THIRD READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 131, by Representatives Charette, Clarke (George W.) and O'Dell:

Regulating mutual savings banks.

The bill was read the third time by sections.

MOTION

Senator Marquardt moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 131 be held on the third reading calendar for Tuesday, March 11, 1969.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Holman: "Parliamentary inquiry."

The President: "The Senator will state his parliamentary inquiry."

Senator Holman: "If the bill is on third reading which is the eighth order of business, if we haven't finished the second reading calendar by four o'clock, does that mean the bill is dead for this session?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that would be correct, Senator Holman."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "Point of order. I would suggest that this is the same motion that has been previously made at the same stage in the proceedings. By that I mean that this bill is in exactly the same point as it was before. The motion was made and it has been voted down and laid upon the table and I would suggest that the proper motion would have to be to lay the particular motion on the table rather than an effort at this time to reinstitute the motion."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that the point of order presented by Senator Greive is well taken. Therefore, your motion is out of order, Senator Marquardt."

MOTION

Senator Uhlman moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 131 be made a special order of business for tomorrow, Tuesday, March 11, 1969 at 11:00 a.m.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Marquardt yield to a question? Senator, what is the area of your amendment? What are you thinking about?"

Senator Marquardt: "I particularly want to take a look at section 9 of the measure."

Senator Dore: "What amendment do you have in mind?"

Senator Marquardt: "I would like to strike all of section 9 and renumber the remaining sections."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Marquardt: "Point of information. After the fiftieth day don't we only need a simple majority, Senator Greive? It is very rarely that we can catch you up on that."

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Ryder yield to a question? Senator Ryder, in section 12 (1) I cannot see where the trustee on this self-employed retirement plan is covered, would that require the mutual banks to follow the provisions as set out in RCW 30.24 as the prudent man rule?"

Senator Ryder: "If you turn to page 15 and start on line 9, which is a part of the same section that you just read, you will read 'the restrictions, limitations and requirements in Title 30 RCW shall apply to mutual savings banks exercising the powers granted under this section insofar as the restrictions, limitations and requirements relate to exercising the granted powers'."

Senator Guess: "The question has been made to me and I am concerned about the amount of money available for real estate loans. I am told that if this bill passes there will be actually less money for real estate loans than at the present time under the existing statute. Can you clarify that for me?"

Senator Ryder: "Yes, I can, Senator Guess. As a matter of fact the reverse is true and this has been proven in the eastern states. About ten of the eighteen mutual savings banks states may make personal loans at the present time and in those states where they can make personal loans, it has been shown through research that their deposits increase faster than they do in the states where they cannot make personal loans. The reason for this is that the younger group in our society are the ones who borrow and the ones who make the personal loans so they establish their contact with a savings bank to make that personal loan and as time goes on they take their savings there also. Whereas in those states where savings banks do not have them make contact with a commercial bank and then they take their savings later and the commercial banks savings go into commercial loans and eighty percent of the mutual savings banks go into home loans so there is more money created this way for the making of resident home loans than there is by the commercial banks."

Senator Guess: "There is one other statement, I don't know what section it is, that the bill will allow the savings and loan banks to enter into the certificate of deposit business without requiring sufficient reserves. Can you explain that?"

Senator Ryder: "I don't know what is in the savings and loan bank bill. You mean the mutual savings banks? Yes, they make certificates of deposit just as they have been able to take savings deposits for one hundred and fifty years in this country and the reserves which you speak of are the same reserves that I spoke of a moment ago where they can put only eighty percent into the mortgage loan area and the other twenty percent is to be kept in a comparatively liquid state for the protection of the depositor."

Senator Guess: "When I built a home I went to the savings and loan for my money and they told me in order to get my construction money I had to go to a commercial bank. Does this change that relation any?"

Senator Ryder: "Senator, I don't know what savings and loan you went to. We are talking about mutual savings banks and if you had come to the institution with whom I am connected, you would have gotten your construction loan providing your credit was all right."

Senator Guess: "I didn't have any trouble getting money, Senator Ryder, but what interest rate would you charge for a construction loan? Would that be different from the long term loan?"

Senator Ryder: "Our interest rates are just as they are in all institutions. They fluctuate and vary from day to day. I have been down in Olympia for over sixty days so I, at the moment, cannot tell you."

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Ryder yield to a question? Senator, would you have any idea as to whether the earnings on these commercial loans are better than the interest you are getting on the real estate loans at the present time? Is that why you want to get into that business?"

Senator Ryder: "Senator, we are not trying to get into commercial loans. We are trying to get into non-business family loans, that is to you, as a householder, the head of the household for family purposes, the making of a personal loan up to a maximum of $5,000 and a maximum of five years. The rates on these of course fluctuate from day to day. My off the cuff opinion would be that the rates on these would be lower rather than higher than mortgage loans."

Senator Canfield: "Senator Ryder, I have one further question. Is this a sort of an effort to make all the banks competitive in all fields of banking?"

Senator Ryder: "This, of course, Senator Canfield, is the trend in all financial institutions. They are coming together. The commercial banks are getting into savings banks fields. They are buying mortgage companies, they are getting more and more into the area that used to be reserved fairly exclusively for savings banks. Even the insurance companies are getting into the banking field and I read in the papers a short time ago that one of the large commercial banks in the state is getting into the leasing business."

"That might be a good place to bring up a little tax situation. Someone said something about taxes. The national banks do not pay a personal property tax in the state of Washington. If they get into the leasing business in any great amount all of this is personal property, this equipment which they will buy and lease. We have already estimated that over a million dollars is lost in the state of Washington on personal property taxes at the moment. Will this be added to the loss that is now going on in the personal property taxes of national banks?"

Senator Canfield: "I have one final question. You are a very noted banker. You are one of the highest rated bankers in the state, isn't that right?"

Senator Ryder: "I take the fifth amendment."

Senator Canfield: "Senator Ryder, if you had an equally important position in the Seattle First National Bank, would you be in favor of this bill?"

Senator Ryder: "Well, as a matter of public interest, yes."

The motion by Senator Uhlman that Engrossed House Bill No. 131 be made a special order of business for 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, March 11, 1969 failed to carry on a rising vote.

Senators Greive, Gissberg and Ryder demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Keefe: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? How does it affect business schools now?"

Senator Mardesich: "This is a bill relating to accountants."

Senator Keefe: "Yes, but does it exclude or include business colleges?"

Senator Mardesich: "That question was never discussed as it relates to accounting. We didn't hear any testimony on that question in committee."

Senator Keefe: "They are included now?"

Senator Mardesich: "As I understand it, they were included before this bill was drafted."

Senator Keefe: "Yes."

Senator Mardesich: "I have no knowledge on that subject. The matter was not brought up in committee."

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 140, by Committee on State Government and Legislative Procedures:

Regulating public utility districts.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 9, 1969.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 140, regulating public utility districts (reported by Committee on Commerce and Regulatory Agencies):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 9, section 6, line 15, after "without the" strike "[district] state" and insert "district".

On page 9, section 6, line 20, strike all the matter on lines 20 and 21.

Signed by: Senators Mardesich, Chairman; Cooney, Day, Foley, Greive, Keefe, Lewis (Brian), McCormack, McDougall, Newschwander, Ryder, Twigg, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Mardesich moved the adoption of the committee amendments.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Is it the intent of the amendment changing the word 'state' back to the word 'district' to restrict the powers or authority of the PUD?"

Senator Mardesich: "No, as I understand it, it neither restricts nor increases the authority or power of the PUD."

The motion carried and the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 140, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator McCutcheon: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? My analysis by the attorneys in the caucus is that section 7 amends RCW 54.16.090 to allow private and public power to enter into agreements and work together in the interests of all the public. I haven't been able to get my finger on section 7 but does that also include mutuals who are not under?"

Senator Mardesich: "That is correct. Mutuals are included. That is on page 9, lines 26 and 27."

Senator McCutcheon: "Do you have any objection to excluding the mutuals that are not now under the regulation of the department of public utilities?"

Senator Mardesich: "I don't think this brings them under the utilities department. It merely gives them the authority to form these agreements. It does not bring them under the control of the department."

Senator McCutcheon: "Well, I know you come from a PUD county and you are my advisor on this. I wonder, Senator Washington, could you make a short statement on this?"

Senator Washington: "That would be rather difficult, Senator McCutcheon. This would allow a PUD contract not only with the federal government and other municipal bodies, the power it now has, but allows them to contract with investor-owned utilities, cooperatives or REA's and would allow them to also enter into contracts with mutuals.

"It would not require the mutuals to enter into a contract, it would merely make it possible and in no way changes the situation as far as the mutuals are concerned in bringing them under the power of the public service commission."

Senator McCutcheon: "One more question, if I may. Who fixes the boundaries then if they are not under any regulation?"

Senator Washington: "There is another bill coming up relating to boundaries. This has nothing to do with the boundaries of utility service. This particular bill doesn't cover it. There is another bill on the calendar later on that does."

Senator McCutcheon: "In that other bill then, if we have to address ourselves to it without having it in front of us, who fixes these boundaries, do you know?"

Senator Washington: "That is in the other bill and someone will explain that I think and the question should be raised at that time. As far as the public utility districts are concerned I feel the bill does allow flexibility. It allows them to mutually enter into contracts. It cannot force the mutuals to contract with PUD's but allows them if they wish to. The next bill coming up does relate to making agreements for the service areas. That is a separate bill."

Senator McCutcheon: "You make the agreements, but who enforces them?"

Senator Washington: "It would be contractual, purely contractual. Any agreement made with a PUD and a mutual as provided here is purely contractual and would not be subject. . . ."

Senator McCutcheon: "You are making the judge the regulatory body?"

Senator Washington: "No, not a regulatory body. The judge would merely decide the provisions of the contract as he would any other contract."

Senator McCutcheon: "Do you know of any other state that has this?"

Senator Washington: "No other state has public utility districts the way we do. For instance, the public utility district of Grant county and many others have enforceable sales contracts selling power to private utilities. Those are not subject to the public service commission but would be subject to interpretation by the courts as other contracts."

The motion lost on a rising vote.

Senator McCutcheon moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 671 be placed at the beginning of the second reading calendar for tomorrow.

POINTS OF ORDER

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Point of order."

The President: "Senator Lewis will state his point of order."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I think a similar motion has already been made. I don't think it is necessary that it be repeated now."

Senator McCutcheon: "It would be more convenient, much more comfortable for me. I'm not being facetious. I feel this way about it, members of the Senate, Mr. President. We are about to adjourn sometime soon, I don't know when the original plan was and we are not going to have a night session. We will be back at nine o'clock in the morning. Now, do you want to stay here and debate this at great length or do you want to have me come in in the morning and make my statement short and to the point or would you rather have a couple of hours of it?"

Senator Ryder: "Point of order, Mr. President."

The President: "Senator Ryder will state his point of order."

Senator Ryder: "I don't think the rules allow any threatening on the floor."

Senator McCutcheon: "This is definitely a threat. I apologize to you. I heard you speaking with great passion awhile ago about a bank bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President ruling upon the point as presented by Senator Lewis (Harry) believes that the motion presented by Senator McCutcheon is a distinct and separate one and will be put."

Senator McCutcheon's motion to place Engrossed House Bill No. 671 at the beginning of tomorrow's second reading calendar was lost on a rising vote.

Senator McCutcheon moved adoption of the following amendment to Engrossed House Bill No. 671:

On page 1, section 1, line 12, strike all of subsection (2) and on line 18 after "unattractive," strike all the matter down to the period on line 21.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Lewis (Harry) yield to a question? Senator Lewis, Senator McCutcheon's amendment as I understood your comment, probably I have some sympathy with it. Will Senator McCutcheon's amendment to strike out this so-called public policy statement injure the bill in the sense if the bill were passed? What does this public policy statement have to do with the bill? Why does it have to be in there at all?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I think we are talking about public interests, public declaration. It will hurt the bill. It will obviously hurt it this late in the legislature. It will hurt it not only because it cuts out a portion of the new section but because of the late time that we have before us for the passage of this bill."

Senator Stender: "The late time? What do you mean, on the clock?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Yes, the time on the clock as well as the time tomorrow before four o'clock in the afternoon as you are well aware."

Senator Stender: "I submit that if we are going to pass legislation by just watching the clock, I think we are missing something here. Maybe we should take the clock out of the building."

"My question is not with regard to what time it is. I know what time it is. What does this general language have to do with the measure is what I want to know. You apparently have taken exception to this amendment and the amendment is to delete the language that has to do with the public policy that I don't know if it is public policy or not."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Stender, to answer your question, this is a question of semantics. I believe that it is necessary to the bill."

MOTION

Senator Lewis (Brian) moved that the amendment by Senator McCutcheon be laid upon the table. The motion carried.

Senator Washington moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 2, line 18 and 19, after "unattractive" strike "and thus is contrary to the public interest"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Atwood: "Point of order."

The President: "Senator Atwood will speak on his point of order."

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President, I believe that is the same amendment we had before us encompassed by the prior amendment. It should have been an amendment to the amendment."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator McCutcheon's amendment struck all of subsection (2) and a good portion of section 2 whereas Senator Washington's amendment only strikes or deletes 'and thus is contrary to the public interest'. The President believes that they are separate and distinct.

Senator Woodall moved that the amendment by Senator Washington be laid upon the table. The motion carried.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Brian), the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 671 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 671, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 13; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Elicker, Faulk, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Holman, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McDougall, Marquardt, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ryder, Stortini, Twigg, Uhlman, Walgren, Williams, Woodall—34.

Excused: Senators Andersen, Huntley—2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 671, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 603, by Representatives Chatalas and Murray:
Regulating class A retailers' licenses.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Uhlman moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, following section 1 and before section 2 as added by the House amendment, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION. Section 2. There is added to chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. and to Title 66 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"Subject to such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the board, any insurance company may, or any common carrier acting as an insurer for losses to persons shipping alcoholic beverages may, after permission has been granted by the board, take possession of and sell any alcoholic beverages, the containers of which have been damaged by fire or otherwise, to manufacturers or importers for destruction, to licensees of the board who have been authorized to sell such alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption, or to the board: PROVIDED, That such damage occurred within the state of Washington: PROVIDED FURTHER, That after permission has been granted by the board, any manufacturer or importer may, in lieu of purchasing the undamaged liquor from an insurance company or common carrier, agree with the licensee of the board who holds title to the liquor to purchase the undamaged liquor or to replace it with new, undamaged liquor on an equal exchange basis. Such permission shall not be granted until after analyses of samples of such beverages and containers by an analyst appointed or designated by the board finds that the products are not contaminated, adulterated, or otherwise unfit for human consumption, or that alcoholic beverage containers are not contaminated or damaged otherwise within the normal area of direct consumption from such containers, and: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any word, statement or other labeling information required by or under authority of this title must appear on the container label or labels.

"Any licensee so qualified may purchase and accept delivery of the alcoholic beverages from the insurance company or common carrier so authorized to sell for off-premises sale only.

"This permission extends only to alcoholic beverages owned by a licensee and insured against loss or damage by the insurance company or common carrier applying for the permission.

"Alcoholic beverages so sold shall be labeled or otherwise identified, prior to and at the time of sale, as distress merchandise, salvaged from fire, wreck, or similar catastrophe.

"The label for this purpose shall be white paper not less than two inches long and one inch wide. The following statement shall be printed thereon:

"The alcoholic beverage contained herein is distressed merchandise salvaged from fire, flood, wreck, or similar catastrophe. This label is not affixed by the manufacturer."

"The letters on the label shall be no smaller than pica type and shall be boldfaced. The label may be larger than the minimum herein, if desired. Such label shall be affixed over the regular label of each bottle or other package by the insurance company or common carrier before it is delivered to the purchasing licensee."

Renumber section 2 as added by the House amendment to read section 3.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDougall: "Would Senator Uhlman yield to a question? Senator Uhlman, if my memory serves me correctly this is the contents of a bill that was introduced in the House, is that essentially correct?"

Senator Uhlman: "That is essentially correct."

Senator McDougall: "Was there a hearing on that measure in the committee to which it was referred and can you tell us what the disposition of the hearing was on it?"

Senator Uhlman: "No one showed up for the hearing either for or against it and the committee chairman said, 'If there was no more interest than that then I move that we postpone or defer action on the bill.'"

Senator McDougall: "I thought that I read somewhere in the local paper or one of the papers some of the testimony that had been presented on this same measure. This isn't correct then?"

Senator Uhlman: "Not to my knowledge. In fact I am sure that there wasn't because no one did show up for it. As I understand it, the board had one suggestion concerning that proposed bill in the House and that included in their language, this language incidentally, comes right out of their letter."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "Point of order. I would like to raise a point of order as this expands the original bill and goes far beyond the present scope."

The President: "Senator Bailey has raised the point that the amendment changes the scope and object of the bill."

Senator Bailey: "I would like to speak to the point. It refers to a beer retailer's license and I don't see what that has to do with carrying whiskey or something in a transfer company truck."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President ruling upon the point as presented by Senator Bailey, in reviewing Engrossed House Bill No. 603 determines that the measure adds a new chapter to the statute laws, the amendment as proposed by Senator Uhlman adds still another additional chapter. Therefore, the President believes that the amendment as proposed by Senator Uhlman does change the scope and object of the bill and therefore is not in order."

With the consent of the Senate, Senator Uhlman withdrew his amendment.

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, section 1, line 21 of the printed bill, being line 22 of the engrossed bill, strike "major or"

On page 1, section 1, line 22 of the printed bill, being lines 22 and 23 of the engrossed bill, strike "minor league"

On page 1, section 1, line 22 of the printed bill, being line 23 of the engrossed bill, after "events" strike the balance of the sentence down to the period on line 23 of the printed bill, being line 24 of the engrossed bill.

Senator Metcalf moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 2, strike the House amendment which declares an emergency, being all of section 2.

Debate ensued.

The motion failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Lewis (Brian) moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 2, line 13, strike "immediately" and insert "April 12, 1969"
 Debate ensued.

The motion failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 603, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Voting nay: Senators Canfield, Guess, McCormack, Metcalf, Peterson (Ted), Washington—6.

Excused: Senators Andersen, Huntley—2.

"Eternal God and Father who has written into the very fabric of the universe Your love and concern for man. We thank You for the beautiful non-partisan weather outside. Grant that at some time during the day the Senators may have opportunity to walk their harassed minds amid nature's unbiased surroundings.

"Bless them at their work. Give them nimbleness of mind to field and handle effectively the many bills of this biennium. Bless them with that toughness of skin which will enable them to survive emotionally the abrasiveness of public opinion. Grant them that commitment to society which makes one impervious to the pressures of mere vested interests. Amen."

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1969-33

By Senators Foley and Bailey:

WHEREAS, The Port of Portland is considering the possibilities of radically altering the flow of the Columbia River in the vicinity of Vancouver, Washington by extending the Portland International Airport into the Columbia River; and

WHEREAS, The mechanics of a major river system such as the Columbia River are extremely complex; and

WHEREAS, The expenditure of large sums of money in making capital improvements to an airport pending a study to determine changes in river hydrology may prove wasteful and unnecessary; and

WHEREAS, There is a concern for and growing awareness of the environment in which we live as the mark of an advanced civilization; and

WHEREAS, The majestic Columbia River represents an asset of immeasurable value to the states of Oregon and Washington, and to the entire nation, for recreation and aesthetic values; and

WHEREAS, The present plans for expansion of the Portland International Airport, if allowed to proceed, will result in the destruction of natural beauty and recreational areas as follows:

- (1) A loss of almost two and one-half miles of waterfront with immense recreational potential;
- (2) The total elimination of Sand Island or Tri-Club Island;
- (3) The destruction of virtually all of Lemon Island;
- (4) The "conversion" of almost one-third of Government Island into such uses as freeway, airport, commercial, or boat channel;
- (5) Extensive deforestation in or on —
 - (a) the islands which must be eliminated or destroyed;
 - (b) air access routes into the expanded airport facilities;
 - (c) any areas which may interfere with the "stabilization" of the Columbia River, if it must be rerouted or rechanneled;
- (6) The wholesale replacement of natural sandy beaches with "stabilized" dikes having slopes varying from twenty percent to thirty-three percent grades, and the wholesale replacement of natural beach contours and curvatures with "new-improved" straight-line "cut" channels for improvement of water flows;
- (7) The conversion of at least one-half mile of existing recreational waterfront to industrial uses, including plans for a one thousand two hundred foot aviation fuel dock;
- (8) Damage to sailboating and to maritime commerce by the construction of a necessary third bridge crossing at approximately Northeast Fifty-second Street in Portland, Oregon;
- (9) Drastic increases in industrial pollution;
- (10) The concentration of all boat moorages now spread over several miles of waterfront into a single large marina, costing vast sums of money; and
- (11) Undermining plans of the Washington State Parks Department which has the acquisition of Reed Island, near Camas, Washington, very high on its existing priority list, for recreational development.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, that although we compliment the officials of the Port of Portland for their untiring efforts to improve the business and commercial climate of the Portland-Vancouver area, and for their candor and fairness in publicizing their proposed plans for expansion of the Metropolitan Airport System around the city of Portland, Oregon, we nevertheless urge the United States Army Corps of Engineers and the United States Department of the Interior—

- (1) To withhold approval of any plans for the development of the Portland International Airport into the Columbia River area, pending further hearings and studies,
- (2) To withhold the adoption of any interim or provisional measures which may involve the investment of substantial capital sums pending completion of such further hearings and studies.

(3) To consider, among the topics of any further studies, all matters pertaining to hydrology of the Columbia River, and a determination of how best to salvage or to conserve the natural aesthetic and recreational environments slated potentially for destruction, according to Port of Portland plans,

(4) To carefully review and consider all possibilities and all recreational and environmental needs of the Portland-Vancouver area before arriving at any final conclusions or adopting any final plans or measures, and

(5) To consider and implement any suitable alternatives to the presently conceived plans for expansion of the Portland International Airport at the expense of the natural physical environment in the Columbia River area; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the Honorable Richard M. Nixon, President of the United States, to the Honorable Walter Hickle, Secretary of the Interior, to the United States Army Corps of Engineers, and to each member of Congress from the state of Washington.

On motion of Senator Foley, the resolution was adopted.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 24, by Committee on Transportation:
Relating to railroad grade crossing.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 6, 1969.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 24, relating to railroad grade crossings (reported by Committee on Highways):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 1, line 23, after "agreement" and before "providing" insert "franchise or permit arrangement"

On page 2, section 1, line 26, after "thereof" and before the period insert "or compliance with an existing agreement, franchise or permit arrangement providing for the same"

On page 4, line 21 insert a new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 81.53 RCW a new section to read as follows:

This 1969 amendatory act shall be operative within the limits of all cities, towns and counties, except cities of the first class. Cities of the first class may elect as to each particular crossing whether this 1969 amendatory act shall apply. Such election shall be made by the filing by such city of a petition as provided for in Section 1 hereof with the Utilities and Transportation Commission, or by a statement filed with the Commission accepting jurisdiction, when such petition is filed by others.

Renumber sections 4 through 9 consecutively.

On page 5, section 7, line 8, after "fund," and before "as" insert "when such an election to participate is made,"

Signed by: Senators Henry, Vice Chairman; Bailey, Donohue, Elicker, Faulk, Huntley, Keefe, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Matson, Peterson (Lowell), Pritchard, Ridder, Waigren.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Washington moved adoption of the committee amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator, we are talking about an act as I understood you, cities of the first class can optionally participate in this bill? What purpose does the option have in a bill as broad as this?"

Senator Washington: "Generally, I am not completely familiar with the overall background but the affect of the bill of course is that there are a large number of crossings possibly in the cities of the first class and in order to perhaps gain general agreement, the cities of the first class are willing to abide by the original law. Senator Guess perhaps knows more about this than I do."

Senator Stender: "This as I understand is a committee amendment, is that correct?"

Senator Washington: "That is correct."

Senator Stender: "This bill as I understand it, went through the House with a vote of 96 to 1 after extensive hearings. As I understand the amendment, it is pretty broad with a lot of ramifications you are building in by inserting at this time an amendment that probably should require more study. You say Senator Guess knows more about this than the committee chairman?"

Senator Washington: "Yes, he does in this particular case."

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Guess speak to this amendment if he would please."

Senator Guess: "The city engineer's office of the city of Seattle put in a letter to us and brought this amendment down and asked that we insert it because they had many street crossings in Seattle that were on a franchise basis but there are other areas in the city where they would not be on a franchise basis and they felt this amendment was necessary to the act in order to protect those who were already on franchise but permit them to go into areas where it wasn't a franchise situation. So it was at the request of Mr. Roy Morris and the engineering division of the city of Seattle that we amended the bill in this way."

The motion carried and the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 24, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 24, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; absent or not voting, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Elicker, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Holman, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), McCormack, McCutcheon, McDougall, Mardesich, Marquardt, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Woodall—47.

Absent or not voting: Senators Lewis (Brian), Williams—2.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 24, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 333, by Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance:

Regulating financial institutions.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 9, beginning on line 31 strike all of section 9.

Renumber section 10 as section 9 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 1, line 14 of the title, after "RCW;" strike all the material down to the period on line 15.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 333, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to several questions? Senator, would you explain what page 2, beginning on lines 19 through 23 does?"

Senator Mardesich: "It was explained to us that this language permits the amortization of discounts on United States Government securities and it is primarily a bookkeeping transaction. It allows them to streamline their bookkeeping in all that our understanding was."

Senator Uhlman: "Wouldn't this weaken the capital reserves?"

Senator Mardesich: "No, it would have no affect other than a bookkeeping one, we were told."

Senator Uhlman: "My second question is what is the inclusion of the trust company have to do with national banks and their strengthening as you explained the purpose of the bill?"

Senator Mardesich: "As I understand that portion of the bill, trust companies are now allowed to form in county areas and perform banking functions. This amendment would allow the state to charter banks in county areas and allow them to perform what is now allowed by a trust company organizing in a county area, giving an extension of the authority to grant charters in a county area for regular banks that trust banks now have authority to do."

Senator Uhlman: "My third question is relative to page 7. It seems to me that is quite a departure from the present established law and that is it will require for the first time, as I read the language and I would like to ask if this is true, this would have a radical departure in requiring by law certificates of convenience and necessity before additional branches could be obtained."

Senator Mardesich: "This is a practice that is now done."

Senator Uhlman: "But it is not in the law."

Senator Mardesich: "It is not in the law and the problem has come up because a question has been raised whether or not this is an unreasonable delegation without standards being set up, without something being said in the law about the authority of the division of banking to charter banks under convenience and necessity. The question has been raised, apparently to the attorney general and the attorney general recommended that this change be put into the law so that charters could be allowed under convenience and necessity without a challenge on constitutional grounds."

Senator Uhlman: "Finally, Senator, in new section 9, I gather this is designed to preclude the establishment of the so-called 'rolling banks', these convenience banks, is that correct?"

Senator Mardesich: "New section 9 has already been stricken from the bill. This is the subject to which it relates."

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator, on page 3 of the bill under the paid in capital definitions for new banks, it says that 'new banks in cities, villages or communities having a population less than 25,000', are you able to tell me how we define under RCW a village or community?"

Senator Mardesich: "Senator Lewis, without going into the question of definition, if you will look on page 4, line 17, exactly the same language was in the bill but it is now being put into another section where it fits a little better. This question did come up in committee as to why villages or communities were included and what did they mean.

"The director of banking pointed out that traditionally they meant a population area or center and that is the way they had been used in the past and that is the intent to do so in the future. It is no change from the law as it now exists.

"As I say, if you will look to page 4, line 17, it merely moves the same language onto another page into another portion of the context of the bill."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 333, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Elicker, Faulk, Foley, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Holman, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McCormack, McCutcheon, McDougall, Mardesich, Marquardt, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Stortini, Twigg, Walgren, Washington, Williams, Wilson, Woodall—44.

Voting nay: Senators Ridder, Uhlman—2.

Absent or not voting: Senators Gissberg, Talley—2.

"Now, the point is that before you sue him and charge him with an attorney's fee, shouldn't he have a chance to come in and make it good. That is the point we are talking about. Some collection agencies were making a racket of it and they wouldn't even give a man a chance to make it good, they just hit him with a suit immediately."

Senator Talley: "I just think it puts an additional penalty on the man who has received the check. The man who issues the check knows that he has a bad check floating around."

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Odegaard yield to a question? Senator, who is going to furnish the management of this program?"

Senator Odegaard: "As I understand it, it is going to be the department of institutions."

Senator Stender: "Earlier in my discussion I directed your attention to House Bill No. 375. Who is going to manage that program?"

Senator Odegaard: "This would be the vocational rehabilitation division."

Senator Stender: "Aren't they both coming through the department of institutions?"

Senator Odegaard: "I don't think so. I think maybe Senator Ridder is more familiar with House Bill No. 375 than I am."

Senator Stender: "As I read House Bill No. 375, it provides that the department of institutions will refer these able-bodied recipients to the department of employment security. Isn't that the same program?"

Senator Odegaard: "No, this is a different program as I understand it."

Senator Stender: "Which one is going to refer them. They are both coming out of the department of public assistance, if we pass this bill. We have already passed House Bill No. 375. Do they have an option here as to where they are going to send them?"

Senator Odegaard: "It depends on which category it would fit. As I said, it would be the division of vocational rehabilitation. There are some federal funds involved and that would have a bearing on it. Senator Huntley was the prime sponsor of the Senate bill which is very similar to this. Possibly he could give you a little more information on it. I did not draft this legislation myself."

Senator Durkan: "House Bill No. 13 is administered by the department of vocational rehabilitation which is a separate entity under the coordinating council. Now, it is a separate entity. It has nothing to do with institutions and it has nothing to do with public assistance. It is separate."

Senator Stender: "I would ask one further question. This definition of the disadvantaged is no doubt a person who is on public assistance rolls, correct?"

Senator Durkan: "We don't accept that definition."

Senator Stender: "Wouldn't these people normally be on public assistance?"

Senator Durkan: "Not necessarily. Disadvantaged person could be a person in the student aid bill, too. The definition is broad but to answer your question directly without arguing definition, House Bill No. 13 will be administered by the department of vocational rehabilitation."

Senator Stender: "Now, we have two programs in the same area as I understand it. House Bill No. 375 is a program for the disadvantaged and this one is disadvantaged and the retarded."

Senator Durkan: "As we see it, although the disadvantaged under public assistance means one thing we think the disadvantaged under the department of vocational rehabilitation means another thing. I agree, it is a play on words. I don't disagree on the terminology."

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Odegaard yield to a question? Senator, I think you said that putting people on this program would result in considerable savings because it would cost about $4,500 to institutionalize them as against $1,500 each in this program. Did I hear you correctly?"

Senator Odegaard: "Yes, you did."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Woodall yield to a question? What particular section do you plan to amend?"

Senator Woodall: "Amend several of them. I am concerned about some of the loan provisions setting it up in the same category as some of our existing banks. They are going into fields that have never been associated with the savings and loan business before. It is entirely alien to them."

HOUSE BILL NO. 153, by Representatives Brouillet, Zimmerman, Morrison, Smythe, Bluechel, Bagnariol and Litchman (by Joint Committee on Education request):

Permitting teaching of languages in addition to English in the common schools.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 19, 1969.

HOUSE BILL NO. 153, permitting teaching of languages in addition to English in the common schools (reported by Committee on Education):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 2, line 3, after "shall be" strike "required to receive instruction in English language skills" and insert "taught in the English language"

On page 2, section 4, line 24, after "shall be" strike "required to receive instruction in English language skills" and insert "taught in the English language"

Signed by: Senators Elicker, Knoblauch, McCutcheon, Marquardt, Metcalf, Odegaard, Peterson (Ted), Stender, Uhlman, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Ridder moved the adoption of the committee amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator, in connection with the amendments and the bill generally, on page 1 it says to strike out 'all common schools shall be taught in the English language' and then the committee amendment puts the language back in on the next page. What is the purpose of this?"

Senator Ridder: "This is a natural progression. Section 1 tells what shall be taught and on page 2 it tells how it shall be taught, in the English language. So we thought this brought through the main thrust of the law that it shall be taught in the English language."

Senator Stender: "But it is already in the law today that it be taught in the English language."

Senator Ridder: "Right. We wanted to put in a proviso however that in special situations you could teach in perhaps Spanish."

Senator Stender: "Is this a special approach that the teachers have in language?"

Senator Ridder: "This is getting into the bill the cart before the horse but if you want to do it that way. I would rather that we take this up at the time of the bill."

The motion carried and the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 153, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Senator McCormack: "I will tell you the answer to that tomorrow morning, Senator Woodall."

The amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator McCormack yield to a question? Senator, on line 12 starting on line 11, really it says the counties 'may take whatever action it deems necessary to enable the county to participate in the program set forth'. Now, if they are not the only participants, I am wondering how it is that they might kill a program as you say, if there are other people under the OEO Act who can set it up. I am not aware of what that act does and I am wondering how, if they are only participants, they would kill it."

Senator McCormack: "Senator Mardesich, I am not prepared to answer your question in detail and with authority. I can only say that the way this works out, you have a number of persons appointed by the county on planning boards and in positions of supervision who do nothing, who veto programs, who are against the programs and these persons appointed by the county simply kill off the program, simply provide that nothing will be accomplished."

MOTION

Senator Greive moved that House Bill No. 478 be referred to the Committee on Cities, Towns and Counties.

Senator Holman demanded the previous question.

Senators Greive, Uhlman and Cooney demanded a roll call on the demand for the previous question and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman: "Point of parliamentary inquiry. As I understand, there is a special order of business at 3:59 which is Engrossed House Bill No. 58. Is that correct?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "That is correct, Senator Uhlman."

Senator Uhlman: "My point of parliamentary inquiry is this, the special order of business when it takes precedence will then cease or cause to cease consideration of House Bill No. 478 and House Bill No. 478 will then automatically go back to Rules. Is that correct?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "That is correct, Senator Uhlman."

In addition to all other powers and duties given to them by law, the board of trustees of Western Washington State College is hereby authorized to grant a degree of doctor of philosophy in education to any student who has completed a program of study and research in those areas which are determined by the faculty of the college and the board of trustees to be appropriate for the granting of such degree."

Debate ensued.

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Lewis (Brian) moved the adoption of the following amendment by Senators Lewis (Brian) and Andersen:

On page 436, line 9, after "Sec. 28B.98.080" strike all the material down to and including "immediately" on line 12 and insert "EFFECTIVE DATE. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1971"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gissberg: "Point of order. I rise to a point of order that our rules explicitly state that no senator shall impugn the motives of another on the Senate floor and if the President finds that my point is well taken, the person against whom the point of order has been taken shall immediately take his chair."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The point of order as presented by Senator Gissberg is well taken."
 Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, before I vote on this proposed amendment, I want to ask for the record a couple of questions. I have to preface it with a little remark and that is that we understood there were substantive changes in this in the House and they were taken out, is that correct?"

Senator Ridder: "It was my understanding that the changes that were made in the House were reversions to original language. As you know, this bill takes present practices and puts them into law as things are going on now in education. These were worded way back in 1909. We brought these up and put them in 1968 wording. Some of these people felt in the House in a number of places, there weren't forty, there were many less than this but I don't know exactly how many because I might get snookered on it. Anyway, we took these and we referred back to the original wording in 1909 so these are not substantive changes as we might note them, they were reversions back to original."

Senator Bailey: "One more question, maybe two more. Is there anything in this code as it is now written that would change the method of consolidation of school districts? Now I want a direct answer. Yes or no."

Senator Ridder: "That is a tough one. I would not say that there is or isn't. To my knowledge and the reading I have gone through it twice myself, I have not found this to be true. Now, I don't know. When you are going through a situation like this and you are going at a fairly good clip to see just what has happened to it, you don't really know what might have happened but I don't think in any place that there are any changes other than perhaps some rearrangement of a county board or something like this. Now if this is substantive, there might be."

Senator Bailey: "Was there any intention that there be any changes in the method of consolidating school districts?"

Senator Ridder: "On the hearings that I took part in on the recodification, I don't remember."

Senator Bailey: "I have a question of either Senator Uhlman or Senator Ridder. Was there any intention or anything in this bill that would change the non-high, the third class districts?"

Senator Ridder: "The original agreement that we made was that there were not going to be substantive changes in the sense that the law was going to be widely changed because for this very fact; if we attempted in any way to change the law substantively where it would really cause trouble, this bill wouldn't even stand on this floor two seconds because somebody would shoot it down."

"Bringing a bill like this before this body, if we had attempted to make changes that were serious changes, this bill would be dead immediately. This has been looked at and looked at and looked at and nobody has come up with anything that is so serious that it can't be lived with. I am not saying there aren't changes because there are changes in trying to bring this into modern day practice and as such maybe you can quarrel with some of these if we would open it up so you could see what we would have."

Senator Bailey: "I haven't gotten a very good answer to the school consolidation matter and I would like to ask Senator Uhlman if this matter in any way changes the means of consolidating the school districts as it now stands in our state."

Senator Uhlman: "In answer to your last two questions, the answer is no. No in both instances."

Senator Stender: "I would like to ask Senator Uhlman if he would yield? Senator Uhlman, you spoke to the emergency clause and we did previously in regard to codifying some of these sections. What did they do in the case of the commercial code?"

Senator Uhlman: "Senator, the commercial code was one of the most substantial changes of law in Washington State in the area of commercial transactions in this century. Many of us felt very strongly that because of the substantial changes that took effect that this should not take effect until the passage of two years. This was the reason for the two year deferral on the commercial code."

Senator Stender: "This is the only one that you can recall where the emergency clause was not included?"

Senator Uhlman: "No, Senator, there have been a number of such bills, the non-profit code, the major profit corporation code, the optional municipal code of last session. Many of these had major substantive changes where the law is changed. These are bills where the law has changed. There are no substantive changes in this measure. They are simply updating of present practice and simply a reenactment or recodification of the existing law."

Senators Talley, Sandison and Greive demanded the previous question.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call on the amendment by Senators Andersen and Lewis (Brian) and the demand was sustained by Senators Andersen, Faulk, Guess, Stender, Matson, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Ridder, and Talley.

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1969-35

By Senators McDougall, Talley, Henry, Washington, Wilson, Donohue, Durkan, Huntley, Matson and Bailey:

WHEREAS, The Committee on Public Works of the United States Senate adopted on September 9, 1963, a resolution requesting the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors to review the report of the Chief of Engineers on the Columbia River and tributaries, published as House Document No. 403, 76th Congress, 2nd Session; and

WHEREAS, The above-mentioned resolution requests the Corps of Engineers to determine whether the extension of navigation from the pool of McNary Dam through Rock Island Dam on the Columbia River, Washington, is feasible; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, on August 15, 1968, after full consideration of the report, concurred in the views of the Seattle District Engineer, and the North Pacific Division Engineer, and recommended approval of the project; and

WHEREAS, The proposed extension of navigation on the upper Columbia River above McNary pool is essential to the economic and industrial growth and prosperity of the immediate area affected and to the Pacific Northwest in general, and to the full and comprehensive development of our water resources; and

WHEREAS, This extension would have great benefit in providing a comprehensive system of transportation where all forms of transport are available to the shipping public for the movement of its commodities;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, that we do hereby support the extension of navigation on the upper Columbia River as an important link in providing the state with full and complete transportation service;

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the Honorable Richard M. Nixon, President of the United States; the President of the United States Senate; the Speaker of the House of Representatives; and to each member of Congress from the state of Washington.

Senator McDougall moved the adoption of the resolution.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): "I wonder if Senator McDougall will yield to a question? Senator McDougall, we who have not made a study or been on the committee with you don't realize just what this resolution will do. I know where the Rock Island Dam is but will it be possible to go around the dam and will that make Wenatchee a port as such if it goes that far up the river?"

Senator McDougall: "Yes, Rock Island Dam of course as you know, Senator Peterson, is located just south of Wenatchee and we have a very fine port district which has been established there for a number of years. It would be our hope that conceivably and not perhaps in the near future but sometime in the future this could become a reality."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Will that take you right up to the other dam, just north of Wenatchee?"

Senator McDougall: "You mean Rocky Reach Dam. It would be the intent however of this resolution to only go to the base of Rock Island Dam at this time."

Senator Metcalf: "Would Senator McDougall yield to a question? I have heard some discussion relative to the salmon forming area that this might or might not affect and I would just wonder if you would have any comment on this regarding the salmon in the Columbia River?"

Senator McDougall: "It would be my opinion inasmuch as all of the dams, as you know, Senator Metcalf, that have been constructed in the past few years have adequately provided for the salmon runs. I would certainly not see where allowing further locks in these dams which presently do not have them would, whether these provisions could be made, in any way jeopardize any salmon runs about which all of us are quite concerned."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Mr. President, shouldn't that be included in the resolution inasmuch as that resource is so important and on the migrant going up or down? I think in many cases they have neglected to take care of our salmon runs and therefore the Columbia River as a whole has gone down from 32,000,000 pounds to around 3,000,000 of this resource which is so vital to the Northwest and the people on the Sound."

Senator McDougall: "Senator Peterson, I would only say that probably in some of the older dams that this point could conceivably be well taken. I agree that this matter would be taken into great consideration probably to improving some of the fish ladders that may not be up to the ones that have been constructed on some of the newer dams. I am cognizant that this problem though would be taken into consideration and should be taken into consideration by Congress."

Senator Talley: "I can assure Senator Peterson that this has been considered and that fisheries will be protected. I was concerned about this point, too."

The motion carried and the resolution was adopted.

Senator Foley: "Yes."

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 433, adopting a supplemental budget (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 10, strike "5,383,429.00" and insert "10,018,126.00"

On page 1, section 1, line 11, strike "511,754.00" and insert "307,052.00"

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Durkan moved the adoption of the committee amendments.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Gissberg: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a couple of questions? Senator, I was unable to attend the meeting of the Committee on Ways and Means at the time that these amendments were adopted to the supplemental budget. Do I understand that this is a deficiency appropriation? That is my first question."

Senator Durkan: "The answer is 'yes' to the question, Senator."

Senator Gissberg: "My second question is that you talk about vendor payments being increased effective April 1 prior to the end of this biennium. Are you talking about nursing home increases for public assistance recipients?"

Senator Durkan: "Yes, Senator, the Governor's budget did not provide for updating the vendor payments to nursing homes nor did it provide for the nonformulary drugs nor did it make certain provisions for elective surgery."

"On the House floor there was a floor amendment put on which would provide updating the nursing home payments so the recipients would receive more care and better care, that was the purpose of the amendment and; secondly, the two further amendments which we have put on in the Senate, provide, where the executive budget didn't provide, for the nonformulary drug and for elective surgery."

Senator Gissberg: "My third question is, could you get into the justification for increasing the money which is payable to the nursing home operators for the care of public assistance recipients and if you have the material before you to indicate the specific amounts that are paid for various classes of nursing home patients?"

Senator Durkan: "I would have to answer the question in general as far as nursing homes are concerned. Generally, the payment which was provided and recommended by the department of public assistance provided for approximately $9.40 in the area of the nursing home recipient, it is per day on the first class.

"The nursing home vendors felt this should be around $14.00. Our bill provides approximately around $11.00 or $10.90 and this is the difference as far as the nursing home vendor payments are concerned and the amount of public assistance money, the great amount. Incidentally, this is all state funds which will generate more federal money, the great amount goes because of the increased projections that have been brought to us by the department. Now these projections were not submitted with the Governor's budget, and the department, I think in all honesty, felt that their projections were accurate at the time they were made but during the session they came in and said they needed approximately $26,000,000 more, $14,000,000 of which would be state funds and out of that $14,000,000, the $10,000,000 is now provided for in this budget."

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, since this is a deficiency appropriation, I am wondering if you can give me any explanation of how these expenditures that require a deficiency appropriation at this time were made in view of the fact that some years ago during the time you were a member of the legislature, we passed a budgeting and accounting act providing that the funds made available be spent on a quarterly basis so that there would be no deficiency appropriation. Can you give us the answer to that? Has the Governor chosen to ignore the budget and accounting act or what is the answer?"

Senator Durkan: "I think that the total amount of money, or the increases for the remainder of this biennium came in increased cost in disability assistance and increased cost in medical aid. I frankly feel that the amounts that were given to us two years ago were probably felt sufficient to do the job and the increases that were requested here are apparent that we just didn't have enough money and the Governor made a choice of continuing the care of the programs and on the present level. Senator, I am trying to be a statesman."

Senator Mardesich: "I understand the reason for the additional expenditure and with that I have no argument but I am wondering where the Governor finds the authority in the law to expend over quarterly allotments under the budget and accounting act. It would seem to me that the remedy lies not in his decision that there are extra funds needed to be spent but in the calling back into session the legislature in special session if it appears that money is not available. That was the theory under which we passed the budget and accounting act and I wonder what method was used to circumvent that law?"

Senator Durkan: "I think he would use the same explanation that he used before from a fiscal management standpoint and that is simply that he hasn't expended the monies yet because the rate would then, he would say if we failed to provide the monies that he would have to cut back and the monies are not yet available, so it is a matter of fiscal management as he has not expended the funds yet. He has but he hasn't, Senator."

Senator Atwood: "Senator Mardesich, that money has not been spent. This is to take us through the rest of the biennium. If you want ratables, fine but I understand what you are saying. We gave public assistance $8 million during the biennium from the contingency fund and under the CBA law if you don't want to do this, there will be ratables instituted so what Senator Durkan tells you is correct. He has not spent this money although he projects that if they continue spending at the present level in these various programs then there will have to be ratables. They will be that much money short. So I think the Governor is on sound ground here. I think the budget committee was well aware of what was going on. We had reports at every other meeting from the department of public assistance on the problem and if you will recall in January and February of this year, we had very bad weather and their caseloads now are right at the level they were projected in the budget when it went out of here was built on and for that reason their request is being made in this supplemental."

Senator Mardesich: "In response to Senator Atwood, I am well aware that this money that we are now appropriating has not been spent. The point I am making, Senator, is that money has been spent at a rate faster than the quarterly allotments under the budget and accounting act would allow.

"If you are trying to indicate that has not been done, I will furnish you with substantial proof from your budget and accounting act that that is a true fact, so I only stand to correct you. I am not referring to this amount that hasn't been spent but to those amounts which we did appropriate and which we allowed the Governor. Those are being spent currently at a rate faster than should be spent under the budget and accounting theory."

Senator Atwood: "For the information of Senator Gissberg, I now have the rates that are in House Bill No. 433 and this is from the legislative budget committee staff. In the Rules Committee I had thought it was made to July 1 but it has not been. This would update the vendor payments for Class 1, $9.53; Class 2, $7.52; and Intermediate Care, $5.95. They will get another raise in the omnibus budget to $10.98 on July 1. It was in error. I thought that it contained that but it doesn't. Apparently that was a House rate that was agreed on with nursing homes to update the vendor payment in that area."

The motion carried and the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 433, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Would Senator McCormack yield to a question? On this computerizing, you could confuse the issue. You stood and made a pretty good speech and then you got volatile and you really took off but there are a few things about this computer. It has to be input, it has to be fed and your county assessors just don't have the people to go around and get the information to feed into the computer.

"Another thing I would like to know is how would this affect the school equalization fund, they come around once a year and others every four years, there is going to be a great effect on the fund as a whole. You haven't confused me because I know how my taxes have gone up, the assessed value of my home but the thing that strikes me as strange is that we can't go through King county every four years. They can't have that kind of manpower. You said they were going to add additional county commissioners. You meant county assessors or deputy assessors to help. I think this needs a little clarification and basically come down to what it is going to cost me and the difference and another thing, there is an appreciation and a depreciation. Are you going to depreciate my property as it depreciated year by year or are you just going to keep adding and bring the taxes up higher?"

Senator McCormack: "I'll try to answer the question. First of all, I am not going to do anything, Senator Peterson. I trust it will be the county assessors. Secondly, if I said we were going to add additional county commissioners, I misspoke. What I meant to say, if I didn't say it, is we were adding assistant deputy assessors. Now, what we are talking about is programming.

"This $4 million that we have appropriated is to provide the programming for this particular system and then keep it up-to-date. I can't speak for exactly what the assessors will do. These programs have not been put out in the bill and they have not as a matter of fact I am not quite sure they have not been done as yet but I can tell you that in California where this was done all of these items that you have raised and many more were fed into the computer as basic input, appreciation, depreciation, zoning, size of property, size of land, size of house, number of rooms, view, all these various things that go into an appraisal are put into the computer in advance and then when the computer grinds out the valuation of the particular piece of property, it is all run out on a printout sheet and the county assessors went over it, simply ran down it to see if there were any obvious extreme errors. These were picked up.

"After this was done, it was found that the computer work was extremely close to the actual sales values. In short, the computer was able to do a good job. One of the nice things about this is that this is a tool in the hands of the assessor so if he finds the machine has made a mistake, he can change it, the computer isn't the master, the assessor is the master. Furthermore, if the machine isn't giving the proper trend, if there is a mistake in input, they can change the program, they can make it more realistic. I wouldn't pretend that we are going to do this, that I am going to do it, this is a vehicle to allow the assessors to do it, using modern techniques.

"That is the idea but I am sure that your assessor and my assessor and every assessor in the state will want to do the best job possible to avoid having to employ all of these deputies. It won't be perfect. It will take a little bit of work but in the long run what it is going to do is provide for fair property evaluation on all property on an up-to-date basis."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Senator McCormack didn't answer one portion of my question and I wonder if you would do that Senator McCormack? How does this affect the school equalization funds throughout the state? Can you put that in a capsule?"

Senator McCormack: "I think the only affect this bill would have on any funds is exactly as we have already stated, that the tax bills will be kept up-to-date for every individual taxpayer. That is all I can say."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "If someone is up on the computer and they are based on the one year, how about those that are slow and don't come through every four or five years? What affect does it have on that?"

Senator McCormack: "I am sure the same thing would be true under this or any other system. If a county is not up-to-date it is obviously going to be at a disadvantage. This is true under the present formula. We are assuming now that counties are collecting twenty-five percent under the formula."

Debate ensued.

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, first of all I would like to comment on Senator Elicker's remarks. Senator, as long as I have been in this legislature, I have worked for equalization and I intend to continue doing that but I don't intend to make it more inequitable by attempting to achieve equity. I think that the matter can be cured by one simple amendment by changing 'may' to 'shall' and I think that the real point is that this is next to the last day of the session, if this bill dies here on the floor today, all we have to do is introduce it again on Friday and we have time to really look at this problem and come up with an answer that is just for all of us.

"Now, no one can stand here and tell me that the state government or the county government can't use business machines for input and output without a law. It just isn't so and everyone of you know that. The only purpose of this is to allow the assessors to raise them all up in one year without going out to inspect the property. That is the only reason for this law and I don't even argue with that provided that it applies equally to all. That is the only point I am making."

Senator McCormack: "It is obviously not possible for every county to jump through a hoop and lock steps and this sort of thing. It physically is impossible."

Senator Mardesich: "Tell me why?"

Senator McCormack: "First of all we have to go through the data collection represented in the $4 million expenditure, Senator. Secondly, there is no necessary requirement that would force an assessor to go through this every year. It is up to the local government to make its own decision."

Senator Mardesich demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Ridder, Day, McCutcheon, Donohue, Herr, Stender, Metcalf, Holman, Guess and Faulk.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Mardesich to reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 358 passed the Senate carried by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 23; absent or not voting, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Herr, Huntley, Keefe, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McCutcheon, Mardesich, Matson, Newschwander, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Sandison, Stender, Twigg, Walgren, Woodall—24.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Connor, Dore, Elicker, Faulk, Foley, Holman, Knoblauch, McCormack, McDougall, Marquardt, Metcalf, Odegaard, Pritchard, Ridder, Ryder, Stortini, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Wilson—23.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Henry—2.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Engrossed House Bill No. 358 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means—Revenue and Taxation on a rising vote.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman: "I rise to a point of parliamentary inquiry."

The President: "The Senator will state his point of parliamentary inquiry."

Senator Uhlman: "I have checked the voting record on House Bill No. 58 and the record indicates that on final passage none of the three conferees appointed by the presiding officer voted against the measure. There were three controversial amendments placed on the measure, one by Senator Andersen, one by Senator Guess and one by Senator Atwood. I would call the presiding officer's attention to Joint Rule No. 5 which indicates that it is the presiding officer's obligation to appoint conferees which would reflect both viewpoints and apparently these viewpoints on final passage of the bill were not so appointed."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, point of personal privilege."

The President: "The Senator will speak upon a point of personal privilege."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I would just like to say, Mr. President and members of the Senate, that in my view as one of the members of the Senate who voted to confirm the conferees, it was my opinion when I voted for their confirmation, that the views of the members of the Senate were well represented and that was the reason I did support the confirmation of the conferees for that particular bill."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman: "The reason I rose on the point of parliamentary inquiry is that I suspect that there will be more conference committees appointed and I think the same question as Senator Greive raised earlier in the session is still applicable and that perhaps some policy ought to be set up so that we know in the future how to guide ourselves in our vote.

"I voted against the bill on final passage for this reason and this reason alone because in the past it has been my experience over the years both in this House and in the other House that the final passage vote is normally the one that guides the appointment of the conferees."

Senator Woodall: "The purpose of a conference is on the differences between the houses. Now the difference is not on final passage. The difference is on the amendment to the bill which was sent over by the House. That is what the difference is. Otherwise, you could have, by someone casting a 'no' vote, end up with three people who all had the same identical viewpoint on the amendment. That is the point of difference. There were two points of difference between the Senate and the House, not on final passage. The difference was the Guess amendment and the Andersen amendment. That is the difference because they did not concur with us. Now the President's appointment reflected that. Andersen was put on because he reflects the side that wanted the Andersen amendment on. Senator Day was put on to reflect the viewpoint of those who wanted the Guess amendment. The third member, I have forgotten, represented the viewpoint that didn't want either of them. So you see, he has chosen people who reflected the difference between the two Houses. The difference is whether they do or do not take our amendments and this committee properly reflects the difference between the bodies, and if you will read the rules you will find that it is on that basis that they are named."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Atwood: "Point of personal privilege."

The President: "The Senator will speak on his point of personal privilege."

Senator Atwood: "The PhD people are not represented on that conference committee."

Senator Uhlman: "This is precisely my point. The PhD people are not represented and the problem that we are faced with is that if we have a half dozen different amendments, we just have to have some sort of standard policy. The rule here says that the subject of the legislation referred to the conference committee, that is a whole bill, it is House Bill No. 58. It isn't an amendment or half dozen amendments, it is a whole bill and I think that for future clarification, we ought to have some kind of standard policy set."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In reply to Senator Uhlman's inquiry, the President believes the appointment of these conferees fulfills the provisions of Rule 8 of the Joint Rules."

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

Office of the Governor, March 13, 1969.

The Forty-first session of the Washington Legislature has before it significant legislation of importance to our citizens. This is now the sixtieth day, and much of the work required by the people of the State of Washington of their legislators still is not finished. While the legislature has not completed its work, the committees and both houses have considered many bills which can be adopted in an extraordinary session. The areas of major concern to which the legislature should direct its attention are:

- First: Tax Reform.* It is imperative that our citizens be given the opportunity to vote on a thorough and complete tax reform program. It is important not only to propose a tax amendment for the voters' approval, but also to adopt an income tax statute upon which they can base their judgment. We cannot continue to increase the sales tax, the property tax, and unfair taxes imposed on business. A fair income tax, together with adequate protections for property owners and appropriate reductions in other taxes remains the first priority of this administration.
- Second: Constitutional Reform.* We continue to work under a state constitution that no longer is appropriate to our needs. I urge the passage of a gateway amendment which will permit the amendment of the constitution by broad subject matter.
- Third: Executive Reorganization.* An efficient and effective structure for the management of state government is critically needed. The expanding role of state government, the increasing complexity of the problems we face in this state, and the continuing demand for adequate services make it imperative that the legislature provide the kind of executive organization that is responsive and responsible to the wishes and needs of the people.
- Fourth: Recreation and Environment.* Important legislation is still pending which is designed to protect our environment and promote the development of recreational facilities. The legislature should enact a water safety act, a bill to protect the landscape from the blight of uncontrolled surface mining, a bill providing for a coordinated program of solid waste disposal and the important legislation designed to inventory our rivers and shorelands and other legislation to preserve and develop our recreational facilities.
- Fifth: Human Resources.* The legislature has not acted upon legislation adopting a comprehensive licensing act for all health care facilities, a bill providing for a medical examiner system, bills improving our parole and penal system, an act promoting the development of low-cost housing, and a fair housing act.

Lastly, significant legislation has been introduced in the broad areas of labor, education and youth, and effective government. Included are such important items as the establishment of the intermediate appellate court, the passage of an amendment to the state constitution extending the right to vote to our 18-year-old citizens, and the updating of our unemployment compensation and workmen's compensation laws. These bills deserve the attention of the legislators before they return to their communities.

Because these problems have not yet been dealt with, an emergency exists constituting an extraordinary occasion within the meaning of Article III, Section 7, of the Constitution of the State of Washington:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Daniel J. Evans, Governor of the State of Washington, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of Washington in Extraordinary Session in the Capitol at Olympia on the fourteenth day of March, A.D. 1969, at the hour of nine o'clock a.m.; and

I DO HEREBY SPECIFY, in accordance with the requirements of the Constitution that the purposes for which the Legislature is convened are:

To appropriate sufficient funds and raise sufficient revenues to carry on the necessary functions and services of state government; and

To consider the enactment of the several other measures specified above for the benefit of the people of the State of Washington.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Washington to be affixed at Olympia, this thirteenth day of March, A.D. Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-nine.

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor of Washington.

BY THE GOVERNOR:
A. LUDLOW KRAMER
Secretary of State.

Senators Mardesich, McCutcheon and Talley demanded a Call of the Senate and the demand was sustained.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

March 14, 1969.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE,
THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON,
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON.

MR. PRESIDENT:

I, A. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State of the state of Washington and custodian of the Seal of said State, do hereby certify that: I have carefully compared the annexed copy of a proclamation by the Governor calling an extraordinary session of the Legislature to convene on the 14th day of March, 1969, with the original copy of said proclamation now on file in this office, and find the same to be a full, true and correct copy of said original, and the whole thereof, together with all official endorsements thereon.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have set my hand and affixed hereto the seal of the state of Washington. Done at the Capitol at Olympia on this the date of March 14, 1969.

(SEAL OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON)

A. LUDLOW KRAMER
Secretary of State.

Office of the Governor, March 13, 1969.

The 41st session of the Washington Legislature has before it significant legislation of importance to our citizens. This is now the sixtieth day, and much of the work required by the people of the state of Washington of their legislators still is not finished. While the legislature has not completed its work, the committees and both houses have considered many bills which can be adopted in an extraordinary session. The areas of major concern to which the legislature should direct its attention are:

First: Tax Reform. It is imperative that our citizens be given the opportunity to vote on a thorough and complete tax reform program. It is important not only to propose a tax amendment for the voters' approval, but also to adopt an income tax statute upon which they can base their judgment. We cannot continue to increase the sales tax, the property tax, and unfair taxes imposed on business. A fair income tax, together with adequate protections for property owners and appropriate reductions in other taxes remains the first priority of this administration.

Second: Constitutional Reform. We continue to work under a state constitution that no longer is appropriate to our needs. I urge the passage of a gateway amendment which will permit the amendment of the constitution by broad subject matter.

Third: Executive Reorganization. An efficient and effective structure for the management of state government is critically needed. The expanding role of state government, the increasing complexity of the problems we face in this state, and the continuing demand for adequate services make it imperative that the legislature provide the kind of executive organization that is responsive and responsible to the wishes and needs of the people.

Fourth: Recreation and Environment. Important legislation is still pending which is designed to protect our environment and promote the development of recreational facilities. The legislature should enact a water safety act, a bill to protect the landscape from the blight of uncontrolled surface mining, a bill providing for a coordinated program of solid waste disposal and the important legislation designed to inventory our rivers and shorelands and other legislation to preserve and develop our recreational facilities.

Fifth: Human Resources. The legislature has not acted upon legislation adopting a comprehensive licensing act for all health care facilities, a bill providing for a medical examiner system, bills improving our parole and penal system, an act promoting the development of low-cost housing, and a fair housing act.

Lastly, significant legislation has been introduced in the broad areas of labor, education and youth, and effective government. Included are such important items as the establishment of the intermediate appellate court, the passage of an amendment to the state constitution extending the right to vote to our 18-year-old citizens, and the updating of our unemployment compensation and workmen's compensation laws. These bills deserve the attention of the legislators before they return to their communities.

Because these problems have not yet been dealt with, an emergency exists constituting an extraordinary occasion within the meaning of Article III, Section 7, of the Constitution of the State of Washington:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Daniel J. Evans, Governor of the State of Washington, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of Washington in Extraordinary Session in the Capitol at Olympia on the fourteenth day of March, A.D. 1969, at the hour of nine o'clock a.m.; and

I DO HEREBY SPECIFY, in accordance with the requirements of the Constitution that the purposes for which the Legislature is convened are:

To appropriate sufficient funds and raise sufficient revenues to carry on the necessary functions and services of state government; and

To consider the enactment of the several other measures specified above for the benefit of the people of the State of Washington.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Washington to be affixed at Olympia, this thirteenth day of March, A.D. Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-nine.

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor of Washington.

BY THE GOVERNOR:
A. LUDLOW KRAMER
Secretary of State.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Office of the Governor, March 13, 1969.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

In compliance with the provisions of Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, I have the honor to submit herewith my report of each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon which I have granted since the adjournment of the 1967 Extraordinary Session of the Legislature.

Joseph Maish was sentenced April 7, 1947, from Clark County to be executed for the crime of First Degree Murder. On January 8, 1948, his sentence was commuted to Imprisonment for Life by Governor Mon C. Wallgren. Upon the recommendation of the Warden of the Washington State Penitentiary and the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, on January 12, 1968, I authorized the parole of Joseph Maish subject to the complete control, supervision and authority of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles.

John William Hawkins was sentenced June 28, 1965, from Clark County to be executed for the crime of Murder in the First Degree. On March 21, 1968, I granted a reprieve to John William Hawkins until April 30, 1969, to allow him an adequate opportunity to pursue further legal remedies, to await decisions of the Washington Supreme Court and United States Supreme Court on the constitutionality of the death penalty and to allow an opportunity to the 1969 Legislature to consider whether the statutory authority for the death penalty should be repealed.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 14, 1969.

Mr. President: The House has adopted: HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 18, and the same is herewith transmitted. SYDNEY R. SNYDER, Assistant Chief Clerk.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE BILL NO. 745, by Senators Holman, Uhlman, Elicker, Ridder, Marquardt, Durkan and McCormack:

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; suspending the uniform rate limitation on imposition of income taxes; adding a new section to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to Title 82 RCW; and providing for submission of this act to a vote of the people.

Referred to Committee on Ways and Means—Revenue and Taxation.

SENATE BILL NO. 746, by Senators Durkan and Atwood:

An Act relating to state government; and amending section 43.09.270, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.09.270.

Referred to Committee on State Government.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 30, by Senators Holman, Uhlman, Elicker, Ridder, Marquardt, Durkan and McCormack:

Amending Constitution to reduce property tax ceiling to one percent and authorizing income tax at suspendible single rate.

Referred to Committee on Ways and Means—Revenue and Taxation.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 19, by Senators Bailey and Ryder:

Providing for the reintroduction of bills and adopting the joint rules.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 19 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Would Senator Atwood yield to a question? Senator, I don't have the resolution in front of me and I am curious to know exactly what happens to a bill when it goes back to the house of origin to the highest committee. Does that mean when it comes over to the other house it goes through the committee structure or does it mean that it goes directly to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules if it was there before."

Senator Atwood: "It is my understanding that it goes to the Rules Committee. It does not go back to the committee if it was in Rules."

Senator Greive: "Just so we understand each other. Assume that it is a House bill and it comes to the Senate. Does this bill go to the Judiciary Committee and then on up through to the Rules Committee or does it go directly to Rules?"

Senator Atwood: "If it was in Rules at the end of the regular session, it will be in our Rules Committee if it comes back to the Senate. For instance the budget bills were still in the House Appropriations Committee when we run them through the Senate this morning. They will go back to the House Appropriations Committee."

Senator McCutcheon: "Would Senator Atwood yield to a question? Senator, the rule is then that it will come back to the Senate and every bill that I had in my committee will go to . . ."

Senator Atwood: "If it comes back here, it will go to your committee if it was there. It is my understanding that if it wasn't in Senate Rules Committee, if it was in committee, it would go back to that committee. That is the highest committee it was in at the time that the regular session ended. That is the intent of this resolution, that is my intent and I think everybody that had anything to do with it. If it was in the Senate Committee on Rules and Joint Rules when the session ended, then it would go back there. I believe that was Senator Bailey's intent and also Senator Gissburg's."

Senator McCormack: "Just one question for clarification. I'm still confused and I would like to get one point straightened out. Any bill that passes out of this Senate has gone through Rules Committee before it comes on the floor and then it goes to the House. Now if it hasn't passed the House it comes back here, my interpretation of the resolution is that it would go through Rules Committee not to the standing committee to which it was referred . . ."

Senator Atwood: "Are you talking about Senate bills, Senator McCormack?"

Senator McCormack: "Senate bills that have passed the Senate."

Senator Atwood: "Right, if they have passed the Senate it is my understanding we're going to run several consent calendars of the bills that passed the Senate and they will go to the highest committee in the House where they were at the end of the regular session. If they happened to have been in House Rules they will go to House Rules, the budget bills that were in House Appropriations will go back to House Appropriations. I think that is the understanding I had and Senator Bailey had."

Senator Ryder: "I would like to add my little point of confusion to this, too. I think that we can best talk about this if we're talking about examples. Senator McCormack was talking about Senate bills. Any Senate bill that has passed the Senate of course was in Rules Committee or it would never have passed the Senate so when it comes back from the House it comes back to Rules. Now the bills that Senator Atwood was talking about are House bills which will go back of course to the House and to House Rules. When they are re-passed by the House in this session and come over here they will go to the committee in which they were lodged at the time we adjourned yesterday. Now, if they were in Senator McCutcheon's committee they would go to Senator McCutcheon's committee but if he had passed a bill out of his committee into Rules Committee then that particular bill will go to Rules."

Senator Bailey: "Just to make it real short, the purpose of this resolution is to restore as soon as possible the status of the bill in exactly the same place that it was last night before we adjourned sine die. That's the whole purpose of this thing, to put them right back in the position they were as quickly as possible so we can go on without any interruption."

Senator Washington: "It was my understanding that when a bill has passed the Senate, gone over to the House and wasn't enacted that rather than going back to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules and going the gauntlet of that Committee again, it would come back on the floor of the Senate. We automatically had a calendar and repassed all of the bills that we passed before. Now this is the way I recall it was done last session. It wasn't necessary that they have to be on the Rules calendar again."

Senator Bailey: "In answer to Senator Washington, I think we were fairly agreed in the Rules Committee that these bills will come out on a consent calendar just in the order they passed. They will all come out. We have always taken them to the Rules Committee before, Senator Washington, and then the Rules Committee set up the calendar for today or Monday or whenever it was because we are not going to be able to do this all at one time."

Senator Atwood: "The resolution that was passed yesterday with all the Senate bills that were still in the House unpassed, were returned to the Senate Rules Committee to the jurisdiction of Senate Rules Committee on third reading so what Senator Bailey says is my understanding of the agreement in Rules Committee."

Senator Washington: "Would Senator Bailey yield? Senator, when the bills come out from Rules, they will be on third reading calendar, will they not?"

Senator Bailey: "That is correct."

On motion of Senator Atwood, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 19 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was adopted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The Speaker has signed HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 18, and the same is herewith transmitted. SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Assistant Chief Clerk. March 14, 1969.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President has signed:

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 18.

MOTION

At 12:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 12:00 noon, Monday, March 17, 1969.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary of the Senate.

Edited by SIDNEY R. SNYDER,
Elected Secretary of the Senate May 12, 1969.

FOURTH DAY

NOON SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Monday, March 17, 1969.

The Senate was called to order at noon by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Andersen, Day, Durkan and Guess. On motion of Senator Keefe, Senators Day and Durkan were excused. On motion of Senator Atwood, Senators Andersen and Guess were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Dave Bowlin, Color Bearer, and Chris Benton, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Howard Perry, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Glory be to Thee, O Lord God of the Universe who dost stoop to dwell with the fisherman in his dinghy, the soldier in his trench, the merchant in his shop, the school boy in the class room, the astronaut in orbit, the Senator at his desk. May Thy Wisdom and Thy Truth be the tools with which we work in the game of life; may Thy love and mercy be the marks in us of our loyalty and faithfulness to Thee. Enlighten our minds, that we may more clearly perceive Thy Truth in all we do; uplift our spirits, that we may not weary of doing good, even in the midst of opposition, criticism and misunderstanding; strengthen our wills that we may be those who live with a clear conscience and a quiet mind, the results of bringing our faith in Thee into our action. Keep our souls restless, O God, until they find their rest in Thee, and let us not make compromises with those whose greed or selfish interests would be served by our weakness.

"In a world tarnished and tired by living with small goals and worldly ideals, we would boldly pray that Thou wouldst give to the members of this Senate a high vision of the depth of Your love and a renewed sense of being Your children. Pour out Thy grace upon them, O God, and grant that they may be faithful to their high calling to serve the interests of all the people of this State, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry. Has there been a list prepared of the first reference of bills coming from the House, placed on the desk of each member?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that a list is on each Senator's desk."

MOTION

Senator Greive moved that the rules be suspended and the Senate dispense with the reference of bills except that the President make one reference and that reference be in accordance with the sheet as placed on each Senator's desk.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Greive, the President believes that the concurrent resolution adopted by the legislature provides where the bills should go and the President believes that it should be so ordered."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Then we wouldn't have to make any reference at all?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that perhaps to keep things in perfect order, the President should remark that the bills will be referred to the committee as provided for in the concurrent resolution."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Ryder: "Wouldn't it be possible to wait on the introduction and first reading of bills until the list is prepared and put on our desks and then go ahead with other business?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Yes, Senator Ryder, that would be in order."

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1969-EX-4

By Senator Wilson:

WHEREAS, The State of Washington is singularly honored in that the Indian peoples constituting the membership of the great Colville Indian Reservation wish to find an equitable means of terminating federal supervision over the property and affairs of the Colville Indian Reservation and to become full-fledged citizens both of this nation and of the state; and

WHEREAS, This desire on the part of the membership has been evidenced by the action of the members of its Tribal Council; and

WHEREAS, Senator Henry M. Jackson introduced legislation in the Ninetieth Congress providing for an end to the Colville Reservation and restoration to full rights as citizens to the membership and Representative Thomas S. Foley introduced like legislation for the Ninetieth Congress;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate that Congress enact legislation to immediately fulfill the desires of the membership of the Colville Reservation to become citizens enjoying equal rights, privileges and responsibilities as other citizens of this state and of this nation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the Honorable Richard M. Nixon, President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, to the President of the Senate of the United States, and to each member of Congress from the state of Washington.

Senator Wilson moved the adoption of the resolution.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator Wilson yield to a question? Senator, on hasty reading, does this referral resolution refer only to the Colville tribe and the Colville Reservation?"

Senator Wilson: "Yes, Senator, I appreciate that there are other tribes in this state who do not wish to move towards termination. This resolution is specifically concerned only with the Colville."

Senator Bailey: "Senator Wilson, does this represent the viewpoint of all the Colville tribes? Were they all polled on this matter or is this a group of the leaders of the Colville tribe?"

Senator Wilson: "No, it does not represent the viewpoint of all the Colvilles. As I specifically stated in my introduction, it represents the feeling of a substantial majority of those Colvilles of voting age as expressed in election through their tribal council over the past eight or ten or more years and also as expressed in various referendums which have been conducted among the membership. It is not a unanimous expression but an expression of a substantial majority."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I have no opposition to the resolution but I merely wanted the fact put into the record that this concerned strictly to the Colville tribe and there were some differences of opinion in the Colville tribe itself."

The motion carried and the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1969-EX-5

By Senators McCormack, Pritchard and Canfield:

WHEREAS, The American Nuclear Society is conducting its national meeting in Seattle, Washington in June 1969; and

WHEREAS, The American Nuclear Society is an outstanding international organization of over 7500 scientists and engineers active in science and technology, and 630 corporations, educational institutions and governments, whose main objective is the advancement of science and engineering relating to the peaceful application of nuclear energy; and

WHEREAS, The state of Washington—THE NUCLEAR PROGRESS STATE—is singularly honored to host this distinguished society of nuclear scientists, engineers and students;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington heartily welcomes the American Nuclear Society and its members to Washington, THE NUCLEAR PROGRESS STATE; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the members of the American Nuclear Society be commended for their dedication to the peaceful application of nuclear energy for the benefit of mankind; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a suitably inscribed copy of this resolution be transmitted to the officers of the American Nuclear Society.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the resolution was adopted.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Paul Bradford, Color Bearer, and Sharon Grinspan, presented the Colors. Reverend Stephen Norcross, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"O God of all truth and beauty, the object of all our worship and adoration, we pray that You would be with us today. Keep us mindful of our task, and give us the necessary inner strength to complete that task with integrity and honesty. Forgive us, we pray You, when we have been less than honest, less than energetic, and less than humble and straightforward in our decisions here. Forgive our fatigue, and help us to see that every new day brings new opportunities. Forgive us when we've not served our people as we ought. Help us to remain steadfast in what we believe, even in the face of great opposition or unpopularity.

"Finally, we commit to Your care and concern the House of Representatives of this legislature. Also, we pray for the Congress of the United States and any other state legislature and meeting. Bless the President of this country, the Governor of this state, and all others in authority. Be with our families still another day. All this we pray to You, Father, the giver of every good gift and the lover of every soul. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

Relating to migrant farm worker housing.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman: "I wonder if Senator Ridder would yield to a question? Senator Ridder, for the purposes of the record, would you state your intent and consequently the intent of the legislature in the adoption of the amendment which was proposed by you and adopted by the Senate to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 474?"

Senator Ridder: "The intent of the amendment was to bring all housing, whether public or private and ten or under, under the state health department regulation. This doesn't specify specifically 1968 regulations but I think in its wording 'by reasonable health and sanitation standards to ensure a healthful environment' would most necessarily call in the state health department to set these regulations and consequently I think it would bring them under the state health department. These might not be fully the 1968 regulations but it would bring about some compromising in this area to bring up the existing housing in the area. Does that answer the question?"

Senator Day: "Mr. President, would Senator Woodall yield? Senator Woodall, as one of the sponsors of this bill and I voted for this amendment the other day, it wasn't quite my understanding. My understanding is that this would in effect from this date forward, put in the 1968 standards. Is that your understanding of this?"

Senator Woodall: "Yes, that is clearly what the amendment says and that is why there was no attempt made on the House side to alter it. In any event, there is going to be a conference on the House side with interested parties, once we get the bill back over there."

Relating to the Washington horse racing commission.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Keefe moved the adoption of the following amendment by Senators Keefe, Twigg, Newschwander and Peterson (Lowell):

On page 2, line 21, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 67.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"Notwithstanding any other provision of RCW 67.16 to the contrary the licensee shall withhold and shall pay daily to the commission, in addition to the fifteen percent authorized by this chapter, one percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet which sums shall, at the end of each meet, be paid by the commission to the licensed owners of those horses finishing first, second, third and fourth in Washington bred only races other than stake races at each meet from which the additional one percent is derived in accordance with an equitable distribution formula to be promulgated by the commission prior to the commencement of each race meet: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall apply to race meets which are nonprofit in nature, or of six days or less or which have a total annual handle of less than two hundred thousand dollars. The commission shall not permit the licensees to take into consideration the benefits derived from this section in establishing purses for Washington bred only races."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Point of inquiry, could someone explain what this amendment is about?"

Senator Atwood: "Senator Mardesich, this makes one percent of the total take go to the owners of Washington bred thoroughbreds for purses. Right now, although they do have separate races for Washington owned races, there is really no great incentive to the Washington breeders as such. Several other states have much higher percentages for their own breeders and it was the feeling of some of us who do not play horses, and I used to represent one of these breeders who is no longer racing at the present time but he was continuously speaking of this problem. He said that there was no real incentive to the Washington breeder, as far as racing on Washington tracks so he was racing in California most of the time and this is two cents on the dollar and it does not affect the state take in any way however. It comes out of the better's portion of it."

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Woodall yield? Senator Woodall, we take it then that we are supposed to follow the same theory that we do in the California wine bill on this bill since it is the same subject matter?"

Senator Woodall: "Well, what theory you follow, I don't know. I am going to follow the same theory."

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Keefe, the following amendment to the title by Senators Keefe, Twigg, Newschwander and Peterson (Lowell) was adopted:

In line 2 of the title, after "adding" strike "a new section" and insert "new sections"

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 476 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Have you taken the building that is proposed to be projected in the state of Washington and the areas of the state where they are going to be built and run some fiscal note on this as to the hiring of a director, the hiring of a board, the carrying on of per diem to go through all of the work, the modification in each individual district as to roof line and trim, modification to fit the site and run all of this and come out with any figure whatsoever? I am curious."

Senator Washington: "It is impossible to come up with any statistical data. In order to hire architects, there will be fewer architects hired in the state. In other words, we are putting out on these buildings, the state will be paying sixty percent of the cost. Ordinarily in each of the building projects it will be hiring an additional architect. On this plan and again it is a truism, there will be utilized fewer architects to develop the same number of plans. It would be a truism that it will save money merely to have the architects make changes in the orientation perhaps of the basic units which would undoubtedly be used.

"The module system would be used, differences in trim, in other words a school building in one district might decide that within the basic module which perhaps would be wood or steel girders on say twelve feet separated, some would fill those girders with bricks, some would perhaps fill largely with glass. Some might use a metal trim or board and batting. In other words, with very little change to get almost an entirely different school utilizing a different material within the module."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Would Senator Ridder yield? Senator, I have heard the remarks made on several occasions that school districts building new schools that the architect's fee or percentage extends into the area of not only the construction of the plant but into the area of furnishing and to textbooks. Is this true?"

Senator Ridder: "I don't see how it possibly could. When you hire an architect to oversee the building to draw up the plans and oversee the building of it, it certainly wouldn't extend into textbooks. You would be pretty hard put with the auditor trying to stretch your money over into that area. That is maintenance and operation."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "To specify then on the equipment and furnishings does it extend to equipment and furnishings?"

Senator Ridder: "This would pertain to the shelving and to the basins and things like this to go with it, the appurtenances attached to it."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "I was thinking of desks."

Senator Ridder: "No, this wouldn't come with the architect's fee. It would include those fixtures within the building that are part of the building."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Thank you."

Senator Canfield: "I would like to ask one of the sponsors a question, Senator Washington? I would like to know what the significance is of subsection 8 on page 3 which says that this act shall last only for eight years. It seems to me if it is a good measure why the eight year clause in there?"

Senator Washington: "There have been many statements made such as those by Senator Holman that this would be in the nature of an experiment and in order to allay some fears, this cutoff date was provided and then of course if it has proven out I think there would be no difficulty in reenacting the measure. This is a safety valve to answer those problems that had been raised."

Senator Canfield: "May I ask a further question? In hiring these architects and the board of architecture, what in your opinion would be the cost of establishing this service?"

Senator Washington: "This was somewhat difficult to come up with. It would depend upon; I think, the salary schedules that would be applicable and since the contract would not be on the basis of the cost of construction, a contract would have to be entered into with the top architects of the state to develop these plans. I will be frank, the amount that would be negotiated by the board of education to hire three top architects to do the work has not been accurately determined because it would be a negotiated contract with the architects and I would imagine it would pay a salary somewhere in the neighborhood of I suppose $18,000 to $20,000 for the director of the building facilities department. Of course we are going to get the assistance of the college of architecture but it would relate to the general earning capacity of top architects."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Dore moved the adoption of the committee amendment to page 1.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Gissberg: "Would Senator McCormack yield to a question? Senator McCormack, if this does what you intend, I don't have any quarrel, but in order to satisfy myself that it does, I will ask you whether or not in the second amendment when you say that the names of the candidates of the two major political parties shall be 'grouped on the ballot label according to political party in the same manner as on paper ballot', is there a separate statute that is now on the books that requires the columnizing of political parties on paper ballots?"

Senator McCormack: "I can't quote the citation but I do know that it exists, Senator Gissberg, and it also provides of course that the party winning the previous presidential election to be on the left or the top and providing that they shall be in descending order."

Senator Dore: "May I ask Senator McCormack a question? I just wonder why Senate Bill No. 440 is captioned relating to elections, etc. I notice here the caption is 'prescribing requirements for voting devices'. The title is different. My question is, are you attempting by any of these amendments to expand the punchboard device of voting from Clark county to other counties?"

Senator McCormack: "That is exactly the purpose of the bill, Senator Dore."

Senator Dore: "To what extent, Senator?"

Senator McCormack: "If you will follow the next amendment it will show you that the punchboard voting would become optional with all counties in the state except Class A and AA counties."

Senator Dore: "Fine, I just wanted to get that in the record."

Senator Mardesich: "Senator Uhlman raised the point of order and the President ruled the Senate was out of order, therefore, Senator Dore had sat down, subsequently he arose and stated the motion."

The inability of many citizens comprising the racial minorities in this state to enjoy said employment and other associated rights, benefits, privileges and to achieve a reasonable degree of economic parity with Caucasian citizens of the state is due in part to racial discrimination in some labor organizations. It is the policy of the legislature and the purpose of this act to provide citizens from racial minorities in this state a reasonable opportunity to enjoy said employment and other associated rights, benefits, privileges and to achieve a greater degree of economic parity with the Caucasian majority and to help citizens of minority races realize in a greater measure the goals upon which this nation and this state were founded. Any person successfully completing said examination shall be considered as a student who successfully completed a vocational course of instruction pursuant to section 31 of this 1969 act and shall have the same rights as said student. No person shall be allowed to petition to the said examination more than once each six months.

Any such labor organization, against which a complaint alleging racial discrimination has been filed with the board, shall upon demand present said records to the board.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. The division, the superintendent, the director, and the department, shall each promulgate rules and regulations to implement this 1969 act and to effectuate the purpose of this 1969 act. If a conflict should arise between the rules or regulations promulgated by the division, the superintendent, or the director, or the department then those rules and regulations promulgated by the division shall control.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. "NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. If any provision of this 1969 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "The amendment as offered by Senator Andersen is not within the scope of the bill. It does fit within the title, that I grant. You will find that this is a rerun of House Bill No. 742, an act relating to discrimination and it is so titled, rather than dealing with the subject deals with the department of labor and industries but a new board is created and it deals with the superintendent of public instruction so it deals with a whole new set of people who are not included. Not only that, but it deals with a system of community college education to qualify people for admission to training and for apprenticeship and it deals with some tests that have been laid down. It deals with required admissions to colleges on the basis that these colleges are vocational institutions and requires that certain people be admitted. It deals with just about everything and the only reference to a labor organization is that the labor organization must keep certain records and admit these people if they are qualified as legitimate apprentices.

"Now, as far as I am concerned, I have no objection to the bill, as a natural matter as a bill itself, I think it is an excellent one. The problem is that it doesn't really fit within this particular bill which I might add for those of you who aren't familiar with it, the little labor relations act deals entirely with the relationship between labor and employer and does not deal with the board of discrimination, not with the director of colleges, not with the superintendent of public instruction, not with tests, not with qualifying people for apprenticeship standards. So really the two matters are very, very unlike and for that reason I would say that it is not within the scope.

"I might add that we have another amendment by Senator Bailey and myself to provide there will be no discrimination because of race, color or creed and anybody that would like to add their name to that we will be glad to have it added because this is a legitimate concern. We are now speaking not of the merits but merely on whether it technically belongs."

Senator Andersen: "Yes, the logic of Senator Greive's position escapes me because he states that he has an amendment that prohibits discrimination in employment and he solicits the Senators who wish to join him in his amendment but at the same time he says that my amendment, the one in which I have been joined by Senators Dore and Faulk is inappropriate when it relates to the same thing. What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander and I am sure that Senator Greive would not have put up an amendment if he did not think it was germane to the bill.

"Now to get directly to the challenge by Senator Dore. We are fortunate in this bill that is before us, Senate Bill No. 512 because it states its purpose and its policy clearly in the language of the bill. The amendment that I have put up is very simple. It sets up as a policy in the state of Washington which prohibits discrimination because of race, color or creed in labor unions. It is something that goes right to the gist of the whole labor movement. It goes right to the essence of our whole discrimination problem in our state and this amendment sets out the mechanics for insuring that there can be no discrimination in who gets a union card and there is to be no discrimination in who hires out of a hiring hall, etc.

"Now if you turn to Senate Bill No. 512 you will see how clearly germane our amendment is. I would like to read the purpose and policy of this act as set out in the bill itself. 'It is the purpose and policy of this act to prescribe the legitimate rights of employees.' What right is more legitimate on the part of an employee than the right to join a union, than the right to get a job, to raise his family from the welfare rolls or from pauperizing situations than the right to employment. Then I will continue, 'to provide orderly and peaceful procedure for presenting interference by either with the legitimate rights of the other'. Certainly by putting in an amendment of this kind we are providing order and peaceful procedure for preventing interference of employees who may be colored or may be of an ethnic or religious background that would cause them to be discriminated against.

"The purpose and policy of the act continues 'to protect the rights of individual employees in their relations with labor organization'. Now, I reemphasize the purpose of Senate Bill No. 512 is to protect the rights of individual employees in their relations with labor organizations and that is exactly and precisely what the amendment that we have placed on the desk will do and also the purposes of the act. Senate Bill No. 512 stated in the act are to 'define and prescribe practices on the part of labor which are inimicable to the general welfare' and we are again talking about this same kind of a situation. We have in short in Senate Bill No. 512 an all encompassing act which is vast in its scope, vast in its concepts and can't conceive of an act this amendment could not be put on any bill which could possibly have a broader ambit than does Senate Bill No. 512 so far as the purpose and scope of the act is concerned, this amendment is directly and precisely within the scope and purpose of the amendment and also I point out, Senator Greive's which is much shorter is even less within the scope and object than the amendments that we have proposed.

"So I say simply that if these amendments are not germane to a bill, then an amendment can't be germane to a bill and I believe that the point of order that Senator Greive has taken is not a proper point of order and should be overruled by the President who is the presiding officer of this Senate."

Senator Gissberg: "Does the President wish to hear further argument on the point of order?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Gissberg, you may speak on the point of order as raised by Senator Greive."

Senator Gissberg: "I support the point of order raised by Senator Greive and if Senator Andersen was talking solely about discrimination as the same applies to what the title of the bill says, namely to labor relations and employers and employees and to labor organizations, then I would be quite inclined to agree with him but the amendment does enlarge the scope and object of the bill and that is the prohibition in the rules in the Constitution on any amendment enlarging the scope and object of the bill. I would like to point out to the President the fact that on page 1, new section 30 of the amendment talks about students qualifying for admission to any vocational technical institute or community college and how that has to do with the Little Wagner Act, the relationship between employer and employee from guaranteeing to workmen certain rights, is far beyond me and clearly it would enlarge the scope and object of the bill.

"Further, I would say that with respect to the discrimination this does indeed prohibit discrimination now not only for race, color or creed but for any other purpose in the limited scope of the applicability of the bill and that language is contained in section 13 of the bill and on page 6 where it defines an unfair labor practice for a labor organization to discriminate against an employee for any purpose other than the payment of dues and I would submit Mr. President, that the amendment does in fact enlarge the scope and object of the bill and should not be allowed to stand."

Senator Dore: "Mr. President, speaking against the point of order of Senator Greive. I would like to ask the presiding officer to take judicial notice or legislative notice of the public hearing we had not too long ago when leaders of various black groups came before this legislative body and talked about one of the basic forms of discrimination they are most concerned about, the discrimination in the trade unions. It was how could they ever get into the union when they could never satisfy the requirements? That is always a question of interpretation and intent.

"This suggested amendment by Senators Andersen, Faulk and myself merely sets the standards. It says that if you are graduated or a student and complete the course in a vocational school, etc. presumably you are qualified in the trade.

"Now as Senator Andersen has very clearly pointed out under the preamble of the bill itself because I think it is helpful to all of us and Mr. President, here it sets out very clearly what the purpose in the preamble of the act is, and Senator Andersen has already read it but I would like to express it again, 'provide peaceful and orderly procedure for preventing interference by either with legitimate rights of the other to protect the rights of individual employees in relation with labor organizations; to prescribe and define practices on the part of labor and management inimicable to the general welfare to protect the rights of the public in connection with labor disputes'.

"Gentlemen, we are talking about the same thing I hope. We are, talking about the caption of the act. It says 'relating to labor relations and practices' the preamble says 'to provide orderly and peaceful procedure'. What could be more germane than to provide in this act the procedure where the qualifications are set, or the standards are set as to when a man is qualified in order to be accepted. I think this will bring about peaceful relations within the union and peaceful relations with labor and management and I can't think of an amendment more germane than this one. In fact, if this is not germane then of course the subsequent amendment by Senator Greive is not germane, and then Senator Gissberg made an interesting remark that the bill already provides against discrimination. I don't think it does but if it does, then he should have no objection to adding this amendment to spell it out clearly, the standards and qualifications for one to go into a trade union because it affects the caption of the act relating to labor relations and practices and it is plain but I am not saying it is true that the practices of some trade unions is not to take in the minority group. They never can qualify no matter how experienced they become, they are never accepted. I am not saying that is true but that is the charge so let's take care of this thing. Spell it out so there will be no chance of a wrongful charge again. Let's spell it out and say if you take this course in a qualified school, you get your certificate then you are entitled presumably to qualify in that particular trade.

"If you don't pass this amendment, I can't see much meaning in the caption and preamble of the bill that says 'provide orderly and peaceful procedure'. I think this suggested amendment is more germane to the act than probably the provisions of the act itself."

Senator Woodall: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I do not know of any measure which has been before us which has a broader, more encompassing title than this particular measure. It opens up the whole spectrum of labor relationship. It opened it up and it has been pointed out and of course there can be no argument as to the germaneness, we are talking about scope and object.

"Everyone would have to concede that it is germane but look at it. It is a whole labor relations act, a brand new labor relations act for the state of Washington setting out what will be fair and what will be unfair and if someone wants to add a new category of unfairness in this bill, certainly it is proper. It comes well within it. This is an all encompassing act, an all encompassing title and any amendment which tends to define anything concerning labor relations certainly is proper within this all encompassing, broad title."

Senator Greive: "I listened very carefully to Senator Andersen, Senator Woodall and Senator Dore and apparently we are not talking on the same track. I am not arguing that the rights of the minority shouldn't be protected because I believe they should. I am not attempting to argue that this isn't within the same subject matter but what I am saying is that it enlarges the scope and object.

"For one thing it wouldn't be necessary if we followed the same procedure we did to this bill to send it back to the Committee on Ways and Means and see what the financial impact of this new bill is. It sets up a different board, different procedures, has an expense involved. It opens junior colleges and sets different requirements for admitting people to vocational education. In other words, we have a whole, new world. A whole new area that we have to consider so what I am arguing simply is that this deals with education. It deals with the director of the junior colleges. It deals with subjects which are not dealt with in the original measure. It is a good bill.

"Now Senator Andersen argues we feel there shouldn't be any discrimination and therefore we make an amendment to do that. I agree that in some way we are doing the same thing he is but in a different way. We are merely designating as an unfair labor practice discrimination in the matter of creed or color or race. This would fit very well with the same kind of discrimination as it would be because a man joined a union. In other words, we set out another area; another test on which you can determine what is or what is not discrimination. This is a far cry from setting up a junior college system in which you admit people and you determine that they took certain courses and that they completed certain courses which is another whole world and then you have to determine if they have completed them, are they eligible, which is a far cry.

"Certainly if we are dealing simply with the matter of discrimination, I think if they want to change some other legitimate amendment, we have no objection but they are not doing that. They are adding other machinery which has nothing to do with the purpose of the act."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Honored members of the Senate, the President wishes to know the procedure that the Senate would like the President to follow. The President believes this is a question of such moment that it will need considerable study. The President is willing to put the Senate at ease and retire to the chamber to study the point of order as raised by Senator Greive or the President will peruse the matter this evening and make a ruling in the morning."

In all primary elections involving the use of punch card voting, the names of the candidates shall be grouped on the ballot label according to office sought, and rotated in the same manner as they are rotated on mechanical voting machines.

In all general elections the names of the candidates of the two major political parties shall be grouped on the ballot label according to political party in the same manner as on paper ballots, and the names of the candidates of all minor parties shall be grouped on subsequent pages according to the office sought and listed in the chronological order of their filing for office. Senator McCormack moved the adoption of the committee amendment to page 1.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator McCormack yield? Does the bill in its present state, make mandatory anything for any of these counties that they now have to do under this bill?"

Senator McCormack: "The bill is permissive on any county, Senator Woodall."

Senator Woodall: "So you are not mandating any county to do anything differently than they are presently doing if they don't want to, is that a true statement?"

Senator McCormack: "That is correct."

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the committee amendment to page 2, following the period on line 9, was adopted.

It was moved by Senator McCormack that the committee amendment to page 2, section 2, line 15 be adopted.

It was moved by Senator Gissberg that the following amendment by Senators Gissberg and Mardesich to the committee amendment to page 2, section 2, line 15 be adopted:

On page 2, section 2, line 15, after "counties" add the following: "as are presently so classified under RCW 36.13.010 as of the effective date of this 1969 amendatory act."

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Would Senator Gissberg yield to a question? Senator, I haven't read the amendment but does this make Snohomish county a Class AA county for all purposes including grants or all of the various statutes that we have, did we just change the status?"

Senator Gissberg: "No, Senator Greive. It does not in any way change the population requirements for counties. We don't get into that at all. I explained it once. If you want me to try and explain it again, as to the rationale as to how this amendment will work, I will do so.

"Snohomish county is now a first class county. We will be a Class A county at the next census. This will be in 1970. This bill would exclude however, Class AA and Class A counties as it came out of committee so that Snohomish county is in a situation that although we could use the provisions of this bill as a first class county because we are a first class county now, we would lose that opportunity in 1970 as soon as we became a Class A county.

"So, my amendment simply says that Class A and Class AA counties are excluded from the provisions of this act when those counties as are presently so classified. In other words the exclusion would only apply to Class A counties which are so classified as of the effective date of this amendatory act. It is quite simple actually if you follow what I am saying."

Senator Pritchard: "I wonder if Senator Gissberg would yield to a question. Senator, I am willing to go along and let Snohomish county have the option to use this if they want but it seems to me we are going to an awful lot of trouble here. It seems to me we would be a lot better off to just let King and Pierce off, if they don't want this, they don't have to use it. I am a little confused to why we have to go around the barn so far and so fast to work it out so you can have the option and you can make your own choice. Wouldn't this be easier?"

Senator Gissberg: "I don't know what is going to happen to the amendment as amended. Senator McCutcheon is going to fight vigorously to keep the amendment as amended on. If I had the foresight to know whether the committee amendment would be adopted, that would be one thing. If the committee amendment is adopted then of course that would effectively take Snohomish county out of the coverage of this act in 1970 which would be ridiculous.

"On the other hand, if Senator McCutcheon's committee amendment is not adopted, then of course you are correct and that is that. All Class AA and Class A counties would be able to take advantage of it but I don't know if his amendment is going to be adopted so all I am trying to do with my amendment is safeguard Snohomish county's position on this so that we will be able to use it notwithstanding whether or not his amendment is adopted."

Senator Pritchard: "It makes me wonder if King county shouldn't also run up and get something on here that would allow us, if this amendment goes through, to have the freedom of choice but I am a little confused by this whole maneuver and I don't quite understand what is going on but I am going to start looking."

Senator Wilson: "Mr. President, would Senator McCormack yield to a question? Senator, I realize it is the question of amendments that is germane right now but also the entire intent of the bill has become involved and my question is why do some counties want to be excluded from this bill if it is purely permissive?"

Senator McCormack: "Senator Wilson, I can't answer that question because I don't represent one of those counties. It is not my amendment. It is a committee amendment. It was requested by the committee chairman so I will simply have to plead ignorance on the question."

Senator Wilson: "Mr. President, might I ask then of Senator McCutcheon and pursue the same area? Senator, my question is why do some counties wish to be excluded from this bill if it is purely permissive as Senator McCormack has indicated?"

Senator McCutcheon: "Because, Senator Wilson, it comes from long experience in this body and I am sure that you have learned that 'may' turns to 'must' awfully easy and 'may' turns to 'shall' and Pierce county doesn't want to be in a position of it 'may' this year and 'shall' next year. They would like to have that out of there. I know it is a nice word. May is always permissive but it is dangerous also from a purely political standpoint."

"I think in all of the experience in Olympia my years have proven that. I have seen 'may' turn to 'shall' from session to session. They will always start out with 'may' and if they can't get by with that, they will say, 'it will take effect two years from now and the bug will be pulled out of it'."

"That gives you my reasons anyway. They are largely political, I admit, but isn't all of our legislation here somewhat political? Maybe we are not political human beings but I thought that is what we were when we were elected and that is what makes it so outstandingly great."

Senator Holman: "Speaking to Senator Wilson's question and with reference to King county which Senator Pritchard mentioned, the situation there is that we have a county auditor, Mr. Logan, a good friend of mine who is just simply opposed to this new type of voting and he doesn't want to give the county council, newly elected, the opportunity to maybe experiment with. Now I don't think they would because we have voting machines in every one of our 2,200 precincts. We have quite a capital investment. Nevertheless, I think in principle, King county should have freedom of choice if it wants it but what I intend to do myself is to support Senator Gissberg's amendment to the committee amendment so that it accommodates them and then vote against the committee amendment and I think if that happens, we have a bill that is entirely permissive."

The motion carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

A division was requested on the adoption of the committee amendment as amended.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McCutcheon: "Parliamentary inquiry. I haven't the rule before me but am I allowed to speak briefly on the amendment before we have the division?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Yes, Senator McCutcheon."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Atwood: "Point of order."

The President: "Senator Atwood will state his point of order."

Senator Atwood: "When Senator McCutcheon took the floor I didn't raise the question but I am going to do so now."

"We were in the midst of a division on the question of the adoption of the amendment and I think that you can't interrupt for speeches when we are in the middle of a vote."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Dore, the rules were suspended to permit Senator Mardesich to speak.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Dore and Senator Atwood, the President believes the fact that the Senate had commenced a division does not necessarily shut off debate. The President believes that if a roll call had been started, Senator McCutcheon would have been out of order. The President rules that remarks are still in order."

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "I find myself in rather an odd position having added my name to the amendment to the committee amendment. I would like to ask anyone on this floor, either Democrat or Republican, to answer a few questions so that I can help make up my own mind. I am somewhat concerned now.

"What about this question of programming? I don't care if you call it programming error or perhaps programming sleight of hand, whatever you call it, what about that question? Is it that easy to make errors? Is it easy to rig? Even more important in my mind, Senator Dore has said and I have no doubt his statement is true, that IBM within the last month has withdrawn from the field. They are discontinuing the sale of their IBM voting machine. Now, someone like IBM withdraws from a field, there is some reason for it. A field which has potential market of millions of dollars across these United States and I am wondering if anyone has any light to shed on that question. Why has IBM dropped out? Are they so concerned that they had doubts about the program itself? Until I get an answer to that question, I am inclined to vote against this measure."

Senator McCormack: "Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I shall try and answer some of the questions that have been raised. First of all, with respect to IBM, it was an anti-trust situation that caused IBM to withdraw from this field. They have set up some sort of a subsidiary and some of the IBM employees are carrying out this program. It in no sense has been rejected by IBM. The only problem they had was an anti-trust problem.

"Now, to go on to this programming question. This is, I am sure, misunderstood by a lot of people. Senator Dore obviously misunderstood it and so let me explain to you that programming for using a computer to count is, under the provisions of the law and the regulations established by the secretary of state's elections officer, certified and prepared by an independent, outside agent.

"In the instance of Clark county, this program was brought to Olympia and run in Olympia on a computer by the superintendent of elections on a test deck. This test deck was made up so that all the candidates who were on the ballot in Clark county were on the ballot here but the test deck was made up of several hundred cards punched randomly so that each candidate would get exactly fifty percent of the vote. This was run in Olympia to check out and it was checked out exactly so that it was proven that this program was doing exactly what it was supposed to do. Then to show that the program was not just reporting fifty percent for everybody, they put a second test deck in which was programmed to have random distribution of counts for the candidates and this came out correctly also. The program was then locked in a safe in Olympia and at seven o'clock that evening was taken by state patrol to Vancouver under the direction of the superintendent of elections where it was used on the computer at the PUD building in Clark county to count the cards.

"This is the technique that would be applied in any election in any county using this system. You would have a certified program, certified by the superintendent of elections. Tested, locked up and then used to count the ballots. In addition to being pretested in Olympia, the law provides that in counting the ballots, the Republican and Democratic party representatives can, at least three times during the count, run a prepared test deck through the counter. In other words, three times during the count they can say 'stop the machine'. The machine stops, they put the pre-prepared test deck from which they already know the answer into the machine and run it through. It counts that test deck out properly, the count is no good. Obviously, it is programmed improperly. This was done in Vancouver and the machine was tested on the test deck on the site by Republican and Democratic representatives before the count, in the middle of the count and at the end of the count. In each case it read just exactly the same thing.

"I think I should mention one other thing in response to a comment Senator McCutcheon made. A computer is simply a machine, a hand computer is a machine. Any one of these machines does what the people tell it to do. It is not magic. A computer is simply a fast adding and subtracting device with a memory bank in it and it will do exactly what the operator tells it to do according to what is put into the machine. The key to this is the program, the testing of the program. The law provides a sealed program to control the count, a test deck to check it. That is in the provisions under RCW 29.34 I think, and the regulations of the Secretary of State.

"Now those are the conditions under which these elections would be run and I hope that answers your questions."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator McCormack yield? Senator, how does one check after an election where you believe there is some fraud or the voting doesn't show true? I recall the election a few years ago in Chicago when they wanted to recheck and Mayor

Daley lost all of the ballots, do you remember? Now, assuming that in some of our populous around here, people of the caliber of Mayor Daley were running the show, I pray to God it never happens here, but under those conditions how would you double check him, how would you know later on that they turned the right figures in?"

Senator McCormack: "Without commenting on Mayor Daley, I shall answer the specific question. The ballot cards, the punch cards according to the law are saved for six months as are any other ballot records from mechanical voting machines. They are sealed under court order and kept for six months. They may not be opened for six months and the seal, by the way is the same physical metal band that is used to seal mechanical voting machines. At the end of six months, they may be destroyed and may be cleared. For instance, in the Clark county situation, these cards were supposed to have been destroyed a couple of days ago but the auditor has held them over. We could go down to Clark county today with a court order and take those same cards, run them through any computer in the state to count them on a program prepared by anybody who knows how to prepare the program, certified by the secretary of state. Furthermore, we could count by hand, look through each one of them and count them by hand. The physical record is available for IBM counting cards the same as it is for paper ballots or mechanical voting machines."

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator McCormack yield to another question? Senator, I would assume that in California the legislature, the secretary of state, if he be the election official in California, would take the same type of safeguards which you say we have taken in this state?"

Senator McCormack: "No, as a matter of fact that is not the case. I spoke to Ken Gilbert, the supervisor of elections for the state of Washington, about that and we spoke to him about the situation in the primary election, first presidential primary in California where in Fresno they had a situation where a program was not prepared properly and they couldn't run the machine during the election for President and he said it couldn't possibly happen here because of the regulations and laws we have in this state."

Senator Mardesich: "What you are saying is that the errors that they made, programming errors, could not happen here?"

Senator McCormack: "That is exactly what I am saying. The secretary of state assures us that this could not happen here."

Senator Mardesich: "Are you also saying that this couldn't happen here even though we had a man who was quite good at sleight of hand?"

Senator McCormack: "Now Senator Mardesich, you are reaching way out into the land of make-believe. If you want to talk about sleight of hand, you had better talk about all paper ballots and all machine ballots and the vote board in the House of Representatives and this could go on forever in the land of make-believe. If you want to talk realistically about this, the answer to your question is 'no'."

Senator Mardesich: "The answer is 'no', thank you."

Senator Dore: "Would Senator McCormack yield to a question? Suppose that, just for argument's sake, that I am the programmer and I am in a race for state Senator in the tri-city area against myself and I want to program so that I get every twenty-eight votes regardless of who gets it. Is it possible for me, as programmer, to set the machine so that it will be programmed that way?"

Senator McCormack: "No."

Senator Dore: "I was told directly to the contrary that you could change an 'I' or dot or close up the hole in a rotation basis and the reason I say that, I have a clipping from Montana that I would like to read and see if you would like to comment on this. 'Work in setting up the Missoula county voting ballots doesn't match the program established by the voting machine, according to the Missoula county clerk. It should have been fourteen ballot rotations because of the number of legislative candidates in the county, instead there were only four in presidential candidates.'

"If they were using the same IBM machine, why couldn't we in this state set to have thirteen rotations of the ballot so someone could drop off a ballot each time around. Is there some reason that our machine would run any differently from Montana when it is the same IBM machine?"

Senator McCormack: "Mr. President, I can only say that I cannot comment on what some newspaper says about some confused situation in some other state with some other laws. This apparently had something to do with a rotation position of candidates on the ballot and nothing to do with the validity of the program."

Senators Gissberg, Cooney and Atwood demanded the previous question.

Senator Holman demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Sandison, Faulk, Wilson, Ridder, Stortini, Connor, Greive, Peterson (Lowell).

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion failed and the amendment as amended was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 23; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Connor, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Dore, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Herr, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Peterson (Lowell), Ridder, Stortini, Talley—21.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Henry—2.

Excused: Senators Ryder, Uhlman, Washington—3.

Senator McCutcheon moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, following subsection (7) as added by Senator McCutcheon's amendment, add a new subsection as follows:

"(8) No counting of votes cast by punch cards will be allowed until the close of polls."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, relative to Senator McCutcheon's amendment, I wonder if Senator McCutcheon would yield? It is against the law now for the counting board to announce any results until eight o'clock when the polls close. Is there any reason why this has to be written into this bill in particular? I have no objection except that I wanted to point out that we start counting ballots at four o'clock but it is against the law for any election official to announce any results until after eight o'clock and I happened to have been involved in this election and I know very well there were no results announced until about ten minutes after eight."

Senator McCutcheon: "I will be very glad, Senator Bailey, to accept your suggested amendment. If the Secretary of the Senate can do this, strike the words 'not counted' and enter 'shall not be announced'."

Senator Woodall: "Now I am confused on this. If this is a machine which does its own tabulating and is supposed to be this big timesaver, why do you have to start counting what this machine is tabulating at four in the afternoon? Why do you have to bother with it, why don't you wait until the polls close at eight o'clock and simply read it. What is the need of starting to count on a machine in the middle of the afternoon?"

Senator Bailey: "In answer to Senator Woodall, the machine that you vote on does not do the counting. You have to take these punch cards to a machine for feeding into the machine and this had to be done in the PUD building in Vancouver. You have to go wherever they have punch card machines. The cards are taken over a little early so that at eight o'clock they do have an incomplete return for you."

The motion carried and the amendment as amended was adopted.

On motion of Senator McCutcheon, the following amendment to the committee amendment to page 1 was adopted:

On page 1, section 1, line 23, insert a new subsection (7) as follows:

"(7) Voting devices shall [be so prepared for use to provide column voting in separate party columns at partisan general elections] have a duplicate card system so one color punch card could be retained at the polling place while the other was counted"

On motion of Senator McCormack, the first committee amendment as amended was adopted.

The following amendment by Senator McCutcheon was not adopted:

On page 2, section 2, line 15, after "RCW 36.13.010]" and before the period insert "except class A and class AA counties"

On motion of Senator McCormack, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 440 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Senators McCormack, Foley and Williams demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Increasing pensions of widows of firemen and policemen.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 11, 1969.

SENATE BILL NO. 274, increase in widows and childrens pension of policemen and firemen killed in line of duty (reported by Committee on Labor and Social Security):

Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 2, section 1, beginning on line 11, after "or" strike all the matter down to and including "cause" on line 12 and insert "[in the event a fireman retired on account of service connected disability shall die from any cause] as a proximate result thereof"

Signed by: Senators Stortini, Chairman; Bailey, Connor, Durkan, Faulk, Herr, Metcalf, Ridder.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Stortini, the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Dore moved the rules be suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 274 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third.

MOTION

Senator Williams moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 274 be returned to the Committee on Labor and Social Security.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Williams yield to a question? Senator, I was a little disturbed over that committee amendment and I can see your point on it. It has been in the committee a long time and I wish you had raised this on second reading before it went to third reading and I wonder if you will withdraw your motion. I will then suspend the rules and revert back to second reading and hold it. We will have a chance to get together tomorrow. A lot of the language you mentioned you objected to is in the law now and you know what we are trying to accomplish here is just to give a full pension to widows whose husbands are killed in the line of duty and just affecting five or six men, that is what we want to do and I think we can. I think it will be a simple amendment and I wonder if you would withdraw your motion and put it on second reading and keep it there until such time as we can work out satisfactory language, at least agree on what we are trying to do.

"I think you raised a good point in one section. In some of the others I might disagree with you but I think on the committee amendment that came out of the Committee on Labor and Social Security, we have affected existing rights and we should take a look at it."

Senator Williams: "Senator Dore, there are five other things which are affecting existing rights or doing something to weaken their position, also I just don't think it can be done by one committee amendment. There are five other specific things. This matter of cutting off the widow's right when he would have become of retirement age is put in both for the policemen and the firemen. The right of giving this widow the right to cash in her rights and the rights of her children for $5,000 I believe is a very dangerous thing."

Senator Dore: "That is the law now, Senator."

Senator Williams: "Not for policemen."

Senator Dore: "If we can't work it out, if we can't agree on language, then I will be agreeable to put it back if we go back to second reading and see if we can't agree on what the language is and then if we can't, I will be perfectly agreeable to returning it to committee."

Senator Williams: "Senator, I just can't agree. I think this bill has got to be re-written and I don't think we can do that on the floor of the Senate. As I say, I have listed six major things that are wrong, most of the items I list are harmful to most firemen and most policemen."

Senator Dore: "Senator, in view of the fact that you have more votes than I on the floor right now, I am going to have to agree to your superior argument."

The motion by Senator Williams carried and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 274 was returned to the Committee on Labor and Social Security.

HOUSE BILL NO. 554, by Representatives Richardson, Brouillet, Kuehnle and Haussler (by departmental request):

Authorizing superintendent of public instruction to reduce required school year.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Ridder moved the adoption of the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 19, after "districts" and before "to" insert "for the 1968-1969 school year"

On page 2, section 2, line 5, after "districts" and before "to" insert "for the 1968-1969 school year"

Debate ensued.

The motion carried and the amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 554 as amended by the Senate was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator, as I understand it, this leaves the sole discretion in the hands of the superintendent of public instruction? Don't you think that the local boards should have some authority, at least should make application, should they not?"

Senator Ridder: "This is probably the way it should be done."

Senator Canfield: "Probably?"

Senator Ridder: "Right."

Senator Canfield: "But not in the law?"

Senator Ridder: "I do not see it written into the bill. I personally feel that there is a lack of trust here and it bothers me somewhat."

Senator Canfield: "I am astonished at that remark, Senator."

Senator Ridder: "This is a little inside one but truthfully I am a little astonished at your lack of trust. I don't think there is any case here where anybody is trying to pull anything over on anybody. We are interested in these school districts that lost time, here is a quote 'Spokane leads United States with depths of snow'. There are many districts that had a real rugged time and one of the problems that we face here is that we can make up five days in the Spring vacation."

Senator Canfield: "Pardon me, I was just asking a question."

Senator Ridder: "Maybe I wanted to give you a little more information."

Senator Canfield: "I just want to repeat the question. Don't you think that the local boards should make application for dispensation rather than leaving the sole authority in the hands of the superintendent?"

Senator Ridder: "Personally, Senator Canfield, I can see no other way that it can be handled but through the local boards. The local boards are going to have to ask the superintendent of public instruction for this. The superintendent of public instruction cannot go out and give anything to anybody. When there is a slight in a budget and you haven't made up your budget for the year, then the district must go to the superintendent of public instruction and ask for this emergency fund. There is no occasion in which the superintendent has the power to give anything to any school district of the state. The law is just not set up this way so the school districts will have to ask, as I see it.

"Of course I am not a school lawyer and I am sorry but I see nothing in the law which would allow the superintendent of public instruction to wilfully grant to anybody unless they ask for it. Does that answer your question?"

Senator Canfield: "No."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

SENATE BILL NO. 389, by Senators Andersen and Walgren:

Creating two degrees of criminal negligent homicide.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 4, 1969.

SENATE BILL NO. 389, creating two degrees of criminal negligent homicide (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 24, reinstate the deleted language ending with "imprisonment]." on line 26

On page 2, add a new section following section 3 as follows:

"Sec. 4. Section 138, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 and RCW 9.48.010 are each amended to read as follows:

"Homicide is the killing of a human being by the act, procurement or omission of another, death occurring within three years and a day, and is either (1) murder, (2) manslaughter, (3) excusable homicide or (4) justifiable homicide."

In line 6 of the title, after "46.61 RCW;" and before "and" insert "and amending section 138, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 and RCW 9.48.010;"

On motion of Senator Andersen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 389 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCormack: "Would Senator Andersen yield to a question? Senator, now for clarification, what would the penalty be if someone drove through a red light or a stop sign and killed somebody with an automobile? This is second degree negligent homicide?"

Senator Andersen: "Yes."

Senator McCormack: "What would the potential penalty be?"

Senator Andersen: "That is a gross misdemeanor which means up to imprisonment in the county jail for a year and up to a fine of $1,000. The maximums are maximums and the judge could still if he wanted to fine a person $50 but it does make it a more serious offense than it now would be and it would also be labeled negligent homicide, second degree negligent homicide."

Senator McCormack: "Thank you."

SENATE BILL NO. 512, by Senators Greive, Stortini, Uhlman, Connor, Bailey, Ridder, Dore, Keefe, Mardesich, Cooney and Walgren:

Enacting the Washington State Labor Relations Act.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 512 on second reading, the pending amendments by Senators Andersen, Dore and Faulk and the point of order as raised by Senator Greive the preceding day.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: Ruling on the point of order presented by Senator Greive.

The President finds that Senate Bill No. 512 is a measure which provides for procedures to settle labor disputes between employers and employees and provides for the method of selection of collective agents under certain circumstances.

The amendment proposed by Senators Andersen and Dore is an act pertaining to the duties and obligations of the superintendent of public instruction, certain vocational technical institutes and community colleges and the Washington State Board of Discrimination with regard to the competence of members of minority groups to perform certain trades.

The amendment, therefore, enlarges the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken.

APPEAL FROM RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

Senator Andersen: "Mr. President, it is with great reluctance but with sincere conviction that I must respectfully appeal the decision of the Chair."

President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.

Senator Andersen: "Mr. President, I was going to speak in connection with the appeal of the decision.

"As I mentioned, gentlemen, it is with great reluctance that I make this motion because, frankly, it is not something I have done before in my career in the legislature and it is with equally sincere conviction, however, that I do appeal the decision of the Chair because I think the bill that we have, this amendment, whether this amendment can be attached to this bill is a matter of very grave and very serious import to the state of Washington. I well recognize also, gentlemen, this is one of those things which, while we have a rule that provides for it, is perhaps considered something that isn't in good form to do. However, I do it under one of the rules that we have in the Senate which we have adopted and I appeal the decision of the Chair in the same spirit that I occasionally appeal decisions of the judges. While the judge may be my friend and I may understand the sincerity of his opinion, I still have the right to disagree with it for I appeal to the state supreme court and that is the basis on which my appeal is based here and the spirit in which it is being made.

"Now the rule that the Chair has ruled under states as follows in Rule 62; this was the rule that Senator Greive quoted in challenging the right of this amendment to go on this bill, Rule 62 of the Senate Rules reads 'No amendment to any bill shall be allowed which shall change the scope and object of the bill'.

"I believe that this amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and I would like to point out my reasons. I am referring to Senate Bill No. 512 here to the action of that bill where it sets out the purpose and the policy of the act and I would like to, if I may, refer to the purpose and policy of this act, and then refer to the purpose of the amendment by way of pointing out that as a factual matter this amendment does not enlarge the scope and object of this bill.

"The purpose and policy of Senate Bill No. 512 is, and I quote the bill 'to prescribe the legitimate rights of employees'. I point out that my amendment, that of myself and Senator Dore, relates directly to the right of a man to get a job without being discriminated against because of his race or his creed, a very fundamental right.

"Going back to Senate Bill No. 512, it states and I quote, 'One of its purposes and policies is, provide orderly and peaceful procedures for preventing interference by either with the legitimate rights of the other'. Now the procedures of protecting these rights is what the amendment relates to. In other words, Senator Dore's and my amendment refers to schools, refers to community colleges, sets up machinery to deal with the mechanics, the peaceful procedures if you will, of enforcing the rights of people to work. It is well and good to say a man shall not be discriminated against but you have to set up a set of workable procedures. That is what the amendment does and I don't see how that enlarges the scope and object of the bill at all. It fits right within it.

"Going back to Senate Bill No. 512 and I quote, 'The purpose of the bill and policy of the bill is to define and prescribe practices on the part of labor which are inimicable to the general welfare', and what my amendment is aimed at here is just this. I ask you this question and I believe the answer to the question shows what the amendment is aimed at and what the bill is aimed at. It is just this question and ask yourselves this question in connection with deciding this point.

"What right, what does it profit all the bills and all the laws we enact here prohibiting discrimination? We say you can't discriminate in housing, you can't discriminate in hiring and that kind of thing. What right have we given people if we haven't given them the right to join a union, if they have to belong to the union in order to work? How can a man buy a house if he can't get a job to earn the money to buy it? How can man partake the right to equal accommodations if he can't get a job and if he can't pay for those accommodations? So we put ourselves on the back in connection with these anti-discrimination bills that we have passed and we say we are doing great things, but this amendment as it ties into this bill would give exactly what it is we have to give before we are ever going to solve this racial crisis that is upon us. The right of a man to join a union if he is qualified, the right of a man to get a job if he is qualified without regard to his race, without regard to his color and once he can get a job and earn money, then he is going to be able to buy the house and he is going to be able to accede the rights of equal accommodations and the man is going to be able to lift himself out of his present state which as we all know is poverty in many cases and even worse.

"Now, I will refer again to Senate Bill No. 512. One of the purposes and policies of it is 'to protect the rights of individual employees in their relations with labor organizations'. I say that every single word of the amendment that Senator Dore and I have offered, every single word of that amendment fits directly within the stated purpose of this bill 'to protect the rights of individual employees in their relations with labor organizations'. Now the effect of the ruling of the President and I appreciate I am sure it is sincere and I am sure it was done with a lot of thought because he read an opinion, he obviously worked on since this point was raised yesterday but the effect of the ruling of the President is simply to sweep this whole problem under the rug without directly facing the matter on the merits.

"The problem won't go away, gentlemen, the problem should be debated. It should be debated on the merits of the amendment and I can think of no more proper and fitting place to debate the merits of this amendment than in connection with this bill which doesn't enlarge the scope and object of and on the floor of the Senate of the sovereign state of Washington right now, today because I strongly suspect that if this amendment doesn't go on this bill, it will never see the light of day. I don't know whether it will or whether it won't but it comes right down to whether we are willing to get right to the guts of what this racial problem is and it fits on this bill which is all encompassing. It directly fits on it and I think the President, in all due respects was wrong on his ruling and that we should not sweep it under the rug. We should debate it here on the floor today and let the chips fall where they may.

"I urge that you do overturn the ruling of the President on the question that was raised by the majority leader, Senator Greive. Thank you."

Senator Gissberg: "Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate and my respective counterpart, the minority whip, and as a majority whip of the Democratic side of the aisle, I must very vigorously concur with the opinion of the presiding officer in ruling that the amendment proposed does indeed enlarge the scope and object of the bill and the reasons that he set forth could not be more succinctly stated than as he did, namely, that this bill that is before us has to do only with labor relations between employer and an employee and the amendment goes far afield although it talks about discrimination. It goes far afield and gets involved in vocational education, superintendent of public instruction and our community colleges. Nothing could be clearer than the fact that this does indeed violate the constitutional concept of enlarging the scope and object of this bill.

"Further, and I disagree most violently here to the statement by Senator Andersen that this would be sweeping this very serious problem under the rug. That is not so. I am confident, Senator Andersen, or anyone on your side of the aisle or on this side of the aisle that we will subscribe to the principles set forth in this amendment. It is not for that reason that we oppose it in any way. The door is perfectly open for anyone in this Senate body to introduce a bill on this subject which should stand on its own merits and which when introduced I am sure will go sailing through this Senate very quickly. I am not sure how all the members of the other side of the aisle would vote at that time on this subject, however.

"Also, there is a similar bill in the House. The House can act on that bill in an orderly fashion and if it gets over here and when it gets over here we will then take it up at that time. We are not talking about parliamentary law and we are bound by certain rules and our very Constitution. The reason for those rules in the Constitution is to provide for order in the legislative process so that we can only consider matters which are properly supported in the bill and not to extend the bill by enlarging its scope and object. To allow this to be done would result in utter chaos and confusion insofar as the legislative process is concerned.

"I have the feeling that there is an attempt to interject partisanship into this matter. The lieutenant governor, of course, this had to be a very difficult ruling for him because I know that he subscribes personally to the concept embodied in this proposed amendment but he has to rule on the basis of the law, not the equity of the case and the equities can be heard at a later time, at a later place on the floor of this Senate or in the House."

Senator Greive: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, Senator Andersen said that he was embarking upon an office procedure and one that he had never been a part of and I might say that I have been a part of a number of those procedures, such as they are. I think there have been four or five in my time in the Senate and the man who made the motion on the only successful one and I was reversed to the Supreme court so in twenty-four years it has been done once, so we will start out from there.

"Now, let's look at what we are talking about here. In one bill we deal with labor unions and the right to organize, the right to live by a signed contract, the right to follow a procedure, honored as a result of the national labor relations act by other employers for a great number of years. In other words, this is nothing new. It is something that is standard and is pretty much a re-work of something which those who deal in interstate commerce deal with day in and day out. It provides for such things as the right to picket; it outlaws the so-called 'sweetheart contract' or a contract between a company union and an employer; it sets up certain rules for collective bargaining; it demands that they bargain collectively; it demands that they reduce it to writing and it attempts to encourage labor peace; in fact it requires that a labor union once recognized cannot strike pursuant to contract without a sixty day notice of the fact that they are going to terminate the contract and then only if there is a written contract only at the conclusion of the contract time that they must give a thirty day notice to the labor department before they strike. It provides no power whatsoever for mediation.

"Now, I will go into the details so you will understand what we are talking about. Let us compare for a moment what the other bill does because we are talking about scope and object here. We are not talking about whether you are for or against the bill. I remind you that Senator Dore, Senator Bailey and myself are presenting another amendment, one that has been distributed to everyone. It is on each of your desks which says it will be an unfair labor practice for an employer or a labor organization or its agent in regard to hiring or tenure of employment or in regard to the membership of the labor organization or in the operation of a hiring hall to discriminate with reference to race, creed or color, national origin, or religious belief. So we too appreciate the position which Senator Andersen says that he espouses.

"Now, the question then is are we or are we not in favor of members of the minority race having their right to a job, having their right to be a member of a union, the right to employment and to a living and a living wage. That is not the question and never has been the question. I will certainly put my record and the record of virtually every Democrat here against that of any Republican when it comes to that particular area of concern. I think that we have voted many times when some members of Senator Andersen's own party have felt reluctant to vote to be sure that we protected the rights of the minority. Indeed, I think the Democratic party itself consists primarily of minorities but that is not the question.

"The question is, is this particular bill within the scope and object of the original bill which was Senate Bill No. 512. I have just briefly explained to you what is in Senate Bill No. 512. There is more and I presume we will get into that later but you understand then it is between employer and employee, yes, but basically it is between labor unions and restrictions on labor unions and on employers as to what they do to each other when they are bargaining.

"Now the other bill, House Bill No. 472 which was attempted to be amended on this bill deals with an entirely different matter. Yes, it deals with the right of a man to have a job but no more so than the amendment which we suggest. Rather it deals with a complicated set of procedures which may be very good and as a practical matter I told many of the labor people yesterday that if such a bill were presented, at least offhand without any further analysis, I probably would vote for it and I thought that some of them weren't happy, I will grant you that but my feeling was that some of them were, but that is their problem.

"I feel clearly that this bill deals with such things as junior colleges and the man who is the director of the system of junior colleges; it deals with a board which means the Washington state board against discrimination; it deals with the department of labor and industries. None of these particular people figure very prominently in this bill which is to be administered by an independent board of five people, appointed for this particular purpose. So it deals with different people, with different characters in a play, so to speak if you want to look at it that way.

"Then what does it deal with? It deals with an arrangement for these people to go to community colleges. It gives them certain rights to the community college which are not open to others. In other words, it gives them the authority of preferential right while that may or may not be right, conceivably if you are downtrodden, if you belong to a race which does not get these opportunities maybe you are entitled to a better right but it does give them a right in excess of what other people have.

"Then it says once they are educated, they shall automatically be a member of a labor union. It doesn't speak of apprenticeship, it doesn't go in for the time honored tradition that they should stand their chance and be responsible to that union as other members. Now, that may or may not be correct so you see we are not really arguing the principle that this really is a complicated set of procedures dealing with junior colleges, dealing with education, dealing with the rights of automatically telling people they must accept somebody who has a certain education who may or may not have the training necessary to carry out those responsibilities. Certainly any reasonable person and I am sure that everyone on this floor is reasonable, or any fairminded person would say that this is not the thing, a procedure which deals with employer and employee deals with written contracts which deals with the right to strike, picket, the right to force recognition of the union. They are vastly different situations. All the other rights which are guaranteed under Senate Bill No. 512 which we are debating, all of the other rights are listed very briefly. In other words, we make our effort. For instance, let's take any of them when you are dealing with it. Just at random, under section 12, there is a provision here that it is an unfair labor practice to discharge or otherwise discriminate against an employee because he has filed charges or given testimony under the act, or to refuse to bargain collectively with a representative or employee subject to the provisions of the act. In other words, I only cite those to briefly show that there are some provisions. They are short. They are succinct.

"Now, I again come back to the amendment which we are offering. It shall be an unfair labor practice for an employer or for a labor organization in regard to hiring or tenure or employment in regard to membership of a labor organization or in the operation of a hiring hall to discriminate with reference to race, color, creed, national origin or religious belief. We have set out in the same manner as the other labor practices are set out; short, succinct description of what the unfair labor practice is. We have made arrangements that it, of course, would be enforced by the same board as the other labor practices and certainly have stayed within the provisions of the act which I again remind you is a far cry from setting up a system of junior colleges, setting up a three-part deal where people who are not involved become involved, namely, the superintendent of public instruction, or the director of the department of labor and industries, also the system of community colleges where we deal with student training and with a lot of other matters.

"Now speaking directly to the decision made by the President of the Senate, he has taken these two equities, he has not attempted to become involved one way or another in the right or wrong but has said in effect I have compared the two bills and they are not the same matter. He said 'I have had a chance overnight to carefully examine the provisions and they don't deal with the same provisions. They are not one and the same'.

"With that in mind, he has ruled the only way that it is possible for him to rule. He has ruled that this is not germane. That certainly it is entitled to a hearing as an act independent and on its own. Certainly it is a matter of weighted discussion which we should handle but it is not germane. It is not within the scope and object of this particular measure and as it is not within the scope and object, he so ruled and I urge all of you to be reasonable, fair and leave politics out and to face up to the decision and sustain the Chair."

Senator Pritchard demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Peterson (Ted), Bailey, Greive, Foley, Holman and Connor.

Senators Keefe, Durkan and Gissberg demanded a Call of the Senate.

A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senators Ryder, Uhlman and Washington, who had previously been excused. On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

Senators Gissberg, Cooney and Sandison demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Andersen: "Point of order. The previous question to what? Would the President explain?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Senator Gissberg raised a demand for the previous question on the debate on your appealing the decision of the Chair."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll of the Senate and the ruling of the Chair was sustained by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 20; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Connor, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Knoblauch, McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Ridder, Sandison, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Walgren, Wilson—26.

Voting nay: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Elicker, Faulk, Guess, Holman, Huntley, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McDougall, Marquardt, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Twigg, Williams, Woodall—20.

Excused: Senators Ryder, Uhlman, Washington—3.

The amendments to Senate Bill No. 512 by Senators Andersen, Dore and Faulk were ruled out of order.

Senator Stender moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 3, line 7, strike beginning with line 7 all material to line 21 to and including "four years." and insert the following: "The members chosen to serve on the Board shall have been residents of the State of Washington for at least three years. Board members shall be selected by virtue of their experience or education in Labor-Management Affairs with at least two members to be appointed who have had experience in labor-management affairs as a Representative of an employee organization. The Governor shall designate the member to serve as Chairman of the Board. The term of office shall be for five years. The initial term of each member shall be staggered from one year to five years with the term of each member initially to be chosen by a drawing."

Debate ensued.

Senator Greive moved the adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Stender:

After "employee organization" add "these two members shall be appointed from a list of not less than six (6) names submitted to the Governor by the Washington State labor council: PROVIDED, That the Washington State labor council has considered nominees submitted by other labor organization."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Greive yield? Senator, as I understand your amendment, the only people who could ever be the labor representatives would be the ones that were cleared through Joe Davis' group. Is that correct?"

Senator Greive: "That is only partially correct. If you will read the bill itself, I took my language directly from lines 11, 12 and 13 of page 3 which says 'provided that the Washington State labor council has considered nominees submitted by other organizations' which, in effect would say that if they had not considered or if there was some legitimate beef on the part of the longshoremen, the teamsters or some other organization, the Governor would then be free to make other appointments."

Senator Woodall: "I don't believe he answered that. The way it reads to me is that the Governor has to pick them from the list of six names given by this labor council which means that all they have to do is to say to the Teamsters and some of the rest 'yes, we considered yours but we decided to give our own list of names'. When they have done that they have complied with it and your amendment would virtually close out any consideration of any of these people, such as Teamsters."

"Now it seems to me that your amendment is too restricting and doesn't accomplish the broader base which Senator Stender is trying to achieve by his. You have given the total nominating power over to one segment of labor."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gissberg, the amendment by Senator Stender and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Greive were laid upon the table on a rising vote.

Senator Dore moved the adoption of the following amendment by Senators Dore, Greive and Bailey:

On page 7, line 29, following section 13 add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. It shall be an unfair labor practice for an employer or for a labor organization or its agents in regard to hiring or tenure of employment or in regard to membership of a labor organization to discriminate with reference to race, creed, color, national origin, or religious belief."

Renumber the following sections.

Senator Guess moved the adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Dore, Greive and Bailey:

On page 7, section 14 of the Senators Dore, Greive and Bailey amendment:

On page 7, section 14, before the period insert "or to maintain, operate or administer a hiring hall, or any arrangement for the referral of employees to employers for employment, in any manner which discriminates under the provisions of any law against applicants for employment or registrants for referral for employment: PROVIDED, That the employer shall not be responsible for the maintenance, operation or administration of the hiring hall or arrangement for the referral of employees for employment, notwithstanding that the hiring hall or referral arrangement may be incorporated in a collective bargaining agreement between the labor organization and the employer."

Senator Gissberg moved that the amendment by Senator Guess to the amendment by Senators Dore, Greive and Bailey be laid upon the table.

With the consent of the Senate, Senator Guess withdrew his amendment.

On motion of Senator Elicker, the following amendment by Senators Elicker and Lewis (Brian) to the amendment by Senators Dore, Greive and Bailey was adopted:

On line 4 of the new section 14, after "to" and before "a", strike "membership of" and insert "admission to or membership in"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pritchard: "I wonder if I could ask Senator Greive a question? Senator, if I understand what you said, you are willing to author with Senator Andersen what he was trying to do with his amendment, is that right in the form of a bill?"

Senator Greive: "If you are careful to word it that way. I pointed out in my original talk that there were some fundamental problems pointed out to me which mechanically made it almost impossible to work. I don't know if that is true or not and I would have to study those but if that is the intent of what he wanted to do, I am for it."

Senator Pritchard: "All right, then in that case as majority leader you will throw your weight and support and do everything you can here so it becomes law and not just talk."

Senator Greive: "You, Senator, know better than to start working with the question of majority leader when I haven't talked to any of the other members. I am speaking for myself and myself alone."

Senator Pritchard: "I was not trying to badger the majority leader, but I do think that as long as he carries the title of majority leader it is a fair question from this side of the aisle to ask him a question as to what his intentions are on the bill and if he says he is for it, I feel that he carries some weight and I will not quibble with you how much weight you carry, if you can get it before the body, then I will be pleased."

The motion carried and the amendment as amended was adopted.

On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 6, section 13, line 33, after "threaten" insert a comma.

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 512 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator, this bill was out on the floor before and we sent it to the Committee on Ways and Means for a fiscal note which we finally got. My question to you is this, is agriculture still in this bill as it now sits before us?"

Senator Greive: "I don't think agriculture is in as agriculture but I think that it covers all of the employees whether they be agricultural or nonagricultural."

Senator Atwood: "It is not amended out by any committee action?"

Senator Greive: "No, no amendment that I know of that deals with agriculture one way or another. They gave them the same treatment as to whether they work for the local hamburger stand or the local hardware store or whether they work on a farm."

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Would Senator Greive yield to another question? Senator, I am not a labor lawyer so I am not quite able to understand some of the language of new section 13 which defines what shall be an unfair labor practice. Could you advise me if it would be an unfair labor practice, under this bill, to engage in a secondary boycott?"

Senator Greive: "It is my understanding that it would be and I call your attention especially to line 29 of subsection 4. One of the unfair labor practices is to engage in or to induce or encourage any individuals to encourage a strike or upheaval, in the course of his employment, to use, manufacture, process, transport or otherwise handle any goods, articles, materials or commodities or perform any service."

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Greive further yield to a question? Senator Greive, under this bill as now written, will they be able to picket the case of perishable farm commodities?"

Senator Greive: "You don't give me enough information to intelligently answer. I suppose anything that would protect, if you had a written contract they couldn't picket if it were a question of recognition. They couldn't picket if it were a jurisdictional dispute. In fact, there would be far fewer instances of places they could picket than as things presently stand."

"Now to say that there isn't some rhetorical point at which they could picket after the contract has run out, after they have given sixty days notice, after they have arbitrated and tried to work the thing out, I would say 'yes' they could picket but you have to weigh the equities and the equities are very much for less picketing here than as things presently stand."

Senator Woodall: "Well, what is the answer to my question? Can they picket in the case of perishable farm commodities?"

Senator Greive: "I said in comparing the situation as it presently exists, they can picket in far fewer instances, theoretically 'yes'."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 512, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 18; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Connor, Cooney, Day, Dore, Durkan, Elicker, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Marquardt, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Sandison, Stortini, Talley, Walgren—28.

"Our Father, we pray this day for all our citizens who are responsible for our welfare, our health and our security. May Thy Holy Spirit guide our legislators, our Governor and Lieutenant Governor, that they may give heed only to that which will promote good government; and to all others in positions of responsibility give such a sense of duty that no self-interest shall turn them from it.

"We also remember before Thee all those who are employed in the service of the state, and more especially those whose work is done here during the present session, for we are all members one of another and all our labor is honorable in Thy sight.

"Help us each one to do well the work we have to do, for the good of all. We make our prayer in the name and for the sake of Him who came among us as a servant . . . not to be ministered unto, but to minister and give his life for us—even Jesus, our Saviour. Amen."

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1969-EX-7

By Senators Metcalf, Herr, Day, Gissberg, Canfield, Donohue, Odegaard, Lewis (Harry), Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Guess, Matson and Twigg:

WHEREAS, The increasingly complex technology and the growing problems in our society have pointed up the ever-increasing need for and importance of higher education; and

WHEREAS, The legislature has appropriated large amounts of money to the support of higher education, resulting in an average subsidy of approximately $1,500 per student per year (not considering the outlay for capital construction); and

WHEREAS, The legislative responsibility extends beyond merely providing the money, and includes insuring that the money is successfully spent in guaranteeing conditions which enable students in our state to pursue their education at our institutions of higher learning without undue interference;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate commends the administrations and the majority of students at our institutions of higher learning for their efforts and their responsibility in avoiding the violence and tragedy which have struck other campuses of our nation, interfered with the education of students, and resulted in damage to buildings, and waste of taxpayers' money, and that we heartily and specifically commend University of Washington President Dr. Charles Odegaard for his handling of the problems caused by a vocal and militant minority at that institution; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That it is the intent of the Senate that the administrations of our institutions of higher learning maintain this fine record so that the vital functions of these institutions continue without interruption; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That it is the intent of the Senate that the administrations of the institutions of higher education, including community colleges, in a legal and constitutional manner, provide for expulsion of students and dismissal of faculty members who, during a time of riot or severe campus unrest, actively interfere with the education of other students, or with the normal operations of any tax supported institution of higher education, and that copies of this resolution be sent to the presidents and boards of trustees or regents of our state colleges, universities, and community colleges.

Senator Metcalf moved the adoption of the resolution.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 26, after "expulsion" and before "of" insert "or discipline"

The motion carried and the resolution as amended was adopted.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Durkan: "Point of personal privilege."

The President: "The Senator will speak on a point of personal privilege."

Senator Durkan: "I think most of the members of the Senate would be interested in the House's action on the capital construction budget and I would just like to briefly read it to you. What they have really done is restore the Evergreen cut which they say they have added $225,000 to The Evergreen College which started out with nothing and now has over $800,000. More important and maybe not too important to many of the members on the other side of the aisle but to the members on this side of the aisle, they deleted Mayfield State Park, they deleted Steamboat Rock State Park, they took care of Pearygin State Park. Well here is one Senator McDougall, I guess they made a mistake, they took care of Lake Chelan State Park and they also did something which was probably as far as we are concerned, deleted the remodeling of Edgecliff Sanitarium in Spokane. So, it would appear from our standpoint, that it may be a long conference, Senator Atwood, a long conference."

Senator Atwood: "Point of personal privilege."

The President: "The Senator will speak upon his point of personal privilege."

Senator Atwood: "I recall Senator Durkan's words to me when I complained bitterly about the ratio of the parks that were contained in that particular bill and he informed me the House would take care of it and they have."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, Senate Bill No. 439 and Senate Bill No. 513 were made special orders of business immediately after lunch today.

SENATE BILL NO. 248, by Senators Sandison and Ryder (by Advisory Council on Public Higher Education request):

Prescribing separate penalties for narcotic drug violations involving cannabis.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, Substitute Senate Bill No. 248 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 248 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 248 was advanced to third reading.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Uhlman yield to a question? Senator Uhlman, I did not know this was a substitute bill. May I ask you to look on page 3, line 19? I understood you to say that the first offense would be a misdemeanor under this bill. Here as I read it, it still makes it a felony."

Senator Uhlman: "Senator, if you will note that whole section is existing law and if you will note the exclusion just above that, this applies to the harder drugs that I was speaking about."

Senator Canfield: "I see. Thank you."

Senator Day: "Would Senator Andersen yield? Senator, if I understood your remarks correctly on this bill, you are saying that it is going to be an improvement in the method of handling as far as the court is concerned but it is going to hamper the arresting officer in his duties, is that correct?"

Senator Andersen: "Exactly, I believe that if Senate Bill No. 387 as amended which is in Rules Committee comes out, and Senator Peterson (Ted) a member of the committee has assured me he will try to get the bill out, then I think the two bills together make good sense but if this bill should happen to go through all by itself, the right to make an arrest on the part of the police officer in narcotics cases is severely hampered and this is not just a theoretical something. This is what the police officers that are in the business tell me and I believe this actually tightens up the law because it means the prosecutors will prosecute when they otherwise abstain from prosecuting. It gives the judge leeway to handle the case as far as the first offender and the marijuana offense is concerned and this flaw which would otherwise be a fatal flaw can be corrected if we bring out this other bill and pass it."

Senator Andersen: "Would Senator Uhlman yield to a question? Senator, I wonder if Senator Durkan's expression really coincides with mine. I get apprehensive about passing a bill through that really has to be hooked to another bill as this was in the Judiciary Committee. I wonder if we could not put this over one day on the calendar to see what happens to Senate Bill No. 387 which I do believe actually is a companion bill and might change, if the other bill does not go through, the vote on this particular bill?"

Senator Uhlman: "Senator Andersen, I have no objection to holding this over a day as long as it stays on the calendar on third reading but this measure is an important bill that should stand on its own merits. It really deals with the very heart of our law insofar as it deals with the basic confidence of the public in the laws. Here we have a situation of a lesser offense for a greater crime and this is what this bill is attempting to ameliorate and frankly I think this bill ought to be considered on its own merits. As long as it does retain its place on the third reading calendar for tomorrow. I would have no objection."

MOTION

Senator Durkan moved that Senate Bill No. 248 hold its place on the third reading calendar for Monday, March 24, 1969.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Andersen yield to a question? Senator, in view of your concern and I think I share it, could not you amend this bill to cover the concern that you have with regard to the police powers covering this kind of an amendment?"

Senator Andersen: "Actually, Senator Stender, I think it would be difficult. The other bill relates to powers of arrest but I suggest if we do hold the matter over for the Monday calendar and Senate Bill No. 387 is objectionable to the Rules Committee, that is fine then we will try to do something with this one. The point was I think that the two bills went out of the Judiciary Committee side by side and they ought to have at least a chance to come to the floor and see what happens and then if Senate Bill No. 387 does not come out, we will have to try and do something Monday.

Senator Stender: "It just occurred to me, Senator, that the two bills are seemingly so close together that they could just as well have been one bill rather than two."

Senator Andersen: "They started out in different places, Senator Stender."

Senator McCutcheon: "Would Senator Atwood yield to a question? Senator, you voiced some grave differences of opinion. I would like to hear more of your specific reasoning about the fact of the arrest. They have to have probable cause to go to that or what?"

Senator Atwood: "Yes, it does, because the bill that is not before us, Senate Bill No. 387, introduces a new concept as far as the power . . ."

Senator McCutcheon: "You say the bill is not before us?"

Senator Atwood: "No, Senate Bill No. 387 is the bill that Senator Stender was speaking about. Senate Bill No. 248 deals with the violation and penalties of narcotic drugs and making specific provisions for marijuana."

Senator McCutcheon: "Now, you object to that also?"

Senator Atwood: "No, I do not, I think this bill, Senate Bill No. 248 stands on its own merits and should not, in my opinion, be connected with Senate Bill No. 387 because that bill is a new concept as far as the law of arrest in this state is concerned."

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Andersen yield? Senator, is it possible constitutionally to permit the police officer to make an arrest for a gross misdemeanor and confine it to marijuana solely. Would that be a reasonable statement?"

"It seems like you have your camel with its head under the tent trying on one hand to talk about marijuana but then you are talking about an entirely new concept upon which I share the opinion of Senator Atwood. Constitutionally, could we bring your bill out or perhaps even amend this bill to provide that excepting marijuana out in the cases where arrest can be made by a police officer in gross misdemeanor cases?"

Senator Andersen: "Senator, if it came out on second reading and the feeling of the body was that we should knock everything out except just the marijuana out of a search warrant, then I suppose it could be done. I do not know what the constitutional effect would be but the concept is not a new concept, it is returning to an old concept. In fairness, Senator Dore, it would be hard to bargain on this and I would not want to abandon my bill without a fight."

Senator Dore: "No, I understand that but you have raised a problem and I think if it constitutionally could be written so it would permit police officers to arrest for gross misdemeanors where marijuana is involved, it would take care of the problem of this bill and not go into the whole new orbit that Senator Atwood mentioned."

Senator Andersen: "It would do that but I would not want to agree that it be shaved off without having a chance to defend it on second reading if it came out. I think the thing to do is bring it out, put it on second reading Monday and then if the majority of the body wants to trim it down to that, do that. If they do not want to, pass it along with the other bill."

The motion carried and Senate Bill No. 248 was ordered to hold its place on third reading calendar for Monday, March 24, 1969.

At 12:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3.

"Section 51.16.080, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.16.080 are each amended to read as follows:

"If a single establishment or work comprises several occupations listed in chapter 51.20 in different risk classes, the premium shall be computed according to [the workmen hours of] each occupation or, in the discretion of the director, a single rate of premium may be charged for the entire establishment based upon the rate of premium of the occupation reporting the largest number of workmen hours.

"Sec. 4. Section 51.16.110, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.16.110 are each amended to read as follows:

"Every employer who shall enter into any business, or who shall resume operations in any work or plant after the final adjustment of his payroll in connection therewith, shall, before so commencing or resuming operations, as the case may be, notify the director of such fact, accompanying such notification with a cash deposit in a sum equal to the premiums on the estimate of his payroll and workmen hours for the first three calendar months of his proposed operations which shall remain on deposit subject to the other provisions of this section.

"The director may, in his discretion and in lieu of such deposit, accept a bond, in an amount which he deems sufficient, to secure payment of premiums due or to become due to the accident fund and medical aid fund. The deposit or posting of a bond shall not relieve the employer from paying premiums to the accident fund and medical aid fund [based on his actual workmen hours] as provided by RCW [51.16.010 and] 51.16.060.

"Should the employer acquire sufficient assets to assure the payment of premiums due to the accident fund and the medical aid fund the director may, in his discretion, refund the deposit or cancel the bond.

"If the employer ceases to be an employer under RCW 51.08.070, the director shall, upon receipt of all payments due the accident fund and medical aid fund, [based on the actual workmen hours.] refund to the employer all deposits remaining to the employer's credit and shall cancel any bond given under this section.

"Every such employer shall pay the full basic rate until such time as an experience rating in excess of a one, two, three, or four year period may be computed as of a first succeeding July 1st date [, which said cost experience shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of RCW 51.16.020, and shall be liable for a premium of at least two dollars per month irrespective of the amount of his workmen hours reported during said month to the department]: PROVIDED, That where an employer is now or has prior to January 1, 1958, been covered under the provisions of this title for a period of at least two years and subsequent thereto the legal structure of such employer changes by way of incorporation, disincorporation, merger, consolidation, transfer of stock ownership, or by any other means, the director may continue, increase, or decrease such experience rating which existed prior to such change in the employer's legal structure.

"Whenever there shall occur an accident in which three or more employees are fatally injured or receive injuries consisting of loss of both eyes or sight thereof, or loss of both hands or use thereof, or loss of both feet or use thereof, or loss of one hand and one foot or use thereof, the amount of total costs other than medical aid costs arising out of this accident that shall be charged to the proper class of the accident fund and to the account of the employer, shall be twice the average cost of pension claims [chargeable under RCW 51.16.020], and the balance of costs arising out of the accident shall be charged against and defrayed by the catastrophe injury account.

"Sec. 6. Section 51.32.090, chapter 23, Laws of 1961, as last amended by section 3, chapter 122, Laws of 1965 ex. sess., and RCW 51.32.090 are each amended to read as follows:

"[(1) When the total disability is only temporary, the schedule of payments contained in subdivisions (1), (2), (3) and (4) of RCW 51.32.060 shall apply, so long as the total disability continues.

"(2) But if the injured workman has a wife or husband and has no child or, being a widow or widower, with one or more children, the compensation for the case during such period of time as the total temporary disability continues, shall be per month as follows, to wit: (a) Injured workman with wife or invalid husband and no child, two hundred fifteen dollars; injured workman with able bodied husband, but no child, one hundred seventy-five dollars; injured workman with wife or invalid husband and one child, or being a widow or widower and having one child, two hundred fifty-two dollars; (b) injured workman with able bodied husband and one child, two hundred twelve dollars; (c) injured workman with wife or invalid husband and two children, or being a widow or widower and having two children, two hundred eighty-three dollars; (d) injured workman with able bodied husband and two children, two hundred forty-three dollars; and twenty-three dollars for each additional child, but the total monthly payments shall not exceed three hundred fifty-two dollars to an injured workman with a wife or invalid husband, or being a widow or widower, and having children, and shall not exceed three hundred twelve dollars to an injured workman with children and having an able bodied husband and any deficit shall be deducted proportionately among the beneficiaries.

"Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured workman as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.]

"When the total disability is only temporary, the workman shall receive monthly during the period of such disability:

"(1) If unmarried at the time of injury, sixty percent of wages, but not less than one hundred eighty dollars nor more than two hundred eighty dollars per month.

"(2) If married sixty-five percent of wages, but not less than one hundred ninety-five dollars nor more than three hundred dollars per month.

"(3) If married with one child, sixty-seven percent of wages, but not less than two hundred ten dollars nor more than three hundred twenty dollars per month.

"(4) If married with two children, sixty-nine percent of wages, but not less than two hundred twenty-five dollars nor more than three hundred forty dollars per month.

"(5) If married with three children, seventy-one percent of wages, but not less than two hundred forty dollars nor more than three hundred sixty dollars per month.

"(6) If married with four children, seventy-three percent of wages, but not less than two hundred fifty-five dollars per month nor more than three hundred eighty dollars per month.

"(7) If married with five or more children, seventy-five percent of wages, but not less than two hundred seventy dollars nor more than four hundred dollars per month.

"(8) If unmarried at the time of injury with one child, sixty-two percent of wages, but not less than one hundred ninety-five dollars nor more than three hundred dollars per month.

"(9) If unmarried at the time of injury with two children, sixty-four percent of wages, but not less than two hundred ten dollars nor more than three hundred twenty dollars per month.

"(10) If unmarried at the time of injury with three children, sixty-six percent of wages, but not less than two hundred twenty-five dollars nor more than three hundred forty dollars per month.

"(11) If unmarried at the time of injury with four children, sixty-eight percent of wages, but not less than two hundred forty dollars nor more than three hundred sixty dollars per month.

"(12) If unmarried at the time of injury with five or more children, seventy percent of wages, but not less than two hundred fifty-five dollars nor more than three hundred eighty dollars per month.

"(13) For any period of time where both husband and wife are entitled to compensation as temporarily and totally disabled workmen, only that spouse having the higher wages of the two shall be entitled to claim their child or children for compensation purposes.

"(14) For purposes of this section, the monthly wages the workman was receiving from all employment at the time of injury shall be the basis upon which compensation is computed. In cases where the workman's wages are not fixed by the month, they shall be determined by multiplying the daily wage the workman was receiving at the time of injury:

"(a) By five, if the workman was normally employed one day a week;

"(b) By nine, if the workman was normally employed two days a week;

"(c) By thirteen if the workman was normally employed three days a week;

"(d) By eighteen, if the workman was normally employed four days a week;

"(e) By twenty-two, if the workman was normally employed five days a week;

"(f) By twenty-six, if the workman was normally employed six days a week;

"(g) By thirty, if the workman was normally employed seven days a week;

"The term 'wages' shall include the reasonable value of board, housing, fuel or any other consideration of like nature received from the employer, but shall not include overtime pay, tips or gratuities. The daily wage shall be taken to be eight times the hourly wage unless the workman is normally employed for less than eight hours.

"(15) For purposes of this section, the monthly wages of a workman who works on a seasonal basis shall not exceed one-twelfth of the actual wages received by such workman in the twelve-month period immediately preceding the injury.

"(16) In cases where a wage has not been fixed or cannot reasonably and fairly be determined, the monthly wage shall be computed on the basis of the usual wage paid other employees engaged in like or similar occupations where the wages are fixed.

"[(3)] (17) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the workman, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable out of the accident fund unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent.

"[(4)] (18) No workman shall receive compensation out of the accident fund for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his disability shall continue for a period of [thirty] fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury.

"[(5)] (19) Should a workman suffer a temporary total disability and should his employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him the wages which he was earning at the time of such injury, such injured workman shall not receive any payment provided in [subsection (1) of] this section from the accident fund during the period his employer shall so pay such wages.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 51.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"The department shall classify all occupations or industries in accordance with their degree of hazard and fix therefor basic rates of premium which shall be the lowest necessary to maintain actuarial solvency of the accident and medical aid funds in accordance with recognized insurance principles. The department shall formulate and adopt rules and regulations governing the method of premium calculation and collection and providing for a rating system consistent with recognized principles of workmen's compensation insurance, designed to stimulate and encourage accident prevention and to facilitate collection. The department may annually, or at such other times as it deems necessary to maintain solvency of the funds, readjust rates in accordance with the rating system, to become effective on such dates as the department may designate.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 51.16.010, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.16.010; section 51.16.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961, as amended by section 6, chapter 274, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.16.020; section 51.16.030, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.16.030 are each repealed."

On motion of Senator Greive, the following amendment to the title by Senators Stender, Atwood and Greive was adopted:

On line 6 of the title, following "RCW 51.32.060" strike the period and insert "and amending section 51.16.080, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.16.080; amending section 51.16.110, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.16.110; amending section 51.16.130, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.16.130; amending section 51.32.090, chapter 23, Laws of 1961, as last amended by section 3, chapter 122, Laws of 1965 ex. sess., and RCW 51.32.090; adding a new section to chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and to chapter

51.16 RCW; repealing section 51.16.010, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.16.010; repealing section 51.16.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961, as amended by section 6, chapter 274, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.16.020; and repealing section 51.16.030, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.16.030."

On motion of Senator Stortini, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 439 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Would Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator Greive, in the settlement now of a claim or a certain type of case, does this money automatically come from the department or does legal talent step in and is there money removed from the monies that the workman should have or does it go directly to him without any cost in between at all?"

Senator Greive: "It depends on which of these bills you are speaking on. If you are speaking of Senate Bill No. 393, the first one that we were discussing, this is time loss and time loss comes to him directly. There are no ifs, ands or buts and there is no one who takes any part of that. It is necessary for food and lodging for the injured workman and his family.

"Now, if you are speaking to the other half of the bill, Senate Bill No. 439, that depends. If the department pays him in the original instance and he is given his compensation in the amount which is fair, etc., then there is no problem. He receives the money.

"Let us assume, however, that he is turned down for one reason or another and the department felt that this death was not the fault, or permanent injury was not the fault on the job or that it was incurred somewhere else or for a variety of other reasons which I don't feel are necessary to discuss and he has to appeal. Under those circumstances of course, he hires a lawyer and the lawyer tries a law suit, in effect, he tries a law suit first before a claims examiner and then if he is not satisfied, they take this record, no new evidence is introduced but they take a dead record, by that I mean a transcript and then that transcript is read to the superior court jury and the superior court jury makes the determination.

"Under those circumstances, of course, the lawyer has to be hired and he is entitled to receive a fee. The fee however is regulated by the statutes and it can be no more than thirty percent of what the workman receives. You understand without the lawyer and the appeal, he probably wouldn't get anything and so he is usually very happy to pay it if they win and they like contingency because if they lose, which is quite frequent in this particular area because it has already been reviewed several times and investigated by the department and turned down, the workman doesn't owe anything."

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator Greive yield? Senator Greive, for the record, Senate Bill No. 439 and Senate Bill No. 513 merely provide for increases in these cases that will come from now on. They do not provide for prior injuries or prior cases, is that right?"

Senator Greive: "That is right."

SENATE BILL NO. 513, by Senators Greive, Stender and Stortini:
Providing workmen's compensation for permanent partial disability.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Stortini, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 513 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator, I think you might have mixed up your figures on this cost of living increase between the time we adopted this bill in 1965 and 1969. I think it is about seven percent in that period of time. It was longer ago than that that we had increased the benefits on workmen's compensation so I think your figure was right there. But now I would like to ask, is it just the change and this is all that it removes, the eighty-five percent, and that is the only thing this bill does?"

Senator Greive: "Yes, Senator Guess, if you will be good enough to look on page 3, lines 10 and 11 you will see that disability but not in any case to exceed the sum of and the words $12,750 are marked out, $15,000 are added in and if you will look above that in lines 5 and 6, but you have to read both of them to make sense, 'compensation for other permanent partial disability not involved in amputation shall be' and then the words are crossed out and 'amount equal to eighty-five percent of the proportion which the extent of such disability' and those are the only changes made in the bill."

Senator Guess: "Thank you very much."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 513, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Elicker, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Holman, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McCormack, McCutcheon, McDougall, Mardesich, Marquardt, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegard, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ridder, Sandison, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Walgren, Washington, Williams, Wilson—46.

Excused: Senators Peterson (Lowell), Ryder, Woodall—3.

SENATE BILL NO. 513, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 439 and Senate Bill No. 513 were ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

SENATE BILL NO. 1, by Senators Durkan and Uhlman:

Increasing property tax exemption for senior citizens from fifty dollars to one hundred fifty dollars.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 18, 1969.

SENATE BILL NO. 1, increasing property tax exemption for senior citizens from fifty dollars to one hundred fifty dollars (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 9, after "one hundred" and before "dollars" strike "fifty" and insert "[fifty]"

On page 1, section 1, line 26, after "been" and before "years" strike "sixty-five" and insert "[sixty-five] sixty-two"

On page 2, section 1, line 5, after "claimed" and before the period, insert ", or must have been, at the time of filing, totally disabled and as such retired under a public or private retirement plan"

On page 2, section 1, line 19, after "thousand" and before "dollars" insert "five hundred"

On page 2, add new sections following section 1 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is the purpose of RCW 84.36.128 and 84.36.129 to provide a measure of tax relief to persons upon fixed incomes, but not to increase the financial burden of local governments as a result thereof. The state shall reimburse each taxing district for the amount of revenue lost to such district as a result of the tax exemptions provided for in RCW 84.36.128 and 84.36.129.

"The state treasurer shall periodically distribute to each county treasurer, from such moneys as are appropriated therefor, such sums as are certified to him from the state department of revenue to be necessary to reimburse such taxing districts for any such loss in revenue.

"Upon receipt of such funds from the state treasurer each county treasurer shall reimburse to each taxing district or portion thereof within the county, those moneys lost to such taxing district as a result of exemptions claimed under RCW 84.36.128 and 84.36.129.

"The department of revenue shall prescribe such rules of procedure as may be necessary to assure that such reimbursements are made in an accurate and systematic manner.

" 'Taxing district' as used in this section means any county, city, town, district, or other municipal corporation or political subdivision.

"Sec. 3. Section 84.69.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.69.020 are each amended to read as follows:

"On order of the board of county commissioners ad valorem taxes paid before or after delinquency shall be refunded if they were:

"(1) Paid more than once; or

"(2) Paid as a result of manifest error in description; or

"(3) Paid as a result of a clerical error in extending the tax rolls; or

"(4) Paid as a result of other clerical errors in listing property; or

"(5) Paid with respect to improvements which did not exist on assessment date; or

"(6) Paid under levies or statutes adjudicated to be illegal or unconstitutional; or

"(7) Paid as a result of mistake, inadvertence, or lack of knowledge by any person exempted from paying real property taxes or a portion thereof pursuant to RCW 84.36.128.

"No refunds under the provisions of this section shall be made because of any error in determining the valuation of property."

Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Bailey, Connor, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Gissberg, Greive, McCormack, Mardesich, Marquardt, Odegaard, Ridder, Stortini, Uhlman, Walgren, Washington, Williams, Wilson.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the committee amendments to page 1 and page 2, section 1, line 5 and line 19 were adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator, when you are talking about the impact, this property tax money, is this an impact on the county?"

Senator Durkan: "There is an amendment in here whereby the state picks up the total bill."

Senator Stender: "And reimburse the counties?"

Senator Durkan: "Yes, all junior taxing districts and I will move that amendment."

Senator Durkan moved the adoption of the committee amendment to page 2, adding a NEW SECTION. Sec. 2.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, on this set of amendments I notice that on the one regarding the certification of amount, if the legislature does not appropriate this money then nothing will be paid to make up this tax loss, is that correct?"

Senator Durkan: "Senator, I think it is probably comparable to the World's Fair. If the money isn't in the omnibus bill, there won't be any Japanese Fair so the answer would be 'yes'."

Senator Atwood: "I must remind you that the Japanese Fair bill has gone through already."

Senator Durkan: "Yes, but it is not in the omnibus bill, Senator."

Senator Atwood: "It is in the bill, itself."

Senator Durkan: "But it is not in the omnibus bill. As I understand for it to be appropriated, it has to be in the omnibus bill. I think there is an attorney general's opinion to that effect."

Senator Atwood: "I don't want to argue the . . ."

Senator Durkan: "I am just trying to answer your question, Senator."

Senator Atwood: "But am I not correct if the legislature does not appropriate this fund, the local units of government stand the loss?"

Senator Durkan: "No, and let me give you a history on this. As I understand it, two years ago we had an argument in the Senate in which the legislature stated that they wanted reflectorized license plates and in the appropriation bill there were some of us who felt that it wasn't necessary and therefore the money was not provided but the attorney general interpreted the fact that the legislature had said that the state wanted reflectorized license plates and therefore it was the state's responsibility to pay for them.

"I think the analogy is the same here. We have said in this act that the state is going to reimburse the junior taxing districts and I suspect that the attorney general's opinion will be as valid for that as it is for this."

Senator Atwood: "All right. Let's turn to the last amendment. I assume for this that there is no machinery to check on the validity of these people claiming exemptions and there would be no burden upon the county commissioners or the treasurer to check on the people claiming these exemptions. There would be no reason for them to do this. Would that not be a fair statement?"

Senator Durkan: "No, it would not be a fair statement, Senator, and I am glad you asked that. The answer is simply that the treasurers when they do come in, they have affidavits which they have to fill out and which are certified and verified under law which was set up under the original act and the charge of perjury is there in the event that anyone perjured himself. They are subject to the laws of perjury so we are not changing that in any way and what we are doing in this act, we are not changing the substantive act more than that we are enlarging the benefits to those people who are living on fixed incomes and can no longer afford to pay the ever increasing property tax."

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Durkan yield to another question? In the amendments distributed, I notice there is one at the end of subsection (7) and do I understand the provision that if a person did not make a claim for it that he could come anytime later and start making claims?"

Senator Durkan: "Exactly right. There are many of our senior citizens who have not been properly informed and when they get their Valentine from the county treasurer, they go and pay the full amount and then they are later informed that they have a right to the tax exemption and I see nothing wrong."

Senator Stender: "I did not ask you to argue, I just wondered if that is what that meant."

Senator Durkan: "I apologize, Senator."

Senator Stender: "I have a further question if Senator Durkan will yield. Is there no time limit at all on this retroactive claim? Is it forever more?"

Senator Durkan: "That is a fair question. My answer would probably be that there would be no time limit. I would suspect that it would be done within the year but in reply to your question, I can see under the amendment that they could probably come in later than a year and ask for it and if they had the proper affidavits, they could get it."

Senator Stender: "You think then to protect us, we should provide some time limit so that it would be conclusive for those who have to administer the act as to how long or how far back they could go?"

Senator Durkan: "Senator, I really don't have any objection to it but it doesn't disturb me too much because I can see where senior citizens who might be entitled to a $50 or $100 deduction and who did not find out about it for a year later, that it might be very important to them that they get it back. I would rather, if we are to make an error, I would like to have it made in favor of the senior citizens."

Senator Stender: "I was only thinking of the administration of the proposed act."

Senator Durkan: "I do not think that it would amount to that large a number of people because we, on our side, are going to very widely publicize this."

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, the subsection (7) that Senator Stender was talking with you about has to do with the repayment. Now, if after this law goes into effect a group of citizens finally found out about it, then would the state reimburse them for moneys that should have been paid to them by the counties for the past two years for instance?"

Senator Durkan: "The reimbursement will only take effect as of the effective date of this act. It is not retroactive. What I am saying is that should the junior taxing districts, such as the county, reimburse the senior citizen for having overpaid his taxes, it would be to me a reasonable conclusion that the junior taxing district should have the right to ask the state for that amount back. Actually, you want to remember that if the money has been paid to the county, they are not entitled to it in the first place so they are not losing anything when they give it back to the citizen who asks to have it returned."

Senator Guess: "I was wondering if the counties were going to have a windfall with this act by the people who for instance claim for the two previous years?"

Senator Durkan: "No, I do not think they can go back that far and I think Senator Stender asked a good question. I think that as of the effective date of the act, perhaps beyond the time of the effective date of the act as Senator Stender said, you may be able to go back."

Senator Guess: "Senator Durkan, I have not received any mail on this but I have received a tremendous amount of mail on the retirement homes. Now, are the people in the retirement homes going to receive the same type of treatment that this bill gives?"

Senator Durkan: "Senator, I have a little bill in the Ways and Means Committee and the treatment is not going to be exactly the same. Those in retirement homes will be differentiated between retirement homes where they pay perhaps three times the amount of social security on a monthly basis, there is going to be some tax advantage there but those who buy in and pay tremendous sums for their homes, where there are partners or condominiums then also have the service charge, they have been tax-free over all these many years and they are going to receive some treatment too, but not quite like this bill provides."

Senator Guess: "Somewhat in the reverse of this?"

Senator Durkan: "Yes, that is right."

Senator Guess: "In other words, they are taxed."

Senator Durkan: "Right."

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Stortini, the following amendment by Senators Stortini and Durkan was adopted:

On page 2, section 1, line 16, after "per month" and before the period insert ", or with respect to an occupant who is not related to the person claiming the exemption and who pays rent not to exceed one hundred dollars per month for the use of a portion of such residence"

President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 1 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 1, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 4; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Elicker, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Henry, Herr, Holman, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McCormack, McCutcheon, McDougall, Mardesich, Marquardt, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ridder, Sandison, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Uhlman, Walgren, Washington, Wilson—42.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Guess, Twigg, Williams—4.

Excused: Senators Peterson (Lowell), Ryder, Woodall—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 1, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

SENATE BILL NO. 560, by Senators Mardesich, Ryder and Foley (by State Finance Committee request):

Revising interest rates on obligations of state and various political subdivisions.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Mardesich moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 93, line 17, insert before the new section the following sections and renumber the remaining sections of the bill:

"Sec. 90. Section 3, chapter 176, Laws of 1953 as amended by section 2, chapter 134, Laws of 1955 and RCW 52.16.061 are each amended to read as follows:

Defining responsibility for designs and construction of state building authority projects.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Foley moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Foley and Atwood:

On page 1, line 15, following section 1, insert two sections as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 162, Laws of 1967 and RCW 43.75.060 are each amended to read as follows:

"Rental rates shall be set by the authority in an amount which, during the term of each lease, shall yield sufficient revenue to repay the authority for the cost of construction and all expenditures, including overhead, which may be made by the authority in connection with any such building or the financing thereof including interest and bond service charges upon the money required for providing any such building. In determining the amount of the rent, the authority shall seek to avoid the making of any profit but may fix the rental at such figure as shall afford reasonable protection to the holders of bonds issued by the authority, and shall also afford reasonable protection to the authority from losses from unpredictable causes.

"Sec. 3. Section 12, chapter 162, Laws of 1967 and RCW 43.75.120 are each amended to read as follows:

"The authority shall determine the form, conditions, covenants including but not being limited to a covenant for the creation, maintenance and replenishment of a reserve account within each bond redemption fund, for coverage of rental revenue to be paid into each bond redemption fund in excess of the actual annual debt service on the bonds payable out of each bond redemption fund, for the selection of a trustee for the owners and holders of such bonds or each issue or series thereof and for the fixing of the rights, duties, powers and obligations of such trustee, and providing for such other covenants, all as in the opinion of the authority are necessary for the most advantageous sale of said bonds, and denominations of the bonds, the maturity dates which the bonds shall bear and the interest rates thereon. The authority may provide for the retirement of the bonds at any time prior to maturity and in such manner and upon payment of such premiums as it may determine in the resolution providing for the issuance of the bonds. All such bonds shall be signed in such manner as the authority shall specify in its resolution. Bonds shall be negotiable instruments and shall be sold on sealed bids to the highest bidder after such advertising for bids as the authority deems proper. The authority may reject any and all bids and may thereafter sell bonds at private sale under such terms and conditions as it deems most advantageous to its own interests but not at a price below that of the best bid which was rejected. The authority may contract loans and borrow money through the sale of bonds of the same character as those herein authorized from the United States or any agency thereof upon such conditions and terms as may be agreed to and the bonds shall be subject to all the provisions of this chapter except the requirement that they be first offered at public sale. Temporary or interim bonds, certificates, or receipts of any denomination and with or without coupons attached may be issued and delivered until bonds are executed and available for delivery."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Would Senator Foley yield? Senator, as I read this amendment, it seems to me that this is pretty much a regular way of establishing an excess payment so that you make sure that the commitment for the bond retirement amortization interest each year that is paid in by the state is in excess of the amount. In other words, the bondholders have a slight edge, maybe ten, twenty, twenty-five percent. Is that the intent of this amendment?"

Senator Foley: "It could be, yes."

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Is there any way that this could become a, shall we say, contract against future legislatures? Are we in a position of not being able to commit future legislatures to appropriate certain amounts of money for the rental of these buildings?"

Senator Foley: "That is not my understanding. My understanding from the letter that was received from the bonding attorneys is that this is necessary. They stated to me in that particular letter which is addressed to Mr. Pitt of the State Finance Committee that as you know there are all more or less standard positions contained in revenue bond issues and the same provisions have been in any other bonds that we have issued in the past. They were left out inadvertently, as I understand it, from the implementing legislation that was passed two years ago along with the state building authority that was presented to the people as a constitutional amendment.

"This is language that was prepared in a bill and submitted from the State Finance Committee and we were going to introduce it as a bill but we just got it day before yesterday and we felt that we could use House Bill No. 604 as a vehicle, pass it back to the House for concurrence. Am I answering your question?"

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Yes. One further question, would it normally be that this covenant would say that when the reserve fund is built up to a certain point that excess moneys in that fund that were not needed for the protection of the bondholders could then be used for early repayment of bonds so we would not keep piling up a reserve fund forever without using any excess for early redemption of debt?"

Senator Foley: "I think that is true."

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Thank you."

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Foley, the following amendment to the title by Senators Foley and Atwood was adopted:

On line 2 of the title after "RCW 43.75.050" insert "; amending section 6, chapter 162, Laws of 1967 and RCW 43.75.060; and amending section 12, chapter 162, Laws of 1967 and RCW 43.75.120".

On motion of Senator Atwood, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 604, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington state highway commission is authorized and directed to make available to counties and cities, as loans, a total sum not to exceed one million dollars to assist in paying costs of snow and ice control incurred between December 1, 1968 and February 28, 1969. This loan program shall be administered by the assistant director of highways for state aid who within ten days after the effective date of this act shall prepare and mail to the governing body of each county and each city and town a loan application form. Not later than May 15, 1969 any county, city or town using the prescribed form may apply to the assistant director of highways for state aid for a loan to assist in paying costs of snow and ice control incurred between December 1, 1968 and February 28, 1969. The assistant director of highways for state aid shall verify snow and ice control costs stated in such loan applications as he deems necessary and not later than June 1, 1969 shall approve a loan to each county, city and town applicant for such proportion of its verified snow and ice control costs as one million dollars bears to the total of the verified snow and ice control costs shown in all applications received, but in no event to exceed seventy-five percent of such costs. The state treasurer shall forthwith transfer from the motor vehicle fund to the treasurer of each county and each city and town receiving such a loan, the amount approved by the assistant director of highways for state aid.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Each loan made to a county, city or town as authorized in section 2 of this act shall be repaid without interest to the motor vehicle fund in the following manner: Commencing July 1, 1969, the state treasurer shall each month in distributing to counties, cities and towns their share of excise taxes on motor vehicle fuels, retain one-twenty-fourth of the amount of each such loan from the sum to be credited to the county, city, or town which received the loan, to the end that all such loans shall be fully repaid to the motor vehicle fund in twenty-four months. Moneys so retained shall be available for state highway purposes.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the Washington state highway commission from the effective date of this act through June 30, 1969 the sum of one million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 2 and 3 of this act."

Renumber section 2 as section 5.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Faulk: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Is the formula defined in the amendment, Senator?"

Senator Washington: "Yes, the formula provides that all of the cities and counties will make their presentations and the amounts that they can actually show as far as costs are concerned will be added up and then each one will be given a pro rate amount up to the $1 million."

Senator Faulk: "Yes, I understand that but the cost to the county . . . I have seen the sheet that you have in your hand and the cost exceeds $1 million considerably, that is number one for the counties. I have not seen a tabulation of the cities' needs. I saw one yesterday but it was by no means complete and so there is a considerable need that exceeds $1 million so all I am suggesting is that if there is no formula, it is going to go to the early bird."

Senator Washington: "No, it is not going to the early bird because the provisions for making application . . ."

Senator Faulk: "But I mean what pro rata share does each . . . Mr. President, could this bill be held over so that the amendment could be placed on our desks and we could have some discussion concerning this?"

Debate ensued.

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Huntley: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator, just for the record, I believe I understood you to say that this is a loan. It is to be paid back over a twenty-four month period. Am I correct?"

Senator Washington: "You are correct."

Senator Huntley: "How is it to be paid back? Is it held out of their gas tax allocation?"

Senator Washington: "It is held out of their gas tax allocation as their allocations are paid so at the end of twenty-four months without anything being done on the part of the cities and counties, the loan will be repaid."

Senator Huntley: "Thank you."

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 359 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Dore yield to a question? Senator, I have not had time to study this bill and I imagine that it is a very complex matter. My question is simply this, would the passage of this bill make it any more difficult for school districts such as Omak and Colville and others scattered around the eastern part of the state to carry out building programs than it is now?"

Senator Dore: "No, it would not. My information is that the small districts and the large districts have both agreed on this and it is going to be effective for both of them and establish a flooring whereby basically the average school grant where construction will be two-thirds local and one-third state. I understand that in some communities, yours may be one, it is as low as eight percent or nine percent in some areas and it will bring it back up to that thirty-three and one-third percent. I know the small districts are very concerned about this and as far as I know, they have adopted and endorsed this. He said all school groups in all areas have adopted this formula as a fair formula. That is what I have been told."

Senator Gissberg: "Would Senator Dore yield to another question or two? Senator Dore, Senator Odegaard was kind enough to hand me a brief in connection with this school construction assistance bill and among other things, it indicates that it gives authority for additional aid to reorganized districts. Now, can you tell me whether or not this would in any way refuse to give funds or in any way change the formula for state funds to non-high districts?"

Senator Dore: "As far as I know, I am not able to answer that, Senator. I understand that this is the agreed formula by the various school districts that went into the education committee and Senator Durkan seems to be concerned about it now. It should have gone to the Ways and Means Committee. I am the sponsor of the measure and I have no objection if you want to put it in there to take a look at it but it is just a transfer of money, that is all. In other words, you sell the timber, it is in this particular fund, you are transferring the cash out into the common school construction account and the only new fact in it, as I understand it, is the six million dollar authorization for projects. Not to put any money into them in the next biennium but to authorize them on the planning board."

Senator Gissberg: "Thank you, you have answered that portion of my question. Now the second question, you mentioned something about one-third in speaking to Senator Wilson. Are you telling me that you are raising the floor of state support to one-third regardless of need?"

Senator Dore: "No, it is an average. When I said one-third, it would be the average amount given is one-third, may be more or less, depending on the way this formula works but as I understand, a number of years ago they had a traditional formula that the state would pay approximately one-third and the local communities would pay two-thirds. But through the years this principle has been eroded by the application of the existing formula and so that some communities, I know Omak is one, is down to eight or nine percent, etc. and some are up much higher so this will more or less bring them on an average basis in line. If there is any question about it and you want it to go to the Ways and Means Committee, it can go."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gissberg, Senate Bill No. 737 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means—Appropriations with special instructions to study the question of whether or not it shall be the policy to continue the twenty percent floor of state aid to school districts.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the record was ordered to show that Senate Bill No. 113 was referred to Ways and Means Committee on Appropriations not Revenue and Taxation.

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1969-EX-10

By Senators Uhlman, McCormack and Dore:

WHEREAS, Amidst the world's problems in this Spring of 1969 nothing seems comparable to the human misery and tragic loss of life evident from reports of the Nigerian Civil War, where starvation and disease more often than not followed by death has become the fate of untold humans in areas controlled by the federal government and under control of the Biafran authorities; and

WHEREAS, We as citizens of this great State and Nation must in good conscience take heed of the events in this troubled land and strive to ameliorate the horrendous conditions prevailing there; and

WHEREAS, Operation Outrage, Inc., a national organization with local branches in this State, is striving to increase significantly relief to these stricken people; and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Daniel Evans, Governor of this State is to proclaim the month of April "Biafran Relief Month;"

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, That this be an expression of the admiration and esteem that this body feels for the determined efforts being made by Operation Outrage, Inc. and the sincere dedicated individuals who are a part thereof in their humanitarian efforts to aid the starving and diseased victims of the Nigerian Civil War; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That members of the press, radio and television be made aware of the earnest concern of the Senate in the humanitarian purposes of Operation Outrage, Inc. and the Senate's sincere hope for a most successful outcome of its efforts.

MOTION

Senator Andersen moved that Senate Resolution 1969-EX-10 be referred to the Judiciary Committee.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Andersen: "Would Senator Uhlman yield to a question? Senator Uhlman, I won't ask you about Fulton Lewis, Jr. with whose views I have frequently disagreed but I will ask you this question and that is, can you assure me and the other Senators here on the floor, can you give us the exact percentage of the proceeds brought in by 'Operation Outrage' that are actually translated into funds given for the aid of needy Biafrans?"

"In other words, do you personally know, aside from all the names on the list and we all know about many of those, but do you personally know, Senator Uhlman, what percentage of the money collected by this particular group goes for Biafran relief and I am not talking about salaries and I am not talking about expense accounts and I am not talking about percentages and profits by people who sell to these people but do you know what percentage goes to the hungry youngsters in Biafra?"

Senator Uhlman: "Senator, this is one of the first questions I asked when these people approached me last week. I was assured that it all went for Biafran relief. I think Senator Dore has the sheet on his desk. It is specifically for the building of an airstrip which is their particular project and it is my understanding and I believe also that the Governor's office has checked into this and I am sure they would not likely involve themselves in this and that all of the money does go for the Biafran relief."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Pritchard: "No, I said over ninety percent are used for juices, jellies and jams. This was the testimony by the legislative council."

Senator Canfield: "I don't dispute that. Now my question is, do you happen to know the varieties they use for jellies and jams and what varieties they use in the manufacture of wine?"

MOTION

Senator Durkan: “It is Senate Bill No. 152 which the House has, in effect, taken out our amendment which provides for the community colleges which provided for Edgecliff, which provided for some recreational activities up in Okanogan county and down in Lewis county but the House saw to it that Senator Faulk was properly taken care of which I think is well and we just feel that somehow they slighted us.”

Senator Greive: “Now that I remember the bill and the horrible things that were done to us here in the Senate, I agree with Senator Durkan.

The motion carried.

Senator Atwood: "They are eliminating that the one year probationary in the lieutenant rank will be eligible for captain. They have quite a few lieutenants and they want to confine it to that, to the people who are full fledged lieutenants."

Senator Ridder: "This removes completely the probationers?"

Senator Atwood: "Yes."

Senator Ridder: "There is no probationary period at all then?"

Senator Atwood: "No, there is a probationary period but if you will look at the language, it is stricken, patrol officers with one year probationary experience in the rank of lieutenant are no longer eligible for captaincy. They have to have a minimum amount of service now and these are fairly high ranks in the patrol and I think should be restricted because they have quite a few lieutenants now and they don't need to depend on probationary lieutenants to fill the vacancy."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCutcheon: "Would Senator Dore yield to a question? The question I have, you laid on our desks the financial report ending the fiscal year of December 31, 1968, 'Operation Outrage, Inc.', which I assume is a non-profit corporation. The total budget is $9,667.40 and the expenditures set forth here as Senator Andersen requested yesterday. Fulton Lewis III, who has $2,000 that has been spent for a tour of Biafra and that is leading up to the inspection. Now, that is quite a bit of this budget of $9,667.40, that is about twenty-five percent. To whom is he accountable?"

Senator Dore: "He accounts to the board of directors of the corporation."

Senator McCutcheon: "What is the corporation?"

Senator Dore: "Operation Outrage, Inc., on the caption of the paper, Senator."

Senator McCutcheon: "Of course, thank you very much."

Senator Dore: "The Senator maybe didn't understand me to say this but I talked to the executive secretary and of course they had to get the information first before you can underwrite a drive in order to alleviate this particular situation and they have a breakdown here showing the educational expense, fifty-eight percent; relief expense, thirty percent and operation expense, twelve percent.

"Now, the project as he has explained it to me and which I represent to the Senate is that the plan here is to raise $100,000, eight percent of which will be in grants and twenty percent will be in operational expense in raising the money because educational expense has already been expended before and won't have to be repeated."

Senator McCutcheon: "One more question. This resolution we are passing in the State Senate of the state of Washington this morning has a very noble purpose but it has another purpose and that is to launch the drive to get some money. Is that right?"

Senator Dore: "Senator, in the second page of the memorandum you are reading, they have a statement of purpose."

Senator McCutcheon: "I realize that but I am looking at the figures here. You are starting in rather low, you have $9,667.40."

Senator Dore: "That was spent in the East, Senator. It has nothing to do with the situation here."

Senator McCutcheon: "Well, when they get this resolution, will they send it all over the country to help them raise money?"

Senator Dore: "I wouldn't be a bit surprised, Senator."

Senator McCutcheon: "To whom is he accountable. Who gets the money?"

Senator Dore: "They have to qualify under the various statutes of various states."

Senator McCutcheon: "In other words, if they raise $100,000, the managers would get $25,000 for overlooking and . . ."

Senator Dore: "Senator, they are not going to take an arbitrary twenty percent. They are estimating the expense of launching a drive to raise the $100,000. It will cost them approximately twenty percent of that figure. Now, this has been closely screened by the Governor and the Governor's office. He issued a proclamation supporting the drive the other day. I can see your concern and I can appreciate that you want to make sure that it is a legitimate organization because even if the purpose is worthwhile, if the organization is not worthwhile then of course it is not proper and I am pleased that you raised those questions, Senator.

"When the people came to me, I had the same questions you had and I satisfied myself that it was a legitimate organization, undertaken nationally, and I think Senator Kennedy has given leadership in this particular concern. I think he is the one that arranged the planes in the beginning to deliver the food so the purpose of this organization and drive in the state of Washington is to undertake the raising of $100,000 so we can complete the second airfield there where the planes can be landed with food for the Biafran people."

Senator McCutcheon: "I think the Senator has answered the question."

Debate ensued.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 678 on second reading.

Senator Bailey moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Peterson (Lowell), Gissberg, McCormack and Donohue:

On page 4, section 4, line 29, after "PROVIDED, That" strike "for benefit years beginning prior to July 1, 1970,"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Would Senator Bailey yield to a question? Senator Bailey, I wasn't aware of this amendment and I'm not too sure why it is necessary in view of the fact that this bill for the first time, as I understand it, will allow a person to be qualified if they have six hundred hours of employment in a year. Six hundred hours of employment would be fifteen weeks if you only work forty hours a week but I think most seasonal workers work more than that when they work just a short time so we are probably talking about people that work less than twelve weeks. Now, is it your intention by this amendment that people who work less than let's say ten or twelve weeks would still be covered?"

Senator Bailey: "It would be my intention that the number of hours be stricken and the minimal amount of pay earned be raised from $800 to $1200 with the amount of hours worked stricken from the formula."

Senator Williams: "May we have the amendment read again? As I heard the amendment, the six hundred hours remained in."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I have no objection to reading the amendment again but there are three alternatives as I see it. This last alternative would say six hundred hours of employment, that is after the next year but the third alternative is a proviso that for the next year they can have $1500 or so many hours a week of employment. We just strike that out so that hereafter they can consider that in any future year if they choose that third alternative."

Senator Williams: "Now, I understood the words you took out were on lines 29 and 30 'for benefit years beginning prior to July 1, 1970'. Is that correct? So the six hundred hours still remain in but you are saying that if they make $1200 then we don't worry about the six hundred hours. Is that right?"

Senator Bailey: "That proviso we are striking as I understand it, is a kind of transition from the old system to what this new bill has proposed, and we make it now a third alternative by striking the one year period and making that effective at any time in the future. We are striking the number of hours."

Senator Williams: "On line 28 you leave in six hundred hours I think, but you do say that if you earn $1200 then that takes care of the six hundred hours."

Senator Bailey: "I think it is very well put. On one line it says: 'PROVIDED, any unemployed individual has earned wages of $1200 or more in his base year shall be deemed to have met the eligibility requirements.'"

Debate ensued.

Senator Peterson (Lowell) demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Greive, Bailey, Sandison, Herr, Donohue, McCormack, Ridder, Cooney, Gissberg, Keefe and Mardesich.

387 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Would Senator Andersen yield to a question? Senator Andersen, does this give the power to search and seize or confiscate evidence and to look over the premises at the scene of the arrest to find evidence?"

Senator Andersen: "Yes, there was some discussion on the floor where we reduced the felony of possession of marijuana on a first offense to a gross misdemeanor. That took away the right of the officer to make an arrest based on a reasonable cause because it was no longer a felony and it also took away the right to make a search in connection with the arrest. This would restore it.

"If you can make a valid arrest you have a right, for example, to search the man for a knife or a weapon when you think there may be an assault or a felony, something like that that is contemplated but all you have is reasonable cause to believe to have been committed is a misdemeanor, but where you can make the valid arrest you have the right to make a search in connection with the arrest to obtain the evidence to substantiate the arrest. But you still have to have reasonable cause, the officer has to have reasonable grounds to believe a crime has been committed.

"For example, he has to see somebody lying on his back with his bloodied nose and a fellow standing over him with his fists clenched. That is reasonable cause to believe there has been a third degree assault so he can make an arrest. On the other hand, if there is no reasonable cause to believe a felony has been committed so the way the law is now, he could do nothing except drive around the corner and maybe the person lying down would be killed by the time he got back."

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Andersen yield to a question? Senator Andersen, under this bill as now written, what would be your interpretation if a wife phoned the police station along about one in the morning and said 'I think my husband is going to hit me'. Would that then justify the officer coming up and entering the abode of these people and taking the husband to the local jail?"

Senator Andersen: "I think you are talking about an extremely marginal case. I can't answer it yes or no except I could say that in this law particularly as well as in other laws generally, you have to put faith in the judgment of the police officer involved. If a police officer were to go that route then a law that has been passed could certainly be repealed and if that was the sort of thing that was done under this amendment, I would be the sponsor of the repealing legislation.

"I think you are getting fairly close to where he could make an arrest but the way I would see it, Senator Woodall, to comply with the spirit as well as the letter of this law, if the wife didn't sound drunk or perhaps a typical family quarrel, the police officer was apprehensive about what the situation might be, I would say that in ninety-nine cases out of one hundred he wouldn't bother to go out but if something occurred over the phone conversation that he was actually apprehensive about what might be involved, he would go and ring the doorbell and the lady came to the door and explained the situation fully to him and he asked the husband the situation, and if he then felt it necessary in order to avoid running a very serious risk of the woman getting killed or knifed or something like that, which can happen in these things, then perhaps he would make the arrest.

"But I think this is a power that would be very sparingly exercised by the police officer for he knows good and well he is going to have to be a witness in the case when it comes up and I am sure he has better things to do than sit as a witness in settling domestic disputes. This is not the thing the bill is aimed at obviously."

MOTION

Senator Dore moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 387 be referred to the Judiciary Committee.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Would Senator Andersen yield to a question? Senator Andersen, is the power of the police under your bill to arrest in anticipation of an offense rather than to arrest when you have had reasonable cause to believe that a crime has been committed?"

Senator Andersen: "Answering the question from Senator Washington, the crime has to be committed or be in the course of being committed. You can't go around arresting people because you suspect there may be a crime that may be going to be committed."

Senator Washington: "Speaking on the point, it would then appear that the tiff in the ordinary home, until it comes to the problem of an assault, no crime has been committed and it would seem to me that a police officer would not have the right to come in and arrest in anticipation that possibly an assault was about to take place."

Senator Andersen: "That is right. I am assuming what Senator Woodall was talking about when he asked me the question assuming that some lady called in high pitched screams and said 'my husband is going to kill, he is going to kill me. He has even got the gun out.' Then you have a situation where the officer had better go out and ring the doorbell."

Senator McCormack: "Would Senator Andersen yield to a question? Now this has to do with the amendment having to do with the possession of marijuana. As I understand this bill, a police officer can make an arrest if he has cause to believe that a misdemeanor has been committed. This means that under the marijuana law we have passed that a person may have possessed or may have smoked a marijuana cigarette and this means that a police officer believing that that person has smoked a marijuana cigarette may place him under arrest whether or not he has been present and there is no time limitation on this."

"But if he has reason to believe that a person has smoked a marijuana cigarette, he may place that person under arrest. So, let us suppose now that a call comes into a police station that says there is some young punk at someone's house and they are having a party and smoking pot. So the policeman goes to the home and someone comes to the door and he asks if he is smoking pot and the answer is 'no'. The policeman says that he had a report that he was and states that he is going to arrest the person."

"Now that is his judgment and according to the bill this is legitimate. He can arrest the person and having arrested him he is then subject to search. The policeman can take the suspect to the police station and have his pockets vacuumed with a vacuum cleaner and if there is any trace of marijuana in those pockets then he is guilty of the possession of marijuana. Now it seems to me that this is the sort of thing that we are talking about, the invasion of civil rights."

Senator Andersen: "Is this the question?"

Senator McCormack: "This is a question. I am saying is this not true, Senator Andersen, is a situation like this not true? Would this not be possible under your bill?"

Senator Andersen: "No, I don't think so. The reason, Senator McCormack is this. The officer must have information to support a reasonable belief that a person has committed or is committing, here we talk about a crime relating to marijuana, or bodily injury that kind of thing. There is a whole, gigantic body of law relating to what is reasonable belief that an officer may have. There is a whole body of law and I personally don't believe that an anonymous phone call, if it is that, to an officer that somebody is doing something in a house like this, I don't think that is sufficient by itself to furnish a reasonable belief that a gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor has been committed. If, on the other hand, the kind of a situation that we were talking about on the floor the other day where a police officer stopped a car that was weaving down the street and the window of the car is rolled down and the odor of pot or marijuana comes rolling out of that window, it takes a pretty thick head not to figure that there is something going on there involving violation of the law relating to marijuana."

"The situation you mentioned of ringing a doorbell and taking people out in the middle of the night based on an anonymous phone call is not contemplated by the law nor is it within it because this doesn't constitute reasonable belief."

"If you give the shopkeeper who is untrained the right to make an arrest of a shoplifter why can't you give a career police officer the right to make an arrest. We are talking about damage to property or potentially injuring somebody and the right to make an arrest in that situation. It is that simple I think."

Senator Day: "Would Senator Andersen yield to another question? Senator Andersen, what I would like you to do is to reiterate to the body the additional responsibilities that go with the privilege of being a police officer. What happens to a police officer for example if he is caught in a crime of extortion or any type of a crime as compared with an ordinary citizen?"

Senator Andersen: "I would be pleased to answer that question. When we are discussing a bill like this it immediately comes to a person's mind, for example, the time three years ago when they were driving down the street and hardly exceeding the speed limit when a nasty police officer gave them a ticket. The person says to himself 'the sonofagun, by George I'll show him now'. They forget that the officer's attitude, if it is a little abrupt, probably is because an hour before maybe he was out scooping off the highway the carnage that was left by another speeding driver who hadn't been lucky."

"I think that people forget what our modern day police officer is. Everytime he does an act or makes an arrest he is subject to possible discipline and if he makes a mistake in the police department, he is subject as well as the chief of police of the department or the sheriff, if he is a deputy sheriff, to being sued for false arrest. He is subject to mistreatment at the hands of the people who he is supposed to be helping."

"A police officer today has to be a judge; he has to be a lawyer; he has to be a man of extraordinary perception and talent; he has to be a man of the type that I saw not too long ago and frankly I spoke to the graduating class of the Seattle Police Academy, fine young men. There isn't one of those people I saw walking across that stage getting their graduation diploma that everyone here wouldn't be pleased to say 'here is a nice person to invite into their home'. Here is a person that is well trained, a college graduate. In many respects this is a new breed of police officer and I will be glad to trust with this particular law. The responsibility on the police officer making a decision like this of course is enormous. They feel it, I believe, Senator Day. I think in just every respect, socially, economically, in every possible respect the police officer's position today is as different from where police officers were just ten years ago as night from day."

PROTEST OF VOTE

The undersigned members protest the action of the Senate on Senate Bill No. 678 covering unemployment compensation.

We have constantly tried to reform our unemployment compensation laws to increase, and increase substantially, the benefits to the regular working person in our state who finds himself unemployed but wanting to obtain employment.

On the other hand, we realize that because our present system is full of loop holes and weaknesses, we now have one of the most costly systems in our country even though the level of benefits is low.

Senate Bill No. 678 does not do anything significant on these problems so that it would increase the cost of our already very costly system—making it the most costly in the country.

If the amendments offered by the Republicans had been adopted, we would have given maximum benefit increases of sixty percent above the present levels, and yet we would have held the increased costs, while still substantial, to a more feasible level.

Since the majority party rejected these amendments, we had no choice but to vote against this bill in its present form and trust that a more workable bill will come over from the House of Representatives which we can support in order to give the working men and women of our state the increased unemployment compensation benefits they deserve.

Signed by: Senators Atwood, Williams, Ryder, Guess, Canfield, Faulk, Andersen, Metcalf, Pritchard, Huntley, McDougall, Matson, Woodall, Twigg, Lewis (Brian) and Elicker.

MOTION

At 3:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Thursday, March 26, 1969.

Frederick Schumacher, Jr. and Lt. j.g. Timothy Harris as a "Tower of Strength" among his fellow prisoners; and

WHEREAS, Lt. Schumacher in referring to Quartermaster Law's leadership qualities stated "Law probably demonstrated the finest qualities of petty officer leadership I have ever seen"; and

WHEREAS, Lt. Harris in also referring to Quartermaster Law's leadership qualities stated "Law was in charge of the enlisted men—the way he conducted himself was outstanding"; and

WHEREAS, Quartermaster Law served as liason between the officers and the crew of the U.S.S. Pueblo and kept each group informed about the other during their captivity, and in the course of these duties, he suffered many beatings and indignities without permitting himself to become provoked into conduct which would have been harmful to all members of the Pueblo crew; and

WHEREAS, Charles Benton Law is a native and resident of Chehalis, Washington, and his meritorious conduct is a source of pride to both the citizens of Chehalis and the other citizens of the state of Washington;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate that its heartfelt thanks be extended to quartermaster First Class Charles Benton Law for his patriotic and unselfish service to our nation; and

On page 1, section 1, line 10 of both the printed and engrossed bills strike "$5,383,429.00" and insert "$10,222,828.00"

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, I think I agree with your amendment but I want to know for the record, exactly what this does to the rate for the remaining part of the biennium."

Senator Durkan: "It increases it about fifty-four cents per day for first class nursing home rate."

Senator Atwood: "Will that make the rate higher than the rate they will be getting when the new budget goes into effect on July 1?"

Senator Durkan: "Unless the omnibus bill provides more money for nursing home rates the answer is 'yes', Senator."

Senator Atwood: "They are aware, or are they asking now for an increase in the rate in the omnibus bill that went to the House?"

Senator Durkan: "Senator, they haven't asked me yet but I suspect that they will be around."

Senator Atwood: "Thank you."

Senator Ryder: "Would Senator Durkan yield to another question? Senator Durkan, the original House amount along with the House dates sometime in February would have increased it for the rest of this biennium by how much, forty-eight or forty-five cents a day?"

Senator Durkan: "I think it was forty-seven cents a day, Senator."

Senator Ryder: "And now by restoring this we are increasing that increase up to fifty-four cents?"

Senator Durkan: "That is right, a day."

Senator Ryder: "Does the omnibus budget as it was passed out of the Senate, increase the forty-seven cents a day that was originally intended in the House bill?"

Senator Durkan: "The omnibus bill has provided, the one that provides for the next biennium but does not take into consideration the increase which we have put in with the addition of this amount of money."

Senator Ryder: "It does not?"

Senator Durkan: "It does not."

Senator Ryder: "So really what we are doing here by moving the date from February to April is giving them a bigger increase than we really intended to in the first place. Isn't this correct?"

Senator Durkan: "Maybe I can answer in another way the fact that we have probably given them a larger increase between now and the beginning of the new fiscal year. At the beginning of the new fiscal year unless there is a larger appropriation, they are not going to receive the same amount of money that they are going to receive now."

Senator Stender: "Will Senator Durkan yield? Senator, this is a little aside from the amendment but it has to do with the question when is the general department of public assistance appropriation effective, the first of April?"

Senator Durkan: "That is correct, Senator."

Senator Stender: "In the appropriation, I am not a member of the Committee on Ways and Means or I would probably have had this explanation previously, but does this have the money necessary for prescription drugs?"

Senator Durkan: "Yes, Senator, we restored in this budget the amount of $115,000 for formulary drugs and $35,000 for elective surgery."

Senator Stender: "This will be available for April 1 as well?"

Senator Durkan: "Yes."

Further debate ensued.

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 433, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Senator Guess: "Senator Gissberg, the amendment from the House takes the flowery language out of the bill. It no longer says that it is the design of the service to protect the consuming public and it gets down to the meat of the fact that the department now has the responsibility for electrical inspection and I agree that that is a proper function of government."

The motion carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 290.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Atwood yield to a question? Senator Atwood, how long a bridge would you have to build in order to bridge the gap between Point Roberts and the mainland?"

Senator Atwood: "One longer than the one that goes across the Sound so I am afraid that it would be quite a long time before there is a bridge."

Senator Dore: "It would be quite a tourist attraction wouldn't it if that could be established?"

Senator Atwood: "It probably would but the expense is not justified by the economic gain. There have been some pretty good proposals made, the Post-Intelligencer had an editorial on making it into a national park but at last they are getting some consideration."

Senator Mardesich: "Is this not different than we ordinarily do for most such groups?"

Senator Sandison: "I would say that so far I have noticed that several figures have come through on this. Any statutes that would change this, of course, would have a repealer in it."

Senator Mardesich: "We have been changing most of them so that they all run by the standard statute and I just wondered why this one was different."

Senator Sandison: "A matter that was overlooked I presume. We have no objection to reducing the fifty dollars to the standard amount. Senator Atwood reminds me, this is considered a salary. It is constant with any other personnel board."

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 26, 1969.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred HOUSE BILL NO. 554, authorizing superintendent of public instruction to reduce required school year, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that HOUSE BILL NO. 554 be amended as follows:

On page 2, beginning on line 28 strike all of section 4 and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This 1969 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, section 1, line 19, after "districts" and before "to" insert "for the 1968-1969 school year"

On page 2, section 2, line 5, after "districts" and before "to" insert "for the 1968-1969 school year"

Signed by: Senators, Ridder, Odegaard, Guess; Representatives Cunningham, Kopet, Haussler.

It was moved by Senator Ridder that the report of the Free Conference Committee on House Bill No. 554 be adopted.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman: "Would Senator Andersen yield to a question? Senator Andersen, I heard your comments earlier that your district stood to lose a substantial amount of money if this doesn't pass by Friday but you didn't state why. Could you tell me in my own interests why this is so?"

Senator Andersen: "I don't believe I said it stands to lose a good deal of money. I think I said it stands to get completely fouled up. The point is if the bill is going to do any good, it has to be passed now. If we delay it and don't have the emergency clause on or if we don't get it passed this week, we will just get the spring vacation schedule fouled up and the other schedules fouled up and it is a matter mostly of comity with the district. They have relied on the bill and I think many of the school districts have and having relied on it and we having passed it, we just want to give them the benefit of it. That is the best I can answer, Senator Uhlman. I did not intend to mean that it was a critical financial problem for the district because it isn't that at all."

Senator Metcalf: "Would Senator Guess or Senator Ridder yield to a question? I will just direct the question to either one, whoever wishes to answer it. Senator Guess said a minute ago that he had not been advised of the meeting of the Conference Committee and I looked at the amendments I don't have any opposition, but I just wonder about what has happened here. Did you have your meeting? Was Senator Guess present?"

Senator Ridder: "Well, I think in all frankness I should answer. Senator Guess let it be known this morning that he wasn't going to sign the conference report and was not going to take part in the deliberation and this is one of those things. Now, I think that is explanation enough."

Senator Guess: "I said that I would not sign the conference report and I stated my objection on the floor and the powers of Free Conference were given through the body and to the committee and I was not asked whether or not I wanted to attend the Free Conference. I had it in mind that I was going to sign the Free Conference report because of the remarks that were made on this floor by Senator Andersen. I think that it is an irresponsible act by the committee of not informing me that the meeting was being held."

The motion was carried and the report of the Free Conference Committee was adopted.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 554, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 1.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCormack: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, you talk about categories of highways, now how are these established? Who establishes the categories?"

Senator Washington: "The interstate system is established by the federal government, the principle major collector and others are established by the highway commission."

Senator McCormack: "Now Senator Washington, do the legislators have anything to say about what the categories of given highways shall be?"

Senator Washington: "No, the legislature will not determine the categories of the highways under the new proposal nor did they determine the categories under the old proposal, except that in the principle category we did state that the principle category would go from cities of 20,000 or more, so to that extent the legislature did determine the location of the principle category of highways."

Senator McCormack: "Except for that then, the representatives of the people have nothing to say about that the categories of these highways are? Then as a result of that, what the building schedule will be?"

Senator Washington: "This is correct. This is a function which was given to the highway commission generally when we passed the highway commission act. It is a duty which was given to them under the priority programming act of 1962."

Further debate ensued.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 303, by Committee on Public Health and Welfare:

Implementing law relating to reports of child abuse.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Uhlman moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 3, line 8, after "he" and before "report" strike "may" and insert "shall"

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Uhlman yield to a question? Senator Uhlman, what if a doctor or the teacher does not report under the mandatory, what are the penalties for failing to make a report?"

Senator Uhlman: "I would have to yield to Senator Stortini on this."

Senator Atwood: "My question is this. If you mandate the requirement of giving a report on a child abuse situation, what if the doctor or the teacher or the public assistance social worker does not make a report. What is the penalty?"

Senator Stortini: "There isn't any penalty at the present time, Senator."

Senator Atwood: "My next question is, do you have a proposed amendment on the Secretary's desk that says they are guilty of a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor if they don't file a report?"

Senator Uhlman: "In answer to your question, Senator, I do not. It is not my intention to place this kind of a criminal burden on the reporter. However, by the amendments and saying that they shall do it, what we are really going to do is to again take them off the hook so they can say 'I have to do it'. We have passed other laws mandating certain actions without direct penalty. As a matter of fact, our own reporting procedure for campaigning, primary funds for many, many years had no penalty at all and that is why nobody complied with it but we should have filed campaign expenditure reports."

On motion of Senator Stortini, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 303, House Bill No. 222 and House Bill No. 224 were ordered to hold their place on second reading calendar for Thursday, March 27, 1969.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senator Talley was excused.

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senator Lewis (Brian) was excused.

At 10:35 a.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate recessed until 11:10 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:10 a.m.

SENATE BILL NO. 538, by Senators Sandison, Durkan and Peterson (Ted) (by departmental request):

Representing employee organization in community colleges.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Durkan and Ridder:

On page 2, section 2, line 7, after "staff;" insert "PROVIDED, That the employee organization may include or exclude administrative staff, or any portion of the administrative staff."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Would Senator Sandison yield to a question? Senator Sandison, as the bill is now written, Seattle Community College could have its method of selecting negotiations group and so could other community colleges. In other words, they could have their way as to whom they wanted to exclude or include?"

Senator Sandison: "That is correct. This is purely a local option. We are trying to keep the community college, as much as possible responsible for the local area and to local thinking."

Senator Ridder: "If this is guaranteed then there is no need for the amendment."

The motion failed and the amendment was not adopted.

There being no objection, Senator Ridder withdrew the second amendment by Senators Durkan and Ridder.

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Durkan and Ridder:

On page 4, section 6, line 2, beginning with the word "Nothing," strike the remainder of the sentence through the end of the section on line 5, and substitute the following:

"Nothing in this act shall be construed to annul or modify, or to preclude the renewal or continuation of, any lawful agreement heretofore entered into between any college or college district and any representative of its employees. Boards of trustees may enter into written contracts consistent with law with the respective employee organization entitled to represent the academic faculty pursuant to section 3 of this act."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Newschwander moved that the amendment be laid upon the table.

Senator Ridder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Dore, Washington, Gissberg, Odegaard, McCutcheon, Bailey, Greive, Foley, Metcalf, Newschwander and Faulk.

Voting yea: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Connor, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Elicker, Faulk, Guess, Herr, Holman, Huntley, Keefe, Lewis (Harry), McCormack, McDougall, Marquardt, Matson, Newschwander, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Twigg, Williams, Wilson, Woodall-30.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Henry, Knoblauch, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Metcalf, Odegaard, Ridder, Stortini, Uhlman, Walgren, Washington-17.

Excused: Senators Lewis (Brian), Talley-2.

There being no objection, Senator Ridder withdrew the fourth amendment by Senators Durkan and Ridder.

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the following amendment by Durkan and Ridder:

On page 2, section 3, beginning on line 29 after "NEW SECTION. Sec. 3.," strike the remainder of the section through the period on line 17 of page 3 and substitute the following:

"There is added to chapter 8, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and to chapter 28.85 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"Representatives of an employee organization, which organization shall, by secret ballot, have won a majority in an election to represent the academic faculty of the community college, shall have the right, after using established administrative channels, to meet, confer, and negotiate with the board of trustees of the community college or a committee thereof to communicate the considered professional judgment of the academic faculty and to reach an agreement prior to the final adoption by the board of proposed college policies related to, but not limited to, curriculum, textbook selection, in-service-training, student teaching programs, academic freedom policies, hiring and assignment practices, grievance procedures, leaves of absence, salaries and salary schedules, budgets and non-instructional duties."

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, the material contained in amendment five, my question is whether these rights are now presently within the contract which the teachers of community colleges have with the college?"

Senator Ridder: "Under the professional negotiations act as it now is written we have this right and in our school district we use it. The school board comes to us and they say 'we are going to do such and such a thing'. In fact when I was president of our organization I received a letter before each school board meeting describing what was going to be taken up, what the agenda was and we had our right to have a little meeting and discuss beforehand so that we could iron these things out. Is that the answer to your question?"

Senator Washington: "No, my question was, do the present teachers of community colleges have this power?"

Senator Ridder: "Under the professional negotiations act of 1965, they would have this right."

Senator Gissberg: "Would Senator Ridder yield? Senator Ridder, typically for what length of time do these contracts run?"

Senator Ridder: "Essentially a contract runs until a new negotiating force would renegotiate which would be every year. Essentially as I see the law, the thing continues until a new body is drawn up to overthrow what contract has been written by that group and we have not had consecutive elections of new groups because our one group has been sufficient and has not changed radically in, shall we say, make up."

Senator Gissberg: "For instance a contract that is in effect with your community college that you represent, do you know for what the length of time that contract runs?"

Senator Ridder: "I would say this would be up to the people who drew the contract. To my knowledge it is one year."

Debate ensued.

Senator Gissberg: "Will Senator Atwood yield to a question? Senator Atwood, having reference to page 3, line 4, that you just quoted of the bill as now drawn and comparing that language with the amendment that is being offered by Senators Durkan and Ridder, would you say that the language in the present bill without the amendment does in fact encompass all of the things that are written into the amendment that is proposed by Senators Durkan and Ridder?"

Senator Atwood: "I would think that it more than covers. Probably there are some of them that aren't delineated in that amendment that would be covered in the bill as written. I don't know if there are any pages on this but the language in the bill is extremely broad and I can't see why they want to strike all that and delineate item by item. The sponsors of the amendment have itemized a whole series of things and most of them I think, if not all, are encompassed, maybe one of two wouldn't, but in-service training, student teaching program, the academic freedom policy, are all personnel matters I would think, clearly.

"The ones that may be questionable would be leaves of absence, salaries and salary schedules and budgets and non-instructional duties which are all personnel matters, so I'm not sure which ones they want to add to the bill. They have delineated them now and I think it is cutting down the scope on what is to be considered."

Senator Gissberg moved adoption of the following amendment to the fifth amendment by Senators Durkan and Ridder:

Amend the fifth amendment by striking "and to reach an agreement prior to the final adoption by the board"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Holman: "Would Senator Gissberg yield to a question? Senator Gissberg, in your amendment to the amendment you would strike the portion about reaching an agreement prior to final adoption by the board and I am wondering if you do that and you still leave in the word 'negotiate' in the fifth line of the amendment, if you have really accomplished what you set out to do because as I interpret the word 'negotiate' it means just that to sit down and negotiate an agreement between two sides. It seems to me that your amendment to the amendment really doesn't change the intent very much."

Senator Gissberg: "I think you are probably right but in sitting out here on the floor and trying quickly to get an amendment drawn before we get to the vote, it becomes difficult and I think that that could properly be the subject of another amendment. To strike 'negotiate' and put in the word 'communicate' or 'discuss' in lieu of 'negotiate' and I think that would do that. I still believe that the question of my intent is to allow communication, discussion of ideas between the employees and the board and if my amendment to the amendment is adopted, I will propose a further amendment to strike the word 'negotiate' and include the word 'communicate'."

MOTION

Senator McCormack moved that the amendment and the amendment to the amendment be laid upon the table.

The motion carried.

Establishing SSH No. 3G (Steptoe Canyon).

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 18, 1969.

SENATE BILL NO. 285, establishing SSH No. 3G (Steptoe Canyon) (reported by Committee on Highways):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 11, after "Clarkston" and before the semicolon, insert "":
PROVIDED, That until such time as secondary state highway No. 3G between Colton and Clarkston is actually constructed on the location adopted by the highway commission no existing county roads shall be maintained or improved by the highway commission as a temporary route of said secondary state highway No. 3G"

Signed by: Senators Washington, Chairman; Henry, Vice Chairman; Bailey, Connor, Donohue, Faulk, Foley, Herr, Huntley, Lewis (Brian), McDougall, Mardesich, Marquardt, Peterson (Lowell), Ridder, Stender.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 285 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Would Senator Huntley yield to a question? Senator Huntley, this particular roadway or major portion of it is going to be in Whitman county and you understand that the major reason for placing this on the system is to allow the U.S. Corps of Engineers to build the stretch which is along the Snake River. Is it your general understanding that the section from Colton in Whitman county to the Snake River in all probability will not receive funds and be constructed for a substantial period of time from now?"

Senator Huntley: "Senator Washington, I would assume that it would have to take its rightful place in the priority array which would be established by the highway commission and from the traffic that is on it at the present time, I would imagine it would be quite awhile before it would be placed in a category to receive any funds."

Senator Washington: "I wonder if Senator Donohue would yield to a question? Senator Donohue, you made it very clear in your remarks on the bill that you understood that it would very probably be a substantial period of time from now before the section of highway from the Snake River to Colton is built but since that doesn't go into the record, I wanted to make it clear that you do understand that that would be the general situation."

Senator Donohue: "I think you have made it very clear Senator."

Senator Washington: "And you do agree with this?"

Senator Donohue: "I do concur with this."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Huntley: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, I notice that Senator McCutcheon is off the floor so I should make these inquiries for him. He came by my desk a few minutes ago and was rather concerned about this bill because he didn't find his projects in it. I explained to him that it wasn't the purpose to line item.

"Could you assure me and as far as that goes the other members that the budget items presented to us by the several district engineers at the beginning of the session are included in this budget and will be carried out as per the way they were presented by the district engineer? Senator McCutcheon was concerned and since he left the floor, I think that I should have an answer to this question."

Senator Washington: "This budget bill is presented as they have been customarily with a lump sum appropriation of $407,323,846 plus $1,098,000 to carry out the overall construction program. This amount of money is designed to take care of the items set forth in the capital budget as presented and to take care of those projects about which Senator McCutcheon was concerned. Of course we do recognize that we do not line item and that there are occasions for various reasons that a project set forth in the projected construction program cannot be done during a two year period but certainly the money that we have appropriated here is available to meet the projects in which Senator McCutcheon is interested."

Senator Huntley: "In other words then, his feelings or his fears should be allayed."

Senator Washington: "Yes, they certainly should."

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:00 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Atwood, Senators Twigg and Huntley were excused.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Pritchard: "Point of personal privilege."

The President: "The Senator will speak on his point of personal privilege."

Senator Pritchard: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, this morning a large group of ladies came down to our Capitol and I think some things were done that would not conform with how most of the Senators would like to have this handled when they come to Olympia. We had guards at each one of the doors, the back and the front, and when I arrived at the door there was a uniformed man and I asked him what he was doing. He said, 'we are checking the women as they come into the capitol.' I asked 'what for?' He said 'for signs.' I said, 'on whose authority?' He said 'the sergeant at arms.'

"At that point a lady easily sixty-five years old, gray haired and probably a grandmother came up with an armband around her arm and our employee, and I like to think he is our employee, stopped this lady and said 'you can't go into the capitol.' She asked 'why not?' He said 'you have a sign and you can't go in.' At this point I intervened and said 'let's be a little bit reasonable here' and the man replied 'now that is the rule.'

"I don't know whether this woman was a threat to our security or just what but we all know we have a pretty hard time with our image to the public and I don't think these women were any threat to our security and it is their Capitol. It isn't just our Capitol and I don't see any reason why this woman couldn't walk into this Capitol with an armband around her arm. We had some problems here and maybe the first problems can be excused because they came on us and they were new but this is the second time and these were women. You know they were mothers and they were wives and citizens and they came down and they weren't going to tear the Capitol dome off, and I think that just in a matter of good taste our employees should handle these people in a better fashion. I just don't believe that this is the thinking of we Senators and I object to it and I think many of us do. I just can't believe that this is going to help our state and help the image of our state government.

"I just went outside again and there was a man with a holster and a gun on his hip and I wondered what in the world is he doing out here? What is he doing out here with this gun? I just don't think these women are a threat to our security and I think it is bad and I personally just don't feel that we were being represented properly and I think that it was a mistake and I just felt a little ashamed and I had to say it right here on the floor."

Senator Henry: "Senator Pritchard, perhaps we have had some troubles here and first I want to tell you that I intend to vote for your bill if I ever get the chance but that is not an issue in this case.

"Number one, our employee had full authority to handle any situation that needed handling under Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 17 but this is the crux of the matter. We are in Olympia passing laws and we are passing rules and regulations and we expect them to be kept and Mr. Sidney Levine who is the head of this march that was down here, or whatever you want to call it, on March 24 was given the authorization by William Schneider who is one of your Governor's department heads, given full authority to hold a demonstration between 11:00 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. and 'by virtue of the authority vested in me and pursuant to administrative regulations 2236 etc.'

"It said number one: 'They may hold a demonstration on the Capitol grounds or on the steps outside the legislative building for the purpose of displaying signs and placards expressing beliefs of the group.' Number two: 'Such demonstration shall be conducted in a peaceful and orderly manner. No picketing or patrolling shall be conducted within the confines of the capitol building' and finally, 'the entire demonstration shall be conducted in accordance with the rules promulgated by the department of general administration.' And further, 'any material deviation from the conditions set forth above shall forthwith terminate this approval.'

"Now, I don't think that our employees are in for any criticism because under Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 17 it covers legislative chambers, committee rooms, hearing rooms, legislative rooms, including all areas in the rotunda therein as well as the committee rooms, hearing rooms and offices in the public lands building and public health building.

"So perhaps if there is any criticism and I don't want to criticize a fellow Senator but they were practically inside the rotunda at, I understand, your invitation and also our newly elected attorney general said we had no authority up there. We do have the authority, all they had to do was abide by the rules."

Senator Pritchard: "I am inclined to agree if there was going to be a demonstration, that they should do so outside the grounds but we had arranged for some speakers as they do every noon to speak in the rotunda. This has been going on for about three months. We arranged for some speakers to talk to the people. The attorney general, the Governor was scheduled but he had a luncheon. He was scheduled to talk at 10:00 a.m. The attorney general spoke and the people talked and they talked for half an hour. I don't think that is a demonstration.

"Now I went to the door and asked the people to leave their signs outside and to come in and they did so and then in the middle of the demonstration some of them went out and got their signs. I will just say it once again, this is not a demonstration. Heaven's sakes, people were talking to a group about some legislation and it just doesn't wash, as far as I am concerned, to haul out a technicality. When this sixty-five year old, gray haired lady walked through that door with her armband on, I personally don't want an employee of the Senate telling her that she can't come in."

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 411, having received the constitutional majority was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 477, by Senators Washington, Henry, Faulk and McCormack:

Authorizing development of police academy.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Walgren moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Walgren and Elicker:

On page 2, section 2, line 30, strike subsection (g) and substitute the following:

"(g) To investigate and make recommendation to the legislature concerning the establishment and construction of a police academy."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, as I read the proposed amendment it says 'to construct a police academy'. It would appear to me that you are giving them the authority to take such necessary financial commitments as they see fit such as, hiring an architect, engineer, and entering into a commitment to buy land. I can see under this authority where, as broad as it is, that we could be committing ourselves to something which you have just said you don't want to happen."

Senator Washington: "This is merely one of their powers. The way I interpret this is one of the many powers that they do have. If they do have funds available to commence finding out how much it will cost, where it should be located, then if they have that money available, they could go ahead and do that but if they are going to come in and ask us for additional funds, they are going to have to make this presentation."

Senator Durkan: "Then are you saying, as the sponsor of this bill, that if there is not an appropriation they have no authority under this proposed amendment to take any financial steps or commit the state of Washington, this body or any other body as far as the construction of the police academy?"

Senator Washington: "That is correct. The same way we have given the highway department the power to construct highways but they can't construct those highways until they come in and get further appropriation and authority from us."

Senator Durkan: "Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Henry: "Point of personal privilege."

The President: "The Senator will speak on his point."

Senator Henry: "I would like to respond to Senator Durkan. He did win the argument. My bill would have permitted everybody to have reflectorized plates but the way it is now you have to pay for them to get them and they are self-amortizing."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, isn't the police academy to be built with funds to be appropriated to Dr. Slavin's agency? Isn't that in the budget bill right now?"

Senator Washington: "If it is, I am not aware of it."

Senator Dore: "I think it is. I am not confident that it is not in the bill and in fact that was the testimony before the committee that this was some of the money. I think some part of that $5 million and I am just wondering, is this going to be done by this commission or done by some other agency? Who is going to appoint the agency to disburse the money? Because in the budget bill in the conference committee you will earmark this money to be administered by some agency. Is it your intent that the police academy, assuming we put the language in the budget, should then administer the funds to carry out the intent of this bill?"

Senator Washington: "From the technical end if there is money available and if it has been so approved, I would say that they would then have the power to go ahead and construct. The only thing I am saying that without having the appropriation, without having the funds available, they would not be able to construct the academy."

Senator Dore: "That is not my question. My question is, assuming that we put it in the budget setting up the enabling legislation to receive these funds to build a police academy, assuming that we do that, is it your intention then that this commission would then build the academy?"

Senator Washington: "Yes, it would be. The point I am making is that we would not have state funds without the appropriation of those funds put into this academy. Now, there will be funds for this source and like sources from federal funds and I feel that if they are able to secure those federal funds then we are not particularly concerned as a state body."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gissberg, there being no objection, Senate Bill No. 477 was ordered placed at the end of the second reading calendar for Monday, March 31, 1969.

HOUSE BILL NO. 572, by Representatives Hurley, Leland and Perry:

Reporting and recording motor vehicle accidents.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 572 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, we have been, up until this time and I believe will continue to charge $1.50 for the production of such an abstract for the insurance companies, and all the department did was furnish certified abstracts which just enumerated the accidents in which a person was involved. Now we are requiring much more work of the department. They have to indicate the total number of vehicles involved, whether the vehicles were illegally parked, moving, or whether such vehicles were occupied at the time of the accident and I would assume that this could involve a certain amount of research time for the employees of the department and there has been no effort to change the fee which is to be charged.

"Do you not feel that perhaps there should be some adjustment necessary or will the department question as to whether or not this would involve additional time?"

Senator Washington: "The department indicated that there would be some additional time. However, they did not, as I recall, come up with any particular figure as to the amount and did not object to the bill although they indicated that there would be some additional time involved.

"It was the general feeling of the committee that we were actually getting more information than requested by the insurance companies as a protection to the public."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 572 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 3.

Regulating junkyards.

On motion of Senator McDougall, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 5, line 8, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator McDougall, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On line 5 of the title, strike "and" and after "penalties" insert "; and declaring an emergency"

On motion of Senator McDougall, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 517 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Authorizing the issuance of group motor vehicle policies to the members, employees, and officers of labor unions.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

The Secretary began reading an amendment by Senator Stender.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "Point of order, we have been following a procedure which is highly illegal in the Senate and this is just another. You can't amend a bill four or five times in one crack and I am going to raise a point of order without even knowing what this is. These amendments are amendments to a bill which should be presented section by section and amended unless you want to suspend the rules and . . ."

Senator Stender: "Mr. President, I am willing to have them handled separately, they are written up. We have been doing it all session, Senator Greive, as you well know, on some of your own amendments they have been the same way. I am willing to take them separately if you desire. They are written separately and I would suggest the reading clerk read them separately."

Amen."

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President has signed:

SENATE BILL NO. 177,

SENATE BILL NO. 179.

MOTION

Senator Holman moved that the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules be relieved of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 286 and that the bill be placed at the beginning of second reading calendar for today.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "Point of order."

The President: "For what purpose does Senator Greive rise?"

CALL OF THE SENATE

Senator Greive: "To make a motion of higher rank under Rule 21. I demand a Call of the Senate."

The demand was sustained by Senators Connor and Stortini.

QUESTION OF CONSIDERATION

Senator Gissberg raised the question of consideration on the motion of Senator Holman.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Holman: "Point of order."

The President: "For what purpose does Senator Holman rise?"

Senator Holman: "I had the floor and I did not relinquish it."

Senator Gissberg: "Mr. President, contrary to the suggestion of Senator Holman that he had the floor, he did not have the floor. He simply rose and made a motion. The President put the motion but did not recognize Senator Holman for the purpose of giving him the floor at that time. In order to get the floor of the Senate it requires two things, one, the Chair recognizes you for the purpose of making a motion. You make the motion, the President then puts it and recognizes again somebody for the purpose of speaking. That was not the case. The President had not recognized anyone at this point to speak on the motion. I have now attained the floor for the purpose of raising a question of consideration and that has to be put immediately."

Senator Greive: "According to Rule 102 and 199 a motion of higher rank is the one to be put first, that is Reed's Rules and our Rule 21, a question of consideration is higher than a motion under a subsidiary motion."

Senator Holman demanded a roll call on the question of consideration and the demand was sustained by Senators Bailey, Canfield, Knoblauch, Connor, Dore, Peterson (Lowell), Stortini, Cooney and Durkan.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Parliamentary inquiry. The question of consideration is raised only on the motion by Senator Holman?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Gissberg has raised the question of consideration on the motion presented by Senator Holman."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Point of parliamentary inquiry. A vote 'aye' means what and a vote 'no' means what?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "A vote 'aye' means that the Senate is voting to consider the motion by Senator Holman. A vote 'no' means that the Senate will not consider the motion by Senator Holman."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pritchard: "What is the number of the bill that we are considering?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senate Bill No. 286."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the question of consideration of the motion by Senator Holman and the Senate refused to consider the motion by the following vote: Yeas, 6; nays, 36; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 6.

Voting yea: Senators Elicker, Faulk, Holman, Metcalf, Pritchard, Uhlman-6.

Voting nay: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Knoblauch, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McCormack, McCutcheon, Mardesich, Marquardt, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Walgren, Williams, Wilson, Woodall-36.

Absent or not voting: Senator Day-1.

Excused: Senators Huntley, Keefe, McDougall, Matson, Peterson (Ted), Washington-6.

STATEMENT FOR JOURNAL

I voted for the motion of consideration by Senator Gissberg on Senate Bill No. 286, for the reason that I believe the Senate has the obligation to vote on this measure, whether it acts affirmatively or negatively.

(signed) Senator Wes Uhlman.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended and the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

Senator Pritchard moved that Senator Day be excused.

POINTS OF ORDER

Senator Gissberg: "Point of order. A motion to suspend the rules is of higher priority than the motion put by Senator Pritchard but I don't think it makes any difference, I would speak against the motion so as not to excuse Senator Day."

Senator Pritchard: "It appears to me that this has been the problem and if this gentleman is away from here, why not excuse him and go on with the order of the day."

Senator Greive: "Point of order. I move to suspend the rules and he is not debating in any sense what I did and furthermore under Rule 28 it only requires a short explanation, going directly to the merits of the bill and so I suggest that Senator Pritchard for the moment is out of order. He may make that motion if he wishes to at a later time."

Senator Pritchard: "Since Senator Gissberg also discussed it, I think it is open for me to discuss it. I don't understand all the maneuvering here but it seems to me if a man is not here, let's excuse him."

Senator Woodall: "Point of order. The main question at the moment of highest rank is the motion of Senator Greive to suspend the rules and immediately advance to the order of the day. That should now be put."

The motion carried and the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

MOTION

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Would Senator Lewis (Harry) yield to a question? Senator Lewis, what is the budgeted item for this coordinating council on higher education?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "The Governor had $576,000 in his budget."

Senator Ridder: "Would Senator Sandison yield to a question? Senator Sandison, we have just established an interim committee on higher education. What essentially is the budget proposed for the higher education interim committee?"

Senator Sandison: "In the bill they are asking for $100,000. Again, let me point out there is really not too much connection. The purpose of an interim committee is to recommend legislation for the following session of the legislature."

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Sandison yield? Senator, if we can run the interim committee for $100,000, what is going to be the pressure for $500,000?"

Senator Sandison: "Let me give you a few facts. At the present time you have no way of knowing what high school students are going to college in this state. At the present time in the southwestern part of Washington a great many of our people are attending institutions in neighboring states, in Oregon and Idaho. There are requests that there be a reciprocal set up made. We have no way of knowing what students are attending those institutions. There is the problem of making the determination for instance for the graduate center in Spokane which is being asked for."

"If you will recall in the original request for a graduate center in Spokane for engineering I think when it was all over there were four people who were interested in it. This is the type of study that they are going to need. There are going to be people that make determinations on these things. If you leave that up to the institutions, they will always make a determination which is better for the institution."

Senator Guess: "And this is going to cost $500,000?"

Senator Sandison: "Yes, it could very easily. These people do not come very cheaply and there is going to be need for quite a few people."

SECOND READING

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 24, by Senators McCormack, Durkan, Bailey, Mardesich, Ridder, Knoblauch, Peterson (Lowell), Foley, Herr, Connor, Henry, Uhlman, Walgren, Odegaard, Stortini and Sandison:

Establishing tax reform by amending the Constitution to authorize a state graduated net income tax, by reducing the property tax, removing the sales tax from food and drugs, and eliminating the business and occupation tax.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

Senator Williams moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Williams, Atwood, Ryder and Holman:

On page 3, line 3, after "resort." strike the remainder of the resolution and insert:
"NEW SECTION. Article VII, section 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the legislature shall have the power,

"(a) To impose a tax upon income from whatever source derived, at a rate which may be in excess of that permitted by section 2 of this Article VII: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the tax may be imposed only at a single uniform rate;

"(b) To provide for allowance of credits, exclusions, exemptions, and deductions to be used in determining the amount of income subject to tax or in computing such tax: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the amount of such credits, exclusions, exemptions and deductions may not be determined solely by the amount of income otherwise subject to tax; and

"(c) For purposes of simplifying administration and facilitating compliance by taxpayers, to adopt by reference any federal statutes relating to the determination of taxable income, both as enacted at the time of adoption and as amended after the time of adoption.

"This section 4 shall be effective only upon the approval and ratification of the amendment to section 2 of this Article VII as set forth in this resolution.

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the foregoing proposal to amend Article VII, section 2, as amended by Amendment 17, and the foregoing proposal to amend Article VII to add a new section 4 shall be submitted at the election in such a manner that the people may vote for or against the two proposals separately.

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendments to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator McCutcheon: "Would Senator Williams yield to a question? Senator, first of all you have taken the McCormack resolution, Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 and you have stricken by this amendment, I haven't seen exactly what you have stricken, have you stricken the entire bill?"

Senator Williams: "No, we have left parts. This part only deals with the matter of the nature of the income tax."

Senator McCutcheon: "The rest of it you leave intact?"

Senator Williams: "This amendment does not touch that, no."

Senator McCutcheon: "Have you any idea how much your proposal that you are talking about might raise over and above our present revenues?"

Senator Williams: "Senator McCutcheon, of course we are talking now about a constitutional amendment. There are no figures built into either Senator McCormack's proposal or the one we are offering. The rates and exemptions and the deductions will determine the final amounts of dollars coming in. At this stage we have been debating the form of the taxation that will be allowed under the Constitution."

Senator McCutcheon: "You have no figures on which would be the most remunerative?"

Senator Williams: "It depends entirely on the rates imposed. These matters before us now do not impose a rate. That will be a question of what rates are put into the legislation following the constitutional amendment if the constitutional amendment is adopted."

Senator McCutcheon: "I happen to know what Senator McCormack's constitutional amendment is and he has computations on that."

Senator Williams: "There are a number of packages that would go along with these and they have varying figures, $200 million is one figure that has been mentioned by some groups but it varies entirely with what rates you want to put in."

Senator McCutcheon: "It could be $200 million under yours just as well as under his."

Senator Williams: "It could be under any system. We could get a sales tax to amount to $200 million if you wanted to go high enough."

Senator McCutcheon: "You have the sales tax tied in and if your amendment carries, I presume you are going to vote for the bill?"

Senator Williams: "No, the sales tax is not tied into it, Senator McCutcheon."

Senator McCutcheon: "It is not tied in . . . locked in?"

Senator Williams: "No."

Senator McCutcheon: "It is not different from Senator McCormack's?"

Senator Williams: "No, he does not lock it in either. Neither locks it in."

Senator McCutcheon: "Now, as I read it, I thought that as long as there is a graduated net income tax there shall be no sales tax on food, this is the way Senator McCormack's reads."

Senator Williams: "You said sales tax. Now if you are going to talk about food . . ."

Senator McCutcheon: "Now, there are other sales taxes of course. I would like to ask you and it is obvious to me that this will raise more revenue than is now being raised or probably will raise more revenue than our present system?"

Senator Williams: "It is entirely a matter of what rates are set, yes. I think, Senator McCutcheon, we are talking right now about the form of tax structure we want or provisions in the Constitution as to the form of tax structure."

Senator McCutcheon: "One more question and then I will sit down. John J. O'Connell and Governor Daniel J. Evans during the election both said that we would not need any more taxes in 1969. In view of your statement and what has come out here about proposed revenue measures, how can you justify an added burden on the people. Who am I to follow John J. O'Connell or Governor Evans? Your advice on this matter would be greatly appreciated. You see, they both said that we don't need any taxes this year if my memory serves me correctly."

Senator Williams: "I believe they both advocated tax reform."

Senator McCutcheon: "Are you advising me then that I can't follow their advice, I have to follow yours, is that it?"

Senator Williams: "No, I am following their advice and want tax reform. We want some relief from the special levies problem. We want more balanced . . ."

Senator McCutcheon: "How do you meet this question directly? How can I justify a vote for this in view of the fact that both of them have said that we don't need any more taxes?"

Senator Williams: "Well, Senator McCutcheon, very briefly, it is a matter of where the taxes are placed and I think we are particularly concerned with solving the special levy problem, which these will do."

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Williams yield to a question? Senator Williams, I want to be sure I understood you correctly and I do understand your discussion of subsection (a) in the amendment with reference to the single rate tax but if I heard you correctly you said this did not disturb the rest of the bill. Did I hear you incorrectly on that?"

Senator Williams: "The amendment does not deal with the rest of the bill. Well, it doesn't deal with the parts of the bill pertaining to property tax and those matters."

Senator Canfield: "May I pursue that then with this question? I believe that you referred to exclusions under subsection (b) whereas the Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 specifically spells out two exclusions in the areas of sales tax and in the business and occupation tax. Would you please clarify that?"

Senator Williams: "Senator Canfield, in our amendment we have provisions to provide for the allowance of credit, exclusions, exemptions and deductions."

Senator Canfield: "And those would be set. However, as I read the amendment, in the discretion of the legislature, would not be written into the measure?"

Senator Williams: "That is right."

Senator Canfield: "And thirdly, you have another thing in here which is interesting. You adopt by reference some federal statutes with which I am not familiar and I just wanted to point out that I think we are considering some changes which are beyond simply the single rate versus the graduated net proposals. Am I correct?"

Senator Williams: "The matters of reference are purely administration matters within the framework of the single rate."

Senator Canfield: "I see nothing in Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 to adopt by reference."

Senator Williams: "The essential difference is administrative only. It still maintains the uniform rate."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator Durkan, was I correct in understanding you that you don't want any constitutional limit on this either the single or the graduated written into the Constitution?"

Senator Durkan: "You were incorrect, what I said was I felt that the responsibility for tax reform should lie with the legislature and I think that the legislature should establish, like the federal government establishes, the rates. Now, if that answers your question, Senator."

Senator Atwood: "I notice that in the upper part of this Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 there is a limitation of twenty-five percent and I know that Senator Durkan has a twenty-five percent ceiling on a clean twenty-five percent. Now, in response to Senator McCutcheon I know you have the impression that this is a tax increase but until we see what the bill does that goes with this Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 or whatever resolution we pass, there is no way of telling then how much money we are going to raise, but the rates that we have assumed here, I think Senator McCormack's is 3.8, and I think if he has the graduated net on corporations like he wishes and together with the B & O tax exclusion that corporations will be at the ceiling in order to get away with the exclusion . . . writing in the exclusion of the B & O.

"Now, I'm sure we are all well aware that there are several proposals in the House. In fact they are very close to an agreement on this and I would be hopeful that we always keep in mind the bill that goes with this and it is very difficult to argue in generalities on the constitutional resolution that is now before this body. I would point out to you, Senator McCutcheon, that the reason for this effort in tax reform is the fact that the schools and the school districts throughout the state are facing more and more the pressures of special levies. We are right now at the $190 million level in special levies and when people talk about this is not a tax increase you must realize that we are talking about devoting almost all of this additional revenue if in fact it passes to the solution of the special levy problem, so these people can legitimately argue that in truth and in fact it is not an overall tax increase. I would agree with what you say that in the long run it would most likely be a tax increase as the years go by assuming this should pass, but in any event we are faced with an unequal burden on the property tax in this state at this time and it's going to get a lot worse as time progresses. We are projecting for the biennium 1970-71 well over $250 million if we don't do something in this area. And this is why we're asking the people for a vote either on the single rate or some other type of constitutional amendment and I have no doubt that it would be very easy to kill this thing if it is misunderstood.

"I would be hopeful that this legislature would be able to at least present something to the people for their consideration and I think it's incumbent upon all of us here in the event that something does get on the ballot that we try to explain it in these terms. I have no doubt that it would be a very tough package indeed to sell."

Senator Durkan: "In further response, I would like the record to show, Senator, so there won't be any misunderstanding that when I talk about tax reform and the right of the legislature to respond to the needs of the people and you asked me the question, I recognize ceilings and limitations but within that broad area and I want to make it perfectly clear, I feel that the legislature should have this right to respond and I wouldn't want you or anyone else to misunderstand how I feel about Senate Joint Resolution No. 1."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended and Senator Elicker was excused.

On motion of Senator Ryder, the Senate recessed at 3:25 p.m.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 3:25 p.m.

SECOND READING

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 on second reading and the pending amendment by Senators Williams, Atwood, Ryder and Holman.

Senator McCormack demanded a roll call on the amendment by Senators Williams, Atwood, Ryder, and Holman and the demand was sustained by Senators Foley, Marquardt, Bailey, Sandison, Durkan, Ryder, Pritchard, Andersen and Canfield.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Point of parliamentary inquiry."

The President: "The Senator will state his point of parliamentary inquiry."

Senator Bailey: "Would a vote 'aye' then indicate that we were voting for the Senators Williams, Atwood, Ryder and Holman amendment for a flat or single rate income tax, and a vote 'nay' would mean that we were in effect leaving it open so that we could enact a graduated net income tax?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that a vote 'aye' will be a vote for a single rate income tax and in essence a vote 'nay' could possibly mean that the Senator was in favor of a graduated net income tax. However, in the case of the President, this would not be true as he is not in favor of either one."

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 592.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Metcalf: “I would like to have it recorded in the journal that today is the day that the Arabs sunk the Washington State Navy.”

MOTION

At 4:40 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 1, 1969.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary of the Senate.

Edited by SIDNEY R. SNYDER,

Elected Secretary of the Senate May 12, 1969.

NINETEENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Tuesday, April 1, 1969.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Weedy Hagen, Color Bearer, and Tom Giesecke, presented the Colors. Reverend Walter A. MacArthur, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"Heavenly Father for those of us who are Christians this is a special week. During it we remember our Lord and the last days before his crucifixion. His life and death seemed recusant. His standards were love and selflessness and honesty and truth. To many people all that seemed naive and foolish. In fact it got him killed. He did not die a hero and yet he was the greatest person who ever lived.

"Father, help each one of us to understand what it means to be great. Help these men as they struggle with very difficult problems and decisions to have some understanding about true virtue.

"We pray this in the Name of Him before whom every knee shall bow, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen."

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MOTION

Senator Greive moved that 6,000 additional copies of Senate Bill No. 1 be printed.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator Greive, is there extraordinary demand or is someone using this to circularize to voters or what? What is the need of 6,000?"

Senator Greive: "There is an extraordinary demand for this piece of legislation. It is very sought after by the elderly people who feel that it is a great salvation and it gives them some tax relief and we are constantly running out of copies and therefore it is our feeling that we should have them."

Senator Woodall: "How many members' names appear on this bill?"

Senator Greive: "I am afraid we would have to look that up. All I know is there are a number."

Senator Woodall: "Two candidates, I understand, appear on it. One for governor and one for mayor, is that correct?"

Senator Greive: "Something like those executive request bills that you so strongly support, Senator."

The motion carried.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGES

Senator Gissberg: "Point of personal privilege."

The President: "The Senator will speak on his point of personal privilege."

Senator Gissberg: "I just want to express my personal disappointment on the action of the minority in attempting to stop the printing of bills which are of substantial public importance which are sought to be disseminated to the public.

"This is a bill that is before this legislature and most assuredly has a tremendous public interest and I am disappointed because there have been abuses of the printing privileges by at least one member of the minority I know of who had printed at least 3,500 copies of material which I thought was done in an improper manner at least.

"I am sorry to have to get up and say this but that is just the way I feel about it. I certainly don't wish to wash any dirty linen out here on the floor and will not but I was disappointed to see the man that I was concerned about get up and vote as he did on this matter."

Senator Atwood: "Point of personal privilege."

The President: "The Senator will speak on his point of personal privilege."

Senator Atwood: "I am a little chagrined about the move to print 6,000 copies of this bill. It is readily available and especially at Senate expense when our expenses are running extremely high at this stage of the proceedings. It does shock me to see at this stage when we are late in the session to print this many copies and I think it is patently clear that it is used to put pressure on the House."

The plan may provide for direct contracts between the Department of Revenue and appraisal firms, in which case necessary disbursements may be made directly to the appraisal firms, pursuant to such contracts.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The word "agency" used herein means and includes every state government office, officer, each institution, whether educational, correctional, or other, and every department, division, board and commission, except as otherwise provided in this act.

"(1) Allot all or any portion of the funds herein appropriated or include in the state budget, to the various agencies by such periods as he shall determine and may place any funds not so allotted in reserve available for subsequent allotment: PROVIDED, That the budget director shall not alter allotment requests filed with him, nor shall he place in reserve any funds, for the following: Agencies headed by elective officials; University of Washington; Washington State University; Central Washington State College; Eastern Washington State College; Western Washington State College; The Evergreen State College; Washington State Apple Advertising Commission; Washington State Fruit Commission; Washington Dairy Products Commission or any agricultural commodity commission created under the provisions of chapter 15.66 RCW; the legislative branch of state government including the legislative council, the legislative budget committee, the statute law committee, and any legislative interim committee; or the judicial branch of state government: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the aggregate of allotments for any agency shall not exceed the total of applicable appropriations and local funds available to the agency concerned. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee to incur obligations in excess of approved allotments or to incur a deficiency and any obligation so made shall be deemed invalid. "(2) Issue rules and regulations to establish uniform standards and business practices throughout the state service, including regulation of travel by officers and employees and the conditions under which per diem shall be paid, so as to improve efficiency and conserve funds.

"(3) Prescribe procedures and forms to carry out the above.

"(4) Allot funds from appropriations in this act in advance of July 1, 1969; for the sole purpose of authorizing agencies to order goods, supplies or services for delivery after July 1, 1969: PROVIDED, That no expenditures may be made from the appropriations contained in section 1 until after July 1, 1969.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided in this act, any receipts from federal or other sources or from gifts or grants in excess of those estimated in the budget may be received and allotted by the governor. In the event that receipts shall be less than those estimated in the budget from any source the appropriation shall be limited to the amount received and allotments made as provided in section 6. Receipts for purposes of this section shall include amounts realized within one calendar month following the close of a fiscal period and applicable to expenditures of that period. The amount of such payment shall be credited to and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during the fiscal period. MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 29, 1969.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 180 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 9 of the title after "19.28.180;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 19.28 RCW;"

On page 6 add a new section following section 3 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 19.28 RCW a section to read as follows:

"At the time of registration the applicant shall furnish to the director satisfactory evidence that the applicant has procured and has in effect public liability and property damage insurance covering the applicant's electrical operations in the sum of not less than twenty thousand dollars for injury or damage to property and fifty thousand dollars for injury or damage including death to any one person and one hundred thousand dollars for injury or damage including death to more than one person.

"In the event that such insurance shall cease to be effective the registration of the electrician or electrical contractor shall be suspended until such insurance shall be reinstated."

Remember the remaining section consecutively.

On page 8, section 4, line 3, after "schedule:" and before "family residence" strike "Single" and insert "for plug-in mobile homes, recreational vehicles or portable appliances, no fee; for single"

On page 8a, section 4, line 2, after "the" and before "fee" insert "maximum", and the same is herewith transmitted. SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Assistant Chief Clerk.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Stortini the Senate concurred in the House amendment to page 8, section 4, line 3 of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 180.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the question was divided.

Senator Woodall moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to page 1, line 9 of the title and to page 6 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Woodall yield to a question? Senator Woodall, I don't quite follow just what you are referring to that it puts the little guy out. Who is the little guy to whom you are referring?"

Senator Woodall: "I am referring to one-man operators that we have in rural areas that they are attempting to bring in under this act which when we sent it over to the House we provided that those presently in get to continue which made it fine."

"Now by adding this new language you are saying that any one of these small operators who does not come up with this amount of insurance is automatically suspended and we are suggesting that this addition by the House is not needed, that the bill was in proper form when it went over to the House."

The motion by Senator Woodall carried.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Did we take any action on the amendment to page 8a, section 4, line 2? I don't recall."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The Senate has requested of the House that it recede from the House amendment on page 8, Senator Mardesich."

Senator Mardesich: "Yes, but there is another amendment on 8a. I would think that we would concur in that amendment. We haven't taken any action on that as I recall."

The President: "Yes, that was included in Senator Woodall's motion."

Senator Mardesich: "Is Senator Woodall available because I think the two subjects are entirely unrelated and I'm not so sure he meant to do that."

Senator Stortini: "Mr. President, we haven't taken any action on 8a and that is a completely different amendment."

Senator Mardesich: "I didn't get that to be the gist of Senator Woodall's motion at least."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Senator Stortini is right. That wasn't included at all in Senator Woodall's motion. This just sets the fee of $4.50 from the $10.00 which was normal on a home so this should be an amendment that should be passed on."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Mardesich: "Point of order, Mr. President."

The President: "The Senator will state his point of order."

Senator Mardesich: "Is it the Secretary's position that Senator Woodall's motion included not only the amendment to the title and the amendment to page 8 but as well the amendment to page 8a?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The Secretary advised the President that Senator Stortini had told him that the amendment 'NEW SECTION, Sec. 4,' and the amendment on page 8a were related and that if the first amendment other than the amendment to the title were rejected then the one to page 8a would have to be rejected. That was the Secretary's understanding from Senator Stortini."

Senator Mardesich: "I made the motion to divide the issues and this was a separate amendment and my motion was accepted."

The President: "The President believes that Senator Stortini should explain the situation."

Senator Stortini: "Thank you, Mr. President. We have two separate amendments on page 8. It refers basically to plug-ins whereas on page 8a we talk about the maximum fee not to be more than $4.50. I believe we should concur with each amendment separately."

Senator Woodall: "The first vote was on Senator Stortini's motion that we do concur on the amendment on fees which you inquired of him about and which was explained. We concurred on that amendment."

Senator Mardesich: "I made the motion to divide the issues."

Senator Woodall: "And it was because we voted first on concurring with the one amendment which Senator Stortini moved on. The other two amendments, one merely says add a new section and the other one was a new section."

Senator Mardesich: "But there are in fact four amendments."

Senator Woodall: "All right. Perhaps there is one we have not acted upon."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 180 on page 8a, section 4, line 2.

Mr. President: The House passed SENATE BILL NO. 376 with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 3, after "Section 1." strike the remainder of the section and insert: "The board of county commissioners of each county may purchase liability insurance with such limits as they may deem reasonable for the purpose of protecting their officials and employees against liability for personal or bodily injuries and property damage arising from their acts or omissions while performing or in good faith purporting to perform their official duties."

and the same is herewith transmitted. MALCOLM McBEATH, Chief Clerk.

Senator Walgren moved that the Senate concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 376.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Walgren yield to a question? Senator Walgren, is there any provision in the organic act where these commissioners would have to put this insurance for all the employees out for bid because there could be a substantial amount of money involved?"

Senator Walgren: "There is no provision which would guarantee the bid requirement."

Senator Dore: "Do you think it would be desirable to put a restriction that these public bodies are all regulated by county commissioners?"

Senator Walgren: "What I mean to say, Senator Dore, there is no requirement in this particular bill. It may very well be required under the existing law. I'm not sure."

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Sandison yield to a question? Senator, are the county commissioners now required to submit their business out for bids to get the highest and cheapest bid to the people?"

Senator Sandison: "It is my own personal experience in the counties with whom I have been connected, all three of them ask for bids on insurance. However, it is not a final thing and they do negotiate to a certain extent but the lower bidder always has the in."

Senator Dore: "Are you satisfied then that the amendment is written to protect the interests of the people?"

Senator Sandison: "Yes, it seems fair to me."

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1969-EX-16

By Senators Canfield, Donohue, Day, Wilson and Lewis (Brian):

WHEREAS, The widespread littering of our roadsides with discarded beverage containers and other types of litter has reached a point where it has not only damaged the appearance of our environment, but has become a threat to the public health, safety and welfare; and

WHEREAS, It is necessary to take measures to control this growing form of waste pollution before it becomes an even more serious menace; and

WHEREAS, The beverage and allied industries have agreed to cooperate fully with and to lend wholehearted support to a legislative study aimed at finding a practical solution to the problem;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, That the legislative council is requested to undertake a study of the pollution problem caused by the littering of roadsides with discarded bottles, cans, and other types of litter; that it undertake such study in cooperation with the beverage and allied industries; and that it recommend feasible ways in which the problem might be attacked and solved.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the results of this study, together with the recommendations pursuant thereto, be presented to the next regular session of the legislature for its consideration.

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 1, line 1, after "with" strike "discarded beverage containers and other" and insert "all"

On line 9 after "WHEREAS," strike "The beverage and allied industries have" and insert "Industry has"

On line 14 after "with" strike "discarded bottles, cans, and other types of"

On line 16 after "with" strike "the beverage and allied industries" and insert "industry"

Debate ensued.

The motion failed and the amendments were not adopted on a rising vote. There being no objection, Senator Lewis (Harry) withdrew his remaining amendment.

The motion by Senator Canfield carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTION

At 11:30 a.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 11:55 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:55 a.m.

SECOND READING

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 24, by Senators McCormack, Durkan, Bailey, Mardesich, Ridder, Knoblauch, Peterson (Lowell), Foley, Herr, Connor, Henry, Uhlman, Walgren, Odegaard, Stortini and Sandison:

Establishing tax reform by amending the Constitution to authorize a state graduated net income tax, by reducing the property tax, removing the sales tax from food and drugs, and eliminating the business and occupation tax.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the rules were suspended, Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCutcheon: "Would Senator McCormack yield to a question? Senator McCormack, if the terms of this bill are so sweeping on line 16 and I am reading with your permission from the bill itself, 'PROVIDED FURTHER, That notwithstanding any other provisions of this Constitution the legislature shall have the power to provide for enforcement of the provisions of this Article by vesting in state or local agencies or both the power to value and assess property for purposes of taxes imposed for any state or local purpose.'

"Now the question I am going to ask is, does that empower the county to levy sales taxes other than on food? Does it empower the counties and cities to levy income taxes? Would you like to answer that?"

Senator McCormack: "Yes, I would be happy to answer, Senator McCutcheon.

"That section has nothing to do with income taxes or sales taxes or local taxes. However, to answer the question for which you are trying to find the answer, I think what you are trying to ask is would we, the legislature, have the authority to grant to local government, cities and counties, the authority to levy income taxes or sales tax. My answer to your question is, yes, the same as we can now. We can now authorize cities and counties to levy sales taxes. We can now authorize cities and counties to levy gross income taxes. The only difference between the present situation and the situation that would apply under the passage of tax reform would be that the authority we could give to cities and counties would be to levy graduated income taxes rather than flat income taxes."

Senator McCutcheon: "One more question. In order to enforce that, thank you for your candor on the other question, under this Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 you have a right to call in the power to assess property and to enlist the local agencies in enforcing any action you might pass. That means, does it not, that the Ryder decision would be overridden and among other things, they would shift all the taxation to the state level."

Senator McCormack: "Now, Senator McCutcheon, the answer to the question if the legislature would have the power to require equalization, this is what we are getting at. Today we know perfectly well that some counties in the state of Washington historically have refused to equalize their property taxes with the rest of the state of Washington. Some county assessors simply are cheating on behalf of their people and as a result when we have programs for matching money for the state of Washington to provide education programs and money for cities and counties, we find some counties not carrying their load, simply cheating by not paying their fair share of the property tax. At the present time this is a very confused constitutional area. For instance, the county assessor is not a constitutional office. We could abolish it at any time."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McCutcheon: "Point of order."

The President: "Senator McCutcheon will state his point of order."

Senator McCutcheon: "It seems Senator McCormack has answered the question."

Senator McCormack: "I was only about half done, Senator but if you don't want . . ."

Senator McCutcheon: "I know you are only about half done but you have answered it."

Senator McCormack: "Thank you, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Would Senator McCormack yield to a few questions? Senator McCormack, as I see it we are debating not so much as to whether we want tax reform but which constitutional amendment we would like to put on the ballot to the people. You have shown a number of charts, etc. which I suppose deal with particular bills because the numbers there would have to relate to particular bills and not necessarily a constitutional amendment, isn't that correct?"

Senator McCormack: "They are tied to hypothetical income tax rates, the one percent to ten percent income tax program that you have . . ."

Senator Williams: "And these rates and provisions are not in the constitutional amendment."

Senator McCormack: "No, they are not provided in the Constitution."

Senator Williams: "In a number of states which have a graduated income tax as this would permit, they allow the federal tax to be deducted in computing the state income tax, do they not?"

Senator McCormack: "Yes, they do."

Senator Williams: "And under your constitutional amendment, that would be allowable, would it not?"

Senator McCormack: "Under this constitutional amendment the legislature would make that determination."

Senator Williams: "And if they elected to do so that would shift the weight quite a bit from your charts, would it not?"

Senator McCormack: "Yes."

Senator Williams: "The higher income people would be paying quite a substantial less amount."

Senator McCormack: "Yes, very definitely. Since I do not advocate that I think it would be very unwise. I don't believe the legislature would allow it. I did not consider it as a factor in this tax program."

Senator Williams: "Now, going to the other end of the spectrum, you had a certain personal exemption I suppose in your schedule that you allow?"

Senator McCormack: "We used the same exemptions and deductions as used in the federal system."

Senator Williams: "Of $600 a person?"

Senator McCormack: "That is correct."

Senator Williams: "Is it not a fact that if, as opposed to your $600 and a graduated net, if one moves a personal exemption to $1,000 and gets a single rate uniform tax, the lower income people, those under $5,000 or $6,000 would pay even less taxes, would they not?"

Senator McCormack: "The ones with families would but the ones without families would not. Single persons and married couples would still be hit much harder than they would under a graduated system. Senior citizens would be hard hit under that program."

Senator Williams: "Not if you had a double exemption for senior citizens."

Senator McCormack: "This is true. Of course, it is quite possible, Senator Williams, to take a flat tax and by a whole array of exemptions and deductions make it look like a graduated tax. My question as I asked yesterday is why bother. If you are going to make it like a graduated tax, why tie the legislature into not doing so, why not let it be a graduated tax."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCutcheon: "Point of personal privilege."

The President: "The Senator will speak on his point of personal privilege."

Senator McCutcheon: "Senator Holman said that he had a statement signed by every Senator in the Puget Sound region, in fact in twenty-four districts representing King county and Pierce county and he asked me to sign this and the only reason I am mentioning this, Senator Holman, is so those who come running up to you and say 'who is that culprit who didn't sign?' you can tell him that it was John McCutcheon who didn't sign and you can tell them why I told you that. What I was asked to sign calls for support of a tax reform bill I have never seen.

"Now there is another reason why I didn't sign it and that is because I felt a little compunction about telling people in other school districts how to vote. My district is half way in the country and half way in the city of Tacoma but when we came to our own last special levy, I would also like to have you tell them, these people who will come up and say 'who was it?' that I went on the air and praised Dr. Angelo Gaudrone and I praised our Tacoma system and I urged the passage of our special millage levy and it carried by ninety percent. I thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 and the resolution failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 22; nays, 26; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Ryder—1.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 24, having failed to receive the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared lost.

PROTEST

I protest the action of the Democrat leadership in placing Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 on the Senate Calendar either (1) knowing that it did not have substantial Democrat support or (2) not knowing it had insufficient votes for a reasonable chance of passage.

A real attempt at compromise was clearly in order because some of the tax reform and property tax relief is absolutely vital this session.

My vote for Senate Joint Resolution No. 24 was for the purpose of (1) providing a vehicle for responsible tax reform, (2) trying to get things moving toward a final solution and (3) demonstrating that even with Republican votes the Democrat version of the unlimited income tax cannot muster sufficient votes to pass a Democrat-controlled Senate.

(signed) Senator Jack Metcalf.

MOTION

At 1:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 2:15 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:15 p.m.

SENATE BILL NO. 754, by Senators Durkan and Sandison:

Establishing a drug testing laboratory at the University of Washington.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 27, 1969.

SENATE BILL NO. 754, establishing a drug testing laboratory at the University of Washington (reported by Committee on Higher Education and Libraries):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On line 12, strike all the material down to the period and insert “borne by the party for the benefit of whom the testimony of such employees is requested”

Signed by: Senators Sandison, Chairman; Atwood, Donohue, Holman, Huntley, McCormack, Ryder, Wilson.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Sandison moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Holman yield to a question? Senator Holman, what does this amendment do?"

Senator Holman: "Senator Stender, the bill said that if an employee of this drug testing laboratory was appearing as an expert witness in a criminal case that his traveling expenses and per diem would be chargeable to the governmental unit conducting the criminal trial and it seemed to the committee that he might possibly be called by the defendant who would want his testimony and the defendant should pay his expenses.

"Now, of course, if the defendant was indigent then the public defender or the county in which he was being tried, would pay it but if I am a defendant and I want some expert testimony, I should certainly pay for my witness."

Senator Stender: "One further question. What is the law now in regards to this type of matter?"

Senator Holman: "That is the way it is now."

Senator Stender: "What is the amendment for then?"

Senator Holman: "Well, this bill would purport to in every case, charge the state or the county with the expenses of the expert witness whether the person who called for it could pay for it or not."

Senator Stender: "Isn't an expert witness a witness that serves both sides of a case?"

Senator Holman: "No, Senator."

Senator Stender: "He is prejudiced to one side or the other?"

Senator Holman: "It isn't a question of prejudice. It is who calls him as a witness to substantiate his side of the case."

The motion carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Sandison, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 754 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Lewis, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 5, section 6, line 6, after "shall" strike "compute" and insert "compute"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Parliamentary inquiry. In reading the bill on page 2, new section 2, line 15, I am wondering if in the typing of the bill there is some language that has been left out because line 15, subsection 5 doesn't seem to make sense the way it stops where it does. I am wondering if Senator Greive can tell us if there has been some language left out in the typing of the bill."

Senator Greive: "Yes, Mr. President. There are two words that shouldn't be in the bill. I don't know where they got 'shall include'. I would ask for a momentary hesitation and see if the Secretary would draw me an amendment that would strike the words 'shall include' on line 15."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 77 was ordered placed on today's second reading calendar immediately following Senate Bill No. 55.

SENATE BILL NO. 78, by Senator Greive (by Joint Committee on Governmental Cooperation request):

Authorizing tax abatement in urban renewal areas for certain low income families.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator, I have a copy of the urban renewal code. Now in order for Senate Bill No. 76 and Senate Bill No. 77 to be effective, would it be necessary for the city or municipality involved to adopt this specific code?"

Senator Greive: "You will have to let me see the code. I wouldn't know without looking at it."

Senator Day: "For example, it states in the code under room separation, 'no room used for the preparation of food shall be used for sleeping purposes. No room housing a water closet shall open directly into any room used for the preparation of food.' In many homes built say thirty years ago, there is a water closet that opened off the kitchen but I don't think that makes the facility unsanitary."

Senator Greive: "If you will tell me where the code is as I am totally unfamiliar with the code. As far as I know, I don't believe there is anything necessary to make these bills effective other than the constitutional amendment. I don't know of any reason why there would have to be any particular code. Now, any particular local area if it so desires can adopt the code and there are some model codes but there is nothing required that those codes be adopted as far as I know."

Senator Day: "It is my understanding, Senator, that unless the code adopted by a city which utilizes federal urban renewal assistance has certain obligations, these obligations are in the nature of an appurtenance to the federal government that investment of federal public funds to remove blight will be protected by local public and private action to discourage further blight. In other words, for them to participate in the federal funds that these bills facilitate they would have to adopt a minimum code which was at least as restrictive as this code, as I understand it."

Senator Greive: "I think I have the answer to that. Senate Bill No. 78, the one we are discussing, does not contemplate any federal money. There would be no federal strings whatsoever so you can just forget this code as far as Senate Bill No. 78. That deals with existing facilities and it is urban renewal in a sense that the state or local area can participate but it has nothing whatsoever to do with federal government so it has no federal string and the federal act would not apply."

"Now, the others where they are supplying two-thirds of the money, it is another story but you understand that before they can make a federal act apply, they have to give us three to one money. I presume like anyone else if you are giving three to one money to build something then they probably have something to say with exactly how that is built, etc. and I don't think you would have any quarrel with that if we are talking about new houses and apparently that is what they are talking about."

"This Senate Bill No. 78 has absolutely nothing to do with the federal government. It is merely something that is a tool given to a local area that has a particular problem to solve in order to solve their own problem without the intervention of the federal government."

Senator Day: "What about Senate Bill No. 76, the one we just passed?"

Senator Greive: "Senate Bill No. 76 is another question. Senate Bill No. 76 is to be put over and that contemplates one part local to three parts federal government and then it also provides that we can supply at the state level a certain percentage of money to help the local. It provides for funding so that we will get it back. I don't think anybody should quarrel too much with those regulations provided they are talking about new houses and that is what they are talking about."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Guess, Senate Bill No. 78 was ordered placed on today's second reading calendar immediately following Senate Bill No. 499.

SENATE BILL NO. 79, by Senator Greive (by Joint Committee on Governmental Cooperation request):

Relocating displacees of urban renewal projects.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Williams moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 5, line 28 after "rehabilitation." insert as sections 5, 6, 7 and 8 the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The director of state planning and community affairs is authorized to adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this 1969 amendatory act or federal laws and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder to implement the relocation assistance, expenses and payments provided herein to the end that the same shall be reasonable, fair and uniform. Such rules and regulations shall include, but not be limited to, provisions relating to the following where applicable:

"(1) Limitations on the allowable compensable distance of a move;

"(2) Limitations regarding compensable allowable time for temporary storage of personal property;

"(3) A moving expense allowance,

"(4) Methods and procedures for providing relocation advisory assistance and the methods and procedures for determining the average price for a comparable dwelling;

"(5) Defining decent, safe and sanitary dwellings;

"(6) Eligibility for relocation assistance, expenses and payments, the procedures for making a claim and the methods and procedures for determining the amounts thereof; and

"(7) Procedures for review of a determination of eligibility or the amount of payment.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. "No payment received by a displaced person under this 1969 amendatory act shall be considered as income for the purposes of any personal income tax or any tax imposed under Title 82 RCW as now or hereafter amended. Such payments shall not be considered as income or resources, and such payments shall not be deducted from any amount which any recipient would otherwise be entitled, under Title 74 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. "Nothing contained in this 1969 amendatory act shall be construed as creating in any proceeding brought under the power of eminent domain any element of damages not in existence on the effective date of this 1969 amendatory act.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. "No displaced person lawfully occupying real property shall be required to move without at least ninety days written notice."

Renumber section 5 of the bill as section 9 and renumber the following sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

The motion carried. The amendment was adopted.

Senator Greive moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator Williams:

On page 2, section 4, following line 28, add a new subsection as follows:

"(4) The maximum amount payable to any person or family by reason of the provisions of this act, over and above the amount regularly payable by reason of the condemnation proceedings, shall not exceed $2,000."

Debate ensued.

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Grieve, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 79 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Could I inquire, is the bill still on second reading."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "It is on final passage at this time, Senator Lewis."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 79 was returned to second reading.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Perhaps Senator Greive could tell me, Senator, would you yield? I note that on page 2, section 4, the bill says 'whenever any person or family of low income is displaced by any condemnation proceeding whatever'. That doesn't say condemnation proceeding by the state. It could be a condemnation proceeding by the little podunk sewer district because they want to put in a sewer treatment plant. It could be a water district, it could be any one of these things.

"Now, I understand that obviously if low income people are going to be displaced, they are going to have a problem regardless of who is displacing them. But I would like to inquire if we have an estimate from Senator Durkan's committee or the people who produce these fiscal notes, what the potential cost this is going to be on state government because it is not only a question of removing people in urban renewal projects or even state highways. It is now any person anywhere, anytime removed under condemnation proceedings, the state is going to be picking up the tab and I think before we vote that we should know potentially what sort of cost we are talking about."

Senator Greive: "In looking this over it was our feeling that no fiscal note was necessary because it really didn't apply.

"In the first place, any state projects insofar as I know, we have none contemplated in the coming session that deal in a low income area, that is it doesn't present a problem at all.

"The highways would be the only exception and the highways have passed a similar piece of legislation earlier in the session so this is just a replay of exactly the same thing. So when you get down to local areas where this would apply, there I think it would be a hopeless maze and I don't see how we could determine anything. It would seem to me that the best we could do is pass the law and face both problems as they come.

"I am perfectly willing to argue the philosophy of this but I just don't see how a fiscal note could even be drawn."

On motion of Senator Greive, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 79 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 79, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 20; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

On page 4, section 1, line 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1893 and RCW 7.32.010 are each amended to read as follows:

"(1) Except as is provided in subsection (2) of this section, the clerks of the superior courts in the various counties in the state may issue writs of garnishment returnable to their respective courts in the following cases:

"[(1)] (a) Where an original attachment has been issued in accordance with the statutes in relation to attachments.

"[(2)] (b) Where the plaintiff sues for a debt and makes affidavit that such debt is just, due and unpaid, and that the garnishment applied for is not sued out to injure either the defendant or the garnishee.

"[(3)] (c) Where the plaintiff has a judgment wholly or partially unsatisfied in the court from which he seeks to have a writ of garnishment issued.

"(2) A writ of garnishment which is not sought in order to satisfy an existing judgment shall not be issued by the clerk of the superior court against any employer for the purpose of garnisheeing any debt he owes his employee, unless the plaintiff sues for a debt and makes affidavit that such debt is just, due and unpaid and that he does believe and has sufficient reason to believe that the employee:

"(a) is not a resident of this state, or is about to move from this state; or

"(b) has concealed himself, absconded, or absented himself so that ordinary process of law cannot be served on him; or

"(c) has removed or is about to remove any of his property from this state, with intent to delay or defraud his creditors; or

"(d) has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought.

"Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 56, Laws of 1893 and RCW 7.32.020 are each amended to read as follows:

"[In the case mentioned in RCW 7.32.010(2)] Whenever the plaintiff seeks issuance of a writ of garnishment which is not sought in order to satisfy an existing judgement, such writ shall not be issued until such time as the plaintiff shall have executed a bond with [two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be] a surety approved by the clerk [issuing] who would issue the writ, which bond shall be payable to the primary defendant in the suit, in double the amount of the debt claimed therein, and which shall be conditioned that [he] plaintiff will prosecute his suit and pay all damages and costs that may be adjudged against him for wrongfully suing out such garnishment.

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1969-EX-18

By Senators Guess, Marquardt, Twigg, Henry, Holman, Day, Greive and Keefe:

WHEREAS, Experience in prior sessions amply demonstrated the need for a well-designed sound system to overcome the acoustical deficiencies of the Senate chamber; and

WHEREAS, The Senate, in recognition of the need, appointed a committee composed of Senators William A. Gissberg, Harry B. Lewis and Gordon Sandison to work on the problem; and

WHEREAS, The Senate Committee retained Walker and McGough, Architects, to head the team; Robin M. Towne and Associates, Inc. to do the acoustical design and Signal Equipment Company of Seattle to install the sound pickup, transmission and amplification equipment; and

WHEREAS, The system installed is easy to use, reliable, and true, as controlled, amplifying the speaker's voice in clear, firm tones of high fidelity making action on the floor easy to hear throughout the chamber;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate express its gratitude to the Senate Committee responsible for accomplishing the remodeling, and compliment the architects, designers and installers for their well-done jobs in the design, development and installation of this acoustically pure sound transmission system; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to Walker and McGough, Robin M. Towne and Associates, Inc. and Signal Equipment Company of Seattle.

On motion of Senator Guess, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1969-EX-19

By Senator Huntley:

WHEREAS, Organized team sports provide recognized values in a balanced high school educational program; and

WHEREAS, These values include the development of school spirit and community interest that include, during the spring of every year, state high school basketball championship tournaments for the various size classes of high schools; and

WHEREAS, The St. John High School Eagles were victorious over the Oakesdale Panthers, by a score of 67 to 50; and

WHEREAS, This marks the fifth state Class B Basketball championship won by the St. John High School Eagles, the last four coming under Coach Bill Hays, who has compiled a record of 288 wins and 59 losses since becoming head coach in 1958;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington recognize the value of team sports in this state's public high school programs and congratulate the 1969 St. John High School basketball team, the faculty and administration of the high school, and the citizens of the St. John School District upon the happy culmination of a most successful basketball season, the success of which is acknowledged to have enhanced united school and community efforts toward the achievement of broad educational goals and inspired St. John students to higher achievement in all their endeavors.

On motion of Senator Huntley, the resolution was adopted.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 599, by Senators Foley and Woodall:

Pertaining to pooling of collateral to secure deposits of public funds.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute Senate Bill No. 599 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 599 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time by sections.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 3, section 3, line 28, after "of the" strike "supervisor of banking, the state attorney general" and insert "governor, the lieutenant governor"

On page 3, section 3, line 29, after "treasurer. The" strike "supervisor of banking" and insert "governor"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCormack: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, now as I understand this, there would be only one absentee participant allowed at these meetings. In other words, you could only have one of the three commissioners absent and represented by a proxy at any one meeting, is that correct?"

Senator Mardesich: "No, I would say that would not be the effect of it because if a person has been designated as a proxy then he becomes in fact, the commissioner."

Senator McCormack: "In other words what you are saying is although the amendment says 'with the consent of the commissioners present', in spite of that, what you are saying in your answer to my question is that you might have a meeting where you would have no one but proxies present?"

Senator Mardesich: "Maybe you are right. What you are saying is that these people aren't commissioners under the law and that only one of them could be absent."

Senator McCormack: "Only one could be absent at any one time?"

Senator Mardesich: "I would think that perhaps you are right. Yes."

Senator McCormack: "One further question, would I infer from this that the proxy would carry the responsibility for the action of the proxy back to the commissioner represented? Any actions voted upon by the proxy would be considered the responsibility of the commissioner himself?"

Senator Mardesich: "I think that is the legal definition of a proxy."

Senator McCormack: "Thank you."

The motion carried and the amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 3, section 3, line 30, after "chairman," and before "The affirmative" insert "With the consent of the commissioners present, the absent commissioner may designate a proxy for any specific meeting of the commission."

On page 4, section 4, line 12, after "formation" insert "dealing only with public deposits"

On page 4, section 4, line 15, after "deposits" and before the semicolon insert "until such time as the commission shall acknowledge that such depository has furnished the information requested"

On page 7, section 12, line 13, strike section 12 and insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The public deposit protection commission shall from time to time fix the rate of interest to be paid by qualified public depositories upon investment deposits: PROVIDED, That time deposits issued pursuant to this act shall bear interest at a rate which would not be in excess of one hundred percent of the average bill rate at the last U.S. Treasury 91-day bill market auction or in excess of the maximum rate permitted by any applicable governmental regulation."

On page 7, section 13, line 28, after "treasurer" strike the period and insert " PROVIDED, That in no case shall the deposit or deposits of public funds by any such treasurer in any one bank or trust company exceed at any one time in the aggregate one hundred percent of the total capital accounts of such bank or trust company."

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, I'm not one of the millionaires in this body nor do I own a fleet of ships and I don't own any bank. I had a little money in a bank one time and the bank went broke but I have had very few communications in regard to this bill and the communications I have had have been in opposition. My question to you specifically is this, have the amendments which you have proposed removed the objections which heretofore have existed in regards to this bill?"

Senator Mardesich: "Every specific objection that has been made to me I have attempted to cure by amendment. There are some general comments that have been made about further study and I think that there is some question of pride in authorship here. The people from the bankers' association are supporting the House bill as I understand it because that is the measure they drew and they are dragging their feet on this one because it was not cleared with the Washington bankers' association; this is the way I understand it."

"Now I have no great feeling about the association one way or another but I don't feel that their approval or disapproval is important. I think that every objection they have raised has been cured and I know of no further objection. There is a nebulous one about this, the withdrawing of money from the bond market. I don't see where that is a valid objection really because the bond market will still depend, this is municipal bonds, on the interest rates and if they pay an adequate rate of interest, they will get the money, if they don't, they won't."

"It is a simple fact of economic life and I can't see where that one objection is a valid one nor do I know how you could possibly cure it. Outside of that, I think that every objection that has been raised, I have attempted to cure and have cured by amendment."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Will this bill completely take care of any loopholes and will this money that is outstanding in the bonds derive this interest and what is the actual figure? It is when you start bandying a figure around of $100 million to $200 million, then I just would like to know actually. You say, Senator Mardesich, that it runs from $135 million that could be placed in the bank under bond or the fund could be as high as $200 million?"

Senator Mardesich: "The confusion in the figures comes by virtue of the fact that the discussion in the newspapers pertained only to state money. The figure $230 million which I speak about and which this bill covers is not only state funds but funds which local governmental bodies also have available and on deposit and that total figure, state and municipal covering all the other types of governmental functions which have money, that total is about $235 million as I understand it as of this date. Now, that $235 million is all monies on deposit. All of those monies will not be available for investment because a certain portion of those monies are needed for daily business and the question is how much of the $230 million will be available as long as term money will not be needed today and tomorrow and by the end of the month for current uses and that portion that is not needed for current uses can be invested under this bill. What that figure actually is, I don't know. No one has been able to give me an answer. They have guessed that it would be no less than fifty percent although they admit that is nothing but a guess."

"This will be left up to the local treasurer to determine how much money he needs to operate or the state treasurer for that matter, how much money does he need to operate. Whatever funds are not necessary for current operations he is allowed to invest and I think that not only prudence would dictate that, he would invest all that it was possible to invest but that if he did not get interest on all that it was possible to get interest on he would be subject to public criticism if he did not and this will force him to invest."

Debate ensued.

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Pritchard yield to a question? Senator Pritchard, your comments were made to create some doubt in my mind perhaps. I have a memorandum from a Mr. Frank Cooper who has to do with the banking division of the state of Washington and he in his wisdom says that this is okay."

Senator Pritchard: "I disagree with Mr. Cooper. I believe he drew the bill. We have many, many department heads that draw up bills and come here, unfortunately, when we get at our desks and have to vote, we have to vote on our own judgment and as I say, it may be fine and people far smarter than I who seem to understand this seem to think it is all right but I right now don't think it is quite right. Maybe I am a little slow but I think it is a little bit liberal and I am going to vote conservative today."

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 599 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Holman yield to a question? Senator Holman, I notice on your amendments, the amendment to page 6, section 4, you make an exemption, why did you give preferential treatment to intercorporation transfers because now they have to pay the one percent tax on all of those transfers. That is a tremendous exemption and how much money is involved?"

Senator Holman: "Senator Atwood just pointed out, the fiscal note on that showed $100,000, was it not, during a biennium? This is not intercorporate transfers, Senator Dore. These are transfers to a corporation in exchange for stock if immediately after exchange the same persons or their descendants are in control."

Senator Dore: "How do you define 'family', that is my point and what justification do you have just because a family transfers. Let us say a son incorporates one interest and his father incorporates another then they get the exemption but if they are not related, they don't. Is that the idea?"

Senator Holman: "I think this is a matter of convenience in family situations and it is not really the type of sale that we are trying to reach out for where the indicia of ownership is passing completely to some new person. This was not my amendment. It was simply the amendment of Senator Foley and Senator Huntley which in order to present it to the body, we put it in this way. Perhaps Senator Huntley might want to reply to it."

Senator Huntley: "I would like to defer to Senator Gissberg who was also on this amendment."

Senator Gissberg: "Mr. President, this amendment is actually the subject matter of a separate bill, Senator Dore, that was introduced early in the session by Senator Huntley and myself and the rationale in having it 'family' is that one, it is not as broad and secondly, it facilitates owning land and transferring land to a corporation when it is now held for instance in common in undivided interest by members of the family.

"It would facilitate the transfer of that land into a corporation without having to pay the one percent tax and thus insofar as the law of descent is concerned, it would make it much easier on the heirs in facilitating the transfer of their particular share of stock in the corporation rather than hindering the entire tract of land. If they own undivided interest in the tract of land, of course, individually by way of heirship and own perhaps an undivided one-tenth interest, something of that type, then they are restricted in terms of dealing with that land and selling an undivided one-tenth interest.

"This would allow a family and the reason it is a family is so as not to open up the entire exemption but is predicated on those situations where either the head of the household wants to arrange for a transfer into a corporation designed to ease the descent of his interest in the estate by this property transferring into the corporation; or secondly, where it is held in the first instance in undivided interest by a family by way of heirship transferring those undivided interests into the corporation without having to pay the one percent tax. There are sufficient safeguards included so that it cannot be used as a means of other persons other than a family unit taking advantage of this exemption. I think it is quite tight and it has sufficient merit to it in my opinion that we should adopt it.

MOTIONS

Senator Dore moved that the amendment by Senators Holman, Atwood and Foley to page 6, section 4, line 14 be voted on separately.

The motion failed on a rising vote.

The motion by Senator Holman carried and the amendments were adopted.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senators Huntley and Gissberg was withdrawn from the Secretary's desk.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 204 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Atwood yield to a question? Senator Atwood, quite frequently, as you know, the department of natural resources will lease land to farmers and ranchers. A typical instance might be a ten-year lease at the end of which the rancher would not have an option but he would have the opportunity to meet any other higher bid on the same property. I would assume that since that does not amount to a legal option that such transaction would not fall within the scope of this bill?"

Senator Atwood: "I think you are correct in that assumption. This bill is not aimed at that type of transaction."

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 204, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 9; excused, 1.

Signed by: Senators Mardesich, Chairman: Andersen, Day, Foley, Gissberg, Huntley, Knoblauch, Lewis (Brian), McCutcheon, McDougall, Newschwander, Ryder, Stortini, Twigg, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Brian), the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Brian), the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 217 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Would Senator Lewis (Brian) yield to a question? Senator Lewis, it appears by the scope of this bill that we are setting up another commission to protect a certain segment of our society, at least the landscape architects. Does this have any fiscal impact on regulating and promulgating the act?"

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Senator, you are correct, the board would be established and it has been endeavored in committee as best we could ascertain, to set the fee high enough that the board would be able to pay for itself. I think the fee is going to be fifty dollars a year which is considerably higher than it is for other professions as I think we passed in Senate Bill No. 323, was that the number of it, because of the fact that there were less landscape architects than in some other professions so accordingly in order to be able to meet their expenses of regulating them, their fees are correspondingly higher."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Lewis (Brian) yield to a question? Senator Lewis, this is new to me. Why do these people need regulation and licensing. Are there all sorts of abuses going on in this area or are shrubs being planted where they shouldn't or what is the problem that leads to this solution?"

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Senator, I think it is a question of addressing yourself to the question of whether we want to see our landscaping aspects of public projects designed by people who are trained and competent people. In order to see that perhaps we need to have them have a certain degree of qualifications to be able to practice landscape architecture. Certainly a person is capable, you are perfectly capable of deciding what shrubs you want to have in your yard and you wouldn't be affected by this bill. You would still be able to go down the street to visit your local nurseryman and have him advise you but on the other hand there are large scale public projects where increasingly large amounts of public monies are being spent on landscaping.

"The urban arterial board, for example, has authorized I believe it is up to one and one-half percent of the cost of the project may also now be included for landscaping costs. So in an endeavor to make sure that this money is spent correctly, we would want to be calling upon landscape architects who were recognized within their profession as being qualified. To that extent, this board hopefully would be able to promulgate some qualifications that would make sure that if a gentleman called himself a licensed landscape architect, they in fact would make sure that your money was spent wisely."

Senator Wilson: "Then is the primary purpose to protect public agencies against engaging people to handle landscaping work who are not competent to engage in that field?"

Senator Lewis (Brian): "I think that could be one purpose, yes."

Senator Wilson: "Well now, at home for example frequently the florist will come out and practically design a yard and then sell the shrubs and plants. Would he require a license under this bill?"

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Under this bill, no sir."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 217, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 11; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Day, Dore, Elicker, Faulk, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Henry, Holman, Huntley, Knoblauch, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McDougall, Mardesich, Marquardt, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stortini, Talley, Uhlman, Walgren, Washington, Williams—33.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Would Senator Dore yield to a question? Senator Dore, you made a remark relative to a $200,000 appropriation and the bill that I have in my book reads $350,000. Has this appropriation been changed?"

Senator Dore: "It is a substitute bill, Senator, in the back of the book."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "I am sorry. Evidently it was cut by $150,000. Who made the cut, Senator Dore?"

Senator Dore: "Senate Bill No. 742 was a title only bill and we put the $350,000 in thinking that we would need that much but on examination of the program and realizing the federal government would put in $4.00 for every one of state funds, we thought we would leave it at $200,000 which is in the substitute bill."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "One further question, Senator, we are speaking only I presume of one day care center, twenty-four hour center?"

Senator Dore: "Yes, Senator."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Was it the feeling of the committee that this was all that was needed in the state of Washington?"

Senator Dore: "No, it is hopeful that it will be the first of many throughout the state but we thought we could take the bugs out of it. Set up the procedure and get some experience with it and the department of public assistance could come forward with another suggested expansion of the program."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Thank you, Senator."

And it shall not be lawful to sell or dispose of any such goods or merchandise as aforesaid in such taxing district until the assessor shall have been so notified as aforesaid and the tax assessed thereon paid to the collector. POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Would Senator McCormack yield to a question? Senator McCormack, can you tell me what the impact is, if that is all that this embodies then you are not making a saving, you are not helping the distributors in the state of Washington?"

Senator McCormack: "Mr. President, in answer to the question, we are helping the distributors and the warehouses in the state of Washington. This is an implementation of the free port bill. It is a modification, a basis for computing a claim. It simply says that rather than try to itemize the goods which normally cannot be done, we will do it on a formula which is completely fair. This is the concept. It simply facilitates the administration of the existing free port exemption."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Then you are not helping the distributor who has a carload shipment come in and has it on his warehouse floor. He is not exempt at all. He is paying the full floor tax as he has in the past, as I would with the inventory I have in my place, is that right?"

Senator McCormack: "No, that is not true. If the goods come in from out of state it enters as a factor into the formula by which the tax is reduced. If it comes into the state from out of state or goes out of this state into another state, in either case it enters into the formula by which the tax is reduced."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Now, define that from the free port. Would you explain?"

Senator McCormack: "The concept of the free port bill is to not put the property tax, inventory tax on goods that come into this state from out of state or go out of the state into another state and this bill simply eliminates the requirement to inventory that material and provides a fair formula for doing so."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Then can you tell me what the impact is? It would be a tremendous impact if actually this bill is going to do what you say it is going to do. Financially it will cost the state heavily."

Senator McCormack: "It happens to be less than one million dollars a year, total taxes and of course most of those . . ."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Then actually Senator, you are not doing what I thought you were."

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, add a new section following section 7 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The governor, effective July 1, 1971 is empowered to abolish the hospital and health care study commission, or may continue the hospital and health care study commission for a period of two years, and further, if in his judgment he believes it is in the public interest, may establish a hospital rate commission which shall have the authority to approve, amend or reject all increases in hospital patient rates and charges of all public and private hospitals.

"The commission shall consist of three commissioners, one of whom shall be the director of public assistance or his designee, one of whom shall be the insurance commissioner or his designee, and one appointed by the governor who shall be a citizen, resident and qualified elector of the state of Washington. The public member of the commission shall serve for a term to expire on July 1, 1975, and shall hold office from July 1, 1971 to July 1, 1975, or until his successor is appointed and qualified.

"No member of the commission shall receive any salary or other compensation, but each public member shall receive the sum of fifty dollars per day for each day spent in actual attendance on or traveling to and from meetings of the commission, or on special assignment for the commission, together with subsistence and traveling expenses at the rate allowed by law to state employees.

"The commission shall administer, enforce, and carry out the provisions of this act and may adopt regulations necessary to carry out its purpose."

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Day yield to a question? Senator, in that amendment that we are talking about, did you get an attorney general's opinion on the legality of the delegation to the governor of establishing a rate making commission without any guidelines from the legislature at all?"

Senator Day: "No. I didn't. However, you will note that the legislature is establishing this and giving the governor the discretion, as he has with the pen on every bill, of whether he puts it into effect or not and I certainly think that that would be constitutional."

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, I would like to pursue this matter that Senator Atwood raised because I am sure that your intent here is right and proper. I think the people of this state are, well, the hospital rates are enough to make them sick if they aren't sick when they go there they are when they get out and maybe they will go via the backdoor to the undertaker. My question to you specifically is this, does this not in fact give this commission the right and the authority to set rates? It says here 'to approve and to reject' which in effect means to set the rates, does it not?"

Senator Day: "That is correct. Now the commission that is created by the passage of this bill, the first sections of the bill do not give them that power. All it gives them is the power to study. Then the governor has the right as of July 1, 1971 to abolish this health care study commission or continue it for a period of two years and then if, in his judgment, it is in the public interest to establish a rate commission.

"It would be my opinion that at that time he wouldn't think it was in the public interest, now I don't know but I tell you what I believe this would do, I think this will get their attention and then they will truly accomplish the purposes of the study."

Senator Canfield: "I realize this is an optional thing on his part but still it does give the authority and I am just wondering if that shouldn't be revised in some way and I might make a recommendation for instance for the legislature which does have the authority and in lieu of that I think we would have to do as Senator Atwood suggested and set up some legal criteria."

Senator Day: "Of course the only criteria we set out here is down the page where it says 'the commission shall administer, enforce, and carry out the provisions of this act and may adopt regulations' and of course that would be through the administrative procedures act to conduct their business."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 165 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, April 3, 1969.

SENATE BILL NO. 643, by Senators Andersen and Henry:
Pertaining to state lands reserved for state parks use.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 27, 1969.

SENATE BILL NO. 643, pertaining to state lands reserved for state parks use (reported by Committee on Parks, Recreation, Capitol Grounds and Veterans' Affairs):

Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 3, line 14, beginning with "There" strike entire section through "biennium." on line 18, and insert therefor:

"Any funds appropriated to the state parks and recreation commission for payment of rental for use of state lands reserved for state park purposes during the 1969-71 biennium and received by the department of natural resources shall be deposited by the department to the applicable trust land accounts without the deduction normally applied to such revenues for management purposes."

Signed by: Senators Wilson, Chairman; Bailey, Canfield Durkan, Henry, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Pritchard.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Wilson moved adoption of the committee amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Would Senator Wilson yield to a question? Senator Wilson, I understood you to say several times that this is a complicated measure. I can agree but does this in effect mean that the parks will not pay to the department of natural resources for those lands which are used for park purposes? It is a little unclear to me."

Senator Wilson: "Senator Peterson, the amount of money that we are talking about is approximately $720,000. Now, as you know in the past the rent has been considerably less than that but there has been an increasing recognition that the board of natural resources has an obligation to see to it that these trust lands produce the revenue that they would if they were used for some other purpose other than state funds. However, because of the amount of money involved in the accelerated or you might say the more realistic rent scales, it simply has not been found possible to add that money in terms of dollars and cents to the actual budget for the coming biennium, and consequently this procedure was developed essentially so that the members of the board of natural resources no longer could be accused of not producing the full amount of revenue that these trust lands could be producing if they were not used as state parks."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Thank you, Senator, I just wanted to bring out the point that the board of natural resources is obligated by law to obtain the maximum amount of funds available and I was wondering if we were circumventing this or whether we were just . . ."

Senator Wilson: "Not at all, you are quite correct in that assumption and what this is rather than a circumvention is the beginning of an effort to see that their commitments are fully accommodated."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Thank you, Senator."

The motion carried and the amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Andersen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 643 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary of the Senate.

Edited by SIDNEY R. SNYDER,
Elected Secretary of the Senate May 12, 1969.

TWENTY-FIRST DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Thursday, April 3, 1969.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Don Ward, Color Bearer, and Debbie Uffen, presented the Colors. Reverend Robert M. Keller, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

“Heavenly Father, hidden deep within each man here are no doubt many personal needs and fears and frustrations, some relating specifically to their task as Senators others more personally oriented. Every man requires love and understanding. Every man experiences the effects of hurt and anxiety, the pressure of ambition and pride. Power often brings with it a special kind of loneliness. When the hours become long or heated or the decisions difficult, it is not always easy to maintain proper prospective.

“So Father, we ask You today to give each man here wisdom and strength and an awareness of your love for him, in that order, that he might have some personal peace in his life and in order that he might perform his duty to this State with preciseness and integrity. We pray this in Christ’s name. Amen.”

On motion of Senator Greive, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

Senator Ryder: "This covers all state employees who work for the state in the various code departments, work for the Governor, or any area of state government."

Senator McCutcheon: "They are prohibited for how long a period?"

Senator Ryder: "That was only a part of the bill. I think you are referring to prohibition after they leave the employment?"

Senator McCutcheon: "That is right."

Senator Ryder: "For certain things they are prohibited for a period of two years. If they work for an agency, for example the liquor board, they would be prohibited for a period of two years in appearing before the liquor board in behalf of a client. This is just an illustration."

Senator McCutcheon: "You think that is fair, do you?"

Senator Ryder: "Yes, I think so. This particular prohibition carries to the heads of other code departments. For instance the supervisor of banking may not take a position in a bank over which he has supervision for two years after he leaves the office of the supervisor of banking."

Senator McCutcheon: "Is it true that they might be disqualified after about a year and a half? He has some knowledge you must understand from having worked on the job while with the state. He has been educated. You are assuming he might be crooked or something? What is the penalty?"

Senator Ryder: "I'm not assuming that anyone is crooked. This is just merely something which can safeguard the public against misuse of an office while the individual is in office."

Senator McCutcheon: "What is the penalty?"

Senator Ryder: "The penalty is a gross misdemeanor, I believe. Of course the penalty on that sort of a thing would just be merely that he would be ineligible to take the position but the penalty on the . . ."

Senator McCutcheon: "Take what position?"

Senator Ryder: "The penalty on this would be a gross misdemeanor for a violation of this code while the person is working for the state."

Voting nay: Senator Stender—1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Matson—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 744, having received the constitutional majority was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence of the Mason County Forest Festival royalty and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Sandison, Gissberg, Knoblauch, Andersen, Newschwander and Matson to escort Queen Janice Whitenburg and her court to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

With leave of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Queen Janice to address the Senate.

SENATE BILL NO. 456, by Senators Day, Henry and Twigg:
Creating special committee on health education.

On motion of Senator Day, Substitute Senate Bill No. 456 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 456 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Sandison, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, section 1, line 7, after "any" strike "two" and insert "five"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator Durkan, this new section 2 appropriates $150,000?"

Senator Durkan: "Yes, it does. No, it hasn't been in the Committee on Ways and Means, Senator."

MOTION

Senator Durkan moved that Substitute Senate Bill No. 456 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means—Appropriations.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Durkan yield again? Senator Durkan, what are the chances of this bill coming back on the floor and will it come directly to the calendar or will it have to go through the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules again?"

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, Senator Day, the bill will go back into the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules. We refer all bills to that committee and secondly, the chances of its coming out will depend upon how the committee feels about appropriating $150,000 in appropriations and how the Committee on Ways and Means feels about approving it."

MOTION

Senator Gissberg moved that the motion by Senator Durkan be amended to include instructions to the Committee on Ways and Means—Appropriations to consider Substitute Senate Bill No. 456 in conjunction with the Committee on Higher Education as to whether or not that committee could better study the problem.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, there are two places in the bill which refer to the school of veterinary medicine at Washington State University. I am curious to know why that is included in this study that has been indicated. Why is the attempt being made to drag away that school of veterinary medicine from Washington State University?"

Senator Day: "I think that the reason originally was that they felt if they had a school of health sciences in another location then it would be more feasible to have the school of veterinary medicine in conjunction with such a school because of the overlapping areas. However, if this motion does fail and I hope it does, I would move to put this bill back on second reading and offer two amendments. One to strike the school of veterinary medicine and two, to strike the appropriation."

"I believe doing this that we could salvage the original intent of the study for the feasibility of the second medical school so I would hope that the motion would be defeated and then I will move it back to second reading and accomplish those two objectives."

There being no objection, the motion by Senator Gissberg was withdrawn.

MOTIONS

Senator Ridder moved that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 456 be placed on the calendar immediately following Senate Bill No. 577.

Senator Day moved that the motion by Senator Durkan to refer Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 456 to Committee on Ways and Means—Appropriations be laid upon the table.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "I respectfully submit that a motion to refer is a higher motion."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Stender, the motions are of equal rank."

Senator Stender: "Doesn't the motion made first hold preference?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Yes, that is true. However, if we were to be technical, to postpone to a day certain is above the motion to commit."

The motion by Senator Day to lay upon the table the motion by Senator Durkan was lost.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that Senator Ridder's motion is of higher rank than that of Senator Durkan."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gissberg: "Unless the green sheet is wrong, it shows the fourth rank and there is no set priorities in the fourth rank. All of those are of the same rank and when motions are of the same rank, the one which is put first is the one that has priority and therefore you should put Senator Durkan's motion."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The point is well taken."

The motion by Senator Durkan carried on a rising vote and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 456 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means—Appropriations.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Day: "Point of personal privilege."

The President: "The Senator will speak on his point of personal privilege."

Senator Day: "My cup runneth over. I had an urgent message. 'Call home right away. The pump went out and they want to know what to do!'"

SENATE BILL NO. 468, by Senator Mardesich:

Providing retirement benefits for municipal police departments.

On motion of Senator Stortini, Substitute Senate Bill No. 468 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 468 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Stortini, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 468 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 468, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; absent or not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Elicker, Faulk, Foley, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Holman, Huntley, Knoblauch, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McCormack, McCutcheon, McDougall, Mardesich, Marquardt, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stender, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Walgren, Washington, Williams, Wilson, Woodall—48.

Absent or not voting: Senator Keefe—1.

On page 7, section 12, line 5, after "laws," and before "except" insert "or local ordinances."

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 392, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator McCutcheon: "Would Senator Andersen yield to a question? Senator Andersen, I realize the problem, I know all about that, I know what you are trying to accomplish but what provision is made for how the governor, the governor has the power I assume to declare an emergency, enforce his orders with what troops, with what police?"

Senator Andersen: "The state patrol. Under the present law there is nothing that specifically grants him the right to use the state patrol. Under this law he would have the right to do so. He would have the right to use the state militia if need be.

"I think you and I are both well aware as lawyers, Senator McCutcheon, that the last thing any governor would want to do would be to get into this area. This would provide the emergency tools, legal tools, if I may use that expression, that would delineate what powers he did have if he ever had to take that very fateful and very emergent kind of a step but he would have the power to use the state patrol, he would have the power to use the militia and he would very specifically be given that power."

Senator Dore: "Senator Andersen, would you yield to a question? Senator, who is pushing the amendment of this particular bill and why are these vast powers needed by the governor, in other words more than the existing law?"

Senator Andersen: "I am, as a member of the State Senate. The governor has not asked me to introduce this bill. I very carefully abstained from asking the governor if he wanted me to introduce this bill or to push it. In other words as a member of the legislative branch I believe it is our determination to make decisions of this kind. I am sure if the bill went down before the governor and he thought it inappropriate, that he would then veto it.

"Insofar as the technical parts of the bill are concerned, I have checked with members of his staff, attorneys on his staff, to make sure what we were doing was an appropriate thing from a legal standpoint. I did not want to foul up the laws as far as the writing of the law was concerned. We wanted to make sure that this was a well drafted piece of legislation but it is my responsibility. It is my bill, Senator Dore, I worked in drafting it. I worked in putting it through and whether it is good or whether it is bad, I accept full responsibility as a member of the State Senate."

Senator Dore: "Let me ask you this, Senator, did any group of citizens or citizens' organizations endorse this bill or request it or have some factual information in mind in asking for these vast powers? It makes the governor almost a dictator. As I read the sections through it looks like it is at his whim what he declares an emergency.

"Now you made a number of flowery examples referring to some other states, I assume, but are there any safeguards of the people that we have a civil government here. When is the government going to be handed back to the Constitution. This is all over and above the Constitution. I thought the other bill of which I was a sponsor several years ago when we had some concern about it was that it was adequate but to give these vast powers now just on your request as a State Senator and with no particular demand or factual information, I am concerned about the bill, Senator, I really am."

Senator Andersen: "I appreciate that, Senator Dore, and this is one of the matters that was quite fully debated, fully and informally with the members of the Judiciary Committee that passed the bill out. I will say this that the law the way it is presently is that the governor of the state of Washington can declare martial law. He has that power. Once martial law has been declared, there are no rights. There is no right of habeas corpus, a man is not entitled to a trial, he has no rights at all.

"Now, the purpose of this particular bill in setting out these carefully drawn emergency powers, is to retain the full system that we have of the protection that the person has built into the law from the police. It protects the right to bail. It protects the right to trial before a court and the right of appeal. In other words this grants emergency powers within the framework of our law because the way we are now if things really got bad in a given area of the state, the governor could declare martial law and there would be no rights. It hasn't been done because it is that kind of a problem that nobody wants to get into as nobody would want to get into this.

"You asked about checks and balances, we specifically write in this law that the governor must terminate the state of emergency as soon as order has been restored in the area affected. We are talking about, obviously, a legal remedy to be used in extremis in a situation.

"If you read the morning paper, 20,000 people descended on a little town of Palm Springs, California. I don't know what the situation is but in the days of the old west we used to call it 'running a town up a tree.' In Palm Springs they apparently just ran the local police out of town and people were at the mercy of a mob roaming the streets. This isn't private rights and individual rights."

Senator Dore: "Mr. President, would the Senator kindly yield to another question? Senator, where in the bill does it provide that citizens like myself think the emergency is over and the governor should return the powers. Where is the mechanism or the machinery in the event the Governor doesn't agree to have his power terminated. What is the language? Maybe I have missed it."

Senator Andersen: "All right, at the bottom of page 1 of Senate Bill No. 392 it says 'Provided that the governor must terminate this state of emergency proclamation when order has been restored in the area affected.' We have left this within the realm of the present law, of course, which means that simply a writ of mandamus or a writ of prohibition in a civil court could test this particular situation.

"In other words, we haven't departed into the area of martial law. The last thing I want to do is to get into the area where the military is going to run somebody so that is why this has been put into this particular place. So it would be a writ of mandamus or writ of prohibition, Senator, and special mechanics are not required in my judgment as an attorney because they already exist in the law when you have mandatory language compelling the governor to declare the state of emergency terminated."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Dore, Senate Bill No. 392 was ordered to be placed at the end of today's third reading calendar.

SENATE BILL NO. 264, by Senators Day, Pritchard and Mardesich:
 Providing psychological services under disability insurance contracts.
 The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 264 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Sandison: "Would Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, the line of demarcation between what a psychiatrist does and what a psychologist does is a little vague to me. Who would make the determination whether or not a man would go to a psychiatrist or psychologist under this act?"

Senator Day: "The man would make the determination which place he went first. Let's take the psychologist, if a patient came to a psychologist when he properly should have gone to a psychiatrist, the psychologist would refer him to a psychiatrist. In other words, if it were a situation where institutional care were necessary, the psychologist would then refer the patient to the psychiatrist or to the institutional care."

Senator Sandison: "If I could ask another question, Mr. President. Then conversely a psychiatrist would also refer a person to a psychologist? Does that type of relationship exist?"

Senator Day: "Very possible, yes."

Senator Sandison: "Thank you."

On page 11, section 3(a), line 8, after "basis" strike the remainder of line 8 and all of lines 9 and 10 and insert: "Such advice shall become part of the official minutes of the next succeeding meeting of the board. The counsel shall not be engaged in the business of buying, selling, or otherwise marketing securities during the time of its employment by the board."

Debate ensued.

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

Following section 3 add a new section as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In order that the intent of the legislature may be made clear with respect to investments, but without restricting the necessary flexibility that must exist for successful investing of the retirement and pension funds, the legislature makes this declaration of its desire that the investment authority shall give primary consideration to dealing with counseling and brokerage firms which maintain offices and staffs in the state of Washington so that the investment programs may make a meaningful contribution to the economy of the state. It is further the desire of the legislature that the retirement and pension funds shall be used as much as reasonably possible to benefit and expand the business and economic climate within the state of Washington so long as such use would be consistent with sound investment policy.

Debate ensued.

The motion lost on a rising vote and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 761 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SENATE BILL NO. 195.

MOTION

At 12:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Greive, the Senate recessed until 2:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:00 p.m.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of the motion by Senator Mardesich to reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 599 failed to pass the Senate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pritchard: "I wonder if Senator Mardesich would yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, in your amendment you changed it so that you have the one hundred percent feature and I was looking at the Connecticut law which was the model upon which this bill was drawn, this one feature that we discussed so thoroughly yesterday and I see three or four times it comes back to this statement 'in no case shall the deposit of public funds by any person in any one bank exceed at any one time in the aggregate seventy-five percent of the capital surplus undivided profits of such bank.' All the way through the Connecticut law they use the seventy-five percent but I noticed in your amendment you have made it one hundred percent. What is the reason? Do you know why our bill should be that much more liberal than the bill it was patterned after?"

Senator Mardesich: "I should like to point out first as an answer to Senator Pritchard's statement, this bill is a current bill and if you will look at that it is just currently being amended from fifty percent to seventy-five percent and it is my understanding that was by way of compromise that the state treasurer in Connecticut wanted to raise it to one hundred percent and he compromised at seventy-five percent.

"In addition to that, if I might, there are a substantial number of states that require absolutely no guarantee funds. True that Connecticut started with this type of guarantee fund and they are merely getting away from the one hundred percent type of collateralization which we had and they are already changing the bill now from fifty to seventy-five percent. The state treasurer told me that he wanted it changed to one hundred percent but has settled at seventy-five percent."

Senator Talley demanded a roll call on the motion by Senator Mardesich and the demand was sustained by Senators Stender, Pritchard, Donohue, Ryder, Herr, Washington, Knoblauch, Foley, Durkan and McCormack.

SENATE BILL NO. 490, providing for mass public transportation (reported by Committee on Highways):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 10, section 14, line 12, after "power to" strike all of the material down to

"may determine" in line 20 and insert "contract with the legislative body of any other municipal corporation, quasi municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state of Washington, or with any person, firm or corporation, for public transportation services or for the use of all or any part of any publicly owned transportation facilities for such period and under such terms and conditions and upon such rentals, fees and changes as the legislative body operating such public transportation system"

Signed by: Senators Washington, Chairman; Henry, Vice Chairman; Connor, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Huntley, Lewis (Brian), McDougall, Marquardt, Matson, Pritchard, Ridder, Walgren, Williams.

On motion of Senator Washington, the first committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Guess moved that Senate Bill No. 490 be indefinitely postponed.
Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I rise to move that the rules be suspended and Senate Bill No. 490 be made a special order of business tomorrow at 11:30 a.m. because I suddenly get the feeling that Senator Guess has lots of talking to do and there may be a number of bills killed if we don't suspend the rules and set this up as a special order of business. There may be a number of bills that will die which I'm sure some of the members feel still have some merit."

Senator Greive: "If Senator Mardesich's motion is in order which I don't think it is, I move to lay it on the table."

Senator Mardesich: "A motion to suspend the rules is always in order."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Mardesich, the President did not recognize you for the purpose of making a motion."

Senator Mardesich: "But I made it anyway."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President has not put the motion, Senator Mardesich."

The President: "Senator Guess, do you wish to yield the floor to Senator Henry or does Senator Henry yield?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Does Senator Henry yield?"

Senator Henry: "Senator Guess, I thought you were doing pretty well on your own. One of the responsibilities of course of the chairman of any interim committee is to pick the people to do the job, the ones that he thinks can best do the job. I tried to do that this last session and I think if you will look over the list of chairmen of the various committees and the membership of the various committees, I picked those who I thought were best able to do the job.

"Now, in the case of the study through the year 1990, I picked Senator Huntley because he had been a former member of the Highway Commission and a very knowledgeable man on highways, former chairman of the House highways committee. I picked Representative Cunningham because he was a driver education teacher to be the head of the driver education subcommittee. I got down to the mass transit committee and it went on this way right down the line and I'll defy anybody on the floor of this Senate to say that I played politics with the highway interim committee. Any member on either side of the aisle will say this is one of the most nonpartisan committees on which they have ever served.

"I had one man on my committee, two men as a matter of fact, who were engineers. One lived in the environs of the city of Seattle, the other man lived where he wasn't quite as available for arm twisting. I don't agree with Senator Guess on very many issues but I have learned to respect him for digging into things over the years that we have been here. He is a qualified engineer and for that reason he was made chairman of the mass transit committee. We were asked to study this. We're studying it. We may not agree with the report from the city of Seattle. We got cockeyed little cooperation, I'll tell you that, from either the press once the first preliminary committee report came out, or from any of the groups that we asked to appear before our subcommittee, like Senator Lowell Peterson's committee on how we were going to get transportation into the downtown dome stadium.

"So, Senator Guess, if it is any satisfaction to you I picked you because I thought you could do the job and I also picked you because you were far enough away they couldn't twist your arm."

Further debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Gissberg: "Would Senator Guess yield only for the purpose of asking him a question? Senator Guess, I notice the pitcher of water on your desk and I notice your voluminous reports and I wonder whether or not you intend to try what I think you have in mind. Since we are under the Call of the Senate, could you give us an indication as to how long you presently plan on an attempt to keep the floor on the matter of speaking on your motion?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Gissberg, this is a very difficult thing. I have never gauged the limit of my ability to speak. I have spoken about forty-five minutes on this subject at one time. I believe I spoke at another time about forty-five minutes and I imagine that I could, well maybe until midnight."

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator, are you going to go through the night, too? Is that your intention?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Dore, I just don't know. It is a little bit early in the day, sir. I have been on the floor for about twenty minutes."

Senator Dore: "Mr. President, thank you for recognizing me and I would now like to meet the argument against the motion to indefinitely postpone. Senator, I now have the floor."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gissberg: "Point of order."

The President: "Senator Gissberg will state his point of order."

Senator Gissberg: "I am sorry to raise the point of order but Senator Dore does not have the floor. Senator Guess has the floor and the President has not recognized Senator Dore for the purpose of anything other than to ask Senator Guess a question. He yielded to the question and when the question has been put and answered, the floor once again goes to the Senator who has it. The President also ruled correctly on the point of order raised by Senator Mardesich, namely that our rules specifically state that until such time as the President recognizes or puts the motion, there is no motion before the body and Senator Guess certainly has the floor."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President ruling upon the point of order as raised by Senator Gissberg, the point of order is well taken."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Dore: "Point of personal privilege. I would like to make a remark, Mr. President. I would like to address my remarks to Senator Gissberg's point of order.

"I asked first, you asked why I rose and I said to ask Senator Guess a question. You then recognized me and I think the journal will show for the purpose of asking Senator Guess a question. I then asked him the question. He replied. I then got up again and addressed the Chair as Mr. President and you recognized me to speak. If you will check the record, I don't think you asked me why I rose. This was done effectively to me some twelve years ago in the House and the very same maneuver and the Speaker at that time ruled in favor of the Speaker having lost the floor."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The ruling factor in this particular situation is that Senator Guess had not concluded his remarks."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question?"

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I believe that I will yield through the Chair only."

Senator Mardesich: "Does the Chair consent to the question?"

The President: "The President will entertain your question, Senator Mardesich."

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I wish you would ask Senator Guess if he would consent to a motion or if he makes a motion subject to the Senate's concurrence to make Senate Bill No. 490 a special order of business at 11:30 a.m. tomorrow so that we may continue with the work of the Senate since we are all aware, I am sure that the Senate must conclude, under a joint resolution that we passed earlier, its business on Senate bills by noon tomorrow. I think, also, that I should point out that the President at one time earlier in the session ruled that once the matter had begun consideration that the mere fact that after we had begun the falling of the hour to cease consideration would not stop the consideration of a measure.

"So that Senator Guess and Senate Bill No. 490 would not die as of noon tomorrow once we had begun consideration at 11:30 and if that would be satisfactory I would like Senator Guess to yield the floor only for the purpose of such a motion and for no other purpose, conceding that the floor is still his should the motion fail."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Point of parliamentary inquiry."

The President: "The Senator will state his point of parliamentary inquiry."

Senator Day: "Wouldn't a motion such as Senator Mardesich's accomplish the same purpose if it was set for let's say 11:58 tomorrow morning?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes it would serve the same purpose, Senator Day."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Day: "Point of order. I would like to speak to that comment by Senator Greive and take issue with it. When Thomas B. Reed wrote the rule book he invoked a number of rules, one of them was all those present must vote because in the Congress they had what was known as the silent minority. They refused to answer the roll call and it took then three-fifths to constitute a quorum at the time so in effect it took three-fifths to pass any bill.

"Subsequent to this session of Congress he was taken to the supreme court of the United States and the supreme court of the United States held that the legislature itself was the only judge of its action or any of its own procedures. So I would think that such a motion would accomplish the objective and would be unquestioned as far as legal action is concerned. It may be questioned perhaps by the other House or by the Senate itself."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McCutcheon: "Point of parliamentary inquiry."

The President: "The Senator will speak on his point of parliamentary inquiry."

Senator McCutcheon: "I was furious about this because I read about the history of Congress and the theory of filibusters and I take it that word is appropos here but originally it was to give the people time enough to catch up and then Congress passed a rule.

"Now the question I am addressing to the Chair even though it gives Senator Guess a few moments of respite and rest, have we any rule that limits debate in the Senate. You talk about governing ourselves. We have written our own rules. I admit that this body writes its own rules but have we written one that says 'I can only talk fifteen minutes, or twenty-five or thirty-five or forty-five', I don't know the rules, so?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question? May I direct the question to the President?"

The President: "Yes, Senator Canfield."

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, would you please ask Senator Guess if he would object if some of us would withdraw to the adjoining chamber and play pinochle until he gets through?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that if the bill were considered at 11:30 a.m. as a special order of business tomorrow, that it would be in order to continue consideration of the measure until the Senate has reached an ultimate decision. Would you consent under those circumstances to yielding the floor?"

Senator Guess: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I took this up at the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules with a member or so and I made the statement there that I was awfully sorry that they decided that they were finally going to have to steam roll Senate Bill No. 490 and get it out. Our leader said it had to come and gentlemen, I feel a great insurging desire to talk about mass transit today and I just feel it is bound to come out, Mr. President."

Senator Greive: "He just can't keep the floor. Under Rule 199 and Rule 102 of Reed's it says that a motion of higher order would rank. He has asked for a motion to indefinitely postpone which is the bottom of Rule 21, above there are the motions to lay on the table, question of consideration, method of consideration, withdrawal of a motion. There are a great deal of other motions that all would be very much in order when the time comes but on the other hand, he is a man of respected consideration, he is an engineer, he has something to inform us and I think he should have the floor."

Senator Guess: "Senator Greive, I thank you for those kind words. I have a few words to say about mass transit but I want to express my appreciation to Senator McCutcheon because I think he hit the nail on the head."

"The reason I want to tell you about mass transit is because I think the people of the state of Washington better catch up and find out that Senate Bill No. 490 is a raid on the treasury of the state of Washington for the construction and operation of mass transit facilities in about five cities that we, the people of the state of Washington, are going to have to dig deeper into our pockets to find the replacement thereof."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question? I am wondering if perhaps Senator Guess might have had time to read the note on his desk and also wondering perhaps if we set that time rather than 11:30 a.m., say at 11:40 a.m. tomorrow with the floor yielded to Senator Guess when we begin consideration of this bill again he might now consider that this might be a more adequate time."

Senator Guess: "Senator Mardesich, I very much appreciate your calling my attention to the note on the desk and I want to express my appreciation for your very kind cooperation and under those considerations, Mr. President, I would yield the floor, if I would be given the floor again at 11:40 a.m. tomorrow to take up where I am."

MOTION

Senator Henry moved that Senate Bill No. 490 be made a special order of business at 11:40 a.m. tomorrow morning with instructions that Senator Guess resume the floor.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "Point of order. A motion to postpone to a time certain and a motion to indefinitely postpone under Rule 21 are one and the same rank. The two rules are one and the same rank; the motion first put must be put before the other motion being made."

Senator Henry: "I don't quite follow Senator Greive but I will tell you there is one motion that does have a higher rank, Senator, that is the motion to adjourn."

Senator Greive: "Would you like to make it?"

Senator Henry: "No, I don't intend to make it but if you will sit down for a few minutes, I will try and straighten this out."

The President: "Senator Greive, would you repeat the number of the rule?"

Senator Greive: "Rule 21 of our rules sets the order of motions. If you will look down under subsidiary motions you will find that a motion to indefinitely postpone or to postpone to a time certain, commit or recommit are one and the same rank and the motion first put under I believe it is 255 of Reed's is the one that says whichever one if first put must be put before another one can be made."

Senator Mardesich: "I think if you will recall I made my motion with suspension of rules with concurrence of Senator Guess only with his permission and it provides for the holding over of this bill until 11:40 a.m. tomorrow with agreement with it noted that Senator Guess would be the one holding the floor when consideration of Senate Bill No. 490 was commenced at 11:40 a.m. tomorrow. I don't think my motion was originally under suspension of rules and restated so in my second motion and I don't think there was any real need for Senator Henry's motion."

Senator Day: "Mr. President, I believe that the rules specifically state that the body has the right to proceed at its own will which would be a majority and we are in effect by this second motion determining the question of whether the motion to indefinitely postpone or whether it wishes to make it a special order of business tomorrow which I think is the very point."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry. The thing is as I understand the suspension of rules Senator Mardesich has three different questions. I think to orderly proceed, the Chair should properly put them in sequence. In other words, we may wish to vote on putting the measure over until 11:40 a.m. tomorrow. On the other hand, we may wish to vote again recognizing that Senator Guess would have the floor again so I think under the question of suspension of the rules that the motions should be delineated and voted on separately."

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, I call your attention to our Rule 16 and 216 and 217 of Reed's, all of which if taken together and read one with the other would indicate that if you give up the floor for any purpose, for instance the purpose of making a motion, you have plainly lost the floor and we would be in no position that we could do anything and if Senator Mardesich's motion is ordered, then Senator Guess has lost the floor."

Senator Atwood: "I don't wish to defend Senator Guess on this. I agree with him on his stand but I think Senator Mardesich was not recognized for the purpose of making a motion and I think that is wherein lies the fallacy of his position. Senator Guess still had the floor."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Guess has the floor. No Senator has been recognized for the purpose of making a motion."

Senator Henry: "Senator Guess did answer Senator Mardesich's question and inasmuch as we have so many parliamentarians here that don't want to stop this for the present, why you may proceed in order, Senator Guess, I will sit here and listen to you."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President is trying to determine whether or not the statement by Senator Greive is correct, that the motion to indefinitely postpone must be placed before your motion, Senator Henry."

Senator Greive: "Rule 255."

Senator Dore: "What is the status of the motion? As I understood it, Senator Guess did yield the floor to Senator Henry to make a motion. Senator Henry was recognized and made the motion at that time and that is what the record will show. Am I correct in that or wrong?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "You are correct with the exception that Senator Guess agreed to yield the floor. He has not yielded the floor as yet."

Senator Dore: "Maybe I am wrong, Mr. President, but I thought he did yield the floor to Senator Henry. He was asked whether he would and he said yes, he would and Senator Henry rose and made the motion. At that time Senator Mardesich intervened with suspension of rules but I think the motion before us is Senator Henry's motion."

There being no objection, Senator Henry withdrew his motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question?"

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I will not yield the floor to a motion or to questions from Senator Dore."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Dore: "Under personal privilege I would like to say this: Senator Guess has always been a very fine, upstanding, honest, fair man in the committee, on the floor and I think at this time he is going to be fair, too. I think he should allocate to his opponents as much equal time as he has. It is only fair that if he is going to take several hours to give his position then he should allocate an equal time to the proponents of this measure to also present theirs so I would like to appeal to him as the fair Senator that I know he always has been to provide for equal time basis so we can give arguments on some fair basis, Senator. I would appreciate it if you might without yielding the floor, comment on your fairness, whether you are going to continue to be the fine, upstanding, dynamic, outspoken but on the other hand very fair Senator from Spokane and give the people of Seattle an equal voice in this body."

"We like to hear from the Spokane Senator but the Seattle Senators would like to utter a few words. Now you made a lot of statements, Senator, about the unfairness of the newspapers, the unfairness of various people, etc. Now, can you honestly say that you are applying that standard to yourself in this particular situation or not. I would appreciate hearing your remarks on that."

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, would you be so kind as to inform Senator Dore that I have a few remarks to make about mass transit and I would be very happy to share the floor with him in due time."

The President: "Senator Guess, the President believes that Senator Dore has received the message."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gissberg: "I wonder if Senator Guess would yield to a question?"

Senator Guess: "A question only. I yield."

Senator Gissberg: "Senator Guess, you might be interested in knowing that the word is that the House Rules Committee is going to bring out a similar bill and I assume that that bill will pass the House. As you know under our concurrent resolution when that bill gets to the Senate there will be another week's time for the Senate to consider the House bills.

"I am wondering whether or not you don't think it would be wise to conserve your strength for that bill when it comes to the Senate in view of the fact that it will undoubtedly come to the Senate so that we can listen to your entire presentation at that time?"

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I am an agreeable man most of the time but I just have something about mass transit that I like to talk about this afternoon."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question?"

Senator Guess: "For the purpose of answering a question, I will yield to Senator Dore."

Senator Dore: "Senator Guess, we have had a hearing set for nearly a week inviting the county commissioners from all over the state to come before the appropriation committee for a hearing on the $40 million request. In fact, three of your commissioners from Spokane are down in Hearing Room 1 at the present time. I wondered if you would object if I asked the presiding officer to be recognized for the limited purpose at 4:30 this afternoon to excuse the members of the appropriations committee to attend the hearing so we could hear from the county commissioners, including the three county commissioners from your county?"

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Greive: "Point of personal privilege."

The President: "The Senator will speak on his point of personal privilege."

Senator Greive: "Senator, it is my hope to start making motions to adjourn which will very easily and quickly cut off this debate because you can adjourn and reconvene if we have the votes. Why don't we let Senator Guess continue with his discussion a reasonable period of time and then we will proceed to take care of the things you order. I don't think that there is any problem. Nobody can physically filibuster without having amendments read, so why not just let him go along?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Will Senator Greive yield to a question?"

Debate ensued.

Senator Gissberg: "I simply wish to point out with respect to Senator Greive's comments of course, that there are a lot of motions that can be made, that if recognized and put by the presiding officer could take Senator Guess off his feet in a hurry. However, a motion to adjourn which is of course the highest rank and only if the President sees fit to recognize and put that particular motion. Until the President puts any particular motion of higher rank than Senator Guess will continue to have the floor. What we are trying to work out here is some method and means by which the President will recognize a motion which would accomplish a couple of things simultaneously and still leave us in a position to do business."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President respectfully suggests that perhaps the best way to resolve this particular situation is for Senator Guess to yield the floor to Senator Henry for the purpose of postponing consideration of this measure until a time certain tomorrow and at that time the bill will stay in limbo and will be before the Senate in exactly the same position as it is at this time. However, the President cannot guarantee that the Senate will be under the Call of the Senate tomorrow."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Dore: "I am trying to find out where we are. I was recognized to ask a question of Senator Guess. Senator Guess was in the process of answering my question when Senator Greive jumped up under personal privilege, giving his comments on what he thought Senator Guess should be saying. I think he delineated some pretty good strategy but he used the word 'reasonable,' a 'reasonable' time.

"Now if he is going to go until 8:00 o'clock, I would like to send word down to the county commissioners to come back at 8:00 o'clock. I think it is improper for the Senate to have these important men from all parts of the state down in that hot room. There are twenty or thirty of them in the hallway and that is the reason I asked the question. So, Senator Guess, I don't want to prevent you from carrying on and arguing your case but I would like to have some idea of what you might suggest to me so that I could ask the commissioners to come back or to stay."

Senator Guess: "I don't believe that I have ever seen the good Senator in such a big hurry to have a hearing. Now we have cancelled lots of hearings. In fact, if you will go back to the beginning of the session, we tried to organize this thing so that we could have hearings on a regular basis. I think that to me this is one of the most important bills that we have had before us all session.

"We are embarking upon a concept of financing the rail system, the transit system in the state of Washington out of the general fund. A concept that has never been held in this state and we are going to ask whether we acknowledge it or not, that the people of the state of Washington dig down deeper into their pockets to find the means to replace the general fund money that we are going to divert to the mass transit system. I will agree that we gave the cities a means of supporting their mass transit systems several years ago when we allowed Tacoma to place a tax on each household and my town has done this but Seattle has not chosen to put such tax on the householder. Until they do so, I think that they are wrong in coming here and asking us to pick up their burden."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Guess yield to another question?"

Senator Guess: "Yes, I will Senator."

Senator Mardesich: "Senator, I think you have answered Senator Dore's question and he is now satisfied and so I would like to reiterate the question I made earlier. I wonder if you would yield the floor to Senator Henry for the specific purpose of making a motion which would place this bill before us on the second reading calendar tomorrow at 11:40 a.m. with you retaining the position of holding the floor and if your answer to that question is 'yes' I would then assume that it would carry with your consent, the President's acknowledgement that he will recognize only Senator Henry for the purpose of making such a motion."

Senator Guess: "Senator Mardesich, I am perfectly agreeable to recognize Senator Henry for the purpose of making a motion."

MOTION

Senator Henry moved that the Senate postpone action on Senate Bill No. 490 until 11:40 a.m. tomorrow.

Senator Greive: "I have to reluctantly oppose that motion and for this reason. Quite obviously the joint resolution under which we are laboring is the joint effort of both the House and Senate which means that we cannot, in my opinion at least, unilaterally suspend the rules. I appreciate that it has been a time honored custom that we do just that but up until now, no one has ever contested it. I have no illusions in this particular case but clearly this matter would be contested. I am also rather uneasy because the motions come, I don't know if it has been briefed, from Senator Henry who is a man whom I respect and with whom I have no quarrel but he has made it clear that he does not favor this particular measure and Senator Mardesich has at least one amendment on the desk which would in effect scalp the financing of the bill so I am not exactly sure that there might not be a motive. There might not be and I am not saying there is but at least I think I have reason to suspect that there might be some motive.

"Some people in this body, maybe it is the minority, are very anxious to have a vote and see if there are the votes sufficient to work this, fine. We have another problem that nobody has discussed up to now. That is, it will take a two-thirds majority to advance so if we waited until that particular time then we would have to have two-thirds of the people in this body and we couldn't have another Rules Committee meeting.

"It would seem to me that if you favor this particular bill and hopefully a majority of the people do, it wouldn't be reasonable or intelligent for us to one, put the bill off until 11:40 when we would have to have a two-thirds to advance and if we didn't have the two-thirds we wouldn't have it and two, take a chance at attempting to unilaterally suspend a rule that is the product of both Houses that probably wouldn't stand up in court. So under those circumstances, I regretfully oppose a motion which in many ways has a lot of sense."

Senator Gissberg: "As I understand it the concurrent resolution which we adopted simply cuts off further consideration of Senate Bills at noon tomorrow and that both Houses can at any time by majority vote extend that right or privilege any time they want and so I fail to see how anything that we do here at this time on this motion could any way be, by any stretch of the imagination, unilaterally trying to change a rule adopted by both Houses.

"It is a stratagem, there is no question about that, as to what this may or may not do to this bill but I have reason to believe from a good authority on the other side of the aisle that a similar bill is coming over from the House, Senator Greive, which would obviously come under our joint rules as it is the same bill that we are discussing and which would be alive for a further week under our concurrent resolution, and even if it does not if there are sufficient votes on this floor to pass the bill even after 11:40 tomorrow each of the Houses can proceed to extend the cutoff date to any other date we see fit. Once we are in session, of course, we can only adjourn sine die by the concurrent resolution of both Houses, that is fundamental, and until that happens we can do any business that we can agree to between the two Houses.

"So I think that this motion is perfectly proper and does not pose any legal problems of any kind. It is true that tomorrow at 11:40 a.m., this bill would have to be advanced and it would take a two-thirds vote to advance it. With that I do agree but the other material Senator Greive has indicated is just not so."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRIES

Senator Dore: "Point of parliamentary inquiry. What is the motion before the body now, Mr. President?"

REPLIES BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The motion by Senator Guess to indefinitely postpone Senate Bill No. 490."

Senator Dore: "Hasn't a motion been made by Senator Henry?"

The President: "Senator Henry stated a motion. The President has not yet put the question."

MOTION

Senator Dore moved the substance of Senator Henry's motion to consider this bill until 11:50 a.m. tomorrow.

Senator Henry: "Two points. Senator Dore made a speech before he made his motion and in the second place I don't want a co-sponsor to my motion, Senator Dore. Under Reed's Rule 118 to postpone to a date certain, it says, 'the title describes the motion and whenever the assembly thinks it would prefer to have time given to members to inform themselves as to a question when it desires to take up another question, then the motion to postpone to a date certain is the proper one to make'.

"Now, this motion is debatable but Senator Greive went far afield with his suspicions and one thing and another and it says very definitely that debate should not involve the merits of the main question and he was talking all over the place, so I would suggest if Senator Dore is ready to do something about this that he sit down and maybe the President will put the motion, maybe."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Point of parliamentary inquiry. If at the conclusion of the second reading it is after 12:00 noon tomorrow, what would be the necessary procedure in order to continue to consider the bill that we now have before us and would it not clearly violate the joint rules to have a rules committee meeting and to then bring the bill out on third reading? Would not that be a clear violation of the joint rules?"

Senator Henry: "I think the point of order is that there is no motion before us except the motion by Senator Guess to indefinitely postpone. Now this is twice I have tried to unravel this thing and you don't seem to want to. Senator Guess, your motion is still in order, you may proceed. I withdraw my motion."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Henry and members of the Senate, the ultimate decision in this matter rests with the members of the Senate. The President believes the situation can best be resolved by putting the motion as presented by Senator Henry that Senate Bill No. 490 be made a special order of business for tomorrow at 11:40 a.m."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "Point of order. May I respectfully call your attention to Reed's Rule 197, which says, and we are speaking of these motions of the third rank, 'All motions of the third rank are of equal right and when one is pending it must be disposed of before another can be moved.' Also to our Senate Rule 21 and to subsidiary motions which say 'that a motion to postpone to a day certain, to commit, to postpone indefinitely are all of the same rank' and so Reed's Rule as I pointed out earlier, would apply."

"Now, if Senator Guess wants to withdraw his motion, to relinquish the floor, then we can proceed with whatever motion is proper under the circumstances and I make a plea to the President to be fair and to remember that these rules are made not for today but they are made for all time and that we must adhere to them."

The President: "Would you read that portion of the rule, Senator Greive, that applies?"

Senator Gissberg: "I think Senator Greive is correct when he stated the priority of the motions, they are of equal rank and the one that is first put is the one that has precedence. I feel that Senator Greive is correct in his statement."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Point of parliamentary inquiry. I don't think Senator Greive raised a point of order. I think he just made an observation. I think the President recognized Senator Henry's motion, stated it, and then he recognized me to speak on the motion. I want to speak against Senator Henry's motion."

Senator Henry: "My point of order is that the President has not restated my motion. The motion is not before the body. He offered a solution and stated that he thought the correct way to do it would be such and such. He did not state the motion so again, Mr. President, I withdraw my motion."

Senator Dore: "If Senator Henry had not withdrawn his motion but it had been put and lost, would Senator Guess still be recognized or would the matter be terminated and the President would be able to recognize another Senator?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President will answer that question at the proper time, Senator Dore."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "I wonder if Senator Guess will again yield the floor? Not yield the floor but yield to a question? Senator Guess, I am now moving that the rules be suspended and that Senate Bill No. 490 become a special order of business tomorrow at 11:40 a.m. and at that time in the position it now holds with you having the floor on that bill, and I make this motion subject only to your concern in relinquishing the floor to me for the purpose of making this motion."

Senator Greive: "Rule 28 says a short explanation by the maker of the motion. There can be no discussion."

Senator Henry: "The point of order is that Senator Mardesich hadn't made a motion. He asked Senator Guess a question. I think Senator Guess has a right to reply."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Henry's remarks are well taken."

Senator Guess: "It is in my mind now that there seem to be some people who do not want me to talk but I just got a little note from the gallery. It says 'could you please tell Senator Guess to keep talking and not let those groups from Seattle ram rapid rails down our throats.'"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Parliamentary inquiry."

The President: "The Senator will state his parliamentary inquiry."

Senator Canfield: "Rule 16 of the Senate says that when the Senator is finished he shall resume his seat. Now, Senator Guess has resumed his seat several times. Does that mean he is finished? It is my understanding in the Congress, Mr. President, that when a Congressman takes his seat, he has finished. He must stay on his feet and Senator Guess has not been on his feet."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President is unaware of such a ruling in the Washington State Senate. The President will recognize Senator Mardesich for the purpose of making a motion."

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that the rules be suspended, Senate Bill No. 490 be made a special order of business at 11:40 a.m. tomorrow and the bill be held on second reading position as it is now with Senator Guess having the floor when consideration resumes.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Dore: "Point of order."

The President: "Senator Dore will state his point of order."

Senator Dore: "Senator Canfield raised a very pertinent point of order and you said you know of no such rule. Rule 16 spells it out. It says 'when any Senator is about to speak in debate or submit any matter to the Senate, he shall rise from his seat and standing in his place respectfully address himself to Mr. President. When recognized he shall in a courteous manner confine himself to the question under debate avoiding personalities and when finished shall resume his seat.'

"Now, I saw Senator Guess sitting in his seat for a good two or three minute period and I think at this time the President should rule on Senator Canfield's point of order."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall: "Point of order."

The President: "The Senator will state his point of order."

Senator Woodall: "My point of order is that you have already made a ruling. There is nothing for Senator Dore to speak about unless he is appealing the ruling of the Chair. The Chair has already ruled and other business has occurred."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Dore: "Point of order."

The President: "Senator Dore will state his point of order."

Senator Dore: "In my memory you made no ruling. You merely said you were not aware of any such rule but I now specifically ask you to make a ruling on the point of order as raised by Senator Canfield one way or another."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Mardesich was recognized for the purpose of making a motion. Senator Mardesich had stated his motion. The President is about to put the question that the rules be suspended, that Senate Bill No. 490 be made a special order of business at 11:40 a.m. tomorrow.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Ridder, Dore, Connor, Cooney, Henry, Ryder, Atwood, Williams, Guess and Mardesich.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Ryder: "Parliamentary inquiry."

The President: "Senator Ryder will state his parliamentary inquiry."

Senator Ryder: "If this motion should carry and the bill is carried over until 11:40 a.m. tomorrow, we have a cutoff date at 12:00 noon and the bill is still being debated, will we be able to continue to debate this bill, completely finish it before we are cut off by the joint resolution?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes it is the custom of the Senate that any measure taken up prior to the cutoff time can be considered until the Senate reaches a decision."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Parliamentary inquiry."

The President: "The Senator will state his point of parliamentary inquiry."

Senator Greive: "May I put another question? If we do not have the two-thirds vote to move the bill then that would settle the entire matter, isn't that correct because it would then go back to second reading and we would have another rules committee meeting to bring it out on third reading?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that Senator Greive's remarks are correct."

Senator Henry: "He is not positive that he has the two-thirds to advance the bill now so I don't see that the time makes any particular difference."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I would just like to call attention to the fact that the concurrent resolution we passed just says that we have to have a majority of each House to change the resolution, so I would say that if we had the votes on the floor that it would take a very simple resolution to go out of this body into the House and take care of the third reading. If you don't have the votes, it isn't going to do you much good anyway."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Mardesich lost by the following vote: Yeas, 10; nays, 39.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Gissberg, Guess, Henry, McCormack, Mardesich, Stender, Twigg, Walgren, Woodall—10.

Voting nay: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Elicker, Faulk, Foley, Greive, Herr, Holman, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McCutcheon, McDougall, Marquardt, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stortini, Talley, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Wilson—39.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Senator Guess, with your permission the President would like to remind Senator Ryder and point out that his response to your parliamentary inquiry was not intended to be a ruling on any future point of order which may arise and that the remarks of the President merely refer to past customs on the prior rules and resolutions."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question?"

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I would like to answer any questions through the Chair."

Senator Dore: "Senator Guess, Senator Greive suggested a possible solution to our predicament with the county commissioners. There are one hundred and fifty in hearing room No. 1 and I wondered if he could make a motion, not to take you from the floor but to excuse the appropriations committee members subject to roll call.

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, if my mathematics don't play tricks on me, I don't believe that there are one hundred fifty county commissioners in the state of Washington."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "With the consent of the Senate, the President will excuse the members of the appropriations committee for the purpose . . . yes, Senator Greive."

Senator Greive: "I would want to put some restrictions on that. You understand that most of the members of the Senate are on the Committee on Ways and Means and almost half of them are on the subcommittee on appropriations. I would want to be sure that we had an understanding that we would have time for them to come up and to participate in the event that there was a demand for a roll call."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President was going to have the group accompanied by a sergeant at arms and with full privileges extended to the members of the appropriations committee. If there are no objections, the members are excused for the purpose of conducting the hearing and will be subject to roll call."

Senator Guess: "Could I ask that Senator Dore express my regrets to my county commissioners that I am unavoidably detained?"

Senator Dore: "I would be very happy to do that, Senator."

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Guess yield? Senator Guess, do you have any information on the availability of the federal portion of the funds that go into this. As I understand it, and I have talked to a couple of people who have real technical knowledge in this area, this bill will allow, for example a vehicle that pays an excise tax of thirty dollars the cities to utilize up to half of that and if their half which would be fifteen dollars then they would have to match that with a dollar which would come to a total of thirty dollars then available to them and then this thirty dollars would be matched by federal funds on a two to one basis. However, I am also told that there isn't any money presently available with which to accomplish this. Now, they state that in San Francisco there has been a real dilemma where they have put one billion two hundred million in a hole and that there are bills before Congress that may appropriate some more money for this project but what is your feeling on the position of the federal matching funds?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Day, I am awfully glad you asked that question because the DeLeuw Cather report that they made in 1967 says that they are recommending this bond issue and they say that the total system will cost $1,115,000,000 and they also say in big bold print that the $385 million will be a third of that for the system but the remainder is to come from either federal or other sources.

"I was looking in here to find that particular language but it has been said many times and it is not possible for me to believe that under the 1965 transportation act they would claim money under this or that there would be a possibility at all of raising some $755 million from the federal government. In fact, I think this was the one most salient feature of the statements that were made against the 'Forward Thrust' package in February of 1968 and that is there just wasn't that much money in the federal treasury for the matching of the money in Seattle so this left it up to the 'or other.' Now, I began to see the handwriting on the wall, Senator Day, when this bill, Senate Bill No. 490 was dropped into the hopper and it seemed to me that it didn't say '490' it should have said 'or other.'"

Senator Day: "Then what you are saying is that although the enabling act is there, the money is not, is that correct?"

Senator Guess: "This is correct. The last administration last year asked for an appropriation of $200 million and this was cut back by the Congress to $150 million, and the act that appropriates this money says that no more than twelve and one-half percent of the money appropriated by the federal Congress will be distributed to any one state and since we, in the state of Washington, normally receive all federally matching funds on a basis of our population representation, we get approximately two percent of all the federal aid highway money. I would say that unless something really happened, we would get just two percent of the money from the federal government on this."

Senator Day: "In other words, we would only get two percent of this fund, too?"

Senator Guess: "It is difficult to say exactly how much we would get but in my conversations with former director of highways, William Bugge, who is now in San Francisco, I was pressing him for some figures in San Francisco one afternoon and he said 'Sam, do you think for one instant that if there was another federal buck in Washington, D.C. I would be sitting here in San Francisco talking to you. I would be on a plane going back to Washington, D.C. to try to get another federal buck.' Now out of $1 billion that has been expended in San Francisco, I will talk about the $1 billion hole with no bottom in it a little bit later.

"They have expended $1 billion now and they have come to a grinding, screeching halt on the construction of the Bay Area transit development and they have only received to the best of my knowledge, $36 million from the federal government so they are not getting any big share of this money."

Senator Day: "From an article that I have in front of me, it says $1,200,000,000 has been spent in San Francisco in state and federal monies and only $36,000,000 of that is federal money."

Senator Guess: "Only $36,000,000, according to Mr. Bugge, of that money is federal money. They did give them some study money. They gave them about $10 million to do some experimental work on the cost and the design of the track but that is developmental cost and is not construction cost."

Senator Day: "More specifically, in the city of Spokane where we have buses that are getting to the point of no return on the repair and the city fathers really have a tough situation where they are trying to get some money and I would hope the tax reform here would give them some type of a new base of their own so they could levy their own taxes.

"I would like to know what your opinion is as to just what the effect would be specifically in Spokane. In addition, according to the chart I have on my desk which I went over a minute ago, where the city has to match anything the state gives it and I know the city is in dire straits and I know they need money, but where would they get the money to match the monies that are going to be expended? Would they get it from the appropriation that we are giving them this time and if they did get it, then in your opinion how much more money, if any, would come from the federal government?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Day, they say that they will receive probably seventy-three cents that they have taxed each household. I don't know exactly how much they have taxed each business establishment in Spokane. They say that this would yield approximately $500,000 per year. But the point is that I called the man who is the head of the advisory committee on the transit takeover in Spokane, a man that I have known a long time, he is an engineer, and I asked him just how much they expected to get out of this pot when we cut the melon. He said 'well, they have an immediate desire to purchase nineteen buses' and these nineteen buses they figure $21,000 I think he said, either $21,000 or $21,500 so this is roughly $400,000 that they are looking for now. They are going to have to put up half of that so that means that they will get out of this pie that we are going to cut for them, they will be able to use $200,000.

"This is a mere pittance to what the whole thing is all about. It is roughly estimated that Seattle at the same time would get in the neighborhood of $12.7 million in the biennium. They say 'oh, this doesn't mean that, they won't get it until 1971, they have to pass a bond issue and they have to pass a transit system before they can start getting the money.'

"It doesn't make a great deal of difference to me when you open a door just so long as we pass this legislation, we would know that the people are going to have to dig down deeper in their pockets next biennium, Senator Day, to pay the tax bill than they are paying right now, and people in Yakima and in Omak and Walla Walla and around the state are going to be helping to dig down to find that money to pay for the transit rider in Spokane, Vancouver and Seattle, so this is what this is all about."

Senator Day: "Let me ask one further question. Can this money only be used for capital outlay or can it become a continuing thing where it would be utilized for operation, maintenance and operation of a city or is there a cutoff date in the bill?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Day, the bill as written is rather open and I disagree with the central budget agency in their assessment of this thing, especially section 3 and I have some amendments that I propose to put on the bill that could make this go up a good deal higher if the matching funds which they could take and say they use all the fares that they receive and in the bookkeeping venture showed that this amount of money was going to be used to match the money that they were going to get from this excise tax, then they could match an almost unlimited amount of money and of course they could come up with half a million a year perhaps . . . , it just depends on just how much consideration you gain.

"There are two or three features of the bill that are going to have to be hard fought to work out to find out just exactly which way we are going to go, but what I am trying to do is, like Senator McCutcheon said, to let the people wake up but with the members of the body absent and thinking about other things, I don't think they are going to be thinking about this, the raid on the treasury of the state that we are fixing to do by this bill, and so I think that the bill is going to have a good bit of overworking or working over before it would be a real good piece of legislation."

Senator Day: "Would that mean then that possibly there would be a better method of doing something for the cities in relation to bus transportation and these other problems that they presently are fighting? I know that if you have gone by the Boeing plant for example that anytime between three and six in the afternoon you know what a problem that is and in your opinion, just what is the solution?"

Senator Guess: "I think there is a better solution to the problem, Senator Day. If you are to put into being a sophisticated bus system and to dedicate the bus lane you would be having twenty-five people on every vehicle that you are running down the highway instead of having one or one and one-half people per vehicle and certainly I think that we can find a way of financing it better than to make an open end appropriation.

"You see, this appropriation is going to last forever and ever and it is going to mean that they have an automatic call on the twelve and one-half percent to whatever the increase would be of appropriations from the state treasury from now on out. There is no limit on this. This is wide open and I think I have made it pretty clear that I am very suspicious of rail. I think that rail is a very inflexible tool. I don't think that the thing will work and I am most hopeful that we will be able to come up with some kind of a system that will answer the problem.

"I was in Washington, D.C. on the 17th of March and was in a meeting where Mr. Volpe made a speech and you know Mr. Volpe was the governor of Massachusetts and is now the secretary of transportation for the United States. He thought a great deal of the former mayor of Seattle, Dorman Braman, and took him to Washington, D.C. and Mr. Braman will now have an opportunity to take a look at the nation and see the problems and try to solve the nationwide problem rather than to solve the problems of just Seattle.

"One of the things that Mr. Volpe said that made a great deal of an impression on me was the Bay Area transit system when completed would have streamlined cars and they would have some electronic gear that hadn't been designed before and they would have the same type of operation that we have had before but he said that the Bay Area transit system wouldn't be a day more modern than the Boston system when it was completed fifty years ago, so I don't think that the solution lies in Senate Bill No. 490."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCutcheon: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, I have been confused about the different situation in Tacoma. We have a seventy-five cent per capita tax paid through the light department and collected there and also some other rates on business and that accumulates a sum of money which keeps the buses going. Even with that we are going to go behind some $250,000 per year and we are interested of course in more state money but now is that a step that we have taken that enables us to do this or what are the requisites, the ground rules?"

Senator Guess: "Senator McCutcheon, the money that they have raised, this seventy-five cents tax on each resident, would be the source of revenue of matching the state money."

Senator McCutcheon: "But that hasn't been done in Seattle?"

Senator Guess: "That has not been done in Seattle."

Senator McCutcheon: "In Spokane?"

Senator Guess: "They are in Spokane but we raised only seventy-three cents and Yakima has voted it and I understand that Vancouver has voted the tax that we permitted them to vote."

Senator McCutcheon: "Did you in your travels and in your very thorough investigation learn anything about how Seattle proposes to raise their share that they must raise to get the matching money? I understand how the matching money is obtained, I think I know the source, the excise tax that goes first to the payment of bonds on schools through the state and then along in 1971 the city comes in. In other words, the general fund is involved."

Senator Guess: "What they are proposing in Seattle is to float another bond issue and the 'Forward Thrust' information that I have"

Senator McCutcheon: "Is that a general bond issue?"

Senator Guess: "It is a general bond issue, an obligation bond against the property of the city and the neighboring communities."

Senator McCutcheon: "And that is proposed?"

Senator Guess: "They have had a series of articles in the paper over the past year since the last one failed, Senator McCutcheon, as to coming to a conclusion as to when they are going to put it on the ballot again. They don't want the thing to fail and you know I was amazed that the statement that Mr. Braman made in a meeting in Pittsburgh before a national congress of municipal officers in which he said that the bond issue failed in Seattle because some John Birchers from Texas spent a lot of money in Seattle and three weeks before the bond issue they had had polls and the polls showed that it was going to pass with a big majority, that they weren't worried about the rail at all but after the thing failed and the people rejected it, Senator, he was really a crushed man, he was really hurt. So they are trying to find the funds and it appears to me that they have decided that the Washington state treasury is the pigeon they are going to pick on to find the money to make the appropriation."

Senator McCutcheon: "One more question and then I will sit down. You spoke about Mr. Bugge, former director of highways for the state of Washington and now chief of the Bay Area transit project in San Francisco, speaking of federal funds, do you know how much is available?"

Senator Guess: "The appropriation for this fiscal year was $150 million by the Congress and I am told that if they made a survey in the United States and they asked all of the major cities in the country how much money it would take to bail them out on their transportation problems in the United States the figure came back at an astronomical $800 billion."

"Now the problem is a little bit larger than I can quite envision, Senator McCutcheon, but when you consider that it would take two and one-half billion for Los Angeles, at least $300 million more in San Francisco, it would cost approximately two and one-half billion for a system in the greater metropolitan area in Washington, D.C."

"In Boston they need to completely redo their entire transit system. In New York they need to completely redo it. They haven't washed the stations, they haven't washed the cars, they need new cars and this is a critical thing I grant you but I don't believe that financing Seattle's mass transit, especially rail in Seattle, is a function of the state government of the state of Washington and that is the reason that I moved for indefinite postponement of Senate Bill No. 490."

Further debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "I wonder if Senator Guess would yield to a question?"

Senator Guess: "I yield to Senator Mardesich for a question."

Senator Mardesich: "Would you yield the floor for the purpose of making a motion to adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning if the motion would carry with it the proviso that you would have the floor tomorrow at that time?"

President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.

Senator Guess: "I would like very much to cooperate, Senator Mardesich, and I would like to explore the possibility and I think we ought to engage in a tri-party discussion here with Senator Greive to see if Senator Greive will be so kind as to concede that this is the proper way and if I could still have the floor, I trust him implicitly."

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Senator Greive, do you care to respond?"

Senator Greive: "I didn't hear the previous discussion. As soon as I heard other voices, I came to the floor but I didn't hear the question, only the answer."

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Senator Mardesich, would you state your question again?"

Senator Mardesich: "Yes, I asked Senator Guess if he would be willing to yield the floor to me for the purpose of making a motion, first of all to remove the Call of the Senate and secondly, to adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning subject to Senator Guess having the floor when we convene at nine o'clock in the morning and Senate Bill No. 490 is before us."

Senator Greive: "Senator, if you are asking me the question and speaking at least from my point of view, I feel that we can't afford to let any one Senator, no matter how courteous or how well informed he is on a particular subject, force the will of the Senate. He isn't attempting to lead us to a point where we can vote. He wants to kill the bill and any procedure such as that which you suggest obviously means that it is going to be that much easier to kill the bill. It seems to me that we have reached a point where we simply have to let the thing go on and take whatever devices have to be taken in due time."

Senator Mardesich: "I would continue my question asking Senator Guess for his opinion as to whether or not it wouldn't be correct no matter whether under our resolution we adjourn today or tomorrow. All it requires is a simple majority to allow this bill to come up before us again and if you do not have the simple majority in each house that will put this back before us for consideration, then what is the point of this whole affair. If you do have the votes for a simple majority then we can continue the consideration of this bill on another date."

Senator Greive: "The practical matter is that we have a bill and apparently have a majority who would at least like to vote on it. It seems to me that if we start this procedure we can expect that one or two members can at any time hold up these proceedings. I am not against filibusters. I can remember a couple I engaged in myself. I wasn't successful any more than I think Senator Guess is finally going to be successful but as far as I am concerned speaking from my vantage point, I think that we simply can't afford to have this done whether you call it blackmail or what term we would use because I don't mean to use that term, but the point is that we simply can't afford to run it any other way. I think we have to hang on and wait until the situation runs down and if we have to stay here tonight, go to dinner in shifts, maybe have to do a little sleeping on the job, well that is one of the prices that we are going to have to pay."

Senator Gissberg assumed the Chair.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, under the circumstances we have before us would you care, I have no particular desire to kill this bill, I have a simple amendment to offer and then I would vote for it but suddenly I find myself joining you and do you mind if I ask about a twenty minute question so that you may leave the floor to take whatever relief you might desire?"

Senator Guess: "I would like to answer a twenty minute question. I am perfectly comfortable."

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Guess yield to another question?"

Senator Guess: "For answering a question."

Senator Mardesich: "Senator Guess, if you might feel free to leave the floor for a few minutes I will now propound a question to you. I have a little amendment to this measure."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Greive: "You will find that a motion to indefinitely postpone is of the fourth rank. You will find a motion to lay upon the table is of second rank under subsidiary motions. You will further find that under Rule 199 . . ."

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, how did Senator Greive get the floor?"

Senator Greive: "Because of a higher motion of higher rank, under Rule 199."

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I have the floor at the moment."

Senator Greive: "No, I have a higher motion."

Senator Mardesich: "I would like to point out Mr. President, Rule 169 provides that you cannot take a member off the floor even with a motion to adjourn which is the highest priority motion we have."

Senator Greive: "What rule are you talking about?"

Senator Mardesich: "Reed's 169. A motion to adjourn cannot take a member from the floor and if you can't take me off the floor with a motion to adjourn, I wonder how you can take me off with . . ."

Senator Greive: "Wait until I read the motion."

President Cherberg assumed the Chair.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Henry: "Point of order. My point of order is simply that Senator Greive was not recognized for the purpose of making a motion and regardless of what the rank of a motion is unless you can make that motion, it makes no difference."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Henry's remarks are well taken."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "My question then again, Senator Guess, I have a little amendment to this bill that would I think, help solve part of the problem with the rapid transit."

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, may I point out to you our rule which governs. Under Rule 36 our rules govern unless we have a Reed's Rule and if you will look under Rule 35 it says 'except when under call of the senate, a motion to adjourn shall always be in order'."

"Now, if we are getting down to the question of adjournment and that is the point that was put, if I were to move to dispense with the Call of the Senate, a motion to adjourn would be very much in order. I again revert to Reed's Rules and I point out to you that under our Rule 21 I have put a motion of higher rank or of higher order and under Rule 36, Reed's Rules don't come into play unless we are in a position where our rules do not govern. If you will look at Rule 21 you will find on the second page, that is page 280, a motion to postpone indefinitely is of the fourth rank. You will find that the motion to lay upon the table is of the second rank and therefore the motion to lay on the table should govern at this time."

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I would like to point out that Rule 169 of Reed's is exactly in line with our Rule 35 and merely expands upon the context of the rule and Rule 169 in Reed's says that a motion to adjourn is highly privileged and that is all that our Rule 35 says in effect. It further provides that a motion to adjourn cannot take a member from the floor and having the floor, how can a subsidiary motion take me off the floor when a privileged motion can't?"

Senator Greive: "Because it is provided for in the Rules."

Senator Henry: "Mr. President, speaking on the point of order. Senator Greive was not recognized for the purpose of making a motion so the question is moot because we are under a Call of the Senate regardless of the rank of the motion, he was not recognized for the purpose of making such a motion."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Parliamentary inquiry. Where in the rules does it state that after a person has been recognized that then the Chair may decide what motions he can make? I am asking it because I am not familiar with it."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that Senator Guess has the floor and that it would not be fair to Senator Guess or to another Senator to interrupt him and let someone else make a motion."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Another parliamentary inquiry. I am of the opinion that there is only one legislative body in the country that has the unlimited right of filibuster and I wasn't aware that the State Senate of the state of Washington had the same power in this regard as the Senate of the United States. Certainly some rule would allow the members of this body to end a filibuster."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that Rule 17 covers your particular inquiry, Senator Washington."

Senator Greive: "May I call your attention to Rule 197 of Reed's which says 'subsidiary motions are those that directly concern the main question'. May I point out to you that this is a subsidiary motion under our rule which is 21 and relates to the progress of that particular piece of business. They are of a different rank, by which is meant that some have precedence over others. In the innumerations which follow they are stated in order of precedence. Now this is the important part, Mr. President, "Those of superior rank precede those of inferior rank; those of the same rank have no precedence over each other", and that is precisely what I am saying."

Senator Mardesich: "I wonder if you would continue to read 198 then which is immediately on the next page and says that 'privileged questions are those which rise out of needs of the assembly and they have precedence over the main question and over all subsidiary'."

Senator Greive: "Yes, and may I explain what that means?"

Senator Mardesich: "It means the motion to adjourn. . . ."

Senator Greive: "No it doesn't. If you will look at Rule 21 you will find that we have under Rule 21 privileged motions, incidental motions and subsidiary motions. We were discussing subsidiary motions. I made two subsidiary motions but one subsidiary motion had precedence over another subsidiary motion.

"If you will look at Rule 21 of the Senate rules you will find that under subsidiary motions, motions of consideration are of the first rank and the second is to lay upon the table, third is for the previous rank, fourth rank is to postpone to a day certain, to commit, recommit and postpone indefinitely, and finally to amend.

"Now, if you will look at the subsidiary motions and that is what 197 does, it explains what we do under subsidiary motions so if we have here a subsidiary motion, I have made a subsidiary motion of a higher rank, those of superior rank precede those of inferior rank and those of the same rank have no precedence over each other. So under these circumstances a motion to lay upon the table is in order and must be put if we are to follow the rules. Again I make a plea that we do adhere to the rules simply because this isn't the only time that the rules will be applied and we shouldn't set a dangerous and a bad precedent."

Senator Henry: "Mr. President, I would again respectfully point out that his argument on rank is very rank because he hasn't been able to put the motion. He was not recognized for the purpose of putting a motion and as far as progress on the bill is concerned, I think Senator Guess has made excellent progress. We have been to Peoria, Detroit, Cincinnati, Los Angeles and eventually we are going to get back to the Senate."

Senator Greive: "It isn't a question of being able to put the motion. If you ask for the floor for a higher motion you have that inherent right always to make a motion. This is an inherent right of the body and I am putting a higher motion, a motion which is clearly set out in Reed's Rule 199 and 102 as necessary, but the important thing is that this is a subsidiary motion and those of the superior rank precede those of inferior rank and those of the same rank have no precedence over each other and these are of the superior rank."

Senator Holman: "Mr. President, last Saturday when I made a motion to relieve the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules of a certain bill and Senator Greive then demanded a Call of the Senate, you held in the same vein that he is now contending for."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President would have to refer to the journal, Senator, to determine whether or not your remarks are correct. The President did not know that the members had concluded their remarks on the point. As soon as the President has determined that, he will put the Senate at ease for a few minutes to study the question."

Senator Gissberg: "I agree with everything that Senator Greive has said. It is correct insofar as the rules are concerned with one exception and that gets back to Senate Rule 17. That is the heart of the whole matter and the presiding officer of this chamber or any other chamber has a great power and it is very seldom applied but it is being applied in this instance and that rule is very explicit and very clear. I quote 'no motion shall be entertained or debated until announced by the President'. That says 'no motion shall be', so it always gets back to that question no matter how much we quote Reed's and the Senate Rules.

"As I say I agree with Senator Greive insofar as the priority and rank of motions are concerned but nonetheless unless the President recognizes a member for the purpose of making a motion and proceeds to put the motion, then it cannot be debated or entertained. It is just that simple and the President is indeed a very fair and honorable man and I know that at such time as he wants this question to be put, he will cause it to be put so he is well within his right as presiding officer under the rules of this Senate to do as he is doing."

Senator Guess: "I would like now to take you . . ."

Senator Mardesich: "Senator Guess, is the answer to my question yes?"

Senator Guess: "I believe that Senator Greive's objection, Senator Mardesich, precluded my answering that without the loss of the floor. Am I right?"

President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "I wonder if Senator Guess would yield to a question? Senator Guess, prior to asking a question I would like to make a statement of fact to you that the House has just, as of about thirty seconds ago, passed a rapid transit bill and so even if you here tonight and tomorrow are able to talk Senate Bill No. 490 to death, the House bill will still be before us because I would assume this bill will never come to a vote. In view of that fact would you be willing to relinquish for the purpose of making a motion for adjournment?"

Senator Guess: "I just picked up an editorial here that I really think . . . Senator Mardesich, I haven't quite gotten through this deal . . ."

The President Pro Tempore declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 7:50 p.m.

MOTION

Senator Gissberg moved that the Senate dispense with the Call of the Senate.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Gissberg, Mardesich, Elicker, Pritchard, Ryder, Williams, Andersen, Faulk and Metcalf.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll. The motion by Senator Gissberg failed and the Senate did not dispense with the Call of the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 28.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Foley, Gissberg, Guess, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Knoblauch, McCormack, McDougall, Mardesich, Matson, Peterson (Lowell), Sandison, Stender, Talley, Twigg, Woodall—21.

Voting nay: Senators Andersen, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Dore, Durkan, Elicker, Faulk, Greive, Holman, Huntley, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McCutcheon, Marquardt, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Ted), Pritchard, Ridder, Ryder, Stortini, Uhlman, Walgren, Washington, Williams, Wilson—28.

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question so I can ask a question of Senator Walgren?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Woodall, I am rather reluctant to permit the yield. If I was assured that there wouldn't be some motion."

Senator Woodall: "It is no motion, just an inquiry. I just wanted to inquire whether or not this liquor control committee meeting scheduled for four this afternoon had been postponed. That is all I want to know."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Ryder: "Point of order. Under Rule 217 of Reed's it says that under certain conditions when a member yields the floor he can do so without losing his right to continue. These are when he yields for a question or when he yields for a motion to adjourn or to take a recess he is entitled to assume that if either motion is negative, then he can resume his right to the floor. However, on page 143 in the same Rule it says 'but in all other cases yielding the floor means abandoning it to the assembly' and Mr. President, we had a motion to dispense with the Call of the Senate which motion was acted upon by the Senate and was not included in the area where the member had to yield the floor."

Senator Guess: "I have been recognized since then, Senator."

Senator Gissberg: "Yes, I was just going to state that you have correctly stated the rule and the law but the presiding officer since the motion was put and failed recognized Senator Guess and he still has the floor."

"With respect to his yielding to a question, he did not yield. Senator Woodall volunteered the question and Senator Guess stated that he was reluctant to yield and did not yield and the presiding officer has recognized Senator Guess. He still has the floor."

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, I rise to make a motion to suspend the rules. May I be recognized. This motion is of a higher order than that of Senator Guess under Rule 21. A motion to suspend the rules is a privileged motion. A motion to indefinitely postpone is way down under fourth rank under subsidiary motions."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Greive, Senator Guess and other members of the Senate, the President respectfully suggests that perhaps the solution to this particular problem would be to revert to the fifth order of business for the purpose of introduction and first reading and reference of bills."

Senator Greive: "That was my motion to suspend the rules and revert to the fifth order of business."

The President: "Senator Guess, the President does not wish to deprive you of the floor. Is that agreeable with you?"

Senator Guess: "I would object to it, Mr. President, if I lost the floor."

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, may I remind you that we have Reed's Rule 197 that indicates that this is of a higher order and it is a motion to suspend the rules and to revert to a different order of business and I respectfully ask that you put that motion at this time so that we can read in the House bill on the same matter. We can either put it on today's calendar or we can go home."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator Greive, would you tell me, because of your superior knowledge and superior motions, am I going to lose the floor by that?"

Senator Greive: "I am afraid so, Sam. You were a good battler, one of the best I have ever seen but you know that is the way things are but, Sam, if we can get this bill on we will be glad to put it on Monday's calendar and you won't have to worry about mass transit until Monday and then you can have seven days to tell us about it."

Senator Mardesich: "I was only going to point out that Senator Greive's motion was to suspend the rules and it requires two-thirds in any event."

Senator Greive: "To suspend rules to a different order of business under Rule 12, you can do it by a majority vote."

Senator Gissberg: "Of course, we are right back to where we were before. It is up to the President whom he wants to recognize for the privilege of making a motion and if you want to state Senator Greive's motion, of course, then that is one thing, if you don't, you don't."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that Senator Guess does have the right to filibuster if he so chooses but the President does believe that he will have to set a reasonable time, Senator Guess."

Senator Guess: "Would midnight be all right?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President does have a responsibility for the orderly procedure, Senator Guess."

Senator Guess: "Would midnight be a reasonable thing?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President does believe that perhaps the situation could be resolved if the House bill were to be placed before the Senate for action. Rule 20 of the Senate rules states that the message from the House may be considered at any time with the consent of the Senate which means a majority vote. A message would have to be read before the measure is before the Senate. The President believes that that bill would be before the Senate for whatever action it may desire, Senator Guess."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Henry: "Point of parliamentary inquiry. Supposing the House message is read in and under our rules it says that a bill must be referred to a standing committee. Does it not then take a two-thirds vote of suspension of rules to put it on the calendar?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Yes, it would take a two-thirds vote to advance the bill, Senator."

Senator Henry: "Otherwise it would have to go to a standing committee?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "That is correct."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McCormack: "Point of order. Mr. President, you have just stated that under Rule 20 a message from the House would be the order of business on reconvening of the Senate and it would seem to me that this is the appropriate order of business at this time."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President stated that a message from the House may be considered at any time if the Senate so desires. The President did not say that was the order of business."

Senator Greive: "May I respectfully be recognized for the purpose of moving that we consider a message from the House?"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business for the purpose of considering a message from the House.

The President: "That is correct, Senator Day."

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Would Senator Wilson yield to a question? Senator Wilson, I listened as you moved that we not adopt the committee amendment which we considered at some length in committee. Your amendment that you are now proposing would be basically the same but I am wondering why you have changed the language. In the committee there seemed to be a consensus that this would relate basically to young widows who perhaps had a life ahead of them that they would need to have some training and therefore we wanted them to have an opportunity to get a college education or some assistance in it. Now you have eliminated that section of the amendment. You didn't speak to that when you said that it would be more appropriate. Could you explain that?"

Senator Wilson: "Yes, Senator Lewis. Yesterday in considering this matter, we could not remember because it happened so long ago as to why the committee limited these benefits to widows between the age of sixteen and twenty-two as the committee amendment would provide. It seemed to us that that language had probably been picked up from the previous section limiting the ages of qualifying children to those between sixteen and twenty-two and we could think of no reason why a widow who is twenty-five for example might not wish to return to college and could not enjoy the same benefits as the widow of twenty-two. This is the reason for preparing the new amendment."

Senator Ridder: "Would Senator Wilson yield? Senator, I have a little question as to the drafting or the language. It says 'in the state for twelve months where unmarried widows of men killed or wives of totally disabled ex-servicemen whose death or injury'. I can't quite understand a disabled veteran whose death . . ."

Senator Wilson: "Are you reading from the amendment that is in the bill book?"

Senator Ridder: "No, I am reading from the present text now that it has been amended. It would be line 24, we altered line 23 by inserting 'unmarried' before the word 'widows' and on line 24 it says 'wives of totally disabled ex-servicemen whose death or injury'. Don't you think perhaps you should clean that up because I don't think you would have a disabled serviceman whose death . . ."

Senator Wilson: "That phrase you have cited is no longer in the bill as a result of the amendment. The amendment that we are discussing on line 23 inserts the adjective 'unmarried' and then after the word 'connected'."

Senator Ridder: "But that is done on line 25, Senator."

Senator Wilson: "I will concede that."

Debate ensued.

The motion carried and the amendments were adopted.

Senator Wilson moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 2, section 2, line 15, after "are" insert "unmarried"

On page 2, section 2, line 17, after "connected" strike all the underlined material down to and including "theatre" on line 19 and insert: "and occurred during the Viet Nam era defined as the period commencing August 5, 1964, and ending on such date as shall thereafter be determined by presidential proclamation or concurrent resolution of the Congress, and as a result of action in such Viet Nam theatre"

Debate ensued.

Senator Henry: "No, we are just waiting for you to introduce the bill, Senator. Excused: Senator Marquardt—1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 249, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 454, by Senators Lewis (Harry), Durkan and Elicker (by departmental request):

Providing for construction and financing of state buildings and parking facilities.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 1, 1969.

SENATE BILL NO. 454, providing for construction and financing of state buildings and parking facilities (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 4, section 8, line 22, after "the" strike "department of general administration" and insert "state capitol committee"

Signed by: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Lewis (Harry), Marquardt, Metcalf, Newschwander, Pritchard, Ryder, Stortini, Twigg, Walgren, Wilson, Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Dore, the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Andersen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 11, after "buildings," insert "self-liquidating"

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Lewis (Harry) yield to a question? Senator Lewis, in view of all the problems we are having in the Olympia area for parking for the capitol, are you suggesting that possibly we move it to a flatter area such as we could find in Senator Washington's district or Senator Atwood's district? Both Senator Canfield and Senator Wilson have lots of space and they can provide adequate parking."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Day, all I can say in response to that is that I would be delighted to trade places with a legislator from another area and have the directors on his back like they are on mine all the time."

Senator Day: "Come around and I will do what I can to help your back."

Senator Dore: "Will Senator Lewis yield to another question? Senator, to try to shorten the time, didn't the committee ask and the general administrator agree to formulate a new policy in parking, to charge everyone for their stalls other than elected officials, is that correct?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "That is correct and Senator Durkan wrote the letter for the Committee on Ways and Means requesting it so a lot of the problems that Senator Andersen alluded to are taken care of."

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Andersen:

Amend the amendment by striking same and after "parking facilities" insert "which shall be at least forty percent self-liquidating"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, you are an attorney and a good one. I assume that you are a good bond attorney because we are talking about some critical bonding bills, can you guarantee to me or even indicate to me in a positive manner if your amendment passes that it will not affect in any way the sale of these bonds on a market where bond sales are becoming increasingly difficult?"

Senator Mardesich: "Senator Lewis, as soon as I heard Senator Andersen's amendment I looked through the bill quickly to see whether that would have any effect on bonding and if you will look on lines 27 and 28, it provides that 'Both principal and interest shall be payable only from revenues hereafter received from leases and contracts of sale heretofore or hereafter made of lands, timber, and other products from the surface or beneath the surface of the lands granted to the state by the United States pursuant to the act of Congress approved February 22, 1889, for capitol building purposes and from any parking revenues derived from state capitol parking facilities', so I would say that the matter is adequately covered."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Mardesich: "Point of order. I would only like to call to Senator Peterson's (Ted) attention the fact that we are not now discussing Senator Andersen's amendment but my amendment."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The Senator's point of order is well taken."

Senators Greive, Uhlman and Sandison demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Senator Andersen demanded a roll call on the amendment by Senator Andersen as amended by Senator Mardesich and the demand was sustained by Senators Lewis (Harry), Peterson (Ted), Faulk, Newschwander, Matson, Metcalf, Greive, Durkan and Connor.

Absent or not voting: Senator Talley—1.

Excused: Senator Marquardt—1.

SENATE BILL NO. 455, by Senators Elicker, Lewis (Harry) and Durkan (by departmental request):

Authorizing bonds and refunding bonds for east capitol site.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 1, 1969.

SENATE BILL NO. 455, authorizing bonds and refunding bonds for east capitol site (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 6, section 10, line 1, after "is" strike "reappropriated to the department of general administration" and insert "appropriated to the state capitol committee"

Signed by: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Canfield, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Lewis (Harry), Marquardt, Metcalf, Newschwander, Pritchard, Ryder, Stortini, Twigg, Walgren, Wilson, Woodall.

On motion of Senator Elicker, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 455 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Lewis (Harry) yield to a question? Senator, I understand what the bill does but one question rose in my mind. I asked the question earlier and never got a direct answer. There were some funds raised under the original issue and then the position was taken that the bonds were not well formed and therefore they had to have refinancing. From what source did they get the original amount of money that they used. I understand it was in the neighborhood of $1 million."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "You remember this bond bill in the last session had a limitation on interest rate at six percent. They were able to initially get into the market with a small block and then the interest rates rose so they were unable to sell the remainder of the bonds so that is how that original group was funded."

On page 3, section 2, line 23, after "first" strike "eight" and insert "[eight] nine"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator, what is the problem? Is there a problem with this six or eight or is it just a matter of wanting to pass another law?"

Senator Ridder: "No, this is merely to get the code into common procedures and practice and as it is today all children begin in the first grade at six years of age. Actually if you leave it at eight years of age, a parent could very easily just arbitrarily leave the child out of school until he was eight years of age. I tell you this would create some problems if a number of parents wanted to do this."

Senator Stender: "Is there a problem today with this?"

Senator Ridder: "There is no widespread problem today. This is merely to get the law into common practice."

The motion carried and the amendments were adopted.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Odegaard yield? Senator Odegaard, is the deduction made from the teacher who is absent when a substitute teacher is hired an amount of pay equivalent to 1/180th?"

Senator Odegaard: "A teacher is not deducted for absent days if it does not go beyond his sick leave. Each teacher is allowed ten days sick leave per year."

Senator Uhlman: "Would Senator Odegaard yield? Senator Odegaard, I suppose then the natural conclusion from what you just stated is that we are now currently vastly underpaying our substitute teachers in our state. Is that correct?"

Senator Odegaard: "I would agree with you, Senator Uhlman, this is true but I would rather have seen this amendment stay on the bill, this new section 3 included in the bill but because of the financial impact part of it in order not to jeopardize the other sections of the bill, I agreed to strike this section of the bill."

Senator McDougall: "Would Senator Odegaard further yield? Senator, with the removal of this particular section, does it have the sanction of the school directors' association or did you tell me that?"

Senator Odegaard: "I do not know that, Senator McDougall."

Senator Elicker: "Mr. President, I will answer Senator McDougall's question. Without having spoken to the school directors' association, I can tell you it doesn't have their sanction. It is a very far reaching piece of legislation if you stop and think about it. School districts throughout the state have always been free to set their own teaching year and the number of days that they wish to teach and it varies in the state. I am speaking just off the cuff now because I had no idea that this bill would even come out of the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules, but it varies from approximately one hundred and seventy-eight days, I would say to a possible high of one hundred and eighty-seven. This has always been a prerogative of the school district to set the amount of the school year insofar as teachers are concerned.

"The state superintendent of public instruction sets one hundred and eighty days for the days of instruction given to students and the school district is permitted to go over this in order to provide in-service training procedures, this type of thing.

"Now if this bill passes it in effect provides that you have legislated for every school district in the state of Washington a standard one hundred eighty day year. If you want to do it, fine. It is going to have a tremendous financial impact on a lot of school districts that are currently going one hundred and eighty-five days. They have two choices. They can either cut back to one hundred and eighty days a year as the statute will provide, in which case they will lose the value of any in-service training program that they have had or they can continue to go at one hundred eighty-three, one hundred eighty-four, one hundred eighty-five but under the terms of the bill will have to pay for every day over one hundred and eighty at the rate of 1/180th of the teacher's regular salary."

Senator Odegaard moved the rules be suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 452 be advanced to third reading.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Mardesich: "Point of order. For the record does the time show that it is now after twelve o'clock?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The Secretary advises the President that the record does not show that, Senator Mardesich."

SENATE RESOLUTION: 1969-EX-25

By Senator Talley:

WHEREAS, The black buffalo is a beautiful creature; and

WHEREAS, We are fortunate that in the state of Washington we have been able to acquire a small herd of black buffalo in Cowlitz county; and

WHEREAS, Our children and grandchildren would be deprived of seeing the animals which are part of our national heritage if these animals were to become extinct; and

WHEREAS, In order to preserve these small herds of black buffalo they should not be allowed to be hunted indiscriminately;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Department of Game prohibit the killing of the black buffalo until such time as the department determines a sufficient supply of black buffalo exists in the state of Washington; and

Senator Bailey: "I lost my copy of the resolution and I was just wondering where the buffalo came from and how many there are running around the state of Washington?"

Senator Talley: "In answer to Senator Bailey, I placed a picture on your desk. I think there are twelve buffalo left. The trains killed three so we have nine left but they have taken to the tall timber up in your area and somewhere around Raymond and Pe Ell we think so you should join me in this resolution."

The motion carried and the resolution was adopted.

In adopting rules the municipality shall adhere to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act.

"A 'corridor public hearing' is a public hearing that: (a) is held before the municipality is committed to a specific mass transit route proposal, and before a route location is established; (b) is held to afford an opportunity for participation by those interested in the determination of the need for, and the location of, the mass rapid transit system; (c) provides a public forum that affords a full opportunity for presenting views on the mass rapid transit system route location, and the social, economic and environmental effects on that location and alternate locations: PROVIDED, That such hearing shall not be deemed to be necessary before adoption of an overall mass rapid transit system plan by a vote of the electorate of the municipality.

Renumber section 3 of the bill as section 4 and renumber the following sections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCutcheon: "Would Senator Williams yield to a question? Senator Williams, if my memory serves me correctly this morning you said that this act which is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety and support of state government . . ."

Senator Williams: "Senator McCutcheon, we struck that section."

Senator McCutcheon: "That's exactly what I'm telling you. You struck it. It doesn't go into effect immediately. They can change it to a referendum if they want to on this act."

Senator Williams: "Without the amendment."

Senator McCutcheon: "Without the amendment or with it. But the only thing that Senator Stender is trying to do is to make it a little easier for them to do. Now, as I understand your argument and the argument of Senator Greive that this is just going to raise holy Cain if you don't put a referendum on it and it does carry inherently the referendum right with it if they go out and get the signatures."

Senator Williams: "Senator McCutcheon, . . . many parts of this act are affected by referendum. As I say, each of these areas involved when they have had to raise the taxes had to go to a vote of the people. Senator Greive and I both point out that this amendment that we wish withdrawn is too ambiguous and it's too broad. We don't know what all circumstances it could apply to. We know that Tacoma had a referendum. They put their head tax on. We know Spokane did. We know Seattle had a vote of the people on the matter of a transit system so these are in the laws now and we are mainly concerned about an amendment which would tend to clobber up things."

Senator McCutcheon: "Well, this particular bill, Senator Williams, you would admit then . . . it's a noble plan and does not go into effect immediately. You and I have our feet on the ground on that one. But that means they can go on referendum on this whole measure."

Senator Williams: "That's right, they can."

Senator McCutcheon: "But you object to sending it out to them and saving them all that money, is that right?"

Senator Williams: "No, just like we aren't putting the referendum on this measure in the bill because that is already by state law. I am saying that the laws already cover this subject and I don't think we want to confuse the issue with this particular amendment."

Senator McCutcheon: "Would you object if there was an amendment put on there saying that we do refer this whole bill to the people?"

Senator Williams: "I would, yes."

Senator McCutcheon: "You would object to that."

Senator Williams: "But like most of our bills we pass here we don't do that."

Senator McCutcheon: "Well, you said there was no emergency and the last time they went to the supreme court they said you have to show an emergency . . . you can't have a false one so you weren't conceding a great deal this morning when you said this was subject to referendum. My point is you could help the people save the money of getting up a referendum."

Senator Williams: "That's true of any bill if we want to, yes."

MOTION

Senator Greive moved that the amendment by Senator Stender be laid upon the table.

Senator Stender demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Ridder, Guess, Washington, Henry, Bailey, Canfield, Day, Peterson (Lowell), Connor and Keefe.

On page 2, after section 5, add the following new sections:

"Part IV

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The legislature hereby declares that it regards the higher education of its qualified domiciliaries to be a public purpose of great importance to the welfare and security of this state and nation; and further declares that the establishment of a student financial aid program, assisting financially needy or disadvantaged students in this state to be a desirable and economical method of furthering this purpose. The legislature has concluded that the benefit to the state in assuring the development of the talents of its qualified domiciliaries will bring tangible benefits to the state in the future.

"The legislature further declares that there is an urgent need at present for the establishment of a state of Washington student financial aid program, and that the most efficient and economical way to meet this need is through the plan prescribed in this act.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The sole purpose of this act is to establish a state of Washington student financial aid program, thus assisting financially needy or disadvantaged students domiciled in Washington to obtain the opportunity of attending an accredited institution of higher education, as defined in section 8(1) of this act.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. As used in Part IV of this act:

"(1) 'Institutions of higher education' shall mean any public or private college, university or community college in the state of Washington which is accredited by the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools; and an institute of higher education shall also mean any public vocational-technical institute in the state of Washington.

"(2) The term 'financial aid' shall mean loans and/or grants to needy students enrolled or accepted for enrollment as a full time student at institutions of higher education.

"(3) The term 'commission' shall mean the Washington state student financial aid commission.

"(4) The term 'needy student' shall mean a post high school student of an institution of higher learning as defined in subsection (1) above who demonstrates to the commission the financial inability, either through his parents, family and/or personally, to meet the total cost of board, room, books, and tuition and incidental fees for any semester or quarter.

"(5) The term 'disadvantaged student' shall mean a post high school student who by reason of adverse cultural, educational, environmental, experiential, familial or other circumstances is unable to qualify for enrollment as a full time student in an institution of higher learning, who would otherwise qualify as a needy student, and who is attending an institution of higher learning under an established program designed to qualify him for enrollment as a full time student.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This program shall be administered by the Washington state student financial aid commission, hereinafter referred to as the 'commission.' The commission shall be composed of seven members appointed by the governor. The length of term of members initially appointed to the commission shall be decided by lot. Three members shall serve for three years, two members shall serve for two years, and the remaining two members shall serve for one year. Thereafter all terms shall be for the period of three years. Vacancies shall be filled for unexpired terms in the same manner as for original appointments.

"The commission shall elect from its own members each year a chairman and secretary who shall serve for terms of one year.

"The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The commission shall be cognizant of the following guidelines in the performance of its duties:

"(1) The commission shall be research oriented, not only at its inception but continually through its existence.

"(2) The commission shall coordinate all existing programs of financial aid except those specifically dedicated to a particular institution by the donor.

"(3) The commission shall take the initiative and responsibility for coordinating all federal student financial aid programs to insure that the state recognizes the maximum potential effect of these programs, and shall design the state program which complements existing federal, state and institutional programs.

"(4) Counseling is a paramount function of student financial aid, and in most cases could only be properly implemented at the institutional levels; therefore, state student financial aid programs shall be concerned with the attainment of those goals which, in the judgment of the commission, are the reasons for the existence of a student financial aid program, and not solely with administration of the program on an individual basis.

"(5) In the development of any new program, the commission shall seek advice from and consultation with the institutions of higher learning, state agencies, industry, labor, and such other interested groups as may be able to contribute to the effectiveness of program development and implementation.

"(6) The 'package' approach of combining loans, grants and employment for student financial aid shall be the conceptual element of the state's involvement.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The commission shall have the following powers and duties:

"(1) Conduct a full analysis of student financial aid as a means of;

"(a) Fulfilling educational aspirations of students of the state of Washington, and

"(b) Improving the general, social, cultural, and economic character of the state.

"Such an analysis will be a continuous one and will yield current information relevant to needed improvements in the state program of student financial aid. The commission will disseminate the information yielded by their analyses to all appropriate individuals and agents.

"(c) This study should include information on the following:

"(i) All programs and sources of available student financial aid,

"(ii) distribution of Washington citizens by socio-economic class,

"(iii) data from federal and state studies useful in identifying;

"(A) demands of students for specific educational goals in colleges, and

"(B) the discrepancy between high school students' preferences and the colleges they actually selected.

"(2) Design a state program of student financial aid based on the data of the study referred to in this section. The state program will supplement available federal and local aid programs. The state program of student financial aid will not exceed the difference between the budgetary costs of attending an institution of higher learning and the student's total resources, including family support, personal savings, employment, and federal and local aid programs.

"(3) Determine and establish criteria for financial need of the individual applicant based upon the consideration of that particular applicant. In making this determination the commission shall consider the following:

"(a) Assets and income of the student.

"(b) Assets and income of the parents, or the individuals legally responsible for the care and maintenance of the student.

"(c) The cost of attending the institution the student is attending or planning to attend.

"(d) Any other criteria deemed relevant to the commission.

"(4) Set the amount of financial aid to be awarded to any individual needy or disadvantaged student in any school year.

"(5) Award financial aid to full time needy or disadvantaged students for a school year based upon only that amount necessary to fill the financial gap between the budgetary cost of attending an institution of higher education and the family and student contribution.

"(6) Review the need and eligibility of all applications on an annual basis and adjust financial aid to reflect changes in the financial need of the recipients and the cost of attending the institution of higher education.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. In awarding grants, the commission shall proceed substantially as follows: PROVIDED, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent the commission, in the exercise of its sound discretion, from following another procedure when the best interest of the program so dictate:

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDougall: "Would Senator Peterson (Lowell) yield to a question? Senator Peterson, do the bill and the amendments which we adopted pertain only to air pollution problems created by industrial installations or does it have a broader scope than that?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "The whole act has a broader scope than that, Senator. It isn't only an industrial problem. We eventually get into the area of sanitary fills from local authorities and things of this nature which was constituted in our original bill in 1967."

Senator McDougall: "It hasn't broadened the scope, however, with regard to, for example, burning of stubble, etc., wheat lands and that sort of thing?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "I don't think there is anything in this act that broadens the scope over and above the original act. It tightens up some of the measures and provides local control, more stringent control if so desired in a local area but I don't think it changes the original scope."

Senator McDougall: "Thank you."

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 77 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Holman: "Would Senator Peterson (Lowell) yield to a question? Senator Peterson, are geoducks commercially harvested at the present time?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Only on a test fishery basis. They are not commercially harvested, to my knowledge."

Senator Holman: "Would this bill then authorize the commercial harvest of geoducks for instance in areas such as Quartermaster Harbor on Vashon Island?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "When we get into explaining the merits of the bill I expected the colleague across the way to take the floor before I did but I am sure that we can allay your fears."

"I might just say that in our committee hearings it was very clearly brought out by the department that they would not at any time or they had no intention of leasing any lands, tidelands, that would be adjacent to or be incompatible with any residential area or beach frontage. It is primarily an offshore and in areas where it would be designated by the department but it certainly wouldn't be incompatible with the resort of private dwellings."

Senator Holman: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I am not presently familiar with the commercial aspects of geoduck harvest but I do know that I have received a great deal of communication from residents of the residential area of Vashon Island which is one of the areas of the state I believe which is fortunate to have these large size geoduck clams and they are quite concerned about an industry moving into Quartermaster Harbor and harvesting the geoducks which they could do if they were at a depth of more than ten feet below the mean low or low water."

"It would seem to me that in view of what Senator Peterson has just said that perhaps their fears could be allayed if this bill could be returned to second reading and have an amendment put on so that it would not apply to residential areas which Quartermaster Harbor certainly is. Otherwise, I would have to oppose the bill."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "For the record and for the journal I would like to state that the department has assured us that this will in no way take effect in any of our coastal or sound waters."

"This bill is primarily designed to develop a new industry for the state. It is a resource that we have available that actually should be harvested and with the stipulation that no harvesting will be done within ten feet of low water mark and not adjacent to or in front of any local development. I don't think there should be any fears at all. This came up in committee, you may be well assured, and it was very extensively brought out. We handled a lot of objections to this measure before people really understood what the department was attempting to do and once it was clarified, there didn't seem to be any further problem with it and they have assured us also that with the modern dredge methods that actually there isn't any residue or beach wash or anything of this nature to speak of that would disturb anybody's waterfront frontage."

"Notwithstanding that, they still have no intention of utilizing this resource or attempting to harvest the geoduck clams adjacent to anybody's private property or development so I think that with this in the record, I don't believe the amendment would be necessary. This has gone through the House and they had the same fears over there as we did here and through their committee hearings it was pretty well established that this would be the procedure that would be followed in harvesting this resource."

Debate ensued.

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Peterson yield? Senator, I think that probably Senator Sandison anticipated my question. We all see bulldozers go through a country and do their thing. We have seen the strip mining do their little deal. Over in our country we have a place where they used to do some placer mining for gold over in a creek near Ellensburg which is in Senator Washington's district and that country looks like an earthquake had hit it. It is all piled up with stones and garbage."

"My question to you is if you turn these dredges loose on the bottom, aren't they going to scoop up everything down there including the kelp and the sea grass, crabs and starfish and all variety of life there? How can a dredge separate geoducks from everything else and then how are we going to keep that pollution from going everywhere near where these dredges are working?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Senator Canfield, let me start out by saying this. I think you will have to agree that when we go to a state agency regardless of whether it is state fisheries or the license or game departments for advice, they usually give us the facts and I can only say that it is my understanding and it is testimony before the committee the test fisheries that they have operated in harvesting the geoducks that they have carried on for several years does not do the things that you intimate that it might do. It does not do what Senator Sandison says. Certainly, it will disturb some seaweed and it might turn over a starfish or two, you can't maintain any operation without some minute side effects but I think we are overemphasizing it to a large degree.

"We aren't talking about going out and wholesale marketing of a resource. We are in the exploratory stage of this to where we have a resource. We are not going in as Senator Sandison intimated, taking the geoducks off the beaches of the beach-owners. We are going offshore and we are going in areas that are uninhabited with this operation and this was the testimony by the department and I am sure that I can take their word as well as I could Doug Toms from the department of motor vehicles or Chuck Prah from the department of highways or anybody else and I don't think we should be disturbed to this extent. It is a resource. It is a new field. It doesn't appear to me and it certainly didn't in the testimony before our committee that it would in any way be detrimental to any person in this state and I rather object to some of the statements that have been made here in intimidation."

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Engrossed House Bill No. 77 was ordered to take its place at the end of the third reading calendar for today.

Relating to certified weights.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 99 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator Donohue, as I read this bill it attempts to set up a 'weighmaster' and find nowhere in the bill the definition of a weighmaster except that he is someone who weighs. Secondly, on page 3 in section 15, starting on line 20, it says 'the driver of any vehicle previously weighed by a licensed public weighmaster may be required to reweigh the vehicle and load at the nearest scale'."

"Now, it doesn't say who may require him to do so at all and I don't know exactly what that means. Again on line 27 in section 13, it says it shall be a violation of this act to transport by highway any load except by the ordinary route. He has to weigh the load on the ordinary route to the destination where the hay or straw or grain is to be unloaded and I don't know whether a man could take another route under that definition or that language and go through some other weighmaster other than going to the very closest one in his area if he wanted to do business with a particular weighmaster rather than another, rather this would be a prohibition against him doing so."

Senator Donohue: "Senator Mardesich, I think what that really means is that the trucker or the hauler shall weigh at the nearest weighing facility. If you have any objections, we could hold this bill over."

Senator Mardesich: "I have no real objections but I just wondered if you could explain that."

Senator Donohue: "As far as the definition of a weighmaster, all I know that a weighmaster is licensed by the department of agriculture. He is a man who supposedly understands scales, understands weights, and is able to conform with the rules as set up by the department. As far as any other definition, I don't know of one."

Senator Mardesich: "If Senator Donohue would continue to yield. How about the language in section 15, page 3, the first sentence that says the driver of a vehicle previously weighed may be required to reweigh. By whom, I wonder?"

Senator Donohue: "I would imagine that the definition is probably in the original act. I imagine that is where the answer is actually."

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 158, by Committee on Education and Libraries:

Providing for eye protection in institutions of learning.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 31, 1969.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 158, providing for eye protection in institutions of learning (reported by Committee on Education):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 10, after "metals" and before the semicolon insert "or other molten materials"

On page 1, section 1, line 15, after "welding" and before the semicolon insert ", or other forms of welding processes"

On page 1, section 1, line 17, after "(6)" strike "Corrosive" and insert "Caustic"

On page 2, section 3, line 15, after "the" strike the remainder of the sentence and insert "U.S.A. Standard Practice for Occupational and Educational Eye and Face Protection, Z87.1-1968 or later revisions thereof."

Signed by: Senators Ridder, Chairman; Elicker, McCutcheon, Marquardt, Metcalf, Odegaard, Stender, Uhlman, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the committee amendments to page 1.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator McCormack: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator McCormack, I heard the reading of this amendment and I heard the words 'caustic' and 'corrosive'. Would you mind informing me as to what you have done with those words?"

Senator Ridder: "We added the word 'caustic'. 'Corrosive' or explosive materials is included and we have added 'caustic'. This is at the American Eye Institute."

Senator McCormack: "But you did not remove the word 'corrosive'?"

Senator Ridder: "We did not remove the word 'corrosive'. We removed nothing. We merely added 'caustic'."

Senator McCormack: "Thank you, Senator."

Debate ensued.

Senator Stender: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, I don't follow why we want to go into specifics in the general usage of safety in the industry itself and this is the same area that this bill directs itself to that they are just involved in the safety standards set up by the safety division of the department of labor and industries. Why can't reference be made that these standards be adhered to rather than trying to legislate particular problems of safety within this particular area of education?"

Senator Ridder: "Well, in actuality what this does, it is pretty well taken care of under item 7. What we want to do is point out these specific instances. For instance, in hot molten metal. Many children today work with plastics and this doesn't cover that. We thought that it would be quite specific about including this and pointing it out even though really item 7 means that it applies to all instances where hazardous activities to the eye are carried on. So really it is a blanket thing anyway."

Senator Stender: "That is the point I am trying to make. There is no limit to what we could do in legislating safety because every term brings some new problems and if we are going to legislate safety by writing particulars into a bill, we will have a tremendous document here in a short period of time."

"That is why I was suggesting that this could very well be taken care of by just referring to the regulations set out under the safety division of the department of labor and industries and you will cover the entire gamut of problems that come up for safety under what you are trying to do by statute."

Senator Ridder: "Of course this applies to schools and this applies to universities, community colleges and these are not covered under the department of labor and industries."

Senator Stender: "They could be by reference though, couldn't they?"

Senator Ridder: "They could be by reference but in this case this is all completely covered. It is a blanket coverage and I see no reason at this point to alter the bill to that point."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, referring to section 2 requiring persons to wear eye protection devices when participating in, observing, or performing any function, I am pursuing the question now partially raised by Senator Guess that in all my experience in any mechanical shop anywhere, I have never seen this done, anywhere at anytime except in connection with certain things like grinding and handling hot molten metals, etc. Are you telling me that a man has to put on goggles to put in a spark plug or to put on a fan belt or change a tire?"

Senator Ridder: "It says here that every person shall wear eye protection devices when participating in, observing or performing any function in connection with any course or activity taking place in eye protection areas in any private or public school. Any case where a person may lose an eye or any possibility of losing an eye is present. It seems to me only due caution that you go ahead and see to it that the youngsters are protected."

Senator Canfield: "What you really mean then is that in every shop course and every auto mechanics course every student, teacher, observer all have to put on goggles in the room?"

Senator Ridder: "This does not say that. It says that every person when participating which means you are directly doing the thing, when observing or looking at the process or performing the function and are close enough to be harmed by liquid, hot molten liquid, etc. You know as well as I know that in dealing with, some of these plastics when they hit a wet surface may blast twenty feet across the room and when you are close enough to be observing or taking part, I think it is only wise to have some sort of eye protection.

"I didn't write this bill but I am certainly in accord with it and I am just as interested in the well-being physically of children as Senator Guess is interested in the moral well-being of children."

Senator Canfield: "My question was not directed to Senator Guess. I was referring to subsection (5) in section 1 and the first lines in section 2 and these are pretty all-inclusive words, Senator Ridder."

Senator Ridder: "Yes, they are and I think that in all shops across this land we should make it a practice, in fact any sensible shop should make it a practice but we do have situations where this is not being made a practice and we feel that it should be organized and it should be under some program of rules."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Uhlman, Dore and Talley demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The motion by Senator Ridder failed and the committee amendment to page 1 was not adopted on a rising vote.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator McCormack gave notice he would at the proper time move for reconsideration of the vote by which the committee amendments to page 1 of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 158 were not adopted by the Senate.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Office of the Governor, April 8, 1969.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to advise that Governor Evans has approved the following Senate Bills, entitled:

SENATE BILL NO. 65: Advancing date for receiving additional state funds by city or town annexing territory.

SENATE BILL NO. 120: Suspending motor vehicle driver's licenses.

SENATE BILL NO. 146: Repealing county authority to assign certificates of delinquency.

SENATE BILL NO. 177: Authorizing city to combine certain utility services.

SENATE BILL NO. 179: Implementing teachers' professional negotiations act.

SENATE BILL NO. 198: Providing for an inventory of state land resources.

SENATE BILL NO. 202: Allowing recreational use of leased state lands.

SENATE BILL NO. 203: Authorizing a reconveyance of forest trust lands to counties for recreational uses.

SENATE BILL NO. 241: Providing accounting procedure for county warrants.

SENATE BILL NO. 270: Exempting books from school district bid procedure requirement.

Sincerely,

JOHN SHERWOOD

Legislative Counsel.

Office of the Governor, April 3, 1969.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to one item, SENATE BILL NO. 242, entitled:

"An Act relating to public hospital districts."

This bill makes a number of amendments to special statutes relating to public hospital districts, particularly to those statutes relating to the indebtedness which may be incurred by these districts. The bill increases the permissible interest rate on bonds issued by public hospital districts, and doubles the amount of bonds which a district may issue with the approval of 60% of the voters.

Section 4 amends RCW 39.36.020, which is the general statute relating to indebtedness of all taxing districts.

Section 3, chapter 142, Laws of 1969, passed at the regular session of the Forty-First Legislature, also amending RCW 39.36.020 in a manner that differs from the amendment contained in section 4 of Senate Bill No. 242. Fortunately, the object of the amendment contained in section 4 of this bill, which is to double the amount of bonds which a public hospital district may issue with the approval of 60% of the voters of the district, was accomplished by the amendment of RCW 39.36.020 contained in section 3, chapter 142, Laws of 1969.

The deletion of section 4 of Senate Bill No. 242 will in no way defeat the purpose of this bill. It will prevent inconsistent amendments to the same section of the law from becoming effective and will therefore preserve the amendments of that section contained in the law passed in the regular session of the Forty-First Legislature.

Except for section 4 which I have vetoed, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 242 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS

Governor.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Andersen, Senator Stender was excused.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Resolution 1969-EX-20.

MOTION

Senator Greive moved that Senate Resolution 1969-EX-20 be referred to the Committee on State Government.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pritchard: "I would like to ask Senator Greive a question? Senator, what is the purpose of sending this resolution off to a committee? We are only asking for a study."

Senator Greive: "It seems there was some quarrel with the wording. There was a bill that I thought after it was amended was considerably better than this resolution. I think it is far too broad. We have a number of organizations, for instance the accountants and real estate people, insurance people, who publish lists for their members and we felt that this properly should be studied by committee rather than be passed without due consideration. For that reason we felt that it should be put in a committee. We are not sending it to the same committee that the other one went through."

"In discussing this with the two or three people who are most interested on our side of the aisle they felt, too, it should be a study but they felt that the study belonged in the highway interim committee rather than the legislative council because this is the department of licenses. I think the argument is a matter of technique rather than a matter of substance but we like our technique better than yours."

Senator Pritchard: "I don't mind sending it to the highway interim committee or the legislative council but the problem is that hopefully we are in the dying days and supposed to be winding this session up in a little while and I don't see any committee here that has time to go in and have studies now. Rather than let this subject die or be swept under the rug, I would like it to go into a group that is going to make a study between now and the next nine months so we will be back here with some good, tough laws on this subject and I am fearful that it won't come out. Can you assure me, Senator Greive, that this resolution will come out?"

Senator Greive: "Are you joking?"

Senator Pritchard: "I would say then that I would oppose it and I would hope you people would oppose it unless you feel that there isn't a problem here in the use of public records and public names. I think we should have a study and as far as the majority party as I remember it, have many members on the legislative council and on the highway committee, I wouldn't be afraid of an honest study. I think this is too important to just get swept away."

Senators Day, Dore and Cooney demanded a Call of the Senate.

A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber.

The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senator Stender who had been previously excused.

President Cherberg resumed the Chair.

The motion by Senator Greive carried. Senate Resolution 1969-EX-20 was referred to the Committee on State Government.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, That at such time as the cafeteria lease is to be renegotiated, the department of general administration is requested to explore the possibility of negotiating a lease which will provide public cafeteria services on the Saturdays and Sundays above mentioned; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of the senate shall forward a copy of this resolution to the director of general administration and to the capitol cafeteria management.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 635 and the amendment pending by Senators Dore, Holman, Pritchard, Connor, Greive, Sandison, Mardesich and Uhlman.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In ruling upon the point of order as raised by Senator Atwood that the amendment by Senators Dore, Holman, Pritchard, Connor, Greive, Sandison, Mardesich and Uhlman enlarges the scope and object of Engrossed House Bill No. 635, the President finds that both the bill and the amendment relate to education and the financing of students in the area of higher education, and the President feels that Rule 42 would not apply in this case. Therefore, the point of order as raised by Senator Atwood is not well taken."

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Dore, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 6, of the title, after the semicolon insert "providing for financial assistance to needy or disadvantaged students attending institutions of higher education within the state; making an appropriation;"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Lewis (Brian) yield to a question? Senator Lewis, I missed the meeting held by the Committee on Cities, Towns and Counties at which this matter was discussed and my question is whether it provides that any area can be annexed to a city without a vote of the people residing in the area?"

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Absolutely not, Senator. This bill is only permissive legislation which applies to only two contiguous already incorporated communities. It has no reference whatsoever to annexation by any means whatsoever of unincorporated territory to an already incorporated community."

Senator Wilson: "Thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 261, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 85, by Representatives Farr, Bottiger and Kirk:
Modifying license requirements and procedures in the field of physical therapy.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 85 on second reading.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 10, 1969.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 85, modifying license requirements and procedures in the field of physical therapy (reported by Committee on Medicine, Dentistry, Public Health, Air and Water Pollution):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 1, line 8, after "peutic purposes," and before "the" strike "and" and insert "[and]"

On page 2, section 1, line 9, after "cauterization," and before "are" insert "and the use of chiropractic adjustments or manipulation of the articulations of the spine"

Signed by: Senators Day, Chairman; Connor, Elicker, Greive, Holman, McDougall, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not be construed to restrict manipulation or massage of the soft tissues of the body or rehabilitative muscular exercise involving the spinal articulations"

Debate ensued.

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 85, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Would Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, to make it even doubly clear that it is not your intention to interfere with the usual and regular practice in the field of physiotherapy, I understand that you have prepared a statement and I would like you to read that statement at this time so that it is in the official record."

Senator Day: "Thank you, Senator Greive. The intent of this committee amendment is to preclude the physiotherapist from attempting to practice chiropractic. The reason for including the word 'manipulation' as I stated before is so that it will not be used as a subterfuge in order to get around the term 'adjustment' which is a specific motion as used in the chiropractic act. Further, it is not the intent of this amendment to preclude the practice of physiotherapy to the full extent of the definition within RCW 18.74.010 or to preclude manipulation or massage of soft tissues, exercise, or rehabilitation involving spinal articulation and I believe that clarifies it right down to the enth degree, Senator Greive."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 85, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Lewis (Brian), Williams, Woodall—3.

Absent or not voting: Senators Atwood, Connor—2.

Excused: Senator Stender—1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 542, by Representatives Gallagher, Grant, Backstrom and Heavey: Removing certain ad valorem taxes on mobile homes or trailers.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 28, 1969.

HOUSE BILL NO. 542, removing certain ad valorem taxes on mobile homes or trailers (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 9, strike all the material down to and including "tion" on line 12, and insert:

"No mobile home or travel trailer within the scope of subsection (1) of RCW 82.50.180 and no mobile home or travel trailer with respect to which the excise tax imposed by this chapter is payable shall be listed and assessed for ad valorem taxation"

Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Bailey, Canfield, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Faulk, Foley, Greive, McCormack, Marquardt, Odegaard, Pritchard, Ridder, Sandison, Stortini, Walgren, Williams, Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator McCormack moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Gissberg: "Would Senator McCormack yield to a question? Senator McCormack, this bill went through your committee and I note that you leave on the emergency clause. Can you tell me what is so emergent about giving tax relief to somebody?"

Senator McCormack: "The reason for the emergency clause in this bill is because the department of revenue discovered early this year that under the construction of the existing law, mobile homes on display on sales lots would be subject to the inventory tax. They notified the county assessors who then notified the mobile home dealers.

"This bill was passed as a result of that particular situation to correct it and to bring the statute into conformity with the practice of no tax being levied. This emergency clause will prevent the anomaly of county assessors sending out notices on inventory tax on a bill that is going to go into effect to abolish that tax in a few months."

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator McCormack yield to a question? Senator McCormack, I have a little bill in that will repeal the inventory tax and it seems to me that you said that this was a very bad repealer. Now, wouldn't it be as just to repeal the inventory tax for trailers as to repeal the inventory tax for the rest of the taxpayers and business men of the state of Washington?"

Senator McCormack: "Well, Senator, you are speaking to the bill itself and I will be happy to answer that under discussion of third reading if you like. If you want me to answer it now, I will."

Senator Bailey: "I want a short answer. I don't want a speech."

Senator McCormack: "Senator, sometimes it isn't easy to give short speeches. The reason that the inventory taxes are not collected against automobiles and mobile homes is because they are subject to an excise tax in lieu of property tax and because this is collected starting at the moment of purchase. What this means is that on the average you pay the equivalent of a year and a half excise tax in lieu of property tax. More for a mobile home than you would on the equivalent piece of equipment, say a piece of farm equipment because it would not even be appraised until six months after it was purchased on the average and taxed a year later than that. So for automobiles and mobile homes where we charge an excise tax in lieu of property tax immediately upon purchase, we do not charge inventory tax."

Senator Gissberg: "Will Senator McCormack yield to a further question? Senator, as I read this amendment, this tax giveaway is only to the dealers and manufacturers but not the ultimate purchasers, is that not true?"

Senator McCormack: "No, as far as the state is concerned it is, Senator, but of course you recognize that the taxes in either case are passed along no matter what we are talking about, to the consumer and if we have both taxes on it, it amounts to double taxation. This will eliminate that situation."

Debate ensued.

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator McCormack yield? Senator, I am not really opposed to this bill except I want a little explanation of the cost. Who is going to pay for this repealer? Is it going to be the county or the state? You have me thoroughly confused with your answer to my last question and I am not sure just what you are doing now."

Senator McCormack: "At the present time there is no inventory tax being collected. We would have to go out and have a survey made to get the impact and since there is no tax being collected, there is no impact as far as present revenue of the state is concerned."

Further debate ensued.

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 542, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Voting yea: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Elicker, Faulk, Gissberg, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Holman, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McDougall, Mardesich, Marquardt, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Ryder, Sandison, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Washington, Williams, Wilson—40.

Excused: Senators Foley, Pritchard, Stender, Walgren—4.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 882, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Engrossed House Bill No. 882 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

On motion of Senator Andersen, Senator Stender was excused.

HOUSE BILL NO. 309, by Representatives Lynch, Chatalas, Farr, Leckenby and Litchman (by departmental request):

Providing for prevention and care of venereal disease among minors.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 309 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, what is going to be the fiscal impact of this and where is the money coming from?"

Senator Day: "I don't think there will be any great fiscal impact but it will come through the department of public assistance in some instances but I believe in most instances it will come from the parent or guardian."

Senator Guess: "Senator Day, on line 25 it says 'the legal guardian shall not be liable for payment for any care rendered pursuant to this section.'"

Senator Day: "That is a good question, Senator Guess. I am not just sure in that instance who would be liable. Evidently, the doctor's bill would go unpaid because if the parent or guardian isn't liable, certainly the under age person wouldn't be. Possibly Senator Atwood could answer that."

Senator Atwood: "The minor is also liable for debts. Medical expenses are necessary under our law."

Senator Guess: "But Senator Atwood, the bill says that the legal guardian or parent shall not be liable for payment of any care rendered pursuant to this section."

Senator Atwood: "But the minor is liable."

Senator Guess: "You can't collect from a minor if you can't collect from the parent."

Senator Atwood: "Yes, you can in this case. This is a necessary."

Senator Guess: "How does it say so?"

Senator Atwood: "Medical treatment is a necessary under our law and always has been."

Senator Guess: "The minor has no right to contract?"

Senator Atwood: "That is correct. But this is not a contract. Senator. The law is that a minor is liable for his necessities, like food, clothing, medicine, medical assistance. He is not liable for things that are not considered a necessary. I am sure the doctor is going to protect himself in this case."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Elicker yield? Senator, what makes it a good piece of legislation as far as you are concerned?"

Senator Elicker: "As far as I am concerned, Senator Guess, we are looking at a situation that is an after the fact situation. We are looking at youngsters. Syphilis is known as the great dissembler. This is a disease that people get and the symptoms go away if not treated. With youngsters this age they are concerned when they have symptoms. Perhaps afraid to tell their parents, they don't get any medical care. Their symptoms go away, ten or fifteen years later, we see a significant number of these people in our institutions at public expense when the secondary and tertiary symptoms arise."

Senator Guess: "Senator Elicker, I have not had a great deal of experience, having no experience in medicine, but you make a statement that my army experience leads me to believe is very doubtful. In fact we had several problems with the general service regiment that we had overseas and the venereal disease rate in one of them got so high that we had to take a unit out of combat. None of the symptoms went away. Can you explain how the symptoms go away?"

Senator Elicker: "Senator Guess, having served in the navy, not in the army, I have had very little experience with this. However, I might say that I was referring specifically to syphilis. There are about, as I understand it, five or six common venereal diseases where the symptoms do not go away."

Senator Guess: "I can't understand why that makes it one of the best bills of the legislature."

Senator Gissberg: "Will Senator Uhlman yield to a question? Senator Uhlman, what is the age of the crime of statutory rape in this state?"

Senator Uhlman: "Eighteen, Senator."

Senator Gissberg: "Thank you."

MOTIONS

Senator Guess moved that House Bill No. 309 be referred to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the motion by Senator Guess was laid upon the table on a rising vote.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 309, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 9; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Andersen, Atwood, Bailey, Cooney, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Elicker, Henry, Holman, Huntley, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Brian), Lewis (Harry), McCormack, McCutcheon, McDougall, Mardesich, Marquardt, Newschwander, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Ryder, Sandison, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Uhlman, Walgren, Washington, Williams, Woodall—35.

Voting nay: Senators Canfield, Connor, Faulk, Greive, Guess, Herr, Metcalf, Ridder, Wilson—9.

Absent or not voting: Senators Gissberg, Matson—2.

Excused: Senators Foley, Pritchard, Stender—3.

HOUSE BILL NO. 309, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Senator Greive moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 709 be placed at the beginning of tomorrow's second reading calendar.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman: "Senator Greive, I would like to know why you are making the motion to put this bill over?"

Senator Greive: "I have been in communication with the people from the city of Seattle and I have discussed the aspects of the bill and they are bringing down an expert that is very familiar with the details of this and how it will operate. I would like to have this information before I vote."

Senator Uhlman: "This wouldn't be Joe Diamond, would it?"

Senator Greive: "No, on the contrary, it would be the counterpart of Joe Diamond, someone that works for the City of Seattle."

The motion carried. Engrossed House Bill No. 709 was ordered placed on the second reading calendar for Thursday, April 10, 1969.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 30, by Representatives Bledsoe and O'Brien:

Providing compensation for legislative interns.

On motion of Senator Greive, House Concurrent Resolution No. 30 was ordered to take its place immediately following Engrossed House Bill No. 540 on second reading, Thursday, April 10, 1969.

HOUSE BILL NO. 318, by Representatives Saling, DeJarnatt and Scott:

Providing benefits for teachers' retirement.

Senator Ryder moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 8, section 6(19) (a) after "basis" on line 13 insert a period and strike the matter down to and including "committee." on line 15 and insert "Such advice shall become part of the official minutes of the next succeeding meeting of the board. The counsel shall not be engaged in the business of buying, selling, or otherwise marketing securities during the time of its employment by the board."

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Ryder yield to a question? Senator Ryder, does this bill have a particular impact on the operating budget of the local school districts?"

Senator Ryder: "Not as it sits now. This is a bill which has a general amendment to the teachers' retirement law and it has immediate effect upon the local school district operating budget."

Senator Wilson: "It has a potential effect?"

Senator Ryder: "Any pension system of course that you have any kind of an amendment has a potential effect but you don't know what they will be until sometime in the future when your investment policies may take care of it or may not."

Senator Elicker: "In further response to Senator Wilson's question, the teachers' retirement is funded entirely from general fund appropriations. The local school districts make only social security payments on behalf of teachers and non-certificated employees and the entire employer contribution to the teachers' retirement is done with a general fund appropriation which I think this year is close to $35-$40 million."

Senator Ridder: "This bill in relation to your question does not change the basic pension formula whatsoever. It is merely bringing the administrative rules and regulations into order so it would not have, in this sense, any impact."

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Williams, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 14, section 14 (3), line 7 after "allowance" strike the remainder of the sentence and insert "which shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits as of the earliest date upon which he could otherwise retire under subsections (1) and (2) of this section."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Before we leave second reading, I would like to ask Senator Ridder to yield. Senator Ridder, why do they make the director and the assistant director under this system not covered by the merit system?"

Senator Ridder: "Essentially, I think this is in keeping with general practice in the state. The director is an exempt position and so we make the director in this bill an exempt position."

Senator Mardesich: "In addition to that, can you give me some reason, referring to page 5, lines 27 and 30, the subject of the investment of funds in the Asian development bank and the Inter-American bank has come up in my committee with respect to other problems, primarily in respect to mutual banks. I wonder if you can tell us what this does and what the purpose of it is?"

Senator Ridder: "I am very sorry I cannot respond to this. Perhaps Senator Ryder could better respond to that question. Actually this is bringing things into conformity with what now exists and I don't think essentially it is put in for any sneakiness."

Senator Mardesich: "If I might continue my question. This isn't the law now and that is why it is being put in. I have no particular feeling on this subject as of yet but it has come up before our committee and we haven't had an opportunity to analyze it. I wonder if anyone else has and what effect this has on the fund, if any, and whether or not it takes away from this state potential development of funds for this state.

"I have no aversion to developing Asia but I wonder if maybe the state of Washington is first and as I say, before having had any real exposure, I wonder what is the real need of this amendment and if there would be any strong objection to striking it at this time?"

Senator Ridder: "I would be willing to hold this bill over in order to get some expert advice as to what this actually does because I am at a loss too. Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 5 as you know, we did expand the investment capabilities and I am sure that nothing would be put in that wouldn't be very solidly funded by either American reserve or definite funds. If you would make the motion to put the bill down on the calendar, I would be willing to agree with that."

Senator Walgren moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, section 6 (12), line 21 after "state" strike all matter down to and including the semicolon after "corporation" in line 24 and insert "in accordance with RCW 33.52.010 as from time to time amended;"

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Engrossed House Bill No. 318 was made a special order of business immediately following lunch.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senator Ridder was excused.

HOUSE BILL NO. 659, by Representatives O'Dell, Smythe and McCaffree:

Exempting from business and occupation tax certain amounts or value received by taxing districts for payments to capital.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCormack, House Bill No. 659 was made a special order of business immediately following Engrossed House Bill No. 318.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence of former State Senator W. C. Raugust and appointed a special committee consisting of Senators Peterson (Ted), Newschwander and Huntley to escort Senator Raugust to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

With leave of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Senator Raugust to address the Senate.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 437, by Representatives Bledsoe, Hatfield, Lynch, Spanton, Flanagan and Morrison:

Providing for transfer of county property where not more than fifty registered voters in the area to be transferred.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Matson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 26 of the engrossed bill, being the first two lines of the text of the House committee amendment, after "shall" on line 26 of the engrossed bill, strike ", within twenty days of the date the petition was presented to it"

President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCutcheon: "Would Senator Matson yield? Senator Matson, I know you are concerned as other people about forced annexation and you are also quite well aware that most every law we pass here is of general application all over the state. Does this provide for a vote of the people if they want one on both areas?"

Senator Matson: "It provides for a vote of the people living in the district that is to be annexed and they can vote either for or against."

MOTION

Senator Washington moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 437 be made a special order of business after lunch.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, I would inquire particularly what you have in mind. Is there any particular objection to the bill? Do you just want to check it a little more thoroughly?"

Senator Washington: "There are some possibilities of amendment relating to the provisions in the exchange of property between the counties."

Senator Canfield: "I am sure Senator Washington is familiar with the area. I have driven it hundreds of times and I am quite familiar with the problem there. I am hopeful there is no serious objection to the measure on your part, Senator Washington."

Senator Washington: "I do have some reservations as far as the measure itself is concerned but I would also like to have a chance to look at it closer. I will admit many times we should know what is coming on the calendar. We should do our homework sooner but once in a while these things appear on the calendar and it comes as a surprise. I would like to have it set over until the first order of business after lunch. I don't think that is too much to ask."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the motion by Senator Washington was amended to place Engrossed House Bill No. 437 as a special order of business immediately following House Bill No. 659.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 103, by Representatives Hawley, Veroske and Kink (by departmental request):

Providing for the positive identification of persons living in Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Uhlman, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 6 after "Section 1." strike all the matter down to and including "neighbors." on line 10

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Uhlman: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator, would you clarify the need for the bill and whether or not it is going to cost the citizens and the taxpayers any additional money."

Senator Washington: "First, it will have some advantage as far as identification of drivers is concerned. The major advantage will undoubtedly be to the public at large in being able to have a convenient means of identification. This means of identification has been adopted to the driver's license which is the most universal document that you carry. Almost universally, if you go to a bank or hotel to cash a check, they will ask you for your driver's license. A large number of states do have the driver's license with the identification. This does not concern me since automobiles are so universal that the mere fact that we use the driver's license and charge the individual fifty cents for it, makes no difference whether it helps a great deal as far as the state patrol is concerned or whether it is a personal advantage.

"As to the financial impact, one document which was before the committee was presented by Representative Hal Wolf, one of the sponsors and as I recall, these figures were not contradicted by the motor vehicle department and were present and the statement presented to our committee reads that the bill provides for pictures on all driver's licenses and raises the fee fifty cents. This gives the state an opportunity to contract for this service and the cost estimate is less than thirty cents. The overall cost which is estimated will be taken care of by the fifty cent license fee. For the first year the cost is $540,000 and for the second year of the biennium $1,000,109.91 accumulative cost."

Senator Uhlman: "So in other words, the net impact on each individual who owns or holds a driver's license in our state is fifty cents and in addition to that there will be a general fund impact, is that correct?"

Senator Washington: "No, the figures I read are to be taken care of by the fifty cent increase in the license. The bill was presented to the highway committee and the information and evidence presented indicated that it would be a self-supporting program with the fifty cents."

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Washington yield to a question? I don't know whether this question should go to you or some other attorney but I have recollection that there has been quite a bit of agitation in the legislature against taking pictures on applications. For instance in getting jobs as teachers or for state employment on the grounds of discrimination. My question to you is there any such objection to this measure?"

Senator Washington: "I have heard no such objection since it is completely universal and is used for identification purposes. The picture would not go along with application for employment. Of course, there is one provision in the bill that there will be a negative on file which can be used for law enforcement purposes. One thing I would like to point out. Any time you make an estimate, the official estimate of the department of motor vehicles is that it will be self-sustaining. As usual sometimes there are reservations expressed and one of the members of the motor vehicle department said that he had his fingers crossed somewhat as to whether it would be completely self-sustaining but at least the official information that we have is that it will be."

Senator Uhlman: "Would Senator Washington yield to a further question? Senator, as I understand this is not mandatory, is that correct?"

Senator Washington: "It is my impression that it is mandatory."

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Would Senator Washington yield? Senator, listening to your discussion with Senator Uhlman I think you said the cost of these photographs would be about thirty cents and the driver is going to have to pay fifty cents, is that correct?"

Senator Washington: "This is the information that was presented to the committee by Representative Wolf. On the other hand, I think many times our estimates are overly conservative and I would think to be on the safe side that we should have it at fifty cents to make sure that we are covering the entire cost."

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Pursuing that point, on page 2, line 4, it says that the entire fifty cents shall be deposited in the highway safety fund. Now presumably the idea of that is that money should be available for highway safety purposes. Is the cost of issuing licenses a charge which is made against the highway safety fund or is the current cost of issuing licenses a charge which is met by some other source so then the thirty or fifty cent impact is going to be on another source? The highway safety fund will have made a nice gain of fifty cents but someplace the state government will have to pay the extra thirty cents for the fancier license plates."

Senator Washington: "From a technical budgetary point of view I don't think I can completely answer your question but the funds are going to come from the driver. They are going into basically motor fund sources. Maybe I don't get the import of your question."

Senator Lewis (Brian): "The bill indicates that the money goes to the highway safety fund specifically and also indicates this two places on the identification card. It doesn't say motor vehicle fund or department general fund, both indicate that it goes to the highway safety fund."

"That is fine if that is where we want the money to go and it helps highway safety but it then leaves, based upon what you said, a thirty cent cost impact on the department for each license."

Senator Washington: "It is going to take care of the cost of the license and as I understand it, no matter what fund it goes into this is the basis upon which the charge will be made."

Senator Lewis (Brian): "Would you have any objection, Senator Washington, if we held the bill over maybe until tomorrow to get Mr. Toms of the department of motor vehicles to answer this question?"

Senator Washington: "I think we could do it much quicker. I can't give you the exact route that the money will go but if you have a question that you definitely want answered, I just can't give you the definite answer as to just what fund it is going into and the channels through which this money will go."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDougall, Engrossed House Bill No. 597 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Thursday, April 10, 1969.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

HOUSE BILL NO. 659, by Representatives O'Dell, Smythe and McCaffree:

Exempting from business and occupation tax certain amounts or value received by taxing districts for payments to capital.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 28, 1969.

HOUSE BILL NO. 659, exempting from business and occupation tax certain amounts or value received by taxing districts for payments to capital (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, line 9, after "to" and before "chapter" strike all of the material through line 16 and insert "chapters 82.04 and 82.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The tax imposed by chapters 82.04 and 82.16 RCW shall not apply or be deemed to apply to amounts or value paid or contributed to any county, city, town, political subdivision, or municipal or quasi municipal corporation of the state of Washington representing payments of special assessments or installments thereof and interests and penalties thereon, charges in lieu of assessments, or any other charges, payments or contributions representing a share of the cost of capital facilities constructed or to be constructed or for the retirement of obligations and payment of interest thereon issued for capital purposes.

Service charges shall not be included in this exemption even though used wholly or in part for capital purposes."

In line 1 of the title after "taxation;" strike all of the rest of the title and insert the following: "exempting amounts or value paid and contributed to any county, city, town, political subdivision, or municipal or quasi municipal corporation for capital purposes or for the payment of bonds issued for capital purposes from the provisions of chapters 82.04 and 82.16 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 82.04 RCW; and prescribing an effective date."

Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Bailey, Canfield, Cooney, Donohue, Faulk, Foley, Greive, Lewis (Harry), McCormack, Mardesich, Odegaard, Ridder, Sandison, Stortini, Twigg, Uhlman, Walgren, Williams.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator McCormack, the committee amendments were adopted.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator McCormack yield? Senator, I am going to ask you a couple of questions. In the first place, has the state ever charged B&O tax on local improvement districts or taxing assessment districts?"

Senator McCormack: "I have a letter from Chester Biesen that says that has not been the case. These taxes have never been collected since 1935 when the revenue act was passed. However, this year the department of revenue determined that under the law they should be collected."

Senator Atwood: "That was strictly a department of revenue ruling. There is no case on that, is there?"

Senator McCormack: "That is my understanding."

Senator Atwood: "Second question. In this amendment that we just adopted, I didn't get a chance to ask you if they exempt service charges and what do you mean by service charges?"

Senator McCormack: "Senator, I am not sure I can answer that question. Maybe someone else can. I would be glad to yield to anyone who could answer."

Senator Guess: "Senator Atwood, the normal service charge is on a sewer charge. They have in certain instances paid a part of the city's care out of the service charge on the sewage disposal system."

Senator Atwood: "Are you quite certain that those include only the normal water and service charges that presently pay B&O taxes?"

Senator McCormack: "I think I have an answer here. I have a letter from Don Burrows, the assistant director of the department of revenue and he says the impact of both bills would be similar and would affect essentially providers of water and sewer services. These measures would exempt from the coverage of the B&O tax that is received by taxing districts municipal corporations or political subdivisions from payment or contribution for capital improvement. All such payments made prior to initiation of service are presently subject to the B&O tax."

Senator Atwood: "I just wanted a clarification. I think their bill is okay as long as there is no misunderstanding about what that service charge is."

On motion of Senator McCormack, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 659, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 581, by Judiciary Committee:

Authorizing miscellaneous and mutual corporations.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Ryder moved that the rules be suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 581 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third.

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator McCutcheon: "Would Senator Ryder yield? Senator, I don't know what is in this bill."

Senator Ryder: "Senator McCutcheon, this is not my bill. It came from the Judiciary Committee and the reason I advanced it was because no one seemed to be doing so. As I understand this bill, it is one that puts back into the law the rules and regulations governing cooperatives and nonprofit corporations, miscellaneous corporations, which was inadvertently repealed at the last session of the legislature. It is one that quite a few people have been asking for and I am told it is a very necessary bill."

Senator McCutcheon: "Would Senator Uhlman yield? Senator Uhlman, what does this bill do, put the mutuals all under the regulatory department?"

Senator Uhlman: "When the original nonprofit corporation act, was passed last session there was a void left in the basic legislation of our dealing with the so-called miscellaneous mutual corporations. These acts were left literally homeless in terms of statutory authority under which they could operate so the Washington State Bar Association legislative committee undertook to study and propose this legislation to deal with and to provide a so-called model act for the mutual to operate.

"Mr. McBride, who represents a number of these mutual corporations, and a number of other attorneys who represent these corporations came together and met with the bar association legislative committee and this model act is the creation of their work. It is an act that is very necessary, otherwise they will simply have no statutory authority to form new corporations or in some instances to continue their operations and would leave them with a serious cog as to their operations. It is a necessary act and one that we must pass this session."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCutcheon, Substitute House Bill No. 581 was ordered placed on second reading today immediately following Substitute House Bill No. 363.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 520, by Representatives Bottiger, Scott and Chapin: Making certain changes in the nonprofit corporation act.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 520, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 540, by Representatives Swayze, Chapin and Rosellini:

Relating to appeals from county board of adjustment.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Gissberg moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Gissberg, Herr and Cooney:

On line 16, add a new section following section 1 as follows:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 4, Laws of 1963, and to chapter 36.70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

“Any board may by resolution authorize the payment of a daily per diem allowance to each member of the county planning commission and to each member of the county board of adjustment for each day any member of the planning commission or any member of the board of adjustment participate in a planning commission or board of adjustment meeting. The daily per diem allowance authorized by this section shall not exceed twenty-five dollars per day.

“The per diem allowance authorized by this section shall be considered supplementary to any allowances authorized pursuant to the provisions of RCW 36.70.310 as now law or hereafter amended.”

POINTS OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: “Would Senator Gissberg yield to a question? Senator Gissberg, per diem is a term that has some legal significance and usually is used in terms of subsistence and lodging. I would think that what you are trying to do is not to pay a remuneration by way of salary and perhaps it should read twenty-five dollars by way of salary or income rather than per diem. I think the use of the word ‘per diem’ in the amendment is a misnomer.”

Senator Gissberg: “It could be that you are right although apparently bill drafting prepared this amendment and modeled it after some of the other commissions.”

Senator McCormack: “Would Senator Gissberg yield? Senator, is there a limit on the number of days in a month that a commission may receive per diem and is it optional with the counties?”

Senator Gissberg: “One, it is optional with the counties. Secondly, no, there would be no limit except the practical limits of it. The people who serve on planning commissions and boards of adjustment have other businesses to take care of and they don’t make it a business to be serving on these boards so there is no limitation. The limitation is a practical one in that they don’t meet that frequently but probably the average planning commission does meet at least two days a month, that is in the larger counties at least and in some of them at least once a week.”

The motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gissberg, the following amendment to the title by Senators Gissberg, Herr and Cooney was adopted:

In line 1 of the title, after "to" and before the semicolon strike "appeals from county board of adjustments" and insert "county and regional planning; adding a new section to chapter 4, Laws of 1963, and to chapter 36.70 RCW"

On motion of Senator Gissberg, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 540, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.
