

Connect-the-Dots

Connect these dots and you will see one of Washington State's beautiful animals. In 1951, this little creature was made one of our official state symbols by a vote of school children in our state. Can you guess what it is?

