WAC 296-900-110 Variances.
Summary:
Employer responsibility:
To follow requirements on granted variances:
Applying for a variance WAC 296-900-11005.
Interim orders WAC 296-900-11010.
Renewing a temporary variance WAC 296-900-11015.
Changing a variance WAC 296-900-11020.
Variance hearings WAC 296-900-11025.

WAC 296-900-11005 Applying for a variance.
IMPORTANT:
- A variance provides an approved alternative to WISHA requirements to protect employees from a workplace hazard. Variances can be permanent or temporary.
- Variances will not be retroactive. Employers are obligated to follow WISHA requirements until the variance is granted.

You must:
- Follow steps 1-5 to apply for a variance when you wish to use an alternative to WISHA requirements as a means to protect your employees.

Step 1: Decide what type of variance is needed by reviewing the types of variances in Table 1, Requesting a Variance.

Step 2: Complete a written application for the variance, following the requirements in Table 1, Requesting a Variance.

Note:
- A form, Variance Application (F414-021-000), is available for requesting variances:
  - From any L&I office.

Reference:
- For a list of the local L&I offices, see the resources section of the Safety and health core rules, chapter 296-800 WAC.
Step 3: Notify employees before submitting any type of variance request by doing all of the following:
• Posting a copy of the request on your safety bulletin board.
• Using other appropriate means for notifying employees who may not be expected to receive notices posted on the safety bulletin board. For example, provide a copy to a designated representative or the safety committee.

Step 4: Submit the written request, using one of the following means:
• Mail to:
Assistant Director
WISHA Services
P.O. Box 44650
Olympia, WA 98504-4650
• Fax to: 360-902-5438
• Take to any L&I office.

Step 5: After receiving a written decision from WISHA about your request, immediately notify affected employees of the decision by using the methods in Step 3.

You must:
• Follow the specific requirements of the variance that WISHA has granted.

Note:
• If employers fail to follow Steps 1-5 above, the variance cannot be granted.
• Citations may be issued for failing to follow a variance.
• Employers can always follow the original WISHA requirements instead of the variance requirements.
• If your variance is no longer necessary and you decide to follow the WISHA requirements instead, please advise WISHA in writing.

Requesting a Variance

</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• Employer or employer representative signature</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• Work locations and situations that apply to the variance</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• Which specific requirements you want to vary from, with WAC numbers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• Description of proposed alternative methods of protection, and how they will protect employees.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Temporary variance</td>
<td>• Provide all the information required above for permanent variances</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• When WISHA requirements will be met</td>

</tbody>
</table>

For this type of variance: A permanent variance remains in effect unless WISHA modifies or revokes it. Examples of reasons a variance might be revoked include:
• An employer requests the variance be revoked
• Requirements that existed when the variance was approved are modified
• The work location is changed

Note:
• How employees will be notified:
  - About the variance request, as required in Step 2
  - That they may request a hearing
• The following notice on the first page of your posted application, written in large and clear enough print to be easily read:
  "Attention Employees: Your employer is applying to WISHA for a variance from safety and health requirements. You have a right to ask WISHA for a hearing on the variance request, but you must ask for the hearing in writing by (date*). If no hearing is requested, WISHA will act on the variance request without a hearing."

*This date must be 21 calendar days after the variance request is mailed or delivered.
For this type of variance:
- You have an effective plan for meeting WISHA requirements as soon as possible.

Note:
- Temporary variances remain in effect:
- Until current WISHA requirements are met
- No longer than one year, unless extended

Include the following on your written application:
- A statement that this request is from a qualified person who has first hand knowledge of the facts represented

What to expect from WISHA:
- A review of all variance requests.
- If more information is needed to make a decision, WISHA may:
  ■ Contact you or others who may have the needed information.
  ■ Visit your workplace after contacting you to make arrangements.
  ■ Deny your request if you don't provide information needed to make a decision on it.
- A decision at least twenty-one calendar days from when the request was posted for employees.
- The twenty-one-day period allows employees time to request a hearing on your variance application. See Variance hearings, WAC 296-900-11025.
- A written decision either granting or denying the variance.
- If granted, the written decision will include all of the following:
  ■ The requirement for which the variance applies.
  ■ The locations where the variance applies.
  ■ What you must do as an alternative means of protecting employees.
  ■ The effective date of the variance.
  ■ An expiration date for the variance, if applicable.
  ■ The requirement to post the decision.
- If denied, the written decision will include:
  ■ A brief statement with reasons for the denial.
  ■ The requirement to post the decision.
  ■ WISHA will review permanent variances periodically after they have been in effect for six months, to decide whether they are still needed or need to be changed.

Note: If there's an appealed WISHA citation and notice that relates to the variance request, the decision on the variance may be delayed until the appeal is resolved.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 49.17.010, 49.17.040, 49.17.050, 49.17.060. WSR 06-06-020, § 296-900-11005, filed 2/21/06, effective 6/1/06.]

WAC 296-900-11010 Interim orders.

Definition:
An interim order allows an employer to vary from WISHA requirements until a permanent or temporary variance is granted.

You must:
- Request an interim order if alternate methods of protecting employees are needed while waiting for a permanent or temporary variance.

Note: An interim order may be requested at the same time a permanent or temporary variance is requested, or anytime after that.

What to expect from WISHA:
- A review of the request for an interim order.
- If more information is needed to make a decision, WISHA may:
  ■ Contact the employer or others who may have the needed information.
  ■ Visit the workplace after contacting the employer to make arrangements.
  ■ Deny the request if the employer doesn't provide information needed to make a decision.
- A decision at least twenty-one calendar days from when the request was posted for employees.
- The twenty-one-day period allows employees time to request a hearing on your temporary variance renewal. See Variance hearings, WAC 296-900-11025.
  ■ A written decision either granting or denying the interim order request.
  - If granted, the decision will include all of the following:
    ■ The requirement for which the interim order applies.
    ■ The locations where the interim order applies.
    ■ What you must do as an alternative means of protecting employees.
    ■ The effective date of the interim order.
    ■ An expiration date for the interim order.
    ■ The requirement to post the decision.
  - If denied, the decision will include:
    ■ A brief statement with reasons for the denial.
    ■ The requirement to post the decision.

Note: WISHA’s decision to grant or deny an interim order request will not affect the decision on a permanent or temporary variance request. WISHA may choose to issue an interim order in response to a variance request, even when the interim order wasn't specifically requested. Interim orders are effective until they are revoked, or until the variance request is granted or denied.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 49.17.010, 49.17.040, 49.17.050, 49.17.060. WSR 06-06-020, § 296-900-11010, filed 2/21/06, effective 6/1/06.]

You must:
- Apply for a temporary variance renewal at least ninety days before the temporary variance expires.
- Send a letter, explaining why more time is needed to fulfill the current requirements.

What to expect from WISHA:
- A review of the temporary variance renewal request.
- If more information is needed to make a decision, WISHA may:
  ■ Contact you or others who may have the needed information.
Visit your workplace after contacting you to make arrangements.

- Deny your request if you don't provide information needed to make a decision.

    - If denied, the written decision will include:
      ■ A brief statement with reasons for the denial.
      ■ The requirement to post the decision.

What to expect from WISHA:

- A review of your request to change a variance.
- If more information is needed to make a decision, WISHA may:
  ■ Contact you or others who may have the needed information.

  - A written decision either granting or denying the change in variance.
    - If granted, the written decision will include all of the following:
      ■ The requirements for which the variance applies.
      ■ The locations for which the variance applies.

These inspections may focus only on certain areas or processes in a workplace or, depending on initial findings, may be expanded to include the entire workplace. Unprogrammed inspections may occur because of:
    - Complaints from current employees or employee representatives who believe they have been exposed to a hazard because of a violation.

- "Division" or "DOSH" means the division of occupational safety and health, Washington state department of labor and industries.
- "Gravity" for purposes of calculating a penalty, means the amount calculated by multiplying a violation's severity rate by its probability rate.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 49.17.010, 49.17.040, 49.17.050, and 49.17.060. WSR 15-13-049, § 296-900-140, filed 6/9/15, effective 9/1/15; WSR 06-06-020, § 296-900-140, filed 2/21/06, effective 6/1/06.]

WAC 296-900-14005 Reasons for monetary penalties.
- DOSH may assess monetary penalties when a citation and notice is issued for any violation of safety and health rules or statutes.
- DOSH will assess monetary penalties under the following conditions:
  - When a citation and notice is issued for a serious, willful, or egregious violation.
  - When civil penalties are specified by statute as described in RCW 49.17.180.

Note: In addition to penalties specified by WISHA, there are penalties specified by other statutes, such as:
  - Asbestos construction projects, RCW 49.26.016.
  - Right to know (RTK)—MSDS, RCW 49.70.190.
  - Right to know—Penalty for late payment, RCW 49.70.177.
  - The minimum civil penalties assessed by DOSH are:
    - One hundred dollars for any penalty.
    - Two thousand five hundred dollars per violation for violations contributing to a fatality.
    - Five thousand dollars per violation for all willful violations.
  - Two hundred fifty dollars per day for asbestos good faith inspection (RCW 49.26.016 and 49.26.013).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 49.17.010, 49.17.040, 49.17.050, and 49.17.060. WSR 15-13-049, § 296-900-14005, filed 6/9/15, effective 9/1/15; WSR 06-06-020, § 296-900-14005, filed 2/21/06, effective 6/1/06.]

WAC 296-900-14010 Base penalties.
- DOSH calculates the base penalty for a violation by considering the following:
  - Specific amounts that are dictated by statute;
OR
- By assigning a weight to a violation, called "gravity." Gravity is calculated by multiplying a violation's severity rate by its probability rate. Expressed as a formula:

\[
\text{Gravity} = \text{Severity} \times \text{Probability}
\]

Note: Most base penalties are calculated by the gravity method.

- Severity and probability are established in the following ways:

  Severity:
  - Severity rates are based on the most serious injury, illness, or disease that could be reasonably expected to occur because of a hazardous condition.
  - Severity rates are expressed in whole numbers and range from 1 (lowest) to 3 (highest).
  - Tables 3 and 4 are used to determine the severity rate for a violation.

Probability:

Definition:

A probability rate is a number that describes the likelihood that an injury, illness, or disease will occur ranging from 1 (lowest) to 3 (highest). See Table 5.

- When determining probability, DOSH considers a variety of factors, depending on the situation, such as:
  - Frequency and amount of exposure.
  - Number of employees exposed.
  - Instances, or number of times, the hazard is identified in the workplace.
  - How close an employee is to the hazard, i.e., the proximity of the employee to the hazard.
  - Weather and other working conditions.
  - Employee skill level and training.
  - Employee awareness of the hazard.
  - The pace, speed, and nature of the task or work.
  - Use of personal protective equipment.
  - Other mitigating or contributing circumstances.

IMPORTANT:
- Employers may appeal C&Ns.
- Employees of the cited employer, or their designated representatives, may only appeal abatement dates.

You must:
- When appealing, submit a written appeal to DOSH within fifteen working days after receiving the C&N. Include the following information:
  - Business name, address, and telephone number.
  - Name, address, and telephone number of any employer representative.
  - C&N number.
  - What you believe is wrong with the C&N and any related facts.
  - What you believe should be changed, and why.

Note: The postmark is considered the submission date of a mailed request.

Employees or their designated representatives must:
- When appealing C&N abatement dates, submit a written request to DOSH within fifteen working days after the C&N is received. Include the following information:
  - Name of employee, address, telephone number.
  - Name, address, and telephone number of any designated representative.
  - C&N number.
  - What is believed to be wrong with the abatement date.
  - A signature and date.

    Olympia, WA 98504-4604
  - Fax to: 360-902-5581
  - Take to any L&I service location.

Definition:
Reassume jurisdiction means that DOSH has decided to provide the employer with an informal conference to discuss their appeal.
- When reassuming jurisdiction over a C&N, DOSH has thirty working days after receiving the appeal to review it, gather more information, and decide whether to make changes to the C&N. The review period:
  - Begins the first working day after the appeal is received. For example, if an appeal is received on Friday, the thirty days will begin on the following Monday unless it's a state holiday.
  - May be extended fifteen additional working days, if everyone involved agrees and signs an extension agreement within the initial thirty-day period.
  - Will include an informal conference about the appeal that is an opportunity for interested parties to:
    - Briefly explain their positions.
    - Provide any additional information they would like DOSH to consider when reviewing the C&N.
  - Provide any additional information they would like DOSH to consider when reviewing stay of abatement date requests.

Note:
DOSH might reassume jurisdiction over a C&N to do any of the following:
- Provide an employer and affected employees an opportunity to present relevant information, facts, and opinions during an informal conference.
- Give an employer, affected employees, and the department an opportunity to resolve appeals rapidly and without further contest, especially in routine compliance cases.
- Educate employers about the C&N, the DOSH appeals process, and DOSH compliance.
- Review citations, penalties, and abatement dates. Although informal, the conference is an official meeting and it may be either partially or totally recorded. Participants will be told if the conference is recorded.
- Review requests to stay abatement dates.

- On or before the end of the thirty working day review period, or forty-five working days if everyone involved agrees to the fifteen additional working day extension, DOSH will issue a corrective notice of redetermination that:
  - Reflects any changes made to the C&N.
  - Grants or denies requests to stay abatement dates and includes the basis of the decision.
  - Is sent to the employer, employees, and employee representatives participating in the appeal process.

WAC 296-900-17006 Stay of abatement date request.
(1) Employers may request stay of abatement dates for any violation classified as serious, willful, repeat serious, or failure to abate serious. Stay requests must be made in the notice of appeal under WAC 296-900-17005.

(2) Stay requests must include:
(a) Each violation and item number for which a stay is requested.
(b) The reason for the stay request.

(3) DOSH will review requests for stay of abatement dates for each violation requested. DOSH will stay the abatement date when an appeal is filed for any serious, willful, repeat serious, or failure to abate serious violation where DOSH cannot determine that the preliminary evidence shows a substantial probability of death or serious physical harm to workers.

(4) The basis for decisions on stay requests will be in the CNR.

(5) If a stay of abatement date is granted in the CNR and the employer appeals the CNR, the stay will remain in place until there is a final order on the appeal.

(6) If a stay of abatement date is denied in the CNR and the employer appeals the CNR further, the request for a stay of abatement date must be renewed according to WAC 296-900-17005.

(7) There is no requirement to abate a violation for which a stay request is pending.
