Chapter 132E-124 WAC

CONDUCT POLICIES ON COLLEGE CAMPUSES

WAC 132E-124-010 Everett—State of educational freedom.

(1) We, the board of trustees of Washington Community College District V, acting in accordance with the responsibilities imposed upon us by the law of the state, herein take notice that the college has prudently and effectively maintained a policy guaranteeing educational freedom to the faculty and to those it serves. The board of trustees sets forth the following statement as policy:

(a) In his writing and speaking he should seek accuracy.

(b) He should exercise appropriate restraint.

(c) He should show respect for the opinions of others and for freedom of expression among others.

(d) While writing or speaking as a private citizen he should clearly indicate that he is not a college spokesman.

We further believe that when any instructor speaks or writes as a private citizen he is entitled to all the rights of his citizenship and he must assume the responsibility for his own actions.

(5) We encourage inviting to the college speakers who represent diverse points of view. Such speakers are expected to regard this privilege as entailing the same responsibilities and obligations as those faced by instructors. We, moreover, will always assure ourselves that the event is in no way an abuse of that privilege. In the discussion of sensitive issues the board of trustees reserves the right, either by its own act or by delegation, to impose conditions upon these speakers which will insure the opportunity to challenge these views. The trustees further insist that there shall be left no implication by the college of approval or disapproval of either the speakers or their views.

(6) We encourage student organizations which are officially recognized by the college to invite speakers to the campus providing suitable space is available and there is no interference with the regularly scheduled program of the college.

(7) In order to provide an atmosphere of open exchange and to ensure that the educational objectives of the college are not obscured, the president may prescribe conditions for the conduct of the meeting in any case which may be attended by extreme emotional feeling. Such action may include designating a member of the faculty to be chairman, and/or requiring permission for comments and questions from the floor. Likewise the president may require the appearance of one or more additional speakers at the meeting in question, or at a subsequent meeting, so that other points of view may be expressed. He shall also prescribe the regulations for the advanced planning of all meetings to be addressed by outside speakers and may designate representatives to recommend conditions for the conduct of particular meetings.

(8) The board of trustees will neither authorize nor tolerate actions by any speaker during a meeting which:

(a) Incite the audience to riot or violate state or federal laws.

(b) Advocate the overthrow, destruction, or alteration of the constitutional form of government of the United States, or of the state of Washington, or any political subdivision of either of them by revolution, force or violence.

(9) The president or his duly delegated representative shall be charged with the responsibility of carrying out and implementing the policy enumerated herein.
