- (4) Section 871, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MOTION

Senator Wojahn moved that the following amendment by Senators Wojahn, Gaspard, Madsen, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Rasmussen and Smitherman to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 1, after line 6 of the amendment, insert the following:

"Sec. 101. Section 106, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Tacoma Union Station building stabilization and planning

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $1,000,000 of this appropriation is provided solely to prevent further deterioration of the Tacoma Union Station building. This may include, but is not limited to, providing a fire detection system, removing safety hazards, and programming necessary to implement these works.

(2) A maximum of $500,000 may be used for planning regarding future use of the Tacoma Union Station property to promote state economic development.

(3) The money in subsections (1) and (2) of this section is provided contingent upon a written legal agreement between the city of Tacoma and the state that (a) requires state approval of future uses and disposition of the Tacoma Union Station property and (b) gives the state the right of first refusal to assume the city of Tacoma's option to purchase the Tacoma Union Station property currently owned by the Burlington Northern company.

(4) $500,000 of this appropriation is provided solely for architectural plans and construction specifications for a state museum on the Union Station property.

(5) $400,000 of this appropriation is provided solely for purchase of the Union Station property. The appropriation in this subsection is contingent on a like amount being provided for this purpose from nonstate sources.

(6) $2,000,000 of this appropriation is provided solely for restoration of the rotunda of the Union Station building. The appropriation in this subsection is contingent on the city's agreement to exercise its option to purchase Union Station and the city's agreement to grant to the state the right of first refusal to assume the city's option to purchase the property should the city decide to withdraw from the project.

(7) The money in subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this section is provided contingent upon a written legal agreement between the city of Tacoma and the state that:

(a) The city obtain the state's approval for all decisions with respect to:

(i) Determining final ownership of Union Station itself;

(ii) Identifying appropriate uses for the site; and

(iii) Selecting consultants retained by the city under its contract with the state;

(b) The city consult with the state and, unless prohibited from doing so by terms of the United States general services administration lease, follow the state's recommendations in other significant decisions concerning the development of the Union Station properties, including but not limited to:

(i) Planning the development and redevelopment of the site to accommodate appropriate uses;

(ii) Obtaining financing for acquisition, development, or redevelopment of the property; and

(iii) Acquiring, leasing, subleasing, and/or reselling the property;

(c) If the city finds that it is not possible to follow the state's recommendations, the city will advise the state and allow the state a reasonable opportunity to comment; and

(d) The city shall obtain a public access easement from the United States general services administration or any other owner or lessee that will allow public access through the rotunda to any future state facility.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Nelson: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Since this is the capital budget, how many votes does it take to pass these amendments to the capital budget?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "An amendment is considered passed, if it has a majority of the members voting."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator McDonald, I've never been on Ways and Means and have never been very close to this appropriation process, nor the bonding. As we go into this capital budget and discuss these many items, I'd like to know where the money comes from that pays these bonds off?"

Senator McDonald: "Well, Senator Barr, the bonds are paid off--our Constitution says this is our first obligation, right after pensions--that the debt will be paid off and the debt is subtracted before we ever see the state general fund. The money that we get in from taxes, et cetera, is more than the ten point two billion dollars that we see before us this biennium, but since we're paying off old bonds, those are subtracted and we never see it and all we see is the ten point two billion dollars. It looks like magic money. It looks like stuff that's kind of free, but I'll guarantee it isn't and it comes right out of children's programs and human service programs and it comes out of the things that are important to all of us like kindergarten through 12th grade education and higher education--because it comes right off the top."

Senator Wojahn demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senators Wojahn, Gaspard, Madsen, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Rasmussen and Smitherman on page 1, after line 6, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1455.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 22; absent, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Johnson, Kreidler, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Niemi, Owen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 26.

Absent: Senator McCaslin - 1.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the following amendment by Senators Gaspard, Wojahn, Madsen, Warnke, Bender, Smitherman and Owen to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 2, after line 12, insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. A new section is added to chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Goodwill Games Aquatic Center and Marymoor Park

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $4,500,000 is appropriated for construction of an indoor aquatic center in Tacoma, Pierce County, on condition that no zero grade beach, other components of a wave pool or water slide are constructed or acquired for the project.

(2) $1,700,000 is appropriated for improvements to the King County Marymoor Park Velodrome in Redmond and for improvements to the Equestrian Center in Enumclaw.

The above appropriations are contingent upon the provision of at least an additional fifty percent match from nonstate sources as follows: $4,500,000 in private donations and local government funds from Pierce County, the City of Tacoma and the Metropolitan Park District; and $1,700,000 in private donations and local government funds from King County."

Renumber the sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

Senator Madsen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senators Gaspard, Wojahn, Madsen, Warnke, Bender, Smitherman and Owen on page 2, after line 12, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1455.

MOTION

At 9:40 p.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate adjourned until 1:00 p.m., Sunday, March 6, 1988.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

GORDON A. GOLOB, Secretary of the Senate.

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY

AFTERNOON SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Sunday, March 6, 1988

The Senate was called to order at 1:00 p.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Craswell, Deccio, Talmadge and West. On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Craswell was excused. On motion of Senator Bauer, Senator Talmadge was excused.

The Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, consisting of Pages Jane Thykkuttathil and Shannon Prescott, presented the Colors. Reverend Gary Fogelquist, pastor of the Lacey Seventh-Day Adventist Church, offered the prayer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SECOND READING CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

MOTION

On motion of Senator Saling, Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9167, Grace L. Lynch, as a member of the Board of Trustees for Wenatchee Valley Community College District No. 15, was confirmed.

Senator Sellar spoke to the confirmation of Grace L. Lynch as a member of the Board of Trustees for Wenatchee Valley Community College.

APPOINTMENT OF GRACE L. LYNCH

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent, 2; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 45.

Absent: Senators Deccio, West - 2.

Excused: Senators Craswell, Talmadge - 2.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Anderson, Senator Zimmerman was excused.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pullen, Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9168, John Ladenburg, as a member of the Sentencing Guidelines Commission, was confirmed.

Senator Rasmussen spoke to the confirmation of John Ladenburg as a member of the Sentencing Guidelines Commission.

APPOINTMENT OF JOHN LADENBURG

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn - 45.

Absent: Senator Johnson - 1.

Excused: Senators Craswell, Talmadge, Zimmerman - 3.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1754 and the Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 5, after line 28, to the Committee and Ways and Means amendment, deferred March 3, 1988.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Williams, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1754 is a measure revising certain administrative procedures pertaining to television reception improvement districts, the Board of Tax Appeals and property taxes.

"The Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 5, after line 28, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment transfers the valuation of radio communication service companies from the Department of Revenue to county assessors for property tax purposes.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed committee amendment to the committee amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 5, after line 28, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was ruled in order.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Warnke: "Senator McDonald, in the committee, when this amendment first came up, the words 'compacting and processing' were in the amendment and an issue was raised over those two words. It's in Article 13. Now, you were kind enough—you and Senator Newhouse to take out that word 'processing,' but I received a letter from a constituent in my district called Hot Sales Services, on the words 'now compacting.' Is it your intention that 'compacting' would include things like the Hutchinson Cancer Center or small businesses that are hand-packing into barrels? When we get to that amendment, would you answer that question for me?"

Senator McDonald: "I certainly will, Senator Warnke."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 5, after line 28, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 5, after line 28, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 26, after line 17, to the Committee and Ways and Means amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1754, deferred March 3, 1988.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Williams, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1754 is a measure revising certain administrative procedures pertaining to television reception improvement districts, the Board of Tax Appeals and property taxes.

"The Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 26, after line 17, to the Committee on Ways and Means, creating a New Section 34, amends the annexation statutes regarding intercounty fire districts and sets a date for establishing district boundaries for property tax purposes.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed committee amendment to the committee amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 26, after line 17, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was ruled out of order.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of the second Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 26, after line 17, to the Committee and Ways and Means amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1754, deferred March 3, 1988.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Williams, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1754 is a measure revising certain administrative procedures pertaining to television reception improvement districts, the Board of Tax Appeals and property taxes.

"The Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 26, after line 17, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, amending RCW 82.04.260, imposes a business and occupation tax on low-level nuclear waste compacting firms.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed committee amendment to the committee amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The second Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 26, after line 17, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was ruled out of order.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of the amendment by Senators Saling, Smitherman, Patterson, McMullen, Hansen, Anderson and von Reichbauer on page 3, after line 25, to Substitute House Bill No. 1754, deferred March 3, 1988.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Williams, and there being no objection, the point of order on the scope and object of the amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was withdrawn.

Debate on the amendment on page 3, after line 25, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to the adoption of the amendment by Senators Saling, Smitherman, Patterson, McMullen, Hansen, Anderson and von Reichbauer to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1754.

The amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the following amendment by Senators Gaspard, Rinehart and Halsan be adopted:

On page 26, after line 24, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows:

A nonprofit trade or professional organization that registers or has registered with the department of revenue by July 1, 1988, shall be absolved of any liability for taxes due from the organization and unpaid under this title for taxes due prior to the date of registration or the effective date of this section, whichever is earlier, on charges made to members for occupying space at trade shows or participating in other activities sponsored by the entity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. Section 35 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, a point of order. I guess I would question the scope and object on this amendment. As you have so eloquently said, Mr. President, this bill does deal with certain taxing procedures, relative to television. It has to do with tax referees and who they are and how they are hired. It has to do with a few changes--basically clean-up changes--in the tax assessor's law and it has something to do with the taxation of cellular telephones and with the adoption of the Saling amendment, higher education. This amendment seems to go far outside of the scope and object of the bill. It has to do with non-profit trade and professional organizations and their liability for taxes. It seems to be outside of the scope and object of this bill, certainly of the writers of same."

Further debate ensued.

There being no objection, the President deferred further consideration of the amendment by Senators Gaspard, Rinehart and Halsan to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1754.

MOTION

Senator Niemi moved that the following amendment by Senators Niemi and Bender to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 10, after line 25 of the amendment, insert the following:

"Sec. 11. Section 12, chapter 212, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 319, Laws of 1985 and RCW 84.34.108 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When land has once been classified under this chapter, a notation of such designation shall be made each year upon the assessment and tax rolls and such land shall be valued pursuant to RCW 84.34.060 or 84.34.065 until removal of all or a portion of such designation by the assessor upon occurrence of any of the following:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove all or a portion of such designation;

(b) Sale or transfer to an ownership making all or a portion of such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(c) Sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner, unless the new owner has signed a notice of classification continuance. The signed notice of continuance shall be attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit provided for in RCW 82.45.120, as now or hereafter amended. The notice of continuance shall be on a form prepared by the department of revenue. If the notice of continuance is not signed by the new owner and attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit, all additional taxes calculated pursuant to subsection (3) of this section shall become due and payable by the seller or transferor at time of sale. The county auditor shall not accept an instrument of conveyance of classified land for filing or recording unless the new owner has signed the notice of continuance or the additional tax has been paid. The seller, transferor, or new owner may appeal the new assessed valuation calculated under subsection (3) of this section to the county board of equalization. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the county board of equalization to hear these appeals;

(d) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that all or a portion of such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for the purposes under which it was granted classification or, in the case of open space land devoted to golf by a private club, that the club does not make the facilities available on an equitable basis to all members, and those persons eligible for privileges under the membership, regardless of sex, race, color, national origin, or ancestry.

(2) Within thirty days after such removal of all or a portion of such land from current use classification, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The seller, transferor, or owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(3) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal, the assessor shall revalue the affected land with reference to full market value on the date of removal from classification. Both the assessed valuation before and after the removal of classification shall be listed and taxes shall be allocated according to that part of the year to which each assessed valuation applies. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, an additional tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer thirty days after the owner is notified of the amount of the additional tax. As soon as possible, the assessor shall compute the amount of such an additional tax and the treasurer shall mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such additional tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference between the property tax paid as "open space land", "farm and agricultural land", or "timber land" and the amount of property tax otherwise due and payable for the seven years last past had the land not been so classified; plus

(b) Interest upon the amounts of such additional tax paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty if the land had been assessed at a value without regard to this chapter.

(4) Additional tax, together with applicable interest thereon, shall become a lien on such land which shall attach at the time such land is removed from current use classification under this chapter and shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognition, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050 now or as hereafter amended. Any additional tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(5) The additional tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of designation pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other land located within the state of Washington;

(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land;

(d) A natural disaster such as a flood, windstorm, earthquake, or other such calamity rather than by virtue of the act of the landowner changing the use of such property;

(e) Official action by an agency of the state of Washington or by the county or city within which the land is located which disallows the present use of such land;

(f) Transfer to a church and such land would qualify for property tax exemption pursuant to RCW 84.36.020;

(g) Acquisition of property interests by state agencies or agencies or organizations qualified under RCW 84.34.210 and 64.04.130 for the purposes enumerated in those sections: PROVIDED, That at such time as these property interests are not used for the purposes enumerated in RCW 84.34.210 and 64.04.130 the additional tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall be imposed; or

(h) Transfer to a nonprofit, nonsectarian organization or association, organized and conducted for nonsectarian purposes, and such land would qualify for property tax exemption pursuant to RCW 84.36.030 and is used solely for the benefit of the poor and infirm. This subsection (h) applies only to taxes, penalties, and interest under this section that have been assessed for the removal of property from classification under this chapter after September 1, 1977, and before July 1, 1980. Any person or entity who has paid taxes to which this subsection (h) applies may apply within one hundred and eighty days after May 16, 1985, for a refund of the tax paid.

Sec. 12. Section 84.36.210, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.36.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the state, or any city, town, county or other municipal corporation has obtained a written easement for a right of way over and across any private property and the written instrument has been placed of record in the county auditor's office of the county in which the property is located, the easement rights shall be exempt from taxation and exempt from general tax foreclosure and sale for delinquent property taxes of the property over and across which the easement exists; and all property tax records of the county and tax statements relating to the servient property shall show the existence of such easement and that it is exempt from the tax; and any notice of sale and tax deed relating to the servient property shall show that such easement exists and is excepted from the sale of the servient property.

To qualify for exemption under this section for land devoted to golf by a private club, the private club must make the facilities available on an equitable basis to all members, and those persons eligible for privileges under the membership, regardless of sex, race, color, national origin, or ancestry.

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Niemi, I understand that you're an excellent attorney, very knowledgeable, and have expertise in the area of statute and WACs and so forth. At one time, you were a superior court judge, so it's probably a pretty legitimate question to ask you. I guess the question is, what about public golf courses?"

Senator Niemi: "Public golf courses are as--in my opinion, private golf courses are under the Equal Protection Act. They are not allowed to discriminate."

Senator McCaslin: "Now, if a public course, according to your amendment, does not make the facilities available on an equitable basis, they're not covered under this statute, I would assume?"

Senator Niemi: "They are already covered under another statute. The statute's not necessary for them."

Senator McCaslin: "Do they pay taxes?"

Senator Niemi: "No."

Senator McCaslin: "They don't pay taxes, but they can discriminate?"

Senator Niemi: "No, they cannot discriminate."

Senator McCaslin: "How do we know they're not?"

Senator Niemi: "Well, I'd file a complaint, if I were discriminated against."

Senator McCaslin: "Do you play golf?"

Senator Niemi: "A long time ago."

Senator McCaslin: "Oh, well we're talking about now, Senator Niemi, but thank you very much for avoiding the question. I think there's some real problems with this amendment, because I think public courses and private courses that are public--there is a difference--I think they should fall under this, too. If we're going to punish private courses on perhaps one or two complaints with a state statute, again, I think we're killing with an atom bomb and I don't think you'd want that."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object of this amendment. This amendment is actually the subject of a bill that was before the Ways and Means Committee and the bill did not get out of committee. More importantly, this bill does not have anything to do with discrimination or anything of that sort. It has to do with tax assessment laws and how we deal with tax appeals boards and some changes with respect to television. Now we have amendments on the McCaw Cable Company, tax referees and how they are hired, and other minor changes in administrative procedure. It has simply nothing to do with this amendment at all and I would, therefore, hope that it would be out of the scope and object of this bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, and there being no objection, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1754 was deferred.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1389 and the pending amendment by Senator Lee on page 2, after line 33, deferred March 5, 1988.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Nelson, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1389 is a measure which appropriates funds to the Department of Community Development to be used as loans to local governments or organizations who have been approved to receive federal grants.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Lee would create a Governor's task force on homelessness to review federal, state and local employment and housing services for homeless individuals.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Lee to Substitute House Bill No. 1389 was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1389, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1389, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1389, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 46.

Absent: Senator Fleming - 1.

Excused: Senators Craswell, Talmadge - 2.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1389, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

March 6, 1988

For Journal:

Due to unavoidable personal business, I missed the votes on Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9167, Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9168 and Substitute House Bill No. 1389. I would have voted 'aye' on each matter.

PHIL TALMADGE, Senator, 34th District

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1684, by Committee on Environmental Affairs (originally sponsored by Representatives Sprengle, May, Rust, Pruitt, D. Sommers, Cooper, Walker, Unsoeld, Nelson, Brekke, Ferguson, Todd and Spanel)

Establishing an analysis process for management of certain categories of solid waste.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved that the following Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The department of ecology shall determine the best management practices for categories of solid waste in accordance with the priority solid waste management methods established in RCW 70.95.010. In order to make this determination, the department shall conduct a comprehensive solid waste stream analysis and evaluation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The comprehensive, state-wide solid waste stream analysis under section 1 of this act shall be based on representative solid waste generation areas and solid waste generation sources within the state. The following information and evaluations shall be included:

- (1) Solid waste generation rates for each category;
- (2) The rate of recycling being achieved within the state for each category of solid waste;
- (3) The current and potential rates of solid waste reduction within the state;
- (4) A technological assessment of current solid waste reduction and recycling methods and systems, including cost/benefit analyses;
- (5) An assessment of the feasibility of segregating solid waste at: (a) The original source, (b) transfer stations, and (c) the point of final disposal;
- (6) A review of methods that will increase the rate of solid waste reduction; and
- (7) An assessment of new and existing technologies that are available for solid waste management including an analysis of the associated environmental risks and costs.

The data required by the analysis under this section shall be kept current and shall be available to local governments and the waste management industry.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) The evaluation of the solid waste stream required in section 1 of this act shall include the following elements:

- (a) The department shall determine which management method for each category of solid waste will have the least environmental impact; and
- (b) The department shall evaluate the costs of various management options for each category of solid waste, including a review of market availability, and shall take into consideration the economic impact on affected parties;
- (c) Based on the results of (a) and (b) of this subsection, the department shall determine the best management for each category of solid waste. Different management methods for the same categories of waste may be developed for different parts of the state.

(2) The department shall give priority to evaluating categories of solid waste that, in relation to other categories of solid waste, comprise a large volume of the solid waste stream or present a high potential of harm to human health. At a minimum the following categories of waste shall be evaluated:

- (a) By January 1, 1989, yard waste and other biodegradable materials, paper products, disposable diapers, and batteries; and
- (b) By January 1, 1990, metals, glass, plastics, styrofoam or rigid lightweight cellular polystyrene, and tires.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The department shall incorporate the information from the analysis and evaluation conducted under sections 1 through 3 of this act to the state solid waste management plan under RCW 70.95.260. The plan shall be revised periodically as the evaluation and analysis is updated.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) By July 1, 1988, the department shall provide the joint select committee on preferred solid waste management with a proposed work plan and a statement of funding sources.

(2) The department shall report its findings and recommendations to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by January 1, 1989. The report shall identify which categories of solid waste have not been evaluated and the expected date of completion.

Sec. 6. Section 15, chapter 528, Laws of 1987 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Washington state legislature finds that the state faces a solid waste disposal crisis. The siting of new landfills, the location and design of new solid waste incinerators, the disposal of ash residue, and compliance with the priorities of the solid waste management act and the hazardous waste management act require that an effort be made by the state to ensure that local governments and private industry have adequate technical information, and that programs are developed to accomplish the statutory waste management priorities.

(2) A comprehensive evaluation of preferred solid waste management programs shall be undertaken by the joint select committee for preferred solid waste management. The committee shall consist of four members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house and four members of the senate appointed by the president of the senate. The committee shall involve the department of ecology, the utilities and transportation commission, and representatives of organizations representing cities, counties, the public, the waste management industry, waste haulers, and the private recycling industry. The committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by January 1, ~~((1988))~~ 1989.

(3) The department of ecology may provide the committee with specific recommendations on waste management programs from studies the department has undertaken as required by RCW 70.95.263.

(4) The committee shall attempt to determine the reasons why higher rates of waste reduction and recycling have not been achieved in the state and develop recommendations on how to achieve higher rates.

(5) The committee's recommendations shall include (a) specific programs for waste reduction, recycling, incineration, and landfills, (b) specific goals for solid waste management, and (c) specific responsibilities for state government, local government, and the private sectors to accomplish the committee's recommendations. The committee shall also recommend specific legislation and rule-making requirements to accomplish the committee's findings.

(6) The joint select committee for preferred solid waste management shall cease to exist on July 1, ~~((1988))~~ 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 5 of this act are each added to chapter 70.95 RCW.*

MOTION

Senator Hansen moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendment be adopted:

On page 4, after line 10, insert the following:

"Sec. 8. Section 1, chapter 58, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 36.58.030 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in RCW 36.58.030 through 36.58.060, the term "transfer station" means a staffed, fixed supplemental facility used by persons and/or route collection vehicles to deposit solid wastes into transfer trailers or drop boxes for transportation to a disposal site. ~~((This does not include detachable containers.))~~

Sec. 9. Section 3, chapter 58, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 36.58.050 are each amended to read as follows:

When a comprehensive solid waste plan, as provided in RCW 70.95.080, incorporates the use of transfer stations, such stations shall be considered part of the disposal site and as such, along with the transportation of solid wastes between disposal sites and the collection of solid waste by county equipment from courthouses, fairgrounds, and parks, shall be exempt from regulation by the Washington utilities and transportation commission as provided in chapter 81.77 RCW.

Each county may enter into contracts for the hauling of trailers or drop boxes of solid wastes from these transfer stations to disposal sites and return ~~((either))~~ by ~~((1))~~ the normal bidding process, or (2)) negotiation with the qualified collection company or companies servicing the area under authority of chapter 81.77 RCW.*

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Hansen on page 4, line 10, to the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1684.

The motion by Senator Hansen carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator McCaslin moved that the following amendment by Senators McCaslin and Pullen to the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendment be adopted:

On page 6, after line 11 of the amendment, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

Before entering into a contract with a vendor or acquiring a site for a municipal solid waste energy recovery or incineration facility, any governmental entity shall:

(1) Have in place a waste reduction and recycling plan and implementation strategy capable of significantly diminishing the waste stream. The plan and implementation strategy shall require that municipal solid waste is: (a) Segregated before incineration or disposal, and (b) managed in accordance with the solid waste management priorities established in RCW 70.95.010;

(2) Have an approved solid waste management plan;

(3) Have undertaken a detailed review of a reasonable range of available technologies and strategies for managing and for incinerating municipal solid waste. If consultants are utilized, they shall not have any financial interest in the companies providing solid waste management technologies or financing;

(4) Have developed a least-cost option plan for managing and disposing of municipal solid waste that has the least impact on the environment and which uses the best available technology and strategies;

(5) Have an approved plan for handling the ash residue from the municipal solid waste incinerator; and

(6) Have a plan for public access to the municipal solid waste incinerator's operational data, including data related to incinerator excursions. Data shall be permanently recorded and maintained for at least ten years."

Remember the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Kreidler: "Mr. President, a point of order. I'd like to raise the question of scope and object of this amendment. The bill before us is one that deals with the establishing of an analysis of the process of management of certain categories of solid waste. The amendment is one that certainly broadens that particular topic rather significantly to apply to incinerators and incinerator ash. It goes well beyond the body of the bill that was dealing with solid waste in general as opposed to the rather encompassing approach proposed here with the amendment before us."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1684 was deferred.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1754 and the pending amendment by Senators Niemi and Bender on page 10, after line 25, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Hayner, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1754 is a measure revising certain administrative procedures pertaining to television reception improvement districts, the Board of Tax Appeals, property taxes, and with the adoption of the Saling amendment, certain exemptions from use taxes.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Niemi and Bender to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment restricts certain golf clubs from open space valuation or private right of way easement tax exemptions, if the club discriminates.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment to the committee amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Niemi and Bender on page 10, after line 25, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1754 was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator Williams moved that the following amendment by Senators Williams, Smith and DeJarnatt to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 26 of the amendment, after line 27, insert the following:

"Sec. 35. Section 7, chapter 278, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 1, chapter 366, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 54.28.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Operating property" means all of the property utilized by a public utility district in the operation of a plant or system for the generation, transmission, or distribution of electric energy for sale;

(2) "Taxing districts" means counties, cities, towns, school districts, and road districts;

(3) "Distributes to consumers" means the sale of electric energy to ultimate consumers thereof, and does not include sales of electric energy for resale by the purchaser: PROVIDED, That a purchaser not subject to taxation under chapter 82.16 RCW acquiring electric energy for resale and consumption within the state of Washington shall be considered an ultimate consumer;

(4) "Wholesale value" means all costs of a public utility district associated with the generation and transmission of energy from its own generation and transmission system to the point or points of inter-connection with a distribution system owned and used by a district to distribute such energy to consumers, or in the event a distribution system owned by a district is not used to distribute such energy, then the term means the gross revenues derived by a district from the sale of such energy to consumers;

(5) "Thermal electric generating facility" means a steam-powered electrical energy producing facility utilizing nuclear or fossil fuels;

(6) "Placed in operation" means delivery of energy into a transmission or distribution system for use or sale in such a manner as to establish a value accruing to the power plant operator, except operation incidental to testing or startup adjustments;

(7) "Impacted area" for a thermal electric generating facility on a federal reservation means that area in the state lying within thirty-five statute miles of the most commonly used entrance of the federal reservation and which is south of the southern boundary of township fifteen north.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows:

This chapter does not apply to any person in respect to the business of selling electric energy, if tax has been paid under chapter 54.28 RCW in respect to that electric energy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. Sections 35 and 36 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Sellar: "Thank you, Mr. President, a point of order. I respectfully request that this amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill. Basically, the amendment deals with who is the ultimate consumer in the power generation of sales. I do not think that is within the scope and object of the original bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Sellar, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1754 is a measure revising certain administrative procedures pertaining to television reception improvement districts, the Board of Tax Appeals, property taxes, and with the adoption of the Saling amendment, certain exemptions from use taxes.

"The amendment by Senator Williams, Smith and DeJarnatt to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment amends a public utility privilege tax definition and exempts certain sellers of electric energy from the business and occupation tax.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment to the committee amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Williams, Smith and DeJarnatt on page 26, after line 27, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1754 was ruled out of order.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. I want to compliment the Lieutenant Governor, the presiding officer, for seeing clearly through all the paper hanging that's being attempted."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, as amended, to Substitute House Bill No. 1754.

The Committee on Ways and Means amendment, as amended, to Substitute House Bill No. 1754 was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Nelson, the following title amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 27, line 3, after "82.03.170," insert "82.12.0284."

SECOND READING

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4402, by Representatives Basich, Haugen, S. Wilson, Sutherland, Sayan, K. Wilson, Spanel, Meyers, Hargrove, P. King and Jacobsen Establishing Pacific Fisheries Task Force.

The resolution was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Owen moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 1, after line 7, insert:

"WHEREAS, Commercial drag fishing in the state of Washington adversely affects many of the states of the Pacific Legislative Fisheries Task Force; and

WHEREAS, Continuation of this commercial fishery will have a serious negative effect on the fisheries of Washington and the other member states; and

WHEREAS, The drag fishing in the inner Puget Sound harms the underwater plant life and is totally indiscriminate in its taking of fish and shellfish;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Pacific Fisheries Task Force adopt a plan to eliminate commercial drag fishing from all Puget Sound waters."

On line 8, strike "NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED" and insert "BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Metcalf: "Mr. President, a point of order. Senator Owen mentioned the fact that these draggers scoop up the fish, so I would like to raise the question of scoop and object on this on this measure. This measure clearly expands the scope and object. The measure itself is just a measure getting Washington State to join the issue. This gets into one of the many issues that should be taken up, but not on this bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of House Concurrent Resolution No. 4402 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1652, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Cooper, Ferguson, Haugen, Beck, Sayan, Holm, Nealey, Zellinsky, D. Sommers, Nutley, Butterfield, Sutherland, Spanel, Peery and Baugher)

On page 1, line 18, after "(3)" insert "Money market fund" means a mutual fund the portfolio which consists of only bonds having maturities or demand or tender provisions of not more than one year, managed by an investment advisor who has posted with the risk management office of the department of general administration a bond or other similar instrument in the amount of at least five percent of the amount invested in the fund pursuant to section 3 (2) or (3) of this act.

(4) "Mutual fund" means a diversified mutual fund registered with the federal securities and exchange commission and which is managed by an investment advisor with assets under management of at least five hundred million dollars and with at least five years' experience in investing in bonds authorized for investment by this chapter and who has posted with the risk management office of the department of general administration a bond or other similar instrument in the amount of at least five percent of the amount invested in the fund pursuant to section 3(1) of this act.

On page 2, beginning on line 6, strike "or (3)" and insert the following:

"(3) Subject to compliance with RCW 39.56.030, registered warrants of a local government in the same county as the government making the investment; or

On page 2, after line 12, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In addition to any other investment authority granted by law, the state of Washington and local governments in the state of Washington are authorized to invest their funds and money in their custody or possession, eligible for investment and subject to the arbitrage provisions of section 148 of the federal internal revenue code or similar provision concerning the investment of state and local money and funds, in:

(1) Shares of mutual funds with portfolios consisting of only United States government bonds or United States government guaranteed bonds issued by federal agencies with average maturities less than four years, or bonds described in section 2 (1) or (2) of this act, except that bonds otherwise described in section 2 (1) or (2) of this act shall have one of the four highest credit ratings of a nationally recognized rating agency;

(2) Shares of money market funds with portfolios consisting of only bonds of states and local governments or other issuers authorized by law for investment by local governments, which bonds have at the time of investment one of the two highest credit ratings of a nationally recognized rating agency; or

(3) Shares of money market funds with portfolios consisting of securities otherwise authorized by law for investment by local governments."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On page 3, after line 33, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 43.19 RCW to read as follows:

The director of general administration, through the risk management office, shall receive and enforce bonds posted pursuant to section 1 (3) and (4) of this act."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 3, line 34, strike "and 2" and insert ", 2, and 3"

On page 3, after line 35, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the following Committee on Governmental Operations amendment was adopted:

On page 3, after line 33, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 23, chapter 270, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 151, Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.57A.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The treasurer of the county in which a public transportation benefit area authority is located shall be ex officio treasurer of the authority. In the case of a multicounty public transportation benefit area the county treasurer of the largest component county, by population, shall be the treasurer of the authority. However, the authority, by resolution, ~~((and upon the approval of the county treasurer:))~~ may designate some other person having experience in financial or fiscal matters as treasurer of the authority. Such a treasurer shall possess all of the powers, responsibilities, and duties the county treasurer possesses for a public transportation benefit area authority related to investing surplus authority funds. The authority may (and if the treasurer is not a county treasurer, it shall) require a bond with a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Washington in an amount and under the terms and conditions the authority, by resolution, from time to time finds will protect the authority against loss. The premium on any such bond shall be paid by the authority.

All authority funds shall be paid to the treasurer and shall be disbursed by the treasurer only on warrants issued by the county auditor, upon orders or vouchers approved by the authority. However, the authority may, by resolution, designate some person having experience in financial or fiscal matters, other than the county auditor, as the auditor of the authority. Such an auditor shall possess all of the powers, responsibilities, and duties that the county auditor possesses for a public transportation benefit area authority related to creating and maintaining funds, issuing warrants, and maintaining a record of receipts and disbursements.

The treasurer shall establish a "transportation fund," into which shall be paid all authority funds, and the treasurer shall maintain such special accounts as may be created by the authority into which shall be placed all money as the authority may, by resolution, direct.

If the treasurer of the authority is a treasurer of the county, all authority funds shall be deposited with the county depository under the same restrictions, contracts, and security as provided for county depositories. If the treasurer of the authority is some other person, all funds shall be deposited in such bank or banks authorized to do business in this state that have qualified for insured deposits under any federal deposit insurance act as the authority, by resolution, shall designate.

An authority may provide and require a reasonable bond of any other person handling moneys or securities of the authority, but the authority shall pay the premium on the bond.

The county or counties and each city or town which is included in the authority shall contribute such sums towards the expense for maintaining and operating the public transportation system as shall be agreed upon between them."

Renumber the section following consecutively.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the following amendment by Senators McCaslin and McMullen was adopted:

On page 3, after line 35, insert the following:

"Sec. 6. Section 36.17.040, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.17.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The salaries of county officers and employees of counties other than counties of the eighth and ninth classes may be paid twice monthly out of the county treasury, and the county auditor, for services rendered from the first to the fifteenth day, inclusive, may, not later than the ~~((twentieth))~~ last day of the month, draw ~~((his))~~ a warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of each of such officers and employees for the amount of salary due him or her, and such auditor, for services rendered from the sixteenth to the last day, inclusive, may similarly draw ~~((his))~~ a warrant, not later than the ~~((fourth))~~ fifteenth day of the following month, and the county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority, with the concurrence of the county auditor, may enter an order on the record journal empowering him or her so to do: PROVIDED, That if the ~~((board of county commissioners do))~~ county legislative authority does not adopt the semimonthly pay plan, ~~((they))~~ it, by resolution, shall designate the first pay period as a draw day. ~~((The draw day period shall be from the first day to the fifteenth day of the month, inclusive.))~~ Not more than forty percent of said earned monthly salary of each such county officer or employee shall be paid to him on the draw day and the payroll deductions of such officer or employee shall not be deducted from the salary to be paid on the draw day. If officers and employees are paid once a month, the draw day shall not be later than the ((twentieth)) last day of each month. The balance of the earned monthly salary of each such officer or employee shall be paid not later than the ((fourth)) fifteenth day of the following month.

In counties of eighth and ninth classes salaries shall be paid monthly unless the ~~((commissioners))~~ county legislative authority by resolution adopts the foregoing draw day procedure."

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the following title amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, strike "and"

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "RCW" and before the period, insert "; adding a new section to chapter 43.19 RCW; and declaring an emergency"

On line 2 of the title, after "48.62.070" insert "and 36.57A.130"

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "48.62.070" insert "and 36.17.040"

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1652, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1652, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1652, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 9; absent, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Zimmerman - 39.

Voting nay: Senators Fleming, Gaspard, Halsan, Moore, Rinehart, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wojahn - 9.

Absent: Senator Metcalf - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1652, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1568, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Todd, Leonard, Crane, Pruitt and Ebersole)

Including school administrators in the excellence in education program.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the following Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 28, following "teachers," insert "educational staff associates."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following amendment by Senators Rinehart, Smitherman, Bailey, Saling and Gaspard was adopted:

On page 3, after line 9, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 28A.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education, with the assistance and advice of the superintendent of public instruction, the higher education coordinating board, institutions of higher education, and representatives of common schools, including teachers and administrators, shall establish a program to encourage and promote collaborative relationships between higher education faculty and the building-level staff of Washington's elementary, junior high/middle, and senior high schools, and school districts' central office administrative staff.

(2) The program established under subsection (1) of this section shall be based on "school improvement hours." One school improvement hour shall be based on services provided by higher education faculty to building-level or district-level staff, or both, or services provided by higher education faculty to schools or school districts generally, or both. School improvement hours may be rendered during the school year, or during the interim between school years, or both.

(3) Each professional education advisory board shall recommend annually priority areas of service emphasis. Each board may, and is encouraged to, develop and recommend a framework to permit academic faculty outside the school, college, department, or division of education to participate in the program established under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The maximum amount of reimbursement that may be distributed to a higher education institution through the professional education advisory boards, based on school improvement hour services provided under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, shall not exceed ten thousand dollars per year per higher education institution.

(5) Any higher education institution with a state board of education approved professional preparation program for teachers, administrators, or educational staff associates shall be eligible to participate in the program established under subsection (1) of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 28A.04 RCW to read as follows:

The state board of education shall, not later than June 30, 1989, adopt rules as necessary to carry out the provisions of section 4 of this act. Such rules shall include a definition of "school improvement hour services" and assure that services to be provided, to the extent possible, are coordinated with existing and appropriate building-level or district-level committees, advisory groups, or similar entities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 28A.04 RCW to read as follows:

The state board of education shall submit biennially to the legislature a report on the services provided under the program established under section 4 of this act. The first report shall be submitted not later than January 15, 1991."

MOTION

Senator Rinehart moved that the following amendment by Senators Rinehart, Smitherman, Bailey, Saling, Pullen and Gaspard be adopted:

On page 3, after line 9, insert the following:

"Sec. 4. Section 222, chapter 518, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.58.217 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (~~School districts are hereby authorized to~~) The superintendent of public instruction shall contract with the University of Washington for the education of (~~eligible academically~~) highly capable (~~high school~~) students (~~at such~~) below eighteen years of age who are admitted or enrolled at such early entrance program or transition school(s) as are now or hereafter established and maintained by the University of Washington.

(2) ~~((School districts may authorize))~~ The superintendent of public instruction ~~((to))~~ shall allocate directly to the University of Washington all ~~((or a portion))~~ of the state basic education allocation moneys, state categorical moneys excepting categorical moneys provided for the highly capable students program under chapter 28A.16 RCW, and federal moneys generated by a student while attending ((a)) an early entrance program or transition school at the University of Washington ((early entrance or transition school pursuant to this section directly to the university. PROVIDED, That)). The allocations shall be according to each student's school district of residence. The expenditure of such ~~((state))~~ moneys shall be ~~((expended exclusively for instruction and related activities necessary for students to fulfill the high school graduation requirements established by their school district of enrollment))~~ limited to selection, precollege instruction, special advising, and related activities necessary for the support of students while attending a transition school or early entrance program at the University of Washington.

(3) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall apply during the first three years a student is attending a transition school or early entrance program at the University of Washington or through the academic school year in which the student turns eighteen, whichever occurs first. No more than thirty students shall be admitted and enrolled in the transition school at the University of Washington in any one year.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt or amend rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW implementing subsection (2) of this section before August 31, 1988.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 262, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 232, Laws of 1986 and RCW 28B.15.740 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The boards of trustees or regents of each of the state's regional universities, The Evergreen State College, or state universities, and the various community colleges, consistent with regulations and procedures established by the state board for community college education, may waive, in whole or in part, tuition and services and activities fees subject to the limitations set forth in subsection (2).

(2) The total dollar amount of tuition and fee waivers awarded by any state university, regional university, or state college, shall not exceed four percent, and for the community colleges considered as a whole, such amount shall not exceed three percent of an amount determined by estimating the total collections from tuition and services and activities fees had no such waivers been made and deducting the portion of that total amount which is attributable to the difference between resident and nonresident fees: PROVIDED, That at least three-fourths of the dollars waived shall be for needy students who are eligible for resident tuition and fee rates pursuant to RCW 28B.15.012 through 28B.15.015: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the remainder of the dollars waived, not to exceed one-fourth of the total, may be applied to other students at the discretion of the board of trustees or regents, except on the basis of participation in intercollegiate athletic programs: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for the University of Washington consideration should be given to students attending an early entrance program at the University of Washington: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the waivers for undergraduate and graduate students of foreign nations under RCW 28B.15.556 are not subject to the limitation under this section.

Senator Patterson: "Senator Rinehart, I note that this is exclusive to the University of Washington and I was wondering whether or not any of the other public universities have similar courses for the offering and would want to make sure that they were included, if that was the case?"

Senator Rinehart: "This is a unique program, not duplicated in any other public institution and there are only fifteen students involved and we have all previously voted 'aye' on the measure."

Senator Patterson: "Well, that may have been because we made an error, but I want to make sure that the other institutions do not have similar programs."

Senator Rinehart: "You are correct, Senator Patterson. They do not."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Smitherman, Bailey, Saling, Pullen and Gaspard to Substitute House Bill No. 1568.

The motion by Senator Rinehart carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator McMullen moved that the following amendment by Senators McMullen and Saling be adopted:

On page 3, after line 9, insert the following:

"Sec. 4. Section 202, chapter 525, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.04.122 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may be admitted to a professional teacher preparation program within Washington state without first demonstrating that he or she is competent in the basic skills required for oral and written communication and computation. This requirement shall be waived for persons who have completed a baccalaureate degree; or graduate degree program; or who have completed two or more years of college level course work, demonstrated competency through college level course work and a written essay, and are over the age of twenty-one.

(2) After June 30, 1989, no person shall be admitted to a teacher preparation program who has a combined score of less than the state-wide median score for the prior school year scored by all persons taking the Washington precollege test or who has achieved an equivalent standard score on comparable portions of other standardized tests. The state board of education shall develop criteria and adopt rules for exemptions from this subsection.

(3) The state board of education shall adopt rules to implement this section."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "I notice in here, Senator McMullen, that this person could have completed two or more years of college level course work, demonstrated competency and all that and still is not able to prove competent in basic skills required for oral and written communication and computation. Do we want those kind of people teaching our kids?"

Senator McMullen: "The purpose, Senator Newhouse, is that to ask somebody who may be, as I've indicated, teaching on the college level, but now wishes to teach in the K-12 system, to try and locate an SAT score from twenty years ago, when maybe the college or high school that she went to doesn't retain it, is a very difficult burden. All of the colleges that were aware of this, indicated that they were in favor of leaving this wiggle room or this exception—this waiver for people who are qualified and that is the purpose of the amendment."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators McMullen and Saling to Substitute House Bill No. 1568.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1568, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of House Concurrent Resolution No. 4402 and the pending amendments by Senator Owen on page 1, lines 7 and 8, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Metcalf, the President finds that House Concurrent Resolution No. 4402 is a measure establishing the Pacific Fisheries Task Force to act as a clearinghouse for information regarding Pacific Ocean fishing.

"The amendments proposed by Senator Owen ask the Pacific Fisheries Task Force to adopt a plan to eliminate commercial drag fishing in the Puget Sound.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by Senator Owen to House Concurrent Resolution No. 4402 were ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 4402 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Concurrent Resolution No. 4402.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 4231, by Committee on Constitution, Elections and Ethics (originally sponsored by Representatives Fisher and Pruitt) (by request of Secretary of State)

Revising constitutional references to persons with mental or sensory disabilities.

The resolution was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Halsan moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 13, after "for the benefit of" strike everything through "disabilities" on line 16, and insert "~~(blind, deaf, dumb, or otherwise defective youth; for the insane or idiotic)~~ youth who are blind or deaf or otherwise disabled; for persons who are mentally ill or developmentally disabled"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Nelson: "Senator Halsan, is your amendment that you've now offered for Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 4231 in keeping with the purpose of the original constitutional amendment, that of getting rid of archaic and offensive references to people with disabilities? As you know, it is the intention of the proponents of this resolution that nothing in the language be interpreted as increasing or decreasing the level of the state's responsibilities in this area."

Senator Halsan: "Yes, Senator Nelson, the proposed amendment is in keeping with the original intention of the resolution and is nothing more than updating old language. This language was developed by a group of citizens working with a member of the bar who practices in this area. The proponents, I believe, have come up with language which provides a more parallel set of references to the conditions listed in Article 13. I would consider this a friendly amendment to the resolution and urge your adoption of the amendment and the resolution."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Halsan on page 1, line 13, to Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 4231.

The motion by Senator Halsan carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 4231, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Requiring that special effort be made by the conservation corps to recruit residents with sensory, mental, or physical handicaps.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Lee, the following Committee on Economic Development and Labor amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

(1) Conservation corps members shall be unemployed residents of the state between eighteen and twenty-five years of age at the time of enrollment who are citizens or lawful permanent residents of the United States. The age requirements may be waived for corps leaders and specialists with special leadership or occupational skills; such members shall be given special responsibility for providing leadership, character development, and sense of community responsibility to the corps members, groups, and work crews to which they are assigned. The upper age requirement may be waived for residents who have a sensory or mental handicap. Special effort shall be made to recruit minority and disadvantaged youth who meet selection criteria of the conservation corps. Preference shall be given to youths residing in areas, both urban and rural, in which there exists substantial unemployment exceeding the state average unemployment rate.

(2) Corps members shall not be considered state employees. Other provisions of law relating to civil service, hours of work, rate of compensation, sick leave, unemployment compensation, state retirement plans, and vacation leave do not apply to the Washington conservation corps except for the crew leaders, who shall be project employees, and the administrative and supervisory personnel.

(3) Enrollment shall be for a period of six months which may be extended for an additional six months by mutual agreement of the corps and the corps member. Corps members shall be reimbursed at the minimum wage rate established by federal law: PROVIDED, That if agencies elect to run a residential program, the appropriate costs for room and board shall be deducted from the corps member's paycheck as provided in chapter 43.220 RCW.

(4) Corps members are to be available at all times for emergency response services coordinated through the department of community development or other public agency. Duties may include sandbagging and flood cleanup, search and rescue, and other functions in response to emergencies."

On motion of Senator Lee, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "corps;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 43.220.070."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lee, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 1952, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1952, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; absent, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yeas: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmermann - 47.

Absent: Senator Owen - 1.

Excused: Senator West - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1952, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 3:40 p.m., on motion of Senator Nelson, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 4:04 p.m. by President Cherberg.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1341, by Representatives Sanders, Fisher, Miller, Amondson and May Revising procedures for write-in voting.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the following Committee on Governmental Operations amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 29.04 RCW to read as follows:

Any person who desires to be a write-in candidate and have such votes counted at a primary or election may, if the jurisdiction of the office sought is entirely within one county, file a declaration of candidacy with the county auditor not later than the day before the primary or election. If the jurisdiction of the office sought encompasses more than one county the declaration of candidacy shall be filed with the secretary of state not later than the day before the primary or election. Votes cast for write-in candidates who have filed such declarations of candidacy and write-in votes for persons appointed by political parties pursuant to RCW 29.18.160 need only specify the name of the candidate in the appropriate location on the ballot in order to be counted. Write-in votes cast for any other candidate, in order to be counted, must designate the office sought and position number or political party, if applicable.

No person may file as a write-in candidate where:

(1) At a general election, the person attempting to file either filed as a write-in candidate for the same office at the preceding primary or the person's name appeared on the ballot for the same office at the preceding primary;

(2) The person attempting to file as a write-in candidate has already filed a valid write-in declaration for that primary or election, unless one or the other of the two filings is for the office of precinct committee person;

(3) The name of the person attempting to file already appears on the ballot as a candidate for another office, unless one of the two offices for which he or she is a candidate is precinct committee person.

The declaration of candidacy shall be similar to that required by RCW 29.18.030. No write-in candidate filing under section 1 of this act may be included in any voter's pamphlet produced under chapter 29.80 RCW unless that candidate qualifies to have his or her name printed on the general election ballot. The legislative authority of any jurisdiction producing a local voter's pamphlet under chapter 29.81A RCW may provide, by ordinance, for the inclusion of write-in candidates in such pamphlets.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 29.04 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary of state shall notify each county auditor of any declarations filed with the secretary under section 1 of this act for offices appearing on the ballot in that county. The county auditor shall ensure that those persons charged with counting the ballots for a primary or election are notified of all valid write-in candidates before the tabulation of those ballots.

Sec. 3. Section 29.36.075, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 16, chapter 346, Laws of 1987 and RCW 29.36.075 are each amended to read as follows:

In counties that do not tabulate absentee ballots on electronic vote tallying systems, canvassing boards may not tabulate or record votes cast by absentee ballots on any uncontested office except write-in votes for candidates for the office of precinct committee person (~~in all counties, write-in votes for uncontested precinct committee persons' races shall be canvassed and included with the official vote count~~) who have filed valid declarations of candidacy under section 1 of this 1988 act. "Uncontested office" means an office where only one candidate has filed a valid declaration of candidacy either during the regular filing period or as a write-in candidate under section 1 of this 1988 act.

Each registered voter casting an absentee ballot shall be credited with voting on his or her voter registration record. Absentee ballots shall be retained for the same length of time and in the same manner as ballots cast at the precinct polling places.

Sec. 4. Section 29.51.100, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 15, chapter 101, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 29.51.100 are each amended to read as follows:

On receipt of his or her ballot in an election the elector shall forthwith and without leaving the polling place retire alone to one of the places, booths, or apartments provided to prepare his or her ballot. Each elector shall prepare his or her ballot by marking a cross "X" after the name of every person or candidate for whom he or she wishes to vote.

In case of a ballot containing a constitutional amendment or other question to be submitted to the vote of the people the voter shall mark a cross "X" after the question, for or against the amendment or proposition, as the case may be. Any elector may write in the blank spaces the name of any person for an office who has filed as a write-in candidate for the office in the manner provided by section 1 of this 1988 act for whom he or she may wish to vote (~~PROVIDED, That where a partisan office is concerned, the voter must not only write in the name of the candidate but also the party affiliation of such person pursuant to the provisions of RCW 29.51.170 as now or hereafter amended~~). Write-in votes cast for any other candidate must designate the office sought and the position number or political party, if applicable.

Before leaving the booth or compartment the elector shall fold (this) the ballot in such a manner that the number of the ballot shall appear on the outside thereof, without displaying the marks on the face thereof, and deliver it to the inspector of election.

Sec. 5. Section 29.51.170, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 121, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 29.51.170 are each amended to read as follows:

For any office at any election or primary, any voter may write in on the ballot the name of any person (~~for whom he desires to vote for any office~~) for an office who has filed as a write-in candidate for the office in the manner provided by section 1 of this 1988 act and such vote shall be counted the same as if the name had been printed on the ballot and marked by the voter (~~PROVIDED, That no write-in vote for a partisan office at a general election shall be valid for any person who has offered himself as a candidate for such position for the nomination at the preceding primary; PROVIDED, FURTHER, That when voting machines or voting devices and ballot cards are used, no write-in vote for any candidate for a partisan office at either a state primary election or state general election shall be valid unless a political party affiliation is also written by the voter after the candidate's name; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the instance of a write-in candidate for a partisan office only those write-in votes constituting the greatest number of a single political party designation shall be valid for counting purposes when the canvassing authority certifies the official election returns. The same procedure must be followed when paper ballots are used for partisan offices at a state primary election. For such write-in voting, it shall not be necessary for a voter to write the full name of the political party concerned. Any abbreviation including the first letter of the political party name shall be acceptable as long as the precinct election officers can determine to their satisfaction the person voted for and the political party intended.~~

Any person who is nominated at any primary election as a write-in candidate for any public office but who has not previously paid the regular filing fee shall not have his name printed on the official ballot for the general election unless, within five days after the official canvass of the primary vote, he executes a declaration of candidacy and pays the same fee required by law to be paid by candidates for filing for the office for which he has been nominated). No write-in vote made for any person who has not filed a declaration of candidacy pursuant to section 1 of this act is valid if that person filed for the same office, either as a regular candidate or a write-in candidate, at the preceding primary. Any abbreviation used to designate office, position, or political party shall be accepted if the canvassing board can determine, to their satisfaction, the voter's intent."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1341, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1341, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1341, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn - 48.

Voting nay: Senator Zimmerman - 1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1341, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION FOR SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

On motion of Senator Newhouse, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1455 will be a special order of business at 4:55 p.m.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1633, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Appelwick and Sanders)

Exempting contracts for neighborhood improvement projects from bidding and prevailing wage requirements.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lee, the following Committee on Economic Development and Labor amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, on line 6, before "Without" insert "(1)"

On page 1, on line 7, before "city" insert "county."

On page 1, after line 26, strike all the material down to and including "follows:" on line 28

On page 2, on line 1, before "A" insert "(2)"

On page 2, on line 1, before "city" insert "county."

On page 2, on line 3, strike "section 1 of this act" and insert "subsection (1) of this section"

On page 2, on line 4, strike "after" and insert "before"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lee, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1633, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator Lee, the bill allows cities, counties and others to contract with certain nonprofit associations to carry out neighborhood improvement projects, which can include drawing design plans. Does this mean that the nonprofit association may use other than a licensed design professional, such as an engineer, to draw the design plan for grading and drainage or other design aspects of the project?"

Senator Lee: "No, Senator Williams, this bill is not intended to allow design plans to be drawn by other than a licensed architect or engineer where the work involves the practice of architecture or engineering. What is expected is that these kinds of services may, in fact, be donated. The expenses of the nonprofit association that can be reimbursed include the cost of goods, equipment, and artwork that may be incorporated into the project."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1633, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1633, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Brauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Taimadge, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 49.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1633, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1845, by Committee on State Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Anderson, Brough, Wineberry, Winsley, Moyer, H. Sommers and Brekke)

Revoking concealed pistol licenses of persons carrying them while under the influence of drugs or alcohol.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 7, chapter 172, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 3, chapter 428, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.41.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The judge of a court of record, the chief of police of a municipality, or the sheriff of a county, shall within thirty days after the filing of an application of any person issue a license to such person to carry a pistol concealed on his person within this state for four years from date of issue, for the purposes of protection or while engaged in business, sport, or while traveling. However, if the applicant does not have a valid permanent Washington driver's license or Washington state identification card or has not been a resident of the state for the previous consecutive ninety days, the issuing authority shall have up to sixty days after the filing of the application to issue a license. Such citizen's constitutional right to bear arms shall not be denied to him, unless he:

- (a) Is ineligible to own a pistol under the provisions of RCW 9.41.040; or
- (b) Is under twenty-one years of age; or
- (c) Is subject to a court order or injunction regarding firearms pursuant to RCW 10.99.040, 10.99.045, or 26.09.060; or
- (d) Is free on bond or personal recognizance pending trial, appeal, or sentencing for a crime of violence; or
- (e) Has an outstanding warrant for his or her arrest from any court of competent jurisdiction for a felony or misdemeanor; or
- (f) Has been ordered to forfeit a firearm under RCW 9.41.098(1)(d) within one year before filing an application to carry a pistol concealed on his person.

The license shall be revoked immediately upon conviction of a crime which makes such a person ineligible to own a pistol or upon the third conviction for a violation of this chapter within five calendar years.

- (2) Upon an order to forfeit a firearm under RCW 9.41.098(1)(d) the license shall:
- (a) On the first forfeiture, be revoked by the department of licensing for one year;
 - (b) On the second forfeiture, be revoked by the department of licensing for two years;
 - (c) On the third or subsequent forfeiture, be revoked by the department of licensing for five years.

Any person whose license is revoked as a result of a forfeiture of a firearm under RCW 9.41.098(1)(d) may not reapply for a new license until the end of the revocation period.

The license shall be in triplicate, in form to be prescribed by the department of licensing, and shall bear the name, address, and description, fingerprints, and signature of the licensee, and the licensee's driver's license number or state identification card number if used for identification in applying for the license. The license application shall contain a warning substantially as follows:

CAUTION: Although state and local laws do not differ, federal law and state law on the possession of firearms differ. If you are prohibited by federal law from possessing a firearm, you may be prosecuted in federal court. A state permit is not a defense to a federal prosecution.

The license application shall contain a description of the major differences between state and federal law and an explanation of the fact that local laws and ordinances on firearms are preempted by state law and must be consistent with state law.

The original thereof shall be delivered to the licensee, the duplicate shall within seven days be sent by registered mail to the director of licensing and the triplicate shall be preserved for six years, by the authority issuing said license.

((3)) (3) The fee for the original issuance of a four-year license shall be twenty dollars: PROVIDED, That no other additional charges by any branch or unit of government shall be borne by the applicant for the issuance of the license: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the fee shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Four dollars shall be paid to the state general fund;

(b) Four dollars shall be paid to the agency taking the fingerprints of the person licensed; and

(c) Twelve dollars shall be paid to the issuing authority for the purpose of enforcing this chapter.

((3)) (4) The fee for the renewal of such license shall be twelve dollars: PROVIDED, That no other additional charges by any branch or unit of government shall be borne by the applicant for the renewal of the license: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the fee shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Four dollars shall be paid to the state general fund; and

(b) Eight dollars shall be paid to the issuing authority for the purpose of enforcing this chapter.

((4)) (5) A licensee may renew a license if the licensee applies for renewal within ninety days before or after the expiration date of the license. A license so renewed shall take effect on the expiration date of the prior license. A licensee renewing after the expiration date of the license must pay a late renewal penalty of ten dollars in addition to the renewal fee specified in subsection ((3)) (4) of this section. The fee shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Three dollars shall be deposited in the state ((game)) wildlife fund and used exclusively for the printing and distribution of a pamphlet on the legal limits of the use of firearms, firearms safety, and the preemptive nature of state law. The pamphlet shall be given to each applicant for a license; and

(b) Seven dollars shall be paid to the issuing authority for the purpose of enforcing this chapter.

((5)) (6) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsections (1) through ((4)) (5) of this section, the chief of police of the municipality or the sheriff of the county of the applicant's residence may issue a temporary emergency license for good cause pending review under subsection (1) of this section.

((6)) (7) A political subdivision of the state shall not modify the requirements of this section or chapter, nor may a political subdivision ask the applicant to voluntarily submit any information not required by this section. A civil suit may be brought to enjoin a wrongful refusal to issue a license or a wrongful modification of the requirements of this section or chapter. The civil suit may be brought in the county in which the application was made or in Thurston county at the discretion of the petitioner. Any person who prevails against a public agency in any action in the courts for a violation of this chapter shall be awarded costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with such legal action.

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 232, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 7, chapter 373, Laws of 1987 and by section 91, chapter 506, Laws of 1987 and RCW 9.41.098 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The superior courts and the courts of limited jurisdiction of the state may order forfeiture of a firearm which is proven to be:

(a) Found concealed on a person not authorized by RCW 9.41.060 or 9.41.070 to carry a concealed pistol: PROVIDED, That it is an absolute defense to forfeiture if the person possessed a valid Washington concealed pistol license within the preceding two years and has not become ineligible for a concealed pistol license in the interim. Before the firearm may be returned, the person must pay the past due renewal fee and the current renewal fee;

(b) Commercially sold to any person without an application as required by RCW 9.41.090;

(c) Found in the possession or under the control of a person at the time the person committed or was arrested for committing a crime of violence or a crime in which a firearm was used or displayed or a felony violation of the uniform controlled substances act, chapter 69.50 RCW;

(d) Found concealed on a person who is in any place in which a concealed pistol license is required, and who is under the influence of any drug or under the influence of intoxicating liquor, having 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath or 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood, as shown by analysis of the person's breath, blood, or other bodily substance;

(e) Found in the possession of a person prohibited from possessing the firearm under RCW 9.41.040;

(f) Found in the possession of a person free on bail or personal recognizance pending trial, appeal, or sentencing for a crime of violence or a crime in which a firearm was used or displayed, except that violations of Title 77 RCW shall not result in forfeiture under this section;

(g) Found in the possession of a person found to have been mentally incompetent while in possession of a firearm when apprehended or who is thereafter committed pursuant to chapter 10.77 or 71.05 RCW;

(h) Known to have been used or displayed by a person in the violation of a proper written order of a court of general jurisdiction; or

(i) Known to have been used in the commission of a crime of violence or a crime in which a firearm was used or displayed or a felony violation of the uniformed controlled substances act, chapter 69.50 RCW.

(2) Upon order of forfeiture, the court in its discretion shall order destruction of any firearm that is illegal for any person to possess (~~retention of the firearm as evidence, appropriate use by a law enforcement agency in the state, donation to a historical museum, or sale at a public auction to a commercial seller~~). All firearms legal for citizen possession that are judicially forfeited or forfeited due to failure to make a claim under RCW 63.32.010 or 63.40.010 shall be submitted for auction to commercial sellers. A maximum of ten percent of such firearms may be retained for use by local law enforcement agencies. Before submission for auction, a court may temporarily retain forfeited firearms if needed for evidence. The proceeds from any sale shall be divided as follows: The local jurisdiction shall retain its costs, including actual costs of storage and sale, and shall forward the remainder to the state department of wildlife for use in its firearms training program pursuant to RCW 77.32.155. If ~~(the court orders delivery)~~ a firearm is delivered to a law enforcement agency and the agency no longer requires use of the firearm, the agency shall dispose of the firearm ~~(in a manner which is consistent with)~~ by auction as provided by this subsection. The public auctioning agency shall, as a minimum, maintain a record of all forfeited firearms by manufacturer, model, caliber, serial number, date and circumstances of forfeiture, and final disposition. The records shall be open to public inspection and copying.

(3) The court shall order the firearm returned to the owner upon a showing that there is no probable cause to believe a violation of subsection (1) of this section existed or the firearm was stolen from the owner or the owner neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission involving the firearm which resulted in its forfeiture.

(4) A law enforcement officer of the state or of any county or municipality may confiscate a firearm found to be in the possession of a person under circumstances specified in subsection (1) of this section. After confiscation, the firearm shall not be surrendered except: (a) To the prosecuting attorney for use in subsequent legal proceedings; (b) for disposition according to an order of a court having jurisdiction as provided in subsection (1) of this section; or (c) to the owner if the proceedings are dismissed or as directed in subsection (3) of this section.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 100, Laws of 1925 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 154, Laws of 1981 and RCW 63.32.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any personal property shall come into the possession of the police authorities of any city in connection with the official performance of their duties and said personal property shall remain unclaimed or not taken away for a period of sixty days from date of written notice to the owner thereof, if known, and in all other cases for a period of sixty days from the time said property came into the possession of the police department, unless said property has been held as evidence in any court, then, in that event, after sixty days from date when said case has been finally disposed of and said property released as evidence by order of the court, said city may:

(1) At any time thereafter sell said personal property at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash in the manner hereinafter provided;

(2) Retain the property for the use of the police department subject to giving notice in the manner prescribed in RCW 63.32.020 and the right of the owner, or the owner's legal representative, to reclaim the property within one year after receipt of notice, without compensation for ordinary wear and tear if, in the opinion of the chief of police, the property consists of firearms or other items specifically usable in law enforcement work: PROVIDED, That at the end of each calendar year during which there has been such a retention, the police department shall provide the city's mayor or council and retain for public inspection a list of such retained items and an estimation of each item's replacement value. At the end of the one-year period any unclaimed firearm shall be disposed of pursuant to RCW 9.41.098(2);

(3) Destroy an item of personal property at the discretion of the chief of police if the following circumstances have occurred:

(a) The item has been in the possession of the police department for a period of at least one year from the time of first possession by the department;

(b) The item has been unclaimed by any person after notice procedures have been met, as prescribed in RCW 63.32.020; and

(c) The chief of police has determined that the item is unsafe and unable to be made safe for use by any member of the general public; or

(4) If the item is not unsafe or illegal to possess or sell, such item, after satisfying the notice requirements as prescribed in RCW 63.32.020, may be offered by the chief of police to bona fide dealers, in trade for law enforcement equipment, which equipment shall be treated as retained property for purpose of annual listing requirements of subsection (2) of this section.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 104, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 154, Laws of 1981 and RCW 63.40.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any personal property, other than vehicles governed by chapter 46.52 RCW, shall come into the possession of the sheriff of any county in connection with the official performance of his duties and said personal property shall remain unclaimed or not taken away for a period of sixty days from date of written notice to the owner thereof, if known, and in all other cases for a period of sixty days from the time said property came into the possession of the sheriff's office, unless said property has been held as evidence in any court, then, in that event, after sixty days from date when said case has been finally disposed of and said property released as evidence by order of the court, said county sheriff may:

(1) At any time thereafter sell said personal property at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash in the manner hereinafter provided:

(2) Retain the property for the use of the sheriff's office subject to giving notice in the manner prescribed in RCW 63.40.020 and the right of the owner, or his or her legal representative, to reclaim the property within one year after the receipt of notice, without compensation for ordinary wear and tear if, in the opinion of the county sheriff, the property consists of firearms or other items specifically usable in law enforcement work: PROVIDED, That at the end of each calendar year during which there has been such a retention, the sheriff shall provide the county's executive or legislative authority and retain for public inspection a list of such retained items and an estimation of each item's replacement value. At the end of the one-year period any unclaimed firearm shall be disposed of pursuant to RCW 9.41.098(2);

(3) Destroy an item of personal property at the discretion of the county sheriff if the following circumstances have occurred:

(a) The item has been in the possession of the sheriff's office for a period of at least one year from the time of first possession by the office;

(b) The item has been unclaimed by any person after notice procedures have been met, as prescribed in RCW 63.40.020; and

(c) The county sheriff has determined that the item is unsafe and unable to be made safe for use by any member of the general public; or

(4) If the item is not unsafe or illegal to possess or sell, such item, after satisfying the notice requirements as prescribed in RCW 63.40.020, may be offered by the county sheriff to bona fide dealers, in trade for law enforcement equipment, which equipment shall be treated as retained property for purpose of annual listing requirements of subsection (2) of this section."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Law and Justice amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1845.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following title amendment was adopted:

On line 2 of the title, after "licenses;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 9.41.070, 63.32.010, and 63.40.010; reenacting and amending RCW 9.41.098; and prescribing penalties."

On motion of Senator Pullen, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1845, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1845, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1845, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 48.

Voting nay: Senator Pullen - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1845, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1660, by Committee on Transportation (originally sponsored by Representatives Meyers, Walk, Vekich, S. Wilson, Gallagher, Fisher, Hankins, Cantwell, Cooper, Day and Unsoeld)

Establishing a motorcycle skills program.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Garrett, the following amendment by Senators Garrett and Barr was adopted:

On page 1, line 28, strike "twelve" and insert "eight"

Senator Owen moved that the following amendment by Senators Owen, Wojahn and Nelson be adopted:

On page 3, line 26, after "(3)" insert "No person shall operate or ride upon a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle on a state highway, county road, or city street unless wearing upon his or her head a protective helmet of a type conforming to rules adopted by the state patrol.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Owen, why is that extra language in this amendment?"

Senator Owen: "Because if you drive down the highways of the state and you look at most of the motorcyclists today, you will see they are wearing their helmets on the back seat of their motorcycle. We suggest in the amendment, they would be better off wearing them on their heads."

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Owen, I don't think a helmet on the back end of a motorcycle is wearing it. I think it's placed, parked, attached, hung."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McCaslin: "Mr. President, a point of order. I would raise scope and object on the amendment."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1660 was deferred.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1319, deferred March 5, 1988, after the Committee on Economic Development and Labor amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Lee, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "disability;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 49.12.005; adding new sections to chapter 49.12 RCW; creating a new section; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date."

On motion of Senator Lee, Substitute House Bill No. 1319, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, Senator Stratton was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1319, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1319, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 48.

Excused: Senator Stratton - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1319, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1396, by Representatives Wang, Patrick and Cole (by request of Department of Labor and Industries)

Revising industrial insurance disability benefits.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Lee moved that the following Committee on Economic Development and Labor amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 51.32.060, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 5, chapter 58, Laws of 1986 and by section 1, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.060 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) When the supervisor of industrial insurance shall determine that permanent total disability results from the injury, the worker shall receive monthly (~~during the period of such disability~~):

(1) if married at the time of injury, sixty-five percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifteen dollars per month;

(2) if married with one child at the time of injury, sixty-seven percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-two dollars per month;

(3) if married with two children at the time of injury, sixty-nine percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred eighty-three dollars;

(4) if married with three children at the time of injury, seventy-one percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred six dollars per month;

(5) if married with four children at the time of injury, seventy-three percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-nine dollars per month;

(6) if married with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy-five percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred fifty-two dollars per month;

(7) if unmarried at the time of the injury, sixty percent of his or her wages but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars per month;

(8) if unmarried with one child at the time of injury, sixty-two percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars per month;

(9) if unmarried with two children at the time of injury, sixty-four percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars per month;

(10) if unmarried with three children at the time of injury, sixty-six percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars per month;

(11) if unmarried with four children at the time of injury, sixty-eight percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars per month;

(12) if unmarried with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars per month;

(13) For any period of time where both husband and wife are entitled to compensation as temporarily or totally disabled workers, only that spouse having the higher wages of the two shall be entitled to claim their child or children for compensation purposes)) sixty-six and two-thirds percent of his or her wages at the time of injury during the period of such disability.

((+4)) (2) In case of permanent total disability, if the character of the injury is such as to render the worker so physically helpless as to require the hiring of the services of an attendant, the department shall make monthly payments to such attendant for such services as long as such requirement continues, but such payments shall not obtain or be operative while the worker is receiving care under or pursuant to the provisions of chapter 51.36 RCW and RCW 51.04.105.

((+5)) (3) Should any further accident result in the permanent total disability of an injured worker, he or she shall receive the pension to which he or she would be entitled, notwithstanding the payment of a lump sum for his or her prior injury.

((+6)) (4) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed (~~seventy-five~~) one hundred percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, except that this limitation shall not apply to the payments provided for in subsection ((+4)) (2) of this section.

~~((+7))~~ (5) In the case of new or reopened claims, if the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that, at the time of filing or reopening, the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

~~((+8))~~ (6) The benefits provided by this section are subject to modification under RCW 51.32.067.

Sec. 2. Section 51.32.050, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 58, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Where death results from the injury the expenses of burial not to exceed two thousand dollars shall be paid.

(2) (a) Where death results from the injury, a surviving spouse of a deceased worker eligible for benefits under this title shall receive monthly for life or until remarriage ~~((payments according to the following schedule:~~

~~(i) if there are no children of the deceased worker, sixty percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars;~~

~~(ii) if there is one child of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-two percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars;~~

~~(iii) if there are two children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-four percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars;~~

~~(iv) if there are three children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-six percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars;~~

~~(v) if there are four children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-eight percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars; or~~

~~(vi) if there are five or more children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, seventy percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars.~~

~~(b) Where the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker or where after the death of the worker legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children. The amount of such payments shall be five percent of the monthly benefits payable as a result of the worker's death for each such child but such payments shall not exceed twenty-five percent. Such payments on account of such child or children shall be subtracted from the amount to which such surviving spouse would have been entitled had such surviving spouse had legal custody of all of the children and the surviving spouse shall receive the remainder after such payments on account of such child or children have been subtracted. Such payments on account of a child or children not in the legal custody of such surviving spouse shall be apportioned equally among such children) sixty-six and two-thirds percent of the worker's wage at the time of injury.~~

~~((c))~~ (b) Payments to the surviving spouse of the deceased worker shall cease at the end of the month in which remarriage occurs: PROVIDED, That ~~((the))~~ a monthly payment shall be made to the child or children of the deceased worker ~~((shall))~~ from the month following such remarriage ~~((be))~~ in a sum equal to five percent of the wages of the deceased worker for one child and a sum equal to five percent for each additional child up to a maximum of five such children. Payments to such child or children shall be apportioned equally among such children. Such sum shall be in place of any payments theretofore made for the benefit of or on account of any such child or children. If the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker, or if after the death of the worker, legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children.

~~((e))~~ (d) In addition to the monthly payments provided for in (2)(a) ~~((through (2)(c)))~~ and (b) of this section, a surviving spouse or child or children of such worker if there is no surviving spouse, or dependent parent or parents, if there is no surviving spouse or child or children of any such deceased worker shall be forthwith paid the sum of one thousand six hundred dollars, any such children, or parents to share and share alike in said sum.

~~((f))~~ (e) ~~((Upon remarriage of a surviving spouse the monthly payments for the child or children shall continue as provided in this section, but the monthly payments to such surviving spouse shall cease at the end of the month during which remarriage occurs. However,))~~ After September 8, 1975, an otherwise eligible surviving spouse of a worker who died at any time prior to or after September 8, 1975, shall have an option of:

(l) Receiving, once and for all, a lump sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension, whichever is the lesser: PROVIDED, That if the injury occurred prior to July 1, 1971, the remarriage benefit lump sum available shall be as provided in the remarriage benefit schedules then in effect; or

(ii) If a surviving spouse does not choose the option specified in (2)((f))(e)(l) of this section to accept the lump sum payment, the remarriage of the surviving spouse of a worker shall not bar him or her from claiming the lump sum payment authorized in (2)((f))(e)(l) of this section during the life of the remarriage, or shall not prevent subsequent monthly payments to him or to her if the remarriage has been terminated by death or has been dissolved or annulled by valid court decree provided he or she has not previously accepted the lump sum payment.

((g)) (l) If the surviving spouse during the remarriage should die without having previously received the lump sum payment provided in (2)((f))(e)(l) of this section, his or her estate shall be entitled to receive the sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension whichever is the lesser.

((h)) (g) The effective date of resumption of payments under (2)((f))(e)(ii) of this section to a surviving spouse based upon termination of a remarriage by death, annulment, or dissolution shall be the date of the death or the date the judicial decree of annulment or dissolution becomes final and when application for the payments has been received.

((i)) (h) If it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of the amendments in chapter 45, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess., the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund.

(3) If there is a child or children and no surviving spouse of the deceased worker or the surviving spouse is not eligible for benefits under this title, a sum equal to thirty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker shall be paid monthly for one child and a sum equivalent to fifteen percent of such wage shall be paid monthly for each additional child, the total of such sum to be divided among such children, share and share alike: PROVIDED, That benefits under this subsection or subsection (4) shall not exceed ~~(sixty-five)~~ sixty-six and two-thirds percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of his or her death or ~~(seventy-five)~~ one hundred percent of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, whichever is the lesser of the two sums.

(4) In the event a surviving spouse receiving monthly payments dies, the child or children of the deceased worker shall receive the same payment as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) If the worker leaves no surviving spouse or child, but leaves a dependent or dependents, a monthly payment shall be made to each dependent equal to fifty percent of the average monthly support actually received by such dependent from the worker during the twelve months next preceding the occurrence of the injury, but the total payment to all dependents in any case shall not exceed ~~(sixty-five)~~ sixty-six and two-thirds percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of the death or ~~(seventy-five)~~ one hundred percent of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, whichever is the lesser of the two sums. If any dependent is under the age of eighteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payment to such dependent shall cease when such dependent reaches the age of eighteen years except such payments shall continue until the dependent reaches age twenty-three while permanently enrolled at a full time course in an accredited school. The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

(6) For claims filed prior to July 1, 1986, if the injured worker dies during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a surviving spouse, or child, or children, the surviving spouse or child or children shall receive benefits as if death resulted from the injury as provided in subsections (2) through (4) of this section. Upon remarriage or death of such surviving spouse, the payments to such child or children shall be made as provided in subsection (2) of this section when the surviving spouse of a deceased worker remarries.

(7) For claims filed on or after July 1, 1986, every worker who becomes eligible for permanent total disability benefits shall elect an option as provided in RCW 51.32.067.

Sec. 3, Section 2, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the total disability is only temporary, ~~((the schedule of payments contained in subsections (1) through (13) of RCW 51.32.066 as amended shall apply))~~ the worker shall receive sixty-six and two-thirds percent of his or her wages at the time of the injury so long as the total disability continues.

(2) ~~((Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured worker as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.~~

(3) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the worker, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent. However, during the period a worker returns to light-duty work, receives disability leave supplement payments pursuant to RCW 41.04.500 through 41.04.530, and is otherwise eligible for compensation under this section, the worker shall continue to receive such compensation at the rate provided under RCW 51.32.060 ~~((†) through (†))~~.

~~((†))~~ (3) Whenever an employer requests that a worker who is entitled to temporary total disability under this chapter be certified by a physician as able to perform available work other than his or her usual work, the employer shall furnish to the physician, with a copy to the worker, a statement describing the available work in terms that will enable the physician to relate the physical activities of the job to the worker's disability. The physician shall then determine whether the worker is physically able to perform the work described. If the worker is released by his or her physician for said work, and the work thereafter comes to an end before the worker's recovery is sufficient in the judgment of his or her physician to permit him or her to return to his or her usual job, or to perform other available work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed. Should the available work described, once undertaken by the worker, impede his or her recovery to the extent that in the judgment of his or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the worker ceases such work.

Once the worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection, he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the worker's physician.

In the event of any dispute as to the worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

~~((†))~~ (4) No worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury: PROVIDED, That attempts to return to work in the first fourteen days following the injury shall not serve to break the continuity of the period of disability if the disability continues fourteen days after the injury occurs.

~~((†))~~ (5) Should a worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages. This limitation does not apply to disability leave supplement payments made pursuant to RCW 41.04.500 through 41.04.530.

~~((†))~~ (7) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

Sec. 4. Section 51.32.090, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and by section 3 of this 1988 act and RCW 51.32.090 are each reenacted to read as follows:

(1) When the total disability is only temporary, the worker shall receive sixty-six and two-thirds percent of his or her wages at the time of the injury so long as the total disability continues.

(2) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the worker, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent.

(3) Whenever an employer requests that a worker who is entitled to temporary total disability under this chapter be certified by a physician as able to perform available work other than his or her usual work, the employer shall furnish to the physician, with a copy to the worker, a statement describing the available work in terms that will enable the physician to relate the physical activities of the job to the worker's disability. The physician shall then determine whether the worker is physically able to perform the work described. If the worker is released by his or her physician for said work, and the work thereafter comes to an end before the worker's recovery is sufficient in the judgment of his or her physician to permit him or her to return to his or her usual job, or to perform other available work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed. Should the available work described, once undertaken by the worker, impede his or her recovery to the extent that in the judgment of his or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the worker ceases such work.

Once the worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection, he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the worker's physician.

In the event of any dispute as to the worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

(4) No worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury: PROVIDED, That attempts to return to work in the first fourteen days following the injury shall not serve to break the continuity of the period of disability if the disability continues fourteen days after the injury occurs.

(5) Should a worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages.

(6) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed one hundred percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018.

(7) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

Sec. 5. Section 51.32.180, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 53, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Every worker who suffers disability from an occupational disease in the course of employment under the mandatory or elective adoption provisions of this title, or his or her family and dependents in case of death of the worker from such disease or infection, shall receive the same compensation benefits and medical, surgical and hospital care and treatment as would be paid and provided for a worker injured or killed in employment under this title (~~(-PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT)~~), except as follows: (a) This section and RCW 51.16.040 shall not apply where the last exposure to the hazards of the disease or infection occurred prior to January 1, 1937; and (b) for claims filed on or after July 1, 1988, the rate of compensation for occupational diseases shall be established as of the date the disease requires medical treatment or becomes totally or partially disabling, whichever occurs first, and without regard to the date of the contraction of the disease or the date of filing the claim.

Sec. 6. Section 51.32.080, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 58, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the permanent partial disabilities here specifically described, the injured worker shall receive compensation as follows:

MISCELLANEOUS

Loss of one eye by enucleation	21,600.00
Loss of central visual acuity in one eye	18,000.00
Complete loss of hearing in both ears	43,200.00
Complete loss of hearing in one ear	7,200.00

(2) Compensation for amputation of a member or part thereof at a site other than those above specified, and for loss of central visual acuity and loss of hearing other than complete, shall be in proportion to that which such other amputation or partial loss of visual acuity or hearing most closely resembles and approximates. Compensation for any other permanent partial disability not involving amputation shall be in the proportion which the extent of such other disability, called unspecified disability, shall bear to that above specified, which most closely resembles and approximates in degree of disability such other disability, compensation for any other unspecified permanent partial disability shall be in an amount as measured and compared to total bodily impairment: PROVIDED, That in order to reduce litigation and establish more certainty and uniformity in the rating of unspecified permanent partial disabilities, the department shall enact rules having the force of law classifying such disabilities in the proportion which the department shall determine such disabilities reasonably bear to total bodily impairment. In enacting such rules, the department shall give consideration to, but need not necessarily adopt, any nationally recognized medical standards or guides for determining various bodily impairments. For purposes of calculating monetary benefits, the amount payable for total bodily impairment shall be deemed to be ninety thousand dollars: PROVIDED, ~~((That compensation for unspecified permanent partial disabilities involving injuries to the back that do not have marked objective clinical findings to substantiate the disability shall be determined at an amount equal to seventy-five percent of the monetary value of such disability as related to total bodily impairment: PROVIDED FURTHER:))~~ That the total compensation for all unspecified permanent partial disabilities resulting from the same injury shall not exceed the sum of ninety thousand dollars ~~(-except that the total compensation for all unspecified permanent partial disabilities involving injuries to the back that do not have marked objective clinical findings to substantiate the disability and resulting from the same injury shall not exceed the sum of sixty-seven thousand five hundred dollars)~~: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in case permanent partial disability compensation is followed by permanent total disability compensation, any portion of the permanent partial disability compensation which exceeds the amount that would have been paid the injured worker if permanent total disability compensation had been paid in the first instance, shall be deducted from the pension reserve of such injured worker and his or her monthly compensation payments shall be reduced accordingly.

(3) Should a worker receive an injury to a member or part of his or her body already, from whatever cause, permanently partially disabled, resulting in the amputation thereof or in an aggravation or increase in such permanent partial disability but not resulting in the permanent total disability of such worker, his or her compensation for such partial disability shall be adjudged with regard to the previous disability of the injured member or part and the degree or extent of the aggravation or increase of disability thereof.

(4) When the compensation provided for in subsections (1) and (2) exceeds three times the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, payment shall be made in monthly payments in accordance with the schedule of temporary total disability payments set forth in RCW 51.32.090 until such compensation is paid to the injured worker in full, except that the first monthly payment shall be in an amount equal to three times the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, and interest shall be paid at the rate of eight percent on the unpaid balance of such compensation commencing with the second monthly payment: PROVIDED, That upon application of the injured worker or survivor the monthly payment may be converted, in whole or in part, into a lump sum payment, in which event the monthly payment shall cease in whole or in part. Such conversion may be made only upon written application of the injured worker or survivor to the department and shall rest in the discretion of the department depending upon the merits of each individual application: PROVIDED FURTHER, That upon death of a worker all unpaid installments accrued shall be paid according to the payment schedule established prior to the death of the worker to the widow or widower, or if there is no widow or widower surviving, to the dependent children of such claimant, and if there are no such dependent children, then to such other dependents as defined by this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Section 4 of this act shall take effect on June 30, 1989.*

MOTION

On motion of Senator Anderson, the following amendment by Senators Anderson, McMullen, Warnke, West, Bender, Smitherman, Conner, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, Smith, Bailey, Saling, Kiskaddon, Nelson, Newhouse, Johnson, Metcalf, Patterson, Lee and Benitz to the Committee on Economic Development and Labor amendment was adopted:

On page 1 of the committee amendment, beginning with line 5, strike the remainder of the amendment and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 51.32.060, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 5, chapter 58, Laws of 1986 and by section 1, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.060 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) When the supervisor of industrial insurance shall determine that permanent total disability results from the injury, the worker shall receive monthly during the period of such disability:

((1+)) (a) If married at the time of injury, sixty-five percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifteen dollars per month.

((2+)) (b) If married with one child at the time of injury, sixty-seven percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-two dollars per month.

((3+)) (c) If married with two children at the time of injury, sixty-nine percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred eighty-three dollars.

((4+)) (d) If married with three children at the time of injury, seventy-one percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred six dollars per month.

((5+)) (e) If married with four children at the time of injury, seventy-three percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-nine dollars per month.

((6+)) (f) If married with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy-five percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred fifty-two dollars per month.

((7+)) (g) If unmarried at the time of the injury, sixty percent of his or her wages but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars per month.

((8+)) (h) If unmarried with one child at the time of injury, sixty-two percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars per month.

((9+)) (i) If unmarried with two children at the time of injury, sixty-four percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars per month.

((10+)) (j) If unmarried with three children at the time of injury, sixty-six percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars per month.

((11+)) (k) If unmarried with four children at the time of injury, sixty-eight percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars per month.

((12+)) (l) If unmarried with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars per month.

((13+)) (2) For any period of time where both husband and wife are entitled to compensation as temporarily or totally disabled workers, only that spouse having the higher wages of the two shall be entitled to claim their child or children for compensation purposes.

((14+)) (3) In case of permanent total disability, if the character of the injury is such as to render the worker so physically helpless as to require the hiring of the services of an attendant, the department shall make monthly payments to such attendant for such services as long as such requirement continues, but such payments shall not obtain or be operative while the worker is receiving care under or pursuant to the provisions of chapter 51.36 RCW and RCW 51.04.105.

((15+)) (4) Should any further accident result in the permanent total disability of an injured worker, he or she shall receive the pension to which he or she would be entitled, notwithstanding the payment of a lump sum for his or her prior injury.

((16+)) (5) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed ~~((seventy-five))~~ one hundred percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, except that this limitation shall not apply to the payments provided for in subsection ((14+)) (3) of this section.

((17+)) (6) In the case of new or reopened claims, if the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that, at the time of filing or reopening, the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

((18+)) (7) The benefits provided by this section are subject to modification under RCW 51.32.067.

Sec. 2. Section 51.32.050, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 58, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Where death results from the injury the expenses of burial not to exceed two thousand dollars shall be paid.

(2) (a) Where death results from the injury, a surviving spouse of a deceased worker eligible for benefits under this title shall receive monthly for life or until remarriage payments according to the following schedule:

(i) If there are no children of the deceased worker, sixty percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars;

(ii) If there is one child of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-two percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars;

(iii) If there are two children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-four percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars;

(iv) If there are three children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-six percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars;

(v) If there are four children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-eight percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars; or

(vi) If there are five or more children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, seventy percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars.

(b) Where the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker or where after the death of the worker legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children. The amount of such payments shall be five percent of the monthly benefits payable as a result of the worker's death for each such child but such payments shall not exceed twenty-five percent. Such payments on account of such child or children shall be subtracted from the amount to which such surviving spouse would have been entitled had such surviving spouse had legal custody of all of the children and the surviving spouse shall receive the remainder after such payments on account of such child or children have been subtracted. Such payments on account of a child or children not in the legal custody of such surviving spouse shall be apportioned equally among such children.

(c) Payments to the surviving spouse of the deceased worker shall cease at the end of the month in which remarriage occurs: PROVIDED, That ~~((the))~~ a monthly payment shall be made to the child or children of the deceased worker ~~((shall))~~ from the month following such remarriage ~~((be))~~ in a sum equal to five percent of the wages of the deceased worker for one child and a sum equal to five percent for each additional child up to a maximum of five such children. Payments to such child or children shall be apportioned equally among such children. Such sum shall be in place of any payments theretofore made for the benefit of or on account of any such child or children. If the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker, or if after the death of the worker, legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children.

(e) In addition to the monthly payments provided for in (2)(a) through (2)(c) of this section, a surviving spouse or child or children of such worker if there is no surviving spouse, or dependent parent or parents, if there is no surviving spouse or child or children of any such deceased worker shall be forthwith paid the sum of one thousand six hundred dollars, any such children, or parents to share and share alike in said sum.

(f) Upon remarriage of a surviving spouse the monthly payments for the child or children shall continue as provided in this section, but the monthly payments to such surviving spouse shall cease at the end of the month during which remarriage occurs. However, after September 8, 1975, an otherwise eligible surviving spouse of a worker who died at any time prior to or after September 8, 1975, shall have an option of:

(i) Receiving, once and for all, a lump sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension, whichever is the lesser: PROVIDED, That if the injury occurred prior to July 1, 1971, the remarriage benefit lump sum available shall be as provided in the remarriage benefit schedules then in effect; or

(ii) If a surviving spouse does not choose the option specified in (2)(f)(i) of this section to accept the lump sum payment, the remarriage of the surviving spouse of a worker shall not bar him or her from claiming the lump sum payment authorized in (2)(f)(i) of this section during the life of the remarriage, or shall not prevent subsequent monthly payments to him or to her if the remarriage has been terminated by death or has been dissolved or annulled by valid court decree provided he or she has not previously accepted the lump sum payment.

(g) If the surviving spouse during the remarriage should die without having previously received the lump sum payment provided in (2)(f)(i) of this section, his or her estate shall be entitled to receive the sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension whichever is the lesser.

(h) The effective date of resumption of payments under (2)(f)(ii) of this section to a surviving spouse based upon termination of a remarriage by death, annulment, or dissolution shall be the date of the death or the date the judicial decree of annulment or dissolution becomes final and when application for the payments has been received.

(i) If it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of the amendments in chapter 45, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd sess., the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund.

(3) If there is a child or children and no surviving spouse of the deceased worker or the surviving spouse is not eligible for benefits under this title, a sum equal to thirty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker shall be paid monthly for one child and a sum equivalent to fifteen percent of such wage shall be paid monthly for each additional child, the total of such sum to be divided among such children, share and share alike; PROVIDED, That benefits under this subsection or subsection (4) shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of his or her death or ~~((seventy-five))~~ one hundred percent of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, whichever is the lesser of the two sums.

(4) In the event a surviving spouse receiving monthly payments dies, the child or children of the deceased worker shall receive the same payment as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) If the worker leaves no surviving spouse or child, but leaves a dependent or dependents, a monthly payment shall be made to each dependent equal to fifty percent of the average monthly support actually received by such dependent from the worker during the twelve months next preceding the occurrence of the injury, but the total payment to all dependents in any case shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of the death or ~~((seventy-five))~~ one hundred percent of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, whichever is the lesser of the two sums. If any dependent is under the age of eighteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payment to such dependent shall cease when such dependent reaches the age of eighteen years except such payments shall continue until the dependent reaches age twenty-three while permanently enrolled at a full time course in an accredited school. The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

(6) For claims filed prior to July 1, 1986, if the injured worker dies during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a surviving spouse, or child, or children, the surviving spouse or child or children shall receive benefits as if death resulted from the injury as provided in subsections (2) through (4) of this section. Upon remarriage or death of such surviving spouse, the payments to such child or children shall be made as provided in subsection (2) of this section when the surviving spouse of a deceased worker remarries.

(7) For claims filed on or after July 1, 1986, every worker who becomes eligible for permanent total disability benefits shall elect an option as provided in RCW 51.32.067.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the total disability is only temporary, the schedule of payments contained in ~~((subsections (1) through (13) of))~~ RCW 51.32.060 ~~((as amended))~~ (1) and (2) shall apply, so long as the total disability continues.

(2) Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured worker as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.

(3) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the worker, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent. However, during the period a worker returns to light-duty work, receives disability leave supplement payments pursuant to RCW 41.04.500 through 41.04.530, and is otherwise eligible for compensation under this section, the worker shall continue to receive such compensation at the rate provided under RCW 51.32.060 (1) ~~((through (13)))~~ and (2).

or her to return to his or her usual job, or to perform other available work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed. Should the available work described, once undertaken by the worker, impede his or her recovery to the extent that in the judgment of his or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the worker ceases such work.

Once the worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection, he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the worker's physician.

In the event of any dispute as to the worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

(5) No worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury: PROVIDED, That attempts to return to work in the first fourteen days following the injury shall not serve to break the continuity of the period of disability if the disability continues fourteen days after the injury occurs.

(6) Should a worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages. This limitation does not apply to disability leave supplement payments made pursuant to RCW 41.04.500 through 41.04.530.

(7) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed ((seventy-five)) one hundred percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018.

(8) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

Sec. 4. Section 51.32.090, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and by section 3 of this 1988 act and RCW 51.32.090 are each reenacted to read as follows:

(1) When the total disability is only temporary, the schedule of payments contained in RCW 51.32.060 (1) and (2) shall apply, so long as the total disability continues.

(2) Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured worker as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.

(3) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the worker, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent.

(4) Whenever an employer requests that a worker who is entitled to temporary total disability under this chapter be certified by a physician as able to perform available work other than his or her usual work, the employer shall furnish to the physician, with a copy to the worker, a statement describing the available work in terms that will enable the physician to relate the physical activities of the job to the worker's disability. The physician shall then determine whether the worker is physically able to perform the work described. If the worker is released by his or her physician for said work, and the work thereafter comes to an end before the worker's recovery is sufficient in the judgment of his or her physician to permit him or her to return to his or her usual job, or to perform other available work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed. Should the available work described, once undertaken by the worker, impede his or her recovery to the extent that in the judgment of his or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the worker ceases such work.

Once the worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection, he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the worker's physician.

In the event of any dispute as to the worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

(5) No worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury: PROVIDED, That attempts to return to work in the first fourteen days following the injury shall not serve to break the continuity of the period of disability if the disability continues fourteen days after the injury occurs.

(6) Should a worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages.

(7) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed one hundred percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018.

(8) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

Sec. 5. Section 51.32.180, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 53, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Every worker who suffers disability from an occupational disease in the course of employment under the mandatory or elective adoption provisions of this title, or his or her family and dependents in case of death of the worker from such disease or infection, shall receive the same compensation benefits and medical, surgical and hospital care and treatment as would be paid and provided for a worker injured or killed in employment under this title (~~(-PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT)~~), except as follows: (a) This section and RCW 51.16.040 shall not apply where the last exposure to the hazards of the disease or infection occurred prior to January 1, 1937; and (b) for claims filed on or after July 1, 1988, the rate of compensation for occupational diseases shall be established as of the date the disease requires medical treatment or becomes totally or partially disabling, whichever occurs first, and without regard to the date of the contraction of the disease or the date of filing the claim.

Sec. 6. Section 51.32.080, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 58, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the permanent partial disabilities here specifically described, the injured worker shall receive compensation as follows:

LOSS BY AMPUTATION

Of leg above the knee joint with short thigh stump (3" or less below the tuberosity of ischium)	$54,000.00
Of leg at or above knee joint with functional stump	48,600.00
Of leg below knee joint	43,200.00
Of leg at ankle (Syme)	37,800.00
Of foot at mid-metatarsals	18,900.00
Of great toe with resection of metatarsal bone	11,340.00
Of great toe at metatarsophalangeal joint	6,804.00
Of great toe at interphalangeal joint	3,600.00
Of lesser toe (2nd to 5th) with resection of metatarsal bone	4,140.00
Of lesser toe at metatarsophalangeal joint	2,016.00
Of lesser toe at proximal interphalangeal joint	1,494.00
Of lesser toe at distal interphalangeal joint	378.00
Of arm at or above the deltoid insertion or by disarticulation at the shoulder	54,000.00
Of arm at any point from below the deltoid insertion to below the elbow joint at the insertion of the biceps tendon	51,300.00
Of arm at any point from below the elbow joint distal to the insertion of the biceps tendon to and including mid-metacarpal amputation of the hand	48,600.00
Of all fingers except the thumb at metacarpophalangeal joints	29,160.00
Of thumb at metacarpophalangeal joint or with resection of carpo-metacarpal bone	19,440.00
Of thumb at interphalangeal joint	9,720.00
Of index finger at metacarpophalangeal joint or with resection of metacarpal bone	12,150.00
Of index finger at proximal interphalangeal joint	9,720.00
Of index finger at distal interphalangeal joint	5,346.00
Of middle finger at metacarpophalangeal joint or with resection of metacarpal bone	9,720.00
Of middle finger at proximal interphalangeal joint	7,776.00
Of middle finger at distal interphalangeal joint	4,374.00
Of ring finger at metacarpophalangeal joint or with resection of metacarpal bone	4,860.00
Of ring finger at proximal interphalangeal joint	3,888.00
Of ring finger at distal interphalangeal joint	2,430.00
Of little finger at metacarpophalangeal joint or with resection of metacarpal bone	2,430.00
Of little finger at proximal interphalangeal joint	1,944.00
Of little finger at distal interphalangeal joint	972.00

MISCELLANEOUS

Loss of one eye by enucleation	21,600.00
Loss of central visual acuity in one eye	18,000.00
Complete loss of hearing in both ears	43,200.00
Complete loss of hearing in one ear	7,200.00

(2) Compensation for amputation of a member or part thereof at a site other than those above specified, and for loss of central visual acuity and loss of hearing other than complete, shall be in proportion to that which such other amputation or partial loss of visual acuity or hearing most closely resembles and approximates. Compensation for any other permanent partial disability not involving amputation shall be in the proportion which the extent of such other disability, called unspecified disability, shall bear to that above specified, which most closely resembles and approximates in degree of disability such other disability, compensation for any other unspecified permanent partial disability shall be in an amount as measured and compared to total bodily impairment: PROVIDED, That in order to reduce litigation and establish more certainty and uniformity in the rating of unspecified permanent partial disabilities, the department shall enact rules having the force of law classifying such disabilities in the proportion which the department shall determine such disabilities reasonably bear to total bodily impairment. In enacting such rules, the department shall give consideration to, but need not necessarily adopt, any nationally recognized medical standards or guides for determining various bodily impairments. For purposes of calculating monetary benefits, the amount payable for total bodily impairment shall be deemed to be ninety thousand dollars: PROVIDED, ~~((That compensation for unspecified permanent partial disabilities involving injuries to the back that do not have marked objective clinical findings to substantiate the disability shall be determined at an amount equal to seventy-five percent of the monetary value of such disability as related to total bodily impairment: PROVIDED FURTHER:))~~ That the total compensation for all unspecified permanent partial disabilities resulting from the same injury shall not exceed the sum of ninety thousand dollars ~~((except that the total compensation for all unspecified permanent partial disabilities involving injuries to the back that do not have marked objective clinical findings to substantiate the disability and resulting from the same injury shall not exceed the sum of sixty-seven thousand five hundred dollars))~~: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in case permanent partial disability compensation is followed by permanent total disability compensation, any portion of the permanent partial disability compensation which exceeds the amount that would have been paid the injured worker if permanent total disability compensation had been paid in the first instance, shall be deducted from the pension reserve of such injured worker and his or her monthly compensation payments shall be reduced accordingly.

(3) Should a worker receive an injury to a member or part of his or her body already, from whatever cause, permanently partially disabled, resulting in the amputation thereof or in an aggravation or increase in such permanent partial disability but not resulting in the permanent total disability of such worker, his or her compensation for such partial disability shall be adjudged with regard to the previous disability of the injured member or part and the degree or extent of the aggravation or increase of disability thereof.

(4) When the compensation provided for in subsections (1) and (2) exceeds three times the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, payment shall be made in monthly payments in accordance with the schedule of temporary total disability payments set forth in RCW 51.32.090 until such compensation is paid to the injured worker in full, except that the first monthly payment shall be in an amount equal to three times the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, and interest shall be paid at the rate of eight percent on the unpaid balance of such compensation commencing with the second monthly payment: PROVIDED, That upon application of the injured worker or survivor the monthly payment may be converted, in whole or in part, into a lump sum payment, in which event the monthly payment shall cease in whole or in part. Such conversion may be made only upon written application of the injured worker or survivor to the department and shall rest in the discretion of the department depending upon the merits of each individual application: PROVIDED FURTHER, That upon death of a worker all unpaid installments accrued shall be paid according to the payment schedule established prior to the death of the worker to the widow or widower, or if there is no widow or widower surviving, to the dependent children of such claimant, and if there are no such dependent children, then to such other dependents as defined by this title.

Sec. 7. Section 2, chapter 286, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 203, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.32.075 are each amended to read as follows:

The compensation or death benefits payable pursuant to the provisions of this chapter for temporary total disability, permanent total disability, or death arising out of injuries or occupational diseases shall be adjusted as follows:

(1) On July 1, 1982, there shall be an adjustment for those whose right to compensation was established on or after July 1, 1971, and before July 1, 1982. The adjustment shall be determined by multiplying the amount of compensation to which they are entitled by a fraction, the denominator of which shall be the average monthly wage in the state under RCW 51.08.018 for the fiscal year in which such person's right to compensation was established, and the numerator of which shall be the average monthly wage in the state under RCW 51.08.018 on July 1, 1982.

(2) In addition to the adjustment established by subsection (1) of this section, there shall be another adjustment on July 1, 1983, for those whose right to compensation was established on or after July 1, 1971, and before July 1983, which shall be determined by multiplying the amount of compensation to which they are entitled by a fraction, the denominator of which shall be the average monthly wage in the state under RCW 51.08.018 for the fiscal year in which such person's right to compensation was established, and the numerator of which shall be the average monthly wage in the state under RCW 51.08.018 on July 1, 1983.

(3) In addition to the adjustments under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, further adjustments shall be made beginning on July 1, 1984, and on each July 1st thereafter for those whose right to compensation was established on or after July 1, 1971. The adjustment shall be determined by multiplying the amount of compensation to which they are entitled by a fraction, the denominator of which shall be the average monthly wage in the state under RCW 51.08.018 for the fiscal year in which such person's right to compensation was established, and the numerator of which shall be the average monthly wage in the state under RCW 51.08.018 on July 1st of the year in which the adjustment is being made. The department or self-insurer shall adjust the resulting compensation rate to the nearest whole cent, not to exceed the average monthly wage in the state as computed under RCW 51.08.018.

Sec. 8. Section 51.44.080, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 29, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.44.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall notify the state treasurer from time to time, of such transfers as a whole from the state fund to the reserve fund and the interest or other earnings of the reserve fund shall become a part of the reserve fund itself. As soon as possible after June 30th of each year the state insurance commissioner shall expert the reserve fund to ascertain its standing as of June 30th of that year and the relation of its outstanding annuities at their then value (~~on the bases currently employed for new cases~~) to the cash on hand or at interest belonging to the fund. He shall promptly report the result of his examination to the department and to the state treasurer in writing not later than September 30th following. If the report shows that there was on said June 30th, in the reserve fund in cash or at interest, a greater sum than the then annuity value of the outstanding pension obligations, the surplus shall be forthwith turned over to the state fund but, if the report shows the contrary condition of the reserve fund, the deficiency shall be forthwith made good out of the state fund.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 2, chapter 339, Laws of 1985 and RCW 51.32.095 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) One of the primary purposes of this title is to enable the injured worker to become employable at gainful employment. To this end, the department or self-insurers shall utilize the services of individuals and organizations, public or private, whose experience, training, and interests in vocational rehabilitation and retraining qualify them to lend expert assistance to the supervisor of industrial insurance in such programs of vocational rehabilitation as may be reasonable to make the worker employable consistent with his or her physical and mental status. Where, after evaluation and recommendation by such individuals or organizations and prior to final evaluation of the worker's permanent disability and in the sole opinion of the supervisor or supervisor's designee, whether or not medical treatment has been concluded, vocational rehabilitation is both necessary and likely to enable the injured worker to become employable at gainful employment, the supervisor or supervisor's designee may, in his or her sole discretion, pay or, if the employer is a self-insurer, direct the self-insurer to pay the cost as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) When in the sole discretion of the supervisor or the supervisor's designee vocational rehabilitation is both necessary and likely to make the worker employable at gainful employment, then the following order of priorities shall be used:

(a) Return to the previous job with the same employer;
 (b) Modification of the previous job with the same employer including transitional return to work;

(c) A new job with the same employer in keeping with any limitations or restrictions;

(d) Modification of a new job with the same employer including transitional return to work;

(e) Modification of the previous job with a new employer;

~~((e))~~ (f) A new job with a new employer or self-employment based upon transferable skills;

~~((f))~~ (g) Modification of a new job with a new employer;

(h) A new job with a new employer or self-employment involving on-the-job training;

~~((g))~~ (i) Short-term retraining and job placement.

(3) Costs for vocational rehabilitation benefits allowed by the supervisor or supervisor's designee under subsection (1) of this section may include the cost of books, tuition, fees, supplies, equipment, transportation, child or dependent care, and other necessary expenses for any such worker in an amount not to exceed three thousand dollars in any fifty-two week period, and the cost of continuing the temporary total disability compensation under RCW 51.32.090 while the worker is actively and successfully undergoing a formal program of vocational rehabilitation. Such expenses may include training fees for on-the-job training and the cost of furnishing tools and other equipment necessary for self-employment or reemployment; PROVIDED, That such compensation or payment of retraining with job placement expenses may not be authorized for a period of more than fifty-two weeks; PROVIDED FURTHER, That such period may, in the sole discretion of the supervisor after his or her review, be extended for an additional fifty-two weeks or portion thereof by written order of the supervisor.

In cases where the worker is required to reside away from his or her customary residence, the reasonable cost of board and lodging shall also be paid. Said costs shall be chargeable to the employer's cost experience or shall be paid by the self-insurer as the case may be.

(4) The department shall establish criteria to monitor the quality and effectiveness of rehabilitation services provided by the individuals and organizations used under subsection (1) of this section. The state fund shall make referrals for vocational rehabilitation services based on these performance criteria.

(5) The department shall engage in, where feasible and cost-effective, a cooperative program with the state employment security department to provide job placement services under this section.

(6) The benefits in this section shall be provided for the injured workers of self-insured employers. Self-insurers shall report both benefits provided and benefits denied under this section in the manner prescribed by the department by rule adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW. The director may, in his or her sole discretion and upon his or her own initiative or at any time that a dispute arises under this section, promptly make such inquiries as circumstances require and take such other action as he or she considers will properly determine the matter and protect the rights of the parties.

(7) The benefits provided for in this section are available to any otherwise eligible worker regardless of the date of industrial injury. However, claims shall not be reopened solely for vocational rehabilitation purposes.

Sec. 10. Section 13, chapter 63, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 3, chapter 70, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.32.250 are each amended to read as follows:

Modification of the injured worker's previous job or modification of a new job is recognized as a desirable method of returning the injured worker to ~~((suitable))~~ gainful employment. In order to assist employers in meeting the costs of job modification, and to encourage employers to modify jobs to accommodate retaining or hiring workers with disabilities resulting from work-related injury, the supervisor or the supervisor's designee, in his or her discretion, may pay job modification costs in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars per worker per job modification. This payment is intended to be a cooperative participation with the employer and funds shall be taken from the appropriate account within the second injury fund.

The benefits provided for in this section are available to any otherwise eligible worker regardless of the date of industrial injury.

Sec. 11. Section 51.32.160, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.160 are each amended to read as follows:

If aggravation, diminution, or termination of disability takes place ~~((or be discovered after the rate of compensation shall have been established or compensation terminated, in any case)),~~ the director ~~((through and by means of the division of industrial insurance;))~~ may, upon the application of the beneficiary, made within seven years ~~((after the establishment or termination of such compensation))~~ from the date the first closing order becomes final, or at any time upon his or her own motion, readjust ~~((for further application))~~ the rate of compensation in accordance with the rules in this section provided for the same, or in a proper case terminate the payment: PROVIDED, That the director may, upon application of the worker made at any time, provide proper and necessary medical and surgical services as authorized under RCW 51.36.010. "Closing order" as used in this section means an order based on factors which include medical recommendation, advice, or examination. Applications for benefits where the claim has been closed without medical recommendation, advice, or examination are not subject to the seven year limitation of this section. The preceding sentence shall not apply to any closing order issued prior to July 1, 1981. First closing orders issued between July 1, 1981, and July 1, 1985, shall, for the purposes of this section only, be deemed issued on July 1, 1985. The time limitation of this section shall be ten years in claims involving loss of vision or function of the eyes. If an order denying an application to reopen filed on or after July 1, 1988, is not issued within ninety days of receipt of such application by the self-insured employer or the department, such application shall be deemed granted. However, for good cause, the department may extend the time for making the final determination on the application for an additional sixty days.

If a worker receiving a pension for total disability returns to gainful employment for wages, the director may suspend or terminate the rate of compensation established for the disability without producing medical evidence that shows that a diminution of the disability has occurred.

No act done or ordered to be done by the director, or the department prior to the signing and filing in the matter of a written order for such readjustment shall be ground for such readjustment.

Sec. 12. Section 5, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 and RCW 51.08.178 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this title, the monthly wages the worker was receiving from all employment at the time of injury shall be the basis upon which compensation is computed unless otherwise provided specifically in the statute concerned. In cases where the worker's wages are not fixed by the month, they shall be determined by multiplying the daily wage the worker was receiving at the time of the injury:

- (a) By five, if the worker was normally employed one day a week;
- (b) By nine, if the worker was normally employed two days a week;
- (c) By thirteen, if the worker was normally employed three days a week;
- (d) By eighteen, if the worker was normally employed four days a week;
- (e) By twenty-two, if the worker was normally employed five days a week;
- (f) By twenty-six, if the worker was normally employed six days a week;
- (g) By thirty, if the worker was normally employed seven days a week.

The term "wages" shall include the reasonable value of board, housing, fuel, or other consideration of like nature received from the employer as part of the contract of hire, but shall not include overtime pay((-tips- or gratuties)) except in cases under subsection (2) of this section. However, tips shall also be considered wages only to the extent such tips are reported to the employer for federal income tax purposes. The daily wage shall be the hourly wage multiplied by the number of hours the worker is normally employed. The number of hours the worker is normally employed shall be determined by the department in a fair and reasonable manner, which may include averaging the number of hours worked per day.

(2) In cases where (a) the worker's employment is exclusively seasonal in nature or (b) the worker's current employment or his or her relation to his or her employment is essentially part-time or intermittent, the monthly wage shall be determined by dividing by twelve the total wages earned, including overtime, from all employment in any twelve successive calendar months preceding the injury which fairly represent the claimant's employment pattern.

(3) If, within the twelve months immediately preceding the injury, the worker has received from the employer at the time of injury a bonus as part of the contract of hire, the average monthly value of such bonus shall be included in determining the worker's monthly wages.

(4) In cases where a wage has not been fixed or cannot be reasonably and fairly determined, the monthly wage shall be computed on the basis of the usual wage paid other employees engaged in like or similar occupations where the wages are fixed.

Sec. 13. Section 46, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 55, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.055 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) One purpose of this title is to restore the injured worker as near as possible to the condition of self-support as an able-bodied worker. Benefits for permanent disability shall be determined under the director's supervision only after the injured worker's condition becomes fixed.

(2) All determinations of permanent disabilities shall be made by the department. Either the worker, employer, or self-insurer may make a request or such inquiry may be initiated by the director on his or her own motion. Such determinations shall be required in every instance where permanent disability is likely to be present. All medical reports and other pertinent information in the possession of or under the control of the employer or self-insurer shall be forwarded to the director with such requests.

(3) A request for determination of permanent disability shall be examined by the department and an order shall issue in accordance with RCW 51.52.050.

(4) The department may require that the worker present himself or herself for a special medical examination by a physician, or physicians, selected by the department, and the department may require that the worker present himself or herself for a personal interview. In such event the costs of such examination or interview, including payment of any reasonable travel expenses, shall be paid by the department or self-insurer as the case may be.

(5) The director may establish a medical bureau within the department to perform medical examinations under this section. Physicians hired or retained for this purpose shall be grounded in industrial medicine and in the assessment of industrial physical impairment. Self-insurers shall bear a proportionate share of the cost of such medical bureau in a manner to be determined by the department.

(6) Where dispute arises from the handling of any claims prior to the condition of the injured worker becoming fixed, the worker, employer, or self-insurer may request the department to resolve the dispute or the director may initiate an inquiry on his or her own motion. In such cases the department shall proceed as provided in this section and an order shall issue in accordance with RCW 51.52.050.

(7) (a) In the case of claims accepted by self-insurers after June 30, 1986, and before July 1, ~~(1988)~~ 1990, which involve only medical treatment and/or the payment of temporary disability compensation under RCW 51.32.090 and which at the time medical treatment is concluded do not involve permanent disability, if the claim is one with respect to which the department has not intervened under subsection (6) of this section, and the injured worker has returned to work with the self-insured employer of record, such claims may be closed by the self-insurer, subject to reporting of claims to the department in a manner prescribed by department rules adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW.

(b) All determinations of permanent disability for claims accepted by self-insurers after June 30, 1986, and before July 1, ~~((1988))~~ 1990, shall be made by the self-insured section of the department under subsections (1) through (4) of this section.

(c) Upon closure of claims under (a) of this subsection the self-insurer shall enter a written order, communicated to the worker and the department self-insurance section, which contains the following statement clearly set forth in bold face type: "This order constitutes notification that your claim is being closed with medical benefits and temporary disability compensation only as provided, and with the condition you have returned to work with the self-insured employer. If for any reason you disagree with the conditions or duration of your return to work or the medical benefits or the temporary disability compensation that has been provided, you may protest in writing to the department of labor and industries, self-insurance section, within sixty days of the date you received this order." In the event the department receives such a protest the self-insurer's closure order shall be held in abeyance. The department shall review the claim closure action and enter a determinative order as provided for in RCW 51.52.050.

(d) If within two years of claim closure the department determines that the self-insurer has made payment of benefits because of clerical error, mistake of identity, or innocent misrepresentation, or the department discovers a violation of the conditions of claim closure, the department may require the self-insurer to correct the benefits paid or payable. This paragraph shall not limit in any way the application of RCW 51.32.240.

(8) In the case of claims accepted by self-insurers after June 30, ~~((1988))~~ 1990, which involve only medical treatment and which do not involve payment of temporary disability compensation under RCW 51.32.090 and which at the time medical treatment is concluded do not involve permanent disability, such claims may be closed by the self-insurers subject to reporting of claims to the department in a manner prescribed by department rules promulgated pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. Upon such closure the self-insurers shall enter a written order, communicated to the worker, which contains the following statement clearly set forth in bold-face type: "This order constitutes notification that your claim is being closed with medical benefits only, as provided. If for any reason you disagree with this closure, you may protest in writing to the Department of Labor and Industries, Olympia, within 60 days of the date you received this order. The department will then review your claim and enter a further determinative order." In the event the department receives such a protest it shall review the claim and enter a further determinative order as provided for in RCW 51.52.050.

Sec. 14. Section 2, chapter 55, Laws of 1986 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

The department of labor and industries shall conduct a study of the program established by section 1 of this act. The study shall be funded by a special assessment on all self-insured employers. The study and the special assessment shall be conducted under department rules adopted pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. The department shall make periodic reports on the study to the joint select committee on industrial insurance, or to the commerce and labor committees of the senate and house of representatives, or the appropriate successor committees, and to the workers' compensation advisory committee. The initial report shall be made by January 1, 1987, with quarterly reports made thereafter. A final report shall be made to the legislature at the commencement of the 1988 regular legislative session.

This section shall expire on July 1, ~~((1988))~~ 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 51.32 RCW to read as follows:

The increases in benefits in RCW 51.32.050, 51.32.060, 51.32.090, and 51.32.180, contained in chapter ... (EHB 1396), Laws of 1988 do not affect a retrospective rating agreement entered into by any employer with the department before July 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The department shall adopt a rule pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW that claims based on mental conditions or mental disabilities caused by stress do not fall within the definition of occupational disease in RCW 51.08.140.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Section 4 of this act shall take effect on June 30, 1989. Sections 1, 2, 3, and 6 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1988."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Economic Development and Labor amendment, as amended, to Engrossed House Bill No. 1396.

The motion by Senator Lee carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Lee, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1 of the bill, line 1 of the title, after "benefits;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 51.32.050, 51.32.180, 51.32.080, 51.32.090, 51.32.075, 51.44.080, 51.32.095, 51.32.250, 51.32.160, 51.08.178, and 51.32.055; amending section 2, chapter 55, Laws of 1986 (uncodified); reenacting and amending RCW 51.32.060; reenacting RCW 51.32.090; adding a new section to chapter 51.32 RCW; creating a new section; and providing effective dates."

On motion of Senator Lee, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1396, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator McMullen, is the intent that the language on page 22, beginning on line 28, which establishes the wage base on any twelve successive calendar months preceding the injury, which fairly represents the claimant's employment pattern, means the claimant's current employment pattern?"

Senator McMullen: "Yes."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1396, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1396, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 42.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, McCaslin, McDonald, Sellar - 7.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1396, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1655, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Peery, Betrozoff, Grimm, H. Sommers, Walker and D. Sommers)

Specifying the uses of capital funds by school districts.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Bailey moved that the following Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 325, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 103, chapter 2, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.053 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and RCW 84.52.043 shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes by school districts, when authorized so to do by the electors of such school district in the manner ~~((and for the purposes and number of years allowable under))~~ set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 79 and as thereafter amended, at a special or general election to be held in the first year in which the levy is made ~~((or, in the case of a proposition authorizing two-year levies for maintenance and operation support of a school district or authorizing two-year through six-year levies to support the construction, modernization, or remodeling of school facilities, or both, at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the first annual levy is made: PROVIDED, That))~~.

(2) Additional taxes authorized by this section are limited to:

(a) Levies for a maximum of two years for the purposes of maintenance and operation support of a school district. Tax revenues from such levies shall be deposited in the district's general fund established under RCW 28A.58.441(1). Once an additional tax ((levies have)) levy has been authorized for maintenance and operation support of a school district ((for a two-year period)), no further additional tax levies for maintenance and operation support of the district for ((that period)) any year of the levy may be authorized.

(b) Levies for a maximum of six years for construction, modernization, or remodeling of school facilities. Tax revenues from such levies shall be deposited in the district's capital projects fund established under RCW 28A.58.441(2). In the case of levies authorized by the electors after February 2, 1988, such tax revenues may not be used for any additional purpose other than the purchase and installation of fixtures, fittings, furnishings, and service systems incidental to the construction, modernization, or remodeling of a facility, except to the extent that the aggregate cost of the purchase and installation of portable equipment and furniture incidental to the construction, modernization, or remodeling of such facility does not exceed twenty percent of the total cost of the project.

(c) Levies for one year for the purposes enumerated under RCW 28A.58.441(2). Tax revenues from such levies shall be deposited in the district's capital projects fund established under RCW 28A.58.441(2).

(d) Levies for one year for the purchase or major repair of pupil transportation vehicles. Tax revenues from such levies shall be deposited in the district's transportation vehicle fund established under RCW 28A.58.428.

(3) A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the board of school directors, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote "yes" and those opposed thereto to vote "no".

(4) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Modernization" means major structural changes in existing facilities as defined in RCW 28A.47.073.

(b) "Portable equipment or furniture" means any readily movable item, such as a personal computer and associated or peripheral software and hardware, instructional materials and equipment, or furniture, which is not a fixture.

(c) "Facility" means a building or building complex, a portion of a building, or a permanent athletic structure.

(d) "Total cost of the project" means the sum of the costs of construction, modernization, or remodeling of the facility and the aggregate cost of the purchase and installation of portable equipment and furniture incidental thereto, but shall not include costs of land acquisition and site preparation.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 250, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 13, chapter 59, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28A.58.441 are each amended to read as follows:

School districts shall establish the following funds in addition to those provided elsewhere by law:

(1) A general fund for maintenance and operation of the school district to account for all financial operations of the school district except those required to be accounted for in another fund.

(2) A capital projects fund shall be established for major capital purposes. All statutory references to a "building fund" shall mean the capital projects fund so established. Money to be deposited into the capital projects fund shall include, but not be limited to, bond proceeds, proceeds from excess levies authorized by RCW 84.52.053, state apportionment proceeds as authorized by RCW 28A.41.143, and earnings from capital projects fund investments as authorized by RCW 28A.58.435 and 28A.58.440.

Money derived from the sale of bonds, including interest earnings thereof, may only be used for those purposes described in RCW 28A.51.010, except that accrued interest paid for bonds shall be deposited in the debt service fund.

Money to be deposited in the capital projects fund shall include tax revenues derived from multi-year levies for construction, modernization, or remodeling of school facilities, and such revenues may only be used for those purposes described in RCW 84.52.053(2)(b).

Money to be deposited into the capital projects fund shall include but not be limited to rental and lease proceeds as authorized by RCW 28A.58.035, and proceeds from the sale of real property as authorized by RCW 28A.58.0461.

Money legally deposited into the capital projects fund from other sources may be used for the purposes described in RCW 28A.51.010, and for the purposes of:

(a) Major renovation, including the replacement of facilities and systems where periodical repairs are no longer economical. Major renovation and replacement shall include, but shall not be limited to, roofing, heating and ventilating systems, floor covering, and electrical systems.

(b) Renovation and rehabilitation of playfields, athletic fields, and other district real property.

(c) The conduct of preliminary energy audits and energy audits of school district buildings. For the purpose of this section:

(i) "Preliminary energy audits" means a determination of the energy consumption characteristics of a building, including the size, type, rate of energy consumption, and major energy using systems of the building.

(ii) "Energy audit" means a survey of a building or complex which identifies the type, size, energy use level, and major energy using systems; which determines appropriate energy conservation maintenance or operating procedures and assesses any need for the acquisition and installation of energy conservation measures, including solar energy and renewable resource measures.

(iii) "Energy capital improvement" means the installation, or modification of the installation, of energy conservation measures in a building which measures are primarily intended to reduce energy consumption or allow the use of an alternative energy source.

(d) Those energy capital improvements which are identified as being cost-effective in the audits authorized by this section.

(e) Purchase or installation of additional major items of equipment and furniture: PROVIDED, That vehicles shall not be purchased with capital projects fund money.

(3) A debt service fund to provide for tax proceeds, other revenues, and disbursements as authorized in chapter 39.44 RCW.

(4) An associated student body fund as authorized by RCW 28A.58.120.

(5) Advance refunding bond funds and refunded bond funds to provide for the proceeds and disbursements as authorized in chapter 39.53 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Bender, the following amendment to the Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

On page 7, line 12 of the committee amendment, after "money," insert:

"(f) Relocation of portable or temporary buildings owned or leased by the district including the expense of preparation, moving, and set-up of such structure."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Education amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Bailey carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1655, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1655, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1655, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; absent, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 48.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1655, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1684 and the pending amendment by Senators McCaslin and Pullen on page 6, line 11, to the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendment, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Kreidler, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1684 is a measure which directs the Department of Ecology to conduct a solid waste stream analysis and evaluation and to report to the Joint Select Committee on Preferred Solid Waste Management and the Legislature, and, with Senator Hansen's amendment, includes 'drop boxes' within the definition of 'transfer stations' and exempts certain collections of solid waste by county equipment from regulation by the Utilities and Transportation Commission.

"The amendment proposed by Senators McCaslin and Pullen to the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendment would require governmental entities to have in place a waste reduction and recycling plan before contracting with a vendor or acquiring a site for a municipal solid waste energy recovery or incineration facility and would define mandatory aspects of such plans.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment to the committee amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators McCaslin and Pullen to the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1684 was ruled out of order.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator von Reichbauer moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senator Hansen on page 4, after line 10, to the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1684 was adopted earlier today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1455, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1455, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1455, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 20.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Gaspard, Halsan, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Madsen, McMullen, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vogt, von Reichbauer, Warmke, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 29.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Garrett, Hansen, Hayner, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Pullen, Sellar, West, Williams - 20.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1455, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, may I raise the issue of Article VIII, Section 1 (h) of the Constitution, which says, 'the Legislature shall prescribe all matters relating to the contracting, funding or refunding of debt pursuant to this section including: The purposes for which debt may be contracted by a favorable vote of three-fifths of the members elected to each house.' I would think that we are talking about the matters for which debt may be contracted and it should require a sixty percent vote."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Mr. President. My recollection is the President has ruled that when it is a bond bill, which is indeed a bill relating to debt that Senator Newhouse is correct, that sixty percent is required, but the expenditure of that money in a capitol budget, my recollection is that the President has always ruled that twenty-five votes are required--a simple majority. There is no debt issuance in this particular bill and, therefore, the super majority would not be required."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NELSON

Senator Nelson: "I would like the President to consider, that with the Patterson amendment dealing with the higher education account, which is now changed and does have bonding in it, that this measure does have a bonding source that requires the sixty percent affirmative vote of this body. Had there not been that amendment, this particular measure would have gone on fifty percent."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "To the best of my knowledge, there are no bonds in this particular measure. Therefore, twenty-five votes are all that are necessary."

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1660 and the pending amendment by Senators Owen, Wojahn and Nelson on page 3, line 26, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator McCaslin, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1660 is a measure establishing the motorcycle skills education program by the Department of Licensing.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Owen, Wojahn and Nelson requires persons who ride motorcycles or motor-driven cycles to wear protective helmets.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Owen, Wojahn and Nelson to Substitute Senate Bill No. 1660 was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1660, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1660, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1660, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 48.

Voting nay: Senator Owen - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1660, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 6:04 p.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Monday, March 7, 1988.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.
GORDON A. GOLOB, Secretary of the Senate.

FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Monday, March 7, 1988

The Senate was called to order at 9:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Anderson, Bender, Bluechel, Cantu, McMullen, Moore, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Smith, Warnke, West, Williams and Wojahn.

The Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, consisting of Pages Leah Durant and Mike Kreidler, presented the Colors. Reverend Ronald Gadde, pastor of the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church of Olympia, offered the prayer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SECOND READING

CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

MOTION

On motion of Senator Saling, Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9175, Marjorie Trevarthen, as a member of the Board of Trustees for the State School for the Deaf, was confirmed.

MOTION

At 9:11 a.m., on motion of Senator Hayner, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 9:41 a.m. by President Cherberg.

There being no objection, the President reverted the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 1, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5595 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known as the "Washington self-service storage facility act."

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. For the purposes of this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Self-service storage facility" means any real property designed and used for the purpose of renting or leasing individual storage space to occupants who are to have access to the space for the purpose of storing and removing personal property on a self-service basis, but does not include a garage or other storage area in a private residence. No occupant may use a self-service storage facility for residential purposes.

(2) "Owner" means the owner, operator, lessor, or sublessor of a self-service storage facility, his or her agent, or any other person authorized by him or her to manage the facility, or to receive rent from an occupant under a rental agreement.

(3) "Occupant" means a person, or his or her sublessee, successor, or assign, who is entitled to the use of the storage space at a self-service storage facility under a rental agreement, to the exclusion of others.

(4) "Rental agreement" means any written agreement or lease which establishes or modifies the terms, conditions, rules or any other provision concerning the use and occupancy of a self-service storage facility.

(5) "Personal property" means movable property not affixed to land, and includes, but is not limited to, goods, merchandise, furniture, and household items.

(6) "Last known address" means that address provided by the occupant in the latest rental agreement, or the address provided by the occupant in a subsequent written notice of a change of address.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The owner of a self-service storage facility and his or her heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns have a lien upon all personal property located at a self-service storage facility for rent, labor, or other charges, present or future, incurred pursuant to the rental agreement, and for expenses necessary for the preservation, sale, or disposition of personal property subject to this chapter. The lien may be enforced consistent with this chapter. However, any lien on a motor vehicle or boat which has attached and is set forth in the documents of title to the motor vehicle or boat shall have priority over any lien created pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. When any part of the rent or other charges due from an occupant remains unpaid for six consecutive days, and the rental agreement so provides, an owner may deny the occupant access to the storage space at a self-service storage facility.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. When any part of the rent or other charges due from an occupant remains unpaid for fourteen consecutive days, an owner may terminate the right of the occupant to the use of the storage space at a self-service storage facility by sending a notice to the occupant's last known address, and to the alternative address specified in section 15(2) of this act, by first class mail, postage prepaid, containing all of the following:

(1) An itemized statement of the owner's claim showing the sums due at the time of the notice and the date when the sums become due.

(2) A statement that the occupant's right to use the storage space will terminate on a specified date (not less than fourteen days after the mailing of the notice) unless all sums due and to become due by that date are paid by the occupant prior to the specified date.

(3) A notice that the occupant may be denied or continue to be denied, as the case may be, access to the storage space after the termination date if the sums are not paid, and that an owner's lien, as provided for in section 3 of this act may be imposed thereafter.

(4) The name, street address, and telephone number of the owner, or his or her designated agent, whom the occupant may contact to respond to the notice.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A notice in substantially the following form shall satisfy the requirements of section 5 of this act:

"PRELIMINARY LIEN NOTICE
to _____ (occupant)
_____ (address)
_____ (state)

You owe and have not paid rent and/or other charges for the use of storage (space number) at (name and address of storage facility).

Charges that have been due for more than fourteen days and accruing on or before (date) are itemized as follows:

DUE DATE	DESCRIPTION	AMOUNT TOTAL $ _____
----------	-------------	--------------------------

IF this sum is not paid in full before
(date at least fourteen days from mailing)

your right to use the storage space will terminate, you may be denied, or continue to be denied, access and an owner's lien on any stored property will be imposed. You may pay the sum due and contact the owner at:

(Name) _____
(Address) _____
(State) _____
(Telephone) _____
(Date) _____

(Owner's Signature) _____

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. If a notice has been sent, as required by section 5 of this act, and the total sum due has not been paid as of the date specified in the preliminary lien notice, the lien imposed by this chapter attaches as of that date and the owner may deny an occupant access to the space, enter the space, and remove any property found therein to a place of safe keeping. The owner shall then send to the occupant, addressed to the occupant's last known address and to the alternative address specified in section 15(2) of this act by certified mail, postage prepaid, all of the following:

(1) A notice of lien sale which shall state all of the following:

(a) That the occupant's right to use the storage space has terminated and that the occupant no longer has access to the stored property.

(b) That the stored property is subject to a lien, and the amount of the lien accrued and to accrue prior to the date required to be specified in (c) of this subsection.

(c) That the property may be sold to satisfy the lien after a specified date which is not less than fourteen days from the date of mailing the notice unless the amount of the lien is paid or the occupant executes and returns by certified mail a declaration under penalty of perjury in opposition to the lien sale in the form set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

(d) That any excess proceeds of the sale over the lien amount and costs of sale and any personal papers and personal effects will be retained by the owner and may be reclaimed by the occupant, or claimed by another person, at any time for a period of one year from the sale and that thereafter the proceeds and personal papers and effects will be turned over to the state as abandoned property.

(e) That the occupant within one year after the date of the sale may repurchase from any purchaser any of the occupant's property sold pursuant to section 10 of this act at the price paid by the purchaser.

(2) A blank declaration in opposition to the lien sale which shall be substantially the following form:

DECLARATION IN OPPOSITION TO LIEN SALE

I, _____ (occupant's name), have received the notice of lien sale of the property stored at _____ (location and space). I oppose the lien sale of the property. My address is:

_____ (address)

_____ (city)

_____ (zip)

I understand that the lienholder may file an action in court against me, and if a judgment is given in his or her favor, I may be liable for the court costs. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this declaration was signed by me on _____ (date) at _____ (place).

_____ (signature of occupant)

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. If a declaration in opposition to the lien sale, executed under penalty of perjury, is not received prior to the date of sale set forth in the notice of lien sale, and if the reasonable aggregate value of the property is less than one hundred dollars, the owner may donate the property to a charitable organization exempt from federal income tax under the federal internal revenue code.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. If a declaration in opposition to the lien sale, executed under penalty of perjury, is not received prior to the date of sale set forth in the notice of lien sale, the owner may, subject to sections 11 and 12 of this act, sell the property upon complying with the requirements set forth in section 10 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. (1) After the expiration of the time given in the notice of lien sale pursuant to section 7 of this act, an advertisement of the sale shall be published once a week for two weeks consecutively in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, city, or town where the self-service storage facility is located and the sale is to be held. The advertisement shall include a general description of the goods, the name of the person on whose account they are being stored, the space number of the occupant, and the name and the location of the storage facility. If there is no newspaper of general circulation in the county, city, or town where the self-service storage facility is located and where the sale is to be held, the advertisement shall be posted at least ten days before the sale in not less than six conspicuous places in the neighborhood of the proposed sale.

(2) The sale shall be conducted in a commercially reasonable manner, and, after deducting the amount of the lien and costs of sale, the owner shall retain any excess proceeds of the sale on the occupant's behalf. The occupant, or any other person having a court order or other judicial process against the property, may claim the excess proceeds, or a portion thereof sufficient to satisfy the particular claim, at any time within one year of the date of sale.

(3) No employee or owner, or family member of an employee or owner, may acquire, directly or indirectly, the property sold at a lien sale authorized under this chapter.

(4) After the sale has been completed, the owner shall provide an accounting of the disposition of the proceeds of the sale to the occupant at the occupant's last known address and at the alternative address.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. Any person who has a perfected security interest under Article 62A.9 RCW of the uniform commercial code may claim any personal property subject to the security interest and subject to a lien pursuant to this chapter by paying the total amount due, as specified in the lien notices, for the storage of the property, if no declaration of opposition to the lien sale is executed and returned by the occupant. Upon payment of the total amount due, the owner shall deliver possession of the particular property subject to the security interest to the person who paid the total amount due. The owner shall not be liable to any person for any action taken pursuant to this section if the owner has fully complied with sections 6 and 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. Prior to any sale pursuant to section 9 of this act, any person claiming a right to the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reasonable expenses incurred for particular actions taken pursuant to this chapter. In that event, the goods shall not be sold, but shall be retained by the owner subject to the terms of this chapter pending a court order directing a particular disposition of the property.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. If a declaration in opposition to the lien sale is received prior to the date set forth in the notice of lien sale, the owner may enforce the lien as follows:

(1) A civil action to enforce the owner's lien shall be commenced by the filing of a verified complaint setting forth the facts upon which the claim of lien is based. The summons and complaint shall be served in the manner provided for by court rule.

(2) If the occupant has not responded to the complaint by answer within the time allowed after service is completed, the court, upon application of the owner, shall enter the default of the occupant, and thereafter, the owner may apply to the court for judgment in the amount of the lien, including costs.

(3) Any judgment entered on the action on the lien in favor of the owner may be enforced by sale of the property by the owner. The sale shall be conducted in a commercially reasonable manner, and shall take place ten days or more from the entry of judgment, unless within that time period, or at any time prior to the sale, the occupant pays to the owner the full amount of the judgment.

(4) Enforcement of the judgment may be stayed, pending appeal, by the posting of a bond by the occupant in an amount one and one-half times the amount of the judgment, in which case the property may be released to the occupant.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to enforce a lien or judgment entered on the lien in favor of the owner on goods stored at a self-service storage facility takes the goods free of any rights of persons against whom the lien was claimed, despite non-compliance by the owner of the storage facility with this chapter. However, the purchaser shall return the goods to the owner of the property if the owner tenders the purchase price plus any costs incurred by the purchaser within one year of the date of the purchase.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. (1) Each contract for the rental or lease of individual storage space in a self-service storage facility shall be in writing and shall contain, in addition to the provisions otherwise required or permitted by law to be included, a statement requiring the occupant to disclose any lienholders or secured parties who have an interest in the property that is or will be stored in the self-service storage facility, a statement that the occupant's property will be subject to a claim of lien and may even be sold to satisfy the lien if the rent or other charges due remain unpaid for fourteen consecutive days, and that such actions are authorized by this chapter.

(2) This chapter shall not apply, and the lien authorized by this chapter shall not attach, unless the rental agreement requests, and provides space for, the occupant to give the name and address of another person to whom the preliminary lien notice and subsequent notices required to be given under this chapter may be sent. Notices sent pursuant to section 5 or 7 of this act shall be sent to the occupant's address and the alternative address, if both addresses are provided by the occupant. Failure of an occupant to provide an alternative address shall not affect an owner's remedies under this chapter or under any other provision of law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. Any insurance protecting the personal property stored within the storage space against fire, theft, or damage must be provided by the occupant and shall not be the responsibility of the owner.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. Nothing in this chapter may be construed to impair or affect the right of the parties to create additional rights, duties, and obligations in and by virtue of the rental agreement. The rights provided by this chapter shall be in addition to all other rights provided by law to a creditor against his or her debtor.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. This chapter shall only apply to rental agreements entered into, extended, or renewed after the effective date of this section. Rental agreements entered into before the effective date of this section which provide for monthly rental payments but providing no specific termination date shall be subject to this chapter on the first monthly rental payment date next succeeding the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. All rental agreements entered into before the effective date of this section, and not extended or renewed after that date, or otherwise made subject to this chapter pursuant to section 18 of this act, and the rights, duties, and interests flowing from them, shall remain valid, and may be enforced or terminated in accordance with their terms or as permitted by any other statute or law of this state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. If an owner issues any warehouse receipt, bill of lading, or other document of title for the personal property stored, the owner and the occupant are subject to Article 62A.7 RCW (commencing with RCW 62A.7-101) of the uniform commercial code and this chapter does not apply.

Sec. 21. Section 6, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 4, chapter 324, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.11.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person to act as an auctioneer or for an auction company to engage in any business in this state without a license.

(2) This chapter does not apply to:

- (a) An auction of goods conducted by an individual who personally owns those goods and who did not acquire those goods for resale;
- (b) An auction conducted by or under the direction of a public authority;
- (c) An auction held under judicial order in the settlement of a decedent's estate;
- (d) An auction which is required by law to be at auction;
- (e) An auction conducted by or on behalf of a political organization or a charitable corporation or association if the person conducting the sale receives no compensation; ((or))
- (f) An auction of livestock or agricultural products which is conducted under chapter 16.65 or 20.01 RCW. Auctions not regulated under chapter 16.65 or 20.01 RCW shall be fully subject to the provisions of this chapter; or
- (g) An auction held under chapter 19.-- RCW (sections 1 through 20 of this 1988 act).

Sec. 22. Section 3, chapter 252, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 9, chapter 370, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.85.110 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to (1) any person who purchases property and/or a business opportunity for his own account, or that of a group of which he is a member, or who, as the owner or part owner of property, and/or a business opportunity, in any way disposes of the same; nor, (2) any duly authorized attorney in fact, or an attorney at law in the performance of his duties; nor, (3) any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, executor, administrator, guardian, or any person acting under the order of any court, or selling under a deed of trust; nor, (4) any secretary, bookkeeper, accountant, or other office personnel who does not engage in any conduct or activity specified in any of the definitions under RCW 18.85.010; nor, (5) any owner of rental or lease property, members of the owner's family whether or not residing on such property, or a resident manager of a complex of residential dwelling units wherein such manager resides; nor, (6) any person who manages residential dwelling units on an incidental basis and not as his principal source of income so long as that person does not advertise or hold himself out to the public by any oral or printed solicitation or representation that he is so engaged; nor, (7) only with respect to the rental or lease of individual storage space; any person who owns or manages a self-service storage facility as defined under chapter 19.-- RCW (sections 1 through 20 of this 1988 act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 63.29 RCW to read as follows:

The personal papers and personal effects held by the owner and the excess proceeds of a sale conducted pursuant to section 10 of this act by an owner of a self-storage facility to satisfy the lien and costs of storage which are not claimed by the occupant of the storage space or any other person which remains unclaimed for more than one year are presumed abandoned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Sections 1 through 20 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "facilities;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 18.11.070 and 18.85.110; adding a new section to chapter 63.29 RCW; and adding a new chapter to Title 19 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lee, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5595 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6124 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds and declares that the social and economic well-being of the people of rural areas of Washington is closely related to the state's rural health care delivery system. Demographic, economic, and financial changes have greatly affected the viability of rural health care providers. These providers include, but are not limited to, hospitals, health clinics, community clinics, nursing homes, home health providers, and individual providers. The problems faced by rural health care providers include erratic fluctuations or general decline in rural economies, the aging of the rural population, older physical plants, lack of health care professionals, and inappropriate or burdensome regulations, facility standards, and licensure requirements.

(2) Rural health providers help ensure access to and the availability of preventive, primary, and emergency health care services to rural residents and tourist populations in rural areas. A large percentage of rural health resources are used to provide services to government-sponsored patients. The availability of health care services in rural areas is essential to the integrity of the medicare and medicaid programs;

(3) Rural health providers affect the economic well-being of rural areas. Not only are these facilities a source of employment for rural residents, but also the existence of health care services in a rural community is important to its economic development and ability to attract businesses;

(4) Government regulations and standards for facility and professional licensure and certification are typically appropriate to urban facilities and are, in some cases, inordinately burdensome for rural health care facilities. Such regulations and standards can create barriers to the delivery of innovative, efficient, and cost-effective health care services to better meet the health needs of the rural communities; and

(5) The changing environment in health care delivery has changed how and where health care is provided and includes an increased emphasis on outpatient services, preventive care, home health care, and community-based care. Rural communities need to consider restructuring the delivery of health care services to insure continued availability of adequate community-based health care. Coordination among providers is essential to facilitate the planning necessary to maintain a viable health care delivery system within rural areas of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) There is created the Washington rural health care commission composed of eleven members; two members shall be the chair and ranking minority member from the senate health care and corrections committee and two members shall be the chair and ranking minority member from the house of representatives health care committee.

(2) The legislative members of the commission shall select seven public members, to serve on the commission, that are representative of rural health care professionals, rural health care providers, those directly involved in the purchase, provision, or delivery of rural health care services, industry, consumers, and those knowledgeable of the ethical issues involved with rural health care public policy. The chairs of the senate health care and corrections committee and the house of representatives health care committee shall jointly chair the commission. The ranking minority members of these committees shall jointly vice-chair the commission. The legislative members shall serve as the executive committee.

(3) The commission may hire staff or contract for professional assistance with funds made available for their activities. To the extent possible, the department of social and health services, the department of community development, the house of representatives, and the senate shall provide staff support. The commission may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and services, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to health care costs or access to health care.

(4) The public members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their service as members, but shall be reimbursed for their expenses while attending any meetings of the commission in the same manner as legislators engaged in interim committee business as specified in RCW 44.04.120.

(5) The commission may establish ad hoc technical advisory committees to assist it with any particular matters deemed necessary and any person serving in such capacity may be reimbursed for their expenses while attending any meetings of such committee or the commission in the same manner as public members of the commission. To the extent possible, the department of social and health services, the department of community development, the department of trade and economic development, the department of employment security, the state health coordinating council, and other state agencies shall assist the commission in performing its responsibilities.

(6) The commission shall:

(a) Review current statutes and regulations governing the provision of rural health services, including the licensure, certification, and operation of rural health providers, including hospitals, health districts, rural health clinics, rural community health centers, and rural ambulatory surgical centers. The purpose of the review shall be to identify barriers to cost-effective and efficient health care delivery that are created by statute or regulation. The review shall include, but not be limited to:

(i) Licensure and certification survey processes conducted by both federal and state agencies;

(ii) Processes for review and approval of proposed facility construction or remodeling or establishing new services;

(iii) Mandated personnel requirements; and

(iv) Mandatory information gathering and reporting requirements;

(b) Review issues that affect the current delivery of rural health care. This review shall include, but not be limited to:

(i) Determination of basic health care services to be available to rural residents;

(ii) The need for and availability of emergency and nonemergency transportation to medical care facilities;

- (iii) The need for and availability of appropriate health care providers;
- (iv) Health care financing;
- (v) Coordination among private and public health care providers on a local, regional, and state-wide basis; and
- (vi) Use of modern telecommunications between rural and regional and urban medical care centers to facilitate better diagnosis and treatment of patients in rural facilities and for use in training rural health care providers;
- (c) Establish operational guidelines or standards for a model alternative rural health facility. The standards shall include, but are not limited to:
 - (i) The basic array of health services that is appropriate in rural areas;
 - (ii) Minimum staffing requirements for safe, efficient, and effective operation of these services, commensurate with community practice standards; and
 - (iii) Other such requirements for operation as the commission deems appropriate to establish minimum standards for licensure;
- (d) Develop measurements of the economic impact of rural health care facilities on the communities that they serve. The purpose of the study shall be to establish the role health facilities play in determining the economic viability and development of rural communities;
- (e) Review the impact of existing government payment policies and methods on rural health facilities. The purpose of the review shall be to identify current payment practices or standards, make recommendations for change as appropriate, and establish guidelines for payment to model rural health facilities as described in this section; and
- (f) Recommend, as deemed appropriate by the commission, that the department of social and health services convey to the federal health care financing administration interest in testing new models of institutional health care delivery in rural areas, and seek such waivers as may be necessary and appropriate to such demonstrations.
- (7) The commission shall coordinate its activities with the study of trauma care services authorized by Second Substitute House Bill No. 1713 and other health care policy studies conducted during the commission's term.
- (8) The commission shall submit a report to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 1988. The report shall include such findings of the commission as are related to the responsibilities identified in this section. The report shall make recommendations to the legislature regarding changes to licensure, certification, and payment systems that will enhance the likelihood that high quality rural health care delivery occurs in a cost-effective and efficient manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 70.14 RCW to read as follows:

The department of social and health services shall compile and make available to the public information regarding medicare health care facility certification options available to hospitals licensed under this title that desire to convert to nonhospital health care facilities. The information provided shall include standards and requirements for certification and procedures for acquiring certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of community development, department of trade and economic development, department of employment security, and department of social and health services are expected to use their present resources and staffing to carry out the requirements of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall expire on December 31, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 and 2 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "health care;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 70.14 RCW; creating new sections; providing an expiration date; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 4, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6160 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 212, chapter 525, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.70.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education shall adopt rules providing that all individuals qualifying for an initial-level teaching certificate after August 31, 1992, shall possess a baccalaureate degree in the arts, sciences, and/or humanities and have fulfilled the requirements for teacher certification pursuant to RCW 28A.04.120 (1) and (2); PROVIDED, That the state board of education shall develop baccalaureate degree equivalency standards for certification of vocational instructors. However, candidates for grades preschool through six certificates shall have fulfilled the requirements for a major as part of their baccalaureate degree. If the major is in early childhood education, elementary education, or special education, the candidate must have at least thirty quarter hours or twenty semester hours in one academic field.

(2) The state board of education shall study the impact of eliminating the major in education under subsection (1) of this section and submit a report to the legislature by January 15, 1990. The report shall include a recommendation on whether the major in education under subsection (1) of this section should be eliminated.

(3) The initial certificate shall be valid for two years.

(4) Certificate holders may renew the certificate for a three-year period by providing proof of acceptance and enrollment in an approved masters degree program. A second renewal, for a period of two years, may be granted upon recommendation of the degree-granting institution and if the certificate holder can demonstrate substantial progress toward the completion of the masters degree and that the degree will be completed within the two-year extension period. Under no circumstances may an initial certificate be valid for a period of more than seven years.

Sec. 2. Section 215, chapter 525, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.70.042 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education shall implement rules providing that all teachers performing instructional duties and acquiring professional level certificate status after August 31, 1992, shall possess, as a requirement of professional status, a masters degree in teaching, or a masters degree in the arts, sciences, and/or humanities.

(2) The state board of education shall develop and adopt rules establishing masters degree equivalency standards for vocational instructors performing instructional duties and acquiring professional level certification after August 31, 1992.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6160 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6220 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the unavailability of capital to viable firms that do not meet current commercial bank or venture capital criteria for loans or equity investments can have a devastating impact on the state's economic development efforts. Without reasonable access to financing, talented and aggressive entrepreneurs are cut out of the economic system and the overall economy of the state suffers.

The process of job creation and economic development requires readily available capital for small and young companies that are the major source of innovations and new jobs. To ensure the availability of capital to entrepreneurs in Washington state, the legislature hereby eliminates unnecessary restrictions which have discouraged the formation of business and industrial development corporations under current law.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((As used in this chapter, the following words and phrases, unless differently defined or described, shall have the meanings and references as follows))~~ Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) Corporation means a Washington business and industrial development corporation created under this chapter.

(2) Financial institution means any banking corporation or trust company, national banking association, savings and loan association, insurance company or related corporation, partnership, foundation, or other institution engaged primarily in lending or investing funds.

~~(3) ((Member means any financial institution authorized to do business within this state which shall undertake to lend money to a corporation created under this chapter, upon its call, and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.~~

~~(4))~~ Board of directors means the board of directors of the corporation created under this chapter.

~~((5) Loan limit means for any member, the maximum amount permitted to be outstanding at one time on loans made by such member to the corporation, as determined under the provisions of this chapter.))~~

(4) Business means an individual, proprietorship, joint venture, partnership, trust, business trust, syndicate, association, joint stock company, cooperative, corporation, or any other organization operating in this state, and paying more than fifty percent of its contributions or payments for the purposes of unemployment insurance to this state.

(5) Associate means, if used with respect to a corporation:

(a) A controlling person, director, officer, agent, or advisor of that corporation.

(b) A director, officer, or partner of a person referred to in (a) of this subsection.

(c) A person who controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a person referred to in (a) of this subsection directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries.

(d) Any close relative of any person referred to in (a) of this subsection.

(e) A person of which a person referred to in (a) through (d) of this subsection is a director or officer.

(f) A person in which a person referred to in (a) through (d) of this subsection, or any combination of those persons acting in concert, owns or controls, directly or indirectly, a twenty percent or greater equity interest.

For the purposes of this subsection (5)(f), a person who is in a relationship referred to in this subsection within six months before or after a corporation provides financing assistance shall be considered to be in that relationship as of the date that corporation provides that financing assistance.

If a corporation, in order to protect its interests, designates a person to serve as a director of, officer of, or in any capacity in the management of a business to which that corporation provides financing assistance, that person shall not, on that account, be considered to have a relationship with that business. This exception does not apply if the person has, directly or indirectly, any other financial interest in the business or if the person, at any time before the corporation provides the financing assistance, served as a director of, officer of, or in any other capacity in the management of the business for a period of thirty days or more.

(6) Close relative means a parent, child, sibling, spouse, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, brother-in-law, daughter-in-law, sister-in-law, grandparent, or grandchild.

(7) Supervisor means the state supervisor of banking.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 16, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 31.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Fifteen or more))~~ At least seven but not more than twenty-one persons, a majority of whom shall be residents of this state, who may desire to create ((am)) a business and industrial development corporation under the provisions of this chapter, for the purpose of promoting, developing and advancing the prosperity and economic welfare of the state and, to that end, to exercise the powers and privileges hereinafter provided, may be incorporated by filing in the office of the secretary of state, as hereinafter provided, articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation shall contain:

(1) The name of the corporation, which shall include the words "Business and Industrial Development Corporation of Washington."

(2) The location of the principal office of the corporation, but such corporation may have offices in such other places within the state as may be fixed by the board of directors.

(3) The purposes for which the corporation is founded, which shall be to ((promote, stimulate, develop and advance the business prosperity and economic welfare of Washington and its citizens; to encourage and assist through loans, investments or other business transactions in the location of new business and industry in this state and to rehabilitate and assist existing business and industry; to stimulate and assist in the expansion of all kinds of business activity which will tend to promote the business development and maintain the economic stability of this state; provide maximum opportunities for employment; encourage thrift; and improve the standard of living of citizens of this state; similarly, to cooperate and act in conjunction with other organizations, public or private, in the promotion and advancement of industrial, commercial, agricultural and recreational developments in this state; and to provide financing for the promotion, development, and conduct of all kinds of business activity in this state)) provide moderate risk financing and management assistance to businesses operating primarily in Washington state to increase job opportunities for Washington citizens and the prosperity of the state.

(5) Any provision which the incorporators may choose to insert for the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation and any provision creating, dividing, limiting and regulating the powers of the corporation, the directors, stockholders or any class of the stockholders, including, but not limited to a list of the officers, and provisions governing the issuance of stock certificates to replace lost or destroyed certificates.

(6) The amount of authorized capital stock and the number of shares into which it is divided, the par value of each share and the amount of capital with which it will commence business and, if there is more than one class of stock, a description of the different classes; the names and post office addresses of the subscribers of stock and the number of shares subscribed by each. The aggregate of the subscription shall be the minimum amount of capital with which the corporation shall commence business which shall not be less than ~~((fifty thousand))~~ one million dollars, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. The articles of incorporation may also contain any provision consistent with the laws of this state for the regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

(7) The articles of incorporation shall be in writing, subscribed by not less than five natural persons competent to contract and acknowledged by each of the subscribers before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments and filed in the office of the secretary of state for approval. A duplicate copy so subscribed and acknowledged may also be filed.

(8) The articles of incorporation shall recite that the corporation is organized under the provisions of this chapter.

~~The secretary of state shall not approve articles of incorporation for a corporation organized under this chapter until ((a total of at least ten national banks, state banks, savings banks, industrial savings banks, federal savings and loan associations, domestic building and loan associations, or insurance companies authorized to do business within this state, or any combination thereof, have agreed in writing to become members of said corporation; and said written agreement shall be filed with the secretary of state with the articles of incorporation and the filing of same shall be a condition precedent to the approval of the articles of incorporation by the secretary of state))~~ the state supervisor of banking has certified the corporation as eligible to operate as a business and industrial development corporation under this chapter.

A person transacting business in this state shall not use a name or title which indicates that the person is a business and industrial development corporation including, but not limited to, use of the term "BIDCO," and a person shall not otherwise represent that the person is a business and industrial development corporation until the person has been certified as a business and industrial development corporation.

A corporation shall be certified by the supervisor of banking as eligible to operate under this chapter upon meeting the following conditions:

(a) The corporation has paid a three thousand dollar certification fee to the state supervisor of banking and such other fees or costs as the supervisor establishes by rule;

(b) The corporation has submitted a business plan which includes at least three years of detailed financial projections and other relevant information;

(c) The corporation has provided information about the character and competence of each director and officer of the corporation; and

(d) The supervisor finds that the corporation's officers and directors are capable of running the corporation competently, has a net worth and lendable funds sufficient to provide financing assistance, and that the directors and officers of the corporation have agreed to comply with the terms of this chapter and its intent to facilitate the availability of moderate risk financing to firms in Washington. In making the finding under this subsection, the supervisor of banking shall:

(i) Consult with the director of trade and economic development and the director of community development; and

(ii) Require a minimum net worth of one million dollars and an additional one million dollars in lendable funds or an enforceable pledge for one million dollars in lendable funds, unless the supervisor finds that special circumstances render lesser amounts of net worth or lendable funds adequate for the corporation to meet the intent of this chapter and operate according to its business plan.

Whenever the articles of incorporation shall have been filed in the office of the secretary of state and approved by ~~((him))~~ the secretary and all taxes, fees and charges, have been paid, as required by law, the subscribers, their successors and assigns shall constitute a corporation, and said corporation shall then be authorized to commence business, and stock thereof to the extent herein or hereafter duly authorized may from time to time be issued.

The business of a corporation shall be to provide financing and management assistance to businesses operating primarily in Washington state. In furtherance of its ((purposes)) business and in addition to the powers now or hereafter conferred on business corporations by the provisions of Title 23A RCW, ((the)) each corporation shall, subject to the restrictions and limitations herein contained, have the following powers:

(1) To elect, appoint and employ officers, agents and employees; to make contracts and incur liabilities for any of the purposes of the corporation((-PROVIDED, That the corporation shall not incur any secondary liability by way of guaranty or endorsement of the obligations of any person, firm, corporation, joint stock company, association or trust, or in any other manner)).

(2) To borrow money (~~from its members and the small business administration and any other similar federal agency;~~) for any of the purposes of the corporation; to issue therefor its bonds, debentures, notes or other evidence of indebtedness, whether secured or unsecured, and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust or other lien on its property, franchises, rights and privileges of every kind and nature or any part thereof or interest therein, without securing stockholder (~~or member~~) approval(~~(-PROVIDED, That no loan to the corporation shall be secured in any manner unless all outstanding loans to the corporation shall be secured equally and ratably in proportion to the unpaid balance of such loans and in the same manner).~~).

(3) To make loans to any person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, association or trust, and to establish and regulate the terms and conditions with respect to any such loans and the charges for interest and service connected therewith(~~(-PROVIDED, That the corporation shall not approve any application for a loan unless and until the person applying for said loan shall show that he has applied for the loan through ordinary banking channels and that the loan has been refused by at least one bank or other financial institution).~~).

(4) To purchase, receive, hold, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to sell, convey, transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of real and personal property, together with such rights and privileges as may be incidental and appurtenant thereto and the use thereof, (~~including, but not restricted to, any~~) if the real or personal property is for the corporation's use in operating its business, or if the real or personal property is acquired by the corporation from time to time in the satisfaction of debts or enforcement of obligations.

(5) (~~To acquire the good will, business, rights, real and personal property, and other assets, or any part thereof, or interest therein, of any persons, firms, corporations, joint-stock companies, associations or trusts, and to assume, undertake, or pay the obligations, debts and liabilities of any such person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, association or trust; to acquire improved or unimproved real estate for the purpose of constructing industrial plants or other business establishments thereon or for the purpose of disposing of such real estate to others for the construction of industrial plants or other business establishments; and to acquire, construct or reconstruct, alter, repair, maintain, operate, sell, convey, transfer, lease, or otherwise dispose of industrial plants or business establishments;~~) To determine the form and the terms and conditions for financing assistance provided by the corporation to a business including, but not limited to forms such as loans; purchase of debt instruments; straight equity investments, such as purchase of common stock or preferred stock; debt with equity features such as warrants to purchase stock, convertible debentures, or receipt of a percent of net income or sales; royalty based financing; guaranteeing of debt; or leasing of property. A corporation may purchase securities of a business either directly or indirectly through an underwriter. A corporation may participate in the program of the small business administration pursuant to section 7(a) of the small business act, (Public Law 85-536, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 636(a)), or any other government program for which the corporation is eligible and which has as its function the provision or facilitation of financing or management assistance to businesses. If a corporation participates in a program referred to in this section, the corporation shall comply with the requirements of that program. Financing assistance provided by a corporation to a business shall be for the business purposes of that business.

(6) (~~To acquire, subscribe for, own, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of the stock, shares, bonds, debentures, notes or other securities and evidences of interest in, or indebtedness of, any person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, association or trust, and while the owner or holder thereof to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon;~~) To provide management assistance to a business which may encompass both management or technical advice and management or technical services. Management assistance provided by a corporation to a business shall be for the business purposes of that business.

(7) To mortgage, pledge, or otherwise encumber any property, right or things of value, acquired pursuant to the powers contained in subsection(~~(s)~~) (4)(~~;~~) or (5)(~~-or(6)~~) of this section, as security for the payment of any part of the purchase price thereof.

(8) To cooperate with and avail itself of the facilities of the United States department of commerce(~~(-the department of trade and economic development);~~) and any other similar state or federal governmental agencies; and to cooperate with and assist, and otherwise encourage organizations in the various communities of the state in the promotion, assistance and development of the business prosperity and economic welfare of such communities or of this state or of any part thereof.

(9) To make donations for charitable, educational, research, or similar purposes.

(10) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly granted in this chapter.

Sec. 5, Section 4, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any rule at common law or any provision of any general or special law or any provision in their respective charters, agreements of association, articles of organization or trust indentures:

~~((†)) Any person including all domestic corporations organized for the purpose of carrying on business within this state and further including without implied limitation public utility companies and insurance companies, and foreign corporations licensed to do business within this state, and all financial institutions as defined herein, and all trustees, are hereby authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of any bonds, securities or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, the corporation, and while owners of said stock to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, all without the approval of any regulatory authority of the state except as otherwise provided in this chapter(~~PROVIDED, That a financial institution which does not become a member of the corporation shall not be permitted to acquire any shares of the capital stock of the corporation;~~~~

~~(2) All financial institutions are hereby authorized to become members of the corporation and to make loans to the corporation as provided herein; and~~

~~(3) Each financial institution which becomes a member of the corporation is hereby authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of, any bonds, securities or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, the corporation, and while owners of said stock, to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, all without the approval of any regulatory authority of the state: PROVIDED, That the amount of the capital stock of the corporation which may be acquired by any member pursuant to the authority granted herein shall not exceed ten percent of the loan limit of such member).~~

The amount of capital stock of the corporation which any ~~((member))~~ financial institution is authorized to acquire pursuant to the authority granted herein is in addition to the amount of capital stock in corporations which such ~~((member))~~ financial institution may otherwise be authorized to acquire.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The stockholders ~~((and the members))~~ of the corporation shall have the following powers of the corporation:

- (1) To determine the number of and elect directors as provided in RCW 31.24.090;
- (2) To make, amend and repeal bylaws;
- (3) To amend this charter as provided in RCW 31.24.080;
- (4) To dissolve the corporation as provided in RCW 31.24.150;
- (5) To do all things necessary or desirable to secure aid, assistance, loans and other financing from any financial institutions, and from any agency established under the small business investment act of 1958, public law 85-699, 85th congress, or other similar federal laws now or hereafter enacted.

(6) To exercise such other of the powers of the corporation consistent with this chapter as may be conferred on the stockholders ~~((and the members))~~ by the bylaws.

As to all matters requiring action by the stockholders ~~((and the members))~~ of the corporation, said stockholders ~~((and said members))~~ shall vote separately thereon by classes, and, except as otherwise herein provided, such matters shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes to which the stockholders present or represented at the meeting shall be entitled ~~((and the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes to which the members present or represented at the meeting shall be entitled)).~~

~~((Each))~~ Stockholders shall have one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of capital stock held ~~((by him, and each member shall have one vote, in person or by proxy, except that any member having a loan limit of more than one thousand dollars shall have one additional vote, in person or by proxy, for each additional one thousand dollars which such member is authorized to have outstanding on loans to the corporation at any one time as determined under subsection (3)(b) of RCW 31.24.050)).~~

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The articles of incorporation may be amended by the votes of the stockholders ~~((and the members of the corporation)),~~ voting separately by classes, and such amendments shall require approval by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which the stockholders ~~((shall be entitled and two-thirds of the votes to which the members))~~ shall be entitled: PROVIDED, That no amendment of the articles of incorporation which is inconsistent with the general purposes expressed herein or which authorizes any additional class of capital stock to be issued, or which eliminates or curtails the right of the state supervisor of banking to examine the corporation or the obligation of the corporation to make reports as provided in RCW 31.24.120, shall be made~~(PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no amendment of the articles of incorporation which increases the obligation of a member to make loans to the corporation, or makes any charge in the principal amount, interest rate, maturity date, or in the security or credit position of an outstanding loan of a member to the corporation, or affects a member's right to withdraw from membership as provided herein, or affects a member's voting rights as provided herein, shall be made without the consent of each membership affected by such amendment)).~~

Within thirty days after any meeting at which an amendment of the articles of incorporation has been adopted, articles of amendment signed and sworn to by the president, treasurer, and a majority of the directors, setting forth such amendment and due adoption thereof, shall be submitted to the secretary of state, who shall examine them and if ~~((he))~~ the secretary finds that they conform to the requirements of this chapter, shall so certify and endorse his or her approval thereon. Thereupon, the articles of amendment shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and no such amendment shall take effect until such articles of amendment shall have been filed as aforesaid.

Sec. 8. Section 9, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 3, chapter 16, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 31.24.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and conducted by a board of directors, a president, a vice president, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers and such agents as the corporation by its bylaws shall authorize. The board of directors shall consist of such number, not less than ~~((eleven))~~ seven nor more than twenty-one, as shall be determined in the first instance by the incorporators and thereafter annually by ~~((the members and))~~ the stockholders of the corporation. The board of directors may exercise all the powers of the corporation except such as are conferred by law or by the bylaws of the corporation upon the stockholders ~~((or members))~~ and shall choose and appoint all the agents and officers of the corporation and fill all vacancies except vacancies in the office of director which shall be filled as hereinafter provided. The board of directors shall be elected in the first instance by the incorporators and thereafter at the annual meeting, the day and month of which shall be established by the bylaws of the corporations, or, if no annual meeting shall be held in the year of incorporation, then within ninety days after the approval of the articles of incorporation at a special meeting as hereinafter provided. ~~((At each annual meeting, or at each special meeting held as provided in this section, the members of the corporation shall elect two-thirds of the board of directors and the stockholders shall elect the remaining directors.))~~ The directors shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the corporation or special meeting held in lieu of the annual meeting after the election and until their successors are elected and qualified unless sooner removed in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws. Any vacancy in the office of a director ~~((elected by the members shall be filled by the directors elected by the members, and any vacancy in the office of a director elected by the stockholders))~~ shall be filled by the directors ~~((elected by the stockholders))~~.

Directors and officers shall not be responsible for losses unless the same shall have been occasioned by the wilful misconduct of such directors and officers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 31.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A corporation shall transact its business in a safe and sound manner and shall maintain itself in a safe and sound condition. The supervisor of banking shall revoke the certification of a corporation if the supervisor finds that the corporation has failed to operate or maintain itself in a safe and sound manner or has failed to comply with the intent of this chapter, and the corporation may not transact business as a business and industrial development corporation until such time as the supervisor recertifies the corporation consistent with RCW 31.24.020(8). The secretary of state shall remove from the active files the incorporation records of a corporation with its certification revoked until such time as the supervisor of banking has recertified the corporation.

(2) In determining whether a corporation is transacting business in a safe and sound manner or has committed an unsafe or unsound act, the supervisor shall consider the risk of a provision of financing assistance to a business firm, within the context of the anticipated higher risks associated with the purposes of corporations organized under this chapter.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section does not limit the authority of the supervisor to:

(a) Determine that a corporation's financing assistance to a single business or group of affiliated firms is in violation of subsection (1) of this section if the amount of that financing assistance is unduly large in relation to the total assets or the total shareholder's equity of the corporation;

(b) Require that a corporation maintain a reserve in the amount of anticipated losses; and

(c) Require that a corporation have a written financing assistance policy, approved by its board of directors, including credit evaluation and other matters. The supervisor shall not require that a corporation adopt a financing assistance policy that contains standards which prevent the corporation from exercising flexibility in meeting the capital needs of the individual firms.

Sec. 10. Section 12, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The corporation shall be examined at least ~~((once annually))~~ every eighteen months by the state supervisor of banking and shall make quarterly reports of its condition ~~((not less than annually))~~ to said state supervisor of banking and more frequently upon call of the state supervisor of banking, who in turn shall make copies of such reports available to the state insurance commissioner and the governor; and the corporation shall also furnish such other information as may from time to time be required by the state supervisor of banking and secretary of state. The corporation shall pay the actual cost of said examinations. The state supervisor of banking shall exercise the same power and authority over corporations organized under this chapter as is now exercised over banks and trust companies by the provisions of the Title 30 RCW, where the provisions of Title 30 RCW are not in conflict with this chapter.

The state supervisor of banking shall publish annually and provide to the senate economic development and labor committee, the house trade and economic development committee, and the senate and house ways and means committees information on the impact of this chapter in promoting economic development in Washington. At the minimum, the information shall include aggregate statistics on each of the following:

(1) The number and locations of corporations operating under this chapter;

(2) The number of instances and dollar amount of financing and management assistance given by corporations operating under this chapter to:

(a) All individual businesses assisted;

(b) Types of businesses classified using the standard industrial classification manual;

(c) Minority and women-owned businesses; and

(d) Businesses located in distressed areas;

(3) The number of jobs created or retained by:

(a) All individual businesses assisted;

(b) Types of businesses classified using the standard industrial classification manual;

(c) Minority and women-owned businesses;

(d) Businesses located in distressed areas; and

(e) The wage rates paid to the employees hired or retained; and

(4) The percentage of each business's total contributions or payments for unemployment insurance made to the state of Washington.

Sec. 11. Section 13, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The first meeting of the corporation shall be called by a notice signed by three or more of the incorporators, stating the time, place and purpose of the meeting, a copy of which notice shall be mailed, or delivered, to each incorporator at least five days before the day appointed for the meeting. Said first meeting may be held without such notice upon agreement in writing to that effect signed by all the incorporators. There shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting a copy of said notice or of such unanimous agreement of the incorporators.

At such first meeting, the incorporators shall organize by the choice, by ballot, of a temporary clerk; by the adoption of bylaws, by the election by ballot of directors; and by action upon such other matters within the powers of the corporation as the incorporators may see fit. The temporary clerk shall be sworn and shall make and attest a record of the proceedings. ~~((Ten))~~ Five of the incorporators shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 31.24 RCW to read as follows:

The director of trade and economic development is authorized to provide assistance and advice to persons forming corporations under this chapter.

Sec. 13. Section 14, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, the period of duration of the corporation shall be perpetual, subject, however, to the right of the stockholders ~~((and the members))~~ to dissolve the corporation prior to the expiration of said period as provided in RCW 31.24.150.

Sec. 14. Section 15, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 52, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 31.24.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The corporation may upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which the stockholders shall be entitled ~~((and two-thirds of the votes to which the member shall be entitled))~~ dissolve said corporation as provided by Title 23A RCW, insofar as Title 23A RCW is not in conflict with the provisions of this chapter. Upon any dissolution of the corporation, none of the corporation's assets shall be distributed to the stockholders until all sums due the ~~((members))~~ creditors of the corporation ~~((as creditors thereof))~~ have been paid in full.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 31.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A corporation shall not provide, directly or indirectly, financing assistance to:

(a) An associate of the corporation;

(b) Discharge, or to free other money for use in discharging, in whole or in part, an obligation to an associate of that corporation. This section does not apply to a transaction effected by an associate of a corporation in the normal course of that associate's business involving a line of credit or short-term financing assistance.

(c) A business to which an associate of that corporation provides financing assistance, either contemporaneously with, or within one year before or after, the providing of financing assistance by the corporation, if the terms on which the corporation provides financing assistance are less favorable to the corporation than the terms on which the associate provides financing assistance to the business. If the financing assistance provided by the associate of the corporation is of a different kind from the financing assistance provided by the corporation, the burden shall be on the corporation to prove that the terms on which the corporation provided financing assistance were at least as favorable to the corporation as the terms on which the associate provided financing assistance to the business.

This subsection (1)(c) does not apply to any of the following:

(i) If the associate is a controlling person of the corporation and is also the only shareholder of the corporation:

(ii) If the associate is a subsidiary of the corporation; or

(iii) A transaction effected by an associate of a corporation in the normal course of that associate's business involving a line of credit or short-term financing assistance.

(2) For the purposes of this section and section 16 of this act:

(a) "Person" means an individual, proprietorship, joint venture, partnership, trust, business trust, syndicate, association, joint stock company, corporation, cooperative, government, agency of a government, or any other organization. If used with respect to acquiring control of or controlling a specified person, person includes a combination of two or more persons acting in concert:

(b) "Control" means, if used with respect to a specified person, the power to direct or cause the direction of, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, the management and policies of that specified person, whether through the ownership of voting securities; by contract, other than a commercial contract for goods or nonmanagement services; or otherwise. A natural person shall not be considered to control a person solely on account of being a director, officer, or employee of that person. A person who, directly or indirectly, owns of record or beneficially holds with power to vote, or holds proxies with discretionary authority to vote, twenty percent or more of the then outstanding voting securities issued by a corporation shall be rebuttably presumed to control that corporation; and

(c) "Controlling person" means, if used with respect to a specified person, a person who controls that specified person, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 31.24 RCW to read as follows:

An associate of a corporation shall not receive, directly or indirectly, from a person to whom that corporation provides financing assistance, compensation in connection with the providing of that financing assistance or anything of value for procuring, influencing, or attempting to procure or influence the corporation's action with respect to the providing of the financing assistance. This section does not apply to the receipt of fees by an associate of a corporation for bona fide closing services performed by that associate if all of the following are true:

(1) The associate, with the consent and knowledge of the person to whom the financing assistance is provided, is designated by the corporation to perform the services;

(2) The services are appropriate and necessary in the circumstances;

(3) The fees for the services are approved as reasonable by the corporation; and

(4) The fees for the services are collected by the corporation on behalf of the associate.

Sec. 17. Section 16, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Under no circumstances shall the credit of the state of Washington be pledged to any corporation organized under the provisions of this chapter. The state of Washington shall not be subject to or responsible for any claim, debt, obligation, liability, or undertaking arising from the formation, operation, activities, or dissolution of a corporation organized under this chapter, and shall be immune from suit thereon. All debt and equity instruments, including but not limited to bonds, debentures, securities, notes, and shares, issued by corporations organized under this chapter shall indicate on the face of each such document as issued that it does not constitute an obligation of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 31.24 RCW to read as follows:

The insurance commissioner, the state supervisor of banking, the state supervisor of savings and loan associations, and the utilities and transportation commission shall each adopt such rules as may be necessary to allow those insurers, banks, savings and loan associations, and public service companies subject to regulation by state law to participate as investors in corporations organized under this chapter in a manner consistent with state regulatory requirements and the requirements imposed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 31.24 RCW to read as follows:

Industrial development corporations operating under this chapter before January 1, 1988, may continue to operate under this chapter as it existed before the effective date of this act.

Sec. 20. Section 2, chapter 107, Laws of 1987 and section 1, chapter 337, Laws of 1987 and section 16, chapter 370, Laws of 1987 and section 1, chapter 404, Laws of 1987 and section 10, chapter 411, Laws of 1987 and RCW 42.17.310 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

- (b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.
- (c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would (i) be prohibited to such persons by RCW 82.32.330 or (ii) violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.
- (d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.
- (e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.
- (f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.
- (g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.
- (h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.
- (i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.
- (j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.
- (k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.
- (l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.
- (m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.
- (n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under RCW 81.34.070, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.
- (o) Financial and commercial information and records supplied by private persons pertaining to export services provided pursuant to chapter 53.31 RCW.
- (p) Financial disclosures filed by private vocational schools under chapter 28C.10 RCW.
- (q) Records filed with the utilities and transportation commission or attorney general under RCW 80.04.095 that a court has determined are confidential under RCW 80.04.095.
- (r) Financial and commercial information and records supplied by businesses during application for loans or program services provided by chapters 43.31, 43.63A, and 43.168 RCW.
- (s) Membership lists or lists of members or owners of interests of units in timeshare projects, subdivisions, camping resorts, condominiums, land developments, or common-interest communities affiliated with such projects, regulated by the department of licensing, in the files or possession of the department.
- (t) Except as provided under section 2 of this 1987 act (1987 c 404 § 2), all applications for public employment, including the names of applicants, resumes, and other related materials submitted with respect to an applicant.
- (u) The residential addresses and residential telephone numbers of employees or volunteers of a public agency which are held by the agency in personnel records, employment or volunteer rosters, or mailing lists of employees or volunteers.
- (v) The residential addresses and residential telephone numbers of the customers of a public utility contained in the records or lists held by the public utility of which they are customers.
- (w) Information obtained by the board of pharmacy as provided in RCW 69.45.090.

(x) Financial information, business plans, examination reports, and any information produced or obtained in evaluating or examining a business and industrial development corporation organized or seeking certification under chapter 31.24 RCW.

(2) Except for information described in subsection (1)(c)(i) of this section and confidential income data exempted from public inspection pursuant to RCW 84.40.020, the exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 5, chapter 162, Laws of 1963, section 1, chapter 90, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 2, chapter 16, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 31.24.050;

(2) Section 6, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.060; and

(3) Section 10, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.100.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "corporations;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 31.24.010, 31.24.020, 31.24.030, 31.24.040, 31.24.070, 31.24.080, 31.24.090, 31.24.120, 31.24.130, 31.24.140, 31.24.150, and 31.24.160; reenacting and amending RCW 42.17.310; adding new sections to chapter 31.24 RCW; creating a new section; repealing RCW 31.24.050, 31.24.060, and 31.24.100; and prescribing penalties."

MOTION

Senator Lee moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6220 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

Senator Moore moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6220.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the positive motion by Senator Moore that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6220.

The motion by Senator Moore failed.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Lee that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6220.

The motion by Senator Lee carried and the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6220 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6235 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The long-range health and environmental goals for the state of Washington require the protection of the state's surface and underground waters for the health, safety, use, enjoyment, and economic benefit of its people. It is the purpose of this chapter to provide an account to receive federal capitalization grants to provide financial assistance to the state and to local governments for the planning, design, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water pollution control facilities and related activities in the achievement of state and federal water pollution control requirements for the protection of the state's waters.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of ecology.

(2) "Eligible cost" means the cost of that portion of a water pollution control facility or activity that can be financed under this chapter.

(3) "Fund" means the water-pollution control revolving fund in the custody of the state treasurer.

(4) "Water pollution control facility" or "water pollution control facilities" means any facilities or systems owned or operated by a public body for the control, collection, storage, treatment, disposal, or recycling of wastewater, including but not limited to sanitary sewage, storm water, combined sewer overflows, residential, commercial, industrial, and agricultural wastes, which are causing water quality degradation due to concentrations of conventional, nonconventional, or toxic pollutants. Water pollution control facilities include all equipment, utilities, structures, real property, and interests in and improvements on real property necessary for or incidental to such purpose. Water pollution control facilities also include such facilities, equipment, and collection systems as are necessary to protect federally designated sole source aquifers.

(5) "Water pollution control activities" means actions taken by a public body for the following purposes: (a) To control nonpoint sources of water pollution; (b) to develop and implement a comprehensive management plan for estuaries; and (c) to maintain or improve water quality through the use of water pollution control facilities or other means.

(6) "Public body" means the state of Washington or any agency, county, city or town, other political subdivision, municipal corporation or quasi-municipal corporation, and those Indian tribes now or hereafter recognized as such by the federal government.

(7) "Water pollution" means such contamination, or other alteration of the physical, chemical, or biological properties of any waters of the state, including change in temperature, taste, color, turbidity, or odor of the waters, or such discharge of any liquid, gaseous, solid, radioactive, or other substance into any waters of the state as will or is likely to create a nuisance or render such waters harmful, detrimental, or injurious to the public health, safety, or welfare, or to domestic, commercial, industrial, agricultural, recreational, or other legitimate beneficial uses, or to livestock, wild animals, birds, fish, or other aquatic life.

(8) "Nonpoint source water pollution" means pollution that enters any waters of the state from any dispersed water-based or land-use activities, including, but not limited to, atmospheric deposition, surface water runoff from agricultural lands, urban areas, and forest lands, subsurface or underground sources, and discharges from boats or other marine vessels.

(9) "Federal capitalization grants" means grants from the federal government provided by the water quality act of 1987 (P.L. 100-4).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The water pollution control revolving fund is hereby established in the custody of the state treasurer. Moneys in this fund are not subject to legislative appropriation. Moneys in the fund may be spent only in a manner consistent with this chapter.

(2) The water pollution control revolving fund shall consist of:

(a) All capitalization grants provided by the federal government under the federal water quality act of 1987;

(b) All state matching funds appropriated or authorized by the legislature;

(c) Any other revenues derived from gifts or bequests pledged to the state for the purpose of providing financial assistance for water pollution control projects;

(d) All repayments of moneys borrowed from the fund;

(e) All interest payments made by borrowers from the fund;

(f) Any other fee or charge levied in conjunction with administration of the fund; and

(g) Any new funds as a result of leveraging.

(3) The state treasurer may invest and reinvest moneys in the water pollution control revolving fund in the manner provided by law. All earnings from such investment and reinvestment shall be credited to the water pollution control revolving fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of ecology shall use the moneys in the water pollution control revolving fund to provide financial assistance as provided in the water quality act of 1987:

(1) To make loans, on the condition that:

(a) Such loans are made at or below market interest rates, including interest free loans, at terms not to exceed twenty years;

(b) Annual principal and interest payments will commence not later than one year after completion of any project and all loans will be fully amortized not later than twenty years after project completion;

(c) The recipient of a loan will establish a dedicated source of revenue for repayment of loans; and

(d) The fund will be credited with all payments of principal and interest on all loans.

(2) Loans may be made for the following purposes:

(a) To public bodies for the construction or replacement of water pollution control facilities as defined in section 212 of the federal water quality act of 1987;

(b) For the implementation of a management program established under section 319 of the federal water quality act of 1987 relating to the management of nonpoint sources of pollution, subject to the requirements of that act; and

(c) For development and implementation of a conservation and management plan under section 320 of the federal water quality act of 1987 relating to the national estuary program, subject to the requirements of that act.

(3) The department may also use the moneys in the fund for the following purposes:

(a) To buy or refinance the water pollution control facilities' debt obligations of public bodies at or below market rates, if such debt was incurred after March 7, 1985;

(b) To guarantee, or purchase insurance for, public body obligations for water pollution control facility construction or replacement or activities if the guarantee or insurance would improve credit market access or reduce interest rates, or to provide loans to a public body for this purpose;

(c) As a source of revenue or security for the payment of principal and interest on revenue or general obligation bonds issued by the state if the proceeds of the sale of such bonds will be deposited in the fund;

(d) To earn interest on fund accounts; and

(e) To pay the expenses of the department in administering the water pollution control revolving fund according to administrative reserves authorized by federal and state law.

(4) The department shall present a progress report on the use of moneys from the fund to the chairs of the ways and means committees of the senate and the house of representatives no later than November 30 of each year. This report shall consist of a list of each loan recipient, a project description, total loan amount, financial arrangement and interest rate, repayment schedule, and source of repayment.

(5) The department may not use the moneys in the water pollution control revolving fund for grants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Moneys deposited in the water pollution control revolving fund shall be administered by the department of ecology. In administering the fund, the department shall:

(1) Allocate funds for loans in accordance with the annual project priority list in accordance with section 212 of the federal water pollution control act as amended in 1987, and allocate funds under sections 319 and 320 according to the provisions of that act;

(2) Use accounting, audit, and fiscal procedures that conform to generally accepted government accounting standards;

(3) Prepare any reports required by the federal government as a condition to awarding federal capitalization grants;

(4) Adopt by rule any procedures or standards necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter;

(5) Enter into agreements with the federal environmental protection agency;

(6) Cooperate with local, substate regional, and interstate entities regarding state assessment reports and state management programs related to the nonpoint source management programs as noted in section 319(c) of the federal water pollution control act amendments of 1987 and estuary programs developed under section 320 of that act; and

(7) Comply with provisions of the water quality act of 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Any public body receiving a loan from the fund shall:

(1) Appear on the annual project priority list to be identified for funding under section 212 of the federal water pollution control act amendments of 1987 or be eligible under sections 319 and 320 of that act;

(2) Submit an application to the department;

(3) Establish and maintain a dedicated source of revenue or other acceptable source of revenue for the repayment of the loan; and

(4) Demonstrate to the satisfaction of the department that it has sufficient legal authority to incur the debt for which it is applying.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If a public body defaults on payments due to the fund, the state may withhold any amounts otherwise due to the public body and direct that such funds be applied to the indebtedness and deposited into the account.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department shall establish by rule policies for establishing loan terms and interest rates for loans made from the fund that assure that the objectives of this chapter are met and that adequate funds are maintained in the fund to meet future needs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 90 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) In addition to and not in lieu of any other appropriation, the sum of five million dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the water quality account to the water pollution control revolving fund to provide a match at twenty percent of each federal capitalization grant received by the department of ecology in accordance with congressional appropriations. The department shall transfer money from the water quality account to the water pollution revolving fund at intervals consistent with the timing of deposits of federal capitalization grant money.

The amounts transferred are not to exceed the match required for each federal deposit. The total of such transfers during the biennium is not to exceed the amount appropriated in this section.

(2) This is the first year of a six-year program. After the state receives all of the federal money it is entitled to under this program, state matching funds from the water quality account are no longer required. The federal authorization expires at the end of the six-year program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "activities;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 90 RCW; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6238 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 4, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6297 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 11, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 4, chapter 219, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.33A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The state investment board may make appropriate rules and regulations for the performance of its duties. The board shall establish investment policies and procedures designed exclusively to maximize return at a prudent level of risk. However, until July 1, 1989, in the case of the department of labor and industries' accident, medical aid, and reserve funds, the board shall establish investment policies and procedures designed to attempt to limit fluctuations in industrial insurance premiums and, subject to this purpose, to maximize return at a prudent level of risk. The board shall adopt rules to ensure that its members perform their functions in compliance with chapter 42.18 RCW. Rules adopted by the board shall be adopted pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. At the start of the 1989 regular legislative session, the state investment board shall present to the economic development and labor committee of the senate and the commerce and labor committee of the house of representatives, or the appropriate successor committees, a report recommending, where necessary, changes in current investment policies. The report shall study current investment needs of the department of labor and industries and casualty insurance industry investment policies; analyze statutory and regulatory constraints and the need to encourage stability in Washington's industrial insurance rates; and recommend investment policies for determination of asset allocation. The report shall include recommendations for appropriate accounting policies that will allow stabilization of rates and maximization of investment return and a plan making recommendations for investment of state industrial insurance funds in both equity and fixed investments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is appropriated from the medical aid fund and the accident fund in equal parts one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to the state investment board for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, for the purposes of this act."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "industries;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.33A.110; creating a new section; and making appropriations."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 6297 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6316 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that: Drug offenses and crimes resulting from illegal drug use are destructive to society; the nature of drug trafficking results in many property crimes and crimes of violence; state and local governmental agencies incur immense expenses in the investigation, prosecution, adjudication, incarceration, and treatment of drug-related offenders and the compensation of their victims; drug-related offenses are difficult to eradicate because of the profits derived from the criminal activities, which can be invested in legitimate assets and later used for further criminal activities; and the forfeiture of real assets where a substantial nexus exists between the commercial production or sale of the substances and the real property will provide a significant deterrent to crime by removing the profit incentive of drug trafficking, and will provide a revenue source that will partially defray the large costs incurred by government as a result of these crimes. The legislature recognizes that seizure of real property is a very powerful tool and should not be applied in cases in which a manifest injustice would occur as a result of forfeiture of an innocent spouse's community property interest.

Sec. 2. Section 15, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 9, chapter 124, Laws of 1986 and RCW 69.50.505 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) The following are subject to seizure and forfeiture and no property right exists in them:

(1) All controlled substances which have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed, ~~((or))~~ acquired, or possessed in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW;

(2) All raw materials, products, and equipment of any kind which are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting any controlled substance in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW;

(3) All property which is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in paragraphs (1) or (2);

(4) All conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles, or vessels, which are used to transport, or are used, or intended for use, in any manner to facilitate the sale, transfer, or receipt of property described in paragraphs (1) or (2), ~~((but))~~ except that:

(i) No conveyance used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier is subject to forfeiture under this section unless it appears that the owner or other person in charge of the conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW;

(ii) No conveyance is subject to forfeiture under this section by reason of any act or omission ~~((established by the owner thereof to have been))~~ committed or omitted without ~~((his))~~ the owner's knowledge or consent;

(iii) A forfeiture of a conveyance encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission; and

(iv) When the owner of a conveyance has been arrested under this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW, the conveyance in which the person is arrested may not be subject to forfeiture unless it is seized or process is issued for its seizure within ten days of the owner's arrest;

(5) All books, records, and research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes, and data which are used, or intended for use, in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW;

(6) All drug paraphernalia; ~~((and))~~

(7) All moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, or other tangible or intangible property of value furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in exchange for a controlled substance in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW, all tangible property, intangible property, proceeds, or assets acquired in whole or in part with proceeds traceable to ((such)) an exchange or series of exchanges in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or

69.52 RCW, and all moneys, negotiable instruments, and securities used or intended to be used to facilitate any violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW; PROVIDED, That no property may be forfeited under this paragraph, to the extent of the interest of an owner, by reason of any act or omission (~~which that owner establishes was~~) committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent; and

(8) All real property, including any right, title, and interest in the whole of any lot or tract of land, and any appurtenances or improvements which are being used with the knowledge of the owner for the manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivery, importing, or exporting of any controlled substance, or which have been acquired in whole or in part with proceeds traceable to an exchange or series of exchanges in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW, if such activity is not less than a class C felony and a substantial nexus exists between the commercial production or sale of the controlled substance and the real property. However:

(i) No property may be forfeited pursuant to this subsection, to the extent of the interest of an owner, by reason of any act or omission committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent;

(ii) The bona fide gift of a controlled substance, legend drug, or imitation controlled substance shall not result in the forfeiture of real property;

(iii) The possession of marijuana shall not result in the forfeiture of real property unless the marijuana is possessed for commercial purposes, the amount possessed is five or more plants or one pound or more of marijuana, and a substantial nexus exists between the possession of marijuana and the real property. In such a case, the intent of the offender shall be determined by the preponderance of the evidence, including the offender's prior criminal history, the amount of marijuana possessed by the offender, the sophistication of the activity or equipment used by the offender, and other evidence which demonstrates the offender's intent to engage in commercial activity;

(iv) The unlawful sale of marijuana or a legend drug shall not result in the forfeiture of real property unless the sale was forty grams or more in the case of marijuana or one hundred dollars or more in the case of a legend drug, and a substantial nexus exists between the unlawful sale and the real property; and

(v) A forfeiture of real property encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission.

(b) Real or personal property subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any board inspector or law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court having jurisdiction over the property. Real property seized under this section shall not be transferred or otherwise conveyed until ninety days after seizure or until the hearing on the forfeiture is held, whichever is later. Seizure of personal property without process may be made if:

(1) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant;

(2) The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this chapter;

(3) A board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety; or

(4) The board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter.

(c) In the event of seizure pursuant to subsection (b), proceedings for forfeiture shall be deemed commenced by the seizure. The law enforcement agency under whose authority the seizure was made shall cause notice to be served within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the property seized and the person in charge thereof and any person having any known right or interest therein, including any community property interest, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized property. Notice of seizure of real property or of personal property of a value of ten thousand dollars or more shall be by personal service upon the owner. The notice of seizure in other cases may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by certified mail with return receipt requested. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the fifteen day period following the seizure.

(d) If no person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) ((or)), (a)(7), or (a)(8) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure in the case of personal property and ninety days in the case of real property, the item seized shall be deemed forfeited. However, no real property may be forfeited pursuant to this section, to the extent of a person's community property interest in the real property, by reason of any act or omission committed or omitted without the person's knowledge or consent.

(e) If any person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) ((or)), (a)(7), or (a)(8) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure in the case of personal property and ninety days in the case of real property, the person or persons shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or the chief law enforcement officer's designee, except where the seizing agency is a state agency as defined in RCW 34.12.020(4), the hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW, except that any person asserting a claim or right may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction if the aggregate value of the article or articles involved is more than five hundred dollars. The court to which the matter is to be removed shall be the district court when such aggregate value is ten thousand dollars or less. A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be under Title 34 RCW. In a court hearing between two or more claimants to the article or articles involved, the prevailing party shall be entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorney's fees. The burden of producing evidence shall be upon the ~~((person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section))~~ law enforcement agency. The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the article or articles to the claimant upon a determination by the administrative law judge or court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of items specified in subsection (a)(4) ~~((or)), (a)(7), or (a)(8)~~ of this section.

(f) When property is forfeited under this chapter the board or seizing law enforcement agency may:

(1) Retain it for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state release such property to such agency for the exclusive use of enforcing the provisions of this chapter;

(2) (i) Sell that which is not required to be destroyed by law and which is not harmful to the public. The proceeds and all moneys forfeited under this title shall be used for payment of all proper expenses of the investigation leading to the seizure, including any money delivered to the subject of the investigation by the law enforcement agency, and of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, actual costs of the prosecuting or city attorney, and court costs. Money remaining after the payment of all expenses shall be distributed as follows:

~~((Fifty)) (A) Seventy-five percent of the money ((remaining after payment of such expenses)) shall be deposited in the general fund of the state, county, and/or city of the seizing law enforcement agency((;)) and shall be used exclusively for the expansion or improvement of law enforcement services. These services may include the creation of reward funds for the purpose of rewarding informants who supply information leading to the arrest, prosecution and conviction of persons who violate laws relating to controlled substances. Such moneys shall not supplant preexisting funding sources; and~~

~~((fifty)) (B) Twenty-five percent shall be remitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the public safety and education account established in RCW 43.08.250;~~

(C) If an investigation involves a seizure of moneys and proceeds having an aggregate value of less than five thousand dollars, the moneys and proceeds may be deposited in total in the general fund of the governmental unit of the seizing law enforcement agency and shall be appropriated exclusively for the expansion of narcotics enforcement services. Such moneys shall not supplant preexisting funding sources.

(i) Money deposited according to this section must be deposited within ninety days of the date of final disposition of either the administrative seizure or the judicial seizure;

(3) Request the appropriate sheriff or director of public safety to take custody of the property and remove it for disposition in accordance with law; or

(4) Forward it to the drug enforcement administration for disposition.

(g) Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V that are possessed, transferred, sold, or offered for sale in violation of this chapter are contraband and shall be seized and summarily forfeited to the state. Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V, which are seized or come into the possession of the board, the owners of which are unknown, are contraband and shall be summarily forfeited to the board.

(h) Species of plants from which controlled substances in Schedules I and II may be derived which have been planted or cultivated in violation of this chapter, or of which the owners or cultivators are unknown, or which are wild growths, may be seized and summarily forfeited to the board.

(i) The failure, upon demand by a board inspector or law enforcement officer, of the person in occupancy or in control of land or premises upon which the species of plants are growing or being stored to produce an appropriate registration or proof that he is the holder thereof constitutes authority for the seizure and forfeiture of the plants.

(j) Upon the entry of an order of forfeiture of real property, the court shall forward a copy of the order to the assessor of the county in which the property is located. Orders for the forfeiture of real property shall be entered by the superior court, subject to court rules. Such an order shall be entered by the seizing agency in the county auditor's records in the county in which the real property is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6439 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The judicial council shall appoint a task force to study the effects on the administration of justice of consolidating the district and municipal courts into a single-level court of limited jurisdiction. The study shall include, but not be limited to, the following issues relating the consolidation of district and municipal courts:

(a) The extent the duplication of limited jurisdiction court services, such as jury management, probation, and case management services, can be reduced or eliminated;

(b) The level of consistency achievable through the application of uniform limited jurisdiction court rules and statutes;

(c) The responsibility for court facilities and equipment;

(d) District court locations and public accessibility to the courts;

(e) A determination of the number of judges and support staff needed for consolidation;

(f) An examination of the need for multicounty districts to achieve full-time courts;

(g) The state assumption or partial assumption of district court judicial salaries and the financial impact of consolidation on the state, counties, and municipalities;

(h) The authority for appointment of judges;

(i) The distribution of revenue resulting from violations of ordinances;

(j) The role of city traffic violation bureaus;

(k) The impact on ancillary agencies, such as law enforcement, prosecution, and defense;

and

(l) An examination of concurrent jurisdiction between district and superior courts.

(2) The task force appointed under subsection (1) of this section shall consist of the following members:

(a) Two members of the Washington state magistrates association, one of whom is a district court judge and one of whom is a municipal court judge;

(b) Two members appointed by the Washington association of counties;

(c) Two members appointed by the association of Washington cities;

(d) One member appointed by the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys;

(e) One member appointed by the Washington association of municipal attorneys;

(f) Two members appointed by the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs, one of whom is a sheriff and one of whom is a city police chief; and

(g) One member appointed by the administrator for the courts.

(3) The judicial council shall report its findings and recommendations, including proposed legislation, to the law and justice committee of the senate and the judiciary committee of the house of representatives by September 30, 1989."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

WHEREAS, Dr. Robert Waldo has announced his retirement from the Council of Presidents effective August 31, 1988;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, That the members of the Senate on behalf of the citizens of this state express their enduring appreciation, infinite admiration, and lasting gratitude to Dr. Robert Waldo for his tenacious persistence, endless patience, and innumerable and invaluable contributions to the past, the present, and the future students of public higher education in the state of Washington; and

Senators Saling, Rinehart and Zimmerman spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8731.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President introduced Dr. Robert Waldo, his wife, Joan, and his children, Margery and Steve.

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Dr. Waldo to address the Senate.

The honored guests were escorted from the Senate Chamber and the committee was discharged.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 10, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5016 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 124, Laws of 1909 as amended by section 10, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 2.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

All of the acts and proceedings of court commissioners hereunder shall be subject to revision by the superior court. Any party in interest may have such revision upon demand made by written motion, filed with the clerk of the superior court, within ten days after the entry of any order or judgment of the court commissioner. Such revision shall be upon the records of the case, and the findings of fact and conclusions of law entered by the court commissioner, and unless a demand for revision is made within ten days from the entry of the order or judgment of the court commissioner, ~~((the))~~ the orders and judgments shall be and become the orders and judgments of the superior court, and ~~((from same an appeal may be taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals in all cases where an appeal will lie from))~~ appellate review thereof may be sought in the same fashion as review of like orders and judgments entered by the judge.

Sec. 2. Section 24, chapter 127, Laws of 1893 and RCW 4.32.250 are each amended to read as follows:

A notice or other paper is valid and effectual though the title of the action in which it is made is omitted, or it is defective either in respect to the court or parties, if it intelligently refers to such action or proceedings; and in furtherance of justice upon proper terms, any other defect or error in any notice or other paper or proceeding may be amended by the court, and any mischance, omission or defect relieved within one year thereafter; and the court may enlarge or extend the time, for good cause shown, within which by statute any act is to be done, proceeding had or taken, notice or paper filed or served, or may, on such terms as are just, permit the same to be done or supplied after the time therefor has expired ~~((except that the time for bringing a writ of error or appeal shall in no case be enlarged, or a party permitted to bring such writ of error or appeal after the time therefor has expired))~~.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 95, Laws of 1895 as last amended by section 3, chapter 126, Laws of 1986 and RCW 4.92.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The attorney general or an assistant attorney general shall appear and act as counsel for the state. The action shall proceed in all respects as other actions. ~~((Appeals may be taken to the supreme court or court of appeals of the state))~~ Appellate review may be sought as in other actions or proceedings, but in case ((an appeal shall be taken on behalf of)) review is sought by the state, no bond shall be required of the appellant.

Sec. 4. Section 35, chapter 65, Laws of 1895 as amended by section 30, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 7.16.350 are each amended to read as follows:

From a final judgment in the superior court, in any such proceeding, ~~((an appeal shall lie to))~~ appellate review by the supreme court or the court of appeals may be sought as in other actions.

Sec. 5. Section 680, page 171, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 70, chapter 258, Laws of 1984 and RCW 7.20.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Either party to a judgment in a proceeding for a contempt, may ~~((appeal therefrom))~~ seek appellate review of the judgment in like manner and with like effect as from judgment in an action, but such ~~((appeal))~~ review shall not have the effect to stay the proceedings in any other action, suit or proceeding, or upon any judgment, decree or order therein, concerning which, or wherein such contempt was committed.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 213, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 33, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 8.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time and place appointed for hearing the petition, or to which the hearing may have been adjourned, if the court has satisfactory proof that all parties interested in the lands, real estate, premises or other property described in the petition have been duly served with the notice, and is further satisfied by competent proof that the contemplated use for which the lands, real estate, premises, or other property are sought to be appropriated is really necessary for the public use of the state, it shall make and enter an order, to be recorded in the minutes of the court, and which order shall be final unless appellate review thereof ~~((to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state))~~ is ~~((taken))~~ sought within five days after entry thereof, adjudicating that the contemplated use for which the lands, real estate, premises or other property are sought to be appropriated is really a public use of the state.

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 74, Laws of 1891 as last amended by section 35, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 8.04.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the entry of judgment upon the verdict of the jury or the decision of the court awarding damages, the state may make payment of the damages and the costs of the proceedings by depositing them with the clerk of the court, to be paid out under the direction of the court or judge thereof; and upon making such payment into court of the damages assessed and allowed for any land, real estate, premises, or other property mentioned in the petition, and of the costs, the state shall be released and discharged from any and all further liability therefor, unless upon appeal the owner or party interested recovers a greater amount of damages; and in that case the state shall be liable only for the amount in excess of the sum paid into court and the costs of appeal.

In the event ~~((of an appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state))~~ appellate review is sought by any party to the proceedings, the moneys paid into the superior court by the state pursuant to this section shall remain in the custody of the court until the final determination of the proceedings by the supreme court or the court of appeals.

Sec. 8. Section 9, chapter 74, Laws of 1891 as amended by section 36, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 8.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Either party may ~~((appeal from))~~ seek appellate review of the judgment for damages entered in the superior court ~~((to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state;))~~ within thirty days after the entry of judgment as aforesaid, and such ~~((appeal))~~ review shall bring before the supreme court or the court of appeals the propriety and justice of the amount of damages in respect to the parties to the ~~((appeal))~~ review: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That upon such ~~((appeal))~~ review no bond shall be required: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the owner of land, the real estate or premises accepts the sum awarded by the jury, the court or the judge thereof, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived conclusively ~~((an appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals;))~~ appellate review, and final judgment by default may be rendered in the superior court as in other cases: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no ~~((appeal))~~ review shall operate so as to prevent the said state of Washington from taking possession of such property pending ~~((such appeal))~~ review after the amount of said award shall have been paid into court.

Sec. 9. Section 8, chapter 79, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 38, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 8.08.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Either party may ~~((appeal from))~~ seek appellate review of the judgment for compensation of the damages awarded in the superior court ~~((to the supreme court or the court of appeals;))~~ within thirty days after the entry of judgment as aforesaid, and such ~~((appeal))~~ review shall bring before the supreme court or the court of appeals the propriety and justice of the amount of damage in respect to the parties to the ~~((appeal))~~ review: PROVIDED, That upon such ~~((appeal))~~ review no bonds shall be required: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the owner of land, real estate, or premises accepts the sum awarded by the jury or the court, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived conclusively ~~((an appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals;))~~ appellate review, and final judgment by default may be rendered in the superior court as in other cases.

Sec. 10. Section 16, chapter 84, Laws of 1893 as last amended by section 39, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 8.12.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Any final judgment or judgments rendered by said court upon any finding or findings of any jury or juries, or upon any finding or findings of the court in case a jury be waived, shall be lawful and sufficient condemnation of the land or property to be taken, or of the right to damage the same in the manner proposed, upon the payment of the amount of such findings and all costs which shall be taxed as in other civil cases, provided that in case any defendant recovers no damages, no costs shall be taxed. Such judgment or judgments shall be final and conclusive as to the damages caused by such improvement unless ~~((appealed from))~~ appellate review is sought, and ~~((no appeal from))~~ review of the same shall delay proceedings under said ordinance, if such city shall pay into court for the owners and parties interested, as directed by the court, the amount of the judgment and costs, and such city, after making such payment into court, shall be liable to such owner or owners or parties interested for the payment of any further compensation which may at any time be finally awarded to such parties ~~((so appealing in))~~ seeking review of said proceeding, and his or her costs, and shall pay the same on the rendition of judgment therefor, and abide any rule or order of the court in relation to the matter in controversy. In case of ~~((an appeal to))~~ review by the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state by any party to the proceedings the money so paid into the superior court by such city, as aforesaid, shall remain in the custody of said superior court until the final determination of the proceedings. If the owner of the land, real estate, premises, or other property accepts the sum awarded by the jury or the court, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived conclusively ~~((an appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals))~~ appellate review and final judgment may be rendered in the superior court as in other cases.

Sec. 11. Section 49, chapter 153, Laws of 1907 as last amended by section 40, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 8.12.530 are each amended to read as follows:

At any time within six months from the date of rendition of the last judgment awarding compensation for any such improvement in the superior court, or if ~~((any appeal be taken))~~ appellate review is sought, then within two months after the final determination of the ~~((appeal))~~ proceeding in the supreme court or the court of appeals, any such city may discontinue the proceedings by ordinance passed for that purpose before making payment or proceeding with the improvement by paying or depositing in court all taxable costs incurred by any parties to the proceedings up to the time of such discontinuance. If any such improvement be discontinued, no new proceedings shall be undertaken therefor until the expiration of one year from the date of such discontinuance.

Sec. 12. Section 13, page 375, Laws of 1909 as amended by section 41, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 8.16.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Either party may ~~((appeal from))~~ seek appellate review of the judgment for compensation awarded for the property taken, entered in the superior court, to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state within sixty days after the entry of the judgment, and such ~~((appeal))~~ review shall bring before the supreme court or the court of appeals the justness of the compensation awarded for the property taken, and any error occurring on the hearing of such matter, prejudicial to the party appealing: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if the owner or owners of the land taken accepts the sum awarded by the jury or court, he or they shall be deemed thereby to have waived ~~((their right of appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals))~~ appellate review.

Sec. 13. Section 7, page 299, Laws of 1890 as amended by section 42, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 8.20.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the entry of judgment upon the verdict of the jury or the decision of the court or judge thereof, awarding damages as hereinbefore prescribed, the petitioner, or any officer of, or other person duly appointed by said corporation, may make payment of the damages assessed to the parties entitled to the same, and of the costs of the proceedings, by depositing the same with the clerk of said superior court, to be paid out under the direction of the court or judge thereof; and upon making such payment into the court of the damages assessed and allowed, and of the costs, to any land, real estate, premises or other property mentioned in said petition, such corporation shall be released and discharged from any and all further liability therefor, unless upon ~~((appeal))~~ appellate review the owner or other person or party interested shall recover a greater amount of damages; and in that case only for the amount in excess of the sum paid into said court, and the costs of ~~((appeal))~~ appellate review: PROVIDED, That in case of ~~((an appeal to))~~ review by the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state by any party to the proceedings, the money so paid into the superior court by such corporation as aforesaid, shall remain in the custody of said court until the final determination of the proceedings by the said supreme court or the court of appeals.

Sec. 14. Section 9, page 300, Laws of 1890 as amended by section 43, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 8.20.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Either party may ~~((appeal from))~~ seek appellate review of the judgment for damages entered in the superior court ~~((to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state,))~~ within thirty days after the entry of judgment as aforesaid and such ~~((appeal))~~ review shall bring before the supreme court or the court of appeals the propriety and justness of the amount of damages in respect to the parties to the ~~((appeal))~~ review: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no bond shall be required of any person interested in the property sought to be appropriated by such corporation, but in case the corporation appropriating such land, real estate, premises or other property is appellant, it shall give a bond like that prescribed in RCW 8.20.130, to be executed, filed and approved in the same manner: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the owner of the land, real estate, premises or other property accepts the sum awarded by the jury, the court or the judge thereof, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived conclusively ~~((an appeal to the~~ ~~supreme court or the court of appeals~~) appellate review, and final judgment by default may be rendered in the superior court as in other cases.

Sec. 15. Section 7, chapter 133, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 36, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.95.060 are each amended to read as follows:

When a convicted person (~~appeals from~~) seeks appellate review of his or her conviction and is at liberty on bond pending the determination of the ((appeal)) proceeding by the supreme court or the court of appeals, credit on his or her sentence will begin from the date such convicted person is returned to custody. The date of return to custody shall be certified to the department of corrections, the Washington state board of prison terms and paroles, and the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such convicted person was convicted and sentenced, by the sheriff of such county. If such convicted person does not (~~appeal from his~~) seek review of the conviction, but is at liberty for a period of time subsequent to the signing of the judgment and sentence, or becomes a fugitive, credit on his sentence will begin from the date such convicted person is returned to custody. The date of return to custody shall be certified as provided in this section. In all other cases, credit on a sentence will begin from the date the judgment and sentence is signed by the court.

Sec. 16. Section 23, chapter 117, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 18, chapter 198, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 10.77.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Either party may (~~appeal to the court of appeals~~) seek appellate review of the judgment of any hearing held pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 17. Section 15, chapter 138, Laws of 1981 and RCW 10.95.150 are each amended to read as follows:

In all cases in which a sentence of death has been imposed, the ((~~appeal~~)) appellate review, if any, and sentence review to or by the supreme court of Washington shall be decided and an opinion on the merits shall be filed within one year of receipt by the clerk of the supreme court of Washington of the verbatim report of proceedings and clerk's papers filed under RCW 10.95.110. If this time requirement is not met, the chief justice of the supreme court of Washington shall state on the record the extraordinary and compelling circumstances causing the delay and the facts supporting such circumstances. A failure to comply with the time requirements of this subsection shall in no way preclude the ultimate execution of a sentence of death.

Sec. 18. Section 11.52.016, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 11.52.016 are each amended to read as follows:

The order of judgment of the court making the award or awards provided for in RCW 11.52.010 through 11.52.024 shall be conclusive and final, except on ((~~appeal~~)) appellate review and except for fraud. The awards in RCW 11.52.010 through 11.52.024 provided shall be in lieu of all homestead provisions of the law and of exemptions. The said property, when set aside as herein provided, shall be exempt from all claims for the payment of any debt of the deceased or of the surviving spouse existing at the time of death, whether such debt be individual or community. Under RCW 11.52.010 through 11.52.024, the court shall not award more property than could be awarded under the law in effect at the time of the granting of the award.

Sec. 19. Section 17, chapter 31, Laws of 1985 and RCW 11.96.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Any interested party may (~~appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals from~~) seek appellate review of any final order, judgment, or decree of the court, and such ((appeals)) review shall be in the manner and way provided by law for appeals in civil actions.

Sec. 20. Section 124, chapter 30, Laws of 1985 and RCW 11.110.110 are each amended to read as follows:

When the attorney general requires the attendance of any person, as provided in RCW 11.110.100, he shall issue an order setting forth the time when and the place where attendance is required and shall cause the same to be delivered to or sent by registered mail to the person at least fourteen days before the date fixed for attendance. Such order shall have the same force and effect as a subpoena, and, upon application of the attorney general, obedience to the order may be enforced by any superior court judge in the county where the person receiving it resides or is found, in the same manner as though the notice were a subpoena. The court, after hearing, for good cause, and upon application of any person aggrieved by the order, shall have the right to alter, amend, revise, suspend, or postpone all or any part of its provisions. In any case where the order is not enforced by the court according to its terms, the reasons for the court's actions shall be clearly stated in the record, and shall be subject to review by the supreme court or the court of appeals (~~by certiorari or other appropriate proceeding~~).

Sec. 21. Section 14, chapter 125, Laws of 1929 as amended by section 56, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 17.04.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Any interested party may appeal from the decision and order of the board of directors of such district to the superior court of the county in which such district is located, by serving written notice of appeal on the chairman of the board of directors and by filing in the office of the clerk of the superior court a copy of said notice of appeal with proof of service attached, together with a good and sufficient cost bond in the sum of two hundred dollars, said cost bond to run to such district and in all respects to comply with the laws relating to cost bonds required of nonresident plaintiffs in the superior court. Said notice must be served and filed within ten days from the date of the decision and order of such board of directors, and said bond must be filed within five days after the filing of such notice of appeal. Whenever notice of appeal and the cost bond as herein provided shall have been filed with the clerk of the superior court, the clerk shall notify the board of directors of such district thereof, and such board shall forthwith certify to said court all notices and records in said matters, together with proof of service, and a true copy of the order and decision pertaining thereto made by such board. If no appeal be perfected within ten days from the decision and order of such board, the same shall be deemed confirmed and the board shall certify the amount of such charges to the county treasurer who shall enter the same on the tax rolls against the land. When an appeal is perfected the matter shall be heard in the superior court de novo and the court's decision shall be conclusive on all persons served under this chapter: PROVIDED, That ~~((an appeal may be taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals from))~~ appellate review of the order or decision of the superior court in the manner provided by existing laws, and upon the conclusion of such ~~((appeal))~~ review, the amount of charges and costs adjudged to be paid shall be certified by the clerk of the superior court to the county treasurer and said treasurer shall proceed to enter the same on his rolls against the lands affected.

Sec. 22. Section 12, chapter 140, Laws of 1921 as amended by section 57, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 17.16.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person feeling himself aggrieved at the decision and order of the board of county commissioners approving the amount of such expenses and establishing the same as a tax against the land involved may appeal therefrom to the superior court of the county, by serving a written notice of appeal on the board and by filing a copy of same with proof of service attached, together with a good and sufficient cost bond to be approved by the county clerk in the sum of two hundred dollars, said cost bond to run to the county and in all other respects to comply with the laws relating to cost bonds required of nonresident plaintiffs in the superior court. Said notice of appeal must be served and filed within ten days from the date of the decision and order of the board approving the amount of said expense and establishing the same as a tax against the land involved, and said appeal must be brought on for hearing upon a certified copy of the records in the matter without further pleadings, at the next term of court thereafter. ~~((An appeal from))~~ Appellate review of the judgment of the superior court in the matter may be ~~((taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state))~~ sought as in other cases ~~((on appeal))~~. Upon the final conclusion of any ~~((appeal))~~ review so taken, the county clerk shall certify to the county treasurer the result of such ~~((appeal))~~ review.

Sec. 23. Section 10, chapter 211, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 185, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 19.77.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who believes he will be damaged by a registration of a trademark by the secretary of state may request cancellation of such registration by filing with the secretary of state in duplicate a verified petition setting forth the facts in support of such request, accompanied by a fee of fifty dollars payable to the revolving fund of the secretary of state. To each copy of said petition for cancellation there shall be attached a copy of each of the trademarks or trade names, or the personal name, portrait, or signature, of the petitioner, or other exhibits of like character relied on in the petition. Thereafter the secretary of state shall mail to the registrant or his agent for service of record with the secretary of state a copy of said petition, addressed to the last known address of the registrant or such agent according to the files of the secretary of state, accompanied by a notice that said registrant may, within twenty days if the registrant is a resident of the state of Washington, or within sixty days if the registrant is a non-resident of the state of Washington, file in duplicate a verified answer to said petition. Thereafter the secretary of state shall forward a copy of said answer to said petitioner, accompanied by a notice that said petitioner may, within a specified time, not less than twenty days, file in duplicate a verified statement as to any further facts which are pertinent to issues raised by said answer, and the secretary of state shall in like manner forward a copy thereof to said registrant or such agent. The secretary of state shall then fix a hearing date not less than thirty days from the last day that the petitioner may file a statement of further facts. Written notice of such hearing shall be served on the parties by the secretary of state not less than fifteen days before the hearing in the same manner as the petition and answer were forwarded. Additional relevant testimony or other evidence may be introduced by the parties, and the secretary of state may subpoena such witnesses as he deems necessary. The parties shall have the right to be represented by counsel. On conclusion of the hearing the secretary of state shall grant or deny the petitioner's request for cancellation of the registration as the facts shall warrant and shall send a copy of his decision to the petitioner and to the registrant or such agent. If the secretary of state finds that the trademark should not have been registered, or is in violation of the common law rights of the petitioner, or if the secretary of state receives no answer from the registrant within the time limits specified hereinabove, he shall cancel said registration from the register, unless a petition for review of such decision is filed as provided hereinafter.

Either the petitioner or the registrant may, within sixty days after mailing of the copy of the decision by the secretary of state, file in the superior court of the state of Washington for Thurston county, and mail to the secretary of state and the other party or such agent at his last known address according to the files of the secretary of state, a petition for review of the decision of the secretary of state. The court shall review such decision on the basis of the record before the secretary of state for the purpose of determining the reasonableness and lawfulness of such decision and, subject to ~~((the right of appeal to))~~ appellate review by the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state, the decree of the superior court shall be binding upon the secretary of state with respect to the granting or denial of the petitioner's request for cancellation. In any such petition for review the secretary of state shall be a necessary party, and the petitioner for cancellation and the registrant shall be proper parties.

Sec. 24. Section 20, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 66, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 20.01.200 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from))~~ Appellate review of the judgment of the superior court may be sought as provided in other civil cases.

Sec. 25. Section 28, chapter 115, Laws of 1921 as amended by section 68, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 24.32.360 are each amended to read as follows:

Every order, decision or other official act of the director of agriculture shall be subject to review, and any party aggrieved by such order, decision or act of the director of agriculture may appeal therefrom to the superior court of the county of Thurston by serving upon the director of agriculture a notice of such appeal, specifying the order, decision of act appealed from, and filing the same with the clerk of the superior court of the county of Thurston within sixty days after the date of such order, decision or official act. Whereupon the director of agriculture shall, within ten days after filing of such notice of appeal, make and certify a transcript of all the records and papers on file in his office affecting or relating to the order, decision or act appealed from, and upon the payment of the fee therefor by the appellant, the director of agriculture shall file the same in the office of the clerk of said superior court. Upon the hearing of such appeal the burden of proof shall be upon the appellant, and the court shall receive and consider any pertinent evidence, whether oral or documentary, concerning the action of the director of agriculture from which appeal is taken. Any party ~~((to such appeal to the superior court who is))~~ aggrieved by the judgment of ~~((said court rendered upon such appeal may prosecute an appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state of Washington. The general laws relating to bills of exception, statements of fact and appeals to the supreme court or the court of appeals, shall apply to all appeals taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals under this chapter))~~ the superior court may seek appellate review of the judgment as in other civil cases; PROVIDED, That no supersedeas of the judgment of the superior court shall be allowed, except at the discretion of said superior court. If supersedeas is allowed, it shall be upon such bond and with such conditions as the superior court may require by its order.

Sec. 26. Section 28A.58.500, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 71, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 28A.58.500 are each amended to read as follows:

Either party to the proceedings in the superior court may ~~((appeal))~~ seek appellate review of the decision ((to the supreme court or the court of appeals of this state)) as any other civil action ~~((is appealed))~~.

Sec. 27. Section 16, chapter 36, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 72, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 28B.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court shall review the hearing without a jury on the basis of the transcript and exhibits, except that in case of alleged irregularities in procedure before the board not shown by the transcript the court may order testimony to be given thereon. The court shall upon request by either party hear oral argument and receive written briefs.

(2) The court may affirm the order of the board, remand the matter for further proceedings before the board, or reverse or modify the order if it finds that the objection thereto is well taken on any of the grounds stated. ~~((Appeal shall be available to the supreme court or the court of appeals from))~~ Appellate review of the order of the superior court may be sought as in other civil cases.

Sec. 28. Section 29.79.170, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.79.170 are each amended to read as follows:

The decision of the superior court refusing to grant a writ of mandate, may be reviewed by the supreme court ~~((on a writ of certiorari sued out))~~ within five days after the decision of the superior court. The review shall be considered an emergency matter of public concern, and shall be heard and determined with all convenient speed, and if the supreme court decides that the petitions are legal in form and apparently contain the requisite number of signatures of legal voters, and were filed within the time prescribed in the Constitution, it shall issue its mandate directing the secretary of state to file the petition in his office as of the date of submission.

Sec. 29. Section 29.79.210, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.79.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Any citizen dissatisfied with the determination of the secretary of state that an initiative or referendum petition contains or does not contain the requisite number of signatures of legal voters may, within five days after such determination, apply to the superior court of Thurston county for a citation requiring the secretary of state to submit the petition to said court for examination, and for a writ of mandate compelling the certification of the measure and petition, or for an injunction to prevent the certification thereof to the legislature, as the case may be. Such application and all proceedings had thereunder shall take precedence over other cases and shall be speedily heard and determined.

The decision of the superior court granting or refusing to grant the writ of mandate or injunction may be reviewed by the supreme court (~~on a writ of certiorari sued out~~) within five days after the decision of the superior court, and if the supreme court decides that a writ of mandate or injunction, as the case may be, should issue, it shall issue the writ directed to the secretary of state; otherwise, it shall dismiss the proceedings. The clerk of the supreme court shall forthwith notify the secretary of state of the decision of the supreme court.

Sec. 30. Section 29.82.160, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 10, chapter 170, Laws of 1984 and RCW 29.82.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The superior court of the county in which the officer subject to recall resides has original jurisdiction to compel the performance of any act required of any public officer or to prevent the performance by any such officer of any act in relation to the recall not in compliance with law.

The supreme court has like original jurisdiction in relation to state officers and revisory jurisdiction over the decisions of the superior courts. Any proceeding to compel or prevent the performance of any such act shall be begun within ten days from the time the cause of complaint arises, and shall be considered an emergency matter of public concern and take precedence over other cases, and be speedily heard and determined. (~~Any proceeding to~~) Appellate review of a decision of any superior court shall be begun and perfected within fifteen days after its decision in a recall election case and shall be considered an emergency matter of public concern by the supreme court, and heard and determined within thirty days after the decision of the superior court.

Sec. 31. Section 23, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 81, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 31.08.260 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the supervisor shall deny an application for a license or shall revoke or suspend a license issued pursuant to this chapter, or shall issue any specific order or demand, then such applicant or licensee thereby affected may, within thirty days from the date of service of notice as provided for in this chapter, appeal to the superior court of the state of Washington for Thurston county. The appeal shall be perfected by serving a copy of the notice of appeal upon the supervisor and by filing it, together with proof of service, with the clerk of the superior court of Thurston county. Whereupon the supervisor shall, within fifteen days after filing of such notice of appeal, make and certify a transcript of the evidence and of all the records and papers on file in his office relating to the order appealed from, and the supervisor shall forthwith file the same in the office of the clerk of said superior court. The reasonable costs of preparing such transcript shall be assessed by the court as part of the costs. A trial shall be had in said superior court de novo. The applicant or licensee, as the case may be, shall be deemed the plaintiff and the state of Washington the defendant. Each party shall be entitled to subpoena witnesses and produce evidence to sustain or reverse the findings and order or demand of the supervisor. During the pendency of any appeal from the order of revocation or suspension of a license, the order of revocation theretofore entered by the supervisor shall be stayed and any other order or demand appealed from may be stayed in the discretion of the court. Either party may (~~appeal from~~) seek appellate review of the judgment of said superior court (~~to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state of Washington~~) as in other civil actions.

Sec. 32. Section 115, chapter 235, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 84, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 33.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

An association may petition the superior court of the state of Washington for Thurston county for the review of any decision, ruling, requirement or other action or determination of the supervisor, by filing its complaint, duly verified, with the clerk of the court and serving a copy thereof upon the supervisor. Upon the filing of the complaint, the clerk of the court shall docket the same as a cause pending therein.

The supervisor may answer the complaint and the petitioner reply thereto, and the cause shall be heard before the court as in other civil actions. Both the petitioner and the supervisor may (~~appeal from~~) seek appellate review of the decision of the court to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state of Washington.

Sec. 33. Section 8, chapter 235, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 85, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 33.08.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The supervisor, not later than six months after receipt of the proposed articles and bylaws shall endorse upon each copy thereof the word "approved" or "refused" and the date thereof. In case of refusal, he shall forthwith return one copy of the articles and bylaws to the incorporators, and the refusal shall be final unless the incorporators, or a majority of them, within thirty days after the refusal, appeal to the superior court of Thurston county. The appeal may be accomplished by the incorporators preparing a notice of appeal, serving a copy of it upon the supervisor, and filing the notice with the clerk of the court, whereupon the clerk, under the direction of the judge, shall give notice to the appellants and to the supervisor of a date for the hearing of the appeal. The appeal shall be tried de novo by the court. At the hearing a record shall be kept of the evidence adduced, and the decision of the court shall be final unless ~~((an appeal therefrom is taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals))~~ appellate review is sought as in other cases.

Sec. 34. Section 113, chapter 235, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 72, chapter 3, Laws of 1982 and RCW 33.40.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The court, upon notice and hearing, may remove the liquidator for cause. ~~((From such)) Appellate review of the order of removal ((the liquidator may appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals by giving notice of appeal and posting bond for costs as in other appeals)) may be sought as in other civil cases.~~

During the pendency of any appeal, the director of general administration shall act as liquidator of the association, without giving any additional bond for the performance of the duties as such liquidator.

If such order of removal shall be affirmed, the director of general administration shall name another liquidator for the association, which nominee, upon qualifying as required for receivers generally, shall succeed to the position of liquidator of the association.

Sec. 35. Section 14, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 87, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 34.04.140 are each amended to read as follows:

An aggrieved party may secure ~~((a))~~ appellate review of any final judgment of the superior court under this chapter by ~~((appeal to))~~ the supreme court or the court of appeals. Such ~~((appeal))~~ review shall be ~~((taken))~~ secured in the manner provided by law for ~~((appeals from the))~~ review of superior court decisions in other civil cases.

Sec. 36. Section 35.44.260, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 91, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 35.44.260 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from))~~ Appellate review of the judgment of the superior court may be obtained as in other cases if ((taken)) sought within fifteen days after the date of the entry of the judgment in the superior court. ((The record and the opening brief of the appellant must be filed in the supreme court or the court of appeals within sixty days after the filing of the notice of appeal. PROVIDED: That the time for filing the record and the serving and filing of briefs may be extended by order of the superior court or by stipulation of the parties concerned.))

Sec. 37. Section 35.44.270, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 92, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 35.44.270 are each amended to read as follows:

A certified copy of the decision of the superior court pertaining to assessments for local improvements shall be filed with the officer having custody of the assessment roll and he shall modify and correct the assessment roll in accordance with the decision. In ~~((case of appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals))~~ the event appellate review of the decision is sought, a certified copy of ((its)) the court's order shall be filed with the officer having custody of the assessment roll and ((he)) the officer shall thereupon modify and correct the assessment roll in accordance with the order.

Sec. 38. Section 35.55.080, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 94, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 35.55.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who has made objections to the assessment as equalized, shall have the right to appeal from the equalization as made by the city council to the superior court of the county. The appeal shall be made by filing a written notice of appeal with the city clerk within ten days after the equalization of the assessments by the council. The notice of appeal shall describe the property and the objections of such appellant to such assessment.

The appellant shall also file with the clerk of the superior court within ten days from the time of taking the appeal a copy of the notice of appeal together with a copy of the assessment roll and proceedings thereon, certified by the city clerk and a bond to the city conditioned to pay all costs that may be awarded against appellant in such sum not less than two hundred dollars and with such security as shall be approved by the clerk of the court.

The case shall be docketed by the clerk of the court in the name of the person taking the appeal as plaintiff and the city as defendant. The cause shall then be at issue and shall be tried immediately by the court as in the case of equitable causes; no further pleadings shall be necessary. The judgment of the court shall be either to confirm, modify or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. ~~((Appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals))~~ Appellate review of the superior court's decision may be sought as in other causes.

Sec. 39. Section 35.56.090, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 95, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 35.56.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who has made objections to the assessment as equalized, shall have the right to appeal from the equalization as made by the city council or commission to the superior court of the county. The appeal shall be made by filing a written notice of appeal with the city clerk within ten days after the equalization of the assessments by the council or commission. The notice of appeal shall describe the property and the objections of such appellant to such assessment.

The appellant shall also file with the clerk of the superior court within ten days from the time of taking the appeal a copy of the notice of appeal together with a copy of the assessment roll and proceedings thereon, certified by the city clerk and a bond to the city conditioned to pay all costs that may be awarded against appellant in such sum not less than two hundred dollars, and with such security as shall be approved by the clerk of the court.

The case shall be docketed by the clerk of the court in the name of the person taking the appeal as plaintiff, and the city as defendant. The cause shall then be at issue and shall be tried immediately by the court as in the case of equitable causes; no further pleadings shall be necessary. The judgment of the court shall be either to confirm, modify or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. ~~((An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals))~~ Appellate review of the superior court's decision may be sought as in other causes.

Sec. 40. Section 16, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 8, chapter 477, Laws of 1987 and RCW 36.93.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the jurisdiction of the boundary review board has been invoked, the board shall set the date, time and place for a public hearing on the proposal. The board shall give at least thirty days' advance written notice of the date, time and place of the hearing to the governing body of each governmental unit having jurisdiction within the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed, formed, incorporated, disincorporated, dissolved or consolidated, or within the boundaries of a special district whose assets and facilities are proposed to be assumed by a city or town, and to the governing body of each city within three miles of the exterior boundaries of such area and to the proponent of such change. Notice shall also be given by publication in any newspaper of general circulation in the area of the proposed boundary change at least three times, the last publication of which shall be not less than five days prior to the date set for the public hearing. Notice shall also be posted in ten public places in the area affected for five days when the area is ten acres or more. When the area affected is less than ten acres, five notices shall be posted in five public places for five days. Notice as provided in this subsection shall include any territory which the board has determined to consider adding in accordance with RCW 36.93.150(2).

(2) A verbatim record shall be made of all testimony presented at the hearing and upon request and payment of the reasonable costs thereof, a copy of the transcript of such testimony shall be provided to any person or governmental unit.

(3) The chairman upon majority vote of the board or a panel may direct the chief clerk of the boundary review board to issue subpoenas to any public officer to testify, and to compel the production by him of any records, books, documents, public records or public papers.

(4) Within forty days after the conclusion of the final hearing on the proposal, the board shall file its written decision, setting forth the reasons therefor, with the board of county commissioners and the clerk of each governmental unit directly affected. The written decision shall indicate whether the proposed change is approved, rejected or modified and, if modified, the terms of such modification. The written decision need not include specific data on every factor required to be considered by the board, but shall indicate that all standards were given consideration. Dissenting members of the board shall have the right to have their written dissents included as part of the decision.

(5) Unanimous decisions of the hearing panel or a decision of a majority of the members of the board shall constitute the decision of the board and shall not be appealable to the whole board. Any other decision shall be appealable to the entire board within ten days. Appeals shall be on the record, which shall be furnished by the appellant, but the board may, in its sole discretion, permit the introduction of additional evidence and argument. Decisions shall be final and conclusive unless within ten days from the date of said action a governmental unit affected by the decision or any person owning real property or residing in the area affected by the decision files in the superior court a notice of appeal.

The filing of such notice of appeal within such time limit shall stay the effective date of the decision of the board until such time as the appeal shall have been adjudicated or withdrawn. On appeal the superior court shall not take any evidence other than that contained in the record of the hearing before the board.

(6) The superior court may affirm the decision of the board or remand the case for further proceedings; or it may reverse the decision if any substantial rights may have been prejudiced because the administrative findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:

- (a) In violation of constitutional provisions, or
- (b) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the board, or
- (c) Made upon unlawful procedure, or
- (d) Affected by other error of law, or
- (e) Unsupported by material and substantial evidence in view of the entire record as submitted, or

(f) Arbitrary or capricious.

An aggrieved party may ~~((secure a))~~ seek appellate review of any final judgment of the superior court ~~((by appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals. Such appeal shall be taken))~~ in the manner provided by law ~~((for appeals from the superior court))~~ as in other civil cases.

Sec. 41. Section 29, chapter 72, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 98, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 36.94.290 are each amended to read as follows:

The decision of the board of county commissioners upon any objections made within the time and in the manner herein prescribed, may be reviewed by the superior court upon an appeal thereto taken in the following manner. Such appeal shall be made by filing written notice of appeal with the clerk of the board of county commissioners and with the clerk of the superior court within ten days after the resolution confirming such assessment roll shall have become published, and such notice shall describe the property and set forth the objections of such appellant to such assessment. Within the ten days from the filing of such notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court, the appellant shall file with the clerk of said court, a transcript consisting of the assessment roll and his objections thereto, together with the resolution confirming such assessment roll and the record of the board of county commissioners with reference to said assessment, which transcript, upon payment of the necessary fees therefor, shall be furnished by such clerk of the board of county commissioners and by him certified to contain full, true and correct copies of all matters and proceedings required to be included in such transcript. Such fees shall be the same as the fees payable to the county clerk for the preparation and certification of transcripts on appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals in civil actions. At the time of the filing of the notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court a sufficient bond in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, with sureties thereon as provided by law for appeals in civil cases, shall be filed conditioned to prosecute such appeal without delay, and if unsuccessful, to pay all costs to which the county is put by reason of such appeal. The court may order the appellant upon application therefor, to execute and file such additional bond or bonds as the necessity of the case may require. Within three days after such transcript is filed in the superior court, as aforesaid, the appellant shall give written notice to the clerk of the board of county commissioners that such transcript is filed. Said notice shall state a time, not less than three days from the service thereof, when the appellant will call up the said cause for hearing. The superior court shall, at said time or at such further time as may be fixed by order of the court, hear and determine such appeal without a jury, and such cause shall have preference over all civil causes pending in said court, except proceedings under an act relating to eminent domain in such county and actions of forcible entry and detainer. The judgment of the court shall confirm, correct, modify or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the decision of the court shall be filed with the officer who shall have the custody of the assessment roll, and he shall modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision. ~~((An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from))~~ Appellate review of the judgment of the superior court ~~((;))~~ may be sought as in other cases ~~((;))~~. However, ~~((such appeal))~~ review must be ~~((taken))~~ sought within fifteen days after the date of the entry of the judgment of such superior court ~~((; and the record and opening brief of the appellant in said cause shall be filed in the supreme court or the court of appeals within sixty days after the appeal shall have been taken by notice as provided in this section. The time for filing such record and serving and filing of briefs in this section prescribed may be extended by order of the superior court or by stipulation of the parties concerned))~~. The supreme court or the court of appeals on such appeal may correct, change, modify, confirm or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the order of the supreme court or the court of appeals upon such appeal shall be filed with the officer having custody of such assessment roll, who shall thereupon modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision.

Sec. 42. Section 15, chapter 311, Laws of 1981 and RCW 41.64.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court shall review the hearing without a jury on the basis of the transcript and exhibits, except that in case of alleged irregularities in procedure before the board not shown by the transcript the court may order testimony to be given thereon. The court shall upon request by either party hear oral argument and receive written briefs.

(2) The court may affirm the order of the board, remand the matter for further proceedings before the board, or reverse or modify the order if it finds that the objection thereto is well taken on any of the grounds stated. ~~((Appeal shall be available to the employee to the supreme court or the court of appeals from))~~ Appellate review of the order of the superior court may be sought as in other civil cases.

Sec. 43. Section 49, chapter 62, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 43.21B.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Within thirty days after the final decision and order of the hearings board upon such an appeal has been communicated to the interested parties, or within thirty days after an appeal has been denied after an informal hearing, such interested party aggrieved by the decision and order of the hearings board may appeal to the superior court. In all appeals involving a decision or an order of the hearings board after an informal hearing, the petition shall be filed in the superior court for the county of the petitioner's residence or principal place of business, or in the absence of a residence or principal place of business, for Thurston county. Such appeal may be perfected by filing with the clerk of the superior court a notice of appeal, and by serving a copy thereof by mail, or personally on the director, the air pollution control boards or authorities, established pursuant to chapter 70.94 RCW or on the board as the case may be. The hearings board shall serve upon the appealing party, the director, the air pollution control board or authorities established pursuant to chapter 70.94 RCW, or the board, as the case may be, and on any other party appearing at the hearings board's proceeding, and file with the clerk of the court before trial, a certified copy of the hearings board's decision and order. ~~(Every appeal from)~~ Appellate review of a decision of the superior court ~~((shall go directly to the supreme court, notwithstanding RCW 2.06.030))~~ may be sought as in other civil cases. No bond shall be required on appeals to the superior court or on ~~((appeals to))~~ review by the supreme court unless specifically required by the judge of the superior court.

Sec. 44. Section 43.52.430, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 10, chapter 184, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.430 are each amended to read as follows:

Any party in interest deeming itself aggrieved by any order of the director of the department of ecology may appeal to the superior court of Thurston county by serving upon the director and filing with clerk of said court within thirty days after the entry of the order a notice of appeal. The director shall, within ten days after service of the notice of appeal, file with the clerk of the court a return containing a true copy of the order appealed from, together with a transcript of the record of the proceeding before the director, after which the appeal shall be at issue. The appeal shall be heard and decided by the court upon the record before the director and the court may either affirm, set aside, or remand the order appealed from for further proceedings. ~~((Appeal may be had to the supreme court or the court of appeals as in the case of civil appeals.))~~ Appellate review of the superior court's decision may be sought as in other civil cases.

Sec. 45. Section 47.32.060, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 180, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 47.32.060 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time and place appointed for hearing upon the complaint, which hearing shall be by summary proceedings, if the court or judge thereof finds that due notice has been given by posting and publication and that the order of the department was duly made, and is further satisfied and finds that the state highway or portion thereof described is legally a state highway having the width of right of way specified in the order and that the structure, buildings, improvements, or other means of occupancy of the state highway or portion thereof as stated in the certificate of the department do in fact encroach, or that any portion thereof encroach, upon the state highway right of way, the court or judge thereof shall thereupon make and enter an order establishing that each of the structures, buildings, improvements, and other means of occupancy specified in the order is unlawfully maintained within the right of way and is subject to confiscation and sale and that they be forthwith confiscated, removed from the right of way, and sold, and providing that six days after the entry of the order, a writ shall issue from the court directed to the sheriff of the county, commanding the sheriff to seize and remove from the right of way of the state highway each such structure, building, improvement, or other means of occupancy specified in the order forthwith on receipt of a writ based on the order and to take and hold the property in his custody for a period of ten days, unless redelivered earlier as provided for by law, and if not then so redelivered to sell the property at public or private sale and to pay the proceeds thereof into the registry of the court within sixty days after the issuance of the writ, and further in such action, including costs of posting original notices of the department, the costs of posting and publishing notices of hearing as part thereof and any cost of removal, be paid by the clerk to the state treasurer and credited to the motor vehicle fund. The order shall be filed with the clerk of the court and recorded in the minutes of the court, and is final unless appellate review thereof is ~~((taken to the supreme court of the state))~~ sought within five days after filing of the order.

Sec. 46. Section .31.19, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 13, chapter 241, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 48.31.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Proceedings under this chapter involving a domestic insurer shall be commenced in the superior court for the county in which is located the insurer's home office. Proceedings under this chapter involving other insurers shall be commenced in the superior court for Thurston county.

(2) The commissioner shall commence any such proceeding, the attorney general representing him, by an application to the court or to any judge thereof, for an order directing the insurer to show cause why the commissioner should not have the relief prayed for.

(3) Upon a showing of an emergency or threat of imminent loss to policyholders of the insurer the court may issue an ex parte order authorizing the commissioner immediately to take over the premises and assets of the insurer, the commissioner then to preserve the status quo, pending a hearing on the order to show cause, which shall be heard as soon as the court calendar permits in preference to other civil cases.

(4) In response to any order to show cause issued under this chapter the insurer shall have the burden of going forward with and producing evidence to show why the relief prayed for by the commissioner is not required.

(5) On the return of such order to show cause, and after a full hearing, the court shall either deny the relief sought in the application or grant the relief sought in the application together with such other relief as the nature of the case and the interest of policyholders, creditors, stockholders, members, subscribers, or the public may require.

(6) No ~~((appeal taken from))~~ appellate review of a superior court order, entered after a hearing, granting the commissioner's petition to rehabilitate an insurer or to carry out an insolvency proceeding under this chapter, shall stay the action of the commissioner in the discharge of his responsibilities under this chapter, pending a decision by the appellate court in the matter.

(7) In any proceeding under this chapter the commissioner and his deputies shall be responsible on their official bonds for the faithful performance of their duties. If the court deems it desirable for the protection of the assets, it may at any time require an additional bond from the commissioner or his deputies.

Sec. 47. Section 21, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 24, chapter 185, Laws of 1985 and RCW 49.60.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission shall petition the court within the county wherein any unfair practice occurred or wherein any person charged with an unfair practice resides or transacts business for the enforcement of any final order which is not complied with and is issued by the commissioner or an administrative law judge under the provisions of this chapter and for appropriate temporary relief or a restraining order, and shall certify and file in court the final order sought to be enforced. Within five days after filing such petition in court, the commission shall cause a notice of the petition to be sent by registered mail to all parties or their representatives.

(2) From the time the petition is filed, the court shall have jurisdiction of the proceedings and of the questions determined thereon, and shall have the power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and suitable.

(3) If the petition shows that there is a final order issued by the commission or administrative law judge under RCW 49.60.240 or 49.60.250 and that the order has not been complied with in whole or in part, the court shall issue an order directing the person who is alleged to have not complied with the administrative order to appear in court at a time designated in the order, not less than ten days from the date thereof, and show cause why the administrative order should not be enforced according to the terms. The commission shall immediately serve the person with a copy of the court order and the petition.

(4) The administrative order shall be enforced by the court if the person does not appear, or if the person appears and the court finds that:

(a) The order is regular on its face;

(b) The order has not been complied with; and

(c) The person's answer discloses no valid reason why the order should not be enforced, or that the reason given in the person's answer could have been raised by review under RCW 34.04.130, and the person has given no valid excuse for failing to use that remedy.

(5) The jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its judgment and decree shall be final, except that the same shall be subject to ~~((a))~~ appellate review by the supreme court or the court of appeals, on appeal, by either party, irrespective of the nature of the decree or judgment. ~~((Such appeal))~~ The review shall be taken and prosecuted in the same manner and form and with the same effect as is provided in other cases ~~((of appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals, and the record so certified shall contain all that was before the lower court))~~.

Sec. 48. Section 132, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 121, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.32.160 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any attorney engaged in any appeal to the courts on behalf of an individual involving the individual's application for initial determination, or claim for waiting period credit, or claim for benefits to charge or receive any fee therein in excess of a reasonable fee to be fixed by the superior court in respect to the services performed in connection with the appeal taken thereto and to be fixed by the supreme court or the court of appeals in the event of ~~((an appeal thereto))~~ appellate review, and if the decision of the commissioner shall be reversed or modified, such fee and the costs shall be payable out of the unemployment compensation administration fund. In the allowance of fees the court shall give consideration to the provisions of this title in respect to fees pertaining to proceedings involving an individual's application for initial determination, claim for waiting period credit, or claim for benefits. In other respects the practice in civil cases shall apply.

Sec. 49. Section 1, chapter 40, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 6, chapter 109, Laws of 1982 and RCW 51.52.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Within thirty days after a decision of the board to deny the petition or petitions for review upon such appeal has been communicated to such worker, beneficiary, employer or other person, or within thirty days after the final decision and order of the board upon such appeal has been communicated to such worker, beneficiary, employer or other person, or within thirty days after the appeal is denied as herein provided, such worker, beneficiary, employer or other person aggrieved by the decision and order of the board may appeal to the superior court. If such worker, beneficiary, employer, or other person fails to file with the superior court its appeal as provided in this section within said thirty days, the decision of the board to deny the petition or petitions for review or the final decision and order of the board shall become final.

In cases involving injured workers, an appeal to the superior court shall be to the superior court of the county of residence of the worker or beneficiary, as shown by the department's records, or to the superior court of the county wherein the injury occurred or where neither the county of residence nor the county wherein the injury occurred are in the state of Washington then the appeal may be directed to the superior court for Thurston county. In all other cases the appeal shall be to the superior court of Thurston county. Such appeal shall be perfected by filing with the clerk of the court a notice of appeal and by serving a copy thereof by mail, or personally, on the director and on the board. If the case is one involving a self-insurer, a copy of the notice of appeal shall also be served by mail, or personally, on such self-insurer. The department shall, in all cases not involving a self-insurer, within twenty days after the receipt of such notice of appeal, serve and file its notice of appearance and such appeal shall thereupon be deemed at issue. If the case is one involving a self-insurer, such self-insurer shall, within twenty days after receipt of such notice of appeal, serve and file its notice of appearance and such appeal shall thereupon be deemed to be at issue. In such cases the department may appear and take part in any proceedings. The board shall serve upon the appealing party, the director, the self-insurer if the case involves a self-insurer, and any other party appearing at the board's proceeding, and file with the clerk of the court before trial, a certified copy of the board's official record which shall include the notice of appeal and other pleadings, testimony and exhibits, and the board's decision and order, which shall become the record in such case. No bond shall be required on appeals to the superior court or on ~~((appeals to))~~ review by the supreme court or the court of appeals, except that an appeal by the employer from a decision and order of the board under RCW 51.48.070, shall be ineffectual unless, within five days following the service of notice thereof, a bond, with surety satisfactory to the court, shall be filed, conditioned to perform the judgment of the court. Except in the case last named an appeal shall not be a stay: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That whenever the board has made any decision and order reversing an order of the supervisor of industrial insurance on questions of law or mandatory administrative actions of the director, the department shall have the right of appeal to the superior court.

Sec. 50. Section 9, chapter 255, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 75, chapter 230, Laws of 1984 and RCW 52.22.101 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((An appeal from))~~ Appellate review of an order granting or refusing a new trial, or from the judgment, in the special proceedings must be taken by the party aggrieved within thirty days after the entry of the order or the judgment.

Sec. 51. Section 17, chapter 390, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 123, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 54.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Before approval of the roll, a notice shall be published once each week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, stating that the roll is on file and open to inspection in the office of the secretary, and fixing a time not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of the first publication of the notice, within which protests must be filed with the secretary against any assessments shown thereon, and fixing a time when a hearing shall be held by the commission on the protests. After the hearing the commission may alter any and all assessments shown on the roll and may, by resolution, approve it, but if an assessment is raised, a new notice, similar to the first, shall be given, and a hearing had thereon, after which final approval of the roll may be made. Any person aggrieved by the assessments shall perfect an appeal to the superior court of the county within ten days after the approval, in the manner provided for appeals from assessments levied by cities of the first class. In the event such an appeal shall be taken, the judgment of the court shall confirm the assessment insofar as it affects the property of the appellant unless the court shall find from the evidence that such assessment is founded upon a fundamentally wrong basis and/or the decision of the commission thereon was arbitrary or capricious; in which event the judgment of the court shall correct, change, modify, or annul the assessment insofar as it affects the property of the appellant. In the same manner as provided with reference to cities of the first class ~~((an appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from))~~ appellate review of the judgment of the superior court may be sought, as in other cases, ~~((if taken))~~ within fifteen days after the date of the entry of the judgment in the superior court. Engineering, office, and other expenses necessary or incident to the improvement shall be borne by the public utility district: PROVIDED, That when a municipal corporation included in the public utility district already owns or operates a utility of a character like that for which the assessments are levied hereunder, all such engineering and other expenses shall be borne by the local assessment district.

Sec. 52. Section 1, chapter 142, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 124, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 54.16.165 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any land against which there has been levied any special assessment by any public utility district shall have been sold in part or subdivided, the board of commissioners of such public utility district shall have the power to order a segregation of the assessment.

Any person owning any part of the land involved in a special assessment and desiring to have such special assessment against the tracts of land segregated to apply to smaller parts thereof shall apply in writing to the board of commissioners of the public utility district which levied the assessment. If the commissioners determine that a segregation should be made they shall do so as nearly as possible on the same basis as the original assessment was levied and the total of the segregated parts of the assessment shall equal the assessment before segregation.

The commission shall then send notice thereof by mail to the several owners interested in the tract, as shown on the general tax rolls. If no protest is filed within twenty days from date of mailing said notice, the commission shall then by resolution approve said segregation. If a protest is filed, the commission shall have a hearing thereon, after mailing to the several owners at least ten days notice of the time and place thereof. After the hearing, the commission may by resolution approve said segregation, with or without change. Within ten days after the approval, any person aggrieved by the segregation may perfect an appeal to the superior court of the county wherein the property is situated and (~~therefrom to the supreme court or the court of appeals~~) hereafter seek appellate review, all as provided for appeals from assessments levied by cities of the first class. The resolution approving said segregation shall describe the original tract, the amount and date of the original assessment, and shall define the boundaries of the divided parts and the amount of the assessment chargeable to each part, and shall order the county treasurer to make segregation on the original assessment roll as directed in the resolution. A certified copy of the resolution shall be delivered to the county treasurer who shall proceed to make the segregation ordered. The board of commissioners may require as a condition to the order of segregation that the person seeking it pay the public utility district the reasonable engineering and clerical costs incident to making the segregation. Unless otherwise provided in said resolution, the county treasurer shall apportion amounts paid on the original assessment in the same proportion as the segregated assessments bear to the original assessment. Upon segregation being made by the county treasurer, as aforesaid, the lien of the special assessment shall apply to the segregated parcels only to the extent of the segregated part of such assessment.

Sec. 53. Section 13, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 18, chapter 17, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 57.16.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The decision of the water district commission upon any objections made within the time and in the manner herein prescribed, may be reviewed by the superior court upon an appeal thereto taken in the following manner. Such appeal shall be made by filing written notice of appeal with the secretary of said water district commission and with the clerk of the superior court in the county in which the real property is situated within ten days after publication of a notice that the resolution confirming such assessment roll has been adopted, and such notice of appeal shall describe the property and set forth the objections of such appellant to such assessment; and within ten days from the filing of such notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court, the appellant shall file with the clerk of the court, a transcript consisting of the assessment roll and the appellant's objections thereto, together with the resolution confirming such assessment roll and the record of the water district commission with reference to the assessment, which transcript, upon payment of the necessary fees therefor, shall be furnished by the secretary of the water district commission certified by the secretary to contain full, true and correct copies of all matters and proceedings required to be included in such transcript. Such fees shall be the same as the fees payable to the county clerk for the preparation and certification of transcripts on appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals in civil actions. At the time of the filing of the notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court a sufficient bond in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the judge of said court, conditioned to prosecute such appeal without delay, and if unsuccessful to pay all costs to which the water district is put by reason of such appeal. The court may order the appellant upon application therefor, to execute and file such additional bond or bonds as the necessity of the case may require. Within three days after such transcript is filed in the superior court, the appellant shall give written notice to the secretary of such water district, that such transcript is filed. The notice shall state a time, not less than three days from the service thereof, when the appellant will call up the cause for hearing; and the superior court shall, at said time or at such further time as may be fixed by order of the court, hear and determine such appeal without a jury; and such cause shall have preference over all civil causes pending in the court, except proceedings under an act relating to eminent domain and actions of forcible entry and detainer. The judgment of the court shall confirm, correct, modify or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the decision of the court shall be filed with the officer who shall have custody of the assessment roll, who shall modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision. (~~An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from~~) Appellate ~~review of the judgment of the superior court(;) may be sought as in other civil cases(;-PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such appeal must be taken)). However, the review must be sought within fifteen days after the date of the entry of the judgment of such superior court(;-and the record and opening brief of the appellant in the cause shall be filed in the supreme court or the court of appeals within sixty days after the appeal shall have been taken by notice as provided in this title. The time for filing such record and serving and filing of briefs in this section prescribed may be extended by order of the superior court, or by stipulation of the parties concerned. The supreme court or the court of appeals on such appeal may correct, change, modify, confirm or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant)). A certified copy of the order of the supreme court or the court of appeals upon such appeal shall be filed with the officer having custody of such assessment roll, who shall thereupon modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision.~~

Sec. 54. Section 49, chapter 231, Laws of 1909 as amended by section 127, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 58.28.490 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Appeals and writs of review may be prosecuted to the supreme court or the court of appeals from a superior court from)) Appellate review of the judgment or orders of the superior court in all cases arising under this chapter or said acts of congress may be sought as in other civil cases ((and the general statutes as to the commencement of actions, bringing the same to trial, making an entry of judgment, the taking and perfecting appeals, and the making up of the records on appeal and relating to writs of review in the superior court, court of appeals, and supreme court, and all other procedure in the superior court, court of appeals, and supreme court shall be applicable to actions under this chapter and under said acts of congress)).~~

Sec. 55. Section 22, chapter 96, Laws of 1891 as amended by section 128, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 59.12.200 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((if either)) A party ((feels)) aggrieved by the judgment ((he)) may ((appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals;)) seek appellate review of the judgment as in other civil actions: PROVIDED, That if the defendant appealing desires a stay of proceedings pending ((such appeal; he)) review, the defendant shall execute and file a bond, with two or more sufficient sureties to be approved by the judge, conditioned to abide the order of the court ((on such appeal)), and to pay all rents and other damages justly accruing to the plaintiff during the pendency of the ((appeal)) proceeding.~~

Sec. 56. Section 27, chapter 250, Laws of 1907 as amended by section 132, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 65.12.175 are each amended to read as follows:

If the court, after hearing, finds that the applicant has title, whether as stated in his application or otherwise, proper for registration, a decree of confirmation of title and registration shall be entered. Every decree of registration shall bind the land, and quiet the title thereto, except as herein otherwise provided, and shall be forever binding and conclusive upon all persons, whether mentioned by name in the application, or included in "all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in, to, or upon the real estate described in the application herein", and such decree shall not be opened by reason of the absence, infancy or other disability of any person affected thereby, nor by any proceeding at law, or in equity, for reversing judgments or decrees, except as herein especially provided. ~~((An appeal may be taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state of Washington, within the same time, upon like notice, terms and conditions as are now provided for the taking of appeals from the superior court to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state of Washington)) Appellate review of the court's decision may be sought as in other civil actions.~~

Sec. 57. Section 72.33.240, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 61, chapter 80, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 72.33.240 are each amended to read as follows:

Any parent, guardian, limited guardian, or other court appointed personal representative feeling aggrieved by an adverse decision pertaining to admission, placement, or discharge of his ward may apply to the secretary in writing within thirty days of notification of the decision for a review and reconsideration of the decision. An administrative hearing shall be held within ten days from the date of receipt of the written request for review. In the event of an unfavorable ruling by the secretary, such parent, guardian, limited guardian, or other court appointed personal representative may institute proceedings in the superior court of the state of Washington in the county of residence of such parent or guardian, otherwise in Thurston county, and have such decision reviewed and its correctness, reasonableness, and lawfulness decided in an appeal heard as in initial proceeding on an original application. Said parent, guardian, limited guardian, or other court appointed personal representative ~~((shall have the right to appeal from)) may seek appellate review of the decision of the superior court ((to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state of Washington;)) as in other civil cases.~~

Sec. 58. Section 74.08.080, chapter 26, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 136, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 74.08.080 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event an appellant feels himself aggrieved by the decision rendered in the hearing provided for in RCW 74.08.070, he shall have the right to petition the superior court for judicial review in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

Either party may ~~((appeal from))~~ seek appellate review of the decision of the superior court ((to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state)); PROVIDED, That no filing fee shall be collected of the appellant and no bond shall be required on any ~~((appeal))~~ review under this chapter. In the event that the superior court, the court of appeals, or the supreme court renders a decision in favor of the appellant, said appellant shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs. If a decision of the court is made in favor of the appellant, assistance shall be paid from date of the denial of the application or forty-five days following the date of application, whichever is sooner; or in the case of a recipient, from the effective date of the initial departmental county office decision.

Sec. 59. Section 125, chapter 255, Laws of 1927 as amended by section 139, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 79.01.500 are each amended to read as follows:

Any applicant to purchase, or lease, any public lands of the state, or any valuable materials thereon, and any person whose property rights or interests will be affected by such sale or lease, feeling himself aggrieved by any order or decision of the board of state land commissioners, or the commissioner of public lands, concerning the same, may appeal therefrom to the superior court of the county in which such lands or materials are situated, by serving upon all parties who have appeared in the proceedings in which the order or decision was made, or their attorneys, a written notice of appeal, and filing such notice, with proof, or admission, of service, with the board, or the commissioner, within thirty days from the date of the order or decision appealed from, and at the time of filing the notice, or within five days thereafter, filing a bond to the state, in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the secretary of the board, or the commissioner, conditioned that the appellant shall pay all costs that may be awarded against him on appeal, or the dismissal thereof. Within thirty days after the filing of notice of appeal, the secretary of the board, or the commissioner, shall certify, under official seal, a transcript of all entries in the records of the board, or the commissioner, together with all processes, pleadings and other papers relating to and on file in the case, except evidence used in such proceedings, and file such transcript and papers, at the expense of the applicant, with the clerk of the court to which the appeal is taken. The hearing and trial of said appeal in the superior court shall be de novo before the court, without a jury, upon the pleadings and papers so certified, but the court may order the pleadings to be amended, or new and further pleadings to be filed. Costs on appeal shall be awarded to the prevailing party as in actions commenced in the superior court, but no costs shall be awarded against the state, the board, or the commissioner. Should judgment be rendered against the appellant, the costs shall be taxed against him and his sureties on the appeal bond, except when the state is the only adverse party, and shall be included in the judgment, upon which execution may issue as in other cases. Any party feeling himself aggrieved by the judgment of the superior court may ~~((appeal therefrom to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state, in the manner, and within the time, for appealing from judgments in actions at law))~~ seek appellate review as in other civil cases. Unless ~~((appeal be taken from))~~ appellate review of the judgment of the superior court is sought, the clerk of said court shall, on demand, certify, under his hand and the seal of the court, a true copy of the judgment, to the board, or the commissioner, which judgment shall thereupon have the same force and effect as if rendered by the board, or the commissioner. In all cases of appeals from orders or decisions of the commissioner of public lands involving the prior right to purchase tidelands of the first class, if the appeal be not prosecuted, heard and determined, within two years from the date of the appeal, the attorney general shall, after thirty days' notice to the appellant of his intention so to do, move the court for a dismissal of the appeal, but nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the dismissal of such appeal at any time in the manner provided by law.

Sec. 60. Section 80.04.190, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 107, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 80.04.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission, any public service company or any complainant may, after the entry of judgment in the superior court in any action of review, ~~((prosecute an appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state of Washington))~~ seek appellate review as in other cases.

Sec. 61. Section 80.04.260, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 140, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 80.04.260 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the commission shall be of opinion that any public service company is failing or omitting, or about to fail or omit, to do anything required of it by law, or by order, direction or requirement of the commission, or is doing anything, or about to do anything, or permitting anything, or about to permit anything to be done contrary to or in violation of law or of any order, direction or requirement of the commission authorized by this title, it shall direct the attorney general to commence an action or proceeding in the superior court of the state of Washington for Thurston county, or in the superior court of any county in which such company may do business, in the name of the state of Washington on the relation of the commission, for the purpose of having such violations or threatened violations stopped and prevented, either by mandamus or injunction. The attorney general shall thereupon begin such action or proceeding by petition to such superior court, alleging the violation complained of, and praying for the appropriate relief by way of mandamus or injunction. It shall thereupon be the duty of the court to specify a time, not exceeding twenty days after the service of the copy of the petition, within which the public service company complained of must answer the petition. In case of default in answer or after answer, the court shall immediately inquire into the facts and circumstances in such manner as the court shall direct, without other or formal pleadings, and without respect to any technical requirement. Such persons or corporations as the court may deem necessary or proper to be joined as parties, in order to make its judgment, order or writ effective, may be joined as parties. The final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall either dismiss the action or proceeding or direct that the writ of mandamus or injunction, or both, issue as prayed for in the petition, or in such other modified form as the court may determine will afford appropriate relief. ~~((An appeal may be taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals from such))~~ Appellate review of the final judgment may be sought in the same manner and with the same effect as ~~((appeals from))~~ review of judgments of the superior court in actions to review orders of the commission. All provisions of this chapter relating to the time of ~~((appeal))~~ review, the manner of perfecting the same, the filing of briefs, hearings and supersedeas, shall apply to appeals to the supreme court or the court of appeals under the provisions of this section.

Sec. 62. Section 14, chapter 45, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 64, Laws of 1981 and RCW 80.50.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A final decision pursuant to RCW 80.50.100 on an application for certification shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW and this section. Petitions for review of such a decision shall be filed in the Thurston county superior court. All petitions for review of a decision under RCW 80.50.100 shall be consolidated into a single proceeding before the Thurston county superior court. The Thurston county superior court shall certify the petition for review to the supreme court upon the following conditions:

- (a) Review can be made on the administrative record;
- (b) Fundamental and urgent interests affecting the public interest and development of energy facilities are involved which require a prompt determination;
- (c) ~~((An appeal to))~~ Review by the supreme court would likely be ((made)) sought regardless of the determination of the Thurston county superior court; and
- (d) The record is complete for review.

The Thurston county superior court shall assign a petition for review of a decision under RCW 80.50.100 for hearing at the earliest possible date and shall expedite such petition in every way possible. If the court finds that review cannot be limited to the administrative record as set forth in subparagraph (a) of this subsection because there are alleged irregularities in the procedure before the council not found in the record, but finds that the standards set forth in subparagraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection are met, the court shall proceed to take testimony and determine such factual issues raised by the alleged irregularities and certify the petition and its determination of such factual issues to the supreme court. Upon certification, the supreme court shall assign the petition for hearing at the earliest possible date, and it shall expedite its review and decision in every way possible.

(2) Objections raised by any party in interest concerning procedural error by the council shall be filed with the council within sixty days of the commission of such error, or within thirty days of the first public hearing or meeting of the council at which the general subject matter to which the error is related is discussed, whichever comes later, or such objection shall be deemed waived for purposes of judicial review as provided in this section.

(3) The rules and regulations adopted by the council shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 63. Section 81.04.190, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 107, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 81.04.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission, any public service company or any complainant may, after the entry of judgment in the superior court in any action of review, ~~((prosecute an appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state of Washington))~~ seek appellate review as in other cases.

Sec. 64. Section 81.04.260, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 143, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 81.04.260 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the commission shall be of opinion that any public service company is failing or omitting, or about to fail or omit, to do anything required of it by law, or by order, direction or requirement of the commission, or is doing anything, or about to do anything, or permitting anything, or about to permit anything to be done contrary to or in violation of law or of any order, direction or requirement of the commission authorized by this title, it shall direct the attorney general to commence an action or proceeding in the superior court of the state of Washington for Thurston county, or in the superior court of any county in which such company may do business, in the name of the state of Washington on the relation of the commission, for the purpose of having such violations or threatened violations stopped and prevented, either by mandamus or injunction. The attorney general shall thereupon begin such action or proceeding by petition to such superior court, alleging the violation complained of, and praying for appropriate relief by way of mandamus or injunction. It shall thereupon be the duty of the court to specify a time, not exceeding twenty days after the service of the copy of the petition, within which the public service company complained of must answer the petition. In case of default in answer or after answer, the court shall immediately inquire into the facts and circumstances in such manner as the court shall direct, without other or formal pleadings, and without respect to any technical requirement. Such persons or corporations as the court may deem necessary or proper to be joined as parties, in order to make its judgment, order or writ effective, may be joined as parties. The final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall either dismiss the action or proceeding or direct that the writ of mandamus or injunction, or both, issue as prayed for in the petition, or in such other modified form as the court may determine will afford appropriate relief. ~~((An appeal may be taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals from such))~~ Appellate review of the final judgment may be sought in the same manner and with the same effect as ~~((appeals from))~~ review of judgments of the superior court in actions to review orders of the commission. All provisions of this chapter relating to the time of ~~((appeal))~~ review, the manner of perfecting the same, the filing of briefs, hearings and supersedeas, shall apply to appeals to the supreme court or the court of appeals under the provisions of this section.

Sec. 65. Section 81.53.130, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 144, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 81.53.130 are each amended to read as follows:

In the construction of new railroads across existing highways, the railroads shall do or cause to be done all the work of constructing the crossings and road changes that may be required, and shall acquire and furnish whatever property or easements may be necessary, and shall pay, as provided in RCW 81.53.100 through 81.53.120, the entire expense of such work including all compensation or damages for property or property rights taken, damaged or injuriously affected. In all other cases the construction work may be apportioned by the commission between the parties who may be required to contribute to the cost thereof as the parties may agree, or as the commission may consider advisable. All work within the limits of railroad rights of way shall in every case be done by the railroad company owning or operating the same. The cost of acquiring additional lands, rights or easements to provide for the change of existing crossings shall, unless the parties otherwise agree, in the first instance be paid by the municipality or county within which the crossing is located; or in the case of a state road or parkway, shall be paid in the manner provided by law for paying the cost of acquiring lands, rights or easements for the construction of state roads or parkways. The expense accruing on account of property taken or damaged shall be divided and paid in the manner provided for dividing and paying other costs of construction. Upon the completion of the work and its approval by the commission, an accounting shall be had, and if it shall appear that any party has expended more than its proportion of the total cost, a settlement shall be forthwith made. If the parties shall be unable to agree upon a settlement, the commission shall arbitrate, adjust and settle the account after notice to the parties. In the event of failure and refusal of any party to pay its proportion of the expense, the sum with interest from the date of the settlement may be recovered in a civil action by the party entitled thereto. In cases where the commission has settled the account, the finding of the commission as to the amount due shall be conclusive in any civil action brought to recover the same if such finding has not been reviewed or appealed from as herein provided, and the time for review or appeal has expired. If any party shall seek review ~~((or appeal from))~~ of any finding or order of the commission apportioning the cost between the parties liable therefor, the superior court, the court of appeals, or the supreme court, as the case may be, shall cause judgment to be entered in such review proceedings for such sum or sums as may be found lawfully or justly due by one party to another.

Sec. 66. Section 81.53.170, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 145, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 81.53.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the petition of any party to a proceeding before the commission, any finding or findings, or order or orders of the commission, made under color of authority of this chapter, except as otherwise provided, may be reviewed in the superior court of the county wherein the crossing is situated, and the reasonableness and lawfulness of such finding or findings, order or orders inquired into and determined, as provided in this title for the review of the commission's orders generally. ~~((An appeal may be taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals from))~~ Appellate review of the judgment of the superior court may be sought in like manner as provided in said utilities and transportation commission law for ~~((appeals to))~~ review by the supreme court or the court of appeals.

Sec. 67. Section 82.32.180, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 148, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 82.32.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, except one who has failed to keep and preserve books, records, and invoices as required in this chapter and chapter 82.24 RCW, having paid any tax as required and feeling aggrieved by the amount of the tax may appeal to the superior court of Thurston county, within the time limitation for a refund provided in chapter 82.32 RCW. In the appeal the taxpayer shall set forth the amount of the tax imposed upon him which he concedes to be the correct tax and the reason why the tax should be reduced or abated. The appeal shall be perfected by serving a copy of the notice of appeal upon the department within the time herein specified and by filing the original thereof with proof of service with the clerk of the superior court of Thurston county. Within ten days after filing notice of appeal, the taxpayer shall file with the clerk of the superior court a good and sufficient surety bond payable to the state in the sum of two hundred dollars, conditioned to diligently prosecute the appeal and pay the state all costs that may be awarded if the appeal of the taxpayer is not sustained.

The trial in the superior court on appeal shall be de novo and without the necessity of any pleadings other than the notice of appeal. The burden shall rest upon the taxpayer to prove that the tax as paid by him is incorrect, either in whole or in part, and to establish the correct amount of the tax. In such proceeding the taxpayer shall be deemed the plaintiff, and the state, the defendant; and both parties shall be entitled to subpoena the attendance of witnesses as in other civil actions and to produce evidence that is competent, relevant, and material to determine the correct amount of the tax that should be paid by the taxpayer. Either party (~~shall be allowed to appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals~~) may seek appellate review in the same manner as other civil actions are appealed to those courts.

It shall not be necessary for the taxpayer to protest against the payment of any tax or to make any demand to have the same refunded or to petition the director for a hearing in order to appeal to the superior court, but no court action or proceeding of any kind shall be maintained by the taxpayer to recover any tax paid, or any part thereof, except as herein provided.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to any tax payment which has been the subject of an appeal to the board of tax appeals with respect to which appeal a formal hearing has been elected.

Sec. 68. Section 84.28.080, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 152, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 84.28.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the department or the department of revenue shall enter an order or decision with respect to classification or declassification of forest lands under this chapter, the owner of such lands, the department, the county assessor of the county in which such lands are located, or the taxpayers in a case arising under RCW 84.28.060, may, within thirty days following the entry of such order or decision, appeal to the superior court of the county within which such lands are situated for a review of the order or decision of the department or of the department of revenue. The appeal shall be perfected in the same manner as is provided by law for appeals from decisions of the department of revenue. Upon such appeal, the superior court shall sit without a jury, shall receive evidence de novo and shall determine the correct classification of the lands involved in accordance with the requirements of this chapter. The decision of the superior court shall be subject to (~~appeal and~~) appellate review (~~in the supreme court or the court of appeals~~) in the same manner (~~and by the same procedure~~) as appeals are taken and perfected in civil actions at law. Upon (~~appeal from~~) review of any order or decisions of the department or the department of revenue and pending the dismissal or final determination of such (~~appeal~~) review, the lands involved shall be assessed and taxed in the same manner as they were assessed and taxed prior to the effective date of such order or decision.

Whenever the whole or any part of the forest crop shall be cut upon any lands classified and assessed as reforestation lands under the provisions of this chapter, the owner of such lands shall, on or before the fifteenth day of February of each year, report under oath to the assessor of the county in which such lands are located, the amount of such timber or other forest crop cut during the preceding twelve months, in units of measure in conformity with the usage for which the cutting was made, together with a description, by government legal subdivisions, of the lands upon which the same were cut. If no such report of cutting is made, or if the assessor shall believe the report to be inaccurate, incorrect or mistaken, the assessor may by such methods as shall be deemed advisable, determine the amount of timber or other forest product cut during such period. As soon as the report is filed, if the assessor is satisfied with the accuracy of the report, or if dissatisfied, as soon as the assessor shall have determined the amount of timber or forest crop cut as herein provided, the assessor shall determine the full current stumpage rates for the timber or forest crop cut and shall thereupon compute, and there shall become due and payable from the owner, a yield tax equal to twelve and one-half percent of the market value of the timber or forest crop so cut, based upon the full current stumpage rates so fixed by the assessor: PROVIDED, Whenever within the period of twelve years following the classification of any lands as reforestation lands, any forest material shall be cut on such lands, the owner thereof shall be required to pay a yield tax of one percent for each year that has expired from the date of such classification until such cutting: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no yield tax need be paid on any forest material cut for domestic use of the owner of such lands, or on materials necessarily used in harvesting the forest crop.

Whenever the owner is dissatisfied with the determination of the amount cut as made by the assessor, or with the full current stumpage rates as fixed by the assessor, and shall pay the tax based thereon under protest, such owner may maintain an action in the superior court of the county in which the lands are located for recovery of the amount of the tax paid in excess of what the owner alleges the tax would be if based upon a cutting or stumpage rate which the owner alleges to be correct. In any such action the county involved and the county assessor of the county, shall be joined as parties defendant, but in case a recovery is allowed, judgment shall be entered against the county only, to be charged against the funds to which the collected tax was paid. In such action the court shall determine, in accordance with the issues, the true and correct amount of timber and forest crop which has been cut, and if an issue in the case, the true and correct full current stumpage rates, and shall enter judgment accordingly, either dismissing the action, or allowing recovery based upon its determination of the amount of timber or forest crop cut and if in issue, the full current stumpage rate. The judgment of the superior court shall be subject to ~~((appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals))~~ appellate review in the same manner and by the same procedure as appeals are taken and perfected in civil actions at law.

Sec. 70. Section 84.64.120, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 154, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 84.64.120 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Appeals from))~~ Appellate review of the judgment of the superior court may be ~~((taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals at any time))~~ sought as in other civil cases. However, review must be sought within thirty days after the ~~((rendition of said))~~ entry of the judgment ~~((by giving notice thereof orally in open court at the time of the rendition of the judgment, or by giving written notice thereof at any time thereafter, and within thirty days from the date of the rendition of such judgment;))~~ and the party taking such appeal shall execute, serve and file a bond payable to the state of Washington, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the court, in an amount to be fixed by the court, conditioned that the appellant shall prosecute his said appeal with effect, and will pay the amount of any taxes, interest and costs which may be finally adjudged against the real property involved in the appeal by any court having jurisdiction of the cause, which bond shall be so served and filed at the time of the service of said notice of appeal, and the respondent may, within five days after the service of such bond, object to the sureties thereon, or to the form and substance of such bond, in the court in which the action is pending, and if, upon hearing of such objections to said bond, it is determined by the court that the sureties thereon are insufficient for any reason, or that the bond is defective for any other reason, the court shall direct a new bond to be executed with sureties thereon, to be justified as provided by law, but no appeal shall be allowed from any judgment for the sale of land or lot for taxes, and no bond given on appeal as herein provided shall operate as a supersedeas, unless the party taking such appeal shall before the time of giving notice of such appeal, and within thirty days herein allowed within which to appeal, deposit with the county treasurer of the county in which the land or lots are situated, an amount of money equal to the amount of the judgment and costs rendered in such cause by the trial court. If, in case of an appeal, the judgment of the lower court shall be affirmed, in whole or in part, the supreme court or the court of appeals shall enter judgment for the amount of taxes, interest and costs, with damages not to exceed twenty percent, and shall order that the amount deposited with the treasurer as aforesaid, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be credited upon the judgment so rendered, and execution shall issue for the balance of said judgment, damages and costs. The clerk of the supreme court or the clerk of the division of the court of appeals in which the appeal is pending shall transmit to the county treasurer of the county in which the land or lots are situated a certified copy of the order of affirmance, and it shall be the duty of such county treasurer upon receiving the same to apply so much of the amount deposited with him, as aforesaid, as shall be necessary to satisfy the amount of the judgment of the supreme court, and to account for the same as collected taxes. If the judgment of the superior court shall be reversed and the cause remanded for a rehearing, and if, upon a rehearing, judgment shall be rendered for the sale of the land or lots for taxes, or any part thereof, and such judgment be not appealed from, as herein provided, the clerk of such superior court shall certify to the county treasurer the amount of such judgment, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to certify to the county clerk the amount deposited with him, as aforesaid, and the county clerk shall credit such judgment with the amount of such deposit, or so much thereof as will satisfy the judgment, and the county treasurer shall be chargeable and accountable for the amount so credited as collected taxes. Nothing herein shall be construed as requiring an additional deposit in case of more than one appeal being prosecuted in said proceeding. If, upon a final hearing, judgment shall be refused for the sale of the land or lots for the taxes, penalties, interest and costs, or any part thereof, in said proceedings, the county treasurer shall pay over to the party who shall have made such deposit, or his legally authorized agent or representative, the amount of the deposit, or so much thereof as shall remain after the satisfaction of the judgment against the land or lots in respect to which such deposit shall have been made.

Sec. 71. Section 84.64.400, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 155, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 84.64.400 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by the judgment rendered in such action ~~((shall have the right to appeal from))~~ may seek appellate review of the part of said judgment objectionable to him ~~((to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state substantially))~~ in the manner and within the time prescribed for appeals in RCW 84.64.120.

Sec. 72. Section 10, chapter 153, Laws of 1915 as amended by section 156, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 85.05.079 are each amended to read as follows:

Either the dike commissioners or any landowner who has appealed to the superior court in accordance with the provisions of this act (~~shall have a right to appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals~~) may seek appellate review within the time and in the manner prescribed by existing law.

Sec. 73. Section 6, chapter 342, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 158, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 85.05.470 are each amended to read as follows:

Any protestant who filed a protest prior to the final order of the board, may appeal from such final order, but to do so must within ten days from the date said order was entered, bring direct action in the superior court in the county wherein such district or portion thereof is situated, against such board of commissioners in their official capacity, which action shall be prosecuted under the procedure of civil actions, with (~~right of appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals~~) appellate review as provided in civil actions. In any such action so brought, the order of the board shall be conclusive of the regularity and propriety of the proceedings, and all other matters, except it shall be open to attack upon the ground of fraud, unfair dealing, arbitrary or unreasonable action of the board.

Sec. 74. Section 9, chapter 67, Laws of 1903 and RCW 85.06.630 are each amended to read as follows:

From any final order entered by the said superior court as above provided for, any party to said proceeding feeling himself aggrieved thereby may (~~take an appeal to the supreme court of the state of Washington~~) seek appellate review, as provided by the general appeal law of this state.

Sec. 75. Section 3, chapter 170, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 160, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 85.06.660 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the board of commissioners of any district desire to exercise any of the foregoing powers under this act, it shall pass a resolution declaring its intention to do so, which shall describe in general terms the proposed improvement to be undertaken. The resolution shall set a date upon which the board shall meet to determine whether such work shall be done. Thereafter a copy of such declaratory resolution and a notice of hearing shall be posted by the secretary or member of the board, in three public places in such district at least ten days before the date of hearing. The notice shall state the time and place of hearing and that plans therefor are on file with the secretary of the board subject to inspection by any party interested.

Any property owner affected by such proposed improvement, or any property owner within such district, may appear at said hearing and object to said proposed improvement by filing a written protest against the proposed action of the board. The protest shall clearly state the basis thereof. At such hearing, which shall be public, the board shall give full consideration to the proposed project and all protests filed, and on said date or any adjourned date, take final action thereon. If protests be filed before said hearing by owners of more than forty percent of the property in said district, the board shall not have power to make the proposed improvement nor again initiate the same for one year. If the board determines to proceed with such project in its original or modified form, it shall thereupon adopt a resolution so declaring and adopt general plans therefor, which resolution may authorize the acquisition by condemnation, or otherwise, of the necessary rights and properties to complete the same. Any protestant who filed a written protest prior to said hearing may appeal from the order of the board, but to do so must, within ten days from the date of entering of such order, bring direct action in the superior court of the state of Washington in the county wherein such district is situated, against such board of directors in their official capacity, which action shall be prosecuted under the procedure for civil actions, with the right of (~~appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals~~) appellate review, as provided in other civil actions. In any action so brought, the order of the board shall be conclusive of the regularity and propriety of the proceedings and all other matters except it shall be open to attack upon the ground of fraud, unfair dealing, arbitrary, or unreasonable action of the board.

Sec. 76. Section 5, chapter 187, Laws of 1921 as amended by section 161, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 85.06.750 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the return of the verdict of the jury as provided in the preceding section, if it shall appear to the court that the total benefits found by the jury to have accrued to the lands of the district is equal to or exceeds the actual cost of the improvement including the increased cost of completing the same, the court shall enter its judgment in accordance therewith, as supplemental to and in lieu of the original decree fixing the benefits to the respective tracts of land, and thereafter the assessment and levy for the original cost of the construction of the improvement, including the indebtedness incurred for completing the improvement together with interest at the legal rate on the warrants issued therefor, and all assessments and levies if any, for the future maintenance of the drainage system described in the judgment shall be based upon the respective benefits determined and assessed against the respective tracts of land as specified in the judgment. Every person or corporation feeling himself or itself aggrieved by any such judgment may (~~appeal therefrom to the supreme court or the court of appeals~~) seek appellate review within thirty days after the entry thereof, and such (~~appeal~~) review shall bring before the ~~((supreme court or the court of appeals))~~ appellate court the propriety and justness of the verdict of the jury in respect to the parties to the ~~((appeal))~~ proceeding.

Sec. 77. Section 1, chapter 157, Laws of 1921 as amended by section 162, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 85.08.440 are each amended to read as follows:

The decision of the board of county commissioners upon any objections made within the time and in the manner prescribed in RCW 85.08.400 through 85.08.430, may be reviewed by the superior court upon an appeal thereto taken in the following manner. Such appeal shall be made by filing written notice of appeal with the clerk of such board and with the clerk of the superior court of the county in which such drainage or diking improvement district is situated, or in case of joint drainage or diking improvement districts with the clerk of the court of the county in which the greater length of such drainage or diking improvement system lies, within ten days after the order confirming such assessment roll shall have become effective, and such notice shall describe the property and set forth the objections of such appellant to such assessment; and, within ten days from the filing of such notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court, the appellant shall file with the clerk of said court a transcript consisting of the assessment roll and his objections thereto, together with the order confirming such assessment roll, and the record of the board of county commissioners with reference to said assessment, which transcript, upon payment of the necessary fees therefor, shall be furnished by such clerk of the board of county commissioners, and by him certified to contain full, true and correct copies of all matters and proceedings required to be included in such transcript. Such fees shall be the same as the fees payable to the county clerk for the preparation and certification of transcripts on appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals in civil actions. At the time of the filing of the notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court, the appellant shall execute and file with the clerk of the superior court a sufficient bond in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by the judge of said court, conditioned to prosecute such appeal without delay, and if unsuccessful, to pay all costs to which the county or the drainage or diking improvement district is put by reason of such appeal. The court may order the appellant upon application therefor, to execute and file such additional bond or bonds as the necessity of the case may require; within three days after such transcript is filed in the superior court as aforesaid, the appellant shall give written notice to the prosecuting attorney of the county, and to the clerk of the board of county commissioners that such transcript is filed. Said notice shall state a time (not less than three days from the service thereof) when the appellant will call up the said cause for hearing; and the superior court of said county shall, at said time or at such further time as may be fixed by order of the court, hear and determine such appeal without a jury. The judgment of the court shall confirm, correct, modify or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the decision of the court shall be filed with the officer who shall have custody of the assessment roll, and he shall modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision. ~~((An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from))~~ Appellate review of the judgment of the superior court may be sought as in other civil cases ~~((PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such appeal must be taken))~~. However, the review must be sought within fifteen days after the date of the entry of the judgment of such superior court ~~((and the record and opening brief of the appellant in said cause shall be filed in the supreme court or the court of appeals within sixty days after the appeal shall have been taken by notice as provided in this chapter. The time for filing such record and serving and filing of briefs in this section prescribed may be extended by order of the superior court, or by stipulation of the parties concerned. And the supreme court or the court of appeals, on such appeal, may correct, change, modify, confirm or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant))~~. A certified copy of the order of the supreme court or the court of appeals upon such appeal shall be filed with the officer having custody of such assessment roll, who shall thereupon modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision.

Sec. 78. Section 14, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 163, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 85.15.130 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from the superior court))~~ Appellate review may be sought as in other civil cases: PROVIDED, That ~~((such appeal must be taken))~~ review must be sought within fifteen days after the date of entry of the judgment of the superior court. The supreme court or the court of appeals may change, conform, correct, or modify the values of the property in question as shown upon the roll. A certified copy of any judgment of the supreme court or the court of appeals shall be filed with the county treasurer having custody of such roll, who shall thereupon change, modify, or correct such roll in accordance with such judgment as and if required.

Sec. 79. Section 14, chapter 26, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 164, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 85.16.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The decision of the board upon any objections to the determination of benefits and/or apportionment of costs and/or the levy of the assessments therefor, made within the time and in the manner prescribed in RCW 85.16.130, may be reviewed by ~~((appeal to))~~ the superior court of the county in which the district is situated and thereafter ~~((to))~~ by the supreme court or the court of appeals within the time and in the manner and upon the conditions, so far as applicable, provided in RCW 85.08.440, with respect to appeals from and appellate review of the board's apportionment of the cost of construction of the district's system of improvements. The provisions of RCW 85.08.450, shall be controlling as to the regularity, validity, and conclusiveness of all the proceedings hereunder.

Sec. 80. Section 16, chapter 26, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 165, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 85.16.210 are each amended to read as follows:

At such hearing, which may be adjourned from time to time as may be necessary to give all persons interested or affected a reasonable opportunity to be heard, and after consideration of all evidence offered and all factors, situations and conditions bearing upon or determinative of the benefits accruing and to accrue to such pieces or parcels of property, the board shall correct, revise, raise, lower, or otherwise change or confirm the benefits as theretofore determined, in respect of such pieces or parcels of property, as to it shall seem fair, just and equitable under the circumstances, and thereafter such proceedings shall be had with respect to the confirmation or determination of the benefits and making and filing of a roll thereof, as are in RCW 85.16.130, 85.16.150 and 85.16.160 provided. Any property owner affected by any change thus made in the determination of benefits accruing to his property who shall have appeared at the hearing by the board and made written objections thereto as provided in RCW 85.16.130, may appeal from the action of the board to the superior court and ~~((thence to))~~ seek appellate review by the supreme court or the court of appeals, within the time, in the manner and upon the conditions, so far as applicable, provided in RCW 85.08.440, with respect to appeals from the order of the board confirming the apportionment of the original cost of construction.

Sec. 81. Section 15, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 166, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 85.18.140 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from the superior court))~~ Appellate review may be sought as in other civil cases: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That ~~((such appeal must be taken))~~ review must be sought within fifteen days after the date of entry of the judgment of the superior court. The supreme court or the court of appeals, on such appeal, may change, confirm, correct or modify the values of the property in question as shown upon the roll. A certified copy of any judgment of the supreme court or the court of appeals shall be filed with the county auditor having custody of such roll, who shall thereupon change, modify, or correct such roll in accordance with such decision if required.

Sec. 82. Section 6, chapter 225, Laws of 1909 as amended by section 167, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 85.24.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person interested in any real estate affected by said assessment may, within the time fixed, appear and file objections. As to all parcels, lots or blocks as to which no objections are filed, within the time as aforesaid, the assessment thereon shall be confirmed and shall be final. On the hearing, each person may offer proof, and proof may also be offered on behalf of the assessment, and the board shall affirm, modify, change and determine the assessment, in such sum as to the board appears just and right. The commissioners may increase the assessment during such hearing upon any particular tract by mailing notice to the owner at his last known address, to be and appear within a time not less than ten days after the date of the notice, to show cause why his assessment should not be increased. When the assessment is finally equalized and fixed by the board, the secretary thereof shall certify the same to the county treasurer of each county in which the lands are situated, for collection; or if appeal has been taken from any part thereof, then so much thereof as has not been appealed from shall be certified. In case any owner of property appeals to the superior court in relation to the assessment or other matter when the amount of the assessment is determined by the court finally, either upon determination of the superior court, or ~~((appeal to))~~ review by the supreme court or the court of appeals, then the assessment as finally fixed and determined by the court shall be certified by the clerk of the proper court to the county treasurer of the county in which the lands are situated and shall be spread upon and become a part of the assessment roll hereinbefore referred to.

Sec. 83. Section 7, chapter 225, Laws of 1909 as amended by section 168, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 85.24.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who feels aggrieved by the final assessment made against any lot, block or parcel of land owned by him, may appeal therefrom to the superior court of the county in which the land is situated. Such appeal shall be taken within the time and substantially in the manner prescribed by the laws of this state for appeals from justices' courts. All notice of appeal shall be filed with the said board, and shall be served upon the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the action is brought. The secretary of the board shall, at appellant's expense, certify to the superior court so much of the record as appellant may request, and the cause shall be tried in the superior court de novo.

Any person ~~((desiring to appeal from))~~ aggrieved by any final order or judgment made by the superior court concerning any assessment authorized by this chapter, may ~~((appeal therefrom to the supreme court or the court of appeals, in accordance with the laws of this state~~

~~relative to appeals, except that all such appeals shall be taken within thirty days after the entry of such judgment)) seek appellate review of the order or judgment as in other civil cases.~~

Sec. 84. Section 21, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 169, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 85.32.200 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from the superior court))~~ Appellate review may be sought as in other civil cases: PROVIDED, That such ~~((appeal must be taken))~~ review must be sought within fifteen days after the date of entry of the judgment of the superior court. The supreme court or the court of appeals on such ~~((appeal))~~ review may change, confirm, correct or modify the values of the property in question as shown upon the roll. A certified copy of any judgment of the supreme court or the court of appeals shall be filed with the county auditor having custody of such roll, who shall thereupon change, modify, or correct such roll in accordance with such decision, if required.

Sec. 85. Section 8, chapter 194, Laws of 1933 as amended by section 170, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 87.03.410 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by the judgment rendered in such action ~~((shall have the right to appeal from))~~ may seek appellate review of the part of said judgment objectionable to him ((to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state in the manner and within the time prescribed for appeals)) as in civil actions generally.

Sec. 86. Section 3, chapter 138, Laws of 1925 ex. sess. as amended by section 171, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 87.03.760 are each amended to read as follows:

At the conclusion, or final adjournment, of the hearing provided for in RCW 87.03.755, the board of directors of the district shall have the power, by unanimous resolution to adopt the proposed plan, or such modification thereof as may be determined by the board, and reduce the boundaries of the district to such area as, in the judgment of the board, can be furnished with sufficient water for successful irrigation by the irrigation system of the district, and to exclude from the district all lands lying outside of such reduced boundaries, and provide for the repayment to the owners of any such excluded lands, respectively, of any sums paid for assessments levied by the district, and to cancel all unpaid assessments levied by the district against the lands excluded and release such lands from further liability therefor. Any person interested and feeling himself aggrieved by the adoption of such final resolution reducing the boundaries of the district and excluding lands therefrom, shall have a right of appeal from the action of the board to the superior court of the county in which the district is situated, which appeal may be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from justices' courts, and if upon the hearing of such appeal it shall be determined by the court that the irrigation system of the district will not furnish sufficient water for the successful irrigation of the lands included within the reduced boundaries of the district, or that any lands have been excluded from the district unnecessarily, arbitrarily, capriciously or fraudulently or without substantial reason for such exclusion, the court shall enter a decree canceling and setting aside the proceedings of the board of directors, otherwise the court shall enter a decree confirming the action of the board. Any party to the proceedings on appeal in the superior court, feeling himself aggrieved by the decree of the superior court confirming the action of the board of directors of the district reducing the boundaries of the district and excluding lands therefrom, ~~((shall have the right of appeal therefrom to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state of Washington))~~ may seek appellate review within thirty days after the entry of the decree of the superior court in the manner provided by law. If, at the expiration of thirty days from the entry of the final resolution of the board of directors of the district reducing the boundaries of the district and excluding lands therefrom, no appeal has been taken to the superior court of the county in which the district is situated, or if, after hearing upon appeal the superior court shall confirm the action of the district, and at the expiration of thirty days from the entry of such decree, no ~~((appeal has been taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals))~~ appellate review is sought, the boundaries of the district shall thereafter be in accordance with the resolution of the board reducing the boundaries, and all lands excluded from the district by such resolution shall be relieved from all further liability for any indebtedness of the district or any unpaid assessments theretofore levied against such lands, and the owners of excluded lands, upon which assessments have been paid, shall be entitled to warrants of the district for all sums paid by reason of such assessments, payable from a special fund created for that purpose, for which levies shall be made upon the lands remaining in the district, as the board of directors may provide.

Sec. 87. Section 4, chapter 138, Laws of 1925 ex. sess. as amended by section 172, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 87.03.765 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever it shall appear, to the satisfaction of the director of ecology, that the irrigation system of any irrigation district, to which the department of ecology of the state of Washington under a contract with the district for the purchase of its bonds, has advanced funds for the purpose of constructing an irrigation system for the district, has been found incapable of furnishing sufficient water for the successful irrigation of all of the lands of such district, and that the board of directors of such district has reduced the boundaries thereof and excluded from the district, as provided in RCW 87.03.750 through 87.03.760, sufficient lands to render such irrigation system adequate for the successful irrigation of the lands of the district, and that more than thirty days have elapsed since the adoption of the resolution by the board of directors reducing the boundaries of the district and excluding lands therefrom, and no appeal has been taken from the action of the board, or that the action of the board has been confirmed by the superior court of the county in which the district is situated and no appeal has been taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals, or that upon ~~((appeal to))~~ review by the supreme court or the court of appeals the action of the board of directors of the district has been confirmed, the director of ecology shall be and he is hereby authorized to cancel and reduce the obligation of the district to the department of ecology, for the repayment of moneys advanced for the construction of an irrigation system for the district, to such amount as, in his judgment, the district will be able to pay from revenues derived from assessments upon the remaining lands of the district, and to accept, in payment of the balance of the obligation of the district, the authorized bonds of the district, in numerical order beginning with the lowest number, on the basis of the percentage of the face value thereof fixed in contracts between the district and the department of ecology, in an amount equal to said balance of the obligation of the district, in full and complete satisfaction of all claims of the department of ecology against the district.

Sec. 88. Section 11, chapter 120, Laws of 1929 as amended by section 173, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 87.22.090 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Appeal may be taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals from))~~ Appellate review of the judgment entered in said proceedings may be sought in the same manner as in other cases in equity. ~~((Notice of appeal need be served only on the persons who have appeared in said proceedings and on the president of the board of directors if the district is respondent, or on their respective attorneys of record in the proceedings.))~~

Sec. 89. Section 29, chapter 124, Laws of 1925 ex. sess. as amended by section 174, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 87.56.225 are each amended to read as follows:

Any interested person feeling aggrieved at the judgment of the superior court dismissing the proceedings or determining the indebtedness of the district and the status and priority thereof and determining the plan of liquidation, may ~~((appeal from))~~ seek appellate review of such judgment ((to the supreme court or the court of appeals)) in the same manner as in other cases in equity, except that notice of appeal must be both served and filed within sixty days from the entry thereof.

Sec. 90. Section 7, chapter 236, Laws of 1907 as amended by section 175, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 88.32.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who feels aggrieved by the final assessment made against any lot, block or parcel of land owned by him may appeal therefrom to the superior court of such county. Such appeal shall be taken within the time, and substantially in the manner prescribed by the laws of this state for appeals from justice's courts. All notices of appeal shall be filed with the board of county commissioners, and served upon the prosecuting attorney of the county. The clerk of the board of county commissioners shall at appellant's expense certify to the superior court so much of the record, as appellant may request, and the cause shall be tried in the superior court de novo.

Any person ~~((desiring to appeal from))~~ aggrieved by any final order or judgment, made by the superior court concerning any assessment authorized by RCW 88.32.010 through 88.32.220, may ~~((appeal therefrom to the supreme court or the court of appeals.))~~ seek appellate review of the order or judgment in accordance with the laws of this state relative to such ~~((appeals))~~ review, except that ~~((all such appeals shall be taken))~~ review shall be sought within thirty days after the entry of such judgment.

Sec. 91. Section 23, chapter 117, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 79, chapter 109, Laws of 1987 and RCW 90.03.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of the evidence and the report of the department, any interested party may, on or before five days prior to the date of said hearing, file exceptions to such report in writing and such exception shall set forth the grounds therefor and a copy thereof shall be served personally or by registered mail upon all parties who have appeared in the proceeding. If no exceptions be filed, the court shall enter a decree determining the rights of the parties according to the evidence and the report of the department, whether such parties have appeared therein or not. If exceptions are filed the action shall proceed as in case of reference of a suit in equity and the court may in its discretion take further evidence or, if necessary, remand the case for such further evidence to be taken by the department's designee, and may require further report by him. Costs, not including taxable attorneys fees, may be allowed or not; if allowed, may be apportioned among the parties in the discretion of the court. ~~((Appeal may be taken to the supreme court or the court of appeals from such))~~ Appellate review of the decree shall be in the same manner as in other cases in equity, except that ~~((notice of appeal must be both served and filed))~~ review must be sought within sixty days from the entry thereof.

Sec. 92. Section 1, chapter 103, Laws of 1921 as amended by section 80, chapter 109, Laws of 1987 and RCW 90.03.210 are each amended to read as follows:

During the pendency of such adjudication proceedings prior to judgment or upon ~~((appeal to the supreme court of the state or other))~~ review by an appellate court, the stream or other water involved shall be regulated or partially regulated according to the schedule of rights specified in the department's report upon an order of the court authorizing such regulation: PROVIDED, Any interested party may file a bond and obtain an order staying the regulation of said stream as to him, in which case the court shall make such order regarding the regulation of the stream or other water as he may deem just. The bond shall be filed within five days following the service of notice of appeal in an amount to be fixed by the court and with sureties satisfactory to the court, conditioned to perform the judgment of the court.

Sec. 93. Section 8, chapter 107, Laws of 1939 as amended by section 177, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 90.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person aggrieved by the order of judgment of the superior court may (~~appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals~~) seek appellate review in the same manner as in other civil actions.

Sec. 94. Section 23, chapter 23, Laws of 1911 as amended by section 180, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 91.08.250 are each amended to read as follows:

Any final judgment rendered by said court upon the findings of the court or a jury, shall be the lawful and sufficient condemnation of the land or property to be taken, or of the right to damage the same in the manner proposed, upon the payment of the amount of such findings and all costs which shall be taxed as in other civil cases: PROVIDED, That in case any defendant recovers no award, no costs shall be taxed. Such judgment shall be final and conclusive as to the damages caused by such improvement, unless (~~appealed from~~) appellate review is sought, and no (~~appeal from the same~~) review shall delay proceedings under the order of said board if it shall pay into court for the owners and parties interested, as directed by the court, the amount of the judgment and costs; but such board after making such payment into court shall be liable to such owner or owners, or parties interested, for the payment of any further compensation which may at any time be finally awarded to such parties (~~so appealing~~) seeking review in said proceeding, and his or her costs, and shall pay the same on the rendition of judgment therefor and abide any rule or order of the court in relation to the matter in controversy. In case of (~~an appeal to~~) review by the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state (~~by any party to the proceedings~~), the money so paid into the superior court by the board, as aforesaid, shall remain in the custody of said superior court until the final determination of the proceedings. If the owner of the land, real estate, premises, or other property, accepts the sum awarded by the jury or the court, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived conclusively (~~an appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals~~) appellate review and final judgment may be rendered in the superior court as in other cases.

Sec. 95. Section 58, chapter 23, Laws of 1911 as amended by section 181, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 91.08.580 are each amended to read as follows:

(~~Every defendant feeling~~) Any person aggrieved by any condemnation judgment for compensation or damages, or by any judgment confirming an assessment upon land for benefits under this chapter, may (~~appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state from such~~) seek appellate review of the judgment(~~s within thirty days after the entry thereof~~: ~~An appeal from a condemnation judgment may bring before the supreme court or the court of appeals either the legality of the proceeding as a taking for a public use, or the justness of the amount of compensation or damages awarded to the appellant; but an appeal from a judgment confirming an assessment of benefits shall bring before the supreme court or the court of appeals only the justness of the assessment against the property of the appellant. Two or more defendants may join in an appeal. The bill of exceptions or statement of facts upon such appeals shall contain only such portions of the evidence in the case as relates to the property of the appellants. Otherwise than as provided in this section such appeals shall be taken as provided by law in appeals from final judgments in actions at law~~) as in other civil cases.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 96. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 4, chapter 24, Laws of 1909 and RCW 2.04.160;

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 29, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5229 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 13, chapter 189, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 259, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.20A.370 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a state advisory committee to the department of social and health services which shall serve in an advisory capacity to the secretary of the department of social and health services. The committee shall be composed of not less than nine nor more than ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty members, to be appointed by the governor, who shall appoint a chairman, who shall serve as such at the governor's pleasure. In selecting members of the committee, the governor shall provide for a reasonable age, sex, ~~((and))~~ ethnic, and geographic balance from throughout the state. A broad range of interests, including business owners, professions, labor, local government, and consumers should be considered for membership. ~~((A representative from each of the regional advisory committees established under RCW 43.20A.360 shall serve as a member of the state advisory committee.))~~ The members of the committee shall serve ~~((four))~~ three years ~~((except the terms of the regional advisory committee representatives shall be for a duration specified by the secretary not to exceed four years to facilitate their participation.))~~. Appointments to fill a vacant unexpired term shall be only for the remainder of the unexpired term for which the vacancy occurs. No member shall serve more than two consecutive full terms. An unexpired term is considered a full term when one-half or more of the regular term is served. A member of the state advisory committee with two unexcused absences in a twelve-month period shall be deemed to have vacated the position held on the state advisory committee.

Sec. 2. Section 14, chapter 189, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 259, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.20A.375 are each amended to read as follows:

The state advisory committee shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To serve in an advisory capacity to the secretary on all matters pertaining to the department of social and health services.

(2) To acquaint themselves fully with the operations of the department and periodically recommend such changes to the secretary as they deem advisable.

(3) To ~~((biennially))~~ review and make recommendations as to the continued operation, possible consolidation, or elimination of department advisory committees ~~((other than those provided for))~~ including those required by federal law or specifically created by statute. The review shall include review of the statement of purpose for each advisory committee and the time frames during which the committee is accountable to achieve its stated purposes. The state advisory committee shall conduct the review ~~((using the criteria specified in RCW 43.131-070 and other appropriate criteria))~~ and report to the appropriate legislative committees no later than January 1, 1989.

(4) To encourage public awareness and understanding of the department of social and health services and the department's programs and services.

~~((4))~~ (5) To develop agendas to foster periodic meetings with and communication between representatives of program-specific advisory committees ~~((other than those provided for by federal law)).~~

(6) To encourage each regional advisory committee established under RCW 43.20A.360 to send a representative to regular state advisory committee meetings to foster communication between the regional advisory committees and: (a) The state advisory committee, and (b) headquarters of the department."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 4, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6024 with the following amendments:

On page 5, on line 2, after "purposes" strike all material down to and including "projects" on line 5 and insert "and that"

On page 5, on line 5, after "work," insert "Approval for streambank stabilization projects shall remain in effect without need for periodic renewal if the problem causing the need for the streambank stabilization occurs on an annual or more frequent basis."

On page 8, after line 2, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. In certain agricultural areas of the state the composition of the soil and the topography combine to create flood-prone conditions. Unless accumulated sand and gravel are removed from these rivers and streams on a regular basis a heavy rainstorm may cause a disastrous flood. The practices of the department of natural resources in establishing rates charged to commercial sand and gravel businesses cause the businesses to obtain their product from upland sources rather than from rivers and streams. As a consequence, sand and gravel accumulate in the streams and many communities are threatened with periodic, severe floods. These floods are more frequent and severe because of the accumulation of material in the rivers.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The department of natural resources and the department of ecology shall study methods of diminishing flood risks by encouraging sand and gravel businesses to remove excess accumulation of materials from the beds of rivers and streams in agricultural areas. By December 1, 1989, the department of natural resources and the department of ecology shall report the results of this study to the appropriate legislative committees. In preparing the study and report, the departments shall work with the Washington association of conservation districts, the conservation commission, representation from the private sand and gravel industry, the department of fisheries, and the department of wildlife to identify alternative aquatic land management policies to diminish the risks of flooding and identify methods of adjusting sand and gravel prices annually to reflect local market conditions."

Remember the sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "areas;" strike "and"

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "75.20.130" insert "; and creating new sections", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6118 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It shall be the policy of the state of Washington to:

(1) Recognize the family as the most important social and economic unit of society and support the central role parents play in child rearing. All parents are encouraged to care for and nurture their children through the traditional methods of parental care at home. However, to the extent child care services are used, parents are encouraged to participate fully in the effort to improve the quality of child care services.

(2) Promote a variety of culturally and developmentally appropriate child care settings and services of the highest possible quality in accordance with the basic principle of continuity of care. These settings shall include, but not be limited to, family day care homes, mini-centers, centers and schools.

(3) Promote the growth, development and safety of children by working with community groups including providers and parents to establish standards for quality service, training of child care providers, fair and equitable monitoring, and salary levels commensurate with provider responsibilities and support services.

(4) Promote equal access to quality, affordable, socio-economically integrated child care for all children and families.

(5) Facilitate broad community and private sector involvement in the provision of quality child care services to foster economic development and assist industry.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) There is established a child care coordinating committee to provide coordination and communication between state agencies responsible for child care and early childhood education services. The child care coordinating committee shall be composed of not less than seventeen nor more than thirty members who shall include:

(a) One representative each from the department of social and health services, the department of community development, the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and any other agency having responsibility for regulation, provision, or funding of child care services in the state;

(b) One representative from the governor's commission on children;

(c) One representative from the department of trade and economic development;

(d) At least one representative of family home child care providers and one representative of center care providers;

(e) At least one representative of early childhood development experts;

(f) At least one representative of school districts and teachers involved in the provision of child care and preschool programs;

(g) At least one parent education specialist;

(h) At least one representative of resource and referral programs;

(i) One pediatric or other health professional;

(j) At least one representative of college or university child care providers;

(k) At least one representative of a citizen group concerned with child care;

(l) At least one representative of a labor organization;

(m) At least one representative of a head start - early childhood education assistance program agency;

(n) At least one employer who provides child care assistance to employees;

(o) Parents of children receiving, or in need of, child care, half of whom shall be parents needing or receiving subsidized child care and half of whom shall be parents who are able to pay for child care.

The named state agencies shall select their representative to the child care coordinating committee. The department of social and health services shall select the remaining members, considering recommendations from lists submitted by professional associations and other interest groups until such time as the committee adopts a member selection process. Staff support for the child care coordinating committee shall be provided within available resources by the department of social and health services on an ongoing basis. The department shall use any federal funds which may become available to accomplish the purposes of sections 1 through 3 of this act.

The committee shall elect officers from among its membership and shall adopt policies and procedures specifying the lengths of terms, methods for filling vacancies, and other matters necessary to the ongoing functioning of the committee. The secretary of social and health services shall appoint a temporary chair until the committee has adopted policies and elected a chair accordingly. Child care coordinating committee members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(2) To the extent possible within available funds, the child care coordinating committee shall:

(a) Serve as an advisory coordinator for all state agencies responsible for early childhood or child care programs for the purpose of improving communication and interagency coordination, but not to review the substance of programs. The committee shall annually review state programs and make recommendations to the agencies and the legislature which will maximize funding and promote furtherance of the policies set forth in section 1 of this act;

(b) Review and propose changes to the child care subsidy system by December 1, 1989;

(c) Review agency administration of the child care expansion grant program described in section 3 of this act;

(d) Review alternative models for child care service systems, in the context of the policies set forth in section 1 of this act, and recommend to the legislature a new child care service structure;

(e) Review options and make recommendations on the feasibility of establishing an allocation for day care facilities when constructing state buildings; and

(f) Perform other functions to improve the quantity and quality of child care in the state, including compliance with existing and future prerequisites for federal funding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The legislature recognizes that a severe shortage of child care exists to the detriment of all families and employers throughout the state. Many workers are unable to enter or remain in the work force due to a shortage of child care resources. The high costs of starting a child care business create a barrier to the creation of new slots, especially for children with special needs.

(2) A child care expansion grant fund is created in the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services. Grants shall be awarded on a one-time only basis to persons, organizations, or schools needing assistance to start a child care center or mini-center as defined by the department by rule, or to existing licensed child care providers, including family home providers, for the purpose of making capital improvements in order to accommodate handicapped children as defined under chapter 72.40 RCW, sick children, or infant care, or children needing night time care. No grant may exceed ten thousand dollars. Start-up costs shall not include operational costs after the first three months of business.

(3) Child care expansion grants shall be awarded on the basis of need for the proposed services in the community, within appropriated funds.

(4) The department shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW setting forth criteria, application procedures, and methods to assure compliance with the purposes described in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 through 3 of this act are each added to chapter 74.13 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "RCW;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6218 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 239, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 2, chapter 116, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.74.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the board of physical therapy created by RCW 18.74.020.

(2) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(3) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(4) "Physical therapy" means the treatment of any bodily or mental condition of any person by the use of the physical, chemical, and other properties of heat, cold, air, light, water, electricity, sound, massage, and therapeutic exercise, which includes posture and rehabilitation procedures; the performance of tests and measurements of ~~((neuro-muscular))~~ neuromuscular function as an aid to the diagnosis or treatment of any human condition; performance of treatments on the basis of test findings after consultation with and periodic review by an authorized health care practitioner except as provided in section 2 of this 1988 act until June 30, 1991; supervision of selective forms of treatment by trained supportive personnel; and provision of consultative services for health, education, and community agencies. The use of Roentgen rays and radium for diagnostic and therapeutic purposes, the use of electricity for surgical purposes, including cauterization, and ~~((chiropractic practices as defined by RCW 18.25.065; which include the adjustment or manipulation of the articulations of the spine and its immediate articulations or mobilization of these articulations by use of a thrusting force))~~ the use of spinal manipulation or manipulative mobilization of the spine and its immediate articulations, are not included under the term "physical therapy" as used in this chapter.

(5) "Physical therapist" means a person who practices physical therapy as defined in this chapter but does not include massage operators as defined in RCW 18.108.010.

(6) Words importing the masculine gender may be applied to females.

(7) "Authorized health care practitioner" means and includes licensed physicians, osteopathic physicians, chiropractors, naturopaths, podiatrists, and dentists: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall be construed as altering the scope of practice of such practitioners as defined in their respective licensure laws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 18.74 RCW to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 18.74.010(4), a consultation and periodic review by an authorized health care practitioner is not required for treatment of neuromuscular or musculoskeletal conditions: PROVIDED, That a physical therapist may only provide treatment utilizing orthoses that support, align, prevent, or correct any structural problems intrinsic to the foot or ankle by referral or consultation from an authorized health care practitioner. The legislative budget committee shall review whether the practices authorized under this section shall be continued and shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 18.74 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Physical therapists shall refer persons under their care to authorized health care practitioners if they have reasonable cause to believe symptoms or conditions are present which require services beyond the scope of their practice or for which physical therapy is contraindicated.

(2) A violation of this section is unprofessional conduct under this chapter and chapter 18.130 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 18.74 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Physical therapists shall not advertise that they perform spinal manipulation or manipulative mobilization of the spine.

(2) A violation of this section is unprofessional conduct under this chapter and chapter 18.130 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 18.74 RCW to read as follows:

This chapter shall not be construed to restrict the ability of any insurance entity regulated by Title 48 RCW, or any state agency or program from limiting or controlling the utilization of physical therapy services by the use of any type of gatekeeper function; nor shall it be construed to require or prohibit that individual or group policies or contracts of an insurance carrier, health care service contractor, or health maintenance organization provide benefits or coverage for services and supplies provided by a person licensed under this chapter. For the purpose of this chapter, "gatekeeper function" means any provision in a contract which establishes a threshold requirement, such as a recommendation from a case manager or a primary care provider, which must be satisfied before a covered person is eligible to receive benefits under the contract."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, Senator Moore was excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6240 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of agriculture.

(2) "Wild mushroom" means a mushroom that is not cultivated or propagated by artificial means.

(3) "Mushroom buyer" means any person who obtains wild mushrooms from another person for eventual conveyance to a mushroom processor.

(4) "Mushroom harvester" means a person who picks wild mushrooms for sale to a mushroom buyer or processor, or who picks wild mushrooms as an employee of a mushroom buyer or processor.

(5) "Mushroom processor" means a person, other than a restaurant or mushroom buyer, who purchases and processes wild mushrooms in any manner whatsoever for eventual resale.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) A person may not act as a mushroom buyer or mushroom processor without an annual license. Any person applying for such a license shall file an application on a form prescribed by the department, and accompanied by the following license fee:

(a) Mushroom buyer, seventy-five dollars;

(b) Mushroom processor, three hundred seventy-five dollars.

(2) The mushroom buyer or mushroom processor shall display the license in a manner visible to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) A mushroom buyer who obtains wild mushrooms shall complete a form prescribed by the department that includes the following:

(a) The site at which the mushrooms were purchased by the buyer;

(b) The amount, by weight, of each species of mushrooms obtained;

(c) The approximate location of the harvest site;

(d) The date that the mushrooms were harvested;

(e) The price paid to the harvester;

(f) The name, address, and license number of the mushroom processor to whom the mushrooms are sold;

(g) Any additional information that the department, by rule, may require.

(2) Forms completed under this section shall be mailed or delivered to the department within fifteen days after the end of the month in which the mushrooms were delivered to the processor.

(3) Mushroom processors shall comply with the requirements of this section when obtaining wild mushrooms from any source other than a licensed mushroom buyer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Mushroom processors shall annually, by December 31, complete and mail or deliver to the department a form prescribed by the department that includes for each variety of mushrooms:

(a) The quantity by weight sold within Washington, within the United States outside Washington, and to individual foreign countries;

(b) Any additional information that the department, by rule, may require.

(2) The department shall publish harvest totals in conjunction with United States department of agriculture crop reporting statistics as well as a compilation of the information received under subsection (1)(a) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department shall encourage voluntary reporting of the information prescribed under section 3(1) of this act by recreational mushroom harvesters and mycological societies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department is authorized to issue and enforce civil infractions in the manner prescribed under chapter 7.80 RCW. Violations of this chapter or any rule adopted under this chapter constitute a class I civil infraction under chapter 7.80 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department may adopt rules for the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 15 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall expire June 30, 1994.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1989. The department of agriculture may immediately take such steps as are necessary to ensure that this act is implemented on that date."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "penalties," strike the remainder of the title and insert "and providing an expiration date."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 1, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6260 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 34, Laws of 1987 and RCW 69.38.030 are each amended to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person, either on the person's own behalf or while an employee of another, to sell any poison without first recording in ink in a "poison register" kept solely for this purpose the following information:

- (1) The date and hour of the sale;
- (2) The full name and home address of the purchaser;
- (3) The kind and quantity of poison sold; and
- (4) The purpose for which the poison is being purchased.

The purchaser shall present to the seller identification which contains the purchaser's photograph and signature. No sale may be made unless the seller is satisfied that the purchaser's representations are true and that the poison will be used for a lawful purpose. Both the purchaser and the seller shall sign the poison register entry.

If a delivery of a poison will be made outside the confines of the seller's premises, the seller may require the business purchasing the poison to submit a letter of authorization as a substitute for the purchaser's photograph and signature requirements. The letter of authorization shall include the unified business identifier and address of the business, a full description of how the substance will be used, and the signature of the purchaser. Either the seller or the employee of the seller delivering or transferring the poison shall affix his or her signature to the letter as a witness to the signature and identification of the purchaser. The transaction shall be recorded in the poison register as provided in this section. Letters of authorization shall be kept with the poison register and shall be subject to the inspection and preservation requirements contained in RCW 69.38.040.

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lee, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 6260.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 4, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6271 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the availability of home health, hospice, and home care services has improved the quality of life for Washington's citizens. However, the delivery of these services bring risks because the in-home location of services makes their actual delivery virtually invisible. Also, the complexity of products, services, and delivery systems in today's health care delivery system challenges even informed and healthy individuals. The fact that these services are delivered to the state's most vulnerable population, the ill or disabled who are frequently also elderly, adds to these risks.

It is the intent of the legislature to protect the citizens of Washington state by licensing home health, hospice, and home care agencies. This legislation is not intended to unreasonably restrict entry into the in-home service marketplace. Standards established are intended to be the minimum necessary to ensure safe and competent care, and should be demonstrably related to patient safety and welfare.

PART I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Branch office" means a location or site from which a home health, hospice, or home care agency provides services within a portion of the total geographic area served by the parent agency. The branch office is part of the agency and is located sufficiently close to share administration, supervision, and services.

(2) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(3) "Home care agency" means a private or public agency or organization that administers or provides home care services directly or through a contract arrangement to ill, disabled, or infirm persons in places of temporary or permanent residence.

(4) "Home care services" means personal care services, homemaker services, respite care services, or any other nonmedical services provided to ill, disabled, or infirm persons which services enable these persons to remain in their own residences consistent with their desires, abilities, and safety.

(5) "Home health agency" means a private or public agency or organization that administers or provides home health aide services or two or more home health services directly or through a contract arrangement to ill, disabled, or infirm persons in places of temporary or permanent residence.

(6) "Home health services" means health or medical services provided to ill, disabled, or infirm persons. These services may be of an acute or maintenance care nature, and include but are not limited to nursing services, home health aide services, physical therapy services, occupational therapy services, speech therapy services, respiratory therapy services, nutritional services, medical social services, and medical supplies or equipment services.

(7) "Home health aide services" means services provided by a home health agency or a hospice under the supervision of a registered nurse, physical therapist, occupational therapist, or speech therapist. Such care includes ambulation and exercise, assistance with self-administered medications, reporting changes in patients' conditions and needs, completing appropriate records, and personal care or homemaker services needed to achieve medically desired results.

(8) "Homemaker services" means services that assist ill, disabled, or infirm persons with household tasks essential to achieving adequate household and family management.

(9) "Hospice agency" means a private or public agency or organization administering or providing hospice care directly or through a contract arrangement to terminally ill persons in places of temporary or permanent residence by using an interdisciplinary team composed of at least nursing, social work, physician, and pastoral or spiritual counseling.

(10) "Hospice care" means: (a) Palliative care provided to a terminally ill person in a place of temporary or permanent residence that alleviates physical symptoms, including pain, as well as alleviates the emotional and spiritual discomfort associated with dying; and (b) bereavement care provided to the family of a terminally ill person that alleviates the emotional and spiritual discomfort associated with the death of a family member. Hospice care may include health and medical services and personal care, respite, or homemaker services. Family means individuals who are important to and designated by the patient, and who need not be relatives.

(11) "Ill, disabled, or infirm persons" means persons who need home health, hospice, or home care services in order to maintain themselves in their places of temporary or permanent residence.

(12) "Personal care services" means services that assist ill, disabled, or infirm persons with dressing, feeding, and personal hygiene to facilitate self-care.

(13) "Respite care services" means services that assist or support the primary care giver on a scheduled basis.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) After July 1, 1990, no private or public agency or organization may advertise, operate, manage, conduct, open, or maintain a home health agency without first obtaining a home health agency license from the department.

(2) After July 1, 1990, no private or public agency or organization may advertise, operate, manage, conduct, open, or maintain a hospice agency without first obtaining a hospice agency license from the department.

(3) After July 1, 1990, no public or private agency or organization may advertise, operate, manage, conduct, open, or maintain a home care agency without first obtaining a home care agency license from the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) No person may use the words "home health agency," "home health care services," or "visiting nurse services" in its corporate or business name, or advertise using such words unless licensed as a home health agency under this chapter.

(2) No person may use the words "hospice agency" or "hospice care" in its corporate or business name, or advertise using such words unless licensed as a hospice agency under this chapter.

(3) No person may use the words "home care agency" or "home care services" in its corporate or business name, or advertise using such words unless licensed as a home care agency under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The following are not subject to regulation for the purposes of this chapter:

- (1) A family member;
- (2) An organization that provides only meal services in a person's residence;
- (3) Entities furnishing durable medical equipment that does not involve the delivery of professional services beyond those necessary to set up and monitor the proper functioning of the equipment and educate the user on its proper use;
- (4) A person who provides services through a contract with a licensed agency;
- (5) An employee or volunteer of a licensed agency who provides services only as an employee or volunteer;

(6) Facilities and institutions, including but not limited to nursing homes under chapter 18.51 RCW, hospitals under chapter 70.41 RCW, boarding homes under chapter 18.20 RCW, developmental disability residential programs under chapter 71.12 RCW, or other facilities and institutions, only when providing services to persons residing within the facility or institution if the delivery of the services is regulated by the state;

(7) Persons providing care to disabled persons through a contract with the department;

(8) Nursing homes, hospitals, or other institutions, agencies, organizations, or persons that contract with licensed home health, hospice, or home care agencies for the delivery of services;

(9) In-home assessments of an ill, disabled, or infirm person's ability to adapt to the home environment that does not result in regular ongoing care at home;

(10) Services conducted by and for the adherents of a church or religious denomination that rely upon spiritual means alone through prayer for healing in accordance with the tenets and practices of such church or religious denomination and the bona fide religious beliefs genuinely held by such adherents;

(11) A medicare-approved dialysis center operating a medicare-approved home dialysis program;

(12) Case management services which do not include the direct delivery of home health, hospice, or home care services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Notwithstanding sections 3(2) and 4(2) of this act, a volunteer organization that provides hospice care without receiving compensation for delivery of services that does not meet the licensure requirements of this chapter for a hospice agency may use the phrase "volunteer hospice" if the volunteer organization was formed prior to January 1, 1988, and the organization notifies the department prior to July 1, 1989. This section shall not be considered an exemption from the home health agency or home care agency license provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Except as exempt under section 5 (6) and (8) of this act, a nursing home licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW is not exempt from the requirements of this chapter when the nursing home is functioning as a home health, hospice, or home care agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Except as exempt under section 5 (6) and (8) of this act, a hospital licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW is not exempt from the requirements of this chapter when the hospital is functioning as a home health, hospice, or home care agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) An applicant for a home health, hospice, or home care agency license shall:

(a) File a written application on a form provided by the department;

(b) Demonstrate ability to comply with this chapter and the rules adopted under this chapter;

(c) Cooperate with on-site review conducted by the department prior to licensure or renewal;

(d) Provide evidence of and maintain professional liability insurance in the amount of one hundred thousand dollars per occurrence or adequate self-insurance as approved by the department. This subsection shall not apply to hospice agency applicants that provide hospice care without receiving compensation for delivery of services;

(e) Provide evidence of and maintain public liability and property damage insurance coverage in the sum of fifty thousand dollars for injury or damage to property per occurrence and fifty thousand dollars for injury or damage, including death, to any one person and one hundred thousand dollars for injury or damage, including death, to more than one person, or evidence of adequate self-insurance for public liability and property damage as approved by the department. This subsection shall not apply to hospice agency applicants that provide hospice care without receiving compensation for delivery of services;

(f) Provide such proof as the department may require concerning organizational and governance structure, and the identity of the applicant, officers, directors, partners, managing employees, or owners of ten percent or more of the applicant's assets;

(g) File with the department a list of the counties in which the applicant will operate;

(h) File with the department a list of the services offered;

(i) Pay to the department a license fee as provided in section 10 of this act; and

(j) Provide any other information that the department may reasonably require.

(2) A certificate of need under chapter 70.38 RCW is not required for licensure.

(3) A license or renewal shall not be granted pursuant to this chapter if the applicant, officers, directors, partners, managing employees, or owners of ten percent or more of the applicant's assets, within the last five years have been found in a civil or criminal proceeding to have committed any act which reasonably relates to the person's fitness to establish, maintain, or administer an agency or to provide care in the home of another.

(4) A separate license is not required for a branch office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. An application for a license or any renewal shall be accompanied by a fee as established by the department under RCW 43.20B.110. A surcharge no greater than fifty dollars per year may be assessed for the period of time necessary to repay the cost of implementing this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Upon receipt of an application under section 9 of this act for a license and the license fee, the department shall issue a license if the applicant meets the requirements established under this chapter. All persons operating as home health, hospice, or home care agencies before July 1, 1989, shall submit their applications and application fees by July 1, 1989. In addition, issuance of a license is conditioned on the department conducting an on-site review. A license issued under this chapter shall not be transferred or assigned without thirty days prior notice to the department and the department's approval. A license, unless suspended or revoked, may be effective for a period of up to two years, at the discretion of the department. The department may establish penalty fees for failure to apply for licensure or renewal as required by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The department shall adopt rules providing for the combination of applications and licenses, and the reduction of individual license fees if an applicant applies for more than one category of license under this chapter. The department shall provide for combined licensure inspections and audits for licensees holding more than one license under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The department shall adopt rules consistent with section 1 of this act necessary to implement this chapter under chapter 34.04 RCW. In order to ensure safe and adequate care, the rules shall address at a minimum the following:

(1) Maintenance and preservation of all records relating directly to the care and treatment of persons by licensees;

(2) Establishment of a procedure for the receipt, investigation, and disposition of complaints by the department regarding services provided by licensees;

(3) Establishment and implementation of a plan for on-going care of persons and preservation of records if the licensee ceases operations;

(4) Supervision of services;

(5) Maintenance of written policies regarding response to referrals and access to services at all times;

(6) Maintenance of written personnel policies and procedures and personnel records that provide for prehire screening, minimum qualifications, regular performance evaluations, including observation in the home, participation in orientation and in-service training, and involvement in quality assurance activities. The department may not establish qualifications for licensed professionals other than those required for licensure; and

(7) Maintenance of written policies on obtaining regular reports on patient satisfaction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Licensees shall conform to the standards of RCW 69.41.030 and 69.50.308.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) A licensee shall provide each person or designated representative with a written bill of rights affirming each person's right to:

(a) A listing of the services offered by the agency and those being provided;

(b) The name of the person supervising the care and the manner in which that person may be contacted;

(c) A description of the process for submitting and addressing complaints;

(d) A statement advising the person or representative of the right to participate in the development of the plan of care;

(e) A statement providing that the person or representative is entitled to information regarding access to the department's registry of providers and to select any licensee to provide care, subject to the patient's reimbursement mechanism or other relevant contractual obligations;

(f) Be treated with courtesy, respect, privacy, and freedom from abuse and discrimination;

(g) Refuse treatment or services;

(h) Have patient records be confidential; and

(i) Have properly trained staff and coordination of services.

(2) Upon request, a licensee shall provide each person or designated representative with a fully itemized billing statement at least monthly, including the date of each service and the charge. Licensees providing services through a managed care plan shall not be required to provide itemized billing statements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. No licensee or employee may hold a durable power of attorney on behalf of any person who is receiving care from the licensee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. In order to assist in the administration of this chapter, the department may adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to provide that a home health or hospice agency certified pursuant to chapter 70.126 RCW immediately before the effective date of this section continues to operate under that certification through the expiration date of the certificate without obtaining a license under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, the department may deny, suspend, or revoke a license under this chapter or, in lieu thereof or in addition thereto, assess monetary penalties of a civil nature not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation in any case in which it finds that the licensee, or any applicant, officer, director, partner, managing employee, or owner of ten percent or more of the applicant's or licensee's assets:

(1) Failed or refused to comply with the requirements of this chapter or the standards or rules adopted under this chapter;

(2) Was the holder of a license issued pursuant to this chapter that was revoked for cause and never reissued by the department, or that was suspended for cause and the terms of the suspension have not been fulfilled and the licensee has continued to operate;

(3) Has knowingly or with reason to know made a false statement of a material fact in the application for the license or any data attached thereto or in any record required by this chapter or matter under investigation by the department;

(4) Refused to allow representatives of the department to inspect any book, record, or file required by this chapter to be maintained or any portion of the licensee's premises;

(5) Wilfully prevented, interfered with, or attempted to impede in any way the work of any representative of the department and the lawful enforcement of any provision of this chapter;

(6) Wilfully prevented or interfered with any representative of the department in the preservation of evidence of any violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter;

(7) Failed to pay any civil monetary penalty assessed by the department pursuant to this chapter within ten days after the assessment becomes final;

(8) Used advertising that is false, fraudulent, or misleading;

(9) Has repeated incidents of personnel performing services beyond their authorized scope of practice; or

(10) Misrepresented or was fraudulent in any aspect of the conduct of the licensee's business.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. The department may at any time conduct an on-site review of a licensee or conduct in-home visits in order to determine compliance with this chapter. The department may also examine and audit records necessary to determine compliance with this chapter. The right to conduct an on-site review and audit and examination of records shall extend to any premises and records of persons whom the department has reason to believe are providing home health, hospice, or home care without a license.

Following an on-site review, in-home visit, or audit, the department shall give written notice of any violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter. The notice shall describe the reasons for noncompliance and inform the licensee that it must comply within a specified reasonable time, not to exceed sixty days. If the licensee fails to comply, the licensee is subject to disciplinary action under section 18 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. All information received by the department through filed reports, audits, on-site reviews, in-home visits, or as otherwise authorized under this chapter shall not be disclosed publicly in any manner that would identify persons receiving care under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. Notwithstanding the existence or use of any other remedy, the department may, in the manner provided by law and upon the advice of the attorney general, who shall represent the department in the proceedings, maintain an action in the name of the state for an injunction or other process against any person to restrain or prevent the advertising, operating, maintaining, managing, or opening of a home health, hospice, or home care agency without a license under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. Any person violating section 3 of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor. Each day of a continuing violation is a separate violation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. The department shall compile a registry of all licensed home health, hospice, and home care agencies, both alphabetically and by county. Copies of the registry shall be made available to members of the general public at a nominal printing charge.

PART II HOME HEALTH CARE

NEW SECTION, Sec. 24. In addition to the exemptions in section 5 of this act, a hospice agency delivering home health care integrally related to the delivery of hospice care or a health care practitioner who provides a single home health service that is not a part of a coordinated delivery of more than one service is not a home health agency for the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 25. (1) In addition to the rules consistent with section 1 of this act adopted under section 13 of this act, the department shall adopt rules for home health agencies which address the following:

(a) Establishment of case management guidelines for acute and maintenance care patients;

(b) Establishment of guidelines for periodic review of the home health care plan of care and plan of treatment by appropriate health care professionals; and

(c) Maintenance of written policies regarding the delivery and supervision of patient care and clinical consultation as necessary by appropriate health care professionals.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) "Acute care" means care provided by a home health agency for patients who are not medically stable or have not attained a satisfactory level of rehabilitation. These patients require frequent monitoring by a health care professional in order to maintain their health status.

(b) "Maintenance care" means care provided by home health agencies that is necessary to support an existing level of health and to preserve a patient from further failure or decline.

(c) "Home health plan of care" means a written plan of care established by a home health agency by appropriate health care professionals that describes maintenance care to be provided. A patient or his or her representative shall be allowed to participate in the development of the plan of care to the extent practicable.

(d) "Home health plan of treatment" means a written plan of care established by a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW, a podiatrist licensed under chapter 18.22 RCW, or an advanced registered nurse practitioner as authorized by the board of nursing under chapter 18.88 RCW, in consultation with appropriate health care professionals within the agency that describes medically necessary acute care to be provided for treatment of illness or injury.

PART III HOSPICES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. (1) In addition to the rules consistent with section 1 of this act adopted under section 13 of this act, the department shall adopt rules for hospice agencies which address the following:

(a) Establishment of guidelines for periodic review of the hospice plan of care;

(b) Written policies requiring availability of twenty-four hour seven days a week hospice registered nurse consultation and in-home services as appropriate;

(c) Quality assurance activities to include the involvement of interdisciplinary professionals;

(d) Maintenance of written policies regarding interdisciplinary team communication as appropriate and necessary; and

(e) Written policies regarding the use and availability of volunteers to provide family support and respite when requested.

(2) As used in this section "hospice plan of care" means a written plan of care established by a physician and reviewed by other members of the interdisciplinary team describing hospice care to be provided.

PART IV HOME CARE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. In addition to the exemptions in section 5 of this act, a home health or hospice agency delivering home care as an integral part of the delivery of home health or hospice care, an individual providing home care through a direct agreement with the recipient of care, an individual providing home care through a direct agreement with a third party payor where comparable services are not readily available through a home care agency, or a volunteer organization that provides home care without compensation, is not a home care agency for the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. In addition to the rules adopted under section 13 of this act, the department shall adopt rules consistent with section 1 of this act for home care agencies which address delivery of services according to a home care plan of care.

As used in this section, "home care plan of care" means a written plan of care that is established and periodically reviewed by a home care agency that describes the home care to be provided.

PART V INSURANCE

Sec. 29. Section 5, chapter 249, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 4, chapter 22, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.126.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Hospice" means a private or public agency or organization that administers and provides hospice care and is ((certified)) licensed by the department of social and health services as a hospice care agency.

(2) "Hospice care" means care prescribed and supervised by the attending physician and provided by the hospice to the terminally ill in accordance with the standards of RCW 70.126.030.

(3) "Home health agency" means a private or public agency or organization that administers and provides home health care and is ((certified)) licensed by the department of social and health services as a home health care agency.

(4) "Home health care" means services, supplies, and medical equipment that meet the standards of RCW 70.126.020, prescribed and supervised by the attending physician, and provided through a home health agency and rendered to members in their residences when hospitalization would otherwise be required.

(5) "Home health aide" means a person employed by a home health agency or a hospice who is providing part-time or intermittent care under the supervision of a registered nurse, a physical therapist, occupational therapist, or speech therapist. Such care includes ambulation and exercise, assistance with ~~((medications ordinarily))~~ self-administered medications, reporting changes in patients' conditions and needs, completing appropriate records, and personal care or household services that are needed to achieve the medically desired results.

(6) "Home health care plan of treatment" means a written plan of care established and periodically reviewed by a physician that describes medically necessary home health care to be provided to a patient for treatment of illness or injury.

(7) "Hospice plan of care" means a written plan of care established and periodically reviewed by a physician that describes hospice care to be provided to a terminally ill patient for palliation or medically necessary treatment of an illness or injury.

(8) "Physician" means a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. A new section is added to chapter 70.126 RCW to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter apply only for the purposes of determining benefits to be included in the offering of optional coverage for home health and hospice care services, as provided in RCW 48.21.220, 48.21A.090, and 48.44.320 and do not apply for the purposes of licensure.

Sec. 31. Section 1, chapter 249, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 1, chapter 22, Laws of 1984 and RCW 48.21.220 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every insurer entering into or renewing group or blanket disability insurance policies governed by this chapter shall offer optional coverage for home health care and hospice care for persons who are homebound and would otherwise require hospitalization. Such optional coverage need only be offered in conjunction with a policy that provides payment for hospitalization as a part of health care coverage.

(2) Home health care and hospice care coverage offered under subsection (1) of this section shall conform to the following standards, limitations, and restrictions in addition to those set forth in chapter 70.126 RCW:

(a) The coverage may include reasonable deductibles, coinsurance provisions, and internal maximums;

(b) The coverage should be structured to create incentives for the use of home health care and hospice care as an alternative to hospitalization;

(c) The coverage may contain provisions for utilization review and quality assurance;

(d) The coverage may require that home health agencies and hospices have written treatment plans approved by a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW, and may require such treatment plans to be reviewed at designated intervals;

(e) The coverage shall provide benefits for, and ~~((may))~~ restrict benefits to, services rendered by home health and ~~((hospices certified))~~ hospice agencies licensed by the department of social and health services;

(f) Hospice care coverage shall provide benefits for terminally ill patients for an initial period of care of not less than six months and may provide benefits for an additional six months of care in cases where the patient is facing imminent death or is entering remission if certified in writing by the attending physician;

(g) Home health care coverage shall provide benefits for a minimum of one hundred thirty health care visits per calendar year. However, a visit of any duration by an employee of a home health agency for the purpose of providing services under the plan of treatment constitutes one visit;

(h) The coverage may be structured so that services or supplies included in the primary contract are not duplicated in the optional home health and hospice coverage.

(3) The insurance commissioner shall adopt any rules necessary to implement this section.

(4) The requirements of this section shall not apply to contracts or policies governed by chapter 48.66 RCW.

(5) An insurer, as a condition of reimbursement, may require compliance with home health and hospice certification regulations established by the United States department of health and human services.

Sec. 32. Section 2, chapter 249, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 2, chapter 22, Laws of 1984 and RCW 48.21A.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every insurer entering into or renewing extended health insurance governed by this chapter shall offer optional coverage for home health care and hospice care for persons who are homebound and would otherwise require hospitalization. Such optional coverage need only be offered in conjunction with a policy that provides payment for hospitalization as a part of health care coverage.

(2) Home health care and hospice care coverage offered under subsection (1) of this section shall conform to the following standards, limitations, and restrictions in addition to those set forth in chapter 70.126 RCW:

(a) The coverage may include reasonable deductibles, coinsurance provisions, and internal maximums;

(b) The coverage should be structured to create incentives for the use of home health care and hospice care as an alternative to hospitalization;

(c) The coverage may contain provisions for utilization review and quality assurance;

(d) The coverage may require that home health agencies and hospices have written treatment plans approved by a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW, and may require such treatment plans to be reviewed at designated intervals;

(e) The coverage shall provide benefits for, and ~~((may))~~ restrict benefits to, services rendered by home health and ~~((hospices certified)) hospice agencies licensed~~ by the department of social and health services;

(f) Hospice care coverage shall provide benefits for terminally ill patients for an initial period of care of not less than six months and may provide benefits for an additional six months of care in cases where the patient is facing imminent death or is entering remission if certified in writing by the attending physician;

(g) Home health care coverage shall provide benefits for a minimum of one hundred thirty health care visits per calendar year. However, a visit of any duration by an employee of a home health agency for the purpose of providing services under the plan of treatment constitutes one visit;

(h) The coverage may be structured so that services or supplies included in the primary contract are not duplicated in the optional home health and hospice coverage.

(3) The insurance commissioner shall adopt any rules necessary to implement this section.

(4) The requirements of this section shall not apply to contracts or policies governed by chapter 48.66 RCW.

(5) An insurer, as a condition of reimbursement, may require compliance with home health and hospice certification regulations established by the United States department of health and human services.

Sec. 33. Section 3, chapter 249, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 3, chapter 22, Laws of 1984 and RCW 48.44.320 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every health care service contractor entering into or renewing a group health care service contract governed by this chapter shall offer optional coverage for home health care and hospice care for persons who are homebound and would otherwise require hospitalization. Such optional coverage need only be offered in conjunction with a policy that provides payment for hospitalization as a part of health care coverage.

(2) Home health care and hospice care coverage offered under subsection (1) of this section shall conform to the following standards, limitations, and restrictions in addition to those set forth in chapter 70.126 RCW:

(a) The coverage may include reasonable deductibles, coinsurance provisions, and internal maximums;

(b) The coverage should be structured to create incentives for the use of home health care and hospice care as an alternative to hospitalization;

(c) The coverage may contain provisions for utilization review and quality assurance;

(d) The coverage may require that home health agencies and hospices have written treatment plans approved by a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW, and may require such treatment plans to be reviewed at designated intervals;

(e) The coverage shall provide benefits for, and ~~((may))~~ restrict benefits to, services rendered by home health and ~~((hospices certified)) hospice agencies licensed~~ by the department of social and health services;

(f) Hospice care coverage shall provide benefits for terminally ill patients for an initial period of care of not less than six months and may provide benefits for an additional six months of care in cases where the patient is facing imminent death or is entering remission if certified in writing by the attending physician;

(g) Home health care coverage shall provide benefits for a minimum of one hundred thirty health care visits per calendar year. However, a visit of any duration by an employee of a home health agency for the purpose of providing services under the plan of treatment constitutes one visit;

(h) The coverage may be structured so that services or supplies included in the primary contract are not duplicated in the optional home health and hospice coverage.

(3) The insurance commissioner shall adopt any rules necessary to implement this section.

(4) The requirements of this section shall not apply to contracts or policies governed by chapter 48.66 RCW.

(5) An insurer, as a condition of reimbursement, may require compliance with home health and hospice certification regulations established by the United States department of health and human services.

PART VI MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 8, chapter 249, Laws of 1983, section 7, chapter 22, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.126.040; and

(2) Section 9, chapter 249, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.126.050.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. Sections 1 through 28 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. The sum of thirty-eight thousand eight hundred seventy-five dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, to the department of social and health services for the purpose of implementing this act on its effective date.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6372 with the following amendment:

On page 33, after line 27, strike all material down through page 36, line 8 and insert the following:

"Sec. 67. Section 1, chapter 130, Laws of 1939 as amended by section 1, chapter 123, Laws of 1941 and RCW 79.60.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state forest board))~~ department of natural resources with regard to state forest board lands ~~((and the commissioner of public lands with regard to))~~ and state granted lands ~~((are))~~ is hereby authorized to enter into cooperative agreements with the United States of America, Indian tribes, and private owners of timber land providing for coordinated forest management, including time, rate and method of cutting timber and method of silvicultural practice on a sustained yield unit. ~~((Wherever applicable in this chapter, it shall be understood that the state forest board shall have complete authority over state forest board lands and the commissioner of public lands complete authority over state granted land.))~~

Sec. 68. Section 2, chapter 130, Laws of 1939 and RCW 79.60.020 are each amended to read as follows:

~~The ((state forest board and the commissioner of public lands are))~~ department of natural resources is hereby authorized and directed to determine, define and declare informally the establishment of a sustained yield unit, comprising the land area to be covered by any such cooperative agreement and include therein such other lands as may be later acquired by the ~~((state forest board))~~ department and included under the cooperative agreement.

Sec. 69, Section 3, chapter 130, Laws of 1939 and RCW 79.60.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The state shall agree that the cutting from combined national forest and state lands will be limited to the sustained yield capacity of these lands in the management unit as determined by the contracting parties and approved by the ~~((state forest board and the))~~ commissioner of public lands for state granted lands and the board of natural resources for state forest board lands. Cooperation with the private contracting party or parties shall be contingent on limitation of production to a specified amount as determined by the contracting parties and approved by the ~~((state forest board and the))~~ commissioner of public lands for state granted lands and the board of natural resources for state forest board lands and shall comply with the other conditions and requirements of such cooperative agreement.

Sec. 70, Section 2, chapter 123, Laws of 1941 and RCW 79.60.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The private contracting party or parties shall enjoy the right of easement over state forest board lands and state granted lands included under said cooperative agreement for railway, road and other uses necessary to the carrying out of the agreement. This easement shall be only for the life of the cooperative agreement and shall be granted without charge with the provision that payment shall be made for all merchantable timber cut, removed or damaged in the use of such easement, payment to be based on the contract stumpage price for timber of like value and species and to be made within thirty days from date of cutting, removal and/or damage of such timber and appraisal thereof by the ~~((commissioner of public lands and the state forest board))~~ department of natural resources.

Sec. 71, Section 4, chapter 130, Laws of 1939 and RCW 79.60.050 are each amended to read as follows:

During the period when any such cooperative agreement is in effect, the timber on the state lands which the ~~((state forest board and the commissioner of public lands))~~ department of natural resources determines shall be included in the sustained yield unit may, from time to time, be sold at not less than its appraised value as approved by the ~~((state forest board and the))~~ commissioner of public lands for state granted lands and the board of natural resources for state forest board lands, due consideration being given to existing forest conditions on all lands included in the cooperative management unit and such sales may be made in the discretion of the ~~((state forest board and the commissioner of public lands))~~ department and the contracting party or parties in the cooperative sustained yield agreement. These sale agreements shall contain such provisions as are necessary to effectually permit the ~~((state forest board and the commissioner of public lands))~~ department to carry out the purpose of this section and in other ways afford adequate protection to the public interests involved.

Sec. 72, Section 5, chapter 130, Laws of 1939 and RCW 79.60.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The sale of timber upon state forest board land and state granted land within such sustained yield unit or units shall be made for not less than the appraised value thereof as heretofore provided for the sale of timber on state lands: PROVIDED, That, if in the judgment of the ~~((state forest board or the commissioner of public lands))~~ department, it is to the best interests of the state to do so, said timber or any such sustained yield unit or units may be sold on a stumpage or scale basis for a price per thousand not less than the appraised value thereof. The ~~((state forest board and the commissioner of public lands))~~ department shall reserve the right to reject any and all bids if the intent of this chapter will not be carried out. Permanency of local communities and industries, prospects of fulfillment of contract requirements, and financial position of the bidder shall all be factors included in this decision."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 4, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6397 with the following amendments:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 76.04 RCW to read as follows:

Upon arriving at the scene of a forest fire, the first priority of the employees or agents of the department shall be to attempt to extinguish the fire, and attempts to conduct a survey of contiguous property to ascertain the necessity to remove individuals or property from the area of the fire shall be secondary to that responsibility. This section shall not be construed as preventing assistance to individuals in immediate danger from the fire.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 76.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The legislature finds and declares that forest lands within the state are increasingly being used for residential purposes; that the risk to life and property is increasing from forest fires which may destroy developed property; that the department's primary mission is to protect forest land and suppress forest fires; that a primary mission of the rural fire districts and municipal fire departments is to protect improved property and suppress structural fires; that adjustment of the geographic areas of responsibility for the respective fire control agencies has not kept pace with the increasing use of forest lands for residential purposes; and that the department should work with the state's other fire control agencies to define geographic areas of responsibility that are more consistent with their respective primary missions.

(2) To accomplish the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, the department shall establish a procedure to clarify its geographic areas of responsibility. The areas of department protection shall be called forest protection zones. The forest protection zones shall include all forest land which the department is obligated to protect but shall not include forest land within rural fire districts or municipal fire districts which affected local fire control agencies agree, by mutual consent with the department, is not appropriate for department protection. Forest land not included within a forest protection zone established by mutual agreement of the department and a rural fire district or a municipal fire district shall not be assessed under RCW 76.04.610 or 76.04.630.

(3) After the department and any affected local fire protection agencies have agreed on the boundary of a forest protection zone, the department shall establish the boundary by rule under chapter 34.04 RCW.

(4) Except by agreement of the affected parties, the establishment of forest protection zones shall not alter any mutual aid agreement.

Sec. 3. Section 35, chapter 100, Laws of 1986 and RCW 76.04.610 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If any owner of forest land within a forest protection zone, or any owner of forest land located where fire protection responsibility has not been mutually agreed upon as provided in section 2(2) of this 1988 act, neglects or fails to provide adequate fire protection as required by RCW 76.04.600, the department shall provide such protection, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 76.04.630, at a cost to the owner of not to exceed twenty-one cents an acre per year on lands west of the summit of the Cascade mountains and seventeen cents an acre per year on lands east of the summit of the Cascade mountains: PROVIDED, That ((+)) (a) there shall be no assessment on ((each)) any parcel of privately owned lands of less than two acres or on ((each)) any parcel of tax-exempt lands of less than ten acres; ((#)) (b) for lands not exempt under ((+)) (a) of this proviso, the cost for any ownership parcel containing less than thirty acres shall not be less than five dollars and ten cents east of the Cascade mountains and six dollars and thirty cents west of the Cascade mountains; and ((#)) (c) an owner of two or more parcels per county, each containing less than thirty acres, may obtain a refund of the assessments paid on all such parcels over one by applying therefor within the year the assessment was due to the department ((of natural resources)), in such form as the department may require((-upon showing to the satisfaction of the department)). Verification that all assessments and property taxes on the property have been paid((-but)) shall be provided to the department by the owner. If the total acreage of the parcels exceeds thirty acres, the per-acre rate shall apply and the refund shall be computed accordingly. Application for the refund may be made by mail.

(2) For the purpose of this chapter, the supervisor may divide the forest lands of the state, or any part thereof, into districts, for fire protection and assessment purposes, may classify lands according to the character of timber prevailing, and the fire hazard existing, and place unprotected lands under the administration of the proper district. Any amounts paid or contracted to be paid by the supervisor of the department of natural resources for protection of these lands from any funds at the supervisor's disposal shall be a lien upon the property protected, and unless reimbursed by the owner within ten days after October 1st of the year in which they were incurred, on which date the supervisor of the department of natural resources shall be prepared to make statement thereof upon request to any forest owner whose own protection has not been previously approved by the supervisor as adequate, shall be reported by the supervisor of the department of natural resources to the assessor of the county in which the property is situated who shall extend the amounts upon the tax rolls covering the property, or the county assessor shall upon authorization from the supervisor of the department of natural resources levy the forest ((fire)) protection assessment against the amounts of unimproved land as shown in each ownership on the county assessor's records and the assessor may then segregate on his or her records to provide that the improved land and improvements thereon carry the millage levy designed to support the rural fire protection districts as provided for in RCW 52.16.170.

(3) The amounts assessed shall be collected at the time, in the same manner, by the same procedure, and with the same penalties attached that general state and county taxes on the same property are collected, except that errors in assessments may be corrected at any time by the ((supervisor of the)) department ((of natural resources)) certifying them to the treasurer of the county in which the land involved is situated. Assessments shall be known and designated as assessments of the year in which the amounts became reimbursable. Upon the collection of such assessments the county treasurer shall transmit them to the ((supervisor of the)) department ((of natural resources to)). Collections shall be applied against expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this section, including necessary and reasonable administrative costs incurred by the department in the enforcement of these provisions. The department may also expend any sums collected from owners of forest lands or received from any other source for necessary administrative costs in connection with the enforcement of RCW 76.04.660.

(4) When land against which forest ((fire)) protection assessments are outstanding is acquired for delinquent taxes and sold at public auction, the state shall have a prior lien on the proceeds of sale over and above the amount necessary to satisfy the county's delinquent tax judgment((and)). The county treasurer, in case the proceeds of sale exceed the amount of the delinquent tax judgment, shall forthwith remit to the ((supervisor of the)) department ((of natural resources)) the amount of the outstanding forest ((fire)) protection assessments.

(5) All nonfederal public bodies owning or administering forest land(s) included in a forest protection zone shall pay the forest ((fire)) protection assessments provided in this section and the special forest fire suppression account assessments under RCW 76.04.630. The forest ((fire)) protection assessments and special forest fire suppression account assessments shall be payable by nonfederal public bodies from any available funds within thirty days following receipt of the written notice from the department which is given after October 1st of the year in which the protection was provided. Unpaid assessments shall not be a lien against the nonfederal publicly owned land but shall constitute a debt by the nonfederal public body to the department and shall be subject to interest charges ((in the same amount as other unpaid forest fire protection assessments)) at the legal rate.

(6) A public body, having failed to previously pay the forest ((fire)) protection assessments required of it by this section, which fails to suppress a fire on or originating from forest lands owned or administered by it, shall be liable for the costs of suppression incurred by the department or its agent and shall not be entitled to reimbursement of any costs incurred by the public body in the suppression activities.

(7) The supervisor of the department of natural resources shall furnish the surety company bond under RCW 43.30.170(6), conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and for a faithful accounting for all sums received and expended thereunder, which bond shall be approved by the attorney general.

(8) The ((supervisor of the)) department ((of natural resources)) may adopt rules to implement this section, including, but not limited to, rules on ((the)) levying and collecting ((of)) forest ((fire)) protection assessments.

Sec. 4. Section 45, chapter 100, Laws of 1986 and RCW 76.04.750 are each amended to read as follows:

Any fire on or threatening any forest land burning uncontrolled and without proper action being taken to prevent its spread, notwithstanding the origin of the fire, is a public nuisance by reason of its menace to life and property. Any person engaged in any activity on such lands, having knowledge of the fire, notwithstanding the origin or subsequent spread thereof on his or her own or other forest lands, and the landowner, shall make every reasonable effort to suppress the fire. If the person has not suppressed the fire and the fire is on or threatening forest land within a forest protection zone, the department shall summarily suppress the fire. If the owner, lessee, other possessor of such land, or an agent or contractor of the owner, lessee, or possessor, having knowledge of the fire, has not made a reasonable effort to suppress the fire, the cost thereof may be recovered from the owner, lessee, or other possessor of the land and the cost of the work shall also constitute a lien upon the real property or chattels under the person's ownership. The lien may be filed by the department in the office of the county auditor and foreclosed in the same manner provided by law for the foreclosure of mechanics' liens. The prosecuting attorney shall bring the action to recover the cost or foreclose the lien, upon the request of the department. In the absence of negligence, no costs, other than those provided in RCW 76.04.475, shall be recovered from any landowner for lands subject to the forest ((fire)) protection assessment with respect to the land on which the fire burns.

When a fire occurs in a land clearing, right of way clearing, or landowner operation it shall be fought to the full limit of the available employees and equipment, and the fire fighting shall be continued with the necessary crews and equipment in such numbers as are, in the opinion of the department, sufficient to suppress the fire. The fire shall not be left without a fire fighting crew or fire patrol until authority has been granted in writing by the department."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "fires;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 76.04.610 and 76.04.750; and adding new sections to chapter 76.04 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6397, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6397, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vogndild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 48.

Excused: Senator Anderson - 1.

SENATE BILL NO. 6397, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6408 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 144, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The revised state energy code shall supersede all local government residential energy codes except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section: PROVIDED, That cities, towns, and counties may adopt more energy efficient codes for residential construction if the builder or owner of new residential construction is reimbursed by an authorized federal agency program or authorized local utility, or both, for those additional costs to the consumer of conservation components that are attributable to the more energy efficient codes. This subsection shall not apply after January 1, ~~((1989))~~ 1990. In establishing this date it is not the legislature's intent to discourage any city, town, or county from adopting a more energy efficient code so long as the consumer is adequately reimbursed.

(2) The revised state energy code shall not preempt energy codes, adopted by a city, town, or county of the state prior to ~~((April 24, 1985))~~ January 15, 1988, or first class cities with a population over three hundred thousand which operate electrical utilities, that are designed to achieve reduction in energy consumption relative to the revised state energy code.

(3) The revised state energy code shall not preempt a less energy efficient energy code adopted by a county, city, or town if it can be shown that the revised state energy code is not cost-effective for that county, city, or town.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 144, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The University of Washington college of architecture and department of mechanical engineering shall conduct in situ testing of the annual thermal transmittance of individual construction components and conservation measures proposed for new residential construction by the northwest power planning council.

(2) There shall be a committee to oversee the study. The committee shall include the director of the state energy office as chair; two members recommended by the home building industry chosen by the governor; and two members nationally renowned as experts in building energy performance chosen by the governor.

(3) The study shall include an analysis of the economic feasibility of adopting thermal performance standards for new residential construction as proposed by the northwest power planning council. The study of economic feasibility shall include but not necessarily be limited to factors which shall not require an amortization of the individual components exceeding a life cycle of seven years and a discount rate (interest) computed at the current conventional market rate of home mortgages at par.

(4) The director of the state energy office shall ((make recommendations, based on the results of the study and the residential standards demonstration program, to the legislature and the state building code advisory council regarding the cost-effectiveness of the revised state energy code developed pursuant to RCW 19.27.075 no later than January 15, 1988)) establish a scientific peer review panel to assess the validity of the results of the study, the results of the residential standards demonstration program and other relevant data sources, and any proposed recommendations based on those results. The peer review panel shall include representatives of the national laboratories, the national association of homebuilders research foundation, the electric power research institute, the gas research institute and the international conference of building officials. The director of the state energy office shall make recommendations based on the study, the residential standards demonstration program and other relevant data sources, and the conclusions of the scientific peer review panel to the legislature and the state building code council regarding the cost-effectiveness of the revised state energy code developed pursuant to RCW 19.27A.020 no later than January 15, 1989.

(5) If federal funds are not available, the study shall be funded by a surcharge on building permit fees for new building construction imposed by all local governments of the state. The department of community development, after consultation with the state energy office, shall develop and implement a method of collecting the surcharge. The surcharge shall be ten dollars on all multifamily residential building permits, fifteen dollars on all single-family residential building permits, and fifteen dollars on all other building permits. The surcharge shall terminate on June 30, 1989, or at such time as the state general fund is reimbursed for the cost of the study."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6419 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 348, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 1, chapter 92, Laws of 1982 and RCW 53.08.120 are each amended to read as follows:

All material required by a port district may be procured in the open market or by contract and all work ordered may be done by contract or day labor. All such contracts for work, the estimated cost of which exceeds ~~((forty))~~ one hundred thousand dollars, shall be let at public bidding upon notice published in a newspaper in the district at least ten days before the letting, calling for sealed bids upon the work, plans and specifications for which shall then be on file in the office of the commission for public inspection. The same notice may call for bids on such work or material based upon plans and specifications submitted by the bidder.

Each port district shall maintain a small works roster which shall be comprised of all contractors who have requested to be on the roster and are, where required by law, properly licensed or registered to perform such work in the state of Washington.

Whenever work is done by contract, the estimated cost of which is ~~((forty))~~ one hundred thousand dollars or less, the managing official of the port district ~~((shall))~~ may invite proposals from all appropriate contractors on the small works roster: PROVIDED, That not less than five separate appropriate contractors shall be invited to submit proposals on any individual contract: PROVIDED FURTHER, That whenever possible, the managing official shall invite at least one proposal from a minority contractor who shall otherwise qualify under this section. Such invitation shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed, and materials and equipment to be furnished.

When awarding such a contract for work, ~~((the estimated cost of which is forty thousand dollars or less))~~ when utilizing proposals from the small works roster, the managing official shall give weight to the contractor submitting the lowest and best proposal, and whenever it would not violate the public interest, such contracts shall be distributed equally among contractors, including minority contractors, on the small works roster."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "districts;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 53.08.120."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6305 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 4.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) All claims or causes of action based on intentional conduct brought by any person for recovery of damages for injury suffered as a result of childhood sexual abuse shall be commenced within three years of the act alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or three years of the time the victim discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused by said act, whichever period expires later.

(2) The victim need not establish which act in a series of continuing sexual abuse or exploitation incidents caused the injury complained of, but may compute the date of discovery from the date of discovery of the last act by the same perpetrator which is part of a common scheme or plan of sexual abuse or exploitation.

(3) The knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian shall not be imputed to a person under the age of eighteen years.

(4) For purposes of this section, "child" means a person under the age of eighteen years.

(5) As used in this section, "childhood sexual abuse" means any act committed by the defendant against a complainant who was less than eighteen years of age at the time of the act and which act would have been a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9.68A.040 or prior laws of similar effect at the time the act was committed.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 1401, chapter 212, Laws of 1987 and RCW 4.16.350 are each amended to read as follows:

Any civil action for damages for injury occurring as a result of health care which is provided after June 25, 1976 against:

(1) A person licensed by this state to provide health care or related services, including, but not limited to, a physician, osteopathic physician, dentist, nurse, optometrist, podiatrist, chiropractor, physical therapist, psychologist, pharmacist, optician, physician's assistant, osteopathic physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, or physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, including, in the event such person is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

(2) An employee or agent of a person described in subsection (1) of this section, acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such employee or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative; or

(3) An entity, whether or not incorporated, facility, or institution employing one or more persons described in subsection (1) of this section, including, but not limited to, a hospital, clinic, health maintenance organization, or nursing home; or an officer, director, employee, or agent thereof acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such officer, director, employee, or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative; based upon alleged professional negligence shall be commenced within three years of the act or omission alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or one year of the time the patient or his representative discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused by said act or omission, whichever period expires later, except that in no event shall an action be commenced more than eight years after said act or omission: PROVIDED, That the time for commencement of an action is tolled upon proof of fraud, intentional concealment, or the presence of a foreign body not intended to have a therapeutic or diagnostic purpose or effect.

For purposes of this section, notwithstanding RCW 4.16.190, the knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian shall be imputed to a person under the age of eighteen years, and such imputed knowledge shall operate to bar the claim of such minor to the same extent that the claim of an adult would be barred under this section. Any action not commenced in accordance with this section shall be barred.

For purposes of this section, with respect to care provided after June 25, 1976, and before August 1, 1986, the knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian shall be imputed as of April 29, 1987, to persons under the age of eighteen years.

This section does not apply to a civil action based on intentional conduct brought against those individuals or entities specified in this section by a person for recovery of damages for injury occurring as a result of childhood sexual abuse as defined in section 1(5) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Sections 1 and 2 of this act apply to all causes of action commenced on or after the effective date of this act, regardless of when the cause of action may have arisen. To this extent, sections 1 and 2 of this act apply retrospectively."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6474 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 18.85 RCW to read as follows:

All real estate brokers and salespersons shall furnish proof as the director may require that they have successfully completed a total of thirty clock hours of instruction every two years in real estate courses approved by the director in order to renew their licenses. Up to fifteen clock hours of instruction beyond the thirty hours in two years may be carried forward for credit in a subsequent two-year period. To count towards this requirement, a course shall be commenced within thirty-six months before the proof date for renewal. This section shall apply to renewal dates after January 1, 1991.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 252, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 2, chapter 332, Laws of 1987 and RCW 18.85.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The director, with the advice and approval of the commission, may issue rules and regulations to govern the activities of real estate brokers, associate real estate brokers and salespersons, consistent with this chapter, fix the times and places for holding examinations of applicants for licenses and prescribe the method of conducting them. The director shall enforce all laws, rules and regulations relating to the licensing of real estate brokers, associate real estate brokers, and salespersons, grant or deny licenses to real estate brokers, associate real estate brokers, and salespersons, and hold hearings ((and)). The director may impose any one or more of the following sanctions: Suspend or revoke licenses, ((or)) deny applications for licenses, ((or)) fine violators ((and may)), or require the completion of a course in a selected aspect of real estate practice relevant to the provision of this chapter or rule violated. The director may deny, suspend or revoke the authority of a broker to act as the designated broker of persons who commit violations of the real estate license law or of the rules and regulations. The director shall establish by rule standards for licensure of applicants licensed in other jurisdictions. The director shall institute a program of education for the benefit of the licensees and may institute a program of education at institutions of higher education in Washington. The director shall charge a fee, as prescribed by the director by rule, for the certification of courses of instruction, instructors, and schools.

Sec. 3. Section 7, chapter 139, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 332, Laws of 1987 and RCW 18.85.095 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is hereby established that the minimum requirements for an individual to receive a salesperson's license are that the individual:

((+)) (a) Is eighteen years of age or older;

((#)) (b) Has passed a salesperson's examination; and

((@)) (c) Except as provided in RCW 18.85.097, has successfully completed a thirty clock hour course in real estate fundamentals prior to obtaining a first real estate license.

(2) Except as provided in RCW 18.85.097, no licensed salesperson shall have his or her license renewed a second time unless he or she furnishes proof, as the director may require, that he or she has successfully completed an additional thirty clock hours of instruction in real estate courses approved by the director. This subsection shall expire January 1, 1991.

Nothing in this section shall apply to persons who are licensed as salespersons under any real estate license law in Washington which exists prior to this law's enactment and whose license has not been subsequently revoked.

Sec. 4. Section 8, chapter 370, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 17, chapter 332, Laws of 1987 and by section 1, chapter 514, Laws of 1987 and RCW 18.85.215 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Any license issued under this chapter and not otherwise revoked shall be deemed "inactive" at any time it is delivered to the director. Until reissued under this chapter, the holder of an inactive license shall be deemed to be unlicensed.

(2) An inactive license may be renewed on the same terms and conditions as an active license, ((and)) except that a person with an inactive license need not comply with the continuing education requirements of section 1 of this 1988 act. Failure to renew shall result in cancellation in the same manner as an active license.

(3) An inactive license may be placed in an active status upon completion of an application as provided by the director and upon compliance with this chapter and the rules adopted pursuant thereto. Subject to RCW 18.85.097, if a holder has an inactive license for more than three years, the holder must show proof of successfully completing a thirty clock hour course in real estate within one year prior to the application for active status. Holders employed by the state and conducting real estate transactions on behalf of the state are exempt from this course requirement.

(4) The provisions of this chapter relating to the denial, suspension, and revocation of a license shall be applicable to an inactive license as well as an active license, except that when proceedings to suspend or revoke an inactive license have been initiated, the license shall remain inactive until the proceedings have been completed.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 25, Laws of 1979 as amended by section 9, chapter 332, Laws of 1987 and by section 15, chapter 370, Laws of 1987 and RCW 18.85.230 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The director may, upon his or her own motion, and shall upon verified complaint in writing by any person, investigate the actions of any person engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of a real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesperson, regardless of whether the transaction was for his or her own account or in his or her capacity as broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesperson, and may impose any one or more of the following sanctions: Suspend or revoke, ((or)) levy a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars for each offense, require the completion of a course in a selected area of real estate practice relevant to the section of this chapter or rule violated, or deny the license of any holder or applicant who is guilty of:

(1) Obtaining a license by means of fraud, misrepresentation, concealment, or through the mistake or inadvertence of the director;

(2) Violating any of the provisions of this chapter or any lawful rules or regulations made by the director pursuant thereto or violating a provision of chapter 64.36, 19.105, or 58.19 RCW or the rules adopted under those chapters;

(3) Being convicted in a court of competent jurisdiction of this or any other state, or federal court, of forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, bribery, larceny, extortion, conspiracy to defraud, or any similar offense or offenses: PROVIDED, That for the purposes of this section being convicted shall include all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for the conviction, and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended;

(4) Making, printing, publishing, distributing, or causing, authorizing, or knowingly permitting the making, printing, publication or distribution of false statements, descriptions or promises of such character as to reasonably induce any person to act thereon, if the statements, descriptions or promises purport to be made or to be performed by either the licensee or his or her principal and the licensee then knew or, by the exercise of reasonable care and inquiry, could have known, of the falsity of the statements, descriptions or promises;

(5) Knowingly committing, or being a party to, any material fraud, misrepresentation, concealment, conspiracy, collusion, trick, scheme or device whereby any other person lawfully relies upon the word, representation or conduct of the licensee;

(6) Accepting the services of, or continuing in a representative capacity, any associate broker or salesperson who has not been granted a license, or after his or her license has been revoked or during a suspension thereof;

(7) Conversion of any money, contract, deed, note, mortgage, or abstract or other evidence of title, to his or her own use or to the use of his or her principal or of any other person, when delivered to him or her in trust or on condition, in violation of the trust or before the happening of the condition; and failure to return any money or contract, deed, note, mortgage, abstract or other evidence of title within thirty days after the owner thereof is entitled thereto, and makes demand therefor, shall be prima facie evidence of such conversion;

(8) Failing, upon demand, to disclose any information within his or her knowledge to, or to produce any document, book or record in his or her possession for inspection of the director or his or her authorized representatives acting by authority of law;

(9) Continuing to sell any real estate, or operating according to a plan of selling, whereby the interests of the public are endangered, after the director has, by order in writing, stated objections thereto;

(10) Committing any act of fraudulent or dishonest dealing or a crime involving moral turpitude, and a certified copy of the final holding of any court of competent jurisdiction in such matter shall be conclusive evidence in any hearing under this chapter;

(11) Advertising in any manner without affixing the broker's name as licensed, and in the case of a salesperson or associate broker, without affixing the name of the broker as licensed for whom or under whom the salesperson or associate broker operates, to the advertisement;

(12) Accepting other than cash or its equivalent as earnest money unless that fact is communicated to the owner prior to his or her acceptance of the offer to purchase, and such fact is shown in the earnest money receipt;

(13) Charging or accepting compensation from more than one party in any one transaction without first making full disclosure of all the facts to all the parties interested in the transaction;

(14) Accepting, taking or charging any undisclosed commission, rebate or direct profit on expenditures made for the principal;

(15) Accepting employment or compensation for appraisal of real property contingent upon reporting a predetermined value;

(16) Issuing an appraisal report on any real property in which the broker, associate broker, or salesperson has an interest unless his or her interest is clearly stated in the appraisal report;

(17) Misrepresentation of his or her membership in any state or national real estate association;

(18) Discrimination against any person in hiring or in sales activity, on the basis of race, color, creed or national origin, or violating any of the provisions of any state or federal anti-discrimination law;

(19) Failing to keep an escrow or trustee account of funds deposited with him or her relating to a real estate transaction, for a period of three years, showing to whom paid, and such other pertinent information as the director may require, such records to be available to the director, or his or her representatives, on demand, or upon written notice given to the bank;

(20) Failing to preserve for three years following its consummation records relating to any real estate transaction;

(21) Failing to furnish a copy of any listing, sale, lease or other contract relevant to a real estate transaction to all signatories thereof at the time of execution;

(22) Acceptance by a branch manager, associate broker, or salesperson of a commission or any valuable consideration for the performance of any acts specified in this chapter, from any person, except the licensed real estate broker with whom he or she is licensed;

(23) To direct any transaction involving his or her principal, to any lending institution for financing or to any escrow company, in expectation of receiving a kickback or rebate therefrom, without first disclosing such expectation to his or her principal;

(24) Failing to disclose to an owner his or her intention or true position if he or she directly or indirectly through third party, purchases for himself or herself or acquires or intends to acquire any interest in, or any option to purchase, property;

(25) In the case of a broker licensee, failing to exercise adequate supervision over the activities of his or her licensed associate brokers and salespersons within the scope of this chapter;

(26) Any conduct in a real estate transaction which demonstrates bad faith, dishonesty, untrustworthiness or incompetency;

(27) Acting as a mobile home and travel trailer dealer or salesperson, as defined in RCW 46.70.011 as now or hereafter amended, without having a license to do so;

(28) Failing to assure that the title is transferred under chapter 46.12 RCW when engaging in a transaction involving a mobile home as a broker, associate broker, or salesperson; or

(29) Violation of an order to cease and desist which is issued by the director under this chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 45, chapter 52, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 10, chapter 332, Laws of 1987 and RCW 18.85.240 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may deputize one or more assistants to perform his or her duties with reference to ~~((refusal, revocation, or suspension of licenses and imposition of fines))~~ disciplinary action.

Sec. 7. Section 23, chapter 222, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 11, chapter 332, Laws of 1987 and RCW 18.85.251 are each amended to read as follows:

The disciplinary proceedings ~~((for revocation or suspension of a license or imposition of a fine or refusal to renew a license or accept an application for an initial license or license renewal))~~ shall be had on motion of the director or after a statement in writing verified by some person or persons familiar with the facts upon which the proposed ~~((revocation, suspension, refusal or fine))~~ disciplinary action is based has been filed with the director. Upon receipt of such statement or accusation, the director shall make a preliminary investigation of the facts charged to determine whether the statement or accusation is sufficient. If the director shall determine the statement or accusation is sufficient to require formal action, the director shall thereupon set the matter for hearing at a specified time and place. A copy of such order setting time and place and a copy of the verified statement shall be served upon the licensee or applicant involved not less than twenty days before the day appointed in the order for said hearing. The department of licensing, the licensee or applicant accused, and the person making the accusation may be represented by counsel at such a hearing. The director or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW shall hear and receive pertinent evidence and testimony.

Sec. 8. Section 25, chapter 222, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 13, chapter 332, Laws of 1987 and RCW 18.85.271 are each amended to read as follows:

If the director shall decide, after such hearing, that the evidence supports the accusation by a preponderance of evidence, the director may ~~((revoke or suspend the license, or fine the licensee, or deny the application for, or renewal of, a license))~~ impose sanctions authorized under RCW 18.85.040. In such event the director shall enter an order to that effect and shall file the same in his or her office and immediately mail a copy thereof to the affected party at the address of record with the department. Such order shall not be operative for a period of ten days from the date thereof. Any licensee or applicant aggrieved by a final decision by the director in a contested case whether such decision is affirmative or negative in form, is entitled to a judicial review in the superior court under the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW. Upon instituting appeal in the superior court, the appellant shall give a cash bond to the state of Washington, which bond shall be filed with the clerk of the court, in the sum of five hundred dollars to be approved by the judge of said court, conditioned to pay all costs that may be awarded against such appellant in the event of an adverse decision, such bond and notice to be filed within thirty days from the date of the director's decision.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "salespersons;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 18.85.040, 18.85.095, 18.85.240, 18.85.251, and 18.85.271; reenacting and amending RCW 18.85.215 and 18.85.230; and adding a new section to chapter 18.85 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6486 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that interest has been steadily increasing in archery and archery safety; law enforcement training and qualifications; target practice and safety; skeet, trap, and shotgun sports including dog training; and black powder shooting sports and related historical heritage activities. Current facilities for sporting training and practice, which are often leased, are threatened with being closed due to the pressures of urban growth. Acquisition and development of an accessible state facility of international Olympic quality will promote international competition, target practice and safety training, and Olympic-type training events. Facilities throughout the state will promote tourism and provide added recreational opportunities and greater hunting safety for the citizens of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The Washington state firearm range committee is created.

(2) The committee shall be composed of nine members appointed by the governor. The members shall be appointed as follows:

- (a) One from a local government law enforcement agency;
- (b) One from a state-wide law enforcement agency;
- (c) One from a state-wide group that emphasizes or has a subdivision which emphasizes hunting and hunting safety;
- (d) One from a state-wide group or division of a state-wide group that emphasizes target practice and target practice safety including but not limited to iron silhouette competition, small bore competition, and big bore competition;
- (e) One representative of a skeet, trap, shotgun, or dog training sports group;
- (f) One representative of a group involved with black powder shooting sports and related historical heritage events;
- (g) One representative from an archery and archery safety group;
- (h) One representative of the general public; and
- (i) The director of the department of wildlife or the director's designee.

(3) There shall be four nonvoting ex officio members, one from each caucus of the senate and the house of representatives, approved by the lieutenant governor or the speaker of the house of representatives, as appropriate.

(4) The members of the committee shall select one of its members as chair. The committee shall meet at the call of the chair.

(5) Committee members shall not receive compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The Washington state firearm range committee shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Assess local, state, federal, and tribal law enforcement needs in cooperation with the association of sheriffs and police chiefs and the criminal justice training commission;

(2) Assess sporting needs for each user type including number of user days and financial contributions to the facilities and to the state's economy;

(3) Survey the existing public and private firearm facilities to assess excess demands;

(4) Review similar facilities in other states or countries including the Olympic firearm training center in Colorado Springs;

(5) Develop a proposed public and private use and cost ratio and a program for phased development and cost sharing for planning, construction, and operation;

(6) In cooperation with the department of natural resources and other state and local agencies, identify state lands that may be used for those facilities;

(7) Fully investigate private and state liability issues and prepare proposals for liability limitations, insurance needs, and costs;

(8) Analyze the appropriate state role in the facility planning, development, and use, including possible public and private contracting options; and

(9) Investigate and prepare recommendations on private and public funding sources including private donations and grants and county, city, and state funding.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The committee shall make recommendations on the type of facility that would be appropriate for the various sites. The type of range may include but not be limited to pistol, rifle, shotgun, archery, or any combination thereof including a comprehensive multiple use facility.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The wildlife department, the department of natural resources, the department of trade and economic development, the parks and recreation commission, the house of representatives, and the senate shall provide support staff for the committee.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The committee may apply for and use private and public grant moneys to carry out its responsibilities under this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The committee shall prepare a report and submit it to the legislature by January 1, 1990. The committee shall terminate February 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The committee shall study the possibility of establishing a surcharge on hunting licenses and tags and shall include recommendations in the report required by section 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 77.32 RCW to read as follows:

The firearm range account is hereby created in the state wildlife fund. Moneys in the account shall be subject to legislative appropriation and shall be used for land, construction, development, and operation of firearm ranges and sporting training and practice facilities.

Sec. 10. Section 7, chapter 172, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 3, chapter 428, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.41.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The judge of a court of record, the chief of police of a municipality, or the sheriff of a county, shall within thirty days after the filing of an application of any person issue a license to such person to carry a pistol concealed on his person within this state for four years from date of issue, for the purposes of protection or while engaged in business, sport or while traveling. However, if the applicant does not have a valid permanent Washington driver's license or Washington state identification card or has not been a resident of the state for the previous consecutive ninety days, the issuing authority shall have up to sixty days after the filing of the application to issue a license. Such citizen's constitutional right to bear arms shall not be denied to him, unless he:

(a) Is ineligible to own a pistol under the provisions of RCW 9.41.040; or

(b) Is under twenty-one years of age; or

(c) Is subject to a court order or injunction regarding firearms pursuant to RCW 10.99.040, 10.99.045, or 26.09.060; or

(d) Is free on bond or personal recognizance pending trial, appeal, or sentencing for a crime of violence; or

(e) Has an outstanding warrant for his or her arrest from any court of competent jurisdiction for a felony or misdemeanor.

The license shall be revoked immediately upon conviction of a crime which makes such a person ineligible to own a pistol or upon the third conviction for a violation of this chapter within five calendar years. The license shall be in triplicate, in form to be prescribed by the department of licensing, and shall bear the name, address, and description, fingerprints and signature of the licensee, and the licensee's driver's license number or state identification card number if used for identification in applying for the license. The license application shall contain a warning substantially as follows:

CAUTION: Although state and local laws do not differ, federal law and state law on the possession of firearms differ. If you are prohibited by federal law from possessing a firearm, you may be prosecuted in federal court. A state permit is not a defense to a federal prosecution.

The license application shall contain a description of the major differences between state and federal law and an explanation of the fact that local laws and ordinances on firearms are preempted by state law and must be consistent with state law.

The original thereof shall be delivered to the licensee, the duplicate shall within seven days be sent by registered mail to the director of licensing and the triplicate shall be preserved for six years, by the authority issuing said license.

(2) The fee for the original issuance of a four-year license shall be twenty-~~three~~ dollars: PROVIDED, That no other additional charges by any branch or unit of government shall be borne by the applicant for the issuance of the license: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the fee shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Four dollars shall be paid to the state general fund;

(b) Four dollars shall be paid to the agency taking the fingerprints of the person licensed: ((and))

(c) Twelve dollars shall be paid to the issuing authority for the purpose of enforcing this chapter; and

(d) Three dollars to the firearm range account in the wildlife fund.

(3) The fee for the renewal of such license shall be ((~~twelve~~)) fifteen dollars: PROVIDED, That no other additional charges by any branch or unit of government shall be borne by the applicant for the renewal of the license: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the fee shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Four dollars shall be paid to the state general fund: ((and))

(b) Eight dollars shall be paid to the issuing authority for the purpose of enforcing this chapter; and

(c) Three dollars to the firearm range account in the wildlife fund.

(4) A licensee may renew a license if the licensee applies for renewal within ninety days before or after the expiration date of the license. A license so renewed shall take effect on the expiration date of the prior license. A licensee renewing after the expiration date of the license must pay a late renewal penalty of ten dollars in addition to the renewal fee specified in subsection (3) of this section. The fee shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Three dollars shall be deposited in the state game fund and used exclusively for the printing and distribution of a pamphlet on the legal limits of the use of firearms, firearms safety, and the preemptive nature of state law. The pamphlet shall be given to each applicant for a license; and

(b) Seven dollars shall be paid to the issuing authority for the purpose of enforcing this chapter.

(5) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsections (1) through (4) of this section, the chief of police of the municipality or the sheriff of the county of the applicant's residence may issue a temporary emergency license for good cause pending review under subsection (1) of this section.

(6) A political subdivision of the state shall not modify the requirements of this section or chapter, nor may a political subdivision ask the applicant to voluntarily submit any information not required by this section. A civil suit may be brought to enjoin a wrongful refusal to issue a license or a wrongful modification of the requirements of this section or chapter. The civil suit may be brought in the county in which the application was made or in Thurston county at the discretion of the petitioner. Any person who prevails against a public agency in any action in the courts for a violation of this chapter shall be awarded costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with such legal action."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "facility," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 9.41.070; adding a new section to chapter 77.32 RCW; and creating new sections."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6513 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 295, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology is authorized to make loans or grants or combinations thereof: (1) From funds under RCW 43.83B.010 through 43.83B.110 to eligible public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050 for rehabilitation or betterment of agricultural water supply facilities, and/or construction of agricultural water supply facilities required to develop new irrigated lands; or ((:)) (2) from emergency agricultural water supply funds under RCW 43.83B.300 when required ((because of emergency drought conditions:)) to provide water ((to previously irrigated lands)) to alleviate emergency drought conditions to assure the survival of irrigated crops and the state's fisheries. The department of ecology may make such loans or grants or combinations thereof as matching funds in any case where federal, local, or other funds have been made available on a matching basis. A loan or combination loan and grant shall not exceed fifty percent of the approved eligible project costs for any single proposed project: PROVIDED, That for purposes authorized by RCW 43.83B.300, 43.83B.310, and 43.83B.385 the department of ecology may make a loan up to ninety percent of the total eligible project cost or combination loan and grant up to one hundred percent of the total single project cost and the grant portion for any single project shall not exceed ((fifteen)) twenty percent of the total ((single)) project cost except that, for activities forecast to have fifty percent or less of normal seasonal water supplies, the grant portion for any single project or entity shall not exceed forty percent of the total project cost. No single entity shall receive more than ten percent of the total funds available for drought relief. These funds shall not be used for nonagricultural drought relief purposes unless there are no other capital budget funds available for these purposes. The total expenditures for nonagricultural drought relief purposes shall not exceed ten percent of the total funds available for drought relief purposes on the effective date of this 1988 act. Any grant or grant portion of a combination loan and grant from funds under RCW 43.83B.010 through 43.83B.110 for any single proposed project shall not exceed fifteen percent of the eligible project costs: PROVIDED, That the fifteen percent limitation established herein shall not be applicable to project commitments which the director or deputy director of the state department of ecology made to the bureau of reclamation of the United States department of interior for providing state funding at thirty-five percent of project costs during the period between August 1, 1974, and June 30, 1975.

The department of social and health services is authorized to make grants of up to forty percent of the cost of construction of any eligible project necessitated by the 1977 drought conditions. Such grants may be made only to public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050 for municipal and industrial water supply and distribution facilities.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.300 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that it is necessary to provide the department of ecology with emergency powers to authorize withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, and construction of facilities in relation thereto.

in order to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during 1977 and during 1987 through 1989.

The legislature further finds that there is a continuing (~~(agricultural)~~) water supply shortage in many areas of the state and that (~~(in relation to the lessening of that unsatisfactory condition; there is an urgent need to both improve water supply facilities and replace other such facilities)~~) there is an urgent need to assure the survival of irrigated crops and of the state's fisheries.

In order to provide needed (~~(capital)~~) moneys for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities (~~(to withdraw and distribute water)~~) and for other appropriate measures to assure the survival of irrigated crops and/or the state's fisheries to alleviate (~~(unsatisfactory)~~) emergency water supply conditions arising from droughts occurring from time to time in the state of Washington, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of eighteen million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this section and RCW 43.83B.360 through 43.83B.375 shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 1, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.310 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the powers previously vested in the department of ecology to permit the withdrawal of public surface and ground waters by chapters 90.03 and 90.44 RCW, the department of ecology is authorized to permit withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, for any period ending not later than (~~(October 31, 1987)~~) April 30, 1989, for any beneficial use. The department may issue such emergency permits if, after investigation and after providing appropriate federal, state, and local governmental bodies an opportunity to comment, the following are found:

(1) The waters proposed for withdrawal are to be used in relation to beneficial use involving a previously established activity or purpose; and

(2) The previously established activity or purpose was furnished water through rights applicable to the use of a public water body which are not exercisable due to the lack of water arising from natural drought conditions; and

(3) The proposed withdrawal will not reduce flows or levels below essential minimums necessary (a) to assure the maintenance of fisheries requirements, and (b) to protect federal and state interests including, among others, power generation, navigation, and existing water rights.

All permits issued hereunder shall contain provisions which allow for termination of authorized withdrawals, in whole or in part, whenever withdrawals will conflict with flows and levels as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

Sec. 4. Section 8, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.342 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology is authorized to expend funds from the emergency water supply appropriations for necessary drought-related equipment and to employ a maximum of (~~(two and one-half)~~) four full-time equivalent staff positions until (~~(October 31, 1987)~~) April 30, 1989, for the purpose of planning and administering drought relief activities, including the development of a state drought contingency plan for responding to future drought conditions.

Sec. 5. Section 9, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.344 are each amended to read as follows:

For a limited period of time ending (~~(October 31, 1987)~~) April 30, 1989, a water right may be temporarily changed in purpose or place of use or point of diversion consistent with existing state policy allowing transfer or lease of waters between willing parties as provided for in RCW 90.03.380, 90.03.390, and 90.44.100 without complying with any requirements of (1) notice of newspaper publication or (2) the state environmental policy act, chapter 43.21C RCW, when such changes are necessary to respond to emergency water supply conditions as determined by the department of ecology. The temporary changing of a water right as authorized under this section shall not be admissible as evidence in either the supporting or the contesting of the validity of water claims in State of Washington, Department of Ecology v. Acquavella, or any similar proceeding where the existence of a water right is at issue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.*

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Barr, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6513.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Halsan: "Senator Barr, in Section 1, page 2, lines 23 through 36, of the striking amendment, there are several limitations on the total funds available for drought relief. Are the total funds available for drought relief purposes, as stated in the amendment, considered to be only those funds in the emergency water project revolving account?"

Senator Barr: "Yes, Senator Halsan. When all of Section 1 of the House striking amendment is read together, it is clear that the language limiting the total funds available for drought relief references only those funds in the emergency water project revolving account."

Senator Halsan: "Senator Barr, would you yield to one further question? Do these limitations on the use of the funds affect the appropriations from this account in the Supplemental Operating Budget for the operating costs associated with this drought legislation, the water efficiency study and the water resources study?"

Senator Barr: "The answer is 'no.' These limitations are only to be applied on those grants and loans made in RCW 43.83B.210 for emergency drought activities and do not affect or restrict in any way, manner or form the appropriations in the Supplemental Operating Budget for operating costs associated with this drought bill, the water efficiency study and the water resources study."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6513, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6513, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; absent, 2; excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Madsen, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Zimmerman - 40.

Absent: Senators Deccio, Smith - 2.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Lee, McCaslin, Patterson, Sellar, Williams, Wojahn - 7.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6513, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 5, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6523 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 447, Laws of 1987 and RCW 18.36A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Naturopathic medicine or naturopathy is the practice by naturopaths of the art and science of the diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of disorders of the body by stimulation or support, or both, of the natural processes of the human body. A naturopath is responsible and accountable to the consumer for the quality of naturopathic care rendered.

The practice of naturopathy includes manual manipulation (mechanotherapy) (~~until June 30, 1988~~), the prescription, administration, dispensing, and use, except for the treatment of malignancies or neoplastic disease, of nutrition and food science, physical modalities, homeopathy, certain medicines of mineral, animal, and botanical origin, hygiene and immunization, common diagnostic procedures, and suggestion; however, nothing in this chapter shall prohibit consultation and treatment of a patient in concert with a practitioner licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW. No person licensed under this chapter may employ the term "chiropractic" to describe any services provided by a naturopath under this chapter.

The state health coordinating council shall study and make recommendations on the qualifications of naturopaths in practicing manual manipulation (mechanotherapy), including the minimum educational standards comparable to the educational requirements of other health professions, and verification of qualifications by examination of applicants for naturopathic licensure. The report shall be presented to the legislature by January 1, 1989.

~~((The legislature shall review the practice of manual manipulation (mechanotherapy) by naturopaths before December 15, 1987, to determine whether the practice should be continued or modified.))~~

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 6523.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6523, as amended by the House.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6530 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 5, chapter 111, Laws of 1931 as last amended by section 7, chapter 88, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.030 are each amended to read as follows:

All explosive manufacturing buildings and magazines in which explosives or blasting agents except small arms ammunition and smokeless powder are had, kept, or stored, must be located at distances from inhabited buildings, railroads, highways, and public utility transmission systems in conformity with the ~~((following quantity and distance tables, and these tables shall be the basis on which applications for license for storage shall be made and license for storage issued, as provided in RCW 70.74.110 and 70.74.120. All distances prescribed in the following quantity and distance tables are unbaricaded, and, if there is an efficient artificial barricade or a natural barricade between the explosives manufacturing building or magazine and another explosives manufacturing building or magazine, building, railroad, highway, or public utility transmission system, the distance prescribed in the following quantity and distance tables may be reduced by one-half. Blasting and electric blasting caps in strength through No. 8 must be rated as one and one-half pounds of explosives per one thousand caps. Blasting and electric blasting caps of strength higher than No. 8 must be computed on the combined weight of explosives.~~ set in the quantity and distance tables adopted by the department of labor and industries by rule. The department of labor and industries shall adopt the quantity and distance tables promulgated by the federal bureau of alcohol, tobacco, and firearms unless the department determines the tables to be inappropriate. The tables shall be the basis on which applications for storage license are made and storage licenses issued as provided in RCW 70.74.110 and 70.74.120.

The quantity and distance table governing the manufacture, keeping and storage of explosives to be as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 70.74 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The director of labor and industries shall require, as a condition precedent to the original issuance or renewal of any explosive license, fingerprinting and criminal history record information checks of every applicant. In the case of a corporation, fingerprinting and criminal history record information checks shall be required for the management officials directly responsible for the operations where explosives are used if such persons have not previously had their fingerprints recorded with the department of labor and industries. In the case of a partnership, fingerprinting and criminal history record information checks shall be required of all general partners. Such fingerprints as are required by the department of labor and industries shall be submitted on forms provided by the department to the identification section of the Washington state patrol and to the identification division of the federal bureau of investigation in order that these agencies may search their records for prior convictions of the individuals fingerprinted. The Washington state patrol shall provide to the director of labor and industries such criminal record information as the director may request. The applicant shall give full cooperation to the department of labor and industries and shall assist the department of labor and industries in all aspects of the fingerprinting and criminal history record information check. The applicant may be required to pay a fee not to exceed twenty dollars to the agency that performs the fingerprinting and criminal history process.

(2) The director of labor and industries shall not issue a license to manufacture, purchase, store, use, or deal with explosives to:

(a) Any person under twenty-one years of age;

(b) Any person whose license is suspended or whose license has been revoked, except as provided in section 4 of this act;

(c) Any person who has been convicted in this state or elsewhere of a violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030, perjury, false swearing, or bomb threats or a crime involving a schedule I or II controlled substance, or any other drug or alcohol related offense, unless such other drug or alcohol related offense does not reflect a drug or alcohol dependency. However, the director of labor and industries may issue a license if the person suffering a drug or alcohol related dependency is participating in or has completed an alcohol or drug recovery program acceptable to the department of labor and industries and has established control of their alcohol or drug dependency. The director of labor and industries shall require the applicant to provide proof of such participation and control; or

(d) Any person who has previously been adjudged to be mentally ill or insane, or to be incompetent due to any mental disability or disease and who has not at the time of application been restored to competency.

(3) The director of labor and industries may establish reasonable licensing fees for the manufacture, dealing, purchase, use, and storage of explosives.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 70.74 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department of labor and industries shall revoke and not renew the license of any person holding a manufacturer, dealer, purchaser, user, or storage license upon conviction of any of the following offenses, which conviction has become final:

(a) A violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030;

(b) A crime involving perjury or false swearing, including the making of a false affidavit or statement under oath to the department of labor and industries in an application or report made pursuant to this title;

(c) A crime involving bomb threats;

(d) A crime involving a schedule I or II controlled substance, or any other drug or alcohol related offense, unless such other drug or alcohol related offense does not reflect a drug or alcohol dependency. However, the department of labor and industries may condition renewal of the license to any convicted person suffering a drug or alcohol dependency who is participating in an alcoholism or drug recovery program acceptable to the department of labor and industries and has established control of their alcohol or drug dependency. The department of labor and industries shall require the licensee to provide proof of such participation and control;

(e) A crime relating to possession, use, transfer, or sale of explosives under this chapter or any other chapter of the Revised Code of Washington.

(2) The department of labor and industries shall revoke the license of any person adjudged to be mentally ill or insane, or to be incompetent due to any mental disability or disease. The director shall not renew the license until the person has been restored to competency.

(3) The department of labor and industries is authorized to suspend, for a period of time not to exceed six months, the license of any person who has violated this chapter or the rules promulgated pursuant to this chapter.

(4) The department of labor and industries may revoke the license of any person who has repeatedly violated this chapter or the rules promulgated pursuant to this chapter, or who has twice had his or her license suspended under this chapter.

(5) Upon receipt of notification by the department of labor and industries of revocation or suspension, a licensee must surrender immediately to the department any or all such licenses revoked or suspended.

Sec. 5. Section 11, chapter 111, Laws of 1931 as last amended by section 13, chapter 137, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.110 are each amended to read as follows:

All persons engaged in the manufacture of explosives, or any process involving explosives, or where explosives are used as a component part in the manufacture of any article or device, on the date when this 1969 amendatory act takes effect, shall within sixty days thereafter, and all persons engaging in the manufacture of explosives, or any process involving explosives, or where explosives are used as a component part in the manufacture of any article or device after this act takes effect shall, before so engaging, make an application in writing, subscribed to by such person or his agent, to the department of labor and industries, the application stating:

- (1) Location of place of manufacture or processing;
- (2) Kind of explosives manufactured, processed or used;
- (3) The distance that such explosives manufacturing building is located or intended to be located from the other factory buildings, magazines, inhabited buildings, railroads and highways and public utility transmission systems;
- (4) The name and address of the applicant;
- (5) The reason for desiring to manufacture explosives;
- (6) The applicant's citizenship, if the applicant is an individual;
- (7) If the applicant is a partnership, the names and addresses of the partners, and their citizenship;
- (8) If the applicant is an association or corporation, the names and addresses of the officers and directors thereof, and their citizenship; and
- (9) Such other pertinent information as the director of labor and industries shall require to effectuate the purpose of this chapter.

There shall be kept in the main office on the premises of each explosives manufacturing plant a plan of said plant showing the location of all explosives manufacturing buildings and the distance they are located from other factory buildings where persons are employed and from magazines, and these plans shall at all times be open to inspection by duly authorized inspectors of the department of labor and industries. The superintendent of each plant shall upon demand of said inspector furnish the following information:

- (a) The maximum amount and kind of explosive material which is or will be present in each building at one time.
- (b) The nature and kind of work carried on in each building and whether or not said buildings are surrounded by natural or artificial barricades.

The department of labor and industries shall as soon as ~~(may be)~~ possible after receiving such application cause an inspection to be made of the explosives manufacturing plant, and if found to be in accordance with RCW 70.74.030 and 70.74.050 and RCW 70.74.061, such department shall issue a license to the person applying therefor showing compliance with the provisions of this chapter ~~(-unless)~~ if the ~~(department shall find)~~ applicant demonstrates that either the applicant or the officers, agents or employees of the applicant are ~~(not)~~ sufficiently experienced in the manufacture of explosives ~~(-have been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, or are disloyal to the United States)~~ and the applicant meets the qualifications for a license under section 3 of this 1988 act. Such license shall continue in full force and effect until ~~(surrendered or canceled, because of failure to comply with any of the conditions necessary for the granting of a license)~~ expired, suspended, or revoked by the department pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 12, chapter 111, Laws of 1931 as last amended by section 14, chapter 137, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.120 are each amended to read as follows:

All persons engaged in keeping or storing and all persons having in their possession explosives on the date when this 1969 amendatory act takes effect shall within sixty days thereafter, and all persons engaging in keeping or storing explosives or coming into possession thereof after this act takes effect, shall before engaging in the keeping or storing of explosives or taking possession thereof, make an application in writing subscribed to by such person or his agent, to the department of labor and industries stating:

- (1) The location of the magazine, if any, if then existing, or in case of a new magazine, the proposed location of such magazine;
- (2) The kind of explosives that are kept or stored or possessed or intended to be kept or stored or possessed and the maximum quantity that is intended to be kept or stored or possessed thereat;
- (3) The distance that such magazine is located or intended to be located from other magazines, inhabited buildings, explosives manufacturing buildings, railroads, highways and public utility transmission systems;
- (4) The name and address of the applicant;
- (5) The reason for desiring to store or possess explosives;
- (6) The citizenship of the applicant if the applicant is an individual;

(7) If the applicant is a partnership, the names and addresses of the partners and their citizenship;

(8) If the applicant is an association or corporation, the names and addresses of the officers and directors thereof and their citizenship;

(9) And such other pertinent information as the director of the department of labor and industries shall require to effectuate the purpose of this chapter.

The department of labor and industries shall, as soon as may be after receiving such application, cause an inspection to be made of the magazine, if then constructed, and, in the case of a new magazine, as soon as may be after same is found to be constructed in accordance with the specification provided in RCW 70.74.025, such department shall determine the amount of explosives that may be kept and stored in such magazine by reference to the quantity and distance tables (~~set forth in RCW 70.74.036, 70.74.050 and 70.74.061~~) specified in or adopted under this chapter and shall issue a license to the person applying therefor (~~unless the department shall find that such applicant is not sufficiently experienced in the handling of explosives, lacks suitable facilities therefor, has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, or is disloyal to the United States~~) if the applicant demonstrates that either the applicant or the officers, agents, or employees of the applicant are sufficiently experienced in the handling of explosives and possess suitable storage facilities therefor, and that the applicant meets the qualifications for a license under section 3 of this 1988 act. Said license shall set forth the maximum quantity of explosives that may be had, kept or stored by said person. Such license shall be valid until canceled for one or more of the causes hereinafter provided. Whenever by reason of change in the physical conditions surrounding said magazine at the time of the issuance of the license therefor, such as:

(a) The erection of buildings nearer said magazine;

(b) The construction of railroads nearer said magazine;

(c) The opening for public travel of highways nearer said magazine; or

(d) The construction of public utilities transmission systems near said magazine; then the amounts of explosives which may be lawfully had, kept or stored in said magazine must be reduced to conform to such changed conditions in accordance with the quantity and distance table notwithstanding the license, and the department of labor and industries shall modify or cancel such license in accordance with the changed conditions. (~~Said license may also be canceled if the department of labor and industries shall find that the applicant is keeping explosives for an unlawful purpose or is disloyal to the United States.~~) Whenever any person to whom a license has been issued, keeps or stores in the magazine or has in his possession, any quantity of explosives in excess of the maximum amount set forth in said license, or whenever any person fails for thirty days to pay the annual license fee hereinafter provided after the same becomes due, the department is authorized to cancel such license. Whenever a license is canceled by the department for any cause herein specified, the department shall notify the person to whom such license is issued of the fact of such cancellation and shall in said notice direct the removal of all explosives stored in said magazine within ten days from the giving of said notice, or, if the cause of cancellation be the failure to pay the annual license fee, or the fact that explosives are kept for an unlawful purpose, (~~or the applicant is disloyal to the United States~~;) the department of labor and industries shall order such person to dispossess himself of said explosives within ten days from the giving of said notice. Failure to remove the explosives stored in said magazine or to dispossess oneself of the explosives as herein provided within the time specified in said notice shall constitute a violation of this chapter.

Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 101, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 16, chapter 137, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person desiring to engage in the business of dealing in explosives shall apply to the department of labor and industries for a license therefor. Said application shall state, among other things:

(1) The name and address of applicant;

(2) The reason for desiring to engage in the business of dealing in explosives;

(3) Citizenship, if an individual applicant;

(4) If a partnership, the names and addresses of the partners and their citizenship;

(5) If an association or corporation, the names and addresses of the officers and directors thereof and their citizenship; and

(6) Such other pertinent information as the director of labor and industries shall require to effectuate the purpose of this chapter.

The department of labor and industries shall issue the license (~~applied for unless the department finds that either the applicant or any of the officers, agents or employees of the applicant are not sufficiently experienced in the business of dealing in explosives, lack suitable facilities therefor, have been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, or are disloyal to the United States. Said license may be canceled for any cause that would prevent the initial issuance thereof~~) if the applicant demonstrates that either the applicant or the principal officers, agents, or employees of the applicant are experienced in the business of dealing in explosives, possess suitable facilities therefor, have not been convicted of any crime that would warrant revocation or nonrenewal of a license under this chapter, and have never had an explosives-related license revoked under this chapter or under similar provisions of any other state.

Sec. 8. Section 18, chapter 137, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 302, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.135 are each amended to read as follows:

All persons desiring to purchase explosives except handloader components shall apply to the department of labor and industries for a license. Said application shall state, among other things:

- (1) The location where explosives are to be used;
- (2) The kind and amount of explosives to be used;
- (3) The name and address of the applicant;
- (4) The reason for desiring to use explosives;
- (5) The citizenship of the applicant if the applicant is an individual;
- (6) If the applicant is a partnership, the names and addresses of the partners and their citizenship;
- (7) If the applicant is an association or corporation, the names and addresses of the officers and directors thereof and their citizenship; and
- (8) Such other pertinent information as the director of the department of labor and industries shall require to effectuate the purpose of this chapter.

The department of labor and industries shall issue the license (~~(applied for unless)~~) if the (~~(department finds)~~) applicant demonstrates that either the applicant or (~~(any of)~~) the officers, agents or employees of the applicant are (~~(not)~~) sufficiently experienced in the use of explosives (~~(lack suitable facilities therefor, have been convicted of a felony involving force or violence, or are disloyal to the United States. Said license may be canceled for any cause that would prevent the initial issuance thereof, or for any violation of this chapter)~~) to authorize a purchase license. However, no purchaser's license may be issued to any person who cannot document proof of possession or right to use approved and licensed storage facilities unless the person signs a statement certifying that explosives will not be stored.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 70.74 RCW to read as follows:

With the exception of storage licenses for permanent facilities, every license issued under the authority of this chapter shall expire after one year from the date issued unless suspended or revoked. The director of labor and industries may extend the duration of storage licenses for permanent facilities to two years provided the location, distances, and use of the facilities remain unchanged. The fee for the two-year storage license shall be twice the annual fee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 70.74 RCW to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person to manufacture, purchase, sell, use, or store any explosive without having a validly issued license from the department of labor and industries, which license has not been revoked or suspended. Violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor.

(2) Upon notice from the department of labor and industries or any law enforcement agency having jurisdiction, a person manufacturing, purchasing, selling, using, or storing any explosive without a license shall immediately surrender any and all such explosives to the department or to the respective law enforcement agency.

(3) At any time that the director of labor and industries requests the surrender of explosives from any person pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, the director may in addition request the attorney general to make application to the superior court of the county in which the unlawful practice exists for a temporary restraining order or such other relief as appears to be appropriate under the circumstances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 70.74 RCW to read as follows:

Unless specifically provided otherwise by statute, this chapter and the rules adopted thereunder shall be implemented and enforced, including penalties, violations, citations, appeals, and other administrative procedures, pursuant to the Washington industrial safety and health act, chapter 49.17 RCW.

Sec. 12. Section 2, chapter 88, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.137 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person applying for a purchaser's license, or renewal thereof, shall pay an annual license fee of (~~(two)~~) five dollars. The director of labor and industries may adjust the amount of the license fee to reflect the administrative costs of the department. The fee shall not exceed fifteen dollars.

Said license fee shall accompany the application(~~(;)~~) and shall be transmitted by the department (~~(turned over)~~) to the state treasurer: PROVIDED, That if the applicant is denied a purchaser's license the license fee shall be returned to said applicant by registered mail.

Sec. 13. Section 13, chapter 111, Laws of 1931 as amended by section 15, chapter 137, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person engaging in the business of keeping or storing of explosives(~~(;)~~) shall pay an annual license fee for each magazine maintained, to be graduated by the department of labor and industries according to the quantity kept or stored therein, of (~~(not less than one dollar nor more than fifty)~~) ten dollars. The director of labor and industries may adjust the amount of the license fee to reflect the administrative costs of the department. The fee shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

Said license fee shall accompany the application(;-) and shall be transmitted by the department (~~turned over~~) to the state treasurer.

Sec. 14. Section 1, chapter 88, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.142 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person applying for a user's license, or renewal thereof, under this chapter shall pay an annual license fee of (~~three~~) five dollars. The director of labor and industries may adjust the amount of the license fee to reflect the administrative costs of the department. The fee shall not exceed fifteen dollars.

Said license fee shall accompany the application, and be turned over by the department to the state treasurer: PROVIDED, That if the applicant is denied a user's license the license fee shall be returned to said applicant by registered mail.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 70.74 RCW to read as follows:

Every person engaged in the business of manufacturing explosives shall pay an annual license fee of twenty-five dollars. The director of labor and industries may adjust the amount of the license fee to reflect the administrative costs of the department. The fee shall not exceed fifty dollars.

Businesses licensed to manufacture explosives are not required to have a dealers license, but must comply with all of the dealer requirements of this chapter when they sell explosives.

The license fee shall accompany the application and shall be transmitted by the department to the state treasurer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 70.74 RCW to read as follows:

Every person engaged in the business of selling explosives shall pay an annual license fee of twenty-five dollars. The director of labor and industries may adjust the amount of the license fee to reflect the administrative costs of the department. The fee shall not exceed fifty dollars.

Businesses licensed to sell explosives must comply with all of the dealer requirements of this chapter.

The license fee shall accompany the application and shall be transmitted by the department to the state treasurer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 17, chapter 111, Laws of 1931, section 7, chapter 137, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.220; and

(2) Section 252, chapter 249, Laws of 1909, section 25, chapter 137, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.74.290."

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "licensing;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 70.74.030, 70.74.061, 70.74.110, 70.74.130, 70.74.135, 70.74.137, 70.74.140, and 70.74.142; adding new sections to chapter 70.74 RCW; and repealing RCW 70.74.220 and 70.74.290."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 5, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6569 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The department of labor and industries shall prepare a master document that provides informational material about construction lien laws and available safeguards against real property lien claims. The material shall include methods of protection against lien claims, including obtaining lien release documents, performance bonds, joint payee checks, the opportunity to require contractor disclosure of all potential lien claimants as a condition of payment, and lender supervision under RCW 60.04.200 and 60.04.210. The material shall also include sources of further information, including the department of labor and industries and the office of the attorney general.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Every real property lender shall provide a copy of the informational material described in section 1 of this act to all persons obtaining loans, the proceeds of which are to be used for residential construction or residential repair or remodeling.

(2) Every contractor shall provide a copy of the informational material described in section 1 of this act to customers required to receive contractor disclosure notice under RCW 18.27.114.

(3) No cause of action may lie against the state, a real property lender, or a contractor arising from the provisions of sections 1 and 2 of this act.

(4) For the purpose of this section, "real property lender" means a bank, savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, mortgage company, or other corporation, association, partnership, or individual that makes loans secured by real property in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Sections 1 and 2 of this act are each added to chapter 60.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act shall take effect July 1, 1989.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "information;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 60.04 RCW; and providing an effective date."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6638 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that significant changes occurring simultaneously in the health care delivery system and the demography of the national population are resulting in a shortage of qualified nursing personnel which has the potential of dramatically reducing the quality of health care in the state of Washington, particularly in long-term care and critical emergent care. One of the more important contributors to this shortage is the fall in enrollment of students wishing to pursue nursing as a career. In today's complex health care environment, a more integrated approach to the delivery of nursing care may provide comprehensive answers to the problem. The legislature finds that encouraging qualified individuals to enter the nursing profession is of paramount importance to the state in reducing this shortage. The legislature urges the health professions, industry, and philanthropic community organizations to join with state government in assuring the success of this program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Conditional scholarship" means a loan that is forgiven in whole or in part if the recipient renders nursing service as a nurse serving in a nurse shortage area, as defined by the state health coordinating council.

(2) "Institution of higher education" or "institution" means a community college, vocational-technical school, or university in the state of Washington which is accredited by an accrediting association recognized as such by rule of the higher education coordinating board.

(3) "Board" means the higher education coordinating board.

(4) "Eligible student" means a student who has been accepted into a program leading to eligibility for licensure as a licensed practical nurse, or to a program leading to an associate, baccalaureate, or higher degree in nursing or continues satisfactory progress within the program; and has a declared intention to serve in a nurse shortage area upon completion of the educational program.

(5) "Nurse shortage area" means those areas where nurses are in short supply as a result of geographic maldistribution; or specialty areas of nursing, such as geriatrics or critical care, where vacancies exist in serious numbers that jeopardize patient care and pose a threat to the public health and safety. The state health coordinating council shall determine nurse shortage areas in the state guided by federal standards of "health manpower shortage areas."

(6) "Forgiven" or "to forgive" or "forgiveness" means to render nursing service in a nurse shortage area in the state of Washington in lieu of monetary repayment.

(7) "Satisfied" means paid-in-full.

(8) "Participant" means an eligible student who has received a conditional scholarship under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The nurses conditional scholarship program is established for students pursuing nursing programs in institutions of higher education. The program shall be administered by the higher education coordinating board in consultation with the state board for community college education. In administering the program, the board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Select students to receive conditional scholarships to attend institutions of higher education and the superintendent of public instruction for vocational education, with the assistance of a screening committee;

(2) Adopt rules and guidelines to implement this chapter;

(3) Publicize the program;

(4) Collect and manage repayments from students who do not meet their services obligations under this chapter;

(5) Solicit and accept grants and donations from public and private sources for the program; and

(6) Develop criteria for a contract for service in lieu of the five-year service in a nurse shortage area where appropriate, that may be a combination of service and payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The higher education coordinating board shall establish a planning committee to develop criteria for the screening and selection of recipients of the conditional scholarships. These criteria also may include, for approximately half of the recipients, requirements that those recipients meet the definition of "needy student" under RCW 28B.10.802.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The board may award conditional scholarships to eligible students from the funds appropriated to the board for this purpose, or from any private donations, or any other funds given to the board for this program. The amount of the conditional scholarship awarded an individual shall not exceed three thousand dollars per academic year. Students are eligible to receive conditional scholarships for a maximum of five years while continually enrolled in an approved program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Participants in the conditional scholarship program incur an obligation to repay the conditional scholarship, with interest, unless they serve for five years in nurse shortage areas of the state of Washington. Nurse shortage areas may include geographical areas as a result of maldistribution, or specialty areas of nursing such as gerontology, critical care, or coronary care.

(2) The terms of the repayment, including deferral of the interest, shall be consistent with the terms of the federal guaranteed loan program.

(3) The period for repayment shall be five years, with payments accruing quarterly commencing nine months from the date the participant completes or discontinues the course of study.

(4) The entire principal and interest of each payment shall be forgiven for each payment period in which the participant serves in a nurse shortage area, as determined by the state health coordinating council, until the entire repayment obligation is satisfied or the borrower ceases to so serve. Should the participant cease to serve in this state before the participant's repayment obligation is completed, payments on the unsatisfied portion of the principal and interest shall begin the next payment period and continue until the remainder of the participant's repayment obligation is satisfied.

(5) The board is responsible for collection of repayments made under this section and shall exercise due diligence in such collection, maintaining all necessary records to ensure that maximum repayments are made. Collection and servicing of repayments under this section shall be pursued using the full extent of the law, including wage garnishment if necessary, and shall be performed by entities approved for such servicing by the Washington student loan guaranty association or its successor agency. The board is responsible to forgive all or parts of such repayments under the criteria established in this section and shall maintain all necessary records of forgiven payments.

(6) Receipts from the payment of principal or interest or any other subsidies to which the board as administrator is entitled, which are paid by or on behalf of participants under this section, shall be deposited with the higher education coordinating board and shall be used to cover the costs of granting the conditional scholarships, maintaining necessary records, and making collections under subsection (5) of this section. The board shall maintain accurate records of these costs, and all receipts beyond those necessary to pay such costs shall be used to grant conditional scholarships to eligible students.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. After consulting with the higher education coordinating board, the governor may transfer the administration of this program to another agency with an appropriate educational mission.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28B RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. No conditional scholarships may be granted after June 30, 1994."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "nurses;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 28B RCW; and creating a new section."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6641 with the following amendment:

On page 2, after line 26, strike everything down to and including "35A.14.700." on page 3, line 6 and insert:

"Armed forces shipboard population, on-base naval group quarter population, and military dependents living in housing under United States navy jurisdiction, shall be determined quarterly by the office of financial management on the first days of January, April, July, and October. These counts shall be used to increase or decrease the armed forces component of the resident population determinations in the cities of Bremerton and Everett for the purpose of allocating state revenues according to this section. Counts on the first day of the quarterly periods commencing with January, April, July, and October shall be used to adjust the total population for the following quarter, in the same manner adjustments are made for population changes due to annexation as specified in RCW 35.13.260 and 35A.14.700.

Population determinations made under this section shall include only those persons who meet resident population criteria as defined by the federal bureau of the census.

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6671 with the following amendments:

On page 1, after line 3, strike all material down through page 2, line 15 and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 8, chapter 298, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.185.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) During each calendar year in which funds are available for use by the department from the housing trust fund, as prescribed in RCW 43.185.030, the department shall announce to all known interested parties, and through major media throughout the state, a grant and loan application period of at least ninety days' duration. This announcement shall be made as often as the director deems appropriate for proper utilization of resources, but at least twice annually. The department shall then promptly grant as many applications as will utilize available funds less appropriate administrative costs of the department, not to exceed thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1988, and seventy-five thousand dollars in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1989, and not to exceed five percent of annual revenues to the fund thereafter.

(2) The department shall give first priority to applications for projects and activities which utilize existing privately owned housing stock including privately owned housing stock purchased by nonprofit public development authorities. Such projects and activities shall be evaluated under subsection (3) of this section. Second priority shall be given to activities and projects which utilize existing publicly owned housing stock. Such projects and activities shall be evaluated under subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The department shall give preference for applications based on the following criteria:

(a) The degree of leveraging of other funds that will occur;

(b) Recipient contributions to total project costs, including allied contributions from other sources such as professional, craft and trade services, and lender interest rate subsidies;

(c) Local government project contributions in the form of infrastructure improvements, and others;

(d) Projects that encourage ownership, management, and other project-related responsibility opportunities;

(e) Projects that demonstrate a strong probability of serving the original target group or income level for a period of at least fifteen years;

(f) The applicant has the demonstrated ability, stability and resources to implement the project;

(g) Projects which demonstrate serving the greatest need; and

(h) Projects that provide housing for persons and families with the lowest incomes.

Sec. 2. Section 19, chapter 222, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 1, chapter 513, Laws of 1987 and RCW 18.85.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every licensed real estate broker shall keep adequate records of all real estate transactions handled by or through him. The records shall include, but are not limited to, a copy of the earnest money receipt, and an itemization of the broker's receipts and disbursements with each transaction. These records and all other records hereinafter specified shall be open to inspection by the director or his authorized representatives.

(2) Every real estate broker shall also deliver or cause to be delivered to all parties signing the same, at the time of signing, conformed copies of all earnest money receipts, listing agreements and all other like or similar instruments signed by the parties, including the closing statement.

(3) Every real estate broker shall also keep separate real estate fund accounts in a recognized Washington state depository authorized to receive funds in which shall be kept separate and apart and physically segregated from licensee broker's own funds, all funds or moneys of clients which are being held by such licensee broker pending the closing of a real estate sale or transaction, or which have been collected for said client and are being held for disbursement for or to said client and such funds shall be deposited not later than the first banking day following receipt thereof.

(4) Separate accounts comprised of clients' funds required to be maintained under this section, with the exception of property management trust accounts, shall be interest-bearing accounts from which withdrawals or transfers can be made without delay, subject only to the notice period which the depository institution is required to reserve by law or regulation.

(5) Every real estate broker shall maintain a pooled interest-bearing escrow account for deposit of client funds, with the exception of property management trust accounts, which are nominal ~~((or short term))~~. As used in this section, a "nominal ~~((or short term))~~" deposit is a deposit ~~((which, if placed in a separate account, would not produce positive net interest income after payment of bank fees, or other institution fees, and other administrative expenses))~~ of not more than five thousand dollars.

The interest accruing on this account, net of any reasonable ~~((transaction costs))~~ and appropriate financial institution service charges or fees, shall be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the Washington housing trust fund created in RCW 43.185.030. Appropriate service charges or fees are those charges made by financial institutions on other demand deposit or "now" accounts. An agent may, but shall not be required to, notify the client of the intended use of such funds.

(6) All client funds not required to be deposited in the account specified in subsection (5) of this section shall be deposited in:

(a) A separate interest-bearing trust account for the particular client or client's matter on which the interest will be paid to the client; or

(b) ~~((A pooled interest-bearing trust account with subaccounting that will provide for computation of interest earned by each client's funds and the payment thereof to the client))~~ The pooled interest-bearing trust account specified in subsection (5) of this section if the parties to the transaction agree.

The department of licensing shall promulgate regulations which will serve as guidelines in the choice of an account specified in subsection (5) of this section or an account specified in this subsection.

(7) For an account created under subsection (5) of this section, an agent shall direct the depository institution to:

(a) Remit interest or dividends, net of any reasonable and appropriate service charges or fees, on the average monthly balance in the account, or as otherwise computed in accordance with an institution's standard accounting practice, at least quarterly, to the state treasurer for deposit in the housing trust fund created by RCW 43.185.030 and the real estate commission account created by RCW 18.85.220 as directed by RCW 18.85.315; and

(b) Transmit to the director of community development a statement showing the name of the person or entity for whom the remittance is spent, the rate of interest applied, and the amount of service charges deducted, if any, and the account balance(s) of the period in which the report is made, with a copy of such statement to be transmitted to the depositing person or firm.

(8) The director shall forward a copy of the reports required by subsection (7) of this section to the department of licensing to aid in the enforcement of the requirements of this section consistent with the normal enforcement and auditing practices of the department of licensing.

(9) This section does not relieve any real estate broker from any obligation with respect to the safekeeping of clients' funds.

(10) Any violation by a real estate broker of any of the provisions of this section, or RCW 18.85.230, shall be grounds for revocation of the licenses issued to the broker.

Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 513, Laws of 1987 and RCW 18.85.510 are each amended to read as follows:

The broker's trust account board shall review grant and loan applications placed before it by the director for final approval pursuant to RCW 43.185. — (RCW 18.85.505 as recodified by section 4 of this 1988 act).

The decisions of the board shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 43.185.050, 43.185.060, and 43.185.070 with regard to eligible activities, eligible recipients, and criteria for evaluation.

The broker's trust account board shall serve in an advisory capacity to the real estate commission with regard to licensee education programs established pursuant to RCW 18.85.040 and 18.85.220.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. RCW 18.85.505 and 18.85.510 are each recodified in chapter 43.185 RCW."

Renumber the sections consecutively.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "43.185.070" insert ", 18.85.310, and 18.85.510; recodifying RCW 18.85.505 and 18.85.510"

On page 2, after line 15, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 167, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1982 and RCW 82.45.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The tax imposed under this chapter is due and payable immediately at the time of sale, and if not paid within thirty days thereafter shall bear interest at the rate of one percent per month from the time of sale until the date of payment.

(2) In addition to the interest described in subsection (1) of this section, if the payment of any tax is not received by the county treasurer within thirty days of the date due, there shall be assessed a penalty of five percent of the amount of the tax; if the tax is not received within sixty days of the date due, there shall be assessed a total penalty of ten percent of the amount of the tax; and if the tax is not received within ninety days of the date due, there shall be assessed a this penalty of twenty percent of the amount of the tax. The payment of the penalty described in this subsection shall be collectible from the seller only, and RCW 82.45.070 does not apply to the penalties described in this subsection.

(3) If upon examination of any affidavits or from other information obtained by the department or its agents it appears that all or a portion of the tax is unpaid, the department shall assess against the taxpayer the additional amount found to be due plus interest and penalties as provided in subsections (1) and (2) of this section. If the department finds that all or any part of the deficiency resulted from an intent to evade the tax payable under this chapter, ((α)) an additional penalty of fifty percent of the additional tax found to be due shall be added.

((β)) (4) No assessment or refund may be made by the department more than four years after the date of sale except upon a showing of fraud or of misrepresentation of a material fact by the taxpayer or a failure by the taxpayer to record documentation of a sale or otherwise report the sale to the county treasurer.

(5) Penalties collected pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall be deposited in the housing trust fund as described in chapter 43.185 RCW."

Renumber the sections consecutively.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "43.185.070" insert "and 82.45.100".

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 6671 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6668 with the following amendment:

On page 3, after line 36, insert "If the department must pursue collection of delinquent taxes, interest, and/or penalties payable under this section either through a collection agency or the judicial process, they may recover the actual costs incurred, including reasonable attorney fees."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 6668 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6675 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 74.21 RCW to read as follows:

The family independence program implementation plan submitted to the legislature pursuant to RCW 74.21.140 and 74.21.200 is approved. The governor or the governor's designee is authorized to sign and complete all necessary agreements with the federal government, provided that nothing in the agreements is inconsistent with chapter 74.21 RCW.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 434, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.21.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature hereby establishes as state policy the goal of economic independence for employable adults receiving public assistance, through employment, training, and education. The legislature finds that children living in families with incomes below the needs standard have reduced opportunities for physical and intellectual development. A family's economic future is frequently not improved by the current program.

Therefore, in order to break the cycle of poverty and dependence, a family independence program is established. Participating families are to receive benefits under this program at no less than they would otherwise have been entitled to receive.

The legislature finds that the state has a vital interest in ensuring that citizens who are in economic need are provided appropriate financial assistance. It is the intent of the legislature to maintain the existing partnership between state and federal government and that this program remain part of the federal welfare entitlement program. The legislature seeks federal authority for a five-year demonstration project and recognizes that waivers and congressional action may be required to achieve our purpose. The legislature does not seek a block grant approach to welfare.

The legislature recognizes that any program intended to assist new and current public assistance recipients will be more likely to succeed when the state, private sector, and recipients work together.

The legislature also recognizes the value of building on successful programs that utilize the development of networking and mentoring strategies to assist public assistance recipients to gain self-sufficiency. The legislature further encourages public-private cooperation in the areas of job readiness training, education, job training, and work opportunities, including community-based organizations as service providers in these areas through contractual relationships.

The legislature finds that the goal of economic independence requires increased efforts to assist parents in exercising their children's right to economic support from absent parents.

The legislature recognizes the substantial participation in the workforce of women with preschool children, and the difficulty in reentering employment after long absences.

The legislature further recognizes that public assistance recipients can play a major role in setting their own goals.

The objectives of this chapter are to assure that: The maximum number of recipients of public assistance become independent and self-sufficient through employment, training, and education; caseloads be correspondingly reduced on a long-term basis; financial incentives be available to recipients participating in job readiness, education, training, and work programs; the number of children growing up in poverty be substantially reduced; and unemployed recipients be afforded a basic level of financial and medical assistance consistent with the state's financial capabilities.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 434, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.21.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The executive committee shall establish a family opportunity advisory council in each of the department's regions to make recommendations on the social services, procedures, and income maintenance operations used in the family independence program. The councils shall also assist in providing mentors, mutual self-help, and information on alternatives to welfare dependency. The councils shall include: (a) Individuals currently receiving assistance; (b) individuals who have received public assistance in the past but have subsequently achieved economic independence; and (c) persons who are board members or employees of nonprofit organizations providing services of the types offered to family independence program recipients, including those with experience in developing self-esteem and individual motivation. A regional advisory council may establish panels representing specific geographic areas within the region.

(2) Each advisory council shall nominate three persons from which the executive committee shall elect one person from each region to be a member of the advisory committee authorized by RCW 74.21.050. Appointments shall be for a term of two years. Terms may be renewed for one additional two-year term. Three regional appointments shall initially be for a term of one year. The regional representatives shall constitute the consumer and enrollee representatives required by 74.21.050.

(3) Recipients and former recipients may be paid a per diem rate established by the executive committee. Members may be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Recipients and former recipients may also be reimbursed for dependent care expenses required to permit their participation in the family opportunity advisory councils, the executive committee, and the family independence program advisory committee.

(4) The department may, within available funds, provide grants to each family opportunity council to assist and support their activities and to assist in the recruitment and training of volunteer mentors.

Sec. 4. Section 14, chapter 434, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.21.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) By January 1, 1988, the executive committee shall submit to the legislature:

(a) A child-care plan, which may include creative solutions to assist enrollees in making child-care arrangements;

(b) In consultation with the superintendent of public instruction, a plan for assisting high school students who are parents or pregnant to remain in school or complete their high school education;

(c) A plan for motivating those who are discouraged to seek self-sufficiency through work, education, or training;

(d) An employment plan for enrollees; and

(e) A plan for phased-in implementation of the family independence program.

(2) By January 1, 1988, the legislative budget committee, after consultation with the executive committee, shall submit to the legislature:

(a) An evaluation plan satisfactory to the federal government, including a plan for analysis, within available funds, of:

(1) The costs and effectiveness of the family independence program;

(ii) The extent to which education and training opportunities have led to employment and economic independence;

(iii) The extent to which support services have been provided for such education and training opportunities;

(iv) The impact of support services, training opportunities, and employment on the well-being of the children and families of enrollees;

(v) ~~(The impact of the family independence program on the labor market opportunities available to nonenrollees;~~

~~(vi))~~ The impact of the family independence program on the early childhood education assistance program;

~~((vi))~~ (vi) A comparison of the family independence program enrollees with a sample of aid to families with dependent children recipients entering assistance between July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1988, to determine the characteristics of the caseloads of the family independence program and the aid to families with dependent children program, including demographic characteristics, employment, training, and educational histories, spells on assistance, and reasons for entry onto and exit from assistance;

~~((vii))~~ (vii) Such administrative and operational factors as may be requested by the executive committee;

~~((viii))~~ (viii) A longitudinal study over time of a sample of public assistance recipients or persons at risk of becoming eligible for assistance, to determine the causes of public dependency and the impact of changes in the economy or of public programs on dependency, work, or other relevant behaviors of the sample population.

(3) The legislative budget committee shall cause the evaluation plan to be implemented ~~((subject to legislative approval))~~ as approved by the legislative budget committee in a manner that will insure the independence of the evaluation through appropriate arrangements, which may include contracts, with objective evaluators. The evaluation plan and all evaluation products shall receive the review and comment of evaluation advisory groups to be convened by the Washington institute of public policy and which include representatives of the executive committee, appropriate legislative committee staffs, persons from the state's higher education institutions, staff members of the department and the employment security department, recipients, and former recipients. The reviews shall consider relevance to state policy and budget concerns, methodological procedure, implementation, and results.

(4) The first report of this evaluation shall be submitted to the legislature no later than ~~((November 16, 1988))~~ December 1, 1989, and annually thereafter, with a final report due no later than November 15, 1993.

Sec. 5. Section 25, chapter 434, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.21.904 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall expire on June 30, ~~((1989))~~ 1993, unless extended by law.

*Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 435, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.23.030 are each amended to read as follows:

There is created a Washington state support registry within the office of support enforcement as the agency designated in Washington state to administer the child support program under Title IV-D of the federal social security act. The registry shall:

(1) Account for and disburse all support payments received by the registry;

(2) Maintain the necessary records including, but not limited to, information on support orders, support debts, the date and amount of support due; the date and amount of payments; and the names, social security numbers, and addresses of the parties;

(3) Develop procedures for providing information to the parties regarding action taken by, and support payments collected and distributed by the registry;

(4) The secretary of social and health services shall adopt rules for the maintenance and retention of records of support payments and for the archiving and destruction of such records when the support obligation terminates or is satisfied. When a support obligation established under court order entered in a superior court of this state has been satisfied, a satisfaction of judgment form shall be prepared by the registry and filed with the clerk of the court in which the order was entered.

The child support registry shall distribute all moneys received in compliance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657. Support received by the office of support enforcement shall be distributed promptly but not later than eight days from the date of receipt unless circumstances exist which make such distribution impossible. Such circumstances include when: (1) The location of the custodial parent is unknown; (2) the child support debt is in litigation; or (3) the responsible parent or custodial parent cannot be identified. When, following termination of public assistance, the office of support enforcement collects support, all moneys collected up to the maximum of the support due for the period following termination from public assistance shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, be paid to the custodial parent before any distribution to the office of support enforcement under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657. This section shall not apply to support collected through intercepting federal tax refunds under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 664. When a responsible parent has more than one support obligation, or a support debt is owed to more than one party, moneys received will be distributed between the parties proportionally, based upon the amount of the support obligation and/or support debt owed.

If the Washington state support registry distributes a support payment to a person in error, the registry may obtain restitution by means of a set-off against future payments received on behalf of the person receiving the erroneous payment, or may act according to RCW 74.20A.270 as deemed appropriate. Any set-off against future support payments shall be limited to amounts collected on the support debt and up to ten percent of amounts collected as current support.

Sec. 7. Section 22, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 276, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.20.330 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever public assistance is paid under this title, each applicant or recipient is deemed to have made assignment to the department of any rights to a support obligation from any other person the applicant or recipient may have in his or her own behalf or in behalf of any other family member for whom the applicant or recipient is applying for or receiving public assistance, including any unpaid support obligation or support debt which has accrued at the time the assignment is made. Payment of public assistance under this title operates as an assignment by operation of law.

(2) Upon the recipient's request, the department (~~(may, and under appropriate circumstances)~~) shall ~~(:)~~ continue to establish the support obligation and to enforce and collect the support debt ~~((for a period not to exceed three months from the month following the month in which such family ceased))~~ after the family ceases to receive public assistance, and thereafter if a nonassistance request for support enforcement services has been made under RCW 74.20.040 (2) and (3). The department shall distribute all amounts collected in accordance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657 and RCW 26.23.030.

Sec. 8. Section 3, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 31, chapter 435, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.20A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall be subrogated to the right of any dependent child or children or person having the care, custody, and control of said child or children, if public assistance money is paid to or for the benefit of the child, to prosecute or maintain any support action or execute any administrative remedy existing under the laws of the state of Washington to obtain reimbursement of moneys expended, based on the support obligation of the responsible parent established by a superior court order or RCW 74.20A.055. Distribution of any support moneys shall be made in accordance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657.

Public assistance moneys shall be exempt from collection action under this chapter except as provided in RCW 74.20A.270.

No collection action shall be taken against parents of children eligible for admission to, or children who have been released from, a state school for the developmentally disabled as defined by chapter 72.33 RCW.

The department may initiate, continue, maintain, or execute action to establish, enforce, and collect a support obligation, including establishing paternity and performing related services, under this chapter and chapter 74.20 RCW, or through the attorney general or prosecuting attorney under chapter 26.09, 26.18, 26.20, 26.21, or 26.26 RCW or other appropriate statutes or the common law of this state, for a period not to exceed three months from the month following the month in which the family or any member thereof ceases to receive public assistance and thereafter if a nonassistance request for support enforcement services has been made under RCW 74.20.040 and RCW 26.23.030."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 4 of the title, strike "and 74.21.904" and insert "74.21.904, 26.23.030, 74.20.330, and 74.20A.030".

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would like to raise the question of scope and object on the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 6675. Senate Bill 6675, as it left this body, approved the Family Independence Program Implementation Plan. It authorized the payment of dependent care expenses for recipients and former recipients serving on committees. It authorized the department to provide grants to each family opportunity council. It extended the expiration date and declared an emergency. As the bill came back to us from the House, it has an entirely new subject in the bill. It has a bill that was added which deals with child support payments and the method by which the department handles child support payments. I believe that the amendment from the House is clearly beyond the scope and object."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Vognild, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 6675 is a measure modifying provisions relating to the Family Independence Program.

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives modify the Family Independence Program, but also amend support enforcement statutes regarding time periods for distributing child support, restrict D.S.H.S. from applying certain collected funds to amounts due the department and allow O.S.E. to collect support for certain families for a longer time.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill No. 6675 were ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 6675 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6396 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 110, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 31, chapter 185, Laws of 1987 and RCW 51.12.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All persons registered as apprentices or trainees with the state apprenticeship council and participating in supplemental and related instruction classes conducted by a school district, a community college, a vocational school, or a local joint apprenticeship committee, shall be considered as workers of the state apprenticeship council and subject to the provisions of Title 51 RCW, for the time spent in actual attendance at such supplemental and related instruction classes.

(2) The assumed wage rate for all apprentices or trainees during the hours they are participating in supplemental and related instruction classes, shall be three dollars per hour. This amount shall be used for purposes of computations of premiums(~~and~~), For purposes of ((computations of) computing disability compensation payments, the actual wage rate during employment shall be used.

(3) Only those apprentices or trainees who are registered with the state apprenticeship council prior to their injury or death and who incur such injury or death while participating in supplemental and related instruction classes shall be entitled to benefits under the provisions of Title 51 RCW.

(4) The filing of claims for benefits under the authority of this section shall be the exclusive remedy of apprentices or trainees and their beneficiaries for injuries or death compensable under the provisions of Title 51 RCW against the state, its political subdivisions, the school district, community college, or vocational school and their members, officers or employees or any employer regardless of negligence.

(5) This section shall not apply to any apprentice or trainee who has earned wages for the time spent in participating in supplemental and related instruction classes."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 6396.

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Nelson that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 6396.

The motion by Senator Nelson carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 6396.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, I can't help but comment that you have done an excellent job acting as President Pro Tempore up to that point, but I would wonder if maybe that was a quick ruling?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "It was a weak vote and a weak response from the floor."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6396, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6396, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; absent, 1; excused, 7.

Voting yeas: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 41.

Absent: Senator Smith - 1.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Lee, Moore, Owen, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 7.

SENATE BILL NO. 6396, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore advanced the Senate to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4431, by Representatives Jacobsen, Rust, Leonard, Cole, Locke, Winsley, Brough, Peery, Fisher, Holm, Belcher, Pruitt, Jesernig, Haugen, Anderson, Appelwick, Grimm, Basich, Ebersole, Nelson, K. Wilson, Nutley, Crane, Hankins, Bristow, P. King, Rasmussen, Hine and Miller

Establishing a Joint Legislative Advisory Committee on Women in Athletics.

The resolution was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Saling, the following Committee on Higher Education amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 6, after "WHEREAS," strike the remainder of the resolution and insert "Young men continue to take advantage of opportunities to participate in individuals and teams sports; and

WHEREAS, Institutions of higher education have a responsibility to provide equal opportunities to male and female students in all academic and student services areas;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, the House concurring, That a Joint Legislative Advisory Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics be established; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee shall study and make recommendations on athletic programs available to men and women at state institutions of higher education. The study may include, but not be limited to: The types of athletic programs and activities available to men and women, and the funding levels, support services, and coaching staffs of the programs and activities; the sources of funding used for all aspects of intercollegiate athletics programs; the number of men and women participating in various programs and activities; the number and size of athletic scholarships available to men and women; and legal questions surrounding current funding levels for men's and women's athletic programs at state institutions of higher education; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That whenever possible, the committee shall use data developed for the 1986 interim report of the Senate Education Committee, entitled, "Funding of Intercollegiate Athletics in Washington State Higher Education"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee shall consist of up to twenty-five members as follows:

(1) Two members from each caucus of the Senate, selected by the President of the Senate; at least one member from each caucus shall be a member of the Committee on Higher Education in the Senate;

(2) Two members from each caucus of the House of Representatives, selected by the Speaker; at least one member from each caucus shall be a member of the Committee on Higher Education in the House of Representatives;

(3) Representatives of students, faculty, and administrators of the four-year institutions of higher education and the community colleges, selected by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives; and

(4) Representatives of community sports programs, selected by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That at least half the legislators and half the other members selected to serve on the advisory committee should be women; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the advisory committee report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature by the start of the regular legislative session in 1989."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6128 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 218, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 253, Laws of 1985 and RCW 36.68.400 are each amended to read as follows:

Any county shall have the power to create park and recreation service areas for the purpose of financing ~~(the acquisition, construction, improvement, maintenance or operation of)~~, acquiring, constructing, improving, maintaining, or operating any park, senior citizen activities centers, zoos, aquariums, and recreational facilities as defined in RCW 36.69.010 which shall be owned or leased by the county and administered as other county parks or shall be owned or leased and administered by a city or town or shall be owned or leased and administered by the park and recreation service area. A park and recreation service area may purchase athletic equipment and supplies, and provide for the upkeep of park buildings, grounds and facilities, and provide custodial, recreational and park program personnel at any park or recreational facility owned or leased by the service area or a county, city, or town. A park and recreation service area shall be a quasi-municipal corporation, an independent taxing "authority" within the meaning of section 1, Article 7 of the Constitution, and a "taxing district" within the meaning of section 2, Article 7 of the Constitution.

A park and recreation service area shall constitute a body corporate and shall possess all the usual powers of a corporation for public purposes including, but not limited to, the authority to hire employees, staff, and services, to enter into contracts, to accept and expend or use gifts, grants, and donations, and to sue and be sued as well as all other powers that may now or hereafter be specifically conferred by statute.

The members of the county legislative authority (~~shall be~~), acting ex officio and independently, shall compose the governing body of any park and recreation service area which is created within the county: PROVIDED, That where a park and recreation service area includes an incorporated city or town within the county, the park and recreation service area may be governed as provided in an interlocal agreement adopted pursuant to chapter 39.34 RCW. The voters of a park and recreation service area shall be all registered voters residing within the service area.

A multicounty park and recreation service area shall be governed as provided in an interlocal agreement adopted pursuant to chapter 39.34 RCW.

Sec. 2. Section 12, chapter 210, Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.68.541 are each amended to read as follows:

Park and recreation service areas may hire employees and may fund all or a portion of the salaries and benefits of county park employees who perform work on county park and recreation facilities within the service area and may fund all or a portion of the salaries and benefits of city or town park employees who perform work on city or town park and recreation facilities within the service area.

Sec. 3. Section 16, chapter 218, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 13, chapter 210, Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.68.550 are each amended to read as follows:

A park and recreation service area may impose and collect use fees or other direct charges on facilities financed, acquired, and operated by the park and recreation service area. The county legislative authority may allow admission fees or other direct charges which are paid by persons using county park facilities located within a park and recreation service area to be transferred to a park and recreation service area. Such direct charges to users may be made for the use of or admission to swimming pools, field houses, tennis and handball courts, bathhouses, swimming beaches, boat launching, storage or moorage facilities, ski lifts, picnic areas and other similar recreation facilities, and for parking lots used in conjunction with such facilities. All funds collected under the provisions of this section shall be deposited to the fund of the service area established in the office of the county treasurer, to be disbursed under the service area budget as approved by the governing body of the park and recreation service area.

Sec. 4. Section 18, chapter 218, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 15, chapter 210, Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.68.570 are each amended to read as follows:

A park and recreation service area may reimburse the county for any charge incurred by the county current expense fund which is properly an expense of the service area, including reasonable administrative costs incurred by the offices of county treasurer and the county auditor in providing accounting, clerical or other services for the benefit of the service area. The county legislative authority (~~shall~~) may, where a county purchasing department has been established, provide for the purchase of all supplies and equipment for a park and recreation service area through the department. The park and recreation service area may contract with the county to administer purchasing.

Sec. 5. Section 19, chapter 218, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 16, chapter 210, Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.68.580 are each amended to read as follows:

Any park facility or park acquired, improved or otherwise financed in whole or in part by park and recreation service area funds shall be owned by the park service area and/or the county and/or the city or town in which the park or facility is located. The county may make expenditures from its current expense funds budgeted for park purposes for the maintenance, operation or capital improvement of any county park or park facility acquired, improved, or otherwise financed in whole or in part by park and recreation service area funds. Similarly, a city or town may make expenditures for any city or town park or park facility acquired, improved, or otherwise financed in whole or in part by park and recreation service area funds.

Sec. 6. Section 21, chapter 218, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 17, chapter 210, Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.68.600 are each amended to read as follows:

A ~~(county)~~ park and recreation service area may exercise any of the powers enumerated in chapter 67.20 RCW with respect to any park and recreation facility financed in whole or part from park and recreation service area funds.

Sec. 7. Section 1, chapter 107, Laws of 1921 as amended by section 1, chapter 97, Laws of 1949 and RCW 67.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any city in this state acting through its city council, or its board of park commissioners when authorized by charter or ordinance, any separately organized park district acting through its board of park commissioners or other governing officers, any school district acting through its board of school directors, any county acting through its board of county commissioners, any park and recreation service area acting through its governing body, and any town acting through its ((city)) town council shall have power, acting independently or in conjunction with the United States, the state of Washington, any county, city, park district, school district or town or any number of such public organizations to acquire any land within this state for park, playground, gymnasiums, swimming pools, field houses and other recreational facilities, bathing beach or public camp purposes and roads leading from said parks, playgrounds, gymnasiums, swimming pools, field houses and other recreational facilities, bathing beaches, or public camps to nearby highways by donation, purchase or condemnation, and to build, construct, care for, control, supervise, improve, operate and maintain parks, playgrounds, gymnasiums, swimming pools, field houses and other recreational facilities, bathing beaches, roads and public camps upon any such land, including the power to enact and enforce such police regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the state of Washington, as are deemed necessary for the government and control of the same. The power of eminent domain herein granted shall not extend to any land outside the territorial limits of the governmental unit or units exercising said power.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 36.68 RCW to read as follows:

A park and recreation service area may exercise the power of eminent domain to obtain property for its authorized purposes in a manner consistent with the power of eminent domain of the county in which the park and recreation service area is located."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "areas;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 36.68.400, 36.68.541, 36.68.550, 36.68.570, 36.68.580, 36.68.600, and 67.20.010; and adding a new section to chapter 36.68 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6217 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The department of ecology shall sell its ownership interest in the Prosser well at the Washington State University research center for fair market value, to accommodate the needs of all concerned parties for the 1988 irrigation season. The proceeds of the sale shall be deposited in the state emergency water project revolving account established under RCW 43.83B.300. The department of ecology shall, to the extent possible, work closely with the department of general administration under RCW 43.82.010 to expedite the sale of the Prosser well. As a prerequisite to sale, the parties who agree to purchase the Prosser well according to this section, shall agree to be bound by any existing agreements between the department of ecology and the Washington State University research center at Prosser regarding the operation and maintenance of the Prosser well. The parties agree that the sale of the department of ecology's interest in the Prosser well will require compliance with chapter 90.44 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars or as much thereof as may be necessary is appropriated from the emergency water projects revolving account to the department of ecology for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, for capital projects authorized under RCW 43.83B.300 to alleviate drought conditions. Expenditures of moneys appropriated under this section shall not exceed the amount of moneys deposited in the revolving account from the sale of the department of ecology's ownership interest in the well near Prosser under section 1 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 2, after "center;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating a new section; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL 6219 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 17, chapter 155, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.33.170 are each amended to read as follows:

An agency's, the department's, or a legal guardian's consent to adoption may be dispensed with if the court determines by clear, cogent and convincing evidence that the proposed adoption is in the best interests of the adoptee (~~and that the refusal to consent to adoption is arbitrary and capricious~~)).

Sec. 2. Section 49, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 49, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.34.210 are each amended to read as follows:

If, upon entering an order terminating the parental rights of a parent, there remains no parent having parental rights, the court shall commit the child to the custody of the department of social and health services or to a licensed child-placing agency willing to accept custody for the purpose of placing the child for adoption, or in the absence thereof in a licensed foster home, or take other suitable measures for the care and welfare of the child. The custodian shall have authority to consent to the adoption of the child consistent with chapter 26.33 RCW, the marriage of the child, the enlistment of the child in the armed forces of the United States, necessary surgical and other medical treatment for the child, and to consent to such other matters as might normally be required of the parent of the child.

If a child has not been adopted within six months after the date of the order and a general guardian of the child has not been appointed by the court, the child shall be returned to the court for entry of further orders for his or her care, custody, and control, and the court shall review the case every six months thereafter until a decree of adoption is entered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 26.33 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature declares that its intent is to allow for an open adoption process when extraordinary circumstances demonstrate that some parent-child contact will best serve the child's interest and will not jeopardize the parent-child relationship established between the child and adoptive parents in the adoptive placement.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 155, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.33.060 are each amended to read as follows:

All hearings under this chapter shall be heard by the court without a jury. Unless the parties and the court agree otherwise, proceedings of contested hearings shall be recorded. The general public shall be excluded and only those persons shall be admitted whose presence is requested by any person entitled to notice under this chapter or whom the judge finds to have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court. Persons so admitted shall not disclose any information obtained at the hearing which would identify the individual adoptee or parent involved except in accordance with an adoption contract issued in open adoptions under section 6 of this act. The court may require the presence of witnesses deemed necessary to the disposition of the petition, including persons making any report, study, or examination which is before the court if those persons are reasonably available. A person who has executed a valid waiver need not appear at the hearing. If the court finds that it is in the child's best interest, the child may be excluded from the hearing.

Sec. 5. Section 33, chapter 155, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.33.330 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All records of any proceeding under this chapter shall be sealed and shall not be thereafter open to inspection by any person except upon order of the court for good cause shown or in accordance with specific terms of an open adoption order under section 6 of this act.

(2) The state registrar of vital statistics may charge a reasonable fee for the review of any of its sealed records.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 26.33 RCW to read as follows:

(1) "Open adoption" means a written and mutually agreed upon plan for written or oral communication between an adoptive family and birth parents or between an adopted child and birth parents. The written plan may also specify a schedule of in-person visitation.

(2) In an original adoption proceeding, the court may order that an adoption be declared "open" if the court finds that:

(a) All parties to the proceeding, including the birth parents, agree that the adoption should be declared "open";

(b) It is in the child's best interest to have access to information about the natural parents; and

(c) The child's best interests will be served by allowing information about the child to be known by the natural parents.

(3) Any party to the proceeding may file a proposed adoption contract that shall be reviewed by the court and included in the adoption order in the discretion of the court. The adoption contract shall include:

(a) A method of initiating contact between the child and the natural parents, if such contact is agreed to;

(b) The nature of any visitation schedule or agreement between the parties, if visitation is agreed to;

(c) A statement of the child's right to refuse contact with the natural parents at any time;

(d) A method for dispute resolution in the event of difficulties in implementing the adoption contract; and

(e) A statement that all parties to the proceeding agree to the terms and conditions of the adoption contract. The contract shall be signed by all parties to the proceeding.

(4) Violation of the adoption contract shall not by itself constitute grounds for setting aside an adoption."

On line 1 of the title, after "adoption," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 26.33.170, 13.34.210, 26.33.060, and 26.33.330; and adding new sections to chapter 26.33 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Kiskaddon moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6219.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Kiskaddon, when we talk about open adoption in these proposed House amendments, we speak in terms of open adoption in the sense of the biological parent having free access to the adoptive child and the adoptive child having free access to information about the biological parent?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "Only in places where everyone agreed that that was an appropriate procedure and in the best interests of the child."

Senator Talmadge: "But no procedure is set up in here for an intermediary or anything else as has been done in times past in legislation before the Senate?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "The concept with this would be more a place to where all the people knew each other in advance and agreed that this would be the best way for the adoption to proceed."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, a point of order. I believe that the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6219 expand the scope and object of that bill. Specifically to the point, the original bill that was passed by the Senate dealt with some technical changes in terms of how adoptions were to occur—the burden of proof and the adoption proceeding, and some standards with respect to how the traditional adoption procedures were to take place. The House amendments basically add on to it the concept of open adoption which is a very controversial and different subject which makes possible in certain circumstances, without the benefit of intermediary or anything else, the access by the child to the biological parent and the biological parent to the child. I think that is a mistake and I think it clearly expands the scope and object of a relatively technical little bill relating to adoption procedures."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6219 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6298 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature that those historic archaeological resources located on state-owned aquatic lands that are of importance to the history of our state, or its communities, be protected for the people of the state. At the same time, the legislature also recognizes that divers have long enjoyed the recreation of diving near shipwrecks and picking up artifacts from the state-owned aquatic lands, and it is not the intent of the legislature to regulate these occasional, recreational activities except in areas where necessary to protect underwater historic archaeological sites. The legislature also recognizes that salvors who invest in a project to salvage underwater archaeological resources on state-owned aquatic lands should be required to obtain a state permit for their operation in order to protect the interest of the people of the state, as well as to protect the interest of the salvors who have invested considerable time and money in the salvage expedition.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 17, chapter 266, Laws of 1986 and RCW 27.53.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Archaeology" means systematic, scientific study of man's past through material remains.

(2) "Department" means the department of community development.

(3) "Director" means the director of community development or the director's designee.

(4) "Historic" means peoples and cultures who are known through written documents in their own or other languages. As applied to underwater archaeological resources, the term historic shall include only those properties which are listed in or eligible for listing in the Washington State Register of Historic Places (RCW 27.34.220) or the National Register of Historic Places as defined in the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 (Title 1, Sec. 101, Public Law 89-665; 80 Stat. 915; 16 U.S.C. Sec. 470) as now or hereafter amended.

(5) "Prehistoric" means peoples and cultures who are unknown through contemporaneous written documents in any language.

(6) "Professional archaeologist" means a person who has met the educational, training, and experience requirements of the society of professional archaeologists.

(7) "Qualified archaeologist" means a person who has had formal training and/or experience in archaeology over a period of at least three years, and has been certified in writing to be a qualified archaeologist by two professional archaeologists.

(8) "Amateur society" means any organization composed primarily of persons who are not professional archaeologists, whose primary interest is in the archaeological resources of the state, and which has been certified in writing by two professional archaeologists.

(9) "Historic archaeological resources" means those properties which are listed in or eligible for listing in the Washington State Register of Historic Places (RCW 27.34.220) or the National Register of Historic Places as defined in the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 (Title 1, Sec. 101, Public Law 89-665; 80 Stat. 915; 16 U.S.C. Sec. 470) as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. All historic archaeological resources abandoned for thirty years or more in, on, or under the surface of any public lands or waters owned by or under the possession, custody, or control of the state of Washington, including, but not limited to all ships, or aircraft, and any part or the contents thereof, and all treasure trove is hereby declared to be the property of the state of Washington.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 18, chapter 266, Laws of 1986 and RCW 27.53.060 are each amended to read as follows:

On the private and public lands of this state it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, or any agency or institution of the state or a political subdivision thereof to knowingly remove, alter, dig into, or excavate by use of any mechanical, hydraulic, or other means, or to damage, deface, or destroy any historic or prehistoric archaeological resource or site, including, but not limited to, American Indian or aboriginal camp site, dwelling site, rock shelter, cave dwelling site, storage site, grave, burial site, or skeletal remains and grave goods, cairn, or tool making site, or to remove from any such land, site, or area, grave, burial site, cave, rock shelter, or cairn, any skeletal remains, artifact or implement of stone, bone, wood, or any other material, including, but not limited to, projectile points, arrowheads, knives, awls, scrapers, beads or ornaments, basketry, matting, mauls, pestles, grinding stones, rock carvings or paintings, or any other artifacts or implements, or portions or fragments thereof without having obtained a written ((permission)) permit from the director for such activities on public property or written permission from the private landowner for such activities on private land. A private landowner may request the director to assume the duty of issuing such permits. The director must obtain the consent of the public property owner or agency responsible for the management thereof, prior to issuance of the permit. The public property landowner or agency responsible for the management of such land may condition its consent on the execution of a separate agreement, lease, or other real property conveyance with the applicant as may be necessary to carry out the legal rights or duties of the public property landowner or agency. The director, in consultation with the Washington state archaeological research center, shall develop guidelines for the issuance and processing of ((such)) permits. Such written ((permission)) permit and any agreement or lease or other conveyance required by any public property owner or agency responsible for management of such land shall be physically present while any such activity is being conducted. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the removal of artifacts found exposed on the surface of the ground ((nor to the excavation and removal of artifacts from state-owned shorelands below the line of ordinary high water or within the intertidal zone)) which are not historic archaeological resources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Persons, firms, corporations, institutions, or agencies which discover a previously unreported historic archaeological resource on state-owned aquatic lands and report the site or location of such resource to the department shall have a right of first refusal to future salvage permits granted for the recovery of that resource, subject to the provisions of section 6 of this act. Such right of first refusal shall exist for five years from the date of the report. Should another person, firm, corporation, institution, or agency apply for a permit to salvage that resource, the reporting entity shall have sixty days to submit its own permit application and exercise its first refusal right, or the right shall be extinguished.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The director is hereby authorized to enter into contracts with other state agencies or institutions and with qualified private institutions, persons, firms, or corporations for the discovery and salvage of state-owned historic archaeological resources. Such contracts shall include but are not limited to the following terms and conditions:

(1) Historic shipwrecks:

(a) The contract shall provide for fair compensation to a salvor. "Fair compensation" means an amount not less than ninety percent of the appraised value of the objects recovered following successful completion of the contract.

(b) The salvor may retain objects with a value of up to ninety percent of the appraised value of the total objects recovered, or cash, or a combination of objects and cash. In no event may the total of objects and cash exceed ninety percent of the total appraised value of the objects recovered. A salvor shall not be entitled to further compensation from any state sources.

(c) The contract shall provide that the state will be given first choice of which objects it may wish to retain for display purposes for the people of the state from among all the objects recovered. The state may retain objects with a value of up to ten percent of the appraised value of the total objects recovered. If the state chooses not to retain recovered objects with a value of up to ten percent of the appraised value, the state shall be entitled to receive its share in cash or a combination of recovered objects and cash so long as the state's total share does not exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the objects recovered.

(d) The contract shall provide that both the state and the salvor shall have the right to select a single appraiser or joint appraisers.

(e) The contract shall also provide that title to the objects shall pass to the salvor when the permit is issued. However, should the salvor fail to fully perform under the terms of the contract, title to all objects recovered shall revert to the state.

(2) Historic aircraft:

(a) The contract shall provide that historic aircraft belonging to the state of Washington may only be recovered if the purpose of that salvage operation is to recover the aircraft for a museum, historical society, nonprofit organization, or governmental entity.

(b) Title to the aircraft may only be passed by the state to one of the entities listed in (a) of this subsection.

(c) Compensation to the salvor shall only be derived from the sale or exchange of the aircraft to one of the entities listed in (a) of this subsection or such other compensation as one of the entities listed in (a) of this subsection and the salvor may arrange. The salvor shall not have a claim to compensation from state funds.

(3) Other historic archaeological resources: The director, in his or her discretion, may negotiate the terms of such contracts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The salvor shall agree to mitigate any archaeological damage which occurs during the salvage operation. The department shall have access to all property recovered from historic archaeological sites for purposes of scholarly research and photographic documentation for a period to be agreed upon by the parties following completion of the salvage operation. The department shall also have the right to publish scientific papers concerning the results of all research conducted as project mitigation.

The director has the right to refuse to issue a permit for salvaging an historic archaeological resource if that resource would be destroyed beyond mitigation by the proposed salvage operation. Any agency, institution, person, firm, or corporation which has been denied a permit because the resource would be destroyed beyond mitigation by their method of salvage shall have a right of first refusal for that permit at a future date should technology be found which would make salvage possible without destroying the resource. Such right of first refusal shall be in effect for sixty days after the director has determined that salvage can be accomplished by a subsequent applicant without destroying the resource.

No person, firm, or corporation may conduct such salvage or recovery operation herein described without first obtaining such contract.

Sec. 8. Section 43.19.1919, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 11, chapter 21, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.19.1919 are each amended to read as follows:

The division of purchasing shall sell or exchange personal property belonging to the state for which the agency, office, department, or educational institution having custody thereof has no further use, at public or private sale, and cause the moneys realized from the sale of any such property to be paid into the fund from which such property was purchased or, if such fund no longer exists, into the state general fund: PROVIDED, Sales of capital assets may be made by the division of purchasing and a credit established in central stores for future purchases of capital items as provided for in RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939, as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED FURTHER, That personal property, excess to a state agency, including educational institutions, shall not be sold or disposed of prior to reasonable efforts by the division of purchasing to determine if other state agencies have a requirement for such personal property. Such determination shall follow sufficient notice to all state agencies to allow adequate time for them to make their needs known: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That this section shall not apply to personal property acquired by a state organization under federal grants and contracts if in conflict with special title provisions contained in such grants or contracts.

This section does not apply to property under section 3 of this 1988 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 79.90 RCW to read as follows:

After consultation with the director of community development, the department of natural resources may enter into agreements, leases, or other conveyances for archaeological activities on state-owned aquatic lands. Such agreements, leases, or other conveyances may contain such conditions as are required for the department of natural resources to comply with its legal rights and duties. All such agreements, leases, or other conveyances, shall be issued in accordance with the terms of chapters 79.90 through 79.96 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The department of community development shall publish annually and update as necessary a list of those areas where permits are required to protect historic archaeological sites on aquatic lands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The department of community development shall have such rule-making authority as is necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Any proceeds from the state's share of property under this chapter shall be transmitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund to be used only for the purposes of historic preservation and underwater archaeology.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. This act shall not affect any ongoing salvage effort in which the state has entered into separate contracts or agreements prior to the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. Sections 3, 5 through 7, and 10 through 12 of this act are each added to chapter 27.53 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "value;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 27.53.030, 27.53.060, and 43.19.1919; adding new sections to chapter 27.53 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 79.90 RCW; creating new sections; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6298.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McCaslin, historical archaeological resources mean those properties which are listed or eligible for listing—something down there at the bottom of Puget Sound or the ocean within three miles of Washington. How am I, if I'm a diver out there, how am I going to know how historic that is, if I go down there and remove a porthole or a steering wheel or whatever, how am I going to tell that?"

Senator McCaslin: "It probably would be very difficult. I'm not a diver, but I suppose you would notify the Department of Natural Resources of your find and discuss it with them and go from there."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I don't have my underwater telephone hooked up and I'm down there, I've got so much air supply and I'm going to come back up and tell them there's something down there and is it or isn't it historic?"

Senator McCaslin: "Well, I don't want to get into the PNB bill, but I think if you're an experienced diver and you know what you're going to go after and you're planning—and you are familiar with the area and if you're not familiar with it and you do pick up a memorabilia while you're down there, I'm sure you, being an honest person, you'd check with the Department of Natural Resources."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Deccio was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6298, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6298, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 3; absent, 2; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Patterson, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smithsonian, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Zimmerman - 40.

Voting nay: Senators Hansen, Pullen, Rasmussen - 3.

Absent: Senators Smith, West - 2.

Excused: Senators Bender, Deccio, Owen, Wojahn - 4.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6298, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6308 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes the need for appropriate training of juvenile court judges, attorneys, court personnel, and service providers in the dependency system and at-risk youth systems.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 259, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 6, chapter 363, Laws of 1987 and RCW 2.56.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The administrator for the courts shall, under the supervision and direction of chief justice:

(1) Examine the administrative methods and systems employed in the offices of the judges, clerks, stenographers, and employees of the courts and make recommendations, through the chief justice, for the improvement of the same;

(2) Examine the state of the dockets of the courts and determine the need for assistance by any court;

(3) Make recommendations to the chief justice relating to the assignment of judges where courts are in need of assistance and carry out the direction of the chief justice as to the assignments of judges to counties and districts where the courts are in need of assistance;

(4) Collect and compile statistical and other data and make reports of the business transacted by the courts and transmit the same to the chief justice to the end that proper action may be taken in respect thereto;

(5) Prepare and submit budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system and make recommendations in respect thereto;

(6) Collect statistical and other data and make reports relating to the expenditure of public moneys, state and local, for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system and the offices connected therewith;

(7) Obtain reports from clerks of courts in accordance with law or rules adopted by the supreme court of this state on cases and other judicial business in which action has been delayed beyond periods of time specified by law or rules of court and make report thereof to supreme court of this state;

(8) Act as secretary of the judicial conference referred to in RCW 2.56.060;

(9) Formulate and submit to the judicial council of this state recommendations of policies for the improvement of the judicial system;

(10) Submit annually, as of February 1st, to the chief justice and the judicial council, a report of the activities of the administrator's office for the preceding calendar year;

(11) Administer programs and standards for the training and education of judicial personnel;

(12) Examine the need for new superior court and district judge positions under a weighted caseload analysis that takes into account the time required to hear all the cases in a particular court and the amount of time existing judges have available to hear cases in that court. The results of the weighted caseload analysis shall be reviewed by the board for judicial administration and the judicial council, both of which shall make recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1989. It is the intent of the legislature that weighted caseload analysis become the basis for creating additional district court positions, and recommendations should address that objective: ((and))

(13) Attend to such other matters as may be assigned by the supreme court of this state; and

(14) Develop a curriculum for a general understanding of child development and treatment resources, as well as specific legal skills and knowledge of relevant statutes including chapters 13.32A and 13.34 RCW, cases, court rules, interviewing skills, and special needs of the abused or neglected child. This curriculum shall be completed and made available to all juvenile court judges, court personnel, and service providers by July 1, 1988."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6344 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.23 RCW to read as follows:

The agricultural local fund is hereby established in the custody of the state treasurer. The fund shall consist of such money as is directed by law for deposit in the fund, and such other money not subject to appropriation that the department authorizes to be deposited in the fund. Any money deposited in the fund, the use of which has been restricted by law, may only be expended in accordance with those restrictions. The department may make disbursements from the fund. The fund is not subject to legislative appropriation.

Sec. 2. Section 47, chapter 63, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 176, chapter 202, Laws of 1987 and RCW 15.49.470 are each amended to read as follows:

All moneys collected under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid ~~((into the seed fund in the state treasury which is hereby established))~~ to the director and deposited in an account within the agricultural local fund. Such ~~((fund))~~ deposits shall be used only in the administration and enforcement of this chapter. ~~((All moneys collected under the provisions of chapter 15.49 RCW and remaining in such seed fund account on July 1, 1975, shall likewise be used only in the enforcement of this chapter. PROVIDED, That))~~ Any residual balance remaining in the seed fund on the effective date of this 1988 section shall be transferred to that account within the agricultural local fund. All fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a district court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

Sec. 3. Section 36, chapter 22, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 11, chapter 257, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 15.54.480 are each amended to read as follows:

All moneys collected under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid ~~((into the fertilizer, agricultural mineral and lime fund in the state treasury which is hereby established))~~ to the director and deposited in an account within the agricultural local fund. Such ~~((fund))~~ deposits shall be used only in the administration and enforcement of this chapter. ~~((All moneys collected under the provisions of chapter 15.54 RCW and remaining in such fertilizer, agricultural mineral and lime account in the state general fund on July 1, 1975, shall likewise be used only in the enforcement of this chapter.))~~ Any residual balance remaining in the fertilizer, agricultural mineral and lime fund on the effective date of this 1988 section shall be transferred to that account within the agricultural local fund.

Sec. 4. Section 15.52.320, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and RCW 15.52.320 are each amended to read as follows:

All money collected as fees for brand registrations hereunder shall be paid to the director and deposited in ~~((a special))~~ an account ~~((in the state treasury known as the feed and fertilizer account, and))~~ within the agricultural local fund. Such deposits shall be used exclusively for the maintenance and enforcement of this chapter, except that not to exceed fifteen percent of said registration fees may, with the consent of the director, be used to purchase equipment and materials to facilitate testing and analyzing required herein. ~~((All earnings of investments of balances in the feed and fertilizer account shall be credited to the general fund.))~~ Any residual balance remaining in the feed and fertilizer account on the effective date of this 1988 section shall be transferred to the account within the agricultural local fund.

Sec. 5. Section 19, chapter 31, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 257, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 15.53.904 are each amended to read as follows:

All moneys collected under ~~((the provisions of))~~ this chapter shall be paid ~~((into the commercial feed fund in the state treasury which is hereby established))~~ to the director and deposited in an account within the agricultural local fund. Such ~~((fund))~~ deposits shall be used only in the administration and enforcement of this chapter. (~~All moneys collected under the provisions of chapter 15.53 RCW and remaining in such commercial feed account in the state general fund on the effective date of this chapter, shall be used in enforcement of this chapter.~~) Any residual balance remaining in the commercial feed fund on the effective date of this 1988 section shall be transferred to the account within the agricultural local fund.

Sec. 6. Section 4, chapter 29, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.30.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The application for an annual license to engage in the business of operating a controlled atmosphere storage warehouse or warehouses shall be accompanied by an annual license fee ~~(of five dollars)~~ prescribed by the director by rule.

Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 and RCW 15.09.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Each horticultural pest and disease board shall be comprised of five voting members, four of whom shall be appointed by the board of county commissioners and one of whom shall be ~~(the inspector at large for the horticultural district in which the county is located)~~ appointed by the director. In addition, the chief county extension agent, or a county extension agent appointed by the chief agent, shall be a nonvoting member of the board.

Of the four members appointed by the board of county commissioners, one of such members shall have at least a practical knowledge of horticultural pests and diseases, and the other members shall be residents of the county, shall own land within the county and shall be engaged in the primary and commercial production of a horticultural product or products. Such appointed members shall serve a term of two years and shall serve without salary.

Sec. 8. Section 1, chapter 39, Laws of 1975 as amended by section 179, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 69.04.930 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to sell at retail or display for sale at retail any food fish or shellfish as defined in RCW 75.08.011, any meat capable of use as human food as defined in RCW 16.49A.150 as now or hereafter amended, or any meat food product as defined in RCW 16.49A.130 as now or hereafter amended which has been frozen ~~(subsequent to being offered for sale or distribution to the ultimate consumer)~~ at any time, without having the package or container in which the same is sold bear a label clearly discernible to a customer that such product has been frozen and whether or not the same has since been thawed. No such food fish or shellfish, meat or meat food product shall be sold unless in such a package or container bearing said label: PROVIDED, That this section shall not include any of the aforementioned food or food products that have been frozen prior to being smoked, cured, cooked or subjected to the heat of commercial sterilization.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 69.07 RCW to read as follows:

The department may issue sanitary certificates to food processors under this chapter subject to such requirements as it may establish by rule. The fee for issuance shall be twenty dollars per certificate. Fees collected under this section shall be deposited in the agricultural local fund.

Sec. 10. Section 3, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 2, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 20.01.030 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter does not apply to:

(1) Any cooperative marketing associations or federations incorporated under, or whose articles of incorporation and bylaws are equivalent to, the requirements of chapter 23.86 RCW or chapter 24.32 RCW, except as to that portion of the activities of the association or federation that involve the handling or dealing in the agricultural products of nonmembers of the organization: PROVIDED, That the associations or federations may purchase up to fifteen percent of their gross from nonmembers for the purpose of filling orders: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the cooperative or association acts as a processor as defined in RCW 20.01.500(2) and markets the processed agricultural crops on behalf of the grower or its own behalf, the association or federation is subject to the provisions of RCW 20.01.500 through 20.01.560 and the license provision of this chapter excluding bonding provisions: PROVIDED FURTHER, That none of the foregoing exemptions in this subsection apply to any such cooperative or federation dealing in or handling grain in any manner, and not licensed under the provisions of chapter 22.09 RCW;

(2) Any person who sells exclusively his or her own agricultural products as the producer thereof;

(3) Any public livestock market operating under a bond required by law or a bond required by the United States to secure the performance of the public livestock market's obligation. However, any such market operating as a livestock dealer or order buyer, or both, is subject to all provisions of this chapter except for the payment of the license fee required in RCW 20.01.040;

(4) Any retail merchant having a bona fide fixed or permanent place of business in this state, but only for the retail merchant's retail business conducted at such fixed or established place of business;

(5) Any person buying farm products for his or her own use or consumption;

(6) Any warehouseman or grain dealer licensed under the state grain warehouse act, chapter 22.09 RCW, with respect to his ~~((operations as a licensee under that act))~~ or her handling of any agricultural product as defined under that chapter;

(7) Any nurseryman who is required to be licensed under the horticultural laws of the state with respect to his or her operations as such licensee;

(8) Any person licensed under the now existing dairy laws of the state with respect to his or her operations as such licensee;

(9) Any producer who purchases less than fifteen percent of his or her volume to complete orders;

(10) Any person, association, or corporation regulated under chapter 67.16 RCW and the rules adopted thereunder while performing acts regulated by that chapter and the rules adopted thereunder;

(11) Any boom loader who loads exclusively his or her own hay or straw as the producer thereof.

Sec. 11, Section 16, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 19, chapter 393, Laws of 1987 and RCW 22.09.011 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Department" means the department of agriculture of the state of Washington.

(2) "Director" means the director of the department or his duly authorized representative.

(3) "Person" means a natural person, individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, society, association, cooperative, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any unit or agency of local, state, or federal government.

(4) "Agricultural commodities," ~~((hereinafter referred to as))~~ "or" "commodities," means ~~((but is not limited to:));~~ (a) All the grains, peas, beans, lentils, corn, sorghums, malt, peanuts, and flax(:); and (b) other ~~((similar))~~ agricultural products similar to those listed in (a) of this subsection which have been designated by the department by rule.

(5) "Warehouse," also referred to as a public warehouse, means any elevator, mill, subterminal grain warehouse, terminal warehouse, country warehouse, or other structure or enclosure located in this state that is used or useable for the storage of agricultural products, and in which commodities are received from the public for storage, handling, conditioning, or shipment for compensation. The term does not include any warehouse storing or handling fresh fruits and/or vegetables, any warehouse used exclusively for cold storage, or any warehouse that conditions yearly less than three hundred tons of an agricultural commodity for compensation.

(6) "Terminal warehouse" means any warehouse designated as a terminal by the department, and located at an inspection point where inspection facilities are maintained by the department and where commodities are ordinarily received and shipped by common carrier.

(7) "Subterminal warehouse" means any warehouse that performs an intermediate function in which agricultural commodities are customarily received from dealers rather than producers and where the commodities are accumulated before shipment to a terminal warehouse.

(8) "Station" means two or more warehouses between which commodities are commonly transferred in the ordinary course of business and that are (a) immediately adjacent to each other, or (b) located within the corporate limits of any city or town and subject to the same transportation tariff zone, or (c) at any railroad siding or switching area and subject to the same transportation tariff zone, or (d) at one location in the open country off rail, or (e) in any area that can be reasonably audited by the department as a station under this chapter and that has been established as such by the director by rule adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW, or (f) within twenty miles of each other but separated by the border between Washington and Idaho or Oregon when the books and records for the station are maintained at the warehouse located in Washington.

(9) "Inspection point" means a city, town, or other place wherein the department maintains inspection and weighing facilities.

(10) "Warehouseman" means any person owning, operating, or controlling a warehouse in the state of Washington.

(11) "Depositor" means (a) any person who deposits a commodity with a Washington state licensed warehouseman for storage, handling, conditioning, or shipment, or (b) any person who is the owner or legal holder of a warehouse receipt, outstanding scale weight ticket, or other evidence of the deposit of a commodity with a Washington state licensed warehouseman or (c) any producer whose agricultural commodity has been sold to a grain dealer through the dealer's place of business located in the state of Washington, or any Washington producer whose agricultural commodity has been sold to or is under the control of a grain dealer, whose place of business is located outside the state of Washington.

(12) "Historical depositor" means any person who in the normal course of business operations has consistently made deposits in the same warehouse of commodities produced on the same land. In addition the purchaser, lessee, and/or inheritor of such land from the original historical depositor with reference to the land shall be considered a historical depositor with regard to the commodities produced on the land.

(13) "Grain dealer" means any person who, through his place of business located in the state of Washington, solicits, contracts for, or obtains from a producer, title, possession, or control of any agricultural commodity for purposes of resale, or any person who solicits, contracts for, or obtains from a Washington producer, title, possession, or control of any agricultural commodity for purposes of resale.

(14) "Producer" means any person who is the owner, tenant, or operator of land who has an interest in and is entitled to receive all or any part of the proceeds from the sale of a commodity produced on that land.

(15) "Warehouse receipt" means a negotiable or nonnegotiable warehouse receipt as provided for in Article 7 of Title 62A RCW.

(16) "Scale weight ticket" means a load slip or other evidence of deposit, serially numbered, not including warehouse receipts as defined in subsection (15) of this section, given a depositor on request upon initial delivery of the commodity to the warehouse and showing the warehouse's name and state number, type of commodity, weight thereof, name of depositor, and the date delivered.

(17) "Put through" means agricultural commodities that are deposited in a warehouse for receiving, handling, conditioning, or shipping, and on which the depositor has concluded satisfactory arrangements with the warehouseman for the immediate or impending shipment of the commodity.

(18) "Conditioning" means, but is not limited to, the drying or cleaning of agricultural commodities.

(19) "Deferred price contract" means a contract for the sale of commodities that conveys the title and all rights of ownership to the commodities represented by the contract to the buyer, but allows the seller to set the price of the commodities at a later date based on an agreed upon relationship to a future month's price or some other mutually agreeable method of price determination. Deferred price contracts include but are not limited to those contracts commonly referred to as delayed price, price later contracts, or open price contracts.

(20) "Shortage" means that a warehouseman does not have in his possession sufficient commodities at each of his stations to cover the outstanding warehouse receipts, scale weight tickets, or other evidence of storage liability issued or assumed by him for the station.

(21) "Failure" means:

(a) An inability to financially satisfy claimants in accordance with this chapter and the time limits provided for in it;

(b) A public declaration of insolvency;

(c) A revocation of license and the leaving of an outstanding indebtedness to a depositor;

(d) A failure to redeliver any commodity to a depositor or to pay depositors for commodities purchased by a licensee in the ordinary course of business and where a bona fide dispute does not exist between the licensee and the depositor;

(e) A failure to make application for license renewal within sixty days after the annual license renewal date; or

(f) A denial of the application for a license renewal.

Sec. 12. Section 3, chapter 452, Laws of 1987 and RCW 15.88.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is created an agricultural commodity commission to be known and designated as the Washington wine commission. Except as provided in RCW 15.88.100(2), the commission shall be composed of eleven voting members; five voting members shall be growers, five voting members shall be wine producers, and one voting member shall be a wine wholesaler licensed under RCW 66.24.200. Of the grower members, at least one shall be a person who does not have over fifty acres of vinifera grapes in production, at least one shall be a person who has over one hundred acres of vinifera grapes in production, and two may be persons who produce and sell their own wine. Of the wine producer members, at least one shall be a person producing not more than twenty-five thousand gallons of wine annually, at least one shall be a person producing over one million gallons of wine annually, and at least two shall be persons who produce wine from their own grapes. In addition, at least one member shall be a wine producer located in western Washington and at least two members shall be wine producers located in eastern Washington.

(2) In addition to the voting members identified in subsection (1) of this section, the commission shall have one nonvoting member who is a wine producer in this state whose principal wine or wines are produced from fruit other than vinifera grapes. The director of agriculture, or the director's designee, shall serve as an ex officio, nonvoting member.

(3) Except as provided in RCW 15.88.100(2), seven voting members of the commission constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business of the commission.

(4) Each voting member of the commission shall be a citizen and resident of this state and over the age of twenty-one years. Each voting member, except the member holding position eleven, must be or must have been engaged in that phase of the grower or wine producer industry that he or she is appointed to represent, and must during his or her term of office derive a substantial portion of income therefrom, or have a substantial investment in the growing of vinifera grapes or the production of wine from vinifera grapes as an owner, lessee, partner, or a stockholder owning at least ten percent of the voting stock in a corporation engaged in the growing of vinifera grapes or wine production from vinifera grapes; or the manager or executive officer of such a corporation. These qualifications apply throughout each member's term of office.

Sec. 13. Section 4, chapter 452, Laws of 1987 and RCW 15.88.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The appointive voting positions on the commission shall be designated as follows: The wine producers shall be designated positions one, two, three, four, and five; the growers shall be designated positions six, seven, eight, nine, and ten; and the wine wholesaler shall be position eleven. The nonvoting industry member shall be designated position number twelve. The member designated as filling position one shall be a person producing over one million gallons of wine annually. The member designated as position one shall be the sole representative, directly or indirectly, of the producer eligible to hold position one and in no event shall that producer directly or indirectly control more than fifty percent of the votes of the commission.

Except as provided in RCW 15.88.100(2), the regular terms of office shall be three years from the date of appointment and until their successors are appointed. However, the first terms of the members appointed upon July 1, 1987, shall be as follows: Positions one, six, and eleven shall terminate July 1, 1990; positions two, four, seven, and nine shall terminate July 1, 1989; and positions three, five, eight, and ten shall terminate July 1, 1988. The term of the initial nonvoting industry member shall terminate July 1, 1990.

Sec. 14. Section 10, chapter 452, Laws of 1987 and RCW 15.88.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the vote of each of the voting members of the commission shall be weighted as provided by this subsection for the transaction of any of the business of the commission. The total voting strength of the entire voting membership of the commission shall be eleven votes. The vote of position one shall be equal to the lesser of the following: Five and one-half votes; or eleven votes times the percentage of the wine produced in the state that is produced by the person filling position one. The percentage shall be based upon the amount of wine produced in the previous calendar year and shall be rounded to the nearest ten percent. The remaining votes of the membership of the commission shall be divided equally among the remaining members of the commission.

(2) In the event the assessment described in RCW 66.24.215(1)(b) is not effective on July 1, 1989, the positions designated for growers cease to exist. In such an event, the commission shall be composed of six voting members and ~~((one)) two~~ nonvoting members. The nonvoting industry member shall be position seven. Four voting members of the commission constitute a quorum for the modified commission. Of the six votes of the entire voting membership of the modified commission, the vote of position one shall be the lesser of the following: Three votes; or six votes times the percentage of the wine produced in the state that is produced by the person filling position one. The percentage shall be based upon the amount of wine produced in the previous calendar year and shall be rounded to the nearest ten percent. The remaining votes of the membership of the commission shall be divided equally among the remaining members of the commission.

(3) In the event that the percentage of wine produced by the producer represented by position one falls below twenty-five percent of the wine produced in this state, the weighted voting mechanism provided for in subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall cease to be effective. In that case, the voting shall be based on one vote per position.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Section 14 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1989.

Sec. 16. Section 8, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 4, chapter 304, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 20.01.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person applying for a commission merchant's license shall include in his or her application a schedule of commissions, together with an itemized list of all charges for services to be rendered to a consignor and shall post a copy of such charges on his or her premises in a conspicuous place where it is clearly visible and available to consignors. In addition to the posting of the itemized list of charges, such list shall be distributed to each consignor along with each contract entered into between the consignor and the commission merchant. Such commissions and charges shall not be changed or varied for the license period except by written contract between the consignor or his or her agent and the licensee or thirty days after written notice to the director, and proper posting of such changes, as prescribed by the director, on the licensee's premises. Charges for services rendered and not listed on the schedule of commissions and charges filed with the director, or for increases in charges listed and filed which are directly caused by increases in labor rates or in cost of materials which occur after the signing of the contract by the grower, shall be rendered only on an actual cost to the licensee basis.

Sec. 17. Section 38, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 33, chapter 296, Laws of 1981 and RCW 20.01.380 are each amended to read as follows:

Every dealer or cash buyer purchasing any agricultural products from the consignor thereof shall promptly make and keep for one year a correct record showing in detail the following:

- (1) The name and address of the consignor.
- (2) The date received.
- (3) The terms of the sale.
- (4) The quality and quantity delivered by the consignor, and where applicable the dockage, tare, grade, size, net weight, or quantity.
- (5) An itemized statement of any charges paid by the dealer or cash buyer for the account of the consignor.
- (6) The name and address of the purchaser: PROVIDED, That the name and address of the purchaser may be deleted from the record furnished to the consignor.
- (7) A copy of the itemized list of charges required under RCW 20.01.080 in effect on the date the terms of sale were agreed upon.

A copy of such record containing the above matters shall be forwarded to the consignor forthwith.

Livestock dealers must also maintain individual animal identification and disposition records as may be required by law, or regulation adopted by the director.

Sec. 18, Section 37, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 5, chapter 115, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 20.01.370 are each amended to read as follows:

Every commission merchant taking control of any agricultural products for sale as such commission merchant, shall promptly make and keep for a period of one year, beginning on the day the sale of the product is complete, a correct record showing in detail the following with reference to the handling, sale, or storage of such agricultural products:

- (1) The name and address of the consignor.
- (2) The date received.
- (3) The quality and quantity delivered by the consignor, and where applicable the dockage, tare, grade, size, net weight, or quantity.
- ~~(4) (Date of such sale for account of consignor.~~
- ~~(5) The terms of the sale.~~
- (6) An accounting of all sales, including dates, terms of sales, quality and quantity of agricultural products sold, and proof of payments received on behalf of the consignor.

~~(5) The terms of payment to the producer.~~

~~((7)) (6) An itemized statement of the charges to be paid by consignor in connection with the sale.~~

~~((8)) (7) The names and addresses of all purchasers if said commission merchant has any financial interest in the business of said purchasers, or if said purchasers have any financial interest in the business of said commission merchant, directly or indirectly, as holder of the other's corporate stock, as copartner, as lender or borrower of money to or from the other, or otherwise. Such interest shall be noted in said records following the name of any such purchaser.~~

~~((9)) (8) A lot number or other identifying mark for each consignment, which number or mark shall appear on all sales tags and other essential records needed to show what the agricultural products actually sold for.~~

~~((10)) (9) Any claim or claims which have been or may be filed by the commission merchant against any person for overcharges or for damages resulting from the injury or deterioration of such agricultural products by the act, neglect or failure of such person and such records shall be open to the inspection of the director and the consignor of agricultural products for whom such claim or claims are made.~~

Where a pooling arrangement is agreed to in writing between the consignor and commission merchant, the reporting requirements of subsections (4), (5), (6), ~~((7))~~ and ~~((8))~~ (8) of this section shall apply to the pool rather than to the individual consignor or consignment and the records of the pool shall be available for inspection by any consignor to that pool.

The commission merchant shall transmit a copy of the record required by this section to the consignor on the same day the final remittance is made to the consignor as required by RCW 20.01.430 as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 19, Section 46, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 13, chapter 178, Laws of 1986 and RCW 20.01.460 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who violates the provisions of this chapter or fails to comply with the rules adopted under this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor, except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(2) Any commission merchant, dealer, or cash buyer, or any person assuming or attempting to act as a commission merchant, dealer, or cash buyer without a license is guilty of a class C felony who:

- (a) Imposes false charges for handling or services in connection with agricultural products.
- (b) Makes fictitious sales or is guilty of collusion to defraud the consignor.
- (c) Intentionally makes false statement or statements as to the grade, conditions, markings, quality, or quantity of goods shipped or packed in any manner.

(d) Fails to comply with the payment requirements set forth under RCW 20.01.010(10), 20.01.390 or 20.01.430.

(3) Any person who violates the provisions of RCW 20.01.040, 20.01.080, 20.01.120, 20.01.125, 20.01.410 or 20.01.610 has committed a civil infraction.

Sec. 20. Section 9, chapter 32, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 174, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.79.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The following boilers and unfired pressure vessels shall be exempt from the requirements of RCW 70.79.220 and 70.79.240 through 70.79.330:

(1) Boilers or unfired pressure vessels located on farms and used solely for agricultural purposes;

(2) Unfired pressure vessels that are part of fertilizer applicator rigs designed and used exclusively for fertilization in the conduct of agricultural operations;

(3) Steam boilers used exclusively for heating purposes carrying a pressure of not more than fifteen pounds per square inch gauge and which are located in private residences or in apartment houses of less than six families;

~~((3))~~ (4) Hot water heating boilers carrying a pressure of not more than thirty pounds per square inch and which are located in private residences or in apartment houses of less than six families;

~~((4))~~ (5) Approved pressure vessels (hot water heaters listed by a nationally recognized testing agency), with approved safety devices including a pressure relief valve, with a nominal water containing capacity of one hundred twenty gallons or less having a heat input of two hundred thousand b.t.u.'s per hour or less, used for hot water supply at pressure of one hundred sixty pounds per square inch or less, and at temperatures of two hundred degrees Fahrenheit or less; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such pressure vessels are not installed in schools, child care centers, public and private hospitals, nursing and boarding homes, churches, public buildings owned or leased and maintained by the state or any political subdivision thereof, and assembly halls;

~~((5))~~ (6) Unfired pressure vessels containing only water under pressure for domestic supply purposes, including those containing air, the compression of which serves only as a cushion or airlift pumping systems, when located in private residences or in apartment houses of less than six families;

~~((6))~~ (7) Unfired pressure vessels containing liquified petroleum gases."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "agriculture;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 15.49.470, 15.54.480, 15.52.320, 15.53.9044, 15.30.040, 15.09.030, 69.04.930, 20.01.030, 22.09.011, 15.88.030, 15.88.040, 15.88.100, 20.01.080, 20.01.380, 20.01.370, 20.01.460, and 70.79.090; adding a new section to chapter 43.23 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 69.07 RCW; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Barr, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6344 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6603 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 46, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 39, chapter 109, Laws of 1987 and by section 13, chapter 405, Laws of 1987 and RCW 70.94.331 are each re-enacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall have all the powers as provided in RCW 70.94.141.

(2) The department, in addition to any other powers vested in it by law after consideration at a public hearing held in accordance with chapter 42.30 RCW and chapter 34.04 RCW shall:

(a) Adopt rules and regulations establishing air quality objectives and air quality standards;

(b) Adopt emission standards which shall constitute minimum emission standards throughout the state. An authority may enact more stringent emission standards, except for emission performance standards for new wood stoves and opacity levels for residential solid fuel burning devices which shall be state-wide, but in no event may less stringent standards be enacted by an authority without the prior approval of the department after public hearing and due notice to interested parties;

(c) Adopt by rule and regulation air quality standards and emission standards for the control or prohibition of emissions to the outdoor atmosphere of radionuclides, dust, fumes, mist, smoke, other particulate matter, vapor, gas, odorous substances, or any combination thereof. Such requirements may be based upon a system of classification by types of emissions or types of sources of emissions, or combinations thereof, which it determines most feasible for the purposes of this chapter. However, an industry, or the air pollution control authority having jurisdiction, can choose, subject to the submittal of appropriate data that the industry has quantified, to have any limit on the opacity of emissions from a source whose emission standard is stated in terms of a weight of particulate per unit volume of air (e.g., grains per dry standard cubic foot) be based on the applicable particulate emission standard for that source, such that any violation of the opacity limit accurately indicates a violation of the applicable particulate emission standard. A reasonable fee may be assessed to the industry to which the alternate opacity standard would apply. The fee shall cover only those costs to the air pollution control authority which are directly related to the determination on the acceptability of the alternate opacity standard, including testing, oversight and review of data.

(3) The air quality standards and emission standards may be for the state as a whole or may vary from area to area, except that emission performance standards for new wood stoves and opacity levels for residential solid fuel burning devices shall be state-wide, as may be appropriate to facilitate the accomplishment of the objectives of this chapter and to take necessary or desirable account of varying local conditions of population concentration, the existence of actual or reasonable foreseeable air pollution, topographic and meteorologic conditions and other pertinent variables.

(4) The department is directed to cooperate with the appropriate agencies of the United States or other states or any interstate agencies or international agencies with respect to the control of air pollution and air contamination, or for the formulation for the submission to the legislature of interstate air pollution control compacts or agreements.

(5) The department is directed to conduct or cause to be conducted a continuous surveillance program to monitor the quality of the ambient atmosphere as to concentrations and movements of air contaminants.

(6) The department shall enforce the air quality standards and emission standards throughout the state except where a local authority is enforcing the state regulations or its own regulations which are more stringent than those of the state.

(7) The department shall encourage local units of government to handle air pollution problems within their respective jurisdictions; and, on a cooperative basis provide technical and consultative assistance therefor.

(8) The department shall have the power to require the addition to or deletion of a county from an existing authority in order to carry out the purposes of this chapter: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no such addition or deletion shall be made without the concurrence of any existing authority involved. Such action shall only be taken after a public hearing held pursuant to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6603.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6603, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6603, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent, 2; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Zimmerman - 44.

Absent: Senators Lee, West - 2.

Excused: Senators Bender, Owen, Wojahn - 3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6603, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6480 with the following amendments: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 77.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A person commits the crime of obstructing the taking of fish or wildlife if the person:

(a) Harasses, drives, or disturbs fish or wildlife with the intent of disrupting lawful pursuit or taking thereof; or

(b) Harasses, interferes with, or intimidates an individual engaged in the lawful taking of fish or wildlife or lawful predator control.

(2) Violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor under RCW 77.21.010.

(3) It is a defense to any prosecution under subsection (1) of this section, if the person charged:

(a) Interferes with any person engaged in hunting outside legally established hunting seasons;

(b) Is preventing or attempting to prevent the injury or killing of a protected wildlife species, as defined by this title;

(c) Is preventing or attempting to prevent unauthorized trespass on private property; or

(d) Is defending oneself or another person from bodily harm or property damage by a person attempting to prevent hunting in a legally established hunting season.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 77.16 RCW to read as follows:

Any person who is damaged by any act prohibited in section 1 of this act may bring a civil action to enjoin further violations, and recover damages sustained, including a reasonable attorney's fee. The trial court may increase the award of damages to an amount not to exceed three times the damages sustained. A party seeking civil damages under this section may recover upon proof of a violation of the provisions of section 1 of this act by a preponderance of the evidence. The state of Washington may bring a civil action to enjoin violations of section 1 of this act.

Sec. 3. Section 77.16.240, chapter 36, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 2, chapter 372, Laws of 1987, by section 19, chapter 380, Laws of 1987, and by section 69, chapter 506, Laws of 1987 and RCW 77.21.010 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) A person violating RCW 77.16.040, 77.16.050, 77.16.060, 77.16.080, 77.16.210, 77.16.220, 77.16.310, 77.16.320, or 77.32.211, or committing a violation of RCW 77.16.020 or 77.16.120 involving 77.16.210, 77.16.220, 77.16.310, 77.16.320, section 1 of this 1988 act, or 77.32.211, or committing a violation of RCW 77.16.020 or 77.16.120 involving big game or an endangered species is guilty of a gross misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars and not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days and not more than one year or by both the fine and imprisonment. Each subsequent violation within a five-year period of RCW 77.16.040, 77.16.050, or 77.16.060, or of RCW 77.16.020 or 77.16.120 involving big game or an endangered species, as defined by the commission under the authority of RCW 77.04.090, shall be prosecuted and punished as a class C felony as defined in RCW 9A.20.020. In connection with each such felony prosecution, the director shall provide the court with an inventory of all articles or devices seized under this title in connection with the violation. Inventoried articles or devices shall be disposed of pursuant to RCW 77.21.040.

(2) A person violating or failing to comply with this title or rules adopted pursuant to this title for which no penalty is otherwise provided is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished for each offense by a fine of five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than ninety days in the county jail or by both the fine and imprisonment. The commission may provide, when not inconsistent with applicable statutes, that violation of a specific rule is an infraction under chapter 7.84 RCW.

(3) A person placing traps on private property without permission of the owner, lessee, or tenant where the land is improved and apparently used, or where the land is fenced or enclosed in a manner designed to exclude intruders or to indicate a property boundary line, or where notice is given by posting in a conspicuous manner, is guilty of the misdemeanor of trespass as defined and established in RCW 9A.52.010 and 9A.52.080 and shall be punished for each offense by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars.

(4) Persons convicted of a violation shall pay the costs of prosecution and the penalty assessment in addition to the fine or imprisonment.

(5) The unlawful killing, taking, or possession of each wildlife member constitutes a separate offense.

(6) District courts have jurisdiction concurrent with the superior courts of misdemeanors and gross misdemeanors committed in violation of this title or rules adopted pursuant to this title and may impose the punishment provided for these offenses. Superior courts have jurisdiction over felonies committed in violation of this title.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 288, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9A.46.060 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, "harassment" may include but is not limited to any of the following crimes:

- (1) Harassment (RCW 9A.46.020);
- (2) Malicious harassment (RCW 9A.36.080);
- (3) Telephone harassment (RCW 9.61.230);
- (4) Assault in the first degree (~~((RCW 9A.36.010))~~) (RCW 9A.36.011);

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 6480.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Metcalf that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 6480.

The motion by Senator Metcalf carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 6480.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6480, as amended by the House.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Patterson was excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6480, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 4; absent, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Brauer, Benitz, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Taimadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Zimmerman - 40.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bluechel, Decio, McCaslin - 4.

Absent: Senator West - 1.

Excused: Senators Bender, Owen, Patterson, Wojahn - 4.

SENATE BILL NO. 6480, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6724 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.300 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that the fundamentals of water resource policy in this state must be reviewed by the legislature to ensure that the water resources of the state are protected and fully utilized for the greatest benefit to the people of the state of Washington. The legislature further finds that it is necessary to provide the department of ecology with emergency powers to authorize withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, and construction of facilities in relation thereto, in order to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during 1977 and during 1987.

The legislature further finds that there is a continuing agricultural water supply shortage in many areas of the state and that, in relation to the lessening of that unsatisfactory condition, there is an urgent need to both improve water supply facilities and replace other such facilities.

In order to study the fundamentals of water resource policy of the state and to provide needed capital for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities to withdraw and distribute water to alleviate unsatisfactory water supply conditions arising from droughts occurring from time to time in the state of Washington, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of eighteen million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this section and RCW 43.83B.360 through 43.83B.375 shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 90.54 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The director of ecology shall contract with an independent fact-finding service for the purpose of consulting with all user groups and parties interested in Washington's water resource policy, including but not limited to:

(a) The departments of ecology, agriculture, social and health services, fisheries, wildlife, and natural resources;

(b) Municipal users of water;

(c) Agricultural interests;

(d) The governor's office;

(e) Environmental interests;

(f) Interests of industrial users of water;

(g) Indian tribes;

(h) Interests of public water utilities;

(i) Interests of recreational uses other than fishing;

(j) Public and private hydropower generating utilities;

(k) Interests of sport and commercial fishing; and

(l) Interests of the forest products industry.

(2) The fact-finding service shall consult with, obtain, and document the opinions of the interested parties, and may facilitate discussions between them on the fundamentals of water resource policy and the need, if any, to change or clarify the current policy for the state. The fact-finding service shall also identify and evaluate the clarity and consistency of state water allocation laws with the current policy based on those laws.

(3) The fact-finding service shall report its findings in a written report to the joint select committee established pursuant to section 3 of this act. The report shall be submitted to the joint select committee by June 30, 1988, unless the committee provides for an extension of the due date.

(4) The fact-finding service and the joint select committee shall consider the reports and recommendations of state and federal studies pertaining to allocation, augmentation, conservation, and efficient use of the water resources of this state, including but not limited to the department of ecology's instream resources and water allocation program review. By considering these studies, the fact-finding service and the joint select committee shall not duplicate the work already completed in such studies.

(5) Until July 1, 1989, or until the legislature has passed legislation based on recommendations from the joint select committee, whichever comes first, the department of ecology:

(a) Shall not amend or alter the current guidelines, standards, or criteria governing the instream flow and water allocation elements of the state water resources program established pursuant to chapters 90.22 and 90.54 RCW and set forth in chapters 173-500 to 173-596 WAC;

(b) Shall not adopt any water reservation under RCW 90.54.050, set forth in chapters 173-500 to 173-596 WAC, or the preferred alternative in the instream resources and water allocation environmental impact statement; and

(c) For any new application for surface water received under chapter 90.03 RCW after the effective date of this act, shall not issue any permanent appropriation permits and may only issue new temporary appropriation permits on streams by utilizing (i) the existing minimum or base flows adopted pursuant to chapters 90.54 and 90.22 RCW or (ii) the case-by-case process to maintain food fish and game fish populations as provided in RCW 75.20.050. These water appropriations shall not reduce flows necessary to provide for preservation of wildlife, fish, scenic, aesthetic, recreational, water quality, other environmental values, and navigational values, as provided in RCW 90.54.020 and chapters 90.03 and 90.22 RCW. These temporary permits shall be conditioned so that the appropriation may be altered based upon the enactment of legislation or adoption of regulations resulting from recommendations made pursuant to section 3 (3) and (4) of this act.

This subsection does not apply to any emergency water permits or transfers authorized under RCW 43.83B.300 through 43.83B.344, and shall not affect any existing water rights established pursuant to law.

(6) The department of ecology shall provide staff support in the fact-finding process.

(7) This section shall expire on June 30, 1989.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 90.54 RCW to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a joint select committee on water resource policy to address the findings reached by the fact-finding service pursuant to section 2 of this act. The committee shall consist of twelve voting members appointed jointly by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate. The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate may each appoint nonvoting members to participate in the meetings of the joint select committee. The voting membership shall be equally divided from each major political caucus and shall, to the extent possible, represent all major water interests, including but not limited to agriculture, fisheries, municipal, environmental, recreational, and hydroelectric.

(2) The staff support shall be provided by the senate committee services and the office of program research as mutually agreed by the cochair of the joint select committee. The cochair shall be designated by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate.

(3) In addition to responsibilities identified in subsection (6) of this section, the purpose of the joint select committee shall be to address and recommend in a written report to the full legislature the fundamentals of water resource policy for the state of Washington. The joint select committee shall review and evaluate the report of the fact-finding service and shall hold a minimum of four public hearings throughout the state.

The committee shall recommend in its report the procedures for allocating water resources of the state, considering the findings of the fact-finding service and the present and future demands on the use of water resources. The joint select committee shall further evaluate the need to prioritize the use of the water resources of this state.

(4) The joint select committee may include in its report recommendations for revisions to existing laws to set forth the water policies of the state and may also recommend revisions to existing law to give direction to the department of ecology and other agencies and officials in carrying out the fundamental water policies of the state as adopted by the legislature.

(5) The joint select committee shall submit its written report of findings and recommendations to the 1989 legislature. A draft report shall be completed by December 1, 1988, and distributed to interested parties. The final report shall be distributed and a public hearing shall be held no later than one week prior to the first day of the 1989 legislative session.

(6) The joint select committee shall monitor the actions taken to implement the recommendations made in the written report required in subsection (5) of this section and the results of any legislation enacted affecting the fundamental water resource policies of the state. At its discretion, the joint select committee may address issues affecting the allocation, efficient use, conservation, or distribution of surface and ground water to achieve the maximum benefits to the state. The committee shall report periodically to the legislature.

(7) This section shall expire June 30, 1991.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 225, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.54.030 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of insuring that the department is fully advised in relation to the performance of the water resources program provided in RCW 90.54.040, and to provide information and support to the fact-finding service and the joint select committee established in sections 2 and 3 of this 1988 act, the department is directed to become informed with regard to all phases of water and related resources of the state. To accomplish this objective the department shall:

- (1) Collect, organize and catalog existing information and studies available to it from all sources, both public and private, pertaining to water and related resources of the state;
- (2) Develop such additional data and studies pertaining to water and related resources as are necessary to accomplish the objectives of this chapter;
- (3) Determine existing and foreseeable uses of, and needs for, such waters and related resources;
- (4) Develop alternate courses of action to solve existing and foreseeable problems of water and related resources and include therein, to the extent feasible, the economic and social consequences of each such course, and the impact on the natural environment.

All the foregoing shall be included in a "water resources archive" established and maintained by the department. The department shall develop a system of cataloging, storing and retrieving the information and studies of the archive so that they may be made readily available to and effectively used not only by the department but by the public generally.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 225, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.54.040 are each amended to read as follows:

- (1) The department, through the adoption of appropriate rules, is directed, as a matter of high priority to insure that the waters of the state are utilized for the best interests of the people, to develop and implement in accordance with the policies of this chapter a comprehensive state water resources program which will provide a process for making decisions on future water resource allocation and use. The department may develop the program in segments so that immediate attention may be given to waters of a given physioeconomic region of the state or to specific critical problems of water allocation and use.

The current guidelines, standards, or criteria governing the elements of the water resource program established pursuant to this subsection shall not be altered or amended after the effective date of this 1988 section, in accordance with section 2(5) of this 1988 act.

- (2) In relation to the management and regulatory programs relating to water resources vested in it, the department is further directed to modify existing regulations and adopt new regulations, when needed and possible, to insure that existing regulatory programs are in accord with the water resource policy of this chapter and the program established in subsection (1) of this section. The current guidelines, standards, or criteria governing the department's implementation of this subsection shall not be altered or amended after the effective date of this 1988 section, in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.

- (3) The department is directed to review all statutes relating to water resources which it is responsible for implementing. When any of the same appear to the department to be ambiguous, unclear, unworkable, unnecessary, or otherwise deficient, it shall make recommendations to the legislature including appropriate proposals for statutory modifications or additions. Whenever it appears that the policies of any such statutes are in conflict with the policies of this chapter, and the department is unable to fully perform as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the department is directed to submit statutory modifications to the legislature which, if enacted, would allow the department to carry out such statutes in harmony with this chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 284, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 103, chapter 109, Laws of 1987 and by section 96, chapter 506, Laws of 1987 and RCW 90.22.010 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology may establish minimum water flows or levels for streams, lakes or other public waters for the purposes of protecting fish, game, birds or other wildlife resources, or recreational or aesthetic values of said public waters whenever it appears to be in the public interest to establish the same. In addition, the department of ecology shall, when requested by the department of fisheries or the department of wildlife to protect fish, game or other wildlife resources under the jurisdiction of the requesting state agency, or if the department of ecology finds it necessary to preserve water quality, establish such minimum flows or levels as are required to protect the resource or preserve the water quality described in the request or determination. Any request submitted by the department of fisheries or department of wildlife shall include a statement setting forth the need for establishing a minimum flow or level. When the department acts to preserve water quality, it shall include a similar statement with the proposed rule filed with the code reviser. This section shall not apply to waters artificially stored in reservoirs, provided that in the granting of storage permits by the department of ecology in the future, full recognition shall be given to downstream minimum flows, if any there may be, which have theretofore been established hereunder.

The current guidelines, standards, or criteria governing the instream flow programs established pursuant to this chapter shall not be altered or amended after the effective date of this 1988 section, in accordance with section 2(5) of this 1988 act.

Sec. 7. Section 5, chapter 225, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.54.050 are each amended to read as follows:

In conjunction with the programs provided for in RCW 90.54.040(1), whenever it appears necessary to the director in carrying out the policy of this chapter, the department may by rule adopted pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW:

(1) Reserve and set aside waters for beneficial utilization in the future, and

(2) When sufficient information and data are lacking to allow for the making of sound decisions, withdraw various waters of the state from additional appropriations until such data and information are available.

Prior to the adoption of a rule under this section, the department shall conduct a public hearing in each county in which waters relating to the rule are located. The public hearing shall be preceded by a notice placed in a newspaper of general circulation published within each of said counties. Rules adopted hereunder shall be subject to review in accordance with the provisions of RCW 34.04.070 or 34.04.080.

No new rules or changes to existing rules to reserve or set aside water may be adopted pursuant to this section, as provided in section 2(5) of this 1988 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Nothing in this act shall apply to or interfere with the processing or issuance of water rights in connection with the Yakima River Basin Water Enhancement Project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "resources;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.83B.300, 90.54.030, 90.54.040, and 90.54.050; reenacting and amending RCW 90.22.010; adding new sections to chapter 90.54 RCW; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Barr moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6724.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Halsan: "Senator Barr, Sections 5, 6 and 7 of the House striking amendment prohibit amending or altering the guidelines governing instream flow and water allocation programs in Chapters 90.22 and 90.54 RCW, and prohibit any new reservation of waters in RCW 90.54.050. Do these prohibitions continue indefinitely or expire on July 1, 1989?"

Senator Barr: "Senator Halsan, these prohibitions will expire no later than July 1, 1989."

Senator Halsan: "Thank you. One further question, Senator Barr. Under Section 2, subsection (5) (c) of the House amendment, does the limitation of issuing water permits in any manner or form affect the right to transfer water rights under RCW 90.03.380 and 90.03.390?"

Senator Barr: "Senator Halsan, the answer is no. Nothing in this amendment affects or interferes with the ability or right to transfer water rights, to change the point of diversion, or to change the place or the purpose of use of water as provided under RCW 90.03.380 and 90.03.390. The amendment also clearly states that nothing in Section 2 subsection (5) (c) is to affect existing water rights."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Barr that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6724.

The motion by Senator Barr carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6724.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6724, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6724, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 1; absent, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Zimmerman - 43.

Voting nay: Senator Kreidler - 1.

Absent: Senator West - 1.

Excused: Senators Bender, Owen, Patterson, Wojahn - 4.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6724, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6741 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the planning and development of regulatory programs for storage tanks containing petroleum and regulated substances must begin as soon as possible in order to meet the requirements of federal and state laws and address public health and safety concerns. The legislature further finds that a state regulatory program for underground storage tanks needs to be developed that is at least as stringent as the minimum requirements under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6991 et seq.

In addition, the legislature finds that affordable private methods of ensuring financial responsibility as required under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6991b(d) may not be available. Thus, it is necessary to study the possibility of developing risk retention pools to aid underground storage tank owners and operators in meeting federal financial responsibility requirements. The legislature further finds that the economic well-being of small businesses in the state that own or operate underground storage tanks depends on a clear state policy and adequate state regulatory programs.

Since additional information is needed to develop specific tank construction, installation, operational, monitoring, reporting, closure, and financial responsibility requirements, the legislature establishes the joint select committee on storage tanks to make recommendations on program elements and to develop legislation to establish these programs by June 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The joint select committee on storage tanks is created. The committee shall consist of six members from the senate appointed by the president of the senate and six members from the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The committee shall include equal numbers of members from the majority and minority parties of each house. The joint select committee chair and vice-chair shall be chosen by the majority vote of committee members and shall serve for the duration of the committee.

(2) The committee shall seek input from persons and organizations representing major petroleum companies, agriculture, environmental protection, petroleum jobbing, vehicle sales firms, vehicle repair firms, insurance underwriting, gasoline retailing, cities, counties, other units of local government, fuel oil retailing, the general business community, and the public.

(3) The committee shall be staffed from the senate committees on environment and natural resources, financial institutions and insurance, and ways and means and the house of representatives committees on environmental affairs, financial institutions and insurance, and ways and means. The department of ecology, department of general administration, and the insurance commissioner shall provide necessary staff and resources to assist the committee in carrying out its purpose and preparing legislation to establish the recommended programs by June 1, 1989.

(4) The committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the senate committees on environment and natural resources, financial institutions and insurance, and ways and means and the house of representatives committees on environmental affairs, financial institutions and insurance, and ways and means by December 10, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The committee shall make recommendations on topics including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Elements of an underground storage tank regulatory program necessary to meet the requirements of 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6991 et seq. and to allow full delegation of the federal program to the state. The committee shall specify circumstances under which it may be advisable to develop standards and requirements more stringent than those provided in federal regulations.

(2) Provisions necessary to implement a state-wide underground storage tank program, including:

(a) Whether state laws should generally preempt local laws governing the regulation of underground storage tanks but also allow for local programs that address environmentally sensitive areas; and

(b) Methods by which implementation and operation of underground storage tank programs will be coordinated between state and local governments.

(3) The cost of administering a state underground storage tank program and the methods of funding program administration, including:

(a) The need for limitations on fees charged by local governments; and

(b) Revenue sharing by the department of ecology with local governments to fund local program administration.

(4) Financial responsibility requirements for the owners and operators of underground petroleum storage tanks that meet the minimum federal financial responsibility requirements under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6991b(d) and the advisability of and methods for establishing an owner and operator funded program that assures compliance with the federal requirements and which limits the state's liability, including the advisability of state administration of risk retention pools designed to provide financial responsibility for owners and operators who cannot obtain adequate and reasonably priced private insurance. If the determination is made that a state-administered risk retention pool is necessary, the committee shall develop methods for implementation, including information on:

(a) Estimates of the costs of administering risk retention pools;

(b) Adequate means of ensuring that the state will have the necessary resources to address the obligation of the risk retention pools in the event that regular contributions are insufficient, including but not limited to a petroleum products tax;

(c) Adequate yet reasonable contributions from the owner or operator;

(d) Ways to ensure that owners and operators of tanks eligible to obtain funds from the risk retention pools will comply with the applicable state storage tank regulations; and

(e) A timetable for implementation of the risk retention pools by June 1, 1989.

(5) A timetable for implementing a state underground storage tank regulatory program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) By December 10, 1988, the department of ecology shall provide a report to the legislature on the following:

(a) An inventory of above-ground tanks containing petroleum in existence in this state, including their sizes, location, types, and products stored therein;

(b) An analysis of the current practices and requirements applicable to above-ground storage tanks containing petroleum, including an examination of any causes of releases from such tanks and appropriate responses;

(c) Recommendations for a state program, if necessary for the installation, operation, and closure of above-ground storage tanks.

(2) For the purposes of this study and notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, the department, with the advice of the joint select committee established in section 2 of this act, shall develop a definition of above-ground petroleum storage tanks except that the definition shall not include farm or residential tanks of one thousand or one hundred gallons or less capacity used for storing motor fuel for noncommercial purposes, tanks used for storing heating oil for consumptive use on the premises where stored, or barrels or drums commonly used for the transportation and temporary storage of petroleum products.

(3) In carrying out the study, the department may require a person, firm, corporation, or government entity other than a federal government entity, to respond to requests for information necessary to meet the requirements of this study.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act shall expire July 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "tanks;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating new sections; providing an expiration date; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6741.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6741, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 29, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has adopted ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8429 with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 1, after "WHEREAS," strike the remainder of the concurrent resolution and insert "The Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board was created by chapter 370, Laws of 1985; and

WHEREAS, The Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board was charged with the duty of preparing a comprehensive master plan for higher education in this state; and

WHEREAS, The Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board conducted public hearings throughout the state, completed its study of Washington's higher education system, and submitted its master plan for higher education to the Legislature on December 1, 1987; and

WHEREAS, Section 4, chapter 370, Laws of 1985, requires the Legislature, by concurrent resolution, to "approve or recommend changes" to the master plan;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, the House of Representatives concurring, That the Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board be commended for its high quality work, dedication, and commitment to the state of Washington in producing a new state master plan for higher education titled "Building a System: To be Among The Best"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Legislature approves the following goals of the master plan:

- (1) That Washington's system of higher education be among the best in the nation;
- (2) That Washington's system of higher education provide an opportunity for the pursuit of knowledge and cultural enrichment, develop social leadership, and foster economic development;

(3) That Washington's system of higher education remove discriminatory barriers that deny minority, women, and disabled persons full participation in postsecondary education;

(4) That Washington's system of higher education provide equitable and affordable access to postsecondary education programs of study, with particular attention to serve place-bound adults in urban areas;

(5) That Washington's system of higher education develop performance evaluation methods to assess how well individual institutions and the system as a whole are educating its students, to provide a basis for improvement, and to establish a system of accountability for student, faculty, legislative, and citizen expectations for postsecondary education in this state; and

(6) That Washington's system of higher education develop an admissions policy that strengthens the state's system of education while preserving multiple points of student access to postsecondary education; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Legislature, aware of the proposed SAFE funding approach, endorses the concept of a stable, reliable, and predictable funding approach for higher education, but defers implementation of any new funding mechanism until the Legislature completes a study of higher education funding policies and related issues. Related issues include: A state-wide enrollment policy that maintains access while insuring educational quality, appropriate quality comparison groups, state funding priorities and goals, and a process for evaluating educational service needs and establishing off-campus programs in underserved areas; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a special joint study group be established to review the components of the proposed SAFE funding approach and recommend a methodology for funding Washington's higher education system and addressing related matters; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the special study group consist of twelve members, eight members, with two from each caucus, selected by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, one member from the Office of Financial Management, and three members appointed by the Governor, one of whom shall be a member of the Higher Education Coordinating Board; and

and the resolution and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Saling, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8429.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8429, as amended by the House.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Smitherman, as Senator Talmadge has eluded to, I don't know who the assurances were given to, but there were supposedly some assurances that certain things would not take place and that did not happen. I just would like to ask you to your best knowledge, and I know you can't speak for this board, do we have any other surprises coming?"

Senator Smitherman: "Senator, I would hope if there were surprises and there's always the element of surprise in anything, I would hope that if we have any more surprises, that they are pleasant."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8429, as amended by the House, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 10; absent, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJamatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Hayner, Johnson, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Zimmerman - 35.

Voting nay: Senators Halsan, Hansen, Kiskaddon, Metcalf, Moore, Niemi, Pullen, Rasmussen, Talmadge, Vogntild - 10.

Absent: Senator West - 1.

Excused: Senators Bender, Owen, Wojahn - 3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8429, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to HOUSE BILL NO. 1515 and asks the Senate for a conference thereon. The Speaker has appointed the following members as Conferees: Representatives H. Sommers, Locke and Hankins.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate granted the request of the House for a conference on House Bill No. 1515 and the Senate amendments thereto.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on House Bill No. 1515 and the Senate amendments thereto: Senators Newhouse, Halsan and McCaslin.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6219 and the pending House striking amendment, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 6219 is a measure which changes the review standards for consent to adoption.

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives would establish a new adoption procedure providing for open adoptions and adoption contracts allowing future contact between all parties to an adoption.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by the House of Representatives were ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the motion to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6219 was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6219 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 4, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6291 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PART I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.010 are each amended to read as follows:

PURPOSES AND SCOPE. (1) The purposes of this chapter are:

~~((+))~~ (a) To establish a uniform policy for the fair and equitable treatment of persons displaced as a direct result of public works programs of the state and local governments in order that such persons shall not suffer disproportionate injuries as a result of programs designed for the benefit of the public as a whole and to minimize the hardship of displacement on such persons; ~~((and~~

~~((?))~~ (b) To encourage and expedite the acquisition of real property for public works programs by agreements with owners, to reduce litigation and relieve congestion in the courts, to assure consistent treatment for owners affected by state and local programs, and to promote public confidence in state and local land acquisition practices.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions and limitations of this chapter requiring a local public agency to comply with the provisions of this chapter, the governing body of any local public agency may elect not to comply with the provisions of sections 3 through 11 of this act in connection with a program or project not receiving federal financial assistance. Any person who has the authority to acquire property by eminent domain under state law may elect not to comply with sections 12 through 14 of this act in connection with a program or project not receiving federal financial assistance.

(3) Any determination by the head of a state agency or local public agency administering a program or project as to payments under this chapter is subject to review pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW; otherwise, no provision of this chapter may be construed to give any person a cause of action in any court.

(4) Nothing in this chapter may be construed as creating in any condemnation proceedings brought under the power of eminent domain, any element of value or of damage not in existence immediately before the effective date of this act.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 34, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.020 are each amended to read as follows:

DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter~~((---~~):

(1) The term "state" means any department, commission, agency, or instrumentality of the state of Washington.

(2) The term "local public ~~((body--as used in this chapter))~~ agency" applies to any county, city or town, or other municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state and any person who has the authority to acquire property by eminent domain under state law, or any instrumentality of any of the foregoing ~~((but only with respect to any program or project the cost of which is financed in whole or in part by a federal agency. Notwithstanding the limitations of this subsection, the governing body of any county, city or town, or other municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state or any instrumentality of any of the foregoing may elect to comply with all the provisions of this chapter in connection with programs and projects not receiving federal assistance)).~~

(3) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, or association.

(4) (a) The term "displaced person" means, except as provided in (b) of this subsection, any person who~~((--on or after July 1, 1971--))~~ moves from real property ~~((lawfully occupied by him)), or moves his personal property from real property ((on which it was lawfully located, as a result of the acquisition of such real property, in whole or in part, or as the result of the written order of the acquiring agency to vacate real property, for a program or project undertaken by the state, or a local public body. Solely for the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) of RCW 8.26.040 and RCW 8.26.070, the term "displaced person" includes any person who, on or after July 1, 1971, moves from real property or moves his personal property from real property; as a result of the acquisition of, or the written order of the acquiring agency to vacate other real property, on which such person conducts a business or farm operation, for a program or project undertaken by the state or a local public body:))~~

(1) as a direct result of a written notice of intent to acquire, or the acquisition of, such real property in whole or in part for a program or project undertaken by a displacing agency; or

(1) on which the person is a residential tenant or conducts a small business, a farm operation, or a business defined in this section, as a direct result of rehabilitation, demolition, or such other displacing activity as the lead agency may prescribe, under a program or project undertaken by a displacing agency in any case in which the displacing agency determines that the displacement is permanent.

Solely for the purposes of sections 3 (1) and (2) and 6 of this act, the term "displaced person" includes any person who moves from real property, or moves his personal property from real property

(1) as a direct result of a written notice of intent to acquire, or the acquisition of, other real property in whole or in part on which the person conducts a business or farm operation, for a program or project undertaken by a displacing agency; or

(ii) as a direct result of rehabilitation, demolition, or such other displacing activity as the lead agency may prescribe, of other real property on which the person conducts a business or a farm operation, under a program or project undertaken by a displacing agency where the displacing agency determines that the displacement is permanent.

(b) The term "displaced person" does not include:

(1) A person who has been determined, according to criteria established by the lead agency, to be either unlawfully occupying the displacement dwelling or to have occupied the dwelling for the purpose of obtaining assistance under this chapter; or

(ii) In any case in which the displacing agency acquires property for a program or project, any person (other than a person who was an occupant of the property at the time it was acquired) who occupies the property on a rental basis for a short term or a period subject to termination when the property is needed for the program or project.

(5) The term "business" means any lawful activity, excepting a farm operation, conducted primarily(---):

(a) For the purchase, sale, lease, and rental of personal and real property, and for the manufacture, processing, or marketing of products, commodities, or other personal property;

(b) For the sale of services to the public;

(c) By a nonprofit organization; or

(d) Solely for the purposes of ((~~subsection (1) of RCW 8.26.040~~) section 3 of this act, for assisting in the purchase, sale, resale, manufacture, processing, or marketing of products, commodities, personal property, or services by ((~~means of~~) the erection and maintenance of an outdoor advertising display or displays, ((~~otherwise lawfully erected and maintained~~)) whether or not such display or displays are located on the premises on which any of the above activities are conducted.

(6) The term "farm operation(s)" means any activity conducted solely or primarily for the production of one or more agricultural products or commodities, including timber, for sale or for home use, and customarily producing such products or commodities in sufficient quantity to be capable of contributing materially to the operator's support.

(7) The term "comparable replacement dwelling" means any dwelling that is (a) decent, safe, and sanitary; (b) adequate in size to accommodate the occupants; (c) within the financial means of the displaced person; (d) functionally equivalent; (e) in an area not subject to unreasonably adverse environmental conditions; and (f) in a location generally not less desirable than the location of the displaced person's dwelling with respect to public utilities, facilities, services, and the displaced person's place of employment.

(8) For purposes of RCW 8.26.180 through 8.26.200, the term "acquiring agency" means:

(a) A state agency or local public agency that has the authority to acquire property by eminent domain under state law; or

(b) Any state agency, local public agency, or person that (i) does not have the authority to acquire property by eminent domain under state law and (ii) has been designated an "acquiring agency" under rules adopted by the lead agency. However, the lead agency may only designate a state agency, local public agency, or a person as an "acquiring agency" to the extent that it is necessary in order to qualify for federal financial assistance.

(9) The term "displacing agency" means the state agency, local public agency, or any person carrying out a program or project, with federal or state financial assistance, that causes a person to be a displaced person.

(10) The term "federal financial assistance" means a grant, loan, or contribution provided by the United States, except any federal guarantee or insurance and any interest reduction payment to an individual in connection with the purchase and occupancy of a residence by that individual.

(11) The term "mortgage" means such classes of liens as are commonly given to secure advances on, or the unpaid purchase price of, real property, under the laws of this state, together with the credit instruments, if any, secured thereby. ((The term "mortgage" shall include real estate contracts:))

(12) The term "lead agency" means the Washington state department of transportation.

(13) The term "appraisal" means a written statement independently and impartially prepared by a qualified appraiser setting forth an opinion of defined value of an adequately described property as of a specific date, supported by the presentation and analysis of relevant market information.

PART II

UNIFORM RELOCATION ASSISTANCE POLICY

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. MOVING AND RELATED EXPENSES. (1) Whenever a program or project to be undertaken by a displacing agency will result in the displacement of any person, the displacing agency shall provide for the payment to the displaced person of:

(a) Actual reasonable expenses in moving himself, his family, business, farm operation, or other personal property;

(b) Actual direct losses of tangible personal property as a result of moving or discontinuing a business or farm operation, but not to exceed an amount equal to the reasonable expenses that would have been required to relocate the property, in accordance with criteria established by the lead agency:

(c) Actual reasonable expenses in searching for a replacement business or farm; and

(d) Actual reasonable expenses necessary to reestablish a displaced farm, nonprofit organization, or small business at its new site, in accordance with criteria established by the lead agency, but not to exceed ten thousand dollars.

(2) A displaced person eligible for payments under subsection (1) of this section who is displaced from a dwelling and who elects to accept the payments authorized by this subsection in lieu of the payments authorized by subsection (1) of this section may receive an expense and dislocation allowance determined according to a schedule established by the lead agency.

(3) A displaced person eligible for payments under subsection (1) of this section who is displaced from the person's place of business or farm operation and who is eligible under criteria established by the lead agency may elect to accept the payment authorized by this subsection in lieu of the payment authorized by subsection (1) of this section. The payment shall consist of a fixed payment in an amount to be determined according to criteria established by the lead agency, except that the payment shall be not less than one thousand dollars nor more than twenty thousand dollars. A person whose sole business at the displacement dwelling is the rental of that property to others does not qualify for a payment under this subsection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. REPLACEMENT HOUSING FOR HOMEOWNERS. (1) In addition to payments otherwise authorized by this chapter, the displacing agency shall make an additional payment, not in excess of twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars, to any displaced person who is displaced from a dwelling actually owned and occupied by the displaced person for not less than one hundred and eighty days immediately before the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the property. The additional payment shall include the following elements:

(a) The amount, if any, that when added to the acquisition cost of the dwelling acquired by the displacing agency, equals the reasonable and necessary cost of a comparable replacement dwelling;

(b) The amount, if any, that will compensate the displaced person for any increased mortgage interest costs and other debt service costs that the person is required to pay for financing the acquisition of any such comparable replacement dwelling. This amount shall be paid only if the dwelling acquired by the displacing agency was encumbered by a bona fide mortgage that was a valid lien on the dwelling for not less than one hundred and eighty days immediately before the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the dwelling;

(c) Reasonable expenses incurred by the displaced person for evidence of title, recording fees, and other closing costs incident to the purchase of the replacement dwelling, but not including prepaid expenses.

(2) The additional payment authorized by this section shall be made only to a displaced person who purchases and occupies a decent, safe, and sanitary replacement dwelling within one year after the date on which the person receives final payment from the displacing agency for the acquired dwelling or the date on which the obligation of the displacing agency under section 7 of this act is met, whichever date is later, except that the displacing agency may extend the period for good cause. If the period is extended, the payment under this section shall be based on the costs of relocating the person to a comparable replacement dwelling within one year of that date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. REPLACEMENT HOUSING FOR TENANTS AND CERTAIN OTHERS. (1) In addition to amounts otherwise authorized by this chapter, a displacing agency shall make a payment to or for a displaced person displaced from a dwelling not eligible to receive a payment under section 4 of this act if the dwelling was actually and lawfully occupied by the displaced person for not less than ninety days immediately before (a) the initiation of negotiations for acquisition of the dwelling, or (b) in any case in which displacement is not a direct result of acquisition, such other event as the lead agency prescribes. The payment shall consist of the amount necessary to enable the person to lease or rent for a period not to exceed forty-two months, a comparable replacement dwelling, but not to exceed five thousand two hundred fifty dollars. At the discretion of the displacing agency, a payment under this subsection may be made in periodic installments. Computation of a payment under this subsection to a low-income displaced person for a comparable replacement dwelling shall take into account the person's income.

(2) A person eligible for a payment under subsection (1) of this section may elect to apply the payment to a down payment on, and other incidental expenses pursuant to, the purchase of a decent, safe, and sanitary replacement dwelling. The person may, at the discretion of the displacing agency, be eligible under this subsection for the maximum payment allowed under subsection (1) of this section, except that, in the case of a displaced homeowner who has owned and occupied the displacement dwelling for at least ninety days but not more than one hundred eighty days immediately before the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the dwelling, the payment shall not exceed the payment the person would otherwise have received under section 4(1) of this act had the person owned and occupied the displacement dwelling one hundred eighty days immediately before the initiation of the negotiations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. RELOCATION ASSISTANCE ADVISORY SERVICES. (1) Programs or projects undertaken by a displacing agency shall be planned in a manner that (a) recognizes, at an early stage in the planning of the programs or projects and before the commencement of any actions that will cause displacements, the problems associated with the displacement of individuals, families, businesses, and farm operations, and (b) provides for the resolution of the problems in order to minimize adverse impacts on displaced persons and to expedite program or project advancement and completion.

(2) Displacing agencies shall ensure that the relocation assistance advisory services described in subsection (3) of this section are made available to all persons displaced by the agency. If the agency determines that any person occupying property immediately adjacent to the property where the displacing activity occurs is caused substantial economic injury as a result thereof, the agency may make available to the person the advisory services.

(3) Each relocation assistance advisory program required by subsection (2) of this section shall include such measures, facilities, or services as may be necessary or appropriate in order to:

(a) Determine, and make timely recommendations on, the needs and preferences, if any, of displaced persons for relocation assistance;

(b) Provide current and continuing information on the availability, sales prices, and rental charges of comparable replacement dwellings for displaced homeowners and tenants and suitable locations for businesses and farm operations;

(c) Assist a person displaced from a business or farm operation in obtaining and becoming established in a suitable replacement location;

(d) Supply (i) information concerning federal, state, and local programs that may be of assistance to displaced persons, and (ii) technical assistance to the persons in applying for assistance under those programs;

(e) Provide other advisory services to displaced persons in order to minimize hardships to them in adjusting to relocation; and

(f) Coordinate relocation activities performed by the agency with other federal, state, or local governmental actions in the community that could affect the efficient and effective delivery of relocation assistance and related services.

(4) Notwithstanding RCW 8.26.020(4)(b), in any case in which a displacing agency acquires property for a program or project, a person who occupies the property on a rental basis for a short term or a period subject to termination when the property is needed for the program or project is eligible for advisory services to the extent determined by the displacing agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. ASSURANCE OF AVAILABILITY OF HOUSING. (1) If a program or project undertaken by a displacing agency cannot proceed on a timely basis because comparable replacement dwellings are not available, and the head of the displacing agency determines that the dwellings cannot otherwise be made available, the head of the displacing agency may take such action as is necessary or appropriate to provide the dwellings by use of funds authorized for the project. The displacing agency may use this section to exceed the maximum amounts that may be paid under sections 4 and 5 of this act on a case-by-case basis for good cause as determined in accordance with rules adopted by the lead agency.

(2) No person may be required to move from a dwelling on account of any program or project undertaken by a displacing agency unless the displacing agency is satisfied that comparable replacement housing is available to the person.

(3) The displacing agency shall assure that a person shall not be required to move from a dwelling unless the person has had a reasonable opportunity to relocate to a comparable replacement dwelling, except in the case of the following:

(a) A major disaster as defined in section 102(2) of the Federal Disaster Relief Act of 1974;

(b) A national emergency declared by the president; or

(c) Any other emergency that requires the person to move immediately from the dwelling because continued occupancy of the dwelling by the person constitutes a substantial danger to the health or safety of the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. AUTHORITY OF THE LEAD AGENCY. (1) The lead agency, after full consultation with the department of general administration, shall adopt rules and establish such procedures as the lead agency may determine to be necessary to assure:

(a) That the payments and assistance authorized by this chapter are administered in a manner that is fair and reasonable and as uniform as practicable;

(b) That a displaced person who makes proper application for a payment authorized for that person by this chapter is paid promptly after a move or, in hardship cases, is paid in advance; and

(c) That a displaced person who is aggrieved by a program or project that is under the authority of a state agency or local public agency may have his application reviewed by the state agency or local public agency.

(2) The lead agency, after full consultation with the department of general administration, may adopt such other rules and procedures, consistent with the provisions of this chapter, as the lead agency deems necessary or appropriate to carry out this chapter.

(3) State agencies and local public agencies shall comply with the rules adopted pursuant to this section by April 2, 1989.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. ADMINISTRATION. In order to prevent unnecessary expenses and duplication of functions, and to promote uniform and effective administration of relocation assistance programs for displaced persons, a state agency or local public agency may enter into contracts with any individual, firm, association, or corporation for services in connection with this chapter or may carry out its functions under this chapter through any federal or state agency or local public agency having an established organization for conducting relocation assistance programs. The state agency or local public agency shall, in carrying out relocation activities described in section 7 of this act, whenever practicable, use the services of state or local housing agencies, or other agencies having experience in the administration or conduct of similar housing assistance activities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. FUND AVAILABILITY. (1) Funds appropriated or otherwise available to a state agency or local public agency for the acquisition of real property or an interest therein for a particular program or project shall also be available to carry out the provisions of this chapter as applied to that program or project.

(2) No payment or assistance under this chapter may be required to be made to any person or included as a program or project cost under this section, if the person receives a payment required by federal, state, or local law that is determined by the head of the displacing agency to have substantially the same purpose and effect as that payment under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. RELOCATION ASSISTANCE PAYMENTS NOT INCOME OR RESOURCES. No payment received by a displaced person under sections 3 through 10 of this act may be considered as income for the purpose of determining the eligibility or extent of eligibility of any person for assistance under any state law or for the purposes of any income tax or any tax imposed under Title 82 RCW, and the payments shall not be deducted from any amount to which any recipient would otherwise be entitled under Title 74 RCW.

PART III

UNIFORM REAL PROPERTY ACQUISITION POLICY

Sec. 12. Section 18, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.180 are each amended to read as follows:

ACQUISITION PROCEDURES. Every ~~((state)) acquiring agency ((and local public body acquiring real property in connection with any program or project))~~ shall, to the greatest extent practicable, be guided by the following policies:

(1) Every reasonable effort shall be made to acquire expeditiously real property by negotiation.

(2) Real property shall be appraised before the initiation of negotiations, and the owner or his designated representative shall be given an opportunity to accompany at least one appraiser of the acquiring agency during his inspection of the property, except that the lead agency may prescribe a procedure to waive the appraisal in cases involving the acquisition of property with a low fair market value.

(3) Before the initiation of negotiations for real property, the acquiring agency shall establish an amount which it believes to be just compensation therefor, and shall make a prompt offer to acquire the property for the full amount so established. In no event shall such amount be less than the agency's approved appraisal of the fair market value of such property. Any decrease or increase in the fair market value of the real property to be acquired prior to the date of valuation caused by the public improvement for which such property is acquired, or by the likelihood that the property would be acquired for such improvement, other than that due to physical deterioration within the reasonable control of the owner, will be disregarded in determining the compensation for the property. The acquiring agency shall provide the owner of real property to be acquired with a written statement of, and summary of the basis for, the amount it established as just compensation. Where appropriate the just compensation for the real property acquired, for damages to remaining real property, and for benefits to remaining real property shall be separately stated.

(4) No owner shall be required to surrender possession of real property before the agreed purchase price is paid or deposited with a court having jurisdiction of condemnation of such property, in accordance with applicable law, for the benefit of the owner an amount not less than the acquiring agency's approved appraisal of the fair market value of such property, or the amount of the award of compensation in the condemnation proceeding of such property.

(5) The construction or development of a public improvement shall be so scheduled that, to the greatest extent practicable, no person lawfully occupying real property shall be required to move from a dwelling or to move his business or farm operation without at least ninety days written notice of the date by which such move is required.

(6) If an owner or tenant is permitted to occupy the real property acquired on a rental basis for a short term or for a period subject to termination on short notice, the amount of rent required shall not exceed the fair rental value of the property to a short-term occupier.

(7) In no event shall the time of condemnation be advanced, on negotiations or condemnation and the deposit of funds in court for the use of the owner be deferred, or any other coercive action be taken to compel an agreement on the price to be paid for the property.

(8) If an interest in real property is to be acquired by exercise of the power of eminent domain, formal condemnation proceedings shall be instituted. The acquiring agency shall not intentionally make it necessary for an owner to institute legal proceedings to prove the fact of the taking of his real property.

(9) If the acquisition of only ~~((part))~~ a portion of a property would leave ~~((the))~~ the owner with an uneconomic remnant, the ~~((acquiring))~~ head of the agency concerned shall offer to acquire ~~((the entire property))~~ that remnant. For the purposes of this chapter, an uneconomic remnant is a parcel of real property in which the owner is left with an interest after the partial acquisition of the owner's property and that the head of the agency concerned has determined has little or no value or utility.

(10) A person whose real property is being acquired in accordance with this chapter may, after the person has been fully informed of his right to receive just compensation for the property, donate the property, any part thereof, any interest therein, or any compensation paid for it to any agency as the person may determine.

Sec. 13. Section 19, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.190 are each amended to read as follows:

BUILDINGS, STRUCTURES, AND IMPROVEMENTS. (1) Where any interest in real property is acquired, the acquiring agency shall acquire an equal interest in all buildings, structures, or other improvements located upon the real property so acquired and which is required to be removed from such real property or which is determined to be adversely affected by the use to which such real property will be put ((shall be acquired)).

(2) For the purpose of determining the just compensation to be paid for any building, structure, or other improvement required to be acquired ~~((as above set forth))~~ under subsection (1) of this section, such building, structure, or other improvement shall be deemed to be a part of the real property to be acquired notwithstanding the right or obligation of a tenant of the lands, as against the owner of any other interest in the real property, to remove such building, structure, or improvement at the expiration of his term, and the fair market value which such building, structure, or improvement contributes to the fair market value of the real property to be acquired, or the fair market value of such building, structure, or improvement for removal from the real property, whichever is the greater, shall be paid to the ~~((tenant therefor))~~ owner of such building, structure, or improvement.

(3) Payment for such building~~((s))~~, structure~~((s))~~, or improvement~~((as set forth above))~~ under subsection (1) of this section shall not result in duplication of any payments otherwise authorized by state law. No such payment shall be made unless the owner of the land involved disclaims all interest in the improvements of the tenant. In consideration for any such payment, the tenant shall assign, transfer, and release all his right, title, and interest in and to such improvements. Nothing with regard to the above-mentioned acquisition of buildings, structures, or other improvements shall be construed to deprive the tenant of any rights to reject payment and to obtain payment for such property interests in accordance with other laws of this state.

Sec. 14. Section 20, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.200 are each amended to read as follows:

EXPENSES INCIDENTAL TO TRANSFER OF RIGHT, TITLE, OR INTEREST TO THE ACQUIRING AGENCY. ~~((A state agency or a local public body acquiring real property.))~~ As soon as practicable after the date of payment of the purchase price or the date ~~((or))~~ of deposit in court of funds to satisfy the award of compensation in a condemnation proceeding to acquire real property, whichever is the earlier, the acquiring agency shall reimburse the owner, to the extent the acquiring agency deems fair and reasonable, for expenses the owner necessarily incurred for(—):

(1) Recording fees, transfer taxes, and similar expenses incidental to conveying such real property to the acquiring agency;

(2) Penalty costs for full or partial prepayment of any preexisting recorded mortgage entered into in good faith encumbering such real property; and

(3) The pro rata portion of real property taxes paid which are allocable to a period subsequent to the date of vesting title in the acquiring agency, or the effective date of possession of such real property by the acquiring agency, whichever is the earlier.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. EFFECT ON PROPERTY ACQUISITIONS. The provisions of RCW 8.26.180, 8.26.190, and 8.26.200 create no rights or liabilities and do not affect the validity of any property acquisitions by purchase or condemnation.

PART IV

SEVERABILITY, REPEALS, ETC.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

(2) If any part of this chapter is found to be in conflict with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this chapter is declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and that finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this chapter in its application to the agencies concerned. The rules under this chapter shall meet federal requirements that are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed.

- (1) Section 3, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.030;
- (2) Section 4, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 8.26.040;
- (3) Section 5, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 8.26.050;
- (4) Section 6, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.060;
- (5) Section 7, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.070;
- (6) Section 8, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.080;
- (7) Section 9, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.090;
- (8) Section 10, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.100;
- (9) Section 11, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 3, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 8.26.110;
- (10) Section 12, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.120;
- (11) Section 13, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.130;
- (12) Section 14, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.140;
- (13) Section 15, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.150;
- (14) Section 16, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.160; and
- (15) Section 17, chapter 240, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 8.26.170.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. Sections 3 through 11 and 15 of this act are added to chapter 8.26 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. Section captions and part divisions in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6705 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 66, Laws of 1987, section 1, chapter 154, Laws of 1987, section 2, chapter 277, Laws of 1987, section 20, chapter 280, Laws of 1987 and RCW 10.31.100 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

A police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a felony shall have the authority to arrest the person without a warrant. A police officer may arrest a person without a warrant for committing a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor only when the offense is committed in the presence of the officer, except as provided in subsections (1) through (8) of this section.

(1) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, involving physical harm or threats of harm to any person or property or the unlawful taking of property or involving the use or possession of cannabis, or involving the acquisition, possession, or consumption of alcohol by a person under the age of twenty-one years under RCW 66.44.270 shall have the authority to arrest the person.

(2) A police officer shall arrest and take into custody, pending release on bail, personal recognizance, or court order, a person without a warrant when the officer has probable cause to believe that:

(a) An order has been issued of which the person has knowledge under RCW 10.99.040(2), 10.99.050, 26.09.060, 26.44.063, chapter 26.26 RCW, or chapter 26.50 RCW restraining the person and the person has violated the terms of the order restraining the person from acts or threats of violence or excluding the person from a residence or, in the case of an order issued under RCW 26.44.063, imposing any other restrictions or conditions upon the person; or

(b) The person is eighteen years or older and within the preceding four hours has assaulted that person's spouse, former spouse, or a person eighteen years or older with whom the person resides or has formerly resided and the officer believes: (i) A felonious assault has occurred; (ii) an assault has occurred which has resulted in bodily injury to the victim, whether the injury is observable by the responding officer or not; or (iii) that any physical action has occurred which was intended to cause another person reasonably to fear imminent serious bodily injury or death. Bodily injury means physical pain, illness, or an impairment of physical condition. When the officer has probable cause to believe that spouses, former spouses, or other persons who reside together or formerly resided together have assaulted each other, the officer is not required to arrest both persons. The officer shall arrest the person whom the officer believes to be the primary physical aggressor. In making this determination, the officer shall make every reasonable effort to consider: (i) The intent to protect victims of domestic violence under RCW 10.99.010; (ii) the comparative extent of injuries inflicted or serious threats creating fear of physical injury; and (iii) the history of domestic violence between the persons involved.

(3) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a violation of any of the following traffic laws shall have the authority to arrest the person:

(a) RCW 46.52.010, relating to duty on striking an unattended car or other property;

(b) RCW 46.52.020, relating to duty in case of injury to or death of a person or damage to an attended vehicle;

(c) RCW 46.61.500 or 46.61.530, relating to reckless driving or racing of vehicles;

(d) RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, relating to persons under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs;

(e) RCW 46.20.342, relating to driving a motor vehicle while operator's license is suspended or revoked;

(f) RCW 46.61.525, relating to operating a motor vehicle in a negligent manner.

(4) A law enforcement officer investigating at the scene of a motor vehicle accident may arrest the driver of a motor vehicle involved in the accident if the officer has probable cause to believe that the driver has committed in connection with the accident a violation of any traffic law or regulation.

(5) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a violation of RCW 88.02.095 shall have the authority to arrest the person.

(6) An officer may act upon the request of a law enforcement officer in whose presence a traffic infraction was committed, to stop, detain, arrest, or issue a notice of traffic infraction to the driver who is believed to have committed the infraction. The request by the witnessing officer shall give an officer the authority to take appropriate action under the laws of the state of Washington.

~~((6))~~ (7) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing any act of indecent exposure, as defined in RCW 9A.88.010, may arrest the person.

~~((6))~~ (8) A police officer may arrest and take into custody, pending release on bail, personal recognizance, or court order, a person without a warrant when the officer has probable cause to believe that an order has been issued of which the person has knowledge under chapter 10.14 RCW and the person has violated the terms of that order.

~~((7))~~ (9) Except as specifically provided in subsections (2), (3), (4), and (6) of this section, nothing in this section extends or otherwise affects the powers of arrest prescribed in Title 46 RCW.

~~((8))~~ (10) No police officer may be held criminally or civilly liable for making an arrest pursuant to RCW 10.31.100(2) or ~~((6))~~ (8) if the police officer acts in good faith and without malice.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 188, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.34.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If, after a fact-finding hearing pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, as now or hereafter amended, it has been proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is dependent within the meaning of RCW 13.34.030(2); after consideration of the predisposition report prepared pursuant to RCW 13.34.110 and after a disposition hearing has been held pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, the court shall enter an order of disposition pursuant to this section.

(1) The court shall order one of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Order a disposition other than removal of the child from his or her home, which shall provide a program designed to alleviate the immediate danger to the child, to mitigate or cure any damage the child has already suffered, and to aid the parents so that the child will not be endangered in the future. In selecting a program, the court should choose those services that least interfere with family autonomy, provided that the services are adequate to protect the child.

(b) Order that the child be removed from his or her home and ordered into the custody, control, and care of a relative or the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency for placement in a foster family home or group care facility licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW or in a home not required to be licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW. Such an order may be made only if the court finds that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home and that:

(i) There is no parent or guardian available to care for such child;

(ii) The child is unwilling to reside in the custody of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian;

(iii) The parent, guardian, or legal custodian is not willing to take custody of the child;

(iv) A manifest danger exists that the child will suffer serious abuse or neglect if the child is not removed from the home and an order under RCW 26.44.063 would not protect the child from danger; or

(v) The extent of the child's disability is such that the parent, guardian, or legal custodian is unable to provide the necessary care for the child and the parent, guardian, or legal custodian has determined that the child would benefit from placement outside of the home.

(2) Whenever a child is ordered removed from the child's home, the agency charged with his or her care shall provide the court with a specific plan as to where the child will be placed, what steps will be taken to return the child home, and what actions the agency will take to maintain parent-child ties.

(a) The agency plan shall specify what services the parents will be offered in order to enable them to resume custody and what requirements the parents must meet in order to resume custody.

(b) The agency shall be required to encourage the maximum parent-child contact possible, including regular visitation and participation by the parents in the care of the child while the child is in placement.

(c) A child shall be placed as close to the child's home as possible, preferably in the child's own neighborhood, unless the court finds that placement at a greater distance is necessary to promote the child's or parents' well-being.

(d) The agency charged with supervising a child in placement shall provide all reasonable services that are available within the agency, or within the community, or those services which the department of social and health services has existing contracts to purchase. It shall report to the court if it is unable to provide such services.

(3) The status of all children found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every six months at a hearing in which it shall be determined whether court supervision should continue.

(a) A child shall not be returned home at the review hearing unless the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in this section no longer exists. The parents, guardian, or legal custodian shall report to the court the efforts they have made to correct the conditions which led to removal. If a child is returned, casework supervision shall continue for a period of six months, at which time there shall be a hearing on the need for continued intervention.

(b) If the child is not returned home, the court shall establish in writing:

(i) Whether reasonable services have been provided to or offered to the parties to facilitate reunion;

(ii) The extent to which the parents have visited the child and any reasons why visitation has not occurred or has been infrequent;

(iii) Whether the agency is satisfied with the cooperation given to it by the parents;

(iv) Whether additional services are needed to facilitate the return of the child to the child's parents; if so, the court shall order that reasonable services be offered; and

(v) When return of the child can be expected.

(c) The court at the review hearing may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 35, Laws of 1985 and RCW 26.44.063 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is the intent of the legislature to minimize trauma to a child involved in an allegation of sexual or physical abuse. The legislature declares that removing the child from the home often has the effect of further traumatizing the child. It is, therefore, the legislature's intent that the alleged offender, rather than the child, shall be removed from the home and that this should be done at the earliest possible point of intervention in accordance with RCW 10.31.100, 13.34.130, this section, and section 4 of this 1988 act.

(2) In any judicial proceeding in which it is alleged that a child has been subjected to sexual or physical abuse, if the court finds reasonable grounds to believe that an incident of sexual or physical abuse has occurred, the court may, on its own motion, or the motion of the guardian ad litem or other parties, issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction restraining or enjoining the person accused of committing the abuse from:

(a) Molesting or disturbing the peace of the alleged victim;

(b) Entering the family home of the alleged victim except as specifically authorized by the court; or

(c) Having any contact with the alleged victim, except as specifically authorized by the court.

~~((2))~~ (3) In issuing a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, the court may impose any additional restrictions that the court in its discretion determines are necessary to protect the child from further abuse or emotional trauma pending final resolution of the abuse allegations.

~~((3))~~ (4) The court shall issue a temporary restraining order prohibiting a person from entering the family home if the court finds that the order would eliminate the need for an out-of-home placement to protect the child's right to nurturance, health, and safety and is sufficient to protect the child from further sexual or physical abuse or coercion.

(5) The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the party to be restrained or other parties only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

~~((4))~~ (6) A temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction:

(a) Does not prejudice the rights of a party or any child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding; and

(b) May be revoked or modified.

~~((5))~~ (7) The person having physical custody of the child shall have an affirmative duty to assist in the enforcement of the restraining order including but not limited to a duty to notify the court as soon as practicable of any violation of the order, a duty to request the assistance of law enforcement officers to enforce the order, and a duty to notify the department of social and health services of any violation of the order as soon as practicable if the department is a party to the action. Failure by the custodial party to discharge these affirmative duties shall be subject to contempt proceedings.

(8) Willful violation of a court order entered under this section is a misdemeanor. A written order shall contain the court's directive and shall bear the legend: "Violation of this order is a criminal offense under chapter 26.44 RCW and will subject a violator to arrest."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 26.44 RCW to read as follows:

When a peace officer responds to a call alleging that a child has been subjected to sexual or physical abuse and has probable cause to believe that a crime has been committed or responds to a call alleging that a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction has been violated, the peace officer has the authority to arrest the person without a warrant pursuant to RCW 10.31.100."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "children;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 13.34.130 and 26.44.063; reenacting and amending RCW 10.31.100; adding a new section to chapter 26.44 RCW; and prescribing penalties."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pullen, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6705.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6705, as amended by the House.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Johnson was excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6705, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; absent, 3; excused, 4.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Pullen moved to reconsider the vote by which the Senate granted the request of the House for a conference on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6316 on March 7, 1988.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Pullen to reconsider the vote by which the Senate granted the request of the House for a conference on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6316.

The motion for reconsideration by Senator Pullen carried.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6316.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "One question, is not the intent, Senator Pullen, of this legislation to take house property away from an innocent landlord, that knows nothing of what's going on?"

Senator Pullen: "Senator Rasmussen, there's specific language in the bill that would preclude an innocent landlord from losing his property."

Senator Rasmussen: "I don't have the amendment in front of me here, Senator Pullen, but I did see some amendments that were put on by the House that exempted forty grams of marijuana and is that included in this amendment that we're going to concur in?"

Senator Pullen: "The limitations you speak of Senator Rasmussen, are on page 5 of the House amendment subsection (iii) of subsection (8) of Section 2 of the bill. The language is 'the possession of marijuana shall not result in the forfeiture of real property unless the marijuana is possessed for commercial purposes, the amount possessed is five or more plants, or one pound or more of marijuana and a substantial nexus exists between the possession of marijuana and the real property.'"

Senator Rasmussen: "That, Senator Pullen, will legalize marijuana then as far as the state is concerned, yes or no?"

Senator Pullen: "No, this does not legalize marijuana at all."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, if marijuana is found to the extent of five plants, no more, we're saying that that's legal."

Senator Pullen: "No, not at all, Senator Rasmussen. What we're saying is that the person possessing the marijuana below the thresholds indicated, would not lose his real property, but he would still be subject to the criminal penalties that accompany possession of marijuana."

Senator Rasmussen: "As I understand, personal property would be marijuana plants. That's personal property and he would lose that?"

Senator Pullen: "He would loose the marijuana plants."

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. In response to Senator Rasmussen's question, if you had a circumstance, Senator Rasmussen, where somebody owned say some rental property in Pierce County, and you had someone who was smoking marijuana in one of the rooms of that rental property—known or unknown to the landlord. If it's unknown to the landlord, clearly the landlord's property would not be forfeited. If it was known to the landlord that somebody had smoked a marijuana cigarette in that rental property, then under the terms of this law, the landlords property could be forfeited.

"What the provision that Senator Pullen referred to means is that there has to be some real commercial activity going on in the case of the marijuana. The criminal penalties and civil penalties for the person who's engaging in the use of the marijuana still attach. They still are subject to the criminal penalties. The only thing is, the landlord's real property, that rental property, will not be forfeited under this bill unless somebody is engaging in commercial sales on the property, so really that section we're talking about is something of a protection to a landlord or somebody who owns real property and that's the purpose of it.

"I think Senator Pullen's general description of the bill is very accurate. It's a very important bill for law enforcement, to have the authority to take real property clearly associated with drug transactions. This is not, within the meaning of the State Constitution, a corruption of the blood or forfeiture of an estate, but rather it is the seizure of assets clearly associated with the drug related transactions. That's substantial nexus language that Senator Halsan has inserted in the bill. It is very critical to make sure that this is a constitutional taking of someone's property—engaging in illegal activity and I think it's a very important tool that we need to have for law enforcement officers all across the state of Washington. They've been indicating to us that it is an important bit of authority that they need to continue the efforts against drug traffickers."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Pullen that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6316.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6316.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Senators Vognild and Garrett were excused.

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senators Cantu and Lee were excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6316, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6316, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 1; absent, 2; excused, 5.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5558 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28B.80 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Recipients of the Washington scholars award under RCW 28A.58.820 through 28A.58.830 choosing to attend an independent college or university in this state, as defined in subsection (4) of this section, may receive grants under this section if moneys are available. The higher education coordinating board shall distribute grants to eligible students under this section from moneys appropriated for this purpose. The individual grants shall not exceed, on a yearly basis, the yearly, full-time, resident, undergraduate tuition and service and activities fees in effect at the state-funded research universities. Grants shall be contingent upon the private institution matching on at least a dollar-for-dollar basis, either with actual money or by a waiver of fees, the amount of the grant received by the student from the state. The higher education coordinating board shall establish procedures, by rule, to disburse the awards as direct grants to the students.

(2) To qualify for the grant, recipients shall enter the independent college or university within three years of high school graduation and maintain a minimum grade point average at the college or university equivalent to 3.30. Students shall be eligible for grants for a maximum of twelve quarters or eight semesters of undergraduate study and may transfer among independent colleges and universities during that period and continue to receive the grant. If the student's cumulative grade point average falls below 3.30 during the first three quarters or two semesters, that student may petition the higher education coordinating board which shall have the authority to establish a probationary period until such time as the student's grade point average meets required standards.

(3) No grant shall be awarded to any student who is pursuing a degree in theology.

(4) As used in this section, "independent college or university" means a private, nonprofit educational institution, the main campus of which is permanently situated in the state, open to residents of the state, providing programs of education beyond the high school level leading at least to the baccalaureate degree, and accredited by the northwest association of schools and colleges as of the effective date of this section and other institutions as may be developed that are approved by the higher education coordinating board as meeting equivalent standards as those institutions accredited under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 28B.80 RCW to read as follows:

Students receiving grants under section 1 of this act or waivers under RCW 28B.15.543 shall be entitled to transfer between public and independent colleges or universities. Students transferring to a public institution of higher education from an independent college or university are entitled to a tuition waiver while enrolled at such institution during the period of eligibility under RCW 28B.15.543. Students transferring to an independent college or university from a public institution of higher education are entitled to a grant under section 1 of this act while enrolled at such college or university during the period of eligibility under section 1 of this act. The total grants or waivers for any one student shall not exceed twelve quarters or eight semesters of undergraduate study.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 1 of this act shall apply to persons holding the Washington scholars award as of the effective date of this section as well as persons holding the award after the effective date of this section.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 54, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1, chapter 465, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.58.822 are each amended to read as follows:

There is established by the legislature of the state of Washington the Washington state scholars program. The purposes of this program annually are to:

(1) Provide for the selection of three seniors graduating from high schools in each legislative district who have distinguished themselves academically among their peers.

(2) Maximize public awareness of the academic achievement, leadership ability, and community contribution of Washington state public and private high school seniors through appropriate recognition ceremonies and events at both the local and state level.

(3) Provide a listing of the Washington scholars to all Washington state public and private colleges and universities to facilitate communication regarding academic programs and scholarship availability.

(4) Make available a state level mechanism for utilization of private funds for scholarship awards to outstanding high school seniors.

(5) Provide, on written request and with student permission, a listing of the Washington scholars to private scholarship selection committees for notification of scholarship availability.

(6) Permit a waiver of tuition and services and activities fees as provided for in RCW 28B.15.543 and grants under section 1 of this 1988 act."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "program," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28A.58.822; adding new sections to chapter 28B.80 RCW; and creating a new section."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Saling: "Mr. President, a point of order. I raise a question of scope and object on the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5558 and I would like to speak to that please. The bill that we sent from the Senate asked for a study of the issue of expanding the Washington Scholars Program to include private institutions. This study was to address the significant legal questions involved so that a recommendation could be received from the HEC Board on the kind of program which could be developed, so these legal questions would not interfere with the effort. These amendments by the House go far beyond the study called for by the bill which the Senate sent over.

"These amendments actually establish the program which our bill was going to study. They establish the monetary level of the award for students attending a private institution. They establish that these students will receive grants to attend these private institutions, a matter the Senate bill directed a study of. They develop criteria for eligibility and direct the HEC Board to implement the program.

"In the Senate Bill, the HEC Board was only asked to study the issues involved in actually implementing a program like this. The House amendments determine grade point averages equivalencies and define the method of accreditation for eligible private institutions. The amendments also provide retroactive eligibility for these grants where award winners are already attending public or private schools. The amendments also establish a method wherein students can transfer their grants and or tuition waivers between private schools and between private schools and public institutions. None of these items were addressed, in any way, in the original Senate bill. We need to look at the legal questions and come back with a workable program next year. Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5558 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6720 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 7, chapter 345, Laws of 1985 and RCW 70.95.530 are each amended to read as follows:

Moneys in the account may be appropriated to the department of ecology:

(1) To provide for funding to state and local governments for the removal of discarded vehicle tires from unauthorized tire dump sites; ~~((and))~~

(2) To accomplish the other purposes of RCW 70.95.020(5); and

(3) To fund the study authorized in section 2 of this 1988 act.

In spending funds in the account under this section, the department of ecology shall identify communities with the most severe problems with waste tires and provide funds first to those communities to remove accumulations of waste tires.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The waste tire advisory committee is established consisting of representatives of cities, counties, tire dealers, tire processors, the department of ecology, the department of community development, the department of transportation, and interested citizens to study and develop a report on methods to address the waste tire problem in Washington state. The governor shall appoint members to the advisory committee. The persons appointed to the committee shall elect a chairperson and shall meet at the call of the chairperson. Members of the committee shall not receive compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(2) The department shall provide staff support for the committee.

(3) The committee's report shall include recommendations on the following:

(a) The adequacy of current waste tire programs and recommendations for changes;

(b) The geographical distribution and number of existing tire dumps and collection sites;

(c) Financial responsibility requirements needed to cover tire collectors and processors;

(d) The optimum number and location of collection sites to facilitate the processing of waste tires;

(e) Alternative methods, including the costs, of collecting waste tires that are in small tire dumps and from persons or businesses that generate waste tires;

(f) The options for recycling waste tires including the current uses of recycled waste tires and the feasibility of developing future uses;

(g) Methods to establish reliable sources of waste tires for users of waste tires;

(h) The types of facilities in this state that can use waste tires as a fuel source, the cost of equipment needed to modify existing types of facilities, the cost of test burns, the feasibility of operating each type of facility using waste tires as a fuel source, and the locations of those facilities; and

(i) The establishment of a state-wide waste tire collection system.

(2) The report shall be submitted to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by December 1, 1988.

(3) This section shall expire January 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 4 through 6 of this act.

(1) "Storage" or "storing" means the placing of more than eight hundred waste tires in a manner that does not constitute final disposal of the waste tires.

(2) "Transportation" or "transporting" means picking up or transporting waste tires for the purpose of storage or final disposal.

(3) "Waste tires" means tires that are no longer suitable for their original intended purpose because of wear, damage, or defect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Any person engaged in the business of transporting or storing waste tires shall be licensed by the department. To obtain a license, each applicant must:

(1) Provide assurances that the applicant is in compliance with this chapter and the rules regarding waste tire storage and transportation; and

(2) Post a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars in favor of the state of Washington. In lieu of the bond, the applicant may submit financial assurances acceptable to the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Any person who transports or stores waste tires without a license in violation of section 4 of this act shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished under RCW 9A.20.020(2).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. No business may enter into a contract for:

(1) Transportation of waste tires with an unlicensed waste tire transporter; or

(2) Waste tire storage with an unlicensed owner or operator of a waste tire storage site.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Sections 3 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 70.95 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "tires;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 70.95.530; adding new sections to chapter 70.95 RCW; creating a new section; and prescribing penalties."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 8028 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after line 7 and insert the following:

"WHEREAS, Congress passed the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area Act to protect the resources and support the economy of the Columbia River Gorge; and

WHEREAS, Congress authorized construction of a new navigation lock at Bonneville Lock and Dam within the Scenic Area; and

WHEREAS, Construction of the new navigation lock will produce 4.7 million cubic yards of spoil material; and

WHEREAS, Congress failed to provide for recreational development on the Bonneville Pool at the time of construction of the dam, as was provided at other Columbia and Snake River dam projects; and

WHEREAS, Public access to the Columbia River in the Scenic Area is severely limited by highway and rail line and by the topography of the Gorge; and

WHEREAS, The five port districts on the Bonneville Pool and other agencies have proposed uses for all 4.7 million cubic yards of material produced by construction of the new lock; and

WHEREAS, The proposed uses would improve public access to the Columbia River and enhance the economy of the Gorge;

NOW, THEREFORE, Your Memorialists respectfully pray that: (1) Congress and the Army Corps of Engineers designate sites in the National Scenic Area as the sole eligible recipients of remaining spoil material from construction of the new navigation lock and of spoil material from other Corps projects on the Bonneville Pool;

(2) Congress and the Army Corps of Engineers assign highest priority to sites identified by the port districts on the Bonneville Pool and to sites where deposition would improve recreational access or wildlife habitat so long as those sites are found by the Columbia Gorge Commission and the Secretary of Agriculture to be consistent with the purposes of the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area Act, P.L. 99-663; and

(3) The spoils be delivered to the designated sites at no cost to agencies which own or manage the sites.

BE IT RESOLVED, That copies of this Memorial be immediately transmitted to the Honorable Ronald Reagan, President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and each member of Congress from the State of Washington."

and the amendment and the joint memorial are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MOTION

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

The House refuses to recede from its amendment to SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6238 and asks the Senate for a conference thereon. The Speaker has appointed the following members as Conferees: Representatives Rust, Valle and Walker.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate granted the request of the House for a conference on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6238 and the House amendment thereto.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6238 and the House amendment thereto: Senators Barr, Owen and Metcalf.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5558, and the pending House amendments, deferred March 8, 1988.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Saling, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 5558 is a measure which would authorize recipients of the Washington Scholars Award who choose to attend an independent college or university in this state to receive grants, on a yearly basis, not to exceed the yearly, full-time, resident, tuition and fees in effect at Washington State University; establishes minimum criteria for receipt of the grants and defines 'independent college or university.'

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives would also authorize recipients of the Washington Scholars Award who choose to attend an independent college or university in this state to receive grants, on a yearly basis, not to exceed the yearly, full-time, resident, tuition and fees in effect at the state-funded research universities; establishes minimum criteria for receipt of the grants, defines 'independent college or university;' and permits recipients of the grants to transfer between public and independent colleges of universities.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do not change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is not well taken."

The amendments by the House of Representatives were ruled in order.

MOTION

Senator Saling moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5558.

MOTION

Senator Smitherman moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5558.

Excused: Senator Fleming - 1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6376, as amended by the House on page 2, lines 13 and 24, but without the House amendment on page 1, line 24, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

The House suspended the rules, receded from its amendment No. 314 to the Human Services Committee amendment and passed SENATE BILL NO. 6675 with the following Committee on Human Service amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 74.21 RCW to read as follows:

The family independence program implementation plan submitted to the legislature pursuant to RCW 74.21.140 and 74.21.200 is approved. The governor or the governor's designee is authorized to sign and complete all necessary agreements with the federal government, provided that nothing in the agreements is inconsistent with chapter 74.21 RCW.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 434, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.21.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature hereby establishes as state policy the goal of economic independence for employable adults receiving public assistance, through employment, training, and education. The legislature finds that children living in families with incomes below the needs standard have reduced opportunities for physical and intellectual development. A family's economic future is frequently not improved by the current program.

Therefore, in order to break the cycle of poverty and dependence, a family independence program is established. Participating families are to receive benefits under this program at no less than they would otherwise have been entitled to receive.

The legislature finds that the state has a vital interest in ensuring that citizens who are in economic need are provided appropriate financial assistance. It is the intent of the legislature to maintain the existing partnership between state and federal government and that this program remain part of the federal welfare entitlement program. The legislature seeks federal authority for a five-year demonstration project and recognizes that waivers and congressional action may be required to achieve our purpose. The legislature does not seek a block grant approach to welfare.

The legislature recognizes that any program intended to assist new and current public assistance recipients will be more likely to succeed when the state, private sector, and recipients work together.

The legislature also recognizes the value of building on successful programs that utilize the development of networking and mentoring strategies to assist public assistance recipients to gain self-sufficiency. The legislature further encourages public-private cooperation in the areas of job readiness training, education, job training, and work opportunities, including community-based organizations as service providers in these areas through contractual relationships.

The legislature finds that the goal of economic independence requires increased efforts to assist parents in exercising their children's right to economic support from absent parents.

The legislature recognizes the substantial participation in the workforce of women with preschool children, and the difficulty in reentering employment after long absences.

The legislature further recognizes that public assistance recipients can play a major role in setting their own goals.

The objectives of this chapter are to assure that: The maximum number of recipients of public assistance become independent and self-sufficient through employment, training, and education; caseloads be correspondingly reduced on a long-term basis; financial incentives be available to recipients participating in job readiness, education, training, and work programs; the number of children growing up in poverty be substantially reduced; and unemployed recipients be afforded a basic level of financial and medical assistance consistent with the state's financial capabilities.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 434, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.21.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The executive committee shall establish a family opportunity advisory council in each of the department's regions to make recommendations on the social services, procedures, and income maintenance operations used in the family independence program. The councils shall also assist in providing mentors, mutual self-help, and information on alternatives to welfare dependency. The councils shall include: (a) Individuals currently receiving assistance; (b) individuals who have received public assistance in the past but have subsequently achieved economic independence; and (c) persons who are board members or employees of nonprofit organizations providing services of the types offered to family independence program recipients, including those with experience in developing self-esteem and individual motivation. A regional advisory council may establish panels representing specific geographic areas within the region.

(2) Each advisory council shall nominate three persons from which the executive committee shall elect one person from each region to be a member of the advisory committee authorized by RCW 74.21.050. Appointments shall be for a term of two years. Terms may be renewed for one additional two-year term. Three regional appointments shall initially be for a term of one year. The regional representatives shall constitute the consumer and enrollee representatives required by 74.21.050.

(3) Recipients and former recipients may be paid a per diem rate established by the executive committee. Members may be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Recipients and former recipients may also be reimbursed for dependent care expenses required to permit their participation in the family opportunity advisory councils, the executive committee, and the family independence program advisory committee.

(4) The department may, within available funds, provide grants to each family opportunity council to assist and support their activities and to assist in the recruitment and training of volunteer mentors.

Sec. 4. Section 14, chapter 434, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.21.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) By January 1, 1988, the executive committee shall submit to the legislature:

(a) A child-care plan, which may include creative solutions to assist enrollees in making child-care arrangements;

(b) In consultation with the superintendent of public instruction, a plan for assisting high school students who are parents or pregnant to remain in school or complete their high school education;

(c) A plan for motivating those who are discouraged to seek self-sufficiency through work, education, or training;

(d) An employment plan for enrollees; and

(e) A plan for phased-in implementation of the family independence program.

(2) By January 1, 1988, the legislative budget committee, after consultation with the executive committee, shall submit to the legislature:

(a) An evaluation plan satisfactory to the federal government, including a plan for analysis, within available funds, of:

(i) The costs and effectiveness of the family independence program;

(ii) The extent to which education and training opportunities have led to employment and economic independence;

(iii) The extent to which support services have been provided for such education and training opportunities;

(iv) The impact of support services, training opportunities, and employment on the well-being of the children and families of enrollees;

(v) ~~The impact of the family independence program on the labor market opportunities available to nonenrollees;~~

(vi) The impact of the family independence program on the early childhood education assistance program;

~~((vii))~~ (vi) A comparison of the family independence program enrollees with a sample of aid to families with dependent children recipients entering assistance between July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1988, to determine the characteristics of the caseloads of the family independence program and the aid to families with dependent children program, including demographic characteristics, employment, training, and educational histories, spells on assistance, and reasons for entry onto and exit from assistance;

~~((viii))~~ (vi) Such administrative and operational factors as may be requested by the executive committee;

~~((ix))~~ (viii) A longitudinal study over time of a sample of public assistance recipients or persons at risk of becoming eligible for assistance, to determine the causes of public dependency and the impact of changes in the economy or of public programs on dependency, work, or other relevant behaviors of the sample population.

(3) The legislative budget committee shall cause the evaluation plan to be implemented ~~((subject to legislative approval))~~ as approved by the legislative budget committee in a manner that will insure the independence of the evaluation through appropriate arrangements, which may include contracts, with objective evaluators. The evaluation plan and all evaluation products shall receive the review and comment of evaluation advisory groups to be convened by the Washington Institute of Public Policy and which include representatives of the executive committee, appropriate legislative committee staffs, persons from the state's higher education institutions, staff members of the department and the employment security department, recipients, and former recipients. The reviews shall consider relevance to state policy and budget concerns, methodological procedure, implementation, and results.

(4) The first report of this evaluation shall be submitted to the legislature no later than ~~((November 16, 1988))~~ December 1, 1989, and annually thereafter, with a final report due no later than November 15, 1993.

Sec. 5. Section 25, chapter 434, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.21.904 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall expire on June 30, ~~((1989))~~ 1993, unless extended by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Kiskaddon moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 6675.

MOTION

Senator Wojahn moved that the Senate concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 6675 with the exception of subsection (v) of Section 4.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. I believe the motion to concur in the amendment would take precedence."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that your version is correct."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Wojahn: "Mr. President, a point of order. What I would like to know is, do I get to argue my position, Mr. President?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "You may state your beliefs."
Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Wojahn moved that the question be divided.
Debate ensued.

At 9:55 a.m., the President declared the Senate to be at ease.
The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence in the Senate Chamber of the 1988 Skagit Valley Tulip Festival Royalty and appointed Senators McMullen, Metcalf and Stratton to escort the honored guests to the Senate Rostrum.

The President introduced four-year old Genevieve Hayton, the Tulip Festival Poster Girl and her six-year old sister, Jessie Hayton, both bearing baskets of Skagit Valley tulips.

Senator McMullen gave special thanks to the promoters of the Tulip Festival and introduced Ms. Kate Skeldon, executive director of the Mt. Vernon Chamber of Commerce.

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Ms. Skeldon to address the Senate.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McMullen, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8743

by Senators McMullen, Rasmussen and Metcalf

WHEREAS, The beautiful Skagit Valley is the tulip capital of the Northwest; and WHEREAS, Every April the tulips are in bloom celebrating the beginning of spring; and

WHEREAS, The Skagit Valley begins the festival season in Washington State with the Skagit Valley Tulip Festival; and

WHEREAS, This year's fifth annual event will run from April 2 through April 10, with the Festival focusing on Sedro Woolley and Burlington the first weekend and Anacortes, LaConner, and Mount Vernon the second weekend; and

WHEREAS, Nearly a half of a million people visited the Festival last year, bringing pleasure and excitement to visitors and a strong economic impact to Skagit Valley; and

WHEREAS, The American Bus Association has designated the Skagit Valley Tulip Festival as one of the top one hundred events in North America in 1988, bringing national attention to Skagit Valley; and

WHEREAS, Visitors will be overwhelmed by more than one thousand five hundred acres of tulips reflecting all the colors of the rainbow; and

WHEREAS, The taste of Skagit food fair, the blue grass music festival, the Paccar open house, the Ecumenical Easter Sunrise Services, the 10K run, and the tenth annual Slug Run highlight the event;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate salute the five communities of Skagit County and the Chambers of Commerce for their pending Fifth Annual Skagit County Tulip Festival; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we commend those community leaders responsible for the success of this important event and that we encourage citizens from across Washington State to take the time to enjoy the Skagit Valley Tulip Festival; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate issue this resolution in recognition of the Skagit Valley Tulip Festival, April 2 through April 10, 1988.

The honored guests were escorted from the Senate Chamber and the committee was discharged.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 6675 and the pending House amendment and the pending motion by Senator Wojahn to divide the question, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes Senator Wojahn's point is well taken. The precedent established in the Senate has been to allow the members to concur with part of a House striking amendment.

"The President, therefore, believes that the motion is in order."

The question was divided.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Wojahn that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 6675, with the exception of subsection (v) of Section 4.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Wojahn that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 6675, with the exception of subsection (v) of Section 4.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SHB 1302

Establishing penalties for sexual offenses against developmentally disabled persons.

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 5, chapter 14, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 118, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9A.44.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of rape in the second degree when, under circumstances not constituting rape in the first degree, the person engages in sexual intercourse with another person:

(a) By forcible compulsion; ~~((or))~~

(b) When the victim is incapable of consent by reason of being physically helpless or mentally incapacitated; or

(c) When the victim is developmentally disabled and the perpetrator is a person who is not married to the victim and who has supervisory authority over the victim.

(2) Rape in the second degree is a class B felony.

Sec. 2. Section 9A.88.100, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter ... (SHB 1333), Laws of 1988 and RCW 9A.44.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of indecent liberties when he knowingly causes another person who is not his spouse to have sexual contact with him or another:

(a) By forcible compulsion; or

(b) When the other person is incapable of consent by reason of being mentally defective, mentally incapacitated, or physically helpless; or

(c) When the victim is developmentally disabled and the perpetrator is a person who is not married to the victim and who has supervisory authority over the victim.

(2) Indecent liberties is a class B felony.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 14, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter ... (SHB 1333), Laws of 1988 and RCW 9A.44.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Sexual intercourse" (a) has its ordinary meaning and occurs upon any penetration, however slight, and

(b) Also means any penetration of the vagina or anus however slight, by an object, when committed on one person by another, whether such persons are of the same or opposite sex, except when such penetration is accomplished for medically recognized treatment or diagnostic purposes, and

(c) Also means any act of sexual contact between persons involving the sex organs of one person and the mouth or anus of another whether such persons are of the same or opposite sex.

(2) "Sexual contact" means any touching of the sexual or other intimate parts of a person done for the purpose of gratifying sexual desire of either party.

(3) "Married" means one who is legally married to another, but does not include a person who is living separate and apart from his or her spouse and who has filed in an appropriate court for legal separation or for dissolution of his or her marriage.

(4) "Mental incapacity" is that condition existing at the time of the offense which prevents a person from understanding the nature or consequences of the act of sexual intercourse whether that condition is produced by illness, defect, the influence of a substance or from some other cause(;;).

(5) "Physically helpless" means a person who is unconscious or for any other reason is physically unable to communicate unwillingness to an act(;;).

(6) "Forcible compulsion" means physical force which overcomes resistance, or a threat, express or implied, that places a person in fear of death or physical injury to herself or himself or another person, or in fear that she or he or another person will be kidnapped(;;).

(7) "Consent" means that at the time of the act of sexual intercourse there are actual words or conduct indicating freely given agreement to have sexual intercourse(;;).

(8) "Significant relationship" means a situation in which the perpetrator is:

(a) A person who undertakes the responsibility, professionally or voluntarily, to provide education, health, welfare, or organized recreational activities principally for minors; or

(b) A person who in the course of his or her employment supervises minors.

(9) "Abuse of a supervisory position" means a direct or indirect threat or promise to use authority to the detriment or benefit of a minor.

(10) "Developmentally disabled," for purposes of RCW 9A.44.050(1)(c) and 9A.44.100(1)(c), means a person as defined in RCW 71.20.016.

(11) "Person with supervisory authority," for purposes of RCW 9A.44.050(1)(c) and 9A.44.100(1)(c), means any proprietor or employee of any public or private care or treatment facility who directly supervises developmentally disabled persons at the facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 9A.88 RCW to read as follows:

Patronizing a prostitute. (1) A person is guilty of patronizing a prostitute if:

(a) Pursuant to a prior understanding, he or she pays a fee to another person as compensation for such person or a third person having engaged in sexual conduct with him or her; or

(b) He or she pays or agrees to pay a fee to another person pursuant to an understanding that in return therefor such person will engage in sexual conduct with him or her; or

(c) He or she solicits or requests another person to engage in sexual conduct with him or her in return for a fee.

(2) For purposes of this section, "sexual conduct" has the meaning given in RCW 9A.88.030.

(3) Patronizing a prostitute is a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Section 4 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 1988."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 1302 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SHB 1271

Revising provisions relating to the department of corrections.

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Adopt the Senate Committee on Health Care and Corrections amendment to page 12, after line 9, and the corresponding title amendment:

Reject the amendment by Senator Owen to page 9, after line 14

Adopt the following amendments:

On page 9, after line 24 of the Substitute House Bill, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The training center general population housing units at the Washington correction center at Shelton shall be subject to an inmate population limit of no more than one hundred fifteen percent of the rated capacity. However, the governor may declare an emergency and increase by fifteen percent for a twelve-month period of time the population limitation of the training center general population housing units."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On page 12, after line 9 of the Substitute House Bill, insert the following:

"Sec. 20. Section 1, chapter 402, Laws of 1987 and section 2, chapter 456, Laws of 1987 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer ((of)) prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay a fine and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44-.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer ((of)) prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense committed before July 1, 1987, and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of social and health services for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment program at the location determined by the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee, only if the report indicates that the offender is amenable to the treatment program provided at these facilities. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program. Any offender who has escaped from the treatment program shall be referred back to the sentencing court.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court. The sentencing court shall commit the offender to the department of corrections to serve the balance of the term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of the term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer ((of)) prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of the community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

After June 30, 1993, this subsection (b) shall cease to have effect.

(c) When an offender commits any felony sexual offense on or after July 1, 1987, and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, request the department of corrections to evaluate whether the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department.

Except for an offender who has been convicted of a violation of RCW 9A.44.040 or 9A.44.050, if the offender completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the department of corrections may request the court to convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and to place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer ((of)) prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

Nothing in (c) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced for a sexual offense committed prior to July 1, 1987.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department of corrections or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

(15) As a part of any sentence, the court may impose and enforce an order that relates directly to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, prohibiting the offender from having any contact with other specified individuals or a specific class of individuals for a period not to exceed the maximum allowable sentence for the crime, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community supervision.

(16) In any sentence of partial confinement, the court may require the defendant to serve the partial confinement in work release.

Sec. 21. Section 17, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A term of confinement ordered in a sentence pursuant to this chapter shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented him or herself from ((supervision)) confinement without the prior approval of the entity in whose custody the offender has been placed. A term of partial confinement shall be tolled during any period of time spent in total confinement pursuant to a new conviction or pursuant to sanctions for violation of sentence conditions on a separate felony conviction.

(2) A term of supervision ordered in a sentence pursuant to this chapter shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented himself or herself from supervision without prior approval of the entity under whose supervision the offender has been placed.

(3) Any period of supervision shall be tolled during any period of time the offender is in confinement for any reason. However, if an offender is detained pursuant to RCW 9.94A.195 and is later found not to have violated a condition or requirement of supervision, time spent in confinement due to such detention shall not toll the period of supervision.

(4) For confinement sentences, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the entity responsible for the confinement. For sentences involving supervision, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the court, based on reports from the entity responsible for the supervision.

Sec. 22. Section 22, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.383 are each amended to read as follows:

On all sentences of confinement for one year or less, the court may impose up to one year of community supervision. ~~(For confinement sentences, unless otherwise ordered by the court, the period of community supervision begins at the date of release from confinement. For non-confinement sentences, the period of community supervision begins at the date of entry of the judgment and sentence.)~~ An offender shall be on community supervision as of the date of sentencing. However, during the time for which the offender is in total or partial confinement pursuant to the sentence or a violation of the sentence, the period of community supervision shall toll.

Sec. 23. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 5, chapter 456, Laws of 1987 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as if they were prior convictions for the purpose of the offender score: PROVIDED, That if the court enters a finding that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime. Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently. Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(e) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390. "Same criminal conduct," as used in this subsection, means two or more crimes that require the same criminal intent, are committed at the same time and place, and involve the same victim. This definition does not apply in cases involving vehicular assault or vehicular homicide if the victims occupied the same vehicle. However, the sentencing judge may consider multiple victims in such instances as an aggravating circumstance under RCW 9.94A.390.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's criminal history in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run concurrently with any felony sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the current sentence expressly orders that they be served consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences. Except for exceptional sentences as authorized under RCW 9.94A.120(2), if two or more sentences that run consecutively include periods of community supervision, the aggregate of the community supervision period shall not exceed twenty-four months.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Increased sanctions authorized by sections 20 through 23 of this act are applicable only to those persons committing offenses after the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Sections 20 through 23 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

RE: ESHB 1420

Revising provisions on property taxes.

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that, due to statutory and constitutional limitations, the interdependence of the regular property tax levies of the state, counties, county road districts, cities and towns, and junior taxing districts can cause significant reductions in the otherwise authorized levies of those taxing districts, resulting in serious disruptions to essential services provided by those taxing districts. The purpose of this act is to avoid unnecessary reductions in regular property tax revenue without exceeding existing statutory and constitutional tax limitations on cumulative regular property tax levy rates. The legislature declares that it is a purpose of the state, counties, county road districts, cities and towns, public hospital districts, library districts, fire protection districts, metropolitan park districts, and other taxing districts to participate in the methods provided by this act by which revenue levels supporting the services provided by all taxing districts might be maintained.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 107, Laws of 1986 and RCW 39.67.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any agreement or contract between two taxing districts other than the state which is otherwise authorized by law may be made contingent upon a particular property tax levy rate of an identified taxing district other than the state where such rate affects the regular property tax rate of one of the parties to the contract and therefore affects the party's resources with which to perform under the contract. The governing body of every taxing district that could have its tax levy adversely affected by such a contract shall be notified about the contract.

~~((This section shall expire December 31, 1988:))~~

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 107, Laws of 1986 and RCW 39.67.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any taxing district other than the state may transfer funds to another taxing district other than the state where the regular property tax levy rate of the second district may affect the regular property tax levy rate of the first district and where such transfer is part of an agreement whereby proration or reduction of property taxes is lessened or avoided. The governing body of every taxing district that could have its tax levy adversely affected by such an agreement shall be notified about the agreement.

~~((This section shall expire December 31, 1988:))~~

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 107, Laws of 1986 and RCW 84.55.092 are each amended to read as follows:

The regular property tax ~~((levies))~~ levy for each taxing district other than the state ~~((for taxes due in 1987 through 1991))~~ may be set at the amount which would ~~((otherwise))~~ be allowed otherwise under this chapter if the regular property tax levy for the district for taxes due in prior years beginning with 1986 ~~((and 1987))~~ had been set at the full amount allowed under this chapter.

~~((This section shall expire December 31, 1991:))~~ The purpose of this section is to remove the incentive for a taxing district to maintain its tax levy at the maximum level permitted under this chapter, and to protect the future levy capacity of a taxing district that reduces its tax levy below the level that it otherwise could impose under this chapter, by removing the adverse consequences to future levy capacities resulting from such levy reductions.

Sec. 5, Section 134, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.043 are each amended to read as follows:

Within and subject to the limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 as amended, the regular ad valorem tax levies upon real and personal property by the taxing districts hereafter named shall be as follows:

(1) Levies of the senior taxing districts shall be as follows: (a) The levy by the state shall not exceed three dollars and sixty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value adjusted to the state equalized value in accordance with the indicated ratio fixed by the state department of revenue to be used exclusively for the support of the common schools; (b) the levy by any county shall not exceed one dollar and eighty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value; (c) the levy ((or)) by any road district shall not exceed two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value; and (d) the levy by ((or-for)) any city or town shall not exceed three dollars and thirty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value((:-PROVIDED FURTHER, That counties of the fifth class and under are)). However any county is hereby authorized to increase its levy from one dollar and eighty cents to a rate not to exceed two dollars and forty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for general county purposes ((and from one dollar and fifty-seven and one-half cents to two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for county road purposes)) if the total ((levy)) levies for both ((purposes does)) the county and any road district within the county do not exceed four dollars and five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value((:-PROVIDED FURTHER, That counties of the fourth and the ninth class are hereby authorized to levy two dollars and two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value until such time as the junior taxing agencies are utilizing all the dollar rates available to them: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the total property tax levy authorized by law without a vote of the people shall not exceed nine dollars and fifteen cents per thousand dollars of assessed value)), and no other taxing district has its levy reduced as a result of the increased county levy.

(2) Except as provided in RCW 84.52.100, the aggregate levies of junior taxing districts and senior taxing districts, other than the state, shall not exceed five dollars and fifty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation. The term "junior taxing districts" includes all taxing districts other than the state, counties, road districts, cities, towns, port districts, and public utility districts. The limitations provided in this subsection shall not apply to: (a) Levies at the rates provided by existing law by or for any port or public utility district ((shall not be included in the limitation set forth by this proviso:

Nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates provided by existing law by or for any port or power district)); (b) excess property tax levies authorized in Article VII, section 2 of the state Constitution; (c) levies for acquiring conservation futures as authorized under RCW 84.34.230; and (d) levies for emergency medical care or emergency medical services imposed under RCW 84.52.069.

(3) It is the intent of the legislature that the provisions of this section shall supersede all conflicting provisions of law including ((section 24, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and section 8, chapter 124, Laws of 1972 ex. sess)) RCW 84.52.050.

Sec. 6, Section 7, chapter 138, Laws of 1987 and RCW 84.52.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The governing body of any library district, public hospital district, metropolitan park district, or fire protection district may provide for the submission of a ballot proposition to the voters of the taxing district authorizing the taxing district to maintain its otherwise authorized tax levy rate, and authorizing an increase in the cumulative regular property tax limitation established in RCW 84.52.043 of ((nine)) five dollars and ((fifteen)) fifty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation within the taxing district, as provided in this section. A fire protection district may use this authority to increase its regular property tax levy up to fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

(2) A resolution by a governing body, requesting that a special election be called to submit such a ballot proposition to the voters, must be transmitted to the county legislative authority of the county, or county legislative authorities of the counties, within which the taxing district is located, at least forty-five days before the special election date at which the ballot proposition is submitted. The ballot proposition shall be worded substantially as follows:

"Shall the cumulative limitation on most regular property tax rates be increased by an amount not exceeding thirty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation for a five consecutive year period allowing (insert the name of the taxing district) to maintain its otherwise statutory authorized property tax rate?"

The ballot proposition for a fire protection district shall be worded substantially as follows:

"Shall the cumulative limitation on most regular property tax rates be increased by an amount not exceeding thirty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation for a five consecutive year period allowing (insert the name of the taxing district) to permit the fire protection district to impose its property tax at a value up to fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation?"

Approval of this ballot proposition by a simple majority vote shall authorize the following for the succeeding five consecutive year period: (a) Property tax rates of junior taxing districts are calculated first as if this proposition had not been approved; (b) subject to the one hundred six percent limitation, the regular property tax rate of the taxing district receiving such authorization is increased to a level not exceeding the lesser of: (i) Its maximum statutory authorized regular property tax rate; or (ii) whatever tax rate it otherwise would have been able to impose plus an additional thirty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation; and (c) the cumulative property tax rate limitation is increased within the boundaries of the taxing district receiving this authorization to an amount equal to ((nine)) five dollars and ((fifteen)) fifty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation plus the increased amount of the regular levy rate of this taxing district, but not to exceed ((nine)) five dollars and ((fifty)) ninety cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

(3) If two or more taxing districts that occupy a portion of the same territory receive such approval, the additional authorized taxing capacity above ((nine)) five dollars and ((fifteen)) fifty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation shall be distributed among these taxing districts by adjusting their levy rate requests in the same manner and under the same conditions as if they were the only taxing districts in the area subject to adjustment of their property tax rates and the levy rate adjustments were being made with the cumulative limitation of ((nine)) five dollars and ((fifteen)) fifty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

(4) Levies authorized under RCW 84.52.069 are not subject to the rate adjustments and the ((nine)) five dollar and ((fifty)) ninety cent per thousand dollar of assessed valuation cumulative limitation on regular property tax rates established by this section.

Sec. 7. Section 84.52.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 255, Laws of 1987 and RCW 84.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as is permitted under RCW 84.55.050, all taxes shall be levied or voted in specific amounts.

The rate percent of all taxes for state and county purposes, and purposes of taxing districts coextensive with the county, shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the county, as shown by the completed tax rolls of the county, and the rate percent of all taxes levied for purposes of taxing districts within any county shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the taxing districts respectively.

When a county assessor finds that the aggregate rate of tax levy on any property, that is subject to the limitations set forth in RCW 84.52.043 or 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, exceeds the limitations provided in either of these sections, the assessor shall recompute and establish a consolidated levy in the following manner:

(1) The full certified rates of tax levy for state, county, county road district, and city or town purposes shall be extended on the tax rolls in amounts not exceeding the limitations established by law (~~(- PROVIDED, That in the event of a levy made pursuant to RCW 84.34.230, the rates of levy for county and county road district purposes shall be reduced in such uniform percentages as will result in a consolidated levy by such taxing districts which will be no greater on any property than a consolidated levy by such taxing districts would be if the levy had not been made pursuant to RCW 84.34.230)~~), subject to subsection (2)(e) of this section; however any state levy shall take precedence over all other levies and shall not be reduced for any purpose other than that required by RCW 84.55.010; and

(2) The certified rates of tax levy subject to these limitations by all junior taxing districts imposing taxes on such property shall be reduced or eliminated as follows to bring the consolidated levy of taxes on such property within the provisions of these limitations:

(a) First, the certified property tax levy rates of those junior taxing districts authorized under RCW 36.68.525, 36.69.145, and 67.38.130 shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated;

(b) Second, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates of flood control zone districts shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated;

(c) Third, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates of all other junior taxing districts, other than fire protection districts, public hospital districts, metropolitan park districts, and library districts, shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated;

(d) Fourth, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates authorized to fire protection districts under RCW 52.16.140 and 52.16.160 shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated; (~~and~~)

(e) Fifth, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates authorized for cities and towns, fire protection districts under RCW 52.16.130, public hospital districts, metropolitan park districts, and library districts shall be adjusted as provided in section 8 of this 1988 act; and

(f) Sixth, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates authorized to fire protection districts under RCW 52.16.130, and the certified property tax levy rates of public hospital districts, metropolitan park districts, and library districts, shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 84.52 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In any county, if, after any reduction in levy rates required by RCW 84.52.010(2)(a) through (d), the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds the limitations in RCW 84.52.043 or 84.52.050, then the department pursuant to rules shall direct the county assessor to adjust the regular property tax levy rates in the following manner:

(a) First, the assessor determines a first preliminary rate pursuant to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f).

(b) Second, the assessor determines a second preliminary rate which is the additional rate, if any, permitted by RCW 84.52.100.

(i) If the preliminary rates together are sufficient to permit all rates subject to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) to be levied without reduction, then the assessor shall extend on the tax rolls the full certified rates pursuant to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) and 84.52.100.

(ii) If the preliminary rates together are not sufficient to permit all rates subject to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) to be levied without reduction pursuant to both RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) and 84.52.100, the assessor shall reduce the rate of the taxing district subject to RCW 84.52.010(2)(e) with the smallest assessed valuation such that, after first allowing for any additional rate permitted by RCW 84.52.100, there is no reduction of the rates under RCW 84.52.010(2)(f). Where the reduction of the levy of a taxing district is not sufficient, the taxing district with the next smallest assessed valuation shall have its levy reduced under this subsection until there is no reduction of rates under RCW 84.52.010(2)(f). The assessor shall then extend on the tax rolls the rates derived pursuant to this subsection (b)(ii).

(2) The taxing districts whose levies would have been reduced but for subsection (1) of this section shall pay to each district that had its levy so reduced pursuant to subsection (1) of this section a proportionate share of the reduced amount based on the amount by which each district would have had its total levy rate reduced if subsection (1) of this section were not in effect and the rates had been adjusted pursuant to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) and 84.52.100.

(a) In the case of a public hospital district, library district, fire protection district, or metropolitan park district whose levy is reduced under subsection (1) of this section, the district shall bear a proportionate share as if its rate were sufficient to collect its certified levy.

(b) In the case of a city or town that is annexed by a library district or a fire protection district, which city's or town's levy is reduced under this section, or is in a tax code area where a levy rate is reduced under this section, the city or town shall forgo receipt of, or pay to each district whose levy rate is reduced, ten percent of the amount which would otherwise be paid to the city or town from each district whose levy rate is not reduced as a result of subsection (1) of this section, collectively not to exceed one-half of the following amount: The assessed valuation of the reduced district multiplied by a rate equal to the city's or town's levy rate, calculated based on its certified levy request, plus the rate(s) of the annexing district(s) minus the rate the city or town would have been able to levy were it not annexed, not to exceed twenty-two and one-half cents.

(3) Fifty-five percent of the amount under subsection (2) of this section shall be distributed on or before May 31 of the tax collection year for which the levy is reduced and forty-five percent on or before November 30 of that year.

(4) This section shall expire on January 15, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department of revenue shall adopt such rules consistent with this act as shall be necessary or desirable to permit its effective administration. The rules shall provide how section 8 of this act shall apply to a taxing district that has received authorization to increase its levy according to RCW 84.52.100 and use the method that will be the least costly to all taxing districts involved.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is created in the custody of the state treasurer an account to be known as the "small county assistance account." Effective July 1, 1988, and notwithstanding RCW 43.84.092, one-half of the investment income earned on moneys in the local sales and use tax account created by RCW 82.14.050 and which has not been distributed according to RCW 82.14.060 shall be placed into this account. Any moneys in the account on December 31, 1989, shall be transferred to the general fund.

The state treasurer shall disburse moneys from this account, upon certification by the director of revenue, to each fifth class and smaller county that contracts with, or transfers funds to, a taxing district or districts under RCW 39.67.010 or 39.67.020 if, as a result of the contracts or transfers, the county is able to increase its county-wide general tax levy above one dollar and eighty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation, in accordance with RCW 84.52.043.

Each eligible county shall receive an amount of money from this account that is equal to the amount that the county transfers or pays to the other taxing district or districts. One-half of the distributions shall be made to each eligible county on or before April 30, 1989, and one-half of the distributions shall be made to each eligible county on or before October 31, 1989. These amounts shall be proportionally reduced if the moneys in the account are insufficient to reimburse the full amount that these counties transferred or paid to such taxing districts. Distributions from this account are not subject to appropriation.

Each county that so transfers or pays moneys to taxing districts shall provide evidence of such arrangements to the director of revenue on or before January 31, 1989. The director of revenue shall certify to the state treasurer each county that is eligible for such disbursements and the amount that the county so transferred or paid.

This section expires January 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the general fund to the small county assistance account to be used exclusively for purposes specified in section 10 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 52.04 RCW to read as follows:

Any attempted annexation in 1987 and thereafter by a fire protection district of contiguous territory, that is located in a county other than the county in which the fire protection district was located, is validated where the annexation would have occurred if the territory had been located in the same county as the fire protection district. The effective date of such annexations occurring in 1987 shall be February 1, 1988, for purposes of establishing the boundaries of taxing districts for purposes of imposing property taxes as provided in RCW 84.09.030.

Any reference to a county official of the county in which a fire protection district is located or proposed to be located shall be deemed to refer to the appropriate county official of each county in which the fire protection district is located or proposed to be located.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "taxes;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 39.67.010, 39.67.020, 84.55.092, 84.52.043, 84.52.100, and 84.52.010; adding a new section to chapter 84.52 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 52.04 RCW; creating new sections; and making an appropriation."

Signed by Senators Cantu, Garrett, Lee; Representatives Appelwick, Haugen, Ferguson.

On page 7 of the House Bill as amended by the Senate Committee Amendment, after section 16, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. LEGISLATIVE INTENT. The legislature intends, by enacting this 1988 Administrative Procedure Act, to clarify the existing law of administrative procedure, to achieve greater consistency with other states and the federal government in administrative procedure, and to provide greater public and legislative access to administrative decision making. The legislature intends that to the greatest extent possible and unless this chapter clearly requires otherwise, current agency practices and court decisions interpreting the Administrative Procedure Act in effect before the effective date of this act shall remain in effect. The legislature also intends that the courts should interpret provisions of this chapter consistently with decisions of other courts interpreting similar provisions of other states, the federal government, and model acts.

PART IX.
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 101. DEFINITIONS. Section 5, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 and RCW 34.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section shall apply throughout this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Adjudicative proceedings" means a proceeding before an agency in which an opportunity for hearing before that agency is required by statute or constitutional right before or after the issuance of an order by the agency. Adjudicative proceedings also include all cases of licensing and rate making in which an application for a license or rate change is denied except as limited by RCW 66.08.150, or a license is revoked, suspended, or modified, or in which the granting of an application is contested by a person having standing to contest under the law.

(2) "Agency" means any state board, commission, department, institution of higher education, or officer, authorized by law to make rules or to ((~~adjudicate contested cases~~)) conduct adjudicative proceedings, except those in the legislative or judicial branches, the governor, or the attorney general except to the extent otherwise required by law.

(3) "Agency action" means the implementation or enforcement of a statute, the adoption or application of an agency rule or order, the issuance, denial, or suspension of a license, the imposition of sanctions, or the granting or withholding of benefits.

Agency action does not include an agency decision regarding (a) contracting or procurement of goods, services, public works, and the purchase, lease, or acquisition by eminent domain of real estate, as well as all activities necessarily related to those functions, or (b) determinations as to the sufficiency of a showing of interest filed in support of a representation petition, or mediation or conciliation of labor disputes or arbitration of labor disputes under a collective bargaining law or similar statute, or (c) any sale, lease, contract, or other proprietary decision of the department of natural resources in the management of public lands, or (d) the granting of a license, franchise, or permission for the use of trademarks, symbols, and similar property owned or controlled by the agency.

(4) "Agency head" means the individual or body of individuals in whom the ultimate legal authority of the agency is vested by any provision of law. If the agency head is a body of individuals, a majority of those individuals constitutes the agency head.

(5) "Entry" of an order means the signing of the order by all persons who are to sign the order, as an official act indicating that the order is to be effective.

(6) "Filing" of a document that is required to be filed with an agency means delivery of the document to a place designated by the agency by rule for receipt of official documents, or in the absence of such designation, at the office of the agency head.

(7) "Institutions of higher education" are the University of Washington, Washington State University, Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, Western Washington University, The Evergreen State College, the various community colleges, and the governing boards of each of the above, and the various colleges, divisions, departments, or offices authorized by the governing board of the institution involved to act for the institution, all of which are sometimes referred to in this chapter as "institutions."

(8) "Interpretive statement" means a written expression of the opinion of an agency, entitled an interpretive statement by the agency head or its designee, as to the meaning of a statute or other provision of law, of a court decision, or of an agency order.

(9)(a) "License" means a franchise, permit, certification, approval, registration, charter, or similar form of authorization required by law, but does not include (i) a license required solely for revenue purposes, or (ii) a certification of an exclusive bargaining representative, or similar status, under a collective bargaining law or similar statute, or (iii) a license, franchise, or permission for use of trademarks, symbols, and similar property owned or controlled by the agency.

(b) "Licensing" includes the agency process respecting the grant, denial, renewal, revocation, suspension, annulment, withdrawal, or modification of a license.

(10) (a) "Order," without further qualification, means a written statement of particular applicability that finally determines the legal rights, duties, privileges, immunities, or other legal interests of a specific person or persons.

(b) "Order of adoption" means the official written statement by which an agency adopts, amends, or repeals a rule.

(11) "Party to agency proceedings," or "party" in a context so indicating, means:

(a) A person to whom the agency action is specifically directed; or

(b) A person named as a party to the agency proceeding or allowed to intervene or participate as a party in the agency proceeding.

(12) "Party to judicial review or civil enforcement proceedings," or "party" in a context so indicating, means:

(a) A person who files a petition for a judicial review or civil enforcement proceeding; or

(b) A person named as a party in a judicial review or civil enforcement proceeding, or allowed to participate as a party in a judicial review or civil enforcement proceeding.

(13) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental subdivision or unit thereof, or public or private organization or entity of any character, and includes another agency.

(14) "Policy statement" means a written description of the current approach of an agency, entitled a policy statement by the agency head or its designee, to implementation of a statute or other provision of law, of a court decision, or of an agency order, including where appropriate the agency's current practice, procedure, or method of action based upon that approach.

((2)) (15) "Rule" means any agency order, directive, or regulation of general applicability (a) the violation of which subjects a person to a penalty or administrative sanction; (b) which establishes, alters, or revokes any procedure, practice, or requirement relating to agency hearings; (c) which establishes, alters, or revokes any qualification or requirement relating to the enjoyment of benefits or privileges conferred by law; (d) which establishes, alters, or revokes any qualifications or standards for the issuance, suspension, or revocation of licenses to pursue any commercial activity, trade, or profession; or (e) which establishes, alters, or revokes any mandatory standards for any product or material which must be met before distribution or sale. The term includes the amendment or repeal of a prior rule, but does not include (i) statements concerning only the internal management of an agency and not affecting private rights or procedures available to the public, (ii) declaratory rulings issued pursuant to ((REW 34.04.080, as now or hereafter amended)) section 203 of this act, ((or)) (iii) traffic restrictions for motor vehicles, bicyclists, and pedestrians established by the secretary of transportation or his designee where notice of such restrictions is given by official traffic control devices, or (iv) rules of institutions of higher education involving standards of admission, academic advancement, academic credit, graduation and the granting of degrees, employment relationships, or fiscal processes.

((3)) "Contested case" means a proceeding before an agency in which an opportunity for a hearing before such agency is required by law or constitutional right prior or subsequent to the determination by the agency of the legal rights, duties, or privileges of specific parties. Contested cases shall also include all cases of licensing and rate-making in which an application for a license or rate change is denied except as limited by RCW 66.08.150, or a license is revoked, suspended, or modified, or in which the granting of an application is contested by a person having standing to contest under the law or agency rules.

(4) "License" includes the whole or part of any agency permit, certificate, approval, registration, charter, or any form of permission required by law, including agency rule, to engage in any activity, but does not include a license required solely for revenue purposes.

(5) "Licensing" includes the agency process respecting the or modification of a license.

(6)) (16) "Rules review committee" or "committee" means the joint administrative rules review committee created pursuant to ((REW 34.04.210)) section 601 of this act for the purpose of selectively reviewing existing and proposed rules of state agencies.

(17) "Rule making" means the process for formulation and adoption of a rule.

Sec. 102. SAVINGS—AUTHORITY OF AGENCIES TO COMPLY WITH CHAPTER—EFFECT OF SUBSEQUENT LEGISLATION. Section 24, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.940 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in ((the Administrative Procedure Act shall)) this chapter may be held to diminish the constitutional rights of any person or to limit or repeal additional requirements imposed by statute or otherwise recognized by law. Except as otherwise required by law, all requirements or privileges relating to evidence or procedure shall apply equally to agencies and persons. Every agency is granted all authority necessary to comply with the requirements of ((the Administrative Procedure Act)) this chapter through the issuance of rules or otherwise. No subsequent legislation shall be held to supersede or modify the provisions of ((the Administrative Procedure Act)) this chapter or its applicability to any agency except to the extent that such legislation shall do so expressly.

Sec. 103. EXCLUSIONS FROM CHAPTER OR PARTS OF CHAPTER. Section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 8, chapter 141, Laws of 1984 and RCW 34.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

((Except as provided under RCW 34.04.296;)) (1) This chapter shall not apply to:

(a) The state militia, or

~~(b) The board of ((prison terms and paroles, or any institution of higher education as defined in RCW 20B-19-020)) clemency and pardons, or~~

~~(c) The department of corrections or the indeterminate sentencing review board with respect to persons who are in their custody or are subject to the jurisdiction of those agencies.~~

~~(2) The provisions of ((RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130)) sections 401 through 522 of this act shall not apply ((to));~~

~~(a) To adjudicative proceedings of the board of industrial insurance appeals ((or the board of tax appeals unless an election is made pursuant to RCW 82.03.140 or 82.03.190. The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 and the provisions of RCW 34.04.170 shall not apply));~~

~~(b) Except for actions pursuant to chapter 46.29 RCW, to the denial, suspension, or revocation of a driver's license by the department of licensing((--To the extent they are inconsistent with RCW 80.50.140, the provisions of RCW 34.04.130, 34.04.133, and 34.04.140 shall not apply to review of decisions made under RCW 80.50.100));~~

~~(c) To the department of labor and industries where another statute expressly provides for review of adjudicative proceedings of a department action, order, decision, or award before the board of industrial insurance appeals;~~

~~(d) To actions of the state personnel board, the higher education personnel board, or the personnel appeals board; or~~

~~(e) To the extent they are inconsistent with any provisions of chapter 43.43 RCW((--the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to such provisions)).~~

~~(3) Unless a party makes an election for a formal hearing pursuant to RCW 82.03.140 or 82.03.190, sections 401 through 429 of this act do not apply to a review hearing conducted by the board of tax appeals.~~

~~(4) All other agencies, whether or not formerly specifically excluded from the provisions of all or any part of the administrative procedure act, shall be subject to the entire act.~~

Sec. 104. OPERATION OF CHAPTER IF IN CONFLICT WITH FEDERAL LAW. Section 19, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 and RCW 34.04.930 are each amended to read as follows:

If any part of this chapter ((shall be)) is found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a condition precedent to the allocation of federal funds to the state, ((such)) the conflicting part of this chapter is ((hereby declared to be)) inoperative solely to the extent of ((such)) the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and such findings or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this chapter in its application to the agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 105. WAIVER. Except to the extent precluded by another provision of law, a person may waive any right conferred upon that person by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 106. INFORMAL SETTLEMENTS. Except to the extent precluded by another provision of law and subject to approval by agency order, informal settlement of matters that may make unnecessary more elaborate proceedings under this chapter is strongly encouraged. Agencies may establish by rule specific procedures for attempting and executing informal settlement of matters. This section does not require any party or other person to settle a matter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 107. CONVERSION OF PROCEEDINGS. (1) If it becomes apparent during the course of an adjudicative or rule-making proceeding undertaken pursuant to this chapter that another form of proceeding under this chapter is necessary, is in the public interest, or is more appropriate to resolve issues affecting the participants, on his or her own motion or on the motion of any party, the presiding officer or other official responsible for the original proceeding shall advise the parties of necessary steps for conversion and, if within the official's power, commence the new proceeding. If the agency refuses to convert to another proceeding, that decision is not subject to judicial review. Commencement of the new proceeding shall be accomplished pursuant to the procedural rules of the new proceeding, except that elements already performed need not be repeated.

(2) If appropriate, a new proceeding may be commenced independently of the original proceeding or may replace the original proceeding.

(3) Conversion to a replacement proceeding shall not be undertaken if the rights of any party will be substantially prejudiced.

(4) To the extent feasible the record of the original proceeding shall be included in the record of a replacement proceeding.

(5) The time of commencement of a replacement proceeding shall be considered to be the time of commencement of the original proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 108. VARIATION FROM TIME LIMITS. (1) An agency may modify time limits established in this chapter only as set forth in this section.

(2) The time limits set forth in this chapter may be modified by rule of the agency or by rule of the chief administrative law judge if:

(a) The agency has an agency head composed of a body of individuals serving part time who do not regularly meet on a schedule that would allow compliance with the time limits of this chapter in the normal course of agency affairs;

(b) The agency does not have a permanent staff to comply with the time limits set forth in this chapter without substantial loss of efficiency and economy; and

(c) The rights of persons dealing with the agency are not substantially impaired.

(3) The time limits set forth in this chapter may be modified by rule if the agency determines that the change is necessary to the performance of its statutory duties. Agency rule may provide for emergency variation when required in a specific case.

(4) Time limits may be changed pursuant to section 104 of this act.

(5) Time limits may be waived pursuant to section 105 of this act.

(6) Any modification in the time limits set forth in this chapter shall be to new time limits that are reasonable under the specific circumstances.

(7) In any rule-making or adjudicative proceeding, any agency whose time limits vary from those set forth in this chapter shall provide reasonable and adequate notice of the pertinent time limits to persons affected. In an adjudicative proceeding, such notice may be given by the presiding or reviewing officer involved in the proceeding. In a rule-making proceeding, the notice may be given in the notice of proposed rule-making.

(8) Two years after the effective date of this section, the chief administrative law judge shall cause a survey to be made of variations by agencies from the time limits set forth in this chapter, and shall submit a written report of the results of the survey to the office of the governor.

PART X.

PUBLIC ACCESS TO AGENCY RULES

Sec. 201. PUBLICATION OF CODE AND REGISTER—REMOVAL OF UNCONSTITUTIONAL RULES—DISTRIBUTION OF REGISTERS AND CODES—COUNTY LAW LIBRARIES—JUDICIAL NOTICE OF RULES. Section 5, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 7, chapter 32, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 34.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The code reviser shall ~~(as soon as practicable after March 23, 1960, compile and index)~~ cause the Washington Administrative Code to be compiled, indexed by subject, and published. All current, permanently effective rules ~~((adopted by each agency and remaining in effect))~~ of each agency shall be published in the Washington Administrative Code. Compilations shall be supplemented or revised as often as necessary and at least ~~((once every two years))~~ annually in a form compatible with the main compilation.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the code reviser shall prescribe a uniform numbering system, form, and style for all proposed and adopted rules.

(3) The code reviser shall publish a register ~~((in which he shall set))~~ setting forth the text of all rules filed during the appropriate register publication period.

~~((3))~~ (4) The code reviser may ~~((in his discretion;))~~ omit from the register or the compilation, rules ~~((the publication of which))~~ that would be unduly cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient to publish, if such rules are made available in printed or processed form on application to the adopting agency, and if ~~((such))~~ the register or compilation contains a notice stating the general subject matter of the rules so omitted and stating how copies thereof may be obtained.

~~((4))~~ (5) The code reviser may edit and revise rules for publication, codification, and compilation, without changing the meaning of any such rule ~~((in accordance with the provisions of RCW 34.04.052)).~~

~~((5))~~ (6) When a rule, in whole or in part, is declared invalid and unconstitutional by a court of final appeal, the adopting agency shall give notice to that effect in the register. With the consent of the attorney general, the code reviser may remove obsolete rules or parts of rules from the Washington Administrative Code when:

(a) The rules are declared unconstitutional by a court of final appeal; or

(b) The adopting agency ceases to exist and the rules are not transferred by statute to a successor agency.

~~((6))~~ (7) Registers and compilations shall be made available, in written form to (a) state elected officials whose offices are created by Article II or III of the state Constitution or by RCW 48.02.010, upon request, (b) to the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house for committee use, as required, but not to exceed the number of standing committees in each body, (c) to county boards of law library trustees and to the Olympia representatives of the Associated Press and the United Press International without request, free of charge, and (d) to other persons at a price fixed by the code reviser.

~~((7))~~ (8) The board of law library trustees of each county shall keep and maintain a complete and current set of registers and compilations for use and inspection as provided in RCW 27.24.060.

~~((8))~~ (9) Judicial notice shall be taken of rules filed and published as provided in ~~((RCW 34.04.040))~~ section 315 of this act and this section.

Sec. 202. RULES FOR AGENCY PROCEDURE—INDEXES OF OPINIONS AND STATEMENTS. Section 2, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 13, chapter 67, Laws of 1981 and RCW 34.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to other rule-making requirements imposed by law:

~~((+)) (a) Each agency shall adopt rules governing the formal and informal procedures prescribed or authorized by this chapter and rules of practice before the agency, together with forms and instructions(~~(-PROVIDED, That)~~). Rules for the conduct of ~~((contested cases))~~ adjudicative proceedings shall be those which are ~~((promulgated))~~ adopted by the chief administrative law judge ~~((pursuant to RCW 34.04.022, as now or hereafter amended))~~ under section 205 of this act.~~

~~((2)) (b) To assist interested persons dealing with it, each agency shall adopt as a rule a description of its organization, stating the general course and method of its operations and the methods whereby the public may obtain information and make submissions or requests. No person may be required to comply with agency procedure not adopted as a rule as herein required.~~

~~((3)) (2) To the extent not prohibited by federal law or regulation, nor prohibited for reasons of confidentiality by state law, each agency shall keep on file for public inspection all final orders, decisions, and opinions in ~~((contested cases))~~ adjudicative proceedings, interpretive statements, policy statements, and any digest or index to those orders, decisions, ~~((or))~~ opinions, or statements prepared by or for the agency ~~((for its own use))~~.~~

~~(3) No agency order, decision, or opinion is valid or effective against any person, nor may it be invoked by the agency for any purpose, unless it is available for public inspection ~~((as herein required))~~. A written final order issued after the effective date of this section, may not be relied on as precedent by an agency to the detriment of any person until it has been indexed as required by RCW 42.17.260. This ~~((provision))~~ subsection is not applicable in favor of any person who has actual knowledge ~~((thereof))~~ of the order, decision, or opinion. The agency has the burden of proving that knowledge, but may meet that burden by proving that the person has been properly served with a copy of the order.~~

~~(4) Each agency that is authorized by law to exercise discretion in deciding individual cases is encouraged to formalize the general principles that may evolve from these decisions by adopting the principles as rules that the agency will follow until they are amended or repealed.~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. INTERPRETIVE AND POLICY STATEMENTS. (1) If the adoption of rules is not feasible and practicable, an agency is encouraged to advise the public of its current opinions, approaches, and likely courses of action by means of interpretive or policy statements. Current interpretive and policy statements are advisory only. An agency is encouraged to convert long-standing interpretive and policy statements into rules.

(2) Each agency shall maintain a roster of interested persons, consisting of persons who have requested in writing to be notified of all interpretive and policy statements issued by that agency. Each agency shall update the roster once each year and eliminate persons who do not indicate a desire to continue on the roster. Whenever an agency issues an interpretive or policy statement, it shall send a copy of the statement to each person listed on the roster. The agency may charge a nominal fee to the interested person for this service.

Sec. 204. DECLARATORY ORDER BY AGENCY—PETITION—COURT REVIEW. Section 8, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 and RCW 34.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((On petition of any interested)) (1) Any person~~(:)~~ may petition an agency ~~((may issue))~~ for a declaratory ~~((ruling))~~ order with respect to the applicability to ~~((any person, property, or state of facts of any))~~ specified circumstances of a rule, order, or statute enforceable by ~~((it. A declaratory ruling, if issued after argument and stated to be binding, is binding between the agency and the petitioner on the state of facts alleged, unless it is altered or set aside by a court. Such a ruling is subject to review in the superior court of Thurston county in the manner hereinafter provided for the review of decisions in contested cases. Each agency shall prescribe by rule the form for such petitions and the procedure for their submission, consideration, and disposition))~~ the agency. The petition shall set forth facts and reasons on which the petitioner relies to show:~~

(a) That uncertainty necessitating resolution exists;

(b) That there is actual controversy arising from the uncertainty such that a declaratory order will not be merely an advisory opinion;

(c) That the uncertainty adversely affects the petitioner;

(d) That the adverse effect of uncertainty on the petitioner outweighs any adverse effects on others or on the general public that may likely arise from the order requested; and

(e) That the petition complies with any additional requirements established by the agency under subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Each agency may adopt rules that provide for: (a) The form, contents, and filing of petitions for a declaratory order; (b) the procedural rights of persons in relation thereto; and (c) the disposition of those petitions. These rules may include a description of the classes of circumstances in which the agency will not enter a declaratory order and shall be consistent with the public interest and with the general policy of this chapter to facilitate and encourage agencies to provide reliable advice.

(3) Within fifteen days after receipt of a petition for a declaratory order, the agency shall give notice of the petition to all persons to whom notice is required by law, and may give notice to any other person it deems desirable.

(4) Sections 401 through 429 of this act apply to agency proceedings for declaratory orders only to the extent an agency so provides by rule or order.

(5) Within thirty days after receipt of a petition for a declaratory order an agency, in writing, shall do one of the following:

(a) Enter an order declaring the applicability of the statute, rule, or order in question to the specified circumstances;

(b) Set the matter for specified proceedings to be held no more than ninety days after receipt of the petition;

(c) Set a specified time no more than ninety days after receipt of the petition by which it will enter a declaratory order; or

(d) Decline to enter a declaratory order, stating the reasons for its action.

(6) The time limits of subsection (5)(b) and (c) of this section may be extended by the agency for good cause.

(7) An agency may not enter a declaratory order that would substantially prejudice the rights of a person who would be a necessary party and who does not consent in writing to the determination of the matter by a declaratory order proceeding.

(8) A declaratory order has the same status as any other order entered in an agency adjudicative proceeding. Each declaratory order shall contain the names of all parties to the proceeding on which it is based, the particular facts on which it is based, and the reasons for its conclusions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. MODEL RULES OF PROCEDURE. The chief administrative law judge shall adopt model rules of procedure appropriate for use by as many agencies as possible. The model rules shall deal with all general functions and duties performed in common by the various agencies. Each agency shall adopt as much of the model rules as is reasonable under its circumstances. Any agency adopting a rule of procedure that differs from the model rules shall include in the order of adoption a finding stating the reasons for variance.

PART XI.

RULE-MAKING PROCEDURES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. SOLICITATION OF COMMENTS BEFORE NOTICE PUBLICATION—RULES COORDINATOR. (1) In addition to seeking information by other methods, an agency may, before publication of a notice of a proposed rule adoption under section 303 of this act, solicit comments from the public on a subject of possible rule making under active consideration within the agency, by causing notice to be published in the state register of the subject matter and indicating where, when, and how persons may comment.

(2) Each agency may appoint committees to comment, before publication of a notice of proposed rule adoption under section 303 of this act, on the subject of a possible rule-making action under active consideration within the agency.

(3) Each agency shall designate a rules coordinator, who shall have knowledge of the subjects of rules being proposed or prepared within the agency for proposal, maintain the records of any such action, and respond to public inquiries about possible or proposed rules and the identity of agency personnel working, reviewing, or commenting on them. The office and mailing address of the rules coordinator shall be published in the state register at the time of designation and in the first issue of each calendar year thereafter for the duration of the designation. The rules coordinator may be an employee of another agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 302. RULE-MAKING DOCKET. (1) Each agency shall maintain a current public rule-making docket. The rule-making docket shall contain a listing of the subject of each rule currently being prepared by the agency for proposal under section 303 of this act, the name and address of agency personnel responsible for the proposal, and an indication of the present status of the proposal.

(2) The rule-making docket shall contain a listing of each pending rule-making proceeding. A rule-making proceeding is pending from the time it is commenced by publication of a notice of proposed rule adoption under section 303 of this act until it is terminated under section 306(3) of this act.

(3) For each rule-making proceeding, the docket shall indicate all of the following:

(a) The subject of the proposed rule;

(b) A citation to all notices relating to the proceeding that have been published in the state register under section 303 of this act;

(c) The place where written submissions about the proposed rule may be inspected;

(d) The time during which written submissions will be accepted;

(e) The current timetable established for the agency proceeding, including the time and place of any rule-making hearing, the date of the rule's adoption, filing, indexing, publication, and its effective date.

Sec. 303. NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE—CONTENTS—DISTRIBUTION BY AGENCY—INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION. Section 1, chapter 84, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 221, Laws of 1982 and RCW 34.04.045 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ((For the purpose of legislative review of agency rules filed pursuant to this chapter, any proposed new or amendatory rule shall be accompanied by a statement prepared by the ~~adopting agency which generally describes the rule's purpose and how the rule is to be implemented. Such statement shall be on the agency's stationery or a form bearing the agency's name and shall contain, but is not limited to:)~~ At least twenty days before the rule-making hearing at which the agency receives public comment regarding adoption of a rule, the agency shall cause notice of the hearing to be published in the state register. The publication constitutes the proposal of a rule. The notice shall include all of the following:

(a) A title, ~~((containing))~~ a description of the rule's purpose, and any other information which may be of assistance in identifying the rule or its purpose;

(b) Citations of the statutory authority for adopting the rule and the specific statute the rule is intended to implement;

(c) A summary of the rule and a statement of the reasons supporting the proposed action;

(d) The agency personnel, with their office location and telephone number, who are responsible for the drafting, implementation, and enforcement of the rule;

(e) The name of the person or organization, whether private, public, or governmental, proposing the rule;

(f) Agency comments or recommendations, if any, regarding statutory language, implementation, enforcement, and fiscal matters pertaining to the rule;

(g) Whether the rule is necessary as the result of federal law or federal or state court action, and if so, a copy of such law or court decision shall be attached to the purpose statement;

(h) When, where, and how persons may present their views on the proposed rule;

(i) The date on which the agency intends to adopt the rule;

(j) A short explanation of the rule, its purpose, and anticipated effects, including in the case of a proposal that would modify existing rules, a short description of the changes the proposal would make; and

(k) A copy of the small business economic impact statement, ((where)) if applicable.

(2) Upon filing notice of the proposed rule with the code reviser, the adopting agency shall have copies of the statement on file and available for public inspection and shall forward three copies of the notice and the statement to the rules review committee.

(3) No later than three days after its publication in the state register, the agency shall cause a copy of the notice of proposed rule adoption to be mailed to each person who has made a timely request to the agency for a mailed copy of such notices. An agency may charge for the actual cost of providing individual mailed copies of these notices.

(4) In addition to the notice required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section, an institution of higher education shall cause the notice to be published in the campus or standard newspaper of the institution at least seven days before the rule-making hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 304. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN RULE MAKING. (1) The agency shall make a good faith effort to insure that the information on the proposed rule published pursuant to section 303 of this act accurately reflects the rule to be presented and considered at the oral hearing on the rule. Written comment about a proposed rule, including supporting data, shall be accepted by an agency if received no later than the time and date specified in the notice, or such later time and date established at the rule-making hearing.

(2) The agency shall provide an opportunity for oral comment to be received by the agency in a rule-making hearing.

(3) The agency head, a member of the agency head, or a presiding officer designated by the agency head shall preside at the rule-making hearing. Rule-making hearings shall be open to the public. The agency shall cause a record to be made of the hearing by stenographic, mechanical, or electronic means. Unless the agency head presides or is present at substantially all the hearings, the presiding official shall prepare a memorandum for consideration by the agency head, summarizing the contents of the presentations made at the rule-making hearing. The summarizing memorandum is a public document and shall be made available to any person in accordance with chapter 42.17 RCW.

(4) Rule-making hearings are legislative in character and shall be reasonably conducted by the presiding official to afford interested persons the opportunity to present comment. Rule-making hearings may be continued to a later time and place established on the record without publication of further notice under section 303 of this act.

Sec. 305. PETITION FOR ADOPTION, AMENDMENT, REPEAL OF RULE—AGENCY ACTION. Section 6, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 5, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Any ~~((interested))~~ person may petition an agency requesting the ~~((promulgation))~~ adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule. Each agency ~~((shall))~~ may prescribe by rule the form for such petitions and the procedure for their submission, consideration, and disposition. Within ~~((thirty))~~ sixty days after submission of a petition, ~~((or at the next meeting of the agency if it does not meet within thirty days.))~~ the agency shall ~~((formally consider the petition and shall within thirty days thereafter))~~ (1) either deny the petition in writing ((c)), stating its reasons for the denial((c)), or (2) initiate rule-making proceedings in accordance with ~~((RCW 34.04.025))~~ this chapter.

Sec. 306. WITHDRAWAL OF PROPOSAL—TIME AND MANNER OF ADOPTION. Section 11, chapter 186, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.048 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A proposed rule may be withdrawn by the proposing agency at any time before adoption. A withdrawn rule may not be adopted unless it is again proposed in accordance with ~~((RCW 34.04.025 as now or hereafter amended))~~ section 303 of this act.

(2) Before adopting a rule, an agency shall consider the written and oral submissions, or any memorandum summarizing oral submissions.

(3) Rules not adopted within one ~~((year))~~ hundred eighty days after publication of the text as last proposed in the register shall be regarded as withdrawn. An agency may not thereafter adopt the text of the rules without filing the text in accordance with ~~((RCW 34.04.025 as now or hereafter amended))~~ section 303 of this act. The code reviser shall give notice of the withdrawal in the register.

(4) An agency may not adopt a rule before the time established in the published notice, or such later time established on the record or by publication in the state register.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 307. VARIANCE BETWEEN PROPOSED AND FINAL RULE. (1) Unless it complies with subsection (3) of this section, an agency may not adopt a rule that is substantially different from the rule proposed in the published notice of proposed rule adoption or a supplemental notice in the proceeding. If an agency contemplates making a substantial variance from a proposed rule described in a published notice, it may file a supplemental notice with the code reviser meeting the requirements of section 303 of this act and reopen the proceedings for public comment on the proposed variance, or the agency may reject the proposed rule and commence a new rule-making proceeding to adopt a substantially different rule. If a new rule-making proceeding is commenced, relevant public comment received regarding the initial proposed rule shall be considered in the new proceeding.

(2) The following factors shall be considered in determining whether an adopted rule is substantially different from the proposed rule on which it is based:

(a) The extent to which a reasonable person affected by the adopted rule would have understood that the published proposed rule would affect his or her interests;

(b) The extent to which the subject of the adopted rule or the issues determined in it are substantially different from the subject or issues involved in the published proposed rule; and

(c) The extent to which the effects of the adopted rule differ from the effects of the published proposed rule.

(3) If the agency, without filing a supplemental notice under subsection (1) of this section, adopts a rule that varies in content from the proposed rule, the general subject matter of the adopted rule must remain the same as the proposed rule. The agency shall briefly describe any changes, other than editing changes, and the principal reasons for adopting the changes. The brief description shall be filed with the code reviser together with the order of adoption for publication in the state register. Within sixty days of publication of the adopted rule in the state register, any interested person may petition the agency to amend any portion of the adopted rule that is substantially different from the proposed rule. The petition shall briefly demonstrate how the adopted rule is substantially different from the proposed rule and shall contain the text of the petitioner's proposed amendment. For purposes of the petition, an adopted rule is substantially different if the issues determined in the adopted rule differ from the issues determined in the proposed rule or the anticipated effects of the adopted rule differ from those of the proposed rule. If the petition meets the requirements of this subsection and section 305 of this act, the agency shall initiate rule-making proceedings upon the proposed amendments within the time provided in section 305 of this act.

Sec. 308. FAILURE TO GIVE TWENTY DAYS NOTICE OF INTENDED ACTION—EFFECT. Section 4, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.027 are each amended to read as follows:

Except for emergency rules adopted under section 309 of this act, when twenty days notice of intended action to adopt, amend, or repeal a rule has not been ~~((filed with the code reviser, as required in RCW 34.04.025))~~ published in the state register, as required by section 303 of this act, the code reviser shall not publish such rule and such rule shall not be effective for any purpose.

Sec. 309. EMERGENCY RULES AND AMENDMENTS. Section 3, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 4, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 and RCW 34.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If ~~((the))~~ an agency for good cause finds:

(a) That immediate adoption ~~((or)),~~ amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that ~~((observance of))~~ observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to ~~((present views on the proposed action))~~ comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest~~((:));~~ or

(b) That state or federal law or federal rule or a federal deadline for state receipt of federal funds requires immediate adoption of a rule, the agency may dispense with ~~((such))~~ those requirements and adopt, amend, or repeal the rule ~~((or amendment as))~~ on an emergency ~~((rule or amendment))~~ basis. The agency's finding and a concise statement of the reasons for its finding shall be incorporated in the order for adoption of the emergency rule or amendment ((as)) filed with the office of the code reviser under ((RCW 34.04.040)) section 315 of this act and with the rules review committee.

(2) An emergency rule ((or amendment)) adopted under this section takes effect upon filing with the code reviser and may not remain in effect for longer than ((ninety)) one hundred twenty days after filing. Identical or substantially similar emergency rules may not be adopted in sequence unless conditions have changed or the agency has published notice of its intent to adopt the rule as a permanent rule, and is actively undertaking the appropriate procedures to adopt the rule as a permanent rule. This section does not relieve any agency from compliance with any law requiring that its permanent rules be approved by designated persons or bodies before they become effective.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 310. CONCISE EXPLANATORY STATEMENT. (1) At the time it files an adopted rule with the code reviser or within thirty days thereafter, an agency shall place into the rule-making file maintained under section 313 of this act a concise explanatory statement about the rule, identifying (a) the agency's reasons for adopting the rule, and (b) a description of any difference between the text of the proposed rule as published in the register and the text of the rule as adopted, other than editing changes, stating the reasons for change.

(2) Upon the request of any interested person within thirty days after adoption of a rule, the agency shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for overruling the considerations urged against its adoption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 311. ORDER ADOPTING RULE, CONTENTS. The order of adoption by which each rule is adopted by an agency shall contain all of the following:

- (1) The date the agency adopted the rule;
- (2) A concise statement of the purpose of the rule;
- (3) A reference to all rules repealed, amended, or suspended by the rule;
- (4) A reference to the specific statutory or other authority authorizing adoption of the rule;
- (5) Any findings required by any provision of law as a precondition to adoption or effectiveness of the rule; and
- (6) The effective date of the rule if other than that specified in section 315(2) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 312. INCORPORATION BY REFERENCE. An agency may incorporate by reference and without publishing the incorporated matter in full, all or any part of a code, standard, rule, or regulation that has been adopted by an agency of the United States, of this state, or of another state, by a political subdivision of this state, or by a generally recognized organization or association if incorporation of the full text in the agency rules would be unduly cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient. The reference in agency rules shall fully identify the incorporated matter. An agency may incorporate by reference such matter in its rules only if the agency, organization, or association originally issuing that matter makes copies readily available to the public. The incorporating agency shall have, maintain, and make available for public inspection a copy of the incorporated matter. The rule must state where copies of the incorporated matter are available.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 313. RULE-MAKING FILE. (1) Each agency shall maintain an official rule-making file for each rule that it (a) proposes by publication in the state register, or (b) adopts. The file and materials incorporated by reference shall be available for public inspection.

- (2) The agency rule-making file shall contain all of the following:
- (a) Copies of all publications in the state register with respect to the rule or the proceeding upon which the rule is based;
 - (b) Copies of any portions of the agency's public rule-making docket containing entries relating to the rule or the proceeding on which the rule is based;
 - (c) All written petitions, requests, submissions, and comments received by the agency and all other written material regarded by the agency as important to adoption of the rule or the proceeding on which the rule is based;
 - (d) Any official transcript of oral presentations made in the proceeding on which the rule is based or, if not transcribed, any tape recording or stenographic record of them, and any memorandum prepared by a presiding official summarizing the contents of those presentations;
 - (e) The concise explanatory statement required by section 310 of this act;
 - (f) All petitions for exceptions to, amendment of, or repeal or suspension of, the rule; and
 - (g) Any other material placed in the file by the agency.

(3) Internal agency documents are exempt from inclusion in the rule-making file under subsection (2) of this section to the extent they constitute preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memoranda in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended, except that a specific document is not exempt from inclusion when it is publicly cited by an agency in connection with its decision.

(4) Upon judicial review, the file required by this section constitutes the official agency rule-making file with respect to that rule. Unless otherwise required by another provision of law, the official agency rule-making file need not be the exclusive basis for agency action on that rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 314. SUBSTANTIAL COMPLIANCE WITH PROCEDURES. No rule proposed after the effective date of this section, is valid unless it is adopted in substantial compliance with sections 301 through 318 of this act. Inadvertent failure to mail notice of a proposed rule adoption to any person as required by section 303(3) of this act does not invalidate a rule. No action based upon this section may be maintained to contest the validity of any rule unless it is commenced within two years after the effective date of the rule.

Sec. 315. RULES FILED WITH CODE REVISER—REGISTER—EFFECTIVE DATES. Section 4, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 17, chapter 505, Laws of 1987 and RCW 34.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each agency shall file ~~((forthwith))~~ in the office of the code reviser a certified copy of all rules ~~((now in effect and hereafter adopted))~~ it adopts, except ~~((the))~~ for rules contained in tariffs filed with or published by the Washington utilities and transportation commission. The code reviser shall place upon each rule a notation of the time and date of filing and shall keep a permanent register of ~~((such))~~ filed rules open to public inspection. In filing a rule, each agency shall use the standard form prescribed for this purpose by the code reviser.

(2) Emergency rules adopted under ~~((RCW 34.04.030 shall))~~ section 309 of this act become effective upon filing. All other rules ~~((hereafter adopted shall))~~ become effective upon the expiration of thirty days after the date of filing, unless a later date is required by statute or specified in the rule.

(3) A rule may become effective immediately upon its filing with the code reviser or on any subsequent date earlier than that established by subsection (2) of this section, if the agency establishes that effective date in the adopting order and finds that:

(a) Such action is required by the state or federal Constitution, a statute, or court order;

(b) The rule only delays the effective date of another rule that is not yet effective; or

(c) The earlier effective date is necessary because of imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare.

The finding and a brief statement of the reasons therefor required by this subsection shall be made a part of the order adopting the rule.

(4) With respect to a rule made effective pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, each agency shall make reasonable efforts to make the effective date known to persons who may be affected by it.

Sec. 316. RULES FOR FILING AND FORM OF RULES AND NOTICES. Section 13, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.055 are each amended to read as follows:

The code reviser may ~~((prescribe regulations))~~ adopt rules for carrying out the provisions of this chapter relating to the filing and publication of rules and notices of intention to adopt rules, including the form and style to be employed by the various agencies in the drafting of such rules and notices.

Sec. 317. STYLE, FORMAT, AND NUMBERING OF RULES—AGENCY COMPLIANCE. Section 14, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.057 are each amended to read as follows:

After the rules of an agency have been published by the code reviser:

(1) All agency orders amending or rescinding such rules, or creating new rules, shall be formulated in accordance with the style, format, and numbering system of the Washington Administrative Code ~~((and));~~

(2) Any subsequent printing or reprinting of such rules shall be printed in the style and format (including the numbering system) of such code; and

(3) Amendments of previously adopted rules shall incorporate any editorial corrections made by the code reviser.

Sec. 318. FORMAT AND STYLE OF RULES AMENDING EXISTING SECTIONS, ADDING NEW SECTIONS—EFFECT OF FAILURE TO COMPLY. Section 1, chapter 19, Laws of 1977 as amended by section 14, chapter 186, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.058 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Rules ~~((promulgated))~~ proposed or adopted by an agency pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.025 or 34.04.030, as now or hereafter amended, which))~~ this chapter that amend existing sections of the administrative code shall have the words which are amendatory to such existing sections underlined. Any matter to be deleted from an existing section shall be indicated by setting such matter forth in full, enclosed by double parentheses, and such deleted matter shall be lined out with hyphens. ~~((in the case of))~~ A new section ~~((such))~~ shall be designated "NEW SECTION" in upper case type and such designation shall be underlined, but the complete text of the section shall not be underlined. No rule may be forwarded by any agency to the code reviser, nor may the code reviser accept for filing any rule unless the format of such rule is in compliance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Once the rule has been formally adopted by the agency the code reviser need not, except with regard to the register published pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.050(2)))~~ section 201(3) of this act, include the items enumerated in subsection (1) of this section in the official code.

(3) Any addition to or deletion from an existing code section not filed by the agency in the style prescribed by subsection (1) of this section shall in all respects be ineffectual, and shall not be shown in subsequent publications or codifications of that section unless the ineffectual portion of the rule is clearly distinguished and an explanatory note is appended thereto by the code reviser in accordance with (~~RCW 34.04.050, as now or hereafter amended, and RCW 34.04.052~~) section 201 of this act.

PART XII.

ADJUDICATIVE PROCEEDINGS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. APPLICATION OF PART IV. (1) Adjudicative proceedings are governed by sections 402 through 423 of this act, except as otherwise provided:

(a) By a rule that adopts the procedures for brief adjudicative proceedings in accordance with the standards provided in section 425 of this act for those proceedings;

(b) By section 424 of this act pertaining to emergency adjudicative proceedings; or

(c) By section 204 of this act pertaining to declaratory proceedings.

(2) Sections 401 through 429 of this act do not apply to rule-making proceedings unless another statute expressly so requires.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. COMMENCEMENT—WHEN REQUIRED. (1) Within the scope of its authority, an agency may commence an adjudicative proceeding at any time with respect to a matter within the agency's jurisdiction.

(2) When required by law or constitutional right, and upon the timely application of any person, an agency shall commence an adjudicative proceeding.

(3) An agency may require by rule that an application for an adjudicative proceeding be in writing and that it be filed at a specific address and in a specified manner.

(4) If an agency is required to hold an adjudicative proceeding, an application for an agency to enter an order includes an application for the agency to conduct appropriate adjudicative proceedings, whether or not the applicant expressly requests those proceedings.

(5) An adjudicative proceeding commences when the agency or a presiding officer notifies a party that a prehearing conference, hearing, or other stage of an adjudicative proceeding will be conducted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 403. DECISION NOT TO CONDUCT AN ADJUDICATION. If an agency decides not to conduct an adjudicative proceeding in response to an application, the agency shall furnish the applicant a copy of its decision in writing, with a brief statement of the agency's reasons and of any administrative review available to the applicant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 404. AGENCY ACTION ON APPLICATIONS FOR ADJUDICATION. After receipt of an application for an adjudicative proceeding, other than a declaratory order, an agency shall proceed as follows:

(1) Except in situations governed by subsection (2) or (3) of this section, within ninety days after receipt of the application or of the response to a timely request made by the agency under subsection (2) of this section, the agency shall do one of the following:

(a) Approve or deny the application, in whole or in part, on the basis of brief or emergency adjudicative proceedings, if those proceedings are available under this chapter for disposition of the matter;

(b) Commence an adjudicative proceeding in accordance with this chapter; or

(c) Dispose of the application in accordance with section 403 of this act;

(2) Within thirty days after receipt of the application, the agency shall examine the application, notify the applicant of any obvious errors or omissions, request any additional information the agency wishes to obtain and is permitted by law to require, and notify the applicant of the name, mailing address, and telephone number of an office that may be contacted regarding the application;

(3) If the application seeks relief that is not available when the application is filed but may be available in the future, the agency may proceed to make a determination of eligibility within the time limits provided in subsection (1) of this section. If the agency determines that the applicant is eligible, the agency shall maintain the application on the agency's list of eligible applicants as provided by law and, upon request, shall notify the applicant of the status of the application.

Sec. 405. RATE CHANGES, LICENSES. Section 8, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 1, chapter 33, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless otherwise provided by law: (a) Applications for rate changes and uncontested applications for licenses may, in the agency's discretion, be conducted as adjudicative proceedings; (b) applications for licenses that are contested and review of denials of applications for licenses or rate changes shall be conducted as adjudicative proceedings; and (c) an agency may not revoke, suspend, modify, annul, withdraw, or amend a license unless the agency gives notice of an opportunity for an appropriate adjudicative proceeding in accordance with this chapter or other statute.

(2) An agency with authority to grant or deny a professional or occupational license shall notify an applicant for a new or renewal license not later than twenty days prior to the date of the examination required for that license of any grounds for denial of the license which are based on specific information disclosed in the application submitted to the agency. The agency shall notify the applicant either that the license is denied or that the decision to grant or deny the license will be made at a future date. If the agency fails to give the notification prior to the examination and the applicant is denied licensure, the examination fee shall be refunded to the applicant. If the applicant takes the examination, the agency shall notify the applicant of the result.

(3) When a licensee has made timely and sufficient application for the renewal of a license or a new license with reference to any activity of a continuing nature, an existing full, temporary, or provisional license does not expire until the application has been finally determined by the agency, and, in case the application is denied or the terms of the new license limited, until the last day for seeking review of the agency order or a later date fixed by order of the reviewing court.

((2)) (4) If the agency finds that public health, safety, or welfare imperatively requires emergency action, and incorporates a finding to that effect in its order, summary suspension of a license may be ordered pending proceedings for revocation or other action. These proceedings shall be promptly instituted and determined.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 406. PRESIDING OFFICERS—DISQUALIFICATION, SUBSTITUTION. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, in the discretion of the agency head, the presiding officer in an administrative hearing shall be:

(a) The agency head or one or more members of the agency head;

(b) If the agency has statutory authority to do so, a person other than the agency head or an administrative law judge designated by the agency head to make the final decision and enter the final order; or

(c) One or more administrative law judges assigned by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapter 34.12 RCW.

(2) An agency expressly exempted under RCW 34.12.020(4) or other statute from the provisions of chapter 34.12 RCW or an institution of higher education shall designate a presiding officer as provided by rules adopted by the agency.

(3) Any individual serving or designated to serve alone or with others as presiding officer is subject to disqualification for bias, prejudice, interest, or any other cause provided in this chapter or for which a judge is disqualified.

(4) Any party may petition for the disqualification of an individual promptly after receipt of notice indicating that the individual will preside or, if later, promptly upon discovering facts establishing grounds for disqualification.

(5) The individual whose disqualification is requested shall determine whether to grant the petition, stating facts and reasons for the determination.

(6) If a substitute is required for an individual who becomes unavailable as a result of disqualification or any other reason, the substitute must be appointed by the appropriate appointing authority.

(7) Any action taken by a duly appointed substitute for an unavailable individual is as effective as if taken by the unavailable individual.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 407. REPRESENTATION. (1) A party to an adjudicatory proceeding may participate personally or, if the party is a corporation or other artificial person, by a duly authorized representative.

(2) Whether or not participating in person, any party may be advised and represented at the party's own expense by counsel or, if permitted by provision of law, other representative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 408. CONFERENCE—PROCEDURE AND PARTICIPATION. (1) Agencies may hold prehearing or other conferences for the settlement or simplification of issues. Every agency shall by rule describe the conditions under which and the manner in which conferences are to be held.

(2) In the discretion of the presiding officer, and where the rights of the parties will not be prejudiced thereby, all or part of the conference may be conducted by telephone, television, or other electronic means. Each participant in the conference must have an opportunity to participate effectively in, to hear, and, if technically and economically feasible, to see the entire proceeding while it is taking place.

Sec. 409. NOTICE OF HEARING. Section 9, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 31, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ((In any contested case all parties shall be afforded an opportunity for hearing after not less than twenty days' notice, but no hearing shall be required until the hearing is demanded unless other statutory provisions or agency rules provide otherwise.)) The agency or the office of administrative hearings shall set the time and place of the hearing and give not less than seven days advance written notice to all parties and to all persons who have filed written petitions to intervene in the matter.

(2) The notice shall include:

(a) Unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer, the names and mailing addresses of all parties to whom notice is being given and, if known, the names and addresses of their representatives;

(b) If the agency intends to appear, the mailing address and telephone number of the office designated to represent the agency in the proceeding;

(c) The official file or other reference number and the name of the proceeding;

(d) The name, official title, mailing address, and telephone number of the presiding officer, if known;

(e) A statement of the time, place and nature of the proceeding;
 ((b)) (f) A statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held;

((c)) (g) A reference to the particular sections of the statutes and rules involved;

((d)) (h) A short and plain statement of the matters asserted by the agency; and

(i) A statement that a party who fails to attend or participate in a hearing or other stage of an adjudicative proceeding may be held in default in accordance with this chapter. ((If the agency or other party is unable to state the matters in detail at the time the notice is served, the initial notice may be limited to a statement of the issues involved. Thereafter upon request a more definite and detailed statement shall be furnished.

(2) Opportunity shall be afforded all parties to respond and present evidence and argument on all issues involved.

(3) An agency may provide by rule for entry of summary orders in part or in whole after notice and hearing to all parties. The motion shall be granted if the pleadings, dispositions and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to the order as a matter of law.

(4) Unless precluded by law, informal disposition may also be made of any contested case by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order, or default.

(5) The record in a contested case shall include:

(a) All pleadings, motions, intermediate rulings;

(b) Evidence received or considered;

(c) A statement of matters officially noticed;

(d) Questions and offers of proof, objections, and ruling thereon;

(e) Proposed findings and exceptions;

(f) Any decision, opinion, or report by the officer presiding at the hearing;

(6) Oral proceedings shall be transcribed for the purposes of agency decision pursuant to RCW 34.04.110, as now or hereafter amended, rehearing, or court review. A copy of the record or any part thereof shall be transcribed and furnished to any party to the hearing upon request therefor and payment of the reasonable costs thereof.

(7) Findings of fact shall be based exclusively on the evidence and on matters officially noticed.

(8) Each agency shall adopt appropriate rules of procedure for notice and hearing in contested cases.

(9) Agencies, or their authorized agents, may:

(a) Administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence, and no person shall be compelled to divulge information which he could not be compelled to divulge in a court of law;

(b) Issue subpoenas as provided in RCW 34.04.105;

(c) Rule upon offers of proof and receive relevant evidence;

(d) Take or cause depositions to be taken pursuant to rules promulgated by the agency; and no person shall be compelled to divulge information which he could not be compelled to divulge by deposition in connection with a court proceeding;

(e) Regulate the course of the hearing;

(f) Hold conferences for the settlement or simplification of the issues by consent of the parties;

(g) Dispose of procedural requests or similar matters;

(h) Issue summary orders;

(i) Make decisions or proposals for decisions pursuant to RCW 34.04.110;

(j) Take any other action authorized by agency rule consistent with this chapter.))

(3) If the agency is unable to state the matters required by subsection (2)(h) of this section at the time the notice is served, the initial notice may be limited to a statement of the issues involved. If the proceeding is initiated by a person other than the agency, the initial notice may be limited to the inclusion of a copy of the initiating document. Thereafter, upon request, a more definite and detailed statement shall be furnished.

(4) The notice may include any other matters considered desirable by the agency.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 410. PLEADINGS, BRIEFS, MOTIONS, SERVICE. (1) The presiding officer, at appropriate stages of the proceedings, shall give all parties full opportunity to submit and respond to pleadings, motions, objections, and offers of settlement.

(2) At appropriate stages of the proceedings, the presiding officer may give all parties full opportunity to file briefs, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, and proposed initial or final orders.

(3) A party that files a pleading, brief, or other paper with the agency or presiding officer shall serve copies on all other parties, unless a different procedure is specified by agency rule.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 411. DEFAULT. (1) An agency may provide forms for and, by rule, may provide procedures for and impose time limits upon, submission of requests for hearing. Failure of a party to request a hearing within the time limit or limits established by the agency rule constitutes a waiver of that party's right to hearing, and the agency may proceed to resolve the case without further notice to, or hearing for the benefit of, that party. There shall be a minimum of twenty days from notice of an opportunity to request a hearing before a party is deemed to have waived his or her right to a hearing under this subsection.

(2) If a party fails to attend or participate in a hearing or other stage of an adjudicative proceeding, the presiding officer may serve upon all parties a default or other dispositive order, which shall include a statement of the grounds for the order.

(3) Within seven days after service of a default order under subsection (2) of this section, or such longer period as provided by agency rule, the party against whom it was entered may file a written motion requesting that the order be vacated, and stating the grounds relied upon. During the time within which a party may file a written motion under this subsection, the presiding officer may adjourn the proceedings or conduct them without the participation of that party, having due regard for the interests of justice and the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 412. INTERVENTION. (1) The presiding officer may grant a petition for intervention at any time, upon determining that the petitioner qualifies as an intervenor under any provision of law and that the intervention sought is in the interests of justice and will not impair the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings.

(2) If a petitioner qualifies for intervention, the presiding officer may impose conditions upon the intervenor's participation in the proceedings, either at the time that intervention is granted or at any subsequent time. Conditions may include:

(a) Limiting the intervenor's participation to designated issues in which the intervenor has a particular interest demonstrated by the petition; and

(b) Limiting the intervenor's use of discovery, cross-examination, and other procedures so as to promote the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings; and

(c) Requiring two or more intervenors to combine their presentations of evidence and argument, cross-examination, discovery, and other participation in the proceedings.

(3) The presiding officer shall timely grant or deny each pending petition for intervention, specifying any conditions, and briefly stating the reasons for the order. The presiding officer may modify the order at any time, stating the reasons for the modification. The presiding officer shall promptly give notice of the decision granting, denying, or modifying intervention to the petitioner for intervention and to all parties.

Sec. 413. SUBPOENAS, DISCOVERY, AND PROTECTIVE ORDERS. Section 10, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.105 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(1) ((In order to determine the necessity or desirability of adopting, amending, repealing, or otherwise revising a rule or proposed rule, agencies may hold public hearings, subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, take the testimony of any person under oath, and in connection therewith, require the production for examination of any books or papers relating to the subject matter of contemplated regulation. Each agency may make rules as to the issuance of subpoenas by the agency or its authorized agents. This subsection shall not preclude the exercise of subpoena powers for investigative purposes granted agencies by other statutory provisions.~~

~~(2) In any contested case after service of notice as required in RCW 34.04.090(1), as now or hereafter amended, agencies, their authorized agents, and hearing examiners hearing the case:~~

~~(a) Shall issue a subpoena upon the request of any party and, to the extent required by agency rule, upon a statement showing general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such subpoena may be issued with like effect by the attorney of record of the party to the contested case in whose behalf the witness is required to appear, and the form of such subpoena in each case may be the same as when issued by the agency except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of such attorney;~~

~~(b) May issue a subpoena upon their own motion;~~

~~(3)) The presiding officer may issue subpoenas and may enter protective orders. A subpoena may be issued with like effect by the agency or the attorney of record in whose behalf the witness is required to appear.~~

~~(2) An agency may by rule determine whether or not discovery is to be available in adjudicative proceedings and, if so, which forms of discovery may be used.~~

~~(3) Except as otherwise provided by agency rules, the presiding officer may decide whether to permit the taking of depositions, the requesting of admissions, and all other procedures authorized by rules 26 through 36 of the superior court civil rules. The presiding officer may condition use of discovery on a showing of necessity and unavailability by other means. In exercising such discretion, the presiding officer shall consider: (a) Whether all parties are represented by counsel; (b) whether undue expense or delay in bringing the case to hearing will result; (c) whether the discovery will promote the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceeding; and (d) whether the interests of justice will be promoted.~~

~~(4) Subpoenas issued and discovery orders and protective orders entered under this section may be enforced under the provisions of this chapter on civil enforcement of agency action.~~

~~(5) The subpoena powers created by this section shall be state-wide in effect.~~

~~((4)) (6) Witnesses in an (agency hearing or contested case) adjudicatory proceeding shall be paid the same fees and allowances, in the same manner and under the same conditions, as provided for witnesses in the courts of this state by chapter 2.40 RCW and by RCW 5.56.010. ((as now or hereafter amended-PROVIDED:)) except that the agency shall have the power to fix the allowance for meals and lodging in like manner as is provided in RCW 5.56.010((-as now or hereafter amended:)) as to courts. ((Such)) The person initiating an adjudicative proceeding or the party requesting issuance of a subpoena shall pay the fees and allowances((;)) and the cost of producing records required to be produced by ((agency)) subpoena((- shall be paid by the agency or, in a contested case, by the party requesting the issuance of the subpoena.~~

~~(5) If an individual fails to obey a subpoena, or obeys a subpoena but refuses to testify when requested concerning any matter under examination or investigation at the hearing, the agency or attorney issuing the subpoena may petition the superior court of the county where the hearing is being conducted for enforcement of the subpoena. The petition shall be accompanied by a copy of the subpoena and proof of service, and shall set forth in what specific manner the subpoena has not been complied with, and shall ask an order of the court to compel the witness to appear and testify before the agency. The court upon such petition shall enter an order directing the witness to appear before the court at a time and place to be fixed in such order and then and there to show cause why he has not responded to the subpoena or has refused to testify. A copy of the order shall be served upon the witness. If it appears to the court that the subpoena was properly issued and that the particular questions which the witness refuses to answer are reasonable and relevant, and in the case of a rule-making hearing that the requested appearance and testimony are necessary to secure information the expected nature of which would reasonably tend to cause the agency to exercise its rule-making authority, the court shall enter an order that the witness appear at the time and place fixed in the order and testify or produce the required papers, and on failing to obey said order the witness shall be dealt with as for contempt of court).~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 414. PROCEDURE AT HEARING. (1) The presiding officer shall regulate the course of the proceedings, in conformity with the prehearing order, if any.

(2) To the extent necessary for full disclosure of all relevant facts and issues, the presiding officer shall afford to all parties the opportunity to respond, present evidence and argument, conduct cross-examination, and submit rebuttal evidence, except as restricted by a limited grant of intervention or by the prehearing order.

(3) In the discretion of the presiding officer, and where the rights of the parties will not be prejudiced thereby, all or part of the hearing may be conducted by telephone, television, or other electronic means. Each party in the hearing must have an opportunity to participate effectively in, to hear, and, if technically and economically feasible, to see the entire proceeding while it is taking place.

(4) The presiding officer shall cause the hearing to be recorded by a method chosen by the agency. The agency is not required, at its expense, to prepare a transcript, unless required to do so by a provision of law. Any party, at the party's expense, may cause a reporter approved by the agency to prepare a transcript from the agency's record, or cause additional recordings to be made during the hearing if the making of the additional recording does not cause distraction or disruption.

(5) The hearing is open to public observation, except for the parts that the presiding officer states to be closed under a provision of law expressly authorizing closure or under a protective order issued by the presiding officer pursuant to rules adopted by the chief administrative law judge. A presiding officer may order the exclusion of witnesses upon a showing of good cause. To the extent that the hearing is conducted by telephone, television, or other electronic means, and is not closed, the availability of public observation is satisfied by giving members of the public an opportunity, at reasonable times, to hear or inspect the agency's record, and to inspect any transcript obtained by the agency.

Sec. 415. RULES OF EVIDENCE—CROSS-EXAMINATION. Section 10, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 and RCW 34.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((In contested cases:))~~

~~(1) ((Agencies, or their authorized agents, may admit and give probative effect to evidence which possesses probative value commonly accepted by reasonably prudent men in the conduct of their affairs. They shall give effect to the rules of privilege recognized by law. They may exclude incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial, and unduly repetitious evidence.~~

~~(2) All evidence, including but not limited to records and documents in the possession of the agency of which it desires to avail itself, shall be offered and made a part of the record in the case, and no other factual information or evidence shall be considered in the determination of the case:)) Evidence, including hearsay evidence, is admissible if in the judgment of the presiding officer it is the kind of evidence on which reasonably prudent persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of their affairs. The presiding officer shall exclude evidence that is excludable on constitutional or statutory grounds or on the basis of evidentiary privilege recognized in the courts of this state. The presiding officer may exclude evidence that is irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious.~~

(2) If not inconsistent with subsection (1) of this section, the presiding officer shall refer to the Washington Rules of Evidence as guidelines for evidentiary rulings.

(3) All testimony of parties and witnesses shall be made under oath or affirmation.

(4) Documentary evidence may be received in the form of copies or excerpts, or by incorporation by reference.

~~((3) Every party shall have the right of cross-examination of witnesses who testify, and shall have the right to submit rebuttal evidence.~~

(4) Agencies, or their authorized agents, may take) (5) Official notice may be taken of (a) any judicially cognizable facts ((and in addition may take notice of general)), (b) technical((;)) or scientific facts within ((their)) the agency's specialized knowledge, and (c) codes or standards that have been adopted by an agency of the United States, of this state or of another state, or by a nationally recognized organization or association. Parties shall be notified either before or during hearing, or by reference in preliminary reports or otherwise, of the material so noticed and the sources thereof, including any staff memoranda and data, and they shall be afforded an opportunity to contest the facts and material so noticed. ((Agencies, or their authorized agents, may utilize their experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to them:)) A party proposing that official notice be taken may be required to produce a copy of the material to be noticed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 416. EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS. (1) A presiding officer may not communicate, directly or indirectly, regarding any issue in the proceeding other than communications necessary to procedural aspects of maintaining an orderly process, with any person employed by the agency without notice and opportunity for all parties to participate, except as provided in this subsection:

(a) Where the ultimate legal authority of an agency is vested in a multimember body, and where that body presides at an adjudication, members of the body may communicate with one another regarding the proceeding;

(b) Any presiding officer may receive aid from legal counsel, or from staff assistants who are subject to the presiding officer's supervision; and

(c) Presiding officers may communicate with other employees or consultants of the agency who have not participated in the proceeding in any manner, and who are not engaged in any investigative or prosecutorial functions in the same or a factually related case.

(d) This subsection does not apply to communications required for the disposition of ex parte matters specifically authorized by statute.

(2) Unless required for the disposition of ex parte matters specifically authorized by statute or unless necessary to procedural aspects of maintaining an orderly process, a presiding officer may not communicate, directly or indirectly, regarding any issue in the proceeding, with any person not employed by the agency who has a direct or indirect interest in the outcome of the proceeding, without notice and opportunity for all parties to participate.

(3) Unless necessary to procedural aspects of maintaining an orderly process, persons to whom a presiding officer may not communicate under subsections (1) and (2) of this section may not communicate with presiding officers without notice and opportunity for all parties to participate.

(4) If, before serving as presiding officer in an adjudicative proceeding, a person receives an ex parte communication of a type that could not properly be received while serving, the person, promptly after starting to serve, shall disclose the communication in the manner prescribed in subsection (5) of this section.

(5) A presiding officer who receives an ex parte communication in violation of this section shall place on the record of the pending matter all written communications received, all written responses to the communications, and a memorandum stating the substance of all oral communications received, all responses made, and the identity of each person from whom the presiding officer received an ex parte communication. The presiding officer shall advise all parties that these matters have been placed on the record. Upon request made within ten days after notice of the ex parte communication, any party desiring to rebut the communication shall be allowed to place a written rebuttal statement on the record. Portions of the record pertaining to ex parte communications or rebuttal statements do not constitute evidence of any fact at issue in the matter unless a party moves the admission of any portion of the record for purposes of establishing a fact at issue and that portion is admitted pursuant to section 415 of this act.

(6) If necessary to eliminate the effect of an ex parte communication received in violation of this section, a presiding officer who receives the communication may be disqualified, and the portions of the record pertaining to the communication may be sealed by protective order.

(7) The agency shall, and any party may, report any violation of this section to appropriate authorities for any disciplinary proceedings provided by law. In addition, each agency by rule may provide for appropriate sanctions, including default, for any violations of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 417. SEPARATION OF FUNCTIONS. (1) A person who has served as investigator, prosecutor, or advocate in an adjudicative proceeding or in its preadjudicative stage, or one who is subject to the authority, direction, or discretion of such a person, may not serve as a presiding officer in the same proceeding.

(2) A person, including an agency head, who has participated in a determination of probable cause or other equivalent preliminary determination in an adjudicative proceeding may serve as presiding officer or assist or advise a presiding officer in the same proceeding unless a party demonstrates grounds for disqualification in accordance with section 406 of this act.

(3) A person may serve as presiding officer at successive stages of the same adjudicative proceeding unless a party demonstrates grounds for disqualification in accordance with section 406 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 418. ENTRY OF ORDERS. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section:

(a) If the presiding officer is the agency head or one or more members of the agency head, the presiding officer may enter an initial order if further review is available within the agency, or a final order if further review is not available;

(b) If the presiding officer is a person designated by the agency to make the final decision and enter the final order, the presiding officer shall enter a final order; and

(c) If the presiding officer is one or more administrative law judges, the presiding officer shall enter an initial order.

(2) With respect to agencies exempt from chapter 34.12 RCW or an institution of higher education, the presiding officer shall transmit a full and complete record of the proceedings, including such comments upon demeanor of witnesses as the presiding officer deems relevant, to each agency official who is to enter a final or initial order after considering the record and evidence so transmitted.

(3) Initial and final orders shall include a statement of findings and conclusions, and the reasons and basis therefor, on all the material issues of fact, law, or discretion presented on the record, including the remedy or sanction and, if applicable, the action taken on a petition for a stay of effectiveness. Any findings based substantially on credibility of evidence or demeanor of witnesses shall be so identified. Findings set forth in language that is essentially a repetition or paraphrase of the relevant provision of law shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying evidence of record to support the findings. The order shall also include a statement of the available procedures and time limits for seeking reconsideration or other administrative relief. An initial order shall include a statement of any circumstances under which the initial order, without further notice, may become a final order.

(4) Findings of fact shall be based exclusively on the evidence of record in the adjudicative proceeding and on matters officially noticed in that proceeding. Findings shall be based on the kind of evidence on which reasonably prudent persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of their affairs. Findings may be based on such evidence even if it would be inadmissible in a civil trial. However, the presiding officer shall not base a finding exclusively on such inadmissible evidence unless the presiding officer determines that doing so would not unduly abridge the parties' opportunities to confront witnesses and rebut evidence. The basis for this determination shall appear in the order.

(5) Where it bears on the issues presented, the agency's experience, technical competency, and specialized knowledge may be used in the evaluation of evidence.

(6) If a person serving or designated to serve as presiding officer becomes unavailable for any reason before entry of the order, a substitute presiding officer shall be appointed as provided in section 406 of this act. The substitute presiding officer shall use any existing record and may conduct any further proceedings appropriate in the interests of justice.

(7) The presiding officer may allow the parties a designated time after conclusion of the hearing for the submission of memos, briefs, or proposed findings.

(8) Initial or final orders shall be served in writing within ninety days after conclusion of the hearing or after submission of memos, briefs, or proposed findings in accordance with subsection (7) of this section unless this period is waived or extended for good cause shown.

(9) The presiding officer shall cause copies of initial and final orders to be delivered to each party and to the agency head.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 419. REVIEW OF INITIAL ORDERS. (1) As authorized by law, an agency may by rule provide that initial orders in specified classes of cases may become final without further agency action unless, within a specified period, (a) the agency head upon its own motion determines that the initial order should be reviewed, or (b) a party to the proceedings files exceptions to the initial order. Upon occurrence of either event, notice shall be given to all parties to the proceeding.

(2) As provided by law, an agency head may appoint a person to review initial orders and to prepare and enter final agency orders.

(3) Sections 406 and 416 of this act apply to any person reviewing an initial order on behalf of an agency as part of the decision process, and to persons communicating with them, to the same extent that it is applicable to presiding officers.

(4) The officer reviewing the initial order (including the agency head reviewing an initial order) is, for the purposes of this chapter, termed the reviewing officer. The reviewing officer shall exercise all the decision-making power that the reviewing officer would have had to decide and enter the final order had the reviewing officer presided over the hearing, except to the extent that the issues subject to review are limited by a provision of law or by the reviewing officer upon notice to all the parties. In reviewing findings of fact by presiding officers, the reviewing officers shall give due regard to the presiding officer's opportunity to observe the witnesses.

(5) The reviewing officer shall personally consider the whole record or such portions of it as may be cited by the parties.

(6) The reviewing officer shall afford each party an opportunity to present written argument and may afford each party an opportunity to present oral argument.

(7) The reviewing officer shall enter a final order disposing of the proceeding or remand the matter for further proceedings, with instructions to the presiding officer who entered the initial order. Upon remanding a matter, the reviewing officer shall order such temporary relief as is authorized and appropriate.

(8) A final order shall include, or incorporate by reference to the initial order, all matters required by section 418(3) of this act.

(9) The reviewing officer shall cause copies of the final order or order remanding the matter for further proceedings to be served upon each party.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 420. STAY. A party may submit to the presiding or reviewing officer, as is appropriate to the stage of the proceeding, a petition for stay of effectiveness of a final order within ten days of its service unless otherwise provided by statute or stated in the final order. Disposition of the petition for stay shall be made by the presiding officer, reviewing officer, or agency head as provided by agency rule. Disposition may be made either before or after the effective date of the final order. Disposition denying a stay is not subject to judicial review.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 421. RECONSIDERATION. (1) Within ten days of the service of a final order, any party may file a petition for reconsideration, stating the specific grounds upon which relief is requested. The place of filing shall be specified by agency rule.

(2) The petition shall be disposed of by the same person or persons who entered the order, if reasonably available. The disposition shall be in the form of a written order denying the petition, granting the petition and dissolving or modifying the final order, or granting the petition and setting the matter for further hearing. The petition shall be deemed to have been denied if not disposed of within twenty days.

(3) No petition for reconsideration may stay the effectiveness of an order.

(4) The agency head may extend the time limits in this section for good cause, with due consideration that the rights of the parties will not be prejudiced by the extension and that extension will be in the public interest.

(5) The filing of a petition for reconsideration is not a prerequisite for seeking judicial review. An order denying reconsideration, or an extension of time limits pursuant to subsection (4) of this section is not subject to judicial review.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 422. EFFECTIVENESS OF ORDERS. (1) Unless a later date is stated in an order or a stay is granted, an order is effective when signed, but:

(a) A party may not be required to comply with a final order unless the party has been served with or has actual knowledge of the final order;

(b) A nonparty may not be required to comply with a final order unless the agency has made the final order available for public inspection and copying or the nonparty has actual knowledge of the final order;

(c) For purposes of determining time limits for further administrative procedure or for judicial review, the determinative date is the date of service of the order.

(2) Unless a later date is stated in the initial order or a stay is granted, the time when an initial order becomes a final order in accordance with section 418 of this act is determined as follows:

(a) When the initial order is entered, if administrative review is unavailable; or

(b) When the agency head with such authority enters an order stating, after a petition for administrative review has been filed, that review will not be exercised.

(3) This section does not preclude an agency from taking immediate action to protect the public interest in accordance with section 424 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 423. AGENCY RECORD. (1) An agency shall maintain an official record of each adjudicative proceeding under this chapter.

(2) The agency record shall include:

(a) Notices of all proceedings;

(b) Any prehearing order;

(c) Any motions, pleadings, briefs, petitions, requests, and intermediate rulings;

(d) Evidence received or considered;

(e) A statement of matters officially noticed;

(f) Proffers of proof and objections and rulings thereon;

(g) Proposed findings, requested orders, and exceptions;

(h) The recording prepared for the presiding officer at the hearing, together with any transcript of all or part of the hearing considered before final disposition of the proceeding;

(i) Any final order, initial order, or order on reconsideration;

(j) Staff memoranda or data submitted to the presiding officer, unless prepared and submitted by personal assistants and not inconsistent with section 416 of this act; and

(k) Matters placed on the record after an ex parte communication.

(3) Except to the extent that this chapter or another statute provides otherwise, the agency record constitutes the exclusive basis for agency action in adjudicative proceedings under this chapter and for judicial review of adjudicative proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 424. EMERGENCY ADJUDICATIVE PROCEEDINGS. (1) Unless otherwise provided by law, an agency may use emergency adjudicative proceedings in a situation involving an immediate danger to the public health, safety, or welfare requiring immediate agency action.

(2) The agency may take only such action as is necessary to prevent or avoid the immediate danger to the public health, safety, or welfare that justifies use of emergency adjudication.

(3) The agency shall enter an order, including a brief statement of findings of fact, conclusions of law, and policy reasons for the decision if it is an exercise of the agency's discretion, to justify the determination of an immediate danger and the agency's decision to take the specific action.

(4) The agency shall give such notice as is practicable to persons who are required to comply with the order. The order is effective when entered.

(5) After entering an order under this section, the agency shall proceed as quickly as feasible to complete any proceedings that would be required if the matter did not involve an immediate danger.

(6) The agency record consists of any documents regarding the matter that were considered or prepared by the agency. The agency shall maintain these documents as its official record.

(7) Unless otherwise required by a provision of law, the agency record need not constitute the exclusive basis for agency action in emergency adjudicative proceedings or for judicial review thereof.

(8) This section shall not apply to agency action taken pursuant to a provision of law that expressly authorizes the agency to issue a cease and desist order. The agency may proceed, alternatively, under that independent authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 425. BRIEF ADJUDICATIVE PROCEEDINGS—APPLICABILITY. (1) An agency may use brief adjudicative proceedings if:

(a) The use of those proceedings in the circumstances does not violate any provision of law;

(b) The protection of the public interest does not require the agency to give notice and an opportunity to participate to persons other than the parties;

(c) The matter is entirely within one or more categories for which the agency by rule has adopted this section and sections 426 through 429 of this act; and

(d) The issue and interests involved in the controversy do not warrant use of the procedures of sections 402 through 424 of this act.

(2) Brief adjudicative proceedings are not authorized for public assistance and food stamp programs provided for in Title 74 RCW, including but not limited to public assistance as defined in RCW 74.04.005(1).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 426. BRIEF ADJUDICATIVE PROCEEDINGS—PROCEDURE. (1) If not specifically prohibited by law, the following persons may be designated as the presiding officer of a brief adjudicative proceeding:

(a) The agency head;

(b) One or more members of the agency head;

(c) One or more administrative law judges; or

(d) One or more other persons designated by the agency head.

(2) Before taking action, the presiding officer shall give each party an opportunity to be informed of the agency's view of the matter and to explain the party's view of the matter.

(3) At the time any unfavorable action is taken the presiding officer shall give each party a brief statement of the reasons for the decision. Within ten days, the presiding officer shall give the parties a brief written statement of the reasons for the decision and information about any internal administrative review available.

(4) The brief written statement is a proposed order. If no review is taken of the proposed order as authorized by sections 427 and 428 of this act, the proposed order shall be the final order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 427. BRIEF PROCEEDINGS—ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW—APPLICABILITY. Unless prohibited by any provision of law, an agency, on its own motion, may conduct administrative review of an order resulting from brief adjudicative proceedings. An agency shall conduct this review upon the written or oral request of a party if the agency receives the request within twenty-one days after furnishing the written statement required by section 426(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 428. BRIEF PROCEEDINGS—ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW—PROCEDURES. Unless otherwise provided by statute:

(1) If the parties have not requested review, the agency may review an order resulting from a brief adjudicative proceeding on its own motion and without notice to the parties, but it may not take any action on review less favorable to any party than the original order without giving that party notice and an opportunity to explain that party's view of the matter.

(2) The reviewing officer may be any person who could have presided at the brief proceeding, but the reviewing officer must be one who is authorized to grant appropriate relief upon review.

(3) The reviewing officer shall give each party an opportunity to explain the party's view of the matter and shall make any inquiries necessary to ascertain whether the proceeding must be converted to a formal adjudicative hearing.

(4) The order on review must be in writing, must include a brief statement of the reasons for the decision, and must be entered within twenty days after the date of the initial order or of the request for review, whichever is later. The order shall include a description of any further available administrative review or, if none is available, a notice that judicial review may be available.

(5) A request for administrative review is deemed to have been denied if the agency does not make a disposition of the matter within twenty days after the request is submitted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 429. AGENCY RECORD IN BRIEF PROCEEDINGS. (1) The agency record consists of any documents regarding the matter that were considered or prepared by the presiding officer for the brief adjudicative proceeding or by the reviewing officer for any review. The agency shall maintain these documents as its official record.

(2) Unless otherwise required by a provision of law, the agency record need not constitute the exclusive basis for agency action in brief adjudicative proceedings or for the judicial review of brief adjudicative proceedings.

PART XIII.

JUDICIAL REVIEW AND CIVIL ENFORCEMENT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THIS CHAPTER AND OTHER JUDICIAL REVIEW AUTHORITY. This chapter establishes the exclusive means of judicial review of agency action, except:

(1) The provisions of this chapter for judicial review do not apply to litigation in which the sole issue is a claim for money damages or compensation and the agency whose action is at issue does not have statutory authority to determine the claim.

(2) Ancillary procedural matters before the reviewing court, including intervention, class actions, consolidation, joinder, severance, transfer, protective orders, and other relief from disclosure of privileged or confidential material, are governed, to the extent not inconsistent with this chapter, by court rule.

(3) To the extent that de novo review or jury trial review of agency action is expressly authorized by provision of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 502. PETITION FOR REVIEW—WHERE FILED. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section and section 508 of this act, proceedings for review under this chapter shall be instituted by filing a petition in the superior court, at the petitioner's option, for (a) Thurston county, (b) the county of the petitioner's residence or principal place of business, or (c) in any county where the property owned by the petitioner and affected by the contested decision is located.

(2) For proceedings involving institutions of higher education, the petition shall be filed either in the county in which the principal office of the institution involved is located or in the county of a branch campus if the action involves such branch.

Sec. 503. DIRECT REVIEW BY COURT OF APPEALS. Section 1, chapter 76, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.133 are each amended to read as follows:

The final decision of an administrative agency in ~~((a contested case))~~ an adjudicative proceeding under this chapter ((34.04 RCW)) may be directly reviewed by the court of appeals upon certification by the superior court pursuant to this section. An application for ~~((such))~~ direct review must be filed with the superior court within thirty days of the filing of the petition for review in superior court. The superior court may certify a case for direct review only if the judicial review is limited to the record of the agency proceeding and the court finds that:

(1) Fundamental and urgent issues affecting the future administrative process or the public interest are involved which require a prompt determination;

(2) Delay in obtaining a final and prompt determination of such issues would be detrimental to any party or the public interest;

(3) An appeal to the court of appeals would be likely regardless of the determination in superior court; and

(4) The appellate court's determination in the proceeding would have significant precedential value.

Sec. 504. REFUSAL OF REVIEW BY COURT OF APPEALS. Section 2, chapter 76, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.135 are each amended to read as follows:

The court of appeals may refuse to accept review of a case certified pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.133))~~ section 503 of this act. The refusal to accept such review is not subject to further appellate review, notwithstanding anything in Rule 13.3 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure to the contrary.

Sec. 505. APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT OR COURT OF APPEALS. Section 14, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 87, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 34.04.140 are each amended to read as follows:

An aggrieved party may secure a review of any final judgment of the superior court under this chapter by appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals. ~~((Such))~~ The appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from the superior court in other civil cases.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 506. STANDING. A person has standing to obtain judicial review of agency action if that person is aggrieved or adversely affected by the agency action. A person is aggrieved or adversely affected within the meaning of this section only when all three of the following conditions are present:

- (1) The agency action has prejudiced or is likely to prejudice that person;
- (2) That person's asserted interests are among those that the agency was required to consider when it engaged in the agency action challenged; and
- (3) A judgment in favor of that person would substantially eliminate or redress the prejudice to that person caused or likely to be caused by the agency action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 507. EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES. A person may file a petition for judicial review under this chapter only after exhausting all administrative remedies available within the agency whose action is being challenged, or available within any other agency authorized to exercise administrative review, except:

- (1) A petitioner for judicial review of a rule need not have participated in the rule-making proceeding upon which that rule is based, or have petitioned for its amendment or repeal;
- (2) A petitioner for judicial review need not exhaust administrative remedies to the extent that this chapter or any other statute states that exhaustion is not required; or
- (3) The court may relieve a petitioner of the requirement to exhaust any or all administrative remedies upon a showing that:
 - (a) The remedies would be patently inadequate;
 - (b) The exhaustion of remedies would be futile; or
 - (c) The grave irreparable harm that would result from having to exhaust administrative remedies would clearly outweigh the public policy requiring exhaustion of administrative remedies.

Sec. 508. DECLARATORY JUDGMENT ON VALIDITY OF RULE. Section 7, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 8, chapter 6, Laws of 1982 and RCW 34.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((+))~~ The validity of any rule may be determined upon petition for a declaratory judgment ~~((thereon))~~ addressed to the superior court of Thurston county, when it appears that the rule, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs or immediately threatens to interfere with or impair, the legal rights or privileges of the petitioner. The agency shall be made a party to the proceeding. The declaratory judgment order may be ~~((rendered))~~ entered whether or not the petitioner has first requested the agency to pass upon the validity of the rule in question.

~~((2))~~ ~~In a proceeding under subsection (1) of this section the court shall declare the rule invalid only if it finds that it violates constitutional provisions or exceeds the statutory authority of the agency or was adopted without compliance with statutory rule-making procedures:~~

~~(3) A petition for a declaratory judgment pursuant to this section may not be solely based on the contents of the small business economic impact statement. However, in the case of a petition for a declaratory judgment as to the validity of any rule which is adopted after June 10, 1982, and which is based on grounds other than the contents of the small business economic impact statement, the compliance or noncompliance by the agency with the provisions of this chapter and where applicable the small business economic impact statement shall constitute part of the whole record of the agency's action in connection with the petition.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 509. TIME FOR FILING PETITION FOR REVIEW. Subject to other requirements of this chapter or of another statute:

- (1) A petition for judicial review of a rule may be filed at any time, except as limited by section 314 of this act.
- (2) A petition for judicial review of an order shall be filed with the court and served on the agency, the office of the attorney general, and all parties of record within thirty days after service of the final order.
- (3) A petition for judicial review of agency action other than the adoption of a rule or the entry of an order is not timely unless filed with the court and served on the agency, the office of the attorney general, and all other parties of record within thirty days after the agency action, but the time is extended during any period that the petitioner did not know and was under no duty to discover or could not reasonably have discovered that the agency had taken the action or that the agency action had a sufficient effect to confer standing upon the petitioner to obtain judicial review under this chapter.

(4) Service of the petition on the agency shall be by delivery of a copy of the petition to the office of the director, or other chief administrative officer or chairperson of the agency, at the principal office of the agency. Service of a copy by mail upon the other parties of record and the office of the attorney general shall be deemed complete upon deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark.

(5) Failure to timely serve a petition on the office of the attorney general is not grounds for dismissal of the petition.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 510. PETITION FOR REVIEW—CONTENTS. A petition for review must set forth:

- (1) The name and mailing address of the petitioner;
- (2) The name and mailing address of the petitioner's attorney, if any;
- (3) The name and mailing address of the agency whose action is at issue;
- (4) Identification of the agency action at issue, together with a duplicate copy, summary, or brief description of the agency action;
- (5) Identification of persons who were parties in any adjudicative proceedings that led to the agency action;
- (6) Facts to demonstrate that the petitioner is entitled to obtain judicial review;
- (7) The petitioner's reasons for believing that relief should be granted; and
- (8) A request for relief, specifying the type and extent of relief requested.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 511. STAY AND OTHER TEMPORARY REMEDIES. (1) Unless precluded by law, the agency may grant a stay, in whole or in part, or other temporary remedy during the pendency of judicial review.

(2) After a petition for review has been filed, a party may file a motion in the reviewing court seeking a stay or other temporary remedy.

(3) If judicial relief is sought for a stay or other temporary remedy from agency action based on public health, safety, or welfare grounds the court shall not grant such relief unless the court finds that:

- (a) The applicant is likely to prevail when the court finally disposes of the matter;
- (b) Without relief the applicant will suffer irreparable injury;
- (c) The grant of relief to the applicant will not substantially harm other parties to the proceedings; and
- (d) The threat to the public health, safety, or welfare is not sufficiently serious to justify the agency action in the circumstances.

(4) If the court determines that relief should be granted from the agency's action granting a stay or other temporary remedies, the court may remand the matter or may enter an order denying a stay or granting a stay on appropriate terms.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 512. LIMITATION ON NEW ISSUES. (1) Issues not raised before the agency may not be raised on appeal, except to the extent that:

- (a) The person did not know and was under no duty to discover or could not have reasonably discovered facts giving rise to the issue;
- (b) The agency action subject to judicial review is a rule and the person has not been a party in adjudicative proceedings that provided an adequate opportunity to raise the issue;
- (c) The agency action subject to judicial review is an order and the person was not notified of the adjudicative proceeding in substantial compliance with this chapter; or
- (d) The interests of justice would be served by resolution of an issue arising from:
 - (i) A change in controlling law occurring after the agency action; or
 - (ii) Agency action occurring after the person exhausted the last feasible opportunity for seeking relief from the agency.

(2) The court shall remand to the agency for determination any issue that is properly raised pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 513. JUDICIAL REVIEW OF FACTS CONFINED TO RECORD. Judicial review of disputed issues of fact shall be conducted by the court without a jury and must be confined to the agency record for judicial review as defined by this chapter, supplemented by additional evidence taken pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 514. NEW EVIDENCE TAKEN BY COURT OR AGENCY. (1) The court may receive evidence in addition to that contained in the agency record for judicial review, only if it relates to the validity of the agency action at the time it was taken and is needed to decide disputed issues regarding:

- (a) Improper constitution as a decision-making body or grounds for disqualification of those taking the agency action;
- (b) Unlawfulness of procedure or of decision-making process; or
- (c) Material facts in rule making, brief adjudications, or other proceedings not required to be determined on the agency record.

(2) The court may remand a matter to the agency, before final disposition of a petition for review, with directions that the agency conduct fact-finding and other proceedings the court considers necessary and that the agency take such further action on the basis thereof as the court directs, if:

(a) The agency was required by this chapter or any other provision of law to base its action exclusively on a record of a type reasonably suitable for judicial review, but the agency failed to prepare or preserve an adequate record;

(b) The court finds that (i) new evidence has become available that relates to the validity of the agency action at the time it was taken, that one or more of the parties did not know and was under no duty to discover or could not have reasonably been discovered until after the agency action, and (ii) the interests of justice would be served by remand to the agency;

(c) The agency improperly excluded or omitted evidence from the record; or

(d) A relevant provision of law changed after the agency action and the court determines that the new provision may control the outcome.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 515. AGENCY RECORD FOR REVIEW—COSTS. (1) Within thirty days after service of the petition, or within further time allowed by the court or by other provision of law, the agency shall transmit to the court the original or a certified copy of the agency record for judicial review of the agency action. The record shall consist of any agency documents expressing the agency action, other documents identified by the agency as having been considered by it before its action and used as a basis for its action, and any other material described in this chapter as the agency record for the type of agency action at issue, subject to the provisions of this section.

(2) If part of the record has been preserved without a transcript, the agency shall prepare a transcript for inclusion in the record transmitted to the court, except for portions that the parties stipulate to omit in accordance with subsection (4) of this section.

(3) The agency may charge a nonindigent petitioner with the reasonable costs of preparing any necessary copies and transcripts for transmittal to the court. A failure by the petitioner to pay any of this cost to the agency relieves the agency from the responsibility for preparation of the record and transmittal to the court.

(4) The record may be shortened, summarized, or organized temporarily or, by stipulation of all parties, permanently.

(5) The court may tax the cost of preparing transcripts and copies for the record:

(a) Against a party who unreasonably refuses to stipulate to shorten, summarize, or organize the record;

(b) As provided by section 516 of this act; or

(c) In accordance with any other provision of law.

(6) Additions to the record pursuant to section 514 of this act must be made as ordered by the court.

(7) The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record.

Sec. 516. JUDICIAL REVIEW. Section 13, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 52, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 34.04.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~(Any person aggrieved by a final decision in a contested case, whether such decision is affirmative or negative in form, is entitled to judicial review thereof only under the provisions of this 1967 amendatory act, and such person may not use any other procedure to obtain judicial review of a final decision, even though another procedure is provided elsewhere by a special statute or a statute of general application. Where the agency's rules provide a procedure for rehearing or reconsideration, and that procedure has been invoked, the agency decision shall not be final until the agency shall have acted thereon.~~

~~(2) Proceedings for review under this chapter shall be instituted by filing a petition in the superior court, at the petitioner's option, for (a) Thurston county, (b) the county of the petitioner's residence or principal place of business, or (c) in any county where the property owned by the petitioner and affected by the contested decision is located. The petition shall be served and filed within thirty days after the service of the final decision of the agency. Copies of the petition shall be served upon the agency and all parties of record. If a timely petition is filed any party of record not filing or joining in the first petition who wants relief from the decision must join in the petition or serve and file a cross-petition within twenty days after service of the first petition or thirty days after service of the final decision of the agency, whichever period of time is longer. The court, in its discretion, may permit other interested persons to intervene.~~

~~(3) The filing of the petition shall not stay enforcement of the agency decision. Where other statutes provide for stay or supersedeas of an agency decision, it may be stayed by the agency or the reviewing court only as provided therein; otherwise the agency may do so, or the reviewing court may order a stay upon such terms as it deems proper.~~

~~(4) Within thirty days after service of the petition, or within such further time as the court may allow, the agency shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review; but, by stipulation of all parties to the review proceeding, the record may be shortened. Any party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional costs. The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record when deemed desirable.~~

~~(5) The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury and shall be confined to the record, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the agency, not~~

~~shown in the record, testimony thereon may be taken in the court. The court shall, upon request, hear oral argument and receive written briefs:~~

~~(6) The court may affirm the decision of the agency or remand the case for further proceedings; or it may reverse the decision if the substantial rights of the petitioners may have been prejudiced because the administrative findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are)) Generally, Except to the extent that this chapter or another statute provides otherwise:~~

~~(a) The burden of demonstrating the invalidity of agency action is on the party asserting invalidity;~~

~~(b) The validity of agency action shall be determined in accordance with the standards of review provided in this section, as applied to the agency action at the time it was taken;~~

~~(c) The court shall make a separate and distinct ruling on each material issue on which the court's decision is based; and~~

~~(d) The court shall grant relief only if it determines that a person seeking judicial relief has been substantially prejudiced by the action complained of.~~

~~(2) Review of rules. (a) A rule may be reviewed by petition for declaratory judgment filed pursuant to section 508 of this act or by review of other agency action.~~

~~(b) The validity of any rule may be determined upon petition for a declaratory judgment addressed to the superior court of Thurston county, when it appears that the rule, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs or immediately threatens to interfere with or impair the legal rights or privileges of the petitioner. The agency shall be made a party to the proceeding. The declaratory judgment order may be entered whether or not the petitioner has first requested the agency to pass upon the validity of the rule in question.~~

~~(c) In a declaratory judgment proceeding, the court shall declare the rule invalid only if it finds that it violates constitutional provisions or exceeds the statutory authority of the agency or was adopted without compliance with statutory rule-making procedures.~~

~~(3) Review of agency orders. The court shall grant relief from an agency order only if it determines that:~~

~~(a) The order, or the statute or rule on which the order is based, is in violation of constitutional provisions on its face or as applied; ((or))~~

~~(b) ((in excess of)) The order is outside the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the agency conferred by any provision of law; ((or))~~

~~(c) ((made upon)) The agency has engaged in unlawful procedure or decision making process, or has failed to follow a prescribed procedure; ((or))~~

~~(d) ((affected by other error of)) The agency has erroneously interpreted or applied the law; ((or))~~

~~(e) ((clearly erroneous in view of the entire record as submitted and the public policy contained in the act of the legislature authorizing the decision or order)) The order, other than a rule, is not supported by evidence that is substantial when viewed in light of the whole record before the court, which includes the agency record for judicial review, supplemented by any additional evidence received by the court under this chapter; ((or))~~

~~(f) The agency has not decided all issues requiring resolution by the agency;~~

~~(g) The persons entering the order were subject to disqualification;~~

~~(h) The order is inconsistent with a rule of the agency unless the agency explains the inconsistency by stating facts and reasons to demonstrate a rational basis for inconsistency; or~~

~~(i) The order is arbitrary or capricious.~~

~~(4) Review of other agency action.~~

~~(a) All agency action not reviewable under subsection (2) or (3) of this section shall be reviewed under this subsection.~~

~~(b) A person whose rights are violated by an agency's failure to perform a duty that is required by law to be performed may file a petition for review pursuant to section 502 of this act, seeking an order pursuant to this subsection requiring performance. Within twenty days after service of the petition for review, the agency shall file and serve an answer to the petition, made in the same manner as an answer to a complaint in a civil action. The court may hear evidence, pursuant to section 514 of this act, on material issues of fact raised by the petition.~~

~~(c) Relief for persons aggrieved by the performance of an agency action, including the exercise of discretion, or an action under (b) of this subsection can be granted only if the court determines that the action is:~~

~~(i) Unconstitutional;~~

~~(ii) Outside the statutory authority of the agency or the authority conferred by a provision of law;~~

~~(iii) Arbitrary or capricious; or~~

~~(iv) Taken by persons who were not properly constituted as agency officials lawfully entitled to take such action.~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 517. TYPE OF RELIEF. (1) The court may order an agency to take action required by law, order an agency to exercise discretion required by law, affirm or set aside agency action, enjoin or stay the agency action, remand the matter for further proceedings, or enter a declaratory judgment order. In reviewing matters within agency discretion, the court shall limit its function to assuring that the agency has exercised its discretion in accordance with law, and shall not itself undertake to exercise the discretion that the legislature has placed in the agency. The court shall remand to the agency for modification of agency action, unless remand is impracticable or would cause unnecessary delay.

(2) The sole remedy available to a person who is wrongfully denied licensure based upon a failure to pass an examination administered by a state agency, or under its auspices, is the right to retake the examination free of the defect or defects the court may have found in the examination or the examination procedure.

(3) The court may award damages, compensation, or ancillary relief only to the extent expressly authorized by another provision of law.

(4) If the court sets aside or modifies agency action or remands the matter to the agency for further proceedings, the court may make any interlocutory order it finds necessary to preserve the interests of the parties and the public, pending further proceedings or agency action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 518. PETITION BY AGENCY FOR ENFORCEMENT. (1) In addition to other remedies provided by law, an agency may seek enforcement of its rule or order by filing a petition for civil enforcement in the superior court.

(2) The petition must name as respondent each alleged person against whom the agency seeks to obtain civil enforcement.

(3) Venue is determined as in other civil cases.

(4) A petition for civil enforcement filed by an agency may request, and the court may grant, declaratory relief, temporary or permanent injunctive relief, any other civil remedy provided by law, or any combination of the foregoing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 519. PETITION BY OTHERS FOR ENFORCEMENT. (1) Any person who would qualify under this chapter as having standing to obtain judicial review of an agency's failure to enforce an order directed to another person may file a petition for civil enforcement of that order, but the action may not be commenced:

(a) Until at least sixty days after the petitioner has given notice of the alleged violation and of the petitioner's intent to seek civil enforcement to the head of the agency concerned, to the attorney general, and to each person against whom the petitioner seeks civil enforcement;

(b) If the agency has filed and is diligently prosecuting a petition for civil enforcement of the same order against the same person; or

(c) If a petition for review of the same order has been filed and a stay is in effect.

(2) The petition shall name, as respondents, the agency whose order is sought to be enforced and each person against whom the petitioner seeks civil enforcement.

(3) The agency whose order is sought to be enforced may move to dismiss the petition on the grounds that it fails to qualify under this section or that the enforcement would be contrary to the policy of the agency. The court shall grant the motion to dismiss the petition unless the petitioner demonstrates that (a) the petition qualifies under this section and (b) the agency's failure to enforce its order is based on an exercise of discretion that is arbitrary or capricious.

(4) Except to the extent expressly authorized by law, a petition for civil enforcement may not request, and the court may not grant, any monetary payment apart from taxable costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 520. DEFENSES—LIMITATION ON NEW ISSUES. (1) In a proceeding for civil enforcement a respondent may only assert as a defense:

(a) That the rule or order is invalid under section 516(3) (a) or (b) of this act. The court may only consider issues and receive evidence within the limitations provided by sections 512, 513, and 514 of this act;

(b) That the rule or order does not apply to the party or that the party has not violated the rule or order; and

(c) A defense specifically authorized by statute.

(2) The court, to the extent necessary for the determination of the matter, may consider new issues or take new evidence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 521. INCORPORATION OF OTHER JUDICIAL REVIEW PROVISIONS. Proceedings for civil enforcement are governed by the following provisions of this chapter on judicial review, as modified where necessary to adapt them to those proceedings:

(1) Section 501(2) of this act (ancillary procedural matters); and

(2) Section 515 of this act (agency record for judicial review).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 522. REVIEW BY HIGHER COURT. Decisions on petitions for civil enforcement are reviewable as in other civil cases.

PART XIV.

LEGISLATIVE REVIEW AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Sec. 601. JOINT ADMINISTRATIVE RULES REVIEW COMMITTEE—MEMBERS—APPOINTMENT—TERMS—VACANCIES. Section 5, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1, chapter 53, Laws of 1983 and RCW 34.04.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a joint administrative rules review committee which shall be a bipartisan committee consisting of four senators and four representatives from the state legislature. The senate members of the committee shall be appointed by the president of the senate, and the house members of the committee shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. Not more than two members from each house may be from the same political party. All appointments to the committee are subject to approval by the caucuses to which the appointed members belong.

(2) ~~((The initial members of the committee shall be appointed as soon as possible after July 26, 1981, and shall serve until the next regular session of the legislature convenes in an odd-numbered year. Thereafter))~~ Members shall be appointed as soon as possible after the legislature convenes in regular session in an odd-numbered year, and their terms shall extend until their successors are appointed and qualified at the next regular session of the legislature in an odd-numbered year or until such members no longer serve in the legislature, whichever occurs first. Members may be reappointed to a committee.

(3) The president of the senate shall appoint the chairperson in even-numbered years and the vice chairperson in odd-numbered years from among committee membership. The speaker of the house shall appoint the chairperson in odd-numbered years and the vice chairperson in even-numbered years from among committee membership. Such appointments shall be made in January of each year as soon as possible after a legislative session convenes.

(4) A vacancy on the committee shall be filled by appointment of a legislator from the same political party as the original appointment. The appropriate appointing authority shall make the appointment within thirty days of the vacancy occurring.

Sec. 602. REVIEW OF PROPOSED RULES—NOTICE. Section 6, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1, chapter 451, Laws of 1987 and RCW 34.04.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a majority of the members of the rules review committee determines that a proposed rule is not within the intent of the legislature as expressed in the statute which the rule implements, the committee shall give the affected agency written notice of its decision. The notice shall be given at least seven days prior to any hearing scheduled for consideration of or adoption of the proposed rule pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.025(1)(a)(iii)))~~ section 303 of this act. The notice shall include a statement of the review committee's findings and the reasons therefor. When the agency holds a hearing on the proposed rule, the agency shall consider the review committee's decision.

Sec. 603. REVIEW OF EXISTING RULES—POLICY STATEMENTS, GUIDELINES, ISSUANCES—NOTICE—HEARING. Section 7, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 2, chapter 451, Laws of 1987 and RCW 34.04.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All rules required to be filed pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.048))~~ section 315 of this act, and emergency rules adopted pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.036))~~ section 309 of this act, are subject to selective review by the legislature.

(2) The rules review committee may review an agency's use of policy statements, guidelines, and issuances that are of general applicability, or their equivalents to determine whether or not an agency has failed to adopt a rule ~~((as defined in RCW 34.04.010(2)))~~.

(3) If the rules review committee finds by a majority vote of its members: (a) That an existing rule is not within the intent of the legislature as expressed by the statute which the rule implements, (b) that the rule has not been adopted in accordance with all applicable provisions of law, or (c) that an agency is using a policy statement, guideline, or issuance in place of a rule, the agency affected shall be notified of such finding and the reasons therefor. Within thirty days of the receipt of the rules review committee's notice, the agency shall file notice of a hearing on the rules review committee's finding with the code reviser and mail notice to all persons who have made timely request of the agency for advance notice of its rule-making proceedings as provided in ~~((RCW 34.04.025, as now or hereafter amended))~~ section 303 of this act. The agency's notice shall include the rules review committee's findings and reasons therefor, and shall be published in the Washington state register in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.08 RCW.

(4) The agency shall consider fully all written and oral submissions regarding (a) whether the rule in question is within the intent of the legislature as expressed by the statute which the rule implements, (b) whether the rule was adopted in accordance with all applicable provisions of law, or (c) whether the agency is using a policy statement, guideline, or issuance in place of a rule.

Sec. 604. COMMITTEE OBJECTIONS TO AGENCY ACTION OR FAILURE TO ADOPT RULE—STATEMENT IN REGISTER AND WAC—SUSPENSION OF RULE. Section 8, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 3, chapter 451, Laws of 1987 and RCW 34.04.240 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Within seven days of an agency hearing held after notification of the agency by the rules review committee pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.220 or 34.04.230))~~ section 602 or 603 of this act, the affected agency shall notify the committee of its action on a proposed or existing rule to which the committee objected or on a committee finding of the agency's failure to adopt rules. If the rules review committee determines, by a majority vote of its members, that the agency has failed to provide for the required hearings or notice of its action to the committee, the committee may file notice of its objections, together with a concise statement of the reasons therefor, with the code reviser within thirty days of such determination.

(2) If the rules review committee finds, by a majority vote of its members: (a) That the proposed or existing rule in question has not been modified, amended, withdrawn, or repealed by the agency so as to conform with the intent of the legislature, or (b) that the agency is using a policy statement, guideline, or issuance in place of a rule, the rules review committee may, within thirty days from notification by the agency of its action, file with the code reviser notice of its objections together with a concise statement of the reasons therefor. Such notice and statement shall also be provided to the agency by the rules review committee.

(3) If the rules review committee makes an adverse finding under subsection (2) of this section, the committee may, by a two-thirds vote of its members, recommend suspension of an existing rule. Within seven days of such vote the committee shall transmit to the governor, the code reviser, and the agency written notice of its objection and recommended suspension and the concise reasons therefor. Within thirty days of receipt of the notice, the governor shall transmit to the committee, the code reviser, and the agency written approval or disapproval of the recommended suspension. If the suspension is approved by the governor, it is effective from the date of that approval and continues until ninety days after the expiration of the next regular legislative session.

(4) The code reviser shall publish transmittals from the rules review committee or the governor issued pursuant to subsection (1), (2), or (3) of this section in the Washington state register and shall publish in the next supplement and compilation of the Washington Administrative Code a reference to the committee's objection or recommended suspension and the governor's action on it and to the issue of the Washington state register in which the full text thereof appears.

(5) The reference shall be removed from a rule published in the Washington Administrative Code if a subsequent adjudicatory proceeding determines that the rule is within the intent of the legislature or was adopted in accordance with all applicable laws, whichever was the objection of the rules review committee.

Sec. 605. RECOMMENDATIONS BY COMMITTEE TO LEGISLATURE. Section 9, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 4, chapter 451, Laws of 1987 and RCW 34.04.250 are each amended to read as follows:

The rules review committee may recommend to the legislature that the original enabling legislation serving as authority for the (~~promulgation~~) adoption of any rule reviewed by the committee be amended or repealed in such manner as the committee deems advisable.

Sec. 606. REVIEW AND OBJECTION PROCEDURES—NO PRESUMPTION ESTABLISHED. Section 10, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 and RCW 34.04.260 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the express policy of the legislature that establishment of procedures for review of administrative rules by the legislature and the notice of objection required by (~~RCW 34.04.230(2) and 34.04.240(2)~~) sections 603(2) and 604(2) of this act in no way serves to establish a presumption as to the legality or constitutionality of a rule in any subsequent judicial proceedings interpreting such rules.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 607. The provisions of RCW 4.84.185 relating to civil actions that are frivolous and advanced without reasonable cause apply to petitions for judicial review under this chapter.

PART XV. TECHNICAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 702. DOCUMENTS AND INDEXES TO BE MADE PUBLIC. Section 26, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 3, chapter 403, Laws of 1987 and RCW 42.17.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each agency, in accordance with published rules, shall make available for public inspection and copying all public records, unless the record falls within the specific exemptions of subsection (5) of this section, RCW 42.17.310, 42.17.315, or other statute which exempts or prohibits disclosure of specific information or records. To the extent required to prevent an unreasonable invasion of personal privacy interests protected by RCW 42.17.310 and 42.17.315, an agency shall delete identifying details in a manner consistent with RCW 42.17.310 and 42.17.315 when it makes available or publishes any public record; however, in each case, the justification for the deletion shall be explained fully in writing.

(2) Each agency shall maintain and make available for public inspection and copying a current index providing identifying information as to the following records issued, adopted, or promulgated after ~~((January 1, 1973))~~ the effective date of this section:

(a) Final opinions, including concurring and dissenting opinions, as well as orders, made in the adjudication of cases;

(b) Those statements of policy and interpretations of policy, statute, and the Constitution which have been adopted by the agency under section 203 of this act;

(c) Administrative staff manuals and instructions to staff that affect a member of the public;

(d) Planning policies and goals, and interim and final planning decisions;

(e) Factual staff reports and studies, factual consultant's reports and studies, scientific reports and studies, and any other factual information derived from tests, studies, reports, or surveys, whether conducted by public employees or others; and

(f) Correspondence, and materials referred to therein, and with the agency relating to any regulatory, supervisory, or enforcement responsibilities of the agency, whereby the agency determines, or opines upon, or is asked to determine or opine upon, the rights of the state, the public, a subdivision of state government, or of any private party.

(3) An agency need not maintain such an index for records issued, adopted, or promulgated before the effective date of this section or for records described in (c) through (f) of subsection (2) of this section, if to do so would be unduly burdensome, but it shall in that event:

(a) Issue and publish a formal order specifying the reasons why and the extent to which compliance would unduly burden or interfere with agency operations; and

(b) Make available for public inspection and copying all indexes maintained for agency use.

(4) A public record may be relied on, used, or cited as precedent by an agency against a party other than an agency and it may be invoked by the agency for any other purpose only if—

(a) It has been indexed in an index available to the public; or

(b) Parties affected have timely notice (actual or constructive) of the terms thereof.

(5) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, this chapter shall not be construed as giving authority to any agency to give, sell or provide access to lists of individuals requested for commercial purposes, and agencies shall not do so unless specifically authorized or directed by law((~~PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That~~)).

(b) Lists of applicants for professional licenses and of professional licensees shall be made available to those professional associations or educational organizations recognized by their professional licensing or examination board, upon payment of a reasonable charge therefor((~~PROVIDED FURTHER, That~~)). Such recognition may be refused only for a good cause pursuant to a hearing under the provisions of chapter ((~~34.04~~)) RCW (sections 101 through 607 of this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 703. CAPTIONS AND HEADINGS. Section captions and subchapter headings used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 704. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 705. EFFECTIVE DATE—APPLICATION. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1989, and shall apply to all rule-making actions and agency proceedings begun on or after that date. Rule-making actions or other agency proceedings begun before July 1, 1989, shall be completed under the applicable provisions of chapter 28B.19 or 34.04 RCW existing immediately before that date in the same manner as if they were not amended by this act or repealed by section 701 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 706. Parts IX through XIV of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 34 RCW, and the sections amended or set forth in this act shall be recodified in the order they appear in this act. The code reviser shall correct all statutory references to these sections and to the repealed chapters 28B.19 and 34.04 RCW to reflect this recodification and repeal."

Renumber the parts and sections accordingly and correct internal references accordingly.

In line 1 of the title, after "government;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.131.215, 43.131.216, (uncodified); repealing section 22, chapter 57, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. (uncodified); and providing an effective date."

Signed by Senators Newhouse, Halsan, McCaslin; Representatives H. Sommers, Locke, Hankins.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Report of the Conference Committee on House Bill No. 1515 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Halsan, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8751

by Senators Halsan and Rasmussen

WHEREAS, The Morton High School Huskies won the 1988 State Class B Boys Basketball Championship in Spokane by defeating the St. John-Endicott Eagles in the finals for the second straight year, 56-45; and

WHEREAS, The Huskies showed great character in overcoming all the pressures that come with being defending champions to win their second straight basketball title, which hasn't been done in over three years; and

WHEREAS, The Morton Huskies have proven themselves as model citizens by showing others in their community and across the state what can be achieved through a winning attitude; and

WHEREAS, The Huskies finished the 1988 season with an outstanding record of 24-4, including winning their last thirteen games in a row; and

WHEREAS, Husky players Jason Wood, Troy Trevino, Steve Brewer, Chris Johnson, Kurt Van Fossen, Dennis Tauscher, Jason Eastman, Rick Goble, Chris Trevino, Bob Redick, Kevin Moore, Ed Ruyle and Anthony Koopman; coaches Jay Henderson, Jim Johnson, Kirk Hoff; managers Kyle Henderson and Tim Johnson; cameraman Ray Anderson; stats person Heidi Chambers; and bus driver Debbie Trevino; have given to the town of Morton a strong sense of community spirit and pride;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Washington State Senate, That the Morton High School Huskies, their coaches, and community supporters be congratulated for their remarkable accomplishments; and

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Newhouse moved to reconsider the vote by which the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1420 was adopted and the powers of Free Conference were granted earlier today.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Newhouse to reconsider the vote by which the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1420 was adopted and the powers of Free Conference were granted.

The motion by Senator Newhouse for reconsideration of the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1420 carried.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate commenced consideration of the revised Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1420.

REVISED REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: ESHB 1420

Revising provisions on property taxes.

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that, due to statutory and constitutional limitations, the interdependence of the regular property tax levies of the state, counties, county road districts, cities and towns, and junior taxing districts can cause significant reductions in the otherwise authorized levies of those taxing districts, resulting in serious disruptions to essential services provided by those taxing districts. The purpose of this act is to avoid unnecessary reductions in regular property tax revenue without exceeding existing statutory and constitutional tax limitations on cumulative regular property tax levy rates. The legislature declares that it is a purpose of the state, counties, county road districts, cities and towns, public hospital districts, library districts, fire protection districts, metropolitan park districts, and other taxing districts to participate in the methods provided by this act by which revenue levels supporting the services provided by all taxing districts might be maintained.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 107, Laws of 1986 and RCW 39.67.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any agreement or contract between two taxing districts other than the state which is otherwise authorized by law may be made contingent upon a particular property tax levy rate of an identified taxing district other than the state where such rate affects the regular property tax rate of one of the parties to the contract and therefore affects the party's resources with which to perform under the contract. The governing body of every taxing district that could have its tax levy adversely affected by such a contract shall be notified about the contract.

~~((This section shall expire December 31, 1988.))~~

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 107, Laws of 1986 and RCW 39.67.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any taxing district other than the state may transfer funds to another taxing district other than the state where the regular property tax levy rate of the second district may affect the regular property tax levy rate of the first district and where such transfer is part of an agreement whereby proration or reduction of property taxes is lessened or avoided. The governing body of every taxing district that could have its tax levy adversely affected by such an agreement shall be notified about the agreement.

~~((This section shall expire December 31, 1988.))~~

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 107, Laws of 1986 and RCW 84.55.092 are each amended to read as follows:

The regular property tax ~~((levies))~~ levy for each taxing district other than the state ~~((for taxes due in 1987 through 1991))~~ may be set at the amount which would ~~((otherwise))~~ be allowed otherwise under this chapter if the regular property tax levy for the district for taxes due in prior years beginning with 1986 ~~((and 1987))~~ had been set at the full amount allowed under this chapter.

~~((This section shall expire December 31, 1991.))~~ The purpose of this section is to remove the incentive for a taxing district to maintain its tax levy at the maximum level permitted under this chapter, and to protect the future levy capacity of a taxing district that reduces its tax levy below the level that it otherwise could impose under this chapter, by removing the adverse consequences to future levy capacities resulting from such levy reductions.

Sec. 5. Section 134, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.043 are each amended to read as follows:

Within and subject to the limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 as amended, the regular ad valorem tax levies upon real and personal property by the taxing districts hereafter named shall be as follows:

(1) Levies of the senior taxing districts shall be as follows: (a) The levy by the state shall not exceed three dollars and sixty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value adjusted to the state equalized value in accordance with the indicated ratio fixed by the state department of revenue to be used exclusively for the support of the common schools; (b) the levy by any county shall not exceed one dollar and eighty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value; (c) the levy ~~((for))~~ by any road district shall not exceed two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value; and (d) the levy by ~~((or for))~~ any city or town shall not exceed three dollars and thirty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value ~~((PROVIDED FURTHER. That counties of the fifth class and under are)).~~ However any county is hereby authorized to increase its levy from one dollar and eighty cents to a rate not to exceed two dollars and forty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for general county purposes ~~((and from one dollar and fifty-seven and one-half cents to two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for county road purposes))~~ if the total ~~((levy))~~ levies for both ~~((purposes does))~~ the county and any road district within the county do not exceed four dollars and five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value ~~((PROVIDED FURTHER. That counties of the fourth and the ninth class are hereby authorized to levy two dollars and two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value until such time as the junior taxing agencies are utilizing all the dollar rates available to them: AND PROVIDED FURTHER. That the total property tax levy authorized by law without a vote of the people shall not exceed nine dollars and fifteen cents per thousand dollars of assessed value))~~, and no other taxing district has its levy reduced as a result of the increased county levy.

(2) Except as provided in RCW 84.52.100, the aggregate levies of junior taxing districts and senior taxing districts, other than the state, shall not exceed five dollars and fifty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation. The term "junior taxing districts" includes all taxing districts other than the state, counties, road districts, cities, towns, port districts, and public utility districts. The limitations provided in this subsection shall not apply to: (a) Levies at the rates provided by existing law by or for any port or public utility district ~~((shall not be included in the limitation set forth by this proviso.~~

Nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates provided by existing law by or for any port or power district); (b) excess property tax levies authorized in Article VII, section 2 of the state Constitution; (c) levies for acquiring conservation futures as authorized under RCW 84.34.230; and (d) levies for emergency medical care or emergency medical services imposed under RCW 84.52.069.

(3) It is the intent of the legislature that the provisions of this section shall supersede all conflicting provisions of law including ~~((section 24, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and section 8, chapter 124, Laws of 1972 ex. sess.))~~ RCW 84.52.050.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 138, Laws of 1987 and RCW 84.52.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The governing body of any library district, public hospital district, metropolitan park district, or fire protection district may provide for the submission of a ballot proposition to the voters of the taxing district authorizing the taxing district to maintain its otherwise authorized tax levy rate, and authorizing an increase in the cumulative regular property tax limitation established in RCW 84.52.043 of ~~((nine))~~ five dollars and ~~((fifteen))~~ fifty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation within the taxing district, as provided in this section. A fire protection district may use this authority to increase its regular property tax levy up to fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

(2) A resolution by a governing body, requesting that a special election be called to submit such a ballot proposition to the voters, must be transmitted to the county legislative authority of the county, or county legislative authorities of the counties, within which the taxing district is located, at least forty-five days before the special election date at which the ballot proposition is submitted. The ballot proposition shall be worded substantially as follows:

"Shall the cumulative limitation on most regular property tax rates be increased by an amount not exceeding thirty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation for a five consecutive year period allowing (insert the name of the taxing district) to maintain its otherwise statutory authorized property tax rate?"

The ballot proposition for a fire protection district shall be worded substantially as follows:

"Shall the cumulative limitation on most regular property tax rates be increased by an amount not exceeding thirty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation for a five consecutive year period allowing (insert the name of the taxing district) to permit the fire protection district to impose its property tax at a value up to fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation?"

Approval of this ballot proposition by a simple majority vote shall authorize the following for the succeeding five consecutive year period: (a) Property tax rates of junior taxing districts are calculated first as if this proposition had not been approved; (b) subject to the one hundred six percent limitation, the regular property tax rate of the taxing district receiving such authorization is increased to a level not exceeding the lesser of: (i) Its maximum statutory authorized regular property tax rate; or (ii) whatever tax rate it otherwise would have been able to impose plus an additional thirty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation; and (c) the cumulative property tax rate limitation is increased within the boundaries of the taxing district receiving this authorization to an amount equal to ~~((nine))~~ five dollars and ~~((fifteen))~~ fifty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation plus the increased amount of the regular levy rate of this taxing district, but not to exceed ~~((nine))~~ five dollars and ~~((fifty))~~ ninety cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

(3) If two or more taxing districts that occupy a portion of the same territory receive such approval, the additional authorized taxing capacity above ~~((nine))~~ five dollars and ~~((fifteen))~~ fifty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation shall be distributed among these taxing districts by adjusting their levy rate requests in the same manner and under the same conditions as if they were the only taxing districts in the area subject to adjustment of their property tax rates and the levy rate adjustments were being made with the cumulative limitation of ~~((nine))~~ five dollars and ~~((fifteen))~~ fifty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

(4) Levies authorized under RCW 84.52.069 are not subject to the rate adjustments and the ~~((nine))~~ five dollar and ~~((fifty))~~ ninety cent per thousand dollar of assessed valuation cumulative limitation on regular property tax rates established by this section.

Sec. 7. Section 84.52.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 255, Laws of 1987 and RCW 84.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as is permitted under RCW 84.55.050, all taxes shall be levied or voted in specific amounts.

The rate percent of all taxes for state and county purposes, and purposes of taxing districts coextensive with the county, shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the county, as shown by the completed tax rolls of the county, and the rate percent of all taxes levied for purposes of taxing districts within any county shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the taxing districts respectively.

When a county assessor finds that the aggregate rate of tax levy on any property, that is subject to the limitations set forth in RCW 84.52.043 or 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, exceeds the limitations provided in either of these sections, the assessor shall recompute and establish a consolidated levy in the following manner:

(1) The full certified rates of tax levy for state, county, county road district, and city or town purposes shall be extended on the tax rolls in amounts not exceeding the limitations established by law (~~PROVIDED, That in the event of a levy made pursuant to RCW 84.34.236, the rates of levy for county and county road district purposes shall be reduced in such uniform percentages as will result in a consolidated levy by such taxing districts which will be no greater on any property than a consolidated levy by such taxing districts would be if the levy~~

~~had not been made pursuant to RCW 84.34.236), subject to subsection (2)(e) of this section; however any state levy shall take precedence over all other levies and shall not be reduced for any purpose other than that required by RCW 84.55.010; and~~

(2) The certified rates of tax levy subject to these limitations by all junior taxing districts imposing taxes on such property shall be reduced or eliminated as follows to bring the consolidated levy of taxes on such property within the provisions of these limitations:

(a) First, the certified property tax levy rates of those junior taxing districts authorized under RCW 36.68.525, 36.69.145, and 67.38.130 shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated;

(b) Second, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates of flood control zone districts shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated;

(c) Third, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates of all other junior taxing districts, other than fire protection districts, public hospital districts, metropolitan park districts, and library districts, shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated;

(d) Fourth, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates authorized to fire protection districts under RCW 52.16.140 and 52.16.160 shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated; ~~((and))~~

~~(e) Fifth, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates authorized for cities and towns, fire protection districts under RCW 52.16.130, public hospital districts, metropolitan park districts, and library districts shall be adjusted as provided in section 8 of this 1988 act; and~~

~~(f) Sixth, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates authorized to fire protection districts under RCW 52.16.130, and the certified property tax levy rates of public hospital districts, metropolitan park districts, and library districts, shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated.~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 84.52 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In any county, if, after any reduction in levy rates required by RCW 84.52.010(2)(a) through (d), the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds the limitations in RCW 84.52.043 or 84.52.050, then the department pursuant to rules shall direct the county assessor to adjust the regular property tax levy rates in the following manner:

(a) First, the assessor determines a first preliminary rate pursuant to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f).

(b) Second, the assessor determines a second preliminary rate which is the additional rate, if any, permitted by RCW 84.52.100.

(i) If the preliminary rates together are sufficient to permit all rates subject to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) to be levied without reduction, then the assessor shall extend on the tax rolls the full certified rates pursuant to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) and 84.52.100.

(ii) If the preliminary rates together are not sufficient to permit all rates subject to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) to be levied without reduction pursuant to both RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) and 84.52.100, the assessor shall reduce the rate of the taxing district subject to RCW 84.52.010(2)(e) with the smallest assessed valuation such that, after first allowing for any additional rate permitted by RCW 84.52.100, there is no reduction of the rates under RCW 84.52.010(2)(f). Where the reduction of the levy of a taxing district is not sufficient, the taxing district with the next smallest assessed valuation shall have its levy reduced under this subsection until there is no reduction of rates under RCW 84.52.010(2)(f). The assessor shall then extend on the tax rolls the rates derived pursuant to this subsection (b)(ii).

(2) The taxing districts whose levies would have been reduced but for subsection (1) of this section shall pay to each district that had its levy so reduced pursuant to subsection (1) of this section a proportionate share of the reduced amount based on the amount by which each district would have had its total levy rate reduced if subsection (1) of this section were not in effect and the rates had been adjusted pursuant to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) and 84.52.100.

(a) In the case of a public hospital district, library district, fire protection district, or metropolitan park district whose levy is reduced under subsection (1) of this section, the district shall bear a proportionate share as if its rate were sufficient to collect its certified levy.

(b) In the case of a city or town that is annexed by a library district or a fire protection district, which city's or town's levy is reduced under this section, or is in a tax code area where a levy rate is reduced under this section, the city or town shall forgo receipt of, or pay to each district whose levy rate is reduced, ten percent of the amount which would otherwise be paid to the city or town from each district whose levy rate is not reduced as a result of subsection (1) of this section, collectively not to exceed one-half of the following amount: The assessed valuation of the reduced district multiplied by a rate equal to the city's or town's levy rate, calculated based on its certified levy request, plus the rate(s) of the annexing district(s) minus the rate the city or town would have been able to levy were it not annexed, not to exceed twenty-two and one-half cents.

(3) Fifty-five percent of the amount under subsection (2) of this section shall be distributed on or before May 31 of the tax collection year for which the levy is reduced and forty-five percent on or before November 30 of that year.

(4) This section shall expire on December 31, 1989.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The department of revenue shall adopt such rules consistent with this act as shall be necessary or desirable to permit its effective administration. The rules shall provide how section 8 of this act shall apply to a taxing district that has received authorization to increase its levy according to RCW 84.52.100 and use the method that will be the least costly to all taxing districts involved.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. There is created in the custody of the state treasurer an account to be known as the "small county assistance account." Effective July 1, 1988, and notwithstanding RCW 43.84.092, one-half of the investment income earned on moneys in the local sales and use tax account created by RCW 82.14.050 and which has not been distributed according to RCW 82.14.060 shall be placed into this account. Any moneys in the account on December 31, 1989, shall be transferred to the general fund.

The state treasurer shall disburse moneys from this account, upon certification by the director of revenue, to each fifth class and smaller county that contracts with, or transfers funds to, a taxing district or districts under RCW 39.67.010 or 39.67.020 if, as a result of the contracts or transfers, the county is able to increase its county-wide general tax levy above one dollar and eighty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation, in accordance with RCW 84.52.043.

Each eligible county shall receive an amount of money from this account that is equal to the amount that the county transfers or pays to the other taxing district or districts. One-half of the distributions shall be made to each eligible county on or before April 30, 1989, and one-half of the distributions shall be made to each eligible county on or before October 31, 1989. These amounts shall be proportionally reduced if the moneys in the account are insufficient to reimburse the full amount that these counties transferred or paid to such taxing districts. Distributions from this account are not subject to appropriation.

Each county that so transfers or pays moneys to taxing districts shall provide evidence of such arrangements to the director of revenue on or before January 31, 1989. The director of revenue shall certify to the state treasurer each county that is eligible for such disbursements and the amount that the county so transferred or paid.

This section expires January 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the general fund to the small county assistance account to be used exclusively for purposes specified in section 10 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 52.04 RCW to read as follows:
Any attempted annexation in 1987 and thereafter by a fire protection district of contiguous territory, that is located in a county other than the county in which the fire protection district was located, is validated where the annexation would have occurred if the territory had been located in the same county as the fire protection district. The effective date of such annexations occurring in 1987 shall be February 1, 1988, for purposes of establishing the boundaries of taxing districts for purposes of imposing property taxes as provided in RCW 84.09.030.

Any reference to a county official of the county in which a fire protection district is located or proposed to be located shall be deemed to refer to the appropriate county official of each county in which the fire protection district is located or proposed to be located.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "taxes;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 39.67.010, 39.67.020, 84.55.092, 84.52.043, 84.52.100, and 84.52.010; adding a new section to chapter 84.52 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 52.04 RCW; creating new sections; and making an appropriation."

Signed by Senators Cantu, Garrett, Lee: Representatives Appelwick, Haugen, Ferguson.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Revised Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1420 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: EHB 1585

Revising provisions for juvenile dependency proceedings.

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Adopt the amended Senate Committee on Children and Family Services striking amendment and its corresponding title amendment, and:

Adopt the following amendments to the Senate Committee on Children and Family Services amendments: On page 3, after line 34 of the Senate amendment, insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.04.021 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The juvenile court shall be a division of the superior court. In judicial districts having more than one judge of the superior court, the judges of such court shall annually assign one or more of their number to the juvenile court division. In any judicial district having a court commissioner, the court commissioner shall have the power, authority, and jurisdiction, concurrent with a juvenile court judge, to hear all cases under this chapter and to enter judgment and make orders with the same power, force, and effect as any judge of the juvenile court, subject to motion or demand by any party within ten days from the entry of the order or judgment by the court commissioner as provided in RCW 2.24.050. In any judicial district having a family law commissioner appointed pursuant to chapter 26.12 RCW, the family law commissioner shall have the power, authority, and jurisdiction, concurrent with a juvenile court judge, to hear cases under chapter 13.34 RCW and to enter judgment and make orders with the same power, force, and effect as any judge of the juvenile court, subject to motion or demand by any party within ten days from the entry of the order or judgment by the court commissioner as provided in RCW 2.24.050.

(2) Cases in the juvenile court shall be tried without a jury.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The family court commissioners shall: (1) Receive all applications and complaints filed in the family court for the purpose of disposing of them pursuant to this chapter; (2) investigate the facts upon which to base warrants, subpoenas, orders or directions in actions or proceedings filed in or transferred to the family court pursuant to this chapter; (3) for the purpose of this chapter, exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of regular court commissioners; (4) hold conciliation conferences with parties to and hearings in proceedings under this chapter and make written reports of all proceedings had which shall become a part of the record of the family court; (5) provide such supervision in connection with the exercise of its jurisdiction as the judge of the family court may order; (6) cause the orders and findings of the family court to be entered in the same manner as orders and findings are entered in cases in the superior court; ~~((and))~~ (7) cause such other reports to be made and records kept as will indicate the value and extent of such conciliation service; and (8) conduct hearings under chapter 13.34 RCW as provided in RCW 13.04.021.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 4, line 8 of the Senate amendment to the title, after "13.34.100" strike the remainder of the title and insert ", 13.04.021, and 26.12.060; reenacting and amending RCW 26.44.053; and declaring an emergency."

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: ESHB 1594

Providing for a water use efficiency study.

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.300 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that it is necessary to provide the department of ecology with emergency powers to authorize withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, and construction of facilities in relation thereto, in order to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during 1977 and during 1987.

The legislature further finds that there is a continuing agricultural water supply shortage in many areas of the state and that, in relation to the lessening of that unsatisfactory condition, there is an urgent need to both improve water supply facilities and replace other such facilities.

The legislature further finds that in addition to water storage facilities or other augmentation programs, improved efficiency of water use could provide an important new supply of water in many parts of the state with which to meet future water needs and that improved efficiency of water use should receive greater emphasis in the management of the state's water resources.

In order to provide needed capital for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities to withdraw and distribute water to alleviate unsatisfactory water supply conditions arising from droughts occurring from time to time in the state of Washington, and to carry out a comprehensive water use efficiency study for the state of Washington, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of eighteen million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this section and RCW 43.83B.360 through 43.83B.375 shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A committee shall be charged with the task of carrying out a comprehensive study of water use efficiency in this state. The study, however, shall neither be considered a water conservation study, nor a comprehensive study encompassing the exclusive means of creating a new supply of water which limits or restricts the use of water storage facilities as an option in creating a new supply of water. The committee, in consultation with other interested agencies, organizations, and the public, shall investigate and evaluate opportunities and means for achieving water use efficiency improvements. The evaluation shall include but not be limited to the following:

- (1) Review and analysis of water use efficiency initiatives in other states;
- (2) Review of the water use efficiency recommendations of the western governors association;
- (3) Identification of existing institutional and economic disincentives to efficient water use;
- (4) Identification of existing and potential incentives that could bring about improved efficiency of use;
- (5) Identification of alternatives for improving efficiency of use;
- (6) Estimation of potential water savings and public and private costs from implementing alternatives;
- (7) Identification of a recommended approach for improving water use efficiency in municipal and industrial water supply uses, irrigated agriculture and other major out-of-stream uses, and in-stream uses;
- (8) Evaluation of the terminology and development of definitions and methods relating to the efficient utilization of water in chapters 90.03, 90.14, 90.22, 90.44, and 90.54 RCW, and such other provisions of existing law as it finds appropriate;
- (9) Recommendations for a public education program for efficient use of water; and
- (10) Development of recommendations for any needed changes in laws, rules, policies, procedures, and programs to facilitate improved water use efficiency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The committee created in section 2 of this act shall consist of the following voting members:

- (a) Four members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker, two from each major political party;
- (b) Four members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate, two from each major political party;
- (c) One individual representing the interests of local government;
- (d) One individual representing producers of irrigated agricultural products;
- (e) One individual representing environmental interests;
- (f) One individual representing the interests of the timber industry;
- (g) One individual representing the interests of industries' use of water;
- (h) One individual representing Indian tribes;
- (i) One individual representing the interests of public water utilities;
- (j) One individual representing owners and operators of cattle farms;
- (k) One individual representing the state-wide water resources association created under chapter 87.76 RCW;
- (l) One individual representing hydro power utilities;
- (m) One individual representing the recreational or commercial fishing interest; and

(n) One individual representing the interests of water-oriented recreationists.

(2) An individual from each of the following departments shall be appointed by the director of the department as a nonvoting member of the committee: Ecology, agriculture, social and health services, fisheries, wildlife, and natural resources.

(3) An individual representing the office of the governor shall also be a nonvoting member of the committee. This individual shall convene the initial meeting of the committee and act as the presiding officer of the committee until the committee elects a chair as provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(4) The governor shall appoint the members of the committee listed in subsections (1) (c) through (n) of this section. Wherever possible, the various interest groups listed in each of subsections (1) (c) through (n) of this section shall attempt to identify one nominee in common to represent the interest groups listed in that subsection. Any nominations for appointments to fill positions on the committee listed in subsections (1) (c) through (n) of this section shall be submitted to the director of ecology not later than ten business days after the effective date of this section. The director shall forward such nominations to the governor immediately thereafter for the governor's consideration in appointing the members of the committee.

(5) Members of the committee shall serve without compensation. A member representing a state agency or the office of the governor shall be reimbursed, by his or her employing agency or office, for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Members of the committee who are members of the legislature shall be reimbursed as provided in chapter 44.04 RCW. All other members of the committee shall be reimbursed by the department of ecology for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(6) At the initial meeting of the committee, the voting members of the committee shall elect a chair from among themselves. The chair shall preside over the meetings of the committee. The committee shall expire December 31, 1988.

(7) The committee shall consult on a regular and frequent basis with interested organizations and individuals. The committee shall hold public meetings to inform the public about the study, and to receive public comments on a draft report of its study findings and its recommendations.

(8) The committee shall document public comments and the committee's recommendations in a final water use efficiency report. The final report shall also include an estimate of staffing and funding needed to carry out the recommended approach.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. It shall be the responsibility of the department of ecology to provide staff support to the committee and to identify water use efficiency options for the tasks identified in section 2 of this act. For the purposes of this section, the department of ecology shall consult with the water research center at Washington State University.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the legislature no later than December 31, 1988. The department shall not implement such recommendations by rule or regulation except upon the enactment of enabling legislation based upon the committee's recommendations.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. No aspect of the study authorized by sections 1 through 3 of this act may authorize any interference whatsoever with existing water rights. The study shall in all respects be subject to the provisions of RCW 43.83B.325 to the same extent as any provision of RCW 43.83B.300 through 43.83B.345.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Sections 2 through 6 of this act shall expire June 30, 1989.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, beginning on line 2 of the title, after "43.83B.300;" strike all material down to and including "(uncodified);" on line 3

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "sections;" delete "making appropriations;"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1594 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: 2SHB 1640

Establishing the G. Robert Ross public service award program for outstanding public service by faculty.

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

On page 1, at the beginning of line 19, strike "washington" and insert "Washington"

On page 2, beginning on line 1, strike the remainder of the bill and insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 8, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28B.10.870 are each amended to read as follows:

All state four-year institutions of higher education shall be eligible for matching trust funds. An institution may apply to the higher education coordinating board for two hundred fifty thousand dollars from the fund when the institution can match the state funds with an equal amount of pledged or contributed private donations or with funds received through legislative appropriation specifically for the G. Robert Ross distinguished faculty award and designated as being qualified to be matched from trust fund moneys. These donations shall be made specifically to the professorship program, and shall be donated after July 1, 1985.

Upon an application by an institution, the board may designate two hundred fifty thousand dollars from the trust fund for that institution's pledged professorship. If the pledged two hundred fifty thousand dollars is not received within three years, the board shall make the designated funds available for another pledged professorship.

Once the private donation is received by the institution, the higher education coordinating board shall ask the state treasurer to release the state matching funds to a local endowment fund established by the institution for the professorship.

Sec. 4. Section 12, chapter 8, Laws of 1987 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

(1) For the biennium ending June 30, 1989, all appropriations to the Washington distinguished professorship trust fund shall be allocated as provided in this section. The state treasurer shall reserve the following amounts in the trust fund for distribution to four-year higher education institutions at such time as qualifying gifts as defined in section 1 of this act for distinguished professorships have been deposited:

(a) (~~Forty-five percent~~) Two million two hundred fifty thousand dollars of the appropriation for the University of Washington;

(b) (~~Thirty percent~~) One million five hundred thousand dollars of the appropriation for Washington State University;

(c) (~~Twenty-five percent~~) One million dollars of the appropriation divided among Eastern Washington University, Central Washington University, Western Washington University, and The Evergreen State College.

(2) Distribution of funds allocated in subsection (1)(c) of this section shall be made in the following manner: Eastern Washington University, Central Washington University, Western Washington University, and The Evergreen State College are guaranteed one professorship. (~~The remaining professorship shall be allocated on a first come first served basis to a regional university or The Evergreen State College which has used the professorship guaranteed it, and qualified for an additional professorship under section 5 of this act. If the regional universities and The Evergreen State College have not obligated the unassigned professorship by May 1, 1989, that professorship may be allocated to either the University of Washington or Washington State University in accordance with rules promulgated by the higher education coordinating board.~~)

(3) As of January 1, 1989, if any funds reserved in subsection (1) (a) or (b) of this section have not been designated as matching funds for qualifying gifts, any four-year institution of higher education, which has already fully utilized the professorships allocated to it by this section, and, in the case of the regional universities and The Evergreen State College, has exhausted the allocation in subsection (1)(c) of this section, may be eligible for such funds under rules promulgated by the higher education coordinating board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the state general fund to the Western Washington University for deposit in the G. Robert Ross distinguished faculty endowment fund. The appropriation in this section shall fulfill the matching requirements in RCW 28B.10.870 for an additional two hundred fifty thousand dollars from the distinguished professorship trust fund. This appropriation along with the matching money from the distinguished professorship trust fund will result in a total amount of five hundred thousand dollars to be deposited into the G. Robert Ross distinguished faculty endowment fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Section 2 of this act is added to Title 28B RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 28B.102 RCW to read as follows:

The board may waive grade point requirements for an otherwise eligible individual student under special circumstances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The legislature finds it essential that this and future generations of children be allowed the fullest opportunity to learn and to develop their intellectual and mental capacities and skills at the postsecondary level. The legislature is greatly concerned about the ever-increasing costs of obtaining higher education. The purpose of this chapter is to assist

Washington residents in their quest for higher education and to encourage financial planning to meet higher education costs by creating a college savings bond program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The following definitions shall apply throughout this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "College savings bonds" or "bonds" are Washington state general obligation bonds, issued under the authority of and in accordance with this chapter.

(2) "Board" means the higher education coordinating board, or any successor thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. For the purpose of providing funds for the acquisition, construction, remodeling, furnishing, and equipping of state buildings and facilities for the state institutions of higher education, including facilities for the state community college system, and to provide for the administrative costs of such projects, including costs of bond issuance and retirement, salaries and related costs of officials and employees of the state, costs of credit enhancement agreements, and other expenses incidental to the administration of capital projects, the state finance committee is authorized to issue college savings bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of fifty million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required, to finance these projects and all costs incidental thereto.

Bonds authorized in this section shall be sold in such a manner, at such time or times, in such amounts, and at such price as the state finance committee shall determine. The bonds shall not be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation of the net proceeds of the sale of the bonds. The state finance committee may obtain insurance or letters of credit and may authorize the execution and delivery of agreements, promissory notes, and other obligations for the purpose of insuring the payment or enhancing the marketability of college savings bonds authorized in this section. Promissory notes or other obligations issued pursuant to this section shall not constitute a debt or the contracting of indebtedness under any constitutional or statutory indebtedness limitation if their payment is conditioned upon the failure of the state to pay the principal or of interest on the bonds with respect to which the same relate.

If, and to the extent that the state finance committee determines it is economically feasible and in the best interest of the state, the bonds shall be sold at a deep discount from their par value.

College savings bonds authorized under this section shall be sold in accordance with chapter 39.42 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized in section 10 of this act shall be deposited in the state building construction account of the general fund in the state treasury, and shall be used exclusively for the purposes specified in section 10 of this act and for the payment of expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the college savings bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The state higher education bond retirement fund of 1988 is hereby created in the state treasury, and shall be used for the payment of principal and interest on the college savings bonds.

The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount required for principal and interest on such bonds in accordance with the provisions of the bond proceedings. The state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the state higher education bond retirement fund of 1988, such amounts and at such times as are required by the bond proceedings. If directed by the state finance committee by resolution, the state higher education bond retirement fund of 1988, or any portion thereof, may be deposited in trust with any qualified public depository.

The owner and holder of each of the college savings bonds or the trustee for the owner and holder of any of the college savings bonds may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require the transfer and payment of funds as directed in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The legislature may provide additional means for raising moneys for the payment of the principal of and interest on the college savings bonds. Section 12 of this act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method for the payment thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The college savings bonds shall be a legal investment for all state funds or funds under state control and for all funds of any other public body.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The board and the state finance committee shall evaluate the effectiveness of the college savings bond program created by this chapter, and shall submit a report about the program, and recommended changes, to the governor and the appropriate standing committees of the senate and house of representatives on or before December 1, 1990. In the report, the board shall consider the advisability of offering incentives to purchase college savings bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The board and the state finance committee shall create and implement marketing strategies and educational programs designed to publicize the college savings bond program to Washington residents.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Any interest earned on the bonds shall not be income for the purposes of any state income tax.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. This chapter may be known and cited as the college savings bond act of 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 8 through 18 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28B RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "education;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28B.10.870; amending section 12, chapter 8, Laws of 1987 (uncodified); adding a new section to chapter 28B.102 RCW; adding a new section to Title 28B RCW; adding a new section to chapter 28B.102 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 28B RCW; creating new sections; and making an appropriation."

Signed by Senators Saling, Patterson; Representatives Jacobsen, Fox, Miller.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of the Report of the Conference Committee on Second Substitute House Bill No. 1640 was deferred.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: E2SHB 1835

Providing for economic diversification in the Tri-Cities.

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) Cutbacks in federal funds and programs to the Tri-Cities pose a substantial threat to the region and the state with massive lay-offs, loss of personal income, and declines in state revenues;

(2) The Tri-Cities is of critical significance to the state because of its leading role in the nuclear industry and its concentration of excellent scientists and engineers. Because of the presence of this highly trained workforce, this region requires a special state effort to diversify the local economy;

(3) There are key opportunities to broaden the economic base in the Tri-Cities including agriculture, high-technology, tourism, and regional exports;

(4) A coordinated state, local, and private sector effort offers the greatest potential to promote economic diversification and to provide support for new projects within the region; and

(5) Economic diversification efforts in the Tri-Cities area may bring to the area new industries which use hazardous and toxic chemicals. Concerns about the accidental release of such chemicals can inhibit economic development efforts. The legislature finds that local emergency response planning may mitigate environmental impacts of economic development efforts. Congress enacted legislation to coordinate emergency response planning efforts and directed preparation of local emergency response plans. The legislature further finds that nongovernmental persons are reluctant to serve on local emergency planning committees due to fear of civil liability.

It is the intent of the legislature to develop comprehensive programs to provide diversified economic development and promote job creation and employment opportunities for the citizens of the Tri-Cities area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The department of trade and economic development shall begin implementation of the priority goals established by the Tri-Cities diversification study conducted under chapter 501, Laws of 1987, as follows:

- (1) To retain and expand existing businesses and industries within the region;
- (2) To attract businesses and industries to the region that will provide new jobs;
- (3) To encourage the formation of new businesses and industries in the region; and
- (4) To assist in the development of a regional infrastructure favorable to economic diversification.

In evaluating these goals, the department, in consultation with the Tri-Cities diversification board, shall determine which objectives of these priority goals are most likely to lead to economic diversification. Consideration shall be given to potential jobs and income benefits, generation of additional fiscal support, increased private sector participation, and market forces supporting the proposed objectives. The department shall consider such additional studies and governmental agencies which could support the priority goals determined under this section.

For the purposes of sections 1 through 12 of this act, "department" means the department of trade and economic development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The sum of one million two hundred forty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the administrative contingency fund to the employment security department for the purposes of sections 1 through 12 of this act. This appropriation shall be transferred to the department of trade and economic development for the purposes of sections 1 through 12 of this act.

(2) The sum of two hundred twenty-eight thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the general fund to the department of trade and economic development for the purposes of sections 1 through 12 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The department of trade and economic development shall designate a project manager within the department to facilitate the department's activities within the Tri-Cities region. This position shall be located in the Tri-Cities region. The manager's responsibilities shall include but not be limited to:

(a) Seeking to increase the use of existing state economic development programs in the Tri-Cities region;

(b) Helping to locate additional funds to be used for diversification activities;

(c) Forming committees to oversee activities within the priority areas;

(d) Coordinating evaluation of state diversification in the region;

(e) Seeking to increase the effectiveness of existing efforts to incubate new enterprises in the Tri-Cities region and to increase the resources devoted to the incubation of new enterprises;

(f) Facilitating technology transfer from the research base in the region to local businesses, including efforts to increase: The availability and accessibility of venture capital in the Tri-Cities region, especially for the early stages of enterprise development and for the expansion of existing enterprises, the accessibility of legal expertise, especially in regard to licenses and patents, and the identification of and assistance to entrepreneurs with expertise in managing new product development; and

(g) Increasing the availability and coordination of resources devoted to the expansion, development, and modernization of enterprises in existing promising growth areas of the Tri-Cities regional economy such as the industrial applications of advanced technology and recreational development.

(2) A maximum of seventy-five thousand dollars shall be made available for the purposes of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is established the Tri-Cities diversification board. The board shall consist of fifteen members appointed by the governor, including but not limited to representatives of local businesses, labor organizations, local governments, visitor and convention bureaus, local educational institutions, local associate development organizations, the agribusiness community, and local ports. In making the appointments, the governor shall endeavor to ensure that the appointees have experience in local diversification efforts. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment.

The board shall review proposals for the diversification of the Tri-Cities area presented to it by the department.

Members of the board shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) In carrying out the purposes of (a) through (l) of this subsection, the department shall consult with the Tri-Cities diversification board. The department shall contract with local organizations, institutions, or agencies to perform one or more of the following:

(a) Develop a regional export program to identify potential products for export from the region and facilitate their export.

(b) Develop waterfront resources to facilitate increased tourism in the area.

(c) Conduct an import substitution program to connect existing industries with local suppliers of goods and services and identify market gaps that can be filled by start-up firms.

(d) Act as team coordinator of the Tri-Cities business and job retention team. The team may ensure the provision of retention services to small businesses and their employees. The team shall have equal representation from local businesses and local labor. The team may also have representatives from local educational institutions, the private industry council, and local governments. The subcontractor shall conduct a survey of local businesses and coordinate the delivery of marketing, technical, managerial, and training assistance appropriate to client businesses and employees. The surveys shall gather information about business needs, expansion plans, relocation decisions, training needs, potential layoffs, financing needs, the availability of financing, and other appropriate information. The subcontractor shall coordinate team efforts with the Washington ambassadors program and select appropriate marketing, management, training, and technical specialists to assist the team on either a volunteer or subcontract basis. The subcontractor shall conduct an initial assessment of firms or workforces indicating a need for assistance to determine viability, problems, skill levels, public and private costs associated with any potential business failure or layoff, the potential for preventing closure or reduction-in-force, and the potential for a change in ownership, including employee and community buy-outs. If the initial assessment indicates the need for a more thorough study of the feasibility of various options for retaining a firm, the subcontractor may contract or subcontract for such a study under the following conditions:

(i) The small business is engaged in light or heavy manufacturing, the processing of agricultural products, or transportation services;

(ii) Only one study may be funded per business; and

(iii) A maximum of twenty-five thousand dollars in funds received from the state shall be made available per study.

(e) Develop and implement a training program in marketing for small firms producing products suitable for export outside the Tri-Cities area. The program may have a variety of training formats to meet the diverse needs of the targeted firms and should include, but need not be limited to: A presentation on the value and the potential of marketing cooperatives, training programs for sales personnel, and training in the development of marketing plans as part of the overall business plan. The subcontractor may work with public and private schools of business administration in developing the curriculum and may use other subcontractors in implementing the program.

(f) Facilitate the development and operation of small business incubators. The department may subcontract with existing small business incubators in the Tri-Cities or with local governments, community organizations, or educational institutions, to:

(i) Conduct small business incubator feasibility studies;

(ii) Provide technical, managerial, financing and marketing assistance to firms inside and outside incubators;

(iii) Facilitate the creation of an equity capital fund for use by incubated firms;

(iv) Market the services offered by small business incubators and encourage local entrepreneurs to use incubator services and facilities; and

(v) Consolidate the efforts of local educational institutions, the private industry council and the local small business development center in one incubator.

(g) Operate an investment opportunities office. The subcontractor should solicit business plans from local entrepreneurs and, when necessary, assist the entrepreneurs in the development of such plans.

(h) Provide for targeted business recruiting and business development. Business development should include specialized technical or managerial assistance in fields that promote the existing strengths of the region in such areas as agricultural services and processing, the industrial applications of advanced technology, and recreation and tourism.

Specific assistance should be given to small businesses in securing federal contracts from agencies participating in the small business innovation research program.

(i) Develop or conduct such other projects or programs as are approved by the department in consultation with the Tri-Cities diversification board.

(2) The department shall establish such criteria as it deems appropriate for delivery of the services supplied under contract as provided in this section. The department shall provide training and technical assistance to the personnel of any program, team, office, or other effort provided for under this section, as appropriate. Such training and technical assistance shall be funded out of moneys provided for under sections 4 and 8 of this act.

No contract may be entered into under this section until the department has consulted with the Tri-Cities diversification board.

(3) A maximum of six hundred fifteen thousand dollars shall be made available for purposes of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The sum of two hundred ninety-two thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, to Washington State University for the following purposes:

(1) Seventy-five thousand dollars shall be used for one faculty member to research and teach at the Tri-Cities university center in the field of business development, new enterprise development, and the transfer of new technologies to commercial applications.

(2) Seventy-five thousand dollars shall be used for one faculty member to research and teach at the Tri-Cities university center in the field of agribusiness and agricultural services development.

(3) One hundred thousand dollars shall be used for faculty and equipment for wine industry research.

(4) Forty-two thousand dollars shall be used for a high-capacity telecommunications link between Washington State University and the Tri-Cities university center. Washington State University may contract with the United States department of energy's Richland laboratory for the purposes of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department shall also contract with local organizations, institutions, or agencies to:

(1) Establish a Tri-Cities agribusiness development program in cooperation with the IMPACT program, the Tri-Cities industrial development council, and the agricultural extension program of Washington State University. The subcontractor's duties in operating the agribusiness development program shall include but not be limited to:

(a) Seeking to increase the utilization of existing federal, state, and local programs for agricultural development, diversification, marketing, and processing in the Tri-Cities region;

(b) Seeking to increase the coordination and effectiveness of existing federal, state, and local programs for agricultural development, diversification, marketing, and processing in the Tri-Cities region; and

(c) Undertaking efforts to promote and further the existing strengths of the Tri-Cities region in value-added agricultural processing, agricultural services, specialty agriculture, and agricultural diversification.

(2) Evaluate the means for increasing the value of the wine industry to the Tri-Cities and for the region to become a principal center for the wine industry.

No contract may be entered into under this section until the department has consulted with the Tri-Cities diversification board.

A maximum of one hundred eight thousand dollars shall be made available for purposes of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department shall be responsible for oversight and implementation of all efforts under this act. The department shall be responsible for a social and economic impact assessment; coordination of the multi-agency efforts; and shall act as liaison with local governments, the federal government, financial institutions, and other private entities to address financing and other needs in the Tri-Cities. The assessment shall be submitted as part of the report in section 12 of this act.

A maximum of fifty thousand dollars shall be made available for purposes of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The department shall conduct a study through the Tri-Cities university center on the feasibility of using heat generated by existing nuclear facilities for commercial industrial applications, taking into consideration, and drawing from as appropriate, existing studies on heating and on other warm water uses. Any state appropriations for this study are contingent upon and shall be no more than one-third of the federal funds provided for this study. A maximum of fifty thousand dollars shall be made available for purposes of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Through an interagency agreement with the department, the employment security department shall provide enhanced retraining, support services, and job search assistance, including an out-of-area job search and relocation component, if needed, for dislocated workers in the Tri-Cities region. For the purpose of this section "dislocated workers" means workers in the Tri-Cities who (a) have been terminated or laid off, or received a notice of termination or lay-off from employment and are eligible for or have exhausted their entitlement to benefits under Title 50 RCW; (b) have been terminated as a result of any permanent plant closure; (c) are long-term unemployed and are unlikely to return to employment in the individual's principal occupation or previous industry because of a diminishing demand for their skills in that occupation or industry; or (d) are farmers or other self-employed individuals who have been displaced due to economic conditions or natural disasters. Training and retraining assistance shall be designed to contribute to the diversification of the economy of the Tri-Cities region or to relieve economic dislocation and distress in the Tri-Cities region resulting from the sudden and severe loss of local sources of employment.

(2) The employment security department shall consult with and may subcontract with local educational institutions, local businesses, local labor organizations, local associate development organizations, local private industry councils, local social service organizations, and local governments in carrying out this program of training and services for dislocated workers in the Tri-Cities region.

(3) Training and retraining assistance provided under sections 1 through 12 of this act should include but need not be limited to the following areas: Entrepreneurial development and training; short-term job creation; training in the incubation of new business enterprises and training at incubator facilities; agriculture, agricultural processing, and agricultural services; the industrial applications of advanced technology; recreational and tourism development; and hazardous materials clean-up.

(4) The employment security department shall subcontract with local organizations, institutions, or agencies to provide expanded services to dislocated workers, older unemployed workers, and the long-term unemployed. Such services shall be either direct or referral services to the unemployed, and should include, but need not be limited to: Credit counseling; social services including marital counseling; psychotherapy or psychological counseling; mortgage foreclosures and utilities problems counseling; drug and alcohol abuse services; and medical services.

(5) The employment security department shall coordinate the services provided in this section with all other services provided by the department and with the other diversification efforts undertaken by state and local government agencies on behalf of the Tri-Cities region.

(6) Subcontractors shall conduct outreach efforts to encourage the unemployed to seek assistance.

(7) A maximum of three hundred seventy thousand dollars shall be made available for purposes of this section. These funds shall be used for programs and services in addition to those provided by the employment security department using existing federal and state employment and training services.

(8) The department shall make every effort to procure additional federal and other moneys for the efforts enumerated in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Through an interagency agreement with the department, the department of community development shall enhance its services and programs available in the Tri-Cities. Such services and programs may include, but need not be limited to: Assisting in developing the food processing industry, agribusiness financing, loans to businesses, and the funding of diversification projects or studies.

A maximum of two hundred thousand dollars shall be made available for purposes of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The department shall report back to the legislature by December 31, 1988, on the success of activities under sections 1 through 11 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 12 of this act shall expire July 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

Any person who is appointed by the state emergency response commission under the authority of Sec. 301(c) of Title III of the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 11001) to serve on the state hazardous materials planning committee or a local emergency planning committee who, in good faith, assists in the development or review of local plans to respond to hazardous materials incidents is not liable for civil damages as a result of any act or omission in the development, review, or implementation of such plans unless the act or omission constitutes gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Sec. 16. Section 2, chapter 232, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 12, chapter 116, Laws of 1986 and RCW 82.60.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Applicant" means a person applying for a tax deferral under this chapter.

(2) "Department" means the department of revenue.

(3) "Eligible area" means: (a) A county in which the average level of unemployment for the three years before the year in which an application is filed under this chapter exceeds the average state unemployment for those years by twenty percent; or (b) a metropolitan statistical area, as defined by the office of federal statistical policy and standards, United States department of commerce, in which the average level of unemployment for the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which an application is filed under this chapter exceeds the average state unemployment for such calendar year by twenty percent. Applications under this subsection (3)(b) shall be filed by April 30, 1989.

(4)(a) "Eligible investment project" means that portion of an investment project which:

(1) is directly utilized to create at least one new full-time qualified employment position for each three hundred thousand dollars of investment on which a deferral is requested; and

(ii) Either initiates a new operation, or expands or diversifies a current operation by expanding or renovating an existing building with costs in excess of twenty-five percent of the true and fair value of the plant complex prior to improvement; or

(iii) Acquires machinery and equipment to be used for either manufacturing or research and development if the machinery and equipment is housed in a new leased structure: PROVIDED, That the lessor/owner of the structure is not eligible for a deferral unless the underlying ownership of the buildings, machinery, and equipment vests exclusively in the same person.

(b) "Eligible investment project" does not include any portion of an investment project undertaken by a light and power business as defined in RCW 82.16.010(5) or investment projects which have already received deferrals under this chapter.

(5) "Investment project" means an investment in qualified buildings and qualified machinery and equipment, including labor and services rendered in the planning, installation, and construction of the project.

(6) "Manufacturing" means all activities of a commercial or industrial nature wherein labor or skill is applied, by hand or machinery, to materials so that as a result thereof a new, different, or useful substance or article of tangible personal property is produced for sale or commercial or industrial use and shall include the production or fabrication of specially made or custom made articles. "Manufacturing" also includes computer programming, the production of computer software, and other computer-related services, and the activities performed by research and development laboratories and commercial testing laboratories.

(7) "Person" has the meaning given in RCW 82.04.030.

(8) "Qualified buildings" means new structures used for manufacturing and research and development activities, including plant offices and warehouses or other facilities for the storage of raw material or finished goods if such facilities are an essential or an integral part of a factory, mill, plant, or laboratory used for manufacturing or research and development. If a building is used partly for manufacturing or research and development and partly for other purposes, the applicable tax deferral shall be determined by apportionment of the costs of construction under rules adopted by the department.

(9) "Qualified employment position" means a permanent full-time employee employed in the eligible investment project during the entire tax year.

(10) "Qualified machinery and equipment" means all new industrial and research fixtures, equipment, and support facilities that are an integral and necessary part of a manufacturing or research and development operation. "Qualified machinery and equipment" includes: Computers; software; data processing equipment; laboratory equipment; manufacturing components such as belts, pulleys, shafts, and moving parts; molds, tools, and dies; operating structures; and all equipment used to control or operate the machinery.

(11) "Recipient" means a person receiving a tax deferral under this chapter.

(12) "Research and development" means the development, refinement, testing, marketing, and commercialization of a product, service, or process before commercial sales have begun. As used in this subsection, "commercial sales" excludes sales of prototypes or sales for market testing if the total gross receipts from such sales of the product, service, or process do not exceed one million dollars.

Sec. 17. Section 15, chapter 116, Laws of 1986 and RCW 82.62.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Applicant" means a person applying for a tax credit under this chapter.

(2) "Department" means the department of revenue.

(3) "Eligible area" means: (a) A county in which the average level of unemployment for the three years before the year in which an application is filed under this chapter exceeds the average state unemployment for those years by twenty percent; or (b) a metropolitan statistical area, as defined by the office of federal statistical policy and standards, United States department of commerce, in which the average level of unemployment for the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which an application is filed under this chapter exceeds the average state unemployment for such calendar year by twenty percent. Applications under this subsection (3)(b) shall be filed by April 30, 1989.

(4)(a) "Eligible business project" means manufacturing or research and development activities which are conducted by an applicant in an eligible area at a specific facility: PROVIDED, That the applicant's average full-time qualified employment positions at the specific facility will be at least fifteen percent greater in the year for which the credit is being sought than the applicant's average full-time qualified employment positions at the same facility in the immediately preceding year.

(b) "Eligible business project" does not include any portion of a business project undertaken by a light and power business as defined in RCW 82.16.010(5) or that portion of a business project creating qualified full-time employment positions outside an eligible area or those recipients of a sales tax deferral under chapter 82.61 RCW.

(5) "Manufacturing" means all activities of a commercial or industrial nature wherein labor or skill is applied, by hand or machinery, to materials so that as a result thereof a new, different, or useful substance or article of tangible personal property is produced for sale or commercial or industrial use and shall include the production or fabrication of specially made or custom made articles. "Manufacturing" also includes computer programming, the production of computer software, and other computer-related services, and the activities performed by research and development laboratories and commercial testing laboratories.

(6) "Person" has the meaning given in RCW 82.04.030.

(7) "Qualified employment position" means a permanent full-time employee employed in the eligible business project during the entire tax year.

(8) "Tax year" means the calendar year in which taxes are due.

(9) "Recipient" means a person receiving tax credits under this chapter.

(10) "Research and development" means the development, refinement, testing, marketing, and commercialization of a product, service, or process before commercial sales have begun. As used in this subsection, "commercial sales" excludes sales of prototypes or sales for market testing if the total gross receipts from such sales of the product, service, or process do not exceed one million dollars.

Sec. 18. Section 2, chapter 164, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 2, chapter 461, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.168.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Committee" means the Washington state development loan fund committee.

(2) "Department" means the department of community development.

(3) "Director" means the director of the department of community development.

(4) "Distressed area" means: (a) A county which has an unemployment rate which is twenty percent above the state average for the immediately previous three years; (b) a metropolitan statistical area, as defined by the office of federal statistical policy and standards, United States department of commerce, in which the average level of unemployment for the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which an application is filed under this chapter exceeds the average state unemployment for such calendar year by twenty percent. Applications under this subsection (4)(b) shall be filed by April 30, 1989; or ((b)) (c) an area within a county, which area: (i) is composed of contiguous census tracts; (ii) has a minimum population of five thousand persons; (iii) has at least seventy percent of its families and unrelated individuals with incomes below eighty percent of the county's median income for families and unrelated individuals; and (iv) has an unemployment rate which is at least forty percent higher than the county's unemployment rate. For purposes of this definition, "families and unrelated individuals" has the same meaning that is ascribed to that term by the federal department of housing and urban development in its regulations authorizing action grants for economic development and neighborhood revitalization projects.

(5) "Fund" means the Washington state development loan fund.

(6) "Local development organization" means a nonprofit organization which is organized to operate within an area, demonstrates a commitment to a long-standing effort for an economic development program, and makes a demonstrable effort to assist in the employment of unemployed or underemployed residents in an area.

(7) "Project" means the establishment of a new or expanded business in an area which when completed will provide employment opportunities. "Project" also means the retention of an existing business in an area which when completed will provide employment opportunities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "region;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 82.60.020, 82.62.010, and 43.168.020; adding a new section to chapter 4.24 RCW; creating new sections; making appropriations; providing an expiration date; and declaring an emergency."

Signed by Senators Benitz, Williams, Lee; Representatives Ebersole, Grant, Hankins.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1835 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of the Report of the Conference Committee on Second Substitute House Bill No. 1640, deferred earlier today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Report of the Conference Committee on Second Substitute House Bill No. 1640 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

The House refuses to recede from its amendment to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6344, insists on its position and again asks the Senate to concur therein, and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Barr, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6344.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6344, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6344, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 49.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6344, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

The Speaker ruled the Senate amendments to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1745 beyond the scope and object of the bill and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the Senate receded from its amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1745.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1745, without the Senate amendments.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1745, without the Senate amendments, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 49.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1745, without the Senate amendments, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, a point of order. I know it's that time of session in which blind faith should be given, but we've not seen any paper work on either Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6344, on which we just voted a moment ago, or Substitute House Bill No. 1745, that was just the subject of a roll call vote. If at all possible, I think we would like to know exactly where these measures are and what the paper work on them might be—what their status is and how they happened to arrive before the Senate. We didn't have that on either one of the two previous roll calls."

Debate ensued.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1754 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the Senate insists on its position regarding the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1754 and once again asks the House to concur therein.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendment to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1752 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the Senate insist on its position regarding the Senate amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1752 and once again asks the House to concur therein.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Nelson, this is again a bill upon which we have no paper work or no description on what the conflict is between the houses. Could you perhaps give us just a brief idea of what the problem is with respect to 1752?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWHOUSE

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I can try. Substitute House Bill No. 1752 is in your brown notebooks. It is a bill relating to smelt fishing derbies and has an amendment that I suspect is the one that takes smelt out of the definition of food fish in the licensing measure which we passed last year. That's the amendment."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Nelson that the Senate insist on its position regarding the Senate amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1752 and once again asks the House to concur therein.

The motion by Senator Nelson carried and the Senate insists on its position regarding the Senate amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1752 and once again asks the House to concur therein.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1630 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the Senate insist on its position regarding the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 1630 and once again asks the House to concur therein.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8753

by Senators Bluechel, Gaspard and Rinehart

WHEREAS, The importance of land reform initiatives in the effort to end world hunger and provide economic and political stability in developing nations is widely recognized; and

WHEREAS, Professor Roy Prosterman, who graduated Magna Cum Laude from Harvard Law School in 1958, has taught international law at the University of Washington since 1965, is co-author of Land Reform and Democratic Development, has authored many other valuable publications on the subject of land reform, and is recognized throughout the world as one of the leading experts on land reform; and

WHEREAS, The work of Professor Roy Prosterman in the field of land reform, comprising years of pro bono service to agriculture-dependent families and as an advisor to governments throughout the Third World, is a source of pride and inspiration to his law students at the University of Washington and to citizens throughout the state of Washington and the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, Since 1967, Professor Prosterman has, at great personal sacrifice, engaged in land reform fieldwork and developed programs for implementation of land reform in Asia, the Philippines, Latin America, and the Middle East; and

WHEREAS, Professor Prosterman is recognized as the foremost land reform expert in the United States and enjoys strong bipartisan support from members of Congress in the United States for his work; and

WHEREAS, Professor Prosterman has declined compensation from the United States and from foreign governments in order to preserve the independence and credibility of his activities and recommendations; and

WHEREAS, Professor Prosterman's family farm approach has resulted in successful land reform programs, sharp increases in agricultural productivity, increased political stability, and the prevention of hunger-related deaths; and

WHEREAS, Professor Prosterman's work has directly impacted the lives of at least twenty million people, and has affected many others indirectly; and

WHEREAS, Professor Roy Prosterman continues to devote himself to research on and resolution of the legal and political problems of implementing land reform, and is an invaluable asset to the University of Washington faculty and to the state of Washington;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, That the members of the Senate express their profound gratitude to a man who has tirelessly, and without remuneration, dedicated himself to the betterment of mankind and to the improvement of the lives of millions of individuals in Washington, the United States, and in distant lands; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transferred by the Secretary of the Senate to Professor Roy Prosterman, to the President of the University of Washington, and to the Dean of the School of Law at the University of Washington.

Senator Gaspard spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8753.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8755

by Senators West, Warnke, Smitherman, Smith, Kiskaddon, Anderson and Vognild

WHEREAS, The collective bargaining laws pertaining to local government permit public employers to unilaterally implement their last offer upon impasse; and

WHEREAS, The potential threat of unilateral implementation may act as a deterrent to good-faith negotiations, because there are no adequate or practical remedies available to employees; and

WHEREAS, The only apparent remedy for public employees in case of unilateral implementation by the employer is a strike, which is contrary to the public interest and of dubious legality; and

WHEREAS, An unfair labor practice charge was filed against a public employer in August 1985, and no decision has yet been rendered; and

WHEREAS, Until 1976, unilateral implementation of bargaining proposals was prohibited; and

WHEREAS, Public employee productivity and morale suffer when wages and working conditions can be changed arbitrarily, without showing business or economic necessity; and

WHEREAS, There is a growing recognition that it is beneficial to the state to try to foster cooperation between labor and management;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Lieutenant Governor shall appoint a temporary committee consisting of four Senators, two from each caucus, to study unilateral implementation by public employers and submit recommendations to the Senate at the commencement of the 1989 Legislative Session. The Lieutenant Governor shall also appoint an advisory committee of at least six members who shall equally represent local government management organizations and local government employee organizations. The temporary committee may conduct hearings and seek input from other interested parties and organizations. The temporary committee and the advisory committee shall cease to exist on the first day of the 1989 Legislative Session.

Senators West and Warnke spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8755.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Smith, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8738

by Senators Smith, Metcalf, Owen and Rasmussen

WHEREAS, The Department of Fisheries issues personal use recreational fishing licenses, salmon punchcards, sturgeon punchcards, salmon stamps, Hood Canal Shrimp licenses and razor clam licenses; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Wildlife issues recreational fishing licenses and steelhead punchcards; and

WHEREAS, The dual recreational licensing system of those two fishing management agencies causes confusion and does not serve the public efficiently; and

WHEREAS, Virtually all other states in the United States have a single recreational fishing licensing system; and

WHEREAS, Simplification and consolidation of the current licensing system would provide benefits to the fishermen and the management agency; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, That the Senate Environment and Natural Resources Committee investigate the issue of combining the recreational fishing licenses into a single document that will be used for all fish and game fish recreational licensing applications.

Senators Metcalf, Owen and DeJarnatt spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8738.

MOTION

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8759

by Senators Kiskaddon, Metcalf, Bailey, Hansen, Smith, Craswell, Smitherman, Gaspard, Garrett, DeJarnatt, Barr, Newhouse, Benitz, McDonald, Saling, Zimmerman, Hayner, Anderson, Cantu, Deccio, McCaslin, McMullen, von Reichbauer and Johnson

BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, That the Legislative Transportation Committee is requested to undertake a study on the intrastate motor freight carrier provisions of chapter 81.80 RCW. The study shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) A review of current tariff procedures, including the need for tariff publication;

(2) The timeliness of rendering a decision on entry and extension applications;

(3) The need for streamlining the process by which rates and operating authority is determined;

(4) The feasibility and impact of extending the utilities and transportation commission's safety inspection authority to private carriers;

(5) The feasibility and impact of exempting certain agricultural and horticultural products from rate regulation;

(6) A review of the effectiveness of the Texas rate window law;

(7) A review of the recent modifications in intrastate motor carrier rate and entry regulations in the state of California.

The committee shall report its findings, and any recommendations, to the 1989 session of the Legislature; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Utilities and Transportation Commission is requested to undertake a study on the feasibility and impact of modifying the system of establishing rates for the transportation of logs. The study shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) Separation of domestic and export log income and cost statistics so as to arrive at a rate that more accurately reflects domestic log hauling costs;

(2) Establishment of log hauling rates by region rather than state-wide in order to reflect differing circumstances within the regions;

(3) Maintenance of continuous traffic studies on the log trucking and timber industries in order to establish equitable rates that more accurately reflect current log hauling costs; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the commission is requested to implement any changes it finds reasonable and provide the Legislative Transportation Committee with a periodic update on its actions and recommendations.

Senator Kiskaddon spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8759.

MOTION

On motion of Senator DeJarnatt, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8749

by Senators DeJarnatt, Metcalf, Bauer, Zimmerman, Owen and Smith

WHEREAS, The Mitchell Act, passed by Congress in 1938, recognized that the fishery resource on the Columbia River was greatly impacted by the construction of Grand Coulee and Bonneville Dams; and

WHEREAS, The funding under the Mitchell Act supports the operation and maintenance of fish hatcheries in Southwest Washington that produce over fifteen million salmon and steelhead annually; and

WHEREAS, Since 1981, the Reagan Administration has not supported the operation and maintenance of these hatcheries and has not proposed funding for them; and

WHEREAS, The state Congressional delegation has successfully lobbied their colleagues to continue the same level of funding for the hatcheries' operations each year for the last five years; and

WHEREAS, The 1988 federal budget does not include sufficient funds to operate seven Washington hatcheries at a cost-effective level, and that further mid-year federal budget reductions have caused the Departments of Fisheries and Wildlife to close or curtail operations at these hatcheries; and

WHEREAS, With one exception, the Coho and Chinook Salmon runs in the lower Columbia River are hatchery runs and not natural salmon runs; and

WHEREAS, The closure of hatcheries in Southwest Washington may seriously reduce the state's production of Coho and Chinook Salmon which may then place increased pressure on the state's recreational and commercial salmon fishing; and

WHEREAS, Under the United States-Canada Treaty, fewer fish produced by Washington means fewer fish to be caught by United States fishermen; and

WHEREAS, Recreational and commercial salmon fishing on the Washington coast creates over $16 million in direct expenditures and more than nine hundred and fifty jobs, and the fish produced from these hatcheries have an impact on fisheries in all of the state's marine waters;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, That the Office of the Attorney General be requested to investigate a lawsuit against the Department of Commerce demanding that the federal government provide the resources to continue operation of hatcheries funded through the Mitchell Act, and that the Office of the Attorney General work closely with the Departments of Fisheries and Wildlife and the appropriate committees of the Senate and House of Representatives in this effort; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Office of the Attorney General, the United States Department of Commerce, and the Washington Congressional delegation.

Senator Metcalf spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8749.

MOTION

Senator Zimmerman moved that the following resolution be adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8735

by Senators Zimmerman and Smitherman

WHEREAS, It has been found that many students decide by the eighth grade whether they will attend a college or university; and

WHEREAS, Many students and their parents are not taking the steps necessary to give the students a realistic opportunity to enter and succeed in college; and

WHEREAS, Changing academic standards for entry into a college or university, and the rising costs of education, have made it important for middle school and high school students, along with their parents, to engage in early planning for a successful postsecondary experience; and

WHEREAS, A larger cross-section of Washington's youth might choose to attend an institution of higher education if they had a better idea of the financial aid opportunities available to them and of the entrance standards that will be necessary for enrollment; and

WHEREAS, College students are good role models for sharing information with middle and high school students about the benefits of attending college, and for helping those students shape their aspirations for higher education; and

WHEREAS, Through early outreach programs, college students could assist middle and high school counselors by providing information to college-bound students about scholarships, work opportunities, student financial aid options, and academic preparation requirements;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, that the Higher Education Coordinating Board be requested to consider establishing a two-year pilot project of early outreach programs to provide guidance and information to middle and high school students, using existing state work-study and the federally funded state student incentive program grant funds; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the outreach programs strive to employ work-study eligible college students to act as mentors to middle and high school students by providing information regarding scholarships, work opportunities, student financial aid options and academic requirements for college-bound students; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That institutions of higher education, middle schools, and high schools be requested to cooperate with the board in making the early outreach programs successful; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Higher Education Coordinating Board be requested to evaluate the pilot project and report back to the Legislature with outcomes and recommendations by December 1, 1990; and

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Zimmerman, on the fourth 'Whereas' where it reads 'A larger cross-section of Washington's youth might choose to attend an institution of higher education if they had a better idea of the financial aid opportunities,' would you mind if those two words were stricken and then insert 'financial assistance?'"

Senator Zimmerman: "I don't know--that certainly wouldn't damage the resolution to my mind. You're saying 'financial assistance' rather than 'financial aid opportunities?'"

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, that's--"

Senator Zimmerman: "They're attempting to give them ideas about financial aid opportunities."

Senator Rasmussen: "Financial assistance would read better, I think."

Senator Zimmerman: "I would certainly not have any objections to that change."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, 'financial assistance' was inserted for the words 'financial aid opportunities' and 'financial aid options' in Senate Resolution 1988-8735.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution 1988-8735, as amended.

The motion by Senator Zimmerman carried and the resolution, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Smitherman spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8735.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8717

by Senators Owen, Craswell, Smitherman, Rasmussen, Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Patterson, Pullen, Saling, Smith, Stratton, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Wojahn, Zimmerman, Fleming, Kreidler and Talmadge

WHEREAS, The state of Washington has enjoyed a relationship of cooperation and mutual respect with the United States Navy for many decades, based upon the quality of the state's harbors which have sheltered many naval vessels in the adjacent communities in the state, the roles played by workers and businesses in the construction and repair of naval vessels over many years, the cooperation between the state and the Navy regarding the many naval facilities in the state, and the respect felt by the citizens of the state for the Navy in its defense of the sea lanes and of the nation's security in times of war and peace; and

WHEREAS, The state and its communities have served as the home of naval vessels in peace time and during periods of conflict, and strong attachments have grown between people in the communities and the naval vessels stationed in those communities; and

WHEREAS, Following a long service in battle and on the high seas, the battleship U.S.S. Missouri, the ship upon which a surrender took place that ended World War II, the bloodiest conflict the world has known, found a home in this state in the city of Bremerton, where citizens from around the country and around the world were able to visit and tour the battleship, and a strong attachment grew in the hearts of citizens for the vessel; and

WHEREAS, The U.S.S. Missouri has been given a chance to serve an active role again on the high seas, having been rehabilitated and restored to service in the defense of this nation; and

WHEREAS, The Navy has sought to base the U.S.S. Missouri on the west coast, and has sought to base the vessel in the city of San Francisco, California; and

WHEREAS, Basing of the vessel in the city of San Francisco has divided the citizens of that city, and the support of the city and its citizens for the U.S.S. Missouri being in San Francisco is weak and uncertain;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, that the President and Congress of the United States, the Department of Defense, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the United States Navy take action to base the battleship U.S.S. Missouri in the city of Bremerton in the state of Washington for the duration of its active life, and that after the battleship is decommissioned, the vessel remain in Bremerton, to again serve as a symbol of the nation's triumph over adversity in war and strength during times of peace.

BE IT RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the Honorable Ronald Reagan, President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, each member of Congress from the state of Washington, the Department of Defense, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the United States Navy.

Senator Craswell and Rasmussen spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8717.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hansen, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8718

by Senators Hansen, DeJarnatt, Rasmussen, Bauer, Fleming, Talmadge, Williams, Vognild, Stratton, Garrett, Niemi, Owen, Warnke, Smitherman, Gaspard, Moore, Halsan and Barr

WHEREAS, United States Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps Detachment 895 was established on the campus of Central Washington University in Ellensburg, Washington, in 1951; and

WHEREAS, "Quality" is the signal characteristic and trait of Detachment 895, as documented by the fact that Detachment 895 has received over one hundred fifty state, regional, and national unit and individual awards since 1951, including awards for instructor performance, recruiting, drill team and athletic competition, and physical fitness, and in addition approximately one hundred scholarships have been awarded to Detachment 895 cadets; and

WHEREAS, The national "United States Air Force Organizational Excellence Award" is bestowed annually to a select few of the many, worldwide organizational units of the United States Air Force, the Air National Guard, and the Air Reserve, and Detachment 895 has received the national "United States Air Force Organizational Excellence Award" for the years 1985, 1986, and 1987; and

WHEREAS, Detachment 895 is currently recognized as the overall number three detachment of the one hundred fifty-three R.O.T.C. detachments in the United States, is rated number one nationally this year in recruiting, and is presently rated number three nationally in physical fitness; and

WHEREAS, Detachment 895 is the top-rated "Best in the West" detachment among the thirty-two detachments in the Western United States (Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, California, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, West Texas, and Hawaii); and

WHEREAS, The Arnold Air Society Squadron of Detachment 895 is recognized as the best overall squadron and the number one small squadron in the Northwest Region comprised of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and Montana, and has been recognized two years running as the "Most Spirited" squadron in the Northwest Region, and Cadet Steven E. Murray is recognized as the best commander of any Arnold Air Society Squadron in the Northwest Region; and

WHEREAS, Detachment 895 officers, enlisted personnel, and cadets have received multiple military and civic awards and are recognized for their dedicated community service; and

WHEREAS, Detachment 895 is recognized by the community of Ellensburg and by the service branch it represents for its programmatic standard of excellence and for the exemplary performance of the officers, enlisted personnel, and cadets; and

WHEREAS, The outstanding reputation of Detachment 895 promotes a positive image of the United States Air Force and represents an invaluable example that serving the country through direct or affiliated service with the United States Air Force is honorable and rewarding; and

WHEREAS, Secretary of the Air Force, The Honorable Edward C. Aldridge, Jr. has announced the closure of Detachment 895 at Central Washington University;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the Senate respectfully request that Secretary Aldridge reexamine the significant contributions of United States Air Force R.O.T.C. Detachment 895 and reconsider the decision to close Detachment 895 at Central Washington University; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Secretary of Defense, Frank Carlucci, the Secretary of the Air Force, Edward C. Aldridge, Jr., each member of Congress from the state of Washington, the Honorable Booth Gardner, Governor of the state of Washington, President Donald L. Garrity of Central Washington University, and Colonel Dick Thompson, Professor of Aerospace Studies at Central Washington University and the Commander of Detachment 895.

MOTION

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8760

by Senators von Reichbauer, Gaspard, Moore and Johnson

WHEREAS, Senate Bill No. 6744 and House Bill No. 2007 are companion measures relating to professional wrestling introduced during the 1988 Regular Legislative Session; and

WHEREAS, These measures would have created a Professional Wrestling Act of Washington State, but the bills died in committee for lack of time; and

WHEREAS, Wrestling currently comes under the jurisdiction of the Boxing Commission; and

WHEREAS, There are a variety of issues, such as bonding requirements, availability of ambulance and physician and crowd control;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate shall create a select committee on professional wrestling to study the question of whether wrestling should be removed from the boxing commission; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the President shall appoint three members of the Majority Caucus and two members of the Minority Caucus, to serve on a select committee on Professional Wrestling, the chair of which shall be selected by the members of the select committee; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate Select Committee on Professional Wrestling shall work closely with a like House Committee, should one be created; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate Select Committee on Professional Wrestling shall report its findings and recommendations to the Senate by December 1, 1988.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the sixth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

The House concurred in the Senate amendments to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1568 on page 2, line 28, and to the amendments to page 3, line 9, by Senators McMullen and Saling, including the title amendment; ruled other amendments to page 3, line 9, by Senator Rinehart and others beyond the scope and object of the bill, refuses to concur and asks the Senate to recede from those amendments, including the title amendment, and the same are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate receded from its amendments on page 3, line 9 and the title amendment by Senator Rinehart and others to Substitute House Bill No. 1568.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1568, with the Senate amendments on page 2, line 28, and to page 3, line 9, including the title amendment by Senators McMullen and Saling, but without the Senate amendment by Senator Rinehart and others on page 3, line 9, and the title amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1568, without the Senate amendment by Senator Rinehart and others on page 3, line 9, but with other Senate amendments, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 49.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1568, with the Senate amendments on page 2, line 28, and page 3, line 9, including the title amendment by Senators McMullen and Saling, but without the amendment on page 3, line 9, and the title amendment by Senator Rinehart and others, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 5:40 p.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 6:37 p.m. by President Pro Tempore Bluechel.

At 6:37 p.m., the President Pro Tempore declared the Senate to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 7:43 p.m. by President Pro Tempore Bluechel.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SSB 5595

Establishing liens for owners of self-storage facilities.

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known as the "Washington self-service storage facility act."

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. For the purposes of this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Self-service storage facility" means any real property designed and used for the purpose of renting or leasing individual storage space to occupants who are to have access to the space for the purpose of storing and removing personal property on a self-service basis, but does not include a garage or other storage area in a private residence. No occupant may use a self-service storage facility for residential purposes.

(2) "Owner" means the owner, operator, lessor, or sublessor of a self-service storage facility, his or her agent, or any other person authorized by him or her to manage the facility, or to receive rent from an occupant under a rental agreement.

(3) "Occupant" means a person, or his or her sublessee, successor, or assign, who is entitled to the use of the storage space at a self-service storage facility under a rental agreement, to the exclusion of others.

(4) "Rental agreement" means any written agreement or lease which establishes or modifies the terms, conditions, rules or any other provision concerning the use and occupancy of a self-service storage facility.

(5) "Personal property" means movable property not affixed to land, and includes, but is not limited to, goods, merchandise, furniture, and household items.

(6) "Last known address" means that address provided by the occupant in the latest rental agreement, or the address provided by the occupant in a subsequent written notice of a change of address.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The owner of a self-service storage facility and his or her heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns have a lien upon all personal property located at a self-service storage facility for rent, labor, or other charges, present or future, incurred pursuant to the rental agreement, and for expenses necessary for the preservation, sale, or disposition of personal property subject to this chapter. The lien may be enforced consistent with this chapter. However, any lien on a motor vehicle or boat which has attached and is set forth in the documents of title to the motor vehicle or boat shall have priority over any lien created pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. When any part of the rent or other charges due from an occupant remains unpaid for six consecutive days, and the rental agreement so provides, an owner may deny the occupant access to the storage space at a self-service storage facility.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. When any part of the rent or other charges due from an occupant remains unpaid for fourteen consecutive days, an owner may terminate the right of the occupant to the use of the storage space at a self-service storage facility by sending a notice to the occupant's last known address, and to the alternative address specified in section 13(2) of this act, by first class mail, postage prepaid, containing all of the following:

(1) An itemized statement of the owner's claim showing the sums due at the time of the notice and the date when the sums become due.

(2) A statement that the occupant's right to use the storage space will terminate on a specified date (not less than fourteen days after the mailing of the notice) unless all sums due and to become due by that date are paid by the occupant prior to the specified date.

(3) A notice that the occupant may be denied or continue to be denied, as the case may be, access to the storage space after the termination date if the sums are not paid, and that an owner's lien, as provided for in section 3 of this act may be imposed thereafter.

(4) The name, street address, and telephone number of the owner, or his or her designated agent, whom the occupant may contact to respond to the notice.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A notice in substantially the following form shall satisfy the requirements of section 5 of this act:

PRELIMINARY LIEN NOTICE
 to _____ (occupant)

 (address)

 (state)

You owe and have not paid rent and/or other charges for the use of storage (space number) at (name and address of self-service storage facility).

Charges that have been due for more than fourteen days and accruing on or before (date) are itemized as follows:

DUE DATE	DESCRIPTION	AMOUNT
		TOTAL $ _____

IF this sum is not paid in full before
 (date at least fourteen days from mailing)

your right to use the storage space will terminate, you may be denied, or continue to be denied, access and an owner's lien on any stored property will be imposed. You may pay the sum due and contact the owner at:

(Name) _____
 (Address) _____
 (State) _____
 (Telephone) _____
 (Date) _____

(Owner's Signature) _____

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. If a notice has been sent, as required by section 5 of this act, and the total sum due has not been paid as of the date specified in the preliminary lien notice, the lien proposed by this notice attaches as of that date and the owner may deny an occupant access to the space, enter the space, inventory the goods therein, and remove any property found therein to a place of safe keeping. The owner shall then serve by personal service or send to the occupant, addressed to the occupant's last known address and to the alternative address specified in section 13(2) of this act by certified mail, postage prepaid, a notice of lien sale or notice of disposal which shall state all of the following:

(1) That the occupant's right to use the storage space has terminated and that the occupant no longer has access to the stored property.

(2) That the stored property is subject to a lien, and the amount of the lien accrued and to accrue prior to the date required to be specified in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) That the property, other than personal papers and personal effects, may be sold to satisfy the lien after a specified date which is not less than fourteen days from the date of mailing the lien sale notice, or a minimum of forty-two days after the date when any part of the rent or other charges due from the occupants remain unpaid, whichever is later, unless the amount of the lien is paid. If the total value of property in the storage space is less than one hundred dollars, the owner may, instead of sale, dispose of the property in any reasonable manner, subject to the restrictions of section 9(3) of this act.

(4) That any excess proceeds of the sale or other disposition under section 9(2) of this act over the lien amount and costs of sale and any personal papers and personal effects will be retained by the owner and may be reclaimed by the occupant, or claimed by another person, at any time for a period of six months from the sale and that thereafter the proceeds and personal papers and effects will be turned over to the state as abandoned property as provided in section 21 of this act.

(5) That if the occupant was served with notice of the lien sale by mail, the occupant within six months after the date of the sale may repurchase from any purchaser or subsequent purchaser any of the occupant's property sold pursuant to section 9 of this act at the price paid by the original purchaser.

(6) That if notice of the lien sale was by personal service, the occupant has no right to repurchase any property sold at the lien sale.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The owner, subject to sections 10 and 11 of this act, may sell the property, other than personal papers and personal effects, upon complying with the requirements set forth in section 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. (1) After the expiration of the time given in the notice of lien sale pursuant to section 7 of this act, the property, other than personal papers and personal effects, may be sold or disposed of in a reasonable manner.

(2)(a) If the property has a value of one hundred dollars or more, the sale shall be conducted in a commercially reasonable manner, and, after deducting the amount of the lien and costs of sale, the owner shall retain any excess proceeds of the sale on the occupant's behalf.

The occupant, or any other person having a court order or other judicial process against the property, may claim the excess proceeds, or a portion thereof sufficient to satisfy the particular claim, at any time within six months of the date of sale.

(b) If the property has a value of less than one hundred dollars, the property may be disposed of in a reasonable manner.

(3) No employee or owner, or family member of an employee or owner, may acquire, directly or indirectly, the property sold pursuant to subsection (2)(a) of this section or disposed of pursuant to subsection (2)(b) of this section.

(4) The owner is entitled to retain any interest earned on the excess proceeds until the excess proceeds are claimed by another person or are turned over to the state as abandoned property pursuant to section 21 of this act.

(5) After the sale or other disposition pursuant to this section has been completed, the owner shall provide an accounting of the disposition of the proceeds of the sale or other disposition to the occupant at the occupant's last known address and at the alternative address.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Any person who has a perfected security interest under Article 62A.9 RCW of the uniform commercial code may claim any personal property subject to the security interest and subject to a lien pursuant to this chapter by paying the total amount due, as specified in the lien notices, for the storage of the property. Upon payment of the total amount due, the owner shall deliver possession of the particular property subject to the security interest to the person who paid the total amount due. The owner shall not be liable to any person for any action taken pursuant to this section if the owner has fully complied with sections 6 and 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Prior to any sale pursuant to section 9 of this act, any person claiming a right to the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reasonable expenses incurred for particular actions taken pursuant to this chapter. In that event, the goods shall not be sold, but shall be retained by the owner subject to the terms of this chapter pending a court order directing a particular disposition of the property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a purchaser in good faith of goods disposed of pursuant to section 9(2) of this act takes the goods free of any rights of persons against whom the lien was claimed, despite noncompliance by the owner of the storage facility with this chapter.

(2) A purchaser or subsequent purchaser shall return the goods to the occupant if the occupant tenders the original purchase price plus any costs incurred by the original purchaser within six months of the date of the purchase, unless the occupant was personally served with notice of the lien sale. If the occupant was personally served, the occupant has no right to repurchase the property.

(3) If the occupant exercises his or her right to repurchase property pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, a subsequent purchaser is entitled to rescind a transaction with a previous purchaser.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) Each contract for the rental or lease of individual storage space in a self-service storage facility shall be in writing and shall contain, in addition to the provisions otherwise required or permitted by law to be included, a statement requiring the occupant to disclose any lienholders or secured parties who have an interest in the property that is or will be stored in the self-service storage facility, a statement that the occupant's property will be subject to a claim of lien and may even be sold to satisfy the lien if the rent or other charges due remain unpaid for fourteen consecutive days, and that such actions are authorized by this chapter.

(2) The lien authorized by this chapter shall not attach, unless the rental agreement requests, and provides space for, the occupant to give the name and address of another person to whom the preliminary lien notice and subsequent notices required to be given under this chapter may be sent. Notices sent pursuant to section 5 or 7 of this act shall be sent to the occupant's address and the alternative address, if both addresses are provided by the occupant. Failure of an occupant to provide an alternative address shall not affect an owner's remedies under this chapter or under any other provision of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Any insurance protecting the personal property stored within the storage space against fire, theft, or damage is the responsibility of the occupant. The owner is under no obligation to provide insurance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Nothing in this chapter may be construed to impair or affect the right of the parties to create additional rights, duties, and obligations which do not conflict with the provisions of this chapter. The rights provided by this chapter shall be in addition to all other rights provided by law to a creditor against his or her debtor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This chapter shall only apply to rental agreements entered into, extended, or renewed after the effective date of this section. Rental agreements entered into before the effective date of this section which provide for monthly rental payments but providing no specific termination date shall be subject to this chapter on the first monthly rental payment date next succeeding the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. All rental agreements entered into before the effective date of this section, and not extended or renewed after that date, or otherwise made subject to this chapter pursuant to section 16 of this act, and the rights, duties, and interests flowing from them, shall remain valid, and may be enforced or terminated in accordance with their terms or as permitted by any other statute or law of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If an owner issues any warehouse receipt, bill of lading, or other document of title for the personal property stored, the owner and the occupant are subject to Article 62A.7 RCW (commencing with RCW 62A.7-101) of the uniform commercial code and this chapter does not apply.

Sec. 19. Section 6, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 4, chapter 324, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.11.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person to act as an auctioneer or for an auction company to engage in any business in this state without a license.

(2) This chapter does not apply to:

(a) An auction of goods conducted by an individual who personally owns those goods and who did not acquire those goods for resale;

(b) An auction conducted by or under the direction of a public authority;

(c) An auction held under judicial order in the settlement of a decedent's estate;

(d) An auction which is required by law to be at auction;

(e) An auction conducted by or on behalf of a political organization or a charitable corporation or association if the person conducting the sale receives no compensation; ((or))

(f) An auction of livestock or agricultural products which is conducted under chapter 16.65 or 20.01 RCW. Auctions not regulated under chapter 16.65 or 20.01 RCW shall be fully subject to the provisions of this chapter; or

(g) An auction held under chapter 19.— RCW (sections 1 through 18 of this 1988 act).

Sec. 20. Section 3, chapter 252, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 9, chapter 370, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.85.110 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to (1) any person who purchases property and/or a business opportunity for his own account, or that of a group of which he is a member, or who, as the owner or part owner of property, and/or a business opportunity, in any way disposes of the same; nor, (2) any duly authorized attorney in fact, or an attorney at law in the performance of his duties; nor, (3) any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, executor, administrator, guardian, or any person acting under the order of any court, or selling under a deed of trust; nor, (4) any secretary, bookkeeper, accountant, or other office personnel who does not engage in any conduct or activity specified in any of the definitions under RCW 18.85.010; nor, (5) any owner of rental or lease property, members of the owner's family whether or not residing on such property, or a resident manager of a complex of residential dwelling units wherein such manager resides; nor, (6) any person who manages residential dwelling units on an incidental basis and not as his principal source of income so long as that person does not advertise or hold himself out to the public by any oral or printed solicitation or representation that he is so engaged; nor, (7) only with respect to the rental or lease of individual storage space, any person who owns or manages a self-service storage facility as defined under chapter 19.— RCW (sections 1 through 18 of this 1988 act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 63.29 RCW to read as follows:

The personal papers and personal effects held by the owner and the excess proceeds of a sale conducted pursuant to section 9 of this act by an owner of a self-service storage facility to satisfy the lien and costs of storage which are not claimed by the occupant of the storage space or any other person which remains unclaimed for more than six months are presumed abandoned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Sections 1 through 18 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "facilities;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 18.11.070 and 18.85.110; adding a new section to chapter 63.29 RCW; and adding a new chapter to Title 19 RCW."

Signed by Senators Lee, Niemi, West; Representatives Armstrong, Appelwick, Padden.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 5595 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SSB 6157

Changing provisions relating to student learning objectives.

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

On page 1, line 9, after "therein," strike "~~shall~~" and insert "shall(:"

On page 1, line 10, after "~~develop~~)" strike "~~may~~"

On page 1, line 14, after "programs" insert ": PROVIDED, That each school within the district, as a part of the self-study process, shall review the district learning objectives for each course of study and may identify additional or special learning objectives which are applicable to the particular school"

On page 2, after line 21, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 349, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28A.58.085 are each amended to read as follows:

Each school district board of directors shall develop a schedule and process by which each public school within its jurisdiction shall undertake self-study procedures on a regular basis: PROVIDED, That districts may allow two or more elementary school buildings in the district to undertake jointly the self-study process. Each school may follow the accreditation process developed by the state board of education under RCW 28A.04.120(((4))) (6), although no school is required to file for actual accreditation, or the school may follow a self-study process developed locally. Whatever process is used must focus upon the quality and appropriateness of the school's educational program and the results of its operational efforts.

Any self-study process must include the participation of staff, parents, members of the community, and students, where appropriate to their age.

Emphasis throughout the process shall be placed upon:

- (1) Achieving educational excellence and equity;
- (2) Building stronger links with the community; and
- (3) Reaching consensus upon educational expectations through community involvement and corresponding school management.

The initial self-study process within each district shall begin by September 1, 1986, and should be completed for all schools within a district by the end of the 1990-91 school year.

The state board of education shall develop rules and regulations governing procedural criteria. Such rules and regulations should be flexible so as to accommodate local goals and circumstances. Rules and regulations may allow for waiver of the self-study for economic reasons and may also allow for waiver of the initial self-study if a district or its schools have participated successfully in an official accreditation process or in a similar assessment of educational programs within the last three years. The self-study process shall be conducted on a cyclical basis every seven years following the initial 1990-91 period.

The superintendent of public instruction shall provide training to assist districts in their self-studies.

Each district shall (~~annually~~) report every two years to the superintendent of public instruction on the scheduling and implementation of their self-study activities."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "28A.58.090" insert "and 28A.58.085"

Signed by Senators Rinehart, Bailey, Kiskaddon: Representatives Peery, Spanel, Betzoff.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6157 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: ESSB 6160

Providing baccalaureate and masters degree equivalencies for certification of vocational instructors.

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Adopt the House Education Committee striking amendment and add the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 3, after line 11 of the amendment by the House Committee on Education, insert the following:

*Sec. 3. Section 28A.70.160, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 137, chapter 275, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.70.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Any certificate to teach authorized under the provisions of this chapter or rules and regulations promulgated thereunder may be revoked or suspended by the authority authorized to grant the same upon complaint of any school district superintendent or educational service district superintendent for immorality, violation of written contract, intemperance, or crime against the law of the state((:)). Any such certificate to teach shall be revoked by the authority authorized to grant the certificate upon the conviction of any felony crime involving the physical neglect of children, the physical injury of children (excepting ((possible)) motor vehicle violations under chapter 46.61 RCW), sexual exploitation of children, child pornography, sexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim, promoting prostitution of a minor, or the sexual abuse of children, or ((any unprofessional conduct, after)) violation of similar laws of another jurisdiction. The person whose certificate is in question ((has been)) shall be given an opportunity to be heard. Revocation for felony convictions shall apply to felony convictions which follow issuance of the certificate and to felony convictions occurring after the effective date of this act.

Sec. 4. Section 28A.70.180, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.70.180 are each amended to read as follows:

In case any certificate is revoked, the holder shall not be eligible to receive another teacher's certificate for a period of twelve months after the date of revocation. However, if the certificate was revoked because of the conviction of a felony crime involving the physical neglect of children, the physical injury of children (except motor vehicle violations under chapter 46.61 RCW), sexual exploitation of children, child pornography, sexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim, promoting prostitution of a minor, or the sexual abuse of children, or violation of similar laws of another jurisdiction, the certificate shall not be reinstated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to Title 28A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The school district board of directors shall immediately terminate the employment of any classified employee who has contact with children during the course of his or her employment upon conviction of any felony crime involving the physical neglect of children, the physical injury of children (except possible motor vehicle violations), sexual exploitation of children, child pornography, sexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim, promoting prostitution of a minor, or the sexual abuse of children, or violation of similar laws of another jurisdiction.

(2) The employee shall have a right of appeal under chapter 28A.88 RCW including any right of appeal under a collective bargaining agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to Title 28A RCW to read as follows:

The school district board of directors shall include in any contract for services with an entity other than an employee of the school district a provision requiring the contractor to prohibit any employee of the contractor from working at a public school who has contact with children at a public school during the course of his or her employment and who has been convicted of any felony crime involving the physical neglect of children, the physical injury of children (except motor vehicle violations under chapter 46.61 RCW), sexual exploitation of children, child pornography, sexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim, promoting prostitution of a minor, or the sexual abuse of children, or violation of similar laws of another jurisdiction. The contract shall also contain a provision that any failure to comply with this section shall be grounds for the school district immediately terminating the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to Title 28A RCW to read as follows:

The school district shall immediately terminate the employment of any person whose certificate is subject to revocation under RCW 28A.70.160 upon conviction of any felony crime involving the physical neglect of children, the physical injury of children (except motor vehicle violations under chapter 46.61 RCW), or the sexual abuse of children, sexual exploitation of children, child pornography, sexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim, promoting prostitution of a minor, or the sexual abuse of children, or violation of similar laws of another jurisdiction. Employment shall remain terminated unless the employee successfully prevails on appeal. This section shall only apply to certificated employees who have contact with children during the course of their employment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 3, line 18 of the title amendment, after "28A.70.040" strike the remainder of the title amendment and insert ", 28A.70.042, 28A.70.160, and 28A.70.180; and adding new sections to Title 28A RCW."

Signed by Senators Bailey, Bender, Craswell; Representatives Spanel, Betrozoff, Peery.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2038 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved that the rules be suspended and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 be returned to second reading and read the second time.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry. This bill is in dispute. It is not sitting on a regular calendar and on that basis, I would ask the President's ruling on how many votes it takes to return it to second reading from a dispute calendar?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "Senator Vognild, the President believes that precedent has been to allow the Senate to return to second reading for the purpose of amendment in the last ten days of the session. Therefore, the President believes the motion by Senator Newhouse is properly before the Senate."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, a further parliamentary inquiry. I believe the rules provide, under Rule 35, as to suspension of rules in the Permanent Rules of the Senate, that that requires a two-thirds vote to accomplish it. Rule 61 provides that in the final days of the session, with respect to the reading of bills on three separate days, that the body can suspend that rule by a majority vote. The bills that are in disagreement under Rule 66 are not in a status of being in separate readings. I think the real question is whether or not in order to accomplish the movement of the bill as Senator Newhouse has sought, from the concurrence calendar to second reading, would be something that would require a suspension of the Permanent Rules of the Senate under Rule 35."

REMARKS BY SENATOR VOGNILD

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President. In your deliberations, I would like to also point out that the precedent that you refer to, is a precedent that has been established on this floor when both sides agree to turn it back as a matter of expediting the business of the Senate. Therefore, when it is returned under the precedent that you are talking about, there have been no objections to it and therefore any time that the body does not object, then they can, in fact, do the things you're talking about, but in this case with an objection I believe that the Senate Rules should take over."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "Senator Vognild, the President has ruled on the precedent that happened even earlier this evening."

FURTHER REMARKS BY SENATOR VOGNILD

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President, that is precisely what I was referring to. Earlier this evening we agreed, in order to expedite the business of the Senate, that we would not object to the motion. This time we have objected to the motion and with the objection, I believe the Senate Rules will then take precedence. What I'm asking for is a ruling based upon the rules, not upon what has happened in the past."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "The President stands on the ruling. I believe it's applied equally to both sides in the past sessions."

CHALLENGE OF THE CHAIR

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I challenge the Chair's Ruling. Mr. President, Rule 35 is clear—'A permanent rule or order may be temporarily suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present unless otherwise specified herein.' It does not anywhere otherwise specify herein and we have, Mr. President, no precedent. Senator Newhouse, previously by agreement, had suspended the rules on another bill which was by agreement and no objection was raised. This time there's been objections raised and the President is wrong in making this ruling. Any well-meaning person could read the rule. It's very clear and the Senate operates by the rules, not by precedence. I urge the President to reconsider and reread the rules."

FURTHER REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "In addition to the remarks of Senator Rasmussen, under Rule 61, it provides, 'Every bill shall be read on three separate days unless the Senate deems it expedient to suspend the rules. On and after the tenth day preceding adjournment Sine Die of any session, or three days prior to any cut-off date for consideration of bills as determined pursuant to Article 2, Section 12 of the Constitution or concurrent resolution. This rule may be suspended by a majority vote.' That is the only place in the rules wherein the two-thirds requirement of Rule 35 may be suspended by a majority vote instead of the usual two-thirds that is required."

"Bills in dispute are governed by Rule 66. They are not subject to the three days of reading requirement of the rules. We would, respectfully, suggest that this is a circumstance that requires a two-thirds vote to suspend the rules under Rule 35 rather than the majority vote required under Rule 61 which is a different circumstance."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 was deferred.

At 8:14 p.m., the President Pro Tempore declared the Senate to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 9:09 p.m. by President Pro Tempore Bluechel.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 and the pending motion by Senator Newhouse to return the bill to second reading, deferred earlier today.

There being no objection, Senator Newhouse withdrew the motion to return Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 to second reading.

There being no objection, Senator Rasmussen withdrew the Challenge of the Chair's Ruling.

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved that the Senate do not recede from its amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 and asks the House for a conference thereon.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate do recede from its amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038.

Senator Fleming demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the positive motion by Senator Vognild that the Senate do recede from its amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Vognild to recede from the amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 failed by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 25.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Conner, DeJamatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Niemi, Owen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Taimadge, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 24.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question now before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Newhouse that the Senate do not recede from its amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 and asks the House for a conference thereon.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry. This is a House bill. Doesn't the House, under the rules, have to request a conference?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "The House, in refusing to recede, has given us the--"

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, I don't even believe the bill is here, because when we refused to recede, we automatically insisted on our position and sent the bill back to the House."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "Senator Vognild, the bill is before us."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Newhouse that the Senate do not recede from the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 and asks the House for a conference thereon.

The motion by Senator Newhouse carried and the Senate did not recede from its amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 and asks the House for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President Pro Tempore appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 and the Senate amendments thereto: Senators Hayner, Vognild and McDonald.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 2046 and the pending motion to suspend the rules and advance the bill to third reading, deferred earlier today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 2046 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

The House insists on its position regarding the Senate amendments to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1368 and again asks the Senate to recede therefrom and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1368 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Halsan moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Law and Justice amendment be adopted:

On page 24, line 9 of the Senate Committee on Law and Justice striking amendment, after "complaint." insert "The garnishment attorney fee shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars."

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Halsan to the Committee on Law and Justice amendment.

The motion by Senator Halsan carried and the amendment to the Committee on Law and Justice amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1368, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1368, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1368, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 49.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1368 as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

"PART I

DEFINITIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Acquired immunodeficiency syndrome" or "AIDS" means the clinical syndrome of HIV-related illness as defined by the board of health by rule.

(2) "Board" means the state board of health.

(3) "Department" means the department of social and health services, or any successor department with jurisdiction over public health matters.

(4) "Health care provider" means any person who is a member of a profession under RCW 18.130.040 or other person providing medical, nursing, psychological, or other health care services regulated by the department of licensing or the department of social and health services.

(5) "Health care facility" means a hospital, nursing home, neuropsychiatric or mental health facility, home health agency, hospice, child care agency, adult family home, group care facility, family foster home, clinic, blood bank, blood center, sperm bank, laboratory, or other social service or health care institution regulated or operated by the department of social and health services.

(6) "HIV-related condition" means any medical condition resulting from infection with HIV including, but not limited to, seropositivity for HIV.

(7) "Human immunodeficiency virus" or "HIV" means all HIV and HIV-related viruses which damage the cellular branch of the human immune or neurological systems and leave the infected person immunodeficient or neurologically impaired.

(8) "Test for a sexually transmitted disease" means a test approved by the board by rule.

(9) "Legal guardian" means a person appointed by a court to assume legal authority for another who has been found incompetent or, in the case of a minor, a person who has legal custody of the child.

(10) "Local public health officer" means the officer directing the county health department or his or her designee who has been given the responsibility and authority to protect the health of the public within his or her jurisdiction.

(11) "Person" includes any natural person, partnership, association, joint venture, trust, public or private corporation, or health facility.

(12) "Release of test results" means a written authorization for disclosure of any sexually transmitted disease test result which is signed, dated, and which specifies to whom disclosure is authorized and the time period during which the release is to be effective.

(13) "Sexually transmitted disease" means a bacterial, viral, fungal, or parasitic disease, determined by the board by rule to be sexually transmitted, to be a threat to the public health and welfare, and to be a disease for which a legitimate public interest will be served by providing for regulation and treatment. The board shall designate chancroid, gonorrhea, granuloma inguinale, lymphogranuloma venereum, genital herpes simplex, chlamydia, nongonococcal urethritis (NGU), trachomitis, genital human papilloma virus infection, syphilis, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS), and human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) infection as sexually transmitted diseases, and shall consider the recommendations and classifications of the centers for disease control and other nationally recognized medical authorities in designating other diseases as sexually transmitted.

(14) "State public health officer" means the secretary of social and health services or an officer appointed by the secretary.

PART II

SEXUAL ABSTINENCE AND AVOIDANCE OF SUBSTANCE ABUSE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

Information directed to the general public and providing education regarding any sexually transmitted disease that is written, published, distributed, or used by any public entity, and all such information paid for, in whole or in part, with any public moneys shall give emphasis to the importance of sexual abstinence, sexual fidelity, and avoidance of substance abuse in controlling disease.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

All material directed to children in grades kindergarten through twelve and providing education regarding any sexually transmitted disease that is written, published, distributed, or used by any public entity, and all such information paid for, in whole or in part, with any public moneys shall give emphasis to the importance of sexual abstinence outside lawful marriage and avoidance of substance abuse in controlling disease.

PART III

CENTER FOR VOLUNTARY ACTION

Sec. 301. Section 5, chapter 11, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.150.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The center, working in cooperation with individuals, local groups, and organizations throughout the state, may undertake any program or activity for which funds are available which furthers the goals of this chapter. These programs and activities may include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Providing information about programs, activities, and resources of value to volunteers and to organizations operating or planning volunteer programs;
- (2) Sponsoring recognition events for outstanding individuals and organizations;
- (3) Facilitating the involvement of business, industry, government, and labor in community service and betterment;
- (4) Organizing, or assisting in the organization of, training workshops and conferences;
- (5) Publishing schedules of significant events, lists of published materials, accounts of successful programs and programming techniques, and other information concerning the field of volunteerism, and distributing this information broadly;
- (6) Reviewing the laws and rules of the state of Washington, and proposed changes therein, to determine their impact on the success of volunteer activities and programs, and recommending such changes as seem appropriate to ensure the achievement of the goals of this chapter;

(7) Providing information about agencies and individuals who are working to prevent the spread of the human immunodeficiency virus, as defined in chapter 70.24 RCW, and to agencies and individuals who are working to provide health and social services to persons with acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, as defined in chapter 70.24 RCW.

PART IV

AIDS EDUCATION IN THE COMMON SCHOOLS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. The legislature finds that the public schools provide a unique and appropriate setting for educating young people about the pathology and prevention of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS). The legislature recognizes that schools and communities vary throughout the state and that locally elected school directors should have a significant role in establishing a program of AIDS education in their districts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. A new section is added to chapter 28A.05 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The life-threatening dangers of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) and its prevention shall be taught in the public schools of this state. AIDS prevention education shall be limited to the discussion of the life-threatening dangers of the disease, its spread, and prevention. Students shall receive such education at least once each school year beginning no later than the fifth grade.

(2) Each district board of directors shall adopt an AIDS prevention education program which is developed in consultation with teachers, administrators, parents, and other community members including, but not limited to, persons from medical, public health, and mental health organizations and agencies so long as the curricula and materials developed for use in the AIDS education program either (a) are the model curricula and resources under subsection (3) of this section, or (b) are developed by the school district and approved for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS established in section 602 of this act. If a district elects to use curricula developed by the school district, the district shall submit to the office on AIDS a copy of its curricula and an affidavit of medical accuracy stating that the material in the district-developed curricula has been compared to the model curricula for medical accuracy and that in the opinion of the district the district-developed materials are medically accurate. Upon submission of the affidavit and curricula, the district may use these materials until the approval procedure to be conducted by the office of AIDS has been completed.

(3) Model curricula and other resources available from the superintendent of public instruction through the state clearinghouse for educational information may be reviewed by the school district board of directors, in addition to materials designed locally, in developing the district's AIDS education program. The model curricula shall be reviewed for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS established in section 602 of this act within the department of social and health services.

(4) Each school district shall, at least one month before teaching AIDS prevention education in any classroom, conduct at least one presentation during weekend and evening hours for the parents and guardians of students concerning the curricula and materials that will be used for such education. The parents and guardians shall be notified by the school district of the presentation and that the curricula and materials are available for inspection. No student may be required to participate in AIDS prevention education if the student's parent or guardian, having attended one of the district presentations, objects in writing to the participation.

(5) The office of the superintendent of public instruction with the assistance of the office on AIDS shall update AIDS education curriculum material as newly discovered medical facts make it necessary.

(6) The curriculum for AIDS prevention education shall be designed to teach students which behaviors place a person dangerously at risk of infection with the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) and methods to avoid such risk including, at least:

(a) The dangers of drug abuse, especially that involving the use of hypodermic needles; and

(b) The dangers of sexual intercourse, with or without condoms.

(7) The program of AIDS prevention education shall stress the life-threatening dangers of contracting AIDS and shall stress that abstinence from sexual activity is the only certain means for the prevention of the spread or contraction of the AIDS virus through sexual contact. It shall also teach that condoms and other artificial means of birth control are not a certain means of preventing the spread of the AIDS virus and reliance on condoms puts a person at risk for exposure to the disease.

Sec. 403. Section 28A.05.010, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 232, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.05.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All common schools shall give instruction in reading, penmanship, orthography, written and mental arithmetic, geography, the history of the United States, English grammar, physiology and hygiene with special reference to the effects of alcoholic stimulants and narcotics on the human system, science with special reference to the environment, and such other studies as may be prescribed by rule or regulation of the state board of education. All teachers shall stress the importance of the cultivation of manners, the fundamental principles of honesty, honor, industry and economy, the minimum requisites for good health including the beneficial effect of physical exercise and methods to prevent exposure to and transmission of sexually transmitted diseases, and the worth of kindness to all living creatures and the land. The prevention of child abuse may be offered as part of the curriculum in the common schools.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 404. Sections 402 and 403 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1988.

PART V

AIDS EDUCATION IN COLLEGES, UNIVERSITIES, AND VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:

The governing board of each state four-year institution of higher education shall make information available to all newly matriculated students on methods of transmission of the human immunodeficiency virus and prevention of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome. The curricula and materials shall be reviewed for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS in coordination with the appropriate regional AIDS service network.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 502. A new section is added to chapter 28B.50 RCW to read as follows:

The state board for community college education shall make information available to all newly matriculated students on methods of transmission of the human immunodeficiency virus and prevention of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome. The curricula and materials shall be reviewed for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS in coordination with the appropriate regional AIDS service network.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 503. A new section is added to chapter 28C.04 RCW to read as follows:

Each publicly operated vocational school shall make information available to all newly matriculated students on methods of transmission of the human immunodeficiency virus and prevention of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome. The curricula and materials shall be reviewed for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS in coordination with the appropriate regional AIDS service network.

PART VI

AIDS TRAINING FOR EMPLOYEES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 601. The number of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) cases in the state may reach five thousand by 1991. This makes it necessary to provide our state's workforce with the resources and knowledge to deal with the epidemic. To ensure that accurate information is available to the state's work force, a clearinghouse for all technically correct educational materials related to AIDS should be created.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 602. There is established in the department an office on AIDS. If a department of health is created, the office on AIDS shall be transferred to the department of health, and its chief shall report directly to the secretary of health. The office on AIDS shall have as its chief a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW or a person experienced in public health who shall report directly to the assistant secretary for health. This office shall be the repository and clearinghouse for all education and training material related to the treatment, transmission, and prevention of AIDS. The office on AIDS shall have the responsibility for coordinating all publicly funded education and service activities related to AIDS. The University of Washington shall provide the office on AIDS with appropriate training and educational materials necessary to carry out its duties. The office on AIDS shall assist state agencies with information necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The department shall work with state and county agencies and specific employee and professional groups to provide information appropriate to their needs, and shall make educational materials available to private employers and encourage them to distribute this information to their employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 603. The department shall adopt rules that recommend appropriate education and training for licensed and certified emergency medical personnel under chapter 18.73 RCW on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The department shall require appropriate education or training as a condition of certification or license issuance or renewal.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 604. Each disciplining authority under chapter 18.130 RCW shall adopt rules that require appropriate education and training for licensees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The disciplining authorities shall work with the office on AIDS under section 602 of this act to develop the training and educational material necessary for health professionals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 605. The state board of pharmacy shall adopt rules that require appropriate education and training for licensees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The board shall work with the office on AIDS under section 602 of this act to develop the training and educational material necessary for health professionals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 606. The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules that require appropriate education and training, to be included as part of their present continuing education requirements, for public school employees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The superintendent of public instruction shall work with the office on AIDS under section 602 of this act to develop the educational and training material necessary for school employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 607. The state personnel board, the higher education personnel board, and each unit of local government shall determine whether any employees under their jurisdiction have a substantial likelihood of exposure in the course of their employment to the human immunodeficiency virus. If so, the agency or unit of government shall adopt rules requiring appropriate training and education for the employees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The rules shall specifically provide for such training and education for law enforcement, correctional, and health care workers. The state personnel board, the higher education personnel board, and each unit of local government shall work with the office on AIDS under section 602 of this act to develop the educational and training material necessary for employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 608. The department shall adopt rules requiring appropriate education and training of employees of state licensed or certified health care facilities. The education and training shall be on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS and shall not be required for employees who are covered by comparable rules adopted under other sections of this chapter. In adopting rules under this section, the department shall consider infection control standards and educational materials available from appropriate professional associations and professionally prepared publications.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 609. Sections 602 through 608 of this act are each added to chapter 70.24 RCW.

PART VII COUNSELING AND TESTING

NEW SECTION. Sec. 701. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Pretest counseling" means counseling aimed at helping the individual understand ways to reduce the risk of HIV infection, the nature and purpose of the tests, the significance of the results, and the potential dangers of the disease, and to assess the individual's ability to cope with the results.

(2) "Posttest counseling" means further counseling following testing usually directed toward increasing the individual's understanding of the human immunodeficiency virus infection, changing the individual's behavior, and, if necessary, encouraging the individual to notify persons with whom there has been contact capable of spreading HIV.

(3) "AIDS counseling" means counseling directed toward increasing the individual's understanding of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome and changing the individual's behavior.

(4) "HIV testing" means a test indicative of infection with the human immunodeficiency virus as specified by the board of health by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 702. No person may undergo HIV testing without the person's consent except:

- (1) Pursuant to RCW 7.70.065 for incompetent persons;
- (2) In seroprevalence studies where neither the persons whose blood is being tested know the test results nor the persons conducting the tests know who is undergoing testing;
- (3) If the department of labor and industries determines that it is relevant, in which case payments made under Title 51 RCW may be conditioned on the taking of an HIV antibody test; or
- (4) As otherwise expressly authorized by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 703. (1) Local health departments authorized under this chapter shall conduct or cause to be conducted pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling of all persons:

- (a) Convicted of a sexual offense under chapter 9A.44 RCW;
- (b) Convicted of prostitution or offenses relating to prostitution under chapter 9A.88 RCW; or
- (c) Convicted of drug offenses under chapter 69.50 RCW if the court determines at the time of conviction that the related drug offense is one associated with the use of hypodermic needles.

(2) Such testing shall be conducted as soon as possible after sentencing and shall be so ordered by the sentencing judge.

(3) This section applies only to offenses committed after the effective date of this section.

(4) A law enforcement officer, fire fighter, health care provider, or health care facility staff person, who has experienced a substantial exposure to another person's bodily fluids in the course of his or her employment, may request a state or local public health officer to order pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling for the person whose bodily fluids he or she has been exposed to. The person who is subject to the order shall be given written notice of the order promptly, personally, and confidentially, stating the grounds and provisions of the order, including the factual basis therefor. If the person who is subject to the order refuses to comply, the state or local public health officer may petition the superior court for a hearing. The standard of review for the order is whether substantial exposure occurred and whether that exposure presents a possible risk of transmission of the HIV virus as defined by the board by rule. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the court shall issue the appropriate order. The state or local public health officer shall perform counseling and testing under this subsection if he or she finds that the exposure was substantial and presents a possible risk as defined by the board of health by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 704. Local health departments, in cooperation with the regional AIDS services networks, shall make available voluntary testing and counseling services to all persons arrested for prostitution offenses under chapter 9A.88 RCW and drug offenses under chapter 69.50 RCW. Services shall include educational materials that outline the seriousness of AIDS and encourage voluntary participation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 705. (1) Every health care practitioner attending a pregnant woman or a person seeking treatment of a sexually transmitted disease shall insure that AIDS counseling of the patient is conducted.

(2) AIDS counseling shall be provided to each person in a drug treatment program under chapter 69.54 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 706. Jail administrators, with the approval of the local public health officer, may order pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling for persons detained in the jail if the local public health officer determines that actual or threatened behavior presents a possible risk to the staff, general public, or other persons. Approval of the local public health officer shall be based on section 909(3) of this act and may be contested through section 909(4) of this act. The administrator shall establish, pursuant to RCW 70.48.071, a procedure to document the possible risk which is the basis for the HIV testing. "Possible risk," as used in this section, shall be defined by the board in rule. Documentation of the behavior, or threat thereof, shall be reviewed with the person to try to assure that the person understands the basis for testing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 707. (1) Department of corrections facility administrators may order pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling for inmates if the secretary of corrections or the secretary's designee determines that actual or threatened behavior presents a possible risk to the staff, general public, or other inmates. The department of corrections shall establish a procedure to document the possible risk which is the basis for the HIV testing. "Possible risk," as used in this section, shall be defined by the department of corrections after consultation with the board. Possible risk, as used in the documentation of the behavior, or threat thereof, shall be reviewed with the inmate.

(2) Department of corrections administrators and superintendents who are authorized to make decisions about testing and dissemination of test information shall, at least annually, participate in training seminars on public health considerations conducted by the assistant secretary for public health or her or his designee.

(3) Administrative hearing requirements set forth in chapter 34.04 RCW do not apply to the procedure developed by the department of corrections pursuant to this section. This section shall not be construed as requiring any hearing process except as may be required under existing federal constitutional law.

(4) Section 703 of this act does not apply to the department of corrections or to inmates in its custody or subject to its jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 708. By January 1, 1989, the secretary of corrections shall report to the legislature on the necessity of an AIDS-related segregation policy for all facilities under the director of the secretary.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 709. The board of health shall adopt rules establishing minimum standards for pretest counseling, HIV testing, posttest counseling, and AIDS counseling.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 710. Sections 701 through 707 and 709 of this act are each added to chapter 70.24 RCW.

PART VIII

REGIONAL AIDS SERVICE NETWORKS

NEW SECTION, Sec. 801. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall establish a state-wide system of regional acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) service networks as follows:

(1) The secretary of social and health services shall direct that all state or federal funds, excluding those from federal Title XIX for services or other activities authorized in this chapter, shall be allocated to the office on AIDS established in section 602 of this act. The secretary shall further direct that all funds for services and activities specified in subsection (3) of this section shall be provided to lead counties through contractual agreements based on plans developed as provided in subsection (2) of this section, unless direction of such funds is explicitly prohibited by federal law, federal regulation, or federal policy. The department shall deny funding allocations to lead counties only if the denial is based upon documented incidents of nonfeasance, misfeasance, or malfeasance. However, the department shall give written notice and thirty days for corrective action in incidents of misfeasance or nonfeasance before funding may be denied. The department shall designate six AIDS service network regions encompassing the state. In doing so, the department shall use the boundaries of the regional structures in place for the community services administration on January 1, 1988.

(2) The department shall request that a lead county within each region, which shall be the county with the largest population, prepare, through a cooperative effort of local health departments within the region, a regional organizational and service plan, which meets the requirements set forth in subsection (3) of this section. Efforts should be made to use existing plans, where appropriate. The plan should place emphasis on contracting with existing hospitals, major voluntary organizations, or health care organizations within a region that have in the past provided quality services similar to those mentioned in subsection (3) of this section and that have demonstrated an interest in providing any of the components listed in subsection (3) of this section. If any of the counties within a region do not participate, it shall be the lead county's responsibility to develop the part of the plan for the nonparticipating county or counties. If all of the counties within a region do not participate, the department shall assume the responsibility.

(3) The regional AIDS service network plan shall include the following components:

- (a) A designated single administrative or coordinating agency;
- (b) A complement of services to include:
 - (i) Voluntary and anonymous counseling and testing;
 - (ii) Mandatory testing and/or counseling services for certain individuals, as required by law;
 - (iii) Notification of sexual partners of infected persons, as required by law;
 - (iv) Education for the general public, health professionals, and high-risk groups;
 - (v) Intervention strategies to reduce the incidence of HIV infection among high-risk groups, possibly including needle sterilization and methadone maintenance;
 - (vi) Related community outreach services for runaway youth;
 - (vii) Case management;
 - (viii) Strategies for the development of volunteer networks;
 - (ix) Strategies for the coordination of related agencies within the network; and
 - (x) Other necessary information, including needs particular to the region;
- (c) A service delivery model that includes:
 - (i) Case management services; and
 - (ii) A community-based continuum-of-care model encompassing both medical, mental health, and social services with the goal of maintaining persons with AIDS in a home-like setting, to the extent possible, in the least-expensive manner; and
 - (d) Budget, caseload, and staffing projections.

(4) Efforts shall be made by both the counties and the department to use existing service delivery systems, where possible, in developing the networks.

(5) The University of Washington health science program, in cooperation with the office on AIDS may, within available resources, establish a center for AIDS education, which shall be linked to the networks. The center for AIDS education is not intended to engage in state-funded research related to HIV infection, AIDS, or HIV-related conditions. Its duties shall include providing the office on AIDS with the appropriate educational materials necessary to carry out that office's duties.

(6) The department shall implement this section, consistent with available funds, by October 1, 1988, by establishing six regional AIDS service networks whose combined jurisdictions shall include the entire state.

(a) Until June 30, 1991, available funding for each regional AIDS service network shall be allocated as follows:

(i) Seventy-five percent of the amount provided for regional AIDS service networks shall be allocated per capita based on the number of persons residing within each region, but in no case less than one hundred fifty thousand dollars for each regional AIDS service network per fiscal year. This amount shall be expended for testing, counseling, education, case management, notification of sexual partners of infected persons, planning, coordination, and other services required by law, except for those enumerated in (ii) of this subsection.

(ii) Twenty-five percent of the amount provided for regional AIDS service networks shall be allocated for intervention strategies specifically addressing groups that are at a high risk of being infected with the human immunodeficiency virus. The allocation shall be made by the office on AIDS based on documented need as specified in regional AIDS network plans.

(b) After June 30, 1991, the funding shall be allocated as provided by law. By December 15, 1990, the department shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature on proposed methods of funding regional AIDS service networks.

(7) The regional AIDS service networks shall be the official state regional agencies for AIDS information education and coordination of services. The state public health officer, as designated by the secretary of social and health services, shall make adequate efforts to publicize the existence and functions of the networks.

(8) If the department is not able to establish a network by an agreement solely with counties, it may contract with nonprofit agencies for any or all of the designated network responsibilities.

(9) The department, in establishing the networks, shall study mechanisms that could lead to reduced costs and/or increased access to services. The methods shall include capitation.

(10) The department shall reflect in its departmental biennial budget request the funds necessary to implement this section.

(11) The department shall submit an implementation plan to the appropriate committees of the legislature by July 1, 1988.

(12) The use of appropriate materials as authorized by regional AIDS service networks in the prevention or control of HIV infection shall not be deemed a violation of RCW 69.50.412.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 802. The department shall study the need for community residential care for persons with AIDS, including facility size, staffing, and related community health and social services, and report its finding to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 15, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 803. To assist the secretary of social and health services in the development and implementation of AIDS programs, the governor shall appoint an AIDS advisory committee. Among its duties shall be a review of insurance problems as related to persons with AIDS. The committee shall terminate on June 30, 1991.

PART IX

CONTROL OF SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED DISEASES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature declares that sexually transmitted diseases constitute a serious and sometimes fatal threat to the public and individual health and welfare of the people of the state. The legislature finds that the incidence of sexually transmitted diseases is rising at an alarming rate and that these diseases result in significant social, health, and economic costs, including infant and maternal mortality, temporary and lifelong disability, and premature death. The legislature further finds that sexually transmitted diseases, by their nature, involve sensitive issues of privacy, and it is the intent of the legislature that all programs designed to deal with these diseases afford patients privacy, confidentiality, and dignity. The legislature also finds that medical knowledge and information about sexually transmitted diseases are rapidly changing. It is therefore the intent of the legislature to provide a program that is sufficiently flexible to meet emerging needs, deals efficiently and effectively with reducing the incidence of sexually transmitted diseases, and provides patients with a secure knowledge that information they provide will remain private and confidential.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. A new section is added to chapter 49.60 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Sensory, mental, or physical handicap shall include actual or perceived HIV infection status of an individual.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to transactions with insurance entities, health service contractors, or health maintenance organizations subject to RCW 49.60.030 (1)(e) or 49.60.178 to prohibit fair discrimination on the basis of actual HIV infection status when bona fide statistical differences in risk or exposure have been substantiated.

(3) For the purposes of this chapter, "HIV" means the human immunodeficiency virus, and includes all HIV and HIV-related viruses which damage the cellular branch of the human immune system and leave the infected person immunodeficient.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 903. A new section is added to chapter 49.60 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person may require an individual to take an HIV test, as defined in chapter 70.24 RCW, as a condition of hiring, promotion, or continued employment unless the absence of HIV infection is a bona fide occupational qualification for the job in question.

(2) No person may discharge or fail or refuse to hire any individual, or segregate or classify any individual in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive that individual of employment opportunities or adversely affect his or her status as an employee, or otherwise discriminate against any individual with respect to compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment on the basis of the results of an HIV test unless the absence of HIV infection is a bona fide occupational qualification of the job in question.

(3) The absence of HIV infection as a bona fide occupational qualification exists when performance of a particular job can be shown to present a significant risk, as defined by the human rights commission in consultation with the board of health, of transmitting HIV infection to other persons, and there exists no means of eliminating the risk by restructuring the job.

(4) Employers are immune from civil action for damages arising out of transmission of HIV to employees or to members of the public unless such transmission occurs as a result of the employer's gross negligence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 904. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person may disclose or be compelled to disclose the identity of any person who has investigated, considered, or requested a test or treatment for a sexually transmitted disease, except as authorized by this chapter.

(2) No person may disclose or be compelled to disclose the identity of any person upon whom a test for a sexually transmitted disease is performed, or the results of such a test or any information relating to diagnosis or treatment for a sexually transmitted disease in a manner which permits identification of the subject of the test, diagnosis, or treatment except to the following persons:

(a) The subject of the test or the subject's legal representative for health care decisions in accordance with RCW 7.70.065, with the exception of such a representative of a minor child over fourteen years of age and otherwise competent;

(b) Any person who secures a specific release of test results executed by the subject of the test or the subject's legal representative for health care decisions in accordance with RCW 7.70.065, with the exception of such a representative of a minor child over fourteen years of age and otherwise competent;

(c) The state public health officer, a local public health officer, or the centers for disease control of the United States public health service in accordance with reporting requirements for a diagnosed case of a sexually transmitted disease;

(d) A health facility or health care provider that procures, processes, distributes, or uses: (i) A human body part, tissue, or blood from a deceased person with respect to medical information regarding that person; (ii) semen, including that provided prior to the effective date of this section, for the purpose of artificial insemination; or (iii) blood specimens;

(e) Any state or local public health officer conducting an investigation pursuant to section 909 of this act, provided that such record was obtained by means of court ordered HIV testing pursuant to section 703 or 909 of this act;

(f) A person allowed access to the record by a court order granted after application showing good cause therefor. In assessing good cause, the court shall weigh the public interest and the need for disclosure against the injury to the patient, to the physician-patient relationship, and to the treatment services. Upon the granting of the order, the court, in determining the extent to which any disclosure of all or any part of the record of any such test is necessary, shall impose appropriate safeguards against unauthorized disclosure. An order authorizing disclosure shall: (i) Limit disclosure to those parts of the patient's record deemed essential to fulfill the objective for which the order was granted; (ii) limit disclosure to those persons whose need for information is the basis for the order; and (iii) include any other appropriate measures to keep disclosure to a minimum for the protection of the patient, the physician-patient relationship, and the treatment services, including but not limited to the written statement set forth in subsection (5) of this section;

(g) Persons who, because of their behavioral interaction with the infected individual, have been placed at risk for acquisition of a sexually transmitted disease, as provided in section 906 of this act, if the health officer or authorized representative believes that the exposed person was unaware that a risk of disease exposure existed and that the disclosure of the identity of the infected person is necessary;

(h) A law enforcement officer, fire fighter, health care provider, or health care facility staff person, who has requested a test of a person whose bodily fluids he or she has been substantially exposed to, pursuant to section 703(4) of this act, if a state or local public health officer performs the test; and

(i) Claims management personnel employed by or associated with an insurer, health care service contractor, health maintenance organization, self-funded health plan, state-administered health care claims payer, or any other payer of health care claims where such disclosure is to be used solely for the prompt and accurate evaluation and payment of medical or related claims. Information released under this subsection shall be confidential and shall not be released or available to persons who are not involved in handling or determining medical claims payment.

(3) No person to whom the results of a test for a sexually transmitted disease have been disclosed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section may disclose the test results to another person except as authorized by that subsection.

(4) The release of sexually transmitted disease information regarding an offender, except as provided in subsection (2)(e) of this section, shall be governed as follows:

(a) The sexually transmitted disease status of a department of corrections offender shall be made available by department of corrections health care providers to a department of corrections superintendent or administrator as necessary for disease prevention or control and for protection of the safety and security of the staff, offenders, and the public. The information may be submitted to transporting officers and receiving facilities, including facilities that are not under the department of correction's jurisdiction.

(b) The sexually transmitted disease status of a person detained in a jail shall be made available by the local public health officer to a jail administrator as necessary for disease prevention or control and for protection of the safety and security of the staff, offenders, and the public. The information may be submitted to transporting officers and receiving facilities.

(c) Information regarding a department of corrections offender's sexually transmitted disease status is confidential and may be disclosed by a correctional superintendent or administrator or local jail administrator only as necessary for disease prevention or control and for protection of the safety and security of the staff, offenders, and the public. Unauthorized disclosure of this information to any person may result in disciplinary action, in addition to any other penalties as may be prescribed by law.

(5) Whenever disclosure is made pursuant to this section, it shall be accompanied by a statement in writing which includes the following or substantially similar language: "This information has been disclosed to you from records whose confidentiality is protected by state law. State law prohibits you from making any further disclosure of it without the specific written consent of the person to whom it pertains, or as otherwise permitted by state law. A general authorization for the release of medical or other information is NOT sufficient for this purpose." An oral disclosure shall be accompanied or followed by such a notice within ten days.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 905. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

The board shall establish reporting requirements for sexually transmitted diseases by rule. Reporting under this section may be required for such sexually transmitted diseases included under this chapter as the board finds appropriate.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 906. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The board shall adopt rules authorizing interviews and the state and local public health officers and their authorized representatives may interview, or cause to be interviewed, all persons infected with a sexually transmitted disease and all persons who, in accordance with standards adopted by the board by rule, are reasonably believed to be infected with such diseases for the purpose of investigating the source and spread of the diseases and for the purpose of ordering a person to submit to examination, counseling, or treatment as necessary for the protection of the public health and safety, subject to section 909 of this act.

(2) State and local public health officers or their authorized representatives shall investigate identified partners of persons infected with sexually transmitted diseases in accordance with procedures prescribed by the board.

(3) All information gathered in the course of contact investigation pursuant to this section shall be considered confidential.

(4) No person contacted under this section or reasonably believed to be infected with a sexually transmitted disease who reveals the name or names of sexual contacts during the course of an investigation shall be held liable in a civil action for such revelation, unless the revelation is made with a knowing or reckless disregard for the truth.

(5) Any person who knowingly or maliciously disseminates any false information or report concerning the existence of any sexually transmitted disease under this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor punishable as provided under RCW 9A.20.021.

Sec. 907. Section 6, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Diagnosis of a sexually transmitted disease in every instance must be confirmed by laboratory tests or examinations in a laboratory approved or conducted in accordance with procedures and such other requirements as may be established by the ((state)) board ((of health;

~~before any person shall be isolated or committed to quarantine and before any person committed to quarantine shall be discharged therefrom).~~ Laboratories testing for HIV shall report anonymous HIV prevalence results to the department, for health statistics purposes, in a manner established by the board.

Sec. 908. Section 8, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of carrying out ~~((the provisions of))~~ this ~~((act))~~ chapter, the ~~((state))~~ board ~~((of health))~~ shall have the power and authority ~~((from time to time, to divide the state into such number of quarantine districts consisting of one or more counties or parts of counties or municipalities as it shall deem expedient, and to establish at such place or places as it shall deem necessary quarantine stations and clinics))~~ to designate facilities for the detention and treatment of persons found to be infected with a sexually transmitted disease and to ((establish)) designate any such ((quarantine station and clinic in connection with any county or city jail or)) facility in any hospital or other public or private institution, other than a jail or correctional facility, having, or which may be provided with, such necessary detention, segregation, isolation, clinic and hospital facilities as may be required and prescribed by the board, and to enter into arrangements for the conduct of such ((quarantine stations and clinics)) facilities with the public officials or persons, associations, or corporations in charge of or maintaining and operating such institutions.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 909. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the state and local public health officers or their authorized representatives may examine and counsel or cause to be examined and counseled persons reasonably believed to be infected with or to have been exposed to a sexually transmitted disease.

(2) Orders or restrictive measures directed to persons with a sexually transmitted disease shall be used as the last resort when other measures to protect the public health have failed, including reasonable efforts, which shall be documented, to obtain the voluntary cooperation of the person who may be subject to such an order. The orders and measures shall be applied serially with the least intrusive measures used first. The burden of proof shall be on the state or local public health officer to show that specified grounds exist for the issuance of the orders or restrictive measures and that the terms and conditions imposed are no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health.

(3) When the state or local public health officer within his or her respective jurisdiction knows or has reason to believe, because of direct medical knowledge or reliable testimony of others in a position to have direct knowledge of a person's behavior, that a person has a sexually transmitted disease and is engaging in specified conduct, as determined by the board by rule based upon generally accepted standards of medical and public health science, that endangers the public health, he or she shall conduct an investigation in accordance with procedures prescribed by the board to evaluate the specific facts alleged. If any, and the reliability and credibility of the person or persons providing such information and, if satisfied that the allegations are true, he or she may issue an order according to the following priority to:

(a) Order a person to submit to a medical examination or testing, seek counseling, or obtain medical treatment for curable diseases, or any combination of these, within a period of time determined by the public health officer, not to exceed fourteen days.

(b) Order a person to immediately cease and desist from specified conduct which endangers the health of others by imposing such restrictions upon the person as are necessary to prevent the specified conduct that endangers the health of others only if the public health officer has determined that clear and convincing evidence exists to believe that such person has been ordered to report for counseling as provided in (a) of this subsection and continues to demonstrate behavior which endangers the health of others. Any restriction shall be in writing, setting forth the name of the person to be restricted and the initial period of time, not to exceed three months, during which the order shall remain effective, the terms of the restrictions, and such other conditions as may be necessary to protect the public health. Restrictions shall be imposed in the least-restrictive manner necessary to protect the public health.

(4) (a) Upon the issuance of any order by the state or local public health officer or an authorized representative pursuant to subsection (3) of this section or section 703(4) of this act, such public health officer shall give written notice promptly, personally, and confidentially to the person who is the subject of the order stating the grounds and provisions of the order, including the factual bases therefor, the evidence relied upon for proof of infection and dangerous behavior, and the likelihood of repetition of such behaviors in the absence of such an order, and notifying the person who is the subject of the order that, if he or she contests the order, he or she may appear at a judicial hearing on the enforceability of the order, to be held in superior court. He or she may have an attorney appear on his or her behalf in the hearing at public expense, if necessary. The hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of receipt of the notice, unless the person subject to the order agrees to comply. If the person contests the order, no invasive medical procedures shall be carried out prior to a hearing being held pursuant to this subsection. If the person does not contest the order within seventy-two hours of receiving it, and the person does not comply with the order within the time period specified for compliance with the order, the state or local public health officer may request a warrant be issued by the superior court to insure appearance at the hearing. The hearing shall be within seventy-two hours of the expiration date of the time specified for compliance with the original order. The burden of proof shall be on the public health officer to show by clear and convincing evidence that the specified grounds exist for the issuance of the order and for the need for compliance and that the terms and conditions imposed therein are no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the court shall issue appropriate orders affirming, modifying, or dismissing the order.

(b) If the superior court dismisses the order of the public health officer, the fact that the order was issued shall be expunged from the records of the department or local department of health.

(5) Any hearing conducted pursuant to this section shall be closed and confidential unless a public hearing is requested by the person who is the subject of the order, in which case the hearing will be conducted in open court. Unless in open hearing, any transcripts or records relating thereto shall also be confidential and may be sealed by the order of the court.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 910. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) When the procedures of section 909 of this act have been exhausted and the state or local public health officer, within his or her respective jurisdiction, knows or has reason to believe, because of medical information, that a person has a sexually transmitted disease and that the person continues to engage in behaviors that present an imminent danger to the public health as defined by the board by rule based upon generally accepted standards of medical and public health science, the public health officer may bring an action in superior court to detain the person in a facility designated by the board for a period of time necessary to accomplish a program of counseling and education, excluding any coercive techniques or procedures, designed to get the person to adopt nondangerous behavior. In no case may the period exceed ninety days under each order. The board shall establish, by rule, standards for counseling and education under this subsection. The public health officer shall request the prosecuting attorney to file such action in superior court. During that period, reasonable efforts will be made in a noncoercive manner to get the person to adopt nondangerous behavior.

(2) If an action is filed as outlined in subsection (1) of this section, the superior court, upon the petition of the prosecuting attorney, shall issue other appropriate court orders including, but not limited to, an order to take the person into custody immediately, for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours, and place him or her in a facility designated or approved by the board. The person who is the subject of the order shall be given written notice of the order promptly, personally, and confidentially, stating the grounds and provisions of the order, including the factual bases therefor, the evidence relied upon for proof of infection and dangerous behavior, and the likelihood of repetition of such behaviors in the absence of such an order, and notifying the person that if he or she refuses to comply with the order he or she may appear at a hearing to review the order and that he or she may have an attorney appear on his or her behalf in the hearing at public expense, if necessary. If the person contests testing or treatment, no invasive medical procedures shall be carried out prior to a hearing being held pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The hearing shall be conducted no later than forty-eight hours after the receipt of the order. The person who is subject to the order has a right to be present at the hearing and may have an attorney appear on his or her behalf in the hearing, at public expense if necessary. If the order being contested includes detention for a period of fourteen days or longer, the person shall also have the right to a trial by jury upon request. Upon conclusion of the hearing or trial by jury, the court shall issue appropriate orders.

The court may continue the hearing upon the request of the person who is subject to the order for good cause shown for no more than five additional judicial days. If a trial by jury is requested, the court, upon motion, may continue the hearing for no more than ten additional judicial days. During the pendency of the continuance, the court may order that the person contesting the order remain in detention or may place terms and conditions upon the person which the court deems appropriate to protect public health.

(4) The burden of proof shall be on the state or local public health officer to show by clear and convincing evidence that grounds exist for the issuance of any court order pursuant to subsection (2) or (3) of this section. If the superior court dismisses the order, the fact that the order was issued shall be expunged from the records of the state or local department of health.

(5) Any hearing conducted by the superior court pursuant to subsection (2) or (3) of this section shall be closed and confidential unless a public hearing is requested by the person who is the subject of the order, in which case the hearing will be conducted in open court. Unless in open hearing, any transcripts or records relating thereto shall also be confidential and may be sealed by order of the court.

(6) Any order entered by the superior court pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall impose terms and conditions no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health.

Sec. 911. Section 5, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ((act)) chapter or any lawful rule ((or regulation made)) adopted by the ((state)) board ((of health)) pursuant to the authority herein granted, or who shall fail or refuse to obey any lawful order issued by any state, county or municipal public health officer, pursuant to the authority granted in this ((act)) chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a gross misdemeanor punishable as provided under RCW 9A.20.021.

Sec. 912. Section 1, chapter 164, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.24.110 are each amended to read as follows:

A minor fourteen years of age or older who may have come in contact with any ((venereal)) sexually transmitted disease or suspected ((venereal)) sexually transmitted disease may give consent to the furnishing of hospital, medical and surgical care related to the diagnosis or treatment of such disease. Such consent shall not be subject to disaffirmance because of minority. The consent of the parent, parents, or legal guardian of such minor shall not be necessary to authorize hospital, medical and surgical care related to such disease and such parent, parents, or legal guardian shall not be liable for payment for any care rendered pursuant to this section.

Sec. 913. Section 1, chapter 59, Laws of 1977 and RCW 70.24.120 are each amended to read as follows:

((Venereal)) Sexually transmitted disease case investigators, upon specific authorization from a ((doctor)) physician, are hereby authorized to perform venipuncture or skin puncture on a person for the sole purpose of withdrawing blood for use in ((venereal)) sexually transmitted disease tests.

The term "((venereal)) sexually transmitted disease case investigator" shall mean only those persons who:

- (1) Are employed by public health authorities; and
- (2) Have been trained by a ((doctor)) physician in proper procedures to be employed when withdrawing blood in accordance with training requirements established by the department of social and health services; and
- (3) Possess a statement signed by the instructing ((doctor)) physician that the training required by subsection (2) of this section has been successfully completed.

The term "((doctor)) physician" means any person licensed under the provisions of chapters 18.57 or 18.71 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 914. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by a violation of this chapter shall have a right of action in superior court and may recover for each violation:

- (a) Against any person who negligently violates a provision of this chapter, one thousand dollars, or actual damages, whichever is greater, for each violation.
- (b) Against any person who intentionally or recklessly violates a provision of this chapter, two thousand dollars, or actual damages, whichever is greater, for each violation.
- (c) Reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.
- (d) Such other relief, including an injunction, as the court may deem appropriate.

(2) Any action under this chapter is barred unless the action is commenced within three years after the cause of action accrues.

(3) Nothing in this chapter limits the rights of the subject of a test for a sexually transmitted disease to recover damages or other relief under any other applicable law.

(4) Nothing in this chapter may be construed to impose civil liability or criminal sanction for disclosure of a test result for a sexually transmitted disease in accordance with any reporting requirement for a diagnosed case of sexually transmitted disease by the department or the centers for disease control of the United States public health service.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 915. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

The board shall adopt such rules as are necessary to implement and enforce this chapter. Rules may also be adopted by the department of social and health services or the department of licensing for the purposes of this chapter. The rules may include procedures for taking appropriate action, in addition to any other penalty under this chapter, with regard to health care facilities or health care providers which violate this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter. The rules shall prescribe stringent safeguards to protect the confidentiality of the persons and records subject to this chapter. The procedures set forth in chapter 34.04 RCW apply to the administration of this chapter, except that in case of conflict between chapter 34.04 RCW and this chapter, the provisions of this chapter shall control.

Sec. 916. Section 5, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 as amended by section 2, chapter 324, Laws of 1987 and RCW 9A.36.021 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of assault in the second degree if he or she, under circumstances not amounting to assault in the first degree:

- (a) Intentionally assaults another and thereby inflicts substantial bodily harm; or
- (b) Intentionally and unlawfully causes substantial bodily harm to an unborn quick child by intentionally and unlawfully inflicting any injury upon the mother of such child; or
- (c) Assaults another with a deadly weapon; or

(d) With intent to inflict bodily harm, administers to or causes to be taken by another, poison, the human immunodeficiency virus as defined in chapter 70.24 RCW, or any other destructive or noxious substance; or

(e) With intent to inflict bodily harm, exposes or transmits human immunodeficiency virus as defined in chapter 70.24 RCW; or

(1) With intent to commit a felony, assaults another.

(2) Assault in the second degree is a class B felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 917. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person who has a sexually transmitted disease, except HIV infection, when such person knows he or she is infected with such a disease and when such person has been informed that he or she may communicate the disease to another person through sexual intercourse, to have sexual intercourse with any other person, unless such other person has been informed of the presence of the sexually transmitted disease.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 918. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

Members of the state board of health and local boards of health, public health officers, and employees of the department of social and health services and local health departments are immune from civil action for damages arising out of the good faith performance of their duties as prescribed by this chapter, unless such performance constitutes gross negligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 919. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter may be construed to require additional local funding of programs to treat communicable disease established as of the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 920. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter is intended to create a state-mandated liberty interest of any nature for offenders or inmates confined in department of corrections facilities or subject to the jurisdiction of the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 921. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.010;

(2) Section 2, chapter 114, Laws of 1919, section 93, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.24.020;

(3) Section 3, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.030;

(4) Section 4, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.040; and

(5) Section 7, chapter 114, Laws of 1919, section 94, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.24.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 922. Sections 916 and 917 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1988.

PART X

MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1001. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1002. Except as otherwise specifically provided, this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Deccio, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 2046 and the pending motion by Senator Newhouse to advance the bill to third reading, deferred on second reading earlier today.

MOTION

Senator Halsan moved that the following amendment be adopted:
On page 2, line 4, after "are" strike "not"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Halsan, I agree with your amendment. I think your analysis is exactly right, but I wanted to ask you, further on in that same section it seems to be restated another way, and I just wondered if you needed to remove two 'nots,' where it says, 'rates negotiated or established are not subject to any review or approval by the commission under this chapter?'"

Senator Halsan: "Senator Lee, I don't believe that we need to remove that second 'not,' because the two things that are required--the amendment provides that, in fact, the rates established subsequent to negotiations must not relate to a cost shift. The language on page 1 says that, in fact, that they should not result in any shifting of costs to other payers or purchasers in the current or any subsequent year. Now we're allowing negotiations and contrary to what Senator McDonald said, this bill, as my amendment is hung on it, will allow negotiated rates. It just will not allow cost shifting. I don't think it's necessary, if we have that prohibition in there to require that the Hospital Commission can be subject to review or otherwise on that. I think it's just fine. This amendment in this bill, will allow negotiations, but just prohibit the shifting of costs to private pay people."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kreidler, as I understand the amendment as offered by Senator Halsan that removes the 'not' and says they are subject to A and B, does this have the effect of breaking small hospitals? I've heard that we're not doing very much for the people if we break all the small hospitals in the state. Is that true?"

Senator Kreidler: "Small hospitals are not going to make or break on the Medicaid contract, on whether they have a Medicaid contract or not. Small hospitals are usually also located in areas where they're in a non-competitive situation with other hospitals. As a consequence, the state has no other choice except to contract with them. It's the larger hospitals where you have more than one, two or more hospitals in a particular defined geographic area, that are going to be in a position where they might decide on their own whether they want to bid for a Medicaid contract with the state."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Halsan demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senator Halsan to Engrossed House Bill No. 2046.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Senator Halsan to Engrossed House Bill No. 2046 and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 20; nays, 29.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Halsan, Lee, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Rasmussen, Stratton, Talmadge, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams - 20.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Deccio, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Vognild, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 29.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 2046 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 2046.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 2046 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 22.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Gaspard, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Madsen, McDonald, McMullen, Nelson, Niemi, Owen, Pullen, Rinehart, Smith, Smitherman, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 27.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bender, Cantu, Craswell, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Halsan, Hansen, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Stratton, Talmadge, Warnke, West, Williams - 22.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 2046, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

The Speaker ruled the Senate amendment beyond the scope and object of SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1752; the House refuses to concur in the Senate amendment and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1752 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved that the following amendment by Senators Smith and McMullen be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1987 and RCW 75.25.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An annual personal use license is required for a person sixteen years of age or older to fish for, take, or possess food fish for personal use from state waters or offshore waters, other than carp and sturgeon in the Columbia river above Chief Joseph Dam. An annual personal use license is valid for the calendar year in which it is issued. The fees for an annual personal use license are three dollars for residents and nine dollars for nonresidents.

(2) A two-consecutive-day combined personal use license and punchcard shall be issued. The fee for the license and punchcard is three dollars for residents and nonresidents.

(3) Except as provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section, it is unlawful to fish for or possess food fish without the licenses, punchcards, and stamps required by this chapter.

(4) Upon written application, the director may permit the taking of smelt without a personal use license by participants in a one-day fishing derby sponsored by a not-for-profit community organization. The department shall require payment of an application fee of twenty-five dollars for each smelt fishing derby.

(5) The taking of smelt in fresh water areas of the state of Washington shall not be covered by the requirements of RCW 75.25.090."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Metcalf, is the Smelt run over for this session?"

Senator Metcalf: "Yes."

Senator McCaslin: "Thank God."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Smith and McMullen to Substitute House Bill No. 1752.

The motion by Senator Metcalf carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1752, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1752, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1752, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Taimadge, Vogmlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 49.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1752, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

The House receded from its amendment to page 3, after line 36 of SENATE BILL NO. 6668, and has passed the bill without said amendment, and the bill is herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hansen: "Senator Patterson, on Senate Bill No. 6668, can you explain to me how this measure will affect the special fuel users in the farming industry?"

Senator Patterson: "Senator Hansen, the Department of Licensing wants to be sure that there is no misunderstanding of the intent of this legislation. Both the House and the Senate Transportation Committees have been given a Letter of Intent by the department confirming that the purpose of Senate Bill No. 6668 is twofold: (1) To bring Washington into compliance with the National Governors Association consensus agenda for states and; (2) To eliminate mandatory bonding for special fuel users both within the state and for the interstate carriers.

"Special fuel users will no longer be required to obtain a costly surety bond from a bonding company, but if a fuel user fails to file the reports and pay the special fuel taxes that are due to the state, the department may require that particular fuel user to file a bond for a period of time."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SSB 6439

Studying the consolidation of district and municipal courts.

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Adopt the House Judiciary Committee amendment with the following changes:

On page 2, line 21 of the House amendment, after "consist of" insert "at least"

On page 2, line 23 of the House amendment, strike "of" and insert "appointed by"

On page 2, after line 27 of the House amendment insert "(b) One superior court judge appointed by the Washington superior court judges association;"

Reletter the remaining paragraphs consecutively.

On page 3, line 13 of the House amendment, strike "September 30" and insert "January 10"

Signed by Senators Pullen, Talmadge; Representatives Armstrong, Appelwick.

Vice President Pro Tempore Craswell assumed the Chair.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6439 be adopted and the committee be granted the powers of Free Conference.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "A parliamentary inquiry, does the rule that requires twenty-four hours run from the time that we grant the powers of Free Conference? Senator Nelson has just made a motion granting the powers of Free Conference. According to our rules, it should be laid on our desks with a twenty-four hour period from the time we grant the powers of Free Conference. How would the President rule on that?"

REPLY BY THE VICE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Vice President Pro Tempore Craswell: "Would Senator Rasmussen point out what rule he's referring to?"

Senator Rasmussen: "The rule on Free Conference Reports. Senator Snyder has the number right in his head. If you want me to look it up--I'll look it up. Senator Nelson has the rule in his head, also. And while I'm on my feet in parliamentary inquiry, we have another rule sponsored by Senator Vognild, that said we will adjourn at ten o'clock. I might assure you, I'm getting ready to invoke that rule very shortly. I understand that Senator Newhouse is thinking of the same rule."

RULING BY THE VICE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Vice President Pro Tempore Craswell: "Senator Rasmussen, we can grant the powers of Free Conference prior to the twenty-four hours. We can't take the vote on the Free Conference Report until the twenty-four hours."

Further debate ensued.

The Vice President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Nelson to adopt the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6439 and to grant the powers of Free Conference.

The motion by Senator Nelson carried and the Senate adopted the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6439 and granted the powers of Free Conference.

DISPENSE WITH CALL OF THE SENATE

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

MOTION

At 10:56 p.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Thursday, March 10, 1988.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

GORDON A. GOLOB, Secretary of the Senate.

SIXTIETH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Thursday, March 10, 1988

The Senate was called to order at 9:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Anderson and Moore. On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Anderson was excused.

The Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, consisting of Pages Jennifer Pickett and Charles Sandoval, presented the Colors. Reverend Michael J. Ryan, pastor of St. Michael's Catholic Church of Olympia, offered the prayer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: E2SSB 6235

Creating the water pollution control account and authorizing financial assistance from it.

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Adopt the House Ways and Means Committee amendment with the following changes:

On page 9, after line 30 of the Ways and Means committee striking amendment, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) There is created the water pollution control loan review committee. The Committee shall convene as often as is necessary to review and approve all loans made from the water pollution control revolving fund prior to issuing any loan.

(2) The committee shall consist of the two members of each caucus of the House of Representatives and the Senate. The chair and vice-chair of the committee shall be selected by the majority vote of the committee members.

(3) Staff support shall be provided by the department of ecology to assist the committee in reviewing and approving any loan made from the water pollution control revolving fund.

(4) The committee shall take action within sixty days after receiving the proposed project list from the department of ecology. Failure to take action within such time shall be deemed as approval.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. In administering the fund, the department shall comply with the distribution schedule specified in RCW 70.146.060, except where compliance with such schedule may result in an inability to receive or fully expend all federal funds to which the state is otherwise entitled. In such event the department shall notify the committee of such departure from the distribution schedule."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 9, line 32 of the amendment, after "through" strike "8" and insert "10"

Signed by Senators Barr, Lee, Kreidler: Representatives Rust, Hine, Schoon.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6235 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

Total Appropriation	$	((40,566,000)) 45,035,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $4,162,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the continuation of the treatment alternatives to street crime programs in Pierce, Snohomish, Clark, King, Spokane, and Yakima counties.

(2) $296,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for allocation to the superior court of Thurston county to relieve the impact of litigation involving the state of Washington.

(3) ~~$((50,000))~~ 130,000 of the public safety and education account appropriation is provided solely for the administrator for the courts to initiate measures to prevent gender and minority bias in the courts. Such measures shall include but not be limited to:

(a) A study of the status of women and minorities as litigants, attorneys, judges, and court employees;

(b) Recommendations for implementing reform; and

(c) Providing attitude awareness training for judges and legal professionals.

(4) $260,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the Snohomish County preprosecution diversion program.

(5) $150,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the administrator for the courts to contract for the performance of a two-year demonstration project to determine the effectiveness of alternative dispute resolution using the model center approach adopted by the legislature in chapter 7.75 RCW. The project shall be conducted in King and Snohomish counties by centers established under chapter 7.75 RCW as nonprofit corporations having broadly representative boards of directors and which are organized exclusively, as set forth in their articles of incorporation and bylaws, for the resolution of disputes and whose plans of operation have been approved pursuant to RCW 7.75.020 before the effective date of this section. The project shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 7.75 RCW. The focus of the project shall be to provide an alternative forum for the resolution of disputes for the purposes of reducing social tensions which lead to crime, promoting lasting settlements in which all parties to a dispute can be winners, settling disputes more quickly and less expensively than through the judicial process, and helping to reduce congestion in the court systems as contemplated in the court improvement act of 1984. Seventy-five thousand dollars of the appropriation shall be made available for a project in Snohomish county subject to commitments from Snohomish county and the city of Everett to each match the state appropriation. Seventy-five thousand dollars of the appropriation shall be made available for a project in King county subject to commitments from King county and the city of Seattle to each match the state appropriation. The state administrator for the courts shall submit a report to the judiciary committees of the senate and the house of representatives on the results of the project by December 1, 1989.

(6) $14,134,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the superior court judges program.

(7) $70,000 of the public safety and education account appropriation is provided solely to implement the provisions of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6498. If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1988, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

(8) A maximum of $2,200,000 of the public safety and education account may be spent on enhancements to the judicial information system including: (a) Development of an information center; (b) implementation of a data administration model; (c) provision of personal computer installations and support services in courts not served by the mainframe system; and (d) planning activities associated with the feasibility of the enhancements listed under (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection as well as planning activities to evaluate the use of local area networks. The funding provided in this subsection is contingent on the administrator for the courts completing by July 1, 1988, a feasibility study in accordance with department of information services procedures and guidelines. It is the intent of the legislature that upon completion of the feasibility study the office of the administrator for the courts will present the study for review by and consultation with the department of information services, the office of financial management, and the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee prior to implementation.

Sec. 105. Section 114, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 202. Section 202, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES

(1) Appropriations made in this act to the department of social and health services shall be initially allotted as required by this act. Subsequent allotment modifications shall not include transfers of moneys between sections of this act, nor shall allotment modifications permit moneys which are provided solely for a specified purpose to be used for other than that purpose.

(2) The department of social and health services shall not initiate any services that will require expenditure of state general fund moneys except as expressly authorized in this act, unless the services were provided on March 1, 1987. The department may seek, receive, and spend, under RCW 43.79.260 through 43.79.282, federal moneys not anticipated in this act as long as the federal funding does not require expenditure of state moneys for the program in excess of amounts anticipated in this act. If the department receives unanticipated unrestricted federal moneys, those moneys shall be spent for services authorized in this act, and an equal amount of appropriated state general fund moneys shall lapse. As used in this subsection, "unrestricted federal moneys" includes block grants and other funds that federal law does not require to be spent on explicitly defined projects or matched on a formula basis by state funds.

(3) The department of social and health services is authorized to expend federal funds made available by the federal immigration reform and control act, P.L. 99-603, for the purposes contained in that act.

((5)) (4) If Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5097 is enacted by June 30, 1987, the department shall administer the lifeline fund established under the bill and shall recover its administrative costs from the fund. Payments to local exchange companies shall not exceed amounts available in the lifeline fund.

((6)) (5) The department shall implement the plan for performance-based contracts developed under sections 203(6) and 204(1)(c), chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess., whereby a portion of vendor payments for private group care and other community residential placements shall reflect achievement of client outcome standards. The department shall report on implementation of the plan to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives by December 15, 1987, and December 15, 1988.

((7)) (6) The appropriations in sections 203, 208, 210, 213, 214, and 215 of this act shall be expended as provided in each section, except that the department may expend money, appropriated for other purposes, for the family independence program only after approval by the director of financial management. The director of financial management shall notify the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives regarding deviation from the legislative program appropriation levels.

(7) The department of social and health services shall study the cost effectiveness of adopting a hospice benefit for Title XIX recipients. The department shall report by November 1, 1988, to the health care and ways and means committees of both houses of the legislature on the results of the study.

Sec. 203. Section 203, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES—CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES PROGRAM

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	((165,000,000))
		180,288,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	((58,552,000))
		59,847,000
Public Safety and Education Account Appropriation	$	400,000
Total Appropriation	$	((223,552,000))
		240,535,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Vendor rate increases shall average 2.0 percent on September 1, 1987, and 4.0 percent on September 1, 1988. Department contracts for group home services, therapeutic day care, seasonal day care, and domestic violence shelters shall provide for and assure payment of compensation for staff of no less than $4.76 per hour beginning September 1, 1987, and $5.15 per hour beginning September 1, 1988.

(2) $7,500,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the improvement of services to protect children. $5,035,000 of the amount provided in this subsection is provided solely for increased child protective services and child welfare casework staff, necessary support and supervisory staff, and assistant attorneys general to provide legal services for child protective services cases. The department shall conduct intensive recruitment and priority hiring of qualified multi-ethnic casework staff. $40,000 of the amount provided in this subsection is provided solely for training for child protective services and child welfare staff who investigate and serve child abuse and neglect cases. $2,425,000 of the amount provided in this subsection is provided solely to implement the provisions of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 586 which establish a pilot project in order to guide the state in developing a comprehensive system of children and family services. If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1987, this amount shall lapse. The department shall report to the ways and means and human services committees of the senate and house of representatives on implementation of this section by January 15, 1988. The report shall include the following information:

(a) The effectiveness of providing additional casework, support staff, and other services provided in this section in reducing and refocusing the workload of child protective services caseworkers;

(b) The impact on caseloads of hiring child protective services support staff, including clerical support, assistant attorneys general, eligibility determination specialists, and public health nurses; and

(c) The number and classifications of staff and the level and types of additional services for which the moneys in this section are used.

(3) $1,000,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the expansion of therapeutic day care.

(4) $2,160,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for public health nurses to provide prevention and early intervention services for the protection of children, and to assist in the investigation of low-risk child abuse and neglect referrals.

(5) $600,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely to increase private agency fees in connection with foster care placements, effective July 1, 1987.

(6) $400,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for expansion of current contracted community services to prevent the occurrence or recurrence of family conflict, abuse, or out-of-home placements.

(7) $1,000,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for training and support for families providing foster care services.

(8) ~~$(300,000)~~ $10,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely to fund counseling, education, and support for victims of sexual abuse. A maximum of $10,000 of the amount provided in this subsection may be spent for counseling for teenaged parents who are victims of sexual and physical abuse. The department shall contract for the counseling to be provided to participants in school-sponsored teen parent programs.

(9) $500,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely to increase contracted Indian child welfare services.

(10) $1,298,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for financial eligibility workers to ensure that every child in foster care who is eligible for federal financial participation under Title IV, Part B, or Title IV, Part E of the federal social security act is identified. Any federal moneys generated by this activity in excess of the amount appropriated in this section shall be expended for foster care services and a like amount of state moneys shall lapse.

(11) $93,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for implementation of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6013. If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1987, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

(12) A maximum of $332,000, of which $275,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, and 7.8 full time equivalent staff may be transferred from the division of children and family services to the administration and supporting services program to consolidate the social service payment system. If this transfer affects the comparability of historical expenditure information at the program, category, or budget-unit level, the department shall reconstruct historical data for the preceding six years.

(13) $125,000 is provided solely for the purpose of implementing Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5252. If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1987, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

(14) The department shall maintain the current level of support for the dropout prevention project in the Seattle school district.

(15) $9,000,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for foster care services and services designed to reduce the number of children requiring family or group foster care, and to expedite the process of returning children home from placement. Not more than $2,450,000 of the amount provided in this subsection may be spent for increased recruitment efforts and services to family foster care providers; additional child welfare caseworkers and support staff to provide intensive case services designed to reunify families and prevent out-of-home placement; managed health care services for children in foster care; and other services meeting the goals of this subsection. Of the amount provided in this subsection, $550,000 is provided solely to expand the homebuilders program to provide assistance to families. The department shall submit a progress report to the appropriate committees of the legislature by January 1, 1989, describing the efforts taken to implement projects to reduce the number of children requiring foster care and to expedite the return to home process. The report shall include a description of the projects initiated, the cost of each project, and a preliminary assessment of their effectiveness. The department shall also prepare a report which examines the entire foster care rate structure, including provisions for respite or day care services, costs of private agency management of children in care, and the criteria for special and exceptional rates. The department shall coordinate with appropriate legislative fiscal and policy staff in preparing the report and shall submit its findings and recommendations to the legislature by December 1, 1988.

(16) $2,600,000 from the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely to increase the level of funding for day care services. $110,000 of the amount provided in this subsection is for the seasonal day care program to serve an additional 50 children. The department is authorized to implement regulations for the employment day care program requiring that waiting lists be established if necessary to ensure that employment day care services are provided within allotted funds. The department is further authorized to implement day care reimbursement rates which vary by area of the state. $100,000 of the amount provided in this subsection may be spent for pilot day care subsidy programs in one or more areas of the state. The department may provide a monthly subsidy no greater than $50.00 per child to licensed day care providers caring for children of recipients of aid to families with dependent children—regular. Subsidies shall not be provided for children whose parents are employed less than full time.

(17) $1,064,000, of which $200,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, is provided solely to increase services in the women, infants, and children program.

(18) $100,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the department to develop and provide day care providers and foster parents with an educational program on positive discipline, and training in recognizing and reporting child abuse. Implementation of the program shall begin on July 1, 1988.

(19) $400,000 of the public safety and education account appropriation is provided solely for training programs under chapter 70.125 RCW for criminal justice, medical, and child protective services personnel regarding victims of sexual abuse. Training programs under this subsection shall focus on the following:

(a) Training child protective service workers on recognition of signs of potential sexual abuse and on medical techniques available to confirm abuse or establish legal evidence, and developing policies and procedures for use by such workers in responding to claims or reports of sexual abuse;

(b) Developing regional medical expertise on identification, verification and retention of evidence in cases of child sexual abuse; and

(c) Providing prosecutors, public defenders, judges, and other criminal justice personnel with information on available medical techniques for confirming abuse or establishing legal evidence.

Sec. 204. Section 204, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES—JUVENILE REHABILITATION PROGRAM

(1) COMMUNITY SERVICES

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	((27,988,000))
		26,847,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	78,000
Total Appropriation	$	((28,066,000))
		26,925,000

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) Vendor rate increases shall average 2.0 percent on September 1, 1987, and 4.0 percent on September 1, 1988. Privately contracted group home providers shall provide for and assure payment of compensation for staff of no less than $4.76 per hour beginning September 1, 1987, and $5.15 per hour beginning September 1, 1988.

(b) The seven state-operated group homes shall collectively average 100 youths in residential status per month. Residential status includes youths in actual residence, those on leave up to 14 days, and those in the process of being transferred or paroled. If the average number of youths in residential status falls below 100 per month, the general fund—state support shall be reduced by an average monthly amount per resident as determined by the office of financial management.

(c) In fiscal year 1989, the department shall not reduce support levels for consolidated juvenile services programs below fiscal year 1988 levels.

(2) INSTITUTIONAL SERVICES

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	((44,385,000))
		44,285,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	890,000
Total Appropriation	$	((45,275,000))
		45,175,000

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) $536,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the implementation of a mentally ill offender unit at Echo Glen children's center.

(b) The department shall develop a ten-year plan to include operating and capital costs of using Green Hill school to house level I and the more serious level II offenders. The plan may include other viable options to handle the increasing numbers of violent offenders entering the juvenile rehabilitation institutions. The plan shall be presented to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives by January 15, 1988.

(3) PROGRAM SUPPORT

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	2,788,000
--	----	-----------

Sec. 205. Section 205, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES—MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAM

(1) COMMUNITY SERVICES

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	((118,388,888))
		113,421,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	((46,738,888))
		41,442,000
General Fund Appropriation—Local	$	1,580,000
Total Appropriation	$	((166,766,888))
		156,443,000

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) Vendor rate increases shall average 2.0 percent on September 1, 1987, and 4.0 percent on September 1, 1988. Community mental health centers and residential services providers shall provide for and assure payment of compensation for staff of no less than $4.76 per hour beginning September 1, 1987, and $5.15 per hour beginning September 1, 1988.

(b) $2,690,000, of which $2,383,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the Kitsap mental health services residential treatment alternative project. The state reimbursement rate shall not exceed $200 per client day and treatment for individual clients shall not exceed 180 days. All eligible involuntary treatment referrals shall be made to the project. No involuntary treatment referrals to Kitsap county residents may be made to Western state hospital, with the exception of persons who meet all the following criteria, as established by a licensed psychiatrist and involving consultation with a state certificated geriatric mental health specialist: (i) Diagnosis of organic mental disorder (nontransient); (ii) established behavior abnormalities directly associated with the organic disorder; (iii) admittance to the residential treatment center at least twice during the prior six-month period; (iv) expulsion from two or more residential placements during the prior six-month period resulting from behaviors directly associated with the presence of the established organic mental disorder; and (v) denial of admission by all appropriate residential settings in the Puget Sound area. The maximum reimbursement rate to Kitsap county hospitals shall be $250 per day per patient. Within the amount provided in this subsection, in an effort to reduce commitments to psychiatric hospitals and evaluation and treatment facilities, $500,000, of which $443,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, is provided solely for a Kitsap mental health services outreach case management team. The services provided shall include participation with the court in formulation of conditions of conditional release and less restrictive alternative placement, participation in development of an individualized treatment plan with the treatment team, assistance with housing, financial management, medication management, nutrition, system advocacy, mental health services and monitoring the person receiving treatment to ensure that the person abides by the requirements of the person's individualized treatment plan. The case managers shall be mental health professionals, or shall be supervised by mental health professionals as defined in RCW 71.05.020(11). Kitsap mental health services shall participate in the state and county client tracking system required by RCW 71.24.035(4)(h) and 71.24.045(6). Kitsap mental health services shall provide quarterly reports to the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives describing the numbers and characteristics of clients served and the resulting diversions from psychiatric hospitals and evaluation and treatment facilities. In addition, the department shall present an annual report to the same legislative committees by January 1, 1988, and January 1, 1989, indicating progress made toward meeting the long-term residential bed needs of Kitsap county.

(c) $4,375,000, of which $3,500,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, is provided solely for a state-wide pilot demonstration project as provided for in Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5074. These funds include 2 percent for costs of administration for participating counties. The plan for the pilot project shall be developed by the department in cooperation with interested counties, mental health providers, other interested members of the community, and legislative staff and shall be submitted to the legislature by September 1, 1987. The plan shall include specific criteria for inclusion in the project for counties choosing to participate and shall meet the conditions set forth in Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5074. The plan shall provide for evaluation of the effects of case management on the treatment of involuntarily committed persons. The evaluation shall incorporate an experimental design. Evaluation support of no more than $125,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is from the emergency and technical assistance funds provided for in RCW 71.24.155. The plan shall assure that case management services are administered in a manner which recognizes client needs within the availability of funds provided in this subsection (c). If Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5074 is not enacted by June 30, 1987, the amount provided in this subsection shall be provided solely for case management services for persons ordered to a fourteen-day less restrictive treatment setting as provided for in RCW 71.05.240.

(d) $1,000,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the support of involuntary treatment act administration.

(e) The mental health division, in conjunction with county officials and other affected parties, shall develop a fair and equitable formula for distributing involuntary treatment act administration funding to counties. The formula shall incorporate workload estimates and any other relevant factors required to reflect actual county administration costs. The mental health division shall present the proposed formula to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives by November 15, 1987. Implementation of the formula may take effect immediately after legislative review but no later than January 1, 1988. Of the funding provided in this section for involuntary treatment act administration, $3,400,000 is placed in reserve status pending legislative review of the new formula. No county allocation of funds for fiscal year 1988 may be less than its fiscal year 1987 allocation. Counties shall continue to fund current maintenance of effort funding levels during the ensuing biennium.

(f) Grants to counties for community mental health programs shall total not less than $55,957,000 of the general fund—state appropriation under RCW 71.24.155. Of this amount, $2,000,000 is provided solely for expanded services to children.

(g) $480,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for continuation of the community psychiatric training program at the University of Washington.

(h) The department shall maintain the current level of support for the dropout prevention project in the Seattle school district.

(2) INSTITUTIONAL SERVICES

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	((150,711,000))
		150,808,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	((7,948,000))

Total Appropriation	$	158,659,000

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations:
 ((f)) (a) $300,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for equipment and operating costs related to two additional PORTAL cottages on the Northern state hospital campus. Of this amount, a maximum of $44,000 may be used to contract with local community mental health centers to provide services to clients who have exited the PORTAL program and reside locally in the community.

((c)) (b) The legislative budget committee shall evaluate the PORTAL program as to its treatment outcomes and general effectiveness. The legislative budget committee shall report its findings to the senate and house of representatives ways and means committees by December 1, 1987.

(3) PROGRAM SUPPORT

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	3,477,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	1,341,000
Total Appropriation	$	4,818,000

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations: $78,600 from the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for allocations to non-profit agencies advocating for the mentally ill. Such funds are for providing technical assistance to state agencies, mental health education programs, outreach and family support, and self-help support groups.

(4) SPECIAL PROJECTS

General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	1,059,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The department shall study the feasibility of establishing an independent (~~ombuds~~) ombudsman office to aid employers and employees, including self-insured employees, in dealing with the workers' compensation system. The study shall include an evaluation of the need for the office, the recommended functions of the office, and the mechanisms for oversight and funding. The department shall submit its findings and recommendations to the commerce and labor committees of the senate and house of representatives by January 11, 1988.

(2) The department shall evaluate the effectiveness of the workers' compensation vocational rehabilitation program, including the effectiveness of a worker resource center to provide injured worker adjustment services. The study shall be conducted in consultation with the workers' compensation advisory committee and interested groups representing injured workers, labor, and employers. The department shall submit its findings and recommendations to the commerce and labor committees of the senate and house of representatives by January 11, 1988.

(3) The department shall study, in cooperation with the employment security department and the department of social and health services, the potential impact in the state of a state minimum wage based on ninety percent of the federal poverty level. The results of the study shall be submitted to the commerce and labor committees of the senate and house of representatives by January 11, 1988.

(4) The department shall prepare a report on workers' compensation caseload information including, but not limited to, the average number of claims by type by adjudicator compared to optimal caseloads used in the private sector and any recommendations concerning improvement of caseloads. The report shall be submitted to the commerce and labor committees of the senate and house of representatives by January 11, 1988.

(5) All funds appropriated under this section for lease or lease development office space may be used to lease new office space only if the lease is for a period not exceeding three years and does not extend beyond June 30, 1991.

(6) The department shall establish an office of information and assistance to aid workers, employers, health care providers, and other department clients. The department shall report on the activities of the office to the appropriate committees of the legislature by January 1, 1989.

Sec. 219, Section 224, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE INDETERMINATE SENTENCE REVIEW BOARD

General Fund Appropriation	$	(4,042,000)
		3,804,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $166,000 is provided solely for payments to private attorneys representing indigent parolees.

(2) $727,000 is provided solely for addressing inmate litigation resulting from the transition from the indeterminate sentencing laws to the determinate sentencing laws and to enable the board to review all remaining cases falling under the indeterminate sentencing laws.

~~(3) ((Of the amount provided in subsection (2) of this section, $363,500 shall be placed in reserve status until the legislature authorizes its release.))~~ The board shall report to the legislature on January 1, 1988, regarding its progress toward completing at least one-half of the workload outlined in subsection (2) of this section. It is the intent of the legislature that the indeterminate sentencing review board terminate on June 30, 1989, and any remaining functions transfer to the department of corrections and the judiciary.

Sec. 220, Section 226, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE EMPLOYMENT SECURITY DEPARTMENT

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	5,700,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	146,257,000
General Fund Appropriation—Local	$	18,373,000
Administrative Contingency Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	((6,918,000))
		8,353,000
Unemployment Compensation Administration Fund Appropria- tion—Federal	$	110,569,000
Employment Service Administration Account Appropriation—Fed- eral	$	2,334,000
Federal Interest Payment Fund Appropriation	$	2,080,000
Total Appropriation	$	((290,151,000))
		293,666,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The department shall submit a plan to the commerce and labor committees of the senate and house of representatives by January 15, 1988, regarding continuation of services provided at its satellite office at 2106 Second Avenue, Seattle. The plan shall identify any proposed changes to the service level in effect on July 1, 1988, and methods of assuring reasonable access to a full array of services for area clients.

(2) The department shall produce local area labor market information packages for the state's economically distressed counties.

(3) $75,000 of the administrative contingency fund—federal appropriation is provided solely for a computerized database of labor market information that is accessible by telephone to employers, economic development organizations, and employee organizations.

(4) $150,000 of the administrative contingency fund—federal appropriation is provided solely to establish Washington service corps internship positions with private corporations for young adults from eighteen to twenty-five years of age, especially members of ethnic minority groups or enrollees in the family independence program. Internship positions shall be part-time during the school year and full-time during the summer.

(5) The department shall produce an annual state economic report to the legislature and the governor that includes but is not limited to:

(a) Identification and analysis of industries in the United States, Washington state, and local labor markets with high levels of seasonal, cyclical, and structural unemployment;

(b) The industries and local labor markets with plant closures and mass lay-offs and the number of affected workers;

(c) An analysis of the major causes of plant closures and mass lay-offs;

(d) The number of dislocated workers and persons who have exhausted their unemployment benefits, classified by industry, occupation, and local labor markets;

(e) The experience of the unemployed in their efforts to become reemployed. This should include research conducted on the continuous wage and benefit history;

(f) Five-year industry and occupational employment projections; and

(g) Annual and hourly average wage rates by industry and occupation.

~~((4))~~ (6) The department shall establish a counter-cyclical employment program.

(a) This program shall provide employment for unemployed forest product workers. "Forest products industries" means industries within the standard industrial classification code numbers 8, 24, and 26. The program shall operate, on a pilot basis in two locations in Washington state, with preference given to distressed areas in the state.

(b) Eligibility for employment under the counter-cyclical employment program shall occur only upon exhaustion of unemployment insurance benefits received upon termination of employment in the Washington forest products industry and eligibility shall be limited to only those persons who are either currently unemployed, employed part time, or whose employment in the Washington forest products industry was terminated within the previous year. No one shall be employed by the program for longer than six months in a two-year period, except as to administrative and supervisory employees.

(c) The program shall begin after completion of two consecutive quarters of below-average employment in forest products industries in Washington state and shall cease sixty days after the completion of two consecutive quarters of above-average timber products employment in Washington state. If, on the effective date of this act, forest products employment in the state has been below average for two consecutive quarters, the program shall begin immediately. In order to determine average forest products employment, the department shall calculate the trend of forest products employment in Washington state by the number of forest products employees, as reported by the department, during the fifteen years prior to the date the calculation is made. "Average forest products employment" means the level of employment indicated by this trend line.

(d) Employment under the counter-cyclical employment program shall consist of activities which enhance the value of state, county, and local government lands and waters and associated improvements, with priority given to enhancing state lands and waters. Eligible activities shall include, but are not limited to, thinning, slash removal, reforestation, fire suppression, trail maintenance, maintenance of recreational facilities, dike repair, tourist facilities, stream enhancement, water quality enhancement, irrigation repair, and the building of shellfish beds.

(e) Employees under the counter-cyclical employment program, except administrative employees, shall not be considered state employees for the purposes of existing provisions of law with respect to hours of work, sick leave and civil service. Employees under the program shall receive the same medical and dental benefits and holiday and vacation benefits as state employees. Compensation for employees under the counter-cyclical employment program shall be at least eight dollars per hour of employment, except as to administrative and supervisory personnel. Employment under the program shall not result in the displacement or partial displacement, such as reduction of hours of nonovertime work, wages, or other employment benefits, of currently employed workers, including but not limited to state civil service employees, or of currently or normally contracted services. The services of counter-cyclical employment members are exempt from unemployment compensation coverage under RCW 50.44.040 and the members shall be so advised by the department.

(f) The department shall administer the program in consultation with the state natural resource agencies. The employment security department may enter into contracts and agreements with state agencies and private and public individuals and organizations to carry out the program.

~~((5))~~ (7) $120,000 of the administrative contingency fund—federal appropriation is provided solely for a reemployment bonus demonstration project, contingent on the availability of federal or private funding of no less than $500,000. The employment security department shall evaluate the effectiveness of the reemployment bonus in returning unemployed workers to employment and report to the commerce and labor committees of the senate and house of representatives by January 15, 1989. If federal or private moneys do not become available before June 30, 1988, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

(8) $670,000 of the administrative contingency fund—federal appropriation is provided solely for transfer through interagency agreement as follows:

(a) $300,000 to the department of trade and economic development for the establishment of a business and job retention program. No more than $75,000 of the amount provided in this subsection (a) may be used for administrative costs including staff to carry out the responsibilities under this subsection (a). The director of the department of trade and economic development shall appoint six people to an advisory committee by July 1, 1988, including equal representation from business and labor, and may also appoint up to four additional nonvoting members from other interested parties. No more than $5,000 of the amount provided in this subsection (a) may be used for the advisory committee. The department of trade and economic development shall select, with the approval of the advisory committee, local organizations to undertake local business and job retention activities, including: The identification of local firms at risk of closure, mass layoff, or relocation out-of-state through the administration of local business surveys or other appropriate methods; initial assessments of firms or workforces; and the coordination and provision of technical and training assistance to businesses, unions, employee groups, and workforces. A minimum of $170,000 of the amount provided in this subsection (a) shall be used for contracts to local development organizations for local business and job retention activities. The department of trade and economic development shall: (i) Provide training programs for local organizations that receive contracts for local business and job retention activities and for other interested parties such as local government, unions, and community-based economic development organizations, including training in the use of local business surveys and other methods of identifying and assessing firms at risk of shutdown, mass layoff, or relocation out of state; (ii) develop model local business surveys to gather information about business needs, expansion plans, relocation decisions, training needs, potential layoffs, financing needs, and other appropriate information; and (iii) develop and administer grants, in consultation with the advisory committee, to study the feasibility of various options for continuing or renewing the operation of industrial facilities that are threatened with closure or have closed, making funds available to local governments, local associate development organizations, unions, or local nonprofit community organizations. The department of trade and economic development may require that money be matched at least dollar-for-dollar with nonstate money. No more than $25,000 of the amount provided in this subsection (a) may be made available for any one study or any one business facility. No more than $50,000 of the amount provided in this subsection (a) may be used for the feasibility grants. The department of trade and economic development shall draw upon its existing resources and existing data from other sources to do nonduplicative analyses of trends in the state's industries and workforces. The director of the department of trade and economic development shall publish an annual report in conjunction with the annual state economic report prepared by the employment security department.

(b) $110,000 to the department of trade and economic development for the establishment of a Washington marketplace program. The department of trade and economic development shall contract with and provide technical assistance to local nonprofit organizations in two economically distressed areas of the state, as defined in RCW 82.60.020(3), to contact local businesses to identify goods and services currently purchased out of state and determine which of these goods and services could be purchased on competitive terms within the state, inform local businesses about local market opportunities, and undertake other activities necessary to implement the Washington marketplace program at the local level. A maximum of $30,000 of the amount provided in this subsection (b) may be used for contracts with no more than two nonprofit organizations in nondistressed areas of the state that are currently operating local marketplace programs to provide technical assistance for local marketplace programs in distressed areas.

(c) $60,000 to the department of trade and economic development to implement Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6220. If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1988, the amount provided in this subsection (c) shall lapse.

(d) $200,000 to the department of trade and economic development for contracts with the Washington research foundation for hiring licensing and university liaison staff and for patents and other licensing-related expenses. Any contract with the Washington research foundation shall include, but is not limited to, the following conditions:

(i) Washington research foundation activities shall increase the transfer to Washington businesses of new technologies developed by state university researchers.

(ii) At least fifty percent of licenses issued through the Washington research foundation shall go to firms with headquarters in Washington state.

(iii) Washington research foundation activities shall be coordinated with the business assistance and financing services provided by the departments of community development and trade and economic development.

(iv) The Washington research foundation shall make a report to the legislature by December 31, 1988. This report shall include, but is not limited to, the following information: The number of licenses issued during the preceding year, the number of licenses issued during the preceding year to firms with headquarters in Washington state, nonconfidential information on the financial outcome of technologies in which the foundation has invested, and the financial status of the foundation.

(e) None of the moneys provided in this subsection (8) may be used for administrative expenses of the employment security department.

(9) $500,000 of the administrative contingency fund—federal appropriation is provided solely for the purpose of addressing state impacts due to the federal immigration reform act. The funds shall be expended to carry out employee work eligibility certification, agricultural worker recruitment, supply and demand projects, and overall agricultural labor market analysis.

(10) $2,080,000 of the federal interest payment fund appropriation may be expended by the department only if the governor authorizes the expenditure in order to avoid or mitigate across-the-board allotment reductions under RCW 43.88.110. If the governor authorizes the expenditure, $2,080,000 of the general fund—state appropriation shall lapse. The amount expended by the department from the federal interest payment fund appropriation shall not exceed the amount lapsed from the general fund—state appropriation. Any moneys from the federal interest payment fund appropriation remaining unexpended on June 30, 1989, shall be deposited in the unemployment insurance trust fund.

(11) $40,000 of the administrative contingency fund—federal appropriation is provided solely to contract with the Washington institute for public policy for a study to investigate the impact of the state's reliance on the defense industry and to investigate methods to promote greater economic diversification of the state's economy. The study shall focus primarily on identifying companies and workers at risk from defense cutbacks over the next five years; reviewing existing state and federal programs available to provide reemployment and retraining assistance to affected workers; identifying potential government and private sector contracts and clients that could help firms diversify; and examining alternative production technologies and occupations that could easily be converted from defense use such as light rail mass transit, alternative energy, low-cost housing, and new product development. The department shall cooperate and provide whatever assistance is needed in the completion of the study. The institute shall submit a final report to the legislature no later than January 1, 1989. The institute shall contract with Washington State University for the study.

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

General Fund Appropriation	$	23,650,000
Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation	$	532,000
Total Appropriation	$	24,182,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $600,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the business assistance center. The center, in concert with participating state agencies, shall develop a reporting system to document the work and results of state business assistance programs. The center shall forward annual reports to the ways and means committees of the house of representatives and senate, the trade and economic development committee of the house of representatives and the commerce and labor committee of the senate, including but not limited to jobs created, investment generated, and measures of technical assistance provided and other program activities.

(2) $195,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for contracts with Washington State University small business development center programs. State funds for small business development center programs in Lewis county shall not be reduced from the level provided in the 1985-1987 biennium.

(3) $625,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for contracts with the small business export finance assistance center of Washington. At least $100,000 of the amount provided in this subsection shall be used by the department and the small business export finance assistance center for the development of a coordinated outreach program for trade information services and export finance assistance. In developing this program, the department and the small business export finance assistance center shall work with the business assistance center, ports, and other users and suppliers of trade services.

(4) The department shall analyze market trends and investment opportunities in at least eight key sectors of the Washington economy. The department shall publish five-year projections of selected mature and growth industries with current or potentially large impacts on the state economy, including barriers to competitiveness, potential market niches, investment trends, and their relationship to state economic development efforts. The department shall work in concert with the Washington state economic development board, the department of community development, CENTRAFOR, IMPACT, the employment security department, and the private sector to develop these industry studies and to analyze strategies for the retention and development of high-wage jobs.

(5) The following amounts of the general fund appropriation are provided solely for matching funds to equal amounts of private-sector, federal, and in-kind contributions:

- (a) Washington high technology center, $7,000,000; and
- (b) Center for international trade in forest products, $297,000.

(6) $225,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for preparation, if warranted, of a proposal to the federal department of energy that the proposed superconducting supercollider be located in Washington state.

(7) The director shall form an interagency task force charged with gathering information on entrepreneurial development, formulating interagency agreements to promote entrepreneurial activity, and designing programs and policy options. The task force shall be composed of representatives from the department of community development, the employment security department, the department of labor and industries, the department of social and health services, the state board for vocational education, the state board for community college education, the higher education coordinating board, and the superintendent of public instruction.

(8) The department shall establish the Washington investment opportunities office as a clearinghouse for entrepreneurs seeking capital and investments. The office shall keep a list of entrepreneurs in the state looking for capital resources, provide prospective investors with information about these entrepreneurs, and coordinate the delivery of assistance to entrepreneurs developing business plans.

Sec. 311. Section 318, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE WINTER RECREATION COMMISSION

General Fund Appropriation	$	27,000
----------------------------------	----	--------

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations: $5,000 of the appropriation is provided solely as partial funding of a study of the effect of the ski industry on the economy of the state.

~~$(9,320,000)~~ 11,956,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the state convention and trade center operations account to the state convention and trade center corporation, for the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1989, for the purposes of operation and promotion of the center. The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations: $1,540,000 is provided solely for marketing the facilities and services of the convention center, for promoting the locale as a convention and visitor destination, and for related activities. Unless a bill increasing the special excise tax under RCW 67.40.090 to six percent in the city of Seattle and two and four-tenths percent in King county outside the city of Seattle is enacted by June 30, 1988, the amount provided in the previous sentence shall lapse.

Sec. 313. Section 316, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE WASHINGTON CENTENNIAL COMMISSION

General Fund Appropriation	$	7,377,000
State Centennial Commission Account Appropriation	$	2,540,000
Total Appropriation	$	9,917,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) State agencies, at the request of the centennial commission, may develop programs or activities related to the Washington state centennial. Agencies that develop programs or activities in conjunction with the centennial commission shall not charge the commission for overhead or administrative costs.

(2) The commission may contract with Pacific Celebration '89 for promotion of Washington state's future trade and economic ties with nations in the Pacific rim. Any contract with Pacific Celebration '89 shall include, but is not limited to, the following conditions:

(a) Pacific Celebration '89 activities shall create increased opportunities for marketing Washington state products and services, include a series of leadership conferences on emerging issues of the Pacific economy, promote Washington state as the focus of trade activity within the Pacific basin, recognize the contributions to the development of Washington state by people of Pacific heritage, and increase knowledge and understanding of Pacific cultures by Washington citizens. Activities shall be staged in communities throughout the state during the centennial year.

(b) Each $1.00 in state funds provided to Pacific Celebration shall be matched over the course of the biennium by at least $1.60 in private contributions and event sponsorships. If, at any point during the biennium, the centennial commission determines that private contributions and event sponsorships will, by the end of the biennium, amount to less than $1.60 for each $1.00 of state money provided, it shall reduce disbursements proportionally.

(c) Any state money used for contracts with Pacific Celebration shall be repaid, to the greatest extent possible, from net revenue of Pacific Celebration activities. Net revenues from these activities shall be maximized and returned to the general fund according to a financial plan approved by the commission.

(3) The general fund appropriation is intended to be the final state contribution to the funding of centennial commission projects.

(4) If the commission terminates the contracts authorized under subsection (2) of this section prior to the effective date of this 1988 section, the commission shall use all money that had been committed to but will not be expended for these contracts on the following activities: (a) Efforts to increase opportunities for marketing Washington state products and services; (b) a series of leadership conferences on emerging issues of the Pacific economy; (c) promotion of Washington state as the focus of trade activity within the Pacific basin; (d) recognition of the contributions to the development of Washington state by people of Pacific heritage; and (e) efforts to increase knowledge and understanding of Pacific cultures by Washington citizens.

(5) $50,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for staff and administrative services by the department of community development for a 20:20 commission. The 20:20 commission shall develop a plan to prepare the state to respond positively to the economic, social, and environmental changes which will face its citizens as they enter the next century.

(6) The superintendent of public instruction shall, jointly with the state board for community college education, develop an integrated state plan for all state and federally funded vocational education services. The superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education shall also jointly develop a consistent and reliable data base on public vocational education, including enrollments, costs, program activities, and job placement. Such data shall be made available to the office of the governor and the legislature.

(7) $35,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the development of a horticulture greenhouse project within the Sequim school district.

Sec. 502, Section 503, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1987 3rd ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR GENERAL APPORTIONMENT (BASIC EDUCATION)

General Fund Appropriation	$	((3,814,863,000))
		3,834,946,000
Revenue Accrual Account Appropriation	$	55,100,000
Total Appropriation	$	((3,869,963,000))
		3,890,046,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $((3,814,863,000)) 367,323,000 is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1986-87 school year.

(2) Allocations for certificated staff salaries for the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years shall be determined by multiplying each district's average basic education certificated instructional and administrative salaries as determined under section 504, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess., as amended, by the districts' formula-generated staff units as follows:

(a) On the basis of average annual full time equivalent enrollments, excluding hand-capped full time equivalent enrollment as recognized for funding purposes under section 507, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess., and excluding full time equivalent enrollment otherwise recognized for certificated staff unit allocations under (d) through (i) of this subsection:

(i) Forty-six certificated instructional staff units for each one thousand full time equivalent kindergarten through twelfth grade students.

(ii) Four certificated administrative staff units for each one thousand full time equivalent kindergarten through twelfth grade students.

(b)(i) For the 1987-88 school year, an additional two certificated instructional staff units for each one thousand average annual full time equivalent students in kindergarten through third grade.

(ii) For the 1988-89 school year, an additional three certificated instructional staff units for each one thousand average annual full time equivalent students in kindergarten through third grade.

(c)(i) For school districts with a minimum enrollment of 250 full time equivalent students, whose full time equivalent student enrollment count in a given month exceeds the first of the month full time equivalent enrollment count by 5 percent, an additional state allocation of 110 percent of the share that such increased enrollment would have generated had such additional full time equivalent students been included in the normal enrollment count for that particular month.

(ii) For school districts that are located in a special economic distress impact area as defined in this subsection, and that experienced a decline in average annual full time equivalent enrollment between the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years of at least two hundred full time equivalent students or four percent, whichever is less, additional staff unit allocations for the 1988-89 school year equivalent to the number of staff units generated under (a) of this subsection by half of the enrollment difference between the two school years. "Special economic distress impact area" shall mean a county that had an average unemployment rate for fiscal year 1988 which exceeded the average state unemployment rate for the same period by fifteen percent, and which is located in whole or in part within a fifty mile radius of a nuclear reactor scheduled to be placed in inoperative standby status.

(d) 0.92 certificated instructional staff units and 0.08 certificated administrative staff units for each seventeen and one-half full time equivalent students enrolled in a vocational education program approved by the superintendent of public instruction. However, for skill center programs, the ratio shall be 0.92 certificated instructional staff units and 0.08 certificated administrative staff units for each annual average 16.67 full time equivalent students enrolled in an approved vocational education program.

(e) For districts enrolling not more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade eight, and for small school plants within any school district which enroll not more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent kindergarten through eighth grade students and have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education:

(i) For those enrolling no students in grades seven or eight, 1.76 certificated instructional staff units and 0.24 certificated administrative staff units for enrollment of not more than five students, plus one-twentieth of a certificated instructional staff unit for each additional student enrolled; and

(ii) For those enrolling students in either grades seven or eight, 1.68 certificated instructional staff units and 0.32 certificated administrative staff units for enrollment of not more than five students, plus one-tenth of a certificated instructional staff unit for each additional student enrolled.

(f) For districts enrolling more than twenty-five but not more than one hundred average annual full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade eight, and for small school plants within any school district which enroll more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent kindergarten through eighth grade students and have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education, in the following cases:

(i) For districts and small school plants with enrollments of up to sixty annual average full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade six, 2.76 certificated instructional staff units and 0.24 certificated administrative staff units;

(ii) For districts and small school plants with enrollments of up to twenty annual average full time equivalent students in grades seven and eight, 0.92 certificated instructional staff units and 0.08 certificated administrative staff units.

(g) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than seventy annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-8 program or a grades 1-8 program, an additional one-half of a certificated instructional staff unit.

(h) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-6 program or a grades 1-6 program, an additional one-half of a certificated instructional staff unit.

(i) For districts that operate no more than two high schools with enrollments of not more than three hundred average annual full time equivalent students, for enrollments in each such high school, excluding handicapped and vocational full time equivalent enrollments for the 1987-88 school year only:

(i) Nine certificated instructional staff units and one-half of a certificated administrative staff unit for the first sixty annual average full time equivalent students; ~~((and))~~

(ii) Additional certificated staff units based upon a ratio of 0.8732 certificated instructional staff units and 0.1268 certificated administrative staff units per forty-three and one-half average annual full time equivalent students; and

(iii) For the 1988-89 school year, excluding certificated staff units at the rate of 46 certificated instructional staff units and 4 certificated administrative staff units per 1,000 vocational and handicapped full time equivalent students.

(3) Allocations for classified salaries for the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years shall be calculated by multiplying each district's average basic education classified salary allocation as determined under section 504(2), chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess., as amended, by the district's formula-generated classified staff units determined as follows:

(a) For enrollments generating certificated staff unit allocations under subsections (2) (e) through (i) of this section, one classified staff unit per each three certificated staff units allocated under such subsections.

(b) For all other enrollment in grades kindergarten through twelve, including vocational but excluding handicapped full time equivalent enrollments, one classified staff unit for each sixty average annual full time equivalent students.

(c) For each nonhigh school district with an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, an additional one-half of a classified staff unit.

(4) Fringe benefit allocations shall be calculated at a rate of 19.41 percent in the 1987-88 school year and 19.53 percent in the ~~((1987-88))~~ 1988-89 school year of certificated salary allocations provided under subsection (2) of this section, and a rate of 17.00 percent in the 1987-88 school year and 17.12 percent in the 1988-89 school year of classified salary allocations provided under subsection (3) of this section.

(5) Insurance benefit allocations for the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years shall be calculated at a rate of $167 per month for the number of certificated staff units determined in subsection (2) of this section and for the number of classified staff units determined in subsection (3) of this section multiplied by 1.152.

(6)(a) For nonemployee related costs with each certificated staff unit allocated under subsections (2) (a), (b), (c), and (e) through (i) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $5,973 per certificated staff unit in the 1987-88 school year and a maximum of $6,188 per certificated staff unit in the 1988-89 school year.

(b) For nonemployee related costs with each certificated staff unit allocated under subsection (2)(d) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $11,382 per certificated staff unit in the 1987-88 school year and a maximum of $11,792 per certificated staff unit in the 1988-89 school year.

(7) Allocations for costs of substitutes for classroom teachers shall be distributed at a maximum rate of $275 per full time equivalent basic education classroom teacher during the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years.

(8) The superintendent may distribute a maximum of $3,209,000 outside the basic education formula during fiscal years 1988 and 1989 as follows:

(a) For fire protection for school districts located in a fire protection district as now or hereafter established pursuant to chapter 52.04 RCW, a maximum of $342,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1988 and a maximum of $342,000 in fiscal year 1989.

(b) For summer vocational programs at skills centers, a maximum of $1,099,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1988 and a maximum of $1,135,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1989.

(c) A maximum of ~~$(272,000))~~ 472,000 may be expended for school district emergencies.

(9) Formula enhancements are provided under this section which are not attributable to enrollment or workload changes, compensation increases, or inflationary adjustments. For the purposes of ~~((section 101, chapter 2, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess.))~~ RCW 84.52.0531, the following allocations ~~((for the 1987-88 school year))~~ shall be recognized as levy reduction funds:

(a) For the 1987-88 school year, for certificated instructional staff units generated under subsection (2)(b)(i) of this section, all allocations for nonemployee-related costs and one-half of all allocations for certificated salaries and benefits.

(b) For the 1988-89 school year, for certificated instructional staff units generated under subsection (2)(b)(ii) of this section, one-third of all allocations including nonemployee-related costs and certificated staff salaries and benefits.

(10) For the purposes of section 101, chapter 2, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess., the increase per full time equivalent student in the state basic education appropriation provided under this section and section 514 of this 1988 act is 2.75 percent between the 1986-87 and 1987-88 school years, and ~~((3.52))~~ 4.93 percent between the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years.

(11) The revenue accrual account appropriation is provided solely for allocations for employer contributions to the teachers' retirement system included under subsection (4) of this section.

(12) A maximum of $372,000 may be distributed to enhance funding provided in subsections (1) through (8) of this section for remote and necessary school plants on islands without scheduled public transportation which are the sole school plants serving students in elementary grades on these islands. ~~((Any school district receiving an allocation under this subsection must certify that funding distributed for its remote and necessary school plants under this subsection and subsection (2)(e) of this section is used solely for programs for students enrolled in these school plants.))~~ To be eligible in any school year for an allocation under this subsection, a school district must demonstrate that, either on an aggregate or per pupil basis, the percentage growth from the prior year in the district's expenditures for programs for students enrolled in the remote school plant is not less than the percentage growth from the prior school year in the district's operating expenditures district-wide. The superintendent of public instruction shall ensure compliance with this subsection, including appropriate distribution of school district overhead costs. The superintendent shall study and, in a report submitted to the legislature prior to December 1, 1988, make recommendations on adequate but not excessive funding formulas for remote and necessary school plants serving less than twenty-five students.

(13) The appropriations in this section include $119,343,000 allocated for compensation increases for basic education staff, as provided pursuant to section 504, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess., as amended.

Sec. 503, Section 504, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1987 3rd ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—BASIC EDUCATION EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION

For the purposes of section 503, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess., as amended, and this section, the following conditions and limitations apply:

(1) (a) Districts shall certify to the superintendent of public instruction such information as may be necessary regarding the years of service and educational experience of basic education certificated instructional employees for the purposes of calculating certificated instructional staff salary allocations pursuant to this section. Any change in information previously certified, on the basis of additional years of experience or educational credits, shall be reported and certified to the superintendent of public instruction at the time such change takes place.

(b) For the purposes of ~~((subsection (2) of))~~ this section, "basic education certificated instructional staff" is defined as provided in ~~((section 203, chapter 2, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess.))~~ RCW 28A.41.110.

(c) "LEAP Document 1" means the computerized tabulation establishing staff mix factors for basic education certificated instructional staff according to education and years of experience, as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on August 18, 1987, at 13:26 hours.

(d) "LEAP Document 10" means the computerized tabulation of 1986-87 average salary allocations for basic education certificated administrative staff and basic education classified staff, as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on May 11, 1987, at 11:06 hours.

(e) "LEAP Document 11" means the computerized tabulation of 1986-87 derived base salaries for basic education certificated instructional staff, as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on August 19, 1987, at 10:29 hours.

(f) "Derived base salary" means a school district's average salary for basic education certificated instructional staff, divided by the district's average staff mix factor for such staff computed using LEAP Document 1.

(2)(a)(i) For the 1987-88 school year, average salary allocations for basic education certificated administrative staff under section 503, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess., as amended, shall be the district's 1986-87 certificated administrative average salary shown on LEAP Document 10, increased by 2.1 percent of the 1986-87 LEAP Document 10 state-wide average salary for certificated administrative staff.

(ii) For the 1988-89 school year, average salary allocations for basic education certificated administrative staff under section 503, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess., as amended, shall be the district's certificated administrative average salary allocation for the 1987-88 school year provided under this section, further increased by 2.14 percent of the 1986-87 LEAP Document 10 state-wide average salary.

(b)(i) For the 1987-88 school year, average salary allocations for basic education classified staff under section 503, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess., as amended, shall be the district's 1986-87 classified average salary shown on LEAP Document 10, increased by 2.7 percent of the 1986-87 LEAP Document 10 state-wide average salary for classified staff.

(ii) For the 1988-89 school year, average salary allocations for basic education classified staff under section 503, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess., as amended, shall be the district's classified average salary allocation for the 1987-88 school year provided under this section, further increased by 2.77 percent of the 1986-87 LEAP Document 10 state-wide average classified salary.

(c) Allocations for certificated instructional salaries in the 1987-88 school year under section 503(2), chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess., as amended, shall be the greater of:

(i) The district's average salary as determined by placing the district's actual full time equivalent basic education certificated instructional staff for that school year on the 1987-88 state-wide salary allocation schedule established in subsection (3)(a) of this section; or

(ii) The district's actual average annual basic education certificated instructional staff salary for the 1986-87 school year, as reported to the superintendent of public instruction prior to June 1, 1987, improved by 2.1 percent; or

(iii) The district's 1986-87 derived base salary for basic education certificated instructional staff as shown on LEAP Document 11, multiplied by the district's average staff mix factor determined using LEAP Document 1 for 1987-88 basic education certificated instructional staff, and further increased by 2.1 percent.

(d) Allocations for certificated instructional salaries in the 1988-89 school year under section 503(2), chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess., as amended, shall be the greater of:

(i) The district's average salary as determined by placing the district's actual full time equivalent basic education certificated instructional staff for that school year on the 1988-89 state-wide salary allocation schedule established in subsection (3)(b) of this section; or

(ii) For districts which received salary allocations for the 1987-88 school year under subsection (2)(c)(ii) or (iii) of this section, the district's actual 1987-88 derived base salary for basic education certificated instructional staff computed by the superintendent of public instruction using LEAP Document 1, multiplied by the district's average staff mix factor determined using LEAP Document 1 for 1988-89 basic education certificated instructional staff, and further increased by 2.1 percent. In no case shall the actual 1987-88 derived base salary recognized in this subsection exceed the average salary used for state allocations in the 1987-88 school year for basic education certificated instructional staff under section 502 of this 1988 act, including the increases provided under this section and section 504(4) of this 1988 act, divided by the district's average staff mix factor for 1987-88 basic education certificated instructional staff.

(3) Pursuant to (~~section 204, chapter 2, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess.;~~) RCW 28A.41.112, the following state-wide salary allocation schedules for certificated instructional staff, for allocation purposes only, are established:

(ii) "MA" means a masters degree;

(iii) "PHD" means a doctorate degree;

(iv) "+(N)" means the number of college quarter hour credits and inservice credits earned since the highest degree. Inservice hours shall be converted to equivalent college quarter hour credits in accordance with RCW 28A.71.110.

(4) (a) Prior to August 31st of each school year, each school district shall report to the superintendent of public instruction the following information for each certificated instructional employee employed by the district as of October 1st of that school year:

(i) The full time equivalency of the employee by duty code and program assignment;

(ii) The number of days in the employee's base contract;

(iii) The finalized salary amount provided for the employee's base contract;

(iv) The amount contributed by the school district for the employee's fringe benefits as defined in RCW 28A.58.0951(3)(b); and

(v) The finalized amount paid to the employee for any supplemental contracts under RCW 28A.58.0951(4).

Districts shall also confirm this data and submit any necessary revisions prior to December 1st of the subsequent school year.

(b) Prior to August 31st of each school year, each school district shall submit to the superintendent of public instruction copies of the district's finalized salary schedules used for compensation of certificated instructional employees.

(c) The superintendent of public instruction shall make available to school districts, the legislature, and the governor the information submitted by the school districts under this subsection (4), including calculation of average amounts provided by each school district for base salary contracts, supplemental contracts, and fringe benefits of basic education certificated instructional staff and of other certificated instructional staff.

Sec. 504. Section 505, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 1, Laws of 1987 3rd ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR MINIMUM SALARIES AND CATEGORICAL PROGRAM SALARY INCREASES

General Fund Appropriation $ ((22,549,000))
23,264,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) "Incremental fringe benefits" means 18.77 percent in the 1987-88 school year and 18.89 percent in the 1988-89 school year for certificated staff, and 13.47 percent in the 1987-88 school year and 13.59 percent in the 1988-89 school year for classified staff, which percentages shall be the fringe benefit rates applied to the respective salary adjustments provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section.

(2) A maximum of ~~$(6,431,000)~~ 8,185,000 is provided to implement salary increases for each school year for state-supported school employees in the following categorical programs: Transitional bilingual instruction, learning assistance, education of highly capable students, vocational technical institutes, and pupil transportation. Moneys provided by this subsection include costs of incremental fringe benefits and shall be distributed by increasing allocation rates for each school year by the amounts specified:

(a) Transitional bilingual instruction: The rates specified in section 509, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. shall be increased by $10.51 per pupil for the 1987-88 school year and by ~~$(21,600)~~ 21.68 per pupil for the 1988-89 school year.

(b) Learning assistance: The rates specified in section 510, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. shall be increased by $9.15 per pupil for the 1987-88 school year and by ~~$(16,600)~~ 16.72 per pupil for the 1988-89 school year.

(c) Education of highly capable students: The rates specified in section 511, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. shall be increased by $6.23 per pupil for the 1987-88 school year and by $12.84 per pupil for the 1988-89 school year.

(d) Vocational technical institutes: The rates for vocational programs specified in section 513, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. shall be increased by $57.15 per full time equivalent student for the 1987-88 school year, and by ~~$(117,450)~~ 114.91 per full time equivalent student for the 1988-89 school year.

(e) Pupil transportation: The rates provided under section 516, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. shall be increased by $0.47 per weighted pupil-mile for the 1987-88 school year, and by ~~$(8,950)~~ 0.86 per weighted pupil-mile for the 1988-89 school year.

(3) A maximum of ~~$(13,118,000)~~ 14,979,000 is provided for salary increases and incremental fringe benefits for state-supported staff unit allocations in the handicapped program, section 507, and for state-supported staff in institutional education programs, section 508, and in educational service districts, section 502. The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute salary increases for these programs not to exceed the percentage salary increases provided for basic education staff under section 504, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess.

(4) A maximum of ~~$(1,600,000)~~ 100,000 is provided solely to implement minimum salaries, distributed as follows:

(a) For any certificated instructional employee in the 1987-88 school year, the superintendent of public instruction may allocate additional salary moneys equal to:

- (i) The minimum salary required for the employee under RCW 28A.58.0951(2); minus
- (ii) The salary that the school district would have paid to such an employee in the 1986-87 school year at the employee's 1987-88 level of experience and education, increased by the average percentage increase provided in the district's derived base salary for basic education certificated instructional staff under section 2 of this 1987 act between the 1986-87 and 1987-88 school years. For the purposes of this section, no salary which an employee would have been paid in the 1986-87 school year shall be considered to be less than $16,500 on a full time equivalent basis if the district had received funds under section 502(3)(f) of chapter 7, Laws of 1987, to establish a minimum certificated salary of $16,500.

(b) For any certificated instructional employee in the 1988-89 school year, the superintendent of public instruction may allocate additional salary moneys equal to:

- (i) The minimum salary required for the employee under RCW 28A.58.0951(2); minus
- (ii) The salary that the school district would have paid to such an employee during the 1987-88 school year at the employee's 1988-89 level of experience and education, increased by the average percentage increase provided in the district's derived base salary for basic education certificated instructional staff under section 2 of this 1987 act between the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years.

(c) The superintendent of public instruction shall allocate incremental fringe benefits as defined in subsection (1) of this section for additional salary moneys allocated under (a) and (b) of this subsection.

Sec. 505. Section 506, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—LOCAL EDUCATION PROGRAM ENHANCEMENT FUNDS

General Fund Appropriation	$	(49,500,000)
		45,042,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:
(1) The purpose of this section is to provide a grant, in addition to the district's basic education allocation, to each school district based on full time equivalent student enrollment to meet the educational needs of each district.

(2) School districts shall be eligible to receive a grant in addition to their basic education allocation. This additional grant shall be distributed to local school districts from the superintendent of public instruction on the basis of full time equivalent students. For districts enrolling not more than one hundred average annual full time equivalent students, except as otherwise specified, and for small school plants within any school district, which small plants have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education, the grant shall be distributed as follows:

(a) For grades K-6, for districts enrolling not more than sixty average full time equivalent students, the grant shall be based on sixty full time equivalent students;

(b) For grades 7 and 8, for districts enrolling not more than twenty average full time equivalent students, the grant shall be based on twenty full time equivalent students; and

(c) For districts that have high schools with sixty or fewer full time equivalent students, the grant shall be based on sixty full time equivalent students.

(3) For each school year beginning in the 1987-89 biennium, each school district shall receive, in addition to the basic education allocation, a grant (~~((of no less than $67.56))~~) per full time equivalent student of a maximum of $33.75. Grants shall be distributed on a school year basis. A maximum of $~~((24,750,000))~~ 24,900,000 may be allocated for the 1987-88 school year.

(4) For the purposes of this section, each school board shall:

(a) Assess the needs of the schools within the district;

(b) Assign priority to addressing the identified needs; and

~~((c))~~ (c) Develop an evaluation methodology to assess specifically how the expenditure of the grants demonstrate a direct educational benefit to the pupils within the district.

(5) New or existing programs enhanced by the funds provided to districts by a grant under this chapter shall not become a part of the state's basic education obligation as set forth by the Constitution.

~~((6))~~ (6) Local district grants may be used to fund any or all of the following activities:

(a) Innovative programs to increase the adult-pupil ratio without increasing the number of certificated staff, including but not limited to:

(i) Providing stipends to competent retired teachers to return them to the classroom as "team teachers" or classroom assistants;

(ii) Providing stipends to teachers' aides;

(iii) Providing incentives to administrators who spend a portion of their work day in the classroom team teaching or providing classroom assistance;

(iv) Providing recognition to citizen volunteers who assist in the classroom;

(v) Providing training programs for classroom assistants, including volunteers; and

(vi) Purchasing equipment that directly relates to classroom instruction or assists the teacher in minimizing time away from teaching.

(b) Dropout prevention and retrieval programs, including, but not limited to:

(i) Curriculum development;

(ii) Public and private sector partnerships in expanding offerings in programs such as "Choices" and the "Registry" program;

(iii) Alternative learning program development;

(iv) Enhancement of vocational, career, college, and pupil advisory programs;

(v) Elementary school advisory programs;

(vi) Mentor pupil programs such as "Natural Helpers"; and

(vii) Curriculum materials and equipment purchases.

(c) Drug and alcohol abuse programs, including, but not limited to:

(i) In-service staff training programs for the identification of students at-risk; and

(ii) Community services networking to direct students who are substance abusers to appropriate treatment facilities.

(d) Early childhood programs, including but not limited to:

(i) A parents as first teachers program that provides for resource materials on home learning activities, private and group educational guidance, individual and group learning experiences for the parent and child, and other appropriate activities to enable parents to improve learning in the home, understand the relationship between developmental stages and behavior, and monitor their children's growth and development relating to understanding and use of language; perception through sight and hearing; motor development and hand-eye coordination; and health, physical development, and emotional, social, and mental development;

(ii) Nutritional programs;

(iii) Parental participation programs; and

(iv) Child day-care programs.

(e) In-service training programs for staff development including, but not limited to:

(i) Funding speakers or group leaders to deliver in-service training to staff;

(ii) Program materials and equipment;

(iii) Tuition, registration fees, and associated fees for attendance at seminars, workshops, or courses that directly relate to enhancing adult training for classroom duties; and

(iv) Travel reimbursement directly related to in-service training.

(f) Programs that develop and promote logical reasoning and improved analytical skills, including programs for highly capable students.

((+)) (7) Small or rural districts may enter into cooperative agreements to provide educational enhancements through the sharing of grant funds.

((+)) (8) The superintendent of public instruction shall make a comprehensive report to the legislature on the use of the local district grants and the educational benefits derived therefrom by January 31, 1989.

Sec. 506. Section 507, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

PART VI
HIGHER EDUCATION

Sec. 601. Section 601, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

The appropriations in sections 602 through 608 of this act are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) For the purposes of this section and sections 602 through 608 of this act, "institutions of higher education" means the institutions receiving appropriations pursuant to sections 602 through 608 of this act.

(2) Student Quality Standard: During the 1987-89 fiscal biennium, each institution of higher education shall not expend less than the average biennial amount listed in this subsection per full time equivalent student. The amounts include total appropriated operating expenses for the institution, less expenditures for plant maintenance and operations, with the exception of Washington State University, where cooperative extension and agriculture research are also excluded from the per student expenditures. This expenditure per student requirement may vary by two percent if the director of financial management certifies that the failure to meet the minimum expenditures per student is attributable to circumstances beyond the control of the institution.

University of Washington	$	7,763
Washington State University	$	6,549
Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, The Evergreen State College, and Western Washington University:
The first 3000 FTE Students	$	5,974
Each Student over 3000 FTE	$	3,895
State Board for Community College Education	$	2,793

(3) Each institution of higher education and the state board for community college education shall report to the 1989 regular session of the legislature the following information:

(a) The number of minority students attending the institution or the community college system and the measures taken by such institution or system during the 1987-89 fiscal biennium to increase the number of minority students and reduce the drop-out rates for minority and other students;

(b) The number of women employed by the institution or system and the actions taken by the institution or system to increase the number of women in managerial and senior-level positions;

(c) Actions taken by the institution or community college system to improve the quality of undergraduate and graduate education programs;

(d) Actions taken by the institution or system to expand or improve educational services off the campus and the process for evaluating the need for educational services in locations away from the campus;

(e) The process for evaluating and accepting students for admission into the institution or the system;

(f) Any process developed by the institution or the system for evaluating student performance;

(g) Actions taken by the institution or system to operate programs jointly with another public or private institution;

(h) How the faculty and exempt salary increase funds were distributed among the faculty and staff at each institution and the results of the increased salary levels on faculty and staff recruitment and retention;

(i) The annual faculty turnover rates experienced by the institution or the system; and

(j) The amount spent on instructional equipment, the type of equipment purchased, and the instructional enhancements that resulted from the additional equipment.

The state board for community college education shall collect and report the information required of the community college system under this subsection.

(4) The state board for community college education shall, jointly with the superintendent of public instruction, develop an integrated state plan for all state and federally funded vocational education services. The superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education shall also jointly develop a consistent and reliable data base on public vocational education, including enrollments, costs, program activities, and job placement. Such data shall be made available to the office of the governor and the legislature.

((6)) (5) Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, and Western Washington University shall each collect summer term tuition fees at the same rates established for the regular academic quarter and shall transfer the fees to the state treasury in accordance with RCW 28B.15.031.

((7)) (6) The appropriations in sections 602 through 608 of this act provide the following amounts to identify and recruit minority students from junior high and high schools in the state, to foster minority student interest in a college education, to provide support services such as counseling and tutorial assistance, and to improve the retention of such students in higher education through and beyond the baccalaureate level. At least $147,000 of the amount appropriated to the University of Washington shall go to increase the efforts of the math, engineering, and science achievement program.

University of Washington	$	522,000
Washington State University	$	225,000
Central Washington University	$	113,000
Eastern Washington University	$	150,000
The Evergreen State College	$	75,000
Western Washington University	$	150,000

((8)) (7) The following are the maximum amounts that may be expended at each institution of higher education from the appropriations in sections 602 through 608 of this act for continuing the salary increases authorized by section 604, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 (ESSB 5351) from July 1, 1987, through February 29, 1988:

University of Washington	$	3,893,000
Washington State University	$	2,083,000
Central Washington University	$	405,000
Eastern Washington University	$	489,000
The Evergreen State College	$	212,000
Western Washington University	$	575,000
State Board for Community College Education	$	(4,036,000)
		3,196,000

Expenditures under this subsection shall be consistent with all terms and conditions contained in section 604, chapter 7, Laws of 1987 (ESSB 5351), which are hereby incorporated by reference.

((9)) (8) The following are maximum amounts which each institution may spend from the appropriations in sections 602 through 608 of this act for faculty and exempt staff salary increases and are subject to all the limitations contained in this section. For the purpose of allocating these funds, "faculty" includes all instructional and research faculty, academic deans, department chairpersons, and community college librarians and counselors who are not part of the state classified service system. NEW SECTION. Sec. 709. A new section is added to chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. to read as follows:

BOND RETIREMENT—SPOKANE RIVER TOLL BRIDGE

The following is appropriated from the Spokane River toll bridge revolving account to the Spokane River toll bridge account for disbursement of bond retirement and interest, including ongoing bond registration and transfer charges:

Spokane River Toll Bridge Revolving Account Appropriation	$	889,088
---	----	---------

Sec. 710. Section 7, chapter 13, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.16.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The federal interest payment fund shall consist of contributions payable by each employer (except employers as described in RCW 50.44.010 and 50.44.030 who have properly elected to make payments in lieu of contributions, employers who are required to make payments in lieu of contributions, and employers paying contributions under RCW 50.44.035) for any calendar quarter which begins on or after January 1, 1984, and for which the commissioner determines that the department will have an outstanding balance of accruing federal interest at the end of the calendar quarter. The amount of wages subject to tax shall be determined according to RCW 50.24.010. The tax rate applicable to wages paid during the calendar quarter shall be determined by the commissioner and shall not exceed fifteen one-hundredths of one percent. In determining whether to require contributions as authorized by this section, the commissioner shall consider the current balance in the federal interest payment fund and the projected amount of interest which will be due and payable as of the following September 30. Except as appropriated for the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1989, any excess moneys in the federal interest payment fund shall be retained in the fund for future interest payments.

Contributions under this section shall become due and be paid by each employer in accordance with such rules as the commissioner may prescribe and shall not be deducted, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in the employ of the employer. Any deduction in violation of this section is unlawful.

In the payment of any contributions under this section, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

Sec. 711. Section 3, chapter 272, Laws of 1987 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

EVERETT HOME PORT

(1) There is hereby appropriated to the office of financial management for the biennium beginning July 1, 1987, and ending June 30, 1989:

(a) ~~(Ten million, four hundred seventy)~~ two million, two hundred sixty-six thousand dollars from the general fund—state;

(b) One million, one hundred sixty-nine thousand dollars from the general fund—federal;

(c) Three hundred ninety-two thousand dollars from the state electrical license fund;

(d) Five hundred thirty-three thousand dollars from the state accident fund; and

(e) Five hundred thirty-three thousand dollars from the state medical aid fund.

(2) The appropriations in this section are provided solely for the purposes of this act and are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) The appropriations in this section are provided solely for the increased demands for public services as a result of the development or construction of the Everett home port. No funds, except those related to the educational impacts associated with the arrival of the U.S.S. Nimitz, may be spent, except as may be necessary for planning and monitoring to meet the requirements of federal legislation authorizing the construction of the Everett home port, until the following conditions are met: (i) Actual construction or site preparation is started, and (ii) the federal government releases to be obligated, or expended, the $43.5 million appropriated in federal fiscal year 1987 in section 2208 of the national defense authorization act for construction of the home port, and (iii) all required local, state, and federal permits for site construction, preparation, and dredging are obtained.

(b) The governor shall allocate funds to the superintendent of public instruction, the department of social and health services, the department of community development, the department of fisheries, the department of ecology, and the department of labor and industries. The governor shall allocate these appropriations to specific agencies based on increased agency ((operating)) expenditures and workload directly associated with the Everett home port. The governor may release to the specific agencies only the amount necessary to offset the directly incurred increased costs which have been documented by the agency.

(c) Any appropriation adjustments and actions that the governor has taken related to the Everett home port and pursuant to this appropriation shall be reported to the legislature on January 1, 1988, and January 1, 1989.

PART VIII MISCELLANEOUS

Sec. 801. Section 4, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 511, Laws of 1987 and RCW 67.70.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall have the power, and it shall be its duty:

(1) To promulgate such rules governing the establishment and operation of a state lottery as it deems necessary and desirable in order that such a lottery be initiated at the earliest feasible and practicable time, and in order that such lottery produce the maximum amount of net revenues for the state consonant with the dignity of the state and the general welfare of the people. Such rules shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(a) The type of lottery to be conducted which may include the selling of tickets or shares, or the use of electronic or mechanical devices or video terminals which do not require a printed ticket: PROVIDED, That approval of the legislature shall be required before entering any agreement with other state lotteries to conduct shared games;

(b) The price, or prices, of tickets or shares in the lottery;

(c) The numbers and sizes of the prizes on the winning tickets or shares;

(d) The manner of selecting the winning tickets or shares;

(e) The manner and time of payment of prizes to the holder of winning tickets or shares which, at the director's option, may be paid in lump sum amounts or installments over a period of years;

(f) The frequency of the drawings or selections of winning tickets or shares, without limitation;

(g) Without limit as to number, the type or types of locations at which tickets or shares may be sold;

(h) The method to be used in selling tickets or shares, which may include the use of electronic or mechanical devices and video terminals;

(i) The licensing of agents to sell or distribute tickets or shares, except that a person under the age of eighteen shall not be licensed as an agent;

(j) The manner and amount of compensation, if any, to be paid licensed sales agents necessary to provide for the adequate availability of tickets or shares to prospective buyers and for the convenience of the public;

(k) The apportionment of the total revenues accruing from the sale of lottery tickets or shares and from all other sources among: (i) The payment of prizes to the holders of winning tickets or shares, which shall not be less than forty-five percent of the gross annual revenue from such lottery, less amounts of unclaimed prizes deposited in the general fund under RCW 67.70.190 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1989, (ii) transfers to the lottery administrative account created by RCW 67.70.260, and (iii) transfer to the state's general fund. Transfers to the state general fund shall be made in compliance with RCW 43.01.050;

(l) Such other matters necessary or desirable for the efficient and economical operation and administration of the lottery and for the convenience of the purchasers of tickets or shares and the holders of winning tickets or shares.

(2) To ensure that in each place authorized to sell lottery tickets or shares, on the back of the ticket or share, and in any advertising or promotion there shall be conspicuously displayed an estimate of the probability of purchasing a winning ticket.

(3) To amend, repeal, or supplement any such rules from time to time as it deems necessary or desirable.

(4) To advise and make recommendations to the director for the operation and administration of the lottery.

Sec. 802. Section 19, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 511, Laws of 1987 and RCW 67.70.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Unclaimed prizes shall be retained in the state lottery account for the person entitled thereto for one hundred eighty days after the drawing in which the prize is won, or after the official end of the game for instant prizes. If no claim is made for the prize within this time, the prize shall be retained in the state lottery fund for further use as prizes, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, and all rights to the prize shall be extinguished.

(2) During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1989, moneys from unclaimed prizes shall be used as follows:

(a) Fifty percent of the moneys, not exceeding one million dollars, shall be deposited quarterly in the general fund.

(b) The remainder of the moneys shall be retained in the state lottery account for further use as prizes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 803. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 804. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately."

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: ESHB 1817

Facilitating public and private funding of local transportation improvements.

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Free Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that the measure be amended as proposed under the request for Free Conference and that the bill do pass as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

(See Report of Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1817, read in March 9, 1988.)

Signed by Senators Patterson, Bender, Nelson; Representatives Walk, Hine, Schmidt.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1817 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1817, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Thank you, Mr. President. Maybe someone can answer this question. This bill appears to me to be sort of a backdoor way of achieving sort of a tax increment financing. I've always opposed the concept of tax increment financing. This may not be it, but it is my opinion that it is, and if it isn't I would like to have somebody stand up and tell me that it isn't. I'm just going to vote 'no' on the bill unless I can feel comfortable on that point."

Senator Nelson: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. I want to assure everybody that this is not tax increment financing. This particular measure ends up allowing private property owners to finally get recognition for their donating property that up till now, cities, counties and the state government just simply go in and use their right of eminent domain and takes the property. What we are allowing now to have happen is a private public partnership, where the property owner gets credit for donating the property and can also participate by helping construct improvements in a sight location such as a shopping center or a housing development. There is no other activity involved as far as taxing is concerned. There is in the bill, of course, the same existing language relative to having LIDs and the rest, but I can assure you that this is not tax increment financing."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1817, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 2; absent, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McMullen, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 45.

Voting nay: Senators Metcalf, Rasmussen - 2.

Absent: Senator McDonald - 1.

Excused: Senator Moore - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1817, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

The House concurred in the Senate amendments to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1729 and has passed the bill as amended by the Senate.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

CALL OF THE SENATE

Senators Newhouse, Nelson and Zimmerman demanded a Call of the Senate and the demand was sustained.

A Call of the Senate was ordered.

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present, except Senator Moore who was excused earlier.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Under the Call of the Senate, no unauthorized personnel are allowed within the Senate Chamber or the adjoining offices. My question, Mr. President, is if a Senator requests a person to be brought into the Chamber, into their office, would that be an authorized presence?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That would be an authorized person, Senator."

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: ESHB 1420

Revising provisions on property taxes.

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Free Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that the measure be amended as proposed under the request for Free Conference and that the bill do pass as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

(See Revised Report of Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1420, read in March 9, 1988.)

Signed by Senators Cantu, Garrett, Lee: Representatives Appelwick, Haugen, Ferguson.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1420 be adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Lee, basically, if this bill doesn't pass, the potential is that the state would lose about thirty million dollars? Who would gain that? Would local government gain it or would it be a tax decrease for the people?"

Senator Lee: "Senator Metcalf, it would not be any kind of a tax decrease for the governmental--those persons living in governmental jurisdictions that would cause that to happen. It is possible that for a one-year period of time, because of a smaller--because of the uniformity provisions the state being forced to reduce its request for school money--that it might be a one-year decrease for certain property tax owners, but I would guarantee you that before that year was over, every local government would be in there sucking up that share once again. That's why we're making it for a one-year situation, so that we can sit down and try to work out the differences so that indeed does not happen."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Free Conference Committee Report on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1420.

The motion by Senator Nelson carried and the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1420 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1420, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1420, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 8; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Rinehart, Sellar, Smitherman, Talmadge, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 40.

Voting nay: Senators Bender, Metcalf, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Smith, Stratton, Warnke - 8.

Excused: Senator Moore - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1420, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Signed by Senators Barr, DeJarnatt, Bailey; Representatives Nealey, Rayburn, H. Sommers.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Barr, the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1594 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1594, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1594, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 48.

Excused: Senator Moore - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1594, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 10:14 a.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 11:39 a.m. by President Cherberg.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

The House suspended the rules, returned ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6221 to second reading, further amended the Committee amendment and passed the bill with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PART I DEFINITIONS

NEW SECTION, Sec. 101. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Acquired immunodeficiency syndrome" or "AIDS" means the clinical syndrome of HIV-related illness as defined by the board of health by rule.

(2) "Board" means the state board of health.

(3) "Department" means the department of social and health services, or any successor department with jurisdiction over public health matters.

(4) "Health care provider" means any person who is a member of a profession under RCW 18.130.040 or other person providing medical, nursing, psychological, or other health care services regulated by the department of licensing or the department of social and health services.

(5) "Health care facility" means a hospital, nursing home, neuropsychiatric or mental health facility, home health agency, hospice, child care agency, adult family home, group care facility, family foster home, clinic, blood bank, blood center, sperm bank, laboratory, or other social service or health care institution regulated or operated by the department of social and health services.

(6) "HIV-related condition" means any medical condition resulting from infection with HIV including, but not limited to, seropositivity for HIV.

(7) "Human immunodeficiency virus" or "HIV" means all HIV and HIV-related viruses which damage the cellular branch of the human immune or neurological systems and leave the infected person immunodeficient or neurologically impaired.

(8) "Test for a sexually transmitted disease" means a test approved by the board by rule.

(9) "Legal guardian" means a person appointed by a court to assume legal authority for another who has been found incompetent or, in the case of a minor, a person who has legal custody of the child.

(10) "Local public health officer" means the officer directing the county health department or his or her designee who has been given the responsibility and authority to protect the health of the public within his or her jurisdiction.

(11) "Person" includes any natural person, partnership, association, joint venture, trust, public or private corporation, or health facility.

(12) "Release of test results" means a written authorization for disclosure of any sexually transmitted disease test result which is signed, dated, and which specifies to whom disclosure is authorized and the time period during which the release is to be effective.

(13) "Sexually transmitted disease" means a bacterial, viral, fungal, or parasitic disease, determined by the board by rule to be sexually transmitted, to be a threat to the public health and welfare, and to be a disease for which a legitimate public interest will be served by providing for regulation and treatment. The board shall designate chancroid, gonorrhoea, granuloma inguinale, lymphogranuloma venereum, genital herpes simplex, chlamydia, nongonococcal urethritis (NGU), trachomitis, genital human papilloma virus infection, syphilis, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS), and human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) infection as sexually transmitted diseases, and shall consider the recommendations and classifications of the centers for disease control and other nationally recognized medical authorities in designating other diseases as sexually transmitted.

(14) "State public health officer" means the secretary of social and health services or an officer appointed by the secretary.

PART II

SEXUAL ABSTINENCE AND AVOIDANCE OF SUBSTANCE ABUSE

NEW SECTION, Sec. 201. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

Information directed to the general public and providing education regarding any sexually transmitted disease that is written, published, distributed, or used by any public entity, and all such information paid for, in whole or in part, with any public moneys shall give emphasis to the importance of sexual abstinence, sexual fidelity, and avoidance of substance abuse in controlling disease.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 202. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

All material directed to children in grades kindergarten through twelve and providing education regarding any sexually transmitted disease that is written, published, distributed, or used by any public entity, and all such information paid for, in whole or in part, with any public moneys shall give emphasis to the importance of sexual abstinence outside lawful marriage and avoidance of substance abuse in controlling disease.

PART III

CENTER FOR VOLUNTARY ACTION

Sec. 301. Section 5, chapter 11, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.150.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The center, working in cooperation with individuals, local groups, and organizations throughout the state, may undertake any program or activity for which funds are available which furthers the goals of this chapter. These programs and activities may include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Providing information about programs, activities, and resources of value to volunteers and to organizations operating or planning volunteer programs;
- (2) Sponsoring recognition events for outstanding individuals and organizations;
- (3) Facilitating the involvement of business, industry, government, and labor in community service and betterment;
- (4) Organizing, or assisting in the organization of, training workshops and conferences;
- (5) Publishing schedules of significant events, lists of published materials, accounts of successful programs and programming techniques, and other information concerning the field of volunteerism, and distributing this information broadly;
- (6) Reviewing the laws and rules of the state of Washington, and proposed changes therein, to determine their impact on the success of volunteer activities and programs, and recommending such changes as seem appropriate to ensure the achievement of the goals of this chapter;

(7) Providing information about agencies and individuals who are working to prevent the spread of the human immunodeficiency virus, as defined in chapter 70.24 RCW, and to agencies and individuals who are working to provide health and social services to persons with acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, as defined in chapter 70.24 RCW.

PART IV

AIDS EDUCATION IN THE COMMON SCHOOLS

NEW SECTION, Sec. 401. The legislature finds that the public schools provide a unique and appropriate setting for educating young people about the pathology and prevention of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS). The legislature recognizes that schools and communities vary throughout the state and that locally elected school directors should have a significant role in establishing a program of AIDS education in their districts.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 402. A new section is added to chapter 28A.05 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The life-threatening dangers of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) and its prevention shall be taught in the public schools of this state. AIDS prevention education shall be limited to the discussion of the life-threatening dangers of the disease, its spread, and prevention. Students shall receive such education at least once each school year beginning no later than the fifth grade.

(2) Each district board of directors shall adopt an AIDS prevention education program which is developed in consultation with teachers, administrators, parents, and other community members including, but not limited to, persons from medical, public health, and mental health organizations and agencies so long as the curricula and materials developed for use in the AIDS education program either (a) are the model curricula and resources under subsection (3) of this section, or (b) are developed by the school district and approved for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS established in section 602 of this act. If a district elects to use curricula developed by the school district, the district shall submit to the office on AIDS a copy of its curricula and an affidavit of medical accuracy stating that the material in the district-developed curricula has been compared to the model curricula for medical accuracy and that in the opinion of the district the district-developed materials are medically accurate. Upon submission of the affidavit and curricula, the district may use these materials until the approval procedure to be conducted by the office of AIDS has been completed.

(3) Model curricula and other resources available from the superintendent of public instruction through the state clearinghouse for educational information may be reviewed by the school district board of directors, in addition to materials designed locally, in developing the district's AIDS education program. The model curricula shall be reviewed for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS established in section 602 of this act within the department of social and health services.

(4) Each school district shall, at least one month before teaching AIDS prevention education in any classroom, conduct at least one presentation during weekend and evening hours for the parents and guardians of students concerning the curricula and materials that will be used for such education. The parents and guardians shall be notified by the school district of the presentation and that the curricula and materials are available for inspection. No student may be required to participate in AIDS prevention education if the student's parent or guardian, having attended one of the district presentations, objects in writing to the participation.

(5) The office of the superintendent of public instruction with the assistance of the office on AIDS shall update AIDS education curriculum material as newly discovered medical facts make it necessary.

(6) The curriculum for AIDS prevention education shall be designed to teach students which behaviors place a person dangerously at risk of infection with the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) and methods to avoid such risk including, at least:

(a) The dangers of drug abuse, especially that involving the use of hypodermic needles; and

(b) The dangers of sexual intercourse, with or without condoms.

(7) The program of AIDS prevention education shall stress the life-threatening dangers of contracting AIDS and shall stress that abstinence from sexual activity is the only certain means for the prevention of the spread or contraction of the AIDS virus through sexual contact. It shall also teach that condoms and other artificial means of birth control are not a certain means of preventing the spread of the AIDS virus and reliance on condoms puts a person at risk for exposure to the disease.

Sec. 403. Section 28A.05.010, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 232, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.05.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All common schools shall give instruction in reading, penmanship, orthography, written and mental arithmetic, geography, the history of the United States, English grammar, physiology and hygiene with special reference to the effects of alcoholic stimulants and narcotics on the human system, science with special reference to the environment, and such other studies as may be prescribed by rule or regulation of the state board of education. All teachers shall stress the importance of the cultivation of manners, the fundamental principles of honesty, honor, industry and economy, the minimum requisites for good health including the beneficial effect of physical exercise and methods to prevent exposure to and transmission of sexually transmitted diseases, and the worth of kindness to all living creatures and the land. The prevention of child abuse may be offered as part of the curriculum in the common schools.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 404. Sections 402 and 403 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1988.

PART V

AIDS EDUCATION IN COLLEGES, UNIVERSITIES, AND VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS

NEW SECTION, Sec. 501. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:

The governing board of each state four-year institution of higher education shall make information available to all newly matriculated students on methods of transmission of the human immunodeficiency virus and prevention of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome. The curricula and materials shall be reviewed for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS in coordination with the appropriate regional AIDS service network.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 502. A new section is added to chapter 28B.50 RCW to read as follows:

The state board for community college education shall make information available to all newly matriculated students on methods of transmission of the human immunodeficiency virus and prevention of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome. The curricula and materials shall be reviewed for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS in coordination with the appropriate regional AIDS service network.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 503. A new section is added to chapter 28C.04 RCW to read as follows:

Each publicly operated vocational school shall make information available to all newly matriculated students on methods of transmission of the human immunodeficiency virus and prevention of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome. The curricula and materials shall be reviewed for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS in coordination with the appropriate regional AIDS service network.

PART VI

AIDS TRAINING FOR EMPLOYEES

NEW SECTION, Sec. 601. The number of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) cases in the state may reach five thousand by 1991. This makes it necessary to provide our state's workforce with the resources and knowledge to deal with the epidemic. To ensure that accurate information is available to the state's work force, a clearinghouse for all technically correct educational materials related to AIDS should be created.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 602. There is established in the department an office on AIDS. If a department of health is created, the office on AIDS shall be transferred to the department of health, and its chief shall report directly to the secretary of health. The office on AIDS shall have as its chief a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW or a person experienced in public health who shall report directly to the assistant secretary for health. This office shall be the repository and clearinghouse for all education and training material related to the treatment, transmission, and prevention of AIDS. The office on AIDS shall have the responsibility for coordinating all publicly funded education and service activities related to AIDS. The University of Washington shall provide the office on AIDS with appropriate training and educational materials necessary to carry out its duties. The office on AIDS shall assist state agencies with information necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The department shall work with state and county agencies and specific employee and professional groups to provide information appropriate to their needs, and shall make educational materials available to private employers and encourage them to distribute this information to their employees.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 603. The department shall adopt rules that recommend appropriate education and training for licensed and certified emergency medical personnel under chapter 18.73 RCW on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The department shall require appropriate education or training as a condition of certification or license issuance or renewal.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 604. Each disciplining authority under chapter 18.130 RCW shall adopt rules that require appropriate education and training for licensees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The disciplining authorities shall work with the office on AIDS under section 602 of this act to develop the training and educational material necessary for health professionals.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 605. The state board of pharmacy shall adopt rules that require appropriate education and training for licensees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The board shall work with the office on AIDS under section 602 of this act to develop the training and educational material necessary for health professionals.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 606. The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules that require appropriate education and training, to be included as part of their present continuing education requirements, for public school employees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The superintendent of public instruction shall work with the office on AIDS under section 602 of this act to develop the educational and training material necessary for school employees.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 607. The state personnel board, the higher education personnel board, and each unit of local government shall determine whether any employees under their jurisdiction have a substantial likelihood of exposure in the course of their employment to the human immunodeficiency virus. If so, the agency or unit of government shall adopt rules requiring appropriate training and education for the employees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The rules shall specifically provide for such training and education for law enforcement, correctional, and health care workers. The state personnel board, the higher education personnel board, and each unit of local government shall work with the office on AIDS under section 602 of this act to develop the educational and training material necessary for employees.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 608. The department shall adopt rules requiring appropriate education and training of employees of state licensed or certified health care facilities. The education and training shall be on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS and shall not be required for employees who are covered by comparable rules adopted under other sections of this chapter. In adopting rules under this section, the department shall consider infection control standards and educational materials available from appropriate professional associations and professionally prepared publications.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 609. Sections 602 through 608 of this act are each added to chapter 70.24 RCW.

PART VII COUNSELING AND TESTING

NEW SECTION, Sec. 701. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Pretest counseling" means counseling aimed at helping the individual understand ways to reduce the risk of HIV infection, the nature and purpose of the tests, the significance of the results, and the potential dangers of the disease, and to assess the individual's ability to cope with the results.

(2) "Posttest counseling" means further counseling following testing usually directed toward increasing the individual's understanding of the human immunodeficiency virus infection, changing the individual's behavior, and, if necessary, encouraging the individual to notify persons with whom there has been contact capable of spreading HIV.

(3) "AIDS counseling" means counseling directed toward increasing the individual's understanding of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome and changing the individual's behavior.

(4) "HIV testing" means a test indicative of infection with the human immunodeficiency virus as specified by the board of health by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 702. No person may undergo HIV testing without the person's consent except:

(1) Pursuant to RCW 7.70.065 for incompetent persons;

(2) In seroprevalence studies where neither the persons whose blood is being tested know the test results nor the persons conducting the tests know who is undergoing testing;

(3) If the department of labor and industries determines that it is relevant, in which case payments made under Title 51 RCW may be conditioned on the taking of an HIV antibody test; or

(4) As otherwise expressly authorized by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 703. (1) Local health departments authorized under this chapter shall conduct or cause to be conducted pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling of all persons:

(a) Convicted of a sexual offense under chapter 9A.44 RCW;

(b) Convicted of prostitution or offenses relating to prostitution under chapter 9A.88 RCW; or

(c) Convicted of drug offenses under chapter 69.50 RCW if the court determines at the time of conviction that the related drug offense is one associated with the use of hypodermic needles.

(2) Such testing shall be conducted as soon as possible after sentencing and shall be so ordered by the sentencing judge.

(3) This section applies only to offenses committed after the effective date of this section.

(4) A law enforcement officer, fire fighter, health care provider, health care facility staff person, or other categories of employment determined by the board in rule to be at risk of substantial exposure to HIV, who has experienced a substantial exposure to another person's bodily fluids in the course of his or her employment, may request a state or local public health officer to order pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling for the person whose bodily fluids he or she has been exposed to. The person who is subject to the order shall be given written notice of the order promptly, personally, and confidentially, stating the grounds and provisions of the order, including the factual basis therefor. If the person who is subject to the order refuses to comply, the state or local public health officer may petition the superior court for a hearing. The standard of review for the order is whether substantial exposure occurred and whether that exposure presents a possible risk of transmission of the HIV virus as defined by the board by rule. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the court shall issue the appropriate order. The state or local public health officer shall perform counseling and testing under this subsection if he or she finds that the exposure was substantial and presents a possible risk as defined by the board of health by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 704. Local health departments, in cooperation with the regional AIDS services networks, shall make available voluntary testing and counseling services to all persons arrested for prostitution offenses under chapter 9A.88 RCW and drug offenses under chapter 69.50 RCW. Services shall include educational materials that outline the seriousness of AIDS and encourage voluntary participation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 705. (1) Every health care practitioner attending a pregnant woman or a person seeking treatment of a sexually transmitted disease shall insure that AIDS counseling of the patient is conducted.

(2) AIDS counseling shall be provided to each person in a drug treatment program under chapter 69.54 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 706. Jail administrators, with the approval of the local public health officer, may order pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling for persons detained in the jail if the local public health officer determines that actual or threatened behavior presents a possible risk to the staff, general public, or other persons. Approval of the local public health officer shall be based on section 909(3) of this act and may be contested through section 909(4) of this act. The administrator shall establish, pursuant to RCW 70.48.071, a procedure to document the possible risk which is the basis for the HIV testing. "Possible risk," as used in this section, shall be defined by the board in rule. Documentation of the behavior, or threat thereof, shall be reviewed with the person to try to assure that the person understands the basis for testing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 707. (1) Department of corrections facility administrators may order pretest counseling, HIV testing, and posttest counseling for inmates if the secretary of corrections or the secretary's designee determines that actual or threatened behavior presents a possible risk to the staff, general public, or other inmates. The department of corrections shall establish a procedure to document the possible risk which is the basis for the HIV testing. "Possible risk," as used in this section, shall be defined by the department of corrections after consultation with the board. Possible risk, as used in the documentation of the behavior, or threat thereof, shall be reviewed with the inmate.

(2) Department of corrections administrators and superintendents who are authorized to make decisions about testing and dissemination of test information shall, at least annually, participate in training seminars on public health considerations conducted by the assistant secretary for public health or her or his designee.

(3) Administrative hearing requirements set forth in chapter 34.04 RCW do not apply to the procedure developed by the department of corrections pursuant to this section. This section shall not be construed as requiring any hearing process except as may be required under existing federal constitutional law.

(4) Section 703 of this act does not apply to the department of corrections or to inmates in its custody or subject to its jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 708. By January 1, 1989, the secretary of corrections shall report to the legislature on the necessity of an AIDS-related segregation policy for all facilities under the director of the secretary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 709. The board of health shall adopt rules establishing minimum standards for pretest counseling, HIV testing, posttest counseling, and AIDS counseling.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 710. Sections 701 through 707 and 709 of this act are each added to chapter 70.24 RCW.

PART VIII REGIONAL AIDS SERVICE NETWORKS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 801. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall establish a state-wide system of regional acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) service networks as follows:

(1) The secretary of social and health services shall direct that all state or federal funds, excluding those from federal Title XIX for services or other activities authorized in this chapter, shall be allocated to the office on AIDS established in section 602 of this act. The secretary shall further direct that all funds for services and activities specified in subsection (3) of this section shall be provided to lead counties through contractual agreements based on plans developed as provided in subsection (2) of this section, unless direction of such funds is explicitly prohibited by federal law, federal regulation, or federal policy. The department shall deny funding allocations to lead counties only if the denial is based upon documented incidents of nonfeasance, misfeasance, or malfeasance. However, the department shall give written notice and thirty days for corrective action in incidents of misfeasance or nonfeasance before funding may be denied. The department shall designate six AIDS service network regions encompassing the state. In doing so, the department shall use the boundaries of the regional structures in place for the community services administration on January 1, 1988.

(2) The department shall request that a lead county within each region, which shall be the county with the largest population, prepare, through a cooperative effort of local health departments within the region, a regional organizational and service plan, which meets the requirements set forth in subsection (3) of this section. Efforts should be made to use existing plans, where appropriate. The plan should place emphasis on contracting with existing hospitals, major voluntary organizations, or health care organizations within a region that have in the past provided quality services similar to those mentioned in subsection (3) of this section and that have demonstrated an interest in providing any of the components listed in subsection (3) of this section. If any of the counties within a region do not participate, it shall be the lead county's responsibility to develop the part of the plan for the nonparticipating county or counties. If all of the counties within a region do not participate, the department shall assume the responsibility.

(3) The regional AIDS service network plan shall include the following components:

- (a) A designated single administrative or coordinating agency;
- (b) A complement of services to include:
 - (i) Voluntary and anonymous counseling and testing;
 - (ii) Mandatory testing and/or counseling services for certain individuals, as required by law;
 - (iii) Notification of sexual partners of infected persons, as required by law;
 - (iv) Education for the general public, health professionals, and high-risk groups;
 - (v) Intervention strategies to reduce the incidence of HIV infection among high-risk groups, possibly including needle sterilization and methadone maintenance;
 - (vi) Related community outreach services for runaway youth;
 - (vii) Case management;
 - (viii) Strategies for the development of volunteer networks;
 - (ix) Strategies for the coordination of related agencies within the network; and
 - (x) Other necessary information, including needs particular to the region;
- (c) A service delivery model that includes:
 - (i) Case management services; and
 - (ii) A community-based continuum-of-care model encompassing both medical, mental health, and social services with the goal of maintaining persons with AIDS in a home-like setting, to the extent possible, in the least-expensive manner; and
 - (d) Budget, caseload, and staffing projections.

(4) Efforts shall be made by both the counties and the department to use existing service delivery systems, where possible, in developing the networks.

(5) The University of Washington health science program, in cooperation with the office on AIDS may, within available resources, establish a center for AIDS education, which shall be linked to the networks. The center for AIDS education is not intended to engage in state-funded research related to HIV infection, AIDS, or HIV-related conditions. Its duties shall include providing the office on AIDS with the appropriate educational materials necessary to carry out that office's duties.

(6) The department shall implement this section, consistent with available funds, by October 1, 1988, by establishing six regional AIDS service networks whose combined jurisdictions shall include the entire state.

(a) Until June 30, 1991, available funding for each regional AIDS service network shall be allocated as follows:

(i) Seventy-five percent of the amount provided for regional AIDS service networks shall be allocated per capita based on the number of persons residing within each region, but in no case less than one hundred fifty thousand dollars for each regional AIDS service network per fiscal year. This amount shall be expended for testing, counseling, education, case management, notification of sexual partners of infected persons, planning, coordination, and other services required by law, except for those enumerated in (ii) of this subsection.

(ii) Twenty-five percent of the amount provided for regional AIDS service networks shall be allocated for intervention strategies specifically addressing groups that are at a high risk of being infected with the human immunodeficiency virus. The allocation shall be made by the office on AIDS based on documented need as specified in regional AIDS network plans.

(b) After June 30, 1991, the funding shall be allocated as provided by law. By December 15, 1990, the department shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature on proposed methods of funding regional AIDS service networks.

(7) The regional AIDS service networks shall be the official state regional agencies for AIDS information education and coordination of services. The state public health officer, as designated by the secretary of social and health services, shall make adequate efforts to publicize the existence and functions of the networks.

(8) If the department is not able to establish a network by an agreement solely with counties, it may contract with nonprofit agencies for any or all of the designated network responsibilities.

(9) The department, in establishing the networks, shall study mechanisms that could lead to reduced costs and/or increased access to services. The methods shall include capitation.

(10) The department shall reflect in its departmental biennial budget request the funds necessary to implement this section.

(11) The department shall submit an implementation plan to the appropriate committees of the legislature by July 1, 1988.

(12) The use of appropriate materials may be authorized by regional AIDS service networks in the prevention or control of HIV infection.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 802. The department shall study the need for community residential care for persons with AIDS, including facility size, staffing, and related community health and social services, and report its finding to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 15, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 803. To assist the secretary of social and health services in the development and implementation of AIDS programs, the governor shall appoint an AIDS advisory committee. Among its duties shall be a review of insurance problems as related to persons with AIDS. The committee shall terminate on June 30, 1991.

PART IX

CONTROL OF SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED DISEASES

NEW SECTION, Sec. 901. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature declares that sexually transmitted diseases constitute a serious and sometimes fatal threat to the public and individual health and welfare of the people of the state. The legislature finds that the incidence of sexually transmitted diseases is rising at an alarming rate and that these diseases result in significant social, health, and economic costs, including infant and maternal mortality, temporary and lifelong disability, and premature death. The legislature further finds that sexually transmitted diseases, by their nature, involve sensitive issues of privacy, and it is the intent of the legislature that all programs designed to deal with these diseases afford patients privacy, confidentiality, and dignity. The legislature also finds that medical knowledge and information about sexually transmitted diseases are rapidly changing. It is therefore the intent of the legislature to provide a program that is sufficiently flexible to meet emerging needs, deals efficiently and effectively with reducing the incidence of sexually transmitted diseases, and provides patients with a secure knowledge that information they provide will remain private and confidential.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 902. A new section is added to chapter 49.60 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of determining whether an unfair practice under this chapter has occurred, claims of discrimination based on actual or perceived HIV infection shall be evaluated in the same manner as other claims of discrimination based on sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to transactions with insurance entities, health service contractors, or health maintenance organizations subject to RCW 49.60.030 (1)(e) or 49.60.178 to prohibit fair discrimination on the basis of actual HIV infection status when bona fide statistical differences in risk or exposure have been substantiated.

(3) For the purposes of this chapter, "HIV" means the human immunodeficiency virus, and includes all HIV and HIV-related viruses which damage the cellular branch of the human immune system and leave the infected person immunodeficient.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 903. A new section is added to chapter 49.60 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person may require an individual to take an HIV test, as defined in chapter 70.24 RCW, as a condition of hiring, promotion, or continued employment unless the absence of HIV infection is a bona fide occupational qualification for the job in question.

(2) No person may discharge or fail or refuse to hire any individual, or segregate or classify any individual in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive that individual of employment opportunities or adversely affect his or her status as an employee, or otherwise discriminate against any individual with respect to compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment on the basis of the results of an HIV test unless the absence of HIV infection is a bona fide occupational qualification of the job in question.

(3) The absence of HIV infection as a bona fide occupational qualification exists when performance of a particular job can be shown to present a significant risk, as defined by the board of health by rule, of transmitting HIV infection to other persons, and there exists no means of eliminating the risk by restructuring the job.

(4) For the purpose of this chapter, any person who is actually infected with HIV, but is not disabled as a result of the infection, shall not be eligible for any benefits under the affirmative action provisions of chapter 49.74 RCW solely on the basis of such infection.

(5) Employers are immune from civil action for damages arising out of transmission of HIV to employees or to members of the public unless such transmission occurs as a result of the employer's gross negligence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 904. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person may disclose or be compelled to disclose the identity of any person who has investigated, considered, or requested a test or treatment for a sexually transmitted disease, except as authorized by this chapter.

(2) No person may disclose or be compelled to disclose the identity of any person upon whom a test for a sexually transmitted disease is performed, or the results of such a test or any information relating to diagnosis of or treatment for a sexually transmitted disease in a manner which permits identification of the subject of the test, diagnosis, or treatment except to the following persons:

(a) The subject of the test or the subject's legal representative for health care decisions in accordance with RCW 7.70.065, with the exception of such a representative of a minor child over fourteen years of age and otherwise competent;

(b) Any person who secures a specific release of test results executed by the subject of the test or the subject's legal representative for health care decisions in accordance with RCW 7.70.065, with the exception of such a representative of a minor child over fourteen years of age and otherwise competent;

(c) The state public health officer, a local public health officer, or the centers for disease control of the United States public health service in accordance with reporting requirements for a diagnosed case of a sexually transmitted disease;

(d) A health facility or health care provider that procures, processes, distributes, or uses: (i) A human body part, tissue, or blood from a deceased person with respect to medical information regarding that person; (ii) semen, including that provided prior to the effective date of this section, for the purpose of artificial insemination; or (iii) blood specimens;

(e) Any state or local public health officer conducting an investigation pursuant to section 909 of this act, provided that such record was obtained by means of court ordered HIV testing pursuant to section 703 or 909 of this act;

(f) A person allowed access to the record by a court order granted after application showing good cause therefor. In assessing good cause, the court shall weigh the public interest and the need for disclosure against the injury to the patient, to the physician-patient relationship, and to the treatment services. Upon the granting of the order, the court, in determining the extent to which any disclosure of all or any part of the record of any such test is necessary, shall impose appropriate safeguards against unauthorized disclosure. An order authorizing disclosure shall: (i) limit disclosure to those parts of the patient's record deemed essential to fulfill the objective for which the order was granted; (ii) limit disclosure to those persons whose need for information is the basis for the order; and (iii) include any other appropriate measures to keep disclosure to a minimum for the protection of the patient, the physician-patient relationship, and the treatment services, including but not limited to the written statement set forth in subsection (5) of this section:

(g) Persons who, because of their behavioral interaction with the infected individual, have been placed at risk for acquisition of a sexually transmitted disease, as provided in section 906 of this act, if the health officer or authorized representative believes that the exposed person was unaware that a risk of disease exposure existed and that the disclosure of the identity of the infected person is necessary:

(h) A law enforcement officer, fire fighter, health care provider, health care facility staff person, or other persons as defined by the board in rule pursuant to section 703(4) of this act, who has requested a test of a person whose bodily fluids he or she has been substantially exposed to, pursuant to section 703(4) of this act, if a state or local public health officer performs the test; and

(i) Claims management personnel employed by or associated with an insurer, health care service contractor, health maintenance organization, self-funded health plan, state-administered health care claims payer, or any other payer of health care claims where such disclosure is to be used solely for the prompt and accurate evaluation and payment of medical or related claims. Information released under this subsection shall be confidential and shall not be released or available to persons who are not involved in handling or determining medical claims payment.

(3) No person to whom the results of a test for a sexually transmitted disease have been disclosed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section may disclose the test results to another person except as authorized by that subsection.

(4) The release of sexually transmitted disease information regarding an offender, except as provided in subsection (2)(e) of this section, shall be governed as follows:

(a) The sexually transmitted disease status of a department of corrections offender shall be made available by department of corrections health care providers to a department of corrections superintendent or administrator as necessary for disease prevention or control and for protection of the safety and security of the staff, offenders, and the public. The information may be submitted to transporting officers and receiving facilities, including facilities that are not under the department of correction's jurisdiction.

(b) The sexually transmitted disease status of a person detained in a jail shall be made available by the local public health officer to a jail administrator as necessary for disease prevention or control and for protection of the safety and security of the staff, offenders, and the public. The information may be submitted to transporting officers and receiving facilities.

(c) Information regarding a department of corrections offender's sexually transmitted disease status is confidential and may be disclosed by a correctional superintendent or administrator or local jail administrator only as necessary for disease prevention or control and for protection of the safety and security of the staff, offenders, and the public. Unauthorized disclosure of this information to any person may result in disciplinary action, in addition to any other penalties as may be prescribed by law.

(5) Whenever disclosure is made pursuant to this section, it shall be accompanied by a statement in writing which includes the following or substantially similar language: "This information has been disclosed to you from records whose confidentiality is protected by state law. State law prohibits you from making any further disclosure of it without the specific written consent of the person to whom it pertains, or as otherwise permitted by state law. A general authorization for the release of medical or other information is NOT sufficient for this purpose." An oral disclosure shall be accompanied or followed by such a notice within ten days.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 905. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

The board shall establish reporting requirements for sexually transmitted diseases by rule. Reporting under this section may be required for such sexually transmitted diseases included under this chapter as the board finds appropriate.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 906. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The board shall adopt rules authorizing interviews and the state and local public health officers and their authorized representatives may interview, or cause to be interviewed, all persons infected with a sexually transmitted disease and all persons who, in accordance with standards adopted by the board by rule, are reasonably believed to be infected with such diseases for the purpose of investigating the source and spread of the diseases and for the purpose of ordering a person to submit to examination, counseling, or treatment as necessary for the protection of the public health and safety, subject to section 909 of this act.

(2) State and local public health officers or their authorized representatives shall investigate identified partners of persons infected with sexually transmitted diseases in accordance with procedures prescribed by the board.

(3) All information gathered in the course of contact investigation pursuant to this section shall be considered confidential.

(4) No person contacted under this section or reasonably believed to be infected with a sexually transmitted disease who reveals the name or names of sexual contacts during the course of an investigation shall be held liable in a civil action for such revelation, unless the revelation is made with a knowing or reckless disregard for the truth.

(5) Any person who knowingly or maliciously disseminates any false information or report concerning the existence of any sexually transmitted disease under this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor punishable as provided under RCW 9A.20.021.

Sec. 907. Section 6, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Diagnosis of a sexually transmitted disease in every instance must be confirmed by laboratory tests or examinations in a laboratory approved or conducted in accordance with procedures and such other requirements as may be established by the ((state)) board ((of health, before any person shall be isolated or committed to quarantine and before any person committed to quarantine shall be discharged therefrom)). Laboratories testing for HIV shall report anonymous HIV prevalence results to the department, for health statistics purposes, in a manner established by the board.

Sec. 908. Section 8, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of carrying out ~~((the provisions of))~~ this ~~((act))~~ chapter, the ~~((state))~~ board ~~((of health))~~ shall have the power and authority ~~((from time to time, to divide the state into such number of quarantine districts consisting of one or more counties or parts of counties or municipalities as it shall deem expedient, and to establish at such place or places as it shall deem necessary quarantine stations and clinics))~~ to designate facilities for the detention and treatment of persons found to be infected with a sexually transmitted disease and to ~~((establish))~~ designate any such ~~((quarantine station and clinic in connection with any county or city jail, or))~~ facility in any hospital or other public or private institution, other than a jail or correctional facility, having, or which may be provided with, such necessary detention, segregation, isolation, clinic and hospital facilities as may be required and prescribed by the board, and to enter into arrangements for the conduct of such ~~((quarantine stations and clinics))~~ facilities with the public officials or persons, associations, or corporations in charge of or maintaining and operating such institutions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 909. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the state and local public health officers or their authorized representatives may examine and counsel or cause to be examined and counseled persons reasonably believed to be infected with or to have been exposed to a sexually transmitted disease.

(2) Orders or restrictive measures directed to persons with a sexually transmitted disease shall be used as the last resort when other measures to protect the public health have failed, including reasonable efforts, which shall be documented, to obtain the voluntary cooperation of the person who may be subject to such an order. The orders and measures shall be applied serially with the least intrusive measures used first. The burden of proof shall be on the state or local public health officer to show that specified grounds exist for the issuance of the orders or restrictive measures and that the terms and conditions imposed are no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health.

(3) When the state or local public health officer within his or her respective jurisdiction knows or has reason to believe, because of direct medical knowledge or reliable testimony of others in a position to have direct knowledge of a person's behavior, that a person has a sexually transmitted disease and is engaging in specified conduct, as determined by the board by rule based upon generally accepted standards of medical and public health science, that endangers the public health, he or she shall conduct an investigation in accordance with procedures prescribed by the board to evaluate the specific facts alleged, if any, and the reliability and credibility of the person or persons providing such information and, if satisfied that the allegations are true, he or she may issue an order according to the following priority to:

(a) Order a person to submit to a medical examination or testing, seek counseling, or obtain medical treatment for curable diseases, or any combination of these, within a period of time determined by the public health officer, not to exceed fourteen days.

(b) Order a person to immediately cease and desist from specified conduct which endangers the health of others by imposing such restrictions upon the person as are necessary to prevent the specified conduct that endangers the health of others only if the public health officer has determined that clear and convincing evidence exists to believe that such person has been ordered to report for counseling as provided in (a) of this subsection and continues to demonstrate behavior which endangers the health of others. Any restriction shall be in writing, setting forth the name of the person to be restricted and the initial period of time, not to exceed three months, during which the order shall remain effective, the terms of the restrictions, and such other conditions as may be necessary to protect the public health. Restrictions shall be imposed in the least-restrictive manner necessary to protect the public health.

(4) (a) Upon the issuance of any order by the state or local public health officer or an authorized representative pursuant to subsection (3) of this section or section 703(4) of this act, such public health officer shall give written notice promptly, personally, and confidentially to the person who is the subject of the order stating the grounds and provisions of the order.

including the factual bases therefor, the evidence relied upon for proof of infection and dangerous behavior, and the likelihood of repetition of such behaviors in the absence of such an order, and notifying the person who is the subject of the order that, if he or she contests the order, he or she may appear at a judicial hearing on the enforceability of the order, to be held in superior court. He or she may have an attorney appear on his or her behalf in the hearing at public expense, if necessary. The hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of receipt of the notice, unless the person subject to the order agrees to comply. If the person contests the order, no invasive medical procedures shall be carried out prior to a hearing being held pursuant to this subsection. If the person does not contest the order within seventy-two hours of receiving it, and the person does not comply with the order within the time period specified for compliance with the order, the state or local public health officer may request a warrant be issued by the superior court to insure appearance at the hearing. The hearing shall be within seventy-two hours of the expiration date of the time specified for compliance with the original order. The burden of proof shall be on the public health officer to show by clear and convincing evidence that the specified grounds exist for the issuance of the order and for the need for compliance and that the terms and conditions imposed therein are no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the court shall issue appropriate orders affirming, modifying, or dismissing the order.

(b) If the superior court dismisses the order of the public health officer, the fact that the order was issued shall be expunged from the records of the department or local department of health.

(5) Any hearing conducted pursuant to this section shall be closed and confidential unless a public hearing is requested by the person who is the subject of the order, in which case the hearing will be conducted in open court. Unless in open hearing, any transcripts or records relating thereto shall also be confidential and may be sealed by the order of the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 910. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) When the procedures of section 909 of this act have been exhausted and the state or local public health officer, within his or her respective jurisdiction, knows or has reason to believe, because of medical information, that a person has a sexually transmitted disease and that the person continues to engage in behaviors that present an imminent danger to the public health as defined by the board by rule based upon generally accepted standards of medical and public health science, the public health officer may bring an action in superior court to detain the person in a facility designated by the board for a period of time necessary to accomplish a program of counseling and education, excluding any coercive techniques or procedures, designed to get the person to adopt nondangerous behavior. In no case may the period exceed ninety days under each order. The board shall establish, by rule, standards for counseling and education under this subsection. The public health officer shall request the prosecuting attorney to file such action in superior court. During that period, reasonable efforts will be made in a noncoercive manner to get the person to adopt nondangerous behavior.

(2) If an action is filed as outlined in subsection (1) of this section, the superior court, upon the petition of the prosecuting attorney, shall issue other appropriate court orders including, but not limited to, an order to take the person into custody immediately, for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours, and place him or her in a facility designated or approved by the board. The person who is the subject of the order shall be given written notice of the order promptly, personally, and confidentially, stating the grounds and provisions of the order, including the factual bases therefor, the evidence relied upon for proof of infection and dangerous behavior, and the likelihood of repetition of such behaviors in the absence of such an order, and notifying the person that if he or she refuses to comply with the order he or she may appear at a hearing to review the order and that he or she may have an attorney appear on his or her behalf in the hearing at public expense, if necessary. If the person contests testing or treatment, no invasive medical procedures shall be carried out prior to a hearing being held pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The hearing shall be conducted no later than forty-eight hours after the receipt of the order. The person who is subject to the order has a right to be present at the hearing and may have an attorney appear on his or her behalf in the hearing, at public expense if necessary. If the order being contested includes detention for a period of fourteen days or longer, the person shall also have the right to a trial by jury upon request. Upon conclusion of the hearing or trial by jury, the court shall issue appropriate orders.

The court may continue the hearing upon the request of the person who is subject to the order for good cause shown for no more than five additional judicial days. If a trial by jury is requested, the court, upon motion, may continue the hearing for no more than ten additional judicial days. During the pendency of the continuance, the court may order that the person contesting the order remain in detention or may place terms and conditions upon the person which the court deems appropriate to protect public health.

(4) The burden of proof shall be on the state or local public health officer to show by clear and convincing evidence that grounds exist for the issuance of any court order pursuant to subsection (2) or (3) of this section. If the superior court dismisses the order, the fact that the order was issued shall be expunged from the records of the state or local department of health.

(5) Any hearing conducted by the superior court pursuant to subsection (2) or (3) of this section shall be closed and confidential unless a public hearing is requested by the person who is the subject of the order, in which case the hearing will be conducted in open court. Unless in open hearing, any transcripts or records relating thereto shall also be confidential and may be sealed by order of the court.

(6) Any order entered by the superior court pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall impose terms and conditions no more restrictive than necessary to protect the public health.

Sec. 911. Section 5, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ~~((act))~~ chapter or any lawful rule ~~((or regulation made))~~ adopted by the ~~((state))~~ board ~~((of health))~~ pursuant to the authority herein granted, or who shall fail or refuse to obey any lawful order issued by any state, county or municipal public health officer, pursuant to the authority granted in this ~~((act))~~ chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a gross misdemeanor punishable as provided under RCW 9A.20.021.

Sec. 912. Section 1, chapter 164, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.24.110 are each amended to read as follows:

A minor fourteen years of age or older who may have come in contact with any ~~((venereal))~~ sexually transmitted disease or suspected ~~((venereal))~~ sexually transmitted disease may give consent to the furnishing of hospital, medical and surgical care related to the diagnosis or treatment of such disease. Such consent shall not be subject to disaffirmance because of minority. The consent of the parent, parents, or legal guardian of such minor shall not be necessary to authorize hospital, medical and surgical care related to such disease and such parent, parents, or legal guardian shall not be liable for payment for any care rendered pursuant to this section.

Sec. 913. Section 1, chapter 59, Laws of 1977 and RCW 70.24.120 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Venereal))~~ Sexually transmitted disease case investigators, upon specific authorization from a ~~((doctor))~~ physician, are hereby authorized to perform venipuncture or skin puncture on a person for the sole purpose of withdrawing blood for use in ~~((venereal))~~ sexually transmitted disease tests.

The term ~~((venereal))~~ sexually transmitted disease case investigator" shall mean only those persons who:

- (1) Are employed by public health authorities; and
- (2) Have been trained by a ~~((doctor))~~ physician in proper procedures to be employed when withdrawing blood in accordance with training requirements established by the department of social and health services; and
- (3) Possess a statement signed by the instructing ~~((doctor))~~ physician that the training required by subsection (2) of this section has been successfully completed.

The term ~~((doctor))~~ physician" means any person licensed under the provisions of chapters 18.57 or 18.71 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 914. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by a violation of this chapter shall have a right of action in superior court and may recover for each violation:

- (a) Against any person who negligently violates a provision of this chapter, one thousand dollars, or actual damages, whichever is greater, for each violation.
 - (b) Against any person who intentionally or recklessly violates a provision of this chapter, two thousand dollars, or actual damages, whichever is greater, for each violation.
 - (c) Reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.
 - (d) Such other relief, including an injunction, as the court may deem appropriate.
- (2) Any action under this chapter is barred unless the action is commenced within three years after the cause of action accrues.

(3) Nothing in this chapter limits the rights of the subject of a test for a sexually transmitted disease to recover damages or other relief under any other applicable law.

(4) Nothing in this chapter may be construed to impose civil liability or criminal sanction for disclosure of a test result for a sexually transmitted disease in accordance with any reporting requirement for a diagnosed case of sexually transmitted disease by the department or the centers for disease control of the United States public health service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 915. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

The board shall adopt such rules as are necessary to implement and enforce this chapter. Rules may also be adopted by the department of social and health services or the department of licensing for the purposes of this chapter. The rules may include procedures for taking appropriate action, in addition to any other penalty under this chapter, with regard to health care facilities or health care providers which violate this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter. The rules shall prescribe stringent safeguards to protect the confidentiality of the persons and records subject to this chapter. The procedures set forth in chapter 34.04 RCW apply to the administration of this chapter, except that in case of conflict between chapter 34.04 RCW and this chapter, the provisions of this chapter shall control.

Sec. 916. Section 5, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 as amended by section 2, chapter 324, Laws of 1987 and RCW 9A.36.021 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of assault in the second degree if he or she, under circumstances not amounting to assault in the first degree:

- (a) Intentionally assaults another and thereby inflicts substantial bodily harm; or
 - (b) Intentionally and unlawfully causes substantial bodily harm to an unborn quick child by intentionally and unlawfully inflicting any injury upon the mother of such child; or
 - (c) Assaults another with a deadly weapon; or
 - (d) With intent to inflict bodily harm, administers to or causes to be taken by another, poison, the human immunodeficiency virus as defined in chapter 70.24 RCW, or any other destructive or noxious substance; or
 - (e) With intent to inflict bodily harm, exposes or transmits human immunodeficiency virus as defined in chapter 70.24 RCW; or
 - (f) With intent to commit a felony, assaults another.
- (2) Assault in the second degree is a class B felony.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 917. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person who has a sexually transmitted disease, except HIV infection, when such person knows he or she is infected with such a disease and when such person has been informed that he or she may communicate the disease to another person through sexual intercourse, to have sexual intercourse with any other person, unless such other person has been informed of the presence of the sexually transmitted disease.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 918. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

Members of the state board of health and local boards of health, public health officers, and employees of the department of social and health services and local health departments are immune from civil action for damages arising out of the good faith performance of their duties as prescribed by this chapter, unless such performance constitutes gross negligence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 919. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter may be construed to require additional local funding of programs to treat communicable disease established as of the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 920. A new section is added to chapter 70.24 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter is intended to create a state-mandated liberty interest of any nature for offenders or inmates confined in department of corrections facilities or subject to the jurisdiction of the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 921. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 1, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.010;
- (2) Section 2, chapter 114, Laws of 1919, section 93, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.24.020;
- (3) Section 3, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.030;
- (4) Section 4, chapter 114, Laws of 1919 and RCW 70.24.040; and
- (5) Section 7, chapter 114, Laws of 1919, section 94, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.24.060.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 922. Sections 916 and 917 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1988.

PART X MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1001. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1002. Except as otherwise specifically provided, this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Deccio moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221.

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved that the question be divided and that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221, with the exception of Subsection (1) of Section No. 902, on page 18, lines 17 through 21.

Debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Newhouse that the question be divided regarding the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Newhouse to divide the question on the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221 carried by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 20.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Halsan, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Stratton, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 29.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bender, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Hansen, Kreidler, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Niemi, Rinehart, Smitherman, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 20.

The President declared the question divided.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Do I understand correctly that the motion presently before the body is to concur with the House amendment to subsection (1) of Section 902 on page 18, lines 17 through 21?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The motion is to concur with everything except that, Senator."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Deccio to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221, with the exception of subsection (1) of Section 902 on page 18, lines 17 through 21.

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Is the action now on the motion by Senator Deccio?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "It's on--"

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Deccio made the motion to concur and Senator Newhouse moved to divide the question. Now which one are we on?"

President Cherberg: "Senator Deccio's motion."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President. I believe there is still some confusion on the floor. I believe, if I understand correctly, the motion before us is to concur with all of the amendments except the amendment on page 18, lines 15 through 31. Is that correct?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Lines 17 through 21, Senator."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PULLEN

Senator Pullen: "I sense there is a lot of confusion, too. To clarify it, the motion before us is to concur in the relatively noncontroversial amendments. After we concur in those, then the fur will fly on the controversial one."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Deccio to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221, with the exception of subsection (1) of Section 902 on page 18, lines 17 through 21.

The motion by Senator Deccio carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221, with the exception of subsection (1) of Section 902 on page 18, lines 17 through 21.

The President declared the question before the Senate to the motion by Senator Deccio to concur in the House amendment to subsection (1) of Section 902 on page 18, lines 17 through 21 to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained. Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rinehart: "Senator Deccio, by voting 'yes' to concur in this amendment, will we, by adopting this provision, in any way alter the defenses available to employers or to others should they be accused of handicap discrimination on the basis of an HIV infection?"

Senator Deccio: "No Senator, all the defenses available in a handicap case, would be available to an employer or anyone else accused of discrimination against persons with an HIV infection."

Senator Rinehart: "Senator Deccio, by adopting this provision, are we giving people with an HIV infection a higher degree of protection against discrimination than any other person?"

Senator Deccio: "No, it is simply the intent to make certain that people with an HIV infection are treated the same as other people with conditions which may constitute a handicap under the state's discrimination laws. We've merely taken an existing law in WAC. We've not added anything new in order to deal with this section."

Further debated ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Deccio to concur in the remaining House amendment to subsection (1), Section 902 to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Deccio to concur in the remaining House amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221 failed by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 26.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Hansen, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Niemi, Rinehart, Smitherman, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 23.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Halsan, Hayner, Johnson, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Stratton, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 26.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Deccio, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221, with the exception of subsection (1) of Section 902 on page 18, lines 17 through 21, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

DISPENSE WITH CALL OF THE SENATE

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

MOTION

At 12:32 p.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by President Cherberg.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8757

by Senators Sellar, Lee, Newhouse, Saling, Deccio, Smitherman, Williams, Anderson, McMullen and Warnke

WHEREAS, The private sector business community is of vital importance to the state of Washington to ensure that employment opportunities are available and to ensure a high standard of living and quality of life for Washington citizens; and

WHEREAS, It is in the interest of the state of Washington to preserve a competitive economy dedicated to providing quality goods and services at fair and reasonable prices; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature recognizes the vital importance of not-for-profit organizations in providing community and charitable services that have not traditionally been commercially viable and that not-for-profit organizations enable citizens to cooperate to serve their communities; and

WHEREAS, In January, 1988, the office of the Secretary of State issued its "Preliminary Study Results" on nonprofit organizations in Washington and the Department of Revenue issued its research report on nonprofit organizations as to Washington state excise tax treatment; and

WHEREAS, In December, 1987, the Small Business Improvement Council issued its "Annual Report to the Governor and the Legislature," which report identified issues of concern to the small business community, and which specifically identified the issue of competition between for-profit and not-for-profit organizations; and

WHEREAS, It is now appropriate that the Legislature address concerns of both for-profit and not-for-profit organizations; and

WHEREAS, It is necessary to study the impact of tax and regulatory exemptions on for-profit and not-for-profit organizations;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, that a committee on for-profit and not-for-profit competition shall be established; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee shall be composed of the following members: Four members of the Senate, two appointed by each caucus; four members of for-profit organizations, two appointed by each caucus; four members of not-for-profit organizations, two appointed by each caucus; and four ex officio, nonvoting members from state government agencies, two appointed by each caucus; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee shall review the following areas:

- (1) The tax and regulatory advantages that accrue to for-profit and not-for-profit organizations;
- (2) The extent to which not-for-profit organizations engage in unrelated business activities;
- (3) The major areas in which competition exists between for-profit and not-for-profit organizations, together with the historical perspectives on such major areas of competition;
- (4) The manner in which both for-profit and not-for-profit organizations can cooperate to mitigate the problems generated by such competition;
- (5) What action, if any, should be taken by the Legislature to reduce such competition; and
- (6) Additional issues in this area which should be examined; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee shall be constituted not later than May 1, 1988, and shall convene its first meeting not later than June 1, 1988; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee shall report its initial findings and recommendations for scope of work to the Governor and the Legislature not later than January 1, 1989; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That it is intended that the committee shall make its final report and recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature not later than January 1, 1990; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That all executive branch agencies having expertise in the area of for-profit and not-for-profit competition, or which are impacted by the issue of such competition, shall cooperate with and provide such services as requested by the committee.

Senators Lee and Smitherman spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8757.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:

HOUSE BILL NO. 1418,

HOUSE BILL NO. 1558,

HOUSE BILL NO. 1695,

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4402.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Smitherman: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Over the past two years, one of the functions that I have held here in Olympia is the Bill Smitherman Eight Ball Tournament. The proceeds from those tournaments are always given to the Thurston County Food Bank. It's my way of saying and those who participate of saying that we believe that we owe this city something, that it's been good to us and we want to return something to it. With the permission of the body, I would like to give to Senator Mike Kreidler and Senator Stu Halsan checks and dollars in the amount of about three hundred thirty-five dollars that were the proceeds from that event and that's what we have this year, Mike. Last year we had approximately the same amount. Thank you."

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: E2SHB 1835

Providing for economic diversification in the Tri-Cities.

March 8, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Free Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that the measure be amended as proposed under the request for Free Conference and that the bill do pass as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

(See Report of Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1835, read in March 9, 1988.)

Signed by Senators Benitz, Williams, Lee; Representatives Ebersole, Grant, Hankins.

MOTION

Senator Lee moved that the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1835 be adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Smitherman: "Senator Lee, on page 18, at the beginning of Section 16 and in passages after that throughout, there's language that is very similar to what you find in the current bill that provides for distressed area funding. I was wondering, is there anything in this language that would set up a priority for the Tri-City area receiving money or is it just intended to clarify that they are also eligible for those types of considerations—the distressed area considerations?"

Senator Lee: "This language does not give them any priority over any other area that would qualify for distressed area consideration. The reason we needed special language here is because we got two counties involved and one of them by itself might not qualify for the distressed area designation, so this language was carefully worked out. It is somewhat different than what we passed, but we did pass the same concept in our original form of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Report of the Free Conference Committee Report on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1835.

The motion by Senator Lee carried and the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1835 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1835, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1835, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; absent, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 48.

Absent: Senator Bender - 1.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1835, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SSB 6157

Changing provisions relating to student learning objectives.

March 9, 1988

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Free Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that the measure be amended as proposed under the request for Free Conference and that the bill do pass as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

(See Report of Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6157, read in March 9, 1988.)

Signed by Senators Bailey, Rinehart, Kiskaddon: Representatives Peery, Spanel, Betzoff.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6157 was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senators Deccio, Hayner, McCaslin and Saling were excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bailey, you have a very sharp mind and are a very able person, have you found a shelf where they put these student learning objectives when they file them over there at the Superintendent's Office? They tell me that nobody can find that shelf and nobody looks at them."

Senator Bailey: "There may be some truth in that. I can't verify it, but I think there may be some truth in that statement."

Senator Rasmussen: "Maybe by adopting this, we can take another step next session."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6157, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6238, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the Free Conference Committee be relieved of further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 608.

*EDITOR'S NOTE: The Senate failed to adopt the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 608 and the bill was referred back to the Free Conference Committee on March 9, 1988.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion to relieve the Free Conference Committee of further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 608.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the Free Conference Committee was relieved of further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 608.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pullen, the Senate insists on its position regarding the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 608 and once again asks the House to concur therein.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8752

by Senators Warnke, Smitherman, Owen, Rinehart, Gaspard and von Reichbauer

WHEREAS, The Auburn High School Marching Band has been selected to march in the 1989 Tournament of Roses Centennial Parade in Pasadena, California, on January 2, 1989, the year Washington State celebrates its 100th birthday; and

WHEREAS, The band is one of only twenty-two bands selected to perform from more than five hundred applicants nation-wide; and

WHEREAS, The selection of the Auburn High School Marching Band has brought great recognition and honor to Washington State; and

WHEREAS, The talents of the marching band members will contribute significantly to the centennial celebration of our state; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of the city of Auburn are extremely proud of the marching band and of the invitation for the band to perform at the 1989 Tournament of Roses Centennial Parade; and

WHEREAS, The Auburn High School Marching Band members, parents, and administration will take an active role in the celebration of Washington's Centennial in 1989; and

WHEREAS, The Mayor of the city of Auburn has named 1988 "The Year of the Rose" in recognition of the band's achievements;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate honors the Auburn High School Marching Band for their achievements, demonstrated by their invitation to perform in the Tournament of Roses Centennial Parade; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Mayor of Auburn, to Band Director Dean Immel, and to each member of the Auburn High School Marching Band.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1849 and the pending motion by Senator Talmadge to reconsider the vote by which the Senate insists on its position regarding the Senate amendments, deferred March 9, 1988.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion for reconsideration of the vote by which the Senate insisted on its position regarding the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1849.

The motion for reconsideration carried.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, the motion that the Senate insists on its position regarding the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1849 was withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, the Senate receded from its amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1849.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1849, without the Senate amendments.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1849, without the Senate amendments, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 1; absent, 2; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 44.

Voting nay: Senator Zimmerman - 1.

Absent: Senators Sellar, West - 2.

Excused: Senators Deccio, McCaslin - 2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1849, without the Senate amendments, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Patterson, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8745

by Senators Patterson, Saling, Zimmerman, Nelson, Barr, Benitz, Rasmussen, Newhouse, Hansen, Bauer, Rinehart, Stratton, DeJarnatt, McCaslin, von Reichbauer, Sellar, Anderson, Bailey, Bender, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Niemi, Owen, Pullen, Smith, Smitherman, Talmadge, Vognlid, Warnke, West, Williams and Wojahn

WHEREAS, C. Clement French, who has passed away at the age of 86, has left an everlasting legacy to Washington State University and the nation's higher education system; and

WHEREAS, Dr. French, who served admirably as the sixth president of Washington State University will long be remembered for his unique ability to inspire harmony among the administration, staff and students; and

WHEREAS, This esteemed man, credited with the University's remarkable growth during his tenure from 1952 to 1966, played an important role in establishing Washington State University as a prominent institution of higher education; and

WHEREAS, Dr. French was a "clean desk man," a man of great efficiency, a man prompt in the resolution of tough issues; and

WHEREAS, He helped establish the Council of Presidents and served as president of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges, as well as chairman of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education; and

WHEREAS, Dr. French's numerous contributions to Washington State University specifically and to higher education in general will not soon be forgotten by the many people whose lives were enhanced by knowing him;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That on this day, we the members of the Senate of the state of Washington, take a moment to pay tribute to one of this state's most respected citizens; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this Resolution to Washington State University and to the members of Dr. French's family.

Senator Hayner spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8745.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8746

by Senators Kiskaddon, Stratton, Bailey and Garrett

WHEREAS, Foster care provides a family environment for children who are unable to stay in their natural homes; and

WHEREAS, More than four thousand five hundred children are in foster care as a result of some form of trauma, with forty-three percent of these children being behaviorally disturbed or developmentally disabled and in need of appropriate foster care resources which can minimize negative emotional and physical results; and

WHEREAS, Licensed private foster care agencies provide nearly one-half of the available foster care services, but these private agencies are reimbursed at a rate of less than one-third of the actual cost of providing foster care services; and

WHEREAS, Private foster care agencies are finding it necessary to reduce the services they provide, thereby jeopardizing the quantity and quality of foster care which is available in the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, that the Children and Family Services Committee shall conduct a study of the private foster care system to be completed by December 1, 1988; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the study shall include:

(1) A review of the cost of providing private foster care case management services;

(2) Alternatives to improve the ability of private foster care agencies to provide the services necessary to assist children in foster care, which should include the potential for interagency agreements to provide necessary services, examination and revision of statutes and regulations related to foster care, and a review of the experience of other states in private foster care funding; and

(3) Short-term and long-term goals and recommendations for a legislative approach to private foster care through the year 2000.

The study shall be conducted in cooperation with the Department of Social and Health Services to the extent departmental personnel and supportive services are available; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature before the commencement of the 1989 Legislative Session.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved that the following resolution be adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8750

by Senators Metcalf and Cantu

WHEREAS, There are many public and private marina facilities operating in various marketing areas in Washington State waters; and

WHEREAS, Public marinas are operated by many jurisdictions including public ports, cities, counties, and special districts; and

WHEREAS, Public and private marinas both provide services to the boating public; and

WHEREAS, In its regulatory and fiduciary capacity, the state of Washington should treat public and private marinas in an equitable manner; and

WHEREAS, Public marinas can create unfair competition by charging lower moorage rates;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate Committee on Environment and Natural Resources study marina issues, including questions of competition, equal treatment, public benefit and economic impact; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee study all aspects of marina fees, including tax and funding advantages of public marinas, actual costs of operation compared to private marina costs and methods to reduce unfair competition; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee prepare recommendations for consideration by the 1989 Legislature.

Senators Smitherman and Williams spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8750.

MOTION

Senator Williams moved that Senate Resolution 1988-8750 not be adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the positive motion by Senator Metcalf that Senate Resolution 1988-8750 be adopted.

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed and Senate Resolution 1988-8750 was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8744

by Senators Warnke, Smitherman, McMullen, Williams and Conner

WHEREAS, The state of Washington is a governmental entity that can guide, direct, and influence conditions affecting international trade, tourism, and investment; and

WHEREAS, The state of Washington has a primary interest in the assessment of the impact of international trade upon the economy of the state and to determine the appropriate role of state government; and

WHEREAS, The Lieutenant Governor has demonstrated throughout his years of service to the state a keen ability to understand international trade issues and to support actions by the Senate to encourage and promote international trade, tourism, and investment in Washington; and

WHEREAS, Past efforts of the Lieutenant Governor and of the Senate have expanded the scope and quantity of international trade, tourism, and investment which has resulted in increased economic activity, jobs, and revenues to the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Legislative Committee on Economic Development under RCW 44.52.010, chaired by the Lieutenant Governor, is directed to:

- (1) Assess the current level of international trade in the state, and the importance of that activity to the state's economic health;
- (2) Establish trading ties with countries which could provide markets for Washington products;
- (3) Identify products and services of particular interest to world markets, especially those that meet special or unusual needs of overseas customers and those that represent special or unusual resources within the state; and

(4) Recommend ways in which the Senate and the Lieutenant Governor can increase their contributions to the process and development of international trade; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee shall report to the Senate on the results of its activities under this resolution before the start of the 1989 Legislative Session; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Department of Trade and Economic Development, all Washington ports, all governmental units interested in international trade, state colleges and universities, and the private sector, are requested to cooperate and provide information to the committee in carrying out its responsibilities.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 10, 1988

Mr. President:

The House has adopted the Report of the Free Conference Committee on SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1640 and has passed the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Smith, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8739

by Senators Smith, Kreidler, Wojahn and Deccio

WHEREAS, The Senate of the state of Washington recognizes the growing importance of adult family homes in the state's long term care system; and

WHEREAS, Adult family homes provide an inexpensive alternative to institutional care and promote a high degree of independent living for residents; and

WHEREAS, The Senate recognizes that many adult family home residents may need special care to maintain their independence and good health; and

WHEREAS, The Senate recognizes that minimum standards in adult family homes are needed to ensure the safety and health of residents; and

WHEREAS, The current regulation of adult family homes may not be adequate to protect residents;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, that the Department of Social and Health Services, in consultation with the appropriate standing House of Representatives and Senate Committees on Health Care, shall conduct a study on the regulation of adult family homes; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the study shall analyze existing fire, health, and safety regulations to determine whether they are adequate or whether improved regulations are needed; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Department shall prepare a report to the Legislature of its findings and suggested legislation by December 1, 1988.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McMullen, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8774

by Senators McMullen, Conner, Metcalf and Nelson

WHEREAS, The citizens of the state of Washington recognize the recreational, ecological, and commercial value of Puget Sound; and

WHEREAS, The loading and barging of petroleum and other products that may be hazardous to Puget Sound and its shores has resulted in oil spills and in potentially damaging accidents; and

WHEREAS, The cost to the people of the Puget Sound area in time, dollars, and concern about the potential of damage to the waters, beaches, and wildlife of Puget Sound has been great, and continues at this time;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, that its legislative staff, in cooperation with the appropriate federal agencies, the Departments of Wildlife, Fisheries, Community Development, and Ecology, and the University of Washington College of Ocean and Fisheries Science, conduct a study of the potential for, and causes and effects of, oil spills in Puget Sound; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the results of the study, and recommendations based upon: (1) That study; (2) the results of the Model Oil Spill Contingency Plan prescribed by RCW 38.52.420; and (3) the results of the Oil Spill Damage Assessment Study mandated by chapter 479, Laws of 1987, be made to the 1989 Legislature to assist in the reduction of the chances that barge accidents involving petroleum or other hazardous materials will endanger the waters, shores, and wildlife of Puget Sound.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8706

by Senators Talmadge, Wojahn, Kreidler, Gaspard and Madsen

WHEREAS, Thousands of Jews were rescued from Nazi atrocities during World War II by the people of the Scandinavian countries; and

WHEREAS, "Thanks to Scandinavia, Inc." is a United States organization founded twenty-five years ago to commemorate the valiant efforts of the Scandinavians and to remind the citizens of the world of the noble efforts against the Holocaust; and

WHEREAS, "Thanks to Scandinavia, Inc." demonstrates our appreciation of these efforts by providing educational fellowships and scholarships in the United States to Scandinavian students;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington commends "Thanks to Scandinavia, Inc." for their charitable programs, and commends the people of Norway, Sweden, Finland, and Denmark for their courage and humanity so vividly demonstrated by the compassion they showed to the Jews fleeing the tyranny of the Nazi regime; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to "Thanks to Scandinavia, Inc."

Senator Zimmerman spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8706.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8777

by Senators Vognild, Newhouse, Lee and Warnke

WHEREAS, A strong and effective industrial insurance system is of great benefit to business, workers, and the state; and

WHEREAS, Any major changes in the industrial insurance system should be made with the best research available;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate Economic Development and Labor Committee conduct a study on the benefits and liabilities on group self-insurance for industrial insurance during the 1988 legislative interim; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the study shall assess the benefits and drawbacks of group self-insurance for business, workers, and the Department of Labor and Industries.

Senator Newhouse spoke to Senate Resolution 1988-8777.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8772

by Senators Wojahn, Rasmussen, Gaspard, Smitherman, Madsen, Warnke, von Reichbauer and Johnson

WHEREAS, Norman Fournier was born the thirteenth of fifteen children, graduated from Catholic University in Washington, D.C., with a bachelor's degree in social work, obtained a master's degree in social work from Fairfield University, and served his country as a first lieutenant in the United States Army stationed in Korea; and

WHEREAS, Norman and Clarice Fournier moved to Tacoma, Washington, in the late 1960's when Norman became head of the social work department for St. Joseph's Hospital; and

WHEREAS, Norman Fournier consistently devoted himself to those most acutely and chronically in need of mental health treatment, first under the auspices of the Comprehensive Mental Health Center in Pierce County, as Acting Mental Health Care Coordinator in Pierce County, and as Director of the Office of Involuntary Treatment in Pierce County for fourteen years; and

WHEREAS, Norman Fournier testified before the Washington Legislature in support of better commitment laws, was active in helping to enact and amend the Involuntary Treatment Act, and worked at all levels, from state-wide task forces to the local service level, to tackle and resolve mental health issues and to maintain a deep understanding and knowledge of what treatment in mental health was all about; and

WHEREAS, Norman Fournier worked unceasingly to implement his dream of providing a full array of mental health services, and as an administrator continued to participate as much as possible in directly providing mental health services; and

WHEREAS, Norman Fournier clearly recognized the danger of working with the volatile population of the mentally ill, and warned of the potential of increased violence when too many mentally ill went without adequate treatment; and

WHEREAS, Choosing to remain personally active instead of sending a subordinate to observe and counsel an unbalanced individual, Norman Fournier went on August 4, 1987, to the home of Henry Doyle, a man with whom he had spoken and whom he knew to have a history of mental illness, and while following standard procedure and after taking appropriate precautions, was fatally shot without warning by Mr. Doyle, who then took his own life; and

WHEREAS, Norman Fournier, at age 51, was the first mental health professional to be killed in Washington while performing services for the mentally ill; and

WHEREAS, Norman Fournier was named Social Worker of the Year by the Washington State Chapter of the Association of Social Workers, who remember him not only for his heroism in death, but for the inspiration, guidance, good humor, and compassion which he consistently exhibited to his co-workers, friends, family, and those who suffer from mental illness, and has been nominated as National Social Worker of the Year;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington extend its condolences to Norman's wife, Clarice, and his children, Bernadett, Michelle, and Phillip, and recognize, both with pride and sorrow, the outstanding contributions made by Norman Fournier to the improvement of treatment and services for the mentally ill in the state of Washington; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Clarice Fournier and to their children, Bernadette, Michelle, and Phillip, to Pierce County Executive Joe Stortini, to the Washington State Chapter of the Association of Social Workers, and to the National Association of Social Workers.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kreidler, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8769

by Senators Moore, Craswell and Kiskaddon

WHEREAS, Marriage is a civil contract which comes under the jurisdiction of the state; and

WHEREAS, The dissolution of marriage is also a civil action which comes under the jurisdiction of the state; and

WHEREAS, Marriage and the family are the basis of a strong, productive, and well-adjusted society; and

WHEREAS, Children are the usual result of marriage and in any proceeding for the dissolution of marriage the best interests of the children are the paramount concern of the judicial system; and

WHEREAS, There is a growing need for social services and facilities for children, who require guidance, care, control, protection, treatment, or rehabilitation; and

WHEREAS, Certain sectors of our government, such as the Department of Social and Health Services, are being overloaded with ever-increasing child-related cases; and

WHEREAS, Two-thirds of our state budget is being allocated toward children, and there is additional pressure on our state to allocate additional funds to children's progress, including victims' compensation, juvenile justice, child protection, and children's services; and

WHEREAS, Some would say our state's "no-fault" divorce laws are contributing to the multiplication of poverty-ridden, one-parent situations which are burdening our state budget; and

WHEREAS, Federal assistance for social services in our state is highly unlikely to increase due to the enormous fiscal deficit;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate recognizes that marriage is an institution of enormous importance to our state and that it should be protected; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate Children and Family Services Committee be instructed to conduct a thorough study of:

(1) The relationship between the disintegration of the family and a continually increasing need for state budget allocations to social services, facilities, and education for children;

(2) The ways in which the state may change its laws to further protect the institution of marriage; and

(3) The requirements for waiting periods and counseling prior to allowing persons to enter into marriage or grant a dissolution of marriage; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate Children and Family Services Committee shall report its findings regarding the relationship between the disintegration of the family and state budget allocation for children, the advisability of requirements for counseling and waiting periods for marriage or dissolution of marriage, together with recommendations for changes in existing laws to protect the institution of marriage, to the Legislature prior to December 1, 1988.

MOTION

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8775

by Senators von Reichbauer and Stratton

WHEREAS, The hobby of collecting, preserving, and maintaining motor vehicles of historic and special interest is recognized by the Legislature of the state of Washington as stated in RCW 46.16.310, 46.16.311, and 46.16.315; and

WHEREAS, The large number of Washington citizens engaging in the hobby of collecting, preserving, and maintaining motor vehicles of historic and special interest are contributing to the enjoyment and preservation of Washington's automotive memorabilia; and

WHEREAS, There are many vehicle-related activities such as car shows, swap meets, interclub meets, rallies, concours, and tours that feature these historical and special interest vehicles; and

WHEREAS, These activities are the focal point of healthful, outdoor, family-oriented recreation, often used for nonprofit and charitable causes; and

WHEREAS, There is a large segment of the citizenry of the great state of Washington who could gain pleasure and knowledge from a greater involvement in vehicle memorabilia and vehicle-related activities;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Washington State Senate assembled in Olympia, Washington, during this Fiftieth Legislative Session, that the members of the Senate declare the week of August 8 through August 14 as "Washington Historical and Special Interest Automobile Recognition Week"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a suitably prepared copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Secretary of the Senate for appropriate distribution.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8770

by Senators Wojahn, Warnke, Lee and Vognild

WHEREAS, State regulation of the cosmetology, barbering, and manicuring professions, and the institutions that provide training for these professions, was substantially changed in 1984 by the State Legislature through the enactment of the Washington Cosmetologists, Barbers, and Manicurists Act of 1984 in Chapter 208, Laws of 1984; and

WHEREAS, These professions are important components of the state's service sector; and

WHEREAS, The Senate recognizes the need to evaluate the effects of the 1984 Act on the quality of service provided by this industry to the citizens of the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Legislative Budget Committee shall conduct a study to evaluate the quality of service provided to the public by the cosmetology, barbering, and manicuring industry since the enactment of Chapter 208, Laws of 1984; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Legislative Budget Committee shall report its findings to the Senate Economic Development and Labor Committee by the commencement of the 1989 legislative session.

MOTION

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8778

by Senators von Reichbauer, Vognild, Hayner and Talmadge

WHEREAS, In 1980, the Senate Select Committee on Gubernatorial Appointments undertook a study of the Senate gubernatorial appointment confirmation process; and

WHEREAS, The Select Committee, appointed in 1980, submitted to the Senate recommendations for formalizing and strengthening the Senate confirmation process; and

WHEREAS, Several years have passed since the Senate last undertook a thorough review of the Senate gubernatorial appointment confirmation process;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the President of the Senate shall appoint three members of the majority caucus and two members of the minority caucus to serve on a Senate Select Committee on Gubernatorial Appointments, the chair of which shall be selected by the members of the committee; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Select Committee shall undertake a review and evaluation of legislation enacted since 1980 relating to the Senate gubernatorial appointment confirmation process; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Select Committee shall identify any and all issues or shortcomings in the Senate gubernatorial appointment confirmation process and recommend legislation designed to resolve or correct any of the issues or shortcomings identified; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Select Committee shall submit its findings and recommendation to the Senate at the commencement of the 1989 Legislative Session. The Select Committee shall cease to exist on the first day of the 1989 Legislative Session.

MOTION

At 3:12 p.m. on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 3:40 p.m. by President Cherberg.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Free Conference Committee was relieved of further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038.

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator McDonald moved to reconsider the vote by which the three amendments by Senators McDonald and Niemi on page 5, lines 26, 33 and 35, were adopted March 5, 1988.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator McDonald to reconsider the vote by which the three amendments by Senators McDonald and Niemi on page 5, lines 26, 33 and 35, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 were adopted.

The motion by Senator McDonald for reconsideration carried.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDonald, and there being no objection, the amendments by Senators McDonald and Niemi on page 5, lines 26, 33 and 35, were withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following amendments by Senators Vognild and McDonald were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 3, line 14, after "senate," insert "the administrator shall serve at the pleasure of the governor."

On page 7, line 1, after the period, add a new subsection to read as follows:

"(4) The board may authorize premium contributions for an employee and the employee's dependents. Such authorization shall require a vote of five members of the board for approval."

Renumber the remaining subsection accordingly.

On page 7, beginning on line 3, after "board," delete all material down to and including the period on line 10.

On page 9, line 7, after "authority" delete "may" and insert "shall"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules, was advanced the third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

SENATE RESOLUTION 1988-8776

by Senators von Reichbauer, Johnson, Gaspard, Madsen, Rasmussen, Smitherman, Warnke and Wojahn

WHEREAS, The Tacoma Stars Soccer Team has represented the state of Washington in the Major Indoor Soccer League (MISL) with a distinguished record last year by winning the Western Division and competing for the MISL Title; and

WHEREAS, The magnificent team set a league record by winning 18 out of 26 games on the road in 1987 and became the first team in MISL history to have four players who scored 40 or more goals and 70 or more points led by the "Lord of All Indoors," Steve Zungul who scored 89 points; and

WHEREAS, In 1987, the Tacoma Stars attracted 21,728 soccer fans to a Tacoma Dome game--the largest crowd in the world ever to see an indoor soccer team; and

WHEREAS, The Stars currently hold a second place standing after having placed a team record five players in the 1988 MISL All-Star Game; and

WHEREAS, Tacoma Stars Team members have not only shown their mastery of the aggressive and fast-moving sport of soccer, but have also demonstrated unselfish and generous commitment to community and charity programs throughout the state dedicated to the fight against drug abuse among Washington's youth; and

WHEREAS, Having addressed over 30,000 Washington students and teachers at nearly three hundred speaking engagements across the state with encouraging messages of triumph and self-mastery;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Tacoma Stars Soccer Team be honored and remembered by the Washington State Senate and citizens of this great state for their unforgettable mark left in history; and

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President introduced Mr. John Best, President of the Tacoma Stars, and Mr. Jimmy McAlister, the Coach of the Tacoma Stars.

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Mr. Best to address the Senate.

Coach McAlister presented President Cherberg with a Tacoma Stars jersey and then addressed the Senate.

The honored guests were escorted from the Senate Chamber and the committee was discharged.

MOTION

On page 1, after line 4, strike everything through "emergency," on page 27, line 27, and insert the following:

"PART 1 GENERAL GOVERNMENT

Sec. 101. Section 106, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Tacoma Union Station building stabilization and planning

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $1,000,000 of this appropriation is provided solely to prevent further deterioration of the Tacoma Union Station building. This may include, but is not limited to, providing a fire detection system, removing safety hazards, and programming necessary to implement these works.

(2) A maximum of $500,000 may be used for planning regarding future use of the Tacoma Union Station property to promote state economic development.

(3) The money in subsections (1) and (2) of this section is provided contingent upon a written legal agreement between the city of Tacoma and the state that (a) requires state approval of future uses and disposition of the Tacoma Union Station property and (b) gives the state the right of first refusal to assume the city of Tacoma's option to purchase the Tacoma Union Station property currently owned by the Burlington Northern company.

(4) $500,000 of this appropriation is provided solely for architectural plans and construction specifications for a state museum on the Union Station property.

(5) $400,000 of this appropriation is provided solely for purchase of the Union Station property. The appropriation in this subsection is contingent on a like amount being provided for this purpose from nonstate sources.

(6) $2,000,000 of this appropriation is provided solely for restoration of the rotunda of the Union Station building. The appropriation in this subsection is contingent on the city's agreement to exercise its option to purchase Union Station and the city's agreement to grant to the state the right of first refusal to assume the city's option to purchase the property should the city decide to withdraw from the project.

(7) The money in subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this section is provided contingent upon a written legal agreement between the city of Tacoma and the state that:

(a) The city obtain the state's approval for all decisions with respect to:

(i) Determining final ownership of Union Station itself;

(ii) Identifying appropriate uses for the site; and

(iii) Selecting consultants retained by the city under its contract with the state;

(b) The city consult with the state and, unless prohibited from doing so by terms of the United States general services administration lease, follow the state's recommendations in other significant decisions concerning the development of the Union Station properties, including but not limited to:

(i) Planning the development and redevelopment of the site to accommodate appropriate uses;

(ii) Obtaining financing for acquisition, development, or redevelopment of the property; and

(iii) Acquiring, leasing, subleasing, and/or reselling the property;

(c) If the city finds that it is not possible to follow the state's recommendations, the city will advise the state and allow the state a reasonable opportunity to comment; and

(d) The city shall obtain a public access easement from the United States general services administration or any other owner or lessee that will allow public access through the rotunda to any future state facility.

MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 317, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified);
- (2) Section 410, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified);
- (3) Section 716, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified); and
- (4) Section 871, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MOTION

Senator Williams moved that the following amendment to the amendment be adopted:

On page 3, after line 18, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 104. A new section is added to chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF GENERAL ADMINISTRATION
East capitol campus development

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The $50,700,000 appropriation from the Cap Campus Dev Acct is provided solely for the construction of a natural resources building on the unimproved state-owned property east of Capitol Way and west of Jefferson Avenue and construction of a multilevel parking structure on the state-owned property near Jefferson Avenue and Wheeler Street. No funds authorized in this subsection may be expended until the functions of the department of natural resources currently occupying the John A. Cherberg Building are moved to the interim location of the former J.C. Penney's building.

(2) The $12,000,000 appropriation from the St Bldg Constr Acct is provided solely for construction of a new state museum and visitor center. The state museum is to be constructed on the capitol campus between Capitol Way and Water Street. The new museum shall include an underground parking garage.

(3) The capitol campus design advisory committee is established as an advisory group to the capitol committee to review plans of design and landscaping of state capitol facilities and grounds, and to make recommendations that will contribute to the attainment of architectural, aesthetic, functional, and environmental excellence in the design and maintenance of the state capitol campus.

(a) The committee shall consist of the following persons who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the governor:

- (i) Two architects;
- (ii) A landscape architect; and
- (iii) An urban planner

(b) The committee shall also consist of two members of the house, one from each caucus, who shall be appointed by the speaker of the house, and two members of the senate, one from each caucus, who shall be appointed by the president of the senate.

(c) The committee shall review plans affecting the state capitol campus as they are developed by or for the capitol committee. The committee's review shall include:

- (i) The design build concept of contracting for public works projects;
- (ii) The design, siting, and grouping of state facilities on the capitol campus relative to the service needs of state government and the impact upon the local community's economy, environment, traffic patterns and other factors;
- (iii) The relationship of the overall state capitol plan to the respective comprehensive plans for long-range urban development of the cities of Olympia, Lacey and Tumwater, and Thurston county; and
- (iv) The overall landscaping plans, including planting proposals, placement of outdoor sculpture, and access to the capitol campus and buildings.

(d) The members of the committee shall be reimbursed accordingly for travel expenses as provided in chapters 43.03 and 44.04 RCW.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Williams, you have one piece of this amendment that I think is an excellent one and I hope that if this amendment is defeated that you will--and I would be glad to join you--in retaining the portion about the Capital Campus Design Advisory Committee. I think it's an essential thing that we have put off too long and have not done. I think, in fact, you were overly polite when you described the planning as haphazard. Could I ask you, if this measure is defeated, if you would be willing to submit that as an amendment, so that we can have a little more confidence in the kinds of things that are brought before us for funding?"

Senator Williams: "Yes, Senator Lee. In fact, it just got delivered to your desk. There's a separate amendment, which if this amendment fails, I would like to offer it, which sets up just the design committee."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Nelson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment on page 3, line 18, by Senator Williams to the amendment by Senator McDonald.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Senator Williams to the amendment by Senator McDonald and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 22; nays, 27.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Niemi, Owen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Talmadge, Vogtild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 22.

On motion of Senator McDonald, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 2041 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "The question I have, Senator McDonald, deals with funding for the Convention Center. Could you tell me which of these bills provides funding for the Convention Center; is it the one before us or is it a bill that will be coming subsequently?"

Senator McDonald: "It would be one that would be coming subsequently. The House Bill did not have the twenty-nine million dollars in it. Neither one of these did, and it will be a subsequent bill coming."

Senator Pullen: "Do you know the number of that bill?"

Senator McDonald: "2049, I'm told."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 2041, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 2041, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 14.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Madsen, McDonald, McMullen, Nelson, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 35.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Craswell, Fleming, Garrett, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Niemi, Sellar, Vognild, Warnke - 14.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 2041, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, Engrossed House Bill No. 2041, as amended by the Senate, was ordered immediately transmitted to the House of Representatives.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 10, 1988

Mr. President:

The House concurred in the Senate amendments to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 608 and passed the bill as amended by the Senate.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 10, 1988

Mr. President:

The House adheres to its position regarding its amendments to ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6221 and again asks the Senate to concur in the remaining amendment, and the same are herewith transmitted.

SHARON CASE, Assistant Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Deccio moved that the Senate do concur in the remaining amendment to subsection (1) of Section 902 on page 18, lines 17 through 21, to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221.

Debate ensued.

Senator Deccio demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Deccio to concur in the remaining House amendment to subsection (1) of Section 902 to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Deccio to concur in the remaining House amendment failed by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 26.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Hansen, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Niemi, Rinehart, Smitherman, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 23.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Halsan, Hayner, Johnson, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Stratton, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 26.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Deccio moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the Senate did not concur in the remaining House amendment and that this be made a special order of business at 11:59 p.m.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "A point of order, Mr. President. Senator Deccio made two motions. The move to reconsider and he also moved to make it a special order of business. I would submit that he could not make two motions simultaneously. The two motions are completely independent and not related."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your point is well taken, Senator Pullen."

Senator Deccio moved that the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which the motion to concur in the remaining House amendment failed.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, a point of order. Senator Deccio moved to immediately reconsider the vote. That was his motion and that question should be put at this time then. Rules provide that he has to immediately reconsider; he can't put it off to another time."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Deccio to immediately reconsider the vote by which the motion to concur in the remaining House amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221 failed to pass the Senate.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the motion to immediately reconsider the vote by which the motion to concur failed be deferred and it be made a special order of business at 11:59 p.m.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Was that a proper motion, Mr. President?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That depends on the body, Senator."

Senator Newhouse: "We have a motion before us to immediately reconsider."

President Cherberg: "And Senator Talmadge made his motion and the President put it."

Senator Newhouse: "What happens to Senator Deccio's motion?"

President Cherberg: "Senator Talmadge has moved that it be made a special order of business."

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "A point of order, Mr. President. The motion by Senator Deccio is of equal rank and should be placed first."

At 11:43 p.m., the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 11:57 p.m. by President Cherberg.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221 and the motion by Senator Deccio to immediately reconsider the vote by which the Senate failed to concur in the remaining House amendment, and the motion by Senator Talmadge to make the reconsideration motion a special order of business at 11:59 p.m.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling on Senator Newhouse's point of order, the President believes that Senator Deccio made the motion to immediately reconsider the vote by which the Senate did not concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221. Senator Talmadge then moved to make the reconsideration a special order of business at 11:59 p.m. The motion to reconsider by Senator Deccio is a privileged motion.

"Therefore, the President believes that the point of order raised by Senator Newhouse is well taken. The question before the body is the motion to reconsider by Senator Deccio."

The President then declared the question before the Senate to be sustaining the demand for a roll call which was made by Senator Rasmussen on the motion by Senator Deccio for reconsideration.

The demand for the roll call was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Deccio to reconsider the vote by which the motion to concur in the remaining House amendment to subsection (1) of Section 902 on page 18, lines 17 through 20, to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221 failed to pass the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Deccio to reconsider the vote by which the motion to concur failed carried by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 24.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Hansen, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Niemi, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 25.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Halsan, Hayner, Johnson, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smith, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 24.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Deccio to concur in the remaining House amendment to subsection (1) of Section 902 to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221, on reconsideration.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry. I don't recall anyone requesting a roll call. Someone may request a roll call, but if I remember correctly, I don't think anyone did."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your point is well taken."

Senator Deccio demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Mr. President, it appears to be past midnight and under the constitutional sixty-day session, I would contend that any actions that were passed after midnight are not valid under the Constitution. I realize the President has quite correctly, in the past, allowed the Legislature--the Senate--to go past a self-imposed deadline.

"For example, our most recent deadline was the five o'clock cutoff on Friday and you have, I believe, quite correctly allowed us to go past that deadline if we were acting on a bill at that time, but it would appear to me, there's quite a difference between a self-imposed deadline and a constitutional deadline and I would submit that approximately twenty years ago the Legislature used to stop the clocks at a minute before midnight and run hours or days past that point. The courts ruled that that was not a valid procedure when a bill was passed subsequent to that deadline and my point of parliamentary inquiry is whether the session is now over, since it does appear that the time is past midnight?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President is aware that we're past midnight, Senator Pullen, but precedent has indicated that we have always finished if a bill was in progress. We've always worked until a solution was arrived."

Senator Pullen: "Thank you, Mr. President. I appreciate the ruling. I would remind the President that an esteemed Senator by the name of George Clark refused to vote past midnight in a prior situation. I believe it was in 1982, because he contended that the session was over at midnight, so he ceased voting. I would like that particular incident to be subjected as a reminder for members of the Senate."

Further debated ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "A point of order, Mr. President. I think that Senator Hansen is wrong. You have to vote. You're under a Call of the Senate and if you don't vote, they'll wring it out of you. They'll put the Sergeants on your back."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your point is well taken, Senator Rasmussen."

DISPENSE WITH CALL OF THE SENATE

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Deccio to concur in the remaining House amendment to subsection (1) of Section 902 to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221, on reconsideration.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Deccio to concur in the remaining House amendment, on reconsideration, carried by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 23; absent, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Hansen, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Niemi, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 25.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Halsan, Hayner, Johnson, McCaslin, McDonald, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smith, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 23.

Absent: Senator Metcalf - 1.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "A point of parliamentary inquiry. For the record, could you tell me what time it is and what day it is?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Seven and a half minutes, by my watch, after twelve."

Senator Pullen: "And so it is Friday, March 11?"

President Cherberg: "All day, if it doesn't rain."

Senator Pullen: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would simply like the record to indicate, that in my own personal opinion, the session has ended, so I'm going to cease to vote on any further action tonight or this morning."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Would Senator Newhouse yield to a question?"

Senator Newhouse did not yield.

Senator McCaslin: "Would Senator Nelson yield to a question?"

Senator Nelson did not yield.

Senator McCaslin: "Would anybody yield to a question? Mr. President, are we under the three minute rule?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes."

Senator McCaslin: "Even though we are in an unconstitutional meeting, we still have rules?"

President Cherberg: "Yes sir."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6221, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 11; absent, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Rinehart, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn - 34.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Hayner, Patterson, Rasmussen, Sellar, Smith, Zimmerman - 11.

Absent: Senators McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Pullen - 4.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6221, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Deccio: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. It's been a long day and this has been a tough session and this has been a very difficult bill. There's been some real conscientious feelings on both sides and in the middle—I think that's where I was. I think that this is a piece of legislation we're going to be very happy that we passed today. It's going to be revisited. We're going to do some things to it that probably need to be done, maybe address some of the problems that Senator Smith talked about and others. But we do have a bill, a statewide policy, on how to battle the AIDS disease. This is the first one in the state and I want to thank everybody in the audience and those who voted for and against and particularly the people in the gallery who worked so hard to get this bill passed. I wish to express my appreciation. Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Stratton: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. I have had a lot of conversation directed toward the bouquet on my desk today. When you're sixty-one years old and you receive a balloon which says, 'You were great last night,' it creates, I am sure, some problems in people's minds. I thought at first I might run a contest to see who could come up with the best person who might have sent me this, but I want to clarify that in the minds of anyone who is concerned, before I have it taken from my desk. It was from the Democrat Caucus staff and that will relieve anyone's mind. Thank you."

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, after the enacting clause, insert:

"Sec. 201. Section 236, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

Referendum 27 and Referendum 38

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Up to sixteen full time equivalent staff per year (~~(in this act)~~) may be funded (~~(through)~~) from the reappropriation of Referendum 38 for the purpose of reviewing local water improvement accounts.

(2) The appropriation is provided solely for drought related municipal and industrial water supply projects.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, a point of order. I would raise the question of scope and object on this amendment. Substitute Senate Bill No. 6763 is an act relating to public school building construction, capital renovation, and additional projects at Washington State University. There was an amendment adopted to it, that is a no cost—I mean a no general fund cost—amendment by Senator Owen that has to do with the Wynoochee Fish Hatchery. The amendment by Senator Gaspard is an appropriation provided solely for drought related municipal and industrial water supply projects which is certainly outside of the scope of this bill, which is a very narrowly drawn bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, further consideration of the amendment by Senator Gaspard was deferred.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, after line 21, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. A new section is added to chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) to read as follows:

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, I would indeed raise the question of scope and object on this amendment. Once again, this is an amendment dealing with the Irwin Educational Building at the State School for the Blind. It has to do with roof repair, whereas this is an addition of state money and it does not fit, I believe, within the scope and object of the present bill for the same reasons I cited in the previous argument."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, further consideration of the second amendment by Senator Gaspard was deferred.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the following amendment be adopted:

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President and fellow members of the Senate. I would raise the question of scope and object on this amendment. The bill is called 'An Act Relating to Public School Building Construction and Capital Renovation and Additional Projects at Washington State University.' That's exactly what it deals with. This is a project dealing with the University of Washington. Meritorious as that may be, Senator Gaspard, I guess I would just say that had it not been for higher timber prices and a higher volume of timber sold, we would not be even dealing with these at this point. That has nothing to do with the scope and object ruling, Mr. President. I guess I would just say that this is outside of the scope and object of the bill, as I read it."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6763 be deferred.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the President rule on scope and object on the following remaining amendments on the desk to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6763:

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the sponsor of each of the amendments be permitted to speak to the amendments.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "A point of order, Mr. President. I would raise the point of order that all of the indicated amendments violate Rule 25. Rule 25, Mr. President, states, 'No bill shall embrace more than one subject and that shall be expressed in the title.' Both Senator Talmadge and Senator Halsan have virtually admitted in the comments that they made, that these amendments do violate Rule 25 and, therefore, in addition to the scope and object ruling, I would request a ruling on Rule 25."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION TO LIMIT DEBATE

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the following motion to limit debate was adopted:

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I move that the members of the Senate be allowed to speak only once and be limited to three minutes on each motion or amendment, except that the mover of the motion shall be allowed to open and close debate, and also that members be prohibited from yielding their time.

"This motion shall remain in effect through the First Special Session."

There being no objection, Senators Gaspard, Bauer and McMullen spoke to the amendments remaining on the desk, in response to the request of scope and object by Senator Nelson on those amendments.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge that further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6763 be deferred.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6763 was deferred.

At 8:57 p.m., the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 10:19 p.m. by President Cherberg.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6763, and the amendments to the bill, deferred earlier today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gaspard, and there being no objection, the amendments proposed earlier and those on the desk were withdrawn.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Revert" or "lapse" means the amount shall return to an unappropriated status.

(2) Letters and numbers in parenthesis following each project description are the unique project identifiers used throughout a project's duration to identify it.

PART 1

GENERAL GOVERNMENT

Sec. 101. Section 106, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Tacoma Union Station building stabilization and planning

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $1,000,000 of this appropriation is provided solely to prevent further deterioration of the Tacoma Union Station building. This may include, but is not limited to, providing a fire detection system, removing safety hazards, and programming necessary to implement these works.

(2) A maximum of $500,000 may be used for planning regarding future use of the Tacoma Union Station property to promote state economic development.

(3) The money in subsections (1) and (2) of this section is provided contingent upon a written legal agreement between the city of Tacoma and the state that (a) requires state approval of future uses and disposition of the Tacoma Union Station property and (b) gives the state the right of first refusal to assume the city of Tacoma's option to purchase the Tacoma Union Station property currently owned by the Burlington Northern company.

(4) $500,000 of this appropriation is provided solely for architectural plans and construction specifications for a state museum on the Union Station property.

(5) $400,000 of this appropriation is provided solely for purchase of the Union Station property. The appropriation in this subsection is contingent on a like amount being provided for this purpose from nonstate sources.

(6) $2,000,000 of this appropriation is provided solely for restoration of the rotunda of the Union Station building. The appropriation in this subsection is contingent on the city's agreement to exercise its option to purchase Union Station and the city's agreement to grant to the state the right of first refusal to assume the city's option to purchase the property should the city decide to withdraw from the project.

(7) The money in subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this section is provided contingent upon a written legal agreement between the city of Tacoma and the state that:

- (a) The city obtain the state's approval for all decisions with respect to:
 - (i) Determining final ownership of Union Station itself;
 - (ii) Identifying appropriate uses for the site; and
 - (iii) Selecting consultants retained by the city under its contract with the state;
- (b) The city consult with the state and, unless prohibited from doing so by terms of the United States general services administration lease, follow the state's recommendations in other significant decisions concerning the development of the Union Station properties, including but not limited to:
 - (i) Planning the development and redevelopment of the site to accommodate appropriate uses;
 - (ii) Obtaining financing for acquisition, development, or redevelopment of the property; and
 - (iii) Acquiring, leasing, subleasing, and/or reselling the property;
- (c) If the city finds that it is not possible to follow the state's recommendations, the city will advise the state and allow the state a reasonable opportunity to comment; and
- (d) The city shall obtain a public access easement from the United States general services administration or any other owner or lessee that will allow public access through the rotunda to any future state facility.

(1) The capitol campus design advisory committee is established as an advisory group to the capitol committee to review plans of design and landscaping of state capitol facilities and grounds, and to make recommendations that will contribute to the attainment of architectural, aesthetic, functional, and environmental excellence in the design and maintenance of the state capitol campus.

(2) The committee shall consist of the following persons who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the governor:

- (a) Two architects;
- (b) A landscape architect; and
- (c) An urban planner.

(3) The committee shall also consist of two members of the house of representatives, one from each caucus, who shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, and two members of the senate, one from each caucus, who shall be appointed by the president of the senate.

(4) The committee shall review plans affecting the state capitol campus as they are developed by or for the capitol committee. The committee's review shall include:

- (a) The design build concept of contracting for public works projects;
- (b) The design, siting, and grouping of state facilities on the capitol campus relative to the service needs of state government and the impact upon the local community's economy, environment, traffic patterns and other factors;

(c) The relationship of the overall state capitol plan to the respective comprehensive plans for long-range urban development of the cities of Olympia, Lacey, and Tumwater, and Thurston county; and

(d) The overall landscaping plans, including planting proposals, placement of outdoor sculpture, and access to the capitol campus and buildings.

(5) The members of the committee shall be reimbursed accordingly for travel expenses as provided in chapters 43.03 and 44.04 RCW.

MISCELLANEOUS

Sec. 901. Section 1, chapter 158, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 59, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.08.172 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established an account in the state treasury to be known as the "state capitol vehicle parking account". The director of the department of general administration shall establish an equitable and consistent employee parking rental fee for state owned or leased property, effective July 1, 1988. All fees shall take into account the market rate of comparable privately owned rental parking, as determined by the director. All unpledged parking rental income collected by the department of general administration from rental of parking space on the capitol grounds and the east capitol site shall be deposited in the "state capitol vehicle parking account". All earnings of investments of balances in the state capitol vehicle parking account shall be credited to the general fund.

The "state capitol vehicle parking account" shall be used to pay costs incurred in the operation, maintenance, regulation and enforcement of vehicle parking and parking facilities at the state capitol.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 317, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified);
- (2) Section 410, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified);
- (3) Section 716, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified); and

(4) Section 871, chapter 6, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 2057 was advanced to second reading and placed on the second reading calendar.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 2057, by Representatives Locke, Grimm, Bristow, and Hine

Providing for public facilities.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Smith moved that the following amendments by Senators Smith and von Reichbauer be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 18, line 19, following "same" insert:

": PROVIDED, That no such legislative body shall impose such a special excise tax without submitting a proposition authorizing such a tax to the voters and obtaining the approval of a majority of persons voting thereon."

On page 18, line 34, following "property" insert:

": PROVIDED, That no such legislative body shall impose such a special excise tax without submitting a proposition authorizing such a tax to the voters and obtaining the approval of a majority of persons voting thereon."

On page 19, line 31, following "same" insert:

": PROVIDED, That no such legislative body shall impose such a special excise tax without submitting a proposition authorizing such a tax to the voters and obtaining the approval of a majority of persons voting thereon."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Deccio, as I read this, it would indicate July 1, 1988, through December 31, 1992, inclusive, the rate shall be six percent. I don't think we leave anything to the local control. We're saying in this bill that a tax will be imposed and then we'll drop--and then it goes up to seven percent in the city of Seattle and two and eight-tenths in King County. We're imposing, on the local people, a tax from the state level and it's true it's going to go on the tourists. You were talking about local control. I don't think they have any option, they've got this tax that is going to be imposed by the state--collected by the state--as I read it. Maybe I'm reading it wrong."

Senator Deccio: "Senator Rasmussen, I'm only concerned in the bill that Senator Newhouse and I sponsored in order to take care of a situation in Yakima, which is New Section 21. I guess maybe the moving of all these amendments at one time is out of order, if they do deal with what you're saying is true. I've only looked at the section I'm interested in, which is a local special excise tax of two percent upon the furnishing of lodging by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, etc., so maybe the motion made by Senator Smith is out of order and these should be taken one by one, if what you're saying is correct."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senators Smith and von Reichbauer to Engrossed House Bill No. 2057.

The motion by Senator Smith failed and the amendments were not adopted.

MOTION

Senator von Reichbauer moved that the following amendment by Senators von Reichbauer and Gaspard be adopted:

On page 20, after line 10 insert:

"(5) Taxes levied and collected under this act shall not be used for a zero grade beach or other components of a wave pool or water slide constructed or acquired as a part of an indoor aquatic swimming facility in Pierce County."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators von Reichbauer and Gaspard to Engrossed House Bill No. 2057.

The motion by Senator von Reichbauer carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the rules be suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 2057, as amended by the Senate, be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill be placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McDonald, before the bill is advanced, there's a rather peculiar section in here. It's a New Section--'a public facilities district may be created in any county with three hundred thousand or more population'--and it provides that 'a public facilities district is a municipal corporation, an independent taxing authority within the meaning of Article VII.'"

Senator McDonald: "Senator Rasmussen, what page are you on?"

Senator Rasmussen: "On page 13 now, page 12 is where the start of it is, line 28, New Section 11. It goes on and would indicate a public facilities district, and this is that independent taxing district that's created with this New Section, will have a board of directors consisting of five members as follows: '(1) Two members appointed by the county legislative authority to serve for four-year staggered terms; (2) two members appointed by the city council to serve four-year staggered terms; and (3) one person to serve a four-year term who is selected by the other directors.' There's a little bit of inbreeding there.

"My concern, Senator McDonald, this would appear that we're creating in this bill, something that has never been in there before, this is a New Section. An independent taxing district, which is true, will go to the vote of the people. After that, after the people vote, there is no limit to what they can tax and I'm wondering what the reason is for having that in this bill? It's a little bit like that tax increment financing that the people turned down--a constitutional amendment--several times."

Senator McDonald: "Senator Rasmussen, my understanding is that they are limited in their taxation to the two percent hotel/motel tax and fifty cent--"

Senator Rasmussen: "No, this does not relate to that. The hotel/ motel tax is set by state law that's in this bill and the rate goes from the present three percent up to six and then up to seven percent. This is an entirely new taxing body that's being created with this New Section and I find it hard to understand what the reason for it is. Starting on page 11, and I may want to amend that out unless there's a satisfactory explanation."

Senator McDonald: "Senator Rasmussen, if you turn to page 14, New Section 14, it says--"(Time expires - three minute debate)

Senator Rasmussen: "Are his three minutes up or are mine? I'll sit down, Mr. President, and wait for the explanation. Thank you, that was a fast three minutes. I didn't know if you were combining it or not."

Senator McDonald: "Senator Rasmussen, I believe that if you look at New Section 14, you're going to see the taxing authority of that public facilities district is limited and I would not have voted for this if it were not limited to the two percent hotel/motel tax and the fifty cent tax for entertainment. I'll wander over there and we'll talk about this a little bit more in detail."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Nelson to suspend the rules and advance Engrossed House Bill No. 2057, as amended by the Senate, to third reading and final passage.

The motion by Senator Nelson carried and Engrossed House Bill No. 2057, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading and final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 2057, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 2057, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 17; absent, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McDonald, McMullen, Nelson, Owen, Rinehart, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Zimmerman - 30.

REMARKS BY SENATOR VOGNILD

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President. Before we Sine Die, I wanted to once again thank the President for the way you conduct this Senate, the way you hold the dignity of the Senate together and for your absolutely fair and impartial operations as Lieutenant Governor. Once again, thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BLUECHEL

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President, at this time I must say that I have been very impressed in watching you make your rulings. I've seen you struggle with what you consider to be the proper ruling and the fair ruling and my admiration for you has gone up tremendously since I've come to know you a little bit better. We all thank you for the wonderful job you've done for thirty-two years as Lieutenant Governor."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, you have conducted this body with great compassion, with a sense of humor and with dignity and I think the people of the state know you for what a great job you have done over the years and they have great admiration for you. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HANSEN

Senator Hansen: "Thank you, Governor. I want to say that your friendship is something I will never forget, but I think there is one beautiful lady that has brought you along for the thirty-three years you have been here. Betty, it's sure been a privilege to know you, and you're beautiful inside as well as out."

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGES ON SENATE BILLS
VETOED AND PARTIALLY VETOED1988 REGULAR SESSION AND FIRST SPECIAL SESSION

March 22, 1988

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 57 and 85, Senate Bill No. 5016, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to modifications of terminology resulting from the Rules of Appellate Procedure."

Sections 57 and 85 make technical corrections to existing laws which are repealed by other legislation which I have signed. I am vetoing section 57 because it would amend a section of existing law (RCW 72.33.240) that is repealed by Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1618, section 1007(24). I am vetoing section 85 because it would amend a section of existing law (RCW 87.03.410) that is repealed by Substitute House Bill No. 1297, section 15(20).

With the exception of sections 57 and 85, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 5016 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

March 24, 1988

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 4, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6024 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to rivers and streams in agricultural areas."

At this time, counties throughout the state are developing flood control management plans that will provide a comprehensive review of flood control issues. Section 4, however, includes a finding that the accumulation of sand and gravel in the state's river and stream beds substantially increases the risks of disastrous floods. Although sand and gravel removal are expected to be elements of these plans, other more environmentally sensitive methods should be encouraged and studied before the state begins implementing a response.

With the exception of section 4, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6024 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

March 24, 1988

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 9 and 10, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6235, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to allowing the State of Washington to receive capitalization grants from the federal government for the state revolving loan fund for financing water pollution control facilities and activities."

This bill would establish the water pollution control revolving fund to receive federal capitalization grants, state matching funds and other revenues. This fund would protect the state's surface and underground waters by providing loans to design, construct and improve water pollution control facilities and related activities.

Section 9 would create the water pollution control loan review committee to approve all loans prior to issuance. Technical and administrative criteria for evaluating loan applications are clearly spelled out in federal regulation. Creation of this committee places the Legislature in an administrative role and creates the possibility that loans will be evaluated on criteria other than technical merit. Finally, review of loan applications by the committee could result in slowing down the process. This will reduce local governments' certainty that multi-year construction projects will continue to receive funds.

Section 10 requires the Department of Ecology to follow the water quality account fund distribution schedule as established in RCW 70.146.060 when making loans through the revolving fund. Again, since this fund is utilizing federal moneys, federal law takes precedence in determining eligible projects. This section causes confusion by implying that the state's distribution schedule will be followed.

The water pollution control revolving fund is an important revenue source for financing continued protection of the state's waters for the health, safety, use, enjoyment, and economic benefit of its people.

With the exception of sections 9 and 10, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6235 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

March 24, 1988

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to the last paragraph of section 1, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6238, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the authority to administer selected federal safe drinking water act programs."

The first part of this Department of Ecology request bill authorizes the Departments of Ecology, Natural Resources, and Social and Health Services and the Gas Conservation Committee to carry out programs of the Federal Safe Drinking Water Act as amended in 1986.

The amendment added to the bill allows the State Board of Health to adopt drinking water regulations for systems not covered under federal law "if necessary" to protect the public health. Narrowly interpreted, this language could result in the state's inability to regulate certain drinking water supply practices. The difficulty in establishing a direct cause-and-effect relationship between each specific practice and larger public health concerns will make it difficult for the State Board of Health to prove that regulations are necessary to protect the public health. With over 5,000 small public water systems in our state not covered by the federal act, I am reluctant to significantly reduce the health regulatory authority and subject the department to legal challenges to prove the public health nexus for each system in court. I would hope motivation for this amendment could be resolved administratively or through legislative language which addresses the specific issue.

I believe the agency has the discretion to adopt appropriate regulations for systems not under federal jurisdiction and is not required to implement the federal regulations unless it independently determines the standards are appropriate for the small systems.

With the exception of the last paragraph of section 1, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6238 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

March 24, 1988

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 1, 2(a) through (e) and (g) through (j), Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6316 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the forfeiture of real property from the commercial sale or production of controlled substances and imitation controlled substances where a substantial nexus exists between the commercial production or sale of the substance and the real property and providing for the redistribution of proceeds from the sale of forfeited property."

The concept and consensus behind this bill was to provide law enforcement officials with an additional tool for seizing some of the financial booty invested in "real property" (land and buildings) which was acquired by illegal drug dealers as a result of, or to further, their activities. Examples might be houses used to grow marijuana products in substantial amounts or amphetamine manufacturing operations. Currently, the immense profits which can be realized from these illegal drug activities are so substantial that they overshadow the risk of apprehension and a prison term. The intention was to attach and forfeit some of the "real property" fruits of this illegal activity in the hope of removing some of the financial benefit.

Law enforcement officials currently have the statutory authority to seize "personal property" which is connected and used in illegal drug trafficking. The goal was to extend this same concept to "real property".

The language which is presented to me in this bill has, after its passage and upon thorough review, received rejection from the law enforcement community. Their analysis is that the bill, because of shifting the burden of proof and a number of other changes which were incorporated both for the existing "personal property" provisions and for the new "real property" provisions, would provide a net loss, rather than a gain, in their efforts to seize property related to illegal drug transactions. Specifically, the law enforcement community has indicated that the new law would effectively hinder their ability to seize personal property under existing statutes as well as making it impossible to seize "real property" except in rare cases.

I would encourage the Legislature and the law enforcement community to work together in the next session to again review this issue and attempt to pass a law which allows law enforcement to continue under existing law for the "personal property" forfeitures while adding new separate provisions for "real property" forfeitures.

It is appropriate to consider different safeguards and procedures for "real property" interests than for "personal property" interests. I believe law enforcement should have the burden of showing that the individuals were engaged in illegal drug transactions and that the property was related to the transactions. However, the individuals involved should have the burden of showing that they are the lawful owners of the property used in any manner to facilitate the illegal drug transaction. Given the large amounts of cash money involved and criminal necessity of hiding the fruits of their illegal activity, it is an unrealistic burden on law enforcement to prove more than the fact that individuals were criminally involved and that the property was used or acquired by those illegal means.

I have not vetoed the sections related to changing the distribution of funds received for personal property which is forfeited. This part of the bill is contained in section 2(f).

With the exception of sections 1, 2(a) through (e) and (g) through (j), Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6316 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

March 21, 1988

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 6354, entitled:
"AN ACT Relating to the definition of wages for industrial insurance purposes."

This bill requires that tips be included in the definition of wages for industrial insurance purposes. Similar language achieving the same result is included in section 12 of Engrossed House Bill No. 1396, which I am signing into law today. To avoid conflict between these two provisions and to minimize confusion in state statute, I have vetoed Senate Bill No. 6354.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

March 18, 1988

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 80, Senate Bill 6370, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to obsolete references involving state agencies."

Section 80 reenacts RCW 90.22.010, which was amended by both Chapter 109 and Chapter 506, Laws of 1987, without reference to each other. This same statute is amended and re-enacted by Section 6 of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill 6724, which I have signed into law. In order to avoid further confusion, I am vetoing section 80.

With the exception of section 80, Senate Bill 6370 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

March 24, 1988

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 1, Senate Bill No. 6397 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to forest fires."

Section 1 of this bill establishes a priority for the Department of Natural Resources to extinguish forest fires before determining if individuals or structures are at risk in neighboring properties. This is similar to language vetoed by me after the 1987 regular legislative session.

At that time, I stated that the direction this language gives to the department is confusing and inconsistent with the normal value we place on human life. I continue to believe this.

The remainder of this measure allows the department to clarify its duties with respect to fighting fires in conjunction with the services provided by rural fire districts. Section 2 states, in part, that "the department's primary mission is to protect forest land and to suppress forest fires." This policy statement offers the department greater flexibility when fighting a fire while providing a general direction for action.

With the exception of section 1, Senate Bill No. 6397 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

March 21, 1988

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6438 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to authorization for the utilities and transportation commission to approve tariffs for gas and electrical companies that include banded rates."

Substitute Senate Bill No. 6438, if signed, would result in an identical double amendment. This bill is identical to Engrossed House Bill No. 1581, which I am signing into law today. I have therefore vetoed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6438 to avoid duplication and confusion in statute.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

March 25, 1988

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6447, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to custodial interference."

This legislation would amend criminal provisions relating to custodial interference to include interference with visitation rights. I believe non-custodial parents deserve fair treatment when their visitation rights are abused or denied. I am sensitive, however, to those who believe that involving the police in settling non-violent visitation disputes is not the best approach. Police experience has shown that disputes over dates, times and conditions of child visitation are so common that any effort on behalf of the police to respond to calls of assistance in such disputes would very seriously reduce the ability of police and sheriff departments to respond to other calls. Police should intervene only when there are threats to the physical well-being of persons.

The four-hour grace period, allowed before police may intervene, is thought to account for the routine problems and delays that are common in family life. On the other hand, this grace period is likely to become a tool for harassment. Since non-custodial parents have less time with the children, the misuse of the four-hour period is likely to have a greater impact on them. More importantly, children are the ones who will be caught in the middle.

In January 1988, the Parenting Act was implemented (RCW 26.09.181 - 26.09-.280). This Act provides an alternative dispute resolution process to settle disagreements over visitation. The dispute resolution process has not had enough time to prove it can have a positive effect on reducing parental conflicts. In addition, the new Act does not use the terms "custodial parent" or parent with "visitation rights," rather it speaks in terms of parenting plans and residential parents. The use of the new terms and their concepts are at odds with this bill.

Nonetheless, a problem does exist. It results from human emotions and behavior, we all wish were easily dealt with. The courts do have the ability to deal with custodial/visitation conflicts through their civil contempt authority. A bill was introduced in the 1988 Legislative session which would have clarified and improved the ability of judges to cite people for contempt; unfortunately, it did not pass. It should be considered in next year's session as a step in addressing this issue.

This bill has other technical application problems in that many dissolution decrees do not specify exact hours and dates of visitation rights. The decree may say "reasonable visitation" or "every other weekend and every other holiday," but most do not specify when you start counting the holidays or weekends nor account for people who agree to skip days or readjust the schedule for conflicts. Even the few decrees which specify detailed terms, i.e. times of the day, week, place for exchange of the children, have difficulty in responding to the need for flexibility. The actual practice of the parties may be different from the written language. The Parenting Act attempts to set up means for resolving and adjusting to the changing circumstances of people's lives, along with specificity of time, date and places of the children's residence. These are all civil laws.

This bill is a criminal statute. We require different standards before the police and courts will arrest and charge crimes. The criminal law will be difficult to apply here. Law enforcement and the courts/juries will be unable to determine if an offense has occurred under the standards required of the criminal law, unless the decree is extremely inflexible. This approach is at odds with the philosophy of the Parenting Act which works to encourage cooperation and resolution, but with flexibility for changes, plus recourse to mediate when the parents are unable to agree. This bill, if signed, becomes criminal law. It commits the wrong resources and may hurt children more than help them.

For these reasons, I have vetoed Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6447.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 4, Senate Bill No. 6480 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to obstructing the taking of fish or wildlife."

This measure creates the crime of obstructing the taking of wildlife and provides penalties. In addition, section 4 includes this new crime under the current provisions of chapter 9A.46 RCW.

Chapter 9A.46 RCW is aimed at making unlawful the invasion of a person's privacy through repeated acts and threats intended to harass that individual. The statute also allows for enjoining such activities. Because section 2 of Senate Bill No. 6480 also allows for enjoining violations, reference to chapter 9A.46 RCW is redundant and clouds the purposes of that act.

With the exception of section 4, Senate Bill No. 6480 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

March 26, 1988

To the Honorable, the Senate
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 406, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6763, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to capital projects."

Section 406, Page 15, Superintendent of Public Instruction

This section provides funds for capital planning and transition purposes for Nine Mile Falls School District. The citizens of the school district have already provided levy money to be used in combination with state matching funds to cover the capital costs for constructing a new school. I have previously indicated my position on this issue, see my partial veto of section 412, page 43 of ReEngrossed Substitute House Bill No. 327, Chapter 6 Laws of Washington, 1987, 1st Special Session. However, in light of this new legislation, I have had the issue reviewed again. The issue has been discussed with the local Education Services District, the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Nine Mile Falls School District and others. I cannot find sufficient additional justification to cause me to view this policy issue differently and provide this enhanced state funding.

With the exception of section 406, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6763 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor
