This prohibition applies to all functions open to the public, such as entertainment, dances, and athletic events, and also applies to all entrances, hallways, corridors, lounges, and reception areas of the residence living units and to all academic buildings.

(2) The university shall not deem the general prohibition of this section applicable to the consumption of liquor on public places designated in any special banquet permit issued to an event sponsor by the state liquor control board: Provided, That prior written approval of the event sponsor's application for the permit has been given by the university. (3) Due to the physical conditions in residence halls and other student housing, the possession and consumption of alcohol in the privacy of the room and other housing shall not infringe on the privacy and peace of other individuals. Any infringement on the privacy and peace of an individual inhabitant of the residence hall or other student housing shall, regardless of the age of the offending individual, be considered a violation of university regulations and therefore subject to disciplinary action under the Eastern Washington University student conduct code.

(4) Keggers, cocktail parties, or similar functions are not permitted and any student or students who host such a function will be subject to disciplinary action under the Eastern Washington University student conduct code. Any student who infringes on the privacy and peace of other individuals while attending such a function will also be subject to disciplinary action.
