

Help Mr. Bill Become a Law — Maze

Mr. Bill needs help to become a law! Go through the maze and show Mr. bill the right path to take.

Start Here

Bill Draft:
the idea for the new law is written in proper form.

Third Reading:
the bill is up for a vote and passes with a majority.

First Reading:
the bill may be introduced in either the Senate or House of Representatives.

Committee Review:
a committee studies the bill and may make changes. This bill is approved and sent to the Rules Committee.

Second Reading:
the bill is debated and may be changed again by the entire chamber.

Rules Committee:
the bill is reconsidered and is sent to the chamber floor.

Opposite Chamber:
the bill is sent to the opposite chamber and goes through the same steps again.

Governor's Action:
The Governor reviews the bill and may veto it or sign it into law.

Mr. Bill Becomes A Law!

Finish

Final Passage:
the bill is signed by House and Senate Leaders and sent to the Governor.