WAC 357-34-055 Are employees appointed to a supervisory or management position required to complete any special supervisory or managerial training? Employees appointed to a permanent supervisory or management position must successfully complete entry-level supervisory or managerial training. (See WAC 357-34-075 for exceptions to this requirement.)

WAC 357-34-060 What administrative requirements must be met for the employee to satisfy the training required by WAC 357-34-055? For an employee to satisfy the entry-level supervisory or managerial training required by WAC 357-34-055, all of the following requirements must be met:

1. The training program must include at least twenty-four hours of instruction.
2. The training must have occurred in the last five years.
3. The program must be sponsored by a state agency, post-secondary educational institution, vocational school, or professional organization.

WAC 357-34-065 What must be included in the required supervisory or managerial training? (1) At a minimum, the entry-level supervisory or managerial training required by WAC 357-34-055 must include all of the following topics:

(a) The role and legal responsibilities of a supervisor/manager.
(b) Performance management, including employee performance evaluation, development, counseling or coaching, and discipline.
(c) Compensation practices.
(d) Recruitment and selection processes and practices.
(e) Labor relations practices and processes.

2. In addition, supervisors and managers may also receive training on other topics identified by the employer.

Employees appointed to a permanent supervisory or management position must be enrolled in the required training within six months of the date of their appointment, or if a program is not available, as soon as possible after it becomes available. When training opportunities are available, the employer may suspend the entry-level training requirement for up to a maximum of an additional six months in cases where the ability of the employer to perform its responsibilities would be adversely affected by the absence of the employee from the work site.

WAC 357-34-075 Under what circumstances may the employer waive the requirement for an employee to complete supervisory or managerial training? The employer may waive the requirement for entry-level supervisory or managerial training in cases where:

1. The employee has at least one year of experience in a supervisory or management position at some point prior to the present appointment and has demonstrated experience and competence as a substitute for training; or
2. The employee can demonstrate that before this appointment the employee completed training that satisfies the requirements of WAC 357-34-060 and 357-34-065.

WAC 357-34-085 Who is responsible for designating positions as supervisor or management positions for the purpose of identifying which positions are covered by the training requirement? The department of enterprise services provides training activities to fulfill the requirement in WAC 357-34-055 and/or consultative services, as requested, to assist employers in development of their own programs.
