WAC 357-16-010 What authority do general government employers have to recruit applicants, assess candidates, and certify candidates for hiring consideration? Under the authority of the director, general government employers may carry out the activities detailed in chapter 357-16 WAC including recruiting, creating and maintaining pools of eligible candidates, assessing candidates, and determining the certified pool. At anytime, the director may designate the department of enterprise services to carry out any of these activities on the employer's behalf.
WAC 357-16-015 What authority do higher education employers have to recruit applicants, assess candidates, and certify candidates for hiring consideration?
Higher education employers are authorized under RCW 41.06.133 and 41.06.150 to carry out the activities detailed in chapter 357-16 WAC including recruiting, creating and maintaining pools of eligible candidates, assessing candidates, and determining the certified pool.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. WSR 11-23-054, § 357-16-010, filed 11/10/11, effective 12/13/11; WSR 05-01-200, § 357-16-010, filed 12/21/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-16-020 Who is responsible for determining what recruitment methods are appropriate to meet the hiring needs of the employer? Employers may use the recruiting methods that they determine to be most appropriate for their hiring needs when soliciting job seekers or establishing pools of eligible applicants.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. WSR 11-23-054, § 357-16-020, filed 11/10/11, effective 12/13/11; WSR 05-01-200, § 357-16-015, filed 12/21/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-16-030 For affirmative action purposes, may employers add job seekers who are affected group members to applicant pools? For affirmative action purposes, employers may at any time recruit and screen persons with disabilities, Vietnam era veterans, disabled veterans, and persons age forty and over for placement in eligible applicant pools in those areas where goals exist.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. WSR 11-23-054, § 357-16-030, filed 11/10/11, effective 12/13/11; WSR 05-01-200, § 357-16-030, filed 12/21/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-16-055 Can the employer apply screening methodologies to limit the number of eligible applicants considered or admitted to an examination?
When the number of job seekers is expected to result in a number of eligible applicants that exceeds the employer's needs or the number of eligible applicants is expected to result in a pool of candidates that exceeds the employer's needs, the employer may apply screening methods to limit the number of eligible applicants to be considered further or admitted to an examination.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. WSR 11-23-054, § 357-16-055, filed 12/21/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-16-085 What are the requirements for developing and administering examinations?
Examinations must be based upon documented job analysis that identifies the competencies needed to perform successfully in a position. Any examination must be administered uniformly to those individuals being examined unless reasonable accommodation in the examination process has been requested and granted. A person with a visible disability which might interfere with his/her ability to do the job may be asked to demonstrate how he/she would do specific, job related tasks.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. WSR 05-01-200, § 357-16-085, filed 12/21/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-16-090 Who has the responsibility for requesting and granting reasonable accommodation in the examination process?
An applicant or candidate who needs reasonable accommodation in the examination process is responsible for requesting reasonable accommodation. The employer is responsible for providing reasonable accommodation unless the employer can demonstrate undue hardship. The employer must publish information regarding the procedure for requesting accommodation.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. WSR 05-01-200, § 357-16-090, filed 12/21/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-16-095 How must exams be scored?
Examinations must be scored using a consistent rating or scoring procedure that rates job-related competencies identified through job analysis.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. WSR 05-01-200, § 357-16-095, filed 12/21/04, effective 7/1/05.]

[Ch. 357-16 WAC p. 2]
WAC 357-16-105 Must an employee be granted leave with pay to take an examination or participate in an interview during scheduled work hours? In accordance with WAC 357-31-325, an employee must be granted leave with pay to take an examination or participate in an interview during scheduled work hours when applying or being considered for a position with a state agency, higher education institution or related higher education board.

WAC 357-16-110 Do veterans receive any preference in the hiring process? (1) If an employer is administering an examination prior to certification, the employer must grant preference to veterans in accordance with the veterans scoring criteria provisions of RCW 41.04.010.

(2) If no examination is administered prior to certification, the employer must refer the following individuals to the employing official under the provisions of RCW 73.16.010 as long as the individual meets the competencies and other position requirements:

(a) Eligible veterans;
(b) Surviving spouses or registered domestic partners of eligible veterans; or
(c) Spouses or registered domestic partners of honorably discharged veterans who have a service connected permanent and total disability.

WAC 357-16-115 Can an employer decline to further consider eligible applicants or candidates during the assessment process? Employers may end consideration of an eligible applicant or candidate at any time during the assessment process for job-related reasons including, but not limited to, an applicant or candidate lacking required competencies, or not satisfying other requirements such as shift or geographical availability. Those applicants or candidates removed from consideration for position specific reasons may remain eligible to be considered for other positions.

WAC 357-16-120 How does the employer determine which eligible candidates to certify to the employing official for hiring consideration? Each employer must have a written certification procedure that specifies how the employer will determine the pool of eligible candidates to be certified to the employing official.

WAC 357-16-125 What must be specified in the employer's certification procedure? The employer's certification procedure must:

1. Specify how the employer determines the pool of eligible candidates to be certified to the employing official in accordance with WAC 357-16-130;
2. Specify how the employer determines the number of names certified if the number of eligible candidates certified to the employing official is limited;
3. Provide for veterans' preference in accordance with WAC 357-16-110;
4. Provide for supplemental certification of affected group members in accordance with WAC 357-16-135;
5. Require that employment officials consider all eligible candidates certified;
6. Provide for optional consideration of employees who have completed employer-approved training programs and are determined by the employer to meet the competencies and other position requirements;
7. For general government employers, must provide for consideration of transition pool candidates when a certified pool contains eligible candidates other than candidates from the employer's internal or statewide layoff list or the employer's internal promotional eligible candidates; and
8. Address when the employer will certify qualified individuals seeking reemployment under the provisions of WAC 357-19-470.

WAC 357-16-130 In what order are eligible candidates certified to the employing official for hiring consideration? Only eligible candidates who satisfy the competencies and other requirements of the position to be filled will be certified. The order for certifying must follow these criteria:

1. If there are names on the employer's internal layoff list for the class, all eligible candidates on the internal layoff list are certified to the employing official. Internal promotional candidates, as defined by the employer's promotional policy, may also be certified.
2. If there are no names on the internal layoff list, the employer:
   a. Must certify all statewide layoff candidates who satisfy the competencies and other position requirements.
   b. May then certify other available eligible candidates. Any preference granted to promotional candidates must be in accordance with the employer's promotional policies as required by WAC 357-16-150.
3. General government employers must certify transition pool candidates, who satisfy the competencies and other position requirements, when a certified pool contains eligible candidates other than layoff or internal promotional candidates.

WAC 357-16-135 When may an employer certify candidates for affirmative action purposes? An employer may use supplemental certification to add to the certified pool when:
WAC 357-16-140 Who may be certified using supplemental certification? Supplemental certification may apply to eligible goal area candidates who meet the competencies and other position requirements and are members of the affected groups of persons with disabilities, Vietnam era veterans, disabled veterans, or persons of age forty and over.

WAC 357-16-150 Must employers develop a promotional policy? Each employer must have a written promotional policy which:

1. Defines who is considered a promotional candidate, including whether probationary employees and permanent employees who have left the employer to accept project or nonpermanent appointments with other employers are considered as promotional candidates;
2. Identifies the employer's promotional organizational units, if any;
3. Identifies how promotional preference will be applied in recruitment and certification, if at all; and
4. Specifies the duration of any promotional candidate lists or pools.

WAC 357-16-155 Can an individual's name be removed from an applicant or candidate pool for a class or all classes in a class series? An employer may disqualify an individual by removing the individual's name from an applicant and/or candidate pool for a class or all classes in a class series at any time for good and sufficient reason.

WAC 357-16-157 Is an eligible's name removed from applicant and/or candidate pools when he/she is appointed to a position? An eligible's name may be removed from the applicant and/or candidate pool for the class to which he/she is appointed and all lower classes in the same class series.

WAC 357-16-160 Must an applicant or candidate who has been removed for good and sufficient reason per WAC 357-16-155 be notified of the removal? When an applicant or candidate is removed from an applicant or candidate pool for good and sufficient reason per WAC 357-16-155, the employer must notify the applicant or candidate at the time of the removal. The notice must be in writing and specify the reason for the removal. The notice must explain the right to request a review of the removal under the provisions of WAC 357-16-170, 357-16-175 and 357-16-180. For purposes of this rule, written notice may be provided using alternative methods such as email, campus mail, the state mail service, or commercial parcel delivery in accordance with WAC 357-04-105.

WAC 357-16-170 Can an applicant or candidate request a review of their examination results or the removal of their name from an applicant or candidate pool? An applicant or candidate may request a review of their examination results or the removal of their name from an applicant or candidate pool when the removal is due to good and sufficient reason under the provisions of WAC 357-16-155.

WAC 357-16-175 When must an applicant or candidate request a review of the results of an examination or removal from an applicant or candidate pool? If an applicant or candidate requests a review of the results of an examination or removal from an applicant or candidate pool, the request must be received at the employer's office within twenty calendar days following notice of the action for which a review is requested.

WAC 357-16-177 What procedure must an employer use to review an applicant's or candidate's examination results or the removal of his/her name from an applicant or candidate pool under the provisions of WAC 357-16-170? Each employer must develop a review procedure that specifies the procedure the employer will use to review an applicant's or candidate's examination results or name removal from a pool. The procedure must minimally specify that the review will be conducted by a representative of the employer that was not involved in the action under review.
WAC 357-16-180  Are assessment review decisions subject to appeal? Review decisions made under the provisions of WAC 357-16-170 are final and not subject to further review or appeal.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. WSR 05-01-187, § 357-16-180, filed 12/21/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-16-190  What happens if an individual is certified in error? The director or the employer may invalidate the trial service or probationary appointment of an individual who was not eligible to be certified, but was certified in error.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. WSR 05-01-200, § 357-16-190, filed 12/21/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-16-195  Can an eligible candidate be required to pass a medical or psychological examination? After a conditional offer of employment is made, an eligible candidate may be required to pass a medical or psychological examination relevant to the demands of the work.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. WSR 05-01-200, § 357-16-195, filed 12/21/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-16-200  If a medical or psychological examination is required, who pays for it? The employer is responsible for the cost of any medical or psychological examination required under WAC 357-16-195.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. WSR 05-01-200, § 357-16-200, filed 12/21/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-16-205  If a job-related disability is revealed during a medical or psychological examination what is the employer's responsibility? If a medical or psychological examination reveals a job-related disability and the candidate is otherwise qualified, the employer must consider ways to provide reasonable accommodation for the disability before making an appointment decision.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. WSR 05-01-200, § 357-16-205, filed 12/21/04, effective 7/1/05.]
