The chief of the Washington state patrol shall furnish the index cross-reference record to the director, with reference to each driver involved in the reported accidents.

(2) The case record shall be maintained in two parts.

(a) One part shall be the employment driving record of the person. This chapter shall apply to any county or municipal corporation, or any political subdivision of the state of Washington, including district and municipal courts, except as otherwise provided by RCW 54.04.170, 54.04.180, and chapters 41.59, 47.64, and 53.18 RCW. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Public employer" means any officer, board, commission, council, or other person or body acting on behalf of any public body governed by this chapter as designated by RCW 41.56.020, or any subdivision of such public body. For the purposes of this section, the public employer of district and municipal court employees for wage-related matters is the respective county or municipal legislative authority, or person or body acting on behalf of the legislative authority, and the public employer for nonwage-related matters is the judge or judge's designee of the respective district or municipal court.

(2) "Public employee" means any employee of a public employer except any person (a) elected by popular vote, or (b) appointed to office pursuant to statute, ordinance or resolution for a specified term of office by the executive head or body of the public employer, or (c) whose duties as deputy, administrative assistant or secretary necessarily imply a confidential relationship to the executive head or body of the applicable bargaining unit, or any person elected by popular vote or appointed to office pursuant to statute, ordinance or resolution for a specified term of office by the executive head or body of the public employer, or (d) who is a personal assistant to a district or municipal judge or court commissioner. For the purpose of (d) of this subsection, no more than one assistant for each judge or commissioner may be excluded from a bargaining unit.

(3) "Bargaining representative" means any lawful organization which has as one of its primary purposes the representation of employees in their employment relations with employers.

(4) "Collective bargaining" means the performance of the mutual obligations of the public employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to meet at reasonable times, to confer and negotiate in good faith, and to execute a written agreement with respect to grievance procedures and collective negotiations on personnel matters, including wages, hours and working conditions, which may be peculiar to an appropriate bargaining unit of such public employer, except that by such obligation neither party shall be compelled to agree to a proposal or be required to make a concession unless otherwise provided in this chapter. In the case of the Washington state patrol, "collective bargaining" shall not include wages and wage-related matters.

(5) "Commission" means the public employment relations commission.

(6) "Executive director" means the executive director of the commission.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lee: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendment is outside the scope and object of the bill and would like to speak to that. I agree with Senator Warnke that this is a measure that, to say the least, is confusing. For some, we tried it one way last year to put these court employees all under the county and the Governor then vetoed it. This is coming back and saying, 'Well, for some purposes, you are under the county and for some purposes you are under the judges.' The third alternative would be to say, for all purposes, you are under the court. I think that particular alternative was not brought out here. The very fact that we're even talking about that is the very reason that it is beyond the scope and object of the bill. You can see the title has to add additional sections, in fact, for it to be considered. It is an issue that the Legislature needs to address, but it is beyond the scope and object of this bill, which makes very simple corrections—simply changing section numbers—so that the existing statutes will comply with the gubernatorial veto."

On motion of Senator Nelson, further consideration of House Bill No. 1330 was deferred.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1581, by Representatives Nelson, Miller, Todd, Barnes, Gallagher, Hankins, Jacobsen, Meyers, May, Brooks, Jesernig, Armstrong, Sutherland, Unsoeld, S. Wilson, Day and Dorn Permitting banded rate tariffs for natural gas and electric services.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1581 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Nelson, Puget Power has the highest rates. A lot of people are switching over, because the gas company claims that they can, by switching away from electric heat to gas, save half of the costs. Would this allow Puget Power to reduce rates in a competitive position with gas rates?"

Senator Nelson: "Senator Rasmussen, thank you for that question. What will occur here is that Puget Power and/or the gas company in any jurisdiction, can submit for approval to the Utilities and Transportation Commission, a rate for a given classification of delivery of service—a minimum rate and a maximum rate—and therefore be able to apply that rate based on conditions such as the availability of gas or the availability of electric power and reduce the rate to essentially pass on those cost-savings immediately to the people who are subscribers to either electric or gas service.

"Today, for either of those two utilities to now make a reduction, they have to go through a full blown rate and tariff hearing in front of the Commission, so this provides flexibility not only to the utility to reduce or raise rates within this maximum/minimum area, but to essentially provide that cost-savings to it's customers."

Senator Rasmussen: "One further question, in relation to that, I notice that gas and electric are included in there. This could make Puget file for a banded tariff and the gas company would too, and the consumer may benefit, because they get to fighting on lower rates?"

Senator Nelson: "Oh, I don't know if it's essentially fighting. Everybody has a choice as to which particular form of energy they wish to subscribe to. I might point out, Senator Rasmussen, that these utilities will not be able to apply for the use of banded rates until there's an approval procedure in place by the Utilities and Transportation Commission."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1581.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1581, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.

The legislature shall without unreasonable delay enact legislation creating and appropriating funds for a temporary county home rule commission of fifteen members. The commission shall draft five alternative county "Home Rule" charters, a copy of which shall be submitted to the legislative authority of each county, and shall be retained by the state in its permanent records. None of the alternative county home rule charters drafted by the commission shall expand county powers or rights beyond those powers or rights permitted by state law or the Constitution. As far as practical, all commissions created under this section shall be representative of major geographic areas of the state and the state's demographic distribution.

A single alternative charter may be submitted at an election to voters of any county for their approval and ratification, or rejection, upon either: (1) An ordinance adopted by the county legislative authority; or (2) the filing of a petition calling for an election which is signed by registered voters of the county equal in number to ten percent of the voters voting at the last preceding general election in the county. Upon approval and ratification of a charter by the voters of the county under this section, the charter shall become the organic law of the county.

MOTION

Senator Owen moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 9, after line 14, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. The correctional institutions at Shelton shall be subject to an inmate population limit of no more than one hundred thirty-three percent of the rated capacity for the entire facility."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Deccio, do you agree with the statement by Senator Owen that the federal government says that we should have single cells as a standard?"

Senator Deccio: "No, I can't agree with that, because we if do reach that situation where, if the facilities are overcrowded, what are we going to do? We're going to leave them out on the street or we're going to shove them out the back door and let them in through the front door. There are some of those who need to stay longer than would be the case if we shoved them out, because we needed the room. The federal government apparently doesn't believe in it either, because it's taking its over-crowded situation and they're going to lease cells from the state of Washington for a short period of time. Again, if we allow this amendment to pass, we're going to have to build some more institutions."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, that's my question. You led up to it, Senator Deccio. If we have enough vacant space that we can lease to the federal government, we certainly don't need to go to double ceiling. We can use that space that we built with the taxpayers money, for single ceiling. There isn't any shortage of space now that I know of. The Governor's proposing to raise money by renting the cells--the vacant cells that we have. Why don't we use those vacant cells then and that's all that Senator Owen's amendment would say, 'Use the vacant cells that we have, rather than try to make money on them.'"

Senator Deccio: "Senator Rasmussen, to further answer your question. Right now, that's not the problem. The lawsuit, that the Department of Corrections faces, is the reason for this bill. We're being sued, because there has been some double ceiling at Shelton. The purpose of the bill is to allow double ceiling all over the state. The renting, as I indicated just a moment ago, is only going to last eighteen months. We're no longer going to have any vacancies. The incarceration is going to increase to where we're going to have to go to double ceiling again--down the road or we're going to have to build some more facilities."

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senator Owen to Substitute House Bill No. 1271.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was adopted by the the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 24.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF HOUSE BILL

ESHB 1701 by Committee on Transportation (originally sponsored by Representatives Walk, Schmidt and Baugher) (by request of Office of Financial Management)

Adopting the supplemental transportation budget.

Referred to Committee on Transportation.

MOTION

At 5:19 p.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, March 1, 1988.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

FIFTY-FIRST DAY

MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Fleming, Hayner and West.

The Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, consisting of Pages Nick Davis and Spencer Ravsten, presented the Colors. Reverend Gary Fogelquist, pastor of the Lacey Seventh-Day Adventist Church, offered the prayer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the following colloquy was presented before the Journal of the previous day was approved.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WILLIAMS

Senator Williams: "As Senator Newhouse has indicated, yesterday this body took action on Engrossed House Bill No. 1581, which authorized banded rates for electric and gas utilities. Due to some confusion, a floor colloquy intended to clarify some concerns with the bill did not occur. I would like to request that the colloquy be entered in yesterday's record before we begin today's business."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator Benitz, in relation to Engrossed House Bill No. 1581, the competitively driven arrangements are one step in the transition to a more competitive marketplace. Such pricing flexibility can benefit all utility customers and is appropriate even in an otherwise regulated industry. What standards would be used to determine the minimum and maximum rate?"

Senator Benitz: "Senator Williams, the standards will be set by the UTC based on input from the parties. At the low end of the rate band, the rate should at least cover cost so that captive ratepayers don't subsidize competitive service. At the high end, the rate should prevent monopoly pricing."

Senator Williams: "One additional point Senator Benitz. I want to clarify something. The bill indicates that to prove effective competition, a utility must show competition from energy sources not regulated by the UTC. Is that intended to include consumer-owned utilities such as municipals, public utility districts, cooperatives or mutuals?"

Senator Benitz: "It is not."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Warnke would add district and municipal courts to the list of employers subject to the Public Employees Collective Bargaining Act and further defines employer for the purpose of distinguishing between wage-related and non wage-related matters.

(1) When any practitioner, professional school personnel, registered or licensed nurse, social service counselor, psychologist, pharmacist, licensed or certified child care providers or their employees, employee of the department, or juvenile probation officer has reasonable cause to believe that a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person has suffered abuse or neglect, he or she shall report such incident, or cause a report to be made, to the proper law enforcement agency or to the department as provided in RCW 26.44.040. The report shall be made at the first opportunity, but in no case longer than forty-eight hours after there is reasonable cause to believe that the child or adult has suffered abuse or neglect.

(2) Any other person who has reasonable cause to believe that a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person has suffered abuse or neglect may report such incident to the proper law enforcement agency or to the department of social and health services as provided in RCW 26.44.040.

(3) The department, upon receiving a report of an incident of abuse or neglect pursuant to this chapter, involving a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person who has died or has had physical injury or injuries inflicted upon him or her other than by accidental means or who has been subjected to sexual abuse, shall report such incident in writing to the proper law enforcement agency.

(4) Any law enforcement agency receiving a report of an incident of abuse or neglect pursuant to this chapter, involving a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person who has died or has had physical injury or injuries inflicted upon him or her other than by accidental means, or who has been subjected to sexual abuse, shall report such incident in writing as provided in RCW 26.44.040 to the proper county prosecutor or city attorney for appropriate action whenever the law enforcement agency's investigation reveals that a crime may have been committed. The law enforcement agency shall also notify the department of all reports received and the law enforcement agency's disposition of them.

Upon request, the department shall conduct such planning and consultation with those persons required to report under this section, with consultants designated by the department, if the department determines it is in the best interests of the child or developmentally disabled person. Information considered privileged by statute and not directly related to reports required by this section shall not be divulged without a valid written waiver of the privilege.

(7) Any case referred to the department by a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW on the basis of an expert medical opinion that child abuse, neglect, or sexual assault has occurred and that the child's safety will be seriously endangered if returned home, the department shall file a dependency petition unless a second licensed physician of the parents' choice believes that such expert medical opinion is incorrect. If the parents fail to designate a second physician, the department may make the selection. If a physician finds that a child has suffered abuse or neglect but that such abuse or neglect does not constitute imminent danger to the child's health or safety, and the department agrees with the physician's assessment, the child may be left in the parents' home while the department proceeds with reasonable efforts to remedy parenting deficiencies.

(8) Persons or agencies exchanging information under subsection (6) of this section shall not further disseminate or release the information except as authorized by state or federal statute. Violation of this subsection is a misdemeanor.

The interviews may be conducted on school premises, at day-care facilities, at the child's home, or at other suitable locations outside of the presence of parents. Parental notification of the interview shall occur at the earliest possible point in the investigation that will not jeopardize the safety or protection of the child or the course of the investigation. Prior to commencing the interview the department or law enforcement agency shall determine whether the child wishes a third party to be present for the interview and, if so, shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate the child's wishes. Unless the child objects, the department or law enforcement agency shall make reasonable efforts to include a third party in any interview so long as the presence of the third party will not jeopardize the course of the investigation.

(10) Upon receiving a report of incidents, conditions, or circumstances of child abuse and neglect, the department shall have access to all relevant records of the child in the possession of mandated reporters and their employees.

(11) The department shall maintain investigation records and conduct timely and periodic reviews of all cases constituting abuse and neglect. The department shall maintain a log of screened-out nonabusive cases.

(12) The department of social and health services shall, within funds appropriated for this purpose, use a risk assessment tool when investigating child abuse and neglect referrals. The tool shall be used, on a pilot basis, in three local office service areas. The department shall, within funds appropriated for this purpose, offer enhanced community-based services to persons who are determined not to require further state intervention.

The department shall report to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives on the use of the tool by December 1, 1988. The report shall include recommendations on the continued use and possible expanded use of the tool.

(13) Upon receipt of such report the law enforcement agency may arrange to interview the person making the report and any collateral sources to determine if any malice is involved in the reporting.

Sec. 3, Section 6, chapter 13, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 9, chapter 129, Laws of 1982 and RCW 26.44.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, any person participating in good faith in the making of a report pursuant to this chapter or testifying as to alleged child abuse or neglect in a judicial proceeding shall in so doing be immune from any liability arising out of such reporting or testifying under any law of this state or its political subdivisions.

(b) A person convicted of a violation of subsection (4) of this section shall not be immune from liability under (a) of this subsection.

(2) An administrator of a hospital or similar institution or any physician licensed pursuant to chapters 18.71 or 18.57 RCW taking a child into custody pursuant to RCW 26.44.056 shall not be subject to criminal or civil liability for such taking into custody.

(3) Conduct conforming with the reporting requirements of this chapter shall not be deemed a violation of the confidential communication privilege of RCW 5.60.060 (3) and (4), 18.53.200 and 18.83.110. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as to supersede or abridge remedies provided in chapter 4.92 RCW.

(4) A person who, intentionally and in bad faith or maliciously, knowingly makes a false report of abuse or neglect shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable in accordance with RCW 9A.20.021."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Pullen, I want to make certain, in dealing with this bill, there is a definition contained in the bill of what is malice or acting maliciously and it indicates in the bill that a person has to intentionally and in bad faith or maliciously and knowingly make a false report before the penalty of this bill applies. If you have a set of circumstances where someone believes, in good faith, that child abuse is occurring--they believe through whatever circumstances are present--that that is true and they make a report to a law enforcement agency that in their view, child abuse has occurred, be that by a professional, or a neighbor or whoever, and it turns out that no child abuse has, in fact, been present in that set of circumstances. That would not provide, in my judgment and I hope in your judgment, for the penalties of this bill applying?"

Senator Pullen: "No, Senator Talmadge, it would not. Subsection (19) Section 1, clearly defines malice as meaning an evil intent, wish or design to vex, annoy or injure another person. In the circumstance you describe, those elements clearly were not there. There's a further protection in subsection (13) of Section 2, which provides that a law enforcement agency can arrange to interview the person making the report to determine if there was malice involved in the reporting. In the circumstances you describe, there would be no question, in my mind, that the conclusion would be that there was no malice."

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, one last question, Senator. This bill is not intended in any way to require CPS or people in the Department of Social and Health Services to weigh whether or not malice or anything of that sort was present in the situation involving a report of child abuse?"

Senator Pullen: "No, law enforcement might have to weigh that question, but not CPS or DSHS personnel."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 608, as amended by the Senate.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 608, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 16; excused, 1.

Relating to rental payments to landlords from public assistance.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Nelson, the following Committee on Governmental Operations amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) Persons receiving public assistance, particularly families, frequently have great difficulty obtaining adequate housing. The department of social and health services is directed to conduct a pilot program designed to show whether the supply of housing for persons on public assistance would increase if the department made rental payments directly to landlords.

(2) The department shall solicit not fewer than three nor more than seven local governing bodies for participation in the pilot program. In implementing this program the department shall:

(a) Provide a written statement notifying the recipient of public assistance that the landlord may not legally require direct payment from the department;

(b) Upon written request of the recipient pay to the recipient's landlord as defined in RCW 59.18.030, through the local governing body, that portion that equals ninety percent of the monthly public assistance grant which is allocated for rent in the department's payment standard under RCW 74.04.770 or ninety percent of the rent, whichever is less. No direct payment shall be made for rent of premises with respect to which the landlord is not in compliance with RCW 59.18.060;

(c) Promptly terminate such payments to the landlord upon the recipient's written request, provided that the recipient gives written notice of termination of direct payments to the landlord and the local governing body;

(d) Enter into an agreement with the local governing bodies selected to participate in the pilot program for the direct payment of rent to landlords.

(3) The local governing bodies selected to participate in the pilot program shall:

(a) Administer the pilot program using existing housing assistance providers, where appropriate;

(b) Charge the landlord a monthly fee of two dollars to cover the cost of administering each direct payment made under this section, which fee shall not be charged to the tenant;

(c) Charge the landlord a fee, up to fifty dollars, to cover the cost of inspecting and certifying that the housing unit is in compliance with the housing quality standards used for the United States department of housing and urban development, section eight existing housing program.

(4) The landlords participating in the pilot program shall mail to the secretary and the local governing body, by certified mail, a copy of any notice served upon the tenant under RCW 59.12.030 or 59.18.200 which terminates the tenancy. The notice, when mailed to the secretary and the local governing body, shall constitute the landlord's request that the secretary and local governing body cease making direct payments of rent to the landlord.

(5) No recipient of public assistance shall be liable to the department of social and health services for any amount incorrectly paid to a landlord under this section. The department shall recover such overpayment from the landlord under RCW 74.04.700.

(6) The department of social and health services shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW regarding the pilot program.

(7) The secretary may include in the department's annual report to the governor and the legislature a summary of the progress and status of the pilot program. The summary shall include but need not be limited to the results of the individual projects selected, the number of persons served, and recommendations for improving the program.

(8) The secretary shall immediately take such steps as are necessary to ensure that this section is implemented on its effective date. This section shall take effect July 1, 1988.

(9) This section shall terminate June 30, 1991, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time."

On motion of Senator Nelson, the following title amendment was adopted:

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 932 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator McCaslin, if the governing body, at the request of the state, only pays ninety percent of the grant, who pays the other ten percent?"

Senator McCaslin: "Senator, it says that the landlord or the tenant or the lessee, will pay that."

Senator Wojahn: "You mean the person that is leasing the building?"

Senator McCaslin: "Leasing the apartment or leasing the rental unit, they have a responsibility to pay a portion of it."

Senator Wojahn: "Does the public assistance person have to pay the additional ten percent, is what I'm asking?"

Senator McCaslin: "Well, as far as I know, yes. They've got to pay something."

Senator Wojahn: "Well, if it's being deducted from his grant, then you're going to still leave him ten percent to pay and the state pays ninety percent?"

Senator McCaslin: "That's how I understand it, because there will be a contract between the lessee and the lessor as far as the total amount, and then the state will pay and the lessee will pay."

Senator Wojahn: "And how are you going to finance the monitoring of this? You're going to have an overall body to monitor the money that's being paid out to be sure that the lessee—the person leasing the apartment—pays the additional ten percent. It seems to me, that this is going to cost a substantial amount of money just to administer this type of program."

Senator McCaslin: "I think that is the purpose of the pilot program, to determine whether or not, this is feasible and is economically feasible, Senator"

Senator Wojahn: "Where is this going to occur, if it's a pilot program—all over the state?"

Senator McCaslin: "No, I think it will determine wherever the DSHS sets it up."

Senator Wojahn: "I beg your pardon?"

Senator McCaslin: "Wherever DSHS determines it will be set up. That's part of their responsibility."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 932, as amended by the Senate.

Revoking or suspending juveniles' drivers licenses for violation of certain drug or alcohol laws.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Pullen moved that the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that many persons under the age of eighteen unlawfully use intoxicating liquor and controlled substances. The use of these substances by juveniles can cause serious damage to their physical, mental, and emotional well-being, and in some instances results in life-long disabilities.

The legislature also finds that juveniles who unlawfully use alcohol and controlled substances frequently operate motor vehicles while under the influence of and impaired by alcohol or drugs. Juveniles who use these substances often have seriously impaired judgment and motor skills and pose an unduly high risk of causing injury or death to themselves or other persons on the public highways.

The legislature also finds that juveniles will be deterred from the unlawful use of alcohol and controlled substances if their driving privileges are suspended or revoked for using illegal drugs or alcohol.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 13.40 RCW to read as follows:

(1) (a) If a juvenile under eighteen years of age, but thirteen or over, is found by juvenile court to have committed an offense that is a violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the court shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after entry of the judgment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in (c) of this subsection, a court, upon petition of a juvenile who has been found by the court to have committed an offense that is a violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, may at any time the court deems appropriate notify the department of licensing that the juvenile's driving privileges should be reinstated.

(c) The court shall not notify the department that the juvenile's driving privileges should be reinstated for a period of ninety days after the entry of the judgment if it is the first order issued with respect to the juvenile under section 7 of this act, or for a period of one year after the issuance of the order if it is the second or subsequent such order issued with respect to the juvenile.

(2) (a) If a juvenile enters into a diversion agreement with a diversion unit pursuant to RCW 13.40.080 concerning an offense that is a violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the diversion unit shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after the diversion agreement is signed.

(b) If a diversion unit has notified the department pursuant to (a) of this subsection, the diversion unit shall notify the department of licensing when the juvenile has completed the agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 66.44 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If a juvenile under eighteen years of age, but thirteen or over, is found by a court to have committed any offense that is a violation of this chapter, the court shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after entry of the judgment.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, the court, upon petition of a juvenile who has been found by the court to have committed an offense that is a violation of this chapter, may notify the department of licensing that the juvenile's privilege to drive should be reinstated.

(3) The court shall not notify the department that the juvenile's driving privileges should be reinstated for a period of ninety days after the entry of the judgment if it is the first revocation with respect to the juvenile under this section or section 7 of this act, or for a period of one year after the issuance of the order if it is the second or subsequent such revocation issued with respect to the juvenile.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 69.41 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If a juvenile under eighteen years of age, but thirteen or over, is found by a court to have committed any offense that is a violation of this chapter, the court shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after entry of the judgment.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, the court, upon petition of a juvenile who has been found by the court to have committed an offense that is a violation of this chapter, may notify the department of licensing that the juvenile's privilege to drive should be reinstated.

"Revoke," in all its forms, means the invalidation for a period of one calendar year and thereafter until reissue: PROVIDED, That under the provisions of RCW 46.20.285, 46.20.311, section 7 of this act, or 46.61.515 and chapter 46.65 RCW the invalidation may last for a period other than one calendar year.

Sec. 9. Section 27, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 211, Laws of 1985 and by section 4, chapter 407, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.20.311 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall not suspend a driver's license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways for a fixed period of more than one year, except as permitted under RCW 46.20.342 or 46.61.515. Whenever the license of any person is suspended by reason of a conviction, a finding that a traffic infraction has been committed, pursuant to chapter 46.29 RCW, or pursuant to RCW 46.20.291, the suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to the person any new, duplicate, or renewal license until the person pays a reinstatement fee of twenty dollars and gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. If the suspension is the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars.

(2) Any person whose license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways has been revoked, unless the revocation was for a cause which has been removed, is not entitled to have the license or privilege renewed or restored until: (a) After the expiration of one year from the date on which the revoked license was surrendered to and received by the department; (b) after the expiration of the applicable revocation period provided by RCW 46.61.515(3) (b) or (c); (c) after the expiration of two years for persons convicted of vehicular homicide; (d) after the expiration of one year in cases of revocation for the first refusal within five years to submit to a chemical test under RCW 46.20.308; ~~((or))~~ (e) after the expiration of two years in cases of revocation for the second refusal within five years to submit to a chemical test under RCW 46.20.308; or (f) after the expiration of the applicable revocation period provided by section 7 of this act. Except for a revocation under section 7 of this act, the department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until the person gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. For a revocation under section 7 of this act, the department shall not issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant that person the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways. A resident without a license or permit whose license or permit was revoked under RCW 46.20.308(6) shall give and thereafter maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW.

(3) Whenever the driver's license of any person is suspended pursuant to Article IV of the nonresident violators compact or RCW 46.23.020, the suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to the person any new or renewal license until the person pays a reinstatement fee of twenty dollars. If the suspension is the result of a violation of the laws of another state, province, or other jurisdiction involving (a) the operation or physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or (b) the refusal to submit to a chemical test of the driver's blood alcohol content, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars.

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Law and Justice amendment be adopted:

On page 11 of the Committee Amendment, after line 37, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The legislature finds that county and city governments are in need of funding to offset the costs of the enforcement of laws prohibiting driving while intoxicated or impaired. The legislature also finds that cities and counties are experiencing increased costs resulting from alcohol and substance abuse by minors who drive while impaired. The legislature further finds that it is necessary for some cities and counties to receive additional funds in the form of state grants to provide for the equal administration of justice to traffic offenders and to ensure the safety of persons using the public highways of the state. It is the intent of the legislature that the state grants shall be awarded on the basis of the local jurisdiction's rate of performance in completing adjudication of arrests.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. From funds appropriated in section 14 of this act, the traffic safety commission shall distribute grants to cities and counties to enhance the apprehension, prosecution, and adjudication of serious traffic offenses. "Serious traffic offenses," as used in sections 11 through 13 of this act, means driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of or impaired by intoxicating liquor or drugs. "Commission" means the traffic safety commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The commission shall establish an advisory committee to establish eligibility and evaluation criteria for the distribution of grants made under section 11 of this act. The committee shall consist of:

(a) Two prosecuting attorneys selected by the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys;

(b) One municipal attorney and one elected municipal official selected by the association of Washington cities;

(c) One elected county official selected by the Washington state association of counties;

(d) The administrator for the courts or the administrator's designee;

(e) A representative selected by the Washington state patrol; and

(f) A representative of law enforcement selected by the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs.

(2) Members of the advisory committee shall be appointed within thirty days of the effective date of this section.

(3) Members of the advisory committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) The criteria developed by the commission and the advisory committee under section 12 of this act shall not be based on need. Instead, the criteria shall be based on reliable data measuring performance in the apprehension, prosecution, and adjudication of serious traffic offenses. The criteria shall recognize the higher relative enforcement costs borne by smaller units of government. The criteria shall also include a minimum grant amount to eliminate jurisdictions in which case volume and funding need is minimal. Cities not operating a municipal court are not eligible for grants under section 11 of this act.

(2) Before adoption by the commission, the criteria shall be presented to the appropriate committees of the legislature for review and comment. After adoption, the criteria shall be applied to performance data for the period August 1988 through December 1988. The grants shall be distributed before June 30, 1989.

(3) The grants shall be made to the legislative authority of the city or county for appropriation by the legislative authority to enhance effective apprehension, prosecution, and adjudication of serious traffic offenses. Each jurisdiction receiving a grant under this section shall establish an advisory committee to recommend expenditures from the grant moneys. The advisory committee shall include representatives of the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of the local government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) There is appropriated from the public safety and education account for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, the sum of one million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purposes of section 11 of this act. It is the intent of the legislature that the amount appropriated under this section not exceed the remaining balance in the public safety and education account on June 30, 1989.

(2) Not more than thirty-five thousand dollars of this appropriation may be spent by the commission for administrative purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 10 through 13 of this act shall expire on December 31, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 10 through 15 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Renumber the section following consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Nelson: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order to ask the President to rule on the scope and object of this amendment to the committee amendment. I'd like to point out to the President, that as much as I feel the amendment to the committee amendment is a laudable effort, it should, in fact, be a measure that is addressed in a bill of its own. This particular amendment to the committee amendment establishes a new advisory committee to the Traffic Safety Commission, and as was pointed out, appropriates a million dollars for the purposes of now lending grant monies to the cities and counties for the apprehension, prosecution, and adjudication of serious traffic offenses, not just DWI or the use of drugs while driving, but for a myriad of other cited infractions.

"The grant certainly may be very worthwhile and would be, I think, a subject matter that we should address, but it certainly does not fit the scope and object of this bill, which deals strictly with drivers licenses as may be in the possession of a juvenile under eighteen who is now apprehended for having used drugs or alcohol while driving. I believe that the amendment to the committee amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Rasmussen, as one of the members who signed the bill out of the committee, I appreciate your interest in this seventy-eight bill. Senator Moore is the specialist in this particular area and I'm going to let Senator Moore answer this particular question, because he specializes in this particular phase of the loan operation."

Senator Rasmussen: "Did I hear the chairman say he didn't know what it was, Mr. President?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Rasmussen, fortunately my good friend, Senator McDonald, has offered to explain that to you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR McDONALD

Senator McDonald: "Senator Rasmussen, my knowledge on the rule of seventy-eight is fairly limited, although the way it is calculated is that you take the twelfth month, the eleventh month, the tenth month, the ninth month and you add up from the first month through the twelfth month and it equals seventy-eight. Then, you take the total amount of payments back for the basic charges and then if you bail out after one month—you take twelve off of seventy-eight and you would owe—let's see—sixty-six seventy-eighths of the charges. If you are in for two months, then you have twelve plus eleven off of seventy-eight and that's fifty-five seventy-eighths. It is commonly known as the sum of the digits amendment method. That's basically my extent of knowledge on that whole issue."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator von Reichbauer, I guess what I'm interested in knowing is why we need this bill at all? I'm unclear as to what the practices of these industrial loan companies is, involving fees that they charge—the two percent fee limit—and what the actual practice is at the present time. I'm intrigued that the rule of seventy-eight would apparently still apply to loans of thirty-six months or less and I guess I'm also somewhat concerned about the provision in the bill that says that these entities can engage in loan practices where they will ask the borrower to pay for various kinds of costs associated with the loan. It says that the authorization is given to agree with the borrower which means the standard form will say 'borrower you're going to pay for title insurance, appraisals, recording, reconveyance, and releasing fees, etc.' Perhaps you could tell us what the present state of the relationship is between the borrower and lender and why this bill is necessary and perhaps to some extent who it affects?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Talmadge asked a very good question as to why this bill is needed. This bill passed the House of Representatives by a vote of ninety-eight to zero. It passed out because of the need to reform the activities between those involved with industrial loan companies. For example, this bill will limit the industrial loan companies to charge a two percent fee on only that amount which is advanced to the borrower, rather than the total amount of the loan. Another reform is authorizing to charge borrowers for title insurance. The third one which I think is very important for those who are concerned about in-house activities is the aspect of this bill which restricts loan companies from using in-house appraisers. Lastly, we talked about the rule of seventy-eight which is bringing us down to a more reform approach to this problem.

"This bill passed the House Financial Institutions Committee thirteen to nothing; the House floor ninety-eight to nothing; the Senate committee on which Senator Rasmussen serves, seven to nothing. I believe it is one that deserves the merit of this body."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Bill No. 1760.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1760 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 2; absent, 2.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. PURPOSE. The legislature finds that there is an increasing need for local and regional transportation improvements as the result of both existing demands and the foreseeable future demands from economic growth and development within the state, including residential, commercial, and industrial development.

The legislature intends with this chapter to enable local governments to develop and adopt programs for the purpose of jointly funding, from public and private sources, transportation improvements necessitated in whole or in part by economic development and growth within their respective jurisdictions. The programs should provide a fair and predictable method for allocating the cost of necessary transportation improvements between the public and private sectors. The programs should include consideration of public transportation as a method of reducing off-site transportation impacts from development. The legislature finds that the private funds authorized to be collected pursuant to this chapter are for the purpose of mitigating the impacts of development and are not taxes. The state shall encourage and give priority to the state funding of local and regional transportation improvements that are funded in part by local, public, and private funds.

The authority provided by this act for local governments to create and implement local transportation programs is intended to be supplemental, except as expressly provided in sections 3(9), 6, and 7 of this act, to the existing authorities and responsibilities of local governments to regulate development and provide public facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Developer" means an individual, group of individuals, partnership, corporation, association, municipal corporation, state agency, or other person undertaking development and their successors and assigns.

(2) "Development" means the subdivision or short platting of land or the construction or reconstruction of residential, commercial, industrial, public, or any other building, building space, or land.

(3) "Direct result of the proposed development" means those quantifiable transportation impacts that are caused by vehicles or pedestrians whose trip origin or destination is the proposed development.

(4) "Local government" means all counties, cities, and towns in the state of Washington and transportation benefit districts created pursuant to chapter 36.73 RCW.

(5) "Off-site transportation improvements" means those transportation capital improvements designated in the local plan adopted under this chapter that are authorized to be undertaken by local government and that serve the transportation needs of more than one development.

(6) "Transportation impact fee" means a monetary charge imposed on new development for the purpose of mitigating off-site transportation impacts that are a direct result of the proposed development.

(7) "Fair market value" means the highest price in terms of money that a property will bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions of a fair sale, the buyer and seller each prudently knowledgeable, and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus, measured at the time of the dedication to local government of land or improved transportation facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. LOCAL PROGRAMS AUTHORIZED. Local governments may develop and adopt programs for the purpose of jointly funding, from public and private sources, transportation improvements necessitated in whole or in part by economic development and growth within their respective jurisdictions. Local governments shall adopt the programs by ordinance after notice and public hearing. Each program shall contain the elements described in this section.

(1) The program shall identify the geographic boundaries of the entire area or areas generally benefited by the proposed off-site transportation improvements and within which transportation impact fees will be imposed under this chapter.

(2) The program shall be based on an adopted comprehensive, long-term transportation plan identifying the proposed off-site transportation improvements reasonable and necessary to meet the future growth needs of the designated plan area and intended to be covered by this joint funding program, including acquisition of right of way, construction and reconstruction of all major and minor arterials and intersection improvements, and identifying design standards, levels of service, capacities, and costs applicable to the program. The program shall also indicate how the transportation plan is coordinated with applicable transportation plans for the region and for adjacent jurisdictions. The program shall also indicate how public transportation and ride-sharing improvements and services will be used to reduce off-site transportation impacts from development.

(3) The program shall include at least a six-year capital funding program, updated annually, identifying the specific public sources and amounts of revenue necessary to pay for that portion of the cost of all off-site transportation improvements contained in the transportation plan that will not foreseeably be funded by transportation impact fees. The program shall include a proposed schedule for construction and expenditures of funds. The funding plan shall consider the additional local tax revenue estimated to be generated by new development within the plan area if all or a portion of the additional revenue is proposed to be earmarked as future appropriations for such off-site transportation improvements.

(4) The program shall authorize transportation impact fees to be imposed on new development within the plan area for the purpose of providing a portion of the funding for reasonable and necessary off-site transportation improvements to solve the cumulative impacts of planned growth and development in the plan area. Off-site transportation impacts shall be measured as a pro rata share of the capacity of the off-site transportation improvements being funded under the program. The fees shall not exceed the amount that the local government can demonstrate is reasonably necessary as a direct result of the proposed development.

(5) The program shall provide that the funds collected as a result of a particular new development shall be used in substantial part to pay for improvements mitigating the impacts of the development or be refunded to the property owners of record. Fees paid toward more than one transportation improvement may be pooled and expended on any one of the improvements mitigating the impact of the development. The funds shall be expended in all cases within six years of collection by the local government or the unexpended funds shall be refunded.

(6) The program shall also describe the formula, timing, security, credits, and other terms and conditions affecting the amount and method of payment of the transportation impact fee as further provided for in section 4 of this act. In calculating the amount of the fee, local government shall consider and give credit for the developer's participation in public transportation and ride-sharing improvements and services.

(7) The administrative element of the program shall include: an opportunity for administrative appeal by the developer and hearing before an independent examiner of the amount of the transportation impact fee imposed; establishment of a designated account for the public and private funds appropriated or collected for the transportation improvements identified in the plan; methods to enforce collection of the public and private funds identified in the program; designation of the administrative departments or other entities responsible for administering the program, including determination of fee amounts, transportation planning, and construction; and provisions for future amendment of the program including the addition of other off-site transportation improvements. The program shall not be amended in a manner to relieve local government of any contractual obligations made to prior developers.

(8) The program shall provide that private transportation impact fees shall not be collected for any off-site transportation improvement that is incapable of being reasonably carried out because of lack of public funds or other foreseeable impediment.

(9) The program shall provide that no transportation impact fee may be imposed on a development by local government pursuant to this program when mitigation of the same off-site transportation impacts for the development is being required by any government agency pursuant to any other local, state, or federal law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. TRANSPORTATION IMPACT FEE. The program shall describe the formula or method for calculating the amount of the transportation impact fees to be imposed on new development within the plan area. The program may require developers to pay a transportation impact fee for off-site transportation improvements not yet constructed and for those jointly-funded improvements constructed since the commencement of the program.

The program shall define the event in the development approval process that triggers a determination of the amount of the transportation impact fees and the event that triggers the obligation to make actual payment of the fees. However, the payment obligation shall not commence before the date the developer has obtained a building permit for the new development or, in the case of residential subdivisions or short plats, at the time of final plat approval, at the developer's option. If the developer of a residential subdivision or short plat elects to pay the fee at the date a building permit has been obtained, the option to pay the transportation impact fee by installments as authorized by this section is deemed to have been waived by the developer. The developer shall be given the option to pay the transportation impact fee in a lump sum, without interest, or by installment with reasonable interest over a period of five years or more as specified by the local government.

The local government shall require security for the obligation to pay the transportation impact fee, in the form of a recorded agreement, deed of trust, letter of credit, or other instrument determined satisfactory by the local government. The developer shall also be given credit against its obligations for the transportation impact fee, for the fair market value of off-site land or improved transportation facilities dedicated to the local government. If the value of the dedication exceeds the amount of transportation impact fee obligation, the developer is entitled to reimbursement from transportation impact fees attributable to the dedicated facilities and paid by subsequent developers within the plan area.

Payment of the transportation impact fee entitles the developer and its successors and assigns to credit against any other fee, local improvement district assessment, or other monetary imposition made specifically for the designated off-site transportation improvements intended to be covered by the transportation impact fee imposed pursuant to this program. The program shall also define the criteria for establishing periodic fee increases attributable to construction and related cost increases for the improvements designated in the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. INTERLOCAL COOPERATION—CONSISTENCY AND ASSISTANCE. Local governments are authorized and encouraged to enter into interlocal agreements to jointly develop and adopt with other local governments the transportation programs authorized by this chapter for the purpose of accomplishing regional transportation planning and development. Local governments shall also seek, to the greatest degree practicable, consistency among jurisdictions in the terms and conditions of their programs for the purpose of increasing fairness and predictability on a regional basis. Local governments shall seek comment, in the development of their programs, from other affected local governments, state agencies, and governments authorized to perform public transportation functions. Local governments are also encouraged to enter into interlocal agreements to provide technical assistance to each other, in return for reasonable reimbursement, for the purpose of developing and implementing such transportation programs.

Sec. 6. Section 82.02.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 17, chapter 327, Laws of 1987 and RCW 82.02.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Except only as expressly provided in RCW 67.28.180 and 67.28.190 and the provisions of chapter 82.14 RCW, the state preempts the field of imposing taxes upon retail sales of tangible personal property, the use of tangible personal property, parimutuel wagering authorized pursuant to RCW 67.16.060, conveyances, and cigarettes, and no county, town, or other municipal subdivision shall have the right to impose taxes of that nature. No county, city, town, or other municipal corporation shall impose any tax, fee, or charge, either direct or indirect, on the construction or reconstruction of residential buildings, commercial buildings, industrial buildings, or on any other building or building space or appurtenance thereto, or on the development, subdivision, classification, or reclassification of land. However, this section does not preclude dedications of land or easements pursuant to RCW 58.17.110 within the proposed development or plat which the county, city, town, or other municipal corporation can demonstrate are reasonably necessary as a direct result of the proposed development or plat to which the dedication of land or easement is to apply.

This section does not prohibit voluntary agreements with counties, cities, towns, or other municipal corporations that allow a payment in lieu of a dedication of land or to mitigate a direct impact that has been identified as a consequence of a proposed development, subdivision, or plat (~~PROVIDED, That~~). A local government shall not use such voluntary agreements for local off-site transportation improvements within the geographic boundaries of the area or areas covered by an adopted transportation program authorized by chapter 39.— RCW (sections 1 through 5 of this act). Any such voluntary agreement (~~shall be~~) is subject to the following provisions:

- (1) The payment shall be held in a reserve account and may only be expended to fund a capital improvement agreed upon by the parties to mitigate the identified, direct impact;
- (2) The payment shall be expended in all cases within five years of collection; and
- (3) Any payment not so expended shall be refunded with interest at the rate applied to judgments to the property owners of record at the time of the refund; however, if the payment is not expended within five years due to delay attributable to the developer, the payment shall be refunded without interest.

No county, city, town, or other municipal corporation shall require any payment as part of such a voluntary agreement which the county, city, town, or other municipal corporation cannot establish is reasonably necessary as a direct result of the proposed development or plat.

Nothing in this section prohibits cities, towns, counties, or other municipal corporations from collecting reasonable fees from an applicant for a permit or other governmental approval to cover the cost to the city, town, county, or other municipal corporation of processing applications, inspecting and reviewing plans, or preparing detailed statements required by chapter 43.21C RCW.

This section does not limit the existing authority of any county, city, town, or other municipal corporation to impose special assessments on property specifically benefitted thereby in the manner prescribed by law.

Nothing in this section prohibits counties, cities, or towns from imposing or permits counties, cities, or towns to impose water, sewer, natural gas, drainage utility, and drainage system charges: PROVIDED, That no such charge shall exceed the proportionate share of such utility or system's capital costs which the county, city, or town can demonstrate are attributable to the property being charged: PROVIDED FURTHER, That these provisions shall not be interpreted to expand or contract any existing authority of counties, cities, or towns to impose such charges.

Nothing in this section prohibits a transportation benefit district from imposing fees or charges authorized in RCW 36.73.120 nor prohibits the legislative authority of a county, city, or town from approving the imposition of such fees within a transportation benefit district.

Nothing in this section prohibits counties, cities, or towns from imposing transportation impact fees authorized pursuant to chapter 39. — RCW (sections 1 through 5 of this act).

This section does not apply to special purpose districts formed and acting pursuant to Titles 54, 56, 57, or 87 RCW, nor is the authority conferred by these titles affected.

Sec. 7. Section 12, chapter 327, Laws of 1987 and RCW 36.73.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A transportation benefit district may impose a fee or charge (~~(either direct or indirect)~~) on the construction or reconstruction of residential buildings, commercial buildings, industrial buildings, or on any other building or building space or appurtenance thereto, or on the development, subdivision, classification, or reclassification of land only if done in accordance with chapter 39. — RCW (sections 1 through 5 of this act).

(2) Any fee or charge imposed under this section shall be used exclusively for transportation improvements constructed by a transportation benefit district. The fees or charges so imposed must be reasonably necessary as a result of the impact of (~~(collective)~~) development, construction, or classification or reclassification of land on identified transportation needs.

(3) When fees or charges are imposed by a district within which there is more than one city or both incorporated and unincorporated areas, the legislative authority for each city in the district and the county legislative authority for the unincorporated area must approve the imposition of such fees or charges before they take effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. WAIVERS OF PROTEST—RECORDING—LIMITS ON ENFORCEABILITY. If an owner of property enters into an agreement with a city or town waiving the property owner's right under RCW 35.43.180 to protest formation of a local improvement district, the agreement must specify the improvements to be financed by the district and shall set forth the effective term of the agreement, which shall not exceed ten years. The agreement must be recorded with the auditor of the county in which the property is located. It is against public policy and void for an owner, by agreement, as a condition imposed in connection with proposed property development, or otherwise, to waive rights to object to the property owner's individual assessment (including the determination of special benefits allocable to the property), or to appeal to the superior court the decision of the city or town council affirming the final assessment roll.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. PREFORMATION EXPENDITURES. The city or town engineer or other designated official may contract with owners of real property to provide for payment by the owners of the cost of the preparation of engineering plans, surveys, studies, appraisals, legal services, and other expenses associated with improvements to be financed in whole or in part by a local improvement district (not including the cost of actual construction of such improvements), that the owners elect to undertake. The contract may provide for reimbursement to the owner of such costs from the proceeds of bonds issued by the district after formation of a district under this chapter, from assessments paid to the district as appropriate, or by a credit in the amount of such costs against future assessments assessed against such property under the district. Such reimbursement shall be made to the owner of the property at the time of reimbursement. The contract shall also provide that such costs shall not be reimbursed to the owner if a district to construct the specified improvements (as the project may be amended) is not formed within six years of the date of the contract. The contract shall provide that any preformation work shall be conducted only under the direction of the city or town engineer or other appropriate city or town authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. CREDITS FOR OTHER ASSESSMENTS. A city or town ordering a local improvement upon which special assessments on property specifically benefited by the improvement are levied and collected, may provide as part of the ordinance creating the local improvement district that moneys paid or the cost of facilities constructed by a property owner in the district in satisfaction of obligations under chapter 39. — RCW (sections 1 through 5 of this act), shall be credited against assessments due from the owner of such property at the time the credit is made, if those moneys paid or facilities constructed directly defray the cost of the specified improvements under the district and if credit for such amounts is reflected in the final assessment roll confirmed for the district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. ASSESSMENT REIMBURSEMENT ACCOUNTS. A city or town ordering a local improvement upon which special assessments on property specifically benefited by the improvement are levied and collected, may provide as part of the ordinance creating the local improvement district that the payment of an assessment levied for the district on underdeveloped properties may be made by owners of other properties within the district, if they so elect, subject to terms of reimbursement set forth in the ordinance. The terms for reimbursement shall require the owners of underdeveloped properties on whose behalf payments of assessments have been made to reimburse all such assessment payments to the party who made them when those properties are developed or redeveloped, together with interest at a rate specified in the ordinance. The ordinance may provide that reimbursement shall be made on a one-time, lump sum basis, or may provide that reimbursement shall be made over a period not to exceed five years. The ordinance may provide that reimbursement shall be made no later than the time of dissolution of the district, or may provide that no reimbursement is due if the underdeveloped properties are not developed or redeveloped before the dissolution of the district. Reimbursement amounts due from underdeveloped properties under this section are liens upon the underdeveloped properties in the same manner and with like effect as assessments made under this chapter. For the purposes of this section, "underdeveloped properties" may include those properties that, in the discretion of the legislative body of the city or town, (1) are undeveloped or are not developed to their highest and best use, and (2) are likely to be developed or redeveloped before the dissolution of the district.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. WAIVERS OF PROTEST—RECORDING—LIMITS ON ENFORCEABILITY. If an owner of property enters into an agreement with a county waiving the property owner's right under RCW 36.88.030, 36.88.040, 36.88.050, 36.88.060, and 36.88.065 to protest formation of a road improvement district, the agreement must specify the improvements to be financed by the district and shall set forth the effective term of the agreement, which shall not exceed ten years. The agreement must be recorded with the auditor of the county in which the property is located. It is against public policy and void for an owner, by agreement, as a condition imposed in connection with proposed property development, or otherwise, to waive rights to object to the property owner's individual assessment (including the determination of special benefits allocable to the property), or to appeal to the superior court the decision of the county council affirming the final assessment roll.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. PREFORMATION EXPENDITURES. The county engineer or other designated official may contract with owners of real property to provide for payment by the owners of the cost of the preparation of engineering plans, surveys, studies, appraisals, legal services, and other expenses associated with improvements to be financed in whole or in part by a local improvement district (not including the cost of actual construction of such improvements), that the owners elect to undertake. The contract may provide for reimbursement to the owner of such costs from the proceeds of bonds issued by the district after formation of a district under this chapter, from assessments paid to the district as appropriate, or by a credit in the amount of such costs against future assessments assessed against such property. Such reimbursement shall be made to the owner of the property at the time of reimbursement. The contract shall also provide that such costs shall not be reimbursed to the owner if a district to construct the specified improvements (as the project may be amended) is not formed within six years of the date of the contract. The contract shall provide that any preformation work shall be conducted only under the direction of the county engineer or other appropriate county authority.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. CREDITS FOR OTHER ASSESSMENTS. A county ordering a road improvement upon which special assessments on property specifically benefited by the improvements are levied and collected, may provide as part of the ordinance creating the road improvement district that moneys paid or the cost of facilities constructed by a property owner in the district in satisfaction of obligations under chapter 39, RCW (sections 1 through 5 of this act), shall be credited against assessments due from the owner of such property at the time the credit is made, if those moneys paid or facilities constructed directly defray the cost of the specified improvements under the district and if credit for such amounts is reflected in the final assessment roll confirmed for the district.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. ASSESSMENT REIMBURSEMENT ACCOUNTS. A county ordering a road improvement upon which special assessments on property specifically benefited by the improvement are levied and collected, may provide as part of the ordinance creating the road improvement district that the payment of an assessment levied for the district on underdeveloped properties may be made by owners of other properties within the district if they so elect, subject to terms of reimbursement set forth in the ordinance. The terms for reimbursement shall require the owners of underdeveloped properties on whose behalf payments of assessments have been made to reimburse all such assessment payments to the party who made them when those properties are developed or redeveloped, together with interest at a rate specified in the ordinance. The ordinance may provide that reimbursement shall be made on a one-time, lump sum basis, or may provide that reimbursement shall be made over a period not to exceed five years. The ordinance may provide that reimbursement shall be made no later than the time of dissolution of the district, or may provide that no reimbursement is due if the underdeveloped properties are not developed or redeveloped before the dissolution of the district. Reimbursement amounts due from underdeveloped properties under this section are liens upon the underdeveloped properties in the same manner and with like effect as assessments made under this chapter. For the purposes of this section, "underdeveloped properties" may include those properties that, in the discretion of the county legislative authority, (1) are undeveloped or are not developed to their highest and best use, and (2) are likely to be developed or redeveloped before the dissolution of the district.

Sec. 16. Section 4, chapter 126, Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.72.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The procedures for assessment reimbursement contracts shall be governed by the following:

(1) An assessment reimbursement area shall be formulated by the city, town, or county based upon a determination by the city, town, or county of which parcels adjacent to the improvements would require similar street improvements upon development.

(2) The preliminary determination of area boundaries and assessments, along with a description of the property owners' rights and options, shall be forwarded by ((registered)) certified mail to the property owners of record within the proposed assessment area. If any property owner requests a hearing in writing within twenty days of the mailing of the preliminary determination, a hearing shall be held before the legislative body, notice of which shall be given to all affected property owners. The legislative body's ruling is determinative and final.

(3) The contract must be recorded in the appropriate county auditor's office within thirty days of the final execution of the agreement.

(4) If the contract is so filed, it shall be binding on owners of record within the assessment area who are not party to the contract.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. This act is intended to be prospective, not retroactive, in its application.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. Section captions used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. Sections 1 through 5 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 39 RCW entitled "Local Transportation Act." Sections 8 through 11 of this act are added to chapter 35.43 RCW. Sections 12 through 15 of this act are added to chapter 36.88 RCW."

On motion of Senator Patterson, the following title amendment was adopted:

On line 1 of the title, after "Improvements;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 82.02.020, 36.73.120, and 35.72.040; adding new sections to chapter 35.43 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 36.88 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 39 RCW; and creating a new section."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 1, line 7, after "review" insert "by the city"

On page 2, line 4, after "review" insert "by the city"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Talmadge, I'm not as familiar with this bill as I should be. I notice we're amending two separate sections of the RCW. Do those both apply to cities or does one apply to cities and the other to counties?"

Senator Talmadge: "I believe, Senator Lee, that one applies to cities and the other is a model city statute--the model ordinance for cities--the optional code cities. Senator Garrett is more expert with this than I am, but they both apply to cities. I looked to see if it might not apply to counties, but it doesn't. It's two separate sections relating to cities only."

Senator Lee: "So, this particular act that we're passing as far as encouraging the use of mobile homes as part of the comprehensive plan really only applies to cities?"

Senator Talmadge: "I guess that's right. The only thing I was concerned about looking at was that the language specifically said that each comprehensive plan which does not allow for the siting of manufactured homes on individual lots shall be subject to a review of the needs and demands for such homes. I wasn't clear by whom the review was to be done. I wanted to make clear it was the cities."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senator Talmadge.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Madsen, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, after line 25, insert the following:

"Sec. 3 Section 46.44.093, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 55, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.44.093 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of transportation or the local authority is authorized to issue or withhold such special permit at its discretion ~~((or;)), although where a mobile home is being moved, the verification of a valid license under chapter 46.70 RCW as a mobile home dealer or manufacturer, or under chapter 46.76 RCW as a transporter, shall be done by the department or local government. If the permit is issued, ((to)) the department or local authority may limit the number of trips, ((or-to)) establish seasonal or other time limitations within which the vehicle described may be operated on the public highways indicated, or otherwise ((to)) limit or prescribe conditions of operation of the vehicle or vehicles when necessary to assure against undue damage to the road foundation, surfaces, or structures or safety of traffic and may require such undertaking or other security as may be deemed necessary to compensate for injury to any roadway or road structure.~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 46.76 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any person or organization that transports any mobile home or other vehicle for hire shall comply with this chapter and chapter 81.80 RCW. Persons or organizations that do not have a valid permit or meet other requirements under chapter 81.80 RCW shall not be issued a transporter license or transporter plates to transport mobile homes or other vehicles. RCW 46.76.065(5) applies to persons or organizations that have transporter licenses or plates and do not meet the requirements of chapter 81.80 RCW.

(2) This section does not apply to mobile home manufacturers or dealers that are licensed and delivering the mobile home under chapter 46.70 RCW."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Madsen, the following amendment by Senators Madsen and Lee was adopted:

On page 2, after line 25, insert the following:

"Sec. 3, Section 1, chapter 153, Laws of 1980 and RCW 43.22.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature finds that inspections of mobile home installation are not done on a consistent basis. Mobile homes provide housing for many people in the state, and improperly installed mobile homes are a serious health and safety risk. Where possible and practical, mobile homes should be treated the same as any housing inhabited or to be inhabited by persons in this state, including housing built according to the state building code.

(2) In consultation with the ((governor's)) factory assembled structures advisory board for mobile homes, the director of labor and industries shall by rule establish ((minimum)) uniform standards for the performance and workmanship of installation service and warranty service by persons or entities engaged in performing the services within this state for all mobile homes, as defined in RCW 46.04.302. The standards shall conform, where applicable, with statutes, rules, and recommendations established under the federal national mobile home construction and safety standards act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 5401 et seq.). These rules regarding the installation of mobile homes shall be enforced and fees charged by the counties and cities in the same manner the state building code is enforced under RCW 19.27.050. ((The rules may, to the extent deemed necessary by the director, provide for inspection and enforcement of the standards so established, and may permit the director to appoint an agent, or agents, as necessary to provide for the inspections and enforcement.

MOTION

Senator Anderson moved that the following amendment by Senators Anderson and McMullen be adopted:

On page 5, after line 14, insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds and declares that certain counties and municipalities near international borders are subjected to a constant volume and flow of travelers and visitors for whom local government services must be provided. The legislature further finds that it is in the public interest and for the protection of the health, property, and welfare of the residents and visitors to provide supplemental resources to augment and maintain existing levels of police protection in such areas and to alleviate the impact of such added burdens.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 66.08 RCW to read as follows:

For the purposes of this section, the term "border area" means Blaine, Everson, Friday Harbor, Lynden, Nooksack, Northport, Oroville, Port Angeles, Sumas, and that area of Whatcom county commonly referred to as Point Roberts.

Funds allocable to border areas under RCW 66.08.190 shall be distributed pursuant to a formula developed by the department of community development, by rule, based on border traffic and historical public impacts of law enforcement problems caused by the border on local budgets. All such funds received by Whatcom county pursuant to this allocation shall be spent within the Point Roberts area.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 175, Laws of 1957 and RCW 66.08.190 are each amended to read as follows:

When excess funds are distributed, all moneys subject to distribution shall be disbursed as follows:

(1) Three-tenths of one percent to the department of community development to be allocated to border areas under section 3 of this 1988 act; and

(2) From the amount remaining after distribution under subsection (1) of this section, fifty percent to the general fund of the state, ten percent to the counties of the state, and forty percent to the incorporated cities and towns of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 2 through 4 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1989."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Anderson, the question I have, I guess, is how we define the circumstances under which someone has an excessive impact on a local area that would then merit the State Legislature coming forth with additional monies for those local areas? By that I mean, we in Seattle have excessive impact from the cost of a number of people coming to our area, and the Social Service System bearing those costs. We have some real problems with drug trafficking, which we suspect comes from other parts of the state into our area. We have some real concerns about things like DWI funding and the impact of that on our areas as people come through the largest urban area in the state of Washington on I-5 and I-90. Maybe you could tell me what constitutes a sufficient local impact that merits state involvement?"

Senator Anderson: "Yes, Senator Talmadge, we have gone through this discussion in the Ways and Means Committee before. The comment is that this money is already being allocated to the border towns and is just a permanent funding source for the border towns. It's not any more money than they're currently receiving, it's just a permanent funding. The other comment to that is as an international area and people crossing the borders, and congestion increased from an international border, that's the difference between a site specific area within the state and international border."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Anderson and McMullen on page 5, after line 14, to Engrossed House Bill No. 1884.

The motion by Senator Anderson carried and the amendment was adopted.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following colloquy relates to Second Substitute House Bill No. 318, as amended by the Senate, which passed the Senate February 26, 1988.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bender: "Thank you, Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. There's something we would like to have stated in the Journal—a question and answer and I'd like to ask Senator von Reichbauer to yield to a question."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bender: "Thank you, Senator von Reichbauer. This deals with a bill that has already passed the Senate. This is Second Substitute House Bill No. 318 and something needs to be clarified with regards to a change in the legislation and my question to you is this, can the Insurance Commissioner take this regulatory action before a hearing even though such a hearing has been demanded?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Bender, Mr. President and members of the Senate. The Senate passed Second Substitute House Bill No. 318, an Act relating to Insurance on Friday, February 26, 1988. On page 14 of the bill, beginning on line 28, there is language providing that the Insurance Commissioner may take certain named regulatory action 'subject to a hearing if one is demanded.' The question raised was whether the Insurance Commissioner could take this regulatory action before a hearing even though such hearing has not been demanded. The answer to this question is, 'no.' It was not and is not my intent, nor do I believe it to be the intent of the Senate to permit the Insurance Commissioner to take any of the named regulatory actions before a hearing is held if such hearing is demanded by a regulated party."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1361 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Mr. President, you know, I always had a little trouble reading some of these pieces of legislation, not being an attorney. When I hear such great phrases as 'peace and tranquility,' it really makes me nervous, and when I see such three such divergent characters all urging that this bill be passed, it makes me a little nervous and I'd like to ask one question. And any one of the three of you are entitled to answer and I'll be happy. I'd like to know, does this bill, in any way, save the taxpayers any money, in that the overhead will be lowered so that more money goes to teaching or just what is the end result?"

Senator Saling: "Senator Moore, for the past two years, there have only been two Presidents in this community college district instead of three, as there were before. When the bill failed two years ago, the board took action to dismiss the district President. He is no longer here and in effect, we have been saving the state the money for the past two years of that district office, so that will continue in a savings to the state."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Is it right for Senator Moore to call these three characters, 'characters?'"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

"The amendment proposed by Senators Talmadge to the Committee on Law and Justice amendment appropriates funds to the Traffic Safety Commission to distribute grants to local governments to apprehend, prosecute and adjudicate the offenses of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs and establishes an advisory committee to propose criteria for these distributions.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment to the committee amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Niemi: "Thank you, Mr. President, a point of order. I request a ruling on this amendment for scope and object. My remarks really would be the same as what Senator Talmadge and what Senator Pullen said about the previous amendment. I personally have some doubts about the constitutional voice for vagueness of this amendment, but beyond that, I am afraid that this amendment would jeopardize a very important sexual assault bill for children. We stand the same chance of having the whole bill thrown out, because of this amendment, as we would of the prior one."

There being no objection, the President deferred further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1333.

President Pro Tempore Bluechel assumed the chair.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, House Joint Resolution No. 4222 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator McDonald, a question I've always had and concerns me somewhat is what is personal property and what personal property tax have you paid in recent years on the personal property in your home--in your household?"

Senator McDonald: "Senator Patterson, I think, at the outset of--when we became a state, I think personal property was largely interpreted as for farms. Since that time, I believe testimony in the committee talked about more and more into the business application, so consequently personal property is more broadly interpreted but you caught me, I don't have the best description I could give."

Senator Patterson: "Probably, the answer to my question is that you haven't paid any of it and I think it is totally misunderstood that personal property today, as it's been interpreted, is only being collected on business property. The point I'm trying to make in the discussion on this bill is the fact that in the state of Washington, in order to get around this part of the Constitution, and personal property is the best example that I know of, is personal property such as my automobile and your automobile. The way you get around the one percent restriction on personal and real property under our Constitution, is you just make it an excise tax. That way you get around the constitutional limitation of one percent. On the motor vehicle excise tax, we've now reached the point where it is 2.35—that is what the motor vehicle excise tax is. It's my personal property and I think it's a violation of the Constitution of the state of Washington that it's levied at that rate, because that was not put to a vote of the people of this state, to go over the one percent constitutional limit.

"I just thought this was a beautiful opportunity to discuss a very important issue in the tax policies of this state. I would suggest to you, if you're going to raise the limit of the personal property, most of our television sets have got up there to the point where you know some of them are a thousand dollars. I think maybe we ought to start paying the personal property tax on those expensive sets—that personal property. I just wanted to use this as an occasion to discuss it and point out to you, that we do a lot a things in a band-aid way around here and if there is anything we need in this state, it's a revision in the tax policies of this state, so we have some equity and fairness and not tax the way that we continue to tax in order to try to pay our bills. Thank you for the opportunity."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Joint Resolution No. 4222.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Joint Resolution Bill No. 4222 and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, DeJamatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 48.

Voting nay: Senator Conner - 1.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 4222, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

SECOND READING

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1329, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Crane, Brough, Sutherland, Lewis, Heavey, Padden, Nutley, Peery and Hargrove)

Changing provisions relating to the homestead exemption.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that the following amendments by Senators Rasmussen and Pullen be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 1, line 24, after "5" strike "on debts secured by a condominium's or homeowner association's lien."

On page 1, after line 24, insert the following:

"The homestead exemption is not available against a debt secured by a condominium's or homeowner association's lien provided that it is established by affidavit that all existing civil remedies have been exhausted including garnishment of wages, attachment of personal property and compliance with the notice and claim provisions for mechanics, laborers and materialmen liens pursuant to RCW 60.04."

On page 2, line 33, after "is" strike "not"

On page 2, line 35, strike "and"

On page 2, line 34, after "homesteads" strike "under RCW 6.13.080" and insert "unless all civil remedies have been exhausted as set forth in RCW 6.13.080(5) in which case such lien"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Saling: "Senator Rasmussen, I have a question I would like to ask you concerning the Homestead Act and this particular amendment. If a person lives in a condominium, they have certain rules that they agree to live by, in order to share expenses in common areas of the condominium. I happen to live in a condominium and we're going to put a new roof on the condominium. Our rules and regulations say we shall share jointly in the cost of this. Now, if one person who lives in the condominium says, 'No, I'm not going to pay,' would they come under this amendment of the Homestead Act--that they would not have to pay because this would overrule the agreement that they signed when they moved into the condo?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No, sometimes we have a lot of senior citizens and we have a lot of retired people who move into condos. When they move in, they're aware they've got to make their payments to buy their condo or their home in a property development. When it comes down to the final word, you make your payment on your condo, and if you don't have the money for paying the homeowners association, you let it slide until you can pay it. There is only one case that I know of in some two hundred five units in this planned development called Pinebrook. There was only this one case and then they tried to bring suit and collect and invade the Homestead protection and the court said, 'You can't.' The Homestead is inviolate and should not be subject to attack. The court made quite a strong opinion on that.

"Probably, when you have two hundred and five people in a development—I don't know how many are in your condo—certainly if they absorb the cost of one, temporarily, they're not hurting. The problem arose where they said that we can invade the Homestead and the court said, 'No, you can't.'"

Further debate ensued.

EDITOR'S NOTE: See motion by Senator Rasmussen later on in the day requesting the following remarks by Senator Talmadge be included in the Journal.

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. I know the high esteem with which people in the Senate hold the attorneys who are members of the Senate. We frequently hear from people about how they love attorneys and all the rest, but one of the benefits of legal training is that you may know a little bit about things like this. The quality of misinformation that we've heard so far on this issue has been extraordinary.

"Let me explain to you how this issue works and why Senator Rasmussen's amendments are totally unnecessary. As an observation with respect to the Constitution, Senator Pullen, a number of the conservative members out here believe that you look to constitutional interpretation as to the framer's original intent. It's novel to take that approach, because condominiums didn't exist when the Constitution was drafted in 1889. They didn't come along until the Legislature created them as a property device in the mid 1900s, so the framers probably didn't have in mind that the homestead theory could apply to a condominium to begin with.

"First of all, if someone is a member of a homeowners association and they fail to pay their fees—along the lines of what Senator Saling has talked about—a lien is created. That is a right, then, to proceed against that individual in court. Somebody files a civil law suit to foreclose the lien. They foreclose the lien for the amount owed by that individual to the homeowners association. They get a judgment. The judgment then can be enforced in a number of ways. The judgment can be enforced by garnishing somebody's wages, it can be enforced by executing on real property, and in some limited instances, by attaching real property. What we're talking about when we talk about homestead, it's not exhausting civil remedies, because the civil remedies have already been exhausted and the judgment has already been obtained. The question is how do you collect the judgment. In collecting the judgment, the law that relates to sheriff's sales, Senator Rasmussen, already requires everything that you have in your amendment. You can't execute on real property. You can't collect on real property without having exhausted all of your nonsale of real property remedies. You have to try garnishment first. You have to do all of those things first already. Before you can go to a sheriff's sale to get the benefit of your judgment for foreclosure of the homeowners assessment, you have to go through all these things any way, so it's already done.

"I think the point here is that this set of amendments is probably not necessary. It is already done in the law relating to the execution on real property and sheriff's sales. It probably makes this whole thing very cumbersome and not workable. The particular problem is the kind of problem that Senator Saling identified. The homeowners have an assessment of five thousand dollars and they go through the process of getting a judgment and to collect on the judgment. They try to garnish the wages and there's nothing there. They try to garnish the checking account and nothing's there. They try to do all these civil things first on the non-real property things and can't find anything. There they are, left with a situation where somebody's still sitting in that unit with a five thousand dollar obligation that they haven't paid. All of them need to have the roof fixed. It seems only appropriate that at that point they should be able to execute on the real property on the unit that they have and get the five thousand dollars, so that they all can get the roof fixed. That's all this thing does. It's very simple. These amendments are not necessary."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendments by Senators Rasmussen and Pullen to Substitute House Bill No. 1329.

(1) When the person in charge of a treatment facility, or his or her designee, receives information alleging that a person is incapacitated as a result of alcoholism, the person in charge, or his or her designee, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the information, may file a petition for commitment of such person with the superior court or district court. If the person in charge, or his or her designee, finds that the initial needs of such person would be better served by placement within the mental health system, the person shall be referred to an evaluation and treatment facility as defined in RCW 71.05.020. If placement in an alcohol treatment facility is deemed appropriate, the petition shall allege that: The person is an alcoholic who is incapacitated by alcohol, or that the person has twice before in the preceding twelve months been admitted for ((the voluntary)) detoxification or treatment for alcoholism pursuant to RCW 70.96A.110 and is in need of a more sustained treatment program, or that the person is an alcoholic who has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm on another and is likely to inflict physical harm on another unless committed. A refusal to undergo treatment, by itself, does not constitute evidence of lack of judgment as to the need for treatment. The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of a licensed physician who has examined the person within ~~((two))~~ five days before submission of the petition, unless the person whose commitment is sought has refused to submit to a medical examination, in which case the fact of refusal shall be alleged in the petition. The certificate shall set forth the licensed physician's findings in support of the allegations of the petition. A physician employed by the petitioning facility or the department is ~~((not))~~ eligible to be the certifying physician.

(2) Upon filing the petition, the court shall fix a date for a hearing no less than ~~((three))~~ two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed unless the person petitioned against is presently being detained ~~((by-the))~~ in a facility, pursuant to RCW 70.96A.120 or 71.05.210, as now or hereafter amended, in which case the hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of the filing of the petition: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the above specified seventy-two hours shall be computed by excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought, or upon motion of petitioner with written permission of the person whose commitment is sought, or his or her counsel and, upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of the hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment facility on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, a parent or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and any other person the court believes advisable. A copy of the petition and certificate shall be delivered to each person notified.

(3) At the hearing the court shall hear all relevant testimony, including, if possible, the testimony, which may be telephonic, of at least one licensed physician who has examined the person whose commitment is sought. The person shall be present unless the court believes that his or her presence is likely to be injurious to him or her; in this event the court may deem it appropriate to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent him or her throughout the proceeding. If deemed advisable, the court may examine the person out of courtroom. If the person has refused to be examined by a licensed physician, he or she shall be given an opportunity to be examined by a court appointed licensed physician. If he or she refuses and there is sufficient evidence to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, or if the court believes that more medical evidence is necessary, the court may make a temporary order committing him or her to the department for a period of not more than five days for purposes of a diagnostic examination.

(4) If after hearing all relevant evidence, including the results of any diagnostic examination, the court finds that grounds for involuntary commitment have been established by clear, cogent, and convincing proof, it shall make an order of commitment to an approved treatment facility. It shall not order commitment of a person unless it determines that an approved treatment facility is able to provide adequate and appropriate treatment for him or her ~~((and the treatment is likely to be beneficial))~~.

(5) A person committed under this section shall remain in the facility for treatment for a period of ~~((thirty))~~ sixty days unless sooner discharged. At the end of the ~~((thirty))~~ sixty-day period, he or she shall be discharged automatically unless the facility, before expiration of the period, files a petition for his or her commitment upon the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for a further period of ninety days unless sooner discharged. If a person has been committed because he or she is an alcoholic likely to inflict physical harm on another, the facility shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists.

~~((6))~~ ~~((A person recommitted under subsection (5) of this section who has not been discharged by the facility before the end of the ninety day period shall be discharged at the expiration of that period unless the facility, before expiration of the period, obtains a court order on the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for recommitment for a further period not to exceed ninety days. If a person has been committed because he or she is an alcoholic likely to inflict physical harm on another, the facility shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists. Only two recommitment orders under subsections (5) and (6) of this section are permitted.~~

~~((7))~~ Upon the filing of a petition for recommitment under subsection ~~((a))~~ (5) ~~((or (6)))~~ of this section, the court shall fix a date for hearing no less than ~~((three))~~ two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed: PROVIDED, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought and upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment facility on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, the original petitioner under subsection (1) of this section if different from the petitioner for recommitment, one of his or her parents or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and his or her attorney and any other person the court believes advisable. At the hearing the court shall proceed as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

~~((8))~~ (7) The approved treatment facility shall provide for adequate and appropriate treatment of a person committed to its custody. A person committed under this section may be transferred from one approved public treatment facility to another if transfer is medically advisable.

~~((9))~~ (8) A person committed to the custody of a facility for treatment shall be discharged at any time before the end of the period for which he or she has been committed and he or she shall be discharged by order of the court if either of the following conditions are met:

(a) In case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of likelihood of infliction of physical harm upon himself, herself, or another, ~~((that he or she is no longer an alcoholic or))~~ the likelihood no longer exists; or further treatment will not be likely to bring about significant improvement in the person's condition, or treatment is no longer adequate or appropriate.

(b) In case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of the need of treatment and incapacity, that the incapacity no longer exists.

~~((10))~~ (9) The court shall inform the person whose commitment or recommitment is sought of his or her right to contest the application, be represented by counsel at every stage of any proceedings relating to his or her commitment and recommitment, and have counsel appointed by the court or provided by the court, if he or she wants the assistance of counsel and is unable to obtain counsel. If the court believes that the person needs the assistance of counsel, the court shall require, by appointment if necessary, counsel for him or her regardless of his or her wishes. The person shall, if he or she is financially able, bear the costs of such legal service; otherwise such legal service shall be at public expense. The person whose commitment or recommitment is sought shall be informed of his or her right to be examined by a licensed physician of his or her choice. If the person is unable to obtain a licensed physician and requests examination by a physician, the court shall employ a licensed physician.

~~((11))~~ (10) A person committed under this chapter may at any time seek to be discharged from commitment by writ of habeas corpus in a court of competent jurisdiction.

~~((12))~~ (11) The venue for proceedings under this section is the county in which person to be committed resides or is present.

(12) When in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility providing involuntary treatment under this chapter, the committed patient can be appropriately served by less restrictive treatment before expiration of the period of commitment, then the less restrictive care may be required as a condition for early release for a period which, when added to the initial treatment period, does not exceed the period of commitment. If the facility designated to provide the less restrictive treatment is other than the facility providing the initial involuntary treatment, the facility so designated must agree in writing to assume such responsibility. A copy of the conditions for early release shall be given to the patient, the designated county alcoholism specialist, and the court of original commitment. The facility designated to provide less restrictive care may modify the conditions for continued release when the modifications are in the best interests of the patient. If the facility providing less restrictive care and the designated county alcoholism specialist determine that a conditionally released patient is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release, or that substantial deterioration in the patient's functioning has occurred, then the designated county alcoholism specialist shall notify the court of original commitment and request a hearing to be held no less than two and no more than seven days after the date of the request to determine whether or not the person should be returned to more restrictive care. The designated alcoholism specialist shall file a petition with the court stating the facts substantiating the need for the hearing along with the treatment recommendations. The patient shall have the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as for the original involuntary treatment proceedings. The issues to be determined at the hearing are whether the conditionally released patient did or did not adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release to less restrictive care or that substantial deterioration of the patient's functioning has occurred and whether the conditions of release should be modified or the person should be returned to a more restrictive facility. The hearing may be waived by the patient and his or her counsel and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, but may not be waived unless all such persons agree to the waiver. Upon waiver, the person may be returned for involuntary treatment or continued on conditional release on the same or modified conditions."

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator McDonald moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that, due to statutory and constitutional limitations, the interdependence of the regular property tax levies of the state, counties, county road districts, cities and towns, and junior taxing districts can cause significant reductions in the otherwise authorized levies of those taxing districts. The purpose of this act is to avoid unnecessary reductions in regular property tax revenue without exceeding existing statutory and constitutional limitations on cumulative regular property tax levy rates. The legislature declares that it is a purpose of the state, counties, county road districts, cities and towns, public hospital districts, library districts, fire protection districts, metropolitan park districts, and other taxing districts, to participate in the methods provided in this act by which revenue levels supporting the services provided by all taxing districts might be maintained.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 107, Laws of 1986 and RCW 39.67.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any agreement or contract between two taxing districts other than the state which is otherwise authorized by law may be made contingent upon a particular property tax levy rate of an identified taxing district other than the state where such rate affects the regular property tax rate of one of the parties to the contract and therefore affects the party's resources with which to perform under the contract.

~~((This section shall expire December 31, 1988.))~~

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 107, Laws of 1986 and RCW 39.67.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any taxing district other than the state may transfer funds to another taxing district other than the state where the regular property tax levy rate of the second district may affect the regular property tax levy rate of the first district and where such transfer is part of an agreement whereby proration or reduction of property taxes is lessened or avoided.

~~((This section shall expire December 31, 1988.))~~

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 107, Laws of 1986 and RCW 84.55.092 are each amended to read as follows:

The regular property tax ~~((levies))~~ levy for each taxing district other than the state ~~((for taxes due in 1987 through 1991))~~ may be set at the amount which would ~~((otherwise))~~ be allowed otherwise under this chapter if the regular property tax levy for the district for taxes due in prior years beginning with 1986 ~~((and 1987))~~ had been set at the full amount allowed under this chapter.

~~((This section shall expire December 31, 1991.))~~

Sec. 5. Section 84.52.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 255, Laws of 1987 and RCW 84.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as is permitted under RCW 84.55.050, all taxes shall be levied or voted in specific amounts.

The rate percent of all taxes for state and county purposes, and purposes of taxing districts coextensive with the county, shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the county, as shown by the completed tax rolls of the county, and the rate percent of all taxes levied for purposes of taxing districts within any county shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the taxing districts respectively.

When a county assessor finds that the aggregate rate of tax levy on any property, that is subject to the limitations set forth in RCW 84.52.043 or 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, exceeds the limitations provided in either of these sections, the assessor shall recompute and establish a consolidated levy in the following manner:

(1) ~~The full certified rates of tax levy for state, county, county road district, and city or town purposes shall be extended on the tax rolls in amounts not exceeding the limitations established by law ((PROVIDED, That in the event of a levy made pursuant to RCW 84.54.230, the rates of levy for county and county road district purposes shall be reduced in such uniform percentages as will result in a consolidated levy by such taxing districts which will be no greater on any property than a consolidated levy by such taxing districts would be if the levy had not been made pursuant to RCW 84.54.230)), subject to section 8(1) of this 1988 act and subsection (2)(e) of this section; however any state levy shall take precedence over all other levies and shall not be reduced for any purpose other than that required by RCW 84.55.010; and~~

(2) The certified rates of tax levy subject to these limitations by all junior taxing districts imposing taxes on such property shall be reduced or eliminated as follows to bring the consolidated levy of taxes on such property within the provisions of these limitations:

(a) First, the certified property tax levy rates of those junior taxing districts authorized under RCW 36.68.525, 36.69.145, and 67.38.130 shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated;

(b) Second, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates of flood control zone districts shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated;

(c) Third, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates of all other junior taxing districts, other than fire protection districts, public hospital districts, metropolitan park districts, and library districts, shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated;

(d) Fourth, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates authorized to fire protection districts under RCW 52.16.140 and 52.16.160 shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated; ~~((and))~~

(e) Fifth, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates authorized for cities and towns, fire protection districts under RCW 52.16.130, public hospital districts, metropolitan park districts, and library districts shall be adjusted as provided in section 8(2) of this 1988 act; and

(f) Sixth, if the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds these limitations, the certified property tax levy rates authorized to fire protection districts under RCW 52.16.130, and the certified property tax levy rates of public hospital districts, metropolitan park districts, and library districts, shall be reduced on a pro rata basis or eliminated.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 138, Laws of 1987 and RCW 84.52.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The governing body of any library district, public hospital district, metropolitan park district, or fire protection district may provide for the submission of a ballot proposition to the voters of the taxing district authorizing the taxing district to maintain its otherwise authorized tax levy rate, and authorizing an increase in the cumulative regular property tax limitation of nine dollars and fifteen cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation within the taxing district, as provided in this section. A fire protection district may use this authority to increase its regular property tax levy up to fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

(2) A resolution by a governing body, requesting that a special election be called to submit such a ballot proposition to the voters, must be transmitted to the county legislative authority of the county, or county legislative authorities of the counties, within which the taxing district is located, at least forty-five days before the special election date at which the ballot proposition is submitted. The ballot proposition shall be worded substantially as follows:

"Shall the cumulative limitation on most regular property tax rates be increased by an amount not exceeding thirty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation for a five consecutive year period allowing (insert the name of the taxing district) to maintain its otherwise statutory authorized property tax rate?"

The ballot proposition for a fire protection district shall be worded substantially as follows:

"Shall the cumulative limitation on most regular property tax rates be increased by an amount not exceeding thirty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation for a five consecutive year period allowing (insert the name of the taxing district) to permit the fire protection district to impose its property tax at a value up to fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation?"

Approval of this ballot proposition by a simple majority vote shall authorize the following for the succeeding five consecutive year period: (a) Property tax rates of junior taxing districts are calculated first as if this proposition had not been approved; (b) subject to the one hundred six percent limitation, the regular property tax rate of the taxing district receiving such authorization is increased to a level not exceeding the lesser of: (i) its maximum statutory authorized regular property tax rate; or (ii) whatever tax rate it otherwise would have been able to impose plus an additional thirty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation; and (c) the cumulative property tax rate limitation is increased within the boundaries of the taxing district receiving this authorization to an amount equal to nine dollars and fifteen cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation plus the increased amount of the regular levy rate of this taxing district, but not to exceed nine dollars and fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

(3) If two or more taxing districts that occupy a portion of the same territory receive such approval, the additional authorized taxing capacity above nine dollars and fifteen cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation shall be distributed among these taxing districts by adjusting their levy rate requests in the same manner and under the same conditions as if they were the only taxing districts in the area subject to adjustment of their property tax rates and the levy rate adjustments were being made with the cumulative limitation of nine dollars and fifteen cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

(4) Levies authorized under RCW 84.52.069 are not subject to the rate adjustments and the nine dollar and fifty cent per thousand dollar of assessed valuation cumulative limitation on regular property tax rates established by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 82.14 RCW to read as follows:

There is hereby created in the state treasury an account to be known as the "municipal buy-down account." Effective July 1, 1989, one-half of the investment income earned on moneys in the local sales and use tax account created by RCW 82.14.050 and which has not been distributed according to RCW 82.14.060 shall be placed in this account. Any moneys in the account on May 1 and on November 1 of each year shall be transferred to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 84.52 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If the aggregate levies for the state, a county, and any city or town located within counties of the fifth class and under exceed the aggregate limitations in RCW 84.52.043 or 84.52.050, the municipality's levy shall be reduced in the following manner:

(a) The city's or town's levy rate shall be reduced in the amount necessary that the limitations shall not be exceeded; and

(b) The state treasurer, upon direction of the department of revenue, shall distribute to the city or town from the account created by section 7 of this act, an amount equal to the amount the levy rate is reduced times the assessed value of the city or town. If there are insufficient funds in the account to make the distribution under this subsection (1)(b), the county in which the city or town is located shall pay to the city or town the amount of the insufficiency.

(2) In any county, if, after any reduction in levy rates required by RCW 84.52.010(2)(a) through (d) and any reduction required by subsection (1) of this section, the consolidated tax levy rate still exceeds the limitations in RCW 84.52.043 or 84.52.050, then the department pursuant to rules shall direct the county assessor to adjust the regular property tax levy rates in the following manner:

(a) First, the assessor determines a first preliminary rate pursuant to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f).

(b) Second, the assessor determines a second preliminary rate which is the additional rate, if any, permitted by RCW 84.52.100.

(i) If the preliminary rates together are sufficient to permit all rates subject to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) to be levied without reduction, then the assessor shall extend on the tax rolls the full certified rates pursuant to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) and 84.52.100.

(ii) If the preliminary rates together are not sufficient to permit all rates subject to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) to be levied without reduction pursuant to both RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) and 84.52.100, the assessor shall reduce the rate of the taxing district subject to RCW 84.52.010(2)(e) with the smallest assessed valuation such that, after first allowing for any additional rate permitted by RCW 84.52.100, there is no reduction of the rates under RCW 84.52.010(2)(f). Where the reduction of the levy of a taxing district is not sufficient, the taxing district with the next smallest assessed valuation shall have its levy reduced under this subsection until there is no reduction of rates under RCW 84.52.010(2)(f). The assessor shall then extend on the tax rolls the rates derived pursuant to this subsection (b)(ii).

(3) The taxing districts whose levies would have been reduced but for subsection (2) of this section shall pay to each district that had its levy so reduced pursuant to subsection (2) of this section a proportionate share of the reduced amount based on the amount by which each district would have had its total levy rate reduced if subsection (2) of this section were not in effect and the rates had been adjusted pursuant to RCW 84.52.010(2)(f) and 84.52.100.

(a) In the case of a public hospital district, library district, fire protection district, or metropolitan park district whose levy is reduced under subsection (2) of this section, the district shall bear a proportionate share as if its rate were sufficient to collect its certified levy.

(b) In the case of a city or town that is annexed by a library district or a fire protection district, which city's or town's levy is reduced under this section, or is in a tax code area where a levy rate is reduced under this section, the city or town shall forgo receipt of, or pay to each district whose levy rate is reduced, ten percent of the amount which would otherwise be paid from each district whose levy rate is not reduced as a result of subsection (2) of this section, collectively not to exceed one-half of the following amount: The assessed valuation of the reduced district multiplied by a rate equal to the city's or town's levy rate, calculated based on its certified levy request, plus the rate(s) of the annexing district(s) minus the rate the city or town would have been able to levy were it not annexed, not to exceed twenty-two and one-half cents.

(4) Fifty-five percent of the amount under subsection (1) of this section shall be distributed on or before April 30 of the tax collection year for which the levy is reduced and forty-five percent on or before October 31 of that year.

(5) Fifty-five percent of the amount under subsection (2) of this section shall be distributed on or before May 31 of the tax collection year for which the levy is reduced and forty-five percent on or before November 30 of that year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department of revenue shall adopt such rules consistent with this act as shall be necessary or desirable to permit its effective administration. The rules shall provide how section 8(2) of this act shall apply to a taxing district that has received authorization to increase its levy according to RCW 84.52.100 and use the method that will be the least costly to all taxing districts involved.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The sum of fifty thousand dollars is transferred from the general fund to the municipal buy-down account created by section 7 of this act and is appropriated from this account to the state treasurer, for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, for the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

(1) The property is used exclusively for the actual operation of the activity for which exemption is granted, unless otherwise provided, and does not exceed an amount reasonably necessary for that purpose, except:

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Senator Niemi demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, a point of order. I would have to raise the issue of scope and object on this amendment. This bill has to do with state school levies with municipal levies in a buy down provision that could be used by municipalities and by the counties and by the state. I think it's a reasonable amendment, but it has to do with discrimination and it does not, I believe, fit within the scope and object of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1420 was deferred.

MOTION

At 1:33 p.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 3:16 p.m. by President Cherberg.

SECOND READING

INGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1404, by Committee on Health Care (originally sponsored by Representatives Bristow, Brooks, McLean, Holm, Braddock, Lux, Peery, Cooper and Day)

Revising provisions relating to licensure of nursing.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the following Committee on Health Care and Corrections amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes the need to increase the pool of available nursing resources to meet new demands on the health care delivery system. The more complex nature of illnesses, constraints on reimbursement pressuring accelerated treatment and earlier patient discharge, the explosion of technology, and the parameters established by third-party payers requiring intense monitoring, may be diverting nurses from the bedside into early burnout, retirement, or employment elsewhere.

The state's nursing educational program, encompassing nursing assistants, licensed practical nurses, and licensed (registered) nurses should be better articulated for career mobility in order to make the nursing profession more attractive to individuals and for retaining qualified nurses in the health care delivery system. Barriers to licensure and employment should be eliminated to increase the number of nurses available for patient care.

The legislature declares this act is in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The state board of nursing, in consultation with the state board of practical nursing, the superintendent of public instruction, vocational education agencies, the state board for community college education, and the higher education coordinating board, shall:

(1) Investigate current education programs for nurses in all settings, such as high schools, vocational-technical schools, community colleges, and universities, to identify the scope of nursing education programs in the state;

(2) Develop, for the purpose of approving nursing education programs for applicants for licensure, a model for articulation and career mobility to enable nurses at every level of the profession to progress to higher levels and advance their professional status by integrating into a recognized nursing curriculum;

(3) Develop innovative nursing education programs that include flexibility in classroom hours, in education program schedules, and through satellite locations so that individuals throughout the state have greater access to a nursing education program; and

(4) Investigate and support innovative models in clinical practice settings for the organization and delivery of nursing services.

The board of nursing shall present its final findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1989, with a work plan for this study to be submitted to the legislature in August, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 18.78 RCW to read as follows:

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 222, Laws of 1949, as last amended by section 129, chapter 259, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.78.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall conduct examinations for all applicants for licensure under this chapter and shall certify qualified applicants to the department of licensing for licensing. The board shall also determine and formulate what constitutes the curriculum for an approved practical nursing program preparing persons for licensure under this chapter. The board shall establish criteria for licensure by endorsement.

The board may adopt rules or issue advisory opinions in response to questions from professional health associations, health care practitioners, and consumers in this state concerning licensed practical nurse practice. The board shall establish criteria for proof of reasonable currency of knowledge and skill as a basis for safe practice after three years inactive or lapsed status.

The board shall adopt such rules as are necessary to fulfill the purposes of this chapter pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 5. Section 15, chapter 202, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 14, chapter 133, Laws of 1973 and RCW 18.88.150 are each amended to read as follows:

An applicant graduated from a school of nursing outside the United States and licensed by a country outside the United States shall meet all qualifications required by this chapter and by the board and shall pass examinations as determined by the board.

Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 202, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 50, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.88.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The board may adopt such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the law, as may be necessary to enable it to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter. The board shall approve curricula and shall establish criteria for minimum standards for schools preparing persons for licensure under this chapter. It shall keep a record of all its proceedings and make such reports to the governor as may be required. The board shall define by regulation what constitutes specialized and advanced levels of nursing practice as recognized by the medical and nursing professions. The board may adopt regulations or issue advisory opinions in response to questions put to it by professional health associations, nursing practitioners, and consumers in this state concerning the authority of various categories of nursing practitioners to perform particular acts.

The board shall approve such schools of nursing as meet the requirements of this chapter and the board, and the board shall approve establishment of basic nursing education programs and shall establish criteria as to the need for and the size of a program and the type of program and the geographical location. Every license issued under the provisions of this chapter, whether in an active or inactive status, shall be renewed, except as hereinafter provided. ~~((The board shall by regulation establish requirements of continuing nursing education as a condition of license renewal: PROVIDED: That membership in an organization shall not be a prerequisite or condition to the fulfillment of any continuous education requirement established as provided herein: PROVIDED FURTHER: That the board shall validate all educational programs established as provided herein:))~~ At least thirty days prior to expiration, the director shall mail a notice for renewal of license to every person licensed for the current licensing period. The applicant shall return the notice to the department with a renewal fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 before the expiration date. If the applicant fails the examination, the interim permit shall expire upon notification and is not renewable. The holder of the interim permit is subject to chapter 18.130 RCW."

MOTION

Senator Wojahn moved that the following amendment by Senators Wojahn, Barr and Deccio to the Committee on Health Care and Corrections amendment be adopted:

On page 5, after line 5 of the amendment, insert the following:

"Sec. 6. Section 6, chapter 222, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 8, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.78.060 are each amended to read as follows:

An applicant for a license to practice nursing as a licensed practical nurse shall submit to the board written evidence, on a form provided by the board, verified under oath, that the applicant:

- (1) Is at least eighteen years of age;

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Barr, no there won't be any lawyer-talk in this one. What I'm interested in knowing is that when you have a private way of necessity, usually, it's a right that develops by adverse possession. You've squatted on the property and you've used the private way of necessity to get to your land in some fashion or form and you've had to do that in an open and notorious way. You've had to do that obviously to the land owners. They know that this is all going on and the land owner hasn't thrown you off the property. What I'm trying to figure out is how, if you're going over a particular right-of-way, a particular way of necessity to your property, how the court is going to determine you have a right of ownership by adverse possession and then reroute you along the lines that Section 2 of this bill provides. How does that work?"

Senator Barr: "This measure is not to deal with a situation that you describe. I think from what you say, you're talking about someone who has used a right-of-way and then he's seeking adverse possession through there. Now, what this measure deals with is when you're seeking the first easement through this property. It does not deal with the court cases and that's a long and involved story. We had legislation here to deal with that and that didn't get out of Rules. This doesn't deal with those court cases like you described. It only deals with the original desire and right to get an easement through your neighbor's place."

Senator Talmadge: "My recollection, Senator, is you can get a private way of necessity by adverse possession. By indicating that you want to do that over a period of time and you essentially get that easement by prescriptive use--by the fact that you're doing it--are you saying this doesn't apply to prescriptive ways of necessity, but only applies to circumstances where the governmental bodies are going out and condemning the way?"

Senator Barr: "No, nothing to do with condemning the land or anything. That's just confusing the issue and it has nothing to do with the prescriptive easement case in courts. He's used it for over ten years and he demands prescriptive easement rights. It does not deal with that. It deals with--I moved up behind your house and there is no other way to get out except to have an easement through your property and this deals with that. It does two things. It says that we have to look at the least productive, the least valuable land to get that easement through there and then it deals with the attorney's fees if we go to court. That's all it does."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1416, as amended by the Senate.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that G. Robert Ross, immediate past president of Western Washington University, was an exemplary university president who helped lead his school to a position of increasing excellence and national prominence. Dr. Ross was a convincing spokesperson for excellence in all areas of education and was a leader who strongly encouraged the faculty and staff at Western Washington University to be actively involved in the pursuit of scholarly activities.

The legislature wishes to honor the public spirit, dedication, integrity, perseverance, inspiration, and accomplishments of Western Washington University faculty through the creation of the G. Robert Ross Distinguished Faculty Award.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The G. Robert Ross distinguished faculty award is hereby established. The board of trustees at Western Washington University shall establish the guidelines for the selection of the recipients of the G. Robert Ross distinguished faculty award. The board shall establish a local endowment fund for the deposit of all state funds appropriated for this purpose and any private donations. The board shall administer the endowment fund and the award. The principal of the invested endowment fund shall not be invaded and the proceeds from the endowment fund may be used to supplement the salary of the holder of the award, to pay salaries of his or her assistants, and to pay expenses associated with the holder's scholarly work.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 8, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28B.10.870 are each amended to read as follows:

All state four-year institutions of higher education shall be eligible for matching trust funds. An institution may apply to the higher education coordinating board for two hundred fifty thousand dollars from the fund when the institution can match the state funds with an equal amount of pledged or contributed private donations or with funds received through legislative appropriation specifically for the G. Robert Ross distinguished faculty award and designated as being qualified to be matched from trust fund moneys. These donations shall be made specifically to the professorship program, and shall be donated after July 1, 1985.

Upon an application by an institution, the board may designate two hundred fifty thousand dollars from the trust fund for that institution's pledged professorship. If the pledged two hundred fifty thousand dollars is not received within three years, the board shall make the designated funds available for another pledged professorship.

Once the private donation is received by the institution, the higher education coordinating board shall ask the state treasurer to release the state matching funds to a local endowment fund established by the institution for the professorship.

Sec. 4. Section 12, chapter 8, Laws of 1987 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

(1) For the biennium ending June 30, 1989, all appropriations to the Washington distinguished professorship trust fund shall be allocated as provided in this section. The state treasurer shall reserve the following amounts in the trust fund for distribution to four-year higher education institutions at such time as qualifying gifts as defined in section 1 of this act for distinguished professorships have been deposited:

(a) (~~Forty-five percent~~) Two million two hundred fifty thousand dollars of the appropriation for the University of Washington;

(b) (~~Thirty percent~~) One million five hundred thousand dollars of the appropriation for Washington State University;

(c) (~~Twenty-five percent~~) One million dollars of the appropriation divided among Eastern Washington University, Central Washington University, Western Washington University, and The Evergreen State College.

(2) Distribution of funds allocated in subsection (1)(c) of this section shall be made in the following manner: Eastern Washington University, Central Washington University, Western Washington University, and The Evergreen State College are guaranteed one professorship. ~~((The remaining professorship shall be allocated on a first come first served basis to a regional university or The Evergreen State College which has used the professorship guaranteed it, and qualified for an additional professorship under section 5 of this act. If the regional universities and The Evergreen State College have not obligated the unassigned professorship by May 1, 1989, that professorship may be allocated to either the University of Washington or Washington State University in accordance with rules promulgated by the higher education coordinating board.))~~

(3) As of January 1, 1989, if any funds reserved in subsection (1) (a) or (b) of this section have not been designated as matching funds for qualifying gifts, any four-year institution of higher education, which has already fully utilized the professorships allocated to it by this section, and, in the case of the regional universities and The Evergreen State College, has exhausted the allocation in subsection (1)(c) of this section, may be eligible for such funds under rules promulgated by the higher education coordinating board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the state general fund to the Western Washington University for deposit in the G. Robert Ross distinguished faculty endowment fund. The appropriation in this section shall fulfill the matching requirements in RCW 28B.10.870 for an additional two hundred fifty thousand dollars from the distinguished professorship trust fund. This appropriation along with the matching money from the distinguished professorship trust fund will result in a total amount of five hundred thousand dollars to be deposited into the G. Robert Ross distinguished faculty endowment fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Section 2 of this act is added to Title 28B RCW."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Saling, the following amendment by Senators Saling, Smitherman, Patterson, McDonald, Hansen, Anderson and von Reichbauer to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A shortage of high-quality equipment in Washington's institutions of higher education hinders the ability of those institutions to provide the advanced instruction needed to maintain industrial competitiveness and spur economic development in the state. This problem can be at least partially solved by encouraging donations of modern equipment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this section and section 7 of this act:

(1) "Modern equipment" means equipment that is useful in the course of postsecondary and graduate instruction or research and is comparable to state-of-the-art equipment or equipment widely used currently in private industry, not-for-profit organizations, or government laboratories. This definition only applies to equipment that retains at least one-half its useful life at the time of donation.

(2) "Institutions of higher education" means those institutions of higher education defined in RCW 28B.10.016.

(3) "Donation" means a transfer to an institution of higher education of modern equipment that is not encumbered in any manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) After issuing a need statement and accepting a donation of modern equipment, an institution of higher education shall promptly have the fair market value of such equipment assessed by a qualified, independent expert. However, when the price of the donated modern equipment is listed in current catalogs or price lists available to the general public, an independent expert need not be used. The assessed fair market value of such equipment or the listed value shall then be reported to the higher education coordinating board, along with such other information as the board deems necessary.

(2) Upon receipt of a report under subsection (1) of this section, the board may distribute to the recipient institution of higher education, if funds are available, an amount up to the fair market value of the donated equipment. These funds, and the proceeds of the funds, shall be used for the initial installation, operation, and maintenance of and training in the use of the donated equipment and the purchase of software or new equipment that will optimize the use of the donated equipment. If funding requested under this section is unavailable, the institution may, at its discretion, cancel and return the donation.

(3) In consultation with institutions of higher education, the board shall adopt rules and guidelines for the program. These rules and guidelines may include an allocation system based on factors including but not limited to: The amount of funding available for the program and the needs of special programs which have been designated as priority programs by the legislature, the governor, or the institutions."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

(2) The service retirement allowances to be paid to a dual member upon retiring from the current system because of service shall be the sum of:

(a) The service retirement allowance received under the current system as a result of multiplying the current system average final compensation by the percentage factor of the current system and the service earned under the current system; and

(b) The sum of the respective service retirement allowances received under prior systems as a result of multiplying each prior system's average final compensation by the percentage factor of that prior system and the service earned under that prior system.

(3) Eligibility to receive a service benefit under this chapter shall be based on (a) the criteria of any system in which dual membership is held, and (b) the dual member's combined systems' service;)) Except as limited in subsection (2) of this section, a dual member's service in all systems may be combined for the sole purpose of determining the member's eligibility to receive a service retirement allowance.

(2) A dual member must have five or more years of service in one system in order to have the member's service retirement allowances calculated under this section.

(3) A dual member who is eligible to retire under any system may elect to retire from all the member's systems and to receive service retirement allowances calculated as provided in this section. Each system shall calculate the allowance using its own criteria except that the member shall be allowed to substitute the member's average base salary from any system as the compensation used in calculating the allowance.

(4) The service retirement allowances from a system which, but for this ((chapter)) section, would not be allowed to be paid at this date based on the dual member's age shall be either actuarially adjusted from the earliest age upon which the combined service would have made such dual member eligible in that system, or the dual member may choose to defer the benefit until fully eligible.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 192, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.54.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The retirement allowances calculated under RCW 41.54.030 shall be paid separately by each respective current and prior system. Any deductions from such separate payments shall be according to the provisions of the respective systems.

(2) Postretirement adjustments, if any, shall be applied by the respective systems based on the payments made under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) If a dual member dies in service in any system, the surviving spouse shall receive the same benefit from each system that would have been received if the member were active in the system at the time of death based on service actually established in that system. However, this subsection does not make a surviving spouse eligible for the survivor benefits provided in RCW 43.43.270.

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 192, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.54.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The benefit granted by this chapter shall not result in a total benefit less than would have been received absent such benefit. The total sum of the retirement allowances received under this chapter shall not exceed the smallest amount the dual member would receive if all the service had been rendered in any one system. When calculating the maximum benefit a dual member would receive: (1) Military service granted under RCW 41.40.170(3) or 43.43.260 shall be based only on service accrued under chapter 41.40 or 43.43 RCW, respectively; and (2) the calculation shall be made assuming that the dual member did not defer any allowances pursuant to RCW 41.54.030(4). When a dual member's combined retirement allowances would exceed the limitation imposed by this section, the allowances shall be reduced by the systems on a proportional basis, according to service.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 105, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 192, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.04.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of chapter 2.10, 2.12, 41.26, 41.28, 41.32, 41.40, or 43.43 RCW to the contrary, on and after March 19, 1976, any member or former member who (a) receives a retirement allowance earned by said former member as deferred compensation from any public retirement system authorized by the general laws of this state, or (b) is eligible to receive a retirement allowance from any public retirement system listed in RCW 41.50.030, but chooses not to apply, or (c) is the beneficiary of a disability allowance from any public retirement system listed in RCW 41.50.030 shall be estopped from becoming a member of or accruing any contractual rights whatsoever in any other public retirement system listed in RCW 41.50.030: PROVIDED, That (a) and (b) of this subsection shall not apply to persons who have accumulated less than fifteen years service credit in any such system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 41.54 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The systems may pay a dual member a lump sum payment in lieu of a monthly benefit if the initial monthly benefit computed in accordance with RCW 41.54.030 would be less than fifty dollars. The lump sum payment shall be the greater of the actuarial equivalent of such monthly benefits or an amount equal to the individual's accumulated contributions plus accrued interest.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that any member who receives a settlement under this section shall be deemed to be retired from the system making the lump sum payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act shall take effect July 1, 1988."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Warnke: "Mr. President, a point of order. House Bill No. 1649 has a very limited scope and object, which is to clarify and delete certain existing pension portability definitions and provisions as enacted by the Legislature last year. The committee amendment changes the scope and object of this limited bill by providing a brand new definition of average base salary, which is the very foundation for qualifying for pension eligibility and for compensation levels. This is a new policy direction for the Legislature, not contemplated by the House Bill. For that reason, I believe, the committee amendment changes the scope and object of House Bill No. 1649."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of House Bill No. 1649 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 692, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Niemi, Locke, Jacobsen, Leonard, Sanders, P. King, May, Brough, L. Smith and Sprengle)

Changing opium dens to houses where controlled substances are made or used in moral nuisance statute.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment be adopted:

On page 4, after line 12, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The legislature finds that the manufacturing, selling, and distributing of unlawful controlled substances is becoming increasingly more prevalent and violent. Attempts by law enforcement officers to prevent the manufacture, sale, and distribution of illegal drugs is resulting in numerous life-threatening situations since drug dealers are using sophisticated weapons and modern technological devices to deter the efforts of law enforcement officials to enforce the controlled substance statutes. Dealers of unlawful drugs are employing a wide variety of violent methods to realize the enormous profits of the drug trade.

Therefore, the legislature finds that conversations regarding illegal drug operations may be intercepted and transmitted in certain limited circumstances without prior judicial approval to protect the life and safety of law enforcement officers, to enhance prosecution of drug offenses, and to protect the constitutional guarantees of privacy.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 9.73 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If, as part of a bona fide criminal investigation, a police commander or officer above the rank of first line supervisor determines that the safety of the consenting party is in danger, law enforcement personnel may, for the sole purpose of protecting the safety of the consenting party, intercept and transmit a private conversation or communication concerning the unlawful manufacture, delivery, sale, or possession with intent to manufacture, deliver, or sell, controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.50 RCW, or legend drugs as defined in chapter 69.41 RCW, or imitation controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.52 RCW. This section does not authorize the interception, transmission, or recording of any telephone conversation or communication.

(2) A conversation or communication intercepted and transmitted pursuant to subsection (1) of this section may be recorded by any electronic or other device designed to record the conversation or communication regardless of how the device is powered or activated, and contemporaneous written notes or transcriptions of the conversation or communication may be made. No recollection, recording, transcription, or notes of such an interception and transmission are admissible in any civil or criminal case in any court of general or limited jurisdiction in this state, except when introduced with approval of a court and pursuant to court rules and then only (a) with the permission of a party to the conversation or communication who has not consented to the interception or transmission; or (b) in a prosecution for a "serious violent offense" as defined in RCW 9.94A.030 or in a civil suit for personal injury or wrongful death arising out of the same incident, in which a party who consented to the interception and transmission was a victim of the offense.

(3) Before any interception and transmission of a private conversation or communication pursuant to this section, the police commander or officer making the determination required by subsection (1) of this section shall complete a written authorization which shall include (a) the date and time the authorization is given; (b) the persons, including the consenting party, expected to participate in the conversation, to the extent known; (c) the expected date, location, and approximate time of the conversation; and (d) the reasons for believing the consenting party's safety will be in danger.

(4) Within fifteen days after any interception and transmission of a conversation or communication pursuant to this section, the law enforcement agency which made the interception and transmission shall submit a report to a judge of a court having jurisdiction and to the administrator for the courts, which report shall include a copy of the written authorization required by subsection (1) of this section and shall identify (a) the persons, including the consenting party, who participated in the conversation and (b) the date, location, and approximate time of the conversation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 9.73 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The chief law enforcement officer of a law enforcement agency or his or her designee above the rank of first line supervisor may authorize the interception, transmission, and recording of a conversation or communication under the following circumstances:

(a) At least one party to the conversation or communication has consented to the interception, transmission, and recording; and

(b) The conversation or communication involves the unlawful manufacture, delivery, sale, or possession with intent to manufacture, deliver, or sell, controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.50 RCW, or legend drugs as defined in chapter 69.41 RCW, or imitation controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.52 RCW.

(2) Before authorizing an interception under subsection (1) of this section, the agency's chief officer or designee shall prepare a written report indicating:

(a) That because of emergent needs of a criminal investigation, there was insufficient time to attempt to obtain judicial authorization for the interception under RCW 9.73.090, or that an unsuccessful good faith attempt was made to contact a judge or magistrate for such authorization. Such judge or magistrate shall be a designated judge or magistrate under subsection (6) of this section. The report shall contain specific details regarding any attempted contact, including: (i) The name of the designated judge or magistrate who the agency unsuccessfully attempted to contact; (ii) the exact time and date of the attempted contact; and (iii) the method or methods of attempted contact. If no contact was attempted, the report shall contain specific details as to why there was insufficient time to attempt to contact the designated judge or magistrate;

(b) That there is probable cause to believe, and the basis for the belief, that a nonconsenting party to the conversation or communication has committed or will commit an offense listed in subsection (1)(b) of this section;

(c) The names of the authorizing and consenting parties;

(d) The identity of the particular person, if known, who may have committed or may commit the offense;

(e) The details of the particular offense that may have been or may be committed; and

(f) The particular type of conversation or communication to be intercepted.

(3) No authorization made under this section is valid for more than twenty-four hours after the time it is signed by the authorizing officer. The authorizing officer shall sign the written report required under subsection (2) of this section, certifying the exact date and time of his or her signature. No interception, transmission, or recording made under subsection (1) of this section may be used for any purpose other than obtaining evidence for use in prosecuting an offense listed in subsection (1)(b) of this section.

(4) Within two judicial days after any authorization under this section, the law enforcement agency making the authorization shall submit the report required by subsection (2) of this section to the presiding judge of a superior court having jurisdiction over the offense involved, and shall mail a copy of the report to the office of the administrator for the courts and to any judge or magistrate identified in the report. In a multi-county judicial district or in the absence of the presiding judge, the report may be submitted to the court clerk for the presiding judge. At the court's earliest opportunity after receipt of the report, the presiding judge of the superior court shall hold or cause to be held a closed hearing to review the authorization and any recordings made pursuant to it. The court shall determine whether any of the requirements of subsection (2) of this section have been violated. If the court determines that any of the requirements have been violated, or that the information collected pursuant to the authorization is not related to the commission of an offense listed in subsection (1)(b) of this section, it shall order the destruction of all recordings or other evidence of the intercepted conversation or communication and order that no further interception be made pursuant to that authorization. Following a determination of such a violation, no one other than a party to the intercepted conversation or communication may testify in any civil or criminal action as to the content of the conversation or communication. A determination by the court that such a violation did not occur is in no way binding on a subsequent court's consideration of the validity of an authorization.

(5) In any subsequent judicial proceeding, evidence obtained through the interception or recording of a conversation is admissible only if the court finds:

(a) That there was probable cause as required by subsection (2)(b) of this section;

(b) That a good faith but unsuccessful effort was made to contact the designated judge or magistrate, or that there was insufficient time to attempt to contact the designated judge or magistrate; and

(c) That the informational requirements of subsection (2) of this section were met.

(6) Each superior court and each district court district shall designate, for each twenty-four hour period of the year, at least one judge or magistrate to be available for requests for written or telephonic authorizations under RCW 9.73.090(2).

(7) Any determination of invalidity of an authorization under subsection (4) or (5) of this section shall be reported by the court to the office of the administrator for the courts.

Sec. 7, Section 1, chapter 48, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 38, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.73.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The provisions of RCW 9.73.030 through 9.73.080 shall not apply to police, fire, emergency medical service, emergency communication center, and poison center personnel in the following instances:

(a) Recording incoming telephone calls to police and fire stations, licensed emergency medical service providers, emergency communication centers, and poison centers;

(b) Video and/or sound recordings may be made of arrested persons by police officers responsible for making arrests or holding persons in custody before their first appearance in court. Such video and/or sound recordings shall conform strictly to the following:

(i) The arrested person shall be informed that such recording is being made and the statement so informing him shall be included in the recording;

(ii) The recording shall commence with an indication of the time of the beginning thereof and terminate with an indication of the time thereof;

(iii) At the commencement of the recording the arrested person shall be fully informed of his constitutional rights, and such statements informing him shall be included in the recording;

(iv) The recordings shall only be used for valid police or court activities.

(2) It shall not be unlawful for a law enforcement officer acting in the performance of the officer's official duties to intercept, record, or disclose an oral communication or conversation where the officer is a party to the communication or conversation or one of the parties to the communication or conversation has given prior consent to the interception, recording, or disclosure: PROVIDED, That prior to the interception, transmission, or recording the officer shall obtain written or telephonic authorization from a judge or magistrate, who shall approve the interception, recording, or disclosure of communications or conversations with a nonconsenting party for a reasonable and specified period of time, if there is probable cause to believe that the nonconsenting party has committed, is engaged in, or is about to commit a felony: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That if such authorization is given by telephone the authorization and officer's statement justifying such authorization must be electronically recorded by the judge or magistrate on a recording device in the custody of the judge or magistrate at the time transmitted and the recording shall be retained in the court records and reduced to writing as soon as possible thereafter. The authorization is valid in other jurisdictions and for the interception of communications from additional persons if the persons are brought into the conversation or transaction by the nonconsenting party or if the nonconsenting party or such third persons cause or invite the consenting party to enter another jurisdiction.

Any recording or interception of a communication or conversation incident to a lawfully recorded or intercepted communication or conversation pursuant to this subsection shall be lawful and may be divulged. If any recording or interception is made pursuant to authorization from a judge or magistrate under this subsection and the authorization is subsequently invalidated by a court, the recording or interception may nonetheless be introduced to impeach any party to the communication or conversation provided the application for the authorization was made in good faith.

All recordings of communications or conversations made pursuant to this subsection shall be retained for as long as any crime may be charged based on the events or communications or conversations recorded.

(3) Communications or conversations authorized to be intercepted, recorded, or disclosed by this section shall not be inadmissible under RCW 9.73.050.

(4) Authorizations issued under this section shall be effective for not more than seven days, after which period the issuing authority may upon application of the officer who secured the original authorization renew or continue the authorization for an additional period not to exceed seven days.

Sec. 8. Section 4, chapter 93, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 363, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 9.73.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided by subsection (2) of this section, any person who, directly or by means of a detective agency or any other agent, violates the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to legal action for damages, to be brought by any other person claiming that a violation of this statute has injured his or her business, his or her person, his or her privacy, or his or her reputation. A person so injured shall be entitled to: (a) Actual damages (including mental pain and suffering endured by him on account of violation of the provisions of this chapter), or liquidated damages computed at the rate of one hundred dollars a day for each day of violation (not to exceed one thousand dollars); (b) statutory damages of twenty-five thousand dollars; and (c) a reasonable (attorney's) attorneys' fee and other costs of litigation. A continuous violation over a period of time shall be considered a single violation for purposes of determining statutory damages.

(2) An employee of a law enforcement agency is not liable for damages under this section for acts undertaken in good faith by that employee and with the reasonable belief that the acts were lawful, or for the acts of another employee of the agency. However, this limited immunity is not available to the law enforcement agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The office of the administrator for the courts shall, by December 1 of each year, submit to the legislature a report on information received by it under sections 5 and 6 of this act. The report shall include at least the following: The number of authorizations made pursuant to each of those sections; and the number of authorizations under section 6 of this act that are subsequently invalidated."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Niemi: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would request a ruling on the scope and object of this amendment. Yesterday, I requested a ruling on scope and object of an amendment dealing with a bill dealing with sex crimes based partly on the underlying importance of the bill and the fact that the amendment would jeopardize the bill. This amendment deals with civil abatement for fighting drug cases--the underlying bill does. If this amendment hangs, it will jeopardize again what is really a very, very important tool in fighting drugs all over the state. Of course, these are crack houses we are talking about, particularly, in the city of Seattle. Any amendment that would jeopardize this bill by hanging for example a criminal law such as the amendment is on civil law--such as abatement is--would set back the city of Seattle, again, a year and the rest of the state another year with this much needed bill."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I think the rules provides on these points of order that one may speak on each side. It appears that there are two speaking on one side."

Debate ensued.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "Senator Newhouse, on points of order, there's no limitation on the debate."

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 692 was deferred.

The review shall take place at times set by the board, the first review to be no more than one hundred eighty days after the child is removed from the home, unless the parents request an earlier review as provided for in accordance with this section. Subsequent reviews to take place no less frequently than once every six months thereafter until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or no longer in substitute care or until a guardianship or an adoption proceeding becomes final. Parents may request one expedited review at least thirty days after the child is removed from the home and within the first one hundred eighty days after removal. As soon as practical but no later than forty-five days after the denial, the board shall review any case where a petition to terminate parental rights has been denied.

(2) After reviewing each case, the local citizen review board shall prepare written findings and recommendations with respect to:

(b) The continuing need for and appropriateness of the placement;

(c) Compliance with the case plan;

(d) The progress which has been made toward alleviating the need for placement;

(g) Whether the court should appoint an attorney or other person to represent or appear on behalf of the child under section 13 of this act.

(3) Whenever a member of a local citizen review board has a potential conflict of interest in a case being reviewed, the member shall declare to the local citizen review board the nature of the potential conflict prior to participating in the case review. The declaration of the member shall be recorded in the official records of the board. If, in the judgment of the majority of the local board, the potential conflict of interest may prevent the member from fairly and objectively reviewing the case, the local board may remove the member from participation in the review.

(4) The local citizen review board shall keep accurate records and retain these records on file. The local citizen review board shall send copies of its written findings and recommendations to the court, the department, and other participants in the review.

(5) The local citizen review board may hold joint or separate reviews for groups of siblings.

(7) Anyone participating in a case review by a local citizen review board shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, for defamation for statements made in good faith by the participant, orally or in writing, in the course of such case review. Members of the local citizen review board shall not be held liable in any civil action for recommending that a child be returned home, if the recommendation was made in good faith under this chapter. The participant shall have the same immunity with respect to participating in any judicial proceeding resulting from the review or recommendation of a local board to the juvenile court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Unless excused from doing so by the local citizen review board, the department and any other agency directly responsible for the care and placement of the child shall require the presence of any employees having knowledge of the case at local board meetings.

(2) The court is not required to review the findings and recommendations of the local citizen review board in cases where the child has been placed in substitute care with signed parental consent and no court action has been filed unless the child is taken into custody pursuant to RCW 13.34.050 or 26.44.050.

(3) The local citizen review board may require the presence of specific employees of the department or applicable agency at local board meetings. If an employee fails to be present at such a meeting, the local review board may request a court hearing. The court may require the employee to be present and show cause why the employee should not be compelled to appear before the local citizen review board.

(4) As used in this section, "presence" includes telephone participation, but the caseworker on the case at the time of the meeting shall be physically present if required.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. In addition to reviewing individual cases of children in substitute care, local citizen review boards may make recommendations to the court and the department concerning substitute care services, policies, procedures, and laws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) The court shall review the findings and recommendations of the local citizen review board within ten days after the findings and recommendations are received by the court. If the court finds it appropriate, the court may on its own motion schedule a review hearing. The findings and recommendations of the local citizen review board shall become part of the juvenile court file.

(2) The department shall review the findings and recommendations of the local citizen review board within ten days after the findings and recommendations are received by the department. The department may file a motion for a review hearing on the findings and recommendations of the review board. The recommendations shall be implemented unless there are inadequate resources to carry out the plan or unless good cause exists not to follow the findings of the local citizen review board. The findings and recommendations of the local citizen review board shall become part of the case file of the department. In cases where the child is in substitute care with parental consent as defined in subsection (2) of this section the department shall notify the local citizen review board if the department modifies the case plan recommended by the board.

(3) Upon its own motion or upon the request of the department, the local citizen review board or any interested party, the court may appoint an attorney or other person to represent or appear on behalf of the child. The guardian ad litem shall be appointed under chapter 13.34 RCW and shall perform duties under that chapter subject to the direction of the court, including periodic visits to the child in a substitute care setting for the purpose of monitoring the child's health, safety, and conditions of minimal nurture.

(4) The hearing shall be conducted in the manner provided by law for hearings involving juveniles, except that the court may receive testimony and reports as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) The state citizen review board operating account is created in the state treasury for the administrator for the courts to pay the expenses incurred under this chapter. Such expenses shall be paid only from funds specifically appropriated for the purposes of this chapter and no other moneys appropriated to the administrator for the courts shall be used for these purposes.

(2) The administrator for the courts may apply for and receive funds from federal, local, and private sources for carrying out the purposes of this chapter. Such funds shall be credited to the state citizen review board operating account.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) Any public or private agency having legal custody and/or supervision, excluding those children for whom a plan of guardianship has been finalized by the court, shall file reports on the child with the juvenile court which entered the original order concerning the child or, where no such order exists, with the juvenile court of the county of the child's residence in the following circumstances:

(a) Where the child has been placed with the agency as a result of a court order and prior to, or as soon as practicable after the agency places the child in any placement including, but not limited to, the child's home, shelter care, or substitute care, unless the court has previously received a report or treatment plan indicating the actual physical placement of the child;

(b) Where the child has been placed with the agency as the result of a court order and remains under agency care for six consecutive months except for a child who has been committed to a state juvenile correctional facility; or

(c) Where the child has been surrendered for adoption or the parents' rights have been terminated and the agency has not physically placed the child for adoption or initiated adoption proceedings within six months of receiving the child.

(2) The department shall refer all written consents for voluntary placement of children to the juvenile court for referral to the local citizen review board within ten days of the signing of the consent.

(3) The reports required by subsection (1) (b) and (c) of this section shall be filed by the agency within thirty days of the initial placement and no less frequently than each six months thereafter. The agency shall file reports more frequently if the court so orders.

(4) The reports shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) A description of the problems or offenses which necessitated the placement of the child with the agency;

(b) A description of the type and an analysis of the effectiveness of the care, treatment, and supervision that the agency has provided for the child, together with a list of all placements made since the child has been in the guardianship or legal custody of an agency and the length of time the child has spent in each placement;

(c) A description of agency efforts to return the child to the parental home or find permanent placement for the child, including, where applicable, efforts to assist the parents in remedying factors which contributed to the removal of the child from the home;

(d) A proposed treatment plan or proposed continuation or modification of an existing treatment plan, including, where applicable, terms of visitation to be allowed and expected of parents and a description of efforts expected of the child and the parents to remedy factors which have prevented the return of the child to the parental home; and

(e) If continued substitute care is recommended, a proposed timetable for the child's return home or other permanent placement or a justification of why extended substitute care is necessary.

(5) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsection (4) of this section, reports following the initial report need not contain information contained in prior reports.

(6) Upon receiving any report required by this section, the court may hold a hearing to review the child's condition and circumstances and a determination by the court that clearly states the future status of the child and agreement or disagreement with the permanent planning goal recommended by the department. The court shall hold a hearing:

(a) In all cases under subsection (1)(c) of this section where the parents' rights have been terminated; or

(b) If requested by the child, the attorney for the child, if any, the parents, or the public or private agency having legal custody of the child within thirty days of receipt of the notice provided in subsection (8) of this section.

(7) The hearing provided in subsection (6) of this section shall be conducted in the manner provided by chapter 13.34 RCW, except that the court may receive testimony and reports as provided by statute. At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall enter findings of fact if the decision is to continue the child in substitute care. Such findings shall specifically state:

(a) Why continued care is necessary as opposed to returning the child to the child's home or prompt action to secure another permanent placement; or

(b) The expected timetable for return or other permanent placement.

(8) Except where a child has been surrendered for adoption or the parents' rights have been terminated, the court shall send a copy of the report required by this section to the parents of the child and shall notify the parents either that a hearing will be held or that the parents may request a hearing at which time they may ask for modifications in the care, treatment, and supervision of the child. If the court finds that informing the parents of the identity and location of the foster parents of the child is not in the child's best interest, the court may order such information deleted from the report before sending the report to the parents.

(9) Where a child has been surrendered for adoption and the agency has not physically placed the child for adoption or initiated adoption proceedings within six months of receiving the child, the agency shall file a petition alleging that the child comes within the jurisdiction of the court.

(10) Any decision of the court made pursuant to the hearing provided in subsection (6) of this section shall be a final order for the purposes of this title.

Sec. 16. Section 3, chapter 259, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 6, chapter 363, Laws of 1987 and RCW 2.56.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(11) Administer programs and standards for the training and education of judicial personnel;

(12) Examine the need for new superior court and district judge positions under a weighted caseload analysis that takes into account the time required to hear all the cases in a particular court and the amount of time existing judges have available to hear cases in that court. The results of the weighted caseload analysis shall be reviewed by the board for judicial administration and the judicial council, both of which shall make recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1989. It is the intent of the legislature that weighted caseload analysis become the basis for creating additional district court positions, and recommendations should address that objective: ((and))

Sec. 17. Section 6, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 3, chapter 311, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.34.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the filing of the petition, the clerk of the court shall issue a summons, one directed to the child. If the child is twelve or more years of age, and another to the parents, guardian, or custodian, and such other persons as appear to the court to be proper or necessary parties to the proceedings, requiring them to appear personally before the court at the time fixed to hear the petition. If the child is developmentally disabled and not living at home, the notice shall be given to the child's custodian as well as to the child's parent. The developmentally disabled child shall not be required to appear unless requested by the court. Where the custodian is summoned, the parent or guardian or both shall also be served with a summons. ~~(The hearing on the petition shall be set for a time no later than forty-five days after the filing of the petition and shall be held at such time, unless for good cause the hearing is continued to a later time at the request of either party.)~~ The hearing on the petition shall be held no later than seventy-five days after the filing of the petition, unless exceptional reasons for a continuance are found. The party requesting the continuance shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that exceptional circumstances do exist. To ensure that the hearing on the petition occurs within the seventy-five day time limit, the court shall schedule and hear the matter on an expedited basis.

(2) A copy of the petition shall be attached to each summons.

(3) The summons shall advise the parties of the right to counsel.

(4) The judge may endorse upon the summons an order directing any parent, guardian, or custodian having the custody or control of the child to bring the child to the hearing.

(5) If it appears from affidavit or sworn statement presented to the judge that there is probable cause for the issuance of a warrant of arrest or that the child needs to be taken into custody pursuant to RCW 13.34.050, the judge may endorse upon the summons an order that an officer serving the summons shall at once take the child into custody and take him to the place of shelter designated by the court.

(6) If the person summoned as provided in this section is subject to an order of the court pursuant to subsection (4) or (5) of this section, and if the person fails to abide by the order, he may be proceeded against as for contempt of court. The order endorsed upon the summons shall conspicuously display the following legend:

NOTICE: VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS SUBJECT TO PROCEEDING FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT
PURSUANT TO RCW 13.34.070.

(7) If a party to be served with a summons can be found within the state, the summons shall be served upon the party personally at least five court days before the fact-finding hearing, or such time as set by the court. If the party is within the state and cannot be personally served, but the party's address is known or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, the summons may be served upon the party by mailing a copy thereof by certified mail at least ten court days before the hearing, or such time as set by the court. If a party other than the child is without the state but can be found or the address is known, or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, service of the summons may be made either by delivering a copy thereof to the party personally or by mailing a copy thereof to the party by certified mail at least ten court days before the fact-finding hearing, or such time as set by the court.

(8) Service of summons may be made under the direction of the court by any person eighteen years of age or older who is not a party to the proceedings or by any law enforcement officer, probation counselor, or department of social and health services social worker.

(9) In any proceeding brought under this chapter where the court knows or has reason to know that the child involved is a member of an Indian tribe, notice of the pendency of the proceeding shall also be sent by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the child's tribe. If the identity or location of the tribe cannot be determined, such notice shall be transmitted to the secretary of the interior of the United States.

Sec. 18. Section 4, chapter 188, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.34.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If, after a fact-finding hearing pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, as now or hereafter amended, it has been proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is dependent within the meaning of RCW 13.34.030(2); after consideration of the predisposition report prepared pursuant to RCW 13.34.110 and after a disposition hearing has been held pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, the court shall enter an order of disposition pursuant to this section.

(1) The court shall order one of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Order a disposition other than removal of the child from his or her home, which shall provide a program designed to alleviate the immediate danger to the child, to mitigate or cure any damage the child has already suffered, and to aid the parents so that the child will not be endangered in the future. In selecting a program, the court should choose those services that least interfere with family autonomy, provided that the services are adequate to protect the child.

(b) Order that the child be removed from his or her home and ordered into the custody, control, and care of a relative or the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency for placement in a foster family home or group care facility licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW or in a home not required to be licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW. Such an order may be made only if the court finds that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home and that:

- (i) There is no parent or guardian available to care for such child;
- (ii) The child is unwilling to reside in the custody of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian;
- (iii) The parent, guardian, or legal custodian is not willing to take custody of the child;
- (iv) A manifest danger exists that the child will suffer serious abuse or neglect if the child is not removed from the home; or
- (v) The extent of the child's disability is such that the parent, guardian, or legal custodian is unable to provide the necessary care for the child and the parent, guardian, or legal custodian has determined that the child would benefit from placement outside of the home.

(2) Whenever a child is ordered removed from the child's home, the agency charged with his or her care shall provide the court with a specific plan as to where the child will be placed, what steps will be taken to return the child home, and what actions the agency will take to maintain parent-child ties. All aspects of the plan shall be consistent with the goal of achieving permanence for the child.

(a) The agency plan shall specify what services the parents will be offered in order to enable them to resume custody (~~and~~), what requirements the parents must meet in order to resume custody, and a time limit for each service plan and parental requirement.

(b) The agency shall be required to encourage the maximum parent-child contact possible, including regular visitation and participation by the parents in the care of the child while the child is in placement.

(c) A child shall be placed as close to the child's home as possible, preferably in the child's own neighborhood, unless the court finds that placement at a greater distance is necessary to promote the child's or parents' well-being.

(d) The agency charged with supervising a child in placement shall provide all reasonable services that are available within the agency, or within the community, or those services which the department of social and health services has existing contracts to purchase. It shall report to the court if it is unable to provide such services.

(3) The status of all children found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least ~~(every six months)~~ annually at a hearing in which it shall be determined whether court supervision should continue. The court may review the status more frequently at the request of the local citizen review board, the department or other agency supervising the out-of-home placement of the child, the child's parents, a child's attorney or guardian ad litem. The review shall include findings regarding the agency and parental completion of disposition plan requirements, and if necessary, revised permanency time limits.

(a) A child shall not be returned home at the review hearing unless the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in this section no longer exists. The parents, guardian, or legal custodian shall report to the court the efforts they have made to correct the conditions which led to removal. If a child is returned, casework supervision shall continue for a period of six months, at which time there shall be a hearing on the need for continued intervention.

(b) If the child is not returned home, the court shall direct the local citizen review board to review the status of the child and the court shall establish in writing:

(i) Whether reasonable services have been provided to or offered to the parties to facilitate reunion including a brief description of the efforts and a statement about why further efforts would not have prevented or shortened the separation of the family. However, reasonable efforts shall be deemed to have been made if first contact with the child was during an emergency where the child was in jeopardy;

(ii) The extent to which the parents have visited the child and any reasons why visitation has not occurred or has been infrequent;

(iii) Whether the agency is satisfied with the cooperation given to it by the parents;

(iv) Whether additional services are needed to facilitate the return of the child to the child's parents; if so, the court shall order that reasonable services be offered; and

(v) When return of the child can be expected.

(c) The court at the review hearing may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed.

Sec. 19. Section 4, chapter 183, Laws of 1985 and RCW 26.44.115 are each amended to read as follows:

If a child is taken into custody by child protective services pursuant to a court order issued under RCW 13.34.050, the child protective services worker shall take reasonable steps to advise the parents immediately, regardless of the time of day, that the child has been taken into custody, the reasons why the child was taken into custody, and general information about the child's placement. Notice of the substitute care review board process under chapter 13.— RCW (sections 1 through 15 of this 1988 act) and the parents' rights under that process shall be provided to the parents within seventy-two hours after the child is removed from the home. Notice may be given by any means reasonably certain of notifying the parents, including but not limited to, written, telephonic, or in-person oral notification. If the initial notification is provided by a means other than writing, the information shall also be provided to the parent in writing as soon thereafter as possible.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. This act shall be implemented only if specific funding, referring to this act by bill number, is provided in the omnibus appropriations act. If such specific funding is not provided by June 30, 1989, this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. Sections 1 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 13 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, a point of order. I believe the amendment expands the scope and object of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1586. I have received communication from the Superior Court Judges Association which indicates their opposition to this legislation despite representations on the floor that those people supported it. There is also a letter, I believe, to the members of the committee from the Chairman of the Board of Judicial Administration, Chief Justice Pearson, of the Washington Supreme Court, indicating their serious concerns about many aspects of this piece of legislation. I believe the amendment is designed to provide for local citizens review boards and it goes far beyond the purpose of the original version of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1586 which dealt with permanency planning in a very limited way within the present limitation of the law relating to dependency. The addition of local citizen review boards expands the scope and object of the bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Owen: "Senator McDonald, there's some confusion about what some of the things that are supposed to be covered under this. Is it the intent of this legislation to tax those foods received by a grocer in bulk which are simply transferred to smaller portions for sale?"

Senator McDonald: "It is not. The smaller portions must be sealed and treated as a grocery item."

Senator Owen: "What is an example of foods transferred from bulk to grocery shelves?"

Senator McDonald: "Senator Owen, in thinking through my vast knowledge of the grocery business, potato salad is received in ten gallon containers and transferred to small containers. Likewise, burritos and corn dogs may be handled in the same manner."

Senator Owen: "Senator McDonald, there is an exemption in the bill that exempts raw meats and we need to clarify whether that includes cooked shrimp, smoked salmon and cooked turkey, for instance?"

Senator McDonald: "These items qualify as meats and would be exempt under Section 1, subsection (ii) of the bill. The exemption would not apply if the items were sold from a deli from open containers for individual servings."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1507, as amended by the Senate.

President Cherberg assumed the chair.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Honorable members of the Senate. With your indulgence, the President should like to have the opportunity to somewhat clarify the scope and object philosophy of the President. Senate Rule 65 contains the exact language of Article 2, Section 38 of the Washington State Constitution, and read as follows: 'No amendment to any bill shall be allowed which shall change the scope and object of the bill.'

"As presiding officer of the Washington State Senate, it is my duty to rule on any point of order which raises the question of whether an amendment changes the scope and object of a bill. The scope of a bill refers to the boundaries or limits of the legislation, sometimes referred to as a bill's ultimate intention. The object of legislation is its aim, purpose, end or goal.

"It is important to note that the Constitution and Rule are not concerned with the title of a bill. Frequently, legislators believe an amendment is in order because the title of a bill is broad, without fully realizing that the provisions do not pertain to the title, but to the bill itself.

"The reasoning behind the provisions are clear. If amendments which are foreign to the substance of a bill are permitted, the entire legislative process, including the important considerations by committees, could be avoided. Legislative 'logrolling' or 'paperhanging' is prevented by properly adhering to the letter and spirit of the provisions. The Constitution and Rule aim to prohibit amendments to a measure intended to secure enough votes when there may not be a majority of members favoring the measure or the amendment on their own. If a measure cannot stand on its own merits, it should not pass and this is what the Constitution and our Rule seek to prevent.

"I emphasize that my parliamentary rulings prohibiting certain amendments, in no way reflect my personal feelings on the merits of proposed amendments. On many occasions, I have been required to rule out of order, certain amendments which I personally favored. During the years, I have had occasion to rule on many major pieces of legislation that did, in fact, change the scope and object of the bill before the Senate."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the above remarks by the President will be included in the Journal.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the remarks by Senator Talmadge on Substitute House Bill No. 1329, as amended by the Senate, which passed the Senate earlier today, will be included in the Journal.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The remarks by Senator Talmadge on Substitute House Bill No. 1329 were included on the floor action on the bill earlier today.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1333 and the pending Committee on Law and Justice amendment on page 28, line 12, deferred March 1, 1988.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Niemi, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1333 is a measure which redefines sexual offenses against minors and establishes penalties for the commission of those offenses based upon age differences between the victim and the perpetrator.

"The proposed committee amendment would make changes in the child exploitation laws by redefining 'minor,' making it a crime to invite, employ or authorize a minor to engage in sexual conduct which is part of a live performance and providing certain defenses for law enforcement officers when investigating sex-related crimes against minors.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The Committee on Law and Justice amendment on page 28, after line 12, to Substitute House Bill No. 1333 was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment be adopted:

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Niemi: "Thank you, Mr. President. I once again ask for a ruling on the scope and object of this amendment. My reasons are the same as I gave before. I think that it jeopardizes the underlying bill—the sexual offenses bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Niemi, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1333 is a measure which redefines sexual offenses against minors and establishes penalties for the commission of those offenses based upon age differences between the victim and the perpetrator.

"The proposed committee amendment would make changes in the child exploitation laws by redefining 'minor,' making it a crime to invite, employ or authorize a minor to engage in sexual conduct which is part of a live performance and providing certain defenses for law enforcement officers when investigating sex-related crimes against minors.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The Committee on Law and Justice amendment on page 28, after line 12, to Substitute House Bill No. 1333 was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved that the following amendment by Senators Metcalf, Owen, Johnson and Craswell be adopted:

On page 16, line 33, after "library" strike the rest of the section and insert "or to the state library."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Senator Metcalf's amendment, I believe, is an amendment to the committee amendment that was ruled outside of scope and object by the President. I guess my question is, would not Senator Metcalf's amendment to an amendment which was ruled outside of scope and object, be therefore not properly before the Senate?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The statement is correct, Senator Talmadge. It's not in the proper place."

Debate ensued.

The amendment by Senators Metcalf, Owen, Johnson and Craswell to Substitute House Bill No. 1333 was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator Zimmerman moved that the following amendments by Senators Zimmerman, Bailey, Bauer, Metcalf, Saling and Kiskaddon be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 28, line 13, after "Sec. 24." strike "This act" and insert "Sections 1 through 23 of this act"

On page 28, line 17, after "Sec. 25." strike "This act" and insert "Sections 1 through 24 of this act"

On page 28, after line 17, insert the following:

"7/29 The legislature finds that treatment of the emotional problems of child abuse victims may be impaired by lengthy delay in trial of the accused and the resulting delay in testimony of the child victim. The trauma of the abusive incident is likely to be exacerbated by requiring testimony from a victim who has substantially completed therapy and is forced to relive the incident. The legislature finds that it is necessary to prevent, to the extent reasonably possible, lengthy and unnecessary delays in trial of a person charged with abuse of a minor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. A new section is added to chapter 10.46 RCW to read as follows:

When a defendant is charged with a crime which constitutes a violation of RCW 9A.64.020 or chapter 9A.44, 9.68, 9A.32, 9A.36, 9A.40, 9A.42, 9A.46, or 9 68A RCW, and the alleged victim of the crime is a person under the age of eighteen years, neither the defendant nor the prosecuting attorney may agree to extend the originally scheduled trial date unless, after a hearing, the court finds that there are substantial and compelling reasons for a continuance of the trial date and that the benefit of the postponement outweighs the detriment to the victim. At the hearing the court shall consider the testimony of lay witnesses and of expert witnesses, if available, regarding the impact of the continuance on the victim. Whenever the court grants the request for a continuance, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I would raise the point of order that the amendments by Senator Zimmerman, et al expand the scope and object of the legislation. Substitute House Bill No. 1333 is a very important measure designed to increase the penalties for sex offenses. This bill deals with the procedure of trial and I would note that it doesn't even have the intended consequence that I believe Senator Zimmerman has articulated. That is the defendant is already entitled to the benefit of the speedy trial rule and a very short period of time in which to have his or her case tried. This bars the prosecution from getting a continuance, sets up written Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law, and creates an opportunity for somebody to appeal the thing all the way to the various levels of the appellate court system."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, and there being no objection, the amendments by Senator Zimmerman, Bailey, Bauer, Metcalf, Saling and Kiskaddon to Substitute House Bill No. 1333 were withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following amendment by Senators Pullen and Talmadge was adopted:

The department may require any county board of equalization to reconvene at any time for the purpose of performing or completing any duty or taking any action it might lawfully have performed or taken at any of its previous ((regular July, November or April)) meetings. No board may be reconvened later than three years after the date of adjournment of its regularly convened session. If such board of equalization shall fail or refuse forthwith to comply with any such order or requirement of the department of revenue, the department of revenue shall have power to take any other appropriate action, or to make such correction or change in the assessment list, and such corrections and changes shall be a part of the record of the proceedings of the said board of equalization: PROVIDED, That in all cases where the department of revenue shall raise the valuation of any property or add property to the assessment list, it shall give notice either for the same time and in the same manner as is now required in like cases of county boards of equalization, or if it shall deem such method of giving notice impracticable it shall give notice by publication thereof in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the property affected is situated once each week for two consecutive weeks, and the department of revenue shall not proceed to raise such valuation or add such property to the assessment list until a period of five days shall have elapsed subsequent to the date of the last publication of such notice: PROVIDED FURTHER, That appeals to the board of tax appeals by any taxpayer or taxing unit concerning any action of the county board of equalization shall not raise the valuation of the property to an amount greater than the larger of either the valuation of the property by the county assessor or the valuation of the property assigned by the county board of equalization. Such notice shall give the legal description of each tract of land involved, or a general description in case of personal property; the tax record-owner thereof; the assessed value thereof determined by the county board of equalization in case the property is on the assessment roll; and the assessed value thereof as determined by the department of revenue and shall state that the department of revenue proposes to increase the assessed valuation of such property to the amount stated and to add such property to the assessment list at the assessed valuation stated. The necessary expense incurred by the department of revenue in making such reassessment and/or adding such property to the assessment list shall be borne by the county or township in which the property as reassessed and/or so added to the assessment list is situated and shall be paid out of the proper funds of such county upon the order of the department of revenue.

Sec. 10. Section 3, chapter 182, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 11, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.36.385 are each amended to read as follows:

A person granted an exemption under RCW 84.36.381 shall inform the county assessor of any change in status affecting the person's entitlement to the exemption on forms prescribed and furnished by the department of revenue.

If the assessor finds that the applicant does not meet the qualifications as set forth in RCW 84.36.381, as now or hereafter amended, the claim or exemption shall be denied but such denial shall be subject to appeal under the provisions of RCW 84.48.010(5). If the applicant had received exemption in prior years based on erroneous information, the taxes shall be collected subject to penalties as provided in RCW 84.40.130 for a period of not to exceed three years.

For purposes of this subsection, a residence owned by a marital community or owned by cotenants shall be deemed to be owned by each spouse or cotenant. A claimant who has only a share ownership in cooperative housing, a life estate, a lease for life, or a revocable trust does not satisfy the ownership requirement.

(3) In the case of special assessment deferral, the claimant must have opted for payment of such special assessments on the installment method if such method was available.

Sec. 12. Section 35, chapter 291, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 23, chapter 220, Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.38.100 are each amended to read as follows:

This lien may accumulate up to eighty percent of the amount of the claimant's equity value in said property and shall bear interest at the rate of eight percent per year from the time it could have been paid before delinquency until said obligation is paid; PROVIDED, That when taxes are deferred as provided in RCW 84.64.030 or 84.64.050, the amount shall bear interest at the rate of eight percent per year from the date the declaration is filed until the obligation is paid. In the case of a mobile home, the department of licensing shall show the state's lien on the certificate of ownership for the mobile home. In the case of all other property, the department of revenue shall file a notice of the deferral with the county recorder or auditor.

Sec. 13. Section 37, chapter 291, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 25, chapter 220, Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.38.120 are each amended to read as follows:

After receipt of the notification from the county assessor of the amount of deferred special assessments and/or real property taxes the department shall pay, from amounts appropriated for that purpose, to the treasurers of such municipal corporations said amounts, equivalent to the amount of special assessments and/or real property taxes deferred, to be distributed to the local improvement or taxing districts which levied the taxes so deferred; PROVIDED, That when taxes are deferred as provided in RCW 84.64.030 or 84.64.050, the department shall pay to the treasurer of the county the amount equivalent to all taxes, foreclosure costs, interest, and penalties accrued to the date the declaration to defer is filed.

Sec. 14. Section 2, chapter 155, Laws of 1980 and RCW 84.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

All property shall be valued at one hundred percent of its true and fair value in money and assessed on the same basis unless specifically provided otherwise by law.

Taxable leasehold estates shall be valued at such price as they would bring at a fair, voluntary sale for cash without any deductions for any indebtedness owed including rentals to be paid. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section or of any other statute, when the value of any taxable leasehold estate created prior to January 1, 1971 is being determined for assessment years prior to the assessment year 1973, there shall be deducted from what would otherwise be the value thereof the present worth of the rentals and other consideration which may be required of the lessee by the lessor for the unexpired term thereof: PROVIDED, That the foregoing provisions of this sentence shall not apply to any extension or renewal, made after December 31, 1970 of the term of any such estate, or to any such estate after the date, if any, provided for in the agreement for rental renegotiation.

The true and fair value of real property for taxation purposes (including property upon which there is a coal or other mine, or stone or other quarry) shall be based upon the following criteria:

(1) Any sales of the property being appraised or similar (~~property~~) properties with respect to sales made within the past five years. The appraisal shall take into consideration political restrictions such as zoning as well as physical and environmental influences. The appraisal shall also take into account, (a) in the use of sales by real estate contract as similar sales, the extent, if any, to which the stated selling price has been increased by reason of the down payment, interest rate, or other financing terms; and (b) the extent to which the sale of a similar property actually represents the general effective market demand for property of such type, in the geographical area in which such property is located. Sales involving deed releases or similar seller-developer financing arrangements shall not be used as sales of similar property.

(2) In addition to sales as defined in subsection (1), consideration may be given to cost, cost less depreciation, reconstruction cost less depreciation, or capitalization of income that would be derived from prudent use of the property. In the case of property of a complex nature, or being used under terms of a franchise from a public agency, or operating as a public utility, or property not having a record of sale within five years and not having a significant number of sales of similar property in the general area, the provisions of this subsection (2) shall be the dominant factors in valuation. When provisions of this subsection (2) are relied upon for establishing values the property owner shall be advised upon request of the factors used in arriving at such value.

(3) In valuing any tract or parcel of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures thereon shall be determined; also the value of structures thereon, but the valuation shall not exceed the value of the total property as it exists. In valuing agricultural land, growing crops shall be excluded.

~~((4) In valuing any building with an unconventional heating, cooling, domestic water heating or electrical system before December 31, 1987, the value placed on the building shall not exceed the value which would be placed on the building if it had a conventional system.))~~

Sec. 15. Section 84.40.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 5, chapter 46, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.40.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The assessor shall begin the preliminary work for each assessment not later than the first day of December of each year in all counties in the state. ~~((He))~~ The assessor shall also complete the duties of listing and placing valuations on all property by May 31st of each year, except that the listing and valuation of construction under RCW 36.21.040 through 36.21.080 shall be completed by August 31st of each year, and in the following manner, to wit:

~~((He))~~ The assessor shall actually determine as nearly as practicable the true and fair value of each tract or lot of land listed for taxation and of each improvement located thereon and shall enter one hundred percent of the value of such land and of the total value of such improvements, together with the total of such one hundred percent valuations, opposite each description of property on ~~((his))~~ the assessment list and tax roll.

~~((He))~~ The assessor shall make an alphabetical list of the names of all persons in ~~((his))~~ the county liable to assessment of personal property, and require each person to make a correct list and statement of such property according to the standard form prescribed by the department of revenue, which statement and list shall include, if required by the form, the year of acquisition and total original cost of personal property in each category of the prescribed form, and shall be signed and verified under penalty of perjury by the person listing the property: PROVIDED, That the assessor may list and value improvements on publicly owned land in the same manner as real property is listed and valued, including conformance with the revaluation program required under chapter 84.41 RCW. Such list and statement shall be filed on or before the last day of ~~((March, but the assessor, upon written request filed on or before such date and for good cause shown therein, shall allow a reasonable extension of time for filing))~~ April. The assessor shall on or before the 1st day of January of each year mail a notice to all such persons at their last known address that such statement and list is required, such notice to be accompanied by the form on which the statement or list is to be made: PROVIDED, That the notice mailed by the assessor to each taxpayer each year shall, if practicable, include the statement and list of personal property of the taxpayer for the preceding year. Upon receipt of such statement and list the assessor shall thereupon determine the true and fair value of the property included in such statement and enter one hundred percent of the same ~~((in))~~ on the assessment ~~((books))~~ roll opposite the name of the party assessed; and in making such entry in ~~((his))~~ the assessment list, ~~((he))~~ the assessor shall give the name and post office address of the party listing the property, and if the party resides in a city the assessor shall give the street and number or other brief description of ~~((his))~~ the party's residence or place of business. The assessor may, after giving written notice of ~~((his))~~ the action to the person to be assessed, add to the assessment list any taxable property which ~~((in his judgment;))~~ should be included in such list.

Upon receipt of the verified statement of personal property, the assessor shall assess the value of such property ~~((and enter fifty percent of the same in his books;))~~ PROVIDED, If any property is listed or assessed on or after the 31st day of May, the same shall be legal and binding as if listed and assessed before that time: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That any statement of taxable property which is not signed by the person listing the property and which is not verified under penalty of perjury shall not be accepted by the assessor nor shall it be considered in any way to constitute compliance, or an attempt at compliance, with the listing requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 17. Section 84.40.130, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 38, chapter 149, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 84.40.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Such penalty shall be collected in the same manner as the tax to which it is added.

(2) If any person or corporation shall wilfully give a false or fraudulent list, schedule or statement required by this chapter, or shall, with intent to defraud, fail or refuse to deliver any list, schedule or statement required by this chapter, such person or corporation shall be liable for the additional tax properly due or, in the case of wilful failure or refusal to deliver such list, schedule or statement, the total tax properly due; and in addition such person or corporation shall be liable for a penalty of one hundred percent of such additional tax or total tax as the case may be. Such penalty shall be in lieu of the penalty provided for in subsection (1) of this section. A person or corporation giving a false list, schedule or statement shall not be subject to this penalty if it is shown that the misrepresentations contained therein are entirely attributable to reasonable cause. The taxes and penalties provided for in this subsection shall be recovered in an action in the name of the state of Washington on the complaint of the county assessor or the ~~((board of county commissioners;))~~ county legislative authority and shall, when collected, be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the current expense fund. Sec. 24. Section 84.48.080, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 28, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.48.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Annually during the months of (~~August~~) September and October, the department of revenue shall examine and compare the returns of the assessment of the property in the several counties of the state, and the assessment of the property of railroad and other companies assessed by the department, and proceed to equalize the same, so that each county in the state shall pay its due and just proportion of the taxes for state purposes for such assessment year, according to the ratio the valuation of the property in each county bears to the total valuation of all property in the state.

First. The department shall classify all property, real and personal, and shall raise and lower the valuation of any class of property in any county to a value that shall be equal, so far as possible, to the true and fair value of such class as of January 1st of the current year for the purpose of ascertaining the just amount of tax due from each county for state purposes. Such classification may be on the basis of types of property, geographical areas, or both.

Second. The department shall keep a full record of its proceedings and the same shall be published annually by the department.

The department shall levy the state taxes authorized by law: PROVIDED, That the amount levied in any one year for general state purposes shall not exceed the lawful dollar rate on the dollar of the assessed value of the property of the entire state, which assessed value shall be one hundred percent of the true and fair value of such property in money. For purposes of this section, changes in taxable values mean a final adjustment made by a county board of equalization, the state board of tax appeals, or a court of competent jurisdiction and shall include additions of omitted property, other additions or deletions from the assessment or tax rolls, or a change in the indicated ratio of a county. Errors in taxable values mean errors corrected by a final reviewing body.

When the county assessor cancels or corrects an assessment, the assessor shall send a notice to the taxpayer advising the taxpayer that the action of the county assessor is not final and shall be considered by the county board of equalization, and that such notice shall constitute legal notice of such fact. When the county assessor or treasurer cancels or corrects an assessment, a record of such action shall be prepared and filed with the county board of equalization, setting forth therein the facts relating to the error.

The county board of equalization shall consider only such matters as appear in the record filed with it by the county assessor or treasurer and shall correct only such matters as are set forth in the record, but it shall have no power to change or alter the assessment of any person, or change the aggregate value of the taxable property of the county, except insofar as it is necessary to correct the errors mentioned in this section. If the county board of equalization finds that the action of the assessor was not correct, it shall issue a supplementary roll including such corrections as are necessary, and the assessment and levy shall have the same force and effect as if made in the first instance, and the county treasurer shall proceed to collect the taxes due on the supplementary roll. The board shall make findings of the facts upon which it bases its decision on all matters submitted to it, and when so made the assessment and levy shall have the same force as if made in the first instance, and the county treasurer shall proceed to collect the taxes due on the rolls as modified.

The county board of equalization shall convene on a day fixed by the board for the purpose of considering such matters as appear in the record filed by the county assessor or treasurer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 26. A new section is added to chapter 84.48 RCW to read as follows:

The department of revenue shall make such rules consistent with this chapter as shall be necessary or desirable to permit its effective administration. The rules may provide for changes of venue for the various boards of equalization.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Williams: "Mr. President, a point of order. I would like to raise scope and object on this particular amendment. The bill that we have before us is a bill related to the tax administration. It has a lot of regulations, rules and procedures and deals with those sorts of things. The amendment that we have changes the method of taxation of cellular radio companies and changes the method of taxation or valuation from the Department of Revenue to the counties--county assessors. I would suggest that it's outside the scope and object."

There being no objection, the Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 5, line 28, to the striking Committee on Ways and Means amendment was deferred.

MOTION

Senator McDonald moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

same county as the fire protection district. The effective date of such annexations shall be February 1, 1988, for purposes of establishing the boundaries of taxing districts for purposes of imposing property taxes as provided in RCW 84.09.030.

Any reference to the county officials of the county in which a fire protection district is located or proposed to be located shall be deemed to refer to the appropriate county officials of each county in which the fire protection district is located or proposed to be located."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and change internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Williams: "Mr. President, a point of order. Again, I would like to raise scope and object on this amendment. I described what I thought was the scope and object of the bill. Renumber the sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 6, beginning on line 8, after "death" delete all material down to and including "cease" on line 10, and insert "~~(-AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the surviving spouse remarries all benefits under this chapter shall cease))~~"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Nelson, what is the approximate cost of including-- this is something that has been sort of an issue that I have watched for years and have not been very enthusiastic about. It appears to me we're adding costs here."

Senator Nelson: "Senator Metcalf, I've been advised by members of the Ways and Means Committee and the staff, and I did serve on the Select Committee on Pensions, that this is a very negligible amount. There are very few who are in the situation where there is a surviving spouse receiving benefits and then subsequently remarrying."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment on page 6, beginning on line 8, to Substitute House Bill No. 1366.

On page 11, beginning on line 33, after "(2)" strike all material down to and including "(3)" on line 35

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Rasmussen, did I understand you to say that the recommendations would be to grant the judges a pay increase above the state salary recommendations? Is that what you said?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, the Salary Commission recommendations go in effect July of 1988 to seventy-four thousand, five hundred by the terms of this pension bill. The state will put in an additional two and a half percent over that amount into an annuity fund. The judge would put in two and a half and then the state will match it. Every other state employee, if they want to go into a tax deferred compensation plan, that's all he gets--what he puts in there--and the state doesn't match it. There is no reason for putting an additional two and one half percent on top of the salary."

Senator Metcalf: "Thank you, Senator Rasmussen. Are all the other state employees being paid up to--and I don't know who could answer this question--up to the State Salaries Commission recommendations? I keep hearing state employees tell me they are being paid less than the recommendations. Are other state employees being paid up to the recommendations?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, the state employees--the elected officials as the judges are--are all going to get the salary increase as recommended by the Salary Commission, but the Lieutenant Governor, Treasurer O'Brien, Auditor Graham--all the rest of the people are not going to be in this annuity plan that the state is going to contribute an additional two and a half percent to. They're all in the same category with the Salary Commission setting the salary, but they're not participating in the annuity. I don't think they would ask the state to put an additional two and a half percent in. It's ridiculous."

Senator Metcalf: "Well, we're right now having problems with funding the state's health plan for workers. We have a lot of problems in that area and I guess I'm not very enthusiastic about this increase."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senator Rasmussen on pages 9, 10 and 11, to Substitute House Bill No. 1366.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendments were not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Bailey moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 25, following line 33 of the committee amendment, insert a new subsection to read as follows:

“(h) $238,000 of the general fund-state appropriation is provided solely to fund the conversion of three congregate care facilities to group homes for the developmentally disabled in Snohomish County.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: “Senator McDonald, this amendment kind of hits me square, because it’s Snohomish County. I’m also concerned, if I read the bill and the amendment properly, if we pass this amendment, we are going to take $238,000 away from the United Cerebral Palsy Center, the Bellevue Center and the Highland Center, etc. Do you read it the same way that I do?”

Senator McDonald: “I don’t believe so, Senator Vognild. I believe that this is $238,000 in addition.”

Senator Vognild: “Senator McDonald, it’s an addition, but it says, ‘$238,000 of the general fund-state appropriation is provided solely to fund.’ There is no increase in the appropriation. The last amendment attempted to increase the appropriation and it failed. As I read this one, as sympathetic as I am to this amendment, I’m fearful that we simply insure that the other three facilities shut down—if we pass this amendment.”

Senator McDonald: “Senator Vognild, I think that what it does is specify that of the $142,932,000 for community services that you would target $238,000 of that money, not of the $974,000. It’s targeting a small amount of a very large appropriation.”

Senator Vognild: “Senator McDonald, one further question then, because I really do want to vote for this amendment. Then, the $238,000 will come out of other developmentally disabled programs. Is that correct?”

Senator McDonald: “That is correct, just as the other provisos that you see A down through G.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of the amendment by Senator Bailey to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was deferred.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Nelson: "Mr. President, I have a point of parliamentary inquiry. I notice that this amendment number 12 in our packet is exactly the same amendment as listed as number 18 in our packet—that being an amendment by Senators Bailey and Kiskaddon. I'm not sure where it appropriately should be placed in the measure and I suspect that the placement in our packet is only because of a citation in the supplemental budget. I'm wondering if the President could inform me if there was any placement of the amendment either 12 or 18 as being on the bar of the Senate first. The second question would be whether or not it wouldn't be just as appropriate to incorporate the names of the people who are interested and that we place all of the names of the individuals on the appropriate amendment that should be taken as the first amendment, so that we would have Senators Bailey and Kiskaddon placed on an amendment together with Talmadge, Fleming, Gaspard, Vognilid, Wojahn and Rinehart, so we accomplish the business of the Senate on one of those vehicles only."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "Senator Nelson, it is proper for any member of the body to sign on any amendment at any time. It is also that the amendment number 12 was first. However, to facilitate the Senate, all names will be placed on amendment number 12."

EDITOR'S NOTE: All of the sponsors of the two amendments were included in the motion to adopt the amendment.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: "Mr. President, when you said all names, did you mean all names that were on amendment 18 or all names of the members?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "No, I said all names on amendment 18."

Senator Gaspard: "Actually, Mr. President, I would hope that we would at least get thirty names on this amendment so that we could assure that this amendment would pass. I invite you to do that please."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Cantu, a similar situation exists, I believe, in the other institutions of higher learning. Were you able to determine whether or not they have a similar case as the University of Washington in this issue?"

Senator Cantu: "Senator Patterson, I'm not aware of the same situation at any of the other universities. This is the only one that I am personally aware of."

Senator Patterson: "Well, I know the same situation did exist at the other institutions. I believe that before this bill clears the Legislature, we ought to make sure that the other institutions aren't impacted in a similar way and make the necessary corrections if they are. Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Cantu, this goes for graduate teaching and research assistants? Is that normal? Is that a dedicated fund then to them?"

Senator Cantu: "No, it was that group of employees that the University overpaid into the OASI--the social security. For that particular group of people, the University paid more than it should have and so they are, the University, is entitled to a refund--the employer contribution. We are going to get that money back."

Senator McCaslin: "Then, you are not moving the amendment on page 103, after line 18, or is that part of---"

Senator Cantu: "That's part of the amendment."

Senator McCaslin: "But, it specifically states, 'The refund received from the Social Security Administration for graduate teaching and research assistants paid from the state general fund.'"

Senator Cantu: "It was for that group of employees."

No state funds may be expended for voluntary termination of pregnancy for an unemancipated minor unless she has first obtained the written consent of one of her parents or guardians. However, if the parent or guardian refuses to consent, the minor may file a petition with a juvenile court and the court shall hear and act on the petition within three days of the filing of the petition."

Renumber the sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rinehart: "Thank you Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I raise the point of order that the amendment would change the scope and object of the bill. The language of the amendment assigns new responsibilities to the juvenile court and, in fact, is improperly presented within a budget document."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry. In raising the point of scope and object, I don't know what the point of scope and object of this is, because all I have is a striking amendment. Do we have the enacting clause and what the title is, etc?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Would you repeat your statement, Senator, please?"

Senator McCaslin: "Is this just a budget bill or is that all it says in the title that it is the budget bill? Does this deal with the budget? Is that correct--the amendment offered by Senator Owen? Well, thank you, Senator Warnke, you're very kind to travel that distance. I now have it, Mr. President."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the amendment by Senators Owen, Craswell, Stratton, Smith and Zimmerman on page 14, after line 20, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was deferred.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: "A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Since we have been operating under Rule 52 which requires a 60% vote on amendments, would a motion to reconsider an amendment also require a 60% vote?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "A simple majority, Senator, to reconsider."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Nelson to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senators Smith, DeJarnatt, Rasmussen and Metcalf on page 57, after line 22, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment failed to be adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, and there being no objection, the amendment to the committee amendment was withdrawn.

MOTION

Senator Owen moved that the following revised amendment by Senators Owen, Craswell, Stratton, Smith and Zimmerman to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 14, after line 20, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. A new section is added to chapter 7, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. to read as follows:

No state funds under this act may be expended for voluntary termination of pregnancy for an unemancipated minor unless she has first obtained parental or judicial consent."

Renumber the sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rinehart: "Thank you, Mr. President. I rise to a point of order. This amendment, although revised and redrafted, contains the same flaw that the previous amendment did, by providing for a process for judicial consent. Once again, the amendment directs the court to take on a new procedure which is outside the scope and object of the budget bill. It is language that should be codified, which cannot be done from a budget bill and, consequently, it suffers from the same defect that the previous amendment did."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, further consideration of the revised amendment by Senators Owen, Craswell, Stratton, Smith and Zimmerman to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was deferred.

MOTION

At 6:31 p.m., on motion of Senator Nelson, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of the revised amendment by Senators Owen, Craswell, Stratton, Smith and Zimmerman on page 14, after line 20, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Rinehart, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1312 is a measure appropriating funds for the remainder of the 1987-89 biennium.

"The amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment proposed by Senators Owen, Craswell, Stratton, Smith and Zimmerman limits the use of state funds for abortions under certain circumstances.

"The President believes that ruling out of order an amendment to any omnibus appropriations bill which places limitations on the use of state funds would set an extremely confining precedent with regard to future scope and object decisions and their affect on legislation. Such a ruling would adversely interfere with the legislative process and the decision-making prerogatives of the members.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The revised amendment by Senators Owen, Craswell, Stratton, Smith and Zimmerman to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1312 was ruled in order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the revised amendment by Senators Owen, Craswell, Stratton, Smith and Zimmerman on page 14, after line 20, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, is the amendment that people are talking about the one that says, 'No state state funds under this act may be expended for voluntary termination of pregnancy for an unemancipated minor unless she has first obtained parental or judicial consent?' Is that what the amendment is?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That is correct."

Further debate ensued.

DISPENSE WITH CALL OF THE SENATE

The Call of the Senate was dispensed with on motion of Senator Newhouse.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. Mr. President and members of the body. I think, tonight, we heard one of the outstanding speeches on this floor. It was a speech and for those who care about the least, the last and the left out, you should have felt very good about it. I want to commend Senator Ray Moore for giving such an outstanding speech. For those of you who know me, you know that I'm consistent and I would like to say that I'm yielding on the point of personal privilege, because I think the only thing that affected that great speech, in my opinion, was a bad choice of words. That was the use of the word 'niggardly.' I know what the meaning is, but in my opinion, it denotes a bad connotation. Those of the older generation have used it quite readily; those of our younger generation, you don't hear that as much.

"In my opinion, it was not intended by Senator Moore. I addressed my Committee on Children and Family Services three weeks ago when a gentleman continually used that word with me sitting there. I knew that he was well-intended but, in my opinion, those kinds of words in the English language and those words that are in the Funk and Wagnall's Dictionary should not be practiced, even though they are not intended in one way or another. So, I say it was a great speech. I appreciated that speech, but I did not appreciate the expression of 'niggardly.'"

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1429, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Appelwick, Patrick, P. King, Brough, Armstrong, Wang, McLean, Butterfield, Chandler, Fuhrman, Doty, Todd, Silver, Moyer and Brekke)

Providing for home detention under the sentencing reform act.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment was adopted:

On page 1, after line 4, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) There is a critical shortage of space in many county jails, which is likely to become even more acute during the next several years due to (a) increases in apprehensions for crimes involving violence and controlled substances, (b) increases in the length of confinement for repeat offenders of property crimes under the sentencing reform act, and (c) repeat offenders under laws prohibiting driving while intoxicated.

(2) Neither time nor financial resources are available to construct additional jail facilities. The present excess bed capacity in the state prison system is projected to disappear within the next two years.

(3) Public safety requires innovative approaches to incarceration alternatives. These alternatives must minimize risks to public safety through the use of supervision and monitoring techniques.

(4) Partial confinement for appropriate offenders, with realistic monitoring, appears to offer an alternative incarceration option for local jurisdictions that have determined that the option is an appropriate response to local needs."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes the vital and unique role of the jury system in enhancing our system of justice. The purpose of this chapter is the promotion of efficient jury administration and the opportunity for widespread citizen participation in the jury system. To accomplish this purpose the legislature intends that all courts and juries of inquest in the state of Washington select, summon, and compensate jurors uniformly.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 48, Laws of 1891 and RCW 2.36.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) A jury is a body of ~~((men))~~ persons temporarily selected from the qualified inhabitants of a particular district, and invested with power—

~~((1))~~ (a) To present or indict a person for a public offense.

~~((2))~~ (b) To try a question of fact.

(2) "Court" when used without further qualification means any superior court or court of limited jurisdiction in the state of Washington.

(3) "Judge" means every judicial officer authorized to hold or preside over a court. For purposes of this chapter "judge" does not include court commissioners or referees.

(4) "Juror" means any person summoned for service on a petit jury, grand jury, or jury of inquest as defined in this chapter.

(5) "Grand jury" means those twelve persons impaneled by a superior court to hear, examine, and investigate evidence concerning criminal activity and corruption.

(6) "Petit jury" means a body of persons twelve or less in number in the superior court and six in number in courts of limited jurisdiction, drawn by lot from the jurors in attendance upon the court at a particular session, and sworn to try and determine a question of fact.

(7) "Jury of inquest" means a body of persons six or fewer in number, but not fewer than four persons, summoned before the coroner or other ministerial officer, to inquire of particular facts.

(8) "Jury source list" means the list of all registered voters for any county, as compiled by each county auditor pursuant to the provisions of chapter 29.07 RCW. The list shall specify each voter's name, residence address, and precinct as shown on the original registration card of each qualified voter. The list shall be filed with the superior court by the county auditor.

(9) "Master jury list" means the list of prospective jurors from which jurors summoned to serve will be randomly selected. The master jury list shall be either randomly selected from the jury source list or may be an exact duplicate of the jury source list.

(10) "Jury term" means the period of time a person is required to serve as a juror. A jury term shall begin on the first Monday of each month and shall end on the Saturday immediately preceding the first Monday of each month, unless changed by the court. A jury term may be extended by the court if necessary for the administration of justice.

(11) "Jury panel" means those persons randomly selected for jury service for a particular jury term.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 48, Laws of 1891 as last amended by section 6, chapter 162, Laws of 1980 and RCW 2.36.050 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((A petit jury is a body of persons twelve or less in number in the superior court and six in number in courts of limited jurisdiction, drawn in the superior court and in courts of limited jurisdiction by lot from the jurors in attendance upon the court at a particular session, and sworn to try and determine a question of fact.))~~ In courts of limited jurisdiction, juries shall be selected and impaneled in the same manner as in the superior courts, except that a court of limited jurisdiction shall use the master jury list developed by the superior court ~~((judge or judges))~~ to select a jury panel. Jurors for the jury panel may be selected at random from the population of the area served by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 2.36 RCW to read as follows:

The county auditor shall prepare and file with the superior court at least annually, at a time or times set forth in an order of the judges of the superior court from the original registration files of voters of the county a list of all registered voters. The list may be divided into the respective voting precincts.

The superior court upon receipt of the list of registered voters filed by the county auditor shall use that list as the jury source list and shall compile a master jury list from the source list. The master jury list shall be certified by the superior court and filed with the county clerk. All previous jury source lists and master jury lists shall be superseded.

Upon receipt of amendments to the list of registered voters from the county auditor the superior court may update the jury source list and master jury list as maintained by the county clerk accordingly.

Upon such determination, the judge or judges shall, during the month of July each year, order a master jury list to be selected by an unrestricted random sample from the names of all registered voters filed with the county auditor, without regard to location of precinct.

In those counties employing the electronic data processing random selection method, if the judge or judges of the superior court determine that the jury district procedure required for noncomputer jury selection is to be followed, the judge or judges shall divide the county into not less than three jury districts pursuant to RCW 2.36.066. The judge or judges shall during the month of July each year, order a master jury list to be selected by an unrestricted random sample from the names of all registered voters filed with the county auditor. Such list must contain as nearly as possible an equal number of jurors from each jury district.

The master jury list randomly selected shall contain names of a sufficient number of qualified voters to serve as jurors until the first day of August of the next calendar year, and shall be certified and filed with the county clerk. At any time the judge or judges may add to the jury list in the random selection manner by data process device as approved by the judge or judges. A certified list of the added names shall be filed with the county clerk. compile the master jury list and to randomly select jurors from the master jury list.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 2.36 RCW to read as follows:

The judges shall review the process from time to time and shall cause to be kept on file with the county clerk a description of the jury selection process. Any person who desires may inspect this description in said office.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring uniform equipment or method throughout the state, so long as fair and random selection of the master jury list and jury panels is achieved.

Any person who desires may inspect this description in said office.

Prior jury service may include service in superior court, in a court of limited jurisdiction ~~((or))~~, in the United States District Court, or on a jury of inquest.

Sec. 12. Section 6, chapter 57, Laws of 1911 and RCW 2.36.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If for any reason the jurors drawn for service upon a ~~((petit))~~ jury for any term shall not be sufficient to dispose of the pending jury business, or where no jury is in regular attendance and the business of the court may require the attendance of a jury before a regular term, the judge or judges of ~~((the superior))~~ any court may ~~((draw))~~ direct the random selection and summoning from the master jury list such additional names as they may consider necessary ~~((and the persons whose names are so drawn shall thereupon be summoned to serve as jurors forthwith. Providing for a water use efficiency study.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Barr moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.83B.300 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that it is necessary to provide the department of ecology with emergency powers to authorize withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, and construction of facilities in relation thereto, in order to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during 1977 and during 1987.

The legislature further finds that there is a continuing agricultural water supply shortage in many areas of the state and that, in relation to the lessening of that unsatisfactory condition, there is an urgent need to both improve water supply facilities and replace other such facilities.

The legislature further finds that in addition to water storage facilities or other augmentation programs, improved efficiency of water use could provide an important new supply of water in many parts of the state with which to meet future water needs and that improved efficiency of water use should receive greater emphasis in the management of the state's water resources.

In order to provide needed capital for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities to withdraw and distribute water to alleviate unsatisfactory water supply conditions arising from droughts occurring from time to time in the state of Washington, and to carry out a comprehensive water use efficiency study for the state of Washington, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of eighteen million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this section and RCW 43.83B.360 through 43.83B.375 shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A committee shall be charged with the task of carrying out a comprehensive study of water use efficiency in this state. The study shall not, however, be considered a water conservation study, considered a comprehensive study encompassing the exclusive means of creating a new supply of water, or considered to limit or restrict the use of water storage facilities as an option in creating a new supply of water. The committee, in consultation with other interested agencies, organizations, and the public, shall investigate and evaluate opportunities and means for achieving water use efficiency improvements. The evaluation shall include but not be limited to the following:

- (1) Review and analysis of water use efficiency initiatives in other states;
- (2) Review of the water use efficiency recommendations of the western governors association;
- (3) Identification of existing institutional and economic disincentives to efficient water use;
- (4) Identification of existing and potential incentives that could bring about improved efficiency of use;
- (5) Identification of alternatives for improving efficiency of use;
- (6) Estimation of potential water savings and public and private costs from implementing alternatives;
- (7) Identification of a recommended approach for improving water use efficiency in municipal and industrial water supply uses, irrigated agriculture and other major out-of-stream uses, and in-stream uses;
- (8) Evaluation of the terminology and development of definitions and methods relating to the use and measurement of water in chapters 90.03, 90.14, 90.22, 90.44, and 90.54 RCW, and such other provisions of existing law as it finds appropriate;
- (9) Development of recommendations for a public education program for efficient use of water; and
- (10) Development of recommendations for any needed changes in laws, rules, policies, procedures, and programs to facilitate improved water use efficiency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The committee created in section 2 of this act shall consist of the following:

- (a) Four members from the state legislature; specifically, one member from the majority party and one member from the minority party of the senate, and one member from the majority party and one member from the minority party of the house of representatives;

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. It shall be the responsibility of the department of ecology to provide staff support to the committee and to identify water use efficiency options for the tasks identified in section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the legislature no later than December 31, 1988. The department shall not implement such recommendations by rule or regulation except upon the enactment of enabling legislation based upon the committee's recommendations.

The study shall in all respects be subject to the provisions of RCW 43.83B.325 to the same extent as any provision of RCW 43.83B.300 through 43.83B.345.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Sections 2 through 6 of this act shall expire June 30, 1989.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Barr, you made reference to the fact that the House had proposed that this study and all the implications be carried on by the Washington State University Water Resources Center. Did I understand you to say that the University was not interested in doing this? Why did the Senate move it to the Department of Ecology and out of the Resources Center?"

Senator Barr: "The original Senate Bill that we passed through here two or three weeks ago, said that the Department of Ecology should be the lead agency in doing this study, but the House version which we amended here back to the Senate version did say that the Washington State University Water Resources Center would be the lead agency in the study, so we put it back to the Department of Ecology."

Senator Patterson: "Well, did you have testimony?"

Senator Barr: "I did not say that they didn't want to do it. I guess, if I did, I misstated. I guess what I was saying was that the House did that for some reason that I didn't quite understand. Frankly, I think they were just trying to pull the Department of Ecology's chain a little bit."

Senator Patterson: "I don't know about that. All I do know is that there's a lot of money being spent on a very, very good department at Washington State University in this area. They've been responsible for doing all the dam research; they are heavily engaged in water resources. It doesn't seem to me, that we ought to be having the Department of Ecology spend more money and hire more people to do a study when there are very competent people available in this state to do it. Now, if that's not the case, then I think that there may be a reason for moving it. What I'm trying to say is that we ought to utilize those agencies that we already have, that have the capabilities of doing these things, rather than pumping more money into the Department of Ecology to carry it on."

Senator Barr: "Thank you, Senator Patterson. I think the Water Resources Center does have some very capable people in it and could have done this study, but we in the committee had to make a decision and it was our original thought that the Ecology should do it. They are a little more involved in the day to day thing. It could have gone either way, but the way it is written now is that Ecology will do it. Thank you."

On page 4, line 30 of the committee amendment, strike all of subsection (a) and insert:

Notwithstanding that standards of quality established for the waters of the state would not be violated, wastes and other materials and substances shall not be allowed to enter such waters which will reduce the existing quality thereof, except in those situations where it is clear that overriding considerations of the public interest will be served. Technology-based effluent limitations or standards for discharges for (~~municipal~~) water treatment plants located on the Chehalis, Columbia, Cowlitz, Lewis, or Skagit river shall be adjusted to reflect credit for substances removed from the plant intake water if the owner or operator demonstrates:

(i) (~~The municipality demonstrates~~) That the intake water is drawn from the same body of water into which the discharge is made; and

(ii) (~~The municipality demonstrates~~) That no violation of receiving water quality standards or appreciable environmental degradation will result.

(4) Adequate and safe supplies of water shall be preserved and protected in potable condition to satisfy human domestic needs.

(5) Multiple-purpose impoundment structures are to be preferred over single-purpose structures. Due regard shall be given to means and methods for protection of fishery resources in the planning for and construction of water impoundment structures and other artificial obstructions.

(6) Federal, state, and local governments, individuals, corporations, groups and other entities shall be encouraged to carry out practices of conservation as they relate to the use of the waters of the state.

(7) Development of water supply systems, whether publicly or privately owned, which provide water to the public generally in regional areas within the state shall be encouraged. Development of water supply systems for multiple domestic use which will not serve the public generally shall be discouraged where water supplies are available from water systems serving the public.

(8) Full recognition shall be given in the administration of water allocation and use programs to the natural interrelationships of surface and ground waters.

(9) Expressions of the public interest will be sought at all stages of water planning and allocation discussions.

(10) Water management programs, including but not limited to, water quality, flood control, drainage, erosion control and storm runoff are deemed to be in the public interest.*

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Metcalf that the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendment to House Bill No. 1325 not be adopted.

The motion by Senator Metcalf carried and the committee amendment to House Bill No. 1325 was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Smitherman moved that the following amendment by Senators Smitherman, Metcalf and von Reichbauer be adopted:

On page 2, after line 22, insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. In implementing this chapter and in participating in programs under the federal clean water act, the department may consult with the department of social and health services concerning standards for repair of existing, failing on-site sewage disposal systems that are adjacent to marine waters. By January 1, 1989, the department of social and health services shall propose rules for adoption by the state board of health identifying the standards for repair of existing, failing on-site sewage disposal systems at single-family residences that were legally occupied prior to the effective date of this act and that are adjacent to marine waters. The rules may specify the design, operation and maintenance standards for such repaired systems so as to ensure protection of the public health, attainment of state water quality standards and the protection of shellfish and other public resources. The rules shall also provide that any proposed discharge to marine water shall be considered only if on-site sewage disposal systems are not feasible and that such discharges shall meet the requirements of this chapter and department of ecology regulations. The state board of health shall adopt such proposed rules unless the board finds modification or rejection of them necessary to protect the public health."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Smitherman, does your amendment only apply to sewage disposal systems at single family residences that are adjacent to marine waters?"

Senator Smitherman: "That is certainly the intent, Senator Pullen."

Senator Pullen: "So, it does not apply to single family residences that are inland from marine waters?"

Senator Smitherman: "No, that wasn't the intent. I think if I tried to take on that issue, it would be a little too broad and we would be expanding the authority way beyond what the department really wants to have."

Senator Pullen: "You said this was agreed upon among three agencies, but the ones you mentioned are all heavily concerned with the environmental and ecological issues. Did you make any effort to propose this amendment to home building associations or property owner groups?"

Senator Smitherman: "Actually, the amendment grew out of a bill, Senator Pullen, that I had pushed a couple of years ago. I think what had happened was that they rejected that bill as being too broad. I had to work and work with the department over that. It would be about a three year period now--to narrow our concerns just to water front areas. I didn't talk to the home builders about this, but I think the home builders might be in agreement, but it only deals with existing homes on the beaches. So, again I don't think it would help them a lot."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Smitherman, is a cesspool considered an on-site sewage disposal system?"

Senator Smitherman: "It is, but under this definition what we're looking at, is how we would upgrade those systems to make them functional in those areas."

Senator McCaslin: "If one of these homes along the water had a cesspool and had a problem, would this amendment cover it?"

Senator Smitherman: "It would cover it, but they would have to change to a system that would work and could be approved by the standard for inspection and all that sort of thing."

Senator McCaslin: "You gave me the answer we practiced on. I appreciate it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Smitherman: "Senator Metcalf, this bill now gives the Department of Social and Health Services broad regulatory authority over beach residences. Could the department become sort of a super building department and set construction standards for the residence itself?"

Senator Metcalf: "No, Senator Smitherman, the department may adopt any standard they deem appropriate for the construction and operation of the on-site sewer disposal system only. If this amendment passes, the bill will not allow the department to set construction standards for the dwelling. That is a province of the local building department."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Smitherman, Metcalf and von Reichbauer to House Bill No. 1325.

The motion by Senator Smitherman carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

Senator Lee moved that the following Committee on Economic Development and Labor amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 51.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall furnish the benefits provided under this title to any worker or beneficiary who may have a right or claim for benefits under the maritime laws of the United States resulting from an asbestos-related disease if (a) there are objective clinical findings to substantiate that the worker has an asbestos-related claim for occupational disease and (b) the worker's employment history has a prima facie indicia of injurious exposure to asbestos fibers while employed in the state of Washington in employment covered under this title. The department shall render a decision as to the liable insurer and shall continue to pay benefits until the liable insurer initiates payments or benefits are otherwise properly terminated under this title.

(2) The benefits authorized under subsection (1) of this section shall be paid from the medical aid fund, with the self-insurers and the state fund each paying a pro rata share, based on number of worker hours, of the costs necessary to fund the payments. For the purposes of this subsection only, the employees of self-insured employers shall pay an amount equal to one-half of the share charged to the self-insured employer.

(3) If the department determines that the benefits paid under subsection (1) of this section are owed to the worker or beneficiary by a self-insurer or the state fund, then the self-insurer or state fund shall reimburse the medical aid fund for all benefits paid and costs incurred by the fund.

(4) If the department determines that the benefits paid under subsection (1) of this section are owed to the worker or beneficiary by a federal program other than the federal social security, old age survivors, and disability insurance act, 42 U.S.C. or an insurer under the maritime laws of the United States:

(a) The department shall pursue the federal program insurer on behalf of the worker or beneficiary to recover from the federal program insurer the benefits due the worker or beneficiary and on its own behalf to recover the benefits previously paid to the worker or beneficiary and costs incurred;

(b) For the purpose of pursuing recovery under this subsection, the department shall be subrogated to all of the rights of the worker or beneficiary receiving compensation under subsection (1) of this section; and

(c) The department shall not pursue the worker or beneficiary for the recovery of benefits paid under subsection (1) of this section unless the worker or beneficiary receives recovery from the federal program insurer, in addition to receiving benefits authorized under this section. The director may exercise his or her discretion to waive, in whole or in part, the recovery of any such benefits where the recovery would be against equity and good conscience.

(5) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply if the worker or beneficiary refuses, for whatever reason, to assist the department in making a proper determination of coverage. If a worker or beneficiary refuses to cooperate with the department, self-insurer, or federal program insurer by failing to provide information that, in the opinion of the department, is relevant in determining the liable insurer, or if a worker refuses to submit to medical examination, or obstructs or fails to cooperate with the examination, the department shall reject the application for benefits. No information obtained under this section is subject to release by subpoena or other legal process.

(6) The amount of any third party recovery by the worker or beneficiary shall be subject to a lien by the department to the full extent that the medical aid fund has not been otherwise reimbursed by another insurer. Reimbursement shall be made immediately to the medical aid fund upon recovery from the third party suit. If the department determines that the benefits paid under subsection (1) of this section are owed to the worker or beneficiary by a federal program insurer, the department shall not participate in the costs or attorneys' fees incurred in bringing the third party suit.

(7) This section shall expire July 1, 1993.

Sec. 2. Section 51.12.100, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 21, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.12.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The provisions of this title shall not apply to a master or member of a crew of any vessel, or to employers and workers for whom a right or obligation exists under the maritime laws for personal injuries or death of such workers.

(2) If an accurate segregation of payrolls of workers for whom such a right or obligation exists under the maritime laws cannot be made by the employer, the director is hereby authorized and directed to fix from time to time a basis for the approximate segregation of the payrolls of employees to cover the part of their work for which no right or obligation exists under the maritime laws for injuries or death occurring in such work, and the employer, if not a self-insurer, shall pay premiums on that basis for the time such workers are engaged in their work.

(3) Where two or more employers are simultaneously engaged in a common enterprise at one and the same site or place in maritime occupations under circumstances in which no right or obligation exists under the maritime laws for personal injuries or death of such workers, such site or place shall be deemed for the purposes of this title to be the common plant of such employers.

(4) In the event payments are made under this title prior to the final determination under the maritime laws, such benefits shall be repaid by the worker or beneficiary if recovery is subsequently made under the maritime laws.

Sec. 3. Section 51.32.180, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 53, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Every worker who suffers disability from an occupational disease in the course of employment under the mandatory or elective adoption provisions of this title, or his or her family and dependents in case of death of the worker from such disease or infection, shall receive the same compensation benefits and medical, surgical and hospital care and treatment as would be paid and provided for a worker injured or killed in employment under this title (~~PROVIDED; HOWEVER, That~~) except as follows: (1) This section and RCW 51.16.040 shall not apply where the last exposure to the hazards of the disease or infection occurred prior to January 1, 1937; and (2) for claims filed on or after July 1, 1988, the rate of compensation for occupational diseases shall be established as of the date the disease requires medical treatment or becomes totally or partially disabling, whichever occurs first, and without regard to the date of the contraction of the disease or the date of filing the claim.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of labor and industries shall conduct a study of the program established by section 1 of this act. The department's study shall include the use of benefits under the program and the cost of the program. The department shall report the results of the study to the economic development and labor committee of the senate and the commerce and labor committee of the house of representatives, or the appropriate successor committees, at the start of the 1993 regular legislative session.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act shall take effect July 1, 1988, and shall apply to all claims filed on or after that date or pending a final determination on that date."

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the rules were suspended and House Concurrent Resolution No. 4446 was advanced to second reading and placed on the second reading calendar.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I raise a point of order with respect to the introduction of House Concurrent Resolution No. 4446. The point of order that I raise is that House Concurrent Resolution No. 4446 is not properly before the Senate. Article 2, Section 36, of the Washington Constitution bars the introduction of new bills during the last ten days of the legislative session. The Rules of the Senate provide that a concurrent resolution is to be treated as a bill.

"I'd refer the President to Rule 53 which defines a bill as, 'When used alone means bill, joint memorial, joint resolution, or concurrent resolution.' Under Rule 58, with respect to concurrent resolutions of the Senate, 'A concurrent resolution shall be subject to the rules governing the course of bills and may be adopted without a roll call.' Also Rule 55, Mr. President, governs the introduction of bills.

"The point I make is that the Constitution requires that bills not be introduced during the last ten days of a legislative session. The Rules of the Senate provide that concurrent resolutions are, in fact, bills for purposes of the Senate Rules, and take the same status under the Senate Rules as if they were bills.

"Therefore, this measure is not properly before the Senate. It is introduced within the last ten days of the legislative session. The only way that it can be properly before the body is if under Article 2, Section 36, of the Constitution the bodies--both House and Senate--by two-thirds majority waive the inhibition or the bar on the introduction of such a new bill."

Further debate ensued.

At 3:42 p.m., the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 4:57 p.m. by President Cherberg.

The Senate resumed deliberation of House Concurrent Resolution No. 4446, under consideration before the Senate went at ease.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In response to the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge regarding the number of votes required to adopt House Concurrent Resolution No. 4446, the President recognizes Article 2, Section 36, the constitutional prohibition on introducing a bill in the last ten days of a legislative session. The President also recognizes that Senate Rule 53 defines bill as including concurrent resolutions. The President believes that the constitutional prohibition is aimed at bills leading to legislation. The President further believes concurrent resolutions are necessary to allow the two Houses of the Legislature to transact business and do not fall into the category of bills as contemplated by the Constitution.

"The President, therefore, finds that House Concurrent Resolution No. 4446 requires a majority vote to be adopted."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4446, by Representatives Ebersole and Ballard

Revising the cut-off date for passage of legislation.

The resolution was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved that the rules be suspended and House Concurrent Resolution No. 4446 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the resolution be placed on final passage.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, we should have a chance to amend the concurrent resolution. I wish to speak to it before it's advanced to final passage."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "There are no amendments to the resolution, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "I may have some. There's no requirement that I reveal my strategy before the moment arrives, Mr. President. If I may--"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "You may speak, yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "I would want to ask Senator Newhouse a question. Would you yield?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Newhouse, how long ago did we pass the two-year biennial budget of ten point two billion dollars?"

Senator Newhouse: "It was in April, 1987, about ten months ago."

Senator Rasmussen: "Just a short time ago. We haven't spent it all yet. That's my question. If we were to Sine Die tonight, would the state stop running?"

Senator Newhouse did not reply.

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, thank you, Senator Newhouse, for your answer. I can see quite plainly the state wouldn't stop running, but I would like to point out, in as nice a way as I can, that Senator Vognild has cooperated every inch of the way. He has moved this thing along like he was a majority leader, which he isn't. He's only a minority leader at the present time. Next time, probably the majority, but that's the point. The Democrats have done everything they can to expedite this session with the hope that we could break the record and go home a day early. The way it's going now, we're never going to go home, because we can make work as a result.

"I looked at the calendar, there aren't any bills on here that are really earth shaking. They're earth shaking to some individuals, yes, but most of the necessary things have been passed. We could go home tonight, if you'd want to do it instead of extending us out for another two weeks. I can't vote for this, because all we've been doing is piddling around here all afternoon. Usually, on the last day before the cut-off, we're passing bills like crazy--we don't even read them. This time we haven't been reading them either, but we haven't been passing them. So, I don't understand why the majority party wants the delay."

Senator Newhouse: "I'm sorry. I have a hundred and seven bills and three of them are three bills that were requested by Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "Not by me, by Dr. Hollister--the retirement board. I was only the messenger."

"Well, thank you, Mr. President. I can see that we'll be here for quite awhile. I'm going to arrange my affairs and I won't have any amendments, but I won't vote for the resolution."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Newhouse to suspend the rules and advance House Concurrent Resolution No. 4446 to third reading and final passage.

The motion by Senator Newhouse carried and House Concurrent Resolution No. 4446 was advanced to third reading.

Senator Fleming demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Concurrent Resolution No. 4446.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Concurrent Resolution No. 4446, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 24.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bender, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Niemi, Owen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 24.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4446, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1729, by Committee on Commerce and Labor (originally sponsored by Representatives Wang, Patrick and Locke)

Changing provisions relating to corporate takeovers.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 23A.50.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that:

(1) Corporations that offer employment and health, retirement, and other benefits to ((a large number of)) citizens of the state of Washington are vital to the economy of this state and the well-being of all of its citizens;

(2) The welfare of the employees of these corporations is of paramount interest and concern to this state;

(3) Many businesses in this state rely on these corporations to purchase goods and services;

(4) Hostile or unfriendly attempts to gain control of or influence otherwise publicly held corporations can cause corporate management to dissipate a corporation's assets in an effort to resist the takeover by selling or distributing cash or assets, redeeming stock, or taking other steps to increase the short-term gain to shareholders and to dissipate energies required for strategic planning, market development, capital investment decisions, assessment of technologies, and evaluation of competitive challenges that can damage the long-term interests of shareholders and the economic health of the state by reducing or eliminating the ability to finance investments in research and development, new products, facilities and equipment, and by undermining the planning process for those purposes;

(5) Hostile or unfriendly attempts to gain control or influence otherwise publicly held corporations are often highly leveraged pursuant to financing arrangements which assume that an acquirer will promptly obtain access to an acquired corporation's cash or assets and use them, or the proceeds of their sale, to repay acquisition indebtedness;

(6) Hostile or unfriendly attempts to gain control of or influence otherwise publicly held corporations can harm the economy of the state by weakening corporate performance, and causing unemployment, plant closings, reduced charitable donations, declining population base, reduced income to fee-supported local government services, reduced tax base, and reduced income to other businesses; and

(7) The state has a substantial and legitimate interest in regulating domestic corporations and those foreign corporations that have their most significant business contacts with this state and in regulating hostile or unfriendly attempts to gain control of or influence otherwise publicly held domestic corporations and those foreign corporations that employ a large number of citizens of the state, pay significant taxes, and have a substantial economic base in the state.

The legislature intends this chapter to balance the substantial and legitimate interests of the state in domestic corporations and those foreign corporations that employ a large number of citizens of the state and that have a substantial economic base in the state with: The interests of citizens of other states who own shares of such corporations; the interests of the state of incorporation of such foreign corporations in regulating the internal affairs of corporations incorporated in that state; and the interests of promoting interstate commerce. To this effect, the legislature intends to regulate certain transactions between publicly held corporations and acquiring persons that will tend to harm the long-term health of domestic corporations and of foreign corporations that have their principal executive office and a majority of their assets in this state and that employ a large number of citizens of this state.

((~~(8) This section shall expire December 31, 1988.~~))

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 23A.50.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Acquiring person" means a person or group of persons, other than the target corporation or a subsidiary of the target corporation, who beneficially owns ten percent or more of the outstanding voting shares of the target corporation. The term "acquiring person" does not include a person who (a) beneficially owns ten percent or more of the outstanding voting shares of the target corporation on the effective date of this section; (b) acquires its shares by gift, inheritance, or in a transaction in which no consideration is exchanged; or (c) exceeds the ten percent threshold as a result of action taken solely by the target corporation, such as redemption of shares, unless that person, by its own action, acquires additional shares of the target corporation. An agent, bank, broker, nominee, or trustee for another person (if the other person is not an acquiring person) who acts in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing this chapter, is not an acquiring person;

(2) "Affiliate" means a person who directly or indirectly controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, a person.

(3) "Associate" means (a) a domestic or foreign corporation or organization of which a person is an officer, director, or partner or in which a person performs a similar function; (b) a direct or indirect beneficial owner of ten percent or more of any class of equity securities of a person; (c) a trust or estate in which a person has a beneficial interest or as to which a person serves as trustee or in a similar fiduciary capacity; and (d) if having the same residence as a person, the person's relative, spouse, or spouse's relative.

(4) "Beneficial ownership," when used with respect to any shares, means ownership by a person:

(a) Who, individually or with or through any of its affiliates or associates, beneficially owns such shares, directly or indirectly; or

(b) Who, individually or with or through any of its affiliates or associates, has (i) the right to acquire the shares, whether the right is exercisable immediately or only after the passage of time, pursuant to any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing, or upon the exercise of conversion rights, exchange rights, warrants or options, or otherwise. A person is not the beneficial owner of shares tendered pursuant to a tender or exchange offer made by the person or any of the person's affiliates or associates until the tendered shares are accepted for purchase or exchange; or (ii) the right to vote the shares pursuant to any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing. A person is not the beneficial owner of any shares under subsection (4)(b)(i) of this section if the agreement, arrangement, or understanding to vote the shares arises solely from a revocable proxy or consent given in response to a proxy or consent solicitation made in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations under the exchange act and is not then reportable on a schedule 13D under the exchange act, or any comparable or successor report; or

(c) Who has any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing, for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting (except voting pursuant to a revocable proxy or consent as described in (b)(ii) of this subsection), or disposing of the shares with any other person who beneficially owns, or whose affiliates or associates beneficially own, directly or indirectly, the shares.

(5) "Control," "controlling," "controlled by," and "under common control with," means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting shares, by contract, or otherwise. A person's beneficial ownership of ten percent or more of a domestic or foreign corporation's outstanding voting shares shall create a presumption that such person has control of such corporation. However, a person does not have control of a domestic or foreign corporation if the person holds voting shares, in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing this chapter, as an agent, bank, broker, nominee, custodian, or trustee for one or more beneficial owners who do not individually or as a group have control of such corporation.

(6) "Exchange act" means the federal securities exchange act of 1934, as amended.

(7) "Market value," in the case of property other than cash or shares, means the fair market value of the property on the date in question as determined by the board of directors of the target corporation in good faith.

(8) "Person" means an individual, domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, trust, unincorporated association, or other entity; an affiliate or associate of any such person; or any two or more persons acting as a partnership, syndicate, or other group for the purpose of acquiring, holding, or dispersing of securities of a domestic or foreign corporation.

(9) "Significant business transaction" means:

(a) A merger or consolidation of a target corporation or a subsidiary of a target corporation with (i) an acquiring person or (ii) any other domestic or foreign corporation which is, or after the merger or consolidation would be, an affiliate or associate of the acquiring person;

(b) A sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer, or other disposition or encumbrance, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions, to or with an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person of assets of a target corporation or a subsidiary of a target corporation (i) having an aggregate market value equal to five percent or more of the aggregate market value of all the assets, determined on a consolidated basis, of the target corporation, (ii) having an aggregate market value equal to five percent or more of the aggregate market value of all the outstanding shares of the target corporation, or (iii) representing five percent or more of the earning power or net income, determined on a consolidated basis, of the target corporation;

(c) ~~((The termination, whether at one time or over a period of time, of five percent or more of the employees of the target corporation and/or its subsidiaries employed in this state after the acquiring person's share acquisition date, unless the target corporation demonstrates by clear and convincing evidence that the termination of employees is not due to the acquiring person's acquisition of ten percent or more of the shares of the corporation))~~ The termination, while the corporation has an acquiring person and as a result of the acquiring person's acquisition of ten percent or more of the shares of the corporation, of five percent or more of the employees of the target corporation and/or its subsidiaries employed in this state, whether at one time or over the five-year period following the share acquisition date. For the purposes of this subsection (c), a termination other than an employee's death or disability or bona fide voluntary retirement, transfer, resignation, or leave of absence shall be presumed to be a termination resulting from the acquiring person's acquisition of shares, which presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence. A bona fide voluntary transfer of employees between the target corporation and its subsidiaries or between its subsidiaries is not a termination for the purposes of this subsection (c).

(d) The issuance, transfer, or redemption by a target corporation or a subsidiary of a target corporation, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions, of shares or of options, warrants, or rights to acquire shares of a target corporation or a subsidiary of a target corporation to or beneficially owned by an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person except pursuant to the exercise of warrants or rights to purchase shares offered, or a dividend, distribution, or redemption paid or made pro rata, to all shareholders or holders of options, warrants, or rights to acquire shares of the target corporation, and except for involuntary redemptions permitted by the target corporation's charter or by the law of this state or the state of incorporation;

(e) The adoption of a plan or proposal for the sale of assets, liquidation, or dissolution of a target corporation proposed by, or pursuant to an agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing, with an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person;

(f) A reclassification of securities, including, without limitation, any stock split, stock dividend, or other distribution of stock in respect of stock, or any reverse stock split, or recapitalization of a target corporation, or a merger or consolidation of a target corporation with a subsidiary of the target corporation, or any other transaction, whether or not with or into or otherwise involving an acquiring person, proposed by, or pursuant to an agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing, with an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person, that has the effect, directly or indirectly, of increasing the proportionate share of the outstanding shares of a class or series of voting shares or securities convertible into voting shares of a target corporation or a subsidiary of the target corporation that is directly or indirectly owned by an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person, except as a result of immaterial changes due to fractional share adjustments;

(g) A receipt by an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person of the benefit, directly or indirectly, except proportionately as a shareholder of a target corporation, of loans, advances, guarantees, pledges, or other financial assistance or tax credits or other tax advantages provided by or through a target corporation; or

(h) An agreement, contract, or other arrangement providing for any of the transactions in this subsection.

(10) "Share acquisition date" means the date on which a person first becomes an acquiring person of a target corporation.

(11) "Subsidiary" means a domestic or foreign corporation that has a majority of its outstanding voting shares owned, directly or indirectly, by another domestic or foreign corporation.

(12) "Tangible assets" means tangible real and personal property of all kinds. It shall also include leasehold interests in tangible real and personal property.

(13) "Target corporation" means:

(a) ~~Every domestic corporation organized under chapter 23A.12 RCW or any predecessor provision ((and every foreign corporation required to have a certificate of authority to transact business in this state pursuant to chapter 23A.92 RCW, if, as of the share acquisition date:~~

(a) ~~The assessed valuation of the domestic or foreign corporation's and its subsidiaries' personal and real property in the state for purposes of computing state and local property taxes in the state exceeds the aggregate assessed valuation of its personal and real property in all other states for purposes of computing state and local property taxes in such states;~~

(b) ~~The domestic or foreign corporation's principal executive office is located in the state;~~

(c) ~~A majority of the domestic or foreign corporation's and its subsidiaries' employees are residents of the state;~~

(d) ~~A majority of the domestic or foreign corporation's and its subsidiaries' tangible assets, measured by market value, are located in the state;~~

(e) ~~The domestic or foreign corporation and its subsidiaries employ more than twenty thousand residents of the state; and~~

~~(f) The domestic or foreign corporation and its subsidiaries have: (i) More than ten percent of its shareholders of record resident in the state; or (ii) more than ten percent of its shares owned of record by state residents; or (iii) five thousand or more shareholders of record resident in the state)) if, as of the share acquisition date, the corporation's principal executive office is located in the state and either a majority of the corporation's employees, together with those of its subsidiaries, are residents of the state or the corporation, together with its subsidiaries, employs more than one thousand residents of the state; and~~

~~(b) Every foreign corporation required to have a certificate of authority to transact business in this state pursuant to chapter 23A.32 RCW, if, as of the share acquisition date:~~

~~(i) The corporation's principal executive office is located in the state;~~

~~(ii) The corporation has: (A) More than ten percent of its shareholders of record resident in the state; or (B) more than ten percent of its shares owned of record by state residents; or (C) one thousand or more shareholders of record resident in the state;~~

~~(iii) A majority of the corporation's employees, together with those of its subsidiaries, are residents of the state or the corporation, together with its subsidiaries, employs more than one thousand residents of the state; and~~

~~(iv) A majority of the corporation's tangible assets, together with those of its subsidiaries, measured by market value, are located in the state or the corporation, together with its subsidiaries, has more than fifty million dollars' worth of tangible assets located in the state.~~

For purposes of this subsection, the record date for determining the percentages and numbers of shareholders and shares shall be the last shareholder record date before the event requiring that the determination be made. A shareholder record date shall be determined pursuant to RCW 23A.08.270 for a domestic corporation and the comparable provision of the law of the state in which a foreign corporation is incorporated. If a shareholder record date has not been fixed by the board of directors within the preceding four months, the determination shall be made as of the end of the domestic or foreign corporation's most recent fiscal quarter.

The residence of each shareholder is presumed to be the address appearing in the records of the domestic or foreign corporation. Shares held of record by brokers or nominees shall be disregarded for purposes of calculating the percentages and numbers specified in this subsection. Shares of a domestic or foreign corporation allocated to the account of an employee or former employee or beneficiaries of employees or former employees of a domestic or foreign corporation and held in a plan that is qualified under section 401(a) of the federal internal revenue code of 1986, as amended, and is a defined contribution plan within the meaning of section 414(f) of the code shall be deemed, for the purposes of this subsection, to be held of record by the employee to whose account such shares are allocated.

A domestic or foreign corporation shall be deemed to be a target corporation if the domestic or foreign corporation's failure to satisfy the requirements of this subsection is caused by the action of, or is the result of a proposal by, an acquiring person or affiliate or associate of an acquiring person.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 23A.28.129 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((2) This section shall expire on December 31, 1988.))~~

Sec. 5. Section 109, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 8, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 23A.32.010 are each amended to read as follows:

No foreign corporation shall be entitled to procure a certificate of authority under this title to transact in this state any business which a corporation organized under this title is not permitted to transact. A foreign corporation shall not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of the fact that the laws of the state or country under which such corporation is organized governing its organization and internal affairs differ from the laws of this state. ~~((Until December 31, 1988.))~~ Except as provided in chapter 23A.50 RCW, nothing in this title contained shall be construed to authorize this state to regulate the organization or the internal affairs of such corporation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Law and Justice amendment be adopted:

On page 16, after line 11, insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 23A.50.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Notwithstanding any provision of chapter 23A.08 RCW, a target corporation shall not engage in any significant business transaction for a period of five years following the acquiring person's share acquisition date unless the significant business transaction or the purchase of shares made by the acquiring person on the share acquisition date is approved prior to the acquiring person's share acquisition date by a majority of the members of the board of directors of the target corporation. A target corporation may engage in any significant business transaction within the five-year period, other than a significant business transaction under RCW 23A.50.020(9)(c), if the acquiring person beneficially owns eighty-five percent or more of the outstanding voting shares of the target corporation.

(b) If a good faith proposal for a significant business transaction is made in writing to the board of directors of the target corporation prior to the significant business transaction or prior to the share acquisition date, the board of directors shall respond in writing, within thirty days or such shorter period, if any, as may be required by the exchange act setting forth its reasons for its decision regarding the proposal. If a good faith proposal to purchase shares is made in writing to the board of directors of the target corporation, the board of directors, unless it responds affirmatively in writing within thirty days or a shorter period, if any, as may be required by the exchange act shall be deemed to have disapproved such share purchase.

(2) A target corporation that engages in a significant business transaction that violates subsection (1) of this section and that is not exempt under RCW 23A.50.030 shall have its certificate of incorporation or certificate of authority to transact business in this state revoked pursuant to RCW 23A.28.125 or 23A.32.160 for domestic or foreign target corporations, respectively. In addition, such significant business transaction shall be void."

Remember the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Talmadge on page 16, after line 11, to the Committee on Law and Justice amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1729.

The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Fleming moved that the following amendment by Senators Fleming, Vognild and Warnke to the Committee on Law and Justice amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 23A.50.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(7) The state has a substantial and legitimate interest in regulating domestic corporations and those foreign corporations that have their most significant business contacts with this state and in regulating hostile or unfriendly attempts to gain control of or influence otherwise publicly held domestic corporations and those foreign corporations that employ a large number of citizens of the state, pay significant taxes, and have a substantial economic base in the state; and

(8) Friendly acquisitions of corporations in this state, and hostile attempts to gain control of or influence corporations in this state with fewer than one thousand resident employees, can also have potentially disastrous effects in suddenly eliminating an employee's employment as the direct result of a current or successor employer's decision to sell, relocate, or close the business. Such effects should be shared by the employer who has made the decision that sale, relocation, or closure of the business is an economic advantage.

The legislature intends this chapter to balance the substantial and legitimate interests of the state in domestic corporations and those foreign corporations that employ a large number of citizens of the state and that have a substantial economic base in the state with: The interests of citizens of other states who own shares of such corporations; the interests of the state of incorporation of such foreign corporations in regulating the internal affairs of corporations incorporated in that state; and the interests of promoting interstate commerce. Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 23A.50.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions in this section apply throughout ((this chapter)) RCW 23A.50.010 through 23A.50.050.

(1) "Acquiring person" means a person or group of persons, other than the target corporation or a subsidiary of the target corporation, who beneficially owns ten percent or more of the outstanding voting shares of the target corporation. The term "acquiring person" does not include a person who (a) beneficially owns ten percent or more of the outstanding voting shares of the target corporation on the effective date of this section; (b) acquires its shares by gift, inheritance, or in a transaction in which no consideration is exchanged; or (c) exceeds the ten percent threshold as a result of action taken solely by the target corporation, such as redemption of shares, unless that person, by its own action, acquires additional shares of the target corporation. An agent, bank, broker, nominee, or trustee for another person (if the other person is not an acquiring person) who acts in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing this chapter, is not an acquiring person;

(2) "Affiliate" means a person who directly or indirectly controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, a person.

(3) "Associate" means (a) a domestic or foreign corporation or organization of which a person is an officer, director, or partner or in which a person performs a similar function; (b) a direct or indirect beneficial owner of ten percent or more of any class of equity securities of a person; (c) a trust or estate in which a person has a beneficial interest or as to which a person serves as trustee or in a similar fiduciary capacity; and (d) if having the same residence as a person, the person's relative, spouse, or spouse's relative.

(4) "Beneficial ownership," when used with respect to any shares, means ownership by a person:

(a) Who, individually or with or through any of its affiliates or associates, beneficially owns such shares, directly or indirectly; or

(b) Who, individually or with or through any of its affiliates or associates, has (i) the right to acquire the shares, whether the right is exercisable immediately or only after the passage of time, pursuant to any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing, or upon the exercise of conversion rights, exchange rights, warrants or options, or otherwise. A person is not the beneficial owner of shares tendered pursuant to a tender or exchange offer made by the person or any of the person's affiliates or associates until the tendered shares are accepted for purchase or exchange; or (ii) the right to vote the shares pursuant to any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing. A person is not the beneficial owner of any shares under subsection (4)(b)(ii) of this section if the agreement, arrangement, or understanding to vote the shares arises solely from a revocable proxy or consent given in response to a proxy or consent solicitation made in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations under the exchange act and is not then reportable on a schedule 13D under the exchange act, or any comparable or successor report; or

(c) Who has any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing, for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting (except voting pursuant to a revocable proxy or consent as described in (b)(ii) of this subsection), or disposing of the shares with any other person who beneficially owns, or whose affiliates or associates beneficially own, directly or indirectly, the shares.

(5) "Control," "controlling," "controlled by," and "under common control with," means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting shares, by contract, or otherwise. A person's beneficial ownership of ten percent or more of a domestic or foreign corporation's outstanding voting shares shall create a presumption that such person has control of such corporation. However, a person does not have control of a domestic or foreign corporation if the person holds voting shares, in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing this chapter, as an agent, bank, broker, nominee, custodian, or trustee for one or more beneficial owners who do not individually or as a group have control of such corporation.

(6) "Exchange act" means the federal securities exchange act of 1934, as amended.

(7) "Market value," in the case of property other than cash or shares, means the fair market value of the property on the date in question as determined by the board of directors of the target corporation in good faith.

(8) "Person" means an individual, domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, trust, unincorporated association, or other entity; an affiliate or associate of any such person; or any two or more persons acting as a partnership, syndicate, or other group for the purpose of acquiring, holding, or dispersing of securities of a domestic or foreign corporation.

(9) "Significant business transaction" means:

(a) A merger or consolidation of a target corporation or a subsidiary of a target corporation with (i) an acquiring person or (ii) any other domestic or foreign corporation which is, or after the merger or consolidation would be, an affiliate or associate of the acquiring person;

(b) A sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer, or other disposition or encumbrance, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions, to or with an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person of assets of a target corporation or a subsidiary of a target corporation (i) having an aggregate market value equal to five percent or more of the aggregate market value of all the assets, determined on a consolidated basis, of the target corporation, (ii) having an aggregate market value equal to five percent or more of the aggregate market value of all the outstanding shares of the target corporation, or (iii) representing five percent or more of the earning power or net income, determined on a consolidated basis, of the target corporation;

(c) (The termination, whether at one time or over a period of time, of five percent or more of the employees of the target corporation and/or its subsidiaries employed in this state after the acquiring person's share acquisition date, unless the target corporation demonstrates by clear and convincing evidence that the termination of employees is not due to the acquiring person's acquisition of ten percent or more of the shares of the corporation)) The termination, while the corporation has an acquiring person and as a result of the acquiring person's acquisition of ten percent or more of the shares of the corporation, of five percent or more of the employees of the target corporation and/or its subsidiaries employed in this state, whether at one time or over the five-year period following the share acquisition date. For the purposes of this subsection (c), a termination other than an employee's death or disability or bona fide voluntary retirement, transfer, resignation, or leave of absence shall be presumed to be a termination resulting from the acquiring person's acquisition of shares, which presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence. A bona fide voluntary transfer of employees between the target corporation and its subsidiaries or between its subsidiaries is not a termination for the purposes of this subsection (c):

(d) The issuance, transfer, or redemption by a target corporation or a subsidiary of a target corporation, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions, of shares or of options, warrants, or rights to acquire shares of a target corporation or a subsidiary of a target corporation to or beneficially owned by an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person except pursuant to the exercise of warrants or rights to purchase shares offered, or a dividend, distribution, or redemption paid or made pro rata to, all shareholders or holders of options, warrants, or rights to acquire shares of the target corporation, and except for involuntary redemptions permitted by the target corporation's charter or by the law of this state or the state of incorporation;

(e) The adoption of a plan or proposal for the sale of assets, liquidation, or dissolution of a target corporation proposed by, or pursuant to an agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing, with an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person;

(f) A reclassification of securities, including, without limitation, any stock split, stock dividend, or other distribution of stock in respect of stock, or any reverse stock split, or recapitalization of a target corporation, or a merger or consolidation of a target corporation with a subsidiary of the target corporation, or any other transaction, whether or not with or into or otherwise involving an acquiring person, proposed by, or pursuant to an agreement, arrangement, or understanding, whether or not in writing, with an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person, that has the effect, directly or indirectly, of increasing the proportionate share of the outstanding shares of a class or series of voting shares or securities convertible into voting shares of a target corporation or a subsidiary of the target corporation that is directly or indirectly owned by an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person, except as a result of immaterial changes due to fractional share adjustments;

(g) A receipt by an acquiring person or an affiliate or associate of an acquiring person of the benefit, directly or indirectly, except proportionately as a shareholder of a target corporation, of loans, advances, guarantees, pledges, or other financial assistance or tax credits or other tax advantages provided by or through a target corporation; or

(h) An agreement, contract, or other arrangement providing for any of the transactions in this subsection.

(10) "Share acquisition date" means the date on which a person first becomes an acquiring person of a target corporation.

(11) "Subsidiary" means a domestic or foreign corporation that has a majority of its outstanding voting shares owned, directly or indirectly, by another domestic or foreign corporation.

(12) "Tangible assets" means tangible real and personal property of all kinds. It shall also include leasehold interests in tangible real and personal property.

(13) "Target corporation" means:

(a) Every domestic corporation organized under chapter 23A.12 RCW or any predecessor provision ~~((and every foreign corporation required to have a certificate of authority to transact business in this state pursuant to chapter 23A.32 RCW, if, as of the share acquisition date:~~

(iv) A majority of the corporation's tangible assets, together with those of its subsidiaries, measured by market value, are located in the state or the corporation, together with its subsidiaries, has more than fifty million dollars' worth of tangible assets located in the state.

For purposes of this subsection, the record date for determining the percentages and numbers of shareholders and shares shall be the last shareholder record date before the event requiring that the determination be made. A shareholder record date shall be determined pursuant to RCW 23A.08.270 for a domestic corporation and the comparable provision of the law of the state in which a foreign corporation is incorporated. If a shareholder record date has not been fixed by the board of directors within the preceding four months, the determination shall be made as of the end of the domestic or foreign corporation's most recent fiscal quarter.

The residence of each shareholder is presumed to be the address appearing in the records of the domestic or foreign corporation. Shares held of record by brokers or nominees shall be disregarded for purposes of calculating the percentages and numbers specified in this subsection. Shares of a domestic or foreign corporation allocated to the account of an employee or former employee or beneficiaries of employees or former employees of a domestic or foreign corporation and held in a plan that is qualified under section 401(a) of the federal internal revenue code of 1986, as amended, and is a defined contribution plan within the meaning of section 414(l) of the code shall be deemed, for the purposes of this subsection, to be held of record by the employee to whose account such shares are allocated.

A domestic or foreign corporation shall be deemed to be a target corporation if the domestic or foreign corporation's failure to satisfy the requirements of this subsection is caused by the action of, or is the result of a proposal by, an acquiring person or affiliate or associate of an acquiring person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 23A.50 RCW to be codified between RCW 23A.50.010 and 23A.50.050, to read as follows:

(1) If a significant business transaction defined by RCW 23A.50.020(9)(c) occurs and is prohibited by RCW 23A.50.010 through 23A.50.050, the target corporation and its subsidiaries shall pay to each terminated employee who was employed in the state of Washington a sum equal to three months' wages for each year of employment with the corporation and/or its subsidiaries and shall pay or provide three months' fringe benefits, including but not limited to, pension and medical and dental benefits, for each year of employment with the corporation and/or its subsidiaries. This sum shall be in addition to any final wage payment that may be due to the employee and shall be paid within one regular pay period after the employee's last full day of work.

(2) The requirements of subsection (1) of this section shall apply to any termination occurring during the five-year period following the share acquisition date, whether termination occurred before or after the five percent threshold was reached.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 23A.28.129 are each amended to read as follows:

((†)) If a corporation engages in activity in violation of chapter 23A.50 RCW, then the secretary of state shall revoke the corporation's certificate of incorporation pursuant to the procedures in RCW 23A.28.125.

Sec. 6. Section 109, chapter 53, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 8, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 23A.32.010 are each amended to read as follows:

No foreign corporation shall have the right to transact business in this state until it shall have procured a certificate of authority so to do from the secretary of state. No foreign corporation shall be entitled to procure a certificate of authority under this title to transact in this state any business which a corporation organized under this title is not permitted to transact. A foreign corporation shall not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of the fact that the laws of the state or country under which such corporation is organized governing its organization and internal affairs differ from the laws of this state. ~~((Until December 31, 1988.))~~ Except as provided in chapter 23A.50 RCW, nothing in this title contained shall be construed to authorize this state to regulate the organization or the internal affairs of such corporation.

Without excluding other activities which may not constitute transacting business in this state, a foreign corporation shall not be considered to be transacting business in this state, for the purposes of this title, by reason of carrying on in this state any one or more of the following activities:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Section 10, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 23A.50.901 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 8 through 20 of this act.

- (1) "Employer" includes any corporation which employs eight or more persons and which is not required under this chapter to comply with the requirements of section 3 of this act.
- (2) "Employee" includes any individual employed by an employer.

- (4) "Termination" of a business or part of a business means cessation of all or substantially all operations of the business, a separate facility or branch, or a distinct division or department of a business and the business or part of the business is permanently closed.
- (5) "Transfer of ownership" of a business or part of a business includes any transfer of ownership in a business, a separate facility or branch, or a distinct division or department of a business, including sale of stock, a sale of assets, a foreclosure or other form of repossession by creditors, a gift, a devise, or any other means of transfer of ownership.
- (6) "One month's pay" means the average monthly compensation paid to an employee by an employer based on the amount of compensation received by the employee during the preceding twelve months.
- (7) "Years of service" shall include all years during which the employee was employed by the employer, or any owner, subsidiary, division, or entity otherwise related to the employer, or during which the employee was employed in the same operation or facility while it was owned by a predecessor to the employer.

- (9) "Predecessor employer" means an employer who has transferred the ownership of a business or a part of a business to another.
- (10) "Comparable position" means a position that requires comparable education, skills, experience, and effort and is performed under similar working conditions.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. Any employer that relocates, terminates, or transfers the ownership in a business or any part of a business shall be liable to the employees for severance pay at the rate of one month's pay for each year of service by the employee, not to exceed twelve months' pay. The employer is liable to employees who have been employed by the employer for at least one pay period but less than one year for severance pay in the amount of one month's pay. The severance pay owing shall be in addition to any final wage payment to the employee and shall be paid within one regular pay period after the employee's last day of work. An employer's liability for severance pay under this section shall be limited to the value of the business at the time of the relocation, termination, or transfer of the ownership of the business or any part of the business.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. An employer shall not be liable for severance pay under section 9 of this act to an employee if:

- (1) The employee is covered by an express contract providing for severance pay; or
- (2) The employee accepts employment with the new owner of the business or with the predecessor employer at a different facility or location that provides the same wages and benefits as the employee received prior to the relocation, termination, or transfer of ownership of the business.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. A successor employer has an obligation to offer a position to each employee who was employed by the predecessor employer during the twelve months preceding the transfer of ownership. The employee shall be offered the position that employee held for the predecessor employer prior to the transfer of ownership if a substantial portion of the work performed by that employee continues to be performed by the business. If the work performed by an employee is no longer performed by the business, the employer must offer the employee a comparable position or, if no comparable position is available, any available position for which the employee is qualified. The wages, benefits, and other conditions of employment offered or provided to the former employees of the predecessor employer may not be inferior to the wages, benefits, and other conditions of employment provided to new employees filling the same or comparable positions with the successor employer.

A former employee of a predecessor employer who accepts a job with a successor employer may not be discharged, except for misconduct connected with the employee's work, for one year after the employee's date of hire by the successor employer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Section 11 of this act does not apply to a former employee of a predecessor employer if:

(1) There is no work available which the employee is qualified to perform: PROVIDED, That all employees of a predecessor employer shall be offered employment before new employees are hired; or

(2) The former employee held a managerial position with the predecessor employer in which the employee was responsible for setting fundamental company policy, and it is necessary for the successor employer to replace the employee in order to implement its management plan: PROVIDED, That the employee shall be offered an alternative position for which the employee is qualified.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. An employer may not avoid the obligation under section 9 of this act by discharging or laying off employees prior to the relocation, termination, or transfer of ownership of the business or any part of the business. A successor employer's obligation under section 11 of this act is not affected if the predecessor employer discharges or lays off employees prior to the relocation, termination, or transfer of ownership of the business or any part of the business. An employer or a successor employer is relieved of obligations to an employee employed during the twelve months prior to the relocation, termination, or transfer of ownership only if the employer or successor employer proves by clear and convincing evidence that the employee's discharge or layoff was not a result of the expected relocation, termination, or transfer of ownership of the business or any part of the business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Any employee may bring suit in superior court to enforce the employee's rights under this chapter. The courts are authorized to direct specific performance of the successor employer's obligation under section 11 of this act to offer employment to an employee of its predecessor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The director of labor and industries is authorized to take assignments of claims for severance pay under section 9 of this act and prosecute actions for the collection of severance pay under the same conditions provided for the assignment and prosecution of claims for unpaid wages under RCW 49.48.040.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Any individual who successfully prosecutes a claim for severance pay or a claim to enforce the successor employer's duty to offer employment to the predecessor's employees shall be awarded costs and attorney's fees, including costs and attorney's fees necessary to collect a judgment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) A person with a claim for severance pay against an employer or a claim for an offer of employment from a successor employer shall have a lien for moneys owing under this chapter on: (a) All of the property used in the operation of the business or part of the business that has been relocated, terminated, or transferred creating an obligation under this chapter, and (b) all proceeds of the sale or transfer of ownership of the property.

(2) A notice of the claim shall be filed within sixty days of the employee's termination of employment with the auditor of the county in which the affected business or part of the business is or was located. The notice of claim shall contain a statement of the employee's demands, the name and address of the employer, the name and address of the successor employer (if applicable), and the date of the employee's last service. A copy of this notice shall be served or mailed to the employer and, if applicable, to the successor employer at the time it is filed.

(3) The lien may be enforced within the same time and in the same manner as mechanics' liens are enforced when the lien is upon real property, or in the same manner as chattel liens are enforced when the lien is upon personal property.

(4) This lien shall be preferred to any encumbrance that may attach after the relocation, termination, or transfer of ownership that created the obligation under this chapter and to any encumbrance that may have attached prior to that time but was not filed or recorded so as to create constructive notice of the encumbrance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 8 through 20 of this act do not apply to an employee who is terminated:

(1) Following a determination by the department of employment security that the employer has undergone a bona fide restructuring of the employer's business for the purposes of efficiency and improvements in the productivity of the business;

(2) Because the employer has gone into receivership or bankruptcy;

(3) Because of the employer's termination of a business due to death, serious illness, or an act of God;

(4) Because the employer's business is not profitable. To qualify for this exemption, an employer must provide the employee with written notice of the expected termination, relocation, or transfer of the ownership of the business due to loss of profits at least six months prior to termination of the employee, and shall make the books of the employer open for inspection by the employee for the purpose of verifying the loss of profits; or

(5) If the employer had provided the employee with twelve months' written notice of the intent to terminate the business.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. Sections 8 through 19 of this act are each added as new sections to chapter 23A.50 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 1649 and the pending striking Committee on Ways and Means amendment, deferred March 2, 1988.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Warnke, the President finds that House Bill No. 1649 is a measure which makes numerous changes in pension portability laws including definitional changes. In addition, House Bill No. 1649 affects the portability procedures applicable to certain employees by removing the statewide city employees retirement system, clarifying the definition of 'dual member' to exclude certain persons who are receiving disability benefits from any retirement system administered by the Department of Retirement Systems, providing guidelines for administering maximum benefit limitations and authorizing lump sum payments in lieu of monthly benefits under certain circumstances.

"The amendment proposed by the Ways and Means Committee also makes definitional changes and affects portability procedures applicable to certain employees by providing for changes in computation of compensation and requiring a 'dual member' to be vested in one system in order to exercise the portability benefit.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed committee amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The Committee on Ways and Means amendment was ruled in order.

MOTION

On motion by Senator Hayner, and there being no objection, the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to House Bill No. 1649 was withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion by Senator Nelson, further consideration of House Bill No. 1649 was deferred.

Revising the property tax exemption for houses for the aged.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes an important public service is offered by nonprofit homes for the aged. The legislature also recognizes the need for public services offered by local government. Nonprofit homes for the aged receive benefits from local government, and local governments need a stable tax base to provide these services. The legislature further recognizes that converting taxable property to tax-exempt property can cause disruptions to local government. It is the intent of the legislature to allow existing structures to be converted to partially tax-exempt homes for the aged while at the same time protecting the tax base of local government.

Sec. 2. Section 84.36.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 31, Laws of 1987 and RCW 84.36.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The real and personal property used by nonprofit ~~((+))~~ (a) day care centers as defined pursuant to RCW 74.15.020 as now or hereafter amended; ~~((#))~~ (b) free public libraries; ~~((#))~~ (c) orphanages and orphan asylums; ~~((#))~~ (d) homes for the aged; ~~((#))~~ (e) homes for the sick or infirm; ~~((#))~~ (f) hospitals for the sick; and ~~((#))~~ (g) outpatient dialysis facilities, which are used for the purposes of such organizations shall be exempt from taxation: PROVIDED, That the benefit of the exemption inures to the user.

(2) To be exempt under this section, the property must be used exclusively for the purposes for which exemption is granted, except as provided in RCW 84.36.805.

(3) The exemption for a home for the aged under subsection (1)(d) of this section for structures that do not have a tax-exempt status and that are converted to a tax-exempt status under subsection (1)(d) of this section after January 1, 1988, applies only to any state property tax levy, any port district property tax levy, and all excess property tax levies. This partial exemption applies to such converted structures and the land upon which they are located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

There is created a Washington state support registry within the office of support enforcement as the agency designated in Washington state to administer the child support program under Title IV-D of the federal social security act. The registry shall:

(2) Maintain the necessary records including, but not limited to, information on support orders, support debts, the date and amount of support due; the date and amount of payments; and the names, social security numbers, and addresses of the parties;

(3) Develop procedures for providing information to the parties regarding action taken by, and support payments collected and distributed by the registry;

(4) The secretary of social and health services shall adopt rules for the maintenance and retention of records of support payments and for the archiving and destruction of such records when the support obligation terminates or is satisfied. When a support obligation established under court order entered in a superior court of this state has been satisfied, a satisfaction of judgment form shall be prepared by the registry and filed with the clerk of the court in which the order was entered.

The child support registry shall distribute all moneys received in compliance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657. When, following termination of public assistance, the office of support enforcement collects support, all moneys collected up to the maximum of the support due for the period following termination from public assistance shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, be paid to the custodial parent before any distribution to the office of support enforcement under 42 U.S.C. Payment of public assistance under this title operates as an assignment by operation of law.

(2) Upon the recipient's request, the department ((may, and under appropriate circumstances)) shall(;) continue to establish the support obligation and to enforce and collect the support debt ((for a period not to exceed three months from the month following the month in which such family ceased)) after the family ceases to receive public assistance, and thereafter if a nonassistance request for support enforcement services has been made under RCW 74.20-.040 (2) and (3). The department shall distribute all amounts collected in accordance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657 and RCW 26.23.030.

Distribution of any support moneys shall be made in accordance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657.

Public assistance moneys shall be exempt from collection action under this chapter except as provided in RCW 74.20A.270.

On motion of Senator Pullen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1465, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Halsan: "Senator Hayner, I may be a little bit behind on this particular one, but I'm just reading the language that's been inserted in regards to what, I guess, you could call the county option that you're proposing. The last sentence of the language that was inserted states, 'The economic table adopted by the superior court shall not vary by more than twenty-five percent from the economic table adopted by the commission and shall not vary the economic table for combined monthly net income of two thousand five hundred dollars or less.' Now, that means it's still presumptive, exactly like it was in the original bill, for all combined incomes of twenty-five hundred dollars or less and the only thing that can be varied by twenty-five percent by the local counties is above twenty-five hundred dollars combined income. Is that correct?"

Senator Hayner: "I think that is correct."

Senator Halsan: "O.K., that was the question."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1465, as amended by the Senate.

Voting nay: Senators Decchio, Halsan, McCaslin, Newhouse, Owen, Rasmussen - 6.

(5) "Current system average final compensation" means that compensation or average compensation used in the service retirement benefit calculation of the current system with compensation being either that earned in the current system or the base salary earned in a prior system, whichever produces the greater benefit.

(6) "Prior system average final compensation" means the compensation or average compensation used in the service retirement benefit calculation of the prior system, with compensation being either that earned in the prior system or the base salary earned in any system in which dual membership is held, whichever produces the greater benefit.

(7) "Compensation" means, respectively, "compensation earnable" as defined in RCW 41.28.010, "earnable compensation" as defined in RCW 41.32.010, "compensation earnable" as defined in RCW 41.40.010, "compensation earnable" as defined in RCW 41.44.030, and "average final salary" as used in RCW 43.43.120(15).

(8) "Current system" means the system in which a member is currently making contributions and accruing service credit.

(9) "Department" means the department of retirement systems.

((10)) (4) "Director" means the director of the department of retirement systems.

((11)) (5) "Dual member" means a person who (a) is or becomes a member of a system on or after July 1, 1988, (b) has been a member of one or more other systems, and (c) has never been retired for service from a retirement system and is not receiving a disability retirement or disability leave benefit from (~~(a) prior~~) any retirement system listed in RCW 41.50.030. No person may become a dual member after June 30, 1992.

~~((12))~~ "Prior system" means a system in which a person had previous membership but is no longer making member contributions.

~~((3))~~ (6) "Service" means the same as it may be defined in each respective system. For the purposes of RCW 41.54.030, military service granted under RCW 41.40.170(3) or 43.43.260 may only be based on service accrued under chapter 41.40 or 43.43 RCW, respectively.

~~((14))~~ (7) "System" means the retirement systems established under chapters ((41-26-)) 41.32, 41.40, ((41-44-)) and 43.43 RCW. The inclusion of an individual first class city system is subject to the procedure set forth in RCW 41.54.060.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 192, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.54.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((As used in this section, the percentage factor to be used in calculating a benefit under chapter 41-28 RCW shall be determined using only the service earned in a retirement system created under that chapter:~~

~~(2) The service retirement allowances to be paid to a dual member upon retiring from the current system because of service shall be the sum of:~~

~~(a) The service retirement allowance received under the current system as a result of multiplying the current system average final compensation by the percentage factor of the current system and the service earned under the current system; and~~

~~(b) The sum of the respective service retirement allowances received under prior systems as a result of multiplying each prior system's average final compensation by the percentage factor of that prior system and the service earned under that prior system.~~

~~(3) Eligibility to receive a service benefit under this chapter shall be based on (a) the criteria of any system in which dual membership is held, and (b) the dual member's combined systems' service.)~~ Except as limited in subsection (2) of this section, a dual member's service in all systems may be combined for the sole purpose of determining the member's eligibility to receive a service retirement allowance.

(2) A dual member must have five or more years of service in one system in order to have the member's service retirement allowances calculated under this section.

(3) A dual member who is eligible to retire under any system may elect to retire from all the member's systems and to receive service retirement allowances calculated as provided in this section. Each system shall calculate the allowance using its own criteria except that the member shall be allowed to substitute the member's average base salary from any system as the compensation used in calculating the allowance.

(4) The service retirement allowances from a system which, but for this ((chapter)) section, would not be allowed to be paid at this date based on the dual member's age shall be either actuarially adjusted from the earliest age upon which the combined service would have made such dual member eligible in that system, or the dual member may choose to defer the benefit until fully eligible.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 192, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.54.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The retirement allowances calculated under RCW 41.54.030 shall be paid separately by each respective current and prior system. Any deductions from such separate payments shall be according to the provisions of the respective systems.

(2) Postretirement adjustments, if any, shall be applied by the respective systems based on the payments made under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) If a dual member dies in service in any system, the surviving spouse shall receive the same benefit from each system that would have been received if the member were active in the system at the time of death based on service actually established in that system. However, this subsection does not make a surviving spouse eligible for the survivor benefits provided in RCW 43.43.270.

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 192, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.54.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The benefit granted by this chapter shall not result in a total benefit less than would have been received absent such benefit. The total sum of the retirement allowances received under this chapter shall not exceed the smallest amount the dual member would receive if all the service had been rendered in any one system. When calculating the maximum benefit a dual member would receive: (1) Military service granted under RCW 41.40.170(3) or 43.43.260 shall be based only on service accrued under chapter 41.40 or 43.43 RCW, respectively; and (2) the calculation shall be made assuming that the dual member did not defer any allowances pursuant to RCW 41.54.030(3). When a dual member's combined retirement allowances would exceed the limitation imposed by this section, the allowances shall be reduced by the systems on a proportional basis, according to service.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 105, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 192, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.04.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of chapter 2.10, 2.12, 41.26, 41.28, 41.32, 41.40, or 43.43 RCW to the contrary, on and after March 19, 1976, any member or former member who (a) receives a retirement allowance earned by said former member as deferred compensation from any public retirement system authorized by the general laws of this state, or (b) is eligible to receive a retirement allowance from any public retirement system listed in RCW 41.50.030, but chooses not to apply, or (c) is the beneficiary of a disability allowance from any public retirement system listed in RCW 41.50.030 shall be estopped from becoming a member of or accruing any contractual rights whatsoever in any other public retirement system listed in RCW 41.50.030: PROVIDED, That (a) and (b) of this subsection shall not apply to persons who have accumulated less than fifteen years service credit in any such system.

(2) Nothing in this section is intended to apply to ~~((a))~~ any retirement system except those listed in RCW 41.50.030 ~~((and chapter 41.28 RCW, or (b)))~~ and the city employee retirement systems for Seattle, Tacoma, and Spokane. Subsection (1)(b) of this section does not apply to a dual member as defined in RCW 41.54.010.

Sec. 6. Section 13, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 379, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.40.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Membership in the retirement system shall consist of all regularly compensated employees and appointive and elective officials of employers, as defined in this chapter, with the following exceptions:

(1) Persons in ineligible positions;

(2) Employees of the legislature except the officers thereof elected by the members of the senate and the house and legislative committees, unless membership of such employees be authorized by the said committee;

(3) (a) Persons holding elective offices or persons appointed directly by the governor: PROVIDED, That such persons shall have the option of applying for membership during such periods of employment: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any persons holding or who have held elective offices or persons appointed by the governor who are members in the retirement system and who have, prior to becoming such members, previously held an elective office, and did not at the start of such initial or successive terms of office exercise their option to become members, may apply for membership to be effective during such term or terms of office, and shall be allowed to establish the service credit applicable to such term or terms of office upon payment of the employee contributions therefor by the employee with interest as determined by the director and employer contributions therefor by the employer or employee with interest as determined by the director: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That all contributions with interest submitted by the employee under this subsection shall be placed in the employee's individual account in the employee's savings fund and be treated as any other contribution made by the employee, with the exception that any contributions submitted by the employee in payment of the employer's obligation, together with the interest the director may apply to the employer's contribution, shall not be considered part of the member's annuity for any purpose except withdrawal of contributions;

(b) A member holding elective office in a town or city who has elected to apply for membership pursuant to (a) of this subsection and who later wishes to be eligible for a retirement allowance shall have the option of ending his or her membership in the retirement system. A member wishing to end his or her membership under this subsection must file, on a form supplied by the department, a statement indicating that the member agrees to irrevocably abandon any claim for service for future periods served as an elected official of a town or city. A member who receives more than ten thousand dollars per year in compensation for his or her elective service is not eligible for the option provided by this subsection (3)(b);

(4) Employees holding membership in, or receiving pension benefits under, any retirement plan operated wholly or in part by an agency of the state or political subdivision thereof, or who are by reason of their current employment contributing to or otherwise establishing the right to receive benefits from any such retirement plan: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, In any case where the retirement system has in existence an agreement with another retirement system in connection with exchange of service credit or an agreement whereby members can retain service credit in more than one system, such an employee shall be allowed membership rights should the agreement so provide: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That an employee shall be allowed membership if otherwise eligible while receiving survivor's benefits: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That an employee shall not either before or after June 7, 1984, be excluded from membership or denied service credit pursuant to this subsection solely on account of enrollment under the relief and compensation provisions or the pension provisions of the volunteer firemen's relief and pension fund under chapter 41.24 RCW;

(5) Patient and inmate help in state charitable, penal, and correctional institutions;

(6) "Members" of a state veterans' home or state soldiers' home;

(7) Persons employed by an institution of higher learning or community college, primarily as an incident to and in furtherance of their education or training, or the education or training of a spouse;

(8) Employees of an institution of higher learning or community college during the period of service necessary to establish eligibility for membership in the retirement plans operated by such institutions;

(9) Persons rendering professional services to an employer on a fee, retainer, or contract basis or when the income from these services is less than fifty percent of the gross income received from the person's practice of a profession:

(10) Persons appointed after April 1, 1963, by the liquor control board as agency vendors;

(11) Employees of a labor guild, association, or organization; PROVIDED, That elective officials and employees of a labor guild, association, or organization which qualifies as an employer within this chapter shall have the option of applying for membership;

(12) Persons hired in eligible positions on a temporary basis for a period not to exceed six months; PROVIDED, That if such employees are employed for more than six months in an eligible position they shall become members of the system;

(13) Persons employed by or appointed or elected as an official of a first class city that has its own retirement system; PROVIDED, That any member elected or appointed to an elective office on or after April 1, 1971, shall have the option of continuing as a member of this system in lieu of becoming a member of the city system. A member employed, other than as an official, after July 1, 1988, shall also have the option of continuing as a member of this system in lieu of becoming a member of the city system. A member who elects to continue as a member of this system shall pay the appropriate member contributions and the city shall pay the employer contributions at the rates prescribed by this chapter. The city shall also transfer to this system all of such member's accumulated contributions together with such further amounts as necessary to equal all employee and employer contributions which would have been paid into this system on account of such service with the city and thereupon the member shall be granted credit for all such service. Any city that becomes an employer as defined in RCW 41.40.010(4) as the result of an individual's election under the first proviso of this subsection shall not be required to have all employees covered for retirement under the provisions of this chapter. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a city of the first class with its own retirement system from transferring all of its current employees to the retirement system established under this chapter. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, persons transferring from employment with a first class city of over four hundred thousand population that has its own retirement system to employment with the state department of agriculture may elect to remain within the retirement system of such city and the state shall pay the employer contributions for such persons at like rates as prescribed for employers of other members of such system;

(14) Employees who (a) are not citizens of the United States, (b) do not reside in the United States, and (c) perform duties outside of the United States;

(15) Employees who (a) are not citizens of the United States, (b) are not covered by chapter 41.48 RCW, (c) are not excluded from membership under this chapter or chapter 41.04 RCW, (d) are residents of this state, and (e) make an irrevocable election to be excluded from membership, in writing, which is submitted to the director within thirty days after employment in an eligible position;

(16) Employees who are citizens of the United States and who reside and perform duties for an employer outside of the United States; PROVIDED, That unless otherwise excluded under this chapter or chapter 41.04 RCW, the employee may apply for membership (a) within thirty days after employment in an eligible position and membership service credit shall be granted from the first day of membership service, and (b) after this thirty-day period, but membership service credit shall be granted only from the date of application;

(17) The city manager or chief administrative officer of a city or town who serves at the pleasure of an appointing authority; PROVIDED, That such persons shall have the option of applying for membership within thirty days from date of their appointment to such positions. Persons serving in such positions as of April 4, 1986, shall continue to be members in the retirement system unless they notify the director in writing prior to December 31, 1986, of their desire to withdraw from membership in the retirement system. A member who withdraws from membership in the system under this section shall receive a refund of the member's accumulated contributions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 41.54 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The system may pay a dual member a lump sum payment in lieu of a monthly benefit if the initial monthly benefit computed in accordance with RCW 41.54.030 would be less than fifty dollars. The lump sum payment shall be the greater of the actuarial equivalent of such monthly benefits or an amount equal to the individual's accumulated contributions plus accrued interest.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that any member who receives a settlement under this section shall be deemed to be retired from the system making the lump sum payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 41.32 RCW to read as follows:

A member of the retirement system who is first employed after July 1, 1988, by a first class city that has its own retirement system shall have the option of continuing as a member of this system in lieu of becoming a member of the city system. A member who elects to continue as a member of this system shall pay the appropriate member contributions and the city shall pay the employer contributions at the rates prescribed by this chapter.

As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(b) "Accumulated contributions" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after October 1, 1977, means the sum of all contributions standing to the credit of a member in the member's individual account together with the regular interest thereon.

(6) (a) "Beneficiary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before September 30, 1977, means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance or other benefit provided by this chapter.

(b) "Beneficiary" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after October 1, 1977, means any person in receipt of a retirement allowance or other benefit provided by this chapter resulting from service rendered to an employer by another person.

(7) "Contract" means any agreement for service and compensation between a member and an employer.

(8) "Creditable service" means membership service plus prior service for which credit is allowable. This subsection shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before September 30, 1977.

(9) "Dependent" means receiving one-half or more of support from a member.

(10) "Disability allowance" means monthly payments during disability. This subsection shall apply only to persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before September 30, 1977.

(11) (a) (i) "Earnable compensation" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or before September 30, 1977, means all salaries and wages paid by an employer to an employee member of the retirement system for personal services rendered during a fiscal year. In all cases where compensation includes maintenance the employer shall fix the value of that part of the compensation not paid in money; PROVIDED, That retroactive payments to an individual by an employer on reinstatement of the employee in a position, or payments by an employer to an individual in lieu of reinstatement in a position which are awarded or granted as the equivalent of the salary or wages which the individual would have earned during a payroll period shall be considered earnable compensation and the individual shall receive the equivalent service credit; PROVIDED FURTHER, That if a leave of absence, without pay, is taken by a member for the purpose of serving as a member of the state legislature, and such member has served in the legislature five or more years, the salary which would have been received for the position from which the leave of absence was taken shall be considered as compensation earnable if the employee's contribution thereon is paid by the employee. In addition, where a member has been a member of the state legislature for five or more years, earnable compensation for the member's two highest compensated consecutive years of service shall include a sum not to exceed thirty-six hundred dollars for each of such two consecutive years, regardless of whether or not legislative service was rendered during those two years.

(ii) For members employed less than full time under written contract with a school district, or community college district, in an instructional position, for which the member receives service credit of less than one year in all of the years used to determine the earnable compensation used for computing benefits due under RCW 41.32.497, 41.32.498, and 41.32.520, the member may elect to have earnable compensation defined as provided in RCW 41.32.011. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "instructional position" means a position in which more than seventy-five percent of the member's time is spent as a classroom instructor (including office hours), a librarian, or a counselor. Earnable compensation shall be so defined only for the purpose of the calculation of retirement benefits and only as necessary to insure that members who receive fractional service credit under RCW 41.32.270 receive benefits proportional to those received by members who have received full-time service credit.

(b) "Earnable compensation" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after October 1, 1977, means salaries or wages earned by a member during a payroll period for personal services, including overtime payments, and shall include wages and salaries deferred under provisions established pursuant to sections 403(b), 414(h), and 457 of the United States Internal Revenue Code, but shall exclude lump sum payments for deferred annual sick leave, unused accumulated vacation, unused accumulated annual leave, or any form of severance pay; PROVIDED, That retroactive payments to an individual by an employer on reinstatement of the employee in a position or payments by an employer to an individual in lieu of reinstatement in a position which are awarded or granted as the equivalent of the salary or wages which the individual would have earned during a payroll period shall be considered earnable compensation, to the extent provided above, and the individual shall receive the equivalent service credit: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in any year in which a member serves in the legislature the member shall have the option of having such member's earnable compensation be the greater of:

(1) the earnable compensation the member would have received had such member not served in the legislature; or

(ii) such member's actual earnable compensation received for teaching and legislative service combined. Any additional contributions to the retirement system required because compensation earnable under subparagraph (i) of this subsection is greater than compensation earnable under subparagraph (ii) of this subsection shall be paid by the member for both member and employer contributions.

(17) "Membership service" means service rendered subsequent to the first day of eligibility of a person to membership in the retirement system: PROVIDED, That where a member is employed by two or more employers the individual shall only receive one month's service credit during any calendar month in which multiple service is rendered. (18) "Pension" means the moneys payable per year during life from the pension reserve fund.

(b) "Service" for persons who establish membership in the retirement system on or after October 1, 1977, means periods of employment by a member for one or more employers for which earnable compensation is earned for ninety or more hours per calendar month. Members shall receive twelve months of service for each contract year or school year of employment.

Any person who is a member of the teachers' retirement system and who is elected or appointed to a state elective position may continue to be a member of the retirement system and continue to receive service credit for the time spent in a state elective position by making the required member contributions.

When an individual is employed by two or more employers the individual shall only receive one month's service credit during any calendar month in which multiple service for ninety or more hours is rendered.

Notwithstanding RCW 41.32.240, teachers covered by RCW 41.32.755 through 41.32.825, who render service need not serve for ninety days to obtain membership so long as the required contribution is submitted for such ninety-day period. Where a member did not receive service credit under RCW 41.32.775 through 41.32.825 due to the ninety-day period in RCW 41.32.240 the member may receive service credit for that period so long as the required contribution is submitted for the period. Anyone entering membership on or after October 1, 1977, and prior to July 1, 1979, shall have until June 30, 1980, to make the required contribution in one lump sum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. By January 1, 1992, the department of retirement systems shall report on the implementation of chapter 41.54 RCW to the joint committee on pension policy and the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Warnke: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order, that the amendment changes the scope and object of House Bill No. 1649 and I would like to speak to that point. House Bill No. 1649 has a very limited scope and object, which is to clarify and delete certain existing pension portability definitions and provisions as enacted by this Legislature last year. The floor striking amendment changes the scope and object of this limited bill by providing a brand new definition of average base salary, which is the very foundation for qualifying for pension eligibility and for compensation levels. This is a new policy direction for the Legislature, not contemplated by the House Bill. For those reasons, I believe the floor amendment changes the scope and object of House Bill No. 1649."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion by Senator Newhouse, further consideration of House Bill No. 1649 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1368, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representative Armstrong)

Revising provisions on enforcement of judgments.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 6.01 RCW to read as follows:

The term "certified mail," as used in this title, includes, for mailings to a foreign country, any form of mail that requires or permits a return receipt.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 6.01 RCW to read as follows:

If, before levying under a writ of attachment or execution, a sheriff receives notice that the defendant has become a debtor in a bankruptcy case, the sheriff shall immediately give written notice of that fact to the plaintiff's attorney of record, if any, otherwise to the plaintiff, and shall not be bound to levy under the writ. If, after levying on property under a writ of attachment or execution, a sheriff receives such notice, the sheriff shall give written notice of the attachment or execution, describing the property seized, to the trustee in the bankruptcy case if there is one, otherwise to the bankruptcy court, with a copy to the plaintiff's attorney of record, if any, otherwise to the plaintiff, and shall transfer the property to the trustee on demand or as the bankruptcy court otherwise directs. If no demand is made on the sheriff for surrender of the property and the sheriff thereafter receives notice of the closing of the bankruptcy case, the sheriff shall give written notice by first class mail to the plaintiff's attorney of record, if any, otherwise to the plaintiff, requiring that the plaintiff release the property or obtain a renewal of the writ from the court, and, if the plaintiff fails to release the property or to apply for a renewal within fourteen days after the mailing of the sheriff's notice, the sheriff shall release the property to the defendant.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 208, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.13.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The homestead exemption is not available against an execution or forced sale in satisfaction of judgments obtained:

(1) On debts secured by mechanic's, laborer's, materialmen's or vendor's liens upon the premises;

(2) On debts secured (a) by ((purchase money)) security agreements describing as collateral the mobile home that is claimed as a homestead or (b) by mortgages or deeds of trust on the premises (:) that have been executed and acknowledged by the husband and wife or by any unmarried claimant;

Sec. 7. Section 346, page 88, Laws of 1869 as last amended by section 306, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.15.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, property claimed exempt under RCW 6.15.010 shall be selected by the individual entitled to the exemption, or by the husband or wife entitled to a community exemption, in the manner described in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) If, at the time of seizure under execution or attachment of property exemptible under RCW 6.15.010(3) (a), (b), or (c), the individual or the husband or wife entitled to claim the exemption is not present, then the sheriff or deputy shall make a selection equal in value to the applicable exemptions and, if no appraisal is required and no objection is made by the creditor as permitted under subsection (4) of this section, the officer shall return the same as exempt by inventory. Any selection made as provided shall be prima facie evidence (a) that the property so selected is exempt from execution and attachment, and (b) that the property so selected is not in excess of the values specified for the exemptions.

(3)(a) A debtor who claims personal property as exempt against execution or attachment shall, at any time before sale, deliver to the officer making the levy a list by separate items of the property claimed as exempt, together with an itemized list of all the personal property owned or claimed by the debtor, including money, bonds, bills, notes, claims and demands, with the residence of the person indebted upon the said bonds, bills, notes, claims and demands, and shall verify such list by affidavit. The officer shall immediately advise the creditor, attorney, or agent of the exemption claim and, if no appraisal is required and no objection is made by the creditor as permitted under subsection (4) of this section, the officer shall return with the process the list of property claimed as exempt.

(b) A debtor who claims personal property exempt against garnishment shall proceed as provided in RCW 6.27.160.

(c) A debtor who claims as a homestead, under chapter 6.13 RCW, a mobile home that is not yet occupied as a homestead and that is located on land not owned by the debtor shall claim the homestead as against a specific levy by delivering to the sheriff who levied on the mobile home, before sale under the levy, a declaration of homestead that contains (i) a declaration that the debtor owns the mobile home, intends to reside therein, and claims it as a homestead, and (ii) a description of the mobile home, a statement where it is located or was located before the levy, and an estimate of its actual cash value.

(4)(a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, a creditor, or the agent or attorney of a creditor, who wishes to object to a claim of exemption shall proceed as provided in RCW 6.27.160 and shall give notice of the objection to the officer not later than seven days after the officer's giving notice of the exemption claim.

(b) A creditor, or the agent or attorney of the creditor, who wishes to object to a claim of exemption made to a levying officer, on the ground that the property claimed exceeds exemptible value, may demand appraisal. ~~((in the absence of such demand within seven days following the officer's giving of notice of the claim, the officer shall release to the debtor the property claimed as exempt.))~~ If the creditor, or the agent or attorney of the creditor, demands an appraisal, two disinterested persons shall be chosen to appraise the property, one by the debtor and the other by the creditor, agent or attorney, and these two, if they cannot agree, shall select a third; but if either party fails to choose an appraiser, or the two fail to select a third, or if one or more of the appraisers fail to act, the court shall appoint one or more as the circumstances require. The appraisers shall forthwith proceed to make a list by separate items, of the personal property selected by the debtor as exempt, which they shall decide as exempt, stating the value of each article, and annexing to the list their affidavit to the following effect: "We solemnly swear that to the best of our judgment the above is a fair cash valuation of the property therein described," which affidavit shall be signed by two appraisers at least, and be certified by the officer administering the oaths. The list shall be delivered to the officer holding the execution or attachment and be annexed to and made part of the return, and the property therein specified shall be exempt from levy and sale, but the other personal estate of the debtor shall remain subject to execution, attachment, or garnishment. Each appraiser shall be entitled to fifteen dollars or such larger fee as shall be fixed by the court, to be paid by the creditor if all the property claimed by the debtor shall be exempt; otherwise to be paid by the debtor.

(c) If, within seven days following the giving of notice to a creditor of an exemption claim, the officer has received no notice from the creditor of an objection to the claim or a demand for appraisal, the officer shall release the claimed property to the debtor.

Sec. 8. Section 4, chapter 329, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 410, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.17.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before a writ of execution may issue on any real property, the judgment creditor must file with the court an affidavit as described in subsection (4) of this section and must mail a copy of the affidavit to the judgment debtor at the debtor's last known address.

(2) If the affidavit attests that the premises are occupied or otherwise claimed as a homestead by the judgment debtor, the execution for the enforcement of a judgment obtained in a case not within the classes enumerated in RCW 6.13.080 must comply with RCW 6.13.100 through 6.13.170.

(3) The term "due diligence," as used in subsection (4) of this section, includes but is not limited to the creditor or the creditor's representative personally visiting the premises, contacting the occupants and inquiring about their relationship to the judgment debtor, contacting immediate neighbors of the premises, and searching the records of the auditor of the county in which the property is located to determine if a declaration of homestead or nonabandonment has been recorded by the judgment debtor. An examination of the debtor in supplemental proceedings on the points to be covered in the affidavit constitutes "due diligence."

(4) The affidavit required by this section shall include:

(a) A statement that the judgment creditor has exercised due diligence to ascertain whether the judgment debtor has sufficient nonexempt personal property to satisfy the judgment with interest and believes that there is not sufficient nonexempt personal property belonging to the judgment debtor to so satisfy the judgment. A list of personal property located shall be attached with an indication of any items that the judgment creditor believes to be exempt.

(b) A statement that the judgment creditor has exercised due diligence to ascertain whether the property is occupied or otherwise claimed by the judgment debtor as a homestead as defined in chapter 6.13 RCW.

(c) A statement based on belief whether the judgment debtor is currently occupying the property as the judgment debtor's principal residence and whether there is a declaration of homestead or nonabandonment of record. If the affidavit alleges that the property is not occupied or claimed as a homestead, the creditor must list the facts relied upon to reach that conclusion.

(d) If the judgment debtor is not occupying the property and there is no declaration of nonabandonment of record, a statement based on belief whether the judgment debtor has been absent for a period of at least six months, with facts relied upon to reach that conclusion, and, if known, the judgment debtor's current address.

Sec. 9. Section 4, chapter 25, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 411, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.17.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The writ of execution shall be issued in the name of the state of Washington, sealed with the seal of the court, and subscribed by the clerk of the court in which the judgment was entered or to which it has been transferred, and shall be directed to the sheriff of the county in which the property is situated. The writ shall intelligibly refer to the judgment, stating the court, the county where the judgment was rendered, the names of the parties, the amount of the judgment if it be for money, and the amount actually due thereon; and if the judgment has been recorded, the writ shall so indicate and shall state the recording number.

(2) Before an execution is delivered on a judgment of a district court of this state, the amount of the judgment, or damages and costs, and the fees due to each person separately shall be entered in the docket and on the back of the execution. In any proceeding to enforce a judgment certified to a district court from the small claims department under RCW 12.40.110, the execution shall include the amount of the judgment owed plus reasonable costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the judgment creditor in seeking enforcement of the judgment in district court.

(3) A writ shall require substantially as follows:

(a) If the execution is against the property of the judgment debtor, it shall require the officer to satisfy the judgment out of the personal property of the debtor unless an affidavit has been filed with the court pursuant to RCW 6.17.100, in which case it shall require that the judgment be satisfied out of the real property of the debtor.

(b) If the execution is against real or personal property in the hands of a personal representative, heir, devisee, legatee, tenant of real property, or trustee, it shall require the officer to satisfy the judgment out of such property.

(c) If the execution is for the delivery of real or personal property, it shall particularly describe the property and state its value and require the officer to deliver possession of it to the party entitled thereto, and may, at the same time, require the officer to satisfy any charges, damages, or rents and profits recovered by the same judgment, out of the personal property of the party against whom it was rendered. If the property described in the execution cannot be delivered, and if sufficient personal property cannot be found to satisfy the judgment, it shall be satisfied out of the real property of the party against whom the judgment was rendered.

(d) If the execution is to enforce obedience to any order, it shall particularly command what is required to be done or to be omitted.

(e) If the nature of the case requires it, the execution may embrace two or more of the requirements of this section.

(f) In all cases the execution shall require the collection of all interest, costs, and increased costs thereon.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO A PROMPT HEARING. If notice of a hearing date and time is not served with this notice, you have a right to request the hearing. At the hearing, the plaintiff must give evidence that there is probable cause to believe that the statements in the enclosed affidavit are true and also that the claim stated in the lawsuit is probably valid, or else your property will be released.

If the defendant is an individual, the following paragraph shall be added to the notice:

YOU MAY ALSO HAVE A RIGHT TO HAVE YOUR PROPERTY RELEASED if it is exempt property as described in the copies of statutes included with this notice and if you claim your exemptions in the way described in the statutes.

(5) If service of notice on the defendant must be effected by publication, only the following notice need be published under the caption of the case:

To Defendant:

A writ of attachment has been issued in the above-captioned case, directed to the Sheriff of County, commanding the Sheriff as follows:

If the defendant is an individual, the following paragraph shall be added to the published notice:

YOU MAY ALSO HAVE A RIGHT TO HAVE YOUR PROPERTY RELEASED if it is exempt property as described in Washington exemption statutes, including sections 6.13.010,

(2) If it is desired to attach real estate only, and such fact is stated in the affidavit for attachment, and the ground of attachment is that the defendant is a foreign corporation or is not a resident of the state, or conceals himself or herself or has absconded or is absent from his or her usual place of abode so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him or her, the writ of attachment shall issue without bond or undertaking by or on behalf of the plaintiff.

(3) If the plaintiff sues on an assigned claim and the plaintiff's immediate or any other assignor thereof retains or has any interest in the claim, then the plaintiff and every assignor who retains or has any interest therein shall be jointly and severally liable for all costs that may be adjudged to the defendant and for all damages that the defendant may sustain by reason of the attachment, should the same be wrongfully, oppressively or maliciously sued out.

(2) If the writ is directed to an employer for the purpose of garnishing earnings of a defendant, on the grounds that the defendant:

(a) Is not a resident of this state, or is about to move from this state; or

(b) Has concealed himself or herself, absconded, or absented himself or herself so that ordinary process of law cannot be served on him or her; or

(c) Has removed or is about to remove any of his or her property from this state, with intent to delay or defraud his or her creditors.

Sec. 19. Section 3, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 902, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.26.020 are each amended to read as follows:

In all cases of garnishment before judgment, before the writ shall issue, the plaintiff shall pay the fee described in RCW 6.27.060 and shall execute and file with the clerk a bond with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court issuing the writ, payable to the defendant in the suit, in double the amount of the debt claimed therein, or such other amount as the court shall fix, conditioned that the plaintiff will prosecute the suit without delay and pay all damages and costs that may be adjudged against him or her for wrongfully suing out such garnishment.

Sec. 20. Section 906, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.26.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When application is made for a prejudgment writ of garnishment, the court shall issue the writ in substantially the form prescribed in RCW 6.27.070(—7:33-126;) and 6.27.100 directing that the garnishee withhold an amount as prescribed in RCW 6.27.090, but, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the court shall issue the writ only after prior notice to the defendant, given in the manner prescribed in subsections (4) and (5) of this section, with an opportunity for a prior hearing at which the plaintiff shall establish the probable validity of the plaintiff's claim and that there is probable cause to believe that the alleged ground for garnishment exists.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, the court shall issue the writ without prior notice to the defendant and without an opportunity for a prior hearing only if:

(a) A ground alleged in the plaintiff's affidavit is: (i) A ground appearing in RCW 6.26.010(2)(c) if the writ is to be directed to an employer for the purpose of garnishing the defendant's earnings; or (ii) a ground appearing in RCW 6.25.030 (5) through (7) or in RCW 6.25.040(1) of the attachment chapter; or (iii) if garnishment is necessary to permit the court to acquire jurisdiction over the action, the ground alleged is one appearing in RCW 6.25.030 (1) through (4) or in RCW 6.26.010(2)(a) or (b); and

(b) The court finds on the basis of specific facts, after an ex parte hearing, that there is probable cause to believe the allegations of the plaintiff's affidavit.

(3) If a writ is issued under subsection (2) of this section without prior notice to the defendant, after service of the writ on the garnishee, the defendant shall be entitled to prompt notice of the garnishment and a right to an early hearing, if requested, at which the plaintiff shall establish the probable validity of the claim sued on and that there is probable cause to believe that the alleged ground for garnishment exists.

(4) When notice and a hearing are required under this section, notice may be given by a show cause order stating the date, time, and place of the hearing. Notice required under this section shall be jurisdictional and, except as provided for published notice in subsection (5) of this section, notice required under this section shall be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action and shall be served together with (a) ~~(copies)~~ a copy of plaintiff's affidavit and a copy of the writ if already issued, and (b) a copy of the following "Notice of Right to a Hearing" in substantially the following form or, if defendant is an individual, a copy of the claim form and the "Notice of Garnishment and of Your Rights" prescribed by RCW 6.27.140, in which the following notice is substituted for the first paragraph of said Notice:

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO HEARING

~~((The))~~ A writ of garnishment ~~((served with this Notice))~~ has been or will be issued by a Washington court and has been or will be served on the garnishee defendant. It will require the garnishee defendant to withhold payment of money that may be due to you and to withhold other property of yours that the garnishee may hold or control until a lawsuit in which you are a defendant has been decided by the court. Service of this notice of your rights is required by law.

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO A PROMPT HEARING. If notice of a hearing date and time is not served with this notice, you have the right to request the hearing. At the hearing, the plaintiff must give evidence that there is probable cause to believe that the statements in the enclosed affidavit are true and also that the claim stated in the lawsuit is probably valid, or else the garnishment will be released.

(5) If service of notice on the defendant must be effected by publication, only the following notice need be published under the caption of the case:

To, Defendant:

A writ of prejudgment garnishment has been issued in the above captioned case, directed to as Garnishee Defendant, commanding the Garnishee to withhold amounts due you or to withhold any of your property in the Garnishee's possession or control for application to any judgment that may be entered for plaintiff in the case.

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO ASK FOR A HEARING. At the hearing, the plaintiff must give evidence that there is probable cause to believe that the ground for garnishment alleged in an affidavit filed with the court exists and also that the claim stated in the lawsuit is probably valid, or else the garnishment will be released.

If the defendant is an individual, the following paragraph shall be added to the published notice:

YOU MAY ALSO HAVE A RIGHT TO HAVE THE GARNISHMENT RELEASED if amounts or property withheld are exempt under federal or state statutes, for example, bank accounts in which benefits such as Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Social Security, United States pension, Unemployment Compensation, or Veterans' benefits have been deposited or certain personal property described in section 6.15.010 of the Revised Code of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 6.26 RCW to read as follows:

If issuance of a writ of garnishment or of a writ of attachment has been ordered by the court in a case, other writs of garnishment to different garnishees may be issued in the same case under the circumstances and restrictions stated in RCW 6.25.120 for issuance of successive writs of attachment.

Sec. 22. Section 4, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 133, chapter 202, Laws of 1987 and by section 1006, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.27.060 are each reenacted to read as follows:

The judgment creditor as the plaintiff or someone in the judgment creditor's behalf shall apply for a writ of garnishment by affidavit, stating the following facts: (1) The plaintiff has a judgment wholly or partially unsatisfied in the court from which the writ is sought; (2) the amount alleged to be due under that judgment; (3) the plaintiff has reason to believe, and does believe that the garnishee, stating the garnishee's name and residence or place of business, is indebted to the defendant in amounts exceeding those exempted from garnishment by any state or federal law, or that the garnishee has possession or control of personal property or effects belonging to the defendant which are not exempted from garnishment by any state or federal law; and (4) whether or not the garnishee is the employer of the judgment debtor.

The judgment creditor shall pay to the clerk of the superior court the fee provided by RCW 36.18.020, or to the clerk of the district court the fee of two dollars.

Sec. 23. Section 1008, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.27.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A writ of garnishment directed to a bank, ~~((banking association, mutual savings bank;))~~ savings and loan association, or credit union that maintains branch offices ~~((may))~~ shall identify either a particular branch of the financial institution or the financial institution as the garnishee defendant ~~((and))~~. The head office of a financial institution shall be considered a separate branch for purposes of this section. The statement required by ~~((RCW 6.27.110(2)))~~ subsection (2) of this section may be incorporated in the writ or served separately.

(2) Service shall be as required by RCW 6.27.110 (1) and (3) and shall be by certified mail, return receipt requested, directed to or by personal service, in the same manner as a summons in a civil action is served, on the manager, cashier, or assistant cashier of the financial institution, except that, if the financial institution, and not a branch, is named as garnishee defendant, service shall be either on the head office or on ~~((any other office))~~ the place designated by the financial institution for receipt of service of process. There shall be served with the writ, as part of the service, a statement in writing signed by the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney, stating (a) the defendant's place of residence and business, occupation, trade, or profession, or (b) the defendant's federal tax identification number, or (c) the defendant's account number, if such information is not incorporated in the writ. If the statement is not served with the writ and such information is not included in the writ, the service shall be deemed incomplete and the garnishee shall not be held liable for funds owing to the defendant or property of the defendant in the possession of or under the control of the garnishee defendant that it fails to discover.

~~((if the))~~ (3) A writ naming the financial institution as the garnishee defendant shall be effective only to attach deposits of the defendant in the financial institution and compensation payable for personal services due the defendant from the financial institution. A writ naming a branch ~~((is named))~~ as garnishee defendant ~~((service shall be as required by RCW 6.27.110 and))~~ shall be effective only to attach the deposits, accounts, credits, or other personal property of the defendant ~~((excluding compensation payable for personal services))~~ in the possession or control of the particular branch to which the writ is directed and on which service is made.

A writ of garnishment is effective against property in the possession or control of a financial institution only if the writ of garnishment is directed to and names a branch as garnishee defendant.

Sec. 24. Section 9, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1009, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.27.090 are each amend to read as follows:

(1) The writ of garnishment shall set forth in the first paragraph the amount that garnishee is required to hold, which shall be an amount determined as follows: ~~((+))~~ (a) (i) If after judgment, the amount of the judgment remaining unsatisfied ~~((or if before judgment, the amount prayed for in the complaint; (2)))~~ plus interest to the date of garnishment, as provided in RCW 4.56.110 ~~((; (3) plus whichever shall be greater of (a) fifty dollars, (b) statutory costs, or (c) ten percent of (i) the amount of the judgment remaining unsatisfied or (ii) the amount prayed for in the complaint)), plus taxable costs and attorney's fees, or (ii) if before judgment, the amount prayed for in the complaint plus estimated taxable costs of suit and attorneys' fees, together with, (b) whether before or after judgment, estimated costs of garnishment as provided in subsection (2) of this section. The court may, by order, set a higher amount to be held upon a showing of good cause by plaintiff.~~

(2) Costs recoverable in garnishment proceedings, to be estimated for purposes of subsection (1) of this section, include filing fee, service and affidavit fees, postage and costs of certified mail, answer fee or fees, and a garnishment attorney fee in the amount of the greater of fifty dollars or ten percent of (a) the amount of the judgment remaining unsatisfied or (b) the amount prayed for in the complaint.

Sec. 25. Section 11, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1010, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.27.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The writ shall be substantially in the following form: PROVIDED, That if the writ is issued under a court order or judgment for child support, the following statement shall appear conspicuously in the caption: "This garnishment is based on a judgment or court order for child support": AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the garnishment is for a continuing lien, the form shall be modified as provided in RCW 6.27.340: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the writ is not directed to an employer for the purpose of garnishing a defendant's earnings, the paragraph relating to the earnings exemption may be omitted:

"IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF

Plaintiff, vs. Defendant
Garnishee Defendant
THE STATE OF WASHINGTON TO: Garnishee Defendant

AND TO: Defendant

The above-named plaintiff has applied for a writ of garnishment against you, claiming that the above-named defendant is indebted to plaintiff and that the amount to be held to satisfy that indebtedness is $ consisting of:

Table with 2 columns: Description of debt and Amount. Includes items like Balance on Judgment or Amount of Claim, Interest under Judgment from, Taxable Costs and Attorneys' Fees, Estimated Garnishment Costs (Filing Fee, Service and Affidavit Fees, Postage and Costs of Certified Mail, Attorney's Fee, Answer Fee or Fees, Garnishment Attorney Fee).

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED, unless otherwise directed by the court or by this writ, not to pay any debt, whether ((wages)) earnings subject to this garnishment or any other debt, owed to the defendant at the time this writ was served and not to deliver, sell, or transfer, or recognize any sale or transfer of, any personal property or effects of the defendant in your possession or control at the time when this writ was served.

YOU ARE FURTHER COMMANDED to answer this writ by filling in the attached form according to the instructions in this writ and in the answer forms and, within twenty days after the service of the writ upon you, to mail or deliver the original of such answer to the court, one copy to the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney, and one copy to the defendant, in the envelopes provided.

If, at the time this writ was served, you owed the defendant any earnings (that is, wages, salary, commission, bonus, or other compensation for personal services or any periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program), the defendant is entitled to receive amounts that are exempt from garnishment under federal and state law. You must pay the exempt amounts to the defendant on the day you would customarily pay the compensation or other periodic payment. As more fully explained in the answer, the basic exempt amount is the greater of seventy-five percent of disposable earnings or ((for each week of compensation or other periodic payment due)) a minimum amount determined by reference to the employee's pay period, to be calculated as provided in the answer. However, if this writ carries a statement in the heading that "This garnishment is based on a judgment or court order for child support," the basic exempt amount is forty percent of disposable earnings.

If you owe the defendant a debt payable in money in excess of the amount set forth in the first paragraph of this writ, hold only the amount set forth in the first paragraph and release all additional funds or property to defendant.

YOUR FAILURE TO ANSWER THIS WRIT AS COMMANDED WILL RESULT IN A JUDGMENT BEING ENTERED AGAINST YOU FOR THE FULL AMOUNT OF THE PLAINTIFF'S CLAIM AGAINST THE DEFENDANT WITH ACCRUING INTERESTS AND COSTS WHETHER OR NOT YOU OWE ANYTHING TO THE DEFENDANT.

Witness, the Honorable Judge of the Superior Court, and the seal thereof, this day of 19.

(1) Service of the writ of garnishment on the garnishee is invalid unless the writ is served together with: (a) Four answer forms as prescribed in RCW 6.27.190; (b) three stamped envelopes addressed respectively to the clerk of the court issuing the writ, the attorney for the plaintiff (or to the plaintiff if the plaintiff has no attorney), and the defendant; and (c) cash or a check made payable to the garnishee in the amount of ten dollars.

(2) Except as provided in RCW 6.27.080 for service on a bank, savings and loan association, or credit union, the writ of garnishment shall be mailed to the garnishee by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed in the same manner as a summons in a civil action, and will be binding upon the garnishee on the day set forth on the return receipt. In the alternative, the writ shall be served by the sheriff of the county in which the garnishee lives or has its place of business or by any person qualified to serve process in the same manner as a summons in a civil action is served (~~PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a writ directed to a bank, banking association, mutual savings bank or savings and loan association maintaining branch offices, as garnishee, shall be served by mail directed to, or by service on, the manager or other officer or cashier or assistant cashier of such bank or association at its office or branch that allegedly carries an account for defendant or allegedly holds or controls property belonging to the defendant and, in addition, there shall be served with the writ, as part of the service, a statement in writing signed by the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney, stating (a) the defendant's place of residence and business, occupation, trade, or profession, or (b) the defendant's account number, if such information is not incorporated in the writ. (3) If a writ of garnishment is served by a sheriff, the sheriff shall file with the clerk of the court that issued the writ a signed return showing the time, place, and manner of service and that the writ was accompanied by answer forms, addressed envelopes, and cash or a check as required by this section, and noting thereon fees for making the service. If service is made by any person other than a sheriff, such person shall file (~~a signed return~~) an affidavit including the same information and (~~shall also attach to the return an affidavit~~) showing qualifications to make such service. If a writ of garnishment is served by mail, the person making the mailing shall file (~~a signed return~~) an affidavit showing the time, place, and manner of mailing and that the writ was accompanied by answer forms, addressed envelopes, and cash or a check as required by this section and shall attach (~~to the return a copy of~~) the return receipt to the affidavit.

Sec. 27. Section 32, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1013, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.27.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a writ is issued under a judgment, on or before the date of service of the writ on the garnishee, the judgment creditor shall mail or cause to be mailed to the judgment debtor, by certified mail, addressed to the last known post office address of the judgment debtor, (a) a copy of the writ and a copy of the judgment or, if it is a district court judgment, a copy of the judgment creditor's affidavit submitted in application for the writ, and (b) if the judgment debtor is an individual, the notice and claim form prescribed in RCW 6.27.140. In the alternative, on or before the day of the service of the writ on the garnishee or within two days thereafter, the stated documents shall be served on the judgment debtor in the same manner as is required for personal service of summons upon a party to an action.

(2) The requirements of this section shall not be jurisdictional, but (a) no disbursement order or judgment against the garnishee defendant shall be entered unless there is on file the return or affidavit of service or mailing required by subsection (3) of this section, and (b) if the copies of the writ and judgment or affidavit, and the notice and claim form if the defendant is an individual, are not mailed or served as herein provided, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the court, in its discretion, on motion of the judgment debtor promptly made and supported by affidavit showing that the judgment debtor has suffered substantial injury from the plaintiff's failure to mail or otherwise to serve such copies, may set aside the garnishment and award to the judgment debtor an amount equal to the damages suffered because of such failure.

(3) If the service on the judgment debtor is made by a sheriff, the sheriff shall file with the clerk of the court that issued the writ a signed return showing the time, place, and manner of service and that the copy of the writ was accompanied by a copy of a judgment or affidavit, and by a notice and claim form if required by this section, and shall note thereon fees for making such service. If service is made by any person other than a sheriff, such person shall file ~~((a signed return))~~ an affidavit including the same information and ~~((shall also attach to the return an affidavit))~~ showing qualifications to make such service. If service on the judgment debtor is made by mail, the person making the mailing shall file ~~((a signed return))~~ an affidavit including the same information as required for return on service and, in addition, showing the address of the mailing and attaching the return receipt or the mailing should it be returned to the sender as undeliverable.

At the time of service of the writ of garnishment on the garnishee there was due and owing from the garnishee to the above-named defendant $..... If the above amount or any part of it is for personal earnings (that is, compensation payable for personal services, whether called wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and including periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program); Garnishee has deducted from this amount $..... which is the exemption to which the defendant is entitled, leaving $..... that garnishee holds under the writ. The exempt amount is calculated as follows:

Total compensation due defendant $.....
LESS deductions for social security and withholding taxes and any other deduction required by law (($.....)) (list separately and identify) $.....
Disposable ((wages)) earnings $.....

If the title of this writ indicates that this is a garnishment under a child support judgment, enter forty percent of disposable ((wages)) earnings: $..... This amount is exempt and must be paid to the defendant at the regular pay time.

If this is not a garnishment for child support, enter seventy-five percent of disposable ((wages)) earnings: $..... From the listing in the following paragraph, choose the amount for the relevant pay period and enter that amount: $..... (If amounts for more than one pay period are due, multiply the preceding amount by the number of pay periods and/or fraction of pay period for which amounts are due and enter that amount: $.....) The greater of the amounts entered in this paragraph is the exempt amount and must be paid to the defendant at the regular pay time.

Sec. 31. Section 19, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1020, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.27.200 are each amended to read as follows:

If the garnishee fails to answer the writ within the time prescribed in the writ, after the time to answer the writ has expired and after required returns or affidavits have been filed, showing service on the garnishee and service on or mailing to the defendant, it shall be lawful for the court to render judgment by default against such garnishee, in accordance with rules relating to entry of default judgments, for the full amount claimed by the plaintiff against the defendant, or in case the plaintiff has a judgment against the defendant, for the full amount of the plaintiff's unpaid judgment against the defendant with all accruing interest and costs as prescribed in RCW 6.27.090: PROVIDED, That upon motion by the garnishee at any time (~~prior to issuance of a writ of execution~~) within seven days following service on, or mailing to, the garnishee defendant of a copy of a writ of execution or a writ of garnishment under such judgment, the judgment against the garnishee shall be reduced to the amount of any nonexempt funds or property which was actually in the possession of the garnishee at the time the writ was served, plus the cumulative amount of the nonexempt earnings subject to the lien provided for in RCW 6.27.350, or the sum of one hundred dollars, whichever is more, but in no event to exceed the full amount claimed by the plaintiff or the amount of the unpaid judgment against the principal defendant plus all accruing interest and costs and attorney's fees as prescribed in RCW 6.27.090, and in addition the plaintiff shall be entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee for the plaintiff's response to the garnishee's motion to reduce said judgment against the garnishee under this proviso and the court may allow additional attorney's fees for other actions taken because of the garnishee's failure to answer.

Sec. 32. Section 20, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1025, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.27.250 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If it appears from the answer of the garnishee or if it is otherwise made to appear that the garnishee was indebted to the defendant in any amount, not exempt, when the writ of garnishment was served, and if the required return or affidavit showing service on or mailing to the defendant is on file, the court shall render judgment for the plaintiff against such garnishee for the amount so admitted or found to be due to the defendant from the garnishee, unless such amount exceeds the amount of the plaintiff's claim or judgment against the defendant with accruing interest and costs and attorney's fees as prescribed in RCW 6.27.090, in which case it shall be for the amount of such claim or judgment, with said interest, costs, and fees.

(2) If it shall appear from the answer of the garnishee and the same is not controverted, or if it shall appear from the hearing or trial on controversy or by stipulation of the parties that the garnishee is indebted to the principal defendant in any sum, but that such indebtedness is not matured and is not due and payable, and if the required return or affidavit showing service on or mailing to the defendant is on file, the court shall make an order requiring the garnishee to pay such sum into court when the same becomes due, the date when such payment is to be made to be specified in the order, and in default thereof that judgment shall be entered against the garnishee for the amount of such indebtedness so admitted or found due. In case the garnishee pays the sum at the time specified in the order, the payment shall operate as a discharge, otherwise judgment shall be entered against the garnishee for the amount of such indebtedness, which judgment shall have the same force and effect, and be enforced in the same manner as other judgments entered against garnishees as provided in this chapter: PROVIDED, That if judgment is rendered in favor of the principal defendant, or if any judgment rendered against the principal defendant is satisfied prior to the date of payment specified in an order of payment entered under this subsection, the garnishee shall not be required to make the payment, nor shall any judgment in such case be entered against the garnishee.

Sec. 33. Section 22, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1027, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.27.270 are each amended to read as follows:

If it appears from the garnishee's answer or otherwise that the garnishee had possession or control, when the writ was served, of any personal property or effects of the defendant liable to execution, and if the required return or affidavit showing service on or mailing to the defendant is on file, the court shall render a decree requiring the garnishee to deliver up to the sheriff on demand, and after making arrangements with the sheriff as to time and place of delivery, such personal property or effects or so much of them as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's claim. If a judgment has been rendered in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, such personal property or effects may be sold in the same manner as any other property is sold upon an execution issued on said judgment. If judgment has not been rendered in the principal action, the sheriff shall retain possession of the personal property or effects until the rendition of judgment therein, and, if judgment is thereafter rendered in favor of the plaintiff, said personal property or effects, or sufficient of them to satisfy such judgment, may be sold in the same manner as other property is sold on execution, by virtue of an execution issued on the judgment in the principal action. If judgment is rendered in the action against the plaintiff and in favor of the defendant, such effects and personal property shall be returned to the defendant by the sheriff: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if such effects or personal property are of a perishable nature, or the interests of the parties will be subserved by making a sale thereof before judgment, the court may order a sale thereof by the sheriff in the same manner as sales upon execution are made, and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid to the clerk of the court that issued the writ, and the same disposition shall be made of the proceeds at the termination of the action as would have been made of the personal property or effects under the provisions of this section in case the sale had not been made.

Sec. 34. Section 6, chapter 61, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 1033, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.27.340 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Service of a writ for a continuing lien shall comply fully with RCW 6.27.110.

(2) The caption of the writ shall be marked "CONTINUING LIEN ON EARNINGS" and the following additional paragraph shall be included in the writ form prescribed in RCW 6.27.100:

"THIS IS A WRIT FOR A CONTINUING LIEN. THE GARNISHEE SHALL HOLD the nonexempt portion of the defendant's earnings due at the time of service of this writ and shall also hold the defendant's nonexempt earnings that accrue through the last payroll period ending on or before SIXTY days after the date of service of this writ. HOWEVER, IF THE GARNISHEE IS PRESENTLY HOLDING THE NONEXEMPT PORTION OF THE DEFENDANT'S EARNINGS UNDER A PREVIOUSLY SERVED WRIT FOR A CONTINUING LIEN, THE GARNISHEE SHALL HOLD UNDER THIS WRIT only the defendant's nonexempt earnings that accrue from the date the previously served writ or writs terminate and through the last payroll period ending on or before sixty days after the date of termination of the previous writ or writs. IN EITHER CASE, THE GARNISHEE SHALL STOP WITHHOLDING WHEN THE SUM WITHHELD EQUALS THE AMOUNT STATED IN THIS WRIT OF GARNISHMENT."

(3) The answer forms served on an employer with the writ shall include in the caption, "ANSWER TO WRIT OF GARNISHMENT FOR CONTINUING LIEN ON EARNINGS," and the following paragraph shall be added as the first paragraph of the answer form prescribed in RCW 6.27.190:

"If you are withholding the defendant's nonexempt (~~wages~~) earnings under a previously served writ for a continuing lien, answer only this portion of this form and mail or deliver the forms as directed in the writ. Withhold from the defendant's future nonexempt earnings as directed in the writ, and a second set of answer forms will be forwarded to you later.

ANSWER: I am presently holding the defendant's nonexempt earnings under a previous writ served on that will terminate not later than, 19...

If you are NOT withholding the defendant's earnings under a previously served writ for a continuing lien, answer the following portion of this form and mail or deliver the forms as directed in the writ. A second set of answer forms will be forwarded to you later for subsequently withheld earnings."

(4) In the event plaintiff fails to comply with this section, employer may elect to treat the garnishment as one not creating a continuing lien.

Sec. 35. Section 7, chapter 61, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 1034, chapter 442, Laws of 1987 and RCW 6.27.350 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Where the garnishee's answer to a garnishment for a continuing lien reflects that the defendant is employed by the garnishee, the judgment or balance due thereon as reflected on the writ of garnishment shall become a lien on earnings due at the time of the effective date of the writ, as defined in this subsection, to the extent that they are not exempt from garnishment, and such lien shall continue as to subsequent nonexempt earnings until the total subject to the lien equals the amount stated on the writ of garnishment or until the expiration of the employer's payroll period ending on or before sixty days after the effective date of the writ, whichever occurs first, except that such lien on subsequent earnings shall terminate sooner if the employment relationship is terminated or if the underlying judgment is vacated, modified, or satisfied in full or if the writ is dismissed. The "effective date" of a writ is the date of service of the writ if there is no previously served writ; otherwise, it is the date of termination of a previously served writ or writs.

(2) At the time of the expected termination of the lien, the plaintiff shall mail to the garnishee cash or a check made payable to the garnishee in the amount of ten dollars, three additional stamped envelopes addressed as provided in RCW 6.27.110, and four additional copies of the answer form (~~conspicuously marked at the top~~) prescribed in RCW 6.27.190, (a) with a statement in substantially the following form added as the first paragraph: "ANSWER THE

SECOND PART OF THIS FORM WITH RESPECT TO THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF ((WAGES)) EARNINGS WITHHELD UNDER THIS GARNISHMENT, INCLUDING THE AMOUNT, IF ANY, STATED IN YOUR FIRST ANSWER, AND WITHIN TWENTY DAYS AFTER YOU RECEIVE THESE FORMS, MAIL OR DELIVER THEM AS DIRECTED IN THE WRIT((:))" and (b) with the following lines substituted for the first sentence of the form prescribed in RCW 6.27.190:

Amount due and owing stated in first answer $.....
 Amount accrued since first answer $.....

(3) Within twenty days of receipt of the second answer form the garnishee shall file a second answer, in the form as provided in subsection (2) of this section, stating the total amount held subject to the garnishment.

Sec. 36. Section 1, chapter 53, Laws of 1899 and RCW 61.12.090 are each amended to read as follows:

A decree of foreclosure of mortgage or other lien may be enforced by execution as an ordinary judgment or decree for the payment of money. The execution shall contain a description of the property described in the decree. The sheriff shall endorse upon the execution the time when he receives it, and he shall thereupon forthwith proceed to sell such property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the judgment, interest and costs upon giving the notice prescribed in RCW ((6.21.029)) 6.21.030.

Candidates so agreeing shall also agree (a) to accept no campaign contributions that, in the aggregate, exceed the applicable expenditure limits and (b) to spend no more than thirty percent of the agreed-upon expenditure limit in the twenty-one day period before the general election.

The published notice shall be reasonably calculated to inform voters of the candidate's noncompliance. POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Pullen, did I read this amendment right? You're going to limit the Governor to two million?"

Senator Pullen: "Let's see, what page and line?"

Senator Rasmussen: "He spent three and a half million last time. You certainly wouldn't want to put some of these consultants out on poverty street. But, I guess--"

Senator Pullen: "Senator Rasmussen, it's fair for me to indicate to you, I think, that I've long been an advocate of not restricting freedom and I have felt that some of these bills that in the name of campaign reform, actually restrict freedom and are not necessarily good steps forward. I believe that disclosure is very appropriate and lets the people decide what's right and what's wrong and so I'm not exactly the best friend of either the House version or the Senate version of this bill. You may want to address your question to a more partisan member of this body who might be willing to respond in a little more partisan way than I would."

Senator Rasmussen: "I think I understand you, but does this also prohibit champagne breakfasts at the country club and crab feeds out at the ranch during the session?"

Senator Pullen: "If you could identify the page and line of the--"

Senator Rasmussen: "I'm looking at the one that says that nobody can accept campaign funds during the session."

Senator Pullen: "O.K., that would be in Section 1. The language in Section 1 says that, 'No member of the State Senate or State House of Representatives may accept campaign contributions during a legislative session. This prohibition does not apply to (1) extraordinary legislative sessions, held after the close of the filing period for legislative office and before the general election, (2) caucuses of major political parties of the State Senate or State House of Representatives, or (3) a legislator whose recall is demanded.'"

Senator Rasmussen: "Then, we would spend our time here doing work rather than out collecting funds? It has merit. Thank you, Senator Pullen."

Senator Pullen: "You're very welcome. I always appreciate your questions. They are always very incisive and very—"

Senator Rasmussen: "One last question. We're not going to put any of the public—the taxpayer's dollars into this?"

Senator Pullen: "Not in the amendment that is before us."

Senator Rasmussen: "The amendment takes the taxpayer's dollar out of the campaign?"

Senator Pullen: "That was one of the intents of the Senate committee amendment."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Law and Justice amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1284.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Pullen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1284, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

RISK MANAGEMENT LIABILITY ACCOUNT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. In recent years the state of Washington has experienced significant increases in liability claims and costs. The legislature finds that there have not been adequate funding mechanisms available for the state to manage these claims and losses. Therefore, it is beneficial for the state to establish an actuarially sound funding source that can provide funds for the payment of these claims and losses.

The legislature also finds that it can reduce the amount and severity of the claims and losses by restructuring its risk management program to provide for the handling of claims by a central office and by implementing a prudent safety and loss control program to reduce tort claim losses.

Sec. 102. Section 6, chapter 217, Laws of 1985 and RCW 4.92.005 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of ~~((RCW 4.92.060, 4.92.070, 4.92.130, 4.92.140, and 4.92.150))~~ this chapter, volunteer is defined in RCW 51.12.035.

Sec. 104. Section 7, chapter 159, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 3, chapter 217, Laws of 1985 and RCW 4.92.130 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(1) A ((tort claims revolving)) liability account in the risk management fund in the custody of the treasurer is hereby created to be used solely and exclusively for the ((payment of claims against the state arising out of tortious conduct and against its officers, employees, and volunteers for whom the defense of the claim was authorized under RCW 4.92.070. No money shall be paid from the tort claims revolving fund unless all proceeds available to the claimant from any valid and collectible liability insurance shall have been exhausted and unless:~~

~~(1) The claim shall have been reduced to final judgment in a court of competent jurisdiction; or~~

~~(2) The claim has been approved for payment in accordance with RCW 4.92.140 as herein or hereafter amended)) payment of liability settlements and judgments against the state under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1981 or for the tortious conduct of its officers, employees, and volunteers.~~

~~(2) Earnings on the account's assets shall be credited to the account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090.~~

Premiums shall be assessed to state agencies on an annual basis consistent with their loss history and liability exposure and shall be for liability coverage in excess of budgeted retention levels.

(2) Premium levels shall be determined by the risk manager, with the advice of the risk management advisory committee. An actuarial study shall be developed by or for the risk manager to assist in determining the appropriate level of funding for the account.

PART II

RISK MANAGEMENT PROPERTY ACCOUNT

NEW SECTION, Sec. 201. In recent years the state of Washington has experienced significant damage to some of its buildings and other physical properties. The legislature finds that an adequate funding mechanism is not available to enable the state to respond in a timely and effective manner to major property losses, and to place these properties back in an operational status that will minimize interruption of vital public services and avoid further mitigative losses.

The legislature also finds that it is in the best interest of the state to self-insure its buildings and personal properties and to purchase primary or excess insurance only in those circumstances where frequency is low and the maximum probable loss is very high.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 202. (1) A property account in the risk management fund is hereby created in the custody of the treasurer to be used solely and exclusively for:

(a) Payment to state agencies for loss or damage to real and personal property; and

(b) Payment to state agencies for loss of income to revenue-producing facilities or increased costs associated with providing continued services during the interruption.

(2) Earnings accrued to the property account shall be credited to the account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090.

(3) Disbursements from the property account shall be made by the risk manager, upon written request to the state treasurer. No appropriation is required for disbursements from the account.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 203. (1) A property management and insurance account in the risk management fund is hereby created to be appropriated exclusively for:

(a) Purchase of property insurance, including excess or catastrophic insurance, subject to conditions and limitations determined by the risk manager and risk management advisory committee, and associated risk management costs when appropriate;

(b) Loss control and risk management services as required by the risk manager; and

(c) Payment for the costs of the administration of the property insurance program and all other investigative, settlement, administrative, and legal costs relating to the property account and the property insurance program.

(2) Earnings accrued to the account shall be credited to the account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 204. (1) The property account shall be financed through a combination of direct appropriations and insurance premiums assessed to state agencies, based on the relative loss experience and risk exposure of state assets under their jurisdiction.

(2) Premium levels shall be determined by the risk manager, with the advice of the risk management advisory committee. Each agency shall remit the amount of the premium assessment to the account.

(3) All moneys received from premiums, assessments, and charges under this section shall be deposited in the property account.

(4) The director of financial management may direct agencies to transfer moneys from other funds and accounts to the property account, in the event that premiums are delinquent.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 205. (1) All claims for property loss shall be submitted for payment to the risk manager. The risk manager shall determine the value of the loss and remit the appropriate amount to the state agency, as determined by rule adopted by the risk manager with the advice of the risk management advisory committee. No payment under this subsection may be made in excess of five hundred thousand dollars without prior notification to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Nelson: "I rise to a point of order, Mr. President. Reluctantly, I have to raise scope and object on this amendment dealing with the risk management bill. I happen to be a co-sponsor with Senator Talmadge, so I have a lot of concern about it, but it does extend well beyond the intent of House Bill No. 1515, which simply changes the termination date on eight state boards, commissions and programs and removes the termination date entirely for two state agencies—a very simple bill. I can address the fact that the risk management bill is not that simple and it goes into establishing a brand new claims procedure and taking care of a tort revolving fund and doing a lot of claims investigation, so that we have an extensive measure. As much as I like the measure and would like to see it pass, it does not really fit the scope and object of this bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Nelson, the President finds that House Bill No. 1515 is a measure postponing the termination dates of various state agencies.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Talmadge and Pullen establishes a new risk management program for the state.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Talmadge and Pullen to House Bill No. 1515 was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator Halsan moved that the following amendment by Senators Halsan and Talmadge be adopted:

On page 7, after line 23, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. LEGISLATIVE INTENT. The legislature intends, by enacting this 1988 Administrative Procedure Act, to clarify the existing law of administrative procedure, to achieve greater consistency with other states and the federal government in administrative procedure, and to provide greater public and legislative access to administrative decision making. The legislature intends that to the greatest extent possible and unless this chapter clearly requires otherwise, current agency practices and court decisions interpreting the Administrative Procedure Act in effect before the effective date of this act shall remain in effect.

The legislature also intends that the courts should interpret provisions of this chapter consistently with decisions of other courts interpreting similar provisions of other states, the federal government, and model acts.

PART XI.

((3)) "Contested case" means a proceeding before an agency in which an opportunity for a hearing before such agency is required by law or constitutional right prior or subsequent to the determination by the agency of the legal rights, duties, or privileges of specific parties. Contested cases shall also include all cases of licensing and rate making in which an application for a license or rate change is denied except as limited by RCW 66.08.150, or a license is revoked, suspended, or modified, or in which the granting of an application is contested by a person having standing to contest under the law or agency rules.

Nothing in ((the Administrative Procedure Act shall)) this chapter may be held to diminish the constitutional rights of any person or to limit or repeal additional requirements imposed by statute or otherwise recognized by law. Except as otherwise required by law, all requirements or privileges relating to evidence or procedure shall apply equally to agencies and persons. Every agency is granted all authority necessary to comply with the requirements of ((the Administrative Procedure Act)) this chapter through the issuance of rules or otherwise. No subsequent legislation shall be held to supersede or modify the provisions of ((the Administrative Procedure Act)) this chapter or its applicability to any agency except to the extent that such legislation shall do so expressly.

Sec. 103. EXCLUSIONS FROM CHAPTER OR PARTS OF CHAPTER. Section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 8, chapter 141, Laws of 1984 and RCW 34.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 105. WAIVER. Except to the extent precluded by another provision of law, a person may waive any right conferred upon that person by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 106. INFORMAL SETTLEMENTS. Except to the extent precluded by another provision of law and subject to approval by agency order, informal settlement of matters that may make unnecessary more elaborate proceedings under this chapter is strongly encouraged. Agencies may establish by rule specific procedures for attempting and executing informal settlement of matters. This section does not require any party or other person to settle a matter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 107. CONVERSION OF PROCEEDINGS. (1) If it becomes apparent during the course of an adjudicative or rule-making proceeding undertaken pursuant to this chapter that another form of proceeding under this chapter is necessary, is in the public interest, or is more appropriate to resolve issues affecting the participants, on his or her own motion or on the motion of any party, the presiding officer or other official responsible for the original proceeding shall advise the parties of necessary steps for conversion and, if within the official's power, commence the new proceeding. If the agency refuses to convert to another proceeding, that decision is not subject to judicial review. Commencement of the new proceeding shall be accomplished pursuant to the procedural rules of the new proceeding, except that elements already performed need not be repeated.

(2) If appropriate, a new proceeding may be commenced independently of the original proceeding or may replace the original proceeding.

(3) Conversion to a replacement proceeding shall not be undertaken if the rights of any party will be substantially prejudiced.

(4) To the extent feasible the record of the original proceeding shall be included in the record of a replacement proceeding.

(5) The time of commencement of a replacement proceeding shall be considered to be the time of commencement of the original proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 108. VARIATION FROM TIME LIMITS. (1) An agency may modify time limits established in this chapter only as set forth in this section.

(2) The time limits set forth in this chapter may be modified by rule of the agency or by rule of the chief administrative law judge if:

(a) The agency has an agency head composed of a body of individuals serving part time who do not regularly meet on a schedule that would allow compliance with the time limits of this chapter in the normal course of agency affairs;

(b) The agency does not have a permanent staff to comply with the time limits set forth in this chapter without substantial loss of efficiency and economy; and

(c) The rights of persons dealing with the agency are not substantially impaired.

(3) The time limits set forth in this chapter may be modified by rule if the agency determines that the change is necessary to the performance of its statutory duties. Agency rule may provide for emergency variation when required in a specific case.

(4) Time limits may be changed pursuant to section 104 of this act.

(5) Time limits may be waived pursuant to section 105 of this act.

(6) Any modification in the time limits set forth in this chapter shall be to new time limits that are reasonable under the specific circumstances.

(7) In any rule-making or adjudicative proceeding, any agency whose time limits vary from those set forth in this chapter shall provide reasonable and adequate notice of the pertinent time limits to persons affected. In an adjudicative proceeding, such notice may be given by the presiding or reviewing officer involved in the proceeding. In a rule-making proceeding, the notice may be given in the notice of proposed rule-making.

(8) Two years after the effective date of this section, the chief administrative law judge shall cause a survey to be made of variations by agencies from the time limits set forth in this chapter, and shall submit a written report of the results of the survey to the office of the governor.

PART XII.

Sec. 201. PUBLICATION OF CODE AND REGISTER—REMOVAL OF UNCONSTITUTIONAL RULES—DISTRIBUTION OF REGISTERS AND CODES—COUNTY LAW LIBRARIES—JUDICIAL NOTICE OF RULES. (1) The code reviser shall ~~(as soon as practicable after March 23, 1960, compile and index)~~ cause the Washington Administrative Code to be compiled, indexed by subject, and published. (2) Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the code reviser shall prescribe a uniform numbering system, form, and style for all proposed and adopted rules.

(3) The code reviser shall publish a register ~~((in which he shall set))~~ setting forth the text of all rules filed during the appropriate register publication period.

~~((3))~~ (4) The code reviser may ~~((in his discretion,))~~ omit from the register or the compilation, rules ~~((the publication of which))~~ that would be unduly cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient to publish, if such rules are made available in printed or processed form on application to the adopting agency, and if ~~((such))~~ the register or compilation contains a notice stating the general subject matter of the rules so omitted and stating how copies thereof may be obtained.

~~((4))~~ (5) The code reviser may edit and revise rules for publication, codification, and compilation, without changing the meaning of any such rule ~~((in accordance with the provisions of RCW 34.04.052)).~~

~~((5))~~ (6) When a rule, in whole or in part, is declared invalid and unconstitutional by a court of final appeal, the adopting agency shall give notice to that effect in the register. With the consent of the attorney general, the code reviser may remove obsolete rules or parts of rules from the Washington Administrative Code when:

(a) The rules are declared unconstitutional by a court of final appeal; or

(b) The adopting agency ceases to exist and the rules are not transferred by statute to a successor agency.

(1) In addition to other rule-making requirements imposed by law:

~~((1))~~ (a) Each agency shall adopt rules governing the formal and informal procedures prescribed or authorized by this chapter and rules of practice before the agency, together with forms and instructions ~~((PROVIDED, That))~~. Rules for the conduct of ~~((contested cases))~~ adjudicative proceedings shall be those which are ~~((promulgated))~~ adopted by the chief administrative law judge ~~((pursuant to RCW 34.04.022, as now or hereafter amended))~~ under section 205 of this act.

~~((2))~~ (b) To assist interested persons dealing with it, each agency shall adopt as a rule a description of its organization, stating the general course and method of its operations and the methods whereby the public may obtain information and make submissions or requests. No person may be required to comply with agency procedure not adopted as a rule as herein required.

((3)) (2) To the extent not prohibited by federal law or regulation, nor prohibited for reasons of confidentiality by state law, each agency shall keep on file for public inspection all final orders, decisions, and opinions in ~~((contested cases))~~ adjudicative proceedings, interpretive statements, policy statements, and any digest or index to those orders, decisions, ~~((or))~~ opinions, or statements prepared by or for the agency ~~((for its own use))~~.

(3) No agency order, decision, or opinion is valid or effective against any person, nor may it be invoked by the agency for any purpose, unless it is available for public inspection ~~((as herein required))~~. A written final order issued after the effective date of this section, may not be relied on as precedent by an agency to the detriment of any person until it has been indexed as required by RCW 42.17.260. This ~~((provision))~~ subsection is not applicable in favor of any person who has actual knowledge ~~((thereof))~~ of the order, decision, or opinion. The agency has the burden of proving that knowledge, but may meet that burden by proving that the person has been properly served with a copy of the order.

(4) Each agency that is authorized by law to exercise discretion in deciding individual cases is encouraged to formalize the general principles that may evolve from these decisions by adopting the principles as rules that the agency will follow until they are amended or repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. INTERPRETIVE AND POLICY STATEMENTS. (1) If the adoption of rules is not feasible and practicable, an agency is encouraged to advise the public of its current opinions, approaches, and likely courses of action by means of interpretive or policy statements. Current interpretive and policy statements are advisory only. An agency is encouraged to convert long-standing interpretive and policy statements into rules.

(2) Each agency shall maintain a roster of interested persons, consisting of persons who have requested in writing to be notified of all interpretive and policy statements issued by that agency. Each agency shall update the roster once each year and eliminate persons who do not indicate a desire to continue on the roster. Whenever an agency issues an interpretive or policy statement, it shall send a copy of the statement to each person listed on the roster. The agency may charge a nominal fee to the interested person for this service.

Sec. 204. DECLARATORY ORDER BY AGENCY—PETITION—COURT REVIEW. Section 8, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 and RCW 34.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((On petition of any interested)) (1) Any person~~(;)~~ may petition an agency ~~((may issue))~~ for a declaratory ~~((ruling))~~ order with respect to the applicability to ~~((any person, property, or state of facts of any))~~ specified circumstances of a rule, order, or statute enforceable by ~~((it—A declaratory ruling, if issued after argument and stated to be binding, is binding between the agency and the petitioner on the state of facts alleged, unless it is altered or set aside by a court. Such a ruling is subject to review in the superior court of Thurston county in the manner hereinafter provided for the review of decisions in contested cases. Each agency shall prescribe by rule the form for such petitions and the procedure for their submission, consideration, and disposition))~~ the agency. The petition shall set forth facts and reasons on which the petitioner relies to show:~~

(a) That uncertainty necessitating resolution exists;

(b) That there is actual controversy arising from the uncertainty such that a declaratory order will not be merely an advisory opinion;

(c) That the uncertainty adversely affects the petitioner;

(d) That the adverse effect of uncertainty on the petitioner outweighs any adverse effects on others or on the general public that may likely arise from the order requested; and

(e) That the petition complies with any additional requirements established by the agency under subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Each agency may adopt rules that provide for: (a) The form, contents, and filing of petitions for a declaratory order; (b) the procedural rights of persons in relation thereto; and (c) the disposition of those petitions. These rules may include a description of the classes of circumstances in which the agency will not enter a declaratory order and shall be consistent with the public interest and with the general policy of this chapter to facilitate and encourage agencies to provide reliable advice.

(3) Within fifteen days after receipt of a petition for a declaratory order, the agency shall give notice of the petition to all persons to whom notice is required by law, and may give notice to any other person it deems desirable.

(4) Sections 401 through 429 of this act apply to agency proceedings for declaratory orders only to the extent an agency so provides by rule or order.

(5) Within thirty days after receipt of a petition for a declaratory order an agency, in writing, shall do one of the following:

(a) Enter an order declaring the applicability of the statute, rule, or order in question to the specified circumstances;

(b) Set the matter for specified proceedings to be held no more than ninety days after receipt of the petition;

(c) Set a specified time no more than ninety days after receipt of the petition by which it will enter a declaratory order; or

(d) Decline to enter a declaratory order, stating the reasons for its action.

(6) The time limits of subsection (5)(b) and (c) of this section may be extended by the agency for good cause.

(7) An agency may not enter a declaratory order that would substantially prejudice the rights of a person who would be a necessary party and who does not consent in writing to the determination of the matter by a declaratory order proceeding.

(8) A declaratory order has the same status as any other order entered in an agency adjudicative proceeding. Each declaratory order shall contain the names of all parties to the proceeding on which it is based, the particular facts on which it is based, and the reasons for its conclusions.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 205. MODEL RULES OF PROCEDURE. The chief administrative law judge shall adopt model rules of procedure appropriate for use by as many agencies as possible. The model rules shall deal with all general functions and duties performed in common by the various agencies. Each agency shall adopt as much of the model rules as is reasonable under its circumstances. Any agency adopting a rule of procedure that differs from the model rules shall include in the order of adoption a finding stating the reasons for variance.

PART XIII.

RULE-MAKING PROCEDURES

NEW SECTION, Sec. 301. SOLICITATION OF COMMENTS BEFORE NOTICE PUBLICATION—RULES COORDINATOR. (1) In addition to seeking information by other methods, an agency may, before publication of a notice of a proposed rule adoption under section 303 of this act, solicit comments from the public on a subject of possible rule making under active consideration within the agency, by causing notice to be published in the state register of the subject matter and indicating where, when, and how persons may comment.

(2) Each agency may appoint committees to comment, before publication of a notice of proposed rule adoption under section 303 of this act, on the subject of a possible rule-making action under active consideration within the agency.

(3) Each agency shall designate a rules coordinator, who shall have knowledge of the subjects of rules being proposed or prepared within the agency for proposal, maintain the records of any such action, and respond to public inquiries about possible or proposed rules and the identity of agency personnel working, reviewing, or commenting on them. The office and mailing address of the rules coordinator shall be published in the state register at the time of designation and in the first issue of each calendar year thereafter for the duration of the designation. The rules coordinator may be an employee of another agency.

(2) The rule-making docket shall contain a listing of each pending rule-making proceeding. A rule-making proceeding is pending from the time it is commenced by publication of a notice of proposed rule adoption under section 303 of this act until it is terminated under section 306(3) of this act.

(3) For each rule-making proceeding, the docket shall indicate all of the following:

(a) The subject of the proposed rule;

(e) The current timetable established for the agency proceeding, including the time and place of any rule-making hearing, the date of the rule's adoption, filing, indexing, publication, and its effective date.

Sec. 303. NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE—CONTENTS—DISTRIBUTION BY AGENCY—INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION. Section 1, chapter 84, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 221, Laws of 1982 and RCW 34.04.045 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ((For the purpose of legislative review of agency rules filed pursuant to this chapter, any proposed new or amendatory rule shall be accompanied by a statement prepared by the adopting agency which generally describes the rule's purpose and how the rule is to be implemented. Such statement shall be on the agency's stationery or a form bearing the agency's name and shall contain, but is not limited to:)) At least twenty days before the rule-making hearing at which the agency receives public comment regarding adoption of a rule, the agency shall cause notice of the hearing to be published in the state register. (3) No later than three days after its publication in the state register, the agency shall cause a copy of the notice of proposed rule adoption to be mailed to each person who has made a timely request to the agency for a mailed copy of such notices. An agency may charge for the actual cost of providing individual mailed copies of these notices.

(4) In addition to the notice required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section, an institution of higher education shall cause the notice to be published in the campus or standard newspaper of the institution at least seven days before the rule-making hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 304. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN RULE MAKING. (1) The agency shall make a good faith effort to insure that the information on the proposed rule published pursuant to section 303 of this act accurately reflects the rule to be presented and considered at the oral hearing on the rule. Written comment about a proposed rule, including supporting data, shall be accepted by an agency if received no later than the time and date specified in the notice, or such later time and date established at the rule-making hearing.

(2) The agency shall provide an opportunity for oral comment to be received by the agency in a rule-making hearing.

(3) The agency head, a member of the agency head, or a presiding officer designated by the agency head shall preside at the rule-making hearing. Rule-making hearings shall be open to the public. The agency shall cause a record to be made of the hearing by stenographic, mechanical, or electronic means. Unless the agency head presides or is present at substantially all the hearings, the presiding official shall prepare a memorandum for consideration by the agency head, summarizing the contents of the presentations made at the rule-making hearing. The summarizing memorandum is a public document and shall be made available to any person in accordance with chapter 42.17 RCW.

(4) Rule-making hearings are legislative in character and shall be reasonably conducted by the presiding official to afford interested persons the opportunity to present comment. Rule-making hearings may be continued to a later time and place established on the record under publication of further notice under section 303 of this act.

Sec. 305. PETITION FOR ADOPTION, AMENDMENT, REPEAL OF RULE—AGENCY ACTION. Section 6, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 5, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Any ~~((interested))~~ person may petition an agency requesting the ~~((promulgation))~~ adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule. Each agency ~~((shall))~~ may prescribe by rule the form for such petitions and the procedure for their submission, consideration, and disposition. Within ~~((thirty))~~ sixty days after submission of a petition, ~~((or at the next meeting of the agency if it does not meet within thirty days.))~~ the agency shall ~~((formally consider the petition and shall within thirty days thereafter))~~ (1) either deny the petition in writing ((0)), stating its reasons for the denial((0)), or (2) initiate rule-making proceedings in accordance with ~~((RCW 34.04.025))~~ this chapter.

Sec. 306. WITHDRAWAL OF PROPOSAL—TIME AND MANNER OF ADOPTION. Section 11, chapter 186, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.048 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A proposed rule may be withdrawn by the proposing agency at any time before adoption. A withdrawn rule may not be adopted unless it is again proposed in accordance with ~~((RCW 34.04.025 as now or hereafter amended))~~ section 303 of this act.

(2) Before adopting a rule, an agency shall consider the written and oral submissions, or any memorandum summarizing oral submissions.

(3) Rules not adopted within one ((year)) hundred eighty days after publication of the text as last proposed in the register shall be regarded as withdrawn. An agency may not thereafter adopt the text of the rules without filing the text in accordance with ~~((RCW 34.04.025 as now or hereafter amended))~~ section 303 of this act. The code reviser shall give notice of the withdrawal in the register.

(4) An agency may not adopt a rule before the time established in the published notice, or such later time established on the record or by publication in the state register.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. VARIANCE BETWEEN PROPOSED AND FINAL RULE. (1) Unless it complies with subsection (3) of this section, an agency may not adopt a rule that is substantially different from the rule proposed in the published notice of proposed rule adoption or a supplemental notice in the proceeding. If an agency contemplates making a substantial variance from a proposed rule described in a published notice, it may file a supplemental notice with the code reviser meeting the requirements of section 303 of this act and reopen the proceedings for public comment on the proposed variance, or the agency may reject the proposed rule and commence a new rule-making proceeding to adopt a substantially different rule. If a new rule-making proceeding is commenced, relevant public comment received regarding the initial proposed rule shall be considered in the new proceeding.

(2) The following factors shall be considered in determining whether an adopted rule is substantially different from the proposed rule on which it is based:

(a) The extent to which a reasonable person affected by the adopted rule would have understood that the published proposed rule would affect his or her interests;

(b) The extent to which the subject of the adopted rule or the issues determined in it are substantially different from the subject or issues involved in the published proposed rule; and

(c) The extent to which the effects of the adopted rule differ from the effects of the published proposed rule.

(3) If the agency, without filing a supplemental notice under subsection (1) of this section, adopts a rule that varies in content from the proposed rule, the general subject matter of the adopted rule must remain the same as the proposed rule. The agency shall briefly describe any changes, other than editing changes, and the principal reasons for adopting the changes. The brief description shall be filed with the code reviser together with the order of adoption for publication in the state register. Within sixty days of publication of the adopted rule in the state register, any interested person may petition the agency to amend any portion of the adopted rule that is substantially different from the proposed rule. The petition shall briefly demonstrate how the adopted rule is substantially different from the proposed rule and shall contain the text of the petitioner's proposed amendment. For purposes of the petition, an adopted rule is substantially different if the issues determined in the adopted rule differ from the issues determined in the proposed rule or the anticipated effects of the adopted rule differ from those of the proposed rule. If the petition meets the requirements of this subsection and section 305 of this act, the agency shall initiate rule-making proceedings upon the proposed amendments within the time provided in section 305 of this act.

Sec. 308. FAILURE TO GIVE TWENTY DAYS NOTICE OF INTENDED ACTION—EFFECT. Section 4, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.027 are each amended to read as follows:

Except for emergency rules adopted under section 309 of this act, when twenty days notice of intended action to adopt, amend, or repeal a rule has not been ~~((filed with the code reviser, as required in RCW 34.04.025))~~ published in the state register, as required by section 303 of this act, the code reviser shall not publish such rule and such rule shall not be effective for any purpose.

Sec. 309. EMERGENCY RULES AND AMENDMENTS. Section 3, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 4, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 and RCW 34.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If ~~((the))~~ an agency for good cause finds:

(a) That immediate adoption ~~((or)),~~ amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that ~~((observance of))~~ observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to ~~((present views on the proposed action))~~ comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest~~((:));~~ or

(b) That state or federal law or federal rule or a federal deadline for state receipt of federal funds requires immediate adoption of a rule, the agency may dispense with ~~((such))~~ those requirements and adopt, amend, or repeal the rule ~~((or amendment as))~~ on an emergency ~~((rule or amendment))~~ basis. The agency's finding and a concise statement of the reasons for its finding shall be incorporated in the order for adoption of the emergency rule or amendment ~~((as))~~ filed with the office of the code reviser under ~~((RCW 34.04.040))~~ section 315 of this act and with the rules review committee.

(2) An emergency rule ~~((or amendment))~~ adopted under this section takes effect upon filing with the code reviser and may not remain in effect for longer than ~~((ninety))~~ one hundred twenty days after filing. Identical or substantially similar emergency rules may not be adopted in sequence unless conditions have changed or the agency has published notice of its intent to adopt the rule as a permanent rule, and is actively undertaking the appropriate procedures to adopt the rule as a permanent rule. This section does not relieve any agency from compliance with any law requiring that its permanent rules be approved by designated persons or bodies before they become effective.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 310. CONCISE EXPLANATORY STATEMENT. (1) At the time it files an adopted rule with the code reviser or within thirty days thereafter, an agency shall place into the rule-making file maintained under section 313 of this act a concise explanatory statement about the rule, identifying (a) the agency's reasons for adopting the rule, and (b) a description of any difference between the text of the proposed rule as published in the register and the text of the rule as adopted, other than editing changes, stating the reasons for change.

(2) Upon the request of any interested person within thirty days after adoption of a rule, the agency shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for overruling the considerations urged against its adoption.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 311. ORDER ADOPTING RULE, CONTENTS. The order of adoption by which each rule is adopted by an agency shall contain all of the following:

- (1) The date the agency adopted the rule;
- (2) A concise statement of the purpose of the rule;
- (3) A reference to all rules repealed, amended, or suspended by the rule;
- (4) A reference to the specific statutory or other authority authorizing adoption of the rule;
- (5) Any findings required by any provision of law as a precondition to adoption or effectiveness of the rule; and

(6) The effective date of the rule if other than that specified in section 315(2) of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 312. INCORPORATION BY REFERENCE. An agency may incorporate by reference and without publishing the incorporated matter in full, all or any part of a code, standard, rule, or regulation that has been adopted by an agency of the United States, of this state, or of another state, by a political subdivision of this state, or by a generally recognized organization or association if incorporation of the full text in the agency rules would be unduly cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient. The reference in agency rules shall fully identify the incorporated matter. An agency may incorporate by reference such matter in its rules only if the agency, organization, or association originally issuing that matter makes copies readily available to the public. The incorporating agency shall have, maintain, and make available for public inspection a copy of the incorporated matter. The rule must state where copies of the incorporated matter are available.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 313. RULE-MAKING FILE. (1) Each agency shall maintain an official rule-making file for each rule that it (a) proposes by publication in the state register, or (b) adopts. The file and materials incorporated by reference shall be available for public inspection.

(2) The agency rule-making file shall contain all of the following:

(a) Copies of all publications in the state register with respect to the rule or the proceeding upon which the rule is based;

(b) Copies of any portions of the agency's public rule-making docket containing entries relating to the rule or the proceeding on which the rule is based;

(c) All written petitions, requests, submissions, and comments received by the agency and all other written material regarded by the agency as important to adoption of the rule or the proceeding on which the rule is based;

(d) Any official transcript of oral presentations made in the proceeding on which the rule is based or, if not transcribed, any tape recording or stenographic record of them, and any memorandum prepared by a presiding official summarizing the contents of those presentations;

(e) The concise explanatory statement required by section 310 of this act;

(f) All petitions for exceptions to, amendment of, or repeal or suspension of, the rule; and

(g) Any other material placed in the file by the agency.

(3) Internal agency documents are exempt from inclusion in the rule-making file under subsection (2) of this section to the extent they constitute preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memoranda in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended, except that a specific document is not exempt from inclusion when it is publicly cited by an agency in connection with its decision.

(4) Upon judicial review, the file required by this section constitutes the official agency rule-making file with respect to that rule. Unless otherwise required by another provision of law, the official agency rule-making file need not be the exclusive basis for agency action on that rule.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 314. SUBSTANTIAL COMPLIANCE WITH PROCEDURES. No rule proposed after the effective date of this section, is valid unless it is adopted in substantial compliance with sections 301 through 318 of this act. Inadvertent failure to mail notice of a proposed rule adoption to any person as required by section 303(3) of this act does not invalidate a rule. No action based upon this section may be maintained to contest the validity of any rule unless it is commenced within two years after the effective date of the rule.

Sec. 315. RULES FILED WITH CODE REVISER—REGISTER—EFFECTIVE DATES. Section 4, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 17, chapter 505, Laws of 1987 and RCW 34.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each agency shall file ~~((forthwith))~~ in the office of the code reviser a certified copy of all rules ~~((now in effect and hereafter adopted))~~ it adopts, except ~~((the))~~ for rules contained in tariffs filed with or published by the Washington utilities and transportation commission. The code reviser shall place upon each rule a notation of the time and date of filing and shall keep a permanent register of ~~((such))~~ filed rules open to public inspection. In filing a rule, each agency shall use the standard form prescribed for this purpose by the code reviser.

(2) Emergency rules adopted under ~~((RCW 34.04.030 shall))~~ section 309 of this act become effective upon filing. All other rules ~~((hereafter adopted shall))~~ become effective upon the expiration of thirty days after the date of filing, unless a later date is required by statute or specified in the rule.

(3) A rule may become effective immediately upon its filing with the code reviser or on any subsequent date earlier than that established by subsection (2) of this section, if the agency establishes that effective date in the adopting order and finds that:

(a) Such action is required by the state or federal Constitution, a statute, or court order;

(b) The rule only delays the effective date of another rule that is not yet effective; or

(c) The earlier effective date is necessary because of imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare.

The finding and a brief statement of the reasons therefor required by this subsection shall be made a part of the order adopting the rule.

(4) With respect to a rule made effective pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, each agency shall make reasonable efforts to make the effective date known to persons who may be affected by it.

Sec. 316. RULES FOR FILING AND FORM OF RULES AND NOTICES. Section 13, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.055 are each amended to read as follows:

The code reviser may ~~((prescribe regulations))~~ adopt rules for carrying out the provisions of this chapter relating to the filing and publication of rules and notices of intention to adopt rules, including the form and style to be employed by the various agencies in the drafting of such rules and notices.

Sec. 317. STYLE, FORMAT, AND NUMBERING OF RULES—AGENCY COMPLIANCE. Section 14, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.057 are each amended to read as follows:

After the rules of an agency have been published by the code reviser:

(1) All agency orders amending or rescinding such rules, or creating new rules, shall be formulated in accordance with the style, format, and numbering system of the Washington Administrative Code~~((and))~~;

(2) Any subsequent printing or reprinting of such rules shall be printed in the style and format (including the numbering system) of such code; and

(3) Amendments of previously adopted rules shall incorporate any editorial corrections made by the code reviser.

Sec. 318. FORMAT AND STYLE OF RULES AMENDING EXISTING SECTIONS. ADDING NEW SECTIONS—EFFECT OF FAILURE TO COMPLY. Section 1, chapter 19, Laws of 1977 as amended by section 14, chapter 186, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.058 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Rules ~~((promulgated))~~ proposed or adopted by an agency pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.025 or 34.04.030, as now or hereafter amended, which))~~ this chapter that amend existing sections of the administrative code shall have the words which are amendatory to such existing sections underlined. Any matter to be deleted from an existing section shall be indicated by setting such matter forth in full, enclosed by double parentheses, and such deleted matter shall be lined out with hyphens. ~~((in the case of))~~ A new section~~((such))~~ shall be designated "NEW SECTION" in upper case type and such designation shall be underlined, but the complete text of the section shall not be underlined. No rule may be forwarded by any agency to the code reviser, nor may the code reviser accept for filing any rule unless the format of such rule is in compliance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Once the rule has been formally adopted by the agency the code reviser need not, except with regard to the register published pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.050(2)))~~ section 201(3) of this act, include the items enumerated in subsection (1) of this section in the official code.

(3) Any addition to or deletion from an existing code section not filed by the agency in the style prescribed by subsection (1) of this section shall in all respects be ineffectual, and shall not be shown in subsequent publications or codifications of that section unless the ineffectual portion of the rule is clearly distinguished and an explanatory note is appended thereto by the code reviser in accordance with ~~((RCW 34.04.050, as now or hereafter amended, and RCW 34.04.052))~~ section 201 of this act.

PART XIV.

ADJUDICATIVE PROCEEDINGS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. APPLICATION OF PART IV. (1) Adjudicative proceedings are governed by sections 402 through 423 of this act, except as otherwise provided:

(a) By a rule that adopts the procedures for brief adjudicative proceedings in accordance with the standards provided in section 425 of this act for those proceedings;

(b) By section 424 of this act pertaining to emergency adjudicative proceedings; or

(c) By section 204 of this act pertaining to declaratory proceedings.

(2) Sections 401 through 429 of this act do not apply to rule-making proceedings unless another statute expressly so requires.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. COMMENCEMENT—WHEN REQUIRED. (1) Within the scope of its authority, an agency may commence an adjudicative proceeding at any time with respect to a matter within the agency's jurisdiction.

(2) When required by law or constitutional right, and upon the timely application of any person, an agency shall commence an adjudicative proceeding.

(3) An agency may require by rule that an application for an adjudicative proceeding be in writing and that it be filed at a specific address and in a specified manner.

(4) If an agency is required to hold an adjudicative proceeding, an application for an agency to enter an order includes an application for the agency to conduct appropriate adjudicative proceedings, whether or not the applicant expressly requests those proceedings.

(5) An adjudicative proceeding commences when the agency or a presiding officer notifies a party that a prehearing conference, hearing, or other stage of an adjudicative proceeding will be conducted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 403. DECISION NOT TO CONDUCT AN ADJUDICATION. If an agency decides not to conduct an adjudicative proceeding in response to an application, the agency shall furnish the applicant a copy of its decision in writing, with a brief statement of the agency's reasons and of any administrative review available to the applicant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 404. AGENCY ACTION ON APPLICATIONS FOR ADJUDICATION. After receipt of an application for an adjudicative proceeding, other than a declaratory order, an agency shall proceed as follows:

(1) Except in situations governed by subsection (2) or (3) of this section, within ninety days after receipt of the application or of the response to a timely request made by the agency under subsection (2) of this section, the agency shall do one of the following:

(a) Approve or deny the application, in whole or in part, on the basis of brief or emergency adjudicative proceedings, if those proceedings are available under this chapter for disposition of the matter;

(b) Commence an adjudicative proceeding in accordance with this chapter; or

(c) Dispose of the application in accordance with section 403 of this act;

(2) Within thirty days after receipt of the application, the agency shall examine the application, notify the applicant of any obvious errors or omissions, request any additional information the agency wishes to obtain and is permitted by law to require, and notify the applicant of the name, mailing address, and telephone number of an office that may be contacted regarding the application;

(3) If the application seeks relief that is not available when the application is filed but may be available in the future, the agency may proceed to make a determination of eligibility within the time limits provided in subsection (1) of this section. If the agency determines that the applicant is eligible, the agency shall maintain the application on the agency's list of eligible applicants as provided by law and, upon request, shall notify the applicant of the status of the application.

Sec. 405. RATE CHANGES, LICENSES. Section 8, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 1, chapter 33, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless otherwise provided by law: (a) Applications for rate changes and uncontested applications for licenses may, in the agency's discretion, be conducted as adjudicative proceedings; (b) applications for licenses that are contested and review of denials of applications for licenses or rate changes shall be conducted as adjudicative proceedings; and (c) an agency may not revoke, suspend, modify, annul, withdraw, or amend a license unless the agency gives notice of an opportunity for an appropriate adjudicative proceeding in accordance with this chapter or other statute.

(2) An agency with authority to grant or deny a professional or occupational license shall notify an applicant for a new or renewal license not later than twenty days prior to the date of the examination required for that license of any grounds for denial of the license which are based on specific information disclosed in the application submitted to the agency. The agency shall notify the applicant either that the license is denied or that the decision to grant or deny the license will be made at a future date. If the agency fails to give the notification prior to the examination and the applicant is denied licensure, the examination fee shall be refunded to the applicant. If the applicant takes the examination, the agency shall notify the applicant of the result.

(3) When a licensee has made timely and sufficient application for the renewal of a license or a new license with reference to any activity of a continuing nature, an existing full, temporary, or provisional license does not expire until the application has been finally determined by the agency, and, in case the application is denied or the terms of the new license limited, until the last day for seeking review of the agency order or a later date fixed by order of the reviewing court.

~~((2))~~ (4) If the agency finds that public health, safety, or welfare imperatively requires emergency action, and incorporates a finding to that effect in its order, summary suspension of a license may be ordered pending proceedings for revocation or other action. These proceedings shall be promptly instituted and determined.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 406. PRESIDING OFFICERS—DISQUALIFICATION, SUBSTITUTION. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, in the discretion of the agency head, the presiding officer in an administrative hearing shall be:

- (a) The agency head or one or more members of the agency head;
- (b) If the agency has statutory authority to do so, a person other than the agency head or an administrative law judge designated by the agency head to make the final decision and enter the final order; or
- (c) One or more administrative law judges assigned by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapter 34.12 RCW.

(2) An agency expressly exempted under RCW 34.12.020(4) or other statute from the provisions of chapter 34.12 RCW or an institution of higher education shall designate a presiding officer as provided by rules adopted by the agency.

(3) Any individual serving or designated to serve alone or with others as presiding officer is subject to disqualification for bias, prejudice, interest, or any other cause provided in this chapter or for which a judge is disqualified.

(4) Any party may petition for the disqualification of an individual promptly after receipt of notice indicating that the individual will preside or, if later, promptly upon discovering facts establishing grounds for disqualification.

(5) The individual whose disqualification is requested shall determine whether to grant the petition, stating facts and reasons for the determination.

(6) If a substitute is required for an individual who becomes unavailable as a result of disqualification or any other reason, the substitute must be appointed by the appropriate appointing authority.

(7) Any action taken by a duly appointed substitute for an unavailable individual is as effective as if taken by the unavailable individual.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 407. REPRESENTATION. (1) A party to an adjudicatory proceeding may participate personally or, if the party is a corporation or other artificial person, by a duly authorized representative.

(2) Whether or not participating in person, any party may be advised and represented at the party's own expense by counsel or, if permitted by provision of law, other representative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 408. CONFERENCE—PROCEDURE AND PARTICIPATION. (1) Agencies may hold prehearing or other conferences for the settlement or simplification of issues. Every agency shall by rule describe the conditions under which and the manner in which conferences are to be held.

(2) In the discretion of the presiding officer, and where the rights of the parties will not be prejudiced thereby, all or part of the conference may be conducted by telephone, television, or other electronic means. Each participant in the conference must have an opportunity to participate effectively in, to hear, and, if technically and economically feasible, to see the entire proceeding while it is taking place.

Sec. 409. NOTICE OF HEARING. Section 9, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 31, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((in any contested case all parties shall be afforded an opportunity for hearing after not less than twenty days' notice; but no hearing shall be required until the hearing is demanded unless other statutory provisions or agency rules provide otherwise.))~~ The agency or the office of administrative hearings shall set the time and place of the hearing and give not less than seven days advance written notice to all parties and to all persons who have filed written petitions to intervene in the matter.

Thereafter upon request a more definite and detailed statement shall be furnished.~~

(2) Opportunity shall be afforded all parties to respond and present evidence and argument on all issues involved.

(3) An agency may provide by rule for entry of summary orders in part or in whole after notice and hearing to all parties. The motion shall be granted if the pleadings, dispositions and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to the order as a matter of law.

(4) Unless precluded by law, informal disposition may also be made of any contested case by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order, or default.

(5) The record in a contested case shall include:

(j) Take any other action authorized by agency rule consistent with this chapter.)

(3) If the agency is unable to state the matters required by subsection (2)(h) of this section at the time the notice is served, the initial notice may be limited to a statement of the issues involved. If the proceeding is initiated by a person other than the agency, the initial notice may be limited to the inclusion of a copy of the initiating document. Thereafter, upon request, a more definite and detailed statement shall be furnished.

(4) The notice may include any other matters considered desirable by the agency.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 410. PLEADINGS, BRIEFS, MOTIONS, SERVICE. (1) The presiding officer, at appropriate stages of the proceedings, shall give all parties full opportunity to submit and respond to pleadings, motions, objections, and offers of settlement.

(2) At appropriate stages of the proceedings, the presiding officer may give all parties full opportunity to file briefs, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, and proposed initial or final orders.

(3) A party that files a pleading, brief, or other paper with the agency or presiding officer shall serve copies on all other parties, unless a different procedure is specified by agency rule.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 411. DEFAULT. (1) An agency may provide forms for and, by rule, may provide procedures for and impose time limits upon, submission of requests for hearing. Failure of a party to request a hearing within the time limit or limits established by the agency rule constitutes a waiver of that party's right to hearing, and the agency may proceed to resolve the case without further notice to, or hearing for the benefit of, that party. There shall be a minimum of twenty days from notice of an opportunity to request a hearing before a party is deemed to have waived his or her right to a hearing under this subsection.

(2) If a party fails to attend or participate in a hearing or other stage of an adjudicative proceeding, the presiding officer may serve upon all parties a default or other dispositive order, which shall include a statement of the grounds for the order.

(3) Within seven days after service of a default order under subsection (2) of this section, or such longer period as provided by agency rule, the party against whom it was entered may file a written motion requesting that the order be vacated, and stating the grounds relied upon. During the time within which a party may file a written motion under this subsection, the presiding officer may adjourn the proceedings or conduct them without the participation of that party, having due regard for the interests of justice and the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 412. INTERVENTION. (1) The presiding officer may grant a petition for intervention at any time, upon determining that the petitioner qualifies as an intervenor under any provision of law and that the intervention sought is in the interests of justice and will not impair the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings.

(2) If a petitioner qualifies for intervention, the presiding officer may impose conditions upon the intervenor's participation in the proceedings, either at the time that intervention is granted or at any subsequent time. Conditions may include:

(a) Limiting the intervenor's participation to designated issues in which the intervenor has a particular interest demonstrated by the petition; and

(b) Limiting the intervenor's use of discovery, cross-examination, and other procedures so as to promote the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings; and

(c) Requiring two or more intervenors to combine their presentations of evidence and argument, cross-examination, discovery, and other participation in the proceedings.

(3) The presiding officer shall timely grant or deny each pending petition for intervention, specifying any conditions, and briefly stating the reasons for the order. The presiding officer may modify the order at any time, stating the reasons for the modification. The presiding officer shall promptly give notice of the decision granting, denying, or modifying intervention to the petitioner for intervention and to all parties.

Sec. 413. SUBPOENAS, DISCOVERY, AND PROTECTIVE ORDERS. Section 10, chapter 237, Laws of 1967 and RCW 34.04.105 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(1) (In order to determine the necessity or desirability of adopting, amending, repealing, or otherwise revising a rule or proposed rule, agencies may hold public hearings, subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, take the testimony of any person under oath, and in connection therewith, require the production for examination of any books or papers relating to the subject matter of contemplated regulation. Each agency may make rules as to the issuance of subpoenas by the agency or its authorized agents. This subsection shall not preclude the exercise of subpoena powers for investigative purposes granted agencies by other statutory provisions.~~

~~(2) In any contested case after service of notice as required in RCW 34.04.090(1), as now or hereafter amended, agencies, their authorized agents, and hearing examiners hearing the case:~~

~~(a) Shall issue a subpoena upon the request of any party and, to the extent required by agency rule, upon a statement showing general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such subpoena may be issued with like effect by the attorney of record of the party to the contested case in whose behalf the witness is required to appear, and the form of such subpoena in each case may be the same as when issued by the agency except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of such attorney;~~

~~(b) May issue a subpoena upon their own motion.~~

~~(3) The presiding officer may issue subpoenas and may enter protective orders. A subpoena may be issued with like effect by the agency or the attorney of record in whose behalf the witness is required to appear.~~

~~(2) An agency may by rule determine whether or not discovery is to be available in adjudicative proceedings and, if so, which forms of discovery may be used.~~

~~(3) Except as otherwise provided by agency rules, the presiding officer may decide whether to permit the taking of depositions, the requesting of admissions, and all other procedures authorized by rules 26 through 36 of the superior court civil rules. The presiding officer may condition use of discovery on a showing of necessity and unavailability by other means. In exercising such discretion, the presiding officer shall consider: (a) Whether all parties are represented by counsel; (b) whether undue expense or delay in bringing the case to hearing will result; (c) whether the discovery will promote the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceeding; and (d) whether the interests of justice will be promoted.~~

~~(4) Subpoenas issued and discovery orders and protective orders entered under this section may be enforced under the provisions of this chapter on civil enforcement of agency action.~~

~~(5) The subpoena powers created by this section shall be state-wide in effect.~~

~~((4)) (6) Witnesses in an ((agency hearing or contested case)) adjudicatory proceeding shall be paid the same fees and allowances, in the same manner and under the same conditions, as provided for witnesses in the courts of this state by chapter 2.40 RCW and by RCW 5.56.010. ((as now or hereafter amended; PROVIDED;)) except that the agency shall have the power to fix the allowance for meals and lodging in like manner as is provided in RCW 5.56.010((-as now or hereafter amended;)) as to courts. ((Such)) The person initiating an adjudicative proceeding or the party requesting issuance of a subpoena shall pay the fees and allowances(;) and the cost of producing records required to be produced by ((agency)) subpoena((- shall be paid by the agency or, in a contested case, by the party requesting the issuance of the subpoena.~~

(5) If an individual fails to obey a subpoena, or obeys a subpoena but refuses to testify when requested concerning any matter under examination or investigation at the hearing, the agency or attorney issuing the subpoena may petition the superior court of the county where the hearing is being conducted for enforcement of the subpoena. The petition shall be accompanied by a copy of the subpoena and proof of service, and shall set forth in what specific manner the subpoena has not been complied with, and shall ask an order of the court to compel the witness to appear and testify before the agency. The court upon such petition shall enter an order directing the witness to appear before the court at a time and place to be fixed in such order and then and there to show cause why he has not responded to the subpoena or has refused to testify. A copy of the order shall be served upon the witness. If it appears to the court that the subpoena was properly issued and that the particular questions which the witness refuses to answer are reasonable and relevant, and in the case of a rule-making hearing that the requested appearance and testimony are necessary to secure information the expected nature of which would reasonably tend to cause the agency to exercise its rule-making authority, the court shall enter an order that the witness appear at the time and place fixed in the order and testify or produce the required papers, and on failing to obey said order the witness shall be dealt with as for contempt of court).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 414. PROCEDURE AT HEARING. (1) The presiding officer shall regulate the course of the proceedings, in conformity with the prehearing order, if any.

(2) To the extent necessary for full disclosure of all relevant facts and issues, the presiding officer shall afford to all parties the opportunity to respond, present evidence and argument, conduct cross-examination, and submit rebuttal evidence, except as restricted by a limited grant of intervention or by the prehearing order.

(3) In the discretion of the presiding officer, and where the rights of the parties will not be prejudiced thereby, all or part of the hearing may be conducted by telephone, television, or other electronic means. Each party in the hearing must have an opportunity to participate effectively in, to hear, and, if technically and economically feasible, to see the entire proceeding while it is taking place.

(4) The presiding officer shall cause the hearing to be recorded by a method chosen by the agency. The agency is not required, at its expense, to prepare a transcript, unless required to do so by a provision of law. Any party, at the party's expense, may cause a reporter approved by the agency to prepare a transcript from the agency's record, or cause additional recordings to be made during the hearing if the making of the additional recording does not cause distraction or disruption.

(5) The hearing is open to public observation, except for the parts that the presiding officer states to be closed under a provision of law expressly authorizing closure or under a protective order issued by the presiding officer pursuant to rules adopted by the chief administrative law judge. A presiding officer may order the exclusion of witnesses upon a showing of good cause. To the extent that the hearing is conducted by telephone, television, or other electronic means, and is not closed, the availability of public observation is satisfied by giving members of the public an opportunity, at reasonable times, to hear or inspect the agency's record, and to inspect any transcript obtained by the agency.

Sec. 415. RULES OF EVIDENCE—CROSS-EXAMINATION. Section 10, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 and RCW 34.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((In contested cases:))~~

~~(1) ((Agencies, or their authorized agents, may admit and give probative effect to evidence which possesses probative value commonly accepted by reasonably prudent men in the conduct of their affairs. They shall give effect to the rules of privilege recognized by law. They may exclude incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial, and unduly repetitious evidence.~~

~~(2) All evidence, including but not limited to records and documents in the possession of the agency of which it desires to avail itself, shall be offered and made a part of the record in the case, and no other factual information or evidence shall be considered in the determination of the case.)) Evidence, including hearsay evidence, is admissible if in the judgment of the presiding officer it is the kind of evidence on which reasonably prudent persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of their affairs. The presiding officer shall exclude evidence that is excludable on constitutional or statutory grounds or on the basis of evidentiary privilege recognized in the courts of this state. The presiding officer may exclude evidence that is irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious.~~

~~(2) If not inconsistent with subsection (1) of this section, the presiding officer shall refer to the Washington Rules of Evidence as guidelines for evidentiary rulings.~~

~~(3) All testimony of parties and witnesses shall be made under oath or affirmation.~~

~~(4) Documentary evidence may be received in the form of copies or excerpts, or by incorporation by reference.~~

~~((3) Every party shall have the right of cross-examination of witnesses who testify, and shall have the right to submit rebuttal evidence.~~

~~(4) Agencies, or their authorized agents, may take)) (5) Official notice may be taken of (a) any judicially cognizable facts ((and in addition may take notice of general)), (b) technical(:))~~ or scientific facts within ((their)) the agency's specialized knowledge, and (c) codes or standards that have been adopted by an agency of the United States, of this state or of another state, or by a nationally recognized organization or association. Parties shall be notified either before or during hearing, or by reference in preliminary reports or otherwise, of the material so noticed and the sources thereof, including any staff memoranda and data, and they shall be afforded an opportunity to contest the facts and material so noticed. ((Agencies, or their authorized agents, may utilize their experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to them.)) A party proposing that official notice be taken may be required to produce a copy of the material to be noticed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 416. EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS. (1) A presiding officer may not communicate, directly or indirectly, regarding any issue in the proceeding other than communications necessary to procedural aspects of maintaining an orderly process, with any person employed by the agency without notice and opportunity for all parties to participate, except as provided in this subsection:

(a) Where the ultimate legal authority of an agency is vested in a multimember body, and where that body presides at an adjudication, members of the body may communicate with one another regarding the proceeding;

(b) Any presiding officer may receive aid from legal counsel, or from staff assistants who are subject to the presiding officer's supervision; and

(c) Presiding officers may communicate with other employees or consultants of the agency who have not participated in the proceeding in any manner, and who are not engaged in any investigative or prosecutorial functions in the same or a factually related case.

(d) This subsection does not apply to communications required for the disposition of ex parte matters specifically authorized by statute.

(2) Unless required for the disposition of ex parte matters specifically authorized by statute or unless necessary to procedural aspects of maintaining an orderly process, a presiding officer may not communicate, directly or indirectly, regarding any issue in the proceeding, with any person not employed by the agency who has a direct or indirect interest in the outcome of the proceeding, without notice and opportunity for all parties to participate.

(3) Unless necessary to procedural aspects of maintaining an orderly process, persons to whom a presiding officer may not communicate under subsections (1) and (2) of this section may not communicate with presiding officers without notice and opportunity for all parties to participate.

(4) If, before serving as presiding officer in an adjudicative proceeding, a person receives an ex parte communication of a type that could not properly be received while serving, the person, promptly after starting to serve, shall disclose the communication in the manner prescribed in subsection (5) of this section.

(5) A presiding officer who receives an ex parte communication in violation of this section shall place on the record of the pending matter all written communications received, all written responses to the communications, and a memorandum stating the substance of all oral communications received, all responses made, and the identity of each person from whom the presiding officer received an ex parte communication. The presiding officer shall advise all parties that these matters have been placed on the record. Upon request made within ten days after notice of the ex parte communication, any party desiring to rebut the communication shall be allowed to place a written rebuttal statement on the record. Portions of the record pertaining to ex parte communications or rebuttal statements do not constitute evidence of any fact at issue in the matter unless a party moves the admission of any portion of the record for purposes of establishing a fact at issue and that portion is admitted pursuant to section 415 of this act.

(6) If necessary to eliminate the effect of an ex parte communication received in violation of this section, a presiding officer who receives the communication may be disqualified, and the portions of the record pertaining to the communication may be sealed by protective order.

(7) The agency shall, and any party may, report any violation of this section to appropriate authorities for any disciplinary proceedings provided by law. In addition, each agency by rule may provide for appropriate sanctions, including default, for any violations of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 417. SEPARATION OF FUNCTIONS. (1) A person who has served as investigator, prosecutor, or advocate in an adjudicative proceeding or in its preadjudicative stage, or one who is subject to the authority, direction, or discretion of such a person, may not serve as a presiding officer in the same proceeding.

(2) A person, including an agency head, who has participated in a determination of probable cause or other equivalent preliminary determination in an adjudicative proceeding may serve as presiding officer or assist or advise a presiding officer in the same proceeding unless a party demonstrates grounds for disqualification in accordance with section 406 of this act.

(3) A person may serve as presiding officer at successive stages of the same adjudicative proceeding unless a party demonstrates grounds for disqualification in accordance with section 406 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 418. ENTRY OF ORDERS. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section:

(a) If the presiding officer is the agency head or one or more members of the agency head, the presiding officer may enter an initial order if further review is available within the agency, or a final order if further review is not available;

(b) If the presiding officer is a person designated by the agency to make the final decision and enter the final order, the presiding officer shall enter a final order; and

(c) If the presiding officer is one or more administrative law judges, the presiding officer shall enter an initial order.

(2) With respect to agencies exempt from chapter 34.12 RCW or an institution of higher education, the presiding officer shall transmit a full and complete record of the proceedings, including such comments upon demeanor of witnesses as the presiding officer deems relevant, to each agency official who is to enter a final or initial order after considering the record and evidence so transmitted.

(3) Initial and final orders shall include a statement of findings and conclusions, and the reasons and basis therefor, on all the material issues of fact, law, or discretion presented on the record, including the remedy or sanction and, if applicable, the action taken on a petition for a stay of effectiveness. Any findings based substantially on credibility of evidence or demeanor of witnesses shall be so identified. Findings set forth in language that is essentially a repetition or paraphrase of the relevant provision of law shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying evidence of record to support the findings. The order shall also include a statement of the available procedures and time limits for seeking reconsideration or other administrative relief. An initial order shall include a statement of any circumstances under which the initial order, without further notice, may become a final order.

(4) Findings of fact shall be based exclusively on the evidence of record in the adjudicative proceeding and on matters officially noticed in that proceeding. Findings shall be based on the kind of evidence on which reasonably prudent persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of their affairs. Findings may be based on such evidence even if it would be inadmissible in a civil trial. However, the presiding officer shall not base a finding exclusively on such inadmissible evidence unless the presiding officer determines that doing so would not unduly abridge the parties' opportunities to confront witnesses and rebut evidence. The basis for this determination shall appear in the order.

(5) Where it bears on the issues presented, the agency's experience, technical competency, and specialized knowledge may be used in the evaluation of evidence.

(6) If a person serving or designated to serve as presiding officer becomes unavailable for any reason before entry of the order, a substitute presiding officer shall be appointed as provided in section 406 of this act. The substitute presiding officer shall use any existing record and may conduct any further proceedings appropriate in the interests of justice.

(7) The presiding officer may allow the parties a designated time after conclusion of the hearing for the submission of memos, briefs, or proposed findings.

(8) Initial or final orders shall be served in writing within ninety days after conclusion of the hearing or after submission of memos, briefs, or proposed findings in accordance with subsection (7) of this section unless this period is waived or extended for good cause shown.

(9) The presiding officer shall cause copies of initial and final orders to be delivered to each party and to the agency head.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 419. REVIEW OF INITIAL ORDERS. (1) As authorized by law, an agency may by rule provide that initial orders in specified classes of cases may become final without further agency action unless, within a specified period, (a) the agency head upon its own motion determines that the initial order should be reviewed, or (b) a party to the proceedings files exceptions to the initial order. Upon occurrence of either event, notice shall be given to all parties to the proceeding.

(2) As provided by law, an agency head may appoint a person to review initial orders and to prepare and enter final agency orders.

(3) Sections 406 and 416 of this act apply to any person reviewing an initial order on behalf of an agency as part of the decision process, and to persons communicating with them, to the same extent that it is applicable to presiding officers.

(4) The officer reviewing the initial order (including the agency head reviewing an initial order) is, for the purposes of this chapter, termed the reviewing officer. The reviewing officer shall exercise all the decision-making power that the reviewing officer would have had to decide and enter the final order had the reviewing officer presided over the hearing, except to the extent that the issues subject to review are limited by a provision of law or by the reviewing officer upon notice to all the parties. In reviewing findings of fact by presiding officers, the reviewing officers shall give due regard to the presiding officer's opportunity to observe the witnesses.

(5) The reviewing officer shall personally consider the whole record or such portions of it as may be cited by the parties.

(6) The reviewing officer shall afford each party an opportunity to present written argument and may afford each party an opportunity to present oral argument.

(7) The reviewing officer shall enter a final order disposing of the proceeding or remand the matter for further proceedings, with instructions to the presiding officer who entered the initial order. Upon remanding a matter, the reviewing officer shall order such temporary relief as is authorized and appropriate.

(8) A final order shall include, or incorporate by reference to the initial order, all matters required by section 418(3) of this act.

(9) The reviewing officer shall cause copies of the final order or order remanding the matter for further proceedings to be served upon each party.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 420. STAY. A party may submit to the presiding or reviewing officer, as is appropriate to the stage of the proceeding, a petition for stay of effectiveness of a final order within ten days of its service unless otherwise provided by statute or stated in the final order. Disposition of the petition for stay shall be made by the presiding officer, reviewing officer, or agency head as provided by agency rule. Disposition may be made either before or after the effective date of the final order. Disposition denying a stay is not subject to judicial review.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 421. RECONSIDERATION. (1) Within ten days of the service of a final order, any party may file a petition for reconsideration, stating the specific grounds upon which relief is requested. The place of filing shall be specified by agency rule.

(2) The petition shall be disposed of by the same person or persons who entered the order, if reasonably available. The disposition shall be in the form of a written order denying the petition, granting the petition and dissolving or modifying the final order, or granting the petition and setting the matter for further hearing. The petition shall be deemed to have been denied if not disposed of within twenty days.

(3) No petition for reconsideration may stay the effectiveness of an order.

(4) The agency head may extend the time limits in this section for good cause, with due consideration that the rights of the parties will not be prejudiced by the extension and that extension will be in the public interest.

(5) The filing of a petition for reconsideration is not a prerequisite for seeking judicial review. An order denying reconsideration, or an extension of time limits pursuant to subsection (4) of this section is not subject to judicial review.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 422. EFFECTIVENESS OF ORDERS. (1) Unless a later date is stated in an order or a stay is granted, an order is effective when signed, but:

(a) A party may not be required to comply with a final order unless the party has been served with or has actual knowledge of the final order;

(b) A nonparty may not be required to comply with a final order unless the agency has made the final order available for public inspection and copying or the nonparty has actual knowledge of the final order;

(c) For purposes of determining time limits for further administrative procedure or for judicial review, the determinative date is the date of service of the order.

(2) Unless a later date is stated in the initial order or a stay is granted, the time when an initial order becomes a final order in accordance with section 418 of this act is determined as follows:

(a) When the initial order is entered, if administrative review is unavailable; or

(b) When the agency head with such authority enters an order stating, after a petition for administrative review has been filed, that review will not be exercised.

(3) This section does not preclude an agency from taking immediate action to protect the public interest in accordance with section 424 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 423. AGENCY RECORD. (1) An agency shall maintain an official record of each adjudicative proceeding under this chapter.

(2) The agency record shall include:

(a) Notices of all proceedings;

(b) Any prehearing order;

(c) Any motions, pleadings, briefs, petitions, requests, and intermediate rulings;

(d) Evidence received or considered;

(e) A statement of matters officially noticed;

(f) Proffers of proof and objections and rulings thereon;

(g) Proposed findings, requested orders, and exceptions;

(h) The recording prepared for the presiding officer at the hearing, together with any transcript of all or part of the hearing considered before final disposition of the proceeding;

(i) Any final order, initial order, or order on reconsideration;

(j) Staff memoranda or data submitted to the presiding officer, unless prepared and submitted by personal assistants and not inconsistent with section 416 of this act; and

(k) Matters placed on the record after an ex parte communication.

(3) Except to the extent that this chapter or another statute provides otherwise, the agency record constitutes the exclusive basis for agency action in adjudicative proceedings under this chapter and for judicial review of adjudicative proceedings.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 424. EMERGENCY ADJUDICATIVE PROCEEDINGS. (1) Unless otherwise provided by law, an agency may use emergency adjudicative proceedings in a situation involving an immediate danger to the public health, safety, or welfare requiring immediate agency action.

(2) The agency may take only such action as is necessary to prevent or avoid the immediate danger to the public health, safety, or welfare that justifies use of emergency adjudication.

(3) The agency shall enter an order, including a brief statement of findings of fact, conclusions of law, and policy reasons for the decision if it is an exercise of the agency's discretion, to justify the determination of an immediate danger and the agency's decision to take the specific action.

(4) The agency shall give such notice as is practicable to persons who are required to comply with the order. The order is effective when entered.

(5) After entering an order under this section, the agency shall proceed as quickly as feasible to complete any proceedings that would be required if the matter did not involve an immediate danger.

(6) The agency record consists of any documents regarding the matter that were considered or prepared by the agency. The agency shall maintain these documents as its official record.

(7) Unless otherwise required by a provision of law, the agency record need not constitute the exclusive basis for agency action in emergency adjudicative proceedings or for judicial review thereof.

(8) This section shall not apply to agency action taken pursuant to a provision of law that expressly authorizes the agency to issue a cease and desist order. The agency may proceed, alternatively, under that independent authority.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 425. BRIEF ADJUDICATIVE PROCEEDINGS—APPLICABILITY. An agency may use brief adjudicative proceedings if:

(1) The use of those proceedings in the circumstances does not violate any provision of law;

(2) The protection of the public interest does not require the agency to give notice and an opportunity to participate to persons other than the parties;

(3) The matter is entirely within one or more categories for which the agency by rule has adopted this section and sections 426 through 429 of this act; and

(4) The issue and interests involved in the controversy do not warrant use of the procedures of sections 402 through 424 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 426. BRIEF ADJUDICATIVE PROCEEDINGS—PROCEDURE. (1) If not specifically prohibited by law, the following persons may be designated as the presiding officer of a brief adjudicative proceeding:

(a) The agency head;

(b) One or more members of the agency head;

(c) One or more administrative law judges; or

(d) One or more other persons designated by the agency head.

(2) Before taking action, the presiding officer shall give each party an opportunity to be informed of the agency's view of the matter and to explain the party's view of the matter.

(3) At the time any unfavorable action is taken the presiding officer shall give each party a brief statement of the reasons for the decision. Within ten days, the presiding officer shall give the parties a brief written statement of the reasons for the decision and information about any internal administrative review available.

(4) The brief written statement is a proposed order. If no review is taken of the proposed order as authorized by sections 427 and 428 of this act, the proposed order shall be the final order.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 427. BRIEF PROCEEDINGS—ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW—APPLICABILITY. Unless prohibited by any provision of law, an agency, on its own motion, may conduct administrative review of an order resulting from brief adjudicative proceedings. An agency shall conduct this review upon the written or oral request of a party if the agency receives the request within twenty-one days after furnishing the written statement required by section 426(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 428. BRIEF PROCEEDINGS—ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW—PROCEDURES. Unless otherwise provided by statute:

(1) If the parties have not requested review, the agency may review an order resulting from a brief adjudicative proceeding on its own motion and without notice to the parties, but it may not take any action on review less favorable to any party than the original order without giving that party notice and an opportunity to explain that party's view of the matter.

(2) The reviewing officer may be any person who could have presided at the brief proceeding, but the reviewing officer must be one who is authorized to grant appropriate relief upon review.

(3) The reviewing officer shall give each party an opportunity to explain the party's view of the matter and shall make any inquiries necessary to ascertain whether the proceeding must be converted to a formal adjudicative hearing.

(4) The order on review must be in writing, must include a brief statement of the reasons for the decision, and must be entered within twenty days after the date of the initial order or of the request for review, whichever is later. The order shall include a description of any further available administrative review or, if none is available, a notice that judicial review may be available.

(5) A request for administrative review is deemed to have been denied if the agency does not make a disposition of the matter within twenty days after the request is submitted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 429. AGENCY RECORD IN BRIEF PROCEEDINGS. (1) The agency record consists of any documents regarding the matter that were considered or prepared by the presiding officer for the brief adjudicative proceeding or by the reviewing officer for any review. The agency shall maintain these documents as its official record.

(2) Unless otherwise required by a provision of law, the agency record need not constitute the exclusive basis for agency action in brief adjudicative proceedings or for the judicial review of brief adjudicative proceedings.

PART XV.

JUDICIAL REVIEW AND CIVIL ENFORCEMENT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THIS CHAPTER AND OTHER JUDICIAL REVIEW AUTHORITY. This chapter establishes the exclusive means of judicial review of agency action, except:

(1) The provisions of this chapter for judicial review do not apply to litigation in which the sole issue is a claim for money damages or compensation and the agency whose action is at issue does not have statutory authority to determine the claim.

(2) Ancillary procedural matters before the reviewing court, including intervention, class actions, consolidation, joinder, severance, transfer, protective orders, and other relief from disclosure of privileged or confidential material, are governed, to the extent not inconsistent with this chapter, by court rule.

(3) To the extent that de novo review or jury trial review of agency action is expressly authorized by provision of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 502. PETITION FOR REVIEW—WHERE FILED. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section and section 508 of this act, proceedings for review under this chapter shall be instituted by filing a petition in the superior court, at the petitioner's option, for (a) Thurston county, (b) the county of the petitioner's residence or principal place of business, or (c) in any county where the property owned by the petitioner and affected by the contested decision is located.

(2) For proceedings involving institutions of higher education, the petition shall be filed either in the county in which the principal office of the institution involved is located or in the county of a branch campus if the action involves such branch.

Sec. 503. DIRECT REVIEW BY COURT OF APPEALS. Section 1, chapter 76, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.133 are each amended to read as follows:

The final decision of an administrative agency in ~~((a-contested case))~~ an adjudicative proceeding under this chapter ~~((34.04 RCW))~~ may be directly reviewed by the court of appeals upon certification by the superior court pursuant to this section. An application for ~~((such))~~ direct review must be filed with the superior court within thirty days of the filing of the petition for review in superior court. The superior court may certify a case for direct review only if the judicial review is limited to the record of the agency proceeding and the court finds that:

(1) Fundamental and urgent issues affecting the future administrative process or the public interest are involved which require a prompt determination;

(2) Delay in obtaining a final and prompt determination of such issues would be detrimental to any party or the public interest;

(3) An appeal to the court of appeals would be likely regardless of the determination in superior court; and

(4) The appellate court's determination in the proceeding would have significant prece-dential value.

Sec. 504. REFUSAL OF REVIEW BY COURT OF APPEALS. Section 2, chapter 76, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.135 are each amended to read as follows:

The court of appeals may refuse to accept review of a case certified pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.133))~~ section 503 of this act. The refusal to accept such review is not subject to further appellate review, notwithstanding anything in Rule 13.3 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure to the contrary.

Sec. 505. APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT OR COURT OF APPEALS. Section 14, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 87, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 34.04.140 are each amended to read as follows:

An aggrieved party may secure a review of any final judgment of the superior court under this chapter by appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals. ~~((Such))~~ The appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from the superior court in other civil cases.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 506. STANDING. A person has standing to obtain judicial review of agency action if that person is aggrieved or adversely affected by the agency action. A person is aggrieved or adversely affected within the meaning of this section only when all three of the following conditions are present:

- (1) The agency action has prejudiced or is likely to prejudice that person;
- (2) That person's asserted interests are among those that the agency was required to consider when it engaged in the agency action challenged; and
- (3) A judgment in favor of that person would substantially eliminate or redress the prejudice to that person caused or likely to be caused by the agency action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 507. EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES. A person may file a petition for judicial review under this chapter only after exhausting all administrative remedies available within the agency whose action is being challenged, or available within any other agency authorized to exercise administrative review, except:

- (1) A petitioner for judicial review of a rule need not have participated in the rule-making proceeding upon which that rule is based, or have petitioned for its amendment or repeal;
- (2) A petitioner for judicial review need not exhaust administrative remedies to the extent that this chapter or any other statute states that exhaustion is not required; or
- (3) The court may relieve a petitioner of the requirement to exhaust any or all administrative remedies upon a showing that:
 - (a) The remedies would be patently inadequate;
 - (b) The exhaustion of remedies would be futile; or
 - (c) The grave irreparable harm that would result from having to exhaust administrative remedies would clearly outweigh the public policy requiring exhaustion of administrative remedies.

Sec. 508. DECLARATORY JUDGMENT ON VALIDITY OF RULE. Section 7, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 8, chapter 6, Laws of 1982 and RCW 34.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((1))~~ The validity of any rule may be determined upon petition for a declaratory judgment ~~((thereon))~~ addressed to the superior court of Thurston county, when it appears that the rule, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs or immediately threatens to interfere with or impair, the legal rights or privileges of the petitioner. The agency shall be made a party to the proceeding. The declaratory judgment order may be ~~((rendered))~~ entered whether or not the petitioner has first requested the agency to pass upon the validity of the rule in question.

~~((2))~~ In a proceeding under subsection (1) of this section the court shall declare the rule invalid only if it finds that it violates constitutional provisions or exceeds the statutory authority of the agency or was adopted without compliance with statutory rule-making procedures.

~~(3) A petition for a declaratory judgment pursuant to this section may not be solely based on the contents of the small business economic impact statement. However, in the case of a petition for a declaratory judgment as to the validity of any rule which is adopted after June 10, 1982, and which is based on grounds other than the contents of the small business economic impact statement, the compliance or noncompliance by the agency with the provisions of this chapter and where applicable the small business economic impact statement shall constitute part of the whole record of the agency's action in connection with the petition.)~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 509. TIME FOR FILING PETITION FOR REVIEW. Subject to other requirements of this chapter or of another statute:

(1) A petition for judicial review of a rule may be filed at any time, except as limited by section 314 of this act.

(2) A petition for judicial review of an order shall be filed with the court and served on the agency, the office of the attorney general, and all parties of record within thirty days after service of the final order.

(3) A petition for judicial review of agency action other than the adoption of a rule or the entry of an order is not timely unless filed with the court and served on the agency, the office of the attorney general, and all other parties of record within thirty days after the agency action, but the time is extended during any period that the petitioner did not know and was under no duty to discover or could not reasonably have discovered that the agency had taken the action or that the agency action had a sufficient effect to confer standing upon the petitioner to obtain judicial review under this chapter.

(4) Service of the petition on the agency shall be by delivery of a copy of the petition to the office of the director, or other chief administrative officer or chairperson of the agency, at the principal office of the agency. Service of a copy by mail upon the other parties of record and the office of the attorney general shall be deemed complete upon deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark.

(5) Failure to timely serve a petition on the office of the attorney general is not grounds for dismissal of the petition.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 510. PETITION FOR REVIEW—CONTENTS. A petition for review must set forth:

- (1) The name and mailing address of the petitioner;

- (2) The name and mailing address of the petitioner's attorney, if any;
- (3) The name and mailing address of the agency whose action is at issue;
- (4) Identification of the agency action at issue, together with a duplicate copy, summary, or brief description of the agency action;
- (5) Identification of persons who were parties in any adjudicative proceedings that led to the agency action;
- (6) Facts to demonstrate that the petitioner is entitled to obtain judicial review;
- (7) The petitioner's reasons for believing that relief should be granted; and
- (8) A request for relief, specifying the type and extent of relief requested.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 511. STAY AND OTHER TEMPORARY REMEDIES. (1) Unless precluded by law, the agency may grant a stay, in whole or in part, or other temporary remedy during the pendency of judicial review.

(2) After a petition for review has been filed, a party may file a motion in the reviewing court seeking a stay or other temporary remedy.

(3) If judicial relief is sought for a stay or other temporary remedy from agency action based on public health, safety, or welfare grounds the court shall not grant such relief unless the court finds that:

- (a) The applicant is likely to prevail when the court finally disposes of the matter;
- (b) Without relief the applicant will suffer irreparable injury;
- (c) The grant of relief to the applicant will not substantially harm other parties to the proceedings; and

(4) The threat to the public health, safety, or welfare is not sufficiently serious to justify the agency action in the circumstances.

(4) If the court determines that relief should be granted from the agency's action granting a stay or other temporary remedies, the court may remand the matter or may enter an order denying a stay or granting a stay on appropriate terms.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 512. LIMITATION ON NEW ISSUES. (1) Issues not raised before the agency may not be raised on appeal, except to the extent that:

- (a) The person did not know and was under no duty to discover or could not have reasonably discovered facts giving rise to the issue;
- (b) The agency action subject to judicial review is a rule and the person has not been a party in adjudicative proceedings that provided an adequate opportunity to raise the issue;
- (c) The agency action subject to judicial review is an order and the person was not notified of the adjudicative proceeding in substantial compliance with this chapter; or
- (d) The interests of justice would be served by resolution of an issue arising from:
 - (i) A change in controlling law occurring after the agency action; or
 - (ii) Agency action occurring after the person exhausted the last feasible opportunity for seeking relief from the agency.

(2) The court shall remand to the agency for determination any issue that is properly raised pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 513. JUDICIAL REVIEW OF FACTS CONFINED TO RECORD. Judicial review of disputed issues of fact shall be conducted by the court without a jury and must be confined to the agency record for judicial review as defined by this chapter, supplemented by additional evidence taken pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 514. NEW EVIDENCE TAKEN BY COURT OR AGENCY. (1) The court may receive evidence in addition to that contained in the agency record for judicial review, only if it relates to the validity of the agency action at the time it was taken and is needed to decide disputed issues regarding:

- (a) Improper constitution as a decision-making body or grounds for disqualification of those taking the agency action;
- (b) Unlawfulness of procedure or of decision-making process; or
- (c) Material facts in rule making, brief adjudications, or other proceedings not required to be determined on the agency record.

(2) The court may remand a matter to the agency, before final disposition of a petition for review, with directions that the agency conduct fact-finding and other proceedings the court considers necessary and that the agency take such further action on the basis thereof as the court directs, if:

- (a) The agency was required by this chapter or any other provision of law to base its action exclusively on a record of a type reasonably suitable for judicial review, but the agency failed to prepare or preserve an adequate record;
- (b) The court finds that (i) new evidence has become available that relates to the validity of the agency action at the time it was taken, that one or more of the parties did not know and was under no duty to discover or could not have reasonably been discovered until after the agency action, and (ii) the interests of justice would be served by remand to the agency;
- (c) The agency improperly excluded or omitted evidence from the record; or
- (d) A relevant provision of law changed after the agency action and the court determines that the new provision may control the outcome.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 515. AGENCY RECORD FOR REVIEW—COSTS. (1) Within thirty days after service of the petition, or within further time allowed by the court or by other provision of law, the agency shall transmit to the court the original or a certified copy of the agency record for judicial review of the agency action. The record shall consist of any agency documents expressing the agency action, other documents identified by the agency as having been considered by it before its action and used as a basis for its action, and any other material described in this chapter as the agency record for the type of agency action at issue, subject to the provisions of this section.

(2) If part of the record has been preserved without a transcript, the agency shall prepare a transcript for inclusion in the record transmitted to the court, except for portions that the parties stipulate to omit in accordance with subsection (4) of this section.

(3) The agency may charge a nonindigent petitioner with the reasonable costs of preparing any necessary copies and transcripts for transmittal to the court. A failure by the petitioner to pay any of this cost to the agency relieves the agency from the responsibility for preparation of the record and transmittal to the court.

(4) The record may be shortened, summarized, or organized temporarily or, by stipulation of all parties, permanently.

(5) The court may tax the cost of preparing transcripts and copies for the record:

(a) Against a party who unreasonably refuses to stipulate to shorten, summarize, or organize the record;

(b) As provided by section 516 of this act; or

(c) In accordance with any other provision of law.

(6) Additions to the record pursuant to section 514 of this act must be made as ordered by the court.

(7) The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record.

Sec. 516. JUDICIAL REVIEW. Section 13, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 52, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 34.04.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~(Any person aggrieved by a final decision in a contested case, whether such decision is affirmative or negative in form, is entitled to judicial review thereof only under the provisions of this 1967 amendatory act, and such person may not use any other procedure to obtain judicial review of a final decision, even though another procedure is provided elsewhere by a special statute or a statute of general application. Where the agency's rules provide a procedure for rehearing or reconsideration, and that procedure has been invoked, the agency decision shall not be final until the agency shall have acted thereon.~~

~~(2) Proceedings for review under this chapter shall be instituted by filing a petition in the superior court, at the petitioner's option, for (a) Thurston county, (b) the county of the petitioner's residence or principal place of business, or (c) in any county where the property owned by the petitioner and affected by the contested decision is located. The petition shall be served and filed within thirty days after the service of the final decision of the agency. Copies of the petition shall be served upon the agency and all parties of record. If a timely petition is filed any party of record not filing or joining in the first petition who wants relief from the decision must join in the petition or serve and file a cross-petition within twenty days after service of the first petition or thirty days after service of the final decision of the agency, whichever period of time is longer. The court, in its discretion, may permit other interested persons to intervene.~~

~~(3) The filing of the petition shall not stay enforcement of the agency decision. Where other statutes provide for stay or supersedeas of an agency decision, it may be stayed by the agency or the reviewing court only as provided therein; otherwise the agency may do so, or the reviewing court may order a stay upon such terms as it deems proper.~~

~~(4) Within thirty days after service of the petition, or within such further time as the court may allow, the agency shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review; but, by stipulation of all parties to the review proceeding, the record may be shortened. Any party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional costs. The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record when deemed desirable.~~

~~(5) The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury and shall be confined to the record, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the agency, not shown in the record, testimony thereon may be taken in the court. The court shall, upon request, hear oral argument and receive written briefs.~~

~~(6) The court may affirm the decision of the agency or remand the case for further proceedings; or it may reverse the decision if the substantial rights of the petitioners may have been prejudiced because the administrative findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are) Generally, except to the extent that this chapter or another statute provides otherwise:~~

~~(a) The burden of demonstrating the invalidity of agency action is on the party asserting invalidity;~~

~~(b) The validity of agency action shall be determined in accordance with the standards of review provided in this section, as applied to the agency action at the time it was taken;~~

(c) The court shall make a separate and distinct ruling on each material issue on which the court's decision is based; and

(d) The court shall grant relief only if it determines that a person seeking judicial relief has been substantially prejudiced by the action complained of.

(2) Review of rules. (a) A rule may be reviewed by petition for declaratory judgment filed pursuant to section 508 of this act or by review of other agency action.

(b) The validity of any rule may be determined upon petition for a declaratory judgment addressed to the superior court of Thurston county, when it appears that the rule, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs or immediately threatens to interfere with or impair the legal rights or privileges of the petitioner. The agency shall be made a party to the proceeding. The declaratory judgment order may be entered whether or not the petitioner has first requested the agency to pass upon the validity of the rule in question.

(c) In a declaratory judgment proceeding, the court shall declare the rule invalid only if it finds that it violates constitutional provisions or exceeds the statutory authority of the agency or was adopted without compliance with statutory rule-making procedures.

(3) Review of agency orders. The court shall grant relief from an agency order only if it determines that:

(a) The order, or the statute or rule on which the order is based, is in violation of constitutional provisions on its face or as applied; ((or))

(b) ((in excess of)) The order is outside the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the agency conferred by any provision of law; ((or))

(c) ((made upon)) The agency has engaged in unlawful procedure or decision making process, or has failed to follow a prescribed procedure; ((or))

(d) ((affected by other error of)) The agency has erroneously interpreted or applied the law; ((or))

(e) ((clearly erroneous in view of the entire record as submitted and the public policy contained in the act of the legislature authorizing the decision or order)) The order, other than a rule, is not supported by evidence that is substantial when viewed in light of the whole record before the court, which includes the agency record for judicial review, supplemented by any additional evidence received by the court under this chapter; ((or))

(f) The agency has not decided all issues requiring resolution by the agency;

(g) The persons entering the order were subject to disqualification;

(h) The order is inconsistent with a rule of the agency unless the agency explains the inconsistency by stating facts and reasons to demonstrate a rational basis for inconsistency; or

(i) The order is arbitrary or capricious.

(4) Review of other agency action.

(a) All agency action not reviewable under subsection (2) or (3) of this section shall be reviewed under this subsection.

(b) A person whose rights are violated by an agency's failure to perform a duty that is required by law to be performed may file a petition for review pursuant to section 502 of this act, seeking an order pursuant to this subsection requiring performance. Within twenty days after service of the petition for review, the agency shall file and serve an answer to the petition, made in the same manner as an answer to a complaint in a civil action. The court may hear evidence, pursuant to section 514 of this act, on material issues of fact raised by the petition.

(c) Relief for persons aggrieved by the performance of an agency action, including the exercise of discretion, or an action under (b) of this subsection can be granted only if the court determines that the action is:

(i) Unconstitutional;

(ii) Outside the statutory authority of the agency or the authority conferred by a provision of law;

(iii) Arbitrary or capricious; or

(iv) Taken by persons who were not properly constituted as agency officials lawfully entitled to take such action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 517. TYPE OF RELIEF. (1) The court may order an agency to take action required by law, order an agency to exercise discretion required by law, affirm or set aside agency action, enjoin or stay the agency action, remand the matter for further proceedings, or enter a declaratory judgment order. In reviewing matters within agency discretion, the court shall limit its function to assuring that the agency has exercised its discretion in accordance with law, and shall not itself undertake to exercise the discretion that the legislature has placed in the agency. The court shall remand to the agency for modification of agency action, unless remand is impracticable or would cause unnecessary delay.

(2) The sole remedy available to a person who is wrongfully denied licensure based upon a failure to pass an examination administered by a state agency, or under its auspices, is the right to retake the examination free of the defect or defects the court may have found in the examination or the examination procedure.

(3) The court may award damages, compensation, or ancillary relief only to the extent expressly authorized by another provision of law.

(4) If the court sets aside or modifies agency action or remands the matter to the agency for further proceedings, the court may make any interlocutory order it finds necessary to preserve the interests of the parties and the public, pending further proceedings or agency action.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 518. PETITION BY AGENCY FOR ENFORCEMENT. (1) In addition to other remedies provided by law, an agency may seek enforcement of its rule or order by filing a petition for civil enforcement in the superior court.

(2) The petition must name as respondent each alleged person against whom the agency seeks to obtain civil enforcement.

(3) Venue is determined as in other civil cases.

(4) A petition for civil enforcement filed by an agency may request, and the court may grant, declaratory relief, temporary or permanent injunctive relief, any other civil remedy provided by law, or any combination of the foregoing.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 519. PETITION BY OTHERS FOR ENFORCEMENT. (1) Any person who would qualify under this chapter as having standing to obtain judicial review of an agency's failure to enforce an order directed to another person may file a petition for civil enforcement of that order, but the action may not be commenced:

(a) Until at least sixty days after the petitioner has given notice of the alleged violation and of the petitioner's intent to seek civil enforcement to the head of the agency concerned, to the attorney general, and to each person against whom the petitioner seeks civil enforcement;

(b) If the agency has filed and is diligently prosecuting a petition for civil enforcement of the same order against the same person; or

(c) If a petition for review of the same order has been filed and a stay is in effect.

(2) The petition shall name, as respondents, the agency whose order is sought to be enforced and each person against whom the petitioner seeks civil enforcement.

(3) The agency whose order is sought to be enforced may move to dismiss the petition on the grounds that it fails to qualify under this section or that the enforcement would be contrary to the policy of the agency. The court shall grant the motion to dismiss the petition unless the petitioner demonstrates that (a) the petition qualifies under this section and (b) the agency's failure to enforce its order is based on an exercise of discretion that is arbitrary or capricious.

(4) Except to the extent expressly authorized by law, a petition for civil enforcement may not request, and the court may not grant, any monetary payment apart from taxable costs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 520. DEFENSES—LIMITATION ON NEW ISSUES. (1) In a proceeding for civil enforcement a respondent may only assert as a defense:

(a) That the rule or order is invalid under section 516(3) (a) or (b) of this act. The court may only consider issues and receive evidence within the limitations provided by sections 512, 513, and 514 of this act;

(b) That the rule or order does not apply to the party or that the party has not violated the rule or order; and

(c) A defense specifically authorized by statute.

(2) The court, to the extent necessary for the determination of the matter, may consider new issues or take new evidence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 521. INCORPORATION OF OTHER JUDICIAL REVIEW PROVISIONS. Proceedings for civil enforcement are governed by the following provisions of this chapter on judicial review, as modified where necessary to adapt them to those proceedings:

(1) Section 501(2) of this act (ancillary procedural matters); and

(2) Section 515 of this act (agency record for judicial review).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 522. REVIEW BY HIGHER COURT. Decisions on petitions for civil enforcement are reviewable as in other civil cases.

PART XVI.

The senate members of the committee shall be appointed by the president of the senate, and the house members of the committee shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. Not more than two members from each house may be from the same political party. All appointments to the committee are subject to approval by the caucuses to which the appointed members belong.

(2) ~~((The initial members of the committee shall be appointed as soon as possible after July 26, 1981, and shall serve until the next regular session of the legislature convenes in an odd-numbered year. Thereafter))~~ Members shall be appointed as soon as possible after the legislature convenes in regular session in an odd-numbered year, and their terms shall extend until their successors are appointed and qualified at the next regular session of the legislature in an odd-numbered year or until such members no longer serve in the legislature, whichever occurs first. Members may be reappointed to a committee.

(3) The president of the senate shall appoint the chairperson in even-numbered years and the vice chairperson in odd-numbered years from among committee membership. The speaker of the house shall appoint the chairperson in odd-numbered years and the vice chairperson in even-numbered years from among committee membership. Such appointments shall be made in January of each year as soon as possible after a legislative session convenes.

(4) A vacancy on the committee shall be filled by appointment of a legislator from the same political party as the original appointment. The appropriate appointing authority shall make the appointment within thirty days of the vacancy occurring.

Sec. 602. REVIEW OF PROPOSED RULES—NOTICE. Section 6, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1, chapter 451, Laws of 1987 and RCW 34.04.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a majority of the members of the rules review committee determines that a proposed rule is not within the intent of the legislature as expressed in the statute which the rule implements, the committee shall give the affected agency written notice of its decision. The notice shall be given at least seven days prior to any hearing scheduled for consideration of or adoption of the proposed rule pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.025(1)(a)(iii)))~~ section 303 of this act. The notice shall include a statement of the review committee's findings and the reasons therefor. When the agency holds a hearing on the proposed rule, the agency shall consider the review committee's decision.

Sec. 603. REVIEW OF EXISTING RULES—POLICY STATEMENTS, GUIDELINES, ISSUANCES—NOTICE—HEARING. Section 7, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 2, chapter 451, Laws of 1987 and RCW 34.04.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All rules required to be filed pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.040))~~ section 315 of this act, and emergency rules adopted pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.030))~~ section 309 of this act, are subject to selective review by the legislature.

(2) The rules review committee may review an agency's use of policy statements, guidelines, and issuances that are of general applicability, or their equivalents to determine whether or not an agency has failed to adopt a rule ~~((as defined in RCW 34.04.010(2))).~~

(3) If the rules review committee finds by a majority vote of its members: (a) That an existing rule is not within the intent of the legislature as expressed by the statute which the rule implements, (b) that the rule has not been adopted in accordance with all applicable provisions of law, or (c) that an agency is using a policy statement, guideline, or issuance in place of a rule, the agency affected shall be notified of such finding and the reasons therefor. Within thirty days of the receipt of the rules review committee's notice, the agency shall file notice of a hearing on the rules review committee's finding with the code reviser and mail notice to all persons who have made timely request of the agency for advance notice of its rule-making proceedings as provided in ~~((RCW 34.04.025, as now or hereafter amended))~~ section 303 of this act. The agency's notice shall include the rules review committee's findings and reasons therefor, and shall be published in the Washington state register in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.08 RCW.

(4) The agency shall consider fully all written and oral submissions regarding (a) whether the rule in question is within the intent of the legislature as expressed by the statute which the rule implements, (b) whether the rule was adopted in accordance with all applicable provisions of law, or (c) whether the agency is using a policy statement, guideline, or issuance in place of a rule.

Sec. 604. COMMITTEE OBJECTIONS TO AGENCY ACTION OR FAILURE TO ADOPT RULE—STATEMENT IN REGISTER AND WAC—SUSPENSION OF RULE. Section 8, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 3, chapter 451, Laws of 1987 and RCW 34.04.240 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Within seven days of an agency hearing held after notification of the agency by the rules review committee pursuant to ~~((RCW 34.04.220 or 34.04.230))~~ section 602 or 603 of this act, the affected agency shall notify the committee of its action on a proposed or existing rule to which the committee objected or on a committee finding of the agency's failure to adopt rules. If the rules review committee determines, by a majority vote of its members, that the agency has failed to provide for the required hearings or notice of its action to the committee, the committee may file notice of its objections, together with a concise statement of the reasons therefor, with the code reviser within thirty days of such determination.

(2) If the rules review committee finds, by a majority vote of its members: (a) That the proposed or existing rule in question has not been modified, amended, withdrawn, or repealed by the agency so as to conform with the intent of the legislature, or (b) that the agency is using a policy statement, guideline, or issuance in place of a rule, the rules review committee may, within thirty days from notification by the agency of its action, file with the code reviser notice of its objections together with a concise statement of the reasons therefor. Such notice and statement shall also be provided to the agency by the rules review committee.

(3) If the rules review committee makes an adverse finding under subsection (2) of this section, the committee may, by a two-thirds vote of its members, recommend suspension of an existing rule. Within seven days of such vote the committee shall transmit to the governor, the code reviser, and the agency written notice of its objection and recommended suspension and the concise reasons therefor. Within thirty days of receipt of the notice, the governor shall transmit to the committee, the code reviser, and the agency written approval or disapproval of the recommended suspension. If the suspension is approved by the governor, it is effective from the date of that approval and continues until ninety days after the expiration of the next regular legislative session.

(4) The code reviser shall publish transmittals from the rules review committee or the governor issued pursuant to subsection (1), (2), or (3) of this section in the Washington state register and shall publish in the next supplement and compilation of the Washington Administrative Code a reference to the committee's objection or recommended suspension and the governor's action on it and to the issue of the Washington state register in which the full text thereof appears.

(5) The reference shall be removed from a rule published in the Washington Administrative Code if a subsequent adjudicatory proceeding determines that the rule is within the intent of the legislature or was adopted in accordance with all applicable laws, whichever was the objection of the rules review committee.

Sec. 605. RECOMMENDATIONS BY COMMITTEE TO LEGISLATURE. Section 9, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 4, chapter 451, Laws of 1987 and RCW 34.04.250 are each amended to read as follows:

The rules review committee may recommend to the legislature that the original enabling legislation serving as authority for the ((~~promulgation~~)) adoption of any rule reviewed by the committee be amended or repealed in such manner as the committee deems advisable.

Sec. 606. REVIEW AND OBJECTION PROCEDURES—NO PRESUMPTION ESTABLISHED. Section 10, chapter 324, Laws of 1981 and RCW 34.04.260 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the express policy of the legislature that establishment of procedures for review of administrative rules by the legislature and the notice of objection required by ((~~RCW 34.04.230(2) and 34.04.240(2)~~)) sections 603(2) and 604(2) of this act in no way serves to establish a presumption as to the legality or constitutionality of a rule in any subsequent judicial proceedings interpreting such rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 607. The provisions of RCW 4.84.185 relating to civil actions that are frivolous and advanced without reasonable cause apply to petitions for judicial review under this chapter.

PART XVII. TECHNICAL PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 701. REPEALER. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Each agency, in accordance with published rules, shall make available for public inspection and copying all public records, unless the record falls within the specific exemptions of subsection (5) of this section, RCW 42.17.310, 42.17.315, or other statute which exempts or prohibits disclosure of specific information or records. To the extent required to prevent an unreasonable invasion of personal privacy interests protected by RCW 42.17.310 and 42.17.315, an agency shall delete identifying details in a manner consistent with RCW 42.17.310 and 42.17.315 when it makes available or publishes any public record; however, in each case, the justification for the deletion shall be explained fully in writing.

(2) Each agency shall maintain and make available for public inspection and copying a current index providing identifying information as to the following records issued, adopted, or promulgated after ~~(January 1, 1973)~~ the effective date of this section:

(a) Final opinions, including concurring and dissenting opinions, as well as orders, made in the adjudication of cases;

(b) Those statements of policy and interpretations of policy, statute, and the Constitution which have been adopted by the agency under section 203 of this act;

(c) Administrative staff manuals and instructions to staff that affect a member of the public;

(d) Planning policies and goals, and interim and final planning decisions;

(e) Factual staff reports and studies, factual consultant's reports and studies, scientific reports and studies, and any other factual information derived from tests, studies, reports, or surveys, whether conducted by public employees or others; and

(f) Correspondence, and materials referred to therein, by and with the agency relating to any regulatory, supervisory, or enforcement responsibilities of the agency, whereby the agency determines, or opines upon, or is asked to determine or opine upon, the rights of the state, the public, a subdivision of state government, or of any private party.

(3) An agency need not maintain such an index for records issued, adopted, or promulgated before the effective date of this section or for records described in (c) through (f) of subsection (2) of this section, if to do so would be unduly burdensome, but it shall in that event:

(a) Issue and publish a formal order specifying the reasons why and the extent to which compliance would unduly burden or interfere with agency operations; and

(b) Make available for public inspection and copying all indexes maintained for agency use.

(4) A public record may be relied on, used, or cited as precedent by an agency against a party other than an agency and it may be invoked by the agency for any other purpose only if—

(a) It has been indexed in an index available to the public; or

(b) Parties affected have timely notice (actual or constructive) of the terms thereof.

(5) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, this chapter shall not be construed as giving authority to any agency to give, sell or provide access to lists of individuals requested for commercial purposes, and agencies shall not do so unless specifically authorized or directed by law (~~(PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That)~~).

(b) Lists of applicants for professional licenses and of professional licensees shall be made available to those professional associations or educational organizations recognized by their professional licensing or examination board, upon payment of a reasonable charge therefor (~~(PROVIDED FURTHER, That)~~). Such recognition may be refused only for a good cause pursuant to a hearing under the provisions of chapter ~~((34.04))~~ . . . RCW (sections 101 through 607 of this act).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 703. CAPTIONS AND HEADINGS. Section captions and subchapter headings used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 705. EFFECTIVE DATE—APPLICATION. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1989, and shall apply to all rule-making actions and agency proceedings begun on or after that date. Rule-making actions or other agency proceedings begun before July 1, 1989, shall be completed under the applicable provisions of chapter 28B.19 or 34.04 RCW existing immediately before that date in the same manner as if they were not amended by this act or repealed by section 701 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 706. Parts XI through XVI of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 34 RCW, and the sections amended or set forth in this act shall be recodified in the order they appear in this act. The code reviser shall correct all statutory references to these sections and to the repealed chapters 28B.19 and 34.04 RCW to reflect this recodification and repeal."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Nelson: "A point of order, Mr. President. Again, I have to raise scope and object on the amendment, reluctantly. I'm also sponsor on this bill which I'm very proud of and would like very much to have it pass, but unfortunately, the measure we passed from the Senate did not find its way through the House as we had expected this year. As I had pointed out earlier, the original basis for this Legislative Budget Committee endorsed bill—No. 1515—is simply to change termination dates on sunset reviews and does not have a broad enough scope and object to handle the very good Administrative Procedures Act that the Senate has been working on for the last two and a half years."

Further debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Nelson, the President finds that House Bill No. 1515 is a measure postponing the termination dates of various state agencies.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Halsan and Talmadge enacts the 1988 Administrative Procedure Act.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Halsan and Talmadge to House Bill No. 1515 was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the following title amendment was adopted:
On line 5 of the title, after "43.117.910" strike the remainder of the title

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1515, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Bill No. 1515, as amended by the Senate.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1515, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1796, by Representatives Padden, Winsley, Brough and D. Sommers

Requiring specific access service for "976" information-access telephone services.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Benitz, the following Committee on Energy and Utilities amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that throughout the state there is widespread use of information delivery services, which are also known as information-access telephone services and commonly provided on a designated telephone number prefix. These services operate on a charge-per-call basis, providing revenue for both the information provider and the local exchange company. The marketing practices for these telephone services have at times been misleading to consumers and at other times specifically directed toward minors. The result has been placement of calls by individuals, particularly by children, who are uninformed about the charges that might apply. In addition, children may have secured access to obscene, indecent, and salacious material through these services. The legislature finds that these services can be blocked by certain local exchange companies at switching locations, and that devices exist which allow for blocking within a residence. Therefore, the legislature finds that residential telephone users in the state are entitled to the option of having their phones blocked from access to information delivery services.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that the utilities and transportation commission and local exchange companies, to the extent feasible, distinguish between information delivery services that are misleading to consumers, directed at minors, or otherwise objectionable and adopt policies and rules that accomplish the purposes of this act with the least adverse effect on information delivery services that are not misleading to consumers, directed at minors, or otherwise objectionable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 80.36 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Information delivery services" means telephone recorded messages, interactive programs, or other information services that are provided for a charge to a caller through an exclusive telephone number prefix.

(b) "Information providers" means the persons or corporations that provide the information, prerecorded message, or interactive program for the information delivery service. The information provider generally receives a portion of the revenue from the calls.

(c) "Interactive program" means a program that allows an information delivery service caller, once connected to the information provider's announcement machine, to use the caller's telephone device to access more specific information.

(2) The utilities and transportation commission shall by rule require any local exchange company that offers information delivery services to a local telephone exchange to provide each residential telephone subscriber the opportunity to block access to all information delivery services offered through the local exchange company. The rule shall take effect by October 1, 1988.

(3) All costs of complying with this section shall be borne by the information providers.

(4) The local exchange company shall inform subscribers of the availability of the blocking service through a bill insert and by publication in a local telephone directory.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. By October 1, 1988, the commission shall investigate and report to the committees on energy and utilities in the house of representatives and the senate on methods to protect minors from obscene, indecent, and salacious materials available through the use of information delivery services. The investigation shall include a study of personal identification numbers, credit cards, scramblers, and beep-tone devices as methods of limiting access.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Senator Rasmussen: "And are they renewed annually?"

Senator Zimmerman: "No, you don't have a card. Your identification on your drivers license and your other ID gives you the privilege of the--"

Senator Rasmussen: "Of permanent exemption?"

Senator Zimmerman: "Well, it's on the basis of the usage that you would make of it. A person could never use it, or he could use it occasionally, or whatever."

Senator Rasmussen: "I hope Senator McDonald is listening, because there should be a little charge for those cards."

Senator Zimmerman: "Well, no, see there is no card involved. At this point, that's the thing about it. It eliminates and saves the bureaucratic need to have printing of cards and to have to take away cards every year--to put them out of business--the printing of them, the having to worry about them. This way, you eliminate that. You've got your identification. The main thing you want to do, in terms of that kind of thing, is to avoid people who shouldn't be getting the exemption. This will help to do that better than where say, your brother had a card, and he turned it over to your twin brother and he used it illegally. There have been abuses. I do not want to consider that there have not been some abuses. This will help to eliminate those abuses."

Creating a transportation improvement board.

MOTIONS

On page 3, line 34, after "Priority" strike "consideration"

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1857, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Nelson, could you tell me the amount of funds and where they are coming from to go into the Transportation Improvement Board?"

Senator Nelson: "I'm glad you asked that question. Senator Rasmussen, because there is a need to improve the amount of funding into the transportation system of the state of Washington. Without additional gas tax revenues—that particular motor vehicle fuel fee account—we won't have the available money to meet the over two billion dollars in requests that this state has from cities and counties, as well as the over one billion dollars that we have from the Department of Transportation.

"The reorganization effort we're placing in this statute here, I hope becomes a precedent for allowing this group to provide the necessary matching money which, right today, is frankly not there. We have run out of all the bonding money that this Legislature provided to the Urban Arterial Board, which is the predecessor to the Transportation Improvement Board, so we simply are replying on this board helping to prioritize and to—"

Senator Rasmussen: "A point of order, Mr. President. I didn't ask for a sermon. I wanted to find out the dollar amount that was going into the fund. You don't know the dollar amount? There's an allocation there into the Urban Arterial."

Senator Nelson: "Senator Rasmussen, the amount is zero until we pass an additional amount of motor vehicle fuel fund."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Patterson, I don't want another sermon, but is there—Senator Nelson reminded me a little bit about the minister at the funeral who was saving all those there instead of sending the person on his way.

"There is money going into the Urban Arterial. Can you tell me how much and will that continue even though it might be drained at the present time?"

Senator Patterson: "No, Senator Rasmussen, there's no money going into Urban Arterial. We have used all of the bond issue money that previously was authorized by this Legislature, going into that fund. The recent gas tax proposal had set aside, in that increase, about two and a half cents of the increase, was going to go in to replenish the dollars for Urban Arterial. That would have given them—the board—some money to prioritize and work in those areas that come up with the matching money from the local communities to help fund those local projects."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, and then as I understand it, the formation of the new fund is going to be a propaganda source a la Senator Nelson?"

Senator Patterson: "What was that one again?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Or it would be probably better planning?"

Senator Patterson: "I think that the new board will provide better planning and better utilization in the key areas of this state. Yes, I do."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1857, as amended by the Senate.

Certifying and registering nursing assistants.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Deccio, the following Committee on Health Care and Corrections amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. LEGISLATIVE INTENT. The legislature takes special note of the contributions made by nursing assistants in nursing homes whose tasks are arduous and whose working conditions may be contributing to the high and often critical turnover among the principal cadre of health care workers who provide for the basic needs of long-term care patients. The legislature also recognizes the growing shortage of nurses in long-term care as the proportion of the elderly population grows and as the acuity of patients in hospitals and nursing homes becomes generally more severe.

The legislature finds and declares that occupational nursing assistants should have a formal system of educational and experiential qualifications leading to career mobility and advancement. The establishment of such a system should bring about a more stabilized work force in the nursing home setting, as well as provide a valuable resource for recruitment into licensed nursing practice.

The legislature declares that the registration of nursing assistants providing for voluntary certification of those who wish to seek higher levels of qualification is in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

- (1) "Department" means the department of licensing.
- (2) "Director" means the director of licensing or the director's designee.

- (8) "Registration program" means a nursing assistant training program as defined under chapter 18.52A RCW.
- (9) "Nursing home" means a facility licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. SCOPE OF PRACTICE. (1) A nursing assistant--registered may assist in the care of patients under the direction and supervision of a licensed (registered) nurse or licensed practical nurse, provided that a nursing home shall not assign an assistant to provide resident care until the assistant has demonstrated skill necessary to perform assigned duties and responsibilities competently. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as conferring on a nursing assistant the authority to administer medication or to practice as a licensed (registered) nurse or licensed practical nurse.

(2) A nursing assistant--certified may assist in the care of the ill, injured, or infirm under the direction and supervision of a licensed (registered) nurse or licensed practical nurse except

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Patterson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1740 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Patterson, I think this is a good measure and we hope it will save some lives. My question relates to the death strip between Pullman and Moscow. When they raised the drinking age limit, did that help cut down the deaths there?"

Senator Patterson: "No question about it, it has helped. You know my first session of the Legislature, I tried to exempt the Idaho laws, because of the concern of the number of students that were on that seven or eight mile stretch between Idaho and Washington. The change in the Idaho law has made a tremendous difference in the number of people and the number of accidents and the property that's been damaged between Pullman and Moscow. By the way, this is the highway between Pullman and Moscow and is included in this piece of legislation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Smitherman: Senator Patterson, maybe it's explained a little better in terms of the bill report, but I guess my question is, when it's talking about crosses that were put out by the students at WSU as markers for highway accidents, and I think that was probably a very effective and dramatic way to do things, are they talking about a marker or a sign that somebody can read or are they talking about a continuation of the practice of putting out a series of crosses? I'm not certain what they're advocating here."

Senator Patterson: "In our discussions in the committee and with the department, there's an indication that the department will work with the students in designing some attractive signs that would warn people that this is a highway that you need to drive carefully on and maintain the speed. I don't know what the end result of their effort will be, but I know they've offered to work with the students in putting up signs that would hopefully attract attention. This is a four year--kind of a pilot program--to see if warnings on highways of this nature, will bring about a lowering of the accidents on the highways."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1740.

Establishing an office of mobile home affairs.

MOTION

Senator Lee moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 59.22 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In order to provide general assistance to mobile home resident organizations, park owners, and landlords and tenants, the department shall establish an office of mobile home affairs which will serve as the coordinating office within state government for matters relating to mobile homes or manufactured housing.

This office will provide an ombudsman service to mobile home park owners and mobile home tenants with respect to problems and disputes between park owners and park residents and to provide technical assistance to resident organizations or persons in the process of forming a resident organization, pursuant to chapter 59.22 RCW. The office will keep records of its activities in this area.

(2) The department shall establish the mobile home and manufactured housing affairs advisory committee. The mobile home and manufactured housing affairs advisory committee shall be a subcommittee of the state housing advisory committee if the department creates a state housing advisory committee. The committee shall consist of five members appointed by the director of the department of community development. The committee shall be comprised of one representative of mobile home park tenants, one representative of mobile home park owners, and one representative of the public at large, each of whom shall be knowledgeable and have practical experience with the mobile home landlord tenant act, one representative of mobile home manufacturers and one representative of local governments. Only the representatives of the mobile home park tenants, mobile home park owners, and the public at large shall review and advise the office on issues relating to the mobile home landlord tenant act. The director of the department of community development shall appoint the committee chairperson. The entire committee shall advise the office in implementing the provisions of subsection (1) of this section. The members of the committee may receive compensation or reimbursement for travel expenses.

Neither the office nor advisory committee may evaluate, develop, or recommend policies or programs relating to governmental rent control or rent stabilization.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 482, Laws of 1987 and RCW 59.22.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The following definitions shall apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Affordable" means that, where feasible, low-income residents should not pay more than thirty percent of their monthly income for housing costs.

(2) "Conversion costs" includes the cost of acquiring the mobile home park, the costs of planning and processing the conversion, the costs of any needed repairs or rehabilitation, and any expenditures required by a government agency or lender for the project.

(3) "Department" means the department of community development.

(4) "Fund" means the mobile home park purchase fund created pursuant to RCW 59.22.030.

(5) "Housing costs" means the total cost of owning, occupying, and maintaining a mobile home and a lot or space in a mobile home park.

(6) "Individual interest in a mobile home park" means any interest which is fee ownership or a lesser interest which entitles the holder to occupy a lot or space in a mobile home park for a period of not less than either fifteen years or the life of the holder. Individual interests in a mobile home park include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Ownership of a lot or space in a mobile home park or subdivision;

(b) A membership or shares in a stock cooperative, or a limited equity housing cooperative; or

(c) Membership in a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation which owns, operates, or owns and operates the mobile home park.

(7) "Low-income resident" means an individual or household who resided in the mobile home park prior to application for a loan pursuant to this chapter and with an annual income at or below eighty percent of the median income for the county of standard metropolitan statistical area of residence. Net worth shall be considered in the calculation of income with the exception of the resident's mobile/manufactured home which is used as their primary residence.

(8) "Low-income spaces" means those spaces in a mobile home park operated by a resident organization which are occupied by low-income residents.

(9) "Mobile home park" means a mobile home park, as defined in RCW 59.20.030(4), or a manufactured home park subdivision as defined by RCW 59.20.030(6) created by the conversion to resident ownership of a mobile home park.

(10) "Resident organization" means a group of mobile home park residents who have formed a nonprofit corporation, cooperative corporation, or other entity or organization for the purpose of acquiring the mobile home park in which they reside and converting the mobile home park to resident ownership. The membership of a resident organization shall include at least two-thirds of the households residing in the mobile home park at the time of application for assistance from the department.

(11) "Resident ownership" means, depending on the context, either the ownership, by a resident organization, as defined in this section, of an interest in a mobile home park which entitles the resident organization to control the operations of the mobile home park for a term of no less than fifteen years, or the ownership of individual interests in a mobile home park, or both.

(12) "Landlord" shall have the same meaning as it does in RCW 59.20.030.

(13) "Manufactured housing" means residences constructed on one or more chassis for transportation, and which bear an insignia issued by a state or federal regulatory agency indicating compliance with all applicable construction standards of the United States department of housing and urban development.

(14) "Mobile home" shall have the same meaning as it does in RCW 46.04.302.

(15) "Mobile home lot" shall have the same meaning as it does in RCW 59.20.030.

(16) "Tenant" means a person who rents a mobile home lot for a term of one month or longer, and owns the mobile home on the lot.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Every landlord shall register by October 1, 1988, with the department of revenue under such rules as that department shall prescribe.

(2) Every landlord shall pay a fee of one dollar per lot per year, and in addition, shall collect from each tenant on January 1 of each year a fee of one dollar per year for each lot rented by the tenant. Both fees shall be remitted by the landlord to the department of revenue under such rules as the department shall prescribe. The fee required by this chapter, to be collected by the landlord, shall be deemed to be held in trust by the landlord until paid to the department of revenue, and any landlord who appropriates or converts the fee collected to his or her own use other than the payment to the department shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. The provisions of chapter 82.32 RCW shall apply to the collection and enforcement of this fee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is created in the custody of the state treasurer a special account known as the mobile home affairs account. All fees collected pursuant to section 3 of this act shall be placed in that account.

Disbursements from this special account shall be as follows:

(1) For the two-year period beginning July 1, 1988, forty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary for costs incurred in registering landlords and collecting fees, and thereafter five thousand dollars per year for that purpose.

(2) All remaining amounts shall be remitted to the department of community development for the purpose of implementing sections 1 and 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this act are each added to chapter 59.22 RCW."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Lee, I'm reading your striking amendment and I see the provision where each landlord will pay a fee of one dollar per lot per year and in addition, collect from each tenant a fee of one dollar per lot per year per tenant, yet I don't see anywhere in the amendment where it says what this money will be used for. I don't see any explanation in Section 3, nor in Section 4. Section 4 says, 'There is created in the custody of the state treasurer a special account known as the mobile home affairs account. All fees collected pursuant to Section 3 of this act shall be placed in that account.' I see nothing about any explanation as to where the fees will be used."

Senator Lee: "That's because of the section on which this appears in the RCW that relates to the Mobile Homes Office was actually created last session, but the Governor vetoed out considerable portions of it. What I'm saying is that the sections that proceed this relate to the Mobile Homes Office itself and then on page 7, it says, 'Disperse that money for the costs incurred first to the Department of Revenue for collecting it and then the remainder remitted to the Department of Community Development for the purposes of implementing Sections 1 and 3 of the Act.' Now, Sections 1 and 3 are not of the Act that we have before us, but of the statute itself."

Senator Pullen: "O.K., one final question. Is your striking amendment supported by both the Mobile Home Owners Association, as well as the Mobile Home Park Owners Association?"

Senator Lee: "Yes, Senator Pullen."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Nelson: Senator Lee, I noticed on page 6 of your amendment defining tenant, that the tenant means a person who rents a mobile home lot for a term of one month or longer and owns the mobile home on the lot. Would it be correct to assume then, that if in fact, the person who owns the mobile home is the landlord, and rents then to somebody else, that the landlord will have to pay both the landlord portion, namely one dollar, as well as the one dollar for the mobile home that is on the lot?"

Senator Lee: "That is correct and that is if the mobile home park owners agreed with that concept."

Senator Nelson: "If, in fact, the owner of the mobile home happens to be absent from the state of Washington, and that mobile home resides on a lot that if it is now rented to a second party, the landlord will have to track down the owner of the mobile home someplace, because it does say, 'Rents the mobile home and owns the mobile home' in the same definition?"

Senator Lee: "That's correct."

Senator Nelson: "Who becomes liable for the one dollar that should be paid under the definition of tenant, should the mobile park home owner not be able to collect?"

Senator Lee: "Presumably, the ombudsman office to whom this money is sent."

MOTION

On motion of Senator West, the following amendment by Senators West, Moore and Owen to the amendment by Senator Lee was adopted:

On page 1, after line 5 of the amendment, insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 241, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.70.023 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An "established place of business" requires a permanent, enclosed commercial building located within the state of Washington easily accessible at all reasonable times. An established place of business shall have an improved display area of not less than three thousand square feet in or immediately adjoining the building, or a display area large enough to display six or more vehicles of the type the dealer is licensed to sell, whichever area is larger. The business of a vehicle dealer, including the display and repair of vehicles, may be lawfully carried on at an established place of business in accordance with the terms of all applicable building code, zoning, and other land-use regulatory ordinances. The dealer shall keep the building open to the public so that they may contact the vehicle dealer or the dealer's salespersons at all reasonable times. The books, records, and files necessary to conduct the business shall be kept and maintained at that place. The established place of business shall display an exterior sign with the business name and nature of the business, such as auto sales, permanently affixed to the land or building, with letters clearly visible to the major avenue of traffic. In no event may a room or rooms in a hotel, rooming house, or apartment house building or part of a single or multiple-unit dwelling house be considered an "established place of business" unless the ground floor of such a dwelling is devoted principally to and occupied for commercial purposes and the dealer offices are located on the ground floor. A mobile office or mobile home may be used as an office if it is connected to utilities and is set up in accordance with state law.

(2) If a dealer maintains a place of business at more than one location or under more than one name in this state, he or she shall designate one location as the principal place of business of the firm, one name as the principal name of the firm, and all other locations or names as subagencies. A subagency license is required for each and every subagency: PROVIDED, That the department may grant an exception to the subagency requirement in the specific instance where a licensed new motor vehicle dealer is unable to locate their used vehicle sales facilities adjacent to or at the established place of business. This exception shall be granted and defined under the promulgation of rules consistent with the administrative procedure act.

(3) All vehicle dealers shall maintain ownership or leasehold throughout the license year of the real property from which they do business. The dealer shall provide the department with evidence of ownership or leasehold whenever the ownership changes or the lease is terminated.

(4) A subagency shall comply with all requirements of an established place of business.

(5) A temporary subagency shall meet all local zoning and building codes for the type of merchandising being conducted. The dealer license certificate shall be posted at the location. No other requirements of an established place of business apply to a temporary subagency.

(6) A wholesale vehicle dealer shall have office facilities in a commercial building within this state, and all storage facilities for inventory shall be listed with the department, and shall meet local zoning and land use ordinances. A wholesale vehicle dealer shall maintain a telecommunications system. An exterior sign visible from the nearest street shall identify the business name and the nature of business. A wholesale dealer need not maintain a display area as required in this section. When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory, if any, must be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(7) A retail vehicle dealer shall be open during normal business hours, maintain office and display facilities in a commercially zoned location or in a location complying with all applicable building and land use ordinances, and maintain a business telephone listing in the local directory. When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory shall be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(8) A listing dealer need not have a display area if the dealer does not physically maintain any vehicles for display.

(9) A subagency license is not required for a mobile home dealer to display an on-site display model, a consigned mobile home not relocated from its site, or a repossessed mobile home if sales are handled from a principal place of business or subagency. A mobile home dealer shall identify on-site display models, repossessed mobile homes, and those consigned at their sites with a sign that includes the dealer's name and telephone number.

(10) Every vehicle dealer shall advise the department of the location of each and every place of business of the firm and the name or names under which the firm is doing business at such location or locations. If any name or location is changed, the dealer shall notify the department of such change within ten days. The license issued by the department shall reflect the name and location of the firm and shall be posted in a conspicuous place at that location by the dealer.

(11) A vehicle dealer's license shall upon the death or incapacity of an individual vehicle dealer authorize the personal representative of such dealer, subject to payment of license fees, to continue the business for a period of six months from the date of the death or incapacity.

(12) For the purposes of obtaining a license from the department under this chapter, the owner of a mobile home park who sells mobile homes located on mobile home lots within the park shall be eligible to be licensed as a mobile home dealer without meeting the requirements of subsections (1) and (7) of this section regarding an established place of business, furnishing a display area, compliance with applicable zoning and land use ordinances, and the prohibition against conducting the business in a dwelling house. Such an applicant for a mobile home dealer's license shall comply in all other respects with the requirements of this chapter for licensure of mobile home dealers, including the remaining provisions of subsection (1) of this section.

(13) Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit local government from enforcing the building codes and local government zoning and other land use ordinances or regulations.

(14) Any mobile home park owner who sells mobile homes located on mobile home lots within the park shall be prohibited from coercing, influencing, or interfering with the sale of any mobile home located in the park. Any owner of a mobile home in a park shall have all the rights provided to the owner by the mobile home landlord-tenant act in selling the home.

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which any interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the state general obligation bond retirement fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee to be due on that payment date. On each date on which any interest or principal and interest is due, the state treasurer shall cause an identical amount to be paid out of the ((state convention and trade center account or state convention and trade center operations)) hotel special excise tax account, from the proceeds of the special excise tax imposed under RCW 67.40.090, ((operating revenues of the state convention and trade center, and bond proceeds and earnings on the investment of bond proceeds)) for deposit in the general fund of the state treasury. Sec. 5. Section 9, chapter 34, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 6, chapter 8, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. and RCW 67.40.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Commencing April 1, 1982, there is imposed, and the department of revenue shall collect, in King county a special excise tax on the sale of or charge made for the furnishing of lodging by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, or trailer camp, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property, except that no such tax may be levied on any premises having fewer than sixty lodging units. It shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or enjoy the same. The legislature on behalf of the state pledges to maintain and continue this tax until the bonds authorized by this chapter are fully redeemed, both principal and interest.

((+)) The rate of the tax imposed under this section shall be:

((a)) (1) From April 1, 1982, through December 31, 1982, inclusive, three percent in the city of Seattle and two percent in King county outside the city of Seattle; and

((b)) (2) On and after January 1, 1983, five percent in the city of Seattle and two percent in King county outside the city of Seattle. The tax levied under this subsection ((b)) shall expire on the first day of the next calendar quarter after the director of financial management certifies that ((+)) the bonds issued pursuant to RCW 67.40.030 have been fully retired ((and (ii) all borrowings by the convention center for (A) bond retirement, and (B) operating expenses of the convention center incurred through June 30, 1992, have been repaid together with interest at a rate determined by the state treasurer to be equivalent to the return on investments of the state treasury during the period the amounts are borrowed:

(2) On and after October 1, 1993, in addition to the tax specified in subsection (1) of this section, there is levied a surtax for the purpose of reimbursing moneys borrowed to pay actual net operating deficits of the convention center incurred after June 30, 1992, as provided in this subsection. On or before October 1, 1993, and on or before October 1 of each succeeding year, the director of financial management shall certify the actual net operating deficit, if any, of the convention center for the prior fiscal year and shall determine the rate of surtax which, if imposed during the succeeding twelve months, will be sufficient to reimburse moneys borrowed for the actual net operating deficit of the convention center in the prior fiscal year plus any surtax deficiencies in prior years less any surtax surpluses in prior years. As used in this section. (a) "surtax deficiency" means any excess of (i) the convention center net operating deficit over (ii) receipts from the surtax imposed under this subsection to reimburse such deficit; and (b) "surtax surplus" means any excess of (i) receipts from a surtax imposed to reimburse a convention center net operating deficit over (ii) the convention center operating deficit which the surtax is intended to reimburse. The surtax so determined shall be effective, and shall be imposed and collected, beginning October 1 of each year for the succeeding twelve months: PROVIDED: That the surtax shall not exceed forty percent of the tax in effect under subsection (1) of this section in the city of Seattle and in King county outside the city of Seattle. The director of financial management shall determine the amount of the surtax based upon actual receipts from the tax provided for in RCW 67.40.090 during the last complete fiscal year. The surtax imposed on hotels and motels in King county outside the city of Seattle shall be forty percent of the surtax imposed on hotels and motels in the city of Seattle.

(3) The surcharge under subsection (2) of this section shall be forty percent of the tax in effect under subsection (1) of this section, effective on the day either of the following events occurs, whichever is earlier:

(a) A temporary or permanent injunction or order becomes effective which prohibits in whole or in part the collection of surtax at the rates specified in subsection (2) of this section; or
 (b) A decision of a court in this state invalidating in whole or in part subsection (2) of this section).

The proceeds of the special excise tax shall be deposited in the ((state convention and trade center)) hotel special excise tax account hereby created in the state treasury. Chapter 82.32 RCW applies to the tax imposed under this section.

Sec. 6. Section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of financial management, in consultation with the chairpersons of the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives, may authorize temporary borrowing from the state treasury for the purpose of covering cash deficiencies in the state convention and trade center account resulting from project completion costs. Subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, lines of credit may be authorized at times and in amounts as the director of financial management determines are advisable to meet current and/or anticipated cash deficiencies. Each authorization shall distinctly specify the maximum amount of cash deficiency which may be incurred and the maximum time period during which the cash deficiency may continue. The total amount of borrowing outstanding at any time shall never exceed ((the lesser of:

(a) $58,275,000; or

(b) An amount, as determined by the director of financial management from time to time, which is necessary to provide for payment of project completion costs)) $1,000,000.

(2) ((Unless the due date under this subsection is extended by statute,)) All amounts borrowed under the authority of this section shall be repaid to the state treasury by June 30, 1989, together with interest at a rate determined by the state treasurer to be equivalent to the return on investments of the state treasury during the period the amounts are borrowed. Borrowing may be authorized from any excess balances in the state treasury, except the agricultural permanent fund, the Millersylvania park permanent fund, the state university permanent fund, the normal school permanent fund, the permanent common school fund, and the scientific permanent fund.

(3) ((As used in this section, "project completion" means:

(a) All remaining development, construction, and administrative costs related to completion of the convention center; and

(b) Costs of the McKay building demolition, Eagles building rehabilitation, and construction of rentable retail space and an operable parking garage.

(4) It is the intent of the legislature that project completion costs be paid ultimately from the following sources:

(a) $29,250,000 to be received by the corporation under an agreement and settlement with Industrial Indemnity Co.;

(b) $1,070,000 to be received by the corporation as a contribution from the city of Seattle;

(c) $20,000,000 to be received by the corporation under an anticipated agreement with a private developer;

(d) $7,955,000 to be provided by a private developer for McKay building demolition, Eagles building rehabilitation, and construction of rentable retail space and an operable parking garage; and

(e) $4,765,000 for contingencies and project reserves from additional general obligation bonds to be repaid from convention center revenue from the special excise tax under RCW 67.40.090.

(5)) The borrowing authority provided in this section is in addition to the authority to borrow from the general fund to meet the bond retirement and interest requirements set forth in RCW 67.40.060. To the extent the specific conditions and limitations provided in this section conflict with the general conditions and limitations provided for temporary cash deficiencies in RCW 43.88.260, the specific conditions and limitations in this section shall govern.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 2, chapter 233, Laws of 1985, section 3, chapter 8, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. and RCW 67.40.025;

(2) Section 3, chapter 233, Laws of 1985 and RCW 67.40.027;

(3) Section 5, chapter 34, Laws of 1982 and RCW 67.40.050; and

(4) Section 11, chapter 8, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. and RCW 67.40.055.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senator Talmadge to Senate Bill No. 6757.

The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 6757 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Garrett: "Senator Metcalf, it interested me very much about your crystal ball that you used all the way through this project. It reminded me of the speeches we had made when we authorized the Select Committee. They were going to go down there and investigate the convention center and all of the good that was going to come out of that and we'd really find out and get some recommendations. Did your crystal ball show you or did you ever dream that the select committee would come back down here and ask us to appropriate twenty-nine million dollars more for the Convention Center and fifty-seven million more in bonds—that the people putting this project together would be able to sell that kind of an idea to the select committee?"

Senator Metcalf: "I did not. I had an opportunity to be on the select committee. I wanted very much to be on it, but I knew I didn't have the time to devote to it, so I wasn't on the committee, but no, I would not have guessed that they would do that."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6757.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6757 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 18.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Gaspard, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kroidler, Lee, Madson, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Nelson, Owen, Rinehart, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 31.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Craswell, Garrett, Halsan, Hansen, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Niemi, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Sellar, Smith, Talmadge, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 18.

SENATE BILL NO. 6757, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCaslin: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. That was one of the most difficult votes I've ever made. Living in the Spokane Valley, the city of Spokane has never done a thing for the Spokane Valley, to my knowledge. We got into a wedge on this bill, because they hung the Spokane Coliseum on something I have voted against ever since I've been on this floor. I think it was a poor concept from the beginning, and it's still a poor concept. Now, I'm told by two people that Mayor Vicki McNeill has made the statement that the coliseum will never be located in the Spokane Valley.

"Believe me, the city of Spokane has done one of the worst lobbying jobs I have ever seen in the eight years I've been here. I think it's regrettable that on the face of it and the people in Spokane—they are talking about situating the coliseum in the Spokane County and on the other hand, they are going behind our backs and telling people it will never be located in the Spokane Valley. Hopefully, with what Senator Jim West has done in this bill, we'll get a fair shake. I doubt it seriously. We haven't gotten a fair shake on the Convention Center in Seattle and I doubt if the Spokane Valley will get a fair shake on the coliseum. They finally got me between a rock and a hard place and I got crushed."

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the Committee on Ways and Means be relieved of further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 and that the rules be suspended and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 be advanced to second reading and placed on the second reading calendar.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, a point of order. I do not believe the motion is properly before us. We are on the sixth order of business considering Senate Bills on the calendar."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your point of order is well taken."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Nelson, the Senate advanced to the ninth order of business.

Senator Nelson moved that the Committee on Ways and Means be relieved of further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 and that the rules be suspended and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 be advanced to second reading and placed on the second reading calendar.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President, we have no objection to pulling this bill with the remarks from Senator Nelson that the bill would be placed on the calendar and would not be immediately run, so that we will have time to operate it. However, I would like to ask that as long as we are on the ninth order of business, are you also going to pull the Administrative Procedures Act which we have discussed on both sides of this aisle? That should be pulled and also the Risk Management which we have discussed on both sides of the aisle?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR NELSON

Senator Nelson: "Senator Vognild, we have yet to discuss those two matters with the members of our caucus, but I can assure that we have an open mind for any of the crucial subject matters that are before this Legislature and will address those, trying to fit them in as time permits. At this point, we have not had a chance to discuss either of those."

Senator Vognild: "May I finish, Mr. President? Thank you, Senator Nelson. I appreciate your answer. The only irony of it is that your leadership asked me three days ago if I would object to pulling those two bills and I said, 'no.' We still do not object to pulling the bill you are pulling."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, a point of order. Could I amend? I'd like to amend Senator Nelson's motion and I'd like to add to that motion to also relieve the Committee on Economic Development and Labor of further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 655."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Fleming, it's necessary for the first portion to be conducted."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Nelson that the Committee on Ways and Means be relieved of further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 and that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 be advanced to second reading and placed on the second reading calendar.

The motion by Senator Nelson carried and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 was advanced to second reading and placed on the second reading calendar.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. I was going to make a motion at that point in time. I think that this side of the aisle went along with that side of the aisle to make their motion to relieve a committee of a bill. I think that they should have at least shown the same courtesy to this side of the aisle—to make a motion while we were at the ninth order of business. Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 655, in my opinion, is a very important piece of legislation. The farm workers of this state need unemployment compensation; they need to be able to give health care to their families; they need to be able to have their kids go to school when they're healthy. That is a very important piece of legislation and I think that it was not in good taste on your side to not allow us to make that motion."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Nelson: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. I want each side of the aisle to know that in the course of making the arrangements to pull Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2083 to the floor, we coordinated our efforts with both sides of the aisle. At no time was the Republican majority advised that there was another bill—a motion that the puller wanted to make on this floor. We are more than happy to work in cooperation with any measure that is desirous to be addressed, but we would like to have the same courtesy shown if there's a request to be done in that fashion. We would like to know ahead of time, as well. The maker of the motion never let me know or anybody else that they wished to make that motion."

Further debate ensued.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1701, by Committee on Transportation (originally sponsored by Representatives Walk, Schmidt and Baugher) (by request of Office of Financial Management)

Adopting the supplemental transportation budget.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Patterson moved that the following Committee on Transportation amendment be adopted:

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bender: "Senator Zimmerman, do you have any idea what the cost of this study would be?"

Senator Zimmerman: "Because there's been an interest on the Oregon side as well, and because there is a metropolitan group that is interested in looking at all the bridges down there, I think that we'll be able to reduce the cost from what might otherwise be. I'm certainly not looking---something probably in the range of ten thousand dollars, I would say."

They have withheld, as I recall, it's something in the neighborhood of about sixty million dollars--dollars that would normally come in our allocation--would normally come to the state of Washington. That has been held in a budget balancing act on the part of Congress."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, that's clearly illegal."

Senator Patterson: "Pardon?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I say, that's illegal."

Senator Patterson: "Well, it may be, but Congress seems to do a lot of things that we question from time to time."

Further debate ensued.

(1) Every license shall be issued in the name of the applicant, and the holder thereof shall not allow any other person to use the license.

(2) For the purpose of considering any application for a license, the board may cause an inspection of the premises to be made, and may inquire into all matters in connection with the construction and operation of the premises. For the purpose of reviewing any application for a license and for considering the denial, suspension or revocation of any license, the liquor control board may consider any prior criminal conduct of the applicant and the provisions of RCW 9.95.240 and of chapter 9.96A RCW shall not apply to such cases. The board may, in its discretion, grant or refuse the license applied for. No retail license of any kind may be issued to:

(a) A person who has not resided in the state for at least one month prior to making application, except in cases of licenses issued to dining places on railroads, boats, or aircraft;

(b) A copartnership, unless all of the members thereof are qualified to obtain a license, as provided in this section;

(c) A person whose place of business is conducted by a manager or agent, unless such manager or agent possesses the same qualifications required of the licensee;

(d) A corporation, unless it was created under the laws of the state of Washington or holds a certificate of authority to transact business in the state of Washington.

(3) The board may, in its discretion, subject to the provisions of RCW 66.08.150, suspend or cancel any license; and all rights of the licensee to keep or sell liquor thereunder shall be suspended or terminated, as the case may be. The board may request the appointment of administrative law judges under chapter 34.12 RCW who shall have power to administer oaths, issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, books, accounts, documents, and testimony, examine witnesses, and to receive testimony in any inquiry, investigation, hearing, or proceeding in any part of the state, under such rules and regulations as the board may adopt.

Witnesses shall be allowed fees and mileage each way to and from any such inquiry, investigation, hearing, or proceeding at the rate authorized by RCW 34.04.105, as now or hereafter amended. Fees need not be paid in advance of appearance of witnesses to testify or to produce books, records, or other legal evidence.

In case of disobedience of any person to comply with the order of the board or a subpoena issued by the board, or any of its members, or administrative law judges, or on the refusal of a witness to testify to any matter regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated, the judge of the superior court of the county in which the person resides, on application of any member of the board or administrative law judge, shall compel obedience by contempt proceedings, as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from said court or a refusal to testify therein.

Where the license has been suspended only, the board shall return the license to the licensee at the expiration or termination of the period of suspension (~~with a memorandum of the suspension written or stamped upon the face thereof in red ink~~). (5) (a) At the time of the original issuance of a class H license, the board shall prorate the license fee charged to the new licensee according to the number of calendar quarters, or portion thereof, remaining until the first renewal of that license is required. (b) Unless sooner canceled, every license issued by the board shall expire at midnight of the thirtieth day of June of the fiscal year for which it was issued. However, if the board deems it feasible and desirable to do so, it may establish, by rule pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, a system for staggering the annual renewal dates for any and all licenses authorized by this chapter. If such a system of staggered annual renewal dates is established by the board, the license fees provided by this chapter shall be appropriately prorated during the first year that the system is in effect.

(6) Every license issued under this section shall be subject to all conditions and restrictions imposed by this title or by the regulations in force from time to time. All conditions and restrictions imposed by the board in the issuance of an individual license shall be listed on the face of the individual license along with the trade name, address, and expiration date.

(7) Every licensee shall post and keep posted its license, or licenses, in a conspicuous place on the premises.

(8) Before the board shall issue a license to an applicant it shall give notice of such application to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town, if the application be for a license within an incorporated city or town, or to the county legislative authority, if the application be for a license outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns; and such incorporated city or town, through the official or employee selected by it, or the county legislative authority or the official or employee selected by it, shall have the right to file with the board within twenty days after date of transmittal of such notice, written objections against the applicant or against the premises for which the license is asked, and shall include with such objections a statement of all facts upon which such objections are based, and in case written objections are filed, may request and the liquor control board may in its discretion hold a formal hearing subject to the applicable provisions of Title 34 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. Upon the granting of a license under this title the board shall send a duplicate of the license or written notification to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town in which the license is granted, or to the county legislative authority if the license is granted outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns.

(9) Before the board issues any license to any applicant, it shall give (a) due consideration to the location of the business to be conducted under such license with respect to the proximity of churches, schools, and public institutions and (b) written notice by certified mail of the application to churches, schools, and public institutions within five hundred feet of the premises to be licensed. The board shall issue no beer retailer license class A, B, D, or E or wine retailer license class C or F or class H license covering any premises not now licensed, if such premises are within five hundred feet of the premises of any tax-supported public elementary or secondary school measured along the most direct route over or across established public walks, streets, or other public passageway from the outer property line of the school grounds to the nearest public entrance of the premises proposed for license, and if, after receipt by the school or public institution of the notice as provided in this subsection, the board receives written notice, within twenty days after posting such notice, from an official representative or representatives of the school within five hundred feet of said proposed licensed premises, indicating to the board that there is an objection to the issuance of such license because of proximity to a school. For the purpose of this section, church shall mean a building erected for and used exclusively for religious worship and schooling or other activity in connection therewith. No liquor license may be issued or reissued by the board to any motor sports facility or licensee operating within the motor sports facility unless the motor sports facility enforces a program reasonably calculated to prevent alcohol or alcoholic beverages not purchased within the facility from entering the facility and such program is approved by local law enforcement agencies. It is the intent under this subsection that a retail license shall not be issued by the board where doing so would, in the judgment of the board, adversely affect a private school meeting the requirements for private schools under Title 28A RCW, which school is within five hundred feet of the proposed licensee. The board shall fully consider and give substantial weight to objections filed by private schools. If a license is issued despite the proximity of a private school, the board shall state in a letter addressed to the private school the board's reasons for issuing the license.

(10) The restrictions set forth in the preceding subsection shall not prohibit the board from authorizing the transfer of existing licenses now located within the restricted area to other persons or locations within the restricted area: PROVIDED, Such transfer shall in no case result in establishing the licensed premises closer to a church or school than it was before the transfer.

(11) Nothing in this section prohibits the board, in its discretion, from issuing a temporary retail or wholesaler license to a transferee of a retail or wholesaler license to continue the operation of the retail or wholesaler premises during the period a transfer application for the license from person to person at the same premises is pending and when the following conditions exist:

A temporary license issued by the board under this section shall be for a period not to exceed sixty days. A temporary license may be extended at the discretion of the board for an additional sixty-day period upon payment of an additional fee and upon compliance with all conditions required in this section.

Refusal by the board to issue or extend a temporary license shall not entitle the applicant to request a hearing. A temporary license may be canceled or suspended summarily at any time if the board determines that good cause for cancellation or suspension exists. RCW 66.08-.130 and chapter 34.04 RCW shall apply to temporary licenses.

Application for a temporary license shall be on such form as the board shall prescribe. If an application for a temporary license is withdrawn before issuance or is refused by the board, the fee which accompanied such application shall be refunded in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Deccio, according to our book here, it says, 'No age restrictions shall be placed on eligibility for care for a period of one year.' Would this be one year from now or one year from when the bill becomes effective, so that it would carry over through the next session?"

When the city publishes a summary, the publication shall include a statement that the full text of the ordinance will be mailed upon request.

An inadvertent mistake or omission in publishing the text or a summary of the content of an ordinance shall not render the ordinance invalid.

In addition to the requirement that a city publish the text or a summary of the content of each adopted ordinance, every city shall establish a procedure for notifying the public of upcoming hearings and the preliminary agenda for the forthcoming council meeting. Such procedure may include, but not be limited to, written notification to the city's official newspaper, publication of a notice in the official newspaper, posting of upcoming council meeting agendas, or such other processes as the city determines will satisfy the intent of this requirement.

Sec. 2. Section 35.23.310, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.23.310 are each amended to read as follows:

((Before any ordinance shall take effect, it shall be published in one issue of the official newspaper of the city:))

Promptly after adoption, the text of each ordinance or a summary of the content of each ordinance shall be published at least once in the official newspaper of the city. For purposes of this section, a summary shall mean a brief description which succinctly describes the main points of the ordinance. When the city publishes a summary, the publication shall include a statement that the full text of the ordinance will be mailed upon request.

An inadvertent mistake or omission in publishing the text or a summary of the content of an ordinance shall not render the ordinance invalid.

In addition to the requirement that a city publish the text or a summary of the content of each adopted ordinance, every city shall establish a procedure for notifying the public of upcoming hearings and the preliminary agenda for the forthcoming council meeting. A certified copy of any ordinance certified to by the clerk, or a printed copy of any ordinance or compilation printed by authority of the city council and attested by the clerk shall be competent evidence in any court.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 120, Laws of 1987 and RCW 35.23.352 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any second or third class city or any town may construct any public works, as defined in RCW 39.04.010, by contract or day labor without calling for bids therefor whenever the estimated cost of the work or improvement, including cost of materials, supplies and equipment will not exceed the sum of thirty thousand dollars if more than one craft or trade is involved with the public works, or twenty thousand dollars if a single craft or trade is involved with the public works or the public works project is street signalization or street lighting. A public works project means a complete project. The restrictions in this subsection do not permit the division of the project into units of work or classes of work to avoid the restriction on work that may be performed by day labor on a single project.

Whenever the cost of the public work or improvement, including materials, supplies and equipment, will exceed these figures, the same shall be done by contract. All such contracts shall be let at public bidding upon posting notice calling for sealed bids upon the work. The notice thereof shall be posted in a public place in the city or town and by publication in the official newspaper, or a newspaper of general circulation most likely to bring responsive bids, once each week for two consecutive weeks before the date fixed for opening the bids. The notice shall generally state the nature of the work to be done that plans and specifications therefor shall then be on file in the city or town hall for public inspections, and require that bids be sealed and filed with the council or commission within the time specified therein. Each bid shall be accompanied by a bid proposal deposit in the form of a cashier's check, postal money order, or surety bond to the council or commission for a sum of not less than five percent of the amount of the bid, and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by such bid proposal deposit. The council or commission of the city or town shall let the contract to the lowest responsible bidder or shall have power by resolution to reject any or all bids and to make further calls for bids in the same manner as the original call.

When the contract is let then all bid proposal deposits shall be returned to the bidders except that of the successful bidder which shall be retained until a contract is entered into and a bond to perform the work furnished, with surety satisfactory to the council or commission, in the full amount of the contract price. If the bidder fails to enter into the contract in accordance with his bid and furnish a bond within ten days from the date at which he is notified that he is the successful bidder, the check or postal money order and the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the council or commission or the council or commission shall recover the amount of the surety bond.

If no bid is received on the first call the council or commission may readvertise and make a second call, or may enter into a contract without any further call or may purchase the supplies, material or equipment and perform the work or improvement by day labor.

(2) The allocation of public works projects to be performed by city or town employees shall not be subject to a collective bargaining agreement.

(3) In lieu of the procedures of subsection (1) of this section, a second or third class city or a town may use a small works roster and award contracts under this subsection for contracts of one hundred thousand dollars or less.

(a) The city or town may maintain a small works roster comprised of all contractors who have requested to be on the roster and are, where required by law, properly licensed or registered to perform such work in this state.

(b) Whenever work is done by contract, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less, and the city uses the small works roster, the city or town shall invite proposals from all appropriate contractors on the small works roster: PROVIDED, That whenever possible, the city or town shall invite at least one proposal from a minority or woman contractor who shall otherwise qualify under this section. The invitation shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed, and materials and equipment to be furnished.

(c) When awarding such a contract for work, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less, the city or town shall award the contract to the contractor submitting the lowest responsible bid.

(4) After September 1, 1987, each second class city, third class city, and town shall use the form required by RCW 43.09.205 to account and record costs of public works in excess of five thousand dollars that are not let by contract.

(5) The cost of a separate public works project shall be the costs of the materials, equipment, supplies, and labor on that construction project.

(6) Any purchase of supplies, material, equipment or services other than professional services, except for public work or improvement, where the cost thereof exceeds seven thousand five hundred dollars shall be made upon call for bids: PROVIDED, That the limitations herein shall not apply to any purchases of materials at auctions conducted by the government of the United States, any agency thereof or by the state of Washington or a political subdivision thereof.

(7) Bids shall be called annually and at a time and in the manner prescribed by ordinance for the publication in a newspaper published or of general circulation in the city or town of all notices or newspaper publications required by law. The contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder.

(8) For advertisement and competitive bidding to be dispensed with as to purchases between seven thousand five hundred and fifteen thousand dollars, the city legislative authority must authorize by resolution a procedure for securing telephone and/or written quotations from enough vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding the contracts for purchase of materials, equipment, or services to the lowest responsible bidder. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded and open to public inspection and shall be available by telephone inquiry.

(9) These requirements for purchasing may be waived by resolution of the city or town council which declared that the purchase is clearly and legitimately limited to a single source or supply within the near vicinity, or the materials, supplies, equipment, or services are subject to special market conditions, and recites why this situation exists. Such actions are subject to RCW 39.30.020.

(10) This section does not apply to performance-based contracts, as defined in RCW 39.35A.020(3), that are negotiated under chapter 39.35A RCW.

Sec. 4. Section 35.24.220, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 400, Laws of 1987 and RCW 35.24.220 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 7, 8 and 9 of this act shall expire September 1, 1989."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, a point of order. I raise the point of order that this amendment is outside the scope and object of the bill. Just briefly, this is a very technical amendment. I think, even though the Senate has voted on this measure, it still raises a broader question, a philosophy as to how school directors should be elected from a district in the primary versus a general election."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1745 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1630, by Representatives Walk, Schmidt and Gallagher (by request of Department of Licensing)

Requiring insurance for continued registration of tow truck operators.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Patterson, the following Committee on Transportation amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 1, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and by section 739, chapter 330, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.010 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(2) "Abandoned vehicle report" means the document prescribed by the state that the towing operator forwards to the department after a vehicle has become abandoned.

(3) "Impound" means to take and hold a vehicle in legal custody. There are two types of impounds—public and private.

(a) "Public impound" means that the vehicle has been impounded at the direction of a law enforcement officer or by a public official having jurisdiction over the public property upon which the vehicle was located.

This definition does not include a hauler or scrap processor licensed under chapter 46.79 RCW or a publicly owned vehicle licensed under RCW 46.16.020.

(6) "Residential property" means property that has no more than four living units located on it.

(7) "Tow truck" means a motor vehicle that is equipped for and used in the business of towing vehicles with equipment as approved by the state patrol.

(b) Private locations:

- (i) On residential property Immediately
- (ii) On private, nonresidential property, properly posted under RCW 46.55.070 Immediately
- (iii) On private, nonresidential property, not posted 24 hours

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 46.55 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A registered tow truck operator who engages exclusively in transporting vehicles that are not unauthorized vehicles, and does not impound or store any vehicles, and does not dispose of abandoned vehicles, is exempt from RCW 46.55.030(1)(f)(ii) and (iii) and 46.55.060.

(2) A tow truck operator acting under this section shall comply with the following conditions:

(a) The address that the tow truck operator lists on his or her application shall be the business location of the firm where its files are kept. Each separate business location requires a separate registration under this chapter.

(b) At the business location of the firm, the registered operator shall post in a conspicuous and accessible location:

- (i) All pertinent licenses and permits to operate as a registered tow truck operator;
- (ii) The current towing charges itemized on a form approved by the department;
- (iii) Information supplied by the department as to where complaints regarding either equipment or service are to be directed.

(c) Ten days before the effective date of any change in an operator's fee schedule, the registered tow truck operator shall file the revised fee schedule with the department.

(3) The department shall charge a registration fee for all tow truck operators based upon the cost of administering registration. In establishing such fees, the department shall consider the activities of tow truck operators regulated under subsections (1) and (2) of this section in comparison to other registered tow truck operators and shall charge fees based upon the difference in activities.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 2, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Application for licensing as a registered tow truck operator shall be made on forms furnished by the department, shall be accompanied by an inspection certification from the Washington state patrol, shall be signed by the applicant or his agent, and shall include the following information:

(a) The name and address of the person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation under whose name the business is to be conducted;

(b) The names and addresses of all persons having an interest in the business, or if the owner is a corporation, the names and addresses of the officers of the corporation;

(c) The names and addresses of all employees who serve as tow truck drivers;

(d) Proof of minimum insurance required by subsection (3) of this section;

(e) Any other information the department may require; and

(f) A certificate of approval from the chief of police if the applicant's principal place of business is located in a city or town having a population over five thousand persons or, in all other instances, from a member of the Washington state patrol, certifying that:

(i) The applicant has an established place of business at the address shown on the application;

(ii) The place of business has an office area that is accessible to the public without entering the storage area; and

(iii) The place of business has adequate and secure storage facilities, as defined in this chapter and the rules of the department, where vehicles and their contents can be properly stored and protected.

(2) Before issuing a registration certificate to an applicant the department shall require the applicant to file with the department a surety bond in the amount of five thousand dollars running to the state and executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state. The bond shall be approved as to form by the attorney general and conditioned that the operator shall conduct his business in conformity with the provisions of this chapter pertaining to abandoned or unauthorized vehicles, and to compensate any person, company, or the state for failure to comply with this chapter or the rules adopted hereunder, or for fraud, negligence, or misrepresentation in the handling of these vehicles. Any person injured by the tow truck operator's failure to fully perform duties imposed by this chapter and the rules adopted hereunder, or an ordinance or resolution adopted by a city, town, or county is entitled to recover actual damages, including reasonable attorney's fees against the surety and the tow truck operator. Successive recoveries against the bond shall be permitted, but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons shall not exceed the amount of the bond. As a condition of authority to do business, the operator shall keep the bond in full force and effect. Failure to maintain the penalty value of the bond or cancellation of the bond by the surety automatically cancels the operator's registration.

(3) Before the department may issue a registration certificate to an applicant, the applicant shall provide proof of minimum insurance requirements of:

(a) One hundred thousand dollars for liability for bodily injury or property damage per occurrence; and

(b) Fifty thousand dollars of legal liability per occurrence, to protect against vehicle damage, including but not limited to fire and theft, from the time a vehicle comes into the custody of an operator until it is redeemed or sold.

Cancellation of the insurance required by (a) and (b) of this subsection automatically cancels the operator's registration.

(4) ~~The fee for each original registration and annual renewal ((is one hundred dollars per company, plus fifty dollars per truck)) shall be established pursuant to section 2(3) of this act.~~ The department shall forward the registration fee to the state treasurer for deposit in the motor vehicle fund.

(5) Upon approval of the application, the department shall issue a registration certificate to the registered operator to be displayed prominently at the operator's place of business.

Sec. 4. Section 8, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 5, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.080 are each amended to read as follows:

If a vehicle is in violation of the time restrictions of RCW ~~((46.55.010(12)))~~ 46.55.010(11), it may be impounded by a registered tow truck operator at the direction of a law enforcement officer or other public official with jurisdiction if the vehicle is on public property, or at the direction of the property owner or his agent if it is on private property. A law enforcement officer may also direct the impoundment of a vehicle pursuant to a writ or court order.

The person requesting a private impound or a law enforcement officer or public official requesting a public impound shall provide a signed authorization for the impound at the time and place of the impound to the registered tow truck operator before the operator may proceed with the impound. A registered tow truck operator may not serve as an agent of a property owner for the purposes of signing an impound authorization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 167, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 743, chapter 330, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.61.563 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. RCW 46.61.567 is recodified as a section in chapter 46.55 RCW."

On motion of Senator Patterson, the following title amendment was adopted:

On line 1 of the title, after "operators;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 46.55.030 and 46.55.080; reenacting and amending RCW 46.55.010; adding a new section to chapter 46.55 RCW; recodifying RCW 46.61.567; and repealing RCW 46.61.563."

Prohibiting drug-related activities in rental dwellings.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the illegal use, sale, and manufacture of drugs and other drug-related activities is a state-wide problem. Innocent persons, especially children, who come into contact with illegal drug-related activity within their own neighborhoods are seriously and adversely affected. Rental property is damaged and devalued by drug activities. The legislature further finds that a rapid and efficient response is necessary to: (1) Lessen the occurrence of drug-related enterprises; (2) reduce the drug use and trafficking problems within this state; and (3) reduce the damage caused to persons and property by drug activity. The legislature finds that it is beneficial to rental property owners and to the public to permit landlords to quickly and efficiently evict persons who engage in drug-related activities at rented premises.

Sec. 2. Section 13, chapter 207, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 264, Laws of 1983 and RCW 59.18.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Each tenant shall pay the rental amount at such times and in such amounts as provided for in the rental agreement or as otherwise provided by law and comply with all obligations imposed upon tenants by applicable provisions of all municipal, county, and state codes, statutes, ordinances, and regulations, and in addition shall:

(1) Keep that part of the premises which he occupies and uses as clean and sanitary as the conditions of the premises permit;

(2) Properly dispose from his dwelling unit all rubbish, garbage, and other organic or flammable waste, in a clean and sanitary manner at reasonable and regular intervals, and assume all costs of extermination and fumigation for infestation caused by the tenant;

(3) Properly use and operate all electrical, gas, heating, plumbing and other fixtures and appliances supplied by the landlord;

(4) Not intentionally or negligently destroy, deface, damage, impair, or remove any part of the structure or dwelling, with the appurtenances thereto, including the facilities, equipment, furniture, furnishings, and appliances, or permit any member of his family, invitee, licensee, or any person acting under his control to do so. Violations may be prosecuted under chapter 9A.48 RCW if the destruction is intentional and malicious:

(5) Not permit a nuisance or common waste; ~~((and))~~

(6) Not engage in drug-related activity at the rental premises, or allow a subtenant, sublessee, resident, or anyone else to engage in drug-related activity at the rental premises with the knowledge or consent of the tenant. "Drug-related activity" means that activity which constitutes a violation of chapter 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW; and

(7) Upon termination and vacation, restore the premises to their initial condition except for reasonable wear and tear or conditions caused by failure of the landlord to comply with his obligations under this chapter: PROVIDED, That the tenant shall not be charged for normal cleaning if he has paid a nonrefundable cleaning fee.

Sec. 3. Section 40, chapter 207, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 59.18.390 are each amended to read as follows:

The sheriff shall, upon receiving the writ of restitution, forthwith serve a copy thereof upon the defendant, his agent, or attorney, or a person in possession of the premises, and shall not execute the same for three days thereafter, and the defendant, or person in possession of the premises within three days after the service of the writ of restitution may execute to the plaintiff a bond to be filed with and approved by the clerk of the court in such sum as may be fixed by the judge, with sufficient surety to be approved by the clerk of said court, conditioned that they will pay to the plaintiff such sum as the plaintiff may recover for the use and occupation of the said premises, or any rent found due, together with all damages the plaintiff may sustain by reason of the defendant occupying or keeping possession of said premises, together with all damages which the court theretofore has awarded to the plaintiff as provided in this chapter, and also all the costs of the action. The plaintiff, his agent or attorneys, shall have notice of the time and place where the court or judge thereof shall fix the amount of the defendant's bond, and shall have notice and a reasonable opportunity to examine into the qualification and sufficiency of the sureties upon said bond before said bond shall be approved by the clerk. If the writ of restitution has been based upon a finding by the court that the tenant, subtenant, sublessee, or a person residing at the rental premises has engaged in drug-related activity or has allowed any other person to engage in drug-related activity at those premises with his or her knowledge or approval, neither the tenant, the defendant, nor a person in possession of the premises shall be entitled to post a bond in order to retain possession of the premises. The writ may be served by the sheriff, in the event he shall be unable to find the defendant, an agent or attorney, or a person in possession of the premises, by affixing a copy of said writ in a conspicuous place upon the premises.

Sec. 4. Section 41, chapter 207, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 59.18.400 are each amended to read as follows:

On or before the day fixed for his appearance the defendant may appear and answer. The defendant in his answer may assert any legal or equitable defense or set-off arising out of the tenancy. If the complaint alleges that the tenancy should be terminated because the defendant tenant, subtenant, sublessee, or resident engaged in drug-related activity, or allowed any other person to engage in drug-related activity at the rental premises with his or her knowledge or consent, no set-off shall be allowed as a defense to the complaint.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 279, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 58, Laws of 1984 and RCW 59.20.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the landlord shall not terminate a tenancy, of whatever duration except for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) Substantial violation, or repeated or periodic violations of the rules of the mobile home park as established by the landlord at the inception of the tenancy or as assumed subsequently with the consent of the tenant or for violation of the tenant's duties as provided in RCW 59.20-.140. The tenant shall be given written notice to cease the rule violation immediately. The notice shall state that failure to cease the violation of the rule or any subsequent violation of that or any other rule shall result in termination of the tenancy, and that the tenant shall vacate the premises within fifteen days: PROVIDED, That for a periodic violation the notice shall also specify that repetition of the same violation shall result in termination: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the case of a violation of a "material change" in park rules with respect to pets, tenants with minor children living with them, or recreational facilities, the tenant shall be given written notice under this chapter of a six month period in which to comply or vacate;

(b) Nonpayment of rent or other charges specified in the rental agreement, upon five days written notice to pay rent and/or other charges or to vacate;

(c) Conviction of the tenant of a crime, commission of which threatens the health, safety, or welfare of the other mobile home park tenants. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen day period in which to vacate;

(d) Failure of the tenant to comply with local ordinances and state laws and regulations relating to mobile homes or mobile home living within a reasonable time after the tenant's receipt of notice of such noncompliance from the appropriate governmental agency;

(e) Change of land use of the mobile home park including, but not limited to, conversion to a use other than for mobile homes or conversion of the mobile home park to a mobile home park cooperative or mobile home park subdivision: PROVIDED, That the landlord shall give the tenants twelve months' notice in advance of the proposed effective date of such change;

(f) Engaging in "drug-related activity." "Drug-related activity" means that activity which constitutes a violation of chapter 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW.

(2) A landlord may terminate any tenancy without cause. Such termination shall be effective twelve months from the date the landlord serves notice of termination upon the tenant or at the end of the current tenancy, whichever is later: PROVIDED, That a landlord shall not terminate a tenancy for any reason or basis which is prohibited under RCW 59.20.070 (3) or (4) or is intended to circumvent the provisions of (1)(e) of this section.

(3) Within five days of a notice of eviction as required by subsection (1)(a) or (2) of this section, the landlord and tenant shall submit any dispute, including the decision to terminate the tenancy without cause, to mediation. The parties may agree in writing to mediation by an independent third party or through industry mediation procedures. If the parties cannot agree, then mediation shall be through industry mediation procedures. A duty is imposed upon both parties to participate in the mediation process in good faith for a period of ten days for an eviction under subsection (1)(a) of this section, or for a period of thirty days for an eviction under subsection (2) of this section. It is a defense to an eviction under subsection (1)(a) or (2) of this section that a landlord did not participate in the mediation process in good faith.

Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 186, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 59.20.140 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the tenant to pay the rental amount at such times and in such amounts as provided for in the rental agreement or as otherwise provided by law and comply with all obligations imposed upon tenants by applicable provisions of all municipal, county, and state codes, statutes, ordinances and regulations, and in addition the tenant shall:

(1) Keep the mobile home lot which he occupies and uses as clean and sanitary as the conditions of the premises permit;

(2) Properly dispose of all rubbish, garbage, and other organic or flammable waste, in a clean and sanitary manner at reasonable and regular intervals, and assume all costs of extermination and fumigation for infestation caused by the tenant on the tenant's leased premises;

(3) Not intentionally or negligently destroy, deface, damage, impair, or remove any facilities, equipment, furniture, furnishings, fixtures or appliances provided by the landlord, or permit any member of his family, invitee, or licensee, or any person acting under his control to do so: ~~((and))~~

(4) Not permit a nuisance or common waste; and

(5) Not engage in drug-related activities as defined in RCW 59.20.080.

Sec. 7. Section 18, chapter 207, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 59.18.180 are each amended to read as follows:

If the tenant fails to comply with any portion of RCW 59.18.130 or 59.18.140, and such non-compliance can substantially affect the health and safety of the tenant or other tenants, or substantially increase the hazards of fire or accident that can be remedied by repair, replacement of a damaged item, or cleaning, the tenant shall comply within thirty days after written notice by the landlord specifying the noncompliance, or, in the case of emergency as promptly as conditions require. If the tenant fails to remedy the noncompliance within that period the landlord may enter the dwelling unit and cause the work to be done and submit an itemized bill of the actual and reasonable cost of repair, to be payable on the next date when periodic rent is due, or on terms mutually agreed to by the landlord and tenant, or immediately if the rental agreement has terminated. Any substantial noncompliance by the tenant of RCW 59.18.130 or 59.18.140 shall constitute a ground for commencing an action in unlawful detainer in accordance with the provisions of chapter 59.12 RCW, and a landlord may commence such action at any time after written notice pursuant to such chapter. The tenant shall have a defense to an unlawful detainer action filed solely on this ground if it is determined at the hearing authorized under the provisions of chapter 59.12 RCW that the tenant is in substantial compliance with the provisions of this section, or if the tenant remedies the noncomplying condition within the thirty day period provided for above or any shorter period determined at the hearing to have been required because of an emergency: PROVIDED, That if the defective condition is remedied after the commencement of an unlawful detainer action, the tenant may be liable to the landlord for statutory costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

If drug-related activity is alleged to be a basis for termination of tenancy under RCW 59.18.130(6), 59.12.030(5), or 59.20.140(5), the compliance provisions of this section do not apply and the landlord may proceed directly to an unlawful detainer action.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 458, Laws of 1987 and RCW 69.53.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person who has under his or her management or control any building, room, space, or enclosure, either as an owner, lessee, agent, employee, or mortgagee, to knowingly rent, lease, or make available for use, with or without compensation, the building, room, space, or enclosure for the purpose of unlawfully manufacturing, delivering, selling, storing, or giving away any controlled substance under chapter 69.50 RCW, legend drug under chapter 69.41 RCW, or imitation controlled substance under chapter 69.52 RCW.

(2) It shall be a defense for an owner, manager, or other person in control pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to, in good faith, notify a law enforcement agency of suspected drug activity pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, or to process an unlawful detainer action for drug-related activity against the tenant or occupant.

~~((2))~~ (3) A violation of this section is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

Sec. 9. Section 8, chapter 458, Laws of 1987 and RCW 69.53.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person who has under his or her management or control any building, room, space, or enclosure, either as an owner, lessee, agent, employee, or mortgagee, to knowingly allow the building, room, space, or enclosure to be fortified to suppress law enforcement entry in order to further the unlawful manufacture, delivery, sale, storage, or gift of any controlled substance under chapter 69.50 RCW, legend drug under chapter 69.41 RCW, or imitation controlled substance under chapter 69.52 RCW.

(2) It shall be a defense for an owner, manager, or other person in control pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to, in good faith, notify a law enforcement agency of suspected drug activity pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, or to process an unlawful detainer action for drug-related activity against the tenant or occupant.

~~((2))~~ (3) A violation of this section is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Pullen, I have concern with one section. It says, 'It shall,' and this is all through the bill, but—"

Senator Pullen: "Which page?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Page 13, where it says, 'It shall be a defense for the owner, manager or other person in control pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to, in good faith, notify a law enforcement agency of suspected drug activity pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.' How, in the discussion in the committee, was it contemplated that you file a complaint? Would you just call up on the telephone or if you see a sheriff's car to notify them? It says, 'In good faith notify a law enforcement agency of suspected drug activity.'"

Senator Pullen: "It could be done by either of the means that you suggested, but for the protection of the owner, manager or other person in control, I would strongly urge, if I were recommending it, that it be done in writing and that a record be kept, so that some additional protection is afforded. There is nothing wrong with making a telephone call, particularly if the police were doing their job, they would hopefully keep a record of the telephone call, but bureaucracy being what it is, there is no guarantee of that. I would recommend that it be done in writing for the protection of the owner, but there's nothing in the law that requires it to be in writing and, in fact, we wanted to have maximum flexibility for the owner."

Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President may I speak on a point of personal privilege? I had an opportunity to work on this particular section of the legislation to which Senator Rasmussen refers. As Senator Pullen indicated, you can satisfy the obligation by sending something in writing or by communicating orally. I would note that in most 911 systems, it is something that is logged. When somebody makes a phone call on 911, you can indicate name and address and that will be logged in, so with respect to the good faith defense issue, this really comes down to the question of whether there is any liability on the part of the landlord for this particular situation. The landlord will be exonerated from any civil liability so long as the landlord indicates in writing or makes a phone call and is certain to have his or her name logged on the 911 system."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Law and Justice amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1445.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "dwellings;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 59.18.130, 59.18.390, 59.18.400, 59.20.080, 59.20.140, 59.18.180, 69.53.010, and 69.53.020; and creating a new section."

On motion of Senator Pullen, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1445, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1445, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1445, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 49.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1445, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1686, by Representatives Nealey, Fisher, Belcher, Walker, Chandler, Beck, Grant, Silver, Fuhrman, May, Rasmussen, Moyer, Sanders, McLean and Miller

Regulating the use of the state seal.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1686 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McCaslin, it doesn't spell it out in the bill, but does everyone that is using this seal including various Democrats and Republicans have to come in now and file with the Secretary of State for permission?"

Senator McCaslin: "Well, you can't use it in political campaigns, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "No, but they use it for fund raising, etc."

Senator McCaslin: "No, I don't believe that would be the purpose of the bill, but if you're going to use it on literature, etc., or for letters or something of that nature--magazines, pamphlets--I think you should check with the Secretary of State."

Senator Rasmussen: "And that would include Senators that send out Christmas cards with the seal on them?"

Senator McCaslin: "I imagine it would. It's indiscriminate use, but I think he would rule on that if you went and talked to the Secretary of State."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, that was my question. I wanted to know if all the people that are presently using the seal had to go in and file a request with the Secretary of State."

Senator McCaslin: "I don't think so, if it's used in such a way that it wouldn't degrade it in any way. I don't think your letter head and so forth would degrade the seal."

Senator Rasmussen: "Pardon me, Senator McCaslin, the bill says you have to receive permission."

Senator McCaslin: "Well, if you'll pass the bill, I'll call him up and ask him if he'll give you permission. I'll work with you, Slim."

Senator Rasmussen: "And increase the appropriation for his office?"

Senator McCaslin: "I don't think they need any more money."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator McCaslin, this is a question that didn't come to me before, but it suddenly occurred to me as we were looking at this bill. What would be the circumstance where there are existing products and materials, etc. out there now that have the state seal on them, if, in fact, there was a seal on a product or something that was not, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, in good taste or whatever, what would be the status of that person's possession of that seal?"

Senator McCaslin: "I think you would have to discuss it with the Secretary of State. I have a belt buckle with the seal on it and if he tries to take that, he's in trouble—so are my pants. I just don't think he's going to go that far, but I think we all honor the state of Washington and our seal. I think we love it. I think it's a beautiful seal and I think it should be guarded."

Senator Williams: "My question is, there are penalties provided in here and fines and if I disagreed with the Secretary of State in the use of that seal, am I then subject to a penalty if I continue to possess the seal on a product which he disapproves of?"

Senator McCaslin: "If he disapproves of it and it is in violation, you would be subject to a fine."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Bill No. 1686.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1686 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 17; absent, 1.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Deccio, on this amendment--you're adopting all of the amendments in one? On the bottom of the page there, you are saying that the person who's referred to the various places where they want to nurse, must carry their own independent liability insurance?"

Senator Deccio: "That's correct. This amendment's already been adopted, but I'll answer your question. It is correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "Pretty hard to get, isn't it?"

Senator Deccio: "Pardon me--no, not for nurses."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senator Deccio to the Committee on Health Care and Corrections amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1783.

On page 2, line 17, strike "(4))" and insert "(4)"

On page 2, line 20, strike "(((5))) (4)" and insert "(5)"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Barr, would this mean that they are going to dispose of a piece of surplus land? If I bid on it and you bid on it and you're the abutting property owner, would you have to meet my bid?"

Senator Barr: "This bill deals with trades, and whatever negotiation was taking place on this, under this particular bill, then the abutting owner would have some preference. Now, it's that broad. It doesn't say that. It just says that you have some preference. However the department wanted to interpret that use, that's what it means."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Smitherman: "Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I was on the Transportation Committee last year and there was a similar measure to this. I cannot understand why we would want to limit this just to agricultural land. There are many places, for example, in the Twenty-sixth District, where there is highway work being done and there are abutting property owners who would also like to have first choice. I think it should be ubiquitous in its application and not just put to a place like agricultural land. I see no value in that.

"Maybe Senator Barr could clarify for me, or Patterson, why this would be pointed in that direction, when these lands occur everywhere?"

Senator Barr: "Answering the question, if that was a question, Duane Berentson, the Secretary of Transportation, would be the one to answer that, because he felt that in the urban areas or where there is very expensive land, the abutting owners might be very complicated. It's just too complicated, let's say, in Renton or Seattle or Tacoma to be practical to give the abutting owners in those areas, according to the Secretary. Speaking for him on this issue, we agreed to take that out of those urban areas."

Senator Smitherman: "Thank you, if I might continue. I would say that this amendment should be rejected, because it would seem to me that the application of just a small amount of common sense would work very well here. You would talk about the property owner that was not only abutting—if you were talking about multiple property owners, there could be a couple that might be abutting. I suppose you could talk about the propinquity, the geographical nearness of their particular ownership parcel and the amount of that parcel that you would take in consideration who would have first rights. Then, it would fall to the guy who would have second rights and so on. There's nothing that should be that complex about it. It's not one of those types of issues. If this was a departmental request, I suppose that would make sense, but if it was just a conversation with Berentson, I think that's not valid, really."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PATTERSON

Senator Patterson: "Maybe I can shed a little light on the discussion. The bill is intended to allow the Department of Transportation, and it is a departmental request bill, to exchange lands and other improvements when they have surplus lands. In other words, this does not apply only in rural areas. The amendments that Senator Barr has deal only in the exchange of lands that are in the rural areas, but the bill is intended also to provide for other exchanges of land.

"They've had, in recent years, a number of opportunities to obtain lands that are useful for the department and unless we change the current law, they are not allowed to do that. I support the position that has been taken, because the problem with the committee amendment, the first right of refusal went to the former owner of the land. That usually is out in a rural area—not always—but usually would be in an area like that."

Senator Smitherman: "I guess my question would be then, I am really not as familiar with this stuff as I should be, does this preclude this activity from taking place in rural areas, because you've used the term agricultural here or is it just a priority to the agricultural areas? I'm not sure and I guess that's what I'm trying to clarify. Can this still take place—this exchange—can it still take place in urban areas?"

Senator Patterson: "Yes."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senators Barr and Patterson to Substitute House Bill No. 1469.

The motion by Senator Barr carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Patterson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1469, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1523, by Committee on Human Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Leonard, Belcher, Cole, Brekke, Lux, Anderson, Brough, P. King and Valle)

Prohibiting visitation between abusive parent and child.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Kiskaddon moved that the following Committee on Children and Family Services amendment not be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 44, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.10.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A parent not granted custody of the child is entitled to reasonable visitation rights unless the court finds, after a hearing, that visitation would endanger the child's physical, mental, or emotional health. The court may order visitation rights for any person when visitation may serve the best interest of the child whether or not there has been any change of circumstances.

(2)(a) Visitation with the child shall be limited if it is found that the person seeking visitation has engaged in any of the following conduct: (i) Wilful abandonment by the parent that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal by the parent to perform parenting functions; (ii) physical, sexual, or serious ongoing psychological abuse of a child; or (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

(b) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from the physical or serious ongoing psychological harm that could result if the child has contact with the person requesting visitation. If the court expressly finds limitation on visitation with the child will not adequately protect the child from the perceived harm, the court shall restrain the person seeking visitation from all contact with the child.

(c) If the court expressly finds that contact between the person seeking visitation and the child will not cause serious ongoing psychological or physical harm to the child and that the probability that the harmful conduct of the person seeking visitation will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interests to apply the limitations of (a) and (b) of this subsection, the court need not apply the limitations of this subsection. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(3) Any person may petition the court for visitation rights at any time including, but not limited to, custody proceedings.

(4) The court may modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best interests of the child ~~((but the court shall not restrict a parent's visitation rights unless it finds that the visitation would endanger the child's physical, mental, or emotional health))~~ but if the modification is sought due to physical, serious ongoing psychological, or sexual abuse of a child, then the court shall also follow the requirements of this section.

Sec. 2. Section 10, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.09.191 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The permanent parenting plan shall not require mutual decision-making or designation of a dispute resolution process other than court action if it is found that a parent has engaged in any of the following conduct: (a) Wilful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; (b) physical, sexual, or ~~(emotional)~~ serious ongoing psychological abuse of a child; or (c) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) ~~((or an act of domestic violence which rises to the level of a felony))~~ or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

(2)(a) The parent's residential time or other contact with the child shall be limited if it is found that the parent has engaged in any of the following conduct: (((a))) (i) Wilful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; (((b))) (ii) physical, sexual, or ((emotional)) serious ongoing psychological abuse of a child; or (((c))) (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) ((or an act of domestic violence which rises to the level of a felony, unless)) or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

(b) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from the physical or serious ongoing psychological harm that could result if the child has contact with the parent. If the court expressly finds limitation on the residential time or other contact with the child will not adequately protect the child from the perceived harm, the court shall restrain the parent from all contact with the child.

(c) If the court expressly finds that contact between the parent and the child will not cause serious ongoing psychological or physical harm to the child and that the probability that the harmful conduct of the parent will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interests to apply the limitations ((or unless it is shown not to have had an impact on the child)) of (a) and (b) of this subsection, the court need not apply the limitations of this section. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(3) A parent's involvement or conduct may have an adverse effect on the child's best interests, and the court may preclude or limit any provisions of the parenting plan, if any of the following factors exist:

(a) A parent's neglect or substantial nonperformance of parenting functions;

(b) A long-term emotional or physical impairment which interferes with the parent's performance of parenting functions as defined in RCW 26.09.004;

(c) A long-term impairment resulting from drug, alcohol, or other substance abuse that interferes with the performance of parenting functions;

(d) The absence or substantial impairment of emotional ties between the parent and the child;

(e) The abusive use of conflict by the parent which creates the danger of serious damage to the child's psychological development;

(f) A parent has withheld from the other parent access to the child for a protracted period without good cause; or

(g) Such other factors or conduct as the court expressly finds adverse to the best interests of the child.

(4) In entering a permanent parenting plan, the court shall not draw any presumptions from the provisions of the temporary parenting plan.

Sec. 3. Section 24, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 18, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.09.240 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court may order visitation rights for any person when visitation may serve the best interest of the child whether or not there has been any change of circumstances.

(2)(a) Visitation with the child shall be limited if it is found that the person seeking visitation has engaged in any of the following conduct: (i) Wilful abandonment by the parent that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal by the parent to perform parenting functions; (ii) physical, sexual, or serious ongoing psychological abuse of a child; or (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

(b) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from the physical or serious ongoing psychological harm that could result if the child has contact with the person requesting the visitation. If the court expressly finds limitation on visitation with the child will not adequately protect the child from the perceived harm, the court shall restrain the person seeking visitation from all contact with the child.

(c) If the court expressly finds that contact between the person seeking visitation and the child will not cause serious ongoing psychological or physical harm to the child and that the probability that the harmful conduct of the person seeking visitation will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interest to apply the limitations of (a) and (b) of this subsection, the court need not apply the limitations of this subsection. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(3) Any person may petition the court for visitation rights at any time.

(4) The court may modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best interests of the child, but if the modification is sought due to physical, serious ongoing psychological, or sexual abuse of a child, then the court shall also follow the requirements of this section.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 188, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.34.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If, after a fact-finding hearing pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, as now or hereafter amended, it has been proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is dependent within the meaning of RCW 13.34.030(2); after consideration of the predisposition report prepared pursuant to RCW 13.34.110 and after a disposition hearing has been held pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, the court shall enter an order of disposition pursuant to this section.

(1) The court shall order one of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Order a disposition other than removal of the child from his or her home, which shall provide a program designed to alleviate the immediate danger to the child, to mitigate or cure any damage the child has already suffered, and to aid the parents so that the child will not be endangered in the future. In selecting a program, the court should choose those services that least interfere with family autonomy, provided that the services are adequate to protect the child.

(b) Order that the child be removed from his or her home and ordered into the custody, control, and care of a relative or the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency for placement in a foster family home or group care facility licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW or in a home not required to be licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW. Such an order may be made only if the court finds that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home and that:

(i) There is no parent or guardian available to care for such child;

(ii) The child is unwilling to reside in the custody of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian;

(iii) The parent, guardian, or legal custodian is not willing to take custody of the child;

(iv) A manifest danger exists that the child will suffer serious abuse or neglect if the child is not removed from the home; or

(v) The extent of the child's disability is such that the parent, guardian, or legal custodian is unable to provide the necessary care for the child and the parent, guardian, or legal custodian has determined that the child would benefit from placement outside of the home.

(2) Whenever a child is ordered removed from the child's home, the agency charged with his or her care shall provide the court with a specific plan as to where the child will be placed, what steps will be taken to return the child home, and what actions the agency will take to maintain parent-child ties.

(a) The agency plan shall specify what services the parents will be offered in order to enable them to resume custody and what requirements the parents must meet in order to resume custody.

(b) The agency shall be required to encourage the maximum parent-child contact possible, including regular visitation and participation by the parents in the care of the child while the child is in placement subject to the limitations of subsection (3) of this section.

(c) A child shall be placed as close to the child's home as possible, preferably in the child's own neighborhood, unless the court finds that placement at a greater distance is necessary to promote the child's or parents' well-being.

(d) The agency charged with supervising a child in placement shall provide all reasonable services that are available within the agency, or within the community, or those services which the department of social and health services has existing contracts to purchase. It shall report to the court if it is unable to provide such services.

(3)(a) Visitation with the child shall be limited if it is found that the parent has engaged in any of the following conduct: (i) Wilful abandonment by the parent that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal by the parent to perform parenting functions; (ii) physical, sexual, or serious ongoing psychological abuse of a child; or (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

(b) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from the physical or serious ongoing psychological harm that could result if the child has contact with the parent. If the court expressly finds limitation on visitation with the child will not adequately protect the child from the perceived harm, the court shall restrain the parent from all contact with the child.

(c) If the court expressly finds that contact between the parent and the child will not cause serious ongoing psychological or physical harm to the child and that the probability that the harmful conduct of the parent will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interests to apply the limitations of (a) and (b) of this subsection, the court need not apply the limitations of this subsection. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(4) The status of all children found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every six months at a hearing in which it shall be determined whether court supervision should continue.

(a) A child shall not be returned home at the review hearing unless the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in this section no longer exists. The parents, guardian, or legal custodian shall report to the court the efforts they have made to correct the conditions which led to removal. If a child is returned, casework supervision shall continue for a period of six months, at which time there shall be a hearing on the need for continued intervention.

(b) If the child is not returned home, the court shall establish in writing:

(i) Whether reasonable services have been provided to or offered to the parties to facilitate reunion;

(ii) The extent to which the parents have visited the child and any reasons why visitation has not occurred or has been infrequent;

(iii) Whether the agency is satisfied with the cooperation given to it by the parents;

(iv) Whether additional services are needed to facilitate the return of the child to the child's parents; if so, the court shall order that reasonable services be offered; and

(v) When return of the child can be expected.

(c) The court at the review hearing may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed.*

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Kiskaddon to not adopt the Committee on Children and Family Services amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1523.

meaning of RCW 13.34.030(2); after consideration of the predisposition report prepared pursuant to RCW 13.34.110 and after a disposition hearing has been held pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, the court shall enter an order of disposition pursuant to this section.

(1) The court shall order one of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Order a disposition other than removal of the child from his or her home, which shall provide a program designed to alleviate the immediate danger to the child, to mitigate or cure any damage the child has already suffered, and to aid the parents so that the child will not be endangered in the future. In selecting a program, the court should choose those services that least interfere with family autonomy, provided that the services are adequate to protect the child.

(b) Order that the child be removed from his or her home and ordered into the custody, control, and care of a relative or the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency for placement in a foster family home or group care facility licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW or in a home not required to be licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW. Such an order may be made only if the court finds that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home and that:

(i) There is no parent or guardian available to care for such child;

(ii) The child is unwilling to reside in the custody of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian;

(iii) The parent, guardian, or legal custodian is not willing to take custody of the child;

(iv) A manifest danger exists that the child will suffer serious abuse or neglect if the child is not removed from the home; or

(v) The extent of the child's disability is such that the parent, guardian, or legal custodian is unable to provide the necessary care for the child and the parent, guardian, or legal custodian has determined that the child would benefit from placement outside of the home.

(2) Whenever a child is ordered removed from the child's home, the agency charged with his or her care shall provide the court with a specific plan as to where the child will be placed, what steps will be taken to return the child home, and what actions the agency will take to maintain parent-child ties.

(a) The agency plan shall specify what services the parents will be offered in order to enable them to resume custody and what requirements the parents must meet in order to resume custody.

(b) The agency shall be required to encourage the maximum parent-child contact possible, including regular visitation and participation by the parents in the care of the child while the child is in placement subject to the limitations of subsection (3) of this section.

(c) A child shall be placed as close to the child's home as possible, preferably in the child's own neighborhood, unless the court finds that placement at a greater distance is necessary to promote the child's or parents' well-being.

(d) The agency charged with supervising a child in placement shall provide all reasonable services that are available within the agency, or within the community, or those services which the department of social and health services has existing contracts to purchase. It shall report to the court if it is unable to provide such services.

(3)(a) Visitation with the child shall be limited if it is found that the parent has engaged in any of the following conduct: (i) Willful abandonment by the parent that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal by the parent to perform parenting functions; (ii) physical, sexual, or emotional abuse of a child; or (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or an assault or sexual assault that causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

(b) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from the perceived harm. If the court expressly finds limitation on visitation with the child will not adequately protect the child from the perceived harm, the court shall restrain the parent from all contact with the child.

(c) If the court expressly finds that contact between the parent and the child will not cause emotional or physical harm to the child and that the probability that the harmful conduct of the parent will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interests to apply the limitations of (a) and (b) of this subsection, the court need not apply the limitations of this subsection. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(4) The status of all children found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every six months at a hearing in which it shall be determined whether court supervision should continue.

(a) A child shall not be returned home at the review hearing unless the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in this section no longer exists. The parents, guardian, or legal custodian shall report to the court the efforts they have made to correct the conditions which led to removal. If a child is returned, casework supervision shall continue for a period of six months, at which time there shall be a hearing on the need for continued intervention.

(b) If the child is not returned home, the court shall establish in writing:

(i) Whether reasonable services have been provided to or offered to the parties to facilitate reunion;

(ii) The extent to which the parents have visited the child and any reasons why visitation has not occurred or has been infrequent;

(iii) Whether the agency is satisfied with the cooperation given to it by the parents;

(iv) Whether additional services are needed to facilitate the return of the child to the child's parents; if so, the court shall order that reasonable services be offered; and

(c) The court at the review hearing may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 95, Laws of 1986 and RCW 26.09.015 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In any proceeding under this chapter, the matter may be set for mediation of the contested issues before or concurrent with the setting of the matter for hearing. The purpose of the mediation proceeding shall be to reduce acrimony which may exist between the parties and to develop an agreement assuring the child's close and continuing contact with both parents after the marriage is dissolved. The mediator shall use his or her best efforts to effect a settlement of the (~~custody or visitation~~) dispute.

(2) Each superior court may make available a mediator. The mediator may be a member of the professional staff of a family court or mental health services agency, or may be any other person or agency designated by the court. In order to provide mediation services, the court is not required to institute a family court.

(3) Mediation proceedings shall be held in private and shall be confidential. The mediator shall not testify as to any aspect of the mediation proceedings.

(4) The mediator shall assess the needs and interests of the child or children involved in the controversy and may interview the child or children if the mediator deems such interview appropriate or necessary.

(5) Any agreement reached by the parties as a result of mediation shall be reported to the court and to counsel for the parties by the mediator on the day set for mediation or any time thereafter designated by the court.

(1) The nature and extent of the community property;

(2) The nature and extent of the separate property;

(3) The duration of the marriage; and

(4) The economic circumstances of each spouse at the time the division of property is to become effective, including the desirability of awarding the family home or the right to live therein for reasonable periods to a spouse (~~having custody of any children~~) with whom the children reside.

Sec. 5. Section 9, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, declaration of invalidity, or in a proceeding for maintenance following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse, the court may grant a maintenance order for either spouse. The maintenance order shall be in such amounts and for such periods of time as the court deems just, without regard to marital misconduct, after considering all relevant factors including but not limited to:

(4) AGREED PERMANENT PARENTING PLANS. The parents may make an agreed permanent parenting plan.

~~((4))~~ (5) MANDATORY SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE. Where mandatory settlement conferences are provided under court rule, the parents shall attend a mandatory settlement conference. The mandatory settlement conference shall be presided over by a judge or a court commissioner, who shall apply the criteria in RCW 26.09.187 and 26.09.191. The parents shall in good faith review the proposed terms of the parenting plans and any other issues relevant to the cause of action with the presiding judge or court commissioner. Facts and legal issues that are not then in dispute shall be entered as stipulations for purposes of final hearing or trial in the matter.

~~((5))~~ (6) TRIAL SETTING. Trial dates for actions involving minor children brought under this chapter shall receive priority. The final order or decree shall be entered not sooner than ninety days after filing and service.

(e) Minimize the child's exposure to harmful parental conflict;

(f) Encourage the parents, where appropriate under RCW 26.09.187 and 26.09.191, to meet their responsibilities to their dependent children through agreements in the permanent parenting plan, rather than by relying on judicial intervention; and

(g) To otherwise protect the best interests of the child consistent with RCW 26.09.002.

(2) CONTENTS OF THE PERMANENT PARENTING PLAN. The permanent parenting plan shall contain provisions for resolution of future disputes between the parents, allocation of decision-making authority, residential provisions for the child and financial support for the child consistent with the criteria in RCW 26.09.187 and 26.09.191.

(3) DISPUTE RESOLUTION. A process for resolving disputes, other than court action, shall be provided unless precluded or limited by RCW 26.09.187 or 26.09.191. A dispute resolution process may include counseling, mediation, or arbitration by a specified individual or agency, or court action. In ~~((setting forth a))~~ the dispute resolution process ~~((the permanent parenting plan shall state that))~~;

(a) Preference shall be given to carrying out the parenting plan;

(b) The parents shall use the designated process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the plan, except those related to financial support, unless an emergency exists;

(c) A written or electronic record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling or mediation and of each arbitration award and shall be provided to each party;

(d) If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court shall award attorneys' fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent; and

~~((d))~~ (e) The parties have the right of review from the dispute resolution process to the superior court.

(4) ALLOCATION OF DECISION-MAKING AUTHORITY.

(a) The plan shall allocate decision-making authority to one or both parties regarding the children's education, health care, and religious upbringing. The parties may incorporate an agreement related to the care and growth of the child in these specified areas, or in other areas, into their plan, consistent with the criteria in RCW 26.09.187 and 26.09.191. Regardless of the allocation of decision-making in the parenting plan, either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child.

~~(b) ((The plan shall state that:~~

~~(((b)))~~ Each parent may make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the child while the child is residing with that parent~~((;))~~.

~~(((b)))~~ (c) When mutual decision making is designated but cannot be achieved, the parties shall make a good-faith effort to resolve the issue through the dispute resolution process.

(5) RESIDENTIAL PROVISIONS FOR THE CHILD. The plan shall include a residential schedule which designates in which parent's home each dependent child shall reside on given days of the year, including provision for holidays, birthdays of family members, vacations, and other special occasions, consistent with the criteria in RCW 26.09.187 and 26.09.191.

~~(7) ((The plan shall state that))~~ PARENTS' OBLIGATION UNAFFECTED. If a parent fails to comply with a provision of a parenting plan, the other parent's obligations under the parenting plan are not affected.

(8) PROVISIONS TO BE SET FORTH IN PERMANENT PARENTING PLAN. The permanent parenting plan shall set forth the provisions of subsections (3) (a) through (c), (4) (b) and (c), and (7) of this section.

Sec. 8. Section 9, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.09.187 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS. The court shall not order a dispute resolution process, except court action, if any limiting factor under RCW 26.09.191 applies, or if either parent is unable to afford the cost of the proposed dispute resolution process. If a dispute resolution process is not precluded or limited, then in designating such a process the court shall consider all relevant factors, including:

(a) Differences between the parents that would substantially inhibit their effective participation in any designated process;

(b) The parents' wishes or agreements and, if the parents have entered into agreements, whether the agreements were made knowingly and voluntarily; and

(c) Differences in the parents' financial circumstances that may affect their ability to participate fully in a given dispute resolution process.

(2) ALLOCATION OF DECISION-MAKING AUTHORITY.

(a) AGREEMENTS BETWEEN THE PARTIES. The court shall approve agreements of the parties allocating decision-making authority, or specifying rules in the areas listed in RCW 26.09.184(4)(a), where it finds that:

(i) The agreement is consistent with any limitations on a parent's decision-making authority mandated by RCW 26.09.191; and

(ii) The agreement is knowing and voluntary.

(b) SOLE DECISION-MAKING AUTHORITY. The court shall order sole decision-making to one parent when:

(i) A limitation on the other parent's decision-making authority is mandated by RCW 26.09.191;

(ii) Both parents are opposed to mutual decision making;

(iii) One parent is opposed to mutual decision making, and such opposition is reasonable based on the criteria in (c) of this subsection;

(c) MUTUAL DECISION-MAKING AUTHORITY. Except as provided in (a) and (b) of this subsection, the court shall consider the following criteria in allocating decision-making authority:

(i) The existence of a limitation under RCW 26.09.191;

(ii) The history of participation of each parent in decision making in each of the areas in RCW 26.09.184(4)(a);

(iii) Whether the parents have a demonstrated ability and desire to cooperate with one another in decision making in each of the areas in RCW 26.09.184(4)(a); and

(iv) The parents' geographic proximity to one another, to the extent that it affects their ability to make timely mutual decisions.

(3) RESIDENTIAL PROVISIONS.

(a) The court shall make residential provisions for each child which encourage each parent to maintain a loving, stable, and nurturing relationship with the child, consistent with the child's developmental level and the family's social and economic circumstances. The child's residential schedule shall be consistent with RCW 26.09.191. Where the limitations of RCW 26.09.191 are not dispositive of the child's residential schedule, the court shall consider the following factors:

(i) The relative strength, nature, and stability of the child's relationship with each parent, including whether a parent has taken greater responsibility for performing parenting functions relating to the daily needs of the child;

(ii) The agreements of the parties, provided they were entered into knowingly and voluntarily;

(iii) Each parent's past and potential for future performance of parenting functions;

(iv) The emotional needs and developmental level of the child;

(v) The child's relationship with siblings and with other significant adults, as well as the child's involvement with his or her physical surroundings, school, or other significant activities; and

(vi) The wishes of the parents and the wishes of a child who is sufficiently mature to express reasoned and independent preferences as to his or her residential schedule.

Factor (i) shall be given the greatest weight.

(b) The court may order that a child frequently alternate his or her residence between the households of the parents for brief and substantially equal intervals of time only if the court finds the following:

(i) No limitation exists under RCW 26.09.191;

(ii) (A) The parties have agreed to such provisions and the agreement was knowingly and voluntarily entered into; or

(B) The parties have a satisfactory history of cooperation and shared performance of parenting functions; the parties are available to each other, especially in geographic proximity, to the extent necessary to ensure their ability to share performance of the parenting functions; and

(iii) The provisions are in the best interests of the child.

~~((c) One household shall be designated the child's residence solely for purposes of jurisdiction, venue, and child support.))~~

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.09.191 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The permanent parenting plan shall not require mutual decision-making or designation of a dispute resolution process other than court action if it is found that a parent has engaged in any of the following conduct: (a) Wilful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; (b) physical, sexual, or emotional abuse of a child; or (c) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) ~~((or an act of domestic violence which rises to the level of a felony))~~ or felony level assault or sexual assault.

(2)(a) The parent's residential time or other contact with the child shall be limited if it is found that the parent has engaged in any of the following conduct: ~~((a)) (i) Wilful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; ((b)) (ii) physical, sexual, or emotional abuse of a child; or ((c)) (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) ((or an act of domestic violence which rises to the level of a felony, unless)) or felony level assault or sexual assault.~~

(b) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from the perceived harm. If the court expressly finds limitation on the residential time or other contact with the child will not adequately protect the child from the perceived harm, the court shall restrain the parent from all contact with the child.

(c) If the court expressly finds that contact between the parent and the child will not cause emotional or physical harm to the child and that the probability that the harmful conduct of the parent will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interests to apply the limitations ((or unless it is shown not to have had an impact on the child)) of (a) and (b) of this subsection, the court need not apply the limitations of this section. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(3) A parent's involvement or conduct may have an adverse effect on the child's best interests, and the court may preclude or limit any provisions of the parenting plan, if any of the following factors exist:

- (a) A parent's neglect or substantial nonperformance of parenting functions;
- (b) A long-term emotional or physical impairment which interferes with the parent's performance of parenting functions as defined in RCW 26.09.004;
- (c) A long-term impairment resulting from drug, alcohol, or other substance abuse that interferes with the performance of parenting functions;
- (d) The absence or substantial impairment of emotional ties between the parent and the child;
- (e) The abusive use of conflict by the parent which creates the danger of serious damage to the child's psychological development;
- (f) A parent has withheld from the other parent access to the child for a protracted period without good cause; or
- (g) Such other factors or conduct as the court expressly finds adverse to the best interests of the child.

(4) In entering a permanent parenting plan, the court shall not draw any presumptions from the provisions of the temporary parenting plan.

(5) In determining whether any of the conduct described in this section has occurred, the court shall apply the civil rules of evidence, proof, and procedure.

Sec. 10. Section 22, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 16, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.09.220 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((in contested custody proceedings, and in other proceedings if a party so requests;))~~
The court may order an investigation and report concerning parenting arrangements for the child in an action for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity. The investigation and report may be made by the staff of the juvenile court or other professional social service organization experienced in counseling children and families.

(2) In preparing his report concerning a child, the investigator may consult any person who may have information about the child and the potential parenting or custodian arrangements. Upon order of the court, the investigator may refer the child to professional personnel for diagnosis. The investigator may consult with and obtain information from medical, psychiatric, or other expert persons who have served the child in the past without obtaining the consent of the parent or the child's custodian; but the child's consent must be obtained if he has reached the age of twelve, unless the court finds that the child lacks mental capacity to consent. If the requirements of subsection (3) of this section are fulfilled, the investigator's report may be received in evidence at the hearing.

(3) The court shall mail the investigator's report to counsel and to any party not represented by counsel at least ten days prior to the hearing unless a shorter time is ordered by the court for good cause shown. The investigator shall make available to counsel and to any party not represented by counsel the investigator's file of underlying data and reports, complete texts of diagnostic reports made to the investigator pursuant to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, and the names and addresses of all persons whom the investigator has consulted. Any party to the proceeding may call the investigator and any person whom he has consulted for cross-examination. A party may not waive the right of cross-examination prior to the hearing.

Sec. 11. Section 24, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 18, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.09.240 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court may order visitation rights for any person when visitation may serve the best interest of the child whether or not there has been any change of circumstances.

(2)(a) Visitation with the child shall be limited if it is found that the person seeking visitation has engaged in any of the following conduct: (i) Willful abandonment by the parent that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal by the parent to perform parenting functions; (ii) physical, sexual, or emotional abuse of a child; or (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or felony level assault or sexual assault.

(b) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from the perceived harm. If the court expressly finds limitation on visitation with the child will not adequately protect the child from the perceived harm, the court shall restrain the person seeking visitation from all contact with the child.

(c) If the court expressly finds that contact between the person seeking visitation and the child will not cause emotional or physical harm to the child and that the probability that the harmful conduct of the person seeking visitation will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interest to apply the limitations of (a) and (b) of this subsection, the court need not apply the limitations of this subsection. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(3) Any person may petition the court for visitation rights at any time.

(4) The court may modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best interests of the child, but if the modification is sought due to physical, emotional, or sexual abuse of a child, then the court shall also follow the requirements of this section.

Sec. 12. Section 26, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 19, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.09.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the court shall not modify a prior custody decree or a parenting plan unless it finds, upon the basis of facts that have arisen since the prior decree or plan or that were unknown to the court at the time of the prior decree or plan, that a substantial change has occurred in the circumstances of the child or the ((parents)) nonmoving party and that the modification is necessary to serve the best interests of the child. In applying these standards, the court shall retain the residential schedule established by the decree or parenting plan unless:

(a) The parents agree to the modification;

(b) The child has been integrated into the family of the petitioner with the consent of the other parent in substantial deviation from the parenting plan; or

(c) The child's present environment is detrimental to the child's physical, mental, or emotional health and the harm likely to be caused by a change of environment is outweighed by the advantage of a change to the child.

(2) The court may order adjustments to the permanent parenting plan without requiring a threshold hearing or a showing of a substantial change in circumstances if the proposed modification is:

(a) A change in the dispute resolution process; or

(b) A minor change in the residential schedule that:

(i) Does not change the residence the child resides in the majority of the time;

(ii) Does not exceed twenty-four full days in a calendar year; and

(iii) Does not exceed five full days in a calendar month.

(3) If the court finds that a motion to modify a prior decree or parenting plan has been brought in bad faith, the court shall assess the attorney's fees and court costs of the nonmoving parent against the moving party.

Sec. 13. Section 27, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.270 are each amended to read as follows:

A party seeking a temporary custody order or a temporary parenting plan or modification of a custody decree or parenting plan shall submit together with his motion, an affidavit setting forth facts supporting the requested order or modification and shall give notice, together with a copy of his affidavit, to other parties to the proceedings, who may file opposing affidavits. The court shall deny the motion unless it finds that adequate cause for hearing the motion is established by the affidavits, in which case it shall set a date for hearing on an order to show cause why the requested order or modification should not be granted.

Sec. 14. Section 21, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.09.285 are each amended to read as follows:

Solely for the purposes of all other state and federal statutes which require a designation or determination of custody, ~~((the court))~~ a parenting plan shall designate ~~((in a parenting plan one parent))~~ the parent with whom the child resides a majority of the time as the custodian of the child. However, this designation shall not affect either parent's rights and responsibilities under the parenting plan. In the absence of such a designation, the parent with whom the child resides the majority of the time shall be deemed to be the custodian of the child for the purposes of such federal and state statutes.

Sec. 15. Section 23, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.09.907 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the repeals of prior laws, actions which were properly and validly pending in the superior courts of this state as of January 1, 1988, shall not be governed ~~((and may be pursued to conclusion under the provisions of law applicable thereto at the time of commencement of such action and all decrees and orders heretofore or hereafter in all other respects regularly entered in such proceedings are declared valid))~~ by chapter 460, Laws of 1987 but shall be governed by the provisions of law in effect on December 31, 1987.

Sec. 16. Section 28, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.10.040 are each amended to read as follows:

In entering an order under this chapter, the court shall consider, approve, or make provision for:

(1) Child custody, visitation, and the support of any child entitled to support;

(2) The allocation of the children as a federal tax exemption; and

(3) Any necessary continuing restraining orders.

Sec. 17. Section 30, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.10.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In entering or modifying a custody order under this chapter, the court shall require either or both parents to maintain or provide health insurance coverage for any dependent child if the following conditions are met:

(1) Health insurance that can be extended to cover the child is available to that parent through an employer or other organization; and

(2) The employer or other organization offering health insurance will contribute all or a part of the premium for coverage of the child.

A parent who is required to extend insurance coverage to a child under this section is liable for any covered health care costs for which the parent receives direct payment from an insurer.

This section shall not be construed to limit the authority of the court to enter or modify support orders containing provisions for payment of medical expenses, medical costs, or insurance premiums which are in addition to and not inconsistent with this section. "Health insurance" as used in this section does not include medical assistance provided under chapter 74.09 RCW.

Sec. 18. Section 31, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.10.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The court may appoint an attorney to represent the interests of a minor or dependent child with respect to custody, support, and visitation. The court shall enter an order for costs, fees, and disbursements in favor of the child's attorney. The order shall be made against ~~((either or both parents))~~ any or all parties, except that, if ~~((both))~~ all parties are indigent, the costs, fees, and disbursements shall be borne by the county.

Sec. 19. Section 44, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.10.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A parent not granted custody of the child is entitled to reasonable visitation rights unless the court finds, after a hearing, that visitation would endanger the child's physical, mental, or emotional health. The court may order visitation rights for any person when visitation may serve the best interest of the child whether or not there has been any change of circumstances.

(2)(a) Visitation with the child shall be limited if it is found that the person seeking visitation has engaged in any of the following conduct: (i) Willful abandonment by the parent that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal by the parent to perform parenting functions; (ii) physical, sexual, or emotional abuse of a child; or (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or felony level assault or sexual assault.

(b) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from the perceived harm. If the court expressly finds limitation on visitation with the child will not adequately protect the child from the perceived harm, the court shall restrain the person seeking visitation from all contact with the child.

(c) If the court expressly finds that contact between the person seeking visitation and the child will not cause emotional or physical harm to the child and that the probability that the harmful conduct of the person seeking visitation will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interests to apply the limitations of (a) and (b) of this subsection, the court need not apply the limitations of this subsection. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(3) Any person may petition the court for visitation rights at any time including, but not limited to, custody proceedings.

(4) The court may modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best interests of the child but ~~((the court shall not restrict a parent's visitation rights unless it finds that the visitation would endanger the child's physical, mental, or emotional health))~~ if the modification is sought due to physical, emotional, or sexual abuse of a child, then the court shall also follow the requirements of this section.

Sec. 20. Section 46, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.10.180 are each amended to read as follows:

A relative, as defined in RCW 9A.40.010, may bring civil action against any other relative who, with intent to deny access to a child by another relative of the child who has a right to physical custody of or visitation with the child, takes, entices, or conceals the child from that relative. The plaintiff may be awarded, in addition to any damages awarded by the court, the reasonable expenses incurred by the plaintiff in locating the child, including, but not limited to, investigative services and reasonable attorneys' fees.

Sec. 21. Section 14, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 56, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.26.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The judgment and order of the court determining the existence or nonexistence of the parent and child relationship shall be determinative for all purposes.

(2) If the judgment and order of the court is at variance with the child's birth certificate, the court shall order that an amended birth certificate be issued.

(3) The judgment and order shall contain other appropriate provisions directed to the appropriate parties to the proceeding, concerning the duty of current and future support, the extent of any liability for past support furnished to the child if that issue is before the court, ~~((the custody and guardianship of the child, visitation privileges with the child,))~~ the furnishing of bond or other security for the payment of the judgment, or any other matter in the best interest of the child. The judgment and order may direct the father to pay the reasonable expenses of the mother's pregnancy and confinement.

(4) Support judgment and orders shall be for periodic payments which may vary in amount. The court may limit the father's liability for the past support to the child to the proportion of the expenses already incurred as the court deems just: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That the court shall not limit or affect in any manner the right of nonparties including the state of Washington to seek reimbursement for support and other services previously furnished to the child.

(5) In determining the amount to be paid by a parent for support of the child and the period during which the duty of support is owed, the court shall consider all relevant facts, including, but not limited to:

- (a) The needs of the child;
- (b) The standard of living and circumstances of the parents;
- (c) The relative financial means of the parents;
- (d) The earning ability of the parents;
- (e) The need and capacity of the child for education, including higher education;

(6) On the same basis as provided in chapter 26.09 RCW, the court shall make residential provisions with regard to minor children of the parties, except that a parenting plan shall not be required unless requested by a party.

(7) In any dispute between the natural parents of a child and a person or persons who have (a) commenced adoption proceedings or who have been granted an order of adoption, and (b) pursuant to a court order, or placement by the department of social and health services or by a licensed agency, have had actual custody of the child for a period of one year or more before court action is commenced by the natural parent or parents, the court shall consider the best welfare and interests of the child, including the child's need for situation stability, in determining the matter of custody, and the parent or person who is more fit shall have the superior right to custody.

Sec. 22. Section 47, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.10.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court shall not modify a prior custody ((~~order~~) ~~decree~~) unless it finds, upon the basis of facts that have arisen since the prior ((~~order~~) ~~decree~~) or that were unknown to the court at the time of the prior ((~~order~~) ~~decree~~), that a change has occurred in the circumstances of the child or the custodian and that the modification is necessary to serve the best interests of the child. In applying these standards, the court shall retain the custodian established by the prior ((~~order~~) ~~decree~~) unless:

- (a) The custodian agrees to the modification;
- (b) The child has been integrated into the family of the petitioner with the consent of the custodian; or
- (c) The child's present environment is detrimental to his or her physical, mental, or emotional health and the harm likely to be caused by a change of environment is outweighed by the advantage of a change to the child.

(2) If the court finds that a motion to modify a prior custody ((~~order~~) ~~decree~~) has been brought in bad faith, the court shall assess the attorney's fees and court costs of the custodian against the petitioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 26.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In a proceeding under this chapter either party may file a motion for temporary support of children entitled to support. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amount requested.

(2) In a proceeding under this chapter either party may file a motion for a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, providing relief proper in the circumstances, and restraining or enjoining any person from:

(a) Transferring, removing, encumbering, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and, if so restrained or enjoined, requiring him to notify the moving party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures made after the order is issued;

(b) Molesting or disturbing the peace of the other party or of any child and, upon a showing by clear and convincing evidence that the party so restrained or enjoined has used or displayed or threatened to use a deadly weapon as defined in RCW 9A.04.110 in an act of violence or has previously committed acts of domestic violence and is likely to use or display or threaten to use a deadly weapon in an act of domestic violence, requiring the party to surrender any deadly weapon in his immediate possession or control or subject to his immediate possession or control to the sheriff of the county having jurisdiction of the proceeding or to the restrained or enjoined party's counsel or to any person designated by the court. The court may order temporary surrender of deadly weapons without notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for response has elapsed:

(c) Entering the family home or the home of the other party upon a showing of the necessity therefor;

(d) Removing a child from the jurisdiction of the court.

(3) The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

(4) The court may issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction and an order for temporary support in such amounts and on such terms as are just and proper in the circumstances.

(5) Restraining orders issued under this section restraining the person from molesting or disturbing another party or from entering a party's home shall bear the legend: VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER WITH ACTUAL NOTICE OF ITS TERMS IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE UNDER CHAPTER 26.10 RCW AND WILL SUBJECT A VIOLATOR TO ARREST.

(6) The court may order that any temporary restraining order granted under this section be forwarded by the clerk of the court on or before the next judicial day to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the order. Upon receipt of the order, the law enforcement agency shall forthwith enter the order for one year into any computer-based criminal intelligence information system available in this state used by law enforcement agencies to list outstanding warrants. Entry into the law enforcement information system constitutes notice to all law enforcement agencies of the existence of the order. The order is fully enforceable in any county in the state.

(7) A temporary order, temporary restraining order, or preliminary injunction:

(a) Does not prejudice the rights of a party or any child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding;

(b) May be revoked or modified;

(c) Terminates when the final order is entered or when the motion is dismissed;

(d) May be entered in a proceeding for the modification of an existing order.

Notice of the proceeding shall be served upon the office of support enforcement personally, or by certified mail, and shall be given no fewer than thirty days before the date of the final proceeding. An original copy of the notice shall be filed with the court either before service or within a reasonable time thereafter. The office of support enforcement may present its claim, and thereby preserve the support debt, by filing an affidavit setting forth the amount of the debt with the court, and by mailing a copy of the affidavit to the parties or their attorney before the date of the final proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 26.26 RCW to read as follows:

Solely for the purposes of all other state and federal statutes that require a designation or determination of custody, the court shall designate the parent with whom the child resides a majority of the time as the custodian of the child. However, this designation does not affect either parent's rights and responsibilities under the residential schedule or this chapter. In the absence of such a designation, the parent with whom the child resides the majority of the time is deemed to be the custodian of the child for the purposes of such federal and state statutes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A new section is added to chapter 26.50 RCW to read as follows:

Solely for the purposes of all other state and federal statutes that require a designation or determination of custody, the court shall designate the parent with whom the child resides a majority of the time as the custodian of the child. However, this designation does not affect either parent's rights and responsibilities under the residential schedule or this chapter. In the absence of such a designation, the parent with whom the child resides the majority of the time is deemed to be the custodian of the child for the purposes of such federal and state statutes.

(2) Maintenance payments, when ordered in an action where there is no dependent child, may be ordered to be paid to the person entitled to receive the payments, or the clerk of the court as trustee for remittance to the persons entitled to receive the payments.

(3) If support payments, under orders entered before January 1, 1988, or if maintenance payments, as provided in subsection (2) of this section, are made to the clerk of court, the clerk:

(a) Shall maintain records listing the amount of payments, the date when payments are required to be made, and the names and addresses of the parties affected by the order(:

(3));

(b) May by local court rule accept only certified funds or cash as payment ~~((in all cases; the clerk)); and~~

Sec. 27. Section 3, chapter 263, Laws of 1984 as last amended by section 1, chapter 71, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.50.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person may seek relief under this chapter by filing a petition with a court alleging that the person has been the victim of domestic violence committed by the respondent. The person may petition for relief on behalf of himself or herself and on behalf of minor family or household members.

(2) The courts defined in RCW 26.50.010(3) have jurisdiction over proceedings under this chapter. The jurisdiction of district and municipal courts under this chapter shall be limited to enforcement of RCW 26.50.110(1), or the equivalent municipal ordinance, and the issuance and enforcement of temporary orders for protection provided for in RCW 26.50.070 if: (a) A superior court has exercised or is exercising jurisdiction over a proceeding under this title or chapter 13.34 RCW involving the parties; (b) the petition for relief under this chapter presents ~~((a child custody or visitation issue))~~ issues of residential schedule of and contact with children of the parties; or (c) the petition for relief under this chapter requests the court to exclude a party from the dwelling which the parties share. When the jurisdiction of a district or municipal court is limited to the issuance and enforcement of a temporary order, the district or municipal court shall set the full hearing provided for in RCW 26.50.050 in superior court and transfer the case. If the notice and order are not served on the respondent in time for the full hearing, the issuing court shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior court to extend the order for protection.

(3) An action under this chapter shall be filed in the county or the municipality where the petitioner resides, unless the petitioner has left the residence or household to avoid abuse. In that case, the petitioner may bring an action in the county or municipality of the previous or the new household or residence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I want to raise a point of order that the proposed amendment is beyond the scope of the bill. It's been indicated here that it's incorporating another bill and it has a new proposal in here--emotional views--and has several sections that are changing the parenting act or purporting to change it. I think it's beyond the scope of the bill. A large amendment like this should have been considered in the committee rather than just come out here on the floor. I urge the President to rule on the scope."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1523 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1389, by Committee on Ways and Means/Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Nutley, J. Williams, Leonard, Sanders, Wineberry, Heavey, Anderson, Jacobsen, Valle, Nelson, Todd, Lux, Unsoeld and Ferguson)

Creating the emergency food and shelter program revolving account.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDonald, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 11, strike "three" and insert "five"

On page 1, line 12, strike "November" and insert "October"

On page 1, line 27, after "needy" strike all material through "1989" on line 28

MOTION

Senator Lee moved that the following amendment be adopted.

On page 2, after line 33, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The health of our state's economy requires the promotion of entrepreneurship and new enterprise development as well as the retention of existing jobs. Encouraging families who are recipients of aid to families with dependent children to become self-sufficient through self-employment will improve the lives of citizens in this state. Self-sufficiency among the homeless and other recipients of public assistance should also be encouraged. The legislature further finds that the lack of affordable housing has become a growing problem for lower-income households, including those who receive AFDC funds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 74.12 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary of social and health services shall seek an exception to federal law under the waiver authorities set forth in the federal social security act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 301 et seq., for the purposes of allowing recipients of aid to families with dependent children to become self-employed in a manner that will lead to economic independence. The application for waivers shall be sought by October 1, 1988.

If the waivers are obtained, the department shall adopt rules that allow a recipient to separate business assets from personal assets during a start-up period not exceeding two years. The rules shall provide for evaluation of business progress during the start-up period and, if it appears to the department that sufficient income exists to provide an adequate income to replace the aid to families with dependent children, the recipient has the burden of showing why the recipient is not ready to terminate the aid prior to the expiration of the start-up period.

Any program operated under this section shall be operated in cooperation with any demonstration project on self-entrepreneurship operated by the employment security department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of community development.

(2) "Director" means the director of community development.

(3) "Task force" means the governor's task force on homelessness.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Nelson: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I would challenge this amendment on its scope and object, reluctantly. The situation is that the original measure deals with the Federal Emergency Management Agency's food and shelter program--loans of federal money to help real needy individuals in some parts of our state. Whereas, the amendment is actually a program to supplement the Family Independence Program by establishing waivers for recipients of Aid to Families with Dependent Children and to permit people to become more independent in our society. It also creates a task force on the homeless and in addition it creates a program that is essentially being coordinated between the Department of Economic Development and the Employment Security Department.

"In summary, the measure has an appropriation of fifty thousand dollars, which I think would, by its nature alone, require the measure to go to Ways and Means again. I would suggest that this amendment is beyond the scope and object. I think we'll probably just have to handle this as a separate vehicle."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1389 was deferred.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 692 and the pending Committee on Law and Justice amendment on page 4, after line 12, deferred March 2, 1988.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Niemi, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 692 is a measure which declares buildings where illegal narcotics are manufactured, delivered, possessed, ingested, inhaled, injected or consumed to be moral nuisances.

"The amendment proposed by the Senate Committee on Law and Justice authorizes, with the consent of one party, the interception, transmission and recording of certain conversations involving illegal drug transactions.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed committee amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The Committee on Law and Justice amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 692 was ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment be adopted:

On page 4, after line 12, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Every building or unit within a building used for the purpose of unlawfully manufacturing, delivering, selling, storing, or giving away any controlled substance as defined in chapter 69.50 RCW, legend drug as defined in chapter 69.41 RCW, or imitation controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.52 RCW, and every building or unit within a building wherein or upon which such acts take place, is a nuisance which shall be enjoined, abated, and prevented, whether it is a public or private nuisance.

(2) As used in this chapter, "building" includes, but is not limited to, any structure or any separate part or portion thereof, whether permanent or not, or the ground itself.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The action provided for in section 4 of this act shall be brought in the superior court in the county in which the property is located. Such action shall be commenced by the filing of a complaint alleging the facts constituting the nuisance.

Any complaint filed under this chapter shall be verified or accompanied by affidavit. For purposes of showing that the owner or his or her agent has had an opportunity to abate the nuisance, the affidavit shall contain a description of all attempts by the applicant to notify and locate the owner of the property or the owner's agent.

In addition, the affidavit shall describe in detail the adverse impact associated with the property on the surrounding neighborhood. "Adverse impact" includes, but is not limited to, the following: Any search warrants served on the property where controlled substances were seized; investigative purchases of controlled substances on or near the property by law enforcement or their agents; arrests of persons who frequent the property for violation of controlled substances laws; increased volume of traffic associated with the property; and the number of complaints made to law enforcement of illegal activity associated with the property.

After filing the complaint, the court shall grant a hearing within three business days after the filing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Upon application for a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, the court may, upon a showing of good cause, issue an ex parte restraining order or preliminary injunction, preventing the defendant and all other persons from removing or in any manner interfering with the personal property and contents of the place where the nuisance is alleged to exist and may grant such preliminary equitable relief as is necessary to prevent the continuance or recurrence of the nuisance pending final resolution of the matter on the merits. However, pending the decision, the stock in trade may not be so restrained, but an inventory and full accounting of all business transactions may be required.

The restraining order or preliminary injunction may be served by handing to and leaving a copy with any person in charge of the place or residing in the place, or by posting a copy in a conspicuous place at or upon one or more of the principal doors or entrances to the place, or by both delivery and posting. The officer serving the order or injunction shall forthwith make and return into court an inventory of the personal property and contents situated in and used in conducting or maintaining the nuisance.

Any violation of the order or injunction is a contempt of court, and where such order or injunction is posted, mutilation or removal thereof while the same remains in force is a contempt of court if such posted order or injunction contains a notice to that effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction shall not issue under this chapter except upon the giving of a bond or security by the applicant, in the sum that the court deems proper, but not less than one thousand dollars, for the payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is found to have been wrongfully restrained or enjoined. A bond or security shall not be required of the state of Washington, municipal corporations, or political subdivisions of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. An action under this chapter shall have precedence over all other actions, except prior matters of the same character, criminal proceedings, election contests, hearings on temporary restraining orders and injunctions, and actions to forfeit vehicles used in violation of the uniform controlled substances act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) If the complaint under this chapter is filed by a citizen, the complaint shall not be dismissed by the citizen for want of prosecution except upon a sworn statement made by the citizen and the citizen's attorney, if the citizen has one. The statement shall set forth the reasons why the action should be dismissed. The case shall only be dismissed if so ordered by the court.

(2) In case of failure to prosecute the action with reasonable diligence, or at the request of the plaintiff, the court, in its discretion, may substitute any other citizen consenting to be substituted for the plaintiff.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A copy of the complaint, together with a notice of the time and place of the hearing of the action shall be served upon the defendant at least one business day before the hearing. Service may also be made by posting the papers in the same manner as is provided for in section 6 of this act. If the hearing is then continued at the request of any defendant, all temporary orders and injunctions shall be extended as a matter of course.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, if the existence of the nuisance is established in the action, an order of abatement shall be entered as part of the final judgment in the case. Plaintiff's costs in the action, including those of abatement, are a lien upon the building or unit within a building. The lien is enforceable and collectible by execution issued by order of the court.

(2) If the court finds and concludes that the owner of the building or unit within a building:

(a) Had no knowledge of the existence of the nuisance or has been making reasonable efforts to abate the nuisance, (b) has not been guilty of any contempt of court in the proceedings, and (c) will immediately abate any such nuisance that may exist at the building or unit within a building and prevent it from being a nuisance within a period of one year thereafter, the court shall, if satisfied of the owner's good faith, order the building or unit within a building to be delivered to the owner, and no order of abatement shall be entered. If an order of abatement has been entered and the owner subsequently meets the requirements of this subsection, the order of abatement shall be canceled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Any final order of abatement issued under this chapter shall:

(1) Direct the removal of all personal property subject to seizure and forfeiture pursuant to RCW 69.50.505 from the building or unit within a building, and direct their disposition pursuant to the forfeiture provisions of RCW 69.50.505;

(2) Provide for the immediate closure of the building or unit within a building against its use for any purpose, and for keeping it closed for a period of one year unless released sooner as provided in this chapter; and

(3) State that while the order of abatement remains in effect the building or unit within a building shall remain in the custody of the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. In all actions brought under this chapter, the proceeds and all moneys forfeited pursuant to the forfeiture provisions of RCW 69.50.505 shall be applied as follows:

(1) First, to the fees and costs of the removal and sale;

(2) Second, to the allowances and costs of closing and keeping closed the building or unit within a building;

(3) Third, to the payment of the plaintiff's costs in the action; and

(4) Fourth, the balance, if any, to the owner of the property.

If the proceeds of the sale of items subject to seizure and forfeiture do not fully discharge all of the costs, fees, and allowances, the building or unit within a building shall then also be sold under execution issued upon the order of the court, and the proceeds of the sale shall be applied in a like manner.

A building or unit within a building shall not be sold under this section unless the court finds and concludes by clear and convincing evidence that the owner of the building or unit within a building had actual or constructive knowledge or notice of the existence of the nuisance. However, this shall not be construed as limiting or prohibiting the entry of any final order of abatement as provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. An intentional violation of a restraining order, preliminary injunction, or order of abatement under this chapter is punishable as a contempt of court by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars which may not be waived, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Whenever the owner of a building or unit within a building upon which the act or acts constituting the contempt have been committed, or the owner of any interest in the building or unit has been guilty of a contempt of court, and fined in any proceedings under this chapter, the fine is a lien upon the building or unit within a building to the extent of the owner's interest. The lien is enforceable and collectible by execution issued by order of the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The abatement of a nuisance under this chapter does not prejudice the right of any person to recover damages for its past existence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 4 through 16 of this act are each added to chapter 7.48 RCW."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

March 5, 1988

Mr. President:

The House concurred in the Senate amendments to HOUSE BILL NO. 1951 and passed the bill as amended by the Senate.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore advanced the Senate to the sixth order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1745 and the pending amendment by Senator Craswell on page 2, following line 6, deferred earlier today.

The President Pro Tempore read the following ruling which was made by President Cherberg:

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Fleming, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1745 is a measure specifying when school district directors officially start their terms and, with the adoption of the Owen amendment, establishes procedures for certain school districts to dissolve their director districts and elect their directors at large.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Craswell provides for the option to elect school district directors by director districts.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senator Craswell was ruled in order.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, a point of order. I would raise the issue of scope and object of these amendments. This is a bill dealing with state funded health care and state employees insurance benefits. It deals with the policy of how those benefits will be dealt with and how exactly it will go through. It's a new agency that is being created. These amendments are a portion of an uncodified bill—the budget bill—that would be added on to it. They add on an appropriation which the original authors of the bill did not envision. The only reference to an appropriation in this bill falls on page 21, lines 7 through 14, which deals with the administration of the office only. They are clearly outside of the intent of the authors to have attached the appropriations for this benefit and clearly the intent was to put it in the budget bill. Therefore, I would submit to you, that they are outside of the scope and object of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 was deferred.

Vice President Pro Tempore Craswell assumed the Chair.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1340, by Committee on Environmental Affairs (originally sponsored by Representatives Rust, Walker, Valle, Ferguson, Unsoeld, Brekke, Sprenkle, Holland, P. King, May, Pruitt, Lux, Spanel and Todd)

Creating an office of waste reduction.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Metcalf moved that the following Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that land disposal and incineration of solid and hazardous waste can be both harmful to the environment and costly to those who must dispose of the waste. In order to address this problem in the most cost-effective and environmentally sound manner, and to implement the highest waste management priority as articulated in RCW 70.95.010 and 70.105.150, public and private efforts should focus on reducing the generation of waste. Waste reduction can be achieved by encouraging voluntary efforts to redesign industrial, commercial, production, and other processes to result in the reduction or elimination of waste byproducts and to maximize the in-process reuse or reclamation of valuable spent material.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

- (1) "Department" means the department of ecology.
- (2) "Director" means the director of the department of ecology or the director's designee.
- (3) "Office" means the office of waste reduction.
- (4) "Process" means all industrial, commercial, production, and other processes that result in the generation of waste.
- (5) "Waste" means any solid waste as defined under RCW 70.95.030, any hazardous waste as defined under RCW 70.105.010(15), any hazardous substance as defined under RCW 70.105.010(14), any air contaminant as defined under RCW 70.94.030, and any organic or inorganic matter that shall cause or tend to cause water pollution as defined under RCW 90.48.020.
- (6) "Waste generator" means any individual, business, government agency, or any other organization that generates waste.
- (7) "Waste reduction" means all in-plant practices that reduce, avoid, or eliminate the amount or toxicity of waste generated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) There is established in the department an office of waste reduction. The office shall use its authorities to encourage the voluntary reduction of waste by waste generators. The office shall prepare and submit a quarterly progress report to the director and the director shall submit an annual progress report to the appropriate environmental standing committees of the legislature beginning December 31, 1988.

(2) The office shall be the coordinating center for all state agency programs that provide technical assistance to waste generators and shall serve as the state's lead agency and promoter for such programs. In addition to this coordinating function, the office shall encourage waste reduction by:

- (a) Providing for the rendering of advice and consultation to waste generators on waste reduction techniques;
- (b) Sponsoring or co-sponsoring with public or private organizations technical workshops and seminars on waste reduction;
- (c) Administering a waste reduction data base and hotline providing comprehensive referral services to waste generators;
- (d) Administering a waste reduction research and development program;
- (e) Coordinating a waste reduction public education program that includes the utilization of existing publications from public and private sources, as well as publishing necessary new materials on waste reduction; and
- (f) Recommending to institutions of higher education in the state courses and curricula in areas related to waste reduction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The office shall establish a waste reduction consultation program to be coordinated with other state waste reduction consultation programs.

(2) The director may grant a request by any waste generator for advice and consultation on waste reduction techniques. Pursuant to a request, the director may visit any business, governmental entity, or other process site in the state for the purposes of observing the waste-generating process, obtaining information relevant to waste reduction, rendering advice, and making recommendations. No such visit may be regarded as an inspection or investigation, and no notices or citations may be issued, or civil penalty be assessed, upon such a visit. No representative of the director designated to render advisory or consultative services may have any enforcement authority.

(3) Consultation and advice given under this section shall be limited to the matters specified in the request and shall include specific techniques of waste reduction tailored to the relevant process. In granting any request for advisory or consultative services, the director may provide for an alternative means of affording consultation and advice other than on-site consultation.

(4) Any proprietary information obtained by the director while carrying out the duties required under this section shall remain confidential and shall not become part of the data base established under section 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The office, in coordination with all other state waste reduction technical assistance programs, shall sponsor technical workshops and seminars on waste reduction techniques that have been successfully used to eliminate or reduce substantially the amount of waste or toxicity of hazardous waste generated, or that use in-process reclamation or reuse of spent material.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The office shall establish a state-wide waste reduction hotline with the capacity to refer waste generators and the public to sources of information on specific waste reduction techniques and procedures. The hotline shall coordinate with all other state waste hotlines.

(2) The director shall work with the state library to establish a data base system that shall include proven waste reduction techniques and case studies of effective waste reduction. The data base system shall be: (a) Coordinated with all other state agency data bases on waste reduction; (b) administered in conjunction with the state-wide waste reduction hotline; and (c) readily accessible to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The office may administer a waste reduction research and development program. The director may contract with any public or private organization for the purpose of developing methods and technologies that achieve waste reduction. All research performed and all methods or technologies developed as a result of a contract entered into under this section shall become the property of the state and shall be incorporated into the data base system established under section 6 of this act.

(2) Any contract entered into under this section shall be awarded only after requests for proposals have been circulated to persons, firms, or organizations who have requested that their names be placed on a proposal list. The director shall establish a proposal list and shall review and evaluate all proposals received.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The director may solicit and accept gifts, grants, conveyances, bequests, and devises, in trust or otherwise, to be directed to the office of waste reduction.

(2) The director may enter into contracts with any public or private organization to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW."

The Vice President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendment, as amended, to Substitute House Bill No. 1340.

The motion by Senator Metcalf carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Benitz moved that the following amendment by Senators Benitz and Smitherman be adopted:

On page 1, line 21, after "benefited" insert ". Any financing authorized by this article shall only be used for conservation purposes in existing structures and shall not be used for any purpose which results in a conversion from one energy source to another"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Benitz, in the event I had an old antique gas system and I was going to convert to electricity, it would seem that the wording here would prevent that."

Senator Benitz: "No, I don't really think so. If it's agreed to, you can do it, but you can't do it by condemning it."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, this doesn't say anything about condemning it here."

Senator Benitz: "It says, 'Shall not be used for any purpose which results in a conversion from one energy source to another.' It doesn't prevent it from happening if both parties would agree."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Benitz. Members of the Senate, take a good look at this writing of a provision like this into the Constitution. The old constitutional amendment that ran for ten years did not have this provision in it. I really don't see any reason for putting a provision like this in the Constitution."

"As Senator Benitz said, 'You can do it if you agree to it.' Why do we need this in the Constitution which will prevent the utilities from helping anyone that wants to convert? I think it's a bad amendment and should not be adopted. The previous constitutional amendment that this is supplanting—the new one—worked very well. There hasn't been any objection to it as far as I know. I would object to adopting an amendment like this that will just foul up the whole process. I urge you to vote 'no' on the amendment."

Further debate ensued.

The Vice President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Benitz and Smitherman to House Joint Resolution No. 4223.

The motion by Senator Benitz carried and the amendment was adopted.

Gaspard, Vognild, Fleming, Conner, Niemi, Moore, Talmadge, Garrett, DeJarnatt, Wojahn, Bauer and Rasmussen on page 20, after line 11, and page 21, line 16, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator McDonald, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 is a measure which abolishes the state employees insurance board and establishes the Washington State Health Care Authority to administer a health care benefit plan for employees. The measure also creates a benefits board within the authority to design and approve insurance benefit plans; requires reports to the Legislature; permits school districts to contract with the authority after July 1, 1990, or to self-insure; and appropriates funds from the state employees insurance administrative account to the Office of the Governor to carry out the provisions of the Act.

"The amendments proposed by Senator Kreidler and others amend the 1987-1989 biennial appropriations budget by appropriating funds to the Governor for increased state contributions for insurance benefits for state employees.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by Senators Kreidler, Gaspard, Vognild, Fleming, Conner, Niemi, Moore, Talmadge, Garrett, DeJarnatt, Wojahn, Bauer and Rasmussen to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 were ruled out of order.

On page 20, after line 11, insert the following:

(2) The appropriation in this section is provided solely to increase insurance benefit allocations for state-funded certificated and classified staff units in the 1988-89 school year, distributed as follows:

(a) A maximum of $28,889,000 may be expended to increase insurance benefit allocations for basic education staff units under section 502(5) of this act by $57.75 per month.

(b) A maximum of $3,711,000 may be expended to increase insurance benefit allocations for handicapped program staff units as calculated under section 506 of this act by $57.75 per month.

(c) A maximum of $210,000 may be expended to increase insurance benefit allocations for state-funded staff in educational service districts and institutional education programs by $57.75 per month.

(d) A maximum of $2,890,000 may be expended to fund insurance benefit increases in the following categorical programs by increasing state funding rates for the 1988-89 school year as follows:

(i) For pupil transportation, an increase of $0.53 per weighted pupil mile;

(ii) For learning assistance, an increase of $14.49 per pupil;

(iii) For education of highly capable students, an increase of $4.98 per pupil;

(iv) For transitional bilingual education, an increase of $9.41 per pupil;

(v) For vocational-technical institutes, an increase of $38.58 per full time equivalent pupil.

(3) As part of his duty under section 6(1) of this act, the superintendent of public instruction shall submit a preliminary report to the state health care authority created in section 4 of this act, not later than December 1, 1988, describing the distribution of funds appropriated in this section. Copies of the report shall be provided to the committees on education, health care, and ways and means of the senate and house of representatives. The report shall include descriptions of the types of health care coverage provided to employees of the various school districts of the state and shall identify districts which incur unusually large and unusually small per-employee costs for health coverage, together with analysis of the reasons for such disparities. The report may include any recommendations of the superintendent to achieve greater equity in health care coverage among employees of the state's school districts and among school district employees, state employees, and employees of political subdivisions of the state whose health care coverage is provided under chapter 41.05 RCW. The authority shall make use of the report required under this section, along with such other information as it may require from the superintendent or school districts, in preparing the report to the legislature required under section 6(1) of this act. The authority's review of state-purchased health care programs and regulatory agencies required under section 6(2) of this act shall include the expenditure of the funds appropriated in this section."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President and fellow members of the Senate. I would raise scope and object on these amendments, as well. It is the state employees insurance board bill. It is an act relating to state health care and state employees insurance benefits. There is only a very tangential reference to K12 education and its possibility of them coming in under this act. Once again it puts in an uncodified bill--the budget bill--the portion of that into this law. It is not dealing with any funds related to kindergarten through 12th grade education and there is no appropriation whatsoever relating to kindergarten through 12th grade education. I would ask, Mr. President, if you might rule on this, because it is exactly the same logic and probably a stronger case--undoubtedly a stronger case--based on your previous ruling. I hope you could rule on the scope and object."

Further debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator McDonald, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 is a measure which abolishes the state employees insurance board and establishes the Washington State Health Care Authority to administer a health care benefit plan for employees. The measure also creates a benefits board within the authority to design and approve insurance benefit plans; requires reports to the Legislature; permits school districts to contract with the authority after July 1, 1990, or to self-insure; and appropriates funds from the state employees insurance administrative account to the Office of the Governor to carry out the provisions of the Act.

"The amendments proposed by Senators Gaspard, Kreidler, Fleming and Wojahn amend the 1987-1989 biennial appropriations budget by appropriating funds to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for increased state contributions for insurance benefits for school employees.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by Senators Gaspard, Kreidler, Fleming and Wojahn to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038 were ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2038, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 23.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Patterson, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Stratton, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 26.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bender, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Owen, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Talmadge, Vogtild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 23.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2038, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1455, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Bristow, Holland, Grimm, McLean and Wineberry) (by request of Governor Gardner)

Adopting the supplemental capital budget.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator McDonald moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
