[Amended June 21, 1974, effective July 1, 1974; adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

Rule 2.2A Notice of emergency detention. The notice of emergency detention required to be filed with the court and served upon the designated attorney of the detained person pursuant to RCW 71.05.160 shall include a statement specifying the name and location of the evaluation and treatment facility where the person taken into custody has been detained.

The notice of emergency detention shall be in substantially the following form:

(Respondent) has been detained in (name of evaluation and treatment facility).

Dated: _____
Time: _____
(signed) _____
Mental Health Professional
(name) County, Washington

[Adopted June 21, 1974, effective July 1, 1974.]

Rule 2.3 Right to copy court files. Prior to and at the hearing provided for in RCW 71.05.200, 71.05.240, 71.05.250 the attorney for any detained person who will be a respondent at such hearing shall be permitted to view and copy all documents relating to the detained person, which have been filed with the court. [Adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

Rule 2.4 Probable cause hearing.

(a) Notice. If notice to the court and the prosecuting attorney of the probable cause hearing as required by RCW 71.05.150(1)(c), includes the date and time of the initial detention of any person involuntarily detained, no additional notice to the court shall be required pursuant to RCW 71.05.170.

(b) Procedure.

(1) The probable cause hearing provided in RCW 71.05.200(1) shall be held in accordance with the provisions of RCW 71.05.200(1), 71.05.240 and 71.05.250.

(2) The probable-cause hearing shall proceed as in other civil actions, except that the court, in its discretion, may dispense with opening statements and final arguments.

(3) The court shall be advised of any medications administered to the respondent within the prior twenty-four hour period, and if it appears that the person detained has refused medication twenty-four hours before the hearing, but was nevertheless forced to receive medication during that period, the court may continue the hearing for twenty-four hours, and may order that no medication shall be administered to the person detained during such period.

(4) At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall make written findings of fact and conclusions of law, and enter an order for release or for detention for an additional fourteen days in an evaluation and treatment facility, or such lesser treatment as shall to the court appear proper. A copy of the order shall be served upon the evaluation and treatment facility and on the mental health professional who signed the petition. [Adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

Rule 2.5 Juvenile court proceedings. (a) Minors over thirteen years of age involuntarily committed pursuant to RCW 72.23.070(3)(c) shall be released from such involuntary detention at the expiration of one year unless a new petition is filed pursuant to RCW 72.23.070(3)(b).

(b) The term "clearly" as used in RCW 72.23.070 shall describe the standard, "clear, cogent, and convincing."

(c) An order shall be "necessary" or in the "best interests" of a minor, as those terms are used in RCW 72.23.070, when the minor is gravely disabled or presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself.

(d) In the event the professional person in charge of the facility or his designee seeks to prevent the release of a voluntarily committed minor seeking release pursuant to RCW 72.23.070, the petition or written objections required to be filed by him with the juvenile court shall be the same as a petition for initial involuntary detention of minors. (Rule 6.1A) [Adopted June 21, 1974, effective July 1, 1974.]

III. PROCEEDINGS FOR NINETY OR ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY DAY COMMITMENT

Rule

- 3.1 First court appearance.
- 3.2 Preliminary appearance.
- 3.3 Jury demand.
 - (a) When available.
 - (b) Procedure for demand.
- 3.4 Hearing.
 - (a) Procedure.
 - (b) Findings and conclusions.
 - (c) Verdict.

Rule 3.1 First court appearance. For purposes of proceedings for ninety day commitment, the phrase "first court appearance" provided in RCW 71.05.310 shall refer to the appearance provided for in RCW 71.05.300 of that act. [Adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

Rule 3.2 Preliminary appearance. Prior to the hearing provided for in RCW 71.05.320(2), the committed person shall be brought before the court for an appearance which shall be the same as that provided in RCW 71.05.300 of that act. [Adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

Rule 3.3 Jury demand.

(a) When Available. A jury is available only in a hearing for ninety or one hundred eighty day commitment proceedings pursuant to RCW 71.05.300 and RCW 71.05.320.

(b) Procedure for Demand. Within two judicial days after the person detained is advised in open court of his right to a jury trial as provided in RCW 71.05.300 the person detained may demand a trial by jury in the hearing on the petition for ninety-day or one hundred eighty-day detention by serving upon the prosecuting attorney a demand therefor in writing, by filing the demand therefor with the clerk. No jury fee shall be required. If no party, within the time above specified, serves and files a demand for jury trial, the matter shall be heard without a jury. If no party, within the time above specified, serves or files a demand that the matter be tried by a jury of twelve, it shall be tried by a jury of six members, with concurrence of five being required to reach a verdict. [Adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

Rule 3.4 Hearing.

(a) Procedure. The hearing shall be proceeded with as in any other civil action.

(b) Findings and Conclusions. Unless the matter is tried to a jury, the court shall make and enter findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(c) Verdict. If the matter is tried to a jury, the court shall instruct the jury to bring in a special verdict, which shall be in terms of the issues specified in RCW 71.05.320. [Adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

IV. PROCEEDINGS FOR CONDITIONAL RELEASE AND REVOCATION OR MODIFICATION

Rule

- 4.1 Notice of conditions.
- 4.2 Authorization for apprehension and detention.
- 4.3 Petition and order of apprehension and detention—Service.
- 4.4 Petition for initial detention.
- 4.5 Hearing.
 - (a) Burden of proof.
 - (b) Waiver.

Rule 4.1 Notice of conditions. Any person conditionally released pursuant to RCW 71.05.340 shall be notified in writing of the terms and conditions of the release and shall be notified in writing of any modifications of such terms and conditions. Such notification shall also be given in writing to the court which ordered the person's commitment. [Adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

Rule 4.2 Authorization for apprehension and detention. At the time of taking any person into custody for failure to adhere to the terms and conditions of release under RCW 71.05.340, an order of apprehension and detention shall be served upon the person. The order of apprehension and detention shall include:

- (a) The name of the person taken into custody;
- (b) That it is issued pursuant to revocation of conditional release;
- (c) The date on which the order of commitment was entered and the number of days for which the person was ordered committed.

(d) The authorization shall be in substantially the following form:

To: Any Peace Officer or Mental Health Professional
 You are authorized to take or cause to be taken (name of person) who was conditionally released from an order of commitment for (number) days by (name of court) which order was entered on (date), and the authority for which conditional release has been revoked, into custody and place such person in (name and location of evaluation and treatment facility) for detention, pursuant to RCW 71.05.340.

Date: -----

 Secretary, Department of Social and Health Services, State of Washington, or His Designee, Mental Health Professional for (name) County.

[Amended June 21, 1974, effective July 1, 1974; adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

Rule 4.3 Petition and order of apprehension and detention—Service. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the petition and order of apprehension and detention required in RCW 71.05.340, shall be served on the person to be apprehended and detained, at the time of apprehension, and on his guardian, if any, and his attorney, if any, as soon as possible.

Where no order of apprehension and detention has been issued, a petition shall be filed with the court within seventy-two hours and the person, his attorney, if any, and his guardian, if any, shall be served with a copy of the petition within twenty-four hours after the petition is filed with the court. At the time the petition is served on the person, notice shall be filed with the court and served on the person that a hearing will be held within fifteen days. [Amended June 21, 1974, effective July 1, 1974; adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

Rule 4.4 Petition for initial detention. The granting of a conditional release pursuant to RCW 71.05.340, shall not preclude a mental health professional from commencing new proceedings pursuant to RCW 71.05.150. [Adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

Rule 4.5 Hearing.

(a) Burden of Proof. Before entering an order returning any person for involuntary treatment on an inpatient basis as a result of failure to adhere to the terms and conditions of conditional release pursuant to RCW 71.05.340, the court shall find at the hearing that there is clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that such person did not adhere to the terms and conditions of release, and that such person is likely to injure himself or other persons if not returned for involuntary treatment on an inpatient basis.

(b) Waiver. Waiver of the hearing provided for in RCW 71.05.340 shall be in writing signed by all persons required to waive under that section. A copy of the waiver shall be filed with the court in which the notice of apprehension and detention was filed. [Adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

V. VENUE

Rule

- 5.1 General.
- 5.2 Conditional release hearing.
- 5.3 Release of records.
- 5.4 [Reserved].

Rule 5.1 General. Proceedings pursuant to chapter 71.05 RCW, shall be brought in the superior court of the county in which the person is being detained. The court, for good cause, may transfer a proceeding to the county of respondent's residence, or to the county in which the alleged conduct evidencing need for treatment occurred. [Amended June 21, 1974, effective July 1, 1974; adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

Rule 5.2 Conditional release hearing. The notice of apprehension and detention and the petition for hearing required in RCW 71.05.340, shall be filed in the county ordering the commitment from which the person was conditionally released. Upon motion for good cause, the court may order the proceeding transferred to the court in the county in which the person was receiving outpatient care or the county of the person's residence. [Adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

Rule 5.3 Release of records. A proceeding for the release of records or files pursuant to RCW 71.05.390, shall be in the court maintaining such records or files. [Adopted December 17, 1973, effective January 1, 1974.]

TITLE 1. SCOPE AND APPLICATION OF RULES

- Rule
- 1.1 Scope of Rules.
 - 1.2 Jurisdiction of Juvenile Court.
 - 1.3 Definitions.
 - (a) Guardian.
 - (b) Custodian.
 - (c) Legal Custody.
 - 1.4 Applicability of Other Rules.
 - (a) Civil Rules.
 - (b) Criminal Rules.
 - (c) Local Rules.
 - 1.5 Continuation of Actions.
 - (a) Dependency and Termination Proceedings.
 - (b) Juvenile Offense Proceedings.

Rule 1.1 Scope of rules. These rules relate to procedure in the juvenile court. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 1.2 Jurisdiction of juvenile court. The jurisdiction of the juvenile court is defined by RCW 13.04.030. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 1.3 Definitions. The definitions in RCW 13.04-.011, RCW 13.34.030, RCW 9A.76.010 and RCW 13-.40.020 shall apply to these rules. For the purposes of these rules:

(a) Guardian. "Guardian" means a person appointed by court order under chapter 11.88 RCW, but does not mean a person appointed a guardian ad litem under RCW 11.88.090.

(b) Custodian. "Custodian" or "legal custodian" means a person (other than a parent or a guardian) or an agency to whom legal custody of a child has been given by a court having jurisdiction over the child.

(c) Legal Custody. "Legal custody" means a status created by court order. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 1.4 Applicability of other rules. (a) Civil Rules. The Superior Court Civil Rules shall apply in proceedings other than those involving a juvenile offense when not inconsistent with these rules and applicable statutes.

(b) Criminal Rules. The Superior Court Criminal Rules shall apply in juvenile offense proceedings when not inconsistent with these rules and applicable statutes.

(c) Local Rules. The local rules of a juvenile court shall apply when not inconsistent with these rules and applicable statutes. Local rules for juvenile court proceedings must be adopted in accordance with CR 83. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 1.5 Continuation of actions. (a) Dependency and Termination Proceedings.

(1) Actions filed on or after May 1, 1978 alleging dependency or seeking the termination of the parent-child relationship, in which the court has not entered a final order of dependency or termination prior to July 1, 1978 shall, after July 1, 1978, be governed by RCW 13.34 and these rules.

(2) The status of all juveniles found to be dependent prior to July 1, 1978, shall be reviewed as provided in RCW 13.34.130(3).

(3) Any proceeding to modify a disposition order in a case involving a juvenile found, prior to July 1, 1978, to be dependent, shall be governed by RCW 13.34 and these rules.

(4) The court may modify the application of this section to a particular case when, in the opinion of the court, that application would work injustice.

(b) Juvenile Offense Proceedings. Juvenile offense proceedings shall be governed by the law in effect on the date the offense is found to have taken place. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

TITLE 2. SHELTER CARE PROCEEDINGS

- Rule
- 2.1 Placement of juvenile in shelter care generally.
 - (a) Without court order.
 - (b) With court order.
 - (c) Obtaining shelter care order.
 - 2.2 Release of juvenile from shelter care without hearing.
 - (a) If shelter care is without court order.
 - (b) If shelter care is with court order.

- 2.3 Right to and notice of shelter care hearing.
 - (a) Shelter care hearing defined.
 - (b) Notice of right to shelter care hearing.
 - (c) Shelter care hearing requested.
 - (d) Notice of shelter care hearing.
- 2.4 Procedure at shelter care hearing.
 - (a) Inform parties of rights.
 - (b) Hearing and decision.
 - (c) Release of juvenile on conditions.
- 2.5 Amendment of shelter care order.

Rule 2.1 Placement of juvenile in shelter care generally. (a) Without Court Order. A juvenile may be placed in shelter care without court order if the juvenile has been taken into custody pursuant to RCW 26.44.050.

(b) With Court Order. A juvenile may be placed in shelter care with a court order if:

(1) a dependency petition has been filed pursuant to Rule 3.2 and a motion has been made pursuant to section (c); or

(2) the juvenile has previously been found to be dependent, is the subject of a disposition order still in effect, and a motion has been made pursuant to section (c).

(c) Obtaining Shelter Care Order. A request for an order pursuant to RCW 13.34.050 shall be by motion supported by a sworn statement filed with the court or by testimony given in open court, setting forth the facts which form the basis for the motion. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 2.2 Release of juvenile from shelter care without hearing. (a) If Shelter Care Is Without Court Order. If a juvenile is taken into shelter care without a court order pursuant to RCW 26.44.050, the juvenile shall be released unless a petition alleging dependency is filed within 72 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) after taking the juvenile into custody.

(b) If Shelter Care Is With Court Order. If a juvenile is taken into shelter care pursuant to a court order, the juvenile shall be released unless an order authorizing continued shelter care is entered within 72 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) after the juvenile is taken into custody. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 2.3 Right to and notice of shelter care hearing. (a) Shelter Care Hearing Defined. The term "shelter care hearing" means any hearing under RCW 13.34.060.

(b) Notice of Right to Shelter Care Hearing. The notice of the right to request a shelter care hearing required by RCW 13.34.060 shall be given to the juvenile, his or her parents, guardian, or custodian within 72 hours of the taking into custody of the juvenile, and in accordance with Rule 11.2.

(c) Shelter Care Hearing Requested. If a shelter care hearing has been requested the court shall hold the hearing within 72 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) of the request for a shelter care hearing.

(d) Notice of Shelter Care Hearing. The notice required by RCW 13.34.060(2) shall be given in accordance with Rule 11.2. The notice shall inform the parents, guardian, or custodian of their right to a lawyer as provided in Title 9 of these rules. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 2.4 Procedure at shelter care hearing. (a) Inform Parties of Rights. The court shall inform the parties of their rights as set forth in RCW 13.34.090 and in Titles 2, 3, and 9 of these rules. The court may continue the hearing if the parties have been unable to retain a lawyer or have been unable to have a lawyer appointed for them.

(b) Hearing and Decision. The court shall hold the hearing on the question of shelter care in accordance with RCW 13.34.060(4) and RCW 13.34.090. The court shall make its decision in accordance with RCW 13.34.060(6).

(c) Release of Juvenile on Conditions. The court may release the juvenile on those conditions it deems appropriate. As provided in RCW 13.34.060(7), the conditions may be modified upon notice to the parties given in accordance with Rule 11.2 and after a hearing. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 2.5 Amendment of shelter care order. The court may amend a shelter care order as provided in RCW 13.34.060(8) at a hearing held after notice to the parties given in accordance with Rule 11.2. Any party may move to amend a shelter care order. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

TITLE 3. DEPENDENCY PROCEEDINGS

Rule

- 3.1 Invoking jurisdiction of juvenile court.
- 3.2 Who may file petition—Venue.
 - (a) Who may file.

 - (b) Informing parties of purpose of hearing.
 - (c) Evidence.
 - (d) Submission of agency plan.
 - (e) Transferring legal custody.
- 3.9 Review hearing.
- 3.10 Modification of order.

Rule 3.1 Invoking jurisdiction of juvenile court. Juvenile court jurisdiction is invoked over dependency proceedings by filing a petition. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 3.2 Who may file petition—Venue. (a) Who May File. Any person may file a petition alleging dependency.

(b) Venue. The petition shall be filed in the county where the juvenile is located or where the juvenile resides. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 3.3 Content of dependency petition. A dependency petition shall contain:

(a) Identification of the Juvenile. The name, age, sex, and residence of the juvenile so far as known to the petitioner.

(b) Identification of Parent, Guardian, or Custodian. The name, marital status, and residence of the parent, guardian, or custodian, or person with whom the juvenile is residing, so far as known to the petitioner. If not known, the petition shall so state.

(c) Jurisdictional Statement. A statement of the statutory provisions which give the court jurisdiction over the proceeding.

(d) Statement of Facts. A statement of the facts which give the court jurisdiction over the juvenile and over the subject matter of the proceedings, stated in plain language and with reasonable definiteness and particularity.

(e) Request for Inquiry. A request that the court inquire into the matter and enter an order that the court shall find to be in the best interests of the juvenile and justice.

(f) Other. Any other information required by court rule or statute. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 3.4 Notice and summons—Scheduling of fact-finding hearing. (a) Notice and Summons. After the petition has been filed, notice and summons shall be issued and served pursuant to RCW 13.34.070 or published pursuant to RCW 13.34.080.

(b) Advice To Be Contained in Notice. A notice directed to the juvenile or the juvenile's parent, custodian, or guardian shall contain the following advisement:

Right to Lawyer

(1) You have the right to talk to a lawyer if you desire and if you cannot afford a lawyer one will be appointed for you.

(2) A lawyer can look at the social and legal files in your case, talk to the caseworker, tell you about the law, help you understand your rights, and help you at trial.

(c) Notice of Possible Termination Proceedings. If the petition alleges dependency pursuant to RCW 13.34.030(2)(a) or (b), or has been amended to include that allegation, the notice shall state that the petition begins a process which, if the juvenile is found dependent, may result in permanent termination of the parent-child relationship.

(d) Scheduling Fact-Finding Hearing. The court shall schedule a fact-finding hearing with reasonable speed, giving preference to those cases where the juvenile is held in shelter care or detention. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 3.5 Amendment of petition. A petition may be amended at any time. The court shall grant additional time if necessary to insure a full and fair hearing on any new allegations in an amended petition. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 3.6 Answer to petition. Any party may file a written answer to a petition. An answer is not required unless ordered by the court or required by local rule. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 3.7 Fact-finding hearing. (a) Procedure at Hearing. The court shall hold a fact-finding hearing on the petition in accordance with RCW 13.34.110.

(b) Evidence. The rules of evidence shall apply to the hearing. No social file or social study shall be considered by the court in connection with the fact-finding hearing or prior to factual determination.

(c) Burden of Proof. In a fact-finding hearing on a petition alleging dependency pursuant to RCW 13.34.030(2)(a), (b), or (c), the facts alleged in the petition must be proven by a preponderance of the evidence. In a fact-finding hearing on a petition alleging dependency pursuant to RCW 13.34.030(2)(d), the facts alleged in the petition must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 3.8 Disposition hearing. (a) Time. If a juvenile has been found to be dependent, the court shall hold a disposition hearing. If the disposition hearing does not immediately follow the fact-finding hearing, notice of the continued hearing shall be given to all parties in accordance with RCW 13.34.110.

(b) Informing Parties of Purpose of Hearing. The court shall inform the parties of the purpose of the hearing. The court shall inform the parties of the new status of the juvenile as a result of the finding of dependency.

(c) Evidence. The court shall consider the social file, social study and other appropriate pre-disposition studies, in addition to information produced at the fact-finding and disposition hearings. Any party shall have the right to be heard at the disposition hearing. Any social file, social study, or pre-disposition study shall be made available for inspection by a party or his or her lawyer for a reasonable time prior to the disposition hearing.

(d) Submission of Agency Plan. If the agency plan referred to in RCW 13.34.130(2) is not submitted to the court at the time of the disposition hearing, it shall be filed with the court and distributed to all parties within 30 days after the disposition hearing.

(e) Transferring Legal Custody. A disposition which orders removal of the juvenile from his or her home shall have the effect of transferring legal custody to the agency or custodian charged with the juvenile's care. The transfer of legal custody shall give the legal custodian the following rights and duties:

- (1) to maintain the physical custody of the juvenile;
- (2) to protect, train, and discipline the juvenile;
- (3) to provide food, clothing, shelter, education as required by law, and routine medical care for a juvenile; and

(4) to consent to emergency medical and surgical care and to sign a release of medical information to appropriate authorities, pursuant to law.

The court may, in its disposition order, modify the rights and duties granted to the legal custodian as a result of the transfer of legal custody. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 3.9 Review hearing. The status of all juveniles found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every six months, in accordance with RCW 13.34.130(3). The parties shall be given notice of the review hearing in accordance with Rule 11.2. All parties shall have the right to be present at the review hearing and to be heard. Notice of a review hearing concerning a juvenile who has been found dependent under RCW 13.34.030(2)(a) or (b) and who has been removed from the parental home shall include an advisement that a petition to terminate the parent-child relationship may be filed six months after the juvenile has been removed from the parental home. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 3.10 Modification of order. Any party may move to change, modify, or set aside an order pursuant to RCW 13.34.150. The motion shall be in writing and must state the basis for the motion and the relief requested. No order shall be changed, modified, or set aside except after notice to all parties and a hearing, unless the court waives the hearing on its own motion or upon motion of one of the parties, for good cause shown. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

TITLE 4. PROCEEDINGS TO TERMINATE PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIP

Rule

- 4.1 Invoking jurisdiction of juvenile court.
- 4.2 Pleadings.
 - (a) Petition.
 - (b) Amendment of petition.
 - (c) Answer.
- 4.3 Notice of termination hearing.

Rule 4.1 Invoking jurisdiction of juvenile court. Juvenile court jurisdiction is invoked over a proceeding to terminate a parent-child relationship by filing a petition. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 4.2 Pleadings. (a) Petition. A petition requesting the termination of a parent-child relationship may be filed in the juvenile court. The petition shall conform to the requirements of Rule 3.3, shall be verified, and shall state the facts which underlie each of the allegations required by RCW 13.34.180.

(b) Amendment of Petition. A petition may be amended as provided in Rule 3.5.

(c) Answer. A party may answer a petition as provided in Rule 3.6. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 4.3 Notice of termination hearing. Notice of the termination hearing and a copy of the petition shall be served on all parties in the manner defined by RCW

13.34.070(6) and (7) or published in the manner defined by RCW 13.34.080. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

TITLE 5. PROCEEDINGS FOR ALTERNATIVE RESIDENTIAL PLACEMENT

Rule

- 5.1 Invoking jurisdiction of juvenile court.
- 5.2 Pleadings—Release of juvenile in detention.
 - (a) Petition.
 - (b) Venue.
 - (c) Amendment of petition.
 - (d) Answer.
 - (e) Release of juvenile in detention.
- 5.3 Scheduling of placement hearing.
 - (a) Time.
 - (b) Hearing when juvenile is held in detention.
- 5.4 Notice of placement hearing.
- 5.5 Placement hearing.
- 5.6 Review hearing.
 - (a) Time.
 - (b) Additional review hearings.
 - (c) Notice.

Rule 5.1 Invoking jurisdiction of juvenile court. Juvenile court jurisdiction is invoked over a proceeding for alternative residential placement by filing a petition. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 5.2 Pleadings—Release of Juvenile in detention. (a) Petition. A petition requesting an alternative residential placement, conforming to the requirements of Rule 3.3, may be filed by a juvenile or a juvenile's parent or custodian pursuant to RCW 74.13.031(4)(f).

(b) Venue. The petition shall be filed in the county where a custodial parent or custodian resides.

(c) Amendment of Petition. A petition may be amended as provided in Rule 3.5.

(d) Answer. A party may answer a petition as provided in Rule 3.6.

(e) Release of Juvenile in Detention. If a juvenile is held in detention pursuant to RCW 74.13.031(4)(g), the juvenile shall be released unless a petition is filed within 48 hours after the initial detention of the juvenile. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 5.3 Scheduling of placement hearing. (a) Time. If the petition has been filed by a juvenile, or a juvenile's parent or guardian, the court shall schedule a hearing upon the question of alternative residential placement with reasonable speed. The hearing shall be held within 14 days after the filing of the petition, unless the time is extended for good cause shown.

(b) Hearing When Juvenile Is Held in Detention. If a petition has been filed pursuant to RCW 74.13.031(4)(g), a hearing on the petition shall be held within 72 hours (excluding Sundays and holidays) of the initial detention of the juvenile or the juvenile shall be released. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 5.4 Notice of placement hearing. The notice required by RCW 13.32.030 shall be given in accordance with Rule 11.2. The notice shall also include the following:

(1) Right to Lawyer. A statement advising the parents or the custodian of their right to be represented by a retained lawyer at the hearing;

(2) Consequences of Petition Approval. A statement advising the parties that if the court approves the petition, the juvenile will have the right to live in the placement approved by the court, subject to the terms of the court order, and that the parents will not be relieved of financial responsibility for the juvenile; and

(3) Alternative Placement. A statement advising the parties that the court may, instead of approving the requested placement, order the juvenile placed in an appropriate nonsecure facility. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 5.5 Placement hearing. The hearing to consider the juvenile's placement shall be held in accordance with RCW 13.32.040. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 5.6 Review hearing. (a) Time. The court shall schedule a review of any alternative residential placement within six months of the placement. The notice of the review hearing required to be given by RCW 13.32.050 may be given to the parties at the placement hearing, or they may be notified in accordance with Rule 11.2. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with RCW 13.32.050.

(b) Additional Review Hearings. If the court approves continuation of alternative placement, it shall hold another review hearing within six months of that approval. If the court does not continue alternative placement, it may hold another review hearing within six months.

(c) Notice. The parties shall be notified of a subsequent review hearing in accordance with Rule 11.2. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

TITLE 6. JUVENILE OFFENSE PROCEEDINGS—DIVERSION AGREEMENTS
Rule

- 6.1 Eligibility for diversion.
- 6.2 Right to consult with a lawyer.
 - (a) Advice of right to representation by lawyer.
 - (b) Appointment of lawyer.
 - (c) Retained lawyer during diversion process.
- 6.3 Waiver of right to lawyer.
- 6.4 Advice about diversion process.
- 6.5 Advice of rights and effect of diversion.
 - (a) Advice to juvenile entering into a diversion agreement.
 - (b) Advice to juvenile released without entering into a diversion agreement.
- 6.6 Termination of diversion agreement.
 - (a) Motion.
 - (b) Scheduling and notice of hearing.
 - (c) Disclosure of evidence.
 - (d) Procedure at hearing.
 - (e) Burden of proof and order terminating diversion agreement.
 - (f) Consolidation of termination hearing with adjudication of offense.

Rule 6.1 Eligibility for diversion. A juvenile's eligibility for diversion shall be determined pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 and .080. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 6.2 Right to consult with a lawyer. (a) Advice of Right to Representation by Lawyer. A juvenile found eligible for diversion shall, prior to the initial interview with the diversion unit, be advised of his or her right to consult with a lawyer concerning the juvenile's decision to enter into a diversion agreement or to appear in juvenile court.

(b) Appointment of Lawyer. The court shall appoint a lawyer for any juvenile who is financially unable to obtain a lawyer for the consultation if the juvenile does not waive that right pursuant to Rule 6.3.

(c) Retained Lawyer During Diversion Process. A juvenile may be represented by a retained lawyer during the diversion process in accordance with RCW 13.40.080(6). [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 6.3 Waiver of right to lawyer. A waiver containing the following statements and in substantially the following form shall be read by, signed by, and a copy given to a juvenile who waives the right to consult with a lawyer before an initial interview with a diversion unit:

Waiver of Lawyer

1. I know that I can talk to a lawyer about whether I should enter into a diversion process and will not have to pay for one if I cannot afford it.

2. I know that a lawyer can look at my police reports, tell me about the law, help me understand my rights, and help me decide whether I should enter into a diversion process or go to juvenile court.

3. I have decided not to talk to a lawyer at this time.

Rule 6.4 Advice about diversion process. A statement in substantially the following form shall be read to, signed by, and a copy given to a juvenile before an initial interview with the diversion unit:

Advice About Diversion

1. Diversion is a different way of dealing with juveniles who are charged with a crime. You do not go to court and there is no trial before a judge.

2. A diversion agreement is a contract between you and the diversion unit. A diversion agreement may require you to do certain things, such as community service or make restitution, but you cannot be sent to jail.

3. The diversion agreement will be part of your criminal record.

4. You have the right to talk to a lawyer about whether you should participate in diversion or whether you should go to court. You will not have to pay for a lawyer if you cannot afford it.

5. When you agree to participate in the diversion process, you do not have the right to have a free lawyer appointed for you to help you work out a diversion agreement, but you do have the right to have a lawyer help you work out a diversion agreement if you can afford to pay for it.

6. Even if you talk to the diversion unit, you can decide not to sign the diversion agreement; then your case would go to court if charges are filed by the prosecutor.

Rule 6.5 Advice of rights and effect of diversion. (a) Advice to Juvenile Entering Into a Diversion Agreement. A statement in substantially the following form shall be read to, signed by, and a copy given to a juvenile who enters into a diversion agreement before the agreement is signed:

Effect of Diversion Agreement

- 1. I understand that the crime I am charged with will be part of my criminal record.
2. I understand that the diversion agreement will be part of my criminal record.
3. I understand that I might not be able to make a diversion agreement for another crime because I have signed this diversion agreement.
4. I understand that I may be given a longer sentence for another crime because I have signed this diversion agreement.
5. I understand that my criminal record will show how well I follow the diversion agreement.
6. I understand that if I do not follow the diversion agreement the prosecutor can bring me to trial for the crime I am charged with.
7. I understand that my criminal record will be available to the police, the prosecutor, and the court if I am charged with another crime.
8. I understand that when I am 23 years old I may ask the court to remove this crime and the diversion agreement from my record if I have not been charged with or been convicted of another crime.
9. I understand that I do not have to sign this agreement. If I do not sign, I understand that my case will go to court if charges are filed by the prosecutor.
10. I understand that if my case goes to court, I can talk to a lawyer and will not have to pay for it if I cannot afford it.
11. I have read or someone has read to me everything printed above and I understand it. I have been given a copy of this statement.

Representative of Diversion Unit

[Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 6.6 Termination of diversion agreement. (a) Motion. The procedure to seek termination of a diversion agreement is to file a motion in juvenile court alleging that the juvenile has substantially violated the terms of the diversion agreement. The motion shall include a statement of:

- (1) the offense which the juvenile was alleged to have committed;
(2) the terms of the diversion agreement; and
(3) the alleged violation of the diversion agreement.

(b) Scheduling and Notice of Hearing. The court shall schedule a hearing on the allegations in the motion with reasonable speed. A copy of the motion and the written notice of the hearing required by RCW 13.40.080(4) shall be given the juvenile in accordance with Rule 11.2. The notice shall also state that an information may be filed on the original offense.

(c) Disclosure of Evidence. All evidence to be offered against the juvenile shall be disclosed to the juvenile a reasonable time prior to the hearing.

(d) Procedure at Hearing. The court shall hold a hearing on the allegations made in the motion. At the hearing the juvenile shall have the opportunity to be heard in person, to present evidence, and to confront and cross-examine all adverse witnesses.

(e) Burden of Proof and Order Terminating Diversion Agreement. The moving party must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the allegations in the motion are true and that they are a substantial violation of the diversion agreement. If the court finds that the moving party has met this burden of proof, it may order the termination of the diversion agreement. An order terminating a diversion agreement shall include a written statement of the evidence relied upon by the court and the reasons for the termination.

(f) Consolidation of Termination Hearing With Adjudication of Offense. When the diversion unit has referred the case to the prosecuting attorney, and the prosecutor has filed an information, the court may schedule the hearing on the allegations in the motion to terminate the diversion agreement for the same time and place as the adjudicatory hearing on the allegations in the information. In that case, the court shall hold a hearing in accordance with this rule and make a finding with respect to the allegations in the motion before conducting the adjudicatory hearing on the allegations in the information. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 7.1 Invoking juvenile court jurisdiction. Juvenile court jurisdiction is invoked over a juvenile offense proceeding by filing an information. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 7.2 Information. (a) Content. [Reserved. See RCW 13.40.070.]

(b) Amendment. An information may be amended at any time. The court shall grant additional time if necessary to insure a full and fair hearing on any new allegations in the amended information. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 7.3 Detention and release without hearing. (a) If No Information Filed Before Custody. If a juvenile alleged to have committed a juvenile offense is taken into custody before an information is filed, the juvenile shall be released unless an information is filed within 72 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) after taking the juvenile into custody. A juvenile held in detention after the filing of an information shall be given a hearing to determine whether continued detention is necessary, and in the absence of any prior determination, whether there is probable cause to believe that the detained juvenile committed the offense. The juvenile shall be released unless these determinations are made within 72 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) after the information has been filed.

(b) If Information Filed Before Custody. If a juvenile alleged to have committed a juvenile offense is taken into custody after an information has been filed and is held in detention, the juvenile shall be given a hearing to determine whether continued detention is necessary and in the absence of any prior determination, whether there is probable cause to believe that the detained juvenile committed the offense. The juvenile shall be released unless these determinations are made within 72 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) after the juvenile is taken into custody. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 7.4 Detention hearing. (a) Procedure at Hearing. The detention hearing shall be held in accordance with RCW 13.40.050(3) and (4). All parties shall have an opportunity to present evidence and to be heard on the issue of continued detention.

(b) Determination by Court Generally. At the hearing the court shall determine whether continued detention is necessary under RCW 13.40.040.

(c) Determination That Detention Necessary. If the court finds that continued detention is necessary, the court shall enter written findings setting forth the specific statutory provision and the facts on which the court based its order for continued detention. The juvenile may nevertheless be released upon posting of a bond and the imposition of conditions upon such release pursuant to RCW 13.40.040(4).

(d) Determination That Detention Not Necessary. If the court at the detention hearing determines that continued detention is not necessary, the juvenile shall be ordered released on personal recognizance. The court may impose conditions on the release pursuant to RCW 13.40.050(6). [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 7.5 Summons. (a) Issuance. After an information has been filed, a summons shall issue and be served pursuant to RCW 13.40.100.

(b) Additional Contents of Summons. The summons shall advise the parties of the right to be represented by a retained lawyer and to have a lawyer appointed in certain cases, as provided in Title 9 of these rules and RCW 13.40.140. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 7.6 Arraignment and pleas. (a) Arraignment. The arraignment of an alleged juvenile offender is governed by CrR 4.1.

(b) Plea. The taking of a plea of an alleged juvenile offender is governed by CrR 4.2. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

[Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 7.8 Time for adjudicatory hearing. (a) Responsibility of Court. It shall be the responsibility of the court to insure to each person charged with a juvenile offense an adjudicatory hearing in accordance with the provisions of this rule.

(b) Time Limits. The adjudicatory hearing on a juvenile offense shall begin within 60 days following the juvenile's arraignment in juvenile court on the charges contained in the information. If the alleged juvenile offender is held in detention pending the adjudicatory hearing, the hearing shall begin within 30 days following the juvenile's arraignment in juvenile court on the charges contained in the information.

(c) Excluded Periods. The following periods shall be excluded in computing the time for the adjudicatory hearing:

- (1) All proceedings related to the competency of the alleged juvenile offender to participate in the hearing.
- (2) Preliminary proceedings and an adjudicatory hearing on another charge.
- (3) Delay granted by the court pursuant to paragraph (d).
- (4) The time between the dismissal and the refile of the same charge.

(d) Continuances. Continuances or other delays may be granted as follows:

- (1) On motion of the alleged juvenile offender on a showing of good cause.
- (2) On motion of the prosecuting attorney if:
 - (i) the alleged juvenile offender consents to a continuance or delay and good cause is shown; or
 - (ii) the state's evidence is presently unavailable, the prosecution has exercised due diligence, and there are reasonable grounds to believe that it will be available within a reasonable time; or
 - (iii) required in the due administration of justice and the alleged juvenile offender will not be substantially prejudiced in the presentation of his or her defense.

(3) The court on its own motion may continue the case when required in the due administration of justice and the alleged juvenile offender will not be substantially prejudiced in the presentation of his or her defense.

(e) Absence of Alleged Juvenile Offender. In the event the alleged juvenile offender is absent from the court and thereby unavailable for the adjudicatory hearing or for any preliminary proceeding at which his or her presence is required, the time period specified in section (b) shall start to accrue anew when the alleged juvenile offender is actually present in the county where the charge is pending, and his presence appears upon the record of the court.

(f) Dismissal With Prejudice. If the adjudicatory hearing on a juvenile offense is not held within the time limits in this rule, the information shall be dismissed with prejudice. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 7.9 Joinder of offenses and consolidation of adjudicatory hearings. (a) Joinder of Offenses. The joinder of offenses in an information is governed by CrR 4.3(a) and (c), where applicable.

(b) Consolidation of Adjudicatory Hearing. On motion of the prosecutor or the alleged juvenile offender, or on its own motion, the court may, for purposes of conducting the adjudicatory hearing, order that two or more informations naming different juveniles be consolidated and heard at the same time when two or more defendants could be joined in the same charge pursuant to CrR 4.3(b). [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 7.10 Severance of offenses and consolidated hearings. The severance of offenses and severance of consolidated hearings is governed by CrR 4.4, where applicable. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 7.11 Adjudicatory hearing. (a) Burden of Proof. The court shall hold an adjudicatory hearing on the allegations in the information. The prosecution must prove the allegations in the information beyond a reasonable doubt.

(b) Evidence. The rules of evidence shall apply to the hearing, except to the extent modified by RCW 13.40.140(7) and (8). All parties to the hearing shall have the rights enumerated in RCW 13.40.140(7).

(c) Decision on the Record. The juvenile shall be found guilty or not guilty. The court shall record its findings of fact and enter its decision on the record. The findings shall include the evidence relied upon by the court in reaching its decision. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 7.12 Disposition hearing. (a) Time. A disposition hearing shall be held if the juvenile has pleaded guilty or has been found guilty by the court. The hearing may be held immediately following the juvenile's plea of guilty or immediately following the adjudicatory hearing if found guilty by the court. The disposition hearing may be continued for a period of up to 14 days after the plea or the conclusion of the hearing, unless good cause is shown for a further continuance. Notice of a continued hearing shall be given to all parties in accordance with Rule 11.2.

(b) Conduct of Hearing. The court shall conduct the hearing in accordance with RCW 13.40.150.

(c) Criminal History. In determining the standard range of disposition for a juvenile, the following shall constitute the juvenile's criminal history pursuant to RCW 13.40.020(6):

(1) A finding made by a juvenile court prior to July 1, 1978 that the juvenile committed an offense, if the allegation was required to be proven beyond a reasonable doubt or if the juvenile admitted the allegation.

(2) A conviction by a juvenile court or a plea of guilty made on or after July 1, 1978.

(3) A record of a diversion agreement entered into in accordance with the provisions of RCW 13.40.080.

(d) Disposition Outside Standard Range. If the court imposes a sentence outside the standard range for the offense, the disposition order shall set forth those portions of the record material to the disposition. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 7.13 Release pending appellate review. If the only error asserted on appellate review is the appropriateness of the disposition, release of the juvenile pending review is governed by RCW 13.40.230(5). If additional or different errors are asserted, the juvenile court shall release the juvenile pending review if the court determines, at a hearing, that detention is not necessary to prevent the juvenile from fleeing the jurisdiction or harming the juvenile or the person or property of others. The court may impose conditions on the release as in RCW 13.40.040(4) and RCW 13.40.050(6). [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

TITLE 8. DECLINING JUVENILE COURT JURISDICTION OVER AN ALLEGED JUVENILE OFFENDER

Rule

- 8.1 Time for decline hearing.
- (a) Initiating decline hearing.
 - (b) Time for hearing in felony cases.
 - (c) Notice.
- 8.2 Procedure at decline hearing.

Rule 8.1 Time for decline hearing. (a) Initiating Decline Hearing. If required or requested pursuant to RCW 13.40.110, a decline hearing shall be scheduled and held separate from and prior to the adjudicatory hearing.

(b) Time for Hearing in Felony Cases. In any case where declining jurisdiction would allow criminal prosecution for a felony, the decline hearing shall be held within 14 days after the information is filed unless the time is extended by the court for good cause.

(c) Notice. Notice of the decline hearing and its purpose shall be given in accordance with Rule 11.2. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 8.2 Procedure at decline hearing. The decline hearing shall be conducted in accordance with RCW 13.40.110(2). Any report or study to be presented to the court must be made available to the opposing party for a reasonable period prior to the hearing or reasonable time must be accorded the opposing party to respond. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

TITLE 9. RIGHT TO LAWYER AND EXPERTS IN ALL JUVENILE COURT PROCEEDINGS

Rule

- 9.1 Mandatory appointment of lawyer.
- 9.2 Additional right to representation by lawyer.
- (a) Retained lawyer.
 - (b) Dependency and termination proceedings.
 - (c) Juvenile offense proceedings.

- 9.3 Right to appointment of experts in juvenile offense proceedings.
 (a) Appointment.
 (b) Compensation.

Rule 9.1 Mandatory appointment of lawyer. The court shall appoint a lawyer for a juvenile when required by RCW 74.13.031, RCW 13.32.030 and .050. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 9.2 Additional right to representation by lawyer.
(a) Retained Lawyer. Any party may be represented by a retained lawyer in any proceedings before the juvenile court.

(b) Dependency and Termination Proceedings. The court shall provide a lawyer at public expense in a dependency or termination proceeding as follows:

(1) Upon request of a party or on the court's own initiative, the court shall appoint a lawyer for a juvenile who is financially unable to obtain a lawyer without causing substantial hardship to himself or herself or the juvenile's family. The ability to pay part of the cost of a lawyer shall not preclude assignment. A juvenile shall not be deprived of a lawyer because a parent, guardian, or custodian, refuses to pay for a lawyer for the juvenile.

(2) Upon request of the parent or parents, the court shall appoint a lawyer for a parent who is unable to obtain a lawyer without causing substantial hardship to himself or herself or the juvenile's family. The ability to pay part of the cost of a lawyer shall not preclude assignment.

(c) Juvenile Offense Proceedings. The court shall provide a lawyer at public expense in a juvenile offense proceeding when required by RCW 13.40.080(6), RCW 13.40.140(2) or Rule 6.2. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

Rule 9.3 Right to appointment of experts in juvenile offense proceedings. (a) Appointment. A juvenile who is financially unable to obtain investigative, expert, or other services necessary to an adequate defense may request that these services be provided at public expense by a motion. Upon finding that the services are necessary and that the juvenile is financially unable to obtain them without substantial hardship to himself or herself or the juvenile's family, the court shall authorize counsel to obtain the services on the behalf of the juvenile. The ability to pay part of the cost of the services shall not preclude the provision of those services by the court. A juvenile shall not be deprived of necessary services because a parent, guardian, or custodian refuses to pay for those services. The court, in the interest of justice and on a finding that timely procurement of necessary services could not await prior authorization, may ratify services after they have been obtained.

(b) Compensation. The court shall determine reasonable compensation for the services and direct payment to the organization or person who rendered them on the filing of a claim for compensation supported by affidavits specifying the time expended and the services, and expenses incurred on behalf of the juvenile, and the compensation received in the same case or for the same services from the juvenile or any other source. [Adopted June 28, 1978, effective July 1, 1978.]

TITLE 10. JUVENILE COURT RECORDS

- Rule
 10.1 Scope of Title 10.
 10.2 Recording juvenile court proceedings.
 (a) Proceedings other than juvenile offense proceedings.
 (b) Juvenile offense proceedings.

ORDER ADOPTING

- (1) Classification System for Court Rules
- (2) Amendments to Rules on Appeal
- (3) Civil Rules for Superior Court
- (4) Special Proceedings Rules for Superior Court
- (5) Criminal Rules for Superior Court

WHEREAS, the legislature enacted Laws of 1925, chapter 118, relating generally to rules of procedure; and

WHEREAS, authority to promulgate and adopt uniform rules of procedure for the courts in the state of Washington is vested in the Supreme Court of Washington under the decision in State ex rel. Foster-Wyman Lbr. Co. v. Superior Court, 148 Wash. 1, 267 Pac. 770 (1928); and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of Washington requested technical assistance, advice, and counsel from the Judicial Council, that a comprehensive study be made, and that proposed civil rules for Superior Court be drafted and submitted by the Judicial Council for consideration by the Supreme Court; and

WHEREAS, the Judicial Council established an advisory committee to do research and drafting, and to submit initial drafts of proposed civil rules for Superior Court.

WHEREAS, The advisory committee, after years of study, submitted to the Judicial Council an enlarged proposal made necessary by the revision of the civil rules consisting of:

- (1) Classification System for Court Rules
- (2) Amendments to Rules on Appeal
- (3) Civil Rules for Superior Court
- (4) Special Proceedings Rules for Superior Court (as renumbered)
- (5) Criminal Rules for Superior Court (as renumbered)

WHEREAS, the Judicial Council caused copies of the proposed changes in rules to be distributed to interested individuals throughout the state, inviting and requesting comments and suggestions; and, after due consideration and careful revision by individual members of the Judicial Council, and by the council as a whole, the proposed changes in rules, as finally revised and unanimously approved by the Judicial Council, were submitted to the Supreme Court; and

WHEREAS, all written comment and criticism filed with the Judicial Council was evaluated and given due consideration by the Judicial Council; and

WHEREAS, these proposed civil rules for Superior Court together with the other necessary proposed changes in rules were considered by individual members of the Supreme Court and by the Supreme Court as a whole; NOW THEREFORE,

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Classification System for Court Rules.

The following classification system for court rules is adopted and the titles to existing Court Rules are amended to conform:

(See Part I, General Rules, Rule 1)

[The above classification was amended by order of the court dated June 28, 1967. Such classification as amended is now General Rules, Rule 1.]

2. Proposed Amendments to Rules on Appeal.

The Judicial Council has proposed amendments to the Rules on Appeal, all appearing appropriate to coordinate the Rules on Appeal with changes made by the New Civil Rules For Superior Court. Action by the Supreme Court on these proposals is temporarily deferred for further study.

3. Rules of Pleading, Practice and Procedure.

The Rules of Pleading, Practice and Procedure are superseded by the following rules entitled as follows:

FOREWORD

(to rules adopted May 5, 1967)

In January of 1961 Judge Donworth suggested to the Washington Judicial Council that certain civil rules for superior court be clarified. This resulted in a committee report in October of that year, recommending the adoption of five federal rules. Further suggestions for the adoption of certain federal rules were received about that time from Washington state attorneys and judges. By June of 1962 more than a dozen federal rules had been studied and their adoptions proposed. It was then decided to do an intensive study of the federal rules and to incorporate numerous suggestions that had been received from members of the Council, from judges and from attorneys. By this time it had become apparent to the Council's committee that in many areas Washington practice was preferable to federal practice.

By January 1964 the Sixth Draft had been prepared by the committee and considered by the Council at numerous meetings. This Draft was published as a service to the Bench and Bar by the West Publishing Company and widely distributed throughout that state to judges and local bar associations for their study, suggestions, and criticisms. The superior court judges of the state, at their annual Judicial Conference, discussed the proposed rules at length and submitted suggestions to the Judicial Council. Letters were received from bar associations and from individual attorneys suggesting various changes. These suggestions were considered at several meetings of the Judicial Council during 1965 and resulted in the Seventh Draft, which was submitted to the Supreme Court for its consideration.

The rules are designed to accomplish the following objectives:

- (1) To provide a single trial manual with ready references to the procedural rules and statutes relating to the trial of cases in the Superior Court of Washington;
- (2) To conform to the federal practice in all situations where there are no compelling reasons for perpetuating Washington practice, especially in the many situations where the Washington statutes, rules, and case law are confusing, obscure, or nonexistent;
- (3) To preserve the Washington practice in all situations where the Washington practice is believed to be superior or where the matter is not adequately covered by federal rules;
- (4) To eliminate many procedural traps now existing in Washington practice;
- (5) To conform the Civil Rules for the Superior Court to the Civil Rules for the Justice Courts which also follow the format of the federal rules;
- (6) To make available a ready reference to all authorities discussing the comparable federal rules.

The Court expresses its appreciation to the members of the committee of the Judicial Council who drafted the proposed rules. This committee, consisting of Judge Frank D. James, Senator Fred H. Dore, and Dan Reaugh, chairman, with the assistance of Professor Robert Meisenholder of the University of Washington School of Law as reporter, devoted many hours and much labor to this complex and extensive compilation. We are likewise grateful to the many lawyers and judges whose helpful suggestions have added materially in the formulation of the rules as now presented.

A final note is that most of the 1966 Amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure have been incorporated into the comparable Civil Rule.

ROBERT C. FINLEY, Chief Justice

2. EXPLANATION BY THE COURT

Format. So that the many text books on the Federal Rules will be readily usable in researching these Civil Rules for Superior Court, every effort has been made to maintain the format of the Rule Number and subdivision organization of the Federal Rules. Therefore, even though the text of a given subdivision of a Federal Rule is not adopted, the comparable text of the Washington Rule is included where appropriate under the comparable Federal subdivision. Where the Federal Rules contain no comparable subdivision for a Washington Rule, and when the subject of the Washington subdivision logically should be placed before a subdivision "(a)" of the applicable Federal Rule, the hyphen symbol "(-)" is used to identify the inserted subparagraph. For examples see Rules 4(-) and 17(-). In other words, the hyphen (-) subdivision always precedes an (a) subdivision. When a Washington subdivision logically follows the last subdivision of a Federal Rule, the Washington subdivision is added after the last Federal subdivision. For examples see subdivisions (e) of Rule 15, and (i), (j), (k) and (l) of Rule 9. If there is no comparable Washington subdivision for a Federal subdivision, the Federal subdivision is included and designated as "[Reserved]".

Statutes. Where a Washington procedural statute, not superseded by a rule, logically comes within the scope of the Format of the subject matter of the Federal Rules, a cross-reference is added after the most appropriate "[Reserved]" subdivision. For examples see subdivision (b), (c), and (d) of Rule 3 and (d), (e) and (f) of Rule 17. The inclusion of a cross-reference to a statute does not imply that there are no other pertinent statutes.

Comments by the court. Where it appears that all or part of a statute has been superseded by a Rule, a statement to that effect is included in the Comments. Statutes not superseded continue to be effective. The Comments also identify the sources of the Rules.

Abbreviations. These "Civil Rules for Superior Court" may be cited as "CRs".

THE ADOPTION
RULES OF COURT

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court of Washington on May 5, 1967, issued and published in 71 W.D. 2d No. 1A, new court rules primarily applicable to the Superior Court, to become effective on July 1, 1967, and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court individually, and in executive session, has received and considered comments, suggestions, and objections as requested in the May 5, 1967 order, and

WHEREAS, most suggestions and objections not adopted will be referred to the Judicial Council for further study,

NOW, THEREFORE, it is ORDERED that:

1. A new General Rule 1 relating to the classification of Court Rules is adopted to read:

(Reviser's note: See Part I, GENERAL RULES, Rule 1) The titles to all Court Rules are amended to conform.

2. On page vi of the May 5, 1967, order, the table of cross-references is amended by deleting "Rule 93.06W [98.06W] . . . SPR 98.06W."

3. The Rules on Appeal (ROA) are amended as follows:

(a) ROA 15, entitled "Jurisdiction, Effect of Appeal on", is amended by substituting:

Appendix to Part IV: Court Orders And Tables

"A party may appeal from any order, judgment or decree enumerated in ROA 14 by giving notice of appeal as provided in ROA 33 and ROA 46. Except when the running of time for appeal is suspended as otherwise provided in these rules," for:

"A party may appeal from any order, judgment, or decree enumerated in Rule 14 by giving notice of appeal as provided in Rule 33, and"

Comment. The amendment coordinates with other rules such as ROA 33(6) and 46(b)(1) the suspending or extending the running of the time for filing the notice of appeal when certain post-trial motions are pending.

(b) ROA 16, entitled "Powers of Supreme Court", is amended by adding at the end a new paragraph reading:

"An appeal to the Supreme Court from a judgment granted on a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict shall, of itself, without the necessity of a cross-appeal, bring up for review the ruling of the trial court on the motion for a new trial; and the Supreme Court shall, if it reverses the judgment entered notwithstanding the verdict, review and determine the validity of the ruling on the motion for a new trial."

Comment. The paragraph added is identical to the last sentence from RPPP 59.08W which is superseded.

(c) In heading and in text of ROA 27, entitled "Exception to Surety", change "Exception" to "Objection" and "except" to "object" and "excepts" to "objects."

Comment. This change from exceptions to objections is consistent with the Proposed CR-46 relation to objections.

(d) Paragraph (6) of ROA 33, entitled "Notice of Appeal and Cross-appeal in Civil Cases" is amended to read:

"(6) Extension of Time for Filing Notice of Appeal. If a timely motion is made for judgment notwithstanding the verdict under CR 50(b), for the amendment of findings under CR 52(b), for vacation of judgment under CR 52(d), and/or for reconsideration, etc., under CR 59, the notice of appeal may be filed within 30 days after the entry of the order granting or denying the motion."

Comment. Paragraph (6) is amended to clarify the effect on the running of the time for appeal when the enumerated motions are pending in the superior court.

(e) ROA 35, entitled "Statement of Facts, What Constitutes", is amended by adding in the first sentence "any objections or" between "and" and "exceptions in the cause".

Comment. The phrase "exceptions in the cause" is not deleted because some statutes relating to the review of administrative ruling require "statements of exceptions".

(f) ROA 40, entitled "Return of Statement of Facts", is amended by:

- (1) Changing title to "Statement of Facts".
- (2) The present text of Rule on Appeal 40 is designated as subdivision (b) with the subtitle of "(b) Use by Counsel".
- (3) Adding new subdivisions (a) and (c) and comment reading:

"(a) Notice of Filing. When the proposed statement of facts is received by the clerk of the superior court, the clerk shall promptly notify the Supreme Court of the filing.

"(c) Forwarding to Supreme Court. The clerk of the superior court shall not forward the statement of facts to the clerk of the Supreme Court until the time for filing the respondent's brief has elapsed, except by consent in writing of respondent's counsel."

Comment. Subdivision (c) follows and supersedes RPPP 77.16W(4)."

4. The Civil Rules for Superior Court (CRs) are amended as follows:

JUSTICE COURT ADMINISTRATIVE RULES (JAR)

(Formerly: Administrative Rules for Justice Court; General Rules for Courts of Limited Jurisdiction (J))

Table of Rules

Rule	Description
JAR 1	Qualifying Examination of Lay Candidates for Justice of the Peace. (a) Examining Committee. (b) Committee Responsibilities. (c) Unsuccessful Candidates.
JAR 2	Scope of Rules.
JAR 3	Definition of Terms.
JAR 4	Canons of Judicial Ethics.
JAR 5	Presiding Judge, Multiple Judge Justice Court District. (a) Appointment. (b) Duties.
JAR 6	Records: Separate Dockets—Contents.
JAR 7	Violation of Rules—Contempt—When.
JAR 8	Reporting of Criminal Cases. (a) Report of Disposition. (b) Report of Appeal.

Rule JAR 1 Qualifying Examination of Lay Candidates for Justice of the Peace.

(a) Examining Committee. The qualifying examination for lay candidates for justice of the peace under RCW 3.34.060(2)(c) shall be prepared and administered in each county in which the statute is in force by a committee composed of the Administrator for the Courts, the Executive Secretary of the Judicial Council, and the President of the Magistrates' Association, under the supervision of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The Administrator for the Courts shall be the chairman of the committee.

(b) Committee Responsibilities. The committee shall:

(1) Study syllabus. Promulgate a syllabus for study by candidates to prepare them for the responsibilities of a justice of the peace. The syllabus shall include, but is not necessarily limited to, constitutional and statutory provisions and Supreme Court rules relating to the conduct of justice of the peace courts, state statutes governing the operation of motor vehicles, basic rules of evidence, and rights of a criminal defendant.

(2) Examination. Prepare an examination to determine the level of proficiency of candidates on subjects included in the study syllabus. The examination shall require written responses to written interrogatories, and may also include an oral portion.

(3) Administration. Announce the time and place for the examination and provide for monitoring and security during the examination.

(4) Grading. Arrange for the grading of the examination papers and determine a level of adequate competence.

(5) Certification. Certify to the auditor of the county in which the applicant resides the names of those applicants qualified by examination for performing the duties of a justice of the peace.

(c) Unsuccessful Candidates. A candidate who fails to pass the qualifying examination may, on petition to the Committee, be given additional examinations at times and places set by the committee. [Adopted June 21, 1962, effective June 21, 1962.]

Rule JAR 2 Scope of Rules. These rules shall govern the procedure of civil, criminal, and traffic cases in all courts of limited jurisdiction inferior to the superior court. They shall be construed to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action. Failure to set forth herein any provisions of common law or statute, not inconsistent with these rules, shall not be construed as an implied repeal thereof. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule JAR 3 Definition of Terms. As used in these rules, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Court" means any court inferior to the superior court.

(2) "Judge" shall mean Justice of the Peace, Municipal Court Judge, Police Court Judge, and the judge of any court inferior to the superior court which may be hereafter established.

(3) "Oaths" include affirmations.

(4) "Prosecuting Attorney" or "prosecutor" includes deputy prosecuting attorneys, and city attorneys, corporation counsels, and their deputies and assistants.

(5) "Offenses against the State" shall, wherever appropriate, include offenses against a county or a city by virtue of violation of an ordinance or resolution.

(6) "City" shall be construed to include towns.

(7) "State" whenever appropriate, shall include a city or town. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule JAR 4 Canons of Judicial Ethics. (1) The Canons of Judicial Ethics as adopted by the Supreme Court of Washington shall apply to the judge of each court subject to these rules, whether or not such judge has been admitted to the bar. It shall be the obligation of each such judge to conduct his court and his professional and personal relationships in accordance with the same standards as are required of judges of courts of record, except that Canon 31, prohibiting judges from practicing law, shall not apply to attorney-justices of courts of limited jurisdiction who have been specifically authorized by statute to practice law.

(2) The taking of photographs in the courtroom or radio or television broadcasting or transmitting of judicial proceedings from the courtroom during the progress of judicial proceedings shall be governed by the Canons of Judicial Ethics. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule JAR 5 Presiding Judge, Multiple Judge Justice Court District.

(a) Appointment. In all justice court districts having more than one judge, the judicial business of the district shall be supervised by one of those judges to be known as the "Presiding Judge," who shall be elected by the judges of such district for a term not to exceed one year subject to re-election. In the same manner, the judges shall elect another judge of said district to serve as Acting Presiding Judge during the temporary absence or disability of the Presiding Judge. Interim vacancies in the office of Presiding Judge or Acting Presiding Judge shall be filled as in the original election above described.

The Presiding Judge so elected shall send notice of the election of such Presiding Judge and Acting Presiding Judge to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court on or before May 1, 1963, and thereafter on or before March 15th of each year. If the judges of a district shall fail or refuse to elect and certify to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court shall by appointment designate the Presiding Judge and Acting Presiding Judge.

(b) Duties. The duties of the Presiding Judge shall include the supervision of the business of the judicial district in such manner as to assure the expeditious and efficient handling of all cases and equal distribution of the work load among the several judges; assigning the justices of the peace to departments, if the court is departmentalized; presiding at meetings of the justices of the peace of the district; supervising the preparation and filing of reports required by statute or rule of court; and such other duties as may be assigned by statute or by rule. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule JAR 6 Records: Separate Dockets—Contents. (a) Every court having criminal jurisdiction shall keep such records as are required by law.

(b) Separate dockets shall be kept for criminal, traffic, civil, and small claims actions. The required entries within the traffic and criminal dockets shall be as required on the "Complaint/Citation Docket Form" prescribed in JTR T2.01. In civil and small claims dockets there shall be entered:

- (1) The title of all actions.
 - (2) The object of the action or proceeding.
 - (3) All filing, return, trial, and appearance dates.
 - (4) An abstract of every motion, rule, order and decision of the court.
 - (5) Every continuance, and for whom granted.
 - (6) All demands for a trial by jury, and by whom.
 - (7) The names of the jurors who appear and are sworn; the names of witnesses sworn, and at whose request.
 - (8) An abstract of the verdict of the jury when received and other proceedings in connection with the jury.
 - (9) An abstract of the judgment of the court and the amount thereof, and all costs granted in connection therewith.
 - (10) The time of issuing execution, and an account of the debt and costs, and the fees due to each person separately.
 - (11) The fact of a notice of appeal and the date thereof.
 - (12) Satisfaction of the judgment, or any money paid thereon and the date thereof.
 - (13) Such other entries as may be material.
- [Amended October 16, 1975, effective January 1, 1976; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule JAR 7 Violation of Rules—Contempt—When. Any wilful failure to apply the provisions of these rules in his court, the failure to amend or vacate local court rules contradictory to those herein set forth, or the continuation of practices expressly forbidden in these rules by the judge of any court subject thereto who has received actual notice of their adoption may be considered a contempt of the Supreme Court of Washington and punishable as such. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule JAR 8 Reporting of criminal cases.

(a) Report of Disposition. Within five court days after the disposition by a court of limited jurisdiction of a felony or gross misdemeanor charge or misdemeanor charges which have been reported to the Washington State Patrol Section on Identification, whether the disposition be a plea of guilty or by deferral or suspension of imposition of sentence, or a finding of guilty, or not guilty after trial, or by a dismissal of the charge, the court clerk shall report such disposition to the Section on a disposition form approved by the Administrator for the Courts. When a sentence has been deferred or suspended, the report to the Section shall indicate the length of time over which such suspension or deferral is to be effective. At the conclusion of the time period for deferral or suspension of sentence, the court clerk shall forward an amended disposition form to the Section showing the actual disposition of the case.

(b) Report of Appeal. If an appeal is taken from the disposition made by a court of limited jurisdiction, the court clerk shall, within five court days of the taking of the appeal, notify the Section on an amended disposition form. In the event that the result of any proceeding changes or otherwise makes inaccurate the information forwarded on the original disposition report, the court clerk shall prepare and forward to the Section a supplemental disposition report on a form approved by the Administrator for the Courts indicating thereon the information necessary to correct the current status of the disposition of charges against the subject maintained in the records of the Section. [Adopted January 17, 1974, effective March 1, 1974.]

Rule 3 Commencement of Action. A civil action is commenced by filing with the court a complaint signed as required by Rule 11. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4 Process.

(a) Notice: Issuance. Any person desiring to commence a civil action shall do so by filing a written complaint with the court, and when such complaint is so filed, upon payment of a fee, a notice shall issue.

(b) Notice: Time. (1) First. The first notice shall notify the defendant to appear in person, in writing, or by attorney on or before the time and at the place stated in the notice, which shall not be less than fifteen days nor more than thirty days from the date the complaint was filed.

(2) Additional. Upon affidavit of the plaintiff or his attorney that service of the notice was not perfected, additional notices may be issued directing the defendant to appear in not less than fifteen days nor more than thirty days, provided that the maximum period of any return date shall not be more than ninety days from the date the complaint was filed.

(c) Notice: Form. The notice shall be signed by the judge or clerk and be substantially in the following form:

(NAME AND LOCATION OF COURT)

 Plaintiff
 vs. No. _____
 NOTICE OF SUIT
 ----- ,
 Defendant

To ----- (Defendants)

On ----- 19__, above-named plaintiff(s) filed a claim against you, a copy of which is attached.

You are notified to appear in person, in writing, or by attorney on or at any time before ----- at the office of the clerk of the above entitled court at ----- (address of court) and admit or deny the above claim. If you deny any part of the claim, then the court clerk will set the case for trial at a future date.

If you fail to appear or to answer, judgment will be taken against you by default as demanded in the claim.

Issued: ----- (Name and address of

(Judge or Clerk)

(d) Notice: By Whom Served. Service of notice and complaint may be made by the sheriff or some constable of the county or district in which the court is located or by any citizen of the State of Washington over the age of eighteen years and who is competent to be a witness and is not a party to the action.

(e) Notice: Personal Service. The notice shall be attached to the complaint and a copy of the notice and complaint shall be served together upon the defendant at least fourteen days before the return day stated in the notice. The plaintiff shall furnish the person making service with such copies as are necessary. Service shall be made within the territorial jurisdiction of the court as follows:

(1) If the action be against any county in this state, to the county auditor.

(2) If against any town or incorporated city in the state, to the mayor, manager or clerk thereof.

(3) If against a school district, to the clerk thereof.

(4) If against a railroad corporation, to any station, freight, ticket or other agent thereof.

(5) If against a corporation owning or operating sleeping cars, or hotel cars, to any person having charge of any of its cars or any agent found.

(6) If against a domestic insurance company, to any agent authorized by such company to solicit insurance.

(7) If against a foreign or alien insurance company as provided in RCW 48.05.200 and 48.05.210.

(8) If against a company or corporation doing any express business, to any agent authorized by said company or corporation to receive and deliver express matters and collect pay therefor.

(9) If the suit be against a company or corporation other than those designated in the preceding subdivisions of this section, to the president or other head of the company or corporation, secretary, cashier or managing agent of the company or corporation or branch or local office or to the secretary, stenographer or office assistant of such individuals.

(10) If the suit be against a foreign corporation or nonresident joint stock company, partnership or association doing business within this state, to any agent, cashier or secretary thereof.

(11) If against a minor under the age of 14 years, to such minor personally, and also to his father, mother, guardian, or if there be none within the jurisdiction then to any person having the care or control of such minor, or with whom he resides, or in whose service he is employed, if such there be.

(12) If against any person for whom a guardian has been appointed for any cause, then to such guardian.

(13) In all other cases, to the defendant personally, or by leaving complaint and notice at the house of his usual abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then resident therein.

(14) Whenever any domestic or foreign corporation, which has been doing business in this state, has been placed in the hands of a receiver and the receiver is in possession of any of the property or assets of such corporation, service of all process upon such corporation may be made upon the receiver thereof.

Service made in the modes provided in this rule 4(e) shall be taken and held to be personal service.

(f) Notice: Service by Publication and Personal Service Out of the Jurisdiction. (1) When the defendant cannot be found within the territorial jurisdiction of the court (of which the return of the sheriff of the county in which the action is brought, that the defendant cannot be found in the county, is prima facie evidence), and upon the filing of an affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney, with the court stating that he believes that the defendant is not a resident of the county, or cannot be found therein, and that he has deposited a copy of the notice (substantially in the form prescribed in this rule) and complaint in the post office, directed to the defendant at his place of residence, unless it is stated in the affidavit that such residence is not known to the affiant, and stating the existence of one of the cases hereinafter specified, the service may be made by publication of the notice by the plaintiff or his attorney in any of the following cases:

(i) When the defendant is a foreign corporation, and has property within the county;

(ii) When the defendant, being a resident of the county, has departed therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid the service of a notice and complaint, or keeps himself concealed therein with like intent;

(iii) When the defendant is not a resident of the county, but has property therein which has been brought under the control of the court by seizure or some equivalent act;

(iv) When the subject of the action is personal property in the county, and the defendant has or claims a lien or interest, actual or contingent, therein, and the relief demanded consists wholly, or partially, in excluding the defendant from any interest or lien therein;

(v) When the action is brought under RCW 4.08.160 and 4.08.170 to determine conflicting claims to personal property in the county.

(2) The publication shall be made in a newspaper authorized to publish a summons in superior court and shall not be published until after the filing of the complaint. The notice must be subscribed by the judge or clerk, it shall notify the defendant to appear in person or by attorney on a date certain, and it shall contain a brief statement of the object of the action. Said notice shall be published not less than once a week for 3 weeks prior to the time fixed for the hearing of the cause, which shall not be less than 4 weeks from the time of first publication of such notice; and publication shall be deemed complete on the seventh day following the last publication.

The notice shall be substantially in the following form:

(NAME AND LOCATION OF COURT)

vs.
Defendant

No. -----
NOTICE OF SUIT

To ----- (Defendants)
On ----- 19--, above-named plaintiff(s) filed a claim against you.

You are notified to appear in person or by attorney on or at any time before ----- at the office of the clerk of the above entitled court at ----- (address of court) and admit or deny the above claim. If you deny any part of the claim, then the court clerk will set the case for trial at a future date.

If you fail to appear or to answer, judgment will be taken against you by default as demanded in the claim. (Insert here a brief statement of the object of the action.)

Issued: -----
(Name and address of plaintiff or his attorney)

(Judge or Clerk)

(3) Personal service on the defendant out of the territorial jurisdiction of the court shall be equivalent to service by publication, and the notice to the defendant out of the county shall contain the same as the notice by publication and shall require the defendant to appear at a time and place certain which shall not be less than 30 days from the date of service.

(4) Service made in the modes provided in this rule 4(f) shall not alone be taken and held to give the court jurisdiction over the person of the defendant. By such service the court only acquires jurisdiction to give a judgment which is effective as to property or debts attached or garnished in connection with the suit or other property which properly forms the basis of jurisdiction of the court. If the defendant appears in a suit commenced by such service the court shall have jurisdiction over his person. The defendant may appear specially and solely to challenge jurisdiction over property or debts attached or garnished or other property within the jurisdiction of the court.

(g) Territorial Limits of Effective Service. The complaint and notice may be served anywhere within the county or counties in which the district of the court is located.

(h) Return. (1) The person serving the complaint and notice shall make proof of service thereof to the court promptly and in any event within the time during which the person served must respond to the notice.

(2) Proof of service shall be as follows:

(i) If served by the sheriff or his deputy or a constable, the return of the officer indorsed upon or attached to a copy of the notice; or

(ii) If served by any other person, his affidavit of service indorsed upon or attached to a copy of the notice; or

(iii) If served by publication, the affidavit of the printer, publisher, foreman, principal clerk or business manager of the newspaper showing the same, together with a printed copy of the notice as published; or

(iv) Written admission of the defendant indorsed upon a copy of the notice.

In case of service otherwise than by publication, the return, affidavit, or admission must state the time, place and manner of service.

(3) Costs shall not be awarded and a default judgment shall not be rendered unless proof of service is on file with the court.

(i) Amendment. At any time in its discretion and upon such terms as it deems just, the court may allow any process or proof of service thereof to be amended, unless it clearly appears that material prejudice would result to the substantial rights of the party against whom the process issued. [Amended November 26, 1975, effective January 1, 1976; amended February 24, 1972, effective July 1, 1972; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 5 Service and Filing of Pleadings and Other Papers.

(a) Service: When Required. Every order required by its terms to be served, every written pleading subsequent to the original complaint, every written motion, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, or other paper shall be served upon all parties, but no service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of notice and complaint in Rule 4.

(b) Same: How Made. Whenever under these rules service of papers other than the complaint and notice is required or permitted the rules governing the manner of service of such papers in superior courts shall govern.*

(c) Filing. When pleadings or motions are oral the substance of them shall be entered in the records. All papers after the complaint required to be served upon a party shall be filed with the court either before service or within a reasonable time thereafter and a reference shall be made to them in the record of the court.

(d) Filing With the Court Defined. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the judge or with his authorized clerk and the filing date shall be noted thereon at the time of filing. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

*Note by the Court: See RCW 4.28.230-4.28.280.

Rule 6 Time.

(a) Computation. The time within which an act is to be done, as herein provided, shall be computed by excluding the first day, and including the last, unless the last day is a holiday or Sunday, and then it is also excluded.

(b) For Motions—Affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than 3 days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by these rules or by order of the court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and, except as otherwise provided in any of these rules, opposing affidavits may be served not later than 1 day before the hearing, unless the court permits them to be served at some other time. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

 - (c) Relation back of amendments.
 - (d) Supplemental pleadings.
 - (e) Interlineations.
- 16 Garnishments.

Rule 7 Pleadings Allowed: Form of Motions.

(a) Pleadings. There shall be a complaint and an answer; and there shall be a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; an answer to a cross-claim, if the answer contains a cross-claim; a third-party complaint, if leave is given under rule 14 to summon a person who was not an original party; and there shall be a third-party answer, if a third-party complaint is served. No other pleadings shall be allowed.

The complaints, counterclaims, cross-claims and third-party claims shall be in writing. A reply to a counterclaim and answers may be written or oral. When pleadings are oral the substance of them shall be entered in the docket.

(b) Motions and Other Papers. (1) An application to the court for an order shall be by motion. Motions may be oral or written. Motions need not be in any special form but must be such as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

(2) The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of written pleadings apply to all written motions and other papers provided for by these rules.

(c) Demurrers, Pleas, etc., Abolished. Demurrers, pleas and exceptions for insufficiency of a pleading shall not be used. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 8 General Rules of Pleading.

(a) Claims for Relief. A complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, and (2) a demand for judgment for the relief to which he deems himself entitled. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

(b) Defenses; Form of Denials. A party shall state his defenses, denials and objections to each claim asserted against him in any form which will enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended. If he is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, he shall so state and this has the effect of a denial.

(c) Affirmative Defenses. In a written answer to a complaint, cross-claim or third-party claim and in a written reply to a counterclaim, a party shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

(d) Effect of Failure to Deny. Statements in a pleading to which responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damage, are admitted when not denied by responsive pleading. Statements of an answer to a complaint, cross-claim, or third-party complaint, or a reply to a counterclaim shall be taken as denied or avoided.

(e) Pleading to Be Concise and Direct; Consistency. (1) No technical forms of pleadings or motions are required.

Pleadings and motions shall be stated so as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

(2) A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternately or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or on equitable grounds or on both. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in rule 11.

(f) Construction of Pleadings. All pleadings shall be so construed as to do substantial justice. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 9 (Reserved).

Rule 10 Form of Pleadings.

(a) Caption; Names of Parties. Every written pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the title of the action, the file number if known to the person signing it, and a designation as in rule 7(a). In the complaint the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other written pleadings it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties. When the plaintiff is ignorant of the name of the defendant, it shall be so stated in his pleading, and such defendant may be designated in any pleading or proceeding by any name, and when his true name shall be discovered, the pleading or proceeding may be amended accordingly.

(b) Adoption by Reference; Exhibits. Statements in a pleading may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading is a part thereof for all purposes.

(c) Form. All notices, pleadings, motions, and other papers filed shall be plainly written or typed. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 11 Verification and Signing of Pleadings.

(1) Every complaint, answer or reply shall be verified by the oath of the party pleading; or if he be not present, by the oath of his attorney or agent, to the effect that he believes it to be true. The verification shall be oral, or in writing, in conformity with the pleading verified.

(2) All other pleadings of a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name, whose address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign his pleading and state his address. The signature of a party or an attorney constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the pleading; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 12 Defenses and objections—When and how presented—By pleading or motion—Motion for judgment on pleadings.

(a) When Presented. If the answer is oral, a defendant shall make the oral answer on or before the time he is required to appear in answer to the notice as indicated in rule 4. If the answer is written a defendant shall serve his answer on or before the time he is required to appear in answer to the notice as indicated in rule 4. A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against him shall answer thereto on the return date fixed in a notice which shall accompany the pleading. The plaintiff shall reply to a counterclaim not less than three days prior to trial. If the court denies a motion permitted under this rule or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the court may set the case for trial at the same time and also fix a time for the responsive pleading. If the court grants a motion for more definite statement the court may set the case for trial at the same time and fix the date for making the more definite statement and for the responsive pleading to the more definite statement.

(b) How Presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted by the responsive pleading thereto, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (3) insufficiency of process, (4) insufficiency of service of process, (5) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, (6) failure to join an indispensable party. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered (5) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in CR 56 and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by CR 56.

(c) Preliminary Hearings. The defenses specifically enumerated (1)–(6) in subdivision (b) of this rule, whether made in a pleading or by motion, shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.

(d) Motion for More Definite Statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted (for example, the complaint) is so vague or ambiguous that a person of common understanding cannot know what is intended, he may move for a more definite statement before interposing his responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the court is not obeyed within 10 days after the order or within such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.

(e) Motion to Strike. Upon motion made by a party not less than three days prior to trial or upon the court's own initiative at any time the court may order stricken from the complaint any impertinent or scandalous matter.

(f) Consolidation of Defenses. A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it the other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this rule and does not include therein all defenses and objections then available to him which this rule permits to be raised by motions, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on any of the defenses or objections so omitted, except as provided in subdivision (g) of this rule.

(g) Waiver of Defenses. A party waives all defenses and objections which he does not present either by motion as hereinbefore provided or, if he has made no motion, in his answer or reply, except (1) that the defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, the defense of failure to join an indispensable party, and the objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may also be made by a later pleading, if one is permitted, or by motion for judgment on the pleadings or at the trial on the merits, and except (2) that, whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the court shall dismiss the action. The objection or defense, if made at the trial, shall be disposed of as provided in rule 15(b) in the light of any evidence that may have been received. [Amended June 4, 1976, effective July 1, 1976; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 13 Counterclaim and Cross-Claim.

(a) Permissive Counterclaims. A pleading may state as a counterclaim any claim against an opposing party.

(b) Counterclaim Exceeding Opposing Claim. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

(c) Counterclaim Maturing or Acquired After Pleading. A claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving his pleading may, with the permission of the court be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.

(d) Omitted Counterclaim. When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, he may by leave of court set up the counterclaim by amendment.

(e) Cross-Claim Against Co-Party. A pleading may state as a cross-claim any claim by one party against a co-party arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross-claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.

(f) Additional Parties May Be Brought In. When the presence of parties other than those to the original action is required for the granting of complete relief in the determination of a counterclaim or cross-claim, the court shall order them to be brought in as defendants as provided in these rules, if jurisdiction of them can be obtained.

(g) Separate Trials; Separate Judgment. If the court orders separate trials as provided in rule 42(a), judgment on a counterclaim or cross-claim may be rendered in accordance with the terms of rule 42(b), even if the claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 13.04 Setoffs Against Assignees.

(a) Setoff Against Assignee. The defendant in a civil action upon a contract express or implied, other than upon a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange, negotiated in good faith and without notice before due, which has been assigned to the plaintiff, may set off a demand of a like nature existing against the person to whom he was originally liable, or any assignee prior to the plaintiff, of such contract, provided such demand existed at the time of the assignment thereof, and belonging to the defendant in good faith, before notice of such assignment, and was such a demand as might have been set off against such person to whom he was originally liable, or such assignee while the contract belonged to him.

(b) Setoff Against Beneficiary of Trust Estate. If the plaintiff be a trustee to any other, or if the action be in a name of a plaintiff which has no real interest in the contract upon which the action is founded, so much of a demand existing against those whom the plaintiff represents or for whose benefit the action is brought, may be set off as will satisfy the plaintiff's debt, if the same might have been set off in an action brought against those beneficially interested.

(c) Setoff Must Be Pled. To entitle a defendant to a setoff under this rule, he must set forth the same in his answer. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 14 Third-Party Practice.

(a) When Defendant May Bring in Third Party. Before making his answer, a defendant may move ex parte or, after answering, on notice to the plaintiff, for leave as a third-party plaintiff to serve a notice and complaint upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against him. If the motion is granted and the notice and complaint are served, the person so served, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, shall make his defenses to the third-party plaintiff's claim as provided in rule 12 and his counterclaims against the third-party plaintiff and cross-claims against other third-party defendants as provided in rule 13. The third-party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third-party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third-party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third-party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff, and the third-party defendant thereupon shall assert his defenses as provided in rule 12. A third-party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third-party defendant.

(b) When Plaintiff May Bring in Third Party. When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, he may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under this rule would entitle a defendant to do so.

(c) Tort Cases. This rule shall not be applied, in tort cases, so as to permit the joinder of a liability or indemnity insurance company, unless such company is by statute or contract directly liable to the person injured or damaged. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Removal of certain actions to Superior Court. See Chapter 4.14 RCW.

Rule 15 Amended and Supplemental Pleadings.

(a) Amendments Prior to Trial. A party may amend a complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim or third-party complaint once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is made, or, if the pleading is an answer or a reply to a counterclaim he may so amend it at any time within 20 days after it is served, provided it is amended prior to trial. Otherwise, prior to trial a party may amend his pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within 10 days after service or notice of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the court otherwise orders.

(b) Amendments At or After the Trial. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues.

If the evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. The court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

(c) Relation Back of Amendments. Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading.

(d) Supplemental Pleadings. Upon motion of a party, the court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit him to serve or make a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. If the court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead thereto, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor.

(e) Interlineations. No amendments shall be made to any pleading by erasing or adding words to the original on file, except by permission of the court. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 16 Garnishments. Garnishments are governed by RCW 7.33. Provided, that judges or their clerks, may issue writs of garnishment in accordance with the provisions therein. [Amended June 4, 1976, effective July 1, 1976; adopted July 14, 1966, effective August 1, 1966.]

IV. PARTIES

Rule

- 17 Parties plaintiff and defendant; capacity.
 - (a) Real party in interest.
 - (b) Infants or incompetent persons.
- 18 Joinder of claims and remedies.
 - (a) Joinder of claims.
 - (b) Joinder of remedies.
- 19 Necessary joinder of parties.
 - (a) Necessary joinder.
 - (b) Effect of failure to join.
 - (c) Same: Names of omitted persons and reasons for nonjoinder to be pleaded.
- 20 Permissive joinder of parties.
 - (a) Permissive joinder.
 - (b) Separate trials.
- 21 Misjoinder and nonjoinder of parties.
- 22 Interpleader.
 - (a) Scope.
 - (b) Other remedies.
- 23 (Reserved).
- 24 Intervention.
 - (a) Intervention of right.

(b) Permissive intervention.

(c) Procedure.

25 Substitution of parties.

(a) Death.

(b) Incompetency.

(c) Transfer of interest.

Rule 17 Parties Plaintiff and Defendant; Capacity.

(a) Real Party in Interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest; but an executor, administrator, guardian, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought.

(b) Infants or Incompetent Persons. (1) When an infant is a party he shall appear by guardian, or if he has no guardian, or in the opinion of the court the guardian is an improper person, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem. The guardian shall be appointed:

(i) When the infant is plaintiff, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of 14 years, or if under the age, upon the application of a relative or friend of the infant.

(ii) When the infant is defendant, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of 14 years, and applies within the time he is to appear; if he be under the age of fourteen, or neglects to apply, then upon the application of any other party to the action, or of a relative or friend of the infant.

(2) When an insane person is a party to an action he shall appear by guardian, or if he has no guardian, or in the opinion of the court the guardian is an improper person, the court shall appoint one to act as guardian ad litem. Said guardian shall be appointed:

(i) When the insane person is plaintiff, upon the application of a relative or friend of the insane person.

(ii) When the insane person is defendant, upon the application of a relative or friend of such insane person, such application shall be made within the time he is to appear. If no such application be made within the time above limited, application may be made by any party to the action. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 18 Joinder of Claims and Remedies.

(a) Joinder of Claims. The plaintiff in his complaint or in reply setting forth a counterclaim and the defendant in an answer setting forth a counterclaim may join either as independent or as alternate claims as many claims either legal or equitable or both as he may have against an opposing party. There may be a like joinder of claims when there are multiple parties if the requirements of rules 19, 20, and 22 are satisfied. There may be a like joinder of cross-claims or third-party claims if the requirements of rules 13 and 14 respectively are satisfied.

(b) Joinder of Remedies. Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action; but the court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 19 Necessary Joinder of Parties.

(a) Necessary Joinder. Subject to the provisions of subdivision (b) of this rule, persons having a joint interest shall be made parties and be joined on the same side as plaintiffs or defendants. When a person who should join as a plaintiff refuses to do so, he may be made a defendant.

(b) Effect of Failure to Join. When persons who are not indispensable but who ought to be parties if complete relief is to be accorded between those already parties, have not been made parties and are subject to the jurisdiction of the court as to both service of process and venue, the court shall order them summoned to appear in the action. The court in its discretion may proceed in the action without making such persons parties, if its jurisdiction over them as to either service of process or venue can be acquired only by their consent or voluntary appearance; but the judgment rendered therein does not affect the rights or liabilities of absent persons.

(c) Same: Names of Omitted Persons and Reasons for Nonjoinder to be Plead. In any pleading in which relief is asked, the pleader shall set forth the names, if known to him, of persons who ought to be parties if complete relief is to be accorded between those already parties, but who are not joined, and shall state why they are omitted. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 20 Permissive Joinder of Parties.

(a) Permissive Joinder. All person may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of them will arise in the action. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of them will arise in the action. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.

RCW 4.08.040 applies to joinder of husband and wife.

(b) Separate Trials. The court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom he asserts no claim and who asserts no claim against him, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 21 Misjoinder and Nonjoinder of Parties. Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of an action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the court on motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 22 Interpleader.

(a) Scope. Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that he is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross-claim or counterclaim. The provisions of this rule supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted under other rules and statutes.

(b) Other Remedies. The remedy herein provided is in addition to and in no way supersedes or limits the remedy provided by RCW 4.08.150 to 4.08.180, inclusive. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 23 (Reserved).

Rule 24 Intervention.

(a) Intervention of Right. Upon timely application, anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute confers an unconditional right to intervene; or (2) when the representation of the applicant's interest by existing parties is or may be inadequate and the applicant is or may be bound by a judgment in the action; or (3) when the applicant is so situated as to be adversely affected by a distribution or other disposition of property which is in the custody or subject to the control or disposition of the court.

(b) Permissive Intervention. Upon timely application, anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute confers a conditional right to intervene; or (2) when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. When a party to an action relies for ground of claim or defense upon any statute or executive order administered by a federal or state governmental officer or agency or upon any regulation, order, requirements, or agreement issued or made pursuant to the statute or executive order, the officer or agency upon timely application may be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion the court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.

(c) Procedure. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon all parties affected thereby. The motion shall state the ground therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 25 Substitution of Parties.

(a) Death. (1) If a party dies and the claim is not thereby extinguished, the court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by the successors or representatives of the deceased party or by any party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided by statute for service of notices, and upon persons not parties in the manner provided by these rules for the service of notice and complaint. If substitution is not made within a reasonable time, the action may be dismissed as to the deceased party.

(2) In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The fact of death shall be noted in the docket and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

(b) Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the court upon motion served as provided in subdivision (a) of this rule may allow the action to be continued by or against his representative.

(c) Transfer of Interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party unless the court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in subdivision (a) of this rule. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

V. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

Rule

26 Depositions pending action.
27-37 (Reserved).

Rule 26 Depositions Pending Action. The taking of depositions, the requesting of admissions and all other procedures authorized by Rules 26 through 37 of the Superior Court Civil Rules applicable for use in the superior court may be available only upon prior permission of the court. The court shall have absolute discretion to decide whether to permit any such procedures. In exercising such discretion the court shall consider (1) whether all parties are represented by counsel, (2) whether undue delay in bringing the case to trial will result and (3) whether the interests of justice will be promoted. [Amended January 5, 1976, effective January 23, 1976; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rules 27-37 (Reserved).

VI. TRIALS

Rule

38 Jury trial.

- (a) Demand and selection.
- 39 Trial by jury or by the court.
 - (a) By jury.
 - (b) By the court.
- 40 Assignment of cases for trial—Judge, disqualification.
 - (a) Assignment for trial.
 - (b) Disqualification.
- 41 Dismissal of actions.
 - (a) Without prejudice.
 - (b) Limitation.
 - (c) Counterclaims, etc.
- 42 Consolidation; separate trials.
 - (a) Consolidation.
 - (b) Separate trials.
- 43 Taking of testimony.
 - (a) Form.
 - (a-1) Multiple examinations.
 - (b) (Reserved).
 - (c) Affirmation in lieu of oath.
 - (d) Adverse party as witness.
 - (e) Attorneys as witnesses.
- 44 Proof of official record.
 - (a) Authentication of copy.
 - (b) Proof of lack of record.
 - (c) Other proof.
- 45 Subpoena.
- 46-50 (Reserved).
- 51 Instructions to jury; objection.
- 52 Findings by the court.
- 53 (Reserved).

Rule 38 Jury Trial.

(a) Demand and Selection. After the appearance of the defendant, and before the court shall proceed to inquire into the merits of the cause, either party may demand a jury to try the action. The selection and other matters concerning jury trials are governed by RCW 12.12.030-12.12.100 inclusive. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 39 Trial by Jury or by the Court.

(a) By Jury. In a civil case, when a jury is demanded, it shall be allowed and tried with all reasonable speed. All issues of fact shall be tried by the jury.

(b) By the Court. All questions of law including the admissibility of testimony, the facts preliminary to such admission, and the construction of statutes and other writings, and other rules of evidence, are to be decided by the judge, and all discussions of law addressed to him. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 40 Assignment of Cases for Trial—Judge, Disqualification.

(a) Assignment for Trial. When the pleadings of the parties have taken place a case shall be tried, but cases may be continued by the court to a date certain. Continuances may not be granted for a longer period than sixty days each.

(b) Disqualification. In any case pending in any court of limited jurisdiction, unless otherwise provided by law, the judge thereof shall be deemed disqualified to hear and try the case when he is in anywise interested or prejudiced. The judge, of his own initiative, may enter an order disqualifying himself; and he shall also disqualify himself under the provisions of this rule if, before the jury is sworn or the trial is commenced, a party files an affidavit that such party cannot have a fair and impartial trial by reason of the interest or prejudice of the judge or for other ground provided by law. Only one such affidavit shall be filed by the same party in the case and such affidavit shall be made as to only one of the judges of said court.

All right to an affidavit of prejudice will be considered waived where filed more than ten (10) days after the case is set for trial, unless the affidavit alleges a particular incident, conversation or utterance by the judge, which was not known to the party or his attorney within the ten (10) day period. In multiple-judge courts, or where a pro tem or visiting judge is designated as the trial judge, the 10 day period shall commence on the date that the defendant or his attorney has actual notice of assignment or reassignment to a designated trial judge. [Amended December 17, 1970, effective April 16, 1971; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 41 Dismissal of Actions.

(a) Without Prejudice. Judgment that the action be dismissed, without prejudice to a new action, may be entered, with costs, in the following cases:

(1) When the plaintiff voluntarily dismisses the action before it is finally submitted.

(2) When plaintiff fails to appear at the time set for trial or other hearing.

(b) Limitation. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by defendant, the action shall not be dismissed against defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the court.

(c) Counterclaims, etc. The provisions of this rule apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, setoff, cross-claim, or third-party claim. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 42 Consolidation; Separate Trials.

(a) Consolidation. When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

(b) Separate Trials. The court in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice may order a separate trial of any claim, cross-claim, counterclaim, or third-party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, third-party claims, or issues. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 43 Taking of testimony.

(a) Form. In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise provided by rule or statute.

(a-1) Multiple Examinations. When two or more attorneys are upon the same side trying a case, the attorney conducting the examination of a witness shall continue until the witness is excused from the stand; and all objections and offers of proof made during the examination of such witness shall be made or announced by the attorney who is conducting the examination or cross-examination.

(b) (Reserved. See ER 607 and 611.)

(c) Affirmation in Lieu of Oath. Whenever under these rules an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

(d) Adverse Party as Witness.

(1) Party or managing agent as adverse witness. A party, or anyone who at the time of the notice is an officer, director, or other managing agent (herein collectively referred to as "managing agent") of a public or private corporation, partnership or association which is a party to an action or proceeding may be examined at the instance of any adverse party. Attendance of such deponent or witness may be compelled solely by notice (in lieu of a subpoena) given to opposing counsel of record. Notices for the attendance of a party or a managing agent at the trial shall be given a reasonable time before the trial of not less than 10 days (exclusive of the day of service, Saturdays, Sundays and court holidays). For good cause shown, the court may make orders for the protection of the party or managing agent to be examined.

(2) Effect of discovery, etc. A party who has filed interrogatories to be answered by the adverse party or who has taken the deposition of an adverse party or of the managing agent of an adverse party shall not be precluded for that reason from examining such adverse party or managing agent at the trial. The testimony of an adverse party or managing agent at the trial or on deposition or interrogatories shall not bind his adversary but may be rebutted.

(3) Refusal to attend and testify: Penalties. If a party or a managing agent refuses to attend and testify before the officer designated to take his deposition or at the trial after notice served, the complaint, answer, or reply of the party may be stricken and judgment taken against the party, and the contumacious party or managing agent may also be proceeded against as in other cases of contempt. This rule shall not be construed: (1) to compel any person to answer any question where such answer might tend to incriminate him; or (2) to prevent a party from using a subpoena to compel the attendance of any party or managing agent to give testimony by deposition or at the trial; or (3) to limit the applicability of any other sanctions or penalties.

(e) Attorneys as Witnesses. If an attorney offers himself as a witness on behalf of his client and gives evidence on the merits, he shall not argue the case to the jury, unless by permission of the court. [Amended December 19, 1978, effective April 2, 1979; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 44 Proof of Official Record.

(a) Authentication of Copy. An official record or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy, and accompanied with a certificate that such officer has the custody. If the office in which the record is kept is within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, the certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office. If the office in which the record is kept is in a foreign state or country, the certificate may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent or by any officer in the foreign service of the United States stationed in the foreign state or country in which the record is kept, and authenticated by the seal of his office.

(b) Proof of Lack of Record. A written statement signed by an officer having the custody of an official record or by his deputy that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records of his office, accompanied by a certificate as above provided, is admissible as evidence that the records of his office contain no such record or entry.

(c) Other Proof. This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any method authorized by an applicable statute, or by the rules of evidence at common law. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 45 Subpoena. Subpoenas are governed by RCW 12.16.010 through 12.16.050, inclusive. Provided, that subpoenas may be issued with like effect by the attorney of record of the party to the action in whose behalf the witness is required to appear, and the form of such subpoena in each case shall be the same as when issued by the court except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of such attorney. [Amended July 14, 1966, effective August 1, 1966; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rules 46-50 (Reserved).

Rule 51 Instructions to Jury; Objection. At the close of the evidence the court on its own motion, or on the request of either party, shall instruct the jury on the law either orally or in writing or both. Any party may file written request that the court instruct the jury. At the same time copies of requested instructions shall be furnished to adverse parties. The court need not grant any requested instruction if the matter is fairly covered by the instruction given. The court shall not instruct with respect to matters of fact or comment upon the evidence. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 52 Findings by the Court. If a jury trial is not demanded, the judge shall hear the evidence, and decide all questions of fact and law and render judgment accordingly. He is not required to make findings of fact or conclusions of law. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 53 (Reserved).

VII. JUDGMENTS

Rule

- 54 Judgments; costs.
 - (a) Definition; form.
 - (b) Judgment upon multiple claims.
 - (c) Demand for judgment.
- 55 Default.
 - (a) Judgment.
 - (b) Setting aside default.
 - (c) Plaintiffs, counterclaimants, cross-claimants.
- 56-57 (Reserved).
- 58 Entry of judgment.
- 59 (Reserved).
- 60 Relief from judgment or order.
- 61 (Reserved).
- 62 Stay of proceedings to enforce a judgment.
- 63 (Reserved).

Rule 54 Judgments; Costs.

(a) Definition; Form. "Judgment" as used in these rules includes a decree and any final order from which an appeal lies. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings or the record of prior proceedings. Judgments may be in a writing signed by the court or may be oral confirmed by an entry in the record.

(b) Judgment Upon Multiple Claims. When more than one claim for relief is presented in an action, whether as a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, the court may direct the entry of a final judgment upon one or more but less than all of the claims only upon an express determination that there is no just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decisions, however designated, which adjudicates less than all the claims shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims.

(c) Demand for Judgment. A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 55 Default.

(a) Judgment. When the defendant fails to appear and plead before or at the time specified in the notice, or within 1 hour thereafter, or upon continuance, or for trial, judgment shall be given on motion of the plaintiff, if the motion includes a statement of the basis for venue in the action and it does not clearly appear to the court from the papers on file that venue is improper, as follows: When the defendant has been served with a true copy of the complaint, judgment shall be given upon proof satisfactory to the court. In those cases where interest and attorney fees are claimed by virtue of a written instrument, a copy of said instrument shall be filed and the court shall set a reasonable attorney fee. The court shall notify the defendant of the entry of a default judgment by mailing a copy of the order and judgment to the defendant at his last known address within 5 days after entry of the judgment.

(b) Setting Aside Default.

(1) For good cause shown and upon such terms as the court deems just, the court may set aside an entry of default and, if a judgment by default has been entered, may likewise set it aside in accordance with Rule 60(b). No court shall issue a transcript or pay out or turn over money or property received by the court by virtue of any default judgment until the expiration of 20 days from entry of the judgment.

(2) Nothing herein contained shall limit the power of the court to set aside a judgment, at any time, where the court lacked jurisdiction to enter the judgment.

(c) Plaintiffs, Counterclaimants, Cross-Claimants. The provisions of this rule apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim. [Amended July 20, 1978, effective September 1, 1978; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rules 56–57 (Reserved).

Rule 58 Entry of Judgment. Upon the verdict of a jury, the court shall immediately render judgment thereon. If the trial is by the judge, judgment shall be entered immediately after the close of the trial, unless he reserves his decision, in which event the trial shall be continued to a day certain, but not longer than 15 days. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 59 (Reserved).

Rule 60 Relief From Judgment or Order. (a) Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the court orders.

(b) Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud; etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons:

(1) Mistakes, inadvertence, surprise, excusable neglect or irregularity in obtaining a judgment or order;

(2) For erroneous proceedings against a minor or person of unsound mind, when the condition of such defendant does not appear in the record, nor the error in the proceedings;

(3) Venue is improper and the judgment or order has been entered by default;

(4) Fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party;

(5) The judgment is void;

(6) The judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated;

(7) If the defendant was served by publication, relief may be granted as prescribed in RCW 4.28.200;

(8) Death of one of the parties before the judgment in the action;

(9) Unavoidable casualty or misfortune preventing the party from prosecuting or defending;

(10) Error in judgment shown by a minor, within 12 months after arriving at full age; or

(11) Any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment.

(c) The motion shall be made within a reasonable time and for reasons (1), (2), or (3) of section (b) not more than 1 year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken. If the party entitled to relief is a minor or a person of unsound mind, the motion shall be made within 1 year after the disability ceases. A motion under section (b) does not affect the finality of the judgment or suspend its operation. [Amended July 20, 1978, effective September 1, 1978; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 61 (Reserved).

Rule 62 Stay of Proceedings to Enforce a Judgment. When the court has ordered a final judgment on some but not all the claims presented in the action, under the conditions stated in rule 54(b), the court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 63 (Reserved).

VIII. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

Rule

64 Garnishment.

65–67 (Reserved).

68 Offer of judgment.

69–71 (Reserved).

Rule 64 Garnishment. RCW 7.33 and SPR 91.04W shall continue in full force and effect and shall be fully applicable to garnishment in courts of limited jurisdiction. [Amended June 4, 1976, effective July 1, 1976; adopted June 14, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rules 65–67 (Reserved).

Rule 68 Offer of Judgment. At any time more than 5 days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the money or property or to the effect specified in his offer, with costs then accrued. If within 5 days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon the court shall enter judgment. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the cost incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rules 69-71 (Reserved).

IX. APPEALS

Rule

72 (Reserved).

73 Appeal to a superior court.

(a) When and how taken.

(b) Stay of proceedings.

(c) Release of property taken on execution.

(d) No dismissal for defective bond.

(e) Judgment against appellant and sureties.

74 (Reserved).

75 Record on appeal to a superior court.

(a) Transcript; procedure in superior court; pleadings in superior court.

(b) Transcript; procedure on failure to make and certify; amendment.

76 (Reserved).

Rule 72 (Reserved).

Rule 73 Appeal to a Superior Court.

(a) When and How Taken. When an appeal is permitted by law from a court of limited jurisdiction to a superior court such appeal shall be taken by serving a copy of notice of appeal on the adverse party or his attorney, and filing, within 20 days after the judgment is rendered or decision made, the original notice of appeal with acknowledgement or affidavit of service in the court of limited jurisdiction and, unless such appeal be by a county, city, town or school district, filing a bond or undertaking, as herein provided. No appeal, except when such appeal is by a county, city, town or school district, shall be allowed in any case unless a bond or undertaking shall be executed on the part of the appellant and filed with and approved by the court of limited jurisdiction with one or more sureties, in the sum of one hundred dollars, conditioned that the appellant will pay all costs that may be awarded against him on appeal; or if a stay of proceedings in the court of limited jurisdiction be claimed, except by a county, city, town or school district, a bond or undertaking, with two or more personal sureties, or a surety company as surety, to be approved by the court of limited jurisdiction, in a sum equal to twice the amount of the judgment and costs, conditioned that the appellant will pay such judgment, including costs, as may be rendered against him on appeal, be so executed and filed.

(b) Stay of Proceedings. Upon an appeal being taken and a bond filed to stay all proceedings, the court of limited jurisdiction shall allow the same and make an entry of such allowance, and all further proceedings on the judgment in such court shall thereupon be suspended; and if in the meantime execution shall have been issued, such court shall give the appellant a certificate that such appeal has been allowed.

(c) Release of Property Taken on Execution. On such certificate being presented to the officer holding the execution, he shall forthwith release the property of the judgment debtor that may have been taken on execution.

(d) No Dismissal for Defective Bond. No appeal allowed by a court of limited jurisdiction shall be dismissed on account of any defect in the bond on appeal, if the appellant, before the motion is determined, shall execute and file in the superior court such bond as he should have executed at the time of taking the appeal, and pay all costs that may have accrued by reason of such defect.

(e) Judgment Against Appellant and Sureties. In all cases of appeal to the superior court, if on the trial anew in such court, the judgment be against the appellant in whole or in part, such judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties on the bond on appeal. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 74 (Reserved).

Rule 75 Record on Appeal to a Superior Court.

(a) Transcript; Procedure in Superior Court; Pleadings in Superior Court. Within 10 days after the appeal has been taken in a civil action or proceeding, the appellant shall file with the clerk of the superior court a transcript of all entries made in the docket of the court of limited jurisdiction relating to the case, together with all the process and other papers relating to the case filed in the court of limited jurisdiction which shall be made and certified by such court to be correct upon the payment of the fees allowed by law therefor, and upon the filing of such transcript the superior court shall become possessed of the cause, and shall proceed in the same manner, as near as may be, as in actions originally commenced in that court, except as provided in these rules. The issue before the court of limited jurisdiction shall be tried in the superior court without other or new pleadings, unless otherwise directed by the superior court.

(b) Transcript; Procedure on Failure to Make and Certify; Amendment. If upon an appeal being taken the court of limited jurisdiction fails, neglects or refuses, upon the tender or payment of the fees allowed by law, to make and certify the transcript, the appellant may make application, supported by affidavit, to the superior court and the court shall issue an order directing the court of limited jurisdiction to make and certify such transcript upon the payment of such fees. Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the superior court that the return of the court of limited jurisdiction to such order is substantially erroneous or defective it may order the court of limited jurisdiction to amend the same. If the judge of the court of limited jurisdiction fails, neglects or refuses to comply with any order issued under the provisions of this section he may be cited and punished for contempt of court. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

77 (Reserved).

77.04 Administration of oath.

78-80 (Reserved).

Rule 77 (Reserved).

Rule 77.04 Administration of Oath. The oaths or affirmations of all witnesses

(1) Shall be administered by the judge;

(2) Shall be administered to each witness on coming to the stand, not to a group and in advance; and

(3) The witness shall stand while the oath or affirmation is pronounced. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

XI. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule

81 (Reserved).

82 Jurisdiction and venue—Unaffected.

83-84 (Reserved).

85 Title.

86 Effective date.

Rule 81 (Reserved).

Rule 82 Jurisdiction and Venue—Unaffected.

These rules shall not be construed to extend or limit the jurisdiction of the courts of limited jurisdiction or the venue of actions therein. Jurisdiction and venue shall be governed by RCW 3.20.100, 3.20.110, 3.34.110, 3.50-.280, 3.66.040 and 3.66.050. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rules 83-84 (Reserved).

Rule 85 Title. These rules may be known and cited as Civil Rules for Courts of Limited Jurisdiction and they may be referred to as JCR.* [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

*Reviser's note: By order of Supreme Court dated May 5, 1967, effective July 1, 1967, these rules were redesignated Civil Rules for Justice Court and may be referred to as JCR.

Rule 86 Effective Date. These rules take effect on the dates specified by the Supreme Court and thereafter all procedural laws in conflict therewith shall be of no further force and effect. They govern all proceedings in actions after they take effect, and also all further proceedings in actions pending on their effective dates, except to the extent that in the opinion of the court, expressed by its order, the application of rules in a particular action pending when the rules take effect would not be feasible or would work injustice, in which event the procedure existing at the time the action was brought applies. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.01 Complaint—Citation and notice.

(a) Complaint.

(1) Initiation. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, all criminal proceedings shall be initiated by a complaint.

(2) Contents. The complaint shall be in writing and shall set forth:

- (i) the name of the court;
- (ii) the title of the action and the name of the offense charged;
- (iii) the name of the person charged; and
- (iv) the offense charged, in the language of the statute, together with a statement as to the time, place, person, and property involved to enable the defendant to understand the character of the offense charged.

(3) Verification. The complaint shall be signed under oath by the Prosecuting Attorney or other authorized officer.

(4) Approval of Form. To insure uniformity, the format and use of the complaint, provided herein, shall be subject to approval by the Administrator for the Courts.

(b) Citation and Notice to Appear.

(1) Issuance. Whenever a person is arrested for a violation of law which is punishable as a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor the arresting officer, or any other authorized peace officer, may serve upon the arrested person a citation and notice to appear in court, in lieu of continued custody. In determining whether to issue a citation and notice to appear, a peace officer may consider the following factors:

- (i) whether the person has identified himself satisfactorily;
(ii) whether detention appears reasonably necessary to prevent imminent bodily harm to himself or to another, injury to property, or breach of the peace;
(iii) whether the person has ties to the community reasonably sufficient to assure his appearance or whether there is substantial likelihood that he will refuse to respond to the citation; and
(iv) whether the person previously has failed to appear in response to a citation issued pursuant to this section or to other lawful process.

(2) Contents. The citation and notice shall be identical to the "Complaint/Citation Docket Form" prescribed in JTR T2.01 and shall include:

- (i) the name of the court and a space for the court's docket, case or file number;
(ii) the name of the person, his address, date of birth, and sex;
(iii) the date, time, place and description of the offense charged, the date on which the citation was issued, and the name of the citing officer;
(iv) the time and place at which the person is to appear in court which need not be a time certain, but may be within 72 hours or within a greater period of time not to exceed 15 days after the date of the citation;

(v) a space for the person to sign a promise to appear.

(3) Release. To secure his release, the person must give his written promise to appear in court as required by the citation and notice served.

(4) Certificate. The citation and notice to appear shall contain a form of certificate by the citing official that he certifies, under penalties of perjury, as provided by RCW 3.50.140, and any law amendatory thereof, that he has reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe, the person committed the offense contrary to law. The certificate need not be made before a magistrate or any other person. Such citation and notice when signed by the citing officer and filed with a court of competent jurisdiction shall be deemed a lawful complaint for the purpose of initiating prosecution of the offense charged therein.

(5) Additional Information. The citation and notice may also contain such identifying and additional information as may be necessary.

(6) Approval of Form. To insure uniformity, the format and use of the citation and notice, provided herein, shall be subject to approval by the office of Administrator for the Courts.

(c) Citizen Complaints. Any person wishing to make a complaint shall appear before a judge empowered to commit persons charged with offenses against the state. The judge shall examine on oath the complainant and any witnesses he may require, take their statements, and cause the statements and the complaint to be subscribed under oath by the person or persons making it.

(1) Citizen's Complaint—Alternate Method. The judge may consider any complaint on the basis of an affidavit sworn to before the judge, a clerk, commissioner or notary public where the judge is satisfied that probable cause exists, that the complaining witness is aware of the gravity of initiating a criminal complaint, the necessity of a court appearance for himself and witnesses, the possible liability for false arrest and consequences of perjury, such affidavit may be in substantially the form as provided herein.

I, the undersigned complainant understand that I have the choice of complaining to a prosecuting authority rather than signing this affidavit. I elect to use this method to start criminal proceedings. I understand that the following are some but not all of the consequences of my signing a criminal complaint: (1) the defendant may be arrested and placed in custody. (2) the arrest if proved false may result in a lawsuit against me. (3) if I have sworn falsely I may be prosecuted for perjury. (4) this charge will be prosecuted even though I might later change my mind. (5) witnesses and complainant will be required to appear in court on the trial date regardless of inconvenience, school, job, etc.

Following is a true statement of the events that led to filing this charge. I (have) (have not) consulted with a prosecuting authority concerning this incident.

(d) Filing. The original of the complaint or citation and notice, shall be filed with the clerk of the court, and sufficient copies shall be prepared in order to provide a copy for each defendant.

(e) Exceptions. Traffic cases shall be processed as provided in the Traffic Rules for Justice Courts, and public intoxication cases may be processed under existing procedure, by Citation and Notice or by Uniform Traffic Ticket and Complaint. [Amended October 16, 1975, effective January 1, 1976; amended October 23, 1969, effective November 7, 1969; amended June 28, 1968, effective July 5, 1968; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.02 Warrant or summons upon complaint.

(a) Issuance of Warrant of Arrest. If it appears from the complaint or from an affidavit or affidavits filed therewith, that there is reasonable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant has committed it, the judge, except as otherwise provided in 2.02(b), shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant unless he has already been arrested in connection with the offense charged and is in custody or has been released on obligation to appear in court. Before ruling on a request for a warrant the judge may require the complainant to appear personally and may examine under oath the complainant and any witnesses he may produce.

(b) Issuance of Summons in Lieu of Warrant of Arrest.

(1) Where summons may issue. In any case in which the judge finds sufficient grounds for issuing a warrant pursuant to 2.02(a), he may issue a summons commanding the defendant to appear in lieu of a warrant.

(2) When summons must issue. If the complaint charges the commission of one or more misdemeanors or gross misdemeanors, the judge shall issue a summons instead of a warrant unless he has reasonable cause to believe that the defendant will not appear in response to a summons, or that arrest is necessary to prevent serious bodily harm to the accused or another, in which case he may issue a warrant.

(3) Failure to appear on summons. If a person summoned fails to appear in response to the summons, or if service is unsuccessful, a warrant for his arrest may issue.

(c) Form. (1) Warrant. The warrant shall be in writing and in the name of the State of Washington, shall be signed by the judge with the title of his office, and shall state the date when issued and the municipality or county where issued. It shall specify the name of the defendant, or if his name is unknown, any name or description by which he can be identified with reasonable certainty. It shall describe the offense charged against the defendant; if the offense charged is triable in the county in which the warrant issues, the warrant shall command that the defendant be arrested and brought forthwith before the judge issuing the warrant. If the offense is bailable, the warrant shall contain the release provisions then fixed by the judge pursuant to JCrR 2.09.

(2) Summons. The summons shall be in the same form as the warrant except that it shall summon the defendant to appear before the judge issuing it at a stated time and place.

(d) Execution or Service.

(1) Execution of warrant. The warrant shall be directed to all peace officers in the state and shall be executed only by a peace officer.

(2) Service of summons. The summons may be served any place within the state. It shall be served by a peace officer who shall deliver a copy of the same to the defendant personally, or it may be served by mailing the same, postage prepaid, to the defendant at his address.

(e) Return. The officer executing a warrant shall make return thereof to the court before whom the defendant is brought pursuant to Rule 2.03. At the request of the prosecuting attorney any unexecuted warrant shall be returned to the judge by whom issued and shall be cancelled by him. The person to whom a summons has been delivered for service shall, on or before the return date, make return thereof to the judge before whom the summons is returnable. The judge for reasonable cause can also order that the warrant be returned to him.

(f) Defective Warrant or Summons.

(1) Amendment. No person arrested under a warrant or appearing in response to a summons shall be discharged from custody or dismissed because of any irregularity in the warrant or summons, but the warrant or summons may be amended so as to remedy any such irregularity.

(2) Issuance of new warrant or summons. If during the preliminary examination of any person arrested under a warrant or appearing in response to a summons, it appears that the warrant or summons does not properly name or describe the defendant, or the offense with which he is charged, or that although not guilty of the offense specified in the warrant or summons there is reasonable ground to believe that he is guilty of some other offense, the judge shall not discharge or dismiss the defendant but may allow a new complaint to be filed and shall thereupon issue a new warrant or summons. [Amended April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973; adopted Feb. 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.03 Proceedings before the judge—Procedure following execution of a warrant, or arrest without a warrant—Bail—Preliminary hearing.

(a) Preliminary Appearance.

(1) Any person arrested for any offense, including capital cases and other felonies and not released shall be taken without unnecessary delay before a judge. The term "without unnecessary delay" means as soon as practically possible. In any event, delay beyond the close of business of the judicial day next following the day of arrest shall be deemed unnecessary. The court may, for good cause shown and recited in the order, enlarge the time prior to preliminary appearance.

(2) The judge shall inform the person of the crime for which he is arrested and of the rights of a person charged with a crime and shall provide for pretrial release pursuant to Rule 2.09.

(b) Filing of Complaint. When a person arrested without a warrant is brought before a judge, a complaint shall be filed within twenty-four hours after appearance before the court, or within such further time as the court shall specify.

(c) Effect of Failure to Grant Preliminary Appearance or File Complaint.

(1) If a person arrested and not released is not afforded preliminary appearance within the time prescribed by section (a), including any enlargement, the court shall order such a person brought before the court forthwith, and in default thereof, the court shall order his immediate release, unless good cause to the contrary be shown.

(2) If a complaint is not filed as provided by section (b), the court shall order the immediate release of such person.

(d) Preliminary Hearing.

(1) When a felony complaint is filed, the court may conduct a preliminary hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a felony.

(2) If the court finds probable cause, or if the parties waive preliminary hearing, the court shall bind the defendant over to the superior court. If the court finds probable cause, an information shall be filed without unnecessary delay or, if it is not, the defendant shall be discharged. The court shall file the transcript in superior court promptly after notice that the information has been filed. The transcript shall include, but not be limited to, the bond and any exhibits filed in the court of limited jurisdiction. Jurisdiction shall vest in the superior court when the information is filed.

(3) After the preliminary hearing, or a waiver thereof, the court may defer a bind-over order if the parties stipulate in writing that the case shall remain in the court of limited jurisdiction for a specified time not exceeding 30 days.

(4) A preliminary hearing shall be conducted as follows:

(i) The defendant may as a matter of right be present at such hearing.

(ii) The court shall inform the defendant of the charge unless the defendant waives such reading.

(iii) Witnesses shall be examined under oath and may be cross-examined.

(iv) The defendant may testify and call witnesses in his behalf.

(5) If a preliminary hearing on the felony complaint is held and the court finds that probable cause does not exist, the charge shall be dismissed, and may be refiled only if a motion to set aside the finding is granted by the superior court. The superior court shall determine whether, at the time of the hearing on such motion, there is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a felony. [Amended April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973; Adopted February 13, 1963, amended June 14, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Comment: Supersedes RCW 10.04.030, modifies if not supersedes RCW 10.16.090.

Rule 2.04 Complaint and citation—Sufficiencies.

(a) Complaint. The complaint shall not be deemed insufficient for lack of a formal caption or commencement or a formal conclusion, or any other matter not necessary to a plain, concise and definite statement of the essential facts constituting the specific offense or offenses with which the defendant is charged, nor for lack of any other matter not necessary to such statement, nor need it negate any exception, excuse or proviso contained in any statute creating or defining the offense charged. Allegations made in one count may be incorporated by reference in another count. It may be alleged in any count that the means by which the defendant committed the offense are unknown or that he committed it by one or more specified means. Unnecessary allegations may be disregarded as surplusage and on motion of the defendant prior to trial may be stricken from the complaint by the court. The complaint shall state for each count the official or customary citation of any applicable statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, or other provision of law which the defendant is alleged therein to have violated; but, error in the citation or its omission shall not be ground for dismissal of the complaint or for reversal of a conviction unless the error or omission mislead the defendant to his prejudice.

(b) Citation and Notice. No citation and notice issued pursuant to the provisions of Rule 2.01(b) shall be deemed insufficient for failure to contain a definite statement of the essential facts constituting the specific offense with which the defendant is charged, nor by reason of defects or imperfections which do not tend to prejudice substantial rights of the defendant. Any defendant upon request shall be entitled as a matter of right to a bill of particulars. [Amended June 28, 1968, effective July 5, 1968; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.05 Complaint—Joinder of offenses and defendants.

(a) Joinder of Offenses. Two or more offenses may be charged in the same complaint in a separate count for each offense if the offenses charged are of the same or similar character or are based on the same act or transaction or on two or more acts or connected transactions or transactions constituting parts of a common scheme or plan.

(b) Joinder of Defendants. Two or more defendants may be charged in the same complaint if they are alleged to have participated in the same act or transaction or in the same series of acts or transactions constituting an offense or offenses. Such defendants may be charged in one or more counts together or separately and it shall not be necessary to charge all the defendants in each count. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.06 Several complaints for same offense—Jurisdiction—Consolidation.

(a) Several Complaints for Same Offense—Same Court. If two or more complaints are filed against the same defendant in the same court for the same offense, the court shall order the complaints to be consolidated.

(b) Several Complaints for Same Offense—Different Courts. If two or more complaints are filed against the same defendant for the same offense in different courts, and if each court has jurisdiction, the court in which the first complaint was filed shall try the case and upon motion by either party, or the judge, the second or several complaints shall be forwarded to the court in which a complaint was first filed for consolidation and trial. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.07 Complaint—Loss or destruction—Copy. When a complaint has been lost or destroyed a copy thereof certified by the court may be substituted and the case shall proceed without delay from that cause. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.08 Procedure on failure to obey citation and notice to appear.

(a) Residents. The court shall issue a warrant for the arrest of any defendant who is a resident of this state and who has failed to appear before the court either in person or by counsel in answer to a citation and notice to appear upon which he has given his written promise to appear. If the warrant is not executed within 30 days after issue, the court shall make an entry of the notification on the docket, and may add a charge against the defendant for failure to appear after a written promise to do so, and mark the case closed, subject to being reopened when the appearance of the defendant is thereafter obtained.

(b) Nonresidents. If a nonresident defendant fails to appear before the court either in person or by counsel in answer to a citation and notice to appear upon which he has given his written promise to appear, the court shall mail a notice to the defendant at the address stated in the citation and notice to appear requesting him to abide by his promise and appear in person or by counsel on a day certain, and notifying him that he may also be charged for his failure to appear after a written promise to do so. If the nonresident defendant fails to respond within 30 days after the date set in the notice, the court shall issue a warrant for his arrest, and shall make an entry of the notification on the docket, and may add a charge against the defendant for failure to appear after a written promise to do so, and mark the case closed, subject to being reopened when the appearance of the defendant is thereafter obtained. [Adopted June 28, 1968, effective July 5, 1968.]

Rule 2.09 Pretrial release. (a) Any defendant charged with an offense shall at his first court appearance be ordered released on his personal recognizance pending trial unless the court determines that such recognizance will not reasonably assure his appearance, when required. When such a determination is made, the court shall impose the least restrictive of the following conditions that will reasonably assure his appearance or if no single condition gives that assurance, any combination of the following conditions:

(1) place the defendant in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise him;

(2) place restrictions on the travel, association, or place of abode of the defendant during the period of release;

(3) require the execution of an unsecured appearance bond in a specified amount;

(4) require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount and the deposit in the registry of the court in cash or other security as directed, of a sum not to exceed 10 per centum of the amount of the bond, such deposit to be returned upon the performance of the conditions of release;

(5) require the execution of an appearance bond with sufficient solvent sureties, or the deposit of cash in lieu thereof;

(6) require the defendant return to custody during specified hours; or

(7) impose any condition other than detention deemed reasonably necessary to assure appearance as required.

(b) In determining which conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance, the court shall, on the available information, consider the relevant facts including: the length and character of the defendant's residence in the community; his employment status and history and financial condition; his family ties and relationships; his reputation, character and mental condition; his history of response to legal process, his prior criminal record; the willingness of responsible members of the community to vouch for the defendant's reliability and assist him in appearing in court; the nature of the charge; and any other factors indicating the defendant's ties to the community.

(c) Conditions of Release. Upon a showing that there exists a substantial danger that the defendant will commit a serious crime or that the defendant's physical condition is such to jeopardize his safety or that of others or that he will seek to intimidate witnesses, or otherwise unlawfully interfere with the administration of justice, the court, upon the defendant's release, may impose one or more of the following conditions:

(1) prohibit him from approaching or communicating with particular persons or classes of persons;

(2) prohibit him from going to certain geographical areas or premises;

(3) prohibit him from possessing any dangerous weapons, or engaging in certain described activities or indulging in intoxicating liquors or in certain drugs;

(4) require him to report regularly to and remain under the supervision of an officer of the court or other person or agency;

(5) detain him until his physical condition permits his release.

(d) A court authorizing the release of the defendant under this rule shall issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any, shall inform him of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of his release and shall advise him that a warrant for his arrest may be issued immediately upon any such violation.

(e) Review of Conditions. Upon determining the conditions of release, the court, upon request, after twenty-four hours from the time of release, may review the conditions previously imposed.

(f) Amendment of Order. The court ordering the release of a defendant on any condition specified in this rule may at any time on change of circumstances or showing of good cause amend its order to impose additional or different conditions for release.

(g) Upon a verified application by the prosecuting attorney alleging with specificity that a defendant has willfully violated a condition of his release, a court shall order the defendant to appear for immediate hearing or issue a warrant directing the arrest of the defendant for immediate hearing. A law enforcement officer having probable cause to believe that a defendant released pending trial for a felony is about to leave the state or that he has violated a condition of such release, imposed pursuant to section (c), under circumstances rendering the securing of a warrant impracticable, may arrest the defendant and take him forthwith before the court.

(h) Release After Verdict. A defendant (1) who is charged with a capital offense, or (2) who has been found guilty of a felony and is either awaiting sentence or has filed an appeal, shall be released pursuant to this rule, unless the court finds that the defendant may flee the state or pose a substantial danger to another or to the community. If such a risk of flight or danger exists, the defendant may be ordered detained.

(i) Information stated in, or offered in connection with, any order entered pursuant to this rule need not conform to the rules pertaining to the admissibility of evidence in a court of law.

(j) Nothing contained in this rule shall be construed to prevent the disposition of any case or class of cases by forfeiture of collateral security where such disposition is authorized by the court.

(k) Defendant Discharged on Recognizance or Bail—Absence—Forfeiture. If the defendant has been discharged on his own recognizance, on bail, or has deposited money instead thereof, and does not appear for judgment when his personal appearance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the recognizance, or of the money deposited, may direct the clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest. [Adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

Comment: Supersedes RCW 10.04.030; RCW 10.16.030, 10.16.040, 10.16.070.

Rule 2.10 Search and seizure.

(a) Authority to Issue Warrant. A search warrant authorized by this rule may be issued by a magistrate upon request of a peace officer or prosecuting attorney.

(b) Property Which May be Seized With a Warrant. A warrant may be issued under this rule to search for and seize any (1) evidence of a crime; or (2) contraband, the fruits of crime, or things otherwise criminally possessed; or (3) weapons or other things by means of which a crime has been committed or reasonably appears about to be committed.

(c) Issuance and Contents. A warrant shall issue only on an affidavit or affidavits establishing the grounds for issuing the warrant. Such affidavit or affidavits may consist of an officer's sworn telephonic statement to the judge; provided, however, such sworn telephonic testimony must be electronically recorded at the time transmitted and retained in the court records and reduced to writing as soon as possible thereafter. If the magistrate finds that probable cause for the issuance of a warrant exists, he shall issue a warrant or direct an individual whom he authorizes for such purpose to affix his signature to a warrant identifying the property and naming or describing the person or place or thing to be searched. The finding of probable cause shall be based on evidence, which may be hearsay in whole or in part, provided there is a substantial basis for believing the source of the hearsay to be credible and for believing that there is factual basis for the information furnished. Before ruling on a request for a warrant the court may require the affiant to appear personally and may examine under oath the affiant and any witnesses he may produce. The judge shall record a summary of any additional evidence on which he relies. The warrant shall be directed to any peace officer. It shall command the officer to search, within a specified period of time not to exceed 10 days, the person, place, or thing named for the property specified. It shall designate a magistrate to whom it shall be returned. The warrant may be served at any time.

(d) Execution and Return With Inventory. The peace officer taking property under the warrant shall give to the person from whom or from whose premises the property is taken a copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property taken. The return shall be made promptly and shall be accompanied by a written inventory of any property taken. The inventory shall be made in the presence of the person from whose possession or premises the property is taken, or in the presence of at least one person other than the officer. The magistrate shall upon request deliver a copy of the inventory to the person from whom or from whose premises the property was taken and to the applicant for the warrant.

(e) Motion for Return of Property. A person aggrieved by an unlawful search and seizure may move the court for the return of the property on the ground that the property was illegally seized and that he is lawfully entitled to possession thereof. If the motion is granted, the property shall be returned. If a motion for return of property is made or comes on for hearing after an indictment or information is filed in the court in which the motion is pending, it shall be treated as a motion to suppress. [Adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

Rule 2.11 Right to and assignment of counsel.

(a) Types of Proceedings.

(1) The right to counsel shall extend to all criminal proceedings for offenses punishable by loss of liberty regardless of their denomination as felonies, misdemeanors, or otherwise.

(b) Stage of Proceedings.

(1) The right to counsel shall accrue as soon as feasible after the defendant is taken into custody, when he appears before a committing magistrate, or when he is formally charged, whichever occurs earliest.

(2) Counsel shall be provided at every stage of the proceedings, including sentencing, appeal, and post-conviction review. Counsel initially appointed shall continue to represent the defendant through all stages of the proceedings unless a new appointment is made because geographical considerations or other factors make it necessary.

(c) Explaining the Availability of a Lawyer.

(1) When a person is taken into custody he shall immediately be advised of his right to counsel. Such advice shall be made in words easily understood, and it shall be stated expressly that a person who is unable to pay a lawyer is entitled to have one provided without charge.

(2) At the earliest opportunity a person in custody who desires counsel shall be provided access to a telephone, the telephone number of the public defender or official responsible for assigning counsel, and any other means necessary to place him in communication with a lawyer.

(d) Assignment of Counsel.

(1) Unless waived, counsel shall be provided to any person who is financially unable to obtain one without causing substantial hardship to himself or his family. Counsel shall not be denied to any person merely because his friends or relatives have resources adequate to retain counsel or because he has posted or is capable of posting bond.

(2) The ability to pay part of the cost of counsel shall not preclude assignment. The assignment of counsel may be conditioned upon part payment pursuant to an established method of collection.

(e) Withdrawal of Attorneys. Whenever a criminal cause has been set for trial, no attorney shall be allowed to withdraw from said cause, except upon written consent of the court, for good and sufficient reason shown.

(f) Services Other Than Counsel. Counsel for a defendant who is financially unable to obtain investigative, expert, or other services necessary to an adequate defense in his case may request them by a motion. Upon finding that the services are necessary and that the defendant is financially unable to obtain them, the court shall authorize counsel to obtain the services on behalf of the defendant. The courts, in the interest of justice and on a finding that timely procurement of necessary services could not await prior authorization, shall ratify such services after they have been obtained.

The court shall determine reasonable compensation for the services and direct payment to the organization or person who rendered them upon the filing of a claim for compensation supported by an affidavit specifying the time expended and the services and expenses incurred on behalf of the defendant, and the compensation received in the same cases or for the same services from any other source. [Adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

CHAPTER 3—ARRAIGNMENT AND PREPARATION FOR TRIAL

Rule

- 3.01 Arraignment.
- 3.02 Arraignment—Time to determine plea and to consult counsel.
- 3.03 Arraignment—Appearance by counsel only.
- 3.04 Arraignment—Procedures—Effect of.
- 3.06 Arraignment—Plea.
- 3.07 Complaints—When tried.
- 3.08 Continuances—Trial within sixty days—Dismissal.
- 3.10 Witnesses—Process—Subpoena.
- 3.11 Witnesses—Continued obligation to attend—Dismissal.
- 3.12 Subpoena duces tecum—Motion to quash—Production and inspection.
- 3.13 Process—Criminal.

Rule 3.01 Arraignment. Arraignment shall be conducted in open court and shall consist of reading the complaint to the defendant or stating to him the substance of the charge, and calling on him to plead thereto. He shall be given a copy of the complaint before he is called upon to plead. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.02 Arraignment—Time to determine plea and to consult counsel. The defendant shall not be required to plead to the complaint until he shall have had a reasonable time to examine the complaint. If the defendant appears in court without counsel, the court shall advise him of his right to counsel, and, if available his right to trial by jury, enter this fact on the record, and, if time is requested to consult counsel, grant the defendant a reasonable time to consult counsel and determine his plea. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.03 Arraignment—Appearance by counsel only. If the complaint is for a misdemeanor punishable by fine only, the defendant may appear upon arraignment by counsel. Any court may adopt a local rule, not limited to misdemeanors, substantially as follows: attorneys-at-law may enter a plea of not guilty in writing on all (here insert type of case) cases. No further arraignment shall be required. [Amended May 12, 1969, effective July 1, 1969; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.04 Arraignment—Procedures—Effect of. (a) Upon arraignment, the court shall ask the defendant his true name and, if it has been incorrectly stated in the complaint, order the complaint corrected accordingly.

(b) The defendant may move to set aside the complaint on the grounds that the complaint:

(1) does not satisfy the requirements of these Rules, or

(2) does not set forth facts constituting a crime, or

(3) contains matter which, if true, would constitute a defense or other legal bar to the action.

(c) If the motion is well taken, the court shall order the appropriate amendments or corrections to be made, if permitted under Rule 2.04; otherwise, the court shall order the complaint dismissed.

(d) If the motion of dismissal is sustained because the complaint contains matter which is a legal defense or bar to the action, the judgment shall be final and the defendant must be discharged; if sustained for any other reason, the dismissal shall not bar another prosecution for the same offense.

(e) If the motion is overruled, or well taken, followed by appropriate amendments or corrections, the defendant shall enter his plea. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.06 Arraignment—Pleas. (1) The defendant may plead not guilty, former conviction, dismissal under Rule 3.04(d), or acquittal, which may be pleaded with or without the plea of not guilty, or guilty. The plea of guilty can be made only by the defendant in open court. The court may refuse to accept a plea of guilty and shall not accept such plea without first determining of record that the plea is made voluntarily and with understanding of the nature of the charge. If the defendant fails or refuses to plead to the complaint, or the court refuses to accept a plea of guilty, a plea of not guilty shall be entered by the court.

(2) The court may, at any time before judgment, permit any plea to be withdrawn and an appropriate plea substituted, if it deems such action necessary in the interest of justice.

(3) The plea of not guilty is a denial of every material allegation in the complaint. All matters of fact may be given in evidence under it, except a former conviction or acquittal. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.07 Complaints—When tried. The defendant, charged by complaint, may be tried, with his consent, immediately following his plea to the complaint, or on the first available court day, unless in either case the trial be continued to a day certain for good cause. [Amended July 14, 1966, effective August 1, 1966; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.08 Continuances—Trial within sixty days—Dismissal. Continuances may be granted to either party for good cause shown. Also, the court, on its own motion, may postpone the trial for good and sufficient reason. In either case, the continuance or postponement must be to a date certain. If the defendant is not brought to trial within 60 days from the date of appearance, except where the postponement was requested by the defendant, the court shall order the complaint to be dismissed, unless good cause to the contrary is shown.

Dismissal under such circumstances shall be a bar to further prosecution for the offense charged. [Amended July 14, 1966, effective August 1, 1966; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.10 Witnesses—Process—Subpoena. (a) Before trial, upon request of the defendant, the prosecuting attorney shall file with the court the names of the witnesses he intends to call at the trial and shall provide a copy of the list for the defendant or his counsel.

(b) Both the prosecution and the defendant are entitled to subpoena such witnesses as are necessary, such process to be issued by the judge or the clerk of the court and directed to the sheriff of any county or any peace officer of any municipality in the state in which such witness may be.

(c) When so required by the court, the applicant for subpoena, either in person or by counsel, shall show to the satisfaction of the court, the materiality of the testimony which is expected to be obtained from such witness.

See RPPP 101.16W.

(d) The procedure for compelling attendance of witnesses shall be as established in Chapter 5.56 RCW, RCW 10.04.060, 10.16.010, 10.16.140, 10.16.145, 10.16.150, 10.16.160, 10.16.190; and 12.16.010 and 12.16.040. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.11 Witnesses—Continued obligation to attend—Dismissal. When a witness has been subpoenaed he shall remain in attendance until the case is disposed of, unless he be excused or dismissed as provided in RPPP 101.12W, Witnesses in Criminal Cases; and he shall be liable for contempt for any default or failure to appear. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.12 Subpoena duces tecum—Motion to quash—Production and inspection. (a) A subpoena duces tecum may be issued by the court upon application of either party, commanding the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents or other objects designated therein. The court, on motion made promptly, may quash or modify the subpoena if compliance would be illegal, unreasonable or oppressive.

(b) The court may direct that books, papers, documents or objects designated in the subpoena be produced before the court at a time prior to the trial or prior to the time when they are to be offered in evidence and may, upon their production, permit the books, papers, documents or objects or portions thereof to be inspected by the parties and their attorneys. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.13 Process—Criminal. The court may issue criminal process to any person anywhere in the state. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

CHAPTER 4—TRIAL

Rule
4.01 Conduct of trial.

- 4.02 Procedure upon a plea of guilty.
- 4.03 Procedure on a plea of not guilty, or, of former acquittal or conviction, or both.
- 4.04 Trial together of complaints.
- 4.05 Relief from prejudicial joinder.
- 4.06 Presence of the defendant.
- 4.07 Trial by jury or by the court.
 - (a) Trial by jury—Waiver.
 - (b) Trial by jury—Selection.
 - (c) Trial by the court.
 - (d) Issues of law.
 - (e) Issues of fact—Judge may charge jury as to law.
- 4.08 Order of trial.
- 4.09 Evidence.
 - (a) Rules of evidence.
 - (b) Confessions.
 - (c) Test report by expert.
- 4.10 Amendments to complaint—Continuance.
- 4.11 Motion for judgment of dismissal.

Rule 4.01 Conduct of trial. All judicial proceedings and trials shall be held in open court, and shall be conducted in accordance with these rules. Questions pertaining to the conduct of the trial and not covered by these rules or appropriate statutes shall be determined by the trial judge acting within his sound discretion. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.02 Procedure upon a plea of guilty. If the defendant pleads guilty, the judge may, if he wishes or if he has any doubts as to the plea, examine a witness or witnesses concerning the circumstances of the charge. If he is satisfied, either with or without the examination of witnesses, that the defendant is guilty, the judge shall assess the punishment and enter judgment accordingly. If, after an examination of a witness or witnesses, he is not satisfied as to the guilt of the defendant, he may, in his discretion, refuse to accept the plea and enter a plea of not guilty. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.03 Procedure on a plea of not guilty, or, of former acquittal or conviction, or both. The proceedings upon the trial of criminal and traffic offenses with respect to a plea of not guilty, or, of former acquittal or conviction, or both, in all courts of limited jurisdiction shall be the same as those which apply to the trial of criminal cases in superior court except as altered by these rules or by statute. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.04 Trial together of complaints. The court may order two or more complaints to be tried together if the offenses, and the defendants if there is more than one, could have been joined in a single complaint. The procedure shall be the same as if the prosecution were under a single complaint. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.05 Relief from prejudicial joinder. If it appears that a defendant or the state is prejudiced by a joinder of offenses or of defendants in a complaint by such joinder for trial together, the court may order a separate trial of counts, grant a severance of defendants, or provide whatever other relief justice requires. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.06 Presence of the defendant. The defendant shall be present during the trial. A person being prosecuted for an offense punishable only by a fine may with the approval of the court be absent if with the approval of the court some responsible person undertakes to be bail for stay of execution and payment of the fine and costs that may be assessed against the defendant. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.07 Trial by jury or by the court.

(a) Trial By Jury—Waiver. When a trial by jury is authorized by the constitution, statutes or decisions of the Supreme Court, either the state or the defendant may demand a jury, which shall consist of six or less citizens of the state, who shall be impaneled and sworn as required by law. Demand for jury trial must be made at the time the defendant's plea is entered; otherwise, it shall be deemed waived, unless the court rules to the contrary.

(b) Trial By Jury—Selection. A jury shall be selected as follows: the judge shall write in a panel the names of eighteen persons, citizens of the county, from which the defendant, or his attorney, must strike one name, the prosecuting attorney one, and so on alternately until each party shall have stricken six names, and the remaining six names shall constitute the jury to try such case; and if either party neglect or refuse to aid in striking the jury as aforesaid the judge shall strike the name in behalf of such party.

(c) Trial By the Court. Unless the court refuses to assent, the parties may waive the right to trial by jury either explicitly or by failing to demand a jury trial in a timely manner, and trial shall be by the court. In trials for violation of municipal ordinances, except as indicated in rule 4.07(a), trial shall be by the court without a jury. Where trial is by the court, the court shall make a general finding and may, in its discretion, find the facts specifically.

(d) Issues of Law. The court shall decide all questions of law which shall arise in the course of a trial. The judge may, with the consent of all parties, answer questions asked by jurors pertaining to the law applicable to the case.

(e) Issues of Fact—Judge May Charge Jury as to Law. Issues of fact shall be tried by the jury in jury cases and by the judge in nonjury cases. In cases tried by a jury, the judge shall not comment on the evidence; however, the court shall instruct the jury either orally or in writing as to the law governing the case. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.08 Order of trial. (a) The order of trial in jury cases shall be as follows:

(1) Where trial by jury is requested, and authorized, a qualified jury, selected as provided by law, shall be sworn well and truly to try the case.

(2) Unless both parties waive opening statements, the prosecutor shall make the opening statement outlining the evidence which will be offered by the prosecution, and the defendant or his counsel may immediately thereafter make the opening statement for the defendant or such opening statement may be reserved until after the conclusion of the prosecution's case-in-chief.

(3) The prosecutor shall submit evidence in support of the prosecution.

(4) Defendant's attorney may challenge the sufficiency of the evidence at the close of the prosecution's case-in-chief, and, if sustained, the case shall be dismissed; otherwise, the defendant may then offer evidence in defense.

(5) If the defendant's counsel shall have reserved his opening statement until the close of the prosecution's case-in-chief, he may then state the case for the defense; if such statement has already been made, he may then offer evidence in support thereof or he may, by proper motion, challenge the sufficiency of the prosecution's case-in-chief to sustain a conviction.

(6) The parties may thereafter respectively offer testimony in rebuttal only unless the court, for good cause shown or believing that the interests of justice will be best served thereby, permits the parties to offer evidence upon their original cases.

(7) If the jury is instructed, the instructions shall be given prior to argument by counsel.

(8) Unless both parties waive argument and agree that the cause be decided by the court or submitted to the jury without argument, the prosecutor shall make the opening argument and the counsel for the defendant may follow and the prosecutor may conclude the argument. The length of time of all arguments shall be fixed by the court in its discretion and announced before the arguments are commenced. Equal time shall be allowed each party.

(b) The order of trial in nonjury cases shall be the same as in subsection (a) except as to such portions as are not applicable to nonjury cases. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.09 Evidence. (a) Rules of Evidence. The Rules of Evidence (ER) are applicable to criminal prosecutions.

(b) Confessions. With respect to confessions, in jury cases, the procedure set forth in CrR 3.5 shall apply, upon demand of the defendant.

(c) Test Report by Expert.

(1) Subject to subsection (c)(2), the official written report of an expert witness which contains the results of any test of a substance or object which are relevant to an issue in a trial shall be admitted in evidence without further proof or foundation as prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the report if the report bears the following certification:

The undersigned certifies under penalty of perjury that:

1. He performed a test on the (substance) (object) in question,

2. The person from whom he received the (substance) (object) in question is

3. The document on which this certificate appears or to which it is attached is a true and complete copy of my official report, and

4. Such document is a report of the results of a test which report and test were made by the undersigned who has the following qualifications and experience:

 Signature

 Title

 Business Address & Phone

(2) The court shall exclude such report if:

(i) A copy of the report and certificate has not been served on the defendant or the defendant's attorney at least 15 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, or

(ii) In the case of an unrepresented defendant, a copy of this rule in addition to a copy of the report and certificate has not been served on the defendant at least 15 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, or

(iii) At least 7 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, the defendant has served a written demand upon the prosecutor to produce the expert witness at the trial. [Amended December 19, 1978, effective April 2, 1979; amended June 4, 1976, effective July 1, 1976; amended August 26, 1975, effective January 1, 1976; amended December 10, 1974, effective January 1, 1975; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.10 Amendments to complaint—Continuance. The court may permit a complaint to be amended at any time before judgment if no additional or different offense is charged, and if substantial rights of the defendant are not thereby prejudiced. A continuance shall not be granted upon such amendment unless the defendant shall satisfy the court that the amendment has made it necessary for him to have additional time in which to prepare his defense. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.11 Motion for judgment of dismissal. Motions for directed verdict are abolished and motions for judgment of dismissal are substituted in their place. The court either on motion of a defendant, or on its own motion, shall order entry of judgment of dismissal of one or more offenses charged by complaint if, after the evidence on either side is closed, the court concludes as a matter of law that such evidence is not sufficient to sustain a judgment of conviction of such offense or offenses. If a defendant's motion for judgment of dismissal at the close of the prosecution's case-in-chief, is not granted, the defendant may offer evidence without having reserved the right. If defendant's motion is granted, the state shall have the right to appeal from the court's ruling. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

CHAPTER 5—VERDICT, JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE

Rule

- 5.01 Trial by the court.
 5.02 Verdict of jury.
 5.03 Bail, sentence and judgment.
 (a) Bail.
 (b) Sentence.
 (c) Judgment.
 5.04 Judgment and sentence—Presence of defendant—Warrant for arrest.
 5.05 Judgment and sentence—Duty of judge and clerk.
 5.06 Judgment set aside.

Rule 5.01 Trial by the court. Where trial is by the court, the court shall make a general finding and may, in its discretion, find the facts specifically. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 5.02 Verdict of jury. (a) When all the members of the jury have agreed upon a verdict of guilty or not guilty, it must be signed by the foreman and returned by the jury to the judge in open court.

(b) When a verdict is returned and before it is recorded, the jury shall be polled at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion. If at the conclusion of the poll all of the jurors do not concur, the jury may be directed to retire for further deliberations or may be discharged by the court. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 5.03 Bail, sentence and judgment.

(a) Bail. Pending sentence, the court may commit the defendant or continue or alter the bail.

(b) Sentence. Before imposing sentence, the court shall afford the defendant, and the prosecution, an opportunity to make a statement and to present information in extenuation, mitigation, or aggravation of punishment. Upon a finding of guilty, in courts established under RCW 3.30 through 3.74, the sentence shall be determined and imposed by the court. In other courts of limited jurisdiction, unless the case is tried without a jury, the jury imposes the sentence.

(c) Judgment. The judgment of conviction shall set forth the plea, the verdict or findings, and the adjudication and sentence. If the defendant is found not guilty or for any other reason is entitled to be discharged, the judgment shall be entered accordingly. [Amended December 17, 1970 also March 26, 1971, effective April 16, 1971; adopted February 13, 1963, amended June 14, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 5.04 Judgment and sentence—Presence of defendant—Warrant for arrest. The defendant must be personally present when sentence and judgment are pronounced unless the court, upon request, consents to the absence of the defendant. If the defendant is in custody, he must be brought before the court for judgment and sentence; if he is not present when his personal attendance is necessary, the court may order the issuance of a warrant for his arrest. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 5.05 Judgment and sentence—Duty of judge and clerk. Whenever a judgment upon a conviction shall be rendered in any court, the judge or clerk of such court shall enter such judgment on the court record, stating briefly the offense for which such conviction shall have been had; but the omission of this duty, either by the judge or clerk, shall not affect or impair the validity of the judgment. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 5.06 Judgment set aside. The court may for cause, on its own initiative, or on motion of the defendant set aside a judgment of conviction and order a new trial at any time before the time for appeal has expired and before an appeal has been taken. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

CHAPTER 6—APPEALS

Rule

- 6.01 Appeals—Perfecting of.
 (a) Venue.
 (b) Notice of appeal.
 (c) The record.
 (d) Notice of filing.
 (e) Noting for trial.
 6.02 Imposition of sentence pending appeal.
 (a) Stay of sentence.
 (b) Impositions of sentence.
 6.03 Appeal—Prosecution thereof.
 (a) Failure to certify transcript.
 (b) Dismissal for want of prosecution.
 (c) Dismissal on clerk's motion.

Rule 6.01 Appeals—Perfecting of.

(a) Venue. Appeals shall be to the superior court of the county in which the court of limited jurisdiction is located. The appeal from a justice court located in a joint justice court district shall be made to the superior court of the county where the offense was alleged to have been committed.

(b) Notice of Appeal. The appeal shall be taken by serving a copy of a written notice of appeal containing the address of the appellant and his attorney upon the attorney for the party in whose favor judgment was entered and by filing the original thereof with acknowledgment or affidavit of service thereof with the court in which the case was tried within 10 days after entry of judgment. If a motion for a new trial or for arrest of judgment has been timely made, such notice and proof of service may be filed within 10 days after entry of the order denying the motion.

(c) The Record. After a notice of appeal is filed, the justice court shall immediately, and in no event later than 10 days thereafter, file with the clerk of the superior court in which the appeal is pending a transcript duly certified by such justice court, furnished without charge, containing a copy of all written pleadings and docket entries, and including exhibits introduced into evidence in the trial before the justice court. A cash bail or bail bond filed in the justice court shall at the same time be transferred to the superior court, there to be held pending disposition of the appeal. Evidence not offered in trial in the superior court shall be returned to the justice court.

(d) Notice of Filing. The justice court shall give prompt notice of the filing or mailing to the respondent and appellant, giving such particulars as date of filing or mailing and superior court file number, if known. Where the justice court is not located at the county court house, such filing may be made by certified mail, in which case the justice court shall advise appellant and respondent of the date of mailing.

(e) Noting for Trial. Within 20 days after the transcript is filed, appellant shall note the case for trial and otherwise diligently prosecute the appeal. [Amended May 12, 1969, effective July 1, 1969; adopted December 23, 1968, effective January 3, 1969. Prior: Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 6.02 Imposition of sentence pending appeal.

(a) Stay of Sentence. All sentences shall be stayed if an appeal is taken and the defendant posts cash bail or his bond to the state which shall be deposited with the clerk of the court, in such reasonable sum with sureties as the lower court judge may require, upon the following conditions: that he will diligently prosecute the appeal, that he will within 10 days after the same is filed in the superior court note the case for trial, and will appear at the court appealed to and comply with any sentence of the superior court, and will, if the appeal is dismissed for any reason, comply with the sentence of the lower court.

(b) Impositions of Sentence. If the appellant fails to provide security, sentence imposed shall be executed. [Adopted December 23, 1968, effective January 3, 1969. Prior: Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 6.03 Appeal—Prosecution thereof.

(a) Failure to Certify Transcript. If the lower court fails, neglects or refuses to make and certify the transcript within the time allowed, the appellant may make application to the superior court not later than twenty days after the filing of the notice of appeal and the superior court shall issue an order to make and certify the transcript.

(b) Dismissal for Want of Prosecution. Where the cause has not been noted for trial within 20 days after filing of the transcript, the superior court clerk shall forthwith note the appeal for dismissal for want of prosecution. If, after a hearing, it is determined that appellant has not met time requirements, the cause shall be dismissed. Upon dismissal of the appeal for failure of appellant to proceed diligently with the appeal as herein required, or for any other cause, the judgment of the lower court shall be enforced by the judge thereof. If, at the time of such dismissal, cash deposit or appeal bond as hereinafter required has been furnished and is in the custody of the superior court, the same shall be returned to the lower court. The lower court shall have power to forfeit the cash bail or appeal bond and issue execution thereon for breach of any condition under which it is furnished.

(c) Dismissal on Clerk's Motion. In all justice court appeals wherein there has been no action of record during the ninety days just past, the clerk of the superior court shall mail notice to the appellant and counsel at the addresses contained in the notice of appeal that such appeal will be dismissed by the court for want of prosecution unless within thirty days following such mailing, action of record is made for an application in writing to the court and good cause shown why it should be continued as a pending case. If the appeal is dismissed, the clerk of the court will proceed as per section (b) above. [Amended June 23, 1969, effective July 1, 1969; adopted December 23, 1968, effective January 3, 1969. Prior: Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

CHAPTER 8—DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGE, CLERICAL MISTAKES, CONDUCT OF COURT

Rule

- 8.01 Judge, disqualification.
 - (a) Disqualification.
 - (b) Affidavit of prejudice.
- 8.02 Judge, disqualification—Another judge.
- 8.03 Clerical mistakes.
- 8.04 Rules of court.

Rule 8.01 Judge, disqualification.

(a) Disqualification. In any case pending in any court of limited jurisdiction, unless otherwise provided by law, the judge thereof shall be deemed disqualified to hear and try the case when he is in anywise interested or prejudiced. The judge, of his own initiative, may enter an order disqualifying himself; and he shall also disqualify himself under the provisions of this rule if, before the jury is sworn or the trial is commenced, a party or his attorney of record files an affidavit that such party cannot have a fair and impartial trial by reason of the interest or prejudice of the judge or for other ground provided by law. Only one such affidavit shall be filed on behalf of the same party in the case and such affidavit shall be made as to only one of the judges of said court.

(b) Affidavit of Prejudice. All right to an affidavit of prejudice will be considered waived where filed more than ten (10) days after the defendant's plea is entered, or the case is set for trial whichever should occur first, unless the affidavit alleges a particular incident, conversation or utterance by the judge, which was not known to the party or his attorney within the ten (10) day period. In multiple judge courts, or where a pro tem or visiting judge is designated as the trial judge, the 10 day period shall commence on the date that the defendant or his attorney has actual notice of assignment or reassignment to a designated trial judge. [Amended December 17, 1970 also March 25, 1971, effective April 16, 1971; Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

judge shall forthwith make an order transferring and removing the case to another judge authorized by law to hear such case. RCW 3.50.280 shall apply to municipal courts. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 8.03 Clerical mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors in the record arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time and after such notice, if any, as the court may order. If an appeal has been taken, such mistakes may be so corrected until the record has been filed in the appellate court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be so corrected with the leave of the appellate court. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 8.04 Rules of court. If no procedure is specifically prescribed by rule, the court may proceed in any lawful manner not inconsistent with these rules, or with any applicable statute. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

CHAPTER 10—MISCELLANEOUS

Rule

- 10.01 Time—Rules for computing.
10.02 Motions and applications—Notice—Service.
10.03 Title of rules.

Rule 10.01 Time—Rules for computing. (a) In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by order of court or by any applicable law, the day of the act, event or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be counted or included, and the last day of the prescribed or allowed period so computed is to be counted and included, unless such last day be a Sunday or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Sunday nor a legal holiday. When the allowed period is less than 7 days, intermediate Sundays and legal holidays, if any, shall be excluded in the computation.

(b) Whenever by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court, for good cause shown, may at any time in its discretion: (1) with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if application therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order; or (2) upon motion and notice permit the act to be done after the expiration of the specified period where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but the court may not enlarge the period for taking an appeal as provided for in these rules. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 10.02 Motions and applications—Notice—Service. Reasonable notice shall be given to the opposing party or attorney of record of all motions and applications other than those ex parte. Where a motion or application is supported by an affidavit, a copy of such affidavit shall be served with the motion or application. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 10.03 Title of rules. These rules may be known and cited as Criminal Rules for Courts of Limited Jurisdiction, and they may be referred to as J Crim. R.* [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

*Reviser's note: By order dated May 5, 1967, effective July 1, 1967, these rules were redesignated as Criminal Rules for Justice Court and may be referred to as JCrR.

Rule T2.01 Complaint and citation—Form and use—Defects. (a) Traffic cases shall be filed on a form prescribed by the Administrator for the Courts consisting of four copies known as the "Complaint/Citation Docket Form". The required copies, which must be the original, the first, the second, and the last carbon respectively are:

(1) The abstract of court record for the state licensing authority, the original, printed on yellow paper;

(2) The traffic citation, printed on green paper;

(3) The police record, which shall be a copy of the complaint, printed on pink paper, and

(4) The complaint/docket, printed on white ledger paper.

(b) Each of the parts shall contain the following information or blanks in which such information shall be entered:

(1) The name of the court and a space for the court's docket, case or file number;

(2) The name of the person cited, his address, date of birth, sex, operator's license number, his vehicle's make, year, type, license number and state in which licensed;

(3) The offense of which he is charged, the date, the time and place at which the offense occurred, the date on which the citation was issued, and the name of the citing officer. Two offenses may be cited on one ticket;

(4) In all cases where the person is not arrested, the time and place at which the person cited is to appear in court or the traffic violations bureau need not be to a time certain but may be within 72 hours or within a greater period of time not to exceed 15 days after the date of the citation;

(5) A space for the person cited to sign a promise to appear; and

(6) A space for the entry of bail in accordance with the established bail schedule.

(c) Each of the parts may also contain such identifying and additional information as may be necessary.

(d) (1) Complaint—Officers. The complaint shall contain a form of certificate by the citing official to the effect that he certifies, under penalties of perjury, as provided by RCW 3.50.140, and any law amendatory thereof, he has reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe, the person cited committed the offense(s) contrary to law. The certificate need not be made before a magistrate or any other person. Such complaint when signed by the citing officer and filed with a court, or traffic violations bureau, of competent jurisdiction shall be deemed a lawful complaint for the purpose of prosecuting the traffic offenses charged therein.

(2) Complaint by others. Where a person other than a police officer wishes to make a traffic violation charge, he shall do so by filling out and signing a complaint on the form provided for by these rules. He shall fill out the form and sign it before a magistrate. Such complaint when prepared in compliance with this rule and filed with a court of competent jurisdiction shall be deemed a lawful complaint for the purpose of prosecuting the traffic offenses charged therein.

(e) The reverse side of the complaint shall be used to record court action, and shall, together with the complaint, constitute the docket of the court of all traffic cases.

(f) The reverse side of the abstract of court record shall contain such matters as may be necessary to bring the disposition of the complaint to the attention of the Director of Motor Vehicles.

(g) The reverse side of the police record may contain the police report of action on the case.

(h) The traffic citation shall also contain a notice to the person cited that the complaint will be filed. The reverse side of the traffic citation shall set forth information as to his right to deposit bail and to a trial, or to forfeit bail and the consequences thereof.

(i) To insure uniformity, the format and use of the uniform complaint and citation, provided herein, shall be subject to approval by the office of Administrator for the Courts. [Amended October 16, 1975, effective January 1, 1976; amended June 23, 1967, effective July 1, 1967; amended July 14, 1966, effective August 1, 1966; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule T2.02 Complaint and citation—Arrest by warrant—Procedure. (a) All traffic violations shall be prosecuted by complaint in the form provided in rule T2.01 and applicable state statutes.

(b) Whenever any person is arrested by an officer for any violation of the traffic laws or regulations of the state, a county or a city, the officer shall fill out the complaint and citation form in accordance with rule T2.01 and applicable statutes. The arresting officer shall serve a copy of the complaint and citation on the person and either

(1) Take the person arrested directly and without delay before an officer authorized to accept bail, or a judge, for deposit of bail; or

(2) if bail is not deposited, before a judge as hereinafter provided; or

(3) permit the person charged with the violation to give his written promise to appear in court or traffic violations bureau by signing the original traffic citation prepared by the officer, in which event the officer shall deliver the violator's copy of the citation to the person, and thereupon the officer shall release the person from custody.

(c) Obtaining Jurisdiction of a Person not Arrested. Whenever any person is charged with the violation of the traffic laws or regulations of the state, a county, or a city, but is not arrested, the court shall issue a summons, or in the alternative, a warrant, in the same manner as in Rule 2.02 of the Criminal Rules for Justice Court. Said summons may be served or warrant executed as provided for in said Rule 2.02 of the Criminal Rules for Justice Court. Before proceeding as above, the court may notify the defendant by mail, of the charge, of the existence of a complaint, the date and time or interval of time in which the defendant is to appear, the place to appear, whether the charge is mandatory or forfeitable and if forfeitable, the amount of bail which may be required. Upon posting bail or upon obtaining personal recognizance, the court shall obtain jurisdiction of the person of the defendant in a like manner as if the summons had been served on the defendant or warrant executed.

(d) (1) Execution of Warrant. The warrant shall be directed to all peace officers in the state and shall be executed only by a peace officer.

(2) Service of Summons. The summons may be served any place within the state. It shall be served by a peace officer who shall deliver a copy of the same to the defendant personally, or it may be served by mailing the same, by certified mail, postage prepaid, to the defendant at his address. [Amended December 17, 1970, effective April 16, 1971; amended July 14, 1966, effective August 1, 1966; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule T2.03 Procedure upon arrest without a warrant—Under a warrant—Personal recognizance—Bail.

(a) Bail Schedules—Traffic Cases. The Court Administrator shall furnish to every court of limited jurisdiction and every such court shall furnish to each law enforcement office within its jurisdiction, the bail schedule of subsections (k), (l), and (m) covering major traffic offenses. Whenever bail is required for any such traffic offense, it shall be that shown on the schedule unless the judge of the court having jurisdiction thereof shall, by written order showing the reason therefor in each case, set bail in a different amount.

Each judge, or the presiding judge in a multiple judge court, with jurisdiction to hear and determine traffic cases is authorized to establish by order of court a schedule of bail which shall be as uniform as possible for traffic offenses triable in his court which are not included in the schedule approved by the Supreme Court and found in JTR T2.03 (k), (l), and (m). A copy of such schedule shall be distributed to (1) the Administrator for the Courts, (2) the Recording Secretary of the Judicial Council, (3) the Chief of the State Patrol, (4) the President of the Magistrates' Association, (5) the prosecuting attorney and sheriff of the county, (6) the chief of police of each city or town within the court's jurisdiction, and (7) the clerk of the judge's court and with the clerk of the traffic violations bureau, if any. The order of the court establishing the bail schedule shall be prominently displayed in all places where bail may be deposited.

(b) Procedure Upon Arrest Without a Warrant—Traffic Cases. Where a person is arrested without a warrant for a traffic offense committed in the officer's presence and the arresting officer proceeds under Rule T2.02(b)(1) to take the person before a judge, or the clerk or deputy of the court, or to the county jail, or, in a proper case, to the municipal jail, the judge, or the clerk or deputy clerk or the sheriff or chief of police, or their deputies in charge of the jail is authorized to accept, and the person is entitled to deposit, bail in accordance with the schedule established under Rule T2.03(a) for his appearance at a time and place to be then made known to him. The sheriff, chief of police, any other authorized peace officer or such persons as the court may authorize, may release the defendant on personal recognizance if he is a resident of the county or has substantial local contacts.

If bail is not deposited, or the person refuses to deposit bail or he is not released on personal recognizance, he shall be taken without unnecessary delay, and in any event within twenty-four hours, exclusive of nonjudicial days, before the proper judge for arraignment upon the complaint issued under Rule T2.02(b).

(c) Procedure Following Execution of Warrant—Traffic Cases. Whether or not bail is fixed upon a warrant issued in a traffic case, the officer making an arrest thereunder shall take the person directly and without delay before the judge or an official authorized to accept and justify bail. If bail has been fixed in the warrant, the bail so set may be required of the person under arrest. If no bail was set in the warrant, then the appropriate bail schedule on file shall apply. If bail is not deposited, or the person refuses to deposit bail, he shall be taken without unnecessary delay, and in any event within twenty-four hours exclusive of nonjudicial days, before the proper judge for arraignment upon the complaint.

(d) Cash Bail. Any person arrested with or without a warrant for a traffic offense may, in the place of giving bail, deposit with the official before whom he is taken, or the judge, or the clerk of the court or the traffic violations bureau to which he is held to answer, the sum of money mentioned in the warrant or set forth in the bail schedule for the offense with which he is charged. He shall be given a receipt by such official, judge or clerk.

(e) Release on Bail. Upon the depositing of bail under this rule, the person shall be discharged from custody if his physical condition warrants, subject to his appearance at the time and place indicated in the citation or warrant.

(f) Personal Recognizance at Arraignment. Any person arrested or cited for a traffic violation and who wishes to contest such arrest or citation, shall at the time of arraignment, be released on his own personal recognizance if his physical condition warrants and if he is a resident of the county or has substantial local contacts unless there is good cause for refusal. If the judge finds the person is not a resident of the county, has insufficient local contacts or good cause for refusal is shown, he may require bail to be posted to insure the person's appearance at trial by entering a written order specifying reasons and terms thereof. Such order may be a simple docket entry.

(g) Administrative Personal Recognizance. If a person appears on any traffic offense at the time or within the time interval designated on the ticket or notice, and requests a trial, or if appearance is mandatory, the clerks of the court or Violations Bureau shall set the matter for arraignment or trial and grant personal recognizance unless the person is not a resident of the county, has insufficient local contacts or good cause for refusal is shown.

(h) Review. In all cases the person charged shall have the right of review by the judge of the ruling of any clerk or official as to the amount of bail or refusal to grant personal recognizance.

(i) Condition for Release on Personal Recognizance. Wherever release on personal recognizance is granted under this rule the judge or clerk may condition such release on the defendant's signing a written promise to appear acknowledging the trial or arraignment date. Such promise may be in the following form.

Trial date _____, 19__ at _____ M.
I agree to appear at that time. If I fail to appear, a warrant will be issued with bail set at $_____. I understand that clerical personnel have no authority to grant further delay.
Dated _____, 19__

(n) Multiple Offenses. Where multiple violations arising from one incident are charged and any one of the charges is mandatory, the total bail shall not exceed $500.

(o) Judicial Council Review. This bail schedule shall be reviewed annually by the Judicial Council which shall file a written report with the Supreme Court recommending retention or modification of this schedule. [Amended November 29, 1971, effective January 1, 1972; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule T2.04 Disposition and records of traffic complaints and citations.

(a) Deposit in Court. Every traffic enforcement officer upon issuing a traffic complaint and citation to an alleged violator of any provision of the motor vehicle laws of this state or of any traffic ordinance of any city, town or county, shall deposit the complaint and the abstract of court record copy of such traffic complaint and citation with a court having jurisdiction over the alleged offense or with its traffic violations bureau. This duty may be performed by the officer's supervisor. In either case, deposit as directed must be made within 48 hours after issuance of the traffic complaint and citation, nonjudicial days excluded.

(b) Disposal of Traffic Cases. Upon such deposit as required by subsection (a), the case may be disposed of only by trial in said court or by other official action by a judge of that court, including removal of the case to a court having jurisdiction over the particular violation as charged in the complaint, or by forfeiture of bail or by deposit of sufficient bail with or payment of a fine to the traffic violations bureau by the person to whom such traffic complaint and citation was issued.

(c) Improper Disposal of Traffic Complaint and Citation Tickets. It shall be unlawful and official misconduct for any traffic enforcement officer or other officer or public employee to dispose of a traffic complaint and citation or copies thereof or of the record of the issuance of the same in a manner other than as required herein. [Amended October 16, 1975, effective January 1, 1976; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule T2.05 Procedure on failure to obey citation.

(a) Residents. The court shall issue a warrant for the arrest of any defendant who is a resident of this state and who has failed to appear before the court or the traffic violations bureau either in person or by council in answer to a traffic complaint and citation upon which he has given his written promise to appear. If the warrant is not executed within 30 days after issue, the court shall make an entry of the notification on the docket, and may add a charge against the defendant for failure to appear after a written promise to do so, and mark the case closed, subject to being reopened when the appearance of the defendant is thereafter obtained.

(b) Nonresidents. If a nonresident defendant fails to appear before the court or the traffic violations bureau either in person or by counsel in answer to a traffic complaint and citation upon which he has given his written promise to appear, the court shall mail a notice to the defendant at the address stated in the complaint and citation requesting him to abide by his promise and appear in person or by counsel on a day certain, and notifying him that his failure to appear after a written promise to do so is a misdemeanor for which he may also be charged. If the nonresident defendant fails to respond within 30 days after the date set in the notice, the court shall issue a warrant for his arrest and shall make an entry of the notification on the docket, and may add a charge against the defendant for failure to appear after a written promise to do so, and mark the case closed, subject to being reopened when the appearance of the defendant is thereafter obtained. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule T2.06 Traffic violations bureau—Procedure.

(a) Traffic Violations Bureau. A traffic violations bureau may be established by any city or town under the supervision of the court having jurisdiction over violations of its ordinances, and by any judge, or by the presiding judge in a multiple judge court, having jurisdiction of traffic cases to assist in the processing of traffic cases.

(b) Traffic Violations Bureau—Authority.

(1) General. The traffic violations bureau is authorized to process in accordance with this rule and state statute such traffic offenses under city ordinance or county ordinance or resolution or state law as may be designated by written order of the court having jurisdiction of such traffic cases.

(2) Authority to accept bail. The court may by its order authorize the traffic violations bureau to receive the deposit of bail for appearance in court for specified offenses under a bail schedule issued under rule T2.03. The traffic violations bureau, upon accepting the prescribed bail, shall issue (a) a receipt to the alleged violator, and (b) a notice of trial date, prepared in triplicate, the reverse side of which shall bear a legend informative of the legal consequences of bail forfeiture. The second copy of the notice of trial date shall be forwarded to the clerk of the court and the third copy shall be retained by the traffic violations bureau.

(3) Authority to accept forfeiture of bail—Consequences. The court may by its order authorize the traffic violations bureau (i) to accept forfeiture of bail in specified cases in accordance with a bail schedule issued under rule T2.03 in lieu of depositing bail for appearance, in which case a receipt shall be issued to the alleged violator, the reverse side of which shall contain a statement indicating that forfeiture of bail shall terminate the case and may be considered by the Director of Motor Vehicles only, and for no other purpose, as having the same effect as conviction of the offense charged; and (ii) to forfeit bail deposited for appearance on notification by the clerk of the court of failure of the defendant to appear. Forfeiture of bail under either (i) or (ii) shall be construed as payment of a fine for the offense charged only for the purpose of the distribution of the funds and shall terminate the case.

(c) Traffic Violations Bureau—Duties. The traffic violations bureau shall, not less than once a week or oftener as the judge directs, transfer to the clerk of the proper department of the court (1) all bail deposited for offenses where forfeiture is not authorized by court order, (2) a copy of each notice of trial date for which bail has been deposited, and on which shall appear the amount of bail deposited, and (3) a list of the names of all offenders who have forfeited bail under rule T2.06(b)(3)(i) and (ii). Once each week, on a day set by the court, the traffic violations bureau shall forward to the Director of Motor Vehicles the abstract of court record copy of the complaint and citation indicating the disposition of each case involving bail forfeiture during the previous week. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

CHAPTER T3—ARRAIGNMENT AND TRIAL—TRAFFIC CASES

Rule

- T3.01 Separation of traffic cases.
 (a) Separate trial.
 (b) Trial by traffic division.
 (c) Trial by traffic session.
 (d) Other cases; designation of particular time.
 (e) Adjournment; bail for release.
 (f) Objections before trial.
- T3.03 Traffic cases—Arrest and trial.
- T3.04 [Amendment of complaint or citation—Continuance.]
- T3.05 Breathalyzer.
 (a) Breathalyzer maintenance operator—Demand for testimony—Certification of machine.
 (b) Continuance.

Rule T3.01 Separation of traffic cases.

(a) Separate Trial. Insofar as practicable, in the respective court or district, traffic cases shall be tried separate and apart from other cases, and may be designated as the "Traffic" section or division.

(b) Trial by Traffic Division. If a court sits in divisions and one division sitting in daily session has been designated as a traffic court, traffic cases shall be tried in that division only.

(c) Trial by Traffic Session. If a court has designated a particular session as a traffic session, traffic cases shall be tried only in that session, except for good cause shown.

(d) Other Cases; Designation of Particular Time. In all other cases, the court shall designate a particular day or days, or a particular hour daily on certain days, for the trial of traffic cases.

(e) Adjournment; Bail for Release. When a hearing is adjourned, the court may detain the defendant in safe custody until the defendant is admitted to bail.

(f) Objections Before Trial. An objection to the validity or regularity of the complaint or process issued thereunder shall be made, orally or in writing, by the defendant before trial. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule T3.03 Traffic cases—Arraignment and trial.

The Criminal Rules for Courts of Limited Jurisdiction, insofar as they are not inconsistent with these rules, shall govern the proceedings in traffic cases following the preliminary proceeding provided for in Chapter T2 of these rules. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule T3.04 [Amendment of complaint or citation—Continuance.]

The court may permit a complaint or citation to be amended at any time before judgment if no additional or different offense is charged, and if substantial rights of the defendant are not thereby prejudiced. A continuance shall not be granted upon such amendment unless the defendant shall satisfy the court that the amendment has made it necessary for him to have additional time in which to prepare his defense. [Adopted July 14, 1966, effective August 1, 1966.]

Rule T3.05 Breathalyzer.

(a) Breathalyzer Maintenance Operator—Demand for Testimony—Certification of Machine. In the absence of a request to produce a breathalyzer maintenance operator at least 10 days prior to trial or such lesser time as the court deems proper, certificates in the following form are admissible in any court proceeding held pursuant to RCW 46.61.506 for the purpose of determining whether a person was operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors:

BREATHALYZER MAINTENANCE AND CHEMICAL CERTIFICATION

I, _____, do certify under penalty of perjury as follows:

I am a maintenance operator possessing a valid permit or certificate issued to me by the State Toxicologist by virtue of his Rules, WAC-448, Chapter 12, and RCW 46.61.506.

On _____ (date) at _____ (time) I examined, tested and calibrated a Breathalyzer Machine with Serial No. _____, using a sealed ampoule of chemicals with Control No. _____ according to the methods established and approved by the State Toxicologist.

I further certify that said machine was, on that date, in proper working order, and that the chemicals in ampoules with the above control number are suitable for use in this machine.

Breathalyzer Maintenance Operator

Dated _____

(b) Continuance. The court at the time of trial shall hear testimony concerning the alleged offense and, if necessary, may continue the proceedings for the purpose of obtaining the maintenance operator's presence for testimony concerning the working order of the breathalyzer machine and his certification thereof. If, at the time the maintenance operator is produced, the prosecutor's breathalyzer evidence is insufficient, a motion to suppress the results of such tests shall be granted. [Adopted May 26, 1972, effective July 1, 1972.]

CHAPTER T10—MISCELLANEOUS

Rule

- T10.01 Title of rules.
- T10.02 Effective date.

Rule T10.01 Title of rules. These rules may be known and cited as Traffic Rules for Courts of Limited Jurisdiction, and they may be referred to as JTR. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Reviser's note: By order of the Supreme Court dated May 5, 1967, effective July 1, 1967, these rules were redesignated Traffic Rules for Justice Court.

Rule T10.02 Effective date. These rules, insofar as applicable, take effect upon the date specified by the Supreme Court. They shall govern all proceedings in traffic cases brought after they take effect, and also all further proceedings in traffic cases then pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the court their application in a particular action pending would not be feasible or would work injustice, in which event the former procedure would apply. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

APPENDIX TO PART V

Table of Contents

1. Forward dated February 13, 1963
2. Order adopting rules for courts of limited jurisdiction dated February 13, 1963
3. Order extending effective date of rules dated April 2, 1963
4. Order amending and adding specified rules, dated June 14, 1963
5. Order reclassifying rules for courts of limited jurisdiction dated May 1, 1967

1. Forward dated February 13, 1963

On November 2, 30, and December 7, 1962, respectively, the suggested procedural rules for courts of limited jurisdiction, adopted by a majority of the members of the Judicial Council, were published. The publication invited study, suggestions, and criticisms by interested persons prior to the promulgation of the proposed rules by the Supreme Court. Many letters were received suggesting substantial changes. Several meetings were held, and some major changes, in addition to numerous less significant ones, have been made.

The principal objections to the rules were (1) that they established rules for jury trials in municipal courts in certain cases, and (2) that, under the statutory authority to adopt rules of procedure, the suggested rules contained substantive law.

As to (1), Art. 1, § 22, of the state constitution, provides in part that "In criminal prosecutions the accused shall have the right . . . to have a speedy public trial by an impartial jury . . ." Accordingly, the legislature provided for juries in the Superior Court and the Justice Court. No juries were provided by legislative enactment for Municipal Courts. This court, in Bellingham v. Hite, 37 Wn. (2d) 652, 225 P. (2d) 895 (1950), held that a city ordinance which did not provide for jury trial for persons charged with violation of city ordinances was not repugnant to Art. 1, § 22, of the state constitution, for the reason that the municipal court conviction became a nullity when the accused person appealed to the Superior Court, where the municipal ordinance violation was tried de novo, and a jury provided upon request.

The legislature, by § 77, chapter 299, Laws of 1961, RCW 3.50.280, has authorized jury trials in municipal courts in certain cases involving traffic violations and gross misdemeanors. Sections 2 and 96, chapter 299, Laws of 1961, RCW 3.30.020, 3.50.470, exclude those municipalities from the provision of chapter 299 whose governing bodies have, by resolution, decreed not to be governed by its provisions.

Appendix to Part V

Therefore, rules of procedure have been prepared for the selection of juries for those municipal courts whose municipalities have qualified under chapter 299, Laws of 1961.

We have endeavored to incorporate in one rule book as much of the necessary statutory law (and have given such laws a rule number) relating to jurisdiction, process, arrest, bail, disposition of bail forfeitures, and rules of trial procedure as the judges will need in the determination of most of the causes before them. To accomplish this purpose, the law was given a rule number. The statutory law, in most instances, is set out verbatim in the rule. There is no desire or intention to abrogate the statutes dealing with substantive law, but, rather, to make them readily available.

The rules are designed to establish uniform procedure in this state for courts of limited jurisdiction. They are the first such rules promulgated by the Supreme Court for courts of limited jurisdiction. Comments, suggestions, and criticism of these proposed rules, as revised, are invited prior to April 1, 1963. If revisions are made, only the specific rule revised will be republished. The effective date of these rules and any revision thereof will be May 1, 1963.

The court expresses its appreciation to the members of the advisory committee of the Judicial Council who drafted the proposed rules previously published. We are likewise grateful to the Chief of the State Patrol, the Director of Licenses, Justice Court, Municipal Court, and Superior Court Judges, the prosecuting and city attorneys, practicing attorneys, city officials and mayors, the press, and many others, whose helpful suggestions have aided materially in the formulation of the rules as now presented.

2. IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

ORDER
25700-A
Paper No. 76

IN THE MATTER OF
THE ADOPTION OF RULES FOR COURTS OF LIMITED JURISDICTION (Justice of the Peace Courts,
Municipal Courts,
Police Courts)
BY THE SUPREME COURT OF THE
STATE OF WASHINGTON

WHEREAS, The Legislature enacted chapter 118, Laws of 1925, relating generally to Rules of Procedure, and chapter 299, Laws of 1961, relating to Justice Courts and other courts of limited jurisdiction in the state of Washington, and included provisions in chapter 299, Laws of 1961, pertaining to the promulgation and adoption of Rules of Procedure by the Supreme Court of Washington; and

WHEREAS, authority to promulgate and adopt uniform Rules of Procedure for the courts in the state of Washington is vested in the Supreme Court of Washington under the decision in State ex rel. Foster-Wyman Lumber Company v. Superior Court for King County (1928), 148 Wash. 1, 267 Pac. 770; and

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court of Washington requested technical assistance, advice and counsel from the Judicial Council, that a comprehensive study be made, and that proposed Rules of Procedure be drafted for the Courts of Limited Jurisdiction and submitted by the Judicial Council for consideration by the Supreme Court; and

WHEREAS, The Judicial Council established an advisory committee to do research and drafting, and to submit initial drafts of proposed Rules of Procedure for the Courts of Limited Jurisdiction, such committee being representative of all segments of the legal profession, of all the courts of Washington, and particularly representative of all judges of courts to be affected by the Proposed Rules of Procedure; and such advisory committee thus being reasonably representative of the public's interest in such matters, and, in fact, being composed of the following members:

- M. Kenneth A. Cole, representing the Washington State Bar Association, and attorney for the Association of Washington Cities and Municipalities, 4th and Pike Building, Seattle, Washington;
- Representative Keith H. Campbell (then Chairman), Judiciary Committee—Criminal, House of

- Representatives, Washington State Legislature, and member of the Washington State Judicial Council, W. 2204 Rockwell Avenue, Spokane, Washington;
- Judge Ronald Danielson, Justice of the Peace, and Municipal Court Judge, City Hall, Bremerton, Washington;
- Judge E. A. Davis, Justice of the Peace, (and then President of the Washington State Magistrates Association), 9714 Dawson Street, Bothell, Washington;
- Mr. Walter J. Deierlein, Jr., Prosecuting Attorney, representing the Washington State Association of Prosecuting Attorneys, Legal Building, Mount Vernon, Washington;
- Judge Ambrose C. Grady, Justice of the Peace, and presently President of the Washington State Magistrates Association, 112 Taylor Street, Port Townsend, Washington;
- Mr. Marshall McCormick, Corporation Counsel, representing the Washington State Association of Municipal Attorneys, County-City Building, Tacoma, Washington;
- Judge Ben McInturff, Justice of the Peace, Courthouse, Spokane, Washington;
- Professor Robert Meisenholder, School of Law, University of Washington, Seattle 5, Washington;
- Judge Solie M. Ringold, Superior Court for King County, representing the Superior Court Judges' Association, County-City Building, Seattle, Washington;
- Judge Evangeline Starr, Justice of the Peace, 321 County-City Building, Seattle, Washington;
- Dr. George Neff Stevens, School of Law, University of Washington, and Executive Secretary of Washington State Judicial Council, Seattle 5, Washington;
- Judge Waldo Stone, Justice of the Peace, County-City Building, Tacoma, Washington;

And, WHEREAS, The advisory committee, after months of study, and liaison by its representative members with their particular organizations, including the judges of the courts of limited jurisdiction of the state of Washington, submitted proposed Rules of Procedure to the Judicial Council; and

WHEREAS, The advisory committee of the Judicial Council cause copies of the proposed Rules of Procedure to be distributed to interested individuals throughout the state, inviting and requesting comments and criticism thereon; and, after due consideration and careful revision by individual members of the Judicial Council, and by the said Council as a whole, at its regular meeting on October 12-13, 1962, the proposed Rules of Procedure, as finally revised and approved by the Judicial Council, were submitted to the Supreme Court; and

WHEREAS, the proposed Rules, designated (a) Traffic, (b) Civil, and (c) Criminal, containing general provisions respecting judicial administration, were ordered published by the Supreme Court in the Washington Advance Sheets, and were published therein on the following dates:

- (a) Proposed Traffic Rules for Courts of Limited Jurisdiction, 160 Wash. Dec. No. 22, November 2, 1962;
- (b) Proposed Civil Rules for Courts of Limited Jurisdiction, 160 Wash. Dec. No. 26, November 30, 1962;
- (c) Proposed Criminal Rules for Courts of Limited Jurisdiction and Proposed General Rules for Courts of Limited Jurisdiction, 160 Wash. Dec. No. 27, December 7, 1962, with a request for comment and criticism by any and all concerned, and with notice that such comment and criticism be filed, in writing, with the Supreme Court no later than thirty days after said publication; and

WHEREAS, all written comment and criticism filed with the Supreme Court was evaluated and given due consideration by the Supreme Court; and

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court, in executive session, on the 11th day of January, 1963, heard criticism and comment on the proposed Rules from all who had made request in writing to be heard, the Supreme

Rules For Courts of Limited Jurisdiction

Court having given further consideration to the proposed Rules, and having made further revisions thereof,

Now, Therefore, It is Hereby Ordered That Rules of Procedure, now designated (a) Traffic, (b) Civil, (c) Criminal, and (d) General, for the Courts of Limited Jurisdiction in the state of Washington, copies of such Rules being attached hereto and incorporated herein, be filed with this Order in the Office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court; that this Order and copies of the aforesaid Rules be made available for public inspection as in the case of other Orders and public records of the Supreme Court; and

It is further hereby Ordered That the aforesaid Rules be published expeditiously in the Washington Advance Sheets, together with notice therein that, for the purpose of due consideration and evaluation by the Supreme Court, comment, criticism, or objection to the aforesaid Rules may be filed in writing not later than April 1, 1963, in the Office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

It is further hereby Ordered That the Rules referred to and incorporated herein by this Order, subject only to further consideration and to such revision as may be made by Order of this Court, shall become effective as of May 1, 1963.

PARALLEL TABLES

- (1) Remington's Revised Statutes to Revised Code of Washington.
- (2) Session law sections not included in Remington's Revised statutes but included in the Revised Code of Washington: 1854 to 1949 Session Laws; inclusive.
- (3) Session law sections commencing with 1950 Extraordinary Session.

These tables include: (1) All sections of Remington's Revised Statutes or parts thereof which have parallel sections in the Revised Code of Washington as originally published, accounting as well for those Remington sections which are omitted from the Revised Code of Washington, and which omitted sections may not be accounted for in tables or notes published in Remington's Revised Statutes, its pocket supplements, and its biennial supplements up to and including that for the year 1949; (2) Session law sections not included in Remington's Revised statutes but included in the Revised Code of Washington: 1854 to 1949 Session Laws, inclusive; and (3) Session law sections commencing with The 1950 Extraordinary Session.

The original parallel tables were prepared in 1951. Since that date the Statute Law Committee has restored the Revised Code of Washington to the sectionalization of the session laws. As a result several of the RCW citations are no longer accurate. If the RCW section cited in the table cannot be found in the text of the Revised Code of Washington, consult the table entitled "Dispositions of former RCW sections" for further information.

In these tables the following abbreviations are used:

WASHINGTON BUSINESS CORPORATIONS ACT

COMPARATIVE TABLE

Title 23A (Washington Business Corporation Act) to Title 23 RCW (Corporations And Associations (Profit))

Chapter 23.01 RCW (1933 c 185 as amended) which was repealed effective July 1, 1967 was based upon the Model Business Corporation Act promulgated in 1928 as the "Uniform Business Corporation Act" by the Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws which in 1943 was renamed "Model Business Corporation Act" and in 1957 was withdrawn. 1965 c 53 codified herein as Title 23A RCW, is based upon the Model Business Corporation Act prepared by the Committee on Corporate Laws (Section of Corporation, Banking, and Business Law) of the American Bar Association. While the general subject matter of the two acts is the same, the subordinate parts thereof are often dissimilar; thus the following table as it relates to Chapter 23.01 RCW cannot in every instance pinpoint specific provisions but in such cases it is hoped it may be useful as a comparative guide for locating what are necessarily rather broad areas of subject matter. On the other hand, the resemblance between chapters 23A.32 and 23.52 RCW—Foreign Corporation; chapters 23A.36 and 23.54 RCW—Nonadmitted organizations; and chapters 23A.40 and 23.60 RCW—Fees and charges, is fairly close and the table as it relates to such chapters is considerably more precise.

Chapter 43.58

WASHINGTON-OREGON BOUNDARY COMMISSION

43.58.010 Washington-Oregon boundary commission established—Purpose. The true location of the boundary line between the states of Oregon and Washington in the Columbia River and particularly at points on said river where dams and bridges have been and are being constructed, has been and is in doubt. Said boundary line being fixed by Article XXIV of the state Constitution with reference in the middle channel and widest channel of the Columbia River, the location of which frequently changes by reason of the action of the winds, tides and currents, is extremely difficult to fix and determine at any given time. The definite and final establishment of the location of such boundary line with relation to fixed monuments located on the adjacent upland is therefore of great economic and political importance to both interested states and their citizens.

There is therefore hereby created and established a state commission to be known and designated as the "Washington-Oregon Boundary Commission," and in this chapter referred to as the "commission." Said commission shall be composed of five members, one of which shall be appointed by the governor, two by the house of representatives, and two by the senate. The commission shall select from its membership a chairman and a secretary. [1955 ex.s. c 6 § 1; 1937 c 27 § 1; RRS § 10939-5.]

Repeal—1965 c 8: See RCW 43.58.090.

43.58.020 Powers and duties. Said commission when so directed by the governor shall have the power and it shall be its duty forthwith to make a complete and thorough study of all available data bearing upon the present locations of those portions of the boundary line between the states of Oregon and Washington which bisect the site of each dam or bridge heretofore or hereafter constructed in or over the Columbia River, and for such purpose shall have access to all the files and records of the state and its governmental agencies, and shall have the power and authority to employ such surveyors, engineers and other assistants, and to incur such incidental expenses as it shall deem necessary. [1955 ex.s. c 6 § 2; 1937 c 27 § 2, RRS § 10939-6.]

Repeal—1965 c 8: See RCW 43.58.090.

43.58.030 Compact and treaty establishing boundary between Oregon and Washington. Upon completing such investigation it shall be the duty of said commission acting for and on behalf of the state of Washington, to make and enter into a compact and treaty with the state of Oregon, acting by and through such officer or commission as shall have power and authority so to act, fixing and establishing for the distance set forth in RCW 43.58.020 the boundary line between the states of Oregon and Washington by metes and bounds made with reference to permanent monuments fixed and established on the upland banks of the Columbia River. [1937 c 27 § 3; RRS § 10939-7.]

Repeal—1965 c 8: See RCW 43.58.090.

43.58.040 Compact and treaty establishing boundary between Oregon and Washington—Ratification by state legislatures and by congress. Upon the compact and treaty referred to in RCW 43.58.030 being approved and ratified by the legislatures of the states of Oregon and Washington, and by the congress of the United States, the boundary line as so fixed and established by said compact and treaty shall thereupon be and constitute the permanent and fixed boundary line between the said states of Oregon and Washington. [1937 c 27 § 4; RRS § 10939-8.]

Repeal—1965 c 8: See RCW 43.58.090.

43.58.080 Compact and treaty establishing boundary between Oregon and Washington—Commission abolished when Oregon and United States ratify and approve. Upon ratification by the state of Oregon and approval by the Congress of the United States of the compact set forth in RCW 43.58.060, the Washington-Oregon boundary commission shall be abolished and its authority and duties terminated. [1957 c 90 § 4.] Decodified.

Provided, That this section shall have no force and effect and shall become null and void unless the constitutional amendment proposed in Senate Joint Resolution No. 17 shall be approved and ratified by the electors at a general election held in November, 1967." [1967 ex.s. c 142 § 2.]

Project planning appropriations--1967 act: "For the purpose of providing funds for the payment of the cost of planning the capital improvements and capital projects of certain state institutions of higher education included in chapter 148, Laws of 1967, extraordinary session, (Senate Bill No. 532) pending the availability of funds therein appropriated for such purposes from the state building and higher education construction account or the availability of such funds from the state building authority, there is hereby appropriated to each of such institutions of higher education of the state of Washington the following designated amounts, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to accomplish such purpose:

For Washington State University, from the Washington State University Building Account, the sum of $364,000; for the University of Washington, from the University of Washington Building Account, the sum of $141,668; for Eastern Washington State College, from the Eastern Washington State College Capital Projects Account, the sum of $100,300; for Central Washington State College, from the Central Washington State College Capital Projects Account, the sum of $101,590; for Western Washington State College, from the Western Washington State College Capital Projects Account, the sum of $99,997.

Any expenditures from the above appropriations are to be considered as loans from the Washington State University Building Account, the University of Washington Building Account, the Eastern Washington State College Capital Projects Account, the Central Washington State College Capital Projects Account, and the Western Washington State College Capital Projects Account, respectively, and each of said accounts shall be reimbursed for such expenditures as follows:

(1) If the constitutional amendment specifically authorizing the establishment of a state building authority (SJR 17) pursuant to chapter 162, Laws of 1967 is approved and ratified by the electors at an election held in November, 1967, such reimbursements shall be made from any funds of the state building authority which may be available for such purpose;

(2) If the constitutional amendment specifically authorizing the establishment of a state building authority (SJR 17) pursuant to chapter 162, Laws of 1967, is not approved and ratified by the electors at an election held in November, 1967, or if the funds of the state building authority are not for any reason available for such purposes, then such reimbursements to such accounts shall be made from the state building and higher education construction account at such time as funds become available in such account for the appropriations made under said chapter 148, Laws of 1967 extraordinary session (Senate Bill No. 532)." [1967 ex.s. c 142 § 3.]

Senate Joint Resolution No. 17: "Be It Resolved By The Senate And House Of Representatives Of The State Of Washington In Legislative Session Assembled:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state, there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of this state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, a proposal to amend Article VIII of the Constitution of the state of Washington by adding thereto a new section to be designated section 8 which shall read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Article VIII, section 8. The legislature is empowered notwithstanding any other provision in this Constitution, to provide for a state building authority in corporate and politic form which may contract with agencies or departments of the state government to construct upon land owned by the state or its agencies, or to be acquired by the state building authority, buildings and appurtenant improvements which such state agencies or departments are hereby empowered to lease at reasonable rental rates from the Washington state building authority for terms up to seventy-five years with provisions for eventual vesting of title in the state or its agencies. This section shall not be construed as authority to provide buildings through lease or otherwise to nongovernmental entities. The legislature may authorize the state building authority to borrow funds solely upon its own credit and to issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness therefor to be repaid from its revenues and to secure the same by pledging its income or mortgaging its leaseholds. The provisions of sections 1 and 3 of this article shall not apply to indebtedness incurred pursuant to this section.

Be It Further Resolved, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."

Reviser's note: For provisions of 1967-1969 capital improvements bond issue enacted as chapter 148, Laws of 1967, extraordinary session, (Senate Bill No. 532) and referred to in above annotations, see RCW 43.83.090-43.83.104, as amended by chapter 187, Laws of 1969 extraordinary session.
