Chapter 137-65 WAC

COST OF SUPERVISION—SUPERVISION INTAKE FEE

WAC 137-65-010 Purpose. The purpose of this regulation is to provide administrative rules and standards pursuant to chapters 9.94A, 9.95, and 72.04A RCW. Those chapters require a supervision intake fee to be assessed on offenders supervised by the department of corrections.

Reviser’s note: Under RCW 34.05.030 (1)(c), as amended by section 103, chapter 288, Laws of 1988, the above section was not adopted under the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW, but was published in the Washington State Register and codified into the Washington Administrative Code exactly as shown by the agency filing with history notes added by the code reviser’s office.

WAC 137-65-020 Scope. This regulation shall apply to the following individuals:

(1) Every person convicted of a felony in the state of Washington and placed on parole effective July 1, 1982, when such convicted person is required by the indeterminate sentence review board or the department of corrections to pay a supervision intake fee to the state;

(2) Every person determined to be eligible for supervision by the department of corrections who is transferred to Washington state under the interstate compact.

(3) Every person sentenced in Washington state for a felony, gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor, who is determined to be eligible for supervision by the department.

WAC 137-65-030 Fee. The following fees may be assessed by the indeterminate sentence review board or the department of corrections for individuals on supervision or paroles on active status:

(1) For Washington state sentenced individuals or interstate compact transferred individuals whose offense date was before October 1, 2011, the monthly cost of supervision rate shall be converted to a one-time fee. The amount due shall be based upon the most recent monthly fee amount times the number of months of supervision left to serve, not to exceed six hundred dollars. The amount or dates payments are due for any balances owed by an offender for the cost of supervision prior to October 1, 2011, remain in effect.

(2) For Washington state sentenced individuals or interstate compact transferred individuals whose offense date was on or after October 1, 2011, the department of corrections shall assess a four hundred seventy-five dollar supervision intake fee for each judgment and sentence imposed by the court in which supervision by the department of corrections is required.

Reviser’s note: Under RCW 34.05.030 (1)(c), as amended by section 103, chapter 288, Laws of 1988, the above section was not adopted under the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW, but was published in the Washington State Register and codified into the Washington Administrative Code exactly as shown by the agency filing with history notes added by the code reviser’s office.

WAC 137-65-050 Instructions. When ordered by the department of corrections to pay the supervision intake fee, the subject offender will receive written instructions specifying terms of payment.

Reviser’s note: Under RCW 34.05.030 (1)(c), as amended by section 103, chapter 288, Laws of 1988, the above section was not adopted under the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW, but was published in the Washington State Register and codified into the Washington Administrative Code exactly as shown by the agency filing with history notes added by the code reviser’s office.
