(1) Instructional skill. The certificated classroom teacher demonstrates, in his or her performance, a competent level of knowledge and skill in designing and conducting an instructional experience.

(2) Classroom management. The certificated classroom teacher demonstrates, in his or her performance, a competent level of knowledge and skill in organizing the physical and human elements in the educational setting.

(3) Professional preparation and scholarship. The certificated classroom teacher exhibits, in his or her performance, evidence of having a theoretical background and knowledge of the principles and methods of teaching, and a commitment to education as a profession.

(4) Effort toward improvement when needed. The certificated classroom teacher demonstrates awareness of his or her limitations and strengths, and demonstrates continued professional growth.

(5) The handling of student discipline and attendant problems. The certificated classroom teacher demonstrates the ability to manage the noninstructional, human dynamics in the educational setting.

(6) Interest in teaching pupils. The certificated classroom teacher demonstrates an understanding of and commitment to each pupil, taking into account each individual's unique background and characteristics. The certificated classroom teacher demonstrates enthusiasm for or enjoyment in working with pupils.

(7) Knowledge of subject matter. The teacher demonstrates a depth and breadth of knowledge of theory and content in general education and subject matter specialization(s) appropriate to the elementary and/or secondary level(s).

WAC 392-191-020 Minimum evaluation criteria—Certificated support personnel. The following are the minimum criteria for certificated support personnel:

(1) Knowledge and scholarship in special field. Each certificated support person demonstrates a depth and breadth of knowledge of theory and content in the special field. He/she demonstrates an understanding of and knowledge about common school education and the educational milieu grades K-12, and demonstrates the ability to integrate the area of specialty into the total school milieu.

(2) Specialized skills. Each certificated support person demonstrates in his/her performance a competent level of skill and knowledge in designing and conducting specialized programs of prevention, instruction, remediation and evaluation.

(3) Management of special and technical environment. Each certificated support person demonstrates an acceptable level of performance in managing and organizing the special materials, equipment and environment essential to the specialized programs.

(4) The support person as a professional. Each certificated support person demonstrates awareness of his/her limitations and strengths and demonstrates continued professional growth.

(5) Involvement in assisting pupils, parents, and educational personnel. Each certificated support person demonstrates an acceptable level of performance in offering specialized assistance in identifying those needing specialized programs.

WAC 392-191-025 Minimum procedural standards—Purposes of evaluation. The purposes of evaluation of certificated classroom teachers and certificated support personnel shall be, at a minimum:

(1) To identify in consultation with classroom teachers and certificated support personnel observed, particular areas in which their professional performance is satisfactory or outstanding, and particular areas in which the classroom teacher or support person needs to improve his or her performance.

(2) To assist classroom teachers and certificated support personnel, who have identified areas needing improvement, in making those improvements.

(3) To identify classroom teachers or certificated support personnel whose professional performance is unsatisfactory and for whom remediation is needed.

WAC 392-191-030 Minimum procedural standards—Frequency of evaluation. Each school year the frequency of evaluation shall be:

(1) All classroom teachers and certificated support personnel shall be observed for the purposes of evaluation at least twice in the performance of their assigned duties.

(2) At least one observation shall be a minimum of thirty minutes.

(3) New employees shall be observed at least once for a total observation time of thirty minutes during the first ninety calendar days of their employment period.

(4) Total observation time for each employee for each school year shall be not less that sixty minutes: Provided, That after an employee has four years of satisfactory evaluations, a school district may use a short form of evaluation pursuant to RCW 28A.405.100(5).

WAC 392-191-035 Minimum procedural standards—Conduct of the evaluation. The conduct of the evaluation of classroom teachers and certificated support personnel shall include, at a minimum, the following:

(1) Observation and written comment pursuant to RCW 28A.405.100 by the principal or his/her designee at the school to which the certificated employee is assigned.

(2) The opportunity for the employee to attach written comments to his/her evaluation report.

(3) For certificated classroom teachers, the minimum criteria set forth in WAC 392-191-010; and for certificated support personnel the minimum criteria set forth in WAC 392-191-020. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit a local school district from developing an evaluation instrument which contains criteria in excess of those established by the superintendent of public instruction.

(4) When appropriate, suggestions for improvement should be part of the principal's or his/her designee's comments.

WAC 392-191-040 Minimum procedural standards—Procedures to be used in making evaluations. The following procedures shall be used in making evaluations:

1. The procedures stipulated in RCW 28A.405.100 shall be used by principals or their designees conducting evaluations of certificated classroom teachers and certificated support personnel.

2. Following each observation, or series of observations, the principal or his/her designee shall promptly document the results of the evaluation in writing, and shall provide the employee with a copy thereof within three days after such report is prepared.

3. Each classroom teacher and each certificated support person shall have the opportunity for a minimum of two confidential conferences during each school year with his/her principal or principal's designee either following receipt of the written evaluation results, or at a time mutually satisfactory to the participants. The sole purpose of each such conference shall be to provide additional information to aid the principal or his or her designee in evaluating the teacher or certificated support person (e.g., providing direction, assistance, guidance, encouragement to the employee).

4. If other evaluators are used, additional procedures may be adopted pursuant to local policy.

WAC 392-191-045 Minimum procedural standards—Use of evaluation results. Evaluation results shall be used:

1. To acknowledge, recognize, and encourage excellence in professional performance.

2. To document the satisfactory performance by an employee of his/her assigned duties.

3. To identify discrete areas according to the criteria included on the evaluation instrument in which the employee may need improvement.

4. To document performance by an employee judged unsatisfactory based on the district evaluation criteria.
