WAC 132N-121-010 Code of student conduct. (1) Clark College provides its community and students with education and services of the highest quality. We do this in a manner which exhibits concern and sensitivity to students, faculty, staff and others who utilize our services and facilities. It is essential that members of Clark College exhibit appropriate and conscientious behavior in dealing with others.

(2) Clark College expects all students to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with its high standards of scholarship and conduct. Student conduct, which distracts from or interferes with accomplishment of these purposes, is not acceptable. Students are expected to comply with these standards of conduct for students both on and off campus and acknowledge the college's authority to take disciplinary action.

(3) Admission to Clark College carries with it the presumption that students will conduct themselves as responsible members of the academic community. This includes an expectation that students will obey the law, comply with policies, procedures and rules of the college and its departments, maintain a high standard of integrity and honesty and respect the rights, privileges and property of other members of Clark College.

(4) It is assumed that students are and wish to be treated as adults. As such, students are responsible for their conduct. These standards of conduct for students promote Clark College's educational purposes and provide students a full understanding of their rights and responsibilities. Sanctions for violations of the standards of conduct for students will be administered under this chapter. When violations of laws of the state of Washington and/or the United States are also involved, the college may refer such matters to proper authorities and in the case of minors, this conduct may be referred to parents or legal guardians.

More than one sanction may be imposed for any one violation.

There shall be no appeal from a warning.

(2) Reprimand. Formal action censuring a student for violating the student code of conduct. Reprimands shall be made in writing to the student by the student conduct officer. A reprimand indicates to the student that continuing or repeating the specific conduct involved or other misconduct will result in more serious disciplinary action. There shall be no appeal from a reprimand.

(3) Disciplinary probation. Formal action placing conditions upon the student's continued attendance. Notice shall be in writing and shall specify the period of probation and the conditions, such as limiting the student's participation in extracurricular activities. Probation may be for a specific term or may extend to graduation or other termination of the student's enrollment in the college. Refund of tuition or fees for the quarter in which disciplinary action is taken shall be in accordance with the college's refund policy.

(6) Expulsion. Permanent termination of a student's status. Notice must be given in writing. The student may also be barred from college premises. There shall be no refund of tuition or fees for the quarter in which the action is taken but fees paid in advance for a subsequent quarter will be refunded.

(7) Restitution. Requirement of a student to compensate for damage or loss to college or other property, or perform a public service activity. Failure to make restitution within the time limits established by the student conduct officer will result in suspension for an indefinite period of time. (8) Education. The college may require the student to complete an educational requirement directly related to the violation committed, at the student's expense.

(9) Revocation of admission or degree. Admission to or a degree awarded from the college may be revoked for fraud, misrepresentation, or other violation of standards of conduct for students in obtaining the degree, or for other serious violations committed by a student prior to graduation.

(17) If a student's behavior is found to have been motivated by another's race, color, religion, creed, national origin, sexual orientation, mental, physical, sensory disability, age, sex, gender identity, gender expression, political affiliation, disabled veteran status, marital status, honorably discharged veteran or Vietnam-era veteran status, such finding is considered an aggravating factor in determining a sanction for such conduct.

(18) Violation of any term or condition of any disciplinary sanction constitutes a new violation and may subject the student to additional sanctions.

(19) A disciplinary sanction, except a warning, shall be imposed through written notice either personally delivered or sent to the student's last known address of record by regular mail or certified mail. Each notice of disciplinary action shall state:

- (a) A reasonable description of the facts on which the action is based;
- (b) The provision(s) of the student conduct code found to have been violated;
- (c) The sanction(s) imposed; and

If the student conduct officer determines the complaint has merit, the student conduct officer shall initiate disciplinary proceedings. The student may be placed on suspension pending commencement of disciplinary action, pursuant to the conditions set forth in WAC 132N-121-150.

(2) A student accused of violating the code of student conduct shall be notified of an initial disciplinary proceeding and the opportunity to meet with the student conduct officer to resolve the case without a formal hearing. The student shall be provided with written notice including the specific complaint, the policy, procedure, or section of the code of student conduct allegedly violated, and the range of possible sanctions which might result from disciplinary proceedings. The student will be given seven days to respond. If the student fails to respond or fails to appear, the initial disciplinary hearing may be held in the student's absence and shall not preclude the student conduct officer from making a decision and imposing or recommending sanctions.

(3) After considering the evidence in the case, and interviewing the student, if the student has appeared at the scheduled meeting, and reviewing the case with any new information, the student conduct officer may take any of the following actions:

- (a) Terminate the proceedings and exonerate the student;
- (b) Dismiss the case after whatever intervention and advice is deemed appropriate;

(3) Appeals conducted as a brief adjudicative proceeding.

(a) Where an adjudicative proceeding is neither required by law nor requested by the student or the college, the matter may be resolved informally in a brief adjudicative proceeding conducted in accordance with RCW 34.05.485. Brief adjudicative proceedings shall be conducted in any manner which will bring about a prompt, fair resolution of the matter. The chair of the committee on student conduct shall serve as the sole presiding officer of the brief adjudicative proceeding. The presiding officer shall give each party an opportunity to be informed of the college's view on the matter and the student's view of the matter. No witnesses may appear to testify. Within ten days of the brief adjudicative proceeding, the chair shall render a written decision which will include a brief statement of the reasons for the decision. This shall be an initial order. If no further administrative review is requested, the initial order shall become the final order.

(b) Within twenty-one days after the initial order has either been personally delivered or sent to the student's last known address of record by regular mail or certified mail, he or she may petition for administrative review by the vice-president of student affairs or designee. A copy of the petition must be served on all parties or their representatives at the time the petition is filed. The reviewing officer may be the vice-president or an administrator who has not been involved in the action. The review shall be governed by RCW 34.05-491. The decision of the vice-president of student affairs or designee is final and no further administrative review is available.

(4) Appeals conducted as adjudicative proceedings by committee on student conduct. In all cases where the student is appealing suspension or expulsion from the college, the student shall be entitled to an adjudicative proceeding under WAC 132N-121-110 if he or she files a proper written application for such a proceeding. The vice-president of student affairs shall be responsible for convening the committee on student conduct, setting the time and place of the hearing, and providing notice of the hearing as prescribed in RCW 34.05.434.

(5) A decision of the committee on student conduct or a sanction imposed by the student conduct officer may be appealed in writing to the president within ten days following receipt of the committee decision.

(a) Except as required to explain the basis of new information, an appeal to the president is limited to a review of the verbatim record of the committee hearing and supporting documents for one or more of the following purposes:

(i) To determine whether the committee on student conduct hearing was conducted fairly in light of the charges, and whether information was presented in conformity with prescribed procedures giving the accused student a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present a response to the allegations. Deviations from designated procedures are not a basis for sustaining an appeal unless significant prejudice is evident.

(ii) To determine whether the decision is supported by the evidence.

(iii) To determine whether the sanctions imposed are appropriate for the violation which the student was found to have committed.

(iv) To consider new information, sufficient to alter a decision, or other relevant facts not disclosed in the original hearing because such information and/or facts were not known to the student appealing at the time of the committee on student conduct hearing.

(b) The president shall review the record within fifteen days of the notice of appeal and make one of the following determinations:

(i) Affirm the decision and uphold the sanctions; or

(ii) Reverse the decision; or

(iii) Affirm the decision and modify the sanctions imposed.

(c) The president shall provide a written conclusion to all parties within twenty days after completion of his or her review.

(d) If the appeal is upheld, the matter shall be returned to the committee on student conduct to reopen the hearing to reconsider of the original determination and/or sanctions.

(e) If the appeal is not upheld, the president's decision shall be final.

WAC 132N-121-100 Committee on student conduct.

(1) The committee on student conduct consists of five members. The committee shall provide a fair and impartial hearing and will make decisions on all disciplinary decisions appealed to it. The committee shall include:

(a) Two full-time students and two alternates appointed by the ASCC of Clark College vice-president of elections and appointments (one-year appointments);

(b) Two faculty members and two alternates appointed by the president or designee (two-year appointments, staggered terms);

(c) One member of the administration, but not the vice-president of student affairs, and one alternate appointed by the president of the college (two-year appointment).

(2) Appointments to the committee will be made no later than November 1 of each academic year. Vacancies on the committee shall be filled as they arise.

(3) Hearings may be heard by a quorum of three members of the committee so long as a faculty member and one student are included on the hearing panel. If the case involves academic dishonesty, at least two of the individuals hearing the case must be members of the faculty. The vice-president of student affairs shall appoint the chair and that person will continue in office until he or she resigns or is recalled by the vice-president of student affairs. The vice-president for student affairs may appoint a special presiding officer to the committee on student conduct in complex cases or in any case in which the student is represented by legal counsel. Special presiding officers may participate in committee deliberations but shall not vote.

(4) Members of the committee on student conduct shall not participate in any case in which they are a defendant, complainant, or witness, in which they have direct or personal interest, prejudice, or bias, or in which they have acted previously in an advisory capacity. Any party may petition for disqualification of a committee member pursuant to RCW 34.05.425(4).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(3), 10-06-003, § 132N-121-100, filed 2/17/10, effective 3/20/10.]

WAC 132N-121-110 Hearing procedures before the committee on student conduct.

(1) An appeal before the committee on student conduct will be conducted as an adjudicative proceeding in accordance with RCW 34.05.413 through 34.05.476. The committee on student conduct shall commence the hearing within fifteen days after the written request has been received. The office of the vice-president of student affairs will notify the parties of the time and place of the hearing. The time limit for scheduling the hearing may be extended at the discretion of the vice-president of student affairs.

(2) The presiding officer shall be the chair of the committee on student conduct. The presiding officer is responsible for:

(a) Regulating the course of the hearing in accordance with RCW 34.05.449 and applicable college rules;

(b) Taking whatever steps are necessary during the hearing to ensure that the process is conducted in a respectful and orderly manner; and

(c) Issuing and signing the written decision(s) of the committee.

(3) The presiding officer is authorized to conduct prehearing conferences and/or to make prehearing decisions concerning the extent and forms of any discovery, the possibility of obtaining stipulations, admissions, settlement, and other procedural matters.

(4) All procedural questions are subject to the final decision of the presiding officer. If a challenge arises concerning the application of any rule or policy, the hearing will continue and the challenge may be submitted by the chair in writing to the vice-president of student affairs, who will seek legal advice from an assistant attorney general.

(5) The student has a right to a fair and impartial hearing. However, the student's failure to answer the charges, appear at the hearing or cooperate in the hearing shall not preclude the committee on student conduct from making its findings of facts, conclusions, and recommendations. This shall not limit the possibility of a default pursuant to RCW 34.05.440.

(6) Hearings shall be closed in accordance with FERPA, 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1232g, unless the student waives this requirement in writing and requests to have the hearing open to the public. However, if education records or information from education records will be disclosed at the hearing, or more than one student is involved, the hearing will remain closed unless all students have consented to open the hearing. In hearings involving more than one accused student, the presiding officer may permit joint or separate hearings. If at any time during the hearing, a visitor disrupts the proceedings, the presiding officer may exclude that person from the hearing.

(7) The complainant, the student, and their respective advisors may attend those portions of the appeal hearing at which information is received, but may not attend the committee's deliberations. Admission of any other person to the hearing is at the discretion of the presiding officer.

(8) The student and complainant are entitled to be assisted by an advisor of their choosing, at their own expense. The complainant and student are responsible for presenting their own information, therefore, an advisor is not permitted to address the committee or participate directly in the hearing. An advisor may communicate only with the person they are advising. A student should select as an advisor a person whose schedule allows attendance at the scheduled date and time for the hearing. Delays or continuances will not be allowed due to the scheduling conflicts of an advisor. If the student is the subject of a pending subsequent criminal matter arising out of the same circumstances, the student may be allowed to have an attorney serve as their advisor, at the student's own expense, to behave in the same manner as any other advisor.

(9) Formal rules of process, procedure, and/or technical rules of evidence such as are applied in criminal or civil cases, will not apply in student conduct proceedings.

(10)(a) The student is entitled to present evidence in his or her behalf and to cross-examine witnesses testifying on behalf of the college. The student is responsible for informing his or her witnesses of the time and place of the hearing.

(b) Direct examination, cross-examination, and rebuttal may be limited to the extent necessary for the full disclosure of all relevant facts and issues.

(c) The committee may receive sworn written testimony in lieu of oral testimony at the hearing.

(d) If not inconsistent with this subsection, the presiding officer may refer to the Washington Rules of Evidence as guidelines for evidentiary rulings in accordance with RCW 34.05.452.

(e) In determining the appropriate sanction that should be recommended, evidence of past misconduct that the presiding officer deems relevant may be considered.

(11) Members of the committee on student conduct must avoid ex parte (one-sided) communications with any party involved in the hearing regarding any issue other than communications necessary to maintain an orderly procedural flow to the hearing.

(12) There will be a single verbatim record, such as a tape recording or transcript, of the information gathering portion of the hearing. Deliberations shall not be recorded. The record shall be the property of the college.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(3). 10-06-003, § 132N-121-110, filed 2/17/10, effective 3/20/10.]

WAC 132N-121-112 Decision by the committee on student conduct and notification. (1) At the conclusion of the hearing and deliberations, the committee on student conduct shall meet in closed session to consider all evidence presented and decide by majority vote whether the student has violated the code of student conduct, and if so, the committee determines and imposes the appropriate sanctions from WAC 132N-121-070.

(2) The burden of proof that guides the committee's decision is the preponderance of evidence, whether it is more likely than not that the student violated the code of student conduct.

(3) The committee's written decision shall include findings of fact and conclusions which inform the parties of the basis for the decision. The decision should also include information about the appeal process.

(4) The presiding officer notifies the student in writing, in person, by mail or electronic mail of the committee's decision. Notice is sent within ten days after the hearing is concluded. If the college is not in session, this period may be reasonably extended.

(5) The written decision of the committee shall become the final order, without further action, unless within ten days following receipt of the decision, the student files a written appeal with the college president.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(3). 10-06-003, § 132N-121-112, filed 2/17/10, effective 3/20/10.]

(2) The office of the vice-president of student affairs shall maintain records of student grievance and disciplinary proceedings for at least six years.

(3) The disciplinary record is confidential.

(4) Students may request a copy of their own disciplinary record at their own reasonable expense by making a written request to the vice-president of student affairs. Personally identifiable student information is redacted to protect another student's privacy.

(5) Students may authorize release of their own disciplinary record to a third party in compliance with FERPA, 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1232g, by making a written request to the vice-president of student affairs.

(6) The college may inform the complainant of the outcome of any disciplinary proceeding involving a crime of violence or nonforcible sex offense, as permitted by FERPA, 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1232g; 34 C.F.R. Part 99.

(7) The college may not communicate a student's disciplinary record to any person or agency outside the college without the prior written consent of the student, except as required or permitted by law. Exceptions include, but are not limited to:

(a) The student's parents or legal guardians may review these records if the student is a minor or a dependent, if the student is a minor and disciplinary action involves the use or possession of alcohol or controlled substance, or in connection with a health or safety emergency regardless if the student is a dependent or a minor, as permitted by FERPA, 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1232g; 34 C.F.R. Part 99.

(b) To another educational institution, upon request, where the student seeks to, intends to, or has enrolled.

(c) Information concerning registered sex offenders.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(3). 10-06-003, § 132N-121-120, filed 2/17/10, effective 3/20/10.]

WAC 132N-121-150 Summary suspension proceedings. (1) Summary suspension is a temporary exclusion from specified college premises or denial of access to all activities or privileges for which the student might otherwise be eligible, during which an investigation and/or formal disciplinary procedures are pending.

(2) The student conduct officer or designee may impose a summary suspension:

(a) In situations involving an immediate danger to the health, safety, or welfare of any part of the college community or the public at large;

(b) To ensure the student's own physical safety and well-being; or

(c) If the student poses an ongoing threat of disruption to, or interference with, the operations of the college and the student's conduct prevents other students, employees, or members of the college community from completing their duties as employees or students.

(3) The student conduct officer or designee shall give the student oral or written notice of the reasons for the summary suspension, and of any possible additional disciplinary or corrective actions that may be taken. If oral notice is given, a written notification shall be personally served on the student, or sent to the student's last known address of record by regular or certified mail within two working days.

(4) The notification shall be entitled "notice of summary suspension proceedings" and shall include:

(a) The charges against the student including reference to the provisions of the student conduct code or the law allegedly violated;

(b) The date, time, and location that the student must appear before the student conduct officer for a hearing on the summary suspension; and

(c) A notice against trespass that warns the student that his or her privilege to enter into or remain on college premises has been withdrawn, that the student shall be considered trespassing and subject to arrest for criminal trespass, if the student enters the college campus other than to meet with the student conduct officer or designee, or to attend the hearing.

(5) The hearing on the summary suspension shall be held as soon as practicable after the summary suspension. The hearing may be combined with an initial disciplinary proceeding in accordance with WAC 132N-121-080.

(6) The summary suspension does not replace the regular process, which shall proceed on the schedule described in this chapter, up to and through a hearing before the committee on student conduct, if required.

(7) The student conduct officer or designee shall determine whether there is probable cause to believe that summary suspension is necessary and/or whether some other disciplinary action is appropriate.

(8) The student shall have the opportunity to explain why summary suspension is not necessary either through oral testimony or written statement. If the notice to appear for a summary suspension hearing has been personally delivered to the student or sent to the student's last known address of record by regular mail, certified mail and the student fails to appear at the time designated, the student conduct officer or designee may enforce the suspension, and shall send written notice of summary suspension to the student at the last known address of record on file.

(9) The student conduct officer or designee may continue the summary suspension and may impose any other disciplinary action that is appropriate, if he or she finds that there is probable cause to believe that:

(a) The student has committed one or more violations of the student conduct code;

(b) Such violation(s) constitute grounds for disciplinary action; and

(c) Summary suspension is necessary.

(10) Notice of suspension.

(a) If summary suspension is upheld and/or if the student is otherwise disciplined, the student will be provided with a written copy of the student conduct officer or designee's findings of fact and conclusions that support the decision that summary suspension of the student should continue.

(b) The student suspended pursuant to the authority of this rule shall receive a copy of the "notice of suspension" either personally or sent to the student's last known address of record by regular mail, certified mail, within three days following the conclusion of the hearing with the student conduct officer or designee.

(c) The "notice of suspension" shall inform the student of the duration of the summary suspension or nature of the disciplinary action(s), conditions under which the summary suspension may be terminated or modified, and procedures by which the validity of the summary suspension can be appealed.

(11) The student conduct officer or designee shall provide copies of the notice of suspension to all persons or offices that may be bound by it.

Any student aggrieved by an order issued at the summary suspension proceeding may appeal by filing a written request with the chair of the committee on student conduct within ten days from the date on which the student was notified of the decision. However, no such appeal shall be entertained, unless:

(1) The student has first appeared through oral testimony or by a written statement at the student hearing in accordance with WAC 132N-121-150; and

(2) The appeal conforms to the standards set forth in WAC 132N-121-090.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(3). 10-06-003, § 132N-121-151, filed 2/17/10, effective 3/20/10.]

(2) Bringing any person, thing, or object to a teaching and learning environment that may disrupt the environment or cause a safety or health hazard, without the express approval of the faculty member is expressly prohibited.

(3) Faculty members or college administrators have the right to suspend any student from any single class or related activity for no more than one instructional day, if the student's misconduct creates disruption to the point that it is difficult or impossible to maintain the decorum of the class, related activity or the learning and teaching environment. The faculty member or college administrator shall report this suspension to the vice-president of student affairs or designee who, in consultation with the faculty member, may set conditions for the student upon return to the class or activity.
