CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF SPENCER CARTER JR.

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2004, a jury found Spencer Carter Jr. guilty of two counts of SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT in Benton County Superior Court Cause No. 01-1-00895-5. This conviction followed events in which Mr. Carter visited associates to collect on a debt. During the visit, when some of the associates protested Mr. Carter's demand that they remove clothing so that he could see if they were wearing a wire, he hit them.

FOURTH DAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

2023 REGULAR SESSION

WHEREAS, prosecutors initially offered Mr. Carter a plea deal that would have resulted in him serving a 63-month sentence. He rejected that deal and opted to take his case to trial. After his first two trials resulted in a hung jury and a mistrial, a third jury found Mr. Carter guilty on two counts of second degree assault, "strike" offenses. These convictions followed two other earlier convictions on "strike" offenses, resulting in Mr. Carter being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Carter has served over 18 years on this sentence. Had he not been sentenced as a persistent offender, Mr. Carter would have faced a 10-year statutory maximum sentence on these second degree assault convictions.

WHEREAS, in June 2022, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Carter's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board stated that Mr. Carter began using alcohol as a teen, leading to his involvement in the criminal justice system. But since 2007, Mr. Carter has maintained his sobriety.

WHEREAS, the Benton County Prosecuting Attorney does not oppose Mr. Carter's clemency petition, nor does the only surviving victim. Additionally, Mr. Carter's sentencing judge supports his petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Carter's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Carter's remorse and demonstrated rehabilitation, strong support network, and the support of his sentencing judge.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crimes, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board, and in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Spencer Carter Jr.'s 2004 sentence on two counts of SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT in Benton County Superior Court Cause No. 01-1-00895-5, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the Department of Corrections (DOC) in the below community transition plan. Under this plan, DOC shall have the authority to release Mr. Carter from custody no later than May 1, 2024, contingent on DOC approving his offender release plan and completing all applicable statutory notifications. During his final six months in custody, Mr. Carter shall complete a DOC-approved work release program. Following his release from custody, Mr. Carter shall serve 36 months of DOC community supervision. This transition plan, designed to support a successful community transition, shall not be eligible for compliance credits. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Carter must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Carter shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
3. Be subject to GPS monitoring during his first 60 days in the community.
4. Be available for regular contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, electronic devices, shared common living spaces, or social media accounts.

5. Physically report to DOC at least once per month, regardless of risk, as directed and at the discretion of DOC.

If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Carter has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Carter is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Carter submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Carter an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. #### FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON OF JACOB PAUL COTE

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2000, Jacob Paul Cote pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Snohomish County Superior Court, Cause No. 00-1-00226-7. This conviction followed an event in late 1999 in which Mr. Cote, then a teenager, and four older associates kicked in the door at a known marijuana grow operation and assaulted at least one victim before stealing property and fleeing.

WHEREAS, two days later, Mr. Cote confessed to police his involvement in this offense and agreed to testify against his associates.

WHEREAS, Mr. Cote earned his GED in prison. Since his release, he has married and is now a father and grandfather.

WHEREAS, Mr. Cote and his wife own an appliance recycling business and employ individuals who have criminal records.

WHEREAS, Mr. Cote has no other criminal convictions on his record.

WHEREAS, in June 2022, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Cote's petition for a pardon. At this hearing, Mr. Cote presented evidence that his criminal record precludes certain involvement in his family's school activities, and it negatively affects certain aspects of his business operations that require the successful completion of a background check.

WHEREAS, the Snohomish County Prosecuting Attorney supports Mr. Cote's petition seeking a pardon.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor grant Mr. Cote a full pardon. The Board cited Mr. Cote's growth and maturation since this crime as well as his strong familial and community support network. The Board also applauded Mr. Cote for using his business to offer opportunities to others who could benefit from a second chance.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime in 1999, Mr. Cote was 17 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board, and in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant Jacob Paul Cote this full and unconditional pardon for his FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY conviction in Snohomish County Superior Court, Cause No. 00-1-00226-7.

These convictions followed events in which, as a teenager, Mr. Johnson stole firearms from an acquaintance's home, sold marijuana to an undercover police officer, and engaged in multiple automobile break-ins.

WHEREAS, Mr. Johnson accepts responsibility for his past behavior, and he has satisfied all the conditions of his sentences.

WHEREAS, Mr. Johnson has had no other criminal history since he was released after serving his sentences on these convictions.

WHEREAS, while incarcerated, Mr. Johnson earned his GED.

WHEREAS, in March 2022, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Johnson's petition for a pardon. At his hearing, Mr. Johnson presented evidence that he wishes to become a mortgage originator and has completed his studies for that role; but, these felonies on his criminal record preclude him from fully pursuing that profession.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecutor does not oppose Mr. Johnson's petition, and the Lewis County Prosecutor supports it. None of the victims oppose Mr. Johnson's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor grant Mr. Johnson a full pardon. FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON OF JULIE MELISSA LANE

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2018, Julie Melissa Lane pleaded guilty to FELONY HARASSMENT in Snohomish County Superior Court, Cause No. 08-1-01175-0. This conviction followed an event in 2005 in which Ms. Lane, then in an abusive marriage, was arguing with her intoxicated husband. During the argument, Ms. Lane "lost it" and threatened to kill their daughter.

WHEREAS, Ms. Lane initially entered into a diversion program, but after her husband was killed in an alcohol-related automobile accident, she experienced a mental health spiral and left the state to be closer to family in Oklahoma. Her departure resulted in the termination of her diversion program, and, unbeknownst to Ms. Lane, prosecutors refiled the felony harassment charge against her. Years later she learned of this refiled charge and pleaded guilty in 2018.

WHEREAS, both the victim and the Snohomish County Prosecutor support Ms. Lane's petition seeking a pardon.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor grant Ms. Lane a full pardon. The Board cited Ms. Lane's growth and maturation since this crime. The Board also noted that the crime occurred almost 20 years ago and she has since paid her debt to society. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board, and in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

Mr. Larsen eventually led law enforcement on a high-speed chase before he was apprehended and surrendered the victim.

WHEREAS, Mr. Larsen was found guilty of FIRST DEGREE KIDNAPPING, FIRST DEGREE EXTORTION, FIRST DEGREE ATTEMPTED KIDNAPPING, ATTEMPTING TO ELUDE A PURSUING POLICE VEHICLE, and THEFT OF A RENTAL CAR, in King County Superior Court, Cause No. 04-1-10322-0. The trial court sentenced Mr. Larsen to 147 months in prison.

WHEREAS, these are the only criminal convictions on Mr. Larsen's record.

WHEREAS, Mr. Larsen has accepted full responsibility for his actions. Following his period in Washington state custody, in 2015 he was released to federal immigration detention.

WHEREAS, since his release from custody, Mr. Larsen has engaged to be married and now lives near his adult children. He is active in his community through volunteerism and civic engagement.

WHEREAS, due to Mr. Larsen's convictions, he now faces the possibility of imminent deportation from the United States to Vietnam, a country from which he was evacuated as a young child in 1975. He has no family, friends, or other connections in Vietnam, nor does he speak the language.

WHEREAS, in June 2022, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Larsen's petition for a pardon. At his hearing, Mr. Larsen presented testimony that his deportation would devastate his community and his family.

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1990, Steven Paul Renard was found guilty of ELUDING A POLICE OFFICER in Lewis County Superior Court, Cause No. 90-1-365-0. This conviction followed events in which Mr. Renard, lacking a valid driver's license, eluded a pursuing police vehicle.

WHEREAS, Mr. Renard accepts responsibility for his past behavior, and he has satisfied all the conditions of his sentence.

WHEREAS, the Lewis County Prosecutor supports Mr. Renard's clemency petition.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF STEVEN CHARLES SPURGEON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1989, a jury found Steven Charles Spurgeon guilty of FIRST DEGREE AGGRAVATED MURDER in King County Superior Court Cause No. 89-1-00592-8. This conviction followed events in which Mr. Spurgeon and associates robbed a taxi driver at gunpoint, and Mr. Spurgeon shot the driver, killing him.

WHEREAS, the trial court sentenced Mr. Spurgeon to life in prison without the possibility of parole. He has served over 33 years in prison on this sentence.

WHEREAS, Mr. Spurgeon has had no prison infractions since 1997.

WHEREAS, in June 2022, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Spurgeon's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board included that of the charging prosecutor in Mr. Spurgeon's prosecution, who supports Mr. Spurgeon's petition and stated that by today's standards, based on the facts of this case, prosecutors would have tried Mr. Spurgeon for first degree murder-not aggravated first degree murder-which would have carried a shorter sentence and resulted in Mr. Spurgeon being released from custody over a decade ago.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney does not oppose Mr. Spurgeon's clemency petition, and confirmed that the standard range sentence for Mr. Spurgeon, had he faced a first-degree murder conviction, would have been shorter than Mr. Spurgeon's current incarceration.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Spurgeon's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Spurgeon's strong support network, his remorse and growth over the term of his incarceration, the support of his charging prosecutor, and his exemplary prison record over the last 25 years.
