On page 35, after line 20 insert the following section:

(1) A party prior to entering into a release, covenant not to sue, covenant not to enforce judgment, or similar agreement with a claimant shall give five days' written notice of such intent to all other parties and the court. The court may for good cause authorize a shorter notice period. The notice shall contain a copy of the proposed agreement. A hearing shall be held on the issue of the reasonableness of the amount to be paid with all parties afforded an opportunity to present evidence. A determination by the court that the amount to be paid is reasonable must be secured. If an agreement was entered into prior to the filing of the action, a hearing on the issue of the reasonableness of the amount paid at the time it was entered into may be held at any time prior to final judgment upon motion of a party.

The burden of proof regarding the reasonableness of the settlement offer shall be on the party requesting the settlement.

(2) A release, covenant not to sue, covenant not to enforce judgment, or similar agreement entered into by a claimant and a person liable discharges that person from all liability for contribution, but it does not discharge any other persons liable upon the same claim unless it so provides. However, the claim of the releasing person against other persons is reduced by the amount paid pursuant to the agreement unless the amount paid was unreasonable at the time of the agreement in which case the claim shall be reduced by an amount determined by the court to be reasonable.

(3) A determination that the amount paid for a release, covenant not to sue, covenant not to enforce judgment, or similar agreement was unreasonable shall not affect the validity of the agreement between the released and releasing persons nor shall any adjustment be made in the amount paid between the parties to the agreement."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Representatives Padden and Armstrong spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Padden, the following amendment to the title of the bill was adopted:

On page 1, line 14 of the title after "4.24.005," strike "and 51.24.030" and insert "51.24.030, and 4.22.060"

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

THIRD READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5444, by Senators Moore, Metcalf, Vognild, Pullen, Conner, von Reichbauer, Bender, Barr, Talmadge, Deccio, Johnson, Garrett, Owen, Rasmussen, West, Smitherman, Patterson, Craswell, Tanner, Nelson, Bailey, Bauer, Zimmerman, Hayner and Sellar

Challenging the delegation of authority to create money.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Lux and Winsley spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lux yielded to question by Ms. Haugen.

Ms. Haugen: Representative Lux, I have a concern about how much this might cost us. I see that we are going to have an attorney here. Can you give us any idea of how much this will cost the state to end up going to fight Congress?

Mr. Lux: Representative Haugen, the bill did go to Ways & Means and there was a fiscal note of, I think, $68,000, or somewhere in that neighborhood, for the referendum. I think it was understood that in the budget of the Secretary of State, there is moneys for initiatives and referendums already there and apparently they felt that this will be enough because all of the referendums and all of the initiatives don't make it. I think there are nine initiatives that have been filed and I imagine they expect two or three of those to have enough signatures and then this would be another referendum, so there may be two or three of those. Apparently that is figured into the Secretary of State's budget already.

Ms. Haugen: I guess I'm curious to know how much the attorney would cost after the folks vote for this.

Mr. Lux: You mean the lawsuit. Well, at that point there have been some estimates, of course, but there again I don't know that--I guess, obviously, lawsuits cost money and attorneys--that's economic development in this state, to keep attorneys busy.

Representatives Haugen, Allen and Fisch spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives Crane, J. Williams, Padden, Heavey, Valle, L. Smith, Grimm and Nealey spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5444, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 77; nays, 17; absent, 2; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Moyer, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 90.

Voting nay: Representatives Ballard, Brough, Bumgarner, Fuhrman, Hankins, Holland, McLean, Prince - 8.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5107 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5520, by Committee on Governmental Operations (originally sponsored by Senators Halsan and McCaslin)

Limiting improvements financed by improvement districts to two hundred percent of the amount originally proposed at the time the district was created.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Local Government recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, April 6, 1987.)

Mr. Cooper moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Mr. Cooper, the following amendment by Representatives Cooper, Ferguson and Nutley to the committee amendments was adopted:

On page 3, after line 3 of the committee amendment, insert the following:

"Where, before the effective date of this section, a municipality established a reserve fund under this section that did not provide for a credit or reimbursement of the money remaining in the reserve fund to the owners of the lots, tracts, or parcels of property subject to the assessments, the balance in the reserve fund shall be distributed, after payment in full and retirement of all local improvement district bonds and other obligations secured by the reserve fund, to those owners of the lots, tracts, or parcels of property subject to the assessments at the time the final installment or assessment payment on the lot, tract, or parcel was made. No owner is eligible to receive reimbursement for a lot, tract, or parcel if a lien on an unpaid assessment, or an installment thereon, that was imposed on such property remains in effect at the time the reimbursement is made or was foreclosed on the property. The amount to be distributed to the owners of each lot, tract, or parcel that is eligible for reimbursement shall be equal to the balance in the reserve fund, multiplied by the assessment imposed on the lot, tract, or parcel, divided by the total of all the assessments on the lots, tracts, or parcels eligible for reimbursement."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the committee amendments as amended.

Representatives Cooper and Ferguson spoke in favor of the committee amendments as amended, and they were adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Cooper and Ferguson spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5520 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P. King R. Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Moyer, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 97.

Voting nay: Representative Hine - 1.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5520 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 5013, by Senators Garrett, Zimmerman and Halsan

Permitting counties and cities to vacate public roads and streets abutting water under certain circumstances.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Local Government recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, April 3, 1987.)

Mr. Cooper moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Ms. Haugen, the following amendment by Representatives Haugen and Nelson to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 3 of the committee amendment, line 24, after "education" insert "; or

(c) The vacation is sought to enable a city or town to implement a plan, adopted by resolution or ordinance, that provides comparable or improved public access to the same shoreline area to which the streets or alleys sought to be vacated abut, had the properties included in the plan not been vacated"

On motion of Mr. Heavey, the following amendment by Representatives Heavey, Haugen, Nelson, Sanders and Ferguson to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 4, line 6 of the committee amendment, after "chapter" insert ", where in addition of the normal requirements for publishing notice, notice of the public hearing is posted conspicuously on the street or alley sought to be vacated, which posted notice indicates that the area is public access, it is proposed to be vacated, and that anyone objecting to the proposed vacation should attend the public hearing or send a letter to a particular official indicating his or her objection"

Mr. Nelson moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Nelson and Haugen to the committee amendment:

On page 4, beginning on line 21 of the committee amendment, strike "acquiring additional moorage or launching sites, or improving existing sites or new sites for such purposes" and insert "or acquiring additional moorage or launching sites"

Representatives Nelson and Haugen spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Leonard and Ferguson opposed it.

Mr. Nelson spoke again in favor of the amendment.

The amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

Ms. Cole moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 4 of the amendment, after line 24, insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 7, chapter 185, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 36.87.130 are each amended to read as follows:

No county shall vacate a county road or part thereof which abuts on a body of salt or fresh water unless the purpose of the vacation is to enable any public authority to acquire the vacated property for port purposes, boat moorage or launching sites, or for park, viewpoint, recreational, educational or other public purposes, or unless the property is zoned for industrial uses. However, a county may vacate a portion of a county road right of way which abuts a body of salt water if: (1) The right of way is not developed or maintained as a road; (2) the county legislative authority makes findings that the right of way is not usable for public port, boat moorage or launching, park, viewpoint, recreational, educational, or other public purposes, and that the proposed vacation is in the public interest; and (3) the same person or persons own the property immediately adjacent to both sides of that portion of the right of way that is sought to be vacated and the tidelands in front of where the right of way abuts the body of salt water."

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Haugen: Mr. Speaker, I ask you to rule on the amendment as to whether it fits under the title of the bill.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Haugen, I find that the language that you are asking me to rule on the scope and object of, is within the original bill. You are asking me to address a constitutional question, which I can't address. Therefore, I find your point is not well taken.

Ms. Cole spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Heavey, Haugen and Ferguson opposed it.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Bristow to the committee amendment:

On page 4 of the amendment, after line 24, insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 7, chapter 185, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 36.87.130 are each amended to read as follows:

No county shall vacate a county road or part thereof which abuts on a body of salt ((or fresh)) water unless the purpose of the vacation is to enable any public authority to acquire the vacated property for port purposes, boat moorage or launching sites, or for park, viewpoint, recreational, educational or other public purposes, or unless the property is zoned for industrial uses. However, a county may vacate a portion of a county road right of way which abuts a body of salt water if: (1) The right of way is not developed or maintained as a road; (2) the county legislative authority makes findings that the right of way is not usable for public port, boat moorage or launching, park, viewpoint, recreational, educational, or other public purposes, and that the proposed vacation is in the public interest; and (3) the same person or persons own the property immediately adjacent to both sides of that portion of the right of way that is sought to be vacated and the tidelands in front of where the right of way abuts the body of salt water."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Bristow withdrew the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. Bristow moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 4 of the amendment, after line 24, insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 7, chapter 185, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 36.87.130 are each amended to read as follows:

No county shall vacate a county road or part thereof which abuts on a body of salt ((or fresh)) water unless the purpose of the vacation is to enable any public authority to acquire the vacated property for port purposes, boat moorage or launching sites, or for park, viewpoint, recreational, educational or other public purposes, or unless the property is zoned for industrial uses."

Mr. Bristow spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Ms. Haugen opposed it.

The amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the committee amendment as amended.

Mr. Cooper spoke in favor of the amendment as amended, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Cooper, the committee amendment to the title of the bill was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Haugen, Leonard and Ferguson spoke in favor of passage of the bill and Representatives Heavey and Taylor opposed it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5013 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 57; nays, 41.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Brekke, Brooks, Bumgarner, Cooper, Crane, Day, Doty, Ferguson, Gallagher, Haugen, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, King R, Leonard, Lewis, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Moyer, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Schmidt, Scott, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Waik, Walker, Wang, Williams J, Wilson S, Wineberry, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 57.

Voting nay: Representatives Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Braddock, Bristow, Brough, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Heavey, Jesernig, King P, Kremen, Locke, Nealey, Niemi, Padden, Patrick, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Spanel, Sprengle, Taylor, Valle, Vekich, Williams B, Wilson K, Winsley - 41.

Senate Bill No. 5013 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Representatives Beck and Wang were excused.

On page 5, beginning on line 36, strike all material down through line 19 on page 6 and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 47.10 RCW to read as follows:

In order to provide funds necessary for the location, design, right of way and construction of selected transportation improvements there shall be issued and sold a total of six hundred sixty-four million dollars of general obligation bonds of the state of Washington for the following purposes:

(1) Twenty-nine million dollars for the rural arterial program;

(2) One hundred thirty-three million dollars for transportation improvement projects as provided in section 13 of this act;

(3) One hundred thirty-three million dollars for major transportation improvements throughout the state that are identified as Category C improvements, and for selected major noninterstate construction and reconstruction projects that are included as Category A improvements, as set forth in RCW 47.05.030;

(4) Three hundred sixty-nine million dollars for local interest state transportation projects as proposed by the Washington state transportation commission and approved by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 47.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Bonds authorized in section 4(1) of this act shall be issued and sold upon the request of the county road administration board and the proceeds shall be deposited in the rural arterial trust account in the motor vehicle fund.

(2) Bonds authorized in section 4(2) of this act shall be issued and sold upon the request of the transportation improvement board and the proceeds shall be deposited in the transportation improvement account.

(3) Bonds authorized in section 4(3) of this act shall be issued and sold upon the request of the Washington state transportation commission and the proceeds shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund.

(4) Bonds authorized in section 4(4) of this act shall be issued and sold upon the request of the Washington state transportation commission and the proceeds shall be deposited in the local interest state transportation account in the motor vehicle fund, hereby created.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 47.10 RCW to read as follows:

Upon request being made by the respective agencies, the state finance committee shall supervise and provide for the issuance and sale of the bonds authorized in section 4 of this act in accordance with chapter 39.42 RCW. The amount of such bonds issued and sold in any biennium shall not exceed the amount of a specific appropriation therefor. Such bonds may be sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary for the orderly progress of the authorized construction projects.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 47.10 RCW to read as follows:

Bonds issued under section 4 of this act shall distinctly state that they are a general obligation of the state of Washington, shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay such principal and interest as the same shall become due. The principal of and interest on such bonds shall be first payable in the manner provided in section 9 of this act from the proceeds of the state excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels imposed by chapters 82.36, 82.37, and 82.38 RCW. Proceeds of such excise taxes are hereby pledged to the payment of any bonds and the interest thereon issued under section 4 of this act and the legislature hereby agrees to continue to impose these excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels in amounts sufficient to pay, when due, the principal and interest on all bonds issued under section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 47.10 RCW to read as follows:

Any funds required to repay the bonds authorized in section 4 of this act or the interest thereon when due shall be taken from that portion of the motor vehicle fund which results from the imposition of excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels pursuant to RCW 82.36.025(5) and shall never constitute a charge against any allocations of such funds to counties, cities, and towns unless the amount of the motor vehicle fund arising from the excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels and available for debt service purposes proves insufficient to meet the requirements for bond retirement or interest on any such bonds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 47.10 RCW to read as follows:

Both principal of and interest on the bonds authorized by section 4 of this act shall be payable from the transportation bond retirement fund, hereby created in the state treasury.

The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount required for principal and interest on such bonds in accordance with the provisions of the bond proceedings. The state treasurer shall withdraw from moneys deposited in the motor vehicle fund under RCW 82.36.025(5) and deposit in the transportation bond retirement fund, such amounts and at such times as are required by the bond proceedings.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 47.10 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever the percentage of the motor vehicle fund arising from excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels under RCW 82.36.025(5) shall prove more than is required for the payment of interest on bonds when due, or current retirement bonds, any excess may, in the discretion of the state finance committee, be available for the prior redemption of any bonds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 47.10 RCW to read as follows:

The bonds authorized in section 4 of this act constitute a legal investment for all state funds or for funds under state control and all funds of municipal corporations."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On page 8, line 7, after "fund," strike "created in section 4 of this act" and insert "hereby created in the motor vehicle fund"

Representatives S. Wilson, May and Schmidt spoke in favor of the amendments, and Representatives Walk and Patrick opposed them.

The amendments were not adopted.

Ms. Brough moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Brough and Betrozoff:

On page 6, after line 5, strike all material down through line 19 and insert the following:

"(1) Through June 30, 1993, two-thirds cent shall be deposited in the rural arterial trust account in the motor vehicle fund.

(2) Through June 30, 1993, one and two-thirds cents shall be deposited in the transportation improvement account hereby created in the motor vehicle fund.

(3) Through June 30, 1993, one and one-third cents shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund and shall be expended solely for highway purposes of the state, subject to the conditions imposed by chapter 47.05 RCW.

(4) One and one-third cents shall be deposited in the local interest state transportation account hereby created in the motor vehicle fund for local interest state transportation projects as proposed by the Washington state transportation commission and approved by the legislature."

Representatives Brough and Betrozoff spoke in favor of the amendment and Representatives Walk and Barnes opposed it.

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Baugher moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Baugher, Prince, Nealey, Jesernig, Grant, Chandler, Bristow, Dellwo, Fuhrman, Sayan and Basich:

On page 6, line 6, strike "one-third" and insert "two-thirds"

On page 6, line 15, strike "two-thirds" and insert "one-third"

On page 6, after line 19, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 49, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.79.050 are each amended to read as follows:

At the beginning of each fiscal biennium, the board shall establish apportionment percentages for the five regions defined in RCW 36.79.030 in the manner prescribed in RCW 36.79.040 for that biennium. The apportionment percentages shall be used once each calendar quarter by the board to apportion funds credited to the rural arterial trust account that are available for expenditure for rural major and minor collector projects. The funds so apportioned shall remain apportioned until expended on construction and improvement projects in accordance with rules of the board. Within each region, funds shall be allocated by the board to counties for the construction and improvement of specific rural arterial projects on major and minor collectors in accordance with the procedures set forth in this chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 6, chapter 49, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.79.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall:

(1) Adopt rules necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter relating to the allocation of funds in the rural arterial trust account to counties;

(2) Adopt reasonably uniform design standards for county major and minor collectors that meet the requirements for trucks transporting commodities;

(3) Report biennially on the first day of November of the even-numbered years to the legislative transportation committee and the house and senate transportation committees regarding the progress of counties in developing plans for their rural major and minor collector construction and improvement programs and the allocation of rural arterial trust funds to the counties.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 49, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.79.080 are each amended to read as follows:

In preparing their respective six-year programs relating to rural arterial (~~(improvements)~~) construction, counties shall select specific priority (~~(improvement)~~) construction projects for each functional class of arterial based on the rating of each arterial section proposed to be (~~(improved)~~) constructed in relation to other arterial sections within the same functional class, taking into account the following:

(1) Its structural ability to carry loads imposed upon it;

(2) Its capacity to move traffic at reasonable speeds;

(3) Its adequacy of alignment and related geometrics;

(4) Its accident experience; and

(5) Its fatal accident experience.

The six-year construction programs shall remain flexible and subject to annual revision as provided in RCW 36.81.121.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 36.79 RCW to read as follows:

One-half of the amount deposited in the rural arterial trust account in the motor vehicle fund under section 4(1) of this act shall be expended for the improvement of specific rural major and minor collectors identified by application of the state-wide county pavement management system in accordance with rules adopted by the board.

Sec. 9. Section 14, chapter 49, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 113, Laws of 1984 and RCW 36.79.140 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time the board reviews the six-year program of each county each even-numbered year, it shall consider and shall approve for inclusion in its recommended budget, as required by RCW 36.79.130, the portion of the rural arterial construction and improvement program scheduled to be performed during the biennial period beginning the following July 1st. Subject to the appropriations actually approved by the legislature, the board shall as soon as feasible approve rural arterial trust account funds to be spent during the ensuing biennium for preliminary proposals in priority sequence as established pursuant to RCW 36.79.090. Only those counties that during the preceding twelve months have spent all revenues collected for road purposes only for such purposes, including traffic law enforcement, as are allowed to the state by Article II, section 40 of the state Constitution are eligible to receive funds from the rural arterial trust account: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That counties of the seventh class are exempt from this eligibility restriction. The board shall authorize rural arterial trust account funds for the construction project portion of a project previously authorized for a preliminary proposal in the sequence in which the preliminary proposal has been completed and the construction project is to be placed under contract. At such time the board may reserve rural arterial trust account funds for expenditure in future years as may be necessary for completion of preliminary proposals and construction projects to be commenced in the ensuing biennium.

The board may, within the constraints of available rural arterial trust funds, consider additional projects for authorization upon a clear and conclusive showing by the submitting county that the proposed project is of an emergent nature and that its need was unable to be anticipated at the time the six-year program of the county was developed. The proposed projects shall be evaluated on the basis of the priority rating factors specified in RCW 36.79.080."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Mr. Baugher spoke in favor of the amendments, and Mr. Betrozoff opposed them.

The amendments were adopted.

Ms. Brough moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Brough and Betrozoff:

On page 8, after line 16, strike all material down through line 1, page 9 and insert the following:

"The amount available in the transportation improvement account for improvement projects shall be allocated to counties, to cities, and to transportation benefit districts, for county, city, and multi-agency arterial improvement projects.

To be eligible to receive these funds, a project must be (1) consistent with state, regional, and local transportation plans, (2) necessitated by existing or reasonably foreseeable congestion levels attributable to economic development or growth, and (3) partially funded by local government or private developer contributions, or a combination of such contributions.

Within one year after board approval of an application for funding, a county, city, or transportation benefit district shall provide written certification to the board of the pledged local and/or private funding. Funds allocated to an applicant which does not certify its funding within one year after approval may be reallocated by the board."

Ms. Brough spoke in favor of the amendment and Mr. Walk opposed it.

The amendment was not adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representatives Holland, Prince, Silver, May, Fuhrman, J. Williams, Chandler, Nealey, L. Smith, Hankins, Beck and Bumgarner:

On page 38, beginning on line 29 strike section 55 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. This act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification, or rejection, at the next succeeding general election to be held in this state, in accordance with Article II, section 1 of the state Constitution, as amended, and the laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Holland withdrew the amendment.

The following amendments to the title of the bill were adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "46.68.090," insert "36.79.050, 36.79.060, 36.79.080, 36.79.140."

On page 1, line 9 of the title, after "47.26.150;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 36.79 RCW;"

The bill was ordered engrossed. On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Walk, Sanders and Baugher spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives S. Wilson, Betrozoff and Amondson opposed it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Heavey asked Representative Walk to yield to question and he refused.

Ms. Schmidt spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Baugher spoke again in favor of it.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 6, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1049 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds the existing statutes that establish the criteria for determining when a person is guilty of driving a motor vehicle under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs are constitutional and do not require any additional criteria to ensure their legality. However, the legislature recognizes that there are circumstances, such as when a suspected drunken driver is unconscious or dead, when a direct determination of the alcoholic content of the person's blood is desirable to determine legal rights and responsibilities. The purpose of this act is to provide an additional method of defining the crime of driving while intoxicated. This act is not an acknowledgment that the existing breath alcohol standard is legally improper or invalid.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 153, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.61.502 are each amended to read as follows:

A person is guilty of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if ~~((he))~~ the person drives a vehicle within this state while:

(1) ~~((He))~~ The person has 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath, as shown by analysis of ~~((his))~~ the person's breath~~((-blood, or other bodily substance))~~ made under RCW 46.61.506 ~~((as now or hereafter amended))~~; or

(2) ~~((He))~~ The person has 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood as shown by analysis of the person's blood made under RCW 46.61.506; or

~~((3))~~ ~~((He))~~ (4) The person is under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug; or ~~((3))~~ ~~((He))~~ (4) The person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.

The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 176, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 153, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.61.504 are each amended to read as follows:

A person is guilty of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if ~~((he))~~ the person has actual physical control of a vehicle within this state while:

(1) ~~((He))~~ The person has 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath, as shown by analysis of ~~((his))~~ the person's breath~~((-blood, or other bodily substance))~~ made under RCW 46.61.506~~((as now or hereafter amended))~~; or

(2) ~~((He))~~ The person has 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood as shown by analysis of the person's blood made under RCW 46.61.506; or

~~((3))~~ ~~((He))~~ (4) The person is under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug; or ~~((3))~~ ~~((He))~~ (4) The person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.

The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section. No person may be convicted under this section if, prior to being pursued by a law enforcement officer, ~~((he))~~ the person has moved the vehicle safely off the roadway.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 1, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 4, chapter 153, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.61.506 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the trial of any civil or criminal action or proceeding arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person while driving or in actual physical control of a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, if the amount of alcohol in the person's blood or breath at the time alleged as shown by analysis of his blood~~((:))~~ or breath~~((;- or other bodily substance))~~ is less than 0.10 percent by weight of alcohol in his blood or 0.10 grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of the person's breath, it is evidence that may be considered with other competent evidence in determining whether the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug.

(2) The breath analysis shall be based upon grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath. The foregoing provisions of this section shall not be construed as limiting the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question whether the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug.

(3) Analysis of the person's blood or breath to be considered valid under the provisions of this section or RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 shall have been performed according to methods approved by the state toxicologist and by an individual possessing a valid permit issued by the state toxicologist for this purpose. The state toxicologist is directed to approve satisfactory techniques or methods, to supervise the examination of individuals to ascertain their qualifications and competence to conduct such analyses, and to issue permits which shall be subject to termination or revocation at the discretion of the state toxicologist.

(4) When a blood test is administered under the provisions of RCW 46.20.308, the withdrawal of blood for the purpose of determining its alcoholic content may be performed only by a physician, a registered nurse, or a qualified technician. This limitation shall not apply to the taking of breath specimens.

(5) The person tested may have a physician, or a qualified technician, chemist, registered nurse, or other qualified person of his own choosing administer one or more tests in addition to any administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer. The failure or inability to obtain an additional test by a person shall not preclude the admission of evidence relating to the test or tests taken at the direction of a law enforcement officer.

(6) Upon the request of the person who shall submit to a test or tests at the request of a law enforcement officer, full information concerning the test or tests shall be made available to him or his attorney.

Sec. 5. Section 27, chapter 165, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 2, chapter 64, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.61.517 are each amended to read as follows:

The refusal of a person to submit to a test of the alcoholic content of ~~((his))~~ the person's blood or breath under RCW 46.20.308 is admissible into evidence at a subsequent criminal trial.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 267, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 6, chapter 153, Laws of 1986 and RCW 88.02.095 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a vessel in a negligent manner, except a commercial vessel which has or is required to have a valid marine document as a vessel of the United States and is operating in the navigable waters of the United States. For the purpose of this section, to 'operate in a negligent manner' shall be construed to mean the operation of a vessel in such manner as to endanger or be likely to endanger any persons or property.

(2) A person is guilty of operating a vessel while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if the person operates a vessel within this state while:

(a) The person has 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath, as shown by analysis of the person's breath ~~((blood, or other bodily substance))~~ made under RCW 46.61.506; or

(b) The person has 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood, as shown by analysis of the person's blood made under RCW 46.61.506 ; or

(c) The person is under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug; or

~~((c))~~ (d) The person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.

The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section. A person cited under this subsection may upon request be given a breath test for ~~((blood))~~ breath alcohol or may request to have a blood sample taken for blood alcohol analysis. An arresting officer shall administer field sobriety tests when circumstances permit.

(3) For the purposes of this section, 'vessel' means any watercraft used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on the water.

(4) For the purpose of this section, 'vessel operator' means a person who is in actual physical control of a vessel.

(5) A violation of this section is a misdemeanor, punishable by up to ninety days in jail and by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars. In addition, the court may order the defendant to pay restitution for any damages or injuries resulting from the offense.

Sec. 7. Section 6, chapter 232, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 1, chapter 153, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.41.098 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The superior courts and the courts of limited jurisdiction of the state may order forfeiture of a firearm which is proven to be:

(a) Found concealed on a person not authorized by RCW 9.41.060 or 9.41.070 to carry a concealed pistol: PROVIDED, That it is an absolute defense to forfeiture if the person possessed a valid Washington concealed pistol license within the preceding two years and has not become ineligible for a concealed pistol license in the interim. Before the firearm may be returned, the person must pay the past due renewal fee and the current renewal fee;

(b) Commercially sold to any person without an application as required by RCW 9.41.090;

(c) Found in the possession or under the control of a person at the time the person committed or was arrested for committing a crime of violence or a crime in which a firearm was used or displayed or a felony violation of the uniform controlled substances act, chapter 69.50 RCW;

(d) Found concealed on a person who is in any place in which a concealed pistol license is required, and who is under the influence of any drug or under the influence of intoxicating liquor, having 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath or 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood, as shown by analysis of ~~((his))~~ the person's breath, blood, or other bodily substance;

(e) Found in the possession of a person prohibited from possessing the firearm under RCW 9.41.040;

(f) Found in the possession of a person free on bail or personal recognizance pending trial, appeal, or sentencing for a crime of violence or a crime in which a firearm was used or displayed, except that violations of Title 77 RCW shall not result in forfeiture under this section;

(g) Found in the possession of a person found to have been mentally incompetent while in possession of a firearm when apprehended or who is thereafter committed pursuant to chapter 10.77 or 71.05 RCW;

(h) Known to have been used or displayed by a person in the violation of a proper written order of a court of general jurisdiction; or

(i) Known to have been used in the commission of a crime of violence or a crime in which a firearm was used or displayed or a felony violation of the uniformed controlled substances act, chapter 69.50 RCW.

(2) Upon order of forfeiture, the court in its discretion shall order destruction of any firearm that is illegal for any person to possess, retention of the firearm as evidence, appropriate use by a law enforcement agency in the state, donation to a historical museum, or sale at a public auction to a commercial seller. The proceeds from any sale shall be divided as follows: The local jurisdiction shall retain its costs, including actual costs of storage and sale, and shall forward the remainder to the state game commission for use in its firearms training program pursuant to RCW 77.32.155. If the court orders delivery to a law enforcement agency and the agency no longer requires use of the firearm, the agency shall dispose of the firearm in a manner which is consistent with this subsection.

(4) A law enforcement officer of the state or of any county or municipality may confiscate a firearm found to be in the possession of a person under circumstances specified in subsection (1) of this section. After confiscation, the firearm shall not be surrendered except: (a) To the prosecuting attorney for use in subsequent legal proceedings; (b) for disposition according to an order of a court having jurisdiction as provided in subsection (1) of this section; or (c) to the owner if the proceedings are dismissed or as directed in subsection (3) of this section.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "content;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 46.61.502, 46.61.504, 46.61.506, 46.61.517, 88.02.095, and 9.41.098; and creating a new section."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 10, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 116 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 121, Laws of 1983 and RCW 58.17.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to:

(1) Cemeteries and other burial plots while used for that purpose;

(2) Divisions of land into lots or tracts each of which is one-one hundred twenty-eighth of a section of land or larger, or five acres or larger if the land is not capable of description as a fraction of a section of land, unless the governing authority of the city, town, or county in which the land is situated shall have adopted a subdivision ordinance requiring plat approval of such divisions: PROVIDED, That for purposes of computing the size of any lot under this item which borders on a street or road, the lot size shall be expanded to include that area which would be bounded by the center line of the road or street and the side lot lines of the lot running perpendicular to such center line;

(3) Divisions made by testamentary provisions, or the laws of descent;

(4) Divisions of land into lots or tracts classified for industrial or commercial use when the (~~governing body of the~~) city, town, or county has approved a binding site plan for the use of the land in accordance with local regulations (~~PROVIDED, That when a binding site plan authorizes a sale or other transfer of ownership of a lot, parcel, or tract, the binding site plan shall be filed for record in the county auditor's office on each lot, parcel, or tract created pursuant to the binding site plan; PROVIDED FURTHER, That the binding site plan and all of its requirements shall be legally enforceable on the purchaser or other person acquiring ownership of the lot, parcel, or tract; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That sale or transfer of such a lot, parcel, or tract in violation of the binding site plan, or without obtaining binding site plan approval, shall be considered a violation of chapter 58.17 RCW and shall be restrained by injunctive action and be illegal as provided in chapter 58.17 RCW~~);

(5) A division for the purpose of lease when no residential structure other than mobile homes or travel trailers are permitted to be placed upon the land when the (~~governing body of the~~) city, town, or county has approved a binding site plan for the use of the land in accordance with local regulations;

(6) A division made for the purpose of alteration by adjusting boundary lines, between platted or unplatted lots or both, which does not create any additional lot, tract, parcel, site, or division nor create any lot, tract, parcel, site, or division which contains insufficient area and dimension to meet minimum requirements for width and area for a building site; and

(7) A division which is made by subjecting a portion of a parcel or tract of land to chapter 64.32 RCW if a city, town, or county has approved a binding site plan for all of such land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 58.17 RCW to read as follows:

A city, town, or county may adopt by ordinance procedures for the divisions of land by use of a binding site plan as an alternative to the procedures required by this chapter. The ordinance shall be limited and only apply to one or more of the following: (1) The use of a binding site plan to divisions for sale or lease of commercially or industrially zoned property as provided in RCW 58.17.040(4); (2) divisions of property for lease as provided for in RCW 58.17.040(5); and (3) divisions of property as provided for in RCW 58.17.040(7). Such ordinance may apply the same or different requirements and procedures to each of the three types of divisions and shall provide for the alteration or vacation of the binding site plan, and may provide for the administrative approval of the binding site plan.

The ordinance shall provide that after approval of the general binding site plan for industrial or commercial divisions subject to a binding site plan, the approval for improvements and finalization of specific individual commercial or industrial lots shall be done by administrative approval.

The binding site plan, after approval, and/or when specific lots are administratively approved, shall be filed with the county auditor with a record of survey. Lots, parcels, or tracts created through the binding site plan procedure shall be legal lots of record. The number of lots, tracts, parcels, sites, or divisions shall not exceed the number of lots allowed by the local zoning ordinances.

All provisions, conditions, and requirements of the binding site plan shall be legally enforceable on the purchaser or any other person acquiring a lease or other ownership interest of any lot, parcel, or tract created pursuant to the binding site plan.

Any sale, transfer, or lease of any lot, tract, or parcel created pursuant to the binding site plan, that does not conform to the requirements of the binding site plan or without binding site plan approval, shall be considered a violation of chapter 58.17 RCW and shall be restrained by injunctive action and be illegal as provided in chapter 58.17 RCW.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 271, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 58.17.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative body of a city, town, or county shall adopt regulations and procedures, and appoint administrative personnel for the summary approval of short plats and short subdivisions, or revision thereof. Such regulations shall be adopted by ordinance and may contain wholly different requirements than those governing the approval of preliminary and final plats of subdivisions and may require surveys and monumentations and shall require filing of a short plat for record in the office of the county auditor: PROVIDED, That such regulations must contain a requirement that land in short subdivisions may not be further divided in any manner within a period of five years without the filing of a final plat: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such regulations are not required to contain a penalty clause as provided in RCW 36.32.120 and may provide for wholly injunctive relief.

Ordinances requiring surveys may permit short plat approval before commencement of the survey, contingent upon completion of the survey, prior to filing the short plat. If the survey reveals a discrepancy in boundary lines, the short plat shall not be given final approval until the discrepancy has been rectified and the title quieted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 58.17 RCW to read as follows:

No plat shall be approved by any city, town, or county where the survey required under RCW 58.17.060 or 58.17.160 reveals a discrepancy in boundary lines until the discrepancy has been rectified and the title has been quieted."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "plats;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 58.17.040 and 58.17.060; and adding new sections to chapter 58.17 RCW." and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 8, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 135 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 31, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 21, Laws of 1985 and RCW 27.26.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established the western library network, hereinafter called the network, which shall consist of the western library network computer system, telecommunications systems, interlibrary systems, and reference and referral systems.

Responsibility for the network shall reside with the Washington state library commission (~~except for certain automated data processing components as provided for and defined in chapter 43.105 RCW. PROVIDED: That all components, systems and programs operated pursuant to this section shall be approved by the data processing authority created pursuant to chapter 43.105 RCW~~). The commission shall adopt and promulgate policies, rules, and regulations consistent with the purposes and provisions of this chapter pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act, except that nothing in this chapter shall abrogate the authority of a participating library, institution, or organization to establish its own policies for collection development and use of its library resources.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 110, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 21, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.105.110 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a fund within the state treasury to be known as the 'western library network computer system revolving fund' referred to (~~in RCW 43.105.120 as 'fund'~~) as the 'fund'.

The fund shall be credited with all receipts from the rental, sale, or distribution of supplies, equipment, computer software, products, and services rendered to users and licensees of the western library network computer system. All gifts, grants, donations, and other moneys received by the network shall be deposited in the fund. All expenditures from the fund shall be authorized by law.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 110, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 21, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.105.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~data processing authority and the~~) state library commission shall develop (~~jointly~~) a schedule of user fees for users of the western library network computer system and a schedule of charges for the network's products and licenses for the purpose of distributing and apportioning to such users, buyers, and licensees the full cost of operation and continued development of data processing and data communication services related to the network. Such schedule shall generate sufficient revenue to cover the costs relating to the library network of:

(1) The acquisition of data processing and data communication services, supplies, and equipment handled or rented by the data processing authority or under its authority by any other state data processing service center designee;

(2) The payment of salaries, wages, and other costs including but not limited to the acquisition, operation, and administration of acquired data processing services, supplies, and equipment; and

(3) The promotion of network products and services.

As used in this section, the term 'supplies' shall not be interpreted to delegate or abrogate the state purchasing and material control director's responsibilities and authority to purchase supplies as provided for in chapter 43.19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 110, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess., section 3, chapter 21, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.105.100;

(2) Section 3, chapter 110, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess., section 5, chapter 21, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.105.120;

(3) Section 18, chapter 197, Laws of 1983, section 9, chapter 21, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.131.289; and

(4) Section 44, chapter 197, Laws of 1983, section 10, chapter 21, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.131.290.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The following sections are each recodified as new sections in chapter 27.26 RCW:

(1) RCW 43.105.110;

(2) RCW 43.105.130;

(3) RCW 43.105.140; and

(4) RCW 43.105.150.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect June 30, 1987."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "network;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 27.26.020, 43.105.110, and 43.105.130; recodifying RCW 43.105.110, 43.105.130, 43.105.140, and 43.105.150; repealing RCW 43.105.100, 43.105.120, 43.131.289, and 43.131.290; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

Mr. Padden moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 35, after line 24 insert:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 74.14A RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each local office of the division of children and family services, or its successor, within the department of social and health services shall establish an accountability board to review petitions regarding the decisions, conduct, or performance of the employees of the local office.

(2) Members of each accountability board shall be appointed by a committee consisting of:

(a) A member of the legislative authority of each county in the office's service area; and

(b) A member of the legislative authority of each city within the office's service area.

(3) The committee shall accept applications for membership on the accountability board from any persons who (a) are not employed by the division of children and family services or any other child care agency, and (b) have not had under the care, custody, or control of the divisions of children and family services within the previous two years any children of their own or other children entrusted to their care. In making appointments to the board, the committee shall consider the criminal history of the applicant, who shall consent to release of such information to the committee.

(4) Members of the board shall not serve in excess of one year unless other applicants are not available. The committee may dismiss a member of the board for good cause, including the improper release of any confidential information obtained in the course of the board's work.

(5) Each accountability board may adopt bylaws or rules governing its procedures consistent with this section and section 17 of this act. The department shall assign an employee to serve as a resource person for each board.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 74.14A RCW to read as follows:

(1) A board of accountability established under section 16 of this act shall review any petition alleging wrongdoing based on the decisions, performance, or conduct of a local employee of the division of children and family services if:

(a) The petition is brought by a parent whose child has been removed from the home by action of an employee of the division and the child is currently in an out-of-home placement. At the time the child is removed, the department shall directly notify the child's parents, orally or in writing, that a petition may be filed with the accountability board as provided in this section;

(b) The parent has first registered a written complaint with the area manager of the division office involved in the case. The area manager shall respond in writing to the complaint within twenty days. If the response is not satisfactory or timely, the parent may then petition the board.

(c) The parent states in the petition the names and ages of the children involved, the specific wrongdoing by the division employee, the desired action, and what steps the parent has taken to resolve the problem. A copy of the complaint to the area manager and response, if any, shall be attached to the petition.

(2) The board may provide forms for petitions but shall accept a petition in any form that substantially meets the requirements of this section. Following acceptance of the petition, the board may at its discretion, review any information in the file, and conduct interviews with the parents and division employees. All information reviewed by the board shall be confidential.

(3) The board shall respond in writing to the parent within forty-five days from the date a valid petition is filed. In its response, the board shall state whether or not it believes there was any wrongdoing based on the division employee's decisions, performance, or conduct. The board shall recommend what action, if any, is indicated, which may include returning the child to the parent or recommending a reprimand, suspension, termination, or further training of an employee. A copy of the board's response shall become part of the division's file on the case, one copy shall be sent to the court having jurisdiction on the case, and one copy shall be sent to the director of the division.

(4) The remedies provided by this section are cumulative and are in addition to any other remedies provided by law."

Representatives Padden, Moyer and Barnes spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Brekke, Leonard, Ebersole and H. Sommers opposed it.

Mr. Padden spoke again in favor.

On motion of Mr. Sayan, the following amendment by Representatives Sayan, Ballard, B. Williams, Braddock, Locke and Prince to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 8, after line 12 of the amendment, insert the following:

"Sec. 7. Section 12, chapter 168, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.24.086 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be the policy of the state of Washington that the cost of each professional, occupational or business licensing program be fully borne by the members of that profession, occupation or business. The director of licensing shall from time to time establish the amount of all application fees, license fees, registration fees, examination fees, permit fees, renewal fees, and any other fee associated with licensing or regulation of professions, occupations or businesses administered by the business and professions administration in the department of licensing. In fixing said fees, the director shall set the fees for each such program at a sufficient level to defray the costs of administering that program. All such fees shall be fixed by rule adopted by the director in accordance with the provisions of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, no fee for any profession with fewer than one hundred active licensees may be increased by more than one hundred dollars or fifty percent, whichever is greater, during any biennium."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the committee amendment as amended.

Representatives Braddock and Moyer spoke in favor of the amendment as amended, and it was adopted.

Absent: Representative Madsen - 1.

Ms. Belcher moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Belcher, Unsoeld, Madsen and Jacobsen to the committee amendment:

On page 4, after line 34, insert the following:

"Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 150, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 182, Laws of 1980 and RCW 41.04.340 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this section the term 'eligible employee' means any employee of the state, other than teaching and research faculty at the state and regional universities and The Evergreen State College, entitled to accumulate sick leave and for whom accurate sick leave records have been maintained: PROVIDED, That no employee may receive compensation under this section for any portion of sick leave accumulated at a rate in excess of one day per month.

An attendance incentive program is established for all eligible employees. In January of the year following any year in which a minimum of sixty days of sick leave is accrued, and each January thereafter, any eligible employee may receive remuneration for unused sick leave accumulated in the previous year at a rate equal to one day's monetary compensation of the employee for each ((four)) three full days of accrued sick leave in excess of sixty days. Sick leave for which compensation has been received shall be deducted from accrued sick leave at the rate of ((four)) three days for every one day's monetary compensation.

At the time of separation from state service due to retirement or death, an eligible employee or the employee's estate shall receive remuneration at a rate equal to one day's current monetary compensation of the employee for each ((four)) three full days of accrued sick leave: PROVIDED, That community college districts may delay until July 1, 1981, payment due any eligible employee or employee's estate: PROVIDED FURTHER, That there shall be added to any such delayed payment interest at the rate of eight percent per year.

Moneys received under this section shall not be included for the purpose of computing a retirement allowance under any public retirement system in this state.

This section shall be administered, and rules shall be promulgated to carry out its purposes, by the state personnel board and the higher education personnel board for persons subject to chapters 41.06 and 28B.16 RCW, respectively, and by their respective personnel authorities for other eligible employees: PROVIDED, That determination of classes of eligible employees shall be subject to approval by the office of financial management.

Should the legislature revoke any benefits granted under this section, no affected employee shall be entitled thereafter to receive such benefits as a matter of contractual right."

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Silver: Mr. Speaker, I request a ruling on the scope and object of this amendment.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Silver, the Speaker has examined both the Engrossed Senate Bill 5217 and the amendment offered by Representative Belcher and others. The bill deals with improving health among state employees and developing and administering a voluntary state employee wellness program. While the bill does reference briefly a more productive workforce, the amendment deals with the state employees' attendance incentive program. I find that the amendment is not germane to the original bill; it is outside the scope and object of the original bill. Your point is well taken, Representative Silver.

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

On motion of Ms. H. Sommers, the committee amendment to the title of the bill was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Brooks, H. Sommers, Ebersole, Hankins and Schoon spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5217 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 81; nays, 17.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Moyer, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 81.

Voting nay: Representatives Ballard, Barnes, Beck, Betzoff, Brooks, Brough, Bumgarner, Doty, Ferguson, Fuhrman, May, McLean, Padden, Schmidt, Smith L, Sommers D, Williams J - 17.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5217 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5801, by Committee on Commerce & Labor (originally sponsored by Senator Warnke)

Relating to industrial insurance.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Wang moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Wang, Patrick, R. King, Sprenkle, Allen, Fisch, Ebersole, Meyers, Winsley, Wineberry, Vekich, Sayan, Day, Dellwo, Cantwell, Hargrove, Lewis, L. Smith, Walker, Madsen, Jesernig, P. King and Lux to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5801:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the employment of fire fighters exposes them to smoke, fumes, and toxic or chemical substances. The legislature recognizes that fire fighters as a class have a higher rate of respiratory disease than the general public. The legislature therefore finds that respiratory disease should be presumed to be occupationally related for industrial insurance purposes for fire fighters.

The legislature also finds that fire fighters and law enforcement officers are required to respond to emergencies in a rapid manner to save lives, reduce property damage, and protect the public. As a result, these officers are often subject to extreme mental and physical stress and life-threatening circumstances during the course of their employment. The legislature therefore finds that the judicial doctrine requiring unusual exertion for compensation in heart attack injuries should be abrogated for these workers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) In the case of fire fighters as defined in RCW 41.26.030(4)(a), (b), and (c) who are covered under Title 51 RCW, there shall exist a prima facie presumption that respiratory disease is an occupational disease under RCW 51.08.140. This presumption of occupational disease may be rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence controverting the presumption. Controverting evidence may include, but is not limited to, use of tobacco products, physical fitness and weight, lifestyle, hereditary factors, and exposure from other employment or nonemployment activities.

(2) The presumption established in subsection (1) of this section shall be extended to an applicable member following termination of service for a period of three calendar months for each year of requisite service, but may not extend more than sixty months following the last date of employment.

(1) 'Injury' means a sudden and tangible happening, of a traumatic nature, producing an immediate or prompt result, and occurring from without, and such physical conditions as result therefrom.

(2) In the case of fire fighters as defined in RCW 41.26.030(4)(a), (b), and (c) who are covered under Title 51 RCW, and law enforcement officers as defined in RCW 41.26.030(3) who are covered under Title 51 RCW, for the purpose of heart attacks the definition of 'injury' shall be construed without regard to whether the member's exertion was usual or unusual.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 and 2 of this act are each added to chapter 51.32 RCW."

Ms. H. Sommers moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives H. Sommers, Heavey, Hine, Haugen, Ferguson and Sanders to the Wang amendment:

Strike the amendment and insert the following:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the employment of fire fighters exposes them to smoke, fumes, and toxic or chemical substances. The legislature recognizes that fire fighters as a class have a higher rate of respiratory disease than the general public. The legislature therefore finds that respiratory disease should be presumed to be occupationally related for industrial insurance purposes for fire fighters.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) In the case of fire fighters as defined in RCW 41.26.030(4)(a), (b), and (c) who are covered under Title 51 RCW and who have ten or more years of service, there shall exist a prima facie presumption that respiratory disease is an occupational disease under RCW 51.08.140. This presumption of occupational disease may be rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence controverting the presumption. Evidence of smoking tobacco products shall be given special consideration in favor of rebutting the presumption.

(2) The presumption established in subsection (1) of this section shall be extended to an applicable member following termination of service for a period of three calendar months for each year of requisite service, but may not extend more than sixty months following the last date of employment.

(3) For the purposes of this section only, the amount of permanent and temporary disability benefits payable under RCW 51.32.060 and 51.32.090 shall be reduced by the amount that the member, or former member, is receiving from a monthly retirement allowance, whether for service or disability retirement, as authorized under chapter 41.26 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Sections 1 and 2 of this act are each added to chapter 51.32 RCW.

Sec. 4. Section 51.32.060, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 5, chapter 58, Laws of 1986 and by section 1, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.060 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

When the supervisor of industrial insurance shall determine that permanent total disability results from the injury, the worker shall receive monthly during the period of such disability:

(1) If married at the time of injury, sixty-five percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifteen dollars per month.

(2) If married with one child at the time of injury, sixty-seven percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-two dollars per month.

(3) If married with two children at the time of injury, sixty-nine percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred eighty-three dollars.

- (4) If married with three children at the time of injury, seventy-one percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred six dollars per month.
- (5) If married with four children at the time of injury, seventy-three percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-nine dollars per month.
- (6) If married with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy-five percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred fifty-two dollars per month.
- (7) If unmarried at the time of the injury, sixty percent of his or her wages but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars per month.
- (8) If unmarried with one child at the time of injury, sixty-two percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars per month.
- (9) If unmarried with two children at the time of injury, sixty-four percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars per month.
- (10) If unmarried with three children at the time of injury, sixty-six percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars per month.
- (11) If unmarried with four children at the time of injury, sixty-eight percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars per month.
- (12) If unmarried with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars per month.
- (13) For any period of time where both husband and wife are entitled to compensation as temporarily or totally disabled workers, only that spouse having the higher wages of the two shall be entitled to claim their child or children for compensation purposes.
- (14) In case of permanent total disability, if the character of the injury is such as to render the worker so physically helpless as to require the hiring of the services of an attendant, the department shall make monthly payments to such attendant for such services as long as such requirement continues, but such payments shall not obtain or be operative while the worker is receiving care under or pursuant to the provisions of chapter 51.36 RCW and RCW 51.04.105.
- (15) Should any further accident result in the permanent total disability of an injured worker, he or she shall receive the pension to which he or she would be entitled, notwithstanding the payment of a lump sum for his or her prior injury.
- (16) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, except that this limitation shall not apply to the payments provided for in subsection (14) of this section.
- (17) In the case of new or reopened claims, if the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that, at the time of filing or reopening, the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.
- (18) The benefits provided by this section are subject to modification under RCW 51.32.067 and section 2 of this 1987 act.
- Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.090 are each amended to read as follows:
- (1) When the total disability is only temporary, the schedule of payments contained in subsections (1) through (13) of RCW 51.32.060 as amended shall apply, so long as the total disability continues.
- (2) Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured worker as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.
- (3) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the worker, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent. However, during the period a worker returns to light-duty work, receives disability leave supplement payments pursuant to RCW 41.04.500 through 41.04.530, and is otherwise eligible for compensation under this section, the worker shall continue to receive such compensation at the rate provided under RCW 51.32.060 (1) through (13).

or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the worker ceases such work.

Once the worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection, he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the worker's physician.

In the event of any dispute as to the worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

(5) No worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury; PROVIDED, That attempts to return to work in the first fourteen days following the injury shall not serve to break the continuity of the period of disability if the disability continues fourteen days after the injury occurs.

(6) Should a worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages. This limitation does not apply to disability leave supplement payments made pursuant to RCW 41.04.500 through 41.04.530.

(7) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018.

(8) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

(9) The benefits provided by this section are subject to modification under RCW 51.32.--- (section 2 of this 1987 act).

Sec. 6. Section 51.32.090, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and by section 5 of this 1987 act and RCW 51.32.090 are each reenacted to read as follows:

(1) When the total disability is only temporary, the schedule of payments contained in subdivisions (1) through (13) of RCW 51.32.060 as amended shall apply, so long as the total disability continues.

(2) Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured worker as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.

(4) Whenever an employer requests that a worker who is entitled to temporary total disability under this chapter be certified by a physician as able to perform available work other than his or her usual work, the employer shall furnish to the physician, with a copy to the worker, a statement describing the available work in terms that will enable the physician to relate the physical activities of the job to the worker's disability. The physician shall then determine whether the worker is physically able to perform the work described. If the worker is released by his or her physician for said work, and the work thereafter comes to an end before the worker's recovery is sufficient in the judgment of his or her physician to permit him or her to return to his or her usual job, or to perform other available work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed. Should the available work described, once undertaken by the worker, impede his or her recovery to the extent that in the judgment of his or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the worker ceases such work.

Once the worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection, he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the worker's physician.

In the event of any dispute as to the worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

(5) No worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury; PROVIDED, That attempts to return to work in the first fourteen days following the injury shall not serve to break the continuity of the period of disability if the disability continues fourteen days after the injury occurs.

(6) Should a worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages.

(7) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018.

(8) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

(9) The benefits provided by this section are subject to modification under RCW 51.32.--- (section 2 of this 1987 act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Section 6 of this act shall take effect on June 30, 1989."

Representatives H. Sommers, Ferguson, Haugen and Heavey spoke in favor of the amendment to the Wang amendment, and Representatives Wang, Patrick, Sayan and R. King opposed it.

The amendment to the Wang amendment was not adopted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 10, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 902 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 31, Laws of 1935 and RCW 41.08.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The classified civil service and provisions of this chapter shall include all full paid employees of the fire department of each city, town or municipality coming within its purview, ~~((including the chief of that department))~~ except that individuals appointed as fire chief after July 1, 1987, may be excluded by the legislative body of the city, town, or municipality. All appointments to and promotions in said department shall be made solely on merit, efficiency and fitness, which shall be ascertained by open competitive examination and impartial investigation. No person shall be reinstated in, or transferred, suspended or discharged from any such place, position or employment contrary to the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 13, Laws of 1937 and RCW 41.12.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The classified civil service and provisions of this chapter shall include all full paid employees of the police department of each city, town or municipality coming within its purview, ~~((including the chief of that department))~~ except that individuals appointed as police chief after July 1, 1987, to a department with six or more commissioned officers, including the police chief, may be excluded by the legislative body of the city, town or municipality. All appointments to and promotions in said department shall be made solely on merit, efficiency and fitness, which shall be ascertained by open competitive examination and impartial investigation. No person shall be reinstated in or transferred, suspended or discharged from any such place, position or employment contrary to the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The intent of sections 4 through 6 and 8 through 10 of this act is to require certain qualifications for candidates for the office of chief of police; chief law enforcement officer; marshal; director of public safety, who in part oversees law enforcement personnel or activities; or constable.

The legislature finds that over the past century the field of law enforcement has become increasingly complex and many new techniques and resources have evolved both socially and technically. In addition the ever-changing requirements of law, both constitutional and statutory provisions protecting the individual and imposing responsibilities and legal liabilities of law enforcement officers and the government of which they represent, require an increased level of training and experience in the field of law enforcement.

The legislature, therefore finds that minimum requirements are reasonable and necessary to seek and hold the offices or office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable and that such requirements are in the public interest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A person seeking appointment to the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, is ineligible unless that person:

- (a) Is a citizen of the United States of America;
 - (b) Has obtained a high school diploma or general equivalency diploma;
 - (c) Has not been convicted under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States of a felony;
 - (d) Has not been convicted of a gross misdemeanor or any crime involving moral turpitude within five years of the date of application;
 - (e) Has received at least a general discharge under honorable conditions from any branch of the armed services for any military service, if the person was in the military service;
 - (f) Has completed at least two years of regular, uninterrupted, full-time commissioned law enforcement employment involving enforcement responsibilities with a government law enforcement agency; and
 - (g) The person has been certified as a regular and commissioned enforcement officer through compliance with this state's basic training requirement or equivalency.
- (2) A person seeking appointment to the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, shall provide a sworn statement under penalty of perjury to the appointing authority stating that the person meets the requirements of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Before making an appointment in the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, the appointing agency shall complete a thorough background investigation of the candidate according to standards set by the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In the case of a vacancy in the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, all requirements and procedures of sections 4 and 5 of this act shall be followed in filling the vacancy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 4 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 35.21 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) A person seeking appointment to the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, is ineligible unless that person:

- (a) Is a citizen of the United States of America;
- (b) Has obtained a high school diploma or general equivalency diploma;

(c) Has not been convicted under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States of a felony;

(d) Has not been convicted of a gross misdemeanor or any crime involving moral turpitude within five years of the date of application;

(e) Has received at least a general discharge under honorable conditions from any branch of the armed services for any military service, if the person was in the military service;

(f) Has completed at least two years of regular, uninterrupted, full-time commissioned law enforcement employment involving enforcement responsibilities with a government law enforcement agency; and

(g) The person has been certified as a regular and commissioned enforcement officer through compliance with this state's basic training requirement or equivalency.

(2) A person seeking appointment to the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, shall provide a sworn statement under penalty of perjury to the appointing authority stating that the person meets the requirements of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Before making an appointment in the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, the appointing agency shall complete a thorough background investigation of the candidate according to standards set by the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In the case of a vacancy in the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, all requirements and procedures of sections 8 and 9 of this act shall be followed in filling the vacancy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 8 through 10 of this act are each added to chapter 35A.21 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1987."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "towns;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 41.08.050 and 41.12.050; adding new sections to chapter 35.21 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 35A.21 RCW; creating a new section; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 7, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 707 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 40, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.220.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Program goals of the Washington conservation corps include:

(1) Conservation, rehabilitation, and enhancement of the state's natural, historic, environmental, and recreational resources with emphasis given to projects which address the following state-wide priorities:

(a) Timber, fish and wildlife management plan;

(b) Watershed management plan;

(c) 1989 centennial celebration and tourism;

(d) Puget Sound water quality;

(e) United States-Canada fisheries treaty;

(f) Public access to and environmental education about natural resources through recreational facilities;

(g) Recreational trails;

(2) Development of the state's youth resources through meaningful work experiences;

(3) Making outdoor and historic resources of the state available for public enjoyment;

(4) Teaching of the workings of natural, environmental, and biological systems, as well as basic employment skills;

(5) Assisting agencies in carrying out statutory assignments with limited funding resources; and

(6) Providing needed public services in both urban and rural settings.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 40, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.220.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Public lands' means any lands or waters, or interests therein, owned or administered by any agency or instrumentality of the state, federal, or local government.

(2) 'Corps' means the Washington conservation corps.

(3) 'Corps member' means an individual enrolled in the Washington conservation corps.

(4) 'Corps member leaders' or 'specialists' means members of the corps who serve in leadership or training capacities or who provide specialized services other than or in addition to the types of work and services that are performed by the corps members in general.

(5) 'Council' means the Washington conservation corps coordinating council.

Sec. 3. Section 20, chapter 40, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.220.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The agencies listed in RCW 43.220.020 shall convene a conservation corps coordinating council to meet as needed (~~on the call of the employment security department~~) to establish consistent work standards and placement and evaluation procedures of corps programs. The coordinating council shall be composed of administrative personnel of the (~~implementing~~) agencies. The coordinating council shall serve to reconcile problems that arise in the implementation of the corps programs and develop coordination procedures for emergency responses of corps members.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 230, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.220.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~department of employment security~~) Washington conservation corps coordinating council shall select, review, approve, and evaluate the success of projects (~~and work agreements~~) under this chapter (~~and chapter 50.65 RCW. The Washington conservation corps coordinating council, as created by RCW 43.220.190 shall recommend work projects to the employment security department for approval~~).

Recruitment, job training and placement services shall, wherever possible, be contracted through local educational institutions and/or nonprofit corporations.

Such contracts may include, but not be limited to, general education development testing, preparation of resumes and job search skills.

All contracts or agreements entered into by agencies listed in RCW 43.220.020 shall be reviewed by the council for compliance with legislative intent as set forth in this section.

Sec. 5. Section 22, chapter 40, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.220.900 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington conservation corps shall cease to exist and chapter 43.220 RCW shall expire on July 1, (~~1987~~) 1995, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "corps;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.220.030, 43.220.040, 43.220.190, 43.220.210, and 43.220.900; and declaring an emergency."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker (Mr. Appelwick presiding) appointed Representatives Vekich, Cantwell and Schoon as conferees on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 743.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 8, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 353 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 15.04.040, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 11, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 15.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Inspectors-at-large shall pass such an examination by the director as will satisfy him they are qualified in knowledge and experience to carry on the work in the districts to which they are assigned. They shall be assigned to a horticultural inspection district and may be transferred from one district to another. Their salaries and travel expenses, as shown by vouchers verified by them and countersigned by the director, shall be paid by warrants drawn upon the state treasurer, horticultural inspection district funds, the horticultural inspection trust fund, or from county appropriations(~~(- PROVIDED: That, not less than twenty-five percent of their total salary shall be paid by warrants drawn upon the state treasurer. Such travel expenses shall be reimbursed in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended).~~).

Sec. 2. Section 15.04.100, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 203, Laws of 1986 and RCW 15.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall establish a horticulture inspection trust fund to be derived from horticulture inspection district funds. The director shall adjust district payments so that the balance in the trust fund shall not exceed three hundred thousand dollars. The director is authorized to make payments from the trust fund to:

(1) Pay fees and expenses provided in the inspection agreement between the state department of agriculture and the agricultural marketing service of the United States department of agriculture;

(2) (~~Pay portions of salaries of inspectors-at-large as provided under RCW 15.04.040;~~

(3)) Assist horticulture inspection districts in temporary financial distress as result of less than normal production of horticultural commodities: PROVIDED, That districts receiving such assistance shall make repayment to the trust fund as district funds shall permit:

((4)) (3) Pay necessary administrative expenses for the commodity inspection division attributable to the supervision of the horticulture inspection services.

Sec. 3. Section 15.24.070, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 203, Laws of 1986 and RCW 15.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington state apple advertising commission is hereby declared and created a corporate body. The powers and duties of the commission shall include the following:

(2) To administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter, and do all things reasonably necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter;

(3) To employ and at its pleasure discharge a manager, secretary, agents, attorneys, and employees as it deems necessary, and to prescribe their duties and powers and fix their compensation;

(4) To establish offices and incur expense and enter into contracts and to create such liabilities as may be reasonable for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter;

(5) To investigate and prosecute violations hereof;

(6) To conduct scientific research to develop and discover the health, food, therapeutic, and dietetic value of apples and products thereof;

(7) To keep accurate record of all of its dealings, which shall be open to inspection and audit by the state auditor;

(8) To sue and be sued, adopt a corporate seal, and have all of the powers of a corporation; ((and))

(9) To expend funds for commodity-related education, training, and leadership programs as the commission deems expedient; and

(10) To borrow money and incur indebtedness.

Sec. 4. Section 15.24.190, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.24.190 are each amended to read as follows:

((The state shall not be liable for the acts of the commission or on its contracts. No member of the commission or any employee or agent thereof shall be liable on its contracts. All liabilities incurred by the commission shall be payable only from the funds collected hereunder.)) Obligations incurred by the commission and any other liabilities or claims against the commission shall be enforced only against the assets of the commission, and no liability for the debts or actions of the commission exists against either the state of Washington or any subdivision or instrumentality thereof, or against any member, employee, or agent of the commission in his or her individual capacity. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, neither the members of the commission nor its employees may be held individually responsible for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as principal, agent, person, or employee, save for their own individual acts of dishonesty or crime. No such person or employee may be held responsible individually for any act or omission of any other member of the commission. The liability of the members of the commission shall be several and not joint, and no member is liable for the default of any other member.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 256, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 261, Laws of 1985 and RCW 15.65.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall publish notice of any hearing called for the purpose of considering and acting upon any proposal for a period of not less than two days in ((a newspaper of general circulation in Olympia and such other)) one or more newspapers of general circulation as the director may prescribe. No such public hearing shall be held prior to five days after the last day of such period of publication. Such notice shall set forth the date, time and place of said hearing, the agricultural commodity and the area covered by such proposal; a concise statement of the proposal; a concise statement of each additional subject upon which the director will hear evidence and make a determination, and a statement that, and the address where, copies of the proposal may be obtained. The director shall also mail a copy of such notice to all producers and handlers within the affected area who may be directly affected by such proposal and whose names and addresses appear, on the day next preceding the day on which such notice is published, upon lists of such persons then on file in the department.

Sec. 6. Section 17, chapter 256, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.65.170 are each amended to read as follows:

If the director determines that the requisite assent has been given he shall issue and put any order or amendment thereto into force, whereupon each and every provision thereof shall have the force of law. Issuance shall be accomplished by publication of a notice for one day in a newspaper of general circulation ((in Olympia and)) in the affected area ((of)). The notice ((stating)) shall state that the order has been issued and put into force and where copies of such order may be obtained. If the director determines that the requisite assent has not been given no further action shall be taken by the director upon the proposal, and the order contained in the final decision shall be without force or effect.

Sec. 7. Section 25, chapter 256, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 9, chapter 261, Laws of 1985 and RCW 15.65.250 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of nominating candidates to be voted upon for election to such board memberships, the director shall call separate meetings of the affected producers and handlers within the affected area and in case elections shall be by districts he shall call separate meetings for each district. However, at the inception any marketing agreement or order nominations may be at the issuance hearing. Nomination meetings shall be called annually and at least thirty days in advance of the date set for the election of board members. Notice of every such meeting shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the affected area defined in the order or agreement not less than ten days in advance of the date of such meeting and in addition, written notice of every such meeting shall be given to all affected producers and/or handlers according to the list thereof maintained by the director pursuant to RCW 15.65.200. However, if the agreement or order provides for election by districts such written notice need be given only to the producers or handlers residing in or whose principal place of business is within such district. Nonreceipt of notice by any interested person shall not invalidate proceedings at such meetings. Any qualified person may be nominated orally for membership upon such board at the said meetings. Nominations may also be made within five days after any such meeting by written petition filed with the director signed by not less than five producers or handlers, as the case may be, entitled to have participated in said meeting.

If the board moves and the director approves that the nomination meeting procedure be deleted, the director shall give notice of the vacancy by mail to all affected producers or handlers. The notice shall call for nominations in accordance with the marketing order and shall give the final date for filing nominations which shall not be less than twenty days after the notice was mailed.

When only one nominee is nominated for any position on the board the director shall deem that said nominee satisfies the requirements of the position and then it shall be deemed that said nominee has been duly elected.

Sec. 8. Section 47, chapter 256, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.65.470 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The marketing act revolving fund shall be deposited in such banks and financial institutions as))~~ The director or his or her designee ~~((may select throughout the state which shall give to the director or his designee surety bonds executed by surety companies authorized to do business in the state, or collateral eligible as security for deposit of state funds, in at least the full amount of the deposit in each such bank or financial institution))~~ shall designate financial institutions which are qualified public depositories under chapter 39.58 RCW as depository or depositories of money received for the marketing act revolving fund. All moneys received by the director or his or her designee or by any administrator, board or employee, except an amount of petty cash for each day's needs as fixed by the regulations, shall be deposited each day ~~((and as often during the day as advisable))~~ in ~~((the authorized depository))~~ a designated depository.

Sec. 9. Section 39, chapter 256, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 13, chapter 261, Laws of 1985 and RCW 15.65.390 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby levied, and the director or his designee shall collect, upon each and every affected unit of any agricultural commodity specified in any marketing agreement or order an annual assessment which shall be paid by the producer thereof upon each and every such affected unit stored in frozen condition or sold or marketed or delivered for sale or marketed by him, and which shall be paid by the handler thereof upon each and every such unit purchased or received for sale, processing or distribution, or stored in frozen condition, by him: PROVIDED, That such assessment shall be paid by producers only, if only producers are regulated by such agreement or order, and by handlers only, if only handlers are so regulated, and by both producers and handlers if both are so regulated. Such assessments shall be expressed as a stated amount of money per unit or as a percentage of the receipt price at the first point of sale. The total amount of such annual assessment to be paid by all producers of such commodity, or by all handlers of such commodity shall not exceed four percent of the total market value of all affected units stored in frozen condition or sold or marketed or delivered for sale or marketing by all producers of such units during the year to which the assessment applies. ~~((However, the total amount of such annual assessment upon producers, or handlers, or both producers and handlers, of the below listed commodities shall not exceed the amounts per unit or the percentage of selling price stated after the names of the respective commodities below:~~

~~((1) Wheat, maximum, one-quarter cent per bushel;))~~

Sec. 10. Section 40, chapter 256, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.65.400 are each amended to read as follows:

In every marketing agreement and order the director shall prescribe the ~~((per unit))~~ rate of such assessment ~~((and))~~. Such assessment shall be expressed as a stated amount of money per unit or as a percentage of the receipt price at the first point of sale. Such rate may be at the full amount of, or at any lesser amount than the amount hereinabove limited. Such rate may be altered or amended from time to time, but only upon compliance with the procedural requirements of this chapter. In every such marketing agreement, order and amendment the director shall base his determination of such rate upon the volume and price of sales of affected units (or units which would have been affected units had the agreement or order been in effect) during a period which the director determines to be a representative period. The ~~((per unit))~~ rate of assessment prescribed in any such agreement, order or amendment shall for all purposes and times be deemed to be within the limits of assessment above provided until such time as such agreement or order is amended as to such rate.

Sec. 11. Section 11, chapter 133, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 2, chapter 190, Laws of 1986 and RCW 16.67.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, there is hereby levied an assessment of fifty cents per head on all Washington cattle sold in this state or elsewhere to be paid by the seller at the time of sale: PROVIDED, That if the assessment levied pursuant to this section is greater than one percent of the sales price, the animal is exempt from the assessment unless the federal order implementing the national beef promotion and research program establishes an assessment on these animals: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such sale is accompanied by a brand inspection by the department such assessment shall be collected at the same time, place and in the same manner as brand inspection fees. Such fees shall be collected by the livestock services division of the department and transmitted to the commission: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, if such sale is made without a brand inspection by the department the assessment shall be paid by the seller and transmitted directly to the commission not later than thirty days following the sale.

(2) While the federal order implementing the national beef promotion and research program is in effect, the assessment to be levied and the procedures for its collection shall be as required by the federal order and as described by rules adopted by the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 15.86 RCW to read as follows:

The director may adopt rules establishing a certification program for producers of organic food. The rules may govern, but are not limited to governing: The number and scheduling of on-farm visits, both announced and unannounced, by certification personnel; recordkeeping requirements; and the submission of product samples for chemical analysis. The rules shall include a fee schedule that will provide for the recovery of the full cost of the certification program. Fees collected under this section shall be deposited in an account within the agricultural local fund and the revenue from such fees shall be used solely for carrying out the provisions of this section, and no appropriation is required for disbursement from the fund. The director may employ such personnel as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

Sec. 13. Section 4, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 3, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 20.01.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No person may act as a commission merchant, dealer, broker, cash buyer, agent, or boom loader without a license. Any person applying for such a license shall file an application with the director on or before January 1st of each year. The application shall be accompanied by ~~((the following license fee:~~

~~(1) Commission merchant, one hundred forty-five dollars;~~

~~(2) Dealer, one hundred forty-five dollars;~~

~~(3) Limited dealer, one hundred dollars;~~

~~(4) Broker, one hundred dollars;~~

~~(5) Cash buyer, forty dollars;~~

~~(6) Agent, fifteen dollars;~~

~~(7) Boom loader, ten dollars)) a license fee as prescribed by the director by rule.~~

Sec. 14. Section 27, chapter 297, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.23.200 are each amended to read as follows:

~~The ((dean of the college of fisheries of the University of Washington and the dean's appointed laboratory director)) chief chemist of the department of agriculture dairy and food laboratory and the chief chemist of the department of agriculture ((chemistry)) chemical and hop laboratory shall be the official chemists of the department of agriculture. Official chemists of the department shall provide laboratory services and analyze all substances that the director of agriculture may send to them and report to the director without unnecessary delay the results of any analysis so made. When called upon by the director, they or any of the additional chemists provided for pursuant to RCW 43.23.205 shall assist in any prosecution for the violation of any law enforced by the department. ((The dean of the college of fisheries of the University of Washington and the dean's appointed laboratory director shall provide such laboratory services without additional compensation other than their expenses incurred in the performance of such work.))~~

Sec. 15. Section 9-307, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 412, Laws of 1985 and RCW 62A.9-307 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A buyer in ordinary course of business (subsection (9) of RCW 62A.1-201) other than a person buying farm products from a person engaged in farming operations takes free of a security interest created by his seller even though the security interest is perfected and even though the buyer knows of its existence.

(2) In the case of consumer goods, a buyer takes free of a security interest even though perfected if he buys without knowledge of the security interest, for value and for his own personal, family or household purposes unless prior to the purchase the secured party has filed a financing statement covering such goods.

(3) A buyer other than a buyer in ordinary course of business (subsection (1) of this section) takes free of a security interest to the extent that it secures future advances made after the secured party acquires knowledge of the purchase, unless made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the purchase.

~~((4) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, any person registered under the Federal Packers and Stockyard Act, 7 U.S.C. 181, who sells livestock for another for a fee or commission or who purchases livestock or livestock byproducts with the intent to resell takes free of a security interest created by the seller, even though the security interest is perfected, when such person is without knowledge of the security interest. For the purposes of this subsection, a person has knowledge if:~~

~~(a) Notice is furnished by the seller as provided in RCW 16.57.240; or~~

~~(b) A statement of the security interest is filed pursuant to chapter 16.59 RCW.))~~

Sec. 16. Section 28, chapter 201, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 69.25.270 are each amended to read as follows:

Every egg handler or dealer who pays assessments required under the provisions of this chapter on a monthly basis in lieu of seals shall be subject to audit by the director ~~((on an annual basis or more frequently if necessary))~~ at such frequency as is deemed necessary by the director. The cost to the director for performing such audit shall be chargeable to and payable by the egg handler or dealer subject to audit. Failure to pay assessments when due or refusal to pay for audit costs may be cause for a summary suspension of an egg handler's or dealer's license and a charge of one percent per month, or fraction thereof shall be added to the sum due the director, for each remittance not received by the director when due. The conditions and charges applicable to egg handlers and dealers set forth herein shall also be applicable to payments due the director for facsimiles of seals placed on egg containers.

Sec. 17. Section 4, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 20, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Application for a license to operate a warehouse under the provisions of this chapter shall be on a form prescribed by the department and shall include:

(1) The full name of the person applying for the license and whether the applicant is an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other entity;

(2) The full name of each member of the firm or partnership, or the names of the officers of the company, society, cooperative association, or corporation;

(3) The principal business address of the applicant in the state and elsewhere;

(4) The name or names of the person or persons authorized to receive and accept service of summons and legal notices of all kinds for the applicant;

(5) Whether the applicant has also applied for or has been issued a grain dealer license under the provisions of this chapter;

(6) The location of each warehouse the applicant intends to operate and the location of the headquarters or main office of the applicant;

(7) The bushel storage capacity of each such warehouse to be licensed;

(8) The schedule of fees to be charged at each warehouse for the handling, conditioning, storage, and shipment of all commodities during the licensing period;

(9) A financial statement to determine the net worth of the applicant to determine whether or not the applicant meets the minimum net worth requirements established by the director pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. All financial statement information required by this subsection shall be confidential information not subject to public disclosure;

(10) Whether the application is for a terminal, subterminal, or country warehouse license;

(11) Whether the applicant has previously been denied a grain dealer or warehouseman license or whether the applicant has had either license suspended or revoked by the department;

(12) Any other reasonable information the department finds necessary to carry out the purpose and provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 18. Section 21, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.045 are each amended to read as follows:

Application for a license to operate as a grain dealer under the provisions of this chapter shall be on a form prescribed by the department and shall include:

(1) The full name of the person applying for the license and whether the applicant is an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other entity;

(2) The full name of each member of the firm or partnership, or the names of the officers of the company, society, cooperative association, or corporation;

(3) The principal business address of the applicant in the state and elsewhere;

(4) The name or names of the person or persons in this state authorized to receive and accept service of summons and legal notices of all kinds for the applicant;

(5) Whether the applicant has also applied for or has been issued a warehouse license under this chapter;

(6) The location of each business location from which the applicant intends to operate as a grain dealer in the state of Washington whether or not the business location is physically within the state of Washington, and the location of the headquarters or main office of the application;

(7) A financial statement to determine the net worth of the applicant to determine whether or not the applicant meets the minimum net worth requirements established by the director under chapter 34.04 RCW. However, if the applicant is a subsidiary of a larger company, corporation, society, or cooperative association, both the parent company and the subsidiary company must submit a financial statement to determine whether or not the applicant meets the minimum net worth requirements established by the director under chapter 34.04 RCW. All financial statement information required by this subsection shall be confidential information not subject to public disclosure;

(8) Whether the applicant has previously been denied a grain dealer or warehouseman license or whether the applicant has had either license suspended or revoked by the department;

(9) Any other reasonable information the department finds necessary to carry out the purpose and provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 19. Section 16, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.011 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Department' means the department of agriculture of the state of Washington.

(2) 'Director' means the director of the department or his duly authorized representative.

(3) 'Person' means a natural person, individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, society, association, cooperative, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any unit or agency of local, state, or federal government.

(4) 'Agricultural commodities,' hereinafter referred to as 'commodities,' means, but is not limited to, all the grains, peas, beans, lentils, corn, sorghums, malt, peanuts, flax, and other similar agricultural products.

(5) 'Warehouse,' also referred to as a public warehouse, means any elevator, mill, subterminal grain warehouse, terminal warehouse, country warehouse, or other structure or enclosure located in this state that is used or useable for the storage of agricultural products, and in which commodities are received from the public for storage, handling, conditioning, or shipment for compensation. The term does not include any warehouse storing or handling fresh fruits and/or vegetables, any warehouse used exclusively for cold storage, or any warehouse that conditions yearly less than three hundred tons of an agricultural commodity for compensation.

(6) 'Terminal warehouse' means any warehouse designated as a terminal by the department, and located at an inspection point where inspection facilities are maintained by the department and where commodities are ordinarily received and shipped by common carrier.

(7) 'Subterminal warehouse' means any warehouse that performs an intermediate function in which agricultural commodities are customarily received from dealers rather than producers and where the commodities are accumulated before shipment to a terminal warehouse.

(8) 'Station' means two or more warehouses between which commodities are commonly transferred in the ordinary course of business and that are (a) immediately adjacent to each other, or (b) located within the corporate limits of any city or town and subject to the same transportation tariff zone, or (c) at any railroad siding or switching area and subject to the same transportation tariff zone, or (d) at one location in the open country off rail, or (e) in any area that can be reasonably audited by the department as a station under this chapter and that has been established as such by the director by rule adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW, or (f) within twenty miles of each other but separated by the border between Washington and Idaho or Oregon when the books and records for the station are maintained at the warehouse located in Washington.

(9) 'Inspection point' means a city, town, or other place wherein the department maintains inspection and weighing facilities.

(10) 'Warehouseman' means any person owning, operating, or controlling a warehouse in the state of Washington.

(11) 'Depositor' means (a) any person who deposits a commodity with a Washington state licensed warehouseman for storage, handling, conditioning, or shipment, or (b) any person who is the owner or legal holder of a warehouse receipt, outstanding scale weight ticket, or other evidence of the deposit of a commodity with a Washington state licensed warehouseman or (c) any producer whose agricultural commodity has been sold to a grain dealer through the dealer's place of business located in the state of Washington, or any Washington producer whose agricultural commodity has been sold to or is under the control of a grain dealer.

((which dealer has negotiated the sale of the commodity or has control of the commodity in the)) whose place of business is located outside the state of Washington.

(12) 'Historical depositor' means any person who in the normal course of business operations has consistently made deposits in the same warehouse of commodities produced on the same land. In addition the purchaser, lessee, and/or inheritor of such land from the original historical depositor with reference to the land shall be considered a historical depositor with regard to the commodities produced on the land.

(13) 'Grain dealer' means any person who, through his place of business located in the state of Washington, solicits, contracts for, or obtains from a producer, title, possession, or control of any agricultural commodity for purposes of resale, or any person who solicits, contracts for, or obtains from a Washington producer, title, possession, or control of any agricultural commodity for purposes of resale.

(14) 'Producer' means any person who is the owner, tenant, or operator of land who has an interest in and is entitled to receive all or any part of the proceeds from the sale of a commodity produced on that land.

(15) 'Warehouse receipt' means a negotiable or nonnegotiable warehouse receipt as provided for in Article 7 of Title 62A RCW.

(16) 'Scale weight ticket' means a load slip or other evidence of deposit, serially numbered, not including warehouse receipts as defined in subsection (15) of this section, given a depositor on request upon initial delivery of the commodity to the warehouse and showing the warehouse's name and state number, type of commodity, weight thereof, name of depositor, and the date delivered.

(17) 'Put through' means agricultural commodities that are deposited in a warehouse for receiving, handling, conditioning, or shipping, and on which the depositor has concluded satisfactory arrangements with the warehouseman for the immediate or impending shipment of the commodity.

(18) 'Conditioning' means, but is not limited to, the drying or cleaning of agricultural commodities.

(19) 'Deferred price contract' means a contract for the sale of commodities that conveys the title and all rights of ownership to the commodities represented by the contract to the buyer, but allows the seller to set the price of the commodities at a later date based on an agreed upon relationship to a future month's price or some other mutually agreeable method of price determination. Deferred price contracts include but are not limited to those contracts commonly referred to as delayed price, price later contracts, or open price contracts.

(20) 'Shortage' means that a warehouseman does not have in his possession sufficient commodities at each of his stations to cover the outstanding warehouse receipts, scale weight tickets, or other evidence of storage liability issued or assumed by him for the station.

(21) 'Failure' means:

(a) An inability to financially satisfy claimants in accordance with this chapter and the time limits provided for in it;

(b) A public declaration of insolvency;

(c) A revocation of license and the leaving of an outstanding indebtedness to a depositor;

(d) A failure to redeliver any commodity to a depositor or to pay depositors for commodities purchased by a licensee in the ordinary course of business and where a bona fide dispute does not exist between the licensee and the depositor;

(e) A failure to make application for license renewal within sixty days after the annual license renewal date; or

(f) A denial of the application for a license renewal.

Sec. 20. Section 47, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.345 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department may give written notice to the warehouseman or grain dealer to submit to inspection, and/or furnish required reports, documents, or other requested information, under such conditions and at such time as the department may deem necessary whenever a warehouseman or grain dealer fails to:

(a) Submit his books, papers, or property to lawful inspection or audit;

(b) Submit required reports or documents to the department by their due date; or

(c) Furnish the department with requested information, including but not limited to correction notices.

(2) If the warehouseman or grain dealer fails to comply with the terms of the notice within twenty-four hours from the date of its issuance, or within such further time as the department may allow, the department shall levy a fine of fifty dollars per day from the final date for compliance allowed by this section or the department. In those cases where the failure to comply continues for more than thirty days or where the director determines the failure to comply creates a threat of loss to depositors, the department may, in lieu of levying further fines petition the superior court of the county where the licensee's principal place of business in Washington is located, as shown by the license application, for an order:

(a) Authorizing the department to seize and take possession of all books, papers, and property of all kinds used in connection with the conduct or the operation of the warehouseman's or grain dealer's business, and the books, papers, records, and property that pertain specifically, exclusively, and directly to that business; and

(b) Enjoining the warehouseman or grain dealer from interfering with the department in the discharge of its duties as required by this chapter.

(3) All necessary costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by the department in carrying out the provisions of this section may be recovered at the same time and as part of the action filed under this section.

Sec. 21. Section 50, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.371 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a depositor stores a commodity with a warehouseman or sells a commodity to a grain dealer, the depositor has a first priority statutory lien on the commodity or the proceeds therefrom or on commodities owned by the warehouseman or grain dealer if the depositor has written evidence of ownership disclosing a storage obligation or written evidence of sale. The lien arises at the time the title is transferred from the depositor to the warehouseman or grain dealer, or if the commodity is under a storage obligation, the lien arises at the commencement of the storage obligation. The lien terminates when the liability of the warehouseman or grain dealer to the depositor terminates or if the depositor sells his commodity to the warehouseman or grain dealer, then thirty days after the ~~((time of the sale))~~ date title passes. If, however, the depositor is tendered payment by check or draft, then the lien shall not terminate until forty days after the ~~((time of sale))~~ date title passes.

(2) The lien created under this section shall be preferred to any lien or security interest in favor of any creditor of the warehouseman or grain dealer, regardless of whether the creditor's lien or security interest attached to the commodity or proceeds before or after the date on which the depositor's lien attached under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) A depositor who claims a lien under subsection (1) of this section need not file any notice of the lien in order to perfect the lien. If, however, the depositor is not paid per the terms of the contract, they must notify the department within ten days of default.

(4) The lien created by subsection (1) of this section is discharged, except as to the proceeds therefrom and except as to commodities owned by the warehouseman or grain dealer, upon sale of the commodity by the warehouseman or grain dealer to a buyer in the ordinary course of business.

Sec. 22. Section 52, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.391 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the failure of a grain dealer or warehouseman, the statutory lien created in RCW 22.09.371 shall be liquidated by the department to satisfy the claims of depositors in the following manner:

(1) The department shall take possession of all commodities in the warehouse, including those owned by the warehouseman or grain dealer, and those that are under warehouse receipts or any written evidence of ownership that discloses a storage obligation by a failed warehouseman, including but not limited to scale weight tickets, settlement sheets, and ledger cards. These commodities shall be distributed or sold and the proceeds distributed to satisfy the outstanding warehouse receipts or other written evidences of ownership. If a shortage exists, the department shall distribute the commodities or the proceeds from the sale of the commodities on a prorated basis to the depositors. To the extent the commodities or the proceeds from their sale are inadequate to satisfy the claims of depositors with evidence of storage obligations, the depositors have a first priority lien against any proceeds received from commodities sold while under a storage obligation or against any commodities owned by the failed warehouseman or grain dealer.

(3) Upon the satisfaction of the claims of depositors qualifying for first or second priority treatment, all other depositors possessing written evidence of the sale of the commodity to the failed warehouseman or grain dealer have a third priority lien against the commodity, the proceeds of the sale, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities. If the commodities, commodity proceeds, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities are insufficient to wholly satisfy these claims, each depositor shall receive a pro rata share thereof.

(4) The director of agriculture may represent depositors whom, under RCW 22.09.381, the director has determined have claims against the failed warehouseman or failed grain dealer in any action brought to enjoin or otherwise contest the distributions made by the director under this section.

Sec. 23. Section 52, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.520 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any commodity shall be delivered to a warehouse under this chapter, and the scale ticket or warehouse receipt issued therefor provides for the return of a like amount of like kind, grade, and class to the holder thereof, such delivery shall be a bailment and not a sale of the commodity so delivered. In no case shall such commodities be liable to seizure upon process of any court in an action against such bailee, except action by the legal holder of the warehouse receipt to enforce the terms thereof. Such commodities, in the event of failure or insolvency of such bailee, shall be applied exclusively to the redemption of such outstanding warehouse receipts and scale weight tickets covering commodities so stored with such bailee. The commodities on hand in any warehouse or warehouses with a particular license, as provided in RCW 22.09.030, shall be applied to the redemption and satisfaction of warehouse receipts and scale weight tickets which were issued pursuant to the particular license. Commodities in special piles or special bins shall be applied exclusively against the warehouse receipts or scale weight tickets issued therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 22.09 RCW to read as follows:

Every person who fails to comply with this chapter, or any rule adopted under it, may be subjected to a civil penalty, as determined by the director, in an amount of not more than one thousand dollars for every such violation. Each and every violation shall be a separate and distinct offense. Every person who, through an act of commission or omission, procures, aids, or abets in the violation shall be considered to have violated this chapter and may be subject to the penalty provided for in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A new section is added to chapter 69.04 RCW to read as follows:

All retail sales of fresh or frozen lamb products which are imported from another country shall be labelled with the country of origin. For the purposes of this section 'imported lamb products' shall include but not be limited to, live lambs imported from another country but slaughtered in the United States.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. A new section is added to chapter 15.04 RCW to read as follows:

The department of agriculture is authorized to develop, in cooperation with Washington State University and other state agencies, an informational guide to programs offered by state and federal agencies which would be of assistance to farm families. The informational guide shall be made available to farmers and ranchers through county extension offices, farm organizations, and other appropriate means.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 14, chapter 412, Laws of 1985 and RCW 16.59.010;
- (2) Section 15, chapter 412, Laws of 1985 and RCW 16.59.020;
- (3) Section 17, chapter 412, Laws of 1985 and RCW 16.59.030;
- (4) Section 18, chapter 412, Laws of 1985 and RCW 16.59.040;
- (5) Section 16, chapter 412, Laws of 1985 and RCW 16.59.050;
- (6) Section 19, chapter 412, Laws of 1985 and RCW 16.59.060;
- (7) Section 20, chapter 412, Laws of 1985 and RCW 16.59.070; and
- (8) Section 24, chapter 412, Laws of 1985 and RCW 16.59.900.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Sections 15 and 27 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 7, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 4 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature intends to restore the law relating to the release of public records largely to that which existed prior to the Washington Supreme Court decision in 'In re Rosier,' 105 Wn.2d 606 (1986). The intent of this legislation is to make clear that: (1) Absent statutory provisions to the contrary, agencies possessing records should in responding to requests for disclosure not make any distinctions in releasing or not releasing records based upon the identity of the person or agency which requested the records, and (2) agencies having public records should rely only upon statutory exemptions or prohibitions for refusal to provide public records. Further, to avoid unnecessary confusion, 'privacy' as used in section 2 of this 1987 act is intended to have the same meaning as the definition given that word by the Supreme Court in 'Hearst v. Hoppe,' 90 Wn.2d 123, 135 (1978).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:

A person's 'right to privacy,' 'right of privacy,' 'privacy,' or 'personal privacy,' as these terms are used in this chapter, is invaded or violated only if disclosure of information about the person: (1) Would be highly offensive to a reasonable person, and (2) is not of legitimate concern to the public. The provisions of this chapter dealing with the right to privacy in certain public records do not create any right of privacy beyond those rights that are specified in this chapter as express exemptions from the public's right to inspect, examine, or copy public records.

Sec. 3. Section 26, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 14, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each agency, in accordance with published rules, shall make available for public inspection and copying all public records, unless the record falls within the specific exemptions of subsection (5) of this section, RCW 42.17.310, 42.17.315, or other statute which exempts or prohibits disclosure of specific information or records. To the extent required to prevent an unreasonable invasion of personal privacy interests protected by RCW 42.17.310 and 42.17.315, an agency shall delete identifying details in a manner consistent with RCW 42.17.310 and 42.17.315 when it makes available or publishes any public record; however, in each case, the justification for the deletion shall be explained fully in writing.

(2) Each agency shall maintain and make available for public inspection and copying a current index providing identifying information as to the following records issued, adopted, or promulgated after January 1, 1973:

(a) Final opinions, including concurring and dissenting opinions, as well as orders, made in the adjudication of cases;

(b) Those statements of policy and interpretations of policy, statute, and the Constitution which have been adopted by the agency;

(c) Administrative staff manuals and instructions to staff that affect a member of the public;

(d) Planning policies and goals, and interim and final planning decisions;

(e) Factual staff reports and studies, factual consultant's reports and studies, scientific reports and studies, and any other factual information derived from tests, studies, reports, or surveys, whether conducted by public employees or others; and

(3) An agency need not maintain such an index, if to do so would be unduly burdensome, but it shall in that event:

(a) Issue and publish a formal order specifying the reasons why and the extent to which compliance would unduly burden or interfere with agency operations; and

(b) Make available for public inspection and copying all indexes maintained for agency use.

(4) A public record may be relied on, used, or cited as precedent by an agency against a party other than an agency and it may be invoked by the agency for any other purpose only if—

(a) It has been indexed in an index available to the public; or

(b) Parties affected have timely notice (actual or constructive) of the terms thereof.

(5) This chapter shall not be construed as giving authority to any agency to give, sell or provide access to lists of individuals requested for commercial purposes, and agencies shall not do so unless specifically authorized or directed by law: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That lists of applicants for professional licenses and of professional licensees shall be made available to those professional associations or educational organizations recognized by their professional licensing or examination board, upon payment of a reasonable charge therefor: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such recognition may be refused only for a good cause pursuant to a hearing under the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 4. Section 27, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 15, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.270 are each amended to read as follows:

Public records shall be available for inspection and copying, and agencies shall, upon request for identifiable public records, make them promptly available to any person. Agencies shall not distinguish among persons requesting records, and such persons shall not be required to provide information as to the purpose for the request except to establish whether inspection and copying would violate RCW 42.17.260(5) or other statute which exempts or prohibits disclosure of specific information or records to certain persons. Agency facilities shall be made available to any person for the copying of public records except when and to the extent that this would unreasonably disrupt the operations of the agency. Agencies shall honor requests received by mail for identifiable public records unless exempted by provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 5. Section 34, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 20, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.340 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) Judicial review of all agency actions taken or challenged under RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.320 shall be de novo. Courts shall take into account the policy of this chapter that free and open examination of public records is in the public interest, even though such examination may cause inconvenience or embarrassment to public officials or others. Courts may examine any record in camera in any proceeding brought under this section.

(3) Any person who prevails against an agency in any action in the courts seeking the right to inspect or copy any public record shall be awarded all costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred in connection with such legal action. In addition, it shall be within the discretion of the court to award such person an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars for each day that he was denied the right to inspect or copy said public record.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:

A law enforcement authority may not request inspection or copying of records of any person, which belong to a public utility district or a municipally owned electrical utility, unless the authority provides the public utility district or municipally owned electrical utility with a written statement in which the authority states that it suspects that the particular person to whom the records pertain has committed a crime and the authority has a reasonable belief that the records could determine or help determine whether the suspicion might be true. Information obtained in violation of this rule is inadmissible in any criminal proceeding.

On line 2 of the title, after "law;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 42.17.260, 42.17.270, and 42.17.340; adding new sections to chapter 42.17 RCW; and creating a new section." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Ms. Fisher moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 4.

Representatives Fisher and Sanders spoke in favor of the motion and it was carried.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 7, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 25 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. By January 1, 1988, the office of financial management shall submit a report to the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives describing a system to control the initial acquisition and replacement of furniture by state agencies. The system shall include proposed criteria for justifying furniture purchases by state agencies, a uniform accounting and reporting system for such purchases; and a centralized inventory and acquisition system that would fill state agency furniture requests from existing inventory before new purchases are allowed. The report shall include recommended legislation, if appropriate.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 183, Laws of 1982 and RCW 1.30.040 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the law revision commission:

(1) To examine the common law and statutes of the state and current judicial decisions for the purpose of discovering defects and anachronisms in the law, surveying alternative remedies, and recommending needed reforms.

(2) To receive and consider proposed changes in the law recommended by the American law institute, the commissioners for the promotion of uniformity of legislation in the United States, any bar association, or other learned bodies.

(3) To receive and consider suggestions from judges, justices, public officials, lawyers, and the public generally as to defects and anachronisms in the law.

(4) To recommend, from time to time, such changes in the law as it deems necessary to modify or eliminate antiquated and inequitable rules of law, and to bring the law of this state, civil and criminal, into harmony with modern conditions.

(5) To recommend the express repeal of all statutes repealed by implication, or held unconstitutional by the supreme court of the state or the supreme court of the United States.

(6) To promote utilization of sound principles of legal drafting to achieve clarity and precision in legal documents and in the statutory law and administrative rules and regulations.

~~((7) To report its proceedings annually to the legislature on or before January 15, and, if it deems advisable, to accompany its report with proposed legislation to carry out any of its recommendations.))~~

Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 139, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.46.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to RCW 40.07.040, the commission shall, from time to time, make reports to the governor and the legislature covering such matters in connection with this chapter as ~~((he)) the governor and the legislature may require~~~~((and in addition shall prepare and forward to the governor, to be laid before the legislature, a report for the period ending on the thirty-first day of December of 1973, and a report annually thereafter as soon as possible after the close of the fiscal year, which)).~~ These reports shall be ~~((a))~~ public documents and contain such general information and remarks as the commission deems pertinent thereto and any information requested by either the governor or members of the legislature: PROVIDED, That the commission appointed pursuant to RCW 9.46.040 may conduct a thorough study of the types of gambling activity permitted and the types of gambling activity prohibited by this chapter and may make recommendations to the legislature as to: (1) Gambling activity that ought to be permitted; (2) gambling activity that ought to be prohibited; (3) the types of licenses and permits that ought to be required; (4) the type and amount of tax that ought to be applied to each type of permitted gambling activity; (5) any changes which may be made to the law of this state which further the purposes and policies set forth in RCW 9.46.010 as now law or hereafter amended; and (6) any other matter that the commission may deem appropriate. Members of the commission and its staff may contact the legislature, or any of its members, at any time, to advise it of recommendations of the commission.

Sec. 4. Section 75, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 287, Laws of 1985 and RCW 13.40.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall, except in the case of a juvenile committed by a court to a term of confinement in a state institution outside the appropriate standard range for the offense(s) for which the juvenile was found to be guilty established pursuant to RCW 13.40.030, as now or hereafter amended, set a release or discharge date for each juvenile committed to its custody which shall be within the prescribed range to which a juvenile has been committed. Such dates shall be determined prior to the expiration of sixty percent of a juvenile's minimum term of confinement included within the prescribed range to which the juvenile has been committed. The secretary shall release any juvenile committed to the custody of the department within four calendar days prior to the juvenile's release date or on the release date set under this chapter: PROVIDED, That days spent in the custody of the department shall be tolled by any period of time during which a juvenile has absented himself or herself from the department's supervision without the prior approval of the secretary or the secretary's designee.

(2) The secretary shall monitor the average daily population of the state's juvenile residential facilities. When the secretary concludes that in-residence population of residential facilities exceeds one hundred five percent of the rated bed capacity specified in statute, or in absence of such specification, as specified by the department in rule, the secretary may recommend reductions to the governor. On certification by the governor that the recommended reductions are necessary, the secretary has authority to administratively release a sufficient number of offenders to reduce in-residence population to one hundred percent of rated bed capacity. The secretary shall release those offenders who have served the greatest proportion of their sentence. However, the secretary may deny release in a particular case at the request of an offender, or if the secretary finds that there is no responsible custodian, as determined by the department, to whom to release the offender, or if the release of the offender would pose a clear danger to society. The department shall notify the committing court of the release ~~((and notify each member of the legislature))~~ at the end of each calendar year if any such early releases have occurred during that year as a result of excessive in-residence population. In no event shall a serious offender, as defined in RCW 13.40.020(1) be granted release under the provisions of this subsection.

(3) Following the juvenile's release pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the secretary may require the juvenile to comply with a program of parole to be administered by the department in his or her community which shall last no longer than eighteen months. Such a parole program shall be mandatory for offenders released under subsection (2) of this section. The secretary shall, for the period of parole, facilitate the juvenile's reintegration into his or her community and to further this goal may require the juvenile to: (a) Undergo available medical or psychiatric treatment; (b) report as directed to a parole officer; (c) pursue a course of study or vocational training; (d) remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the department of any change in his or her address; and (e) refrain from committing new offenses. After termination of the parole period, the juvenile shall be discharged from the department's supervision.

(4) The department may also modify parole for violation thereof. If, after affording a juvenile all of the due process rights to which he or she would be entitled if the juvenile were an adult, the secretary finds that a juvenile has violated a condition of his or her parole, the secretary shall order one of the following which is reasonably likely to effectuate the purpose of the parole and to protect the public: (a) Continued supervision under the same conditions previously imposed; (b) intensified supervision with increased reporting requirements; (c) additional conditions of supervision authorized by this chapter; and (d) imposition of a period of confinement not to exceed thirty days in a facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with the state of Washington or any city or county for a portion of each day or for a certain number of days each week with the balance of the days or weeks spent under supervision.

(5) A parole officer of the department of social and health services shall have the power to arrest a juvenile under his or her supervision on the same grounds as a law enforcement officer would be authorized to arrest such person.

(6) If so requested and approved under chapter 13.06 RCW, the secretary shall permit a county or group of counties to perform functions under subsections (3) through (5) of this section.

Sec. 5. Section 23, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.310 are each amended to read as follows:

~~Subject to RCW 40.07.040, the disciplinary authority shall submit a biennial report to the legislature ((on January 1 of each odd-numbered year))~~ on its proceedings during the biennium, detailing the number of complaints made, investigated, and adjudicated and manner of disposition. The report may include recommendations for improving the disciplinary process, including proposed legislation. The department of licensing shall develop a uniform report format.

Sec. 6. Section 4, chapter 319, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 37, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.02.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a board of review to provide policy direction to the department of licensing as it establishes and operates the business registration and licensing system. The board of review shall be composed of the following officials or their designees:

- (a) Director, department of revenue;
- (b) Director, department of labor and industries;
- (c) Commissioner, employment security department;
- (d) Director, department of agriculture;
- (e) Director, department of trade and economic development;
- (f) Director, department of licensing;
- (g) Director, office of financial management;
- (h) Chairman, liquor control board;
- (i) Secretary, department of social and health services;
- (j) Secretary of state;
- (k) The governor; and
- (l) As ex officio members:

(i) The president of the senate or the president's designee;

(ii) The speaker of the house or the speaker's designee; and

(iii) A representative of a recognized state-wide organization of employers, representing a large cross section of the Washington business community, to be appointed by the governor.

(2) The governor shall be the chairperson. In the governor's absence, the secretary of state shall act as chairperson.

(3) The board shall meet at the call of the chairperson at least semi-annually or at the call of a member to:

- (a) Establish interagency policy guidelines for the system;
- (b) Review the findings, status, and problems of system operations and recommend courses of action;
- (c) Receive reports from industry and agency task forces;
- (d) Determine in questionable cases whether a specific license is to be included in the master license system;
- (e) Review and make recommendations on rules proposed by the business license center and any amendments to or revisions of the center's rules.

~~((4) The board shall submit a report to the legislature each biennium identifying the licenses that the board believes should be added to the list of those processed under the master license system.))~~

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 360, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27.070 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established a state building code council to be appointed by the governor.

(1) The state building code council shall consist of fifteen members, two of whom shall be county elected legislative body members or elected executives and two of whom shall be city elected legislative body members or mayors. One of the members shall be a local government building code enforcement official and one of the members shall be a local government fire service official. Of the remaining nine members, one member shall represent general construction, specializing in commercial and industrial building construction; one member shall represent general construction, specializing in residential and multifamily building construction; one member shall represent the architectural design profession; one member shall represent the structural engineering profession; one member shall represent the mechanical engineering profession; one member shall represent the construction building trades; one member shall represent manufacturers, installers, or suppliers of building materials and components; one member shall be a person with a physical disability and shall represent the disability community; and one member shall represent the general public. At least six of these fifteen members shall reside east of the crest of the Cascade mountains. The council shall include an employee of the office of the insurance commissioner and an employee of the electrical division of the department of labor and industries, as ex officio, nonvoting members with all other privileges and rights of membership. Terms of office shall be for three years. ~~(The board shall report annually to the governor and the legislature on the operation and administration of this chapter. The report shall include a summary of all council decisions relating to updates or amendments to the codes.)~~ The council shall elect a member to serve as chair of the council for one-year terms of office. Any member who is appointed by virtue of being an elected official or holding public employment shall be removed from the council if he or she ceases being such an elected official or holding such public employment. Before making any appointments to the building code council, the governor shall seek nominations from recognized organizations which represent the entities or interests listed in this subsection. Members serving on the council on July 28, 1985, may complete their terms of office. Any vacancy shall be filled by alternating appointments from governmental and nongovernmental entities or interests until the council is constituted as required by this subsection.

(2) Members shall not be compensated but shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The department of community development shall provide administrative and clerical assistance to the building code council.

Sec. 8. Section 12, chapter 91, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 11, chapter 266, Laws of 1986 and RCW 27.34.220 are each amended to read as follows:

The director or the director's designee is authorized:

(1) To promulgate and maintain a state register of districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects significant in American or Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, and culture, and to prepare comprehensive state-wide historic surveys and plans and research and evaluation of surveyed resources for the preparation of nominations to the state and national registers of historic places, in accordance with criteria approved by the advisory council established under RCW 27.34.250. The nominations shall comply with any standards and regulations promulgated by the United States secretary of the interior for the preservation, acquisition, and development of such properties.

(2) To establish a program of matching grants-in-aid to public agencies, public or private organizations, or individuals for projects having as their purpose the preservation for public benefit of properties that are significant in American or Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, and culture.

(3) To promote historic preservation efforts throughout the state, including private efforts and those of city, county, and state agencies.

(4) To enhance the effectiveness of the state preservation program through the initiation of legislation, the use of varied funding sources, the creation of special purpose programs, and contact with state, county, and city officials, civic groups, and professionals.

(5) To spend funds, subject to legislative appropriation and the availability of funds, where necessary to assist the Indian tribes of Washington state in removing prehistoric human remains for scientific examination and reburial, if the human remains have been unearthed inadvertently or through vandalism and if no other public agency is legally responsible for their preservation.

(6) To consult with the governor and the legislature on issues relating to the conservation of the man-made environment and their impact on the well-being of the state and its citizens. ~~(The department shall submit periodic reports of its activities under this chapter to the governor and the legislature.)~~

(7) To charge fees for professional and clerical services provided by the office.

(8) To adopt such rules, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, as are necessary to carry out RCW 27.34.200 through ~~((27.34.290))~~ 27.34.280.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 90, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 137, Laws of 1986 and RCW 28A.58.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Every school district board of directors, being accountable to the citizens within its district as to the education offered to the students therein, shall, based on the timeline established by the superintendent of public instruction, develop a program identifying student learning objectives for their district in all courses of study included in the school district programs. The school district must evidence community participation in defining the objectives of such a program. The program of student learning objectives shall assure that the district's resources in the educational program, such as money, facilities, time, materials and personnel, are used so as to provide both economies in management and operation, and quality education in all subject areas and courses. The learning objectives shall be measurable as to the actual student attainment; student attainment shall be locally assessed annually. The student learning objectives program shall be reviewed at least every two years. However, a school district may instead provide for the periodic review of all or a part of its student learning objectives program in accordance with the time schedule the district has established for the periodic review of curriculum or the periodic review and selection of textbooks, or in accordance with the time schedule for self-study as provided under RCW 28A.58.085, if and to the extent the curriculum or textbook review processes include the review or self-study of the district's student learning objectives program. Periodic review shall take place at least every seven years. In developing and reviewing the learning objectives, districts shall give specific attention to improving the depth of course content within courses and in coordinating the sequence in which subject matter is presented.

The superintendent of public instruction shall review implementation of the learning objectives law biennially ~~((and shall submit a report of such review to the legislature on or before January 1 of each odd-numbered year))~~.

The state board of education shall examine the programs in each school district in the state for reasons of program approval as required in accordance with RCW 28A.41.130, as now or hereafter amended.

School districts may obtain assistance in carrying out their duties under this section from the educational service district of which they are a part.

Sec. 10. Section 7, chapter 73, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 41, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to RCW 40.07.040, the board shall submit to the legislature a biennial evaluation ((in January of each even-numbered year) through 1990. The evaluations may include recommendation for future programs as determined by the board.

Sec. 11. Section 4, chapter 343, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.10.863 are each amended to read as follows:

The governing board or its designees shall be responsible for soliciting and receiving gifts to be used as matching funds. Each state four-year institution of higher education shall have the responsibility for the maintenance and investment of the endowed funds and for the administration of the program. ~~((Each institution shall include in a biennial report to the legislature information concerning collection and investment of matching gifts and the establishment of professorships.))~~

Sec. 12. Section 5, chapter 57, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 87, Laws of 1980 and RCW 28B.19.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any rules adopted after September 1, 1971 shall be filed forthwith with the office of the code reviser. The code reviser shall keep a permanent register of such rules open to public inspection.

(2) Emergency rules adopted under RCW 28B.19.040 shall become effective upon filing. All other rules hereafter adopted shall become effective upon the expiration of thirty days after the date of filing, unless a later date is required by statute or specified in the rule.

~~((3) The code reviser shall report to each regular session of the legislature during an odd-numbered year on the state of compliance of the institutions of higher education with this section. For this purpose, all institutions of higher education shall supply the code reviser with such information as he may request.))~~

Sec. 13. Section 1, chapter 174, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter 87, Laws of 1980 and RCW 28B.20.382 are each amended to read as follows:

Until authorized and empowered to do so by statute of the legislature, the board of regents of the university, with respect to that certain tract of land in the city of Seattle originally known as the 'old university grounds' and more recently known as the 'Metropolitan Tract' and any land contiguous thereto, shall not sell said land or any part thereof or any improvement thereon, or lease said land or any part thereof or any improvement thereon or renew or extend any lease thereof for a term ending more than sixty years beyond midnight, December 31, 1980. Any sale of said land or any part thereof or any improvement thereon, or any lease or renewal or extension of any lease of said land or any part thereof or any improvement thereon for a term ending more than sixty years after midnight, December 31, 1980, made or attempted to be made by the board of regents shall be null and void unless and until the same has been approved or ratified and confirmed by legislative act.

The board of regents shall have power from time to time to lease said land, or any part thereof or any improvement thereon for a term ending not more than sixty years beyond midnight, December 31, 1980: PROVIDED, That the board of regents shall make a full, detailed report of all leases and transactions pertaining to said land or any part thereof or any improvement thereon to ~~((each regular session of the legislature))~~ the legislative budget committee, including one copy to the staff of the committee, during an odd-numbered year: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any and all records, books, accounts and/or agreements of any lessee or sublessee under this section, pertaining to compliance with the terms and conditions of such lease or sublease, shall be open to inspection by the board of regents and/or the ways and means committees of the senate or ~~((the appropriations committee of))~~ the house of representatives or the legislative budget committee or any successor ~~((committee of either))~~ committees. It is not intended by this proviso that unrelated records, books, accounts and/or agreements of lessees, sublessees or related companies be open to such inspection.

Sec. 14. Section 2, chapter 57, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 2, chapter 39, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.30.537 are each amended to read as follows:

The IMPACT center shall:

(1) Coordinate the teaching, research, and extension expertise of the college of agriculture and home economics at Washington State University to assist in:

(a) The design and development of information and strategies to expand the long-term international markets for Washington agricultural products; and

(b) The dissemination of such information and strategies to Washington exporters, overseas users, and public and private trade organizations;

(2) Research and identify current impediments to increased exports of Washington agricultural products, and determine methods of surmounting those impediments and opportunities for exporting new agricultural products and commodities to foreign markets;

(3) Prepare curricula to present and distribute information concerning international trade in agricultural commodities and products to students, exporters, international traders, and the public;

(4) Provide high-quality research and graduate education and professional nondegree training in international trade in agricultural commodities in cooperation with other existing programs;

(5) Ensure that activities of the center adequately reflect the objectives for the state's agricultural market development programs established by the department of agriculture as the lead state agency for such programs under chapter 43.23 RCW;

(6) Link itself through cooperative agreements with the center for international trade in forest products at the University of Washington, the state department of agriculture, the state department of ~~((commerce))~~ trade and economic development, Washington's agriculture businesses and associations, and other state agency data collection, processing, and dissemination efforts; and

(7) ~~Subject to RCW 40.07.040, report biennially to the governor and the legislature ((December 1 of each year))~~ on the IMPACT center, state agricultural commodities marketing programs, and the center's success in obtaining nonstate funding for its operation.

Sec. 15. Section 28B.50.070, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 130, Laws of 1986 and RCW 28B.50.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The governor shall make the appointments to the college board.

The college board shall organize, adopt a seal, and adopt bylaws for its administration, not inconsistent herewith, as it may deem expedient and may from time to time amend such bylaws. Annually the board shall elect a chairperson and vice chairperson; all to serve until their successors are appointed and qualified. The college board shall at its initial meeting fix a date and place for its regular meeting. Five members shall constitute a quorum, and no meeting shall be held with less than a quorum present, and no action shall be taken by less than a majority of the college board.

Special meetings may be called as provided by its rules and regulations. Regular meetings shall be held at the college board's established offices in Olympia, but whenever the convenience of the public or of the parties may be promoted, or delay or expenses may be prevented, it may hold its meetings, hearings or proceedings at any other place designated by it. ~~Subject to RCW 40.07.040,~~ the college board shall transmit a report in writing to the governor ~~((each year))~~ biennially which report shall contain such information as may be requested by the governor. The fiscal year of the college board shall conform to the fiscal year of the state.

Sec. 16. Section 8, chapter 267, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28C.04.550 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington award for vocational excellence shall be effective commencing with the 1984-85 academic year. ~~((The commission for vocational education shall report on the program to the legislature and to the governor by January 15, 1985. The report shall include a description of the program, a copy of any rules implementing the program, a list of the participants, and the commission's recommendations for any additional statutory changes needed to improve the program.~~

~~Hereafter, the commission shall report on the results and effectiveness of this award program to the legislature and the governor on or before January 15 of each odd-numbered year. The 1987 report shall include an evaluation of the effects of expanding the tuition and fee waiver period from one to two years.))~~

Sec. 17. Section 4, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 11, chapter 87, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each agency shall file forthwith in the office of the code reviser a certified copy of all rules now in effect and hereafter adopted, except the rules contained in tariffs filed with or published by the Washington utilities and transportation commission. The code reviser shall keep a permanent register of such rules open to public inspection.

(2) Emergency rules adopted under RCW 34.04.030 shall become effective upon filing. All other rules hereafter adopted shall become effective upon the expiration of thirty days after the date of filing, unless a later date is required by statute or specified in the rule.

~~((3) The code reviser shall report to each regular session of the legislature during an odd-numbered year on the state of compliance of the agencies with this section. For this purpose, all agencies shall supply the code reviser with such information as he may request.))~~

Sec. 18. Section 4, chapter 221, Laws of 1982 and RCW 34.04.280 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) By November 1, 1982, and each year thereafter, each agency shall provide the office of financial management with a document containing: (a) A list citing the rules identified pursuant to RCW 34.04.270 and the actions, if any, taken by the agency head to change or eliminate the rules; and (b) a list of those rules which cannot be changed or eliminated without conflicting with the statutes authorizing, or dealing with, the rules and a list of such statutes.

(2) The office of financial management shall compile the documents submitted under subsection (1) of this section ~~((and by January 1, 1983, and each year thereafter, shall provide the compilation to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate)).~~

Sec. 19. Section 7, chapter 120, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 19 chapter 49, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.78.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The county road administration board shall:

(1) Establish by rule, standards of good practice for county road administration;

(2) Establish reporting requirements for counties with respect to the standards of good practice adopted by the board;

(3) Receive and review reports from counties and reports of the county road administration engineer to determine compliance with legislative directives and the standards of good practice adopted by the board;

(4) Report annually on the first day of July to the state department of transportation~~((;))~~ and to the chairs of the legislative transportation committee~~((;))~~ and the house and senate transportation committees on the status of county road administration in each county, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees. The annual report shall contain recommendations for improving administration of the county road programs;

(5) Administer the rural arterial program established by chapter 36.79 RCW.

Sec. 20. Section 3, chapter 120, Laws of 1983 and RCW 39.19.030 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the office of minority and women's business enterprises. The governor shall appoint a director for the office, subject to confirmation by the senate. The director may employ a deputy director and a confidential secretary, both of which shall be exempt under chapter 41.06 RCW, and such staff as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

The office, with the advice and counsel of the advisory committee on minority and women's business enterprises, shall:

(1) Develop, plan, and implement programs to provide an opportunity for participation by qualified minority and women-owned businesses in public works and the process by which goods and services are procured by state agencies and educational institutions from the private sector;

(2) Develop a comprehensive plan insuring that qualified minority and women-owned businesses are provided an opportunity to participate in public contracts for public works and goods and services;

(3) Identify barriers to equal participation by qualified minority and women-owned businesses in all state agency and educational institution contracts;

(4) Establish annual overall goals for participation by qualified minority and women-owned businesses for each state agency and educational institution to be administered on a contract-by-contract basis or on a class-of-contracts basis;

(5) Develop and maintain a central minority and women's business enterprise certification list for all state agencies and educational institutions. Size of business or length of time in business shall not be considered a prerequisite for the certification list;

(6) Develop, implement, and operate a system of monitoring compliance with this chapter;

(7) Adopt rules under chapter 34.04 or 28B.19 RCW, as appropriate, governing: (a) Establishment of agency goals; (b) development and maintenance of a central minority and women's business enterprise certification program; (c) procedures for monitoring and enforcing compliance with goals, regulations, contract provisions, and this chapter; and (d) utilization of standard clauses by state agencies and educational institutions, as specified in RCW 39.19-.050; and

(8) Submit an annual report to the governor ~~((and the legislature outlining the progress and economic impact on the public and private sectors of implementing this chapter)).~~

Sec. 21. Section 2, chapter 160, Laws of 1986 and RCW 39.58.085 are each amended to read as follows:

With the written approval of the commission, state and local governmental entities may establish demand accounts in out-of-state and alien banks in an aggregate amount not to exceed one million dollars. No single governmental entity shall be authorized to hold more than fifty thousand dollars in one demand account.

The governmental entities establishing such demand accounts shall be solely responsible for their proper and prudent management and shall bear total responsibility for any losses incurred by such accounts. Accounts established under the provisions of this section shall not be considered insured by the commission.

The state auditor shall annually monitor compliance with this section and the financial status of such demand accounts (~~and report the findings to the appropriate committee of the legislature:~~)

Sec. 22. Section 9, chapter 300, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 46, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 39.84.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Prior to issuance of any revenue bonds, each public corporation shall submit a copy of its enabling ordinance and charter, a description of any industrial development facility proposed to be undertaken, and the basis for its qualification as an industrial development facility to the department of trade and economic development.

(2) If the industrial development facility is not eligible under this chapter, the department of trade and economic development shall give notice to the public corporation, in writing and by certified mail, within twelve working days of receipt of the description.

(3) The department of trade and economic development shall report annually through 1989 to the (~~legislature~~) chairs of the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, and to the governor on the amount of capital investment undertaken under this chapter and the amount of permanent employment reasonably related to the existence of such industrial development facilities.

(4) The department of trade and economic development shall provide such advice and assistance to public corporations and municipalities which have created or may wish to create public corporations as the public corporations or municipalities request and the department of trade and economic development considers appropriate.

Sec. 23. Section 22, chapter 446, Laws of 1985 and RCW 39.86.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall report annually through 1991 at the start of each annual legislative session to the (~~legislature~~) chairs of the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, and to the governor on the allocations of the state ceiling made during the previous year.

Sec. 24. Section 7, chapter 105, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 33, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 and RCW 41.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall:

(1) Have the authority to organize the department into not more than two divisions, each headed by an assistant director;

(2) Have free access to all files and records of various funds assigned to the department and inspect and audit the files and records as deemed necessary;

(3) Employ personnel to carry out the general administration of the department;

(4) Submit an annual written report of the activities of the department to the governor and the (~~legislature~~) chairs of the appropriate legislative committees with one copy to the staff of each of the committees, including recommendations for statutory changes the director believes to be desirable:

(5) Adopt such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the powers, duties, and functions of the department pursuant to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 25. Section 2, chapter 270, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 188, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.19.19361 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a risk management office within the department of general administration. The director of general administration shall implement the risk management policy in RCW 43.19.19361 through the risk management office. The director of general administration shall appoint a risk manager to supervise the risk management office. The risk management office shall make recommendations when appropriate to state agencies on the application of prudent safety, security, loss prevention, and loss minimization methods so as to reduce or avoid risk or loss. The director of general administration shall submit a risk management report biennially to the governor, with (~~a copy~~) copies to the chairs of the standing committees having jurisdiction on judiciary and insurance and the ways and means and state governmental operations committees in the senate and the house of representatives (~~on or before January 10, 1986, and January 10 of every even-numbered year thereafter~~), including one copy to the staff of each of the committees. The management report shall describe the plans, policies, and operation of the risk management office and shall at least include the following:

(1) Success in implementing stated goals and objectives for the risk management office;

(2) Improving loss control and prevention practices;

(3) Self-insuring risks of loss to state-owned property except where bond indentures or other special considerations require the purchase of insurance;

(4) Consolidating insurance coverages for properties requiring insurance by bond indenture;

(5) Establishing an emergency fund to provide assistance to state agencies in the event of serious property loss;

(6) Self-insuring liability risks to public and professional third parties;

(7) Funding of the tort claims revolving fund on an actuarial basis;

(8) A program of excess liability coverage above a selected self-insurance limit;

(9) Identification of cost savings and cost avoidances achieved during the preceding two years; and

(10) Appropriate recommendations for new or amended legislation.

Sec. 26. Section 2, chapter 61, Laws of 1982 and RCW 43.19.538 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of general administration, through the state purchasing director, shall develop specifications and adopt rules for the purchase of paper products which will provide for preferential purchase, when feasible, of paper products containing recycled paper. The specifications shall include:

(a) Giving preference to suppliers of recycled paper products if the bids do not exceed the lowest bid offered by suppliers of paper products that are not recycled.

(b) Requiring paper products with the highest quantity of postconsumer waste.

(c) Requiring paper products that may be recycled or reused to be purchased if the quality, price, and grade are otherwise equal to other paper products.

(2) The recycled paper content specifications shall be reviewed annually to consider increasing the percentage of recycled paper.

~~((3) The director of general administration shall report to the legislature about the revision of specifications under this section by the first day of each annual legislative session.))~~

Sec. 27. Section 5, chapter 86, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 158, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.19.660 are each amended to read as follows:

The operation of the printing and duplicating management center shall be financed by the director of the department of general administration from moneys appropriated by the legislature.

The director of the department of general administration shall be responsible for establishing realistic fees to be charged for services rendered by the printing and duplicating management center. The director of financial management shall approve any fees prior to their implementation. All fees and charges collected for services rendered by the printing and duplicating management center shall be deposited in the general fund. It is the intent of RCW 43.19.640 through 43.19.665 that the fees paid by the agencies and the savings experienced from the activities of the printing and duplicating management center shall more than offset the operating costs of the center.

~~((The director of the department of general administration shall, in December of each calendar year, submit a report of all reported savings by each agency for the year to the senate committee on ways and means and the house committee on appropriations.))~~

Sec. 28. Section 13, chapter 62, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 22, chapter 87, Laws of 1980 and RCW 43.21A.130 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other powers granted the director, ~~((he))~~ the director may undertake studies dealing with all aspects of environmental problems involving land, water, or air: PROVIDED, That in the absence of specific legislative authority, such studies shall be limited to investigations of particular problems, and shall not be implemented by positive action~~((PROVIDED FURTHER, That the results of all such studies shall be submitted to the legislature prior to thirty days before the beginning of each regular session during an odd-numbered year))~~.

Sec. 29. Section 4, chapter 295, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.21F.045 are each amended to read as follows:

The energy office shall have the following duties:

(1) The office shall prepare and update contingency plans for implementation in the event of energy shortages or emergencies. The plans shall conform to chapter 43.21G RCW and shall include procedures for determining when these shortages or emergencies exist, the state officers and agencies to participate in the determination, and actions to be taken by various agencies and officers of state government in order to reduce hardship and maintain the general welfare during these emergencies. The office shall coordinate the activities undertaken pursuant to the subsection with other persons. The components of plans that require legislation for their implementation shall be presented to the legislature in the form of proposed legislation at the earliest practicable date. The office shall report to the governor and the legislature on probable, imminent, and existing energy shortages, and shall administer energy allocation and curtailment programs in accordance with chapter 43.21G RCW.

(2) The office shall establish and maintain a central repository in state government for collection of existing data on energy resources, including:

(a) Supply, demand, costs, utilization technology, projections, and forecasts;

(b) Comparative costs of alternative energy sources, uses, and applications; and

(c) Inventory data on energy research projects in the state conducted under public and/or private auspices, and the results thereof.

(3) The office shall coordinate federal energy programs appropriate for state-level implementation, carry out such energy programs as are assigned to it by the governor or the legislature, and monitor federally funded local energy programs as required by federal or state regulations.

(4) The office shall develop energy policy recommendations for consideration by the governor and the legislature.

(5) The office shall provide assistance, space, and other support as may be necessary for the activities of the state's two representatives to the Pacific northwest electric power and conservation planning council. To the extent consistent with federal law, the office shall request that Washington's council members request the administrator of the Bonneville power administration to reimburse the state for the expenses associated with the support as provided in the Pacific northwest electric power planning and conservation act (P.L. 96-501).

(6) The office shall cooperate with state agencies, other governmental units, and private interests on energy matters.

(7) The office shall represent the interests of the state in the siting, construction, and operation of nuclear waste storage and disposal facilities.

(8) The office shall serve as the official state agency responsible for coordination of energy-related activities.

(9) No later than December 1, 1982, and by December 1st of each even-numbered year thereafter, the office shall prepare and transmit to the governor and the legislature a report on energy supply and demand, conservation, and other factors (including but not limited to:

(a) An overview of the anticipated energy situation in the state and region;

(b) An assessment of the energy resources available to the state;

(c) A comparison of the costs of available methods to supply and conserve energy;

(d) Identification of barriers and constraints to the rapid achievement of conservation and energy resource development, together with proposals for eliminating or reducing the barriers and constraints. The identification shall include but is not limited to statutes and federal, state, or local governmental regulations applicable to the state of Washington;

(e) A summary of the major energy conservation and resource development programs underway in the state;

(f) An analysis of the means by which the projected annual rate of energy demand growth may be reduced together with an estimate of the amount of reduction to be obtained by each of the means analyzed, and the cost of each option)) as appropriate.

(10) The office shall provide support for increasing cost-effective energy conservation, including assisting in the removal of impediments to timely implementation.

(11) The office shall provide support for the development of cost-effective energy resources including assisting in the removal of impediments to timely construction.

(12) The office shall adopt rules, under chapter 34.04 RCW, necessary to carry out the powers and duties enumerated in this chapter.

Sec. 30. Section 17, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.31.135 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to other duties and responsibilities assigned under this chapter:

(a) The director may:

(i) Enter into contracts on behalf of the state to carry out the purposes of this chapter;

(ii) Act for the state in the initiation of or participation in any multigovernmental program relative to the purpose of this chapter; and

(iii) Accept gifts and grants, whether such grants be of federal or other funds;

(b) The director shall:

(i) Prepare and submit for executive and legislative action thereon the budget for the department;

(ii) ~~((Submit a biennial report to the governor and to the legislature on the activities of the department and the nature of existing economic development problems;~~

~~((#)))~~ Submit recommendations for legislative actions as are deemed necessary to further the purposes of this chapter; and ~~((#v)))~~ ~~((iii))~~ Adopt rules in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW and do all other things necessary and proper to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) When federal or other funds are received by the department, they shall be promptly transferred to the state treasurer and thereafter expended only upon the approval of the director.

(3) The director may request information and assistance from all other agencies, departments, and officials of the state, and may reimburse such agencies, departments, or officials when such a request imposes any additional expenses upon any such agency, department, or official.

(4) The director shall, in carrying out the responsibilities of office, consult with governmental officials, private groups, and individuals and with officials of other states, and may, if the director deems it desirable, hold public hearings to obtain information for the purpose of carrying out the purposes of this chapter. All state agencies and their officials and the officials of any political subdivision of the state shall cooperate with and give such assistance to the department, including the submission of requested information, as to allow the department to carry out its purposes under this chapter.

Sec. 31. Section 14, chapter 147, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 195, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 43.59.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington state traffic safety commission shall submit a report each biennium outlining programs planned and steps taken toward improving traffic safety to the chair of the legislative transportation committee ~~((by October 1st of each even-numbered year))~~.

Sec. 32. Section 6, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 4, chapter 125, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.63A.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall supervise and administer the activities of the department and shall advise the governor and the legislature with respect to matters affecting the communities of the state generally and more especially on the extent the state should participate in the provision of services to such communities.

The director may enter into contracts on behalf of the state to carry out the purposes of this chapter; the director may act for the state in the initiation of or participation in any multi-governmental program relative to the purposes of this chapter; and the director may accept gifts and grants, whether such grants be of federal or other funds. When federal or other funds are received by the department they shall be promptly transferred to the state treasurer and thereafter expended only upon the approval of the director. The director shall prepare and submit for executive and legislative action thereon the budget for the department ~~((the director shall make a report to the governor and to the legislature in 1985 and biennially thereafter on the activities of the department and the nature of existing community problems;))~~ and after consultation with and approval by the governor, submit such recommendations for legislative action as deemed necessary to further the purposes of this chapter ~~((and))~~. The director shall make such rules and regulations and do all other things necessary and proper to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

The director may delegate such functions, powers and duties to other officers and employees of the department as the director deems expedient to the furtherance of the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 33. Section 7, chapter 125, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.63A.078 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall develop and administer a local development matching fund program. To be eligible to receive funds under this program, an organization must be a local government or a nonprofit local development entity. Any local government or entity requesting funds must demonstrate the participation of a cross-section of the local community in the economic development project, including business, labor, education and training, and the public sector. Under this program, the department shall provide matching funds which shall be used for the formulation of local economic development strategies, including the technical analysis necessary to designate and carry out the strategies. A technical analysis can include, but is not limited to, the development and dissemination of data on local markets, demographics, comparative business costs, site availability, labor force characteristics, and local incentives. Funds are to be used primarily to foster new developments and expansions which result in the trading of goods and services outside of the state's borders. Funds may be made available for assisting local businesses in utilizing state and federal programs in exporting, training, and financing. Funds may also be used to provide technical assistance to businesses in the areas of land use, transportation, site location, and manpower training. Matching funds cannot be used for entertainment, capital expenses, hosting, or marketing. Funds granted for economic development projects must be matched by local resources on a dollar-for-dollar basis. Not more than fifty thousand dollars of state matching funds as provided by this section may be used for any one project.

~~((The department shall report annually on December 31 to the governor and the legislature on funds expended and projects developed using matching funds;))~~

Sec. 34. Section 2, chapter 263, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.63A.220 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of community development is directed to undertake a study as to the best means of providing encouragement and assistance to the formulation of employee stock ownership plans providing for the partial or total acquisition, through purchase, distribution in lieu of compensation, or a combination of these means or any other lawful means, of shares of stock or other instruments of equity in facilities by persons employed at these facilities in cases in which operations at these facilities would, absent employee equity ownership, be terminated, relocated outside of the state, or so reduced in volume as to entail the permanent layoff of a substantial number of the employees.

(2) In conducting its study, the department shall:

(a) Consider federal and state law relating directly or indirectly to plans proposed under subsection (1) of this section, and to the organization and operation of any trusts established pursuant to the plans, including but not limited to, the federal internal revenue code and any regulations promulgated under the internal revenue code, the federal securities act of 1933 as amended and other federal statutes providing for regulation of the issuance of securities, the federal employee retirement income and security act of 1974 as amended, the Chrysler loan guarantee legislation enacted by the United States congress in 1979, and other federal and state laws relating to employment, compensation, taxation, and retirement;

(b) Consult with relevant persons in the public sector, relevant persons in the private sector, including trustees of any existing employee stock ownership trust, and employees of any firm operating under an employee stock ownership trust, and with members of the academic community and of relevant branches of the legal profession;

(c) Examine the experience of trusts organized pursuant to an employee stock ownership plan in this state or in any other state; and

(d) Make other investigations as it may deem necessary in carrying out the purposes of this section.

(3) Pursuant to the findings and conclusions of the study conducted under subsection (2) of this section, the department of community development shall develop a plan to encourage and assist the formulation of employee stock ownership plans providing for the acquisition of stock by employees of facilities in this state which are subject to closure or drastically curtailed operation. The department shall determine the amount of any costs of implementing the plan.

(4) The director of community development shall, within one year of July 28, 1985, report the findings and conclusion of the study, together with details of the plan developed pursuant to the study, to the legislature, and shall include in the report any recommendations for legislation which the director deems appropriate. ~~((Beginning in 1987, the director shall annually submit to the legislature a report concerning the formation of new employee stock ownership trusts and the operation of existing employee stock ownership trusts in this state, and shall include in the report an account of state activity, during the previous year, in connection with these trusts.))~~

(5) The department of community development shall carry out its duties under this section using available resources.

Sec. 35. Section 43.88.090, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 3, chapter 247, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.88.090 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(3) ((Each agency shall submit to the office of financial management a report by September 15 of each odd-numbered year on its performance toward the goals and objectives established for the previous fiscal biennium and the goals and objectives established for the current fiscal biennium. Copies of the reports shall be transmitted by the office of financial management to the standing committees on ways and means of the house of representatives and senate and the legislative budget committee by December 31 of each odd-numbered year.~~

~~(4))~~ In the year of the gubernatorial election, the governor shall invite the governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee to attend all hearings provided in RCW 43.88.100; and the governor shall furnish the governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee with such information as will enable the governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee to gain an understanding of the state's budget requirements. The governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee may ask such questions during the hearings and require such information as the governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee deems necessary and may make recommendations in connection with any item of the budget which, with the governor-elect's reasons therefor, shall be presented to the legislature in writing with the budget document. Copies of all such estimates and other required information shall also be submitted to the standing committees on ways and means of the house and senate.

Sec. 36. Section 11, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 5, chapter 215, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.88.160 are each amended to read as follows:

This section sets forth the major fiscal duties and responsibilities of officers and agencies of the executive branch. The regulations issued by the governor pursuant to this chapter shall provide for a comprehensive, orderly basis for fiscal management and control, including efficient accounting and reporting therefor, for the executive branch of the state government and may include, in addition, such requirements as will generally promote more efficient public management in the state.

(1) Governor; director of financial management. The governor, through the director of financial management, shall devise and supervise a modern and complete accounting system for each agency to the end that all revenues, expenditures, receipts, disbursements, resources and obligations of the state shall be properly and systematically accounted for. The accounting system shall include the development of accurate, timely records and reports of all financial affairs of the state. The system shall also provide for central accounts in the office of financial management at the level of detail deemed necessary by the director to perform central financial management. The director of financial management shall adopt and periodically update an accounting procedures manual. Any agency maintaining its own accounting and reporting system shall comply with the updated accounting procedures manual and the rules of the director adopted under this chapter. An agency may receive a waiver from complying with this requirement if the waiver is approved by the director. Waivers expire at the end of the fiscal biennium for which they are granted. The director shall forward notice of waivers granted to the legislative fiscal committees. The director of financial management may require such financial, statistical, and other reports as the director deems necessary from all agencies covering any period.

The director of financial management is responsible for quarterly reporting of primary budget drivers such as applicable workloads, caseload estimates, and appropriate unit cost data. These reports shall be transmitted to the legislative fiscal committees or by electronic means to the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee. Quarterly reports shall include actual monthly data and the variance between actual and estimated data to date. The reports shall also include estimates of these items for the remainder of the budget period.

In addition, the director of financial management, as agent of the governor, shall:

(a) Make surveys and analyses of agencies with the object of determining better methods and increased effectiveness in the use of manpower and materials; and the director shall authorize expenditures for employee training to the end that the state may benefit from training facilities made available to state employees;

(b) Report to the governor with regard to duplication of effort or lack of coordination among agencies;

(c) Review any pay and classification plans, and changes thereunder, developed by any agency for their fiscal impact: PROVIDED, That none of the provisions of this subsection shall affect merit systems of personnel management now existing or hereafter established by statute relating to the fixing of qualifications requirements for recruitment, appointment, or promotion of employees of any agency. The director shall advise and confer with agencies including appropriate standing committees of the legislature as may be designated by the speaker of the house and the president of the senate regarding the fiscal impact of such plans and may amend or alter said plans, except that for the following agencies no amendment or alteration of said plans may be made without the approval of the agency concerned: Agencies headed by elective officials;

(d) Fix the number and classes of positions or authorized man years of employment for each agency and during the fiscal period amend the determinations previously fixed by the director except that the director shall not be empowered to fix said number or said classes for the following: Agencies headed by elective officials;

(e) Provide for transfers and repayments between the budget stabilization account and the general fund as directed by appropriation and RCW 43.88.525 through 43.88.540;

(f) Promulgate regulations to effectuate provisions contained in subsections (a) through (e) hereof.

(2) The treasurer shall:

(a) Receive, keep and disburse all public funds of the state not expressly required by law to be received, kept and disbursed by some other persons: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not apply to those public funds of the institutions of higher learning which are not subject to appropriation;

(b) Disburse public funds under the treasurer's supervision or custody by warrant or check;

(c) Keep a correct and current account of all moneys received and disbursed by the treasurer, classified by fund or account;

(d) Perform such other duties as may be required by law or by regulations issued pursuant to this law.

It shall be unlawful for the treasurer to issue any warrant or check for public funds in the treasury except upon forms duly prescribed by the director of financial management. Said forms shall provide for authentication and certification by the agency head or ~~((his))~~ the agency head's designee that the services have been rendered or the materials have been furnished; or, in the case of payments for periodic maintenance services to be performed on state owned equipment, that a written contract for such periodic maintenance services is currently in effect and copies thereof are on file with the office of financial management; and the treasurer shall not be liable under the treasurer's surety bond for erroneous or improper payments so made: PROVIDED, That when services are lawfully paid for in advance of full performance by any private individual or business entity other than as provided for by RCW 42.24.035, such individual or entity other than central stores rendering such services shall make a cash deposit or furnish surety bond coverage to the state as shall be fixed in an amount by law, or if not fixed by law, then in such amounts as shall be fixed by the director of the department of general administration but in no case shall such required cash deposit or surety bond be less than an amount which will fully indemnify the state against any and all losses on account of breach of promise to fully perform such services: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That no payments shall be made in advance for any equipment maintenance services to be performed more than three months after such payment. Any such bond so furnished shall be conditioned that the person, firm or corporation receiving the advance payment will apply it toward performance of the contract. The responsibility for recovery of erroneous or improper payments made under this section shall lie with the agency head or the agency head's designee in accordance with regulations issued pursuant to this chapter.

(3) The state auditor shall:

(b) Give information to the legislature, whenever required, upon any subject relating to the financial affairs of the state.

(c) Make the auditor's official report on or before the thirty-first of December which precedes the meeting of the legislature. The report shall be for the last complete fiscal period and shall include at least the following:

Determinations as to whether agencies, in making expenditures, complied with the laws of this state: PROVIDED, That nothing in this act shall be construed to grant the state auditor the right to perform performance audits. A performance audit for the purpose of this act shall be the examination of the effectiveness of the administration, its efficiency and its adequacy in terms of the programs of departments or agencies as previously approved by the legislature. The authority and responsibility to conduct such an examination shall be vested in the legislative budget committee as prescribed in RCW 44.28.085 as now or hereafter amended.

(d) Be empowered to take exception to specific expenditures that have been incurred by any agency or to take exception to other practices related in any way to the agency's financial transactions and to cause such exceptions to be made a matter of public record, including disclosure to the agency concerned and to the director of financial management. It shall be the duty of the director of financial management to cause corrective action to be taken promptly, such action to include, as appropriate, the withholding of funds as provided in RCW 43.88.110.

(e) Promptly report any irregularities to the attorney general.

(4) The legislative budget committee may:

(a) Make post audits of the financial transactions of any agency and management surveys and program reviews as provided for in RCW 44.28.085 as now or hereafter amended. To this end the committee may in its discretion examine the books, accounts, and other records of any agency, official, or employee.

(b) Give information to the legislature or any legislative committee whenever required upon any subject relating to the performance and management of state agencies.

(c) Make a report to the legislature which shall include at least the following:

(i) Determinations as to the extent to which agencies in making expenditures have complied with the will of the legislature and in this connection, may take exception to specific expenditures or financial practices of any agencies; and

(ii) Such plans as it deems expedient for the support of the state's credit, for lessening expenditures, for promoting frugality and economy in agency affairs and generally for an improved level of fiscal management.

Sec. 37. Section 3, chapter 23, Laws of 1977 as amended by section 144, chapter 151, Laws of 1979 and RCW 43.88.510 are each amended to read as follows:

Not later than ninety days after the beginning of each biennium, the director of financial management shall submit the compiled list of boards, commissions, councils, and committees, together with the information on each such group, that is required by RCW 43.88.505 to:

(1) The speaker of the house and the president of the senate for distribution to the appropriate standing committees, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees; ~~((and))~~

(2) The chair of the legislative budget committee, including a copy to the staff of the committee;

(3) The chairs of the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives; and

(4) Members of the state government committee of the house of representatives and of the governmental operations committee of the senate, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees.

Sec. 38. Section 9, chapter 4, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 2, chapter 261, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.121.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to RCW 40.07.040, the council shall report (~~(annually)~~) biennially to the governor and to the legislature concerning the council's activities and the effectiveness of those activities in fostering the prevention of child abuse and neglect.

Sec. 39. Section 6, chapter 11, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 110, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.150.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is created the Washington state council on voluntary action to assist the governor and the center in the accomplishment of its mission.

(2) Giving due consideration to geographic representation, the governor shall appoint the members of the council as provided in this section.

(3) The governor shall appoint a chair for the council.

(4) The advisory council shall have an odd number of members, including its chair, appointed or reappointed for three-year terms, with a total membership of no less than fifteen and no more than twenty-one.

(5) Members of the council shall upon request be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(6) The council and its members shall:

(a) Advise the governor as ~~(he)~~ the governor may request and direct;

(b) Propose, review, and evaluate activities and programs of the center and, to the degree practical, advocate decentralization of the center's activities, facilitate but not require or hinder existing local volunteer services, and not advocate the replacement of needed paid staff with volunteers; and

(c) Represent the governor and the center on such occasions and in such manner as the governor may from time to time provide ~~(-and~~

~~(d) Deliver to the governor and the legislature on the 15th of December of each year a report outlining the scope and nature of volunteer activities in the state, assessing the need and potential for volunteer activities in the state, identifying and recognizing significant accomplishments and services of individual volunteers and volunteer programs, and making such recommendations as the council determines by majority vote).~~

Sec. 40. Section 12, chapter 446, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.155.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) To qualify for loans or pledges under this chapter the board must determine that a local government meets all of the following conditions:

(a) The city or county must be imposing a tax under chapter 82.46 RCW at a rate of at least one-quarter of one percent;

(b) The local government must have developed a long-term plan for financing public works needs; and

(c) The local government must be using all local revenue sources which are reasonably available for funding public works, taking into consideration local employment and economic factors.

(2) The board shall develop a priority process for public works projects as provided in this section. The intent of the priority process is to maximize the value of public works projects accomplished with assistance under this chapter. The board shall attempt to assure a geographical balance in assigning priorities to projects. The board shall consider at least the following factors in assigning a priority to a project:

(a) Whether the local government receiving assistance has experienced severe fiscal distress resulting from natural disaster or emergency public works needs;

(b) Whether the project is critical in nature and would affect the health and safety of a great number of citizens;

(c) The cost of the project compared to the size of the local government and amount of loan money available;

(d) The number of communities served by or funding the project;

(e) Whether the project is located in an area of high unemployment, compared to the average state unemployment; and

(f) Other criteria that the board considers advisable.

(5) Existing debt or financial obligations of local governments shall not be refinanced under this chapter. Each local government applicant shall provide documentation of attempts to secure additional local or other sources of funding for each public works project for which financial assistance is sought under this chapter.

(6) Before November 1 of each year, the board shall develop and submit to the chairs of the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives a prioritized list of projects which are recommended for funding by the legislature, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees. The list shall include, but not be limited to, a description of each project and recommended financing, the terms and conditions of the loan or financial guarantee, the local government jurisdiction and unemployment rate, demonstration of the jurisdiction's critical need for the project and documentation of local funds being used to finance the public works project. The list shall also include measures of fiscal capacity for each jurisdiction recommended for financial assistance, compared to authorized limits and state averages, including local government sales taxes; real estate excise taxes; property taxes; and charges for or taxes on sewerage, water, garbage, and other utilities.

(7) The board shall not sign contracts or otherwise financially obligate funds from the public works assistance account before the legislature has appropriated funds for a specific list of public works projects. The legislature may remove projects from the list recommended by the board. The legislature shall not change the order of the priorities recommended for funding by the board.

The board shall keep proper records of accounts and shall be subject to audit by the state auditor. ~~((Biennial reports on the activities of the board shall be made by the chair to the governor and the legislature.))~~

Sec. 42. Section 9, chapter 40, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.160.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall keep proper records of accounts and shall be subject to audit by the state auditor. ~~((Biennial reports on the activities of the board shall be made by the chairman to the governor and the legislature.))~~

Sec. 43. Section 4, chapter 20, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 231, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.210.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The small business export finance assistance center formed under RCW 43.210.020 and 43.210.030 shall have the powers granted under chapter 24.03 RCW. In exercising such powers, the center may:

(a) Solicit and accept grants, contributions, and any other financial assistance from the federal government, federal agencies, and any other sources to carry out its purposes;

(b) Make loans to Washington businesses with annual sales of twenty-five million dollars or less for the purpose of financing exports of goods or services by those businesses to buyers in foreign countries. Loans by the small business export finance assistance center under this chapter shall not compete with nor be a substitute for available loans by a bank or other financial institution and shall only be considered upon a financial institution's assurance that such loan is not available;

(c) Provide loan guarantees on loans made by financial institutions to businesses with annual sales of one hundred million dollars or less for the purpose of financing exports of goods or services by those businesses to buyers in foreign countries;

(d) Establish and regulate the terms and conditions of any such loans and loan guarantees and charges for interest and services connected therewith;

(e) Provide export financial counseling to Washington exporters with annual sales of one hundred million dollars or less, provided that such counseling is not available from a Washington for-profit business. For such counseling, the center may charge such fees as it determines are necessary.

(f) Contract with the federal government and its agencies to become a program administrator for federally provided country risk insurance programs and for the purposes of this chapter; and

(g) Take whatever action may be necessary to accomplish the purposes set forth in this chapter.

(2) The center may not use any Washington state funds or funds which come from the public treasury of the state of Washington to make loans or to make any payment under a loan guarantee agreement. Under no circumstances may the center use any funds received under RCW 43.210.050 to make or assist in making any loan or to pay or assist in paying any amount under a loan guarantee agreement. Debts of the center shall be center debts only and may be satisfied only from the resources of the center. The state of Washington shall not in any way be liable for such debts.

(3) The small business export finance assistance center shall make every effort to seek nonstate funds for its continued operation ~~((and shall report to the governor and legislature each January 1st on the amounts it has secured from nonstate funding sources)).~~

(4) The small business export finance assistance center may receive such gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of the small business export finance assistance center and expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments.

Sec. 44. Section 6, chapter 40, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.220.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each state department identified in RCW 43.220.020 shall have the following powers and duties to carry out its functions relative to the Washington conservation corps:

(a) Recruiting and employing staff and corps member leaders and specialists;
 (b) Adopting criteria for the selection of applicants to the program from among the enrollees of the youth employment exchange program;

(c) Executing agreements for furnishing the services of the employment conservation program to carry out conservation corps programs to any federal, state, or local public agency, any local organization as specified in this chapter in concern with the overall objectives of the conservation corps;

(d) Applying for and accepting grants or contributions of funds from any private source;

(f) Entering into agreements with community colleges within the state's community college system and other educational institutions or independent nonprofit agencies to provide special education in basic skills, including reading, writing, and mathematics for those conservation corps members who may benefit by participation in such classes. Classes shall be scheduled after corps working hours. Participation by members is not mandatory but shall be strongly encouraged. The participation shall be a primary factor in determining whether the opportunity for corps membership beyond one year shall be offered. Instruction related to the specific role of the department in resource conservation shall also be offered, either in a classroom setting or as is otherwise appropriate ~~(and~~

~~(g) Reporting annually to the governor and the legislature on the activities undertaken by the employment and conservation program in the preceding fiscal year, including a cost-effectiveness analysis of all completed, ongoing, and proposed projects).~~

(2) The assignment of corps members shall not result in the displacement of currently employed workers, including partial displacement such as reduction in hours of nonovertime work, wages, or other employment benefits. Supervising agencies that participate in the program may not terminate, lay-off, or reduce the working hours of any employee for the purpose of using a corps member with available funds. In circumstances where substantial efficiencies or a public purpose may result, supervising agencies may use corps members to carry out essential agency work or contractual functions without displacing current employees.

(3) Facilities, supplies, instruments, and tools of the supervising agency shall be made available for use by the conservation corps to the extent that such use does not conflict with the normal duties of the agency. The agency may purchase, rent, or otherwise acquire other necessary tools, facilities, supplies, and instruments.

Sec. 45. Section 6, chapter 43, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 16, chapter 293, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 44.28.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee shall have the power to make reports from time to time to the members of the legislature and to the public with respect to any of its findings or recommendations. The committee shall keep complete minutes of its meetings. ~~(The committee shall make and distribute its final report to the members of the ensuing legislature at least ten days prior to the convening of the legislature.)~~

Sec. 46. Section 10, chapter 373, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 44.48.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee shall have the power to make reports to the legislature. The committee shall keep complete minutes of its meetings. ~~(The committee shall make and distribute its final report to the members of the ensuing legislature at least ten days prior to the convening of the legislature.)~~

Sec. 47. Section 3, chapter 212, Laws of 1982 and RCW 46.23.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of licensing shall report ~~(annually by October first)~~ biennially to the ~~(legislative transportation committee)~~ chairs of the transportation committees of the senate and house of representatives, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, on its progress in entering into the nonresident violators compact and in attaining similar agreements with British Columbia and other nonmember states.

Sec. 48. Section 10, chapter 151, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 30, chapter 53, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.01.101 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary shall have the authority and it shall be his or her duty, subject to policy guidance from the commission:

(1) To serve as chief executive officer of the department with full administrative authority to direct all its activities;

(2) To organize the department as he or she may deem necessary to carry out the work and responsibilities of the department effectively;

(3) To designate and establish such transportation district or branch offices as may be necessary or convenient, and to appoint assistants and delegate any powers, duties, and functions to them or any officer or employee of the department as deemed necessary to administer the department efficiently;

(4) To direct and coordinate the programs of the various divisions of the department to assure that they achieve the greatest possible mutual benefit, produce a balanced overall effort, and eliminate unnecessary duplication of activity;

(5) To adopt all department rules that are subject to the adoption procedures contained in the state administrative procedure act, except rules subject to adoption by the commission pursuant to statute;

(6) To maintain and safeguard the official records of the department, including the commission's recorded resolutions and orders;

(7) To provide full staff support to the commission to assist it in carrying out its functions, powers, and duties and to execute the policy established by the commission pursuant to its legislative authority;

(8) To execute and implement the biennial operating budget for the operation of the department in accordance with chapter 43.88 RCW and with legislative appropriation and, in such manner as prescribed therein, to make and report to the commission and the ((legislature)) chairs of the transportation committees of the senate and house of representatives, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, deviations from the planned biennial category A highway construction program necessary to adjust to unexpected delays or other unanticipated circumstances.

(9) To exercise all other powers and perform all other duties as are now or hereafter provided by law.

Sec. 49. Section 1, chapter 12, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 75, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 47.01.141 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall submit ((an annual)) a biennial report to the governor and ((legislature)) chairs of the transportation committees of the senate and house of representatives with a copy to the staff of each of the committees, including but not limited to operational and construction activities of the preceding fiscal ((year)) period as the department deems important and recommendations for future operations of the department.

Sec. 50. Section 1, chapter 130, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 122, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.021 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The transportation commission is hereby directed to conduct periodic analyses of the entire state highway system, report thereon to the ((legislature)) chairs of the transportation committees of the senate and house of representatives, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, biennially and based thereon, to subdivide, classify, and subclassify according to their function and importance all designated state highways and those added from time to time and periodically review and revise the classifications into the following three functional classes:

(a) The 'principal arterial system' shall consist of a connected network of rural arterial routes with appropriate extensions into and through urban areas, including all routes designated as part of the interstate system, which serve corridor movements having travel characteristics indicative of substantial state-wide and interstate travel;

(b) The 'minor arterial system' shall, in conjunction with the principal arterial system, form a rural network of arterial routes linking cities and other activity centers which generate long distance travel, and, with appropriate extensions into and through urban areas, form an integrated network providing interstate and interregional service; and

(c) The 'collector system' shall consist of routes which primarily serve the more important intercounty, intracounty, and intraurban travel corridors, collect traffic from the system of local access roads and convey it to the arterial system, and on which, regardless of traffic volume, the predominant travel distances are shorter than on arterial routes.

(2) Those state highways which perform no arterial or collector function, which serve only local access functions, and which lack essential state highway characteristics shall be designated 'local access' highways.

(3) In making the functional classification the transportation commission shall adopt and give consideration to criteria consistent with this section and federal regulations relating to the functional classification of highways, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Urban population centers within and without the state stratified and ranked according to size;

(b) Important traffic generating economic activities, including but not limited to recreation, agriculture, government, business, and industry;

(c) Feasibility of the route, including availability of alternate routes within and without the state;

(d) Directness of travel and distance between points of economic importance;

(e) Length of trips;

(f) Character and volume of traffic;

(g) Preferential consideration for multiple service which shall include public transportation;

(h) Reasonable spacing depending upon population density; and

(i) System continuity.

Sec. 51. Section 22, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 155, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 47.26.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The urban arterial board shall:

(1) Adopt rules necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter relating to the allocation of funds in the urban arterial trust account of the motor vehicle fund to counties and cities;

(2) Adopt reasonably uniform design standards for city and county arterials that meet the requirements for urban development;

(3) Report biennially on the first day of November of the even-numbered years to the department ~~(:)~~ and to the ~~(legislative transportation committee and the)~~ chairs of the house and senate transportation committees, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, regarding progress of cities and counties in developing long-range plans for their urban arterial construction and programming or urban arterial construction work and the allocation of urban arterial trust funds to the cities and counties.

Sec. 52. Section 9, chapter 9, Laws of 1961 ex. sess. as amended by section 332, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 47.60.470 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall periodically report to the ~~(legislative transportation committee)~~ chairs of the transportation committees of the senate and house of representatives, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, its plans and progress relating to the financing and refinancing of the Washington state ferries and Hood Canal bridge, including the issuance of bonds authorized by RCW 47.60.400 through 47.60.470, to the end that the committee may be informed of plans which may affect its recommendations to the legislature.

Sec. 53. Section .02.17, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 69, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 48.02.170 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner shall, as soon as accurate preparation enables, ~~((transmit to the legislature))~~ prepare a report of his official transactions during the preceding fiscal year, containing ~~((recommendations for amendment of this code and))~~ information ~~((and recommendations))~~ relative to insurance as ~~(he)~~ the commissioner deems proper.

Sec. 54. Section 7, chapter 296, Laws of 1986 and RCW 48.02.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section:

(a) 'Organization' means every insurer, as defined in RCW 48.01.050, having a certificate of authority to do business in this state and every health care service contractor registered to do business in this state. 'Class one' organizations shall consist of all insurers as defined in RCW 48.01.050. 'Class two' organizations shall consist of all organizations registered under provisions of chapter 48.44 RCW.

(b) 'Receipts' means (i) net direct premiums consisting of direct gross premiums, as defined in RCW 48.18.170, paid for insurance written or renewed upon risks or property resident, situated, or to be performed in this state, less return premiums and premiums on policies not taken, dividends paid or credited to policyholders on direct business, and premiums received from policies or contracts issued in connection with qualified plans as defined in RCW 48.14.021, and (ii) prepayments to health care service contractors as set forth in RCW 48.44.010(3) less experience rating credits, dividends, prepayments returned to subscribers, and payments for contracts not taken.

(2) The annual cost of operating the office of insurance commissioner shall be determined by legislative appropriation. A pro rata share of the cost shall be charged to all organizations. Each class of organization shall contribute sufficient in fees to the insurance commissioner's regulatory account to pay the reasonable costs, including overhead, of regulating that class of organization.

(3) Fees charged shall be calculated separately for each class of organization. The fee charged each organization shall be that portion of the cost of operating the insurance commissioner's office, for that class of organization, for the ensuing fiscal year that is represented by the organization's portion of the receipts collected or received by all organizations within that class on business in this state during the previous calendar year: PROVIDED, That the fee shall not exceed one-eighth of one percent of receipts: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the minimum fee shall be one thousand dollars.

(4) The commissioner shall annually, on or before June 1, calculate and bill each organization for the amount of its fee. Fees shall be due and payable no later than June 15 of each year: PROVIDED, That if the necessary financial records are not available or if the amount of the legislative appropriation is not determined in time to carry out such calculations and bill such fees within the time specified, the commissioner may use the fee factors for the prior year as the basis for the fees and, if necessary, the commissioner may impose supplemental fees to fully and properly charge the organizations. The penalties for failure to pay fees when due shall be the same as the penalties for failure to pay taxes pursuant to RCW 48.14.060. The fees required by this section are in addition to all other taxes and fees now imposed or that may be subsequently imposed. ~~((The commissioner shall report fees to the legislative committees responsible for insurance and appropriations concurrent with notification to the organizations.))~~

(5) All moneys collected shall be deposited in the insurance commissioner's regulatory account in the state treasury which is hereby created.

(6) Unexpended funds in the insurance commissioner's regulatory account at the close of a fiscal year shall be carried forward in the insurance commissioner's regulatory account to the succeeding fiscal year and shall be used to reduce future fees.

Sec. 55. Section 7, chapter 270, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 8, chapter 185, Laws of 1985 and RCW 49.60.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to RCW 40.07.040, the commission, ((at the close of each fiscal year)) each biennium, shall report to the governor, describing the investigations, proceedings, and hearings it has conducted and their outcome, the decisions it has rendered, the recommendations it has issued, and the other work performed by it, and shall make such recommendations for further legislation as may appear desirable. The commission may present its reports to the legislature; the commission's reports shall be made available upon request.

Sec. 56. Section 72, chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. as last amended by section 79, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 66.08.028 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall, from time to time, make reports to the governor covering such matters in connection with the administration and enforcement of this title as ~~((he))~~ the governor may require, and, subject to RCW 40.07.040, the board shall prepare and forward to the governor ~~((annually))~~ biennially, to be laid before the legislature, a report for the fiscal ~~((year))~~ period containing:

(1) A financial statement and balance sheet showing in general the condition of the business and its operation during the year;

(2) A summary of all prosecutions for infractions and the results thereof;

(3) General information and remarks; and

(4) Any further information requested by the governor.

Sec. 57. Section 5, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 21, chapter 158, Laws of 1986 and RCW 67.70.050 are each amended to read as follows:

There is created the office of director of the state lottery. The director shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate. The director shall serve at the pleasure of the governor and shall receive such salary as is determined by the governor, but in no case may the director's salary be more than ninety percent of the salary of the governor. The director shall:

(1) Supervise and administer the operation of the lottery in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and with the rules of the commission.

(2) Appoint such deputy and assistant directors as may be required to carry out the functions and duties of his office: PROVIDED, That the provisions of the state civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW, shall not apply to such deputy and assistant directors.

(3) Appoint such professional, technical, and clerical assistants and employees as may be necessary to perform the duties imposed by this chapter: PROVIDED, That the provisions of the state civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW, shall not apply to such employees as are engaged in undercover audit or investigative work or security operations but shall apply to other employees appointed by the director, except as provided for in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) Confer regularly as necessary or desirable with the commission on the operation and administration of the lottery; make available for inspection by the commission, upon request, all books, records, files, and other information and documents of the lottery; and advise the commission and recommend such matters as ~~((he))~~ the director deems necessary and advisable to improve the operation and administration of the lottery.

(6) Subject to the applicable laws relating to public contracts, enter into contracts for the operation of the lottery, or any part thereof, and into contracts for the promotion of the lottery. No contract awarded or entered into by the director may be assigned by the holder thereof except by specific approval of the commission: PROVIDED, That nothing in this chapter authorizes the director to enter into public contracts for the regular and permanent administration of the lottery after the initial development and implementation.

(7) Certify quarterly to the state treasurer and the commission a full and complete statement of lottery revenues, prize disbursements, and other expenses for the preceding quarter.

~~(8) ((Publish quarterly reports showing the total lottery revenues, prize disbursements, and other expenses for the preceding quarter, and make an annual report, which shall include a full and complete statement of lottery revenues, prize disbursements, and other expenses, to the governor and the legislature, and including such recommendations for changes in this chapter as the director deems necessary or desirable.~~

~~(9))~~ Report immediately to the governor and the legislature any matters which require immediate changes in the laws of this state in order to prevent abuses and evasions of this chapter or rules promulgated thereunder or to rectify undesirable conditions in connection with the administration or operation of the lottery.

((+9)) (9) Carry on a continuous study and investigation of the lottery throughout the state: (a) For the purpose of ascertaining any defects in this chapter or in the rules issued thereunder by reason whereof any abuses in the administration and operation of the lottery or any evasion of this chapter or the rules may arise or be practiced, (b) for the purpose of formulating recommendations for changes in this chapter and the rules promulgated thereunder to prevent such abuses and evasions, (c) to guard against the use of this chapter and the rules issued thereunder as a cloak for the carrying on of professional gambling and crime, and (d) to insure that this chapter and rules shall be in such form and be so administered as to serve the true purposes of this chapter.

((+10)) (10) Make a continuous study and investigation of: (a) The operation and the administration of similar laws which may be in effect in other states or countries, (b) any literature on the subject which from time to time may be published or available, (c) any federal laws which may affect the operation of the lottery, and (d) the reaction of the citizens of this state to existing and potential features of the lottery with a view to recommending or effecting changes that will tend to serve the purposes of this chapter.

((+12)) (12) Perform all other matters and things necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 58. Section 14, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 288, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.39.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to RCW 40.07.040, the commission shall prepare and~~(-prior to each legislative session beginning in January;)~~ transmit each biennium to the governor and to the legislature ~~((an annual))~~ a report of commission operations and activities for the preceding fiscal ~~((year))~~ period. This report shall include such findings and recommendations as the commission believes will further the legislative goal of cost containment in the delivery of good quality health care services, including cost-containment programs that have been or might be adopted, and issues of access to good quality care. The report shall also include data on the amount and proportion of charity care provided by each hospital. The commission's report for 1986, to be submitted in January 1987, shall include an analysis of the impacts of RCW 70.39.165 on (1) the use by indigent persons of health care settings other than hospitals and (2) the case-loads and costs associated with the limited casualty program for medical indigents under RCW 74.09.700. The department of social and health services and the health systems agencies established under chapter 70.38 RCW shall provide such information and assistance as the commission may reasonably require in preparing the report on the impact of RCW 70.39.165.

Sec. 59. Section 6, chapter 316, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 118, Laws of 1986 and RCW 70.48.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any funds allocated to a governing unit for jail construction or renovation pursuant to this chapter shall constitute full funding of the cost of implementing the physical plant standards within the meaning of RCW 70.48.070(2). Jail construction or renovation represents the full extent of the state's financial commitment with regard to jails. Local governing units are responsible for funding all costs of operating jails.

(2) As a condition of eligibility for such financial assistance as may be provided by or through the state of Washington exclusively for the construction and/or modernization of jails, all jail construction and/or substantial remodeling projects shall be submitted by the governing unit to the board which shall review all submitted projects in accordance with rules to be adopted by the board and shall approve or reject each project for purposes of state funding. The board shall allocate available funding to the projects approved for funding in accordance with moneys actually available and the priorities established by the board under this section.

(3) The rules to be adopted by the board for purposes of approving or denying requests for state funds for jail construction or remodeling shall:

(i) Limit state funding to the minimum amount required to fully implement the physical plant standards;

(ii) Encourage the voluntary consolidation of jail facilities and programs of contiguous governing units where feasible: PROVIDED, That such consolidation is approved by all participating governing units: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the board may fund the minimum cost of approved remodeling of an existing county jail facility to be operated as a holding facility in the future when that county is a party to a multi-county consolidation agreement which meets the requirements of RCW 70.48.090, the cost of such holding facility remodeling project(s) and of the consolidated correctional facility project does not exceed the established maximum budgets for current detention and/or correctional facility projects of those governing units, and approval of such a revised concept maximizes the beds to be provided while maintaining or reducing the construction costs;

(iii) Insure that each governing unit or consolidation of governing units applying for state funds under this chapter has submitted a plan which demonstrates that pretrial and posttrial alternatives to incarceration are being considered within the governmental unit;

(iv) Establish criteria and procedures for setting priorities among the projects approved for state funding for purposes of allocating state funds actually available; and

(v) Establish procedures for the submission, review, and approval or denial of projects submitted and appeals from adverse determinations, including time periods applicable thereto.

(4) The board shall review all submitted projects with the office of financial management and the office of financial management shall provide technical assistance to the board for purposes of insuring the accuracy of statistical information to be used by the board in determining projects to be funded.

(5) The board shall oversee approved construction and remodeling to the extent necessary to assure compliance with the standards adopted and approved pursuant to RCW 70.48.050(5).

(6) The board shall develop estimates of the costs of the capital construction grants for each biennium required under the provisions of this chapter. The estimates shall be submitted to the office of financial management consistent with the provisions of chapter 43.88 RCW and the office of financial management shall review and approve or disapprove within thirty days.

~~((7) The board and the office of financial management shall jointly report to the legislature on or before the convening of a regular session as to the projects approved for funding, construction status of such projects, funds expended and encumbered to date, and updated population and incarceration statistics.~~

~~((8) The board shall examine, and by December 1, 1980, present to the legislature recommendations relating to detention and correctional services, including the formulation of the role of state and local governing units regarding detention and correctional facilities.))~~

Sec. 60. Section 4, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 120, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.94.053 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In each county of the state there is hereby created an air pollution control authority, which shall bear the name of the county within which it is located. The boundaries of each authority shall be coextensive with the boundaries of the county within which it is located. An authority shall include all incorporated and unincorporated areas of the county within which it is located.

(2) All authorities which are presently or may hereafter be within counties of the first class, class A or class AA, are hereby designated as activated authorities and shall carry out the duties and exercise the powers provided in this chapter. Those authorities hereby activated which encompass contiguous counties located in one or the other of the two major areas determined in RCW 70.94.011 are declared to be and directed to function as a multicounty authority.

(3) Except as provided in RCW 70.94.232, all other air pollution control authorities are hereby designated as inactive authorities.

(4) The boards of those authorities designated as activated authorities by this chapter shall be comprised of such appointees and/or county commissioners as is provided in RCW 70.94.100. The first meeting of the boards of those authorities designated as activated authorities by this chapter shall be on or before sixty days after June 8, 1967.

(5) The state board and the department of social and health services are directed to conduct the necessary evaluations and delineate appropriate air pollution regions throughout the state, taking into consideration:

(a) The natural climatic and topographic features affecting the potential for buildup of air contaminant concentrations.

(b) The degree of urbanization and industrialization and the existence of activities which are likely to cause air pollution.

(c) The county boundaries as related to the air pollution regions and the practicality of administering air pollution control programs.

~~((The state board and the department are directed to report to the 1969 and succeeding legislative sessions with respect to the further need for activating or combining air pollution control authorities.))~~

Sec. 61. Section 6, chapter 277, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 5, chapter 456, Laws of 1985 and RCW 70.94.820 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology shall maintain a program of periodic monitoring of acid rain deposition and lake, stream, and soil acidification to ensure early detection of acidification and environmental degradation.

~~((A report on changes in acid deposition and lake, stream, and soil acidification levels shall be provided to the parks and ecology committee of the senate and the environmental affairs committee of the house of representatives, prior to each legislative session.))~~

Sec. 62. Section 5, chapter 176, Laws of 1980 and RCW 70.120.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall establish and maintain in the Washington portion of the Portland-Vancouver metropolitan area not less than three ambient air monitoring devices for ozone, not less than three ambient air monitoring devices for hydrocarbons, and not less than two ambient air monitoring devices for oxides of nitrogen.

~~((The department shall report annually to the legislature regarding the effect on air quality of vehicle emission control and other air quality programs in that metropolitan area and in the Washington portion of the area as indicated by the data recorded by the monitoring devices:))~~

Sec. 63. Section 6, chapter 245, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 70.123.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to RCW 40.07.040, the department shall prepare ((an annual)) a biennial report through 1991 to the legislature which shall include but not be limited to:

(1) Data reflecting the geographic incidence of domestic violence in the state, indicating the number of cases officially reported as well as an assessment of the degree of unreported cases;

(2) The number of persons and relevant statistical data, where possible, of persons treated or assisted by shelters receiving state funds; and

(3) A listing of potential and feasible prevention efforts, the estimated cost of providing the prevention services, and the projected benefits of providing the services.

The department may contract, where applicable, for the information required by this section.

Sec. 64. Section 3, chapter 3, Laws of 1986 and RCW 70.146.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The water quality account is hereby created in the state treasury. Moneys in the account may be used only in a manner consistent with this chapter. Moneys deposited in the account shall be administered by the department of ecology and shall be subject to legislative appropriation. Moneys placed in the account shall include tax receipts as provided in RCW 82.24.027, 82.26.025, and 82.32.390, principal and interest from the repayment of any loans granted pursuant to this chapter, and any other moneys appropriated to the account by the legislature. All earnings from investment of balances in the water quality account, except as provided in RCW 43.84.090, shall be credited to the water quality account.

(2) The department may use or permit the use of any moneys in the account to make grants or loans to public bodies, including grants to public bodies as cost-sharing moneys in any case where federal, local, or other funds are made available on a cost-sharing basis, for water pollution control facilities and activities within the purposes of this chapter and for related administrative expenses. No more than three percent of the moneys deposited in the account may be used by the department to pay for the administration of the grant and loan program authorized by this chapter.

(3) The department shall present a progress report each biennium on the use of moneys from the account to the ~~((legislature no later than November 30th of each year))~~ chairs of the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees.

Sec. 65. Section 9, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 9, chapter 274, Laws of 1986 and RCW 71.24.155 are each amended to read as follows:

Grants shall be made by the department to counties for community mental health programs totaling not less than ninety-five percent of available resources. The department may use up to forty percent of the remaining five percent to provide community demonstration projects, including early intervention or primary prevention programs for children, and the remainder shall be for emergency needs and technical assistance under this chapter. ~~((The department shall provide a biennial accounting of the use of these funds to the ways and means committees of the senate and the house of representatives:))~~

Sec. 66. Section 72.01.320, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 163, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.01.320 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary shall examine into the conditions and needs of the several state institutions under ~~((his))~~ the secretary's control and report in writing to the governor the condition of each institution.

~~((The secretary shall also provide the governor and legislature a full report of the activities of his department each fiscal year, incorporating therein suggestions respecting legislation for the benefit of the several institutions under his control and in the interests of improved administration generally:))~~

Sec. 67. Section 19, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 72.09.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall have the following responsibilities with respect to the department of corrections:

(1) Within two years of July 1, 1981, it shall recommend such advisory standards to the legislature, the governor, and the department as it determines are necessary to: (a) Meet federal and state constitutional requirements relating to health, safety, security, and welfare of inmates and staff or specific state or federal statutory requirements; and (b) provide for the public's health, safety, and welfare. In carrying out this responsibility, the board shall consider the standards of the United States department of justice and the accreditation commission on corrections of the American corrections association and any other standards or proposals it finds appropriate. Whenever possible, these standards should discourage duplication of services by the state and local governments.

(2) The standards recommended by the board shall be advisory only and may not be enforced by the board. The board shall review and make recommendations regarding any standards which are proposed by the secretary.

~~(3) (Each year commencing in 1983, the board shall issue a report to the governor, the legislature and the department which shall contain: (a) All recommended standards which are proposed either by the board or the secretary, and the reasons for any variance therefrom with respect to adopted standards; and (b) a report on the variance (i) between its recommended standards and the standards adopted by the secretary; (ii) between its recommended standards and the performance of the department; and (iii) between the standards adopted by the secretary and the performance of the department.~~

(4)) The board shall review the development and functioning of the department's grievance procedures. The board and the secretary shall jointly visit and inspect at least once a year each state corrections institution. For institutions of less than one hundred fifty, the board may appoint one or more of its members to carry out this duty.

~~((5))~~ (4) The board may recommend advisory standards for the location, construction, and operation of all state correctional facilities and programs.

~~((6))~~ (5) The board may recommend to the governor, the legislature, and the secretary the expenditure of public funds in a manner which recognizes and advances the board's or the secretary's proposed standards.

~~((7))~~ (6) The board shall appoint an executive secretary to assist it in carrying out its functions under this chapter. As authorized by the board, the executive secretary shall hire and supervise necessary staff to assist the board in carrying out its duties. The secretary may provide any technical assistance or support which the board may request from time to time.

Sec. 68. Section 2, chapter 246, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 146, Laws of 1986 and RCW 72.33.125 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In order to provide ongoing points of contact with the handicapped individual and his or her family so that they may have a place of entry for state services and return to the community as the need may appear; to provide a link between those individuals and services of the community and state operated services so that the individuals with handicapping conditions and their families may have access to the facilities best suited to them throughout the life of the individual; to offer viable alternatives to state residential school admission; and to encourage the placement of persons from state residential schools, the secretary of social and health services or ~~(his)~~ the secretary's designee, pursuant to rules and regulations of the department, shall receive applications of persons for care, treatment, hospitalization, support, training, or rehabilitation provided by state programs or services for the handicapped. Written applications shall be submitted in accordance with the following requirements:

(a) In the case of a minor person, the application shall be made by his or her parents or by the parent, guardian, limited guardian where so authorized, person or agency legally entitled to custody, which application shall be in the form and manner required by the department; and

(b) In the case of an adult person, the application shall be made by such person, by his or her guardian, or limited guardian where so authorized, or agency legally entitled to custody, which application shall be in the form and manner required by the department.

(2) Upon receipt of the written application the secretary shall determine if the individual to receive services has a handicapping condition as defined in RCW 72.33.020 qualifying ~~((him))~~ the individual for services. In order to determine eligibility for services, the secretary may require a supporting affidavit of a physician or a clinical psychologist, or one of each profession, certifying that the individual is handicapped as herein defined.

(3) After determination of eligibility because of a handicapping condition, the secretary shall determine the necessary services to be provided for the individual. Individuals may be temporarily admitted, for a period not to exceed thirty days, to departmental residential facilities for observation prior to determination of needed services, where such observation is necessary to determine the extent and necessity of services to be provided.

(4) The secretary shall annually advise the persons specified in subsection (1) (a) or (b) of this section that they may, by application, propose program and placement alternatives for care, treatment, hospitalization, support, training, or rehabilitation of the handicapped person; PROVIDED, That current appropriations are sufficient to implement alternative services without reducing services to existing clients.

(5) Upon receipt of an application for alternative care, the secretary shall consult with the applicant and within ninety days of the application determine whether the following criteria are met:

(a) That the alternative plan proposes a less dependent program than the current services provide;

(b) That the alternative plan is appropriate under the goals and objectives of the individual program plan;

(c) That the alternative plan is not in violation of applicable state and federal law; and

(d) That necessary services can reasonably be made available.

(6) If the alternative plan meets all the criteria of subsection (5) of this section, it shall be implemented as soon as reasonable, but not later than one hundred twenty days after completion of the determination process, unless the secretary determines:

- (a) That the alternative plan is more costly than the current plan; or
- (b) Current appropriations are not sufficient to implement alternative services without reducing services to existing clients; or
- (c) The alternative plan would take precedent over other priority placements.

~~((7) The secretary shall by July 1st of each even-numbered year report to the legislature on the use of program options. The report shall include the number of persons applying for program options, the number denied and reasons, the number approved and implemented, the programs they transferred from and to, the costs and savings incurred, and the amounts and sources of funding used to finance program options services. The report shall also estimate use and funding for the next biennium:))~~

Sec. 69. Section 17, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 4, chapter 246, Laws of 1983 and RCW 74.13.031 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall have the duty to provide child welfare services as defined in RCW 74.13.020, and shall:

(1) Develop, administer, supervise, and monitor a coordinated and comprehensive plan that establishes, aids, and strengthens services for the protection and care of homeless, run-away, dependent, or neglected children.

(2) Develop a recruiting plan for recruiting an adequate number of prospective adoptive and foster homes, both regular and specialized, i.e. homes for children of ethnic minority, sibling groups, handicapped and emotionally disturbed, and annually submit the plan for review to the house and senate committees on social and health services. The plan shall include a section entitled 'Foster Home Turn-Over, Causes and Recommendations.'

(3) Investigate complaints of neglect, abuse, or abandonment of children, and on the basis of the findings of such investigation, offer child welfare services in relation to the problem to such parents, legal custodians, or persons serving in loco parentis, and/or bring the situation to the attention of an appropriate court, or another community agency: PROVIDED, That an investigation is not required of nonaccidental injuries which are clearly not the result of a lack of care or supervision by the child's parents, legal custodians, or persons serving in loco parentis. If the investigation reveals that a crime may have been committed, the department shall notify the appropriate law enforcement agency.

(4) Offer, on a voluntary basis, family reconciliation services to families who are in conflict.

(6) Have authority to accept custody of children from parents and to accept custody of children from juvenile courts, where authorized to do so under law, to provide child welfare services including placement for adoption, and to provide for the physical care of such children and make payment of maintenance costs if needed. Except where required by Public Law 95-608 (25 U.S.C. Sec. 1915), no private adoption agency which receives children for adoption from the department shall discriminate on the basis of race, creed, or color when considering applications in their placement for adoption.

(7) Have authority to provide temporary shelter to children who have run away from home and who are admitted to crisis residential centers.

(9) Establish a children's services advisory committee which shall assist the secretary in the development of a partnership plan for utilizing resources of the public and private sectors, and advise on all matters pertaining to child welfare, day care, licensing of child care agencies, and services related thereto. At least one-third of the membership shall be composed of child care providers.

(10) Have authority to provide continued foster care or group care for individuals from eighteen through twenty years of age to enable them to complete their high school or vocational school program.

Notwithstanding any other provision of RCW 13.32A.170 through 13.32A.200 and RCW 74.13.032 through 74.13.036, or of this section all services to be provided by the department of social and health services under subsections (4), (6), and (7) of this section, subject to the limitations of these subsections, may be provided by any program offering such services funded pursuant to Titles II and III of the federal juvenile justice and delinquency prevention act of 1974 (P.L. No. 93-415; 42 U.S.C. 5634 et seq.; and 42 U.S.C. 5701 note as amended by P.L. 94-273, 94-503, and 95-115).

Sec. 70. Section 82, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 11, chapter 257, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.13.036 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of social and health services shall oversee implementation of chapter 13.34 RCW and chapter 13.32A RCW. The oversight shall be comprised of working with affected parts of the criminal justice and child care systems as well as with local government, legislative, and executive authorities to effectively carry out these chapters. The department shall work with all such entities to ensure that chapters 13.32A and 13.34 RCW are implemented in a uniform manner throughout the state.

(2) The department shall, by January 1, 1986, develop a plan and procedures, in cooperation with the state-wide advisory committee, to insure the full implementation of the provisions of chapter 13.32A RCW. Such plan and procedures shall include but are not limited to:

(a) Procedures defining and delineating the role of the department and juvenile court with regard to the execution of the alternative residential placement process;

(b) Procedures for designating department staff responsible for family reconciliation services;

(c) Procedures assuring enforcement of contempt proceedings in accordance with RCW 13.32A.170 and 13.32A.250; and

(d) Procedures for the continued education of all individuals in the criminal juvenile justice and child care systems who are affected by chapter 13.32A RCW, as well as members of the legislative and executive branches of government.

The plan and procedures required under this subsection shall be submitted to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by January 1, 1986.

There shall be uniform application of the procedures developed by the department and juvenile court personnel, to the extent practicable. Local and regional differences shall be taken into consideration in the development of procedures required under this subsection.

(3) In addition to its other oversight duties, the department shall:

(a) Identify and evaluate resource needs in each region of the state;

(b) Disseminate information collected as part of the oversight process to affected groups and the general public;

(c) Educate affected entities within the juvenile justice and child care systems, local government, and the legislative branch regarding the implementation of chapters 13.32A and 13.34 RCW;

(d) Review complaints concerning the services, policies, and procedures of those entities charged with implementing chapters 13.32A and 13.34 RCW; and

(e) Report any violations and misunderstandings regarding the implementation of chapters 13.32A and 13.34 RCW.

(4) The secretary shall develop procedures in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW for addressing violations and misunderstandings concerning the implementation of chapters 13.32A and 13.34 RCW.

(5) The secretary shall submit a quarterly report to the ~~((appropriate standing committee of the house of representatives and the senate of the state of Washington and to))~~ appropriate local government entities.

(6) Where appropriate, the department shall request opinions from the attorney general regarding correct construction of these laws.

Sec. 71. Section 75.08.020, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 1, chapter 208, Laws of 1985 and RCW 75.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall investigate the habits, supply, and economic use of food fish and shellfish in state and offshore waters.

(2) The director shall make an annual report to the governor on the operation of the department and the statistics of the fishing industry.

(3) Subject to RCW 40.07.040, the director shall provide a comprehensive ((annual)) biennial report of all departmental operations to the ((legislature on or before October 30 of each year)) chairs of the committees on natural resources and ways and means of the senate and house of representatives, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, to reflect the previous fiscal ((year)) period. The format of the report shall be similar to reports issued by the department from 1964-1970 and the report shall include, but not be limited to, descriptions of all department activities including: Revenues generated, program costs, capital expenditures, personnel, special projects, new and ongoing research, environmental controls, cooperative projects, intergovernmental agreements, and outlines of ongoing litigation, recent court decisions and orders on major issues with the potential for state liability. The report shall describe the status of the resource and its recreational, commercial, and tribal utilization. The report shall be given to the house and senate committees on ways and means and the house and senate committees on natural resources and shall be made available to the public.

(4) The director, in cooperation with the director of game and the dean of the college of fisheries at the University of Washington, shall develop proposals to reinstate the natural salmon and steelhead trout fish runs in the Tilton and upper Cowlitz rivers. The proposals shall include specific recommendations for legislation and estimates of the costs of replenishing the fish runs by 1991, but shall not include alternatives to replenishing the fish runs. Proposals under this subsection shall be submitted by the director and the director of game to the legislature no later than January 1986.

Sec. 72. Section 5, chapter 458, Laws of 1985 and RCW 75.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall report to the legislature on or before October 30th of each year through 1991 on the progress and performance of each project. The report shall contain an analysis of the successes and failures of the program to enable optimum development of the program. The report shall include estimates of funding levels necessary to operate the projects in future years.

The director shall submit the reports and any additional recommendations to the chairs of the committees on ways and means and the committees on natural resources of the senate and house of representatives.

Sec. 73. Section 4, chapter 72, Laws of 1984 and RCW 75.52.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall:

(a) Encourage and support the establishment of cooperative agreements for the development and operation of cooperative food fish, shellfish, game fish, game bird, game animal, and nongame wildlife projects, and projects which provide an opportunity for volunteer groups to become involved in resource and habitat-oriented activities. All cooperative projects shall be fairly considered in the approval of cooperative agreements;

(b) Identify regions and species or activities that would be particularly suitable for cooperative projects providing benefits compatible with department goals;

(c) Determine the availability of rearing space at operating facilities or of net pens, egg boxes, portable rearing containers, incubators, and any other rearing facilities for use in cooperative projects, and allocate them to volunteer groups as fairly as possible;

(d) Exempt volunteer groups from payment of fees to the department for activities related to the project;

~~(e) ((Annually report to the legislature on accepted and rejected cooperative agreements; production, costs, and benefits of the cooperative program;~~

~~(f)) Publicize the cooperative program;~~

~~((g))~~ (f) Not substitute a new cooperative project for any part of the department's program unless mutually agreeable to the department and volunteer group;

~~((h))~~ (g) Not approve agreements that are incompatible with legally existing land, water, or property rights.

(2) The department may, when requested, provide to volunteer groups its available professional expertise and assist the volunteer group to evaluate its project.

Sec. 74. Section 5, chapter 122, Laws of 1985 and RCW 76.56.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The center shall aggressively solicit financial contributions and support from the forest products industry, federal and state agencies, and other granting sources or through other arrangements to assist in conducting its activities. Subject to RCW 40.07.040, the center shall report ((on December 1 of each year)) biennially through 1991 to the governor and the legislature on its success in obtaining funding from nonstate sources. It may also use separately appropriated funds of the University of Washington for the center's activities.

Sec. 75. Section 2, chapter 93, Laws of 1985 and RCW 77.04.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to RCW 40.07.040, the director shall provide a comprehensive ((annual)) biennial report of all departmental operations to the ((legislature on or before October 30 of each year to reflect the previous fiscal year)) chairs of the committees on ways and means and natural resources of the senate and house of representatives, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees. The report shall include, but not be limited to, descriptions of all department activities including: Revenues generated, program costs, capital expenditures, personnel, special projects, new and ongoing research, environmental controls, cooperative projects, inter-governmental agreements, and outlines of ongoing litigation, recent court decisions and orders on major issues with the potential for state liability. The report shall describe the status of the resource and its recreational and tribal utilization.

~~((The report shall be given to the house and senate committees on ways and means and the house and senate committees on natural resources and shall be made available to the public.))~~

Sec. 76. Section 196, chapter 255, Laws of 1927 as amended by section 3, chapter 93, Laws of 1985 and RCW 79.01.744 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands to report, and recommend, to each session of the legislature, any changes in the law relating to the methods of handling the public lands of the state that he may deem advisable.

(2) The commissioner of public lands shall provide a comprehensive ~~((annual))~~ biennial report ~~((to the legislature on or before October 30 of each year))~~ to reflect the previous fiscal ~~((year))~~ period. The report shall include, but not be limited to, descriptions of all department activities including: Revenues generated, program costs, capital expenditures, personnel, special projects, new and ongoing research, environmental controls, cooperative projects, inter-governmental agreements, the adopted sustainable harvest compared to the sales program, and outlines of ongoing litigation, recent court decisions and orders on major issues with the potential for state liability. The report shall describe the status of the resources managed and the recreational and commercial utilization. The report shall be given to the chairs of the house and senate committees on ways and means and the house and senate committees on natural resources, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, and shall be made available to the public.

Sec. 77. Section 80.01.090, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 91, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 80.01.090 are each amended to read as follows:

All proceedings of the commission and all documents and records in its possession shall be public records, and it shall adopt and use an official seal. Subject to RCW 40.07.040, the commission shall make and submit to the governor and the legislature ((an annual)) a biennial report containing a statement of the transactions and proceedings of its office, together with the information gathered by the commission and such other facts, suggestions, and recommendations as the governor may require or the legislature request.

Sec. 78. Section 41, chapter 450, Laws of 1985 and RCW 80.36.380 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to RCW 40.07.040, the commission shall provide the legislature with ((an annual)) a biennial report through 1991 on the status of the Washington telecommunications industry. The report shall describe the competitiveness of all markets as defined by the commission; the availability of diverse and affordable telecommunications services to all people of Washington, particularly to customers in rural or sparsely populated areas; and the level of rates for local exchange and interexchange telecommunications service. The report also shall address the question of whether competition in certain markets has developed to such an extent that the commission recommends additional regulatory flexibility such as detariffing or total deregulation and the evidence therefor; and the need for further legislation to achieve the purposes of RCW 80.36.300 through 80.36.370 and 80.04.010. The commission shall also monitor cost of service methodologies and shall recommend to the legislature whether cost of service ratemaking shall become a standard for telecommunications services.

Sec. 79. Section 1, chapter 138, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 2, chapter 112, Laws of 1986 and RCW 82.01.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall employ an economic and revenue forecast supervisor to supervise the preparation of all economic and revenue forecasts. As used in this section and RCW 82.01.125 and 82.01.130, 'supervisor' means the economic and revenue forecast supervisor. Approval by an affirmative vote of at least five members of the economic and revenue forecast council is required for any decisions regarding employment of the supervisor. Employment of the supervisor shall terminate after each term of three years, unless the supervisor is reappointed by the director and approved by the economic and revenue forecast council for another three years. The supervisor shall employ staff sufficient to accomplish the purposes of this section.

(2) Four times each year the supervisor shall prepare, subject to the approval of the economic and revenue forecast council under RCW 82.01.130(2):

- (a) An official state economic and revenue forecast;
- (b) An unofficial state economic and revenue forecast based on optimistic economic and revenue projections; and
- (c) An unofficial state economic and revenue forecast based on pessimistic economic and revenue projections.

(3) The supervisor shall submit forecasts prepared under this section, along with any unofficial forecasts provided under RCW 82.01.130(3), to the governor and the ((legislature)) members of the committees on ways and means and the chairs of the committees on transportation of the senate and house of representatives and the chair of the legislative transportation committee, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, on or before November 20th, February 20th in the even-numbered years, March 20th in the odd-numbered years, June 20th, and September 20th.

Sec. 80. Section 2, chapter 141, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.36.037 are each amended to read as follows:

Real or personal property owned by a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation in connection with the operation of a public assembly hall or meeting place is exempt from taxation. The area exempt under this section includes the building or buildings, the land under the buildings, and an additional area necessary for parking, not exceeding a total of one acre: PROVIDED, That for property essentially unimproved except for restroom facilities and structures on such property which has been used primarily for annual community celebration events for at least ten years, such exempt property shall not exceed twenty-nine acres.

To qualify for this exemption the property must be used exclusively for public gatherings and be available to all organizations or persons desiring to use the property, but the owner may impose conditions and restrictions which are necessary for the safekeeping of the property and promote the purposes of this exemption. Membership shall not be a prerequisite for the use of the property.

The use of the property for pecuniary gain or to promote business activities, except fund raising activities conducted by a nonprofit organization, nullifies the exemption otherwise available for the property for the assessment year. The exemption is not nullified by the collection of rent or donations if the amount is reasonable and does not exceed maintenance and operation expenses created by the user.

The department of revenue shall narrowly construe this exemption ~~((and shall annually report to the legislature the names of organizations receiving such property tax exemptions)).~~

Sec. 81. Section 1, chapter 166, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 46, chapter 87, Laws of 1980 and RCW 90.03.247 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever an application for a permit to make beneficial use of public waters is approved relating to a stream or other water body for which minimum flows or levels have been adopted and are in effect at the time of approval, the permit shall be conditioned to protect the levels or flows. No agency may establish minimum flows and levels or similar water flow or level restrictions for any stream or lake of the state other than the department of ecology whose authority to establish is exclusive, as provided in chapter 90.03 RCW and RCW 90.22.010 and 90.54.040. The provisions of other statutes, including but not limited to RCW 75.20.100 and chapter 43.21C RCW, may not be interpreted in a manner that is inconsistent with this section. In establishing such minimum flows, levels, or similar restrictions, the department shall, during all stages of development by the department of ecology of minimum flow proposals, consult with, and carefully consider the recommendations of, the department of fisheries, the state game commission, the state energy office, the department of agriculture, and representatives of the affected Indian tribes. Nothing herein shall preclude the department of fisheries, the game commission, the energy office, or the department of agriculture from presenting its views on minimum flow needs at any public hearing or to any person or agency, and the department of fisheries, the game commission, the energy office, and the department of agriculture are each empowered to participate in proceedings of the federal energy regulatory commission and other agencies to present its views on minimum flow needs. ~~((The department of ecology shall file with the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate on the first day of each regular session of the legislature during an odd-numbered year a report as to the implementation of its minimum flow setting program.))~~

Sec. 82. Section 10, chapter 225, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 95, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 90.54.090 are each amended to read as follows:

All agencies of state and local government, including counties and municipal and public corporations, shall, whenever possible, carry out powers vested in them in manners which are consistent with the provisions of this chapter. ~~((The director of the department of ecology shall submit a report to the legislature at least annually noting any failures by such agencies to comply with the mandate of this section, and the circumstances surrounding such failure.))~~

Sec. 83. Section 18, chapter 108, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 308, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.21G.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The governor may subject to the definitions and limitations provided in this chapter:

(a) Upon finding that an energy supply alert exists within this state or any part thereof, declare a condition of energy supply alert; or

(b) Upon finding that an energy emergency exists within this state or any part thereof, declare a condition of energy emergency. A condition of energy emergency shall terminate thirty consecutive days after the declaration of such condition if the legislature is not in session at the time of such declaration and if the governor fails to convene the legislature pursuant to Article III, section 7 of the Constitution of the state of Washington within thirty consecutive days of such declaration. If the legislature is in session or convened, in accordance with this subsection, the duration of the condition of energy emergency shall be limited in accordance with subsection (3) of this section.

Upon the declaration of a condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency, the governor shall present to the committee any proposed plans for programs, controls, standards, and priorities for the production, allocation, and consumption of energy during any current or anticipated condition of energy emergency, any proposed plans for the suspension or modification of existing rules of the Washington Administrative Code, and any other relevant matters the governor deems desirable. The governor shall review any recommendations of the committee concerning such plans and matters.

~~((The governor shall review the status of such plans annually with the house of representatives and senate standing committees on energy and utilities.))~~

Upon the declaration of a condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency, the emergency powers as set forth in this chapter shall become effective only within the area described in the declaration.

(2) A condition of energy supply alert shall terminate ninety consecutive days after the declaration of such condition unless:

(a) Extended by the governor upon issuing a finding that the energy supply alert continues to exist, and with prior approval of such an extension by the committee; or

(b) Extended by the governor based on a declaration by the president of the United States of a national state of emergency in regard to energy supply; or

(c) Upon the request of the governor, extended by declaration of the legislature by concurrent resolution of a continuing energy supply alert.

In the event any such initial extension is implemented, the condition shall terminate one hundred and fifty consecutive days after the declaration of such condition. One or more subsequent extensions may be implemented through the extension procedures set forth in this subsection. In the event any such subsequent extension is implemented, the condition shall terminate sixty consecutive days after the implementation of such extension.

(3) A condition of energy emergency shall terminate forty-five consecutive days after the declaration of such condition unless:

(a) Extended by the governor upon issuing a finding that the energy emergency continues to exist, and with prior approval of such an extension by the committee; or

(b) Extended by the governor based on a declaration by the president of the United States of a national state of emergency in regard to energy supply; or

(c) Upon the request of the governor, extended by declaration of the legislature by concurrent resolution of a continuing energy emergency.

In the event any such initial extension is implemented, the condition shall terminate ninety consecutive days after the declaration of such condition. One or more subsequent extensions may be implemented through the extension procedures set forth in this subsection. In the event any such subsequent extension is implemented, the condition shall terminate forty-five consecutive days after the implementation of such extension.

(4) A condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency shall cease to exist upon a declaration to that effect by either of the following: (a) The governor; or (b) the legislature, by concurrent resolution, if in regular or special session: PROVIDED, That the governor shall terminate a condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency when the energy supply situation upon which the declaration of a condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency was based no longer exists.

(5) In a condition of energy supply alert, the governor may, as deemed necessary to preserve and protect the public health, safety, and general welfare, and to minimize, to the fullest extent possible, the injurious economic, social, and environmental consequences of such energy supply alert, issue orders to: (a) Suspend or modify existing rules of the Washington Administrative Code of any state agency relating to the consumption of energy by such agency or to the production of energy, and (b) direct any state or local governmental agency to implement programs relating to the consumption of energy by the agency which have been developed by the governor or the agency and reviewed by the committee.

(6) In addition to the powers in subsection (5) of this section, in a condition of energy emergency, the governor may, as deemed necessary to preserve and protect the public health, safety, and general welfare, and to minimize, to the fullest extent possible, the injurious economic, social, and environmental consequences of such an emergency, issue orders to: (a) Implement programs, controls, standards, and priorities for the production, allocation, and consumption of energy; (b) suspend and modify existing pollution control standards and requirements or any other standards or requirements affecting or affected by the use of energy, including those relating to air or water quality control; and (c) establish and implement regional programs and agreements for the purposes of coordinating the energy programs and actions of the state with those of the federal government and of other states and localities.

The governor shall immediately transmit the declaration of a condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency and the findings upon which the declaration is based and any orders issued under the powers granted in this chapter to the committee.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to mean that any program, control, standard, priority or other policy created under the authority of the emergency powers authorized by this chapter shall have any continuing legal effect after the cessation of the condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency.

If any provision of this chapter is in conflict with any other provision, limitation, or restriction which is now in effect under any other law of this state, including, but not limited to, chapter 34.04 RCW, this chapter shall govern and control, and such other law or rule or regulation promulgated thereunder shall be deemed superseded for the purposes of this chapter.

Because of the emergency nature of this chapter, all actions authorized or required hereunder, or taken pursuant to any order issued by the governor, shall be exempted from any and all requirements and provisions of the state environmental policy act of 1971, chapter 43.21C RCW, including, but not limited to, the requirement for environmental impact statements.

Except as provided in this section nothing in this chapter shall exempt a person from compliance with the provisions of any other law, rule, or directive unless specifically ordered by the governor.

Sec. 84. Section 1, chapter 220, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 158, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.52.378 are each amended to read as follows:

The executive board of any operating agency constructing, operating, terminating, or decommissioning a nuclear power plant under a site certification agreement issued pursuant to chapter 80.50 RCW shall appoint an administrative auditor. The administrative auditor shall be deemed an officer under chapter 42.23 RCW. The appointment of the administrative auditor shall be in addition to the appointment of the auditor for the issuance of warrants and other purposes as provided in RCW 43.52.375. The executive board shall retain a qualified firm or firms to conduct performance audits which is in fact independent and does not have any interest, direct or indirect, in any contract with the operating agency other than its employment hereunder. No member or employee of any such firm shall be connected with the operating agency as an officer, employee, or contractor. The administrative auditor and the firm or firms shall be independently and directly responsible to the executive board of the operating agency. The executive board shall require a firm to conduct continuing audits of the methods, procedures and organization used by the operating agency to control costs, schedules, productivity, contract amendments, project design and any other topics deemed desirable by the executive board. The executive board may also require a firm to analyze particular technical aspects of the operating agency's projects and contract amendments. The firm or firms shall provide advice to the executive board in its management and control of the operating agency. At least once each year, the firm or firms shall prepare and furnish a report of its actions and recommendations to the executive board for the purpose of enabling it to attain the highest degree of efficiency in the management and control of any thermal power project under construction or in operation. The administrative auditor shall assist the firm or firms in the performance of its duties. The administrative auditor and the firm or firms shall consult regularly with the executive board and furnish any information or data to the executive board which the administrative auditor, firm, or executive board deems helpful in accomplishing the purpose above stated. The administrative auditor shall perform such other duties as the executive board shall prescribe to accomplish the purposes of this section.

~~((The operating agency shall file a copy of each firm's reports, prepared in accordance with this section, with the respective chairmen of the senate and house energy and utilities committees in a timely manner.))~~ Upon the concurrent request of the chairmen of the senate or house energy and utilities committees, the operating agency shall report to the committees on a quarterly basis.

Sec. 85. Section 2, chapter 293, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.200.142 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall monitor and evaluate the research performed by the federal department of energy that is undertaken for the purpose of determining the suitability of the Hanford candidate site for the location of a disposal facility for spent nuclear fuel and high-level radioactive waste. If the board is dissatisfied with the research performed by the federal department of energy, it shall conduct its own independent testing and evaluation activities, for which it shall seek funding from the federal government. ~~((The board shall report semiannually to the governor and the Washington state legislature on the results of research conducted under this section.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 86. A new section is added to chapter 40.06 RCW to read as follows:

Effective January 1, 1988, any state publication which is to be distributed to all members of the legislature shall be distributed solely through the state publications distribution center in the state library. The state library shall regularly issue a listing of available publications to each member of the legislature. State agencies may distribute state publications directly to individual legislators upon the request of that legislator.

This section shall not apply to internal distribution of publications produced by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 87. Section 5, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.379 are each repealed.

April 9, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 86 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 35.43 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever it is proposed that a local improvement district or utility local improvement district finance sanitary sewers or potable water facilities, additional notice of the public hearing on the proposed improvement district shall be mailed to the owners of any property located outside of the proposed improvement district that would be required as a condition of federal housing administration loan qualification, at the time of notice, to be connected to the specific sewer or water facilities installed by the local improvement district. The notice shall include information about this restriction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 35.43 RCW to read as follows:

A public hearing shall be held on the creation of a proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district that is initiated by petition. Notice requirements for this public hearing shall be the same as for the public hearing on the creation of a proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district that is initiated by resolution.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 36.94 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever it is proposed that a local improvement district or utility local improvement district finance sanitary sewers or potable water facilities, additional notice of the public hearing on the proposed improvement district shall be mailed to the owners of any property located outside of the proposed improvement district that would be required as a condition of federal housing administration loan qualification, at the time of notice, to be connected to the specific sewer or water facilities installed by the local improvement district. The notice shall include information about this restriction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 54.16 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever it is proposed that a local utility district finance sanitary sewers or potable water facilities, additional notice of the public hearing on the proposed local utility district shall be mailed to the owners of any property located outside of the proposed local utility district that would be required as a condition of federal housing administration loan qualification, at the time of notice, to be connected to the specific sewer or water facilities installed by the local utility district. The notice shall include information about this restriction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 56.20 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever it is proposed that a utility local improvement district finance sanitary sewers facilities, additional notice of the public hearing on the proposed improvement district shall be mailed to the owners of any property located outside of the proposed utility local improvement district that would be required as a condition of federal housing administration loan qualification, at the time of notice, to be connected to the specific sewer facilities installed by the utility local improvement district. The notice shall include information about this restriction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 57.16 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever it is proposed that a local improvement district or utility local improvement district finance potable water facilities, additional notice of the public hearing on the proposed improvement district shall be mailed to the owners of any property located outside of the proposed improvement district that would be required as a condition of federal housing administration loan qualification, at the time of notice, to be connected to the specific water facilities installed by the local improvement district. The notice shall include information about this restriction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 87.03 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever it is proposed that a local improvement district finance sanitary sewers or potable water facilities, additional notice of the public hearing on the proposed local improvement district shall be mailed to the owners of any property located outside of the proposed local improvement district that would be required as a condition of federal housing administration loan qualification, at the time of notice, to be connected to the specific sewer or water facilities installed by the local improvement district. SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 8, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 39 with the following amendments:

On page 6, after line 16, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The legislature finds that numerous special purpose districts for a wide range of purposes have been established throughout the state. The legislature finds that review of the authority to establish these districts is an important factor in maintaining control of the increasing number of governmental entities in this state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) The legislative budget committee in cooperation with the committee on governmental operations in the senate and the committee on local government in the house of representatives shall review the authority to establish the special purpose districts under subsection (2) of this section and make recommendations for the continuation, termination, or modification of the special purpose districts. In conducting the review, the following factors shall be considered:

- (a) The extent to which the special purpose districts have complied with legislative intent;
- (b) The extent to which the special purpose districts are operating in an efficient and economical manner which results in optimum performance;
- (c) The extent to which the special purpose districts are operating in the public interest by effectively providing a needed service that should be continued rather than modified, consolidated, or eliminated;
- (d) The extent to which the special purpose districts duplicate the activities of other special purpose districts or of the private sector, where appropriate; and
- (e) The extent to which the termination or modification of the special purpose districts would adversely affect the public health, safety, or welfare.

(2) By January 1, 1988, a schedule shall be established to review the following districts with the review completed by January 15, 1993: Aquifer protection areas under chapter 36.36 RCW; airport districts under RCW 14.08.290 through 14.08.330; cemetery districts under chapter 68.16 RCW; conservation districts under chapter 89.08 RCW; county rail districts under chapter 36.60 RCW; cultural arts, stadium, and convention districts under chapter 67.38 RCW; diking districts under chapter 85.05 RCW; diking and drainage improvement districts under chapter 85.15 RCW; diking, drainage, drainage improvement districts, and sewerage improvement districts under chapter 85.15 RCW; diking, drainage, and irrigation improvement districts under RCW 85.22.010; diking improvement districts under chapter 85.15 RCW; drainage districts under chapter 85.06 RCW; emergency medical services districts under RCW 36.32.480; ferry districts under RCW 36.54.080 through 36.54.100; fire protection districts under Title 52 RCW; flood control districts under chapter 86.09 RCW; flood control zone districts under chapter 86.15 RCW; health districts under chapter 70.46 RCW; housing authorities under chapter 35.82 RCW; intercounty diking and drainage districts under chapter 85.24 RCW; irrigation districts under Title 87 RCW; irrigation and rehabilitation districts under chapter 87.84 RCW; legal authorities under RCW 87.03.825 through 87.03.840; library districts under chapter 27.12 RCW; metropolitan municipal corporations districts under chapter 35.58 RCW; mosquito control districts under chapter 17.28 RCW; operating agencies under chapter 43.52 RCW; county park and recreation service areas under RCW 36.68.400; metropolitan park districts under chapter 35.61 RCW; park and recreation districts under chapter 36.69 RCW; pest districts under chapter 17.12 RCW; port districts under Title 53 RCW; public hospital districts under chapter 70.44 RCW; public utility districts under Title 54 RCW; public waterway districts under chapter 91.08 RCW; reclamation districts under chapter 89.30 RCW; river and harbor improvement districts under chapter 88.32 RCW; road districts under RCW 36.75.060; service districts under chapter 36.83 RCW; sewer districts under Title 56 RCW; sewerage improvement districts under chapter 85.15 RCW; solid waste collection districts under chapter 36.58A RCW; transit districts under chapters 36.57 and 36.57A RCW; television reception improvement districts under chapter 36.95 RCW; water districts under Title 57 RCW; regular weed districts under chapter 17.04 RCW; and intercounty weed districts under chapter 17.06 RCW.

(3) The recommendations shall be reported to the legislature, the special purpose districts concerned, and the state library.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. This chapter shall expire June 30, 1993.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. Sections 6 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 44 RCW."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "85.38.240;" strike "and"

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "85.38 RCW" insert "; adding a new chapter to Title 44 RCW; and providing an expiration date" and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 8, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTION HOUSE BILL NO. 130 with the following amendments:

On page 5, after line 7, insert the following:

"Sec. 4. Section 11, chapter 182, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 7, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 14.08.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) For the purposes of this section only, unless another intention clearly appears or the context requires otherwise, this state is included in the term 'municipality,' and all the powers conferred upon municipalities in this chapter, if not otherwise conferred by law, are conferred upon this state when acting jointly with any municipality or municipalities. Where reference is made to the 'governing body' of a municipality, that term means, as to the state, its secretary of transportation.

(3) Any two or more municipalities may enter into agreements with each other, duly authorized by ordinances or resolution, as may be appropriate, for joint action under this section. Concurrent action by the governing bodies of the municipalities involved constitutes joint action.

(4) Each such agreement shall specify its terms; the proportionate interest which each municipality shall have in the property, facilities, and privileges involved, and the proportion of preliminary costs, cost of acquisition, establishment, construction, enlargement, improvement, and equipment, and of expenses of maintenance, operation, and regulation to be borne by each, and make such other provisions as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. It shall provide for amendments thereof and for conditions and methods of termination; for the disposition of all or any part of the property, facilities, and privileges jointly owned if the property, facilities, and privileges, or any part thereof, cease to be used for the purposes provided in this section or if the agreement is terminated, and for the distribution of the proceeds received upon any such disposition, and of any funds or other property jointly owned and undisposed of, and the assumption or payment of any indebtedness arising from the joint venture which remains unpaid, upon any such disposition or upon a termination of the agreement.

(5) Municipalities acting jointly as authorized in this section shall create a board from the inhabitants of the municipalities for the purpose of acquiring property for, establishing, constructing, enlarging, improving, maintaining, equipping, operating, and regulating the airports and other air navigation facilities and airport protection privileges to be jointly acquired, controlled, and operated. The board shall consist of members to be appointed by the governing body of each municipality involved, the number to be appointed by each to be provided for by the agreement for the joint venture. Each member shall serve for such time and upon such terms as to compensation, if any, as may be provided for in the agreement.

(6) Each such board shall organize, select officers for terms to be fixed by the agreement, and adopt and from time to time amend rules of procedure.

(7) Such board may exercise, on behalf of the municipalities acting jointly by which it is appointed, all the powers of each of the municipalities granted by this chapter, except as provided in this section. Real property, airports, restricted landing areas, air protection privileges, or personal property costing in excess of a sum to be fixed by the joint agreement, may be acquired, and condemnation proceedings may be instituted, only by approval of the governing bodies of each of the municipalities involved. Upon the approval of the governing body, or if no approval is necessary then upon the board's own determination, such property may be acquired by private negotiation under such terms and conditions as seem just and proper to the board. The total amount of expenditures to be made by the board for any purpose in any calendar year shall be determined by the municipalities involved by the approval by each on or before the preceding December 1st, of a budget for the ensuing calendar year, which budget may be amended or supplemented by joint resolution of the municipalities involved during the calendar year for which the original budget was approved. Rules and regulations provided for by RCW 14.08.120(2) become effective only upon approval of each of the appointing governing bodies. No real property and no airport, other navigation facility, or air protection privilege, owned jointly, may be disposed of by the board by sale except by authority of all the appointing governing bodies, but the board may lease space, land area, or improvements and grant concessions on airports for aeronautical purposes, or other purposes which will not interfere with the aeronautical purposes of such airport, air navigation facility, or air protection privilege by private negotiation under such terms and conditions as seem just and proper to the board, subject to the provisions of RCW 14.08.120(4). Subject to the provisions of the agreement for the joint venture, and when it appears to the board to be in the best interests of the municipalities involved, the board may sell any personal property by private negotiations under such terms and conditions as seem just and proper to the board.

(8) Each municipality, acting jointly with another pursuant to the provisions of this section, is authorized and empowered to enact, concurrently with the other municipalities involved, such ordinances as are provided for by RCW 14.08.120(2), and to fix by such ordinances penalties for the violation thereof. When so adopted, the ordinances have the same force and effect within the municipalities and on any property jointly controlled by them or adjacent thereto, whether within or outside the territorial limits of either or any of them, as ordinances of each municipality involved, and may be enforced in any one of the municipalities in the same manner as are its individual ordinances. The consent of the state secretary of transportation to any such ordinance, where the state is a party to the joint venture, is equivalent to the enactment of the ordinance by a municipality. The publication provided for in RCW 14.08.120(2) shall be made in each municipality involved in the manner provided by law or charter for publication of its individual ordinances.

(9) Condemnation proceedings shall be instituted, in the names of the municipalities jointly, and the property acquired shall be held by the municipalities as tenants in common. The provisions of RCW 14.08.030(2) apply to such proceedings.

(10) For the purpose of providing funds for necessary expenditures in carrying out the provisions of this section, a joint fund shall be created and maintained, into which each of the municipalities involved shall deposit its proportionate share as provided by the joint agreement. Such funds shall be provided for by bond issues, tax levies, and appropriations made by each municipality in the same manner as though it were acting separately under the authority of this chapter. The revenues obtained from the ownership, control, and operation of the airports and other air navigation facilities jointly controlled shall be paid into the fund, to be expended as provided in this chapter. Revenues in excess of cost of maintenance and operating expenses of the joint properties shall be divided or allowed to accumulate for future anticipated expenditures as may be provided in the original agreement, or amendments thereto, for the joint venture. The action of municipalities involved in heretofore permitting such revenues to so accumulate is declared to be legal and valid.

(11) The governing body may by joint directive designate some person having experience in financial or fiscal matters as treasurer of the joint operating agency. Such a treasurer shall possess all the powers, responsibilities, and duties that the county treasurer and auditor possess for a joint operating agency related to creating and maintaining funds, issuing warrants, and investing surplus funds. The governing body may, and if the treasurer is not the county treasurer it shall, require a bond, with a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Washington, in an amount and under the terms and conditions which the governing body finds will protect the joint operating agency. The premium on such bond shall be paid by the joint operating agency. All disbursements from the joint fund shall be made by order of the board in accordance with such rules and regulations and for such purposes as the appointing governing bodies, acting jointly, shall prescribe. If no such joint directive is made by the governing appointing bodies to designate a treasurer, then the provisions of RCW 43.09.285 apply to such joint fund.

(12) Specific performance of the provisions of any joint agreement entered into as provided for in this section may be enforced as against any party thereto by the other party or parties thereto."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "14.08.010" insert "and 14.08.200" and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 7, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 196 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

(1) Any person who drives a motor vehicle on any public highway of this state while that person is in a suspended or revoked status or when his or her privilege so to do is suspended or revoked in this or any other state or when his or her policy of insurance or bond, when required under this (~~chapter~~) title, has been canceled or terminated, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. Upon the first conviction for a violation of this section, a person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ten days nor more than six months. Upon the second (~~such~~) conviction, (~~he~~) the person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ninety days nor more than one year. Upon the third or subsequent such conviction, (~~he~~) the person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than one year. There may also be imposed in connection with each such conviction a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, upon receiving a record of conviction of any person or upon receiving an order by any juvenile court or any duly authorized court officer of the conviction of any juvenile under this section upon a charge of driving a vehicle while the license of (~~such~~) the person is under suspension, the department shall extend the period of (~~such~~) the suspension for an additional like period and if the conviction was upon a charge of driving while a license was revoked the department shall not issue a new license for an additional period of one year from and after the date (~~such~~) the person would otherwise have been entitled to apply for a new license. The department shall not so extend the period of suspension or revocation if the court recommends against the extension and:

(a) The convicted person has obtained a valid driver's license; or

(b) The department determines that the convicted person has demonstrated proof of future financial responsibility as provided for in chapter 46.29 RCW, and, if the suspension or revocation was the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, that the person is making satisfactory progress in any required alcoholism treatment program.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) At the time of arrest for a violation of RCW 46.20.021, 46.20.342(1), 46.20.420, or 46.65.090, the arresting officer shall confiscate the Washington state vehicle registration of the vehicle being driven by the arrested person. The officer shall mark the vehicle's Washington state license plates in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Washington state patrol. Marked license plates shall be clearly distinguishable from any other authorized plates. Upon confiscation of the vehicle registration, the arresting officer shall, on behalf of the department, serve notice in accordance with section 4 of this act of the department's intention to cancel the vehicle registration in accordance with section 3 of this act. The officer shall immediately replace any confiscated vehicle registration with a temporary registration that expires sixty days after the arrest, or at the time the department's cancellation is sustained at a hearing conducted under section 5 of this act, whichever occurs first. The provisions of this subsection may be used only when the arresting officer has determined that the arrested driver is a registered owner of the vehicle.

(2) After confiscation under subsection (1) of this section, the arresting officer shall promptly transmit to the department, together with the confiscated vehicle registration, a sworn report indicating that the officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the arrested driver was driving in violation of RCW 46.20.342(1).

(3) Any officer who sees a vehicle being operated with marked license plates may stop the vehicle for the sole purpose of ascertaining whether the driver of the vehicle is operating it in violation of RCW 46.20.021, 46.20.342, 46.20.420, or 46.65.090. Nothing in this section prohibits the arrest of a person for an offense if an officer has probable cause to believe the person has committed the offense.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Upon receipt of the sworn report of an arresting officer transmitted pursuant to section 2(2) of this act, the department shall review its records, and if it ascertains that the arrested driver's privilege to drive was suspended or revoked, or in a suspended or revoked status, at the time of his arrest and the arrested driver is the registered owner of the vehicle he was driving at the time of his arrest, or that in violation of RCW 46.12.101 no transfer of title for the vehicle has been made, then the department shall cancel the registration and license plates of the vehicle. The cancellation remains in effect until the arrested driver has been issued a valid driver's license or until another qualified person registers the vehicle. After the cancellation period, upon application and payment of fees and taxes due including fees prescribed in RCW 46.16.270, the department may issue a new vehicle registration and replacement license plates to the arrested driver.

(2) For purposes of this section, cancellation means that the existing registration and license plates shall be canceled and no new registration and license plates may be issued for the vehicle for the prescribed period, if the arrested driver is the owner of the vehicle. Cancellation takes effect beginning sixty days after arrest, or at the time the cancellation is sustained by a hearing held under section 5 of this act, whichever occurs first. If the department does not cancel registration and license plates under subsection (1) of this section, the department shall notify the registered owner that if he is qualified under RCW 46.12.020 he may, upon application and payment of any fees and taxes due other than fees prescribed in RCW 46.16.270, be issued a new vehicle registration and replacement license plates.

(3) No cancellation under this section affects the right of any person to transfer or acquire title in the vehicle, or the right of any person other than the arrested driver to become the registered owner of the vehicle.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

No cancellation under section 3 of this act is effective until the department or a law enforcement officer acting on its behalf notifies the arrested driver in writing by personal service, by certified mail, or by first class mail addressed to that driver's last known vehicle registration address of record with the department, of the department's intention to cancel registration and the license plates together with the grounds therefor and allows the driver a fifteen-day period to request in writing that the department provide a hearing as provided in section 5 of this act. The notice shall specify the steps the driver must take to obtain a hearing. If no written request for a hearing is received by the department within fifteen days from the date of notification, the order of the department becomes effective as provided in section 3 of this act. If a request for a hearing is filed in time, the department shall give the driver an opportunity for a hearing as provided in section 5 of this act, and the cancellation will not be effective until a final determination has been made by the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Administrative hearings held to determine the propriety of any registration cancellation imposed under section 3 of this act shall be in accordance with rules adopted by the director.

(2) The department shall fix a time, no more than sixty days after arrest, and place for a hearing to be held in the county in which the arrest was made. The hearing may be set for some other county by agreement between the department and the driver.

(3) The department shall give the driver at least twenty days advance notice of the time and place of hearing, but the period of notice may be waived by the driver. Every party has the right of cross-examination of any witness who testifies and has the right to submit rebuttal evidence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

If the cancellation under section 3 of this act is sustained at the hearing held under section 5 of this act, the driver whose vehicle registration is canceled has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county of arrest for review of the final order of cancellation by the department. The petition shall be filed within ten days following receipt by the person of the department's final order, or the right to appeal is deemed to have been waived. The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury, and shall be de novo.

(2) The filing of the appeal does not stay the effective date of the cancellation.

(3) The court may affirm the department's decision or reverse the department's order of cancellation.

(4) The actual costs of preparing and transmitting the record to superior court shall be borne by the petitioner and awarded by the court to the department if the department's decision is affirmed. The costs shall be borne by the department if the department's decision is reversed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The director or the director's designee shall administer and enforce sections 3 through 6 of this act.

(2) The director may adopt such rules and prescribe and provide such forms as may be necessary to carry out sections 3 through 6 of this act.

Sec. 8. Section 46.20.340, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 42, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.12.240 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The suspension, revocation, cancellation, or refusal by the director of any license or certificate provided for in chapters 46.12 and 46.16 RCW (~~shall be~~) is conclusive unless the person whose license or certificate is suspended, revoked, canceled, or refused appeals to the superior court of Thurston county, or at his option to the superior court of the county of his residence, for the purpose of having the suspension, revocation, cancellation, or refusal of (~~such~~) the license or certificate set aside. Notice of appeal must be filed within ten days after receipt of the notice of suspension, revocation, cancellation, or refusal. Upon the filing of the notice of appeal the court shall issue an order to the director to show cause why the license should not be granted or reinstated, which order shall be returnable not less than ten days after the date of service thereof upon the director. Service shall be in the manner prescribed for service of summons and complaint in other civil actions. Upon the hearing on the order to show cause, the court shall hear evidence concerning matters with reference to the suspension, revocation, cancellation, or refusal of the license or certificate and shall enter judgment either affirming or setting aside ~~((such))~~ the suspension, revocation, cancellation, or refusal.

(2) This section does not apply to vehicle registration cancellations under sections 2 through 7 of this act.

Sec. 9. Section 46.12.020, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 424, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No vehicle license number plates or certificate of license registration, whether original issues or duplicates, may be issued or furnished by the department unless the applicant, at the same time, makes satisfactory application for a certificate of ownership or presents satisfactory evidence that such a certificate of ownership covering the vehicle has been previously issued.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no ~~((renewal or duplicate))~~ vehicle license number plates or certificate of license registration, whether original issues or duplicates, and no renewed vehicle license may be issued by the department unless the applicant possesses a valid driver's license. In the case of joint application by more than one person, each applicant shall possess a valid driver's license.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section applies only to applicants who are individual persons and does not apply to corporations.

(4) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to any applicant with respect to whom the department determines that:

(a) The applicant's driver's license is not currently suspended or revoked and the applicant is not in suspended or revoked status;

(b) The applicant has not been convicted of a violation of RCW 46.20.021, 46.20.342, ~~((46.20.416;))~~ 46.20.420, or 46.65.090; and

(c) Circumstances not related to any violation of Title 46 RCW account for the applicant's current lack of a driver's license and the applicant's need to register a vehicle. The applicant shall by affidavit indicate:

(i) The reason for the applicant's lack of a driver's license;

(ii) The need the applicant has for registering a vehicle; and

(iii) That the applicant will not knowingly ~~((allow))~~ permit a person without a driver's license to drive any vehicle registered in the applicant's name.

~~(5) ((It is unlawful for any person in whose name a vehicle is registered knowingly to allow another person to drive the vehicle knowing that the other person is not authorized to do so under the laws of this state.~~

~~((6))~~ (6) A violation of subsection (5) of this section, or) A knowingly made material misstatement on an affidavit under subsection (4)(c) of this section is a misdemeanor.

~~((7))~~ (7) No denial under this section of issuance or of renewal of plates or certificates affects the right of any person to maintain, transfer, or acquire title in any vehicle. Unless the parties to the contract agree otherwise, no such denial affects the rights or obligations of any party to a contract for the purchase, or for the financing of the purchase, of a motor vehicle.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person in whose name a vehicle is registered knowingly to permit another person to drive the vehicle when the other person is not authorized to do so under the laws of this state. A violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

Sec. 11. Section 3, chapter 186, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.63.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Failure to perform any act required or the performance of any act prohibited by this title or an equivalent administrative regulation or local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution relating to traffic including parking, standing, stopping, and pedestrian offenses, is designated as a traffic infraction and may not be classified as a criminal offense, except for an offense contained in the following provisions of this title or a violation of an equivalent administrative regulation or local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution:

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 7, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 237 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that a state-wide program of emergency medical care is necessary to promote the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of this state. The intent of the legislature is that the secretary of the department of social and health services develop and implement a ~~((program))~~ system to promote immediate prehospital treatment for victims of motor vehicle accidents, suspected coronary illnesses, and other acute illness or trauma.

The legislature further recognizes that emergency medical care and transportation methods are constantly changing and conditions in the various regions of the state vary markedly. The legislature, therefore, seeks to establish a flexible method of implementation and regulation to meet those conditions.

Sec. 2, Section 3, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 112, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.73.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as used in this chapter shall have the meanings indicated.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 261, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee shall:

- (1) Advise the secretary regarding emergency medical care needs throughout the state.
- (2) Review regional emergency medical services plans and recommend changes to the secretary before adoption of the plans.

(3) Review all administrative rules proposed for adoption by the secretary under this chapter or under RCW 18.71.205. The secretary shall submit all such rules to the committee in writing. The committee shall, within forty-five days of receiving the proposed rules, advise the secretary of its recommendations. If the committee fails to notify the secretary within forty-five days of receipt of a proposed rule it shall be deemed to be approved by the committee.

~~((3))~~ (4) Assist the secretary, at the secretary's request, to fulfill any duty or exercise any power under this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall designate at least eight planning and service ~~((areas))~~ regions so that all parts of the state are within such an area. These regional designations are to be made on the basis of convenience and efficiency of delivery of needed emergency medical services.

(2) The secretary shall conduct a ~~((public hearing))~~ regional emergency medical services advisory council meeting in a major city of each planning and service ~~((area))~~ region at least sixty days prior to the formulation of a ~~((comprehensive))~~ plan for prehospital emergency medical services. Such ~~((hearing))~~ meetings shall (a) afford an opportunity for participation by those interested in the determination of the need for, and the location of ambulances and first aid vehicles and (b) provide a public forum that affords a full opportunity for presenting views on any relevant aspect of prehospital emergency medical services.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 261, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.070 are each amended to read as follows:

After conducting a ~~((public hearing))~~ regional emergency medical services advisory council meeting in one or more major cities in each emergency medical service region, ~~affording ((all))~~ interested persons an opportunity to present their views on any relevant aspect of emergency medicine, the secretary shall adopt a ~~((state-wide comprehensive))~~ regional plan for the development and implementation of emergency medical care systems ~~((based upon the regional plans))~~. The ~~((hearings))~~ meetings shall be held at least sixty days before adoption or revision of the plan. Components of this plan shall include but not be limited to: Facilities, vehicles, medical and communications equipment, personnel and training, transportation, public information and education, patient care protocols, and coordination of services.

The secretary, ~~with the advice and assistance of the regional emergency medical services advisory council~~, shall encourage communities and medical care providers to implement the regional plan.

Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 112, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.73.073 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A county or group of counties may create a local emergency medical services advisory council composed of persons representing health services providers, consumers, and local government agencies involved in the delivery of emergency medical services.

(2) Regional emergency medical services advisory councils shall be created by the department with representatives from the local emergency medical services councils within the region and whose representation is determined by the local councils.

(3) Power and duties of the councils are as follows:

(a) Local emergency medical services advisory councils shall review ~~((and)),~~ evaluate, and provide recommendations to the department regarding the provision of emergency medical services in the community/system service area, and provide recommendations to the regional emergency medical services advisory councils on ~~((standards and matters relating to))~~ the plan for emergency medical services.

(b) Regional emergency medical services advisory councils shall make recommendations to the department on ~~((projects, programs, and legislation))~~ components of the regional plan needed to improve emergency medical services ((in the state)) systems.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 18.73 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to other duties prescribed by law, the secretary shall:

(1) Prescribe minimum requirements for:

- (a) Ambulance, air ambulance, and aid vehicles and equipment;
- (b) Ambulance and aid services; and
- (c) Emergency medical communication systems;

(2) Prescribe minimum standards for first responder and emergency medical technician training including:

- (a) Adoption of curriculum and period of certification;
- (b) Procedures for certification, recertification, decertification, or modification of certificates;

(c) Procedures for reciprocity with other states or national certifying agencies;

(d) Review and approval or disapproval of training programs; and
 (e) Adoption of standards for numbers and qualifications of instructional personnel required for first responder and emergency medical technician training programs;

(3) Prescribe minimum standards for evaluating the effectiveness of emergency medical systems in the state;

(4) Adopt a format for submission of regional plans;

(5) Prescribe minimum requirements for liability insurance to be carried by licensed services except that this requirement shall not apply to public bodies; and

(6) Certify emergency medical program directors.

Sec. 8. Section 8, chapter 261, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.085 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary, with the assistance of the ~~((regional))~~ state emergency medical services ~~((councils))~~ advisory committee, shall adopt a program for the disbursement of funds for the development of the emergency medical ~~((care))~~ service system. Under the program, the secretary shall disburse funds to each regional council, or their chosen fiscal agent or agents, which shall be city or county governments, stipulating the purpose for which the funds shall be expended. The regional council shall use such funds to make available matching grants in an amount not to exceed fifty percent of the cost of the proposal for which the grant is made. Grants shall be made to any public or private nonprofit agency which, in the judgment of the regional council, will best fulfill the purpose of the grant.

(2) Grants may be awarded for any of the following purposes:

(a) Establishment and initial development of an emergency medical service ~~((program))~~ system;

(b) Expansion and improvement of an emergency medical service ~~((program))~~ system;

(c) Purchase of equipment for the operation of an emergency medical service ~~((program))~~ system; and

(d) Training and continuing education of emergency medical personnel.

(3) Any emergency medical service ~~((program))~~ agency which receives a grant shall stipulate that it will:

(a) Operate in accordance with patient care ~~((guidelines))~~ protocols adopted by the ~~((regional council))~~ medical program directors; and

(b) Provide, without prior inquiry as to ability to pay, emergency medical care to all patients requiring such care.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 18.73 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary may grant a variance from a provision of this chapter if no detriment to health and safety would result from the variance and compliance is expected to cause reduction or loss of existing emergency medical services. Variances may be granted for a period of no more than one year. A variance may be renewed by the secretary upon approval of the committee.

Sec. 10. Section 13, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 261, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.130 are each amended to read as follows:

An ambulance operator, ambulance director, ~~((first))~~ aid vehicle operator or ~~((first))~~ aid director may not operate a service in the state of Washington without holding a license for such operation, issued by the secretary when such operation is consistent with the comprehensive plan established pursuant to RCW 18.73.070, indicating the general area to be served and the number of vehicles to be used, with the following exceptions:

(1) The United States government;

(2) Ambulance operators and ambulance directors providing service in other states when bringing patients into this state;

(3) Owners of businesses in which ambulance or ~~((first))~~ aid vehicles are used exclusively on company property but occasionally in emergencies may bring patients to hospitals not on company property;

(4) Operators of vehicles pressed into service for transportation of patients in emergencies when licensed ambulances are not available or cannot meet overwhelming demand.

The license shall be valid for a period of three years and shall be renewed on request provided the holder has consistently complied with the regulations of the department and the department of licensing and provided also that the needs of the area served have been met satisfactorily. The license shall not be transferable.

Sec. 11. Section 14, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 14, chapter 261, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary shall ~~((approve the issuance of))~~ issue an ambulance or aid vehicle license for each vehicle so designated. The license shall be for a period of one year and may be reissued on expiration if the vehicle and its ~~((operation))~~ equipment meet requirements in force at the time of expiration of the license period. The license may be revoked if the ambulance or aid vehicle is found to be operating in violation of the regulations promulgated by the department or without required equipment. The license shall be terminated automatically if the vehicle is sold or transferred to the control of anyone not currently licensed as an ambulance or aid vehicle operator or ~~((ambulance))~~ director. The ~~((ambulance))~~ license number shall be prominently displayed on each vehicle.

~~((Licensed ambulances shall be inspected periodically by the secretary at the location of the ambulance station. Inspection shall include adequacy and maintenance of medical equipment and supplies and the mechanical condition of the vehicle including its mechanical and electrical equipment.))~~

Sec. 12. Section 17, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 17, chapter 261, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.170 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((first))~~ aid vehicle shall be operated in accordance with standards promulgated by the secretary, by at least one person holding a certificate recognized under RCW 18.73.120.

The ~~((first))~~ aid vehicle may be used for transportation of patients only when it is impossible or impractical to obtain an ambulance or when a wait for arrival of an ambulance would place the life of the patient in jeopardy. If so used, the vehicle shall be under the command of a person holding a certificate recognized pursuant to ~~((RCW 18.73.110))~~ section 7 of this 1987 act other than the driver ~~((who shall be in attendance to the patient)).~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 18.73 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall adopt a self-inspection program to assure compliance with minimum standards for vehicles and for medical equipment and personnel on all licensed vehicles. The self-inspection shall coincide with the vehicle licensing cycle and shall be recorded on forms provided by the department. The department may perform an on-site inspection of any licensed service or vehicles as needed.

Sec. 14. Section 18, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 18, chapter 261, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Other vehicles not herein defined by this chapter shall not be used ~~((commercially or by public services))~~ for transportation of patients who must be carried on a stretcher ~~((and))~~ or who may require medical attention en route, except that such transportation may be used when a disaster creates a situation that cannot be served by licensed ambulances.

Sec. 15. Section 19, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who ~~((shall))~~ violates any of the provisions of this chapter and for which a penalty is not provided shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for each day of the violation, or may be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months.

Sec. 16. Section 1, chapter 178, Laws of 1980 and RCW 18.73.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that accidental and purposeful ~~((ingestions of))~~ exposure to drugs and poisonous substances continues to be a severe health problem in the state of Washington. It further finds that a significant reduction in the consequences of such accidental ~~((ingestions))~~ exposures have occurred as a result of the ~~((development of regional))~~ services provided by poison information centers.

The purpose of ~~((RCW 18.73.210 through 18.73.236))~~ this chapter is to reduce morbidity and mortality associated with overdose and poisoning incidents by providing emergency telephone assistance and treatment referral to victims of such incidents, by providing immediate treatment information to health care professionals, and ~~((by establishing an effective))~~ public education and prevention programs. Further, the purpose is to improve utilization of drugs by providing information to health professionals relating to appropriate therapeutic drug use.

The legislature recognizes that enhanced cooperation between the emergency medical system and poison control centers will aid in responding to emergencies resulting from exposure to drugs and poisonous substances.

Sec. 17. Section 2, chapter 178, Laws of 1980 and RCW 18.73.220 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((As limited by the availability of funds appropriated by this act.))~~ The department shall, in a manner consistent with this chapter, provide support for the ~~((establishment of a))~~ state-wide program of poison ~~((control))~~ and drug information services ~~((with regional units to be))~~ conducted by poison information centers located in the ~~((city))~~ cities of Seattle and ~~((the city of))~~ Spokane and satellite units ~~((that may be established))~~ located in the cities of Tacoma and Yakima. The services of this program shall be:

(1) Emergency telephone management and treatment referral of victims of poisoning and overdose incidents;

(2) Information to health professionals involved in management of poisoning and overdose victims;

(3) Community education programs designed to inform the public of poison prevention methods; and

(4) Information to health professionals ~~((relating to))~~ regarding appropriate therapeutic use of medications, their compatibility and stability, and adverse drug reactions and interactions.

Sec. 18. Section 3, chapter 178, Laws of 1980 and RCW 18.73.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The principal activities of the poison (~~(control and drug information program)~~) information centers shall be answering requests by telephone for poison information and making recommendations for appropriate emergency management and treatment referral of poisoning exposure and overdose victims. These services, provided around-the-clock, will involve determining whether treatment can be accomplished (~~(in the home setting)~~) at the scene of the incident or whether transport to an emergency treatment facility is required; recommending treatment measures to appropriate personnel; and carrying out follow-up to assure that adequate care is provided.

(2) (~~(Program)~~) Poison center personnel shall provide follow-up education to prevent future similar incidents. They shall also provide community education programs designed to improve public awareness of poisoning and overdose problems, and to educate the public regarding prevention.

(3) (~~(Program)~~) Poison center personnel shall answer drug information questions from health professionals by providing current, accurate, and unbiased information (~~(relating to)~~) regarding drugs and their therapeutic uses.

(4) (~~(The program)~~) Poison centers shall utilize physicians, pharmacists, nurses, and supportive personnel trained in various aspects of toxicology, poison control and prevention, and drug information retrieval and analysis.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) 'Department' means the department of social and health services.

(2) 'Poison information center medical director' means a person who: (a) is licensed to practice medicine and surgery under chapter 18.71 RCW or osteopathy and surgery under chapter 18.57 RCW; (b) is certified by the secretary under standards adopted under section 20 of this act; and (c) provides services enumerated under sections 17 and 18 of this act, and is responsible for supervision of poison information specialists.

(3) 'Poison information specialist' means a person who provides services enumerated under sections 17 and 18 of this act under the supervision of a poison information center medical director and is certified by the secretary under standards adopted under section 20 of this act.

(4) 'Secretary' means the secretary of social and health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The secretary with the advice of the emergency medical services committee established under RCW 18.73.050 shall adopt rules, under chapter 34.04 RCW, prescribing:

(1) Standards for the operation of a poison information center;

(2) Standards and procedures for certification, recertification and decertification of poison center medical directors and poison information specialists; and

(3) Standards and procedures for reciprocity with other states or national certifying agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. (1) A person may not act as a poison center medical director or poison information specialist of a poison information center without being certified by the secretary under this chapter.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, if a poison center medical director terminates certification or is decertified, that poison center medical director's authority may be delegated by the department to any other person licensed to practice medicine and surgery under chapter 18.71 RCW or osteopathy and surgery under chapter 18.57 RCW for a period of thirty days, or until a new poison center medical director is certified, whichever comes first.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. (1) No act done or omitted in good faith while performing duties as a poison center medical director or poison information specialist of a poison information center shall impose any liability on the poison center, its officers, the poison center medical director, the poison information specialist, or other employees.

(2) This section:

(a) Applies only to acts or omissions committed or omitted in the performance of duties which are within the area of responsibility and expertise of the poison center medical director or poison information specialist.

(b) Does not relieve the poison center or any person from any duty imposed by law for the designation or training of a person certified under this chapter.

(c) Does not apply to any act or omission which constitutes gross negligence or willful or wanton conduct.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The department shall defend any poison center medical director or poison information specialist for any act or omission subject to section 22 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Sections 19 through 23 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. RCW 18.73.210, 18.73.220, and 18.73.230 are each recodified as sections in the chapter created under section 24 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 7, chapter 112, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.73.077;
- (2) Section 8, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 6, chapter 261, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.080;

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 7, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 238 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1, Section 4, chapter 295, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 105, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 81.77.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall supervise and regulate every garbage and refuse collection company in this state,

- (1) By fixing and altering its rates, charges, classifications, rules and regulations;
- (2) By regulating the accounts, service, and safety of operations;
- (3) By requiring the filing of annual and other reports and data;
- (4) By supervising and regulating such persons or companies in all other matters affecting the relationship between them and the public which they serve;

(5) By reviewing compliance with local solid waste management plans through letters of compliance submitted by the county legislative authority. The compliance letters shall become part of the record in any rate, compliance, or any hearing held by the commission on the issuance, revocation, or reissuance of a certificate as provided for in RCW 81.77.070.

The commission, on complaint made on its own motion or by an aggrieved party, at any time, after the holding of a hearing of which the holder of any certificate has had notice and an opportunity to be heard, and at which it shall be proven that the holder has wilfully violated or refused to observe any of the commission's orders, rules, or regulations, or has failed to operate as a garbage and refuse collection company for a period of at least one year preceding the filing of the complaint, may suspend, revoke, alter, or amend any certificate issued under the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 295, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.77.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No garbage and refuse collection company shall hereafter operate for the hauling of garbage and refuse for compensation without first having obtained from the commission a certificate declaring that public convenience and necessity require such operation. A condition of operating a garbage and refuse company in the unincorporated areas of a county shall be complying with the solid waste management plan prepared under chapter 70.95 RCW applicable in the company's franchise area.

Issuance of the certificate of necessity shall be determined upon, but not limited to, the following factors: The present service and the cost thereof for the contemplated area to be served; an estimate of the cost of the facilities to be utilized in the plant for garbage and refuse collection and disposal, sworn to before a notary public; a statement of the assets on hand of the person, firm, association or corporation which will be expended on the purported plant for garbage and refuse collection and disposal, sworn to before a notary public; a statement of prior experience, if any, in such field by the petitioner, sworn to before a notary public; and sentiment in the community contemplated to be served as to the necessity for such a service.

When an applicant requests a certificate to operate in a territory already served by a certificate holder under this chapter, the commission may, after hearing, issue the certificate only if the existing garbage and refuse collection company or companies serving the territory will not provide service to the satisfaction of the commission.

In all other cases, the commission may, with or without hearing, issue certificates, or for good cause shown refuse to issue them, or issue them for the partial exercise only of the privilege sought, and may attach to the exercise of the rights granted such terms and conditions as, in its judgment, the public convenience and necessity may require.

Any right, privilege, certificate held, owned, or obtained by a garbage and refuse collection company may be sold, assigned, leased, transferred, or inherited as other property, but only upon authorization by the commission.

Any garbage and refuse collection company which upon July 1, 1961 is operating under authority of a common carrier or contract carrier permit issued under the provisions of chapter 81.80 RCW shall be granted a certificate of necessity without hearing upon compliance with the provisions of this chapter. Such garbage and refuse collection company which has paid the plate fee and gross weight fees required by chapter 81.80 RCW for the year 1961 shall not be required to pay additional like fees under the provisions of this chapter for the remainder of such year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 81.77 RCW to read as follows:

A county legislative authority shall periodically comment to the commission in writing concerning the authority's perception of the adequacy of service being provided by regulated franchisees serving the unincorporated areas of the county. The county legislative authority shall also receive and forward to the commission all letters of comment on services provided by regulated franchise holder(s) serving unincorporated areas of the county. Any such written comments or letters shall become part of the record of any rate, compliance, or any other hearing held by the commission on the issuance, revocation, or reissuance of a certificate provided for in RCW 81.77.040."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "management," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 81.77.030 and 81.77.040; adding a new section to chapter 81.77 RCW; and prescribing penalties."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 7, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 259 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 70.90 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that water recreation facilities are an important source of recreation for the citizens of this state. To promote the public health, safety, and welfare, the legislature finds it necessary to continue to regulate these facilities.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 236, Laws of 1986 and RCW 70.90.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Water recreation facility' means any artificial basin or other structure containing water used or intended to be used for recreation, bathing, relaxation, or swimming, where body contact with the water occurs or is intended to occur and includes auxiliary buildings and appurtenances. The term includes, but is not limited to:

(a) Conventional swimming pools, wading pools, and spray pools;

(b) Recreational water contact facilities as defined in this chapter;

(c) Spa pools and tubs using hot water, cold water, mineral water, air induction, or hydrojets; and

(d) Any area designated for swimming in natural waters with artificial boundaries within the waters.

(2) 'Recreational water contact facility' means an artificial water ((contact)) associated facility with design and operational features that provide patron recreational activity which is different from that associated with a conventional swimming pool and purposefully involves immersion of the body partially or totally in the water, ((including)) and that includes but is not limited to, water slides, wave pools, and water ((amusement)) lagoons ((which bring water in contact with patrons)).

~~((2))~~ (3) 'Local health officer' means the health officer of the city, county, or city-county department or district or a representative authorized by the local health officer.

~~((3))~~ (4) 'Secretary' means the secretary of social and health services.

~~((4))~~ (5) 'Person' means an individual, firm, partnership, co-partnership, corporation, company, association, club, government entity, or organization of any kind.

~~((5))~~ (6) 'Department' means the department of social and health services.

~~((6))~~ (7) 'Board' means the state board of health.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 70.90 RCW to read as follows:

This chapter applies to all water recreation facilities regardless of whether ownership is public or private and regardless of whether the intended use is commercial or private, except that this chapter shall not apply to:

(1) Any water recreation facility for the sole use of residents and invited guests at a single family dwelling;

(2) Therapeutic water facilities operated exclusively for physical therapy; and

(3) Steam baths and saunas.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 70.90 RCW to read as follows:

Every seller of spas, pools and tubs under RCW 70.90.110(1) (a) and (c) shall furnish to the purchaser a complete set of operating instructions which shall include detailed instructions on the safe use of the spa, pool, or tub and for the proper treatment of water to reduce health risks to the purchaser. Included in the instructions shall be information about the health effects of hot water and a specific caution and explanation of the health effects of hot water on pregnant women.

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 236, Laws of 1986 and RCW 70.90.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall adopt rules under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, ~~((setting))~~ governing safety, sanitation, and water quality ~~((standards))~~ for ~~((recreational water contact facilities))~~ water recreation facilities. The rules shall include but not be limited to requirements for design; operation; injury and illness ~~((reports))~~ reporting; biological and chemical contamination standards; water quality monitoring; inspection; permit application and issuance ~~((;- fees sufficient to cover the costs incurred by the department for the administration and enforcement of this chapter));~~ and enforcement procedures. However, a water recreation facility intended for the exclusive use of residents of any apartment house complex or of a group of rental housing units of less than fifteen living units, or of a mobile home park, or of a condominium complex or any group or association of less than fifteen home owners shall not be subject to preconstruction design review, routine inspection, or permit or fee requirements; and water treatment of hydroelectric reservoirs or natural streams, creeks, lakes, or irrigation canals shall not be required.

(2) In adopting rules under subsection (1) of this section regarding the operation or design of a recreational water contact facility, the board shall review and consider any recommendations made by the recreational water contact facility advisory committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 70.90 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any local board of health from establishing and enforcing any provisions governing safety, sanitation, and water quality for any water recreation facility, regardless of ownership or use, in addition to those rules established by the state board of health under this chapter.

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 236, Laws of 1986 and RCW 70.90.160 are each amended to read as follows:

A permit is required for any modification to or construction of any recreational water contact facility after June 11, 1986, and for any other water recreation facility after the effective date of this section. Water recreation facilities existing on the effective date of this section which do not comply with the design and construction requirements established by the state board of health under this chapter may continue to operate without modification to or replacement of the existing physical plant, provided the water quality, sanitation, and life saving equipment are in compliance with the requirements established under this chapter. However, if any modifications are made to the physical plant of an existing water recreation facility the modifications shall comply with the requirements established under this chapter. The plans and specifications for the modification or construction shall be submitted to the applicable local authority or the department as applicable, but a person shall not be required to submit plans at both the state and local levels or apply for both a state and local permit. The plans shall be reviewed and may be approved or rejected or modifications or conditions imposed consistent with this chapter as the public health or safety may require, and a permit shall be issued or denied within thirty days of submittal.

Sec. 8. Section 8, chapter 236, Laws of 1986 and RCW 70.90.170 are each amended to read as follows:

An operating permit from the department or local health officer, as applicable, is required for each ~~((recreational)) water ((contact))~~ recreation facility operated in this state. The permit shall be renewed annually. The permit shall be conspicuously displayed at the ~~((recreational water contact))~~ water recreation facility.

Sec. 9. Section 9, chapter 236, Laws of 1986 and RCW 70.90.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter creates or forms the basis for any liability: (1) On the part of the state and local health jurisdictions, or their officers, employees, or agents, for any injury or damage resulting from the failure of the owner or operator of ~~((recreational)) water ((contact))~~ recreation facilities to comply with this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter; or (2) by reason or in consequence of any act or omission in connection with the implementation or enforcement of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter on the part of the state and local health jurisdictions, or by their officers, employees, or agents.

All actions of local health officers and the secretary shall be deemed an exercise of the state's police power.

Sec. 10. Section 10, chapter 236, Laws of 1986 and RCW 70.90.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person operating a ~~((recreational water contact facility))~~ water recreation facility shall report to the local health officer or the department any serious injury, communicable disease, or death occurring at or caused by the ~~((recreational)) water ((contact))~~ recreation facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 70.90 RCW to read as follows:

The violation of any provisions of this chapter and any rules adopted under this chapter shall be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 57, Laws of 1957, section 115, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.90.010;

(2) Section 2, chapter 57, Laws of 1957, section 116, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.90.020;

(3) Section 3, chapter 57, Laws of 1957, section 117, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.90.030;

(4) Section 4, chapter 57, Laws of 1957, section 118, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.90.040;

(5) Section 1, chapter 236, Laws of 1986 and RCW 70.90.100;

(6) Section 13, chapter 236, Laws of 1986 and RCW 70.90.220; and

(7) Section 5, chapter 57, Laws of 1957 and RCW 70.90.900.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.*

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "recreation," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 70.90.110, 70.90.120, 70.90.160, 70.90.170, 70.90.180, and 70.90.190; adding new sections to chapter 70.90 RCW; repealing RCW 70.90.010, 70.90.020, 70.90.030, 70.90.040, 70.90.100, 70.90.220, and 70.90.900; and prescribing penalties." and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 6, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 663 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 46.20 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds and declares:

(1) There is a need to reduce the incidence of drivers on the highways and roads of this state who, because of their use, consumption, or possession of alcohol, pose a danger to the health and safety of other drivers;

(2) One method of dealing with the problem of drinking drivers is to discourage the use of motor vehicles by persons who possess or have consumed alcoholic beverages;

(3) The installation of an ignition interlock breath alcohol device will provide a means of deterring the use of motor vehicles by persons who have consumed alcoholic beverages;

(4) Ignition interlock devices are designed to supplement other methods of punishment that prevent drivers from using a motor vehicle after using, possessing, or consuming alcohol;

(5) It is economically and technically feasible to have an ignition interlock device installed in a motor vehicle in such a manner that the vehicle will not start if the operator has recently consumed alcohol.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 46.20 RCW to read as follows:

The court may order any person convicted of any offense involving the use, consumption, or possession of alcohol while operating a motor vehicle to drive only a motor vehicle equipped with a functioning ignition interlock device, and the restriction shall be for a period of not less than six months.

The court shall establish a specific calibration setting at which the ignition interlock device will prevent the motor vehicle from being started and the period of time that the person shall be subject to the restriction.

For purposes of this section, 'convicted' means being found guilty of an offense or being placed on a deferred prosecution program under chapter 10.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 46.20 RCW to read as follows:

For the purposes of sections 2, 4, and 5 of this act, 'ignition interlock device' means breath alcohol analyzed ignition equipment, certified by the state commission on equipment, designed to prevent a motor vehicle from being operated by a person who has consumed an alcoholic beverage. The commission shall by rule provide standards for the certification, installation, repair, and removal of the devices.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 46.20 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall attach or imprint a notation on the driver's license of any person restricted under section 2 of this act stating that the person may operate only a motor vehicle equipped with an ignition interlock device.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 46.20 RCW to read as follows:

A person who knowingly assists another person who is restricted to the use of an ignition interlock device to start and operate that vehicle in violation of a court order is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

The provisions of this section do not apply if the starting of a motor vehicle, or the request to start a motor vehicle, equipped with an ignition interlock device is done for the purpose of safety or mechanical repair of the device or the vehicle and the person subject to the court order does not operate the vehicle.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 186, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.63.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Failure to perform any act required or the performance of any act prohibited by this title or an equivalent administrative regulation or local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution relating to traffic including parking, standing, stopping, and pedestrian offenses, is designated as a traffic infraction and may not be classified as a criminal offense, except for an offense contained in the following provisions of this title or a violation of an equivalent administrative regulation or local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution:

(1) RCW 46.09.120(2) relating to the operation of a nonhighway vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance;

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 14, 1987

HB 638 Prime Sponsor, Representative Walk: Establishing an additional motor vehicle excise tax to fund state patrol services and ferry operations.
Reported by Committee on Transportation

MAJORITY recommendation: The substitute bill be substituted therefor and the substitute bill do pass. Signed by Representatives Walk, Chair; Baugher, Vice Chair; Cantwell, Cooper, Day, Dellwo, Fisher, Gallagher, Heavey, Kremen, Meyers, Spanel, Sutherland, Todd, Vekich and K. Wilson.

MINORITY recommendation: Do not pass. Signed by Representatives Doty and C. Smith.

Voting nay: Representatives Doty, Hankins, Haugen, Schmidt, C. Smith, D. Sommers, J. Williams and Zellinsky.

Absent: Representatives Berozoff, Brough, Fisch, Patrick, Prince and S. Wilson.

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6064, by Committee on Ways & Means (originally sponsored by Senators McDermott and Deccio)

Changing provisions relating to the local excise tax on lodgings.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Ways & Means recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 85th Day, April 6, 1987.)

Mr. Locke moved adoption of the committee amendments.

On motion of Mr. Madsen, the following amendment by Representatives Madsen and Grimm to the committee amendments was adopted:

On page 1, line 12 of the amendment, strike "the city council of Tacoma" and insert "the councils of cities in Pierce County"

The committee amendments as amended were adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Madsen and Berozoff spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Madsen yielded to question by Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor: I see King County and Pierce County and Yakima County mentioned here. Does this apply to the whole state?

Mr. Madsen: The answer to your question is, if you pass the bill as it is before you now, it would apply to King County, Yakima County and Pierce County. The Pierce County section is not a deduct; the King County and Yakima County is a deduct as it has been in the past. We are not changing anything.

Representatives Silver and Holland spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives Doty and Rayburn spoke in favor.

Mr. Betrozoff moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Ebersole and Betrozoff to the committee amendments:

On page 3, after line 11 of the amendment, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 28A.67 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person may be admitted to a professional teacher preparation program within Washington state without first demonstrating that he or she is competent in the basic skills.

(2) For persons applying for the 1988-89 school year and thereafter, if standardized tests approved by the state board of education are used to determine competency, a passing grade shall be not less than the median score for all students taking that test who were admitted in the prior school year to that institution of higher education.

(3) The state board of education shall adopt rules to implement this section. The rules shall provide for equivalent scores on comparable portions of other standardized tests.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 28A.67 RCW to read as follows:

The state board of education shall adopt a uniform state exit examination for teacher certification candidates to be administered at the end of the teacher preparation program. Commencing January 1, 1991, teacher certification candidates completing a teacher preparation program shall be required to pass an exit examination before being granted an initial certificate. The examination shall test knowledge and competence in subjects including, but not limited to, instructional skills, classroom management, and student behavior and development. The examination shall consist primarily of essay questions. The state board of education shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to implement this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 28A.67 RCW to read as follows:

The state board of education shall, no later than January 1, 1990, recommend to the legislature whether all teacher candidates should be required to pass a written subject matter examination. Before making its recommendations, the board shall administer sample endorsement subject matter examinations to a sample number of teacher candidates who qualify to receive endorsements on the basis of other criteria. A limited number of endorsement areas shall be selected for sample testing. The results of such tests shall be made available to the legislature.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly

On page 3, line 26 of the title amendment, after "adding" strike "a new section" and insert "new sections"

Representatives Betrozoff, Peery and Taylor spoke in favor of adoption of the amendments to the committee amendments, and they were adopted.

Ms. Nutley moved adoption of the committee amendments.

On motion of Ms. Nutley, the following amendment by Representatives Nutley, J. Williams, Sayan, Leonard and Sanders to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 5 of the amendment, after line 32, insert the following section:

*Sec. 3, Section 4, chapter 241, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.70.023 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An 'established place of business' requires a permanent, enclosed commercial building located within the state of Washington easily accessible at all reasonable times. An established place of business shall have an improved display area of not less than three thousand square feet in or immediately adjoining the building, or a display area large enough to display six or more vehicles of the type the dealer is licensed to sell, whichever area is larger. The business of a vehicle dealer, including the display and repair of vehicles, may be lawfully carried on at an established place of business in accordance with the terms of all applicable building code, zoning, and other land-use regulatory ordinances. The dealer shall keep the building open to the public so that they may contact the vehicle dealer or the dealer's salespersons at all reasonable times. The books, records, and files necessary to conduct the business shall be kept and maintained at that place. The established place of business shall display an exterior sign with the business name and nature of the business, such as auto sales, permanently affixed to the land or building, with letters clearly visible to the major avenue of traffic. In no event may a room or rooms in a hotel, rooming house, or apartment house building or part of a single or multiple-unit dwelling house be considered an 'established place of business' unless the ground floor of such a dwelling is devoted principally to and occupied for commercial purposes and the dealer offices are located on the ground floor. A mobile office or mobile home may be used as an office if it is connected to utilities and is set up in accordance with state law.

(2) If a dealer maintains a place of business at more than one location or under more than one name in this state, he or she shall designate one location as the principal place of business of the firm, one name as the principal name of the firm, and all other locations or names as subagencies. A subagency license is required for each and every subagency: PROVIDED, That the department may grant an exception to the subagency requirement in the specific instance where a licensed new motor vehicle dealer is unable to locate their used vehicle sales facilities adjacent to or at the established place of business. This exception shall be granted and defined under the promulgation of rules consistent with the administrative procedure act.

(3) All vehicle dealers shall maintain ownership or leasehold throughout the license year of the real property from which they do business. The dealer shall provide the department with evidence of ownership or leasehold whenever the ownership changes or the lease is terminated.

(4) A subagency shall comply with all requirements of an established place of business.

(5) A temporary subagency shall meet all local zoning and building codes for the type of merchandising being conducted. The dealer license certificate shall be posted at the location. No other requirements of an established place of business apply to a temporary subagency.

(6) A wholesale vehicle dealer shall have office facilities in a commercial building within this state, and all storage facilities for inventory shall be listed with the department, and shall meet local zoning and land use ordinances. A wholesale vehicle dealer shall maintain a telecommunications system. An exterior sign visible from the nearest street shall identify the business name and the nature of business. A wholesale dealer need not maintain a display area as required in this section. When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory, if any, must be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(7) A retail vehicle dealer shall be open during normal business hours, maintain office and display facilities in a commercially zoned location or in a location complying with all applicable building and land use ordinances, and maintain a business telephone listing in the local directory. When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory shall be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(8) A listing dealer need not have a display area if the dealer does not physically maintain any vehicles for display.

(9) A subagency license is not required for a mobile home dealer to display an on-site display model, a consigned mobile home not relocated from its site, or a repossessed mobile home if sales are handled from a principal place of business or subagency. A mobile home dealer shall identify on-site display models, repossessed mobile homes, and those consigned at their sites with a sign that includes the dealer's name and telephone number.

(10) Every vehicle dealer shall advise the department of the location of each and every place of business of the firm and the name or names under which the firm is doing business at such location or locations. If any name or location is changed, the dealer shall notify the department of such change within ten days. The license issued by the department shall reflect the name and location of the firm and shall be posted in a conspicuous place at that location by the dealer.

(11) A vehicle dealer's license shall upon the death or incapacity of an individual vehicle dealer authorize the personal representative of such dealer, subject to payment of license fees, to continue the business for a period of six months from the date of the death or incapacity.

(12) A dealer who is a mobile home park owner may display and sell mobile homes at the mobile home park without an additional display area. The sale of mobile homes by a dealer at the mobile home park shall not be a violation of local zoning ordinances that prohibit commercial activity in the zone the mobile home park is located if the sale relates to the mobile home park. In this subsection, a mobile home sale relates to a mobile home park if: (a) It is a home presently located in the park owned by the dealer where (i) it is being sold to a new tenant, or (ii) it is a home that has been in the park for at least one year and is being moved to make room for another mobile home; or (b) it is a home presently not located in the park but is being sold to a tenant who will move the home into the park. This subsection does not change or limit any other requirements of this chapter."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

The bill was read the second time. On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Baugher spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Zellinsky yielded to question by Ms. Schmidt.

Ms. Schmidt: Representative Zellinsky, as the chairman of the subcommittee that looked into this during the interim and helped develop this legislation, is it the intent of this bill that the commission could consider actions of a crew as well as compliance of a vessel during any review or action of revocation of exemption?

Mr. Zellinsky: The answer is definitely yes. The issue was discussed during deliberations of the three proposals to provide proper exemptions under the provisions of this act. As the cochairman of the committee, I feel that RCW 88.16 grants adequate authority to the commission to consider a remedy of any noncompliance under provisions of this act.

Modifying collective bargaining procedures at community colleges.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. R. King moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives R. King, Patrick, McMullen, Wang, Cole, Brough, Holland and Miller:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the purpose of this chapter to strengthen methods of administering employer-employee relations through the establishment of orderly methods of communication between academic employees and the community college districts by which they are employed.

It is the purpose of this chapter to promote cooperative efforts by prescribing certain rights and obligations of the employees and employers and by establishing orderly procedures governing the relationship between the employees and their employers which procedures are designed to meet the special requirements and needs of public employment in higher education. It is the intent of this chapter to promote activity that includes the elements of open communication and access to information in a timely manner, with reasonable discussion and interpretation of that information. It is the further intent that such activity shall be characterized by mutual respect, integrity, reasonableness, and a desire on the part of the parties to address and resolve the points of concern.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 296, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Employee organization' means any organization which includes as members the academic employees of a community college district and which has as one of its purposes the representation of the employees in their employment relations with the community college district.

(2) 'Academic employee' means any teacher, counselor, librarian, or department head, who is employed by any community college district, whether full or part time, with the exception of the chief administrative officer of, and any administrator in, each community college district.

(3) 'Administrator' means any person employed either full or part time by the community college district and who performs administrative functions as at least fifty percent or more of his assignments, and has responsibilities to hire, dismiss, or discipline other employees. Administrators shall not be members of the bargaining unit unless a majority of such administrators and a majority of the bargaining unit elect by secret ballot for such inclusion pursuant to rules and regulations as adopted in accordance with RCW 28B.52.080.

(4) 'Commission' means the public employment relations commission.

(5) 'Unfair labor practice' means any unfair labor practice listed in section 11 of this 1987 act.

(6) 'Union security provision' means a provision in a collective bargaining agreement under which some or all employees in the bargaining unit may be required, as a condition of continued employment on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of such employment or the effective date of the provision, whichever is later, to become a member of the exclusive bargaining representative or pay an agency fee equal to the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative.

(7) 'Exclusive bargaining representative' means any employee organization which has:

(a) Been certified or recognized under this chapter as the representative of the employees in an appropriate collective bargaining unit; or

(b) Before the effective date of this section, been certified or recognized under a predecessor statute as the representative of the employees in a bargaining unit which continues to be appropriate under this chapter.

(8) 'Collective bargaining' and 'bargaining' mean the performance of the mutual obligation of the representatives of the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to meet at reasonable times to bargain in good faith in an effort to reach agreement with respect to wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment, such as procedures related to nonretention, dismissal, denial of tenure, and reduction in force. Prior law, practice, or interpretation shall be neither restrictive, expansive, nor determinative with respect to the scope of bargaining. A written contract incorporating any agreements reached shall be executed if requested by either party. The obligation to bargain does not compel either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession.

In the event of a dispute between an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative over the matters that are terms and conditions of employment, the commission shall decide which items are mandatory subjects for bargaining.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 205, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Representatives of an employee organization, which organization shall by secret ballot have won a majority in an election to represent the academic employees within its community college district, shall have the right ~~((after using established administrative channels, to meet, confer and negotiate with the board of trustees of the community college district or its delegated representative(s) to communicate the considered professional judgment of the academic staff prior to the final adoption by the board of proposed community college district policies relating to, but not limited to, curriculum, textbook selection, in-service training, student teaching programs, personnel, hiring and assignment practices, leaves of absence, salaries and salary schedules and noninstructional duties))~~ to bargain as defined in RCW 28B.52.020(8).

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 205, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.035 are each amended to read as follows:

At the conclusion of any negotiation processes as provided for in RCW 28B.52.030, any matter upon which the parties have reached agreement shall be reduced to writing and acted upon in a regular or special meeting of the boards of trustees, and become part of the official proceedings of said board meeting. Provisions of written contracts relating to salary increases shall not exceed the amount or percentage established by the legislature in the appropriations act and allocated to the board of trustees by the state board for community college education. The length of ((terms within)) term of any such agreement shall be for not more than three fiscal years. Any provisions of these agreements pertaining to salary increases will not be binding upon future actions of the legislature. If any provision of a salary increase is changed by subsequent modification of the appropriations act by the legislature, both parties shall immediately enter into collective bargaining for the sole purpose of arriving at a mutually agreed upon replacement for the modified provision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

Employees have the right to self-organization, to form, join, or assist employee organizations, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and also have the right to refrain from any or all of these activities except to the extent that employees may be required to make payments to an exclusive bargaining representative or charitable organization under a union security provision authorized in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

A board of trustees or an employee organization that enters into a negotiated agreement under RCW 28B.52.030 may include in the agreement procedures for binding arbitration of the disputes arising about the interpretation or application of the agreement including but not limited to nonretention, dismissal, denial of tenure, and reduction in force.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, this chapter shall not be construed to deny or otherwise abridge any rights, privileges, or benefits granted by law to employees. This chapter shall not be construed to interfere with the responsibilities and rights of the board of trustees as specified by federal and state law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Upon filing with the employer the voluntary written authorization of a bargaining unit employee under this chapter, the employee organization which is the exclusive bargaining representative of the bargaining unit shall have the right to have deducted from the salary of the bargaining unit employee the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative. Such employee authorization shall not be irrevocable for a period of more than one year. Such dues and fees shall be deducted from the pay of all employees who have given authorization for such deduction, and shall be transmitted by the employer to the employee organization or to the depository designated by the employee organization.

(2) A collective bargaining agreement may include union security provisions, but not a closed shop. If an agency shop or other union security provision is agreed to, the employer shall enforce any such provision by deductions from the salary of bargaining unit employees affected thereby and shall transmit such funds to the employee organization or to the depository designated by the employee organization.

(3) An employee who is covered by a union security provision and who asserts a right of nonassociation based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member shall pay to a nonreligious charity or other charitable organization an amount of money equivalent to the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative. The charity shall be agreed upon by the employee and the employee organization to which such employee would otherwise pay the dues and fees. The employee shall furnish written proof that such payments have been made. If the employee and the employee organization do not reach agreement on such matter, the commission shall designate the charitable organization.

Sec. 9. Section 5, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 296, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission ~~((is authorized to)) shall conduct ((fact-finding and))~~ mediation activities upon the ~~((consent)) request of ((both parties)) either party~~ as a means of assisting in the settlement of unresolved matters considered under this chapter.

In the event that any matter being jointly considered by the employee organization and the board of trustees of the community college district is not settled by the means provided in this chapter, either party, twenty-four hours after serving written notice of its intended action to the other party, may, request the assistance and advice of the commission. Nothing in this section prohibits an employer and an employee organization from agreeing to substitute, at their own expense, some other impasse procedure or other means of resolving matters considered under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

The commission may adjudicate any unfair labor practices alleged by a board of trustees or an employee organization and shall adopt reasonable rules to administer this section. However, the parties may agree to seek relief from unfair labor practices through binding arbitration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

(1) It shall be an unfair labor practice for an employer:

(a) To interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed by this chapter;

(b) To dominate or interfere with the formation or administration of any employee organization or contribute financial or other support to it: PROVIDED, That subject to rules adopted by the commission, an employer shall not be prohibited from permitting employees to confer with it or its representatives or agents during working hours without loss of time or pay;

(c) To encourage or discourage membership in any employee organization by discrimination in regard to hire, tenure of employment, or any term or condition of employment;

(d) To discharge or discriminate otherwise against an employee because that employee has filed charges or given testimony under this chapter;

(e) To refuse to bargain collectively with the representatives of its employees.

(2) It shall be an unfair labor practice for an employee organization:

(a) To restrain or coerce an employee in the exercise of the rights guaranteed by this chapter: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not impair the right of an employee organization to prescribe its own rules with respect to the acquisition or retention of membership in the employee organization or to an employer in the selection of its representatives for the purpose of bargaining or the adjustment of grievances;

(b) To cause or attempt to cause an employer to discriminate against an employee in violation of subsection (1)(c) of this section;

(c) To discriminate against an employee because that employee has filed charges or given testimony under this chapter;

(d) To refuse to bargain collectively with an employer.

(3) The expressing of any views, arguments, or opinion, or the dissemination thereof to the public, whether in written, printed, graphic, or visual form, shall not constitute or be evidence of an unfair labor practice under this chapter, if such expression contains no threat of reprisal or force or promise of benefit.

Sec. 12. Section 6, chapter 205, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in chapter 28B.52 RCW as now or hereafter amended shall compel either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession, nor shall any provision in chapter 28B.52 RCW as now or hereafter amended be construed as limiting or precluding the exercise by each community college board of trustees of any powers or duties authorized or provided to it by law unless such exercise is contrary to the terms and conditions of any lawful negotiated agreement, except that other than to extend the terms of a previous contract, a board of trustees shall not take unilateral action on any unresolved issue under negotiation, unless the parties have first participated in good faith mediation or some other procedure as authorized by RCW 28B.52.060 to seek resolution of the issue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

The right of community college faculty to engage in any strike is prohibited. The right of a board of trustees to engage in any lockout is prohibited. Should either a strike or lockout occur, the representative of the faculty or board of trustees may invoke the jurisdiction of the superior court in the county in which the labor dispute exists and such court shall have jurisdiction to issue an appropriate order against either or both parties. In fashioning an order, the court shall take into consideration not only the elements necessary for injunctive relief but also the purpose and goals of this chapter and any mitigating factors such as the commission of an unfair labor practice by either party.

Sec. 14. Section 6, chapter 14, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 96, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.50.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Each community college board of trustees:

(1) Shall operate all existing community colleges and vocational-technical institutes in its district;

(2) Shall create comprehensive programs of community college education and training and maintain an open-door policy in accordance with the provisions of RCW 28B.50.090(3);

(3) Shall employ for a period to be fixed by the board a college president for each community college, a director for each vocational-technical institute or school operated by a community college, a district president, if deemed necessary by the board, in the event there is more than one college and/or separated institute or school located in the district, members of the faculty and such other administrative officers and other employees as may be necessary or appropriate and fix their salaries and duties. Salary increases shall not exceed the amount or percentage established in the state appropriations act by the legislature as allocated to the board of trustees by the state board for community college education;

(4) May establish, under the approval and direction of the college board, new facilities as community needs and interests demand. However, the authority of community college boards of trustees to purchase or lease major off-campus facilities shall be subject to the approval of the higher education coordinating board pursuant to RCW 28B.80.340(5);

(5) May establish or lease, operate, equip and maintain dormitories, food service facilities, bookstores and other self-supporting facilities connected with the operation of the community college;

(6) May, with the approval of the college board, borrow money and issue and sell revenue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping with permanent fixtures, demolition and major alteration of buildings or other capital assets, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements or appurtenances, for dormitories, food service facilities, and other self-supporting facilities connected with the operation of the community college in accordance with the provisions of RCW 28B.10.300 through 28B.10.330 where applicable;

(7) May establish fees and charges for the facilities authorized hereunder, including reasonable rules and regulations for the government thereof, not inconsistent with the rules and regulations of the college board; each board of trustees operating a community college may enter into agreements, subject to rules and regulations of the college board, with owners of facilities to be used for housing regarding the management, operation, and government of such facilities, and any board entering into such an agreement may:

(a) Make rules and regulations for the government, management and operation of such housing facilities deemed necessary or advisable; and

(b) Employ necessary employees to govern, manage and operate the same;

(9) May establish and maintain night schools whenever in the discretion of the board of trustees it is deemed advisable, and authorize classrooms and other facilities to be used for summer or night schools, or for public meetings and for any other uses consistent with the use of such classrooms or facilities for community college purposes;

(10) May make rules and regulations for pedestrian and vehicular traffic on property owned, operated, or maintained by the community college district;

(11) Shall prescribe, with the assistance of the faculty, the course of study in the various departments of the community college or colleges under its control, and publish such catalogues and bulletins as may become necessary;

(12) May grant to every student, upon graduation or completion of a course of study, a suitable diploma, nonbaccalaureate degree or certificate;

(13) Shall enforce the rules and regulations prescribed by the state board for community college education for the government of community colleges, students and teachers, and promulgate such rules and regulations and perform all other acts not inconsistent with law or rules and regulations of the state board for community college education as the board of trustees may in its discretion deem necessary or appropriate to the administration of community college districts: PROVIDED, That such rules and regulations shall include, but not be limited to, rules and regulations relating to housing, scholarships, conduct at the various community college facilities, and discipline: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the board of trustees may suspend or expel from community colleges students who refuse to obey any of the duly promulgated rules and regulations;

(14) May, by written order filed in its office, delegate to the president or district president any of the powers and duties vested in or imposed upon it by this chapter. Such delegated powers and duties may be exercised in the name of the district board;

(15) May perform such other activities consistent with this chapter and not in conflict with the directives of the college board;

(16) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, may offer educational services on a contractual basis other than the tuition and fee basis set forth in chapter 28B.15 RCW for a special fee to private or governmental entities, consistent with rules and regulations adopted by the state board for community college education: PROVIDED, That the whole of such special fee shall go to the college district and be not less than the full instructional costs of such services: PROVIDED FURTHER, That enrollments generated hereunder shall not be counted toward the official enrollment level of the college district for state funding purposes;

(17) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, may offer educational services on a contractual basis, charging tuition and fees as set forth in chapter 28B.15 RCW, counting such enrollments for state funding purposes, and may additionally charge a special supplemental fee when necessary to cover the full instructional costs of such services: PROVIDED, That such contracts shall be subject to review by the state board for community college education and to such rules as the state board may adopt for that purpose in order to assure that the sum of the supplemental fee and the normal state funding shall not exceed the projected total cost of offering the educational service: PROVIDED FURTHER, That enrollments generated by courses offered on the basis of contracts requiring payment of a share of the normal costs of the course will be discounted to the percentage provided by the college;

(18) Shall be authorized to pay dues to any association of trustees that may be formed by the various boards of trustees; such association may expend any or all of such funds to submit biennially, or more often if necessary, to the governor and to the legislature, the recommendations of the association regarding changes which would affect the efficiency of such association;

(19) Subject to the approval of the higher education coordinating board pursuant to RCW 28B.80.340(4), may participate in higher education centers and consortia that involve any four-year public or independent college or university; and

(20) Shall perform any other duties and responsibilities imposed by law or rule and regulation of the state board.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "personnel;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28B.52.010, 28B.52.020, 28B.52.030, 28B.52.035, 28B.52.060, 28B.52.200, and 28B.50.140; and adding new sections to chapter 28B.52 RCW."

Mr. Barnes moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On page 9, line 9 of the striking amendment following "shall" strike everything through "organization" on line 27 and insert "be excused from the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required of union members"

Mr. Barnes spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. R. King spoke against it.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Barnes moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On page 9, line 9 of the striking amendment following "a" strike everything through "organization" on line 27 and insert "charity of their choice an amount of money equivalent to the periodic dues and initiative fees uniformly required of union members"

Representatives Barnes and Schoon spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. R. King spoke against it. Mr. Barnes spoke again in favor.

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Representative Barnes to the R. King amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225, and it was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 62.

Voting yea: Representatives Amondson, Ballard, Barnes, Beck, Betzoff, Brooks, Brough, Bumgarner, Chandler, Doty, Ferguson, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Holland, May, McLean, Miller, Moyer, Nealey, Padden, Patrick, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Taylor, Walker, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Winsley - 36.

Voting nay: Representatives Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Cantwell, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Heavey, Hine, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Meyers, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 62.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Representative R. King and others to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225.

Representatives R. King, Patrick and Miller spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Mr. Barnes spoke against it.

The amendment was adopted.

The amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representative Wang spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wang yielded to question by Mr. Patrick.

Mr. Patrick: Representative Wang, if a board extends the terms of an expired contract, is the board's obligation to bargain with the union eliminated?

Mr. Wang: No. The provision to extend the contract simply allows the board to extend. The extension would be appropriate to avoid disputes over what portions of the expired contract remain enforceable between contracts.

Mr. Patrick: If the board does not extend the contract, do all faculty rights expire?

Mr. Wang: No, in that event, faculty would be in the same situation as other employees protected by bargaining laws. Under rulings by our PERC and the NLRB, some aspects of an expired contract would remain enforceable through the grievance procedure. This section would insure that terms and conditions of employment remain stable even after a contract expires, at least until the parties complete mediation.

Mr. Patrick: What is the intent and effect of the prohibition against unilateral board action until after mediation?

Mr. Wang: The intent of this provision is to minimize the opportunity for negotiations to turn angry and bitter. Nothing excites faculty more than to have a board unilaterally adopt a policy affecting faculty without having gone through negotiations. By prohibiting unilateral changes until after mediation, we hope that the parties will reach an agreement.

Mr. Patrick: What constitutes "good faith mediation"?

Mr. Wang: These are common terms in labor relations. They require that the parties have reached a true impasse, have sought mediation, have participated in mediation with an open mind seeking agreement, and mediation has failed leaving no room for a negotiated settlement.

Representatives Patrick, R. King and Sayan spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Taylor spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 84; nays, 14.

On page 4, after line 20, insert the following:

*Sec. 7, Section 2, chapter 307, Laws of 1986 and RCW 36.37.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If requested by a county legislative authority, the department of natural resources shall negotiate a lease, or may negotiate a sale or exchange of lands to the county at fair market value, for any requested portion of the state lands directly adjacent to buildings on the Northern State Hospital site that were transferred to the department under chapter 178, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., if not otherwise prohibited, to the county to use for the purpose of establishing county fairgrounds (~~(-However, the)~~) and a regional destination tourist attraction.

sum of one thousand dollars per year for the lease of such lands and this sum may be periodically adjusted to compensate the department for any increased costs in administration of the lease. The lease shall contain provisions directing payment of all assessments and authorizing the county to place any improvements on the leased lands if the improvements are consistent with the purposes of county fairs.

(3) If the property is to be sold, any proceeds received by the department from the sale of the property shall be deposited in the park land trust revolving fund, to be utilized by the department of natural resources in the same manner as set forth in RCW 43.51.270(4)."

With consent of the House, Mr. Nelson withdrew the amendment.

On motion of Ms. Hine, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Walk spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Walk yielded to question by Mr. S. Wilson.

Mr. Wilson: I do want to ask a couple of questions regarding this measure. Number one, do we need this measure in order for the department to raise the speed limit on the interstate? And number two, in law right now, or there was (it's still in the books) a law restricting the speed of trucks to sixty miles an hour which was superseded by the fifty-five mile an hour speed limit. If this law goes into effect, does this automatically raise trucks to 65, also? Where if it were just the department's action (raising to 65 for automobiles), that law would still restrict the trucks?

Mr. Walk: Thank you, Representative Wilson. First of all, it is my understanding that the secretary of the department of transportation does have the authority in statute to make this change without this portion of the bill, and I think that is correct. The bill, though, does clarify what legislative and state policy would be in this particular area, obviously. In the second area, it is my understanding that the other part of the statute referring to trucks would remain in place, and the maximum for trucks would be 60 miles per hour.

Representatives S. Wilson, Baugher, Pruitt and Schmidt spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Sprenkle and Locke opposed it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5850 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 64; nays, 33; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Ballard, Baugher, Betrozoff, Bristow, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hine, Holland, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rayburn, Sanders, Schmidt, Scott, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 64.

Voting nay: Representatives Armstrong, Barnes, Basich, Beck, Belcher, Braddock, Brække, Brough, Cole, Ferguson, Fisher, Haugen, Heavey, Holm, Jacobsen, Locke, Miller, Moyer, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Rasmussen, Rust, Sayan, Schoon, Silver, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Valle, Wang, Williams B, Winsley - 33.

Absent: Representatives Schmidt, Smith L, Williams J, Wilson S - 4.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5453 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Representatives Schmidt, L. Smith, J. Williams and S. Wilson appeared at the bar of the House.

SENATE BILL NO. 6053, by Senators Gaspard and Bauer

Changing powers of educational service district boards.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Betzoff moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Betzoff and Peery:

On page 2, line 24 of the amendment, after "transportation" insert "for special education cooperatives"

Mr. Betzoff spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

Mr. Peery moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Peery and Betzoff:

On page 2, after line 27, insert the following:

"Sec. 3, Section 11, chapter 282, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 1, chapter 46, Laws of 1982 and RCW 28A.21.086 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to other powers and duties as provided by law, every educational service district board shall:

(1) Comply with rules or regulations of the state board of education and the superintendent of public instruction.

(2) If the district board deems necessary, establish and operate for the schools within the boundaries of the educational service district a depository and distribution center for films, tapes, charts, maps, and other instructional material as recommended by the school district superintendents within the service area of the educational service district: PROVIDED, That the district may also provide the services of the depository and distribution center to private schools within the district so long as such private schools pay such fees that reflect actual costs for services and the use of instructional materials as may be established by the educational service district board.

(3) Establish cooperative service programs for school districts within the educational service district and joint purchasing programs for schools within the educational service district pursuant to RCW 28A.58.107(3), as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED, That on matters relating to cooperative service programs the board and superintendent of the educational service district shall seek the prior advice of the superintendents of local school districts within the educational service district.

(4) Establish direct student service programs for school districts within the educational service district including pupil transportation. However, for the provision of state-funded pupil transportation programs for special education conducted under chapter 28A.13 RCW, the educational service district, with the consent of the participating school districts, shall be entitled to receive directly state apportionment funds for that purpose: PROVIDED, That the board of directors and superintendent of a local school district request the educational service district to perform said service or services: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the educational service district board of directors and superintendents agree to provide the requested services: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the provisions of chapter 39.34 RCW are strictly adhered to.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.540 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent shall determine the vehicle acquisition allocation in the following manner:

(1) By May 1st of each year, the superintendent shall develop preliminary categories of student transportation vehicles to ensure adequate student transportation fleets for districts. The superintendent shall take into consideration the types of vehicles purchased by individual school districts in the state. The categories shall include, but not be limited to, variables such as vehicle capacity, type of chassis, type of fuel, engine and body type, special equipment, and life of vehicle. The categories shall be developed in conjunction with the local districts and shall be applicable to the following school year. The categories shall be designed to produce minimum long-range operating costs, including costs of equipment and all costs incurred in operating the vehicles. Each category description shall include the estimated state-determined purchase price, which shall be based on the actual costs of the vehicles purchased for that comparable category in the state during the preceding twelve months and the anticipated market price for the next school fiscal year. By June 15th of each year, the superintendent shall notify districts of the preliminary vehicle categories and state-determined purchase price for the ensuing school year. By October 15th of each year, the superintendent shall finalize the categories and the associated state-determined purchase price and shall notify districts of any changes. While it is the responsibility of each district to select each student transportation vehicle to be purchased by the district, each district shall be paid a sum based only on the amount of the state-determined purchase price and inflation as recognized by the reimbursement schedule established in this section as set by the superintendent for the category of vehicle purchased.

(2) The superintendent shall develop a reimbursement schedule to pay districts for the cost of student transportation vehicles purchased after September 1, 1982. The accumulated value of the payments and the potential investment return thereon shall be designed to be equal to the replacement value of the vehicle less its salvage value at the end of its anticipated lifetime. The superintendent shall revise at least annually the reimbursement payments based on the current and anticipated future cost of comparable categories of transportation equipment. Reimbursements to school districts for approved transportation equipment shall be placed in a separate vehicle transportation fund established for each school district under RCW 28A.58.428. However, educational service districts providing student transportation services pursuant to RCW 28A.21.086(4) and receiving moneys generated pursuant to this section shall establish and maintain a separate vehicle transportation account in the educational service district's general expense fund for the purposes and subject to the conditions under RCW 28A.58.428 and 28A.58.430.

(3) To the extent possible, districts shall operate vehicles acquired under this section not less than the number of years or useful lifetime now, or hereafter, assigned to the class of vehicles by the superintendent. School districts shall properly maintain the transportation equipment acquired under the provisions of this section, in accordance with rules established by the office of the superintendent of public instruction. If a district fails to follow generally accepted standards of maintenance and operation, the superintendent of public instruction shall penalize the district by deducting from future reimbursements under this section an amount equal to the original cost of the vehicle multiplied by the fraction of the useful lifetime or miles the vehicle failed to operate.

(4) The superintendent shall annually develop a depreciation schedule to recognize the cost of depreciation to districts contracting with private carriers for student transportation. Payments on this schedule shall be a straight line depreciation based on the original cost of the appropriate category of vehicle."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, strike "and" and insert a comma

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "28A.21.310" insert ", 28A.21.086, and 28A.41.540"

Mr. Peery spoke in favor of the amendments, and they were adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Ebersole, Taylor, Schoon and Betzoff spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Ms. Valle spoke against it.

Voting nay: Representatives Beck, Heavey, Lux, Valle, Winsley - 5.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

Senate Bill No. 6053 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5265, by Senator Warnke; by request of Liquor Control Board

Eliminating certain restrictions on purchase of beer by licensed beer retailers.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Commerce & Labor recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendment, see Journal, 80th Day, April 1, 1987.)

Mr. Wang moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Ms. K. Wilson moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives K. Wilson, Prince, Crane and Ballard to the committee amendment:

On page 1, after line 32 of the amendment, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Any person who sells or offers for sale the contents of kegs or other containers containing six gallons or more of malt liquor, or leases kegs or other containers that will hold six gallons of malt liquor, to consumers who are not licensed under chapter 66.24 RCW shall do the following for any transaction involving the container:

(1) Require the purchaser of the malt liquor to sign a declaration and receipt for the keg or other container or beverage in substantially the form provided in section 3 of this act;

(2) Require the purchaser to provide one piece of identification pursuant to RCW 66.16.040;

(3) Require the purchaser to sign a sworn statement, under penalty of perjury, that:

(a) The purchaser is of legal age to purchase, possess, or use malt liquor;

(b) The purchaser will not allow any person under the age of twenty-one years to consume the beverage except as provided by RCW 66.44.270;

(c) The purchaser will not remove, obliterate, or allow to be removed or obliterated, the identification required under section 3 of this act to be affixed to the container;

(4) Require the purchaser to state the particular address where the malt liquor will be consumed, or the particular address where the keg or other container will be physically located; and

(5) Require the purchaser to maintain a copy of the declaration and receipt next to or adjacent to the keg or other container, in no event a distance greater than five feet, and visible without a physical barrier from the keg, during the time that the keg or other container is in the purchaser's possession or control.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Any person who purchases the contents of kegs or other containers containing six gallons or more of malt liquor, or purchases or leases the container shall:

(1) Sign a declaration and receipt for the keg or other container or beverage in substantially the form provided in section 5 of this act;

(2) Provide one piece of identification pursuant to RCW 66.16.040;

(3) Be of legal age to purchase, possess, or use malt liquor;

(4) Not allow any person under the age of twenty-one to consume the beverage except as provided by RCW 66.44.270;

(5) Not remove, obliterate, or allow to be removed or obliterated, the identification required under rules adopted by the board; and

(6) Maintain a copy of the declaration and receipt next to or adjacent to the keg or other container, in no event a distance greater than five feet, and visible without a physical barrier from the keg, during the time that the keg or other container is in the purchaser's possession or control.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The board shall adopt rules requiring retail licensees to affix appropriate identification on all containers of six gallons or more of malt liquor for the purpose of tracing the purchasers of such containers. The rules may provide for identification to be done on a state-wide basis or on the basis of smaller geographical areas.

It is unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale kegs or other containers containing six gallons or more of malt liquor to consumers who are not licensed under chapter 66.24 RCW which kegs or containers are not identified in compliance with rules adopted by the board.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The board shall develop and make available forms for the declaration and receipt required by section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the violation of any provisions of sections 2 through 4 of this act shall be punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

(2) Except as provided in RCW 66.44.270, a person who intentionally furnishes a keg or other container containing six or more gallons of malt liquor to a minor shall be liable, on conviction, for a first offense to a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for not more than two months, or both; for a second offense to a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment for not more than six months, or both; and for a third or subsequent offense to a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 66.08 RCW to read as follows:

The state of Washington hereby fully occupies and preempts the entire field of keg registration. Cities, towns, and counties or other municipalities may enact only those laws and ordinances relating to keg registration that are consistent with this chapter. Such local ordinances shall have the same or lesser penalties as provided for by state law. Local laws and ordinances that are inconsistent with, more restrictive than, or exceed the requirements of state law shall not be enacted and are preempted and repealed, regardless of the nature of the code, charter, or home rule status of such city, town, county, or municipality.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 2 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 66.28 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, at the beginning of line 2 of the title, strike "and"

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "66.28.070" insert "; adding a new section to chapter 66.08 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 66.28 RCW; and prescribing penalties"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Vekich: Mr. Speaker, I'd like you to rule on the scope and object of this amendment.

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. APPELWICK PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Appelwick presiding): Representative Vekich, the Speaker will take your point under advisement. We will proceed to the next bill.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5996, by Senators McDermott, Johnson, Fleming, Bailey, Gaspard and Wojahn

Establishing the Washington vocational technology center.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Higher Education recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendment, see Journal, 82nd Day, April 3, 1987.)

Mr. Jacobsen moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Mr. Jacobsen moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Jacobsen and Allen to the committee amendment:

On page 3 of the amendment, after line 18, insert the following:

"(2) To receive gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of the institute and expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments;"

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 3 of the amendment, after line 29, insert the following:

"(4) To have full authority and responsibility for management, policy decisions, curriculum development, and resource allocations involving the institute, subject to annual approval of the budget by the sixth community college district board of trustees;"

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

Representatives Jacobsen and Allen spoke in favor of the amendments to the committee amendment, and they were adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, further consideration of the bill was deferred, and it was ordered that the bill hold its place on the calendar.

The Speaker assumed the chair.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5265:

The House resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5265. The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the point of order raised by Representative Vekich.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: The Speaker is now prepared to rule on the point of order raised by Representative Vekich on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5265. Having examined Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5265, the Speaker finds that it is an act relating to the purchase of beer by retail beer licensees. The amendment, that I've been asked to rule on, actually deals with registration of kegs which are purchased by consumers. I find, Representative Vekich, that your point is well taken, and that the amendment is outside the scope and object of the original bill.

The amendment by the Committee on Commerce & Labor was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Wang and Patrick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5265 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5265 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the seventh order of business.

THIRD READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5088, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Senators Owen, Warnke, Nelson, Barr and Moore)

Including court conferred visitation rights under protection of custodial interference statute.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, and the bill was returned to second reading for purposes of amendment.

Mr. Locke moved the adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Locke and Padden:

On page 1, line 11, after "person" insert "for a period of two hours or more"

Representatives Locke and Padden spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Armstrong spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5088 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 95; nays, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 95.

Voting nay: Representative Wang - 1.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5088 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Meyers, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House immediately reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 5195 as amended by the House, failed to pass the House.

The motion was carried.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. McMullen, further consideration of Senate Bill No. 5195 as amended by the House was deferred, and it was ordered that the bill retain its place on the third reading calendar.

SENATE BILL NO. 5693 AS AMENDED BY THE HOUSE, by Senators Vognild, Newhouse, Halsan, Conner, Wojahn, Bottiger and Johnson

Insuring employees adequate time to vote.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Ms. Fisher spoke in favor of the bill, and Representatives Sanders and Padden spoke against it.

Ms. Fisher spoke again in favor, and Mr. Lewis opposed it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5693 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 56; nays, 39; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Cantwell, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grimm, Hargrove, Heavey, Hine, Jacobsen, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Meyers, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, Winsley, and Mr. Speaker - 56.

Voting nay: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Ballard, Barnes, Beck, Betzoff, Brough, Bumgarner, Chandler, Doty, Ferguson, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Haugen, Holland, Holm, Jesernig, Lewis, May, McLean, Miller, Nealey, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Rayburn, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Taylor, Walker, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S - 39.

Absent: Representative Zellinsky - 1.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

Senate Bill No. 5693 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5001 AS AMENDED BY THE HOUSE, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Senators Talmadge and Halsan)

Revising the judicial council.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Armstrong spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Padden spoke against it.

Mr. Armstrong spoke again in favor of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5001 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 60; nays, 35; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Cantwell, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hargrove, Harugen, Heavey, Hine, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Meyers, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sryan, Scott, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Vaile, Vekich, Waik, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, Zellinsky - 60.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5071 AS AMENDED BY THE HOUSE, by Committee on Parks & Ecology (originally sponsored by Senators Kreidler, Williams and Rinehart)

Changing provisions relating to dangerous wastes.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Ms. Rust spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Jesernig yielded to question by Ms. Hankins.

Ms. Hankins: I understand this bill is prompted by EPA requirements that states must modify their hazardous waste programs to include the situation where you have substances composed of both radioactive and hazardous components. Will this bill assist us in the proper handling and cleaning up of these forms of mixed wastes?

Mr. Jesernig: This bill provides a framework in which state, private and federal operators of facilities that handle all forms of hazardous wastes can work together to work within the regulations and permitting processes.

The department of ecology already obtains compliance reports from Hanford and other federal facilities, so the reporting requirements imposed in this act merely require that the department bring these annual reports together for the legislature to review. This does not impose a burden on the department that cannot be met within existing budget and staffing.

Ms. Hankins: It does provide an opportunity for the legislature to become better informed on these important issues.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5071 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5071 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5996:

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5996 on second reading.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Wineberry to the committee amendment:

On page 2 of the Higher Education Committee amendment, line 13, after "named the" strike "Washington" and insert "Reverend Dr. Samuel B. McKinney"

With consent of the House, Mr. Wineberry withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Ebersole moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 3, of the Higher Education Committee amendment, line 13, after "act" insert ", but may require modifications prior to approval"

Representatives Ebersole, Jacobsen and Allen spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

Representatives Jacobsen, Wineberry and Allen spoke in favor of the committee amendment as amended, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Valle, Barnes and Sayan spoke in favor of the bill, and Representatives Taylor, Holland, K. Wilson and R. King spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Jacobsen yielded to question by Mr. Wineberry.

Mr. Wineberry: Representative Jacobsen, the Washington Institute of Applied Technology, as it is named in Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5996, is an institution for vocational technical training. Is it only for Seattle residents?

Mr. Jacobsen: No. It's for all residents in the state of Washington. It would be unconstitutional to limit it within that, and I also call the members' attention to subsection 9 of section 4 of the adopted amendment, which calls for the intercontract between school districts to provide reimbursement to the institution for the costs of the student enrolled in the school. So it could also enroll high school students from outside the Seattle School District.

Mr. Wineberry: One last question to the Chair of the Higher Education Committee. Would students or enrollees outside the Seattle area have to pay tuition higher than those who reside inside the Seattle area?

Mr. Jacobsen: No.

Representatives Wineberry and Heavey spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Taylor again opposed it.

Representative Crane demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Mr. Holland again opposed the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5996 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 59; nays, 37; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Cantwell, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Meyers, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Scott, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 59.

Voting nay: Representatives Amondson, Ballard, Beck, Betzoff, Brough, Bumgarner, Chandler, Doty, Ferguson, Fuhrman, Hankins, Holland, Holm, King R, Kremen, Lewis, May, McLean, Miller, Nealey, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Taylor, Walker, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 37.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5996 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) declared the House to be at ease.

The Speaker called the House to order.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5570, by Committee on Parks & Ecology (originally sponsored by Senators Kreidler, Bluechel, Bottiger and Stratton)

Providing for regulation of incinerator residues.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Environmental Affairs recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, April 3, 1987.)

Ms. Rust moved adoption of the committee amendments.

Ms. Rust moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Rust, Todd, Unsoeld, Allen, Walker and May to the committee amendments:

Strike everything after line 4 of the amendment and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds:

(1) Solid wastes generated in the state are to be managed in the following order of descending priority: (a) Waste reduction; (b) recycling; (c) treatment; (d) energy recovery or incineration; (e) solidification/stabilization; and (f) landfill.

(2) Special incinerator ash residues from the incineration of municipal solid waste that would otherwise be regulated as hazardous wastes need a separate regulatory scheme in order to (a) ease the permitting and reporting requirements of chapter 70.105 RCW, the state hazardous waste management act, and (b) supplement the environmental protection provisions of chapter 70.95 RCW, the state solid waste management act.

(3) Raw garbage poses significant environmental and public health risks. Municipal solid waste incineration constitutes a higher waste management priority than the land disposal of untreated municipal solid waste due to its reduction of waste volumes and environmental health risks.

It is therefore the purpose of this chapter to establish management requirements for special incinerator ash that otherwise would be regulated as hazardous waste under chapter 70.105 RCW, the hazardous waste management act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Department' means the department of ecology.

(2) 'Director' means the director of the department of ecology or the director's designee.

(3) 'Dispose' or 'disposal' means the treatment, utilization, processing, or final deposit of special incineration ash.

(4) 'Generate' means any act or process which produces special incinerator ash or which first causes special incinerator ash to become subject to regulation.

(5) 'Management' means the handling, storage, collection, transportation, and disposal of special incinerator ash.

(6) 'Person' means any person, firm, association, county, public or municipal or private corporation, agency, or other entity whatsoever.

(7) 'Facility' means all structures, other appurtenances, improvements, and land used for recycling, storing, treating, or disposing of special incinerator ash.

(8) 'Special incinerator ash' means ash residues resulting from the operation of incinerator or energy recovery facilities managing municipal solid waste, including solid waste from residential, commercial, and industrial establishments, if the ash residues (a) would otherwise be regulated as hazardous wastes under chapter 70.105 RCW; and (b) are not regulated as a hazardous waste under the federal resource conservation and recovery act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Prior to managing special incinerator ash, persons who generate special incinerator ash shall develop plans for managing the special incinerator ash. These plans shall:

(a) Identify procedures for all aspects relating to the management of the special incinerator ash that are necessary to protect employees, human health, and the environment;

(b) Identify alternatives for managing solid waste prior to incineration for the purpose of (i) reducing the toxicity of the special incinerator ash; and (ii) reducing the quantity of the special incinerator ash;

(c) Establish a process for submittal of an annual report to the department disclosing the results of a testing program to identify the toxic properties of the special incinerator ash as necessary to ensure that the procedures established in the plans submitted pursuant to this chapter are adequate to protect employees, human health, and the environment; and

(d) Comply with the rules established by the department in accordance with this section.

(2) Prior to managing any special incinerator ash, any person required to develop a plan pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall submit the plan to the department for review and approval. Prior to approving a plan, the department shall find that the plan complies with the provisions of this chapter, including any rules adopted under this chapter. Approval may be conditioned upon additional requirements necessary to protect employees, human health, and the environment, including special management requirements, waste segregation, or treatment techniques such as neutralization, detoxification, and solidification/stabilization.

(3) The department shall give notice of receipt of a proposed plan to interested persons and the public and shall accept public comment for a minimum of thirty days. The department shall approve, approve with conditions, or reject the plan submitted pursuant to this section within ninety days of submittal.

(4) Prior to accepting any special incinerator ash for disposal, persons owning or operating facilities for the disposal of the incinerator ash shall apply to the department for a permit. The department shall issue a permit if the disposal will provide adequate protection of human health and the environment. Prior to issuance of any permit, the department shall find that the facility meets the requirements of chapter 70.95 RCW and any rules adopted under this chapter. The department may place conditions on the permit to include additional requirements necessary to protect employees, human health, and the environment, including special management requirements, waste segregation, or treatment techniques such as neutralization, detoxification, and solidification/stabilization.

(5) The department shall give notice of its receipt of a permit application to interested persons and the public and shall accept public comment for a minimum of thirty days. The department shall issue, issue with conditions, or deny the permit within ninety days of submittal.

(6) The department shall adopt rules to implement the provisions of this chapter. The rules shall (a) establish minimum requirements for the management of special incinerator ash as necessary to protect employees, human health, and the environment, (b) clearly define the elements of the plans required by this chapter, and (c) require special incinerator ash to be disposed at facilities that are operating in compliance with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Any person who violates any provision of a department regulation or regulatory order relating to the management of special incinerator ash shall incur in addition to any other penalty provided by law, a penalty in an amount up to ten thousand dollars a day for every such violation. Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense. If case of continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation. Every person who, through an act of commission or omission, procures, aids, or abets in the violation shall be considered to have violated the provisions of this section and shall be subject to the penalty herein provided.

(2) The penalty provided for in this section shall be imposed by a notice in writing, either by certified mail with return receipt requested or by personal service, to the person incurring the same from the department, describing the violation with reasonable particularity. Within fifteen days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty may apply in writing to the department for the remission or mitigation of such penalty. Upon receipt of the application, the department may remit or mitigate the penalty upon whatever terms the department in its discretion deems proper, giving consideration to the degree of hazard associated with the violation, provided the department deems such remission or mitigation to be in the best interests of carrying out the purposes of this chapter. The department shall have authority to ascertain the facts regarding all such applications in such reasonable manner and under such rules as it may deem proper.

(4) If the amount of any penalty is not paid to the department within thirty days after it becomes due and payable, the attorney general, upon the request of the director, shall bring an action in the name of the state of Washington in the superior court of Thurston county, or any county in which such violator may do business, to recover such penalty. In all such actions, the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as an ordinary civil action except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Whenever a person violates any provision of this chapter or any permit or regulation the department may issue an order appropriate under the circumstances to assure compliance with the chapter, permit, or regulation. Such an order must be served personally or by registered mail upon any person to whom it is directed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department, with the assistance of the attorney general, may bring any appropriate action at law or in equity, including action for injunctive relief as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this chapter or any permit or regulation issued thereunder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Any person found guilty of wilfully violating, without sufficient cause, any of the provisions of this chapter, or permit or order issued pursuant to this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of up to ten thousand dollars and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment for up to one year, or by both. Each day of violation may be deemed a separate violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Any person aggrieved by an action taken under this chapter, or the failure of another to take an action under this chapter when required to do so, may bring an appropriate action in law or equity to the pollution control hearings board pursuant to the provisions of chapter 43.21B RCW, except that such action shall be expedited by the board to the maximum extent possible. In any appeal of the board's decision, the court may award reasonable costs and attorneys' fees to the prevailing party.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 70.105 RCW to read as follows:
This chapter does not apply to special incinerator ash regulated under chapter 70.— (sections 1 through 8, 11, and 12 of this act) except that, for purposes of RCW 4.22.070(3)(a), special incinerator ash shall be considered hazardous waste.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The department shall submit draft rules required by section 3 of this act to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature for review by January 1, 1988. Final rules shall be adopted by April 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This chapter shall be known as the special incinerator ash disposal act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall not apply to municipal solid waste incinerators that are in operation on the effective date of this section until a special incinerator waste disposal permit is issued in the county where the municipal solid waste incinerator is located, or July 1, 1989, whichever is sooner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 8, 11, and 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 8 of the amendment, after line 5, strike everything and on page 1, line 1 of the title after "residues;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 70.105 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency."

Representatives Rust, Walker, Ebersole and Todd spoke in favor of the amendments to the committee amendments, and Mr. Nelson spoke against them.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Brough: I believe it is now time to invoke House Rule 14(C).

MOTION

On motion of Mr. McMullen, House Rule 14(C) was suspended.

Mr. Schoon spoke in favor of adoption of the amendments to the committee amendments.

The amendments to the committee amendments were adopted.

The committee amendments as amended were adopted.

Ms. Rust moved adoption of the following amendments by the Committee on Environmental Affairs:

On page 3, after line 8, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 70.105 RCW to read as follows:

Any person who owns, develops, or maintains a landfill shall post a liability bond for the purpose of indemnifying that person against future damages resulting from the landfill. The department of ecology shall establish a schedule of amounts estimated to cover the costs of damages resulting from differing types of landfills."

Ms. Rust spoke against adoption of the committee amendment on page 3, after line 8, and the amendment was not adopted.

Ms. Rust moved adoption of the following amendments by the Committee on Environmental Affairs:

On page 3, after line 8, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The Washington state legislature finds that the state faces a solid waste disposal crisis. The siting of new landfills, the location and design of new solid waste incinerators, the disposal of ash residue, and compliance with the priorities of the solid waste management act and the hazardous waste management act require that an effort be made by the state to ensure that local governments and private industry have adequate technical information, and that programs are developed to accomplish the statutory waste management priorities.

(2) A comprehensive evaluation of preferred solid waste management programs shall be undertaken by the joint select committee for preferred solid waste management. The committee shall consist of four members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house and four members of the senate appointed by the president of the senate. The committee shall involve representatives of organizations representing cities, counties, the public, the waste management industry, waste haulers, and the private recycling industry. The committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by January 1, 1988.

(3) The department of ecology may provide the committee with specific recommendations on waste management programs from studies the department has undertaken as required by RCW 70.95.263.

(4) The committee shall attempt to determine the reasons why higher rates of waste reduction and recycling have not been achieved in the state and develop recommendations on how to achieve higher rates.

(5) The committee's recommendations shall include (a) specific programs for waste reduction, recycling, incineration, and landfills, (b) specific goals for solid waste management, and (c) specific responsibilities for state government, local government, and the private sectors to accomplish the committee's recommendations. The committee shall also recommend specific legislation and rule-making requirements to accomplish the committee's findings.

(6) The joint select committee for preferred solid waste management shall cease to exist on July 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "70.105 RCW," strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating new sections; and declaring an emergency."

Representatives Rust, Walker, Ebersole and Todd spoke in favor of adoption of the committee amendments on page 3, after line 8, and page 1, line 3 of the title, and they were adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Rasmussen:

On page 3, after line 8, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

A solid waste permit for an incineration or energy recovery facility shall be approved by the city and county legislative authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

Prior to the approval of a permit to locate or operate a private or public incineration or energy recovery facility that disposes publicly collected refuse, the city or county legislative authority considering such permit shall consider the feasibility of incinerating solid waste from nearby jurisdictions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

Prior to issuing a permit to locate or operate a private or public incineration or energy recovery facility, the city or county legislative authority shall consider the lifetime costs of operating such an incineration or energy recovery facility or the disposing of incineration ash. The lifetime costs considerations shall include, but not be limited to:

- (1) The protection of the ground water and the costs of protecting drinking water aquifers or providing alternate sources of drinking water and servicing other water needs;
- (2) The containment of hazardous wastes or other potentially harmful material during transporting, generation, and disposal; and
- (3) Preventing air emissions and fumes from reaching unacceptable levels or preventing such emissions from harming any important single resource, such as a watershed."

With consent of the House, Representative Rasmussen withdrew the amendment.

Mr. Todd moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, after line 8, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that, in order to reduce the amount of special incinerator ash generated and to reduce the toxicity of the ash, a goal of the state and local governments in solid waste management is to achieve consistency in program development, administration, and implementation. The solid waste management act, chapter 70.95 RCW, recognizes the importance of technical assistance by the state to local governments and the private sector in developing programs that will achieve waste reduction and recycling.

To ensure that the priorities of chapter 70.95 RCW are met, the department shall develop programs, in conjunction with the appropriate standing committees of the house of representatives and the senate, by January 1, 1988, that will:

- (1) Provide an evaluation of existing and potential systems for waste recycling and energy recovery or incineration;
- (2) Identify existing and potential markets for recycled resources and the impact of the distribution of such resources on existing markets;
- (3) Identify methods of waste reduction, separation and packaging which will encourage more efficient utilization of existing and planned incineration or energy recovery facilities; and
- (4) Assist local governments and the private sector in developing programs for recycling.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall adopt rules as necessary to implement the programs developed under Section 5 of this act. Each local government shall address the adopted programs in the local solid waste management plans by June 30, 1989. In addressing the recommended programs the local solid waste plans shall include a local analysis of local and state markets for recycled material, waste generation trends, waste composition and the application of the state programs in reducing the toxic components of the waste, cost analysis of recycling programs on collection and disposal rates, environmental protection and the need for additional support or additional programs to assist private sector recycling programs."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. May: I request a ruling on scope and object.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative May, the Speaker has examined Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5570. In this case we have a relatively tight title, an act relating to disposal of incinerator ash residues. The amendment by Representative Todd directs the department to develop programs dealing comprehensively with the whole solid waste management question. I think that the amendment is outside the scope and object of the original bill. I find your point to be well taken.

The committee amendment as amended to the title was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Rust, Walker, Todd, Rasmussen, Ebersole, P. King, D. Sommers and Pruitt spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Nelson spoke against it.

Representative Crane demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5570 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 82; nays, 14; excused, 2.

Volting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Betrozoff, Braddock, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Nealey, Nutley, O'Brien, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 82.

Voting nay: Representatives Belcher, Brække, Fisher, Locke, Lux, Madsen, Nelson, Niemi, Padden, Pruitt, Silver, Taylor, Wineberry, Winsley - 14.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5570 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Appelwick, having voted on the prevailing side by which Reengrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1037 failed to pass the House, served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the vote.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Brough: My point of order, Mr. Speaker, is that I believe that we have already reconsidered Reengrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1037. It's been before us twice, and that's the end of it, is it not?

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Brough, the Speaker would refer you to Reed's Rule 204: "A question can be reconsidered but once, but if on reconsideration an amendment has been made making a substantial change, a second reconsideration can be had." The Speaker would remind the body that we ran the bill; the bill failed; we moved it back to second reading for purposes of amendment; we made a substantial amendment to the bill, then moved it to third reading where we voted it down this morning. We did substantially amend the bill, so we can reconsider.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the House adjourned until 8:30 a.m., Friday, April 17, 1987.

JOSEPH E. KING, Speaker

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

NINETY-SIXTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

House Chamber, Olympia, Friday, April 17, 1987

The House was called to order at 8:30 a.m. by the Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding). The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Belcher, Bristow, Brooks, Day, Grant, McLean, Moyer, Schoon, H. Sommers, Todd, Vekich, Walk, J. Williams, Wineberry and Winsley. Representatives Brooks and Moyer were excused.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Jesse Norris and Dianna Stritmatter. Prayer was offered by The Reverend Ron Marrs, Minister of the Westwood Baptist Church of Olympia.

Reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 15, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 48 with the following amendments:

On page 3, line 19, strike "and"

On page 3, line 22, after "circumstances" strike the period and insert "; and"

On page 3, after line 22, insert:

"(f) Providing for the financial support of the child."

On page 13, after line 24, insert:

"(4) In entering a permanent parenting plan, the court shall not draw any presumptions from the provisions of the temporary parenting plan."

On page 17, after line 29, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. Each parent shall have full and equal access to the education and medical records of the child absent a court order to the contrary."

Remember the remaining sections consecutively

On page 19, line 31, after "custody of" insert "or visitation with"

On page 27, after line 3, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 42. Each parent shall have full and equal access to the education and medical records of the child absent a court order to the contrary."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively

On page 30, line 25, after "custody of" insert "or visitation with"

On page 31, line 24, after "custody of" insert "or visitation with"

On page 31, line 26, after "person" strike "for a period of seventy-two hours or more"

On page 31, after line 32, insert the following:

"Sec. 52. Section 3, chapter 95, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9A.40.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any reasonable expenses incurred in locating or returning a child or incompetent person shall be assessed against a defendant convicted under RCW 9A.40.060 or 9A.40.070.

(2) In any prosecution of custodial interference in the first or second degree, it is a complete defense, if established by the defendant by a preponderance of the evidence, that the defendant's purpose was to protect the child, incompetent person, or himself or herself from imminent physical harm. ~~((and))~~ that the belief in the existence of the imminent physical harm was reasonable, that the defendant sought the assistance of the police, sheriff's office, or protective agencies of the state of Washington prior to committing the acts giving rise to the charges or within three hours thereafter, that the defendant thereafter did not leave the jurisdiction in which the acts occurred or change addresses within the jurisdiction, and that the defendant reported to the police or sheriff's department (a) the defendant's name, (b) the name and address of the child or incompetent person, and (c) the address and phone number where the defendant is residing.

(3) Consent of a child less than sixteen years of age or of an incompetent person does not constitute a defense to an action under RCW 9A.40.060 or 9A.40.070."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Armstrong moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 48.

Representatives Armstrong, Appelwick and Padden spoke in favor of the motion, and Ms. Niemi opposed it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Appelwick yielded to question by Mr. Heavey.

Mr. Heavey: Representative Appelwick, does the language in Substitute House Bill No. 48 as amended by the Senate change the standard for the determination of custody in a dissolution action? That being what is in the best interest of the child?

Mr. Appelwick: Substitute House Bill No. 48, with or without the Senate amendments, does not change the best interest of the child section at all. It eliminates the concept of custody in favor of separating decision-making from the allegation of a residential schedule. The best interest standard is, in no way, affected.

Representatives Belcher and Miller spoke against the motion, and Ms. Brough spoke in favor of it. Ms. Niemi again opposed the motion.

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 48, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 61; nays, 35; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Basich, Braddock, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hargrove, Heavey, Holland, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Lewis, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, Meyers, Nealey, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rayburn, Sanders, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, and Mr. Speaker - 61.

Voting nay: Representatives Allen, Barnes, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Brekke, Cole, Ferguson, Fisher, Hankins, Haugen, Hine, Holm, Leonard, Locke, McMullen, Miller, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, Rasmussen, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Scott, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Walker, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky - 35.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 48 as amended by the Senate.

Mr. Appelwick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Appelwick yielded to question by Ms. Brough.

Ms. Brough: Is the Senate amendment to subsection (3) of Section 3 intended to give an advantage to one parent over the other in terms of involvement or contact with their children?

Mr. Appelwick: No. Representative Brough, the amendment to Section 3(3) with the addition of new subsection (f) is intended only to recognize that supporting a child is a function for each of the parents to fulfill. It is not intended to say that a parent who has greater income or greater earning power should have greater rights, greater access, greater decision-making over or with the child. It is simply an acknowledgment of the facts of life.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 48 as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 83; nays, 13; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P. King R. Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Nealey, Nelson, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Sanders, Sayan, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C. Smith L, Sommers D, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Walk, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 83.

Voting nay: Representatives Allen, Beck, Belcher, Cole, Miller, Niemi, Nutley, Rust, Schmidt, Sommers H, Vekich, Walker, Winsley - 13.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

Substitute House Bill No. 48 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The Speaker called on Representative O'Brien to preside.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5110, by Senators Gaspard, Bauer, Bailey, Bender, Patterson, Smitherman, Warnke, Saling, Anderson, Zimmerman, Kiskaddon, Rinehart, Garrett, von Reichbauer and Moore

Changing provisions relating to tuition and fee waivers for recipients of the Washington scholars award.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Ways & Means/Appropriations recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 85th Day, April 6, 1987.)

Mr. Locke moved adoption of the committee amendments.

Mr. Sutherland moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Sutherland, Jacobsen and Allen to the committee amendment:

On page 3 of the committee amendment, beginning on line 28, after "waiver," insert "The higher education coordinating board shall adopt rules outlining a procedure to be used by award recipients who wish to decline their waiver. If a recipient declines a waiver, the waiver may be used by a nominee from the same legislative district who was not selected to receive the award, under rules adopted by the board."

Representatives Sutherland, Jacobsen and Allen spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment, and it was adopted.

Mr. Locke spoke in favor of the committee amendment as amended, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Locke, the title amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Jacobsen, Allen and Basich spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Prince opposed it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5110 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 92; nays, 4; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P. Wilson, Wineberry, Winsley and Zellinsky

WHEREAS, In 1981 the Washington State Legislature created the Washington Scholars Program to honor outstanding senior students from high schools in this state; and

WHEREAS, Three senior students are selected from each of the state's forty-nine legislative districts for their exceptional academic achievements, leadership abilities and contributions to their communities; and

WHEREAS, The one hundred forty-seven students selected for special recognition as Washington Scholars in 1987 have distinguished themselves as student leaders and also through their enthusiastic and energetic participation in diverse activities including music, drama, debate, art, sports, Junior Achievement and knowledge competitions; and

WHEREAS, These distinguished students have also contributed to the welfare of those less fortunate in their communities through volunteer efforts with organizations such as the Special Olympics, March of Dimes, Big Brothers, Big Sisters, community food drives and church groups; and

WHEREAS, The State of Washington benefits from the accomplishments of these caring and gifted individuals, not only in their roles as students, but also as citizens and future leaders of our communities and our state;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the House of Representatives, That the members of the House of Representatives honor and congratulate the one hundred forty-seven Washington Scholars for their hard work, dedication and maturity in achieving this noteworthy accomplishment; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the families of these students be commended for their encouragement and support; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives immediately transmit copies of this Resolution to all of the one hundred forty-seven Washington Scholars selected in 1987.

Mr. Jacobsen moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives Jacobsen, Allen and Heavey spoke in favor of the resolution, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5825, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Senators Conner and Talmadge)

Revising provisions on horizontal property regimes.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 5, strike section 1

Renumber the remaining sections and correct any internal references

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 5, line 8, after "bedrooms;" strike "and"

On page 5, line 9, after "fireplaces" insert ";

(7) A statement of any scenic view which might affect the value of the apartment; and

(8) The initial value of the apartment relative to the other apartments in the building"

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, line 2, after "(3)" strike all material through "force" on line 3 and insert "Four public members, appointed by the governor, who own and occupy individual apartments, none of whom is a member of any of the entitles described in subsections (4) through (11) of this section;

(4) One member appointed by the director of licensing;"

Renumber the remaining subsections

Representatives Appelwick and Padden spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Armstrong and Padden spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5825 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P. King R. Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

Requiring motor vehicle liability insurance.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Ways & Means/Appropriations recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 85th Day, April 6, 1987.)

Mr. Grimm moved adoption of the committee amendments.

Representatives Lux, Meyers and Locke spoke in favor of the committee amendments, and Representatives Silver, Day, B. Williams and Barnes spoke against them.

Mr. Lux spoke again in favor of the amendments, and Ms. Silver again opposed them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Silver yielded to question by Mr. B. Williams.

Mr. Williams: Representative Silver, in the case just outlined would medical bills and the wage loss be paid?

Ms. Silver: Thank you, Representative Williams. Yes, they certainly will. All medical expenses, wage losses, funeral expenses, that type of thing are paid under personal injury. This has nothing to do with what we're discussing now. The intra-family involved is pain and suffering. It's a pain and suffering lawsuit that intra-family pertains to, not medical expenses, not funeral expenses, not wage loss. Thank you.

Mr. Padden spoke in favor of the committee amendments.

Representative Crane demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to adopt the committee amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5115, and the amendments were adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 63; nays, 33; excused, 2.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Niemi: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I request a ruling on scope and object of the amendment.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Niemi, I've examined Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5086 and find that it deals with the general subject of community custody of sexual offenders and serious violent offenders. The purpose of the amendment as offered by Representative Brough and others is to make the penalty for rape of a minor at least the same as the penalty for rape of an adult. I find your point is well taken and that the amendment is out of the scope and object of the bill.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Niemi to the committee amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purpose of this act is to ensure that sex offenders and serious violent offenders continue to be supervised by department of corrections staff when released from total or partial confinement upon reaching their earned early release date. Community custody is designed to provide more effective offender management and to thereby assist in the protection of the public. Community custody is distinct and separate from community supervision.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 17, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Commission' means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(2) 'Community corrections officer' means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(3) 'Community custody' is a department of corrections program designed to intensely monitor offenders convicted of any sex offense or serious violent offense following transfer from partial or total confinement.

(4) 'Community service' means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender. For purposes of the interstate compact for out of state supervision of parolees and probationers, RCW 9.95.270, community supervision is the functional equivalent of probation and should be considered the same as probation by other states.

~~((4))~~ (5) 'Community supervision' means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5).

~~((5))~~ (6) 'Confinement' means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

~~((6))~~ (7) 'Conviction' means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW and includes a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, and acceptance of a plea of guilty.

~~((7))~~ (8) 'Crime-related prohibition' means an order of a court prohibiting conduct that directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

~~((8))~~ (9) (a) 'Criminal history' means the list of a defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) 'Criminal history' includes a defendant's prior convictions in juvenile court if: (i) The conviction was for an offense which is a felony and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) with respect to prior juvenile class B and C felonies, the defendant was less than twenty-three years of age at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

~~((9))~~ (10) 'Department' means the department of corrections.

~~((10))~~ (11) 'Determinate sentence' means a sentence that states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution. The fact that an offender through 'earned early release' can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

~~((11))~~ (12) 'Drug offense' means any felony violation of chapter 69.50 RCW except possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or forged prescription for a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.403).

~~((12))~~ (13) 'Escape' means escape in the first degree (RCW 9A.76.110), escape in the second degree (RCW 9A.76.120), willful failure to return from furlough (RCW 72.66.060), or willful failure to return from work release (RCW 72.65.070).

~~((13))~~ (14) 'Felony traffic offense' means vehicular homicide (RCW 46.61.520), vehicular assault (RCW 46.61.522), or felony hit-and-run injury-accident (RCW 46.52.020(4)).

~~((14))~~ (15) 'Fines' means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court.

((15)) (16) (a) 'First-time offender' means any person who is convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense or a sex offense under this chapter, and except as provided in (b) of this subsection, who previously has never been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, or another state, and who has never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense.

(b) For purposes of (a) of this subsection, a juvenile adjudication for an offense committed before the age of fifteen years is not a previous felony conviction.

((16)) (17) 'Nonviolent offense' means an offense which is not a violent offense.

((17)) (18) 'Offender' means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms 'offender' and 'defendant' are used interchangeably.

((18)) (19) 'Partial confinement' means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any the state or any other unit of government, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community.

((19)) (20) 'Restitution' means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

((20)) (21) 'Serious traffic offense' means driving while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), actual physical control while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.504), reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500), or hit-and-run an attended vehicle (RCW 46.52.020(5)).

((21)) (22) 'Serious violent offense' is a subcategory of violent offense and means murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, assault in the first degree, kidnapping in the first degree, or rape in the first degree, or an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of these felonies.

((22)) (23) 'Sentence range' means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a nonappealable sentence.

((23)) (24) 'Sex offense' means a felony that is a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 or 9.68A.090 or that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes.

((24)) (25) 'Total confinement' means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

((25)) (26) 'Victim' means any person who has sustained physical or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged.

((26)) (27) 'Violent offense' means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation of or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, indecent liberties if committed by forcible compulsion, rape in the second degree, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, robbery in the second degree, vehicular homicide, and vehicular assault;

(b) Any conviction for a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1976, that is comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense in subsection ((26)) (27)(a) of this section; and

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under subsection ((26)) (27) (a) or (b) of this section.

Sec. 3, Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 20, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and by section 4, chapter 301, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
 - (b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;
 - (c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
 - (d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer ~~((of))~~ prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;
 - (e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or
 - (f) Pay a fine and/or accomplish some community service work.
- (6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer ~~((of))~~ prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender ~~((is convicted of))~~ commits any felony sexual offense ~~((and is sentenced))~~ on or after July 1, 1987, and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, request the department of corrections to evaluate whether the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department.

If the offender completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the department of corrections may request the court to convert the balance of confinement to community ~~((supervision and to place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:~~

- ~~(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;~~

~~(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;~~
~~(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;~~
~~(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment)) custody with the same conditions as placed on the offender by the court at the original imposition of sentence pursuant to subsection (8)(a) of this section.~~

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community ((supervision) custody, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his ((community supervision)) term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

Nothing in (b) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced for a sexual offense committed prior to July 1, 1987.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

~~((c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense committed after July 1, 1986, to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. The conditions of supervision shall be limited to:~~

~~(i) Crime-related provisions;~~

~~(ii) A requirement that the offender report to a community corrections officer at regular intervals; and~~

~~(iii) A requirement to remain within or without stated geographical boundaries.~~

~~The length and conditions of supervision shall be set by the court at the time of sentencing. However, within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of supervision, the length and conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the department of corrections, the offender, or the prosecuting attorney. The period of supervision shall be tolled during any time the offender is in confinement for any reason. In no case may the period of supervision, in combination with the other terms of the offender's sentence, exceed the statutory maximum term for the offender's crime, as set forth in RCW 9A.20.021.~~

~~If the offender violates any condition of supervision, the sentencing court, after a hearing conducted in the same manner as provided for in RCW 9.94A.200, may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections. Reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction.))~~

~~(8)(a) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for a sex offense or a serious violent offense committed on or after July 1, 1987, the court shall order that the offender shall be transferred from confinement to community custody when the offender is eligible for community custody status in lieu of earned early release time pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150(1), as computed by the department of corrections. An offender shall be released from community custody after serving the total sentence imposed by the court or one year, whichever is less.~~

~~(b) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for a sex offense or serious violent offense committed on or after July 1, 1987, unless a condition is waived by the court, the sentence shall include, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, the following conditions regarding the community custody program of the department of corrections:~~

~~(i) The offender shall report to and be available for contact with the assigned community corrections officer as directed;~~

~~(ii) The offender shall work at department of corrections-approved education, employment, and/or community service;~~

~~(iii) The offender shall not consume or possess controlled substances; and~~

~~(iv) The offender shall pay community custody fees as determined by the department of corrections.~~

~~(c) The court may also order any of the following special community custody conditions:~~

~~(i) The offender shall remain within, or outside of, a specified geographical boundary;~~

~~(ii) The offender shall not have direct or indirect contact with the victim of the crime;~~

~~(iii) The offender shall not consume alcohol;~~

~~(iv) The residence location and living arrangements of a sex offender shall be subject to the prior approval of the department of corrections; or~~

~~(v) The offender shall comply with any crime-related prohibitions.~~

~~(d) The offender shall submit to a search and seizure of the offender's person, residence, automobile, or other personal property.~~

(9) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

~~((9))~~ (10) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of ~~((the))~~ judgment ~~((of conviction))~~ and sentence. The offender's compliance with payment of monetary obligations shall be supervised by the department. The rate of payment shall be determined by the court or, in the absence of a rate determined by the court, the rate shall be set by the department.

An offender's default in the payment of restitution, fines, and other monetary obligations imposed under this chapter, or any installment thereof, may be collected by any means authorized by law for the enforcement of a judgment. Judgments for monetary obligations under this chapter are and may be made liens upon the property of the offender in the same manner and with like effect as judgments in civil actions.

~~((10))~~ (11) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

~~((11))~~ (12) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department of corrections or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

~~((12))~~ (13) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

~~((13))~~ (14) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

~~((14))~~ (15) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 4. Section 15, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 8, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.150 are each amended to read as follows:

No person serving a sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter shall leave the confines of the correctional facility or be released prior to the expiration of the sentence except as follows:

(1) Except for sex offenders and serious violent offenders, the terms of the sentence may be reduced by earned early release time in accordance with procedures developed and promulgated by the department. The earned early release time shall be for good behavior and good performance, as determined by the department. In no case shall the aggregate earned early release time exceed one-third of the sentence. Sex offenders and serious violent offenders may become eligible for community custody in lieu of earned early release time in accordance with the program developed and promulgated by the department.

(2) When a sex offender or serious violent offender is eligible for transfer to community custody status in lieu of earned early release time pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150(1), as computed by the department of corrections, the offender shall be transferred from confinement to community custody. A person so transferred shall continue to be considered an inmate for all purposes.

(3) An offender may leave a correctional facility pursuant to an authorized furlough or leave of absence. In addition, offenders may leave a correctional facility when in the custody of a corrections officer or officers:

~~((3))~~ (4) The governor, upon recommendation from the clemency and pardons board, may grant an extraordinary release for reasons of serious health problems, senility, advanced age, extraordinary meritorious acts, or other extraordinary circumstances:

~~((4))~~ ~~if the sentence of confinement is in excess of twelve months but not in excess of three years;~~ (5) No more than the final ~~((three))~~ six months of the sentence may be served in partial confinement designed to aid the qualified offender, as determined by the department of corrections, in finding work and reestablishing him or herself in the community.~~((if the sentence of~~ confinement is in excess of three years, no more than the final six months of the sentence may be served in such partial confinement));

((5)) (6) The governor may pardon any offender;

((6)) (7) The department of corrections may release an offender from confinement any time within ten days before a release date calculated under this section; and

((7)) (8) An offender may leave a correctional facility prior to completion of his sentence if the sentence has been reduced as provided in RCW 9.94A.160.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

If an offender violates any condition or requirement of community custody, the department may impose sanctions. If an offender is accused of violating any condition or requirement of community custody, he or she is entitled to a hearing before sanctions may be imposed. The department shall promulgate rules governing such hearing procedures and sanctions. Detention of an offender pursuant to section 6 of this act shall not be considered a sanction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary may issue warrants for the arrest of any offender who violates a condition of community custody. The arrest warrants shall authorize any law enforcement or peace officer or community corrections officer of this state or any other state where such offender may be located, to arrest the offender and place him or her in total confinement pending return to confinement in a state correctional institution. The department shall compensate the local jurisdiction at the office of financial management's adjudicated rate, in accordance with RCW 70.48.440. A community corrections officer, if he or she has reasonable cause to believe an offender in community custody has violated a condition of community custody, may suspend the person's community custody status and arrest or cause the arrest and detention in total confinement of the offender in a state facility, pending the determination of the secretary as to whether the violation has occurred. The community corrections officer shall report to the secretary all facts and circumstances and the reasons for the action of suspending community custody status.

(2) Inmates, as defined in RCW 72.09.020, who have been transferred to community custody and who are detained in a local correctional facility are the financial responsibility of the department of corrections. The community custody inmate shall be removed from the local correctional facility not later than eight days, excluding weekends and holidays, following admittance to the local correctional facility and notification that the inmate is available for movement to a state correctional institution. However, if good cause is shown, the department may negotiate with local correctional authorities for an additional period of detention.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

An offender in community custody who willfully fails to report to the assigned community corrections officer at the time specified by the department of corrections shall be deemed an escapee and fugitive from justice, and upon conviction shall be guilty of a class C felony under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

Community corrections officers and volunteers who assist community corrections officers in the community custody program are not liable for civil damages resulting from any act or omission in the rendering of community custody monitoring activities, other than acts or omissions constituting gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct. For purposes of this section, 'volunteers' is defined according to RCW 51.12.035.

Sec. 9. Section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 72.09.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter, 'inmate' means any person committed to the custody of the department, including but not limited to persons residing in a correctional institution or facility and persons released on furlough ((or)), work release, or community custody.

Sec. 10. Section 17, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A term of confinement ordered in a sentence pursuant to this chapter shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented him or herself from ((supervision)) confinement without the prior approval of the entity in whose custody the offender has been placed. A term of partial confinement shall be tolled during any period of time spent in total confinement pursuant to a new conviction or pursuant to sanctions for violation of sentence conditions on a separate felony conviction.

(2) A term of supervision ordered in a sentence pursuant to this chapter shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented him or herself from supervision without prior approval of the entity under whose supervision the offender has been placed.

(3) For confinement sentences, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the entity responsible for the confinement. For sentences involving supervision, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the court, based on reports from the entity responsible for the supervision.

(4) The period of community custody shall be tolled during any period of time the offender is in confinement for any reason. However, if an offender is detained pursuant to section 6 of this 1987 act and is later found not to have violated a condition or requirement of community custody, time spent in total confinement due to such detention shall not toll the period of community custody. The period of community custody shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented himself or herself from monitoring without prior approval of the entity under whose supervision the offender has been placed. For the period of a sentence during which an offender is placed in community custody, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the department of corrections.

Sec. 11. Section 11, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 34, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Before imposing a sentence upon a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing. The sentencing hearing shall be held within forty court days following conviction. Upon the motion of either party for good cause shown, or on its own motion, the court may extend the time period for conducting the sentencing hearing. The court shall order the department to complete a presentence report for the purpose of offender management before imposing a sentence upon a defendant who has been convicted of a felony sex offense. The department shall give priority to presentence investigations for sex offenders. The court shall consider the presentence reports, if any, including any victim impact statement and criminal history, and allow arguments from the prosecutor, the defense counsel, the offender, the victim, the survivor of the victim, or a representative of the victim or survivor, and an investigative law enforcement officer as to the sentence to be imposed. If the court is satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has a criminal history, the court shall specify the convictions it has found to exist. All of this information shall be part of the record. Copies of all presentence reports presented to the sentencing court and all written findings of facts and conclusions of law as to sentencing entered by the court shall be sent to the department by the clerk of the court at the conclusion of the sentencing and shall accompany the offender if the offender is committed to the custody of the department. Court clerks shall provide, without charge, certified copies of documents relating to criminal convictions requested by prosecuting attorneys.

Sec. 12. Section 11, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.195 are each amended to read as follows:

If an offender violates any condition or requirement of a sentence, a community corrections officer may arrest or cause the arrest of the offender without a warrant, pending a determination by the court. If there is reasonable cause to believe that an offender has violated a condition or requirement of the sentence, an offender may be required to submit to a search and seizure of the offender's person, residence, automobile, or other personal property. A community corrections officer may also arrest an offender for any crime committed in his or her presence. The facts and circumstances of the conduct of the offender shall be reported by the community corrections officer, with recommendations, to the court.

If the community corrections officer has reasonable cause to believe that an offender has committed a violent offense, an offense involving a deadly weapon, or any felony violation of the uniform controlled substances act, the community corrections officer may arrest and detain or cause the arrest and detention of the offender for up to five working days in order to investigate the facts and circumstances. The department shall compensate the local jurisdiction at the office of financial management's adjudicated rate, in accordance with RCW 70.48.440.

If a community corrections officer arrests or causes the arrest of an offender under this section, the offender shall be confined and detained in the county jail of the county in which the offender was taken into custody, and the sheriff of that county shall receive and keep in the county jail, where room is available, all prisoners delivered to the jail by the community corrections officer, and such offenders shall not be released from custody on bail or personal recognizance, except upon approval of the court, pursuant to a written order.

Sec. 13. Section 20, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 12, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If an offender violates any condition or requirement of a sentence, the court may modify its order of judgment and sentence and impose further punishment in accordance with this section.

(2) If an offender fails to comply with any of the requirements or conditions of a sentence the following provisions apply:

(a) The court, upon the motion of the state, or upon its own motion, shall require the offender to show cause why the offender should not be punished for the noncompliance. The court may issue a summons or a warrant of arrest for the offender's appearance;

(b) If the court finds that the violation has occurred, it may order the offender to be confined for a period not to exceed sixty days for each violation, and may (i) convert a term of partial confinement to total confinement, (ii) convert community service obligation to total or partial confinement, or (iii) convert monetary obligations, except restitution and the crime victim penalty assessment, to community service hours at the rate of the state minimum wage for each hour of community service. Any time served in confinement awaiting a hearing on non-compliance shall be credited against any confinement order by the court; and

(c) If the court finds that the violation was not willful, the court may modify its previous order regarding payment of fines or other monetary payments and regarding community service obligations.

(3) Nothing in this section prohibits the filing of escape charges if appropriate.

Sec. 14. Section 9, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 21, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.380 are each amended to read as follows:

For sentences of nonviolent offenders for one year or less, the court shall consider and give priority to available alternatives to total confinement and shall state its reasons if they are not used.

These alternatives include the following sentence conditions that the court may order as substitutes for total confinement: (1) One day of partial confinement or eight hours of community service may be substituted for one day of total confinement; (2) the community service conversion is limited to two hundred forty hours or thirty days. The conversion of total confinement to partial confinement may be applied to all sentences of one year or less, including those for violent offenses. Community service hours must be completed within the period of community supervision or a time period specified by the court, which shall not exceed twenty-four months, pursuant to a schedule determined by the department.

Sec. 15. Section 22, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.383 are each amended to read as follows:

On all sentences of confinement for one year or less the court may impose up to one year of community supervision. ~~((For confinement sentences, unless otherwise ordered by the court, the period of community supervision begins at the date of release from confinement. For non-confinement sentences, the period of community supervision begins at the date of entry of the judgment and sentence.))~~ An offender shall be on community supervision as of the date of sentencing. However, during the time for which the offender is in total or partial confinement pursuant to the sentence or a violation of a sentence, the period of community supervision shall toll.

Sec. 16. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 28, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's criminal history in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run concurrently with any felony sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the current sentence expressly orders that they be served consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences. If two or more sentences that run consecutively include periods of community supervision, the aggregate of the community supervision period shall not exceed twenty-four months.

Sec. 17. Section 1, chapter 6, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 9.91.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who resells food stamps manufactured under the food stamp program established pursuant to RCW 74.04.500, 74.04.505 and 74.04.510, or food purchased therewith, and any person who knowingly purchases such resold stamps or food, shall (1) if the face value of the stamps or food transferred ~~((be one))~~ is two hundred and fifty dollars or more, be guilty of a ((gross misdemeanor)) class C felony as defined in RCW 9A.20.021 and (2) if the face value of the stamps or food transferred ((be)) is less than ((one)) two hundred and fifty dollars, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor as defined in RCW 9A.20.021.

Sec. 18. Section 3, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 23, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.320 are each amended to read as follows:

Sections 1 through 16 and 19 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately. Sections 17 and 18 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1987."

With consent of the House, Ms. Niemi withdrew the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Brough: You've just said with consent of the House, amendment 660 is withdrawn. I would like to offer that amendment if the Representative from the 43rd district is not going to. I would move the adoption of amendment 660.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Niemi: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I once again request a ruling on scope and object.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Niemi, the Speaker has again examined Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5086. I still find that it deals with the subject of community custody of sexual offenders. The amendment, while fairly parallel to the committee amendment, however, reaches far outside of the original intent of the bill and gets into food stamps and a cleanup of the code. So I find, Representative Niemi, that your point is well taken. The amendment is outside the scope and object of the original bill.

The committee amendment was adopted.

The amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Braddock and Brough spoke in favor of final passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5086 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Soyran, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5086 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Representative Lewis moved that the remarks by Ms. Brough on final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5086 as amended by the House be spread upon the Journal.

The motion was not carried.

MOTION

Ms. Brough moved that the House immediately consider Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5654.

Mr. Lewis demanded an electric roll call vote, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to immediately consider Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5654, and the motion was not carried by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 61; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Ballard, Barnes, Beck, Betzoff, Brough, Bumgarner, Chandler, Doty, Ferguson, Fuhrman, Hankins, Holland, Lewis, May, McLean, Miller, Nealey, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Taylor, Walker, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Winsley - 35.

Voting nay: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Cantwell, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Meyers, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 61.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the House was recessed until 12:41 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Brooks, Lux, Moyer and Wineberry. Representatives Brooks and Moyer were excused.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5008, by Senator Moore

Revising provisions relating to property tax payments made by check.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Ways & Means/Revenue recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 85th Day, April 6, 1987.)

Mr. Madsen moved adoption of the committee amendments.

On motion of Mr. Madsen, the following amendment by Representative Appelwick to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 3, following line 33, add a new section:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 1988."

Mr. Madsen spoke in favor of the committee amendment as amended, and it was adopted.

The committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Madsen spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Madsen yielded to question by Mr. Hargrove.

Mr. Hargrove: Could you tell me whether or not a check made out to the name of the county treasurer will have to be returned in order to comply with this law? Or will they be able to still use those for tax payments?

Mr. Madsen: The answer is no. The check need not be returned to the individual. The law is directed at instructions from the treasurer to the people.

Mr. Hargrove spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5008 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 94; absent, 2; excused, 2.

Voting yeas: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Waik, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Winsley, Zelinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 94.

Absent: Representatives Lux, Wineberry - 2.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

Senate Bill No. 5008 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

Representative Lux appeared at the bar of the House.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6003, by Senator Hansen

Changing provisions relating to nonrelinquishment of water rights.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Agriculture & Rural Development recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, April 3, 1987.)

Ms. Rayburn moved adoption of the committee amendments.

Ms. H. Sommers moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives H. Sommers, Nelson, Grimm, Brekke, Locke, Barnes, Armstrong, Rust, K. Wilson, Unsoeld, Braddock, Leonard, Valle, Miller, Silver, Allen, Winsley, B. Williams, Haugen, Holland, Sanders, Fisher, Sutherland, Niemi, Cole, Vekich, Pruitt, Lux, Todd and P. King to the committee amendment:

On page 1 of the amendment, line 10, before "Any" insert "(1)"

On page 1 of the amendment, beginning on line 14, after "appropriation" strike all material through "States," on line 21 and insert "until December 31, 1991, without need for renewal.

(2) This withdrawal of the water from appropriation may be continued administratively beyond December 31, 1991, under RCW 90.40.030 if the action to continue the withdrawal is taken before December 31, 1991.

(3) If the project is declared completed or abandoned by the United States acting by and through the secretary of the interior or such other duly authorized officer of the United States before the date established by subsection (1) of this section or before a date established under subsection (2) of this section, the water shall be subject to appropriation as provided by law."

Representatives H. Sommers, Sutherland, Nelson and K. Wilson spoke in favor of the amendments to the committee amendment, and Representatives Rayburn, Prince, Baugher, C. Smith and Chandler spoke against them.

Representative Crane demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The amendments to the committee amendment were not adopted.

The committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Rayburn, Nealey, McLean, C. Smith, Lux and Sayan, spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Ms. H. Sommers opposed it.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5502, by Committee on Commerce & Labor (originally sponsored by Senators Rinehart, Warnke, Halsan, Lee, Wojahn, Talmadge, Tanner, Bottiger, Bailey, Smitherman, Vognild, Williams, Garrett, Stratton and Moore)

Creating enforcement provisions for new motor vehicle warranties.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Commerce & Labor recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, April 3, 1987.) Committee on Ways & Means/Appropriations recommendation: Majority, do pass with amendments by Committee on Commerce & Labor.

Mr. Wang moved that the committee amendments not be adopted, and the motion was carried.

Mr. Wang moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Wang, Patrick, Sayan, Hine, R. King and Sanders:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that a new motor vehicle is a major consumer purchase and that a defective motor vehicle is likely to create hardship for, or may cause injury to, the consumer. The legislature further recognizes that good cooperation and communication between a manufacturer and a new motor vehicle dealer will considerably increase the likelihood that a new motor vehicle will be repaired within a reasonable number of attempts.

It is the intent of the legislature to ensure that the consumer is made aware of his or her rights under this chapter and is not refused information, documents, or service that would otherwise obstruct the exercise of his or her rights.

In enacting these comprehensive measures, it is the intent of the legislature to create the proper blend of private and public remedies necessary to enforce this chapter, such that a manufacturer will be sufficiently induced to take necessary steps to improve quality control at the time of production or provide better warranty service for the new motor vehicles that it sells in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

- (1) 'Board' means new motor vehicle arbitration board.
- (2) 'Collateral charges' means any sales-related charges including but not limited to sales tax, arbitration service fees, license fees, registration fees, title fees, finance charges, insurance costs, transportation charges, dealer preparation charges, or any other charges for service contracts, undercoating, rustproofing, or factory installed options.
- (3) 'Condition' means a general problem that results from a defect or malfunction of one or more parts, or their improper installation by the manufacturer, its agents, or the new motor vehicle dealer.
- (4) 'Consumer' means any person who has entered into an agreement or contract for the transfer, lease, or purchase of a new motor vehicle, other than for purposes of resale or sublease, during the duration of the warranty period defined under this section.
- (5) 'Court' means the superior court in the county where the consumer resides, except if the consumer does not reside in this state, then the superior court in the county where an arbitration hearing or determination was conducted or made pursuant to this chapter.
- (6) 'Incidental costs' means any reasonable expenses incurred by the consumer in connection with the repair of the new motor vehicle, including any towing charges and the costs of obtaining alternative transportation.
- (7) 'Manufacturer' means any person engaged in the business of constructing or assembling new motor vehicles or engaged in the business of importing new motor vehicles into the United States for the purpose of selling or distributing new motor vehicles to new motor vehicle dealers.
- (8) 'New motor vehicle' means any new self-propelled vehicle primarily designed for the transportation of persons or property over the public highways that was leased or purchased in this state and registered in this state, but does not include vehicles purchased or leased by a business as part of a fleet of ten or more vehicles. If the motor vehicle is a motor home, this chapter shall apply to the self-propelled vehicle and chassis, but does not include those portions of the vehicle designated, used, or maintained primarily as a mobile dwelling, office, or commercial space. The term 'new motor vehicle' does not include motorcycles or trucks with nineteen thousand pounds or more gross vehicle weight rating. The term 'new motor vehicle' includes a demonstrator or lease-purchase vehicle as long as a manufacturer's warranty was issued as a condition of sale.
- (9) 'New motor vehicle dealer' means a person who holds a dealer agreement with a manufacturer for the sale of new motor vehicles, who is engaged in the business of purchasing, selling, servicing, exchanging, or dealing in new motor vehicles, and who is licensed as a dealer by the state of Washington.
- (10) 'Nonconformity' means a defect, serious safety defect, or condition that substantially impairs the use, value, or safety of a new motor vehicle, but does not include a defect or condition that is the result of abuse, neglect, or unauthorized modification or alteration of the new motor vehicle.
- (11) 'Purchase price' means the cash price of the new motor vehicle appearing in the sales agreement or contract, including any allowance for a trade-in vehicle.
- (12) 'Reasonable offset for use' means an amount directly attributable to use by the consumer before repurchase or replacement by the manufacturer. The reasonable offset for use shall be computed by the number of miles that the vehicle traveled before the manufacturer's acceptance of the vehicle upon repurchase or replacement multiplied by the purchase price, and divided by one hundred thousand.
- (13) 'Reasonable number of attempts' means the definition provided in section 4 of this act.
- (14) 'Replacement motor vehicle' means a new motor vehicle that is identical or reasonably equivalent to the motor vehicle to be replaced, as the motor vehicle to be replaced existed at the time of purchase.
- (15) 'Serious safety defect' means a life-threatening malfunction or nonconformity that impedes the consumer's ability to control or operate the new motor vehicle for ordinary use or reasonable intended purposes or creates a risk of fire or explosion.
- (16) 'Substantially impair' means to render the new motor vehicle unreliable, or unsafe for ordinary use, or to diminish the resale value of the new motor vehicle below the average resale value for comparable motor vehicles.
- (17) 'Warranty' means any implied warranty, any written warranty of the manufacturer, or any affirmation of fact or promise made by the manufacturer in connection with the sale of a new motor vehicle that becomes part of the basis of the bargain. The term 'warranty' pertains to the obligations of the manufacturer in relation to materials, workmanship, and fitness of a new motor vehicle for ordinary use or reasonably intended purposes throughout the duration of the warranty period as defined under this section.
- (18) 'Warranty period' means the period ending two years after the date of the original delivery to the consumer of a new motor vehicle, or the first twenty-four thousand miles of operation, whichever occurs first.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Each new motor vehicle dealer shall provide an owner's manual which shall be published by the manufacturer and include a list of the addresses and phone numbers for its zone or regional offices for this state.

(2) At the time of purchase, the new motor vehicle dealer shall provide the consumer with a written statement that explains the consumer's rights under this chapter. The written statement shall be prepared and supplied by the attorney general and shall contain a toll-free number that the consumer can contact for information regarding the procedures and remedies under this chapter.

(3) For the purposes of this chapter, if a new motor vehicle does not conform to the warranty and the consumer reports the nonconformity during the term of the warranty period or the period of coverage of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty, whichever is less, to the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer who sold the new motor vehicle, the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer shall make repairs as are necessary to conform the vehicle to the warranty, regardless of whether such repairs are made after the expiration of the warranty period. Any corrections or attempted repairs undertaken by a new motor vehicle dealer under this chapter shall be treated as warranty work and billed by the dealer to the manufacturer in the same manner as other work under the manufacturer's written warranty is billed. For purposes of this subsection, the manufacturer's written warranty shall be at least one year after the date of the original delivery to the consumer of the vehicle or the first twelve thousand miles of operation, whichever occurs first.

(4) Upon request from the consumer, the manufacturer or new motor vehicle dealer shall provide a copy of any report or computer reading compiled by the manufacturer's field or zone representative regarding inspection, diagnosis, or test-drive of the consumer's new motor vehicle, or shall provide a copy of any technical service bulletin issued by the manufacturer regarding the year and model of the consumer's new motor vehicle as it pertains to any material, feature, component, or the performance thereof.

(5) The new motor vehicle dealer shall provide to the consumer each time the consumer's vehicle is returned from being diagnosed or repaired under the warranty, a fully itemized, legible statement or repair order indicating any diagnosis made, and all work performed on the vehicle including but not limited to, a general description of the problem reported by the consumer or an identification of the defect or condition, parts and labor, the date and the odometer reading when the vehicle was submitted for repair, and the date when the vehicle was made available to the consumer.

(6) No manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer may refuse to diagnose or repair any nonconformity covered by the warranty for the purpose of avoiding liability under this chapter.

(7) For purposes of this chapter, consumers shall have the rights and remedies, including a cause of action, against manufacturers as provided in this chapter.

(8) The warranty period and thirty-day out-of-service period shall be extended by any time that repair services are not available to the consumer as a direct result of a strike, war, invasion, fire, flood, or other natural disaster.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) If the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer is unable to conform the new motor vehicle to the warranty by repairing or correcting any nonconformity after a reasonable number of attempts, the manufacturer, within forty calendar days of a consumer's written request shall, at the option of the consumer, replace or repurchase the new motor vehicle.

The replacement motor vehicle shall be identical or reasonably equivalent to the motor vehicle to be replaced. Compensation for a reasonable offset for use shall be paid by the consumer to the manufacturer in the event that the consumer accepts a replacement motor vehicle.

When repurchasing the new motor vehicle, the manufacturer shall refund to the consumer the purchase price, all collateral charges, and incidental costs, less a reasonable offset for use. Refunds shall be made to the consumer and lienholder of record, if any, as his or her interests may appear.

(2) Reasonable number of attempts shall be deemed to have been undertaken by the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer to conform the new motor vehicle to the warranty within the warranty period, if: (a) The same serious safety defect has been subject to repair two or more times, at least one of which is during the period of coverage of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty; (b) the same nonconformity has been subject to diagnosis or repair four or more times, at least one of which is during the period of coverage of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty, and the nonconformity continues to exist; or (c) the vehicle is out-of-service by reason of diagnosis or repair of one or more nonconformities for a cumulative total of thirty calendar days, at least fifteen of them during the period of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty. For purposes of this subsection, the manufacturer's written warranty shall be at least one year after the date of the original delivery to the consumer of the vehicle or the first twelve thousand miles of operation, whichever occurs first.

(3) No new motor vehicle dealer may be held liable by the manufacturer for any collateral charges, incidental costs, purchase price refunds, or vehicle replacements. Manufacturers shall not have a cause of action against dealers under this chapter, but may pursue rights and remedies in other proceedings in accordance with the manufacturer-dealer franchise agreement. Consumers shall not have a cause of action against dealers under this chapter, but a violation of any responsibilities imposed upon dealers under this chapter is a per se violation of chapter 19.86 RCW. Consumers may pursue rights and remedies against dealers under any other law, including chapters 46.70 and 46.71 RCW. Manufacturers and consumers may not make dealers parties to arbitration board proceedings under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A manufacturer shall be prohibited from reselling any motor vehicle determined or adjudicated as having a serious safety defect unless the serious safety defect has been corrected and the manufacturer warrants upon the resale that the defect has been corrected.

(2) After the replacement or repurchase of a motor vehicle with a nonconformity uncorrected pursuant to this chapter, the manufacturer shall notify the attorney general and the department of licensing, by certified mail, upon receipt of the manufacturer's motor vehicle. If such nonconformity is corrected, the manufacturer shall notify the attorney general and the department of licensing of such correction.

(3) Upon the resale, either at wholesale or retail, or transfer of title of a motor vehicle with an uncorrected nonconformity and which was previously returned after a final determination, adjudication, or settlement under this chapter or under a similar statute of any other state, the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer shall execute and deliver to the buyer before sale an instrument in writing setting forth information identifying the nonconformity in a manner to be specified by the attorney general, and the department of licensing shall place on the certificate of title information indicating the vehicle was returned under this chapter.

(4) Upon receipt of the manufacturer's notification under subsection (2) of this section that the nonconformity has been corrected and upon the manufacturer's request and payment of any fees, the department of licensing shall issue a new title with information indicating the vehicle was returned under this chapter and that the nonconformity has been corrected. Upon the resale, either at wholesale or retail, or transfer of title of a motor vehicle for which a new title has been issued under this subsection, the manufacturer shall warrant upon the resale that the nonconformity has been corrected, and the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer shall execute and deliver to the buyer before sale an instrument in writing setting forth information identifying the nonconformity and indicating that it has been corrected in a manner to be specified by the attorney general.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Except as provided in section 15 of this act, the attorney general shall contract with one or more private entities to establish new motor vehicle arbitration boards to settle disputes between consumers and manufacturers as provided in this chapter. The entities shall not be affiliated with any manufacturer or new motor vehicle dealer and shall have available the services of persons with automotive technical expertise to assist in resolving disputes under this chapter. Payment to the entities for the arbitration services shall be made from the new motor vehicle arbitration account.

(2) The attorney general shall adopt rules for the uniform conduct of the arbitrations by the boards, which rules shall include but not be limited to the following procedures:

(a) At all arbitration proceedings, the parties are entitled to present oral and written testimony, to present witnesses and evidence relevant to the dispute, to cross-examine witnesses, and to be represented by counsel.

(b) A dealer, or a manufacturer or other party shall produce records and documents requested by a party which the board finds are reasonably related to the dispute. If a dealer, or a manufacturer or other party refuses to comply with the board's determination, a party may request the attorney general to issue a subpoena on behalf of the board. A party may also request the attorney general to issue a subpoena on behalf of the board for the records and documents of other persons.

(c) A party may obtain written affidavits from employees and agents of a dealer, a manufacturer or other party, or from other potential witnesses, and may submit such affidavits for consideration by the board.

(d) Records of the board proceedings shall be open to the public. The hearings shall be open to the public to the extent practicable.

(3) A consumer shall exhaust the new motor vehicle arbitration board remedy or informal dispute resolution settlement procedure under section 14 of this act before filing any superior court action.

(4) The attorney general shall maintain records of each dispute submitted to the new motor vehicle arbitration board, including an index of new motor vehicles by year, make, and model.

(5) The attorney general shall compile aggregate annual statistics for all disputes submitted to, and decided by, the new motor vehicle arbitration board, as well as annual statistics for each manufacturer that include, but shall not be limited to, the number and percent of: (a) Replacement motor vehicle requests; (b) purchase price refund requests; (c) replacement motor vehicles obtained in prehearing settlements; (d) purchase price refunds obtained in prehearing settlements; (e) replacement motor vehicles awarded in arbitration; (f) purchase price refunds awarded in arbitration; (g) board decisions neither complied with during the forty calendar day period nor petitioned for appeal within the thirty calendar day period; (h) board decisions appealed categorized by consumer or manufacturer; (i) the nature of the court decisions and who the prevailing party was; (j) appeals that were held by the court to be brought without good cause; and (k) appeals that were held by the court to be brought solely for the purpose of harassment. The statistical compilations shall be public information.

(6) The attorney general shall submit biennial reports of the information in this section to the senate and house of representatives committees on commerce and labor, with the first report due January 1, 1990.

(7) The attorney general shall adopt rules to implement this chapter. Such rules shall include uniform standards by which the boards shall make determinations under this chapter, including but not limited to rules which provide:

(a) A board shall find that a nonconformity exists if it determines that the consumer's new motor vehicle has a defect, serious safety defect, or condition that substantially impairs the use, value, or safety of the vehicle.

(b) A board shall find that a reasonable number of attempts to repair a nonconformity have been undertaken if: (i) The same serious safety defect has been subject to repair two or more times, at least one of which is during the period of coverage of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty; (ii) the same nonconformity has been subject to diagnosis or repair four or more times, at least one of which is during the period of coverage of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty, and the nonconformity continues to exist; or (iii) the vehicle is out-of-service by reason of diagnosis or repair of one or more nonconformities for a cumulative total of thirty calendar days, at least fifteen of them during the period of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty. For purposes of this subsection, the manufacturer's written warranty shall be at least one year after the date of the original delivery to the consumer of the vehicle or the first twelve thousand miles of operation, whichever occurs first.

(c) A board shall find that a manufacturer has failed to comply with section 4 of this act if it finds that the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer has failed to correct a nonconformity after a reasonable number of attempts and the manufacturer has failed, within forty days of the consumer's written request, to repurchase the vehicle or replace the vehicle with a vehicle identical or reasonably equivalent to the vehicle being replaced.

(8) The attorney general shall provide consumers with information regarding the procedures and remedies under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) A consumer may request arbitration under this chapter by submitting the request to the attorney general. Within ten days after receipt of an arbitration request, the attorney general shall make a reasonable determination of the cause of the request for arbitration and provide necessary information to the consumer regarding the consumer's rights and remedies under this chapter. The attorney general shall assign the dispute to a board, except that if it clearly appears from the materials submitted by the consumer that the dispute is not eligible for arbitration, the attorney general may refuse to assign the dispute and shall explain any required procedures to the consumer.

(2) Manufacturers shall submit to arbitration if such arbitration is requested by the consumer within thirty months from the date of original delivery of the new motor vehicle to the consumer and if the consumer's dispute is deemed eligible for arbitration by the board.

(3) The new motor vehicle arbitration board may reject for arbitration any dispute that it determines to be frivolous, fraudulent, filed in bad faith, res judicata or beyond its authority. Any dispute deemed by the board to be ineligible for arbitration due to insufficient evidence may be reconsidered by the board upon the submission of other information or documents regarding the dispute that would allegedly qualify for relief under this chapter. Following a second review, the board may reject the dispute for arbitration if evidence is still clearly insufficient to qualify the dispute for relief under this chapter. A rejection by the board is subject to review by the attorney general or may be appealed under section 8 of this act.

A decision to reject any dispute for arbitration shall be sent by certified mail to the consumer and the manufacturer, and shall contain a brief explanation as to the reason therefor.

(4) The arbitration board shall award the remedies under section 4 of this act if it finds a nonconformity and that a reasonable number of attempts have been undertaken to correct the nonconformity.

(5) It is an affirmative defense to any claim under this chapter that: (a) The alleged nonconformity does not substantially impair the use, value, or safety of the new motor vehicle; or (b) the alleged nonconformity is the result of abuse, neglect, or unauthorized modifications or alterations of the new motor vehicle.

(6) The board shall have thirty calendar days from the date the board receives the consumer's request for arbitration to hear the dispute. If the board determines that additional information is necessary, the board may continue the arbitration proceeding on a subsequent date within ten calendar days of the initial hearing. The board shall decide the dispute within sixty calendar days from the date the board receives the consumer's request for arbitration.

The decision of the board shall be sent by certified mail to the consumer and the manufacturer, and shall contain a written finding of whether the new motor vehicle meets the standards set forth under this chapter.

(7) The consumer may accept the arbitration board decision or appeal to superior court, pursuant to section 8 of this act. Upon acceptance by the consumer, the arbitration board decision shall become final. The consumer shall send written notification of acceptance to the arbitration board who shall immediately send a copy of the consumer's acceptance to the manufacturer by certified mail, return receipt requested.

(8) Upon receipt of the consumer's acceptance, the manufacturer shall have forty calendar days to comply with the arbitration board decision or thirty calendar days to file a petition of appeal in superior court. At the time the petition of appeal is filed, the manufacturer shall send, by certified mail, a conformed copy of such petition to the attorney general. If the attorney general receives no notice of petition of appeal after forty calendar days, the attorney general shall contact the consumer to verify compliance.

(9) If, at the end of the forty calendar day period, neither compliance with, nor a petition to appeal the board's decision has occurred, the attorney general may impose a fine of one thousand dollars per day until compliance occurs or a maximum penalty of one hundred thousand dollars accrues unless the manufacturer can provide clear and convincing evidence that any delay or failure was beyond its control or was acceptable to the consumer as evidenced by a written statement signed by the consumer. If the manufacturer fails to provide such evidence or fails to pay the fine, the attorney general shall initiate proceedings against the manufacturer for failure to pay any fine that accrues until compliance with the board's decision occurs or the maximum penalty of one hundred thousand dollars results.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The consumer or the manufacturer may request a trial de novo of the arbitration decision, including a rejection, in superior court.

(2) If the manufacturer appeals, the court may require the manufacturer to post security for the consumer's financial loss due to the passage of time for review.

(3) If the consumer prevails, recovery shall include the monetary value of the award, attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the superior court action, and, if the board awarded the consumer replacement or repurchase of the vehicle and the manufacturer did not comply, continuing damages in the amount of twenty-five dollars per day for all days beyond the forty calendar day period following the manufacturer's receipt of the consumer's acceptance of the board's decision in which the manufacturer did not provide the consumer with the free use of a comparable loaner replacement motor vehicle. If it is determined by the court that the manufacturer acted without good cause in bringing the appeal or brought the appeal solely for the purpose of harassment, the court may triple, but at least shall double, the amount of the total award.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A five-dollar arbitration fee shall be collected by the new motor vehicle dealer from the consumer at completion of sale. The fee shall be forwarded to the department of licensing for deposit in the new motor vehicle arbitration account hereby created in the state treasury. Moneys in the account shall be used for the purposes of this chapter, subject to appropriation.

At the end of each fiscal year, the attorney general shall prepare a report listing the annual revenue generated and the expenses incurred in implementing and operating the arbitration program under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A violation of this chapter shall constitute an unfair or deceptive trade practice affecting the public interest under chapter 19.86 RCW. All public and private remedies provided under that chapter shall be available to enforce this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Any agreement entered into by a consumer for the purchase of a new motor vehicle that waives, limits, or disclaims the rights set forth in sections 2 through 12 of this act shall be void as contrary to public policy. Said rights shall extend to a subsequent transferee of such new motor vehicle.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Nothing in this chapter limits the consumer from pursuing other rights or remedies under any other law.

Sec. 13. Section 5, chapter 240, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.118.050 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be presumed that a reasonable number of attempts have been undertaken to conform a motor vehicle to the applicable express warranties if during the term of such express warranties or during the period of one year following the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to a buyer: (1) The same nonconformity has been subject to diagnosis or repair four or more times by the manufacturer or its agents; ~~((or))~~ (2) ~~((the vehicle is out of service by reason of repair for a cumulative total of more than thirty days since the delivery of the vehicle to the buyer))~~ a serious safety defect has been subject to repair two or more times, and the defect continues to exist; or (3) the new motor vehicle is out-of-service by reason of diagnosis or repair of one or more nonconformities for a cumulative total of thirty calendar days. The thirty-day period includes each calendar day or portion thereof during which the service shop is open for business, but does not include periods during which repairs cannot be made due to ~~((conditions beyond the control of the service facility and does not include periods during~~ ~~which the buyer has been provided with a comparable replacement vehicle by the dealer or manufacturer)) reasons specified in section 3(8) of this 1987 act.~~

This section shall expire December 31, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. (1) If a manufacturer has established an informal dispute resolution settlement procedure which substantially complies with the applicable provision of Title 15, Code of Federal Regulations Part 703, as from time to time amended, a consumer may choose to first submit a dispute under this chapter to the informal dispute resolution settlement procedure.

(2) After the new motor vehicle arbitration board has been established and is operational and until December 31, 1988, consumers who have a pending case in the informal dispute resolution settlement procedure in this section may choose to transfer the case to be heard before the new motor vehicle arbitration board.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. If the attorney general is unable, or will be unable, to contract with private entities to conduct arbitrations under the procedures and standards in this chapter, by January 1, 1988, the attorney general shall establish one or more new motor vehicle arbitration boards. Each such board shall consist of three members appointed by the attorney general, only one of whom may be directly involved in the manufacture, distribution, sale, or service of any motor vehicle. Board members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 and shall be compensated pursuant to RCW 43.03.240.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 82.32 RCW to read as follows:

If a manufacturer makes a refund of sales tax to a consumer upon return of a new motor vehicle under chapter 19.118 RCW, the department shall credit or refund to the manufacturer the amount of the tax refunded, upon receipt of documentation as required by the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. Sections 2 through 12, 14, and 15 of this act are each added to chapter 19.118 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. By January 1, 1990, the appropriate standing committees of the house of representatives and the senate shall review sections 2 through 12 and 14 through 16 of this act. The committees shall receive input from consumers, manufacturers, dealers, private entities who have established boards, board members, the attorney general, and other interested persons and shall consider, among other issues, the effectiveness of the remedies available to consumers and the role of the attorney general.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. Sections 2 through 12 and 14 through 16 of this act shall expire on June 30, 1992, unless extended for an additional fixed period of time. By January 1, 1992, the legislative budget committee shall conduct a review of such provisions under the standards in chapter 43.131 RCW and report to the legislature.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. (1) There is appropriated from the new motor vehicle arbitration account to the attorney general for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, the sum of two million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

(2) Before January 1, 1988, the attorney general may expend funds appropriated under this section to establish the new motor vehicle arbitration boards.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed effective January 1, 1988:

(1) Section 2, chapter 240, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.118.020;

(2) Section 3, chapter 240, Laws of 1983, section 1, chapter 148, Laws of 1984 and RCW 19.118.030;

(3) Section 4, chapter 240, Laws of 1983, section 2, chapter 148, Laws of 1984 and RCW 19.118.040; and

(4) Section 6, chapter 240, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.118.060.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. (1) Section 9 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect June 1, 1987.

(2) Sections 2 through 8, 10 through 12, and 14 through 16 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1988, except that the attorney general may take such actions as are necessary to ensure the new motor vehicle arbitration boards are established and operational.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "warranties;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 19.118.050; adding new sections to chapter 19.118 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 82.32 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 19.118.020, 19.118.030, 19.118.040, and 19.118.060; prescribing penalties; making an appropriation; providing effective dates; providing an expiration date; and declaring an emergency."

Mr. Wang spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wang yielded to question by Mr. Barnes.

Mr. Barnes: Representative Wang, in the striking amendment the warranty period is defined as a certain amount. Does this mean that in this bill a dealer would have to give a warranty that is defined here by law?

Mr. Wang: It does not extend the basic warranty that is offered on a new car such as the typical 12-month/12,000 mile warranty. What it does do, however, is to allow a person who has made a claim during that time period—for example, the brake system doesn't work—you take it in; you try to repair it during that first time period; it still doesn't work; you keep trying to repair it over and over again even in the second year. If you cannot repair it even during the second year up to a period of 24 months or 24,000 miles, then it would be treated as a lemon.

Mr. Zellinsky spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Wang, the amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Wang and Patrick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wang yielded to question by Mr. Barnes.

Mr. Barnes: Representative Wang, there are several places in this bill that would require a manufacturer to do certain things during certain periods of time. What mechanisms would the state use to force manufacturers to conform to the law?

Mr. Wang: I'm not sure I fully understand the question. There is a procedure outlined for the process of the board, assuming that the contracted out board would have the power to have manufacturers comply with the procedure. The Attorney General will be establishing some general procedures of how the provisions would work for the board.

Mr. Sayan spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5502 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 88; nays, 7; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Sec. 3. Section 12, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

Sections 3 through 10 of this act shall take effect on ~~((July 1, 1987))~~ November 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The legislature finds that current statutes and proposals for change regarding the crime of assault are in need of careful review. Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature to delay the implementation of changes in the assault statutes in order to provide for a comprehensive examination of the current law and the desirability of amendment.

(2) There is created the assault law review commission. The commission shall consist of the following members:

(a) Three judges from courts of record appointed by the chief justice of the state supreme court;

(b) Three representatives from law schools in the state appointed by the governor;

(c) Two representatives from among the county prosecutors in the state appointed by the governor;

(d) Two representatives from the legal profession with experience in criminal defense appointed by the governor;

(e) Two state representatives, one from each caucus of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house;

(f) Two state senators, one from each caucus of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(3) The commission shall, as part of its comprehensive review of the assault laws, consider the advisability of separate assault provisions regarding minors and of providing a statutory definition or definitions of 'assault.' The commission shall consult with members of the public and interested groups, including but not limited to law enforcement and crime victims. The commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the legislature by December 1, 1987.

(4) Staffing for the commission shall be provided by the house of representatives and the senate. Legislative members of the commission shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 44.04.060. Other members of the commission shall be reimbursed jointly by the house of representatives and the senate for their travel expenses on the same basis as is provided for in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(5) This section shall expire December 15, 1987.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately. The remainder of this act shall take effect November 1, 1988."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "assault," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 9A.36.021 and 9A.04.110; amending section 12, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 (uncodified); creating a new section; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

Representatives Locke and Padden spoke in favor of the amendments to the committee amendments, and they were adopted.

The committee amendments as amended were adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5094, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5512, by Committee on Ways & Means (originally sponsored by Senators Gaspard and Johnson; by request of Department of Retirement Systems)

Revising provisions relating to service credit under the public employees retirement system.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Ways & Means/Appropriations recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 85th Day, April 6, 1987.)

Mr. Grimm moved that the committee amendments not be adopted, and the motion was carried.

On motion of Mr. Grimm, the following amendment by Representatives Grimm, H. Sommers, B. Williams and Holland was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 16, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 3, chapter 317, Laws of 1986 and RCW 41.40.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Should any member die, or should the individual separate or be separated from service without leave of absence before attaining age sixty years, or should the individual become a beneficiary, except a beneficiary of an optional retirement allowance as provided by RCW 41.40.185 or 41.40.190, the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member except:

(1) As provided in RCW 41.40.170.

(2) An employee not previously retired who reenters service shall upon completion of six months of continuous service and upon the restoration of all withdrawn contributions with interest as computed by the director, which restoration must be completed within a total period of five years of membership service following the member's first resumption of employment, be returned to the status, either as an original member or new member which the member held at time of separation.

(3) Any member, except an elected official, who reentered service and who failed to restore withdrawn contributions, shall now have from April 4, 1986, through June 30, 1987, to restore the contributions, with interest as determined by the director.

(4) Within the ninety days following the employee's resumption of employment, the employer shall notify the department of the resumption and the department shall then return to the employer a statement of the potential service credit to be restored, the amount of funds required for restoration, and the date when the restoration must be accomplished. The employee shall be given a copy of the statement and shall sign a copy of the statement which signed copy shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.

(5) A member who separates or has separated after having completed at least five years of service shall remain a member during the period of absence from service for the exclusive purpose of receiving a retirement allowance to begin at attainment of age sixty-five, however, such a member may on written notice to the director elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits as of age sixty-five: PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of the member's accumulated contributions except those additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2), the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

(6) (a) The recipient of a retirement allowance who is employed in an eligible position other than under RCW 41.40.120(12) shall be considered to have terminated his or her retirement status and shall immediately become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership the member held as of the date of retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended during the period of eligible employment and the individual shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered two uninterrupted years of service the type of retirement allowance the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated(~~(-but no additional service credit shall be allowed)~~);

(b) The recipient of a retirement allowance elected to office or appointed to office directly by the governor, and who shall apply for and be accepted in membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3) shall be considered to have terminated his or her retirement status and shall become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership the member held as of the date of retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended from the date of return to membership until the date when the member again retires and the member shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180; PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered six uninterrupted months of service the type of retirement allowance the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated, but no additional service credit shall be allowed; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such a recipient of a retirement allowance does not elect to apply for reentry into membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3), the member shall be considered to remain in a retirement status and the individual's retirement benefits shall continue without interruption.

(7) Any member who leaves the employment of an employer and enters the employ of a public agency or agencies of the state of Washington, other than those within the jurisdiction of the Washington public employees' retirement system, and who establishes membership in a retirement system or a pension fund operated by such agency or agencies and who shall continue membership therein until attaining age sixty, shall remain a member for the exclusive purpose of receiving a retirement allowance without the limitation found in RCW 41.40.180(1) to begin on attainment of age sixty-five; however, such a member may on written notice to the director elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits commencing at age sixty-five; PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of the member's accumulated contributions except those additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2), the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter ... (ESSB 5150), Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.---,--- are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Those persons who are dual members on or after July 1, 1988, shall not receive a retirement benefit from any prior system while dual members without the loss of all benefits under this chapter. Retroactive retirement in any prior system will cancel membership in any subsequent systems except as allowed under RCW 41.04.270 and will result in the refund of all employee and employer contributions made to such systems.

(2) If a member has withdrawn contributions from a prior system, the member may restore the contributions, together with interest since the date of withdrawal as determined by the system, and recover the service represented by the contributions. Such restoration must be completed within two years of establishing dual membership or prior to retirement, whichever occurs first.

(3) A member of the retirement system under chapter 41.32 RCW who is serving in office pursuant to Article II or III of the state Constitution may, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 41.40.120(4), within one year from the effective date of this section make an irrevocable election to become a member of the retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW. A member who makes this election shall receive service credit under chapter ((41-32)) 41.40 RCW for all prior and future periods of employment which are, or otherwise would be, credited under chapter 41.32 RCW. Such a member who established membership under chapter 41.32 RCW prior to June 30, 1977, shall be granted membership under chapter 41.40 RCW as if he or she had been a member of that system prior to June 30, 1977.

All contributions credited to such member under chapter 41.32 RCW for service now to be credited in the retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW shall be transferred to the system and the member shall not receive any credit nor enjoy any rights under chapter 41.32 RCW for those periods of service.

(4) Any service accrued in one system by the member shall not accrue in any other system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 1 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1987. Section 2 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1988."

On page 1, beginning on line 2 of the title, after "system," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 41.40.150; amending section 2, chapter ... (ESSB 5150), Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.-----; providing effective dates; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Grimm spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5882, by Senators Moore and Patterson

Authorizing contractors to deposit cash or securities to meet insurance requirements.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Wang, the following amendment by Representatives Wang, Patrick, Walker, Sayan and Prince was adopted:

On page 1, after line 26, insert the following:

“(3)(a) Proof of financial responsibility authorized in this section may be given by providing, in the amount required by subsection (1) of this section, an assigned account acceptable to the department. The assigned account shall be held by the department to satisfy any execution on a judgment issued against the contractor for damage to property or injury or death to any person occurring in the contractor's contracting operations, according to the provisions of the assigned account agreement. The department shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the assigned account.

(b) The assigned account filed with the director as proof of financial responsibility shall be canceled at the expiration of three years after:

(i) The contractor's registration has expired or been revoked; or

(ii) The contractor has furnished proof of insurance as required by subsection (1) of this section;

if, in either case, no legal action has been instituted against the contractor or on the account at the expiration of the three-year period.

(c) If a contractor chooses to file an assigned account as authorized in this section, the contractor shall, on any contracting project, notify each person with whom the contractor enters into a contract or to whom the contractor submits a bid that the contractor has filed an assigned account in lieu of insurance and that recovery from the account for any claim against the contractor for property damage or personal injury or death occurring in the project requires the claimant to obtain a court judgment.”

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Wang spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wang yielded to question by Mr. R. King.

Mr. R. King: A contractor is required to have property damage insurance of $20,000 and multiple personal injury insurance of $100,000. If the contractor chooses to provide an assigned account in lieu of this insurance, may the contractor provide proof of insurance to satisfy one portion of the requirement and an assigned account to satisfy the remainder of the requirements?

Mr. Wang: Yes. The assigned account is intended to be flexible to accommodate various different financial responsibility arrangements. The department of labor and industries will have discretion to approve these flexible arrangements.

Mr. Padden spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Representative Wineberry appeared at the bar of the House.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5511, by Committee on Ways & Means (originally sponsored by Senators Gaspard and Johnson; by request of Department of Retirement Systems)

Establishing a mechanism for mandatory assignment of divided retirement benefit payments.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Ways & Means/Appropriations recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 85th Day, April 6, 1987.)

On motion of Mr. Locke, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Ms. Belcher spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5511 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brække, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spaniel, Sprengle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6033, by Committee on Ways & Means (originally sponsored by Senators Newhouse, Hansen, Benitz and Deccio)

Exempting from business and occupation tax wholesale sales of hops for shipment out of state.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Braddock moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, beginning on line 9, after "use," strike everything through "warehoused" on line 10 and insert "if those hops have been processed into extract, pellets, or powder"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Braddock yielded to question by Mr. Padden.

Mr. Padden: Representative Braddock, what else would have been included, or is this simply just a clarification?

Mr. Braddock: The amendment is to clarify and be certain that we follow the precedent that we have set with other manufacturers. You might remember ferrosilicon last year. We gave an exemption because of the unique processing properties and requirements, and this would maintain that precedent.

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Madsen and Schoon spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

Revising budget and accounting procedures.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Ways & Means/Appropriations recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 85th Day, April 6, 1987.)

Mr. Locke moved adoption of the committee amendments.

On motion of Mr. Locke the following amendments by Representatives Locke and Silver to the committee amendments were adopted:

On page 9, line 29 of the amendment, after "for" insert "objects of expenditure, including but not limited to"

On page 12, line 17 of the amendment, after "of" insert "estimated"

On page 17, beginning on line 20 of the amendment, strike all material down to and including line 24 on page 19 and insert the following:

*Sec. 7. Section 2, chapter 83, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.88.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful for any agency head or disbursing officer to incur any cash deficiency and any appointive officer or employee violating the provisions of this section shall be subject to summary removal.

(2) This section does not apply to:

(a) Temporary cash deficiencies resulting from disbursements under a expenditure plan approved under RCW 43.88.110.

(b) Temporary cash deficiencies authorized by the director of financial management for funds and accounts in the state treasury or in the custody of the state treasurer. Each authorization under this subsection (b) shall distinctly specify the fund or account for which a deficiency is authorized, the maximum amount of cash deficiency which may be incurred, and the maximum time period during which the cash deficiency may continue. Each authorization shall expire at the end of each fiscal biennium unless renewed by the director of financial management. The director of financial management shall report each authorization and renewal to the legislative fiscal committees.

(c) Temporary cash deficiencies in funds or accounts which are neither in the state treasury, nor in the custody of the treasurer. If the cash deficiency does not continue past the end of the fiscal biennium.

(3) Nothing in this section permits the expenditure of moneys in excess of an applicable appropriation.

Sec. 8. Section 33, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 85, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.32.400 are each amended to read as follows:

The revenue accrual account is hereby created in the state treasury. At the close of each fiscal biennium, the state treasurer shall transfer the cash balance in the basic account of the state general fund, other than amounts (~~reappropriated~~) restricted for liabilities to be paid in the next fiscal biennium, to this account. Moneys in this account may only be spent after appropriation by statute for the purpose of decreasing the unfunded liability of a state retirement system (~~(or, during the 1983-1985 fiscal biennium, for the purpose of discharging obligations which the legislature determines are correctly chargeable to a prior biennium)~~). All earnings of investments of balances in the revenue accrual account shall be credited to the basic account of the general fund."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On page 22, beginning on line 29 of the amendment, strike all material down to and including "Immediately," on line 35 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Section 7 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately. The remainder of this act shall take effect August 1, 1987."

On page 23, line 10 of the title amendment, strike "43.88.140."

On page 23, line 13 of the title amendment, after "43.88.040," insert "providing effective dates:"

The committee amendments as amended were adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5606 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

SENATE BILL NO. 5483, by Senators Patterson and Metcalf

Authorizing certain leaves of absence to be credited toward higher education retirement benefits.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Ways & Means/Appropriations recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 85th Day, April 6, 1987.)

Mr. Locke moved that the committee amendments not be adopted, and the motion carried.

On motion of Ms. Allen, the following amendments by Representatives Allen, H. Sommers and Jacobsen were adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A faculty member or other employee designated by the boards of regents of the state universities, the boards of trustees of the regional universities and The Evergreen State College, or the state board for community college education who is granted an authorized leave of absence without pay may apply the period of time while on the leave in the computation of benefits in any annuity and retirement plan authorized under RCW 28B.10.400 through 28B.10.430 only to the extent provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) An employee who is eligible under subsection (1) of this section may receive a maximum of two years' credit during the employee's entire working career for periods of authorized leave without pay. Such credit may be obtained only if the employee pays both the employer and employee contributions required under RCW 28B.10.405 and 28B.10.410 while on the authorized leave of absence and if the employee returns to employment with the university or college immediately following the leave of absence for a period of not less than two years.

The employee and employer contributions shall be based on the average of the employee's compensation at the time the leave of absence was authorized and the time the employee resumes employment. Any benefit under RCW 28B.10.400(3) shall be based only on the employee's compensation earned from employment with the university or college.

An employee who is inducted into the armed forces of the United States shall be deemed to be on an unpaid, authorized leave of absence."

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "benefits;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and adding a new section to chapter 28B.10 RCW."

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5219, by Committee on Human Services & Corrections (originally sponsored by Senators Williams, Johnson, Kreidler, Kiskaddon and Conner)

Regulating naturopathic physicians.

The bill was read the second time.

Ms. Brekke moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Brekke, Fuhrman, Vekich, Sprenkle, Lux, Lewis, Bumgarner and D. Sommers:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that it is necessary to regulate the practice of naturopaths in order to protect the public health, safety, and welfare. It is the legislature's intent that only individuals who meet and maintain minimum standards of competence and conduct may provide service to the public.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) No person may practice or represent himself or herself as a naturopath without first applying for and receiving a license from the director to practice naturopathy.

(2) A person represents himself or herself as a naturopath when that person adopts or uses any title or any description of services that incorporates one or more of the following terms or designations: Naturopath or doctor of naturopathic medicine.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Naturopathic medicine or naturopathy is the practice by naturopaths of the art and science of the diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of disorders of the body by stimulation or support, or both, of the natural processes of the human body. A naturopath is responsible and accountable to the consumer for the quality of naturopathic care rendered.

The practice of naturopathy includes the prescription, administration, dispensing, and use, except for the treatment of malignancies or neoplastic disease, of nutrition and food science, manual manipulation (mechanotherapy), physical modalities, homeopathy, certain medicines of mineral, animal, and botanical origin, hygiene and immunization, common diagnostic procedures, and suggestion; however, nothing in this chapter shall prohibit consultation and treatment of a patient in concert with a practitioner licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

- (1) 'Department' means the department of licensing.
- (2) 'Director' means the director of licensing or the director's designee.
- (3) 'Naturopath' means an individual licensed under this chapter.
- (4) 'Committee' means the Washington state naturopathic practice advisory committee.
- (5) 'Educational program' means a program preparing persons for the practice of naturopathy.
- (6) 'Nutrition and food science' means the prevention and treatment of disease or other human conditions through the use of foods, water, herbs, roots, bark, or natural food elements.
- (7) 'Manual manipulation' or 'mechanotherapy' means manipulation of a part or the whole of the body by hand or by mechanical means.
- (8) 'Physical modalities' means use of physical, chemical, electrical, and other modalities including, but not limited to heat, cold, air, light, water in any of its forms, sound, massage, and therapeutic exercise.
- (9) 'Homeopathy' means a system of medicine based on the use of infinitesimal doses of medicines capable of producing symptoms similar to those of the disease treated, as listed in the homeopathic pharmacopeia of the United States.
- (10) 'Medicines of mineral, animal, and botanical origin' means medicines derived from animal organs, tissues, and oils, minerals, and plants administered orally and topically, excluding legend drugs with the following exceptions: Vitamins, minerals, whole gland thyroid, and substances as exemplified in traditional botanical and herbal pharmacopoeia, and non-drug contraceptive devices excluding interuterine devices. The use of intermuscular injections are limited to vitamin B-12 preparations and combinations when clinical and/or laboratory evaluation has indicated vitamin B-12 deficiency. The use of controlled substances is prohibited.
- (11) 'Hygiene and immunization' means the use of such preventative techniques as personal hygiene, asepsis, public health, and immunizations, to the extent allowed by rule and regulation.
- (12) 'Minor office procedures' means care incident thereto of superficial lacerations and abrasions, and the removal of foreign bodies located in superficial structures, not to include the eye; and the use of antiseptics and topical local anesthetics in connection therewith.
- (13) 'Common diagnostic procedures' means the use of venipuncture to withdraw blood, commonly used diagnostic modalities consistent with naturopathic practice, health history taking, physical examination, radiography, examination of body orifices excluding endoscopy, and laboratory medicine which obtains samples of human tissue products, including superficial scrapings but excluding procedures which would require surgical incision.

(14) 'Suggestion' means techniques including but not limited to counseling, biofeedback, and hypnosis.

(15) 'Radiography' means the ordering but not the interpretation of radiographic diagnostic studies and the taking and interpretation of standard radiographs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit or restrict:

(1) The practice of a profession by individuals who are licensed, certified, or registered under other laws of this state who are performing services within their authorized scope of practice;

(2) The practice of naturopathic medicine by an individual employed by the government of the United States while the individual is engaged in the performance of duties prescribed for him or her by the laws and regulations of the United States;

(3) The practice of naturopathic medicine by students enrolled in a school approved by the director. The performance of services shall be pursuant to a course of instruction or assignments from an instructor and under the supervision of the instructor. The instructor shall be a naturopath licensed pursuant to this chapter; or

(4) The practice of oriental medicine or oriental herbology, or the rendering of other dietary or nutritional advice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) In addition to any other authority provided by law, the director may:

(a) Adopt rules, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, necessary to implement this chapter;

(b) Set all license, examination, and renewal fees in accordance with RCW 43.24.086;

(c) Establish forms and procedures necessary to administer this chapter;

(d) Determine the minimum education and experience requirements for licensure in conformance with section 9 of this act, including but not limited to approval of educational programs;

(e) Prepare and administer or approve the preparation and administration of examinations for licensure;

(f) Issue a license to any applicant who has met the education, training, and examination requirements for licensure and deny a license to applicants who do not meet the minimum qualifications for licensure; except that denial of licenses based on unprofessional conduct or impaired practice shall be governed by the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW;

(g) Hire clerical, administrative, and investigative staff as needed to implement and administer this chapter and to hire individuals, including those licensed under this chapter, to serve as examiners or consultants as necessary to implement and administer this chapter;

(h) Maintain the official department record of all applicants and licensees;

(i) Determine whether alternative methods of training are equivalent to formal education, and establish forms, procedures, and criteria for evaluation of an applicant's equivalent alternative training to determine the applicant's eligibility to take the examination;

(j) Establish by rule the procedures for an appeal of examination failure;

(k) Conduct a hearing on an appeal of a denial of a license based on the applicant's failure to meet the minimum qualifications for licensure. The hearing shall be conducted pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW; and

(l) Adopt rules implementing a continuing competency program.

(2) The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs unlicensed practice, the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter. The director shall be the disciplining authority under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) There is hereby created the Washington state naturopathic advisory committee consisting of five members appointed by the director who shall advise the director concerning the administration of this chapter. Three members of the initial committee shall be persons who would qualify for licensing under this chapter. Their successors shall be naturopaths who are licensed under this chapter. Two members of the committee shall be individuals who are unaffiliated with the profession. For the initial committee, one unaffiliated member and one naturopath shall serve four-year terms, one unaffiliated member and one naturopath shall serve three-year terms, and one naturopath shall serve a two-year term. The term of office for committee members after the initial committee is four years. Any committee member may be removed for just cause including a finding of fact of unprofessional conduct, impaired practice, or more than three unexcused absences. The director may appoint a new member to fill any vacancy on the committee for the remainder of the unexpired term.

No committee member may serve more than two consecutive terms, whether full or partial.

(2) Committee members shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The committee may elect annually a chair and vice-chair to direct the meetings of the committee. The committee shall meet at least once each year, and may hold additional meetings as called by the director or the chair.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The director, members of the committee, or individuals acting on their behalf, are immune from suit in any civil action based on any act performed in the course of their duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department shall issue a license to any applicant who meets the following requirements:

(1) Successful completion of an educational program approved by the director, the minimum standard of which shall be the successful completion of a doctorate degree program in naturopathy which includes a minimum of two hundred post-graduate hours in the study of mechanotherapy from an approved educational program, or successful completion of equivalent alternate training that meets the criteria established by the director;

(2) Successful completion of any equivalent experience requirement established by the director;

(3) Successful completion of an examination administered or approved by the director;

(4) Good moral character; and

(5) Not having engaged in unprofessional conduct or being unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety as a result of a physical or mental impairment.

The director shall establish what constitutes adequate proof of meeting the above requirements. Any person holding a valid license to practice drugless therapeutics under chapter 18.36 RCW upon the effective date of this section shall be deemed licensed pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The director shall establish by rule the standards for approval of educational programs and alternate training and may contract with individuals or organizations having expertise in the profession and/or in education to report to the director the information necessary for the director to evaluate the educational programs. The standards for approval shall be based on the minimal competencies necessary for safe practice. The standards and procedures for approval shall apply equally to educational programs and equivalent alternate training within the United States and those in foreign jurisdictions. The director may establish a fee for educational program evaluation. The fee shall be determined by the administrative costs for the educational program evaluation, including, but not limited to, costs for site evaluation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The date and location of the examination shall be established by the director. Applicants who have been found to meet the education and experience requirements for licensure shall be scheduled for the next examination following the filing of the application. The director shall establish by rule the examination application deadline.

(2) The examination shall contain subjects appropriate to the standards of competency and scope of practice.

(3) The director shall establish by rule the requirements for a reexamination if the applicant has failed the examination.

(4) The committee may recommend to the director an examination prepared or administered, or both, by a private testing agency or association of licensing boards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The director shall establish by rule the standards for licensure of applicants licensed in another jurisdiction. However, the standards for reciprocity of licensure shall not be less than required for licensure in the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Applications for licensure shall be submitted on forms provided by the department. The department may require any information and documentation needed to determine if the applicant meets the criteria for licensure as provided in this chapter and chapter 18.130 RCW. Each applicant shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. The fee shall be submitted with the application.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The director shall establish by rule the requirements for renewal of licenses. The director shall establish a renewal and late renewal penalty fee as provided in RCW 43.24.086. Failure to renew shall invalidate the license and all privileges granted by the license. The director shall determine by rule whether a license shall be canceled for failure to renew and shall establish procedures and prerequisites for relicensure.

Sec. 15. Section 5, chapter 326, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.06.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person seeking to be examined shall present to the director at least forty-five days before the commencement of the examination:

(1) A written application on a form or forms provided by the director setting forth under affidavit such information as the director may require; and

(2) Proof that the candidate has:

((~~tb~~)) (a) Successfully completed a course, approved by the director, of didactic training in basic sciences and acupuncture over a minimum period of two academic years. The training shall include such subjects as anatomy, physiology, bacteriology, biochemistry, pathology, hygiene, and a survey of western clinical sciences. The basic science classes must be equivalent to those offered at the collegiate level. However, if the applicant is a licensed chiropractor under chapter 18.25 RCW or a (~~drugless healer under chapter 18.36 RCW~~) naturopath licensed under chapter 18.— RCW (sections 1 through 14 of this 1987 act), the requirements of this subsection relating to basic sciences may be reduced by up to one year depending upon the extent of the candidate's qualifications as determined under rules adopted by the director:

((e)) (b) Successfully completed a course, approved by the director, of clinical training in acupuncture over a minimum period of one academic year. The training shall include a minimum of: (i) Twenty-nine quarter credits of supervised practice, consisting of at least four hundred separate patient treatments involving a minimum of one hundred different patients, and (ii) one hundred hours or nine quarter credits of observation which shall include case presentation and discussion.

Sec. 16. Section 14, chapter 122, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 170, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.100.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall authorize a director, officer, shareholder, agent or employee of a corporation organized under this chapter, or a corporation itself organized under this chapter, to do or perform any act which would be illegal, unethical or unauthorized conduct under the provisions of the following acts: (1) Medical disciplinary act, chapter 18.72 RCW; (2) Anti-rebating act, chapter 19.68 RCW; (3) State bar act, chapter 2.48 RCW; (4) Professional accounting act, chapter 18.04 RCW; (5) Professional architects act, chapter 18.08 RCW; (6) Professional auctioneers act, chapter 18.11 RCW; (7) ~~Barbers, chapter 18.15 RCW; (8) Cosmetology, chapter 18.18 RCW;~~ (8) Cosmetologists, barbers, and manicurists, chapter 18.16 RCW; ((9)) (8) Boarding homes act, chapter 18.20 RCW; ((10)) (9) Podiatry, chapter 18.22 RCW; ((11)) (10) Chiropractic act, chapter 18.25 RCW; ((12)) (11) Registration of contractors, chapter 18.27 RCW; ((13)) (12) Debt adjusting act, chapter 18.28 RCW; ((14)) (13) Dental hygienist act, chapter 18.29 RCW; ((15)) (14) Dentistry, chapter 18.32 RCW; ((16)) (15) Dispensing opticians, chapter 18.34 RCW; ((17) ~~Drugless healing, chapter 18.36 RCW; (18)~~) (16) Naturopathic act, chapter 18.34 RCW (sections 1 through 14 of this 1987 act); (17) Embalmers and funeral directors, chapter 18.39 RCW; ((19)) (18) Engineers and land surveyors, chapter 18.43 RCW; ((20)) (19) Escrow agents registration act, chapter 18.44 RCW; ((21) ~~Furniture and bedding industry, chapter 18.45 RCW; (22)~~) (20) Maternity homes, chapter 18.46 RCW; ((23)) (21) Midwifery, chapter 18.50 RCW; ((24)) (22) Nursing homes, chapter 18.51 RCW; ((25)) (23) Optometry, chapter 18.53 RCW; ((26)) (24) Osteopathy, chapter 18.57 RCW; ((27)) (25) Pharmacists, chapter 18.64 RCW; ((28)) (26) Physical therapy, chapter 18.74 RCW; ((29)) (27) Practical nurses, chapter 18.78 RCW; ((30) ~~Prophylactic vendors, chapter 18.81 RCW; (31)~~) (28) Psychologists, chapter 18.83 RCW; ((32)) (29) Real estate brokers and salesmen, chapter 18.85 RCW; ((33)) (30) Registered professional nurses, chapter 18.88 RCW; ((34) ~~Sanitarians, chapter 18.90 RCW; (35)~~) (31) Veterinarians, chapter 18.92 RCW.

Sec. 17. Section 3, chapter 117, Laws of 1985 and section 28, Laws of 326, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.120.020 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Applicant group' includes any health professional group or organization, any individual, or any other interested party which proposes that any health professional group not presently regulated be regulated or which proposes to substantially increase the scope of practice of the profession.

(2) 'Certificate' and 'certification' mean a voluntary process by which a statutory regulatory entity grants recognition to an individual who (a) has met certain prerequisite qualifications specified by that regulatory entity, and (b) may assume or use 'certified' in the title or designation to perform prescribed health professional tasks.

(3) 'Grandfather clause' means a provision in a regulatory statute applicable to practitioners actively engaged in the regulated health profession prior to the effective date of the regulatory statute which exempts the practitioners from meeting the prerequisite qualifications set forth in the regulatory statute to perform prescribed occupational tasks.

(4) 'Health professions' means and includes the following health and health-related licensed or regulated professions and occupations: Podiatry under chapter 18.22 RCW; chiropractic under chapters 18.25 and 18.26 RCW; dental hygiene under chapter 18.29 RCW; dentistry under chapter 18.32 RCW; dispensing opticians under chapter 18.34 RCW; hearing aids under chapter 18.35 RCW; ~~(drugless healing under chapter 18.36 RCW)~~ naturopaths under chapter 18.34 RCW (sections 1 through 14 of this 1987 act); embalming and funeral directing under chapter 18.39 RCW; midwifery under chapter 18.50 RCW; nursing home administration under chapter 18.52 RCW; optometry under chapters 18.53 and 18.54 RCW; ophthalmologists under chapter 18.55 RCW; osteopathy and osteopathic medicine and surgery under chapters 18.57 and 18.57A RCW; pharmacy under chapters 18.64 and 18.64A RCW; medicine under chapters 18.71, 18.71A, and 18.72 RCW; emergency medicine under chapter 18.73 RCW; physical therapy under chapter 18.74 RCW; practical nurses under chapter 18.78 RCW; psychologists under chapter 18.83 RCW; registered nurses under chapter 18.88 RCW; occupational therapists licensed pursuant to chapter 18.59 RCW; veterinarians and animal technicians under chapter 18.92 RCW; health care assistants under chapter 18.135 RCW; massage practitioners under chapter 18.108 RCW; and acupuncturists certified under chapter 18.06 RCW.

(5) 'Inspection' means the periodic examination of practitioners by a state agency in order to ascertain whether the practitioners' occupation is being carried out in a fashion consistent with the public health, safety, and welfare.

(6) 'Legislative committees of reference' means the standing legislative committees designated by the respective rules committees of the senate and house of representatives to consider proposed legislation to regulate health professions not previously regulated.

(7) 'License', 'licensing', and 'licensure' mean permission to engage in a health profession which would otherwise be unlawful in the state in the absence of the permission. A license is granted to those individuals who meet prerequisite qualifications to perform prescribed health professional tasks and for the use of a particular title.

(8) 'Professional license' means an individual, nontransferable authorization to carry on a health activity based on qualifications which include: (a) Graduation from an accredited or approved program, and (b) acceptable performance on a qualifying examination or series of examinations.

(9) 'Practitioner' means an individual who (a) has achieved knowledge and skill by practice, and (b) is actively engaged in a specified health profession.

(10) 'Public member' means an individual who is not, and never was, a member of the health profession being regulated or the spouse of a member, or an individual who does not have and never has had a material financial interest in either the rendering of the health professional service being regulated or an activity directly related to the profession being regulated.

(11) 'Registration' means the formal notification which, prior to rendering services, a practitioner shall submit to a state agency setting forth the name and address of the practitioner; the location, nature and operation of the health activity to be practiced; and, if required by the regulatory entity, a description of the service to be provided.

(12) 'Regulatory entity' means any board, commission, agency, division, or other unit or subunit of state government which regulates one or more professions, occupations, industries, businesses, or other endeavors in this state.

(13) 'State agency' includes every state office, department, board, commission, regulatory entity, and agency of the state, and, where provided by law, programs and activities involving less than the full responsibility of a state agency.

Sec. 18. Section 4, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 29, chapter 326, Laws of 1985 and by section 3, chapter 259, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.130.040 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) This chapter applies only to the director and the boards having jurisdiction in relation to the professions licensed under the chapters specified in this section. This chapter does not apply to any business or profession not licensed under the chapters specified in this section.

(2) (a) The director has authority under this chapter in relation to the following professions:

(i) Dispensing opticians licensed under chapter 18.34 RCW;

(ii) ~~(Drugless healers licensed under chapter 18.36 RCW)~~ Naturopaths licensed under chapter 18.-- RCW (sections 1 through 14 of this act);

(iii) Midwives licensed under chapter 18.50 RCW;

(iv) Ocularists licensed under chapter 18.55 RCW;

(v) Massage operators and businesses licensed under chapter 18.108 RCW;

(vi) Dental hygienists licensed under chapter 18.29 RCW; and

(vii) Acupuncturists certified under chapter 18.106 RCW.

(b) The boards having authority under this chapter are as follows:

(i) The podiatry board as established in chapter 18.22 RCW;

(ii) The chiropractic disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.26 RCW governing licenses issued under chapter 18.25 RCW;

(iii) The dental disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.32 RCW;

(iv) The board of funeral directors and embalmers as established in chapter 18.39 RCW;

(v) The optometry board as established in chapter 18.54 RCW governing licenses issued under chapter 18.53 RCW;

(vi) The board of osteopathic medicine and surgery as established in chapter 18.57 RCW governing licenses issued under chapters 18.57 and 18.57A RCW;

(vii) The medical disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.72 RCW governing licenses and registrations issued under chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW;

(viii) The board of physical therapy as established in chapter 18.74 RCW;

(ix) The board of occupational therapy practice as established in chapter 18.59 RCW;

(x) The board of practical nursing as established in chapter 18.78 RCW;

(xi) The board of nursing as established in chapter 18.88 RCW; and

(xii) The veterinary board of governors as established in chapter 18.92 RCW.

(3) In addition to the authority to discipline license holders, the disciplining authority has the authority to grant or deny licenses based on the conditions and criteria established in this chapter and the chapters specified in subsection (2) of this section. However, the board of chiropractic examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in chapter 18.25 RCW, the board of dental examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in RCW 18.32.040, and the board of medical examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses and registrations provided for in chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW. This chapter also governs any investigation, hearing, or proceeding relating to denial of licensure or issuance of a license conditioned on the applicant's compliance with an order entered pursuant to RCW 18.130.160 by the disciplining authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 1 through 14 of this act shall constitute a chapter in Title 18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Sections 1 through 14 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington state naturopathic practice advisory committee and its powers and duties shall be terminated on June 30, 1993, as provided in section 22 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The following acts or parts of acts, as now existing or hereafter amended, are each repealed, effective June 30, 1994:

- (1) Section 1 of this act and RCW 18._____;
- (2) Section 2 of this act and RCW 18._____;

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5941, by Committee on Parks & Ecology (originally sponsored by Senators Kreidler and Bottiger)

Revising provisions on hazardous waste.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Environmental Affairs recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, April 3, 1987.)

Ms. Rust moved adoption of the committee amendments.

On motion of Mr. Locke, the following amendments by the Committee on Ways & Means/Appropriations to the committee amendments were adopted:

On page 5 of the amendment, after line 7, strike all of section 8

On page 6, line 2 of the title amendment, strike "making an appropriation;"

Ms. Unsoeld moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Unsoeld and Rust to the committee amendments:

On page 5, after line 1, strike all material through line 7 and insert the following:

"The director shall adopt a comprehensive plan for establishing hazardous waste fees. Such plan shall require (1) the department to impose fees, or a method of determining fees, with respect to any notices, reports, permits or applications required to be filed with the department under, or any inspections, reports or studies conducted by the department under, this chapter or rules adopted pursuant to this chapter; (2) all fees charged to be reasonable; and (3) the fees for each type of notice, report, permit, application, inspection, or study to be set at a level or levels which may not generate revenues in excess of the amount of public funds that are used to pay for the particular hazardous waste program to which that type of notice, report, permit, application, inspection or study pertains. The director shall fully implement the plan within ninety days after the effective date of this 1987 act. The director may revise the plan in order to address changed circumstances and shall implement the revised plan as provided therein. All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the hazardous waste control and elimination account. The fees initially established under this 1987 act also shall apply to all permit applications pending before the department at the time the plan is first adopted."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. May: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I request a ruling on scope and object, please.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative May, the Speaker has examined Substitute Senate Bill No. 5941, an act relating to hazardous waste planning. The intention of the bill is that the Department of Ecology shall identify methods of providing needed hazardous waste capacity. In Section 5 we talk about the department charging fees in amounts sufficient to cover the costs of the processing of the applications. The amendment directs the director, "The director shall adopt a comprehensive plan for establishing hazardous waste fees." and goes on "which cannot exceed generated revenues in excess of the amount of public funds that are used to pay for the particular hazardous waste program". I find the amendment to be perfecting, to be clarifying, and shall rule it within scope and object. Your point is not well taken.

Representatives Unsoeld, Allen and Rust spoke in favor of the amendment to the committee amendments, and Representatives Walker, May and Heavey spoke against it.

Ms. Unsoeld spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Walker again opposed it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Representatives Unsoeld and Rust to the committee amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5941, and the amendment was adopted the following vote: Yeas, 51; nays, 45; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Basich, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Cantwell, Cole, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grimm, Haugen, Hine, Holm, Jacobsen, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, McMullen, Meyers, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 51.

Voting nay: Representatives Amondson, Ballard, Barnes, Baugher, Beck, Betrozoff, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Chandler, Cooper, Day, Doty, Ferguson, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Hargrove, Heavey, Holland, Jesernig, Kremen, Lewis, Madsen, May, McLean, Miller, Nealey, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Taylor, Walker, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 45.

Excused: Representatives Brooks, Moyer - 2.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the committee amendments as amended.

Ms. Rust spoke in favor of the committee amendments as amended, and Ms. Walker opposed them.

The committee amendments as amended were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. May spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5941 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 95; nays, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Waik, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 95.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5941 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5393, by Committee on Commerce & Labor (originally sponsored by Senators Tanner, Warnke, Lee, Smitherman, Williams, Talmadge, Wojahn, Rasmussen and Moore; by request of Joint Select Committee on Unemployment Insurance and Compensation)

Making older unemployed workers and the long-term unemployed the highest priority for services available from the job service program of the employment security department.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Commerce & Labor recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 80th Day, April 1, 1987.)

On motion of Mr. Wang, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Wang spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Wang yielded to question by Mr. Patrick.

Mr. Patrick: Is it the intent of this bill to restructure the current claimant placement program into a program that is only for older workers and long-term unemployed workers?

Mr. Wang: No. This bill simply recognizes that unemployment insurance claimants who are older workers or who are likely to be unemployed for long periods find it more difficult to become reemployed than other claimants. The claimant placement program offers special services that these workers need. This bill ensures their participation in that special assistance program.

Mr. Patrick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5393 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 94; nays, 2; excused, 2.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 10, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 88 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 61, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 39.29.003 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of this chapter to ~~((provide for a comprehensive legislative review of))~~ establish a policy of open competition for all personal service contracts ~~((negotiated within))~~ entered into by state ~~((government))~~ agencies, unless specifically exempted under this chapter ~~((and to centralize executive supervision of these expenditures by the office of financial management)).~~ It is further the intent to provide for legislative and executive review of all personal service contracts negotiated without an open competitive process.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 61, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 263, Laws of 1981 and RCW 39.29.006 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) ~~(('Personal service contract' means an agreement, or any amendment or renewal thereto, with an independent contractor for the rendering of personal services to the state.~~

(2) ~~'Personal service' means performing a specific study, project, or task which requires professional or technical expertise but does not mean personal service performed for the purpose of routine continuing and necessary services, including but not limited to routine maintenance, operation of the physical plant, security, data entry, key punch services, and graphic design.~~

(3) ~~'Agency' means any state ((officer)) office or activity of the executive and judicial branches of state government, including state agencies, departments, offices, divisions, boards, commissions, and educational, correctional, and other types of institutions.~~

(4) ~~'Client services' means services provided directly to agency clients including, but not limited to, medical and dental services, employment and training programs, residential care, and subsidized housing.~~

(5) ~~'Competitive solicitation' means a documented formal process providing an equal and open opportunity to qualified parties and culminating in a selection based on criteria which may include such factors as the consultant's fees or costs, ability, capacity, experience, reputation, responsiveness to time limitations, responsiveness to solicitation requirements, quality of previous performance, and compliance with statutes and rules relating to contracts or services.~~

(6) ~~'Consultant' means an independent individual or firm contracting with an agency to perform a service or render an opinion or recommendation according to the consultant's methods and without being subject to the control of the agency except as to the result of the work. The agency monitors progress under the contract and authorizes payment.~~

(7) ~~'Emergency' means a set of unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of the agency that either:~~

(a) Present a real, immediate threat to the proper performance of essential functions; or

(b) May result in material loss or damage to property, bodily injury, or loss of life if immediate action is not taken.

(8) ~~'Evidence of competition' means documentation demonstrating that the agency has solicited responses from multiple firms in selecting a consultant.~~

(9) ~~'Personal service' means professional or technical expertise provided by a consultant to accomplish a specific study, project, task, or other work statement. This term does not include purchased services as defined under subsection (9) of this section. This term does include client services.~~

(10) ~~'Personal service contract' means an agreement, or any amendment thereto, with a consultant for the rendering of personal services to the state.~~

(11) ~~'Purchased services' means services provided by a vendor to accomplish routine, continuing and necessary functions. This term includes, but is not limited to, services acquired under RCW 43.19.190 or 43.105.041 for equipment maintenance and repair; operation of a physical plant; security; computer hardware and software maintenance; data entry; key punch services; and computer time-sharing, contract programming, and analysis.~~

(10) 'Sole source' means a consultant providing professional or technical expertise of such a unique nature that the consultant is clearly and justifiably the only practicable source to provide the service. The justification shall be based on either the uniqueness of the service or sole availability at the location required.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:

All personal service contracts shall be entered into pursuant to competitive solicitation, except for:

- (1) Emergency contracts;
- (2) Sole source contracts;
- (3) Contract amendments;

(4) Contracts between a consultant and an agency of less than ten thousand dollars. However, contracts of two thousand five hundred dollars or greater but less than ten thousand dollars shall have documented evidence of competition. Agencies shall not structure contracts to evade these requirements; and

(5) Other specific contracts or classes or groups of contracts exempted from the competitive solicitation process by the director of the office of financial management when it has been determined that a competitive solicitation process is not appropriate or cost-effective.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:

Emergency contracts shall be filed with the office of financial management and the legislative budget committee and made available for public inspection within three working days following the commencement of work or execution of the contract, whichever occurs first. Documented justification for emergency contracts shall be provided to the office of financial management and the legislative budget committee when the contract is filed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Sole source contracts shall be filed with the office of financial management and the legislative budget committee and made available for public inspection at least ten working days prior to the proposed starting date of the contract. Documented justification for sole source contracts shall be provided to the office of financial management and the legislative budget committee when the contract is filed.

(2) The office of financial management shall approve sole source contracts of ten thousand dollars or more before any such contract becomes binding and before any services may be performed under the contract. These requirements shall also apply to sole source contracts of less than ten thousand dollars if the total amount of such contracts between an agency and the same consultant is ten thousand dollars or more within a fiscal year.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 191, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 39.29.020 are each amended to read as follows:

No state officer or activity of state government subject to this chapter shall expend any funds for personal service contracts ~~((without first complying with the provisions of RCW 39.29.010. Except in cases where filing delay has been authorized under RCW 39.29.010, no contract shall become effective until ten days following the date of filing pursuant to this chapter, or the effective date of the contract whichever is later))~~ unless the agency has complied with the competitive procurement and other requirements of this chapter. The state officer or employee executing the personal service contracts shall be responsible for compliance with the ~~((filing))~~ requirements of this chapter. Failure to comply with the ~~((filing))~~ requirements of this chapter shall subject the state officer or employee to a civil penalty in the amount of three hundred dollars. A consultant who knowingly violates this chapter in seeking or performing work under a personal services contract shall be subject to a civil penalty of three hundred dollars or twenty-five percent of the amount of the contract, whichever is greater. The state auditor is responsible for auditing violations of this chapter. The attorney general is responsible for prosecuting violations of this chapter.

Sec. 7. Section 4, chapter 61, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 33, Laws of 1986 and RCW 39.29.040 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Except as provided in RCW 39.29.070))~~ This chapter does not apply to:

(1) Contracts specifying a fee of less than two thousand five hundred dollars if the total of ~~((such))~~ the contracts from that agency with the contractor within a ~~((twelve-month period))~~ fiscal year does not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars;

(2) ~~((Contracts awarded through competitive bids if the bidding follows a formal, documented bid procedure and if the request for bids is advertised through the media normally used by the particular service being sought. PROVIDED, That for management purposes, the office of financial management may require the filing of certain contracts exempted under this subsection;~~

~~((3) Contracts where the contracting agency recognizes that an employee-employer relationship exists;~~

~~((4))~~ Contracts awarded to companies that furnish a service where the tariff is established by the utilities and transportation commission or other public entity;

~~((5))~~ (3) Intergovernmental agreements awarded to any ~~((public corporation))~~ governmental entity, whether federal, state, or local and any department, division, or subdivision thereof; ~~((and~~

~~(6))~~ (4) Contracts awarded for services to be performed for a standard fee, when the standard fee is established by the contracting agency or any other ~~((public corporation))~~ governmental entity and a like contract is available to all qualified applicants;

(5) Contracts for services that are necessary to the conduct of collaborative research if prior approval is granted by the funding source;

(6) Contracts for client services;

(7) Contracts for architectural and engineering services as defined in RCW 39.80.020, which shall be entered into under chapter 39.80 RCW; and

(8) Contracts for the employment of expert witnesses for the purposes of litigation, except that such contracts shall be filed within the same time period as emergency contracts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:

To implement this chapter, the director of the office of financial management shall establish procedures for the competitive solicitation and award of personal service contracts, recordkeeping requirements, and procedures for the reporting and filing of contracts. For reporting purposes, the director may establish categories for grouping of contracts. The procedures required under this section shall also include the criteria for amending personal service contracts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:

Personal service contracts that establish an employer-employee relationship between the contracting agency and a consultant are hereby prohibited. The procedures required under section 8 of this act shall include criteria to distinguish employer-employee relationships from independent contractor relationships.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:

As requested by the legislative auditor, the office of financial management shall provide information on contracts filed under this chapter for use in preparation of summary reports on personal services contracts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:

During a legislative session, any lobbyist registered under chapter 42.17 RCW or any business that has a lobbyist as one of the principal owners or partners, shall not enter into a personal services contract with the legislature, any committee, office, officer, or employee of the legislature, the executive branch, any officer or employee of the executive branch, or any state agency.

Sec. 12. Section 3, chapter 32, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 1, chapter 103, Laws of 1980 and RCW 43.19.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of general administration, through the state purchasing and material control director, shall:

(1) Establish and staff such administrative organizational units within the division of purchasing as may be necessary for effective administration of the provisions of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939;

(2) Purchase all material, supplies, services, and equipment needed for the support, maintenance, and use of all state institutions, colleges, community colleges, and universities, the offices of the elective state officers, the supreme court, the court of appeals, the administrative and other departments of state government, and the offices of all appointive officers of the state: PROVIDED, That the provisions of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1937 do not apply in any manner to the operation of the state legislature except as requested by said legislature: PROVIDED, That primary authority for the purchase of specialized equipment, instructional, and research material for their own use shall rest with the colleges, community colleges, and universities: PROVIDED FURTHER, That universities operating hospitals may make purchases for hospital operation by participating in contracts for materials, supplies, and equipment entered into by cooperative hospital service organizations as defined in section 501(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, or its successor: PROVIDED FURTHER, That primary authority for the purchase of materials, supplies, and equipment for resale to other than public agencies shall rest with the state agency concerned: PROVIDED FURTHER, That authority to purchase services as included herein does not apply to personal services ~~((authorized for direct acquisition from vendors by state organizations and filed under the provisions of RCW 39.29.010 through 39.29.030))~~ as defined in chapter 39.29 RCW, unless such organization specifically requests assistance from the division of purchasing in obtaining personal services and resources are available within the division to provide such assistance: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the authority for the purchase of insurance and bonds shall rest with the risk manager under RCW 43.19.1935 as now or hereafter amended;

(3) Provide the required staff assistance for the state supply management advisory board through the division of purchasing;

(4) Have authority to delegate to state agencies authorization to purchase or sell, which authorization shall specify restrictions as to dollar amount or to specific types of material, equipment, services, and supplies: PROVIDED, That acceptance of the purchasing authorization by a state agency does not relieve such agency from conformance with other sections of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939, as now or hereafter amended, or from policies established by the director after consultation with the state supply management advisory board: PROVIDED FURTHER, That delegation of such authorization to a state agency, including an educational institution, to purchase or sell material, equipment, services, and supplies shall not be granted, or otherwise continued under a previous authorization, if such agency is not in substantial compliance with overall state purchasing and material control policies as established herein:

(5) Contract for the testing of material, supplies, and equipment with public and private agencies as necessary and advisable to protect the interests of the state;

(6) Prescribe the manner of inspecting all deliveries of supplies, materials, and equipment purchased through the division;

(7) Prescribe the manner in which supplies, materials, and equipment purchased through the division shall be delivered, stored, and distributed;

(8) Provide for the maintenance of a catalogue library, manufacturers' and wholesalers' lists, and current market information;

(9) Provide for a commodity classification system and may, in addition, provide for the adoption of standard specifications after receiving the recommendation of the supply management advisory board;

(10) Provide for the maintenance of inventory records of supplies, materials, and other property;

(11) Prepare rules and regulations governing the relationship and procedures between the division of purchasing and state agencies and vendors;

(12) Publish procedures and guidelines for compliance by all state agencies, including educational institutions, which implement overall state purchasing and material control policies;

(13) Conduct periodic visits to state agencies, including educational institutions, to determine if statutory provisions and supporting purchasing and material control policies are being fully implemented, and based upon such visits, take corrective action to achieve compliance with established purchasing and material control policies under existing statutes when required.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 191, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., section 44, chapter 151, Laws of 1979, section 3, chapter 61, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 39.29.010;

(2) Section 3, chapter 191, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 225, Laws of 1981 and RCW 39.29.030;

(3) Section 1, chapter 33, Laws of 1986 and RCW 39.29.060; and

(4) Section 2, chapter 33, Laws of 1986 and RCW 39.29.070.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "contracts;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 39.29.003, 39.29.006, 39.29.020, 39.29.040, and 43.19.190; adding new sections to chapter 39.29 RCW; repealing RCW 39.29.010, 39.29.030, 39.29.060, and 39.29.070; and declaring an emergency."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Ms. H. Sommers, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 88 and asked the Senate for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives H. Sommers, Peery and Hankins as conferees on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 88.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 14, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 359 with the following amendments:

On page 3, beginning on line 4, after "judge," strike all material down to and including line 8

On page 5, line 15, strike "ten" and insert "((ten)) eight"

On page 5, beginning on line 22, after "death" strike all material down to and including "cease," on line 24 and insert "(~~AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the surviving spouse remarries all benefits under this chapter shall cease~~))."

On page 5, after line 30, insert the following:

"(3) The surviving spouse of any judge who had served eight or more years and who died in office after January 1, 1986, but prior to the effective date of this 1987 section is eligible for the survivor benefit provided in subsection (1) of this section."

On page 8, beginning on line 5, strike all material down to and including line 16

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On page 8, after line 23, insert the following:

"Sec. 12. Section 3, chapter 229, Laws of 1937 as last amended by section 1, chapter 154, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 2.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Supreme court, court of appeals, or superior court judges of the state who retire from office under the provisions of this chapter other than as provided in RCW 2.12.012 shall be entitled to receive monthly during the period of their natural life, out of the fund hereinafter created, an amount equal to one-half of the monthly salary they were receiving as a judge at the time of their retirement, or at the end of the term immediately prior to their retirement if their retirement is made after expiration of their term. The surviving spouse of any judge who shall have heretofore retired or may hereafter retire, or of a judge who was heretofore or may hereafter be eligible for retirement at the time of death, if the surviving spouse had been married to the judge for three years, if the surviving spouse had been married to the judge prior to retirement, shall be paid an amount equal to one-half of the retirement pay of the judge (~~as long as such surviving spouse remains unmarried~~). The retirement pay shall be paid monthly by the state treasurer on or before the tenth day of each month. The provisions of this section shall apply to the surviving spouse of any judge who dies while holding such office or dies after having retired under the provisions of this chapter and who at the time of death had served ten or more years in the aggregate as a judge of the supreme court, court of appeals, or superior court or any of such courts, or had served an aggregate of twelve years in the supreme court, court of appeals, or superior court if such pension rights are based upon RCW 2.12.012.

Sec. 13. Section 1, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 7, chapter 13, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.40.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(1) 'Retirement system' means the public employees' retirement system provided for in this chapter.

(2) 'Retirement board' means the board provided for in this chapter and chapter 41.26 RCW.

(3) 'State treasurer' means the treasurer of the state of Washington.

(4) (a) 'Employer' for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before September 30, 1977, means every branch, department, agency, commission, board, and office of the state, any political subdivision or association of political subdivisions of the state admitted into the retirement system, and legal entities authorized by RCW 35.63.070 and 36.70.060 or chapter 39.34 RCW as now or hereafter amended; and the term shall also include any labor guild, association, or organization the membership of a local lodge or division of which is comprised of at least forty percent employees of an employer (other than such labor guild, association, or organization) within this chapter. The term may also include any city of the first class that has its own retirement system.

(b) 'Employer' for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after October 1, 1977, means every branch, department, agency, commission, board, and office of the state, and any political subdivision and municipal corporation of the state admitted into the retirement system, including public agencies created pursuant to RCW 35.63.070, 36.70.060, and 39.34.030.

(5) 'Member' means any employee included in the membership of the retirement system, as provided for in RCW 41.40.120.

(6) 'Original member' of this retirement system means:

(a) Any person who became a member of the system prior to April 1, 1949;

(b) Any person who becomes a member through the admission of an employer into the retirement system on and after April 1, 1949, and prior to April 1, 1951;

(c) Any person who first becomes a member by securing employment with an employer prior to April 1, 1951, provided the member has rendered at least one or more years of service to any employer prior to October 1, 1947;

(d) Any person who first becomes a member through the admission of an employer into the retirement system on or after April 1, 1951, provided, such person has been in the regular employ of the employer for at least six months of the twelve-month period preceding the said admission date;

(e) Any member who has restored all contributions that may have been withdrawn as provided by RCW 41.40.150 and who on the effective date of the individual's retirement becomes entitled to be credited with ten years or more of membership service except that the provisions relating to the minimum amount of retirement allowance for the member upon retirement at age seventy as found in RCW 41.40.190(4) shall not apply to the member;

(f) Any member who has been a contributor under the system for two or more years and who has restored all contributions that may have been withdrawn as provided by RCW 41.40.150 and who on the effective date of the individual's retirement has rendered five or more years of service for the state or any political subdivision prior to the time of the admission of the employer into the system, except that the provisions relating to the minimum amount of retirement allowance for the member upon retirement at age seventy as found in RCW 41.40.190(4) shall not apply to the member.

(7) 'New member' means a person who becomes a member on or after April 1, 1949, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(8) (a) 'Compensation earnable' for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before September 30, 1977, means salaries or wages earned during a payroll period for personal services and where the compensation is not all paid in money, maintenance compensation shall be included upon the basis of the schedules established by the member's employer: PROVIDED, That retroactive payments to an individual by an employer on reinstatement of the employee in a position, or payments by an employer to an individual in lieu of reinstatement in a position which are awarded or granted as the equivalent of the salary or wage which the individual would have earned during a payroll period shall be considered compensation earnable and the individual shall receive the equivalent service credit: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if a leave of absence is taken by an individual for the purpose of serving in the state legislature, the salary which would have been received for the position from which the leave of absence was taken, shall be considered as compensation earnable if the employee's contribution is paid by the employee and the employer's contribution is paid by the employer or employee.

(b) 'Compensation earnable' for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after October 1, 1977, means salaries or wages earned by a member during a payroll period for personal services, including overtime payments, and shall include wages and salaries deferred under provisions established pursuant to sections 403(b), 414(h), and 457 of the United States Internal Revenue Code, but shall exclude nonmoney maintenance compensation and lump sum payments for deferred annual sick leave, unused accumulated vacation, unused accumulated annual leave, or any form of severance pay: PROVIDED, That retroactive payments to an individual by an employer on reinstatement of the employee in a position, or payments by an employer to an individual in lieu of reinstatement in a position which are awarded or granted as the equivalent of the salary or wage which the individual would have earned during a payroll period shall be considered compensation earnable to the extent provided above, and the individual shall receive the equivalent service credit: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in any year in which a member serves in the legislature, the member shall have the option of having such member's compensation earnable be the greater of:

(i) the compensation earnable the member would have received had such member not served in the legislature; or

(ii) such member's actual compensation earnable received for nonlegislative public employment and legislative service combined. Any additional contributions to the retirement system required because compensation earnable under subparagraph (i) of this subsection is greater than compensation earnable under subparagraph (ii) of this subsection shall be paid by the member for both member and employer contributions.

(9) (a) 'Service' for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before September 30, 1977, means periods of employment rendered to any employer for which compensation is paid, and includes time spent in office as an elected or appointed official of an employer. Full time work for seventy hours or more in any given calendar month shall constitute one month of service. Only months of service shall be counted in the computation of any retirement allowance or other benefit provided for in this chapter. Years of service shall be determined by dividing the total number of months of service by twelve. Any fraction of a year of service as so determined shall be taken into account in the computation of such retirement allowance or benefits.

Members employed by the state school for the blind, or the state school for the deaf shall receive twelve months of service for each contract year or school year of employment commencing on or after June 15, 1979.

Each member who is employed by an institution of higher education or a community college shall receive twelve months of service for each academic year of employment commencing on or after June 15, 1979, in which the member makes member contributions under this chapter for each month of such academic year, and the member is employed in a position which is restricted as to duration by the employer to the academic year.

Service by a state employee officially assigned by the state on a temporary basis to assist another public agency, shall be considered as service as a state employee: PROVIDED, That service to any other public agency shall not be considered service as a state employee if such service has been used to establish benefits in any other public retirement system: PROVIDED FURTHER, That an individual shall receive no more than a total of twelve months of service credit during any calendar year: PROVIDED FURTHER, That where an individual is employed by two or more employers the individual shall only receive one months service credit during any calendar month in which multiple service for seventy or more hours is rendered.

During the regular contract year or school year of employment, members employed by school districts shall receive service credit in any month in which the school is closed for a vacation period of five calendar days or more. The member shall have been employed or on paid leave of absence for at least three and one-half hours each day the school was open or shall have received compensation for service averaging at least three and one-half hours for each such day.

(b) 'Service' for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after October 1, 1977, means periods of employment by a member for one or more employers for which compensation earnable is earned for ninety or more hours per calendar month.

During the regular contract year or school year of employment, members employed by school districts shall receive service credit in any month in which the school is closed for a vacation period of five calendar days or more. The member shall have been employed or on paid leave of absence for at least four and one-half hours each day the school was open or shall have received compensation for service averaging at least four and one-half hours for each such day.

Years of service shall be determined by dividing the total number of months of service by twelve. Any fraction of a year of service as so determined shall be taken into account in the computation of such retirement allowance or benefits.

Members employed by school districts, the state school for the blind, the state school for the deaf, institutions of higher education, or community colleges shall receive twelve months of service for each contract year or school year of employment.

Service in any state elective position shall be deemed to be full time service, except that persons serving in state elective positions who are members of the teachers' retirement system or law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system at the time of election or appointment to such position may elect to continue membership in the teachers' retirement system or law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system.

A member shall receive a total of not more than twelve months of service for such calendar year: PROVIDED, That when an individual is employed by two or more employers the individual shall only receive one month's service credit during any calendar month in which multiple service for ninety or more hours is rendered.

(10) 'Prior service' means all service of an original member rendered to any employer prior to October 1, 1947.

(11) 'Membership service' means:

(a) All service rendered, as a member, after October 1, 1947;

(b) All service after October 1, 1947, to any employer prior to the time of its admission into the retirement system: PROVIDED, That an amount equal to the employer and employee contributions which would have been paid to the retirement system on account of such service shall have been paid to the retirement system with interest (as computed by the department) on the employee's portion prior to retirement of such person, by the employee or his employer, except as qualified by RCW 41.40.120: PROVIDED FURTHER, That employer contributions plus employee contributions with interest submitted by the employee under this subsection shall be placed in the employee's individual account in the employees' savings fund and be treated as any other contribution made by the employee, with the exception that the contributions submitted by the employee in payment of the employer's obligation, together with the interest the director may apply to the employer's contribution, shall be excluded from the calculation of the member's annuity in the event the member selects a benefit with an annuity option;

(c) Service not to exceed six consecutive months of probationary service rendered after April 1, 1949, and prior to becoming a member, in the case of any member, upon payment in full by such member of the total amount of the employer's contribution to the retirement fund which would have been required under the law in effect when such probationary service was rendered if the member had been a member during such period, except that the amount of the employer's contribution shall be calculated by the director based on the first month's compensation earnable as a member;

(d) Service not to exceed six consecutive months of probationary service, rendered after October 1, 1947, and before April 1, 1949, and prior to becoming a member, in the case of any member, upon payment in full by such member of five percent of such member's salary during said period of probationary service, except that the amount of the employer's contribution shall be calculated by the director based on the first month's compensation earnable as a member.

(12) (a) 'Beneficiary' for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before September 30, 1977, means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance, pension or other benefit provided by this chapter.

(b) 'Beneficiary' for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after October 1, 1977, means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance or other benefit provided by this chapter resulting from service rendered to an employer by another person.

(13) 'Regular interest' means such rate as the director may determine.

(14) 'Accumulated contributions' means the sum of all contributions standing to the credit of a member in the member's individual account together with the regular interest thereon.

(15) (a) 'Average final compensation' for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before September 30, 1977, means the annual average of the greatest compensation earnable by a member during any consecutive two year period of service for which service credit is allowed; or if the member has less than two years of service then the annual average compensation earnable during the total years of service for which service credit is allowed.

(b) 'Average final compensation' for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after October 1, 1977, means the member's average compensation earnable of the highest consecutive sixty months of service prior to such member's retirement, termination, or death. Periods constituting authorized leaves of absence may not be used in the calculation of average final compensation.

(16) 'Final compensation' means the annual rate of compensation earnable by a member at the time of termination of employment.

(17) 'Annuity' means payments for life derived from accumulated contributions of a member. All annuities shall be paid in monthly installments.

(18) 'Pension' means payments for life derived from contributions made by the employer. All pensions shall be paid in monthly installments.

(19) 'Retirement allowance' means the sum of the annuity and the pension.

(20) 'Employee' means any person who may become eligible for membership under this chapter, as set forth in RCW 41.40.120.

(21) 'Actuarial equivalent' means a benefit of equal value when computed upon the basis of such mortality and other tables as may be adopted by the director.

(22) 'Retirement' means withdrawal from active service with a retirement allowance as provided by this chapter.

(23) 'Eligible position' means:

(a) Any position which normally requires five or more uninterrupted months of service a year for which regular compensation is paid to the occupant thereof;

(b) Any position occupied by an elected official or person appointed directly by the governor for which compensation is paid.

(24) 'Ineligible position' means any position which does not conform with the requirements set forth in subdivision (23).

(25) 'Leave of absence' means the period of time a member is authorized by the employer to be absent from service without being separated from membership.

(26) 'Totally incapacitated for duty' means total inability to perform the duties of a member's employment or office or any other work for which the member is qualified by training or experience.

(27) 'Retiree' for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after October 1, 1977, means any member in receipt of a retirement allowance or other benefit provided by this chapter resulting from service rendered to an employer by such member.

(28) 'Department' means the department of retirement systems created in chapter 41.50 RCW.

(29) 'Director' means the director of the department.

(30) 'State elective position' means any position held by any person elected or appointed to state-wide office or elected or appointed as a member of the legislature.

(31) 'State actuary' or 'actuary' means the person appointed pursuant to RCW 44.44.010(2).

(32) 'Judges' means judges of the district courts, the superior courts, the court of appeals, and the supreme court first appointed or elected after the effective date of this 1987 section and those members making the election under section 16 or 17 of this 1987 act.

Sec. 14. Section 3, chapter 295, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.620 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A member of the retirement system other than a judge as defined in RCW 41.40.010 shall receive a retirement allowance equal to two percent of such member's average final compensation for each year of service.

(2) A judge as defined in RCW 41.40.010 shall receive a retirement allowance equal to three percent of such judge's average final compensation for each year of service; PROVIDED, That such allowance shall not exceed seventy-five percent of final compensation.

Sec. 15. Section 6, chapter 295, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 268, Laws of 1986 and RCW 41.40.650 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The required contribution rates to the retirement system for both members and employers shall be established by the director from time to time as may be necessary upon the advice of the state actuary. The state actuary shall use the aggregate actuarial cost method to calculate contribution rates.

(2) Contribution rates required to fund the costs of the retirement system shall always be equal for members and employers, except as herein provided. Effective January 1, 1987, however, no member or employer contributions are required for any calendar month in which the member is not granted service credit. Any adjustments in contribution rates required from time to time for future costs shall likewise be shared equally by the members and employers: PROVIDED, That the costs of amortizing the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system for persons who established membership before September 30, 1977, shall be borne in full by the employers.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the contribution rates for judges as defined in RCW 41.40.010 shall be one hundred fifty percent of the members' contribution rate under subsection (2) of this section. The contribution rates for employers of judges as defined in RCW 41.40.010 shall be equal to the contribution rates of judges as defined in RCW 41.40.010 plus a contribution rate to amortize the unfunded supplemental present value as described in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) Any increase in the contribution rate required as the result of a failure of an employer to make any contribution required by this section shall be borne in full by the employer not making the contribution.

(5) The director shall notify all employers of any pending adjustment in the required contribution rate and such increase shall be announced at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the change.

(6) Members contributions required by this section shall be deducted from the members compensation earnable each payroll period. The members contribution and the employers contribution shall be remitted directly to the department within fifteen days following the end of the calendar month during which the payroll period ends.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW to be codified between RCW 41.40.620 and 41.40.740 to read as follows:

A judge who is a member of the retirement system and who was initially employed on or after October 1, 1977, but before the effective date of this section may elect for periods after the effective date of the election to receive the increased retirement allowance under RCW 41.40.620(2) in return for the increased contributions required under RCW 41.40.650(3).

The election under this section shall be made in writing to the director no later than December 31, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW to read as follows:

(1) RCW 41.40.185, 41.40.190, and 41.40.330 notwithstanding, a judge who is a member of the retirement system and who was initially employed on or before September 30, 1977, may elect for periods after the effective date of the election to receive a retirement allowance equal to three percent of the judge's average final compensation for each year or fraction of a year of membership service after the effective date of the election in return for the increased contributions required under RCW 41.40.650(3).

(2) The election under this section shall be made in writing to the director no later than December 31, 1987.

Sec. 18. Section 34, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 3, chapter 268, Laws of 1986 and RCW 41.40.330 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each employee who is a member of the retirement system shall contribute five percent of his total compensation earnable: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a department of retirement systems expense fund contribution of two dollars and fifty cents per annum shall be transferred in semiannual payments of one dollar and twenty-five cents from each employee account balance in the employees' savings fund to the department of retirement systems expense fund, as set forth in this section. On and after July 1, 1973, each employee who is a member of the retirement system shall contribute six percent of his total compensation earnable: PROVIDED, That the contribution of a member electing to be covered by section 17 of this 1987 act shall be as provided in that section. Effective January 1, 1987, however, no contributions are required for any calendar month in which the member is not granted service credit. The officer responsible for making up the payroll shall deduct from the compensation of each member, on each and every payroll of such member for each and every payroll period subsequent to the date on which he became a member of the retirement system the contribution as provided by this section.

(2) Any member may, pursuant to regulations formulated from time to time by the ((board)) director, provide for himself, by means of an increased rate of contribution to his account in the employees' savings fund, an increased prospective retirement allowance pursuant to RCW 41.40.190 and 41.40.185.

(3) The officer responsible for making up the payroll shall deduct from the compensation of each member covered by the provisions of RCW 41.40.190(5) and 41.40.185(4) on each and every payroll of such member for each and every payroll period subsequent to the date on which he thereafter becomes a member of the retirement system, an amount equal to seven and one-half percent of such member's compensation earnable."

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 13, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 569 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature declares that:

(1) Marketing is a dynamic and changing part of Washington agriculture and a vital element in expanding the state economy.

(2) The sale in the state and export to other states and abroad of wine made in the state contribute substantial benefits to the economy of the state, provide a large number of jobs and sizeable tax revenues, and have an important stabilizing effect on prices received by agricultural producers. Development of exports of these commodities abroad will contribute favorably to the balance of trade of the United States and of the state. The sale and export are therefore affected with the public interest.

(3) The production of wine grapes in the state is a new and important segment of Washington agriculture which has potential for greater contribution to the economy of the state if it undergoes healthy development.

(4) The general welfare of the people of the state will be served by healthy development of the activities of growing and processing wine grapes, which development will improve the tax bases of local communities in which agricultural land and processing facilities are located, and obviate the need for state and federal funding of local services. The industries are therefore affected with the public interest.

(5) Creation of a commission for the public purpose of administering the revenue of the commission under RCW 66.24.210(3) for the enhancement of production of wine grapes and wine and the marketing of Washington wine will materially advance the industries of growing and processing wine grapes and thereby the interests of the citizens of the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Commission' means the Washington wine commission.

(2) 'Director' means the director of agriculture or the director's duly appointed representative.

(3) 'Department' means the department of agriculture.

(4) 'Person' includes any individual, firm, corporation, trust, association, partnership, society, or any other organization of individuals.

(5) 'Grower' means a person who has at least five acres in production of vinifera grapes.

(6) 'Growers' association' means a nonprofit association of Washington producers of vinifera grapes, whether or not incorporated, which the director finds to comprise the interested persons affected by appointment of members of the commission or, if the director finds that no such association exists, a group of growers of vinifera grapes within the state identified by the director as fairly representing growers of vinifera grapes within the state.

(7) 'Vinifera grapes' means the agricultural product commonly known as VITIS VINIFERA and those hybrid of VITIS VINIFERA which have predominantly the character of VITIS VINIFERA

(8) 'Producer' means any person or other entity which grows within the state vinifera grapes or any person or other entity licensed under Title 66 RCW to produce within the state wine made predominantly from vinifera grapes.

(9) 'Wine producer' means any person or other entity licensed under Title 66 RCW to produce within the state wine from vinifera grapes.

(10) 'Eastern Washington' means that portion of the state lying east of the Cascade mountain range.

(11) 'Western Washington' means that portion of the state lying west of the Cascade mountain range.

(12) 'Wine' for the purposes of this section shall be as defined in RCW 66.04.010.

(13) 'Wine institute' means a nonprofit association of Washington wine producers, whether or not incorporated, which the director finds to comprise interested persons affected by appointment of members of the commission or, if the director finds that no such association exists, a group composed of all such producers identified as actively engaged in the production of wine within the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) There is created an agricultural commodity commission to be known and designated as the Washington wine commission. Except as provided in section 10(2) of this act, the commission shall be composed of eleven voting members, five voting members shall be growers, five voting members shall be wine producers, and one voting member shall be a wine wholesaler licensed under RCW 66.24.200. Of the grower members, at least one shall be a person who does not have over fifty acres of vinifera grapes in production, at least one shall be a person who has over one hundred acres of vinifera grapes in production, and two may be persons who produce and sell their own wine. Of the wine producer members, at least one shall be a person producing not more than twenty-five thousand gallons of wine annually, at least one shall be a person producing over one million gallons of wine annually, and at least two shall be persons who produce wine from their own grapes. In addition, at least one member shall be a wine producer located in western Washington and at least two members shall be wine producers located in eastern Washington.

(2) In addition to the voting members identified in subsection (1) of this section, the commission shall have one nonvoting member who is a wine producer in this state whose principal wine or wines are produced from fruit other than vinifera grapes.

(3) Except as provided in section 10(2) of this act, seven voting members of the commission constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business of the commission.

(4) Each voting member of the commission shall be a citizen and resident of this state and over the age of twenty-one years. Each must be or must have been engaged in that phase of the grower or wine producer industry that he or she is appointed to represent, and must during his or her term of office derive a substantial portion of income therefrom, or have a substantial investment in the growing of vinifera grapes or the production of wine from vinifera grapes as an owner, lessee, partner, or a stockholder owning at least ten percent of the voting stock in a corporation engaged in the growing of vinifera grapes or wine production from vinifera grapes; or the manager or executive officer of such a corporation. These qualifications apply throughout each member's term of office.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The appointive voting positions on the commission shall be designated as follows: The wine producers shall be designated positions one, two, three, four, and five; the growers shall be designated positions six, seven, eight, nine, and ten; and the at large shall be position eleven. The nonvoting member shall be designated position number twelve. The member designated as filling position one shall be a person producing over one million gallons of wine annually. The member designated as position one shall be the sole representative, directly or indirectly, of the producer eligible to hold position one and in no event shall that producer directly or indirectly control more than fifty percent of the votes of the commission.

Except as provided in section 10(2) of this act, the regular terms of office shall be three years from the date of appointment and until their successors are appointed. However, the first terms of the members appointed upon the effective date of this section shall be as follows: Positions one, six, and eleven shall terminate July 1, 1990; positions two, four, seven, and nine shall terminate July 1, 1989; and positions three, five, eight, and ten shall terminate July 1, 1988. The term of the initial nonvoting member shall terminate July 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The director shall appoint the members of the commission. In making such appointments of the voting members, the director shall take into consideration recommendations made by the growers' association and the wine institute as the persons recommended for appointment as members of the commission. In appointing persons to the commission, the director shall seek to ensure as nearly as possible a balanced representation on the commission which would reflect the composition of the growers and wine producers throughout the state as to number of acres cultivated and amount of wine produced.

The appointment shall be carried out immediately subsequent to the effective date of this section and members so appointed as set forth in this chapter shall serve for the periods set forth for the original members of the commission under section 4 of this act.

In the event a position on the commission becomes vacant due to resignation, disqualification, death, or for any other reason, the unexpired term of the position shall immediately be filled by appointment by the director.

Each member of the commission shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Obligations incurred by the commission and liabilities or claims against the commission shall be enforced only against the assets of the commission in the same manner as if it were a corporation and no liability for the debts or actions of the commission shall exist against either the state of Washington or any subdivision or instrumentality thereof or against any member, officer, employee, or agent of the commission in his or her individual capacity. The members of the commission, including employees of the commission, shall not be held responsible individually or any way whatsoever to any person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as principal, agent, person, or employees, except for their own individual acts of dishonesty or crime. No such person or employee shall be held responsible individually for any act or omission of any other members of the commission.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The powers and duties of the commission include:

(1) To elect a chairman and such officers as the commission deems advisable. The officers shall include a treasurer who is responsible for all receipts and disbursements by the commission and the faithful discharge of whose duties shall be guaranteed by a bond at the sole expense of the commission. The commission shall adopt rules for its own governance, which shall provide for the holding of an annual meeting for the election of officers and transaction of other business and for such other meetings as the commission may direct:

(2) To do all things reasonably necessary to effect the purposes of this chapter. However, the commission shall have no legislative power;

(3) At the pleasure of the commission, to employ and discharge managers, secretaries, agents, attorneys, and employees and to engage the services of independent contractors as the commission deems necessary, to prescribe their duties, and to fix their compensation;

(4) To receive donations of wine from wineries for promotional purposes;

(5) To engage directly or indirectly in the promotion of Washington wine, including without limitation the acquisition in any lawful manner and the dissemination without charge of wine, which dissemination shall not be deemed a sale for any purpose and in which dissemination the commission shall not be deemed a wine producer, supplier, or manufacturer of any kind or the clerk, servant, or agent of a producer, supplier, or manufacturer of any kind. Such dissemination shall be for agricultural development or trade promotion, which may include promotional hosting and shall in the good faith judgment of the commission be in aid of the marketing, advertising, or sale of wine, or of research related to such marketing, advertising, or sale;

(6) To acquire and transfer personal and real property, establish offices, incur expense, enter into contracts (including contracts for creation and printing of promotional literature, which contracts shall not be subject to chapter 43.78 RCW, but which shall be cancelable by the commission unless performed under conditions of employment which substantially conform to the laws of this state and the rules of the department of labor and industries). The commission may create such debt and other liabilities as may be reasonable for proper discharge of its duties under this chapter;

(7) To maintain such account or accounts with one or more qualified public depositories as the commission may direct, to cause moneys to be deposited therein, and to expend moneys for purposes authorized by this chapter by drafts made by the commission upon such institutions or by other means;

(8) To cause to be kept and annually closed, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, accurate records of all receipts, disbursements, and other financial transactions, available for audit by the state auditor;

(9) To create and maintain a list of producers and to disseminate information among and solicit the opinions of producers with respect to the discharge of the duties of the commission, directly or by arrangement with trade associations or other instrumentalities;

(10) To employ, designate as agent, act in concert with, and enter into contracts with any person, council, commission or other entity for the purpose of promoting the general welfare of the vinifera grape industry and particularly for the purpose of assisting in the sale and distribution of Washington wine in domestic and foreign commerce, expending moneys as it may deem necessary or advisable for such purpose and for the purpose of paying its proportionate share of the cost of any program providing direct or indirect assistance to the sale and distribution of Washington wine in domestic or foreign commerce, employing and paying for vendors of professional services of all kinds; and

(11) To sue and be sued as a commission, without individual liability for acts of the commission within the scope of the powers conferred upon it by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The commission shall create, provide for, and conduct a comprehensive and extensive research, promotional, and educational campaign as crop, sales, and market conditions reasonably require. It shall investigate and ascertain the needs of producers, conditions of markets, and degree of public awareness of products, and take into account the information adduced thereby in the discharge of its duties under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The commission shall adopt as major objectives of its research, promotional, and educational campaign such goals as will serve the needs of producers, which may include, without limitation, efforts to:

(1) Establish Washington wine as a major factor in markets everywhere;

(2) Promote Washington wineries as tourist attractions;

(3) Encourage favorable reporting of Washington wine and wineries in the press throughout the world;

(4) Establish the state in markets everywhere as a major source of premium wine;

(5) Encourage favorable legislative and regulatory treatment of Washington wine in markets everywhere;

(6) Foster economic conditions favorable to investment in the production of vinifera grapes and Washington wine;

(7) Advance knowledge and practice of production of wine grapes in this state;

(8) Discover and develop new and improved vines for the reliable and economical production of wine grapes in the state; and

(9) Advance knowledge and practice of the processing of wine grapes in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the vote of each of the voting members of the commission shall be weighted as provided by this subsection for the transaction of any of the business of the commission. The total voting strength of the entire voting membership of the commission shall be eleven votes. The vote of position one shall be equal to the lesser of the following: Five and one-half votes; or eleven votes times the percentage of the wine produced in the state that is produced by the person filling position one. The percentage shall be based upon the amount of wine produced in the previous calendar year and shall be rounded to the nearest ten percent. The remaining votes of the membership of the commission shall be divided equally among the remaining members of the commission.

(2) In the event the assessment described in section 13(1)(b) of this act is not effective on July 1, 1989, the positions designated for growers cease to exist. In such an event, the commission shall be composed of six voting members and one nonvoting member. The nonvoting member shall be position seven. Four voting members of the commission constitute a quorum for the modified commission. Of the six votes of the entire voting membership of the modified commission, the vote of position one shall be the lesser of the following: Three votes; or six votes times the percentage of the wine produced in the state that is produced by the person filling position one. The percentage shall be based upon the amount of wine produced in the previous calendar year and shall be rounded to the nearest ten percent. The remaining votes of the membership of the commission shall be divided equally among the remaining members of the commission.

(3) In the event that the percentage of wine produced by the producer represented by position one falls below twenty-five percent of the wine produced in this state, the weighted voting mechanism provided for in subsections(1) and (2) of this section shall cease to be effective. In that case, the voting shall be based on one vote per position.

Sec. 11. Section 24-A added to chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. by section 3, chapter 158, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 10, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby imposed upon all wines sold to wine wholesalers and the Washington state liquor control board, within the state a tax at the rate of twenty and one-fourth cents per liter: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That wine sold or shipped in bulk from one winery to another winery shall not be subject to such tax. The tax provided for in this section may, if so prescribed by the board, be collected by means of stamps to be furnished by the board, or by direct payments based on wine purchased by wine wholesalers. Every person purchasing wine under the provisions of this section shall on or before the twentieth day of each month report to the board all purchases during the preceding calendar month in such manner and upon such forms as may be prescribed by the board, and with such report shall pay the tax due from the purchases covered by such report unless the same has previously been paid. Any such purchaser of wine whose applicable tax payment is not postmarked by the twentieth day following the month of purchase will be assessed a penalty at the rate of two percent a month or fraction thereof. If this tax be collected by means of stamps, every such person shall procure from the board revenue stamps representing the tax in such form as the board shall prescribe and shall affix the same to the package or container in such manner and in such denomination as required by the board and shall cancel the same prior to the delivery of the package or container containing the wine to the purchaser. If the tax is not collected by means of stamps, the board may require that every such person shall execute to and file with the board a bond to be approved by the board, in such amount as the board may fix, securing the payment of the tax. If any such person fails to pay the tax when due, the board may forthwith suspend or cancel the license until all taxes are paid.

(2) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the tax payable under subsection (1) of this section. All revenues collected during any month from this additional tax shall be transferred to the state general fund by the twenty-fifth day of the following month.

(3) An additional tax is imposed on wines subject to tax under subsection (1) of this section, at the rate of one-fourth of one cent per liter for wine sold after June 30, 1987. All revenues collected under this subsection (3) shall be disbursed quarterly to the Washington wine commission for use in carrying out the purposes of chapter 15.--RCW (sections 1 through 10 of this 1987 act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 66.08 RCW to read as follows:

To provide for the operation of the wine commission prior to its first quarterly disbursement, the liquor control board shall, on the effective date of this section, disburse one hundred ten thousand dollars to the wine commission. However, such disbursement shall be repaid to the liquor control board by a reduction from the quarterly disbursements to the wine commission under RCW 66.24.210 of twenty-seven thousand five hundred dollars each quarter until such amount is repaid. These funds shall be used to establish the Washington wine commission and the other purposes delineated in chapter 15.-- RCW (sections 1 through 10 this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 66.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) To provide for permanent funding of the wine commission after July 1, 1989, agricultural commodity assessments shall be levied by the board on wine producers and growers as follows:

(a) Beginning on July 1, 1989, the assessment on wine producers shall be two cents per gallon on sales of packaged Washington wines.

(b) Beginning on July 1, 1989, the assessment on growers, on sales of Washington vinifera wine grapes, shall be levied at a rate sufficient to raise an amount equal to the amount raised under subsection (1)(a) of this section. The method of calculation and collection of the grower assessment shall be determined under legislation enacted during the 1988 session of the legislature.

(c) After July 1, 1993, assessment rates under subsection (1)(a) of this section may be changed pursuant to a referendum conducted by the Washington wine commission and approved by a majority vote of wine producers. The weight of each producer's vote shall be equal to the percentage of that producer's share of Washington vinifera wine production in the prior year.

(d) After July 1, 1993, assessment amounts under subsection (1)(b) of this section may be changed pursuant to a referendum conducted by the Washington wine commission and approved by a majority vote of grape growers. The weight of each grower's vote shall be equal to the percentage of that grower's share of Washington vinifera grape sales in the prior year.

(2) Assessments collected under this section shall be disbursed quarterly to the Washington wine commission for use in carrying out the purposes of chapter 15.-- RCW (sections 1 through 10 of this act).

(3) Prior to July 1, 1996, a referendum shall be conducted to determine whether to continue the Washington wine commission as representing both wine producers and grape growers. The voting shall not be weighted. The wine producers shall vote whether to continue the commission's coverage of wineries and wine production. The grape producers shall vote whether to continue the commission's coverage of issues pertaining to grape growing. If a majority of both wine and grape producers favor the continuation of the commission, the assessments shall continue as provided in subsection (2) (b) and (d) of this section. If only one group of producers favors the continuation, the assessments shall only be levied on the group which favored the continuation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 66.12 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington wine commission created under section 3 of this act may purchase or receive donations of Washington wine from wineries and may use such wine for promotional purposes. Wine furnished to the commission under this section which is used within the state is subject to the taxes imposed under RCW 66.24.210. No license, permit, or bond is required of the Washington wine commission under this title for promotional activities conducted under chapter 15.-- RCW (sections 1 through 10 of this act).

Sec. 15. Section 30, chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1983 and RCW 66.28.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as permitted by the board under RCW 66.20.010, no brewer, wholesaler, distiller, winery, importer, rectifier, or other manufacturer of liquor shall, within the state, by himself, his clerk, servant, or agent, give to any person any liquor; but nothing in this section nor in RCW 66.28.010 shall prevent a brewer, wholesaler, winery, or importer from furnishing samples of beer or wine to authorized licensees for the purpose of negotiating a sale, in accordance with regulations adopted by the liquor control board, provided that the samples are subject to taxes imposed by RCW 66.24.290 and 66.24.210; nothing in this section shall prevent the furnishing of samples of liquor to the board for the purpose of negotiating the sale of liquor to the state liquor control board; nothing in this section shall prevent a brewery, winery, or wholesaler from furnishing beer or wine for instructional purposes under RCW 66.28.150; nothing in this section shall prevent a winery or wholesaler from furnishing wine without charge to a not-for-profit group organized and operated solely for the purpose of enology or the study of viticulture which has been in existence for at least six months and any wine so furnished shall be used solely for such educational purposes, provided that the wine furnished shall be subject to the taxes imposed by RCW 66.24.210; nothing in this section shall prevent a brewer from serving beer without charge, on the brewery premises; nothing in this section shall prevent donations of wine for the purposes of section 14 of this 1987 act; and nothing in this section shall prevent a domestic winery from serving wine without charge, on the winery premises.

Sec. 16. Section 1, chapter 26, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 24, chapter 203, Laws of 1986 and RCW 15.04.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Under the authority of Article VIII of the state Constitution as amended, agricultural commodity commission expenditures for agricultural development or trade promotion and promotional hosting by an agricultural commodities commission under chapters 15.24, 15.28, 15.44, 15.65, 15.66, 15.-- (sections 1 through 10 of this 1987 act), and 16.67 RCW shall be pursuant to specific budget items as approved by the agricultural commodity commission at the annual public hearings on the agricultural commodity commission budget.

(2) Agricultural commodity commissions shall adopt rules governing promotional hosting expenditures by agricultural commodity commission employees, agents or commissioners. The rules shall identify officials and agents authorized to make expenditures and the objectives of the expenditures. Individual agricultural commodity commission commissioners shall make promotional hosting expenditures, or seek reimbursements for these expenditures, only in those instances where the expenditures have been approved by the agricultural commodity commission. All payments and reimbursements shall be identified and supported on vouchers.

(3) Agricultural commodity commissions shall be exempt from the requirements of RCW 43.01.090 and 43.19.500 and chapter 43.82 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 66.44 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing contained in chapter 15.— RCW (sections 1 through 10 of this act) shall affect the compliance by the Washington wine commission with this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 15 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. This act shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. (1) Sections 1 through 9 and 11 through 20 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1987.

(2) Section 10 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1989."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "commission;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 66.24.210, 66.28.040, and 15.04.200; adding a new chapter to Title 15 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 66.08 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 66.12 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 66.44 RCW; creating a new section; providing effective dates; and declaring an emergency."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Grimm, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Second Substitute House Bill No. 569 and asked the Senate for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Grimm, Rayburn and Doty as conferees on Second Substitute House Bill No. 569.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 8, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 734 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 9.68A RCW to read as follows:

For the purposes of sections 1 through 3 of this act:

- (1) 'Minor' means any person under the age of eighteen years.
- (2) 'Erotic materials' means any sexually explicit conduct as defined in RCW 9.68A.011.
- (3) 'Live performance' means any play, show, skit, dance, or other exhibition performed or presented to, or before an audience of one or more, with or without consideration.
- (4) 'Person' means any individual, partnership, firm, association, corporation, or other legal entity.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 9.68A RCW to read as follows:

No person may knowingly allow a minor to be on the premises of a commercial establishment open to the public if there is a live performance containing matter which is erotic material.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 9.68A RCW to read as follows:

Any person who is convicted of violating any provision of section 2 of this act is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On line 1 of the title, after "materials;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 9.68A RCW; and prescribing penalties."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Fisher, Pruitt and Sanders as conferees on Substitute House Bill No. 773.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 14, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 448 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. SHORT TITLE. This chapter may be cited as the family independence program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. INTENT. The legislature hereby establishes as state policy the goal of economic independence for employable adults receiving public assistance, through employment, training, and education. The legislature finds that children living in families with incomes below the needs standard have reduced opportunities for physical and intellectual development. A family's economic future is frequently not improved by the current program.

Therefore, in order to break the cycle of poverty and dependence, a family independence program is established. Participating families are to receive benefits under this program at no less than they would otherwise have been entitled to receive.

The legislature finds that the state has a vital interest in ensuring that citizens who are in economic need are provided appropriate financial assistance. It is the intent of the legislature to maintain the existing partnership between state and federal government and that this program remain part of the federal welfare entitlement program. The legislature seeks federal authority for a five-year demonstration project and recognizes that waivers and congressional action may be required to achieve our purpose. The legislature does not seek a block grant approach to welfare.

The legislature recognizes that any program intended to assist new and current public assistance recipients will be more likely to succeed when the state, private sector, and recipients work together.

The legislature also recognizes the value of building on successful programs that utilize the development of networking and mentoring strategies to assist public assistance recipients to gain self-sufficiency. The legislature further encourages public-private cooperation in the areas of job readiness training, education, job training, and work opportunities.

The legislature finds that the goal of economic independence requires increased efforts to assist parents in exercising their children's right to economic support from absent parents.

The legislature recognizes the substantial participation in the workforce of women with preschool children, and the difficulty in reentering employment after long absences.

The legislature further recognizes that public assistance recipients can play a major role in setting their own goals.

The objectives of this chapter are to assure that: The maximum number of recipients of public assistance become independent and self-sufficient through employment, training, and education; financial incentives be available to recipients participating in job readiness, education, training, and work programs; the number of children growing up in poverty be substantially reduced; and unemployable recipients be afforded a basic level of financial and medical assistance consistent with the state's financial capabilities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context requires to the contrary, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Benchmark standard' is the basic monthly level of cash benefits, established according to family size, which equals the state's payment standard under the aid to families with dependent children program, plus an amount not less than the full cash equivalent of food stamps for which any family of such size would otherwise be eligible.

(2) 'Department' means the department of social and health services.

(3) 'Enrollee' means the head(s) of household of a family eligible to receive financial assistance or other services under the family independence program.

(4) 'Executive committee' or 'committee' means the family independence program executive committee, authorized by and subject to the provisions of this chapter, to make policy recommendations to the legislature and develop procedure, program standards, data collection and information systems for family independence programs, including making budget allocations, setting incentive rates within appropriated funds, setting cost-sharing requirements for child care and medical services, and making related financial reports under chapter 43.88 RCW.

(5) 'Family independence program services' include but are not limited to job readiness programs, job creation, employment, work programs, training, education, family planning services, development of a mentor program, income and medical support, parent education, child care, and training in family responsibility and family management skills, including appropriate financial counseling and training on management of finances and use of credit.

(6) 'Family opportunity councils' or 'councils' means information exchange, networking, and mentoring organizations created through contracts between the department and private nonprofit community organizations providing assistance in self-sufficiency.

(7) 'Food stamps' means the food purchase benefit available through the United States department of agriculture.

(8) 'Gross income' means the total income of an enrollee from earnings, cash assistance, and incentive benefit payments.

(9) 'Incentive benefit payments' means those additional benefits payable to enrollees due to their participation in education, training, or work programs.

(10) 'Job-ready' is the status of an enrollee who is assessed as ready to enter job search activities on the basis of the enrollee's skills, experience, or participation in job and education activities in accordance with section 8 of this act.

(11) 'Job readiness training' means that training necessary to enable enrollees to participate in job search or job training classes. It may include any or all of the following: Budgeting and financial counseling, time management, self-esteem building, expectations of the workplace (including appropriate dress and behavior on the job), goal setting, transportation logistics, and other preemployment skills.

(12) 'Maximum income levels' are those levels of income and cash benefits, both benchmark and incentive, which the state establishes as the maximum level of total gross cash income for persons to continue to receive cash benefits.

(13) 'Medical benefits' or 'medicaid' are categorically or medically needy medical benefits provided in accordance with Title XIX of the federal social security act. Eligibility and scope of medical benefits under this chapter shall incorporate any hereinafter enacted changes in the medicaid program under Title XIX of the federal social security act.

(14) 'Noncash benefits' includes benefits such as child care and medicaid where the family receives a service in lieu of a cash payment related to the purposes of the family independence program.

(15) 'Payment standard' is equal to the standard of need or a lesser amount if rateable reductions or grant maximums are established by the legislature. Standard of need shall be based on periodic studies of actual living costs and generally recognized inflation indices and shall include reasonable allowances for shelter, fuel, food, transportation, clothing, household maintenance, and necessary incidentals. The standard of need may take into account the economies of joint living arrangements, but there shall not be proration of any portion of assistance grants unless the amount of the payment standard is equal to the standard of need.

(16) 'Placement' means enrollees who have obtained full-time employment (thirty hours or more per week) or part-time employment (less than thirty hours per week), and who remain employed, as verified by a thirty-day followup contact.

(17) 'Subsidized employment' means employment for which the family independence program has provided the employer the financial resources, in whole or in part, to compensate an enrollee for the performance of work.

(18) 'Unsubsidized employment' means employment for which the family independence program has not provided the employer the financial resources to compensate an enrollee for the performance of work.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. ELIGIBILITY FOR BENEFITS. (1) Upon implementation of the family independence program, all applicants for public assistance, except persons eligible for assistance under the general assistance—unemployable program, shall be enrolled in the family independence program and shall be eligible to receive financial and medical benefits under the following criteria:

(a) A person who is a 'dependent child' as defined in 42 U.S.C. Sec. 606(a) or 42 U.S.C. Sec. 607(a), the caretaker relative(s) with whom the dependent child resides, or a pregnant woman as defined in 42 U.S.C. Sec. 606(b); and

(b) A person whose resources do not exceed those established by the United States department of health and human services at 45 C.F.R. Sec. 233.20(a)(3)(i)(B); and

(c) A person whose income does not exceed the benchmark standard plus appropriate incentive benefit payments established in accordance with this chapter. However, subject to subsection (2) of this section and section 18 of this act, the department may limit family independence program eligibility to exclude those new applicants whose monthly income would render them ineligible for aid to families with dependent children benefits under the payment level in effect at the time of the application. For the purposes of this subsection, a new applicant is a person who has not been a recipient of aid to families with dependent children or an enrollee for ninety days prior to application.

(2) Subject to the availability of funds for family independence program benefits, the department may expand eligibility to authorize family independence program benefits for additional categories of persons, but the department shall ensure that no person who would be eligible for benefits under the program requirements in place in this state as of January 1, 1988, pursuant to Titles IV-A and XIX of the federal social security act shall be denied financial or medical benefits under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. FAMILY INDEPENDENCE PROGRAM—EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—ADVISORY COMMITTEE—RECORDS—QUORUM—COMPENSATION AND TRAVEL EXPENSES. (1) The family independence program executive committee is hereby established.

(2) The executive committee shall consist of seven members as follows: The secretary of social and health services, the commissioner of the employment security department, the senior official from each of those agencies who is responsible for the family independence program, an official of the office of financial management, and two nonvoting individuals who have received public assistance in the past but have subsequently achieved economic independence. The former recipient members of the executive committee shall be selected by the advisory committee. The former recipient representatives on the committee shall hold a term of two years. Terms may be renewed for one additional two-year term. The former recipient representatives shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The executive committee shall appoint and consult with an advisory committee of not less than ten or more than twenty members broadly representative of business, labor, education, community, enrollee, civic groups, and the public at large. The membership shall be geographically balanced with one-third of the membership composed of enrollees or community members in accordance with section 6 of this act. The advisory committee members shall serve terms of two years. In addition, the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate shall appoint a member of each caucus of the legislature to the advisory committee.

The initial terms of the advisory committee members shall be staggered in a manner determined by the executive committee. In the event of a vacancy on the advisory committee due to death, resignation, or removal of one of the advisory committee members, and upon the expiration of the term of any member, the executive committee shall appoint a successor from a list supplied by the family opportunity councils for a term expiring on the second anniversary of the successor's date of the appointment, except that vacancies in a position appointed by a legislative officer shall be filled by that officer. Advisory committee members may be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(4) If any one of the state offices on the executive committee is abolished, the resulting vacancy on the executive committee shall be filled by the state officer who shall succeed substantially to the power and duties of the abolished office.

(5) The secretary of social and health services shall serve as chairperson of the executive committee. The commissioner of the employment security department shall serve as vice-chairperson. The executive committee shall appoint a secretary who need not be a member of the executive committee.

(6) The secretary of the executive committee shall keep a record of the proceedings of the committee meetings.

(7) Three members of the executive committee constitute a quorum. The executive committee may act on the basis of motions. Motions shall be adopted upon the affirmative vote of a majority of a quorum of members present at any meeting of the executive committee. A vacancy in the membership of the committee does not impair the power of the committee to act under this chapter. However, in the case of a vacancy in one of the offices which constitutes the membership of the committee, the individual acting in the capacity of that officer shall also act as a member of the committee.

(8) The executive committee shall consult with the advisory committee on significant matters before taking action on such matters. Matters of significance include but are not limited to the nature and extent of contracts with private or nonprofit entities, decisions to modify incentive payments, and a right to review and comment upon the employment and child care plans and all reports submitted to the legislature, prior to their submission. The meetings of the executive committee are subject to chapter 42.30 RCW, the open public meetings act. The advisory committee shall study approaches to allow children in poverty to grow up healthy with self-confidence and the ability to break the cycle of dependence that can result from inadequate nutrition, housing, and other basic needs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. FAMILY OPPORTUNITY COUNCILS. (1) The executive committee shall establish a family opportunity advisory council in each of the department's regions to make recommendations on the social services, procedures, and income maintenance operations used in the family independence program. The councils shall also assist in providing mentors, mutual self-help, and information on alternatives to welfare dependency. The councils shall include: (a) individuals currently receiving assistance; (b) individuals who have received public assistance in the past but have subsequently achieved economic independence; and (c) persons who are board members or employees of nonprofit organizations providing services of the types offered to family independence program recipients, including those with experience in developing self-esteem and individual motivation. A regional advisory council may establish panels representing specific geographic areas within the region.

(3) Recipients and former recipients may be paid a per diem rate established by the executive committee. Members may be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. POWERS AND DUTIES. (1) The executive committee shall direct the employment security department and the department of social and health services, or the appropriate successor agencies, subject to the provisions of this chapter and consistent with available funds, to do the following in order to accomplish the purposes of this chapter:

(a) To carry out and ensure the development of job readiness training, job development activities, subsidized employment in or through public, private, volunteer, and nonprofit agencies, and provide training funds for enrollees prior to and during employment;

(b) To carry out training and education activities as set forth in section 8 of this act;

(c) To allow enrollees, consistent with available appropriations, to receive the incentive benefit payments while attending higher education and vocational institutions;

(d) To fund other related family services, including, but not limited to, child care services for enrollees who participate in the education, training, and work programs authorized by the executive committee;

(e) To receive federal and state funds for the family independence program and to otherwise manage the program so as to operate within legislatively determined funding limitations. However, the executive committee has no authority to alter the benchmark standard established by the legislature;

(f) To determine the level and types of program benefits and incentive benefit payments in accordance with this chapter, together with specific administrative requirements to be met by program enrollees;

(g) To authorize other individuals served under aid to families with dependent children—regular and employable to voluntarily seek enrollee status;

(h) To establish rules for the treatment of earnings and unearned income by enrollees as set forth in section 18 of this act;

(i) To establish administrative sanctions consistent with the criteria set forth in section 15(3) of this act which may be applied to enrollees and the conditions under which program benefits may be reduced or terminated;

(j) To establish due process procedures as set forth in section 11 of this act;

(k) To establish the conditions under which child care and other related social services, including parent education and counseling, will be provided, subject to the following: Any child care provided under this chapter shall be in accordance with statutory child day care licensure requirements;

(l) To provide child care without cost to enrollees whose income is below the maximum authorized income level;

(m) To establish copayment requirements for noncash benefits as set forth in section 10 of this act;

(n) To establish the conditions and terms under which the department may enter into contracts with the public, private, and not-for-profit sectors to provide:

(i) Parenting education for parents;

(ii) Job readiness training;

(iii) Training of state agency employees to work with enrollees in developing plans for self-sufficiency, which include but are not limited to the employability, training, and education plans;

(iv) The development of mentoring programs to provide assistance to current recipients through the use of former recipients; and

(v) Facilitation of family opportunity councils in the geographical areas sited for implementation of the program;

(o) To establish the conditions and terms, and to enter into contracts, under which public, private, and not-for-profit sector jobs will be created and financed by the executive committee and the circumstances under which training for employees or potential employees of public, private, and for-profit employers will be subsidized through the family independence program;

(p) To establish the terms and provisions under which training and job development services may be extended to the absent parent(s) of the children of enrollees;

(q) To establish the frequency and method for redetermining eligibility;

(r) To undertake the acquisition of all such services authorized in this chapter on an exempt basis, as provided in RCW 43.19.1901, from the public bid requirements of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.200;

(s) To establish a proposed schedule by geographic area for implementation of the family independence program, which shall be submitted to the legislature by January 1, 1988. Until the family independence program is implemented in a particular geographic area, applicants in that area shall continue to be eligible for benefits under the aid to families with dependent children program and shall have a right to convert to the family independence program when it is available in that area;

(t) To determine methods of administration and do all other things necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) The executive committee with assistance from the appropriate agencies shall promulgate rules in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW in order to accomplish the purposes of this chapter. Policy decisions of the executive committee that require rule-making shall not be final until the adoption of the necessary rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. ENROLLEE PARTICIPATION. (1) The executive committee may mandate the participation of enrollees in registration and assessment activities unless persons meet the exemption criteria set forth in subsection (2)(d) (i) through (vi) of this section;

(2) The executive committee may mandate the participation of enrollees in education, training, or work activities, subject to the following:

(a) There shall be no mandatory participation of enrollees in education, training, or work activities during the first two years after implementation of this chapter;

(b) The executive committee shall collect and maintain records regarding the number of enrollees awaiting placement in job preparation activities; the number of enrollees who are participating in an education, job training, or other job preparation program; the number of enrollees who are job-ready as defined in this chapter; and the number of enrollees who have obtained placement as defined in this chapter. After the first two years, participation in training, education, or work activities may become mandatory in regions in which the family independence program has been implemented in accordance with this chapter, in which more than fifty percent of the job-ready enrollees obtained placements within three months of the time they became assessed as job-ready, and in which incentive benefit payment levels are set as initially required under section 15 of this act;

(c) If mandatory participation is suspended, it may be suspended by rule on a county or regional basis, but may be retained for a discrete group of enrollees;

(d) When participation in work and training requirements becomes mandatory, the following persons are exempt from the mandatory participation requirement:

(i) One parent with a child under three years of age in the home unless the family has been receiving public assistance for more than three years, in which case the caretaking parent must participate after the child is six months of age;

(ii) New enrollees who are on public assistance for the first time shall not be required to participate in employment, training, or work activities until they have been on public assistance for six months;

(iii) Persons under sixteen years of age or over sixty-four years of age;

(iv) Persons over sixteen years of age who are in high school;

(v) Persons who are incapacitated, temporarily ill, or are needed at home to care for an impaired person;

(vi) A person who is in the third trimester of pregnancy; and

(vii) A person who has not yet been individually notified in writing of the requirement to participate in registration, assessment, work, or training requirements or the expiration of his or her exempt status.

(3) The executive committee may suspend and reinstate, based upon periodic review, the mandatory requirement as affected by the availability of training and job resources.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. TRAINING AND EDUCATION ACTIVITIES. (1) The department of social and health services and the employment security department shall provide education and training opportunities to enrollees when appropriate, pursuant to the employability plan required in section 19 of this act, and shall emphasize efforts which prepare enrollees for long-term unsubsidized employment and economic independence. This shall include opportunities for: (a) Enrollees who seek to pursue basic remedial education, such as completion of general equivalency diploma, adult basic education, and English proficiency training; (b) enrollees who seek vocational or skills training through on-the-job training or enrollment in a skills training or vocational training program, including those programs at a vocational training institute or community college; and (c) enrollees seeking higher education, including community college and four-year college degrees.

(2) The state agencies shall assure that those enrollees who seek to pursue work, training, and education activities, and those enrollees who are required in accordance with this chapter to so participate, receive a realistic assessment of work, training, and education opportunities and the opportunity to mutually participate in developing an individual self-sufficiency plan. The self-sufficiency plan shall take into account the local labor market and wage levels, as well as the individual's skills, work history, abilities, limitations, financial needs, desires, and interests, and shall specify the activities and services required for completion. The self-sufficiency plan is subject to approval by the state agencies. An enrollee may seek a modification of the self-sufficiency plan, or an administrative review if mutual agreement cannot be achieved.

(3) Within available funds, the department shall provide for payment of support services including child care and family independence program benefits at the benefit incentive level for education and training as set forth in section 15 of this act to support appropriate training and education programs of enrollees. When the department has approved the funding of such payments for individual's appropriate training or education plan, such funding shall continue, subject to an annual review, for the duration of the individual's participation in the approved training or education program. The executive committee shall establish by rule criteria for funding of appropriate training and education programs.

(4) When support services are unavailable through existing day-care resources, the department shall make efforts to gain services through private and public agencies.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. DUE PROCESS PROCEDURES. The executive committee shall direct the department of social and health services and the employment security department to adopt rules providing due process of law protections to applicants for and recipients of family independence program benefits. The requirements shall confer protections no less than those which the federal statutes and regulations confer on participants in the food stamp, aid to families with dependent children, and work incentive programs. The protections shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) The departments shall provide adequate advance written notice to applicants or enrollees of any agency action to deny, award, reduce, terminate, increase, or suspend benefits or to change the manner or form of payment or of any agency action requiring the enrollee to take any action. Adequate notice includes a statement of what action the agency intends to take, the reasons for the intended agency action, the specific rules supporting the action, an explanation of the individual's right to request an administrative fair hearing, how to request one, and the circumstances under which assistance is continued pending such a hearing if requested.

(2) Advance notice must be mailed to enrollees at least ten days prior to the date on which the proposed action would become effective.

(3) An applicant or enrollee aggrieved by an action or decision of the departments, including requiring or denying participation in a work, training, or education activity, has the right to request a fair hearing to be conducted by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapters 34.12 and 34.04 RCW. The aggrieved person is entitled to all fair hearing rights provided under RCW 74.08.070 and to the right of judicial review therefrom as provided in RCW 74.08.080.

(4) When an enrollee requests a hearing during the advance notice period, the departments shall not implement the challenged action until a written decision is rendered after a hearing. The advance notice period is the period prior to the effective date of the proposed action or ten days from the date of adequate written notice, whichever is later. Any assistance received pending a hearing or hearing decision may be considered to be an overpayment if the decision is against the enrollee.

(5) Financial, food stamp, and medical assistance shall be furnished to eligible individuals in a timely manner and shall be continued regularly to all eligible individuals until they are found to be ineligible. Applications should be disposed of as soon as possible in accordance with 7 C.F.R. Sec. 273.2 (g) and (i) and 45 C.F.R. Sec. 206.10 and no later than thirty days from the date of application unless good cause applies. Prior to denial or termination of family independence program cash or noncash benefits, each family's eligibility for financial assistance, medical assistance, and food stamp benefits shall be determined.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. NONCASH BENEFITS AND REQUIRED FINANCIAL PARTICIPATION. (1) When an enrollee ceases to receive family independence program cash benefits as a result of increased earnings, the enrollee shall be eligible to receive family independence program noncash child care and medical benefits for a period of one year following the cessation of family independence program cash eligibility.

(2) The executive committee may authorize the department to require financial participation based on income of the enrollee in the cost of the family independence program noncash benefits, but such financial participation requirement shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the cost of the noncash benefit or twenty-five percent of the amount by which the family's income exceeds the maximum income level, whichever is less.

(3) No person may be required to participate in the cost of medical benefits if the person would have been eligible for medicaid benefits at no additional cost under the medically needy income levels or the program requirements in effect as of January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. LIMITATIONS ON SUBSIDIZED AND UNSUBSIDIZED EMPLOYMENT POSITIONS. (1) Enrollees referred to subsidized and unsubsidized employment positions established pursuant to this chapter shall not be considered employees of the executive committee or the state solely because of their status as enrollees in the family independence program. Enrollees in subsidized and unsubsidized employment positions established pursuant to this chapter shall be considered employees of the agency or employer sponsoring their employment. Enrollees in such subsidized and unsubsidized positions shall receive and enjoy the following protections and benefits of the sponsoring employer including, but not limited to, worker's compensation, old age and survivors health insurance, protections of a collective bargaining agreement, sick leave, retirement, medical benefits, vacation leave, and hours of work, provided that these protections and benefits shall not be created by this subsection if such protections and benefits do not already exist. Enrollees in such subsidized and unsubsidized positions shall also be covered for purpose of unemployment compensation, notwithstanding RCW 50.44.040(5) to the contrary.

(2) Subsidized and unsubsidized positions under this chapter to which enrollees are referred shall not be created as a result of, nor result in, any of the following:

(a) Displacement of currently employed workers or authorized positions, for the purpose of employing enrollees, including partial displacement such as reduction in hours of nonovertime work, wages, or other employment benefits;

(b) The filling of subsidized and unsubsidized positions that would otherwise be a promotional opportunity;

(c) The filling of a subsidized or unsubsidized position before compliance with applicable personnel procedures and collective bargaining agreements, including in the instance of subsidized jobs the written concurrence from any affected union representative organization;

(d) The filling of a subsidized or unsubsidized position created by a reduction in work force or change of employers;

(e) A strike, lockout, or other bona fide labor dispute, or a violation of any existing collective bargaining agreement between employees and employers;

(f) Decertification of any bargaining unit;

(g) Creation of a new classification that has the intent or effect of subverting the intent of this section.

(3) Enrollees in subsidized and unsubsidized employment shall not continue participation at a place of employment that is involved in a strike, lockout, or other bona fide labor dispute.

(4) The employment security department shall establish a dispute-resolution process for resolving disagreements arising from this section or other employment-related sections of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. COMPENSATION FOR ENROLLEES. The executive committee shall direct that no enrollee shall be referred to subsidized or unsubsidized employment in which the enrollee would be paid at a rate less than the highest of the following:

(1) The minimum wage set out in section 6 (a)(1) of the fair labor standards act of 1938, as amended, or as established by state law;

(2) The prevailing rate of pay for persons employed in similar occupations by the same employer;

(3) The minimum entrance rate for inexperienced workers in the same occupation with the employer or, if the occupation is new to the employer, the prevailing entrance rate for the occupation among other employers in the area or community, or the applicable minimum rate required by an applicable bargaining agreement; or

(4) The prevailing rate established in accordance with the Davis-Bacon act, as amended, or the service contract act, as amended, for enrollees working in occupations covered by the applicable acts.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. REPORTS AND EVALUATION. (1) By January 1, 1988, the executive committee shall submit to the legislature:

(a) A child-care plan, which may include creative solutions to assist enrollees in making child-care arrangements;

(b) In consultation with the superintendent of public instruction, a plan for assisting high school students who are parents or pregnant to remain in school or complete their high school education;

(c) A plan for motivating those who are discouraged to seek self-sufficiency through work, education, or training;

(d) An employment plan for enrollees; and

(e) A plan for phased-in implementation of the family independence program.

(2) By January 1, 1988, the legislative budget committee, after consultation with the executive committee, shall submit to the legislature:

(a) An evaluation plan satisfactory to the federal government, including a plan for analysis, within available funds, of:

(i) The costs and effectiveness of the family independence program;

(ii) The extent to which education and training opportunities have led to employment and economic independence;

(iii) The extent to which support services have been provided for such education and training opportunities;

(iv) The impact of support services, training opportunities, and employment on the well-being of the children and families of enrollees;

(v) The impact of the family independence program on the labor market opportunities available to nonenrollees;

(vi) The impact of the family independence program on the early childhood education assistance program;

(vii) A comparison of the family independence program enrollees with a sample of aid to families with dependent children recipients entering assistance between July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1988, to determine the characteristics of the caseloads of the family independence program and the aid to families with dependent children program, including demographic characteristics, employment, training, and educational histories, spells on assistance, and reasons for entry onto and exit from assistance;

(viii) Such administrative and operational factors as may be requested by the executive committee;

(ix) A longitudinal study over time of a sample of public assistance recipients or persons at risk of becoming eligible for assistance, to determine the causes of public dependency and the impact of changes in the economy or of public programs on dependency, work, or other relevant behaviors of the sample population.

(3) The legislative budget committee shall cause the evaluation plan to be implemented subject to legislative approval in a manner that will insure the independence of the evaluation through appropriate arrangements, which may include contracts, with objective evaluators. The evaluation plan and all evaluation products shall receive the review and comment of evaluation advisory groups to be convened by the Washington Institute of Public Policy and which include representatives of the executive committee, appropriate legislative committee staffs, persons from the state's higher education institutions, staff members of the department and the employment security department, recipients, and former recipients. The reviews shall consider relevance to state policy and budget concerns, methodological procedure, implementation, and results.

(4) The first report of this evaluation shall be submitted to the legislature no later than November 16, 1988, and annually thereafter, with a final report due no later than November 15, 1993.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. BENCHMARK STANDARD AND INCENTIVE BENEFIT PAYMENTS. (1) The legislature shall determine the benchmark standard for enrollees. The legislature may adjust the benchmark standard periodically. However, the department shall promptly pass on to enrollees any increases in federal food stamp program benefits. The executive committee shall designate what portion of the benchmark standard constitutes a cash payment for food stamp benefits and shall ensure that this designation information is regularly provided to recipients. The portion of the benchmark standard and incentive benefit levels that is designated as the cash payment for food stamp benefits shall be excluded as income to the full extent that food stamps are so excluded by current and subsequently enacted state and federal law.

(2) Enrollees shall receive cash assistance which, when added to other income, provides total income not less than the benchmark standard set by the legislature. Enrollees participating in work, education, or training programs shall receive incentive benefit payments which, when added to other income, provides gross income not less than the levels which shall be initially set as follows:

(a) One hundred five percent of the benchmark standard for enrollees participating in training or education programs;

(b) One hundred five percent of the benchmark standard for teenage parents if they stay in school and progress toward graduation and successfully participate in parenting education approved by the office of the superintendent of public instruction or the department;

(c) One hundred fifteen percent of the benchmark standard for enrollees working half time, but the department may authorize a higher incentive benefit payment level for enrollees working part time; and

(d) One hundred thirty-five percent of the benchmark standard for enrollees working full time.

(3) Family independence program cash benefits shall not be available to meet the needs of enrollees for whom participation in the work and training components of the family independence program is mandatory and who refuse without good cause to participate in such programs. However, medical benefits for such sanctioned individuals and payments on behalf of the other members of the family shall be provided. In such cases, payments to the remaining family members may be in the form of protective payee payments unless, after reasonable efforts, the state is unable to locate an appropriate protective payee, in which case the sanctioned individual can be the payee for the remaining family members. A participant under such sanction is eligible for the full benchmark plus appropriate incentive benefit level once he or she participates.

(4) The department, at the direction of the executive committee, may increase or decrease the incentive benefit payment levels based on the availability of funds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. CURRENT PROGRAM BENEFITS ASSURED. No applicant for or recipient of family independence program benefits shall receive less financial assistance in family independence program benefits than the sum of the aid for families with dependent children cash benefits and the cash equivalent of food stamp benefits the applicant would have received under the program requirements of the federal law and under the benefit levels in place as of January 1, 1988, as adjusted to reflect all increases in the federal food stamp allotments and deductions and in the Washington state payment standard for aid to families with dependent children. Funds provided to the state under Title IV-A of the federal social security act and under the federal food stamp program shall be used first to make payments at one hundred percent of the benchmark level to all enrollees of the family independence program in accordance with the state plan, as well as to all recipients of aid to families with dependent children. Any remaining funds provided by the federal government may be used at the state's discretion for incentive payments and services to either enrollees or recipients of aid to families with dependent children in accordance with the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. NONASSISTANCE FOOD STAMPS. The department shall continue to operate a federal food stamp program for persons who are not receiving family independence program benefits, including applicants awaiting determinations of eligibility for the family independence program.

No group of persons constituting a food stamp household under current food stamp law may receive less in any combination of food stamps and the portion of family independence program benefits designated as the food stamp cash equivalent pursuant to section 13 of this act than the amount for which they would have been eligible in food stamps if the family independence program did not include a cash-out of food stamp benefits.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. DETERMINING FINANCIAL NEED AND TREATMENT OF INCOME. The department shall establish rules for the determination of financial need and the treatment of income of enrollees consistent with this section.

(1) Income and resources shall be reasonably evaluated and cannot be considered available to an applicant or recipient unless actually available.

(2) The following shall be excluded as income in family independence program eligibility and need determinations: The value of medical benefits, child care, higher education benefits, earned income tax credit, income tax refunds, any housing subsidy, energy assistance, the earnings of a child, retroactive family independence program benefits, the child support exempted by 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657(b) or 42 U.S.C. Sec. 602(a)(8)(vi), and any benefit or moneys that any provision of federal law in effect on January 1, 1988, excludes from being considered income for eligibility for aid to families with dependent children or food stamps or other exclusions which Congress may hereafter enact.

(3) The executive committee may direct the department to establish methods for evaluating what portion of income is considered gross income for persons whose income is earned over a longer period of time than the period in which it is received and for measuring the gross income of self-employed persons.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. ENROLLEE PARTICIPATION. (1) All enrollees shall register for assessment to evaluate the appropriateness of work, education, or training options for that individual.

(2) For those enrollees who seek to pursue work, training, and education activities, and for those enrollees who are required in accordance with this chapter to so participate, the state agencies and the enrollee shall jointly develop an employability plan which sets forth the participation activity or sequence of activities and the available supportive services. In some instances, the plan may require additional assessment. The plan is subject to the approval of the state agencies. An enrollee may seek a modification of the employability plan, or an administrative review if mutual agreement cannot be achieved.

(3) Appropriate child care and other social services shall be available to enable an enrollee to participate in work, training, or education activities.

(4) Prior to the determination that a mandatory enrollee has refused to cooperate, efforts must be made at conciliation of the dispute consistent with 45 C.F.R. Sec. 224.63.

(5) The agencies shall adopt rules setting forth criteria that provide good cause for an enrollee's refusal to participate in or accept a specific assignment of proposed work, education, or training activities. The criteria shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

- (a) No suitable child care is available without cost to the enrollee;
- (b) The assignment is not within the scope of the enrollee's employability plan;
- (c) The assignment would have an adverse effect on the physical or mental health of the enrollee;
- (d) The distance of the assignment from the enrollee's home makes participation impracticable;
- (e) The assignment would result in a loss of income to the enrollee's family;
- (f) Exigent personal or family circumstances would interfere with successful participation in the assignment;
- (g) The assignment involves conditions which are in violation of applicable health and safety regulations;
- (h) The assignment would interrupt a program in process at the undergraduate or vocational level which is reasonably expected to result in economic self-sufficiency; or
- (i) The best interests of a child or children in the family would be served by the parent providing full or part-time care in the home due to the particular personal or family circumstances of the enrollee's family.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. IMPLEMENTATION OF PROGRAM. (1) The family independence program shall not be implemented before February 28, 1988, and shall not be implemented until specifically authorized by the legislature. However, upon the effective date of this section, the executive committee shall be appointed and shall carry out those functions necessary to plan for the implementation of the family independence program, including securing federal approval.

(2) The governor shall report to the legislature at least once each quarter of 1987 on the progress of the executive committee's efforts to secure federal approval of the family independence program.

(3)(a) The governor shall seek congressional action on any federal legislation necessary to implement this chapter. The governor shall seek legislation that provides that any program under this chapter shall be a demonstration project which remains within the federal aid to families with dependent children system under Title IV of the federal social security act.

(b) Any agreements with the federal government necessary to implement the family independence program shall provide that any program under this chapter shall be a demonstration project which remains within the federal aid to families with dependent children system under Title IV of the federal social security act. Such agreements shall provide for waivers from the federal aid to families with dependent children, system only to the extent necessary to implement this chapter.

(4) If all proposed agreements between the state and federal governments which are necessary to implement the family independence program have been completed before February 1, 1988, a plan outlining such proposed agreements shall be submitted to the legislature no later than February 7, 1988. If all agreements between the state and federal governments necessary to implement the family independence program have not been completed by February 1, 1988, an implementation plan with the proposed agreements shall be submitted to the senate committee on human services and corrections, the house of representatives committee on human services, and the senate and house of representatives committees on ways and means for consideration. Copies of all such proposed agreements and any proposed changes to state statute shall be submitted to the legislature with the plan. The family independence program shall be implemented only after the legislature has approved the implementation plan and authorized the signing and completion of all federal-state agreements.

(5) Any agreements with the federal government pursuant to this chapter shall provide that such agreements may be canceled by the state or federal government upon six months' notice or immediately upon mutual agreement. If the agreements are canceled, those enrollees in the family independence program who are eligible for the aid to families with dependent children, medicaid, and the food stamp programs shall be converted to those programs.

(6) Subject to the approval of the executive committee, the department of social and health services and the employment security department shall enter into an interagency agreement for carrying out appropriate administrative functions and purposes as required with respect to the family independence program to be undertaken in this state.

(7) The family independence program shall be implemented only in counties of the state in which the average unemployment rate is less than twice the state-wide average. The executive committee may phase-in the program on a regional or county-by-county basis. The executive committee shall phase-in implementation in accordance with the plan outlined in section 7(1)(s) of this act after the legislature has approved the plan.

(8) In at least one region, the executive committee shall use a mandatory monthly reporting system in its implementation of the family independence program. After an appropriate period, the executive committee shall evaluate the cost-effectiveness and the effects on recipients and caseloads of the reporting. The executive committee may discontinue the mandatory monthly reporting system if it determines it not to be cost-effective.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. REFERENCE TO OTHER LAWS. Unless the language specifically states to the contrary, any reference in this chapter to a provision or requirement of federal law or regulations refers to that provision as of January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. CAPTIONS. Section captions as used in this chapter do not constitute any part of the law.

Sec. 23. Section 1, chapter 104, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 102, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.19.1901 are each amended to read as follows:

The term 'purchase' as used in RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.200, and as they may hereafter be amended, shall include leasing or renting; PROVIDED, That the purchasing, leasing or renting of electronic data processing equipment shall not be included in the term 'purchasing' if and when such transactions are otherwise expressly provided for by law.

The acquisition of job services and all other services for the family independence program under chapter 74.-- RCW (sections 1 through 22 of this 1987 act) shall not be included in the term 'purchasing' under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 24. Sections 1 through 22 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 74 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 25. Sections 1 through 22 of this act shall expire on June 30, 1989, unless extended by law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 26. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "program;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.19.1901; adding a new chapter to Title 74 RCW; and providing an expiration date."

and is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Ms. Brække, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 448 and asked the Senate for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Brække, Wang and Winsley as conferees on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 448.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 8, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 56 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 64, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 215, Laws of 1984 and RCW 78.44.030 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise:

(1) 'Surface mining' shall mean all or any part of the process involved in mining of minerals by removing the overburden and mining directly from the mineral deposits thereby exposed, including open-pit mining of minerals naturally exposed at the surface of the earth, mining by the auger method, and including the production of surface mining refuse. Surface mining shall not include on-site processing of minerals such as concrete batching or rock crushing operations. For the purpose of this chapter surface mining shall mean those operations described in this paragraph ((from)) which ((more than ten thousand tons of minerals are produced or more than two acres of land is newly disturbed within a period of twelve consecutive calendar months)) collectively result in more than three acres of land being disturbed or that result in pit walls more than thirty feet high and steeper than one horizontal to one vertical.

Surface mining shall not include disturbances of greater than three acres of land during any time period if the cumulative area that has not been rehabilitated according to the reclamation requirements outlined in this chapter is less than three acres. Surface mining shall not include excavation or removal of sand, gravel, clay, rock, top soil, or other materials in remote areas by an owner or holder of a possessory interest in land for the primary purpose of construction or maintenance of access roads to or on such landowner's property. Surface mining shall not include excavation or grading conducted for farming, on-site road construction or other on-site construction, but shall include adjacent or off-site borrow pits except those on landowner's property for use on access roads on such property. Prospecting and exploration activities shall be included within the definition of surface mining when they are of such nature and extent as to exceed the qualifying sizes listed above or when collectively they disturb more than one acre per eight acres of land area.

(2) 'Unit of surface mined area' shall mean the area of land and water covered by each operating permit that is actually newly disturbed by surface mining during each twelve-month period of time, beginning at the date of issuance of the permit, and shall comprise the area from which overburden and/or minerals have been removed, the area covered by spoil banks, and all additional areas used in surface mining operations which by virtue of such use are thereafter susceptible to excessive erosion.

(3) 'Abandonment of surface mining' shall mean a cessation of surface mining, not set forth in an operator's plan of operation or by any other sufficient written notice, extending for more than six consecutive months or when, by reason of examination of the premises or by any other means, it becomes the opinion of the department of natural resources that the operation has in fact been abandoned by the operator: PROVIDED, That the operator does not, within thirty days of receipt of written notification from the department of his intent to declare the operation abandoned, submit evidence to the department's satisfaction that the operation is in fact not abandoned.

(4) 'Minerals' shall mean coal, clay, stone, sand, gravel, metallic ore, and any other similar solid material or substance to be excavated from natural deposits on or in the earth for commercial, industrial, or construction uses.

(5) 'Overburden' shall mean the earth, rock, and other materials that lie above a natural deposit of mineral.

(6) 'Surface mining refuse' shall mean all waste soil, rock, mineral, liquid, vegetation, and other material directly resulting from or displaced by the mining, cleaning, or preparation of minerals during the surface mining operations on the operating permit area, and shall include all waste materials deposited on or in the permit area from other sources.

(7) 'Spoil bank' shall mean a deposit of excavated overburden or mining refuse.

(8) 'Operator' shall mean any person or persons, any partnership, limited partnership, or corporation, or any association of persons, either natural or artificial, including every public or governmental agency engaged in surface mining operations, whether individually, jointly, or through subsidiaries, agents, employees, or contractors.

(9) 'Department' means the department of natural resources.

(10) 'Reclamation' shall mean the reasonable protection of all surface resources subject to disruption from surface mining and rehabilitation of the surface resources affected by surface mining including the area under stockpiled materials. Although both the need for and the practicability of reclamation will control the type and degree of reclamation in any specific instance, the basic objective will be to reestablish on a continuing basis the vegetative cover, soil stability, water conditions, and safety conditions appropriate to the intended subsequent use of the area.

(11) 'Reclamation plan' shall mean the operator's written proposal, as required and approved by the department, for reclamation of the affected resources which shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) A statement of the proposed subsequent use of the land after reclamation ((and satisfactory evidence that all owners of) which is signed by all individuals with a possessory interest in the land ((concur with this proposed use)), or a copy of the conveyance that expressly grants or reserves the right to extract the mineral by surface mining methods, or if the conveyance does not expressly grant the right to extract the mineral by surface mining methods, then documentation that under applicable state law, the operator has the legal authority to extract the mineral by those methods: PROVIDED, That the applicant must provide notice reasonably calculated to advise all individuals with a possessory interest of the intent to remove minerals and the proposed subsequent use. If any individual with a possessory interest does not respond to the notice within sixty days, that person's signature shall not be required;

(b) Evidence that this subsequent use would not be illegal under local zoning regulations;

(c) Proposed practices to protect adjacent surface resources;

(d) Specifications for surface gradient restoration to a surface suitable for the proposed subsequent use of the land after reclamation is completed, and proposed method of accomplishment;

(e) Manner and type of revegetation or other surface treatment of disturbed areas;

(f) Method of prevention or elimination of conditions that will create a public nuisance, endanger public safety, damage property, or be hazardous to vegetative, animal, fish, or human life in or adjacent to the area;

(g) Method of control of contaminants and disposal of surface mining refuse;

(h) Method of diverting surface waters around the disturbed areas;

(i) Method of restoration of stream channels and stream banks to a condition minimizing erosion and siltation and other pollution;

(j) Such maps and other supporting documents as reasonably required by the department; and

(k) A time schedule for reclamation that meets the requirements of RCW 78.44.090.

Sec. 2. SECTION 12, chapter 64, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 215, Laws of 1984 and RCW 78.44.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The permit fees required under this chapter shall be as follows:

(1) The basic fee for the permit shall be two hundred fifty dollars per permit year for each separate location, payable with submission of the application and annually thereafter with submission of the report required in RCW 78.44.130; PROVIDED, That a person who has held a valid surface mining permit and whose property has never been disturbed for surface mining may keep such permit in effect by paying an annual fee of fifty dollars. Before a person holding a fifty dollar permit begins surface mining during any permit year, that person shall pay the remainder of the two hundred fifty dollar fee.

(2) In addition, there shall be a five dollar per acre fee for all acreage exceeding ten acres which was newly disturbed by surface mining during the previous permit year, which acreage fee shall be paid at the time of submission of the report required in RCW 78.44.130.

(3) All fees collected shall be deposited in the general fund.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 78.44 RCW to read as follows:

The Department shall by rule define the term "segment" as used in RCW 78.44.090 and 78.44.140 to establish the depth or extent of the operation covered."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "mining;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 78.44.030, 78.44.110, and 78.44.140; and adding a new section to chapter 78.44 RCW."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Ms. K. Wilson, the House concurred in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 56.

Substitute House Bill No. 56 as amended by the Senate, having receiving the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 8, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 64 with the following amendments:

On page 1, after line 8, insert the following:

*Sec. 2. Section .18.29, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 287, Laws of 1986 and RCW 48.18.290 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Cancellation by the insurer of any policy which by its terms is cancellable at the option of the insurer, or of any binder based on such policy, may be effected as to any interest only upon compliance with ~~((either or both of the following))~~ (a) and (b) or (c) of this subsection:

(a) Unless cancellation is due to reasons set forth in chapter 48.53 RCW, nonpayment of premiums, fraud, misrepresentation, or a material change in the condition or in the law affecting the risk, cancellation of a policy by the insurer shall not be issued more than sixty days after the policy has been in effect;

(b) Written notice of such cancellation, accompanied by the actual reason therefor, must be actually delivered or mailed to the insured and to his or her representative in charge of the subject of the insurance not less than forty-five days prior to the effective date of the cancellation except for cancellation of insurance policies for nonpayment of premiums, which notice shall be not less than ten days prior to such date and except for cancellation of fire insurance policies under chapter 48.53 RCW, which notice shall not be less than five days prior to such date;

~~((b))~~ (c) Like notice of not less than forty-five days must also be so delivered or mailed to each mortgagee, pledgee, or other person shown by the policy to have an interest in any loss which may occur thereunder.

(2) The mailing of any such notice shall be effected by depositing it in a sealed envelope, directed to the addressee at his or her last address as known to the insurer or as shown by the insurer's records, with proper prepaid postage affixed, in a letter depository of the United States post office. The insurer shall retain in its records any such item so mailed, together with its envelope, which was returned by the post office upon failure to find, or deliver the mailing to, the addressee.

(3) The affidavit of the individual making or supervising such a mailing, shall constitute prima facie evidence of such facts of the mailing as are therein affirmed.

(4) The portion of any premium paid to the insurer on account of the policy, unearned because of the cancellation and in amount as computed on the pro rata basis, must be actually paid to the insured or other person entitled thereto as shown by the policy or by any endorsement thereon, or be mailed to the insured or such person as soon as possible, and no later than forty-five days after the date of notice of cancellation to the insured for homeowners', dwelling fire, and private passenger auto. Any such payment may be made by cash, or by check, bank draft, or money order.

(5) This section shall not apply to contracts of life or disability insurance without provision for cancellation prior to the date to which premiums have been paid, or to contracts of insurance procured under the provisions of chapter 48.15 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "statutes;" insert "amending RCW 48.18.290;" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Lux: I would ask the chair to rule on the scope and object of the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 64.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Lux, the Speaker has examined House Bill No. 64 and the amendments that you've asked me to rule on. House Bill No. 64 relates to surety bonds that are governed and required under other statutes and are exempt from the cancellation and nonrenewal notice provisions of the insurance code. The amendment adopted by the Senate extends this to include a provision that no property or casualty insurance may be cancelled after the policy has been in effect for sixty days or more. I find that your point is well taken; the amendments are outside the scope and object of the original bill.

MOTION

Mr. Lux moved that the House refuse to concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 64 and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

The motion was carried.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 13, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 99 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

'NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the 'Washington state health insurance coverage access act'.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. It is the purpose and intent of the legislature to provide access to health insurance coverage to all residents of Washington who are denied adequate health insurance for any reason. It is the intent of the legislature that adequate levels of health insurance coverage be made available to residents of Washington who are otherwise considered uninsurable or who are underinsured. It is the intent of the Washington state health insurance coverage access act to provide a mechanism to insure the availability of comprehensive health insurance to persons unable to obtain such insurance coverage on either an individual or group basis directly under any health plan.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meaning indicated, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) 'Administrator' means the entity chosen by the board to administer the pool under section 8 of this act.

(2) 'Board' means the board of directors of the pool.

(3) 'Commissioner' means the insurance commissioner.

(4) 'Health care facility' has the same meaning as in RCW 70.38.025.

(5) 'Health care provider' means any physician, facility, or health care professional, who is licensed in Washington state and entitled to reimbursement for health care services.

(6) 'Health care services' means services for the purpose of preventing, alleviating, curing, or healing human illness or injury.

(7) 'Health insurance' means any group or individual disability insurance policy, health care service contract, and health maintenance agreement, except those contracts entered into for the provision of health care services pursuant to Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1395 et seq. The term does not include short-term care, long-term care, dental, vision, accident, fixed indemnity, disability income contracts, civilian health and medical program for the uniform services (CHAMPUS), 10 U.S.C. 55, limited benefit or credit insurance, coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance, insurance arising out of the worker's compensation or similar law, automobile medical payment insurance, or insurance under which benefits are payable with or without regard to fault and which is statutorily required to be contained in any liability insurance policy or equivalent self-insurance.

(8) 'Health plan' means any arrangement by which persons, including dependents or spouses, covered or making application to be covered under this pool, have access to hospital and medical benefits or reimbursement including any group or individual disability insurance policy; health care service contract; health maintenance agreement; uninsured arrangements of group or group-type contracts including employer self-insured, cost-plus, or other benefit methodologies not involving insurance or not governed by Title 48 RCW; coverage under group-type contracts which are not available to the general public and can be obtained only because of connection with a particular organization or group; and coverage by medicare or other governmental benefits. This term includes coverage through 'health insurance' as defined under this section, and specifically excludes those types of programs excluded under the definition of 'health insurance' in subsection (7) of this section.

(9) 'Insured' means any individual resident of this state who is eligible to receive benefits from any member, or other health plan.

(10) 'Medical assistance' means coverage under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C., Sec. 1396 et seq.) and chapter 74.09 RCW.

(11) 'Medicare' means coverage under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1395 et seq., as amended).

(12) 'Member' means any commercial insurer which provides disability insurance, any health care service contractor, and any health maintenance organization licensed under Title 48 RCW. 'Member' shall also mean, as soon as authorized by federal law, employers and other entities, including a self-funding entity and employee welfare benefit plans that provide health plan benefits in this state on or after the effective date of this section. 'Member' does not include any insurer, health care service contractor, or health maintenance organization whose products are exclusively dental products.

(13) 'Plan of operation' means the pool, including articles, by-laws, and operating rules, adopted by the board pursuant to section 5 of this act.

(14) 'Pool' means the Washington state health insurance pool as created in section 4 of this act.

(15) 'Substantially equivalent health plan' means a 'health plan' as defined in subsection (8) of this section which, in the judgment of the board or the administrator, offers persons including dependents or spouses covered or making application to be covered by this pool an overall level of benefits deemed approximately equivalent to the minimum benefits available under this pool.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) There is hereby created a nonprofit entity to be known as the Washington state health insurance pool. All members in this state on or after the effective date of this section shall be members of the pool. When authorized by federal law, all self-insured employers as designated by federal law shall also be members of the pool.

(2) Pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW the commissioner shall, within ninety days after the effective date of this section, give notice to all members of the time and place for the initial organizational meetings of the pool. A board of directors shall be established, which shall be comprised of nine members. The commissioner shall select three members of the board who shall represent (a) the general public, (b) health care providers, and (c) health insurance agents. The remaining members of the board shall be selected by election from among the members of the pool. The elected members shall, to the extent possible, include at least one representative of health care service contractors, one representative of health maintenance organizations, and one representative of commercial insurers which provides disability insurance. When self-insured organizations become eligible for participation in the pool, one member of the board shall represent the self-insurers.

(3) The original members of the board of directors shall be appointed for intervals of one to three years. Thereafter, all board members shall serve a term of three years. Board members shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed for all travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(4) The board shall submit to the commissioner a plan of operation for the pool and any amendments thereto necessary or suitable to assure the fair, reasonable, and equitable administration of the pool. The commissioner shall, after notice and hearing pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, approve the plan of operation if it is determined to assure the fair, reasonable, and equitable administration of the pool and provides for the sharing of pool losses on an equitable, proportionate basis among the members of the pool. The plan of operation shall become effective upon approval in writing by the commissioner consistent with the date on which the coverage under this chapter must be made available. If the board fails to submit a plan of operation within one hundred eighty days after the appointment of the board or any time thereafter fails to submit acceptable amendments to the plan, the commissioner shall, within ninety days after notice and hearing pursuant to chapters 34.04 and 48.04 RCW, adopt such rules as are necessary or advisable to effectuate this chapter. The rules shall continue in force until modified by the commissioner or superseded by a plan submitted by the board and approved by the commissioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The plan of operation submitted by the board to the commissioner shall:

- (1) Establish procedures for the handling and accounting of assets and moneys of the pool;
- (2) Establish regular times and places for meetings of the board of directors;
- (3) Establish procedures for records to be kept of all financial transactions and for an annual fiscal reporting to the commissioner;
- (4) Contain additional provisions necessary and proper for the execution of the powers and duties of the pool;
- (5) Establish procedures for the collection of assessments from all members to provide for claims paid under the plan and for administrative expenses incurred or estimated to be incurred during the period for which the assessment is made;
- (6) Establish the amount of assessment pursuant to section 6 of this act, which shall occur after March 1st of each calendar year, and which shall be due and payable within thirty days of the receipt of the assessment notice;
- (7) Select an administrator in accordance with section 8 of this act;
- (8) Develop and implement a program to publicize the existence of the plan, the eligibility requirements and procedures for enrollment, and to maintain public awareness of the plan; and
- (9) Establish procedures under which applicants and participants may have grievances reviewed by an impartial body and reported to the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The board shall have the general powers and authority granted under the laws of this state to insurance companies licensed to transact the kinds of insurance defined under this title. In addition thereto, the board may:

(1) Enter into contracts as are necessary or proper to carry out the provisions and purposes of this chapter including the authority, with the approval of the commissioner, to enter into contracts with similar pools of other states for the joint performance of common administrative functions, or with persons or other organizations for the performance of administrative functions;

(2) Sue or be sued, including taking any legal action as necessary to avoid the payment of improper claims against the pool or the coverage provided by or through the pool;

(3) Establish appropriate rates, rate schedules, rate adjustments, expense allowances, agent referral fees, claim reserve formulas and any other actuarial functions appropriate to the operation of the pool. Rates shall not be unreasonable in relation to the coverage provided, the risk experience, and expenses of providing the coverage. Rates and rate schedules may be adjusted for appropriate risk factors such as age and area variation in claim costs and shall take into consideration appropriate risk factors in accordance with established actuarial underwriting practices;

(4) Assess members of the pool in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and to make advance interim assessments as may be reasonable and necessary for the organizational or interim operating expenses. Any interim expenses will be credited as offsets against any regular assessments due following the close of the calendar year;

(5) Issue policies of insurance in accordance with the requirements of this chapter;

(6) Appoint appropriate legal, actuarial and other committees as necessary to provide technical assistance in the operation of the pool, policy, and other contract design, and any other function within the authority of the pool; and

(7) Conduct periodic audits to assure the general accuracy of the financial data submitted to the pool, and the board shall cause the pool to have an annual audit of its operations by an independent certified public accountant.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The pool shall be subject to examination by the commissioner as provided under chapter 48.03 RCW. The board of directors shall submit, not later than March 1st of each year, a financial report for the preceding calendar year in a form approved by the commissioner. The board of directors shall further report to the appropriate standing committees of each house of the legislature by March 1st of each year.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The board shall select an administrator through a competitive bidding process to administer the pool.

(1) The board shall evaluate bids based upon criteria established by the board, which shall include:

(a) The administrator's proven ability to handle accident and health insurance;

(b) The efficiency of the administrator's claim-paying procedures;

(c) An estimate of the total charges for administering the plan; and

(d) The administrator's ability to administer the pool in a cost-effective manner.

(2) The administrator shall serve for a period of three years subject to removal for cause. At least one year prior to the expiration of each three-year period of service by the administrator, the board shall invite all interested parties, including the current administrator, to submit bids to serve as the administrator for the succeeding three-year period. Selection of the administrator for this succeeding period shall be made at least six months prior to the end of the current three-year period.

(3)(a) The administrator shall perform all eligibility and administrative claim payment functions relating to the pool;

(b) The administrator shall establish a premium billing procedure for collection of premiums from insured persons. Billings shall be made on a periodic basis as determined by the board, which shall not be more frequent than a monthly billing;

(c) The administrator shall perform all necessary functions to assure timely payment of benefits to covered persons under the pool including:

(i) Making available information relating to the proper manner of submitting a claim for benefits to the pool, and distributing forms upon which submission shall be made; and

(ii) Evaluating the eligibility of each claim for payment by the pool;

(d) The administrator shall submit regular reports to the board regarding the operation of the pool. The frequency, content, and form of the report shall be as determined by the board;

(e) Following the close of each calendar year, the administrator shall determine net written and earned premiums, the expense of administration, and the paid and incurred losses for the year and report this information to the board and the commissioner on a form as prescribed by the commissioner;

(f) The administrator shall be paid as provided in the plan of operation for its expenses incurred in the performance of its services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. (1) Following the close of each calendar year, the pool administrator shall determine the net premium (premiums less administrative expense allowances), the pool expenses of administration, and incurred losses for the year, taking into account investment income and other appropriate gains and losses.

(2)(a) Each member's proportion of participation in the pool shall be determined annually by the board based on annual statements and other reports deemed necessary by the board and filed by the member with the commissioner; and shall be determined by multiplying the total cost of pool operation by a fraction, the numerator of which equals that member's total number of resident insured persons, including spouse and dependents under the member's health plan in the state during the preceding calendar year, and the denominator of which equals the total number of resident insured persons including spouses and dependents insured under all health plans in the state by pool members.

(b) Any deficit incurred by the pool shall be recouped by assessments among members apportioned under this subsection pursuant to the formula set forth by the board among members.

(3) The board may abate or defer, in whole or in part, the assessment of a member if, in the opinion of the board, payment of the assessment would endanger the ability of the member to fulfill its contractual obligations. If an assessment against a member is abated or deferred in whole or in part, the amount by which such assessment is abated or deferred may be assessed against the other members in a manner consistent with the basis for assessments set forth in subsection (2) of this section. The member receiving such abatement or deferment shall remain liable to the pool for the deficiency for four years.

(4) If assessments exceed actual losses and administrative expenses of the pool, the excess shall be held at interest and used by the board to offset future losses or to reduce pool premiums. As used in this subsection, 'future losses' includes reserves for incurred but not reported claims.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Any individual person who is a resident of this state is eligible for coverage upon providing evidence of rejection for medical reasons, a requirement of restrictive riders, an up-rated premium, or a preexisting conditions limitation on health insurance, the effect of which is to substantially reduce coverage from that received by a person considered a standard risk, by at least one member within six months of the date of application.

(2) The following persons are not eligible for coverage by the pool:

(a) Any person who is at the time of pool application eligible for medical assistance;

(b) Any person having terminated coverage in the pool unless (i) twelve months have lapsed since termination, or (ii) that person can show continuous other coverage which has been involuntarily terminated for any reason other than nonpayment of premiums;

(c) Any person on whose behalf the pool has paid out five hundred thousand dollars in benefits;

(d) Inmates of public institutions and persons whose benefits are duplicated under public programs.

(3) Any person whose health insurance coverage is involuntarily terminated for any reason other than nonpayment of premium may apply for coverage under the plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The administrator shall prepare a brochure outlining the benefits and exclusions of the pool policy in plain language. After approval by the board of directors, such brochure shall be made reasonably available to participants or potential participants. The health insurance policy issued by the pool shall pay only usual, customary, and reasonable charges for medically necessary eligible health care services rendered or furnished for the diagnosis or treatment of illnesses, injuries, and conditions which are not otherwise limited or excluded. Eligible expenses are the usual, customary, and reasonable charges for the health care services and items for which benefits are extended under the pool policy. Such benefits shall at minimum include, but not be limited to, the following services or related items:

(a) Hospital services, including charges for the most common semiprivate room, for the most common private room if semiprivate rooms do not exist in the health care facility, or for the private room if medically necessary, but limited to a total of one hundred eighty inpatient days in a calendar year, and limited to thirty days inpatient care for mental and nervous conditions, or alcohol, drug, or chemical dependency or abuse per calendar year;

(b) Professional services including surgery for the treatment of injuries, illnesses, or conditions, other than dental, which are rendered by a health care provider, or at the direction of a health care provider, by a staff of registered or licensed practical nurses, or other health care providers;

(c) The first twenty outpatient professional visits for the diagnosis or treatment of one or more mental or nervous conditions or alcohol, drug, or chemical dependency or abuse rendered during a calendar year by one or more physicians, psychologists, or community mental health professionals, or, at the direction of a physician, by other qualified licensed health care practitioners;

(d) Drugs and contraceptive devices requiring a prescription;

(e) Services of a skilled nursing facility, excluding custodial and convalescent care, for not more than one hundred days in a calendar year as prescribed by a physician;

(f) Services of a home health agency;

(g) Chemotherapy, radioisotope, radiation, and nuclear medicine therapy;

(h) Oxygen;

(i) Anesthesia services;

(j) Prostheses, other than dental;

(k) Durable medical equipment which has no personal use in the absence of the condition for which prescribed;

(l) Diagnostic x-rays and laboratory tests;

(m) Oral surgery limited to the following: Fractures of facial bones; excisions of mandibular joints, lesions of the mouth, lip, or tongue, tumors, or cysts excluding treatment for temporomandibular joints; incision of accessory sinuses, mouth salivary glands or ducts; dislocations of the jaw; plastic reconstruction or repair of traumatic injuries occurring while covered under the pool; and excision of impacted wisdom teeth;

(n) Services of a physical therapist and services of a speech therapist;

(o) Hospice services;

(p) Professional ambulance service to the nearest health care facility qualified to treat the illness or injury; and

(q) Other medical equipment, services, or supplies required by physician's orders and medically necessary and consistent with the diagnosis, treatment, and condition.

(2) The board shall design and employ cost containment measures and requirements such as, but not limited to, preadmission certification and concurrent inpatient review which may make the pool more cost-effective.

(3) The pool benefit policy may contain benefit limitations, exceptions, and reductions that are generally included in health insurance plans and are approved by the insurance commissioner; however, no limitation, exception, or reduction may be approved that would exclude coverage for any disease, illness, or injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Subject to the limitation provided in subsection (3) of this section, a pool policy offered in accordance with this chapter shall impose a deductible. Deductibles of five hundred dollars and one thousand dollars on a per person per calendar year basis shall initially be offered. The board may authorize deductibles in other amounts. The deductible shall be applied to the first five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, or other authorized amount of eligible expenses incurred by the covered person.

(2) Subject to the limitations provided in subsection (3) of this section, a mandatory coinsurance requirement shall be imposed at the rate of twenty percent of eligible expenses in excess of the mandatory deductible.

(3) The maximum aggregate out of pocket payments for eligible expenses by the insured in the form of deductibles and coinsurance shall not exceed in a policy year:

(a) One thousand five hundred dollars per individual, or three thousand dollars per family, per policy year for the five hundred dollar deductible policy;

(b) Two thousand five hundred dollars per individual, or five thousand dollars per family per policy year for the one thousand dollar deductible policy; or

(c) An amount authorized by the board for any other deductible policy.

(4) Eligible expenses incurred by a covered person in the last three months of a calendar year, and applied toward a deductible, shall also be applied toward the deductible amount in the next calendar year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. All policy forms issued by the pool shall conform in substance to prototype forms developed by the pool, and shall in all other respects conform to the requirements of this chapter, and shall be filed with and approved by the commissioner before they are issued. The pool shall not issue a pool policy to any individual who, on the effective date of the coverage applied for, already has or would have coverage substantially equivalent to a pool policy as an insured or covered dependent, or who would be eligible for such coverage if he elected to obtain it at a lesser premium rate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Coverage shall provide that health insurance benefits are applicable to children of the person in whose name the policy is issued including adopted and newly born natural children. Coverage shall also include necessary care and treatment of medically diagnosed congenital defects and birth abnormalities. If payment of a specific premium is required to provide coverage for the child, the policy may require that notification of the birth or adoption of a child and payment of the required premium must be furnished to the pool within thirty-one days after the date of birth or adoption in order to have the coverage continued beyond the thirty-one day period. For purposes of this subsection, a child is deemed to be adopted, and benefits are payable, when the child is physically placed for purposes of adoption under the laws of this state with the person in whose name the policy is issued; and, when the person in whose name the policy is issued assumes financial responsibility for the medical expenses of the child. For purposes of this subsection, 'newly born' means, and benefits are payable, from the moment of birth.

(2) A pool policy shall provide that coverage of a dependent, unmarried person shall terminate when the person becomes nineteen years of age: PROVIDED, That coverage of such person shall not terminate at age nineteen while he or she is and continues to be both (a) incapable of self-sustaining employment by reason of developmental disability or physical handicap and (b) chiefly dependent upon the person in whose name the policy is issued for support and maintenance, provided proof of such incapacity and dependency is furnished to the pool by the policy holder within thirty-one days of the dependent's attainment of age nineteen and subsequently as may be required by the pool but not more frequently than annually after the two-year period following the dependent's attainment of age nineteen.

(3) A pool policy may contain provisions under which coverage is excluded during a period of six months following the effective date of coverage as to a given covered individual for preexisting conditions, as long as medical advice or treatment was recommended or received within a period of six months before the effective date of coverage.

These preexisting condition exclusions shall be waived to the extent to which similar exclusions have been satisfied under any prior health insurance which was for any reason other than nonpayment of premium involuntarily terminated, if the application for pool coverage is made not later than thirty days following the involuntary termination. In that case, with payment of appropriate premium, coverage in the pool shall be effective from the date on which the prior coverage was terminated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) The board shall offer a medical supplement policy for persons receiving medicare benefits. The supplement policy shall provide coverage of one hundred percent of the deductible and copayment required under medicare and eighty percent of the charges for covered services under this chapter that are not paid by medicare. The coverage shall include a limitation of one thousand dollars per person on total annual out-of-pocket expenses for the covered services.

(2) If federal law is adopted that addresses this subject, the board shall offer a policy that is consistent with that federal law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) A pool policy offered under this chapter shall contain provisions under which the pool is obligated to renew the policy until the day on which the individual in whose name the policy is issued first becomes eligible for medicare coverage. At that time, coverage of dependents shall terminate if such dependents are eligible for coverage under a different health plan. Dependents who become eligible for medicare prior to the individual in whose name the policy is issued, shall receive benefits in accordance with section 15 of this act.

(2) The pool may not change the rates for pool policies except on a class basis, with a clear disclosure in the policy of the pool's right to do so.

(3) A pool policy offered under this chapter shall provide that, upon the death of the individual in whose name the policy is issued, every other individual then covered under the policy may elect, within a period specified in the policy, to continue coverage under the same or a different policy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The commissioner shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW that:

(1) Provide for disclosure by the member of the availability of insurance coverage from the pool; and

(2) Implement this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) Commencing with the effective date of this section, every member shall provide a notice and an application for coverage by the pool to any person who receives a rejection of coverage for health insurance or health care services, or has any health condition limited or excluded. The notice shall state that the person is eligible to apply for health insurance provided by the pool.

(2) Members of the pool shall provide the brochure outlining the benefits and exclusions of the pool policy to any person who is rejected by a member or who is offered a policy containing restrictive riders, up-rated premiums, or a preexisting conditions limitation on a health insurance plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Neither the participation by members, the establishment of rates, forms, or procedures for coverages issued by the pool, nor any other joint or collective action required by this chapter or the state of Washington shall be the basis of any legal action, civil or criminal liability or penalty against the pool or members of it either jointly or separately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The pool shall determine the standard risk rate by calculating the average group standard rate for groups comprised of up to ten persons charged by the five largest members offering coverages in the state comparable to the pool coverage. In the event five members do not offer comparable coverage, the standard risk rate shall be established using reasonable actuarial techniques and shall reflect anticipated experience and expenses for such coverage. Maximum rates for pool coverage shall be one hundred fifty percent of the rates established as applicable for group standard risks in groups comprised of up to ten persons. All rates and rate schedules shall be submitted to the commissioner for approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. It is the express intent of this chapter that the pool be the last payor of benefits whenever any other benefit is available.

(1) Benefits otherwise payable under pool coverage shall be reduced by all amounts paid or payable through any other health insurance, or health benefit plans, including but not limited to self-insured plans and by all hospital and medical expense benefits paid or payable under any worker's compensation coverage, automobile medical payment or liability insurance whether provided on the basis of fault or nonfault, and by any hospital or medical benefits paid or payable under or provided pursuant to any state or federal law or program.

(2) The administrator or the pool shall have a cause of action against an eligible person for the recovery of the amount of benefits paid which are not for covered expenses. Benefits due from the pool may be reduced or refused as a set-off against any amount recoverable under this subsection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any part of this chapter is found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this chapter is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this chapter in its application to the agencies concerned. The rules under this chapter shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 48.14 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The taxes imposed in RCW 48.14.020 do not apply to premiums collected or received for policies of insurance issued under sections 1 through 21 of this act.

(2) In computing tax due under RCW 48.14.020, there may be deducted from taxable premiums the amount of any assessment against the taxpayer under sections 1 through 21 of this act. Any portion of the deduction allowed in this section which cannot be deducted in a tax year without reducing taxable premiums below zero may be carried forward and deducted in successive years until the deduction is exhausted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows:

In computing tax there may be deducted from the measure of tax the amount of any assessment against the taxpayer under sections 1 through 21 of this act. Any portion of the deduction allowed in this section which cannot be deducted in a tax year without reducing taxable premiums below zero may be carried forward and deducted in successive years until the deduction is exhausted. Amounts deducted under section 23 of this act may not be deducted under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The board shall report to the commissioner and the appropriate committees of the legislature by April 1, 1990, on the implementation of this act. The report shall include information regarding enrollment, coverage utilization, cost, and any problems with the program and suggest remedies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. Sections 1 through 22 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "uninsurable;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 48.14 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 82.04 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 48 RCW; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency." and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 10, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 170 with the following amendments:

On page 7, after line 2, insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 79.01 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that amateur radio groups, commonly known as ham radio operators, provide important communication services to the general public and to local, state, and federal agencies. By leasing state lands to amateur radio operators, the legislature intends to help operators perform their many valuable public services, including but not limited to, supporting law enforcement personnel, aiding search and rescue efforts, providing an emergency communication network, and helping with disaster relief support. The legislature recognizes the valuable services performed by amateur radio operators and intends to facilitate the continued performance of these services by permitting the lease of state lands at nominal costs for such public services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 79.01 RCW to read as follows:

The department may lease state lands to licensed amateur radio operators for the purpose of erecting radio repeaters if such repeaters are available at all times to other licensed amateur radio operators to use for emergency and public service communications. The department shall charge an annual fee of twenty-five dollars for use of the site by an amateur radio operator. The department shall develop guidelines, which the department may adopt by rule, for leasing sites on state lands to amateur radio operators providing public services and for providing a preference where possible for such use by amateur radio operators.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 79.01 RCW to read as follows:

Infraction proceedings may be brought against any amateur radio lessee who violates, or fails to adhere to, departmental rules or guidelines."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively

On page 1, line 4, after "penalties," insert "adding new sections to chapter 79.01 RCW," and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Sutherland: I would ask you to rule on scope and object of the Senate amendments.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Sutherland, the Speaker has examined Substitute House Bill No. 170 and finds that it deals with administrative procedures and rules for four separate natural resources agencies that may determine that violations of rules administered under their authority represent infractions rather than criminal violations. Now in spite of the skillful drafting of the Senate, I am going to have to find that an amendment that says that the department of natural resources may lease state lands to amateur radio operators for the purpose of erecting radio repeaters does not fall within the scope and object of the original bill. Your point is well taken; the amendment is outside the scope and object of the house bill.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Sutherland, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 170 and asked the Senate to recede therefrom.

Representative Locke appeared at the bar of the House.

There being no objection, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5604, by Committee on Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Senators Vognild, Nelson, Bottiger, Rasmussen, Owen, Craswell, Bailey, Benitz, Hayner and Johnson; by request of Office of the Governor and Commissioner of Public Lands)

Authorizing the conveyance of land for a United States Navy base in Everett.

The bill was read the second time.

Ms. Belcher moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 35, after "all" strike "reasonable and appropriate"

Ms. Belcher spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Sutherland, Meyers and S. Wilson spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

Ms. K. Wilson moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives K. Wilson, Spanel, Cole and Nelson:

On page 2, line 27, after "Navy;" strike "and"

On page 3, line 2, after "program" insert "; and"

(c) Will agree to choose, prior to the disposal of the dredge spoils in Puget Sound, an alternative disposal plan acceptable to the Navy and the state, to be used if the CAD method of disposal does not work for either the clean test or phase one of the dredge disposal program"

Representatives K. Wilson, Rust, Lux and Locke spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Meyers, S. Wilson, Walker, May and Sutherland spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

Ms. K. Wilson moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives K. Wilson, Spanel, Cole and Nelson:

On page 3, line 10, after "et seq.;" strike "or" and insert "and"

Ms. K. Wilson spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Meyers and S. Wilson spoke against it.

The amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Scott and S. Wilson spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Sutherland yielded to question by Mr. R. King.

Mr. R. King: A concern was raised in committee relating to the constitutional and public trust doctrine mandates that use of the harbor area for commerce and navigation remain unobstructed and that land and water access to the harbor area be guaranteed. There was some concern that, once the tidelands were conveyed to the Navy, the Navy could prevent access to the harbor area, thereby obstructing commerce and navigation. Can you explain the committee's understanding and intent concerning these mandates?

Mr. Sutherland: The committee discussed amending the bill to require the Navy to agree to comply with these mandates. The amendment was not adopted, however, because it was the view of many on the committee that the amendment was not necessary. The committee was assured that the Constitution and the controls of the Shorelines Management Act together would assure that commerce would remain unobstructed. Other committee members concurred. In addition, the committee had questioned Navy representatives whether the use of the harbor area for navigation and commerce would remain unobstructed. The Navy, in its written statement had stated, "The Navy will in no way obstruct the free and open movement and access of commercial vessels." The Navy also stated, "The Navy supports the development of the Port of Everett and will not impede the movement of any vessel outside of its property line." Thus, in spite of the fact that no amendment to the bill was adopted, it is the understanding and intent of the committee that the commerce and navigation must remain unobstructed and that land and water access to the harbor must be allowed.

Mr. R. King: A concern was raised in committee relating to the requirement that the Navy obtain a Shorelines Management Act permit. There was some concern that the Navy might apply for, but would not obtain, the permit before commencing the dredging and disposal program. There was also some concern that the language in the bill could be interpreted to allow the Navy to refuse to comply with conditions it did not like. Can you explain the committee's understanding and intent concerning this?

Mr. Sutherland: The committee discussed these concerns. The bill expressly requires the Navy to agree to comply with all reasonable and appropriate terms and conditions of the permits issued under the Shorelines Management Act. The Shorelines Management Act specifically requires that a permit be obtained and must be obtained prior to commencement of the project, and requires that permitted uses be designed and conducted in a manner to minimize damage to the environment. When testifying before the committee, a representative from the Governor's office also indicated that dredging could not commence until a Shorelines permit was obtained. A representative from the Navy also testified that it was supposed to obtain all applicable permits. Members of the committee were satisfied that the Navy would be required to go through the permit process. There was also some concern that the words "reasonable and appropriate" might be misinterpreted to allow the Navy to avoid complying with the Shorelines permit conditions, but it is the committee's understanding and intent that the law only allows the local government agency to adopt and require reasonable and appropriate conditions. Thus, it is the committee's understanding and intent that the Navy obtain a Shorelines Management Act permit and comply with all conditions found by the local government agency to be reasonable and appropriate.

Representatives R. King, Hargrove, May, Zellinsky, Schoon and Sprenkle spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Lux and Rust opposed it.

Representative Crane demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

April 9, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 425 with the following amendment:

Strike everything beginning on page 2, line 35, through page 3, line 7, and insert the following:

"(1) It is the intent of the legislature that heating systems authorized pursuant to this chapter be developed in a way that minimizes any long-term rate impacts on customers of existing utilities.

(2) Counties, cities, towns, irrigation districts which distribute electricity, sewer districts, water districts, ((and)) port districts, and metropolitan municipal corporations are authorized pursuant to this chapter to establish heating systems and ((provide)) supply heating services from Washington's heat sources ((including, but not limited to, geothermal heat, steam or water heated by a biomass energy system, waste heat, and energy from a cogeneration facility)).

(3) Before a municipality may establish by ordinance a heating system or supply heating services, it shall conduct a public hearing and assess the long-term impacts on rates of utility customers in the area proposed to be served.

(4) Nothing in this chapter authorizes any municipality to generate, transmit, distribute, or sell electricity."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Nelson moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 425.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 13, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 430 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This chapter may be cited as the employee cooperative corporations act.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For the purposes of this chapter, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given:

(1) 'Employee cooperative' means a corporation that has elected to be governed by the provisions of this chapter.

(2) 'Member' means a natural person who has been accepted for membership in, and owns a membership share issued by an employee cooperative.

(3) 'Patronage' means the amount of work performed as a member of an employee cooperative, measured in accordance with the articles of incorporation and bylaws.

(4) 'Written notice of allocation' means a written instrument which discloses to a member the stated dollar amount of the member's patronage allocation, and the terms for payment of that amount by the employee cooperative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state may elect to be governed as an employee cooperative under the provisions of this chapter, by so stating in its articles of incorporation, or articles of amendment filed in accordance with Title 23A RCW.

A corporation so electing shall be governed by all provisions of Title 23A RCW, except chapter 23A.20 RCW, and except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. An employee cooperative may revoke its election under this chapter by a vote of two-thirds of the members and through articles of amendment filed with the secretary of state in accordance with chapter 23A.16 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. An employee cooperative may include the word 'cooperative' or 'co-op' in its corporate name.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The articles of incorporation or the bylaws shall establish qualifications and the method of acceptance and termination of members. No person may be accepted as a member unless employed by the employee cooperative on a full-time or part-time basis.

(2) An employee cooperative shall issue a class of voting stock designated as 'membership shares.' Each member shall own only one membership share, and only members may own these shares.

(3) Membership shares shall be issued for a fee as determined from time to time by the directors. RCW 23A.08.140 and 23A.08.200 do not apply to such membership shares.

Members of an employee cooperative shall have all the rights and responsibilities of stockholders of a corporation organized under Title 23A RCW, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) No capital stock other than membership shares shall be given voting power in an employee cooperative, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, or in the articles of incorporation.

(2) The power to amend or repeal bylaws of an employee cooperative shall be in the members only.

(3) Except as otherwise permitted by RCW 23A.16.030, no capital stock other than membership shares shall be permitted to vote on any amendment to the articles of incorporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The net earnings or losses of an employee cooperative shall be apportioned and distributed at the times and in the manner as the articles of incorporation or bylaws shall specify. Net earnings declared as patronage allocations with respect to a period of time, and paid or credited to members, shall be apportioned among the members in accordance with the ratio which each member's patronage during the period involved bears to total patronage by all members during that period.

(2) The apportionment, distribution, and payment of net earnings required by subsection (1) of this section may be in cash, credits, written notices of allocation, or capital stock issued by the employee cooperative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) Any employee cooperative may establish through its articles of incorporation or bylaws a system of internal capital accounts to reflect the book value and to determine the redemption price of membership shares, capital stock, and written notices of allocation.

(2) The articles of incorporation or bylaws of an employee cooperative may permit the periodic redemption of written notices of allocation and capital stock, and must provide for recall and redemption of the membership share upon termination of membership in the cooperative. No redemption shall be made if redemption would result in a violation of RCW 23A.08.020.

(3) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may provide for the employee cooperative to pay or credit interest on the balance in each member's internal capital account.

(4) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize assignment of a portion of retained net earnings and net losses to a collective reserve account. Earnings assigned to the collective reserve account may be used for any and all corporate purposes as determined by the board of directors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) An internal capital account cooperative is an employee cooperative whose entire net book value is reflected in internal capital accounts, one for each member, and a collective reserve account, and in which no persons other than members own capital stock. In an internal capital account cooperative, each member shall have one and only one vote in any matter requiring voting by stockholders.

(2) An internal capital account cooperative shall credit the paid-in membership fee and additional paid-in capital of a member to the member's internal capital account, and shall also record the apportionment of retained net earnings or net losses to the members in accordance with patronage by appropriately crediting or debiting the internal capital accounts of members. The collective reserve account in an internal capital account cooperative shall reflect any paid-in capital, net losses, and retained net earnings not allocated to individual members.

(3) In an internal capital account cooperative, the balances in all the individual internal capital accounts and collective reserve account, if any, shall be adjusted at the end of each accounting period so that the sum of the balances is equal to the net book value of the employee cooperative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) When any employee cooperative revokes its election in accordance with section 4 of this act, the articles of amendment shall provide for conversion of membership shares and internal capital accounts or their conversion to securities or other property in a manner consistent with Title 23A RCW.

(2) An employee cooperative that has not revoked its election under this chapter may not consolidate or merge with another corporation other than an employee cooperative. Two or more employee cooperatives may consolidate or merge in accordance with chapter 23A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 23 RCW.

Sec. 13. Section 32, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 90, Laws of 1986 and RCW 21.20.320 are each amended to read as follows:

The following transactions are exempt from RCW 21.20.040 through 21.20.300 except as expressly provided:

(1) Any isolated transaction, or sales not involving a public offering, whether effected through a broker-dealer or not; or any transaction effected in accordance with any rule by the director establishing a nonpublic offering exemption pursuant to this subsection where registration is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(2) Any nonissuer distribution of an outstanding security by a registered broker-dealer if (a) a recognized securities manual contains the names of the issuer's officers and directors, a balance sheet of the issuer as of a date within eighteen months, and a profit and loss statement for either the fiscal year preceding that date or the most recent year of operations, or (b) the security has a fixed maturity or a fixed interest or dividend provision and there has been no default during the current fiscal year or within the three preceding fiscal years, or during the existence of the issuer and any predecessors if less than three years, in the payment of principal, interest, or dividends on the security.

(3) Any nonissuer transaction effected by or through a registered broker-dealer pursuant to an unsolicited order or offer to buy; but the director may by rule require that the customer acknowledge upon a specified form that the sale was unsolicited, and that a signed copy of each such form be preserved by the broker-dealer for a specified period.

(4) Any transaction between the issuer or other person on whose behalf the offering is made and an underwriter, or among underwriters.

(5) Any transaction in a bond or other evidence of indebtedness secured by a real or chattel mortgage or deed of trust, or by an agreement for the sale of real estate or chattels, if the entire mortgage, deed of trust, or agreement, together with all the bonds or other evidences of indebtedness secured thereby, is offered and sold as a unit.

(6) Any transaction by an executor, administrator, sheriff, marshal, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, guardian, or conservator.

(7) Any transaction executed by a bona fide pledgee without any purpose of evading this chapter.

(8) Any offer or sale to a bank, savings institution, trust company, insurance company, investment company as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trust, or other financial institution or institutional buyer, or to a broker-dealer, whether the purchaser is acting for itself or in some fiduciary capacity.

(9) Any transaction pursuant to an offering not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars effected in accordance with any rule by the director if the director finds that registration is not necessary in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(10) Any offer or sale of a preorganization certificate or subscription if (a) no commission or other remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any prospective subscriber, (b) the number of subscribers does not exceed ten, and (c) no payment is made by any subscriber.

(11) Any transaction pursuant to an offer to existing security holders of the issuer, including persons who at the time of the transaction are holders of convertible securities, nontransferable warrants, or transferable warrants exercisable within not more than ninety days of their issuance, if (a) no commission or other remuneration (other than a standby commission) is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any security holder in this state, or (b) the issuer first files a notice specifying the terms of the offer and the director does not by order disallow the exemption within the next five full business days.

(12) Any offer (but not a sale) of a security for which registration statements have been filed under both this chapter and the Securities Act of 1933 if no stop order or refusal order is in effect and no public proceeding or examination looking toward such an order is pending under either act.

(13) The issuance of any stock dividend, whether the corporation distributing the dividend is the issuer of the stock or not, if nothing of value is given by stockholders for the distribution other than the surrender of a right to a cash dividend where the stockholder can elect to take a dividend in cash or stock.

(14) Any transaction incident to a right of conversion or a statutory or judicially approved reclassification, recapitalization, reorganization, quasi reorganization, stock split, reverse stock split, merger, consolidation, or sale of assets.

(15) The offer or sale by a registered broker-dealer, or a person exempted from the registration requirements pursuant to RCW 21.20.040, acting either as principal or agent, of securities previously sold and distributed to the public: PROVIDED, That:

(a) Such securities are sold at prices reasonably related to the current market price thereof at the time of sale, and, if such broker-dealer is acting as agent, the commission collected by such broker-dealer on account of the sale thereof is not in excess of usual and customary commissions collected with respect to securities and transactions having comparable characteristics;

(b) Such securities do not constitute the whole or a part of an unsold allotment to or subscription or participation by such broker-dealer as an underwriter of such securities or as a participant in the distribution of such securities by the issuer, by an underwriter or by a person or group of persons in substantial control of the issuer or of the outstanding securities of the class being distributed; and

(c) The security has been lawfully sold and distributed in this state or any other state of the United States under this or any act regulating the sale of such securities.

~~(16) (Any transactions by a mutual or cooperative association issuing to its patrons any receipt, written notice, certificate of indebtedness, or stock for a patronage dividend, or for contributions to capital by such patrons in the association if any such receipt, written notice, or certificate made pursuant to this paragraph is nontransferable except in the case of death or by operation of law and so states conspicuously on its face.~~

~~(17)) Any transaction effected in accordance with any rule adopted by the director establishing a limited offering exemption which furthers objectives of compatibility with federal exemptions and uniformity among the states, provided that in adopting any such rule the director may require that no commission or other remuneration be paid or given to any person, directly or indirectly, for effecting sales unless the person is registered under this chapter as a broker-dealer or salesperson.~~

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. The intent of the legislature in amending RCW 21.20.320 is to exempt from chapter 21.20 RCW membership shares in cooperatives that are organized under cooperative principles. The securities division of the department of licensing shall retain its authority to investigate organizations purporting to be cooperatives to ensure that such organizations are organized and operating under cooperative principles. The legislature finds that such cooperative principles include, but are not limited to: (1) Nontransferability of membership interests, except in the case of death, operation of law, or redemption by the cooperative; (2) no profits paid to such membership interests; and (3) each member in the cooperative has voting rights on the basis of one vote per member.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department of community development shall integrate an employee ownership program within its existing technical assistance programs. The employee ownership program shall provide technical assistance to cooperatives authorized under sections 1 through 11 of this act and conduct educational programs on employee ownership and self-management. The department shall include information on the option of employee ownership wherever appropriate in its various programs.

(2) The director of the department shall form an employee ownership advisory panel to assist in the development of the employee ownership program. The panel shall consist of representatives of educational institutions; local, regional, and national cooperative and employee-ownership organizations; employee-owned cooperatives; firms with employee stock ownership plans; and associate development organizations.

(3) The department shall maintain a list of firms and individuals with expertise in the field of employee ownership and utilize such firms and individuals, as appropriate, in delivering and coordinating the delivery of technical, managerial, and educational services. In addition, the department shall work with and rely on the services of the department of trade and economic development, the employment security department, and state institutions of higher education to promote employee ownership.

(4) The department shall report to the governor, the trade and economic development committee of the house of representatives, the commerce and labor committee of the senate, and the ways and means committees of each house by December 1 of 1988, and each year thereafter, on the accomplishments of the employee-ownership program. Such reports shall include the number and types of firms assisted, the number of jobs created by such firms, the types of services, the number of workshops presented, the number of employees trained, and the results of client satisfaction surveys distributed to those using the services of the program.

(5) For purposes of this section, an employee stock ownership plan qualifies as a cooperative if at least fifty percent, plus one share, of its voting shares of stock are voted on a one-person-one-vote basis.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "corporations;" insert "amending RCW 21.20.320; adding a new chapter to Title 23 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.63A RCW; and creating a new section."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 14, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 959 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 35.21 RCW to read as follows:

The voters of every first class city with a city charter that does not grant the powers of initiative and referendum, and the voters of every second class city, third class city, town, and code city, except those towns with fewer than five hundred inhabitants, are granted the powers of initiative and referendum on city or town ordinances as provided in this act notwithstanding the form or plan of government under which the city or town operates. This act shall not affect the powers of initiative and referendum granted to the voters of a first class city by a city charter. Initiative or referendum action in a second class city, third class city, or town may be taken only on those powers that are granted expressly to the city or town.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 35.21 RCW to read as follows:

Initiative and referendum petitions shall be in the form prescribed in RCW 35A.01.040, except for the restriction on the color of the paper on which the petition is printed. The minimum required number of signatures by registered voters of the city or town on a referendum or initiative petition is equal to fifteen percent of the number of persons listed as registered voters within the city or town on the day of the last preceding city or town general election. Petitions shall be filed with the city or town clerk who shall forward the petitions to the county auditor immediately upon receipt. The auditor shall ascertain the validity of the signatures and certify the sufficiency of the petitions to the city clerk.

Elections shall be conducted as provided in general election law.

Sec. 3. Section 35.17.260, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.260 are each amended to read as follows:

Ordinances may be initiated by petition of electors of the city or town filed with the ((commission)) council. If the petition accompanying the proposed ordinance is signed by the requisite number of registered voters in the city ((equal in number to twenty-five percent of the votes cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding city election)) or town, and if it contains a request that, unless passed by the ((commission)) council, the ordinance be submitted to a vote of the people, the ((commission)) council shall either:

(1) Pass the proposed ordinance without alteration within twenty days after the ((city clerk's certificate)) county auditor has certified that the number of valid signatures on the petition are sufficient; or

(2) Immediately after the ((clerk's certificate of sufficiency is attached to the petition, cause to be called)) county auditor has certified that the number of valid signatures on the petition are sufficient, request that the county legislative authority call a special election to be held ((not less than thirty nor more than)) at the next special election date provided in RCW 29.13.030 sixty days or more thereafter, for submission of the proposed ordinance without alteration, to a vote of the people ((unless a general election will occur within ninety days, in which event submission must be made thereto)).

Approval of the initiative ballot proposition by a simple majority vote shall result in the ordinance being adopted immediately upon the certification of the election results.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 81, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35A.11.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Ordinances of ((noncharter code)) cities ((the qualified electors of which have elected to exercise the powers of initiative and referendum)) and towns shall not go into effect before thirty days from the time of final passage and are subject to referendum during the interim except:

(1) Ordinances initiated by petition;

(2) Ordinances necessary for immediate preservation of public peace, health, and safety or for the support of city or town government and its existing public institutions which contain a statement of urgency and are passed by unanimous vote of the council;

(3) Ordinances providing for local improvement districts or utility local improvement districts;

(4) Ordinances appropriating money;

(5) Ordinances providing for or approving collective bargaining;

(6) Ordinances providing for the compensation of or working conditions of city or town employees; and

(7) Ordinances authorizing or repealing the levy of taxes; which excepted ordinances shall go into effect as provided by the general law or by applicable sections of Title 35 or 35A RCW as now or hereafter amended.

Land use and zoning matters shall not be subject to initiative or referendum action.

Sec. 5. Section 35.17.240, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.240 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of a referendum petition, that has been certified as having sufficient valid signatures, praying therefor, the ((commission)) council shall reconsider an ordinance subject to referendum and upon reconsideration shall defeat it in its entirety or shall submit it to a vote of the people. The operation of an ordinance so protested against shall be suspended until the referendum petition is finally found insufficient or until the ordinance protested against has received a majority of the votes cast thereon at the election. If the council does not defeat the ordinance in its entirety, the council shall request that the county legislative authority call a special election for submission of the referendum to a vote of the people to be held at the next special election date provided in RCW 29.13.030 sixty or more days after the petition has been certified as being sufficient. Approval of the referendum ballot proposition by a simple majority vote shall defeat the ordinance in its entirety.

Sec. 6. Section 35.17.290, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.290 are each amended to read as follows:

If the ((clerk)) county auditor finds ((the)) an initiative or referendum petition insufficient, or if the ((commission)) council refuses either to pass an initiative ordinance or ((order)) to request an election thereon, or if the council refuses either to repeal the ordinance in its entirety or to request an election on the referendum, any ((taxpayer)) city or town voter may commence an action in the superior court against the city or town, or against the county auditor if the failure to take any of these actions is due to a determination by the auditor that the petition bears insufficient signatures, and procure a decree ordering an election to be held in the city or town for the purpose of voting upon the proposed ordinance, or voting on the referendum, if the court finds the petition to ~~((be))~~ have sufficient valid signatures.

Sec. 7. Section 35.17.300, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.300 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Publication of notice, the election, the canvass of the returns and declaration of the results, shall be conducted in all respects as are other city elections.))~~ Any number of proposed ordinances or referenda may be voted on at the same election, but there shall not be more than one special election for that purpose during any one six-months period.

Sec. 8. Section 35.24.210, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.24.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The enacting clause of all ordinances in a third class city shall be as follows: "The city council of the city of do ordain as follows:"

No ordinance shall contain more than one subject and that must be clearly expressed in its title.

No ordinance or any section thereof shall be revised or amended unless the new ordinance sets forth the revised ordinance or the amended section at full length.

No ordinance and no resolution or order shall have any validity or effect unless passed by the votes of at least four councilmen.

~~((No ordinance shall take effect until five days after the date of its publication unless otherwise provided in this title.))~~

Every ordinance which passes the council in order to become valid must be presented to the mayor; if he approves it, he shall sign it, but if not, he shall return it with his written objections to the council and the council shall cause his objections to be entered at large upon the journal and proceed to a reconsideration thereof. If upon reconsideration five members of the council voting upon a call of yeas and nays favor its passage, the ordinance shall become valid notwithstanding the mayor's veto. If the mayor fails for ten days to either approve or veto an ordinance, it shall become valid without his approval.

Every ordinance shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 42, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 39.88.090 are each amended to read as follows:

General obligation bonds which are issued to finance public facilities that are specified in the public improvement ordinance, and for which part or all of the principal or interest is paid by tax allocation revenues, shall be subject to the following requirements:

(1) The intent to issue such bonds and the maximum amount which the sponsor contemplates issuing are specified in the public improvement ordinance; and

(2) A statement of the intent of the sponsor to issue such bonds is included in all notices required by RCW 39.88.040 and 39.88.050.

In addition, the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of such general obligation bonds shall be subject to potential referendum approval by the voters of the issuing entity when the bonds are part of the non-voter approved indebtedness limitation established pursuant to RCW 39.36.020. If the voters of the county or city issuing such bonds otherwise possess the general power of referendum on county or city matters, the ordinance or resolution shall be subject to that procedure. If the voters of the county or city issuing such bonds do not otherwise possess the general power of referendum on county or city matters, the referendum shall conform to the requirements and procedures for referendum petitions provided for ~~((code))~~ cities and towns in ~~((RCW 35A.11.100))~~ chapter 35A.11 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. RCW 35.17.260, 35A.11.090, 35.17.240, 35.17.290, and 35.17.300, as amended by this act, are each recodified as sections in chapter 35.21 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 35.17.230, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.230;

(2) Section 35.17.250, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.250;

(3) Section 35.17.270, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.270;

(4) Section 35.17.280, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.280;

(5) Section 35.17.310, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.310;

(6) Section 35.17.320, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.320;

(7) Section 35.17.330, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.330;

(8) Section 35.17.340, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.340;

(9) Section 35.17.350, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.350;

(10) Section 35.17.360, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.17.360;

(11) Section 1, chapter 81, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 18, chapter 18, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.11.080; and

(12) Section 3, chapter 81, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35A.11.100."

On line 2 of the title, after "towns;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 35.17.260, 35A.11.090, 35.17.240, 35.17.290, 35.17.300, 35.24.210, and 39.88.090; adding new sections to chapter 35.21 RCW; recodifying RCW 35.17.260, 35A.11.090, 35.17.240, 35.17.290, and 35.17.300; and repealing RCW 35.17.230, 35.17.250, 35.17.270, 35.17.280, 35.17.310, 35.17.320, 35.17.330, 35.17.340, 35.17.350, 35.17.360, 35A.11.080, and 35A.11.100." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 10, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 217 with the following amendments:

On page 4, after line 36, insert the following:

*Sec. 6, Section 3, chapter 259, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 1, chapter 132, Laws of 1981 and RCW 2.56.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The administrator for the courts shall, under the supervision and direction of chief justice:

(1) Examine the administrative methods and systems employed in the offices of the judges, clerks, stenographers, and employees of the courts and make recommendations, through the chief justice, for the improvement of the same;

(2) Examine the state of the dockets of the courts and determine the need for assistance by any court;

(3) Make recommendations to the chief justice relating to the assignment of judges where courts are in need of assistance and carry out the direction of the chief justice as to the assignments of judges to counties and districts where the courts are in need of assistance;

(4) Collect and compile statistical and other data and make reports of the business transacted by the courts and transmit the same to the chief justice to the end that proper action may be taken in respect thereto;

(5) Prepare and submit budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system and make recommendations in respect thereto;

(6) Collect statistical and other data and make reports relating to the expenditure of public moneys, state and local, for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system and the offices connected therewith;

(7) Obtain reports from clerks of courts in accordance with law or rules adopted by the supreme court of this state on cases and other judicial business in which action has been delayed beyond periods of time specified by law or rules of court and make report thereof to supreme court of this state;

(8) Act as secretary of the judicial conference referred to in RCW 2.56.060;

(9) Formulate and submit to the judicial council of this state recommendations of policies for the improvement of the judicial system; ((and))

(10) Submit annually, as of February 1st, to the chief justice and the judicial council, a report of the activities of the administrator's office for the preceding calendar year;

(11) Administer programs and standards for the training and education of judicial personnel;

(12) Examine the need for new superior court and district judge positions under a weighted caseload analysis that takes into account the time required to hear all the cases in a particular court and the amount of time existing judges have available to hear cases in that court. The results of the weighted caseload analysis shall be reviewed by the board for judicial administration and the judicial council, both of which shall make recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1989. It is the intent of the legislature that weighted caseload analysis become the basis for creating additional district court positions, and recommendations should address that objective; and

(13) Attend to such other matters as may be assigned by the supreme court of this state."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "36.23.030," strike "and 36.48.090" and insert "36.48.090, and 2.56.030"

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 87-4655, by Representatives Unsoeld and Belcher

WHEREAS, The postmark for the City of Olympia has great historical significance since Olympia is the capital of the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, The United States Postal Service is once again considering the possibility of terminating the use of the Olympia postmark; and

WHEREAS, The loss of the Olympia postmark would render Olympia the sole state capital in the United States without its own distinguishing postmark; and

WHEREAS, The preservation of the Olympia postmark in anticipation of our state's Centennial Celebration in 1989 is a fitting acknowledgment of the significance of Olympia, the capital of the State of Washington, to this state and nation; and

WHEREAS, Retaining the Olympia postmark would help achieve the praiseworthy goals of maintaining the identity of the capital of our state, strengthening citizen ties with their local communities, increasing citizen pride in the past and preserving a sense of historical continuity for our children;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the State of Washington request the administration to support the interests of the present and future citizens of the State of Washington and preserve the use of the Olympia postmark.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives immediately transmit copies of this Resolution to the Honorable Ronald Reagan, President of the United States; the Postmaster General; the President of the United States Senate; the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives and each member of Congress from the State of Washington.

Ms. Unsoeld moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives Unsoeld and Belcher spoke in favor of the resolution, and Mr. Barnes opposed it. The resolution was adopted.

Representative Zellinsky was excused.

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 87-4662, by Representatives D. Sommers, Dellwo, Day, Silver, Taylor, Moyer, Bumgarner and Padden

WHEREAS, The Eleventh Annual Lilac Bloomsday Run held annually in Spokane, Washington is scheduled for Sunday, May 3, 1987 at 9:00 A.M.; and

WHEREAS, The Lilac Bloomsday Run is now the second largest road-running event in America and presents awards to the top male, female, wheelchair and masters finishers; and

WHEREAS, The Lilac Bloomsday Run includes the talents of the fastest runners in the world and the determination of average citizens, and this year will include over 50,000 runners in the various categories; and

WHEREAS, The Lilac Bloomsday Run is 12 kilometers (7.46 miles) long and is a test and celebration of fitness and health, whether considered as serious competition or as an enjoyable athletic experience; and

WHEREAS, The Lilac Bloomsday Run will include activities such as a trade show featuring all sorts of running, health and fitness related products and services; skydiving; a spaghetti feed; demonstrations in rock rappelling, gymnastics, health, aerobic and jazz dancing; massage therapy; fitness, running and nutrition speakers; a non-denominational worship service; a post-race party and souvenir T-shirts, jackets and commemorative medals; and

WHEREAS, The Lilac Bloomsday Run is part of the Association of Road Racing Athletes Championship Circuit and is recognized as a top racing spectacular; and

WHEREAS, Two members of the Washington State House of Representatives, Representatives Duane Sommers and Dennis Dellwo, have run in and completed all ten previous runs and will run again this year;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the State of Washington commend the City of Spokane for its outstanding work in presenting the annual Lilac Bloomsday Run; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives encourage everyone to attend the festivities in Spokane during May 1 through May 3, 1987 and to enjoy the race either as a participant or as a spectator; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this Resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Don Kardong, Director of the Lilac Bloomsday Association.

Mr. D. Sommers moved adoption of the resolution and spoke in favor of it, and the resolution was adopted.

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 87-4660, by Representatives D. Sommers, Moyer, Rust, Valle, Unsoeld, Bumgarner, Silver, Sprengle, Jesernig, Allen, Ferguson, Schoon, Walker and May

WHEREAS, The maintenance of a pure and clean environment is a top concern to all the citizens of the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, Recycling is one of Washington State's top solid waste disposal management priorities in maintaining our good environment; and

WHEREAS, Cheney, Washington, began a complete recycling program ten years ago before recycling was popular or practiced in other communities; and

WHEREAS, Cheney's recycling program began on an outdoor parking lot with 100 percent volunteer workers by a small group called the Cheney Environmental Association; and

WHEREAS, Cheney's recycling program has grown tremendously over the years and recently moved indoors when the citizens of Cheney passed a bond issue to renovate an unused city building for a recycling center and other community uses; and

WHEREAS, The Cheney Recycling Center is now incorporated as a nonprofit corporation and maintains a complete and effective recycling program with only two paid part-time workers with all other help being volunteer; and

WHEREAS, The Cheney Recycling Center is open on Wednesdays from Noon to 6:00 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. and accepts newspaper, office paper, cardboard, mixed waste paper, tin cans, aluminum, container glass and bottles and also accepts donations for the food and clothing bank; and

WHEREAS, The Cheney Recycling Center will celebrate its tenth anniversary on Saturday May 16, from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., and welcomes all who are able to attend; and

WHEREAS, Cheney has provided an example of initiative, creativity and leadership for others to emulate and admire;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives commend Cheney for its outstanding efforts and success in establishing a recycling program; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the Director of the Cheney Recycling Center and to the Mayor of Cheney.

Mr. D. Sommers moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives D. Sommers and Rust spoke in favor of the resolution, and it was adopted.

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 87-4654, by Representatives Valle, R. King, Fuhrman, D. Sommers, Unsoeld, Allen, Fisch, Jacobsen, Todd, Crane and Nelson

WHEREAS, Since 1940, there have been more than one thousand earthquakes within the state with ground motions strong enough to be reported; and

WHEREAS, Nineteen of these events were felt throughout the state and caused moderate to considerable damage including extensive damage to the capital rotunda in 1965; and

WHEREAS, Ninety percent of the world's earthquakes occur in the "Ring of Fire" in which the state is located; and

WHEREAS, Noteworthy seismic hazards are known to exist in much of Washington State and recent research suggests the possibility of seismic events of much greater magnitude than previously documented; and

WHEREAS, The exposure of people and property to seismic hazards in this state creates a potential for major loss of life and for major property damage. The magnitude of likely losses has increased over the past decade; and

WHEREAS, State-level actions to date in addressing seismic hazards have been sporadic, pointing out the need for stronger state leadership to promote efforts by state agencies, local jurisdictions, industry and citizens to avert earthquake losses; and

WHEREAS, Noteworthy barriers exist which constrain the development of state-level initiatives and policy with respect to seismic safety; and

WHEREAS, The legislature created the Washington Seismic Safety Council to study the hazards of seismic activity;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognizes:

(1) The potential for loss of life and property in the aftermath of a major earthquake and the legislature's commitment to work with federal, state and local officials in reducing the earthquake risk in Washington State over the next decade;

(2) Future federal funding for earthquake hazard reduction programs undertaken by the Federal Emergency Management Agency is dependent upon state matching of federal funds and state commitment of matching funds of some $100,000 is essential for continuing the present levels of federal support for state earthquake-risk-reduction programs;

(3) The earthquake design standards that are specified in the 1955 legislation need to be reviewed for consistency with the State Building Code in light of present knowledge concerning seismic hazards and design standards; and

(4) The need for planning and awareness programs in public schools.

Ms. Valle moved adoption of the the resolution. Representatives Valle and Fuhrman spoke in favor of the resolution, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the House recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by the Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding). The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Allen, Basich, Betrozoff, Bristow, Bumgarner, Sanders, Unsoeld, Walker and K. Wilson. Representative Walker was excused.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 16, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 413 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 17, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (7) of RCW 26.09.070, the provisions of any decree respecting maintenance or support may be modified only as to installments accruing subsequent to the motion for modification and, except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, only upon a showing of a substantial change of circumstances. The provisions as to property disposition may not be revoked or modified, unless the court finds the existence of conditions that justify the reopening of a judgment under the laws of this state.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree the obligation to pay future maintenance is terminated upon the death of either party or the remarriage of the party receiving maintenance.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree, provisions for the support of a child are terminated by emancipation of the child or by the death of the parent obligated to support the child.

(4) An order of child support may be modified one year or more after it has been entered without showing a substantial change of circumstances:

(a) If the order in practice works a severe economic hardship on either party or the child;

(b) If a party requests an adjustment in an order for child support which was based on guidelines which determined the amount of support according to the child's age, and the child is no longer in the age category on which the current support amount was based;

(c) If a child is still in high school, upon a finding that there is a need to extend support beyond the eighteenth birthday to complete high school; or

(d) To add an automatic adjustment of support provision consistent with RCW 26.09.100.

(5) An obligor's voluntary unemployment or voluntary underemployment, by itself, is not a substantial change of circumstances.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 26.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A proceeding for the modification of an order of child support shall commence with the filing of a petition and a supporting financial affidavit. The petition and affidavit shall be in substantially the form prescribed by the administrator for the courts. There shall be a fee of twenty dollars for the filing of a petition for modification of dissolution.

(2) The petitioner shall serve upon the other party the summons, a copy of the petition and affidavit, and a blank copy of a financial affidavit in the form prescribed by the administrator for the courts. If the modification proceeding is the first action filed in this state, service shall be made by personal service. If the decree to be modified was entered in this state, service shall be by personal service or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt. If the support obligation has been assigned to the state pursuant to RCW 74.20.330 and notice has been filed with the court, the summons, petition, and affidavit shall also be served on the office of support enforcement. Proof of service shall be filed with the court.

(3) The responding party's answer and completed financial affidavit shall be served and the answer filed within twenty days after service of the petition or sixty days if served out of state. The responding party's failure to file an answer within the time required shall result in entry of a default judgment for the petitioner.

(4) At any time after responsive pleadings are filed, either party may schedule the matter for hearing.

(5) Unless both parties stipulate to arbitration or the presiding judge authorizes oral testimony pursuant to subsection (6) of this section, a petition for modification of an order of child support shall be heard by the court on affidavits only.

(6) A party seeking authority to present oral testimony on the petition to modify a support order shall file an appropriate motion not later than ten days after the time of notice of hearing. Affidavits and exhibits setting forth the reasons oral testimony is necessary to a just adjudication of the issues shall accompany the petition. The affidavits and exhibits must demonstrate the extraordinary features of the case. Factors which may be considered include, but are not limited to: (a) Substantial questions of credibility on a major issue; (b) insufficient or inconsistent discovery materials not correctable by further discovery; or (c) particularly complex circumstances requiring expert testimony.

(7) The administrator for the courts shall develop and prepare, in consultation with interested persons, model forms or notices for the use of the procedure provided by this section, including a notice advising of the right of a party to proceed with or without benefit of counsel.

Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.100 are each amended to read as follows:

In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, declaration of invalidity, maintenance, or child support, after considering all relevant factors but without regard to marital misconduct, the court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to any child of the marriage dependent upon either or both spouses to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for his support. The court may require annual adjustments of support based upon changes in a party's income or the child's needs, or based upon changes in an index or schedule.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "orders;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 26.09.170 and 26.09.100; and adding a new section to chapter 26.09 RCW." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 8, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1012 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 1, Laws of 1931 as last amended by section 37, chapter 126, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 54.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Within ten days after such election, the county canvassing board shall canvass the returns, and if at such election a majority of the voters voting upon such proposition shall vote in favor of the formation of such district, the canvassing board shall so declare in its canvass of the returns of such election, and such public utility district shall then be and become a municipal corporation of the state of Washington, and the name of such public utility district shall be Public Utility District No. of County. The powers of the public utility district shall be exercised through a commission consisting of three members in three commissioner districts, and five members in five commissioner districts. When the public utility district is coextensive with the limits of such county, then, at the first election of commissioners and until any change shall have been made in the boundaries of public utility district commissioner districts, one public utility district commissioner shall be chosen from each of the three county commissioner districts of the county in which the public utility district is located if the county is not operating under a 'Home Rule' charter. When the public utility district comprises only a portion of the county, with boundaries established in accordance with chapter 54.08 RCW, or when the public utility district is located in a county operating under a 'Home Rule' charter, three public utility district commissioner districts, numbered consecutively, having approximately equal population and boundaries, following ward and precinct lines, as far as practicable, shall be described in the petition for the formation of the public utility district, which shall be subject to appropriate change by the county legislative authority if and when they change the boundaries of the proposed public utility district, and one commissioner shall be elected from each of said public utility district commissioner districts. In all five commissioner districts an additional commissioner at large shall be chosen from each of the two at large districts. No person shall be eligible to be elected to the office of public utility district commissioner for a particular district commissioner district unless he is a registered voter of the public utility district commissioner district or at large district from which he is elected.

Except as otherwise provided, the term of office of each public utility district commissioner other than the commissioners at large shall be six years, and the term of each commissioner at large shall be four years. Each term shall be computed in accordance with RCW 29.04.170 following the commissioner's election. One commissioner at large and one commissioner from a commissioner district shall be elected at each general election held in an even-numbered year for the term of four years and six years respectively. All candidates shall be voted upon by the entire public utility district.

When a public utility district is formed, three public utility district commissioners shall be elected at the same election at which the proposition is submitted to the voters as to whether such public utility district shall be formed. If the general election adopting the proposition to create the public utility district was held in an even-numbered year, the commissioner residing in commissioner district number one shall hold office for the term of six years; the commissioner residing in commissioner district number two shall hold office for the term of four years; and the commissioner residing in commissioner district number three shall hold office for the term of two years. If the general election adopting the proposition to create the public utility district was held in an odd-numbered year, the commissioner residing in commissioner district number one shall hold office for the term of five years, the commissioner in district two shall hold office for the term of three years, and the commissioner in district three shall hold office for the term of one year. The commissioners first to be elected as above provided shall hold office from the first day of the month following the commissioners' election and their respective terms of office shall be computed from the first day of January next following the election.

All public utility district commissioners shall hold office until their successors shall have been elected and have qualified and assume office in accordance with RCW 29.04.170. A filing for nomination for public utility district commissioner shall be accompanied by a petition signed by one hundred registered voters of the public utility district which shall be certified by the county auditor to contain the required number of registered voters, and shall otherwise be filed in accord with the requirements of RCW 29.21.060. At the time of filing such nominating petition, the person so nominated shall execute and file a declaration of candidacy subject to the provisions of RCW 29.21.060, as now or hereafter amended. The petition and each page of the petition shall state whether the nomination is for a commissioner from a particular commissioner district or for a commissioner at large and shall state the districts; otherwise it shall be void. A vacancy in the office of public utility district commissioner shall occur by death, resignation, removal, conviction of a felony, nonattendance at meetings of the public utility district commission for a period of sixty days unless excused by the public utility district commission, by any statutory disqualification, or by any permanent disability preventing the proper discharge of his duty. In the event of a vacancy in said office, such vacancy shall be filled at the next general election held in an even-numbered year, the vacancy in the interim to be filled by appointment by the remaining commissioners. If more than one vacancy exists at the same time in a three commissioner district, or more than two in a five commissioner district, a special election shall be called by the county canvassing board upon the request of the remainder, or, that failing, by the county election board, such election to be held not more than forty days after the occurring of such vacancies.

A majority of the persons holding the office of public utility district commissioner at any time shall constitute a quorum of the commission for the transaction of business, and the concurrence of a majority of the persons holding such office at the time shall be necessary and shall be sufficient for the passage of any resolution, but no business shall be transacted, except in usual and ordinary course, unless there are in office at least a majority of the full number of commissioners fixed by law.

The boundaries of the public utility district commissioners' district may be changed only by the public utility district commission, and shall be examined every ten years to determine substantial equality of population, but said boundaries shall not be changed oftener than once in four years, and only when all members of the commission are present. Whenever territory is added to a public utility district under RCW 54.04.035, the boundaries of the public utility commissioners' districts shall be changed to include such additional territory. The proposed change of the boundaries of the public utility district commissioners' district must be made by resolution and after public hearing. Notice of the time of a public hearing thereon shall be published for two weeks prior thereto. Upon a referendum petition signed by ten percent of the qualified voters of the public utility district being filed with the county auditor, the county legislative authority shall submit such proposed change of boundaries to the voters of the public utility district for their approval or rejection. Such petition must be filed within ninety days after the adoption of resolution of the proposed action. The validity of said petition shall be governed by the provisions of chapter 54.08 RCW.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 101, Laws of 1983 and RCW 54.04.035 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to other powers authorized in Title 54 RCW, public utility districts may annex territory as provided in this section.

The boundaries of a public utility district may be enlarged and new contiguous territory added pursuant to the procedures for annexation by cities and towns provided in RCW 35.13-.015 through ~~((35-13-166))~~ 35.13.110. The provisions of these sections concerning community municipal corporations, review boards, and comprehensive plans, however, do not apply to public utility district annexations. For purposes of conforming with such procedures, the public utility district is deemed to be the city or town and the board of commissioners is deemed to be the city or town legislative body.

Annexation procedures provided in this section may only be used to annex territory ~~((not located in another public utility district))~~ that is both: (1) Contiguous to the annexing public utility district; and (2) located within the service area of the annexing public utility district. As used in this section, a public utility district's 'service area' means those areas whether located within or outside of the annexing public utility district's boundaries that ~~((are))~~ were generally served with electrical energy by the annexing public utility district on January 1, 1987. Such service area may, or may not, ~~((be))~~ have been recognized in an agreement made under chapter 54.48 RCW, but no area may be included within such service area ~~((shall not be provided))~~ that was generally served with electrical energy on January 1, 1987, by another public utility as defined in RCW 54.48.010. An area proposed to be annexed may be located in the same or a different county as the annexing public utility district.

If an area proposed to be annexed is located within the boundaries of another public utility district, annexation may be initiated only upon petition of registered voters residing in the area in accordance with RCW 35.13.020 and adoption by the boards of commissioners of both districts of identical resolutions stating (a) the boundaries of the area to be annexed, (b) a determination that annexation is in the public interest of the residents of the area to be annexed as well as the public interest of their respective districts, (c) approval of annexation by the board, (d) the boundaries of the districts after annexation, (e) the disposition of any assets of the districts in the area to be annexed, (f) the obligations to be assumed by the annexing district, (g) apportionment of election costs, and (h) that voters in the area to be annexed will be advised of lawsuits that may impose liability on the annexed territory and the possible impact of annexation on taxes and utility rates.

If annexation is approved, the area annexed shall cease to be a part of the one public utility district at the same time that it becomes a part of the other district. The annexing public utility district shall assume responsibility for providing the area annexed with the services provided by the other public utility district in the area annexed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 54.04 RCW to read as follows:

When territory has been added to a public utility district in accordance with RCW 54.04-.035, the supervisor of elections and other officers of the county in which the public utility district first operated shall coordinate elections, the levy and collection of taxes, and other necessary duties with the appropriate county officials of the other county."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "district;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 54.12.010 and 54.04.035; and adding a new section to chapter 54.04 RCW."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

April 15, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1016 with the following amendment:

On page 1, after line 9, strike the remainder of the bill and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 36.36 RCW to read as follows:

The county shall have a lien for any delinquent fees imposed for the withdrawal of subterranean water or on-site sewage disposal, which shall attach to the property to which the fees were imposed, if the following conditions are met:

(1) At least eighteen months have passed since the first billing for a delinquent fee installment; and

(2) At least three billing notices and a letter have been mailed to the property owner, within the period specified in subsection (1) of this section, explaining that a lien may be imposed for any delinquent fee installment that has not been paid in that period.

The lien shall otherwise be subject to the provisions of chapter 36.94 RCW related to liens for delinquent charges."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 8, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 168 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 126, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 122, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 52.18.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of fire commissioners of ~~((any))~~ a fire protection district ~~((created pursuant to chapter 52.02 RCW))~~ may by resolution, for fire protection district purposes authorized by law, fix and impose a service charge ~~((upon))~~ on personal property and improvements to real property ~~((:))~~ which are located within the fire protection district on the date specified and which have or will receive the ~~((benefit of fire protection))~~ benefits provided by the fire protection district, to be paid by the owners of ~~((such))~~ the properties: PROVIDED, That ~~((such))~~ a service charge shall not apply to personal property and improvements to real property owned or used by any recognized religious denomination or religious organization as, or including, a sanctuary or for purposes related to the bona fide religious ~~((works))~~ ministries of ~~((such))~~ the denomination or religious organization, including schools and educational facilities used for kindergarten, primary, or secondary educational purposes or for institutions of higher education and all grounds and buildings related thereto ~~((or to)), but not including personal property and improvements to real property owned or used by ((public or private schools or institutions of higher education)) any recognized religious denomination or religious organization for business operations, profit-making enterprises, or activities not including use of a sanctuary or related to kindergarten, primary, or secondary educational purposes or for institutions of higher education.~~ The aggregate amount of such service charges in any one year shall not exceed an amount equal to sixty percent of the operating budget for the year in which the service charge is to be collected: PROVIDED, That it shall be the duty of the county legislative authority to make any necessary adjustments to assure compliance with such limitation and to immediately notify the board of fire commissioners of any changes thereof.

~~((Any such))~~ A service charge imposed shall be reasonably proportioned to the measurable ~~((financial))~~ benefits to property resulting from the ~~((fire protection))~~ services afforded by the district. It ~~((shall be deemed))~~ is acceptable to ~~((proportion))~~ apportion the service charge to the values of the properties as found by the county assessor modified generally in the proportion that fire insurance rates are reduced or entitled to be reduced as the result of providing ~~((such fire))~~ the services. Any other method that reasonably apportions the service charges to the actual ~~((financial))~~ benefits resulting from the degree of protection, ~~((such as))~~ which may include but is not limited to the distance from regularly maintained fire protection equipment, the level of fire prevention services provided to the properties, or the need of the properties for specialized services, may be specified in the resolution and shall be subject to contest ~~((only))~~ on the ground of unreasonable or capricious action or action in excess of the measurable benefits to the property resulting from services afforded by the district: PROVIDED, That ~~((any such method shall be in accordance with the fire defense rating of the district as ratified by the state insurance commissioner. PROVIDED FURTHER, That no))~~ a service charge authorized by ~~((the provisions of))~~ this chapter shall not be applicable to the personal property or improvements to real property of any individual, corporation, partnership, firm, organization, or association maintaining ~~((his or its own))~~ a fire department and whose fire protection and training system has been accepted by a fire insurance underwriter maintaining a fire protection engineering and inspection service authorized by the state insurance commissioner to do business in this state, but such property may be protected by the fire protection district under a contractual agreement.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 126, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 123, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 52.18.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The term 'personal property' for the purposes of this chapter shall ~~((be held and construed to embrace and))~~ include every form ~~((and manner))~~ of tangible personal property, including but not limited to, all goods, chattels, stock in trade, estates, or crops: PROVIDED, That ~~((there~~ ~~shall be exempt from the service charge imposed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter~~) all personal property not assessed and subjected to ad valorem taxation by the county assessor ~~((pursuant to the provisions of))~~ under Title 84 RCW, and all property subject to ~~((the provisions of))~~ RCW 52.30.020 and chapter 54.28 RCW, or all property that is subject to a contract for services with a fire protection district, shall be exempt from the service charge imposed under this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the term 'personal property' shall not include any personal property used for farming, field crops, farm equipment, livestock, or other tangible personal ~~((farm))~~ property, not ordinarily housed or stored within a building structure: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the term 'improvements to real property' shall not include permanent growing crops, field improvements installed for the purpose of aiding the growth of permanent crops, or other field improvements normally not subject to damage by fire.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 126, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 53, chapter 100, Laws of 1986 and RCW 52.18.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The resolution establishing service charges as specified in RCW 52.18.010~~(:)~~ shall specify, by legal geographical areas or other specific designations, the ~~((rate))~~ charge to apply to each property by location, type, or other designation, ~~((and such))~~ or other information ~~((as))~~ that is ~~((deemed))~~ necessary to the proper computation of the service charge to be charged to each property owner subject to the resolution. The county assessor shall determine and identify the personal properties and improvements to real property which are subject to a service charge in each fire protection district and shall furnish and deliver to the county treasurer a listing of ~~((such))~~ the properties with information describing the location, legal description, and address of the person to whom the statement of service charges is to be mailed, the name of the owner, and the value of the property and improvements, together with the service charge to apply to each. These service charges ~~((levied hereunder))~~ shall be certified to the county treasurer for collection in the same manner that is used for the collection of fire protection charges for forest lands protected by the department of natural resources ~~((as prescribed by))~~ under RCW 76.04.610 and the same penalties and provisions for collection shall apply.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 126, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 52.18.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Each fire protection district shall contract, prior to the effective date of a resolution imposing a service charge, for the administration and collection of ~~((such))~~ the service charge~~(s)~~ by the county treasurer, who shall deduct a ~~((percentage amount))~~ percent, as provided by contract ~~((as reimbursement of))~~ to reimburse the county for expenses incurred by the county assessor and county treasurer in the administration of ~~((the provisions of))~~ the resolution and this chapter. The county treasurer shall make distributions each year, as the charges are collected, in the amount of the service charges imposed on behalf of each district, less the deduction provided for in the contract.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 126, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 52.18.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any service charge authorized by this chapter shall not be effective unless a proposition to impose ~~((such))~~ the service charge is approved by a sixty percent majority of the voters of the district voting at a general election or at a special election called by the district for that purpose, held within the fire protection district. ~~((Any))~~ An election held pursuant to this section shall be held not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the first such charge is to be assessed: PROVIDED, That ~~((such))~~ a service charge approved at an election shall not remain in effect for a period of more than three years unless subsequently reapproved by the voters.

(2) The ballot shall be submitted so as to enable the voters favoring the authorization of a fire protection district service charge to vote 'Yes' and those opposed thereto to vote 'No,' and ~~((such))~~ the ballot shall be ~~((in substantially the following form))~~:

'Shall _____ county fire protection district No. _____ be authorized to impose ~~((a fire protection district))~~ service charges each year ~~((hereafter in an aggregate amount each year))~~ for up to a three-year period, not to exceed an amount equal to sixty percent of ~~((the))~~ its operating budget ~~((for the year in which the service charge is to be collected)), and be prohibited from imposing an additional property tax under RCW 52.16.160?~~

YES

NO

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 126, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 52.18.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Not less than ten days nor more than six months before the election at which the proposition to impose the service charge is submitted as provided in this chapter, the board of fire commissioners of the district shall hold a public hearing specifically setting forth its proposal to impose service charges for the support of its legally authorized activities which will ~~((substantially))~~ maintain or improve the ~~((fire protection))~~ services afforded in the district. A report of the public hearing shall be filed with the county treasurer and be available for public inspection.

(2) Prior to October 15 of each year the board of fire commissioners shall hold a public hearing to review and establish the fire district service charges for the subsequent year.

All resolutions imposing or changing ~~((such))~~ the service charges shall be filed with the county treasurer, together with the record of each public hearing, before October 31 immediately preceding the year in which the service charges are to be collected on behalf of the district.

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 126, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 52.18.070 are each amended to read as follows:

From the fifteenth to the thirtieth day of November of each year, the board of fire commissioners of ~~((any))~~ a fire protection district imposing a service charge ~~((pursuant to the provisions of))~~ under this chapter shall form a review board and shall, upon complaint in writing of ~~((any))~~ a party aggrieved owning property in ~~((such))~~ the district, reduce the charge of ~~((such))~~ a person who, in their opinion, has been charged too large a sum, to ~~((such))~~ a sum or amount as they believe to be the true, fair, and just amount.

Sec. 8. Section 8, chapter 126, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 52.18.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington fire commissioners association, as soon as practicable, ~~((and with the assistance of the appropriate association of county prosecutors:))~~ shall draft a model resolution ~~((for the imposition of))~~ to impose the fire protection district service charge authorized by this chapter and may provide assistance to fire protection districts in the establishment of a program to develop service charges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 52.18 RCW to read as follows:

A fire protection district that imposes a service charge under this chapter shall not impose all or part of the property tax authorized under RCW 52.16.160."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "districts;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 52.18.010, 52.18.020, 52.18.030, 52.18.040, 52.18.050, 52.18.060, 52.18.070, and 52.18.080; and adding a new section to chapter 52.18 RCW."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 15, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 91 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 142, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 54, Laws of 1983 and RCW 41.60.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Board' means the productivity board.

(2) 'Employee suggestion program' means the program developed by the board under RCW 41.60.020.

(3) 'State employees' means employees in state agencies ((subject to chapter 41.06 or 28B.16 RCW)) and institutions of higher education except for elected officials, directors of such agencies and institutions, and their confidential secretaries and administrative assistants and others specifically ruled ineligible by the rules of the productivity board.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 1, chapter 114, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.60.015 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created the productivity board. The board shall administer the employee suggestion program under this chapter and shall review applications for teamwork incentive pay for state employees under RCW 41.60.100, 41.60.110, and 41.60.120.

(2) The board shall be composed of:

(a) The secretary of state who shall act as chairperson;

(b) The director of personnel appointed under the provisions of RCW 41.06.130 or the director's designee;

(c) The director of financial management or the director's designee;

(d) The personnel director appointed under the provisions of RCW 28B.16.060 or the director's designee; ~~((and))~~

(e) The director of general administration or the director's designee;

(f) Three persons with experience in administering incentives such as those used by industry, with the governor, lieutenant governor, and speaker of the house of representatives each appointing one person. The governor's appointee shall be a representative of an employee organization certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, but no one organization may be represented for two consecutive terms;

(g) One person representing state agencies and institutions with employees subject to chapter 41.06 RCW, and one person representing those subject to chapter 28B.16 RCW, both to be appointed by the governor; and

(h) In addition, the governor and board chairperson may jointly appoint persons to the board on an ad hoc basis. Ad hoc members shall serve in an advisory capacity and shall not have the right to vote.

~~((These))~~ Members under subsection (2) (f) and (g) of this section shall be appointed to serve three-year terms.

Members of the board ~~((shall))~~ appointed pursuant to subsection (2)(f) of this section may be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240. Any board member who is not a state employee may be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 2, chapter 114, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.60.041 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Cash awards for suggestions generating net savings to the state shall be ten percent of the net savings.

(2) No award may be granted in excess of ten thousand dollars.

(3) If the suggestion is significantly modified when implemented, the percentage specified in subsection (1) of this section may be decreased at the option of the board.

(4) The board shall establish guidelines for making cash awards for suggestions for which benefits to the state are intangible or for which benefits cannot be calculated. In cases where cost avoidances are identified, the state personnel board and the higher education personnel board in consultation with the productivity board shall adopt rules which allow agencies and institutions of higher education to grant leave in lieu of cash awards.

(5) Funds for the awards shall be drawn from the appropriation of the agency benefiting from the employee's suggestion. If the suggestion reduces costs to a nonappropriated fund or reduces costs paid without appropriation from a nonappropriated portion of an appropriated fund, an award may be paid from the benefitting fund or account without appropriation.

(6) Awards and fees for suggestions which generate new or additional money for the general fund may be drawn from the general fund by joint approval of the productivity board and the director of financial management.

(7) In addition to the amount awarded, the agency shall transfer ten percent of the savings to the ((department of personnel for deposit in the)) department of personnel service fund. Moneys so transferred shall be used exclusively for the operations of the productivity board or as an offset to any amount appropriated to the productivity board for administrative expenses from another revenue source, other than that provided under RCW 41.60.120. ((Any moneys remaining unexpended at the end of the fiscal biennium shall revert to the original fund source.))

The productivity board at least annually shall review amounts transferred to the department of personnel service fund under this section and may reduce the percentage of savings to be transferred or temporarily suspend transfer if cash receipts exceed needs for program administration.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 142, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 114, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.60.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature (~~((may augment the revenue transferred to))~~ shall appropriate from the department of personnel service fund ~~((under RCW 41.60.041(5) and 41.60.120 with an appropriation. Such appropriation shall be used exclusively))~~) for the payment of administrative costs of the productivity board.

Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 4, chapter 114, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.60.100 are each amended to read as follows:

With the exception of the legislative and judicial branches, any organizational unit of any agency of state government having an identifiable budget or having its financial records maintained according to an accounting system which identifies the expenditures and receipts properly attributable to that unit may apply to the board for selection as a candidate for the award of teamwork incentive pay to its employees. The application shall be submitted prior to the beginning of any year and shall have the approval of the head of the agency within which the unit is located.

Applications shall be in the form specified by the board and contain such information as the board may require, including but not limited to those evaluation components developed by the applying unit which will provide quantitative measures of program output and performance.

The board shall evaluate the applications submitted. From those proposals which are considered to be reasonable and practical and which are found to include developed performance indicators which lend themselves to a judgment of success or failure, the board shall select the units to participate in the teamwork incentive pay program.

~~((Persons who are exempt from civil service under RCW 41.06.070 (5) and (9) may not participate in the employee incentive pay program.))~~

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 5, chapter 114, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.60.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) To qualify for the award of teamwork incentive pay to its employees, a unit selected shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the board that it has operated during the year of participation at a lower cost with either an increase in the level of services rendered or with no decrease in the level of services rendered.

(a) A unit completing its first year of participation shall compare costs during that year of participation to (i) the fiscal year expenditures for the year immediately preceding the first year of participation, or (ii) an average derived from the unit's historical data, or (iii) engineered standards used in conjunction with an average derived from the unit's historical data;

(b) A unit participating in the teamwork incentive pay program for more than one year shall compare its costs during the current year of participation with its costs for the immediately preceding year; and

(c) For the purposes of this section, a unit's historical data shall be restricted to data generated during the period of three years or less immediately preceding the unit's first year of participation in the teamwork incentive pay program.

(2) The board shall satisfy itself from documentation submitted by the organizational unit that the claimed cost of operation is real and not merely apparent and that it is not, in whole or in part, the result of:

- (a) Chance;
- (b) A lowering of the quality of the service rendered;
- (c) Nonrecurrence of expenditures which were single outlay, or one-time expenditures, in the preceding year;
- (d) Stockpiling inventories in the immediately preceding year so as to reduce requirements in the eligible year;
- (e) Substitution of federal funds, other receipts, or nonstate funds for state appropriations;
- (f) Unreasonable postponement of payments of accounts payable until the year immediately following the eligible year;
- (g) Shifting of expenses to another unit of government; or
- (h) Any other practice, event, or device which the board decides has caused a distortion which makes it falsely appear that a savings or increase in level of services has occurred.

(3) The board shall consider as legitimate savings those reductions in expenditures made possible by such items as the following:

- (a) Reductions in overtime;
- (b) Elimination of consultant fees;
- (c) Less temporary help;
- (d) Improved systems and procedures;
- (e) Better deployment and utilization of personnel;
- (f) Elimination of unnecessary travel;
- (g) Elimination of unnecessary printing and mailing;
- (h) Elimination of unnecessary payments for items such as advertising;

(i) Elimination of waste, duplication, and operations of doubtful value;

(j) Improved space utilization; and

(k) Any other items (~~considered~~) determined by the board (~~as representing true savings~~) to represent cost savings.

Sec. 7. Section 4, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 6, chapter 114, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.60.120 are each amended to read as follows:

At the conclusion of the eligible year, the board shall compare the expenditures for that year of each unit selected against the expenditures of that unit for the immediately preceding year or expenditures determined in accordance with RCW 41.60.110(1) (a) and (b) and, after making such adjustments as in the board's judgment are required to eliminate distortions, shall determine the amount, if any, that the unit has reduced the unit's cost of operations or increased its level of services in the eligible year. Adjustments to eliminate distortions may include any legislative increases in employee compensation and inflationary increases in the cost of services, materials, and supplies. If the board also determines that in the board's judgment a unit qualifies for an award, the board shall award to the employees of that unit a sum equal to twenty-five percent of the amount determined to be the savings to the state for the level of services rendered. The amount awarded shall be divided and distributed in equal shares to the employees of the unit, except that employees who worked for that unit less than the twelve months of the year shall receive only a pro rata share based on the fraction of the year worked for that unit. Funds for this teamwork incentive pay shall be drawn from the agency in which the unit is located.

In addition to the amount awarded, the agency shall transfer ten percent of the savings to ~~(the department of personnel for deposit in)~~ the department of personnel service fund. Monies so transferred shall be used exclusively for the operations of the productivity board or as an offset to any amount appropriated to the productivity board for administrative expenses from another revenue source, other than that provided under RCW 41.60.120. ~~(Any moneys remaining unexpended at the end of the fiscal biennium shall revert to the original fund source.)~~ The productivity board at least annually shall review amounts transferred to the department of personnel service fund under this section and may reduce the percentage of savings to be transferred or temporarily suspend transfer if cash receipts exceed needs for program administration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 41.60 RCW to read as follows:

No award may be made under this chapter to any elected state official or state agency director. No monetary award may be made to persons exempt from the state civil service law under RCW 41.06.070 (5) or (9).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The legislative budget committee shall undertake a cost-benefit analysis of employee incentive programs under chapter 41.60 RCW in 1990. A report of the findings and any conclusions and recommendations derived from this analysis shall be submitted to the appropriate standing committees of the house of representatives and the senate in January, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Section 15, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 and RCW 43.131.255 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1987, except section 10 of this act which shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "programs;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 41.60.010, 41.60.015, 41.60.041, 41.60.050, 41.60.100, 41.60.110, and 41.60.120; adding a new section to chapter 41.60 RCW; creating a new section; repealing RCW 43.131.225; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 15, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 982 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 28A.04.120, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 149, Laws of 1986 and by section 86, chapter 266, Laws of 1986 and RCW 28A.04.120 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other powers and duties as provided by law, the state board of education shall:

(1) Approve the program of courses leading to teacher, school administrator, and school specialized personnel certification offered by all institutions of higher education within the state which may be accredited and whose graduates may become entitled to receive such certification.

(2) Investigate the character of the work required to be performed as a condition of entrance to and graduation from any institution of higher education in this state relative to such certification as provided for in subsection (1) above, and prepare a list of accredited institutions of higher education of this and other states whose graduates may be awarded such certificates.

(3) (a) The state board of education shall adopt rules to allow a teacher certification candidate to fulfill, in part, teacher preparation program requirements through work experience as a noncertificated teacher's aide in a public school or private school meeting the requirements of RCW 28A.02.201. The rules shall include, but are not limited to, limitations based upon the recency of the teacher preparation candidate's teacher aide work experience, and limitations based on the amount of work experience that may apply toward teacher preparation program requirements under this chapter.

(b) The state board of education shall require that at the time of the individual's enrollment in a teacher preparation program, the supervising teacher and the building principal shall jointly provide to the teacher preparation program of the higher education institution at which the teacher candidate is enrolled, a written assessment of the performance of the teacher candidate. The assessment shall contain such information as determined by the state board of education and shall include: Evidence that at least fifty percent of the candidate's work as a noncertificated teacher's aide was involved in instructional activities with children under the supervision of a certificated teacher and that the candidate worked a minimum of six hundred thirty hours for one school year; the type of work performed by the candidate; and a recommendation of whether the candidate's work experience as a noncertificated teacher's aide should be substituted for teacher preparation program requirements. In compliance with such rules as may be established by the state board of education under this section, the teacher preparation programs of the higher education institution where the candidate is enrolled shall make the final determination as to what teacher preparation program requirements may be fulfilled by teacher aide work experience.

(4) Supervise the issuance of such certificates as provided for in subsection (1) above and specify the types and kinds of certificates necessary for the several departments of the common schools by rule or regulation in accordance with RCW 28A.70.005.

((4)) (5) Accredite, subject to such accreditation standards and procedures as may be established by the state board of education, all schools that apply for accreditation, and approve, subject to the provisions of RCW 28A.02.201, private schools carrying out a program for any or all of the grades one through twelve: PROVIDED, That no public or private schools shall be placed upon the list of accredited schools so long as secret societies are knowingly allowed to exist among its students by school officials: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state board may elect to require all or certain classifications of the public schools to conduct and participate in such pre-accreditation examination and evaluation processes as may now or hereafter be established by the board.

((5)) (6) Make rules and regulations governing the establishment in any existing nonhigh school district of any secondary program or any new grades in grades nine through twelve. Before any such program or any new grades are established the district must obtain prior approval of the state board.

((6)) (7) Prepare such outline of study for the common schools as the board shall deem necessary, and prescribe such rules for the general government of the common schools, as shall seek to secure regularity of attendance, prevent truancy, secure efficiency, and promote the true interest of the common schools.

((7)) (8) Prepare with the assistance of the superintendent of public instruction a uniform series of questions, with the proper answers thereto for use in the correcting thereof, to be used in the examination of persons, as this code may direct, and prescribe rules and regulations for conducting any such examinations.

((8)) (9) Continuously reevaluate courses and adopt and enforce regulations within the common schools so as to meet the educational needs of students and articulate with the institutions of higher education and unify the work of the public school system.

((9)) (10) Carry out board powers and duties relating to the organization and reorganization of school districts under chapter 28A.57 RCW.

((10)) (11) By rule or regulation promulgated upon the advice of the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, provide for instruction of pupils in the public and private schools carrying out a K through 12 program, or any part thereof, so that in case of sudden emergency they shall be able to leave their particular school building in the shortest possible time or take such other steps as the particular emergency demands, and without confusion or panic; such rules and regulations shall be published and distributed to certificated personnel throughout the state whose duties shall include a familiarization therewith as well as the means of implementation thereof at their particular school.

((++)) (12) Hear and decide appeals as otherwise provided by law.

The state board of education is given the authority to promulgate information and rules dealing with the prevention of child abuse for purposes of curriculum use in the common schools."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "certification;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and reenacting and amending RCW 28A.04.120."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 16, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 698 with the following amendments:

On page 1, after line 18, insert the following:

*Sec. 2, Section 2, chapter 141, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.36.037 are each amended to read as follows:

Real or personal property owned by a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation in connection with the operation of a public assembly hall or meeting place is exempt from taxation. The area exempt under this section includes the building or buildings, the land under the buildings, and an additional area necessary for parking, not exceeding a total of one acre: PROVIDED, That for property essentially unimproved except for restroom facilities and structures on such property which has been used primarily for annual community celebration events for at least ten years, such exempt property shall not exceed twenty-nine acres.

To qualify for this exemption the property must be used exclusively for public gatherings and be available to all organizations or persons desiring to use the property, but the owner may impose conditions and restrictions which are necessary for the safekeeping of the property and promote the purposes of this exemption. Membership shall not be a prerequisite for the use of the property.

The use of the property for pecuniary gain or to promote business activities, except fund raising activities conducted by a nonprofit organization and except annual community celebration events if the proceeds of the events are used exclusively for the purposes for which the nonprofit organization, association, or corporation is organized, nullifies the exemption otherwise available for the property for the assessment year. The exemption is not nullified by the collection of rent or donations if the amount is reasonable and does not exceed maintenance and operation expenses created by the user.

The department of revenue shall narrowly construe this exemption and shall annually report to the legislature the names of organizations receiving such property tax exemptions.

Sec. 3, Section 7, chapter 40, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 220, Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.36.805 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to be exempt pursuant to RCW 84.36.030, 84.36.035, 84.36.037, 84.36.040, 84.36.045, 84.36.047, 84.36.050, 84.36.060, 84.36.350, and 84.36.480, the nonprofit organizations, associations or corporations shall satisfy the following conditions:

(1) The property is used exclusively for the actual operation of the activity for which exemption is granted and does not exceed an amount reasonably necessary for that purpose, except:

(a) The loan or rental of the property does not subject the property to tax if:

(i) Except for the exemption under RCW 84.36.037, the rents and donations received for the use of the portion of the property are reasonable and do not exceed the maintenance and operation expenses attributable to the portion of the property loaned or rented; and

(ii) Except for the exemption under RCW 84.36.037, the property would be exempt from tax if owned by the organization to which it is loaned or rented;

(b) The use of the property for fund-raising activities does not subject the property to tax if the fund-raising activities are consistent with the purposes for which the exemption is granted;

(2) The property is irrevocably dedicated to the purpose for which exemption has been granted, and on the liquidation, dissolution, or abandonment by said organization, association, or corporation, said property will not inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of any shareholder or individual, except a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation which too would be entitled to property tax exemption: PROVIDED, That the provision of this subsection shall not apply to those qualified for exemption pursuant to RCW 84.36.040 if the property used for the purpose stated is either leased or rented;

(3) The facilities and services are available to all regardless of race, color, national origin or ancestry;

(4) The organization, association, or corporation is duly licensed or certified where such licensing or certification is required by law or regulation;

(5) Property sold to organizations, associations, or corporations with an option to be repurchased by the seller shall not qualify for exempt status;

(6) The director of the department of revenue shall have access to its books in order to determine whether such organization, association, or corporation is exempt from taxes within the intent of RCW 84.36.030, 84.36.035, 84.36.037, 84.36.040, 84.36.045, 84.36.047, 84.36.050, 84.36.060, 84.36.350, and 84.36.480."

Remember the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "treasurers;" insert "amending RCW 84.36.037 and 84.36.805;"

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

On page 4, line 14, after "rules," strike "For each registered" through "purposes," on line 19 On page 4, after line 20, insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 15, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 10, chapter 147, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.17.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before doing any lobbying, or within thirty days after being employed as a lobbyist, whichever occurs first, a lobbyist shall register by filing with the commission a lobbyist registration statement, in such detail as the commission shall prescribe, showing:

(a) His name, permanent business address, and any temporary residential and business addresses in Thurston county during the legislative session;

(b) The name, address and occupation or business of the lobbyist's employer;

(c) The duration of his employment;

(d) His compensation for lobbying; how much he is to be paid for expenses, and what expenses are to be reimbursed; ~~((and a full and particular description of any agreement, arrangement, or understanding according to which his compensation, or any portion thereof, is or will be contingent upon the success of any attempt to influence legislation.))~~

(e) Whether the person from whom he receives said compensation employs him solely as a lobbyist or whether he is a regular employee performing services for his employer which include but are not limited to the influencing of legislation;

(f) The general subject or subjects of his legislative interest;

(g) A written authorization from each of the lobbyist's employers confirming such employment;

(h) The name and address of the person who will have custody of the accounts, bills, receipts, books, papers, and documents required to be kept under this chapter;

(1) If the lobbyist's employer is an entity (including, but not limited to, business and trade associations) whose members include, or which as a representative entity undertakes lobbying activities for, businesses, groups, associations, or organizations, the name and address of each member of such entity or person represented by such entity whose fees, dues, payments, or other consideration paid to such entity during either of the prior two years have exceeded five hundred dollars or who is obligated to or has agreed to pay fees, dues, payments, or other consideration exceeding five hundred dollars to such entity during the current year.

(2) Any lobbyist who receives or is to receive compensation from more than one person for his services as a lobbyist shall file a separate notice of representation with respect to each such person; except that where a lobbyist whose fee for acting as such in respect to the same legislation or type of legislation is, or is to be, paid or contributed to by more than one person then such lobbyist may file a single statement, in which he shall detail the name, business address and occupation of each person so paying or contributing, and the amount of the respective payments or contributions made by each such person.

(3) Whenever a change, modification, or termination of the lobbyist's employment occurs, the lobbyist shall, within one week of such change, modification or termination, furnish full information regarding the same by filing with the commission an amended registration statement.

(4) Each lobbyist who has registered shall file a new registration statement, revised as appropriate, on the second Monday in January of each odd-numbered year, and failure to do so shall terminate his registration.

Sec. 4. Section 23, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 14, chapter 147, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.17.230 are each amended to read as follows:

A person required to register as a lobbyist under this chapter shall also have the following obligations, the violation of which shall constitute cause for revocation of his registration, and may subject such person, and such person's employer, if such employer aids, abets, ratifies, or confirms any such act, to other civil liabilities, as provided by this chapter:

(1) Such persons shall obtain and preserve all accounts, bills, receipts, books, papers, and documents necessary to substantiate the financial reports required to be made under this chapter for a period of at least five years from the date of the filing of the statement containing such items, which accounts, bills, receipts, books, papers, and documents shall be made available for inspection by the commission at any time; PROVIDED, That if a lobbyist is required under the terms of his employment contract to turn any records over to his employer, responsibility for the preservation of such records under this subsection shall rest with such employer.

(2) In addition, a person required to register as a lobbyist shall not:

- (a) Engage in any activity as a lobbyist before registering as such;
- (b) Knowingly deceive or attempt to deceive any legislator as to any fact pertaining to any pending or proposed legislation;
- (c) Cause or influence the introduction of any bill or amendment thereto for the purpose of thereafter being employed to secure its defeat;
- (d) Knowingly represent an interest adverse to any of his employers without first obtaining such employer's written consent thereto after full disclosure to such employer of such adverse interest;

(e) Exercise any undue influence, extortion, or unlawful retaliation upon any legislator by reason of such legislator's position with respect to, or his vote upon, any pending or proposed legislation;

(f) Enter into any agreement, arrangement, or understanding according to which his or her compensation, or any portion thereof, is or will be contingent upon the success of any attempt to influence legislation.

On page 4, after line 20, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:

During a legislative session, a lobbyist registered and reporting under this chapter or a business that has a lobbyist as one of the principal owners or partners, shall not enter into a personal services contract with the legislature, any committee, office, officer, or employee of the legislature, the executive branch, any officer or employee of the executive branch, or any state agency."

On page 1, beginning on line 13, strike all material through "designs." on page 2, line 29 and insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 8, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 175, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.273 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((On or after July 1, 1971:)) Any municipality within a class AA county, or within a class A county contiguous to a class AA county, or within a second class county contiguous to a class A county that is contiguous to a class AA county is authorized to levy and collect a special excise tax not exceeding ninety-nine one-hundredths of one percent on the fair market value of every motor vehicle owned by a resident of such municipality for the privilege of using such motor vehicle provided that in no event shall the tax be less than one dollar and, subject to RCW 82.44.150 (5) and (6), the amount of such tax shall be credited against the amount of the excise tax levied by the state under RCW 82.44.020. Any other municipality is authorized to levy and collect a special excise tax not exceeding one percent on the fair market value of every motor vehicle owned by a resident of such municipality for the privilege of using such motor vehicle provided that in no event shall the tax be less than one dollar and, subject to RCW 82.44.150(5) and (6), the amount of such tax shall be credited against the amount of the excise tax levied by the state under RCW 82.44.020: PROVIDED, That before utilization of any excise tax moneys collected under authorization of this section for acquisition of right of way or construction of a mass transit facility on a separate right of way the municipality shall adopt rules affording the public an opportunity for 'corridor public hearings' and 'design public hearings' as herein defined, which rule shall provide in detail the procedures necessary for public participation in the following instances: (a) prior to adoption of location and design plans having a substantial social, economic or environmental effect upon the locality upon which they are to be constructed or (b) on such mass rapid transit systems operating on a separate right of way whenever a substantial change is proposed relating to location or design in the adopted plan. In adopting rules the municipality shall adhere to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act.~~

A 'corridor public hearing' is a public hearing that: (a) is held before the municipality is committed to a specific mass transit route proposal, and before a route location is established; (b) is held to afford an opportunity for participation by those interested in the determination of the need for, and the location of, the mass rapid transit system; (c) provides a public forum that affords a full opportunity for presenting views on the mass rapid transit system route location, and the social, economic and environmental effects on that location and alternate locations: PROVIDED, That such hearing shall not be deemed to be necessary before adoption of an overall mass rapid transit system plan by a vote of the electorate of the municipality.

A 'design public hearing' is a public hearing that: (a) is held after the location is established but before the design is adopted; and (b) is held to afford an opportunity for participation by those interested in the determination of major design features of the mass rapid transit system; and (c) provides a public forum to afford a full opportunity for presenting views on the mass rapid transit system design, and the social, economic, environmental effects of that design and alternate designs."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 13, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTION HOUSE BILL NO. 476 with the following amendments:

On page 6, after line 9, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The Washington land bank shall be examined by the department of general administration, division of banking, at such times as the supervisor may determine, but in no event less than once each year. Such examinations shall include, but are not limited to, an analysis of credit and collateral quality and capitalization of the institution, and an appraisal of the effectiveness of the institution's management and application of policies for the carrying out the requirements of chapter 31.30 RCW, and servicing all eligible borrowers. At the direction of the supervisor, the division of banking shall examine the condition of any organization with which the Washington land bank contemplates making a loan or discounting paper. For the purposes of this chapter, bank analysts shall be subject to the same requirements, responsibilities, and penalties as are applicable to examiners under Title 30 RCW, the Federal Reserve Act, and Federal Deposit Insurance Act, and other provisions of law and shall have the same powers and privileges as are vested in such examiners by law.

(2) The Washington land bank shall make and publish an annual report of condition. Each such report shall contain financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and contain such additional information as may be required by the board of directors. Such financial statements shall be audited by an independent certified public accountant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The Washington land bank shall make at least three regular reports each year to the supervisor, as of the dates designated, according to form prescribed, verified by the president, vice-president, or secretary and attested by at least two directors, which shall exhibit under appropriate heads the resources and liabilities of the bank. Each such report in condensed form, to be prescribed by the supervisor, shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation, published in a place where the corporation is located, or if there be no newspaper published in such place, then in some newspaper published in the same county. The Washington land bank shall also make such special reports as the supervisor shall call for.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Every regular report shall be filed with the supervisor within thirty days from the date of issuance of the notice therefor and proof of publication of such report shall be filed with the supervisor within forty days from such date. Every special report shall be filed with the supervisor within such time as shall be specified in the notice therefor.

Failure of the Washington land bank to file any report, required to be filed as aforesaid within the time herein specified, shall be subject to a penalty of fifty dollars per day for each day's delay. A civil action for the recovery of any such penalty may be brought by the attorney general in the name of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The supervisor shall collect from the Washington land bank for application and investigations and for each examination of its condition a fee as set by applicable regulation of the division of banking.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) All examination reports and all information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting examinations of the Washington land bank is confidential and privileged information and shall not be made public or otherwise disclosed to any person, firm, corporation, agency, association, governmental body, or other entity.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section notwithstanding, the supervisor may furnish all or any part of examination reports prepared by the supervisor's office to:

(a) Officials empowered to investigate criminal charges subject to legal process, valid search warrant, or subpoena. If the supervisor furnishes any examination report to officials empowered to investigate criminal charges, the supervisor may only furnish that part of the report which is necessary and pertinent to the investigation, and the supervisor may do this only after notifying the Washington land bank and any customer of the Washington land bank who is named in that part of the examination or report ordered to be furnished unless the officials requesting the report first obtain a waiver of the notice requirement from a court of competent jurisdiction for good cause;

(b) The Washington land bank;

(c) The attorney general in his or her role as legal advisor to the supervisor;

(d) A person or organization officially connected with the Washington land bank as officer, director, attorney, auditor, or independent attorney or independent auditor.

(3) All examination reports furnished under subsections (2) and (4) of this section shall remain the property of the division of banking, and be confidential and no person, agency, or authority to whom reports are furnished or any officer, director, or employee thereof shall disclose or make public any of the reports or any information contained therein except in published statistical material that does not disclose the affairs of any individual or corporation: PROVIDED, That nothing herein shall prevent the use in a criminal prosecution of reports furnished under subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The examination report made by the division of banking is designed for use in the supervision of the Washington land bank. The report shall remain the property of the supervisor and will be furnished to the Washington land bank for its confidential use. Under no circumstances shall the Washington land bank, or any of its directors, officers, or employees disclose or make public in any manner the report or any portion thereof, to any person or organization not connected with the Washington land bank as officer, director, employee, attorney, auditor, or candidate for executive office with the bank.

(5) Examination reports and information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting examinations shall not be subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW.

(6) In any civil action in which the reports are sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor, petition the court for an in camera review of the report. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions of the report which are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. This subsection shall not apply to an action brought or defended by the supervisor.

(7) This section shall not apply to investigation reports prepared by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff concerning an application for establishment of the Washington land bank: PROVIDED, That the supervisor may adopt rules making confidential portions of the reports if in the supervisor's opinion the public disclosure of the portions of the report would impair the ability to obtain the information which the supervisor considers necessary to fully evaluate the application.

(8) Every person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The supervisor may issue and serve upon the Washington land bank a notice of charges if in the opinion of the supervisor, the Washington land bank:

(a) Is engaging or has engaged in an unsafe or unsound practice in conducting its business;

(b) Is violating or has violated the law, rule, or any condition imposed in writing by the supervisor in connection with the granting of any application or other request by the bank or any written agreement made with the supervisor; or

(c) Is about to do the acts prohibited in (a) or (b) of this subsection when the opinion that the threat exists is based upon reasonable cause.

(2) The notice shall contain a statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation or violations or the practice or practices and shall fix a time and place at which a hearing will be held to determine whether an order to cease and desist should issue against the bank. The hearing shall be set not earlier than ten days nor later than thirty days after service of the notice unless a later date is set by the supervisor at the request of the bank.

Unless the bank shall appear at the hearing by a duly authorized representative it shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of the cease and desist order. In the event of this consent or if upon the record made at the hearing the supervisor finds that any violation or practice specified in the notice of charges has been established, the supervisor may issue and serve upon the bank an order to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order may require the bank and its directors, officers, employees, and agents to cease and desist from the violation or practice and may require the bank to take affirmative action to correct the conditions resulting from the violation or practice.

(3) A cease and desist order shall become effective at the expiration of ten days after the service of the order upon the bank except that a cease and desist order issued upon consent shall become effective at the time specified in the order and shall remain effective as provided therein unless it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by action of the supervisor or a reviewing court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Whenever the supervisor determines that the acts specified in the foregoing section or their continuation is likely to cause insolvency or substantial dissipation of assets or earnings of the bank, the supervisor may also issue a temporary order requiring the bank to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order shall become effective upon service on the bank and shall remain effective unless set aside, limited, or suspended by a court in proceedings under section 8 of this act pending the completion of the administrative proceedings under the notice and until such time as the supervisor shall dismiss the charges specified in the notice or until the effective date of a cease and desist order issued against the bank pursuant to section 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. Within ten days after the bank has been served with a temporary cease and desist order, the bank may apply to the superior court in the county of its principal place of business for an injunction setting aside, limiting, or suspending the order pending the completion of the administrative proceedings pursuant to the notice served. The superior court shall have jurisdiction to issue the injunction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. In the case of a violation or threatened violation of a temporary cease and desist order issued, the supervisor may apply to the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the bank for an injunction to enforce the order, and the court shall issue an injunction if it determines that there has been a violation or threatened violation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. (1) Any administrative hearing may be held at such place as is designated by the supervisor and shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. The hearing shall be private unless the supervisor determines that a public hearing is necessary to protect the public interest after fully considering the views of the party afforded the hearing.

Within sixty days after the hearing the supervisor shall render a decision which shall include findings of fact upon which the decision is based and shall issue and serve upon each party to the proceedings an order or orders.

Unless a petition for review is timely filed in the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the bank and until the record in the proceeding has been filed as therein provided, the supervisor may at any time modify, terminate, or set aside any order upon such notice and in such manner as deemed proper. Upon filing the record, the supervisor may modify, terminate, or set aside any order only with permission of the court.

The judicial review provided in this section for an order shall be exclusive.

(2) Any party to the proceeding or any person required by an order to refrain from any of the violations or practices stated therein may obtain a review of any order served under subsection (1) of this section other than one issued upon consent by filing in the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the bank within ten days after the date of service of the order a written petition praying that the order of the supervisor be modified, terminated, or set aside. A copy of the petition shall be immediately served upon the supervisor and the supervisor shall then file in the court the record of the proceeding. The court shall have jurisdiction upon the filing of the petition, which jurisdiction shall become exclusive upon the filing of the record to affirm, modify, terminate, or set aside in whole or in part the order of the supervisor except that the supervisor may modify, terminate, or set aside an order with the permission of the court. The judgment and decree of the court shall be final, except that it shall be subject to appellate review under the rules of court.

(3) The commencement of proceedings for judicial review under subsection (2) of this section shall not operate as a stay of any order issued by the supervisor unless specifically ordered by the court.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. The supervisor may serve upon a director, officer, or employee of the Washington land bank a written notice of the supervisor's intention to remove the person from office or to prohibit the person from participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank whenever:

(1) In the opinion of the supervisor any director, officer, or employee of the bank has committed or engaged in:

- (a) Any violation of law or rule or of a cease and desist order which has become final;
- (b) Any unsafe or unsound practice in connection with the bank; or
- (c) Any act, omission, or practice which constitutes a breach of his fiduciary duty as director, officer, or employee; and

(2) The supervisor determines that:

- (a) The bank has suffered or may suffer substantial financial loss or other damage; or
- (b) The interests of its investors could be seriously prejudiced by reason of the violation or practice or breach of fiduciary duty; and

(c) The violation or practice or breach of fiduciary duty is one involving personal dishonesty, recklessness, or incompetence on the part of the director, officer, or employee.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. A notice of an intention to remove a director, officer, or employee from office or to prohibit participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank shall contain a statement of the facts which constitute grounds therefor and shall fix a time and place at which a hearing will be held. The hearing shall be set not earlier than ten days nor later than thirty days after the date of service of the notice unless an earlier or later date is set by the supervisor at the request of the director, officer, or employee for good cause shown or of the attorney general of the state.

Unless the director, officer, or employee appears at the hearing personally or by a duly authorized representative, the person shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of an order of removal or prohibition or both. In the event of such consent or if upon the record made at the hearing the supervisor finds that any of the grounds specified in the notice have been established, the supervisor may issue such orders of removal from office or prohibition from participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank as the supervisor may consider appropriate.

Any order shall become effective at the expiration of ten days after service upon the bank and the director, officer, or employee concerned except that an order issued upon consent shall become effective at the time specified in the order.

An order shall remain effective except to the extent it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by the supervisor or a reviewing court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If at any time because of the removal of one or more directors under this chapter there shall be on the board of directors of the bank less than a quorum of directors, all powers and functions vested in or exercisable by the board shall vest in and be exercisable by the director or directors remaining until such time as there is a quorum on the board of directors. If all of the directors of the bank are removed under this chapter, the supervisor shall appoint persons to serve temporarily as directors until such time as their respective successors take office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 5 through 17 of this act are each added to chapter 31.30 RCW."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "30.08 RCW;" strike "and" and insert "adding new sections to chapter 31.30 RCW;"

On page 1, line 5 of the title, after "30.23.901" insert "; and prescribing penalties" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 14, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 928 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 136, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 79.96.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of natural resources, upon the receipt of an application for a lease for the purpose of planting and cultivating oyster beds or for the purpose of cultivating clams or other edible shellfish, shall notify the director of fisheries of the filing of the application describing the tidelands or beds of navigable waters applied for. The director of fisheries shall cause an inspection of the lands applied for to be made and shall make a full report to the department of natural resources of his findings as to whether it is necessary, in order to protect existing natural oyster beds, and to secure adequate seeding thereof, to retain the lands described in the application for lease or any part thereof, and in the event the director deems it advisable to retain the lands or any part thereof for the protection of existing natural oyster beds or to guarantee the continuance of an adequate seed stock for existing natural oyster beds, the same shall not be subject to lease. However, if the director determines that the lands applied for or any part thereof may be leased, he shall so notify the department of natural resources and the director shall cause an examination of the lands to be made to determine the presence, if any, of natural oysters, clams, or other edible shellfish on said lands, and to fix the rental value of the lands for use for oyster, clam, or other edible shellfish cultivation. In his report to the department, the director shall recommend a minimum rental for said lands and an estimation of the value of the oysters, clams, or other edible shellfish, if any, then present on the lands applied for. The lands approved by the director for lease may then be leased to the applicant for a period of not less than five years nor more than ten years at a rental not less than the minimum rental recommended by the director of fisheries. In addition, before entering upon possession of the land, the applicant shall pay the value of the oysters, clams, or other edible shellfish, if any, then present on the land as determined by the director, plus the expense incurred by the director in investigating the quantity of oysters, clams, or other edible shellfish, present on the land applied for.

(2) When issuing new leases or reissuing existing leases the department shall not permit the commercial harvest of subtidal hardshell clams by means of hydraulic escalating when the upland within five hundred feet of any lease tract is zoned for residential development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "clams;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 79.96.030; and declaring an emergency."
and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Ms. K. Wilson moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 928.

Ms. K. Wilson spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Schmidt yielded to question by Ms. Spanel.

Ms. Spanel: Representative Schmidt, Substitute House Bill No. 928 requires that the Department of Natural Resources not enter into any new leases or renew existing leases that allow the harvest of subtidal hardshell clams by means of a hydraulic escalator within five hundred feet of any property zoned for residential use. Would you clarify where the measurement of the five hundred foot zone begins?

Ms. Schmidt: Thank you, Representative Spanel. Throughout state law, in the Shoreline Management Act and in the aquatic laws administered by the Department of Natural Resources, references are made to public property beginning at the ordinary high water mark. Shorelines of statewide significance in the Shoreline Management Act are defined as beginning at the ordinary high water mark. Tidelands and harbor lands are defined as beginning at the ordinary high water mark. I think it is fully consistent with state laws to say that the Senate intended that any measurement of the five hundred foot distance begin at the ordinary high water mark.

The motion to concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 928 was carried.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 928 as amended by the Senate.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 16, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 396 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 26, after "that" strike all material through "1987" on line 27 and insert "is (1) consistent with state, regional, and local transportation plans, (2) necessitated by existing or reasonably foreseeable congestion levels attributable to economic growth, and (3) partially funded by local government or private developer contributions, or a combination of such contributions"

On page 2, line 11, after "that" strike all material through "1987" on line 12 and insert "is (1) consistent with state, regional, and local transportation plans, (2) necessitated by existing or reasonably foreseeable congestion levels attributable to economic growth, and (3) partially funded by local government or private developer contributions, or a combination of such contributions"

On page 7, line 1, after "chapter" strike "(HB 397)" and insert "(SB 5732)" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Walk, the House concurred in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 396.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 396 as amended by the Senate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Cantwell yielded to question by Mr. Walk.

Mr. Walk: When the Senate amended Engrossed House Bill 396, it restated language contained in another bill which had previously only been referenced. This language relates to the criteria which a road improvement must meet in order for a transportation benefit district to address the need. These criteria include the project being consistent with existing transportation plans and having local government or private contributions.

The criteria language related to congestion levels was changed somewhat by the Senate to reference congestion attributable to "economic growth." The language in the other bill, previously referenced, addressed congestion related to "economic development or growth."

Do you see those word changes affecting the type of projects to be addressed by transportation benefit districts? Also, do you see that those word changes would affect the ability for these districts to apply for funds from the transportation improvement account?

Ms. Cantwell: I believe it is the Legislature's intent that these districts address congestion necessitated by economic development or growth. For the purposes of these districts, the term "economic development or growth" and the term "economic growth" should be regarded as the same. Projects to be done by these districts would certainly qualify for transportation improvement account funds.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 396 as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Moyer, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Prull, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

Excused: Representatives Gallagher, Walker - 2.

Engrossed House Bill No. 396 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

April 13, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 629 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 13, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 1, chapter 121, Laws of 1986 and RCW 88.16.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall have power on its own motion or, in its discretion, upon the written request of any interested party, to investigate the performance of pilotage services subject to this chapter and to issue a reprimand, impose a fine against a pilot in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars ((and)), suspend, withhold, or revoke the license of any pilot, or any combination of the above, for misconduct, incompetency, inattention to duty, intoxication, or failure to perform his duties under this chapter, or violation of any of the rules or regulations provided by the board for the government of pilots. The board may partially or totally stay any disciplinary action authorized in this subsection and subsection (2) of this section. The board shall have the power to require that a pilot satisfactorily complete a specific course of training or treatment.

(2) In all instances where a pilot licensed under this chapter performs pilot services on a vessel exempt under RCW 88.16.070, the board may on its own motion, or in its discretion upon the written request of any interested party, investigate whether the services were performed in a professional manner consistent with sound maritime practices. ((If the board finds that the pilotage services were performed in a negligent manner so as to endanger life, limb, or property, the board shall impose a fine of not more than five thousand dollars upon the offending pilot.)) If the board finds that the pilotage services were performed in a manner that constitutes an act of incompetence, misconduct, or negligence so as to endanger life, limb, or property, or violated or failed to comply with state laws or regulations intended to promote marine safety or to protect navigable waters, the board may issue a reprimand, impose a fine against a pilot in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars, suspend, withhold, or revoke the state pilot license, or any combination of the above. The board shall have the power to require that a pilot satisfactorily complete a specific course of training or treatment.

(3) The board shall implement a system of specified disciplinary actions or corrective actions, including training or treatment, that will be taken when a state licensed pilot in a specified period of time has had multiple disciplinary actions taken against the pilot's license pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section. In developing these disciplinary or corrective actions, the board shall take into account the cause of the disciplinary action and the pilot's previous record.

(4) When the board determines that reasonable cause exists to issue a reprimand, impose a fine ((or)), suspend, revoke, or withhold any pilot's license or require training or treatment under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, it shall forthwith prepare and personally serve upon such pilot a notice advising him of the board's intended action, the specific grounds therefor, and the right to request a hearing to challenge the board's action. The pilot shall have thirty days from the date on which notice is served to request a full hearing before an administrative law judge on the issue of the reprimand, fine ((or)), suspension, revocation, or withholding of his pilot's license, or requiring treatment or training. The board's proposed reprimand, fine ((or)), suspension, revocation, or withholding of a license, or requiring treatment or training shall become final upon the expiration of thirty days from the date notice is served, unless a hearing has been requested prior to that time. When a hearing is requested the board shall request the appointment of an administrative law judge under chapter 34.12 RCW who has sufficient experience and familiarity with pilotage matters to be able to conduct a fair and impartial hearing. The hearing shall be governed by the provisions of Title 34 RCW. All final decisions of the administrative law judge shall be subject to review by the superior court of the state of Washington for Thurston county or by the superior court of the county in which the pilot maintains his residence or principal place of business, to which court any case with all the papers and proceedings therein shall be immediately certified by the administrative law judge if requested to do so by any party to the proceedings at any time within thirty days after the date of any such final decision. No appeal may be taken after the expiration of thirty days after the date of final decision. Any case so certified to the superior court shall be tried de novo and after certification of the record to said superior court the proceedings shall be had as in a civil action. Moneys collected from fines under this section shall be deposited in the pilotage account.

(5) The board shall have the power, on an emergency basis, to temporarily suspend a state pilot's license: (a) When a pilot has been involved in any vessel accident where there has been major property damage, loss of life, or loss of a vessel, or (b) where there is a reasonable cause to believe that a pilot has diminished mental capacity or is under the influence of drugs, alcohol, or other substances, when in the opinion of the board, such an accident or physical or mental impairment would significantly diminish that pilot's ability to carry out pilotage duties and that the public health, safety, and welfare requires such emergency action. The board shall make a determination within seventy-two hours whether to continue the suspension. The board shall develop rules for exercising this authority including procedures for the chairperson or vice-chairperson of the board to temporarily order such suspensions, emergency meetings of the board to consider such suspensions, the length of suspension, opportunities for hearings, and an appeal process. The board shall develop rules under chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Baugher, the House concurred in the Senate amendment to House Bill No. 629.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of House Bill No. 629 as amended by the Senate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Fisch yielded to question by Ms. Schmidt.

Ms. Schmidt: Representative Fisch, I have a question regarding the Senate amendment to this bill and the potential effect that it might have on Section 1(3). As you know, subsections (1) and (2) of Section 1 provide several options for the Board of Pilotage Commissioners to discipline a state licensed pilot.

Section 1(3) directs the Board to implement a system of specified disciplinary or corrective actions that will be taken when a pilot has multiple disciplinary actions taken against the state license. The question that I have is whether all the disciplinary actions which the board may take--reprimands, fines, and suspension, withholding or revocation of a license--would be considered disciplinary actions against the pilot's license for the purposes of Section 1(3)?

Mr. Fisch: The answer to your question, Representative Schmidt, is yes. All of those disciplinary actions which the board may take are dependent on a person holding a state pilot's license, the Board is investigating those actions which reflect their qualifications to hold that license, and they would all apply as disciplinary actions against the pilot's license. This would include letters of reprimand and fines.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 629 as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Moyer, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruiitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

Excused: Representatives Gallagher, Walker - 2.

House Bill No. 629 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

April 16, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 630 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 1, chapter 207, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of pilotage commissioners of the state of Washington is hereby created and shall consist of the assistant secretary of marine transportation of the department of transportation of the state of Washington, or the assistant secretary's designee who shall be an employee of the ~~((department of transportation))~~ marine division, who shall be chairperson, and six members appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate. Each of said appointed commissioners shall be appointed for a term of four years from the date of said member's commission. No person shall be eligible for appointment to said board unless that person is at the time of appointment eighteen years of age or over and a citizen of the United States and of the state of Washington. Two of said appointed commissioners shall be pilots licensed under this chapter and actively engaged in piloting upon the waters covered by this chapter for at least three years immediately preceding the time of appointment and while serving on the board. One pilot shall be from the Puget Sound pilotage district and one shall be from the Grays Harbor pilotage district. Two of said appointed commissioners shall be actively engaged in the ownership, operation, or management of deep sea cargo and/or passenger carrying vessels for at least three years immediately preceding the time of appointment and while serving on the board. One of said shipping commissioners shall be a representative of American and one of foreign shipping. The remaining commissioners shall be persons interested in and concerned with pilotage, maritime safety, and marine affairs, ~~((with broad experience related to the maritime industry exclusive of experience as either a state licensed pilot or as a shipping representative))~~ and shall not have been a state licensed pilot or an employee of a company which owns or operates deep sea cargo or passenger carrying vessels for ten years preceding the appointment and shall not have any direct financial interest related to pilotage or with a company which owns or operates deep sea cargo or passenger carrying vessels.

(2) ~~((Pilotage commissioners holding commissions on September 21, 1977, shall continue to hold their office subject to reappointment by the governor and confirmation by the senate. The appointed commissioners shall continue to hold office for the period for which they are appointed and until their successors are appointed and qualified, except that the governor when first appointing commissioners after September 21, 1977, shall appoint the pilot representatives to terms of two and three years respectively, the shipping representatives to terms of two and three years respectively, and the remaining commissioners to terms of three and four years respectively.))~~ Any vacancy in an appointed position on the board shall be filled by the governor for the remainder of the unfilled term, subject to confirmation by the senate.

(3) Four members of the board shall constitute a quorum. At least one pilot, one shipping representative, and one public member must be present at every meeting. All commissioners and the chairperson shall have a vote.

Sec. 2. Section 14, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 9, chapter 15, Laws of 1967 and RCW 88.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any member of the board shall have power to administer oaths in any matter before the board for consideration or inquiry and to issue subpoenas requiring witnesses to appear before the board. Such subpoenas shall be signed by a member of the board and issued in the name of the state of Washington and be served and returned, and mileage and witness fees shall be paid in like manner and effect as in a civil action. A witness willfully disobeying such subpoena served upon ~~((him))~~ the witness shall be proceeded against upon complaint of the board to the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the county where ~~((his))~~ the attendance of the witness was demanded as for a contempt of the authority of the superior court of said county.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 2, chapter 207, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall apply to the pilotage districts of this state as defined in this section.

(1) 'Puget Sound pilotage district', whenever used in this chapter, shall be construed to mean and include all the waters of the state of Washington inside the international boundary line between the state of Washington, the United States and the province of British Columbia, Canada and east of one hundred twenty-three degrees twenty-four minutes west longitude.

(2) 'Grays Harbor pilotage district' shall include all inland waters, channels, waterways, and navigable tributaries within Grays Harbor and Willapa Harbor. The boundary line between Grays Harbor and Willapa Harbor and the high seas shall be ~~((a line drawn from Grays Harbor bar range rear light to Grays Harbor entrance lighted whistle buoy two, then to Grays Harbor light))~~ defined by the board.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 13, chapter 337, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.120 are each amended to read as follows:

No pilot shall charge, collect or receive and no person, firm, corporation or association shall pay for pilotage or other services performed hereunder any greater, less or different amount, directly or indirectly, than the rates or charges herein established or which may be hereafter fixed by the board pursuant to this chapter. Any pilot, person, firm, corporation or association violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished pursuant to RCW 88.16.150 as now or hereafter amended, said prosecution to be conducted by the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of any county wherein the offense or any part thereof was committed.

Sec. 5. Section 10, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 8, chapter 337, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In all cases where no other penalty is prescribed in this chapter, any violation of this chapter or of any rule or regulation of the board shall be punished as a gross misdemeanor, and all violations may be prosecuted in any court of competent jurisdiction in any county where the offense or any part thereof was committed. In any case where the offense was committed upon a ship, boat or vessel, and there is doubt as to the proper county, the same may be prosecuted in any county through any part of which the ship, boat or vessel passed, during the trip upon which the offense was committed. All fines collected for any violation of this chapter or any rule or regulation of the board shall within thirty days be paid by the official collecting the same to the state treasurer and shall be credited to the pilotage account: PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

(2) Notwithstanding any other penalty imposed by this section, any person who shall violate the provisions of this chapter, shall be liable to a maximum civil penalty of five thousand dollars. The board may request the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the county in which any violation of this chapter occurs to bring an action for imposing the civil penalties provided for in this subsection.

Moneys collected from civil penalties shall be deposited in the pilotage account.

(3) Any master of a vessel who shall knowingly fail to inform the pilot dispatched to said vessel or any agent, owner, or operator, who shall knowingly fail to inform the pilot dispatcher, or any dispatcher who shall knowingly fail to inform the pilot actually dispatched to said vessel of any special directions mandated by the coast guard captain of the port under authority of the Ports and Waterways Safety Act of 1972, as amended, for the handling of such vessel shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 88.16 RCW to read as follows:

Any steamship company or agent may submit a request in writing to the board that a particular pilot not be assigned to pilot that company's vessels. The request shall be based on specific safety concerns of the steamship company or agent.

The board shall notify interested persons and hold a hearing on that request, and either approve or disapprove the request. If the request is approved, the board shall notify the affected pilot and give the pilot a specific list of vessels for which that pilot shall not provide pilotage services."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 16, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 748 with the following amendments:

On page 3, after line 25, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 171, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 126, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.450 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time the urban arterial board reviews the six-year program of each county and city each even-numbered year, it shall consider and shall approve for inclusion in its recommended budget, as required by RCW 47.26.440, the portion of the urban arterial construction program scheduled to be performed during the biennial period beginning the following July 1st. Subject to the appropriations actually approved by the legislature, the board shall as soon as feasible approve urban arterial trust account funds to be spent during the ensuing biennium for preliminary proposals in priority sequence as established pursuant to RCW 47.26.240. In the case of projects whose total cost exceeds one million dollars as reflected in the six-year program, the agency with jurisdiction shall furnish to the board a value engineering study performed by an interagency team approved by the board, to determine whether the proposed improvement provides a cost-effective solution for the project before the board may approve urban arterial trust funds for either the preliminary or construction phase of the project. The board may authorize a variance from the value engineering study upon a determination that the study is not warranted. The board may also require a value engineering study for a project whose total cost is less than one million dollars upon a determination by the board that the study is warranted.

The board shall authorize urban arterial trust account funds for the construction project portion of a project previously authorized for a preliminary proposal in the sequence in which the preliminary proposal has been completed and the construction project is to be placed under contract. At such time the board may reserve urban arterial trust account funds for expenditure in future years as may be necessary for completion of preliminary proposals and construction projects to be commenced in the ensuing biennium.

The urban arterial board may, within the constraints of available urban arterial trust funds, consider additional projects for authorization upon a clear and conclusive showing by the submitting local government that the proposed project is of an emergent nature and that its need was unable to be anticipated at the time the six-year program of the local government was developed. Such proposed projects shall be evaluated on the basis of the priority rating factors specified in RCW 47.26.220."

On line 2 of the title, after "47.26.190" and before the period, insert "and 47.26.450" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Baugher, the House concurred in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 748.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of House Bill No. 748 as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 748 as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 94; nays, 2; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Moyer, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 94.

Voting nay: Representatives Barnes, Sanders - 2.

Excused: Representatives Gallagher, Walker - 2.

House Bill No. 748 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) declared the House to be at ease.
The House was called to order by the Speaker.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Jeanne Smith, Intern Coordinator for the House of Representatives, who introduced the administrative officer for the office of the speaker of the British Columbia Parliament and eight interns from the British Columbia Parliament.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Ms. Hine: I would like to say, on behalf of this group, to our interns how pleased we are to have you and to share with you how much we value the interns that we have had here. We hope your stay is enjoyable, that you learn about our system, and we hope that some of us can come up to visit you one of these days.

There being no objection, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 831, by Representatives Leonard, Madsen and Hankins

Increasing retained percentage for horse racing commission from specified races.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Commerce & Labor recommendation: Majority, do pass. Committee on Ways & Means recommendation: Majority, do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 13, after "(~~twenty two~~)" strike "forty" and insert "thirty-one"

On motion of Mr. Grimm, the committee amendment was adopted.

Mr. Patrick moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Patrick, Wang, Appelwick, Madsen, Leonard, Lewis, May and Brough:

On page 2, after line 8, insert the following:

*Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 as last amended by section 1, chapter 216, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 67.16.012 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the Washington horse racing commission, to consist of three commissioners, ~~((who))~~ appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate. The commissioners shall be citizens, residents, and qualified electors of the state of Washington. ~~((and))~~ one of whom shall be a breeder of race horses and ~~((he))~~ shall be of at least one year's standing. ~~((The first members of said commission shall be appointed by the governor within thirty days after March 3, 1933, one for a term to expire on the Thursday following the second Monday in January of 1935, one for a term to expire on the Thursday following the second Monday in January of 1937, and one for a term to expire on the Thursday following the second Monday in January of 1939, upon which expiration of the term of any member, the governor shall appoint a successor for a term of))~~ The terms of the members shall be six years. Each member shall hold office until his or her successor is appointed and qualified. Vacancies in the office of commissioner shall be filled by appointment to be made by the governor for the unexpired term. Any commissioner may be removed at any time at the pleasure of the governor ~~((PROVIDED: That any member or successor that is appointed or reappointed by the governor after August 11, 1969, shall be confirmed by the senate))~~. Before entering upon the duties of his or her office, each commissioner shall enter into a surety company bond, to be approved by the governor and attorney general, payable to the state of Washington, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his or her duties and the correct accounting and payment of all sums received and coming within his or her control under this chapter, and in addition thereto each commissioner shall take and subscribe to an oath of office of the same form as that prescribed by law for elective state officers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 67.16 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to the commission members appointed under RCW 67.16.012, there shall be four ex officio nonvoting members consisting of: (1) Two members of the senate, one from the majority political party and one from the minority political party, both to be appointed by the president of the senate; and (2) two members of the house of representatives, one from the majority political party and one from the minority political party, both to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The appointments shall be for the term of two years or for the period in which the appointee serves as a legislator, whichever expires first. Members may be reappointed, and vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments are made. The ex officio members shall assist in the policy making, rather than administrative, functions of the commission, and shall collect data deemed essential to future legislative proposals and exchange information with the commission. The ex officio members shall be deemed engaged in legislative business while in attendance upon the business of the commission and shall be limited to such allowances therefor as otherwise provided in RCW 44.04.120, the same to be paid from the horse racing commission fund as being expenses relative to commission business.

This section shall expire on October 31, 1991."

Representatives Patrick and Wang spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Patrick, the following amendments by Representatives Patrick, Wang, Appelwick, Madsen, Leonard, Lewis, May and Brough to the title were adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "commission;" strike "and"

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "67.16.175" insert "and 67.16.012; and adding a new section to chapter 67.16 RCW"

The bill was ordered engrossed. On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Ms. Leonard spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Substitute House Bill No. 638 was read the second time. On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Walk and J. Williams spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. B. Williams opposed it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 638, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 58; nays, 38; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Brekke, Bristow, Cantwell, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Grimm, Hargrove, Haugen, Hine, Jacobsen, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Madsen, McMullen, Meyers, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Scott, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 58.

Voting nay: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Ballard, Barnes, Beck, Betzoff, Braddock, Brooks, Brough, Bumgarner, Chandler, Doty, Ferguson, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Heavey, Holland, Holm, Jesernig, Lux, May, McLean, Miller, Moyer, Nealey, Padden, Patrick, Sanders, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Valle, Williams B, Williams J, Winsley - 38.

Excused: Representatives Gallagher, Walker - 2.

Substitute House Bill No. 638, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1225, by Representatives Brekke, Sayan, Lewis, Braddock, Sprenkle, Nelson, Allen, Jacobsen, Grimm, Appelwick, Wineberry, Hine, Niemi, Hargrove, Bristow, Belcher, Lux and P. King

Developing and implementing prepaid capitated dental hygiene and care programs for medical assistance recipients.

The bill was read the second time. On motion of Mr. Braddock, Substitute House Bill No. 1225 was substituted for House Bill No. 1225 and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 1225 was read the second time. On motion of Mr. McMullen, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Ms. Brekke spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Brekke yielded to question by Mr. May.

Mr. May: I guess it's in the budget, but what are the financial implications of this, please?

Ms. Brekke: The adult dental care is in the budget. I believe it is about $18 million plus for state general fund, plus $41 million or $43 million total (because it is more than double) in the federal. There is language in the budget that institutes this prepaid plan. The intention behind the bill and that prepaid plan is to save money.

Mr. May: Are those the numbers when fully implemented, or is that for the next two years, the biennium?

Ms. Brekke: The adult dental will be for the full two years.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1225, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Moyer, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

Excused: Representatives Gallagher, Walker - 2.

Substitute House Bill No. 1225, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. McMullen, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5720 was rereferred from the second reading calendar to Committee on Rules.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 16, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 24 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 82.38 RCW to read as follows:

There is exempted from the tax imposed by this chapter the use of special fuel for the operation of a motor vehicle as a part of or incidental to logging operations upon a highway under federal jurisdiction within the boundaries of a federal area if the federal government requires a fee for the privilege of operating the motor vehicle upon the highway, the proceeds of which are reserved for constructing or maintaining roads in the federal area, or requires maintenance or construction work to be performed on the highway for the privilege of operating the motor vehicle on the highway."

On line 1 of the title, after "payments;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and adding a new section to chapter 82.38 RCW."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 13, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 164 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 19, chapter 222, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 44, chapter 52, Laws of 1957 and RCW 18.85.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every licensed real estate broker shall keep adequate records of all real estate transactions handled by or through him. The records shall include, but are not limited to, a copy of the earnest money receipt, and an itemization of the broker's receipts and disbursements with each transaction. These records and all other records hereinafter specified shall be open to inspection by the director or his authorized representatives.

(2) Every real estate broker shall also deliver or cause to be delivered to all parties signing the same, at the time of signing, conformed copies of all earnest money receipts, listing agreements and all other like or similar instruments signed by the parties, including the closing statement.

(3) Every real estate broker shall also keep separate real estate fund accounts in a recognized Washington state depository authorized to receive funds in which shall be kept separate and apart and physically segregated from licensee broker's own funds, all funds or moneys of clients which are being held by such licensee broker pending the closing of a real estate sale or transaction, or which have been collected for said client and are being held for disbursement for or to said client and such funds shall be deposited not later than the first banking day following receipt thereof.

(4) Separate accounts comprised of clients' funds required to be maintained under this section, with the exception of property management trust accounts, shall be interest-bearing accounts from which withdrawals or transfers can be made without delay, subject only to the notice period which the depository institution is required to reserve by law or regulation.

(5) Every real estate broker shall maintain a pooled interest-bearing escrow account for deposit of client funds, with the exception of property management trust accounts, which are nominal or short term. As used in this section, a 'nominal or short term' deposit is a deposit which, if placed in a separate account, would not produce positive net interest income after payment of bank fees, or other institution fees, and other administrative expenses.

The interest accruing on this account, net of any reasonable transaction costs, shall be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the Washington housing trust fund created in RCW 43.185.030. An agent may, but shall not be required to, notify the client of the intended use of such funds.

(6) All client funds not deposited in the account specified in subsection (5) of this section shall be deposited in:

(a) A separate interest-bearing trust account for the particular client or client's matter on which the interest will be paid to the client; or

(b) A pooled interest-bearing trust account with subaccounting that will provide for computation of interest earned by each client's funds and the payment thereof to the client.

The department of licensing shall promulgate regulations which will serve as guidelines in the choice of an account specified in subsection (5) of this section or an account specified in this subsection.

(7) For an account created under subsection (5) of this section, an agent shall direct the depository institution to:

(a) Remit interest or dividends, net of any reasonable service charges or fees, on the average monthly balance in the account, or as otherwise computed in accordance with an institution's standard accounting practice, at least quarterly, to the state treasurer for deposit in the housing trust fund created by RCW 43.185.030 and the real estate commission account created by RCW 18.85.220 as directed by section 10 of this 1987 act; and

(b) Transmit to the director of community development a statement showing the name of the person or entity for whom the remittance is spent, the rate of interest applied, and the amount of service charges deducted, if any, and the account balance(s) of the period in which the report is made, with a copy of such statement to be transmitted to the depositing person or firm.

(8) The director shall forward a copy of the reports required by subsection (7) of this section to the department of licensing to aid in the enforcement of the requirements of this section consistent with the normal enforcement and auditing practices of the department of licensing.

(9) This section does not relieve any real estate broker from any obligation with respect to the safekeeping of clients' funds.

(10) Any violation by a real estate broker of any of the provisions of this section, or RCW 18.85.230, shall be grounds for revocation of the licenses issued to the broker.

Sec. 2. Section 11, chapter 298, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.185.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall have the authority to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, regarding the grant and loan process, and the substance of eligible projects, consistent with this chapter. The department shall consider the recommendations of cities and counties regarding how the funds shall be used in their geographic areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.185 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall prepare an annual report and shall send copies to the chair of the house of representatives committee on housing, the chair of the senate committee on commerce and labor, and one copy to the staff of each committee that summarizes the housing trust fund's income, grants and operating expenses, implementation of its program, and any problems arising in the administration thereof. The director shall promptly appoint a low income housing assistance advisory committee composed of a representative from each of the following groups: Apartment owners, realtors, mortgage lending or servicing institutions, private non-profit housing assistance programs, tenant associations, and public housing assistance programs. The advisory group shall advise the director on housing needs in this state, operational aspects of the grant and loan program or revenue collection programs established by this chapter, and implementation of the policy and goals of this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 298, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.185.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that current economic conditions, federal housing policies and declining resources at the federal, state, and local level adversely affect the ability of low and very low-income persons to obtain safe, decent, and affordable housing.

The legislature further finds that members of over one hundred twenty thousand households live in housing units which are overcrowded, lack plumbing, are otherwise threatening to health and safety, and have rents and utility payments which exceed thirty percent of their income.

The legislature further finds that the homeless, minorities, rural households, and migrant farm workers require housing assistance at a rate which significantly exceeds their proportion of the general population.

The legislature further finds that one of the most dramatic housing ~~((needs))~~ problems is that of persons ~~((needing special housing-related services))~~ with specialized housing needs, such as the mentally ill, recovering alcoholics, frail elderly persons, and single parents. ~~((These services include medical assistance, counseling, chore services, and child care.))~~

The legislature further finds that housing assistance programs in the past have often failed to help those in greatest need.

The legislature declares that it is in the public interest to establish a continuously renewable resource known as a housing trust fund to assist low and very low-income citizens in meeting their basic housing needs, and that the needs of very low-income citizens should be given priority.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 298, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.185.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall use funds from the housing trust fund to finance in whole or in part any loans or grant projects that will provide housing for the homeless and persons and families with special housing needs and with incomes at or below fifty percent of the median family income for the county or standard metropolitan statistical area where the project is located. Not less than thirty percent of such funds used in any given biennium shall be for the benefit of projects located in rural areas as defined in 63 Stat. 432, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1471 et seq.

(2) Activities eligible for assistance include, but are not limited to:

(a) New construction, rehabilitation, or acquisition of low and very low-income housing units;

(b) Rent subsidies in new construction or rehabilitated multifamily units;

(c) ~~((Matching funds for social services directly related to providing housing for special-need tenants in assisted projects;~~

~~((d))~~ Technical assistance, design and finance services and consultation, and administrative costs for eligible nonprofit community or neighborhood-based organizations, so long as said assistance is directed toward construction or rehabilitation of housing;

~~((e))~~ (d) Administrative costs for housing assistance groups or organizations when such grant or loan will substantially increase the recipient's access to housing funds other than those available under this chapter;

~~((f))~~ (e) Shelters and related services for the homeless;

~~((g))~~ (f) Mortgage subsidies for new construction or rehabilitation of eligible multifamily units;

~~((h))~~ (g) Mortgage insurance guarantee or payments for eligible projects; and

~~((i))~~ (h) Acquisition of housing units for the purpose of preservation as low-income or very low-income housing.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 298, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.185.030 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a fund in the office of the treasurer known as the Washington housing trust fund. ~~((The treasurer shall serve as the trustee thereof and shall make disbursements therefrom as directed by this chapter.))~~ The housing trust fund shall include revenue from the sources established by this chapter, appropriations by the legislature, private contributions, and all other sources. Eighty percent of the return on the fund in the form of investment income or interest shall be added to the principal of the fund. The remaining twenty percent shall be placed in the general fund.

Sec. 7. Section 24, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 375, Laws of 1985 and RCW 67.70.240 are each amended to read as follows:

The moneys in the state lottery account shall be used only: (1) For the payment of prizes to the holders of winning lottery tickets or shares; (2) for purposes of making deposits into the reserve account created by RCW 67.70.250 and into the lottery administrative account created by RCW 67.70.260; (3) for purposes of making deposits into the state's general fund; (4) for purposes of making deposits into the housing trust fund under the provisions of section 7 of this 1987 act; (5) for the purchase and promotion of lottery games and game-related services; and ((5)) (6) for the payment of agent compensation.

The office of financial management shall require the allotment of all expenses paid from the account and shall report to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives any changes in the allotments.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 18.85 RCW to read as follows:

There is hereby created the broker's trust account board to consist of seven members as follows:

(1) The governor shall appoint six members with at least two residing east of the Cascade range of mountains. The governor may review nominations from the Washington association of realtors, private, nonprofit housing assistance programs, and any state-wide association of public housing authorities. Three of these appointments shall be real estate brokers or salespersons licensed under chapter 18.85 RCW. The governor shall attempt to maintain a balance of interests represented through the choice of appointees.

(2) The real estate commission, created under this chapter, shall appoint one member.

(3) Members shall serve for terms of three years expiring on January 15: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That of the members appointed by the governor, two shall be appointed for a term of one year, two for a term of two years, and two for a term of three years. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of the board shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by the individual or entity responsible for the original appointment.

Members shall serve without compensation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 18.85 RCW to read as follows:

Remittances received by the treasurer pursuant to RCW 18.85.310 shall be divided between the housing trust fund created by RCW 43.185.030, which shall receive seventy-five percent and the real estate commission account created by RCW 18.85.220, which shall receive twenty-five percent.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 18.85 RCW to read as follows:

The broker's trust account board shall review grant and loan applications placed before it by the director for final approval pursuant to section 11 of this act.

The decisions of the board shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 43.185.050, 43.185.060, and 43.185.070 with regard to eligible activities, eligible recipients, and criteria for evaluation.

The broker's trust account board shall serve in an advisory capacity to the real estate commission with regard to licensee education programs established pursuant to RCW 18.85.040 and 18.85.220.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 18.85 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall designate grant and loan applications for approval and for funding under the revenue from remittances made pursuant to RCW 18.85.310. These applications shall then be reviewed for final approval by the broker's trust account board created by section 8 of this act.

The director shall submit to the broker's trust account board within any fiscal year only such applications which in their aggregate total funding requirements do not exceed the revenue to the housing trust fund from remittances made pursuant to RCW 18.85.310 for the previous fiscal year.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. There is hereby appropriated from the housing trust fund to the department of community development for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, the sum of twelve million dollars, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, to implement the purposes of chapter 43.185 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. This act does not apply to public corporations created by chapter 35.82 RCW until October 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. This act shall take effect January 1, 1988."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "fund;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 18.85.310, 43.185.100, 43.185.010, 43.185.050, 43.185.030, 67.70.190, and 67.70.240; adding a new section to chapter 43.185 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 18.85 RCW; creating a new section; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 17, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 171 with the following amendments:

On page 4, after line 33, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 28B.50.100, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 224, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28B.50.100 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a community college board of trustees for each community college district as set forth in this chapter. Each community college board of trustees shall be composed of five trustees, who shall be appointed by the governor for terms commencing October 1st of the year in which appointed. In making such appointments the governor shall give consideration to geographical exigencies, and the interests of labor, industry, agriculture, the professions and ethnic groups.

The successors of the trustees initially appointed shall be appointed by the governor to serve for a term of five years except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term shall be appointed only for the remainder of the term. Each member shall serve until a successor is appointed and qualified.

Every trustee shall be a resident and qualified elector of the community college district. No trustee may be an employee of the community college system, a member of the board of directors of any school district, or a member of the governing board of any public or private educational institution(~~(-or an elected officer or member of the legislative authority of any municipal corporation)).~~)

Each board of trustees shall organize itself by electing a chairman from its members. The board shall adopt a seal and may adopt such bylaws, rules and regulations as it deems necessary for its own government. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner as prescribed in its bylaws, rules, or regulations. The district president, or if there be none, the president of the community college, shall serve as, or may designate another person to serve as, the secretary of the board, who shall not be deemed to be a member of the board.

Members of the boards of trustees may be removed for misconduct or malfeasance in office in the manner provided by RCW 28B.10.500."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "28B.50.140" insert "and 28B.50.100" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 15, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 857 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that encouraging outstanding students to enter the teaching profession is of paramount importance to the state of Washington. By creating the future teachers conditional scholarship program, the legislature intends to assist in the effort to recruit as future teachers students who have distinguished themselves through outstanding academic achievement and students who can act as role models for children including those from targeted ethnic minorities. The legislature urges business, industry, and philanthropic community organizations to join with state government in making this program successful.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Conditional scholarship' means a loan that is forgiven in whole or in part if the recipient renders service as a teacher in the public schools of this state.

(2) 'Institution of higher education' or 'institution' means a college or university in the state of Washington which is accredited by an accrediting association recognized as such by rule of the higher education coordinating board.

(3) 'Board' means the higher education coordinating board.

(4) 'Eligible student' means a student who is registered for at least ten credit hours or the equivalent, demonstrates achievement of at least a 3.30 grade point average for students entering an institution of higher education directly from high school or maintains at least a 3.00 grade point average or the equivalent for each academic year in an institution of higher education, is a resident student as defined by RCW 28B.15.012 through 28B.15.015, and has a declared intention to complete an approved preparation program leading to initial teacher certification or required for earning an additional endorsement, or a college or university graduate who meets the same credit hour requirements and is seeking an additional teaching endorsement or initial teacher certification.

(5) 'Public school' means an elementary school, a middle school, junior high school, or high school within the public school system referred to in Article IX of the state Constitution.

(6) 'Forgiven' or 'to forgive' or 'forgiveness' means to render service as a teacher at a public school in the state of Washington in lieu of monetary repayment.

(7) 'Satisfied' means paid-in-full.

(8) 'Participant' means an eligible student who has received a conditional scholarship under this chapter.

(9) 'Targeted ethnic minority' means a group of Americans with a common ethnic or racial heritage selected by the board for program consideration due to societal concerns such as high dropout rates or low rates of college participation by members of the group.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The future teachers conditional scholarship program is established. The program shall be administered by the higher education coordinating board. In administering the program, the board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Select students to receive conditional scholarships, with the assistance of a screening committee composed of teachers and leaders in government, business, and education;

(2) Adopt necessary rules and guidelines;

(3) Publicize the program;

(4) Collect and manage repayments from students who do not meet their teaching obligations under this chapter; and

(5) Solicit and accept grants and donations from public and private sources for the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The higher education coordinating board shall establish a planning committee to develop criteria for the screening and selection of recipients of the conditional scholarships. These criteria shall emphasize factors demonstrating excellence including but not limited to superior scholastic achievement, leadership ability, community contributions, and an ability to act as a role model for targeted ethnic minority students. These criteria also may include, for approximately half of the recipients, requirements that those recipients meet the definition of 'needy student' under RCW 28B.10.802.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The board may award conditional scholarships to eligible students from the funds appropriated to the board for this purpose, or from any private donations, or any other funds given to the board for this program. The amount of the conditional scholarship awarded an individual shall not exceed three thousand dollars per academic year. Students are eligible to receive conditional scholarships for a maximum of five years.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. (1) Participants in the conditional scholarship program incur an obligation to repay the conditional scholarship, with interest, unless they teach for ten years in the public schools of the state of Washington, under rules adopted by the board.

(2) The terms of the repayment, including deferral of the interest, shall be consistent with the terms of the federal guaranteed loan program.

(3) The period for repayment shall be ten years, with payments accruing quarterly commencing nine months from the date the participant completes or discontinues the course of study.

(4) The entire principal and interest of each payment shall be forgiven for each payment period in which the participant teaches in a public school until the entire repayment obligation is satisfied or the borrower ceases to teach at a public school in this state. Should the participant cease to teach at a public school in this state before the participant's repayment obligation is completed, payments on the unsatisfied portion of the principal and interest shall begin the next payment period and continue until the remainder of the participant's repayment obligation is satisfied.

(5) The board is responsible for collection of repayments made under this section and shall exercise due diligence in such collection, maintaining all necessary records to insure that maximum repayments are made. Collection and servicing of repayments under this section shall be pursued using the full extent of the law, including wage garnishment if necessary, and shall be performed by entities approved for such servicing by the Washington student loan guaranty association or its successor agency. The board is responsible to forgive all or parts of such repayments under the criteria established in this section and shall maintain all necessary records of forgiven payments.

(6) Receipts from the payment of principal or interest or any other subsidies to which the board as administrator is entitled, which are paid by or on behalf of participants under this section, shall be deposited with the higher education coordinating board and shall be used to cover the costs of granting the conditional scholarships, maintaining necessary records, and making collections under subsection (5) of this section. The board shall maintain accurate records of these costs, and all receipts beyond those necessary to pay such costs shall be used to grant conditional scholarships to eligible students.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. After consulting with the higher education coordinating board, the governor may transfer the administration of this program to another agency with an appropriate educational mission.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28B RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. No conditional scholarships shall be granted after June 30, 1994, until the program is reviewed by the legislative budget committee and is reenacted by the legislature.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "teachers;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 28B RCW; and creating a new section."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

Substitute House Bill No. 857 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 13, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 995 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds:

(a) That manufactured housing and mobile home parks provide a source of low-cost housing to the low income, elderly, poor and infirmed, without which they could not afford private housing; but rising costs of mobile home park development and operation, as well as turnover in ownership, has resulted in mobile home park living becoming unaffordable to the low income, elderly, poor and infirmed, resulting in increased numbers of homeless persons, and persons who must look to public housing and public programs, increasing the burden on the state to meet the housing needs of its residents;

(b) That state government can play a vital role in addressing the problems confronted by mobile home park residents by providing assistance which makes it possible for mobile home park residents to acquire the mobile home parks in which they reside and convert them to resident ownership; and

(c) That to accomplish this purpose, information and technical support shall be made available through the department of community development.

(2) Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature, in order to maintain low-cost housing in mobile home parks to benefit the low income, elderly, poor and infirmed, to encourage and facilitate the conversion of mobile home parks to resident ownership, to protect low-income mobile home park residents from both physical and economic displacement, to obtain a high level of private financing for mobile home park conversions, and to help establish acceptance for resident-owned mobile home parks in the private market.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The following definitions shall apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) 'Affordable' means that, where feasible, low-income residents should not pay more than thirty percent of their monthly income for housing costs.

(2) 'Conversion costs' includes the cost of acquiring the mobile home park, the costs of planning and processing the conversion, the costs of any needed repairs or rehabilitation, and any expenditures required by a government agency or lender for the project.

(3) 'Department' means the department of community development.

(4) 'Fund' means the mobile home park purchase fund created pursuant to section 4 of this act.

(5) 'Housing costs' means the total cost of owning, occupying, and maintaining a mobile home and a lot or space in a mobile home park.

(6) 'Individual interest in a mobile home park' means any interest which is fee ownership or a lesser interest which entitles the holder to occupy a lot or space in a mobile home park for a period of not less than either fifteen years or the life of the holder. Individual interests in a mobile home park include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Ownership of a lot or space in a mobile home park or subdivision;

(b) A membership or shares in a stock cooperative, or a limited equity housing cooperative; or

(c) Membership in a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation which owns, operates, or owns and operates the mobile home park.

(7) 'Low-income resident' means an individual or household who resided in the mobile home park prior to application for a loan pursuant to this chapter and with an annual income at or below eighty percent of the median income for the county of standard metropolitan statistical area of residence. Net worth shall be considered in the calculation of income with the exception of the resident's mobile/manufactured home which is used as their primary residence.

(8) 'Low-income spaces' means those spaces in a mobile home park operated by a resident organization which are occupied by low-income residents.

(9) 'Mobile home park' means a mobile home park, as defined in RCW 59.20.030(4), or a manufactured home park subdivision as defined by RCW 59.20.030(6) created by the conversion to resident ownership of a mobile home park.

(10) 'Resident organization' means a group of mobile home park residents who have formed a nonprofit corporation, cooperative corporation, or other entity or organization for the purpose of acquiring the mobile home park in which they reside and converting the mobile home park to resident ownership. The membership of a resident organization shall include at least two-thirds of the households residing in the mobile home park at the time of application for assistance from the department.

(11) 'Resident ownership' means, depending on the context, either the ownership, by a resident organization, as defined in this section, of an interest in a mobile home park which entitles the resident organization to control the operations of the mobile home park for a term of no less than fifteen years, or the ownership of individual interests in a mobile home park, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Nothing in this chapter shall limit the park owner's right to exert full management and control of a portion of a park retained in the case of a sale of a portion of a mobile home park to a resident organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The mobile home park purchase fund is hereby created and shall be maintained in the office of the treasurer. The purpose of this fund is to provide loans according to the provisions of this chapter and for related administrative costs of the department. The fund shall include appropriations, loan repayments, interest, and any other money from private sources made available to the state for the purposes of this chapter. Owners of mobile home parks shall not be assessed for the purposes of this fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Subject to appropriation, the department may make loans from the fund to resident organizations for the purpose of financing mobile home park conversion costs, as defined in this chapter.

(2) Loans provided pursuant to this section shall be for a term of no more than three years and shall bear interest at a competitive rate set by the department and adjusted by the department when necessary.

(3) Loans granted pursuant to this section shall be for the least amount necessary to enable a resident organization to acquire and convert the mobile home park in which its members reside. However, in no case shall the loan amount exceed fifty percent of the approved conversion costs.

(4) The department shall only make loans to resident organizations of mobile home parks where a significant portion of the residents are low income, elderly, poor or infirmed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The department may make loans from the fund to low-income residents of mobile home parks converted to resident ownership or to resident organizations which have converted or plan to convert a mobile home park to resident ownership. The purpose of providing loans pursuant to this section is to reduce the monthly housing costs for low-income residents to an affordable level.

(2) Loans provided pursuant to this section shall be for a term of no more than thirty years and shall bear interest at a competitive rate set by the department.

(3) The department may establish flexible repayment terms for loans provided pursuant to this section if the terms are necessary to reduce monthly housing costs for low-income residents to an affordable level and do not represent an unacceptable risk to the security of the fund.

(4) Loans provided to low-income residents pursuant to this section shall be for the least amount necessary to reduce the borrower's monthly housing costs to an affordable level. However, in no case shall loan amounts exceed fifty percent of the acquisition costs of the individual interests in the mobile home parks. In addition, the total indebtedness upon individual interests may not exceed ninety percent of the value of the interests.

(5) Loans provided to resident organizations pursuant to this section shall be for the least amount necessary to reduce the monthly housing costs of low-income residents to an affordable level. However, in no case shall the loan amounts exceed fifty percent of the conversions costs attributable to the low-income spaces. Funds provided pursuant to this section shall not be used to assist residents who are not low-income, or to reduce monthly housing costs for low-income residents to less than thirty percent of their monthly income.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In determining the eligibility for, and the amount of, loans pursuant to sections 5 and 6 of this act, the department shall take into consideration, among other factors, all of the following: (1) The reasonableness of the conversion costs relating to repairs, rehabilitation, construction, or other costs; (2) whether or not the project complements the implementation of a local housing program to preserve or increase the supply of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income; (3) whether or not state funds are utilized in the most efficient and effective manner in the furtherance of the goals of this chapter; and (4) any administrative and security factors affecting the department's program operation and administration.

To the extent consistent with requests for assistance, the department shall allocate funds available for the purposes of this chapter throughout the state in accordance with identified housing needs, including seeking to allocate not less than twenty percent to rural areas.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. (1) The department shall adopt regulations for the administration and implementation of this chapter.

(2) The department shall obtain the best available security for loans made pursuant to this chapter. The security may be in the form of a note, deed of trust, assignment of lease, or other form of security on real or personal property which the department determines is adequate to protect the security of the fund and the interests of the state. To the extent applicable, these security documents shall be recorded or referenced in a recorded document in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the mobile home park is located.

(3) The department shall exercise sufficient regulatory control with respect to park operations to assure the accomplishment of the purposes of the program authorized by this chapter.

(4) Before providing financing pursuant to this chapter, the department shall require provision of, and approve, at least the following:

(a) Verification that at least two-thirds of the households residing in the mobile home park support the plan for acquisition and conversion of the park;

(b) Verification that either no park residents will be involuntarily displaced as a result of the park conversion, or the impacts of displacement will be mitigated so as not to impose an unreasonable hardship on the displaced resident or residents;

(c) Verification that the conversion is consistent with local zoning and land use requirements, other applicable state and local laws, and regulations and ordinances;

(d) Projected costs and sources of funds for all conversion activities;

(e) Projected operating budget for the park during and after conversion;

(f) A management plan for the conversion and operation of the park; and

(g) If necessary, a relocation plan, funded by the resident organization, for residents not participating.

(5) The department shall, to the greatest extent feasible, do both of the following:

(a) Require participation by cities and counties in loan applications submitted pursuant to this chapter; and

(b) Contract with private lenders or units of local government to provide program administration and to service loans made pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. (1) The department shall provide technical assistance to resident organizations or low-income residents who wish to convert the mobile home park in which they reside to resident ownership or to acquire an individual interest in a mobile home park. Technical assistance provided under this section shall be general in nature and shall not include the final details connected with the sale or conversion of a mobile home park which would require the department to act in a representative capacity, or would require the department to draft documents affecting legal or property rights of the parties.

(2) As part of the general assistance to mobile home resident organizations, park owners, and landlords and tenants, the department shall establish an office of mobile home affairs which will serve as the coordinating office within state government for matters relating to mobile homes or manufactured housing.

This office will provide an ombudsman service to mobile home park owners and mobile home tenants with respect to problems and disputes between park owners and park residents and to provide technical assistance under subsection (1) of this section. The office will keep records of its activities in this area.

This office will also provide an ombudsman service to mobile home park owners and mobile home tenants with respect to accessing governmental services related to health and safety within mobile home parks.

This office will further recommend policies and strategies that will promote the development and utilization of mobile homes or manufactured housing and the conversion of mobile home parks to resident ownership as a means of enhancing the supply of safe, sanitary, low and moderate-income housing within the state, and advise the legislature, executive agencies of state government, and local government entities accordingly.

The office may not consider, evaluate, or develop policies or any means of government controlling the economic return to mobile home park owners resulting from operation of their parks.

(3) The department shall establish the mobile home and manufactured housing affairs advisory committee. The committee shall consist of five members appointed by the director of the department of community development. The committee shall be comprised of one representative of mobile home park tenants, one representative of mobile home park owners, and one representative of the public at large, each of whom shall be knowledgeable and have practical experience with the mobile home landlord tenant act, one representative of mobile home manufacturers and one representative of local governments. Only the representatives of the mobile home park tenants, mobile home park owners, and the public at large shall review and advise the office on issues relating to the mobile home landlord tenant act. The director of the department of community development shall appoint the committee chairperson. The entire committee shall advise the office in implementing the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section. The members of the committee shall not receive compensation or reimbursement for travel expenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Within two years of the completion of a sufficient number of mobile home park conversions to allow for meaningful evaluation, the department shall undertake an evaluation of the program established by this chapter, and submit its findings to the legislature. However, in no event shall this report be submitted later than December 31, 1990. This evaluation shall include an examination of the financial, governmental, and institutional constraints on the conversion of mobile home parks; the impact of park conversions upon low-income residents, including those residents who moved from the parks during the conversion process or within one year after conversion; the distribution and average income and assets of residents who have participated; data on loan delinquencies and defaults; the costs of acquiring and converting mobile home parks to resident ownership; and a comparison of different resident ownership structures financed pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 59 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This chapter shall remain in effect until July 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless that date is extended."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "assistance," strike the remainder of the title, and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 59 RCW; and providing an expiration date." and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 14, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1132 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) The legislature recognizes that the economic base of the Tri-Cities is overly dependent upon congressional appropriations to the nuclear activities on the Hanford reservation. Frequent fluctuations in federal appropriations have resulted in a local economy which is unstable and which has limited flexibility to respond to important shifts in federal policy. Additionally, many jobs in the Tri-Cities area may be permanently lost when the Hanford N reactor ceases operations. The legislature finds that it is in the best interests of the state and the Tri-Cities area to develop a more balanced and diversified Tri-Cities economy which is better able to meet the long-term employment needs of local citizens.

(2) The department of trade and economic development shall initiate a study to investigate the state's role in the economic diversification of the Tri-Cities economy. The department is authorized to undertake portions of this study by contracting with private firms or through the development of required feasibility studies. The department shall develop the study in conjunction with the department of community development.

(3) The study shall focus on:

(a) The need for expanded higher education capabilities in the Tri-Cities area;

(b) Methods of utilizing the following economic development assets of the Tri-Cities area to diversify the economy:

(i) The large concentration of scientists and engineers;

(ii) An extensive scientific and technological knowledge base;

(iii) The availability of land and real estate;

(iv) The availability of rail, air, and highway transportation; and

(v) Accessibility to outdoor recreational activities;

(c) Methods of addressing the economic development liabilities of the Tri-Cities area, including isolation from major markets, suppliers, and sources of capital;

(d) Potential markets for the Tri-Cities services and products;

(e) The availability of venture capital and other potential funding sources;

(f) The commercialization of federally-developed technology by assisting and promoting the transfer of technology into commercial applications; and

(g) The development of a plan to diversify the industrial base of the Tri-Cities.

(4) The following entities shall be consulted in conducting the study: The Tri-City industrial development council, the administration and faculty of the Tri-City University Center and the Columbia Basin College, the Tri-City visitor and convention bureau, the area chambers of commerce, the area port districts, the cities of Pasco, Kennewick, Richland, West Richland, and Benton City, the United States department of energy, Hanford contractors, the economic development board, the small business export finance center, the small business development corporations established under RCW 28B.30.530, the agricultural community and other relevant state agencies.

(5) The department shall submit a final report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature no later than January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "Cities;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating a new section; and declaring an emergency."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Vekich, the House concurred in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1132.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1132 as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1132 as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Moyer, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE MEMORIAL

April 16, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 4023 with the following amendment:

On page 1, strike everything after line 7, and insert the following:

"WHEREAS, For forty years, nuclear defense waste has been accumulating at the federal reservation at Hanford, Washington; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Energy has identified more than four hundred thousand cubic yards of transuranic, tank, and high-level radioactive waste at the Hanford Reservation; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Energy has identified more than sixty thousand cubic yards of additional wastes to be generated at the Hanford Reservation in the next twelve years; and

WHEREAS, A draft report of the United States Department of Energy has identified at least three hundred thirty sites on the Hanford Reservation which include both chemical and radioactive wastes (mixed wastes); and

WHEREAS, Until these materials are properly cleaned up they constitute a threat to the future health and safety of the people of the entire Pacific Northwest, as well as those living near and working on the Hanford Reservation; and

WHEREAS, The Northwest Citizens Forum on Defense Waste and the Washington State Nuclear Waste Board have studied this problem and have reviewed the Draft Environmental Impact Statement produced by the Department of Energy on the defense waste cleanup; and

WHEREAS, Through separate public meetings conducted by the Washington State Nuclear Waste Board and the Department of Energy the citizens of the Pacific Northwest have had an opportunity to express their feelings and concerns on the Defense Waste Cleanup issue; and

WHEREAS, The Northwest Citizens Forum has issued a report which recommends funding options for clean-up of the defense wastes to ensure the protection of the environment; and

WHEREAS, The Washington State Nuclear Waste Board has urged timely clean-up of the existing defense wastes and has offered to take a leadership role in developing a regional consensus on funding priorities and clean-up; and

WHEREAS, The estimated costs of cleaning up radioactive and mixed wastes could exceed seventeen billion dollars;

NOW, THEREFORE, Your Memorialists respectfully pray that Congress aggressively pursue the cleanup and safe disposal of radioactive defense wastes and mixed waste at the Hanford Reservation by appropriating sufficient funds to carry out the Northwest Citizens Forum's recommendation to clean up defense wastes at Hanford, and by seriously examining proposals for a Defense Waste Trust fund.

BE IT RESOLVED, That copies of this Memorial be immediately transmitted to the Honorable Ronald Reagan, President of the United States, the United States Department of Energy, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and each member of Congress."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Nelson moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendment to Substitute House Joint Memorial No. 4023.

Representatives Nelson and Barnes spoke in favor of the motion, and it was carried.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE MEMORIAL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Substitute House Joint Memorial No. 4023 as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Joint Memorial No. 4023 as amended by the Senate, and the memorial passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting ye: Representatives Allen, Amondson, Appelwick, Ballard, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Beicher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, McLean, McMullen, Meyers, Miller, Moyer, Nealey, Nelson, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Pruitt, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

Excused: Representatives Armstrong, Wineberry - 2.

Substitute House Joint Memorial No. 4023 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 7, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 221 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that it is more difficult for hearing impaired people to have access to the telecommunications system than hearing persons. It is imperative that hearing impaired people be able to reach government offices and health, human, and emergency services with the same ease as other taxpayers. Regulations to provide telecommunications devices for the deaf with a relay system will help ensure that the hearing impaired community has equal access to the public accommodations and telecommunications system in the state of Washington in accordance with chapter 49.60 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

'Hearing impaired' means those persons who are certified to be deaf, deaf-blind, or hard of hearing, and those persons who are certified to have a hearing disability limiting their access to telecommunications.

'Telecommunications device for the deaf (TDD)' means a teletypewriter that has a typewriter keyboard and a readable display that couples with the telephone, allowing messages to be typed rather than spoken. The device allows a person to make a telephone call directly to another person possessing similar equipment. The conversation is typed through one machine to the other machine instead of spoken.

'TDD relay system' is a service for hearing impaired people who have a TDD to call someone who does not have a TDD or vice versa. The service consists of several telephones being utilized by TDD relay service operators who receive either TDD or voice phone calls. If a TDD relay service operator receives a phone call from a hearing impaired person wishing to call a hearing person, the operator will call the hearing person and act as an intermediary by translating what is displayed on the TDD to voice and typing what is voiced into the TDD to be read by the deaf caller. This process can also be reversed with a hearing person calling a deaf person through the TDD relay service.

'Qualified trainer' is a person who is knowledgeable about TDDs, signal devices, and amplifying accessories; familiar with the technical aspects of equipment designed to meet hearing impaired people's needs; and is fluent in American sign language.

'Qualified contractor' shall have bilingual staff available for quality language/cultural interpretations; quality training of operators; and policies, training, and operational procedures to be determined by the office.

'The department' means the department of social and health services of the state of Washington.

'Office' means the office of deaf services within the state department of social and health services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall design and implement a program whereby TDDs, signal devices, and amplifying accessories capable of serving the needs of the hearing impaired shall be provided at no charge additional to the basic exchange rate, to an individual of school age or older, who is certified as hearing impaired by a licensed physician, audiologist, or a qualified state agency, and to any subscriber that is an organization representing the hearing impaired, as determined and specified by the TDD advisory committee. For the purpose of this section, certification implies that individuals cannot use the telephone for expressive or receptive communications due to hearing impairment.

(2) The office shall award contracts on a competitive basis, to qualified persons for which eligibility to contract is determined by the office, for the distribution and maintenance of such TDDs, signal devices, and amplifying accessories as shall be determined by the office. Such contract shall include a provision for the employment and use of a qualified trainer and the training of recipients in the use of such devices.

(3) TDDs, signal devices, and amplifying accessories shall be made available to qualified recipients by December 1, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department advisory committee on deafness shall establish a TDD advisory committee to study the feasibility of implementing a state-wide telecommunications relay system. The TDD advisory committee shall consist of individuals from hearing impaired communities, representatives from the department, utilities and transportation commission, agencies and services serving the hearing impaired, and local exchange companies in the state. In order to develop and implement a state-wide relay system providing cost-effective relay centers at a reasonable cost and that will meet the requirements of the hearing impaired, the TDD advisory committee shall investigate options, conduct public hearings to determine the most cost-effective method of creating a state-wide relay system providing relay centers to the hearing impaired, and solicit the advice, counsel, and assistance of interested parties and nonprofit consumer organizations for hearing impaired persons state-wide. Such committee shall begin the study within thirty days of the effective date of this section, to be completed within six months after the study begins. The TDD advisory committee, shall also, in conjunction with the department, monitor the activities and moneys that is being spent by the department for the program herein.

(2) Pursuant to the recommendations of the TDD advisory committee, the office shall implement a program whereby relay centers will be provided state-wide using operator intervention to connect hearing impaired persons and offices of organizations representing the hearing impaired, as determined and specified by the TDD advisory committee pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, and connect hearing persons within six months after the office receives the recommendations.

(3) The program will be funded by telecommunications devices for the deaf (TDD) excise tax applied to each switched access line provided by the local exchange companies. The office shall determine the amount of money needed to fund the program. That information shall be given to the utilities and transportation commission. The utilities and transportation commission shall then determine the amount of TDD excise tax to be placed on each access line. The TDD excise tax shall not exceed ten cents per month per access line. The TDD excise tax shall be separately identified on each ratepayer's bill as "Telecommunications devices funds for deaf and hearing impaired." All proceeds from the TDD excise tax will be put into a fund to be administered by the office through the department.

(4) The TDD advisory committee shall establish criteria and specify state-wide organizations representing the hearing impaired meeting such criteria that are to receive telecommunications devices pursuant to section 3(1) of this act, and in which offices the equipment shall be installed if an organization has more than one office.

(5) The office shall establish a policy determining the ultimate ownership and responsibility for the recovery of TDDs, signal devices, and amplifying accessories from recipients who are moving from this state.

(6) The office shall administer and control the award of money to all parties incurring costs in implementing and maintaining telecommunications services, programs, equipment, and technical support services in accordance with the provisions of section 3 of this act.

(7) A study will be authorized to determine the number of hearing impaired people who have party lines and the costs of converting them to single lines. The TDD advisory committee will report the study findings to the utilities and transportation commission. The study will be completed by the TDD advisory committee within a year of the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Nothing in sections 3 and 4 of this act is inconsistent with any telecommunications device systems created by county legislative authorities under RCW 70.54.180. To the extent possible, the office, utilities and transportation commission, the TDD advisory committee, and any other persons or organizations implementing the provisions of sections 3 and 4 of this act will use the telecommunications devices already in place and work with county governments in ensuring that no duplication of services occurs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act shall be known as the "Clyde Randolph Ketchum Act."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall expire June 30, 1990. A review and determination on its continuation beyond this date shall be made prior to its expiration."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "impaired," strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 43.20A RCW; creating new sections; and providing an expiration date."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

The Speaker called the House to order.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 17, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 400 with the following amendments:

On page 3, line 2, strike "one hundred" and insert "eighty-five"

On page 5, line 6, strike "one hundred" and insert "eighty-five"

On page 6, line 29, strike "one hundred" and insert "eighty-five"

On page 7, line 5, strike "one hundred" and insert "eighty-five"

On page 9, line 24, strike "one hundred" and insert "eighty-five"

On page 9, line 32, after "reenacted" insert "and amended"

On page 11, line 14, after "exceed" strike "one hundred" and insert "(one hundred) eighty-five"

On page 11, after line 18, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 51.32.160, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If aggravation, diminution, or termination of disability takes place or ~~((be))~~ is discovered after the rate of compensation ~~((shall have))~~ has been established or compensation terminated, in any case the director, through ~~((and by means of))~~ (and by means of) the division of industrial insurance, may, upon the application of the beneficiary, made within ~~((seven years after the establishment or termination of such compensation, or upon his own motion))~~ five years from the date the first closing order becomes final, readjust for further application the rate of compensation in accordance with the rules in this section provided for the same, or in a proper case terminate the payment: PROVIDED, That the time limitation of this ~~((section))~~ subsection shall be ten years in claims involving loss of vision or function of the eyes.

(2) If compensation has been readjusted within the five-year period as provided in subsection (1) of this section, then within five years after the order first readjusting the compensation has become final, the director may, upon application of the beneficiary, again readjust the rate of compensation or, in a proper case, terminate the payment.

(3) The director may, at any time, upon his or her own motion, make the readjustments provided in this section.

(4) If a worker receiving a pension for total disability returns to gainful employment for wages, the director may suspend or terminate the rate of compensation established for the disability without producing medical evidence that shows that a diminution of the disability has occurred.

(5) No act done or ordered to be done by the director, or the department prior to the signing and filing in the matter of a written order for such readjustment shall be ground for such readjustment."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively

On page 17, after line 16, insert the following:

"Sec. 10. Section 11, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 and RCW 51.32.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Any worker entitled to receive any benefits or claiming such under this title shall, if requested by the department or self-insurer, submit himself or herself for medical examination, at a time and from time to time, at a place reasonably convenient for the worker and as may be provided by the rules of the department. If the worker refuses to submit to medical examination, or obstructs the same, or, if any injured worker shall persist in unsanitary or injurious practices which tend to imperil or retard his or her recovery, or shall refuse to submit to such medical or surgical treatment as is reasonably essential to his or her recovery or refuse or obstruct evaluation or examination for the purpose of vocational rehabilitation or does not cooperate in reasonable efforts at such rehabilitation, the department, with notice to the worker, or the self-insurer (~~(upon approval by the department)~~), with notice to the worker and the department may suspend any further action on any claim of such worker so long as such refusal, obstruction, noncooperation, or practice continues and reduce, suspend, or deny any compensation for such period: PROVIDED, That the department or the self-insurer shall not suspend any further action on any claim of a worker or reduce, suspend, or deny any compensation if a worker has good cause for refusing to submit to or to obstruct any examination, evaluation, treatment or practice requested by the department or the self-insurer, or required under this section. When a self-insured employer reduces, suspends or denies any compensation under this section, the self-insurer shall enter a written order, communicated to the worker and the department's self-insurance section. The order shall contain the following statement clearly set forth in bold face type: 'This order constitutes notification that your compensation benefits are being reduced, suspended or denied for failure to cooperate in accordance with RCW 51.32.110. If, for any reason, you disagree with this determination, you may protest in writing to the Department of Labor and Industries, Self-Insurance Section, within sixty days of the date you received this order.' In the event the department receives such a protest, the department shall investigate and review the claim evidence and enter a determinative order as provided for in RCW 51.52.050: PROVIDED, That the worker must be advised in writing by the self-insurer of the consequences for failure to cooperate prior to the effective date of the reduction, suspension or denial of compensation and be allowed a reasonable time for compliance: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the department determines that the self-insurer has improperly reduced, suspended or denied benefits as they became due or such reduction, suspension or denial is not in compliance with this section then, upon order of the department, the self-insurer shall pay to the worker an additional amount equal to the greater of five hundred dollars or the amount of the benefits otherwise due. If the worker necessarily incurs traveling expenses in attending (for) examination ((pursuant to the request of the department)), such traveling expenses shall be repaid to him or her out of the accident fund upon proper voucher and audit or shall be repaid by the self-insurer, as the case may be.

If the medical examination required by this section causes the worker to be absent from his or her work without pay he or she shall be paid for such time lost in accordance with the schedule of payments provided in RCW 51.32.090 as amended.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 51.32 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever an application for benefits is filed that requires a determination of whether benefits shall be paid pursuant to the reopening of an accepted claim under RCW 51.32.160 or by allowance of a claim for new injury or occupational disease, the department shall make the determination in a single order. Pending entry of the order, benefits shall be paid promptly pursuant to this title by either the department or the self-insurer, as the case may be, as determined by the department.

If, upon final determination, the entity that paid benefits under this title is determined to be not responsible for payment of the benefits, such entity shall be reimbursed by the responsible entity for all amounts paid. If neither the department nor a self-insurer is determined to be responsible for the benefits, the recipient of benefits shall repay the entity having paid the benefits and recoupment may be made from any future payments due the recipient on any claim with the state fund or self-insurer, as the case may be. The director may exercise his or her discretion to waive, in whole or in part, the amount of any such repayments where the recovery would be against equity and good conscience."

On page 17, after line 16, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 51.32 RCW to read as follows:

Notwithstanding RCW 51.32.040, whenever, pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement, a self-insured employer pays a worker or his or her beneficiaries disability benefits from a sickness and accident fund maintained by the employer, and it is subsequently determined that the worker or beneficiary is entitled to those benefits under this title, the employer may withhold amounts from benefits payable under this title sufficient to reimburse its sickness and accident fund for payments made to the worker or beneficiary from such fund: PROVIDED, That the reimbursement is authorized by the collective bargaining agreement."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "51.32.090," strike the remainder of the title and insert "51.32.160, 51.32.180, 51.32.080, 51.08.178, 74.20A.260, and 51.32.110; reenacting and amending RCW 51.32.060; reenacting RCW 51.32.090; adding new sections to chapter 51.32 RCW; and providing effective dates."

On page 1, line 3 of the title, strike "and 74.20A.260" and insert "74.20A.260, and 51.32.160" On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "51.32.060" strike "; reenacting RCW" and insert "and" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 755 with the following amendment:

On page 1, after line 21, strike all material through "appropriations." on page 2, line 27 and insert:

"(1) A county may establish a community corrections board which shall consist of nine members. The county legislative authority shall appoint four members to the board, two of whom shall be from the private sector. The secretary shall appoint one member to the board. In addition, the county prosecutor and county sheriff, or their designees, a judge of the county superior court selected by the county superior court judges, and a county district court judge, selected by the county district court judges, shall be members of the board.

(2) If a combination of counties establishes a community corrections board, an intergovernmental agreement shall establish the composition and powers of the board, not to exceed the authority granted in this section.

(3) The community corrections board shall develop a community corrections plan for the county. Upon request, the department may provide technical assistance in developing the plan. The plan shall describe the existing correctional resources, goals, objectives, needs, and problems for local and state correctional services in the county. The plan shall review ways to maximize resources and reduce duplication of services. Areas to be addressed in the plan include, but are not limited to: Voluntary services for offenders, which include employment, substance and alcohol abuse services, housing and mental health services; ways to share administrative costs between local and state government; and the development of alternatives to partial and total confinement.

(4) The secretary shall adopt rules for the submittal and review of all plans. Representatives from other state and local agencies and organizations shall participate in the review process. Initiatives that reduce the duplication of services or maximize the use of existing resources shall be given priority."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 15, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 767 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that it is necessary to regulate the practice of respiratory care at the level of certification in order to protect the public health and safety. The settings for these services may include, health facilities licensed in this state, clinics, home health agencies, physicians' offices, and public or community health services. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require that individual or group policies or contracts of an insurance carrier, health care service contractor, or health maintenance organization provide benefits or coverage for services and supplies provided by a person certified under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Advisory committee' means the Washington state advisory respiratory care committee.

(2) 'Department' means the department of licensing.

(3) 'Director' means the director of licensing or the director's designee.

(4) 'Respiratory care practitioner' means an individual certified under this chapter.

(5) 'Physician' means an individual licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW.

(6) 'Rural hospital' means a hospital located anywhere in the state except the following areas:

(a) The entire counties of Snohomish (including Camano Island), King, Kitsap, Pierce, Thurston, Clark, and Spokane;

(b) Areas within a twenty-mile radius of an urban area with a population exceeding thirty thousand persons; and

(c) Those cities or city-clusters located in rural counties but which for all practical purposes are urban. These areas are Bellingham, Aberdeen-Hoquiam, Longview-Kelso, Wenatchee, Yakima, Sunnyside, Richland-Kennewick-Pasco, and Walla Walla.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. An entity or person shall not employ or contract with persons engaging in respiratory care as respiratory care practitioners that have not received a certificate to practice respiratory care in the state. Rural hospitals are exempt from this chapter. Nothing in this chapter prohibits or restricts:

(1) The practice of a profession by individuals who are licensed under other laws of this state who are performing services within their authorized scope of practice, which may overlap the services provided by respiratory care practitioners;

(2) The practice of respiratory care by an individual employed by the government of the United States while the individual is engaged in the performance of duties prescribed for him or her by the laws and regulations of the United States;

(3) The practice of respiratory care by a person pursuing a supervised course of study leading to a degree or certificate in respiratory care as a part of an accredited and approved educational program, if the person is designated by a title which clearly indicates his or her status as a student or trainee, or otherwise as a student;

(4) The use of the title 'respiratory care practitioner' by registered nurses authorized under chapter 18.88 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A respiratory care practitioner is a person who adopts or uses any title or any description of services which incorporates one or more of the following terms or designations: (1) RT, (2) RCP, (3) respiratory care practitioner, (4) respiratory therapist, (5) respiratory technician, (6) inhalation therapist, or (7) any other words, abbreviation, or insignia indicating that he or she is a respiratory care practitioner.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A respiratory care practitioner certified under this chapter is employed in the treatment, management, diagnostic testing, rehabilitation, and care of patients with deficiencies and abnormalities which affect the cardiopulmonary system and associated aspects of other systems, and is under the direct order and under the qualified medical direction of a physician. The practice of respiratory care includes, but is not limited to:

- (1) The use and administration of medical gases, exclusive of general anesthesia;
- (2) The use of air and oxygen administering apparatus;
- (3) The use of humidification and aerosols;
- (4) The administration of prescribed pharmacologic agents related to respiratory care;
- (5) The use of mechanical or physiological ventilatory support;
- (6) Postural drainage, chest percussion, and vibration;
- (7) Bronchopulmonary hygiene;
- (8) Cardiopulmonary resuscitation as it pertains to establishing airways and external cardiac compression;
- (9) The maintenance of natural and artificial airways and insertion, without cutting tissues, of artificial airways, as ordered by the attending physician;
- (10) Diagnostic and monitoring techniques such as the measurement of cardiorespiratory volumes, pressures, and flows; and
- (11) The drawing and analyzing of arterial, capillary, and mixed venous blood specimens as ordered by the attending physician or an advanced registered nurse practitioner as authorized by the board of nursing under chapter 18.88 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. (1) In addition to any other authority provided by law, the director, in consultation with the advisory committee, may:

- (a) Adopt rules, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, necessary to implement this chapter;
- (b) Set all certification, examination, and renewal fees in accordance with RCW 43.24.086;
- (c) Establish forms and procedures necessary to administer this chapter;
- (d) Issue a certificate to any applicant who has met the education, training, and examination requirements for certification;
- (e) Hire clerical, administrative, and investigative staff as needed to implement this chapter and hire individuals certified under this chapter to serve as examiners for any practical examinations;
- (f) Approve those schools from which graduation will be accepted as proof of an applicant's eligibility to take the certification examination;
- (g) Prepare, grade, and administer, or determine the nature of, and supervise the grading and administration of, examinations for applicants for certification;
- (h) Determine whether alternative methods of training are equivalent to formal education and establish forms, procedures, and criteria for evaluation of an applicant's alternative training to determine the applicant's eligibility to take the examination;
- (i) Determine which states have legal credentialing requirements equivalent to those of this state and issue certificates to individuals legally credentialled in those states without examination; and
- (j) Define and approve any experience requirement for certification.

(2) The provisions of chapter 18.130 RCW shall govern the issuance and denial of certificates, uncertified practice, and the disciplining of persons certified under this chapter. The director shall be the disciplining authority under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The director shall keep an official record of all proceedings, a part of which record shall consist of a register of all applicants for certification under this chapter, with the result of each application.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. (1) There is created a state respiratory care advisory committee consisting of five members appointed by the director. Three members of the advisory committee shall be respiratory care practitioners who are certified under this chapter. The initial members, however, may be appointed to the advisory committee if they meet all the requirements for certification under this chapter and have been engaged in the practice of respiratory care for at least five years. One member of the advisory committee shall be an individual representing the public who is unaffiliated with the profession. One member of the advisory committee shall be a physician, who is a pulmonary specialist. Each member shall hold office for a term of four years, except that any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his or her predecessor was appointed shall be appointed for the remainder of such term and the terms of office of the members first taking office shall expire, as designated at the time of appointment, one at the end of the first year, one at the end of the second year, one at the end of the third year, and two at the end of the fourth year after the date of appointment. Thereafter all appointments shall be for four years. Any advisory committee member may be removed for just cause. The director may appoint a new member to fill any vacancy on the advisory committee for the remainder of the unexpired term. No advisory committee member may serve more than two consecutive terms, whether full or partial.

(2) Advisory committee members shall be entitled to be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240, and to be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The advisory committee shall have the authority to elect annually a chairperson and vice-chairperson to direct the meetings of the advisory committee. The advisory committee shall meet at least once each year, and may hold additional meetings as called by the director or the chairperson. Three members of the advisory committee constitute a quorum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The director, members of the advisory committee, or individuals acting on their behalf are immune from suit in any civil action based on any certification or disciplinary proceedings, or other official acts performed in the course of their duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The director shall issue a certificate to any applicant who demonstrates to the director's satisfaction that the following requirements have been met:

(1) Graduation from a school approved by the director or successful completion of alternate training which meets the criteria established by the director;

(2) Successful completion of an examination administered or approved by the director;

(3) Successful completion of any experience requirement established by the director;

(4) Good moral character.

In addition, applicants shall be subject to the grounds for denial or issuance of a conditional certificate under chapter 18.130 RCW.

A person who meets the qualifications to be admitted to the examination for certification as a respiratory care practitioner may practice as a respiratory care practitioner under the supervision of a respiratory care practitioner certified under this chapter between the date of filing an application for certification and the announcement of the results of the next succeeding examination for certification if that person applies for and takes the first examination for which he or she is eligible.

The director shall establish by rule what constitutes adequate proof of meeting the criteria.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The director shall approve only those persons who have achieved the minimum level of competency as defined by the director. The director shall establish by rule the standards and procedures for approval of alternate training and shall have the authority to contract with individuals or organizations having expertise in the profession, or in education, to assist in evaluating those applying for approval. The standards and procedures set shall apply equally to schools and training within the United States and those in foreign jurisdictions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The date and location of the examination shall be established by the director. Applicants who have been found by the director to meet the other requirements for certification shall be scheduled for the next examination following the filing of the application. However, the applicant shall not be scheduled for any examination taking place sooner than sixty days after the application is filed.

(2) The director shall examine each applicant, by means determined most effective, on subjects appropriate to the scope of practice. Such examinations shall be limited to the purpose of determining whether the applicant possesses the minimum skill and knowledge necessary to practice competently, and shall meet generally accepted standards of fairness and validity for certification examinations.

(3) All examinations shall be conducted by the director, and all grading of the examinations shall be under fair and wholly impartial methods.

(4) Any applicant who fails to make the required grade in the first examination is entitled to take up to three subsequent examinations, upon the prepayment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 for each subsequent examination. Upon failure of four examinations, the director may invalidate the original application and require such remedial education as is deemed necessary.

(5) The director may approve an examination prepared and administered by a private testing agency or association of credentialing boards for use by an applicant in meeting the certification requirement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Applications for certification shall be submitted on forms provided by the director. The director may require any information and documentation which reasonably relates to the need to determine whether the applicant meets the criteria for certification provided in this chapter and chapter 18.130 RCW. All applications shall be accompanied by a fee determined by the director under RCW 43.24.086.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) The director shall waive the examination and grant a certificate to a person engaged in the profession of respiratory care in this state on the effective date of this section, if the director determines the person meets commonly accepted standards of education and experience for the profession and has previously achieved an acceptable grade on an approved examination administered by a private testing agency or respiratory care association as established by rule of the director.

(2) If an individual is engaged in the practice of respiratory care on the effective date of this section but has not achieved an acceptable grade on an approved examination administered by a private testing agency, the individual may apply to the director for examination. This section shall only apply to those individuals who file an application within one year of the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The director shall establish by rule the requirements and fees for renewal of certificates. Failure to renew shall invalidate the certificate and all privileges granted by the certificate. In the event a certificate has lapsed for a period longer than three years, the certified respiratory care practitioner shall demonstrate competence to the satisfaction of the director by continuing education or under the other standards determined by the director.

Sec. 16. Section 3, chapter 117, Laws of 1985 and section 28, chapter 326, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.120.020 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Applicant group' includes any health professional group or organization, any individual, or any other interested party which proposes that any health professional group not presently regulated be regulated or which proposes to substantially increase the scope of practice of the profession.

(2) 'Certificate' and 'certification' mean a voluntary process by which a statutory regulatory entity grants recognition to an individual who (a) has met certain prerequisite qualifications specified by that regulatory entity, and (b) may assume or use 'certified' in the title or designation to perform prescribed health professional tasks.

(3) 'Grandfather clause' means a provision in a regulatory statute applicable to practitioners actively engaged in the regulated health profession prior to the effective date of the regulatory statute which exempts the practitioners from meeting the prerequisite qualifications set forth in the regulatory statute to perform prescribed occupational tasks.

(4) 'Health professions' means and includes the following health and health-related licensed or regulated professions and occupations: Podiatry under chapter 18.22 RCW; chiropractic under chapters 18.25 and 18.26 RCW; dental hygiene under chapter 18.29 RCW; dentistry under chapter 18.32 RCW; dispensing opticians under chapter 18.34 RCW; hearing aids under chapter 18.35 RCW; drugless healing under chapter 18.36 RCW; embalming and funeral directing under chapter 18.39 RCW; midwifery under chapter 18.50 RCW; nursing home administration under chapter 18.52 RCW; optometry under chapters 18.53 and 18.54 RCW; ophthalmologists under chapter 18.55 RCW; osteopathy and osteopathic medicine and surgery under chapters 18.57 and 18.57A RCW; pharmacy under chapters 18.64 and 18.64A RCW; medicine under chapters 18.71, 18.71A, and 18.72 RCW; emergency medicine under chapter 18.73 RCW; physical therapy under chapter 18.74 RCW; practical nurses under chapter 18.78 RCW; psychologists under chapter 18.83 RCW; registered nurses under chapter 18.88 RCW; occupational therapists licensed pursuant to chapter 18.59 RCW; respiratory care practitioners certified under chapter 18.-- RCW (sections 1 through 15 of this 1987 act); veterinarians and animal technicians under chapter 18.92 RCW; health care assistants under chapter 18.135 RCW; massage practitioners under chapter 18.108 RCW; and acupuncturists certified under chapter 18.06 RCW.

(5) 'Inspection' means the periodic examination of practitioners by a state agency in order to ascertain whether the practitioners' occupation is being carried out in a fashion consistent with the public health, safety, and welfare.

(6) 'Legislative committees of reference' means the standing legislative committees designated by the respective rules committees of the senate and house of representatives to consider proposed legislation to regulate health professions not previously regulated.

(7) 'License', 'licensing', and 'licensure' mean permission to engage in a health profession which would otherwise be unlawful in the state in the absence of the permission. A license is granted to those individuals who meet prerequisite qualifications to perform prescribed health professional tasks and for the use of a particular title.

(8) 'Professional license' means an individual, nontransferable authorization to carry on a health activity based on qualifications which include: (a) Graduation from an accredited or approved program, and (b) acceptable performance on a qualifying examination or series of examinations.

(9) 'Practitioner' means an individual who (a) has achieved knowledge and skill by practice, and (b) is actively engaged in a specified health profession.

(10) 'Public member' means an individual who is not, and never was, a member of the health profession being regulated or the spouse of a member, or an individual who does not have and never has had a material financial interest in either the rendering of the health professional service being regulated or an activity directly related to the profession being regulated.

(1) 'Registration' means the formal notification which, prior to rendering services, a practitioner shall submit to a state agency setting forth the name and address of the practitioner; the location, nature and operation of the health activity to be practiced; and, if required by the regulatory entity, a description of the service to be provided.

(2) 'Regulatory entity' means any board, commission, agency, division, or other unit or subunit of state government which regulates one or more professions, occupations, industries, businesses, or other endeavors in this state.

(3) 'State agency' includes every state office, department, board, commission, regulatory entity, and agency of the state, and, where provided by law, programs and activities involving less than the full responsibility of a state agency.

Sec. 17. Section 4, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 29, chapter 326, Laws of 1985 and by section 3, chapter 259, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.130.040 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) This chapter applies only to the director and the boards having jurisdiction in relation to the professions licensed under the chapters specified in this section. This chapter does not apply to any business or profession not licensed under the chapters specified in this section.

(2) (a) The director has authority under this chapter in relation to the following professions:

(i) Dispensing opticians licensed under chapter 18.34 RCW;

(ii) Drugless healers licensed under chapter 18.36 RCW;

(iii) Midwives licensed under chapter 18.50 RCW;

(iv) Ocularists licensed under chapter 18.55 RCW;

(v) Massage operators and businesses licensed under chapter 18.108 RCW;

(vi) Dental hygienists licensed under chapter 18.29 RCW; ~~((and))~~

(vii) Acupuncturists certified under chapter 18.106 RCW; and

(viii) Respiratory care practitioners certified under chapter 18.— RCW (sections 1 through 15 of this 1987 act).

(b) The boards having authority under this chapter are as follows:

(i) The podiatry board as established in chapter 18.22 RCW;

(ii) The chiropractic disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.26 RCW governing licenses issued under chapter 18.25 RCW;

(iii) The dental disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.32 RCW;

(iv) The board of funeral directors and embalmers as established in chapter 18.39 RCW;

(v) The optometry board as established in chapter 18.54 RCW governing licenses issued under chapter 18.53 RCW;

(vi) The board of osteopathic medicine and surgery as established in chapter 18.57 RCW governing licenses issued under chapters 18.57 and 18.57A RCW;

(vii) The medical disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.72 RCW governing licenses and registrations issued under chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW;

(viii) The board of physical therapy as established in chapter 18.74 RCW;

(ix) The board of occupational therapy practice as established in chapter 18.59 RCW;

(x) The board of practical nursing as established in chapter 18.78 RCW;

(xi) The board of nursing as established in chapter 18.88 RCW; and

(xii) The veterinary board of governors as established in chapter 18.92 RCW.

(3) In addition to the authority to discipline license holders, the disciplining authority has the authority to grant or deny licenses based on the conditions and criteria established in this chapter and the chapters specified in subsection (2) of this section. However, the board of chiropractic examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in chapter 18.25 RCW, the board of dental examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in RCW 18.32.040, and the board of medical examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses and registrations provided for in chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW. This chapter also governs any investigation, hearing, or proceeding relating to denial of licensure or issuance of a license conditioned on the applicant's compliance with an order entered pursuant to RCW 18.130.160 by the disciplining authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 1 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is appropriated from the health professions account in the state general fund to the department of licensing for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, the sum of one hundred sixty-one thousand eight hundred forty-five dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Section 4 of this act shall take effect September 15, 1987. This act shall not affect respiratory care practitioners employed by rural hospitals until September 15, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "care;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "reenacting and amending RCW 18.120.020 and 18.130.040; adding a new chapter to Title 18 RCW; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date."
and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 16, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 833 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) There is hereby created a temporary commission to be known as the Washington state commission for efficiency and accountability in government, hereafter referred to as the commission.

(2) The commission shall consist of fourteen members as follows:

(a) Six members appointed by the governor including but not limited to representatives from private sector business and industry, labor unions, and public interest organizations;

(b) Three members appointed jointly by the president of the senate and speaker of the house including but not limited to representatives from private sector business and industry, labor unions, and public interest organizations;

(c) One representative from each of the four legislative caucuses to be appointed by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house; and

(d) The governor shall be a member and the chair of the commission.

The vice-chair shall be selected by the commission.

(3) Nonlegislative members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses for attending meetings of the commission as provided for in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Legislative members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses for attending meetings of the commission as provided for in RCW 44.04.120.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The commission shall develop recommendations for legislative and executive consideration that will:

(1) Increase the efficiency and effectiveness of state government programs and reduce costs;

(2) Enhance executive accountability and the organizational soundness of state government;

(3) Enhance legislative oversight and program accountability; and

(4) Improve managerial competence and workforce productivity.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. To carry out the provisions of section 2 of this act, the commission shall:

(1) Prepare a list of selected programs funded by the state that will be subject to review by the commission. The list shall include programs that have a major fiscal impact on the state and where the commission determines that operational and organizational improvements are feasible. The reviews shall concentrate on identifying improvements that will result in increased program efficiency and effectiveness and reduced costs, greater accountability to the general public, increased information and data relative to governmental expenditures, and increased managerial competence and workforce productivity.

(2) Develop a four-year plan for the orderly review of each program identified under subsection (1) of this section. The plan shall contain a timetable for the completion of each program review and an estimate of the resources needed to carry out the reviews. The plan shall be updated annually.

(3) Secure private sector financial and other support for the conduct of the reviews.

(4) Establish the scope of program reviews, select review teams and direct those teams to conduct the program reviews identified by the commission. The review teams shall report to the commission their findings and recommendations for organizational and operational improvements.

(5) Decide upon recommendations for executive action or legislation necessary to implement the operational or organizational improvements developed by program review teams.

(6) Submit the following reports to the legislature:

(a) By December 31, 1987, a four-year plan required by subsection (2) of this section;

(b) Upon completion of each program review, its recommendations for operational and organizational improvements for the program reviewed. The report shall include estimates of savings which may result from recommended legislative or executive action.

(c) By December 31, 1988, a report summarizing recommendations of the commission for legislative and executive actions to accomplish operational and organizational improvements identified in completed program reviews and any executive action initiated as a result of findings of a program review. Thereafter, the commission shall report to the legislature annually, no later than December 31, on its progress toward completing the four-year review plan and on its recommendations for operational and organizational improvements in state government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) It is the intent of the legislature that the program review activities of the commission be funded, to the extent practicable, by contributions received from the private sector. The office of financial management and the legislature shall provide staff as required by the commission for developing the plan for proper reviews and undertaking such reviews. To the extent permitted by law, all agencies of the state shall cooperate fully with the commission in carrying out its duties under this act.

(2) The commission may receive and expend gifts, grants, and endowments from private sources to carry out the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The commission may contract for such services as are necessary to supplement the staff as provided in section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act shall expire December 31, 1991.*

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "government;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating new sections; and providing an expiration date."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 15, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 844 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The state of Washington may enter into salary reduction agreements with employees pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. Sec. 125 for the purpose of making it possible for employees to select on a 'before-tax basis' certain taxable and non-taxable benefits pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Sec. 125. The purpose of the salary reduction plan established in this chapter is to attract and retain individuals in governmental service by permitting them to enter into agreements with the state to provide for benefits pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Sec. 129.

(2) Nothing in the salary reduction plan constitutes an employment agreement between the participant and the state, and nothing contained in the participant's salary reduction agreement, the plan, or sections 2 through 10 of this act gives a participant any right to be retained in state employment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 3 through 8 of this act.

(1) 'Salary reduction plan' means a plan whereby state employees and officers may agree to a reduction of salary which reduction will allow the employee to participate in benefits offered pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Sec. 125.

(2) 'Committee' means the committee for deferred compensation.

(3) 'Salary' means a state employee's or officer's monthly salary or wages.

(4) 'Dependent care program' means the program for the care of dependents pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Sec. 129 financed from funds deposited in the salary reduction account in the state treasury for the purpose of holding and disbursing the funds deposited under the auspices of the salary reduction plan.

(5) 'Participant' means an individual who fulfills the eligibility and enrollment requirements under the salary reduction plan.

(6) 'Plan year' means the time period established by the committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The committee shall have responsibility for the formulation and adoption of a plan and policies and procedures designed to guide, direct, and administer the salary reduction plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A plan document describing the salary reduction plan shall be adopted and administered by the committee. The committee shall represent the state in all matters concerning the administration of the plan. The state through the committee, may engage the services of a professional consultant or administrator on a contractual basis to serve as an agent to assist the committee in carrying out the purposes of sections 1 through 10 of this act.

(2) The committee shall formulate and establish policies and procedures for the administration of the salary reduction plan that are consistent with existing state law, the internal revenue code, and the regulations adopted by the internal revenue service as they may apply to the benefits offered to participants under the plan.

(3) The funds held by the state for the dependent care program shall be deposited in the salary reduction account in the state treasury. Any interest in excess of the amount used to defray the cost of administering the salary reduction plan shall become a part of the general fund as shall unclaimed moneys remaining in the salary reduction account at the end of a plan year. The committee may assess each participant a fee for administering the salary reduction plan. In addition to moneys for initial costs, moneys shall be appropriated from the general fund for any expense relating to the administration of the salary reduction plan. The appropriation may be funded from an amount equivalent to actually realized savings experienced due to reductions in employer contributions required under the social security act, from other similar savings, from interest earned from the salary reduction account credited to the general fund, from any unclaimed moneys in the salary reduction account at the end of the plan year, and from fees charged to the participants.

(4) Every action taken by the committee in administering sections 1 through 10 of this act shall be presumed to be a fair and reasonable exercise of the authority vested in or the duties imposed upon it. The committee shall be presumed to have exercised reasonable care, diligence, and prudence and to have acted impartially as to all persons interested unless the contrary be proved by clear and convincing affirmative evidence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Elected officials and all permanent officers and employees of the state are eligible to participate in the salary reduction plan and reduce their salary by agreement with the committee. The committee may adopt rules to permit participation in the plan by temporary employees of the state.

(2) Persons eligible under subsection (1) of this section may enter into salary reduction agreements with the state.

(3)(a) In the initial year of the salary reduction plan, an eligible person may become a participant after the adoption of the plan and before its effective date by agreeing to have a portion of his or her gross salary reduced and deposited into a dependent care account to be used for reimbursement of expenses covered by the plan.

(b) After the initial year of the salary reduction plan, an eligible person may become a participant for a full plan year, with annual benefit selection for each new plan year made before the beginning of the plan year, as determined by the committee, or upon becoming eligible.

(c) Once an eligible person elects to participate and determines the amount his or her salary shall be reduced and the benefit for which the funds are to be used during the plan year, the agreement shall be irrevocable and may not be amended during the plan year except as provided in (d) of this subsection. Prior to making an election to participate in the salary reduction plan, the eligible person shall be informed in writing of all the benefits and reductions that will occur as a result of such election.

(d) The committee shall provide in the salary reduction plan that a participant may enroll, terminate, or change his or her election after the plan year has begun if there is a significant change in a participant's status, as provided by 26 U.S.C. Sec. 125 and the regulations adopted under that section.

(4) The committee shall establish as part of the salary reduction plan the procedures for and effect of withdrawal from the plan by reason of retirement, death, leave of absence, or termination of employment. To the extent possible under federal law, the committee shall protect participants from forfeiture of rights under the plan.

(5) Any salary reduced under the salary reduction plan shall continue to be included as regular compensation for the purpose of computing the state retirement and pension benefits earned by the employee.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The salary reduction account is established in the state treasury. All fees paid to reimburse participants or service providers pursuant to the provisions of sections 1 through 10 of this act shall be paid from the salary reduction account.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) The committee shall keep or cause to be kept full and adequate accounts and records of the assets, obligations, transactions, and affairs of a salary reduction plan created under section 4 of this act.

(2) The committee shall file an annual report of the financial condition, transactions, and affairs of the salary reduction plan under the committee's jurisdiction. A copy of the annual report shall be filed with the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, the governor, and the state auditor.

(3) Members of the committee shall be deemed to stand in a fiduciary relationship to the employees participating in the salary reduction plan and shall discharge their duties in good faith and with that diligence, care, and skill which ordinary prudent persons would exercise under similar circumstances in like positions.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. (1) The state may terminate the salary reduction plan at the end of the plan year or upon notification of federal action affecting the status of the plan.

(2) The committee may amend the salary reduction plan at any time if the amendment does not affect the rights of the participants to receive eligible reimbursement from the participants' dependent care accounts.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The committee shall adopt rules to implement sections 3 through 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall be construed to effectuate the purposes of 26 U.S.C. Sec. 125.

Sec. 11. Section 1, chapter 274, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 23, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.04.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a committee for deferred compensation to be composed of five members appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be a representative of an employee association or union certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, one who shall be a representative of either a credit union, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank or bank, one who possesses expertise in the area of insurance or investment of public funds, one who shall be the state attorney general or his designee, and one additional member selected by the governor. The committee shall serve without compensation but shall receive travel expenses as provided for in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

(2) The deferred compensation revolving fund is hereby created in the state treasury. All expenses of the committee including staffing and administrative expenses shall be paid out of the deferred compensation revolving fund.

The amount of compensation deferred by employees under agreements entered into under the authority contained in RCW 41.04.250 shall be paid into the revolving fund and shall be sufficient to cover costs of administration and staffing in addition to such other amounts as determined by this committee. The revolving fund shall be used to carry out the purposes of RCW 41.04.250. All eligible state employees shall be given the opportunity to participate in agreements entered into by the committee under RCW 41.04.250. State agencies shall cooperate with the committee in providing employees with the opportunity to participate. Any county, municipality, or other subdivision of the state may elect to participate in any agreements entered into by the committee under RCW 41.04.250, including the making of payments therefrom to the employees participating in a deferred compensation plan upon their separation from state or other qualifying service. Accordingly, the revolving fund shall be considered to be a public pension or retirement fund within the meaning of Article XXIX, section 1 of the state Constitution, for the purpose of determining eligible investments and deposits of the moneys therein. All moneys in the revolving fund, all property and rights purchased therewith, and all income attributable thereto, shall remain (until made available to the participating employee or other beneficiary) solely the money, property, and rights of the state and participating counties, municipalities and subdivisions (without being restricted to the provision of benefits under the plan) subject only to the claims of the state's and participating jurisdictions' general creditors. Participating jurisdictions shall each retain property rights separately.

(3) The state investment board, at the request of the deferred compensation committee, is authorized to invest moneys in the deferred compensation revolving fund in accordance with RCW 43.84.150. Except as provided in RCW 43.33A.160, one hundred percent of all earnings from these investments shall accrue directly to the deferred compensation revolving fund. The earnings on any surplus balances in the deferred compensation revolving fund shall be credited to the deferred compensation fund, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090.

(4) In addition to the duties specified in this section and RCW 41.04.250, the deferred compensation committee shall administer the salary reduction plan established in sections 1 through 10 of this 1987 act.

(5) The deferred compensation committee shall keep or cause to be kept full and adequate accounts and records of the assets, obligations, transactions, and affairs of any deferred compensation plans created under RCW 41.04.250 through 41.04.260.

The deferred compensation committee shall file an annual report of the financial condition, transactions, and affairs of the deferred compensation plans under the committee's jurisdiction. A copy of the annual report shall be filed with the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, the governor, and the state auditor.

((5)) (6) Members of the deferred compensation committee shall be deemed to stand in a fiduciary relationship to the employees participating in the deferred compensation plans created under RCW 41.04.250 through 41.04.260 and shall discharge the duties of their respective positions in good faith and with that diligence, care, and skill which ordinary prudent persons would exercise under similar circumstances in like positions.

((6)) (7) The committee may adopt rules necessary to carry out the purposes of RCW 41.04.250 and 41.04.260.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 10 of this act are each added to chapter 41.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "care;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 41.04.260; and adding new sections to chapter 41.04 RCW."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): The Speaker will take this under advisement.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 15, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1156 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

'Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 229, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.165.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires to the contrary, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Department' means the department of community development.

(2) 'Director' means the director of the department.

(3) 'Distressed area' means: (a) A county that has an unemployment rate that is twenty percent above the state-wide average for the previous three years; or (b) a community or area that has experienced sudden and severe or long-term and severe loss of employment, or erosion of its economic base due to decline of its dominant industries; or (c) an area within a county which area: (i) Is composed of contiguous census tracts; (ii) has a minimum population of five thousand persons; (iii) has at least seventy percent of its families and unrelated individuals with incomes below eighty percent of the county's median income for families and unrelated individuals; and (iv) has an unemployment rate which is at least forty percent higher than the county's unemployment rate. For purposes of this definition, 'families and unrelated individuals' has the same meaning that is ascribed to that term by the federal department of housing and urban development in its regulations authorizing action grants for economic development and neighborhood revitalization projects.

(4) 'Economic development revolving loan funds' means a local, not-for-profit or governmentally sponsored business loan program.

(5) 'Team' means the community revitalization team.

((5)) (6) 'Technical assistance' includes, but is not limited to, assistance with strategic planning, market research, business plan development review, organization and management development, accounting and legal services, grant and loan packaging, and other assistance which may be expected to contribute to the redevelopment and economic well-being of a distressed area.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 164, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.168.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Committee' means the Washington state development loan fund committee.

(2) 'Department' means the department of community development.

(3) 'Director' means the director of the department of community development.

(4) 'Distressed area' means: (a) A county which has an unemployment rate which is twenty percent above the state average for the immediately previous three years; or (b) ((a community which has experienced sudden and severe loss of employment; or (c))) an area within a county, which area: (i) Is composed of contiguous census tracts; (ii) has a minimum population of five thousand persons; (iii) has at least seventy percent of its families and unrelated individuals with incomes below eighty percent of the county's median income for families and unrelated individuals; and (iv) has an unemployment rate which is at least forty percent higher than the county's unemployment rate. For purposes of this definition, 'families and unrelated individuals' has the same meaning that is ascribed to that term by the federal department of housing and urban development in its regulations authorizing action grants for economic development and neighborhood revitalization projects.

(5) 'Fund' means the Washington state development loan fund.

(6) 'Local development organization' means a nonprofit organization which is organized to operate within ((a distressed)) an area, demonstrates a commitment to a long-standing effort for an economic development program, and makes a demonstrable effort to assist in the employment of unemployed or underemployed residents in ((a distressed)) an area.

(7) 'Project' means the establishment of a new or expanded business in ((a distressed)) an area which when completed will provide employment opportunities. 'Project' also means the retention of an existing business in ((a distressed)) an area which when completed will provide employment opportunities.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 164, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.168.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the restrictions contained in this chapter, the committee is authorized to approve applications of local governments for federal community development block grant funds which the local governments would use to make loans to finance business projects within ~~((distressed areas))~~ their jurisdictions. Applications approved by the committee under this chapter shall conform to applicable federal requirements.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 164, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 2, chapter 204, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.168.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The committee may only approve an application providing a loan for a project which the committee finds:

(a) ~~((is located within a distressed area and may reasonably be expected to increase employment or maintain))~~ Will result in the creation of employment opportunities or the maintenance of threatened employment;

(b) Has been approved by the director as conforming to federal rules and regulations governing the spending of federal community development block grant funds;

(c) Will be of public benefit and for a public purpose, and that the benefits, including increased or maintained employment, improved standard of living, and the employment of disadvantaged workers, will primarily accrue to residents of the ~~((distressed))~~ area;

(d) Will probably be successful;

(e) Would probably not be completed without the loan because other capital or financing at feasible terms is unavailable or the return on investment is inadequate.

(2) The committee may not approve an application if it fails to provide for adequate reporting or disclosure of financial data to the committee. The committee may require an annual or other periodic audit of the project books.

(3) The committee may require that the project be managed in whole or in part by a local development organization and may prescribe a management fee to be paid to such organization by the recipient of the loan or grant.

(4) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, the committee shall not approve any application which would result in a loan or grant in excess of three hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(b) The committee may approve an application which results in a loan or grant of up to seven hundred thousand dollars if the application has been approved by the director.

(5) The committee shall fix the terms and rates pertaining to its loans.

(6) Should there be more demand for loans than funds available for lending, the committee shall provide loans for those projects which will lead to the greatest amount of employment or benefit to a community. In determining the 'greatest amount of employment or benefit' the committee shall also consider the employment which would be saved by its loan.

(7) To the extent permitted under federal law the committee shall require applicants to provide for the transfer of all payments of principal and interest on loans to the Washington state development loan fund created under this chapter. Under circumstances where the federal law does not permit the committee to require such transfer, the committee shall give priority to applications where the applicants on their own volition make commitments to provide for the transfer.

(8) The committee shall not approve any application to finance or help finance a shopping mall.

(9) The committee shall make at least eighty percent of the appropriated funds available to projects located in distressed areas, and may make up to twenty percent available to projects located in areas not designated as distressed. The committee shall not make funds available to projects located in areas not designated as distressed if the fund's net worth is less than seven million one hundred thousand dollars.

(10) If an objection is raised to a project on the basis of unfair business competition, the committee shall evaluate the potential impact of a project on similar businesses located in the local market area. A grant may be denied by the committee if a project is not likely to result in a net increase in employment within a local market area.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 164, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.168.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee shall receive and approve applications on a quarterly basis for each fiscal year. Department staff shall process and assist in the preparation of applications. Each application shall show in detail the nature of the project, the types and numbers of jobs to be created, wages to be paid to new employees, and methods to hire unemployed persons from the ~~((distressed))~~ area. Each application shall contain a credit analysis of the business to receive the loan. The chairperson of the committee may convene the committee on short notice to respond to applications of a serious or immediate nature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 43.168 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The committee shall develop guidelines for development loan funds to be used to fund existing economic development revolving loan funds. Consideration shall be given to the selection process for grantees, loan quality criteria, legal and regulatory issues, and ways to minimize duplication between development loan funds and local economic development revolving loan funds.

(2) If it appears that all of the funds appropriated to the development loan fund for a biennium will not be fully granted to local governments within that biennium, the committee may make available up to twenty percent of the eighty percent of the funds available to projects in distressed areas under RCW 43.168.050(9) for grants to local governments to assist existing economic development revolving loan funds in distressed areas. The grants to local governments shall be utilized to make loans to businesses that meet the specifications for loans under this chapter. The local governments shall, to the extent permitted under federal law, agree to convey to the development loan fund the principal and interest payments from existing loans that the local governments have made through their revolving loan funds. Under circumstances where the federal law does not permit the committee to require such transfer, the committee shall give priority to applications where the applicants on their own volition make commitments to provide for the transfer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 43.168 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The committee shall develop performance standards for judging the effectiveness of the program. Such standards shall include, to the extent possible, examining the effectiveness of grants in regard to:

- (a) Job creation for individuals of low and moderate income;
- (b) Retention of existing employment;
- (c) The creation of new employment opportunities;
- (d) The diversification of the economic base of local communities;
- (e) The establishment of employee cooperatives;
- (f) The provision of assistance in cases of employee buy-outs of firms to prevent the loss of existing employment;
- (g) The degree of risk assumed by the development loan fund, with emphasis on loans which did not receive financing from commercial lenders, but which are considered financially sound.

(2) The committee shall report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature on the development of performance standards by January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "program," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.165.010, 43.168.020, 43.168.040, 43.168.050, and 43.168.070; adding new sections to chapter 43.168 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 16, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 418 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) A child support schedule commission is established. The commission shall recommend a child support schedule and propose changes in the schedule to the legislature no later than November 1, 1987.

(2) The commission shall be composed of the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee and nine other members. Seven members shall be appointed by the governor as follows: (a) A superior court judge; (b) a representative from the state bar association; (c) an attorney representing indigent persons in Washington; (d) two other persons who have demonstrated an interest or expertise in the study of economic data or child support issues, one of which shall be a non-custodial parent; and (e) two public members who represent the affected populations, one of which shall be a non-custodial parent. Two members shall be the administrator for the courts or his or her designee and the attorney general or his or her designee. In making the appointments, the governor shall seek the recommendations of the association of superior court judges in respect to the member who is a superior court judge; and of the state bar association in respect to the state bar association and indigent attorney representatives.

(3) The secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee shall serve as chairman of the commission.

(4) The secretary shall serve on the commission during the secretary's tenure as secretary of social and health services. In the event of a vacancy, the appointing authority shall designate a new member to complete the remainder of the unexpired term.

(5) Commission members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(6) The office of support enforcement shall provide clerical and other support to the commission to enable it to perform its functions.

(7) The commission shall invite public participation and input, particularly from persons who are affected by child support orders.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) The child support schedule commission shall propose a child support schedule to the legislature no later than November 1, 1987.

(2) The commission shall set the child support schedule and recommended revisions based upon:

(a) Updated economic data which accurately reflects family spending and child rearing costs for families of different sizes and income levels in the state of Washington;

(b) Appropriate adjustments for significant changes in child rearing costs at different age levels;

(c) The need for funding of the child's primary residence by a payment which is sufficient to meet the basic needs of the child;

(d) Provisions for health care coverage and, when needed, child care payments; and

(e) The support amount shall be based on the child's age, the parent's combined income, and the family size. Family size shall mean all children for whom support is to be established.

(3) The commission shall establish standards for applying the child support schedule. Included in these standards shall be:

(a) The type, net or gross, and sources of income on which support amounts shall be based;

(b) Provisions for taking into account the voluntary unemployment or underemployment of one or both parents or if the income of a parent is not known;

(c) Provisions for taking into account a parent whose income varies; and

(d) Provisions for taking into account the differing cost of living in the various counties in this state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The superior court in each judicial district shall adopt a child support schedule by August 1, 1987.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. This act shall expire July 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "support;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating new sections; providing an expiration date; and declaring an emergency." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 16, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 420 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes the financial impact on custodial parents and children when child support is not received on time, or in the correct amount. The legislature also recognizes the burden placed upon the responsible parent and the second family when enforcement action must be taken to collect delinquent support.

It is the intent of the legislature to create a central Washington state support registry to improve the recordkeeping of support obligations and payments, thereby providing protection for both parties, and reducing the burden on employers by creating a single standardized process through which support payments are deducted from earnings.

It is also the intent of the legislature that child support payments be made through mandatory wage assignment or payroll deduction if the responsible parent becomes delinquent in making support payments under a court or administrative order for support.

To that end, it is the intent of the legislature to interpret all existing statutes and processes to give effect to, and to implement, one central registry for recording and distributing support payments in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The definitions contained in RCW 74.20A.020 shall be incorporated into and made a part of this chapter.

(2) 'Support order' means a superior court order or administrative order, as defined in RCW 74.20A.020.

(3) 'Earnings' means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making the payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligations, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title 50 RCW, except as provided in RCW 50.40.020 and 50.40.050, or Title 74 RCW. Earnings shall specifically include all gain from capital, from labor, or from both combined, not including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital assets.

(4) 'Disposable earnings' means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of an amount required by law to be withheld.

(5) 'Employer' means any person or entity who pays or owes earnings in employment as defined in Title 50 RCW to the responsible parent including but not limited to the United States government, or any state or local unit of government.

(6) 'Employee' means a person in employment as defined in Title 50 RCW to whom an employer is paying, owes or anticipates paying earnings as a result of services performed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is created a Washington state support registry within the office of support enforcement as the agency designated in Washington state to administer the child support program under Title IV-D of the federal social security act. The registry shall:

(1) Account for and disburse all support payments received by the registry;

(2) Maintain the necessary records including, but not limited to, information on support orders, support debts, the date and amount of support due; the date and amount of payments; and the names, social security numbers, and addresses of the parties;

(3) Develop procedures for providing information to the parties regarding action taken by, and support payments collected and distributed by the registry;

(4) The secretary of social and health services shall adopt rules for the maintenance and retention of records of support payments and for the archiving and destruction of such records when the support obligation terminates or is satisfied. When a support obligation established under court order entered in a superior court of this state has been satisfied, a satisfaction of judgment form shall be prepared by the registry and filed with the clerk of the court in which the order was entered.

The child support registry shall distribute all moneys received in compliance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657. When a responsible parent has more than one support obligation, or a support debt is owed to more than one party, moneys received will be distributed between the parties proportionally, based upon the amount of the support obligation and/or support debt owed.

If the Washington state support registry distributes a support payment to a person in error, the registry may obtain restitution by means of a set-off against future payments received on behalf of the person receiving the erroneous payment, or may act according to RCW 74.20A-.270 as deemed appropriate. Any set-off against future support payments shall be limited to amounts collected on the support debt and up to ten percent of amounts collected as current support.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The legislature recognizes that, in order for the support registry to operate in an effective and efficient manner and to ensure that delinquent child support payments will be enforced and collected promptly, especially when the responsible parent is employed and earning regular wages, current employment information must be available to the registry. The legislature also recognizes that the current employer reporting requirements to the department of employment security are not sufficient to facilitate the efforts of the registry to operate effectively and efficiently and collect delinquent payments promptly. Finally, the legislature recognizes that it may not be reasonable to create several different employer reporting systems because of the burdens that would be imposed on employers, especially small businesses. Therefore, the legislature directs the secretary of social and health services and the commissioner of employment security to work with business and employer groups to devise a single reporting process which will meet the needs of both departments and which will provide for prompt and timely employer reporting. The secretary and the commissioner shall prepare and submit a joint report to the judiciary and commerce and labor committees of the house of representatives and the senate by November 1, 1987. The report shall describe the progress that has been made in devising a new reporting system and shall include any recommendations for legislative action that have been agreed upon by the departments and the business and employer groups.

(2) The report shall include exemptions from the reporting requirement for employees employed for less than two months duration, whether they are full-time or part-time employees or employed on a sporadic basis, employees who earn less than three hundred dollars per month, and other appropriate exemptions. The report shall also provide for simple methods for employers to use in reporting information to the registry which shall include mailing a copy of the W-4 form, calling a toll-free telephone number maintained by the registry, or by other authorized means. The reporting process established by the report shall be designed to provide for up-to-date employment reports without imposing undue burdens on employers and small businesses.

(3) The secretary and the commissioner shall prepare and submit a report to the judiciary and commerce and labor committees of the house of representatives and the senate by January 25, 1989. This report shall describe the system or systems in effect at that time for employer reporting, identify any problems with the system or systems, include an assessment of the costs associated with the system or systems and the benefits derived from the information reported, if these costs and benefits can be quantified and identified, assess the additional work load for employers to comply with reporting requirements, propose a means by which employers may be compensated for their costs to comply with the reporting requirements, and include recommendations for legislative action if appropriate.

(4) The registry shall retain the information for a particular employee only if the registry is responsible for establishing, enforcing, or collecting a support obligation or debt of the employee. If the employee does not owe such an obligation or a debt, the registry shall not create a record regarding the employee and the information contained in the notice shall be promptly destroyed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The superior court shall include in all superior court orders which establish or modify a support obligation, a provision which orders and directs the responsible parent to make all support payments to the Washington state support registry, or the person entitled to receive the payments if the parties agree to an alternate payment plan and the court finds that the alternate payment plan includes reasonable assurances that payments will be made in a regular and timely manner. The superior court shall also include a statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income withholding action under chapter 26.18 RCW or chapter 74.20A RCW may be taken, without further notice to the responsible parent, if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month. If the court approves an alternate payment plan, the order shall include a statement that the order may be submitted to the Washington state support registry for enforcement if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month.

(2) The office of administrative hearings and the department of social and health services shall require that all support obligations established as administrative orders include a provision which orders and directs that the responsible parent shall make all support payments to the Washington state support registry. All administrative orders shall also state that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued, without further notice to the responsible parent, if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month.

(3) If the support order does not include the provision ordering and directing that all payments be made to the Washington state support registry and a statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued if a support payment is past due, the office of support enforcement may serve a notice on the responsible parent stating such requirements and authorizations. Service may be by personal service or any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(4) Every support order shall state:

(a) That payment shall be made to the Washington state support registry or in accordance with the alternate payment plan approved by the court;

(b) That a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income withholding action under chapter 26.18 RCW or chapter 74.20A RCW may be taken, without further notice to the responsible parent, if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month;

(c) The income of the parties, if known, or that their income is unknown and the income upon which the support award is based;

(d) The support award as a sum certain amount;

(e) The specific day or date on which the support payment is due;

(f) The social security number, residence address, and name of employer of the responsible parent;

(g) The social security number and residence address of the custodial parent;

(h) The names, dates of birth, and social security numbers, if any, of the dependent children; and

(i) That the parties are to notify the Washington state support registry of any change in residence address.

(5) The superior court clerk, the office of administrative hearings, and the department of social and health services shall, within five days of entry, forward to the Washington state support registry, a true and correct copy of all superior court orders or administrative orders establishing or modifying a support obligation which provide that support payments shall be made to the support registry. If a superior court order entered prior to the effective date of this section directs the responsible parent to make support payments to the clerk, the clerk shall send a true and correct copy of the support order and the payment record to the registry for enforcement action when the clerk identifies that a payment is more than fifteen days past due. The office of support enforcement shall reimburse the clerk for the reasonable costs of copying and sending copies of court orders to the registry at the reimbursement rate provided in Title IV-D of the social security act.

(6) Receipt of a support order by the registry or other action under this section on behalf of a person or persons who are not recipients of public assistance is deemed to be a request for support enforcement services under RCW 74.20A.040.

(7) After the responsible parent has been ordered or notified to make payments to the Washington state support registry in accordance with subsection (1), (2), or (3) of this section, the responsible parent shall be fully responsible for making all payments to the Washington state support registry and shall be subject to payroll deduction or other income withholding action. The responsible parent shall not be entitled to credit against a support obligation for any payments made to a person or agency other than to the Washington state support registry. A civil action may be brought by the payor to recover payments made to persons or agencies who have received and retained support moneys paid contrary to the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) If a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the office of support enforcement is authorized to serve a notice of payroll deduction upon an employer for child support obligations in compliance with section 5 (1), (2), or (3) of this act. Service shall be by personal service or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(2) Service of a notice of payroll deduction upon an employer requires an employer to immediately make a mandatory payroll deduction from the responsible parent/employee's unpaid disposable earnings. The employer shall thereafter deduct each pay period the amount stated in the notice divided by the number of pay periods per month. The payroll deduction each pay period shall not exceed fifty percent of the responsible parent/employee's disposable earnings.

(3) A notice of payroll deduction for support shall have priority over any wage assignment or garnishment.

(4) The notice of payroll deduction shall be in writing and include:

(a) The name and social security number of the employee;

(b) The amount to be deducted from the responsible parent's disposable earnings each month, or alternate amounts and frequencies as may be necessary to facilitate processing of the payroll deduction by the employer;

(c) A statement that the total amount withheld shall not exceed fifty percent of the responsible parent's disposable earnings; and

(d) The address to which the payments are to be mailed or delivered.

(5) An informational copy of the notice of payroll deduction shall be mailed to the last known address of the responsible parent by regular mail.

(6) An employer who receives a notice of payroll deduction shall make immediate deductions from the employee's unpaid disposable earnings and remit proper amounts to the Washington state support registry on each date the employee is due to be paid.

(7) An employer, upon whom a notice of payroll deduction is served, shall make an answer to the Washington state support registry within twenty days after the date of service. The answer shall confirm compliance and institution of the payroll deduction or explain the circumstances if no payroll deduction is in effect. The answer shall also state whether the responsible parent is employed by or receives earnings from the employer, whether the employer anticipates paying earnings and the amount of earnings. If the responsible parent is no longer employed, or receiving earnings from the employer, the answer shall state the present employer's name and address, if known.

(8) The employer may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the employee's earnings after withholding under the notice of payroll deduction, even if the remainder is exempt under RCW 26.18.090. The processing fee may not exceed: (a) Ten dollars for the first disbursement made by the employer to the Washington state support registry; and (b) one dollar for each subsequent disbursement to the registry.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The employer may combine amounts withheld from the earnings of more than one employee in a single payment to the Washington state support registry, listing separately the amount of the payment which is attributable to each individual employee.

(2) No employer who complies with a notice of payroll deduction under this chapter shall be civilly liable to the employee for complying with a notice of payroll deduction under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The responsible parent subject to a payroll deduction pursuant to sections 1 through 12 of this act, may file a motion in superior court to quash, modify, or terminate the payroll deduction. The court may grant relief only upon a showing that the payroll deduction causes extreme hardship or substantial injustice or that the responsible parent was not more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month when the notice of payroll deduction was served on the employer. Satisfaction by the obligor of all past due payments subsequent to the issuance of the notice of payroll deduction is not grounds to quash, modify, or terminate the notice of payroll deduction. If a notice of payroll deduction has been in operation for twelve consecutive months and the obligor's support obligation is current, upon motion of the obligor, the court may order the Washington state support registry to terminate the payroll deduction, unless the obligee can show good cause as to why the payroll deduction should remain in effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. No employer shall discipline or discharge an employee or refuse to hire a person by reason of an action authorized in this chapter. If an employer disciplines or discharges an employee or refuses to hire a person in violation of this section, the employee or person shall have a cause of action against the employer. The employer shall be liable for double the amount of lost wages and any other damages suffered as a result of the violation and for costs and reasonable attorney fees, and shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars for each violation. The employer may also be ordered to hire, rehire, or reinstate the aggrieved individual.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The employer shall be liable to the Washington state support registry for one hundred percent of the amount of the support debt, or the amount of support moneys which should have been withheld from the employee's earnings, whichever is the lesser amount, if the employer:

(a) Fails or refuses, after being served with a notice of payroll deduction, to deduct and promptly remit from unpaid earnings the amounts of money required in the notice; or

(b) Fails or refuses to submit an answer to the notice of payroll deduction after being served.

(2) Liability may be established in superior court or may be established pursuant to RCW 74.20A.270. Awards in superior court and in actions pursuant to RCW 74.20A.270 shall include costs, interest under RCW 19.52.020 and 4.56.110, and reasonable attorney fees and staff costs as a part of the award. Debts established pursuant to this section may be collected pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW utilizing any of the remedies contained in that chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The department shall establish, by regulation, a process that may be utilized when a support order does not state the obligation to pay current and future support as a fixed dollar amount, or if there is a dispute about the amount of the support debt owed under a support order. This process is authorized in order to facilitate enforcement of the support order, and is intended to implement and effectuate the terms of the order rather than to modify those terms.

The process shall provide for a notice to be served on the responsible parent by personal service or any form of mailing requiring a return receipt. The notice shall contain an initial finding of the amount of current and future support that should be paid and/or the amount of the support debt owed under the support order. A copy of the notice of hearing shall be mailed to the person to whom support is payable under the support order.

The notice shall direct the responsible parent to appear and show cause at a hearing held by the department why the amount of current and future support to be paid and/or the amount of the support debt is incorrect and should not be ordered. The notice shall provide that the responsible parent has twenty days from the date of the service of the notice to request an administrative hearing or initiate an action in superior court. If the responsible parent does not request a hearing or initiate an action in superior court, the amount of current and future support and/or the amount of the support debt stated in the notice shall be subject to collection action.

If the responsible parent does not initiate such an action in superior court, and serve notice of the action on the department within the twenty-day period, the responsible parent shall be deemed to have made an election of remedies and shall be required to exhaust administrative remedies under this chapter with judicial review available as provided for in RCW 34.04.130.

The administrative hearing shall be a contested hearing under chapter 34.04 RCW and shall be conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the department and the office of administrative hearings. A copy of the notice of hearing shall be mailed to the person to whom support is payable under the support order.

An administrative order entered in accordance with this section shall state the basis, rationale, or formula upon which the amounts established in the order were based. The amount of current and future support and/or the amount of the support debt determined under this section shall be subject to collection under this chapter and other applicable state statutes.

The regulation shall also provide for an annual review of the support order if either the office of support enforcement or the responsible parent requests such a review.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. (1) Any information or records concerning individuals who owe a support obligation or for whom support enforcement services are being provided which are obtained or maintained by the Washington state support registry, the office of support enforcement, or under chapter 74.20 RCW shall be private and confidential and shall only be subject to public disclosure as provided in this section.

(2) The secretary of the department of social and health services shall adopt rules which specify the individuals or agencies to whom this information and these records may be disclosed, the purposes for which the information may be disclosed, and the procedures to obtain the information or records. The rules adopted under this section shall provide for disclosure of the information and records, under appropriate circumstances, which shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) When authorized or required by federal statute or regulation governing the support enforcement program;

(b) To the person the subject of the records or information, unless the information is exempt from disclosure under RCW 42.17.310;

(c) To government agencies, whether state, local, or federal, and including law enforcement agencies, prosecuting agencies, and the executive branch, if the records or information are needed for child support enforcement purposes;

(d) To the parties in a judicial or formal administrative proceeding upon a specific written finding by the presiding officer that the need for the information outweighs any reason for maintaining the privacy and confidentiality of the information or records;

(e) To private persons or organizations if the disclosure is necessary to permit private contracting parties to assist in the management and operation of the department;

(f) Disclosure of address and employment information to the parties to a court order for support for purposes relating to the enforcement or modification of the order;

(g) Disclosure of information or records when necessary to the efficient administration of the support enforcement program or to the performance of functions and responsibilities of the support registry and the office of support enforcement as set forth in state and federal statutes; or

(h) Disclosure of the information or records when authorized under RCW 74.04.060.

(3) Prior to disclosing address information to a party to a child custody order, a notice shall be mailed, if appropriate under the circumstances, to the last known address of the party whose address has been requested. The notice shall advise the party that a request for disclosure has been made and will be complied with unless the department receives a copy of a court order which enjoins the disclosure of the information or restricts or limits the requesting party's right to contact or visit the other party or the child.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting or restricting the effect of RCW 42.17.260(5). Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the disclosure of information and records if all details identifying an individual are deleted or the individual consents to the disclosure.

(5) It shall be unlawful for any person or agency in violation of this section to solicit, publish, disclose, receive, make use of, or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in or acquiesce in the use of any lists of names for commercial or political purposes or the use of any information for purposes other than those purposes specified in this section. A violation of this section shall be a gross misdemeanor as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

Sec. 13, Section 15, chapter 298, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.32A.175 are each amended to read as follows:

In any proceeding in which the court approves an alternative residential placement, the court shall inquire into the ability of parents to contribute to the child's support. If the court finds that the parents are able to contribute to the support of the child, the court shall order them to make such support payments as the court deems equitable. The court may enforce such an order by execution or in any way in which a court of equity may enforce its orders. However, payments shall not be required of a parent who has both opposed the placement and continuously sought reconciliation with, and the return of, the child. All orders entered in a proceeding approving alternative residential placement shall be in compliance with the provisions of section 5 of this 1987 act.

Sec. 14. Section 8, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 8, chapter 195, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.34.160 are each amended to read as follows:

In any case in which the court shall find the child dependent, it may in the same or subsequent proceeding upon the parent or parents, guardian, or other person having custody of said child, being duly summoned or voluntarily appearing, proceed to inquire into the ability of such persons or person able to support the child or contribute ~~((to its support, and if the court shall find such person or persons able to support the child or contribute))~~ thereto, the court may enter such order or decree as shall be according to equity in the premises, and may enforce the same by execution, or in any way in which a court of equity may enforce its decrees. All child support orders entered pursuant to this chapter shall be in compliance with the provisions of section 5 of this 1987 act.

Sec. 15. Section 12, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 45, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court ~~((may, upon its own motion or upon motion of either party;))~~ shall order support ~~((or))~~ and maintenance payments to be made to:(

(a) ~~The person entitled to receive the payments; or~~

~~(b) The department of social and health services pursuant to chapters 74.20 and 74.20A RCW; or~~

~~(c) The clerk of court as trustee for remittance to the person entitled to receive the payments))~~ the Washington state support registry, or the person entitled to receive the payments under an alternate payment plan approved by the court as provided in section 5 of this 1987 act.

(2) Maintenance payments, when ordered in an action where there is no dependent child, may be ordered to be paid to the person entitled to receive the payments, or the clerk of the court as trustee for remittance to the persons entitled to receive the payments. If maintenance payments are made to the clerk of court:(

~~(a))~~, the clerk shall maintain records listing the amount of payments, the date when payments are required to be made, and the names and addresses of the parties affected by the order((:and)),

~~((b))~~ (3) The parties affected by the order shall inform the ((clerk of the court)) registry through which the payments are ordered to be paid of any change of address or of other conditions that may affect the administration of the order.

Sec. 16. Section 21, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 1, chapter 138, Laws of 1986 and RCW 26.09.135 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((t))~~ Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation shall ~~((state:~~

~~(a) That if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee of the support payments may seek a mandatory wage assignment under chapter 26.16 RCW without prior notice to the obligor;~~

~~(b) The income of the parties, if known, or that their income is unknown, or the anticipated income upon which the support award is based;~~

~~(c) The support award as a fixed dollar sum or the formula by which the calculation of support is made;~~

~~(d) The specific day or date on which the support payment is due;~~

~~(e) The social security numbers, if known, of the obligor and obligee of the support payments; and~~

~~(f) Which party has or parties have custody of each child for whom an order of support is entered;~~

~~(2) Failure to comply with subsection (1) of this section does not affect the validity of the support order))~~ be entered in compliance with the provisions of section 5 of this 1987 act.

Sec. 17. Section 2, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Dependent child' means any child for whom a support order has been established or for whom a duty of support is owed.

(2) 'Duty of support' means the duty to provide for the needs of a dependent child, which may include necessary food, clothing, shelter, education, and health care. The duty includes any obligation to make monetary payments, to pay expenses, including spousal maintenance, or to reimburse another person or an agency for the cost of necessary support furnished a dependent child. The duty may be imposed by court order, by operation of law, or otherwise.

(3) 'Obligee' means the custodian of a dependent child, or person or agency, to whom a duty of support is owed, or the person or agency to whom the right to receive or collect support has been assigned.

(4) 'Obligor' means the person owing a duty of support.

(5) 'Support order' means any judgment, decree, or order of support issued by the superior court or authorized agency of the state of Washington; or a judgment, decree, or other order of support issued by a court or agency of competent jurisdiction in another state or country, which has been registered or otherwise made enforceable in this state.

(6) 'Employer' includes the United States government, a state or local unit of government, and any person or entity who pays or owes earnings to the obligor.

(7) 'Earnings' means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making the payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligations, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title 50 RCW, except as provided in RCW 50.40.020 and 50.40.050, or Title 74 RCW.

(8) 'Disposable earnings' means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld.

Sec. 18. Section 7, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A petition or motion seeking a mandatory wage assignment in an action under RCW 26.18.040 may be filed by an obligee if the obligor is more than fifteen days past due in child support payments in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month. The petition or motion shall include a sworn statement by the obligee, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the wage assignment order, including:

(a) That the obligor, stating his or her name and residence, is more than fifteen days past due in child support payments in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month;

(b) A description of the terms of the support order requiring payment of support, and the amount past due;

(c) The name and address of the obligor's employer;

(d) That notice by personal service or any form of mail requiring a return receipt, has been provided to the obligor ((as required by RCW 26.18.060)) at least fifteen days prior to the obligee seeking a mandatory wage assignment, unless the order for support states that the obligee may seek a mandatory wage assignment without notice to the obligor; and

(e) In cases not filed by the state, whether the obligee has received public assistance from any source and, if the obligee has received public assistance, that the department of social and health services has been notified in writing of the pending action.

(2) If the court in which a mandatory wage assignment is sought does not already have a copy of the support order in the court file, then the obligee shall attach a copy of the support order to the petition or motion seeking the wage assignment.

Sec. 19. Section 8, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon receipt of a petition or motion seeking a mandatory wage assignment that complies with RCW 26.18.070, the court shall issue a wage assignment order, as provided in RCW 26.18.100 and including the information required in RCW 26.18.090(1), directed to the employer, and commanding the employer to answer the order on the forms served with the order that comply with RCW 26.18.120 within twenty days after service of the order upon the employer.

(2) The clerk of the court shall forward a copy of the mandatory wage assignment order, a true and correct copy of the support orders in the court file, and a statement containing the obligee's address and social security number shall be forwarded to the Washington state support registry within five days of the entry of the order.

Sec. 20. Section 10, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The wage assignment order shall be substantially in the following form:

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF

.....
Obligee No.
vs.
..... WAGE ASSIGNMENT
Obligor ORDER
.....
Employer
THE STATE OF WASHINGTON TO:
Employer
AND TO:
Obligor

The above-named obligee claims that the above-named obligor is more than fifteen days past due in child support payments in an amount equal to or greater than the child support payable for one month. The amount of the accrued child support debt as of this date is

..... dollars, the amount of arrearage payments specified in the support order (if applicable) is dollars per, and the amount of the current and continuing support obligation under the support order is dollars per

You are hereby commanded to answer this order by filling in the attached form according to the instructions, and you must mail or deliver the original of the answer to the court, one copy to the Washington state support registry, one copy to the obligee or obligee's attorney, and one copy to the obligor within twenty days after service of this wage assignment order upon you.

If you possess any earnings due and owing to the obligor, then you shall do as follows:

(1) Withhold from the obligor's earnings each month, or from each regular earnings disbursement, the lesser of:

- (a) The sum of the accrued support debt and the current support obligation;
- (b) The sum of the specified arrearage payment amount and the current support obligation; or
- (c) Fifty percent of the disposable earnings of the obligor.

(2) The total amount withheld above is subject to the wage assignment order, and all other sums may be disbursed to the obligor.

You shall continue to withhold the ordered amounts from nonexempt earnings of the obligor until notified by the court that the wage assignment has been modified or terminated. You shall promptly notify the court and the Washington state support registry if and when the employee is no longer employed by you.

You shall deliver the withheld earnings to the ~~((clerk of the court that issued this wage assignment order))~~ Washington state support registry at each regular pay interval, but the first delivery shall occur no sooner than twenty days after your receipt of this wage assignment order.

You shall deliver a copy of this order to the obligor as soon as is reasonably possible. This wage assignment order has priority over any other wage assignment or garnishment, except for another wage assignment or garnishment for child support, or order to withhold or deliver under chapter 74.20A RCW.

WHETHER OR NOT YOU OWE ANYTHING TO THE OBLIGOR, YOUR FAILURE TO ANSWER AS REQUIRED MAY MAKE YOU LIABLE FOR OBLIGOR'S CLAIMED SUPPORT DEBT TO THE OBLIGEE OR SUBJECT TO CONTEMPT OF COURT.

NOTICE TO OBLIGOR: YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO REQUEST A HEARING IN THE SUPERIOR COURT THAT ISSUED THIS WAGE ASSIGNMENT ORDER, TO REQUEST THAT THE COURT QUASH, MODIFY, OR TERMINATE THE WAGE ASSIGNMENT ORDER.

DATED THIS ... day of ..., 19

Obligee,
or obligee's attorney

Judge/Court Commissioner

Sec. 21, Section 11, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An employer upon whom service of a wage assignment order has been made shall answer the order by sworn affidavit within twenty days after the date of service. The answer shall state whether the obligor is employed by or receives earnings from the employer, whether the employer will honor the wage assignment order, and whether there are multiple child support attachments against the obligor.

(2) If the employer possesses any earnings due and owing to the obligor, the earnings subject to the wage assignment order shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the wage assignment order. The withheld earnings shall be delivered to the ~~((clerk of the court that issued the wage assignment order))~~ Washington state support registry at each regular pay interval, but the first delivery shall occur no sooner than twenty days after receipt of the wage assignment order.

(3) The employer shall continue to withhold the ordered amounts from nonexempt earnings of the obligor until notified by the court that the wage assignment has been modified or terminated. The employer shall promptly notify the ~~((court))~~ Washington state support registry when the employee is no longer employed.

(4) The employer may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the employee's earnings after withholding under the wage assignment order, even if the remainder is exempt under RCW 26.18.090. The processing fee may not exceed (a) ten dollars for the first disbursement made by the employer to the ~~((superior court clerk))~~ Washington state support registry; and (b) one dollar for each subsequent disbursement to the clerk.

(5) An order for wage assignment for support entered under this chapter shall have priority over any other wage assignment or garnishment, except for another wage assignment or garnishment for child support, or order to withhold and deliver under chapter 74.20A RCW.

(6) An employer who fails to withhold earnings as required by a wage assignment issued under this chapter may be held liable for the amounts disbursed to the obligor in violation of the wage assignment order, and may be found by the court to be in contempt of court and may be punished as provided by law.

(7) No employer who complies with a wage assignment issued under this chapter may be liable to the employee for wrongful withholding.

(8) No employer may discharge, discipline, or refuse to hire an employee because of the entry or service of a wage assignment issued and executed under this chapter. A person who violates this subsection may be found by the court to be in contempt of court and may be punished as provided by law.

(9) An employer may combine amounts withheld from various employees into a single payment to the ~~((superior court clerk))~~ Washington state support registry, if the payment includes a listing of the amounts attributable to each employee and other information as required by the ~~((clerk))~~ registry.

(10) An employer shall deliver a copy of the wage assignment order to the obligor as soon as is reasonably possible.

Sec. 22. Section 13, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Service of the wage assignment order on the employer is invalid unless it is served with ~~((four))~~ five answer forms in substantial conformance with RCW 26.18.120, together with stamped envelopes addressed to, respectively, the clerk of the court where the order was issued, the Washington state support registry, the obligee's attorney or the obligee, and the obligor. The obligee shall also include an extra copy of the wage assignment order for the employer to deliver to the obligor. Service on the employer shall be in person or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(2) On or before the date of service of the wage assignment order on the employer, the obligee shall mail or cause to be mailed by certified mail a copy of the wage assignment order to the obligor at the obligor's last known post office address; or, in the alternative, a copy of the wage assignment order shall be served on the obligor in the same manner as a summons in a civil action on, before, or within two days after the date of service of the order on the employer. This requirement is not jurisdictional, but if the copy is not mailed or served as this subsection provides, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the superior court, in its discretion, may quash the wage assignment order, upon motion of the obligor promptly made and supported by an affidavit showing that the obligor has suffered substantial injury due to the failure to mail or serve the copy.

Sec. 23. Section 22, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 2, chapter 138, Laws of 1986 and RCW 26.21.125 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((+))~~ Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation shall ~~((state:~~

~~((a) That if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee of the support payments may seek a mandatory wage assignment under chapter 26.18 RCW without prior notice to the obligor;~~

~~((b) The income of the parties, if known, or that their income is unknown, or the anticipated income upon which the support award is based;~~

~~((c) The support award as a fixed dollar sum or the formula by which the calculation of support is made;~~

~~((e) The social security numbers, if known, of the obligor and obligee of the support payments; and~~

~~((f) Which party has or parties have custody of each child for whom an order of support is entered;~~

~~((2) Failure to comply with subsection (1) of this section does not affect the validity of the support order) be entered in compliance with section 5 of this 1987 act.~~

Sec. 24. Section 15, chapter 196, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 21, chapter 45, Laws of 1963 and RCW 26.21.140 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the foregoing powers, the court of this state when acting as the responding state has the power to subject the respondent to such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper to assure compliance with its orders and in particular:

(1) To require the respondent to furnish recognizance in the form of a cash deposit or bond of such character and in such amount as the court may deem proper to assure payment of any amount required to be paid by the respondent;

(2) To require the respondent to make payments at specified intervals to the ~~((clerk of the court))~~ Washington state support registry and to report personally to ~~((such clerk))~~ the Washington state support registry at such times as may be deemed necessary;

(3) To punish the respondent who shall violate any order of the court to the same extent as is provided by law for contempt of the court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by the court.

Sec. 25. Section 16, chapter 196, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 22, chapter 45, Laws of 1963 and RCW 26.21.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The court of this state when acting as a responding state shall have the following duties which ~~((may))~~ shall be carried out through the ~~((clerk of the court))~~ Washington state support registry:

(1) Upon the receipt of a payment made by the respondent pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise, to transmit the same forthwith to the court of the initiating state, and

(2) Upon request to furnish to the court of the initiating state a certified statement of all payments made by the respondent.

Sec. 26. Section 17, chapter 196, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 23, chapter 45, Laws of 1963 and RCW 26.21.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The court of this state when acting as an initiating state shall have the duty which ~~((may))~~ shall be carried out through the ((clerk of the court)) Washington state support registry to receive and disburse forthwith all payments made by the respondent or transmitted by the court of the responding state.

Sec. 27. Section 23, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 3, chapter 138, Laws of 1986 and RCW 26.26.132 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((+))~~ Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation shall ~~((state:~~

~~((a) That if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee of the support payments may seek a mandatory wage assignment under chapter 26.16 RCW without prior notice to the obligor;~~

~~((b) The income of the parties, if known, or that their income is unknown, or the anticipated income upon which the support award is based;~~

~~((c) The support award as a fixed dollar sum or the formula by which the calculation of support is made;~~

~~((d) The specific day or date on which the support payment is due;~~

~~((e) The social security numbers, if known, of the obligor and obligee of the support payments; and~~

~~((f) Which party has or parties have custody of each child for whom an order of support is entered;~~

~~((g) Failure to comply with subsection (1) of this section does not affect the validity of the support order)) be entered in compliance with section 5 of this 1987 act.~~

Sec. 28. Section 16, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If existence of the father and child relationship is declared, or paternity or a duty of support has been acknowledged or adjudicated under this chapter or under prior law, the obligation of the father may be enforced in the same or other proceedings by the mother, the child, the state of Washington, the public authority that has furnished or may furnish the reasonable expenses of pregnancy, confinement, education, support, or funeral, or by any other person, including a private agency, to the extent he has furnished or is furnishing these expenses.

(2) The court ~~((may))~~ shall order support payments to be made to the ((department of social and health services pursuant to chapters 74.20 and 74.20A RCW, to a parent, the clerk of the court, or a person, corporation, or agency designated to administer them for the benefit of the child under the supervision of the court)) Washington state support registry, or the person entitled to receive the payments under an alternate payment plan approved by the court as provided in section 5 of this 1987 act.

(3) All remedies for the enforcement of judgments apply.

Sec. 29. Section 74.04.060, chapter 26, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 32, chapter 41, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

For the protection of applicants and recipients, the department and the county offices and their respective officers and employees are prohibited, except as hereinafter provided, from disclosing the contents of any records, files, papers and communications, except for purposes directly connected with the administration of the programs of this title. In any judicial proceeding, except such proceeding as is directly concerned with the administration of these programs, such records, files, papers and communications, and their contents, shall be deemed privileged communications and except for the right of any individual to inquire of the office whether a named individual is a recipient of welfare assistance and such person shall be entitled to an affirmative or negative answer. However, upon written request of a parent who has been awarded visitation rights in an action for divorce or separation or any parent with legal custody of the child, the department shall disclose to him or her the ~~((current))~~ last known address and location of his or her natural or adopted children. The secretary shall adopt rules which establish procedures for disclosing the address of the children and providing, when appropriate, for prior notice to the custodian of the children. The notice shall state that a request for disclosure has been received and will be complied with by the department unless the department receives a copy of a court order which enjoins the disclosure of the information or restricts or limits the requesting party's right to contact or visit the other party or the child. Information supplied to a parent by the department shall be used only for purposes directly related to the enforcement of the visitation and custody provisions of the court order of separation or decree of divorce. No parent shall disclose such information to any other person except for the purpose of enforcing visitation provisions of the said order or decree.

The county offices shall maintain monthly at their offices a report showing the names and addresses of all recipients in the county receiving public assistance under this title, together with the amount paid to each during the preceding month.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to duly designated representatives of approved private welfare agencies, public officials, members of legislative interim committees and advisory committees when performing duties directly connected with the administration of this title, such as regulation and investigation directly connected therewith: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any information so obtained by such persons or groups shall be treated with such degree of confidentiality as is required by the federal social security law.

It shall be unlawful, except as provided in this section, for any person, body, association, firm, corporation or other agency to solicit, publish, disclose, receive, make use of, or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in or acquiesce in the use of any lists or names for commercial or political purposes of any nature. The violation of this section shall be a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 30. Section 16, chapter 173, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20.101 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever, as a result of any action, support money is paid by the person or persons responsible for support, such payment shall be paid through the ~~((support enforcement and collections unit of the state department of social and health services))~~ Washington state support registry if the support order contains a provision directing the responsible parent to make support payments through the registry or upon written notice by the ((department)) office of support enforcement to the responsible ((person)) parent or to the clerk of the court, if appropriate, that ((the children for whom a support obligation exists are receiving public assistance or that the support debt has been assigned to the department)) all future support payments must be made through the registry.

After service on a responsible parent of a notice under this section or RCW 74.20A.040 or 74.20A.055, payment of moneys ~~((or in-kind providings))~~ for the support of the responsible parent's children which are not paid to the ~~((department))~~ Washington state support registry shall not be credited against or set-off against any obligation to provide support which has been assigned to the department, whether the obligation has been determined by court order, or pursuant to RCW 74.20A.055, or is unliquidated.

Sec. 31. Section 3, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 276, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.20A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall be subrogated to the right of any dependent child or children or person having the care, custody, and control of said child or children, if public assistance money is paid to or for the benefit of the child, to prosecute or maintain any support action or execute any administrative remedy existing under the laws of the state of Washington to obtain reimbursement of moneys expended, based on the support obligation of the responsible parent established by a superior court order or RCW 74.20A.055. Distribution of any support moneys shall be made in accordance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657.

~~((No))~~ Public assistance moneys shall be exempt from collection ((shall be made from a parent or other person who is the recipient of public assistance moneys while such person or persons are in such status)) action under this chapter except as provided in RCW 74.20A.270.

No collection action shall be taken against parents of children eligible for admission to, or children who have been released from, a state school for the developmentally disabled as defined by chapter 72.33 RCW.

The department may initiate, continue, maintain, or execute action to establish, enforce, and collect a support obligation, including establishing paternity and performing related services, under this chapter and chapter 74.20 RCW, or through the attorney general or prosecuting attorney under chapter 26.09, 26.18, 26.20, 26.21, or 26.26 RCW or other appropriate statutes or the common law of this state, for a period not to exceed three months from the month following the month in which the family or any member thereof ceases to receive public assistance and thereafter if a nonassistance request for support enforcement services has been made under RCW 74.20.040.

Sec. 32. Section 13, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a support lien has been filed pursuant to RCW 74.20A.060, the secretary may collect the support debt stated in said lien by the distraint, seizure, and sale of the property subject to said lien. Not less than ten days prior to the date of sale, the secretary shall ((give notice)) cause a copy of the notice of sale to be transmitted by regular mail and by any form of mailing requiring a return receipt to the debtor and any person known to have or claim an interest ((therein of the general description of the property to be sold and the time and place of sale of said)) in the property. Said notice shall ((be given to such persons by certified mail: return receipt requested or by service in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action)) contain a general description of the property to be sold and the time, date, and place of the sale. ((A)) The notice ((specifying the property to be sold)) of sale shall be posted in at least two public places in the county wherein the distraint has been made. The time of sale shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of posting of such notices. Said sale shall be conducted by the secretary, who shall proceed to sell such property by parcel or by lot at a public auction, and who may set a minimum reasonable price to include the expenses of making a levy and of advertising the sale, and if the amount bid for such property at the sale is not equal to the price so fixed, the secretary may declare such property to be purchased by the department for such price, or may conduct another sale of such property pursuant to the provisions of this section. In the event of sale, the debtor's account shall be credited with the amount for which the property has been sold. Property acquired by the department as herein prescribed may be sold by the secretary at public or private sale, and the amount realized shall be placed in the state general fund to the credit of the department of social and health services. In all cases of sale, as aforesaid, the secretary shall issue a bill of sale or a deed to the purchaser and said bill of sale or deed shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the secretary to make such sale and conclusive evidence of the regularity of his proceeding in making the sale, and shall transfer to the purchaser all right, title, and interest of the debtor in said property. The proceeds of any such sale, except in those cases wherein the property has been acquired by the department, shall be first applied by the secretary to reimbursement of the costs of distraint and sale, and thereafter in satisfaction of the delinquent account. Any excess which shall thereafter remain in the hands of the secretary shall be refunded to the debtor. Sums so refundable to a debtor may be subject to seizure or distraint by any taxing authority of the state or its political subdivisions or by the secretary for new sums due and owing subsequent to the subject proceeding. Except as specifically provided in this chapter, there shall be exempt from distraint, seizure, and sale under this chapter such property as is exempt therefrom under the laws of this state.

Sec. 33. Section 19, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 17, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary may assess and collect interest of six percent per annum on any support debt due and owing to the department under RCW 74.20A.030 (may be collected by the secretary) or which the department has been authorized to enforce and collect under RCW 74.20.040 at the maximum rate permitted under RCW 19.52.020. No provision of this chapter shall be construed to require the secretary to maintain interest balance due accounts and said interest may be waived by the secretary, if said waiver would facilitate the collection of the debt.

Sec. 34. Section 24, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.260 are each amended to read as follows:

((One hundred percent of the temporary total)) Disability payments ((and permanent total disability compensation to a workman allocated by RCW 51.32.090 and 51.32.060 respectively to the spouse and children of a workman, and forty percent of the net proceeds of payments to a workman for permanent partial disability under RCW 51.32.080)) made pursuant to Title 51 RCW shall ((not) be classified as ((;)earnings((but shall be subject to lien or order to withhold and deliver and said lien or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require any political subdivision or department of the state to withhold the above stated portions at each subsequent disbursement or receipt interval until the entire amount of the support debt stated in the lien or order to withhold and deliver has been withheld)) and shall be subject to collection action by the office for support enforcement under this chapter and all other applicable state statutes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. Sections 1 through 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter under Title 26 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 13, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.130; and

(2) Section 6, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. Sections 1 through 3 and 5 through 36 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. Section 4 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "relations;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 13.32A.175, 13.34.160, 26.09.120, 26.09.135, 26.18.020, 26.18.070, 26.18.080, 26.18.100, 26.18.110, 26.18.130, 26.21.125, 26.21.140, 26.21.150, 26.21.160, 26.26.132, 26.26.150, 74.04.060, 74.20.101, 74.20A.030, 74.20A.130, 74.20A.190, and 74.20A.260; adding a new chapter to Title 26 RCW; repealing RCW 26.09.130 and 26.18.060; prescribing penalties; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 15, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 978 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 316, Laws of 1986 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of the department of ecology shall:

((1)) (a) Continue to participate with the federal government in its studies of the Yakima enhancement project and of options for future development of the second half of the Columbia Basin project;

((2)) (b) Vigorously represent the state's interest in said studies, particularly as they relate to protection of existing water rights and resolution of conflicts in the adjudication of the Yakima river within the framework of state water rights law and propose means of resolving the conflict that minimize adverse effects on the various existing uses;

((3)) (c) As a cooperative federal and nonfederal effort, work with members of the congressional delegation to identify and advance, subject to the limitations in subsection (2) of this section, for federal authorization elements of the Yakima enhancement project which: Have general public support and acceptable cost-sharing arrangements, meet study objectives, and otherwise have potential for early implementation; and

((4)) (d) In developing acceptable cost-sharing arrangements, request federal recognition of state credit for expenditures of moneys from Washington state utility ratepayers.

(2) In the interest of promoting cooperation between all interested parties and to effectuate the efficient and satisfactory implementation of the Yakima enhancement project, the state requests that Congress authorize the construction of a pipeline between Keechelus Lake and Kachess Lake as one of the elements of early implementation of the Yakima Enhancement Project for the purpose of supplying the water which is demanded for and caused by the operation of the fish passage facilities at the Easton Dam. The department, in concert with other state agencies, shall work diligently to assure that the pipeline element is included in the federal legislation.

(3) While the state and federal governments develop and implement the various phases of the Yakima enhancement project, the policy of the state shall be to require that any new water project or modification of an existing water project that creates a new demand for surface water from the Yakima river system include as a part of that project or modification a supply of water to meet the demand created. Any permit or other authorization required for the project that must be issued by an agency of the state shall include this requirement for water as one of its conditions. For the purposes of this subsection, water supplied by proposals to raise the reservoir elevation of Lake Cle Elum by three feet shall not be considered such a supply of water. For the purposes of this section, the phrase 'water projects' includes, but is not limited to, fish passage or protective facilities.

(4) Nothing contained in subsection (3) of this section shall limit any individual or entity from entering into any interim operating agreement, including but not limited to those that may be permitted by chapter 90.54 RCW, for the construction of any new water project or modification of an existing water project pending the completion of facilities which create the water required for the operation of such new or modified water project.

(5) The provisions of this section, including but not limited to the interim operating agreements recognized under subsection (4) of this section, shall not interfere with or impact the availability of water necessary to fulfill existing water rights, and the specific elements, uses, or methods of acquisition of those rights recognized under state water right laws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Section 1 of this act is added to chapter 43.21A RCW."

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "basin;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 3, chapter 316, Laws of 1986 (uncodified); and adding a new section to chapter 43.21A RCW."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

Smith, L. Smith, H. Sommers, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, B. Williams, J. Williams, K. Wilson, S. Wilson, Wineberry, Winsley and Zellinsky

WHEREAS, Thousands of employees of common carriers travel across state lines in the regular course of their daily employment; and

WHEREAS, These employees who are not residents of these states impose no tax burden on the states through which they travel; and

WHEREAS, The employers of these nonresidents are common carriers which pay a substantial share of state and local taxes in the states in which they operate, such as fuel taxes and registration fees, and various other excise and property taxes to cover the cost of governmental services from which they benefit while present in the state; and

WHEREAS, It is patently inequitable for one state to tax another state's residents for purported benefits received from governmental services when the nonresidents taxed are neither living, nor working to any substantial degree, in the taxing state; and

WHEREAS, Current federal law allows withholding of state income tax by common carriers from their employees' wages if more than fifty percent of the distance traveled by the employee is within a state other than the employee's state of residence; and

WHEREAS, In imposing state income taxes, these states are taxing nonresidents who, as such, have no vote or voice in the imposition of the tax or its rate and receive no benefit from the expenditure of their tax money; and

WHEREAS, The fact that current federal law allows this taxation without representation does not make the collection of such taxes from these nonresident employees equitable; and

WHEREAS, Taxing nonresidents while traveling through another state raises questions regarding the exclusive power of Congress to regulate interstate commerce and the ensuing right to travel freely as expressed in Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution of the United States;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the State of Washington recognizes the impropriety of the State of Idaho taxing nonresident employees of common carriers and believes that the United States Congress should change federal law to ensure more fair treatment of employees of common carriers who cross state lines; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be immediately transmitted to the Director of the Internal Revenue Service, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives and to each member of Congress.

Mr. Day moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives Day and Taylor spoke in favor of the resolution, and it was adopted.

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 87-4667, by Representatives Brough, Belcher, Nelson, Hankins, McMullen, Miller, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Holland, Allen, Ballard, Prince, Grimm, Rasmussen, Braddock, Nutley, Amondson, Appelwick, Armstrong, Barnes, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Berozoff, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Bumgarner, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grant, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holm, Jacobsen, Jesernig, J. King, P. King, R. King, Kremen, Leonard, Madsen, May, McLean, Meyers, Moyer, Nealey, Niemi, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Pruitt, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, C. Smith, L. Smith, D. Sommers, H. Sommers, Spanel, Sprenkle, Sutherland, Taylor, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, B. Williams, J. Williams, K. Wilson, S. Wilson, Wineberry, Winsley and Zellinsky

WHEREAS, Determining a state budget for the 1987-88 biennium is a matter of utmost urgency and a concern of the highest order; and

WHEREAS, It is absolutely critical that both houses of the legislature immediately begin a cooperative bipartisan effort in order to conclude favorably the budgetary process; and

WHEREAS, Without a swift resolution of this matter the continued existence of state government is highly in doubt, the welfare of our citizens is severely jeopardized, and we are all suddenly at risk; and

WHEREAS, It is time to put aside partisan concerns, petty disputes, backroom maneuverings, secret plottings, frivolous motions and all other schemes, ruses, conspiracies, cabals, connivings, collusions, tricks, duplicities, chicaneries and double-dealings, and we must begin to consider seriously and soberly what we can do to find a solution posthaste to this most solemn budgetary crisis;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the State of Washington is willing to challenge, and hereby does challenge, the Senate of the State of Washington to a winner-take-all softball game, played in accordance with the rules established by the Amateur Softball Association for coed slow pitch; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the winners shall have the exclusive privilege of determining the 1987-88 biennium budget and that the losers shall unanimously concur in the decision of the winners.

Ms. Brough moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives Brough, Appelwick, Hargrove, Taylor, Nelson and Barnes spoke in favor of the resolution, and it was adopted.

Ms. Brough moved that the resolution be immediately transmitted to the Senate by the Chief Clerk. The motion was carried.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) declared the House to be at ease.
The Speaker called the House to order.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 15, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 161 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 232, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 8, chapter 113, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.37.530 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful:

(a) For any person to operate a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle not equipped with mirrors on the left and right sides of the motorcycle which shall be so located as to give the driver a complete view of the highway for a distance of at least two hundred feet to the rear of the motorcycle or motor-driven cycle: PROVIDED, That mirrors shall not be required on any motorcycle or motor-driven cycle over twenty-five years old originally manufactured without mirrors and which has been restored to its original condition and which is being ridden to or from or otherwise in conjunction with an antique or classic motorcycle contest, show, or other such assemblage: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no mirror is required on any motorcycle manufactured prior to January 1, 1931;

(b) For any person to operate a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle which does not have a windshield unless wearing glasses, goggles, or a face shield of a type conforming to rules adopted by the state commission on equipment;

(c) For any person under the age of twelve years to operate or ride upon a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle on a state highway, county road, or city street unless wearing upon his or her head a protective helmet of a type conforming to rules adopted by the commission on equipment. The helmet must be equipped with either a neck or chin strap which shall be fastened securely while the motorcycle or motor-driven cycle is in motion;

(d) For any person to transport a child under the age of five on a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle;

(e) For any person to sell or offer for sale a motorcycle helmet which does not meet the requirements established by the state commission on equipment.

(2) The state commission on equipment is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend rules, pursuant to the administrative procedure act, concerning the standards and procedures for conformance of rules adopted for glasses, goggles, face shields, and protective helmets.

Sec. 2. Section 50, chapter 145, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 1, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.505 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person applying for a special endorsement or a new category of endorsement of a driver's license authorizing such person to drive a motorcycle or a motor-driven cycle shall pay a motorcycle examination fee which is not refundable. The director of licensing shall prescribe the examination fee at an amount equal to the cost of administering such examination, but in no event more than ~~((four))~~ six dollars for the initial or new category examination nor more than ~~((two))~~ four dollars for a subsequent renewal examination. ~~((Two))~~ Four dollars of the initial or new category examination fee and ~~((two))~~ four dollars of any subsequent fee for a renewal shall be deposited in the motorcycle safety education account of the highway safety fund.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 77, Laws of 1982 and RCW 46.20.520 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of licensing shall use moneys designated for the motorcycle safety education account of the highway safety fund to implement by July 1, 1983, a voluntary motorcycle operator training and education program. The director may contract with a vocational-technical institute, school district, educational service district, community college, college, university, county, city, town, and other public and private entities to implement this program.

(2) There is created a motorcycle safety education advisory ~~((committee))~~ board to assist the director of licensing in the development of a motorcycle operator training education program. The ~~((committee))~~ board shall monitor this program following implementation and report to the director of licensing as necessary with recommendations including, but not limited to, administration, application, and substance of the motorcycle operator training and education program.

The ~~((committee))~~ board shall consist of five members appointed by the director of licensing. Three members of the ~~((committee))~~ board, one of whom shall be appointed ~~((chairman))~~ chairperson, shall be ~~((active motorcycle riders))~~ members of nonprofit motorcycle organizations which actively support and promote motorcycle safety education. One member shall be a currently employed Washington state patrol motorcycle officer with at least five years experience and at least one year cumulative experience as a motorcycle officer. One member shall be a member of the public. The term of appointment shall be ~~((determined by the director))~~ two years. The ~~((committee))~~ board shall meet at the call of the director, but not less than two times annually and not less than five times during its term of appointment, and shall receive no compensation for ~~(their)~~ services but shall be reimbursed ~~(their)~~ for travel expenses while engaged in business of the ~~(committee)~~ board in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

(3) The ~~(director of licensing)~~ board shall submit a proposed motorcycle operator training and education program to the director and to the legislative transportation committee for review and approval on or before ~~(April 1, 1983)~~ January 1, 1988.

(4) The director shall administer the program submitted by the board in the absence of approval by the transportation committee.

(5) The priorities of the program shall be in the following order of priority:

(a) Public awareness of motorcycle safety.

(b) Motorcycle safety education in a vocational-technical institute, educational service district, school district, community college, college, university, county, city, town, and other public or private educational program.

(c) Classroom and on-cycle training.

(d) Improved motorcycle operator testing."

On line 1 of the title, after "helmets;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 46.37.530, 46.20.505, and 46.20.520."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Sutherland, Spanel and S. Wilson as conferees on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5439.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 13, 1987

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 927 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PART I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. Except as otherwise expressly provided, the provisions of this chapter and of chapters 6.04, 6.12, 6.16, 6.20, 6.-- (part VI of this act), 7.12, 7.33, 6.-- RCW (part IX of this act), as recodified by this act, and chapter 6.32 RCW apply to both the superior courts and district courts of this state. If proceedings are before a district court, acts to be performed by the clerk may be performed by a district court judge if there is no clerk. As used in this title, 'sheriff' includes deputies, and 'execution docket' refers also to the docket of a district court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 102. For purposes of this title and RCW 4.56.190 and 4.56.210, a judgment of a superior court is entered when it is delivered to the clerk's office for filing. A judgment of a district court of this state is entered on the date of the entry of the judgment in the docket of the court. A judgment of a small claims department of a district court of this state is entered on the date of the entry in the docket of that department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. If the sheriff is a party or otherwise interested in an action in which a writ of execution, attachment, or replevin is to be served, the writ shall be directed to the coroner of the county, or the officer exercising the powers and performing the duties of coroner if there is no coroner, and the person to whom the writ is thus directed shall perform the duties of the sheriff.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 104. (1) When property liable to an execution against several persons is sold on execution, if more than a due proportion of the judgment is levied upon the property of one person, or one of them pays without a sale more than his or her due proportion, that person may compel contribution from the others. When a judgment against several persons is upon an obligation or contract of one of them as security for another, if the surety pays the full amount or any part of the judgment, either by sale of the surety's property or before sale, the surety may compel repayment from the principal.

(2) In either case covered by subsection (1) of this section, the person or surety so paying shall be entitled to the benefit of the judgment to enforce contribution or repayment, if within thirty days after the payment, notice of the payment and claim to contribution or repayment is filed with the clerk of the court where the judgment was rendered.

(3) Upon filing such notice, the clerk shall make an entry thereof in the docket where the judgment is entered.

PART II

HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION

Sec. 201. Section 1, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as last amended by section 7, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The homestead consists of the dwelling house or the mobile home in which the owner resides or intends to reside, with appurtenant buildings, and the land on which the same are situated(;) and by which the same are surrounded, or improved or unimproved land (~~without improvements purchased~~) owned with the intention of ~~(building)~~ placing a house or mobile home thereon and residing thereon. A mobile home may be exempted under this chapter whether or not it is permanently affixed to the underlying land and whether or not the mobile home is placed upon a lot owned by the mobile home owner. Property included in the homestead must be actually intended or used as the principal home for the owner.

(2) As used in this chapter, the term 'owner' includes but is not limited to a purchaser under a deed of trust, mortgage, or real estate contract.

(3) As used in this chapter, the term 'net value' means market value less all liens and encumbrances.

Sec. 202. Section 2, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as last amended by section 8, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

If the owner is married, the homestead may consist of the community or jointly owned property of the spouses or the separate property of either spouse: PROVIDED, That the same premises may not be claimed separately by the husband and wife with the effect of increasing the net value of the homestead available to the marital community beyond the amount specified in RCW 6.12.050 as now or hereafter amended. When the owner is not married, the homestead may consist of any of his or her property.

Sec. 203. Section 24, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as last amended by section 4, chapter 45, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 6.12.050 are each amended to read as follows:

A homestead(s) may consist of lands ((and tenements with the improvements thereon)), as ((defined)) described in RCW 6.12.010, regardless of area, but ((not exceeding in)) the homestead exemption amount shall not exceed the lesser of (i) the total net value(;) of ((both)) the lands ((and)), mobile home, and improvements as described in RCW 6.12.010, or (ii) the sum of ~~((twenty-five))~~ thirty thousand dollars. ~~((The premises thus included in the homestead must be actually intended or used as a home for the owner, and shall not be devoted exclusively to any other purpose.))~~

Sec. 204. Section 9, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.045 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((The homestead exemption described in RCW 6.12.050 applies automatically to the homestead as defined in RCW 6.12.010 if the occupancy requirement of RCW 6.12.050 is met. However, the homestead exemption does not apply to those judgments defined in RCW 6.12.100))~~ Property described in RCW 6.12.010 constitutes a homestead and is automatically protected by the exemption described in RCW 6.12.090 from and after the time the property is occupied as a principal residence by the owner or, if the homestead is unimproved or improved land that is not yet occupied as a homestead, from and after the declaration or declarations required by the following subsections are filed for record or, if the homestead is a mobile home not yet occupied as a homestead and located on land not owned by the owner of the mobile home, from and after delivery of a declaration as prescribed in RCW 6.16.090(3)(c).

(2) ~~((H))~~ An owner ~~((elects to))~~ who selects ~~((the))~~ a homestead from unimproved or improved land ~~((purchased with the intention of residing thereon, the owner))~~ that is not yet occupied as a homestead must execute a declaration of homestead and file the same for record in the office of the recording officer in the county in which the land is located. However, if the owner also owns another parcel of property on which the owner presently resides or in which the owner claims a homestead, the owner must also execute a declaration of abandonment of homestead on ~~((the))~~ that other property ~~((on which the owner presently resides.))~~ and file the same for record with the recording officer in the county in which the land is located.

(3) The declaration of homestead must contain:

(a) A statement that the person making it is residing on the premises or ~~((has purchased the same for a homestead and))~~ intends to reside thereon and claims them as a homestead;

(b) A legal description of the premises; and

(c) An estimate of their actual cash value.

(4) The declaration of abandonment must contain:

(a) A statement that premises occupied as a residence or claimed as a homestead no longer constitute the owner's homestead;

(b) A legal description of the premises; and

(c) A statement of the date of abandonment.

(5) The declaration of homestead and declaration of abandonment of homestead must be acknowledged in the same manner as a grant of real property is acknowledged.

Sec. 205. Section 7, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 14, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.120 are each amended to read as follows:

A homestead is presumed abandoned if the owner vacates the property for a continuous period of at least six months. However, if an owner is going to be absent from the homestead for more than six months but does not intend to abandon the homestead, and has no other ~~((permanent))~~ principal residence, the owner may execute and acknowledge, in the same manner as a grant of real property is acknowledged, a declaration of nonabandonment of homestead and file the declaration for record in the office of the recording officer of the county in which the property is situated.

The declaration of nonabandonment of homestead must contain:

(1) A statement that the owner claims the property as a homestead, that the owner intends to occupy the property in the future, and that the owner claims no other property as a homestead;

(2) A statement of where the owner will be residing while absent from the ~~((premises))~~ homestead property, the estimated duration of the owner's absence, and the reason for the absence; and

(3) A legal description of the ~~((premises))~~ homestead property.

Sec. 206. Section 6, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 1, chapter 251, Laws of 1983 and RCW 6.12.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The homestead of a married person cannot be conveyed or encumbered unless the instrument by which it is conveyed or encumbered is executed and acknowledged by both husband and wife, except that a husband or a wife or both jointly may make and execute powers of attorney for the conveyance or encumbrance of the homestead.

Sec. 207. Section 4, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as last amended by section 13, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in RCW 6.12.100, the homestead is exempt from attachment and from execution or forced sale~~((except as in this chapter provided; and))~~ for the debts of the owner up to the amount specified in RCW 6.12.050. The proceeds of the voluntary sale of the homestead in good faith for the purpose of acquiring a new homestead, and proceeds from insurance covering destruction of homestead property held for use in restoring or replacing the homestead property, up to the amount specified in RCW 6.12.050, shall likewise be exempt for one year from receipt, and also such new homestead acquired with such proceeds.

(2) Every homestead created under this chapter is presumed to be valid to the extent of all the ~~(lands)~~ property claimed exempt, until the validity thereof is contested in a court of general jurisdiction in the county or district in which the homestead is situated.

Sec. 208. Section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 16, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 6.12.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The homestead exemption is ~~((subject to))~~ not available against an execution or forced sale in satisfaction of judgments obtained:

(1) On debts secured by mechanic's, laborer's, materialmen's or vendor's liens upon the premises;

(2) On debts secured by purchase money security agreements describing as collateral ~~((a)) the mobile home ((located on the premises)) that is claimed as a homestead or by mortgages or deeds of trust on the premises, executed and acknowledged by the husband and wife or by any unmarried claimant;~~

(3) On one spouse's or the community's debts existing at the time of that spouse's bankruptcy filing where (a) bankruptcy is filed by both spouses within a six-month period, ~~((including as a joint case under 11 U.S.C. Sec. 302))~~ other than in a joint case or a case in which their assets are jointly administered, and (b) the other spouse exempts property from property of the estate under the ~~((federal))~~ bankruptcy exemption provisions of 11 U.S.C. Sec. ~~((522(b)(+))~~ 522(d);

(4) On debts arising from a lawful court order or decree or administrative order establishing a child support obligation or obligation to pay spousal maintenance.

Sec. 209. Section 30, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 6.12.105 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((When a homestead declaration occurs before a judgment, the judgment creditor has))~~ A judgment against the owner of a homestead shall become a lien on the value of the homestead property in excess of the homestead exemption~~(- This lien commences when)~~ from the time the judgment creditor records the judgment with the ~~((creditor))~~ recording officer of the county where the property is located.

Sec. 210. Section 9, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.140 are each amended to read as follows:

When ~~((the))~~ execution for the enforcement of a judgment obtained in a case not within the classes enumerated in RCW 6.12.100 is levied upon the homestead, the judgment creditor ~~((may))~~ shall apply to the superior court of the county in which the homestead is situated for the appointment of a person~~((s))~~ to appraise the value thereof.

Sec. 211. Section 10, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 15, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The application under RCW 6.12.140 must be made ~~((upon))~~ by filing a verified petition, showing~~((—))~~:

(1) The fact that an execution has been levied upon the homestead.

(2) The name of the owner of the homestead property.

(3) That the net value of the homestead exceeds the amount of the homestead exemption.

Sec. 212. Section 12, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 16, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.170 are each amended to read as follows:

A copy of the petition, with a notice of the time and place of hearing, must be served upon the owner and the owner's attorney of record, if any, at least ten days before the hearing.

Sec. 213. Section 13, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 1, chapter 118, Laws of 1984 and RCW 6.12.180 are each amended to read as follows:

At the hearing, the judge may, upon the proof of the service of a copy of the petition and notice and of the facts stated in the petition, appoint a disinterested qualified person of the county to appraise the value of the homestead.

Sec. 214. Section 14, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The person~~((s))~~ appointed, before entering upon the performance of ~~((their))~~ duties, must take an oath to faithfully perform the same. The appraiser must view the premises and appraise the market value thereof and, if the appraised value, less all liens and encumbrances, exceeds the homestead exemption, must determine whether the land claimed can be divided without material injury. Within fifteen days after appointment, the appraiser must make to the court a report in writing, which report must show the appraised value, less liens and encumbrances, and, if necessary, the determination whether or not the land can be divided without material injury and without violation of any governmental restriction.

Sec. 215. Section 17, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 17, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.220 are each amended to read as follows:

If, from the report, it appears to the court that the value of the homestead, less liens and encumbrances, exceeds the homestead exemption and the property can be divided without material injury and without violation of any governmental restriction, the court ~~((must))~~ may, by an order, direct the appraiser~~((s))~~ to set off to the owner so much of the land, including the residence, as will amount in net value to the homestead exemption, and the execution may be enforced against the remainder of the land.

Sec. 216. Section 18, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 18, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.230 are each amended to read as follows:

If, from the report, it appears to the court that the ~~((homestead exceeds in))~~ appraised value of the homestead property, less liens and encumbrances, exceeds the amount of the homestead exemption and ~~((that it cannot be))~~ the property is not divided, the court must make an order directing its sale under the execution. The order shall direct that at such sale no bid may be received unless it exceeds the amount of the homestead exemption.

Sec. 217. Section 20, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 19, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.250 are each amended to read as follows:

If the sale is made, the proceeds must be applied in the following order: First, to the amount of the homestead exemption, to be paid to the judgment debtor; second, up to the amount of the execution, to be applied to the satisfaction of the execution; third, the balance to be paid to the judgment debtor.

Sec. 218. Section 21, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as last amended by section 20, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The money paid to the owner is entitled to the same protection against legal process and the voluntary disposition of the husband or wife which the law gives to the homestead.

Sec. 219. Section 22, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 2, chapter 118, Laws of 1984 and RCW 6.12.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The court shall determine a reasonable compensation for the appraiser.

Sec. 220. Section 23, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.280 are each amended to read as follows:

The execution creditor must pay the costs of these proceedings in the first instance; but in the cases provided for in RCW 6.12.220 and 6.12.230 the amount so paid must be added as costs on execution, and collected accordingly.

Sec. 221. Section 26, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 4, chapter 80, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 6.12.300 are each amended to read as follows:

In case of a homestead, if either the husband or wife shall be or become incompetent or disabled to such a degree that he or she is unable to assist in the management of his or her interest in the marital property and no guardian has been appointed, upon application of the ~~((husband or wife not so incompetent or disabled))~~ other spouse to the superior court of the county in which the homestead is situated, and upon due proof of such incompetency or disability in the severity required above, the court may make an order permitting the husband or wife applying to the court to sell and convey or mortgage such homestead.

Sec. 222. Section 27, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 5, chapter 80, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 6.12.310 are each amended to read as follows:

Notice of the application for such order shall be given by publication of the same in a newspaper published in the county in which such homestead is situated, if there be a newspaper published therein, once each week for three successive weeks prior to the hearing of such application, and a copy of such notice shall be served upon the alleged incompetent husband or wife personally, and upon the nearest relative of such incompetent or disabled husband or wife other than the applicant, resident in this state, at least three weeks prior to such application being heard, and in case there be no such relative known to the applicant, a copy of such notice shall be served upon the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such homestead is situated; and it is hereby made the duty of such prosecuting attorney, upon being served with a copy of such notice, to appear in court and see that such application is made in good faith, and that the proceedings thereon are fairly conducted.

Sec. 223. Section 28, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 6, chapter 80, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 6.12.320 are each amended to read as follows:

Thirty days before the hearing of any application under the provisions of this chapter, the applicant shall present and file in the court in which such application is to be heard a petition for the order mentioned, subscribed and sworn to by the applicant, setting forth the name and age of the alleged incompetent or disabled husband or wife; a description of the premises constituting the homestead; the value of the same; the county in which it is situated; such facts necessary to show that the nonpetitioning husband or wife is incompetent or disabled to the degree required under RCW 6.12.300; and such additional facts relating to the circumstances and necessities of the applicant and his or her family as he or she may rely upon in support of the petition.

Sec. 224. Section 29, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.330 are each amended to read as follows:

If the court shall make the order provided for in RCW 6.12.300, the same shall be entered upon the minutes of the court, and thereafter any sale, conveyance ~~((or))~~, or mortgage made in pursuance of such order shall be as valid and effectual as if the property affected thereby was the absolute property of the person making such sale, conveyance, or mortgage in fee simple.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 225. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 32, chapter 64, Laws of 1895, section 11, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.070;

(2) Section 33, chapter 64, Laws of 1895, section 12, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.12.080;

(3) Section 11, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.160;

(4) Section 15, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.200;

(5) Section 16, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.210; and

(6) Section 19, chapter 64, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.12.240.

PART III

PERSONAL EXEMPTIONS

Sec. 301. Section 253, page 178, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 8, chapter 45, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 6.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in RCW 6.16.080, the following personal property shall be exempt from execution ((and)), attachment, ((except as hereinafter specially provided)) and garnishment:

(1) All wearing apparel of every ((person)) individual and family, but not to exceed seven hundred fifty dollars in value in furs, jewelry, and personal ornaments for any ((person)) individual.

(2) All private libraries of every individual, but not to exceed one thousand dollars in value, and all family pictures and keepsakes.

(3) To each ((person or family)) individual or, as to community property of spouses maintaining a single household as against a creditor of the community, to the community:

(a) The ((person's or family's)) individual's or community's household goods, appliances, furniture, and home and yard equipment, not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars in value;

(b) Provisions and fuel for the comfortable maintenance of ((such person or family)) the individual or community for three months; ((and))

(c) Other property, except personal earnings as provided under RCW 6.16.090(1), not to exceed five hundred dollars in value, of which not more than one hundred dollars in value may consist of cash, bank accounts, savings and loan accounts, stocks, bonds, or other securities((:)); and

~~((4) To any person or family:))~~ (d) One motor vehicle which is used for personal transportation, not to exceed one thousand two hundred dollars in value.

~~((5)) To each qualified individual, one of the following exemptions:~~

~~(a) To a farmer, farm trucks, farm stock, farm tools, farm equipment, supplies and seed, not to exceed three thousand dollars in value((:));~~

~~((6)) (b) To a physician, surgeon, attorney, clergyman, or other professional person, the ((person's)) individual's library, office furniture, office equipment and supplies, not to exceed three thousand dollars in value((:));~~

~~((7)) (c) To any other ((person)) individual, the tools and instruments and materials used to carry on his or her trade for the support of himself or herself or family, not to exceed three thousand dollars in value.~~

~~((The property referred to in the foregoing subsection (3) shall be selected by any adult member of the family on behalf of the family or the person, if present, and in case no adult member of the family or person is present to make the selection, then the sheriff or the director of public safety shall make a selection equal in value to the applicable exemptions above described and he shall return the same as exempt by inventory. Any selection made as above provided shall be prima facie evidence (a) that the property so selected is exempt from execution and attachment, and (b) that the property so selected is not in excess of the values specified for the exemptions. Except as above provided, the exempt property shall be selected by the person claiming the exemption. No person shall be entitled to more than one exemption under the provisions of the foregoing subsections (5), (6) and (7).))~~

~~For purposes of this section 'value' shall mean the reasonable market value of the article or item at the time of its selection, and shall be of the debtor's interest therein, exclusive of all liens and encumbrances thereon:~~

~~Wages, salary, or other compensation regularly paid for personal services rendered by the person claiming the exemption may not be claimed as exempt under the foregoing provisions, but the same may be claimed as exempt in any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding to the same extent as allowed under the statutes relating to garnishments:~~

~~No property shall be exempt under this section from an execution issued upon a judgment for all or any part of the purchase price thereof, or for any tax levied upon such property:))~~

~~For purposes of this section, 'value' means the reasonable market value of the debtor's interest in an article or item at the time it is selected for exemption, exclusive of all liens and encumbrances thereon.~~

Sec. 302. Section 1, page 88, Laws of 1890 and RCW 6.16.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless otherwise provided by federal law, any money received by any citizen of the state of Washington as a pension from the government of the United States, whether the same be in the actual possession of such person or be deposited or loaned ((by him)), shall be exempt from execution, attachment, garnishment, or seizure by or under any legal process whatever, and when a debtor dies, or absconds, and leaves his or her family any money exempted by this section, the same shall be exempt to the family as provided in this section.

Sec. 303. Section 1, chapter 76, Laws of 1895 and RCW 6.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((That whenever))~~ If property, which by the laws of this state is exempt from execution ~~((or)),~~ attachment, or garnishment, is insured and the same is lost, stolen, or destroyed ~~((by fire)),~~ then the insurance money coming to or belonging to the person thus insured, to an amount equal to the exempt property thus destroyed, shall be exempt from execution ~~((and)),~~ attachment, and garnishment.

Sec. 304. Section 252, page 178, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 14, chapter 154, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 6.16.070 are each amended to read as follows:

All real and personal ~~((estate))~~ property belonging to any married person at the time of his or her marriage, and all which he or she may have acquired subsequently to such marriage, or to which he or she shall hereafter become entitled in his or her own right, and all his or her personal earnings, and all the issues, rents and profits of such real ~~((estate))~~ property, shall be exempt from ~~((attachment and))~~ execution, attachment, and garnishment upon any liability or judgment against the other spouse, so long as he or she or any minor heir of his or her body shall be living; PROVIDED, That the separate property of each spouse shall be liable for debts owing by him or her at the time of marriage.

Sec. 305. Section 344, page 88, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 2, chapter 149, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.16.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Wages, salary, or other compensation regularly paid for personal services rendered by the debtor claiming the exemption shall not be claimed as exempt under RCW 6.16.020, but the same may be claimed as exempt in any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding to the same extent as allowed under the statutes relating to garnishments.

(2) No property may be exempt under RCW 6.16.020 from execution, attachment, or garnishment issued upon a judgment for all or any part of the purchase price of the property.

(3) No property may be exempt under RCW 6.16.020 from legal process issued upon a judgment for any tax levied upon such property.

(4) Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to prevent ~~((the mortgaging of))~~ a debtor from creating a security interest in personal property which might be claimed as exempt, or the enforcement of such ~~((mortgage, nor to prevent the waiver of the right of exemption by failure to claim the same prior to sale under execution, and nothing in this chapter shall be construed to exempt from attachment or execution the personal property of a nonresident of this state, or a person who has left or is about to leave the state with the intention to defraud his creditors, or))~~ security interest against the property.

(5) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to exempt personal property of a nonresident of this state or of an individual who has left or is about to leave this state with the intention to defraud his or her creditors.

(6) Personal property exemptions are waived by failure to claim them prior to sale of exemptible property under execution or, in a garnishment proceeding, within the time specified in section 1016 of this 1987 act.

(7) Personal property exemptions may not be claimed by one spouse in a bankruptcy ~~((proceeding where (†)))~~ case that is not a joint case or a joint administration of the estate with the bankruptcy estate of the other spouse where (a) bankruptcy is filed by both spouses within a six-month period, ~~((including as a joint case under 11 U.S.C. Sec. 302, and (2) the other))~~ and (b) one spouse exempts property from property of the estate under the ~~((federal))~~ bankruptcy exemption provisions of 11 U.S.C. Sec. ~~((522(b)(†)))~~ 522(d).

Sec. 306. Section 346, page 88, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 15, chapter 154, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 6.16.090 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((As used in this section the masculine shall apply also to the feminine.~~

~~When))~~ (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, property claimed exempt under RCW 6.16.020 shall be selected by the individual entitled to the exemption, or by the husband or wife entitled to a community exemption, in the manner described in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) If, at the time of seizure under execution or attachment of property exemptible under RCW 6.16.020(3) (a), (b), or (c), the individual or the husband or wife entitled to claim the exemption is not present, then the sheriff or deputy shall make a selection equal in value to the applicable exemptions and, if no appraisal is required as permitted under subsection (4) of this section, the officer shall return the same as exempt by inventory. Any selection made as provided shall be prima facie evidence (a) that the property so selected is exempt from execution and attachment, and (b) that the property so selected is not in excess of the values specified for the exemptions.

(3)(a) A debtor who claims personal property as exempt ~~((he))~~ against execution or attachment shall, at any time before sale, deliver to the officer making the levy a list by separate items of the property claimed as exempt, together with an itemized list of all the personal property owned or claimed by ~~((him))~~ the debtor, including money, bonds, bills, notes, claims and demands, with the residence of the person indebted upon the said bonds, bills, notes, claims and demands, and shall verify such list by affidavit. ~~((He shall also deliver to such officer a list by separate items of the property he claims as exempt.))~~ The officer shall immediately advise the creditor, attorney, or agent of the exemption claim and, if no appraisal is required as permitted under subsection (4) of this section, the officer shall return with the process the list of property claimed as exempt.

(b) A debtor who claims personal property exempt against garnishment shall proceed as provided in section 1016 of this 1987 act.

(c) A debtor who claims as a homestead, under chapter 6.12 RCW, a mobile home that is not yet occupied as a homestead and that is located on land not owned by the debtor shall claim the homestead as against a specific levy by delivering to the sheriff who levied on the mobile home, before sale under the levy, a declaration of homestead that contains (i) a declaration that the debtor owns the mobile home, intends to reside therein, and claims it as a homestead, and (ii) a description of the mobile home, a statement where it is located or was located before the levy, and an estimate of its actual cash value.

(4)(a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, a creditor, or the agent or attorney of a creditor, who wishes to object to a claim of exemption shall proceed as provided in section 1016 of this 1987 act.

(b) A creditor, or the agent or attorney of the creditor, who wishes to object to a claim of exemption made to a levying officer, on the ground that the property claimed exceeds exemptible value, may demand appraisal. In the absence of such demand within seven days following the officer's giving of notice of the claim, the officer shall release to the debtor the property claimed as exempt. If the creditor, ~~((his))~~ or the agent or attorney of the creditor, demands an appraisal ~~((thereof, two disinterested householders of the neighborhood)),~~ two persons shall be chosen to appraise the property, one by the debtor and the other by the creditor, ~~((his))~~ agent or attorney, and these two, if they cannot agree, shall select a third; but if either party fails to choose an appraiser, or the two fail to select a third, or if one or more of the appraisers fail to act, the ~~((officer))~~ court shall appoint one or more as the circumstances require. The appraisers shall forthwith proceed to make a list by separate items, of the personal property selected by the debtor as exempt, which they shall decide as exempt, stating the value of each article, and annexing to the list their affidavit to the following effect: 'We solemnly swear that to the best of our judgment the above is a fair cash valuation of the property therein described,' which affidavit shall be signed by two appraisers at least, and be certified by the officer administering the oaths. The list shall be delivered to the officer holding the execution or ~~((other process))~~ attachment and be ~~((by him))~~ annexed to and made part of ~~((his))~~ the return, and the property therein specified shall be exempt from levy and sale, ~~((and))~~ but the other personal estate of the debtor shall remain subject ~~((thereto))~~ to execution, attachment, or garnishment. ~~((In case no appraisal be required the officer shall return with the process the list of the property claimed as exempt by the debtor. The appraisers))~~ Each appraiser shall ~~((each))~~ be entitled to ~~((one))~~ fifteen dollars or such larger fee as shall be fixed by the court, to be paid by the creditor~~(:)~~; if all the property claimed by the debtor shall be exempt; otherwise to be paid by the debtor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. If from an appraisal it appears that the value of the property claimed exempt, exclusive of liens and encumbrances, exceeds the exemptible value and the property is indivisible, the property shall be put up for sale on execution, but at the sale no bid may be received unless it exceeds the exempt value. The proceeds of a sale in excess of the exempt value shall be paid, first, to the debtor to the extent of the exempt amount; second, up to the amount of the execution, to the satisfaction of the execution; third, the balance to be paid to the debtor. A judgment creditor who is the successful bidder at the sale must pay the exempt amount in cash.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 308. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 2, chapter 57, Laws of 1897, section 6, chapter 292, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 12, chapter 154, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 6.16.010; and
- (2) Section 2, page 89, Laws of 1890 and RCW 6.16.040.

PART IV EXECUTIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. Unless otherwise expressly provided, all provisions of this chapter governing execution against personal property apply to proceedings before district courts of this state, but the district courts shall not have power to issue writs of execution against real property or any interest in real property or against a vendor's interest in a real estate contract.

Sec. 402. Section 2, chapter 25, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 4, chapter 105, Laws of 1980 and RCW 6.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The party in whose favor a judgment of a court of record of this state or a district court of this state has been(:) or may (hereafter) be(:) rendered, or ((his)) the assignee, may have an execution issued for the collection or enforcement of the ((same:)) judgment at any time within ten years from ((the rendition thereof)) entry of the judgment.

Sec. 403. Section 7, chapter 25, Laws of 1929 as amended by section 2, chapter 8, Laws of 1957 and RCW 6.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((in all cases in which))~~ When a judgment ~~((heretofore or hereafter))~~ recovered in any court of this state~~(:)~~ has been ~~((or shall be))~~ assigned ~~((to any person))~~, execution may issue in the name of the assignee~~((upon))~~ after the assignment ~~((being))~~ has been recorded in the execution docket~~(:)~~ by the clerk of the court in which the judgment ~~((is))~~ was recovered~~((and in all cases in which a judgment has been or shall be recovered in any such court, and))~~. When the person in whose name execution might have issued~~(:)~~ has died ~~((or shall die))~~, execution may issue in the name of the executor, administrator or legal representative of such deceased person~~((upon))~~ after letters testamentary or of administration~~(:)~~ or other sufficient proof ~~((being))~~ has been filed in ~~((said))~~ the cause and ~~((minuted upon))~~ recorded in the execution docket~~(:)~~ by the clerk of the court in which ~~((said))~~ the judgment ~~((is))~~ was entered~~(: and upon an order of said court or the judge thereof, which may be made on an ex parte application))~~.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 404. In addition to any stay of execution provided by court rule, stay of execution shall be allowed on judgments of the courts of this state for the following periods upon the judgment debtor filing with the clerk of the court in which the judgment was entered a bond in double the amount of the judgment and costs, with surety to the satisfaction of the clerk, conditioned to pay the judgment, interests, costs, and increased costs, at the expiration of the stay period. If execution is issued before elapse of the stay period, the judgment debtor may nevertheless stay execution for the balance of the period by filing the required bond.

(1) In the supreme court and the court of appeals, the period of stay, measured from date of entry of judgment, shall be:

- (a) On all sums under five thousand dollars, thirty days;
- (b) On all sums over five and under fifteen thousand dollars, sixty days; and
- (c) On all sums over fifteen thousand dollars, ninety days.

(2) On judgments rendered in the superior court or a district court of this state, the period of stay shall be:

- (a) On all sums under three thousand dollars, two months;
- (b) On all sums over three thousand and under ten thousand dollars, five months; and
- (c) On all sums over ten thousand dollars, six months.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 405. If execution of a judgment is stayed as permitted by section 404 of this act and the judgment is not satisfied at expiration of the stay period, at any time thereafter the judgment creditor may, upon motion supported by an affidavit that the judgment or any part of it is unpaid and stating how much still remains due, have judgment against the surety on the bond for the balance remaining due, and have an execution on the judgment against the surety, on which stay shall not be allowed.

Sec. 406. Section 3, chapter 25, Laws of 1929 and RCW 6.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be three kinds of executions~~((one))~~: First, against the property of the judgment debtor~~((the))~~; second, for the delivery of the possession of real or personal property~~(:)~~ or such delivery with damages for withholding the same~~(:)~~; and ~~((the))~~ third, commanding the enforcement of or obedience to any ~~((special))~~ other order of the court~~((and))~~. In all cases there shall be an order to collect the costs.

Sec. 407. Section 1, chapter 25, Laws of 1929 as amended by section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1957 and RCW 6.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

When any judgment of a court ~~((of record))~~ of this state requires the payment of money~~(:)~~ or the delivery of real or personal property, ~~((the same))~~ it may be enforced ~~((in those respects))~~ by execution. When ~~((if))~~ a judgment of a court of record requires the performance of any other act, a certified copy of the judgment may be served on the party against whom it is given~~(:)~~ or the person or officer who is required ~~((thereby))~~ by the judgment or by law~~(:)~~ to obey the same, and a writ ~~((shall))~~ may be issued commanding ~~((him))~~ the person or officer to obey or enforce the ~~((same))~~ judgment. ~~((if he refuses, he))~~ Refusal to do so may be punished by the court as for contempt.

Sec. 408. Section 604, page 154, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 664, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.04.140 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((If))~~ No execution may issue for collection of a judgment ~~((be given))~~ for the recovery of money or damages against ~~((such))~~ a county or other public corporation~~((no execution shall issue thereon for the collection of such money or damages, but such judgment in such respect shall be satisfied))~~. Any such judgment may be enforced as follows:

(1) The ~~((party in whose favor such judgment is given))~~ judgment creditor may at any time ~~((thereafter))~~ when execution might issue on a like judgment against a private person, ~~((present a certified transcript of the docket thereof to the officer of such county or other public corporation who is authorized to draw orders on the treasury thereof))~~ and after acknowledging satisfaction of the judgment as in ordinary cases, obtain from the clerk a certified transcript of the judgment. The clerk shall include in the transcript a copy of the memorandum of acknowledgment of satisfaction and the entry thereof as the basis for an order on the treasurer for payment. Unless the transcript contains such memorandum, no order upon the treasurer shall issue thereon.

(2) ((On the presentation of such transcript such)) The judgment creditor shall present the certified transcript showing satisfaction of the judgment to the officer of the county or other public corporation who is authorized to draw orders on its treasury.

(3) The officer shall draw an order on ~~((such))~~ the treasurer for the amount of the judgment, in favor of the ~~((party for whom the same was given. Thereafter such))~~ judgment creditor. The order shall be presented for payment and paid with like effect and in like manner as other orders upon the treasurer ~~((of such county or other public corporation.~~

~~(3) The certified transcript herein provided for shall not be furnished by the clerk unless at the time an execution might issue on such judgment if the same were against a private person; nor until satisfaction of the same judgment in respect to such money or damages be acknowledged as in ordinary cases. The clerk shall include in the transcript the memorandum of such acknowledgment of satisfaction and the entry thereof. Unless the transcript contain such memorandum, no order upon the treasurer shall issue thereon)). If the proper officer of the county or other public corporation fails or refuses to draw the order for payment of the judgment as provided in this section, a writ of mandamus may be issued in the original case to compel performance of the duty.~~

Sec. 409. Section 6, chapter 25, Laws of 1929 and RCW 6.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

All property, real and personal, of the judgment debtor~~(;)~~ that is not exempted by law~~(; shall be)~~ is liable to execution.

Sec. 410. Section 4, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.04.035 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before a writ of execution may issue on any real property, the judgment creditor must file with the court an affidavit ~~((with the court stating:~~

~~(a) That the judgment creditor has exercised due diligence to ascertain if the judgment debtor has sufficient nonexempt personal property to satisfy the judgment with interest; a list of the personal property so located and whether the judgment creditor believes the items to be exempt; and a statement that, after diligent search, there is not sufficient nonexempt personal property belonging to the judgment debtor to satisfy the judgment.~~

~~(b) That the judgment creditor has exercised due diligence in ascertaining whether the property is occupied or claimed as a homestead by the judgment debtor, as defined in chapter 6.12 RCW;~~

~~(c) Whether or not the judgment debtor is currently occupying the property as the judgment debtor's permanent residence and whether there is a declaration of homestead or nonabandonment of record. If the affidavit alleges that the property is not occupied or claimed as a homestead, the creditor must list the facts relied upon to reach that conclusion; and~~

~~(d) If the judgment debtor is not occupying the property and there is no declaration of nonabandonment of record, that the judgment debtor has been absent for a period of at least six months and the judgment debtor's current address if known)) as described in subsection (4) of this section and must mail a copy of the affidavit to the judgment debtor at the debtor's last known address.~~

(2) If the affidavit attests that the premises are occupied or otherwise claimed as a homestead by the judgment debtor, the execution for the enforcement of a judgment obtained in a case not within the classes enumerated in RCW 6.12.100 must comply with RCW 6.12.140 through 6.12.250.

(3) The term 'due diligence,' as used in subsection (4) of this section, includes but is not limited to the creditor or the creditor's representative personally visiting the premises, contacting the occupants and inquiring about their relationship to the judgment debtor, contacting immediate neighbors of the premises, and searching the records of the auditor of the county in which the property is located to determine if a declaration of homestead or nonabandonment has been ~~((filed))~~ recorded by the judgment debtor. ~~((A copy of the affidavit must be mailed to the judgment debtor at the debtor's last known address.~~

~~if the affidavit attests that the premises are occupied or claimed as a homestead by the judgment debtor, the execution for the enforcement of a judgment obtained in a case not within the classes enumerated in RCW 6.12.100 must comply with RCW 6.12.140 through 6.12.250;)) (4) The affidavit required by this section shall include:~~

~~(a) A statement that the judgment creditor has exercised due diligence to ascertain whether the judgment debtor has sufficient nonexempt personal property to satisfy the judgment with interest and believes that there is not sufficient nonexempt personal property belonging to the judgment debtor to so satisfy the judgment. A list of personal property located shall be attached with an indication of any items that the judgment creditor believes to be exempt.~~

~~(b) A statement that the judgment creditor has exercised due diligence to ascertain whether the property is occupied or otherwise claimed by the judgment debtor as a homestead as defined in chapter 6.12 RCW.~~

~~(c) A statement based on belief whether the judgment debtor is currently occupying the property as the judgment debtor's principal residence and whether there is a declaration of~~ homestead or nonabandonment of record. If the affidavit alleges that the property is not occupied or claimed as a homestead, the creditor must list the facts relied upon to reach that conclusion.

(d) If the judgment debtor is not occupying the property and there is no declaration of nonabandonment of record, a statement based on belief whether the judgment debtor has been absent for a period of at least six months, with facts relied upon to reach that conclusion, and, if known, the judgment debtor's current address.

Sec. 411. Section 4, chapter 25, Laws of 1929 as amended by section 5, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The writ of execution shall be issued in the name of the state of Washington, sealed with the seal of the court, and subscribed by the clerk of the court in which the judgment was entered, and shall be directed to the sheriff of the county in which the property is situated (~~(-or to the coroner of such county, or the officer exercising the powers and performing the duties of coroner in case there be no coroner, when the sheriff is a party, or interested, and)~~). The writ shall intelligibly refer to the judgment, stating the court, the county where the judgment was rendered, the names of the parties, the amount of the judgment if it be for money, and the amount actually due thereon(~~(:);~~); and if the judgment has been recorded, the writ shall so indicate and shall state the recording number.

(2) Before an execution is delivered on a judgment of a district court of this state, the amount of the judgment, or damages and costs, and the fees due to each person separately shall be entered in the docket and on the back of the execution. In any proceeding to enforce a judgment certified to a district court from the small claims department under RCW 12.40.110, the execution shall include the amount of the judgment owed plus reasonable costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the judgment creditor in seeking enforcement of the judgment in district court.

(3) A writ shall require substantially as follows:

((1)) (a) If the execution ((be)) is against the judgment of the judgment debtor, it shall require the officer to satisfy the judgment(~~(-with interest)~~) out of the personal property of the debtor unless an affidavit has been filed with the court pursuant to RCW 6.04.035, in which case it shall require that the judgment(~~(-with interest)~~) be satisfied out of the real property of the debtor.

((2)) (b) If the execution ((be)) is against real or personal property in the hands of a personal representative(~~(s)~~), heir(~~(s)~~), devisee(~~(s)~~), legatee(~~(s)~~), tenant(~~(s)~~) of real property, or trustee(~~(s)~~), it shall require the officer to satisfy the judgment(~~(-with interest)~~) out of such property.

((3)) (c) If the execution ((be)) is for the delivery of real or personal property, it shall particularly describe the property and state its value and require the officer to deliver possession of ((the same, particularly describing it)) if to the party entitled thereto, and may, at the same time, require the officer to satisfy any charges, damages, or rents and profits recovered by the same judgment, out of the personal property of the party against whom it was rendered(~~(-and the value of the property for which the judgment was recovered, shall be specified therein)~~). If ((a delivery of)) the property described in the execution cannot be ((had)) delivered, and if sufficient personal property cannot be found to satisfy the judgment, it shall be satisfied out of the real property of the party against whom the judgment was rendered.

((4) When) (d) If the execution is to enforce obedience to any ((special)) order, it shall particularly command what is required to be done or to be omitted.

((5) When) (e) If the nature of the case ((shall)) requires it, the execution may embrace ((one)) two or more of the requirements ((above mentioned. And)) of this section.

(f) In all cases the execution shall require the collection of all interest, costs, and increased costs thereon.

Sec. 412. Section 5, chapter 25, Laws of 1929 as amended by section 1, chapter 45, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 6.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The sheriff or other officer shall indorse upon the writ of execution ((the time when he received the same)) in ink, the day, hour, and minute when the writ first came into his or her hands, and the execution shall be ((returnable)) returned with a report of proceedings under the writ within sixty days after its date to the clerk who issued it. ((No sheriff or other officer shall retain any moneys collected on execution, more than twenty days before paying the same to the clerk of the court who issued the writ, under penalty of twenty percent on the amount collected, to be paid by the sheriff or other officer, one half to the party to whom the judgment is payable, and the other half to the county treasurer of the county wherein the action was brought, for the use of the school fund of said county. The clerk shall notify the party to whom the same is payable, and pay over the amount to the party as provided for by court order.)) When there are several writs of execution or of execution and attachment against the same debtor, they shall be executed in the order in which they were received by the sheriff.

Sec. 413. Section 351, page 91, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 7, chapter 276, Laws of 1984 and RCW 6.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:

When the writ of execution is against the property of the judgment debtor, the sheriff shall set the date of sale and serve on the debtor, in the same manner as service of a summons in a civil action, or cause to be transmitted by both regular mail and certified mail, return receipt requested, a copy of the writ, together with copies of RCW 6.12.010, 6.12.045, 6.12.050, 6.16.020, and 6.16.090 (~~each as now existing or hereafter amended~~), and shall at the time of service, or with the mailing, notify the judgment debtor of the date of sale (~~and shall execute the writ as follows~~):

(1) ~~If property has been attached, he shall indorse on the execution, and pay to the clerk forthwith the amount of the proceeds of sales of perishable property or debts due the defendant received by him, sufficient to satisfy the judgment.~~

(2) ~~If the judgment is not then satisfied, and property has been attached and remains in his custody, he shall sell the same, or sufficient thereof to satisfy the judgment.~~

(3) ~~If then any portion of the judgment remains unsatisfied, or if no property has been attached or the same has been discharged, he shall levy on the property of the judgment debtor, sufficient to satisfy the judgment.~~

(4) ~~Property shall be levied on in like manner and with like effect as similar property is attached.~~

(5) ~~Until a levy, personal property shall not be affected by the execution. When property has been sold or debts received by the sheriff on execution, he shall pay the proceeds thereof, or sufficient to satisfy the judgment, as commanded in the writ.~~

(6) ~~When property has been attached and it is probable that such property will not be sufficient to satisfy the judgment, the execution may be levied on other property of the judgment debtor without delay, if after satisfying the judgment any property, or the proceeds thereof, remain in the custody of the sheriff, he shall deliver the same to the judgment debtor). If service on the judgment debtor must be effected by publication, only the following notice need be published under the caption of the case:~~

To Judgment Debtor:

A writ of execution has been issued in the above-captioned case, directed to the sheriff of county, commanding the sheriff as follows:

'WHEREAS, ... (Quoting body of writ of execution).'

The sale date has been set for YOU MAY HAVE A RIGHT TO EXEMPT PROPERTY from the sale under statutes of this state, including sections 6.12.010, 6.12.045, 6.12.050, 6.16.020, and 6.16.090 of the Revised Code of Washington, in the manner described in those statutes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 414. The sheriff shall, at a time as near before or after service on the judgment debtor as is possible, execute the writ as follows:

(1) If property has been attached, the sheriff shall indorse on the execution, and pay to the clerk forthwith, if he or she has not already done so, the amount of the proceeds of sales of perishable property or debts due the defendant previously received, sufficient to satisfy the judgment.

(2) If the judgment is not then satisfied, and property has been attached and remains in custody, the sheriff shall sell the same, or sufficient thereof to satisfy the judgment. When property has been attached and it is probable that such property will not be sufficient to satisfy the judgment, the sheriff may, on instructions from the judgment creditor, levy on other property of the judgment debtor without delay.

(3) If then any portion of the judgment remains unsatisfied, or if no property has been attached or the same has been discharged, the sheriff shall levy on the property of the judgment debtor, sufficient to satisfy the judgment, in the manner described in RCW 7.12.130.

(4) If, after the judgment is satisfied, any property remains in custody, the sheriff shall deliver it to the judgment debtor.

(5) Until a levy, personal property shall not be affected by the execution.

(6) When property has been sold or debts received on execution, the sheriff shall pay the proceeds to the clerk who issued the writ, for satisfaction of the judgment as commanded in the writ or for return of any excess proceeds to the judgment debtor. No sheriff or other officer may retain any moneys collected on execution more than twenty days before paying the same to the clerk of the court who issued the writ.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 415. Upon receipt of proceeds from the sheriff on execution, the clerk shall notify the party to whom the same is payable, and pay over the amount to that party as required by law. If any proceeds remain after satisfaction of the judgment, the clerk shall pay the excess to the judgment debtor.

Sec. 416. Section 13, page 42, Laws of 1886 as amended by section 1, chapter 100, Laws of 1927 and RCW 7.12.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The sheriff to whom the writ is directed and delivered (~~must~~) shall execute the same without delay as follows:

(1) Real property shall be (~~attached~~) levied on by (~~fitting~~) recording a copy of the writ, together with a description of the property attached, with the (~~county auditor~~) recording officer of the county in which the (~~attached~~) real estate is situated.

(2) Personal property, capable of manual delivery, shall be (~~attached~~) levied on by taking into custody.

(3) ~~((Stock or shares, or interest in stock or shares, of any corporation, association or company, shall be attached by leaving with the president or other head of the same, or the secretary, cashier or managing agent thereof, a copy of the writ, and a notice stating that the stock or interest of the defendant is attached in pursuance of such writ)). Shares of stock and other investment securities shall be levied on in accordance with the requirements of RCW 62A.8-317.~~

(4) A fund in court shall be levied on by leaving a copy of the writ with the clerk of the court with notice in writing specifying the fund.

(5) A franchise granted by a public or quasi-public corporation shall be levied on by (a) serving a copy of the writ on the judgment debtor as required by RCW 6.04.100 and (b) filing a copy of the writ in the office of the auditor of the county in which the franchise was granted together with a notice in writing that the franchise has been levied on to be sold, specifying the time and place of sale, the name of the owner, the amount of the judgment for which the franchise is to be sold, and the name of the judgment creditor.

(6) A vendor's interest under a real estate contract shall be levied on by (a) recording a copy of the writ, with descriptions of the contract and of the real property covered by the contract, with the recording officer of the county in which the real estate is located and (b) serving a copy of the writ, with a copy of the descriptions, on the judgment debtor in the manner as required by RCW 6.04.100.

(7) Other intangible personal property may be levied on by serving a copy of the writ on the judgment debtor as required by RCW 6.04.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 417. If a judgment debtor owns real estate jointly or in common with any other person, only the debtor's interest may be levied on and sold on execution, and the sheriff's notice of sale shall describe the extent of the debtor's interest to be sold as accurately as possible.

Sec. 418. Section 499, page 220, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 3, chapter 8, Laws of 1957 and RCW 6.04.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a ((defendant)) judgment debtor owns personal property jointly((:)) or in ((copartnership)) common with any other person, ((and the)) only the debtor's interest may be levied on and sold on execution, and the sheriff's notice of sale shall describe the extent of the debtor's interest as accurately as possible.

If the debtor's interest cannot be separately ((attached)) levied on, the sheriff shall take possession of the property((:)) unless the other person having an interest ((therein shall)) gives the sheriff a sufficient bond, with surety, conditioned to hold and manage the property according to law; and the sheriff shall then proceed to sell the interest of the defendant in such property((- describing such interest in his advertisement as nearly as may be, and the purchaser shall acquire all the interest of such defendant therein; but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to deprive the copartner of any such defendant of his interest in any such)). This section shall not be construed so as to deprive the joint or common owner of any interest in the property.

Sec. 419. Section 268, page 182, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 358, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.04.130 are each amended to read as follows:

((When the sheriff shall)) After levy of execution upon personal property, ((by virtue of an execution, he)) the sheriff may permit the judgment debtor to retain ((the same,)) possession of the property or any part ((thereof, in his possession)) of it until the day of sale, upon the ((defendant)) debtor executing a written bond to the sheriff with sufficient surety, in double the value of such property, to the effect that it shall be delivered to the sheriff at the time and place of sale, and for nondelivery thereof, an action may be maintained upon such bond by the sheriff or the ((plaintiff in the execution; but the sheriff shall not thereby be discharged from his liability to the plaintiff for such property)) judgment creditor, or the judgment creditor may, on motion supported by affidavit that the property has not been delivered and the judgment remains unpaid, stating the amount unpaid, have judgment against the surety on the bond for the balance remaining due. In the alternative, the sheriff may appoint the judgment debtor as an agent to keep the property, without bond, upon written approval by the judgment creditor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 420. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 1, chapter 61, Laws of 1897 and RCW 6.04.080;
- (2) Section 2, chapter 61, Laws of 1897 and RCW 6.04.090;
- (3) Section 3, chapter 61, Laws of 1897 and RCW 6.04.095;
- (4) Section 499, page 220, Laws of 1854, section 694, page 174, Laws of 1869, section 757, page 152, Laws of 1877, section 751, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.04.110; and
- (5) Section 605, page 155, Laws of 1869, section 668, page 138, Laws of 1877, section 665, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.04.150.

PART V ADVERSE CLAIMS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Adverse claimant' means a person, other than the judgment debtor or defendant, who claims title or right to possession of property levied on.

(2) 'Levying creditor' means the judgment creditor or plaintiff who obtained the writ of execution or attachment under which levy was made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 502. An adverse claimant may assert a claim under the procedures provided in this chapter whether the levy was made under a writ of execution or of attachment and whether the writ was issued by a superior court or a district court of this state, but this chapter does not supersede common law or other remedies available to an adverse claimant before or after levy or sale.

Sec. 503. Section 256, page 179, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, chapter 40, Law of 1891 and RCW 6.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(When any other person than the judgment debtor shall claim property levied upon or attached, he may have the right to) (1) An adverse claimant to property levied on may demand and receive the ((same)) property from the sheriff ((or other officer making the attachment or)) who made the levy, upon ((his)) making and delivering to the sheriff an affidavit that the property is ((his)) owned by the claimant or that ((he)) the claimant has a right to the immediate possession thereof, stating on oath the value thereof, and giving to the sheriff ((or officer)) a bond, with sureties in double the value of such property((:)). The bond shall be conditioned that ((he)) the claimant will appear in the ((superior court of the county in which the property was seized, within ten days)) court specified in RCW 6.20.030 after the bond is accepted by the sheriff ((or other officer)), and make good ((his title to the same, or that he)) the claim in the affidavit or will return the property or pay its value to the ((said)) sheriff ((or other officer)).

(2) Without giving a bond, an adverse claimant who delivers to the sheriff an affidavit as described in subsection (1) of this section may, on motion made within seven days after delivering the affidavit, appear in the court specified in RCW 6.20.030, with notice to the sheriff and to the attorney of record for the levying creditor, if any, otherwise to the levying creditor, and set a hearing at which the probable validity of the claim stated in the affidavit can be considered. If the court, after the hearing, finds that the claim is probably valid, it shall direct the sheriff to release the claimed property to the claimant; otherwise, the court shall direct the sheriff to continue to hold the property unless the claimant gives a bond as provided in subsection (1) of this section.

Sec. 504. Section 256, page 179, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 5, chapter 8, Laws of 1957 and RCW 6.20.020 are each amended to read as follows:

If the adverse claimant posts a bond and the sheriff ((or other officer)) requires it, the sureties shall justify as in other cases, and in case they do not so justify when required, the sheriff ((or officer)) shall retain the property; if the sheriff ((or officer)) does not require the sureties to justify, he or she shall stand good for their sufficiency. ((He)) The sheriff shall date and indorse ((his)) acceptance upon the bond.

Sec. 505. Section 257, page 179, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 2, chapter 40, Laws of 1891 and RCW 6.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((officer)) sheriff shall immediately return the affidavit((:)) of an adverse claimant and the bond and justification, if any, to the office of the clerk of the ((superior)) court that issued the writ, unless the property was seized in another county, then to the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the property was seized or, if the levy was made under a writ of a district court of this state, then to a district court, to be selected by the sheriff, in the county in which the property was seized, and this case shall stand for trial in said court. The adverse claimant shall be the plaintiff, and the sheriff and the levying creditor shall be the defendants. The sheriff or levying creditor or both of them may respond to the affidavit, but no further pleadings are required, and any party may cause the matter to be noted for trial.

Sec. 506. Section 259, page 179, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 354, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.20.050 are each amended to read as follows:

If the claimant makes good ((his)) on all or any part of the claim to title to the property or right to possession, judgment shall be entered for the claimant to the extent the claim has been established. If the claimant has given a bond, the bond shall be canceled((:)) or, if ((to)) the claimant makes good on only a portion ((thereof)) of the claim, a like proportion of the bond shall be canceled((:-but if he shall)). If the claimant has not given a bond and the sheriff has retained possession of the property, judgment shall be entered in favor of the claimant for return of the property or its value.

If the claimant does not maintain ((his title)) the claim, judgment shall be rendered against ((him and his)) the claimant. If the claimant has retained possession of the property pending trial on the claim, the judgment shall be entered against the claimant and, if the claimant has given a bond, against the sureties for the return of the property or for the value of the property or of the portion of the property for which the claim is not maintained, or for such ((less)) lesser amount as shall not exceed the amount due on the original execution or attachment.

When the judgment is in favor of the sheriff for the entire property, the claimant shall pay the costs; when the claimant recovers all the property, judgment shall be given in favor of the claimant for costs; when the claimant recovers a portion of the property only, the costs shall be apportioned. When the ((plaintiff)) claimant prevails, the costs may be taxed against the ((defendant who was plaintiff in the execution or attachment, or the court may, if it shall be of opinion)) levying creditor or, if the court finds that the sheriff attached or levied upon ((said)) the property without the exercise of due caution, ((adjudge him)) the court may require the sheriff to pay the costs or any portion thereof.

PART VI
SALES UNDER EXECUTION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 601. All the provisions of this chapter governing sales of personal property, except vendors' interests under real estate contracts, shall apply to proceedings before district courts.

Sec. 602. Section 1, chapter 35, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 1, chapter 276, Laws of 1984 and RCW 6.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Before the sale of personal property under execution, order of sale or decree, notice thereof shall be given as follows:

(1) ~~((in case of personal property, the sheriff shall post typed or printed notice of the time and place of sale in three public places in the county where the sale is to take place, for a period of not less than thirty days prior to the day of sale. Not))~~ The judgment creditor shall, not less than thirty days prior to the day of sale, ((the judgment creditor shall)) cause a copy of the notice of sale to be transmitted both by regular mail and by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the judgment debtor at the debtor's last known address, and by regular mail to the attorney of record for the judgment debtor, if any.

(2) ~~((in case of real property, the sheriff shall post a notice as provided in RCW 6.24.015, particularly describing the property for a period of not less than four weeks prior to the day of sale in two public places in the county, one of which shall be at the court house door, where the property is to be sold, and in case of improved real estate, one of which shall be at the front door of the principal building constituting such improvement. The sheriff shall also publish a notice thereof once a week, consecutively, for the same period, in any daily or weekly legal newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the real property to be sold is situated in substantially the following form:~~

~~((If the sale is not pursuant to a judgment of foreclosure of a mortgage, the above notice should also contain a statement that the sheriff has been informed that there is not sufficient personal property to satisfy the judgment and that if the judgment debtor or debtors do have sufficient personal property to satisfy the judgment, the judgment debtor or debtors should contact the sheriff's office immediately.))~~

Sec. 605, Section 2, chapter 50, Laws of 1897 as last amended by section 1, chapter 126,
Laws of 1953 and RCW 6.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All sales of property under execution, order of sale, or decree, shall be made by auction between nine o'clock in the morning and four o'clock in the afternoon. ~~((After sufficient property has been sold to satisfy the execution, no more shall be sold. Neither the officer holding the execution, nor his deputy, shall become a purchaser, or be interested in any purchase at such sale. When the sale is of personal property capable of manual delivery, and not in the possession of a third person, it shall be within view of those who attend the sale, and be sold in such parcels as are likely to bring the highest price; and (when) the sale is of real property, consisting of several known lots or parcels, they shall be sold separately or otherwise as is likely to bring the highest price, or when a portion of such real property is claimed by a third person, and he requires it to be sold separately, such portion shall be sold separately.))~~ Sale of a public franchise under execution or order of sale on foreclosure must be made at the front door of the courthouse in the county in which the franchise was granted. Sales of real property shall be made at the courthouse door on Friday~~((PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if) unless Friday is a legal holiday and then~~ the sale shall be held on the next following regular business day.

(2) If at the time appointed for the sale the sheriff is prevented from attending at the place appointed or, being present, should deem it for the advantage of all concerned to postpone the sale for want of purchasers, or other sufficient cause, the sheriff may postpone the sale not exceeding one week next after the day appointed, and so from time to time for the like cause, giving notice of every adjournment by public proclamation made at the same time, and by posting written notices of such adjournment under the notices of sale originally posted. The sheriff for like causes may also adjourn the sale from time to time, not exceeding thirty days beyond the day at which the writ is made returnable, with the consent of the plaintiff indorsed upon the writ.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 606. After sufficient property has been sold to satisfy the execution, no more shall be sold. Neither the officer holding the execution nor his or her deputy shall become a purchaser or be interested in any purchase at the sale.

Sec. 607. Section 270, page 183, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 362, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

((When the purchaser of any personal property, capable of manual delivery, and not in the possession of a third person, association or corporation, shall pay)) If the sale is of personal property capable of manual delivery, and not in the possession of a third person, it shall be within view of those who attend the sale and shall be sold in such parcels as are likely to bring the highest price; and upon receipt of the purchase money, the sheriff shall deliver ((to him)) the property((:)) to the purchaser and ((if desired)) shall give ((him)) a bill of sale containing an acknowledgment of the payment if the purchaser requests it. A vendor's interest under a real estate contract, including vendor's legal title to the real property, shall be treated as personal property for purposes of sale, but the sheriff shall give the purchaser both a bill of sale covering the vendor's interest under the contract and a sheriff's deed covering the vendor's legal title to the real property. In all other sales of personal property, the sheriff shall give the purchaser a bill of sale with ((the like)) an acknowledgment of payment. The sheriff shall return the proceeds with the execution to the clerk who issued the writ for payment as required by law.

Sec. 608. Section 5, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 and RCW 6.24.030 are each amended to read as follows:

((Upon)) A sale of a real property ((under execution, decree or order of sale, when the) estate ((is)) of less than a leasehold of two years unexpired term((-the sale)) and a sale of a vendor's interest in real property being sold under a real estate contract shall be absolute. In all other cases ((such)), real property shall be sold subject to redemption, as ((hereinafter)) provided in chapter 6.-- RCW (part VII of this act). ((At the time of the sale the sheriff shall give to the purchaser a certificate of the sale, containing a particular description of the property sold, the price bid for each distinct lot, or parcel, the whole price paid, and when subject to redemption, it shall be so stated. The matters contained in such certificate shall be substantially stated in the sheriff's return of his proceedings upon the writ.))

Sec. 609. Section 262, page 181, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 363, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The form and manner of ((sale of)) selling real estate by execution shall be as follows: The sheriff shall proclaim aloud at the place of sale, in the hearing of all the bystanders: 'I am about to sell the following tracts of real estate (here reading the description,) upon the following execution:' (here reading the execution). ((He)) The sheriff shall also state the amount ((which he)) that is required ((to make)) upon the execution, which shall include damages, interests and costs up to the day of sale, and increased costs. ((He)) The sheriff shall then offer the land for sale((-the lots and parcels separately or together, as he shall deem most advantageous)).

(2) If the sale is of real property consisting of several known lots or parcels, they shall be sold separately or otherwise as the sheriff deems likely to bring the highest price, except that if an interest in a portion of such real property is claimed by a third person who, by request directed to the sheriff in writing prior to the sale or orally or in writing at the sale before the bidding is begun, requests that it be sold separately, such portion shall be sold separately. Bids on all land except town lots ((shall)) may be ((sold)) by the acre or by tract or parcel.

(3) If the land is sold by the acre and any fewer number of acres than the whole tract or parcel is sold, it shall be measured off to the purchaser in a square form, from the northeast corner of the tract or parcel, unless some person claiming an interest in the land, by request directed to the sheriff in writing prior to the sale or orally or in writing at the sale before the bidding is begun, requests that the land sold be taken from some other part or in some other form; in such case, if the request is reasonable, the officer making the sale shall sell accordingly.

(4) If an entire tract or parcel of land is sold by the acre, it shall not be measured but shall be deemed and taken to contain the number of acres named in the description, and be paid for accordingly; and if the number of acres is not contained in the description, the officer shall declare according to his or her judgment how many acres are contained therein, which shall be deemed and taken to be the true number of acres.

Sec. 610. Section 265, page 182, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 28, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 6.24.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The officer shall strike off the land to the highest bidder, who shall forthwith pay the money bid to the officer, who shall return the money with ~~((his) the~~ execution and ~~((his doings thereon:))~~ the report of proceedings on the execution to the clerk of the court from which the execution issued~~((according to the order thereof):~~ PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That when final judgment shall have been entered in the supreme court or the court of appeals and the execution upon which sale has been made issued from said court, the ~~((proceedings on execution and))~~ return shall be ~~((docketed for confirmation in))~~ made to the superior court in which the action was originally commenced, and ((like) the same proceedings shall be had as though ((said) execution had issued from ((the said) that superior court.

(2) At the time of the sale, the sheriff shall prepare a certificate of the sale, containing a particular description of the property sold, the price bid for each distinct lot or parcel, and the whole price paid; and when subject to redemption, it shall be so stated. The matters contained in such certificate shall be substantially stated in the sheriff's return of proceedings upon the writ. Upon receipt of the purchase price, the sheriff shall give a copy of the certificate to the purchaser and the original certificate to the clerk of the court with the return on the execution to hold for delivery to the purchaser upon confirmation of the sale.

Sec. 611, Section 6, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 as last amended by section 3, chapter 276, Laws of 1984 and RCW 6.24.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the return of any sale of real estate ~~((as aforesaid)),~~ the clerk (a) shall enter the cause, on which the execution or order of sale issued, by its title, on the motion docket, and mark opposite the same: 'Sale of land for confirmation'; (b) shall mail notice of the filing of the return of sale ((shall be mailed by the clerk)) to all parties who have entered a written notice of appearance in the action and who have not had an order of default entered against them ~~((and));~~ (c) shall file proof of such mailing ((shall be filed)) in the action; ~~((and the following proceedings shall be had:))~~ (d) shall apply the proceeds of the sale returned by the sheriff, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to satisfaction of the judgment, including interest as provided in the judgment, and shall pay any excess proceeds as provided in subsection (5) of this section, and (e) upon confirmation of the sale, shall deliver the original certificate of sale to the purchaser.

~~((+))~~ (2) The judgment creditor or successful purchaser at the sheriff's sale is entitled to an order confirming the sale at any time after twenty days have elapsed from the mailing of the notice of the filing of ((such)) the sheriff's return ((shall be entitled)), on motion with notice given to all parties who have entered a written notice of appearance in the action and who have not had an order of default entered against them, ((to have an order confirming the sale:)) unless the judgment debtor, or in case of ((his)) the judgment debtor's death, ((his)) the representative, or any nondefaulting party to whom notice was sent shall file objections to confirmation with the clerk within twenty days after the mailing of the notice of the filing of such return~~((his objections thereto)).~~

~~((2))~~ (3) If ((such)) objections ((be) to confirmation are filed, the court shall~~((notwithstanding:))~~ nevertheless allow the order confirming the sale, unless on the hearing of the motion, it shall satisfactorily appear that there were substantial irregularities in the proceedings concerning the sale, to the probable loss or injury of the party objecting. In the latter case, the court shall disallow the motion and direct that the property be resold, in whole or in part, as the case may be, as upon an execution received as of that date.

~~((3))~~ Upon the return of the execution, the sheriff shall pay the proceeds of sale to the clerk, who shall then apply the same, or so much thereof as may be necessary, in satisfaction of the judgment including interest as provided in the judgment:))

(4) Upon a resale, the bid of the purchaser at the former sale shall be deemed to be renewed and continue in force, and no bid shall be taken, except for a greater amount. If ((an order of)) on resale ((be afterwards made, and)) the property sells for a greater amount to any person other than the former purchaser, the clerk shall first repay to ((such)) the former purchaser out of the proceeds of the resale the amount of ((his)) the former purchaser's bid ((out of the proceeds of the latter sale)) together with interest as is provided in the judgment.

~~((4))~~ Upon a resale, the bid of the purchaser at the former sale shall be deemed to be renewed and continue in force, and no bid shall be taken, except for a greater amount. An order confirming a sale shall be a conclusive determination of the regularity of the proceedings concerning such sale as to all persons in any other action, suit or proceeding whatever:))

(5) If, after the satisfaction of the judgment, there be any proceeds of the sale remaining, the clerk shall pay such proceeds to the judgment debtor, or ((his)) the judgment debtor's representative, as the case may be, ((at any time)) before the order is made upon the motion to confirm the sale~~((PROVIDED, Such))~~ only if the party files with the clerk a waiver of all objections made or to be made to the proceedings concerning the sale; otherwise the excess proceeds shall remain in the custody of the clerk until the sale of the property has been disposed of; but if the sale be confirmed, such excess proceeds shall be paid to ((said party)) the judgment debtor or representative as a matter of course~~((otherwise they shall remain in the custody of the clerk until the sale of the property has been disposed of)).~~

(6) The purchaser shall file the original certificate of sale for record with the recording officer in the county in which the property is located.

Sec. 612. Section 16, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 as amended by section 5, chapter 80, Laws of 1965 and RCW 6.24.220 are each amended to read as follows:

In all cases where real estate has been, or may hereafter be sold (~~(in pursuance of law)~~) by virtue of an execution or other process, (~~issued upon an ordinary money judgment, or by virtue of execution, or other process issued upon a decree for the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien~~) it shall be the duty of the sheriff or other officer making such sale to execute and deliver to the purchaser, or other person entitled to the same, a deed of conveyance of the real estate so sold (~~immediately after the time for redemption from such sale has expired. PROVIDED, Such sale has been duly confirmed by order of the court. AND, PROVIDED FURTHER, That such~~). The deeds shall be issued upon request immediately after the confirmation of sale by the court in those instances where redemption rights have been precluded pursuant to RCW 61.12.093 et seq., or immediately after the time for redemption from such sale has expired in those instances in which there are redemption rights, as provided in RCW 6.24.160. In case the term of office of the sheriff or other officer making such sale shall have expired before a sufficient deed has been executed, then the successor in office of such sheriff shall, within the time specified in this section, execute and deliver to the purchaser or other person entitled to the same a deed of the premises so sold, and such deeds shall be as valid and effectual to convey to the grantee the lands or premises so sold, as if the deed had been made by the sheriff or other officer who made the sale.

Sec. 613. Section 364, page 96, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 368, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.24.110 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((If the))~~ A purchaser of real property sold on execution, or ~~((his))~~ a purchaser's successor in interest, ~~((be))~~ who is evicted (~~((therefrom))~~) in consequence of the reversal of the judgment (~~((he))~~) may recover from the plaintiff in the execution the price paid with interest and the costs and disbursements of the eviction suit (~~((by which he was evicted, from the plaintiff in the writ of execution))~~).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 614. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 263, page 181, Laws of 1854, section 360, page 94, Laws of 1869, section 367, page 79, Laws of 1877, section 364, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.24.070;

(3) Section 272, page 183, Laws of 1854, section 365, page 96, Laws of 1869, section 372, page 81, Laws of 1877, section 369, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.24.120.

PART VII

REDEMPTIONS OF REAL PROPERTY FROM FORCED SALES

Sec. 701. Section 7, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 and RCW 6.24.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Real property sold subject to redemption, as ~~((above))~~ provided in RCW 6.24.030, or any part thereof separately sold, may be redeemed by the following persons, or their successors in interest:

~~((1))~~ (a) The judgment debtor ~~((or his successor in interest))~~, in the whole or any part of the property separately sold.

~~((2))~~ (b) A creditor having a lien by judgment, decree, deed of trust, or mortgage, on any portion of the property, or any portion of any part thereof, separately sold, subsequent in time to that on which the property was sold. The persons mentioned in ~~((subdivision (2) of this section))~~ this subsection are termed redemptioners.

(2) As used in this chapter, the terms 'judgment debtor,' 'redemptioner,' and 'purchaser,' refer also to their respective successors in interest.

Sec. 702. Section 8, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 as last amended by section 4, chapter 276, Laws of 1984 and RCW 6.24.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless redemption rights have been precluded pursuant to RCW 61.12.093 et seq., the judgment debtor ~~((or his successor in interest))~~ or any redemptioner ~~((;))~~ may redeem the property from the purchaser at any time (a) within eight months after the date of the sale if the sale is pursuant to judgment and decree of foreclosure of any mortgage executed after June 30, 1961, which mortgage declares in its terms that the mortgaged property is not used principally for agricultural or farming purposes, and in which complaint the judgment creditor has expressly waived any right to a deficiency judgment, or (b) otherwise within one year after the date of the sale ~~((on paying))~~.

(2) The person who redeems from the purchaser must pay: (a) The amount of the bid, with interest thereon at the rate provided in the judgment to the time of redemption, together with (b) the amount of any assessment or taxes which the purchaser ~~((or his successor in interest may have))~~ has paid thereon after purchase, and like interest on such amount from time of payment to time of redemption, together with (c) any sum paid by the purchaser on a prior lien or obligation secured by an interest in the property to the extent the payment was necessary for the protection of the interest of the judgment debtor ~~((the judgment debtor's successor in interest))~~ or a redemptioner ~~((which the purchaser or the purchaser's successor in interest may have paid thereon with)), and like interest upon every payment made ((by the purchaser or the purchaser's successor in interest at the rate provided in the judgment))~~ from the date of payment ((thereof)) to the time of redemption((:)); and (d) if the redemption is by a redemptioner and if the purchaser ((be)) is also a creditor having a lien, by judgment, decree, deed of trust, or mortgage, prior to that of the redemptioner, other than the judgment under which such purchase was made, the redemptioner shall also pay the amount of such lien with like interest: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That ((whenever there is an execution sale of property pursuant to judgment and decree of foreclosure of any mortgage executed after June 30, 1961, which mortgage declares in its terms that the mortgaged property is not used principally for agricultural or farming purposes, and in which complaint the judgment creditor has expressly waived any right to a deficiency judgment, the period of redemption shall be eight months after the said sale)) a purchaser who makes any payment as mentioned in (c) of this subsection shall submit to the sheriff the affidavit required by RCW 6.24.180, and any purchaser who pays any taxes or assessments or has or acquires any such lien as mentioned in (d) of this subsection must file the statement required in section 705 of this 1987 act and provide evidence of the lien as required by RCW 6.24.180.

Sec. 703. Section 6, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 5, chapter 276, Laws of 1984 and RCW 6.24.145 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the property is subject to a homestead as provided in ((RCW 6.17.045 or 6.17.050)) chapter 6.12 RCW, the purchaser ((or the purchaser's assignee)), or the redemptioner ((or the redemptioner's assignee)) if the property has been redeemed, shall send a notice, in the form prescribed in subsection (3) of this section, at least forty but not more than sixty days before the expiration of the judgment debtor's redemption period both by regular mail and by certified mail, return receipt requested, ((and by first class mail)) to the judgment debtor or debtors and to each of them separately, if there is more than one judgment debtor, at their last known address or addresses and to 'occupant' at the property address. The ((notice)) party who sends the notice shall file a copy of the notice with an affidavit of mailing with the clerk of the court and deliver or mail a copy to the sheriff.

(2) Failure to comply with this section extends the judgment debtor's redemption period six months. If the redemption period is extended, no further notice need be sent. Time for redemption by redemptioners shall not be extended.

(3) The notice and affidavit of mailing required by subsection (1) of this section shall be in substantially the following form:

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON FOR COUNTY

Plaintiff,	}	CAUSE NO.
vs.		NOTICE OF EXPIRATION OF REDEMPTION PERIOD
Defendant.

TO: (Judgment Debtor)

THIS IS AN IMPORTANT NOTICE AFFECTING YOUR RIGHT TO RETAIN YOUR PROPERTY.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the period for redemption of the following described real property ('the property') is expiring. The property is situated in the County of State of Washington, to wit:

..... (legal description)
 and commonly known as which was sold by County Sheriff, in County, Washington on the day of 19... under and by virtue of a writ of execution and order of sale issued by the court in the above-entitled action.

THE REDEMPTION PERIOD FOR THE PROPERTY IS MONTHS. THE REDEMPTION PERIOD COMMENCED ON 19... AND WILL EXPIRE AT 4:30 p.m. ON 19...

If you intend to redeem the property described above you must give written notice of your intention to the County Sheriff on or before 19...

Following is an itemized account of the amount required to redeem the property to date:

Item	Amount
Purchase price paid at sale	$
Interest from date of sale to date of this notice at ... percent per annum	$
Real estate taxes plus interest	$
Assessments plus interest	$
Liens or other costs paid by purchaser or purchaser's successor during redemption period plus interest	$
Lien of redemptioner	$
TOTAL REQUIRED TO REDEEM AS OF THE DATE OF THIS NOTICE	$

You may redeem the property by 4:30 p.m. on or before the ... day of 19... by paying the amount set forth above and such other amounts as may be required by law.

Payment must be in the full amount and in cash, certified check, or cashier's check. Because such other amounts as may be required by law to redeem may include presently unknown expenditures required to operate, preserve, protect, or insure the property, or the amount to comply with state or local laws, or the amounts of prior liens, with interest, held by the purchaser or a redemptioner, it will be necessary for you to contact the County Sheriff at the address stated below prior to the time you tender the redemption amount so that you may be informed exactly how much you will have to pay to redeem the property.

Sec. 704, Section 9, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 and RCW 6.24.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If property ((be so)) is redeemed from the purchaser by a redemptioner, as provided in RCW 6.24.140, another redemptioner may, within sixty days after the ((last)) first redemption, ((again)) redeem it from the ((last)) first redemptioner ((by paying the sum paid on such last redemption with interest at the rate of eight percent per annum, and the amount of any taxes or assessment which the last redemptioner may have paid thereon after the redemption by him, with like interest on such amount, and in addition thereto by paying the amount of any liens, by judgment, decree or mortgage, held by said last redemptioner prior to his own, with interest, but the judgment under which the property was sold need not be so paid as a lien)). The property may be again, and as often as a redemptioner is so disposed, redeemed from any previous redemptioner within sixty days after the last redemption. ((on)) and such sixty-day redemption periods may extend beyond the period prescribed in RCW 6.24.140 for redemption from the purchaser.

(2) The judgment debtor may also redeem from a redemptioner, but in all cases the judgment debtor shall have the entire redemption period prescribed by RCW 6.24.140, but no longer unless the time is extended under RCW 6.24.145 or 6.24.190. If the judgment debtor redeems, the effect of the sale is terminated and the estate of the debtor is restored.

(3) A redemptioner may redeem under this section by paying the sum paid on the last previous redemption with interest ((thereon)) at the rate of eight percent per annum, and the amount of any assessments or taxes which the last previous redemptioner paid on the property after ((the redemption by him)) redeeming, with like interest ((thereon)), and the amount of any liens by judgment, decree, deed of trust, or mortgage, other than the judgment under which the property was sold, held by the last redemptioner, ((previous)) prior to his own, with interest.

~~((if the purchaser or)) A judgment debtor who redeems from a redemptioner under this section must make the same payments as are required to effect a redemption by a redemptioner, including any lien by judgment, decree, deed of trust, or mortgage, other than the judgment under which the property was sold, held by the redemptioner. A redemptioner ((shall pay)) who pays any taxes or assessments, or ((have or acquire)) has or acquires any such lien as herein mentioned. ((he)) must file a statement ((thereof with the auditor of the county where said property is situate before the property shall have been redeemed from him, otherwise the property may be redeemed without paying such tax, assessment or lien. Such statement shall be recorded by such auditor)) as required under section 705 of this 1987 act.~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 705. A purchaser or redemptioner who pays any taxes or assessments or has or acquires a lien on the property by judgment, decree, deed of trust, or mortgage prior to that of a prospective redemptioner must file a statement thereof, for recording, with the recording officer of the county in which the property is situated before the property has been redeemed from him or her. Otherwise, the property may be redeemed without paying such tax, assessment, or lien, but if actual notice of such payments or liens has been given to the person who redeems, failure to file the statement shall not affect the right to payment from that person absent that person's demonstration of prejudice resulting from the failure to file the statement.

Sec. 706. Section 10, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 as amended by section 2, chapter 196, Laws of 1961 and RCW 6.24.160 are each amended to read as follows:

If no redemption ((be)) is made within the redemption period prescribed by RCW 6.24.140 or within any extension of that period under any other provision of this chapter, the purchaser ((or his assignee)) is entitled to a ((conveyance)) sheriff's deed; or, if so redeemed, whenever sixty days have elapsed((:)) and no other redemption has been made((:)) or notice given operating to extend the period ((of redemption)) for re-redemption, and the time for redemption by the judgment debtor has expired, the last redemptioner ((or his assignee)) is entitled to receive a sheriff's deed((--but in all cases the judgment debtor shall have the entire redemption period prescribed by RCW 6.24.140 from the date of the sale to redeem the property. If the judgment debtor redeem he must make the same payments as are required to effect a redemption by the redemptioner. If the judgment debtor redeem, the effect of the sale is terminated and he is restored to his estate. A certificate of redemption must be filed and recorded in the office of the auditor of the county in which the property is situated, and the auditor must note the record thereof in the margin of the record of the certificate of sale)) as provided in RCW 6.24.220.

Sec. 707. Section 11, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 and RCW 6.24.170 are each amended to read as follows:

When two or more persons apply to the sheriff to redeem at the same time ((he)), the sheriff shall allow the person having the prior lien to redeem first, and so on. The sheriff shall immediately pay the money over to the person from whom the property is redeemed, if ((he attend at the)) that person is present at time of redemption; or if not, at any time thereafter when demanded. When a sheriff ((shall)) wrongfully ((refuse)) refuses to allow any person to redeem, ((his)) the right to redeem shall not be prejudiced ((thereby)) by such refusal, and the sheriff may be required, by order of the court, to allow such redemption.

Sec. 708. Section 12, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 as amended by section 6, chapter 276, Laws of 1984 and RCW 6.24.180 are each amended to read as follows:

((The mode of redeeming shall be as provided in this section.)) (1) The person seeking to redeem shall give the sheriff at least five days' written notice of ((his)) intention to apply to the sheriff for that purpose. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to notify the purchaser or redemptioner, as the case may be, or ((his)) the purchaser's or redemptioner's attorney, of the receipt of such notice, if such person ((be)) is within such county. At the time ((and place)) specified in such notice, the person seeking to redeem may do so by paying to the sheriff the sum required. The sheriff shall give the person redeeming a certificate stating ((therein)) the sum paid on redemption, from whom redeemed, the date thereof and a description of the property redeemed. A certificate of redemption must be filed and recorded in the office of the recording officer of the county in which the property is situated, and the recording officer must note the record thereof in the margin of the record of the certificate of sale.

(2) A person seeking to redeem shall submit to the sheriff the evidence of ((his)) the right ((thereto)) to redeem, as follows:

((+ if he be a)) (a) A lien creditor((:)) shall submit a copy of the docket of the judgment or decree under which ((he claims)) the right to redeem is claimed, certified by the clerk of the court where such judgment or decree is docketed; or ((if he seeks to redeem upon mortgage,)) the holder of a mortgage or deed of trust shall submit the certificate of the record thereof((: also)) together with an affidavit, verified by ((himself)) the holder or agent, showing the amount then actually due thereon.

((+ A)) (b) An assignee shall submit a copy of any assignment necessary to establish ((his)) the claim, verified by the affidavit of ((himself)) the assignee or agent, showing the amount then actually due on the judgment, decree, deed of trust, or mortgage.

(3) If the redemptioner or purchaser has a lien prior to that of the lien creditor seeking to redeem, such redemptioner or purchaser shall submit to the sheriff the same kind of evidence thereof as is required from a person seeking to redeem under subsection (2) of this section, and the amount due thereon, or the same may be disregarded.

(4) ~~((if the))~~ A purchaser ~~((or the purchaser's successor in interest))~~ who has paid a sum on a prior lien or obligation secured by an interest in the property ~~((he or she))~~ shall submit to the sheriff an affidavit, verified by the purchaser ~~((or the purchaser's successor in interest))~~ or an agent, showing the amount paid on the prior lien or obligation, or the prior lien or obligation may be disregarded.

Sec. 709. Section 13, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 and RCW 6.24.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section and in RCW 6.24.210, the purchaser, from the time of the sale until the redemption, and the redemptioner from the time of ((his)) the redemption until another redemption, ((except as hereinafter provided:)) is entitled to receive from the tenant in possession the rents of the property sold((:)) or the value of the use and occupation thereof. But when any rents or profits have been received ((by such person or persons thus entitled thereto:)) from the property ((thus sold)) by such purchaser or redemptioner, preceding the redemption thereof from him or her, the amount of such rents and profits, over and above the expenses paid for operating, caring for, protecting and insuring the property, shall be a credit upon the redemption money to be paid((and if the)).

(2) If a redemptioner or other person entitled to ((make such redemption)) redeem, before the expiration of the time allowed for such redemption, files with the sheriff a demand in writing for a written and verified statement of the amounts of ((such)) rents and profits thus received((:)) and expenses paid and incurred, the period for redemption is extended five days after such a sworn statement is given by ((such)) the person ((thus)) receiving such rents and profits, or by his or her agent, to the person making ((such)) the demand, or to the sheriff. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to serve a copy of such demand upon the person receiving such rents and profits, his or her agent or his or her attorney, if ((such)) service can be made in the county where the property is situate. If such person shall, for a period of ten days after such demand has been given to the sheriff, fail or refuse to give such statement, ((such)) the redemptioner or other person entitled to redeem ((from such sale, making such demand:)) who made the demand may bring an action within sixty days after making such demand, but not later, in any court of competent jurisdiction, to compel an accounting and disclosure of such rents, profits and expenses, and until fifteen days from and after the final determination of such action the right of redemption is extended to such redemptioner or other person ((making such demand who shall be)) entitled to redeem who made the demand. If a sworn statement is given by the purchaser or other person receiving such rents and profits, and ((such)) the redemptioner or other person entitled to redeem((:)) who ((makes such)) made the demand, desires to contest the correctness of the ((same)) statement, he or she must first redeem in accordance with such sworn statement, and if he or she desires to bring an action for an accounting thereafter he or she may do so within thirty days after such redemption, but not later((-PROVIDED, That if)).

(3) If such property ((be)) is farming or agricultural property and ((be)) is in possession of any purchaser or any previous redemptioner and is redeemed after the first day of April and before the first day of December, and the purchaser or previous redemptioner or ((his)) the tenant of either has performed any work in preparing such property for crops((:)) or has planted crops, ((he)) such purchaser or previous redemptioner shall ((be entitled to)) have the option to demand reimbursement for such work and labor or ((the right)) to retain possession of such property until the first day of December following, and the new redemptioner shall be entitled to collect the reasonable rental value thereof during such farming year, unless such reasonable rental shall have been collected by such purchaser or previous redemptioner and accounted for to the new redemptioner.

Sec. 710. Section 14, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 and RCW 6.24.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Until the expiration of the time allowed for redemption, the court may restrain the commission of waste on the property. But it is not waste for the person in possession of the property at the time of the sale or entitled to possession afterwards during the period allowed for redemption to continue to use it in the same manner in which it was previously used, or to use it in the ordinary course of husbandry, or to make the necessary repairs of buildings thereon, or to use wood or timber on the property therefor, or for the repairs of fences, or for fuel in his or her family while ((he occupies)) occupying the property.

Sec. 711. Section 15, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 as last amended by section 21, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.24.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this section and RCW 6.24.190, the purchaser from the day of sale until a resale or redemption, and the redemptioner from the day of ((his)) redemption until another redemption, shall be entitled to the possession of the property purchased or redeemed, unless the same be in the possession of a tenant holding under an unexpired lease, and in such case shall be entitled to receive from such tenant the rents or the value of the use and occupation thereof during the period of redemption(~~(-PROVIDED-That when))~~).

(2) If a mortgage contains a stipulation that in case of foreclosure the mortgagor may remain in possession of the mortgaged premises after sale and until the period of redemption has expired, the court shall make its decree to that effect and the mortgagor shall have such right(~~(- PROVIDED- FURTHER- That as))~~).

(3) As to any land so sold which is at the time of the sale used for farming purposes, or which is a part of a farm used, at the time of sale, for farming purposes, the judgment debtor shall be entitled to retain possession thereof during the period of redemption and the purchaser or his successor in interest shall, if the judgment debtor does not redeem, have a lien upon the crops raised or harvested thereon during said period of redemption, for interest on the purchase price at the rate of six percent per annum during said period of redemption and for taxes becoming delinquent during the period of redemption together with interest thereon(~~(- AND- PROVIDED- FURTHER- That))~~).

(4) In case of any homestead as defined in chapter 6.12 RCW and occupied for that purpose at the time of sale, the judgment debtor shall have the right to retain possession thereof during the period of redemption without accounting for issues or for value of occupation.

Sec. 712. Section 23, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 and RCW 6.24.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, during the period of redemption for any property (~~(which))~~ that a person would be entitled to claim as a homestead, any licensed real estate broker within the county in which the property is located may nonexclusively list the property for sale whether or not there is a listing contract. If the property is not redeemed by the judgment debtor and a sheriff's deed is issued under RCW 6.24.220, then the property owner shall accept the highest current qualifying offer upon tender of full cash payment within two banking days after notice of the pending acceptance is received by the offeror. If timely tender is not made, such offer shall no longer be deemed to be current and the opportunity shall pass to the next highest current qualifying offer, if any. Notice of pending acceptance shall be given for the first highest current qualifying offer within five days after delivery of the sheriff's deed under RCW 6.24.220 and for each subsequent highest current qualifying offer within five days after the offer becoming the highest current qualifying offer. An offer is qualifying if the offer is made during the redemption period through a licensed real estate broker listing the property and is at least equal to the sum of: (a) One hundred twenty percent greater than the redemption amount determined under RCW 6.24.140 and (b) the normal commission of the real estate broker or agent handling the offer.

(2) The proceeds shall be divided at the time of closing with: (a) One hundred twenty percent of the redemption amount determined under RCW 6.24.140 paid to the property owner, (b) the real estate broker's or agent's normal commission paid, and (c) any excess paid to the judgment debtor.

(3) Notice, tender, payment, and closing shall be made through the real estate broker or agent handling the offer.

(4) This section shall not apply to mortgage or deed of trust foreclosures under chapter 61.12 or 61.24 RCW.

PART VIII ATTACHMENT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 801. Unless otherwise expressly provided, all the provisions of this chapter governing attachment of personal property apply to proceedings before district courts of this state, but the district courts shall not have power to issue writs of attachment against real property or any interest in real property or against vendors' interests under real estate contracts.

Sec. 802. Section 1, page 39, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The plaintiff at the time of commencing an action, or at any time afterward before judgment, may have the property of the defendant, or that of any one or more of several defendants, attached in the manner (~~(hereinafter))~~ prescribed in this chapter, as security for the satisfaction of such judgment as (~~(he))~~ the plaintiff may recover.

Sec. 803. Section 2, page 39, Laws of 1886 as last amended by section 16, chapter 154, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 7.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The writ of attachment (~~(shall))~~ may be issued by (~~(the clerk of))~~ the court in which the action is pending(~~(- but before any such writ of attachment shall issue, the plaintiff, or someone in his behalf, shall make and file with such clerk an affidavit showing that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff (specifying the amount of such indebtedness over and above all just credits and offsets), and that the attachment is not sought and the action is not prosecuted to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant, and either))~~ on one or more of the following grounds:

- (1) That the defendant is a foreign corporation; or
- (2) That the defendant is not a resident of this state; or

(3) That the defendant conceals himself so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him; or

(4) That the defendant has absconded or absented himself from his usual place of abode in this state, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him; or

(5) That the defendant has removed or is about to remove any of his property from this state, with intent to delay or defraud his creditors; or

(6) That the defendant has assigned, secreted, or disposed of, or is about to assign, secrete, or dispose of, any of his property, with intent to delay or defraud his creditors; or

(7) That the defendant is about to convert his property, or a part thereof, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; or

(8) That the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought; or

(9) That the damages for which the action is brought are for injuries arising from the commission of some felony, gross misdemeanor, or misdemeanor; or

(10) That the object for which the action is brought is to recover on a contract, express or implied.

Sec. 804. Section 3, page 39, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

An action may be commenced and the property of a debtor may be attached previous to the time when the debt becomes due, when nothing but time is wanting to fix an absolute indebtedness, and when the complaint and the affidavit allege, in addition to that fact, ((states)) one or more of the following grounds:

(1) That the defendant is about to dispose or has disposed of his property in whole or in part with intent to defraud his creditors; or

(2) That the defendant is about to remove from the state(;) and refuses to make any arrangements for securing the payment of the debt when it falls due, and ((which)) the contemplated removal was not known to the plaintiff at the time the debt was contracted; or

~~(3) ((That the defendant has disposed of his property in whole or in part with intent to defraud his creditors; or~~

~~(4)) That the debt was incurred for property obtained under false pretenses.~~

Sec. 805. Section 4, page 40, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.040 are each amended to read as follows:

If the debt or demand for which the attachment is sued out is not due at the time of the commencement of the action, the defendant is not required to file any pleadings until the maturity of such debt or demand, but ((he)) the defendant may, in his or her discretion, do so, and go to trial as early as the cause is reached. No final judgment shall be rendered in such action until the debt or demand upon which it is based becomes due, unless the defendant consents by filing pleadings or otherwise. However, property of a perishable nature may be sold as provided in RCW 7.12.160.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 806. (1) The plaintiff or someone on plaintiff's behalf shall apply for a writ of attachment by affidavit, alleging that the attachment is not sought and the action is not prosecuted to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant and also alleging that affiant has reason to believe and does believe the following, together with specific facts on which affiant's belief in the allegations is based: (a) That the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff (specifying the nature of the claim and the amount of such indebtedness over and above all just credits and offsets), and (b) that one or more of the grounds stated in RCW 7.12.020 for issuance of a writ of attachment exists.

(2) If the action is based on a debt not due, the ground alleged under subsection (1)(b) of this section must be one stated in RCW 7.12.030 for attachment on a debt not due, and affiant shall also allege reason to believe and belief that nothing but time is wanting to fix an absolute indebtedness due from defendant, together with specific facts on which the affiant's belief in the allegations is based.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 807. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the court shall issue a writ of attachment only after prior notice to defendant, given in the manner prescribed in subsections (4) and (5) of this section, with an opportunity for a prior hearing at which the plaintiff shall establish the probable validity of the claim sued on and that there is probable cause to believe that the alleged ground for attachment exists.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, the court shall issue the writ without prior notice to defendant and an opportunity for a prior hearing only if:

(a)(i) The attachment is to be levied only on real property, or (ii) if it is to be levied on personal property, the ground alleged for issuance of attachment is one appearing in RCW 7.12.020 (5) through (7) or in RCW 7.12.030(1) or, if attachment is necessary for the court to obtain jurisdiction of the action, the ground alleged is one appearing in RCW 7.12.020 (1) through (4); and

(b) The court finds, on the basis of specific facts alleged in the affidavit, after an ex parte hearing, that there is probable cause to believe the allegations of plaintiff's affidavit.

(3) If a writ is issued under subsection (2) of this section without prior notice to defendant, after seizure of property under the writ the defendant shall be entitled to prompt notice of the seizure and of a right to an early hearing, if requested, at which the plaintiff shall establish the probable validity of the claim sued on and that there is probable cause to believe that the alleged ground for attachment exists. Such notice shall be given in the manner prescribed in subsections (4) and (5) of this section.

(4) When notice and a hearing are required under this section, notice may be given by a show cause order stating the date, time, and place of the hearing. Notice required under this section shall be jurisdictional and, except as provided for published notice in subsection (5) of this section, notice shall be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action and shall be served together with: (a) Copies of the plaintiff's affidavit and of the writ; (b) if the defendant is an individual, copies of homestead statutes, RCW 6.12.010, 6.12.045, and 6.12.050, if real property is to be attached, or copies of exemption statutes, RCW 6.16.020 and 6.16.090, if personal property is to be attached; and (c) if the plaintiff has proceeded under subsection (2) of this section, a copy of a 'Notice of Right to Hearing' in substantially the following form:

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO HEARING

In a lawsuit against you, a Washington court has issued the Writ of Attachment included with this notice. Under the writ a sheriff or sheriff's deputy has or will put a lien against your real estate or has seized or will seize other property of yours to hold until the court decides the lawsuit.

Delivery of this notice of your rights is required by law.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO A HEARING. At the hearing, the plaintiff must give evidence that there is probable cause to believe that the statements in the enclosed affidavit are true and also that the claim stated in the lawsuit is probably valid, or else your property will be released.

If the defendant is an individual, the following paragraph shall be added to the notice:

YOU MAY ALSO HAVE A RIGHT TO HAVE YOUR PROPERTY RELEASED if it is exempt property as described in the copies of statutes included with this notice and if you claim your exemptions in the way described in the statutes.

(5) If service of notice on the defendant must be effected by publication, only the following notice need be published under the caption of the case:

To Defendant:

A writ of attachment has been issued in the above-captioned case, directed to the Sheriff of County, commanding the Sheriff as follows:

'WHEREAS, . . . {Quoting body of writ of attachment}'

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO ASK FOR A HEARING. At the hearing, the plaintiff must give evidence that there is probable cause to believe that the ground for attachment alleged in an affidavit filed with the court exists and also that the claim stated in the lawsuit is probably valid, or else the attachment will be discharged.

If the defendant is an individual, the following paragraph shall be added to the published notice:

YOU MAY ALSO HAVE A RIGHT TO HAVE YOUR PROPERTY RELEASED if it is exempt property as described in Washington exemption statutes, including sections 6.12.010, 6.12.045, 6.12.050, 6.16.020 and 6.16.090 of the Revised Code of Washington, in the manner described in those statutes.

Sec. 808, Section 6, page 40, Laws of 1886 as last amended by section 1, chapter 51, Laws of 1957 and RCW 7.12.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, before the writ of attachment shall issue, the plaintiff, or someone in (his) the plaintiff's behalf, shall execute and file with the clerk a surety bond or undertaking in the sum in no case less than three (hundred) thousand dollars, in the superior court, nor less than (fifty) five hundred dollars in the (justice) district court, and double the amount for which plaintiff demands judgment, or such other amount as the court shall fix, conditional that the plaintiff will prosecute ((his) the action without delay and will pay all costs that may be adjudged to the defendant, and all damages ((which he) that the defendant may sustain by reason of the writ of attachment or of additional writs issued as permitted under RCW 7.12.100, not exceeding the amount specified in such bond or undertaking, as the penalty thereof, should the same be wrongfully, oppressively or maliciously sued out. ((With said bond or undertaking there shall also be filed the affidavit of the sureties, from which it must appear that such sureties are qualified and that they are taken together, worth the sum specified in the bond or undertaking, over and above all debts and liabilities, and property exempt from execution. No person not qualified to become surety as provided by law, shall be qualified to become surety upon a bond or undertaking for an attachment. PRO-VIDED-That when)

(2) If it is desired to attach real estate only, and such fact is stated in the affidavit for attachment, and the ground of attachment is that the defendant is a foreign corporation or is not a resident of the state, or conceals himself or herself or has absconded or is absent from his or her usual place of abode so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him or her, ((or has absconded or absented himself from his usual place of abode, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him;)) the writ of attachment shall issue without bond or undertaking by or on behalf of the plaintiff((-AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That when the claim-

~~debt or obligation whether in contract or tort, upon which plaintiff's cause of action is based, shall have been assigned to him, and his);~~

(3) If the plaintiff sues on an assigned claim and the plaintiff's immediate or any other assignor thereof retains or has any interest ((therein)) in the claim, then the plaintiff and every assignor ((of said claim, debt or obligation)) who retains or has any interest therein(:)) shall be jointly and severally liable ((to the defendant)) for all costs that may be adjudged to ((him)) the defendant and for all damages ((which he)) that the defendant may sustain by reason of the attachment, should the same be wrongfully, oppressively or maliciously sued out.

Sec. 809. Section 7, page 40, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The defendant may, at any time before judgment, move the court or judge for additional security on the part of the plaintiff, or for security if none was required under RCW 7.12.060, and if, on such motion, the court or judge is satisfied that security or additional security should be required or that the surety in the plaintiff's bond has removed from this state(:) or is not sufficient, the attachment may be vacated, and restitution directed of any property taken under it, unless in a reasonable time, to be fixed by the court or judge, further security is given by the plaintiff in form as provided in RCW 7.12.060.

Sec. 810. Section 8, page 41, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.080 are each amended to read as follows:

In an action on such bond ~~((the plaintiff therein may recover)), if ((he shows)) it is shown that the attachment was wrongfully sued out, ((and that there was no reasonable cause to believe the ground upon which the same was issued to be true;)) the defendant may recover the actual damages sustained and reasonable attorney's fees to be fixed by the court(: and); If it ((be)) is shown that such attachment was sued out maliciously, ((he)) the defendant may recover exemplary damages, ((nor need he)) and the defendant need not wait until the principal suit is determined before suing on the bond.~~

Sec. 811. Section 9, page 41, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The writ of attachment shall be directed to the sheriff of any county in which property of the defendant may be, and shall require ((him)) the sheriff to attach and safely keep the property of such defendant within ((his)) the county, to the requisite amount, which shall be stated in conformity with the affidavit. The sheriff shall in all cases attach the amount of property directed, if sufficient property not ((exempt)) exempted from execution be found in ((his)) the county, giving that in which the defendant has a legal and unquestionable title a preference over that in which ((his)) title is doubtful or only equitable, and ((he)) the sheriff shall as nearly as the circumstances of the case will permit, levy upon property fifty percent greater in valuation than the amount that the plaintiff in ((his)) the affidavit claims to be due. When property is seized on attachment, the court may allow to the officer having charge thereof such compensation for ((his)) the trouble and expenses in keeping the same as shall be reasonable and just.

Sec. 812. Section 10, page 41, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.100 are each amended to read as follows:

If a writ of attachment has been issued in a case, other writs of attachment may be issued in the same case from the ((superior)) court(s) to different counties, and several may, at the option of the plaintiff, be issued at the same time, or in succession and subsequently, until sufficient property has been attached; but only those executed shall be taxed in the costs, unless otherwise ordered by the court, and if more property is attached in the aggregate than the plaintiff is entitled to have held, the surplus must be abandoned and the plaintiff pay all costs incurred in relation to such surplus. After the first writ ((shall have)) has issued, it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to file any further affidavit or bond unless the court otherwise directs, but ((he)) the plaintiff shall be entitled to as many writs as may be necessary to secure the amount claimed.

Sec. 813. Section 11, page 41, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The sheriff or other officer shall indorse upon the writ of attachment in ink the day, hour, and minute when the writ first came into the officer's hands. Where there are several attachments against the same defendant, they shall be executed in the order in which they were received by the sheriff.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 814. The sheriff shall levy on property to be attached in the same manner as provided for execution in RCW 7.12.130, section 417 of this 1987 act, and RCW 6.04.120.

Sec. 815. Section 12, page 42, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.120 are each amended to read as follows:

If, after an attachment has been placed in the hands of the sheriff, any property of the defendant is moved from the county, the sheriff may pursue and attach the ((same)) property in an adjoining county(:)) within twenty-four hours after removal.

Sec. 816. Section 21, page 43, Laws of 1886 as amended by section 2, chapter 100, Laws of 1927 and RCW 7.12.200 are each amended to read as follows:

The sheriff shall make a full inventory of the property attached and return the ~~((same))~~ inventory with the writ of attachment within twenty days of receipt of the writ, with a return of the proceedings indorsed on or attached to the writ. If the writ was issued at the same time as the summons, the sheriff shall return the writ with the summons.

Sec. 817. Section 14, page 42, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever it appears by the affidavit of the plaintiff that the plaintiff has probable cause to believe that a ground for attachment exists and it appears by the plaintiff's affidavit or by the return of the attachment that no property is known to the plaintiff or officer on which the attachment can be executed, or not enough to satisfy the plaintiff's claim, and it being shown to the court or judge by affidavit that the defendant has property within the state not ((exempt)) exempted, the defendant may be required by such court or judge to attend before the court or judge or referee appointed by the court or judge and give information on oath respecting the ~~((same))~~ property.

Sec. 818. Section 31, page 45, Laws of 1886 as amended by section 1, chapter 131, Laws of 1927 and RCW 7.12.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The defendant may at any time, after ~~((he has appeared))~~ appearing in the action and before ~~((he has given))~~ giving bond ~~((to the effect that he will perform the judgment of the court.))~~ as provided in RCW 7.12.250, apply on motion, upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, to the court in which the action is brought or to the judge thereof, that the writ of attachment be discharged on the ground that ((the same)) it was improperly or irregularly issued.

(2) If the motion is made on affidavits on the part of the defendant, the plaintiff may oppose the same by affidavits in addition to those on which the attachment was issued or by other evidence, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(3) If upon application it satisfactorily appears that the writ of attachment was improperly or irregularly issued, it must be discharged.

(4) Whenever an order has been made discharging or releasing an attachment upon real property, a certified copy of such order may be recorded with the recording officer of the county in which the writ of attachment has been recorded.

Sec. 819. Section 29, page 45, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.250 are each amended to read as follows:

If the defendant, at any time before judgment, causes a bond to be executed to the plaintiff with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer having the attachment or after the return thereof by the clerk ~~((to the effect that he will perform)),~~ conditional on the performance of the judgment of the court, the attachment shall be discharged and restitution made of property taken or proceeds thereof. The execution of such bond shall be deemed an appearance of such defendant to the action. The bond shall be part of the record and, if judgment goes against the defendant, the judgment shall be entered against the defendant and the sureties.

Sec. 820. Section 15, page 42, Laws of 1886 as amended by section 9, chapter 9, Laws of 1957 and RCW 7.12.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The court before whom the action is pending may at any time appoint a receiver to take possession of property attached under the provisions of this chapter(;;) and to collect, manage, and control the ~~((same))~~ property and pay over the proceeds according to the nature of the property and the exigency of the case.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 821. (1) If, before or after levy under a writ of attachment, the plaintiff receives notice that the defendant has become a debtor in a bankruptcy case, the plaintiff shall immediately give written notice of that fact to the sheriff.

(2) If, before levying under a writ of attachment, a sheriff receives notice that the defendant has become a debtor in a bankruptcy case, the sheriff shall immediately give written notice of that fact to the plaintiff's attorney of record, if any, otherwise to the plaintiff, and shall not be bound to levy under the writ. If, after levying on property under a writ of attachment, a sheriff receives such notice, the sheriff shall give written notice of the attachment, describing the property seized, to the trustee in the bankruptcy case if there is one, otherwise to the bankruptcy court, with a copy to the plaintiff's attorney of record, if any, otherwise to the plaintiff, and shall transfer the property to the trustee on demand or as the bankruptcy court otherwise directs. If no demand is made on the sheriff for surrender of the property and the sheriff thereafter receives notice of the closing of the bankruptcy case, the sheriff shall give written notice by first class mail to the plaintiff's attorney of record, if any, otherwise to the plaintiff, requiring that the plaintiff release the property or obtain a renewal of the writ from the court, and, if the plaintiff fails to release the property or to apply for a renewal within fourteen days after the mailing of the sheriff's notice, the sheriff may release the property to the defendant.

Sec. 822. Section 16, page 42, Laws of 1886 as amended by section 2, chapter 51, Laws of 1957 and RCW 7.12.160 are each amended to read as follows:

If any property attached be perishable or in danger of serious and immediate waste or decay, the sheriff shall sell the same in the manner in which such property is sold on execution. Whenever it shall be made to appear satisfactorily to the court or judge that the interest of the parties to the action will be subserved by a sale of any attached property, the court or judge may order such property to be sold in the same manner as like property is sold under execution. Such order shall be made only upon notice to the adverse party or ~~((his))~~ that party's attorney in case such party shall have been personally served with a summons in the action.

Sec. 823. Section 17, page 43, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.170 are each amended to read as follows:

All moneys received by the sheriff under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid to the clerk of the court that issued the writ, to be held to be applied to any judgment that may be recovered in the action, and all other attached property shall be retained by ~~((him))~~ the sheriff to ~~((answer))~~ be applied to any judgment that may be recovered in the action ~~((unless sooner subjected to execution upon another judgment recovered previous to the issuing of the attachment)).~~

Sec. 824. Section 25, page 44, Laws of 1886 as amended by section 4, chapter 51, Laws of 1957 and RCW 7.12.210 are each amended to read as follows:

If judgment ~~((be))~~ is recovered by the plaintiff ~~((the sheriff shall satisfy the same)), it shall be paid out of any proceeds held by the clerk of the court and out of the property ~~((attached by him which has not been delivered to the defendant or claimant as in this chapter provided or subjected to execution on another judgment recovered previous to the issuing of the attachment, if it be))~~ retained by the sheriff if it is sufficient for that purpose as follows:~~

(1) By applying on the execution issued on said judgment the proceeds of all sales of perishable or other property sold ~~((by him)),~~ or so much as shall be necessary to satisfy the judgment.

(2) If any balance remains due ~~((he)),~~ the sheriff shall sell under the execution so much of the personal property ~~((real or personal))~~ attached as may be necessary to satisfy the balance ~~((if enough for that purpose remain in his hands))~~ and, if there is not sufficient personal property to satisfy the balance, the sheriff shall sell so much of any real property attached as is necessary to satisfy the judgment.

Notice of ~~((the))~~ sale shall be given and ~~((the))~~ sale conducted as in other cases of sales on execution.

Sec. 825. Section 26, page 44, Laws of 1886 as amended by section 5, chapter 51, Laws of 1957 and RCW 7.12.220 are each amended to read as follows:

If, after ~~((selling))~~ the proceeds of all the property attached ~~((by him remaining in his hands, and applying the proceeds, deducting his fees:))~~ have been applied to the payment of the judgment, any balance ~~((shall))~~ remains due, the sheriff shall proceed ~~((to collect such balance))~~ as upon an execution in other cases. Whenever the judgment ~~((shall have))~~ has been paid, the sheriff, upon reasonable demand, shall deliver ~~((over))~~ to the defendant the attached property remaining ~~((in his hands))~~ and the clerk shall pay to the defendant any remaining proceeds of the property attached ~~((unapplied))~~ that have not been applied on the judgment.

Sec. 826. Section 27, page 45, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.230 are each amended to read as follows:

If the execution ~~((be))~~ is returned unsatisfied, in whole or in part, the plaintiff may proceed as in other cases upon the return of an execution.

Sec. 827. Section 28, page 45, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.240 are each amended to read as follows:

If the defendant recovers judgment against the plaintiff, all the proceeds of sales and money collected by the sheriff and deposited with the clerk and all the property attached ~~((remaining in))~~ and retained by the sheriff ~~((s hands))~~ shall be delivered to the defendant or ~~((his))~~ the defendant's agent. The order of attachment shall be discharged and the property released therefrom.

Sec. 828. Section 35, page 46, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.310 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall be liberally construed, and the plaintiff, at any time when objection is made thereto, shall be permitted to amend any defect in the complaint, affidavit, bond, writ or other proceeding, and no attachment shall be quashed or dismissed, or the property attached released, if the defect in any of the proceedings has been or can be amended so as to show that a legal cause for the attachment existed at the time it was issued, and the court shall give the plaintiff a reasonable time to perfect such defective proceedings. ~~((The causes for attachment shall not be stated in the alternative:))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 829. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 5, page 40, Laws of 1886 and RCW 7.12.050;
- (2) Section 20, page 43, Laws of 1886, section 3, chapter 51, Laws of 1957 and RCW 7.12.190;

PART IX

PREJUDGMENT GARNISHMENT

NEW SECTION, Sec. 901. Except as limited by RCW 7.33.060, relating to the state and other public entities, and RCW 7.33.350, relating to continuing liens on earnings, the plaintiff at the time of commencing an action, or at any time thereafter before judgment in an action, may obtain a prejudgment writ of garnishment from a superior or district court of this state before which the action is pending on the following grounds:

(1) If the writ is directed to other than an employer and for a purpose other than garnishing a defendant's earnings as defined in section 1001 of this act, (a) on the ground that an attachment has been issued in accordance with chapter 7.12 RCW, (b) on the ground that the plaintiff sues on a debt that is due and owing and unpaid, or (c) on one or more of the grounds for issuance of attachment stated in RCW 7.12.020 or 7.12.030; or

(2) If the writ is directed to an employer for the purpose of garnishing earnings of a defendant, on the grounds that the defendant:

(a) Is not a resident of this state, or is about to move from this state; or

(b) Has concealed himself or herself, absconded, or absented himself or herself so that ordinary process of law cannot be served on him or her; or

(c) Has removed or is about to remove any of his or her property from this state, with intent to delay or defraud his or her creditors.

Sec. 902. Section 3, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.030 are each amended to read as follows:

In all cases of garnishment before judgment, before the writ shall issue, the plaintiff shall pay the fee described in RCW 7.33.040 and shall execute and file with the clerk a bond with ((two or more good and)) sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court issuing the writ, payable to the defendant in the suit, in double the amount of the debt claimed therein, conditioned that ((he)) the plaintiff will prosecute ((his)) the suit without delay and pay all damages and costs that may be adjudged against him or her for wrongfully suing out such garnishment((~~PROVIDED: That nothing in this section shall prohibit a credit agency, or other party contemplating multiple garnishments before judgment, from posting one large bond covering more than one garnishment proceeding~~)).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 903. In an action on the bond under RCW 7.33.030, if it is shown that the garnishment was wrongfully sued out, the defendant may recover the actual damages sustained and reasonable attorney's fees to be fixed by the court. If it is shown that such garnishment was sued out maliciously, the defendant may also recover exemplary damages, and the defendant need not wait until the principal suit is determined before suing on the bond by counterclaim in the original action or in a separate action.

Sec. 904. Section 34, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 61, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.340 are each amended to read as follows:

In all actions in which a prejudgment writ of garnishment has been issued by a court and served upon a garnishee, in the event judgment is not entered for the plaintiff on the claim sued upon by plaintiff, and the claim has not voluntarily been settled or otherwise satisfied, the defendant shall have an action for damages against the plaintiff. The defendant's action for damages may be brought by way of a counterclaim in the original action or in a separate action and, in the action the trier of fact, in addition to other actual damages sustained by the defendant, may award (him) the defendant reasonable attorney's fees.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 905. The plaintiff or someone on the plaintiff's behalf shall apply for a prejudgment writ of garnishment by affidavit, alleging that the garnishment is not sought and the action is not prosecuted to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant and also alleging that the affiant has reason to believe and does believe the following, together with specific facts on which the affiant's belief in the allegations is based: (1) That the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff (specifying the nature of the claim and the amount of such indebtedness over and above all just credits and offsets); (2) that one or more of the grounds for prejudgment garnishment established in section 901 of this act exists; (3) that the plaintiff has reason to believe, and does believe, that the garnishee, stating the garnishee's name and residence or place of business, is indebted to the defendant in amounts exceeding those exempted from garnishment by any state or federal law, or that the garnishee has possession or control of personal property or effects belonging to the defendant which are not exempted from garnishment by any state or federal law; (4) whether or not the garnishee is the employer of the defendant; and (5) if the action is based on a debt not due, that nothing but time is wanting to fix an absolute indebtedness due from the defendant.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 906. (1) When application is made for a prejudgment writ of garnishment, the court shall issue the writ in substantially the form prescribed in RCW 7.33.050, 7.33.120, and 7.33.110 directing that the garnishee withhold an amount as prescribed in RCW 7.33.090, but, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the court shall issue the writ only after prior notice to the defendant, given in the manner prescribed in subsections (4) and (5) of this section, with an opportunity for a prior hearing at which the plaintiff shall establish the probable validity of the plaintiff's claim and that there is probable cause to believe that the alleged ground for garnishment exists.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, the court shall issue the writ without prior notice to the defendant and without an opportunity for a prior hearing only if:

(a) A ground alleged in the plaintiff's affidavit is: (i) A ground appearing in section 901(2)(c) of this act if the writ is to be directed to an employer for the purpose of garnishing the defendant's earnings; or (ii) a ground appearing in RCW 7.12.020 (5) through (7) or in RCW 7.12.030(1) of the attachment chapter; or (iii) if garnishment is necessary to permit the court to acquire jurisdiction over the action, the ground alleged is one appearing in RCW 7.12.020 (1) through (4) or in section 901(2) (a) or (b) of this act; and

(b) The court finds on the basis of specific facts, after an ex parte hearing, that there is probable cause to believe the allegations of the plaintiff's affidavit.

(3) If a writ is issued under subsection (2) of this section without prior notice to the defendant, after service of the writ on the garnishee, the defendant shall be entitled to prompt notice of the garnishment and a right to an early hearing, if requested, at which the plaintiff shall establish the probable validity of the claim sued on and that there is probable cause to believe that the alleged ground for garnishment exists.

(4) When notice and a hearing are required under this section, notice may be given by a show cause order stating the date, time, and place of the hearing. Notice required under this section shall be jurisdictional and, except as provided for published notice in subsection (5) of this section, notice required under this section shall be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action and shall be served together with (a) copies of plaintiff's affidavit and of the writ, and (b) a copy of the following 'Notice of Right to a Hearing' or, if defendant is an individual, a copy of the claim form and the 'Notice of Garnishment and of Your Rights' prescribed by section 1014 of this act, in which the following notice is substituted for the first paragraph of said Notice:

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO HEARING

The writ of garnishment served with this Notice has been issued by a Washington court and has been or will be served on the garnishee defendant. It will require the garnishee defendant to withhold payment of money that may be due to you and to withhold other property of yours that the garnishee may hold or control until a lawsuit in which you are a defendant has been decided by the court. Service of this notice of your rights is required by law.

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO A HEARING. At the hearing, the plaintiff must give evidence that there is probable cause to believe that the statements in the enclosed affidavit are true and also that the claim stated in the lawsuit is probably valid, or else the garnishment will be released.

(5) If service of notice on the defendant must be effected by publication, only the following notice need be published under the caption of the case:

To, Defendant:

A writ of prejudgment garnishment has been issued in the above captioned case, directed to as Garnishee Defendant, commanding the Garnishee to withhold amounts due you or to withhold any of your property in the Garnishee's possession or control for application to any judgment that may be entered for plaintiff in the case.

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO ASK FOR A HEARING. At the hearing, the plaintiff must give evidence that there is probable cause to believe that the ground for garnishment alleged in an affidavit filed with the court exists and also that the claim stated in the lawsuit is probably valid, or else the garnishment will be released.

If the defendant is an individual, the following paragraph shall be added to the published notice:

YOU MAY ALSO HAVE A RIGHT TO HAVE THE GARNISHMENT RELEASED if amounts or property withheld are exempt under federal or state statutes, for example, bank accounts in which benefits such as Aid to Families with Dependent children (AFDC), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Social Security, United States pension, Unemployment Compensation, or Veterans' benefits have been deposited or certain personal property described in section 6.16.020 of the Revised Code of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 907. Except as otherwise provided, the provisions of chapter 7.33 RCW governing garnishments apply to prejudgment garnishments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 908. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 7, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.070;
- (2) Section 8, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 61, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.080;
- (3) Section 10, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.100;
- (4) Section 12, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.120;
- (5) Section 25, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 4, chapter 41, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.250; and
- (6) Section 9, chapter 61, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.390.

PART X
GARNISHMENT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1001. (1) As used in this chapter, the term 'earnings' means compensation paid or payable to an individual for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and includes periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program.

(2) As used in this chapter, the term 'disposable earnings' means that part of earnings remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amounts required by law to be withheld.

Sec. 1002. Section 1, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((Except as is provided in subsection (2) of this section;))~~ The clerks of the superior courts and district courts ~~((in the various counties in the))~~ of this state may issue writs of garnishment returnable to their respective courts ~~((in the following cases:~~

~~(a) Where an original attachment has been issued in accordance with the statutes in relation to attachments;~~

~~(b) Where the plaintiff sues for a debt and the plaintiff or someone in his behalf makes affidavit that such debt is just, due and unpaid, and that the garnishment applied for is not sued out to injure either the defendant or the garnishee;~~

~~(c) Where the plaintiff) for the benefit of a judgment creditor who has a judgment wholly or partially unsatisfied in the court from which ((he seeks to have a writ of garnishment issued)) the garnishment is sought.~~

(2) ~~((A writ of garnishment which is not sought in order to satisfy an existing judgment shall not be issued by the clerk of the superior court against any employer for the purpose of garnishing any earnings he owes his employee, unless the plaintiff sues for a debt and the plaintiff believes that the employee:~~

(a) is not a resident of this state, or is about to move from this state; or
 (b) has concealed himself, absconded, or absented himself so that ordinary process of law cannot be served on him; or

(c) has removed or is about to remove any of his property from this state, with intent to defraud or defraud his creditors, and the plaintiff or someone on his behalf files an affidavit stating the specific facts upon which his belief is founded and the court pursuant to an ex parte hearing finds that there is sufficient reason to find the belief true.

(3) As used in this chapter, the term "earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and includes periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program) Except as otherwise provided in RCW 7.33.060 and 7.33.350, the superior courts and district courts of this state may issue prejudgment writs of garnishment to a plaintiff at the time of commencement of an action or at any time afterward, subject to the requirements of chapter 6.-- RCW (part IX of this act).

Sec. 1003. Section 2, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.020 are each amended to read as follows:

All ~~((of))~~ the provisions of this chapter ~~((except the provisions of RCW 7.33.030))~~ shall apply to ~~((actions and))~~ proceedings before ~~((courts of limited jurisdiction))~~ district courts of this state. ~~((Where proceedings are in courts of limited jurisdiction, references to the superior court and/or the clerk thereof shall be translated to apply to the appropriate court of limited jurisdiction and/or clerk thereof.))~~

Sec. 1004. Section 6, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The state of Washington, all counties, cities, towns, school districts and other municipal corporations shall be subject to garnishment after judgment has been entered in the principal action, but not before, in the superior and ~~((justice))~~ district courts, in the same manner and with the same effect, as provided in the case of other garnishees.

The venue of any such garnishment proceeding shall be the same as for the original action, and the writ shall be issued by the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of such original action.

The writ of garnishment shall be served in the same manner and upon the same officer as is required for service of summons upon the commencement of a civil action against the state, county, city, town, school district, or other municipal corporation, as the case may be.

Sec. 1005. Section 19, page 43, Laws of 1886 as amended by section 1, chapter 101, Laws of 1927 and RCW 7.12.180 are each amended to read as follows:

A sheriff ~~((constable or any))~~ or other peace officer ~~((may be garnished for))~~ who holds money of the defendant ~~((in his hands but nothing herein shall be construed as permitting the garnishment of a sheriff, constable or other peace officer))~~ is subject to garnishment, excepting only for money or property taken from a person arrested by such officer, at the time of the arrest. A judgment debtor of the defendant ((may be garnished)) is subject to garnishment when the judgment has not been previously assigned on the record or by writing filed in the office of the clerk ((and by him)) of the court that entered the judgment and minuted by the clerk as an assignment ((on the margin of)) in the execution docket ((and also)). An executor or administrator ~~((may be garnished))~~ is subject to garnishment for money due from the decedent to the defendant.

Sec. 1006. Section 4, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 193, Laws of 1981 and RCW 7.33.040 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Before the issuance of the writ of garnishment))~~ The judgment creditor as the plaintiff or someone in ((his)) the judgment creditor's behalf shall ((make application therefor)) apply for a writ of garnishment by affidavit, stating the following facts ((authorizing the issuance of the writ, including): (1) The plaintiff has a judgment wholly or partially unsatisfied in the court from which the writ is sought; (2) the amount alleged to be due ((and that)) under that judgment; (3) the plaintiff has reason to believe, and does believe ((and)) that the garnishee, stating ((his)) the garnishee's name and residence or place of business, is indebted to the defendant in amounts exceeding those exempted from garnishment by any state or federal law, or ((that)) that ((he)) the garnishee has ((in his)) possession ((;)) or ((under his)) control ((;)) of personal property or effects belonging to the defendant which are not exempted from garnishment by any state or federal law ((;)); and (4) whether or not the garnishee is the employer of the judgment debtor.

The judgment creditor shall pay to the clerk of the superior court the fee provided by RCW 36.18.020, or to the clerk of the ((justice)) district court the fee of two dollars. ((The party applying for this writ shall state in such affidavit whether or not the party who is to be the garnishee is the employer of the defendant.))

Sec. 1007. Section 1, chapter 61, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.050 are each amended to read as follows:

When application for a writ of garnishment is made by a judgment creditor and the ((foregoing requisites)) requirements of RCW 7.33.040 have been complied with, the clerk shall docket the case in the names of the ((plaintiff)) judgment creditor as plaintiff, the judgment debtor as defendant, and ((of)) the garnishee as garnishee defendant, and shall immediately issue and deliver a writ of garnishment(;) to the judgment creditor in ((such)) the form ((as provided)) prescribed in RCW 7.33.110, directed to the garnishee, commanding ((him)) the garnishee to answer said writ on forms served with the writ and complying with RCW 7.33.150 within twenty days after the service of the writ upon ((him)) the garnishee.

The writ of garnishment shall be dated and attested as in the form prescribed in RCW 7.33.110. The name and office address of the plaintiff's attorney shall be indorsed thereon or, in case the plaintiff has no attorney, the name and address of the plaintiff shall be indorsed thereon. The address of the clerk's office shall appear at the bottom of the writ.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1008. A writ of garnishment directed to a bank, banking association, mutual savings bank, savings and loan association, or credit union that maintains branch offices may identify a particular branch or the financial institution as the garnishee defendant, and the statement required by RCW 7.33.130(2) may be incorporated in the writ or served separately. Service shall be as required by RCW 7.33.130 except that, if the financial institution is named as garnishee defendant, service shall be on the head office or on any other office designated by the financial institution for receipt of service of process. If the branch is named as garnishee defendant, service shall be as required by RCW 7.33.130 and shall be effective only to attach the accounts, credits, or other personal property of the defendant in the particular branch to which the writ is directed and on which service is made.

Sec. 1009, Section 9, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.090 are each amended to read as follows:
