the United States and this is, in effect, what pays that back to the price support base. Many times they may even have a surplus in that treasury rather than something that the taxpayers would be having to pay out of taxpayer treasury."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Oliver yielded to question by Mr. Barnes.

Mr. Barnes: "Representative Oliver, our sugar industry has been a rather well-established industry in the United States, at least it was until the last few years. We lost the imports from Cuba which really gave it quite a shot in the arm. Can you tell me why we are having a decline now in the prosperity of the sugar industry that would require this kind of action?"

Mr. Oliver: "The sugar industry is basically open for absolute importation of foreign sugar no matter what the price might be for the foreign importers. The amount of supply on the world market is actually incredible, and the labor supply is extremely low in terms of what they pay those people in the sugar-producing countries. As a result, we are finding that our own industry is being asked to compete against an extremely low-cost production industry overseas which they cannot do and survive."

Mr. Barnes: "If the sugar growing is terminated on these lands, what use would these lands be? Are they used for grazing or wheat growing or other types of farming?"

Mr. Oliver: "Certainly. The lands are available for other types of agricultural production. We can see that the crops they would grow would be, for example, additional hay, additional corn or wheat. However, if you move 70,000 acres in the state of Washington and roughly 350,000 acres in the state of California to other crops, what's going to happen to the price the farmers receive for those crops. That's a massive infusion of additional lands to other productions. This occurred in the hay industry about three years ago in the Columbia Basin and we saw the price of hay go from $75 a ton down to $35 and $40 a ton as a result of a massive infusion of additional acres planted to hay. It's not something you want to make in a rapid transition phase as is required if this industry is to exist."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Oliver yielded to question by Mr. Nelson, (D).

Mr. Nelson (D): "So that we know precisely what we are talking about, I wonder if you could convert two cents a pound into a dollar amount to the state of Washington or the whole country per year?"

Mr. Oliver: "I cannot convert two cents a pound for the state of Washington or the entire country. A rough estimate would be somewhere in the neighborhood of fifteen million dollars."

Mr. Nelson (D): "For the country or the state?"

Mr. Oliver: "For the country."

Representatives Clayton, Flanagan and Becker spoke in favor of passage of the memorial.

On page 15, paragraph 1, line 3 after "republican speaker," insert "co-speakers pro tempore, who shall be styled democratic speaker pro tempore and republican speaker pro tempore."

On page 15, paragraph 2, line 2 after "a" insert "co-speaker pro tempore,"

ELECTION OF SPEAKERS PRO TEM

Speaker Bagnariol announced that nominations for Speaker Pro Tem were now in order.

Mr. Lux: "It's with a great deal of pleasure and with humility that I would like to place in nomination the name of a man who is so well-known and loved, who has been in this House for more years than most of us can remember; who has more understanding of the procedures of the ways the functions are moved through this body than anyone that I know of. I've known John O'Brien for a good many years and I know that his experience and background can add nothing but a lot of great expertise and knowledge to the process that goes on here especially under the circumstances that we have in this particular session. At this time it is a great privilege for me to place the name of John L. O'Brien in nomination for Speaker Pro Tem."

Mr. Taller: "I rise with tremendous pride to place an individual in nomination for Speaker Pro Tem. I nominate Otto Amen as Republican Speaker Pro Tem. Otto is starting his seventh term. He has served on LBC for four years; he is past chairman of the Agriculture Committee, when the Republicans were in the majority. He is one of the best-liked members in the entire legislature. He is respected for his personal integrity and fairness. I think that's a choice that all of us desire to have after as many terms as Otto has in this body. He's a team player who places the benefit of the public first and his partisan politics second. I think that's recognized by the fact that at this time he ran unopposed and was supported by both parties in his legislative district. He's a hard-working citizen legislator and I think if we were to draw a model of who we would fit in the person who best represents that particular model, Otto would be the individual. As we proceed with our unusual organization with a tie of 49-49, I think it's beneficial to both sides of the aisle to have an individual like Otto as a member of leadership. He's a fair person who has worked with all of us and at the end of the session he sees to it that the people who really benefit are the general public.

"We have an opportunity to honor a fine human being today and know that he will represent all of us with respect and dignity and I hope you will join with me in saying 'Amen'."

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. King, nominations for Speaker Pro Tem were closed.

On motion of Mr. King, Representatives O'Brien and Amen were unanimously elected Co-Speakers Pro Tempore.

Speaker Bagnariol appointed Representatives Hurley, May, Newhouse and Flanagan to escort Representatives O'Brien and Amen to the rostrum. Speaker Bagnariol administered the oath of office to the Co-Speakers Pro Tem.

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE RULES

Ms. Valle moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Valle and Flanagan to the House Rules:

On page 15, following RULE 83, add a new section as follows:

"RULE 84. Smoking of cigarettes, pipes or cigars shall not be permitted at any public meeting of any committee of the House of Representatives, unless such prohibition shall be waived by the co-chairpersons of each committee.

No smoking signs shall be posted in all committee rooms of the House of Representatives."

Mr. Struthers moved adoption of the following amendment to the Valle/Flanagan amendment:

On line 3 of the amendment, after "the" strike "co-chairpersons of each committee" and insert "executive chairperson of each committee, unless said committee has two co-chairpersons, in which case both co-chairpersons must agree to waive the rule"

Representatives Struthers and Polk spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives King and Douthwaite spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Struthers to the Valle/Flanagan amendment to the House Rules, and the amendment to the amendment was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 49; nays, 46; not voting, 3.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Amen, Barnes, Barr, Blair, Bond, Chandler, Clayton, Craswell, Dawson, Deccio, Dunlap, Eberle, Fancher, Flanagan, Fuller, Greengo, Haley, Hastings, Houchen, Hurley, Isaacson, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Nelson G. A., Newhouse, Nisbet, Oliver, Patterson, Polk, Rohrbach, Rosbach, Sanders, Schmitten, Smith C. P., Sprague, Struthers, Taller, Taylor, Teutsch, Tilly, Tupper, Van Dyken, Whiteside, Williams, Wilson, Winsley, Zimmerman.

Voting nay: Representatives Adams, Bagnariol, Bauer, Becker, Bender, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Charnley, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eng, Erak, Erickson, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Granlund, Grimm, Gruger, Heck, Hughes, Jovanovich, Keller, King, Knowles, Kroidler, Lux, Maxie, May, McCormick, Monohon, Nelson D., North, O'Brien, Owen, Pruitt, Salatino, Scott, Sherman, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Vrooman, Walk, Warnke.

GOVERNOR'S ADDRESS

THE DOORWAY TO THE 80'S

The Governor: "President Cherberg, Senators Walgren and Henry, Speakers Bagnariol and Berentson, ladies and gentlemen of the Legislature, distinguished Justices of the Supreme Court, elected officials, fellow citizens, I bid you a full and good afternoon.

"Although we are embarked on a most important legislative session this year—just ten years short of our centennial—I am confident we can conduct the state's business in a spirit of good will and good humor; we are going to need a lot of both. We'll need them because we are about to make a bit of history as we operate for the first time with the 49ers of the House of Representatives.

"We have heard and read so much about the impossibility of working with co-speakers and co-chairmen and co-clerks and co-this and co-that. Let's confound all those experts and demonstrate to the self-proclaimed oracles that the most important 'co' in Olympia this session will be 'co-operation,' and when frowns appear and tempers shorten, I hope the peacemakers among us will be the only truly effective majority.

"Two years ago I appeared before you with a maximum supply of political innocence and a minimum store of gubernatorial experience. I hope that after two years of attention to duty, and with your continuing messages of encouragement and assistance, that I may have reversed that situation. As I look around I can see that you, too, have changed and so at this time, we're starting off even.

"In fulfillment of the requirement that the Governor communicate to the Legislature at each session the condition of the affairs of state and recommend action on such measures as are deemed expedient, I am pleased to make this report. On the basis of a number of significant yardsticks, Washington State is prospering to an extent greater than ever before in its history. A financial report, the first of its kind and planned as an annual document, has been provided to you.

"Employment, personal income, business volume—these as well as other measures point to new highs in economic performance. Some 85,000 new jobs were created in our state's economy just in the twelve months preceding last October. This raises total state employment to well over one million, six hundred thousand—the highest that any governor has ever been able to report. For the first time in a decade, monthly unemployment rates have frequently been below the national average. High employment across the state has allowed my administration to repay the final installment of the $137 million borrowed from the federal government to fund unemployment compensation during the drastic employment decline in the early 1970's. While inflation has pushed up the consumer price index by eight percent, compared with one year ago, personal income in the state has increased by fifteen percent in the same period, reaching $8,200 on a per capita basis. Industry has flourished in this state with a net gain of 12,000 new businesses accounting for a total manufacturing investment increase in excess of $650 million.

"The advantages of life in Washington are becoming more and more apparent to people all across the nation. Large numbers visited the Evergreen State in 1977-78, with revenues from the travel industry increasing by thirteen percent to approximately $2.7 billion. Substantial net in-migration over the past five years contributed to the forecast population increment between April 1978 and April 1979 of 129,000, reflecting the fact that Washington is undergoing, and probably will sustain, growth unparalleled in its history. Based on a June 1978 study, we can probably expect an additional 450,000 new citizens between now and 1985 and an additional 800,000 between then and the year 2000.

"Not only has our population increased in size, but its distribution, composition and disposition have changed as well. Seattle showed a seven percent loss in population, and Spokane and Tacoma posted only small increases compared to 1970. Whereas overall incorporated population increased by six percent, population in unincorporated areas of the state rose by over sixteen percent. For the fifth year in a row, births in Washington increased and persons 65 years of age and older now represent more than ten percent of the state's population. We are entering the era of a four-generation society.

"Controlling the size and cost of state government while still providing needed services is a major undertaking of this administration. Substantial population changes, such as I have reported, exert never-ending pressures to expand and extend government services and their delivery. During the last two years, however, state government growth has been held down to one percent per year as compared to seven and a half percent per year during the ten years preceding my first term in office.

"Nationwide inflation that erodes the purchasing power of citizens has severely affected state services. Maintenance of present service levels, plus the numerous instances of improved performance, have come about through enhanced management and greater employee efficiency. Examples of improvements abound. I will mention only three. Vehicle title transfer time which stood at a high of forty-seven days when I took office has been reduced to ten days; it remains at that level today, despite a nine percent increase in volume. The employment needs of the increasing population have caused us to place greater emphasis on helping people find jobs. Last year 98,000 individuals were placed and that's a record. The number of injured workers eligible for industrial insurance benefits who are paid within the fourteen days required by law rose from twenty-five to ninety percent—our aim is one hundred percent.

"Improved management has served to ameliorate, but cannot do away with, the problems of inflation in the public, as well as, the private sectors. Although we will continue to direct the government enterprise according to the best management standards, always seeking more cost-effective methods of service delivery, we must deal with the reality of spiraling costs. Our responsibility to govern efficiently cannot mitigate our responsibility to meet the needs of all the people.

"In Washington State, as in other states, care for the aged, the infirm and those recovering from protracted illness is frequently provided by private nursing homes. Sixty percent of the private nursing home facilities are occupied by patients who receive residential care under provisions of the Medicaid program administered by the state. As mandated by the federal government, nursing home operators are reimbursed for the costs of stipulated services. Patient care continues to be a primary consideration.

"Although we have practiced cost containment to assure the maximum provision of care for every tax dollar, we recognize the upward trend of operators' legitimate costs, and so, beyond the Medicaid program, I commend to you a number of alternatives.

"Provision of these alternatives would allow and encourage senior citizens to continue to live rewarding lives in the homes which seventy percent of them own. Your authorization of a $59 million increase for funding these measures would promote the availability of home health care services, increase the property tax exemption for seniors and provide state funding for continuation of the nationally acclaimed Senior Citizens' Service Act.

"All retired citizens are particularly affected by the inflationary burden on fixed retirement incomes. Although enhanced management of retirement systems now produces an additional $700,000 in investment income, six to eight percent inflation rates for the last four years have severely impacted retired members of the Teachers' and Public Employees' Retirement System. Retired teachers, in particular, have not received a cost of living increase for four years. I strongly recommend that you support my proposal to establish minimum benefits for retired teachers and public employees and provide a three percent cost of living increase.

"Although many of the buildings at Western and Eastern State Hospitals for the mentally ill have been updated over the years, patient treatment and rehabilitation programs are limited by functionally outdated structures. I urge your support in my request for $34 million to construct new facilities for the nonoffender parts of both hospitals.

"Throughout the state today there exists a serious shortage of decent, safe and affordable housing for families of low and moderate means. The average price of a new residence now exceeds $55,000. Some 120,000 citizens are paying more than twenty-five percent of their income for housing alone. Ninety-five thousand housing units are substandard, endangering their occupants' health and safety. To face up to this responsibility, I recommend that we establish a state housing finance agency similar to that found already in forty of the fifty states. This agency could begin to alleviate housing problems without long term costs to taxpayers. By selling tax exempt bonds, home mortgages would be made available through banks, savings and loan associations and mortgage companies to qualified individuals. Both the agency and financial institutions would use a small portion of bond proceeds to pay for administrative costs. Operation of the state housing finance agency could extend the benefits of home ownership or reduced rentals to people earning as little as nine thousand dollars to fifteen thousand dollars per year and it would also serve to dampen the effects of recession should we face that problem again here in Washington.

"Perhaps nowhere in state government have we worked harder to improve efficiency and effectiveness than in the provision of human services. Prudent management does demand, wherever possible, that we avoid unnecessary and fruitless cost, but provide public help to those with legitimate need. Humanity confirms also the need that we immunize children against preventative disease.

"Washington has always been dedicated to full educational opportunity for every child. Our Constitution stipulates that it is the paramount duty of the state to make ample provision for the education of all children. It does not equivocate or limit this duty. We have already delayed too long in assuming our legitimate responsibility. September of 1978 saw confirmation of this and full funding of K-12 is mandated by the courts.

"We should do it now. Accelerated full funding, such as I propose, is not simply a further shift of money from local to state sources. It heralds establishment of greater equality of educational opportunity for all children in the state wherever they may live, whatever their community's economic status. Today we have the opportunity to make Washington the first state in the continental United States to define and fully fund basic education. Such action would be an estimable hallmark for the 46th Legislature and I earnestly solicit your support for this measure.

"Washington citizens join others across the nation in calling for a tax relief. The budget proposed for the 1979-81 biennium includes a significant number of tax relief measures. I am proposing major tax reduction for the first time since the administration of Governor Mon Walgren, some thirty-two years ago. These tax programs, if enacted, will provide tax relief for all citizens, for senior citizens, for property owners and for the state's business community. Let me emphasize again, accelerated full funding of the common schools would provide significant property tax relief for homeowners this year.

"Resolution of the complex fisheries' management programs constitutes another important problem for state government. United States Supreme Court review of the Boldt decision in the next sixty to ninety days will not realistically solve all the issues.

"Accordingly, we are working with our Congressional Delegation on a Washington State Resource Management Plan designed to increase the availability and quality of salmon and steelhead fish for all citizens on an equal opportunity basis.

"Looking to the future, we must make adequate provision for the state's identified building needs. My proposed capital budget calls for legislative endorsement of eleven bond issues. Each of these is amply justified and clearly needed. I particularly urge your support of a $111 million bond issue for capital improvements in DSHS which would, if approved, provide for a new five hundred bed medium security adult correction facility. This construction would constitute an integral part of the effort toward relieving overcrowding in the penal institutions. It will also provide capital improvements at Eastern and Washington State Mental Hospitals and other DSHS facilities.

"Our northwestern way of living and the growing population demands additional recreation facilities. These can frequently be provided with the assistance of federal funding where the state is willing to provide matching funds. Availability of these matching funds requires your authorization of a $16 million bond issue for the Outdoor Recreation Account.

"Two other bond issues—one for universities, the other for the community college system—amount, in total, to $57.5 million. These are not pointed to substantial new construction, but to improvement of existing structures.

"This is only my second opportunity to present my budget and legislative proposals to this august body. My proposals are designed to meet the basic needs of our citizens while remaining consistent with my administration's philosophy and the temper of the times—that is to move toward minimizing the burden of taxes, minimizing the involvement of government in the lives of its citizens, and providing essential government services in an efficient, professional and businesslike manner. The proposals I bring you are not designed to solve all problems. They are, for the most part, modest proposals for incremental improvements to meet basic and immediate needs. I request your help in considering these proposals with dispatch so that we may work together to face some far more compelling and far-ranging problems. I speak to you now of just two such problems: These are the need for (1) adequate supplies of energy to sustain the healthy economic conditions we now enjoy, (2) the need for expansion, maintenance and improvement of the public transportation systems upon which we all depend so heavily and which will soon be strained to overcapacity with our increasing population. We will not emerge from this legislative session with permanent solutions to either of these problems. This decade may end without such solutions, but let us not open the door to the eighties unless it can be said that this state government—the Governor and the Legislature working together—have begun to deal with the pressures and problems that population and economic growth will bring. Let it not be said that this government lacked the foresight to tackle the problems of energy supply and diversification, so that viable energy resources will be available for transportation, environment, and economic opportunity for the citizens of this state as they begin the next decade. Let us then work together to complete this legislative session with harmony and efficiency, but let this, too, be the beginning of a determined effort to work more closely to prepare the way to the eighties, to ensure that the next decade in this state will be as prosperous and as promising for our citizens as we expect the completion of this decade to be. Let us demonstrate our ability to tackle these long range needs by the success with which we complete our work in this legislative session.

"Thank you."

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

January 16, 1979

TO THE HONORABLE
SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON

Mr. Speaker:

My office has completed a statistical sample of signatures filed in support of Initiative to the Legislature No. 61. According to the provisions of RCW 29.79.200, that sampling procedure must indicate that the petition contains at least one hundred ten percent of the requisite number of legal voters.

The statistical sample used in canvassing Initiative Measure No. 61 indicates that whereas the petition appears to contain a number of signatures in excess of the minimum required by the State Constitution, it does not contain one hundred ten percent of the requisite number.

Therefore, in accordance with RCW 29.79.200 and WAC 434-79-010, I have directed that a full canvass be made of the signatures filed in support of the measure. I anticipate that this process will be completed on or before February 21, 1979, at which time an official report will be given simultaneously to both branches of the Legislature.

Respectfully,

BRUCE K. CHAPMAN, Secretary of State.

On motion of Mr. Martinis, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Senate Bill No. 2065 was placed on final passage.

Representatives Martinis, Wilson, North and Dunlap spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis yielded to question by Mr. Charnley.

Mr. Charnley: "Representative Martinis, I wonder if you might just briefly explain to us what affect this will have on the gas tax revenues and whether there will be any increase or not?"

Mr. Martinis: "The bill I refer to that would carry this bill—and we need a sixty percent with the variable gas tax—ten percent of that variable gas tax is dedicated for urban arterial projects. The revenue is there; the money is going into a fund and this bill simply authorizes the expenditure for the sale of the bonds. The bond service is dedicated by that ten percent of the gas tax money. It's already there."

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

January 18, 1979

THE HONORABLE
SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON

Dear Sir:

We herewith respectfully transmit for your consideration, pursuant to Article II, Section 1, of the state Constitution and RCW 29.79.200, the certification of the sufficiency of Initiative to the Legislature 62 together with a copy of the full, true and complete text of the Initiative as filed in this office on June 9, 1978.

Sincerely,

BRUCE K. CHAPMAN, Secretary of State
CARMELA M. BOWNS, Assistant Secretary of State

CERTIFICATION OF INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE 62

Pursuant to Article II, Section 1A of the Washington State Constitution, RCW 29.79.200, and WAC 434-79-010, the Office of the Secretary of State has caused the signatures submitted in support of Initiative to the Legislature 62 to be examined in the following manner:

(1) It was determined that 169,456 signatures were submitted by the sponsors thereof. A random sample of 6,748 signatures was taken from those submitted;

(2) Each sampled signature was examined to determine the following: (a) if the signer was a registered voter of the state at the address indicated on the petition; (b) if the signature was proper as to form; and (c) if the same signature appeared more than once in the sample. We found 6,270 valid signatures, 464 signatures invalid due to not being registered or being improper in form, and 14 pairs of duplicated signatures in the sample;

(3) We calculated an allowance for the chance of error of sampling (33) by multiplying the square root of the number of invalid signatures by 1.5;

(4) We estimated the upper limit of the number of signatures on the initiative petition which were invalid (12,482) by dividing the sum of the number of invalid signatures in the sample and the allowance for the chance error of sampling by the sampling ratio;

(5) We determined the maximum allowable number of pairs of signatures on the petition (20,891) by subtracting the sum of 110% of the number of signatures required by Article II, Section 1A of the Washington State Constitution (136,083) and the estimate of the upper limit of the number of invalid signatures in the population from the number of signatures submitted;

(6) We determined the expected number of pairs of signatures in the sample (33) by multiplying the square of the sampling ratio by the maximum allowable number of pairs of signatures on the initiative petition;

(7) We determined the acceptable number of pairs of signatures in the sample (23) by subtracting 1.65 times the square root of the expected number of pairs of signatures in the sample from the expected number of pairs of signatures in the sample; and

(8) Since the number of pairs of signatures in the sample is less than the acceptable number of pairs of signatures in the sample, I hereby declare Initiative to the Legislature 62 to be sufficient.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of Washington to be affixed this 18th day of January, A.D., 1979.
(SEAL OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON)

CARMELA M. BOWNS, Assistant Secretary of State

INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE 62

AN ACT Relating to revenue and taxation; adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The people of the state of Washington hereby find and declare:

(1) The continuing increases in our state tax burden and the corresponding growth of state government is contrary to the interest of the people of the state of Washington.

(2) It is necessary to limit the rate of growth of state government while assuring adequate funding of essential services, including basic education as defined by the legislature.

(3) It is therefore the intent of this chapter to:

(a) Establish a limit which will assure that the growth rate of state tax revenue does not exceed the growth rate of state personal income;

(b) Assure that local governments are provided funds adequate to render those services deemed essential by their citizens;

(c) Assure that the state does not impose, on any taxing district, responsibility for new programs or increased levels of service under existing programs unless the costs thereof are paid by the state;

(d) Provide for adjustment of the limit when costs of a program are transferred between the state and another political entity; and

(e) Establish a procedure for exceeding this limit in emergency situations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless otherwise required.

(1) "State tax revenue" means all state moneys received in the treasury from every source except those revenues excluded for the term "general state revenues" by Article VIII, section (1)(c) of the state Constitution other than the state property tax levied for the support of the common schools under RCW 84.52.065, as now or hereafter amended.

(2) "State personal income" means the dollar amount published as total personal income of persons of the state for the calendar year by the United States department of commerce or its successor agency.

(3) "State tax revenue limit" or "limit" means the state tax revenue limit created by this chapter.

(4) "Taxing district" means those districts included within the term "taxing district" under RCW 84.04.120, as now or hereafter amended.

(5) "State personal income ratio" for any calendar year means the quotient formed by dividing (a) state personal income for the calendar year under consideration by (b) the state personal income for the immediately preceding calendar year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The state tax revenue limit for any fiscal year shall be the previous fiscal year's state tax revenue limit multiplied by the average state personal income ratio for the three calendar years immediately preceding the beginning of the fiscal year for which the limit is being computed.

(2) For purposes of computing the state tax revenue limit for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1980, the phrase "the previous fiscal year's state tax revenue limit" means the state tax revenue collected in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1978, multiplied by the average state personal income ratio for the calendar years 1976, 1977, and 1978.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Except as provided in section 5 of this act, taxes, fees, and charges on persons, property, and activities shall be imposed, levied, or set by the legislature in such a manner that the estimated state tax revenue for each fiscal year of the next biennium will not exceed the state tax revenue limit for that fiscal year: PROVIDED, The legislature may at any time adjust such taxes, fees, and charges for the second fiscal year of the biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The state tax revenue limit for any fiscal year may be exceeded in order to meet an emergency as declared by the legislature by two-thirds vote of each house. The legislature, by two-thirds vote of each house, shall set forth the circumstances constituting the emergency and the amount of state tax revenue in excess of the applicable state tax revenue limit necessary to meet the emergency.

(2) Any amount of state tax revenue authorized by subsection (1) of this section in excess of the state tax revenue limit shall be authorized only for the fiscal year in which the vote is taken and/or the next succeeding fiscal year, as directed by the legislature.

(3) Except where the emergency results from a court order, the amount of state tax revenue authorized under subsection (1) of this section in excess of the limit shall not be used in the revenue base used to compute the state tax revenue limit for subsequent years.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. (1) The legislature shall not impose responsibility for new programs or increased levels of service under existing programs on any taxing district unless the districts are reimbursed for the costs thereof by the state.

(2) That proportion of state tax revenue which consists of direct state appropriations to taxing districts taken as a group shall not be decreased below that proportion appropriated in the biennium immediately preceding the effective date of this act: PROVIDED, This proportion shall be decreased in any fiscal year only if: (a) The legislature decreases the state tax revenue limit for that fiscal year by an amount equal to the dollar amount of any decrease in direct state appropriations to taxing districts taken as a whole; or (b) the state tax revenue limit has been increased under section 5(3) or 6(3) of this act and the decrease of the proportion is commensurate with the increase in the state tax revenue limit.

(3) If by order of any court, or legislative enactment, the costs of a federal or taxing district program are transferred to or from the state, the otherwise applicable state tax revenue limit shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the dollar amount of the costs of the program.

(4) The legislature, in consultation with the office of financial management or its successor agency, shall determine the costs of any new programs or increased levels of service under existing programs imposed on any taxing district or transferred to or from the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The legislature shall, prior to any other appropriation, provide for the payment of the principal and interest of the indebtedness of the state. State tax revenue collected in any fiscal year in excess of the state tax revenue limit for that fiscal year shall be included as part of the state tax revenue for the succeeding fiscal year.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. This act shall take effect on January 1, 1980: PROVIDED, That the first fiscal year for which the state tax revenue limit shall be in effect is the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 1980.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

Initiative 62 was referred to Committee on Revenue

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Dunlap: "Mr. Speaker, I think the message we've just heard represents a milestone in the way of making tax limitation a reality in our state and I'd like to make just three brief points. First, I'd ask that we put partisanship aside and let's debate the subject of tax limitation, not as Republicans or Democrats, but—"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Bagnariol: "It doesn't appear to me, Mr. Speaker, that Representative Dunlap is speaking to a point of personal privilege. He is, in effect, talking about the merits of the initiative which will go through the regular process of this legislature."

Speaker Berentson: "Representative Dunlap, would you be brief and hold your remarks to the concept itself. I don't think at this point we want to debate the merits of the issue."

Mr. Dunlap: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker, it's certainly not my intent to do that. Let's not talk about it as Republicans or Democrats, but as representatives of taxpayers, and—"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "There's nothing before us. The gentleman is completely out of order. Talking to a point of personal privilege should only be used when a member's motives are impugned or something of that nature. To discuss an issue or something that's being filed here is completely out of order. I've never heard anyone take this kind of an opportunity under personal privilege to expound and urge the passage of a given issue."

Speaker Berentson: "It isn't an issue to the legislature, Representative Dunlap. Will you be very brief and complete your remarks."

Mr. Dunlap: "I'd only like to make the point that Initiative 62 is a kind of first step in the process of bringing tax limitation to this state. First the initiative, statutory, then the constitutional amendment and finally, a federal limitation. I hope that we can work together this session, and in so doing, make tax limitation a reality for the state of Washington."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Bagnariol: "I would hope in the future, Speaker Berentson, that when a point of order is raised and a member is obviously out of order—Representative O'Brien made a very good speech; there was nothing before us—that the ruling would be supporting the point of order."

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Knowles spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Eberle spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Knowles yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. TILLY: "Mr. Knowles, I'd like to have this in the record. I represent a lot of area in Eastern Washington that's rural land. The concern those people have is if someone goes onto the property without permission of the landowner and if the owner of the land has a dog and it should happen to bite that person, even though they are on the land without permission, is the owner of the dog liable?"

Mr. Knowles: "The only answer I could give you, Representative Tilly, is if that entry onto the land amounts to trespass then they would not be entitled to recover and it would be a number of actual situations that would determine whether or not the individual was trespassing. Normally if you post your land with no-trespassing signs, or with a dog in a fenced yard—"beware of the dog," "keep out"—things of that nature, it would probably protect that individual if someone came on his land with that no trespassing sign on it."

Representatives Tilly and Isaacson spoke against the bill.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Charnley and Barnes spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Charnley yielded to question by Mr. Taller.

Mr. Taller: "Representative Charnley, how do the fines in this bill compare to the rest of our legal operations? How does one thousand dollars or ten thousand dollars fit into the hierarchy of penalties?"

Mr. Charnley: "I can't tell you specifically. I know that this is a civil penalty, not a criminal penalty. You'll notice that the first penalty is up to a thousand dollars, so it could be only ten dollars. The thing we want to make sure of is to draw it to the attention of an organization that is doing this illegally, that if they continue to do it and are caught again, then the court is given the authority to levy up to—again, I emphasize—up to ten thousand dollars."

Mr. Douthwaite spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Douthwaite yielded to question by Mr. Struthers.

Mr. Struthers: "Representative Douthwaite, would this in any way put a professor in a liability situation that he could not defend by having to make that decision?"

Mr. Douthwaite: "I would assume not. I think it is the professor's duty to check to see that the student has written his own paper. There should be no liability as such; in fact, perhaps to the contrary. If he did not make that check he is guilty of being sloppy. My judgment is no."

Speaker Bagnariol: "Your motion is out of order, Representative Polk. There is already a motion before us."

Mr. Berentson: "That issue, however, would not be before us in the way of debate unless another motion were placed before the body."

Speaker Bagnariol: "That is correct."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion by Representative King to refer all bills on the agenda under fourth order of business to the committees designated with the exception of House Joint Memorial No. 7, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 46; not voting, 8.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Bagnariol, Bauer, Becker, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Charnley, Ehlers, Eng, Erak, Erickson, Gallagher, Galloway, Granlund, Grimm, Gruger, Heck, Hughes, Hurley, Jovanovich, Keller, King, Knowles, Kreidler, Lux, Maxie, May, McCormick, Monohon, Nelson D., North, O'Brien, Owen, Pruitt, Salatino, Scott, Sherman, Smith R., Sommers, Thompson, Vrooman, Walk, Warnke.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Amen, Barnes, Barr, Berentson, Blair, Bond, Chandler, Clayton, Craswell, Dawson, Deccio, Dunlap, Eberle, Fancher, Flanagan, Fuller, Greengo, Haley, Hastings, Houchen, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Nelson G. A., Newhouse, Nisbet, Oliver, Patterson, Polk, Rohrbach, Rosbach, Schmitt, Smith C. P., Struthers, Taller, Taylor, Teutsch, Tilly, Tupper, Van Dyken, Whiteside, Williams, Wilson, Winsley, Zimmerman.

Not voting: Representatives Bender, Douthwaite, Garrett, Isaacson, Martinis, Sanders, Sprague, Valle.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Polk, all bills and memorials on today's agenda under the fourth order of business were referred to the committees designated.

MOTION

Mr. King moved that the rules be suspended to allow immediate consideration of House Joint Memorial No. 7.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Polk: "Mr. Speaker, to immediately consider House Joint Memorial No. 7—is Representative King asking that it be on second reading under the sixth order of business?"

Speaker Bagnariol: "He's asking for a suspension of the rules."

Mr. Polk: "What's he doing with a suspension of the rules?"

Speaker Bagnariol: "Vote yes on the motion and you'll find out."

Mr. Polk: "Under a suspension of the rules, with the motion that Representative King just made, would House Joint Memorial No. 7 then be before us under the fourth order of business?"

Speaker Bagnariol: "I believe he intended it to be before us on third reading and final passage."

Mr. Polk: "Would you restate the motion please, Mr. Speaker?"

Speaker Bagnariol called on Mr. King to restate his motion.

Mr. King: "Mr. Speaker, it was my intent that the bill be brought before us so that we could then discuss the contents of that memorial and decide whether or not we want to act on it today."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Berentson: "If we were to relieve the committee of the memorial, it would be back in front of us on the fourth order of business and it would require a suspension of the rules to move it to the sixth order of business where it could be debated. It's my understanding that the only motion before us is to do that, which would not allow for any debate of the issue."

SPEAKER'S RULING

Speaker Bagnariol: "The motion that has been placed is to suspend the rules, bring House Joint Memorial No. 7 back to the floor on the fourth order of business. It would then take another motion to suspend the rules to move it to a position of debate. Representative King does have the prerogative of debating his reason for wanting to bring that bill back before the body."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Berentson: "It's your understanding of the rules that we would have one speech on either side of that issue?"

Speaker Bagnariol: "That is correct."

Mr. King spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Newhouse: "Mr. Speaker, our rules provide, because of the information to the members, that on a motion for suspension of the rules, the speakers on each side will very concisely explain the reason why the rules must be suspended. For that purpose, I don't think it's necessary to go into a complete debate on the bill."

SPEAKER'S RULING

Speaker Bagnariol: "I don't think he's gone into a complete debate. He's explaining his reasons as to why he wanted the bill before us. Representative King, please contain your remarks as much as you can."

Mr. King continued his remarks in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Polk: "Mr. Speaker, Mr. King is not speaking to the motion to suspend the rules and bring it back before us. At that time we can debate that issue. He's now reading parts of the memorial and he's trying to make arguments in favor of the memorial. We understand what he's doing and trying to get away with as much leeway as he can, but it's definitely beyond the scope of the rules."

Speaker Bagnariol: "I believe your point is somewhat well taken. Contain your remarks, please, Mr. King."

Mr. King continued.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Berentson: "He did pretty well for about a minute there. Now he's dived into deficit spending. I'm a little confused, frankly, whether he's speaking for or against the memorial. I think, as was stated earlier, he ought to just keep his remarks as to whether or not that measure should be brought before us from the committee."

Speaker Bagnariol: "Your point is well taken."

Mr. King concluded his remarks in favor of the motion.

Mr. Blair spoke against the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to refer to you, in part, the motion relative to suspension of the rules. It states in part, 'The motion for suspension of the rules will not be debatable, except however, the mover of the motion may briefly explain the purpose of the motion, and one member may briefly explain the opposition to the motion.' I would think, Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has gone far beyond all reason. He's not briefly explaining his oppositon; he's going into elaborate details of why we should not consider this memorial."

SPEAKER'S RULING

Speaker Bagnariol: "Your point is well taken. Representative Blair, you are wandering into the integrity of the congressional delegation. Would you kindly confine your remarks to the reasons why the memorial should not come out of the Appropriations Committee."

Mr. Blair concluded his remarks in opposition to the motion.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to suspend the rules and immediately consider House Joint Memorial No. 7, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 46; not voting, 8.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Bagnariol, Bauer, Becker, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Charnley, Ehlers, Eng, Erak, Erickson, Gallagher, Galloway, Granlund, Grimm, Gruger, Heck, Hughes, Hurley, Jovanovich, Keller, King, Knowles, Kreidler, Lux, Maxie, May, McCormick, Monohon, Nelson D., North, O'Brien, Owen, Pruitt, Salatino, Scott, Sherman, Smith R., Sommers, Thompson, Vrooman, Walk, Warnke.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Amen, Barnes, Barr, Berentson, Blair, Bond, Chandler, Clayton, Craswell, Dawson, Deccio, Dunlap, Eberle, Fancher, Flanagan, Fuller, Greengo, Haley, Hastings, Houchen, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Nelson G. RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 79-9, by Representatives King, Polk, Adams, Addison, Amen, Barnes, Bauer, Bender, Blair, Burns, Chandler, Charnley, Clayton, Dawson, Dunlap, Eng, Ehlers, Erickson, Fancher, Galloway, Greengo, Gruger, Haley, Hastings, Heck, Houchen, Isaacson, Knowles, Lux, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Owen, Nisbet, Patterson, Pruitt, Rosbach, Salatino, Sanders, Schmitten, Scott, Sherman, Struthers, Taller, Taylor, Teutsch, Tilly, Tupper, Walk, Whiteside, Williams, Winsley and Zimmerman:

WHEREAS, During the 45th session of the Washington State Legislature, the legislature passed into law: A definition of basic education, a limitation on excess special levies, and a biennial budget that funded the first two years of a proposed four year phase-in, to meet its constitutional mandate to fully fund basic education in this state; and

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court in September of 1978 accepted the legislature's proposed four year phase-in to fully fund basic education, and extended the date for compliance to 1981; and

WHEREAS, The Governor, in her 1979-81 biennial budget request, proposed fully funding our common schools in 1979-80 rather than 1980-81; and

WHEREAS, This is a meritorious proposal and deserves due consideration by the legislature; however, the legislature has not had sufficient time to evaluate its implication; and

WHEREAS, Local school districts are currently facing special levy elections prior to the time the legislature has made a determination of the merits of the proposal, local districts have no alternative but to assume that the state will continue the phasing plan for 100% funding of basic education by the 1980-81 school year:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the House of Representatives, That we wish to make aware to the voters of this state that special levies are still important to the operation and maintenance of our common schools for basic education as well as special programs, and that we encourage voters to support special levy elections; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That if the legislature should decide to approve full funding of schools in 1979-80 any special levy taxes approved that would be in excess to the amount local districts should receive, will be returned to the taxpayers of this state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerks of the House shall transmit copies of this House Resolution to members of the communications media for the information of the public.

Mr. King moved adoption of the resolution and spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Polk spoke in favor of the resolution, and Mr. O'Brien spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Garrett.

Mr. Garrett: "Representative King, in the first 'Be it further resolved,' it says '...that would be in excess to the amount local districts should receive, will be returned to the taxpayers of this state.' That means, of course, the taxpayers of the district in which it was collected? This isn't a sly way of raising money for the state, is it?"

Mr. King: "That is correct."

House Resolution No. 79-9 was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Polk, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Friday, February 2, 1979.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Although I voted against this memorial to Congress, I would like to be listed as supporting the measure.

It has been brought to my attention by persons who have had considerable direct experience with the excruciating side-effects of chemotherapy that denying these people access to any drug which would temporarily alleviate their suffering is not only unjust but cruel as well. I realize how little I have understood this problem and how remote it seems; and yet I cannot be in the position of denying a means of relief to these individuals. There are situations which call for the use of drugs which society must regulate but which also should be used beneficially for those who need it. For these reasons I would like to be recorded as favoring HJM 4.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Polk, all bills, memorials and resolutions listed on today's agenda under the fourth order of business were considered first reading and passed to the committees designated.

On motion of Mr. Polk, HOUSE BILL NO. 733, HOUSE BILL NO. 738 and HOUSE BILL NO. 742 were referred to Committee on Ecology.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 210, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Chandler, Heck, Taller, Valle, Barr, Tupper, Houchen, Nisbet, Taylor, Sprague, McGinnis, Dawson, Teutsch, Bauer, Ehlers, Isaacson and Wilson - by Superintendent of Public Instruction request):

Making miscellaneous changes in basic education act.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see House Journal, 31st Day, February 7, 1979.)

Ms. Galloway moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, line 10 after "work skills," strike all the language down to and including "section" on line 13 and insert "any local school district may establish minimum course mix percentages that deviate by up to five percentage points above or below those minimums required by subsection (2) of this section, so long as the total program hour requirement is still met"

Representatives Galloway, McDonald and Heck spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

Mr. Barnes moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 10, line 17 strike everything after "as" down to and including "to," on line 19 and insert "enrollment fluctuations and for ((special)) substantiated costs of programs, as defined by the legislature, including but not limited to, urban factors,"

Mr. Chandler moved adoption of the following amendment to the Barnes amendment:

Strike "but not limited to" and insert "((but not limited to))"

Representatives Chandler, Barnes and Bender spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Heck and Flanagan spoke against it.

Mr. Chandler spoke again in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Chandler yielded to question by Ms. Sommers.

Ms. Sommers: "Representative Chandler, I'm trying to understand a little bit more clearly exactly what you think striking that phrase does."

Mr. Chandler: "I want to say in this language—the first issue is the fact that we've changed the words, 'the legislature may' to 'the legislature shall appropriate funds to be distributed to school districts for such factors as enrollment fluctuations,' and so on. . . 'substantiated programs as defined by the legislature including'—and I'm simply saying that these include urban factors and removing the language that says, 'but not limited to,' so that the definition is narrower rather than totally broad. I think that by doing this we eliminate many of the objections that have been expressed for changing the word 'may' to 'shall.' If you will recall in the 1977 session, this very issue was before us and Representative Shinpoch at that time was vigorous in his defense of the word 'may.' Many of us were just as vigorous in our defense of the word 'shall.' I think, frankly, that I was wrong at that time and he was right, and that if we are indeed going to change the word to 'shall' we want to be much more descriptive of what we are saying we 'shall' fund. If we leave the words 'not limited to,' then we are not at all limited on what that could be. It's very difficult, if not impossible, to define what we are going to appropriate. I think that's bad language to have in the basic education act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Chandler yielded to question by Mr. Bender.

Mr. Bender: "Representative Chandler, we've been discussing this whole issue regarding trying to clarify the language, but I just received your second amendment here which strikes the last four words on line 22. What is really your intention? Are you trying to clarify the language, or are you trying to really limit the programs that can be offered?"

Mr. Chandler: "That is a second issue from this one and I really didn't want to speak to that now, but it's very clear what it does. It would be very limiting in what we are saying we 'shall' fund—that the legislature, if it's going to make that kind of commitment, I believe we should say what we are going to fund. We don't want to be kidding anybody that we are including their program when we do not intend to. Otherwise, I'm for going back to the word 'may'."

Mr. Bender now spoke in opposition to the amendment, and Mr. Blair spoke in favor of it.

It says, in part: '... the member shall never address any one but the presiding officer. He must not allude to any member by name, but by some descriptive expression, like "The gentleman who last addressed the assembly," "the gentleman from Virginia," "the noble and learned lord," "the gallant gentleman, the member from Portsmouth."' I wish you would bring this to the attention of the members in order that no tempers will arise and the debate will proceed in good order."

Establishing the Pacific Northwest festival facility.

Committee on Commerce recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendment, see Journal, 26th Day, February 2, 1979.)

On motion of Mr. Warnke, the committee amendment was adopted.

Mr. Nelson (G.A.) moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Nelson (G.A.) and Bender:

On page 1, line 25 following "matching" strike "grant" and insert "grants"

On page 1, line 27 following "arts" strike "facility" and insert "facilities"

Mr. Nelson (G.A.) spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Warnke spoke against them.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Nelson (G.A.): "We don't have House Bill No. 777 amendments before this body and I don't want those amendments to thwart the intent of the amendments now being asked for on House Bill No. 376."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The Representative just made reference to some amendments. Continue, Representative Warnke."

Mr. Warnke continued his remarks in opposition to the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Nelson (G.A.) yielded to question by Mr. Keller.

Mr. Keller: "Representative Nelson, I'm looking at these amendments, and I think, philosophically, I agree with what you are attempting to do, but I do have some concern that if we approve some of the amendments and not all of them, what sort of a mess are we going to end up in? If we're talking about plural facilities, plural grants, and if we do not adopt the remainder of the amendments, where are we going to find ourselves?"

Mr. Nelson (G.A.): "The first two amendments would give multiple grants as would the change on page 2, line 1, going from $5 million to $40 million. One should continue to have designated in the first highlighted area, the Federal Way area, if the body so chooses, and not destroy the bill. You could keep the commission that has been established in this measure, which in a subsequent amendment, you will note, I have removed and essentially have the Arts Commission under their jurisdictional effort, choose those areas rather than establishing a new commission. The multiplicity of the bonds would not be damaged and the other amendments dealing with either the Commission or the designated one location should be voted on separately so as not to damage the bill."

Mr. Eberle spoke against the amendments.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representatives Nelson (G.A.) and Bender to House Bill No. 376, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 59; nays, 37; not voting, 2.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Ehlers: "It was called to my attention over the weekend that there was a matter being circulated which I can't very well violate the rules of the House by reading, so I will just..."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Will you bring the matter to the rostrum so we can take a look at it before we pass on your personal privilege?"

Mr. Ehlers brought the paper to the rostrum.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Will you kindly explain to the body your point of personal privilege?"

Mr. Ehlers: "I believe, Mr. Speaker, that my motives have been impugned, as well as a number of other members—the forty-nine members across the aisle. We were characterized as being irresponsible..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Berentson: "He's been speaking for about a minute and a half now and he hasn't indicated who he's been impugned by or stated his position at all. We all know here in this body what he's getting to and I would ask you to rule that he is out of order. He is going to speak to an action that is clearly outside the purview of this body—an action that occurred away from this body—and in no way should he be able to speak to a point of personal privilege concerning an action that does not involve this body. I would appreciate it if you would put us at ease so we can get together and decide how this ruling should take place."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "According to the unwritten rules when someone raises a point of order we are supposed to put the House at ease until the two of you gentlemen can come up here and talk about it. The House is now at ease."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) called the House to order.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Bagnariol, the House recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by the Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding). The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representative Flanagan, who was excused.

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "At the time of recess a point of order was raised by Representative Berentson on the point of personal privilege comments by Representative Ehlers. It appears that Representative Ehlers may have an opportunity to express his position and why his motives were impugned. At this time the Speaker will allow Representative Ehlers to give us some idea of what this is all about."

Mr. Ehlers: "I thought I'd say the heading was, 'WE THOUGHT YOU OUGHT TO KNOW.' I thought that..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Berentson: "Under Reed's Rule 187, we cannot read a paper without the permission of the body and especially a paper that does not deal with anything before this body."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Representative Berentson, Reed's Rule 187 also states, '...if any member objects, the reading must be ordered by the assembly on motion.' Also House Rule 55 states, 'When the reading of any paper is called for, and is objected to by any member, it shall be determined by a vote of the house.' Representative Ehlers can read his paper on a vote of the House. Would someone like to make a motion?"

Mr. Ehlers: "It's not worth reading. The only point I have, really, is in defense of the bipartisan body we have here, that the forty-nine members across the aisle can obtain recognition with some of our members..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Berentson: "He has been speaking for about three minutes now and he's not indicated to this body the subject of his recognition. I think before we let him talk about having been impugned and so forth we ought to know what he's speaking of."

Mr. Ehlers relinquished the floor.

Representatives Charnley, Schmitt and Taylor spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Charnley yielded to question by Mr. Greengo.

Mr. Greengo: "Representative Charnley, I notice in the bill it mentions all public school children, with this extremely low cost being primarily a matter of education. Was there a particular reason why you did not want the bill to apply to all children in the state, but only those who go to public schools?"

Mr. Charnley: "Not at all, Representative Greengo. The bill deals with the authority of the Superintendent of Public Instruction's Office. When this came up before the committee there was some discussion on this and the testimony was from people who go to private schools. I think with the advent of this in the public schools, the private schools will do the same. I certainly wouldn't want to exclude them, but it just was not the matter of discussion in the committee."

Mr. Erak: "Representative Isaacson, Representative Oliver states that we will have mountains and mountains of work and we'll be involved in a tremendous amount of problems. In your amendment you strike everything down through and including line 29. Could you tell us basically what it is?"

Mr. Isaacson: "Referring back to the first two sentences of subsection (5), which just repeats this: 'Every person who violates the provisions of certificates and permits issued or administered by the council shall incur, in addition to any other penalty as provided by law, a penalty in the amount of up to five thousand dollars a day for every such violation. Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct violation.' Those are the provisions that give the Department of Ecology the entree, if you will, to fine a company for minor infractions of their discharge permits. Sections 3 and 4 speak to the point that is required by federal law. Section 5 was added by our Department of Ecology because they thought it would be a good idea, and, in so doing, have included this sentence which I ask to be stricken, 'Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense. Every act of commission or omission which procures, aids, or abets in the violation shall be considered a violation under the provisions of this section and subject to the penalty provided in this section.' That applies to the individual operator and his supervisor as well as the management of the company. To the point of requiring a ream of regulations, it's management's responsibility to establish procedures by which these plans are operated and to assure that people follow the procedures. They interpret what is required by law to meet the discharge permits and then they interpret this and lay it out in plain language as to what that operator can and cannot do. If that operator makes a mistake then the company will be fined and the man is subject to a management prerogative including discharge, but to require that he be fined five thousand dollars per day because the supervisor told him to turn a valve, I think would be a little beyond our intent. That's why I offer the amendment and that's why I urge you to accept this amendment in good faith and trust."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "Do I interpret you as saying this entire section 5 is added strictly by recommendation of the Department of Ecology and is not required to meet the federal standards that are imposed on us?"

Mr. Isaacson: "That's what I have been informed by Mr. Nick Lewis and I talked to him at noon today."

Mr. Addison spoke again in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Winsley yielded to question by Ms. Hurley.

Ms. Hurley: "Representative Winsley, in listening to your talk and then the response from Representative Addison, I think I understand that all senior citizens in all counties are not going to benefit equally from this tax reduction. Is that true? For instance, Spokane, which is 88%, wouldn't benefit the same. Would this sort of circumstance be an equal protection under the clause of our Constitution?"

Ms. Winsley: "Well, certainly, Spokane's not going to benefit like Garfield County. If you're 88% of market value you will divide 88 into $3.60 under this bill to tell you what you are going to pay. Probably a fraction above your $3.60—about $2.80. The point is that this only affects the state levy and inflation could be a factor if you're in an area where you've been revalued. The sixty cent lid is not on an individual, it's on the whole taxing district, so if one-quarter of a county has been reappraised, the 106% is spread throughout, so inflation is a small factor in this whole thing. Let's face it, King County did no appraisal in 1978; Pierce County didn't do it in 1977 or 1978. Now if they did some reappraisals and those properties were closer to 100% of market value then you are not going to see any fluctuation in that state levy. Where you see a fluctuation in the state levy climbing from $3.60 a thousand to $4.20 to $7.20 to $8.35, there's only one reason, and that's because the assessors are doing their job. Maybe in some cases it's not their fault; maybe it's because the county commissioners have not given them management money, but my thinking is if they don't want to give their assessors money to do a reevaluation then they ought to give the money to senior citizens. I'm not against the money going to senior citizens; I think it's coming out of the wrong pocket."

Mr. Greengo spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Addison yielded to question by Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor: "It's my understanding that Garfield's 43% has nothing to do with this. There's an indicated ratio adjustment made at the state level. If Garfield isn't doing their job, and that ratio and that level is brought up at the state level, that is a state decision, and does not relate to the local assessors. Is that right?"

Mr. Addison: "You are essentially correct, Representative Taylor. What we are talking about—and again, we have to separate the county taxes from this state school tax—on the county taxes, if we were to impose this type of legislation on them, it would matter very much how they were valuing their property. But with the state tax it doesn't matter for a hill of beans whether the county assessor reassesses the values and pushes them up at 25% a year or whether the state comes in through the indicated ratio and tells the county they have to raise the property values to the $3.60 mechanism and give that amount of money. In those counties, for example, King County, the $3.60 ratio would go nearer to five dollars. In Garfield County it will go nearly to $8.00, but what we're really talking about is senior citizen property tax to those low income people and it's a rifle shot approach to those people. The question earlier about equality across the state, this will provide essentially equality to all of our senior citizens, rather than allowing the amount of relief to vary by the amount of special levies in different school districts."

Engrossed House Bill No. 555, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 208:

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the point of order raised by Representative Newhouse.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Newhouse withdrew the point of order.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Salatino withdrew his amendment to the committee amendment.

Mr. Salatino moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 1 of the amendment, after line 5 and before line 6 insert the following:

*Sec. 4. Section 10, chapter 187, Laws of 1919 and RCW 12.40.100 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((If the judgment or order be against the defendant, it shall be his duty to pay the same forthwith upon such terms and conditions as the justice of such court shall prescribe:))~~ Judgments entered by the small claims court shall be processed and collected as follows:

(1) Incident to the entering of the judgment the court shall obtain under oath the assets of the judgment debtor:

(a) The court shall arrange a judgment satisfaction plan and enter a writ of execution; and

(b) The clerk shall secure a listing and description of the assets of the judgment debtor in case subsequent attachment of property becomes necessary to collect an unsatisfied judgment.

(2) If the judgment debtor fails to satisfy the judgment, the plaintiff shall notify the court of the unsatisfied judgment and the court shall, upon receipt from the plaintiff of a collection fee, subject to reduction or waiver upon good cause shown, in an amount prescribed by the administrator for the courts under chapter 2.56 RCW, but not to exceed five percent of the judgment plus a reasonable attorney's fee:

(a) Issue the previously entered writ of execution to a salaried court official who shall be empowered to enforce the judgment in the same manner as provided in chapter 12.04 RCW;

(b) Assess the collection fee to the defendant and refund the same to the plaintiff to the extent that it is collected from the defendant in excess of the judgment, except that the court may reduce or waive the assessment upon good cause shown; and

(c) Institute, in its discretion, contempt proceedings, subject to penalties limited to monetary fines not to exceed fifty percent of the judgment, against the defendant for failure to satisfy the judgment in accordance with the judgment plan arranged while the defendant was under oath.*

Renumber remaining sections consecutively.

Representatives Salatino, Addison and Deccio spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Smith (R), Struthers and Newhouse spoke against it.

Mr. Salatino spoke again in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Salatino yielded to question by Mr. Knowles.

Mr. Knowles: "In your hearings in Commerce Committee on this subject, was there any testimony from district court judges, court commissioners or court clerks?"

Mr. Salatino: "Yes, there was, Representative Knowles, but most of the testimony dealt with raising fees within the court system."

Mr. Knowles spoke against the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Knowles yielded to question by Mr. Thompson.

Mr. Thompson: "Representative Knowles, since there seems to be considerable sympathy for this amendment today, I'm prompted to ask you as one of our few remaining attorneys whether or not you think adoption of this amendment and passage of this bill would preclude us on the Judiciary Committee from treating the subject further under the bill before us and perhaps prevent an alternative at a later date in the session?"

Mr. Knowles: "No, of course not. My preference, of course, because it is a Judicial Council bill and because it is part of a constitutional amendment we passed in the last session, is that we leave that unencumbered by this particular amendment and take care of it in Judiciary Committee."

Mr. Salatino demanded an electric roll call vote on the amendment to the committee amendment, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Smith (R) spoke again in opposition to the amendment.

MOTION

Mr. King moved that further consideration of House Bill No. 208 be deferred, and that the bill be placed at the top of Wednesday's second reading calendar.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Salatino: "We have a motion before us for an electric roll call on the last amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Representative Salatino, I'm going to rule it's an incidental motion, and a motion to defer further action is a subsidiary motion; the motion for a demand for an electric roll call does not interfere with the motion to defer."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to defer further consideration of House Bill No. 208, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 60; nays, 37; not voting, 1.

If the articles of incorporation or the bylaws so provide, the board of directors may adopt by resolution a procedure whereby a shareholder of the corporation may certify in writing to the corporation that all or a portion of the shares registered in the name of such shareholder are held for the account of a specified person or persons. The resolution shall set forth:

(a) The classification of shareholder who may certify;

(b) The purpose or purposes for which the certification may be made;

(c) The form of certification and information to be contained therein;

(d) If the certification is with respect to a record date or closing of the stock transfer books within which the certification must be received by the corporation; and

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 58, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 23A.08.025 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this section, 'agent' includes any person who is or was a director, trustee, officer, employee, or other agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, or was a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of a corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation, and 'expenses' includes attorneys' fees and any expense of establishing a right to indemnification under subsection (3) of this section.

(1) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was (~~a director, trustee, officer, employee or~~) an agent of the corporation(~~;- or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise;~~) against expenses (~~((including attorneys' fees))~~), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(2) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was (~~a director, trustee, officer, employee or~~) an agent of the corporation(~~;- or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise~~) against expenses (~~((including attorneys' fees))~~) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application, that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

(3) To the extent that (~~a director, trustee, officer, employee or~~) an agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (1) and (2), or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (~~((including attorneys' fees))~~) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

(4) Any indemnification under subsections (1) and (2) above (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the (~~director, trustee, officer, employee or~~) agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsections (1) and (2) above. Such determination shall be made (a) by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (c) by the shareholders.

(5) Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized in the manner provided in subsection (4) upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the (~~director, trustee, officer, employee or~~) agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section.

(6) The indemnification provided by this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be (~~a director, trustee, officer, employee or~~) an agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(7) A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any (~~person who is or was a director, trustee, officer, employee or~~) agent of the corporation(~~;- or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise~~) against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this section.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.08.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The corporate name:

(a) Shall contain the word 'corporation,' 'company,' 'incorporated,' or 'limited,' or shall contain an abbreviation of one of such words(~~;- or such corporation shall, for use in this state, add at the end of its name one of such words or an abbreviation thereof~~).

(b) Shall not contain any word or phrase which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation or that it is authorized or empowered to conduct the business of banking or insurance.

the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved in the manner provided in this title, or the name of a corporation which has in effect a registration of its corporate name as provided in this title, ~~((unless~~

~~(i) such other domestic or foreign corporation is about to change its name, or to cease to do business, or is being wound up, or such foreign corporation is about to withdraw from doing business in this state, and~~

~~(ii) the written consent of such other domestic or foreign corporation to the adoption of its name or a deceptively similar name has been given and is filed with the articles of incorporation, provided, a deceptively similar name shall not be used if the secretary of state finds that the use of such name shall be against public interest)) except that this provision shall not apply if the applicant files with the secretary of state either of the following: (i) The written consent of the other corporation or holder of a reserved or a registered name to use the same or deceptively similar name and one or more words are added or deleted to make the name distinguishable from the other name as determined by the secretary of state, or (ii) a certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of the applicant to the use of the name in this state.~~

(2) No corporation formed under this chapter shall include in its corporate name any of the following words or phrases: 'Bank,' 'banking,' 'banker,' 'trust,' 'cooperative,' or any combination of the words 'industrial' and 'loan,' or any combination of any two or more words 'building,' 'savings,' 'loan,' 'home,' 'association,' 'society,' 'room,' 'lounge' or any other words or phrases prohibited by any statute of this state.

(3) The assumption of a name in violation of this section shall not affect or vitiate the corporate existence, but the courts of this state, having equity jurisdiction, may, upon the application of the state, or of any person, unincorporated association, or corporation interested or affected, enjoin such corporation from doing business under a name assumed in violation of this section, although its articles of incorporation may have been approved and a certificate of incorporation issued.

(4) A corporation with which another corporation, domestic or foreign, is merged, or which is formed by the reorganization or consolidation of one or more domestic or foreign corporations or upon a sale, lease, or other disposition to or exchange with a domestic corporation of all or substantially all the assets of another corporation, domestic or foreign, including its name, may have the same name as that used in this state by any of the corporations involved if the other corporation was engaged under the laws of or is authorized to transact business in this state.

Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 83, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 23A.08.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The reservation shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application to reserve a specified corporate name, executed by or on behalf of the applicant. If the secretary of state finds that the name is available for corporate use, he shall reserve the same for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of one hundred and eighty days. The change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective upon filing unless a later date is specified.

Any registered agent of a corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state, who shall forthwith mail one copy thereof to the corporation or its representative. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state.

Without limiting the authority herein contained, a corporation, when so provided in its articles of incorporation, may issue shares of preferred or special classes:

The board of directors may cause such scrip to be issued subject to the condition that it shall become void if not exchanged for certificates representing full shares before a specified date, or subject to the condition that the shares for which such scrip is exchangeable may be sold by the corporation and the proceeds thereof distributed to the holders of such scrip, or subject to any other conditions which the board of directors may deem advisable.

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by ((the president;)) the board of directors, the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting, or such other ((officers or)) persons as may be ((provided)) authorized in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 23A.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any action required by this title to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders of a corporation, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

The consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of shareholders, and may be stated as such in any articles or document filed under this title with the secretary of state.

Sec. 15. Section 31, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.08.280 are each amended to read as follows:

The officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books for shares of a corporation shall make, at least ten days before each meeting of shareholders, a complete ((list)) record of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the number of shares held by each, which ((list)) record, for a period of ten days prior to such meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the corporation. Such ((list)) record shall be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting for the purposes thereof. ((The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or transfer books or to vote at any meeting of shareholders;))

Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at such meeting.

An officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books who shall fail to prepare the ~~((the))~~ record of shareholders, or keep it on file for a period of ten days, or produce and keep it open for inspection at the meeting, as provided in this section, shall be liable to any shareholder suffering damage on account of such failure, to the extent of such damage.

Sec. 16. Section 32, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.08.290 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the shareholders, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by this title or the articles of incorporation or bylaws.))~~ (1) A quorum at a meeting of shareholders is constituted by the representation in person or by proxy of:

(a) The percentage of shares entitled to vote set forth in the articles of incorporation, except that no such percentage shall be less than thirty-three percent; or

(b) In the absence of any provision in the articles of incorporation, a majority of shares entitled to vote.

(2) If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the shareholders, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by this title or the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

Sec. 17. Section 33, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.08.300 are each amended to read as follows:

Each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, except ~~((to the extent that the voting rights of the shares of any class or classes are limited or denied by the articles of incorporation as permitted by this title))~~ as may be otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation. If the articles of incorporation provide for more or less than one vote for any share, on any matter, every reference in this title to a majority or other proportion of shares shall refer to such a majority or other proportion of votes entitled to be cast.

Neither treasury shares, nor shares held by another corporation if a majority of the shares entitled to vote for the election of directors of such other corporation is held by the corporation, shall be voted at any meeting or counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any given time.

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Unless the articles of incorporation otherwise provide, at each election for directors every shareholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election he has a right to vote, or to cumulate his votes by giving one candidate as many votes as the number of such directors multiplied by the number of his shares shall equal, or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates.

Shares standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provision, as the board of directors of such corporation may determine.

Shares held by an administrator, executor, guardian or conservator may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into his name. Shares standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, but no trustee shall be entitled to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Shares standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do be contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

On and after the date on which written notice of redemption of redeemable shares has been mailed to the holders thereof and a sum sufficient to redeem such shares has been deposited with a bank or trust company with irrevocable instruction and authority to pay the redemption price to the holders thereof upon surrender of certificates therefor, such shares shall not be entitled to vote on any matter and shall not be deemed to be outstanding shares.

Sec. 18. Section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1967 and RCW 23A.08.345 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless otherwise provided by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, any action required by this title to be taken at a meeting of the directors of a corporation, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the directors or of a committee, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so ~~((to-be))~~ taken, shall be signed ~~((before such action))~~ by all of the directors, or all of the members of the committee, as the case may be. Such consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote.

Sec. 19. Section 38, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 2, chapter 264, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 23A.08.350 are each amended to read as follows:

~~The ((number)) board of directors of a corporation shall ((be not less than three, except that in cases where all shares of a corporation are owned of record by fewer than three shareholders, the number of~~ directors may be less than three but not less than the number of such shareholders. Subject to such limitation,) consist of one or more members. The number of directors shall be fixed by or in the manner provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, except as to the number constituting the initial board of directors, which number shall be fixed by the articles of incorporation. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to or in the manner provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. In the absence of a bylaw (~~(fixing)~~) providing for the number of directors, the number shall be the same as that (~~(stated)~~) provided for in the articles of incorporation. The names and addresses of the members of the first board of directors shall be stated in the articles of incorporation. Such persons shall hold office until the first annual meeting of shareholders, and until their successors shall have been elected and (~~(are)~~) qualified (~~(; unless removed in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws)~~). At the first annual meeting of shareholders and at each annual meeting thereafter the shareholders shall elect directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting, except in case of the classification of directors as permitted by this title. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected and until his successor shall have been elected and (~~(is)~~) qualified (~~(; unless removed in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws)~~).

Sec. 20. Section 41, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.08.380 are each amended to read as follows:

At a meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose, directors may be removed in the manner provided in this section. Any director or the entire board of directors may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors.

In the case of a corporation having cumulative voting, if less than the entire board is to be removed, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him if then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire board of directors, or, if there be classes of directors, at an election of the class of directors of which he is a part.

Whenever the holders of the shares of any class are entitled to elect one or more directors by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, the provisions of this section shall apply, in respect (~~(of)~~) to the removal of a director or directors so elected, to the vote of the holders of the outstanding shares of that class and not to the vote of the outstanding shares as a whole.

Sec. 21. Section 42, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.08.390 are each amended to read as follows:

A majority of the number of directors fixed by or in the manner provided in the bylaws, or in the absence of a bylaw fixing or providing for the number of directors, then of the number (~~(stated)~~) fixed by or in the manner provided in the articles of incorporation, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

Sec. 22. Section 44, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 3, chapter 264, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 23A.08.410 are each amended to read as follows:

Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held either within or without this state.

Regular meetings of the board of directors or of any committee designated (~~(by the bylaws or appointed)~~) by the board of directors may be held with or without notice as prescribed in the bylaws. Special meetings of the board of directors or any committee designated by the board of directors shall be held upon such notice as is prescribed in the bylaws. Attendance of a director or a committee member at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director or a committee member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors or any committee designated (~~(by the bylaws or appointed)~~) by the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting unless required by the bylaws.

Except as may be otherwise restricted by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, members of the board of directors or any committee designated (~~(by the bylaws or appointed)~~) by the board of directors may participate in a meeting of such board or committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time(~~;~~) and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Sec. 23. Section 45, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.08.420 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of directors of a corporation may, from time to time, declare and the corporation may pay dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or its own shares, except when the corporation is insolvent or when the payment thereof would render the corporation insolvent or when the declaration or payment thereof would be contrary to any restrictions contained in the articles of incorporation, subject to the following provisions:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, dividends may be declared and paid in cash or property only out of:

(a) the unreserved and unrestricted earned surplus of the corporation, or (~~(out of)~~)

(b) the unreserved and unrestricted net earnings of the current fiscal year and the next preceding fiscal year taken as a single period. No (~~(such)~~) dividend out of unreserved and unrestricted net earnings so computed shall be paid which would reduce the net assets of the corporation below the aggregate preferential amount payable in event of voluntary liquidation to the holders of shares having preferential rights to the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation.

(2) ~~((In the case of a corporation engaged in the business of exploiting natural resources or owning property having a limited life, such as a lease for a term of years, or a patent)) If the articles of incorporation of a corporation engaged in the business of exploiting natural resources so provide, dividends may be declared and paid in cash out of the depletion reserves, but each such dividend shall be identified as a distribution of such reserves and the amount per share paid from such reserves shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving the same concurrently with the distribution thereof.~~

(3) Dividends may be declared and paid in its own treasury shares ~~((out of any treasury shares that have been reacquired out of surplus of the corporation)).~~

(4) Dividends may be declared and paid in its own authorized but unissued shares out of any unreserved and unrestricted surplus of the corporation upon the following conditions:

(a) If a dividend is payable in its own shares having a par value, such shares shall be issued at not less than the par value thereof and there shall be transferred to stated capital at the time such dividend is paid an amount of surplus ~~((at least))~~ equal to the aggregate par value of the shares to be issued as a dividend.

(b) If a dividend is payable in its own shares without par value, such shares shall be issued at such stated value as shall be fixed by the board of directors by resolution adopted at the time such dividend is declared, and there shall be transferred to stated capital at the time such dividend is paid an amount of surplus equal to the aggregate stated value so fixed in respect of such shares; and the amount per share so transferred to stated capital shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving such dividend concurrently with the payment thereof.

(5) No dividend payable in shares of any class shall be paid to the holders of shares of any other class unless the articles of incorporation so provide or such payment is authorized by the affirmative vote or the written consent of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the class in which the payment is to be made.

A split-up or division of the issued shares of any class into a greater number of shares of the same class without increasing the stated capital of the corporation shall not be construed to be a share dividend within the meaning of this section.

Sec. 24. Section 48, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.08.450 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other liabilities imposed by law upon directors of a corporation:

(1) Directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the declaration of any dividend or other distribution of the assets of a corporation to its shareholders contrary to the provisions of this title or contrary to any restrictions contained in the articles of incorporation, shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of such dividend which is paid or the value of such assets which are distributed in excess of the amount of such dividend or distribution which could have been paid or distributed without a violation of the provisions of this title or the restrictions in the articles of incorporation.

(2) Directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the purchase of its own shares contrary to the provisions of this title shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of consideration paid for such shares which is in excess of the maximum amount which could have been paid therefor without a violation of the provisions of this title.

(3) The directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to any distribution of assets of a corporation to its shareholders during the liquidation of the corporation without the payment and discharge of, or making adequate provision for, all known debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the value of such assets which are distributed, to the extent that such debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation are not thereafter paid and discharged.

(4) The directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the making of a loan to an officer or director of the corporation, or the making of any loan secured by shares of the corporation, shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of such loan until the repayment thereof, unless approved by the shareholders as provided in RCW 23A.08.440.

~~(((5) If a corporation shall commence business before it has received at least five hundred dollars as consideration for the issuance of shares, the directors who assent thereto shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for such part of five hundred dollars as shall not have been received before commencing business, but such liability shall be terminated when the corporation has actually received five hundred dollars as consideration for the issuance of shares:))~~

A director of a corporation who is present at a meeting of its board of directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

A director shall not be liable under subsections (1), (2), or (3) of this section if he relied and acted in good faith upon financial statements of the corporation represented to him to be correct by the president or the officer of such corporation having charge of its books of account, or stated in a written report by an independent public or certified public accountant or firm of such accountants fairly to reflect the financial condition of such corporation, nor shall he be so liable if in good faith in determining the amount available for any such dividend or distribution he considered the assets to be of their book value.

Any director against whom a claim shall be asserted under or pursuant to this section for the payment of a dividend or other distribution of assets of a corporation and who shall be held liable thereon, shall be entitled to contribution from the shareholders who accepted or received any such dividend or assets, knowing such dividend or distribution to have been made in violation of this title, in proportion to the amounts received by them respectively.

Any director against whom a claim shall be asserted under or pursuant to this section shall be entitled to contribution from the other directors who voted for or assented to the action upon which the claim is asserted.

Sec. 25. Section 50, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 264, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 23A.08.470 are each amended to read as follows:

The officers of a corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice presidents as may be prescribed by the bylaws, a secretary, and a treasurer, each of whom shall be elected by the board of directors at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Such other officers and assistant officers and agents as may be deemed necessary may be elected or appointed by the board of directors or chosen in such other manner as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of president and secretary, except that when all of the issued and outstanding stock of the corporation is owned of record by one ((person)) shareholder, ((such)) one person may hold all or any combination of offices.

All officers and agents of the corporation, as between themselves and the corporation, shall have such authority and perform such duties in the management of the corporation as may be provided in the bylaws, or as may be determined by resolution of the board of directors not inconsistent with the bylaws.

Sec. 26. Section 53, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.08.500 are each amended to read as follows:

Each corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders and board of directors; and shall keep at its registered office or principal place of business, or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar, a record of its shareholders, giving the names and addresses of all shareholders and the number and class of the shares held by each. Any books, records, and minutes may be in written form or any other form capable of being converted into written form within a reasonable time.

Any person who shall have been a ((shareholder)) holder of record ((for)) of shares or of voting trust certificates for shares at least six months immediately preceding his demand or who shall be the holder of record of, or the holder of record of voting trust certificates for, at least five percent of all the outstanding shares of a corporation, upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, shall have the right to examine, in person, or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time or times, for any proper purpose, its relevant books and records of account, minutes and record of shareholders and to make extracts therefrom.

Any officer or agent who, or a corporation which, shall refuse to allow any such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates, or his agent or attorney, so to examine and make extracts from its books and records of account, minutes, and record of shareholders, for any proper purpose, shall be liable to such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates in a penalty of ten percent of the value of the shares owned by such shareholder, or in respect of which such voting trust certificates are issued, in addition to any other damages or remedy afforded him by law. It shall be a defense to any action for penalties under this section that the person suing therefor has within two years sold or offered for sale any list of shareholders or of holders of voting trust certificates for shares of such corporation or any other corporation or has aided or abetted any person in procuring any list of shareholders or of holders of voting trust certificates for any such purpose, or has improperly used any information secured through any prior examination of the books and records of account, or minutes, or record of shareholders or of holders of voting trust certificates for shares of such corporation or any other corporation, or was not acting in good faith or for a proper purpose in making his demand.

Nothing herein contained shall impair the power of any court of competent jurisdiction, upon proof by a shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates of proper purpose, irrespective of the period of time during which such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates shall have been a shareholder of record or a holder of record of voting trust certificates, and irrespective of the number of shares held by him or represented by voting trust certificates held by him, to compel the production for examination by such shareholder of the books and records of account, minutes, and record of shareholders of a corporation.

Upon the written request of any shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates of a corporation, the corporation shall mail to such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates its most recent financial statements showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of its operations.

Sec. 27. Section 55, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

- (1) The name of the corporation.
- (2) The period of duration, which may be perpetual.
- (3) The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized which may be stated to be, or to include, the transaction of any or all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under this title.

and a statement of the par value of the shares of each such class or that such shares are to be without par value.

(5) If all or any portion of the shares have no par value, the aggregate value of those shares, or, such aggregate value shall be stated in the affidavit filed pursuant to RCW 23A.40.050.

(6) If the shares are to be divided into classes, the designation of each class and a statement of the preferences, limitations and relative rights in respect of the shares of each class.

Upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the corporate existence shall begin, and such certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the incorporators have been complied with and that the corporation has been incorporated under this title, except as against this state in a proceeding to cancel or revoke the certificate of incorporation or for involuntary dissolution of the corporation. ~~((Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 23A.04.010, subsection 6; those persons who subscribed for shares prior to the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, or their assigns, shall be shareholders in the corporation upon such issuance, unless their rights under the stock subscription agreement have been terminated under the provisions of RCW 23A.06.140:))~~

Sec. 29. Section 59, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.12.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((incorporators))~~ directors calling the meeting shall give at least three days' notice thereof by mail to each director so named, which notice shall state the time and place of meeting. Any action permitted to be taken at the organization meeting of the directors may be taken without a meeting if each director signs an instrument which states the action so taken.

Sec. 30. Section 61, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Amendments to the articles of incorporation shall be made in the following manner:

(1) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and, if shares have been issued, directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. If no shares have been issued, the amendment shall be adopted by resolution of the board of directors and the provisions for adoption by shareholders shall not apply. The resolution may incorporate the proposed amendment in restated articles of incorporation which contain a statement that except for the designated amendment the restated articles of incorporation correctly set forth without change the corresponding provisions of the articles of incorporation as theretofore amended, and that the restated articles of incorporation together with the designated amendment supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

(2) Written notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereon within the time and in the manner provided in this title for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders. If the meeting be an annual meeting, the proposed amendment or such summary may be included in the notice of such annual meeting.

(3) At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the proposed amendment. The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote thereon, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, in which event the proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote thereon as a class and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

Any number of amendments may be submitted to the shareholders, and voted upon by them, at one meeting.

Sec. 31. Section 63, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 193, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 23A.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(5) The number of shares voted for and against such amendment, respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such amendment, respectively.

(6) If such amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of issued shares, and if the manner in which the same shall be effected is not set forth in the amendment, then a statement of the manner in which the same shall be effected.

(7) If such amendment effects a change in the amount of stated capital, then a statement of the manner in which the same is effected and a statement, expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital as changed by such amendment.

Sec. 32. Section 65, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the secretary of state,))~~ The amendment shall become effective ((and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly)) upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the secretary of state, or on such later date, not more than thirty days subsequent to the filing thereof with the secretary of state, as shall be provided for in the articles of amendment.

No amendment shall affect any existing cause of action in favor of or against such corporation, or any pending suit to which such corporation shall be a party, or the existing rights of persons other than shareholders; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. There is added to chapter 23A.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A domestic corporation may at any time restate its articles of incorporation as theretofore amended, by a resolution adopted by the board of directors.

Upon the adoption of the resolution, restated articles of incorporation shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing the articles and shall set forth all of the operative provisions of the articles of incorporation as theretofore amended together with a statement that the restated articles of incorporation correctly set forth without change the corresponding provisions of the articles of incorporation as theretofore amended and that the restated articles of incorporation supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

Duplicate originals of the restated articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the restated articles of incorporation conform to law, he shall, when all fees required by this title have been paid:

(1) Endorse on each duplicate original the word 'Filed' and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof;

(2) File one duplicate original in his office; and

(3) Issue a restated certificate of incorporation, to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

The restated certificate of incorporation, together with the duplicate original of the restated articles of incorporation affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative.

Upon the issuance of the restated certificate of incorporation by the secretary of state, the restated articles of incorporation shall become effective and shall supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

Sec. 34. Section 67, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 8, chapter 193, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 23A.16.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a plan of reorganization of a corporation has been confirmed by decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction in proceedings for the reorganization of such corporation, pursuant to the provisions of any applicable statute of the United States relating to reorganizations of corporations, the articles of incorporation of the corporation may be amended, in the manner provided in this section, in as many respects as may be necessary to carry out the plan and put it into effect, so long as the articles of incorporation as amended contain only such provisions as might be lawfully contained in original articles of incorporation at the time of making such amendment.

In particular and without limitation upon such general power of amendment, the articles of incorporation may be amended for such purpose so as to:

- (a) Change the corporate name, period of duration, or corporate purposes of the corporation;
 - (b) Repeal, alter, or amend the bylaws of the corporation;
 - (c) Change the aggregate number of shares, or shares of any class, which the corporation has authority to issue;
 - (d) Change the preferences, limitations, and relative rights in respect of all or any part of the shares of the corporation, and classify, reclassify or cancel all or any part thereof, whether issued or unissued;
 - (e) Authorize the issuance of bonds, debentures, or other obligations of the corporation, whether or not convertible into shares of any class or bearing warrants or other evidences of optional rights to purchase or subscribe for shares of any class, and fix the terms and conditions thereof; and
 - (f) Constitute or reconstitute and classify or reclassify the board of directors of the corporation, and appoint directors and officers in place of or in addition to all or any of the directors or officers then in office.
- (2) Amendments to the articles of incorporation pursuant to this section shall be made in the following manner:

(a) Articles of amendment approved by decree or order of such court shall be executed and verified in duplicate by such person or persons as the court shall designate or appoint for the purpose, and shall set forth the name of the corporation, the amendments of the articles of incorporation approved by the court, the date of the decree or order approving the articles of amendment, the title of the proceedings in which the decree or order was entered, and a statement that such decree or order was entered by a court having jurisdiction of the proceedings for the reorganization of the corporation pursuant to the provisions of an applicable statute of the United States.

(b) Duplicate originals of the articles of amendment shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of amendment conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as in this title prescribed:

(i) Endorse on each of such originals the word 'Filed,' and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(ii) File one of such originals in his office.

(iii) Issue a certificate of amendment to which he shall affix the other original.

(3) The certificate of amendment, together with the original of the articles of amendment affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative.

(4) (~~Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the secretary of state,;~~) The amendment shall become effective (and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly) upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the secretary of state, or on such later date, not more than thirty days subsequent to the filing thereof with the secretary of state, as shall be provided for in the articles of amendment, without any action thereon by the directors or shareholders of the corporation and with the same effect as if the amendments had been adopted by unanimous action of the directors and shareholders of the corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. There is added to chapter 23A.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All the issued or all the outstanding shares of one or more classes of any domestic corporation may be acquired through the exchange of all such shares of such class or classes by another domestic or foreign corporation pursuant to a plan of exchange approved in the manner provided in this title.

The board of directors of each corporation shall, by resolution adopted by each board, approve a plan of exchange setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation the shares of which are proposed to be acquired by exchange and the name of the corporation to acquire the shares of such corporation in the exchange, which is designated in this chapter as the acquiring corporation;

(2) The terms and conditions of the proposed exchange;

(3) The manner and basis of exchanging the shares to be acquired for shares, obligations, or other securities of the acquiring corporation or any other corporation, or, in whole or in part, for cash or other property; and

(4) Such other provisions with respect to the proposed exchange as are deemed necessary or desirable.

The procedure authorized by this section shall not be deemed to limit the power of a corporation to acquire all or part of the shares of any class or classes of a corporation through a voluntary exchange or otherwise by agreement with the shareholders.

Sec. 36. Section 75, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of directors of each corporation, (~~upon approving such plan of merger or plan of consolidation~~) in the case of a merger or consolidation, and the board of directors of the corporation the shares of which are to be acquired, in the case of an exchange, upon approving the plan of merger, consolidation, or exchange, shall, by resolution, direct that the plan be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written notice shall be given to each shareholder of record, whether or not entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than twenty days before such meeting, in the manner provided in this title for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and, whether the meeting be an annual or a special meeting, shall state that the purpose or one of the purposes is to consider the proposed plan of merger (~~or~~), consolidation, or exchange. A copy or a summary of the plan of merger (~~or plan of~~), consolidation, or exchange, as the case may be, shall be included in or enclosed with such notice.

At each such meeting, a vote of the shareholders shall be taken on the proposed plan (~~(of merger or consolidation)~~). The plan (~~(of merger or consolidation)~~) shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote thereon of each such corporation, unless any class of shares of any such corporation is entitled to vote thereon as a class, in which event, as to such corporation, the plan (~~(of merger or consolidation)~~) shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote thereon as a class and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon. Any class of shares of any such corporation shall be entitled to vote as a class if ~~((the) any such plan (of merger or consolidation, as the case may be:))~~ contains any provision which, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, would entitle such class of shares to vote as a class and, in case of an exchange, if the class is included in the exchange.

After such approval by a vote of the shareholders of each such corporation, and at any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger ~~((or)), consolidation, or exchange, the merger ((or)), consolidation, or exchange may be abandoned pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan ((of merger or consolidation)).~~

Sec. 37, Section 76, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 12, chapter 193, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 23A.20.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon such approval, articles of merger ~~((or)), articles of consolidation, or articles of exchange shall be executed in duplicate by each corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers of each corporation signing such articles, and shall set forth:~~

(a) The plan of merger or the plan of consolidation.

(b) As to each corporation, the number of shares outstanding, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares of each such class.

(c) As to each corporation, the number of shares voted for and against such plan, respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such plan, respectively.

(d) As to the acquiring corporation in a plan of exchange, a statement that the adoption of the plan and performance of its terms were duly approved by its board of directors and such other requisite corporate action, if any, as may be required of it.

(2) Duplicate originals of the articles of merger ~~((or)), articles of consolidation, or articles of exchange shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that such articles conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as in this title prescribed:~~

(a) Endorse on each of such originals the word 'Filed,' and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(b) File one of such originals in his office.

(c) Issue a certificate of merger ~~((or a certificate of)), consolidation, or exchange to which he shall affix the other original.~~

(3) The certificate of merger ~~((or certificate of)), consolidation, or exchange, together with the duplicate original of the articles of merger ((or articles of)), consolidation, or exchange affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the surviving or new or acquiring corporation, or its representative.~~

Sec. 38, Section 77, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 13, chapter 193, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 23A.20.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any corporation owning at least ninety-five percent of the outstanding shares of each class of another corporation may merge such other corporation into itself without approval by a vote of the shareholders of either corporation. Its board of directors shall, by resolution, approve a plan of merger setting forth:

(a) The name of the subsidiary corporation and the name of the corporation owning at least ninety-five percent of its shares, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.

(b) The manner and basis of converting the shares of the subsidiary corporation into shares or other securities or obligations of the surviving corporation or of any other corporation or, in whole or in part, into cash or other property ~~((or the cash or other consideration to be paid or delivered upon surrender of each share of the subsidiary corporation)).~~

(2) A copy of such plan of merger shall be mailed to each shareholder of record of the subsidiary corporation.

(3) Articles of merger shall be executed in duplicate by the surviving corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of its officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:

(a) The plan of merger;

(b) The number of outstanding shares of each class of the subsidiary corporation and the number of such shares of each class owned by the surviving corporation; and

(c) The date of the mailing to shareholders of the subsidiary corporation of a copy of the plan of merger.

(4) On and after the thirtieth day after the mailing of a copy of the plan of merger to shareholders of the subsidiary corporation or upon the waiver thereof by the holders of all outstanding shares duplicate originals of the articles of merger shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that such articles conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as in this title prescribed:

(a) Endorse on each of such originals the word 'Filed,' and the month, day and year of the filing thereof;

(b) File one of such originals in his office; and

(c) Issue a certificate of merger to which he shall affix the other original.

(5) The certificate of merger, together with the original of the articles of merger affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the surviving corporation or its representative.

Sec. 39. Section 78, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.20.060 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Upon the issuance of the certificate of merger or the certificate of consolidation by the secretary of state, the merger or consolidation shall be effected:))~~ A merger, consolidation, or exchange shall become effective upon the issuance of a certificate of merger, consolidation, or exchange by the secretary of state, or on such later date, not more than thirty days subsequent to the filing thereof with the secretary of state, as shall be provided for in the plan.

When ~~((such))~~ a merger or consolidation has ~~((been effected))~~ become effective:

(1) The several corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation shall be a single corporation, which, in the case of a merger, shall be that corporation designated in the plan of merger as the surviving corporation, and, in the case of a consolidation, shall be the new corporation provided for in the plan of consolidation.

(2) The separate existence of all corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation, except the surviving or new corporation, shall cease.

(3) Such surviving or new corporation shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a corporation organized under this title.

(4) Such surviving or new corporation shall thereupon and thereafter possess all the rights, privileges, immunities, and franchises, as well of a public as of a private nature, of each of the merging or consolidating corporations; and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, including subscriptions to shares, and all other choses in action, and all and every other interest of or belonging to or due to each of the corporations so merged or consolidated, shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such single corporation without further act or deed; and the title to any real estate, or any interest therein, vested in any of such corporations shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of such merger or consolidation.

(5) Such surviving or new corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities and obligations of each of the corporations so merged or consolidated; and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against any of such corporations may be prosecuted as if such merger or consolidation had not taken place, or such surviving or new corporation may be substituted in its place. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any such corporation shall be impaired by such merger or consolidation.

(6) In the case of a merger, the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes in its articles of incorporation are stated in the plan of merger; and, in the case of a consolidation, the statement set forth in the articles of consolidation and which are required or permitted to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of corporations organized under this title shall be deemed to be the original articles of incorporation of the new corporation.

When a merger, consolidation, or exchange has become effective, the shares of the corporation or corporations party to the plan that are, under the terms of the plan, to be converted or exchanged, shall cease to exist, in the case of a merger or consolidation, or be deemed to be exchanged in the case of an exchange, and the holders of the shares shall thereafter be entitled only to the shares, obligations, other securities, cash, or other property into which they shall have been converted or for which they shall have been exchanged, in accordance with the plan, subject to any rights under RCW 23A.24.030.

Sec. 40. Section 79, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.20.070 are each amended to read as follows:

One or more foreign corporations and one or more domestic corporations may be merged or consolidated or participate in an exchange in the following manner, if such merger ~~((or))~~, consolidation, or exchange is permitted by the laws of the state under which each such foreign corporation is organized:

(1) Each domestic corporation shall comply with the provisions of this title with respect to the merger ~~((or))~~, consolidation, or exchange, as the case may be, of domestic corporations and each foreign corporation shall comply with the applicable provisions of the laws of the state under which it is organized.

(2) If the surviving or new corporation ~~((as the case may be))~~ in a merger or consolidation is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, it shall comply with the provisions of this title with respect to foreign corporations if it is to transact business in this state, and in every case it shall file with the secretary of state of this state:

(a) An agreement that it may be served with process in this state in any proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic corporation which is a party to such merger or consolidation and in any proceeding for the enforcement of the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any such domestic corporation against the surviving or new corporation;

(b) An irrevocable appointment of the secretary of state of this state as its agent to accept service of process in any such proceeding; and

(c) An agreement that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of any such domestic corporation the amount, if any, to which they shall be entitled under the provisions of this title with respect to the rights of dissenting shareholders.

The effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations, if the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of this state.

If the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, the effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations except insofar as the laws of such other state provide otherwise.

(3) At any time prior to the ((filing)) effective date of the articles of merger ((or)), consolidation, or exchange, the merger ((or)), consolidation, or exchange, may be abandoned pursuant to provision((s)) thereof, if any, set forth in the plan of merger ((or)), consolidation or exchange. In the event the merger, consolidation, or exchange is abandoned, the parties thereto shall execute a notice of abandonment in triplicate by the respective presidents or vice presidents and by the secretaries or assistant secretaries, and verified by an officer for each corporation signing the notice. If the secretary of state finds the notice conforms to law, he shall:

(a) Endorse on each of the originals the word 'Filed' and the month, day, and year of filing thereof;

(b) File one of the triplicate originals in his office; and

(c) Issue the other triplicate originals to the respective parties or their representatives.

Sec. 41. Section 80, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation in the usual and regular course of its business and the mortgage or pledge of any or all property and assets of a corporation whether or not in the usual and regular course of business may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares, obligations, or other securities of any other corporation, domestic or foreign, as shall be authorized by its board of directors; and in any such case no authorization or consent of the shareholders shall be required.

Sec. 42. Section 81, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

A sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets, with or without the good will, of a corporation, if not in the usual and regular course of its business, may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares, obligations, or other securities of any other corporation, domestic or foreign, as may be authorized in the following manner:

(1) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending such sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition and directing the submission thereof to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

(2) Written notice shall be given to each shareholder of record, whether or not entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than twenty days before such meeting, in the manner provided in this title for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and, whether the meeting be an annual or a special meeting, shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes is to consider the proposed sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition.

(3) At such meeting the shareholders may authorize such sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition and may fix, or may authorize the board of directors to fix, any or all of the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the corporation therefor. Such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the corporation entitled to vote thereon, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, in which event such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

(4) After such authorization by a vote of shareholders, the board of directors nevertheless, in its discretion, may abandon such sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of assets, subject to the rights of third parties under any contracts relating thereto, without further action or approval by shareholders.

Sec. 43. Section 82, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.24.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Any shareholder of a corporation shall have the right to dissent from any of the following corporate actions:

(1) Any plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party; or

(2) Any sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation not made in the usual and regular course of its business, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to an order of a court having jurisdiction in the premises or a sale for cash on terms requiring that all or substantially all of the net proceeds of sale be distributed to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of sale.

(3) Any plan of exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation the shares of which are to be acquired.

A shareholder may dissent as to less than all of the shares registered in his name. In that event, his rights shall be determined as if the shares as to which he has dissented and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the shareholders of the surviving corporation in a merger (~~if such corporation is on the date of the filing of the articles of merger the owner of all the outstanding shares of the other corporations, domestic or foreign, which are parties to the merger, or~~) if a vote of the shareholders of such corporation is not necessary to authorize such merger.

Sec. 44. Section 83, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.24.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any shareholder electing to exercise such right of dissent shall file with the corporation, prior to or at the meeting of shareholders at which such proposed corporate action is submitted to a vote, a written objection to such proposed corporate action. If such proposed corporate action be approved by the required vote and such shareholder shall not have voted in favor thereof, such shareholder may, within ten days after the date on which the vote was taken, or if a corporation is to be merged without a vote of its shareholders into another corporation, any other shareholders may, within fifteen days after the plan of such merger shall have been mailed to such shareholders, make written demand on the corporation, or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, on the surviving or new corporation, domestic or foreign, for payment of the fair value of such shareholder's shares, and, if such proposed corporate action is effected, such corporation shall pay to such shareholder, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such shares, the fair value thereof as of the day prior to the date on which the vote was taken approving the proposed corporate action, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of such corporate action. Any shareholder failing to make demand within the applicable ten day or fifteen day period shall be bound by the terms of the proposed corporate action. Any shareholder making such demand shall thereafter be entitled only to payment as in this section provided and shall not be entitled to vote or to exercise any other rights of a shareholder.

No such demand shall be withdrawn unless the corporation shall consent thereto. The right of such shareholder to be paid the fair value of his shares shall cease and his status as a shareholder shall be restored, without prejudice to any corporate proceedings which may have been taken during the interim, if:

- (1) Such demand shall be withdrawn upon consent; or
- (2) The proposed corporate action shall be abandoned or rescinded or the shareholders shall revoke the authority to effect such action; or
- (3) In the case of a merger, on the date of the filing of the articles of merger the surviving corporation is the owner of all the outstanding shares of the other corporations, domestic and foreign, that are parties to the merger; or
- (4) No demand or petition for the determination of fair value by a court shall have been made or filed within the time provided by this section; or
- (5) A court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that such shareholder is not entitled to the relief provided by this section.

Within ten days after such corporate action is effected, the corporation, or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation, domestic or foreign, shall give written notice thereof to each dissenting shareholder who has made demand as herein provided, and shall make a written offer to each such shareholder to pay for such shares at a specified price deemed by such corporation to be the fair value thereof. Such notice and offer shall be accompanied by a balance sheet of the corporation the shares of which the dissenting shareholder holds, as of the latest available date and not more than twelve months prior to the making of such offer, and a profit and loss statement of such corporation for the twelve months' period ended on the date of such balance sheet.

If within thirty days after the date on which such corporate action was effected the fair value of such shares is agreed upon between any such dissenting shareholder and the corporation, payment therefor shall be made within ninety days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the agreed value the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares.

If within such period of thirty days a dissenting shareholder and the corporation do not so agree, then the corporation, within thirty days after receipt of written demand from any dissenting shareholder given within sixty days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, shall, or at its election at any time within such period of sixty days may, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in this state where the registered office of the corporation is located praying that the fair value of such shares be found and determined. If, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, such petition shall be filed in the county where the registered office of the domestic corporation was last located. If the corporation shall fail to institute the proceeding as herein provided, any dissenting shareholder may do so in the name of the corporation. All dissenting shareholders, wherever residing, shall be made parties to the proceeding as an action against their shares quasi in rem. A copy of the petition shall be served on each dissenting shareholder who is a resident of this state and shall be served by registered or certified mail on each dissenting shareholder who is a nonresident. Service on nonresidents shall also be made by publication as provided by law. The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive. All shareholders who are parties to the proceeding shall be entitled to judgment against the corporation for the amount of the fair value of their shares. The court may, if it so elects, appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers shall have such power and authority as shall be specified in the order of their appointment or an amendment thereof. The judgment shall be payable only upon and concurrently with the surrender to the corporation of the certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares.

The judgment shall include an allowance for interest at such rate as the court may find to be fair and equitable in all the circumstances, from the date on which the vote was taken on the proposed corporate action to the date of payment.

The costs and expenses of any such proceeding shall be determined by the court and shall be assessed against the corporation, but all or any part of such costs and expenses may be apportioned and assessed as the court may deem equitable against any or all of the dissenting shareholders who are parties to the proceeding to whom the corporation shall have made an offer to pay for the shares if the court shall find that the action of such shareholders in failing to accept such offer was arbitrary or vexatious or not in good faith. Such expenses shall include reasonable compensation for and reasonable expenses of the appraisers, but shall exclude the fees and expenses of counsel for and experts employed by any party; but if the fair value of the shares as determined materially exceeds the amount which the corporation offered to pay therefor, or if no offer was made, the court in its discretion may award to any shareholder who is a party to the proceeding such sum as the court may determine to be reasonable compensation to any expert or experts employed by the shareholder in the proceeding.

Within twenty days after demanding payment for his shares, each shareholder demanding payment shall submit the certificate or certificates representing his shares to the corporation for notation thereon that such demand has been made. His failure to do so shall, at the option of the corporation, terminate his rights under this section unless a court of competent jurisdiction, for good and sufficient cause shown, shall otherwise direct. If shares represented by a certificate on which notation has been so made shall be transferred, each new certificate issued therefor shall bear similar notation, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of such shares, and a transferee of such shares shall acquire by such transfer no rights in the corporation other than those which the original dissenting shareholder had after making demand for payment of the fair value thereof.

Shares acquired by a corporation pursuant to payment of the agreed value therefor or to payment of the judgment entered therefor, as in this section provided, may be held and disposed of by such corporation as in the case of other treasury shares, except that, in the case of a merger or consolidation, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger or consolidation may otherwise provide.

Sec. 45. Section 84, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 14, chapter 193, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 23A.28.010 are each amended to read as follows:

A corporation which has not commenced business and which has not issued any shares, may be voluntarily dissolved by its incorporators at any time (~~within two years after the date of the issuance of its certificate of incorporation;~~) in the following manner:

(1) Articles of dissolution shall be executed in duplicate by a majority of the incorporators, and verified by them, and shall set forth:

- (a) The name of the corporation.
- (b) The date of issuance of its certificate of incorporation.
- (c) That none of its shares has been issued.
- (d) That the corporation has not commenced business.
- (e) That the amount, if any, actually paid in on subscriptions for its shares, less any part thereof disbursed for necessary expenses, has been returned to those entitled thereto.
- (f) That no debts of the corporation remain unpaid.
- (g) That a majority of the incorporators elect that the corporation be dissolved.

(2) Duplicate originals of the articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of dissolution conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as in this title prescribed:

- (a) Endorse on each of such originals the word 'Filed,' and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.
- (b) File one of such originals in his office.
- (c) Issue a certificate of dissolution to which he shall affix the other original.

The certificate of dissolution, together with the duplicate original of the articles of dissolution affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the incorporators or their representatives. Upon the issuance of such certificate of dissolution by the secretary of state, the existence of the corporation shall cease.

Sec. 46. Section 109, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 and RCW 23A.32.010 are each amended to read as follows:

No foreign corporation shall have the right to transact business in this state until it shall have procured a certificate of authority so to do from the secretary of state. No foreign corporation shall be entitled to procure a certificate of authority under this title to transact in this state any business which a corporation organized under this title is not permitted to transact. A foreign corporation shall not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of the fact that the laws of the state or country under which such corporation is organized governing its organization and internal affairs differ from the laws of this state, and nothing in this title contained shall be construed to authorize this state to regulate the organization or the internal affairs of such corporation.

Without excluding other activities which may not constitute transacting business in this state, a foreign corporation shall not be considered to be transacting business in this state, for the purposes of this title, by reason of carrying on in this state any one or more of the following activities:

- (1) Maintaining or defending any action or suit or any administrative or arbitration proceeding, or effecting the settlement thereof or the settlement of claims or disputes.
- (2) Holding meetings of its directors or shareholders or carrying on other activities concerning its internal affairs.
- (3) Maintaining bank accounts.
- (4) Maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange and registration of its securities, or appointing and maintaining trustees or depositaries with relation to its securities.
- (5) Effecting sales through independent contractors.

(6) Soliciting or procuring orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, where such orders require acceptance without this state before becoming binding contracts.

(7) Creating ~~((evidences of debt, mortgages or liens on))~~ as borrower or lender, or acquiring, indebtedness or mortgages or other security interests in real or personal property.

(8) Securing or collecting debts or enforcing any rights in property securing the same.

(9) Transacting any business in interstate commerce.

(10) Conducting an isolated transaction completed within a period of thirty days and not in the course of a number of repeated transactions of like nature.

Sec. 47. Section 111, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 6, chapter 190, Laws of 1967 and RCW 23A.32.030 are each amended to read as follows:

No certificate of authority shall be issued to a foreign corporation unless the corporate name of such corporation:

(1) Shall contain the word 'corporation,' 'company,' 'incorporated,' or 'limited,' or shall contain an abbreviation of one of such words, or such corporation shall, for use in this state, add at the end of its name one of such words or an abbreviation thereof.

Sec. 57. Section 4, chapter 92, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 23A.40.075 are each amended to read as follows:

The annual license fee required by RCW 23A.40.060, as now or hereafter amended, and (~~RCW 23A-40.140~~) section 52 of this 1979 act is a tax on the privilege of doing business as a corporation in the state of Washington. No corporation shall do business in this state without first having paid its annual license fee, except as provided in RCW 23A.36.010 and 23A.36.020.

Failure of the corporation to pay its annual license fees shall not derogate from the rights of its creditors, or prevent the corporation from being sued and from defending lawsuits, nor shall it release the corporation from any of the duties or liabilities of a corporation under law.

Every domestic corporation which shall fail for three consecutive years to acquire an annual license for the privilege of doing business in this state shall cease to exist as a corporation on the third anniversary of the date it was last licensed to do business in this state. A corporation which has ceased to exist may reinstate within two years by paying all fees specified above plus a reinstatement fee of ten dollars and upon doing so shall be reinstated and again be entitled to do business, and may use its former corporate name if that name is not then in use by a corporation then in existence. If the former name is not available, the corporation may file amended articles to adopt a new name simultaneous with reinstatement. Upon payment of the above fees, restoration and reinstatement of the privilege to do business shall be effective, and the corporation shall have all the rights and privileges it would have possessed had it continually maintained its privilege to do business.

When any domestic corporation first fails to pay its annual license fee when due, the secretary of state shall, in that year only, mail to the corporation at its registered office, by first class mail, a notice that if it does not pay its annual license fee it will no longer have the privilege of doing business in this state, and that the corporation's privilege may be restored as provided in this section, and the notice shall contain a reminder that, if the privilege is not restored for three consecutive years, the existence of the corporation shall cease without further notice.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith (R) yielded to question by Mr. Keller.

Mr. Smith (R): "Yes, Representative Keller. I would say it is an emergency measure. The city just recently announced their final decision; they couldn't wait any longer for some other resolution. That decision was not made until after the capital construction budget for community colleges was formulated, as I indicated. The college, on the other hand, has the obligation to protect the safety of the people who are on the campus and they will file suit to use their powers of eminent domain as a state agency to condemn these interior streets within the campus. If you assess the value of those streets in accordance with their market value, that would cost approximately $975,000 to pay the city the fair market value of those streets. I think it's very much an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. King, all bills listed on today's agenda under the fifth order of business were passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 65, by Representatives Salatino, Deccio and King:

Recognizing Columbus Day.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. King, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and House Bill No. 65 was placed on final passage.

Representatives Salatino, Isaacson and Deccio spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Berentson: "I think Representative Deccio is impugning the motives and intents of a fellow countryman, Representative Isaacson, and it's clear the Norwegians should receive equal treatment on this floor and I would trust that you would keep Representative Deccio in line, Mr. Speaker, and insist that he speak only to the merits of the issue. I just hope he hasn't blown this bill for you."

Speaker Bagnariol: "Confine your remarks to the merits of the issue, Representative Deccio."

Representative Deccio continued his remarks in favor of the bill, and Representatives Bond and O'Brien also spoke in favor of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 65, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 98; nays, 0; not voting, 0.

HOUSE BILL NO. 208, by Representatives Newhouse and Smith, R. (by Judicial Council request):

Increasing jurisdictional amounts in justice courts.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see Journal, 36th Day, February 12, 1979.)

Speaker Bagnariol stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representative Salatino to the committee amendment.

Mr. Salatino spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment.

Mr. Smith (R) stated that he wished to withdraw the objections he had previously made to the amendment, and now spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smith (R) yielded to question by Mr. Newhouse.

Mr. Newhouse: "Representative Smith, I notice in this amendment—and I just had word from some people back in my district—that this amendment requires that information about assets of the defendant in the small claims court must list those assets. The objection I heard was that now, not in justice court and certainly not in small claims court, can real estate listings be required, and if such comes up in justice court, it must go to superior court for that type of information. Is that true?"

Mr. Smith (R): "As I understand the law, neither small claims court nor justice court has jurisdiction to claim title to property, but I do not understand the law to prohibit either the justice court or district court from inquiring in a supplemental proceeding about assets of a defendant relative to those. I'm not certain about that."

Mr. Newhouse spoke against the amendment.

The amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

Mr. Addison moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Addison and Salatino:

On page 2, line 28 strike "less than five hundred" and insert "~~((less than five hundred))~~ not in excess of one thousand"

On page 2, line 35 strike "less than five hundred" and insert "~~((less than five hundred))~~ not in excess of one thousand"

On page 3, line 1 strike "less than five hundred" and insert "~~((less than five hundred))~~ not in excess of one thousand"

On page 3, line 3 strike "less than five hundred" and insert "~~((less than five hundred))~~ not in excess of one thousand"

On page 3, line 6 strike "less than five hundred" and insert "~~((less than five hundred))~~ not in excess of one thousand"

On page 3, line 12 strike "less than five hundred" and insert "~~((less than five hundred))~~ not in excess of one thousand"

On page 3, line 15 strike "less than five hundred" and insert "~~((less than five hundred))~~ not in excess of one thousand"

On page 3, beginning on line 17 strike "less than five hundred" and insert "~~((less than five hundred))~~ not in excess of one thousand"

On page 3, line 20 strike "less than five hundred" and insert "~~((less than five hundred))~~ not in excess of one thousand"

On page 3, line 24 strike "less than five hundred" and insert "~~((less than five hundred))~~ not in excess of one thousand"

Representatives Addison and Salatino spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Smith (R) spoke against them.

Representatives Addison and Salatino spoke again in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Smith (R) again opposed them.

Mr. Jovanovich spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Newhouse spoke against them.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Salatino: "I don't like Representative Newhouse's comments. I think they are impugning not only my motives, but the motives of every member in this body who voted for the last amendment. I would ask that he refrain his comments to whatever."

Mr. Bagnariol: "Your point is well taken. When you make the remark that an amendment is ridiculous, Representative Newhouse, that depends on your point of view. Kindly confine your remarks to the issue."

Mr. Newhouse concluded his remarks in opposition to the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Salatino yielded to question by Ms. Winsley.

Ms. Winsley: "I'm concerned with the way the amendment is drafted and the way the bill is drafted. Will this allow companies such as J.C. Penney, Sears, Bon Marche, to use the small claims court to collect past due accounts of under a thousand dollars?"

Mr. Salatino: "I guess, Representative Winsley, these businesses have been able to use the small claims court system in the past. In reference to your point though, I think it should be brought out that a survey was done for our subcommittee pertaining to King County's small claims court, and in January, out of 260 cases that were heard in 1977, 47 of those cases involved businesses. Businesses can be defined as small business people, corporations, so I guess it's a matter of semantics, but they certainly are allowed to use small claims court as they have always been able to use small claims court."

Mr. Addison spoke again in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Thompson also spoke in favor of them.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representatives Addison and Salatino to House Bill No. 208, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 58; nays, 38; not voting, 2.

In the Columbia River and in Eastern Washington we have such an abundance of carp that many people shoot them with bows and arrows, they snag them, they hit them with rocks, they do, indeed, molest them in that sense. Yet they are so prolific that these waters are not diminished of carp. Would they be considered a food fish in this instance?"

Mr. Schmitt: "Representative Isaacson, moments ago I wouldn't have been able to answer that, but I just looked it up and they are not listed as a food fish on the list that I have, so I think we're safe."

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

February 19, 1979

THE HONORABLE
SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON
DEAR SIR:

On January 16, 1979, we informed both houses of the legislature of the necessity of conducting a full canvass of the signatures filed in support of Initiative to the Legislature No. 61.

We have thus far determined that at least 125,596 signatures were of legal voters and have therefore directed that the canvassing process be terminated, as this number exceeds the minimum number of signatures of legal voters required by the State Constitution.

Therefore, we respectfully certify Initiative to the Legislature No. 61 as to the sufficiency of signatures submitted, and pursuant to Article II, section 1, of the State Constitution and RCW 29.79.200, we respectfully transmit a full, true, and complete text of the Initiative as filed in this office on April 24, 1978.

Sincerely,
Donald F. Whiting
Deputy Secretary of State

INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE 61

AN ACT Relating to solid waste management, establishing a minimum refundable deposit on beverage containers to promote their reuse and recycling; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; and prescribing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Returnable Beverage Container Act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The people of the state of Washington find that the failure to reuse and recycle empty beverage containers represents a significant and unnecessary waste of important energy and material resources. The littering of empty beverage containers constitutes a public nuisance, a safety hazard, and esthetic blight and imposes upon public and private agencies in this state unnecessary costs for the removal and collection of such containers. Empty beverage containers constitute a significant and rapidly growing proportion of municipal solid waste, whose disposal imposes a severe financial burden on municipal governments. The reuse and recycling of empty beverage containers would eliminate these unnecessary burdens on individuals, local governments, and the environment. A uniform system for requiring a refund value on the sale of all beverage containers in this state would result in a high level of reuse and recycling of such containers when empty.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Beverage" means beer, ale, or other malt drink of whatever alcoholic content, and mineral water, soda water, and similar carbonated soft drinks of any variety, in liquid form and intended for human consumption, but does not include dairy products, fruit juices, wine, or spirits.

(2) "Beverage container" means an airtight container sealed by the manufacturer and designed to contain a beverage under pressure of carbonation, including, but not limited to, containers of metal, glass, plastic, or a combination of these, but does not include cups and other open receptacles.

(3) "Consumer" means any person who purchases a beverage in a beverage container for any use other than resale.

(4) "Dealer" means any person, including the operator of a vending machine, who sells, offers to sell, or engages in the sale of beverages in beverage containers to consumers in this state.

(5) "Department" means the department of ecology of the state of Washington.

(6) "Distributor" means any person who sells or offers for sale beverages in beverage containers to a dealer in this state, including any manufacturer who engages in such sales.

(7) "Manufacturer" means any person bottling, canning, or otherwise filling beverage containers for sale to distributors or dealers.

(8) "Recycling center" means an operation at a specific location, or a related service established pursuant to section 8 or 9 of this act, where any person may redeem the amount of the deposit for any empty beverage container.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Every beverage container sold or offered for sale to a consumer in this state shall have a refund value of not less than five cents.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, every beverage container sold or offered for sale in this state by a dealer shall clearly and prominently indicate by embossing, stamping, labeling, or other method of secure attachment to the beverage container on a place other than the bottom: (a) The refund value; (b) the words "return for deposit"; and (c) the name of this state. Metal beverage containers shall be clearly and prominently embossed or stamped on the top of the container.

(3) The requirement in subsection (2) of this section does not apply to refillable glass beverage containers manufactured before the effective date of this act which have a brand name permanently marked on them and a refund value of not less than five cents.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Except as provided in sections 6 and 10 of this act:

(1) A dealer, or a recycling center established under section 9 of this act to provide the total refund service for a dealer, may not refuse to accept from any person any empty beverage container of the kind, size, and brand sold by the dealer, or refuse to pay in cash upon request to that person, the refund value of the beverage container as established by section 4 of this act.

(2) A distributor may not refuse to accept from a dealer or a recycling center any empty beverage container of the kind, size, or brand sold by the distributor in this state, or refuse to pay the dealer or recycling center the refund value of the beverage container as established by section 4 of this act.

(3) A manufacturer may not refuse to accept from a dealer, recycling center, or distributor any empty beverage container of the kind, size, and brand sold by the manufacturer, or refuse to pay the dealer, recycling center, or distributor the full refund value as established by section 4 of this act.

(4) In addition to the payment of the refund value, the distributor accepting beverage containers under subsection (2) of this section and the manufacturer accepting beverage containers under subsection (3) of this section, shall reimburse the dealer or recycling center for handling the beverage containers in an amount to be set by the Washington state legislature that is not less than one cent per returned container. If the legislature does not set this amount prior to the effective date of this act, the minimum amount of one cent per container shall be the handling reimbursement fee.

(5) The department shall review the adequacy of the amount of reimbursement given to recycling centers and dealers in subsection (4) of this section and shall submit any recommended changes to the regular sessions of the Washington state legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A dealer, recycling center, distributor, or manufacturer may refuse to accept any empty beverage container which does not state thereon the name of this state and a refund value as established by section 4 of this act, which contains material foreign to the normal contents of the container, or which, if glass, is broken. Cans may be crushed but must be intact and the brand name must be recognizable to qualify for refund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. No beverage shall be sold or offered for sale to consumers in this state in a metal beverage container a part of which is designed to be detached in order to open such container.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Recycling centers to refund deposits on beverage containers, at which consumers may return empty beverage containers and receive payment of the refund value, may be established and operated by any person. Persons wishing to operate such a recycling center shall register with the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) A dealer, group of dealers, or a recycling center established under section 8 of this act may file an application with the department for approval of a recycling center or centers to provide the total refund service for the dealer or dealers. The application shall state: The name and address of the person or persons responsible for the establishment and operation of the center; the kinds, sizes, and brand names of beverage containers which will be accepted; and the names and addresses of dealers to be served and their distances from the recycling center.

(2) The department shall give due notice to the public and other affected parties of the application and, if petitioned by ten or more people, shall hold a public hearing in the area affected. If after investigation and hearing the department determines that the recycling center would provide a convenient service to both the dealer and consumers for the return of empty beverage containers, the application shall be approved. The order of the department approving the recycling center shall state the dealers to be served and the kind, size, and brand names of empty beverage containers which the recycling center must accept. The order may contain such other reasonable provisions as the department may determine to be necessary to ensure that the recycling center will provide a convenient service to the public.

(3) A list of the dealers served and the kind, sizes, and brand names of empty beverage containers accepted shall be prominently displayed at each recycling center.

(4) A dealer served by a recycling center shall prominently display within the view of the consumer at the time of sale of a beverage in a beverage container the location, distance from the dealer, hours of operation, and the name of the recycling center that serves the dealer.

(5) The department may review the approval of a recycling center established under this section at any time. After written notice to the person or persons responsible for the establishment and operation of the recycling center and to the dealers served by the recycling center, the department may, after hearing, withdraw approval of the recycling center if the department finds that there has not been compliance with the approval order or if the recycling center no longer provides a convenient service to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A dealer may refuse to accept from a consumer or other person and to pay the refund value of any beverage container, if the place of business of the dealer and the kind, size, and brand of beverage container are included in an order of the department approving a recycling center under section 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Any dealer selling a beverage in a beverage container solely for consumption on the premises of the dealer may elect not to charge a deposit at the time of sale, and if so electing, shall not be required to pay a refund for accepting that empty beverage container back.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Every operator of a vending machine which sells beverages in beverage containers shall post a conspicuous notice on each vending machine indicating that a refund value of not less than five cents is available on each beverage container purchased and where, how far away, and from whom that refund may be obtained.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) The department is hereby empowered to promulgate such rules and regulations in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Decisions of the department, other than rule-making, shall be subject to review in accordance with chapter 43.21B RCW.

(3) The department shall promulgate such rules and regulations as needed for implementation of this chapter no later than one year prior to the effective date of this act. Such rules and regulations shall take effect on the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Any person found guilty of wilfully violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars or more than one thousand dollars and costs. Every day a violation occurs is a separate offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The department, in cooperation with other state agencies, shall submit to the legislature no later than one year prior to the effective date of this act a report that includes potential legislation or other programs which would accomplish the following objectives:

- (a) The maximum reuse via rewashing and refilling of all glass beverage containers and the maximum recycling of all other beverage containers returned under this act;
- (b) The maximum reuse and recycling of other beverage containers not included under this act;
- (c) The enhancement of recycling of other materials present in recoverable quantities in the solid waste stream via recycling centers set up under this act;
- (d) Equitable compensation or other assistance to workers who may be displaced by this act;
- (e) Changes in the B & O tax and other taxes assessed recycling centers that would enhance their economic viability.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Except as provided in section 13(3) and section 16 of this act:

(1) This act shall take effect April 1, 1981, if passed by the legislature in its 46th regular session; or

(2) This act shall take effect January 1, 1982, if adopted by the people in the general election of 1979.

Mr. Eberle spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Valle and Isaacson spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson yielded to question by Mr. Eberle.

Mr. Eberle: "The thing which I have been unable to identify with, Representative Isaacson, is that as we make this law and identify the areas for which people are compelled to have their cars fixed, even though we don't have general agreement on what the standards ought to be, it seems to me we're putting a real power in the hands of regulatory bodies to tell the average person who drives his car to work where he ought to go. Do we have time to work this problem? When is the final deadline?"

Mr. Isaacson: "I believe Representative Valle can best answer that, but the program must be installed by January 1981, and we must make a decision by January 1982 as to whether or not we will be in compliance or if we can be in compliance. If we have a program in effect at that time we can get an extension until 1987. So it's not a matter whether or not we want super agencies telling us what to do. That has happened with the National Environmental Policy Act and it's implemented and has been augmented further, reinforced by Congress when they passed the bill last August which followed upon the court case by Brown of California vs. EPA. Brown won his case that the EPA could not establish suspensions and then Congress passed a law that says they can pass suspensions. It's now a law of the land."

Representatives Valle and Douthwaite spoke against the amendment, and Representative Eberle spoke again in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Valle yielded to question by Mr. Erak.

Mr. Erak: "Representative Valle, would you tell me what type of fiscal impact this would have on local governments and whether they could, in fact, handle this type of impact if there is one?"

Ms. Valle: "The fiscal impact is unclear at this time simply because we do not know how the Department of Ecology will handle this. The bill speaks to a three-way option. That is that the Department of Ecology may do the inspections in the voluntary phase, or it may contract it out to private garages here in the state, or similar operations within the state or a private firm that specializes in the business of testing auto exhaust. In the final phase, we have said that the Department of Ecology may not do the inspections themselves. In other words, it is not the intent of this legislature to build a big bureaucracy and to let them do the inspections; however, the history of departments conceiving the voluntary phaseout is unclear. This is a new business of the state involving themselves, and whether they will make every effort—and if they do make every effort to contract this out with a firm that does the inspections—the less cost in the long run to the taxpayers. There is no immediate impact on local government."

Representatives Barr and Isaacson spoke against the amendment.

Mr. Ehlers demanded the previous question.

Mr. Eberle demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the demand for the previous question, and the demand was sustained by the following vote: Yeas, 81; nays, 12; not voting, 5.

Providing tax relief for farmlands.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Ms. Becker, Substitute House Bill No. 617 was substituted for House Bill No. 617, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 617 was read the second time.

On motion of Ms. Becker, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 4, beginning on line 12 strike all material down to and including "roll." on line 36 and insert the following:

"Whenever a local government creates a local improvement district, the levying, collection and enforcement of assessments shall be in the manner and subject to the same procedures and limitations as are provided by law for the initiation and formation of local improvement districts in the RCW section which is pursuant to that district and the levying, collection and enforcement of assessments pursuant thereto. When a local government approves and confirms a special benefit assessment roll, from which farm and agricultural land has been exempted pursuant to this section, it shall file a notice of such action with the county assessor and the legislative authority of the county in which such land is located and with the treasurer of that local government, which notice shall describe the action taken, the type of improvement involved, the land exempted, and the total amount of the special benefit assessment which would have been levied against the land if it had not been exempted. Such notice shall also be mailed to the owner of such land as listed on the tax rolls of the applicable county treasurer. The filing of such notice with the county assessor and the treasurer of that local government shall constitute constructive notice to a purchaser or encumbrancer of the affected land, and every person whose conveyance or encumbrance is subsequently executed or subsequently recorded, that such exempt land is subject to the charges provided in sections 4 and 5 of this act if such land is withdrawn or removed from its current use classification as farm and agricultural land. The county assessor, upon receiving notice of the open land classification, must also send notice of the exempted status to the owner of said land.

The owner of the land exempted from special benefit assessments pursuant to this section may waive that exemption by filing a notarized document to that effect with the legislative authority of the local government upon receiving notice from said local government concerning the assessment roll hearing and before the local government confirms the final special benefit assessment roll."

On page 5, line 20 strike "owner of such land files notice" and insert "initial notice is filed by the governmental entity which created the local improvement district"

On page 5, line 32 strike "owner of such land files notice" and insert "initial notice is filed by the governmental entity which created the local improvement district"

Substitute House Bill No. 617 was ordered engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Salatino, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 617 was placed on final passage.

Ms. Becker spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Becker yielded to question by Mr. Greengo.

Mr. Greengo: "Representative Becker, if, in the situation you describe, a farmer has a sewer line or water line put across his property and is not paying the taxes for it, that's going to be distributed to all the other taxpayers in the district and they are going to have to pick up the costs of however many miles of sewer line there is, and then you say the farmer, if he brings his land into the residential use or whatever, will have to pay the higher rate. Is there any provision for refunding to the original taxpayers the extra moneys they paid or where is the equity in that accomplished?"

Ms. Becker: "Representative Greengo, referring to section 6 of the bill, there is no provision for direct refund to the actual people who pay the higher rate; however, it does provide that the payments from the farmer who would come back in, would be applied to the cost of that project or to the retiring of the bonds, if it was still on, or to the maintenance. So it would be tied back to the original project which those people had contributed to in the first place."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 617, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 94; nays, 3; not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Addison, Amen, Bagnariol, Barnes, Barr, Bauer, Becker, Bender, Berentson, Blair, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Chandler, Charnley, Clayton, Craswell, Dawson, Deccio, Douthwaite, Dunlap, Eberle, Ehlers, Eng, Erak, Erickson, Fancher, Fuller, Gallagher, Galloway, Granlund, Greengo, Grimm, Gruger, Haley, Hastings, Heck, Houchen, Hughes, Hurley, Isaacson, Jovanovich, Keller, King, Knowles, Kreidler, Lux, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson D., Nelson G. Substitute House Bill No. 619 was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Salatino, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Substitute House Bill No. 619 was placed on final passage.

Mr. Mitchell spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Mitchell yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "May I ask why the committee amended the bill to include physicians' assistants as authorized to prescribe drugs?"

Mr. Mitchell: "The original legislation was written in 1973 and this last Legislature physicians' assistants and osteopathic physicians' assistants were legalized by statute. This bill that we are now considering, that I am speaking of, would include in its reading, the assistants; therefore, it conforms with the existing statutes."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 619, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 98; nays, 0; not voting, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Addison, Amen, Bagnariol, Barnes, Barr, Bauer, Becker, Bender, Berentson, Blair, Bond, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Chandler, Charnley, Clayton, Craswell, Dawson, Deccio, Douthwaite, Dunlap, Eberle, Ehlers, Eng, Erak, Erickson, Fancher, Flanagan, Fuller, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Granlund, Greengo, Grimm, Gruger, Haley, Hastings, Heck, Houchen, Hughes, Hurley, Isaacson, Jovanovich, Keller, King, Knowles, Kreidler, Lux, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, McDonald, McGinnis, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson D., Nelson G. A., Newhouse, Nisbet, North, O'Brien, Oliver, Owen, Patterson, Polk, Pruitt, Rohrbach, Rosbach, Salatino, Sanders, Schmitt, Scott, Sherman, Smith C. P., Smith R., Sommers, Sprague, Struthers, Taller, Taylor, Teutsch, Thompson, Tilly, Tupper, Valle, Van Dyken, Vrooman, Walk, Warnke, Whiteside, Williams, Wilson, Winsley, Zimmerman.

Substitute House Bill No. 619, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 663, by Representatives Bauer, Whiteside, Galloway, Chandler, Valle, Greengo, Scott, Addison and Lux (by Superintendent of Public Instruction request):

Creating program of remediation assistance to public school students who are deficient in basic skills achievement.

Substitute House Bill No. 663 was read the second time.

On motion of Ms. Galloway, the following amendments by Representatives Galloway and Chandler were adopted:

On page 3, line 4 after "grades" strike "three through seven" and insert "two through six"

On page 3, line 12 after "grades" strike "three through seven" and insert "two through six"

Mr. Heck moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Heck and Whiteside:

On page 4, after line 3 insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Not less than twenty percent of any amount appropriated for the purposes of this act shall be used by districts for the implementation of nationally validated proven educational practices that are diagnostic, prescriptive, tutorial models in the basic skills."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Representatives Heck, Ehlers and Whiteside spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives McGinnis, Barnes and Taylor spoke against it.

Representative Heck spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Heck yielded to question by Mr. Pruitt.

Mr. Pruitt: "Representative Heck, can you see in any way that the twenty percent would be the tail that wags the dog and would determine the eighty percent? In other words, the districts would have to be tied to the twenty percent federal program? Or would you have pretty much complete independence for the local school districts to spend that eighty percent in a new and creative program?"

Mr. Heck: "There is absolute independence on the part of each and every school district to spend their money in whatever way they choose best if it's in accordance with the balance of this bill. There are other criteria established in this bill."

Mr. Barnes spoke again in opposition to the amendment.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Patterson: "Mr. Speaker, references have been made to an appropriation attached to this bill in the magnitude of $12 million. I'm wondering what the procedures are at the present time? I recall that we used to send all bills of this magnitude to the Appropriations Committee before we could make law or establish a program with this kind of a fiscal impact. I'm wondering what are our procedures in this particular case?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Representative Patterson, Rule 79 states in part, 'All bills including a direct appropriation must be referred to the Appropriations Committee before appearing on the second reading calendar.' The bill does not contain a direct appropriation."

Mr. Patterson: "Well, Mr. Speaker, I recognize that the bill does not, but as I recall one of the members made a statement that there is a $12 million item in the budget, the Governor's budget, and it would seem to me that this bill, if we pass it—which is what we're talking about right here today—if we establish by law, then we have another precedent we established the other day when we changed categorically grant programs from 'may' funds to 'shall' funds. I would suggest that this is a categorical grant and what we are doing, in effect, if we pass this bill we will—"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Heck: "Mr. Speaker, I don't believe the speaker is addressing his remarks to the amendment on the desk, but rather to the concept of the bill."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. O'BRIEN PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It appears, Representative Patterson, that you are going beyond your point of information. Now you are speaking about the merits of the bill."

Mr. Patterson: "Mr. Speaker, my point of information was on that very subject, as to what extent we will be making a commitment on the expenditure of $12 million. I think that's the whole point. I think we have to recognize the amendment, true, but I thought at this point in time the question should be raised as to why it's on the second reading calendar."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The Speaker has replied to your point of information, Representative Patterson."

Representatives Jovanovich and Thompson spoke in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Heck and Whiteside to Substitute House Bill No. 663, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 61; nays, 37; not voting, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Addison, Bagnariol, Bauer, Bender, Brekke, Brown, Burns, Chandler, Charnley, Deccio, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eng, Erak, Erickson, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Granlund, Grimm, Gruger, Haley, Heck, Houchen, Hughes, Hurley, Jovanovich, Keller, King, Knowles, Kreidler, Lux, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, Mitchell, Monohon, Nelson D., Nelson G. A., North, O'Brien, Salatino, Sanders, Schmitt, Scott, Sherman, Sommers, Taller, Teutsch, Thompson, Tupper, Valle, Van Dyken, Vrooman, Walk, Warnke, Whiteside, Winsley, Zimmerman.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Barnes, Barr, Becker, Berentson, Blair, Bond, Clayton, Craswell, Dawson, Dunlap, Eberle, Fancher, Flanagan, Fuller, Greengo, Hastings, Isaacson, McDonald, McGinnis, Newhouse, Nisbet, Oliver, Owen, Patterson, Polk, Pruitt, Rohrbach, Rosbach, Smith C. P., Smith R., Sprague, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Williams, Wilson.

Substitute House Bill No. 663 was ordered engrossed.

On motion of Mr. King, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 663 was placed on final passage.

Mr. Bauer spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bauer yielded to question by Mr. Nelson (G.A.).

Mr. Nelson (G.A.): "Just for clarification as to the intent of this measure, I would like to address the question regarding section 2, paragraph (c), which speaks about supplemental services as the methods or involvement here between the tutors and the children. I'd like to clarify that the intent of this measure is to be truly a resource room approach, a part-time activity on the part of the youngsters being given tutorial or other assistance in the remediation process, and that these children are intended to be continually turned to the normal classroom rather than being involved in a full-time tutoring activity outside of the classroom. Is that your intention in the bill?"

Mr. Bauer: "Yes, the intent is to keep the children in the classroom as much as possible and tutor whatever is necessary to keep up the skills of that child."

Mr. Martinis: "That question I can't answer, but I don't think that's a matter of concern. The Oregon charter boat fleet operates out of Warrenton and, naturally being partial to Washington state, it's not a very good port and it doesn't have a very large charter fleet. Ilwaco has good port facilities; it's closer to the mouth of the river and we want those Oregon boats operating out of the state of Washington for the tax revenues and for the income for those people involved in the tourist trade."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Polk yielded to question by Mr. Heck.

Mr. Heck: "Representative Polk, just a few bills ago, you rose to your feet to declare that you thought it bad policy and setting a dangerous precedent for this body to pass legislation which did not contain an appropriation implementing that program. In light of the absence of an appropriation on this bill, have you changed your policy?"

Mr. Polk: "Thank you for bringing that up, Representative Heck. I do think that's a bad policy on something as far-reaching as the bill we were considering before, but I think if you will look at this one, and look at the number of people that you are going to be impacting, I think the bill can stand on its merits. You know exactly how much it's going to cost. I think, in this case where they are estimating it at $100,000 a year, it's an overly generous estimate because it depends on how many people you can recruit under the circumstances; so, I don't think the two situations are exactly relevant and, as one of our members would say, the question is moot."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Polk yielded to question by Ms. Winsley.

Ms. Winsley: "Representative Polk, could you tell me what the age limit is to join the National Guard?"

Mr. Polk: "Eighteen, and both men and women can play."

HOUSE BILL NO. 406, by Representatives Patterson, Martinis, Wilson, Bender, Deccio, McGinnis, McCormick, McDonald, Eberle, Tilly, Tupper, Bauer, Barr, Struthers and Garrett:

Excluding freeway speeding violations between 55 and 70 from a driver's insurance abstract.

The bill was read the second time.

Committee on Transportation recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendment, see Journal, 43rd Day, February 19, 1979.)

On motion of Mr. Wilson, the committee amendment was adopted.

Mr. Erak moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 21 after "over" insert "sixty-five miles per hour or"

Mr. Erak spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Patterson, McGinnis and Martinis spoke against it.

Mr. Douthwaite spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Deccio: "Representative Douthwaite is speaking outside the scope and object of the bill. The bill merely says that if you have been arrested for or received a citation for going over the speed limit of 55, it can't impact your motor vehicle report and therefore, the insurance companies cannot get that information. It has nothing to do with the safety features."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Representative Douthwaite, can you hold your remarks to the amendment?"

Mr. Douthwaite closed his remarks in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Patterson yielded to question by Mr. Knowles.

Mr. Knowles: "The thing that bothers me, Representative Patterson, granted that this information wouldn't get to the insurance department, but will that citation not go through the Department of Licenses? Don't they have the right, after an accumulation of these violations, to terminate the license on the basis of that?"

Mr. Patterson: "Absolutely. This does nothing, as I've said before, other than to keep the abstract from the company that insures you. Your driving record is going to be kept very safely in the Department of Licensing, and if you are in constant violation, you run the risk of having your license revoked. The reason that we really lowered the speed limit on our freeways from 70 to 55 was because of an energy shortage. It has nothing to do with the posted speed limit and especially on the highways. I hope you can't read anything else into this bill. I don't think we ought to be out here at this time trying to make a determination that some years ago, when the freeways were posted at 70, our Highway Commission made a mistake. That basically, Representative Douthwaite, is what you're saying, is that they should have been posted at 65. That's not what I am trying to do. I would like for those people who are being cited because of an energy violation, basically, to keep their speed down, and that they not also be in jeopardy as far as the premiums on their insurance."

Mr. Hughes spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Martinis spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Erak:
On page 2, line 22 after "1973," insert "whichever is lower."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Erak withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Douthwaite moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 2, line 22 after "conditions" insert "in the judgment of the arresting officer"

Mr. Douthwaite spoke in favor of amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Douthwaite yielded to question by Mr. Deccio.

Mr. Deccio: "Representative Douthwaite, law enforcement people have even more power than we have and they can make decisions at the scene of an incident. Is it the intent of this amendment that if the enforcement officer doesn't like this bill, that he can make an arbitrary decision and say he'll warrant the conditions are unsafe and thereby nullify the intent of what I think is in the bill?"

Mr. Douthwaite: "It may go to court, but the reasonable person concept would apply. If the judgment was made by the officer that on a bright, sunny day it was unsafe to go 56, obviously you'd be down, so the reasonability concept is there. The idea is that the officer should make the decision rather than the individual driver."

Mr. Deccio spoke against the amendment, and Representatives Martinis, Patterson and Garrett spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Douthwaite spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Ehlers: "I would like to ask you: If, in my home, on my property, someone currently trespasses onto my property—I'm not talking about a farm—can I, as an individual, detain those people on my property? If so, what is the liability to me if I detain that individual against his will?"

Mr. Newhouse: "In the first place, we're not talking about detaining individuals. We're talking about detaining property, which is vastly different. To answer your question more directly, may I use an example of a situation that happened in my neighborhood recently. An unlicensed driver had an accident and his car went onto the front yard and destroyed my neighbor's fence. He could call the State Patrol and report it as an abandoned vehicle and ask them to take it. The owner was not very willing to come forth and claim the car, but my neighbor had no right to impound that vehicle to recover the damages to his front yard, his fence and the shrubbery. Perhaps this bill would give that authority."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Ehlers yielded to question by Mr. Zimmerman.

Mr. Zimmerman: "Representative Ehlers, in terms of your statement that it updates, how long a period will it be before the building codes will actually apply? For updating the codes, how soon would a factory have to be in compliance with their new forms, etc.? How much time would they have to get into compliance?"

Mr. Ehlers: "The problem right now, to answer that question as directly as I can, we have very few consistencies as far as the administrative code, because we have local jurisdiction—some having the 1976 edition, the 1979 edition coming out. That question did come up in committee. We attempted, on page 2, with the thought that the rules had to be adopted according to chapter 34.04 RCW, which is the rule-making authority. We would have an opportunity for hearings, for input, for the interested parties to give their input before those rules are adopted. That is a concern, but we had hoped it would be taken care of right."

On motion of Mr. Polk, the following amendments by Representatives Polk and King were adopted:

On page 4, line 12 after "dollars" insert ", except that the total compensation for all unspecified permanent partial disabilities involving injuries to the back that do not have marked objective clinical findings to substantiate the disability and resulting from the same injury shall not exceed the sum of forty-five thousand dollars"

Mr. Polk moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, line 12 following "dollars:" insert "PROVIDED FURTHER, That no more than sixty days shall elapse from the date of department referral for permanent partial disability rating and claim closure:"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Newhouse: "Mr. Speaker, I think Representative Lux's remarks are not appropriate to the amendment."

The Speaker (Mr. Amen presiding): "Please keep your remarks to the amendment, Representative Lux."

Mr. Lux concluded his remarks in opposition to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lux yielded to question by Mr. Fuller.

Mr. Fuller: "Representative Lux, can you give me some idea of the time frame that is involved in deciding the payments to be made in the loss of a limb, for example?"

Mr. Lux: "Quite frankly, I can't do that, but I understand that it doesn't take five months to make that determination."

Mr. Fuller: "Can you give me some idea of why it can be done in less than five months there and it takes five months in the other instances?"

Mr. Lux: "I think there are many times—such as if a workman gets burned or has a severe injury—you know, doctors can only be a catalyst to healing, God Himself does the healing. Sometimes we don't know how bad these injuries are or just what the repercussions of that healing process will be. I think that has an effect on the time length."

Mr. Fuller: "We're speaking specifically about back injuries, not burns, though."

Mr. Lux: "Many times you have injuries to your back that you cannot determine in sixty days. You don't know how those vertebrae are going to heal. You can't always make those determinations."

Mr. Fuller: "I don't mean to be heckling you, Representative Lux, but we're not talking about injured vertebrae; we're talking about things that don't show up in an x-ray. The department has accepted a claim and they are making payments; why would they continue payments for five months before they decided that?"

Mr. Lux: "I imagine that's because of determinations made by physicians or doctors in the community."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Polk yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "As I read the language in the amendment, it says, '...no more than sixty days shall elapse from the date of department referral for permanent partial disability rating and claim closure.' At what point would be the department referral for disability ratings?"

Mr. Polk: "At the time the department decides they need the claim settled and they determine that they think it's a permanent partial disability, and they send it out for examination to be sure that's what it is and get the medical opinion on it."

Mr. Isaacson: "At what point in the treatment would this request for a rating occur? In other words, Representative Whiteside referred to the point that it takes time in some cases for an injury to heal—broken bones, etc.—and I'm interested in knowing at what point the department is asked to make a rating with respect to disability?"

Mr. Polk: "Representative Isaacson, when the department decides that there might be a partial disability or a claim has been filed with them that there is a permanent partial disability, they then have to make that kind of determination. It's when a claim has been made to the department and they have to make that determination through the channels and procedures that are set out for them through the Administrative Code."

Representatives Polk and Zimmerman spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Smith (R) and King spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. McGinnis.

McGinnis: "At what point in the claims procedure process does the doctor submit a bill for services rendered?"

Mr. King: "I presume after they are rendered, I don't know."

Mr. McGinnis spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. King spoke against it.

Mr. Clayton spoke in favor of the amendment.

The other one did not specifically include them and they opposed it because of that. It would be county legislative authorities and county elected officials on that commission which would draw up the charters. The second way is that the other one allowed more than one choice to be put on the ballot and this specifies only one choice at any one time. That will be less confusing."

Mr. Zimmerman spoke in favor of passage of the resolution.

Mr. Van Dyken: "For purposes of establishing legislative intent, is it your intent that small towns and large towns be considered equally for the provisions of this act?"

Ms. Hurley: "I think, as usual, that we leave that determination up to the interagency committee. They do have advisory committees that come to them and give them their requests for funding. Allocations to school districts of state funds provided by RCW 28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811 shall be made by the state board of education and the amount of state assistance to a school district in financing a school plant project shall be determined in the following manner:

(1) The boards of directors of the districts shall determine the total cost of the proposed project, which cost may include the cost of acquiring and preparing the site, the cost of constructing the building or of acquiring a building and preparing the same for school use, the cost of necessary equipment, taxes chargeable to the project, necessary architects' fees, and a reasonable amount for contingencies and for other necessary incidental expenses: PROVIDED, That the total cost of the project shall be subject to review and approval by the state board of education.

(2) The state matching percentage for a school district shall be computed by the following formula:

The ratio of the school district's adjusted valuation per full time equivalent pupil divided by the ratio of the total state adjusted valuation per full time pupil shall be subtracted from three, and then the result of the foregoing shall be divided by three plus (the ratio of the school district's adjusted valuation per full time equivalent pupil divided by the ratio of the total state adjusted valuation per full time pupil).

Computed State Ratio	=	District adjusted 3+valuation per full time equivalent pupil	=	%	State Assist- ance
		Total state ad- +justed valuation per full time equivalent pupil

PROVIDED, That in the event the percentage of state assistance to any school district based on the above formula is less than twenty percent and such school district is otherwise eligible for state assistance under RCW 28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811, the state board of education may establish for such district a percentage of state assistance not in excess of twenty percent of the approved cost of the project, if the state board finds that such additional assistance is necessary to provide minimum facilities for housing the pupils of the district.

(3) In addition to the computed percent of state assistance developed in (2) above, a school district shall be entitled to additional percentage points determined by the average percentage of growth for the past three years. One percent shall be added to the computed percent of state assistance for each percent of growth, with a maximum of twenty percent.

(4) The approved cost of the project determined in the manner herein prescribed times the percentage of state assistance derived as provided for herein shall be the amount of state assistance to the district for the financing of the project: PROVIDED, That need therefor has been established to the satisfaction of the state board of education: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That additional state assistance may be allowed if it is found by the state board of education that such assistance is necessary in order to meet (a) a school housing emergency resulting from the destruction of a school building by fire, the condemnation of a school building by properly constituted authorities, a sudden excessive and clearly foreseeable future increase in school population, or other conditions similarly emergent in nature; or (b) a special school housing burden imposed by virtue of the admission of nonresident students into educational programs established, maintained and operated in conformity with the requirements of law; or (c) a deficiency in the capital funds of the district resulting from financing, subsequent to April 1, 1969, and without benefit of the state assistance provided by prior state assistance programs, the construction of a needed school building project or projects approved in conformity with the requirements of such programs, after having first applied for and been denied state assistance because of the inadequacy of state funds available for the purpose, or (d) a condition created by the fact that an excessive number of students live in state owned housing, or (e) a need for the construction of a school building to provide for improved school district organization or racial balance, or (f) conditions similar to those defined under (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) hereinabove, creating a like emergency.

(5) Notwithstanding any provision contained in chapter 28A.47 RCW or RCW 28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811, as now or hereafter amended, or any regulation of the state board of education or the state superintendent of public instruction adopted after January 1, 1979, all school districts which passed a bond issue or special levy for capital construction or capital purposes including a vocational-technical institute on or before April 3, 1979, shall remain eligible for state matching funds on the same basis as provided under statutes and/or state board of education regulations in effect on or before January 1, 1979, and each such district application shall receive the same priority it would have received under state law and/or state board of education rules and regulations in effect at the time any such bond issue or special levy was approved by the voters: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall apply only to bond issues or capital levies for capital purposes approved by the voters prior to April 1, 1979.

In addition and notwithstanding any provisions contained in RCW 28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811 or chapter 28A.47 RCW or the state board of education's rules and regulations if the same are amended on or after January 1, 1979, the state board of education and the state superintendent of public instruction shall, upon application by any school district(s) qualifying under the terms hereof, process the application in an expeditious fashion and allocate any state matching funds and determine their eligibility and priority as specified above.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Section 1. Section 7, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 347, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.291 are each amended to read as follows and, as amended, shall be reclassified as a section of chapter 84.33 RCW:

(1) Upon every person engaging within this state in business as a harvester of timber; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the stumpage value of timber harvested for sale or for commercial or industrial use multiplied by the appropriate rate as follows:

(a) For timber harvested between October 1, 1972 and September 30, 1973 inclusive, the rate shall be one and three-tenths percent;

(b) For timber harvested between October 1, 1973 and September 30, 1974 inclusive, the rate shall be two and nine-tenths percent and between October 1, 1974 and (~~December 31, 1978~~) June 30, 1981, inclusive, six and one-half percent.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) 'Harvester' means every person who from his own privately owned land or from the privately owned land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services fells, cuts or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use. It does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester.

(b) 'Timber' means forest trees, standing or down on privately owned land, and except as provided in RCW 84.33.170 includes Christmas trees.

(c) 'Stumpage value of timber' means the appropriate stumpage value shown on tables to be prepared by the department of revenue pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(d) Timber shall be considered harvested at the time when in the ordinary course of business the quantity thereof by species is first definitely determined. The amount harvested shall be determined by the Scribner Decimal C Scale or other prevalent measuring practice adjusted to arrive at substantially equivalent measurements, as approved by the department of revenue.

(3) The department of revenue shall designate areas containing timber having similar growing, harvesting and marketing conditions to be used as units for the preparation and application of stumpage values. Each year on or before December 31 for use the following January through June 30, and on or before June 30 for use the following July through December 31, the department shall prepare tables of stumpage values of each species or subclassification of timber within such units, which values shall be the amount that each such species or subclassification would sell for at a voluntary sale made in the ordinary course of business for purposes of immediate harvest. Such stumpage values, expressed in terms of a dollar amount per thousand board feet or other unit measure, shall be determined from (a) gross proceeds from sales on the stump of similar timber of like quality and character at similar locations, and in similar quantities, or from (b) gross proceeds from sales of logs adjusted to reflect only the portion of such proceeds attributable to value on the stump immediately prior to harvest, or from a combination of (a) and (b), and shall be determined in a manner which makes reasonable and adequate allowances for age, size, quality, costs of removal, accessibility to point of conversion, market conditions and all other relevant factors. Upon application from any person who plans to harvest damaged timber, the stumpage values for which have been materially reduced from the values shown in the applicable tables due to damage resulting from fire, blow down, ice storm, flood or other sudden unforeseen cause, the department shall revise such tables for any area in which such timber is located and shall specify any additional accounting or other requirements to be complied with in reporting and paying such tax. The preliminary area designations and stumpage value tables and any revisions thereof shall be subject to review by the ways and means committees of the house and senate prior to finalization. Tables of stumpage values shall be signed by the director or his designee and authenticated by the official seal of the department. A copy thereof shall be mailed to anyone who has submitted to the department a written request therefor.

(4) On or before the sixtieth day after the date of final adoption of any stumpage value tables, any harvester may appeal to the board of tax appeals for a revision of stumpage values for an area determined pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(5) There are hereby created in the state treasury a state timber tax account A and a state timber tax reserve account in the state general fund and any interest earned on the investment of cash balances shall be deposited in these accounts. The revenues from the tax imposed by subsection (1) of this section shall be deposited in state timber tax account A and state timber tax reserve account as follows:

YEAR OF COLLECTION	ACCOUNT A	RESERVE ACCOUNT
1973 through 1982	100%	0%
1983 and thereafter	0%	100%

(6) In addition to the rates specified in subsection (1) of this section, there shall be imposed upon such persons a surtax at a rate of .5% of the stumpage value of timber as specified in such subsection (1) upon timber harvested between October 1, 1972 and September 30, 1974 inclusive. The revenues from such surtax shall be deposited in the state timber tax reserve account. Such surtax shall be reimposed for one year upon timber harvested in any calendar year following any fourth quarter during which transfers from such reserve account pursuant to subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.080 reduce the balance in such account to less than five hundred thousand dollars, but in no event shall such surtax be imposed in any year after 1980.

(7) The tax imposed under this section shall be computed with respect to timber harvested each calendar quarter and shall be due and payable in quarterly installments and remittance therefor shall be made on or before the last day of the month next succeeding the end of the quarterly period in which the tax accrued. The taxpayer on or before such date shall make out a return, upon such forms and setting forth such information as the department of revenue may require, showing the amount of the tax for which he is liable for the preceding quarterly period, and shall sign and transmit the same to the department of revenue, together with a remittance for such amount.

(8) The taxes imposed by this section shall be in addition to any taxes imposed upon the same persons pursuant to one or more of sections RCW 82.04.230 to 82.04.290, inclusive, and RCW 82.04.440, and none of such sections shall be construed to modify or interact with this section in any way, except RCW 82.04.450 and 82.04.490 shall not apply to the taxes imposed by this section.

(9) Any harvester incurring less than ten dollars tax liability under this section in any calendar quarter shall be excused from the payment of such tax, but may be required by the department of revenue to file a return even though no tax may be due.

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 347, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In each year commencing with 1972 (~~and ending with 1981~~), solely for the purpose of determining, calculating and fixing, pursuant to chapter 84.52 RCW, the dollar rates for all regular and excess levies for the state and each timber county and taxing district lying wholly or partially in such county within which there was timber on January 1 of such year, the assessor of such timber county shall, for each such district, add to the amount of the 'assessed valuation of the property' of all property other than timber the product of:

(a) The portion indicated below for each year of the value of timber therein as shown on the timber roll prepared in accordance with RCW 84.33.050 for such year; and

Sec. 3. Section 8, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 347, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On or before December 15 of each year commencing with 1972 (~~and ending with 1981~~), the assessor of each timber county shall deliver to the treasurer of such county and to the department of revenue a schedule setting forth for each taxing district or portion thereof lying within such county:

(a) The value of timber as shown on the timber roll for such year;

(b) The aggregate dollar rate calculated pursuant to RCW 84.33.060 and actually utilized the immediately preceding October in extending real property taxes upon the tax rolls for collection in the following year;

(c) A 'timber factor' which is the product of such aggregate dollar rate, the assessment ratio applied generally by such assessor in computing the assessed value of other property in his county and the appropriate portion listed below of the timber roll for such year ((a) above):

YEAR	PORTION OF TIMBER ROLL
1972	25%
1973	55%
1974 through 1977	100%

(1979)	60%
1980	40%

On or before December 31 of each year commencing with 1972 (~~and ending with 1981~~), the department of revenue shall determine the proportion that each taxing district's timber factor bears to the sum of the timber factors for all taxing districts in the state, and shall deliver a list to the assessor and the treasurer of each timber county and to the state treasurer showing the factor and proportion for each taxing district.

(2) On the twentieth day of the second month of each calendar quarter, commencing February 20, 1974 (~~and ending November 20, 1982~~), the state treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of each timber county for the account of each taxing district such district's proportion and pay into the state general fund for the support of the common schools the state's proportion (determined in December of the preceding year pursuant to subsection (1) of this section) of the amount in state timber tax account A collected upon timber harvested in the preceding calendar quarter, but in no event shall any such quarterly payment to a taxing district, when added to such payments made to such district the previous quarters of the same year, exceed, respectively one-fourth, one-half, three-fourths, or the full amount of the timber factor for such district determined in December of the preceding year.

The balance in state timber tax account A, if any, on the twentieth day of the second month of each calendar quarter commencing February 20, 1975 and ending November 20, 1982 shall be transferred to the state timber tax reserve account.

(3) If the balance in state timber tax account A immediately prior to such twentieth day of the second month of each calendar quarter is not sufficient to permit a payment of one-fourth, one-half, three-fourths, or the full amount, as the case may be, which, when added to the payments made to any taxing district the previous quarters of the same year, will equal the timber factor for such district determined in December of the preceding year, the necessary additional amount shall be transferred from the state timber tax reserve account to state timber tax account A.

(4) If, after the transfer, if any, from the state timber tax account A (pursuant to subsection (2) of this section) in August of any year commencing with 1974, the balance in the state timber reserve account exceeds two million dollars, the amount of the excess shall be applied first, subject to legislative appropriation of funds allocated from the state timber reserve account, for activities undertaken by the department of revenue forest tax division and for the activities undertaken by the department of natural resources relating to classification of lands as required by this chapter. If following the transfer, if any, from the state timber tax account A (pursuant to subsection (2) of this section) in November of 1977 and each year thereafter, the balance in the state timber tax reserve account exceeds two million dollars, the department of revenue shall determine on or before December 31 of such year, an amount to be distributed to the taxing districts the following calendar year, which distribution shall be determined in the following manner: PROVIDED, That the amount of such excess reserve account distribution shall be limited to that amount which, when added to the total account A distribution for the same calendar year, will allow a percentage increase or decrease in total calendar year distributions equal to the percentage increase or decrease in excise tax collections between the preceding calendar year and the current calendar year:

(a) The department of revenue shall calculate a harvest factor and a harvest factor proportion for each taxing district, in the manner provided in subsection (5) of this section except that for years before 1978 there shall be used the aggregate value of timber harvested for as many quarters for which information is available;

(b) By multiplying the amount of such excess by the harvest factor proportion for each taxing district respectively, the department of revenue shall calculate the amount to be distributed to each local taxing district and to the state and shall certify such amounts to the respective county assessors and state;

(c) Along with each quarterly payment pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, the state treasurer shall pay, out of the state timber reserve account, to the treasurer of each timber county for the account of each local taxing district one-fourth of such district's portion (determined pursuant to (b) above) of such excess and the state treasurer shall pay into the state's general fund for the support of the common schools out of the state timber tax reserve account such additional one-fourth amount due the state.
