WAC 304-12-030 Library council of Washington created—Appointments—Terms—Expenses. The library council of Washington shall consist of thirteen members appointed by the commission. Members shall serve without compensation, but will be reimbursed for subsistence, lodging, and travel expenses for council meetings and approved business of the council, in accordance with the provisions of the Washington state travel regulations.

WAC 304-12-045 Washington state advisory council on libraries—Duties. The council shall act as an advisory body to the Washington state library commission and staff on the development and execution of the federally-funded program of library service.

WAC 304-12-047 Library council of Washington—Mission—Roles. The mission of the library council of Washington is to promote access to library service and information resources for all people in Washington state. To meet this commitment, the council's membership represents the broadest possible range of library community interests. The roles of the council shall include:

1. Serve as a catalyst for developing and implementing statewide library programs that will improve service at all Washington libraries;
2. Provide a forum for the library community to discuss issues of concern, with individual members keeping their constituents abreast of the council's progress and regularly requesting their input;
3. Advise the Washington state library commission and state library staff on statewide areas of need in library service;
4. Encourage and support multipurpose cooperation throughout the state;
5. Assist in the development, implementation and evaluation of statewide library development plans and long-range library services and technology act (LSTA) plans;
6. Advise the Washington state library commission on the use of federal funds;
7. Pursue opportunities for collaboration with other agencies and community partners that share similar interests with libraries.

WAC 304-12-125 General statement of criteria. (1) In a free and open society the mission of libraries is to be aware of individuals' need for knowledge and personal growth and to respond to those needs by providing access to the wisdom, experience and imagination of mankind.

(2) The state agency's criteria for determining the adequacy of library service to the public are:

(a) That ninety percent of the requests by library users for specific titles is available through their library in a manner that is satisfactory to the users.
(b) That ninety percent of the requests by library users for works by a particular author or creator is available through their library in a manner that is satisfactory to the users.
(c) That ninety percent of the requests by library users for materials on a specific subject is available through their library in a manner that is satisfactory to the users.
(d) That ninety percent of the requests by library users for information is answered through their library in a manner that is satisfactory to the users.
(e) That ninety percent of the people in a library's service area is aware of the kinds of services provided by their library.
(f) That the percentage of use by each demographic group as defined in the Library Services and Construction
Act regulations is the same, +/- fifteen percent, based on the highest percentage of use.

The determination of adequacy is made by comparing these criteria with annual reports which by law must be submitted to the state agency by each public library.
